Old Testament: Isaiah 55:1-5
Epistle: Romans 9:1-13
Gospel: Matthew 14:13-21

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all. Amen.

The text for our sermon for this morning is written in the book of Matthew 14:13-21 which was our gospel reading before 13 When Jesus heard what had happened, He withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place to be alone. The crowds heard about it and followed Him on foot from the cities. 14 When Jesus came out of the boat, He saw a large crowd. His heart was filled with pity for them and He healed their sick. 15 In the evening His disciples came to Him and said, “This is a deserted place and it is already late. Send the crowds away, that they may go into the villages to buy some food for themselves!” 16 Jesus answered them, “They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat!” 17 They told Him, “We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish.” 18 He said, “Bring them here to Me!” 19 He ordered the people to sit down on the grass. He took the five loaves and the two fish, looked up to heaven, said a blessing, and broke the loaves. He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. 20 All of them had enough to eat. They took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. 21 The number of men who had eaten was about five thousand, not counting the women and children.
