charge of the freewill offerings made to God and distributed the contributions made to the LORD and the most holy gifts. <sup>15</sup> Eden, Miniamin, Jeshua, Shemaiah, Amariah and Shecaniah were faithfully assisting him in the cities of the priests and made a distribution to their relatives, old and young alike, in their various divisions. <sup>16</sup> In addition, they distributed to the males who were three years old and more and who had registered themselves in family records, to all who would enter the Temple of the LORD to perform the daily duties for which each division was responsible. <sup>17</sup> They also distributed to the priests who had registered themselves by their paternal families and to the Levites who were twenty years old and more, according to their responsibilities in their various divisions. <sup>18</sup> They distributed to the whole community that had enrolled in the genealogical records with all their little ones, their wives, their sons and their daughters. For they faithfully consecrated themselves and kept themselves holy. <sup>19</sup> Men were designated by name in every city to distribute portions to every male among the priests, who were descendants of Aaron and who lived in the pasturelands around their cities. They also distributed portions to all who had registered themselves among the Levites in the family-records. <sup>20</sup> This is what Hezekiah did throughout Judah. He did what was good, right and faithful before the LORD, his God. <sup>21</sup> He was intent on his God in every work that he undertook in the service of the Temple of God and in accordance with the Law and the Commandments. He did it with all his heart and was successful.

The invasion of Judah by the Assyrians under Sennacherib and God's deliverance of Judah from them — 2 Kings 18:17-35, 19:1-34, Isaiah 36:2-20

<sup>1</sup> After these things, which Hezekiah had done so faithfully, Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, came and invaded Judah. He besieged the fortified cities, intending to storm through them and win them. <sup>2</sup> When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come and intended to make war on Jerusalem, <sup>3</sup> he consulted with his officials and his capable soldiers about blocking off the water from the springs that were outside the city, and they helped him to do it. <sup>4</sup> Many people assembled and blocked off all the springs and the brook that flooded through the land. They asked, "Why should the kings of Assyria come and find plenty of water?"

<sup>5</sup> Hezekiah rallied his strength and built up the entire wall that had been broken down and raised it to the level of the towers. He also built another wall outside it and reinforced the supporting terraces of the City of David. He also made large numbers of weapons and shields. <sup>6</sup> He appointed military commanders over the soldiers, assembled them before him in the square at the gate of the city and encouraged them with these words: <sup>7</sup> "Be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid or dismayed because of the king of Assyria and the entire horde that is with him! For there is more with us than there is with him. <sup>8</sup> With him there is an arm of flesh, but with us there is the LORD, our God, to help us and to fight our battles."

The people gained confidence from what Hezekiah, the king of Judah, had said. <sup>9</sup> After this, Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, who was besieging Lachish with all his forces, sent his officials to Hezekiah, the king of Judah, at Jerusalem and to all the people of Judah who were in Jerusalem, to say, <sup>10</sup> "This is what Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, has asked: 'On what are you trusting, that you are living in Jerusalem under siege?' <sup>11</sup> Is not Hezekiah misleading you, that he may give you over to die by famine and by thirst, when he tells you, 'The LORD, our God, will deliver us from the power of the king of Assyria'?" <sup>12</sup> Has not Hezekiah himself removed His high places and His altars and told Judah and Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before one altar and burn sacrifices on it!'" <sup>13</sup> Do you not know what my fathers and I have done to all the peoples of the other countries? Were the gods of those other countries able at all to deliver their countries from my hand? <sup>14</sup> Who was there among all the gods of these nations, which my fathers have devoted to destruction, who could deliver his people from my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you from my hand? <sup>15</sup> Now therefore, do not let Hezekiah deceive you or mislead you like this! Do not believe him! For no god of any other nation or kingdom has been able to deliver his people from my hand or from the hands of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you from my hand!"

<sup>16</sup> Sennacherib's officers said still more against the LORD God and against His servant Hezekiah. <sup>17</sup> The king also wrote letters to insult the LORD, the God of Israel, and to oppose Him by saying: "Like the gods of the nations of the other lands who have not delivered their people from my hands, so the God of Hezekiah will not deliver His people from my hand."

<sup>18</sup> They shouted loudly in the language of Judah to the people of Jerusalem, who were on the wall, to intimidate and terrify them, that they might capture the city. <sup>19</sup> They spoke about the God of Jerusalem as they spoke about the gods of the other peoples of the earth, which human hands had made.

The defeat of the king of Assyria at Jerusalem — 2 Kings 19:35-37, Isaiah 37:36-38

<sup>20</sup> King Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, prayed about this and cried out to heaven.

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD sent an angel, who destroyed all the brave soldiers, commanders and other officers in the camp of the king of Assyria. So, he returned shame-faced to his own country. When he went into the temple of his god, some of his own sons struck him down there with the sword. <sup>22</sup> So, the LORD saved Hezekiah and the people living in Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib, the king of Assyria and from the hand of all others. He gave them rest on every side. <sup>23</sup> Many people kept bringing offerings to the LORD at Jerusalem and precious gifts to Hezekiah, the king of Judah. From then on, all the other nations highly respected him.

The cure of Hezekiah's illness — 2 Kings 20:1-11, Isaiah 37:14-38, 38:1-8, 21-22

<sup>24</sup> In those days Hezekiah became ill and was about to die. He prayed to the LORD, and He answered him and gave him a miraculous sign. <sup>25</sup> However, Hezekiah did not repay the kindness shown to him, but his heart became proud. Therefore, God was angry with him and with Judah and Jerusalem.

Other events during the reign of Hezekiah — 2 Kings 20:12-21

<sup>26</sup> However, Hezekiah humbled himself because he had been proud in heart, and those who were living in Jerusalem also did the same. So, the wrath of the LORD did not come on them during the time of Hezekiah.

The prosperity and achievements of Hezekiah — 2 Kings 20:12-19

<sup>27</sup> Hezekiah had very great riches and honour and made for himself treasuries for silver, gold, precious stones, perfumes, shields and for all other kinds of precious articles. <sup>28</sup> He also made storehouses for the yield of grain, wine and olive-oil, stalls for all kinds of cattle and stalls for the flocks. <sup>29</sup> He also provided cities for himself with many sheep and cattle. For God had given him very much property. <sup>30</sup> Hezekiah was the one who blocked off the upper outlet of the water of the Gihon spring and channelled the water underground to the western side of the City of David. Hezekiah was successful in everything he did.

The permission for the envoys from Babylon to inspect the treasures in Jerusalem — Isaiah 39:1-8

<sup>31</sup> Therefore, in the matter of the ambassadors who had been sent to him by the princes of Babylon to inquire about the miraculous sign that had occurred in the land, God left him to himself, to test him and to find out all that was in his heart.

The death of Hezekiah — 2 Kings 20:20-21

33

The reign of Manasseh as king of Judah — 2 Kings 21:1-9

<sup>1</sup> Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for fifty-five years. <sup>2</sup> He did what the LORD regarded as evil, following the detestable practices of the nations that the LORD had driven out ahead of the Israelites. <sup>3</sup> He rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had broken down, erected altars to the Baals and made Asherah-poles. He worshipped all the starry host of the sky and served them. <sup>4</sup> He kept building altars in the Temple of the LORD, about which the LORD had said: "My name will be in Jerusalem for ever." <sup>5</sup> He built altars for the whole starry host of the sky in the two courts of the Temple of the LORD. <sup>6</sup> He burned his own sons in the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, kept practising sorcery, observing omens, engaged in witchcraft and consulted spirits of the dead and familiar spirits. He did much that the LORD considered evil, so that he provoked Him to anger. <sup>7</sup> He placed a carved image, the idol that he had made, in the Temple of God, about which God told David and his son Solomon: "In this Temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I shall put My name for ever, <sup>8</sup> and shall not again make the feet of the Israelites leave the land that I have appointed for your fathers, if only they carefully put into practice all that I have commanded them, all the Law, the Statutes and the Decisions given through Moses."

<sup>9</sup> Manasseh led Judah and the people living in Jerusalem astray, so that they did more evil than the nations that the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites. <sup>10</sup> Although the LORD spoke to Manasseh and to his people, they paid no attention.

The restoration of Manasseh after repentance

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, the LORD brought against them the commanders of the army of the king of Assyria, who captured Manasseh, put hooks in his nose, tied him up with bronze fetters and took him to Babylon. <sup>12</sup> When he was in distress, he was intent on the favour of the LORD, his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. <sup>13</sup> He prayed to Him, and God was moved by his entreaty, heard his plea and brought him back into his kingdom at Jerusalem. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD is God. <sup>14</sup> After this, he built the outer wall of the City of David west of the Gihon spring, in the valley, as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate. He made it go around Ophel and made it much higher. He also stationed military commanders in all the fortified cities in Judah. <sup>15</sup> He removed the foreign gods and the idol from the Temple of the LORD and all the altars that he had built on the mountain of the Temple of the LORD and in Jerusalem and threw them outside of the city. <sup>16</sup> He also rebuilt the altar of the LORD, sacrificed peace-offerings and thank-offerings on it and told Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>17</sup> Nevertheless, the people still kept sacrificing on the high places, although only to the LORD, their God.

The death of Manasseh — 2 Kings 21:17-18

<sup>18</sup> The rest of the acts of Manasseh, his prayer to his God and the Words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, have indeed been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel. <sup>19</sup> His prayer and how God was moved by his entreaty, all his sin and his unfaithfulness and the sites on which he built high places and set up the Asherah-poles and the images, before he humbled himself, have indeed been recorded in the Chronicles of Hozai.

<sup>21</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for two years. <sup>22</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil, as his father Manasseh had been doing. Amon offered sacrifices to all the images that his father Manasseh had made and served them. <sup>23</sup> He did not humble himself before the LORD, as his father Manasseh had humbled himself but this Amon incurred more guilt. <sup>24</sup> Amon's officials formed a conspiracy against him and killed him in his own palace. <sup>25</sup> However, the people of the land struck down all those who had conspired against King Amon. The people of the land made his son Josiah king to succeed him.

The reign of Josiah as king of Judah — 2 Kings 22:1-2

<sup>8</sup> In the eighteenth year of his reign, to cleanse the land and the Temple, he sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah, Maaseiah, the governor of the city, and Joah, the son of Joahaz, the recorder, to repair the Temple of the LORD, his God. <sup>9</sup> They came to Hilkiah, the High Priest, and gave him the money that had been brought into the Temple of God, which the Levites, who were the keepers of the threshold, had collected from Manasseh, Ephraim, all who were left in Israel, from all Judah and Benjamin and from those who were living in Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> They gave it to the men who had been appointed to carry out the work in the Temple of the LORD. These men paid the workers who were repairing and restoring the Temple. <sup>11</sup> They also gave it to the carpenters and the builders to buy quarried stone, timber for ties and beams for the buildings that the kings of Judah had allowed to fall into ruin. <sup>12</sup> The men did the work conscientiously under the supervision of Jahath and Obadiah, who were Levites who belonged to the descendants of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, who belonged to the descendants of Kohath. All the Levites, who were skilled in playing instruments of music, <sup>13</sup> were also in charge of men who were carrying loads and supervised all who were working in any kind of service. Some of the Levites were also secretaries, administrative officers and gatekeepers.

<sup>14</sup> While they were bringing out the money that had been taken into the Temple of the LORD, the priest Hilkiah found the Book of the Law of the LORD that had come from the hand of Moses. <sup>15</sup> Then Hilkiah informed Shaphan, the secretary, "I have found the Book of the Law in the Temple of the LORD."

Then Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan. <sup>16</sup> Shaphan took the book to the king and made the additional report to the king: "Your servants are doing everything that has been assigned to them. <sup>17</sup> Your servants have paid out the money that was available in the Temple of the LORD and have given it to the supervisors and to those who are doing the work."

Then Shaphan read from it before the king. <sup>19</sup> When the king heard what the Law said, he tore his clothes.

<sup>22</sup> So, Hilkiah and the others whom the king had appointed went to the prophetess Huldah, the wife of Shallum, the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, the keeper of the wardrobe. Huldah was living in the Second District of Jerusalem. They told her about this.

<sup>23</sup> She answered them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: 'Tell the man who has sent you to me, <sup>24</sup> "This is what the LORD has said, 'Look! I shall bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses that have been written in the book that they have read before the king of Judah. <sup>25</sup> Because they have forsaken Me and have been burning offerings to other gods, so that they have been provoking Me to anger with all that they have been making with their hands, My wrath will be poured out on this place and will not be quenched.'"

‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: “Concerning the Words that you have heard, <sup>27</sup> because your heart was responsive and you humbled yourself before God when you heard His Words against this place and against its inhabitants, because you humbled yourself before Me, have torn your clothes and have wept before Me, I also have heard you,” declares the LORD.’ <sup>28</sup> Look! I shall gather you to your fathers, and you will be buried in your grave in peace. Your own eyes will not see all the calamity that I shall bring on this place and its inhabitants.”

So, they reported this to the king.

<sup>29</sup> Then the king sent a message and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>30</sup> The king, all the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites and all the people, both great and small, went up to the Temple of the LORD. While they listened, he read all the Words of the Book of the Covenant, which had been found in the Temple of the LORD. <sup>31</sup> The king stood in his place and made a covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD and to keep His Commandments, His Testimonies and His Prescriptions, with all his heart and all his soul, to put into practice the Words of the Covenant that had been written in this book. <sup>32</sup> Then he made all who were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin stand by it. The inhabitants of Jerusalem acted in accordance with the Covenant of God, the God of their fathers. <sup>33</sup> Josiah removed all the detestable idols from all the territories that belonged to the Israelites and made all who were present in Israel serve the LORD, their God. All his life they did not turn away from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

35

The celebration of the Passover at the time of Josiah — 2 Kings 23:21-23

over offerings for all who were present, a total of thirty thousand lambs and young goats from the flock and three thousand bulls. These came from the king’s own property. <sup>8</sup> His officials also contributed willingly to the people, to the priests and to the Levites. Hilkiah, Zechariah and Jehiel, the chief officers of the Temple of God, gave two thousand, six hundred Passover lambs and three hundred bulls to the priests for the Passover offerings. <sup>9</sup> Conaniah, his brothers Shemaiah and Nethanel and Hashabiah, Jeiel and Jozabad, the leaders of the Levites, also contributed five thousand lambs and young goats and five hundred bulls to the Levites as the Passover offerings. <sup>10</sup> When the service had been prepared, the priests stood in their places and the Levites stood in their divisions as the king had commanded. <sup>11</sup> They slaughtered the Passover lambs, the priests poured out the blood that was handed to them and the Levites removed the skins. <sup>12</sup> They set aside the burnt offerings that they might distribute them to the subdivisions of the paternal families of the lay people, that they might present them to the LORD, as had been written in the Book of Moses. They did the same with the cattle. <sup>13</sup> They roasted the Passover lambs in fire as had been prescribed. They boiled the holy offerings in pots, cauldrons and pans and carried them quickly to all the lay people. <sup>14</sup> After this, they prepared for themselves and for the priests. For the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were offering the burnt offerings and the fat portions until night. So, the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the descendants of Aaron. <sup>15</sup> The singers, the descendants of Asaph, were in their positions as David, Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun, the king’s seer, had prescribed. The gatekeepers were also at each gate. They did not need to interrupt their service, for their relatives, the Levites, prepared for them. <sup>16</sup> So, the whole service of the LORD was carried out on that day, so that the Passover was celebrated and burnt offerings were made on the altar of the LORD, as King Josiah had commanded. <sup>17</sup> The Israelites who were present celebrated the Passover at that time, as well as the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days. <sup>18</sup> No Passover like it had been celebrated in Israel since the days of the prophet Samuel. None of the other kings of Israel had celebrated a Passover like the one celebrated by Josiah, the priests, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present and those who were living in Jerusalem.

The defeat of Judah by Pharaoh-Neco and the death of Josiah — 2 Kings 23:28-30

<sup>20</sup> After all this, after Josiah had set the Temple in order, Neco, the king of Egypt, went up to fight at Carchemish on the Euphrates, and Josiah went out to confront him. <sup>21</sup> However, Neco sent messengers to him, to say: “What is your quarrel with me, king of Judah? I am not attacking you yourself today but the dynasty with which I am at war. God has commanded me to act quickly. So, stop opposing God, who is with me, and let Him not destroy you!”

<sup>22</sup> Nevertheless, Josiah did not turn away from him but disguised himself to fight with him. He did not listen to what Neco said at God’s command but went to fight in the valley of Megiddo. <sup>23</sup> When the archers shot King Josiah, the king told his officials, “Take me away! For I have been badly wounded.”

The reign of Jehoahaz as king of Judah — 2 Kings 23:31-33

<sup>1</sup> Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz, the son of Josiah and made him king to succeed his father in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for three months. <sup>3</sup> The king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and levied a fine of three thousand, five hundred kilograms of silver and thirty-five kilograms of gold on the country. <sup>4</sup> The king of Egypt made his brother Eliakim king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed his name to Jehoiakim.<sup>115</sup> Neco took Eliakim’s brother, Jehoahaz, and brought him to Egypt.

The reign of Jehoiakim as king of Judah and his captivity — 2 Kings 23:34-24:7

<sup>5</sup> Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. He did what the LORD, his God, considered evil. <sup>6</sup> Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, came up against him and tied him up with bronze shackles to take him to Babylon. <sup>7</sup> Nebuchadnezzar also took some articles from the Temple of the LORD to Babylon and put them in his temple in Babylon. <sup>8</sup> The rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, the detestable things that he did and what was found against him have indeed been written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. His son Jehoiachin succeeded him as king.

The reign of Jehoiachin as king of Judah and his captivity — 2 Kings 24:8-17

<sup>9</sup> Jehoiachin was eight years old when he became king and reigned in Jerusalem for three months and ten days. He did what the LORD regarded as evil. <sup>10</sup> In the spring of that year King Nebuchadnezzar sent men to fetch him to Babylon, together with the precious articles from the Temple of the LORD and made his relative, Zedekiah, king over Judah and Jerusalem.

The reign of Zedekiah as king of Judah — 2 Kings 24:18-20, Jeremiah 52:1-3

<sup>11</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. <sup>12</sup> He did what the LORD, his God, regarded as evil. He did not humble himself before the prophet Jeremiah, who spoke the Word of the LORD. <sup>13</sup> He also rebelled against King Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear an oath by God. He became stubborn and hardened his heart against turning back to the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>14</sup> All the leaders of the priests and also the people became increasingly unfaithful, following all the detestable practices of the other nations. They polluted the Temple of the LORD, which He had consecrated at Jerusalem.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, He brought up the king of the Chaldeans against them. He killed their young men with the sword in the Temple that was their shrine. He took no pity on young men or virgins, old men or decrepit people. God put them all in his hands. <sup>18</sup> He carried to Babylon all the vessels of the Temple of God, great and small and the treasures of the Temple of the LORD, as well as the treasures of the king and of his officials. He took them all to Babylon. <sup>19</sup> They burned the Temple of God, broke down the wall of Jerusalem, burned down all its palaces and destroyed all its precious articles. <sup>20</sup> He took those who had escaped from the sword into exile in Babylon, and they became his servants and the servants of his own sons until the kingdom of Persia came to power. <sup>21</sup> This happened to fulfil the Word of the LORD spoken through Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its Sabbath rests. All the time during which it lay desolate it rested, to fulfil seventy years.

<sup>1</sup> In the first year of Cyrus, the king of Persia, that the Word of the LORD spoken by Jeremiah might be fulfilled, the LORD moved the heart of Cyrus, the king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout his kingdom and put it in writing:

The letter of Cyrus

<sup>2</sup> “This is what Cyrus, the king of Persia has said: ‘The LORD, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the world and has given me the responsibility of building a Temple for Him at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. <sup>3</sup> Whoever there is among you out of all His people, may his God be with him! He should go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and rebuild the Temple of the LORD, the God of Israel! He is the God who is in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> The men of any place where any survivor is living as a foreigner should assist him with silver, gold, goods and livestock, together with freewill offerings for the Temple of God at Jerusalem!’”

<sup>5</sup> Then the leaders of the paternal families of Judah and Benjamin, the priests, the Levites and everyone else whose heart God had moved prepared to go up to rebuild the Temple of the LORD at Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> All who were living around them supported them with articles of silver, with gold, with goods, with livestock and with precious gifts, in addition to all that they gave as freewill offerings. <sup>7</sup> King Cyrus also brought out the articles belonging to the Temple of the LORD that Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and had placed in the temple of his god. <sup>8</sup> Cyrus, the king of Persia had these brought out under the supervision of Mithredath, the treasurer, and he made a catalogue of them for Sheshbazzar, the leading man of Judah. <sup>9</sup> This was the inventory of them: thirty golden basins, one thousand silver basins, twenty-nine knives, <sup>10</sup> thirty golden bowls, four hundred and ten matching silver bowls and one thousand other articles. <sup>11</sup> In all, there were five thousand, four hundred golden and silver articles. Sheshbazzar took all these up with him when the exiles were led up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

thousand, three hundred and sixty, <sup>65</sup> besides their male and female servants, of whom there were seven thousand, three hundred and thirty-seven. They also had two hundred male and female singers.

<sup>68</sup> When some of the heads of paternal families came to the Temple of the LORD in Jerusalem, they made freewill offerings toward the rebuilding of the Temple of God on its site. <sup>69</sup> According to their ability they gave sixty-one thousand drachmas of gold, two thousand, five hundred kilograms of silver and one hundred priests' garments to the treasury for this work.

<sup>1</sup> When the seventh month had come and when the Israelites were in the cities, the people assembled as one man in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> Then Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and his relatives, the priests and Zerub-Babel, the son of Shealtiel, and his relatives, acted and built the altar of the God of Israel, to sacrifice burnt offerings on it, in accordance with what has been written in the Law of Moses, the man of God. <sup>3</sup> They built the altar on its foundations although they had become terrified of the peoples of the neighbouring countries. Then they offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, both the morning and evening burnt offerings. <sup>4</sup> They celebrated the Feast of Tabernacles, as Scripture had prescribed. They also sacrificed the required number of daily burnt offerings, as had been prescribed for each day. <sup>5</sup> After that, they presented the regular burnt offerings, the offerings at the New Moon and at all the holy appointed feasts of the LORD, as well as the freewill offerings that anyone made to the LORD. <sup>6</sup> They began to make burnt offerings to the LORD from the first day of the seventh month, although the foundation of the Temple of the LORD had not yet been laid.

The beginning of work on the Temple

<sup>7</sup> Then they paid money to the masons and the carpenters and supplied food, drink and olive-oil to the people of Sidon and Tyre to bring cedar logs by sea from Lebanon to Joppa, as Cyrus, the king of Persia, had permitted them to do.

The laying of the foundation of the Temple

<sup>8</sup> In the second month of the second year after they had arrived at the site of the Temple of God at Jerusalem, Zerub-Babel, the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, together with the rest of their fellow-countrymen, the priests, the Levites and all the others who had come from the exile to Jerusalem, made a beginning. They appointed the Levites who were twenty years of age and older to supervise the work on the Temple of the LORD. <sup>9</sup> Jeshua with his sons and his brothers and Kadmiel with his sons, who were descendants of Judah, along with the sons of Henadad and their sons and brothers, who were Levites, joined together to supervise those who were working on the Temple of God. <sup>10</sup> When the builders had laid the foundation of the Temple of the LORD, the priests in their vestments took their positions with trumpets, together with the Levites, the descendants of Asaph, who had cymbals, to praise the LORD, as David, the king of Israel, had directed. <sup>11</sup> They sang responsively, praising and giving thanks to the LORD: "For He is good, for His faithful love endures for ever toward Israel."

All the people shouted very loudly when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the Temple of the LORD had been laid. <sup>12</sup> However, many of the priests and Levites and the old men who were the heads of paternal families and who had seen the former Temple, were weeping aloud when they saw the foundation of this Temple being laid, although many others were shouting aloud for joy. <sup>13</sup> Consequently the people could not distinguish the sound of the joyful shouting from the sound of the weeping of the people. For the people were shouting very loudly and the sound could be heard far away.

<sup>1</sup> When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin heard that the people who had been in exile were building a Temple to the LORD, the God of Israel, <sup>2</sup> they approached Zerub-Babel and the heads of paternal families and asked them: "Let us build with you! For we worship your God as you do. We have been sacrificing to Him ever since the time of Esarhaddon, the king of Assyria, who brought us here."

<sup>3</sup> Zerub-Babel, Jeshua and the rest of the heads of paternal families in Israel told them: "You have no role together with us in building a Temple to our God. Rather, we ourselves alone shall build it for the LORD, the God of Israel, as King Cyrus, the king of Persia, has commanded us."

<sup>4</sup> Then the people of the country kept discouraging the people of Judah and making them afraid to continue building. <sup>5</sup> They bribed counsellors against them to frustrate their plans during the whole time of Cyrus, the king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius, the king of Persia.

script and translated into the Aramaic language. <sup>8</sup> Rehum, the chief government officer, and Shimshai, the scribe, wrote this letter against Jerusalem to King Artaxerxes. <sup>9</sup> At that time Rehum, the chief government officer, Shimshai, the scribe, and the rest of their associates, the judges, the governors, the officials, the Persian officers, the people of Erech, the Babylonians, the people of Susa, that is, the Elamites, <sup>10</sup> and the rest of the nations whom the great and honourable Assurbanipal deported and settled in the cities of Samaria and in the rest of the province west of the Euphrates River, wrote. Now, <sup>11</sup> this is a copy of the letter that they sent: "To King Artaxerxes, from your servants, the men of the province west of the Euphrates. <sup>12</sup> Let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up from you to us have travelled to Jerusalem! They are rebuilding that rebellious and wicked city. They are completing the walls and are repairing the foundations. <sup>13</sup> Now be it known to the king that, if this city is rebuilt and the walls are finished, they will not pay tax, tribute or duty and the royal revenue will suffer loss! <sup>14</sup> Now, since we are under obligation to the palace and it is not fitting for us to witness the king's dishonour, we have sent a message about this and have informed the king, <sup>15</sup> that a search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers. You will find in the book of the records and come to understand, that this city is a rebellious city, causing damage to kings and provinces, and that there has been rebellious behaviour in it from long ago. That was why this city was laid waste. <sup>16</sup> We are informing the king that, if this city is rebuilt and its walls are finished, you will not be able to retain this province west of the Euphrates."

<sup>17</sup> The king sent this reply: "To Rehum, the chief government officer, Shimshai, the scribe, the rest of their associates who are living in Samaria and to the others who are west of the Euphrates: Greetings! Now therefore, <sup>18</sup> the official letter that you have sent to us has been plainly read in my presence. <sup>19</sup> I have made a decree, a search has been made and it has been found that this city has from long ago been rising up against kings and that rebellion and sedition have been occurring in it. <sup>20</sup> There have been powerful kings in Jerusalem, who have ruled over everything west of the Euphrates, and tax, tribute and duty used to be paid to them. <sup>21</sup> Now issue a decree that these men must stop work and that this city must not be rebuilt, until I issue another decree! <sup>22</sup> Be careful not to neglect this! Why should damage increase so that royal interests are harmed?"

<sup>23</sup> When the copy of the letter of King Artaxerxes was read before Rehum and Shimshai, the scribe, and their associates, they went at once to the Jews at Jerusalem and used force and power to make them stop work. <sup>24</sup> Then the work on the Temple of God in Jerusalem came to a standstill and discontinued until the second

The challenge about the right to build the Temple

<sup>1</sup> Then the prophet Haggai and the prophet Zechariah, a descendant of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem, in the name of the God of Israel, who was over them. <sup>2</sup> Then Zerub-Babel, the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, acted and began to rebuild the Temple of God in Jerusalem and the prophets of God were with them and supported them. <sup>3</sup> At the same time Tattenai, the governor west of the Euphrates River, Shethar-Bozenai and their associates came to them and asked them, “Who gave you a decree to build this Temple and to restore this structure?”

<sup>4</sup> Then we told them the names of the men who were constructing this building. <sup>5</sup> However, the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they were not stopped until the report could reach Darius. Then they received an official letter about this. <sup>6</sup> This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor west of the Euphrates, Shethar-Bozenai and his associates, the officials who were west of the Euphrates River, sent to Darius the king. <sup>7</sup> The report that they sent to him had this written in it: “To King Darius, peace in every respect! <sup>8</sup> Let it be known to the king that we went to the province of Judah, to the Temple of the great God! It is being rebuilt with large stone blocks and timber is being laid in the walls. This work is being carried out diligently, and they are making rapid progress. <sup>9</sup> Then we questioned those elders and asked them, ‘Who gave you a decree to rebuild this Temple and to restore this structure?’ <sup>10</sup> We also asked them their names, that we might write down the names of their leaders, to inform you. <sup>11</sup> This is the reply that they gave us: ‘We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth and are rebuilding the Temple that was built many years ago, one that a great king of Israel finished building. <sup>12</sup> However, because our fathers had angered the God of heaven, He handed them over to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this Temple and deported the people to Babylon. <sup>13</sup> Nevertheless, in the first year of Cyrus, the king of Babylon, King Cyrus issued a decree that this Temple of God should be rebuilt. <sup>14</sup> King Cyrus also took out of the temple of Babylon the golden and silver articles of the Temple of God, which Nebuchadnezzar had removed from the Temple that used to be in Jerusalem and which he had lodged in the temple of Babylon. King Cyrus took these from the temple at Babylon and delivered them to a man called Sheshbazzar, whom he had appointed governor. <sup>15</sup> He told him, ‘Take these vessels and go and deposit them in the Temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt on its former site!’ <sup>16</sup> Then this Sheshbazzar came and laid the foundations of the Temple of God in Jerusalem, and from that time until now it has been under construction but is not yet finished.’

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, if the king thinks it right, let a search be made in the royal archives there in Babylon, to see whether King Cyrus did in fact issue a decree that this Temple of God in Jerusalem should be rebuilt! Let the king send us his decision about this matter!”

The search of the archives ordered by Darius

The decree of Darius, giving permission to continue the rebuilding of the Temple

<sup>6</sup> “Now, Tattenai, the governor west of the Euphrates, Shethar-Bozenai and your associates, the officials who are west of the river, stay away from there! <sup>7</sup> Let the work on that Temple of God alone! Let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews rebuild that Temple of God on its site! <sup>8</sup> Moreover, I have issued a decree about what you shall do for these elders of the Jews as they rebuild this Temple of God. The expenses shall be paid in full to these men from the royal revenue, the taxes west of the Euphrates, that the work may not cease. <sup>9</sup> Whatever is needed — young bulls, young rams or male lambs for burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine or oil, as the priests at Jerusalem may request — shall be given to them day by day so that nothing is neglected, <sup>10</sup> that they may sacrifice incense offerings to the God of heaven and pray for the lives of the king and his sons! <sup>11</sup> I have also issued a decree that, if anyone alters this edict, a beam shall be pulled out of his house, he shall be executed by being impaled on it, and his house shall be turned into a pile of rubble because he has done this! <sup>12</sup> May the God who has caused His name to dwell there overthrow any king or people who puts out a hand to alter this or to destroy this Temple of God in Jerusalem! I, Darius, have issued a decree. Let it be carried out with diligence!”

Bozenai and their associates carried this out diligently. <sup>14</sup> The elders of the Jews kept making progress in the building through the prophesying of the prophet Haggai and of Zechariah, the son of Iddo. They finished building as the God of Israel had commanded, and as Cyrus, Darius and Artaxerxes, the kings of Persia, had commanded. <sup>15</sup> This Temple was completed on the third day of the month of Adar, in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius. <sup>16</sup> The people of Israel, the priests, the Levites and the others who had come back from the exile joyfully celebrated the dedication of this Temple of God. <sup>17</sup> For the dedication of this Temple of God they offered one hundred bulls, two hundred young rams, four hundred male lambs and twelve male goats as a sin-offering for all Israel, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. <sup>18</sup> They assigned the priests in their divisions and the Levites in their work-groups, for the service of God at Jerusalem, as Scripture had prescribed in the Book of Moses.

The celebration of the Passover — compare Deuteronomy 16:1-8

<sup>19</sup> Those who had come back from exile celebrated the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. <sup>20</sup> For the priests and the Levites had all purified themselves. All of them were ceremonially clean. They slaughtered the Passover lamb for all the people who had returned from the exile, for their relatives the priests and for themselves. <sup>21</sup> The Israelites who had returned from the exile ate it, together with all who had separated themselves from the ceremonial uncleanness of the non-Jews in the country, to be intent on the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>22</sup> Then they joyfully celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days. For the LORD had made them joyful and had changed the attitude of the king of Assyria towards them, so that he assisted them in the work on the Temple of God, the God of Israel.

The bringing of more exiles to Jerusalem by Ezra

at Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month. For the good hand of his God was on him. <sup>10</sup> For Ezra had devoted himself to the study of the Law of the LORD, to the observance of it and to teaching its Prescriptions and Decisions in Israel.

The letter of Artaxerxes to Ezra

carried out on anyone who does not obey the Law of your God and the law of the king, whether it be by death, corporal punishment, confiscation of his property or imprisonment!"

<sup>27</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers! He has put a thing like this into the heart of the king, to beautify the Temple of the LORD in Jerusalem. <sup>28</sup> He has extended His faithful love to me before the king, his advisers and all the king's powerful officials. I myself took courage, for the hand of the LORD, my God, was on me. So, I gathered leading men from Israel to go up with me.

The list of the leaders of families who came from Babylon to Jerusalem with Ezra

<sup>15</sup> I gathered them at the river that flows to Ahava, and we camped there for three days. When I reviewed the people and the priests, I did not find any of the descendants of Levi there. <sup>16</sup> Then I sent for Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah and Meshullam, who were leading men and for Joiarib and Elnathan, who were men of insight.

<sup>17</sup> Then I ordered them to go to Iddo, the leading man at the place, Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his relatives and the Temple servants at the place called Casiphia, that they might bring us ministers for the Temple of our God. <sup>18</sup> Because the kind hand of our God was on us, they brought us Sherebiah, a man of discretion, who was descended from Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel, and Sherebiah's sons and other relatives, who numbered eighteen men. <sup>19</sup> They also brought Hashabiah and with him Jeshaiiah, together with Jeshaiiah's brothers and their sons, who numbered twenty men. These were descendants of Merari. <sup>20</sup> They also brought two hundred and twenty of the Temple servants, men whom David and his officials had appointed to assist the Levites. These were all registered by their names.

The fasting and prayer for protection before the departure for Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup> Then I announced a fast there at the Ahava River, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to ask Him for a safe journey for ourselves, our women, children and all our possessions. <sup>22</sup> For I was ashamed to ask the king for a band of soldiers and horsemen to protect us against any enemy on the road, since we had told the king: "The hand of our God is on all who look to Him to bring them good, but His power and His anger are against all who forsake Him."

<sup>23</sup> So, we fasted and petitioned our God about this, and He listened to our entreaty.

<sup>24</sup> Then I set apart twelve of the leading priests: Sherebiah and Hashabiah, together with ten of their relatives. <sup>25</sup> I weighed out to them the silver, the gold and the articles that the king, his advisers, his officials and all the Israelites who were present had donated as an offering for the Temple of our God. <sup>26</sup> I weighed out into their hands twenty-two thousand, seven hundred and fifty kilograms of silver, silver articles weighing three thousand, five hundred kilograms, three thousand, five hundred kilograms of gold, <sup>27</sup> twenty golden bowls weighing one thousand darics and two fine articles of gleaming red bronze as precious as gold. <sup>28</sup> I told them: "You are holy to the LORD, the articles are holy, and the silver and gold are voluntary gifts to the LORD, the God of your fathers. <sup>29</sup> Be watchful and guard them until you weigh them in the presence of the leaders of the priests, the Levites and the heads of the paternal families of Israel at Jerusalem, inside the rooms of the Temple of the LORD!"

<sup>30</sup> So, the priests and the Levites received the silver, the gold and the articles as they had been weighed out, that they might bring them to the Temple of our God at Jerusalem.

<sup>31</sup> We set out from the Ahava River on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem. The hand of our God was on us, and He delivered us from any enemies and from any ambushes along the road. <sup>32</sup> When we arrived at Jerusalem, we stayed there for three days. <sup>33</sup> On the fourth day the silver, the gold and the articles were weighed out into the hands of the priest Meremoth, the son of Uriah, inside the Temple of our God. Eleazar, the son of Phinehas, was with him, and so were the Levites Jozabad, the son of Jeshua and Noadiah, the son of Binnui. <sup>34</sup> It was all counted and weighed, and the weight of everything was recorded at that time. <sup>35</sup> Those who had come back from captivity, the returned exiles, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs and, as a sin-offering, twelve male goats. All this was a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>36</sup> They also delivered the king's decrees to the king's satraps and to the governors west of the Euphrates, who then gave assistance to the people and the Temple of God.

<sup>1</sup> After these things had been done, the leaders approached me and said: "The people of Israel, including the priests and the Levites, have not kept themselves separate from the peoples of foreign countries, with respect to their detestable practices, those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians and the Amorites. <sup>2</sup> For they and their sons have married some of their daughters, so that the holy race has intermixed itself with the peoples of the foreign countries. The leaders and officials have also been leading the way in this unfaithfulness."

<sup>3</sup> When I heard this, I tore my tunic and my cloak, tore hair from my head and beard and sat down appalled.

<sup>4</sup> Then all who trembled at the Words of the God of Israel gathered around me because of the unfaithfulness of the returned exiles. I kept sitting appalled until the evening sacrifice.

Ezra's confession of the sin of the people

<sup>5</sup> At the evening sacrifice I rose from my mourning posture, with my tunic and my cloak torn. I fell on my knees and spread out my hands to the LORD, my God. <sup>6</sup> I said: "O my God, I am too ashamed and humiliated to lift my face to You, my God. For our iniquities have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has grown as high as heaven. <sup>7</sup> From the days of our fathers to this day we have been very guilty. Because of our iniquities our kings, our priests and we have been handed over to the kings of foreign countries, to the sword, captivity, plunder and utter shame, as it still is today. <sup>8</sup> Now, however, for a brief moment the LORD, our God, has shown favour, so that He has left us a remnant and has given us security inside His Holy Place, so that our God gives light to our eyes and grants us a little relief in our slavery. <sup>9</sup> For we are slaves. Yet our God has not forsaken us in our slavery but has extended His faithful love to us in the presence of the kings of Persia. He has granted us relief to erect the Temple of our God and to repair its ruins and has given us a protecting wall in Judea and Jerusalem.

<sup>10</sup> Now therefore, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken Your Commandments, <sup>11</sup> which You ordered through Your servants, the prophets, when You said, 'The land that you are entering to possess is a land that is polluted with the impurity of the foreign peoples. By their detestable practices they have filled it with their impurity from one end to the other. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, do not give your daughters in marriage to their sons and do not take their daughters for your sons! You shall never try to obtain their peace or prosperity, that you may be strong and eat the good things of the land and leave it to your children as an everlasting inheritance!' <sup>13</sup> After all that has happened to us because of the wicked things that we have done and because of our great guilt, although You, our God, have punished us less than we have deserved for our wrongdoing and although You have given us such a remnant as this, <sup>14</sup> shall we break Your Commandments again and intermarry with the peoples who commit these detestable practices? Will You not be angry with us until You consume us, so that there is no remnant and no survivor? <sup>15</sup> O LORD, God of Israel, You are just. For we have escaped as survivors. That is what we are today. Look! Here we are before You in our guilt. For no one can stand before You because of this!"

<sup>1</sup> While Ezra was praying and making confession, weeping and casting himself down before the Temple of God, a very great assembly of men, women and children, gathered to him out of Israel. Indeed, the people wept very bitterly. <sup>2</sup> Shecaniah, the son of Jehiel, one of the descendants of Elam, spoke up and told Ezra: "We ourselves have been unfaithful to our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land, but even now there is hope for Israel despite this. <sup>3</sup> So now, let us make a covenant with our God to put away all these women and their children, as you, my master, advise and as those advise who tremble at the Commandment of our God! Let it be done according to the Law! <sup>4</sup> Arise! For this is your task. We are with you. Be strong and take action!"

<sup>5</sup> Then Ezra stood up and made the leading priests, the Levites and all Israel take an oath that they would do as had been said. So, they swore an oath.

<sup>6</sup> Then Ezra left the Temple of God and went into the room of Jehohanan, the descendant of Eliashib. When he went there, he did not eat any food or drink any water. For he continued to mourn over the unfaithfulness of the returned exiles. <sup>7</sup> Then some people issued a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem for all the returned exiles to assemble at Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> If anyone failed to come within three days, all his property would be utterly destroyed, as the officials and the elders had advised, and he himself would be expelled from the assembly of the returned exiles. <sup>9</sup> Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled at Jerusalem within the three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month. All the people sat in the open space in front of the Temple of God, in great distress because of this matter and because of the showers of rain. <sup>10</sup> Then Ezra the priest stood up and told them: "You have been unfaithful. You have been marrying foreign women and so have added to the guilt of Israel. <sup>11</sup> Now therefore, make confession to the LORD, the God of your fathers and do what He wants! Separate from the peoples of the land and from your foreign wives!"

<sup>12</sup> Then all the assembly answered loudly: "Yes! We must do as you have told us. <sup>13</sup> However, there are many people here, and it is the rainy season. We cannot stand in the open. This is also not a task for one day or for two. For we have been rebelling greatly because of this. <sup>14</sup> Please let our leaders represent the whole assembly! Then let all in our cities who have married foreign women come at appointed times, and let the elders and judges of every city come with them, until the fierce anger of our God in this matter is turned away from us!"

<sup>15</sup> Only Jonathan, the son of Asahel, and Jahzeiah, the son of Tikvah, opposed this, and the Levites Meshullam and Shabbethai supported them. <sup>16</sup> The returned exiles did as was proposed. Ezra the priest selected men who were the heads of paternal families, according to their fathers' families and designated all of them by name. They sat down on the first day of the tenth month to investigate the matter. <sup>17</sup> By the first day of the first month they had finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign wives.

<sup>18</sup> Among the descendants of the priests the following were found to have married foreign women: There were Maaseiah, Eliezer, Jarib and Gedaliah, who were descendants of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak and his brothers. <sup>19</sup> They pledged themselves to put away their wives and for their guilt they each presented a ram from the flock as a guilt-offering. <sup>20</sup> There were Hanani and Zebadiah, who were descendants of Immer. <sup>21</sup> There were Maaseiah, Elijah, Shemaiah, Jehiel and Uzziyah, who were descendants of Harim. <sup>22</sup> There were Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad and Elasaah, who were descendants of Pashhur. <sup>23</sup> Among the Levites there were Jozabad, Shimei, Kelaiah (that is, Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah and Eliezer. <sup>24</sup> Among the singers there was Eliashib. Among the gatekeepers there were Shallum, Telem and Uri. <sup>25</sup> Among the rest of Israel there were Ramiah, Izziah, Malchijah, Mijamin, Eleazar, Malchijah and Benaiah, who were descendants of Parosh. <sup>26</sup> There were Mattaniah, Zechariah, Jehiel, Abdi, Jeremoth and Elijah, who were descendants of Elam. <sup>27</sup> There were Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, Jeremoth, Zabad and Aziza, who were descendants of Zattu. <sup>28</sup> There were Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai and Athlai, who were descendants of Bebai. <sup>29</sup> There were Meshullam, Malluch, Adaiyah, Jashub, Sheal and Ramoth, who were descendants of Bani. <sup>30</sup> There were Adna, Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, Binnui and Manasseh, who were descendants of Pahath-Moab. <sup>31</sup> From the descendants of Harim there were Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, <sup>32</sup> Benjamin, Malluch and Shemariah. <sup>33</sup> There were Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh and Shimei, who were descendants of Hashum. <sup>34</sup> Among the descendants of Bani there were Maadai, Amram, Uel, <sup>35</sup> Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhu, <sup>36</sup> Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, <sup>37</sup> Mattaniah, Mattenai, Jaasai, <sup>38</sup> Bani, Binnui, Shimei, <sup>39</sup> Shelemiah, Nathan, Adaiyah, <sup>40</sup> Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, <sup>41</sup> Azarel, Shelemiah, Shemariah, <sup>42</sup> Shallum, Amariah and Joseph. <sup>43</sup> There were Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Jaddai, Joel and Benaiah, who were descendants of Nebo. <sup>44</sup> All these had married foreign women, and some of them had had children by these wives.

The bringing of a report about Jerusalem to Nehemiah

<sup>1</sup> These are Words of Nehemiah, the son of Hacaliah. It happened in the month of Chislev, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes that I was in the citadel at Susa.

<sup>2</sup> One of my brothers, Hanani, arrived with some other men from Judah, and I asked them about the remnant of the Jews who had escaped from the captivity and about Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> They told me: “The remnant, who have escaped from the captivity and are there in the province, are in great distress and in disgrace. The wall of Jerusalem has been broken down, and its gates have been burnt down.”

The prayer of Nehemiah for God’s mercy to the Israelites

<sup>4</sup> When I heard these words, I sat down and wept and mourned for days. I continued to fast and pray before the God of heaven. <sup>5</sup> I said: “Please, O LORD, God of heaven, O great and awesome God, You keep Your Covenant and are merciful to those who love You and keep Your Commandments. <sup>6</sup> Please let Your ear be attentive, and let Your eyes be open to my prayer, which I, Your servant, am praying! I am praying before You now, day and night, for Your servants, the Israelites. I am confessing the sins of the Israelites, which we have committed against You. Yes, my father’s family and I have sinned. <sup>7</sup> We have done You a great wrong. We have not been keeping the Commandments, the Prescriptions and the Decisions that You commanded Your servant Moses. <sup>8</sup> Please remember what You told Your servant Moses to say, ‘If you are unfaithful, I shall scatter you among the nations. <sup>9</sup> However, if you return to Me and keep My Commandments and put them into practice, although your people have been driven to the farthest skies, I shall gather them from there and bring them to the place where I have chosen for My name to dwell!’

<sup>10</sup> These are Your servants and Your people, whom You have redeemed by Your great power and by Your strong hand. <sup>11</sup> O Lord, please let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant and the prayer of Your servants who delight in respecting Your name! Please also give success to me, Your servant, today and grant that this man may be compassionate to me!” For I was the king’s cup-bearer.

The journey of Nehemiah to Jerusalem

Then I was extremely afraid. <sup>3</sup> I said to the king:

“May Your Majesty live for ever! Why should I not look sad, when the city where my fathers are buried lies in ruins and its gates have been destroyed by fire?”

So, I prayed to the God of heaven. <sup>5</sup> Then I answered the king: “If it pleases Your Majesty and, if you are kindly disposed to me, your servant, I ask you to send me to the city in Judah where my fathers are buried, that I may rebuild it.”

The king consented to send me when I had given him a definite date. <sup>7</sup> I also asked the king: “If Your Majesty approves, let letters be given to me for the governors west of the Euphrates, telling them to provide me safe-conduct until I arrive in Judah! <sup>8</sup> May I also be given a letter to Asaph, the keeper of Your Majesty’s land-reserve, telling him to give me timber to place beams in the gates of the citadel beside the Temple, for the wall of the city and for the house that I shall occupy!”

The king also granted these to me, since the kind hand of my God was on me. <sup>9</sup> When I came to the governors west of the Euphrates I gave them the king’s letters. The king had also sent some officers of the army and horsemen with me. <sup>10</sup> However, when Sanballat from Horon and Tobiah, the Ammonite official, heard this, they were very annoyed that someone should have come to promote the welfare of the Israelites.

Nehemiah’s inspection of the walls of Jerusalem

<sup>11</sup> When I arrived at Jerusalem I stayed there for three days. <sup>12</sup> Then I set out during the night with a few men. I had not told anyone about the purpose that my God was laying on my heart to do for Jerusalem. The only animal I took was the one I was riding. <sup>13</sup> By night I went out through the Valley Gate to the Dragon Spring and to the gate to the rubbish tip and I inspected the walls of Jerusalem, which had been broken down, and its gates, which had been destroyed by fire. <sup>14</sup> Then I went on to the Fountain-Gate and to the King’s Pool, but there was no room for the animal that I was riding to pass through. <sup>15</sup> I went up the valley by night and inspected the wall. Then I turned around and re-entered through the Valley Gate. <sup>16</sup> The officials did not know where I had gone or what I was doing. As yet I had said nothing to the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the officials and the rest who would be doing the work.

The decision to restore the walls

<sup>17</sup> Then I told them: “You see the trouble we are in, that Jerusalem is lying in ruins with its gates burnt down. Come! Let us build the wall of Jerusalem, that we may no longer be in disgrace!”

<sup>18</sup> I told them that the kind hand of my God had been on me and about what the king had said to me. Then they said, "Let us start building!"

So, they encouraged one another about this good work. <sup>19</sup> However, when Sanballat from Horon, Tobiah, the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard about it, they ridiculed and despised us and asked, "What is this thing that you are doing? Are you rebelling against the king?"

<sup>20</sup> I answered them by saying: "The God of heaven will give us success. We, His servants, shall start rebuilding. You, however, have no share, legal right or claim to a possession in Jerusalem."

The building of the northern wall

<sup>6</sup> Joiada, the son of Paseah and Meshullam, the son of Besodeiah, repaired the gate of the Old City. They laid its beams and set up its doors, with its bolts and bars. <sup>7</sup> Next to them Melatiah from Gibeon and Jadon from Meronoth, who were men from Gibeon and Mizpah, places under the authority of the governor west of the Euphrates, repaired the wall. <sup>8</sup> Uzziel, the son of Harhaiah, one of the craftsmen in precious metals, repaired the next section. Hananiah, one of the perfume-makers, made repairs next to Uzziel, and they restored Jerusalem as far as the Broad Wall.

<sup>9</sup> Rephaiah, the son of Hur, the ruler of a half-district of Jerusalem, made repairs next to them. <sup>10</sup> Next to them Jedaiah, the son of Harumaph, made repairs opposite his own home and Hattush, the son of Hashabneiah, made repairs next to him. <sup>11</sup> Malchijah, the son of Harim and Hasshub, the son of Pahath-Moab, repaired another section, as well as the Tower of the Ovens. <sup>12</sup> Shallum, the son of Hallohesh, a ruler of a half-district of Jerusalem, made repairs next to him with the help of his daughters.

<sup>13</sup> Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the Valley Gate. They rebuilt it and set up its doors, with its bolts and its bars. They also repaired five hundred metres of the wall as far as the gate to the rubbish tip.

<sup>14</sup> Malchijah, the son of Rechab, the ruler of the district of Beth-Hakkerem, repaired the gate to the rubbish tip. He rebuilt it and set up its doors, with its bolts and its bars.

The building of the south-eastern wall

<sup>16</sup> After him Nehemiah, the son of Azbuk, the ruler of half the district of Beth-Zur, made repairs to a point opposite the tombs of David, as far as the artificial pool and the soldiers' barracks. <sup>17</sup> The Levites, including Rehum, the son of Bani, made the repairs next to him. Next to him Hashabiah, the ruler of half the district of Keilah, carried out repairs for his district.

Inspection Gate and as far as the upper room at the corner. <sup>32</sup> The goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs between the upper room at the corner and the Sheep Gate.

The thwarting of Sanballat

<sup>1</sup> When Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he was angry and very indignant and ridiculed the Jews. <sup>2</sup> He asked, in the presence of his relatives and the army of Samaria: “What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they restore it for themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish it in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, even after they have been burnt?”

<sup>3</sup> Tobiah the Ammonite was beside him and said, “Even if a fox were to walk up on their stone wall, which they are building, he would break it down!”

The prayer of Nehemiah

The restoration of the walls of Jerusalem

<sup>6</sup> So, we rebuilt the wall. The entire wall was joined together to half its height. The people worked eagerly. <sup>7</sup> However, when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites and the people in Ashdod heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem was progressing and that the gaps were beginning to be closed, they became very angry. <sup>8</sup> They all plotted together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to stir up trouble in it. <sup>9</sup> However, because of them we prayed to our God and set a guard day and night to protect ourselves from them. <sup>10</sup> Then the people of Judah said: “The strength of the labourers who are carrying the loads has failed. There is too much rubble. We ourselves cannot rebuild the wall.”

<sup>11</sup> Our enemies also said, “Before they know it or see us, we shall come among them, kill them and stop the work.”

<sup>14</sup> After I inspected them, I proceeded to tell the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people: “Do not be afraid of them! Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives and your homes!”

<sup>15</sup> When our enemies heard that we were aware of their plans and that God had caused them to fail, we all returned to the wall, each one to his own work.

work, and the other half equipped themselves with the spears, shields, bows and body-armour. The leaders also supported the whole family of Judah, <sup>17</sup> who were building on the wall. The labourers who were carrying the loads kept doing the work with one hand while the other hand was holding a weapon. <sup>18</sup> Each of the builders had his sword strapped at his side while he was building. The man who blew the trumpet stayed beside me. <sup>19</sup> I told the nobles, the officials and the rest of the people: “The work is so extensive and spread out that we are widely separated from each other on the wall. <sup>20</sup> Rally to us wherever you hear the sound of the trumpet! Our God will fight for us!”

<sup>21</sup> So, we kept doing the work with half of the men holding spears from early dawn until the stars came out. <sup>22</sup> I also told the people at that time: “Every man and his servant should spend the night inside Jerusalem, that they may be our guard by night and a working party during the day!”

<sup>23</sup> None of us, I, my brothers, my servants or the guards who followed me took off our clothes. Each kept his weapon when he went for water.

Nehemiah's assistance to poor people

<sup>4</sup> There were others who were saying: “We have borrowed money to pay the king's tax on our fields and vineyards. <sup>5</sup> Now therefore, our bodies are like the bodies of our relatives. Our children are like their children. However, look! We are forcing our sons and our daughters to become slaves, and some of our daughters have already been enslaved. However, we are powerless because other men possess our fields and our vineyards.”

<sup>6</sup> I was very angry when I heard their outcry and these complaints. <sup>7</sup> I considered this carefully and then accused the nobles and the officials. I told them, “Each of you is loaning money at interest to his fellow-countryman!”

I called together a large meeting to deal with them. <sup>8</sup> I told them: “We ourselves, as much as we can, have repurchased our Jewish relatives, who had been sold to the other nations. However, even you yourselves are selling your own relatives, so that we have to buy them back!”

They were silent and could not say anything. <sup>9</sup> Then I said: “What you are doing is not right. Should you not be living in the fear of our God, to prevent the ridicule of the other nations, who are our enemies? <sup>10</sup> I too, my relatives and my servants, are lending the people money and grain. Please let us abandon this charging of interest for loans! <sup>11</sup> Please return to them immediately their fields, vineyards, olive orchards and houses and the interest on money, grain, wine and oil, which you have been charging them on loans!”

Then I summoned the priests and made them swear to do what they had promised. <sup>13</sup> I also shook out the loose folds of my garment and said: “May God shake out from his house and from the property that he has acquired every man who does not keep this promise! May he be shaken out and emptied!”

All the assembly said “Amen” and praised the LORD. Then the people did this as they had promised.

The generosity of Nehemiah

<sup>14</sup> Furthermore, from the time when I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year to the thirty-second year of King Artaxerxes, for twelve years, my relatives and I did not accept the food allowance of the governor. <sup>15</sup> The former governors, who had been before me, had imposed heavy burdens on the people by taking four hundred and eighty grams of silver in addition to food and wine. Even their servants were domineering over the people. However, I myself did not act like that, because I feared God. <sup>16</sup> I also devoted myself to the work on this wall. We did not acquire any land. All my servants kept assembling there for the work. <sup>17</sup> Moreover, one hundred and fifty Jews and officials, besides those who came to us from the other nations around us, were at my table. <sup>18</sup> Each day one ox, six choice sheep and fowls were prepared for me, and once every ten days there was a plentiful supply of all kinds of wine. For all this, I did not demand the governor’s food allowance. For the labour imposed on this people was burdensome. <sup>19</sup> Remember all that I have done for this people, O my God and treat me kindly.

<sup>1</sup> When Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem, the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall and that no gaps were left in it, although up to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates, <sup>2</sup> Sanballat and Geshem sent a message to me, “Come! Let us meet together at Hakkephirim in the plain of Ono!”

However, they were planning to harm me. <sup>3</sup> I sent messengers to tell them: “I am doing an important work and cannot come down. Why should the work stop while I leave it and go down to you?”

<sup>4</sup> They sent a message like this to me four times, and I gave them the same reply. <sup>5</sup> Then for the fifth time Sanballat sent his servant to me with an unsealed letter in his hand. <sup>6</sup> The writing in it said: “It has been reported among the nations, and Geshem is also saying, that you and the Jews are intending to rebel. That is why you are building the wall. According to these reports you wish to become their king. <sup>7</sup> You have even appointed prophets to proclaim about yourself in Jerusalem, ‘There is a king in Judah.’ Now therefore, the king will hear about these reports. Now therefore, come, and let us have a conference together!”

<sup>9</sup> For they all wanted to frighten us, thinking, “Their hands will hang limp, so that the work will stop and will not be completed.”

However, I prayed, “Now strengthen my hands!”

<sup>10</sup> When I went to the home of Shemaiah, the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was confined to his home, he said: “Let us meet together in the house of God, inside the Temple! Let us close the doors of the Temple! For they are coming to kill you. They are coming to kill you tonight.”

<sup>11</sup> However, I said: “Should a man like me run away? What man like me would go into the Temple to save his life? I will not go in there!”

<sup>12</sup> I recognised that God had indeed not sent him, but that he had pronounced this prophecy against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. <sup>13</sup> He had been hired to intimidate me and make me sin by acting in this way. They would then have had a compromising story to discredit me.

<sup>14</sup> Remember Tobiah and Sanballat, O my God, because of what they have done! Remember also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who have been trying to frighten me!

<sup>15</sup> The wall was finished in fifty-two days, on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul. <sup>16</sup> When all our enemies heard about it and all the nations around us saw these things, their self-confidence fell considerably. They realised that this work had been accomplished with the help of our God. <sup>17</sup> In those days the nobles of Judah also kept sending many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah’s letters kept coming to them. <sup>18</sup> For many in Judah had promised by oath to support Tobiah. For he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah, the son of Arah. His son Jehohanan had also married the daughter of Meshullam, the son of Berechiah. <sup>19</sup> They also kept speaking about his good deeds in my presence and reporting what I said to him. Tobiah had been sending letters to make me afraid.

The guarding of Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> When the wall had been rebuilt, and I had set up the doors, and the gatekeepers, the singers and the Levites were appointed, <sup>2</sup> I put my brother, Hanani, and Hananiah, the governor of the citadel, in charge over Jerusalem, because Hananiah was a reliable man and feared God more than many others did. <sup>3</sup> I told them:

“The gates of Jerusalem shall not be opened until the sun is hot! Men shall shut and fasten the doors while they are still standing guard! Appoint some residents of Jerusalem as guards! Some should be at their stations, and others should be near their own homes!”

<sup>4</sup> Although the city was wide and large, there were few people in it and the houses had not yet been rebuilt.

<sup>5</sup> Then my God induced me to assemble the nobles, the officials and the common people to have themselves registered on family tables. I had found the registry book of those who had come up the first time, and this is what I found written there: <sup>6</sup> These were the people of the province who came back from the captivity, out of those whom Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon had taken into exile. Each of them returned to his own city, Jerusalem or in the rest of Judah. <sup>7</sup> They came with Zerub-Babel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum and Baanah.

<sup>61</sup> The following were those who came up from Tel-Melah, Tel-Harsha, Cherub, Addon and Immer. However, they had been unable to prove their paternal families or their descent, whether they belonged to Israel: <sup>62</sup> There were six hundred and forty-two who were descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah and Nekoda. <sup>63</sup> Of the priests there were also descendants of Hobaiah, Hakkoz and Barzillai. Barzillai had married one of the daughters of Barzillai from Gilead and taken their name. <sup>64</sup> These tried to have their names written in the genealogical record, but their claim was not authenticated. They were excluded from the priesthood as ceremonially unclean. <sup>65</sup> The governor ordered them not to eat any of the most holy food until there should be a priest ministering with the Urim and ## Thummim.

The total of people and animals returning from exile — Ezra 2:64-67

<sup>70</sup> The heads of some of the divisions of paternal families also contributed towards the work. The governor contributed to the treasury four kilograms and three hundred and twenty grams of gold in drachmas, fifty bowls used for pouring and five hundred and thirty garments for the priests. <sup>71</sup> Some of the heads of paternal families contributed to the treasury for the work six hundred and forty kilograms of gold in drachmas and one thousand, two hundred and fifty-four kilograms of silver in minas. <sup>72</sup> The rest of the people contributed six hundred and forty kilograms of gold in drachmas, one thousand, one hundred and forty kilograms of silver in minas and sixty-seven garments for the priests. <sup>73</sup> The priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, some of the people, the Temple servants and all the rest of the Israelites lived in their own cities. When the seventh month had come, the Israelites had settled in their own cities.

The reading of the Law to the people by Ezra

<sup>1</sup> All the people gathered like one man in the square in front of the Water Gate. They told the scribe Ezra to fetch the scroll of the Law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded Israel to follow. <sup>2</sup> Then Ezra the priest brought the Law before the assembly, which included men and women and all the others who could understand what they heard. This was on the first day of the seventh month. <sup>3</sup> He read aloud from it as he faced the square that is in front of the Water Gate from daybreak until noon in the presence of the men and the women and others who could understand. All the people listened to the scroll of the Law. <sup>4</sup> The scribe Ezra stood on a high wooden platform that they had made for this purpose. Mattithiah, Shema, Anaiiah, Uriah, Hilkiyah and Maaseiah stood beside him at his right side, and Pedaiah, Mishael, Malchiah, Hashum, Hashbaddanah, Zechariah and Meshullam were at his left. <sup>5</sup> When Ezra opened the book, all the people could see him, because he was standing higher than all the other people were. When he opened it, all the people stood. <sup>6</sup> Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God, and all the people answered, "Amen! Amen!" as they raised their hands. Then they bowed down with their faces to the ground and worshipped the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan and Pelaiah, who were Levites, also kept explaining the Law to the people while they were standing there.

<sup>8</sup> They read the scroll of the Law of God clearly, giving the meaning, and so the people understood what was being read. <sup>9</sup> Then Nehemiah, who was the governor, Ezra, the priest and scribe, and the Levites, who were instructing the people, told all the people: "This day is holy to the LORD, your God. Do not mourn and do not weep!"

For all the people were weeping while they were listening to the Words of the Law. <sup>10</sup> Then Nehemiah told them: "Go, eat fat meat, drink sweet drinks and send portions of food to anyone who has nothing prepared! For this day is holy to our Lord. Do not be distressed! For the joy that you have in the LORD is your fortress."

<sup>11</sup> So, the Levites kept telling all the people to be silent, saying: "Be quiet! For this day is holy. Do not be distressed!"

<sup>12</sup> Then all the people went away to eat and drink, to send portions of food and to celebrate with great joy. For they had understood the Words that had been explained to them.

The celebration of the Festival of Booths — compare Leviticus 23:33-43

<sup>13</sup> On the second day the leaders of the paternal families of all the people gathered around the scribe Ezra, together with the priests and the Levites, to give attention to the Words of the Law. <sup>14</sup> They found it written in the Law, which the LORD had commanded through Moses that the Israelites should dwell in booths during the feast in the seventh month, <sup>15</sup> and that they should proclaim it and spread the message about it throughout their cities and Jerusalem: "Go out into the hill-country and fetch back leafy branches of olive trees, wild olives, myrtle shrubs, palms and other leafy trees to make booths, as it has been written!"

The confession and prayer of the Israelites

dust on their heads. <sup>2</sup> Those who were descendants of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners, stood up and confessed their own sins and the offences of their fathers. <sup>3</sup> They stood up in their places and read from the Book of the Law of the LORD, their God, for a quarter of the day. Then for another quarter of it they made confession and worshipped the LORD, their God. <sup>4</sup> Then Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Chenani stood on the stairs of the Levites and cried out aloud to the LORD, their God. <sup>5</sup> Then the Levites, Jeshua, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodia, Shebaniah and Pethahiah, said, “Stand up and bless the LORD, your God, who is from everlasting to everlasting!” and, “Let people bless Your glorious name, and may it be lifted up above all blessing and praise! <sup>6</sup> You are the LORD, You alone. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their starry host, the earth and all that is on it and the seas and all that is in them. You also give life to them all, and the army of heaven worships You. <sup>7</sup> You are the LORD, the God who chose Abram,<sup>*119</sup> brought him out of Ur of the Chaldeans and gave him the name ‘Abraham.’<sup>*120</sup> <sup>8</sup> You found his heart faithful to You and made the Covenant with him to give to his offspring the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites and the Girgashites. You have kept Your promises, for You are righteous. <sup>9</sup> You also saw what our forefathers suffered in Egypt and heard their cry at the Red Sea. <sup>10</sup> You performed miraculous signs and wonders against Pharaoh, against all his officials and against all the people of his land. For You knew that they had been acting arrogantly against our fathers. You made a name for Yourself, which You still have today. <sup>11</sup> You divided the sea before them, so that they went through the middle of the sea on dry land and You threw those who were pursuing them into the watery depths, like a stone into mighty waters. <sup>12</sup> You led them by a pillar of cloud during the day and by a pillar of fire during the night to light up for them the way on which they were to go. <sup>13</sup> You came down on Mount Sinai and spoke to them from heaven and gave them right Decisions, true Laws and good Statutes and Commandments. <sup>14</sup> You also made known to them Your holy Sabbath and You prescribed for them Commandments, Statutes and a Law through Your servant Moses. <sup>15</sup> You gave them bread from heaven for their hunger and You brought water for them out of the rock for their thirst. You told them to go in to take possession of the land that You had sworn with uplifted hand to give them. <sup>16</sup> However, they and our forefathers, acted arrogantly, became stubborn and did not obey Your Commandments. <sup>17</sup> They refused to listen and failed to remember the wonders that You performed among them. They became stubborn and in their rebellion appointed a leader to return to their slavery. However, You are a God ready to forgive, gracious, merciful, slow to become angry and abounding in faithful love and You did not forsake them. <sup>18</sup> Even when they had made for themselves a calf of cast metal and said, ‘This is your God, who has brought you up out of Egypt,’ and had committed great insults, <sup>19</sup> You in Your great compassion did not forsake them in the wilderness. The pillar of cloud that led them on the way did not leave them during the day, and the pillar of fire that lit for them the way on which they were to go did not leave them during the night. <sup>20</sup> You gave Your good Spirit to instruct them. You did not keep Your manna back from their mouths and You gave them water for their thirst. <sup>21</sup> You provided for them for forty years in the wilderness, and they did not lack anything. Their clothes did not wear out and their feet did not become swollen. <sup>22</sup> You gave them kingdoms and nations. You also allotted a frontier region to them. They took possession of the land of Sihon, the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og, the king of Bashan. <sup>23</sup> You made their children as numerous as the stars in the sky and brought them into the land that You had told their fathers to enter and possess. <sup>24</sup> Their children went in and took possession of the land. You also subdued before them the people living in the land, the Canaanites, and You handed the Canaanites over to them, with their kings and the peoples of the land, to deal with them as they pleased. <sup>25</sup> They captured fortified cities and fertile land and took possession of houses full of all good things, cisterns already hewn out, vineyards, olive orchards and plenty of fruit trees. So, they ate and were filled, became fat and revelled in Your great goodness. <sup>26</sup> Nevertheless, they became disobedient, rebelled against You, cast Your Law behind their backs and killed Your prophets, who had admonished them to turn them back to You. They also committed great blasphemies. <sup>27</sup> Therefore, You handed them over to their enemies, who oppressed them. In the times when they were being oppressed they cried out to You. You Yourself heard them from heaven and in Your great compassion You gave them deliverers, who rescued them from the hands of their enemies. <sup>28</sup> However, after they had some relief, they again did evil before You. Then You abandoned them to the hands of their enemies, so that they controlled them. Yet when they turned and cried out to You, You Yourself heard from heaven and, in Your compassion, You delivered them many times. <sup>29</sup> You admonished them to bring them back to Your Law. Yet they acted arrogantly and did not obey Your Commandments but sinned against Your Decisions, by which a human being will live if he puts them into practice. They stubbornly turned their backs on You, stiffened their necks and refused to listen. <sup>30</sup> You were patient with them for many years and admonished them by Your Spirit through Your prophets. Yet they would not listen. Therefore, You handed them over to the peoples of the other lands. <sup>31</sup> Nevertheless, in Your great compassion You did not put an end to them or forsake them. For You are a gracious and compassionate God. <sup>32</sup> Now therefore, our God, You great, mighty and awesome God, You who keep the Covenant and faithful love, do not regard as trifling all the hardship that has come on us, on our kings, our princes, our priests, our prophets, our fathers and all Your people, from the time of the kings of Assyria until today! <sup>33</sup> Yet You have been just in all that has come on us. For You have been acting faithfully, and we have been acting wickedly. <sup>34</sup> Our kings, our princes, our priests and our fathers have not been putting Your Law into practice. They have not been paying attention to Your Commandments and Your Admonitions, which You have given them. <sup>35</sup> Even while they were in their own kingdom, enjoying Your great goodness, which You bestowed on them, and while they were in the large and fertile land that You had set before them, they did not serve You or turn away from their wicked deeds. <sup>36</sup> Look! We are slaves today. Look! We are slaves in the land that You gave to our fathers to eat its fruit and the good things that it produces. <sup>37</sup> Its abundant harvest goes to the kings whom You have placed over us because of our sins. They also rule over our bodies and over our livestock as they please, and we are in great distress. <sup>38</sup> Because of all this we are making a binding written agreement, and the names of our princes, our Levites and our priests are on the seal.”

10

<sup>28</sup> The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Temple servants and all the others who had separated themselves from neighbouring peoples to follow the Law of God, their wives, their sons, their daughters, all who had knowledge and understanding, <sup>29</sup> joined with their relatives, their nobles, and bound themselves with a curse and an oath to follow the Law of God, which had been given by Moses, the servant of God, and carefully to put into practice all the Commandments of the LORD, our Lord, His Decisions and His Prescriptions. <sup>30</sup> “We shall not give our daughters in marriage to the neighbouring peoples or take their daughters for our sons to marry. <sup>31</sup> If the neighbouring peoples bring merchandise or any grain to sell on the Sabbath, we shall not buy it from them on the Sabbath or on another holy day. We shall let the land lie idle in the seventh year and cancel loans on interest to any person. <sup>32</sup> We shall also impose on ourselves obligations to give four grams of silver each year for the service of the Temple of our God, <sup>33</sup> and to contribute the bread that is set out in rows, the regular grain-offerings, for the regular burnt offerings, the offerings on the Sabbaths, the New Moons and the appointed feasts, the holy offerings, the sin-offerings to make atonement for Israel and all the other service in the Temple of our God. <sup>34</sup> We, the priests, the Levites and the lay-people, have also cast lots to determine when each of our paternal families should bring the wood offering into the Temple of our God, at appointed times every year, to burn on the altar of the LORD, our God, as has been written in the Law. <sup>35</sup> We have also promised to bring each year to the Temple of the LORD the first-fruits of our ground and the first-fruits of all the fruit of every tree. <sup>36</sup> We have also promised to bring the first-born of our sons and of our cattle and the first-born of our herds and of our flocks, to the Temple of our God, to the priests who are ministering in the Temple of our God, as has been written in the Law. <sup>37</sup> We have also promised to bring the first of our coarse meal and our other contributions, the fruit of every tree, the wine and the olive-oil, to the priests, to the rooms of the Temple of our God and to bring to the Levites the tithes from our ground, that the Levites may receive the tithes in all the cities where we work. <sup>38</sup> A priest descended from Aaron shall be with the Levites when the Levites receive the tithes! The Levites shall bring a tenth of the tithes up to the storerooms of the treasury in the Temple of our God! <sup>39</sup> For the Israelites, including the Levites, shall bring the contribution of grain, wine and olive-oil to the storerooms, where the articles for the sanctuary are, where the priests who minister are and the gatekeepers and the singers are! We will not neglect the Temple of our God!”

11

A record of the leading people who settled in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> The leaders of the people lived in Jerusalem. The rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of every ten to live in Jerusalem, the holy city, while nine out of ten remained in the other cities. <sup>2</sup> The people commended all the men who volunteered to live in Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> These are the leaders of the province who lived in Jerusalem. However, the other Israelites, the priests, the Levites, the Temple servants and the descendants of Solomon's servants all lived on their own properties in their own cities in Judah. <sup>4</sup> Some of the descendants of Judah and of Benjamin also lived in Jerusalem. From the descendants of Judah there was Athaiah, the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalalel. He was one of the descendants of Perez. <sup>5</sup> There was Maaseiah, the son of Baruch, the son of Col-Hozeh, the son of Hazaiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah. He belonged to the clan of Shiloh. <sup>6</sup> The descendants of Perez who lived in Jerusalem totalled four hundred and sixty-eight able men. <sup>7</sup> The following were the descendants of Benjamin. There was Sallu, the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Koliaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah, <sup>8</sup> and, after him, Gabbai and Sallai. There were nine hundred and twenty-eight men. <sup>9</sup> Joel, the son of Zichri, was their chief officer and Judah, the son of Hassenuah, was the second in command over the city. <sup>10</sup> Among the priests there was Jedaiah, the son of Joiarib and Jachin. <sup>11</sup> There was Seraiah, the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub. He was the supervisor in the Temple of God. <sup>12</sup> Their relatives, who did the work at the Temple, numbered eight hundred and twenty-two. There was also Adaiyah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah. <sup>13</sup> There were also his relatives, the heads of paternal families, who numbered two hundred and forty-two. There was also Amashsai, the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer. <sup>14</sup> His relatives, who were able men, numbered one hundred and twenty-eight. Their chief officer was Zabdiel, the son of Haggadolim. <sup>15</sup> Among the Levites there was Shemaiah, the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni. <sup>16</sup> There were also Shabbethai and Jozabad, who were two of the chiefs of the Levites and who were in charge of the work on the exterior of the Temple of God. <sup>17</sup> There was also Mattaniah, the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the leader to begin the thanksgiving. There was also Bakbukiah, the second in rank among his relatives. There was also Abda, the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. <sup>18</sup> All the Levites in the holy city numbered two hundred and eighty-four. <sup>19</sup> The gatekeepers were Akkub, Talmon and their relatives. They used to keep watch at the gates and numbered one hundred and seventy-two. <sup>20</sup> All the rest of the Israelites, the priests and the Levites, were on their inherited properties in all the other cities of Judah. <sup>21</sup> However, the Temple servants lived on Ophel, and Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of the Temple servants. <sup>22</sup> The chief officer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi, the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica. Uzzi was one of the descendants of Asaph, who were the singers who led the service at the Temple of God. <sup>23</sup> For the king had issued a command about them, which regulated the daily activity of the singers. <sup>24</sup> Pethahiah, the son of Meshezabel, one of the descendants of Zerah, the son of Judah, was the king's agent in all affairs relating to the people.

The people in the other cities outside of Jerusalem

<sup>12</sup> At the time of Joiakim the priests who were the leaders of their paternal families were: of Seraiah's

<sup>22</sup> A record of the leaders of the paternal families of Levites was made at the time of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan and Jaddua. A record of the priests was also made during the reign of Darius the Persian. <sup>23</sup> The leaders of the paternal families of the descendants of Levi were recorded in the annals until the time of Johanan, the son of Eliashib. <sup>24</sup> The leaders of the Levites were Hashabiah, Sherebiah and Jeshua, the son of Kadmiel, together with their relatives, who stood opposite them, to praise and to give thanks. Each division of service was opposite the other, as David, the man of God, had commanded. <sup>25</sup> Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon and Akkub were gatekeepers. They stood guard at the storerooms beside the gates. <sup>26</sup> These served at the time of Joiakim, the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, at the time of Nehemiah, the governor, and of Ezra, the priest and scribe.

went in front of them. <sup>37</sup> At the Fountain-Gate they went straight on up the stairs to the city of David, where the wall goes up above the palace of David and then to the Water Gate on the east. <sup>38</sup> The second thanksgiving choir went in the opposite direction. I followed them with the other half of the people, on the wall, above the Tower of the Ovens, as far as the Broad Wall. <sup>39</sup> Then they went over the Gate of Ephraim, over the Gate of the Old City, over the Fish Gate, the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep Gate. They came to a halt at Prison Gate. <sup>40</sup> Then the two thanksgiving choirs took their places in the Temple of God. I did also, together with half of the officials. <sup>41</sup> The priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah and Hananiah were also there with trumpets. <sup>42</sup> So were Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malchijah, Elam and Ezer. The singers sang loudly under the direction of Jezrahiah. <sup>43</sup> They offered many sacrifices that day and were glad. For God had given them great joy. The women and children also rejoiced. The sound of rejoicing at Jerusalem could be heard far away.

<sup>44</sup> On that day men were put in charge over the treasury-rooms for the contributions, the first-fruits and the tithes. They were to collect into them from the fields around the cities the portions required by the Law for the priests and for the Levites. For the people of Judah rejoiced over the priests and the Levites who were in office. <sup>45</sup> They performed the service of their God and the service of purification. The singers and the gatekeepers also did, as David and his son Solomon had commanded. <sup>46</sup> Long ago at the time of David and Asaph there had been directors for the singers, and there had been songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. <sup>47</sup> In the time of Zerub-Babel and in the time of Nehemiah all the Israelites used to contribute daily portions of food for the singers and the gatekeepers. They also used to set aside holy portions for the other Levites, and the Levites used to set aside holy portions for the descendants of Aaron.

<sup>1</sup> On that day the book of Moses was read while the people were listening. In it the permanent prohibition was found written for any Ammonite or Moabite to enter the assembly of God. <sup>2</sup> For they had not met the Israelites with bread and water but had hired Balaam against them to curse them. However, our God had turned the curse into a blessing. <sup>3</sup> When the people had heard the Law, they separated everyone who was of mixed race from Israel.

The reforms of Nehemiah in the use of Temple storerooms and the eviction of Tobiah

<sup>4</sup> Even before this, the priest Eliashib had been put in charge of the open room in the temple of our God. He was related to Tobiah. <sup>5</sup> He had prepared for Tobiah a large open room where people had previously been storing the grain-offering, the frankincense, the vessels and the tithes of grain, new wine and olive-oil, which had been commanded to be given to the Levites, the singers and the gatekeepers, as well as the contributions for the priests. <sup>6</sup> While all this was taking place, I was not in Jerusalem. For in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes, the king of Babylon, I had gone back to the king. At the end of that time I had asked for the king's permission to return. <sup>7</sup> When I came back to Jerusalem, I learned about the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah by providing a room for him in the courts of the Temple of God. <sup>8</sup> I was very annoyed about that and threw all of Tobiah's household goods out of the room. <sup>9</sup> Then I gave orders, and they purified the rooms. I also brought back the vessels of the Temple of God, the grain-offering and the frankincense.

<sup>10</sup> I also found out that the portions due to the Levites had not been given to them, so that the Levites and the singers, who had carried out the service, had all run off to their own fields. <sup>11</sup> I challenged the officials and asked, "Why has the Temple of God been abandoned?"

Then I gathered them together and made them resume their assigned places. <sup>12</sup> Then all Judah brought the tithes of the grain, new wine and olive-oil to the store-rooms. <sup>13</sup> I appointed the priest, Shelemiah, the scribe, Zadok and Pedaiah, one of the Levites, as treasurers over the storehouses. I also appointed Hanan, the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah, as their assistant, because these men were considered reliable. It was their duty to distribute supplies to their relatives. <sup>14</sup> Remember me for this, O my God, and do not wipe out the things that I have done in faithful love for the Temple of my God and for the things that are done to serve it!

The Sabbath reforms

<sup>15</sup> In those days I saw people in Judah treading wine-presses on the Sabbath. I also saw people bringing in piles of grain and loading them on donkeys. I also saw wine, grapes, figs and every other kind of load, which they were bringing into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. I warned them against selling food on that day. <sup>16</sup> People from Tyre who lived in Jerusalem were bringing in fish and all kinds of goods and were selling them on the Sabbath to the people of Judah, even in Jerusalem. <sup>17</sup> Then I confronted the nobles of Judah and asked them: "What is this wicked thing that you are doing, defiling the Sabbath day?" <sup>18</sup> Did not your fathers act in this way and did not our God bring this entire calamity on us and on this city? You are bringing more wrath on Israel by defiling the Sabbath."

<sup>19</sup> As soon as it began to grow dark at the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut. I also commanded that people should not open them until after the Sabbath. I stationed some of my servants at the gates, that no load might be brought in on the Sabbath day. <sup>20</sup> The merchants and sellers of all kinds of goods spent the night outside Jerusalem once or twice. <sup>21</sup> However, I warned them and asked them: "Why are you spending the night in front of the wall? If you do so again, I shall arrest you."

From that time on they did not come on the Sabbath any longer. <sup>22</sup> Then I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves and come and guard the gates, to keep the Sabbath day holy. Remember me for this also, O my God, and spare me according to Your great mercy!

<sup>23</sup> In those days also I saw the Jews who had married women from Ashdod, Ammon and Moab. <sup>24</sup> Half of their children spoke the language of Ashdod or the language of one of the other peoples and could not speak the language of Judah. <sup>25</sup> I confronted them, cursed them, struck some of them and pulled out their hair. I made them take an oath in the name of God and said: "You shall certainly not give your daughters in marriage to their sons or take any of their daughters for your sons or for yourselves!" <sup>26</sup> Did not Solomon, the king of Israel, sin because of such women? Among the many nations there was no king like him, and his God loved him and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless, those foreign women led even him into sin. <sup>27</sup> Must we then listen to you, commit all this great wickedness and act unfaithfully against our God by marrying foreign women?"

<sup>28</sup> One of the sons of Joiada, the son of the High Priest, Eliashib, was the son-in-law of Sanballat from Horon. I drove him away from me. <sup>29</sup> Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the Covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites! <sup>30</sup> So, I cleansed the priests from everything foreign and established the duties of the priests and Levites, so that each one had his own task. <sup>31</sup> I also arranged for contributions of wood at regular times and for the first-fruits. Remember me, O my God and be kind to me!

For the king had instructed all the palace-officials that they should do what each man wanted. <sup>9</sup> Queen Vashti also gave a banquet for the women in the royal palace of King Xerxes.

<sup>10</sup> On the seventh day, when King Xerxes was in high spirits from wine, he commanded the seven eunuchs who waited on him, Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar and Carkas, <sup>11</sup> to bring Queen Vashti before the king, wearing her royal crown. He wanted to display her beauty to the people and nobles, for she was very attractive. <sup>12</sup> However, when the eunuchs delivered the king's command, Queen Vashti refused to come. Then the king became furious, and his anger burned inside him. <sup>13</sup> Then the king spoke to the wise men who understood the times. For it was the king's procedure to consult all experts in law and justice. <sup>14</sup> The men who were closest to the king were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena and Memucan, the seven princes of the Persians and Medes. They had access to the king's presence and had the highest places in the kingdom. <sup>15</sup> He asked them: "According to the law, what must be done to Queen Vashti, because she has not obeyed the command of King Xerxes, which the eunuchs have delivered to her?"

<sup>16</sup> Then Memucan replied in the presence of the king and the nobles: "Queen Vashti has done wrong, not only against Your Majesty but also against all the nobles and all the peoples who are in all the provinces of King Xerxes. <sup>17</sup> For the queen's conduct will become known to all the women, so that it will cause them to despise their husbands. They will say, 'King Xerxes commanded men to bring Queen Vashti before him, but she did not come.' <sup>18</sup> Today the noble women of Persia and Media who have heard about the queen's conduct will say the same to all Your Majesty's nobles. There will be plenty of disrespect and discord. <sup>19</sup> If Your Majesty agrees, let the king issue a royal order, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes that it may not be repealed, that Vashti shall never enter the presence of King Xerxes again! Your Majesty should also give her royal position to someone else, who is better than she is! <sup>20</sup> Then, when the decree, which Your Majesty issues, is heard throughout his entire kingdom, vast as it is, all the wives will give honour to their husbands, from the least to the greatest."

<sup>21</sup> The king and the nobles approved of this advice, and the king did as Memucan had proposed. <sup>22</sup> He sent letters to the royal provinces, to every province in its own script and to every people in its own language, that every husband should act as the ruler in his own household and speak the language of his own people.

The search for another Queen

The king approved of the advice and followed it.

<sup>5</sup> There was a Jew in the citadel at Susa whose name was Mordecai. He was the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a descendant of Benjamin. He had been brought into exile from Jerusalem with the others who had come into exile with Jeconiah, the king of Judah, when Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, had brought them into exile. <sup>7</sup> Mordecai was bringing up Hadassah, also known as Esther, his uncle's daughter. For she had neither father nor mother. The young woman had a beautiful figure and was very attractive. Mordecai had adopted her as his own daughter when her father and mother had died.

under the supervision of Hegai. Esther also was taken into the king's palace and placed under the supervision of Hegai, the custodian of the women. <sup>9</sup> The young woman pleased him and won his favour. He quickly provided her with her beauty-treatments and her share of food and assigned to her seven selected young women from the king's palace. He transferred her and her young women to the best place in the women's quarters. <sup>10</sup> Esther had not disclosed her nationality and family background, for Mordecai had forbidden her to disclose it. <sup>11</sup> Every day Mordecai used to walk in front of the court of the women's palace to find out how Esther was and what was happening to her. <sup>12</sup> Each girl had her turn to go to King Xerxes after she had undergone the prescribed treatment for women for twelve months. For this is how the time for their beauty-treatments was spent: six months using oil-of-myrrh and six months using perfumes and other beauty-treatments for women. <sup>13</sup> This is how the young woman used to go in to the king: she used to be given whatever she desired to take with her from the women's quarters to the king's palace. <sup>14</sup> She would go in the evening, and, in the morning, she would return to the second quarters for the women, under the supervision of the king's eunuch Shaashgaz, who was in charge of the concubines. She would not go in to the king again unless the king was pleased with her, and she was summoned by name.

<sup>15</sup> Esther was the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai, who had adopted her as his own daughter. When her turn came to go in to the king, she did not ask for anything except what the king's eunuch Hegai, who had charge of the women, advised. Esther won the favour of everyone who saw her. <sup>16</sup> Esther was taken to King Xerxes in his royal palace in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in seventh year of his reign. <sup>17</sup> The king loved Esther more than all the other women and regarded her more favourably and kindly than all the other virgins. He put the royal crown on her head and made her queen instead of Vashti. <sup>8</sup> Then the king gave a great banquet in honour of Esther for all his nobles and officials. He also granted the provinces an exemption from taxes and distributed gifts with royal generosity.

investigated and found to be true, the men were both hanged on a gallows. This was recorded in the account of daily events in the presence of the king.

<sup>1</sup> After this, King Xerxes honoured Haman, the son of Hammedatha, a descendant of Agag, promoted him and gave him a seat higher than all the other nobles who were with him. <sup>2</sup> All the king's officials who were at the king's gate bowed down and showed respect to Haman. For the king had commanded that this should be done to him. However, Mordecai would not bow down and show him respect. <sup>3</sup> The king's officials at the king's gate asked Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's command?"

<sup>4</sup> Although they spoke to him day after day, he would not listen to them. So, they told Haman, to find out whether what Mordecai said would be a valid excuse. For he had told them that he was a Jew.

The plan of Haman to take revenge on Mordecai by destroying the Jews

<sup>5</sup> When Haman saw that Mordecai did not bow down and show respect to him, Haman became very angry.

<sup>6</sup> However, he thought that it was too trifling to hurt only Mordecai. For they had told him who Mordecai's people were. So, Haman tried to destroy all the Jews, who were Mordecai's people, throughout the whole kingdom of Xerxes. <sup>7</sup> In the first month, the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Xerxes, they cast Pur (that is, they cast lots) in Haman's presence for every day and for every month, and the lot fell on the twelfth month, the month of Adar. <sup>8</sup> Then Haman told King Xerxes: "There is a certain nationality dispersed and scattered among the nationalities in all the provinces of your kingdom. Their laws are different from those of every other nationality. They do not put Your Majesty's laws into practice, so that it is not appropriate for the king to tolerate them. <sup>9</sup> If Your Majesty approves, let an order be written to destroy them! I myself shall also pay three hundred and fifty thousand kilograms of silver to be deposited in the royal treasuries that it may be used by the men who carry out this business."

<sup>10</sup> Then the king took his signet ring from his finger and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha, who was a descendant of Agag, and who was the enemy of the Jews. <sup>11</sup> The king told Haman: "You are given the money, and the people are given to you too, that you may do to them what you think is best."

<sup>12</sup> The king's scribes were summoned on the thirteenth day of the first month. They wrote to the king's satraps, to the governors over every province and to the nobles of each nationality, exactly as Haman instructed them. They wrote in the script of each province and to each nationality in its own language. The order was written in the name of King Xerxes and sealed with the king's signet ring. <sup>13</sup> Couriers were used to dispatch letters to all the king's provinces with the instruction to destroy, kill and annihilate all the Jews, young and old, women and little children, in a single day, the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar. Their possessions were also to be plundered. <sup>14</sup> A copy of the document was to be issued as a decree in every province. It was to be proclaimed to all the nationalities that they should be ready for that day. <sup>15</sup> The couriers went out quickly because the king had told them to hurry. The decree was also issued in the citadel of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was bewildered.

Mordecai's request to Esther for help

<sup>1</sup> When Mordecai found out about everything that had been done, he tore his clothes and put on sackcloth and ashes. He went out in the middle of the city and cried out loudly and bitterly. <sup>2</sup> He went only as far as the king's gate, because no one was allowed to enter the king's gate clothed in sackcloth. <sup>3</sup> Wherever the king's command and decree arrived in every province, there was great mourning among the Jews, with fasting, weeping and lamenting. Many lay down in sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>4</sup> When Esther's servant-girls and eunuchs came and told her, the queen was deeply distressed. She sent garments for Mordecai to put on, that he might take off his sackcloth, but he would not accept them.

<sup>5</sup> Then Esther summoned Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs, whom the king had appointed to attend her. She ordered him to go to Mordecai to find out what this meant and why he was doing this. <sup>6</sup> Hathach went out to Mordecai in the open square of the city, which was in front of the king's gate. <sup>7</sup> Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, including the exact amount of money that Haman had promised to pay into the king's treasuries to destroy the Jews. <sup>8</sup> Mordecai also gave him a copy of the written decree that had been issued in Susa to destroy them, that he might show it to Esther and explain it to her. His purpose was also to command her to go to the king to beg him for mercy and to plead in his presence on behalf of her people. <sup>9</sup> Hathach returned and told Esther what Mordecai had said. <sup>10</sup> When Esther had talked to Hathach, she commanded him to tell Mordecai: <sup>11</sup> "All the king's officials and the people of the king's provinces know that if any man or woman goes to the king in the inner court without being summoned, there is only one law, that he must be put to death. The only exception is for the king to hold the golden sceptre out to him and spare his life. However, I myself have not been summoned to come in to the king for the past thirty days."

<sup>12</sup> So, Esther's servants told Mordecai what Esther had said. <sup>13</sup> Mordecai told them to take this reply back to Esther: "Do not think that because you are in the king's palace you of all the Jews will escape! <sup>14</sup> For if you remain completely silent at this time, freedom and deliverance will arise for the Jews from somewhere else, but you and your father's family will perish. Who knows whether you have become queen for such a time as this?"

<sup>15</sup> Then Esther told them to take this reply to Mordecai: <sup>16</sup> "Go and assemble all the Jews who are in Susa and hold a fast on my behalf! Do not eat or drink, night or day, for three days! My servant girls and I shall also fast like you. In this way I shall go to the king, although it is against the law. Then if I perish, I perish."

<sup>5</sup> Then the king said, "Bring Haman at once, that we may do what Esther has asked!"

So, the king and Haman came to the dinner that Esther had prepared. <sup>6</sup> While they were drinking the wine, the king asked Esther: "What is your petition, that it may be granted to you? What is your request? Even if it is up to half of the kingdom, it will be carried out."

<sup>7</sup> Then Esther answered: "My petition and my request is this: <sup>8</sup> If Your Majesty regards me kindly and, if Your Majesty is pleased to grant my petition and carry out my request, let Your Majesty and Haman come to the dinner that I shall prepare for them! Then tomorrow I shall do what Your Majesty has requested."

Haman's plans to have Mordecai hanged

<sup>9</sup> When Haman went out that day he was happy and in high spirits. However, when Haman saw Mordecai at the king's gate and that he did not get up or show fear in his presence, Haman was filled with rage against Mordecai. <sup>10</sup> Nevertheless, Haman restrained himself, went home and asked his friends and his wife Zeresh to come to him. <sup>11</sup> Haman recounted to them how very rich he was, how many sons he had, all the ways in which the king had been honouring him and how far he had advanced him above the king's other nobles and officials. <sup>12</sup> Then Haman said: "Even Queen Esther did not invite anyone but me to come with the king to the dinner that she prepared. She is even inviting me together with the king for tomorrow.

<sup>14</sup> Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends told him: "Let a gallows be built, twenty-five metres high and, in the morning, ask the king to have Mordecai hanged on it! Then go cheerfully with the king to the dinner!" Haman agreed with the suggestion and built the gallows.

The royal command that Haman should honour Mordecai

<sup>1</sup> That night the king could not sleep. He ordered someone to fetch in the official daily records, and they were read out in the king's presence. <sup>2</sup> A record was found there that Mordecai had given information about Bigthan and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs who guarded the doorway, who had planned to assassinate King Xerxes. <sup>3</sup> Then the king asked, "What honour and recognition has Mordecai received for this?"

The king's attendants answered, "Nothing has been done for him."

Haman was just entering the outer court of the king's palace to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him. <sup>5</sup> The king's attendants told him: "Haman is standing here in the court."

The king said, "Let him come in!"

The disgrace of Haman in having to honour Mordecai

<sup>6</sup> When Haman came in, the king asked him, "What should be done to the man whom the king is eager to honour?"

Haman thought, "Whom would the king be eager to honour more than me?"

<sup>7</sup> Haman answered the king: "For the man whom the king is eager to honour, <sup>8</sup> men should bring a royal robe that the king has worn and a horse that the king has ridden, one that has a royal crest attached to its head! <sup>9</sup> Then the robe and the horse should be entrusted to one of the king's most noble officials! Men should put the robe on the man whom the king is eager to honour! They should lead him on the horse through the square of the city and proclaim ahead of him: 'This is what is done for the man whom the king is eager to honour!'"

<sup>10</sup> Then the king told Haman: "Quickly, take the robe and the horse, as you have said, and do this to the Jew Mordecai, who sits at the king's gate! Do not omit anything that you have recommended!"

friends everything that had happened to him. Then his wise men and his wife Zeresh told him: "If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, belongs to the Jewish people, you will not win out over him. You will certainly fall before him."

<sup>14</sup> While they were still talking to him, the king's eunuchs arrived and made Haman move quickly to escort him to the dinner that Esther had prepared.

The denunciation of Haman by Esther

<sup>1</sup> So, the king and Haman went in to have dinner with Queen Esther. <sup>2</sup> On that second day, while they were drinking the wine, the king again asked Esther: "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It will be granted you. What, then, is your request? It will be carried out if it is up to half of the kingdom."

<sup>3</sup> Then Queen Esther answered: "If you regard me kindly, Your Majesty and, if Your Majesty approves, let my life be granted to me! This is my petition. Spare my people also! This is my request. <sup>4</sup> For my people and I have been sold, to be destroyed, to be killed and to be annihilated. If our men and women had merely been sold to be slaves, I would have remained silent. For it would not have been worth bothering Your Majesty about such distress."

<sup>5</sup> Then King Xerxes asked Queen Esther: "Who is he? Where is the man who has dared to do such a thing?"

Then Haman was overtaken by sudden terror in the presence of the king and the queen. <sup>7</sup> In his anger the king got up from drinking wine and went into the palace garden. However, Haman stayed behind to beg for his life from Queen Esther. For he saw that the king had decided to bring calamity on him. <sup>8</sup> When the king came back from the palace garden to the room where they had been drinking wine, Haman was falling on the couch where Esther was. Then the king asked, "Is he even going to molest the queen while she is with me in the palace?"

As soon as the word left the king's mouth some men covered Haman's face. <sup>9</sup> Then Harbona, one of the eunuchs who attended the king, said: "Look! It just happens that the gallows are there that Haman has built for Mordecai, who had spoken up to help the king. It is standing at Haman's house, twenty-five metres high."

The king said, "Hang him on it!"

<sup>10</sup> So, they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then the king's fury subsided.

8

The advancement of Mordecai

<sup>1</sup> On that day King Xerxes gave to Queen Esther the house of Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Mordecai came into the presence of the king, for Esther had disclosed how Mordecai was related to her. <sup>2</sup> The king took off his signet ring, which he had reclaimed from Haman, and presented it to Mordecai. Then Esther put Mordecai in charge of Haman's house.

<sup>3</sup> Then Esther spoke to the king again. She fell at his feet, wept and pleaded with him to prevent the calamity that Haman, the descendant of Agag, had planned and the plot that he had devised against the Jews.

<sup>4</sup> When the king held out the golden sceptre to Esther, Esther rose and stood before the king. <sup>5</sup> She said: "If Your Majesty approves, if he regards me kindly, if he thinks it is the right thing to do and, if he is pleased with me, let an order be written to cancel the letters that were devised by Haman, the descendant of Agag, the son of Hammedatha! He wrote the order to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. <sup>6</sup> For how can I bear to see the calamity that will come on my people? How can I bear to see the destruction of my relatives?"

Mordecai's use of his position to save the Jews

<sup>9</sup> The king's scribes were summoned at that time, on the twenty-third day of the third month, the month of Sivan. An edict was written, exactly as Mordecai directed, to the Jews and to the satraps, the governors and the nobles of the one hundred and twenty-seven provinces from India to northern Sudan. It was written in the script of each province and the language of each nationality and to the Jews in their own script and language. <sup>10</sup> Mordecai wrote in the name of King Xerxes and sealed the letters with the king's signet ring. Then he sent the letters by couriers riding on the fast horses that were used in the king's service and had been bred from racing mares. <sup>11</sup> They said: "The king has allowed the Jews who are in every city to assemble and defend their lives, to destroy, to kill and to annihilate any armed force of any nationality or province that might attack them, their women and their children and to plunder the property of such people. <sup>12</sup> They may do this on one day in all the provinces of King Xerxes, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar."

<sup>13</sup> A copy of what was written was to be issued as a decree in every province. It was to be promulgated to all the nationalities, and the Jews were to be ready on that day to take revenge on their enemies. <sup>14</sup> The couriers, riding on the fast horses that were used in the king's service, went out quickly, hurried on by the king's command. The decree was also issued in the citadel of Susa. <sup>15</sup> Mordecai left the king's presence wearing royal garments of purple and white, with a large golden crown and a purple outer garment of fine linen. The city of Susa also cheered with delight and rejoiced. <sup>16</sup> The Jews had a cheerful, glad and joyful time, a time when people honoured them. <sup>17</sup> In every province and in every city, wherever the king's command and his edict reached, there was gladness and joy among the Jews. They feasted and had a happy day. Then many people of other nationalities in the country said that they were Jews, because they had become afraid of the Jews.

The Jews' defence of themselves and the destruction of their enemies

<sup>1</sup> On the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar, the king's command and edict were to be carried out. On the day when the enemies of the Jews had hoped to gain power over them, the opposite happened. The Jews themselves gained power over those who hated them. <sup>2</sup> The Jews assembled in their cities in all the provinces of King Xerxes to attack those who were planning to harm them. No one could resist them, for all the other nationalities had become afraid of them. <sup>3</sup> All the nobles of the provinces, the satraps, the governors and the other royal agents also helped the Jews, for they had become afraid of Mordecai. <sup>4</sup> For Mordecai was a prominent man in the king's palace. His reputation spread throughout the provinces. For the man Mordecai became increasingly prominent. <sup>5</sup> The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them and did as they pleased to those who hated them. <sup>6</sup> In the citadel of Susa the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. <sup>7</sup> They also killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, <sup>8</sup> Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, <sup>9</sup> Pannashta, Arisai, Aridai and Vaizatha, <sup>10</sup> the ten sons of Haman, the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews. However, they did not plunder any of their possessions. <sup>11</sup> The number of those killed in the citadel of Susa was reported to the king on that day. <sup>12</sup> The king told Queen Esther: "The Jews have killed and destroyed five hundred men and the ten sons of Haman in the citadel of Susa. What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? What, then, is your petition? It will be granted you. What is your request? It will also be carried out."

<sup>13</sup> Esther answered: "If Your Majesty approves, let the Jews in Susa be allowed to carry out this day's edict tomorrow also! Let the ten sons of Haman also be hanged up on the gallows!"

<sup>14</sup> The king commanded that this should be done. An edict was issued in Susa, and the ten sons of Haman were hanged up. <sup>15</sup> The Jews who were in Susa also assembled on the fourteenth day of the month of Adar and killed three hundred men in Susa. However, they did not plunder any of their possessions.

<sup>16</sup> The rest of the Jews who were in the king's provinces had also assembled to defend their lives and get relief from their enemies. They had killed seventy-five thousand of those who hated them. However, they had not plundered any of their possessions. <sup>17</sup> This had happened on the thirteenth day of the month of Adar, and on the fourteenth day they rested and made that a day of feasting and joy.

<sup>18</sup> However, the Jews who were in Susa had assembled on the thirteenth day and on the fourteenth day, and rested on the fifteenth day and made that a day of feasting and joy. <sup>19</sup> That is why the Jews in the villages, who live in the unwallied towns, make the fourteenth day of the month of Adar a day for joy and feasting, a festive day and a day on which they send gifts of food to one another.

<sup>20</sup> Mordecai recorded these events and sent letters to all the Jews in all the provinces of King Xerxes, near and far. He obliged them to celebrate annually the fourteenth and the fifteenth days of the month Adar, <sup>22</sup> as the days on which the Jews had obtained relief from their enemies and as the month when their sorrow had been turned into joy and their mourning into a festive day. He obliged them to observe them as days when they would feast, rejoice, send gifts of food to one another and send gifts to the poor. <sup>23</sup> So, the Jews agreed to continue what they had begun and to do what Mordecai had written to them. <sup>24</sup> For Haman, the descendant of Agag, the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them and had cast Pur (which means a lot), to harass and to destroy them. <sup>25</sup> However, when this had come before the king, he had given orders in writing that the wicked scheme that Haman had devised against the Jews should rebound on his own head and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. <sup>26</sup> That is why they have called these days "Purim," after the word "Pur." Therefore, because of everything that had been written in this letter, because of what they had faced in this matter and because of what had happened to them, <sup>27</sup> the Jews willingly obligated themselves, their offspring and all who joined them, to observe these two days annually without fail according to the written instructions about them and at the time appointed for them. <sup>28</sup> They agreed that these days should be remembered and observed in every generation, by every family, in every province and in every city, that these days of Purim should never fall into disuse among the Jews and that the commemoration of these days should not cease among their descendants. <sup>29</sup> Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Abihail and Mordecai the Jew gave full written authority to confirm this second letter about Purim. <sup>30</sup> Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the one hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Xerxes, as messages of peace and truth, <sup>31</sup> to confirm these days of Purim at their appointed times, as Mordecai, the Jew, and Queen Esther had obligated them and as they had obligated themselves and their descendants, about their fasting and their lamenting. <sup>32</sup> Esther's declaration confirmed these regulations about Purim and was written down in the records.

The high rank of Mordecai

JOB

The life of Job and his family

<sup>1</sup> There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. This man was blameless and upright. He feared God and kept away from evil. <sup>2</sup> Seven sons and three daughters were born to him. <sup>3</sup> He possessed seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys and very many servants. This man was the greatest among all the people of the east. <sup>4</sup> His sons used to go to each other's homes when each on an appointed day gave a feast. They also used to send an invitation to their three sisters to eat and drink with them. <sup>5</sup> When the days of the feasting had run their course, Job would send and sanctify them. He used to rise early in the morning and offer a burnt offering for each of them. For Job thought, "It may be that my children have sinned and cursed God in their hearts."

Job used to do this regularly.

Satan's challenge to God about Job

<sup>6</sup> There was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them. <sup>7</sup> The LORD asked Satan, "From where do you come?"

Satan answered the LORD, "From roaming around on the earth and from walking back and forth on it."

<sup>8</sup> The LORD asked Satan: "Have you considered My servant Job? Indeed, there is no one like him on the earth. He is a blameless and upright man, who fears God and keeps away from evil."

<sup>9</sup> Satan answered the LORD: "Does Job fear God without a reason? <sup>10</sup> Have You Yourself not protected him, his family and everything he has with a thorn hedge around him on every side? You have been blessing the work of his hands, so that his livestock have spread out over the land. <sup>11</sup> However, I beg You, stretch out Your hand and strike everything that he has! Then he will certainly curse You to Your face."

Then Satan went out from the presence of the LORD.

Job's loss of his possessions and his children

<sup>13</sup> One day, Job's sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's home. <sup>14</sup> A messenger came to Job and said: "The oxen were ploughing and the donkeys grazing near them, <sup>15</sup> and the Sabians attacked, took them away and killed the servants with the edge of the sword. I am the only one who has escaped to tell you."

<sup>16</sup> While he was still speaking, another came and said: "The fire of God fell from the sky and burned up the sheep and the servants. It consumed them, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you."

<sup>17</sup> While he was still speaking, another came and said: "The Chaldeans formed three companies, made a raid on the camels and took them away. They also killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you."

<sup>18</sup> While he was still speaking, another came and said: "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at their eldest brother's home, <sup>19</sup> when suddenly a fierce wind came across the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on the young people, and they are dead. I am the only one who has escaped to tell you."

<sup>20</sup> Job got up, tore his garment and shaved his head. Then he fell on the ground and worshipped. <sup>21</sup> He said: "I have come from my mother's womb naked and shall I return naked. The LORD has given and the LORD has taken away. May the name of the LORD be blessed!"

Satan's second challenge to God about Job

<sup>1</sup> There was another day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD. <sup>2</sup> The LORD asked Satan, "Where do you come from?"

Satan answered the LORD, "From roaming around on the earth and from going back and forth on it."

<sup>3</sup> The LORD asked Satan: "Have you paid attention to My servant Job? For there is no one like him on the earth. He is a blameless and upright man, fears God and keeps away from evil. He still persists in his perfect way of life, although you are trying to stir Me up against him, to swallow him up without a reason."

<sup>10</sup> He replied to her: "You are talking as one of the foolish women talks. We receive from God what is good. Should we not also receive what is bad?"

In all this, Job did not say anything sinful.

The arrival of Job's three friends

<sup>11</sup> When Job's three friends heard about all this trouble that had come on him, each of them came from his own place, Eliphaz from Teman, Bildad from Shuah, and Zophar from Naama. They met together to sympathise with Job and comfort him. <sup>12</sup> When they saw him from a distance, they did not recognise him. They began to weep aloud. Each one tore his clothes. They threw dust up toward the sky onto their heads. <sup>13</sup> They sat with him on the ground for seven days and seven nights. No one said anything to him because they saw that his suffering was very painful.

Job's regret that he had been born

<sup>3</sup> "May the day when I was born perish, and the night when it was said, 'A boy is conceived!'" <sup>4</sup> May that day be dark! May God above not care about it! May no light shine on it! <sup>5</sup> May darkness and deep gloom reclaim it! May a cloud settle over it! May gloom that darkens a day terrify it! <sup>6</sup> May thick darkness seize that night! May it not be included among the days of the year! May it not come into the number of the months! <sup>7</sup> Look! May that night be barren! May no shout of joy enter it! <sup>8</sup> May those who put a curse on a day curse that one, those who are ready to disturb Leviathan! <sup>9</sup> May the stars of its early dawn be dark! May it hope for light but have none and may it not see the flashing rays of the morning! <sup>10</sup> For it did not shut the doors of my mother's womb or hide trouble from my eyes. <sup>11</sup> Why did I not die at birth and pass away when I came out of the womb? <sup>12</sup> Why did knees come in contact with me? Or why were there breasts, that I should suck? <sup>13</sup> For then I would have lain down and been quiet. I would have slept. Then there would have been rest for me. <sup>14</sup> I would have been with kings and counsellors of the earth, who built places for themselves that are now ruins. <sup>15</sup> Or I would have been with princes who had gold and who used to fill their houses with silver. <sup>16</sup> Or why was I not like a hidden stillborn child, like infants who have never seen the light? <sup>17</sup> There wicked people have ceased their agitation, and there weary people are at rest. <sup>18</sup> There the prisoners have together become free from anxiety. They have stopped hearing the shout of the slave driver. <sup>19</sup> The small and the great are there, and the slave is free from his master. <sup>20</sup> Why is light given to a miserable person, and life to people who are in mental distress, <sup>21</sup> who lie in wait for death that does not come and who have been searching for it more than for hidden treasures, <sup>22</sup> who rejoice exceedingly and are glad when they find the grave? <sup>23</sup> Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden, which God has made inaccessible for him? <sup>24</sup> For my moaning comes instead of my food, and my groanings have been poured out like water. <sup>25</sup> For I have become afraid of danger, and it has overtaken me, and what I have dreaded has happened to me. <sup>26</sup> I have not been at ease and have not been at peace. I have not been at rest, but turmoil has come."

Eliphaz' opinion that those who suffer have been wicked

<sup>2</sup> "If anyone has attempted to speak to you, will you become impatient? Yet who can refrain from speaking? <sup>3</sup> Look! You have been instructing many people and you used to strengthen hands that were hanging limp. <sup>4</sup> Your words used to uphold a person who was stumbling, and you used to strengthen knees that were giving way. <sup>5</sup> However, now trouble is coming on you, and you have become impatient. It touches you, and you are dismayed. <sup>6</sup> Does not your worship make you confident, and do not your blameless ways give you hope? <sup>7</sup> Please remember! Which innocent person has ever perished? Or where have upright people ever been destroyed? <sup>8</sup> When I have observed people ploughing wickedness and sowing trouble, they reap what they have sown. <sup>9</sup> The breath of God destroys them, and they perish because of the blast of His anger. <sup>10</sup> A lion may roar, and a fierce lion may growl, but the teeth of fierce strong lions have been knocked out. <sup>11</sup> A lion perishes for lack of prey, and the cubs of a lioness are scattered. <sup>12</sup> A word is brought to me secretly. My ear has received a whisper about it. <sup>13</sup> Among troubled thoughts from visions during the night, when deep sleep falls on men, <sup>14</sup> fear and trembling have come over me and have made all my bones shake. <sup>15</sup> A spirit used to pass over my face. It used to make the hair on my body stand on end. <sup>16</sup> It used to stand still, but I could not discern what it looked like. A form was before my eyes. There was a whisper, and I used to hear a voice: <sup>17</sup> 'Can any human being be righteous before God? Can a man be pure before his Maker?' <sup>18</sup> You see! God does not trust His own servants and accuses His angels of folly. <sup>19</sup> How much more those who live in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust and whom people crush more readily than a moth! <sup>20</sup> Between morning and evening they are broken in pieces. They perish for ever with no one paying any attention to it. <sup>21</sup> Have their tent-cords not been pulled up in them? Do they not die even without wisdom?"

Eliphaz' answer that submission to God brings happiness

<sup>1</sup> "Please, call out! Is there anyone who answers you? To which of the holy ones will you turn? <sup>2</sup> Surely, vexation will kill a foolish person, and jealousy will slay a person who is easily deceived. <sup>3</sup> I myself saw a foolish person while he was taking root. However, I suddenly cursed his dwelling. <sup>4</sup> His children are far from safety. They are crushed in the city-gate, and there is no one to rescue them. <sup>5</sup> A hungry person eats his harvest and takes it even from among thorns. A trap also longs to catch his wealth. <sup>6</sup> For calamity will not come out of the dust, and trouble will not sprout up from the ground. <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless, man is born to trouble as sparks fly high up. <sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, I myself would make supplication to God and would commit my cause to God. <sup>9</sup> He performs great deeds that are unsearchable, wonderful things that cannot be counted. <sup>10</sup> He gives rain on the earth and sends water on the open fields. <sup>11</sup> He sets lowly people on high, and people who mourn have been lifted high to safety. <sup>12</sup> He frustrates the devices of cunning people, so that their hands will not achieve any success. <sup>13</sup> He catches wise people in their own craftiness, and the plans of wily people are brought to a quick end. <sup>14</sup> During the day they will encounter darkness and will grope at noon as in the night. <sup>15</sup> However, He has been saving a needy person from the swords in their mouths. He has been saving him from the hands of a powerful man. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, poor people have had hope, and injustice has shut its mouth.

Eliphaz' opinion that God's correction brings blessing

<sup>17</sup> "Look! Blessed is the human being whom God corrects! Do not despise the discipline of the Almighty! <sup>18</sup> For, although He wounds, He will bandage. Although He causes injury, His hands will heal.

<sup>19</sup> "He will rescue you from six troubles. In seven no harm will touch you. <sup>20</sup> In famine He will redeem you from death and in war from the power of the sword.

<sup>22</sup> You will laugh at violent action and famine and you should not be afraid of the wild animals of the earth! <sup>23</sup> For you will have a contract with the stones of the field, and the wild animals will be at peace with you. <sup>24</sup> You will know that your tent is secure. When you inspect your dwelling you will not miss anything.

<sup>25</sup> You will also know that your offspring will be numerous and your descendants will be like the grass of the earth. <sup>26</sup> You will come to the grave in ripe old age, like a stack of sheaves gathered up in its season.

Job's reply that he is suffering severely without reason

<sup>2</sup> "I wish that my grief were fully weighed and that my calamity were laid with it on the scales! <sup>3</sup> For then it would be heavier than the sand of the seas. That is why I have been uttering my words impetuously.

for! <sup>9</sup> I wish that God would be content to crush me, that He would let His hand loose and cut me off! <sup>10</sup> Then I would still have this consolation. I would be jumping for joy although the pain has no compassion. For I would not have refused to declare the Words of the Holy One. <sup>11</sup> What strength do I have that I should wait untiringly? What is my destination, that I should be patient? <sup>12</sup> Do I have the strength of stones? Or is my flesh bronze? <sup>13</sup> Am I not completely helpless when a good result has been driven away from me?

<sup>28</sup> Now, therefore be content to look at me, whether I would lie to you in the face! <sup>29</sup> Please change your minds, and let there be no injustice! Change your minds! I am still right in this. <sup>30</sup> Is there any injustice on my tongue? Will my mouth not perceive malicious speech?

<sup>28</sup> Now, therefore be content to look at me, whether I would lie to you in the face! <sup>29</sup> Please change your minds, and let there be no injustice! Change your minds! I am still right in this. <sup>30</sup> Is there any injustice on my tongue? Will my mouth not perceive malicious speech?

Job's reply that human beings are slaves without hope

life is a breath! My eye will not see again what is good. <sup>8</sup> The eye of a person who now sees me will not see me again. While your eyes are on me, I shall be no more. <sup>9</sup> As a cloud has vanished and gone away, so he who goes down to the grave will not come up. <sup>10</sup> He will not return to his house again. His place will not recognise him any longer. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, I myself shall not restrain my mouth. I shall speak out in the anguish of my spirit. I shall complain in the bitterness of my soul.

Job's request to God to leave him alone

<sup>12</sup> "Am I the sea or a sea monster, that You should set a guard over me? <sup>13</sup> When I have thought, 'My couch will comfort me, my bed will support me in my complaint,' <sup>14</sup> then You frighten me with dreams and terrify me with visions. <sup>15</sup> Then my soul has preferred suffocation and death to my own bones. <sup>16</sup> I have been feeling aversion. I shall not live for ever. Leave me alone! For my days are only a breath. <sup>17</sup> What is a human being, that You should make much of him and that You should set Your heart on him? <sup>18</sup> What is he that You should visit him every morning and test him every moment? <sup>19</sup> How long? Will You not look away from me? Will You not let me alone until I swallow my spittle? <sup>20</sup> Have I sinned? What shall I do for You, You Preserver of mankind? Why have You made me Your target, so that I have become a burden to myself? <sup>21</sup> Why, then, will You not pardon my rebellion and take away my guilt? For I shall soon lie down in the dust. When You search for me, I shall be no more."

Bildad's reply that God is just and that Job should not accuse him of doing evil

Bildad's assertion that God does not afflict innocent people

<sup>11</sup> "Will papyrus grow high where there is no swamp? Will river-grass thrive where there is no water? <sup>12</sup> While they are still fresh, without being plucked off, they wither more quickly than any other green grass. <sup>13</sup> The paths of all who forget God are like them. The hope of a godless person will perish. <sup>14</sup> His confidence will snap. His trust is a spider's web. <sup>15</sup> When he leans against his own house, it will not stand. When he clings to it, it will not stand up. <sup>16</sup> He is a well-watered plant in the sunshine, and his shoots spread over his garden. <sup>17</sup> His roots will be entwined on a pile of rocks. He will gaze at a house of stones. <sup>18</sup> If it swallows the plant up from his place, it will disown him, saying, 'I have never seen you.' <sup>19</sup> You see! This is the withered condition of his way, and others will spring up out of the dust. <sup>20</sup> Look! God will not reject a blameless person or strengthen the hands of evildoers. <sup>21</sup> He will still fill your mouth with laughter and your lips with shouts of joy. <sup>22</sup> Those who hate You will be clothed with shame, and the tents of wicked people will be no more."

Job's reply that he cannot defend himself against God although he is innocent

<sup>2</sup> "Truly I know that it is so. However, how can a human being be righteous before God? <sup>3</sup> If anyone wishes to dispute with Him, he will not answer Him once in a thousand times. <sup>4</sup> God is wise in heart, and His power is vast. Who has resisted Him and remained unscathed? <sup>5</sup> He moves mountains without their knowing it. He has overturned them in His anger. <sup>6</sup> He shakes the earth out of its place, and its pillars tremble. <sup>7</sup> He speaks to the sun, and it does not rise. He seals up the stars. <sup>8</sup> He alone stretches out the heavens and walks on the wave-crests of the sea. <sup>9</sup> He is the Maker of the Great Bear, Orion, the Pleiades and the constellations of the southern sky. <sup>10</sup> He does things so great that they cannot be comprehended and too many wonders to be counted. <sup>11</sup> Look! When He goes past me, I do not see Him. When He moves on, I do not perceive Him. <sup>12</sup> Look! When He snatches something away, who will turn Him back? Who will ask Him, 'What are You doing?' <sup>13</sup> God will not turn away from His anger. The helpers of Rahab have bowed down beneath Him. <sup>14</sup> How much less can I answer Him? How can I choose my words to speak with Him? <sup>15</sup> Even if I were righteous, I could not answer Him. I would plead for mercy from my Judge. <sup>16</sup> If I had summoned Him and He had answered me, I would not believe that He was listening to what I was saying. <sup>17</sup> He would crush me with a storm and would give me many wounds without a reason. <sup>18</sup> He would not allow me to regain my breath but would overwhelm me with bitterness. <sup>19</sup> If it is a matter of strength, indeed, He is mighty! If it is a matter of justice, who will summon me? <sup>20</sup> Even if I were righteous, my own mouth would condemn me. Even if I were blameless, He would pronounce me perverse. <sup>21</sup> If I were blameless, I would not be concerned about myself. I despise my own life. <sup>22</sup> It is all the same. That is why I have said, ‘He eliminates both blameless people and wicked people.’ <sup>23</sup> When a flood brings sudden death, He will mock at the despair of innocent people. <sup>24</sup> The earth has been placed into the hand of wicked people. He covers the faces of its judges. If it is not He, then who is it? <sup>25</sup> My days have been swifter than a runner. They have fled away. They have not seen any good things. <sup>26</sup> They have gone past like boats made of reeds, like an eagle that swoops down on its prey. <sup>27</sup> If I say, ‘I shall forget my complaint, I shall give up looking as I do and I shall smile,’ <sup>28</sup> I am afraid of all my sufferings. I know that You will not consider me innocent. <sup>29</sup> I myself shall be guilty. Why then should I labour in vain? <sup>30</sup> If I washed myself with melted snow and cleaned my hands with lye, <sup>31</sup> then You would plunge me into the slime-pit, and my own clothes would detest me. <sup>32</sup> For He is not a man, as I am, that I should answer Him and that we should come into court together. <sup>33</sup> There is no arbitrator between us, who might lay his hand on both of us, <sup>34</sup> who might remove God’s rod from me, that fear of Him might not torment me. <sup>35</sup> Then I would speak without fear of Him. However, that is not how my own circumstances are.

Job’s reply that he hates his life because God is looking for sin in him

<sup>1</sup> ‘I myself feel disgust with my life. I shall express my complaint freely. I shall speak out in the bitterness of my soul. <sup>2</sup> I shall say to God, ‘Do not declare me guilty! Inform me why You are bringing a prosecution against me! <sup>3</sup> Do You think that it is good that You are oppressing me, that You are despising what Your hands have laboured over and that You have been smiling with approval at the schemes of wicked people? <sup>4</sup> Do You have eyes of flesh? Do You see as a human being sees? <sup>5</sup> Are Your days like the days of a human being or are Your years like those of a man, <sup>6</sup> that You are looking for guilt in me and searching for sin in me, <sup>7</sup> although You know that I am not guilty and that there is no one who can rescue me from Your hands? <sup>8</sup> Your hands have shaped me and made me but all at once You have destroyed me on every side. <sup>9</sup> Please remember that You have made me like clay! Will You return me to the dust? <sup>10</sup> Are You not pouring me out like milk and curdling me like cheese? <sup>11</sup> You clothe me with skin and flesh and knit me together with bones and sinews. <sup>12</sup> You have made life for me and shown me faithful love, and Your providence has been preserving my spirit. <sup>13</sup> Nevertheless, You have hidden these things in Your heart. I know that this was Your purpose. <sup>14</sup> If I have sinned, You watch me and do not declare me free of punishment from my guilt. <sup>15</sup> If I have been guilty, how sad for me! If I have been righteous, I shall not lift up my head. For I am full of shame. Just look at my affliction! <sup>16</sup> If my head is high, You will hunt me like a lion and display Your awesome wonders against me again. <sup>17</sup> You will bring Your new witnesses against me and increase Your anger against me. Another wave of soldiers and another army confront me. <sup>18</sup> Why have You brought me out of the womb? I should have died before any eye had seen me! <sup>19</sup> I would have been as if I had never existed. I would have been carried from the womb to the grave. <sup>20</sup> My days are few, are they not? So, stop and turn away from me, that I may be cheerful for a little while, <sup>21</sup> before I go away and never return but go to the land of darkness and deep shadow, <sup>22</sup> the land of darkness like gloomy darkness, like deep shadow that lacks order, where what shines brightly is like gloomy darkness!’”

Zophar’s reply that, if Job got rid of sin, he would be happy.

<sup>2</sup> “Should these many words go unanswered or should a man be vindicated because of his talking? <sup>3</sup> Should your loose talk silence people? When you mock, should there be no one who makes you ashamed? <sup>4</sup> You say, ‘What I believe is flawless, and I have been pure in Your sight.’ <sup>5</sup> Nevertheless, I wish that God would speak and would open His lips to you! <sup>6</sup> I wish that He would tell you the secrets of wisdom! For wisdom has two sides. Realise that God will cause you to forget some of your guilt! <sup>7</sup> Can you find out the mysteries of God? Can you find out the limits of the Almighty? <sup>8</sup> They are the heights of heaven. What can you do? They are deeper than Sheol. What can you know? <sup>9</sup> Their measure is longer than the earth and wider than the sea. <sup>10</sup> If He comes along, imprisons anyone and summons people, who can make Him turn back? <sup>11</sup> For He knows worthless people. When He has seen evil, will He not pay attention to it? <sup>12</sup> However, a witless man will become intelligent only when a wild donkey’s colt is born as a human being! <sup>13</sup> If you yourself have made your heart ready, you will stretch out your hands toward Him. <sup>14</sup> If there is evil in your hand, put it far away! Do not cause injustice to dwell in your tents! <sup>15</sup> Surely you would then lift up your face without shame. You would be made a solid casting and would not be afraid. <sup>16</sup> You would surely forget your own misery. You would remember it only as water that has flowed past. <sup>17</sup> Your span of life would rise up more than the noonday. Its darkness would be like the morning. <sup>18</sup> You would be confident, because there is hope. You would look around and rest securely. <sup>19</sup> You would lie down, and no one would make you afraid. Many people would flatter you. <sup>20</sup> However, the eyes of wicked people will fail. Their place of refuge has been lost to them, and their hope is the breathing out

12

<sup>2</sup> “Truly you are the people, and wisdom will die with you! <sup>3</sup> However, I have a mind as well as you have. I am not inferior to you. Who does not know things like these? <sup>4</sup> I am a laughingstock to my friends. Although I used to call to God and He answered me, although I am righteous and blameless, I am a laughingstock. <sup>5</sup> A person who is at ease thinks about calamity with contempt. He thinks that it is ready for those whose feet stagger. <sup>6</sup> The tents of those who lay waste are at peace, and those who provoke God to anger are secure, although God has brought security to them in His hand. <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless, please ask the animals, and they will teach you! Ask the birds of the sky, and they will tell you! <sup>8</sup> Or ask the bushes of the earth, and they will teach you, and let the fish of the sea inform you! <sup>9</sup> Who among all these does not know that the hand of the LORD has done this? <sup>10</sup> In His hand is the life of every living creature and the spirit in every human body. <sup>11</sup> Does not the ear test words, and does not the tongue taste its food? <sup>12</sup> Wisdom is in aged people, and long life brings understanding. <sup>13</sup> However, God is both wise and powerful. Advice and understanding belong to Him. <sup>14</sup> Look! If He demolishes, no one will rebuild. If He puts a man in prison, it will not be opened. <sup>15</sup> Look! If He holds the water back, things wither. If He sends it out, it overwhelms the land. <sup>16</sup> God has strength and sound wisdom. The one who is deceived and the one who leads astray belong to Him. <sup>17</sup> He leads away those who give advice with their clothes stripped off and makes fools of judges. <sup>18</sup> He has released people from the punishment of kings and has tied a waistband around their hips. <sup>19</sup> He leads priests away with their clothes stripped off and overthrows men who have been long established. <sup>20</sup> He takes away the speech of trusted men and takes away the discretion of elders. <sup>21</sup> He pours contempt on leading men and unties the military belt of mighty men. <sup>22</sup> He reveals deep things out of darkness and brings deep darkness to the light. <sup>23</sup> He makes nations great and destroys them. He expands nations and guides them. <sup>24</sup> He takes away the intelligence of the leaders of the people of the earth and makes them wander in a pathless wasteland. <sup>25</sup> They grope in the dark without light, and He makes them stagger like a drunkard.

13

Job's reply that his friends misrepresent God and that he would like to speak to God

<sup>1</sup> “Look! My eye has seen all this. My ear has heard and understood it. <sup>2</sup> I also know what you know. I am not inferior to you. <sup>3</sup> However, I myself would like to speak to the Almighty and I desire to make my defence to God. <sup>4</sup> Nevertheless, you are telling lies as a cover. You are all worthless healers! <sup>5</sup> I wish that you would be quite silent! Then you would be wise! <sup>6</sup> Please listen to my argument and pay attention to what my lips contend! <sup>7</sup> Will you speak wickedly on God's behalf? Will you speak deceitfully for Him? <sup>8</sup> Will you show Him special favour? Will you contest a lawsuit on behalf of God? <sup>9</sup> Will it turn out well if He examines you? Or will you deceive Him, as you might deceive a human being? <sup>10</sup> He will certainly rebuke you if you secretly show special favours. <sup>11</sup> Will His splendour not terrify you, and will the dread of Him not fall on you? <sup>12</sup> Your maxims are proverbs of ashes. Your defences are defences of clay. <sup>13</sup> Be silent before me! Then I myself shall speak. Let whatever comes on me come! <sup>14</sup> Why should I take my flesh in my teeth, and why should I put my life in my hands? <sup>15</sup> Look! Although He kills me, I shall hope in Him. I shall surely defend my ways to His face. <sup>16</sup> This will also serve to deliver me. For no godless person would come before Him. <sup>17</sup> Continue to listen to what I say, and let what I declare be in your ears! <sup>18</sup> Please look! I have prepared my lawsuit. I know that I shall be declared righteous. <sup>19</sup> Who is there who will bring a lawsuit against me? For now, if I were silent, I would die.

Job's question why God would scare a leaf

<sup>20</sup> “Do not do to me only these two things! Then I shall not hide from You. <sup>21</sup> Take Your hand far away from me, and let terror of You not torment me! <sup>22</sup> Then call, and I myself shall answer! Or let me speak, and make Your reply to me! <sup>23</sup> How many iniquities and sins have I committed? Show me my rebellion and my sin! <sup>24</sup> Why would You hide Your face and regard me as Your enemy? <sup>25</sup> Would You cause terror to a leaf being blown by the wind and would You chase after dry chaff? <sup>26</sup> For You would write down bitter things against me and make me inherit the sins of my youth. <sup>27</sup> You would put my feet in the shackles and watch all my paths. You would engrave marks on the soles of my feet. <sup>28</sup> Man would decompose like something rotten. He would be like a garment that clothes-moths have eaten.

Job's request to God to consider his frail human nature

<sup>1</sup> “A human being who is born of a woman lives for a few days and is full of trouble. <sup>2</sup> He has come out like a flower and withered away. He has fled like a shadow and will not continue. <sup>3</sup> Nevertheless, have You opened your eyes on such a person and will You bring me before Yourself for judgment? <sup>4</sup> Who can bring what is clean out of what is unclean? No one! <sup>5</sup> Rather, his days have been determined, and You control the number of his months. You have appointed his limits, which he cannot go past. <sup>6</sup> Look away from him and let him become fat, until he enjoys his day, like a hired man! <sup>7</sup> For there is hope for a tree when it is cut down, that it will sprout again and that its young shoots will not fail. <sup>8</sup> If its root grows old in the ground and its stump dies in the dry soil, <sup>9</sup> at a scent of water it will bud and produce branches like a plant. <sup>10</sup> However, a man dies and loses all power. A human being breathes his last, and where is he? <sup>11</sup> Water evaporates from a lake, and a river becomes parched and dries up. <sup>12</sup> That is how a man lies down and does not rise. Until the heavens are no more men will not awake or be roused from their sleep. <sup>13</sup> I wish that You would hide me in the grave, that you would conceal me until Your anger has changed, that You would appoint a definite time for me and then remember me! <sup>14</sup> If a human being dies, will he live again? I shall wait eagerly all the days of my hard service, until my replacement comes. <sup>15</sup> You will call, and I shall answer You. You will long for the one whom Your hands have made. <sup>16</sup> For now You will count my steps. You will not keep watch over my sin. <sup>17</sup> My rebellion will be sealed up in a bag, and You will cover my sin. <sup>18</sup> However, a mountain falls and crumbles away, and a rock will move from its place. <sup>19</sup> Water wears away stones. Its current will flood the dry soil of the earth. That is how you destroy a human being's hope. <sup>20</sup> You overpower him permanently, and he has gone. You change his expression and send him away. <sup>21</sup> If his sons are honoured, he does not know it. If they become insignificant, he does not perceive it. <sup>22</sup> He will feel only the pain of his own body and will mourn only for himself."

<sup>2</sup> "Should a wise man answer with empty notions and fill his belly with the east wind? <sup>3</sup> Should he argue with useless words or with speeches that have no value? <sup>4</sup> However, you yourself are causing the fear of God to fail and are hindering meditation before God. <sup>5</sup> For your sin is prompting your mouth, and you are choosing the language of crafty people. <sup>6</sup> Your own mouth condemns you, not mine. Your own lips testify against you. <sup>7</sup> Are you the first man to have been born? Or were you brought forth before the hills? <sup>8</sup> Do you listen in on the confidential discussion of God? Do you reduce wisdom to yourself? <sup>9</sup> What do you know that we do not know? What do you understand that we do not? <sup>10</sup> Both the grey-haired and the aged are among us, older than your father is. <sup>11</sup> Are the comforting Words of God not enough for you, when He speaks gently to you? <sup>12</sup> Why is your heart carrying you away, and why are your eyes flashing, <sup>13</sup> that you are turning your spirit against God and are bringing such words out of your mouth? <sup>14</sup> What is a human being, that he can be pure? What is a person born of a woman, that he can be righteous? <sup>15</sup> Look! God puts no trust in His holy ones, and the heavens are not pure in His sight. <sup>16</sup> How much less a person who is repulsive and corrupt, a man who drinks wickedness like water! <sup>17</sup> I shall explain to you. Listen to me! Let me declare what I have seen! <sup>18</sup> I shall tell you what wise men report, without concealing what they have received from their fathers. <sup>19</sup> The land had been given to them alone, and no stranger passed among them. <sup>20</sup> The wicked man suffers torment all his days. The ruthless person suffers torment during the number of years that have been stored up for him. <sup>21</sup> Terrifying sounds are in his ears. When he prospers a plunderer will come on him. <sup>22</sup> He does not believe that he will return out of the dark. He is ambushed to be put to the sword. <sup>23</sup> He wanders about for food and asks, 'Where is it?' Indeed, he knows that a dark day is ready and imminent. <sup>24</sup> Trouble and distress will torment him. They will overpower him, like a king ready to attack. <sup>25</sup> For he has stretched out his hand against God and behaves arrogantly against the Almighty. <sup>26</sup> He runs stubbornly against Him with his thickly bossed shield. <sup>27</sup> For he has covered his face with his fat and grown a fat bulge around his waist. <sup>28</sup> He has been living in ruined cities, in houses where no one should live, which were soon to become heaps of ruins. <sup>29</sup> He will not be rich, and his property will not endure. His possessions will not spread over the earth. <sup>30</sup> He will not get out of the dark. A flame will wither his new shoots, and the breath of God's mouth will make him depart. <sup>31</sup> He should not trust in what is worthless and deceive himself! For he will exchange it for what is worthless. <sup>32</sup> It will reach its full measure before his time has come, and his palm-branch will not be green. <sup>33</sup> Like a grapevine he will strip off his unripe fruit and like an olive tree he will throw off his blossoms. <sup>34</sup> For the community of godless people is barren, and fire consumes the tents where bribery takes place. <sup>35</sup> They conceive trouble and give birth to evil. Their womb nurtures deceit."

<sup>2</sup> "I have heard all such things before. You are all troublesome comforters! <sup>3</sup> Will long-winded speeches ever end? Or what is disturbing you that you keep on answering? <sup>4</sup> I also could speak like you if you were in my place. I could make fine speeches against you and shake my head at you. <sup>5</sup> I could use my mouth to encourage you, and the consoling words of my lips would bring you relief. <sup>6</sup> If I speak, my anguish is not relieved and, if I refrain, how much of it leaves me? <sup>7</sup> Surely now God has made me helpless. You have made my entire community desolate. <sup>8</sup> You have also seized me. It is a witness against me. My thinness has risen up against me. It testifies against me in my face.

Job's description of what God has done to him

<sup>9</sup> “He has been tearing me in His wrath and attacking me. He has been gnashing His teeth at me. My Enemy fastens His piercing eyes at me. <sup>10</sup> People have been opening their mouths wide at me. They have been striking me on the cheek in scorn. They have been coming together in a mass against me. <sup>11</sup> God hands me over to an evil person and wrings me out in the hands of wicked people. <sup>12</sup> I was at ease, but He shattered me. He seized me by the neck and crushed me. He set me up as His target. <sup>13</sup> His archers surround me. He pierces deep into my kidneys without mercy. He pours out my gall on the ground. <sup>14</sup> He breaks through me in one gap after another. He runs against me like a warrior. <sup>15</sup> I have stitched sackcloth over my skin and have thrust my forehead in the dust. <sup>16</sup> My face has become warm from weeping, and there is deep darkness on my eyelashes, <sup>17</sup> although my hands have been free from violence and my prayer has been pure.

Job's appeal to God in heaven

Job's plea to God to declare him honest

<sup>1</sup> “My spirit has been broken. My days have been extinguished. The graveyard is ready for me. <sup>2</sup> I certainly have mockery with me, and my eye is lingering on their bitterness. <sup>3</sup> Please lay down a guarantee for me with Yourself! Who is there who will take my hand to put up security for me? <sup>4</sup> Because You have closed their minds to understanding, therefore You will not let them triumph. <sup>5</sup> If anyone informs against his friends to get a share of their property, the eyes of his children will fail.

Job's insistence that he is wiser than his friends

<sup>6</sup> “He has made me repeat a proverb to the peoples, and I am one in whose face people spit. <sup>7</sup> My eye has grown dim because of sorrow, and all the limbs of my body are like a shadow. <sup>8</sup> Upright people are appalled at this, and an innocent person rouses himself against a godless person. <sup>9</sup> Yet a righteous person will hold to his way, and he who has clean hands will grow stronger. <sup>10</sup> However, please come back again, all of you! However, I shall not find a wise man among you. <sup>11</sup> My days have passed. My plans, the desires of my heart, have been shattered. <sup>12</sup> They are turning night into day. They say that light is near in the face of darkness. <sup>13</sup> If I hope for the grave as my home, if I have made up my bed in the dark, <sup>14</sup> if I have called out to the pit, ‘You are my father,’ and to the worm, ‘You are my mother and my sister,’ <sup>15</sup> then where is my hope? Who will see any hope for me? <sup>16</sup> Will my hopes go down to the crosspieces on the gates of Sheol? Will there be peace together in the dust?”

Bildad's reply that wicked people perish

<sup>3</sup> Why have we been regarded as cattle? Why have we been considered as unclean in your sight? <sup>4</sup> He is tearing himself apart in his anger! Will the earth be abandoned for your sake or a boulder move along out of its place? <sup>5</sup> Indeed, the light of wicked people is extinguished, and the flame of his fire stops burning. <sup>6</sup> The light has become dim in his tent, and his lamp above him is extinguished. <sup>7</sup> His vigorous steps are restricted, and his own schemes throw him down. <sup>8</sup> His own feet thrust him into a net while he walks on its mesh. <sup>9</sup> A trap catches him by his heel. A snare holds him fast. <sup>10</sup> A noose is hidden for him on the ground. A trap is on his path for him. <sup>11</sup> Sudden terrors have been frightening him on every side and have been harassing him at his heels. <sup>12</sup> His strength is starved, and calamity is ready for him to stumble. <sup>13</sup> It eats away parts of his skin. The first-born of death eats away the limbs of his body. <sup>14</sup> He is torn away from the tent in which he has trusted, and they march him off to the king of sudden terrors. <sup>15</sup> What does not belong to him lives in his tent. Burning sulphur is scattered over his dwelling. <sup>16</sup> His roots shrivel up under him, and his branches wither above him. <sup>17</sup> The memory of him has been lost from the earth. He has no name in the street. <sup>18</sup> God will drive him from the light into the darkness and will banish him from the world. <sup>19</sup> He has no offspring or descendant among his people and no survivor in his residence. <sup>20</sup> People in the west have been caused to tremble at his day, and people in the east are seized by horror. <sup>21</sup> Surely the dwelling-places of an evil person are like this. The place of the person who does not know God is like this.”

19

Job's reply that God is wronging him

<sup>2</sup> “How long will you torment me and crush me with words? <sup>3</sup> These ten times you keep insulting me. You are attacking me shamelessly! <sup>4</sup> However, if it is true that I have done wrong, my wrongdoing remains with me. <sup>5</sup> If indeed you magnify yourselves against me and make my disgrace an argument against me, <sup>6</sup> then you should know that God has bent me and surrounded me with His net! <sup>7</sup> You see, I cry out, ‘Violence!’ but receive no answer. I call for help, but there is no justice.

Job’s description of what God has done to him

<sup>8</sup> “He has blocked off my road, so that I cannot go past and brings darkness on my paths. <sup>9</sup> He has stripped my glory away from me and removed the crown from my head. <sup>10</sup> He breaks me down on every side, and I have ceased to exist. He has uprooted my hope like a tree. <sup>11</sup> He has fired up His anger against me and has considered me as one of His enemies. <sup>12</sup> His armed divisions come on together. They build up their highway against me and set up their camp around my tent. <sup>13</sup> He has removed my brothers far away from me, and those who used to know me have become completely estranged from me. <sup>14</sup> My relatives have left me alone. My close friends have forgotten me. <sup>15</sup> The guests in my house and my maidservants consider me as a stranger. They have come to regard me as a foreigner. <sup>16</sup> When I have called my servant, he does not answer. I must use my mouth to plead with him for mercy. <sup>17</sup> My breath has become disgusting to my wife, and I have become abhorrent to the children of my own body. <sup>18</sup> Even little boys have been despising me. When I get up, they criticise me. <sup>19</sup> All the men of my intimate circle have been loathing me, and those whom I loved have turned against me. <sup>20</sup> My bones have stuck to my skin and to my flesh, and I have escaped by the skin of my teeth. <sup>21</sup> Have mercy on me, have mercy on me, O you my friends! For the hand of God has struck me. <sup>22</sup> Why do you pursue me as God does? Will you never get enough of my flesh?”

Job’s confidence in his Redeemer

<sup>23</sup> “Therefore, I wish that my words were written! I wish that they were inscribed on a scroll! <sup>24</sup> I wish that they were engraved for ever on rock with a stylus of iron and lead! <sup>25</sup> I myself know that my Redeemer lives and that at the last He will stand on the dust. <sup>26</sup> After this, my skin will surround this body, and from my flesh I shall see God. <sup>27</sup> I myself shall see Him for myself. My own eyes will see and not as a stranger.

Job’s warning to his friends

“My inmost being fails inside me <sup>28</sup> when you say: ‘How we shall persecute him! The root of the trouble is found in him.’ <sup>29</sup> You yourselves should be afraid of the sword! For wrath will bring the punishment by the sword, that you may know that there is a judgment.”

20

Zophar’s reply that the happiness of wicked people is short and their pain is long

<sup>2</sup> “My troubled thoughts will prompt me to reply, because I am greatly disturbed. <sup>3</sup> I hear rebuke that insults me, but a spirit coming from what I understand will give me answers. <sup>4</sup> Do you know how this has been from of old, since man was placed on earth, <sup>5</sup> that the joyful song of wicked people is brief and the joy of an ungodly person lasts for only a moment? <sup>6</sup> Even if his high status rises up to the heavens and his head reaches the clouds, <sup>7</sup> he will perish for ever like his own dung. Those who have seen him will ask, ‘Where is he?’ <sup>8</sup> He will fly away like a dream, and people will not find him. He will be banished like a vision of the night. <sup>9</sup> The eye that has been seeing him will not see him any longer. His place will not look at him any longer. <sup>10</sup> His children will pay compensation to the poor, and his own hands will pay back his wealth. <sup>11</sup> His bones had once been full of his youthful vigour, but it will lie down with him in the dust. <sup>12</sup> Even if he enjoys the sweetness of evil in his mouth and hides it under his tongue, <sup>13</sup> even if he tries to save it and does not let it go but holds it back in his mouth, <sup>14</sup> his food will be altered in his stomach. It will become the venom of snakes inside him. <sup>15</sup> Although he has swallowed up wealth, he will vomit it out again. God will disgorge it out of his belly. <sup>16</sup> He will suck the poison of snakes. The fang of a viper will kill him. <sup>17</sup> Let him not enjoy the streams, the streams flowing with honey and cream! <sup>18</sup> He will give back what he has toiled for and will not swallow it down. He will not enjoy the profit gained from his trading. <sup>19</sup> For he has been oppressing and abandoning poor people. He has seized a house that he had not built. <sup>20</sup> Indeed, he has not experienced any freedom from concern in his own body. He will not use what he has been coveting to save himself. <sup>21</sup> Nothing is left for him to eat. Therefore, his prosperity will not last for long. <sup>22</sup> Although he has great plenty, he will be in distress. The full weight of oppression will come on him. <sup>23</sup> When he is filling his stomach, may God send His fierce anger on him! May He rain that down on him in His rage! <sup>24</sup> He will flee from an iron weapon. A bronze-tipped arrow will pierce through him. <sup>25</sup> He has drawn it out, and it has come out of his back, and the gleaming point comes out of his gall-bladder. Terrors come over him. <sup>26</sup> What he has stored up is buried in complete darkness. A fire that has not been fanned will devour him. What has been left in his tent will be of no more use. <sup>27</sup> The heavens will expose his guilt. The earth rises up against him. <sup>28</sup> The possessions of his house will be carried away in a cascading stream on the day of God’s wrath. <sup>29</sup> This is a wicked man’s portion from God, the inheritance that God has decreed for him.”

<sup>2</sup> “Keep listening to what I am saying! Let this be the way you give comfort! <sup>3</sup> Bear with me! Then I shall speak! After I have spoken, you may go on mocking. <sup>4</sup> As for me, is my complaint against a man? If it were, why should I not be impatient? <sup>5</sup> Look at me and be astonished! Then lay your hands over your mouths! <sup>6</sup> When I remember this, I am terrified, and shuddering seizes my body. <sup>7</sup> Why do wicked people go on living? Why have they grown old and even become more powerful? <sup>8</sup> They see that their offspring are firmly established around them and can look at their descendants. <sup>9</sup> Their homes are safe with nothing to fear, and no rod of God strikes them. <sup>10</sup> Their bulls breed without fail. Their cows calve and do not miscarry. <sup>11</sup> They send out their little boys like a flock, and their children dance. <sup>12</sup> They sing with the tambourine and the lyre and delight in the sound of the pipe. <sup>13</sup> They finish their days in prosperity and peacefully go down to the grave. <sup>14</sup> They have told God, ‘Depart from us! We do not desire to know Your Ways. <sup>15</sup> What is the Almighty, that we should serve Him? What benefit do we get if we pray to Him?’ <sup>16</sup> You see! Their prosperity is not in their own hands. The advice of wicked people is far from me. <sup>17</sup> How often is the lamp of wicked people extinguished? How often does their calamity come on them, the destiny that God allots in His anger? <sup>18</sup> How often are they like straw before the wind and like chaff that a storm wind has blown away? <sup>19</sup> You say, ‘God will store up a man’s calamity for his children.’ He should pay it back to the man himself, that they may know it! <sup>20</sup> His eyes should see his own ruin! He should drink from the anger of the Almighty! <sup>21</sup> For what delight does he take in his family after him when the number of his months has come to an end?

Job’s assertion that no one understands how God deals with human beings

Job’s complaint that his friends have betrayed him

<sup>27</sup> “Look! I know what you are thinking and your schemes to mistreat me. <sup>28</sup> For you ask, ‘Where is the house of the noble person? Where are the tents in which wicked people used to live?’ <sup>29</sup> Have you not asked those who go past on the road and will you not pay regard to their accounts? <sup>30</sup> They say that an evil man is relieved on the day of calamity. They will be delivered on the day of wrath. <sup>31</sup> Who will tell him to his face how he has been living, and who will pay him back for what he has done? <sup>32</sup> When he is carried off to the cemetery, people will keep watch over his grave-mound. <sup>33</sup> The soil of the valley is sweet to him. All mankind will follow him, and countless others have gone before him. <sup>34</sup> How, then, will you try

<sup>2</sup> “Will a human being benefit God? Will even a person who has insight benefit Him? <sup>3</sup> Is there any pleasure for the Almighty if you are righteous? Is there any gain for Him if you make your ways blameless? <sup>4</sup> Is it because of your piety that He disciplines you and enters into judgment with you? <sup>5</sup> Is your wickedness not great? There is no end to your iniquities. <sup>6</sup> For you demand security from your brothers for no reason and strip people of their clothing, leaving them naked. <sup>7</sup> You do not give water to an exhausted person to drink and refuse to give food to a hungry person. <sup>8</sup> A powerful man owns the land and an honoured man lives in it. <sup>9</sup> You have been sending widows away empty-handed, and the arms of orphans are bruised. <sup>10</sup> That is why snares are all around you and fear suddenly terrifies you. <sup>11</sup> That is why there is darkness, so that you cannot see and why a flood of water covers you. <sup>12</sup> Is not God in the heights of heaven? See also how lofty the highest stars are! <sup>13</sup> Yet you ask, ‘What does God know? Will He judge through very thick cloud? <sup>14</sup> Clouds veil Him, so that He does not see. He walks around on the vault of the sky.’ <sup>15</sup> Will you stay on the old road, on which wicked men have been walking? <sup>16</sup> They have been snatched away before their time. Their foundation has been washed away by a river. <sup>17</sup> They say to God, ‘Depart from us!’ They ask, ‘What can the Almighty do to us?’ <sup>18</sup> Yet it was He who had been filling their houses with good things. However, the advice of wicked people has been far away from me. <sup>19</sup> Righteous people see it and are glad. An innocent person mocks at them, <sup>20</sup> saying, ‘Surely our foes have been destroyed, and a fire has destroyed their wealth.’

Eliphaz’ admonition to Job to make peace with God

<sup>21</sup> “Please have a good relationship with God and be at peace! In that way prosperity will come to you. <sup>22</sup> Please receive Instruction from His mouth and put His Words in your heart! <sup>23</sup> If you return to the Almighty you will be restored. If you remove wickedness far from your tent, <sup>24</sup> if you lay your gold nuggets down in the dust and put your gold from Ophir among the rocks in the ravines, <sup>25</sup> then the Almighty will be your gold nuggets and your choicest silver. <sup>26</sup> For then you will take pleasure in the Almighty and will lift your face up to God. <sup>27</sup> You will pray to Him and He will hear you, and you will fulfil your vows. <sup>28</sup> You will decide on any matter and be successful in it, and light will shine on your ways. <sup>29</sup> For when people have humiliated someone, you have been saying, ‘It is because of pride’. However, God saves the person with downcast eyes. <sup>30</sup> He will deliver even a person who is not innocent. He will even be delivered through the cleanness of your hands.”

Job's reply that, if he could find God, he would defend himself

<sup>2</sup> “Today also I am complaining defiantly. My hand is heavy because of my groaning. <sup>3</sup> I wish I knew where I might find Him. I would go to His dwelling place.

<sup>4</sup> I would lay my case before Him and fill my mouth with protests. <sup>5</sup> I want to know the Words that He would use to answer me. I want to understand what He would say to me. <sup>6</sup> Would He use great power in conducting a lawsuit against me? No! Nevertheless, He Himself would pay attention to me. <sup>7</sup> There an upright person could argue it out with Him, and I would be successful in rescuing myself from my Judge.

<sup>8</sup> Look! If I go to the east, He is not there and, if I go to the west, I cannot perceive Him. <sup>9</sup> When He is at work in the north, I cannot observe Him. When He turns aside to the south, I cannot see Him.

<sup>10</sup> However, He knows the way that I have taken. When He has tested me, I shall come out like gold.

<sup>11</sup> My foot has been closely following His steps. I have been keeping His Way without turning aside. <sup>12</sup> I do not depart from the Commandment of His lips. I have been treasuring the Words of His mouth more than my portion of food.

Job's complaint that God is against him

<sup>13</sup> “However, He stands alone. Who can drive Him back? He does whatever He desires. <sup>14</sup> For He will complete what He has allotted for me. He has many other things like this in His mind. <sup>15</sup> That is why I am terrified at His presence. When I pay full attention to this, I am afraid of Him. <sup>16</sup> God has made my heart timid. The Almighty has terrified me. <sup>17</sup> For I have not been silenced because of the darkness or because of the thick darkness that has been hiding Him from me.

24

Job's statement that God does not punish those who mistreat the poor

clinging to a rock because there is no cave. <sup>9</sup> Wicked people kidnap a fatherless child from the breast they take security for a loan against a needy person.

They carry sheaves while they are hungry. <sup>11</sup> They press olives between their retaining walls. They have been treading winepresses but have been suffering from thirst. <sup>12</sup> People groan from the city, and the souls of wounded people cry out for help. Yet God pays no attention to crime. <sup>13</sup> They have been among those who rebel against the light. They have not acknowledged its ways and have not stayed in its paths. <sup>14</sup> A murderer rises at dawn, that he may kill a poor and needy person, and, in the night, he becomes a thief. <sup>15</sup> The eye of an adulterer has been watching for the dusk. He says, ‘No eye will see me’ and he puts a covering over his face. <sup>16</sup> In the dark they have been digging through walls of houses. By day they have been shutting themselves in. They do not know the light. <sup>17</sup> For all of them, deep darkness is their morning. When someone recognises them, they feel the sudden terrors of deep darkness. <sup>18</sup> Such a person is like something buoyant on the surface of the water. Their tract of land is accursed on the earth. No one will turn into the road to their vineyards. <sup>19</sup> Drought and heat will snatch snow-water away. The grave will snatch away those who have sinned. <sup>20</sup> The womb forgets him. The worm has feasted on him. He is no longer remembered, and wickedness is broken like a tree. <sup>21</sup> He destroys a barren and childless woman and does not help a widow. <sup>22</sup> Yet God will use His power to drag away mighty persons. Although such a person may become established, he will put no trust in life.

25

Bildad's reply that human beings cannot be righteous in God's sight

26

Job's reply that human beings know little about God and His power over creation

<sup>2</sup> “How you have helped a person who is powerless! How you have saved the arm that is not strong!
<sup>3</sup> What advice you have offered to a person who lacks wisdom! What a great display of sound judgment you have made! <sup>4</sup> Who has helped you to speak these words? Whose breath has come out of you? <sup>5</sup> The spirits of the dead are in deep anguish, those who are beneath the waters and the creatures that live in them. <sup>6</sup> The place of the dead is naked before God. The place of destruction has no covering. <sup>7</sup> God stretches out the north over empty space. He hangs the earth on nothing. <sup>8</sup> He wraps up water in His clouds, and the cloud is not burst open under it. <sup>9</sup> He covers the face of the full moon and spreads His cloud over it. <sup>10</sup> He has marked out a horizon on the surface of the water at the boundary between light and darkness. <sup>11</sup> The pillars of heaven shake and are astounded when He rebukes them. <sup>12</sup> He has used His power to stir up the sea. He has used His understanding to pierce the sea monster. <sup>13</sup> He has used His wind to make the sky clear. His hand has pierced the gliding sea-serpent. <sup>14</sup> You see! These are only the outer fringes of His Ways. How faint the whisper is that we hear of Him! Who, then, can understand the thunder of His power?”

27

Job's insistence that he is innocent and that wicked people will perish

<sup>2</sup> “As surely as God lives, who has taken away my justice, and as surely as the Almighty lives, who has made my life bitter, <sup>3</sup> while my life remains in me and the breath of God is in my nostrils, <sup>4</sup> my lips will certainly not speak anything wicked, and my tongue will not say anything deceitful. <sup>5</sup> I shall certainly never admit that you are right! Until I die I shall not give up my freedom from blame. <sup>6</sup> I have been keeping hold of my righteousness and shall not let it escape. My conscience will not accuse me all my life. <sup>7</sup> Let my enemy be like a wicked person, and let him who rises up against me be like an evil person! <sup>8</sup> For what hope does a godless person have when God cuts him off, when God takes away his life? <sup>9</sup> Will God listen to his cry when distress comes on him? <sup>10</sup> Will he take pleasure in the Almighty? Will he call on God at all times? <sup>11</sup> I shall teach you about the power of God. I shall not conceal what the Almighty has in mind. <sup>12</sup> Look! All of you have seen it yourselves. Why, then, are you saying what is quite worthless? <sup>13</sup> This is what God will allot to a wicked human being, the inheritance that ruthless men will receive from the Almighty: <sup>14</sup> If he has many children, the sword will take them, and his descendants will not have enough to eat. <sup>15</sup> Those who survive him will be buried because of plague, and his widows will not weep for him. <sup>16</sup> Although he heaps up silver like dust and heaps up clothing like clay, <sup>17</sup> although he heaps it up, a righteous person will wear it, and innocent people will divide his silver. <sup>18</sup> He has built his house like that of a clothes-moth, like a shelter that a watchman has made. <sup>19</sup> He may be rich when he goes to bed, but his wealth will not be gathered in. When he has opened his eyes, his wealth will have gone. <sup>20</sup> Terrors will overtake him like a flood. In the night a gale has blown him away. <sup>21</sup> The east wind will carry him away, and he will be gone. It will sweep him from his place. <sup>22</sup> It will hurl things at him without pity. He will flee headlong from its power. <sup>23</sup> It will clap its hands at him and will whistle against him when he leaves his place.

28

Job's statement that human beings search out many things and his question where wisdom may be found

<sup>1</sup> “Certainly there is a mine for silver and a place where people refine gold. <sup>2</sup> Iron is taken out of the ground, and copper is smelted out of ore. <sup>3</sup> Man has put an end to darkness while he searches out the ore to the farthest limit in gloom and deep darkness. <sup>4</sup> He has dug out a mineshaft away from where anyone lives, in places forgotten by the foot of man. They have been dangling and swinging back and forth, far away from other human beings. <sup>5</sup> Food grows out of the ground but underneath it is turned over as by fire. <sup>6</sup> Sapphires come from its stones, and it contains gold dust. <sup>7</sup> No bird of prey knows the path to it, and no falcon's eye has seen it. <sup>8</sup> No animal with a proud look has been treading on it. No lion has been prowling over it. <sup>9</sup> Man has been stretching out his hand towards the flinty rock and has been overturning hills at their roots. <sup>10</sup> He has been cutting out tunnels in the rocks, and his eye has seen every precious thing. <sup>11</sup> He has been blocking off streams, so that water does not trickle out, and brings the hidden things of the earth out into the light. <sup>12</sup> However, where can wisdom be found? Where is the source of understanding? <sup>13</sup> A human being does not know its proper value. It cannot be found in the land of the living. <sup>14</sup> The deep ocean has said, ‘It is not in me.’ The sea has said, ‘It is not with me.’ <sup>15</sup> It cannot be bought with pure gold, and silver cannot be weighed out as its price. <sup>16</sup> It cannot be bought with the gold of Ophir or with lapis lazuli or sapphires. <sup>17</sup> Gold and glass cannot compare with it, and golden jewellery cannot be exchanged for it. <sup>18</sup> No mention will be made of coral or of rock crystal. The price of wisdom is higher than red corals. <sup>19</sup> The chrysolite of Cush cannot compare with it. It cannot be bought with pure gold. <sup>20</sup> From where, then, does wisdom come? Where is the source of understanding? <sup>21</sup> It has been hidden from the eyes of every living being. It has also been hidden from the birds in the sky. <sup>22</sup> The place of destruction and death have said, ‘We have heard a rumour about it with our ears.’ <sup>23</sup> God understands the way to it and knows the source of it. <sup>24</sup> For He looks at the ends of the earth and sees everything under the heavens. <sup>25</sup> When He gave to the wind its force and determined the volume of water, <sup>26</sup> when He made a decree for the rain and a path for thundering lightning bolts, <sup>27</sup> then He saw it and declared it. He established it and explored it. <sup>28</sup> He told human beings, ‘Look! The fear of the Lord is wisdom, and turning away from evil is understanding.’”

29

Job's statement that God had once been with him

<sup>2</sup> “I wish that I were as I was in the months gone by, as in the days when God was watching over me, <sup>3</sup> when His lamp was shining on my head, when by His light I used to walk through darkness! <sup>4</sup> That was when I was at the time of the prime of my life, when the intimate friendship of God was over my tent, <sup>5</sup> when the Almighty was still with me, when my young boys were around me. <sup>6</sup> That was when my paths were awash with cream and when the rock was being poured out for me as a flow of olive-oil. <sup>7</sup> That was when I used to go out to the gate of the city, when I used to take my seat in the public square, <sup>8</sup> when young men saw me and moved out of the way and when old people got up and stood. <sup>9</sup> That was when leaders refrained from speaking and laid their hands on their mouths. <sup>10</sup> The voices of the nobles were silent, and their tongues stuck to the roofs of their mouths. <sup>11</sup> That was when the ear listened and called me blessed, and when the eye saw and supported me as a witness. <sup>12</sup> For I used to rescue a poor person who cried for help, and an orphan who had no one to assist him. <sup>13</sup> The blessing of a dying person used to come on me, and I used to make a widow's heart to sing for joy. <sup>14</sup> I dressed myself with righteousness, and it clothed me. My justice was like a robe and a turban. <sup>15</sup> I was eyes to a blind person and feet to a lame person. <sup>16</sup> I was a father to poor people and pleaded the case of a person whom I did not know. <sup>17</sup> I broke the jawbones of an evil person and made him drop his prey from his teeth. <sup>18</sup> Then I thought, ‘I shall die in my nest and make my days as numerous as the sand. <sup>19</sup> My roots will spread out to the water, and dew will lie all night on my branches. <sup>20</sup> My high status will remain fresh with me, and my bow will continue to be new in my hand.’ <sup>21</sup> People listened to me and waited in silence for my advice. <sup>22</sup> After I had spoken they did not speak again, and what I said dripped appealingly on them. <sup>23</sup> They waited eagerly for me as for the rain and opened their mouths for the Spring-rains. <sup>24</sup> I used to smile at them when they had no confidence, and they did not look disrespectfully at my kindness. <sup>25</sup> I used to choose the way for them while I sat as their leader. I used to dwell like a king in his military division, like one who was comforting mourners.

Job's declaration that God and human beings are destroying him

<sup>1</sup> “However, now younger people than I have been laughing at me. I would have scorned to classify their fathers with my sheep dogs. <sup>2</sup> Indeed, what help could the strength of their hands have given me, since their physical strength has gone from them? <sup>3</sup> Since they are haggard because of want and hunger, they were foraging for food last night on the dry ground in desolate wastelands. <sup>4</sup> They were plucking off salt weed, the leaves of bushes and the roots of broom trees for their food. <sup>5</sup> They are driven away from their fellow human beings. People shout after them as if they were thieves. <sup>6</sup> They must live on the sloping banks of the ravines, in holes in the ground and in the rocks. <sup>7</sup> They bray among the bushes. They huddle together under wild artichokes. <sup>8</sup> They are a senseless and nameless brood and have been driven out of the land with whips. <sup>9</sup> Now, however, I have become their mocking song. I have become a byword to them. <sup>10</sup> They have been detesting me. They have been keeping far away from me. They have not hesitated to spit in my face. <sup>11</sup> Because God has unfastened my bowstring and afflicted me, they have thrown off restraint in my presence. <sup>12</sup> As a group they attack on my right hand. They have pushed my feet away. They have built up their siege ramps against me. <sup>13</sup> They have torn up my path. They have succeeded in destroying me. They need no one to help them. <sup>14</sup> They come in as through a wide gap in a wall. They roll along through the wreckage. <sup>15</sup> I have been overwhelmed by terrors. They chase away my dignity as by the wind, and my safety has passed away like a cloud. <sup>16</sup> Now my life in me is being poured out. Days of misery are taking hold of me. <sup>17</sup> The night has been piercing my bones, and my gnawing pains do not rest. <sup>18</sup> With great force God restricts my garment. He ties a belt around me like the collar of my tunic. <sup>19</sup> God has thrown me into the mud, and I have begun to look like dust and ashes.

Job's request to God to help him

<sup>20</sup> “I cry out to You for help, but You do not answer me. When I stand up, You only look at me. <sup>21</sup> You have changed, so that You are cruel to me. You assail me with Your mighty hand. <sup>22</sup> You lift me up to the wind, cause me to ride on it and toss my sound judgment about. <sup>23</sup> For I know that You will bring me back to death, to the house where all the living assemble. <sup>24</sup> Surely no one would stretch out his hand against a person in a pile of rubble, when he cries out for help because of his misfortune! <sup>25</sup> Have I not wept for a person having a difficult time? Has my soul not grieved for the poor? <sup>26</sup> However, when I hoped for good, evil came and, when I waited for light, darkness came. <sup>27</sup> My internal organs have been put in turmoil and are never still. Days of misery have confronted me. <sup>28</sup> I have been going about darkened but not by the heat of the sun. When I stood up in the assembly I used to cry out for help. <sup>29</sup> I have become a brother of jackals and a companion of owls. <sup>30</sup> My skin has turned black and falls from me, and my bones have been burning with fever. <sup>31</sup> My harp has changed into mourning, and my flute into the sound of those who weep aloud.

Job's assertion that, if he has done wrong, he expects God to deal with him justly

are my confidence,' <sup>25</sup> if I had been glad because of my great wealth or because my hands had gained a fortune, <sup>26</sup> if I had looked at the sun when it shone or at the moon moving along in splendour, <sup>27</sup> so that my heart had been secretly deceived, and my mouth had blown them a kiss on my hand, <sup>28</sup> that too would have been a crime for the judges to punish. For I would have denied God above. <sup>29</sup> If I had been glad about the misfortune of a person who hated me, if I had gloated when harm overtook him <sup>30</sup> (I have not allowed my mouth to sin by calling down a curse to kill him), <sup>31</sup> if the people who belong to my tent have never asked, 'Who has not had enough of Job's meat to eat?' <sup>32</sup> (Rather, no stranger had to spend the night in the street. I used to open my doors to a traveller). <sup>33</sup> If I had been concealing my rebellious acts as Adam did by hiding my guilt in my heart, <sup>34</sup> because I had been very afraid of a noisy crowd and because the contempt of families had shattered me, so that I remained silent and refused to go out of doors — <sup>35</sup> I wish that I had someone to hear me! (Here is my signature! Let the Almighty answer me!) I wish that my Accuser had written His accusation on a scroll! <sup>36</sup> I would certainly be wearing it on my shoulder. I would tie it on my head like a crown. <sup>37</sup> I would declare to Him the full inventory of my steps. I would approach Him like a prince. <sup>38</sup> If my land were crying out against me and, if its furrows were weeping aloud together, <sup>39</sup> if I had eaten its yield without payment and, if I had made its tenants breathe their last, <sup>40</sup> then may thorn-bushes come up instead of wheat, and may weeds come up instead of barley!"

This is the end of what Job said.

32

Elihu's insistence that he must speak

<sup>1</sup> Then these three men stopped answering Job, because he considered that he was righteous. <sup>2</sup> Then Elihu, the son of Barachel, a descendant of Buz, who belonged to the family of Ram, became very angry with Job. His anger was aroused because Job was proving himself righteous rather than God. <sup>3</sup> He was also very angry with Job's three friends because they had not found any answer and yet had condemned Job. <sup>4</sup> Elihu had been waiting to speak to Job because they were older than he was. <sup>5</sup> When Elihu saw that these three men had no answer to give, he was very angry. <sup>6</sup> Elihu, the son of Barachel, the descendant of Buz, answered:

"I am young, and you are old. That is why I have been timid and afraid to tell you what I think. <sup>7</sup> I thought, 'Age should speak! Many years should teach wisdom!' <sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, it is the spirit in human beings, the breath of the Almighty, that makes them understand. <sup>9</sup> People are not wise because they live for many years. Nor do they understand what is right because they are old. <sup>10</sup> That is why I have said, 'Listen to me! I shall also declare what I think.’<sup>11</sup> You see, I have been waiting for you to speak. I have been listening for your reasoning while you were searching out what to say.<sup>12</sup> I have been paying close attention to you and look! There is no one among you who has proved Job wrong. No one has answered what he has been saying.<sup>13</sup> Be careful not to say, ‘We have found wisdom! God, not man, will refute him.’<sup>14</sup> He has not been presenting an argument against me, and I shall not be using your words to answer him.<sup>15</sup> They have been dismayed. They have not been answering any longer. Words have failed them.<sup>16</sup> Shall I wait because they are not speaking, because they have been standing there without any further reply?<sup>17</sup> I also shall answer with my share. I also shall declare what I think.<sup>18</sup> For I am full of words. The spirit inside me has been compelling me.<sup>19</sup> Look! My insides are like wine that has no outlet, like new wineskins that are ready to burst.<sup>20</sup> I must speak, that I may find relief. I must open my lips and answer.<sup>21</sup> Please let me show no bias toward anyone and let me not flatter any person!<sup>22</sup> For I do not know how to flatter. If I did, my Maker would soon take me away.

33

Elihu's assertion that God sends pain to warn and save human beings

<sup>1</sup> “However, please, Job, listen to my answer! Pay attention to everything that I say!<sup>2</sup> Please look! I have opened my mouth. The tongue in my mouth has begun to speak.<sup>3</sup> What I say comes from my upright heart, and the knowledge that my lips announce is pure.<sup>4</sup> The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.<sup>5</sup> Answer me, if you can! Prepare your case before me! Take your stand!<sup>6</sup> Look! I am like you before God. I too have been shaped from clay.<sup>7</sup> Look! You need not be alarmed because you are terrified of me. Urgency from me will not weigh heavily on you.<sup>8</sup> Indeed, I have been listening while you have been speaking. I was hearing the sound of your words.<sup>9</sup> You are saying, ‘I am pure, free from wrongdoing. I am clean, and there is no guilt in me.<sup>10</sup> You see! God finds reasons to oppose me. He considers me His enemy.<sup>11</sup> He is putting my feet in shackles. He is keeping watch on all my paths.’<sup>12</sup> You see! In this you are not righteous. I reply to you that God is greater than man is.<sup>13</sup> Why have you been complaining to Him, saying, ‘He will not answer any of man’s words?’<sup>14</sup> For God speaks in one way or in another, although man does not perceive it.<sup>15</sup> He may speak in a dream, in a vision at night, when deep sleep falls on people, when they are slumbering on their beds.<sup>16</sup> Then He may open the ears of human beings and terrify them with warnings,<sup>17</sup> that He may turn a man aside from what he is doing and screen a person off from pride.<sup>18</sup> He keeps man’s soul from going down to the pit and his life from perishing by means of a weapon.<sup>19</sup> He is also rebuked by pain on his bed and by constant strife in his bones,<sup>20</sup> so that his very being has found food repulsive, and his soul loathes the choicest food.<sup>21</sup> His flesh wastes away, so that it disappears, and his bones, which had not been seen, are laid bare.<sup>22</sup> His soul goes closer to the pit, and his life to the messengers of death.

Elihu's assertion that God sends a Redeemer

<sup>23</sup> “If there is an Angel to support him, a Mediator, One out of a thousand, to declare to a man what is right for him,<sup>24</sup> then He has been merciful to him and said, ‘Deliver him from going down into the pit. I have found a ransom.<sup>25</sup> His flesh is made newer than a child’s is. He returns to the days of his youth.’<sup>26</sup> He prays to God, and He takes pleasure in him. He sees God’s face with a shout of joy, and God restores a man’s righteousness to him.<sup>27</sup> He looks up at other men and says: ‘I had sinned and had perverted what was right, and yet I have not been punished for it, as I had deserved.<sup>28</sup> He has redeemed my soul from passing on to the pit, so that my life will look on the light.’<sup>29</sup> You see! God does all these things to a man, twice, even three times,<sup>30</sup> to bring his soul back from the pit, that he may shine with the light of life.<sup>31</sup> Pay attention, Job! Listen to me! Be silent, and I shall say more.<sup>32</sup> If you have any words, answer me! Speak, because I want to justify you.<sup>33</sup> If not, you must listen to me! Be silent, and I shall teach you wisdom.”

34

<sup>2</sup> “Hear my words, wise men! Listen to me, you who have knowledge!<sup>3</sup> For the ear tests words as the palate tastes food.<sup>4</sup> Let us choose what is right! Let us learn together what is good!<sup>5</sup> For Job has been saying, ‘I am righteous, and God has denied me justice.<sup>6</sup> Although my cause is just, I am considered a liar. My wound is incurable, although I have not done wrong.’<sup>7</sup> What man is like Job, who drinks ridicule like water?<sup>8</sup> He travels in the company of those who do wrong and associates with wicked men!<sup>9</sup> For he has been saying, ‘A man receives no benefit from being friendly with God.’<sup>10</sup> Therefore, listen to me, men of understanding! Far be it from God that He should be wicked and from the Almighty that He should do wrong!<sup>11</sup> For God will repay a human being for what he has done and will make what a man’s way deserves happen to him.<sup>12</sup> Most certainly, God will not do anything wicked and the Almighty will not pervert justice.<sup>13</sup> Who has put Him in charge over the earth? Who has laid the whole world on Him?<sup>14</sup> If He thought only of Himself and took back His spirit and His breath,<sup>15</sup> all mankind would perish together, and man would return to dust.<sup>16</sup> If you have understanding, hear this! Listen to what I am saying!<sup>17</sup> Could anyone who hates justice really govern? Will you condemn the righteous Mighty One? <sup>18</sup> Can anyone say to a king, 'You are worthless,' and to nobles, 'You are wicked'? <sup>19</sup> He shows no bias in favour of princes and does not respect a rich man more than a poor man. For His hands have made them all. <sup>20</sup> They die in a moment. At midnight the people are mortally harmed and pass away. No human hand is needed to remove a mighty person. <sup>21</sup> For God's eyes watch the ways of a man, and He sees all his steps. <sup>22</sup> There is no gloom or deep darkness where those who do wrong may hide. <sup>23</sup> For God does not need to examine a man further before he goes before God in the judgment. <sup>24</sup> He shatters mighty men without investigation and sets up others in their place. <sup>25</sup> Because He discerns what they are doing, He overthrows them in the night, and they are crushed. <sup>26</sup> Because they have been wicked, He has flogged them in a place where people can see them, <sup>27</sup> because they have been turning away, have not been following Him and do not have insight into any of His ways, <sup>28</sup> with the result that they have caused the cry of a poor person to come before God, and that He has heard the cry of afflicted people. <sup>29</sup> When He remains silent, who can condemn Him? When He hides His face, either from a nation or from a single person, who can see Him? <sup>30</sup> He wants to prevent a godless man from being king and from ensnaring other people. <sup>31</sup> For has anyone said to God, 'I have borne the consequences. I shall not act corruptly any longer. <sup>32</sup> You Yourself teach me what I cannot see! If I have done wrong, I shall not do it any longer?' <sup>33</sup> Should God reward that on your own terms, because you have rejected it? For you yourself must choose, and not I. Therefore, tell me what you know! <sup>34</sup> Men who have understanding should tell me, and a wise man who hears me should say: <sup>35</sup> 'Job speaks without knowledge. His words lack insight.' <sup>36</sup> I wish that Job were tested to the utmost, because he answers like wicked men! <sup>37</sup> For he adds rebellion to his sin. He claps his hands among us and keeps saying more things against God."

35

<sup>2</sup> "Have you been thinking that this is right? You have been saying, 'God affirms that I am righteous.' <sup>3</sup> For you are asking, 'What benefit will it be to You? What more would I have gained than if I had sinned?' <sup>4</sup> I myself shall reply to you and to your friends with you. <sup>5</sup> Look at the sky and see! Gaze at the clouds high above you! <sup>6</sup> If you have sinned, how will you affect Him? If you have committed many wrongs, what can you do to Him? <sup>7</sup> If you have been righteous, what do you give to Him? Or what does He receive from your hand? <sup>8</sup> Your wickedness affects only a man like yourself. Your righteousness affects only a human being. <sup>9</sup> People cry out because they are greatly oppressed. They call for help because of the power of mighty men. <sup>10</sup> However, no one has asked, 'Where is God, who has made me, who gives songs in the night, <sup>11</sup> who teaches more to us than to the animals of the earth, and who makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?' <sup>12</sup> There people cry out, but He does not answer them, because evil men are proud. <sup>13</sup> It is all to no purpose. God will not hear it. The Almighty will not pay attention to it. <sup>14</sup> How much less will He listen when you say that you do not see Him, that your case is before Him and that you have been anxiously waiting for Him! <sup>15</sup> Now therefore, because His anger does not punish, and because He does not take much notice of transgression, <sup>16</sup> Job opens his mouth in empty talk. He speaks profusely without knowledge."

<sup>2</sup> "Be patient with me a little longer, and I shall show you. For there is more to be said on God's behalf. <sup>3</sup> I shall get my information from far away and ascribe righteousness to Him who has made me. <sup>4</sup> For truly what I shall say is not false. One who knows perfectly is with you. <sup>5</sup> Look! God is mighty and does not despise anyone. He is mighty, and His mind is powerful. <sup>6</sup> He does not keep wicked people alive but gives justice to those who are oppressed. <sup>7</sup> He does not take his eyes off a righteous person but is on a throne with kings. He makes them sit there for ever, and they are exalted. <sup>8</sup> If they are tied up with chains and held by the ropes of affliction, <sup>9</sup> then He tells them their evil deeds and their wrongs and that they are behaving arrogantly. <sup>10</sup> He opens their ears to warn them and tells them to turn away from wrong. <sup>11</sup> If they listen and serve Him, they complete their days in prosperity and their years in contentment. <sup>12</sup> However, if they do not listen, a weapon will cause them to perish, and they will die without knowledge. <sup>13</sup> Those who are ungodly at heart harbour resentment. They do not cry for help when He has tied them up. <sup>14</sup> Their souls meet death when they are young, and their lives end among the male shrine-prostitutes. <sup>15</sup> He delivers an afflicted person when he is suffering and opens their ears when they are oppressed. <sup>16</sup> How much less would He also have lured you out of distress into a broad place where you were not restrained, and you would have been comforted with your table filled with choice food! <sup>17</sup> However, you are filled with the judgment due to a wicked person. Judgment and justice are taking hold of you. <sup>18</sup> Because you are angry, be careful that no one uses riches to lure you away! Let a great bribe not entice you! <sup>19</sup> Will your riches prepare you for battle to keep you from distress or will all the spending of your resources save you? <sup>20</sup> Do not long for the night, when peoples vanish in their places! <sup>21</sup> Be careful that you do not turn to evil! For you have chosen this rather than suffering.

Elihu's affirmation of God's greatness

<sup>22</sup> "Look! God shows Himself exalted in His power. Who is a teacher like Him? <sup>23</sup> Who has assigned His ways for Him or who has told Him, 'You have done wrong'? <sup>24</sup> Remember to extol His work, which men have praised in song! <sup>25</sup> All mankind has seen it. A human being looks at it from far away. <sup>26</sup> Look! God is too exalted for us to know Him. The number of His years cannot be investigated. <sup>27</sup> For He draws up drops of water, which distil as rain to become a stream. <sup>28</sup> They flow down from the clouds and drop down abundantly on mankind. <sup>29</sup> Can anyone really understand how the clouds spread out and how He thunders from His hut? <sup>30</sup> See! He has scattered His lightning around Him and has covered the depths of the sea. <sup>31</sup> He uses these to govern peoples. He provides food abundantly. <sup>32</sup> He has covered His hands with the lightning and has commanded it to strike its mark. <sup>33</sup> His crashing announces Him. Even the cattle declare the One who is approaching.

37

<sup>1</sup> "At this, my heart also trembles and leaps from its place. <sup>2</sup> Keep listening to the thunder of His voice and the rumbling that comes from His mouth! <sup>3</sup> He lets it loose everywhere under the sky, and His lightning goes to the very distant places of the earth. <sup>4</sup> It is followed by a roaring sound. He thunders with His majestic voice. He does not restrain the lightnings when His voice is heard. <sup>5</sup> God thunders marvellously with His voice. He does great things, which we cannot understand. <sup>6</sup> For He tells the snow, 'Fall on the earth!' He also commands a shower of rain and His heavy downpour of rain. <sup>7</sup> He seals up the hand of every human being, that all men whom He has made may acknowledge it. <sup>8</sup> Then a wild animal goes into its lair. They remain in their dens. <sup>9</sup> The storm wind comes from its inner room, and cold comes from the north wind. <sup>10</sup> The breath of God produces ice, and the broad waters become frozen. <sup>11</sup> Indeed, He loads down the cloud with moisture. He scatters the bright clouds. <sup>12</sup> As He guides them, they swirl round about, to do whatever He commands them over the surface of the inhabited earth. <sup>13</sup> He causes them to come, either for correction or to benefit His earth in faithful love. <sup>14</sup> Listen to this, Job! Stand still and consider the miraculous works of God! <sup>15</sup> Do you know how God imposes His orders on them and makes His bright clouds shine? <sup>16</sup> Do you know how the clouds float, the miraculous works of Him who is perfect in knowledge, <sup>17</sup> while you are sweltering in your clothes, when the earth is hushed because of a south wind? <sup>18</sup> Can you, like Him, hammer out the clouds and make them hard like a mirror of cast metal?

<sup>19</sup> Teach us what we should say to Him! We cannot draw up our legal case because of our darkness. <sup>20</sup> Should He be told that I want to speak? If anyone were to speak, he would surely be swallowed up. <sup>21</sup> Even now people cannot look at the sun when it is obscured among the clouds or when the wind has passed through and cleared them. <sup>22</sup> A golden light comes from the north. There is an awesome majesty around God. <sup>23</sup> The Almighty, who is beyond our reach, is exalted in power, in justice and in abundant righteousness but will not oppress anyone. <sup>24</sup> That is why men fear Him. He does not respect any who think that they are wise."

God's question whether Job knows His wonderful ways in what He has created — compare Genesis 1:1-10

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD answered Job out of the windstorm: <sup>2</sup> "Who, then, is making My purpose dark by talking without knowledge? <sup>3</sup> Please get yourself ready for action like a man, that I may question you! Then you must instruct Me! <sup>4</sup> Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell Me, if you know how to discern it! <sup>5</sup> Who determined its dimensions? Surely you know! Or who stretched a measuring line over it? <sup>6</sup> On what were its bases sunk? Or who laid its cornerstone, <sup>7</sup> while the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God were shouting for joy? <sup>8</sup> Who shut off the sea with doors when it burst from the womb and came out, <sup>9</sup> when I made clouds its garment and very thick cloud its infant-wrappings, <sup>10</sup> when I marked out My limits for it and set its bars and doors in place, <sup>11</sup> and when I said, 'You may come as far as this but no farther, and here your proud waves will meet opposition'? <sup>12</sup> Have you given orders to the morning since your days began and have you informed the dawn where its place is, <sup>13</sup> that it may take hold of the ends of the earth and that wicked people may be shaken off from it? <sup>14</sup> The earth changes shape like clay under a seal, and its features appear as in a garment, <sup>15</sup> that the light of wicked people may be withheld and that their raised arms may be broken. <sup>16</sup> Have you gone to the lowest limits of the sea or walked in the deep places of the ocean? <sup>17</sup> Have the gates of death been shown to you or can you see the gates of deep darkness? <sup>18</sup> Have you fully considered how broad the earth is? Tell me, if you know all about it! <sup>19</sup> Where, then, is the way to where light dwells, and where, then, is the place of darkness, <sup>20</sup> that you may take it to its territory, and that you may discern the paths to its home? <sup>21</sup> You know! For you were born then and have lived for such a long time! <sup>22</sup> Have you entered the storerooms of the snow or can you see the storerooms of the hail, <sup>23</sup> which I have reserved for a time of trouble, for a day of battle and war? <sup>24</sup> What, then, is the way to the place where the light is distributed or where the east wind is scattered on the earth? <sup>25</sup> Who has cut a watercourse open for the flood and a path for the rumbling bolt of lightning, <sup>26</sup> to bring rain on a land where no man lives, on a desert in which there is no human being, <sup>27</sup> to satisfy a land that is waste and desolate and to make it sprout with grass? <sup>28</sup> Does the rain have a father? Or who has caused the birth of dewdrops? <sup>29</sup> From whose womb has the ice come forth, and who has given birth to the frost from the sky? <sup>30</sup> The water becomes hard like stone and the surface of the deep freezes over.

39

Job's reply to God

<sup>3</sup> Then Job answered the LORD:

<sup>4</sup> “Look! I am insignificant. What shall I reply to You? I have put my hand on my mouth. <sup>5</sup> I have spoken once but shall not answer. Yes, twice but I shall not speak any longer.”

God's question whether Job can be like Him

<sup>7</sup> “Please prepare for action like a man! I shall question you. Then you must give Me information! <sup>8</sup> Will you even cancel My justice? Will you condemn Me that you may be righteous? <sup>9</sup> Do you have an arm like God? Can you thunder with a voice like His? <sup>10</sup> Then glorify yourself with magnificence and eminence! Clothe yourself with majesty and splendour! <sup>11</sup> Scatter your fits of rage! Look at everyone who is proud and make him humble! <sup>12</sup> Look at everyone who is proud and bring him low! Trample on wicked people where they stand! <sup>13</sup> Bury them all in the dust together. Shroud their faces in an unknown grave! <sup>14</sup> Then even I shall admit to you that your own right hand can save you.

God's instruction to Job to look at Behemoth as a principal example of His power

God's instruction to Job to look at Leviathan

breath sets coals on fire, and a flame comes out of his mouth. <sup>22</sup> Strength is lodged in his neck, and dismay dances before him. <sup>23</sup> The folds of his body are tightly joined. They are firmly moulded on him and immovable. <sup>24</sup> His chest is a hardened casting like a stone, as hard as a lower millstone. <sup>25</sup> When he raises himself up, mighty men are terrified. They retreat before his thrashing. <sup>26</sup> If a sword strikes him, it will have no effect. Nor will a spear, a dart or a javelin. <sup>27</sup> He imagines that iron is like straw and that bronze is like rotten wood. <sup>28</sup> An arrow from a bow will not make him run away. Stones from a sling have turned to chaff against him. <sup>29</sup> He regards clubs as pieces of straw. He laughs at the rattling of javelins. <sup>30</sup> His undersides are like sharp pieces of broken pottery. He stretches out like a threshing sledge on the mud. <sup>31</sup> He makes the deep water churn like a boiling pot. He makes the sea like a pot of ointment. <sup>32</sup> He leaves a shining trail behind him. One would think the deep had grey hair. <sup>33</sup> There is nothing like him on earth. He is the one made to be without fear. <sup>34</sup> He looks at everything that is high. He is king over all proud creatures."

42

Job's confession that he has been wrong

<sup>2</sup> "I know that You can do all things and that nothing that You plan can be thwarted. <sup>3</sup> Who am I but one who conceals Your purpose without knowledge? That is why I have been saying what I do not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I do not know. <sup>4</sup> You said, 'Please listen! Then I Myself shall speak. I shall question you. Then you must instruct Me!' <sup>5</sup> My ears had heard about You through reports, but now my eyes have seen You. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, I reject what I had said and repent in dust and ashes."

God's instruction to Job's friends to offer a sacrifice and to ask Job to pray on their behalf

<sup>7</sup> After the LORD had said these things to Job, the LORD told Eliphaz from Teman: "I have been very angry with you and with your two friends. For you have not been telling the truth about Me, as My servant Job has been doing. <sup>8</sup> Now therefore, take seven bulls and seven rams, go to My servant Job and offer up a burnt-offering for yourselves! My servant Job will pray for you. For I show him favour, so that I do not deal with you as your folly deserves. For you have not been telling the truth about Me, as My servant Job has been doing."

<sup>10</sup> The LORD made Job prosperous again when he had prayed for his friends. The LORD gave Job twice as much as he had had before. <sup>11</sup> Then all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him previously came to him. They ate with him in his home. They showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the trouble that the LORD had brought on him. Each one gave him a piece of money and a golden ring. <sup>12</sup> The LORD blessed the latter part of Job's life more than the first part. He had fourteen thousand sheep and goats, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen and one thousand female donkeys. <sup>13</sup> He also had seven sons and three daughters. <sup>14</sup> He named the first daughter "Jemimah," the second "Keziah," and the third "Keren-Happuch." <sup>15</sup> Nowhere in the whole country could any women be found who were as beautiful as Job's daughters were. Their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers. <sup>16</sup> After this Job lived for one hundred and forty years. He saw his children and their children to the fourth generation. <sup>17</sup> Then Job died, an old man and satisfied with life.

BOOK ONE (PSALMS 1-41)

<sup>3</sup> He is like a tree planted beside streams of water, which produces its fruit in its season and has leaves that do not wither. Whatever he does prospers.

— compare v. 1-3 with Acts 4:23-31 The psalmists speak about the wicked nations

saying: <sup>3</sup> “Let us tear up their chains and throw their ropes away from us!”

The Son acknowledges His Father

<sup>7</sup> “I shall proclaim the decree of the LORD: He has said to Me: ‘You are My Son. Today I have begotten You.

<sup>8</sup> “Ask Me, that I may make the nations Your inheritance and the ends of the earth Your property.

<sup>9</sup> “You will break them with an iron rod. You will smash them to pieces like a vessel of pottery.”

The psalmist asks leaders to comply

<sup>12</sup> Fervently kiss the Son, that He may not become angry, and that you may not perish in your way! For His anger may blaze up in a short time. Blessed are all who take refuge in Him!

A psalm of David when he fled from his son Absalom

<sup>3</sup> Nevertheless, You, O LORD, are a shield for me and my glory and You lift my head high.

<sup>5</sup> I have lain down and gone to sleep. I have awoken. For the LORD continues to support me.

<sup>7</sup> Arise, O LORD! Save me, O my God! For You have struck all my enemies on the cheek. You have smashed the teeth of wicked people.

For the choir director, with stringed instruments. A psalm of David <sup>1</sup> Answer me when I call, O my righteous God! You have made wide room for me in my distress. Be gracious to me and hear my prayer!

<sup>2</sup> O sons of man, how long will my glory be disgraced? How long will you love what is empty and search for what is a lie? Selah

<sup>3</sup> Know that the LORD has singled out for Himself the one who is devout. The LORD will hear when I call to Him.

<sup>7</sup> You have put more joy in my heart than people have when their grain and their new wine have increased.

<sup>8</sup> Let me at once lie down in peace and sleep! For You alone, O LORD, will make me dwell in safety.

For the choir director, for the flutes. A psalm of David

<sup>2</sup> Listen carefully to the sound of my cry, my King and my God! For I am praying to You.

<sup>3</sup> O LORD, in the morning You will hear my voice. In the morning I shall set out my requests before You and wait expectantly.

loathes the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

<sup>7</sup> However, because of Your great mercy I myself shall enter Your house. In fear of You, I shall bow down toward Your holy Temple.

<sup>11</sup> Nevertheless, let all who take refuge in You rejoice! Let them shout with joy for ever! May You shelter them, that those who love Your name may rejoice in You!

<sup>3</sup> My soul also has been shaking extremely with terror. But You, O LORD, how long?

<sup>6</sup> I have grown weary from my groaning. All night I flood my bed with tears. I drench my couch with my weeping.

<sup>8</sup> Go away from me, all you evildoers! For the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD has heard my plea for favour. The LORD accepts my prayer.

<sup>10</sup> All my enemies will be ashamed and extremely terrified. They will turn back. They will suddenly be put to shame.

A Shiggaion of David. He sang it to the LORD about the words of Cush, a descendant of Benjamin.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, my God, I have been taking refuge in You. Save me from all who are pursuing me and rescue me, <sup>2</sup> that they may not, like a lion, tear my life to pieces, tearing away, with no one to rescue!

<sup>3</sup> O LORD, my God, if I have done this, if there is injustice on my hands, <sup>4</sup> if I have done evil to one who was keeping peace with me or if I have plundered my enemy without a cause, <sup>5</sup> then let the enemy pursue my life and overtake it! May he trample my life down into the ground! Let him lay my honour in the dust!

Selah

<sup>8</sup> The LORD will judge the peoples. Judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness and according to the integrity that is in me!

<sup>9</sup> Oh, let the evil of wicked people come to an end, but may You set the righteous person up firmly, You who test the hearts and the inmost parts, O righteous God!

<sup>15</sup> He has dug a pit and hollowed it out. Then he has fallen into the hole that he has made.

For the choir director, according to the Gittith. A psalm of David

<sup>2</sup> Out of the mouths of children and nursing infants You have established strength, because of Your enemies, that You may silence the enemy and the avenger.

<sup>3</sup> When I look at Your heavens, which Your fingers have made, the moon and the stars, which You have set in place, <sup>4</sup> what is man, that You should be mindful of him, and the son of man, that You should be concerned about him?

<sup>5</sup> You have made Him lower than the angels for a little while and have crowned Him with glory and honour.

<sup>6</sup> You have made him master over the works that Your hands have made. You have put all things under his feet, <sup>7</sup> all sheep and oxen and even wild animals, <sup>8</sup> the birds of the sky and the fish of the sea, which pass through the paths of the seas.

all the earth!

For the choir director, according to Muth-labben, a psalm of David

<sup>4</sup> You have maintained my just cause. You have sat down on Your throne as a righteous judge.

<sup>13</sup> Be gracious to me, O LORD! Look at my misery because of those who hate me! You lift me up from the gates of death, <sup>14</sup> that I may tell about all Your praises in the gates of the daughter of Zion. Let me shout for joy in Your salvation!

<sup>15</sup> The nations have sunk into the pit that they have made. Their own feet have been caught in the net that they have hidden.

10

the oppressed person. Let them be caught in the intrigues that they have devised!

<sup>11</sup> He has said in his heart: "God has forgotten. He has hidden His face. He has never seen it."

<sup>13</sup> Why has the wicked person treated God disrespectfully? He has said to himself, "You will not call it to account."

<sup>14</sup> You have seen it. For You Yourself gaze at trouble and irritation, that You may repay them by Your own hand. The helpless person entrusts himself to You. You Yourself have been the Helper of the orphan.

<sup>17</sup> You have heard the desires of afflicted people, O LORD. You will make their hearts firm. You will make Your ear attentive, <sup>18</sup> to provide justice for the orphan and the oppressed person, that no man from the earth may terrify them again.

11

For the choir director. Of David

12

For the choir director, on the Sheminith, a psalm of David

For the choir director, a psalm of David

<sup>1</sup> How long, O LORD? Will You forget me for ever? How long will You hide Your face from me?

<sup>2</sup> How long must I put anxieties in my soul and have torment in my heart day after day? How long will my enemy triumph over me?

<sup>3</sup> Look at me! Answer me, O LORD, my God! Make my eyes bright, that I may not sleep in death, <sup>4</sup> and that my enemy may not say, "I have conquered him," and that my oppressors may not rejoice because I am staggering.

14

For the choir director, of David

<sup>1</sup> The fool has been saying in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt. They have been acting abominably. There is no one who does good.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD has been looking down from heaven on the descendants of Adam to see if there is anyone who understands and who seeks God.

<sup>3</sup> Everyone has turned aside. Together they have become corrupt. There is no one who does good. There is not even one.

<sup>4</sup> Have all evildoers no knowledge? They devour my people as if they were devouring food. They have not been calling on the LORD.

15

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, who will stay in Your tent? Who will dwell on Your holy mountain?

<sup>4</sup> Those who run after another god will have many sorrows. I shall not pour out their libations of blood or take up their names on my lips.

<sup>8</sup> I have set the LORD before Me constantly. Because He is at My right hand, I shall not stagger.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, My heart is glad, and My glory rejoices. My body also will dwell securely. <sup>10</sup> For You will not abandon My soul to Sheol or allow Your Faithful One to see decay.

A prayer of David

<sup>3</sup> You have tested my heart. You have examined me by night. Although You have tested me, You do not find anything. I have resolved that my mouth will not transgress.

<sup>6</sup> I myself have been calling on You. For You will answer me, O God. Turn Your ear to me! Hear what I say!

<sup>8</sup> Guard me as the pupil in Your eye! Hide me in the shadow of Your wings <sup>9</sup> from wicked people who have been ruining me, from the enemies of my life, who are surrounding me!

— compare v. 1-50 with 2 Samuel 22: 1-51

For the choir director, of David, the servant of the LORD. He sang the Words of this song to the LORD after the LORD had rescued him from the hands of all his enemies, especially from Saul. He said:

<sup>2</sup> "The LORD is my Rock, my Fortress and my Deliverer. My God is my Rock, in whom I take refuge, my Shield and the Horn of my salvation, my Stronghold.

<sup>3</sup> "He should be praised! I used to call to the LORD and kept on being saved from my enemies.

<sup>6</sup> "I was calling on the LORD in my distress and was crying to my God for help. He used to hear my voice from His Temple, and my cry to Him for help used to come before Him, into His ears.

<sup>15</sup> "Then the channels of the sea became visible. The foundations of the world were laid bare because of Your rebuke, O LORD, because of the blast of the breath from Your nostrils.

<sup>16</sup> "He reached down from high above. He used to take hold of me. He kept pulling me out of many waters. <sup>17</sup> He used to rescue me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me. For they were too strong for me.

<sup>18</sup> "They were confronting me on the day of my calamity, but the LORD became my Support.

<sup>19</sup> "He brought me out into a spacious place. He kept delivering me, because He had taken pleasure in me.

<sup>20</sup> "The LORD kept treating me well according to my righteousness. According to the cleanness of my hands He kept restoring me.

<sup>21</sup> "For I had been keeping the Ways of the LORD and had not wickedly departed from my God.

<sup>28</sup> “Indeed, You Yourself were lighting my lamp. The LORD, my God, was turning my darkness into light.

<sup>30</sup> “As for God, His Way is perfect. The Word of the LORD is refined. He is a Shield to all those who take refuge in Him.

<sup>32</sup> “It was God who was closely and strongly embracing me and making my way perfect.

<sup>33</sup> “He used to make my feet like the feet of deer and used to make me stand firmly on my high places.

<sup>34</sup> “He was training my hands for battle, so that my arms could bend a bow of bronze.

<sup>36</sup> “You kept on widening a place beneath me for my steps, and my ankles did not twist.

<sup>37</sup> “When I was pursuing my enemies, I used to catch up with them and did not turn back until I had finished them off.

<sup>38</sup> “I was smashing them, so that they could not get up. They kept falling under my feet.

<sup>39</sup> “You had armed me strongly for the battle. You were making those who were rising up against me bow down beneath me.

<sup>40</sup> “As for my enemies, You had given me their backs and, as for those who used to hate me, I was putting them to silence.

<sup>41</sup> “They kept crying out for help, but there was no one to save them. They were crying out to the LORD, but He did not answer them.

<sup>43</sup> “You were delivering me from disputes among the people. You were making me the head over nations. A people that I had not known were serving me.

<sup>44</sup> “As soon as their ears heard about me they used to become obedient to me. The sons of foreigners were making a show of submission to me.

<sup>48</sup> “He was delivering me from my enemies. Indeed, You were lifting me up above those who were rising up against me. You were rescuing me from a violent

<sup>49</sup> “That is why I am praising You among the nations, O LORD, and making music to praise Your name.

He has set a tent in them for the sun, <sup>5</sup> and it comes out of its bridal-chamber like a bridegroom. It rejoices like a champion to run its course.

<sup>13</sup> Restrain Your servant also from presumptuous sins! Let them not have control over me! Then I shall be blameless and be innocent of great rebellion.

<sup>14</sup> May the words from my mouth and the thinking of my heart be acceptable in Your sight, O LORD, my Rock, and my Redeemer!

20

For the choir director, a psalm of David

<sup>4</sup> May He give you the desire of your heart and make all that you plan succeed!

<sup>5</sup> Let us shout joyfully about Your salvation! We shall put up our banners in the name of our God. May the LORD fulfil all your requests!

<sup>8</sup> They have sunk to their knees and fallen, but we have risen and helped each other up.

21

<sup>4</sup> He has asked You for life, and You have given it to him, long life, for ever and ever.

<sup>6</sup> For You are causing him to be blessed for ever. You are making him glad and joyful with Your presence.

<sup>7</sup> For the king trusts in the LORD and through the mercy of the Most High he will not be made to stumble.

<sup>9</sup> You will make them burn like a blazing furnace at the time when You appear. The LORD will swallow them up in His anger, and fire will devour them.

22

For the choir director, according to "The Deer of the Dawn," a psalm of David <sup>1</sup> My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me? Why are You so far from saving Me, from the Words of My groaning?

<sup>2</sup> O My God, I cry out by day, but You do not answer, and by night I am not silent.

<sup>8</sup> "Commit it to the LORD! Let Him rescue Him! Let Him deliver Him! For He takes pleasure in Him."

<sup>9</sup> Nevertheless, You are the One who brought Me out of the womb, the One who made Me trust while on My mother's breasts.

<sup>10</sup> I have been cast on You from the womb. From My mother's womb You have been My God.

<sup>14</sup> I have been poured out like water, and all My bones have separated from each other. My heart has become like wax. It has melted inside my chest.

<sup>15</sup> My strength has dried up like baked clay. My tongue clings to My palate, and You are putting Me on the dust of death.

<sup>16</sup> For dogs have surrounded Me. A gang of evil-doers has encircled Me. Like a lion they have pierced My hands and My feet.

<sup>19</sup> However, You, O LORD, do not be far away! O My Strength, come quickly to help Me!

<sup>23</sup> You who fear the LORD, praise Him! All you descendants of Jacob, glorify Him! Be afraid of Him, all you descendants of Israel!

<sup>24</sup> For He has not despised or detested the misery of the Wretched One or hidden His face from Him. Rather, when He cried to Him for help, He heard.

<sup>25</sup> My praise comes from You in the great assembly. I shall fulfil My vows in the presence of those who fear Him.

<sup>26</sup> Humble people will eat and be satisfied. Those who look for the LORD will praise Him. May your hearts live for ever!

<sup>29</sup> All the prosperous people of the earth have been eating and worshipping. All those who go down to the dust will kneel before Him, even the one who could not keep himself alive.

<sup>30</sup> Descendants will serve Him. The coming generation will be told about the Lord.

23

<sup>4</sup> Even though I walk through the valley of deep darkness, I shall fear no evil. For You are with me. Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

<sup>6</sup> Surely, goodness and mercy will follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

24

A psalm of David

<sup>1</sup> The earth is the LORD's and what fills it, the world and those who live in it.

<sup>3</sup> Who may go up to the mountain of the LORD? Who may stand in His Holy Place?

<sup>4</sup> The person who has clean hands and a pure heart, who has not lifted up his soul to what is false or who has not sworn deceitfully.

<sup>7</sup> Lift up your heads, you gates, and be lifted up, you everlasting doors, that the King of Glory may come in!

25

Of David

<sup>2</sup> O my God, I trust in You. Let me not be put to shame! Let my enemies not gloat over me!

<sup>3</sup> Certainly, no one who waits in hope for You will be put to shame. Those who act treacherously without any reason will be put to shame.

<sup>5</sup> Lead me in Your truth and teach me! For You are the God who saves me. I wait in hope for You all day long.

<sup>7</sup> Do not remember the sins of my youth or my rebellious acts! According to Your mercy remember me, because of Your goodness, O LORD!

<sup>12</sup> Who, then, is the man who fears the LORD? He will teach him in the way that he should choose.

<sup>13</sup> He himself will dwell in prosperity, and his descendants will inherit the land.

<sup>14</sup> The intimate advice of the LORD is for those who fear Him, so that He causes them to know His Covenant.

<sup>15</sup> My eyes are constantly on the LORD. For He will pull my feet out of the snare.

<sup>16</sup> Turn to me and be gracious to me! For I am lonely and afflicted.

26

Of David

<sup>1</sup> Vindicate me, O LORD! For I have been walking in my integrity and I trust in the LORD. I shall not waver.

Psalms

<sup>4</sup> I have not been sitting with deceitful people and shall not associate with hypocrites.

27

Of David

<sup>1</sup> The LORD is my Light and my Salvation. Whom shall I fear? The LORD is the Fortress of my life. Of whom should I be afraid?

<sup>3</sup> If an army were to pitch camp against me, my heart would not be afraid. If a war were to break out against me, in this I would be confident.

<sup>4</sup> One thing I have asked of the LORD. That I shall seek, that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze on the beauty of the LORD and to reflect in His Temple.

<sup>5</sup> For He will hide me in His shelter in the day of trouble. He will conceal me under the cover of His tent. He will set me high on a rock.

<sup>6</sup> Now my head will be high above my enemies all around me. Therefore, I shall offer sacrifices in His tent with shouts of joy. I shall sing and make music to praise the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Hear, O LORD, when I cry aloud! Be gracious to me and answer me!

<sup>8</sup> When You said, "Be intent on My face!" my heart said to You, "I shall be intent on Your face, O LORD."

<sup>9</sup> Do not hide Your face from me! Do not turn Your servant away in anger! You have been my Help. Do not cast me off or abandon me, O God of my salvation!

<sup>10</sup> When my father and my mother have abandoned me, the LORD will take me in.

<sup>11</sup> Teach me Your Way, O LORD, and lead me on a level path because of my enemies!

of the LORD in the land of the living.

28

Of David

<sup>1</sup> I am calling to You, O LORD. My Rock, do not be deaf to me! Otherwise, if You were deaf to me, I should be like those who go down to the pit.

<sup>4</sup> Pay them back according to what they have done and according to their evil deeds! Pay them back according to what their hands have done! Bring back on them what they deserve!

<sup>5</sup> Because they have no regard for the works of the LORD or for what His hands have made, He will tear them down and will not rebuild them.

<sup>6</sup> Blessed be the LORD! For He has heard the voice of my pleas for mercy.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD is my Strength and my Shield. My heart has been trusting in Him, and I have been helped. My heart is rejoicing greatly, and I am praising Him with my song.

29

30

A psalm of David, a song at the dedication of the Temple

<sup>1</sup> I shall extol You, O LORD. For You have lifted me up and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.

<sup>2</sup> O LORD, my God, I cried to You for help, and You healed me.

<sup>3</sup> O LORD, You have brought my soul up from Sheol. You have kept me alive from among those who go down to the pit.

<sup>5</sup> For His anger lasts for only a moment. In His favour there is life. Weeping may last for the evening, but there is a shout of joy in the morning.

<sup>7</sup> LORD, by Your favour, You have made my mountain stand strong. When You hid Your face, I was terrified.

<sup>8</sup> I shall call out to You, O LORD. I shall plead to the LORD for grace: <sup>9</sup> "What profit is there if my blood is shed, if I go down into the pit? Will dust praise You? Will it proclaim Your truth?"

<sup>10</sup> "Hear, O LORD, and have mercy on me! LORD, be my Helper!"

<sup>11</sup> You have changed for me my rites of mourning into dancing. You have removed my sackcloth and clothed me with joy, <sup>12</sup> that what is glorious may praise You with music and may not be silent. O LORD, my God, I shall praise You for ever.

31

For the choir director, a psalm of David

<sup>1</sup> In You, O LORD, I have been taking refuge. Let me never be ashamed! Deliver me because of Your righteousness!

<sup>3</sup> For You are my Rock and my Fortress. For the sake of Your name, You lead me and guide me.

<sup>4</sup> You will take me out of the net that they have secretly set for me. For You are my Refuge.

<sup>5</sup> I commit my spirit into Your hand. You have redeemed me, O LORD, God of truth.

<sup>6</sup> I hate those who keep useless idols. However, I myself trust in the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Let me be glad and rejoice in Your mercy! For You have seen my misery. You have known my soul in its troubles, <sup>8</sup> and have not surrendered me to the hand of the enemy. You have set my feet in a spacious place.

My eye has become weak from irritation, my soul and my body also.

<sup>10</sup> For sorrow has consumed my life, and groaning has consumed my years. My strength has failed because of my iniquity, and my bones have become weak.

<sup>11</sup> Because of all my enemies, I have become a disgrace, especially to my neighbours. I have become an object of dread to my acquaintances. Those who see me on the street have been running away from me.

<sup>13</sup> For I have heard the defamation of many people. There is terror on every side while they conspire together against me. They have been plotting to take my life.

<sup>15</sup> My times are in Your hand. Deliver me from the hands of my enemies and from those who persecute me!

<sup>17</sup> O LORD, let me not be put to shame! For I have been calling on You. Let wicked people be put to shame, and let them be silent in Sheol!

<sup>19</sup> How great is Your kindness, which You have stored up for those who fear You, and which You have performed for those who take refuge in You in the presence of the descendants of Adam!

<sup>22</sup> I myself had said, when I was hurrying away in fear, "I have been cut off from Your sight." Nevertheless, You heard the voice of my pleas for favour when I cried out to You for help.

32

A Maskil, of David

night. The dry heat of summer overturned my energy.
Selah

<sup>5</sup> I acknowledged my sin to You and did not conceal my iniquity. I said, "I shall confess my rebellious acts to the LORD," and You forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah

<sup>6</sup> For this reason let every devout person pray to You in a time when You may be found. Surely, when great floodwaters come they will not reach him.

<sup>7</sup> You are a hiding place for me. You will protect me from trouble. You will surround me with shouting over deliverance. Selah <sup>8</sup> "I shall instruct you. I shall teach you in the Way that you should go. I shall advise you with My eye on you.

<sup>9</sup> "Do not be like a horse or mule, which cannot understand! They must be restrained with a bit and bridle, as their ornaments, or they will not stay near you."

<sup>10</sup> The wicked man will have many pains, but mercy will surround the one who trusts in the LORD.

33

<sup>9</sup> For He Himself spoke, and it came to be. He Himself commanded, and it stood firm.

34

Of David, when he pretended to be insane in the presence of Abimelech. Abimelech drove him out. So, David left.

<sup>9</sup> Fear the LORD, you who are His holy people! For those who fear Him do not lack anything.

35

Of David

<sup>9</sup> Then my soul will shout for joy in the LORD and will rejoice in His salvation.

<sup>10</sup> All my bones will say: "O LORD, who is like You? You deliver the wretched person from the man who is too strong for him and the poor man and needy man from the one who robs him."

<sup>12</sup> They are repaying me evil for good, and my soul is bereaved.

<sup>13</sup> Yet when they were sick, my own clothing was sackcloth, and I used to humble myself with fasting. Yet my prayer kept returning to my own chest.

<sup>14</sup> I walked around as if it were my friend or my brother. I used to dress in mourning clothes and stoop down as if I were in mourning for my mother.

joice over me! Let those who hate me without a reason not maliciously wink their eyes!

<sup>23</sup> Awake and be active in giving me justice, O my God and my Lord, in conducting my case!

<sup>24</sup> Vindicate me in Your righteousness, O LORD, my God, and let them not rejoice over me!

36

For the choir director, of David, the servant of the LORD

<sup>10</sup> Continue Your mercy to those who know You and Your righteousness to those who are upright in heart!

<sup>11</sup> Let the feet of proud people not come against me, and let the hands of wicked people not drive me away!

37

<sup>19</sup> They will not be put to shame in a bad time, and in days of famine they will eat all they want.

<sup>20</sup> However, wicked people will perish, and the enemies of the LORD are like the glory of the pastures. They will vanish. They will vanish in smoke.

<sup>22</sup> For those who are blessed by Him will inherit the land, but those who are cursed by Him will be cut down.

because the LORD holds his hand.

<sup>28</sup> For the LORD loves justice and will not abandon His devout people. They will be kept safe for ever, but the children of wicked people will be cut down.

<sup>34</sup> Wait eagerly for the LORD and keep His Way! He will exalt you, that you may inherit the land. You will watch when wicked people are cut down.

<sup>36</sup> However, he has moved on, and, look, he is no more. When I searched for him, he could not be found.

<sup>38</sup> However, rebels will be completely destroyed. The future of wicked people will be cut off.

38

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, do not reprove me in Your anger or discipline me in Your wrath!

<sup>3</sup> There is no sound spot in my body because of Your indignation. There is no health in my bones because of my sin.

<sup>7</sup> For my sides are filled with burning fever, and there is no sound spot in my body.

groaning because of the tumult in my heart.

<sup>9</sup> O Lord, everything that I desire is before You, and my sighing has not been hidden from You.

<sup>10</sup> My heart has been beating violently. My strength has forsaken me, and even the light of my eyes has gone from me.

<sup>11</sup> My loved one and friends are standing back from my affliction, and my relatives have been standing far away.

<sup>12</sup> Those who are trying to take my life have been laying snares for me, and those who are trying to harm me have been uttering threats. They are making deceitful plans all day long.

<sup>13</sup> However, I am like a deaf man. I do not hear. I am like a speechless man, who does not open his mouth.

<sup>15</sup> Nevertheless, I have been standing in wait for You, O LORD. You will answer, O Lord, my God.

<sup>19</sup> My enemies are vigorous and powerful, and those who hate me without any reason are numerous.

39

For the choir director, for Jeduthun, a psalm of David

<sup>1</sup> I have been saying: "Let me guard my ways, that I may not sin with my tongue! Let me restrain my mouth with a muzzle while a wicked person is in my presence!"

<sup>2</sup> I have remained speechless and still. I have kept silent about anything good. My anguish has become more intense.

<sup>3</sup> My heart grew hot inside me. The fire was blazing up while I was meditating. Then I spoke with my tongue: <sup>4</sup> "Make me know my end, O LORD, and what the measure of my days is! Let me know how fleeting I am!"

make me the scorn of the fool!

<sup>9</sup> "I have been remaining speechless. I am not opening my mouth, because it has been You who have been doing this.

<sup>12</sup> "Hear my prayer, O LORD! Open Your ear to my cry for help! Do not be silent to my tears! For I am living like a foreigner with You, a sojourner, as all my fathers have been.

40

For the choir director, a psalm of David

<sup>1</sup> I have been waiting eagerly for the LORD, and He has bent down to me and heard my cry for help.

<sup>2</sup> He has lifted me out of a desolate pit, out of the muddy clay. He has set my feet on a rock and made my steps secure.

<sup>3</sup> He has put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God. Many people will see it, be afraid and trust in the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> Blessed is the person who has placed his trust in the LORD, and who has not turned to arrogant people or to those who turn aside to falsehood!

<sup>5</sup> O LORD, my God, You have done many things, Your wonderful works and Your plans for us. No one can be compared to You. If I were to report and speak about them, they would be too many to recount.

<sup>6</sup> You have not taken pleasure in sacrifice and offering. You have opened ears for Me. You have not asked for a burnt offering or a sin-offering.

<sup>7</sup> Then I said: "Look! I have come. It has been written about Me in the scroll of the Book.

<sup>8</sup> I delight to do Your will, O My God, and Your Teaching is inside My inner being."

<sup>9</sup> I have announced the good news of righteousness in the great assembly. Look! I shall not keep my lips closed, O LORD. You Yourself know it.

<sup>10</sup> I have not concealed Your righteousness inside my heart. I have spoken about Your faithfulness and Your salvation. I have not hidden Your mercy and Your truth from the great assembly.

<sup>11</sup> You Yourself, O LORD, will not withhold Your compassion from me. Your mercy and Your truth will continually protect me.

<sup>12</sup> For evils without number have surrounded me. My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I cannot see. They outnumber the hairs on my head, and my heart has failed me.

<sup>14</sup> Let those who are trying to snatch away my life be disgraced and utterly confounded! Let those who desire to harm me be driven back and be humiliated!

<sup>16</sup> Let all who are intent on You rejoice and be glad in You! Let those who love Your salvation constantly say, “May the LORD be magnified!”

<sup>17</sup> However, I am afflicted and needy. May the LORD plan for me! You are my Help and my Deliverer. O my God, do not delay!

41

For the choir director, a psalm of David

<sup>2</sup> The LORD will preserve him and keep him alive, and he will be called fortunate in the land. Do not surrender him to what enemies want!

<sup>4</sup> I myself have been saying: “O LORD, be gracious to me! Heal my soul! For I have been sinning against You.”

<sup>5</sup> My enemies are asking maliciously about me: “When will he die, and when will his name disappear?”

<sup>6</sup> When one of them comes to visit me, he speaks what is worthless. His heart gathers what is evil. Then he goes outside and talks about it.

<sup>7</sup> All who hate me are whispering together about me. They are planning harm for me and saying, <sup>8</sup> “A devilish disease is being poured out for him. He will never get up again from the place where he has lain down.”

<sup>9</sup> Even My close friend, whom I trust, who has been eating My bread, has lifted up his heel against Me.

<sup>10</sup> Nevertheless, You, O LORD, be gracious to me and raise me up, that I may repay them!

<sup>11</sup> In this way I know that You take pleasure in me, that my enemy will not shout in triumph over me.

<sup>12</sup> However, as for me, You have firmly grasped me in my integrity and You will set me in Your presence for ever.

<sup>13</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting! Amen and Amen.

BOOK TWO (PSALMS 42-72)

42

For the choir director, a Maskil of the sons of Korah

<sup>2</sup> My soul is thirsting for God, for the living God. When may I come and appear before God?

<sup>3</sup> My tears have been my food day and night, while people ask me all day long, “Where is your God?”

<sup>4</sup> I remember these things as I pour out my soul. For I used to walk with the crowd and lead them in procession to the house of God, with the sound of joyful shouting and thanksgiving — with a crowd celebrating a festival.

<sup>5</sup> Why are you cast down, my soul? Why are you restless inside me? Hope in God! For I shall again praise Him for the deliverance that His presence brings.

<sup>6</sup> O my God, my soul is downcast inside me. Therefore, I remember You from the land of Jordan and from the heights of Hermon, from Mount Mizar.

<sup>9</sup> Let me ask God, my Rock: “Why have You forgotten me? Why must I go mourning because the enemy is oppressing me?”

<sup>10</sup> As if my bones were being crushed, my enemies have been taunting me while they are asking me all day long, “Where is your God?”

<sup>11</sup> Why are you downcast, O my soul, and why are you restless inside me? Hope in God! For I shall again praise Him, my Saviour and my God.

43

<sup>1</sup> Vindicate me, O God, and plead my case against a nation that is not devout! Rescue me from the deceitful and unruly man!

<sup>2</sup> For You are the God who gives me refuge. Why have You been rejecting me? Why must I walk around dressed in mourning attire because of the oppression of the enemy?

<sup>3</sup> Send out Your light and Your truth! Let them lead me! Let them bring me to Your holy mountain and to Your dwelling-place!

<sup>4</sup> Then let me go to the altar of God, to God, my Joy and my Delight, that I may give thanks to You on the lyre, O God, my God!

<sup>5</sup> Why are you downcast, my soul, and why are you restless inside me? Hope in God! For I shall again praise Him, my Saviour and my God.

44

For the choir director, a Maskil of the sons of Korah

<sup>1</sup> O God, we have heard it with our own ears. Our fathers have told us about the work that You accomplished in their days, in the days long ago.

<sup>3</sup> For they did not gain possession of the land by their own swords, and their own arms did not save them. Rather, Your right hand saved them, Your arm and the light of Your face, because You were well disposed towards them.

<sup>4</sup> You are my King, O God. Keep on commanding victories for Jacob!

<sup>10</sup> You are making us retreat from the enemy, and those who hate us have been taking plunder for themselves.

<sup>11</sup> You have been surrendering us to be eaten like sheep and have been scattering us among the nations.

<sup>15</sup> All the day long my disgrace is before me, and shame has been covering my face, <sup>16</sup> because of the voice of him who keeps ridiculing and slandering me, because of the enemy and the one who is bent on revenge.

<sup>17</sup> All this has been coming on us. Nevertheless, we have not forgotten You or been treating Your Covenant falsely.

<sup>20</sup> If we had forgotten the name of our God and had spread out our hands to a foreign god, <sup>21</sup> would God not have spied this out, since He knows the secrets of the heart?

<sup>22</sup> Indeed, because of You we are being killed all day long. We are regarded as sheep to be slaughtered.

For the choir director, according to "The Lilies," a Maskil of the sons of Korah. A love song

<sup>2</sup> You are the most handsome of the descendants of Adam. Grace has been poured out on Your lips. Therefore, God has blessed You for ever.

<sup>7</sup> You love righteousness and hate wickedness. Therefore, God, Your God, has anointed You more than Your companions, with the Oil of Joy.

<sup>10</sup> Listen, O daughter, look closely, turn your ear to me and forget your people and your father's house, <sup>11</sup> that the King may long for your beauty! Since He is your Lord, bow down to Him!

<sup>16</sup> Your sons will take the place of Your fathers. You will make them princes over all the earth.

For the choir director, a song of the sons of Korah, according to Alamoth

glad, the holy dwelling-place of the Most High.

<sup>8</sup> Come! See the works of the LORD! He has brought devastation on the earth.

<sup>9</sup> He makes wars cease to the end of the earth. He breaks the bow and cuts the spear in pieces. He burns the chariots with fire.

<sup>10</sup> "Cease striving and know that I am God! I shall be exalted among the nations. I shall be exalted in the earth."

47

For the choir director, a psalm of the sons of Korah

<sup>9</sup> The nobles of the peoples have gathered together as the people of the God of Abraham. For the shields of the earth belong to God. He is greatly exalted.

48

A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah

east wind.

<sup>8</sup> As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God. God will establish it for ever. Selah

<sup>14</sup> For this is God, our God, for ever and ever. He will lead us beyond death.

49

For the choir director, a psalm of the sons of Korah

<sup>13</sup> This is their way. They are self-confident. Yet after them people approve of what they have said. Selah

<sup>14</sup> They have been appointed for Sheol like sheep. Death will be their shepherd. Upright people will rule over them in the morning. Their forms will waste away in Sheol, far away from their lofty dwelling.

<sup>15</sup> Nevertheless, God will redeem my life from the power of Sheol. For He will receive me. Selah

50

A psalm of Asaph

<sup>3</sup> Our God will come and will not remain silent. A fire will devour before Him. It will be very stormy around Him.

<sup>7</sup> “Listen, My people, that I may speak! Listen, Israel, that I may admonish you! I am God, your God.

<sup>15</sup> “Call on Me in a day of trouble! I shall deliver you, and you shall glorify Me.”

<sup>16</sup> However, God has been asking the wicked person: “What right have you to recite My prescriptions and take My Covenant in your mouth?

<sup>21</sup> “You have been doing these things, and I have remained silent. You imagined that I was just like you. I shall rebuke you, that I may lay a case against you to your face.

tear you in pieces, and no one will rescue you!

<sup>23</sup> “He who offers thanksgiving as a sacrifice will honour Me, and to him who orders his conduct I shall show the salvation of God.”

51

For the choir director, a psalm of David when the prophet Nathan came to him after David’s adultery with Bathsheba

<sup>4</sup> I have sinned against You, You only, and I have done what is evil in Your sight, that You may be just when You speak, that You may be blameless when You judge.

<sup>5</sup> Indeed, I was born in iniquity, and in sin my mother conceived me.

<sup>6</sup> Indeed, You desire truth in the inner parts and in the secret being You are teaching me wisdom.

<sup>8</sup> Cause me to hear joy and gladness! Let the bones that You have crushed rejoice!

<sup>13</sup> I shall teach Your Ways to those who are rebellious, and sinners will return to You.

<sup>14</sup> Rescue me from the guilt of bloodshed, O God, my saving God, and my tongue will joyfully proclaim Your righteousness!

<sup>16</sup> For You will not delight in sacrifice or I would give it. You will not take pleasure in a burnt offering.

<sup>19</sup> Then You will delight in righteous sacrifices, in burnt offering and in whole burnt offering. Then people will offer bulls on Your altar.

52

For the choir director, a Maskil, a psalm of David, when Doeg the Edomite went and told Saul, “David has gone to the house of Ahimelech” of God lasts all day long.

<sup>5</sup> God will also demolish you for ever. He will take you away and tear you out of your tent. He will uproot you from the land of the living. Selah

<sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, I am like a flourishing olive tree in the house of God. I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.

<sup>9</sup> I shall praise You for ever, because You have done it. In the presence of Your devout people, I shall wait eagerly for Your name. For it is good.

53

For the choir director, according to Mahalath, a Maskil of David <sup>1</sup> A fool has been saying in his heart, “There is no God.” They have been causing ruin and committing abominable injustice. There is no one who is doing good.

<sup>2</sup> God has been looking down from heaven on the children of Adam to see if there is anyone who understands and who is coming to God for help.

<sup>3</sup> All of them have turned away. Together they have become corrupt. There is no one who does good. There is not even one.

<sup>4</sup> Have all evildoers no knowledge, who are devouring My people as if they were devouring food, and who have not been calling on God?

<sup>5</sup> They have been trembling with terror, where there has been nothing about which to be terrified. For God has scattered the bones of the one who had pitched a camp against you. You have put them to shame, because God has rejected them.

54

For the choir director, on stringed instruments, a Maskil of David, when people from Ziph went and asked Saul, “Is not David hiding among us?”

<sup>6</sup> Let me sacrifice a freewill offering to You! I shall praise Your name, O LORD, because it is good.

<sup>7</sup> For He has delivered me out of every trouble, and my eye has been gloating over my enemies.

55

For the choir director, on stringed instruments, a Maskil of David <sup>1</sup> Open Your ears to my prayer, O God, and do not hide Yourself from my plea for favour!

<sup>2</sup> Pay attention to me and answer me! I am being restless in my concern and am distraught, <sup>3</sup> because of what the enemy is saying, because of the oppression of a wicked man. For people are causing trouble to crash down on me and are angrily harbouring hostility against me.

<sup>4</sup> My heart is trembling inside me, and the horrors of death have fallen on me.

<sup>12</sup> However, it is not an enemy who is insulting me. I could endure that. It is not one who hates me and who has exalted himself against me. Otherwise, I could hide from him.

<sup>14</sup> We used to engage in sweet and confidential conversation together and walk to the house of God when there was unrest.

<sup>15</sup> May death take them by surprise! May they go down alive to Sheol! For there are troubles in their storage rooms and inside them.

<sup>16</sup> I myself shall call to God, and the LORD will save me.

<sup>17</sup> In the evening, in the morning and at noon I shall complain and groan, but He hears my voice.

<sup>18</sup> He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle against me, although there have been many opposing me.

For they never change and do not fear God.

<sup>20</sup> My companion has stretched out his hand on those who had been at peace with him and violated his covenant.

<sup>21</sup> His speech has been smoother than butter, but war has been in his heart. His words have been softer than olive-oil but have been drawn swords.

<sup>22</sup> Cast your burden on the LORD! He will support you. He will never permit the righteous person to stagger.

<sup>23</sup> Nevertheless, You, O God, will bring them down to the pit of the grave. Men who murder and are treacherous will not live out half their days. However, I shall trust in You.

56

For the choir director, according to "A Silent Dove far away," a Miktam of David, when the Philistines captured him in Gath

<sup>4</sup> In God (I shall praise His Promise) in God I trust. I shall not be afraid. What can flesh do to me?

<sup>8</sup> You have been recording my wandering. You Yourself, put my tears in Your water-skin! Are they not in Your book?

<sup>9</sup> Then my enemies will turn back on the day when I call. This I know, that God is for me.

<sup>10</sup> In God, whose Word I praise, in the LORD, whose Word I praise, <sup>11</sup> in God I trust. I shall not be afraid. What can a human being do to me?

<sup>12</sup> I am obligated by vows to You, O God. I shall fulfil them by thank-offerings to You.

<sup>13</sup> For You have rescued my life from death. Have You not rescued my feet from stumbling, that I may walk before God in the light of life?

57

For the choir director, "Do not Destroy," a Miktam of David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave — compare v. 7-11 with Ps 108:1-5

<sup>1</sup> Be gracious to me, O God! Be gracious to me! For my soul has been taking refuge in You. I shall take refuge in the shadow of Your wings until destruction passes by.

<sup>3</sup> He will send help from heaven and save me. He has confused the man who was pestering me. Selah
God will send out His mercy and His truth.

<sup>6</sup> They have prepared a net for my steps. He has oppressed my soul. They have dug out a pit in front of me but have fallen into it. Selah

58

For the choir director, according to "Do not Destroy," a Miktam of David.

<sup>9</sup> Before your cooking-pots can feel the heat of the box-thorns, may He carry them off in a gale, even the green ones, and also in burning anger!

<sup>10</sup> The righteous person will be glad when he has seen recompense. He will wash his feet in the blood of the wicked person, <sup>11</sup> so that human beings will say: "Surely the righteous person will have a reward! Surely there is a God who judges on the earth!"

59

For the choir director, according to "Do not Destroy," a Miktam of David, when Saul sent men, and they watched his house to kill him

<sup>3</sup> For look! They have been lying in ambush for my life. Powerful men are attacking me but not for any rebellion or sin of mine, O LORD.

<sup>9</sup> Let me watch for You, O You who are the Strength of this person! For God is my Stronghold.

<sup>10</sup> My merciful God will go ahead of me. God will let me gloat over my enemies.

<sup>11</sup> Do not kill them, that my people may not forget! By Your power make them homeless wanderers and bring them down, O Lord, our Shield, <sup>12</sup> because of the sin of their mouths and the words of their lips, that they may be caught in their arrogance! Because of the curses and lies that they are uttering, <sup>13</sup> consume them in anger! Consume them that they may be no more! Let people know as far as the ends of the earth that God is ruling over Jacob! Selah

<sup>16</sup> Nevertheless, I myself shall sing about Your strength and in the morning I shall joyfully proclaim Your mercy. For You have been my Fortress and my Place of Refuge when I have been in trouble.

<sup>17</sup> O my Strength, let me sing praise to You! For God is my Stronghold, my merciful God.

60

For the choir director, according to "The Lily of Testimony," a Miktam of David, for instruction, when he carried on a quarrel against the Arameans of Mesopotamia and the Arameans of Zobah, and when Joab came back and struck down twelve thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt — compare v. 5-12 with Ps 108:6-13

<sup>1</sup> O God, You have rejected us. You have broken out against us. You have been angry. May You restore us!

<sup>2</sup> You have made the land quake. You have split it open. Heal its fractures! For it has been tottering.

<sup>3</sup> You have made Your people suffer hardships. You have given us wine to drink that makes us stagger.

they may rally to it before the archers. Selah

<sup>5</sup> That those who are dear to You may be rescued, save us by Your right hand and answer us!

<sup>7</sup> "Gilead is Mine, and Manasseh is Mine. Ephraim is a helmet on My head. Judah is My sceptre.

<sup>8</sup> "Moab is My washbasin. I shall throw My sandal over Edom. Because of Me, O Philistia, shout in triumph!"

61

For the choir director, on a stringed instrument, of David

<sup>2</sup> From the ends of the earth I am calling to You while my heart is growing faint. Lead me to the Rock that is higher than I am!

<sup>4</sup> Let me reside in Your tent for ever! Let me take refuge under Your wings as a hiding place! Selah <sup>5</sup> For You, O God, have heard my vows. You have given me the inheritance that belongs to those who fear Your name.

<sup>7</sup> May he sit enthroned in the presence of God for ever! Appoint mercy and truth, that they may protect him!

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, let me sing praise to Your name for ever, that I may perform my vows day after day!

62

For the choir director, according to Jeduthun, a psalm of David

<sup>2</sup> He alone is my Rock and my Salvation. He is my Stronghold. I shall not stagger greatly.

<sup>3</sup> How long will you people attack a person? How long will all of you be intent on murdering him, as though he were a leaning wall or a tottering stone fence?

<sup>5</sup> Wait quietly for God alone, my soul! For my hope comes from Him.

<sup>6</sup> He alone is my Rock and my Salvation, my High Refuge. I shall not stagger.

<sup>8</sup> Trust Him at all times, you people! Pour out your hearts in His presence! God is our Refuge. Selah

<sup>10</sup> Do not trust in extortion or put false hope in robbery! If riches increase, do not set your hearts on them!

<sup>11</sup> God has spoken once. I have heard this twice, that power belongs to God, <sup>12</sup> and that mercy belongs to You, O Lord. For You repay a person according to what he has done.

63

A psalm of David when he was in the Wilderness of Judah

<sup>1</sup> O God, You are my God, I shall eagerly be intent on You. My soul has been thirsting for You. My body has been longing for You in a dry and weary land, where there is no water.

<sup>2</sup> Therefore, I have been looking for You in the sanctuary, to see Your power and Your glory.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore, I shall bless You all my life. In Your name I shall lift up my hands.

<sup>5</sup> My soul will be satisfied as with fat and with rich food, and my mouth will praise You with lips that shout for joy.

<sup>11</sup> Nevertheless, the king will rejoice in God. Everyone who swears by Him will boast. However, the mouths of those who speak lies will be silenced.

64

For the choir director, a psalm of David

shoot at an innocent man from their hiding-places. They are shooting at him suddenly, without any fear.

<sup>5</sup> They are encouraging one another in their evil plan. They are talking about how to hide traps. They have been asking, "Who will see them?"

Both the inward thoughts of a man and his heart are impenetrable.

<sup>8</sup> He has caused them to stumble. Their own tongues are against them. All who see them are shuddering over them.

<sup>9</sup> All human beings have become afraid and have been declaring, "This is the work of God." They have gained insight into what He has done.

<sup>10</sup> Let the righteous person be glad in the LORD and take refuge in Him! Let all those who are upright in heart offer praise!

65

For the choir director, a psalm of David, a song

<sup>4</sup> Blessed is the person whom You choose and whom You bring near, that he may dwell in Your courts! We shall be satisfied with the good things of Your house, the holiness of Your Temple.

<sup>8</sup> Those who live at the ends of the earth have been in awe of Your miraculous signs. You make the places where morning dawns and the places where evening fades shout for joy.

<sup>9</sup> You have taken care of the land and have caused it to overflow. You have enriched it abundantly. The stream of God is filled with water. You are providing their grain. For that is how You have prepared it.

66

For the choir director, on stringed instruments, a song, a psalm

<sup>5</sup> Come and see what God has done! He is awesome in what He has done for the descendants of Adam.

<sup>6</sup> He turned the sea into dry land. They crossed the river on foot. There let us rejoice in Him! Selah

<sup>9</sup> He is keeping our souls among the living and has not allowed our feet to slide.

<sup>10</sup> For You have tested us, O God. You have refined us as silver is refined.

<sup>12</sup> You have let men ride over our heads. We have gone through fire and through water. Nevertheless, You have brought us out to abundance.

<sup>13</sup> I shall go into Your Temple with burnt offerings. I shall fulfil to You my vows, <sup>14</sup> which my lips promised, and my mouth spoke when I was in trouble.

<sup>16</sup> Come and listen, all you who fear God, that I may declare what He has done for my soul!

<sup>17</sup> I cried to Him with my mouth, and my tongue has given high praise.

<sup>18</sup> If I had been aware of injustice in my heart, the Lord would not have listened, <sup>19</sup> but God has certainly heard me. He has paid attention to the sound of my prayer.

67

For the choir director, on stringed instruments, a psalm, a song

<sup>1</sup> May God be gracious to us and bless us! May He make His face shine on us — Selah — <sup>2</sup> that Your Way may be known on the earth, and Your salvation among all nations!

<sup>6</sup> The earth has produced its yield. God, our God, will bless us.

<sup>7</sup> God will bless us, and all the ends of the earth will fear Him.

68

For the choir director, a psalm of David, a song

<sup>1</sup> God will arise. His enemies will scatter, so that those who hate Him will flee from Him.

<sup>3</sup> Nevertheless, righteous people will be glad. They will rejoice before God. They will be glad and rejoice.

<sup>10</sup> It was Your dwelling-place in which they settled. Out of Your goodness, O God, You prepared for needy people.

<sup>13</sup> Although you men were lying down among the saddle-bags, you were like the wings of a dove covered with silver, which had its feathers covered with yellow gold.

in their sublimity. The Lord is among them, as at Sinai, in the Holy Place.

<sup>18</sup> You have gone up to the highest place. You have taken prisoners captive. You have received gifts from people, even from rebellious people, that the LORD God may dwell there.

<sup>20</sup> Our God is a God who acts to deliver. Escape from death belongs to GOD, the Lord.

<sup>22</sup> The Lord has said: "I shall bring them back from Bashan. I shall bring them back from the depths of the sea, <sup>23</sup> that your foot may smite them in blood, and the tongues of your dogs may have their share from the enemies."

<sup>27</sup> There is Benjamin, the least of them, leading them. There are the princes of Judah, and their great throng. There are the princes of Zebulun and the princes of Naphtali.

<sup>28</sup> Your God has commanded that you should be strong. Show Your strength, O God, in what You have been doing for us!

<sup>35</sup> O God, You are awe-inspiring from Your holy places. The God of Israel Himself gives power and strength to His people. Blessed be God!

69

For the choir director, according to "The Lilies," of David

<sup>1</sup> Save me, O God! For the water has come up to My neck.

have come into deep waters, and a flood has swept over Me.

<sup>3</sup> I have become weary from My crying out. My throat has become hoarse. My eyes have become dim from waiting for My God.

<sup>4</sup> Those who hate Me without cause outnumber the hairs on My head. My deceitful enemies, who would destroy me, are powerful. Although I have not stolen, I must repay.

<sup>5</sup> O God, You Yourself know My foolishness, and My guilty acts have not been hidden from You.

<sup>6</sup> Let those who hope in You not be put to shame because of Me, O Lord, GOD of hosts! Let those who are intent on You not be disgraced because of Me, O God of Israel!

<sup>7</sup> For it is because of You that I have endured abuse. Disgrace has covered My face.

<sup>8</sup> I have become alienated from My brothers and a foreigner to My mother's children.

<sup>9</sup> For jealous love for Your house has consumed Me, and the taunts of those who taunt You have fallen on Me.

<sup>13</sup> As for Me, My prayer comes to You, O LORD, at an acceptable time, O God. In Your great mercy, answer Me, in the truth of Your salvation!

<sup>14</sup> Rescue Me from the wet clay! Let Me not sink into it! Let Me be rescued from those who hate Me and from the deep waters!

<sup>15</sup> Let floodwaters not sweep over Me! Let the deep not swallow Me up, and let the pit not close its mouth over Me!

<sup>16</sup> Answer Me, O LORD! For Your mercy is good. According to Your great compassion, turn to Me!

<sup>19</sup> You Yourself know My disgrace, My shame and My humiliation. All those who are hostile to Me are before You.

<sup>20</sup> Insult has broken My heart, and I am sick. I looked for sympathy, but there was none and for people to comfort Me but I found no one.

of Your anger overtake them!

25 Let their camp be made desolate! Let there be no one to dwell in their tents!

26 For they have been persecuting the One whom You Yourself have struck down and talk about the pain of those whom You have pierced.

27 Add guilt to their guilt, and let them not enter Your righteousness!

28 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and let them not be recorded with righteous people!

29 However, I am wretched and in pain. Let Your salvation protect Me, O God!

30 Let Me praise the name of God with a song, and let Me magnify Him with thanksgiving!

31 This will please the LORD more than an ox, more than a bull with its horns and hoofs.

32 When humble people have seen this, they will rejoice. You who are intent on God, may your hearts revive!

33 For the LORD listens to the needy. He has not despised His captive people.

34 Let heaven and earth praise Him, the seas and everything that moves in them!

35 For God will save Zion and will rebuild the cities of Judah, that people may dwell there and possess it.

36 The descendants of His servants will inherit it, and those who love His name will dwell in it.

70

For the choir director, of David, to bring remembrance

1 O God, come quickly to deliver me! O LORD, come quickly to help me!

2 Let those who are trying to take my life be put to shame and confounded! Let those who desire to harm me be turned back and disgraced!

3 Let those who say, "Aha! Aha!" turn back because of their shame!

4 Let all who are intent on You rejoice and be glad in You! Let those who love Your salvation also constantly say, "Let God be great!"

5 However, I am afflicted and needy, O God. Come to me quickly! You are my Help and my Deliverer. O LORD, do not delay!

71

1 In You, O LORD, I have taken refuge. Let me never be ashamed!

2 In Your righteousness rescue me and deliver me! Turn Your ear to me and save me!

3 Be a rock of refuge for me, where I may go continually! You have given the command to save me. For You are my Rock and my Fortress.

4 O my God, deliver me from the hand of a wicked person, from the grasp of one who is unjust and cruel!

5 For You are my Hope, O Lord GOD. You have been my Confidence since I was young.

6 I have been leaning on You from birth. You took me from my mother's womb. My praise is continually about You.

7 I have become like an unsettling sign to many people, but You are my strong Refuge.

8 My mouth is filled with Your praise, with Your honour all day long.

9 Do not cast me away in the time of old age! Do not forsake me when my strength fails!

10 For my enemies have been speaking about me. Those who are watching to take my life have been consulting together.

11 They are saying: "God has forsaken him. Pursue him and take hold of him! For there is no one to rescue him."

12 O God, do not be far away from me! O my God, come quickly to help me!

13 Let the adversaries against my life be ashamed! Let them come to an end! Let those who want to harm me be covered with scorn and disgrace!

14 However, I myself shall wait continually and praise You more and more.

15 My mouth will tell about Your righteousness, about Your salvation all day long, although I do not know how to write them down.

16 I shall come with the powerful deeds of the Lord GOD. I shall proclaim Your righteousness, Yours alone.

17 O God, You have taught me since I have been young, and to this day I am declaring Your marvellous deeds.

18 Even until I am old and grey, O God, do not forsake me, until I proclaim Your strength to the next generation and Your power to all who are to come!

19 Your righteousness, O God, reaches to the place on high. You have done great things. O God, who is like You?

20 Although You have shown me many troubles and calamities, You will revive me again. You will bring me up again from the depths of the earth.

21 You will increase my greatness and give me comfort again.

22 I shall also praise You for Your faithfulness with a stringed instrument, O my God. I shall sing praise to You with a lyre, O Holy One of Israel.

23 My lips will shout for joy when I sing praise to You, my soul also, which You have redeemed.

24 My tongue will also talk about Your righteousness all day long. For those who have been trying to harm me have become ashamed. For they have been put to confusion.

72

Of Solomon

1 O God, give Your judgments to the king and Your righteousness to the King's Son!

2 Let Him judge Your people with righteousness and Your poor people with justice!

<sup>3</sup> May the mountains bring peace to the people, and may the hills bring righteousness!

<sup>4</sup> May He award justice to those who are poor among the people! May He save the children of needy people and crush the oppressor!

<sup>5</sup> May they fear You for as long as the sun endures and for as long as the moon endures, throughout all generations!

<sup>6</sup> May He come down like rain on mown grass, like showers that sprinkle the earth!

<sup>7</sup> May the righteous person flourish in His days, and may there be widespread peace until the moon is no more!

<sup>8</sup> May He rule from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth!

<sup>13</sup> May He look compassionately on weak and needy people, and may He save the lives of the poor!

<sup>15</sup> May He live long and may gold from Sheba be given to Him! May people pray for Him continually! May they bless Him all day long!

<sup>16</sup> May there be plenty of grain in the land! May it rustle on the mountain tops! May its fruit be like that of Lebanon! May people from the city flourish like the grass on the ground!

73

A psalm of Asaph

<sup>13</sup> Surely, it has been to no purpose that I have been keeping my heart pure and that I have been washing my hands in innocence.

<sup>14</sup> I have been plagued all day long, and every morning my reproach comes again.

<sup>15</sup> If I had said, "I shall continue to talk like that," look! I should have been treating the generation of Your children faithlessly.

<sup>21</sup> When my heart was filled with bitterness and, when I felt sharply stabbed in my inmost being, <sup>22</sup> I was senseless and did not understand. I was an unthinking animal in Your presence.

<sup>24</sup> You are guiding me with Your advice and, in the end, You will take me to glory.

<sup>25</sup> Whom have I in heaven? Indeed, if You are with me, I desire nothing else on earth.

<sup>26</sup> If my body and my heart have failed, God is the solid Foundation of my heart and my Portion for ever.

<sup>27</sup> For, indeed, those who are far from You will perish. You have been destroying all who are unfaithful to You.

<sup>28</sup> However, as for me, it is good to be near God. I have made the Lord GOD my Refuge, that I may declare everything that You have done.

74

A Maskil, of Asaph

Psalms

<sup>2</sup> Remember Your congregation, which You bought long ago! You have redeemed it as the tribe that is Your own possession. This is Mount Zion, where You have made Your home.

<sup>7</sup> They have set Your Holy Place on fire. They have utterly defiled the dwelling-place of Your name.

<sup>8</sup> They have been thinking, "We shall oppress them completely." They have burnt all the meeting places of God in the land.

<sup>9</sup> We have no longer been seeing our miraculous signs. There is no prophet any longer, and there is no one with us who knows how long this will last.

<sup>10</sup> How long, O God, will the foe mock? Will the enemy insult Your name for ever?

<sup>14</sup> You have smashed the heads of Leviathan, that You may give it as food to the creatures of the desert.

<sup>16</sup> The day is Yours and the night is also Yours. You have established the light-giving bodies and the sun.

<sup>17</sup> You have set all the boundaries of the earth. You have formed summer and winter.

<sup>18</sup> Remember this, that the enemy has mocked the LORD, and that a foolish nation has insulted Your name!

75

For the choir director, according to "Do not destroy," a psalm of Asaph, a song

<sup>1</sup> We give thanks to You, O God. We give thanks. Your name is near. People tell about Your wonderful deeds.

<sup>8</sup> For there is a cup in the hand of the LORD. It is full of foaming wine and has been thoroughly mixed. He will pour it out of it, and all the wicked people of the earth will surely drink it and will drain it down to its dregs.

<sup>9</sup> However, I myself shall declare this for ever. I shall sing praises to the God of Jacob.

<sup>10</sup> "I shall cut off all the horns of wicked people, but the horns of righteous people will be lifted up."

76

<sup>8</sup> You caused judgment to be heard from heaven. The earth became afraid and remained quiet, <sup>9</sup> when God rose to judge, to save all the oppressed people of the earth. Selah them! Let all those who are around Him bring tribute to the One who is to be feared!

<sup>12</sup> He will humble the spirits of princes. The kings of the earth must fear Him.

77

For the choir director, according to Jeduthun, a psalm of Asaph

<sup>1</sup> With my voice let me cry out to God, with my voice to God, and He will listen to me.

<sup>2</sup> On the day when I was in trouble, I pleaded to the Lord. At night, my hand was stretched out without growing weary. My soul refused to be comforted.

<sup>3</sup> When I remember God, I groan. When I meditate, my spirit becomes faint. Selah

<sup>6</sup> "Let me remember my stringed music during the night! Let me meditate in my heart!" Then my spirit made a careful search: <sup>7</sup> "Will the Lord keep on rejecting for ever and will He never be favourable again?"

<sup>10</sup> Then I said, "I have been pierced with sorrow over this, that the right hand of the Most High should change."

<sup>11</sup> I shall remember the deeds of the LORD. Yes, I shall remember Your wonders from long ago.

<sup>12</sup> I shall ponder about all Your work. I meditate on what You have done.

<sup>13</sup> O God, Your Way is holy. Which god is great like God?

<sup>14</sup> You are the God who works wonders. You have made known Your strength among the peoples.

78

A Maskil of Asaph

<sup>1</sup> Open your ears to my teaching, my people! Turn your ears to the words from my mouth!

<sup>2</sup> Let me open my mouth in a parable! Let me utter riddles from long ago, <sup>3</sup> which we have heard and known and which our fathers have told us!

<sup>4</sup> We shall not keep them hidden from their children. We shall tell the next generation about the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, His power and the wonderful things that He has done.

<sup>5</sup> He has established a Testimony in Jacob and has appointed a Teaching in Israel, which He has commanded our fathers to make known to their children, <sup>6</sup> that the next generation may know them, the children who are yet to be born, that they may grow up and tell their children, <sup>7</sup> that they may place their confidence in God and not forget what God has done but keep His Commandments.

<sup>8</sup> Then they will not be like their ancestors, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation whose hearts were not steadfast. Their spirits were not faithful to God.

<sup>14</sup> He had also led them with the cloud in the daytime and throughout the night with a fiery light.

<sup>16</sup> He had also made streams come out of a rock. He had made waters flow down like rivers.

<sup>20</sup> "True, He did strike a rock, water did flow out and the streams did flood out. Can He also give us bread or provide meat for His people?"

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, when the LORD heard this, He became furious. A fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also rose up against Israel, <sup>22</sup> because they did not believe in God and did not trust in His deliverance.

<sup>32</sup> In spite of all this, they continued to sin and did not believe in His wonderful deeds.

<sup>38</sup> Yet He was compassionate and atoned for their guilt. He did not destroy them. He turned His anger away many times and did not let all His rage be stirred up.

79

A psalm of Asaph

<sup>2</sup> They have given the dead bodies of Your servants to the birds of the sky for food, the flesh of Your devout people to the wild animals.

<sup>3</sup> They have poured out their blood like water all around Jerusalem, and there has been no one to bury them.

<sup>5</sup> How long, O LORD? Will You be angry for ever? Will Your jealousy keep on burning like fire?

<sup>6</sup> Pour out Your wrath on the nations who do not know You and on the kingdoms that have not been calling on Your name!

<sup>8</sup> Do not remember the sins of former generations against us! Let Your compassion come quickly to meet us! For we have become very small.

<sup>9</sup> Help us, O God, our Saviour, because of Your glorious name! Deliver us and provide atonement for our sins, for Your name's sake!

<sup>10</sup> Why should the nations ask, "Where is their God?" May Your vengeance for the blood of Your servants that has been shed become known among the nations before our eyes!

<sup>12</sup> Pay back our neighbours seven times over, into their own laps, for their insults, with which they have been reproaching You, O Lord!

<sup>13</sup> Then we ourselves, who are Your people and the sheep of Your pasture, shall give thanks to You for ever. We shall declare Your praise to all generations.

80

For the choir director, according to "The Lilies," a testimony of Asaph, a psalm

<sup>4</sup> O LORD, God of hosts, how long will You smoulder in anger against the prayers of Your people?

who pass along the way have been plucking its fruit?

<sup>14</sup> O God of hosts, please return! Look down from heaven and see! Take care of this vine, <sup>15</sup> of the rootstock that Your right hand has planted and of the cutting that You have let grow strong for Yourself!

<sup>18</sup> Then we shall not be disloyal to You. Give us life again! Then we shall call on Your name.

81

For the choir director, according to the Gittith, of Asaph

<sup>5</sup> He set it in place as a Testimony for Joseph, when he went throughout the land of Egypt. I used to hear a language that I did not understand: <sup>6</sup> "I have removed the burden from his shoulder. His hands have been freed from the basket.

<sup>7</sup> "When you were in trouble, you called out, and I rescued you. I answered you in the secret place of thunder. I tested you at the water of Meribah. Selah <sup>8</sup> "Listen, My people, that I may admonish you, O Israel, if you will listen to Me!

<sup>9</sup> "There shall be no strange god among you. You shall not worship any foreign god.

<sup>10</sup> "I am the LORD, your God, and I have brought you up out of the land of Egypt. Open your mouth wide, that I may fill it!

<sup>11</sup> "However, My people have not been listening to My voice. Israel has not been willing to accept Me.

<sup>13</sup> "If only My people would listen to Me! If only Israel would walk in My Ways!

82

83

A song, a psalm of Asaph

<sup>4</sup> They have been saying, “Come! Let us make them disappear as a nation, that the name of Israel may not be remembered any longer!”

<sup>8</sup> Assyria also has joined them. They have been the arm of Lot’s descendants. Selah <sup>9</sup> Deal with them as You did with Midian, as You did with Sisera and Jabin at the Kishon River.

<sup>16</sup> Fill their faces with shame, that they may be intent on Your name, O LORD!

them be disgraced and perish, <sup>18</sup> that they may acknowledge that You, whose name alone is the LORD, are the Most High over all the earth!

84

For the choir director, according to the Gittith, a psalm of the sons of Korah

<sup>2</sup> My soul has been deeply longing, — indeed, it has been yearning, for the courts of the LORD. My heart and my flesh are shouting for joy to the living God.

<sup>3</sup> Even a sparrow has found a home, and a swallow a nest for herself, where she has settled her young, near Your altars, O LORD of hosts, my King and my God.

<sup>11</sup> For the LORD God is a Sun and a Shield. The LORD will give grace and glory. He will not hold back anything good from those whose conduct is honest.

85

For the choir director, a psalm of the sons of Korah

<sup>7</sup> Show us Your mercy, O LORD, and grant us Your salvation!

<sup>8</sup> Let me hear what God, the LORD, will speak! For He will promise peace to His people, to His devout people. However, let them not become foolish again!

<sup>9</sup> Surely His salvation is near those who fear Him, that glory may dwell in our land.

86

A prayer of David

<sup>1</sup> Turn Your ear toward me, O LORD! Answer me! For I am wretched and needy.

<sup>2</sup> Protect my life! For I am faithful to You. Save Your servant, who trusts in You! You are my God.

<sup>3</sup> Be gracious to me, O Lord! For I am calling out to You all day long.

<sup>4</sup> Make the soul of Your servant glad! For to You, O Lord, I am lifting up my soul.

<sup>5</sup> For You, O Lord, are kind and ready to forgive and very merciful toward all who call on You.

<sup>7</sup> In the day of my distress I am calling out to You. For You will answer me.

<sup>8</sup> There is no one like You among the gods, O Lord, and there are no deeds like Yours.

<sup>9</sup> All the nations that You have made will come and worship before You, O Lord. They will honour Your name.

<sup>11</sup> Teach me Your Way, O LORD! I shall walk in Your truth. Make my heart concentrate on fearing Your name!

<sup>12</sup> I shall praise You, O Lord, my God, with all my heart. I shall honour Your name for ever.

<sup>13</sup> For Your mercy toward me is great, and You will rescue my soul from the depths of Sheol.

<sup>14</sup> O God, arrogant people have been attacking me, and a band of ruthless people have been trying to take my life and have had no regard for You.

<sup>15</sup> However, You, O Lord, are a compassionate and gracious God, slow to become angry and abundant in mercy and truth.

<sup>16</sup> Turn to me and be gracious to me! Give Your strength to Your servant and save the son of Your female servant!

<sup>17</sup> Grant me a sign of Your goodness, that those who hate me may see it and be put to shame! For You, O LORD, have been helping me and comforting me.

87

A psalm of the sons of Korah, a song

<sup>4</sup> "I shall mention Rahab and Babylon among those who acknowledge Me. There is Philistia, as well as Tyre, along with Cush. They will say, 'This one has been born there.'"

<sup>5</sup> However, it will be said about Zion: "This one and that one were born in it. The Most High Himself will establish it."

<sup>6</sup> The LORD will record when He registers the peoples: "This one has been born there." Selah

88

A song, a psalm of the sons of Korah, to the choir director, according to Mahalath Leannoth, a Maskil of Heman the Ezrahite <sup>1</sup> O LORD, my saving God, by day and by night I have been crying out before You.

<sup>4</sup> I have been counted with those who are going down to the pit. I have become like a man who has no strength.

<sup>5</sup> I have been released among the dead. I am like those who have been slain, who lie in the grave, whom You do not remember any longer, and who have been cut off from Your hand.

<sup>6</sup> You have put me in the lowest part of the pit, in dark places, in deep places.

<sup>8</sup> You have distanced my friends from me. You have made me disgusting to them. I am shut in and cannot get out.

<sup>9</sup> My eye has become dim from misery. I have been calling to You every day, O LORD. I have been spreading out my hands to You.

<sup>13</sup> Nevertheless, I myself have been crying out to You for help, O LORD, and in the morning my prayer comes before You.

<sup>14</sup> Why do You reject my soul, O LORD? Why do You hide Your face from me?

<sup>15</sup> I have been afflicted and close to death from my youth. I have been enduring Your terrors. I am in despair.

<sup>16</sup> Your wrath has been sweeping over me. Your horrors have been silencing me.

<sup>17</sup> All day long they have been surrounding me like water. They have been engulfing me from every side.

<sup>18</sup> You have distanced my loved one and my friend from me, and darkness has become my only acquaintance.

89

A Maskil of Ethan the Ezrahite — compare 2 Sm 7:8-16.

<sup>1</sup> Let me sing about the merciful acts of the LORD for ever! With my mouth I shall proclaim Your faithfulness to all generations.

<sup>3</sup> You have said: “I have made a Covenant with My chosen one. I have sworn an oath to My servant David: <sup>4</sup> “I shall establish your Descendant for ever and build up your throne for all generations.” Selah

<sup>6</sup> For who in the clouds can compare with the LORD? Who among the heavenly beings is like the LORD?

<sup>7</sup> God is greatly to be feared in the council of the holy ones. He is more awe-inspiring than all who surround Him.

<sup>8</sup> O LORD, God of hosts, who is as strong as You are, O LORD? Your faithfulness surrounds You.

<sup>11</sup> The heavens are Yours. The earth is also Yours. You have laid the foundations of the world and everything that is in it.

Him with My holy oil.

<sup>21</sup> “Therefore, with Him My hand will be secure. Indeed, My arm will make Him strong.

<sup>24</sup> “My faithfulness and mercy will be with Him, and in My name His horn will be raised high.

<sup>26</sup> “He will call to Me: ‘You are My Father, my God, and the Rock of My salvation.’

<sup>27</sup> “Yes, I myself shall make Him the First-born. He will be the Most High to the kings of the earth.

<sup>28</sup> “I shall keep My mercy for Him for ever, and My Covenant will stand firm for Him.

<sup>33</sup> “However, I shall not annul My mercy toward Him or deceive Him about My faithfulness.

<sup>34</sup> “I shall not violate My Covenant or change what has gone forth from My lips.

<sup>35</sup> “Once for all I have sworn an oath by My holiness. I shall certainly not lie to David.

<sup>46</sup> How long, O LORD? Will You hide Yourself for ever? Will Your anger continue to burn like fire?

Adam!

<sup>49</sup> Where are Your former acts of mercy, O Lord, which You swore to David in Your faithfulness?

90

A prayer of Moses, the man of God

<sup>9</sup> For all our days have passed away in Your wrath. We finish our years like a sigh.

<sup>10</sup> The days of our lives have seventy years in them or, if we are strong, they are eighty years. Their pride is only toil and trouble. For life quickly passes, and we fly away.

<sup>11</sup> Who knows the power of Your anger? For Your wrath is as great as the fear that is due to You.

<sup>17</sup> Moreover, let the favour of the LORD, our God, be on us! Establish for us the work of our hands! Yes, establish the work of our hands!

<sup>2</sup> I shall say to the LORD, "My Refuge and my Fortress, my God, in whom I trust."

<sup>5</sup> You will not be afraid of the terror of the night or of the arrow that flies by day <sup>6</sup> or of the plague that stalks in darkness or of the pestilence that lays waste at midday.

<sup>9</sup> For You, O LORD, are my Refuge. You have made the Most High your Dwelling-place.

<sup>10</sup> No harm will happen to you. No plague will come near your tent.

<sup>11</sup> For He will command His angels about you, to protect you in all your ways.

<sup>12</sup> They will lift you up on their hands that you may not strike your foot against a stone.

<sup>13</sup> You will tread on the lion and the cobra. You will trample on the young lion and the snake.

<sup>14</sup> "Because he is devoted to Me, I shall rescue him. I shall protect him, because he knows My name.

<sup>15</sup> "When he calls to Me, I shall answer him. I shall be with him in trouble. I shall rescue him and honour him.

A psalm, a song for the Sabbath day

<sup>4</sup> For You have made me rejoice, O LORD, by what You have done. I shall shout for joy about what Your hands have done.

<sup>11</sup> My eye has been gloating over my enemies. My ears are hearing the cry among the evildoers who have risen up against me.

<sup>13</sup> They have been planted in the house of the LORD. They will bloom in the courts of our God.

<sup>14</sup> They will still bear fruit when they are old. They will be fresh and luxuriant, <sup>15</sup> to declare that the LORD is upright. He is my Rock and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

93

94

<sup>8</sup> Pay attention, stupid persons among the people! You fools also, when will you gain insight?

<sup>9</sup> Will He who has planted the ear not hear? Will He who has formed the eye not see?

<sup>10</sup> Will He who instructs nations, will He who teaches human beings knowledge, not discipline?

<sup>15</sup> For legal decisions will become just again, and all who are upright in heart will follow justice.

<sup>18</sup> If I said, "My foot has been slipping," Your mercy, O LORD, kept on supporting me.

<sup>22</sup> Nevertheless, the LORD has been my Stronghold, and my God has been a Rock that protects me.

<sup>23</sup> He has turned their own injustice back on them and will use their own evil to destroy them. The LORD, our God, will silence them.

95

<sup>1</sup> Come! Let us shout joyfully to the LORD! Let us shout aloud to the Rock of our salvation!

<sup>5</sup> The sea is His, and He has made it, and His hands have formed the dry land.

<sup>6</sup> Come, let us worship and bow down! Let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker!

<sup>7</sup> For He is our God, and we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hand.

"Today, if you hear His voice, <sup>8</sup> do not harden your hearts, as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the wilderness, <sup>9</sup> "when your fathers tested Me and tried Me, although they had seen what I had done!"

<sup>10</sup> "For forty years I was disgusted with that generation. So, I said: 'They are a people whose hearts go astray. They have not known My Ways.'

96

— compare v. 1-13 with 1 Chronicles 16:23-33

LORD has made the heavens.

<sup>8</sup> Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to His name! Present an offering and come into His courts!

<sup>10</sup> Say among the nations: “The LORD reigns. The world also is firmly established. It will not be moved. He will judge the peoples justly!”

<sup>12</sup> Let the fields and everything in them be jubilant! Then all the trees of the forest will shout with joy <sup>13</sup> before the LORD.

For He is coming, for He is coming to judge the earth. He will judge the world with righteousness and the peoples with His truth.

97

<sup>9</sup> For You, O LORD, are the Most High over all the earth. You are exalted far above all gods.

98

<sup>3</sup> He has remembered His mercy and His faithfulness to the family of Israel. All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

<sup>7</sup> Let the sea roar and all that fills it, the world and those who live in it!

99

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron were among His priests. Samuel was also among those who called on His name. They called to the LORD, and He answered them.

<sup>7</sup> He spoke to them in a pillar of cloud. They kept His Testimonies and the Ordinance that He had given them.

100

A psalm of thanksgiving

<sup>3</sup> Know that the LORD is God! It is He who has made us, and not we ourselves. We are His people and the sheep of His pasture.

101

praise to You, O LORD.

<sup>2</sup> I shall pay close attention to an honest way. Oh, when will You come to me? I shall live with integrity of heart inside my house.

<sup>5</sup> I shall silence anyone who uses his tongue to slander his neighbour secretly. I shall not tolerate anyone who has haughty eyes or an arrogant heart.

<sup>6</sup> My eyes will be on the faithful people in the land, that they may live with me. The person who walks on an honest way is the one who may serve me.

<sup>7</sup> No one who acts deceitfully may live inside my home. No one who tells lies may remain in my presence.

<sup>8</sup> Every morning I shall put to silence all wicked people in the land, that I may cut off all evildoers from the city of the LORD.

102

A prayer of a suffering person, who is weary and pours out his complaint before the LORD

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, hear my prayer, and let my cry for help come to You!

<sup>3</sup> My days have disappeared in smoke, and my bones have been burnt up as in a furnace.

<sup>8</sup> All day long my enemies have been taunting me. Those who make a mockery of me have been using my name as a curse.

<sup>9</sup> For I have been eating ashes like bread and have been mixing tears with my drink, <sup>10</sup> because of Your indignation and Your anger. For You have taken me and thrown me away.

<sup>12</sup> Nevertheless, You Yourself, O LORD, will be enthroned for ever, and Your fame will endure to all generations.

<sup>13</sup> You Yourself will rise and have compassion on Zion, because it is time to be gracious to it. Indeed, the appointed time has come.

<sup>15</sup> Nations will fear the name of the LORD, and all the kings of the earth will fear Your glory.

<sup>16</sup> For the LORD will build up Zion. He will appear in His glory.

<sup>18</sup> Let this be written down for a future generation, that a people yet to be created may praise the LORD!

<sup>24</sup> I keep on saying: "My God, do not take me away in the middle of my days! Your years go on through all generations.

<sup>25</sup> "Long ago You laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the work of Your hands.

<sup>26</sup> "They will perish, but You will endure. They will all wear out like a garment. You will change them like a robe, and they will be discarded.

<sup>27</sup> "Nevertheless, You are the same, and Your years will not come to an end.

103

Of David

<sup>1</sup> Bless the LORD, O my soul and, all my inmost being, bless His holy name!

<sup>8</sup> The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to become angry and abounding in mercy.

<sup>9</sup> He will not always accuse and will not keep on being angry for ever.

<sup>10</sup> He has not treated us as our sins deserve and has not paid us back according to our iniquities.

<sup>12</sup> As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.

<sup>13</sup> As a father has compassion on his children, so the LORD has had compassion on those who fear Him.

104

<sup>9</sup> You have set a boundary that they will not cross over. They will not come back to cover the earth.

<sup>14</sup> You make grass grow for the cattle and green plants for mankind to cultivate, to bring forth food from the earth, <sup>15</sup> wine that cheers the heart of a human being, olive-oil to make his face shine, and bread to strengthen the heart of a human being.

<sup>24</sup> O LORD, how many are the things that You have made! In wisdom You have made them all. The earth is full of Your property.

<sup>30</sup> You send out Your Spirit, and they are created, and You renew the surface of the earth.

<sup>31</sup> May the glory of the LORD endure for ever! May the LORD rejoice in what He has made!

<sup>33</sup> Let me sing to the LORD throughout my life! Let me sing praise to my God all my life!

<sup>34</sup> May my meditation be pleasing to Him! I shall rejoice in the LORD.

<sup>35</sup> May sinners perish from the earth, and may there no longer be any wicked people! Bless the LORD, O my soul! Praise the LORD!<sup>*122</sup>

105

<sup>7</sup> He is the LORD, our God. His Decisions are in all the earth.

<sup>10</sup> He confirmed it as a Prescription for Jacob, as an everlasting Covenant for Israel, <sup>11</sup> saying, "I shall give you the land of Canaan, as the portion that you will inherit," <sup>12</sup> when they were few in number, few indeed, and temporary residents in it.

106

<sup>5</sup> that I may see the prosperity of Your chosen ones, that I may rejoice in the joy of Your nation, that I may boast with Your inheritance!

<sup>6</sup> We have sinned together with our fathers. We have been doing wrong. We have been making ourselves guilty.

singing His praise.

<sup>23</sup> He said that He would destroy them and would have, if Moses, whom He had chosen, had not stood before Him in the breach, to turn His wrath away, to prevent Him from destroying them.

They prostituted themselves by their own deeds.

<sup>47</sup> Save us, O LORD, our God, and gather us from the nations, that we may give thanks to Your holy name and may pride ourselves in praising You!

<sup>48</sup> Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting! Let all the people also say "Amen!" Praise the LORD!

BOOK FIVE (PSALMS 107-150)

<sup>2</sup> Let the people whom the LORD has redeemed proclaim that He has redeemed them from the hand of the oppressor, <sup>3</sup> and has gathered them from the other lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south!

<sup>10</sup> Those who lived in the darkness and deep gloom were prisoners to misery and iron chains, <sup>11</sup> because they had rebelled against the Words of God and had despised the advice of the Most High.

Psalms

<sup>26</sup> The sailors were rising up to the sky. They were going down into the depths. Their souls were melting away because of their trouble.

<sup>30</sup> They were glad that the waves became quiet. Then He guided them to the harbour that they desired.

and makes their families like a flock.

<sup>42</sup> Upright people see this and rejoice, but everything that is perverse has been shutting its mouth.

A song, a Psalm of David — compare v. 1-5 with Ps 57:7-11, and v. 6-13 with Ps 60:5-12.

<sup>6</sup> That those who are dear to You may be rescued, save with Your right hand and answer me!

<sup>8</sup> “Gilead is Mine. Manasseh is Mine. Ephraim is a helmet on My head. Judah is My sceptre.

<sup>9</sup> “Moab is My washbasin. I shall throw My sandal on Edom, I shall shout in triumph over Philistia.”

109

<sup>3</sup> They have been surrounding me with hateful words and have been fighting against me without a reason.

<sup>4</sup> In return for my love they are accusing me. Nevertheless, I continue to pray.

<sup>5</sup> They have been inflicting evil on me in return for good and hatred in return for my love.

<sup>15</sup> May they be before the LORD continually, and may He cut off the memory of them from the earth!

<sup>16</sup> For he has not remembered to show mercy but has hunted down the wretched, needy and broken-hearted man, to kill him.

<sup>17</sup> He has loved to curse, and a curse will come on him. He has taken no pleasure in blessing, and a blessing will be far from him.

<sup>19</sup> Let it become like a garment that he wraps around himself! Let him always put it around himself like a girdle!

<sup>20</sup> Let this be the retribution from the LORD to those who accuse me and to those who speak evil against me!

<sup>21</sup> Nevertheless, You Yourself, O GOD, my Lord, deal with me for Your name's sake! Because Your mercy is good, deliver me!

<sup>22</sup> For I am wretched and needy, and my heart has been pierced inside me.

<sup>24</sup> My knees have been giving way because of my fasting, and my body has become lean, without any fat.

<sup>26</sup> Help me, O LORD, my God! Save me according to Your mercy, <sup>27</sup> that people may know that this is Your hand, that You, O LORD, have done it.

<sup>28</sup> They may curse, but You Yourself will bless. When they rise up, they will be ashamed, but Your servant will rejoice.

110

<sup>3</sup> Your people will be volunteers in the day of Your armed power. In holy majesty, from the womb of the dawn, the dew of Your youth belongs to You.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD has sworn an oath and will not relent: "You are a priest for ever in the order of Melchizedek."

<sup>6</sup> He will judge among the nations. He will fill them with corpses. He will crush the leaders over the wide world.

111

<sup>9</sup> He has sent redemption to His people. He has ordained His Covenant for ever. His name is holy and awesome.

112

will be remembered for ever.

<sup>7</sup> He will not be afraid of bad news. His heart is steadfast, full of confidence in the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> He has distributed freely. He has given to the poor. His righteousness endures for ever. His horn will be lifted high in honour.

<sup>10</sup> The wicked person will see it and be annoyed. He will gnash his teeth and melt away. The desire that wicked people have will come to nothing.

113

114

<sup>5</sup> What was the matter with you, O sea, that you were fleeing, O Jordan, that you were turning back, <sup>6</sup> O mountains, that you were skipping about like rams, O hills, like lambs?

115

<sup>1</sup> Not to us, O LORD, not to us, but to Your name give glory, because of Your mercy, because of Your truth.

<sup>5</sup> They have mouths but do not speak. They have eyes but do not see.

<sup>6</sup> They have ears but do not hear. They have noses but do not smell.

<sup>7</sup> They have hands but do not feel. They have feet but do not walk. They do not make a sound with their throats.

<sup>8</sup> Those who make them will be like them. So will everyone who trusts in them.

<sup>9</sup> Israel, trust the LORD!

He is their Help and their Shield.

<sup>10</sup> Family of Aaron, trust the LORD!

He is their Help and their Shield.

<sup>11</sup> You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD!

He is their Help and their Shield.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD has remembered us. He will bless us.

He will bless the family of Israel. He will bless the family of Aaron.

<sup>13</sup> He will bless those who fear the LORD, both the small and the great.

<sup>14</sup> May the LORD make you increase, both you and your children!

<sup>15</sup> May you be blessed by the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth!

<sup>16</sup> The heavens are the heavens belonging to the LORD, but He has given the earth to the descendants of Adam.

<sup>17</sup> It is not those who are dead who praise the LORD, nor do any who go down into silence.

116

<sup>2</sup> Because He has turned His ear to me, I shall call on Him all my life.

<sup>4</sup> However, I kept on calling on the name of the LORD: "O LORD, I pray, save my life!"

<sup>7</sup> Return to your resting place, O my soul! For the LORD has been good to you.

<sup>8</sup> For You have delivered my soul from death, my eyes from tears and my feet from stumbling.

<sup>12</sup> What shall I repay to the LORD for all the good that He has done to me?

<sup>16</sup> O LORD, I am indeed Your servant. I am Your servant, the son of Your maidservant. You have undone the chains on my feet.

<sup>17</sup> I shall offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to You and call on the name of the LORD.

117

118

<sup>5</sup> Out of my distress I called on the LORD. The LORD answered me and set me in a spacious place.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD is on my side as my Helper. I myself shall look in triumph at those who hate me.

<sup>10</sup> All the nations surrounded me, but in the name of the LORD I kept warding them off.

<sup>14</sup> The LORD is my Strength and my Song and has become my Salvation.

<sup>21</sup> I shall give thanks to You. For You have answered me and You have become my Salvation.

<sup>23</sup> This has come from the LORD. It is marvellous in our eyes.

<sup>24</sup> This is the day that the LORD has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

<sup>26</sup> Blessed is He who comes in the name of the LORD! We have blessed you all from the house of the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> The LORD is God and has given us light. Tie the festive procession together with leafy branches as far as the horns of the altar!

<sup>28</sup> You are my God, and I shall give thanks to You. You are my God. Let me honour You highly!

Qoph

<sup>145</sup> I have been calling out with all my heart. Answer me, O LORD! Let me keep Your Prescriptions!

<sup>149</sup> Hear my voice according to Your mercy! O LORD, preserve my life according to Your Decision!

Resh

<sup>168</sup> I have been keeping Your Directions and Your Testimonies. For all my ways are before You.

Taw

<sup>169</sup> Let my cry for help come near into Your presence, O LORD! Make me perceptive according to Your Word!

<sup>170</sup> Let my plea for favour come before You! Rescue me according to Your Promise!

<sup>175</sup> May my soul live, that it may praise You! May Your Decisions help me!

120

A song for ascending processions

<sup>1</sup> In my distress I have been calling to the LORD, and He has answered me.

<sup>6</sup> My soul has been dwelling for too long with one who hates peace.

<sup>7</sup> I am for peace, but, when I speak, they are for war.

121

A song for ascending processions

<sup>1</sup> I shall lift up my eyes to the hills. From where will my help come?

<sup>7</sup> The LORD will protect you from all harm. He will protect your life.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD will keep you as you go out and come in, both now and for ever.

122

A song of David for ascending processions

<sup>8</sup> For the sake of my brothers and friends, let me say, "May there be peace in you!"

123

A song for ascending processions

<sup>1</sup> I have been lifting up my eyes to You, O You who are enthroned in heaven.

<sup>3</sup> Show favour to us, O LORD, show favour to us! For we have had more than enough contempt.

124

A song of David for ascending processions

<sup>1</sup> "If it had not been the LORD who was on our side," Israel should say, <sup>2</sup> "if it had not been the LORD who was on our side, when human beings rose up against us, <sup>3</sup> then they would have swallowed us alive when their anger blazed against us.

<sup>4</sup> Then the waters would have engulfed us. The stream would have swept over our lives.

<sup>7</sup> Our lives have escaped like a bird from the snare of the hunters. The snare is torn, and we have escaped.

<sup>8</sup> Our help is in the name of the LORD, who has made heaven and earth.

125

A song for ascending processions

<sup>1</sup> Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion, which will not be shaken, but will remain steady for ever.

<sup>5</sup> However, when people turn aside to their crooked paths, the LORD will lead them away with evildoers.
May peace be on Israel!

126

A song of David for ascending processions

<sup>1</sup> When the LORD brought back the captives of Zion, we were like those who were dreaming.

<sup>2</sup> Then our mouths were filled with laughter, and our tongues with shouts of joy. Then people said among the nations, "The LORD has done great things for them."

127

A song of Solomon for ascending processions

<sup>1</sup> If the LORD does not build a house, those who have been building it have been labouring over it in vain. If the LORD does not watch over a city, the watchman has been staying alert in vain.

128

worked for. You will be blessed, and it will be well with you.

<sup>5</sup> May the LORD bless you from Zion, that you may see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life!

129

A song for ascending processions

<sup>1</sup> "People have often treated me with hostility from the time when I was young," let Israel say —

<sup>2</sup> "People have often treated me with hostility from the time when I was young but have not overcome me.

<sup>6</sup> May they be like grass on the housetops, which withers before anyone pulls it out, <sup>7</sup> with which no reaper has filled his hand, with which no harvester has filled his arms, <sup>8</sup> with the result that no one who passes by them has said, "May the blessing of the LORD be on you!" or "We have blessed you in the name of the LORD."

130

<sup>5</sup> I have been waiting for the LORD. My soul has been waiting, and I have been putting my hope in His Word.

<sup>6</sup> My soul waits for the LORD more than watchmen for the morning, more than watchmen for the morning.

<sup>7</sup> O Israel, hope in the LORD! For with the LORD there is mercy, and with Him there is very great redemption, <sup>8</sup> and He Himself will redeem Israel from all its iniquities.

131

A song of David for ascending processions

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, my heart has not been conceited, and my eyes have not been haughty. I have not been occupied with matters too great or things too wonderful for me.

A song for ascending processions

<sup>6</sup> Look! We have heard about it in Ephrathah. We have found it in the fields of Jaar.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD has sworn a sure oath to David, from which He will not turn back: “I shall place One of your own offspring on your throne.

<sup>12</sup> “If your sons keep My Covenant and My Testimonies, which I shall teach them, their descendants will also sit on your throne for ever.”

133

A song of David for ascending processions

<sup>3</sup> It is like the dew of Hermon falling on the mountains of Zion. For there the LORD has commanded the blessing, life for ever.

134

A song for ascending processions

<sup>1</sup> Look! Bless the LORD, all you servants of the LORD, who stand by night in the house of the LORD!

135

<sup>6</sup> The LORD does whatever He desires, in heaven and on the earth, on the seas and in all the depths.

<sup>8</sup> He is the One who struck down the first-born of Egypt, both people and animals.

<sup>17</sup> They have ears but do not hear. There is also no breath in their mouths.

<sup>18</sup> Those who make them will be like them. So will everyone be who trusts in them.

<sup>20</sup> O family of Levi, bless the LORD! O you who fear the LORD, bless the LORD!

136

137

<sup>3</sup> For there those who had taken us captive asked us for words of song, and our oppressors asked us to be cheerful: "Sing us part of a song of Zion!"

<sup>6</sup> May my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember you, if I do not value Jerusalem more highly than my greatest joy!

<sup>7</sup> Remember, O LORD, the day of Jerusalem against the people of Edom! They kept saying: "Raze it! Raze it, to its foundation!"

<sup>8</sup> O daughter of Babylon, you who will be laid waste, blessed will be the one who pays you back for what you have done to us!

138

Of David

<sup>1</sup> I shall give thanks to You with all my heart; before the gods I shall sing praise to You.

<sup>2</sup> I shall bow down toward Your holy Temple and give thanks to Your name, because of Your mercy and because of Your truth. For You have made Your name and Your Promise greater than everything else.

<sup>3</sup> On the day when I called, You answered me. You used strength to make me confident in my soul.

<sup>5</sup> May they sing about the Ways of the LORD! For the glory of the LORD is great.

<sup>7</sup> Although I walk in the middle of trouble, You will keep me alive. You will stretch out Your hand against the anger of my enemies, and Your right hand will save me.

139

<sup>3</sup> You have been measuring up my path and my lying down and been familiar with all my ways.

<sup>5</sup> You have encircled me behind and in front and laid Your hand on me.

<sup>7</sup> Where can I go from Your Spirit? Or where can I flee from Your presence?

<sup>8</sup> If I climb up into heaven, You are there. If I make my bed in Sheol, You are there.

<sup>9</sup> If I lift up the wings of the dawn, if I settle on the far side of the sea, <sup>10</sup> even there Your hand will lead me, and Your right hand will hold me fast.

<sup>11</sup> If I say, "Surely the darkness will grip me hard, and the light around me will become night," <sup>12</sup> even the darkness will not be dark to You, and the night will shine like the day. For darkness is like light to You.

<sup>13</sup> For You have acquired my inmost parts. You shaped me in my mother's womb.

<sup>14</sup> I praise You, because I have been fearfully and wonderfully made. Your works are wonderful, and my soul knows that very well.

<sup>15</sup> My bones were not hidden from You when I was made in the secret place, when I was intricately woven in the depths of the earth.

<sup>16</sup> Your eyes saw my embryo and the days that had been ordained for me. All of them were being written in Your book before one of them came into being.

<sup>18</sup> If I were to count them, they would outnumber grains of sand. When I awake, I am still with You.

<sup>19</sup> I wish, O God, that You would kill the wicked person! You murderous people, go away from me!

<sup>21</sup> Do I not hate those who hate You, O LORD? Do I not loathe those who rise up against You?

<sup>22</sup> I hate them with extreme antipathy. They have become my enemies.

<sup>23</sup> Examine me, O God, and know my heart! Test me! Know my troubled thoughts, <sup>24</sup> see if there is any offensive way in me and lead me in the everlasting way!

140

For the choir-leader, a psalm of David

<sup>3</sup> They have been making their tongues as sharp as a snake's fang. The poison of a horned viper is under their lips. Selah

<sup>5</sup> Arrogant men have been hiding a snare for me and spreading out ropes to make a net at the side of the track. They have been setting traps for me. Selah

<sup>6</sup> I have been saying to the LORD: "You are my God, O LORD. Open Your ears to the sound of my pleas for mercy!"

<sup>9</sup> As for the heads of those who are surrounding me, let the trouble that their lips cause overwhelm them!

<sup>10</sup> Let glowing coals be made to tumble on them! May He make them fall into the fire, into miry pits, that they may not come up again!

<sup>11</sup> May no slanderer endure in the land! May calamity hunt down a violent man, blow after blow!

<sup>12</sup> I know that the LORD will defend the right of the afflicted person and the cause of those who are needy.

141

A psalm of David

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, I have been calling out to You. Come quickly to me! Open Your ears to my voice when I call to You!

<sup>2</sup> Let my prayer be set before You as incense, the lifting up of my hands as an evening sacrifice!

<sup>4</sup> Do not turn my heart away to anything evil, so that I would wickedly perform reckless deeds with men who are evildoers! Let me also not eat their delicacies!

<sup>5</sup> Let a righteous person strike me! It is a kindness. Let him rebuke me. It is olive-oil for my head. Let my head not refuse it! Even now my prayer is against their evil deeds.

<sup>6</sup> When their judges have been thrown down the sides of a cliff, they will listen to my words. For they are pleasant.

<sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, my eyes are toward You, O LORD God. I have taken refuge in You. Do not pour out my life!

<sup>9</sup> Protect me from the powerful trap that they have set for me and from the snares of evildoers!

142

A Maskil of David when he was in the cave, a prayer

<sup>1</sup> With my voice I am crying to the LORD. With my voice I am pleading to the LORD for grace.

<sup>6</sup> Pay attention to my cry! For I have become very weak. Rescue me from those who are pursuing me! For they are too strong for me.

<sup>7</sup> Release my soul from prison, that I may give thanks to Your name! Righteous people will gather around me, because You will treat me well.

143

A psalm of David

<sup>3</sup> For the enemy has been pursuing my life. He has crushed my life to the ground. He has been making me live in dark places, like those who have died long ago.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore, my spirit inside me has become faint. My heart inside me has been overcome with numbness.

<sup>5</sup> I remember the days of long ago. I have been meditating on all that You have done. I am meditating on what Your hands have done.

<sup>6</sup> I have been spreading out my hands to You. My soul is thirsting for You like a parched land. Selah <sup>7</sup> Answer me quickly, O LORD! My spirit has been wasting away. Do not hide Your face from me or I shall be like those who are going down into the pit!

<sup>8</sup> Cause me to hear about Your mercy in the morning! For I trust in You. Cause me to know the way on which I should go! For I have been lifting up my soul to You.

<sup>9</sup> Rescue me from my enemies, O LORD! I have come to You to conceal myself away.

<sup>10</sup> Teach me to do what You desire! For You are my God. May Your good Spirit lead me on level ground!

<sup>11</sup> For Your name's sake, O LORD, preserve my life! In Your righteousness, bring my soul out of trouble!

<sup>12</sup> In Your mercy You will silence my enemies and destroy all who are hostile toward me! For I am Your servant.

144

Of David

<sup>1</sup> Blessed be the LORD, my Rock, who has trained my hands for battle, my fingers for war!

<sup>2</sup> He is my Mercy and my Fortress, my Stronghold and my Deliverer. He is my Shield, and I have been taking refuge in Him. He subdues my people under me.

<sup>3</sup> O LORD, what is a human being, that You should care about him? What is a son of man, that You should think about him?

<sup>12</sup> Then our sons will be like shoots that have grown tall while they have been young. Our daughters will be like carved corner-pillars in the style of a palace.

<sup>13</sup> Our barns will be full, supplying every kind of produce. Our sheep will produce by the thousands, by the tens of thousands, in our fields.

<sup>14</sup> Our cattle will be heavy with young. There will be no gap in the wall and no miscarriage. There will be no cry of distress in our public squares.

<sup>15</sup> Blessed are the people in such a situation! Blessed is the people whose God is the LORD!

145

A song of praise, of David

<sup>1</sup> I shall exalt You, my God, the King. I shall bless Your name for ever and ever.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD is good to all. His compassion is over all that He has made.

<sup>10</sup> All whom You have made will praise You, O LORD. Your devout people will bless You.

<sup>11</sup> They will talk about the glory of Your kingdom and speak about Your power, <sup>12</sup> to make known to the descendants of Adam the mighty things that He has done and the glorious grandeur of His kingdom.

<sup>18</sup> The LORD is near to all who call on Him, to all who call on Him in truth.

146

<sup>2</sup> Let me praise the LORD throughout my life! Let me sing praise to my God all my life!

<sup>5</sup> Blessed is the one who has the God of Jacob for his help! His hope is in the LORD, his God, <sup>6</sup> who has made heaven and earth, the sea and all that is in them, who remains faithful for ever, <sup>7</sup> who provides justice for those who are oppressed and who gives food to those who are hungry. The LORD sets prisoners free.

147

<sup>13</sup> For He has made the bars of your gates strong. He has blessed your children among you.

148

<sup>14</sup> He has raised up a horn for His people, praise from all His devout people, from the people of Israel, the people who are close to Him! Praise the LORD!

149

Psalms

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD! Sing to the LORD a new song,
His praise in the assembly of devout people!
Zion be joyful over their King!
<sup>3</sup> Let them praise His name with dancing! Let them make music to Him with tambourine and lyre!
<sup>4</sup> For the LORD takes pleasure in His people. He glorifies humble people with salvation.
<sup>5</sup> Let devout people be jubilant in glory! Let them shout for joy on their beds!
<sup>6</sup> Let the high praises of God be in their throats, and double-edged swords in their hands, <sup>7</sup> to carry out vengeance on the nations and punishments on the peoples, <sup>8</sup> to tie up their kings with chains and their nobles' feet with iron shackles, <sup>9</sup> to carry out the judgment that has been written against them! This is an honour that belongs to all His devout people.

Praise the LORD!

150

<sup>1</sup> Praise the LORD! Praise God in His sanctuary!
Praise Him in His mighty spread of sky!
with the harp and lyre!
<sup>4</sup> Praise Him with the tambourine and circle-dance!
Praise Him with stringed instruments and wind instruments!
crashing cymbals!
<sup>6</sup> Let everything that has breath praise the LORD!
Praise the LORD!

PROVERBS

The purpose of the proverbs

An appeal for wisdom

A warning not to be enticed

<sup>10</sup> My son, if sinners try to persuade you, do not consent! <sup>11</sup> It may be that they will say: "Come with us, let us set an ambush to commit murder! Let us hide to ambush an innocent person without a reason! <sup>12</sup> We shall swallow them alive like Sheol, yes, swallow them completely, like those who go down to the pit. <sup>13</sup> We shall find all kinds of valuable possessions. We shall fill our homes with stolen goods. <sup>14</sup> Throw in your lot among us! We shall all have one purse." <sup>15</sup> Then, my son, do not walk in the way with them! Keep your feet away from their path! <sup>16</sup> For their feet run to evil, and they hurry to commit murder. <sup>17</sup> For it is useless for a net to be sprinkled with grain when any bird sees it done. <sup>18</sup> However, these men set an ambush for their own murder. They go into hiding only to snatch at their own lives. <sup>19</sup> The paths of everyone who is greedy for profit are like that. It takes away the life of him who gets it.

Wisdom speaks

not been accepting my rebuke, <sup>26</sup> I also shall laugh at your calamity. I shall mock when panic overtakes you, <sup>27</sup> when panic strikes you like a storm, when calamity comes on you like a gale and when trouble and distress overtake you. <sup>28</sup> Then they will call to me, but I shall not answer. They will search for me but will not find me. <sup>29</sup> For they hate knowledge and have not chosen the fear of the LORD. <sup>30</sup> They have not accepted my advice. They have scornfully rejected all my correction. <sup>31</sup> Therefore, let them eat the fruit of their own way and let them get enough of their own plans! <sup>32</sup> For the waywardness of gullible people will kill them, and the self-confidence of fools will ruin them. <sup>33</sup> However, he who listens to me will live in safety and be untroubled by fear of harm."

An admonition to listen to wisdom

<sup>1</sup> My son, if you accept what I say and treasure up my commands with you, <sup>2</sup> so that you listen attentively to wisdom and guide your heart to understanding, <sup>3</sup> if indeed you call out for insight and raise your voice for understanding, <sup>4</sup> if you try to get wisdom as if it were money and search for it as if it were hidden treasure, <sup>5</sup> then you will understand the fear of the LORD and find the knowledge of God. <sup>6</sup> For the LORD gives wisdom. Knowledge and understanding come from His mouth. <sup>7</sup> He stores up effective wisdom for upright people. He is a shield for those who live blamelessly, <sup>8</sup> to guard the paths of justice, and He protects the way of the people whom He favours. <sup>9</sup> Then you will understand what is right, just and fair — every good path. <sup>10</sup> For wisdom will come into your heart, and knowledge will be pleasant to your soul. <sup>11</sup> Foresight will protect you. Understanding will guard you, <sup>12</sup> to deliver you from any evil way, from anyone who speaks perverse things, <sup>13</sup> from people who abandon straight paths to walk on dark ways, <sup>14</sup> from people who enjoy doing evil, from people who rejoice in the perversity of evil, <sup>15</sup> from people whose paths are crooked and who are devious in their ways. <sup>16</sup> Wisdom will also deliver you from a woman who is a stranger, from the adulterous woman with her smooth talk, <sup>17</sup> who leaves the one who was her close companion when she was young and who forgets the covenant with her God. <sup>18</sup> For her family has bowed down to death, and her ways have led to the spirits of the departed. <sup>19</sup> None who go to her come back or reach the paths of life. <sup>20</sup> Therefore, you shall walk on the road of good people and keep to the paths of righteous people! <sup>21</sup> For upright people will live in the land, and people who are blameless will remain in it. <sup>22</sup> However, wicked people will be cut off from the land, and people who act unfaithfully will be torn out of it.

The way to wisdom

<sup>1</sup> My son, do not forget what I teach you! Your heart should observe my commandments! <sup>2</sup> For they will prolong your life for many years and give you peace as well.

<sup>3</sup> May mercy and truth not forsake you! Tie them around your neck! Write them on the tablet of your heart! <sup>4</sup> Then you will find favour and kindly approval in the sight of God and human beings.

<sup>5</sup> Trust in the LORD with all your heart and do not rely on your own understanding!

<sup>6</sup> Acknowledge Him in all your ways, and He Himself will make your paths level.

<sup>7</sup> Do not think that you yourself are wise! Fear the LORD and turn away from evil! <sup>8</sup> Then your body will be healthy, and your bones will be refreshed.

<sup>9</sup> Honour the LORD with your wealth and with the first-fruits of everything that you produce! <sup>10</sup> Then your barns will be filled with plenty, and your wine-presses will overflow with new wine.

<sup>11</sup> Do not reject the discipline of the LORD, my son, or feel disgusted when He reprimands you!

<sup>12</sup> For the LORD disciplines the one whom He loves and, like a father, He disciplines the son in whom he delights.

<sup>22</sup> that they may give life to your throat and adorn your neck! <sup>23</sup> Then you will go on your way without worry, and your foot will not stumble. <sup>24</sup> When you lie down, you will not be afraid. While you lie there, your sleep will be pleasant.

<sup>25</sup> Do not be afraid of sudden terror or of the destruction of wicked people when it comes! <sup>26</sup> For the LORD will be your confidence and He will keep your foot from being trapped.

Advice to be fair

<sup>27</sup> Do not hold back anything good from those who have a right to it when it is in your power to do it!

<sup>28</sup> When you have it with you, do not tell your neighbour: "Go away! Come back tomorrow, and I shall give something to you then!"

Advice to get wisdom

<sup>1</sup> Sons, listen to your father's instruction and pay close attention to gain understanding! <sup>2</sup> For I have taught you well. Do not forsake my teaching! <sup>3</sup> When I was a son to my father, a tender and only child with my mother, <sup>4</sup> he used to teach me and tell me: "Let your heart cling to my words! Keep my commands, that you may live!" <sup>5</sup> Acquire wisdom! Acquire understanding! Do not forget and do not turn away from the words that I have spoken!

<sup>6</sup> Do not abandon wisdom! Then it will watch over you. Love wisdom! Then it will protect you. <sup>7</sup> The most important thing is wisdom. Acquire wisdom and use all that you possess to acquire understanding!

<sup>8</sup> Regard wisdom highly! Then it will raise you up. It will bring you honour when you embrace it. <sup>9</sup> It will place a lovely wreath on your head. It will present a beautiful crown to you.

<sup>10</sup> Listen, my son! Accept what I say, that the years of your life may be many! <sup>11</sup> I have taught you on the road of wisdom. I have guided you along straight paths. <sup>12</sup> When you walk, your stride will not be restricted. If you run, you will also not stumble.

<sup>20</sup> My son, pay close attention to my words! Incline your ear to my sayings! <sup>21</sup> They must not escape from your sight! Keep them inside your heart! <sup>22</sup> For they are life to those who find them and they their whole bodies. <sup>23</sup> More than anything else, guard your heart! For it is the starting-point of life. <sup>24</sup> Remove perversion from your mouth and put devious talk far away from your lips! <sup>25</sup> Let your eyes look straight ahead, and let your eyelashes point straight in front of you! <sup>26</sup> Clear a path for your feet! Then all your ways will be sure. <sup>27</sup> Do not swerve to the right or to the left! Turn your foot away from evil!

<sup>7</sup> Now therefore, my sons, listen to me and do not turn away from what I tell you! <sup>8</sup> Keep your path far away from her and do not even go near the doorway of her house, <sup>9</sup> that you may not surrender your honour to others and your years to some cruel person, <sup>10</sup> that strangers may not satisfy themselves from your exertion and that your strenuous work may not benefit the house of a foreigner! <sup>11</sup> Then you will groan when your end comes, when your body and flesh are consumed, <sup>12</sup> and you will say: "How I hated discipline, and how my heart despised correction! <sup>13</sup> I did not listen to what my teachers told me and did not incline my ear to my instructors. <sup>14</sup> I had almost reached total ruin in the community and in the assembly!"

of his great foolishness.

A warning against making a rash pledge

<sup>1</sup> My son, if you have guaranteed a loan for your neighbour, if you have pledged yourself by a handshake with a stranger, <sup>2</sup> if you have been snared by the words of your own mouth, if you have been caught by the promises of your mouth, <sup>3</sup> then do this, my son, that you may free yourself! For you have fallen into your neighbour's hands. Go! Trample yourself down and plead urgently with your neighbour! <sup>4</sup> Do not give your eyes any sleep or your eyelids any slumber! <sup>5</sup> Rescue yourself like a gazelle from the hand of a hunter and like a bird from the hand of a hunter!

Proverbs about laziness

<sup>6</sup> Go to an ant, lazy person! Consider its ways and become wise! <sup>7</sup> Although it has no leader, office-holder or ruler, <sup>8</sup> it stores its food in summertime. It has gathered its food at harvest time.

<sup>9</sup> How long will you lie there, lazy person? When will you get up from your sleep? <sup>10</sup> "Just a little sleep, just a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to rest!" <sup>11</sup> Then your poverty will come on you like a vagabond, and what you lack will come on you like a shameless fellow.

Proverbs about seven vices

Warnings that adultery leads to trouble

<sup>20</sup> My son, keep the commands of your father and do not forsake the teaching of your mother! <sup>21</sup> Tie them on your heart continually! Fasten them on your neck! <sup>22</sup> When you walk around, they will lead you. When you lie down, they will watch over you and, when you wake up, they will speak to you. <sup>23</sup> For a commandment is a lamp, and a teaching is a light and the reproofs that discipline gives are the way of life, <sup>24</sup> to keep you from an evil woman and from the smooth tongue of an adulteress. <sup>25</sup> Do not desire her beauty in your heart! She must not captivate you with her eyes! <sup>26</sup> For a prostitute's price is only a round loaf of bread, but a married woman hunts for a precious life. <sup>27</sup> Can a man take fire in his lap without his clothes being burnt? <sup>28</sup> Or can anyone walk on red-hot coals without his feet being scorched? <sup>29</sup> So it is with the man who sleeps with his neighbour's wife. No one who touches her will escape punishment. <sup>30</sup> People do not despise a thief if he steals to satisfy his appetite when he is hungry. <sup>31</sup> However, when he is caught, he must repay seven times as much. He will surrender all the possessions in his house.

<sup>32</sup> Anyone who commits adultery with a woman has no sense. He who does it destroys himself. <sup>33</sup> He will get blows and dishonour, and his disgrace will not be wiped away. <sup>34</sup> For jealousy makes a man furious, and he will show no mercy when he takes revenge. <sup>35</sup> He will not approve of any compensation. He will refuse even though you produce the largest bribe.

A warning about the prostitute

<sup>1</sup> My son, keep my words and treasure my commands in you! <sup>2</sup> Keep my commands that you may live! Keep my teachings like the pupil of your eye! <sup>3</sup> Tie them on your fingers! Write them on the tablet of your heart! <sup>4</sup> Tell wisdom, "You are my sister," and call understanding your relative, <sup>5</sup> that they may keep you from the adulterous woman, from the adulteress with her smooth talk! <sup>6</sup> For I looked down from a window in my house through my screen. <sup>7</sup> When I looked at the gullible people, I discerned among the young men a lad who had no sense. <sup>8</sup> He was crossing a street near her corner and walking along a path toward her house, <sup>9</sup> in the twilight, in the evening, in the middle of the night, when it was dark. <sup>10</sup> I saw a woman coming to meet him, dressed like a prostitute, with cunning intent! <sup>11</sup> She was loud and defiant. Her feet would not find rest at home. <sup>12</sup> At one time she was out on the street. At another time she was in the square, waiting at every corner to catch someone. <sup>13</sup> She was grabbing him and kissing him. She looked impudently and said: <sup>14</sup> "I have some meat from peace-offerings that I had to make. Today I have fulfilled my vows. <sup>15</sup> That is why I have come out to meet you, eagerly looking out for you, and I have found you! <sup>16</sup> I have prepared my couch with coverings, with many-coloured, embroidered linen from Egypt. <sup>17</sup> I have sprayed my bed with myrrh, aloes and cinnamon. <sup>18</sup> Come! Let us drink our fill of love until morning! Let us sample making love together! <sup>19</sup> For my husband is not at home. He has gone on a journey far away. <sup>20</sup> He has taken a purse of money with him. He will not come back to his house until the full moon."

<sup>24</sup> Now therefore, my sons, listen to me and pay close attention to the words of my mouth! <sup>25</sup> Your heart must not turn aside to her ways! Do not go astray on her paths! <sup>26</sup> For she has brought to ruin and fatally wounded many men, and those whom she has killed are numerous. <sup>27</sup> Her house is the way to Sheol. It leads down to the dark chambers of death.

The divine call of wisdom

The self-description of wisdom

<sup>12</sup> "I, Wisdom, have been living with insight and I acquire knowledge and foresight. <sup>13</sup> The fear of the LORD is hatred of evil. I hate arrogance, pride, evil behaviour and perverse speech. <sup>14</sup> Advice and effective wisdom belong to Me. I am understanding. I have strength. <sup>15</sup> Kings use Me to reign, and rulers use Me to decree what is just. <sup>16</sup> Princes use Me to govern. So do noblemen and all just judges. <sup>17</sup> I Myself love those who love Me. Those who look for Me eagerly will find Me. <sup>18</sup> I have riches, honour, lasting wealth and righteousness. <sup>19</sup> My fruit is better than gold, even pure gold. My yield is preferable to silver. <sup>20</sup> I walk on the road of righteousness, in the paths of justice, <sup>21</sup> to cause those who love Me to inherit property, and I fill their storehouses."

The eternal existence of Wisdom, alongside God

For there are seven disgusting things in his heart. <sup>26</sup> Although his hatred will cover itself with deception, his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.

<sup>27</sup> He who digs a pit may fall into it and, if anyone starts a stone rolling, it may come back on him.

<sup>28</sup> A lying tongue will hate those whom it has oppressed, and a flattering mouth will cause calamity.

Words acknowledging to God that He is a mystery

The man declares to Ithiel, to Ithiel and to Ucal:

<sup>2</sup> "Surely I am too stupid to be a man. I do not have the understanding of a human being. <sup>3</sup> I have not learned wisdom and do not have knowledge of the Holy One!"

Questions about God

<sup>4</sup> "Who has gone up to heaven and come down? Who has collected the wind in the hollows of His hands? Who has wrapped up water in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is His name or the name of His Son? For you know!"

A proverb about the power of God's Word

<sup>5</sup> "Every Word of God has been refined. He is a Shield to those who go to Him for safety. <sup>6</sup> Do not add to His Words, that He may not rebuke you and that you may not prove yourself to be a liar!"

A prayer to God

<sup>7</sup> "I have asked You for two things. Do not refuse them to me before I die! <sup>8</sup> Keep deceit and lies far away from me! Do not give me either poverty or riches! Keep providing me with the food that is my share! <sup>9</sup> Otherwise I may have plenty, deny You and ask, 'Who is the LORD?' Or I may become poor, steal and profane the name of my God."

A proverb against slander

<sup>10</sup> Do not slander a slave to his master, that he may not curse you and that you may not suffer for your guilt!

<sup>14</sup> There is a class of people whose teeth are like swords and whose jaws are like knives, to devour oppressed people from the earth and needy people from among mankind.

A proverb about people who suck blood

Four things that are never satisfied

There are three things that will never be satisfied, four that never say, "Enough!" <sup>16</sup> Sheol, a barren womb, a land that does not get enough water and a fire that does not say, "Enough!"

A proverb about disrespectful children and their punishment

<sup>17</sup> The ravens in the valley will pluck out the eye that mocks a father and scorns obedience to a mother, and the young vultures will eat it.

Four things that cause amazement

<sup>18</sup> Three things are too wonderful for me, even four that I do not understand: <sup>19</sup> the way of an eagle in the sky, the way of a snake on a rock, the way of a ship in the middle of the sea and the way of a man with a virgin.

A proverb about the adulteress

<sup>20</sup> This is the way of an adulterous woman: When she has eaten, she wipes her mouth and says, "I have not done anything wrong!"

<sup>21</sup> Under three things the earth has been trembling, and under four it cannot bear up: <sup>22</sup> under a slave when he becomes a king, a godless fool when he has eaten enough food, <sup>23</sup> a woman who is unloved when she gets married and a maid when she takes the place of her mistress.

Four things that are strong although they are small

Yet they have prepared their food in summer. <sup>26</sup> Rock-badgers are not a mighty species. Yet they have made their homes in the cliffs. <sup>27</sup> Locusts have no king. Yet all of them have been marching out in ranks. <sup>28</sup> Although you may grasp a lizard in your hands, it is in kings' palaces.

Four things that move like a king

Advice to remain quiet

<sup>32</sup> If you have been such a godless fool as to honour yourself or if you have been planning evil, you should put your hand over your mouth! <sup>33</sup> For, as pressing milk will produce curds, and squeezing a nose will produce blood, so squeezing anger will produce strife.

Introduction to the advice of Lemuel's mother

Warning against making oneself vulnerable!

<sup>2</sup> "What, my son? And what, son of my womb? And what, son of my vows? <sup>3</sup> Do not give your strength to women or your ways to those who destroy kings!

Warning about the use of strong drink

<sup>4</sup> "It is not for kings, Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine or for rulers to crave strong drink.

Advice to defend poor and needy people

<sup>8</sup> Open your mouth for one who cannot speak, for the legal rights of those who are about to pass away!

<sup>9</sup> Open your mouth, judge righteously and plead the cause of poor and needy people!

her food from far away. <sup>15</sup> She has been getting up while it has still been dark, providing food to her family and assigning tasks to her servant-girls. <sup>16</sup> She has considered a field and bought it. She has used what her hands have produced to plant a vineyard. <sup>17</sup> She has put on strength like a belt and has made her arms strong. <sup>18</sup> She has experienced that she has profited well from her trading. Her lamp does not go out at night. <sup>19</sup> She has been laying her hands on the distaff, and the palms of her hands have been holding a spindle. <sup>20</sup> She has been opening her hand to the oppressed person and reaching out her hands to the needy person. <sup>21</sup> She does not fear for her family when it snows because her whole family has been dressed in crimson garments. <sup>22</sup> She has made bed-coverings for herself. Her clothes have been made of linen and purple wool. <sup>23</sup> Her husband is known at the city gates when he sits with the elders of the land. <sup>24</sup> She has been making linen undergarments and selling them. She has been delivering waistbands to the merchants. <sup>25</sup> She dresses with strength and dignity and has been laughing at the time to come. <sup>26</sup> She has been opening her mouth wisely, and kind instruction is on her tongue. <sup>27</sup> She watches intently the conduct of her family and does not eat the bread of idleness. <sup>28</sup> Her children have been standing up and calling her blessed. Her husband also does and he has been praising her: <sup>29</sup> 'Many women have proved themselves capable, but you have surpassed all of them!'

ECCLESIASTES

The theme, that everything is pointless

<sup>7</sup> Although all the streams flow into the sea, the sea is not full. The streams have been flowing again to the place where they had been flowing.

<sup>8</sup> All things are wearisome. A man cannot express it. Seeing will not satisfy the eye, and hearing will not fill the ear.

<sup>9</sup> What has always been is what will be, what has always been done is what will be done, and there is nothing new under the sun. <sup>10</sup> Is there anything about which one can say, “See! This is new”? It has been already in the former times, which have been before us. <sup>11</sup> No one remembers former things, and none of those who will come later on will remember later things that are yet to be.

The search for meaning in everything under heaven

<sup>13</sup> I have also been applying my mind to study and to use wisdom to investigate all that has been done under heaven. It is a burdensome task that God has given to human beings to be troubled about. <sup>14</sup> I have seen everything that has been done under the sun and, indeed, everything is pointless and an attempt to catch the wind. <sup>15</sup> What is crooked cannot become straight, and what is lacking cannot be counted.

The beginning of the spokesman’s study of human life

<sup>16</sup> I thought to myself: “Look! I have become great, I have acquired more wisdom than everyone else who has been over Jerusalem before me, and my mind has experienced much wisdom and knowledge.”

<sup>17</sup> I have applied my mind to understand wisdom and to understand madness and folly. I have found out that this also is an attempt to catch the wind. <sup>18</sup> For much vexation comes with much wisdom. When anyone gains more knowledge, he will gain more irritation.

The study of laughter by the spokesman

<sup>1</sup> I thought to myself: “Come now, let me test you with pleasure! Enjoy prosperity!” However, I realised that that was also pointless. <sup>2</sup> I thought, about laughter, “It makes no sense,” and, about pleasure, “What does it accomplish?”

The study of wine

<sup>3</sup> I used my mind to explore how to cheer my body with wine (while my mind was still using wisdom to guide me) and how to lay hold on folly, until I might see what good there was for human beings to do under heaven during the short time of their lives.

The study of personal achievements

<sup>4</sup> I accomplished my great projects. I built houses for myself and planted vineyards for myself. <sup>5</sup> I made gardens and parks for myself and planted all kinds of fruit trees in them. <sup>6</sup> I made myself reservoirs from which to water a grove of growing trees. <sup>7</sup> I bought male and female slaves. I also had slaves who were born in my household. I also possessed larger herds and flocks than any who had been before me in Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> I also amassed silver and gold for myself and the treasures of kings and provinces. I acquired male and female singers and enjoyed the pleasures that men have with many concubines. <sup>9</sup> So, I became great and surpassed anyone else who had been before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me. <sup>10</sup> I did not keep from my eyes anything that they desired. I did not refuse my heart any pleasure. For my heart took delight in all my toil, and this was my reward for all my toil. <sup>11</sup> Nevertheless, when I surveyed all that my hands had done and the toil that I had expended in doing it, I saw that everything had been pointless and an attempt to catch the wind and that nothing had been gained under the sun.

The conclusion that death is the common destiny of all life

<sup>12</sup> Then I turned to consider wisdom, madness and folly. For what more can the man who will succeed the king do? Only what has already been done!

<sup>13</sup> However, I saw that wisdom has an advantage over foolishness, as light has an advantage over darkness.

<sup>14</sup> The wise person has his eyes in his head, but the fool walks in the dark. Nevertheless, I also came to realise that the same fate will overtake them all.

<sup>15</sup> Then I thought to myself, “What will happen to the fool will happen to me, too. Why then have I been so very wise?” In addition, I concluded that this is also pointless.

The conclusion that without God everything is pointless

<sup>16</sup> For people will not remember the wise man or the fool for long, since all will be forgotten for a long time in the days to come. Besides, how will a wise man die? Together with the fool! <sup>17</sup> Therefore, I hated life, because everything that had been accomplished under the sun was distressing to me. For everything is pointless and an attempt to catch the wind. <sup>18</sup> I also hate all my labour, in which I have been toiling under the sun, because I must leave it behind to the person who comes after me. <sup>19</sup> Besides, who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Nevertheless, he will have control over all my labour, in which I have been toiling and for which I have been using my wisdom under the sun. This also is pointless. <sup>20</sup> Therefore, I turned away, to let my heart despair over all the labour in which I had been toiling under the sun. <sup>21</sup> For, although a person may have laboured with wisdom, knowledge and skill, he must leave his estate to someone who has not toiled for it. This also is pointless and a great evil. <sup>22</sup> For what does a person get through all the toil and longing of his heart, over which he has been anxious under the sun? <sup>23</sup> For all his life is full of anguish, and his occupation is irritating. Even in the night, his mind is not content. This also is pointless.

With God even the simplest things have a point

<sup>24</sup> There is nothing better for a person than that he should eat, drink and let his soul find satisfaction in his labour. I have seen that this also comes from the hand of God. <sup>25</sup> “For who can eat or who can feel pleasure apart from Me?”

<sup>26</sup> For God has given wisdom, knowledge and joy to a person whom He regards kindly. However, to the sinner He has given the task of gathering and amassing wealth, that he may give it to the person whom God regards kindly. This also is pointless and an attempt to catch the wind.

Conclusion that everything happens in God's own time

God's gift of a sense of eternity to human beings

<sup>9</sup> What benefit does a worker gain from what he toils over? <sup>10</sup> I have seen the activity that God has given human beings to be troubled about. <sup>11</sup> He has made everything beautiful in its time. He also has put eternity in their hearts. Nevertheless, no human being will be able to find out the work that God has been doing from the beginning to the end. <sup>12</sup> I know that there is nothing better for them than to be happy and to enjoy themselves while they are alive. <sup>13</sup> Besides, it is a gift of God if every human being eats and drinks and recognises good in all his toil.

<sup>14</sup> I have perceived that whatever God does will last for ever. Nothing can be added to it, and nothing can be taken away from it. God has done this that people may fear Him. <sup>15</sup> What is now has already been, and what will be has already been. God will also search out what has passed away.

Wickedness in the place of justice

<sup>16</sup> I have seen something else under the sun, that there is wickedness right there in the place of justice. In the place of righteousness, right there is wickedness. <sup>17</sup> I thought to myself, God will judge the righteous person and the wicked person. For there is a time for everything that is purposed and everything that is done.

Human beings and animals meet the same end

<sup>18</sup> I thought to myself, about human beings, that God is going to examine them, that they may see that they are like animals. <sup>19</sup> For what happens to human beings and what happens to animals are the same. The one dies like the other. They all have the same breath, and the human being has no advantage over the animal. For everything is pointless. <sup>20</sup> All go to the same place. All have come from the dust and all return to the dust. <sup>21</sup> Who knows whether the spirit of human beings goes upwards and the spirit of the animal goes downwards to the earth? <sup>22</sup> Therefore, I have seen that there is nothing better than that a human being should enjoy his work. For that is his lot. Indeed, who will bring him to see what will happen after him?

The conclusion that it is better not to have been born because of prevailing injustice

<sup>1</sup> Again I saw all the oppressive actions that are done under the sun. I also saw the tears of the oppressed people, and that they had no one to comfort them! Power is on the side of those who oppress them, and there is no one to comfort them. <sup>2</sup> I declared that dead people, those who had already died, were happier than the people were who were living, those who were still alive. <sup>3</sup> However, he who has not yet come into existence is better off than both are. He has not seen the evil activity that is being done under the sun.

A comparison between hard work and laziness

The study of the person who is all alone

<sup>7</sup> Then I saw something else that is pointless under the sun. <sup>8</sup> There is one person who is all alone, without either a son or a brother. Yet there is no end to all his toil. His eyes are never satisfied with riches, so that he never asks, “For whom am I toiling and depriving myself of happiness?” This also is pointless and a miserable business!

The conclusion that two are better than one

wages for their toil. <sup>10</sup> For, if they fall, the one will help his companion up. However, how sad it is for someone who is alone and falls down! He has no one else to help him up. <sup>11</sup> Again, if two lie down together, they will become warm, but how can only one person become warm? <sup>12</sup> Although one person may overpower another who is alone, two people can resist him. A thread with three strands will not be torn apart quickly.

The conclusion about rulers and fickle citizens

<sup>13</sup> A young man who is poor and wise is better than an old and foolish king who no longer knows how to heed a warning. <sup>14</sup> For the youth came out of prison to become king, even though he had been born in poverty inside his kingdom. <sup>15</sup> I saw all those who were alive and moving about under the sun. They sided with the young man, who was the second and who took the place of the former. <sup>16</sup> There was no end of all the people, of everyone whom he led. However, those who came later were not happy with him. Surely this also is pointless and an attempt to catch the wind.

A warning not to be quick to speak at worship

<sup>1</sup> Watch your steps when you go to the house of God! To draw near to listen is better than to offer the sacrifice of fools. For they do not know that they are doing evil. <sup>2</sup> Do not be quick to talk, and your mind should not be hasty to speak anything in the presence of God! For God is in heaven, and you are on the earth. Therefore, let your words be few! <sup>3</sup> For dreaming comes when there is much activity, and a fool uses many words to speak. <sup>4</sup> When you make a vow to God, do not delay in fulfilling it! For He is not pleased with fools. Fulfil what you vow! <sup>5</sup> It is better that you should not make a vow than that you should make a vow and not fulfil it. <sup>6</sup> Do not allow your mouth to mislead your body into sin, and do not say before God's representative that it had been an unintentional mistake! Why should God become angry at what you had said, so that He ruins what your hands have done? <sup>7</sup> Indeed, when there are many dreams, there are also pointless things and many words. For you must fear God!

Corrupt officials have corrupted officials over them

<sup>8</sup> If you see in a province that a poor person is being oppressed and that justice and righteousness are stolen away, do not be astonished at such a thing! For a higher-ranking official watches over a high official, and still higher-ranking officials are over them. <sup>9</sup> Moreover, the land is beneficial for everyone. A king depends on a cultivated field.

The unsatisfying value of money

<sup>10</sup> A person who loves money will not be satisfied with money, and whoever loves wealth will not be satisfied with his income. This also is pointless. <sup>11</sup> When goods increase, those who consume them increase. Therefore, what advantage does their owner have except to see them with his eyes? <sup>12</sup> The sleep of a labourer is sweet, whether he eats little or much, but the plenty of the rich man will not permit him to sleep.

<sup>13</sup> I have seen a painful evil under the sun, wealth hoarded by its owner so that it harms him. <sup>14</sup> That wealth has also been lost in a bad venture. When he has a son, he will have nothing in his possession. <sup>15</sup> He will go back naked, as he has come out of his mother's womb. His toil will not enable him to take anything at all that he can carry away in his hands. <sup>16</sup> This is also a painful evil. He will depart exactly as he has come. Therefore, what advantage will he gain from exerting himself for the wind? <sup>17</sup> Moreover, he even used to eat in the dark all his days. He used to be greatly frustrated, sick and angry.

The conclusion that God alone gives contentment

<sup>18</sup> Here is what I have seen to be good: that it is proper to eat, drink and find satisfaction in all the toil in which a person labours under the sun during the few days of his life that God has given him. For that is his lot. <sup>19</sup> Moreover, when God has given any person wealth and possessions and has granted him the opportunity to enjoy them, to accept his lot and to be happy in his toil, this is the gift of God. <sup>20</sup> For he will not often think about the days of his life, because God keeps him occupied with the joy in his heart.

The disappointments of rich people

<sup>1</sup> There is an evil that I have seen under the sun, and it is a ponderous one on human beings. <sup>2</sup> There is a man to whom God gives wealth, possessions and honour, so that he does not lack anything that he desires for himself. Nevertheless, God does not grant him the opportunity to enjoy them, but a stranger enjoys them. This is pointless and is a painful calamity. <sup>3</sup> A man may have a hundred children and may live for many years, so that he has a very long life. Nevertheless, if his soul is not satisfied with his prosperity and he does not even receive a burial, I say that a stillborn child is better off than he is. <sup>4</sup> For a stillborn baby has come without a purpose, it goes away in the dark, and darkness conceals its name. <sup>5</sup> Although it has not seen the sun or known anything, the baby has more rest than that man does. <sup>6</sup> Even though he lived for a thousand years twice over without having experienced anything good, do not all go to the same place?

More examples of pointless circumstances

tend with One who is mightier than he is. <sup>11</sup> Indeed, the more words there are, the more pointless they are. What advantage does any human being gain? <sup>12</sup> For who knows what is good for a human being in life during the few days of his pointless life? He spends them like a shadow. For who can tell a man what will come after him under the sun?

Proverbs about life

<sup>2</sup> It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting, because this is the end of all human beings. Everyone who is alive should take this to heart!

<sup>3</sup> Sorrow is better than laughter, because, although the face is sad, the heart may be in good spirits.

<sup>7</sup> Surely oppression will make a wise person look foolish, and a bribe will corrupt the mind.

<sup>8</sup> The end of something is better than its beginning. It is better to be patient than arrogant.

<sup>9</sup> Do not be quick in your spirit to become angry! For anger lodges in the bosoms of fools.

<sup>10</sup> Do not ask, "How is it that the former times were better than the present times are?" For wisdom has not prompted you to ask this.

The conclusion that wisdom gives life

<sup>11</sup> Wisdom is good when it accompanies an inheritance. It is an advantage to those who see the sun.

<sup>12</sup> For wisdom provides protection as money provides protection. However, the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to those who possess it.

<sup>13</sup> Consider what God has done! For who can straighten what He has made crooked?

The conclusion that God sends both prosperity and adversity

<sup>14</sup> Be happy when times are prosperous! However, when bad times come, realise that God made the one as well as the other, so that no human being can discover anything at all that will be after him.

The conclusion that human beings do not get what they deserve

<sup>15</sup> I have seen everything in my pointless life. There is a righteous man who perishes although he is righteous, and there is a wicked man who lives for a long time although he is wicked. <sup>16</sup> Do not be extremely righteous and do not show yourself excessively wise! Why should you bring ruin on yourself? <sup>17</sup> Do not be too wicked and do not be a fool! Why should you die before your time? <sup>18</sup> It is good that you should hold on to the one and not let your hand go from the other. For the one who fears God will escape them all.

The advantages of wisdom

<sup>19</sup> Wisdom will make a wise man stronger than ten rulers who are in a city.

<sup>20</sup> Certainly there is not a righteous man on earth who does good and never sins.

<sup>21</sup> In addition, do not take to heart all the things that people say, that you may not hear your servant cursing you! <sup>22</sup> For your own conscience knows that you also have often cursed other people.

<sup>23</sup> I have used wisdom to test all this. Although I have said, "I want to be wise," it was far away from me.

<sup>24</sup> Who can find out what is far off and what is most profound? <sup>25</sup> I had turned my heart to know, to search out and to search for wisdom and the scheme of things and to know that being wicked is stupid and that foolishness is madness. <sup>26</sup> Then I used to find something that is more bitter than death: the woman whose heart is snares and nets and whose hands are fetters. He who pleases God will escape from her, but she will trap the sinner. <sup>27</sup> "Look! This is what I have found," says the speaker at the assembly. "I have added one thing after another to find the scheme of things. <sup>28</sup> I have still been searching for the scheme of things but have not found it. I have found one man out of a thousand but out of all these I have not found one woman. <sup>29</sup> Look! I have found only this: that, although God has made human beings upright, they have investigated many schemes."

The obligations of a king and his subjects and the inability to control death

The unfairness of life

<sup>9</sup> I have observed all this and have applied my mind to all the activity that has been carried on under the sun. There is a time when one human being has power over another human being so that he harms him. <sup>10</sup> Then I saw wicked people being buried. Although they had been going in and coming out of the Holy Place, they had become forgotten in the city where they had been doing such things. This also is pointless.

The need for swift justice

<sup>11</sup> Because the sentence against an evil deed is not carried out quickly, the hearts of human beings have the courage to do wrong. <sup>12</sup> Although a sinner does evil a hundred times and yet lives a long life, I nevertheless know that those who fear God will prosper, because they fear Him. <sup>13</sup> However, it will not go well for the wicked person, and he will not lengthen his days like a shadow, because he does not fear God.

The recommendation to enjoy life

<sup>14</sup> There is a pointless thing that occurs on earth. There are righteous people who get what wicked people deserve, and there are wicked people who get what righteous people deserve. I have said that this also is pointless. <sup>15</sup> Therefore, I recommend enjoyment. For a human being has nothing better under the sun than to eat, drink and enjoy himself. This enjoyment will accompany him in his toil during the days of his life, which God has given him under the sun. <sup>16</sup> When I applied my mind to know wisdom and to see the activity that has been engaged in on earth — that a person's eyes may not experience sleep, either by day or by night — <sup>17</sup> then I saw everything that God has done. Human beings cannot comprehend the activity that has been engaged in under the sun, since a human being may work hard in searching for it but will not find it out. Even though a wise man claims to know it, he will not be able to find it out.

The conclusion that everything is in the hands of God

<sup>1</sup> For I have carefully thought about all this and examined all this, that righteous people and wise people, together with what they do, are in the hand of God. Human beings do not know whether there will be love or hate. Everything is before them. <sup>2</sup> Everything will happen in the same way for everyone. The righteous person, the wicked person, the good person, the clean person, the unclean person, the person who sacrifices and the person who does not sacrifice will experience the same event. The sinner will be like the good person, and the person who shuns an oath will be like the person who swears an oath.

The assertion that there is hope while there is life,

<sup>3</sup> This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that the same event will happen to everyone. Moreover, the hearts of human beings are full of evil, and there is madness in their hearts while they are alive. Then, after that, they go to the dead. <sup>4</sup> However, anyone who is joined with all the people who are alive may be confident. For, really, a living dog is better than a dead lion. <sup>5</sup> For the people who are alive know that they will die, but the dead do not know anything at all. There is no more reward for them. Even the memory of them has been forgotten. <sup>6</sup> Their love, their hate and their envy have already vanished. They will never again take part in anything that happens under the sun.

The recommendation to enjoy life with one's wife

<sup>7</sup> Go, eat your food happily and drink your wine with a joyful heart! For God has already been kindly disposed to what you are doing. <sup>8</sup> Always wear white clothes and do not go without olive-oil on your head! <sup>9</sup> Enjoy life with the wife whom you love, all the days of your pointless life, which He has given you under the sun! For that is your portion in life and in your toil, at which you are labouring under the sun.

The admonition to work with all one's might <sup>10</sup> Use all your strength to do everything that your hand finds to do! For there is no work, planning, knowledge or wisdom in the grave, to which you are going.

Proverbs about time and unpredictable events

<sup>11</sup> Again I saw that under the sun the foot-race does not belong to swift people, and the battle does not belong to strong people. Wise people do not have food, discerning people do not have riches, and people who have understanding are not popular, but time and chance happen to them all. <sup>12</sup> For a human being also does not know his destined time. Like fish that are caught in a cruel net and like birds that are caught in a snare, so human beings are snared by a hard time, when it suddenly strikes them.

Proverbs about contempt for wisdom

<sup>13</sup> I have also seen this example of wisdom under the sun, and it seemed important to me. <sup>14</sup> There was a small city that had few men in it. A powerful king came against it, besieged it and built huge siege-works against it. <sup>15</sup> However, people found a poor, wise man in it, and he used his wisdom to deliver the city. Nevertheless, no one remembered that poor man. <sup>16</sup> Nevertheless, I say that wisdom is better than strength, although the poor man's wisdom is despised, and no one listens to what he has said. <sup>17</sup> The words of wise people that are listened to in quietness are better than the shouting of a ruler among fools. <sup>8</sup> Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but one sinner can destroy much good.

10

Various proverbs

<sup>1</sup> Dead flies will make a perfume-maker's ointment stink and ferment. Similarly a little folly will outweigh wisdom and honour.

Proverbs about the damage that may be caused by fools and foolish actions

like slaves.

<sup>8</sup> He who digs a pit may fall into it, and a snake may bite a person who breaks down a wall. <sup>9</sup> He who quarries stones may be hurt by them, and he who splits logs may put himself in danger from them. <sup>10</sup> If the iron tool has become blunt and a person does not sharpen the blade, he will have to use more strength, but wisdom is an advantage that brings success. <sup>11</sup> If a snake bites before it is charmed, the snake-charmer has no advantage.

<sup>18</sup> Because of extreme laziness the rafters will sag, and because hands hang slackly the house will leak.

<sup>19</sup> Bread is made for pleasure and wine will make life cheerful, but money will be an answer to everything.

<sup>20</sup> Do not curse the king even in your thoughts, and do not curse a rich man in your bedroom! For a bird in the sky may carry your voice, and some other winged creature may report what you say.

11

Admonitions to live boldly with trust in God

<sup>1</sup> Cast out your bread over the surface of the water! For you will find it after many days. <sup>2</sup> Divide your property into seven parts or even into eight! For you do not know what calamity will happen on the earth. <sup>3</sup> If the clouds are full of rain, they will pour it out on the earth and, if a tree falls towards the south or towards the north, the tree will remain where it falls. <sup>4</sup> He who watches the wind will not sow, and he who keeps on looking at the clouds will not harvest. <sup>5</sup> As you do not know the path of the wind or how the body is formed in the womb of a pregnant woman, so you do not know the work of God, who makes everything. <sup>6</sup> Sow your seed in the morning and do not let your hand rest until the evening! For you do not know whether the one or the other will be successful or whether both of them will be good at the same time. <sup>7</sup> The light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to see the sun. <sup>8</sup> Indeed, if a person lives for many years, he should enjoy all of them. However, he should remember that there will be many dark days. All that is coming is pointless.

and let your heart make you happy while you are still young! Follow the direction of your heart and where your eyes lead you. However, realise that for all these things God will bring you into judgment! <sup>10</sup> Get rid of what irritates your heart and dismiss distress from your body! For the time of youth and the dawn of life are pointless.

12

<sup>1</sup> Remember also your Creator in the days when you are young, before the days of trouble come and the years arrive about which you will say, "I have no pleasure in them," <sup>2</sup> before the sun, the light, the moon and the stars become dark and the clouds return after the rain, <sup>3</sup> when those who guard the house tremble and the strong men stoop over and the women who grind stop working because they become few and those who look through the windows grow dim <sup>4</sup> when the doors to the street are closed up when the sound of the grinding mill becomes quiet, a person rises up at the sound of a bird and all the sounds of singing fade away! <sup>5</sup> Then people will also be afraid of what is high and of dangers along the road. The almond tree will blossom, the locust will move forward slowly, and the stimulating caper-buds will be broken off, because the human being is going to his eternal home, and the mourners will go around in the streets. <sup>6</sup> Remember Him before the silver cord is removed, the golden bowl is crushed, the pitcher is shattered beside the water-spring and the water-pulley is broken at the cistern. <sup>7</sup> Then the dust will return to the ground as it was, and the spirit will return to God, who has given it. <sup>8</sup> "Absolutely pointless!" is what the speaker at the assembly has said. "Everything is pointless!"

Conclusion that the lifelong duty of human beings is to fear God and keep His Commandments <sup>9</sup> The speaker at the assembly was not only wise but also taught the people what he knew. He used to weigh it carefully, search it out and arrange it in many proverbs. <sup>10</sup> The speaker at the assembly tried to find pleasing words, and what was written down was honest. He wrote truthful words. <sup>11</sup> The words of wise people are like goading sticks and like the points of ox-goads, which are driven in. Those who collected the sayings were given them from the One Shepherd. <sup>12</sup> Be warned, my son, of anything in addition to these! The making of many books is endless, and much study makes the body weary. <sup>13</sup> This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God and keep His Commandments! For this is the whole duty of a human being. <sup>14</sup> For God will bring every deed into judgment, together with every hidden thing, whether it is good or evil.

Song of Solomon

1

<sup>1</sup> The most beautiful Song of Solomon.

The young woman arrives in Solomon's palace

<sup>2</sup> Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth! For your expressions of love are better than wine.

<sup>3</sup> Your anointing oils are fragrant. Your name is perfume poured out. That is why virgins love you.

<sup>4</sup> Lead me away! Let us run! The king has brought me into his private rooms.

[The chorus of young women]

Let us shout for joy and rejoice over you! Let us praise your expressions of love more than wine! It is right that they love you!

[Bride]

<sup>5</sup> Young women of Jerusalem, I am dark and lovely, like the tents of Kedar, like the tent-curtains of Solomon.

<sup>6</sup> Do not stare at me because I am dark, because the sun has tanned me! My mother's sons had been angry with me. They had made me take care of the vineyards. I have not even taken care of my own vineyard.

<sup>7</sup> Tell me, you whom my soul loves, where do you graze your flock? Where do you allow your flock to lie down at noon? For why should I be like a veiled woman beside the flocks of your companions?

<sup>8</sup> If you do not know, most beautiful among the women, follow the footmarks of the flock and pasture your young goats near the shepherds' tents!

The search of Solomon for the young woman's love

[Groom]

<sup>9</sup> My darling, I say that you are like my filly among Pharaoh's chariots. <sup>10</sup> Your cheeks are lovely with strings of jewels, your neck with chains of pearls.

[The chorus of young women]

<sup>11</sup> We shall make strings of gold for you with silver beads.

[Bride]

<sup>12</sup> While the king has been at his round table, my nard-perfume has been giving out its fragrance.

<sup>13</sup> To me the one whom I love is a pouch of myrrh that spends the night between my breasts.

[Groom]

<sup>15</sup> Look at you! You are beautiful, my darling! Look at you! You are beautiful! Your eyes are doves!

[Bride]

<sup>16</sup> Look at you! You are handsome, my loved one, truly delightful! Our couch is full of green leaves.

<sup>17</sup> The cedars will be the walls of our house. The juniper trees will be our rafters.

[Groom]

My darling among the young women is like a lily among thorn bushes.

[Bride]

<sup>3</sup> The one whom I love among the young men is like an apple among the trees of the forest. I have been sitting down in his shadow with passionate desire. His fruit has been sweet to my taste.

<sup>4</sup> He has brought me into a banquet hall, and love has been his banner over me.

<sup>7</sup> Young women of Jerusalem, I have made you promise solemnly by the gazelles and by the does in the field that you will not awaken love or arouse it until it feels inclined.

The recollection by the young woman of a say in spring with the one whom she loves

[Bride]

<sup>16</sup> The one whom I love is mine, and I am his. He grazes his flock among the lilies.

3

The dreams of the young woman about searching for the one whom she loves

[Bride]

Song of Solomon

the city, in the streets and in the squares. I want to look for the one whom my heart loves. I have been looking for him but have not found him. <sup>3</sup> The watchmen who were going around in the city found me. I asked, "Have you seen the one whom my heart loves?"

<sup>4</sup> Scarcely had I gone past them when I found him whom my heart loves. I held on to him and would not let him go until I had brought him into my mother's house, into the inner room of the woman who conceived me. <sup>5</sup> Young women of Jerusalem, I have made you promise solemnly by the gazelles and by the does in the field that you will not awaken love or arouse it until it feels inclined.

Report about how the young woman from Shunem had come to Jerusalem
[The chorus of young women]

<sup>6</sup> Who is this woman coming up from the wilderness like columns of smoke? She is perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, made from all the scented powders of the merchants? <sup>7</sup> Look! The portable couch that belongs to Solomon! Sixty valiant soldiers of Israel are around it. <sup>8</sup> All of them are wearing swords and are expert in battle. Each one has his sword at his side, against the terrors of the night. <sup>9</sup> King Solomon has had a portable couch made for himself from the wood of Lebanon. <sup>10</sup> He has made its posts out of silver, its top out of gold and its seat out of purple wool. The young women of Jerusalem have lovingly inlaid its interior. <sup>11</sup> Young women of Zion, come out and look at King Solomon! Look at his crown, the crown with which his mother crowned him on his wedding day, on the day when his heart was glad!

The charming of Solomon by the young woman from Shulam
[Groom]

<sup>1</sup> Oh, you are beautiful, my darling! Oh, you are beautiful! Your eyes are doves behind your veil. Your hair is like a flock of goats leaping down from Mount Gilead. <sup>2</sup> Your teeth are like a flock of recently shorn sheep, which have come up from the washing. All of them bear twins, and not one among them has lost its young. <sup>3</sup> Your lips are like crimson thread. Your mouth is lovely. Your temple behind your veil is like a slice of pomegranate. <sup>4</sup> Your neck is like David's tower constructed in layers. A thousand shields hang on it, all of them round shields of warriors. <sup>5</sup> Your two breasts are like two fawns, twins of a female gazelle, which graze among the lilies.

<sup>6</sup> Until the day brings a cool breeze and the shadows flee, I shall go to the mountain of myrrh and the hill of frankincense. <sup>7</sup> You are beautiful in every way, my darling. There is no blemish on you. <sup>8</sup> You will come with me from Lebanon, from Lebanon, as my bride. You will come down with me from the top of Amana, from the tops of Senir and Hermon, from the lairs of lions, from the mountains of leopards.

You have captivated my heart with one glance of your eyes, with one strand of your necklace. <sup>10</sup> How beautiful are your expressions of love, my sister, my bride! How much more pleasing are your expressions of love than wine, and the fragrance of your perfumes than any spices! <sup>11</sup> Your lips drip honey, my bride. Honey and milk are under your tongue. The fragrance of your clothing is like the fragrance of Lebanon. <sup>12</sup> My sister, my bride, is a locked garden, an enclosed spring, a sealed fountain. <sup>13</sup> Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates and delicious fruits, henna bushes and nard plants, <sup>14</sup> nard and saffron, calamus, cinnamon, with all kinds of incense trees, myrrh, aloes and all the finest spices. <sup>15</sup> You are a fountain for gardens, a well of living water and flowing streams from Lebanon.

[Bride]

<sup>16</sup> Awake, north wind! Come, south wind! Blow through my garden! Let its spices distil from it! Let the one whom I love come to his garden and let him eat its delicious fruit!

5

[Groom]

<sup>1</sup> My bride, my sister, I have come to my garden. I have plucked my myrrh with my balsam. I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey. I have drunk my wine with my milk. Eat, my friends! Drink and become intoxicated with expressions of love!

The young woman's dreams of marriage with her husband

[Bride]

<sup>2</sup> Although I was asleep, my heart was awake. A sound! The one whom I love is knocking.

[Groom]

Open to me, my sister, my darling, my dove, my perfect one! For my head is drenched with dew, my locks of hair with the dewdrops of the night.

[Bride]

<sup>3</sup> I have taken off my tunic. How could I put it on again? I have washed my feet. How could I get them dirty again? <sup>4</sup> The one whom I love has put his hand through the hole in the door. My inner being has been throbbing for him.

<sup>5</sup> I got up to open for the one whom I love. My hands dripped with myrrh, and drops of myrrh fell from my fingers on the hollows for the door-bolts. <sup>6</sup> I opened for the one whom I love, but the one whom I love had turned away. He had gone. My heart failed me when he turned away. Although I looked for him, I did not find him. Although I called him, he did not answer me. <sup>7</sup> The watchmen who were going around in the city found me. They hit me. They bruised me. The watchmen on the walls took my shawl away from me. <sup>8</sup> Young women of Jerusalem, I have made you solemnly promise. If you find the one whom I love, what will you tell him? Tell him that I am lovesick!

[The chorus of young women]

<sup>9</sup> Most beautiful of women, what makes your lover different from any other lover? What makes your lover different from any other lover, that you have made us solemnly promise in this way?

Song of Solomon

[Bride]

<sup>10</sup> The one whom I love is radiant and ruddy. He is outstanding among ten thousand. <sup>11</sup> His head is the finest gold. The locks of his hair are date clusters and as black as a raven. <sup>12</sup> His eyes are like doves beside streams of water, bathing in milk, perching on gem-settings. <sup>13</sup> His cheeks are like a garden bed of spices, mounds of fragrant herbs. His lips are lilies that drip with myrrh. <sup>14</sup> His forearms are golden cylinders mounted with chrysolite. His belly is a panel of ivory encrusted with lapis lazuli. <sup>15</sup> His legs are columns of alabaster set on bases of pure gold. His form is like Lebanon, as excellent as the cedars. <sup>16</sup> His mouth is most sweet. Everything about him is desirable! This is the one whom I love. This is my darling, young women of Jerusalem.

[The chorus of young women]

<sup>1</sup> Where has the one whom you love gone, most beautiful of women? Which way has the one whom you love turned, that we may look for him with you?

[Bride]

<sup>2</sup> The one whom I love has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices, to pasture his flock in the gardens and to gather lilies. <sup>3</sup> I belong to the one whom I love, and the one whom I love is mine. He is the one who is grazing his flock among the lilies.

Solomon's desire for the young woman more than for the rest of his wives
[Groom]

<sup>4</sup> You are beautiful, my darling, like Tirzah, lovely like Jerusalem, as awesome as soldiers with banners.

<sup>5</sup> Turn your eyes away from me! For they overwhelm me. Your hair is like a flock of goats moving down from Gilead. <sup>6</sup> Your teeth are like a flock of ewes, sheep that have come up from the washing. All of them bear twins, and not one among them has lost its young. <sup>7</sup> Your temple behind your veil is like a slice of pomegranate. <sup>8</sup> There are sixty queens, eighty concubines and countless virgins. <sup>9</sup> However, she, my dove, my perfect one, is the only one. She is pure to her mother, to the one who has given birth to her. The young women have seen her and have called her blessed, as well as queens and concubines, and they have been praising her.

A description of the young woman's home in Shulam

[The chorus of young women]

<sup>10</sup> Who is this woman, who has been looking down from above, like the dawn? She is as beautiful as the full moon, as pure as the sun, as awesome as soldiers with banners.

[Bride]

<sup>11</sup> I went to the walnut garden to look at the green shoots on the date palm, to see if the grapevine had budded and if the pomegranates had bloomed. <sup>12</sup> I had not realised it. My desire had set me among the chariots of my noble people.

[The chorus of young women]

<sup>13</sup> Come back! Come back, young woman from Shulam! Come back! Come back, that we may gaze at you!

[Bride]

Why are you gazing at me, at the young woman from Shulam, as you would gaze at the dance of Mahanaim?

7

<sup>1</sup> How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O daughter of a prince! The curves of your thighs are like ornaments, the work of a craftsman's hands. <sup>2</sup> Your navel is a round goblet. May it not lack spiced wine! Your belly is a heap of wheat enclosed in lilies. <sup>3</sup> Your breasts are like two fawns, twins of a gazelle. <sup>4</sup> Your neck is like an ivory tower. Your eyes are pools in Heshbon beside the gate of Bath-Rabbim. Your nose is like a tower of Lebanon looking toward Damascus. <sup>5</sup> Your head is on you like Mount Carmel. The loose hair of your head is like wool dyed with red-purple. A king is held captive by the tresses.

Solomon's longing for the young woman's affection
[Groom]

<sup>6</sup> How beautiful and how pleasant you are, O loved one, with your delights! <sup>7</sup> This great height of yours is like a date palm, and your breasts are like clusters of fruit. <sup>8</sup> I thought, "I shall climb the palm-tree and take hold of its fruit clusters." May your breasts be like clusters of the vine! May the fragrance of your breath be like apples! <sup>9</sup> May your mouth taste like the best wine!

[Bride]

...which goes down smoothly to the one whom I love and flows gently over the lips of those who are falling asleep! <sup>10</sup> I belong to the one whom I love, and he longs for me. <sup>11</sup> Come, my loved one! Let us go out into the open country! Let us spend the night in the villages! <sup>12</sup> Let us go out early to the vineyards! Let us see if the vines have budded, if the grape blossoms have opened, if the pomegranates are in bloom! There I shall give you my love. <sup>13</sup> The mandrake fruits have been giving out a fragrance, and at our door there are all kinds of precious fruits. I have saved up new things as well as old things for you, my loved one.

<sup>1</sup> I wish you had been my brother, one who had been my mother's breast-fed baby! If I found you outside, I would kiss you. Indeed, no one would despise me. <sup>2</sup> I would lead you. I would bring you into my mother's house. She used to teach me. I would give you some spiced wine to drink, some of my pomegranate juice. <sup>3</sup> His left hand is under my head. His right hand is embracing me. <sup>4</sup> Young women of Jerusalem, I have made you solemnly promise that you will not awaken love or arouse it until it feels inclined!

The young woman's love for the one whom she loves
[The chorus of young women]

Song of Solomon

<sup>5</sup> Who is this woman coming up from the wilderness supporting herself on the one whom she loves?

[Bride]

I woke you up under the apple tree. There your mother went into labour with you. There she went into labour and gave birth to you. <sup>6</sup> Place me on your heart like a seal, like a seal on your arm! For love is as strong as death. Jealousy is as hard as the grave. Its flames are flames of fire, a flame of the LORD.

The company of the young woman with her family and the one whom she loves

[The brothers]

<sup>8</sup> We have a younger sister, and she has no breasts. What shall we do for our sister on the day when someone proposes to her? <sup>9</sup> If she were a wall, we would build a silver battlement around her. If she were a door, we would shut her in with cedar boards.

[Bride]

<sup>10</sup> I am a wall, and my breasts are like towers. So, he came to regard me as one who finds peace.

<sup>11</sup> Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-Hamon. He entrusted that vineyard to caretakers. Each one was to get twelve kilograms of silver for its fruit. <sup>12</sup> My own vineyard is in front of me. Those twelve kilograms are yours, Solomon and those who take care of its fruit may get two and a half kilograms.

[Groom]

<sup>13</sup> O woman, you who are living in the gardens, while your companions are listening attentively to your voice, make me hear it!

[Bride]

<sup>14</sup> Come away quickly, my loved one! Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices!

ISAIAH

sight<sup>1</sup> This is the revelation that Isaiah, the son of Amoz, saw in visions about Judah and Jerusalem at the time of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, who were kings of Judah.

An accusation of God against the sin of Israel

<sup>2</sup> Hear, heaven, and listen, earth! For the LORD has spoken: "I have reared children and brought them up, but they have rebelled against Me. <sup>3</sup> An ox knows its owner and a donkey the feeding trough of those who own it, but Israel is ignorant. My people do not behave intelligently."

<sup>4</sup> How horrible it will be for a sinful nation, a people with a load of guilt, the offspring of evildoers and children who behave corruptly! They have forsaken the LORD. They have treated the Holy One of Israel disrespectfully. They have turned back. <sup>5</sup> Why will you be beaten still more? Why will you become more obstinate? Your whole head is sick. Your whole heart is ill. <sup>6</sup> From the sole of your foot to your head there is no healthy part in your body, only bruises, blows and fresh wounds. They have not been pressed out, bandaged up or softened with olive-oil. <sup>7</sup> Your country has been laid waste. Your cities have been burnt down. Foreigners are consuming your ground in your very presence. It has been devastated as when foreigners overthrow something. <sup>8</sup> The Daughter of Zion is left like a hut in a vineyard, like a shack in a cucumber patch, like a blockaded city. <sup>9</sup> If the LORD of hosts had not left us a few survivors, we would have become like Sodom. We would have looked like Gomorrah.

An admonition to Israel to get rid of its sin

<sup>10</sup> Hear the Word of the LORD, rulers of Sodom! Listen to the Teaching of our God, people of Gomorrah!

<sup>11</sup> The LORD asks: "Of what use to Me are your many sacrifices? I have had enough burnt offerings of rams and enough fat from fattened steers. I also do not desire the blood of bulls, young rams and male goats.

<sup>12</sup> When you come to appear before Me, who has required from you this trampling of My courts? <sup>13</sup> You shall not bring any more worthless offerings! I detest incense. I also detest the festival on the first of the month, the Sabbath and the proclamation of an assembly. I cannot endure idolatrous worship and a festive assembly. <sup>14</sup> My soul hates your celebrations of the New Moon and your other appointed feasts. They have become a burden to Me, and I am tired of putting up with them. <sup>15</sup> When you spread out your hands in prayer, I shall shut My eyes that I may not see you. Even when you offer many prayers, I shall not listen. Your hands are full of spilt blood. <sup>16</sup> Wash yourselves! Make yourselves clean! Remove your evil deeds from My sight! Stop doing evil! <sup>17</sup> Learn to do good! Try to give right decisions! Straighten out the oppressor! Administer justice to the orphan and plead the cause of the widow!

<sup>18</sup> "Please come! Let us argue the case together!" says the LORD. "Although your sins are like bright red cloth, they will become as white as snow. Although they are red like crimson, they will become like wool.

<sup>19</sup> If you were willing and obedient, you would eat the best things of the land. <sup>20</sup> However, if you refuse and are rebellious, you will be consumed by the sword."

For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Threats about the future of Jerusalem

<sup>21</sup> How the faithful city has become a prostitute! It used to be full of justice, and righteousness used to dwell in it. Now, however, murderers live there!

<sup>22</sup> Your silver has become impure. Your wine has been diluted with water. <sup>23</sup> Your rulers are rebellious and are companions with thieves. Everyone loves a bribe and runs after gifts. They do not administer justice to orphans. The legal case of a widow does not come before them."

<sup>24</sup> That is why the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, says: "How horrible it will be when I gratify Myself against My adversaries and take revenge on My enemies! <sup>25</sup> I shall turn My hand against you. I shall smelt away your dross as with pot-ash. I shall remove all your slag. <sup>26</sup> I shall restore your judges as you had them previously and your counselors as in the beginning. After that, you will be called the 'The Righteous City,' 'The Faithful City.'"

<sup>27</sup> Justice will redeem Zion, and righteousness will redeem those in her who repent. <sup>28</sup> However, disloyal people and sinners will collapse together, and those who forsake the LORD will perish. <sup>29</sup> For they will be ashamed of the tall trees in which you have taken pleasure. You will also be embarrassed because of the gardens that you have chosen. <sup>30</sup> For you will be like a tall tree that has withering leaves and like a garden without water. <sup>31</sup> The strong man will become tinder, and his achievement will become a spark. Both of them will burn together, and no one will put out the fire.

A promise that God will give peace and teach the nations — Micah 4:1-3

<sup>1</sup> This is the Revelation that Isaiah, the son of Amoz, saw about Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> In the last days the mountain of the Temple of the LORD will be established as the highest of the mountains and will be elevated above the hills and all the nations will stream to it. <sup>3</sup> Then many peoples will come and say, "Come! Let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the Temple of the God of Jacob! He will teach us His Ways, that we may walk in His paths."

For the Teaching will go out from Zion, and the Word of the LORD from Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> Then He will be the Judge between the nations and will mediate between many peoples. Then they will hammer their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning knives. No nation will take up a sword against another nation, and they will not learn war any longer. <sup>5</sup> Family of Jacob, come! Let us walk in the light of the LORD!

Israel's sins

<sup>6</sup> However, LORD, You have abandoned Your people, the family of Jacob. For they are filled with things from the east. They are fortune-tellers like the Philistines and clasp hands with foreign people. <sup>7</sup> Their land is filled with silver and gold, and there is no end to their treasures. Their land is filled with horses, and there is no end to their chariots. <sup>8</sup> Their land is filled with idols. They worship what their own hands have produced and what their own fingers have made. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, people have been obliged to keep low. Everyone has been humiliated. Do not forgive them! <sup>10</sup> Go in among the rocks and hide yourself in the dust away from the terror of the LORD and from His glorious majesty! <sup>11</sup> The haughty looks of people will be brought down. The lofty pride of men will be humiliated. On that day the LORD alone will be exalted.

The day of God's judgment

<sup>12</sup> Indeed, the LORD of hosts will have a day against everyone who is arrogant and conceited and everyone who lifts himself up, and he will be brought low, <sup>13</sup> against all the high and exalted cedars of Lebanon and all the large trees of Bashan, <sup>14</sup> against all the high mountains and all the exalted hills, <sup>15</sup> against every high tower and against every fortified wall, <sup>16</sup> against all the vessels of Tarshish and all the beautiful ships. <sup>17</sup> Then the haughtiness of human beings will be brought down, and the lofty pride of men will be humiliated. On that day the LORD alone will be exalted. <sup>18</sup> Then the idols will completely disappear. <sup>19</sup> People will go into caves in the rocks and into holes in the ground to get away from the terror of the LORD and His glorious majesty when He appears to terrify the earth. <sup>20</sup> On that day mankind will throw away to the moles and to the bats the silver and golden idols that they have made for themselves to worship. <sup>21</sup> They will go into crevices in the rocks and into crannies in the cliffs to get away from the terror of the LORD, and His glorious majesty when He appears to terrify the earth. <sup>22</sup> Stop being concerned about human beings, who have only a breath in their nostrils! For what value can they be thought to have?

God's judgment on sinners in Zion

<sup>4</sup> "I shall make boys their leaders. Capricious people will govern them. <sup>5</sup> The people will be oppressed, each one by another, and each one by his neighbour. The young man will assault the old man, and the contemptible person will assault the honourable person. <sup>6</sup> For a person will take hold of a relative in his father's family and say: 'You have a coat. You must be our leader! This heap of ruins shall be under your control!' <sup>7</sup> On that day he will cry out: 'I am not a surgeon! I do not have any food or any coat in my home. You shall not make me a leader of the people!'"

<sup>8</sup> Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen. For what they are saying and what they are doing are against the LORD. They are defying His glorious ability to see. <sup>9</sup> The expression on their faces has been testifying against them. They have been proclaiming their sins like Sodom. They have not been concealing them. How horrible for them! For they have brought calamity on themselves. <sup>10</sup> Tell righteous people that it will be well with them! For they will eat the fruit of their actions. <sup>11</sup> How horrible it will be for the wicked person! It will be bad for him. For he will have done to him what his own hands have been doing. <sup>12</sup> As for my people, a person who acts like a child is oppressing them. Women have been ruling over them. O my people, your guides are leading you astray and have been confusing the course of your paths. <sup>13</sup> The LORD is taking His place to conduct a lawsuit. He is standing to plead His case with peoples. <sup>14</sup> The LORD will begin to judge the elders and princes of His people: "You have set fire to the vineyard! Goods stolen from poor people are in your homes. <sup>15</sup> What is the matter with you that you are crushing My people and grinding the faces of the poor?" asks the Lord, the LORD of hosts.

<sup>18</sup> On that day the Lord will take away the finery of the ankle ornaments, the sun-disks, the crescent-moon-shaped necklaces, <sup>19</sup> the ear-pendants, the bracelets and the veils, <sup>20</sup> the head-dresses, the ankle-chains, the sashes, the perfume-boxes and the amulets, <sup>21</sup> the signet-rings and nose-rings, <sup>22</sup> the festival-dresses, the mantles, the shawls and the purses, <sup>23</sup> the transparent garments, the linen undergarments, the turbans and the shawls. <sup>24</sup> Then there will be a stench instead of balsam-oil, a rope instead of a sash, a head shaved bald instead of a hairstyle, sackcloth instead of a magnificent dress and branding instead of beauty. <sup>25</sup> Women, your men will fall by the sword, and your warriors in battle. <sup>26</sup> The gates of Zion will lament and mourn, and Zion will sit on the ground, made destitute.

4

<sup>1</sup> On that day seven women will take hold of one man and say: “We shall eat our own food and provide our own clothes. Just let us be called by your name! Take away our disgrace!”

The new glory of God for Zion

<sup>2</sup> On that day the Branch of the LORD will be splendid and glorious. The fruit of the land will be the pride and honour of the survivors in Israel. <sup>3</sup> Then those who are left in Zion and remain in Jerusalem will be called holy, everyone who has been recorded for survival in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> When the Lord has washed away the filth of the women of Zion and rinsed away the spilt blood from the middle of Jerusalem by a spirit of judgment, by a spirit that removes it, <sup>5</sup> then the LORD will create over the whole site of Mount Zion and over its assemblies a cloud by day and smoke and a bright flaming fire by night. For there will be a canopy over all the glory. <sup>6</sup> It will be a shelter to provide shade from the heat during the day as well as a refuge and a place that protects from storms and rain.

5

A song about God's unfruitful vineyard

<sup>3</sup> “Now, you who are living in Jerusalem and you men of Judah, decide, please, between Me and My vineyard! <sup>4</sup> What more should have been done for My vineyard than I have already done in it? When I waited for it to produce grapes, why did it produce only bad grapes? <sup>5</sup> Now therefore, please let Me inform you what I shall do to My vineyard! I shall tear away its hedge, and it will be destroyed. I shall break down its wall, and it will be trampled down. <sup>6</sup> I shall make it a wasteland. It will not be pruned or cultivated. Briars and thorn-bushes will grow up. I shall also command the clouds not to let any rain fall on it.”

<sup>7</sup> For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the family of Israel, and the men of Judah are the plantation in which He had taken pleasure. He had waited for legal decisions but saw legal infringements. He had waited for justice but heard calls for help.

Woes pronounced on evildoers

<sup>8</sup> How horrible it will be for those who make one house touch another and join one field to another until there is no more room, and you must be landowners by yourselves in the middle of the land! <sup>9</sup> The LORD of hosts has declared in my hearing: “Many houses will certainly become desolate. Large, beautiful houses will be unoccupied. <sup>10</sup> A four-hectare vineyard will produce forty litres and four hundred litres of grain will produce only forty litres.”

<sup>12</sup> Although they have lyres, harps, tambourines, flutes and wine at their feasts, they pay no attention to the deeds of the LORD and do not consider the work of His hands. <sup>13</sup> Therefore, my people will go into exile, because they lack discernment. Their nobles will go hungry, and their large numbers will be parched with thirst. <sup>14</sup> That is why the underworld has opened its throat wide. It has opened its mouth without limit, so that the city's nobility, its large numbers and its noisy and high-spirited people will go down into it.

<sup>15</sup> People will be brought low. Each one will be brought down. The eyes of arrogant people will also be humbled. <sup>16</sup> The LORD of hosts will use justice to be exalted. The holy God will use righteousness to show Himself to be holy. <sup>17</sup> Then lambs will graze as if they were in their own pasture, and foreigners will eat fattened sheep among the ruins.

<sup>18</sup> How horrible it will be for those who pull wickedness along with cords of lies and pull sin as with cart ropes! <sup>19</sup> They are saying: “He should hurry and do His work quickly, that we may see it! The plan of the Holy One of Israel should come closer and be fulfilled, that we may understand it!”

<sup>20</sup> How horrible it will be for those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness instead of light and light instead of darkness, who put bitter instead of sweet and sweet instead of bitter!

<sup>21</sup> How horrible it will be for those who think that they are wise and regard themselves as discerning!

<sup>22</sup> How horrible it will be for those who are heroes at drinking wine and champions at mixing intoxicating drinks, <sup>3</sup> who declare a guilty person innocent in return for a bribe and who deprive innocent people of their rights!

A threat that God will use another nation to punish His people

<sup>24</sup> As flames of fire burn up stubble and dried grass sinks down in flames, so their roots will rot and their blossoms will rise up like fine dust. For they have rejected the Instruction of the LORD of hosts and have despised the Word of the Holy One of Israel. <sup>25</sup> That is why the anger of the LORD has been burning hot against His people, and He has stretched out His hand against them. The hills have been trembling, and their dead bodies have been like garbage in the middle of the streets. Despite all this, His anger has not turned away, and His hand is still stretched out.

God's threat of Assyrian invasion

<sup>26</sup> He will raise up a standard for the nations from far away and will whistle for them from the end of the earth. Look! They will come very quickly. <sup>27</sup> None among them will become exhausted or stumble. None will slumber or sleep. The loincloths on their waists will not be loosened, and their sandal straps will not be torn in two. <sup>28</sup> Their arrows will be sharpened. All their bows will be bent. Their horses' hoofs will seem like flint. Their chariot-wheels will be like a gale. <sup>29</sup> They will have a roar like that of a lioness. They will growl like young lions. They will growl as they seize their prey and carry it to safety to where no one can rescue it. <sup>30</sup> On that day they will roar over their prey like the roaring of the sea. When someone looks across towards the land, he will see only stifling darkness. The daylight will grow dark because of the land's heavy clouds.

The commissioning of Isaiah as a prophet with a message for the people

<sup>1</sup> In the year when King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a high and lofty throne. The train of His robe was filling the Temple. <sup>2</sup> Seraphs were standing above Him. Each had six wings; each was using two wings to cover his face; each was using two wings to cover his legs; and each was using two wings to fly. <sup>3</sup> The one was calling to the other and saying: “Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts! His glory fills the whole earth!”

<sup>4</sup> The voices of those who were calling out caused the foundations of the doorposts to shake, and the Temple was filled with smoke. <sup>5</sup> Then I said: “How terrible for me! For I have been brought to silence. For I am a man with unclean lips and live among people with unclean lips. For my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts.”

<sup>6</sup> Then one of the seraphs flew to me, with a glowing coal in his hand. He had used tongs to take it from the altar. <sup>7</sup> He touched my mouth with it and said: “Look! This has touched your lips. Your guilt has been taken away, and your sin has been atoned for.”

<sup>8</sup> Then I heard the voice of the Lord, saying: “Whom shall I send, and who will go for Us?” Then I said, “Here I am. Send me!”

<sup>9</sup> He said: “Go and tell this people: ‘Keep on listening but do not understand, and keep on seeing but do not perceive!’ <sup>10</sup> Make the heart of this people insensitive, make their ears dull and seal their eyes shut, that they may not see with their eyes or hear with their ears and that their hearts may not understand, so that they should not turn back and find healing for themselves!”

<sup>11</sup> Then I said, “How long, O Lord?”

He replied: “Until the cities lie desolate with no inhabitants, the houses are without people and the ground is devastated and deserted, <sup>12</sup> until the LORD completely removes the people far away, and there is a large abandoned area in the middle of the land. <sup>13</sup> Even if a tenth remains in the land, it will again serve as firewood. As the terebinth and the oak tree leave a stump when they are cut down, so a holy seed will be the stump of the land.”

7

An attack against Judah by Aram and Israel — 2 Kings 16:5, 2 Chronicles 26:5-15

<sup>1</sup> When Ahaz, the son of Jotham and the grandson of Uzziah, was the king of Judah, Rezin, the king of Aram, and Pekah, the son of Remaliah, and the king of Israel marched up against Jerusalem to fight against it but could not defeat it. <sup>2</sup> When the family of David was informed that the Arameans had made an alliance with Ephraim, the hearts of the king and his people were shaken as the trees of the forest are shaken by the wind. <sup>3</sup> Then the LORD told Isaiah: “Go out with your son Shear-Jashub to meet Ahaz at the end of the aqueduct of the Upper Pool on the track to the Fuller’s Field! <sup>4</sup> Tell him, ‘Be careful, stay calm and do not be afraid! Do not be fainthearted because of these two smouldering stumps of firewood, because of the fierce anger of Rezin and Aram and the son of Remaliah! <sup>5</sup> Do not be afraid because Aram, Ephraim and the son of Remaliah have planned evil against you, saying, <sup>6</sup> “Let us march against Judah, terrify them, conquer it for ourselves and make the son of Tabeel king over it!” <sup>7</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “It will not take place. It will not happen. <sup>8</sup> On the contrary, Damascus is the capital of Aram, and Rezin is the ruler of Damascus. Ephraim will be broken in pieces within sixty-five years, so that it will not be a nation any longer. <sup>9</sup> Samaria is the capital of Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah is the ruler in Samaria. If you do not believe, you will certainly not remain.””

A promise that a virgin will have a child

<sup>12</sup> However, Ahaz answered, “I shall not ask for one. I shall not put the LORD to the test.”

<sup>13</sup> Isaiah said: “Listen now, family of David! Is it too little for you to exhaust the patience of men, that you also exhaust the patience of my God? <sup>14</sup> Therefore, the Lord Himself will give you a miraculous sign: Look! The virgin will become pregnant and give birth to a Son and will call His name ‘Immanuel.’<sup>*127</sup> <sup>15</sup> He will eat curds and honey when He knows how to reject what is evil and choose what is good. <sup>16</sup> Indeed, before the Boy knows how to reject what is evil and choose what is good, the land that you dread because of its two kings will be deserted. <sup>17</sup> The LORD will bring on you, on your people and on the family of your father such days as have not come since Ephraim broke away from Judah. He will bring the king of Assyria. <sup>18</sup> On that day the LORD will whistle for the flies that are at the farthest part of the river-branches of Egypt and for the bees that are in the land of Assyria. <sup>19</sup> All of them will come and settle down in the steep valleys, in the crevices in the rocks, on all the thorn-bushes and at all the watering holes. <sup>20</sup> On that day the Lord will use a razor that is hired on the other side of the Euphrates River, that is, the king of Assyria, to shave the head and the hair on the legs and to take off the beard. <sup>21</sup> On that day a person will keep a young heifer and two sheep alive. <sup>22</sup> That person will eat curds, because they will produce so much milk. For everyone who is left in the land will eat curds and honey. <sup>23</sup> On that day every place where there used to be one thousand vines, worth twelve kilograms of silver, will become briars and thorns. <sup>24</sup> A person will come there with a bow and arrows. For the whole land will be briars and thorns. <sup>25</sup> You will also not go anywhere in the hills that used to be cultivated with a hoe, because you will be afraid of the briars and thorns. They will be places where oxen are let loose and where sheep tread.”

The birth of Isaiah's son as a sign of God's protection of Judah

<sup>3</sup> I slept with the prophetess. She became pregnant and gave birth to a son. The LORD told me: “Name him ‘Maher Shalal Hash Baz.’ <sup>4</sup> For, before the boy knows how to say ‘My father’ or ‘My mother,’ men will carry away the wealth of Damascus and the plunder of Samaria in front of the king of Assyria.”

A prediction that, although Assyria will invade the north, it will not conquer Judah

<sup>5</sup> The LORD spoke to me again: <sup>6</sup> “Because this people has rejected the gently-flowing water of Shiloah and rejoice over Rezin and the son of Remaliah, <sup>7</sup> therefore look! The Lord is bringing against them the mighty and copious water of the Euphrates River, the king of Assyria with all his glory. It will overflow all its channels and go over all its banks. <sup>8</sup> It will sweep through Judah. It will overflow and pass on until it reaches up to the neck. When he stretches out his wings, he will fill the breadth of Your land, O Immanuel.”

<sup>9</sup> Be in a bad situation, you peoples, and be terrified! Listen, all you distant parts of the earth! Strap on your armour but be terrified! Strap on your armour but be terrified! <sup>10</sup> Devise your strategy! However, it will be thwarted. Propose your plan! However, it will not succeed, because God is with us!

A prophecy that some in Jerusalem will stumble because they do not trust God

<sup>11</sup> For the LORD said this with His powerful hand on me, to warn me not to follow the ways of this people: <sup>12</sup> “You people shall not call everything a conspiracy that this nation calls a conspiracy! You people shall not fear what they fear! You shall not be terrified!”

<sup>13</sup> The LORD of hosts is the One whom you shall regard as holy. He is the One whom you should fear and the One who should terrify you. <sup>14</sup> He will become a Sanctuary, a Stone against which people collide and a Rock over which people stumble for both the families of Israel. He will become a Trapping-net and a Snare for those who live in Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup> Many people will stumble over them. They will fall and be broken. They will be trapped and caught. <sup>16</sup> Wrap up the Testimony! Seal up the Instruction among my disciples!

<sup>17</sup> I shall wait for the LORD, who hides His face from the family of Jacob. I shall hope in Him. <sup>18</sup> I am here with the children whom the LORD has given to me, to serve as omens and signs in Israel from the LORD of hosts, who lives on Mount Zion. <sup>19</sup> When people tell you, “Resort to the spirits of the dead and the soothsayers, who whisper and mutter,” should a person not resort to his God? Should he resort to those who are dead on behalf of those who are alive? <sup>20</sup> Resort to the Teaching and to the Testimony! If people do not speak according to this Word, it is because a person has not been intent on it.

A prophecy that Assyria will humble Galilee

<sup>21</sup> A person will pass through the land when he is dejected and hungry. When he is hungry, he will fall into a rage and curse his king and his God and turn to unfaithfulness. <sup>22</sup> He will look out towards the land and see only distress, darkness and oppressive gloom, while he is led astray in the darkness.

9

<sup>1</sup> However, there will be no more gloom for the land that has had such distress, when, in an earlier time, He had treated with contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali. However, in the later time He will bring glory to the Road beside the Sea, to the Land across the Jordan and to Galilee of the Gentiles.

A prophecy that a great light will shine in the north when a Child is born as the Prince of Peace

<sup>2</sup> The people who were walking in darkness will see a bright Light. A Light will shine on those who were living in a land of deep darkness. <sup>3</sup> You will enlarge the nation for them. You will make their joy great. They will rejoice before You as people rejoice at the harvest or like those who rejoice when they divide plunder. <sup>4</sup> For You will shatter the yoke that is a burden on them, the cane that is on their shoulders and the rod of those who forced them to work, as You did on the day of Midian. <sup>5</sup> For every warrior's boot that has been tramping in the noise of battle and every garment rolled in blood will be burnt as fuel for the fire. <sup>6</sup> For a Child will be born for us. A Son will be given to us. The government will be on His shoulder, and His name will be called: “Wonderful Counsellor,”

“Mighty God,” “Everlasting Father,” “Prince of Peace.”<sup>7</sup> There will be no end to the growth of His dominion and peace. He will be on the throne of David and over His kingdom, to make it firm and to support it with justice and righteousness from that time on and for ever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this.

<sup>8</sup> The Lord has sent a Message against Jacob. The Message has fallen on Israel.<sup>9</sup> All the people of Ephraim and the people who live in Samaria will know it. They say with pride and with arrogant hearts,<sup>10</sup> “Although bricks have fallen, we shall rebuild with dressed stones. Although sycamore fig trees have been cut down, we shall replace them with cedars.”

<sup>11</sup> The LORD will increase the adversaries of Rezin against them and will stir up their enemies,<sup>12</sup> the Arameans from the east and the Philistines from the west. They will devour Israel with open mouths. Despite all this, His anger has not turned away, and His hand is still stretched out.<sup>13</sup> However, the people have not turned back to the One who has struck them or been intent on the LORD of hosts.<sup>14</sup> So, on one day the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm-branch and reed-stalk.<sup>15</sup> The elder and the honoured man are the head. The prophet who teaches lies is the tail.<sup>16</sup> The leaders of these people have been causing them to go astray. Those who are led on by them are swallowed up.<sup>17</sup> That is why the Lord will not rejoice over their young men or have compassion on their orphans and widows. Each of them is alienated from God and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks godless folly. Despite all this, His anger has not turned away, and His hand is still stretched out.<sup>18</sup> For wickedness has been burning like fire. It consumes briars and thorns. It has been setting the thickets in the forest on fire, and they swirl up in a column of smoke.<sup>19</sup> The land has been scorched by the fury of the LORD of hosts, and the people have become like fuel for the fire. No one has pity on his brother.<sup>20</sup> Someone has cut up meat on the right and has still been hungry. Others have eaten on the left and have not been satisfied. They each eat the flesh of their own arms.<sup>21</sup> Manasseh devours Ephraim. Ephraim devours Manasseh. Together they attack Judah. Despite all this, His anger has not turned away, and His hand is still stretched out.

10

A pronouncement of woes against social injustice

<sup>1</sup> How horrible it will be for those who enact unjust prescriptions and who keep writing oppressive regulations,<sup>2</sup> to deprive helpless people of their legal claims, to rob those who are needy among my people of their rights, to make widows their spoil and to plunder orphans!<sup>3</sup> What will you do on the day of punishment, in the ruin that will come from far away? Where will you flee for help? Where will you leave your riches?<sup>4</sup> Nothing is left but to crouch among prisoners and to fall with those who have been killed. Despite all this, His anger has not turned away, and His hand is still stretched out.

A message from God about Assyria

<sup>5</sup> “How horrible it will be for Assyria, the cane that I use when I am angry! My wrath is the staff in their hands.<sup>6</sup> I shall send them against an ungodly nation. I shall give them orders against a people with which I am furious, to take spoil, to seize plunder and to trample on them like mud in the streets.<sup>7</sup> However, that is not what he will intend or what his mind will plan. Rather, he will intend to exterminate and to cut off many nations.<sup>8</sup> For they will ask, ‘Are not our commanders all kings?’<sup>9</sup> Is not Calno like Carchemish? Is not Hamath like Arpad? Is not Samaria like Damascus?’<sup>10</sup> As My hand has reached to kingdoms that have idols, that have had more carved images than Jerusalem and Samaria,<sup>11</sup> shall I not do to Jerusalem and its images as I have done to Samaria and its idols?”

<sup>12</sup> When the Lord has finished all His work on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, He will say, “I shall punish the king of Assyria for what his boasting has produced and for the haughty pride in his eyes.”<sup>13</sup> For he has been saying: “By my own strong hand I have done this and by my own wisdom. For I have had understanding, so that I do away with the boundaries of peoples. I have raided what they stored away, so that, like a despot, I subjugate the inhabitants.<sup>14</sup> My hand has reached out for the wealth of nations as someone finds a nest. As someone collects eggs that are left, I have collected the whole world. No one has been flapping a wing, opening his beak or chirping.”

<sup>15</sup> Should an axe brag against him who chops with it? Or should a saw boast against him who saws with it? As if a rod were to wield him who lifts it up or as if a staff were to brandish him who is not wood!<sup>16</sup> That is why the Lord, the LORD of hosts, will send a degenerative disease among his sturdy warriors. He will light a fire like a blazing flame.<sup>17</sup> The Light of Israel will become a fire, and its Holy One a flame. In one day this Flame will burn and consume his thorns and briars.<sup>18</sup> The LORD will consume the splendour of his forest and his orchard, both soul and body. It will be as when a sick person is wasting away.<sup>19</sup> The rest of the trees in his forest will become so few that a boy could write them down.<sup>20</sup> On that day the remnant of Israel, those of the family of Jacob who have escaped, will no longer lean on the one who has struck them but will lean on the LORD, who is truly the Holy One of Israel.<sup>21</sup> A remnant, the remnant of Jacob, will return to the mighty God.<sup>22</sup> Although your people, Israel, may be like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of it will return.

Destruction has been determined, overflowing with righteousness. <sup>23</sup> For the Lord, the LORD of hosts, is making a complete destruction, which has been determined, in the middle of the whole land.

<sup>24</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord, the LORD of hosts, has said: “My people who live in Zion, do not be afraid of the Assyrians when they hit you with a rod and raise their staff against you, as the Egyptians did! <sup>25</sup> For in a very little while My fury will come to an end, and My anger will be directed at their destruction.”

<sup>26</sup> Then the LORD of hosts will swing a whip against them, as He struck down Midian at the Rock of Oreb, and He will raise His staff over the sea, as He did with the Egyptians. <sup>27</sup> On that day his burden will be removed from your shoulders. Their yoke will be removed from your neck. The yoke will be destroyed because of the fatness.

A prophecy about invasion by the Assyrians

<sup>28</sup> He has come to Aiath. He has passed through Migron. He deposits his baggage at Michmash. <sup>29</sup> They have crossed over the pass. They have said, “We have lodged at Geba for the night.” Ramah has been trembling. Gibeah of Saul has fled. <sup>30</sup> Cry out with a shrill voice, O daughter of Gallim! Listen to it, Laish! O poor Anathoth! <sup>31</sup> Madmenah has fled. Those who live at Gebim have brought their possessions to safety. <sup>32</sup> This very day, when he stops at Nob, he will shake his fist at the mountain of the Daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. <sup>33</sup> Look! The Lord, the LORD of hosts, is cutting off his leafy branches with terrifying power. The towering trees that have grown high will be cut off. The tallest ones will be brought low. <sup>34</sup> He will use an axe to cut down the undergrowth of the forest. Lebanon will fall before the Mighty One.

11

A prophecy that a Shoot from Jesse's stump will rule the kingdom of God

<sup>1</sup> A Shoot will come out of the stump of Jesse, and a Branch from his roots will produce fruit. <sup>2</sup> The Spirit of the LORD will rest on Him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of advice and power, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD. <sup>3</sup> He will delight in the fear of the LORD. He will not judge by what His eyes see or decide by what His ears hear. <sup>4</sup> However, He will provide justice for needy people by means of righteousness. He will rebuke fairly for humble people of the earth. He will strike the earth with the rod of His mouth. He will kill wicked people with the breath of His lips. <sup>5</sup> Righteousness will be the belt around His waist. Faithfulness will be the belt around His hips. <sup>6</sup> The wolf will live like a foreigner with the young ram; the leopard will lie down with the young goat. The calf, the young lion and the fattened steer will be together, and a little boy will lead them. <sup>7</sup> The cow and the bear will graze together. Their young ones will lie down together. The lion will eat straw like the ox. <sup>8</sup> The nursing child will play near the hole of the cobra. The weaned child will put out his hand on the viper's nest-hole. <sup>9</sup> “People will not treat anyone badly or destroy anyone on My entire holy mountain.” For the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

<sup>10</sup> On that day there will be a Root of Jesse, who will stand as a flag for the peoples. The nations will resort to Him, and His resting-place will be glorious.

<sup>11</sup> At that time the Lord will again extend His hand to recover the remnant that is left of His people from Assyria, Egypt, Pathros, Cush, Elam, Babylonia, Hamath and the lands near the sea. <sup>12</sup> He will raise a flag for the nations, gather the dispersed people of Israel and assemble the scattered people of Judah from the four corners of the earth. <sup>13</sup> Ephraim will not be jealous any longer, and the enemies of Judah will be exterminated. Ephraim will not be jealous of Judah, and Judah will not be hostile towards Ephraim. <sup>14</sup> They will swoop down on the slopes of the Philistines in the west. Together they will plunder the people of the east. They will have control over Edom and Moab, and the people of Ammon will be subject to them. <sup>15</sup> The LORD will divide the inlet of the Egyptian sea. He will shake His fist against the Euphrates with His strong wind, smash it into seven streams and allow people to walk through them in their sandals. <sup>16</sup> There will be a highway out of Assyria for the remnant who are left of His people as there had been for Israel when it came up out of Egypt.

12

A hymn of praise from the people of God

<sup>1</sup> On that day you will say: “I shall praise You, O LORD. Although You have been angry with me, Your anger is turning away, and You are comforting me. <sup>2</sup> Look! God is my Salvation. I shall be confident and not be startled. Indeed, the LORD, the LORD, is my Protection and Might and He has become my Salvation.”

<sup>3</sup> You will joyfully draw water from the wells of salvation. <sup>4</sup> On that day you people will say: “Praise the LORD! Call on His name! Make His deeds known among the peoples! Proclaim that His name is exalted! <sup>5</sup> Sing to the LORD! For He has done sublime things. Let this be known in all the earth! <sup>6</sup> Rejoice and shout for joy, O inhabitants of Zion! For the Holy One of Israel, who is among you, is great.”

<sup>4</sup> Listen! There is a tumult in the hills! It is like the sound of many people. Listen! It is a tumult of kingdoms. Nations are gathering. The LORD of hosts is mustering an army for war. <sup>5</sup> They are coming from a distant country, from the end of heaven. The LORD is coming with the weapons that He uses in His anger to ruin the whole land. <sup>6</sup> Howl! For the day of the LORD is near. It will come like devastation from the Almighty. <sup>7</sup> That is why all arms will hang limp, and every human heart will melt. <sup>8</sup> They will be horrified. Pangs and labour-pains will take hold of them. They will writhe like a woman having a child. They will look at each other appalled. Their faces will be aflame. <sup>9</sup> Look! The day of the LORD is coming, a cruel day, with fury and blazing anger, to make the land a desolation and to destroy its sinners from it. <sup>10</sup> For the stars in the sky and their constellations will not let their light shine. The sun will grow dark when it rises. The moon will also not shed its light.

<sup>11</sup> “I shall call the world to account for its evil and wicked people because of their guilt. I shall put an end to the audacity of insolent people and bring the arrogance of tyrants down low. <sup>12</sup> I shall make a human person scarcer than pure gold and a human being rarer than gold from Ophir. <sup>13</sup> That is why I shall make the heavens tremble, and the earth will quake out of its place at the wrath of the LORD of hosts, yes, on the day of His burning anger.”

<sup>14</sup> Each one will be like a gazelle that has been frightened away and a sheep that has no one to gather it. Each of them will turn to his own people, and each of them will flee to his own land. <sup>15</sup> Everyone who is found will be pierced through, and everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. <sup>16</sup> Their little children will be dashed to pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be plundered, and their wives will be raped.

They will have no high regard for silver and will not delight in gold. <sup>18</sup> Rather, their bows will strike down young men. They will have no compassion on the fruit of the womb. Their eyes will not look with pity on children. <sup>19</sup> Then Babylon, the most glorious of the kingdoms, the proud splendour of the Chaldeans, will be like Sodom and Gomorrah when God overthrew them. <sup>20</sup> It will never be inhabited or lived in for all generations. No Bedouin will set up his tent there, and no shepherds will allow their flocks to lie down there. <sup>21</sup> Rather, desert-animals will lie down there. Their houses will be full of howling creatures. Ostriches will live there, and wild goats will leap about there. <sup>22</sup> Hyenas will howl in Babylon’s strongholds, and jackals will howl in the luxurious palaces. Its time has come near, and its days will not be prolonged.

14

A prophecy that Israel will be rescued from Babylon

<sup>1</sup> For the LORD will have compassion on Jacob. He will again choose Israel. He will settle them in their own country. Foreigners will join them and attach themselves to the family of Jacob. <sup>2</sup> Nations will take them and bring them to their own place. The family of Israel will make them their own possession as men-servants and maidservants on the land of the LORD. They will hold as captives those who had held them captive and will rule over those who had oppressed them.

A prophecy of the fall of the king of Babylon

<sup>3</sup> On the day when the LORD gives you relief from your hardship, your turmoil and your hard labour, in which you were forced to serve, <sup>4</sup> you will take up this saying against the king of Babylon: “How the tyrant has come to an end! How the demand for tribute has ended!” <sup>5</sup> The LORD has broken the stick of wicked people, the sceptre of rulers. <sup>6</sup> They were furiously striking peoples with floggings that did not stop. They were angrily dominating nations with persecution that no one restrained. <sup>7</sup> The whole world has begun to rest and be at peace. People have broken into happy jubilation. <sup>8</sup> Even the juniper-trees have been rejoicing over you, and the cedars of Lebanon are saying, “Since you have been laid low, no wood-cutter comes up against us.” <sup>9</sup> Sheol underneath has been trembling about you, about meeting you when you come. It is stirring up the spirits of the dead for you, all the leaders of the earth. It had made all who had been kings of the nations get up from their thrones. <sup>10</sup> All of them respond to you and say: “You also have become weak like us! You have become the same as we are!” <sup>11</sup> Your audacity has been brought down to Sheol with the music of your harps. Maggots have been spread under you, and worms cover you.” <sup>12</sup> How you have fallen from heaven, you morning star, you son of the dawn! You have been cut down to the ground, you who used to defeat nations! <sup>13</sup> Once you thought: “I shall go up to heaven and set up my throne above the stars of God. I shall sit on the mountain of assembly in the distant reaches of the north. <sup>14</sup> I shall go above the backs of the clouds. I shall consider myself equal to the Most High.” <sup>15</sup> Nevertheless, you will be brought down to Sheol, to the deepest reaches of the pit. <sup>16</sup> Those who see you will stare at you. They will examine you closely and ask: “Is this the man who used to make the earth tremble, who used to cause kingdoms to quake, <sup>17</sup> who made the world like a desert, overthrew its cities and would not release his prisoners to go home?” <sup>18</sup> All the kings of the nations, all of them, have lain down in honour, each in his own tomb. <sup>19</sup> You, however, have been thrown out of your burial place like a detested branch, covered with those who have been killed, with those pierced by the sword, with those who go down to the stones of the pit. Like a trampled corpse, <sup>20</sup> you will not be united with them in burial. For you destroyed your own country and killed your own people. The descendants of such evil-doers will never be mentioned again. <sup>21</sup> Prepare a place to slaughter their sons because of their ancestors' guilt, that they may not rise, take possession of the earth and fill the surface of the world with cities!

God's opposition against Assyria and the whole world

<sup>24</sup> The LORD of hosts has sworn an oath: "It will certainly happen as I have intended it. It will turn out as I have decided. <sup>25</sup> I shall smash Assyria in My country and trample it down on My hills, that its yoke may be taken off them and its burden may be removed from their shoulders."

<sup>26</sup> This is the Decision that has been taken for the whole earth, and this is the hand that is being extended over all the nations. <sup>7</sup> For the LORD of hosts has decided it. Who, therefore, will prevent it? His hand is extended. Who, therefore, will bend it back?

A pronouncement of punishment against the Philistines

<sup>28</sup> In the year when King Ahaz died, this pronouncement came: <sup>29</sup> "Do not be glad, all you Philistines, that the stick of the one who was striking you has been broken! For a viper will come out of that snake's root, and its offspring will be a winged, venomous snake. <sup>30</sup> The most miserable people will eat and needy people will lie down in safety, but I shall kill your root with famine, and it will slay those of you who survive."

<sup>31</sup> Howl, O city-gate! Call for help, O city! Despair, all you Philistines! For smoke is coming from the north, and there is no straggler in its ranks. <sup>32</sup> What answer therefore will be given to the messengers of that nation? Tell them that the LORD has laid the foundations of Zion! His needy people will take refuge in it."

15

A pronouncement against Moab

<sup>1</sup> A pronouncement about Moab: "Ar will be devastated in a night. Moab will be destroyed. In a night Kir in Moab will be devastated. It will be destroyed. <sup>2</sup> The people will go up to the Temple. Dibon will go up to the high places to weep. Moab will be wailing over Nebo and Medeba. There will be a shaved patch on all their heads, and every beard will be cut off. <sup>3</sup> In their streets they will be wearing sackcloth around their waists. On their flat roofs and in their open squares all of them will be wailing and dissolving in tears. <sup>4</sup> Heshbon and Elealeh will cry out. Their voices will be heard as far as Jahaz. The reason why the armed men of Moab will be crying aloud is that their hearts will quiver. <sup>5</sup> My heart is crying out for Moab. Its fugitives will go to Zoar, at Eglath-Shelishiyah. Yes, they will go up the ascent to Luhith while they weep. Yes, on the way to Horonaim they will keep on raising a cry over the destruction. <sup>6</sup> For the waters of Nimrim will be a wasteland. For the grass will wither. The green grass will fade away. Nothing green will be left. <sup>7</sup> That is why they will carry the wealth that they have gained and what they have stored up over the Wadi of the Poplars. <sup>8</sup> For the cry for help will go around the border of Moab. Their wailing will go as far as Eglaim. Their wailing will reach Beer-Elim. <sup>9</sup> Indeed, the waters of Dimon will be full of blood. Indeed, I shall bring additional calamities on Dimon. I shall bring a lion on the escaped survivors of Moab and on those who are left in their homeland."

<sup>1</sup> Send a young ram to the ruler of the land, from Sela, through the desert to the mountain of the daughter of Zion. <sup>2</sup> The daughters of Moab will be like a bird that flees from its abandoned nest at the crossing places of the Arnon. <sup>3</sup> "Give us advice! Make a decision! Make your shadow like the night at high noon! Hide the outcasts! Do not betray those who are fleeing! <sup>4</sup> Let the people who have been scattered from Moab live as foreigners in your country! Become their shelter from the destroyer!" When the oppressor comes to an end, when the devastation has ceased and when he who tramples underfoot has been taken away from the land, <sup>5</sup> a throne will be set up in mercy, and the Judge will sit on it perpetually in David's tent. He will pursue justice and be diligent in doing what is right. <sup>6</sup> We have heard about the audacity of Moab. He is very arrogant. We have heard about his arrogance, his audacity and his insolence. However, his idle boasting is untrue. <sup>7</sup> That is why Moab will wail. Each of them will wail for Moab. They will all mourn. Utterly destroyed, you will groan for the raisin-cakes of Kir-Hareseth. <sup>8</sup> For the terraced fields of Heshbon will wither, as well as the vines of Sibmah. The lords of the nations will trample down its tendrils. Once they had reached as far as Jazer and wandered out to the desert. Its shoots had been rampant and had crossed the sea. <sup>9</sup> That is why I shall weep in the way in which Jazer weeps, for the vines of Sibmah. O Heshbon and Elealeh, I shall wet you thoroughly with my tears. For the jubilant shouting over your summer-fruits and your harvest will cease. <sup>10</sup> Joy and gladness will be taken away from this orchard. No one will sing for joy in the vineyards. No one will shout for joy. No treader will trample out wine in the winepresses. I shall stop the jubilant shouting. <sup>11</sup> That is why my inner being is murmuring like a lyre for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir-Hareseth. <sup>12</sup> When Moab has appeared and when he has become weary on the high place, he will come into his holy place to pray but will not be successful.

<sup>13</sup> This is the Message that the LORD had spoken about Moab in the past. <sup>14</sup> Now therefore, the LORD has said: “Within three years, like the years of a hired labourer, the glory of Moab will be despised. Although its entire multitude is great, those who are left will be extremely few and feeble.”

17

A pronouncement against Damascus and Israel

<sup>1</sup> A Pronouncement about Damascus: “Look! Damascus will cease to be a city and will become a heap of ruins. <sup>2</sup> The cities of Aroer will be deserted and will be used for flocks, which will lie down without anyone to make them afraid. <sup>3</sup> The fortified city will disappear from Ephraim, and royal power from Damascus. The remnant of Aram and the glory of the people of Israel will be alike,” declares the LORD of hosts. <sup>4</sup> “On that day the glory of Jacob will be brought low, and his fat body will become lean. <sup>5</sup> It will be like a reaper gathering standing grain and harvesting the heads of grain in his arm, like someone gleaning heads of grain in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>6</sup> Only gleanings will be left in it. It will be like an olive tree that is beaten, with only two or three ripe olive berries left at the top of the highest branch and with only four or five on the branches of the fruit tree,” declares the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> On that day a person will pay attention to his Maker, and his eyes will look to the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>8</sup> He will not pay attention to the altars that his own hands have made or look to the Asherah posts and incense-altars that his own fingers have made. <sup>9</sup> On that day his fortified cities will be like the deserted forests and the hilltops, which they had abandoned because of the Israelites, and there will be a desolate waste. <sup>10</sup> For you have been forgetting the God who had saved you and have not been remembering the Rock that had protected you. That is why, although you set out the pleasant plants and plant the vine-cuttings of a strange god, <sup>11</sup> although you make them grow on the day when you plant them and although you make them sprout on the morning when you sow them, yet the harvest will flee away in a day of sickness and incurable pain.

The end allotted to Assyria and Babylon

<sup>12</sup> How horrible the turmoil of many peoples will be! They will roar like the roaring of the seas! How horrible the din of the nations will be! They will roar like the roaring of mighty waters! <sup>13</sup> The nations will roar like the roaring of many waters. However, when He rebukes them, they will flee far away. They will be chased away like chaff on the mountains before the wind and like tumbleweed before a storm. <sup>14</sup> Look! At the time of evening there will be terror. Before morning they will be no more. This is what has been allotted to those who used to plunder us. It will be the lot of those who used to rob us.

18

A pronouncement about Cush

<sup>1</sup> How horrible it will be for the land of whirring wings that is on the other side of the rivers of Cush!

<sup>2</sup> It sends ambassadors by sea and in papyrus boats on the surface of the water. Go, nimble messengers, to a nation that is tall and smooth-skinned, to a people that is feared near and far, a mighty nation, which tramples others down, whose country rivers divide! <sup>3</sup> All you inhabitants of the world, you who dwell on the earth, when a flag is raised on the mountains, you must look! When a horn is blown, you must listen! <sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD has told me: “I shall remain quiet and watch from My dwelling, like shimmering heat when the sun is shining, like a cloud of dew in the heat of the harvest.”

<sup>5</sup> For before the harvest, when blossoming is over and the flower develops into nearly ripened fruit, He will cut off the fruit-bearing vines with pruning hooks. He will clear away and tear off the spreading branches.

<sup>6</sup> They will all be abandoned to the birds of prey on the mountains and to the wild animals. The birds of prey will pass the summer on them, and all the wild animals will spend the winter on them. <sup>7</sup> At that time a people tall and smooth-skinned, a people that is feared near and far, a mighty nation, which tramples others down, whose country rivers divide, will bring tribute to the LORD of hosts at Mount Zion, at the place of the name of the LORD of hosts.

A proclamation against Egypt

<sup>5</sup> Then the water of the Nile will be dried up, and the river will be parched and dry. <sup>6</sup> The channels will smell foul. The branches of the Nile in Egypt will thin out and dry up. The reeds and rushes will wither.

<sup>7</sup> The reeds beside the Nile and beside the mouth of the Nile and all the sown land beside the Nile will wither, be blown away and be no more. <sup>8</sup> The fishermen and all others who cast fishhooks into the Nile will lament and mourn. Those who spread fishing nets on the surface of the water will pine away. <sup>9</sup> Those who work with combed flax and with white linen fabric at weavers' looms will be ashamed. <sup>10</sup> The weavers of the country will be crushed. The hearts of all who work for wages will be distressed. <sup>11</sup> The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish. The wisest counsellors of Pharaoh give senseless advice. How can you say to Pharaoh, "I am a son of wise men, a descendant of ancient kings"? <sup>12</sup> Where, then, are your wise men? They should tell you now, that they may know what the LORD of hosts has planned against Egypt. <sup>13</sup> The princes of Zoan have become foolish, and the princes of Memphis have been deceived. The cornerstones of Egypt's tribes have led it astray. <sup>14</sup> The LORD has poured into them a spirit of confusion, and they are making the Egyptians stagger in everything that they do, like a drunkard staggering around in his vomit. <sup>15</sup> There will be no work for Egypt that head or tail or palm branch or reed-stalk may do. <sup>16</sup> On that day Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and be startled because of the waving of the hand of the LORD of hosts. He will move His hand over them. <sup>17</sup> The land of Judah will terrify the Egyptians. Everyone to whom Judah is mentioned will be frightened by the plan that the LORD of hosts is forming against Judah.

A promise of blessing for Egypt, Assyria and Israel

<sup>18</sup> On that day there will be five cities in Egypt that speak the language of Canaan and that swear allegiance to the LORD of hosts. One of them will be called "The City of Destruction." <sup>19</sup> On that day there will be an altar to the LORD in the middle of Egypt, and a memorial stone to the LORD will be near its border. <sup>20</sup> They will serve as a sign and a witness to the LORD of hosts in Egypt. When they cry to the LORD because of those who oppress them, He will send them a Saviour and One who pleads their cause and He will rescue them. <sup>21</sup> The LORD will make Himself known to the Egyptians. The Egyptians will know the LORD in that day. They will serve Him with sacrifices and grain-offerings. They will make vows to the LORD and fulfil them. <sup>22</sup> The LORD will strike Egypt with a plague. When He strikes them, He will also heal them. When they return to the LORD, He will respond to their prayers and heal them. <sup>23</sup> On that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. The Assyrians will come to Egypt, and the Egyptians to Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians. <sup>24</sup> On that day Israel will be the third member grouped with Egypt, and Assyria to be a blessing in the middle of the world. <sup>25</sup> The LORD of hosts will bless them, saying: "Blessed are My people, the Egyptians and the Assyrians, whom My hands have made, and Israel, My inheritance."

20

A promise that there will be no alliance with Egypt and a warning that those who have been allied with Egypt will be ashamed

<sup>1</sup> It was in the year when the supreme commander, who was sent by Sargon, the king of Assyria, came to Ashdod. He fought against Ashdod and captured it. <sup>2</sup> At that time, the LORD spoke through Isaiah, the son of Amoz: "Come now, remove the sackcloth from your waist and take your sandals off your feet!"

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said: "As My servant Isaiah has been walking naked and barefoot for three years as a sign and a portent against Egypt and Cush, <sup>4</sup> so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Cush, young and old, naked, barefoot and with their buttocks uncovered, as the shameful exposure of Egypt."

<sup>5</sup> Then they will be dismayed and ashamed, because of the Cushites, in whom they had been hoping, and because of the Egyptians, who had been their pride.

<sup>6</sup> The inhabitants of this coastland will say on that day "Look! If this is what has happened to those in whom we had been hoping and to whom we had fled for help, to be delivered from the king of Assyria, how, then, shall we ourselves escape?"

21

A prophecy that Cyrus will capture Babylon

Then he answered: "Babylon has fallen. It has fallen! He has shattered to the ground all the images of its gods."

<sup>10</sup> O you who have been trodden down on the threshing-floor, I have told you what I have heard from the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel.

A pronouncement about Edom

night? Watchman, what is left of the night?"

<sup>12</sup> The watchman replied: "The morning is coming and also the night. If you must inquire, inquire! Come back again!"

A pronouncement against Arabia

<sup>13</sup> A proclamation about Arabia: O caravans of Dedanites, you will stay overnight in the undergrowth of Arabia. <sup>14</sup> Bring water for the thirsty person, you who live in the country of Tema! You have come to meet the fugitive with food. <sup>15</sup> For they have been running away from swords, from drawn swords, from bent bows and from the intensity of battle.

A pronouncement about Kedar

<sup>16</sup> For this is what the Lord has told me: "Within a year, as a hired man reckons years, all the glory of Kedar will end. <sup>17</sup> The remaining number of the archers, the warriors of Kedar, will also be few. For the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken."

22

A pronouncement about Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> A Pronouncement about the Valley of Vision: What has happened to you, then, that all of you have gone up on the housetops? <sup>2</sup> You are a city filled with shouting. You are a tumultuous and exultant city. Your slain men have not been slain by the sword or died in battle. <sup>3</sup> All your commanders have fled together. They have been captured without using their bows. All you who were caught were taken prisoner together, although they had fled far away. <sup>4</sup> That is why I have said: "Turn your gaze away from me! Let me weep bitterly! Do not insist on comforting me about the destruction of the daughter of my people!"

<sup>5</sup> For the Lord, the LORD of hosts, has chosen a day of panic, a day of trampling down and confusion in the Valley of Vision, a battering down of walls and a cry for help to the mountains. <sup>6</sup> Elam has taken up its quiver of arrows together with chariots, men and horses, and Kir has uncovered its shields. <sup>7</sup> The best of your valleys have been filled with chariots, and the horsemen have taken their positions at the gates. <sup>8</sup> He will uncover the defences of Judah. Although on that day you will look for weapons in the House of the Forest, <sup>9</sup> you will see that the breaches in the walls of the city of David are numerous. You will collect the water of the lower pool. <sup>10</sup> You will count the houses in Jerusalem and pull down the houses to make the wall impregnable. <sup>11</sup> You will make a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. However, you will not look to the One who is doing this. You will not consider Him who has planned this long ago. <sup>12</sup> On that day the Lord, the LORD of hosts, will call you to weep and mourn, to shave a bald patch on your heads and to fasten on sackcloth. <sup>13</sup> Instead, He will see joy and gladness, the killing of cattle and the butchering of sheep. You will be eating meat and drinking wine. You will be saying: "Let us eat and drink! For tomorrow we shall die." <sup>14</sup> The LORD of hosts revealed this in my ears: "Certainly no atonement will be made for you for this wrong until you die." The Lord GOD of hosts has said this.

A prophecy that Shebna's position will be given to Eliakim

<sup>15</sup> This is what the Lord, the LORD of hosts, has said: "Go, proceed to Shebna, this man who is in charge of the palace, and ask: <sup>16</sup> 'What is your business here and whom do you have here that you have cut out a tomb for yourself here, cutting it out in a high position and carving out a resting-place for yourself in the rock?'"

<sup>17</sup> Look, mighty man! The LORD will violently hurl you away. He will grasp you forcibly. <sup>18</sup> He will roll you up tightly and throw you, wrapped like a ball, into a wide-open country. There you will die, and your splendid chariots will be there. You are a disgrace to your master's family.

He will throw you down from your position.

<sup>20</sup> "On that day I shall summon My servant Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah. <sup>21</sup> I shall dress him in your tunic and fasten it with your sash. I shall hand your authority over to him, and he will be a father to those who live in Jerusalem and to the family of Judah. <sup>22</sup> I shall also place the key of the house of David on his shoulder. When he opens, no one will shut. When he shuts, no one will open. <sup>23</sup> I shall also drive him firmly in place like a peg, and he will become a throne of honour for his father's family. <sup>24</sup> People will hang on him the whole honour of his father's family, the offspring, the offshoots and all the small vessels, from bowls to jars of every kind. <sup>25</sup> On that day," declares the LORD of hosts, "the peg that is driven into a firm place will give way. It will be cut off and fall, and the load that had been on it will be eliminated." For the LORD has spoken.

23

A proclamation about Tyre

<sup>1</sup> A proclamation about Tyre: Wail, ships of Tarshish! For Tyre will be laid waste, without a home or a return home. The information has been announced from the land of Cyprus. <sup>2</sup> Be silent, you who live on the coastland! The merchants of Sidon, who go across the sea, will fill you. <sup>3</sup> The grain of Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, used to be its revenue on many waters. It had been the merchandise of the nations. <sup>4</sup> Be ashamed, O Sidon! For the sea has spoken, O stronghold of the sea! It has said: "I have neither laboured nor given birth. I have raised no young men and reared no virgins."

<sup>5</sup> When the news reaches Egypt, they will be in anguish over the news about Tyre. <sup>6</sup> Cross over to Tarshish! Wail, you who live on the coastland! <sup>7</sup> Is this your jubilant city, which originated in the distant past? Its feet used to carry it to live as a foreigner in distant places. <sup>8</sup> Who planned such a thing against Tyre, which used to distribute crowns, whose businessmen used to be princes, whose traders used to be renowned in the world?<sup>9</sup> The LORD of hosts has planned this, to defile all magnificent majesty and to humiliate all the honoured people of the earth.<sup>10</sup> Overflow your land like the Nile, daughter of Tarshish! There is no restraint any longer.<sup>11</sup> He has stretched his hand out over the sea. He has shaken kingdoms. The LORD has given the Command concerning Canaan to destroy its fortifications.<sup>12</sup> He has said: "You will not be jubilant any longer, crushed virgin-daughter of Sidon! Arise! Go across to Cyprus! Even there you will have no rest."

<sup>13</sup> Look at the land of the Chaldeans! This is the people that had not existed. Assyria had allocated it for desert-animals. They had erected their siege-towers. They had stripped her fortified palaces bare. They had made it a heap of rubble.<sup>14</sup> Howl, ships of Tarshish! For your fortress will be devastated.<sup>15</sup> At that time, Tyre will be forgotten for seventy years, like the lifetime of one king. At the end of seventy years, Tyre will fare as happened in the song about a prostitute:<sup>16</sup> "Take a lyre! Go around the city, you forgotten prostitute! Play your lyre well! Sing many songs, that you may be remembered."<sup>17</sup> At the end of seventy years, the LORD will be troubled about Tyre. She will go back to her prostitute's wages. She will act like a prostitute with all the kingdoms of the world on the surface of the earth.<sup>18</sup> Her trading profits and her prostitute's wages will be holy to the LORD. They will not be stored up or hoarded, but her merchandise will belong to those who live in the presence of the LORD, that they may have as much as they want to eat and splendid clothing.

24

A prophecy that God will punish the earth and have a great triumph

<sup>1</sup> Look! The LORD will lay the earth waste and devastate it. He will twist its surface and disperse the people living on it.<sup>2</sup> The same will happen to the priest as to the people, to the male slave as to his masters, to the female slave as to her mistress, to the buyer as to the seller, to the lender as to the borrower, to the creditor as to the one who has a creditor against him.<sup>3</sup> The earth will be completely laid waste and completely plundered. For the LORD has spoken this threat.<sup>4</sup> The earth will dry up and wither. The world will pine away and wither. The most elevated of the people of the earth will pine away.<sup>5</sup> The earth will be polluted under those who live on it. For they have transgressed the Laws, discarded the Prescription and broken the everlasting Covenant.<sup>6</sup> That is why a curse will consume the earth, and those who live on it will suffer for their guilt. That is why those who live on it will diminish, and only a few human beings will be left.<sup>7</sup> The new wine will dry up, and the vine will dry out. All the merry-hearted people will groan.<sup>8</sup> Joyful tambourine-playing will stop. The boisterous din of exultant people will cease. The joyful music of the lyre will stop.<sup>9</sup> No people will drink wine with a song. Strong drink will taste bitter to those who drink it.<sup>10</sup> The ruined city will be broken down. Every house will be shut up so that no one can enter.<sup>11</sup> There will be a cry of distress in the streets over the wine. All joy will become as dark as the evening. The gladness of the earth will disappear.<sup>12</sup> Horror will be left in the city. The city-gate will be battered to pieces and made desolate.<sup>13</sup> For it will be like this in the middle of the earth among the nations, like the knocking down of olives from an olive tree or like the gleanings when the grape harvest has come to an end.<sup>14</sup> People will raise their voices. They will shout for joy. From the west they will cry out joyfully about the majesty of the LORD.<sup>15</sup> Therefore, glorify the LORD in the eastern region of light! In the coastlands of the sea glorify the name of the LORD, the God of Israel!<sup>16</sup> From the ends of the earth we shall hear songs of praise, "Honour to the Righteous One!" However, I have been saying: "I am wasting away! I am wasting away! How horrible it is for me! Treacherous people have been acting treacherously. Yes, treacherous people have been acting very treacherously."

<sup>17</sup> Terror, a trapping-pit and a trapping-net will come on you who are living on the earth.<sup>18</sup> He who flees at the sound of the terror will fall into the trapping-pit, and he who climbs out of the trapping-pit will be caught in the trapping-net. For the windows from on high will be opened, and the foundations of the earth will quake.<sup>19</sup> The earth will be broken apart completely. The earth will be split apart. The earth will be violently shaken.<sup>20</sup> The earth will stagger like a drunkard. It will sway backwards and forwards like a hut. Its rebellion weighs heavily on it. It will fall and will not get up again.<sup>21</sup> On that day the LORD will punish the host of heaven in heaven and the kings of the earth on the earth.<sup>22</sup> They will be gathered like prisoners in a dungeon. They will be shut up in prison and after a long time they will be punished.<sup>23</sup> Then the full moon will be embarrassed, and the hot sun will be ashamed. For the LORD of hosts will be King on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, and His glory will be in front of His elders.

25

A response of praise and adoration

<sup>1</sup> O LORD, You are my God. I shall highly honour You. I shall praise Your name. For You have done wonderful things, which had been planned long ago.<sup>2</sup> For You have turned a city into a heap of stones, an unassailable city into a pile of rubble. A fortress of foreigners has ceased to be a city and will never be rebuilt.<sup>3</sup> That is why strong peoples will honour You, and cities of ruthless nations will fear You.<sup>4</sup> For You have been a Stronghold for the poor man, a Stronghold for the needy man in his distress, a Place of Refuge from heavy rain and a Shade from the heat. For the breath of ruthless men is like heavy rain against a wall, <sup>5</sup> like heat in a dry land. You will silence the uproar of foreigners. The song of ruthless men will quieten down like heat in the shadow of a cloud.

A promise that death will be swallowed up

<sup>6</sup> On this mountain the LORD of hosts will prepare for all peoples a banquet of rich food, a banquet with aged wines, rich foods full of marrow and refined, aged wines. <sup>7</sup> On this mountain He will destroy the surface of the shroud that is covering all peoples and the blanket that has been woven over all nations. <sup>8</sup> He will swallow up death for ever. The Lord GOD will wipe away tears from all faces and remove the disgrace of His people from the whole earth. For the LORD has spoken. <sup>9</sup> On that day people will say: "Look! This is our God. We have been waiting for Him to save us. This is the LORD, for whom we have been waiting. Let us rejoice and be glad that He has saved us!" <sup>10</sup> For the hand of the Lord will rest on this mountain. However, the Moabites will be trampled down in their place, like a heap of straw that is trampled down in a pile of manure. <sup>11</sup> They will spread out their hands in the middle of it like a swimmer who spreads his hands out to swim. The Lord will bring down their pride although their hands move skilfully. <sup>12</sup> He will demolish your high, fortified walls. He will lay them low. He will throw them down to the ground, to the very dust.

26

Songs of praise for salvation

<sup>1</sup> On that day this song will be sung in the land of Judah: "We have a strong city. He will set up salvation as its walls and ramparts. <sup>2</sup> Open the gates, that the righteous nation, which remains faithful, may come in! <sup>3</sup> You will preserve one who has a steadfast purpose in perfect peace, because he trusts in You. <sup>4</sup> Trust in the LORD for evermore! For the LORD, the LORD, is an everlasting Rock. <sup>5</sup> For He has cast low those who were living high up. He will lay low the towering city. He will lay it low to the ground and will throw it down to the dust. <sup>6</sup> The foot will trample on it, the feet of a needy person, the footsteps of powerless people."

has been reaching high up, they do not see it. Let them see it, and let them be ashamed because of the devotion of the people! Let the fiery anger for Your enemies consume them! <sup>12</sup> LORD, You will arrange prosperity for us. For You have also performed for us all that we have done. <sup>13</sup> LORD, our God, other masters besides You have been ruling over us, but, through You alone, we shall profess Your Name. <sup>14</sup> They are dead and will not revive. The departed spirits will not rise. To that end, you have punished and destroyed them and wiped out all memory of them. <sup>15</sup> You have enlarged the nation, O LORD. You have enlarged the nation. You have appeared in Your glory. You have extended all the borders of the land. <sup>16</sup> LORD, people have been searching for You in their distress. They poured out a whispered prayer when Your chastisement was on them. <sup>17</sup> Because of Your presence, O LORD, we have been like a pregnant woman who is close to giving birth and writhes and cries out in her labour-pains. <sup>18</sup> We have been pregnant. We have been writhing but have given birth only to wind. We do not accomplish deliverance for the earth, and more inhabitants of the world are not born. <sup>19</sup> Your dead will return to life. They will rise together with my dead body. Wake up and sing for joy, you who dwell in the dust! For your dew is the dew of daybreak, and the earth will give birth to the spirits of the dead. <sup>20</sup> Come, my people! Go into your private rooms and shut your doors behind you! Hide yourself for a brief moment, until the anger has gone past! <sup>21</sup> For look! The LORD is coming out from His place to call to account those who live on the earth for their guilt. The earth will reveal the blood spilt on it and will not cover up its slain any longer.

27

A statement about Leviathan

<sup>1</sup> On that day the LORD will use His hard, great and strong sword, to punish Leviathan, the fleeing snake, Leviathan, that writhing snake. He will kill the monster that is in the sea.

A declaration about God's delightful vineyard

<sup>2</sup> On that day there will be a beautiful vineyard. Sing its praises! <sup>3</sup> "I, the LORD, am its Keeper. I water it continually. I watch it night and day that no one may harm it. <sup>4</sup> I am not angry. If only I had thorns and briars to battle! I would stride out against them. I would set all of them on fire. <sup>5</sup> Otherwise, let them lay hold of My protection! Let them make peace with Me! Let them make peace with Me!"

<sup>6</sup> In times to come Jacob will take root, Israel will blossom, put out shoots and fill the surface of the world with fruit. <sup>7</sup> Will He strike Israel as He struck those who struck Israel? Or will He kill as He killed the others? <sup>8</sup> By driving them away and sending them away You will become their Adversary. By His fierce blast, He will expel them on a day with an east wind. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, in this way the guilt of Jacob will be atoned for, and this will be the full fruit of the removal of his sin: when he makes all the stones of the altars like chalk stones that have been smashed to pieces, no Asherah posts or incense-altars will remain standing. <sup>10</sup> For the fortified city will be isolated, a deserted and abandoned grazing-place, like the wilderness. There a calf will graze. There it will lie down and destroy its branches. <sup>11</sup> When its branches are dry, they will be broken off. Women will come and make fires with them. For this is a people without understanding. Therefore, He who has made them will have no compassion on them. He who formed them will not be kind to them.

A promise that God's people will worship on His holy mountain

<sup>12</sup> On that day the LORD will thresh out the grain from the channel of the Euphrates to the Brook of Egypt. People of Israel, you will be gleaned one by one. <sup>13</sup> On that day a loud horn will be blown, and those who had become lost in Assyria and those who had been driven out to Egypt will come and worship the LORD on the holy mountain in Jerusalem.

28

A proclamation that Samaria with its drunken leaders will fall.

<sup>1</sup> How terrible it will be for the splendid garland of the drunkards of Ephraim and the fading flower of its glorious beauty! Although they are at the entrance to a fertile valley, they are overcome by wine! <sup>2</sup> Look! The Lord has someone who is strong and powerful. Like a storm of hail, a calamitous tempest, like a storm with a powerful, overwhelming flood, He will violently dash them to the ground. <sup>3</sup> The splendid garland of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trampled underfoot. <sup>4</sup> The fading flower of its glorious beauty, which is at the entrance to a fertile valley, will be like an early fig before the summer. When someone sees it, he swallows it as soon as it is in his hand. <sup>5</sup> On that day the LORD of hosts will be a glorious crown and a beautiful wreath for the remnant of His people. <sup>6</sup> He will become a spirit of justice for him who presides as a judge and become a source of strength to those who drive back the battle at the city-gate.

A proclamation against the priests and the prophets

<sup>7</sup> These also have been reeling from wine and staggering from strong drink. Priests and prophets have been reeling from strong drink. They have become confused by wine. They have been staggering from strong drink. They have been reeling in vision; they have been staggering when they give decisions. <sup>8</sup> For all the tables are full of filthy vomit, so that there is no space left. <sup>9</sup> To whom will he teach knowledge and to whom will he explain a Message? To those who have just been weaned from milk, to those who have just been removed from a mother's breasts? <sup>10</sup> For it is "rule on rule, rule on rule, line on line, line on line, a little here, a little there." <sup>11</sup> For God will use people with stammering lips and with a strange language to speak to this people. <sup>12</sup> He has told them: "This is the place where it is quiet. Give rest to the person who is tired! This is the place to repose."

Nevertheless, they have refused to listen. <sup>13</sup> The Word of the Lord will become for them: "Rule on rule, rule on rule, line on line, line on line, a little here, a little there." As a result, they will go, stumble backwards, be broken, be snared and be captured.

A proclamation about evil rulers at Jerusalem who oppose the Cornerstone <sup>14</sup> Therefore, listen to the Word of the LORD, arrogant men who are ruling this people in Jerusalem!

<sup>15</sup> For you have been saying: "We have made a contract with death. We have made an agreement with Sheol. The flood will overwhelm but will pass through. It will not reach us. For we have made lies our refuge and hidden ourselves under falsehood."

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: "Look! I am the One who has laid a Stone as a foundation in Zion, a tested Stone, a precious Cornerstone, a sure Foundation Stone: The person who believes will not be dismayed. <sup>17</sup> I shall make justice the line and righteousness the plumb line. Hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and waters will overwhelm the hiding-place. <sup>18</sup> Then your contract with death will be cancelled, and your agreement with Sheol will not stand. The flood will overwhelm. When it passes through, you will become the thing that is beaten down by it. <sup>19</sup> Whenever it passes through it will snatch you. For it will pass through morning after morning, by day and by night. The understanding of this Message will bring nothing but terror. <sup>20</sup> For the bed is too short to stretch oneself out on, and the blanket is too narrow to wrap around oneself."

<sup>21</sup> For the LORD will rise up as He did on Mount Perazim. He will fly into a passion, as He did in the Valley of Gibeon, to do His work, His strange work, and to perform His task, His foreign task. <sup>22</sup> Now therefore, do not show yourselves to be mockers, that your chains may not be made stronger! For I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts that complete destruction has been decided against the whole land. <sup>23</sup> Open your ears and listen to what I am saying! Give attention and hear what I am telling you! <sup>24</sup> When a ploughman ploughs to sow seed, will he do it constantly? Will he keep on breaking up and harrowing his ground? <sup>25</sup> When he has smoothed its surface, will he not scatter dill, sow cumin and plant wheat in rows, barley in its own area and spelt on the edges? <sup>26</sup> His God instructs him what is right. He teaches him. <sup>27</sup> For dill is not threshed with a threshing sledge. A cartwheel is not rolled over cumin. Rather, dill is beaten out with a rod, and cumin with a stick. <sup>28</sup> Grinding is carried out to make bread. One does not go on threshing for ever. When he drives his cartwheel over grain with his horses, he does not grind it. <sup>29</sup> This also comes from the LORD of hosts. He has given wonderful advice and has made His sound wisdom great.

A prophecy that, in the siege of Jerusalem God's Word will be hidden from some but revealed to others

<sup>4</sup> When you have been brought low, you will speak from the ground. Your speech will be a muffled sound from the dust. Your voice will come from the ground like the voice of a ghost. Your words will be whispered from the dust. <sup>5</sup> Nevertheless, your many foreign enemies will be like fine dust. The large number of ruthless men will be like scattering chaff. This will happen quite suddenly. <sup>6</sup> You will be punished by the LORD of hosts with thunder, with earthquake and loud noise, with whirlwind, high wind and the flame of a devouring fire. <sup>7</sup> The large number of all the nations that fight against Ariel, yes, all that fight against it and its stronghold and oppress it will be like a dream, a vision in the night. <sup>8</sup> It will be like a hungry man who dreams that he is eating but wakes up to find that his throat has an unsatisfied longing. It will be like a thirsty man who dreams that he is drinking but wakes up to find that he is faint, and that his throat is dried out. The large number of all the nations who fight against Mount Zion will be like them. <sup>9</sup> Gaze at each other in horror and be horrified! Blind yourselves and be blind! Become drunk but not with wine! Stagger but not from strong drink! <sup>10</sup> For the LORD will pour out on you a spirit of deep sleep. He will tightly shut your eyes, which are the prophets, and will cover your heads, which are the seers.

<sup>11</sup> The vision about all this will become like the words in a sealed scroll for you. If people give the scroll to a man who can read and tell him, "Please read this!" he answers, "I cannot. For it is sealed."

<sup>12</sup> If the scroll is given to someone who cannot read, and he is told, "Please read this!" he answers, "I do not know how to read."

<sup>13</sup> The Lord has said: "Because this people has been coming near Me with their mouths and has been honouring Me with their lips, while their hearts have been keeping far away from Me, and their fear of Me is a commandment of men that has been taught them, <sup>14</sup> Therefore, look! I shall again do wonderful things with this people, with wonder on wonder. The wisdom of their wise men will become lost, and the intelligence of their intelligent men will be hidden."

<sup>15</sup> How horrible it will be for those who bury their plans deeply to conceal them from the LORD! Their deeds are done in the dark, and they ask, "Who sees us? Who knows us?" <sup>16</sup> Such is your perversity! Should the potter be regarded as the clay, that the thing that is made should say about the one who has made it, "He did not make me," or that a thing that is shaped should say about him who has shaped it, "He has not been intelligent"? <sup>17</sup> Is it not just a little while until Lebanon changes into a fertile land, and the fertile land is regarded as a forest? <sup>18</sup> On that day the deaf people will hear the Words of a scroll and, out of gloom and darkness, the eyes of blind people will begin to see. <sup>19</sup> Humble people will have joy after joy in the LORD, and the poorest of people will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. <sup>20</sup> For the ruthless man will be gone. The scoffer will be finished, and all who are intent on doing wrong will be cut off. <sup>21</sup> So also for those who use words to mislead a man into sin, those who lay a snare for the arbitrator in the city-gate and those who use trivial arguments to deprive an innocent person of his rights. <sup>22</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, has said about the family of Jacob: "Now Jacob will no longer be ashamed. His face will no longer now turn pale. <sup>23</sup> For when they see their children, the work of My hands, among them, they will keep My name holy."

They will treat the Holy One of Jacob as holy. They will be in awe of the God of Israel. <sup>24</sup> Then those who had gone astray in spirit will know and understand, and those who had been grumbling will learn insight.

30

A warning that Judah should trust in God instead of looking to Egypt for protection

<sup>1</sup> "How horrible it will be for those stubborn children!" declares the Lord, "They carry out a plan but not one of Mine. They use a drink-offering to conclude an alliance but without My Spirit. They carry away one sin after another. <sup>2</sup> They set out to go down to Egypt without asking for My direction. They take refuge in the protection of Pharaoh. They look for shelter in the shadow of Egypt. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, the protection of Pharaoh will become your shame, and the shelter in the shadow of Egypt will become your disgrace. <sup>4</sup> For, although his officials have been at Zoan and his messengers reach Hanes, <sup>5</sup> everyone becomes odious by using a people that cannot benefit them. It brings neither assistance nor benefit but shame and disgrace."

ceitful children, children who have refused to listen to the Instruction of the LORD. <sup>10</sup> They have been telling the seers, “You shall not see!” and those who have visions, “You shall not see visions for us! Speak smooth words to us! Have prophetic visions that are illusions! <sup>11</sup> Leave the road! Turn aside from the path! Stop speaking in our presence about the Holy One of Israel!” <sup>12</sup> Therefore, this is what the Holy One of Israel has said: “Because you have rejected this Word, have trusted in oppression and crookedness and have relied on them, <sup>13</sup> therefore this sin will become for you like a gap in a high wall, which is about to collapse and bulges out. It will crash quite suddenly. <sup>14</sup> It will break as a potter’s jar does when it is crushed so ruthlessly that no potsherd can be found in its fragments to use in carrying fire away from a hearth or in skimming water out of a cistern.”

<sup>15</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, has said: “You will be saved by turning back and being patient. You will be strong by keeping silent and by trusting.”

However, you have refused. <sup>16</sup> You have been saying, “No! Rather, we shall flee on horses.”

Therefore, you will flee. You have been saying, “We shall ride on fast horses.”

Therefore, those who pursue you will prove to be fast.

<sup>17</sup> One thousand will flee when one person threatens them. You will flee when five persons threaten you, until you are left like a flagstaff on the top of a mountain, like a flag on a hill.

A promise that God will heal His people’s wounds and give prosperity

<sup>18</sup> Therefore, the LORD will wait to be gracious to you. Therefore, He will rise to have compassion on you. For the LORD is a just God. Blessed are all who wait for Him! <sup>19</sup> For a people will live in Zion at Jerusalem. You will certainly not weep any longer. He will certainly be gracious to you at the sound of your cry for help. When He hears it, He will answer you.

<sup>20</sup> Although the Lord gives you the bread of trouble and the water of oppression, yet your Teacher will not hide Himself any longer. Your own eyes will see your Teacher. <sup>21</sup> Your ears will hear a voice coming from behind you, saying, “This is the way. Walk in it!” when you go to the right or when you go to the left.

<sup>22</sup> Then you will defile your silver-plated carved idols and your gold-covered molten images. You will scatter them like something contaminated. You will say to them, “Filth!” <sup>23</sup> He will give rain for your seed, with which you will sow the ground, and the food that the ground produces will be rich and delicious. On that day your livestock will graze in broad pastureland.

<sup>24</sup> The oxen and the donkeys that cultivate the ground will eat mash as fodder, which has been winnowed with shovels and pitchforks. <sup>25</sup> There will be channels of running water on every lofty mountain and every high hill in the day of heavy slaughter, when the towers fall. <sup>26</sup> The light of the full moon will be like the light of the sun. The light of the sun will be seven times as strong, like the light of seven days, on the day when the LORD bandages the fractures of His people and heals the wounds that He has inflicted.

A proclamation that God will triumph

<sup>27</sup> Look! The name of the LORD is coming from far away. His anger will be burning, and there will be heavy cloud. His lips will be full of fury, and His tongue will be like a devouring fire. <sup>28</sup> His breath will be like an overflowing torrent that reaches up to the neck. He will sift the nations with the sieve of destruction and will place on the jaws of the peoples a bridle that leads them astray. <sup>29</sup> You will have a song, as on the night when you keep yourselves in ritual purity for a holy feast. Your hearts will be joyful, like someone in a procession to the sound of a flute on the way to the mountain of the LORD, to the Rock of Israel.

<sup>33</sup> For a burning-place was prepared long ago. Indeed, it has been made ready for the king. He has made Assyria’s pile of wood deep and wide, with fire and plenty of logs. The breath of the LORD, like a torrent of sulphur, will set fire to it.

31

A warning not to trust in Egypt, because God will protect His people against Assyria

<sup>1</sup> How terrible it will be for those who go down to Egypt for help, who depend on horses and who trust in chariots because there are many of them and in horsemen because they are very strong! They do not look to the Holy One of Israel and do not consult the LORD. <sup>2</sup> He also is wise and may bring harm. He will not cancel His Words but will rise up against the families of evildoers and against the helpers of those who commit sin. <sup>3</sup> The Egyptians are human beings and not God. Their horses are flesh and not spirit. When the LORD stretches out His hand, the one who gives help will stumble, and he who receives help will fall. They will all perish together.

A prophecy that God’s sword will attack Assyria

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD has told me: “As a lion or a young lion growls over his prey when a band of shepherds is mustered against him, as he is not terrified by their shouting and does not cringe at their noise, so the LORD of hosts will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its hill.”

<sup>5</sup> The LORD of hosts will defend Jerusalem like birds that hover. He will defend and deliver it. He will pass over it and rescue it. <sup>6</sup> Return to Him, against whom the Israelites have deeply rebelled! <sup>7</sup> For on that day each one of you will reject his idols of silver and gold, which your own sinful hands have made for yourselves. <sup>8</sup> Then the Assyrians will fall by a sword that is not used by man. A sword not used by a human being will consume them. They will flee from the sword, and their young men will become forced labourers. <sup>9</sup> “Their stronghold will fall in fright, and their officers will abandon the flag in panic,” declares the LORD, who has His fire in Zion and who has His furnace in Jerusalem.

32

A declaration about the results of a righteous rule when God pours out His Spirit and brings peace

<sup>1</sup> Look! A king will reign righteously, and princes will rule justly. <sup>2</sup> Each ruler will be like a shelter from the wind, a protection in a rainstorm. They will be like streams of water in a dry place, like the shade of a heavy rock in an exhausted land. <sup>3</sup> Then the eyes of those who see will not look away, and the ears of those who hear will be fully alert. <sup>4</sup> The minds of rash people will be able to know, and the tongues of those who do not speak clearly will speak fluently and clearly. <sup>5</sup> The godless fool will not be called noble any longer, and people will not say that the scoundrel is honourable. <sup>6</sup> For the fool will speak folly, his mind will plan evil and he will behave wickedly. He will tell lies about the LORD. He will leave the throat of a hungry person empty and will deprive a thirsty person of drink. <sup>7</sup> The weapons of a scoundrel are evil. He plans wicked schemes to ruin poor people with lies, even when the claim of a needy person is just. <sup>8</sup> However, a noble person has planned noble things and will stand firm on things that are noble.

A warning against sinful women

<sup>9</sup> You carefree women, get up! Listen to what I am saying! You complacent women, hear what I have to say! <sup>10</sup> In a little more than a year you complacent women will be trembling. For the grape harvest will fail, and the harvest will not be brought in. <sup>11</sup> Tremble, carefree women! Quake, complacent women! Take off your clothes, make yourselves bare and tie sackcloth around your waists! <sup>12</sup> Beat your breasts as you wail for the beautiful fields, for the fruitful vines, <sup>13</sup> for my people’s land, where thorns and thorn-bushes will grow up! Yes, mourn for all the happy homes and for the joyful city! <sup>14</sup> For the fortress will be deserted. The noisy city will be abandoned. The stronghold and the watchtower will become wastelands for ever. They will be a delight for wild donkeys and a pasture for flocks, <sup>15</sup> until the Spirit is poured out on us from on high.

A promise of salvation

Then the wilderness will become a fertile field, and the fertile field will be considered a forest. <sup>16</sup> Then justice will dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness will remain in the fertile field. <sup>17</sup> Then righteousness will produce peace, and the effect of righteousness will be quietness and security for ever. <sup>18</sup> Then my people will live in a peaceful settlement, in secure dwellings and in undisturbed places of rest. <sup>19</sup> Although it will hail when the forest sinks down and the city is completely laid low, <sup>20</sup> how blessed you will be, as you sow your seed beside all the waters and as you let your cattle and donkeys roam freely!

33

A promise that Jerusalem will be rescued from Assyria

<sup>1</sup> How horrible it will be for you, you devastator, although you have not been devastated! It acts treacherously although others have not acted treacherously towards it. When you have ended your devastation, you will be devastated. When you have stopped acting treacherously, others will act treacherously towards you.

<sup>4</sup> Then, nations, your plunder will be gathered as the locusts harvest. Men will pounce on it like the infestation of swarms of locusts.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD is exalted. For He dwells on high. He will fill Zion with justice and righteousness. <sup>6</sup> He will be the security for your times and a rich store of salvation, wisdom and knowledge. The fear of the LORD is your treasure.

<sup>8</sup> The highways have been deserted. No one travels on the road any longer. He has broken the treaty. He has despised cities. He has had no regard for any human being. <sup>9</sup> The land has been mourning and languishing. Lebanon has felt ashamed and has withered away. Sharon has become like a desert region and Bashan and Carmel have dropped their leaves.

<sup>10</sup> “Now I shall arise,” says the LORD. “Now I shall lift Myself up. Now I shall exalt Myself. <sup>11</sup> You will be pregnant with dry grass. You will give birth to stubble. Your own breath is a fire that will burn you up. <sup>12</sup> Peoples will be burnt to lime. Like thorn bushes that have been cut down, they will catch alight in fire.

<sup>13</sup> “Listen, you who are far away, to what I have done! You who are near, acknowledge My power!”

<sup>14</sup> The sinners in Zion have been trembling. Quaking has gripped godless persons: “Who among us can dwell with a consuming fire? Who among us can dwell in a fire that burns for ever?”

<sup>15</sup> He who walks honestly and speaks the truth, who despises making gain through acts of oppression, who waves his hands to refuse to grasp a bribe, who blocks his ears from hearing about murder and closes his eyes so that they do not see evil, <sup>16</sup> such a person will dwell on high. He will take refuge in a high and rocky fortress. His bread will be given to him. His supply of water will be dependable. <sup>17</sup> Your own eyes will see the King in his beauty. They will see a land that extends into the distance. <sup>18</sup> Your mind will ponder about the frightful memories: Where is the scribe? Where is he who used to calculate the weight? Where is he who used to count the towers? <sup>19</sup> You will not see the insolent nation any longer, the people with an obscure speech, which you could not comprehend, stammering in a language that you could not understand. <sup>20</sup> Look at Zion, the city of our appointed feasts!

Your eyes will see Jerusalem as a settlement that is at ease, a tent that cannot be packed up. Its pegs will never be pulled out, and none of its ropes will be broken. <sup>21</sup> Rather, there the LORD will be our Mighty One, in a place where there are wide rivers and streams. No ship with oars will sail on them, and no majestic ship will go past. <sup>22</sup> For the LORD is our Judge. The LORD is our Ruler. The LORD is our King. He Himself will save us. <sup>23</sup> If your ropes hang loose, they cannot hold the base of their mast firm and do not keep the sail spread out. Then a large amount of plunder will be divided. Even lame people will carry away plunder. <sup>24</sup> No one living there will say, "I am ill." The people who live there will have their sins forgiven.

34

A prophecy of the fall of Edom, which is a glimpse of God's judgment

<sup>1</sup> Come closer, you nations, to listen! Pay attention, you peoples! The earth and all that fills it, the world and all that comes out of it, should listen! <sup>2</sup> For the LORD is angry at all the nations and furious against all their armies. He will totally destroy them. He will hand them over to be slaughtered. <sup>3</sup> Those of them who have been killed will be thrown out. A stench will rise from their corpses. The mountains will be melted with their blood. <sup>4</sup> The entire starry host will melt away, and the heavens will be rolled up like a scroll. Their entire host will decay, like leaves falling from a vine, like withering leaves from a fig tree.

<sup>5</sup> "For My sword will drink its fill in the heavens. Look! It will descend for judgment on Edom, yes, on the people whom I have marked down for total destruction."

pitch. <sup>10</sup> It will not go out by night or by day. Its smoke will go up for ever. It will lie in ruins from one generation to another. No one will ever pass through it. <sup>11</sup> However, the desert-owl and the porcupine will possess it. The ibis and the crow will live there. He will stretch the measuring-line of chaos and the depth-gauge of emptiness over it. <sup>12</sup> There will be none of its nobles there to call it a kingdom, and all its princes will have gone completely. <sup>13</sup> Thorns will grow over its palaces. Nettles and thorn-bushes will grow over its fortified cities. It will be a home for jackals and a haunt for ostriches. <sup>14</sup> Desert-animals will meet with hyenas. One shaggy goat will bleat to another. Indeed, the screech-owl will settle there and find a resting-place for itself. <sup>15</sup> Owls will make their nests there, lay eggs, hatch them out and care for them in its shadow. Indeed, there the birds of prey will gather, each one with its mate. <sup>16</sup> Search in the scroll of the LORD and read it! Not one of these will be missing. None will miss its mate. For the mouth of the Lord has commanded it, and His Spirit will gather them. <sup>17</sup> He Himself has cast the lot for them. His hand has allocated it to them with a measuring-line. They will possess it for ever. They will live there from one generation to another.

35

A prophecy that God's redeemed people will be happy

<sup>1</sup> The wilderness and the dry land will be glad. The desert will rejoice and blossom like a crocus. <sup>2</sup> The land will blossom richly. It will rejoice greatly and shout for joy. The glory of Lebanon will be given to it, the splendour of Carmel and of Sharon. These will see the glory of the LORD, the splendour of our God. <sup>3</sup> Strengthen the slack hands and make the stumbling knees firm! <sup>4</sup> Say to those whose hearts are dismayed: "Be strong, do not be afraid! Look! Your God will come with vengeance, with the retribution of God. He Himself will come and save you!"

<sup>5</sup> Then the eyes of blind people will be opened, and the ears of deaf people will be opened. <sup>6</sup> Then the lame man will leap like a deer, and the tongue of the dumb man will shout for joy. For water will gush forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert.

<sup>7</sup> Then the parched ground will become a pool, and the thirsty ground will become springs of water. In the haunts where jackals lay, the grass will become reeds and papyrus. <sup>8</sup> A highway will be there, a roadway. It will be named "The Holy Way." No unclean person will travel on it. It will be for those who walk on that way. Stubborn fools will not wander about there. <sup>9</sup> No lion will be there, and no predatory animals will come up on it. They will not be found there, but the redeemed will walk there. <sup>10</sup> Those whom the LORD has ransomed will return. They will enter Zion with singing. Everlasting joy will be on their heads. Gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and sighing will flee away.*<sup>130</sup>

36

The threatened attack on Jerusalem by Sennacherib — 2 Kings 18:13, 17-37, 2 Chronicles 32:1-19

<sup>11</sup> Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah told the chief cupbearer: "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic! For we understand it. Do not speak to us in the Jewish language while the people on the wall are listening!"

<sup>12</sup> However, the chief cupbearer asked them: "Has my master sent me to say these things to your master and to you? Has he not sent me to say them to the men sitting on the wall, when, like you, they will be eating their own dung and drinking their own urine?"

<sup>13</sup> Then the chief cupbearer stood up and shouted loudly in the Judean language: "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! <sup>14</sup> This is what the king has said: 'Hezekiah should not deceive you!' For he will not be able to deliver you. <sup>15</sup> Hezekiah should not persuade you to trust in the LORD by saying, 'The LORD will certainly deliver us. This city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.' <sup>16</sup> Do not listen to Hezekiah! For this is what the king of Assyria has said: 'Surrender to me! Come out to me! Then eat, each one of you, from his own vine and, each one of you, from his own fig tree and drink, each one of you, the water from his own cistern, <sup>17</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards!' <sup>18</sup> Beware that Hezekiah does not mislead you by saying, 'The LORD will deliver us!' Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>19</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Indeed, have they delivered Samaria from my hand? <sup>20</sup> Who among all the gods of these countries have delivered their lands from my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?"

<sup>21</sup> However, they remained silent and did not answer him at all. For the king had commanded: "You shall not answer him!"

<sup>22</sup> Then Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, who managed the palace, and Shebna, the secretary, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, went to Hezekiah, with their clothes torn and reported to him what the chief cupbearer had said.

37

Isaiah's prediction about deliverance for Jerusalem — 2 Kings 19:1-13

<sup>6</sup> Isaiah answered them: "This is what you shall tell your master, 'This is what the LORD has said: "Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have been blaspheming Me! <sup>7</sup> Look! I am putting such a spirit in him, that, when he hears a rumour, he will go back to his own land. Then I shall cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."'"

<sup>8</sup> When the chief cupbearer returned, he found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah. For he had heard that the king had left Lachish. <sup>9</sup> The king received a report about Tirhakah, the king of Cush: "He has set out to fight against you."

When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah: <sup>10</sup> "This is what you shall tell Hezekiah, the king of Judah: 'Your God, on whom you are depending, should not deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria!<sup>11</sup> Look! You yourself have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, devoting them to destruction. Will you yourself be delivered?<sup>12</sup> Have the gods of the nations delivered them, the nations that my forefathers have destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph and the people of Eden who were in Tel-Assar?<sup>13</sup> Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim or of Hena or of Ivvah?”

The prayer of Hezekiah — 2 Kings 19:14-19

<sup>14</sup> When Hezekiah had received the letter from the messengers and read it, he went up to the Temple of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD.<sup>15</sup> Hezekiah prayed before the LORD: <sup>16</sup> “O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, You who are enthroned between the cherubim, You, You alone, are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. <sup>17</sup> Turn Your ear, O LORD, and hear! Open Your eyes, O LORD, and see! Listen to all the words that Sennacherib has sent to insult the living God!<sup>18</sup> It is true, LORD, that the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the countries and their lands. <sup>19</sup> They have put their gods into the fire. For they were not gods but what men’s hands have made of wood and stone, and so they have destroyed them. <sup>20</sup> Now therefore, LORD, our God, save us from his hands, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You are LORD, You alone!”

A prophecy that Sennacherib will be defeated — 2 Kings 19:20-37, 2 Chronicles 22:20.

<sup>21</sup> Then Isaiah, the son of Amoz, sent a Message to Hezekiah: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said about what you have prayed to Me about Sennacherib, the king of Assyria: <sup>22</sup> ‘This is the Word that the LORD has spoken against him: “The virgin, the daughter of Zion, has despised you! She has ridiculed you! The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head behind you! <sup>23</sup> Whom have you insulted and blasphemed? Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel! <sup>24</sup> Through your officials you have been insulting the Lord. You have been saying, ‘With my many chariots I myself have gone up the heights of the mountains, to the most distant part of Lebanon. I have cut down its tallest cedars, its choicest juniper-trees. I have entered its most remote height, its densest forest. <sup>25</sup> I myself have dug wells and drunk waters! I have dried up all the branching streams of Egypt with the soles of my feet!’” <sup>26</sup> Have you not heard? I prepared it long ago. I shaped from days of old what I have now caused to happen, that you should be turning fortified cities into desolate heaps of ruins. <sup>27</sup> Their inhabitants, stripped of their power, have been filled with terror and become ashamed. They had been like plants in the field and like fresh green grass. Like grass on the housetops, they have now been scorched before they have grown up. <sup>28</sup> However, I know where you sit down, when you go out, when you come in and how you are working yourself into a passion against Me. <sup>29</sup> Because you have worked yourself into a passion against Me and your smugness has come up into My ears, I shall put My hook through your nose and My bridle through your lips and make you go back by the way on which you have come.” <sup>30</sup> This will be the sign for you: This year eat what grows by itself and in the second year what grows of its own accord. Then in the third year sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit! <sup>31</sup> What has been spared from the family of Judah and is left will again take root down below and bear fruit up above. <sup>32</sup> For a remnant will come out of Jerusalem, and what has been spared will come out of Mount Zion. The eager devotion of the LORD of hosts will accomplish this. <sup>33</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said about the king of Assyria: ‘He will not come into this city, he will not shoot an arrow there. He will not come before it with a shield or heap a siege-mound up against it. <sup>34</sup> He will go back on the way by which he came and will not enter this city,’ declares the LORD. <sup>35</sup> ‘For I shall protect this city and save it, for My own sake and for the sake of My servant David.’”

The defeat and death of Sennacherib — 2 Kings 19:35-37

<sup>36</sup> The angel of the LORD went out and struck down one hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. When people got up in the morning, they saw all the dead bodies. <sup>37</sup> Then Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, broke camp and withdrew. He went back to Nineveh and stayed there. <sup>38</sup> While he was worshipping in the temple of his god Nisroch, Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword and escaped to the land of Ararat. Then his son Esarhaddon succeeded him as king.

The cure of Hezekiah’s illness — 2 Kings 20:1-11, 2 Chronicles 32:24-26

<sup>1</sup> In those days Hezekiah became ill and was dying. The prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, came to him and told him: “This is what the LORD has said, ‘Give instructions to your family! For you will die. You will not recover.’”

<sup>2</sup> Then he turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD. <sup>3</sup> He said: “Oh, please, LORD, please remember that I have been living before You faithfully and with complete loyalty! I have been doing what You consider good.”

Hezekiah wept very much. <sup>4</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to Isaiah: <sup>5</sup> “Go and tell Hezekiah: ‘This is what the LORD, the God of your ancestor David, has said: “I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Look! I shall add fifteen years to your life. <sup>6</sup> I shall also deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria and defend this city. <sup>7</sup> This will also be the sign for you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing, which He has promised.

<sup>8</sup> Look! I shall make the shadow cast by the sun move back the ten intervals by which it has gone down on the sundial of Ahaz.”””

Therefore, the sunlight on the sundial moved back the ten intervals by which it had gone downwards.

Hezekiah's thanksgiving after his recovery

<sup>9</sup> This is a writing of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, after he had been sick and had recovered from his sickness: <sup>10</sup> “I myself had thought, ‘I must depart at the halfway point of my life to the gates of Sheol. I have been summoned away for the rest of my years.’ <sup>11</sup> I had thought, ‘I shall not see the LORD, the LORD, in the land of the living. I shall no longer look on another human being when I am among the inhabitants of the underworld.’ <sup>12</sup> My dwelling-place had been pulled out and laid bare away from me like a shepherd’s tent. I had rolled up my life like a weaver. He was going to cut me off from the warp on the loom. From day to night You were going to bring me to an end. <sup>13</sup> I had waited patiently until morning. Like a lion, He was going to smash all my bones. From day to night You were going to bring me to an end. <sup>14</sup> I was chirping like a swallow or a songbird. I was moaning like a dove. My eyes were weak from looking to heaven: ‘O Lord, I am oppressed. Support my cause!’ <sup>15</sup> What shall I say? Yes, He spoke to me and He Himself has done it. I shall walk deliberately all my years because of this bitterness of my soul. <sup>16</sup> O Lord, people live as they rely on these things, and everything in these things possesses the life of my spirit. May You restore me to health and keep me alive! <sup>17</sup> Look! It was for my own welfare that I had My great bitterness. You Yourself have lovingly delivered my life from the pit of corruption. For You have thrown all my sins behind Your back. <sup>18</sup> For Sheol does not thank You. Death does not praise You. Those who go down to the pit do not wait for Your faithfulness. <sup>19</sup> The living person, the living person alone is the one who will thank You, as I am doing today. A father will make Your faithfulness known to his children. <sup>20</sup> The LORD is going to save me, and we shall play my music on stringed instruments all the days of our lives at the Temple of the LORD.”

<sup>21</sup> Isaiah had said, “People should take a pressed cake of figs and spread it over the ulcer, that he may recover.” <sup>22</sup> Hezekiah had also asked, “What is the sign that I shall go up to the Temple of the LORD?”

39

Hezekiah's permission for envoys from Babylon to inspect the treasures in Jerusalem — 2 Kings 20:12-19, 2 Chronicles 32:31-33

<sup>1</sup> At that time Merodach-Baladan, the son of Baladan, the king of Babylon, sent a letter and a gift to Hezekiah. He had also heard that Hezekiah had been ill and had recovered. <sup>2</sup> Hezekiah was glad about the messengers and showed them his treasure house, the silver, the gold, the perfumes, the precious oil, his whole armoury and all that was available in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house or in his entire realm that Hezekiah did not show them. <sup>3</sup> Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and asked him, “What did these men say? From where did they come to you?”

Hezekiah answered, “They came to me from a distant country, from Babylon.”

Hezekiah answered: “They have seen everything in my palace. There has not been anything in my storehouses that I have not shown them.”

<sup>7</sup> Then Isaiah told Hezekiah: “Hear the Word of the LORD of hosts: <sup>6</sup> ‘Look! The days are coming when everything that is in your palace and that your fathers have stored up until this day will be carried away to Babylon. Nothing will be left.’ The LORD has said so. <sup>7</sup> ‘Some of your own descendants, who will come from you, whose father you will be, will be taken away and will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.’”

<sup>8</sup> Hezekiah answered Isaiah: “The Word of the LORD, which you have spoken, is good.”

For he thought, “There will be peace and security in my lifetime.”

Comfort, consolation and promise — compare v. 3-5 with Luke 3:4-6

<sup>2</sup> “Speak kindly to Jerusalem and announce to it that its compulsory military service is over, that its iniquity has been paid for and that it has received a double equivalent from the hand of the LORD for all its sins!”

<sup>3</sup> A voice of someone calling out in the wilderness: “Prepare a road for the LORD! Make a smooth highway in the desert for our God! <sup>4</sup> Every valley must be raised up, and every mountain and hill must be levelled! The uneven land must become a plain, and the rugged ground must become a plain!

<sup>5</sup> The glory of the LORD will be revealed, and every human being will see it together.” For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

He kept asking, “What shall I announce?”

“All human beings are like grass, and all their beauty is like a flower in the field. <sup>7</sup> Grass dries up, and a flower withers. For a breath from the LORD blows on it. Certainly, the people are grass! <sup>8</sup> Grass dries up, and a flower withers, but the Word of our God will endure for ever.”

<sup>9</sup> O Zion, you who bring good news, go up on a high mountain! O Jerusalem, you who bring good news, raise your voice loudly! Raise it! Do not be afraid! Say to the cities of Judah: “Here is your God!”

<sup>10</sup> Look! The Lord GOD will come as a Mighty One, and His arm will rule for Him. Look! His reward will be with Him, and what He has accomplished will go before Him. <sup>11</sup> He will take care of His flock like a shepherd. He will gather the lambs in His arm. He will carry them in His lap. He will carefully guide those that are suckling young ones.

A promise that the all-powerful God will give strength to those who depend on Him

<sup>12</sup> Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand and calculated the size of the sky with the span of his hand? Who has held the dust of the earth in a one-third measure and weighed the mountains on a scale and the hills on a balance? <sup>13</sup> Who has determined the Spirit of the LORD, and what man can be His adviser to instruct Him? <sup>14</sup> Whom has He consulted? Who has given Him understanding? Who has instructed Him about the path of justice? Who has taught Him knowledge, and who can inform Him about the way to understanding? <sup>15</sup> Look! The nations are like a drop from a bucket. They have been regarded as dust on a balance. Look! He weighs the coastlands like fine dust. <sup>16</sup> There is not enough wood in Lebanon to light a fire, and its animals are not enough for a burnt offering. <sup>17</sup> All the nations are like nothing before Him. He considers them less than nothing and worthless. <sup>18</sup> To whom will you compare God? To which likeness will you equate Him? <sup>19</sup> To an idol? A craftsman has cast it, a goldsmith overlays it with gold and a smith makes silver chains for it. <sup>20</sup> A man who is too poor for such an offering chooses wood that will not rot. He searches for a skilful craftsman for himself to set up an idol that will not topple.

<sup>21</sup> Do you not know? Do you not hear? Have you not been told from the beginning? Have you not understood the foundations of the earth? <sup>22</sup> He is the One who is enthroned above the circle of the earth, and those who live on it are like grasshoppers. He stretches out the heavens like a veil and spreads them out like a tent to live in. <sup>23</sup> He reduces princes to nothing. He has made the rulers of the earth worthless. <sup>24</sup> Indeed, they have hardly been planted, they have hardly been sown and their stem has hardly taken root in the ground, when He has blown on them, they have dried out and a windstorm carries them away like stubble.

<sup>25</sup> "To whom will you compare Me, that I should be equal to him?" asks the Holy One. <sup>26</sup> Lift up your eyes on high and see! Who has created these? He brings out their army by number. He calls them all by name. Because of His great power and mighty strength, not one of them is missing. <sup>27</sup> Jacob, why do you say, and Israel, why do you complain, "My way has been hidden from the LORD, and my just claim is disregarded by my God?" <sup>28</sup> Do you not know? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not become tired or weary. His understanding is unsearchable.

<sup>29</sup> He gives power to weary people and increases the strength of those who have no vigour. <sup>30</sup> Even young people will become tired, and weary and young men will indeed stumble, <sup>31</sup> but those who wait on the LORD will receive new strength. They will cause their feathers to grow like eagles. They will run and not become weary. They will walk and not grow tired.

41

A prophecy about a conqueror sent by God

<sup>1</sup> "You coastlands, listen to Me in silence! Let the peoples gain new strength! Let them approach! Then let them speak! Let us come closely together for a trial! <sup>2</sup> Who has stirred up from the east one whom victory meets wherever he goes? He will hand nations over to him and subdue kings. He will use his sword to make them like dust and use his bow to make them like stubble that is blown about. <sup>3</sup> He will pursue them and pass on safely. He will not come by foot on any road. <sup>4</sup> Who has performed and done this, summoning the generations from the beginning? I, the LORD, have been the First and, with those who are last, I am He."

A warning against the making of idols in an attempt to avoid the threat

<sup>6</sup> Each one helps another and tells his brother, "Be brave!" <sup>7</sup> The craftsman encourages the goldsmith. The one who smoothes out with a hammer encourages the one who strikes with a small hammer. He says, about the soldering, "It is good." He fastens it with nails to prevent it from toppling.

God's address to Israel as His servant

<sup>8</sup> "However, you, Israel, My servant, Jacob, whom I have chosen, the offspring of Abraham, My friend, <sup>9</sup> you whom I have seized from the ends of the earth and summoned from its remotest parts, I have told you, 'You are My servant. I have chosen you and have not rejected you.' <sup>10</sup> Do not be afraid! For I am with you. Do not be alarmed! For I am your God. I shall strengthen you. Yes, I shall help you. Yes, I shall support you with My righteous right hand. <sup>11</sup> Look! All who are angry with you will be ashamed and humiliated. Those who oppose you will be as nothing and will perish. <sup>12</sup> You will search for those who are hostile towards you but will not find them. Those who are at war with you will be as nothing, yes, as altogether nothing. <sup>13</sup> For I, the LORD, your God, am grasping your right hand. It is I who am telling you, 'Do not be afraid! I shall help you. <sup>14</sup> Do not be afraid, Jacob, you worm! You people of Israel, I shall help you,'" declares the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>15</sup> "Look! I shall make you into a threshing sledge, sharp, new and one with double-edges. You will thresh the mountains and crush them to dust and turn the hills into chaff. <sup>16</sup> You will winnow them. The wind will carry them away, and a gale will scatter them.”

However, you will rejoice in the LORD. You will boast in the Holy One of Israel. <sup>17</sup> Poor and needy people are looking for water, but there is none. Their tongues have been parched with thirst.

“I, the LORD, shall answer them. I, the God of Israel, shall not forsake them. <sup>18</sup> I shall make rivers flow on barren heights and make springs flow in the middle of valleys. I shall turn the wilderness into a pool of water and dry land into springs of water. <sup>19</sup> I shall put the cedar, the acacia, the myrtle and the olive in the wilderness. I shall set the cypress, the fir and the box tree together in the desert, <sup>20</sup> that people may see and know, that together they may take it to heart and understand, that the hand of the LORD has done this and that the Holy One of Israel has created it.”

<sup>22</sup> They should adduce it, that they may tell us what will happen. Tell us what events have taken place in the past, that we may consider them and know what their outcome will be! Or declare future events to us!

<sup>23</sup> Predict what is going to happen later, that we may know that you are gods! You really should do some good or do some harm, that we may be afraid and see it completely! <sup>24</sup> Look! You are less than nothing, and your achievement is less than worthless. Whoever chooses you is disgusting.

<sup>25</sup> “I shall stir up someone from the north, and he will come. He will call on My name from the sunrise, that he may come against officials of state as if they were earth and as if he were a potter treading on clay.”

<sup>26</sup> Who has predicted this from the beginning, that we may know it? Who has told this beforehand, that we may say, “He has been correct?” There was no one at all who predicted it. There was no one at all who proclaimed it. There was no one at all who heard any words from you.

<sup>27</sup> “I was the first to tell Zion, ‘Look! Here they are!’ I was also giving Jerusalem a messenger to tell the good news. <sup>28</sup> When I look, there is no one. There is not even one among these who can give advice. There is no one who will give an answer when I ask them a question. <sup>29</sup> Look! They are all deceptive. Their works are nothing. Their metal images are wind and emptiness.”

42

The first song about God’s Messianic Servant, who will bring righteousness to the world

<sup>1</sup> “Here is My Servant, whom I support, My Chosen One, in whom I delight! I have put My Spirit on Him. He will bring righteousness to the nations.

<sup>2</sup> He will not cry out. He will not raise His voice or make His voice heard in the street. <sup>3</sup> He will not break off a bruised reed or extinguish a smoulder-

ing wick. He will faithfully bring forth justice. <sup>4</sup> He will not become faint and will not be broken until He establishes justice on the earth. The coastlands will wait for His teaching.”

<sup>5</sup> This is what God, the LORD, has said, the One who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth, together with what comes out of it, who gives breath to the people who are on it and spirit to those who walk on it: <sup>6</sup> “I am the LORD. I have called You in righteousness, that I may grasp Your hand and watch over You and that I may appoint You as a Covenant for the people and as a Light for the Gentiles, <sup>7</sup> to open eyes that are blind, to bring captives out of the dungeon and to bring those who live in darkness from the prison house. <sup>8</sup> I am the LORD. That is My Name, and I shall not give My glory to another or My praise to idols. <sup>9</sup> Look! The former predictions have taken place, and I am predicting new things. I am causing you to hear them before they spring up.”

A battle hymn about God

<sup>10</sup> Sing a new song to the LORD! Sing His praise from the end of the earth, people who go down to the sea, all that fills it, coastlands and you who live on them! <sup>11</sup> Let the wilderness, its cities and those who live in the settlements of Kedar lift up their voices! Let the people who live in Sela sing for joy! Let them shout loudly from the tops of the mountains! <sup>12</sup> Let them give glory to the LORD and let them proclaim His praise in the coastlands! <sup>13</sup> The LORD will march out like a warrior. He will stir up His fighting spirit like a man of war. He will raise a war-cry. Yes, He will raise a battle-cry. He will prevail over His enemies.

<sup>14</sup> “I have been silent for a long time. I used to keep quiet and hold Myself back. Now I shall moan like a woman in labour. I shall pant and gasp at the same time. <sup>15</sup> I shall lay waste mountains and hills and cause all their vegetation to wither. I shall turn rivers into islands. I shall dry up swamplands. <sup>16</sup> I shall lead blind people on a road that they have not known. I shall guide them on paths that they have not known. I shall turn the darkness into light before them and the rough places into level ground. These are the things that I shall do. I shall not abandon them. <sup>17</sup> Those who trust in idols and those who tell metal images, ‘You are our gods’ will turn back and will be deeply ashamed.

A warning that Israel is blind and deaf, but a promise that God will bring Israel home righteousness. He will make the Teaching great and will make it glorious. <sup>22</sup> However, this is a people that has been plundered and looted. He traps all of them in pits, and they have been hidden in prison houses. They have become plunder with no one to rescue them. They have become booty without anyone to say, "Give it back!" <sup>23</sup> Who among you will listen to this? Who will pay attention and listen in the future? <sup>24</sup> Who has handed Jacob over as booty and handed Israel to the plunderers? Has it not been the LORD? We have been sinning against Him. They have been refusing to walk in His Ways. They have not been listening to His Instruction. <sup>25</sup> He has poured His burning anger and the might of war on them. It has scorched them on every side. However, they have not understood. Although it has burnt them, they have not taken it to heart.

<sup>18</sup> “Listen, deaf people! Look, blind people, that you may see! <sup>19</sup> Who is blind except My servant or deaf like My messenger, whom I am sending? Who is blind like the one who is to be rewarded or blind like the servant of the LORD? <sup>20</sup> Although you see many things, you do not pay any attention. Although his ears are open, he does not hear anything.”

43

God's declaration that the people are His own

<sup>1</sup> Now, however, this is what the LORD has said, He who created you, O Jacob, He who formed you, O Israel: "Do not be afraid! For I have redeemed you. I have called you by your name. You are Mine. <sup>2</sup> When you go through the waters, I shall be with you. When you go through rivers, they will not flood over you. When you walk through fire, you will not be scorched, and the flames will not burn you. <sup>3</sup> For I am the LORD, your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour. I have given Egypt as a ransom for you, Sudan and Seba in exchange for you. <sup>4</sup> Since you have been precious in My sight, you have been honoured, and I Myself have loved you. Therefore, I shall give other human beings in exchange for you and nations in exchange for your life. <sup>5</sup> Do not be afraid! For I am with you. I shall bring your descendants from the east and gather you from the west. <sup>6</sup> I shall tell the north, 'Give them up!' and the south, 'Do not keep them back!' Bring My sons from far away and My daughters from the ends of the earth! <sup>7</sup> Bring everyone who is called by My name, whom I have created for My glory, whom I have formed and made!"

<sup>8</sup> Bring out those people, who are blind, although they have eyes, and those who are deaf, although they have ears! <sup>9</sup> All the nations have gathered and peoples are assembling. Who among them was predicting this and was informing us about former things? Let them produce their witnesses, that they may prove that they have been right! Let them listen and say, "It is true!"

<sup>10</sup> "You are My witnesses," declares the LORD. "You are My servant, whom I have chosen, that you may know, and that you may believe in Me and understand that I am He. No god had been formed before Me, and there will be none after Me. <sup>11</sup> I, I am the LORD, and there is no Saviour except Me. <sup>12</sup> I Myself have announced it. I shall save and I shall proclaim it, and not some strange god among you. You are My witnesses," declares the LORD, "and I am God. <sup>13</sup> Indeed from the first day on I have been He, and no one can deliver from My hand. When I do something, who can cancel it?"

<sup>14</sup> This is what the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel, has said: "For your sake I have sent to Babylon. I shall bring down all of them as fugitives, yes, the Chaldeans, in the ships in which they had taken pride. <sup>15</sup> I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King."

A prediction of a new exodus when God forgives Israel's past sin

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD has said — who makes a road through the sea and a path through the mighty waters, <sup>17</sup> who leads out chariots and horses, an army and reinforcements together, so that they lie down and do not get back up, so that they are extinguished and snuffed out like a wick — <sup>18</sup> "Do not remember former things and do not pay attention to events of long ago! <sup>19</sup> Look! I am going to do a new thing. It is springing up already. Do you not recognise it? Indeed, I shall make a roadway through the wilderness and rivers through the desert. <sup>20</sup> Wild animals, jackals and ostriches, will honour Me, because I shall provide water in the wilderness and rivers through the desert to give drink to My own chosen people, <sup>21</sup> the people whom I have formed for Myself. They will proclaim My praise. <sup>22</sup> Nevertheless, you have not called on Me, Jacob. Rather, you have grown weary of Me, Israel. <sup>23</sup> You have not brought Me the sheep for your burnt offerings or honoured Me with your sacrifices. I have not made you serve with grain-offerings and have not wearied you with frankincense. <sup>24</sup> You have not used money to buy Me sweet cane or satisfied Me with the fat of your sacrifices. Rather, you have burdened Me with your sins. You have wearied Me with your wrongdoings. <sup>25</sup> I, I, am the One who blot out your rebellious actions, for My own sake; and I shall not remember your sins.

<sup>26</sup> "Remind Me! Let us argue our case together! You must set it forth yourself, that you may prove that you are right! <sup>27</sup> Your first ancestor sinned, and your mediators have rebelled against Me. <sup>28</sup> Therefore, I shall profane the leaders of the Holy Place. I shall consign Jacob to utter destruction and Israel to abuse."

44

A blessing on Israel's descendants

<sup>1</sup> "Now therefore, listen, Jacob, My servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen! <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD has said, He who has made you, who has formed you from the womb and who will help you: 'Do not be afraid, My servant Jacob, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen!'

<sup>3</sup> For I shall pour out water on thirsty ground and streams on dry land. I shall pour out My Spirit on your offspring and My blessing on your descendants.

<sup>4</sup> They will spring up among the grass like poplars beside flowing streams."

An assertion that God alone, who has formed Israel, is God.

<sup>5</sup> One person will say, "I belong to the LORD." Another will give himself the name of Jacob. Another will write on his hand, "Belonging to the LORD," and will adopt the name of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD, Israel's King and Redeemer, the LORD of hosts, has said: "I am the First and I am the Last, and there is no God except Me. <sup>7</sup> Who is like Me? Let him proclaim and declare it! Let him recount to Me what has happened since I established an ancient people! Then let them predict what is to come and what will happen to them! <sup>8</sup> Do not be terrified and do not be afraid! Have I not been telling you and declaring it from long ago? You are My witnesses. Is there any God except Me? There is no other Rock. I do not know of any."

<sup>9</sup> All who form idols are nothing, and the things in which they delight are worthless. Their witnesses do not see or know anything, so that they will be ashamed. <sup>10</sup> Who has formed a god or has cast an idol, which has been unable to give any benefit? <sup>11</sup> Look! Everyone associated with him will be ashamed. The craftsmen themselves are only human. Let them all assemble! Let them take their stand! They will be terrified and ashamed together. <sup>12</sup> After the iron-smith has taken a cutting tool and worked it over the coals, he shapes it with hammers and works it with his strong arm. He also becomes hungry, and his strength fails. If he does not drink water he will become exhausted. <sup>13</sup> After the carpenter stretches out a measuring-line, he draws an outline with a marker. He shapes it with chisels and traces out its shape with a compass. Then he has made it like the figure of a man, in the beautiful likeness of a human being, that it may dwell in a house. <sup>14</sup> To cut fine boards for himself, he has chosen a cypress or an oak and let it grow strong among the trees of the forest. He has planted a laurel, that the rain may make it grow. <sup>15</sup> Then it becomes something for a human being to burn. He takes a part of it and warms himself. He also lights a fire and bakes bread. He also makes a god and worships it. He has made it into an idol and bowed down to it. <sup>16</sup> He has burnt half of it in a fire. Over this half of it he eats meat. He cooks a roast and has enough to eat. He also warms himself and says, "Great! I am warm. I have felt the glow of the fire." <sup>17</sup> Then he makes the rest of it into a god, his idol. He bows down to it and worships it. He prays to it and says, "Deliver me! For you are my god."

<sup>18</sup> Such people do not know or understand anything. For He has smeared their eyes over, so that they do not see and their hearts, so that they have no insight.

<sup>19</sup> No one considers. No one knows or discerns enough to think: "I have used half of it to burn in a fire. I have also baked bread over its coals, roasted meat and eaten it. Now I am making the rest of it into a disgusting thing. I am bowing down to a block of wood." <sup>20</sup> He busies himself with ashes. His deluded heart has led him astray. He cannot rescue himself or ask, "Is not this thing in my right hand a delusion?"

An assurance that Israel is not forgotten

<sup>21</sup> "Remember these things, Jacob! Remember them, Israel! For you are My servant. I have formed you. You are My servant, Israel. I shall not forget you. <sup>22</sup> I have blotted out your rebellious acts like a cloud and your sins like mist. Return to me! For I have redeemed you."

<sup>23</sup> Sing for joy, heavens! For the LORD has done it. Shout, deep places of the earth! Break into joyful singing, mountains, forest and every tree in it! For the LORD has redeemed Jacob and will display His splendour in Israel.

A prophecy that Cyrus will do God's will

<sup>24</sup> This is what the LORD has said, your Redeemer, who formed you from the womb: "I am the LORD and I have made all things. I alone have stretched out the heavens and spread out the earth by Myself. <sup>25</sup> I frustrate the signs of false prophets and make fools of those who practise divination. I make wise men turn back and make a mockery of their knowledge."

<sup>26</sup> He confirms the Word of His servant and carries out the plan of His messengers. He says, about Jerusalem, "It will be inhabited," and, about the cities of Judah, "They will be rebuilt, and I shall restore their ruins." <sup>27</sup> He says to the deep sea, "Dry up! I shall dry up your currents." <sup>28</sup> He says, about Cyrus, "He is My shepherd and will carry out everything that I purpose." He says to Jerusalem, "You will be rebuilt," and to the Temple, "Your foundation will be laid."

A prophecy about Cyrus as God's instrument

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD has said to Cyrus, His anointed one, "whose right hand I have grasped to subdue nations before him, whom I shall use to undo the weapon-belts of kings and to open doors before him, so that the city-gates will not be shut: <sup>2</sup> 'I Myself shall go before you and smooth down the elevated places. I shall break bronze gates in pieces and cut through iron crossbars. <sup>3</sup> I shall give you treasures from dark places and riches stored in secret places, that you may know that I am the LORD, the God of Israel, and that I am calling you by your name. <sup>4</sup> For the sake of My servant Jacob and Israel, My chosen one, I have called you by your name. I am giving you a title of honour, although you do not know Me. <sup>5</sup> I am the LORD, and there is no one else. Apart from Me there is no other God. I shall equip you for action, although you do not know Me, <sup>6</sup> that people from the sunrise to the sunset may know there is no one except Me. I am the LORD, and there is no one else. <sup>7</sup> I form light and create darkness. I cause prosperity and create calamity. I am the LORD and I do all these things."

<sup>8</sup> "Send rain from above, heavens! Let the clouds pour down righteousness! Let the earth open, and let salvation and righteousness produce fruit! Let the earth cause them both to sprout! I, the LORD, have created them.”

<sup>9</sup> How horrible it will be for the one who quarrels with the One who has formed him, one pot among other earthenware pots! Would the clay ask the one who shaped it, “What are you making?” or “Your work has no handles”? <sup>10</sup> How horrible it would be for the one who asks his father, “What are you begetting?” or a woman, “With what are you in labour?”

<sup>11</sup> This is what the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, has said, the One who has formed him: “Ask Me about the things that will happen to My children! Will you give Me orders about the work of My hands? <sup>12</sup> I made the earth and created mankind on it. My own hands stretched out the heavens, and I commanded their entire starry host. <sup>13</sup> I Myself have stirred him up in righteousness. I shall make all his roads straight. He will rebuild My city and set My exiles free, without any payment and without any gift,” the LORD of hosts has said.

<sup>14</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “The products of Egypt and the trade of Cush and the Sabeans, who are tall men, will come across to you and will be yours. They will follow you. They will come across in chains. They will bow down to you. They will plead with you: ‘Surely God is among you, and there is no one else. There is no other God.’”

<sup>15</sup> Certainly, You are God and You hide Yourself! You are the God of Israel, the Saviour! <sup>16</sup> All of them will be ashamed and even disgraced. Those who make idols will go away in complete contempt. <sup>17</sup> The LORD has saved Israel with an everlasting salvation. You will never, to all eternity, be ashamed or disgraced. <sup>18</sup> For this is what the LORD has said — He who has created the heavens, He who is God, who has formed the earth and made it, He who has established it, who has not created it empty but who has formed it to be inhabited — He has said: “I am the LORD, and there is no one else. <sup>19</sup> I have not spoken in secret, from somewhere in a dark land. I have not told the offspring of Jacob, ‘Search for Me in vain!’ I am the LORD and I speak what is fair. I declare what is right.”

A prediction that idols will not save Babylon

<sup>20</sup> “Assemble and come! Gather, you who have escaped from the nations! Those who carry about their wooden idols know nothing. They keep on praying to a god that cannot save. <sup>21</sup> Speak up and present your case! Yes, let them consult one another! Who announced this in the distant past? Who declared it long ago? Was it not I, the LORD? There is no other God except Me, a righteous God and a Saviour. There is no one besides Me. <sup>22</sup> Turn to Me and be saved, all you ends of the earth! For I am God, and there is no other. <sup>23</sup> I have sworn by Myself. A Word has gone out from My righteous mouth and will not be changed, that every knee will bow down to Me, and every tongue will swear allegiance. <sup>24</sup> ‘Only in the LORD,’ it will be said about Me, ‘are righteousness and strength.’”

All who are angry with Him will come to Him and will be ashamed. <sup>25</sup> In the LORD all of Israel’s descendants will be justified and will glory in Him.

46

A prediction that Babylon’s idols will go into captivity and a promise that God will carry His people

<sup>1</sup> Bel has bowed down. Nebo is stooping low. Their idols have been on animals and livestock. These things of yours that are transported are loaded as burdens on exhausted animals. <sup>2</sup> They have stooped down. They have bowed down low together. They have been unable to carry the heavy load safely and have gone into captivity themselves.

<sup>3</sup> “Listen to Me, family of Jacob, and all you remnant of the family of Israel! You have been carried since your birth and have been lifted up since you were born. <sup>4</sup> Even to your old age I am He. Even until your hair is grey I Myself shall transport you. I Myself have made you and I Myself shall carry you along. I Myself shall transport you and shall rescue you.

A declaration that God is incomparable

<sup>5</sup> “To whom will you liken Me? To whom will you make Me equal? With whom will you compare Me, that we may be like each other?”

<sup>6</sup> People pour gold out of their purses, weigh out silver in the scales and hire a goldsmith, that he may make it into a god. Then they bow down to it and even worship it. <sup>7</sup> They lift it up on their shoulders and transport it. They set it in its place, that it may stand up. It will not move away from its own position. If someone cries out to it for help, it will not answer or save him from his trouble.

<sup>8</sup> “Remember this and take courage! Recall it to mind, rebels! <sup>9</sup> Remember the former things, which happened long ago! For I am God, and there is no other. I am God, and there is no one like Me. <sup>10</sup> I keep predicting the future from the beginning. From long ago I have been telling about things that had not yet happened. I have been saying, ‘My purpose will stand, and I shall carry out whatever I desire.’ <sup>11</sup> I am summoning a bird of prey from the east, the man from a far country who will carry out his plan. I have spoken and shall bring it about. I have purposed and shall also do it.

<sup>12</sup> “Listen to Me, obstinate people, you who are far from being righteous! <sup>13</sup> I have brought My righteousness near. It is not far away. My salvation will not delay. I shall put salvation in Zion. I shall give My splendour to Israel.”

47

A lament over the fall of Babylon

<sup>1</sup> Come down and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon! Sit on the ground without a throne, daughter of the Chaldeans! For people will no longer call you tender and delicate. <sup>2</sup> Take a pair of millstones and grind flour! Take off your veil! Strip off your flowing skirt! Uncover your legs! Wade through the streams!

<sup>3</sup> Your naked body will be exposed, and your shame will be seen.

“I shall take revenge and not spare anyone.”

<sup>4</sup> Our Redeemer, whose name is the LORD of hosts, is the Holy One of Israel. <sup>5</sup> Sit in silence and go into the dark, daughter of the Chaldeans! For you will no longer be called “the queen of kingdoms.”

<sup>6</sup> “I have been angry with My people. I have profaned My inheritance. I have handed them over to you. You have not shown them any mercy. You have made your yoke exceedingly heavy on old people. <sup>7</sup> You have been saying, ‘I shall be queen for ever.’ You have not carefully considered these things or remembered how they will end. <sup>8</sup> Now therefore, listen to this, lover of pleasure! You live securely and tell yourself: ‘I am the one, and there is no one except me. I shall not live as a widow and shall never suffer the loss of children.’ <sup>9</sup> These two things will happen to you suddenly, on one day, the loss of children and widowhood. They will come on you completely, despite your great deal of sorcery and despite your very powerful magic spells. <sup>10</sup> You have felt secure in your wickedness. You have been saying, ‘No one sees me.’ Your wisdom and your knowledge have led you astray. You have been telling yourself, ‘I am the one, and there is no one except me.’ <sup>11</sup> However, evil will happen to you. You will not know how to conjure it away. Calamity will fall on you. You will not be able to ward it off. Ruin will come on you suddenly when you do not expect it. <sup>12</sup> Persevere with magic spells and your many sorceries, then, with which you have been striving since you were young! Perhaps you will be able to succeed. Perhaps you will inspire terror. <sup>13</sup> You have been worn out by your many plans. The people who map out the sky, who gaze at the stars, who make forecasts at each new month should stand up and save you from what will come on you!”

<sup>14</sup> Look! They will become like stubble. Fire will consume them. They will not rescue themselves from the fierce flames. These will be no coals for warming oneself. This will not be a fire to sit beside. <sup>15</sup> This is what those with whom you have been labouring, with whom you have been doing business since you were young, will mean for you. They will wander off, each in his own direction. There will be no one to save you.

48

God's assertion that He has predicted events

<sup>1</sup> Listen to this, family of Jacob! You are called by the name of Israel. You have come out of the fountain of Judah. You swear by the name of the LORD. You acknowledge the God of Israel but not truthfully or righteously. <sup>2</sup> For they call themselves after the holy city and rely on the God of Israel. His name is the LORD of hosts.

<sup>3</sup> “I had predicted the previous things long ago. My mouth had announced them, and I had made them known. I suddenly carried them out, and they happened. <sup>4</sup> Because I knew that you were stubborn, that your neck was an iron sinew and that your forehead was brazen, <sup>5</sup> I predicted them to you long ago, before they happened. I announced them to you, that you might not say, ‘My idol did them. My carved image and my metal image commanded them.’

<sup>6</sup> “You have heard these things. Now look at all this! Will you not declare it yourselves? From now on I shall announce new things to you, things that have been kept secret, which you have not known. <sup>7</sup> They have been created just now and not long ago. Before today you have never heard about them, that you may not say, ‘Look! I had known about them.’ <sup>8</sup> You have neither heard nor known about them. You have not been opening your ears for a long time. For I knew that you would certainly act treacherously and that you have been called a rebel since you were born.”

A declaration that God will refine His people before He rescues them from Babylon

<sup>9</sup> “For My name’s sake I shall delay My anger. For the sake of My praise I shall restrain Myself for your benefit, so that I do not cut you off. <sup>10</sup> Look! I shall refine you but not like silver. I shall test you in the furnace of affliction. <sup>11</sup> I shall do this for My own sake, for My own sake. For how should what is for My sake be defiled? I shall not give My glory to anyone else.

<sup>12</sup> “Listen to Me, Jacob, and Israel, whom I have called! I am He. I am the First. I am also the Last.

<sup>13</sup> My hand laid the foundation of the earth. My right hand spread out the heavens. While I was summoning them, they stood up together.”

<sup>14</sup> Assemble, all of you, and listen! Who among them has predicted these things? The LORD loves him. He will carry out His purpose on Babylon. He will use His arm against the Chaldeans.

<sup>15</sup> “I, yes, I, have spoken. Yes, I have called him. I have brought him, and his way will be successful.

<sup>16</sup> Come close to Me! Listen to this: ‘From the beginning I have not spoken anything in secret. I have been there from the time when it began to happen. Now therefore, the Lord GOD has sent Me and His Spirit.’”

<sup>17</sup> This is what the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel has said: “I am the LORD, your God, I am teaching you for your benefit and am leading you on the way on which you should go. <sup>18</sup> If only you had paid attention to My Commandments! Then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea. <sup>19</sup> Your descendants would have been like the sand, and the children coming from you would have been like its grains. Their names would never have been cut off or destroyed from before Me.”

<sup>20</sup> Leave Babylon! Flee from the Chaldeans! Declare this with a shout of joy! Proclaim this! Send it out to the end of the earth! Say, “The LORD has redeemed

His servant Jacob!”<sup>21</sup> They had not been thirsty when He led them through the deserts. He had made water flow down from a rock for them. He had split a rock, and water had gushed out.

<sup>22</sup> “There is no peace for wicked people,” the LORD has said.

49

The second song of God's Messianic Servant, who will bring salvation to the nations

<sup>1</sup> “Listen to Me, coastlands! Pay attention, distant nations! The LORD has called Me from the womb. Before My mother gave birth to Me, He made mention of My Name. <sup>2</sup> He has made My mouth like a sharp sword and has hidden Me in the shadow of His hand. He has made Me into a polished arrow and has hidden Me in His quiver. <sup>3</sup> He has told Me, ‘You are My Servant, Israel, through whom I shall glorify Myself.’ <sup>4</sup> However, I Myself said, ‘I have laboured in vain. I have spent My strength uselessly and for nothing.’ Yet surely My just cause is with the LORD, and My recompense is with My God. <sup>5</sup> Now the LORD has spoken — the One who formed Me from the womb to be His Servant, to bring Jacob back to Him and to gather Israel to Him and that I may be glorified in the sight of the LORD. My God has also become My Strength —. <sup>6</sup> He has said, ‘It is too insignificant for You to be My Servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to bring back those in Israel whom I have preserved. I shall also make You a Light for the Gentiles, that My salvation may reach to the end of the earth.’”

A promise that God will achieve redemption through His Servant

<sup>7</sup> This is what the LORD, who redeems Israel and who is his Holy One, has said to the One whose soul is held in contempt and whom a nation loathes, to the Servant of rulers: “Kings will see You and rise up, and princes will see You and bow down, because of the LORD, who is faithful, who is the Holy One of Israel and who has chosen You.”

<sup>8</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “In the time of favour I shall answer You and in the day of salvation I shall help You. I shall protect You and make You the Covenant of the people, to restore the land and to cause people to inherit the possessions that have been laid waste. <sup>9</sup> You will tell the prisoners, ‘Come out,’ and those who are in the dark, ‘Show yourselves.’ They will graze on the roads and find their pasture on all the barren heights.”

<sup>10</sup> They will not be hungry or thirsty, and the scorching heat and the sun will not strike them. For the One who has compassion on them will lead them and guide them beside springs of water.

<sup>11</sup> “I shall turn all My mountains into a road and My highways will be raised up. <sup>12</sup> Look! Some of them will come from far away. Look! Others will come from the north and the west, and others from the land of Sinim.”

<sup>13</sup> Shout for joy, heavens! Rejoice, earth! Break forth with joyous shouting, mountains! For the LORD has comforted His people and will have compassion on His afflicted people.

A promise that God will not forget Israel

<sup>14</sup> “However, Zion has said, ‘The LORD has forsaken me. The Lord has forgotten me.’ <sup>15</sup> Does a woman forget the baby whom she is breast-feeding, that she should have no compassion on the son of her womb? Even these may forget, but I shall not forget you.

<sup>16</sup> Look! I have engraved you on the palms of My hands. Your walls are continually before Me. <sup>17</sup> Your children will come quickly. Those who have destroyed you and those who have laid you in ruins will leave you. <sup>18</sup> Lift up your eyes and look around! All of them have gathered and have come to you. As surely as I live,” declares the LORD, “you will wear all of them like ornaments and fasten them on yourself as a bride does. <sup>19</sup> For, although your places are ruined and deserted, and your land is a waste, you will surely now be too cramped for your inhabitants.

Those who have swallowed you up will also be far away. <sup>20</sup> The children who had been taken away from you will yet tell you personally: ‘This place is too cramped for us. Give us more space to live here!’

<sup>21</sup> Then you will ask yourself: ‘Who has fathered these children for me? I had been bereaved of children and had been barren. I had gone into exile and been rejected. Yet who has reared these? Look! I had been left alone. Where have these come from?’”

<sup>22</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I shall beckon with My hand to the nations and raise My standard to the peoples. Then they will bring your sons in the folds of their garments, and your daughters will be carried on their shoulders. <sup>23</sup> Then kings will be your foster-fathers, and their princesses your breast-feeding mothers. They will bow down to you with their faces to the ground and will lick the dust on your feet. Then you will know that I am the LORD. Those who wait for Me will not be ashamed.”

<sup>24</sup> Can plunder be taken away from a mighty man or can the captives of a person whose cause is just be rescued? <sup>25</sup> For this is what the LORD has said: “Even the captives of a mighty man will be taken away, and the plunder of a tyrant will be rescued. I Myself shall contend with your opponent and I Myself shall save your children. <sup>26</sup> I shall make those who are oppressing you eat their own flesh, and they will become drunk with their own blood as on sweet wine. Then all human beings will know that I am the LORD, your Saviour and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.”

50

A declaration that the people of Israel have been sold because of their sin

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD has asked: “Where is your mother’s certificate of divorce, with which I divorced her? Or to which of My creditors have I sold you?

Look! You have been sold because of your sins. Your mother has been sent away because of your rebellious acts. <sup>2</sup> Why was no one here when I came? Why was no one here to answer when I called? Was My arm altogether too short to redeem you or do I have no power to rescue you? Look! When I rebuke the sea, I dry it up. I turn rivers into a desert. Their fish stink because there is no water and die of thirst. <sup>3</sup> I clothe the heavens with darkness and make sackcloth their outer garment.”

The third song of God's Messianic Servant, who trusts in God's help in spite of suffering

<sup>4</sup> “The Lord GOD has given Me the tongue of disciples, to know how to use a Word to sustain him who is tired out. He awakens Me morning after morning. He awakens My ear to listen, like those who are disciples. <sup>5</sup> The Lord GOD has opened My ear, and I Myself have not been rebellious. I have not turned back. <sup>6</sup> I have given My back to those who struck Me and My cheeks to those who plucked out My beard. I have not hidden My face from insults and spittle. <sup>7</sup> The Lord GOD will help Me. That is why I have not been disgraced. That is why I have set My face like flint and know that I shall not be ashamed. <sup>8</sup> He who declares Me righteous is near. Who will contest a lawsuit against Me? Let us stand up together! Who is My accuser? Let him confront Me! <sup>9</sup> Look! The Lord GOD will come to help Me. Who is he who will condemn Me? Look! They will all wear out like a garment. The moths will eat them.”

An admonition to heed God's Servant

<sup>10</sup> Who among you fears the LORD and obeys the voice of His Servant? Let the one who has been walking in darkness and has had no light trust in the name of the LORD and rely on his God! <sup>11</sup> Look, all you who light a fire and who equip yourselves with flaming torches! Walk by the light of your own fire and by the torches that you have lit!

“This is what you will receive from My hand: You will lie down in a place of torment.”

51

An admonition to look at Abraham

<sup>1</sup> “Listen to Me, you who pursue righteousness and who search for the LORD. Look to the rock from which you have been hewn and to the quarry from which you have been dug! <sup>2</sup> Look to Abraham, your ancestor, and to Sarah, who gave you birth! When I called him, he was only one person, and I blessed him and made him many.”

<sup>3</sup> For the LORD will comfort Zion. He will comfort all its ruins. He will make its wilderness like Eden and its desert like the Garden of the LORD. Joy, gladness, thanksgiving and the sound of singing will be found in it.

A promise that God is ready to save His people

<sup>4</sup> “Pay attention to Me, My people! Listen to Me, My nation! For Teaching will go out from Me, and I shall establish My justice in an instant as a light for the peoples. <sup>5</sup> My righteousness is near. My salvation will go out, and My arms will bring justice to the peoples. The coastlands will put their hope in Me and wait eagerly for My arm. <sup>6</sup> Lift up your eyes to the heavens and look at the earth beneath! For the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and those who dwell in it will die like gnats. However, My salvation will last for ever, and My righteousness will not be frustrated.

<sup>7</sup> “Listen to Me, you who know righteousness, you who have My Teaching in your hearts! Do not be afraid of the taunt of a human being! Do not be terrified because of their scornful words! <sup>8</sup> For the moth will eat them like a garment, and the worm will eat them like wool. However, My righteousness will last for ever, and My salvation will last to all generations.”

<sup>9</sup> Awake! Awake! Put on strength, O arm of the LORD! Awake, as in days long past, as in generations of long ago! Was it not You who cut Rahab in pieces and pierced the dragon? <sup>10</sup> Was it not You who dried up the sea, the water of the great deep, who made the depths of the sea a road that the redeemed people might go across? <sup>11</sup> Those whom the LORD has ransomed will return and come to Zion with singing. Everlasting joy will be on their heads. Gladness and joy will overtake them, and sorrow and sighing will flee away.*<sup>131</sup>

<sup>12</sup> “I, I am the One who comforts you. Who are you that you are afraid of a mortal human being, of a son of man who is given up like grass?”

<sup>13</sup> You have forgotten the LORD, your Maker. He stretched out the heavens and laid the foundations of the earth. You have been in constant dread all day long because of the wrath of the oppressor, while he is preparing to destroy you. Where is the wrath of the oppressor? <sup>14</sup> He who is oppressed will soon be set free. He will not die and go down to the pit. He will also not go without his food.

<sup>15</sup> “I am the LORD, your God and I stir up the sea so that its waves roar. His name is ‘the LORD of hosts.’”

<sup>16</sup> “I have put My Words in your mouth and covered you in the shadow of My hand. I have put the heavens in place, laid the foundations of the earth and have told Zion, ‘You are My people.’”

An admonition to Jerusalem to wake up

<sup>17</sup> Wake up! Wake up! Stand up, Jerusalem! You have drunk from the hand of the LORD the cup of His wrath. You have drunk, you have drunk deeply from the bowl, the cup that makes people stagger. <sup>18</sup> Out of all the children to whom she has given birth, there is no one to guide her. Out of all the children whom she has reared there is no one to take her by the hand. <sup>19</sup> These two things have happened to you — who will show sympathy to you? — devastation and destruction, famine and the sword. How can I comfort you? <sup>20</sup> Your children have fainted. They have been lying at every street corner like an antelope in a net. They are full of the wrath of the LORD, the rebuke of your God. <sup>21</sup> Therefore, please listen to this, you who are afflicted, who are drunk but not from wine!

<sup>22</sup> This is what your Lord, the LORD, your God, who pleads the cause of his people, has said: “Look! I have taken the cup out of your hand that has been making you stagger, the bowl, the cup of My wrath. You will not drink from it any longer. <sup>23</sup> I shall put it into the hands of your tormentors, who have been telling you, ‘Lie flat, that we may walk over you!’ You had been making your back like the ground and like the street for those who were walking across.”

52

An admonition to Zion to rejoice

<sup>1</sup> Wake up! Wake up! Clothe yourself with your strength, Zion! Put on your splendid clothes, Jerusalem, you holy city! For an uncircumcised or unclean person will not come into you any longer.

<sup>2</sup> Shake yourself free from the dust! Stand up! Take your seat, Jerusalem! Rid yourself from the chains on your neck, captive daughter of Zion! <sup>3</sup> For this is what the LORD has said: “You were sold without compensation and will be redeemed without money.”

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD has said: “At first My people went down into Egypt to live there as foreigners. The Assyrians also oppressed them without cause.

<sup>5</sup> Now therefore, what do I have here,” asks the LORD, “seeing that My people have been taken away without compensation? Those who rule over them are howling,” declares the LORD, “and constantly, all day long, My name is being slandered. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, My people will know My name. Therefore, on that day they will know that it is I who am saying, ‘Here I am!’”

<sup>7</sup> How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of the messenger who brings the good news, who announces peace, who tells the good news of good things, who proclaims salvation and who tells Zion, “Your God is King!” <sup>8</sup> Listen! Your watchmen have raised their voices and are shouting together joyfully. For eye to eye they will see it when the LORD returns to Zion. <sup>9</sup> Be happy and shout joyfully together, ruins of Jerusalem! For the LORD has comforted His people. He has redeemed Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> The LORD has made bare His holy arm in the sight of all the nations, and all the ends of the earth will see the salvation of our God. <sup>11</sup> Go away! Go away! Go out from there! Do not touch anything unclean! Go outside of it! Purify yourselves, you who carry the vessels of the LORD! <sup>12</sup> For you will not go out hastily or leave by fleeing. For the LORD will go ahead of you and the God of Israel will guard you from behind.

In the fourth Messianic Servant-song the LORD promises His exalted Servant

<sup>13</sup> “Look! My Servant will be successful. He will be high, be lifted up and be highly exalted. <sup>14</sup> As there have been many who have been horrified because of You, — since His appearance has been more disfigured than any other man and His form more than any other human being, — <sup>15</sup> so He will sprinkle many nations. Kings will shut their mouths because of Him. For they will see what they had not been told and will understand what they had not heard.”

53

<sup>1</sup> Who has believed our Message? To whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed? <sup>2</sup> He grew up before Him like a young shoot, like a root out of dry ground. He had no form or majesty that we should look at Him. He had nothing in His appearance that we should desire Him. <sup>3</sup> He was despised and rejected by men, a Man of sorrows and familiar with suffering. Like one from whom people hide their faces, He was despised, and we thought of Him as nothing. <sup>4</sup> Surely, He has taken on Himself our sufferings and carried our sorrows. Yet we considered Him to be wounded, struck down by God and afflicted. <sup>5</sup> However, He was pierced for our rebellious acts. He was bruised for our wrongdoings. The chastisement that brought us peace was on Him, and through His wounds we have been healed. <sup>6</sup> We have all gone astray, like sheep. Each one of us has turned to his own way, and the LORD has laid on Him the iniquity of us all. <sup>7</sup> Although He was oppressed and afflicted, He did not open His mouth. He was led like a lamb to the slaughter and, as a ewe is silent before those who shear off her wool, so He did not open His mouth. <sup>8</sup> He was taken away through oppression and without justice. As for His generation, who considered that He was cut off from the land of the living? Because of the rebellion of my people He was struck down. <sup>9</sup> He assigned His grave with wicked people but was with a rich man in His death, although He had done nothing violent, and there was no deceit in His mouth.

<sup>10</sup> Nevertheless, it was the will of the LORD to crush Him with suffering. When You make His life a sacrifice for guilt, He will see His offspring. He will have a long life, and the will of the LORD will be successful in His hand. <sup>11</sup> Because of the anguish of His soul, He will see and be satisfied.

The LORD promises success for His suffering Servant

“Through His knowledge, My righteous Servant will justify many and bear their iniquities. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, I shall divide Him a portion among great people, and He will divide the plunder with strong people, because He poured out His life to death and was numbered with wrongdoers. Nevertheless, He has carried the sin of many people and intercedes for the wrongdoers.”

God's compassion for His people, who have been like women without children

<sup>1</sup> “Sing for joy, barren woman, you who have not had any children! Break into shouts of joy and cry aloud, you who have not been in labour! For the children of the desolate woman will be more numerous than the children of the one who has a husband,” is what the LORD has said.

A declaration that God loves His people

<sup>4</sup> Do not be afraid! For you will not be ashamed. Do not be confounded! For you will not feel embarrassed. For you will forget the shameful things when you were young. You will no longer remember the disgrace when you were a widow. <sup>5</sup> For He who has made you is your Husband. His name is “the LORD of hosts.” Your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel. He is called “the God of the whole earth.” <sup>6</sup> For the LORD has called you like a wife who has been deserted and who is deeply distressed, like a wife who had married young but was rejected.

This is what your God has said: <sup>7</sup> “I deserted you for a brief moment but shall bring you back with great compassion. <sup>8</sup> I hid My face from you for a moment in a surge of anger but shall have compassion on you with everlasting mercy,” is what your Redeemer, the LORD, has said. <sup>9</sup> “This is like the water of Noah to Me. As I swore that the water of Noah would not cover the earth again, so I have sworn not to be angry with you or rebuke you. <sup>10</sup> For the mountains may withdraw, and the hills may be shaken, but My faithful love will not withdraw from you, and My Covenant of peace will not be shaken.” This is what the LORD, who has compassion on you, has said.

<sup>11</sup> “You who are afflicted, lashed by storms and without consolation, look! I shall set your precious stones in hard mortar and use sapphires to lay your foundations. <sup>12</sup> I shall use rubies to make your battlement-walls, beryl to make your city-gates and precious stones to make all your boundary-walls.”

<sup>13</sup> All your children will be taught by the LORD, and your children will have great peace. <sup>14</sup> You will be firmly established in righteousness. You will be far away from oppression. Indeed, you will not be afraid. You will be far away from terror. Indeed, it will not come near you.

<sup>15</sup> “Look! If anyone does attack you, it will not be My doing. Whoever attacks you will fall because of you.

<sup>16</sup> See! I Myself have created the blacksmith who blows the coals in the fire and produces an artefact for its purpose. I Myself have also created a destroyer to work havoc. <sup>17</sup> No weapon that is forged against you will be successful. You will also condemn every tongue that brings an accusation against you.”

This is the inheritance of the servants of the LORD. “Their righteousness comes from Me,” declares the LORD.

55

A promise of an everlasting Covenant

<sup>1</sup> “Come! Everyone who is thirsty, come to the water! You who have no money, come, buy and eat! Come! Buy wine and milk without money and without cost! <sup>2</sup> Why do you spend money for what is not bread and your labour for what does not satisfy? Listen carefully to Me! Eat what is good and enjoy rich food! <sup>3</sup> Turn your ears toward Me and come to Me! Listen, that your souls may stay alive! I shall establish an eternal Covenant with you, the long-lasting mercies shown to David. <sup>4</sup> Look! I have given Him as a Witness to the nations, a Leader and a Commander of the nations.”

<sup>5</sup> Look! You will summon a nation that you do not know, and a nation that has not known you will run to you, because of the LORD, your God, the Holy One of Israel. For He has honoured you.

An admonition to search for God

<sup>6</sup> Search for the LORD while He may be found! Call on Him while He is near! <sup>7</sup> Let the wicked person forsake his way, and the sinful man his thoughts! Let him return to the LORD, that He may have compassion on him! Let him return to our God! For He will abundantly pardon.

<sup>8</sup> “For My thoughts are not your thoughts, and your ways are not My ways,” declares the LORD. <sup>9</sup> “For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so My ways are higher than your ways, and My thoughts are higher than your thoughts. <sup>10</sup> For, as the rain and the snow come down from the sky and do not go back there without watering the earth and causing it to bring forth and to sprout, so that it gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater, <sup>11</sup> so My Word will be, which goes out of My mouth. It will not return to Me without results but will accomplish what I desire and be successful in what I have sent it to do.”

<sup>12</sup> For you will go out with joy and be led out in peace. The mountains and the hills will break into shouts of joy in your presence, and all the trees in the field will clap their hands. <sup>13</sup> A cypress tree will grow up instead of the thorn-bush, and a myrtle tree will grow up instead of the stinging nettle. This will also make a name for the LORD and become an everlasting sign, which will not be cut off.

56

A promise of salvation for all nations

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “Maintain justice and do what is right! For My salvation is coming close, and My righteousness will soon be revealed.

doing anything evil!”

<sup>3</sup> No foreigner who joins himself to the LORD should say: “The LORD will surely separate me from His people!” No castrated man should say, “Look! I am only a dry tree!”

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD has said: “To the castrated men who keep My Sabbaths, who choose the things in which I delight and who hold firmly to My Covenant, <sup>5</sup> to them I shall give, inside My Temple and inside My walls, a monument and a name that is better than sons and daughters. I shall give them an everlasting name, which will not be cut off.

<sup>6</sup> “As for the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD to minister to Him, to love the name of the LORD and to be His servants, and, as for everyone who keeps the Sabbath without profaning it, and, as for those who hold firmly to My Covenant, <sup>7</sup> these I shall bring to My holy mountain and make them joyful in My House of prayer. Their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on My altar. For My House will be called ‘a house of prayer’ for all the peoples.”

<sup>8</sup> The Lord GOD, who gathers the dispersed people of Israel, declares, “I shall gather still others to them besides those who have already been gathered to them.”

An expression of regret that the leaders of Israel are blind and a warning that the sins of Israel bring God’s anger

<sup>9</sup> All you animals in the field, come and eat, all you animals in the forest! <sup>10</sup> Israel’s watchmen are blind. They all lack knowledge. They are all silent dogs. They cannot bark. They dream, lie down and love to slumber. <sup>11</sup> These dogs have mighty appetites. They never have enough. However, they are shepherds who cannot understand. They have all turned to their own way. Each one, without exception, seeks his personal gain. <sup>12</sup> “Come! Let me get wine! Let us drink plenty of strong drink! Tomorrow will also be like today, very great indeed!”

57

A condemnation of Israel’s futile idolatry

<sup>3</sup> “However, children of a sorceress, come closer here, descendants of adulterers and prostitutes! <sup>4</sup> Whom are you mocking? Against whom are you opening your mouth wide and sticking out your tongue? Are you not rebellious children, the descendants of liars?

<sup>5</sup> You burn with lust among the large trees, under every leafy tree. You slaughter your children in the ravines and under the splits in the rocks. <sup>6</sup> Your portion is among the smooth stones in the ravine. They, they, are your destiny. You have even poured out drink-offerings and sacrificed food offerings to them.

Should I relent about these things? <sup>7</sup> You have been setting up your bed on a high and lofty mountain. You have also been going up there to offer sacrifices.

<sup>8</sup> You have also been setting up your pagan signs behind the doors and the doorposts. For you have deserted Me but have been uncovering your bed, have been going up on it and have been spreading it wide. You have also made a pact for yourself with some of those whose beds you love and have been looking at their genitals. <sup>9</sup> You have been journeying to Molech with olive-oil and have been putting on plenty of your perfumes. You have been sending your envoys far away and have been making them go down to Sheol.

<sup>10</sup> Although you were tired out by your long journeys, you did not think that they were hopeless. You found renewed strength and so you did not become faint.

<sup>11</sup> Whom have you been dreading, and whom do you fear, that you tell lies, that you have not remembered Me and that you have not cared about Me? Have I not been silent, yes, for a long time, with the result that you do not fear Me? <sup>12</sup> I Myself shall expose how righteous you have been and what you have been doing, and they will not benefit you. <sup>13</sup> When you cry for help, let your collection of idols deliver you! A wind will lift all of them up. A breath will carry them away. However, he who takes refuge in Me will possess the land and will inherit My holy mountain.”

A promise of comfort for humble people

<sup>14</sup> It will be said: “Build up the road! Build it up! Prepare it! Clear away every obstacle from the road of My people!”

<sup>15</sup> For this is what the High and Lofty One, who lives for ever and whose name is the Holy One, has said: “I dwell in a high and holy place and with him who is crushed and is lowly in spirit. I revive the spirit of lowly people and revive the hearts of crushed people.

<sup>16</sup> For I shall not contend for ever and not always be angry. For then the spirits, the living beings that I Myself have made, would grow faint before Me. <sup>17</sup> I was angry and struck him because of his sinful greed. I hid Myself and was angry, but he continued on rebelliously in the way of his own heart. <sup>18</sup> I have seen his ways but shall heal him. I shall lead him and restore comfort to him and his mourners. <sup>19</sup> I shall create the response of praise on their lips. Peace, peace, to the one who is far away and to the one who is near!” the LORD has said, “and I shall heal him.”

<sup>20</sup> However, wicked people are like the churning sea. For it cannot be quiet, and its waters toss up mud and dirt. <sup>21</sup> “Wicked people have no peace,” is what my God has said.

58

An instruction to worship God as He wants to be worshipped

ing My Ways, as if they were a nation that had been doing what is right and had not been disregarding the judgment of their God. They demand Decisions about justice from Me. They take delight in approaching God. <sup>3</sup> They are asking, ‘Why have we been fasting when You have not seen it? We have been humiliating ourselves and do You not know about it?’ In fact, on the day when you fast, you find delight in it and exploit all your labourers. <sup>4</sup> Look! When you fast, you quarrel, brawl and hit with wicked fists. You will not make your voices heard on high by the fasting that you are doing today. <sup>5</sup> Is this the fast that I choose like this, that a person should humiliate himself for only a day? Is it to bow down his head like a reed and to spread out sackcloth and ashes for a bed? Do you call this ‘a fast,’ and ‘a day that pleases the LORD’? <sup>6</sup> Is not this the fast that I choose: that you should untie the chains of injustice, undo the straps of the yoke, let oppressed people go free and break every yoke? <sup>7</sup> Is it not to share your food with the hungry person, that you should take homeless, poor people into your house, that, when you see a naked person, you should cover him and not hide yourself from your own relatives?”

<sup>8</sup> Then your light will break forth like the dawn, and you will quickly be healed. Your righteousness will go ahead of you, and the glory of the LORD will protect you from behind. <sup>9</sup> Then you will call, and the LORD will answer. When you call for help, He will say, “Here I am!” If you get rid of the yoke from among you, your finger-pointing and your wicked talk, <sup>10</sup> if you let the hungry person find you and satisfy the needs of the afflicted person, then your light will shine in the darkness, and your darkness will be as bright as noon. <sup>11</sup> The LORD will guide you constantly and satisfy your needs in arid regions. He will strengthen your bones. You will be like a well-watered garden and like a spring of water that has water that does not fail. <sup>12</sup> Your people will rebuild the ancient ruins, and you will restore the foundations of many generations. You will be called “The Rebuilder of Gaps in Walls” and “The Restorer of Paths Where People Live.”

<sup>13</sup> “If you stop trampling on the Sabbath and stop conducting your own business on My holy day, if you call the Sabbath delightful and the holy day of the LORD honourable, and, if you honour it by not carrying out your own undertakings, by not finding your own pleasure and by not talking idly, <sup>14</sup> then you will take delight in the LORD. I shall cause you to ride over the heights of the earth and feed you on the inheritance of your father Jacob.”

For the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

59

A promise that God will turn His people away from wrongdoing

save, and His ear is not too dull to hear. <sup>2</sup> However, your wrongdoings have separated you from your God, and your sins have hidden His face from you, so that He does not hear. <sup>3</sup> For your hands have been defiled with blood, and your fingers with wrongdoing. Your lips have been telling lies. Your tongues have been speaking malicious things. <sup>4</sup> No one summons another in a righteous way. No one makes a legal plea honestly. People rely on empty arguments. They tell lies. They conceive mischief and give birth to calamity. <sup>5</sup> They have been hatching vipers’ eggs. They are spinning spider-webs. He who eats their eggs will die, and a viper is hatched from one that is pressed open. <sup>6</sup> Their webs will not serve as clothing. They cannot cover themselves with what they make. Their deeds are unjust deeds, and their hands commit violent acts. <sup>7</sup> Their feet run to evil. They hurry to murder innocent people. Their plans are unjust plans. Desolation and destruction are on their paths. <sup>8</sup> They do not know the way of peace. There is no justice in their paths. They have made their roads crooked. No one who treads on them knows peace. <sup>9</sup> That is why justice is far from us and righteousness does not reach us. We hope for light but see darkness, for brightness but move about in gloom. <sup>10</sup> We grope for a wall like blind people. We grope along like people without eyes. We have been stumbling at noon as in the twilight. We are like dead men among healthy people. <sup>11</sup> We all growl like bears. We moan mournfully like doves. We hope for justice, but there is none, for salvation but it is far from us. <sup>12</sup> For our rebellious acts have become numerous in Your sight, and our sins have testified against us. For our rebellious acts are with us, and we acknowledge our wrongdoings: <sup>13</sup> behaving as criminals, denying the LORD, becoming disloyal to our God, speaking about oppression and falsehood and conceiving and uttering lying words that come from the heart. <sup>14</sup> Justice is being pushed back, and righteousness is standing far away. For truth has stumbled in the public square, and honesty cannot come in. <sup>15</sup> Truth has been missing, and he who shuns evil becomes a victim of plunder. The LORD has seen that there is no justice and has been displeased. <sup>16</sup> He has seen that there is no one. He has been amazed that there is no one to intercede. So, His own arm has brought Him salvation, and His righteousness has upheld Him. <sup>17</sup> He has put on righteousness like a coat of armour and a helmet of salvation on His head. He has put on garments of revenge as a uniform and has wrapped Himself in zeal as a cloak. <sup>18</sup> He will pay them back according to what they have done, wrath to His adversaries and retribution to His enemies. He will make repayment to the coastlands. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, people will fear the name of the LORD from the west and His glory from the rising of the sun. For He will come like a pent-up stream, which the wind of the LORD will drive along.

<sup>20</sup> “Then a Redeemer will come to Zion, to those in Jacob who turn from rebellion,” declares the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> “As for Me, this is also My Covenant with them,” the LORD has said: “My Spirit, which is on you, and My Words, which I have put in your mouth, will not leave your mouth, the mouths of your offspring or the mouths of your children’s offspring,” the LORD has said, “from now on and for ever.”

60

God’s promise that He will be the glory of Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Arise! Shine! For your Light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen like the dawn on you.

<sup>2</sup> For look! The darkness will cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples. However, the LORD will shine on you, and His glory will appear over you.

<sup>3</sup> Gentiles will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. <sup>4</sup> Lift your eyes and look around! They have all assembled and come to you. Your sons will come from far away. Your daughters will be carried on your hip. <sup>5</sup> Then you will see it and become radiant. Your heart will tremble and swell with joy, because the abundance of the sea will turn toward you. The wealth of the nations will come to you. <sup>6</sup> Many camels will cover your land, young camels from Midian and Ephah. All those from Sheba will come. They will bring gold and frankincense. They will proclaim the praises of the LORD as good news.

<sup>7</sup> “All the flocks of Kedar will be gathered to you. The rams of Nebaioth will minister to you. They will be presented to be accepted on My altar. I shall also glorify My splendid Temple. <sup>8</sup> Who are these that fly like a cloud and like doves to their nesting holes? <sup>9</sup> For the coastlands will wait in hope for Me.”

The ships of Tarshish will be the first to bring your children from far away and their silver and their gold with them, for the name of the LORD, your God, for the Holy One of Israel. For He has adorned you. <sup>10</sup> Foreigners will rebuild your walls, and their kings will minister to you.

“For, although I had struck you in My anger, in My favour I shall have compassion on you. <sup>11</sup> Your city-gates will be open constantly. They will not be shut by day or by night, that people may bring to you the wealth of the nations, with their kings led in procession. <sup>12</sup> For the nation and kingdom that does not serve you will be destroyed. Those nations will certainly lie in ruins. <sup>13</sup> The glory of Lebanon will come to you, the juniper, the elm and the pine tree together, to adorn the place of My sanctuary, and I shall make the place where My feet rest glorious. <sup>14</sup> The sons of those who oppress you will come bending down low to you. All who used to despise you will bow down at the soles of your feet. They will call you, ‘The City of the LORD,’ ‘The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.’

<sup>15</sup> Although you had been forsaken and hated, with no one passing through you, I shall, instead, make you majestic for ever, a delight for all generations. <sup>16</sup> You will suck the milk of nations. You will suck at royal breasts. Then you will know that I, the LORD, am your Saviour and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. <sup>17</sup> I shall bring gold instead of bronze. I shall bring silver instead of iron, bronze instead of wood and iron instead of stones. I shall appoint peace as your sentry and righteousness as your ruler.”

<sup>18</sup> No one will hear about violence any longer in your land or about devastation and destruction inside your borders. You will call your walls, “Salvation,” and your city-gates, “Praise.” <sup>19</sup> The sun will no longer be your light by day, and the moon will not shine to provide brightness for you, but the LORD will be your everlasting Light, and your God will be your Glory. <sup>20</sup> Your sun will not go down any longer, and your moon will not wane. For the LORD will be your everlasting Light, and your time of mourning will come to an end.

<sup>21</sup> “Your people will all be righteous. They will possess the land for ever. They will be the shoots that God has planted, the work of My hands, that I may show My glory. <sup>22</sup> The least one will become a clan, and the smallest one a mighty nation. I am the LORD and I shall do this quickly when the time is right.”

61

God’s Servant promises that He will be anointed with His Spirit to carry out His work

<sup>1</sup> “The Spirit of the Lord GOD is on Me because the LORD has anointed Me to tell good news to poor people. He has sent Me to bandage up broken-hearted people, to announce freedom to the captives and the opening of the prison to those who are bound, <sup>2</sup> to announce the year of the favour of the LORD and the day of the vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn, <sup>3</sup> to provide for those who grieve in Zion, to give them a splendid head-dress instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning and a garment of praise instead of a faint spirit. They will be called ‘The Oaks of Righteousness, which the LORD has planted,’ that He may get glory for Himself.”

<sup>4</sup> They will build up the ancient ruins. They will raise up the former devastated places. They will repair the ruined cities, which have been devastated for many generations. <sup>5</sup> Strangers will come forward and become shepherds for your flocks, and foreigners will be your ploughmen and your vine-dressers. <sup>6</sup> You will be named “The priests of the LORD,” and you will be called “The servants of our God.” You will eat the wealth of the nations and will boast in their splendour. <sup>7</sup> You will receive a double portion instead of your shame. They will rejoice in the property allocated to them instead of being in disgrace. Therefore, they will inherit a double amount in their land. They will have everlasting joy.

<sup>8</sup> “For I, the LORD, love justice. I hate robbery and injustice. I shall faithfully reward their work and make an everlasting Covenant with them.”

<sup>9</sup> Their offspring will be known among the nations, and their descendants among the peoples. All who see them will recognise that they are the offspring whom the LORD has blessed.

<sup>10</sup> I rejoice greatly in the LORD. Let my soul shout with joy to my God! For He has clothed me with garments of salvation. He has wrapped me in a robe of righteousness, like a bridegroom who puts on a splendid head-dress, such as a priest wears, and like a bride who decorates herself with her jewels. <sup>11</sup> For, as the ground makes its sprouts come up, and, as a garden causes its seedlings to sprout up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to sprout up before all the nations.

62

A declaration that Jerusalem is God's delight

<sup>1</sup> For Zion's sake I shall not keep silent and for Jerusalem's sake I shall not remain quiet until her righteousness goes forth like a bright light and her salvation burns brightly like a torch. <sup>2</sup> The nations will see your righteousness, and all the kings your glory. You will be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD will designate. <sup>3</sup> Then you will be a splendid crown in the hand of the LORD and a royal headband in the palm of your God. <sup>4</sup> You will not be called “Deserted” any longer, and your land will not be called “Desolation” any longer but you will be named “Hephzibah,”<sup>*132</sup> and your land will be named “Beulah.”<sup>*133</sup> For the LORD delights in you, and your land will be married. <sup>5</sup> For, as a young man marries a maiden, so your sons will marry you, and your God will rejoice over you as a bridegroom rejoices over his bride.

<sup>6</sup> “I have stationed watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem. They will never be silent by day or by night.”

You who profess the LORD, do not take any rest!

<sup>7</sup> Do not give Him any rest until He establishes Jerusalem and makes it something that is praised in the earth!

A promise that the salvation of Jerusalem is coming

<sup>8</sup> The LORD has sworn by His right hand and by His mighty arm: “I shall certainly no longer give your grain to be food for your enemies, and foreigners will certainly not drink your new wine, for which you have toiled. <sup>9</sup> Rather, those who harvest it will eat it and praise the LORD, and those who pick it will drink it in My holy courts.”

<sup>10</sup> Go through, go through the gates! Prepare a way for the people! Build up, build up the highway! Clear away the stones! Raise a flag for the nations! <sup>11</sup> Look! The LORD has announced to the ends of the earth: “Tell the daughter of Zion: ‘Look! Your salvation is coming.’”

Look! His reward is with Him, and what He has accomplished is before Him. <sup>12</sup> They will be called “The Holy People,” “The Redeemed of the LORD,” and you will be called, “Searched for,” and “A City Not Deserted.”

63

A prophecy that God alone will win His victory and will appear for judgment

<sup>1</sup> Who is This who is coming from Edom, in bright red garments from Bozrah? Who is This in His splendid clothing, striding with great strength?

“It is I and I am speaking in righteousness, mighty to save.”

<sup>2</sup> Why is Your clothing red, and why are Your garments like those of one who is treading in the wine-press?

<sup>3</sup> “I have been treading the wine-vat alone, and there has been no one from the peoples with Me. I was treading them in My anger and trampling them in My wrath. Their blood was spattering My garments, and I was staining all My clothing. <sup>4</sup> For the day of vengeance was in My mind, and the year of My redemption had come. <sup>5</sup> Although I was looking, there was no one to help. Although I was appalled, there was no one to support Me. So, My own arm has brought Me victory, and My wrath has supported Me. <sup>6</sup> I was trampling on peoples in My anger. I was making them drunk in My wrath. I was making their blood flow down to the ground.”

A prayer for help for the people who rely on God's goodness

<sup>7</sup> I shall recount the merciful acts of the LORD, the praiseworthy deeds of the LORD, according to all that the LORD has bestowed on us, and His great goodness to the family of Israel, which He has bestowed on them according to His compassion and according to His many merciful acts. <sup>8</sup> He has said: “Certainly they are My people, children who will not act unfaithfully.” Therefore, He has become their Saviour. <sup>9</sup> He has been troubled during all their troubles, and the Angel of His Presence has been saving them. In His love and His pity, He has redeemed them. He has been lifting them up and maintaining them all the days of long ago. <sup>10</sup> However, they rebelled and grieved His Holy Spirit. Therefore, He turned against them as their enemy. He Himself fought against them. <sup>11</sup> Then He remembered the days of old, Moses and His people. Where is the One who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of His flock? Where is the One who put His Holy Spirit among them? <sup>12</sup> Where is the One who caused His magnificent arm to move to support the right hand of Moses? Where is the One who divided the water in front of them to establish an everlasting reputation for Himself? <sup>13</sup> Where is the One who led them through the deep waters? Like a horse in the wilderness, they did not stumble. <sup>14</sup> Like cattle that go down into a valley, the Spirit of the LORD kept giving them rest. You led Your people in this way to make a magnificent name for Yourself.

A repentant prayer

<sup>15</sup> Look down and see from heaven, from Your holy and magnificent dwelling! Where are Your determination and Your mighty deeds? The seething of Your inner being and Your compassion have been holding themselves back from me. <sup>16</sup> For You are our Father, although Abraham does not know us, and Israel does not acknowledge us. You, LORD, are our Father. Your name is “Our-Redeemer From Everlasting.” <sup>17</sup> LORD, why do you let us wander away from Your Ways and harden our hearts, so that we do not fear You? Return, for the sake of Your servants, the tribes that are Your inheritance! <sup>18</sup> Your holy people have possessed their inheritance for only a little while. Our adversaries have trampled down Your sanctuary. <sup>19</sup> We have become like those over whom You have never ruled, like those who have not been called by Your name.

64

<sup>1</sup> If only You would tear the heavens apart and come down! If only the mountains might quake at Your presence, <sup>2</sup> as when fire sets dry twigs ablaze or when fire causes water to boil! Come down to make Your name known to Your enemies, that the nations may tremble in Your presence! <sup>3</sup> When You did awesome things that we were not expecting, You came down, and the mountains quaked at Your presence. <sup>4</sup> Since ancient times no one has heard or perceived with his ears, and no eye has seen any God except You. You act on behalf of the one who waits for You. <sup>5</sup> You have been coming to meet him who gladly does what is right and those who remember You according to Your Ways. Look! You have been angry, we have been sinning against Your Ways for a long time. Therefore, shall we be saved? <sup>6</sup> All of us have become like something that is unclean, and all our righteous actions are like a filthy garment. All of us have withered like a leaf, and our wrongdoings carry us away like the wind. <sup>7</sup> There is no one who calls on Your Name or rouses himself to take hold of You. For You have hidden Your face from us and made us melt because of our wrongdoing. <sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, LORD, You are our Father. We are the clay, and You are our Potter. All of us are the work of Your hand. <sup>9</sup> Do not be extremely angry, LORD! Do not remember wrongdoing for ever! Indeed, please look! We are all Your people. <sup>10</sup> Your holy cities have become a wilderness. Zion has become a wilderness. Jerusalem has become a wasteland. <sup>11</sup> Our holy and magnificent Temple, where our fathers praised You, has become a victim of flames, and all our pleasant places have become ruins. <sup>12</sup> Despite these things, LORD, will You restrain Yourself? Will You keep silent and oppress us very severely?

65

God's wrath over idolatry

have not been asking for Me. I have let Myself be found by those who have not been looking for Me. I have been saying, ‘Here I am! Here I am!’ to a nation that has not been calling on My name. <sup>2</sup> I have been stretching out My hands all day long to a stubborn people, who have been walking in a way that is not good and have been following their own plans. <sup>3</sup> This people has been constantly provoking Me to anger to My face, sacrificing in their gardens and burning incense on their bricks. <sup>4</sup> They sit in the tombs and spend their nights in secret places. They eat the meat of pigs, and broth made from unclean things is in their pots. <sup>5</sup> They say, ‘Keep to yourself! Do not come near me! For I am too holy for you.’ These people are smoke in My nostrils, a fire that keeps smouldering all day long. <sup>6</sup> Look! It has been written in front of Me: ‘I shall not be silent but shall pay them back. I shall pay them back into their laps <sup>7</sup> for your wrongs and your fathers’ wrongs together,’” the LORD has said. “For they have been burning offerings on the mountains and have been insulting Me on the hills. I shall measure into their laps the retribution for their former deeds.”

<sup>8</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “As juice is found in a cluster of grapes, and someone says, ‘Do not destroy it! For there is a blessing in it,’ this is what I shall do for the sake of My servants, that I may not destroy them all. <sup>9</sup> I shall bring a Descendant out of Jacob and One who will inherit My mountains out of Judah. My chosen people will inherit them, and My servants will live there. <sup>10</sup> Sharon will become a pasture for flocks. The Valley of Achor will become a place for herds to lie down, for My people, who have been searching for Me. <sup>11</sup> However, you who forsake the LORD, who forget My holy mountain, who set a table for Fortune and fill cups of mixed wine for Destiny, <sup>12</sup> I shall destine you for the sword, and all of you will bow down to be slaughtered. For, when I called, you did not answer. When I spoke, you did not listen. You did what I regarded as evil; you chose what I did not delight in.”

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! Although My servants will eat, you will be hungry. Look! Although My servants will drink, you will be thirsty. Look! Although My servants will rejoice, you will be ashamed. <sup>14</sup> Look! Although My servants will shout for joy because their hearts are cheerful, you will cry out, because your hearts are in pain, and you will wail because your spirits are broken. <sup>15</sup> You will leave your name behind for My chosen people to use as a curse.”

The Lord GOD will put you to death and give His servants another name. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, he who blesses himself in the land will bless himself by the God of truth. He who swears an oath in the land will swear by the God of truth.

“For the former difficulties will be forgotten and will be hidden from My sight.”

A promise of a new heaven and a new earth

<sup>17</sup> “For look! I am creating a new heaven and a new earth. The earlier things will not be remembered or come to mind. <sup>18</sup> However, be glad and rejoice for ever in what I am creating! For look! I am creating Jerusalem to be a joy and its people to be a delight. <sup>19</sup> I shall rejoice over Jerusalem and be glad about My people. The sounds of weeping and lamentation will no longer be heard in the city. <sup>20</sup> No longer will there be a baby in it who lives for only a few days or an old man who does not live out his days. For anyone who dies at a hundred years old will still be a young man. Anyone who fails to reach a hundred years old when he dies will be regarded as cursed. <sup>21</sup> They will build houses and live in them. They will plant vineyards and eat their fruit. <sup>22</sup> They will not build and have someone else live there. They will not plant and have another eat from it. For the days of My people will be like the days of a tree, and My chosen people will enjoy what their hands produce. <sup>23</sup> They will not toil for nothing or bear children for sudden calamity.”

For they will be the offspring of those whom the LORD has blessed, and their children will be with them.

<sup>24</sup> “I Myself shall answer even before they call and I Myself shall hear while they are still speaking. <sup>25</sup> The wolf and the lamb will graze together. The lion will eat straw like the ox, but the snake’s food will be dust. They will not do any harm or destroy anything anywhere on My holy mountain,” the LORD has said.

66

A promise that God will dwell with His people in His new creation

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “Heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool. Where is the Temple that you will build for Me, and where is the place for Me to rest? <sup>2</sup> My hand has made all these things, and so all of these things have come into being,” declares the LORD. “However, this is the person on whom I shall look graciously: on him who is humble and broken in spirit and who trembles at My Word.”

<sup>3</sup> “One who slaughters a bull is like one who kills a man. One who sacrifices a lamb is like one who breaks a dog’s neck. One who presents a grain-offering is like one offers pig’s blood. One who makes a memorial offering of frankincense is like one who blesses an idol. These people have certainly chosen their own ways, and their souls delight in their detestable idols. <sup>4</sup> I also shall choose harsh treatment for them and bring on them what they dread. For, when I called, no one answered. When I spoke, they did not listen. Rather, they have been doing what I regard as evil. They have been choosing what displeases Me.”

<sup>5</sup> Listen to the Word of the LORD, you who tremble at His Word! “Your relatives, who hate you and who are excluding you for My name’s sake, are saying,

‘Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy!’ However, they themselves will be ashamed.”

<sup>6</sup> Listen! There is a roar from the city! There is a sound from the Temple! It is the sound of the LORD, paying back His enemies as they deserve.

Joy over the birth of God’s nation

<sup>7</sup> “Before she went into labour, she gave birth to a child. Before pains of childbirth came on her, she delivered a male child. <sup>8</sup> Who has heard of anything like this? Who has seen such things? Can a country be brought forth in one day? Or can a nation be born in one moment? For, as soon as Zion had her labour-pains, she gave birth to her children. <sup>9</sup> Shall I Myself cause water to break and not cause a child to be born?” asks the LORD. “Or shall I Myself, who cause a child to be delivered, prevent its birth from happening?” is what your God has asked.

The hand of the LORD will be made known to His servants, but He will express His wrath against His enemies. <sup>15</sup> For look! The LORD will come with fire, and His chariots will be like the whirlwind, to pay back His anger in fury and His rebuke with flames of fire. <sup>16</sup> For the LORD will begin to judge with fire. He will use His sword to judge all human beings, and those whom the LORD slays will be numerous.

<sup>17</sup> “Those who sanctify and purify themselves to go into the gardens, behind someone in the middle, eating pigs’ meat and other abominations and mice, will come to an end together,” declares the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> “For I know their actions and their thoughts, and the time is coming to assemble all the nations and languages. They will come and see My glory. <sup>19</sup> I shall set up a sign among them and send some of those who have been spared to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul and the Lydians, who draw the bow, to Tubal, the Ionians and the distant coastlands, which have not heard of My fame or seen My glory. They will proclaim My glory among the nations.”

<sup>20</sup> They will bring all your brothers out of all the nations, as an offering to the LORD.

“They will come, on horses, on chariots, in covered wagons, on mules and on camels, to My holy mountain, Jerusalem,” the LORD has said, “They will come like the people of Israel, who will bring their grain-offering in ceremonially clean vessels to the Temple of the LORD. <sup>21</sup> I shall also take some of them to be the priests and the Levites,” the LORD has said.

Isaiah

<sup>22</sup> “For, as the new heavens and the new earth that I am about to make will endure before Me,” declares the LORD, “so your descendants and your name will endure. <sup>23</sup> From one New Moon to the next New Moon and from one Sabbath to the next Sabbath all human beings will come to worship before Me,” the LORD has said.

<sup>24</sup> “Then they will go out and look at the corpses of the men who have rebelled against Me. For their worms will not die, their fire will not go out, and all human beings will detest them.”

JEREMIAH

The call of Jeremiah to give messages from God to the people

<sup>4</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me, <sup>5</sup> “I knew you before I formed you in the womb. I consecrated you before you were born. I have made you a prophet to the nations.”

<sup>6</sup> Nevertheless, I said: “Alas, O Lord GOD! Look! I do not know how to speak. For I am only a youth.”

<sup>7</sup> However, the LORD told me: “Do not say, ‘I am only a youth!’ For you shall go to everyone to whom I send you and say whatever I command you! <sup>8</sup> Do not be afraid of them! For I am with you to rescue you,” the LORD declared.

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD stretched out His hand and touched my mouth. The LORD told me: “Look! I have put My Words in your mouth. <sup>10</sup> See! Today I have appointed you to be over the nations and the kingdoms, to pull out by the roots and to tear down, to destroy and to demolish, to build and to plant.”

<sup>11</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: “What do you see, Jeremiah?”

I answered, “The branch of an almond tree.”

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD said to me: “You have seen correctly. For I am ‘watching’<sup>*134</sup> over My Word, to carry it out.”

<sup>13</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me a second time: “What do you see?”

I said, “I see a boiling pot, and the front of it is facing away from the north.”

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD told me: “Calamity will be let loose from the north on all those who live in the land.

<sup>15</sup> For look! I am calling all the clans of the kingdoms in the north,” declares the LORD. “They will come, and each one will set up his throne at the entrance of the city-gates of Jerusalem. They will attack the walls all around it and all the other cities of Judah. <sup>16</sup> I shall pronounce My judgments against them because of all their wickedness in forsaking Me. They have been burning offerings to other gods and have been worshipping what their own hands have made.

<sup>17</sup> However, you must tuck your tunic into your belt! Get up and tell them everything that I Myself shall command you. Do not be intimidated in front of them, that I may not shatter you in front of them! <sup>18</sup> Look! Today I Myself have made you a fortified city, an iron pillar and bronze walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its officials, against its priests and against the people of the land. <sup>19</sup> They will fight against you but will not defeat you. For I am with you,” declares the LORD, “and I shall rescue you.”

2

An accusation that the people continue to reject God’s love for them

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Go and announce for Jerusalem to hear: ‘This is what the LORD has said: “I remember your faithful love when you were young, your love when you were betrothed. I remember that you used to follow Me in the wilderness, in a land that had not been sown. <sup>3</sup> Israel was holy to the LORD, the first part of His harvest. All who devoured Israel became guilty. Calamity used to come on them,”” declares the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> Hear the Word of the LORD, family of Jacob, and all you clans of the family of Israel! <sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD has asked: “What wrong have your fathers found in Me that they have gone so far away from Me? They have been following worthless idols and become worthless. <sup>6</sup> They have not asked, ‘Where is the LORD, who brought us up from Egypt and who led us through the wilderness, through a land with deserts and gorges, through a land of drought and deep darkness, through a land that no one crossed, and where no human being lived?’

<sup>7</sup> “I brought you to an orchard-land to eat its fruit and its good things. However, when you went in, you defiled My land and made My inheritance disgusting.

<sup>8</sup> The priests did not ask, ‘Where is the LORD?’ Those who handled the Law did not know Me. The rulers also rebelled against Me. The prophets prophesied by invoking Baal and followed things that could not benefit them. <sup>9</sup> That is why I shall contest a lawsuit with you again,” declares the LORD, “and I shall contest a lawsuit with your children’s children. <sup>10</sup> For go across to the coasts of Cyprus and look! Send someone to Kedar and examine carefully! See whether there has ever been anything like this! <sup>11</sup> Has any nation exchanged its gods, even though they are not gods? However, My people have exchanged their Glory for something that could not benefit them. <sup>12</sup> Be appalled at this, you heavens! Let your hair stand on end and be utterly desolate!” declares the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> “For My people have committed two wrongs: They have forsaken Me, the Fountain of living water, and have hewn out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns, which cannot hold water.

<sup>14</sup> “Is Israel a slave? Has he been born in the home as a slave? Why, then, has he become a prey? <sup>15</sup> Young lions used to roar against him. They roared loudly and made his country a wasteland. His cities have been made desolate, so that no one is living there. <sup>16</sup> Moreover, the men of Noph and Tahpanhes were shaving the crown of your head. <sup>17</sup> Have you not brought this on yourself by forsaking the LORD, your God, when He was leading you along the way? <sup>18</sup> Since this is so, what do you gain by going to Egypt to drink the water of the Nile? What do you gain by going to Assyria to drink the water of the Euphrates? <sup>19</sup> Your own wickedness will correct you, and your own rebellious ways will chasten you. Experience, then and see that it is evil and bitter for you to forsake the LORD, your God, and to have no fear of Me in you," declares the Lord GOD of hosts. <sup>20</sup> "For long ago I smashed your yoke and tore your chains apart. However, you said, 'I will not serve!' Yes, you kept lying down like a prostitute on every high hill and under every spreading tree. <sup>21</sup> Yet I Myself had planted you as an entire bright-red grape-cutting, of genuine stock. How, then, could you change into the degenerate shoots of a wild vine for Me? <sup>22</sup> Even though you washed yourself with natron and used much soap, the stain of your guilt would remain before Me," declares the Lord GOD. <sup>23</sup> "How can you say, 'I have not defiled myself. I have not been following the Baals'? Look at your conduct in the valley! Acknowledge what you have been doing, you nimble young she-camel running about aimlessly! <sup>24</sup> You are a wild donkey accustomed to the wilderness, which has been sniffing the wind in her craving! Who can restrain her when she is on heat? No one who is searching for her needs to tire himself out. They will all find her during her mating season. <sup>25</sup> "Prevent yourself from going with bare feet and stop your throat from becoming thirsty! However, you kept saying, 'It is no use! No! For I love strangers and will follow them!' <sup>26</sup> "As a thief feels ashamed when he is caught, so the family of Israel, their kings, their princes, their priests and their prophets are ashamed. <sup>27</sup> You tell a piece of wood, 'You are my father.' You tell a stone, 'You gave me birth.' For they have been turning their backs to Me, instead of their faces. However, when they are in trouble, they say, 'Rise up and save us!' <sup>28</sup> Nevertheless, where are your gods that you have made for yourself? Let them rise up, if they can save you, when you are in trouble! For, Judah, your gods have been as numerous as your cities. <sup>29</sup> "Why do you complain to Me? You have all been rebelling against Me," declares the LORD. <sup>30</sup> "I have been striking your children down without any result. They have not been responding to correction. Your own sword has been devouring your prophets like a ravaging lion. <sup>31</sup> You class of people, pay attention to the Word of the LORD! Have I been a wilderness to Israel or a very dark land? Why have My people been saying, 'We have begun to wander around freely; we shall not come to You any longer'?' <sup>32</sup> Can a virgin forget her pieces of jewellery or a bride her sashes? Yet My people have forgotten Me, for days beyond counting. <sup>33</sup> How skilfully you go about searching for love! That is why you have been teaching your ways even to wicked women. <sup>34</sup> The blood of innocent poor people has even been found on your skirts. You had not caught them while they were breaking into your home. Rather, despite all these things, <sup>35</sup> you say, 'I am innocent. Surely His anger will turn away from me.' Look! I am going to begin to judge you for saying, 'I have not been sinning.' <sup>36</sup> How much you go about, as you change your ways! You will be ashamed because of Egypt, as you have been ashamed because of Assyria."

<sup>37</sup> You will also come away from there with your hands on your head. For the LORD has rejected those on whom you rely. They will not make you successful.

An accusation that Judah is being unfaithful

<sup>1</sup> "There is a saying: 'If a man divorces his wife, and she leaves him and marries another man, should the first man go back to her again?' Would that land not become thoroughly defiled? Yet you have committed fornication with many lovers. Should you come back to Me?" asks the LORD. <sup>2</sup> "Lift up your eyes to the bare heights and see! Where have you not been having sexual relations? You have been sitting beside the roads waiting for them like an Arab in the wilderness. You have been defiling the land with your acts of fornication and other wickedness. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, the Spring-showers have been held back, and the Spring-rain has not come. Yet you have had the forehead of a prostitute. You have refused to be ashamed. <sup>4</sup> Have you not just now called to Me, 'My Father, You have been my Friend since I was young! <sup>5</sup> Would He hold a grudge for ever? Would He keep on being angry for ever?'"

"Look! You have been saying and doing all the evil of which you have been capable."

A call to repentance

<sup>6</sup> The LORD asked me in the days of King Josiah: "Have you seen what unfaithful Israel has been doing? She has been going up onto every high hill and underneath every spreading tree and has been committing fornication there! <sup>7</sup> I thought, 'After she has done all this she will turn back to Me.' However, she has not turned back, and her treacherous sister Judah has been watching her. <sup>8</sup> Then I saw that, although I had divorced unfaithful Israel just because of the adultery that she had been committing and, although I had given her certificate of divorce to her, her unfaithful sister Judah was not afraid. She also went and committed fornication. <sup>9</sup> Because she has been so frivolous about her fornication, she has defiled the land, committing fornication with stones and pieces of wood. <sup>10</sup> Even despite all this, her treacherous sister, Judah, has not come back to Me with her whole heart, except in a deceitful way,” declares the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD told me: “Unfaithful Israel has proved herself to have been more righteous than treacherous Judah has been. <sup>12</sup> Go and announce these Words towards the north and say: ‘Come back, unfaithful Israel!’ declares the LORD. ‘I shall not look on you in anger. For I am merciful,’ declares the LORD. ‘I shall not be angry for ever. <sup>13</sup> Only acknowledge your guilt! For you have been rebelling against the LORD, your God. You have been conducting yourself freely with strangers under every spreading tree and have been disobeying My voice,’” declares the LORD.

God's offer to forgive the ten tribes of Israel

<sup>14</sup> “Turn back, unfaithful children,” declares the LORD. “For I have married you. I shall take you, one from a city, and two from a clan, and bring you to Zion. <sup>15</sup> I shall give you shepherds after My own heart, and they will pasture you with knowledge and insight. <sup>16</sup> When you have become numerous and fruitful in the land, in those days,” declares the LORD, “people will not say any longer, ‘The Ark of the Covenant of the LORD.’ It will not come to mind, be remembered or missed, and no other one will be made. <sup>17</sup> At that time people will call Jerusalem ‘the throne of the LORD.’ All nations will assemble at Jerusalem, to honour the name of the LORD. They will not follow their own stubborn and evil hearts any longer. <sup>18</sup> In those days the family of Judah will join the family of Israel. They will come together from the land of the north to the land that I have given to your ancestors as their inheritance. <sup>19</sup> I Myself thought, ‘How I would like to treat you like children and give you a desirable land and the most beautiful inheritance among the nations!’ I thought, ‘You will call me, “My Father,” and you will not turn away from following Me.’ <sup>20</sup> You have certainly been unfaithful to Me, like an unfaithful wife who leaves her husband, family of Israel,” declares the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> Listen! The weeping and pleading of the children of Israel has been heard on the barren heights. For they have made their way crooked. They have forgotten the LORD, their God.

Israel's response

“Yes, we have come to You. For You are the LORD, our God. <sup>23</sup> Surely, what is from the hills, the turmoil on the mountains, has become an illusion. Surely, the salvation of Israel is in the LORD, our God. <sup>24</sup> However, since we have been young, what is shameful has been devouring everything that our ancestors have acquired, their flocks, their herds, their sons and their daughters. <sup>25</sup> Let us lie down in our shame, and let our disgrace cover us! For our fathers and we have been sinning against the LORD, our God, ever since we were young until the present day. We have not been listening to the voice of the LORD, our God.”

An invitation to the people to come back to God

<sup>1</sup> “If you come back, Israel,” declares the LORD, “come back to Me! If you remove your detestable things out of My sight and do not wander away, <sup>2</sup> and, if you swear, ‘As surely as the LORD lives...’ in a true, just and righteous way, then nations will be blessed by Him and boast in Him.”

A threat to Judah of destruction from the north

<sup>3</sup> For this is what the LORD has said to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem: “Plough up your unploughed ground and do not sow among thorny bushes! <sup>4</sup> Be circumcised by the LORD! Remove the uncircumcision of your hearts, men of Judah, and you who live in Jerusalem, that My fury may not go out like fire and burn with no one to put it out, because of the evil that you are doing!

<sup>8</sup> Because of this, put on sackcloth, wail and howl! For the burning anger of the LORD has not turned away from us.

<sup>9</sup> “On that day,” declares the LORD, “the king and the other leaders will lose their courage. The priests will be appalled and the prophets will freeze with horror.”

<sup>10</sup> Then I said: “Oh, Lord GOD, surely You have utterly deceived this people and Jerusalem by saying, ‘You will have peace,’ while a sword is being held at their throats.”

<sup>11</sup> “At that time it will be said to this people and to Jerusalem: ‘A searing wind from the barren heights in the desert is blowing toward the daughter of My people but not to winnow and not to sift out. <sup>12</sup> It will be a stronger wind than these are. It will come for Me. Now even I Myself shall pronounce sentences against them.’”

<sup>13</sup> Look! He will come up like clouds. His chariots will be like a windstorm. His horses will be faster than eagles. How terrible it will be for us! For we shall be devastated.

<sup>14</sup> “Jerusalem, wash the evil from your heart, that you may be saved! How long will you allow wicked plans to linger inside you? <sup>15</sup> For a voice is making a report from Dan. It is bringing news of calamity from Mount Ephraim. <sup>16</sup> Report this to the nations! Yes, proclaim it to Jerusalem, ‘Watchmen are coming from a distant land. They are shouting against the cities of Judah. <sup>17</sup> They will surround it like men who are guarding a field.’ For it has rebelled against Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>18</sup> Your own ways and your own actions are bringing this on you. This is your own calamity. It is certainly bitter. It has certainly reached your own heart.

Jeremiah’s response to the impending destruction

<sup>19</sup> My inner being! My inner being! I am writhing! The walls of my heart! My heart is pounding. I cannot keep silent. For I myself have been hearing the sound of the trumpet, the alarm for war. <sup>20</sup> One crash happens after another. For the whole land has been devastated. My own tents have been suddenly devastated. My tent-curtains are destroyed in a moment. <sup>21</sup> How much longer must I see the standard and listen to the sound of the trumpet?

God’s reason for the coming destruction

They are senseless children and have no understanding. They are skilled in doing evil but do not know how to do good. <sup>23</sup> I looked at the earth and saw that it was formless and empty. I looked at the heavens, and their light was not there. <sup>24</sup> When I looked at the mountains, I saw that they were quaking and that all the hills were being jolted back and forth. <sup>25</sup> When I looked, I saw that there was no human being and that every bird in the sky had fled. <sup>26</sup> When I looked, I saw that the orchard had become a desert and that all its cities had been torn down before the LORD, before His burning anger.

<sup>27</sup> For this is what the LORD has said: “The whole country will be a sinister desolation, and yet I shall not destroy it completely. <sup>28</sup> The earth will mourn over this, and the skies above will grow dark. For I have spoken. I have planned it. I shall not relent or turn back from it.”

<sup>29</sup> Because of the noise of horsemen and archers, every city is taking to flight. People have gone into thickets. They have climbed up among rocks. Every city has been deserted, and no one is living in them.

<sup>30</sup> When you are ruined, what are you going to do? Although you dress in crimson, although you decorate yourself with golden jewellery, although you use paint to make your eyes appear larger, you are adorning yourself in vain. Your lovers have rejected you. They want to take your life. <sup>31</sup> For I have heard a cry like that of a woman in labour, anguish like that of one bearing her first child, the cry of the daughter of Zion gasping for breath, stretching out her hands: “O how terrible it is for me! For my life has become exhausted because of the murderers.”

Judah’s rejection of God

Please look and find out! Search its city-squares to see if you can find anyone who is acting justly and looking for the truth, that I may pardon it. <sup>2</sup> Even if they are saying, ‘As the LORD lives,’ the oath they are making is still a lie.”

<sup>3</sup> LORD, do not Your eyes look for truth? Although You have struck them down, they have felt no pain. Although You have consumed them, they have refused to accept correction. They have made their faces harder than rock. They have refused to turn back.

<sup>4</sup> Then I myself thought: “These are only insignificant people. They have become foolish. For they do not know the conduct required by the LORD and the just Requirements of their God. <sup>5</sup> Let me go to the important people and speak to them! For they know the Way of the LORD, the just demands of their God.” Even they had all alike broken the yoke. They had torn the chains apart. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, a lion from the thicket will strike them down. A wolf from the desert will devastate them. A leopard will be lying in wait beside their cities. Everyone who goes outside them will be torn to pieces. For they have often been acting rebelliously, and their unfaithful deeds are numerous.

<sup>7</sup> “Why should I forgive you for this? Your children have been forsaking Me and have been making oaths by those who are not gods. When I satisfied their needs, they committed adultery and gashed themselves in the houses of prostitutes. <sup>8</sup> They have been well-fed, lustful stallions. Each one has been neighing for his neighbour’s wife. <sup>9</sup> Shall I not call them to account for these things?” asks the LORD. “Shall I not get My revenge on a nation that is like this? <sup>10</sup> Go up through its vine-terraces and destroy them without finishing them off completely! Strip away its vine-branches! For they do not belong to the LORD. <sup>11</sup> For the family of Israel and the family of Judah have been treating Me very treacherously,” declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> They have been telling lies about the LORD, saying, “He will do nothing. No calamity will happen to us. We shall not experience sword or famine.”

<sup>13</sup> The prophets will prove to be only wind. The Word is not in them. Let what they say be done to them!

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of hosts, has said: “Because you people have said this, look! I am making My Words become a fire in your mouths and am making these people pieces of wood, and the fire will consume them. <sup>15</sup> Look, family of Israel! I am bringing a nation against you from far away,” declares the LORD. “It is a long-established nation. It is an ancient nation. You do not know its language or understand what they say. <sup>16</sup> Their quiver is like an open grave. They are all mighty warriors. <sup>17</sup> They will devour your harvest and your food. They will devour your sons and your daughters. They will devour your flocks and your herds. They will smash down your vines and your fig trees. They will use their swords to destroy your fortified cities, in which you trust.

18 “However, even in those days,” declares the LORD, “I shall not destroy you completely.”

19 “When your people ask, ‘Why has the LORD, our God, done all these things to us?’ you shall tell them, ‘As you have been forsaking Me and serving foreign gods in your own country, so you will serve foreigners in a country that is not your own.’

20 “Announce this in the family of Jacob! Proclaim it in Judah: 21 ‘Please listen to this, foolish and senseless people, who have eyes but do not see, who have ears but do not hear! 22 Do you not fear Me?’ asks the LORD. ‘Do you not tremble before Me? For I have made the sand as the boundary for the sea, a perpetual limit that it cannot go across. Although its waves rise and fall loudly, they cannot prevail. Although they roar, they cannot go across it.’

23 “However, this people has had stubborn and rebellious hearts. They have turned aside and gone away.

24 They do not say to themselves: ‘Let us fear the LORD, our God, who sends rain at the right time, the Autumn-rain and the Spring-rain! He preserves for us the weeks that are set for the harvest.’ 25 Your wrongdoings have been turning these things away. Your sins have been keeping good things away from you. 26 For wicked men have been found among My people. They are crouching down in wait like bird-catchers. They have set up snares. They are catching people. 27 Like a cage full of birds, their houses are full of deceit. That is why they have become great and rich. 28 They have grown fat and sleek. They have passed all bounds in committing evil deeds. They have not been pleading the legal claims of orphans that they may be successful. They have not been defending the rights of needy people. 29 Shall I not call them to account for these things?” asks the LORD “Shall I not get My revenge on a nation that is like this?

30 “An atrocious and horrible thing has been happening in the land: 31 The prophets have been prophesying lies, and the priests are ruling by their own authority. My people love to have it like this. Nevertheless, what will you do when the end of it comes?”

A warning that an invasion is imminent because of Judah's rejection of God

1 “Flee for safety out of Jerusalem, people of Benjamin! Blow the trumpet in Tekoa! Raise a fire-signal on Beth-Hakkerem! For calamity and great destruction have begun to threaten from the north. 2 I shall destroy the daughter of Zion, although she is lovely and delicate. 3 Shepherds will come against her with their flocks and pitch their tents all around her, and each of them will drive his sheep to pasture in his own place.”

4 “Prepare for holy war against her! Arise and let us attack at noon!”

How terrible it will be for us! For the day has declined! For the evening shadows are getting longer!

5 “Rise up and let us attack by night and destroy her fortified palaces!”

6 For this is what the LORD of hosts has said: “Cut down the trees! Build up assault-ramps against Jerusalem! This is the city that must be punished. There is nothing but oppression inside it. 7 As a well keeps its water cool, so it has been keeping its evil fresh. Violence and destruction are heard in it. Suffering and wounds are constantly before Me. 8 Be warned, Jerusalem, or I shall turn away from you in disgust and make you a wasteland, a land where no one lives!”

9 This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “They will thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a grapevine. Like someone picking grapes, pass your hand over its branches again!”

10 To whom shall I speak and give a warning, that they may hear? Look! Their ears are uncircumcised. They cannot pay attention. Look! The Word of the LORD has become an object of scorn to them. They take no delight in it. 11 I am full of the wrath of the LORD. I have become tired of holding it in. Pour it out on the children in the street and on the groups of young men! For husbands, as well as wives, old men and very old people will be trapped at the same time.

12 “Their houses, fields and wives will be turned over to others at the same time. For I shall stretch out My hand against those who are living in the land,” declares the LORD. 13 “For all of them, from the least to the greatest of them, are greedy for dishonest profit. All of them, prophets and priests alike, act deceitfully.

14 They have not been serious in healing the wounds of My people. They have been saying, ‘Peace, peace,’ when there is no peace. 15 Were they ashamed when they committed disgusting things? No, they were not ashamed at all. They did not know how to blush. That is why they will fall among those who fall. They will be thrown down at the time when I call them to account,” the LORD has said.

16 This is what the LORD has said: “I told them, ‘Stand beside the roads and look! Ask for the paths of long ago, where the road is that leads to good things. Walk on it and find a resting-place for yourselves!’ However, they have been saying, ‘We will not walk on it!’ 17 I appointed watchmen over you and said, ‘Pay attention to the sound of the trumpet!’ However, they said, ‘We will not pay attention!’ 18 Therefore, listen, you nations! You in this community should realise what will happen to them! 19 Listen, earth! Look! I am bringing a calamity on this people, the result of their own schemes. For they have not been paying attention to My Words. As for My Teaching, they have rejected it. 20 What use to Me is frankincense that comes from Sheba or sweet cane from a distant land? Your burnt offerings are not acceptable, and your other sacrifices do not please Me.”

21 Therefore, this is what the LORD has said: “Look! I am going to lay obstacles in front of this people.

Parents and children alike will stumble over them. Neighbours and their friends will perish.”

<sup>22</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “Look! A people is coming from the country in the north. A great nation is being woken up in the distant places of the earth. <sup>23</sup> They take hold of bows and spears. They are cruel and have no compassion. They sound like the roaring sea. They ride on horses. They are lined up in battle formation against you, daughter of Zion!”

<sup>24</sup> We have heard the report about it. Our hands have been hanging limp. Anguish has taken hold of us, pain like that of a woman giving birth to a child. <sup>25</sup> Do not go out into the open country or walk on the road! For the enemy has a sword. Terror is all around. <sup>26</sup> Daughter of my people, put on sackcloth and roll about in ashes! Mourn as if for an only son! Wail bitterly! For the destroyer will come on us suddenly.

A Message from God to Jeremiah

<sup>27</sup> “I have made you one who tests metal ore among My people, that you may get to know their ways and test them. <sup>28</sup> They are all sullen rebels. They go around slandering. They are bronze and iron. All of them behave corruptly. <sup>29</sup> Although the bellows have been puffing, the lead has remained unaffected by the fire. The thorough refining has been going on in vain. The wicked people have not been purged out. <sup>30</sup> People will call them, ‘Rejected silver.’”
For the LORD has rejected them.”

A prediction that the Temple will be like Shiloh because Judah trusts in the wrong things

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD. It said: <sup>2</sup> “Stand at the gate of the house of the LORD and proclaim this Message from there! Say: ‘Listen to the Word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who are entering through these gates to worship the LORD! <sup>3</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: “Amend your ways and your deeds, that I may let you live in this place! <sup>4</sup> Do not trust in these deceptive words, ‘This is the Temple of the LORD, the Temple of the LORD, the Temple of the LORD!’ <sup>5</sup> For, if you thoroughly amend your ways and your deeds, if you really deal justly with one another, <sup>6</sup> if you do not oppress the resident-foreigner, the orphan and the widow or murder innocent people in this place and, if you do not follow other gods to your own harm, <sup>7</sup> then I shall let you live in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers long ago for ever. <sup>8</sup> Look! You are trusting in deceptive words, which cannot help you. <sup>9</sup> Will you steal, murder, commit adultery, swear false oaths, burn offerings to Baal and follow other gods, which you have not known, <sup>10</sup> and then come in and stand before Me in this house, which has been called by My name, and say, ‘We have been rescued!’ only to keep on doing all these disgusting things? <sup>11</sup> Has this house, which has been called by My name, become a den of robbers in your sight?

Look! I Myself have also seen this,’” declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> “However, please go to My place that was at Shiloh, where I first caused My name to dwell, and see what I have done to it because of the wickedness of My people Israel. <sup>13</sup> Now therefore, because you have been doing all these things,” declares the LORD, “and because, when I spoke to you most persistently, you were not listening, and, because, when I called you, you were not answering, <sup>14</sup> I shall do to this house, which has been called by My name, the house in which you are trusting, the place that I had given to you and to your fathers, what I have done to Shiloh. <sup>15</sup> I shall throw you out of My sight as I threw out all your relatives, all of Ephraim’s descendants.”

A warning of God’s anger because of disobedience

<sup>16</sup> “As for you, do not pray for this people! Do not offer any cry of lament or prayer for them! Do not plead with Me! For I shall not listen to you. <sup>17</sup> Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>18</sup> The children collect wood, the fathers light the fire and the women knead dough, to make sacrificial cakes for the queen of heaven. They pour out drink-offerings to other gods, so that they provoke Me to anger.

<sup>19</sup> “Is it I whom they are provoking?” asks the LORD. “Is it not themselves, so that their own faces are filled with shame?”

<sup>20</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! My anger and My wrath will be poured out on this place, on human beings and on animals, on the trees in the field and the produce of the ground. My anger will burn and will not go out.”

An admonition to the people to obey God

<sup>21</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: “Add your burnt offerings to your other sacrifices and eat the meat! <sup>22</sup> For, on the day when I brought your fathers out of Egypt, I did not speak to them or give them Commands about burnt offerings and sacrifices. <sup>23</sup> However, I gave them this Command: ‘Obey My voice, and I shall be your God, and you will be My people! Walk in all the Ways that I command you, that it may be well with you.’

<sup>24</sup> However, they did not listen or pay attention but followed their own plans and their own stubborn and evil hearts. They went backward and not forward. <sup>25</sup> Since the day when your fathers came out of Egypt until now I have been persistently sending all My servants the prophets to you, day after day. <sup>26</sup> Yet they have not listened to Me or paid attention. Rather, they have become obstinate. They have been doing more evil than their fathers had done.”

<sup>27</sup> “You shall speak all these Words to them, but they will not listen to you. You shall call to them, but they will not answer you. <sup>28</sup> You shall tell them, ‘This is the nation that has not listened to the voice of the LORD, their God, and has not accepted discipline. Truth has perished. It has been eliminated from their lips.”

A prediction that all happiness will disappear because of the worship of idols

<sup>29</sup> Cut off the hair of your sacred vow and throw it away! Raise a lamentation on the barren heights! For the LORD has rejected and forsaken this generation, with which He is angry.

<sup>30</sup> “For the people of Judah have been doing what I consider evil,” declares the LORD. “They have set up their detestable idols in the house that has been called by My name, so that they have defiled it. <sup>31</sup> They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire. I had not commanded this. It had not entered My mind. <sup>32</sup> Look! That is why the days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when it will not be called ‘Topheth’ any longer or ‘The Valley of the Son of Hinnom,’ but ‘the Valley of Slaughter.’ They will bury people in Topheth, because there will be no room anywhere else. <sup>33</sup> The dead bodies of these people will be eaten by the birds in the sky and by the animals on the ground, and there will be no one to frighten them away. <sup>34</sup> I shall silence the sounds of joy and jubilation in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem and the voices of the bridegroom and the bride. For the land will become a site of ruins.”

8

A judgment on Judah’s false worship

<sup>4</sup> “You shall also tell them: ‘This is what the LORD has asked: “Do people fall and not get back up? Does someone turn away and not come back? <sup>5</sup> Why has this people, Jerusalem, been seduced? Why is it constantly in apostasy? They have been clinging to deceitfulness. They have refused to return. <sup>6</sup> I have been paying attention and listening, but they are not saying what is right. No one regrets his wickedness and asks, ‘What have I done?’ Everyone turns to his own way of running like a horse plunging headlong into battle. <sup>7</sup> Even a stork in the sky knows its appointed seasons. A turtledove, a swallow and a crane observe when it is time to migrate, but My people do not know what the LORD prescribes.”

<sup>8</sup> “How can you say, ‘We are wise, and the Law of the LORD is with us’? Look! The lying pen of the scribes has actually turned it into a lie. <sup>9</sup> The wise men will be ashamed. They will be dismayed and trapped. Look! They have rejected the Word of the LORD. So, what kind of wisdom do they have? <sup>10</sup> Therefore, I shall give their wives to other men and their fields to new owners. For everyone from the least to the greatest is greedy for dishonest gain. Everyone, both prophet and priest, is acting deceitfully. <sup>11</sup> They have not been serious in healing the wounds of the daughter of My people. They have been saying, ‘Peace, peace,’ when there is no peace. <sup>12</sup> Were they ashamed when they committed disgusting things? No, they were not even ashamed at all. They did not know how to blush. That is why they will fall among those who fall. They will be thrown down at the time when I call them to account,” the LORD has said. <sup>13</sup> “I shall bring their vintage to an end,” declares the LORD. “There will be no grapes on the vine, and no figs on the fig tree. Even the leaves will have withered, and the things that I have given to them will be taken away from them.”

A complaint of the people that their God is destroying them

<sup>14</sup> “Why are we sitting still? Gather together! Let us go into the fortified cities and perish there! For the LORD, our God, has doomed us to perish. He has given us poisonous water to drink, because we have been sinning against the LORD. <sup>15</sup> We were waiting for peace, but no good has come, for a time of healing but we have seen only terror.”

God’s threat that He will destroy the land

<sup>16</sup> “The snorting of their horses will be heard from Dan. The whole land will quake because of the sound of their neighing stallions. They will come and devour the land and everything in it, the city and those who live in it. <sup>17</sup> For look! I am sending snakes among you, vipers that cannot be charmed, and they will bite you,” declares the LORD.

Jeremiah’s grief over his people’s punishment

<sup>18</sup> O my Source of comfort above sorrow, my faint heart is a burden to me. <sup>19</sup> Listen to the voice, the cry for help, of the daughter of my people from a distant land: “Is the LORD not in Zion? Is her King not there?”

“Why have they provoked Me to rage with their images, with the worthless idols of a foreign land?”

<sup>20</sup> The harvest has past, the summer has ended, and we have not been saved! <sup>21</sup> I have been crushed because the daughter of my people has been crushed. I have been wearing mourning clothes. Horror has been taking hold of me. <sup>22</sup> Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no one there who is skilled in healing? Why, then, has the healing of the daughter of my people not progressed?

<sup>1</sup> I wish that my head were water and that my eyes were a fountain of tears, so that I could weep day and night for those of the daughter of my people who have been killed! <sup>2</sup> I wish that I had in the wilderness a place where travellers spend the night, that I might leave my people and go away from them! For they are all adulterers, a gathering of treacherous people.

God's complaint that there is no honesty in the land

<sup>3</sup> "They have been bending their tongues to shoot falsehood as they bend their bows. They have not championed the truth in the land. For they have been proceeding from one evil act to another and do not know Me," declares the LORD. <sup>4</sup> "Everyone should beware of his neighbour, and no one should trust any brother. For every brother will certainly be deceptive, and every neighbour will go around slandering. <sup>5</sup> Everyone will cheat his neighbour, and no one will tell the truth. They have been training their tongues to tell lies. They have been wearing themselves out doing wrong. <sup>6</sup> You are living in the middle of deceit. In their deceit they have refused to know Me," declares the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD of hosts has said: "Look! I shall refine them and test them. For what else can I do, because of the daughter of My people?"

<sup>8</sup> Their tongues have been murderous arrows. They have been speaking deceitfully. With his mouth each one will speak to his neighbour in a friendly way but in his inner being he will set up an ambush for him. <sup>9</sup> Shall I not call them to account for these things?" declares the LORD, "and shall I not take My own revenge on a nation that is like this?"

Jeremiah's prediction that Jerusalem will be a heap of ruins

<sup>10</sup> I shall begin to weep and wail for the mountains and begin a lamentation for the pastures in the wilderness. For they will be burnt, so that no one will be able to go across them. The lowing of cattle will not be heard. Both the birds in the sky and the animals will flee and go away.

<sup>11</sup> "I shall turn Jerusalem into heaps of rubble, a lair of jackals. I shall make the cities of Judah desolate, so that no one lives there."

Jeremiah's question why God will do this to Judah

<sup>12</sup> Who is the man who is wise enough to understand this? To whom has the mouth of the LORD spoken, that he may predict it? Why will the land be ruined and made desolate like a wilderness, so that no one goes across it?

God's reply to Jeremiah

<sup>13</sup> The LORD answered: "Because they have been forsaking My Law, which I had put before them, and have not been listening to My voice or walking according to it. <sup>14</sup> They have been following their own stubborn hearts and have been following the Baals, as their fathers have taught them."

<sup>15</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: "Look! I shall feed these people with wormwood and give them poisonous water to drink. <sup>16</sup> I shall scatter them among the nations, which neither they nor their fathers have known. I shall send the sword after them, until I wipe them out."

A call for a lament over the destruction of the people

<sup>17</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said: "Behave intelligently!"

Call for the wailing women, that they may come! Send for the women who are most skilful, that they may come! <sup>18</sup> They should quickly begin a lamentation over us, that our eyes may let tears flow down and our eyelids may be soaked with weeping! <sup>19</sup> For a sound of wailing has been heard from Zion: "How we have been ruined! We have become very ashamed, because we have left the land, and they have thrown down our dwellings."

<sup>20</sup> For listen to the Word of the LORD, women! Let your ears understand the Word from His mouth! Teach a lament to your daughters! Teach one another a dirge! <sup>21</sup> For death has climbed up into our windows. It has entered our fortified palaces. It has cut off the children from the streets and the young men from the squares. <sup>22</sup> Say, "This is what the LORD declares: 'The dead bodies of human beings will fall like manure on the surface of a field, like fallen stalks of grain behind a reaper when there is no one to glean them.'"

An assertion that the Lord is the only true God

<sup>23</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "Let the wise person not boast about his wisdom, and let the strong person not boast about his strength! Let the rich person not boast about his wealth! <sup>24</sup> Rather let the person who boasts boast about this: that he has insight and knows Me, that I am the LORD and that I act with mercy, justice and righteousness on the earth! For I take pleasure in these things," declares the LORD.

A warning about uncircumcised hearts

<sup>25</sup> "Look! The days are coming," declares the LORD, "when I shall call to account all those who are circumcised and are not really circumcised. <sup>26</sup> I shall call to account Egypt, Judah, Edom, the Ammonites, Moab and all who live in the desert with their hair trimmed at the temples. For all these nations are uncircumcised, and the whole family of Israel have uncircumcised hearts."

10

A contrast between God and idols

<sup>1</sup> Listen to the Word that the LORD has spoken to you, family of Israel! <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "Do not learn the ways of the nations and do not be dismayed by the signs in the sky!"

For the nations are dismayed at them. <sup>3</sup> For the customs of the other peoples are worthless. For someone has cut down a tree from the forest. A carpenter's hands use a woodworking tool to prepare it. <sup>4</sup> They decorate it with silver and gold. They use nails and hammers to make it firm so that it will not wobble.

<sup>5</sup> Their idols are like a scarecrow in a cucumber patch and cannot speak. They certainly must be carried, because they cannot stride about. Do not be afraid of them! For they cannot do any harm or do any good, either.

<sup>6</sup> There is no one like You, LORD. You are great, and Your name has great power. <sup>7</sup> Who will not fear You, O King of the nations? For this is appropriate for You. For there is no one like You among all the wise people in the nations and in all their kingdoms. <sup>8</sup> They are senseless and foolish at one and the same time. The instruction that idols give is nothing but wood. <sup>9</sup> Thinly-hammered silver is brought from Tarsish and gold from Uphaz. A craftsman and the hands of a goldsmith prepare them. They are dressed in wool dyed purple and maroon. Skilled workers make them all. <sup>10</sup> However, the LORD is the true God. He is the living God and the everlasting King. His anger causes the earth to quake, and the nations cannot endure His fury. <sup>11</sup> You people must speak to them like this: “The gods who have not made the heavens and the earth will perish from the earth and from under heaven.”

<sup>12</sup> He used His power to make the earth. He used His wisdom to set up the world. He used His understanding to spread out the heavens. <sup>13</sup> When He thunders, there is a roar of water in the sky. He makes mists rise from the ends of the earth. He makes flashes of lightning when it rains. He brings wind out of His storehouses. <sup>14</sup> Every human being has turned out to be senseless and without knowledge. Every goldsmith is ashamed of an idol. For his metal images are false, and there is no breath in them. <sup>15</sup> They are worthless and are works that deserve mockery. At the time when they are called to account they will perish. <sup>16</sup> What Jacob has for his Portion is not like these. For He is the One who has formed everything, and Israel is the tribe that He has inherited. His name is “the LORD of hosts.”

A prediction that the people will be taken from their land

<sup>17</sup> Gather your bundle up from the ground, you who are living under siege! <sup>18</sup> For this is what the LORD has said: “Look! I am going to sling out those who are living in the land at this time and shall cause trouble for them, so that they will feel it.”

<sup>19</sup> How terrible for me because of my injury! My wound is incurable. However, I thought, “Truly this is an affliction, and I must endure it.”

<sup>20</sup> My tent has been destroyed, and all my tent-ropes have been torn apart. My children have left me and are no more. There is no one to spread my tent out again and put up my tent-curtains. <sup>21</sup> For the shepherds have been senseless. They have not been looking to the LORD for help. That is why they have had no success, and all the flock that they pasture has been scattered. <sup>22</sup> Listen to the news! Look! It is coming. A loud roar is coming from the land in the north to make the cities of Judah desolate, a lair of jackals. <sup>23</sup> LORD, I know that a human being does not control his own condition. A man who walks does not have the ability to direct his own steps. <sup>24</sup> Correct me, LORD but do it justly, not when You are angry, that You may not reduce me to nothing! <sup>25</sup> Pour out Your wrath on the nations that do not know You and on the clans that have not been calling on Your name! For they have been devouring Jacob. They have been devouring him, destroying him and laying waste his dwelling.

11

God's requirement for Judah to obey the terms of His Covenant

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> “Listen to the Words of this Covenant and speak them to the people of Judah and those who are living in Jerusalem! <sup>3</sup> You shall tell them, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: “Cursed be the man who does not listen to the Words of this Covenant! <sup>4</sup> I commanded it to your fathers when I brought them out of Egypt, that iron-furnace. I said, ‘Listen to My voice and put them into practice exactly as I command you. Then you will be My people, and I shall be your God, <sup>5</sup> that I may fulfil the oath that I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is today.’””

Then I answered, “Certainly, LORD!”

<sup>6</sup> The LORD told me: “Proclaim all these Words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: ‘Listen to the Words of this Covenant and put them into practice! <sup>7</sup> For I solemnly warned your fathers when I brought them up out of Egypt. I have been warning them persistently, even until today, saying, “Listen to My voice!” <sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, they have not been listening or paying attention. Rather, everyone has been following his own stubborn, evil heart. Therefore, I have applied to them all the Words of this Covenant, which I commanded them to keep, and which they have not kept.’”

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD told me: “A conspiracy has been uncovered among the people of Judah and those who are living in Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> They have returned to the sins of their forefathers, who refused to listen to My Words. They themselves have been following other gods and serving them. The family of Israel and the family of Judah have been breaking My Covenant, which I made with their fathers.”

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said: “Look! I am bringing calamity on them, which they will not be able to escape. Although they will cry out to Me, I shall not listen to them. <sup>12</sup> Then the cities of Judah and those who are living in Jerusalem will go and cry out to the gods to whom they are burning offerings, but these will certainly not save them when their calamity comes. <sup>13</sup> For you, Judah, have had as many gods as you have cities. You have set up as many altars to that shameful idol, altars to burn offerings to Baal, as there are streets in Jerusalem.”

fer any plea or prayer for them! For I shall not listen when they call to Me for help because of their calamity. <sup>15</sup> What right has My darling to be in My house when she is instigating these many wicked plans? Holy sacrificial flesh will not benefit you. When you engage in your wickedness, then you rejoice.”

<sup>16</sup> The LORD once named you “A Leafy Olive Tree With Lovely-Looking Fruit.” However, He will set fire to it with the roar of a severe storm, and its leafy branches will be ruined. <sup>17</sup> The LORD of hosts, who has planted you, has pronounced calamity against you, because of the evil that the family of Israel and the family of Judah have been committing. They have been provoking Me to anger by burning offerings to Baal.”

A plot against Jeremiah's life

<sup>18</sup> Because the LORD revealed this to me, I became aware of it. Then You showed me what they were doing. <sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, I had been like a trusting lamb being led to the slaughter. I did not know that they had been plotting against me, saying: “Let us destroy the tree with its fruit! Let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may not be remembered any longer!” <sup>20</sup> However, O LORD of hosts, You judge righteously. You test the inner being and the heart. Let me see Your retribution on them! For I have made my case known to You.

<sup>21</sup> “Therefore, this is what the LORD has said about the men of Anathoth, who are trying to kill you and saying, ‘You shall not prophesy in the name of the LORD or we ourselves shall kill you!’ —

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD of hosts has said: ‘Look! I am going to call them to account. The young men will die by the sword. Their sons and their daughters will die by famine. <sup>23</sup> They will not even have a remnant left. For I shall bring calamity on the men of Anathoth. It will be the year when they are punished.’”

Jeremiah's question about God's justice because wicked people seem to be successful

<sup>1</sup> You are in the right, LORD, when I argue a case to You. Even so, I shall speak to You about points of justice. Why is the conduct of wicked people successful? Why do all who act treacherously live calmly?

<sup>2</sup> You have planted them, and they have become firmly rooted. They have grown and produced fruit. You are near in their mouths but far from their most secret parts. <sup>3</sup> However, LORD, You Yourself know me. You see me and test my disposition toward You. Drag the wicked people off like sheep for the slaughter! Set them apart for the day of slaughter! <sup>4</sup> How long will the land dry up and the green plants in every field wither? Because of the wickedness of the people who are living in it, the animals and the birds have dwindled away. For people have been saying: “He will not see what will happen to us.”

God's reply that He will be justified in forsaking His inheritance

<sup>5</sup> “If you have raced against others on foot, and they have tired you out, how, then, will you compete against horses? If you are confident in peaceful country, what will you manage in the thicket beside the Jordan? <sup>6</sup> For even your brothers and your father's family, even they have been treating you treacherously. They themselves have been shouting loudly behind you. Do not trust them, although they speak friendly words to you!”

<sup>7</sup> “I have forsaken My own house. I have abandoned My own inheritance. I have given the one whom I dearly love into the hands of her enemies. <sup>8</sup> My inheritance has become to Me like a lion in the forest. She has been roaring against Me. That is why I hate her. <sup>9</sup> My inheritance is like a speckled carrion-bird to Me. Other carrion-birds are attacking it all around. Go! Gather all the wild animals! Bring them to devour it! <sup>10</sup> Many shepherds have been destroying My vineyard. They have been trampling down my plot of land. They have been turning My pleasant plot into a desolate wilderness. <sup>11</sup> They have made it a wasteland. It is desolated and has been mourning in My presence. The whole land has been made desolate, but no one has cared about this.”

<sup>12</sup> Destroyers have come onto all the barren heights in the wilderness. For the sword of the LORD is devouring from one end of the land to the other. No human being has any peace. <sup>13</sup> People have been sowing wheat and have been reaping thorns. Although they have become tired out they are not gaining anything. They will be ashamed of their yields because of the burning anger of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “As for all My evil neighbours, who are striking the inheritance that I have given to My people Israel to inherit, look! I shall uproot them from their lands and uproot the family of Judah from among them. <sup>15</sup> After I have uprooted them I shall have compassion on them again. I shall bring them back, everyone to his own inheritance and everyone to his own land. <sup>16</sup> If they carefully learn the ways of My people, so that they swear by My own name, ‘As the LORD lives,’ as they had been teaching My people to swear by Baal, then they will be built up on among My people. <sup>17</sup> However, if that nation does not listen, I shall completely uproot it and destroy it,” declares the LORD.

13

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD told me: “Go and buy a linen loincloth and put it around your waist but do not put it in water!”

<sup>2</sup> So, I bought the loincloth as the LORD had told me and put it around my waist. <sup>3</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to me a second time: <sup>4</sup> “Take the loincloth that you have bought, which is around your waist! Go at once to the Euphrates and hide it there in a crack in the rocks!”

<sup>5</sup> So, I went and hid it at the Euphrates, as the LORD had commanded me. <sup>6</sup> After a long time the LORD told me, “Go now to the Euphrates and get the loincloth from where I commanded you to hide it!”

<sup>7</sup> So, I went to the Euphrates, dug up the loincloth and took it from the place where I had hidden it. I saw that the loincloth had been spoiled. It was completely useless. <sup>8</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>9</sup> “This is what the LORD has said: ‘I shall spoil the pride of Judah and the great pride of Jerusalem like that. <sup>10</sup> These wicked people, who refuse to listen to My Words, who stubbornly follow their own hearts and have been going after other gods, to serve them and worship them, will be like this loincloth, which is completely useless. <sup>11</sup> For, as a loincloth clings to a man’s waist, so I had made the whole family of Israel and the whole family of Judah cling to Me,’ declares the LORD, ‘that they might be My people and a name, praise and honour for Me. However, they would not listen.’”

A lesson from broken wine-jars

<sup>12</sup> “You shall speak this Message to them: ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: “Every leather bottle should be filled with wine.”’ They will ask you, ‘Do we not know already that every leather bottle should be filled with wine?’ <sup>13</sup> Then you shall tell them, ‘This is what the LORD has said: “Look! I am going to fill all those who are living in this land with drunkenness: the kings who sit on David’s throne, the priests, the prophets and all those who are living in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> I shall smash them against one another. I shall smash fathers and sons together,’” declares the LORD. “I shall not allow pity, mercy or compassion, to keep Me from destroying them.”

A threat of exile

<sup>15</sup> Listen and pay attention! Do not be haughty! For the LORD has spoken. <sup>16</sup> Give glory to the LORD, your God, before He brings darkness, before your feet stumble on the mountains in the twilight! Then, while you were looking for daylight, He would turn it into deep gloom and change it into thick darkness. <sup>17</sup> However, if you will not listen, I shall personally weep in secret places over your arrogance. My eyes will weep bitterly and flow with tears, because the flock of the LORD has been led into captivity. <sup>18</sup> Tell the king and the queen-mother: “Sit in a more humble place! For your beautiful crowns will come down from your heads.”

<sup>19</sup> The cities of the Negev will be shut up, and there will be no one to reopen them. All of Judah will be led away captive, taken completely into exile. <sup>20</sup> Lift up your eyes and see those who are coming from the north! Where is the flock that had been given to you, your magnificent flock? <sup>21</sup> What will you say when He appoints those whom you yourself have trained to be your close friends as rulers over you? Will not labour-pains take hold of you like those of a woman who is giving birth? <sup>22</sup> If you ask yourself, “Why have these things happened to me?” it is because of your many sins that your pubic region has been exposed and your personal parts have suffered violence. <sup>23</sup> Can an Ethiopian change his skin or a leopard his spots? Neither can you do good when you have been trained to do evil.

<sup>24</sup> “I shall scatter them like chaff over which a desert-wind is passing. <sup>25</sup> This is your lot, the portion that I have measured out to you,” declares the LORD, “because you have forgotten Me and have been trusting in lies. <sup>26</sup> I Myself also shall pull your skirts up over your face, that your shame may be seen. <sup>27</sup> I have seen your acts of adultery, your neighing, your wicked fornication on the hills and in the open country and your repulsive idols. How terrible for you, Jerusalem! For how long will you still remain unclean?”

14

The grief of Judah over a drought that God has sent

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah about the drought: <sup>2</sup> “Judah has been mourning, and her city-gates have been pining away. People have been grieving on the ground, and Jerusalem has been sending up a distressed cry. <sup>3</sup> Their prominent people have been sending their servants for water. When they have gone to the cisterns, they have not found any water. They have been returning with their empty containers. They are ashamed, in despair and have been covering their heads. <sup>4</sup> Because the ground is cracked, because rain has not come on the land, the ploughmen have been ashamed and have covered their heads. <sup>5</sup> Indeed, even the doe that has given birth in the field has forsaken her fawn because there has been no green grass. <sup>6</sup> The wild donkeys have been standing on the barren heights. They have been gasping for air like jackals. Their eyesight has failed because there are no green plants.”

<sup>7</sup> Although our wrongs have been testifying against us, LORD, act, for the sake of Your name! Indeed, we have often fallen away. We have been sinning against You. <sup>8</sup> O Hope of Israel, its Saviour in time of trouble, why should You be like a stranger in the land, like a traveller putting up a tent to stay for a night? <sup>9</sup> Why should You be like a man who is confused, like a strong man who is powerless to save? Yet You, LORD, are among us, and Your name has been placed on us. Do not abandon us!

<sup>10</sup> This is what the LORD has said to this people: “That is how they have loved to wander. They have not been keeping their feet in check.”

The LORD has not been well disposed towards them. Now He will remember their wrongdoing and will call their sins to account.

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD told me: “Do not pray for a good outcome for these people! <sup>12</sup> Although they fast, I shall not listen to their cry. Although they offer burnt offerings and grain-offerings, I shall not be favourable to them. Rather, I shall consume them by the sword, by famine and by the plague.”

<sup>13</sup> Then I said: “Alas, Lord GOD! Look! The prophets are telling them, ‘You will not see the sword. You will not suffer a famine, but “I shall give you genuine peace in this place.””

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD told me: “The prophets are prophesying lies in My name. I have not sent them. I have not commanded them or spoken to them. They are prophesying to you deceptive visions, divinations, idolatries and the deceitfulness that their own minds have devised. <sup>15</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said about the prophets who are prophesying in My name, although I Myself have not sent them and who are saying, ‘Sword and famine will not afflict this land’: Those prophets will perish by sword and famine. <sup>16</sup> The people to whom they are prophesying will be thrown out on the streets of Jerusalem as victims of famine and sword. There will be no one to bury them, either them, their wives, their sons or their daughters. I shall pour their calamity out on them. <sup>17</sup> You shall tell them this Message: ‘Let My eyes flow with tears night and day without ceasing! For My virgin daughter, My people, has been shattered in a massive destruction, by a very serious blow. <sup>18</sup> If I go out into the field, I see those who have been pierced by the sword. If I enter the city, I see the pains caused by famine! For both prophets and priests will travel to a land about which they had never known.”

A plea to God for mercy

<sup>19</sup> Have You completely rejected Judah? Do You Yourself detest Zion? Why have You struck us down so that there is no healing for us? We are eagerly waiting for peace, but there is nothing good, for a time of healing, but there is only terror. <sup>20</sup> We acknowledge our wickedness, LORD, and the guilt of our fathers. We have indeed been sinning against You. <sup>21</sup> Do not reject us, for Your name’s sake! Do not treat Your glorious throne with contempt! Remember Your Covenant with us! Do not break it! <sup>22</sup> Are there any among the worthless gods of the nations that can cause rain? Or do the skies alone give showers? Are You not the One, the LORD, our God? We have set our hope on You, because You have been doing all these things.

15

A threat of destruction in war

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD told me: “Even if Moses and Samuel were standing before Me, I Myself would not feel sorry for this people. Send them away from My presence! Let them go away! <sup>2</sup> When they ask you, ‘Where shall we go?’ you shall tell them, ‘This is what the LORD has said: “Those who are marked down for death will meet death. Those who are for the sword will meet the sword. Those who are for famine will meet famine, and those who are for captivity will meet captivity.”’ <sup>3</sup> I shall muster against them four kinds of calamity,” declares the LORD:

“the sword to kill, the dogs to drag away, the birds in the sky and the animals on the ground, to devour and destroy. <sup>4</sup> I shall make them a terrifying sight to all the kingdoms of the earth because of what Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, has done in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> Indeed, who will have pity on you, Jerusalem, or who will be sympathetic to you? Who will go out of his way to ask how you are? <sup>6</sup> You have rejected Me,” declares the LORD. “You keep turning your backs to Me. Therefore, I shall stretch out My hand against you and destroy you. I am tired of relenting. <sup>7</sup> I shall winnow them with a pitchfork at the city-gates of the land. I shall make them childless. I shall destroy My own people. They have not turned back from their ways. <sup>8</sup> I shall make their widows more numerous than the sand in the seas. I shall bring a destroyer in the middle of the day against the mothers of young men. I shall make anguish and terror fall on them suddenly. <sup>9</sup> A mother who has given birth to seven sons will become feeble. She will breathe her last. Her sun will set while it is still daylight. She will be ashamed and disgraced. I shall deliver the rest of them to the sword before their enemies,” declares the LORD.

A bitter complaint by Jeremiah because of his disappointment

<sup>10</sup> How terrible for me, my mother! For you have given me birth to be a man who argues and quarrels with the whole land. Although I have neither lent nor borrowed anything, all of them are cursing me.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD said: “I shall certainly let you loose for a good purpose. I shall certainly intercede with the enemy for you in the time of calamity and in the time of distress. <sup>12</sup> Can anyone break iron, iron from the north or bronze?”

<sup>13</sup> “I shall give away the wealth of you people and your treasures as plunder, without cost, because of all your sins, throughout all your territory. <sup>14</sup> I shall make you serve your enemies in a land that you had not known. For a fire is flaring up because of My anger and is being kindled against you.”

<sup>15</sup> LORD, You understand. Remember me and take care of me! Take revenge on my behalf against those who are persecuting me! Because You are slow to become angry, do not take me away! Realise that I am suffering insults because of You! <sup>16</sup> Your Words were found, and I devoured them. Your Words have become my joy and the delight of my heart. For Your name has been called over me, O LORD, God of hosts. <sup>17</sup> I have not been sitting in the company of revellers. I have not been expressing delight. I have been sitting alone, because Your hand has been on me. For You have filled me with indignation. <sup>18</sup> Why has my pain been endless and my wound been incurable, refusing to be healed? Will You really be like an intermittent stream to me, like water that is unreliable?

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said: “If you return, I shall take you back, and you will stand before Me. If you separate what is precious from what is worthless, you will be My spokesman. Those people should come back to you, but you yourself shall not go back to them! <sup>20</sup> I shall make you a fortified wall of bronze to this people. They will fight against you but will not defeat you. For I am with you to save you and rescue you,” declares the LORD. <sup>21</sup> “I shall rescue you from the hands of wicked people and redeem you from the grasp of ruthless people.”

16

A command to Jeremiah not to get married

<sup>1</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “You shall not marry a wife or have sons or daughters in this place. <sup>3</sup> For this is what the LORD has said about the sons and daughters who are born in this place and about their mothers, who give birth to them, and about their fathers, who beget them in this land: <sup>4</sup> ‘They will die in excruciating ways. No one will mourn for them, and they will not be buried. They will be like dung on the surface of the ground. They will perish by the sword and by famine. Their dead bodies will become food for the birds in the sky and for the animals on the land.’”

<sup>5</sup> For this is what the LORD has said: “Do not enter a house where there is a funeral-meal! Do not go to mourn or express condolence to them! For I have taken My peace, My steadfast love and mercy away from this people,” declares the LORD. <sup>6</sup> “Both great and small will die in this land. They will not be buried, and no one will mourn for them. No one will make incisions on himself or have his head shaved for them.

<sup>7</sup> No one will offer food to them because of a period of mourning, to comfort them because of a dead person. No one will give them a cup to drink to console them about their fathers or their mothers. <sup>8</sup> You shall not go into a house where there is a banquet, to sit with them and eat and drink! <sup>9</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: ‘Look! I am going to banish from this place the sounds of joy and happiness and the voices of bridegrooms and brides. This will happen during your lifetimes and while you are watching.’

<sup>10</sup> “When you predict all these things to these people, they will ask you, ‘Why has the LORD pronounced this whole great calamity against us? What wrong have we done? What is the sin that we have committed against the LORD, our God?’ <sup>11</sup> Then you shall tell them: ‘It is because your fathers have forsaken Me,’ declares the LORD, ‘and have been following other gods and have been serving and worshipping them. They have forsaken Me and have not kept My Law. <sup>12</sup> You yourselves have been behaving worse than your fathers have. For look! Each one of you is following his own stubborn, evil heart, so that you do not listen to Me. <sup>13</sup> I shall throw you far out of this land into a land that neither you nor your fathers have known. There you will serve other gods day and night. For I shall not show you any compassion.’

God’s promise to bring the people of Judah back

<sup>14</sup> “Therefore, look! The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when it will no longer be said, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of Egypt,’ <sup>15</sup> but ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of the land of the north and out of all the other countries where He had driven them.’ I shall bring them back to their own land, which I had given to their fathers. <sup>16</sup> Look! I am sending for many fishermen,” declares the LORD, “and they will fish them out. After that I shall send for many hunters, and they will hunt for them from every mountain and every hill and from the cracks in the rocks. <sup>17</sup> For My eyes are on all their ways. They have not hidden themselves from Me. Their sin has not been concealed from My eyes. <sup>18</sup> However, I shall first doubly repay their wickedness and their sin, because they have polluted My land. They have filled My inheritance with the lifeless forms of their detestable idols and with their other abominations.”

<sup>19</sup> O LORD, my Strength and my Fortress, my Refuge in the day of trouble, the nations will come to You from the ends of the earth and say: “Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, worthless things, and none among them can bring any benefit. <sup>20</sup> Can a human being make gods for himself? Those things are not gods!”

<sup>21</sup> “Therefore, look! I shall teach them. This time I shall teach them My power and My might, and they will know that My name is the LORD.”

17

The consequences of Judah’s serious sin

<sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “Cursed is the man who trusts in a human being, who makes flesh his strength and whose heart turns away from the LORD!

<sup>6</sup> He will be like a shrub in the desert and will not see when anything good comes. He will live in the parched places in the wilderness, in a salty land where no one lives. <sup>7</sup> Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD! The LORD will be his confidence. <sup>8</sup> He will be like a tree planted beside water, which spreads out its roots beside a stream. He will not be afraid when the hot season comes, but his leaves will be green. He will not be anxious in a year of drought or stop producing fruit.”

<sup>9</sup> The heart is more deceitful than anything else is. It is incurable. Who can understand it?

<sup>10</sup> “I am the LORD and I search the heart and examine the inmost parts, to repay each person what is appropriate to his conduct, according to the results of his actions.”

<sup>11</sup> A person who gains riches unjustly is like the partridge, which has hatched a brood that she had not laid. His riches will desert him in the middle of his life. At his end he will be a fool. <sup>12</sup> The place of our sanctuary is a glorious, lofty throne from of old.

<sup>13</sup> LORD, the Hope of Israel, all who forsake You will be ashamed.

“Those who are rejected by Me will be signed over to the dust.”

Indeed, they have forsaken the LORD, the Fountain of living water.

A prayer of Jeremiah for healing

<sup>14</sup> Heal me, LORD, and I shall be healed! Save me, and I shall be saved! For You are the One whom I praise. <sup>15</sup> Look! People are asking me, “Where is the Word of the LORD? Let it be fulfilled!” <sup>16</sup> I myself have not run away from being Your Shepherd but I have not longed for the day of calamity. You Yourself know what has been coming out of my lips. It has been right before Your face. <sup>17</sup> Do not cause terror for me! You are my Refuge in the day of calamity. <sup>18</sup> Let those who are persecuting me be ashamed! However, let me myself not be ashamed! Let them be dismayed but let me myself not be dismayed! Bring on them the day of calamity! Destroy them twice over!

A message about observing the Sabbath as a holy day

<sup>19</sup> This is what the LORD told me: “Go and stand at the People’s Gate, through which the kings of Judah go in and out and at all the city-gates of Jerusalem!

<sup>20</sup> Tell them: ‘Listen to the Word of the LORD, kings of Judah, all Judah and all who are living in Jerusalem, who come in through these gates! <sup>21</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “If you value your lives, be careful that you do not carry any load on the Sabbath day and that you do not bring in any load through the gates of Jerusalem! <sup>22</sup> You shall also not carry any load out of your houses on the Sabbath day or do any other work but shall keep the Sabbath day holy, as I commanded your fathers.”’”

<sup>23</sup> Nevertheless, they did not listen or pay attention. Rather, they stiffened their necks, so that they would not listen and would not accept discipline.

<sup>24</sup> “However, if you really do listen to Me,” declares the LORD, “so that you do not bring any load in through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day but keep the Sabbath day holy by not doing any work on it, <sup>25</sup> then kings and princes who sit on the throne of David will enter through the gates of this city, riding in chariots and on horses. They, their officials, the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem will enter through them. This city will always have people living in it. <sup>26</sup> People will come from the cities of Judah and the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin, the lowlands, the hill-country and from the Negev, bringing burnt offerings and sacrifices, grain-offerings and frankincense and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving to the Temple of the LORD. <sup>27</sup> However, if you do not listen to Me so that you keep the Sabbath day holy and, if you do not refrain from carrying a load and from coming in through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, then I shall set its gates on fire. The fire will consume the fortified palaces of Jerusalem and will not be put out.”

18

A comparison between a potter’s clay and the people of Israel

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD. He said, <sup>2</sup> “Get up and go down to the potter’s house! There I shall cause you to hear My Words.”

<sup>3</sup> I went down to the potter’s house and saw him working at his potter’s wheel. <sup>4</sup> When the vessel that the potter was making with the clay was spoilt in his hands, he used to rework it into another vessel, as the potter decided what the right thing to make was.

<sup>5</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to me, <sup>6</sup> “Family of Israel, can I not do to you as this potter has done?” declares the LORD. “Look, family of Israel! In My hand you are like the clay in the hand of the potter.”

<sup>7</sup> At one moment, I may threaten about a nation or a kingdom that I shall root it up, tear it down and destroy it. <sup>8</sup> However, if that nation, which I had threatened, turns back from its evil, then I shall relent about the calamity that I had intended to bring on it. <sup>9</sup> At another time, I may promise about a nation or a kingdom that I shall build and plant it. <sup>10</sup> However, if it does what I regard as evil, so that it does not obey Me, then I shall change My mind about the good things that I had promised to do to it. <sup>11</sup> Now therefore, please tell the men of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem: ‘This is what the LORD has said: “Look! I am shaping evil against you and devising a plan against you. Please, turn back, each one of you, from his evil way and amend your ways and your actions!”’

A complaint about Israel’s stubborn idolatry

<sup>12</sup> “However, they will reply, ‘That is in vain! Rather, we shall conduct ourselves as we think we should. Each of us will act according to his own stubborn and evil heart.’

<sup>13</sup> “Therefore, this is what the LORD has said: ‘Please ask among the nations, “Who has heard anything like this?” The virgin Israel has done a very horrible thing.

<sup>14</sup> Does the snow in Lebanon leave the rocky slopes? Do the foreign waters, the cool flowing streams, disappear? <sup>15</sup> However, My people have forgotten Me. They are burning offerings to worthless idols, which have made them stumble in their ways — on the ancient roads — so that they are walking on side-roads, on a road that is not a highway. <sup>16</sup> Consequently, they have made their country a wasteland, something to be hissed at for ever. Everyone who goes past it will be horrified and shake his head. <sup>17</sup> I shall scatter them before the enemy like the east wind. I shall show them My back and not My face on the day of their calamity.”

A plot against Jeremiah

<sup>18</sup> Then certain people said: “Come! Let us make plots against Jeremiah! For a priest will not lose the Law, a wise man will not lose his advice and a prophet will not lose the Word. Come! Let us denounce him and let us pay no attention to anything that he says!”

<sup>19</sup> Pay attention to me, LORD, and listen to what my opponents are saying! <sup>20</sup> Should what is evil be rewarded instead of what is good? Yet they have been digging a pit to take my life. Remember that I stood before You to speak what is good on their behalf, to turn Your wrath away from them! <sup>21</sup> Therefore, hand their children over to famine! Deliver them to the violence of the sword! Let their wives lose their children and become widows! Let their husbands be put to death and let their young men be struck down by the sword in battle! <sup>22</sup> Let a cry for help be heard from their houses when You suddenly bring a band of raiders against them! For they have been digging a pit to catch me and have been secretly fixing snares for my feet. <sup>23</sup> Yet, LORD, You Yourself know their whole plan to assassinate me. Do not provide atonement for their wickedness and do not blot out their sin from Your sight! Let them be overthrown before You! Deal aggressively with them when You are angry!

19

A prediction that Israel will be smashed like a clay jar

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD said: “Go and buy a potter’s earthenware jar! Take along some of the elders of the people and some of the elders of the priests! <sup>2</sup> Go out to the Valley of the Son of Hinnom at the entrance of the Potsherd Gate! Proclaim there the Words that I shall tell you! <sup>3</sup> You shall say, ‘Listen to the Word of the LORD, kings of Judah, and you who live in Jerusalem! This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: “Look! I am going to bring such a calamity on this place that the ears of everyone who hears about it will ring. <sup>4</sup> It is because they have forsaken Me and have defaced this place. They have been burning offerings in it to other gods, which they, their fathers and the kings of Judah had not known. They have also filled this place with the blood of innocent people. <sup>5</sup> They have also built the high places of Baal to burn their children in the fire as burnt offerings to Baal. I had not commanded or mentioned that, and it had not entered My mind.”’

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore, look! Days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when this place will not be called ‘Topheth’ any longer or ‘The Valley of the Son of Hinnom,’ but

‘The Valley of Slaughter.’ <sup>7</sup> I shall ruin the plans of Judah and Jerusalem in this place. I shall cause their people to fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hands of those who want to kill them. I shall give their dead bodies for food to the birds of the sky and to the animals on the ground. <sup>8</sup> I shall turn this city into a wasteland and something to hiss at. Everyone who goes past it will be horrified and will hiss because of all its plagues. <sup>9</sup> I shall make them eat the flesh of their sons and their daughters. They will eat one another’s flesh in the siege and in the hardship with which their enemies, those who want to kill them, will harass them.”

<sup>10</sup> “Then you shall smash the jar while the men who go with you are watching. <sup>11</sup> You shall also tell them, ‘This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “I shall smash this people and this city, as someone smashes a potter’s jar, so that it cannot be repaired any longer. People will also be buried in Topheth because there will be no room for burials anywhere else. <sup>12</sup> This is what I shall do to this place,” declares the LORD, “and to those who live in it, so that I make this city like Topheth. <sup>13</sup> The houses in Jerusalem and the houses of the kings of Judah will be defiled like this place, Topheth. This refers to all the houses where people have been burning offerings on their flat roofs to all the starry host of heaven and where they have been pouring out drink-offerings to other gods.”’”

<sup>14</sup> Then Jeremiah came back from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy. He stood in the court of the Temple of the LORD and told all the people: <sup>15</sup> “This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: ‘Look! I am bringing on this city and on all its towns the whole calamity with which I have been threatening them. For they have stiffened their necks, so that they do not listen to My Words.’”

The imprisonment of Jeremiah by Pashhur

hands of their enemies, who will plunder them, seize them and take them to Babylon. <sup>6</sup> You, Pashhur and all who are living at your house, will go into captivity. You will go to Babylon, die there and be buried there, you and all your friends, to whom you have been prophesying falsely.”

<sup>7</sup> LORD, You have deceived me, and I have let myself be deceived. You have overpowered me and have prevailed. I have become a laughingstock all day long. Everyone mocks me. <sup>8</sup> Each time I speak, I cry out and proclaim, “Violence and devastation!” The Word of the LORD has brought me disgrace and derision all day long. <sup>9</sup> However, when I think, “I shall not mention Him or speak in His name any longer,” then His Word is like a burning fire in my heart, shut up in my bones. I wear myself out trying to hold it in but cannot do it. <sup>10</sup> For I have heard many people reporting: “Terror is all around you. Denounce him! Let us denounce him!” All my closest friends are watching to see me stumble, saying: “Perhaps he will be deceived. Then we shall overpower him and take our revenge on him.”

<sup>11</sup> Nevertheless, the LORD is with me like a powerful warrior. Therefore, those who are persecuting me will stumble and will not win. They will be greatly ashamed that they have not been successful. Their eternal disgrace will not be forgotten. <sup>12</sup> However, LORD of hosts, You test the righteous man. You see his inmost being and thoughts. Let me see Your revenge against them! For I have disclosed my case to You. <sup>13</sup> Sing to the LORD! Praise the LORD! For He has rescued the life of a needy man from the hands of evildoers.

<sup>14</sup> Cursed be the day when I was born! Let the day when my mother gave birth to me not be blessed!

<sup>15</sup> Cursed be the man who told my father the good news, “A baby boy has been born to you,” and made him very glad! <sup>16</sup> Let that man be like the cities that the LORD overthrew without pity! Let him hear a cry for help in the morning and an alarm for war at noon, <sup>17</sup> because he did not kill me in the womb! Then my mother would have been my grave, and her womb would always have been pregnant. <sup>18</sup> Why did I come out from the womb to see trouble and agony, so that my days have ended in shame?

21

A prediction that Jerusalem will be captured by the Babylonians

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when King Zedekiah sent Pashhur, the son of Malchiah, and the priest Zephaniah, the son of Maaseiah, to him. They had said: <sup>2</sup> “Please consult the LORD for us! For Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, is making war against us. Perhaps the LORD, who has done all His other miraculous acts, will treat us similarly and make him withdraw from us.”

shall tell Zedekiah: <sup>4</sup> ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: “Look! I shall turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands and that you are using to fight against the king of Babylon and against the Chaldeans who are besieging you outside the wall. I shall gather them into the middle of this city. <sup>5</sup> I myself shall fight against you with an outstretched hand and a strong arm, in anger, fury and great wrath. <sup>6</sup> I shall strike down those who are living in this city, both the human beings and the animals. They will die from a severe plague. <sup>7</sup> After that,” declares the LORD, “I shall give Zedekiah, the king of Judah, his officials and the people in this city who survive the plague, the sword and the famine into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, into the hands of their enemies and into the hands of those who want to kill them. He will strike them down with the edge of the sword. He will not pity them, spare them or have compassion.”’”

<sup>8</sup> “You shall tell this people: ‘This is what the LORD has said: “Look! I am setting before you the way leading to life and the way leading to death. <sup>9</sup> He who stays in this city will die by the sword, by famine and by the plague. However, he who goes out and surrenders to the Chaldeans who are besieging you will stay alive and retain his life as a prize of war. <sup>10</sup> For I have set My face against this city, to harm it and not to do good to it,” declares the LORD. “It will be handed over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down.”’”

A message for the family of David

<sup>11</sup> “You shall tell the family of the king of Judah, ‘Listen to the Word of the LORD: <sup>12</sup> “Family of David, this is what the LORD has said: ‘Judge justly every morning! Rescue the one who has been robbed from the person who is oppressing him! Otherwise My wrath will flare out like fire and will burn without anyone to put it out, because of your evil deeds.’”’”

<sup>13</sup> “Look! I am against you, you who are living in the valley and on the rocky plateau,” declares the LORD. “You are asking, ‘Who will come down against us, and who will enter our places of refuge?’ <sup>14</sup> I shall punish you, as your evil deeds deserve,” declares the LORD. “I shall light a fire in its forest, and it will burn up everything that is around it.”

22

Warnings to the wicked kings to repent

place! <sup>4</sup> For, if you carefully put this into practice, then kings who sit on the throne of David will come in through the gates of this palace, riding in chariots and on horses, together with their officials and their people. <sup>5</sup> However, if you will not listen to these Words, I have sworn by Myself,” declares the LORD, “that this palace will become a ruin.”

<sup>6</sup> “For this is what the LORD has said about the palace of the king of Judah: ‘You are like Gilead to Me, like the summit of Lebanon. Yet I shall certainly turn you into a desert, into cities in which no one lives. <sup>7</sup> I shall consecrate destroyers against you, each one with his own weapons. They will cut down your choicest cedars and cast them down into the fire. <sup>8</sup> Many nations will go past this city and all will ask one another, ‘Why has the LORD done such a thing to this great city?’” <sup>9</sup> They will answer, “Because they have forsaken the Covenant of the LORD, their God, and have been worshipping other gods and serving them.””

A Message about Shallum, the King of Judah

<sup>10</sup> Do not weep for one who is dead or mourn for him! Rather, weep bitterly for the one who is going away. For he will not come back again to see his native land.

<sup>11</sup> For this is what the LORD has said about Shallum, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah, who has succeeded his father Josiah as king and who has left this place: “He will not come back here again. <sup>12</sup> Rather, he will die at the place where they have taken him as a captive. He will not see this land again.”

A Message about Jehoiakim, the King of Judah

<sup>13</sup> “How terrible for the one who builds his palace dishonestly and his upper rooms unjustly, who keeps his neighbour in his service without compensation and does not pay him his wages! <sup>14</sup> He says, ‘I shall build myself a large house with spacious upper rooms.’ He cuts out windows for it, panelling the rooms with cedar and painting them red. <sup>15</sup> Are you a king because you try to surpass others in cedar? Did your father not eat, drink and do what is just and right? Then he was successful. <sup>16</sup> He defended the cause of poor and needy people. Then he was successful. Is not this what it means to know Me?” asks the LORD. <sup>17</sup> “However, your eyes and your mind are fixed only on your dishonest gain, on killing innocent people and on practising oppression and extortion.”

<sup>18</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said about Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah: “People will not mourn for him, saying, ‘How horrible it is for my brother!’ or ‘How horrible it is for my loved one!’ People will not mourn for him, saying, ‘How horrible it is for my master!’ and ‘How horrible it is for his splendour!’ <sup>19</sup> He will have the burial of a donkey. He will be dragged away and thrown outside the gates of Jerusalem.”

A message for the people of Jerusalem

<sup>20</sup> “Go up to Lebanon and cry out! Raise your voice in Bashan! Cry out from Abarim! For all your lovers have been shattered. <sup>21</sup> I spoke to you in the times when you were secure, but you said, ‘I shall not listen.’ This has been your way since you were young. Indeed, you have not been listening to My voice. <sup>22</sup> The wind will carry off all your shepherds, and your lovers will go away into captivity. Then you will surely be ashamed and disgraced because of all your evil. <sup>23</sup> You who are living in Lebanon and have your nest among the cedars, how you will groan when labour-pains come on you, pain like that of a woman giving birth!”

A message about Jehoiachin (also called Coniah), the king of Judah

<sup>24</sup> “As I live,” declares the LORD, “even if you, Coniah, the son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, were a signet ring on My right hand, I would certainly pull you off. <sup>25</sup> I shall hand you over to those who want to kill you, to those of whom you are afraid, to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and to the Chaldeans. <sup>26</sup> I shall hurl you and your mother, who gave birth to you, into another country, where neither of you were born, and you will die there. <sup>27</sup> They will not come back to the land to which they long to return.”

23

A promise of restoration after exile

<sup>1</sup> “How horrible it will be for the shepherds who are destroying and scattering the sheep of My pasture!” declares the LORD.

<sup>2</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said about the shepherds who are looking after my people: “You have scattered My flock, driven them away and have not taken care of them. Look! I am punishing you for the evil that you have done,” declares the LORD. <sup>3</sup> “However, I Myself shall gather the remnant of My flock from all the countries where I have driven them and bring them back to their pasture, and they will be fruitful and increase in number. <sup>4</sup> I shall appoint shepherds over them who will look after them. Then they will no longer be afraid or terrified, and none of them will be missing,” declares the LORD.

A prophecy about the coming righteous Branch

<sup>5</sup> “Look! The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I shall raise up for David a righteous Branch, who will reign wisely as King. He will establish justice and righteousness on the earth. <sup>6</sup> In His days Judah will be saved, and Israel will live in safety. This will be His name, which people will call Him, ‘The LORD Our Righteousness.*<sup>137</sup>

<sup>7</sup> “Therefore, look! The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when people will no longer say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought the Israelites up out of the land of Egypt.’ <sup>8</sup> Rather, they will say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, who brought up and led the offspring of the family of Israel out of the North-Country and out of all the other countries where He had driven them.’ Then they will live in their own land.”

Warnings against false prophets

<sup>9</sup> This is about the prophets: My heart has been broken inside me. All my bones have been shaking. I have become like a drunken man, like a man who has been overcome by wine, because of the LORD and because of His holy Words. <sup>10</sup> For the land is full of adulterers. The land has been mourning because of a curse, and the pastures in the wilderness have dried up. Their course of life has become evil, and they are using their strength wrongly.

<sup>11</sup> “For both prophet and priest have become godless. I have found their wickedness even in My Temple,” declares the LORD. <sup>12</sup> “Therefore, their way will be like slippery surfaces in the darkness for them. They will be sent crashing down and will fall on them. For I shall bring calamity on them in the year when I call them to account,” declares the LORD. <sup>13</sup> “I had seen something offensive in the prophets of Samaria. They had been prophesying by Baal and had been leading My people Israel astray. <sup>14</sup> I have also seen something horrible in the prophets of Jerusalem. They commit adultery and live deceitfully. They encourage those who do evil, so that no one turns from his wickedness. All of them have become like Sodom to Me. Those who are living in Jerusalem have become like Gomorrah.”

<sup>15</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD of hosts has said about the prophets: “Look! I shall feed them with wormwood and give them poisoned water to drink. For ungodliness has spread from the prophets of Jerusalem to the whole land.”

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are prophesying to you! They are deluding you. They are speaking visions of their own hearts, not from the mouth of the LORD. <sup>17</sup> They keep saying to those who despise Me, ‘The LORD has said, “You will have peace.”’”

They have been telling everyone who follows his own stubborn heart, “No calamity will happen to you people!” <sup>18</sup> For who has been standing in the confidential circle of the LORD, that he could see and hear His Word? Who has been paying attention to His Word and listening to it? <sup>19</sup> Look! The high wind of the LORD! His wrath has burst out. A windstorm is swirling. It will whirl down on the heads of wicked people. <sup>20</sup> The anger of the LORD will not turn back until He has performed and fulfilled what His mind has planned. In the last days you will understand it clearly.

<sup>21</sup> “I have not sent these prophets. Yet they have been running. I have not been speaking to them. Yet they have been prophesying. <sup>22</sup> If they had been standing in My confidential circle, they would have been making My people hear My Words. Then they would have turned them back from their evil ways and from the evil that they have been doing.

<sup>23</sup> “Am I a God who is only near,” asks the LORD, “and not a God who is far away? <sup>24</sup> Can anyone hide in secret places, so that I cannot see him?” asks the LORD. “Do I not fill heaven and earth?” asks the LORD. <sup>25</sup> “I have heard what the prophets have been saying, who are prophesying lies in My name. They are saying, ‘I have had a dream! I have had a dream!’

<sup>26</sup> How long will this continue in the hearts of the prophets, who are prophesying lies and who are prophesying the deceitfulness of their own hearts?

<sup>27</sup> They intend to make My people forget My name by their dreams, which they tell one another, just as their fathers forgot My name because of Baal. <sup>28</sup> The prophet who has a dream should tell a dream, but the one who has My Word should speak My Word faithfully. What does threshed grain have to do with straw?” asks the LORD. <sup>29</sup> “Is not My Word like fire?” asks the LORD, “and like a hammer that shatters a rock?”

<sup>30</sup> “Therefore, look! I am against the prophets,” declares the LORD, “who steal My Words from one another. <sup>31</sup> Look! I am against the prophets,” declares the LORD, “who use their tongues and declare, ‘He declares.’” <sup>32</sup> Look! I am against those who prophesy lying dreams,” declares the LORD, “and who have been telling them and have been using their lies and their insolent talk to lead My people astray. I have not sent them or given them any Command. They do not benefit this people at all,” declares the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> “When anyone of this people, either a prophet or a priest, asks you, ‘What is the burden from the LORD?’ you shall ask them, ‘What burden?’ I shall abandon you,” declares the LORD.

<sup>34</sup> “When a prophet, a priest or one of the people says, ‘The burden of the LORD,’ I shall punish that man and his family.

<sup>35</sup> “This is what your neighbours and brothers should ask one another: ‘What has the LORD answered?’ or ‘What has the LORD said?’” <sup>36</sup> However, you should no longer mention ‘the burden of the LORD!’ For the burden is every man’s own word, and you are twisting the Words of the living God, the LORD of hosts, our God. <sup>37</sup> This is what you should ask the prophet, ‘What has the LORD answered you?’ or ‘What has the LORD said?’

<sup>137</sup> The name of the king of Judah, Zedekiah, meant “the Lord our righteousness.” He did not live up to his name. The promised Messiah will be righteous and bring about a verdict of righteousness for those who believe in Him.

<sup>38</sup> “However, if you say, ‘The burden of the LORD,’ this is what the LORD has said: ‘Because you have used this expression, “The burden of the LORD,” although I had sent to you, saying, “You shall not say, ‘The burden of the LORD,’” <sup>39</sup> therefore look! I shall certainly ‘forget’*<sup>138</sup> you like a burden. I shall ‘forget’ you and the city that I have given to you and to your fathers. I shall cast you away from My presence. <sup>40</sup> I shall bring everlasting disgrace and everlasting insult on you, which will not be forgotten.””

The vision of two baskets of good and bad figs

I answered, “Figs. The good figs are very good and the bad ones are very bad, so bad that they are uneatable.”

<sup>4</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to me. <sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, said: “As with these good figs, so I shall consider as good the captives of Judah, whom I have sent away from this place to the land of the Chaldeans. <sup>6</sup> I shall set My eye on them for their good and bring them back to this land. I shall build them up and not tear them down. I shall plant them and not uproot them. <sup>7</sup> I shall give them a heart to know Me, that I am the LORD. They will be My people, and I shall be their God. For they will wholeheartedly return to Me.

<sup>8</sup> “However, like the bad figs that are so bad that they are uneatable,” the LORD has said, “I shall surely discard Zedekiah, the king of Judah, his leading men, the remnant of Jerusalem who are staying behind in this land and those who are living in Egypt. <sup>9</sup> I shall turn them into an abhorrent calamity for all the kingdoms of the earth to see. They will be a disgrace, a proverb, an object of ridicule and a formula to use in cursing in all the places where I shall drive them. <sup>10</sup> I shall send the sword, famine and the plague against them, until they are completely removed from the land that I have given to them and to their fathers.”

25

A prediction that Nebuchadnezzar will destroy Judah

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word that came to Jeremiah about all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah. It was in the first year of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. <sup>2</sup> The prophet Jeremiah spoke it to all the people of Judah and all those who were living in Jerusalem. He said: <sup>3</sup> “For twenty-three years, from the thirteenth year of Josiah, the son of Amon, the king of Judah, until today, the Word of the LORD has been coming to me, and I have been warning you most persistently. However, you have not been listening. <sup>4</sup> Although the LORD has been most persistently sending you all His servants, the prophets, you have not been listening or inclining your ears to hear. <sup>5</sup> They have kept saying, ‘Please turn back, each one of you, from your evil ways and your evil deeds and live on the land that the LORD has given to you and to your fathers from ancient times and for ever! <sup>6</sup> Stop following other gods, so that you serve and worship them! You shall not provoke Me to anger with what your own hands have made! Then I shall not harm you.’ <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless, you have not been listening to Me,” declares the LORD, “so that you have provoked Me to anger with what your own hands have made and have brought harm on yourselves. <sup>8</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD of hosts has said: ‘Because you have not been listening to My Words, <sup>9</sup> look! I shall summon all the clans of the north,’ declares the LORD, ‘and summon My servant, Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. I shall bring them against this land, against those who are living in it and against all these surrounding nations. I shall devote them to destruction and make them a horrible sight, an object of whistling and a permanent ruin. <sup>10</sup> I shall banish from them the sounds of joy and happiness, the voices of the bridegroom and the bride, the sound of a pair of millstones and the light of a lamp. <sup>11</sup> This whole land will become a ruin and a wasteland. These nations will serve the king of Babylon for seventy years. <sup>12</sup> When seventy years are completed, I shall punish the king of Babylon and that nation,’ declares the LORD, ‘the land of the Chaldeans, for their wickedness. I shall turn the land into a permanent wasteland. <sup>13</sup> I shall bring on that land all My threats, which I have been making against it, everything that is written in this Book and that Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. <sup>14</sup> For they themselves will become slaves among many nations and to great kings, and I shall pay them back according to their deeds and actions.”

Judgments against other nations

<sup>15</sup> For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, told me: “Take this cup of the wine of wrath from My hand and make all the nations to whom I am sending you drink it! <sup>16</sup> They will drink it, vomit loudly and go insane, because of the sword that I am sending among them.”

<sup>17</sup> I took the cup from the hand of the LORD and made all the nations to whom the LORD sent me drink it: <sup>18</sup> Jerusalem, the other cities of Judah, its kings and leading men, to make them a ruin, something shuddered over, something whistled at and a curse, as they still are today, <sup>19</sup> Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, his officers, his officials, all his people, <sup>20</sup> all the mixed races among them, all the kings of the land of Uz, all the kings of the land of the Philistines (Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron and the people who were left in Ashdod), <sup>21</sup> Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, <sup>22</sup> all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Sidon, the kings of the coastland across the sea, <sup>23</sup> Dedan, Tema, Buz, all who trim their hair at the temples, <sup>24</sup> all the kings of Arabia, all the kings of the mixed races who live in the desert, <sup>25</sup> all the kings of Zimri, all the kings of Elam, all the kings of the Medes, <sup>26</sup> all the kings of the north, far and near, one after another, and all the other kingdoms of the world that are on the surface of the earth. After them the king of Sheshak<sup>*139</sup> will drink.

<sup>27</sup> “Then you shall tell them, ‘This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: “Drink, become drunk, vomit, fall and do not get up again, because of the sword that I am sending among you!”’ <sup>28</sup> If they refuse to take the cup from your hand to drink, you shall tell them, “This is what the LORD of hosts has said: ‘You must certainly drink it! <sup>29</sup> For look! I am beginning to bring calamity on the city that is called by My name, and will you certainly remain unpunished? You will not remain unpunished. For I am calling for a sword to come against all who are living on the earth,’ declares the LORD of hosts.”’

<sup>33</sup> Those whom the LORD has killed on that day will stretch from one end of the earth to the other. No one will mourn for them. They will not be gathered up or buried. They will be manure on the surface of the ground. <sup>34</sup> Howl, shepherds, and cry out! Roll about in mourning, leaders of the flock! For the days for you to be slaughtered and scattered have arrived, and you will fall like a precious vase. <sup>35</sup> No refuge will remain for the shepherds. There will be no escape for the leaders of the flock. <sup>36</sup> Listen! The shepherds are crying out, and the leaders of the flock are howling. For the LORD is spoiling their pasture. <sup>37</sup> The blazing anger of the LORD is spoiling the peaceful pastures.

Jeremiah's prophecies in the Temple and his arrest

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah, this Word came from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD said: “Stand in the court of the Temple of the LORD and speak to all the cities of Judah, who come to worship in the Temple of the LORD, all the Words that I have commanded you to speak to them! Do not omit a Word! <sup>3</sup> Perhaps they will listen, and everyone will turn from his evil way, that I may change My mind about the calamity that I intend, because of the evil that they have been doing.

<sup>4</sup> You shall tell them: ‘This is what the LORD has said: “If you do not listen to Me and, if you do not follow My Law, which I have set before you, <sup>5</sup> and, if you do not heed the Words of My servants, the prophets, whom I have been sending to you most persistently, although you have not been listening, <sup>6</sup> then I shall make this Temple like Shiloh. I shall make this city a formula that all the nations of the earth will use in cursing.”’”

<sup>7</sup> The priests, the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these things in the Temple of the LORD. <sup>8</sup> When Jeremiah had finished speaking everything that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, the priests, the prophets and all the people took hold of him and said, “You will certainly die! <sup>9</sup> Why have you been prophesying in the name of the LORD, saying, ‘This Temple will be like Shiloh, and this city will be desolate, with no one living in it’?”

Then all the people gathered around Jeremiah in the Temple of the LORD. <sup>10</sup> When the officials of Judah heard about these things, they came up from the king's palace to the Temple of the LORD and sat down at the entrance of the New Gate of the Temple of the LORD. <sup>11</sup> Then the priests and the prophets told the officials and all the people, “This man should be condemned to death because he has been prophesying against this city, as you have heard!”

<sup>12</sup> Then Jeremiah told all the officials and all the people: “The LORD has sent me to prophesy against this Temple and against this city all the Words that you have heard. <sup>13</sup> Now therefore, reform your ways and your deeds and listen to the voice of the LORD, your God, that the LORD may relent about the calamity that He has pronounced against you! <sup>14</sup> However, as for me, look! I am in your hands. Do to me what you think is good and right! <sup>15</sup> Only you should know for certain that, if you put me to death, you will certainly make yourselves, this city and those who live in it responsible for killing an innocent person. For in truth the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these Words in your hearing.”

<sup>16</sup> Then the officials and all the people told the priests and the prophets: “This man does not deserve to be condemned to death. For he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD, our God.”

<sup>17</sup> Some of the elders of the land stood up and told the whole assembly of the people, <sup>18</sup> “Micah from Moresheth prophesied at the time of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, and told all the people of Judah: ‘This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “Zion will be ploughed like a field. Jerusalem will become a heap of rubble and the mountain of the Temple will become a wooded hilltop.”’ <sup>19</sup> Did Hezekiah, the king of Judah, and all Judah, put him to death? Did he not fear the LORD and plead for the favour of the LORD? The LORD changed His plan about the calamity that He had threatened against them. However, we are about to bring a great calamity on ourselves. <sup>20</sup> There was another man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Uriah, the son of Shemaiah, from Kiriath-Jearim. He prophesied against this city and against this land in Words like the ones that Jeremiah has used. <sup>21</sup> When King Jehoiakim with his whole body-guard and all the officials heard his Words, the king wanted to put him to death. However, when Uriah heard about that, he fled in fear and went to Egypt. <sup>22</sup> Then King Jehoiakim sent some men to Egypt. He sent Elnathan, the son of Achbor, and others with him to Egypt. <sup>23</sup> They took Uriah from Egypt and brought him to King Jehoiakim. The king struck him down with the sword and threw his body into the burial ground for the common people.”

<sup>24</sup> Indeed, Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, supported Jeremiah and prevented him from being handed over to the people and put to death.

A prediction that Babylon will subjugate Judah

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah, this Word came to Jeremiah from the LORD. <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD said to me: “Make yourself straps and the cross-bars of a yoke and put them on your neck! <sup>3</sup> Send them to the king of Edom, the king of Moab, the king of the Ammonites, the king of Tyre and the king of Sidon by means of messengers who have come to Zedekiah, the king of Judah, at Jerusalem! <sup>4</sup> Give them this order for their rulers: ‘This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: “This is what you shall tell your masters: <sup>5</sup> ‘I Myself have made the earth, the human beings and the animals that are on the earth by My great power and My outstretched arm. I give it to anyone whom I regard as the right one. <sup>6</sup> Now therefore, I Myself have handed all these lands over to My servant, Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. I have given even the wild animals to him, to serve him. <sup>7</sup> All the nations will serve him, his son and his grandson, until the time also comes for his own land. Then many nations and great kings will serve him.’ <sup>8</sup> However, if any nation or kingdom does not serve Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and does not put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, I shall punish that nation with the sword, with famine and with the plague,” declares the LORD, “until I have used him to put an end to it.””

<sup>9</sup> “You yourselves should not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your fortune-tellers or your sorcerers, who are telling you, ‘You shall not serve the king of Babylon!’ <sup>10</sup> For they are prophesying lies to you, with the result that they will remove you far away from your land. I shall drive you out, and you will perish. <sup>11</sup> However, if any nation puts its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serves him, I shall leave it on its own land,” declares the LORD, “and it will farm the land and live in it.”

<sup>12</sup> I spoke to Zedekiah, the king of Judah in exactly the same way: “Put your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, serve him and his people and stay alive! <sup>13</sup> Why should you and your people die by the sword, by famine and by the plague? The LORD has threatened such things against any nation that will not serve the king of Babylon. <sup>14</sup> Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are telling you, ‘You shall not serve the king of Babylon!’ For they are prophesying lies to you. <sup>15</sup> ‘For I have not sent them,’ declares the LORD, ‘but they are prophesying lies in My name, with the result that I shall drive you people out. You will perish, both you and the prophets who are prophesying to you.”

<sup>16</sup> Then I spoke to the priests and to this whole people. I said: “This is what the LORD has said: ‘Do not listen to the words of your prophets! They are prophesying to you, saying, “Look! Very soon now the vessels of the Temple of the LORD will be brought back from Babylon!” For they are prophesying lies to you.’

<sup>17</sup> “Do not listen to them! Serve the king of Babylon and stay alive! Why should this city be turned into a ruin? <sup>18</sup> If they were prophets and, if they had the Word of the LORD, they would need to be interceding with the LORD of hosts, to prevent the articles that are left in the Temple of the LORD, in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem from being taken to Babylon. <sup>19</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts has said about the pillars, the pool, the stands and the rest of the articles that are left in this city, <sup>20</sup> — which Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, did not take away when he took Jeconiah, the son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem away into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, <sup>21</sup> — This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said about the articles that are left in the Temple of the LORD, in the palace of the king of Judah and in Jerusalem: <sup>22</sup> ‘They will be taken to Babylon and remain there until the day when I come to take care of them,’ declares the LORD. ‘Then I shall bring them back and restore them to this place.’”

Hananiah's false prophecy and his death

<sup>1</sup> In the fifth month of the same year, the fourth year, early in the reign of Zedekiah, the king of Judah, the prophet Hananiah, the son of Azzur, who was from Gibeon, spoke to me in the Temple of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and all the people. He said: <sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: 'I shall break the yoke of the king of Babylon. <sup>3</sup> Within two years I shall restore to this place all the articles of the Temple of the LORD that Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, has taken away from this place and taken to Babylon. <sup>4</sup> I shall also bring back to this place Jeconiah, the son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, and all the exiles of Judah who have gone to Babylon,' declares the Lord. 'For I shall break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

<sup>5</sup> Then the prophet Jeremiah replied to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the Temple of the LORD. <sup>6</sup> The prophet Jeremiah said: "Amen! May the LORD do this! May the LORD make your words, which you have prophesied, come true and restore the articles of the Temple of the LORD and all the exiles from Babylon to this place! <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless, please listen to this Message, which I am speaking directly to you and to all the people! <sup>8</sup> 'From ancient times the prophets who preceded you and me prophesied war, calamity and the plague against many countries and great kingdoms. <sup>9</sup> The prophet who prophesies peace is recognised as the prophet whom the LORD has sent when the Message of the prophet comes true.'"

<sup>10</sup> Then the prophet Hananiah took the crossbars of the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke them. <sup>11</sup> Hananiah said in the presence of all the people, "This is what the LORD has said: 'In this way I shall break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, from the necks of all the nations within two years.'"

Then the prophet Jeremiah went on his way. <sup>12</sup> After the prophet Hananiah had broken the crossbars of the yoke from the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>13</sup> "Go and tell Hananiah, 'This is what the LORD has said: "You have broken wooden crossbars but will prepare crossbars of iron instead of them. <sup>14</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: 'I have put an iron yoke on the necks of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. They will serve him. I shall give even the wild animals to him.'"

<sup>15</sup> Then the prophet Jeremiah told the prophet Hananiah: "Please listen, Hananiah! Although the LORD has not sent you, you have caused these people to trust in a lie. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said: 'Look! I shall remove you from the surface of the earth. This year you will die. For you have taught rebellion against the LORD.'"

<sup>17</sup> The prophet Hananiah died in the seventh month of that year.

The letter of Jeremiah to the exiles in Babylon

<sup>1</sup> These are the Words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remainder of the elders who were in exile, to the priests, the prophets and all the other people whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken from Jerusalem into exile in Babylon. <sup>2</sup> This was after King Jeconiah, the queen-mother, the high officials, the leading men of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen and the metal-workers had left Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> He sent the letter with Elasah, the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah, the son of Hilkiyah, whom Zedekiah, the king of Judah sent to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, in Babylon. The letter said: <sup>4</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said to all the exiles, whom I have taken from Jerusalem into exile in Babylon: <sup>5</sup> 'Build houses and live in them! Plant gardens and eat what they produce! <sup>6</sup> Get married and have sons and daughters! Find wives for your sons and give your daughters to husbands, that they may have sons and daughters! Grow in number there! Do not decrease! <sup>7</sup> Be intent on the welfare of the city where I have taken you into exile and pray to the LORD for it! For, when it prospers, you will also prosper.'

<sup>8</sup> "For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: 'Your prophets, who are among you, and your diviners should not deceive you! Do not listen to your own dreams, which you elicit from them! <sup>9</sup> For they are prophesying deceitfully to you in My name. I have not sent them,' declares the LORD. <sup>10</sup> 'For this is what the LORD has said: 'As soon as Babylon's seventy years are over, I shall come to take care of you. I shall fulfil My good promise about you and bring you back to this place.'"

<sup>11</sup> "For I know the plans that I have for you," declares the LORD. "They are plans for peace and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. <sup>12</sup> You will call on Me. You will come and pray to Me, and I shall hear you. <sup>13</sup> When you search for Me, you will find Me. When you wholeheartedly search for Me, <sup>14</sup> I shall be found by you," declares the LORD. "I shall bring you back from your captivity. I shall gather you from all the nations and all the places where I have banished you," declares the LORD, "and I shall bring you back to the place from which I have taken you into exile. <sup>15</sup> For you have been saying, 'The LORD has raised up prophets for us in Babylon.'"

<sup>16</sup> "This is what the LORD has said about the king who is sitting on the throne of David and about all the people who are living in this city, your relatives who have not gone away with you into exile — <sup>17</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said: 'Look! I am sending the sword, famine and the plague on them. I shall make them like rotten figs, which are too bad to be eaten. <sup>18</sup> I shall pursue them with the sword, with famine and with the plague. I shall make them a terrifying sight for all the kingdoms of the earth, a curse, an appalling sight and something to be whistled at and scorned among all the nations where I shall have driven them. <sup>19</sup> The reason is that they have not been paying attention to My Words,' declares the LORD. 'I have been most persistently sending them with My servants, the prophets, but you would not listen,' declares the LORD."

<sup>20</sup> "You yourselves, listen to the Word of the LORD, all you exiles, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon: <sup>21</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said about Ahab, the son of Kolaiah, and Zedekiah, the son of Maaseiah, who are prophesying deceitfully to you in My name: 'Look! I shall hand them over to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. He will strike them down while you are watching. <sup>22</sup> Because of them all the captives from Judah who are in Babylon will take up this curse: "May the LORD make you like Zedekiah and Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in fire!" <sup>23</sup> The reason is that they have been committing deliberate sins in Israel. They have been committing adultery with their neighbours' wives. They have been speaking lying words in My name. I had not commanded them to do that. I am the One who know and I am a witness,' declares the LORD."

The objection of Shemaiah in Babylon to Jeremiah's letter

<sup>24</sup> "You shall also tell Shemaiah from Nehelam: <sup>25</sup> 'This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: "You yourself have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are in Jerusalem and to Zephaniah, the son of Maaseiah, the priest and to all the other priests. These letters said: <sup>26</sup> 'The LORD has made you priest instead of the priest Jehoiada, that there may be supervisors over the Temple of the LORD and that you may put every madman who acts like a prophet into the stocks and neck-irons. <sup>27</sup> Now therefore, why have you failed to rebuke Jeremiah from Anathoth, who is posing as a prophet in the presence of you all? <sup>28</sup> The reason is that he has sent this Message to us in Babylon: "This will take a long time. Build houses and live in them! Plant gardens and eat what they produce!"'"

<sup>29</sup> Zephaniah, the priest, read this letter in the hearing of the prophet Jeremiah. <sup>30</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>31</sup> "Send a Message to all the exiles, 'This is what the LORD has said about Shemaiah from Nehelam: "Because Shemaiah has been prophesying to you, although I Myself had not sent him and has been making you trust in a lie, <sup>32</sup> therefore this is what the LORD has said: 'Look! I shall punish Shemaiah from Nehelam and his descendants. He will not have anyone living among this people. He will not see the good things that I shall do to My people,' declares the LORD. For he has been teaching rebellion against the LORD."'"

A prediction that the captives in Babylon will be freed and that Israel will have a glorious future

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: 'Write down for yourself on a scroll all the Words that I have spoken to you. <sup>3</sup> For look! The days are coming,' declares the LORD, 'when I shall bring My people, Israel and Judah, back from captivity,' the LORD has said. 'I shall restore them to the land that I had given to their fathers, and they will take possession of it.'"

<sup>4</sup> These are the Words that the LORD has spoken about Israel and Judah: <sup>5</sup> Indeed, this is what the LORD has said: "We have heard a cry of fear, of terror and nothing about peace. <sup>6</sup> Please ask and see! Can a male give birth to a child? Why then have I seen every man with his hands on his stomach like a woman in labour? Why has every face turned pale? <sup>7</sup> How terrible! For that day will be so great that there will be no other like it. It will be a time of distress for Jacob. Nevertheless, he will be saved from it. <sup>8</sup> On that day," declares the LORD of hosts, "I shall break his yoke from your necks and tear your chains apart. Foreigners will not enslave Jacob any longer. <sup>9</sup> Instead, they will serve the LORD, their God, and David, their King, whom I shall raise up for them.

<sup>10</sup> "As for you, do not be afraid, My servant Jacob!" declares the LORD. "Do not be dismayed, Israel! For look! I shall save you from far away. I shall save your descendants from the land where they are captives. Jacob will return, be at peace and be free from anxiety. No one will frighten him. <sup>11</sup> For I am with you," declares the LORD, "to save you. For I shall completely destroy all the nations among whom I have scattered you. Nevertheless, I shall not completely destroy you. I shall be just when I discipline you. I shall certainly not declare you free from blame."

<sup>13</sup> There is no one to plead your cause. There is no medication for your ulcer. There is no healing for you.

<sup>14</sup> All your lovers have forgotten you. They do not look for you. For I have struck you as an enemy would and disciplined you cruelly, because your guilt is great and your sins have been numerous. <sup>15</sup> Why are you crying out over your fracture? Your anguish is incurable. I have done these things to you because your guilt is great and your sins are numerous. <sup>16</sup> That is why all who are devouring you will be devoured, and all your enemies, each one of them, will go into captivity. Those who are looting you will be looted, and I shall give up to plunder all who are plundering you. <sup>17</sup> For I shall restore health to you and make your wounds heal," declares the LORD. "For people have been calling you ‘The Scattered One,’ ‘This Zion About Which No One Cares.’”

God’s declaration about His people

<sup>18</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “Look! I shall bring the exiles back to the tents of Jacob and have compassion on his dwellings. The city will be rebuilt on its mound of rubble, and the fortified palace will stand on its proper place. <sup>19</sup> Songs of thanksgiving and the sounds of those who are merry will come out of them. I shall make them numerous, and they will not be few. I shall make them honoured, and they will not be unimportant. <sup>20</sup> Their children will be as they were long ago. Their congregation will be permanent in My presence, and I shall punish all who oppress them. <sup>21</sup> Their Prince will be One of their own. Their Ruler will come from among them. I shall make Him approach, and He will come near Me. For who is this who would stake his own heart to approach Me?” asks the LORD. <sup>22</sup> “Then you will be My people, and I Myself shall be your God.”

<sup>23</sup> Look at the windstorm of the LORD! Wrath will come forth like a tempest that stays on like a resident-foreigner. It will swirl down on the heads of wicked people. <sup>24</sup> The fierce anger of the LORD will not turn back until He has carried out and fulfilled what His mind has planned. In the last days you will understand this clearly.

31

Promises that the exiles of Israel and Judah will be rescued

<sup>1</sup> “At that time,” declares the LORD, “I shall be the God of all the families of Israel, and they will be My people.”

<sup>3</sup> The LORD has come from far away to appear to me. He has said: “I have loved you with an everlasting love. That is why I have been stretching My mercy full length. <sup>4</sup> I shall build you up again, and you will be rebuilt, O virgin Israel. You will adorn yourself again with your tambourines and go out in a circle-dance with merry-makers. <sup>5</sup> You will plant vineyards again on the hills of Samaria. After the planters have put them in, they will make use of them. <sup>6</sup> For there will be a day when watchmen will call out in the hill-country of Ephraim: ‘Arise and let us go up to the LORD, our God, in Zion!’”

<sup>7</sup> For this is what the LORD has said: “Sing a joyous song for Jacob and rejoice for the foremost of the nations! Proclaim, give praise and say, ‘LORD, save Your people, the remnant of Israel!’” <sup>8</sup> Look! I shall bring them from the North-Country and gather them from the remotest parts of the earth. Blind people and lame people will be among them, together with pregnant women and the women in labour. A great company will return here. <sup>9</sup> They will be weeping as they come and, as they make pleas for mercy, I shall bring them back. I shall lead them beside rivers of water, on a level path, on which they will not stumble. For I shall be the Father of Israel and Ephraim will be My first-born son.”

<sup>10</sup> Listen to the Word of the LORD, nations! Tell it in the distant coastlands! Say: “He who scattered Israel will gather them and will watch over them as a shepherd watches over his flock. <sup>11</sup> For the LORD has ransomed Jacob and redeemed them from the hands of those who are stronger than they are. <sup>12</sup> They will come and shout for joy on the height of Zion. For they will be radiant with joy because of the good things of the LORD, the fresh grain, the new wine, the olive-oil and the young of the flock and of the herd. Their lives will be like a well-watered garden and they will never waste away again. <sup>13</sup> Then the virgin will rejoice in the dance, along with the young men and the old men. “I shall turn their mourning into joy. I shall comfort them and give them joy instead of their sorrow. <sup>14</sup> I shall satisfy the desires of the priests with rich food and My people will be satisfied with My good things,” declares the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “A sound is heard in Ramah, lamenting and bitter weeping. Rachel is weeping for her children. She refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more.”

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “Restrain your voice from weeping and your eyes from tears! For there will be wages for your labour,” declares the LORD. “They will come back from the land of the enemy. <sup>17</sup> There is hope for your future,” declares the LORD. “Your children will come back to their own territory.”

<sup>18</sup> “I have certainly heard Ephraim pitying himself: ‘You have disciplined me and I have been disciplined, like a bull-calf that has not been broken in. Bring me back, that I may return! For You are the LORD, my God. <sup>19</sup> For, after I returned, I repented. After I began to understand, I slapped myself on the hip. I was ashamed, yes, even humiliated, because I bore the disgrace of my youth.’” <sup>20</sup> Is Ephraim My precious son? Is he My child, in whom a father delights? Yes, because whenever I speak against him, I certainly still remember him. That is why My inner being yearns for him. I shall certainly have compassion on him,” declares the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> “Set up road markers for yourself! Make yourself signposts! Keep in mind the highway, the road on which you have gone away. Come back, virgin Israel! Come back to these cities of yours! <sup>22</sup> How long will you wander back and forth, unfaithful daughter? For the LORD has created a new thing on the earth: a woman who moves protectively around a man.”

<sup>23</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: “Once again people will use these words in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I bring them back from exile: ‘May the LORD bless you, you righteous settlement, you holy hill!’<sup>24</sup> Judah and all its cities will live there together. Farmers and those who travel with their herds will live there.<sup>25</sup> For I shall give copious drink to the weary person. I shall fill every languishing throat.”

<sup>26</sup> At this I woke up and looked around, My sleep had been pleasant to me.

<sup>27</sup> “Look! The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I shall sow the family of Israel and the family of Judah with the seed of men and the seed of cattle.

<sup>28</sup> As I have been watching over them, to uproot them and tear them down, to demolish, ruin and hurt them, so I shall be watchful over them to build them up and plant them,” declares the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> “In those days people will no longer say, ‘The fathers have eaten sour grapes and their children’s teeth feel numb.’

<sup>30</sup> Rather, each person will die for his own sin. Every human being who eats sour grapes will have his own teeth feeling numb.”

A promise of a New Covenant

<sup>31</sup> “Look! The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I shall make a new Covenant with the family of Israel and with the family of Judah.

<sup>32</sup> It will not be like the Covenant that I made with their fathers when I took them by their hands to bring them out of the land of Egypt. They broke My Covenant, although I was a husband to them,” declares the LORD.

<sup>33</sup> “However, this is the Covenant that I shall make with the family of Israel after those days,” declares the LORD: “I shall put My teaching inside them and write it on their hearts. I shall be their God, and they will be My people!”<sup>34</sup> Each one will no longer teach his neighbour or his brother, saying, ‘Know the LORD!’ For they will all know Me, from the least among them to the greatest among them,” declares the LORD. “For I shall forgive their wickedness and not remember their sin any longer.”

<sup>35</sup> This is what the LORD has said, He who gives the sun for light by day, the prescribed order for the moon and the stars for light by night, He who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar— the LORD of hosts is His name: <sup>36</sup> “If these prescribed orders were to withdraw from My presence,” declares the LORD, “then the descendants of Israel would also permanently cease to be a nation in My presence.”

<sup>37</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “If the heavens above could be measured and, if the foundations of the earth below could be explored, then I would reject all the descendants of Israel because of all that they have been doing,” declares the LORD.

A promise that Jerusalem will be rebuilt and enlarged

<sup>38</sup> “Look! The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when the city will be rebuilt for the LORD from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate.<sup>39</sup> The measuring-line will go out from immediately in front of it to the Hill of Gareb and then turn towards Goah.<sup>40</sup> The whole valley where the dead bodies and the ashes are put and all the terraces as far as the Kidron Brook, to the corner of the Horse-Gate towards the east, will be holy to the LORD. It will never be uprooted or demolished again.”

32

Jeremiah’s purchase of a field during the siege

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah, the king of Judah. It was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar.

<sup>2</sup> The army of the king of Babylon was at that time besieging Jerusalem. The prophet Jeremiah was being kept as a prisoner in the courtyard of the guard, which was in the palace of the king of Judah.

<sup>3</sup> For Zedekiah, the king of Judah, had imprisoned him there. He had asked him: “Why are you prophesying, saying: ‘This is what the LORD has said: “Look! I am handing this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.’”

<sup>4</sup> Zedekiah, the king of Judah, will not escape from the Chaldeans. Rather, he will certainly be handed over to the king of Babylon, who will speak with him face to face and see him eye to eye.

<sup>5</sup> He will take Zedekiah to Babylon, and he will remain there until I come to take care of him,” declares the LORD. “Although you people fight against the Chaldeans, you will not be successful”?”

<sup>6</sup> Jeremiah said: “The Word of the LORD came to me, saying: <sup>7</sup> ‘Look! Hanamel, the son of your uncle Shalum, is coming to you to say, “Buy my field, which is at Anathoth! For you own the right of redemption to buy it.”’”

<sup>8</sup> “As the LORD had said, my uncle’s son Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard. He asked me: ‘Please, buy my field, which is at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin! For you have the right to own it. You have the right to redeem it. Buy it for yourself!’”

Then I knew that this was the Word of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> So, I bought the field at Anathoth from my uncle’s son Hanamel and I weighed out the money for him, two hundred grams of silver.

<sup>10</sup> I wrote the bill of sale, sealed it, had people witness it and weighed the silver on the scales.

<sup>11</sup> Then I took the deed of purchase, the one that was sealed, containing the terms and conditions, as well as the unsealed copy.

<sup>12</sup> I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch, the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my uncle’s son Hanamel, the witnesses who had signed the deed and all the other Jews who were sitting in the courtyard of the guard.

<sup>13</sup> Then I gave Baruch these instructions in their presence: <sup>14</sup> “This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: ‘Take these deeds, this deed of purchase, which is sealed and this deed, which is unsealed and put them in an earthenware jar, that they may last for a long time.’”

<sup>15</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: ‘Houses, fields and vineyards will again be bought in this land.’”

Jeremiah's prayer for understanding

<sup>16</sup> After I had given the deed of purchase to Baruch, the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD: <sup>17</sup> “Ah, Lord GOD! Look! You Yourself have made the heavens and the earth by Your great power and by Your outstretched arm. Nothing is too difficult for You. <sup>18</sup> You show faithful love to thousands but repay the guilt of fathers into the laps of their children after them. O great and mighty God, Your name is the LORD of hosts. <sup>19</sup> You give great advice and do mighty things. Your eyes are open to all the conduct of the descendants of Adam. You reward each one according to his conduct and as his deeds deserve. <sup>20</sup> You have been performing miraculous signs and wonders in Egypt and until today, both in Israel and among other human beings. You made Yourself famous, as You still are today. <sup>21</sup> You brought Your people Israel out of Egypt with miraculous signs and wonders, with a strong hand, an outstretched arm and with great terror. <sup>22</sup> You have given them this land, which You had sworn to give to their fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>23</sup> They came in and took possession of it. However, they did not listen to Your voice and did not live according to Your Law. They did not do at all what You had commanded them to do. That is why You have caused this whole calamity to happen to them. <sup>24</sup> Look! The assault-ramps have been built up against the city that it may be captured. Because of the sword, famine and the plague, the city will be handed over to the Chaldeans, who are fighting against it. The threat that You had made has happened. Look! You see it. <sup>25</sup> Nevertheless, You, Lord GOD, have told me, ‘Use money to buy the field and confirm it with witnesses!’ although the city will be handed over to the Chaldeans.”

God's assurance that the people will return

<sup>26</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>27</sup> “Look! I am the LORD, the God of all human beings. Nothing is too difficult for Me, is it? <sup>28</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said: ‘Look! I am handing this city over to the Chaldeans and to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and he will capture it. <sup>29</sup> The Chaldeans, who are fighting against this city, will come in, set this city on fire and burn it down, with the houses where people have been burning offerings to Baal on the roofs and pouring out drink-offerings to other gods, so that they have provoked Me to anger. <sup>30</sup> For the people of Israel and of Judah have been doing nothing but what I regard as evil ever since they have been young. The Israelites have been doing nothing but provoking Me to anger by what their hands have been doing,’ declares the LORD. <sup>31</sup> ‘The reason for My anger and My wrath is that this city has been causing anger and wrath for Me from the time when people built it until today, so that I shall remove it from My presence. <sup>32</sup> It is because of all the evil that the people of Israel and of Judah have been doing to provoke Me to anger, the people, their kings, their officials, their priests, their prophets, the Jews and those who are living in Jerusalem. <sup>33</sup> They have been turning their backs to Me instead of their faces. Although I have been teaching them most persistently, they have not been listening, to accept discipline. <sup>34</sup> Rather, they have been setting up their detestable idols in the Temple, which is called by My name, and have defiled it. <sup>35</sup> They have been building the high places of Baal in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to Molech. I had not commanded them to do that, and it had not entered My mind that they should do this detestable thing and mislead Judah into sin in this way.’

<sup>36</sup> “Now therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said about this city, about which you are saying, ‘It will be handed over to the king of Babylon by the sword, by famine and by the plague.’ <sup>37</sup> Look! I shall gather them from all the countries to which I have driven them in My anger, in My wrath and in great fury. I shall bring them back to this place and cause them to live in security. <sup>38</sup> They will be My people, and I shall be their God. <sup>39</sup> I shall give them one heart and one path, that they may fear Me for ever, for their own welfare and for the welfare of their children after them. <sup>40</sup> I shall make an everlasting Covenant with them, that I shall not turn away from doing good to them. I shall put the fear of Me in their hearts, that they may not turn away from Me. <sup>41</sup> I shall rejoice in doing good to them. I shall faithfully plant them in this land, with all My heart and all My soul.

<sup>42</sup> “For this is what the LORD has said: ‘As I have brought this whole great calamity on this people, so I shall bring on them all the good that I am promising them. <sup>43</sup> People will buy fields in this land, about which you are saying: ‘It is a desolate waste, without human beings or animals. It has been handed over to the Chaldeans.’ <sup>44</sup> People will pay money to buy fields, sign deeds and seal and witness them in the land of Benjamin, in the vicinity of Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah, in the cities of the hill-country, in the cities of the lowlands and in the cities of the Negev. For I shall bring them back from their captivity,’ declares the LORD.”

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah a second time, while he was still detained in the courtyard of the guard: <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD, who has made the earth, the LORD, who has formed it, to make it stand firm, whose name is the LORD, has said: <sup>3</sup> “Call to Me, and I shall answer you. I shall predict great and inaccessible things to you that you have not known.”

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said about the houses of this city and the palaces of the kings of Judah that were pulled down to be used against the siege ramps and against the sword: <sup>5</sup> “People are coming in to fight against the Chaldeans and to fill these houses with the corpses of the men whom I shall strike down in My anger and My wrath. For I have hidden My face from this city, because of all their wickedness. <sup>6</sup> Look! I shall bring health and healing to this city. I shall heal them and reveal to them an abundance of peace and truth. <sup>7</sup> I shall bring back the captives of Judah and Israel and rebuild these houses as they had been previously. <sup>8</sup> I shall pronounce them clean from all the guilt of their sins against Me. I shall forgive all the guilt of their sins against Me and their rebellious acts against Me. <sup>9</sup> This city will bring Me a joyful reputation, praise and glory before all the nations of the earth. They will hear about all the good things that I shall do to them. They will be afraid and tremble because of all the good things and all the prosperity that I shall provide for Jerusalem.”

<sup>10</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “In this place, about which you are saying, ‘It is a desolate waste, where there are no human beings or animals,’ in the cities of Judah and the desolate streets of Jerusalem, where there are no human beings, inhabitants or animals, there will again be heard <sup>11</sup> the sounds of joy and gladness, the voices of the bridegroom and the bride, the voices of those who say: ‘Give thanks to the LORD of hosts! For the LORD is good. For His mercy endures for ever’ while they are bringing thank-offerings to the Temple of the LORD. For I shall bring the captives back to the land as they had been previously,” the LORD has said.

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “In this place, which is a wasteland, without human beings or animals and in all of its cities, there will again be pastures where shepherds allow their flocks to lie down.

<sup>13</sup> In the cities of the hill-country, in the cities of the lowlands and in the cities of the Negev, in the land of Benjamin, in the vicinity of Jerusalem and in the cities of Judah flocks will again go past under the hands of the one who is counting them,” the LORD has said.

<sup>14</sup> “Look! The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I shall fulfil the gracious promise that I have made to the family of Israel and to the family of Judah. <sup>15</sup> In those days and at that time I shall cause a righteous Branch to spring up for David, and He will put justice and righteousness into effect in the land.

<sup>16</sup> In those days Judah will be saved and Jerusalem will live in safety. This is the name by which the city will be called: ‘The LORD Is Our Righteousness.’”

<sup>17</sup> For this is what the LORD has said: “David will never fail to have a man to sit on the throne of the family of Israel. <sup>18</sup> The Levitical priests will never at any time fail to have a man in My presence to offer burnt offerings, to burn grain-offerings and to make sacrifices.”

is what the LORD has said: “If you could break My Covenant with the day and My Covenant with the night, so that day and night would cease to come at their appointed times, <sup>21</sup> then My Covenant with My servant David could also be broken, so that he would not have a descendant to reign on his throne. Then My Covenant with the Levitical priests, My ministers, could also be broken. <sup>22</sup> As the starry host of heaven cannot be counted and as the sand of the sea cannot be measured, so I shall multiply the descendants of My servant David and the Levitical priests, who minister to Me.”

<sup>23</sup> The Word of the Lord came to Jeremiah: <sup>24</sup> “Have you not noticed what these people are saying, ‘The LORD has rejected the two clans that He had chosen’? They are despising My people and no longer regard them as a nation.”

<sup>25</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “If I had not established My Covenant with day and night and the regulations for the heavens and the earth, <sup>26</sup> then I would also reject the descendants of Jacob and My servant David. I would not have selected any of his descendants to rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. For I shall bring their captives back and have compassion on them.”

The untrustworthiness of King Zedekiah and the people

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD while Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, all his army, all the kingdoms of the earth and all the peoples that were under his dominion were fighting against Jerusalem and all of its cities: <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: “Go and speak to Zedekiah, the king of Judah and tell him: ‘This is what the LORD has said: “Look! I am handing this city over to the king of Babylon, and he will burn it down. <sup>3</sup> You yourself will not escape from his power but will certainly be captured and handed over to him. You will see the king of Babylon eye to eye and speak with him face to face. Then you will go to Babylon.”’”

<sup>4</sup> “Nevertheless, listen to the Word of the LORD, Zedekiah, king of Judah! This is what the LORD has said about you: ‘You will not die by the sword. <sup>5</sup> You will die in peace. As people burnt spices for your fathers, the earlier kings, who were before you, so people will burn spices for you and lament for you. They will say, “Alas, master,” as they mourn for you. For I Myself have made this promise,’ declares the LORD.”

Zedekiah's agreement that Hebrew slaves should be released

LORD, after King Zedekiah had made an agreement with all the people in Jerusalem to proclaim release for them. <sup>9</sup> Everyone had been obliged to set free his male and female Hebrew slaves. No one among them was to serve a fellow-Jew as a slave. <sup>10</sup> All the officials and all the people who had accepted the agreement that everyone should set free his male or female slave and that no one should be a slave among them any longer, had complied with it. They had observed the conditions and had released them. <sup>11</sup> However, after this, they changed their minds and took back the male and female slaves whom they had set free. They subjugated them as their male and female slaves.

<sup>12</sup> The Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>13</sup> This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: "I Myself had made a Covenant with your fathers when I brought them out of slave-quarters in Egypt. I said, <sup>14</sup> 'After seven years each of you shall set free his fellow Hebrew who has been sold to you and who has been serving you for six years. You shall set him free and let him leave you.' However, your fathers did not listen to Me and paid no attention to Me. <sup>15</sup> You recently changed your conduct and did what I regard as right. Each of you proclaimed release for his countryman. You made an agreement in My presence at the Temple that has been called by My name. <sup>16</sup> However, you changed your minds and profaned My name when each of you took back his male and female slaves, whom you had set free as they wished. You forced them to be your male and female slaves again.

<sup>17</sup> "Therefore, this is what the LORD has said: 'You did not listen to Me. None of you proclaimed release to his relative and his neighbour. Look! I am proclaiming freedom in your case,' declares the LORD, 'to the sword, to the plague and to famine. I shall make you abhorrent to all the kingdoms of the world. <sup>18</sup> I shall cause the men who have violated My Covenant and have not kept the terms of the covenant that they had made in My presence to be like the calf, when they cut it in two and walked through between its pieces. <sup>19</sup> They are the officials of Judah, the officials of Jerusalem, the court-officials, the priests and all the people of the land who walked through between the pieces of the calf. <sup>20</sup> I shall hand them over to their enemies and to those who want to kill them. Their dead bodies will become food for the birds in the sky and the animals on the land. <sup>21</sup> I shall hand Zedekiah, the king of Judah and his officials over to their enemies, to those who want to kill them, to the army of the king of Babylon, which is now withdrawing from you. <sup>22</sup> Look! I shall give a Command,' declares the LORD, 'and I shall bring them back to this city. They will fight against it, capture it and burn it down. I shall make the cities of Judah a desolation, so that no one lives in them.'"

<sup>3</sup> I brought Jaazaniah, the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, his brothers and all his sons, the whole family of the Rechabites. <sup>4</sup> I took them into the room of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, the man of God at the Temple of the LORD. It was near the room of the officials, above the room of Maaseiah, the son of Shallum, who was the doorkeeper. <sup>5</sup> Then I set bowls full of wine and cups before the family of the Rechabites. I told them, "Drink some wine!"

<sup>6</sup> However, they answered: "We shall not drink any wine. For Jonadab, the son of our ancestor Rechab, commanded us, 'You and your sons shall never drink any wine! <sup>7</sup> You shall not build any houses! You shall not sow seed! You shall not plant or own any vineyards! Rather, you shall always live in tents, that you may live for a long time on the land where you are staying as foreigners!' <sup>8</sup> We ourselves, as well as our wives, our sons and our daughters, have been obedient to everything that Jonadab, the son of Rechab, our ancestor, commanded us, so that we never drink any wine. <sup>9</sup> We do not build any houses to live in. We do not own any vineyards, fields or cultivated land. <sup>10</sup> We have been living in tents and have been obediently doing everything that our ancestor Jonadab commanded us to do. <sup>11</sup> However, when Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon invaded the land, we said, 'Come and let us go to Jerusalem to escape from the Chaldean and Aramean armies!' So, we have been living in Jerusalem."

<sup>12</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>13</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: "Go and ask the people of Judah and those who are living in Jerusalem, 'Will you not receive Instruction and listen to My Words?' declares the LORD. <sup>14</sup> 'The orders that Jonadab, the son of Rechab, gave to his descendants not to drink any wine have been carried out. They have not drunk any to this day. For they have obeyed their ancestor's command. Although I Myself have been speaking to you persistently, you have not been listening to Me. <sup>15</sup> I have been persistently sending you all My servants the prophets to say, "Each one of you, please turn from your evil way! Do what is right and stop following other gods and serving them! Then you will live in the land that I have given to you and your fathers.'" However, you have not been paying attention or listening to Me. <sup>16</sup> Indeed, the descendants of Jonadab, the son of Rechab, have been carrying out a command that their father gave them, but this people has not been obeying Me. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: “Look! I am bringing on Judah and all who are living in Jerusalem the whole calamity with which I have threatened them. For I have been speaking to them, but they have not been listening. I have been calling to them but they have not answered.””

<sup>18</sup> Then Jeremiah told the family of the Rechabites: “This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: ‘Because you have obeyed the command of your ancestor Jonadab, kept all his instructions and done exactly as he commanded you, <sup>19</sup> therefore this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: “Jonadab, the son of Rechab, will never fail to have a man to stand before Me.””

The reading of Jeremiah's scroll in the Temple

<sup>1</sup> In the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah, this Word came to Jeremiah from the LORD: <sup>2</sup> “Take a scroll and write on it all the Words that I have been speaking to you about Israel, Judah and all the other nations, from the time when I began speaking to you during the time of Josiah until today! <sup>3</sup> Perhaps the family of Judah will listen to the whole calamity that I intend to bring on them, so that everyone will turn from his evil way, that I may forgive their wickedness and their sin.”

<sup>8</sup> Baruch, the son of Neriah, did exactly as the prophet Jeremiah had ordered him. He read the Words of the LORD from the scroll at the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> In the ninth month of the fifth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah, all the people in Jerusalem and all the people who were coming in from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem proclaimed a fast before the LORD. <sup>10</sup> Baruch read the Words of Jeremiah from the scroll at the Temple of the LORD, while all the people were listening. He read them in the room of the scribe Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, which was in the upper courtyard, at the entrance of the New Gate of the Temple of the LORD. <sup>11</sup> When Micaiah, the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard all the Words of the LORD from the scroll, <sup>12</sup> he went down to the scribe's room at the king's palace and saw that all the officials were sitting there. Elishama the scribe, Delaiah, the son of Shemaiah, Elnathan, the son of Achbor, Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, Zedekiah, the son of Hananiah and all the other officials were there. <sup>13</sup> Micaiah reported to them all the Words that he had heard when Baruch had been reading from the scroll while the people were listening. <sup>14</sup> Then all the officials sent Jehudi, the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to tell Baruch, “Bring in your hand the scroll that you have been reading while the people were listening and come!”

Baruch, the son of Neriah, took the scroll in his hand and came to them. <sup>15</sup> They told him, “Please sit down and read it while we listen!”

Baruch read it while they were listening. <sup>16</sup> When they had heard all the Words, they looked at each other in trepidation and told Baruch, “We must certainly report all these Words to the king.”

<sup>17</sup> They asked Baruch, “Please tell us, how did you write all these Words? Did he dictate them?”

The destruction of Jeremiah's scroll

<sup>20</sup> After they deposited the scroll in the room of the scribe Elishama, they went to the king at the court and reported all the Words while the king listened.

<sup>21</sup> Then the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll, and he brought it from the room of the scribe Elishama. Jehudi read it in the hearing of the king and all the officials, who were standing beside the king. <sup>22</sup> It was the ninth month and the king was sitting in the winter house with a fire burning in the fire-pot in front of him. <sup>23</sup> When Jehudi had read three or four columns, the king kept cutting them off with a scribe's knife and throwing them into the fire in the fire-pot. He did this until the entire scroll had been burnt in the fire in the fire pot. <sup>24</sup> Nevertheless, the king and all his attendants were not alarmed when they heard all these Words and did not tear their clothes. <sup>25</sup> Even when Elnathan, Delaiah and Gemariah urged the king not to burn the scroll, he would not listen to them. <sup>26</sup> Although the king commanded Jerahmeel, the king's son, Seraiah, the son of Azriel and Shelemiah, the son of Abdeel, to arrest the scribe Baruch and the prophet Jeremiah, the LORD kept them hidden.

Jeremiah's dictation of another scroll

<sup>27</sup> After the king had burnt the scroll containing the Words that Baruch had written while Jeremiah was dictating, the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah: <sup>28</sup> “Take another scroll and write on it all the former Words, which were on the first scroll, which Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, has burnt! <sup>29</sup> You shall say, about Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, ‘This is what the LORD has said: “You have burnt this scroll and asked, ‘Why have you written in it that the king of Babylon will certainly come, destroy this land and cause human beings and animals to disappear from it?"

<sup>30</sup> "Therefore, this is what the LORD has said about Jehoiakim, the king of Judah: 'He will not have anyone to sit on the throne of David and his corpse will be thrown out and exposed to the heat by day and the frost by night. <sup>31</sup> I shall punish him, his descendants and his attendants for their wickedness. I shall bring on them, on those who are living in Jerusalem and on the people of Judah the whole calamity with which I have threatened them, because they have refused to listen.'"

<sup>32</sup> Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to the scribe Baruch, the son of Neriah. He wrote on it, while Jeremiah was dictating, all the Words that had been on the scroll that Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, had burnt in the fire. Many more similar Messages were added to them.

The advice given to Zedekiah by Jeremiah — 2 Kings 24:17, 2 Chronicles 36:10

<sup>4</sup> Jeremiah was freely associating with the people. For he had not yet been put in prison. <sup>5</sup> The army of Pharaoh had come out of Egypt. When the Chaldeans, who were besieging Jerusalem, heard the news about them, they withdrew from Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah: <sup>7</sup> This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: "This is what you people shall tell the king of Judah, who is sending you to Me to ask Me for advice: 'Look! Pharaoh's army, which has come to bring help, is about to return to Egypt, to its own land. <sup>8</sup> The Chaldeans will come back and fight against this city. They will capture it and burn it down.'"

<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "Do not deceive yourselves by thinking, 'The Chaldeans will certainly leave us!' For they will not leave. <sup>10</sup> For even if you were to defeat the whole army of Chaldeans, who are fighting against you and only badly wounded men among them were to remain singly in their tents, they would get up and burn this city down."

The imprisonment of Jeremiah

<sup>11</sup> When the Chaldean army had withdrawn from Jerusalem because Pharaoh's army was coming, <sup>12</sup> Jeremiah set out from Jerusalem to go to the land of Benjamin to participate in a division of property there among the relationship. <sup>13</sup> When he was at the Benjamin Gate, a sentry on duty there, who was named Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah, arrested the prophet Jeremiah. He said, "You are deserting to the Chaldeans!"

<sup>14</sup> Jeremiah said, "That is not so. I am not deserting to the Chaldeans."

However, Irijah would not listen to him, arrested Jeremiah and took him to the officials. <sup>15</sup> The officials were angry with Jeremiah, beat him and imprisoned him in the house of the scribe Jonathan. For it had been turned into a prison. <sup>16</sup> Indeed, Jeremiah was put into a vaulted cell in a dungeon and stayed there for a long time. <sup>17</sup> Then King Zedekiah sent men to fetch him. The king asked him privately in his palace: "Is there any Word from the LORD?"

Jeremiah said, "There is." Then he said, "You will be handed over to the king of Babylon."

<sup>18</sup> Then Jeremiah asked King Zedekiah: "What wrong have I done to you, your attendants or this people, that you have put me in prison? <sup>19</sup> Where are the prophets of you people, who prophesied to you, 'The king of Babylon will not come against you or this land'? <sup>20</sup> Now therefore, please listen, my master, the king! Please let my plea for mercy come before you! Do not send me back to the house of the scribe Jonathan, that I may not die there!"

<sup>21</sup> King Zedekiah gave an order, and they handed Jeremiah over into custody at the court of the guard. A loaf of bread was given to him each day from the bakers' lane, until all the bread of the city had been used up. So, Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

38

The cruel imprisonment suffered by Jeremiah in a dungeon

<sup>1</sup> Shephatiah, the son of Mattan, Gedaliah, the son of Pashhur, Jucal, the son of Shelemiah and Pashhur, the son of Malchiah, heard the Words that Jeremiah was speaking to all the people: <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD said: "He who stays in this city will die by the sword, by famine or by the plague. However, he who goes out to the Chaldeans will live. He will have his life like plunder taken in war and will live." <sup>3</sup> This is what the LORD said: "This city will certainly be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it."

<sup>4</sup> Then the officials told the king: "Please, this man should be put to death. For he is weakening the morale of the soldiers who are left in this city and of all the people by speaking to them in this way. For this man is not intent on the welfare of this people but on their harm."

<sup>6</sup> So, they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Malchiah, the king's son, which was in the courtyard of the guard. They used ropes to lower Jeremiah. There was no water in the cistern, only mud and Jeremiah sank down in the mud. <sup>7</sup> However, Ebed-Melech, a Cushite and an official at the king's palace, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the cistern. While the king was sitting at the Benjamin Gate, <sup>8</sup> Ebed-Melech left the king's palace and told the king, <sup>9</sup> "My master, Your Majesty, everything that these men have done to the prophet Jeremiah is wrong. They have thrown him into the cistern, and he will starve to death in that very place. For there is no more bread in the city."

<sup>11</sup> So, Ebed-Melech took the men who were with him, went to a place under the storehouse at the royal palace and got some old rags and worn-out clothes from there. Then he used ropes to lower them to Jeremiah in the cistern. <sup>12</sup> Ebed-Melech, the Cushite, told Jeremiah: "Please put the rags and worn-out clothes under your armpits to pad the ropes!"

Jeremiah did that. <sup>13</sup> Then they pulled Jeremiah up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. Then Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard.

Zedekiah's second consultation with Jeremiah and an offer to save Zedekiah

<sup>14</sup> King Zedekiah sent some men to fetch the prophet Jeremiah to him at the third entrance of the Temple of the LORD. The king told Jeremiah: "I shall ask you a question. Do not hide anything from me!"

<sup>15</sup> Jeremiah asked Zedekiah: "If I tell you, will you not certainly put me to death? Even if I were to give you advice, you would not listen to me."

<sup>16</sup> Then King Zedekiah secretly made an oath to Jeremiah: "As surely as the LORD lives, who has made these lives of ours, I shall not put you to death and not hand you over to these men, who want to take your life."

<sup>17</sup> Then Jeremiah told Zedekiah: "This is what the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: 'If you actually do surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then your life will be spared, this city will not be burnt down, and you and your family will live. <sup>18</sup> However, if you do not surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, then this city will be handed over to the Chaldeans, they will burn it down, and you will not escape from them.'"

<sup>19</sup> King Zedekiah answered Jeremiah: "I am afraid of the Jews who have deserted to the Chaldeans. I fear that they will hand me over to them and that they will treat me cruelly."

<sup>20</sup> Jeremiah said: "You will not be handed over to them. Please listen to the voice of the LORD about what I am telling you, that it may be well with you and that your soul may live! <sup>21</sup> However, if you refuse to surrender, this is what the LORD has revealed to me: <sup>22</sup> 'Look! All the women who are left in the palace of the king of Judah will be handed over to the officials of the king of Babylon. Look! They will say: "Your trusted friends have deceived you and had their way with you. Now that your feet have been sunk in the mud, they have turned away from you." <sup>23</sup> All your wives and your sons will be led out to the Chaldeans. You yourself will not escape from them but will be caught by the king of Babylon, and this city will be burnt down.'"

An agreement between Jeremiah and Zedekiah

<sup>24</sup> Then Zedekiah told Jeremiah: "No one must learn about these Words. Otherwise, you will die! <sup>25</sup> If the officials hear that I have spoken with you and come to you and ask you, 'Please tell us what you told the king and what the king said to you! Do not hide it from us! Otherwise we shall kill you,' <sup>26</sup> you shall tell them, 'I was presenting my plea to the king not to send me back to the house of Jonathan to die there.'"

<sup>27</sup> When all the officials came to Jeremiah and asked him, he told them everything that the king had instructed him to say. Therefore, they stopped questioning him. For the conversation had not been overheard.

<sup>28</sup> Jeremiah remained in the courtyard of the guard until the day when Jerusalem was captured. He was still there when Jerusalem was captured.

The capture of Jerusalem — 2 Kings 25:1-12, 2 Chronicles 36:19-2, Jeremiah 52:4-16

behind in the land of Judah some of the poor people who owned nothing at all. At that time he also gave them vineyards and fields.

The release of Jeremiah

The reward to Ebed-Melech

<sup>15</sup> The Word of the LORD had come to Jeremiah while he was confined in the courtyard of the guard: <sup>16</sup> “Go and tell Ebed-Melech, the Cushite, ‘This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: “Look! I shall fulfil My Words against this city for harm and not for good, and they will be fulfilled before +++ +on that day. <sup>17</sup> However, I shall deliver you on that day,” declares the LORD, “and you will not be handed over to the men whom you fear. <sup>18</sup> For I shall certainly rescue you. You will not fall by the sword but will salvage your life like plunder taken in war. For you have trusted Me,” declares the LORD.’”

40

The release of Jeremiah from custody — 2 Kings 25:22-26

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD after Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had released him at Ramah after he had taken him, bound in chains, along with all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were being deported to Babylon. <sup>2</sup> When the captain of the guard had taken charge of Jeremiah, he told him: “The LORD, your God, had pronounced this calamity against this place. <sup>3</sup> The LORD has brought it about and has carried out what He had said. This has happened to you people because you have been sinning against the LORD and have not been listening to His voice. <sup>4</sup> Now therefore, Look! I have released you today from your handcuffs. If you would like to come with me to Babylon, come, and I shall look after you. However, if you think it is wrong for you to come with me to Babylon, decline! Look! The whole land is open to you. Go wherever you think it is good and right to go!”

Jeremiah's stay with Governor Gedaliah — 2 Kings 25:22-24

<sup>5</sup> While Jeremiah had still not yet gone back, he said: “Then go back to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has installed as the governor over the cities of Judah. Live among the people with him! Or go wherever you think it is right to go!”

The captain of the guard also gave him an allowance of food and a gift and released him. <sup>6</sup> Then Jeremiah went to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, at Mizpah and lived with him among the people who had been left in the land.

A warning to Gedaliah about a danger of assassination

<sup>7</sup> All the captains of the forces in the open country and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, over the land and had put him in charge of some of the poorest men, women and children in the land, those who had not been deported to Babylon. <sup>8</sup> They went to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They were Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, Johanan and Jonathan, the sons of Kareah, Seraiah, the son of Tanhumeth, the sons of Ephai, the Netophathite, Jezaniah, the son of a man from Maacah, together with their men. <sup>9</sup> Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, swore an oath to them and their men. He said: “Do not be afraid to serve the Chaldeans! Live in the land, serve the king of Babylon, and you will be successful! <sup>10</sup> Look! I myself shall live at Mizpah, to represent you before the Chaldeans who come to us. You yourselves should gather wine, summer fruit and olive-oil, store them in your containers and live in your cities, which you have occupied.”

<sup>11</sup> Similarly, all the Jews who were in Moab, among the Ammonites, in Edom and in all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left a few survivors from Judah and had put Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, in charge of them. <sup>12</sup> Then all the Jews returned from all the places to which they had been driven and came to Gedaliah at Mizpah in the land of Judah. They gathered a large supply of wine and summer fruits. <sup>13</sup> Johanan, the son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces in the open country came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. <sup>14</sup> They asked him: “Do you have certain knowledge that Baalis, the king of the Ammonites, has sent Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, to take your life?”

However, Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, did not believe them. <sup>15</sup> Then Johanan, the son of Kareah, secretly asked Gedaliah at Mizpah: “Please, let me go and strike down Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah! No one will find out. Why should he take your life, so that all the Jews who have gathered around you would be scattered and what is left of Judah would perish?”

<sup>16</sup> However, Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, told Johanan, the son of Kareah: “You shall not do this! For what you are saying about Ishmael is not true.”

41

The assassination of Gedaliah by Ishmael — 2 Kings 25:25-26

him got up, struck down Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, with the sword and killed him. They killed the man whom the king of Babylon had put in charge of the land. <sup>3</sup> Ishmael also struck down all the Jews who were with Gedaliah at Mizpah, as well as the Chaldean soldiers who happened to be there. <sup>4</sup> On the day after the murder of Gedaliah, before anyone knew about it, <sup>5</sup> eighty men arrived from Shechem, Shiloh and Samaria. Their beards had been shaved off, their clothes were torn, and they had made cuts on their bodies. They were bringing grain-offerings and frankincense to present at the house of the LORD. <sup>6</sup> Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, came out from Mizpah to meet them, weeping as he walked along. When he met them, he told them, "Come in to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam."

<sup>7</sup> When they had come into the middle of the city, Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah and the men who were with him slaughtered them and threw them inside the cistern. <sup>8</sup> However, there happened to be ten men among them who told Ishmael: "Do not put us to death! For we have hidden reserves of wheat, barley, olive-oil and honey in the open country."

So, he let them alone and did not kill them with their companions. <sup>9</sup> The cistern into which Ishmael had thrown all the bodies of the men whom he had struck down along with Gedaliah was the same cistern that King Asa had made as a defence against Baasha, the king of Israel. Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, filled it with the dead bodies. <sup>10</sup> Then Ishmael took captive all the rest of the people who were in Mizpah, the king's daughters and all the other people who were left at Mizpah, over whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had appointed Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam. After Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, had taken them captive, he set out to go across to the Ammonites.

<sup>11</sup> However, when Johanan, the son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him heard about all the crimes that Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, had committed, <sup>12</sup> they took all their men and went to fight against Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah. They caught up with him at the large pool at Gibeon. <sup>13</sup> When all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan, the son of Kareah and all the leaders of the forces with him, they were glad. <sup>14</sup> Then all the people whom Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned around and went back to Johanan, the son of Kareah.

<sup>15</sup> However, Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, escaped from Johanan with eight men and went to the Ammonites. <sup>16</sup> Then Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the leaders of the forces with him took away from Mizpah all the rest of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, after Ishmael had struck down Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam. Johanan had brought back from Gibeon men, soldiers, women, children and court-officials. <sup>17</sup> Then they went and stayed at Geruth-Chimham, near Bethlehem, intending to go on to Egypt, <sup>18</sup> because of the Chaldeans. For they were afraid of them, because Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, had struck down Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon had put in charge of the land.

42

The warning from Jeremiah to the survivors against migrating to Egypt

<sup>1</sup> Then all the commanders of the forces, Johanan, the son of Kareah, Jezaniah, the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people, from the least to the greatest, approached <sup>2</sup> the prophet Jeremiah and asked him: "Please grant our request! Pray to the LORD, your God, for us, for all who are left here! For only a few of us out of many people have been left, as you can see for yourself.

<sup>3</sup> Pray that the LORD, your God, may tell us where we should go and what we should do."

<sup>4</sup> The prophet Jeremiah told them: "I have heard you. Look! I shall intercede to the LORD, your God, as you have requested, and tell you every word that the LORD replies to you. I shall not keep anything back from you."

<sup>5</sup> Then they told Jeremiah: "May the LORD be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not do exactly as the LORD, your God, commissions you to tell us!

<sup>6</sup> We ourselves shall listen to the voice of the LORD, our God, to whom we are sending you, whether it is good or bad, that we may be successful. We shall certainly listen to the voice of the LORD, our God."

<sup>7</sup> After ten days the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. <sup>8</sup> Then he summoned Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the commanders of the forces who were with him and all the people, from the least to the greatest. <sup>9</sup> Jeremiah told them: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your plea before Him, has said: <sup>10</sup> 'If you really do remain in this land, I shall build you up and not demolish you. I shall plant you and not uproot you. For I regret the calamity that I have brought on you.

<sup>11</sup> Do not fear the king of Babylon, of whom you are now afraid! Do not fear him!' declares the LORD. 'For I am with you, to save you and to deliver you from his hands. <sup>12</sup> I shall have compassion on you, that he may have compassion on you and restore you to your own land. <sup>13</sup> However, if you say, "We shall not remain in this land," so that you do not listen to the voice of the LORD, your God, <sup>14</sup> and, if you say, "No! Rather, we shall go to Egypt, where we shall not see war, hear the sound of the trumpet or hunger for food and shall remain there," <sup>15</sup> then listen to the Word of the LORD, remnant of Judah! This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: "If you are determined to enter Egypt and to go to live there as foreigners, <sup>16</sup> then the sword that you fear will catch up with you there in Egypt. The famine about which you are worried will follow you closely to Egypt, and you will die there. <sup>17</sup> Then all the men who have been determined to go to Egypt to live there as foreigners will die by the sword, by famine and by the plague. None of them will escape or survive from the calamity that I shall bring upon them.”<sup>18</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: ‘As My anger and My wrath have been poured out on those who were living in Jerusalem, so My wrath will be poured out on you when you go to Egypt. You will become a curse and a horrific example. People will use your names in curse-formulas and insults. You will never see this place again.’

<sup>19</sup> “The LORD has told you, remnant of Judah, ‘Do not go to Egypt!’ Know for certain that I have warned you today. <sup>20</sup> For you imperilled your own lives when you yourselves sent me to the LORD, your God and said, ‘Pray to the LORD, our God, for us! Tell us exactly what the LORD, our God, says, and we shall do it!’ <sup>21</sup> I have told you today, but you have not been listening to the voice of the LORD, your God or to anything that He has been sending me to tell you. <sup>22</sup> Now therefore, know for certain that you will die by the sword, by famine and by the plague in the place where you desire to go to live as foreigners.”

43

The forced departure of Jeremiah to Egypt and his warning of judgment

<sup>1</sup> When Jeremiah had finished telling all the people all these Words of the LORD, their God, with which the LORD, their God, had sent him to them, <sup>2</sup> Azariah, the son of Hoshaiiah, Johanan, the son of Kareah and all the insolent men kept telling Jeremiah: “You are telling a lie. The LORD, our God, did not send you to say, ‘You shall not go to Egypt to live there as foreigners!’” <sup>3</sup> Rather, Baruch, the son of Neriah is inciting you against us, that he may hand us over to the Chaldeans, that they may kill us or take us into exile in Babylon.”

<sup>4</sup> So, Johanan, the son of Kareah, all the commanders of the forces and all the people did not listen to the voice of the LORD, which told them to remain in the land of Judah. <sup>5</sup> Instead, Johanan, the son of Kareah, and all the commanders of the forces took all who were left of Judah with them. These were all the people who had returned from all the nations to which they had been driven to live as dependants in the land of Judah. <sup>6</sup> They took the men, the women, the children, the princesses and every other person whom Nebuzaradan, the captain of the guard, had left with Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. They also took the prophet Jeremiah and Baruch, the son of Neriah. <sup>7</sup> They went into Egypt, because they had not listened to the voice of the LORD and arrived at Tahpanhes.

A prophecy that Nebuchadnezzar will invade Egypt

<sup>8</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes: <sup>9</sup> “Take in your hands some large stones and bury them in the mortar in the quadrangle that is at the entrance of Pharaoh’s palace in Tahpanhes, while the men of Judah are watching you! <sup>10</sup> Tell them, ‘This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: “Look! I shall send to get My servant Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. I shall set his throne on top of these stones, which I have buried, and he will spread his royal canopy over them. <sup>11</sup> He will come and defeat Egypt. He will bring death to those who are going to die. He will capture those who are going to be captured. He will strike with the sword those who are going to be struck with the sword. <sup>12</sup> I shall kindle a fire in the temples of the gods of Egypt. He will burn down the temples and take their gods away as captives. He will rid Egypt of vermin as a shepherd rids his coat of vermin and then leave from there unscathed. <sup>13</sup> He will smash to pieces the obelisks of Heliopolis in Egypt and burn down the temples of the gods of Egypt.”’”

44

A prediction that the Jews in Egypt will be punished for their persistent idolatry

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word that came to Jeremiah about all the Jews who were living in Egypt, at Migdol, at Tahpanhes, at Memphis and in the land of Pathros: <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, said: “You have seen the whole calamity that I have brought against Jerusalem and all the other cities of Judah. Look! Today they are ruins where no one lives. <sup>3</sup> The reason is the wickedness that they have committed. They provoked Me to anger by going to burn offerings in the service of other gods, which neither they, nor you, nor your fathers knew. <sup>4</sup> Yet I had been persistently sending to you all My servants, the prophets, to say: ‘Please do not do this detestable thing, which I hate!’ <sup>5</sup> Nevertheless, they would not listen or pay any attention. They would not turn away from their wickedness and stop burning offerings to other gods. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, My wrath and My anger have gushed out and blazed up in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. They have become the desolate ruin that they are today.”

<sup>7</sup> “Now therefore, this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has asked: ‘Why are you causing a great calamity against yourselves, so that you are cutting off from yourselves men, women, infants and babies, out of Judah, so that you are not leaving yourselves any remnant? <sup>8</sup> Why are you provoking Me to anger with what your own hands are doing, burning offerings to other gods in Egypt, where you are coming to live as foreigners, that you may prepare yourselves for extermination and become words used in cursing and a method of casting insults among all the nations of the earth? <sup>9</sup> Have you forgotten the wicked deeds of your fathers, the wicked deeds of the kings of Judah, the wicked deeds of their wives, your own wicked deeds and the wicked deeds of your own wives, which they have been committing in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>10</sup> They have not been contrite even to this day. They have had no fear and have not been putting into practice My Law and My statutes, which I have set before you and your fathers.’

<sup>11</sup> “Therefore, this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: ‘Look! I am determined to bring calamity against you and to exterminate all of Judah. <sup>12</sup> I shall take away the rest of the Jews, who have been determined to come to Egypt to live as foreigners here. They will all meet their end. They will fall in Egypt by the sword. They will come to an end through famine. From the least to the greatest they will die by the sword and by famine. They will become an object of cursing, something horrifying, an expression used to curse and a formula to cast an insult. <sup>13</sup> I shall punish those who are living in Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, with the sword, famine and the plague. <sup>14</sup> None of the remnant of Judah who are coming here to live as foreigners in Egypt will have any survivor or escapee. They will not return to the land of Judah, where they are longing to go back to live. For they will not return, except for a few fugitives.”

<sup>15</sup> Then all the men who knew that their wives were burning offerings to other gods and all the women who were standing there, a great assembly and all the people who were living at Pathros in Egypt, answered Jeremiah: <sup>16</sup> “As for the Word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we are not listening to you. <sup>17</sup> Rather, we shall do everything that we ourselves have said we shall do. We shall burn offerings to the queen of heaven and pour out drink-offerings to her, as we have been doing, we, our fathers, our kings and our officials, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. We had plenty of food then, we were well off and did not see any calamity. <sup>18</sup> However, since we ceased burning offerings to the queen of heaven and pouring out drink-offerings to her, we have lacked everything and have been destroyed by the sword and by famine.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Jeremiah asked all the people, the men, the women and all the other people who were giving him this reply: <sup>21</sup> “Has the LORD not remembered the sacrificial smoke that you sent up in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, you, your fathers, your kings, your officials and the people of the land? Has it not come into His mind? <sup>22</sup> The LORD could no longer endure your wicked deeds and the detestable practices that that you had been committing. That is why your land has become a ruin, a horrific sight and something people mention when they curse, with no one living there, as is so today. <sup>23</sup> It is because you have been burning such offerings and because you have been sinning against the LORD, have not been listening to the voice of the LORD and have not been living according to His Law, His statutes and His Testimonies that this calamity has happened to you, as is so today.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Jeremiah told all the people, including all the women: “Listen to the Word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who are in Egypt! <sup>25</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: ‘You and your wives have declared it with your own mouths and have substantiated it by your own actions, when you say: “We shall certainly carry out our vows, which we have made, to burn offerings to the queen of heaven and to pour out drink-offerings to her.” You will certainly confirm your vows and perform your vows!”’

<sup>26</sup> “Therefore, listen to the Word of the LORD, all you people of Judah who are living in Egypt! ‘Look! I have sworn by My great name,’ the LORD has said, ‘that no one from Judah who lives anywhere in Egypt will ever again use his mouth to call on My name to take the oath, “As surely as the Lord GOD lives.”’

<sup>27</sup> Look! I am going to keep watch over them for calamity and not for good. All the people of Judah who are in Egypt will be destroyed by the sword and by famine, until they are all gone. <sup>28</sup> Those who escape the sword and return from Egypt to Judah will be very few. All the survivors of Judah, who have come to Egypt to live here as foreigners, will know whose word will stand, Mine or theirs. <sup>29</sup> This will be the sign to you,’ declares the LORD, ‘that I shall punish you in this place, that you may know that My threats to bring calamity against you will certainly come true.’ <sup>30</sup> This is what the LORD has said: ‘Look! I shall hand Pharaoh Hophra, the king of Egypt over to his enemies and to those who want to kill him, as I have handed Zedekiah, the king of Judah, over to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, who was his enemy and who wanted to kill him.”’

A message of comfort from God to the scribe Baruch

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word that the prophet Jeremiah spoke to Baruch, the son of Neriah, when he had written these Words on a scroll while Jeremiah was dictating, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah: <sup>2</sup> “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said about you, Baruch: <sup>3</sup> ‘You have been saying: “How terrible for me! For the LORD has added sorrow to my pain. I have become weary because of my groaning. I have not found any rest.” <sup>4</sup> This is what you must tell him: “This is what the LORD has said: ‘Look! I am demolishing what I have built. I am uprooting what I have planted, that is, the whole land. <sup>5</sup> Are you yourself looking for great things for yourself? Do not look for them! For look! I am bringing calamity upon all human beings,' declares the LORD. 'However, I shall grant you your life like plunder taken in war wherever you go.'”

46

A prophecy against Egypt

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word of the LORD that came to the prophet Jeremiah about the nations. <sup>2</sup> This is about Egypt, about the army of Pharaoh-Neco, the king of Egypt, which was beside the river Euphrates at Carchemish and which Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, defeated in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah: <sup>3</sup> “Prepare the small shields and the large shields and advance into the battle! <sup>4</sup> Harness the horses! Mount, horsemen! Take your positions with your helmets on! Polish your lances! Put on your coats of mail! <sup>5</sup> Why have I seen it? They will be filled with terror and will turn back. Their warriors will be scattered and flee in haste. They will not turn around. There will be terror on every side,' declares the LORD. <sup>6</sup> 'Let the speedy man not get away! Let the warrior not escape! In the north, beside the river Euphrates, they will stumble and fall.' <sup>7</sup> “Who is this who is rising like the Nile, like streams with their water surging? <sup>8</sup> Egypt is rising like the Nile, like streams with water that is surging. He has said, 'Let me rise! Let me cover the earth! Let me destroy cities and those who are living in them!' <sup>9</sup> Rear up, horses, and drive madly, chariots! Let the warriors go out, the men of Cush and Put, who handle shields and the men of Lud, who are skilled in handling and bending bows! <sup>10</sup> However, that day will belong to the Lord GOD of hosts. It will be a day of vengeance, when He takes revenge on His enemies. The sword will devour until it is satisfied and has drunk its fill of their blood.'

“For the Lord GOD of hosts will conduct a sacrifice in the North-Country beside the Euphrates River. <sup>11</sup> Go up to Gilead and get balsam, virgin daughter, Egypt! You have been using many medicines without results. There is no healing for you. <sup>12</sup> The nations will hear about your shame and the earth will be full of your cry of distress. For one warrior will stumble against another. They will both fall together.”

A prediction that Babylon will strike Egypt

<sup>13</sup> This is the Word that the LORD spoke to the prophet Jeremiah about the coming of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, to defeat Egypt: <sup>14</sup> “Declare this in Egypt! Proclaim this in Migdol! Proclaim this in Memphis and Tahpanhes! Say, 'Take your position and be prepared! For the sword will devour around you.'

<sup>15</sup> “Why will your powerful men be laid low? They will not remain standing because the LORD will thrust them away. <sup>16</sup> He will make many men stumble, and they will also fall. They will tell one another, 'Get up! Let us go back to our own people and to the land where we were born, to get away from the violent swords!' <sup>17</sup> People will exclaim there: 'Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is only a loud noise. He has missed his opportune time.'

<sup>18</sup> “As surely as I live,” declares the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts, “someone who is like Tabor among the mountains and who is like Carmel beside the sea will come. <sup>19</sup> Prepare your baggage for exile, resident daughter, Egypt! For Memphis will become a wasteland. It will be laid waste and no one will live there.

<sup>20</sup> “Egypt is a very handsome heifer, but a stinging fly is coming. It is coming from the north. <sup>21</sup> Even her mercenaries are like fattened steers in her ranks. Yes, even they will turn away and flee together. They will not take their stand. For the day of their calamity, the time for them to be punished, will come on them.

<sup>22</sup> “She is making a sound like a snake moving away. For her enemies are coming with an army. They will come against her with axes like men who cut firewood. <sup>23</sup> They will cut down her forest,” declares the LORD, “even though it is dense. For they are more numerous than locusts. They cannot be counted.

<sup>24</sup> Daughter Egypt will be ashamed. She will be handed over to a people from the north.

<sup>25</sup> “The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: 'Look! I shall punish Amon of Thebes. I shall also punish Pharaoh, Egypt, her gods and her kings, yes, Pharaoh and those who trust in him. <sup>26</sup> I shall hand them over to those who want to kill them, to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon and his officers. However, after that it will be inhabited as it was in the days of old,' declares the LORD.

A promise that God will save Israel

<sup>27</sup> “However, you yourself should not be afraid, My servant Jacob! Do not be dismayed, Israel! For look! I shall save you from far away and your descendants from the land where they are exiles. Jacob will return, be at peace and be at ease and no one will make him afraid. <sup>28</sup> You yourself should not be afraid, My servant, Jacob!” declares the LORD. “For I am with you. For I shall completely destroy all the nations to which I have driven you. Nevertheless, I shall not completely destroy you. I shall be just when I discipline you but shall certainly not declare you free from blame.”

A prophecy against Philistia

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word of the LORD, which came to the prophet Jeremiah about the Philistines, before Pharaoh had defeated Gaza. <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD said: “Look! Water is rising out of the north and will become an overflowing river. It will flow over the land and everything in it, the city and those who are living in it. Human beings will cry out and everyone who lives in the land will wail, <sup>3</sup> because of the stamping sound of the hoofs of their stallions, the rattling of their chariots and the clatter of their wheels. Fathers will not turn back to help their children, because their hands will hang limp, <sup>4</sup> because of the day that is coming to lay waste all the Philistines and to exterminate every remaining ally from Tyre and Sidon. For the LORD is going to destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the island of Crete. <sup>5</sup> Gaza will shave its head in mourning. Ashkelon will be silenced. You people who are left on their flat land, how long will you gash yourselves? <sup>6</sup> You cry out: ‘How horrible, you sword of the LORD! How long will you refuse to be quiet? Return to your scabbard! Rest there and be still!’ <sup>7</sup> How can it be quiet when the LORD has given it a Command? He has summoned it against Ashkelon and against the seacoast.”

48

A prophecy against Moab

<sup>1</sup> About Moab. This is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: “How terrible for Nebo!” For it will be devastated! Kiriathaim will be ashamed. It will be captured. The stronghold will be put to shame and shattered. <sup>2</sup> The glory of Moab will be no more. People will plan calamity against it in Heshbon: “Come! Let us exterminate it, that it may not be a nation any longer!” You also, Madmen, will be silenced. The sword will pursue you.

<sup>10</sup> Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD sluggishly! Cursed also is he who keeps his sword back from shedding blood!

<sup>11</sup> Moab has been at ease since it was young. It has settled calmly on its dregs. It has not been poured from one vessel to another. It has not gone into exile. That is why its taste has remained uniform and its aroma has not changed.

<sup>12</sup> “Therefore, look! The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I shall send cellar-men to it who will tilt it, empty out its vessels and smash its jars.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Moab will be ashamed of Chemosh, as the family of Israel was ashamed that they had been trusting in Bethel.

<sup>14</sup> How can you say, “We are heroes and mighty warriors”? <sup>15</sup> “Moab will be devastated, the enemy will attack its cities and its finest young men will go down to be slaughtered,” declares the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts. <sup>16</sup> The catastrophe of Moab is imminent and its calamity is approaching very swiftly. <sup>17</sup> Mourn over it, all you who are its neighbours! All you who know its name should say, “How the strong sceptre, the glorious staff, has been broken!”

<sup>18</sup> Daughter Dibon, come down from your place of honour and sit on the parched ground! For the destroyer of Moab will come up against you. He will destroy your fortifications. <sup>19</sup> You who live in Aroer, stand beside the road and watch! Ask the man who is fleeing and the woman who is running for safety, “What has happened?” <sup>20</sup> Moab is in disgrace. For it is dismayed. Howl and cry! Tell the news beside the Arnon, that Moab has been laid waste! <sup>21</sup> Judgment has come to the plateau, to Holon, Jahzah, Mephaath, <sup>22</sup> Dibon, Nebo, Beth-Diblathaim, <sup>23</sup> Kiriathaim, Beth-Gamul, Beth-Meon, <sup>24</sup> Kerioth, Bozrah and all the other cities of Moab, far and near.

<sup>25</sup> “The horn of Moab will be cut off and its arm will be broken,” declares the LORD. <sup>26</sup> Make Moab drunk! For it has exalted itself against the LORD, so that Moab will wallow in its own vomit and become a laughingstock. <sup>27</sup> Had you not treated Israel as a laughingstock? Had it been caught in the act among thieves, that whenever you spoke about it you shook your head?

<sup>28</sup> You people who are living in Moab, abandon the cities and live among the rocks! Be like the dove that makes its nest on the side of the mouth of a cave!

<sup>29</sup> We have heard about the pride of Moab. It is very proud. We have heard about its loftiness, its insolence, its arrogance and its haughtiness.

<sup>30</sup> “I Myself know its arrogance,” declares the LORD, but there is no reason for its arrogance. It has not been doing as it has been boasting. <sup>31</sup> That is why I wail over Moab. I cry out for all Moab. There is moaning for the men of Kir-Hareseth. <sup>32</sup> I shall weep for you more than for Jazer, vine of Sibmah! Your branches spread to the sea. They have reached as far as the Sea of Jazer. The plunderers will strike your summer fruits and fall on your grape-harvest. <sup>33</sup> Gladness and joy will vanish from the orchards and fields of Moab. “I shall stop the flow of wine from the winepresses.” No one will tread them with joyful shouting. The shouting will not be joyful shouting. <sup>34</sup> People will raise their voices from where they cry in distress at Heshbon as far as Elealeh and as far as Jahaz and from Zoar to Horonaim and Eglath-Shelishiyah. Indeed, the water of Nimrim will also become a wasteland.

<sup>35</sup> “I shall bring an end,” declares the LORD, “to anyone in Moab who presents a sacrifice on a high place and burns an offering to his god.” <sup>36</sup> That is why my heart moans for Moab like a flute. My heart moans like a flute for the men of Kir-Hareseth. That is why the wealth that they have gained has been lost. <sup>37</sup> For every head has a shaved patch and every beard has been trimmed. That is why there are incisions on all hands and there is sackcloth on their waists.

<sup>38</sup> “There will be mourning everywhere on all the flat roofs of Moab and in the public squares because I have shattered Moab like a jar that no one wants,” declares the LORD. <sup>39</sup> They will wail, “How Moab has been shattered! How it has turned its back in disgrace!” Moab will become a laughingstock and an object of horror to all its neighbours.

<sup>40</sup> For this is what the LORD has said: “Look! Someone will swoop down like an eagle and spread out his wings against Moab.” <sup>41</sup> The cities will be captured and the strongholds will be conquered. On that day the hearts of Moab’s warriors will be like the heart of a woman in labour. <sup>42</sup> Moab will be destroyed and no longer be a people. For it has magnified itself against the LORD. <sup>43</sup> “Terror, a trapping-pit and a trapping-net are awaiting you, you who live in Moab!” declares the LORD. <sup>44</sup> He who flees from the terror will fall into the trapping-pit, and he who climbs out of the trapping-pit will be caught in the trapping-net. “For I shall bring on Moab the year when it will be punished,” declares the LORD.

<sup>45</sup> People who are fleeing will stand exhausted in the shadow of Heshbon. For a fire will come out of Heshbon and a flame from inside Sihon. It will devour the foreheads of the people of Moab and the skulls of those noisy people. <sup>46</sup> How terrible for you, Moab! The people of Chemosh will be destroyed. For your sons will be taken into exile and your daughters into captivity.

The judgment against Moab ends here.

49

A prophecy against the Ammonites — Obadiah 1-5

<sup>1</sup> About the Ammonites. This is what the LORD has asked: “Has Israel no sons? Has he no heirs?” Why, then, has Milcom dispossessed Gad? Why have his people settled in the cities of Gad? <sup>2</sup> “Therefore, look! The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I shall sound the alarm of battle against Rabbah of the Ammonites.” It will become a desolate heap of rubble. Its villages will be burnt down. “Then Israel will dispossess those who had dispossessed it,” the LORD has said. <sup>3</sup> Wail, Heshbon, because Ai has been devastated! Cry out, daughters of Rabbah! Put on sackcloth and mourn! Run back and forth between the walls! For Milcom will be taken away into exile, together with his priests and his officials. <sup>4</sup> Why do you boast about your valleys, your overflowing valley, faithless daughter? She used to trust in her treasures. She asked, “Who will attack me?” <sup>5</sup> “Look! I shall bring terror against you,” declares the Lord GOD of hosts, “from all who are around you.” You people will be driven out, each one individually. No one will gather those who are fleeing. <sup>6</sup> “However, after that I shall bring back the captives of the Ammonites,” declares the LORD.

A prophecy against Edom

<sup>7</sup> Concerning Edom. This is what the LORD of hosts has asked: “Is there no longer any wisdom in Teman? Have prudent people lost their advice? Has their wisdom become rotten? <sup>8</sup> Flee, turn away and live in deep places, inhabitants of Dedan! For when I punish Esau I shall bring calamity on him. <sup>9</sup> If grape-pickers were to come to you, would they not leave some gleanings behind? If thieves came at night, they would pillage only what is enough for them. <sup>10</sup> However, I Myself shall strip Esau bare. I shall uncover their hiding places. They will not be able to hide. Their children, fellow-countrymen and neighbouring people will be destroyed and will not exist any longer. <sup>11</sup> Abandon your orphans! I Myself shall keep them alive. Your widows should trust in Me!”

<sup>12</sup> For this is what the LORD has said: “Look! If those who have not been condemned to drink the cup must drink it, will you yourself remain quite blameless? You will not remain blameless. Rather, you shall certainly drink it! <sup>13</sup> For I have sworn by myself,” declares the LORD, “that Bozrah will become a horrible and disgraceful wasteland and an expression used to curse. All its cities will be permanent ruins.”

<sup>14</sup> I have heard a report from the LORD. A messenger has been sent among the nations, to say: “Gather together and attack it! Prepare for battle! <sup>15</sup> For look! I shall make you insignificant among the other nations, despised among other human beings. <sup>16</sup> The horror that you inspire and your own proud heart have deceived you, although you are living in the crevices of the cliffs and are occupying the highest places on the hills. Although you make your nest as high up as the eagle’s, I shall bring you down from there,” declares the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> Edom will become something horrible. Everyone who goes past it will be appalled and hiss because of all its plagues. <sup>18</sup> “As Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbouring towns were overthrown,” the LORD has said, “no one will live there.” No human being will live there as a foreigner. <sup>19</sup> “Look! As a lion comes up from the thicket beside the Jordan into a pastureland beside a permanent stream, I shall hurriedly chase Edom away from its place. I shall appoint whomever I choose over it. For who is like Me? Who can challenge Me? What shepherd is there who can take his stand against Me? <sup>20</sup> Therefore, listen to the plan that the LORD has made against Edom and to His purposes, which He has formed against those who live in Teman! People will certainly drag away even the little ones of the flock. He will certainly make their pastureland desolate because of them. <sup>21</sup> The earth will quake at the sound of their downfall. The sound of their cry of distress will be heard at the Red Sea.

<sup>22</sup> Look! Someone will mount up like an eagle, swoop down and spread out his wings against Bozrah. On that day the hearts of the warriors of Edom will be like the heart of a woman in labour.

A prophecy against Damascus

<sup>23</sup> About Damascus: Hamath and Arpad will become ashamed. For they will hear bad news. They will undulate back and forth in fear. There will be anxiety on the sea. It will be unable to become calm.

<sup>24</sup> Damascus will become feeble. It will turn to flee and terror will grip it. Anguish and pains will take hold of it, like a woman in labour.

<sup>25</sup> “How is it that the famous city, the town in which I delight, has not been abandoned?” <sup>26</sup> That is why its young men will fall in its public squares and all its soldiers will be destroyed on that day,” declares the LORD of hosts.

<sup>27</sup> “I shall set fire to the walls of Damascus, and it will burn down the fortified palaces of Ben-Hadad.”

A prophecy against Kedar and Hazor

<sup>28</sup> About Kedar and the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, will strike down. This is what the LORD has said: “Get ready! Attack Kedar!” Plunder the people of the east!

<sup>29</sup> Their tents and their flocks will be taken. Their tent-curtains, all their equipment and their camels will be taken away from them. People will shout to them: “Terror is all around!”

<sup>30</sup> “Flee! Go far away from home! Live in deep places, you who are living in Hazor!” declares the LORD. For Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, will make a decision against you. He will devise a plan against you. <sup>31</sup> Get ready! “Attack a nation that is at ease and is living in security!” declares the LORD. It has no gates or bars. It lives alone. <sup>32</sup> Their camels will be taken as plunder and their numerous herds as spoil. “I shall scatter to every wind those who clip their hair at the temples. I shall bring their calamity on them from every direction,” declares the LORD. <sup>33</sup> Hazor will become a place where only jackals live, a permanent wasteland. No one will live there. No human being will live in it as a foreigner.

A prophecy against Elam

captives of Elam back,” declares the LORD.

50

A prophecy against Babylon

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word that the LORD spoke about Babylon, about the land of the Chaldeans, through the prophet Jeremiah: <sup>2</sup> “Announce this among the nations and proclaim it! Set up a banner and proclaim it! Do not conceal it! Say: ‘Babylon will be captured. Bel will be ashamed. Merodach will be filled with terror. Her images will be ashamed. Her idols will be shattered.’” <sup>3</sup> For a nation will attack her from the north. She will lay her land waste, so that no one will live in her. Both human beings and animals will flee away and be gone.’

<sup>4</sup> “In those days and in that time,” declares the LORD, “the people of Israel together with the people of Judah will come. They will weep as they come and turn to the LORD, their God. <sup>5</sup> They will ask for the road to Zion and turn their faces in this direction. They will say, ‘Come!’ and then join themselves to the LORD in an everlasting Covenant, which will not be forgotten.”

<sup>6</sup> My people have become lost sheep. Their shepherds have been misleading them. They have been leading them astray on the mountains. They have been going from mountain to hill. They have forgotten their resting-place. <sup>7</sup> All who have been finding them have been devouring them. Their enemies have been saying: “We are not to blame!” For they have been sinning against the LORD, their righteous Pasture, the LORD, the Hope of their fathers.

<sup>8</sup> “Flee out of Babylon! Go out of the land of the Chaldeans! Be like the male goats, which lead the flock! <sup>9</sup> For look! I am going to stir up and bring an assembly of great nations against Babylon from the North-Country. They will take up their positions against her. Babylon will be captured from the north. Their arrows will be like those of a warrior who causes bereavement and who does not come back empty-handed. <sup>10</sup> Chaldea will be plundered. All who plunder her will get everything they want,” declares the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> “Although you are glad, although you are jubilant, you who plundered My inheritance, although you frisk about like a heifer that is threshing grain and neigh like stallions, <sup>12</sup> your mother will be very ashamed. She who gave you birth will feel disgrace.”

Look! She will be the least important of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land and a desert. <sup>13</sup> Because of the anger of the LORD she will not be inhabited. She will be completely desolate. Everyone who goes past Babylon will be appalled and whistle because of all her plagues. <sup>14</sup> Take up your positions against Babylon on every side! All you who bend the bow, shoot at her! Do not save your arrows! For she has been sinning against the LORD. <sup>15</sup> Shout a war-cry against her on every side! She will surrender. Her towers will fall. Her walls will be demolished. For this is the vengeance of the LORD. Take revenge on her! Do to her what she has been doing to others! <sup>16</sup> Cut off from Babylon the one who sows seed and the one who handles the sickle at harvest time! Because of the sword of the oppressor, everyone will go back to his own people and flee to his own homeland.

<sup>17</sup> Israel is a scattered sheep that lions have driven away. First the king of Assyria devoured it and most recently Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, has been gnawing its bones. <sup>18</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: “Look! I am going to punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I punished the king of Assyria. <sup>19</sup> I shall bring Israel back to its pastureland. It will graze on Carmel and in Bashan. It will satisfy its appetite on the hill-country of Ephraim and Gilead. <sup>20</sup> In those days and in that time,” declares the LORD, “people will look for Israel’s guilt, but there will be none. They will look for the sin of Judah, but none will be found. For I shall pardon those whom I allow to survive.”

You will be discovered and also be caught, because you have been opposing the LORD. <sup>25</sup> The LORD has opened his arsenal and brought out His weapons of wrath. For the Lord GOD of hosts has work to do in the land of the Chaldeans. <sup>26</sup> Attack her from every quarter! Open her granaries! Pile her up like heaps of grain! Devote her to destruction! Let no remnant of her survive! <sup>27</sup> Kill all her bulls! Let them go down to be slaughtered! How terrible for them! For their day has come. It is the time when they will be punished. <sup>28</sup> Listen! Refugees and fugitives are coming from the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the retribution of the LORD, our God, the retribution for His Temple. <sup>29</sup> Summon archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow! Encamp against her on every side! Let there be no escape! Pay her back for what she has done! Do to her exactly as she has done! For she has proudly defied the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>30</sup> “That is why her young men will fall in her public-squares and all her soldiers will be silenced on that day,” declares the LORD. <sup>31</sup> “Look! I am against you, arrogant city,” declares the Lord GOD of hosts. “Indeed, your day has come. It is the time when I shall punish you. <sup>32</sup> The proud city will stumble and fall, and no one will help her to get up. I shall light a fire in her cities, and it will devour everything that is around her.”

A proclamation that God is the Redeemer of Israel

<sup>33</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “The people of Israel have been oppressed and the people of Judah together with them.”

All who have taken them captive have been holding them tightly and refusing to release them. <sup>34</sup> Their Redeemer is strong. His name is the LORD of hosts. He will certainly plead their cause, that he may bring peace to the land but unrest to the people who are living in Babylon.

<sup>35</sup> “A sword will come against the Chaldeans,” declares the LORD, “against those who are living in Babylon and against her officials and her wise men.

<sup>36</sup> A sword will come against the oracle-priests, and they will become foolish. A sword will come against her soldiers, and they will be shattered. <sup>37</sup> A sword will come against her horses, against her chariots and against all the foreigners in her ranks. They will become women. A sword will come against all her treasures, and they will be plundered. <sup>38</sup> A drought will come against her water, and it will dry up. For Babylonia is a land of images.”

They will act like madmen because of the frightful images. <sup>39</sup> Therefore, desert-animals will live there with jackals. Ostriches will live in her. People will never live there any longer. People will not settle there throughout all generations.

<sup>40</sup> “As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and their neighbouring towns,” declares the LORD, “no one will live there. No human being will live in her as a foreigner.”

<sup>41</sup> Look! A people will come from the north. A great nation and many kings are being woken up from the farthest parts of the earth. <sup>42</sup> They will take hold of bows and spears. They will be cruel and show no compassion. They will sound like the sea when it roars. They will ride on horses. They will be in formation, as men ready for war against you, daughter of Babylon! <sup>43</sup> When the king of Babylon hears the report about them, his hands will hang limp. Anguish will grip him and pain like that of a woman in labour.

<sup>44</sup> “Look! As a lion comes up from the thicket beside the Jordan into a pastureland beside a permanent stream, I shall hurriedly chase her away from her place. I shall appoint whomever I choose over her. For who is like Me? Who can challenge Me? What shepherd is there who can take his stand against Me?”

<sup>45</sup> Therefore, listen to the plan that the LORD has made against Babylon and the purposes that He has formed against the land of the Chaldeans! People will certainly drag away the little ones of the flock. He will certainly make their pastureland desolate because of them. <sup>46</sup> The earth will tremble at the news that Babylon has been captured. Her cry will be heard among the nations.

51

A prophecy of war against Babylon

up the spirit of a destroyer against Babylon, against the inhabitants of Leb-Kamai. <sup>2</sup> I shall send foreigners to Babylon, and they will scatter her and lay her land waste. For they will attack her from every side on the day of trouble. <sup>3</sup> Let the archer not bend his bow! Let him not stand up in his coat of mail! Do not spare her young men! Completely destroy her whole army!"

<sup>4</sup> They will fall slain in the land of the Chaldeans and wounded in its streets. <sup>5</sup> For Israel and Judah have not been abandoned like a widow by their God, by the LORD of hosts, although their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> Flee out of Babylon! Let everyone save his life! Do not perish because of her guilt! For this is the time for the retribution of the LORD. It is the retaliation by which He is paying her back. <sup>7</sup> Babylon has been a golden cup in the hand of the LORD. She has been making the whole world drunk. The nations have been drinking her wine. That is why the nations have been acting like madmen. <sup>8</sup> Babylon will suddenly fall and be shattered. Wail for her! Get balsam for her pain! Perhaps she can be healed. <sup>9</sup> We would have healed Babylon, but she could not be healed. Abandon her! Let each of us go to his own country! For her condemnation has reached up to heaven. It rises as high as the clouds.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD has revealed our righteousness. Come! Let us make known in Zion what the LORD, our God, has done! <sup>11</sup> Sharpen the arrows! Fill the quivers! The LORD will stir up the minds of the kings of the Medes. For He has planned to destroy Babylon. For this is the retribution of the LORD, His retribution for His Temple. <sup>12</sup> Raise the battle-flag against the walls of Babylon! Post a strong watch! Set up watchmen! Prepare the ambushes! For the LORD has both planned and will carry out what He has said about the people who live in Babylon. <sup>13</sup> You who live beside plentiful water and are rich in treasures, your end, the measuring-point at which you will be cut off, has arrived. <sup>14</sup> The LORD of hosts has sworn by Himself: "I shall certainly fill you with men, as many as locusts. They will raise a shout of victory over you."

<sup>15</sup> It is He who has made the earth by His power, who has established the world by His wisdom and who has stretched out the heavens by His understanding.

<sup>16</sup> When He thunders, the water roars in the sky. He has made the storm clouds rise from the end of the earth. He has made lightning for the rain and brings wind out of His storehouses. <sup>17</sup> Every human being is stupid and ignorant. Every goldsmith has been ashamed of his idol. For their images are false. There is no breath in them. <sup>18</sup> They are worthless works that are mocked. At the time when they are punished, they will be destroyed.<sup>*140</sup> <sup>19</sup> The Portion of Jacob is not like these. For He is the One who has formed all things and Israel is the tribe that He has inherited. His name is the LORD of hosts.

A statement that Babylon is God's weapon

An announcement of the destruction of Babylon

<sup>24</sup> "I shall repay Babylon and all those who live in Chaldea before your very eyes for all the wrong that they have done in Zion," declares the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> "Look! I am against you, destructive mountain," declares the LORD. "You have destroyed the whole earth. I shall stretch out My hand against you, roll you down from the cliffs and make you a burnt-out mountain. <sup>26</sup> People will not take any stone from you as a cornerstone or any stone for a foundation wall. Rather, you will be a permanent ruin," declares the LORD.

<sup>31</sup> One courier will run to meet another and one messenger to meet another, to inform the king of Babylon that his city has been captured from end to end. <sup>32</sup> The river crossings will be seized. The enemy will burn her marsh-reeds and her soldiers will be terrified. <sup>33</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, has said: "The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor when it is trodden down. The time for her harvest will soon come."

Retribution on Babylon

<sup>34</sup> "Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, has devoured me. He has thrown me into confusion. He has made me an empty vessel. He has swallowed me like a dragon. He has filled his stomach with my delicious food. He has rinsed me out," <sup>35</sup> the people who live in Zion are saying. Jerusalem is saying, "May the violence done to me and to my relatives be done to Babylon! May my blood be on those who live in Chaldea!"

<sup>36</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said: “Look! I shall plead your cause and carry out retribution for you. I shall dry up her large river and make her fountain dry. <sup>37</sup> Babylon will become piles of rubble, a haunt of jackals, an object of horror and a place at which people hiss, without any inhabitants. <sup>38</sup> Her people will roar together like lions. They will growl like lions’ cubs. <sup>39</sup> When they become heated I shall arrange a banquet for them and make them drunk, that they may revel. Then they will fall into a permanent sleep and not wake up again,” declares the LORD. <sup>40</sup> “I shall bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams and male goats.”

<sup>46</sup> Beware of being faint-hearted! Do not be afraid of the rumours that are heard in the land, when in one year one rumour comes and in another year another rumour follows, when there is violence in the land and one ruler opposes another!

<sup>47</sup> “Therefore, look! The days are coming when I shall punish the images of Babylon. Her whole land will be ashamed and all of her slain people will lie fallen inside her. <sup>48</sup> Then the heavens, the earth and all that is in them will shout for joy over Babylon. For the destroyers from the north will attack her,” declares the LORD. <sup>49</sup> “Babylon must fall because of the slain people of Israel, just as the slain people of the whole earth have fallen because of Babylon.”

<sup>50</sup> You who have escaped from the sword, go! Do not stand still! Remember the LORD from far away and let Jerusalem come to your mind! <sup>51</sup> We have become ashamed. For we have heard insults. Disgrace has covered our faces. For foreigners have gone into the holy rooms of the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>52</sup> “Therefore, look! The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when I shall punish her images and those who have been wounded will groan everywhere in her land. <sup>53</sup> Even if Babylon were to go up to heaven and even if she were to fortify her lofty stronghold, destroyers would come against her from Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>54</sup> Listen! There is a cry of distress from Babylon. There is the sound of a loud crash from the land of the Chaldeans. <sup>55</sup> For the LORD will lay Babylon waste and silence the loud noise from her. Their waves will roar like many waters. Their roaring noise will sound forth. <sup>56</sup> For a destroyer will attack her, attack Babylon. Her warriors will be captured. Their bows will be shattered. For the LORD is a God who makes retribution. He will repay in full.

<sup>57</sup> “I shall make drunk her officials, her wise men, her governors, her officers and her soldiers. They will fall into a permanent sleep and not wake up again,” declares the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts.

<sup>58</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “The broad wall of Babylon will be utterly demolished and her high gates will be burnt with fire, so that the peoples will have toiled for nothing and the nations will have worn themselves out for fire.”

<sup>59</sup> This is the Message with which the prophet Jeremiah commissioned Seraiah, the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah, the king of Judah, to Babylon, in the fourth year of his reign. Seraiah was the quartermaster. <sup>60</sup> Jeremiah wrote on a single scroll the whole calamity that would happen to Babylon, all these things that have been written about Babylon. <sup>61</sup> Jeremiah told Seraiah: “When you arrive at Babylon, see that you read aloud all these Words.

<sup>62</sup> Then you shall say, ‘LORD, You Yourself have said that You will destroy this place, so that nothing will live in her, neither human being nor animal and that she will be a permanent object of horror.’

<sup>63</sup> When you finish reading this scroll, you shall tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Euphrates. <sup>64</sup> Then you shall say, ‘This is how Babylon will sink down and will not rise because of the calamity that I am bringing on her. They will become exhausted.’”

This is where the Words of Jeremiah end.

Historical information about the fall of Jerusalem — 2 Kings 24:18-25:26, 2 Chronicles 36:11-20, Jeremiah 39:1-10, 40:5-9, 41:1-3, 41:16-18

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. <sup>4</sup> On the tenth day of the tenth month in the ninth year of his reign, Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, came with his whole army against Jerusalem. They encamped against the city and built a siege-mound all around it. <sup>5</sup> The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. <sup>6</sup> On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the citizens. <sup>7</sup> Then the city wall was broken through and all the soldiers fled. They left the city by night by the way of the city-gate between the two walls, which was beside the king’s garden. Although the Chaldeans were attacking the city on all sides, they went along the road towards the dry country. <sup>8</sup> However, the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and caught up with Zedekiah on the waterless plains of Jericho and his whole company left him and was scattered from him. <sup>9</sup> When they had captured the king, they brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah in the land of Hamath and the king of Babylon passed sentence on him. <sup>10</sup> The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah while Zedekiah was watching. He also killed all the officials of Judah at Riblah. <sup>11</sup> He put out the eyes of Zedekiah and tied him up with bronze shackles. The king of Babylon took him to Babylon and put him in a prison until the day when he died.

<sup>13</sup> He burned the Temple of the LORD, the king's palace and all the houses in Jerusalem. He burned down every important building. <sup>14</sup> The whole army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the imperial guard, broke down all the walls around Jerusalem.

the pillars, each one was nine metres high and its circumference was six metres with a measuring-line. It was four fingers thick and was hollow. <sup>22</sup> There was a bronze capital on it. One capital was two and a half metres high. There were a lattice network and pomegranates, all of bronze, around the capital. The second pillar was the same, with pomegranates. <sup>23</sup> There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides. The total number of pomegranates on the network all around was one hundred. <sup>24</sup> The captain of the imperial guard took Seraiah, the Chief Priest and Zephaniah, the second priest and the three doorkeepers. <sup>25</sup> He also took out of the city one officer who had been in command of the fighting men and seven men who had access to the king and who had been found inside the city. He also took the secretary of the commander of the army, who used to muster the soldiers of the land and sixty male citizens who had been found inside the city. <sup>26</sup> Nebuzaradan, the captain of the imperial guard, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. <sup>27</sup> The king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So, the people of Judah went into exile away from its own land.

The release of King Jehoiachin from prison — 2 Kings 25:27-30

<sup>31</sup> On the twenty-fifth day of the twelfth month of the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin, the king of Judah, in the year when Evil-Merodach began to reign as the king of Babylon, he pardoned Jehoiachin, the king of Judah and released him from prison. <sup>32</sup> He spoke kindly to him and gave him a more honourable seat than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. <sup>33</sup> Jehoiachin took off his prison garments and dined regularly in the king's presence for the rest of his life. <sup>34</sup> As for his allowance, he was given a regular daily allowance from the king of Babylon for the rest of his life, until the day when he died.

LAMENTATIONS

The deserted appearance of Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> How lonely sits the city that had been crowded with people! How she who had been great among the nations has become like a widow! She who had been a princess among the provinces has had to do forced labour.

<sup>2</sup> She weeps bitterly at night, with her tears on her cheeks. Out of all those who love her she has no one who comforts her. All her friends have been disloyal to her. They have become her enemies.

<sup>3</sup> Judah has gone into exile after misery and much slavery. She has been dwelling among the nations and has been finding no rest. All those who were pursuing her have caught up with her in the middle of her hardships.

<sup>6</sup> All the splendour of the daughter of Zion has gone from her. Her princes have become like deer that have not found pasture and that have been walking on weakly ahead of the one who chases them.

<sup>7</sup> While Jerusalem is being afflicted and being homeless, she remembers all the precious things that had been hers from days of old. When her people fell into the hands of the enemy, and there was no one to help her, her enemies looked at her and laughed that she had come to an end.

<sup>8</sup> Jerusalem has sinned greatly. That is why she has become unclean. All who used to honour her have begun to despise her. For they have seen her nakedness. She herself has been groaning and turning away.

<sup>9</sup> Her uncleanness was on her skirts. She had not thought about her future. She has gone down in an astonishing way. She has no one to comfort her. "LORD, look at my misery! For the enemy has been boasting."

<sup>10</sup> The enemy has spread out his hands over all her precious belongings. For she has seen the nations enter her sanctuary, although You had forbidden them to enter Your assembly.

Jerusalem's lament in her pain

<sup>12</sup> "Does this mean nothing to you, all you who are going past on the road? Look and see if there is any pain like my pain, which has been inflicted on me! The LORD used it to torment me when He was fiercely angry."

<sup>13</sup> "He has sent fire into my bones from on high. It has gone down deeply into them. He has spread a net for my feet. He has pushed me backwards. He has made me desolate, faint all the day long.

<sup>14</sup> "The yoke of my wrongdoings has been tied on me. They are woven together by His hand. They have been placed on my neck. He has caused my strength to fail. The Lord has handed me over to those whom I cannot withstand.

<sup>15</sup> "The Lord has rejected all my warriors who are with me. He has summoned an assembly against me to crush my young men. The Lord has trodden the virgin daughter of Judah in a winepress.

<sup>16</sup> "I am weeping because of these things. My eyes, my eyes are overflowing with tears. For the One who can give comfort and restore my spirit is far away from me. My children are desolate. For the enemy has prevailed."

<sup>17</sup> Zion has been stretching out her hands, but there is no one to comfort her. The LORD has issued this Command against Jacob, that his neighbours shall be his enemies. Jerusalem has become a filthy thing among them.

<sup>18</sup> "The LORD is in the right. For I have rebelled against His Word. Please listen, all you peoples and see my pain! My maidens and my young men have gone into exile.

<sup>19</sup> "I called to those who love me, but they betrayed me. My priests and my elders breathed their last in the city while they were looking for food to restore their lives.

<sup>20</sup> "See, O LORD, that I am in distress! My inner being has been burning in anguish. My heart has been turning over inside me. For I have been very rebellious. In the street the sword has been causing bereavement. Inside the house it is like death.

<sup>21</sup> "People have been hearing that I am groaning, but there is no one to comfort me. All my enemies have been hearing about my calamity. They have been rejoicing that You Yourself have done it. You have brought the day that You had announced. Let them become like me!

<sup>22</sup> Let all their wickedness come before You, and deal with them as you have dealt with me, because of all my wrongdoings! For my groans are many, and my heart is faint.

2

The prophet's lament that God has destroyed Zion

<sup>1</sup> How the Lord in His anger covers the daughter of Zion under a cloud! He has thrown the splendour of Israel down from heaven to earth. He has not remembered His footstool on the day of His anger.

<sup>2</sup> The Lord has swallowed up all the settlements of Jacob without pity. In His fury He has thrown down the fortified cities of the daughter of Judah. He has hurled them down to the ground. He has profaned the kingship and its rulers.

Lamentations

<sup>3</sup> He has cut off every horn of Israel in hot anger. He has drawn back His right hand from them in the face of the enemy. He has blazed like a flaming fire against Jacob, which has consumed everything around it.

<sup>4</sup> He has bent His bow like an enemy. He was keeping His right hand in position like an adversary. He has killed all who were pleasing to the eyes in the tent of the daughter of Zion. He has poured out His fury like fire.

<sup>5</sup> The Lord has become like an enemy. He has swallowed up Israel. He has swallowed up all its fortified palaces. He has laid its fortified cities in ruins. He has increased the mourning and lamentation in the daughter of Judah.

<sup>6</sup> He has treated His enclosure ruthlessly as if it had been a garden. He has destroyed His meeting place. The LORD has caused Zion to forget times for festivals and Sabbaths and in His indignant anger has rejected king and priest.

<sup>7</sup> The Lord has rejected His altar and repudiated His Holy Place. He has delivered the walls of her fortified palaces into the hands of the enemy. They raised a clamour in the Temple of the LORD as if it had been the day of a festival.

A description of the destruction of Jerusalem

<sup>8</sup> The LORD had planned to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion. He had stretched out the measuring-line. He did not withdraw His hand from destroying it. He made rampart and wall mourn. They dwindled together.

<sup>9</sup> Her gates have sunk down into the ground. He has ruined her bars and smashed them to pieces. Her king and her princes are among the nations. The Law is no more, and her prophets have not been obtaining any vision from the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> The elders of the daughter of Zion are sitting on the ground in silence. They have put dust up on their heads and have put on sackcloth. The virgins of Jerusalem have been letting their heads hang down toward the ground.

<sup>11</sup> My eyes have failed because of my tears. My inner being has been burning in anguish. My heart has been poured out to the ground because of the collapse of the daughter of my people and because infants and babies are fainting in the public squares of the city.

<sup>12</sup> They are asking their mothers, "Where are grain and wine?" as they are feeling weak, like a wounded man, in the public squares of the city and as their lives are poured out on their mothers' laps.

The conclusion that God has destroyed the city

<sup>13</sup> What evidence shall I bring forward in your favour? To what shall I compare you, daughter of Jerusalem? To what shall I liken you, that I may comfort you, virgin daughter of Zion? For your collapse is as vast as the sea. Who could heal you?

<sup>14</sup> Your prophets have been seeing visions on your behalf that are deception and whitewash. They have not been exposing your wrongdoing to bring back your captives. They have been seeing revelations on your behalf that are false and misleading.

<sup>15</sup> All who go past on the road have been clapping their hands at you. They have been hissing and shaking their heads at the daughter of Jerusalem. "Is this the city that people used to call 'perfect in beauty, the joy of the whole world'?"

<sup>16</sup> All your enemies have been opening their mouths wide against you. They have been hissing. They have been gnashing their teeth. They have been saying: "We have swallowed her! Surely, this is the day for which we had been waiting. We have reached it. We have experienced it!"

<sup>17</sup> The LORD has done what He had planned. He has carried out His Word, which He had commanded in days long ago. He has demolished without pity. He has made the enemy rejoice over you. He has increased the strength of your adversaries.

<sup>18</sup> Their hearts have been crying out to the Lord. "O Wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears stream down day and night like a torrent! Do not allow Your effort to slacken! Do not give the apple of Your eyes any rest!"

<sup>20</sup> Look, O LORD, and consider! Whom have you ever treated like this? Should women eat their own children, the children for whom they care tenderly? Should priests and prophets be killed in the Holy Place of the Lord?

<sup>21</sup> Young people and old people have been lying down on the ground in the streets. My virgins and my young men have fallen by the sword. You killed them when You were angry. You slaughtered them without pity.

<sup>22</sup> You are summoning people who terrify me on every side as if it were to a festival. On the day of the anger of the LORD no one escaped or survived. My enemy has destroyed those whom I brought forth in good health and reared.

3

The despair of the prophet

<sup>2</sup> I am the one whom He has driven away and whom He has made to walk in darkness without a light.

<sup>4</sup> He has made my flesh and my skin waste away. He has broken my bones.

<sup>5</sup> He has built siege-works against me and surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.

<sup>6</sup> He has made me live in a dark place like those who have died a long time ago.

Lamentations

<sup>7</sup> He has walled me in so that I cannot get out. He has made my bronze chain heavy.

<sup>8</sup> Even when I was crying out and calling for help, He shut out my prayer.

<sup>9</sup> He has walled up my road with hewn stones and has made my paths crooked.

<sup>10</sup> He was a bear waiting in an ambush for me, a lion in hiding.

<sup>14</sup> I became a laughing-stock to all my people, their song of mockery all day long.

<sup>15</sup> He filled me with bitter drink and made me drink deeply of misery.

<sup>16</sup> He caused me to grind my teeth on gravel. He trampled me down in ashes.

<sup>19</sup> Remember my suffering and my homelessness, the wormwood and the bitterness!

<sup>20</sup> My soul continues to remember them and bends down over me.

An expression of hope in God

<sup>21</sup> This is the thing that I call to mind, and this is why I have hope:

<sup>22</sup> It is because of the LORD's mercies that we have not been completely cut off. For His compassion has not come to an end.

<sup>24</sup> I have been saying to myself, "The LORD is my portion. Therefore, I shall put my hope in Him."

<sup>26</sup> It is good that one hopes, even in silence, for the salvation of the LORD.

<sup>28</sup> He should sit alone and keep silent. For the LORD has laid it on him.

<sup>33</sup> For He has not taken pleasure in tormenting human beings or in oppressing them.

presence of the Most High, <sup>36</sup> to suppress a human being in his lawsuit —surely the Lord has not approved of these things?

<sup>37</sup> Who is it who has spoken, and something has then happened unless the Lord had commanded it?

<sup>38</sup> Is it not from the mouth of the Most High that calamities and good things come?

<sup>39</sup> Why should a living human being, any person, complain about being punished for his sins?

<sup>40</sup> Let us examine our ways and search them out and turn back to the LORD!

A recognition that the enemy has punished us

<sup>41</sup> Let us use our hands to lift up our hearts to God in heaven, saying: <sup>42</sup> "We have revolted and rebelled, and You have not forgiven!"

<sup>43</sup> "You have veiled Yourself in anger and pursued us. You have killed without pity.

<sup>44</sup> "You have veiled Yourself with a cloud to prevent any prayer from passing through.

<sup>51</sup> "My eyes have been afflicting me deeply because of all the daughters of my city.

<sup>63</sup> "Watch them when they sit down and get up! I am the one whom they mock in song.

<sup>64</sup> "You will repay them, O LORD, for what they deserve, for what their hands have done!

Lamentations

65 “You will make their minds deluded! May Your curse be on them!

66 “You will pursue them in anger and destroy them from under the heaven of the LORD.”

A description of Zion during the siege

1 How the gold has lost its lustre! How the fine gold loses its lustre! The holy stones lie scattered at the head of every street.

2 How the precious children of Zion, worth their weight in fine gold, have come to be valued like clay jars, which a potter’s hands have made!

3 Even jackals offer their breasts. They suckle their cubs. However, the daughter of my people has become really cruel, like ostriches in the desert.

4 The tongue of a breast-feeding infant sticks to the roof of its mouth because of thirst. The children have been demanding bread, but no one breaks off a piece of bread.

5 Those who used to eat delicious things have become destitute in the streets. Those who had been cared for in crimson cloth have been embracing ash heaps.

6 For the guilt of the daughter of my people has been greater than the iniquity of Sodom, which was overthrown in a moment, without any human hand moving against it.

7 Zion’s princes had been purer than snow, whiter than milk. Their bodies had been ruddier than pearls of coral. Their appearance was like sapphires.

8 Now they look blacker than soot. They cannot be recognised on the streets. Their skin has shrivelled on their bones. It has become as dry as wood.

9 Those who have been killed by the sword are better off than those who die of hunger. They are wasting away, pierced through because the field lacks produce.

10 The hands of compassionate women have boiled their own children. They provided food for them during the destruction of the daughter of my people.

11 The LORD has given full vent to His wrath. He has poured out His hot anger. He has lit a fire in Zion that has consumed its foundations.

The wickedness of the leaders of Jerusalem

12 None of the kings of the earth, and no people living in the world believed that adversaries and enemies would enter through the gates of Jerusalem.

13 This has happened because of the sins of its prophets and the wrongdoings of its priests, who used to shed the blood of righteous people inside it.

14 They staggered like blind people in the streets. They had been defiled with blood, so that people would not dare to touch their garments.

15 People called out to them: “Go away! You are unclean. Go away! Go away! Do not touch anyone!” When they moved away and wandered off, people said among the nations, “They may not stay here any longer.”

16 The presence of the LORD has scattered them. He will not accept them favourably any longer. People had not been respecting the priests and had not been treating the elders kindly.

The pointless hope for rescue from other nations, the approaching end and the capture of the king

17 Our own eyes were still failing, as they were looking in vain for help, while we kept watch at our observation post for a nation that could not save.

18 People hunted down our steps so that we could not walk in our public squares. Our end had come close. Our days were finished. For our end had come.

19 Those who were pursuing us were faster than the eagles in the sky. They hunted us down on the mountains. They lay in wait for us in the wilderness.

20 The breath of our nostrils, the one anointed by the LORD, was trapped in their pits. We had thought that we would live in his shadow among the nations.

A warning about Edom’s impending doom

21 Rejoice and be glad, daughter of Edom, you who live in the land of Uz! However, the cup will also pass around to you. You will become drunk and expose yourself.

22 Daughter of Zion, your punishment has become complete. He will not keep you in exile any longer. Daughter of Edom, He will call you to account for your wrongdoing. He will uncover your sins.

5

A prayer for mercy because of the disgrace of Jerusalem

1 Remember, O LORD, what has happened to us. Look and see our disgrace!

2 Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers, our homes to foreigners.

3 We have become orphans, without a father. Our mothers are like widows.

4 We have had to pay for the water that we drink. Our wood comes at a price.

5 Those who have been hunting us down are at our necks. We have become weary. We have been given no rest.

6 We have made promises to Egypt and to Assyria to get enough food.

7 Our fathers have sinned and are no more. We have been carrying the burden of their wrongdoings.

8 Slaves have been ruling over us. There is no one to release us from their hands.

9 We are risking our lives to get our food because of the sword in the desert.

10 Our skin has become as hot as an oven because of pangs of hunger.

11 Men have been raping women in Zion and virgins in the cities of Judah.

12 Their own hands have hanged princes. No respect has been shown to older men.

13 Young men have been forced to grind with hand-mills, and boys have been staggering under loads of wood.

Lamentations

<sup>15</sup> Joy has gone from our hearts. Our dancing has changed into mourning.

<sup>16</sup> The garland has fallen off our heads. How terrible indeed it is for us! For we have sinned.

<sup>19</sup> You, Yourself, LORD, will sit enthroned for ever. Your throne will last for all generations.

<sup>20</sup> Why will You forget us for ever? Why will You forsake us for such a long time?

<sup>21</sup> Restore us to Yourself, O LORD, that we may be restored! Renew our days as of old, <sup>22</sup> unless You have completely rejected us and have become extremely furious with us.

EZEKIEL

Ezekiel's vision of the throne of God

<sup>1</sup> On the fifth day of the fourth month in the thirtieth year, while I was among the exiles beside the Chebar Canal, the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. <sup>2</sup> On the fifth day of the month, during the fifth year of the exile of King Jehoiachin, <sup>3</sup> the Word of the LORD came expressly to the priest Ezekiel, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans beside the Chebar Canal. The hand of the Lord came on him there. <sup>4</sup> As I looked, I saw a windstorm coming from the north. There was a large cloud, with flashing lightning surrounded by bright light. The middle of the lightning looked like gleaming brass. <sup>5</sup> What looked like four living creatures came from the middle of it. They looked like this: They had the shape of human beings. <sup>6</sup> However, each one of them had four faces and four wings. <sup>7</sup> Their legs were straight. The soles of their feet were like the hooves of calves. They were gleaming like shiny bronze. <sup>8</sup> They had human hands under their wings on each of their four sides. All four of them had faces and wings that were like this: <sup>9</sup> Their wings touched one another. The creatures did not change direction as they moved but each one of them went straight ahead. <sup>10</sup> Their faces looked like this: They were human faces, but each of the four had the face of a lion on the right side and the four of them had the face of a bull on the left. Each of the four also had the face of an eagle. <sup>11</sup> That is what their faces looked like. Their wings were spread out, pointing upwards. Each creature had two wings that were touching each other, and the other two were covering their bodies. <sup>12</sup> Each went straight ahead. They went wherever the Spirit wanted to go and did not change direction as they moved along. <sup>13</sup> In their appearance, the living creatures looked like burning coals of fire. It looked as if torches were moving back and forth among the living creatures. The fire was bright, and lightning was coming out of the fire. <sup>14</sup> The living creatures darted back and forth and looked like flashes of lightning. <sup>15</sup> While I looked at the living creatures, I saw a wheel on the ground beside each of the four-faced living creatures. <sup>16</sup> In appearance and their design the wheels looked like gleaming topaz. The four of them had the same shape. In their appearance and in their design one wheel seemed to be inside another wheel. <sup>17</sup> When they moved, they used to go in any of their four directions without turning as they moved. <sup>18</sup> The rims of their wheels were high and frightening. Each of the four had rims that were full of eyes all around. <sup>19</sup> When the living creatures moved, the wheels moved beside them. When the living creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose. <sup>20</sup> They used to go wherever the Spirit wanted to go. The wheels rose beside them. For the spirit of each living creature was in the wheels. <sup>21</sup> When the creatures moved, the wheels used to move. When the creatures stood still, they used to stand still. When the creatures rose from the ground, the wheels rose beside them. For the spirit of each living creature was in the wheels. <sup>22</sup> Something like a dome was over the heads of the living creatures. It looked like gleaming and awe-inspiring crystal spread out above their heads. <sup>23</sup> Under the dome their wings were stretched out straight, toward one another. Each creature had two wings that covered one side of its body and two wings that covered the other side. <sup>24</sup> When they were moving, I heard the sound of their wings. It was like the sound of much water, like the voice of the Almighty, like a crowd or the noise of an army. When they stood still, they lowered their wings. <sup>25</sup> A voice came from above the dome that was over their heads. When they stood still, they lowered their wings. <sup>26</sup> Above the dome that was over their heads there was something that looked like a throne that had the appearance of a sapphire. Someone that looked like a human being was high above what looked like a throne. <sup>27</sup> I saw something that looked like gleaming brass with what seemed to be fire inside it and around it. I saw something that looked like fire with a radiance around it upwards from what seemed to be His waist and downwards from what seemed to be His waist. <sup>28</sup> The brightness all around looked like the rainbow in the clouds on a rainy day. That was what the glory of the LORD looked like. When I saw it, I fell with my face to the ground and heard the voice of One who was speaking.

Ezekiel's instruction to speak to a rebellious nation and his vision of a scroll

<sup>1</sup> He told me, “Son of man, stand up on your feet, that I may speak to you!” <sup>2</sup> The Spirit entered me when He spoke to me and set me on my feet, and I heard Him speaking to me. <sup>3</sup> He told me: “Son of man, I am sending you to the Israelites, to the rebellious nations that have rebelled against Me. They and their fathers have been in revolt against Me to this very day. <sup>4</sup> They are impudent and stubborn children. I am sending you to them, and you shall tell them: ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said.’ <sup>5</sup> As for them, whether they listen or refuse to listen - for they are a rebellious family — they will, nevertheless, realise that a prophet has been among them.” <sup>6</sup> “However you yourself, son of man, must not be afraid of them or of what they say! Do not be afraid when briars and thorns are all around you and when you are living among scorpions! Do not be afraid of what they say! Do not be dismayed at their appearance, although they are a rebellious family! <sup>7</sup> You shall speak My Words to them, whether they hear or refuse to hear! For they are rebellious.

<sup>8</sup> “However, you yourself, son of man, must listen to what I am saying to you! Do not be rebellious like that rebellious family! Open your mouth and eat what I am giving you!”

<sup>9</sup> When I looked, I saw a hand stretched out towards me and saw that a book in the form of a scroll was in it. <sup>10</sup> He opened it out in front of me. It had writing on the front and on the back. Words of lamentation, groaning and wailing were written on it.

3

<sup>1</sup> Then He told me: “Son of man, eat what you find! Eat this scroll! Then go and speak to the family of Israel!”

<sup>2</sup> I opened my mouth, and He gave me that scroll to eat. <sup>3</sup> He told me, “Son of man, feed your belly and fill your stomach with this scroll, which I am giving you!”

I ate it, and it tasted as sweet as honey in my mouth.

<sup>4</sup> Then He told me: “Son of man, go now to the family of Israel and use My Words to speak to them! <sup>5</sup> For you are not being sent to a people whose language is incomprehensible and difficult to speak but to the family of Israel. <sup>6</sup> I am not sending you to many nations whose language is incomprehensible and difficult to speak and whose words you do not understand. Otherwise, if I were to send you to them, they would listen to you. <sup>7</sup> However, the family of Israel will not be willing to listen to you, because they are not willing to listen to Me. For the whole family of Israel have hard foreheads and stubborn hearts. <sup>8</sup> Look! I have made your face as hard as their faces are and your forehead as hard as their foreheads are. <sup>9</sup> I have made your forehead like a diamond, harder than flint. You shall not be afraid of them or be terrified by their appearance, although they are a rebellious family.”

<sup>10</sup> He also told me: “Son of man, take into your heart all My Words, which I shall speak to you, and listen to them with your ears! <sup>11</sup> Go now to the exiles, to your own people! Speak to them and tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said,’ whether they listen or refuse to listen!”

<sup>12</sup> Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard a loud rumbling sound behind me: “Blessed be the glory of the LORD from His place!”

<sup>13</sup> There was the sound of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another and the sound of the wheels beside them, as well as the sound of a loud rumbling. <sup>14</sup> The Spirit lifted me up and took me away. I went away feeling bitter. My spirit was hot. The hand of the LORD was heavy on me. <sup>15</sup> I went to the exiles at Tel-Abib, who were living beside the Chebar Canal, and sat down where they were living. I sat there among them for seven days. I was dumbfounded.

The appointment of Ezekiel to be a watchman

me: <sup>17</sup> “Son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman over the family of Israel. When you hear a Word from My mouth, you shall give them a warning from Me. <sup>18</sup> When I tell a wicked person, ‘You will certainly die,’ but you do not warn him and do not speak to warn the wicked man to leave his wicked way, to save his life, that wicked person will die for his sin, but I shall hold you responsible for his death. <sup>19</sup> However, if you have warned the wicked person, and he has not turned away from his wickedness or from his wicked way, he will die for his sin, but you will have delivered your own life. <sup>20</sup> If a righteous person turns away from his righteous conduct and does what is unjust, and I lay an obstacle before him, he will die. Because you have not warned him, he will die because of his sin. His righteous deeds, which he has done, will not be remembered, but I shall hold you responsible for his death. <sup>21</sup> However, if you warn the righteous person that the righteous person should not sin, and he does not sin, he will certainly live, because he has heeded the warning, and you will have delivered your own life.”

Directions to Ezekiel from God

<sup>22</sup> The hand of the LORD came on me there. He told me: “Get up and go out into the valley! I shall speak to you there.”

<sup>23</sup> I got up and went out into the valley. I saw the glory of the LORD standing there, like the glory that I had seen beside the Chebar Canal and I fell face-down. <sup>24</sup> Then the Spirit entered me and set me on my feet. He spoke to me and told me: “Go to your home and shut yourself inside! <sup>25</sup> As for you, son of man, look! People will put ropes on you. They will tie you up with them, that you may not go outside among them. <sup>26</sup> I shall make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, so that you will be dumb and unable to be a person who rebukes them, although they are a rebellious family. <sup>27</sup> However, when I speak to you, I shall open your mouth, and you shall tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said.’ Let the person who listens listen, and let the person who refuses to listen refuse! For they are a rebellious family.”

Ezekiel's imitation of the blockade of Jerusalem

responding to the number of days, three hundred and ninety days. You shall bear the sin of the family of Israel! <sup>6</sup> When you have completed these days, you shall lie down a second time, on your right side! You shall bear the sin of the house of Judah for forty days! I have assigned you one day for each year. <sup>7</sup> You shall turn your face toward the siege of Jerusalem! With your arm bared you shall prophesy against the city! <sup>8</sup> Look! I shall place ropes on you, that you may not turn over from one side to the other, until you have completed the days of your siege. <sup>9</sup> You, get yourself some wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet and spelt! Put them in a single container, that you may use them to prepare food for yourself! You shall eat them during the number of days that you are lying on your side, three hundred and ninety days. <sup>10</sup> The food that you shall eat each day shall be by weight! You shall eat two hundred and forty grams at set times! <sup>11</sup> You shall drink water by measuring it out, six hundred and thirty millilitres! You shall drink it at set times! <sup>12</sup> You shall eat the bread as flat round barley loaves! You shall bake it by using human excrement for fuel while people watch you!”

<sup>13</sup> The LORD said, “That is how the Israelites will eat their bread as something unclean among the nations where I shall drive them.”

<sup>14</sup> Then I said: “Alas, Lord GOD! Look! I have never defiled myself. Since I was young until now I have never eaten anything that died by itself or was killed by wild animals, and no other meat that has become unclean has come into my mouth.”

<sup>15</sup> Then He told me: “Look! I shall allow you to use cow manure instead of human excrement. You may prepare your food over that.”

<sup>16</sup> He also said to me: “Son of man, Look! I shall cut off the supply of bread in Jerusalem. They will anxiously eat bread by weight and will shudder as they measure out the water that they drink. <sup>17</sup> I shall do this that they may lack food and water, be made to tremble at the sight of one another and waste away because of their sin.”

A revelation to Ezekiel about the fall of Jerusalem

lem. I have placed it in the middle of the other nations, with countries all around it. <sup>6</sup> It has been behaving rebelliously against My Decisions by committing more wickedness than the other nations and against My Statutes more than the other countries that are around her. Indeed, they have been rejecting My Decisions and not been living according to My Statutes.”

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: “Because you have been more unruly than the other nations that are around you, because you have not been living according to My Statutes and have not been carrying out My Decisions and because you have not even been conforming to the standards of the nations that are around you, <sup>8</sup> therefore this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Look! I, yes, I, am against you. I shall inflict penalties on you while the other nations are watching. <sup>9</sup> I shall do among you what I have never yet done and shall never do anything like this again, because of all your disgusting deeds. <sup>10</sup> Therefore, fathers will eat their sons among you, and sons will eat their fathers. I shall inflict penalties on you and scatter all those of you who remain to all the winds.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, as surely as I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “because you have defiled My sanctuary with all your horrible things and with all your disgusting things, therefore I also shall certainly cut you down. My eye will not spare, and I Myself shall not have any pity. <sup>12</sup> One third of you will die by the plague and perish by hunger among you. Another third will fall by the sword around you. I shall scatter the remaining third to all the winds and draw My sword after them.

<sup>13</sup> Then My anger will come to an end, and I shall satisfy My fury on them and obtain My revenge. They will know that I am the LORD and that I have spoken in My jealousy, when I have brought My fury on them to an end. <sup>14</sup> I shall turn you into a wasteland and make you an object of reproach among the nations that are around you, and everyone who goes past will see it. <sup>15</sup> The city will be a reproach, a term of abuse, a warning and a horror to the nations that are around you when I inflict penalties on you in anger, in fury and with furious rebukes. I am the LORD and I have spoken. <sup>16</sup> When I shoot against them My calamitous arrows of famine, which will cause destruction and which I shall send to destroy you, I shall also bring more and more famine against you and break your staff of food. <sup>17</sup> I shall send famine and wild animals against you, and they will rob you of your children. Plague and bloodshed will sweep through you, and I shall bring the sword on you. I am the LORD and I have spoken.”

A judgment against the idolatry of Israel

Lord GOD has said to the mountains, the hills, the streambeds and the valleys: “Look! I, even I, am going to bring a sword against you and destroy your high places. <sup>4</sup> Your altars will be deserted, your incense-altars will be smashed, and I shall throw down your slain men in front of your idols. <sup>5</sup> I shall lay the dead bodies of the Israelites in front of their idols and scatter your bones around your altars. <sup>6</sup> Wherever you live, the cities will be in ruins and the high places will be deserted, so that your altars will be laid in ruins and pay the penalty for their guilt. Your idols will be smashed and put out of existence. Your incense-altars will be cut down and what you have made will be wiped out. <sup>7</sup> People will fall slain among you, and you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>8</sup> However, I shall leave a remnant. When you have among the nations some who escape the sword and when you are scattered through the countries, <sup>9</sup> then those of you who escape will remember Me among the nations where they have been taken as captives. They will remember that I have been crushed by their adulterous hearts, which have turned away from Me, and by their eyes, which have lusted after their idols. They will loathe themselves for the evils that they have committed and for all their detestable practices. <sup>10</sup> They will know that I am the LORD. I have not been threatening in vain that I shall bring this calamity on them.””

<sup>11</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Clap your hands, stamp your foot and say, ‘Alas!’ because of all the wicked and detestable practices of the family of Israel, because of which they are falling by the sword, by hunger and by the plague! <sup>12</sup> He who is far away will die of the plague. He who is near will fall by the sword. He who has survived and been spared will die of hunger. I shall bring My fury to an end on them. <sup>13</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD, when their slain men lie among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the mountaintops, under every leafy tree, under every large tree with intertwining branches and wherever else they have been offering appeasing fragrance to all their idols. <sup>14</sup> I shall stretch out My hand against them and make the land desolate and a wasteland, wherever they have been living, from the wilderness to Diblah. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

A prophecy of calamity

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “As for you, son of man, this is what the Lord GOD has said to the land of Israel: ‘An end! The end has come on the four corners of the land. <sup>3</sup> Now the end has come upon you. I shall send My anger against you, pass judgment on you as your conduct deserves and penalise you for all your detestable practices. <sup>4</sup> My eye will not pity you, and I shall not have any mercy. For I shall penalise you for your conduct and for the detestable practices that are among you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>5</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! A calamity, a unique calamity, is coming. <sup>6</sup> The end has come! The end has come! It has awakened against you. Look! It is coming. <sup>7</sup> Doom has come to you, inhabitants of the land. The time has come. The day is near. There will be dismay, and there will be no joyful shouting in the mountains. <sup>8</sup> Now I shall soon pour out My wrath on you, spend My anger against you, pass judgment against you as your conduct has deserved and impose penalties on you for all your detestable practices. <sup>9</sup> My eye will not pity, and I shall not have any mercy. I shall impose penalties on you, as your conduct has deserved, while your detestable practices are among you. Then you will know that I am the LORD and that I am striking you. <sup>10</sup> Look! The day! Look! It is coming! Your doom has come. The rod has begun to bud. Arrogance has blossomed. <sup>11</sup> Violence has grown up into a staff of wickedness. None of the people will remain, none of their roaring, none of their noise, and there will be nothing prominent among them. <sup>12</sup> The time has come. The day has arrived. He who has bought should not rejoice, and he who has sold should not mourn. For wrath will be against their whole crowd. <sup>13</sup> For he who has sold will not return to something that he has sold while he is still alive. For the vision applies to their whole crowd. It will not be reversed. Because of their sins, not one of them will keep hold of his life. <sup>14</sup> Although they have blown the trumpet and have made everything ready, no one will go into battle. For My fury is against their whole crowd. <sup>15</sup> The sword will be outside. The plague and famine will be inside. The sword will kill the one who is in the country. Hunger and the plague will consume the one who is in the city. <sup>16</sup> If any of their survivors escape, they will be on the mountains. All of them will be moaning like doves in the valleys, each one for his own sin. <sup>17</sup> All hands will hang helplessly, and all knees will drip with urine. <sup>18</sup> They will put on sackcloth, and horror will cover them. There will be shame on all faces, and there will be a shaved patch on all their heads. <sup>19</sup> They will throw their silver into the streets and treat their gold like something defiled. Their silver and gold will not be able to deliver them on the day of the wrath of the LORD. They will not satisfy their appetites or fill their stomachs. For their silver and gold have made them stumble into sin. <sup>20</sup> He appointed His beautiful jewellery for majesty, but they used it to make their detestable images and their abhorrent objects. That is why I shall make their jewellery something defiled for them. <sup>21</sup> I shall hand it over to foreigners as plunder and to the wicked people of the earth as booty, and they will defile it.

<sup>22</sup> “I shall turn My face away from those people, and foreigners will defile My treasured place. Robbers will enter it and defile it. <sup>23</sup> Prepare a chain! For the land is full of litigation about guilt for murder, and the city is full of violence. <sup>24</sup> I shall bring the worst of the nations to take possession of their houses. I shall put an end to the pride of strong people, and their holy places will be defiled. <sup>25</sup> Anguish is coming. When they look for peace, there will be none. <sup>26</sup> One calamity will come after another. One rumour will follow another. They will demand a vision from a prophet, but the priest will lack the Law, and the elders will lack advice. <sup>27</sup> The king will mourn, the prince will be clothed with despair, and the hands of the common people will be limp from horror. I shall treat them as they have deserved. I shall judge them by their own decisions. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

A condemnation of idolatry in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> On the fifth day of the sixth month, in the sixth year, while I was sitting in my house and while the elders of Judah were sitting in front of me, the hand of the Lord GOD fell on me there. <sup>2</sup> When I looked, I saw something that had the appearance of fire. Below what looked like His waist, there was fire. What was above His waist seemed to be glowing, like gleaming bronze. <sup>3</sup> He stretched out what looked like a hand and caught me by a lock of hair on my head. The Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven and took me in visions of God to Jerusalem, to the entrance of the northern gateway of the inner court. It was where the image of jealousy, which arouses anger, was situated. <sup>4</sup> I saw the glory of the God of Israel there. It looked like the vision that I had seen in the valley. <sup>5</sup> Then He told me, “Son of man, please look towards the north!” So, I looked toward the north and saw this image of jealousy in the entrance north of the altar gate.

<sup>6</sup> He asked me: “Son of man, do you see what they are doing? Do you see the utterly detestable things that the family of Israel are doing here, with the result that I shall move far away from My sanctuary? However, you will see even more utterly detestable things.”

<sup>7</sup> He took me to the entrance of the courtyard. When I looked, I saw a hole in the wall. <sup>8</sup> Then He told me, “Son of man, please dig through the wall!”

So, I dug through the wall and saw a doorway. <sup>9</sup> He told me, “Go in and see the wicked, disgusting things that they are committing here!”

<sup>10</sup> So, I went in and looked. I saw every representation of loathsome crawling creatures and animals and all the idols of the family of Israel carved all around on the wall. <sup>11</sup> Seventy elders of the family of Israel were standing in front of them. Jaazaniah, the son of Shaphan, was standing among them. Each was holding his censer in his hand, and a fragrant cloud of incense was rising up. <sup>12</sup> Then He asked me: “Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the family of Israel are doing in the dark? Each of them is in the room where his image is. For they are thinking, ‘The LORD does not see us. The LORD has forsaken the land.’”

<sup>13</sup> Then He told me, “You will see still more utterly disgusting things that they are doing.”

<sup>14</sup> Then He took me to the entrance of the northern gate of the Temple of the LORD. I saw women sitting there weeping for Tammuz. <sup>15</sup> Then He asked me: “Have you seen this, son of man? You will see still more utterly detestable things than these.”

<sup>16</sup> Then He took me into the inner court of the Temple of the LORD. I saw about twenty-five men at the entrance of the Temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar. They had their backs to the Temple of the LORD. They were facing east and worshipping the sun in the east. <sup>17</sup> He asked me: “Son of man, have you seen this? Is it too trivial for the family of Judah to be doing these detestable things, which they have been doing here? Rather, they have been filling the land with violence and provoking Me even more to anger. Look! They are putting the branches to their noses! <sup>18</sup> I Myself shall also act in wrath. My eye will not pity, and I shall not have any mercy. Even if they shout loudly in My ears, I shall not listen to them.”

9

The order for the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> Then He cried loudly in my ears: “Come closer, you who will carry out justice on the city! Each should have his destructive weapon in his hand!”

<sup>2</sup> I saw six men coming from the direction of the Upper Gate, which was facing north. Each one had his smashing weapon in his hand. Another man was among them dressed in linen, with a scribe’s writing-board at his waist. They went in and stood beside the bronze altar. <sup>3</sup> The glory of the God of Israel had gone up from the cherub, on which it had been resting, to the threshold of the Temple. He called to the man dressed in linen, who had the scribe’s writing-board at his waist. <sup>4</sup> The LORD told him: “Pass along through the city, through Jerusalem and write a mark on the foreheads of the men who sigh and groan because of all the disgusting things that are being done inside the city!”

<sup>5</sup> He told the others while I was listening: “Pass along through the city behind him and strike people down. Your eyes shall not pity, and you shall not show any mercy! <sup>6</sup> Kill and destroy old men, young men, maidens, little children and women but do not approach anyone who has the mark on him! Begin at My Holy Place!”

Therefore, they began with the elders who were in front of the Temple. <sup>7</sup> Then he told them, “Defile the Temple and fill the courts with dead people! Go out!” They began to go out and kept striking people down in the city. <sup>8</sup> While they were striking them down, I was left alone. I fell face-down and cried out: “Alas, Lord GOD! Are You going to destroy the whole remnant of Israel when You pour out Your wrath on Jerusalem?”

<sup>9</sup> Then He told me: “The guilt of the family of Israel and of Judah is extremely great. The land has been filled with bloodguilt, and the city is full of injustice. Indeed, people have been saying, ‘The LORD has forsaken the land and the LORD does not see.’<sup>10</sup> As for Me, My eye will not pity, and I shall not show any mercy. I shall put the consequences of their conduct on their own heads.”

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw the man dressed in linen, who had his scribe’s writing-board at his waist, making a report. He said, “I have done as You have commanded me.”

10

The departure of God’s glory from His Temple

<sup>1</sup> When I looked at the dome that was over the heads of the cherubim, I saw something appear above them that was like a sapphire and looked like a throne.<sup>2</sup> He spoke to the man dressed in linen. He said: “Go in among the wheels underneath one of the cherubim! Fill your hands with burning coals from among the cherubim and pour them out over the city!”

He went in while I was watching.<sup>3</sup> The cherubim were standing on the southern side of the Temple when the man went in. The cloud had filled the inner court.<sup>4</sup> The glory of the LORD rose up from the cherub to the threshold of the Temple. The house was filled with the cloud, and the brightness of the glory of the LORD filled the court.<sup>5</sup> The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard as far as the outer court. It was like the voice of the Almighty God when He speaks.<sup>6</sup> When He commanded the man dressed in linen, “Take fire from among the wheels, from among the cherubim!” He went in and stood beside one of the wheels.<sup>7</sup> One of the cherubim stretched out his hand from among the cherubim into the fire that was among the cherubim. He took up some of it and put it into the hands of the man dressed in linen. He took it and went outside.<sup>8</sup> The cherubim appeared to have what looked like human hands under their wings.<sup>9</sup> When I looked, I saw four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside each cherub. The wheels looked like gleaming topaz.<sup>10</sup> All four looked alike. Each wheel seemed to be inside another wheel.<sup>11</sup> When they moved, they used to go in any of their four directions without turning as they moved but used to go in the direction in which their heads were facing without turning as they moved.<sup>12</sup> Their whole bodies, their backs, their hands, their wings and the wheels were full of eyes all around in their wheels, which the four of them had.<sup>13</sup> I heard that the wheels were called “the set of wheels.”<sup>14</sup> Each one had four faces. The first face was that of a cherub, the second was a human face, the third was the face of a lion, and the fourth was the face of an eagle.<sup>15</sup> Then the cherubim rose up. These were the living creatures that I had seen at the Chebar Canal.<sup>16</sup> When the cherubim moved, the wheels used to move beside them. When the cherubim lifted up their wings to rise from the ground, the wheels also did not leave their side.<sup>17</sup> When those stood still, they used to stand still. When those rose up, the wheels rose up with them. For the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels.<sup>18</sup> Then the glory of the LORD left the threshold of the Temple and stood above the cherubim.<sup>19</sup> The cherubim lifted up their wings and rose up from the ground while I was watching. When they went out, the wheels were beside them. They stood at the entrance of the eastern gate of the Temple of the LORD, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.<sup>20</sup> These were the living creatures that I had seen under the God of Israel at the Chebar Canal. I realised that they were cherubim.<sup>21</sup> Each had four faces and each had four wings and what looked like human hands were under their wings.<sup>22</sup> Their faces looked like the faces that I had seen beside the Chebar Canal. Each one of them used to move straight ahead.

A judgment against the rulers of Israel for misleading the people

<sup>1</sup> The Spirit lifted me up and took me to the eastern gate of the Temple of the LORD, the gate that faces east. I saw twenty-five men at the entrance of the gateway. I saw Jaazaniah, the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah, among them. They were leaders of the people.<sup>2</sup> He told me: “Son of man, these are the men who make wicked plans and who give bad advice in this city.<sup>3</sup> They are saying, ‘It is a long time before houses can be rebuilt. This city is the cooking-pot, and we are the meat.’<sup>4</sup> Therefore, prophesy against them! Prophesy, son of man!”

<sup>5</sup> The Spirit of the LORD fell upon me and told me, “Say, ‘This is what the LORD has said: “That is what you are saying, family of Israel. I know what is coming up in your minds.<sup>6</sup> You have killed many people in this city and have filled its streets with corpses.<sup>7</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘The people whom you have killed and put in the middle of the city are the meat, and this city is the cooking-pot. However, He will take you outside of it.<sup>8</sup> You have been afraid of the sword, but I shall bring the sword against you,’ declares the Lord GOD.<sup>9</sup> ‘I shall take you out of the middle of the city. I shall hand you over to foreigners and inflict penalties on you.<sup>10</sup> You will fall by the sword. I shall judge you at the border of Israel, and you will know that I am the LORD.<sup>11</sup> This city will not be your cooking-pot, and you will not be the meat inside it. I shall judge you at the border of Israel.<sup>12</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD. For you have not been living by My Prescriptions or been carrying out My Decisions. Rather, you have been following the standards of the nations that are around you.’””

<sup>13</sup> While I was prophesying, Pelatiah, the son of Benaiah, died. Then I fell face-down, gave out a loud cry and said: “Alas, Lord GOD! You are completely destroying the remnant of Israel!”

God’s promise to gather Israel out of the nations

<sup>14</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>15</sup> “Son of man, your brothers, yes, your brothers, your relatives from whom you can claim redemption and the whole family of Israel, yes, all of them, are those whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have been telling, ‘Get far away from the LORD! This is the land that has been given to us as our property!’ <sup>16</sup> Therefore, say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Although I have sent them far away among the nations and although I have dispersed them among the other countries, yet I have been their sanctuary for a short time in the countries where they have gone.”’

<sup>17</sup> “Therefore, say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “I shall gather you together from the other peoples, I shall assemble you out of the countries where you have been dispersed and give you the land of Israel.” <sup>18</sup> They will go there and will remove from it all its abhorrent and detestable things. <sup>19</sup> I shall give them one heart and put a new spirit inside them. I shall remove the stony heart from their bodies and give them a heart of flesh, <sup>20</sup> that they may live by My Statutes, keep My Decisions and put them into practice. They will be My people, and I shall be their God. <sup>21</sup> However, as for those whose hearts follow their abhorrent and detestable things, I shall bring their conduct down on their own heads,’ declares the Lord GOD.”

The departure of God's glory from Jerusalem

12

Ezekiel's imitation of the exile of Judah

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, you are living among a rebellious family. They have eyes to see but have not been seeing. They have ears to hear but have not been listening. For they are a rebellious family. <sup>3</sup> As for you, son of man, pack your baggage for exile and go into exile in the daytime while they are watching! You shall go like an exile away from your place to another place while they are watching! Perhaps they will understand, although they are a rebellious family. <sup>4</sup> You shall bring out your luggage in the daytime while they are watching, as if it were luggage for exile! Then, while they are watching, you shall go out in the evening, as though you were going away into exile! <sup>5</sup> While they are watching, dig through the wall of the house and bring your belongings out through it! <sup>6</sup> While they are watching, you shall lift your luggage on your shoulder and carry it out at dusk! You shall cover your face to prevent yourself from seeing the land! For I have made you a sign to the family of Israel.”

<sup>7</sup> I did as I was commanded. I brought out my luggage during the day, as though it were luggage for exile. In the evening I dug through the wall of my house with my hands. At dusk I brought it out. I carried it on my shoulder while they were watching. <sup>8</sup> The next morning the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>9</sup> “Son of man, has not the family of Israel, that rebellious family, been asking you, ‘What are you doing?’ <sup>10</sup> Tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “This revelation is about the prince in Jerusalem and about the whole family of Israel who are inside it.”’ <sup>11</sup> Say, ‘I am a sign to you! They will have done to them what I have done. They will go into exile and into captivity.’ <sup>12</sup> The prince who is among them will lift his luggage up on his shoulder at dusk and will go outside. People will dig through the wall to bring him out through it. He will cover his face, so that he does not see the land with his own eyes. <sup>13</sup> I shall spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My hunting-snare. I shall bring him to Babylon, the land of the Chaldeans, although he will not see it. That is where he will die. <sup>14</sup> I shall scatter all who are around him, his helpers and his whole band of soldiers, toward every wind. I shall pursue them with a drawn sword. <sup>15</sup> They will know that I am the LORD, when I disperse them among the nations and scatter them in the other countries. <sup>16</sup> Nevertheless, I shall let a few of them escape from the sword, from famine and from the plague, that they may declare all their detestable practices among the nations where they are going. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>17</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>18</sup> “Son of man, you shall shake while you are eating your food and shall shudder and be anxious while you are drinking your water! <sup>19</sup> You shall tell the people of the land, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said about those who are living in Jerusalem, about the land of Israel: “They will be anxious while they are eating their food and will be horrified while they are drinking their water. As a result, its land will have everything in it laid waste, because of the violence of all those who are living in it. <sup>20</sup> The inhabited cities will be laid waste, and the land will become a wasteland. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”’”

<sup>21</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>22</sup> “Son of man, what is that proverb that you people have about the land of Israel, ‘The days are going on and on, and every vision is coming to nothing’? <sup>23</sup> Therefore, tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “I shall put an end to this proverb, and people will not use it as a proverb in Israel any longer.”’ Nevertheless, tell them, ‘The days have come near when every vision will be fulfilled. <sup>24</sup> For there will no longer be any deceitful vision or slippery oracle among the family of Israel. <sup>25</sup> For I am the LORD. I shall speak the Word that I shall speak. It is My Word and it will be fulfilled without any more delay. For during your lifetime, rebellious family, I shall speak the Word and carry it out,” declares the Lord GOD.”

<sup>26</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>27</sup> “Son of man, look! The family of Israel are saying, ‘The vision that he is seeing is meant for many days from now. He is prophesying about times in the distant future.’ <sup>28</sup> Therefore, tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “None of My Words will be delayed any longer. It is a Word that I speak and will be carried out,”” declares the Lord GOD.”

13

A condemnation of false prophets

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me. He said, <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel, who are prophesying. Tell those who are prophesying from their own hearts: ‘Listen to the Word of the LORD! <sup>3</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “How terrible for the foolish prophets! They are following their own spirits, without having seen anything. <sup>4</sup> Israel, your prophets have been like jackals among ruins. <sup>5</sup> You have not gone up into the gaps in the walls or built up a stone wall for the family of Israel, that it may stand firm in the battle on the day of the LORD. <sup>6</sup> They have been seeing deceitful visions and lying predictions. They are saying, ‘Declares the LORD,’ although the LORD has not sent them. Yet they expect Him to make what they say come true. <sup>7</sup> Have you not been seeing a deceitful vision and been uttering a lying prediction when you have been saying, ‘Declares the LORD,’ although I have not spoken? <sup>8</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Because you have been uttering what is false and have been seeing lying visions, therefore look! I am against you,’ declares the Lord GOD. <sup>9</sup> ‘My hand will be against the prophets who are seeing deceitful visions and who are making lying predictions. They will not be in the confidential circle of My people. They will not be recorded in the register of the family of Israel or enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord GOD. <sup>10</sup> Precisely because they have been misleading My people, saying, “Peace,” when there is no peace and, because, when anyone builds a thin wall, these prophets actually coat it with whitewash, <sup>11</sup> tell those who coat it with whitewash that their wall will fall! There will be a pouring rain. Then, large hailstones, you will fall. Then, violent wind, you will break it up. <sup>12</sup> Look! When the wall has fallen, will people not ask you, “Where is the coating of clay that you put on it?”’ <sup>13</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: “I shall make a violent wind break out in My wrath. There will be a pouring rain in My anger. There will be large hailstones in wrath to cause complete destruction. <sup>14</sup> I shall tear down the wall that you have been coating with whitewash. I shall level it to the ground.

Its foundation will be exposed. When it falls, you will perish in the middle of it. Then you will know I am the LORD. <sup>15</sup> I shall bring My wrath to an end against the wall and against those who have been coating it with whitewash, that I may tell you, ‘The wall is gone, and those who have been coating it are gone.’ <sup>16</sup> Gone will be the prophets of Israel who have been prophesying about Jerusalem, and those who have been seeing visions of peace about it, when there has been no peace,” declares the Lord GOD.”

<sup>17</sup> “You yourself, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who are prophesying out of their own minds! Prophesy against them! <sup>18</sup> You shall say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “How terrible for the women who sew magic bands together on all wrists and make veils of all sizes for people’s heads! You want to hunt for people’s lives. Will you hunt down lives belonging to My people and preserve your own lives? <sup>19</sup> You have been profaning Me among My people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread. As a result, you have been putting to death lives that should not be dying and have been preserving lives that should not live, when you tell lies to My people, who listen to lies.””

<sup>20</sup> “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Look! I am against your magic bands, with which you are hunting the lives there as if they were birds. I shall tear them away from your arms and let go free the lives for which you hunt, the lives that are like birds. <sup>21</sup> I shall also tear off your veils and rescue My people from your hands, that they may not be like prey in your hands any longer. Then you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>22</sup> Because you have disheartened a righteous person with lies, when I had not disheartened him and because you have encouraged a wicked person, so that he does not turn away from his evil way, that I may preserve his life, <sup>23</sup> therefore you will not see false visions or make predictions any longer. I shall rescue My people from your hands. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

A condemnation of idolaters

<sup>1</sup> Some of the elders of Israel came to me and sat down in front of me. <sup>2</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>3</sup> “Son of man, these men have become devoted to their idols. They have been placing a wicked obstacle in front of themselves. Should I allow them to consult Me at all? <sup>4</sup> Therefore, speak to them and tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “If anyone of the family of Israel who becomes devoted to his idols and places his wicked obstacle in front of himself and yet comes to the prophet, I, Myself, the LORD, shall see to it that, when that Israelite comes, I give him the answer that his many idols deserve. <sup>5</sup> I shall do this to recapture the devotion of the family of Israel, who have all become alienated from Me because of their idols.”

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore, tell the family of Israel, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Repent! Turn away from your idols and turn your faces away from all your detestable practices! <sup>7</sup> For, when anyone of the family of Israel or any foreigner who is a resident in Israel deserts Me, devotes himself to his idols and places a wicked obstacle in front of himself and yet comes to the prophet to use him to consult Me, I, the LORD, shall see to it that I answer him Myself. <sup>8</sup> I shall set My face against that man. I shall make him a sign and a proverb and cut him off from among My people. Then you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>9</sup> If the prophet is deceived and makes a statement, I Myself, the LORD, have deceived that prophet. Then I shall stretch out My hand against him and destroy him from among My people Israel. <sup>10</sup> They will bear their guilt. The prophet will be as guilty as the one who consults him. <sup>11</sup> This will prevent the family of Israel from wandering away from Me any longer and from defiling themselves any longer with all their rebellious acts. Then they will be My people, and I Myself shall be their God,” declares the Lord GOD.”

A statement that a person's righteousness is related only to his own rescue

<sup>12</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>13</sup> “Son of man, when a land sins against Me by acting unfaithfully, and I stretch out My hand against it, break off its supply of food, let famine loose in it and destroy its people and animals, <sup>14</sup> if these three men, Noah, Daniel and Job, were in that land, they would rescue only their own lives by their righteousness,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup> “If I allow wild animals to go through the land, and they depopulate the land, and it becomes such a desolate waste that no one travels through it because of the wild animals, <sup>16</sup> then, if these three men were in it, as surely as I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “they would certainly not rescue either their sons or their daughters. They alone would be rescued, and the land would be a desolate waste. <sup>17</sup> Or if I bring a sword against that land and say, ‘Let a sword go through the land!’ and I destroy the people and the animals in it, <sup>18</sup> if these three men were in it, as surely as I live, declares the Lord GOD, “they would not rescue their sons or daughters but they alone would be rescued. <sup>19</sup> Or, if I send a plague into that land and pour out My wrath on it through bloodshed, so that I destroy people and animals in it, <sup>20</sup> if Noah, Daniel and Job were in it, as surely as I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “they would not rescue either a son or a daughter. They would rescue only their own lives by their righteousness.”

<sup>21</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD has said: “How much more when I let loose on Jerusalem My four dreadful acts of judgment, sword, famine, wild animals and the plague, to destroy people and animals in it! <sup>22</sup> However, there will be some sons and daughters who will indeed survive and be brought out of it.

Look! When they are coming out to you and when you see their conduct and their actions, you will be consoled for the calamity that I have brought on Jerusalem, for all that I have brought on it. <sup>23</sup> They will console you when you see how they are living and what they are doing. Then you will know that I have not done everything that I have done in it without a reason,” declares the Lord GOD.

15

A comparison of Jerusalem to wood from a wild vine

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, how is the wood of a vine better than any other wood? Is it better than any other branch in the trees of the forest? <sup>3</sup> Do people take any wood from it to make anything useful? Do people take a peg from it to hang any container on it? <sup>4</sup> No! It is only put on a fire as fuel. When the fire has burnt away both ends of it, and the middle of it has been charred, is it useful for anything? <sup>5</sup> Look! When it is a whole piece, it is not useful for anything. How much less can it still be used to make anything when a fire has burnt and charred it! <sup>6</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘I have assigned those who are living in Jerusalem as I have assigned the wood of a vine among the trees in a forest as fuel in a fire. <sup>7</sup> I shall set My face against them. If they escape from one fire, another fire will still burn them up. Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I set My face against them. <sup>8</sup> I shall make the land a desolate waste, because they have been acting unfaithfully,’ declares the Lord GOD.”

16

A comparison of Judah to an unfaithful bride

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: “Son of man, make the detestable practices of Jerusalem known to it! <sup>3</sup> You shall say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said to Jerusalem: “You originated from the land of the Canaanites and have descended from them. Your father was an Amorite, and your mother was a Hittite. <sup>4</sup> As for your birth, your umbilical cord was not cut on the day when you were born. You were not washed in water to make you clean. You were not rubbed down with salt or wrapped in strips of cloth. <sup>5</sup> No one who saw you had enough pity or compassion for you to do any of these things for you. Rather, you were thrown out into the open field, because you were loathed at the time when you were born. <sup>6</sup> Nevertheless, when I went past you and saw you kicking about in your own blood, I told you, as you lay in your blood, ‘Live!’ Yes, I said to you in your blood, ‘Live!’ <sup>7</sup> I made you thrive like a plant in the field. You grew up, became tall and became very beautiful. Your breasts became firm, and your hair grew but you were naked and bare. <sup>8</sup> When I went past you and looked at you, I saw that you were at the age for love. I spread out the skirt of My garment over you and covered your nakedness. I swore an oath to you and made a Covenant with you,” declares the Lord GOD. “Therefore, you became mine. <sup>9</sup> I washed you with water, rinsed your blood away from you and poured olive-oil on you. <sup>10</sup> I also clothed you with colourful woven cloth and put sandals of fine leather on you. I wrapped you in fine linen and dressed you with costly fabric. <sup>11</sup> I decorated you with jewellery. I put bracelets on your wrists and a necklace around your neck. <sup>12</sup> I put a ring in your nose, earrings on your ears and a beautiful crown on your head. <sup>13</sup> So, you adorned yourself with gold and silver, and your clothes were fine linen, costly fabric and colourful woven cloth. Your food was fine wheat-flour, honey and olive-oil. You grew increasingly beautiful and advanced to be a queen. <sup>14</sup> Your fame spread among the nations because of your beauty. For it was perfect, because of My splendour, which I had laid on you,” declares the Lord GOD.”

<sup>15</sup> “However, you trusted in your beauty and used your fame to become a prostitute. You freely gave yourself as a prostitute to everyone who went past. Your beauty became his. <sup>16</sup> You took some of your garments and made many-coloured high couches for yourself and acted as a prostitute on them. Such things should not happen. They should not occur. <sup>17</sup> You also took your beautiful articles of jewellery from My gold and My silver, which I had given you, and made male images for yourself and engaged in prostitution with them. <sup>18</sup> You also took your colourful woven garments to cover the images and set My olive-oil and My incense in front of them. <sup>19</sup> Although I had fed you with fine flour, olive-oil and honey, you also put My food, which I had given you, in front of them for a soothing aroma. This is what has happened,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>20</sup> “You also took your sons and your daughters, whom you had borne to Me, and you sacrificed them to the idols as their food. Was your prostitution not enough? <sup>21</sup> You slaughtered My children! You gave them up by causing them to pass through the fire! <sup>22</sup> In all your detestable practices and acts of prostitution you did not remember the days when you were young, when you were naked and bare and kicking about in your own blood. <sup>23</sup> After all your wickedness — how terrible, how terrible for you!” declares the Lord GOD — <sup>24</sup> “you built a mound for yourself and made yourself a high place in every public square. <sup>25</sup> You have been building your high places at the head of every road and have made your beauty detestable. You have been opening your legs wide to anyone who has been going past and have been committing increasing acts of prostitution. <sup>26</sup> You have also been engaging in prostitution with your lustful neighbours, the Egyptians. You have been increasing your acts of prostitution to provoke Me to anger. <sup>27</sup> So look! I have stretched out My hand against you. I have reduced your allotted territory. I have abandoned you to the greed of the women who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd conduct. <sup>28</sup> You have also been engaging in prostitution with the Assyrians, because you have not been satisfied. Yes, while you were engaging in prostitution with them, you were still not satisfied. <sup>29</sup> You have been increasing your acts of prostitution with the land of tradesmen, the Chaldeans, but you have still not been satisfied with this. <sup>30</sup> How weak-willed your heart is!” declares the Lord GOD. “For you have been committing all these things. You have been doing what a headstrong prostitute does. <sup>31</sup> When you built your mounds at the head of every road and made your high places in every public square, you were not like a prostitute. For you scorned a prostitute’s wages. <sup>32</sup> You adulterous wife! You receive strangers instead of your own husband! <sup>33</sup> Men pay a fee to all prostitutes, but you have been giving your gifts to all your lovers. You have been giving a present to them to come to you from all directions for your acts of prostitution. <sup>34</sup> You have been different from other women in your acts of prostitution. Your prostitution has not been committed after men have run after you. You have been paying a fee for prostitution, and no payment has been made to you. You have been the opposite.

<sup>35</sup> “Therefore, prostitute, listen to the Word of the LORD! <sup>36</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Because you have been exposing your genitals and uncovering your nakedness in your acts of prostitution with your lovers and with all your disgusting idols and because of the shed blood of your children, which you have been giving to these idols, <sup>37</sup> therefore, look! I shall assemble all your lovers, to whom you have been giving pleasure, all those whom you have loved and all those whom you have hated. I shall gather them against you from all around and uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. <sup>38</sup> I shall judge you as women who commit adultery and who kill innocent people are judged. I shall bring on you the blood-vengeance of wrath and jealousy. <sup>39</sup> I shall hand you over to your lovers. They will pull down your mounds and break down your high places. They will tear off your clothes, take away your beautiful jewels and leave you naked and bare. <sup>40</sup> They will lead out an assembly against you, who will stone you and cut you to pieces with their swords. <sup>41</sup> They will burn down your houses and inflict penalties on you while many other women are watching. I shall make you stop being a prostitute, and you will also not pay any more fees for prostitution. <sup>42</sup> Then I shall get relief from My wrath against you, and My jealousy will turn away from you. I shall be calm and shall not be angry any longer. <sup>43</sup> Because you have not remembered the time when you were young but have enraged Me with all these things, therefore, look! I have brought your conduct down on your own head,’ declares the Lord GOD. ‘Have you not been behaving lewdly in addition to all your disgusting practices?’<sup>44</sup> Look! Everyone who uses proverbs will use this proverb about you: “The daughter is like her mother.”<sup>45</sup> You really are your mother’s daughter. She loathed her own husband and her own children. You really are your sister’s sister. They loathed their own husbands and their own children. The mother of all of you was a Hittite, and your father was an Amorite.<sup>46</sup> Your elder sister was Samaria. She and her daughters were the ones who used to live to the north of you. Your younger sister was Sodom. She used to live to the south of you with her daughters.<sup>47</sup> However, did you not live as they conducted themselves and follow their disgusting practices? In a very short time you were more corrupt than they were in all your ways.<sup>48</sup> As surely as I live,’ declares the Lord GOD, ‘your sister Sodom herself together with her daughters has certainly not done the kinds of things that you yourself have done together with your daughters.’<sup>49</sup> Look! This was what your sister Sodom was guilty of: she, together with her daughters, was arrogant, overfed and had undisturbed calm but did not support poor and needy people.<sup>50</sup> They were haughty and committed detestable things before Me. When I saw this, I removed them.<sup>51</sup> Samaria has not committed half as many sins as you have. You have done more disgusting things than they have. You have made your sisters appear righteous through all the disgusting things that you have been committing.<sup>52</sup> You too, must bear your own disgrace! For you have been interceding on behalf of your sisters. Because of your own sins, which you have been committing in more disgusting ways than they have, they used to be more righteous than you are. You also must be ashamed and bear your own disgrace, because you have made your sisters appear righteous!<sup>53</sup> I shall restore their fortunes, both the fortunes of Sodom and her daughters and the fortunes of Samaria and her daughters. I shall also restore your own fortunes together with them,<sup>54</sup> that you may bear your own disgrace and be ashamed of all that you have been doing, by giving comfort to them.<sup>55</sup> As for your sisters, Sodom and her daughters will regain their previous position. Samaria and her daughters will regain their previous position. You and your daughters will also regain your previous position.<sup>56</sup> Did you not speak about your sister Sodom as a shameful object lesson during the time when you were arrogant,<sup>57</sup> before your wickedness was exposed? It was like the time when you become an object of reproach for the daughters of Aram and all those around her and for the daughters of the Philistines, for those who are all around, who despise you.<sup>58</sup> You yourself will bear the penalty for your lewdness and your disgusting practices,’ declares the LORD.

God’s promise to establish an everlasting Covenant

<sup>59</sup> “For this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘I shall treat you as your deeds have deserved. For you despised the oath that involved a curse when you broke the Covenant.<sup>60</sup> Nevertheless, I Myself shall remember My Covenant with you when you were young and establish an everlasting Covenant for your benefit.<sup>61</sup> Then you will remember your conduct. You will be ashamed when you receive your elder sister and your younger sister. I shall give them to you as daughters but not because of your covenant.<sup>62</sup> I Myself shall establish My Covenant with you. Then you will know that I am the LORD,<sup>63</sup> that you may remember and be ashamed and never open your mouth again because of your disgrace, when I make atonement for you for all that you have been doing,’ declares the Lord GOD.”

The parable of the two eagles and a vine

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, ask the family of Israel a riddle and tell them a parable! <sup>3</sup> You shall say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “A large eagle that had huge wings, long feathers and rich, many-coloured plumage came to Lebanon and took hold of the top of a cedar-tree. <sup>4</sup> He plucked off its highest twig and carried it to a land of merchants. He laid it down in a city of traders. <sup>5</sup> He took a seedling from that country and placed it in a fertile field. He placed it like a willow, a willow beside plenty of water. <sup>6</sup> It sprouted and became a low, spreading vine. Its leafy branches turned upwards toward the eagle, but its roots remained in their place. So, it became a vine, produced branches and put out shoots.”’

<sup>7</sup> “There was another large eagle that had huge wings and many feathers. Look! This vine stretched out its roots toward him and sent out its branches toward him from the garden-bed where it had been planted, that he might water it. <sup>8</sup> It had been planted on good soil beside plenty of water, so that it could produce branches, bear fruit and become a magnificent vine. <sup>9</sup> Say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has asked: “Will it flourish? Will the first eagle not pull out its roots and strip off its fruit, that it may dry up and that all its fresh growth may wither? A strong arm or any people will not be needed to pull it by its roots. <sup>10</sup> Look! If it is planted again, will it flourish? Will it not wither completely when the east wind strikes it? It will wither away on the garden-bed where it had sprouted.”’”

<sup>11</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>12</sup> “Please ask the rebellious family, ‘Do you not know what this means?’ Tell them, ‘Look! The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, took its king and its leading people and brought them with him to Babylon. <sup>13</sup> He took another member of the royal family and made a treaty with him. He put him under oath, after he had taken away the chief men of the land. <sup>14</sup> He swore that the kingship would have inferior status and would not lift itself up again. He swore that he would keep his treaty, that the kingship might endure.

<sup>15</sup> However, he rebelled against him by sending his ambassadors to Egypt, that they might give him horses and a large army. Would he flourish? Would the one who did such things escape? If he broke the treaty, would he escape? <sup>16</sup> As surely as I live,' declares the Lord GOD, 'he will certainly die in Babylon, in the place where the king lives who had installed him as king. For he has despised his oath. He has broken his treaty with him. <sup>17</sup> Even with a mighty army and with a numerous company Pharaoh will not protect him in war, when assault-ramps are thrown up and siege-works are built to destroy many lives. <sup>18</sup> He was despising the oath by breaking the treaty. Indeed, when he has given his handshake and has nevertheless done all this, he will not escape. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: "As surely as I live, it is certainly My oath that he has despised and My Covenant that he has broken. I shall bring it down on his own head. <sup>20</sup> I shall spread My net over him, and he will be caught in My snare. I shall bring him to Babylon and begin to judge him there because he has violated his obligations to Me. <sup>21</sup> All his fugitives among all his troops will fall by the sword. The survivors will be scattered in every direction. Then you will know that I am the LORD and that I have spoken."'''

<sup>22</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: "I Myself shall take one of the highest sprigs of a cedar-tree and set it out. I shall pluck off one of the topmost of its tender twigs and I Myself shall plant it on a high and lofty mountain. <sup>23</sup> I shall plant it on the mountain-height of Israel. It will send out branches, produce fruit and become a magnificent cedar-tree. Every bird, every winged creature, will live under it. They will live in the shade of its branches. <sup>24</sup> Then all the trees in the field will know that I am the LORD and that I have brought the high tree down low. I have made the low tree grow high. I have made the fresh tree wither and have caused the dry tree to sprout. I am the LORD. I have spoken, and I shall do it."

A declaration that everyone will be responsible for his own sins

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "What do you people mean when you use this proverb about the land of Israel, 'The fathers eat unripe fruit, and the children's teeth feel dull?' <sup>3</sup> As surely as I live," declares the Lord GOD, "you will certainly not use this proverb in Israel any longer. <sup>4</sup> Look! All persons belong to Me. Both the soul of the father and soul of the son alike belong to Me. The person who sins is the one who will die. <sup>5</sup> If a man is righteous, he will do what is just and right. <sup>6</sup> He has not been eating sacrifices made on the hill-shrines. He has not been looking up to the idols of the family of Israel. He has not violated his neighbour's wife. He does not make an advance to a woman during her period. <sup>7</sup> He does not oppress anyone. He returns what he has taken as security for a loan. He does not commit any robbery. He gives his food to a person who is hungry and covers a naked person with a garment. <sup>8</sup> He does not lend money on interest or accept an additional charge. He withholds his hand from injustice. He makes an honest decision between one man and another. <sup>9</sup> He lives by My Statutes, keeps My Decisions and carries them out faithfully. Such a man is righteous. He will certainly live," declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>10</sup> "Suppose that the man has a son who is violent, commits murder or does any of these things. <sup>11</sup> Although the father himself has not been doing any of these things, yet, if the son has been eating sacrifices made on the hill-shrines and has violated his neighbour's wife, <sup>12</sup> if he oppresses a poor and needy person and commits robbery, if he does not return what he has taken as security, if he has been looking up to the idols, if he has been doing other disgusting things, <sup>13</sup> if he has been lending money at interest or accepting an additional charge, will he live? He will not live. He has been doing all these disgusting things. He will certainly die. He will be responsible for his own death.

<sup>14</sup> "Now, suppose that this man has had a son who has seen all the sins that his father has committed. Although he has seen them, he does not commit such things. <sup>15</sup> He has not been eating sacrifices made on the hill-shrines. He has not been looking up to the idols of the family of Israel. He has not violated his neighbour's wife. <sup>16</sup> He does not oppress anyone. He does not seize anything as security for a loan. He has not committed robbery. He has given his food to a person who is hungry and has covered a naked person with a garment. <sup>17</sup> He has refused to harm a poor person. He has not accepted any interest or additional charge. He has been putting My Decisions into practice and has been walking in My Statutes. He will not die for his father's sin. He will certainly live. <sup>18</sup> Because his father has been resorting to extortion, robbing his fellow-Israelite and doing what is wrong among his people, he will certainly die for his sin.

<sup>19</sup> "However, you ask, 'Why should the son not suffer for his father's sin?' Because the son has been doing what is just and right, has been keeping all My Statutes and putting them into practice, he will certainly live. <sup>20</sup> The person who sins is the one who will die. A son will not suffer for his father's sin, and a father will not suffer for his son's sin. The righteousness of a righteous person will be credited to him, and the wickedness of a wicked person will be credited to him.

<sup>21</sup> "However, if a wicked person turns away from all his sins, which he has been committing and, if he keeps all My Statutes and does what is just and right, he will certainly live. He will not die. <sup>22</sup> None of the rebellious acts that he has been committing will be remembered against him. He will live because of his righteousness, which he has been putting into practice.

<sup>23</sup> Do I have any pleasure at all in the death of a wicked person?" asks the Lord GOD. "Do I not desire that he should turn from his ways and live? <sup>24</sup> However, when a righteous person turns away from his righteousness, acts unjustly and does the same disgusting things as a wicked person has done, will he live? None of the righteous deeds that he has done will be remembered because of his unfaithfulness, of which he is guilty, and because of his sin, which he has committed. He will die because of them.

<sup>25</sup> "Yet you say, 'The behaviour of the Lord is not fair.' Please listen, family of Israel! Is My behaviour not fair? Are not the ways you behave the ones that are not fair? <sup>26</sup> When a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and acts unjustly, he will die for those things. He will die because of the unjust things that he has been committing. <sup>27</sup> Moreover, when a wicked person turns away from the wickedness that he has been committing and does what is just and right, he will save his life. <sup>28</sup> Because he has considered all the rebellious acts that he has been committing and has turned away from them, he will certainly live. He will not die. <sup>29</sup> Yet the family of Israel says, 'The behaviour of the Lord is not fair.' Are the ways in which I behave not fair, family of Israel? Are your ways not the ones that are unfair?

<sup>30</sup> "Therefore, family of Israel, I shall judge each of you according to his conduct," declares the Lord GOD. "Repent and turn away from all your rebellious acts, that sin may not cause your downfall. <sup>31</sup> Cast away from you all your rebellious acts, which you have been committing! Make yourselves new hearts and new spirits. Why should you die, O family of Israel? <sup>32</sup> For I have no pleasure in the death of anyone who dies," declares the Lord GOD. "Therefore, repent and live!"

A lament for Israel's princes

him in a collar and took him to the king of Babylon. They put him in a fortress, that his roar might not be heard any longer on the mountains of Israel.'

<sup>10</sup> "Your mother was like a vine with the same bloodline as yours. It was planted beside the water. It was bearing fruit and had thick branches, because there was plenty of water. <sup>11</sup> It had strong stems that were fit for rulers' sceptres. It grew to be high up, among other leafy plants. Its height made it conspicuous with its thick leafy tendrils. <sup>12</sup> However, the vine was torn up in fury and thrown down on the ground. The east wind dried up its fruit. Its strong stems were torn off and withered. Fire consumed them. <sup>13</sup> Now it has been replanted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land. <sup>14</sup> Fire has gone out from the main stem of its shoots. It has consumed its fruit, so that no strong stem, no sceptre that a ruler could use, has remained in it." This is a lamentation and has been used as a lamentation.

A record of Israel's past and present sins

<sup>1</sup> On the tenth day of the fifth month in the seventh year, some of the elders of Israel came to consult the LORD and sat down in front of me. <sup>2</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>3</sup> "Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel and tell them, 'This is what the Lord GOD has asked: "Are you coming to consult Me? As surely as I live," declares the Lord GOD, "I shall certainly not allow you to consult Me.'"

<sup>4</sup> "Will you judge them? Will you judge them, son of man? Inform them of the disgusting things that their fathers have done. <sup>5</sup> Tell them, 'This is what the Lord GOD has said: "On the day when I chose Israel, I made an oath with My hand raised to the descendants of the family of Jacob. I made Myself known to them in Egypt. I swore to them with My hand raised and said, 'I am the LORD, your God.' <sup>6</sup> On that day I swore to them with My hand raised that I would bring them out of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands. <sup>7</sup> I told them, 'Each one of you must throw away the vile idols on which he has set his eyes! Do not defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt! I am the LORD, your God.' <sup>8</sup> However, they rebelled against Me. They refused to listen to Me. None of them threw away the vile idols on which he had set his eyes. They did not abandon the idols of Egypt. Therefore, I said that I would pour out My wrath on them and express all My anger against them inside the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> However, I acted for the sake of My own name, to prevent it from being defiled in the sight of the nations among whom they were living. I had made Myself known to them to take them out of Egypt while those nations were watching.'"

<sup>10</sup> "So, I brought the Israelites out of Egypt and led them into the wilderness. <sup>11</sup> I gave them My Statutes and made My Decisions known to them. If any person puts them into practice he will live through them. <sup>12</sup> I also gave them My Sabbaths, to be a sign between Me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD and that I declare them holy. <sup>13</sup> However, the family of Israel rebelled against Me in the wilderness. They did not live according to My Statutes. They rejected My Decisions, although a person will live through putting them into practice. They also greatly profaned My Sabbaths. So, I said that I would pour out My wrath on them in the wilderness, to wipe them out completely. <sup>14</sup> Nevertheless, I acted for the sake of My own name, that it might not be profaned in the sight of the nations who had seen Me bringing the Israelites out. <sup>15</sup> With My hand raised I had even threatened to them in the wilderness that I would not bring them into the land that I had given them, a land flowing with milk and honey, the most beautiful of all lands. <sup>16</sup> I had done this because they had rejected My Decisions, had not been living according to My Statutes and had been profaning My Sabbaths. For their hearts were following their idols. <sup>17</sup> Nevertheless, I looked on them with pity, so that I did not destroy them or wipe them out completely in the wilderness. <sup>18</sup> "I told their children in the wilderness, 'Do not live according to the prescriptions of your fathers! Do not keep their decisions and do not defile yourselves with their idols!' <sup>19</sup> I am the LORD, your God. Live according to My Statutes! Keep My Decisions and put them into practice! <sup>20</sup> Keep My Sabbaths holy! Let them be a sign between Me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD, your God!" <sup>21</sup> However, the children rebelled against me. They did not live according to My Statutes and did not keep My Decisions and put them into practice, although a person will live through putting them into practice. They profaned My Sabbaths. So, I said that I would pour out My wrath on them and express all My anger against them in the wilderness. <sup>22</sup> However, I held back My hand and acted for the sake of My own name, to prevent it from being profaned in the sight of the nations who had seen Me bring out the Israelites. <sup>23</sup> With My hand raised I Myself also swore to them in the wilderness that I would disperse them among the nations and scatter them through the other countries. <sup>24</sup> For they had not been putting My Decisions into practice and had been rejecting My Statutes. They had been profaning My Sabbaths, and their eyes were set on their fathers' idols. <sup>25</sup> I Myself even gave them Instructions that were not good and Decisions through which they could not have life. <sup>26</sup> I defiled them through their own gifts when they offered all their first-born, that I might terrify them. I did this that they might know that I am the LORD."

<sup>27</sup> "Therefore, son of man, speak to the family of Israel and tell them, 'This is what the Lord GOD has said: "Your fathers insulted Me in this respect also, by being unfaithful to Me. <sup>28</sup> When I had brought them into the land that I had sworn with My hand raised to give them, and they saw any high hill or any leafy tree, they offered their sacrifices there and presented sacrificial gifts there that made Me angry. They made their soothing aroma there and poured out their drink-offerings there. <sup>29</sup> I had asked them, 'What is the high place to which you are going?' It has been named a 'high place' to this day."

<sup>30</sup> "Therefore, tell the family of Israel, 'This is what the Lord GOD has asked: "Are you defiling yourselves by living as your fathers did? Are you engaging in prostitution by following their abhorrent practices? <sup>31</sup> When you present your gifts by sacrificing your children in fire, you keep on defiling yourselves with all your idols to this day. Shall I Myself allow you to consult Me, family of Israel? As surely as I live," declares the Lord GOD, "I shall certainly not allow you to consult Me. <sup>32</sup> What is coming up in your minds will certainly never happen. You are thinking, 'Let us be like the other nations, like the clans in the other countries, by serving wood and stone!'"

A promise that God will restore Israel

<sup>33</sup> "As surely as I live," declares the Lord GOD, "I shall certainly be King over you, by using a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and by pouring out wrath. <sup>34</sup> I shall bring you out from the other peoples and gather you out of the other countries where you have been dispersed, by using a mighty hand and an outstretched arm and by pouring out wrath. <sup>35</sup> I shall lead you into the wilderness of the peoples and there I shall put you on trial face to face. <sup>36</sup> I put you on trial as I put your fathers on trial in the wilderness of the land of Egypt," declares the Lord GOD. <sup>37</sup> "I shall make you go past under the rod and bring you into the obligation of the Covenant. <sup>38</sup> I shall purge out the rebels among you and those who are defying Me. I shall bring them out of the land where they are living temporarily, but they will not enter the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.

A pronouncement about the future of Israel

<sup>39</sup> "As for you, family of Israel, this is what the Lord GOD has said: 'Each one of you should go and serve his idols! However, after that, you will certainly listen to Me. You will not profane My holy name any longer with your gifts and with your idols. <sup>40</sup> For there on My holy mountain, the mountain-height of Israel,' declares the Lord GOD, 'the whole family of Israel, all of them, will serve Me in the land. I shall take pleasure in them there. I shall require your contributions and your best presents, together with all your other holy offerings. <sup>41</sup> I shall be favourable to you as a pleasing aroma when I bring you out from the other peoples and gather you out of the other countries where you have been dispersed. I shall show that I am holy among you while the nations are watching. <sup>42</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country that I have sworn with My hand raised to give to your fathers. <sup>43</sup> There you will remember your conduct and all your deeds, with which you have been defiling yourselves. You will be disgusted with yourselves for all your evil deeds, which you have been committing.

<sup>44</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD, when I deal with you for the sake of My own name, not according to your evil conduct or according to your corrupt deeds, O family of Israel,' declares the Lord GOD."

A proclamation about a fire in the Negev

<sup>45</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>46</sup> "Son of man, set your face toward the south! Prophecy ecstatically toward the south! Prophecy against the forest-land in the Negev! <sup>47</sup> Tell the forest in the Negev, 'Listen to the Word of the LORD! This is what the Lord GOD has said: "Look! I shall light a fire in you, and it will burn up every green tree and every dry tree in you. The blazing flame will not go out. All faces from the south to the north will be scorched by it.

<sup>48</sup> All human beings will see that I, the LORD, have lit it. It will not go out.'"

<sup>49</sup> Then I said: "Alas, Lord GOD! They are asking about me, 'Is he not one who only speaks in riddles?'"

21

A proclamation about God's drawn sword

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> "Son of man, set your face towards Jerusalem and speak ecstatically against the holy places! Prophecy against the land of Israel! <sup>3</sup> Tell the land of Israel, 'This is what the LORD has said: "Look! I am against you. I shall draw My sword from its sheath and cut off from you the righteous person and the wicked person. <sup>4</sup> Because I shall cut off from you the righteous person and the wicked person, My sword will come out of its sheath against all human beings from the south to the north. <sup>5</sup> All human beings will know that I am the LORD. I have drawn My sword from its sheath. It will not go back there again.'"

<sup>6</sup> "As for you, son of man, groan! Groan with shaking hips and bitter grief while they are watching you!

<sup>7</sup> When they ask you, 'Why are you groaning?' you shall say, 'Because of the news. For it is coming. Every heart will melt, and all hands will hang limp. Every spirit will be disheartened, and all knees will become as weak as water. Look! It is coming. It will happen,' declares the Lord GOD."

<sup>8</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>9</sup> "Son of man, prophesy and say, 'This is what the LORD has said: "Say: 'A sword, a sword has been sharpened and also polished. <sup>10</sup> It has been sharpened to carry out a slaughter, polished to flash like lightning! Or should we rejoice? The sword despises the sceptre of My son and every other kind of wood. <sup>11</sup> He has given the sword to be polished and to be grasped with the hand. This is a sword that has been sharpened and this is one that has been polished to be put in the hand of one who slays.'"

<sup>12</sup> "Cry out and wail, son of man! For it will come against My people. It is against all the leading men of Israel. They have been thrown to the sword together with My people. Therefore, slap yourself on the hip in grief! <sup>13</sup> Surely it will be tested. What if the sword despises even the sceptre? The sceptre will be no more," declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>14</sup> "As for you, son of man, prophesy! Clap your hands! Let the sword strike twice, yes, three times! It is a sword for those who are to be slain. This is a sword for the great slaughter, which surrounds them, <sup>15</sup> that hearts may melt and that many may stumble. I have appointed the sword to kill people at all their gates. Alas! It has been made to be like lightning. It is grasped to slaughter. <sup>16</sup> Focus on the right! Pay attention to the left or wherever your sharp edge is assigned! <sup>17</sup> I Myself shall also clap My hands and make My fury subside. I Myself, the LORD, have spoken."

The sword of the king of Babylon

<sup>18</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>19</sup> "As for you, son of man, mark out for yourself two roads for the sword of the king of Babylon to come! Both of them shall come from the same land! Cut out a signpost! Cut it out where the road to the city begins! <sup>20</sup> Mark a road for the sword to come to the Ammonite city of Rabbah and mark another for it to come to Judah, to the fortified city of Jerusalem! <sup>21</sup> For the king of Babylon will stand at the junction in the road, where the two roads fork, to try to obtain omens. He will shake the arrows. He will consult the images. He will examine the animal-livers. <sup>22</sup> The omen for Jerusalem will be in his right hand, to set battering-rams, to give the command to slaughter, to raise a battle-cry, to set battering-rams against the city-gates, to heap up a siege-mound and to build siege-towers.

<sup>23</sup> "However, those who have sworn solemn oaths will think that this is a false omen. Nevertheless, He will remind them of their guilt, that they may be captured.

<sup>24</sup> "Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: 'Because you have caused your guilt to be remembered, by uncovering your rebellious acts, so that your sins become apparent in everything that you are doing, because you have been remembered, you will be forcibly captured. <sup>25</sup> As for you, you profane and wicked prince of Israel, your day has come. It is the time when you will finally be punished.'

<sup>26</sup> "This is what the Lord GOD has said: 'Remove your turban! Get rid of your crown! Nothing will continue as it is. Raise up what is low! Bring down low what is high! <sup>27</sup> A ruin! A ruin! I shall make it a ruin! This will also not happen until the One comes who has a right to it. Then I shall give it to Him.'"

A proclamation against the Ammonites

<sup>28</sup> "You yourself, son of man, must prophesy and say, 'This is what the Lord GOD has said about the Ammonites and about their insults. You shall say: "A sword! A sword has been drawn to slaughter! It has been polished to consume and to flash like lightning!<sup>29</sup> Although they see false visions about you and although they make lying predictions about you, to place you on the necks of profane and wicked people, their day will come. It will be the time when they are finally punished.<sup>30</sup> Return your sword to its sheath! I shall judge you in the place where you were created, in the land where you originated.<sup>31</sup> I shall pour out My indignation on you. I shall blow on you with the fire of My wrath. I shall hand you over to brutish men, who are skilled in destruction.<sup>32</sup> You will become fuel for the fire. Your blood will be in the middle of the land. You will not be remembered. For I, the LORD have spoken.””

A judgment on Jerusalem because of its murderous history

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “As for you, son of man, will you judge, will you judge this city, which is guilty of bloodshed? Then tell it about all the disgusting things that it has been doing! <sup>3</sup> You shall say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “You are a city that murders people who are living in it. The city’s time has come. It has been making idols inside itself, so that it has become unclean. <sup>4</sup> You have become guilty through your own blood, which you have been shedding. Through your idols, which you have been making, you have become unclean. You have brought your days close to their end. You have come to the end of your years. Therefore, I shall make you an object of scorn to the nations and a laughing-stock to all the other countries. <sup>5</sup> Those who are near you and those who are far from you will make fun of you. Your name will become unclean. You will be filled with dismay.””

<sup>6</sup> “Look! Each of the princes of Israel in you has been using his own arm to murder people. <sup>7</sup> People have been treating fathers and mothers in you with contempt. They have been treating resident-foreigners brutally inside you. They have been oppressing orphans and widows in you. <sup>8</sup> You have been despising My holy places and profaning My Sabbaths. <sup>9</sup> There have been people in you who have slandered others to murder them. People in you have been eating sacrificial food on the mountains. They have been behaving lewdly in you. <sup>10</sup> Men in you have been having relations with their fathers’ wives. They have been violating women in you who are unclean during their periods. <sup>11</sup> One man has been doing what is disgusting with his neighbour’s wife. Another has been lewdly defiling his daughter-in-law. Another in you has violated his own sister, his father’s daughter. <sup>12</sup> People in you have been accepting bribes to commit murder. You have been charging interest and making an additional charge. You have been making profit from your neighbour through extortion. However, you have forgotten Me,” declares the Lord GOD.

that you have been making and at the murder that has been committed inside you. <sup>14</sup> Will your courage endure or will your hands be strong in the days when I deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken and I shall do it. <sup>15</sup> I shall scatter you among the nations and disperse you through the other countries. I shall completely rid you of your uncleanness. <sup>16</sup> The nations will see that you have become defiled in yourself. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>17</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>18</sup> “Son of man, the family of Israel has become dross to Me. All of them are bronze, tin, iron and lead inside a smelting-furnace. They have become the dross left from silver. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Because you have all become dross, look! I shall gather you into Jerusalem. <sup>20</sup> As silver, bronze, iron, lead and tin are put together in a smelting-furnace that people may blast fire on them to melt them, so I shall gather you in My anger and in My wrath, put you in and melt you. <sup>21</sup> I shall gather you and blow on you with the fire of My wrath, and you will be melted in it. <sup>22</sup> You will be melted in it as silver is melted in a smelting-furnace. Then you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out My wrath on you.””

<sup>23</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>24</sup> “Son of man, tell the city, ‘You are a land that has not been made clean. It will not be rained on in the day of indignation. <sup>25</sup> The conspiracy of its prophets inside it is like a roaring lion that is tearing its prey. They have been devouring human lives. They take treasure and precious belongings. They have turned many of its women that are in it into widows. <sup>26</sup> Its priests have been treating My law violently and have been profaning My holy things. They have not been distinguishing between what is holy and what is ordinary. They have not been teaching the difference between what is unclean and what is clean. They have been shutting their eyes to My Sabbaths, and I have become defiled among them. <sup>27</sup> Its princes inside it are like wolves that tear their prey. They commit murder. They destroy people’s lives to make dishonest profits. <sup>28</sup> Its prophets have been daubing whitewash for them. They see false visions and make lying predictions for them. They say, “This is what the Lord GOD has said,” when the LORD has not spoken. <sup>29</sup> The common people have been practising extortion and committing robbery. They have been oppressing poor and needy people. They have been unlawfully mistreating foreign residents. <sup>30</sup> When I searched for a man among them who might build up the wall and stand in the gap before Me on behalf of the land, to prevent Me from destroying it, I did not find anyone. <sup>31</sup> Therefore, I shall pour out My indignation on them. I shall consume them with the fire of My wrath. I shall bring down their conduct on their own heads,’ declares the Lord GOD.”

A condemnation of Samaria and Jerusalem for acting like prostitutes

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of the same mother. <sup>3</sup> They became prostitutes in Egypt. They became prostitutes when they were young. There men fondled their breasts and there they caressed their virgin nipples. <sup>4</sup> These were their names: The elder girl was named ‘Oholah,’<sup>*141</sup> and her sister was named ‘Oholibah’.<sup>*142</sup> They became Mine and gave birth to sons and daughters. Oholah is the name for Samaria, and Oholibah is the name for Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> Oholah practised prostitution although she was Mine. She longed for her Assyrian lovers, who were her neighbours. <sup>6</sup> They were clothed in purple wool. They were governors and state-officials. They were all desirable young men and riders mounted on horses. <sup>7</sup> She gave herself as a prostitute to all the important men in Assyria. She defiled herself with all the idols of all those after whom she lusted. <sup>8</sup> She did not give up her prostitution, which she had begun in Egypt. For, when she was young, men went to bed with her. They caressed her virgin breasts and poured out their obscene conduct on her. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, I handed her over to her lovers. I put her in the hands of the Assyrians, for whom she had been lusting. <sup>10</sup> These stripped her naked. They took away her sons and her daughters. They killed her with the sword. Women began to gossip about her when punishment had been inflicted on her. <sup>11</sup> “When her sister Oholibah saw this, she became more corrupt than her sister in her lust and in her prostitution. It was worse than the fornication of her sister. <sup>12</sup> She longed for the Assyrians. They were governors and state officials, who were her neighbours. They were clothed most opulently. They were riders mounted on horses. They were all desirable young men. <sup>13</sup> I saw that she had defiled herself. Both of them had been acting in the same way. <sup>14</sup> However, she went further in her prostitution. She saw carved pictures of men on the wall. They were the images of Chaldeans painted in bright red. <sup>15</sup> They were wearing belts on their waists and had flowing turbans on their heads. All of them resembled officers. They were like Babylonians, natives of Chaldea. <sup>16</sup> As soon as she saw them, she longed for them and sent messengers to them in Chaldea. <sup>17</sup> The Babylonians came to make love to her on her bed. They defiled her with their fornication. After they had defiled her, she turned away from them in disgust. <sup>18</sup> When she behaved openly as a prostitute and exposed her nakedness, I turned away from her in disgust, as I had turned away in disgust from her sister. <sup>19</sup> She practised even more of her prostitution as she remembered the time when she was young, when she had been a prostitute in Egypt.

<sup>20</sup> She lusted after their boyfriends, whose genitals were like those of donkeys and whose semen was like that of horses. <sup>21</sup> You longed to do the lewd things that you did when you were young, when the Egyptians caressed your nipples because you had young breasts.

<sup>22</sup> “Therefore, Oholibah, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Look! I shall stir up against you your lovers, from whom you have turned away in disgust. I shall bring them against you from every side, <sup>23</sup> the Babylonians, all the Chaldeans, Pekod, Shoa, Koa and all the Assyrians. They are all desirable young men, governors, state officials, officers and other highly regarded men. All of them ride on horses. <sup>24</sup> They will come against you with weapons, with chariots, wagons and many soldiers. They will take up positions against you on every side with large shields, small shields and helmets. I shall entrust the judgment to them. They will use their own kinds of verdicts to punish you. <sup>25</sup> I shall direct My jealousy against you, that they may deal with you in fury. They will cut off your nose and your ears, and your survivors will fall by the sword. They will take away your sons and your daughters, and those of you who are left will be devoured by fire. <sup>26</sup> They will also strip off your clothes and take away your beautiful jewels. <sup>27</sup> I shall put an end to your lewd conduct and your prostitution, which began in Egypt. You will not look longingly at these things or remember Egypt any longer.’

<sup>28</sup> “For this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Look! I shall hand you over to those whom you hate. I shall put you in the hands of those from whom you turned away in disgust. <sup>29</sup> They will treat you with hatred and take away everything for which you have worked. They will leave you naked and bare. The nakedness of your prostitution, your lewd conduct and your fornication will be exposed. <sup>30</sup> These things have brought this on you, because you have been acting as a prostitute with the nations, through defiling yourself with their idols. <sup>31</sup> You have been acting in the same way as your sister. Therefore, I shall put her cup in your hand.’

<sup>32</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘You will drink your sister’s cup, which is deep and wide. You will be laughed at and mocked. This cup holds a large amount. <sup>33</sup> You will be filled with drunkenness and agony. It is a cup of horror and desolation. It is the cup of your sister, Samaria. <sup>34</sup> You will drink it and drain it out. You will gnaw its fragments. You will tear your breasts. For I Myself have spoken,’ declares the Lord GOD. <sup>35</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Because you have forgotten Me and thrust Me behind your back, you yourself must bear the consequences of your lewd conduct and your prostitution.’”

<sup>36</sup> The LORD also said to me: “Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then tell them about their disgusting practices! <sup>37</sup> For they have been committing adultery and have blood on their hands. They have been committing adultery with their idols. They have even been presenting their children, whom they have borne to Me, as sacrifices to the idols as their food. <sup>38</sup> They have also been doing these things to Me. They have at the same time been defiling My Holy Place and have been profaning My Sabbaths. <sup>39</sup> For, when they have slaughtered their children for their idols, they have at the same time been coming into My Holy Place to profane it. Look! This is what they have been doing inside My Temple. <sup>40</sup> You people have even sent messengers to invite men to come from far away. Look! When they arrived, you washed yourself for them. You painted your eyes and decorated yourself with your jewellery. <sup>41</sup> You were sitting on an elegant couch, with a table in front of it that had been made ready, on which you had placed My incense and My olive-oil. <sup>42</sup> The sound of a carefree crowd was around her. Drunkards from the desert were brought in, even in addition to a crowd of common men. They put bracelets on the wrists of the women and beautiful crowns on their heads.

<sup>43</sup> “Then I said about this woman, who had been worn out by her urge to be adulterous, ‘Now they will continue to pay her for her prostitution, yes, even for hers!’ <sup>44</sup> They have had relations with her. They had relations with those lewd women, Oholah and Oholibah, as men have relations with a prostitute! <sup>45</sup> However, righteous men will sentence them to be punished as women who commit adultery and to be punished as women who commit murder. For they are adulteresses and have blood on their hands.’

A comparison of Jerusalem to a rusty cooking pot

<sup>1</sup> On the tenth day of the tenth month, in the ninth year, the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, write down the name of this day, this very day. The king of Babylon has thrown himself against Jerusalem on this very day. <sup>3</sup> Tell this rebellious family a parable! Tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Put the cooking-pot on the fire! Set it on! Pour water in it also! <sup>4</sup> Put the pieces of meat together in it, all the best pieces, the leg and the shoulder! Fill the pot with the best bones! <sup>5</sup> Take the pick of the flock!

Stack up the bones in their place! Boil it well, so that it also cooks the bones in it!”

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘How terrible it will be for this city, which is guilty of bloodshed, this pot, which has rust on it! Its rust will not come off! Take out its pieces of meat one at a time, without choosing any particular piece! <sup>7</sup> For the blood that it has shed is still inside it. It has poured the blood on the bare rock. It has not poured it out on the ground, where the dust would have covered it. <sup>8</sup> As a result, this has aroused My wrath, so that I shall take revenge. I shall pour out its blood on bare rock, so that it will not be covered.’

<sup>9</sup> “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘How terrible for this city, which is guilty of bloodshed! I Myself shall also make a high stack. <sup>10</sup> Pile up the pieces of wood! Light the fire! Boil the meat right through! Mix in the spices and let the bones be burnt up! <sup>11</sup> Then set the empty pot on the coals, that it may become hot, that its copper may burn, that the uncleanness inside it may be poured out and that its rust may be burnt off. <sup>12</sup> Effort has only caused weariness. Its thick rust will not come away from it. Let its rust go into the fire! <sup>13</sup> Lewd conduct is what has made you unclean. Because I would have cleansed you, but you have not become clean from your impurity, you will never become clean any longer until I have satisfied My fury on you. <sup>14</sup> I, the LORD, have spoken. It will happen. I shall do it. I shall not leave it unattended. I shall not spare. I shall not relent. You will be judged according to your conduct and your actions,’ declares the Lord GOD.”

Ezekiel's silent sorrow over his wife's death, which expressed grief over the destruction of Jerusalem

<sup>15</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>16</sup> “Son of man, look! I am about to take away from you by the plague the one whom your eyes delight to see. However, you shall not mourn, you shall not weep or shed any tears. <sup>17</sup> Sigh but do it silently! You shall not observe any of the ceremonial mourning for dead people! Wrap your turban around your head! You shall put your sandals on your feet! You shall not cover your moustache! You shall not eat the food that people eat!”

<sup>18</sup> So, I spoke to the people in the morning, and in the evening my wife died. The next morning I did as I had been commanded. <sup>19</sup> The people asked me, “Will you not tell us what these things that you are doing mean for us?”

<sup>20</sup> Then I told them, “The Word of the LORD came to me, <sup>21</sup> ‘Tell the family of Israel: “This is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Look! I shall profane My Holy Place, about which you boast so proudly, the thing that your eyes delight to see and the delight of your souls. Your sons and your daughters whom you left behind will also fall by the sword. <sup>22</sup> You shall do as I have been doing! You shall not cover your moustaches! You shall also not eat the food that people eat!’

<sup>23</sup> Your turbans shall be wrapped on your heads, and your sandals shall be put on your feet! You shall not mourn or weep but must rot away because of your sins and must groan to one another! <sup>24</sup> Ezekiel will be a sign to you. You must do exactly as he has been doing. When this happens, you will know that I am the Lord GOD.””

<sup>25</sup> “As for you, son of man, on the day when I take away from them their place of refuge, the splendid object of their joy, the thing that their eyes delight to see, the delight of their eyes and what their souls long for and when I take away their sons and daughters, will not <sup>26</sup> a certain fugitive come to you on that day to let you hear the news with your own ears? <sup>27</sup> On that day you shall open your mouth and speak to the fugitive! You shall not be silent any longer! You shall be a sign to them, that they may know that I am the LORD!”

25

A proclamation against Ammon

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, set your face toward the Ammonites and prophesy against them. <sup>3</sup> Tell the Ammonites, ‘Listen to the Word of the Lord GOD! This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Because you said, ‘Aha!’ over My Holy Place when it was profaned, over the land of Israel when it was stripped of inhabitants and over the family of Judah when they went into exile, <sup>4</sup> therefore look! I am handing you over to the people of the east. They will possess your land, so that they will set up their camps among you and make their dwellings among you. They will eat your produce and drink your milk. <sup>5</sup> I shall make Rabbah a pasture for camels and Ammon a resting-place for flocks. Then you will know that I am the LORD.””

<sup>6</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD has said: “Because you have been clapping your hands, stamping your feet and rejoicing with all the malice in your heart against the land of Israel, <sup>7</sup> Therefore, look! I shall stretch out My hand against you and hand you over to the nations as plunder. I shall cut you off from the other peoples and exterminate you from the other countries. I shall destroy you. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

A proclamation against Moab

<sup>8</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Because Moab and Seir have said, ‘Look! The family of Judah is like all the other nations,’ <sup>9</sup> therefore look! I shall expose the mountain-slope of Moab from the cities, from its cities that are on its frontier, which are the glory of the country, Beth-Jeshimoth, Baal-Meon and Kiriathaim. <sup>10</sup> I shall give it, together with the Ammonites, to the people of the East as a possession, so that the Ammonites will not be remembered any longer among the other nations. <sup>11</sup> I shall inflict punishment on Moab. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

A proclamation against Edom

<sup>12</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Because Edom has been trying to get revenge against the family of Judah and has become very guilty by taking revenge on them, <sup>13</sup> therefore this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘I shall stretch out My hand against Edom and wipe out human beings and animals in it. I shall make it a site of ruins. People will fall by the sword from Teman to Dedan. <sup>14</sup> I shall use My people Israel to take revenge on Edom. My people will deal with Edom in accordance with My anger and My wrath. Then they will know My retribution,”” declares the Lord GOD.

A proclamation against the Philistines

<sup>15</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Because the Philistines have been acting in vengeance and have taken revenge with malice in their hearts and with ancient hostility, to carry out destruction, <sup>16</sup> therefore this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Look! I shall stretch out My hand against the Philistines. I shall wipe out the Cherethites and exterminate what is left on the seacoast. <sup>17</sup> I shall carry out acts of severe revenge on them and rebuke them angrily. They will know that I am the LORD when I lay My revenge on them.””

26

A proclamation against Tyre

<sup>1</sup> On the first day of the month in the eleventh year, the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, because Tyre has been saying about Jerusalem, ‘Aha! The gateway of the peoples has been broken. It has been transferred to my possession. Let me be filled, now that it has been laid waste!’ <sup>3</sup> therefore this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Look! I am against you, Tyre. I shall bring up many nations against you, as the sea causes its waves to rise. <sup>4</sup> They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down its towers. I shall sweep its soil away from it and turn Tyre into a bare rock. <sup>5</sup> In the middle of the sea it will be a dry place where people spread out fishing-nets. For I Myself have spoken,”” declares the Lord GOD. “It will become plunder for the nations. <sup>6</sup> The sword will kill people in its daughter-settlements that are on the mainland. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>7</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I shall bring Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, the greatest king, against Tyre from the north, with horses and chariots and with horsemen and an army with many soldiers. <sup>8</sup> He will kill off your settlements on the mainland with the sword. He will set up a siege wall against you, throw up a siege-ramp against you and raise a roof of shields against you. <sup>9</sup> He will direct the blows of his battering-rams against your walls and break down your towers with his chisels. <sup>10</sup> Because of the huge number of his horses, their fine dust will cover you. Because of the noise of the horsemen, wagons and chariots, your walls will shake when he enters through your gates as men enter a city when its walls have been broken. <sup>11</sup> He will trample all your streets with the hoofs of his horses. He will kill your people with the sword, and your strong stone-pillars will fall to the ground. <sup>12</sup> They will rob your riches and plunder your merchandise. They will break down your walls and tear down your delightful houses. They will throw your stones, timbers and soil into the water. <sup>13</sup> I shall put a stop to your noisy songs, and the music of your lyres will not be heard any longer. <sup>14</sup> I shall make you a bare rock. You will be a dry place where people spread out fishing-nets. You will not be rebuilt. For I Myself, the LORD, have spoken,” says the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has asked Tyre: “Will the coastlands not shake at the sound of your fall, when wounded people groan, when people are slaughtered inside you? <sup>16</sup> Then all the princes on the sea-coast will come down from their thrones. They will remove their robes and take off their colourful woven garments. They will clothe themselves with terror. They will sit on the ground, tremble constantly and shudder at you. <sup>17</sup> They will raise a lamentation over you and say to you: ‘How you have been destroyed, you who had been settled from the seas, you highly-praised city, you who had been powerful on the sea, you and the people who lived in you, who had imposed their terror on all its inhabitants!’ <sup>18</sup> Now the coastlands will tremble on the day when you fall. The coastlands, which are beside the sea, will be dismayed at your collapse.”

<sup>19</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD has said: “When I turn you into a desolate city, like cities that have no one living in them, when I bring up the deep ocean over you and when the vast waters cover you, <sup>20</sup> then I shall bring you down with those who go down to the pit, to the people of long ago. I shall make you live in the world below, like the ancient ruins, with those who go down to the pit, so that you will not be inhabited. However, I shall set splendour in the land of the living. <sup>21</sup> I shall assign you to sudden terror, and you will be no more. When people look for you, you will never be found again,” declares the Lord GOD.

A lamentation over Tyre

of Cyprus and inlaid them with ivory. <sup>7</sup> Your sails have been made of fine embroidered linen from Egypt and been serving as your flags. Your coverings have been blue and purple cloths from the coasts of Elishah. <sup>8</sup> People who were living in Sidon and Arvad have been your oarsmen. Your skilful men, O Tyre, have been inside your city. They have been your sailors. <sup>9</sup> The elders of Gebal and its skilful men have been in you, caulking your seams. All the ships of the sea with their mariners have been in you to trade your merchandise. <sup>10</sup> Men from Persia, Lydia and Libya have been in your army as your soldiers. They have hung their shields and helmets in you. They have made you splendid. <sup>11</sup> Men from Arvad and Helech have been on your walls all around, and men of Gamad have been in your towers. They have hung their round shields all around your walls. They have made your beauty perfect. <sup>12</sup> Tarshish has been trading with you because of your great wealth of every kind. They have been exchanging silver, iron, tin and lead for your merchandise. <sup>13</sup> People from Ionia, Tubal and Meshech have been trading with you. They have been exchanging human beings and bronze articles for your merchandise. <sup>14</sup> People from Beth-Togarmah have been exchanging horses, war-horses and mules for your merchandise. <sup>15</sup> Men from Dedan have been trading with you. Many coastlands have been your commercial agents. They have been bringing back ivory tusks and ebony as payment for your goods. <sup>16</sup> Aram has been trading with you because of your many products. They have been exchanging precious stones, purple wool, embroidered cloth, fine linen, corals and rubies for your merchandise. <sup>17</sup> Judah and Israel have been trading with you. They have been exchanging wheat from Minnith, baked goods, honey, olive-oil and balsam for your merchandise. <sup>18</sup> Damascus has been trading with you for your many products, because of your great wealth of every kind. It has been exchanging wine from Helbon and wool from Sahar. <sup>19</sup> People from Dan and Greeks from Uzal have been trading for your merchandise. They have been exchanging wrought iron, cinnamon and sweet cane for your merchandise. <sup>20</sup> Dedan has been trading saddle blankets with you. <sup>21</sup> Arabia and all the princes of Kedar have been your commercial agents. They have been trading with you in lambs, rams and goats. <sup>22</sup> The merchants from Sheba and Raamah have been trading with you. They have been exchanging the best of all kinds of spices, all precious stones and gold for your merchandise. <sup>23</sup> Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Assyria and Kilmad have been trading with you. <sup>24</sup> They have been trading with you in your marketplaces for splendid clothes, purple robes, embroidered cloth and in multicoloured rugs of twisted and tightly knotted cords. <sup>25</sup> The ships of Tarshish have been your carriers for your merchandise. You have been filled with very heavy cargo in the middle of the sea.”

<sup>26</sup> “Your oarsmen have brought you out into the high seas. The east wind has wrecked you in the middle of the sea. <sup>27</sup> Your riches, your merchandise, the goods that you sell, your mariners, your seamen, those who caulk your seams, your traders in merchandise, all your men of war who are in you and all your crews, which are in you, will sink into the middle of the sea on the day when you are ruined. <sup>28</sup> Your shore-lands will quake at the sound when your seamen cry out. <sup>29</sup> All who handle the oars, the seamen and all the other mariners will disembark from their ships and stand on the shore. <sup>30</sup> They will wail aloud and cry out bitterly over you. They will put dust on their heads and roll in ashes. <sup>31</sup> They will shave a bare patch on their heads because of you and put sackcloth on their waists. They will weep over you with bitter hearts and bitter mourning. <sup>32</sup> In their wailing they will take up their funeral-song for you and lament over you: ‘What else is like Tyre, like something that is destroyed in the middle of the sea?’ <sup>33</sup> When your merchandise went out on the seas, you satisfied many peoples. You enriched the kings of the earth with your great wealth and goods for trade. <sup>34</sup> When the seas broke you up in the deep water, your merchandise and all the crews in you have sunk down. <sup>35</sup> All those who are living on the coastlands have been appalled because of you. The hair of their kings has bristled with horror. Their faces have been troubled. <sup>36</sup> The traders among the other peoples have been whistling because of you. You have become a sudden terror and will never exist again.”

28

A proclamation against the king of Tyre

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, tell the ruler of Tyre, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Because you are arrogant, you have been saying, ‘I am a god. I have been sitting on the throne of God in the middle of the sea.’ However, you are only a human being and not God, although you have resolved to be as wise as God is. <sup>3</sup> Indeed, you are wiser than Daniel is. Nothing secret has been hidden from you. <sup>4</sup> You have been using your wisdom and understanding to acquire wealth for yourself. You have been putting gold and silver into your treasuries. <sup>5</sup> You have increased your wealth by using your great skill in trading. Your wealth has made you arrogant.””

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: “Because you have resolved to be as wise as God is, <sup>7</sup> therefore look! I shall bring foreigners against you, the most ruthless of the nations. They will draw their swords against your beautiful wisdom and defile your splendour. <sup>8</sup> They will throw you down into the pit, and you will die the death of those who are killed in the middle of the sea. <sup>9</sup> Will you still say, ‘I am God,’ in the presence of those who kill you? You will be only a human being and not God, in the hands of those who are thrusting you through. <sup>10</sup> You will die the death of uncircumcised men at the hands of foreigners. For I Myself have spoken,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>11</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>12</sup> “Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre! You shall tell him, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “You used to be a perfect example, full of wisdom and perfectly beautiful. <sup>13</sup> You were in Eden, the garden of God. You were covered with every kind of precious stone: sardius, topaz, emerald, jasper, carnelian, jade, sapphire, purple garnet and carbuncle. Your jewelled pendants and settings were worked in gold. They were prepared on the day when you were created. <sup>14</sup> You were a cherub with spreading wings, which gave protection. When I was appointing you, you were on the holy mountain of God. You walked among flashing stones. <sup>15</sup> Your conduct was blameless from the day when you were created, until wickedness was found in you. <sup>16</sup> When your trading was extensive, your heart was filled with violence. When you sinned, I deposed you in disgrace from the mountain of God. I brought calamity on you, you cherub, who had given protection. I removed you from among the flashing stones. <sup>17</sup> You were arrogant because of your beauty. You corrupted your wisdom because of your splendour. I threw you to the ground. I put you in front of kings that they might gloat over you. <sup>18</sup> You defiled your own holy places because of your many sins and dishonest trade. So, I made a fire come out of you, which consumed you. I turned you to ashes on the ground while all who saw you were watching. <sup>19</sup> All who know you among the peoples have been horrified because of you. You have come to a terrible end and will never exist again.””

A proclamation against Sidon

<sup>20</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>21</sup> “Son of man, set your face against Sidon and prophesy against it! <sup>22</sup> You shall say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I am against you, Sidon. I shall show My glory inside you. Then people will know that I am the LORD, when I inflict punishment on it and show My holiness through it. <sup>23</sup> I shall send a plague against it and make blood flow in its streets. People will fall slain inside it because of the sword, which is against it on every side. Then they will know that I am the LORD. <sup>24</sup> The family of Israel will no longer have a painful brier or an agonising thorn among all their neighbours, who used to despise them. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD.””

A promise of blessing for Israel

<sup>25</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “When I gather the family of Israel from the peoples among whom they have been scattered, I shall show My holiness in them while the nations are watching. Then they will live in their own land, which I gave to My servant Jacob. <sup>26</sup> They will live securely in it. They will build houses and plant vineyards. They will live securely when I inflict punishments on all the surrounding people who used to despise them. Then they will know that I am the LORD, their God.”

29

A proclamation against Egypt

<sup>1</sup> On the twelfth day of the tenth month, in the tenth year, the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. <sup>3</sup> You shall say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I am against you, Pharaoh, king of Egypt. You are the large water-monster that lies in the middle of his branches of the Nile. He has been saying, ‘My Nile is my own. I have made it for myself.’ <sup>4</sup> I shall put hooks in your jaws and make the fish of your branches of the Nile stick to your scales. I shall pull you out of your branches of the Nile, together with all the fish of your Nile branches. They will be sticking to your scales. <sup>5</sup> I shall throw you out into the desert, you and all the fish of your branches of the Nile. You will fall on the surface of the open country, and no one will pick you up or gather you. I shall give you as food to the wild animals and to the birds of the sky.

<sup>6</sup> Then all those who are living in Egypt will know that I am the LORD. For you have been a walking stick made out of a reed to the family of Israel.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I shall bring a sword against you and cut off from you human beings and animals. <sup>9</sup> The land of Egypt will become a wasteland and a pile of rubble. Then people will know that I am the LORD. For he has been saying, ‘The Nile is mine, and I have made it.’ <sup>10</sup> Therefore, look! I am against you and against your branches of the Nile. I shall turn the land of Egypt into a barren and desolate pile of rubble from Migdol to Syene and as far as the border of Cush.

<sup>11</sup> No human being will walk through it. No animal will walk through it. No one will live there for forty years. <sup>12</sup> I shall make the land of Egypt more desolate than any other desolated countries. For forty years its cities will be more desolate than other cities that have been laid waste. I shall disperse the Egyptians among the nations and scatter them through other countries.”

<sup>13</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD has said: “After forty years I shall gather the Egyptians from the other peoples, where they have been dispersed. <sup>14</sup> I shall bring back the Egyptian captives and bring them back to the land of Pathros, the land of their origin, and there they will be a lowly kingdom. <sup>15</sup> It will be more lowly than the other kingdoms. It will not raise itself above the other nations any longer. I shall make them so small that they will not rule over the other nations.

<sup>16</sup> The family of Israel will not rely on Egypt any longer. It will remind the Israelites of its sin when they turned to them for support. Then they will know that I am the Lord GOD.”

A prediction that Babylon will plunder Egypt

<sup>17</sup> On the first day of the first month in the twenty-seventh year, the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>18</sup> “Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon made his army work extremely hard against Tyre. Every head was given a bald patch, and every shoulder was rubbed raw. Nevertheless, he and his army gained no reward at Tyre for the effort that they made against it. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Look! I shall give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon. He will carry off its wealth. He will take loot and plunder from the land to be the wages for his army. <sup>20</sup> I have given him the land of Egypt as his payment, for which he has laboured. For he and his army have done it for Me,’” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>21</sup> “On that day I shall cause a horn to sprout up for the family of Israel and give you the ability to speak among them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

A lamentation for Egypt

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, prophesy and say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Wail, ‘How sad for the day!’ <sup>3</sup> For the day is near. The day of the LORD is near. It will be a cloudy day, a crucial time for the nations. <sup>4</sup> A sword will come against Egypt, and anguish will come on Cush, when people fall slain in Egypt. Its wealth will be taken away, and its foundations will be broken up. <sup>5</sup> Cush, Put and Lydia, all the mixed races, Kub and the people belonging to the land of the Covenant will fall by the sword together with Egypt.””

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “Those who support Egypt will fall. Its majestic power will come down. People will fall in it by the sword from Migdol to Syene,” declares the Lord GOD. <sup>7</sup> “They will be more desolate than other desolated countries, and their cities will be laid waste more than other ruined cities.

<sup>8</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I set fire to Egypt. All those who assist it will be shattered.

<sup>9</sup> On that day messengers will go out from Me in ships to terrify the complacent people of Cush. Anguish will come on them on the crucial day for Egypt. For look! It is coming!”

<sup>10</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “I shall use Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, to put an end to the wealth of Egypt. <sup>11</sup> He and his people with him, the most ruthless among the nations, will be brought in to destroy the land. They will draw their swords against Egypt and fill the land with dead bodies. <sup>12</sup> I shall turn the branches of the Nile into dry land. I shall sell the land into the hands of wicked people. I shall use foreign people to bring desolation on the land and on everything in it. I Myself, the LORD, have spoken.”

<sup>13</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “I shall destroy the idols and put an end to the images at Memphis. There will not be a prince from the land of Egypt any longer. I shall put fear in the land of Egypt. <sup>14</sup> I shall cause Pathros to be deserted, set fire to Zoan and inflict punishments on Thebes. <sup>15</sup> I shall pour out My wrath on Pelusium, the fortress of Egypt, and cut off very many people in Thebes. <sup>16</sup> I shall set fire to Egypt. Pelusium will writhe in agony. Thebes will be broken through and Memphis will face enemies in broad daylight. <sup>17</sup> The young men of Aven and of Pi-Beseth will fall by the sword and these cities will go into captivity. <sup>18</sup> At Tehaphnehes the day will hold back when I break the yoke-bars of Egypt there. Its proud strength will come to an end in it. As for Egypt, a cloud will cover it and its villages will go into captivity. <sup>19</sup> When I inflict punishments on Egypt they will know that I am the LORD.”

A proclamation against Pharaoh

<sup>20</sup> On the seventh day of the first month in the eleventh year, the Word of the LORD came to me:

<sup>21</sup> “Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. Look! It has not been bandaged to heal it. It has not had a splint put on it to tie it up, that it may become strong enough to take hold of a sword.”

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I am against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. I shall break his arms, both the strong arm and the broken one. I shall knock the sword out of his hand. <sup>23</sup> I shall scatter the Egyptians among the other nations and disperse them through the other countries. <sup>24</sup> I shall make the arms of the king of Babylon strong and put My sword in his hand. However, I shall break the arms of Pharaoh, and he will groan in front of him like a fatally wounded man. <sup>25</sup> I shall strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, but the arms of Pharaoh will drop down. Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I put My sword in the hand of the king of Babylon, and he stretches it out against the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup> I shall scatter the Egyptians among the other nations and disperse them throughout the other countries. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

A prediction that Egypt will be conquered as Assyria has been conquered

<sup>1</sup> On the first day of the third month, in the eleventh year, the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, ask Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and his many people: ‘To whom may you be compared in your greatness? <sup>3</sup> Look! Assyria was a cedar in Lebanon, with beautiful branches that shaded the forest. It was very high, and its top went through the thick boughs. <sup>4</sup> Waters made the tree grow. Underground-springs made it tall. Streams flowed around the place where the tree had been planted, and its channels let water flow to all the other trees in the area. <sup>5</sup> That is why it towered high above all the other trees in the area. Its boughs became numerous, and its branches became long because there was plenty of water where it sent out its roots. <sup>6</sup> All the birds of the sky made their nests in its twigs. All the wild animals gave birth to their young under its branches. All the great nations lived in its shade. <sup>7</sup> Its great size and its long, leafy branches were beautiful. For its roots went down to copious water. <sup>8</sup> The cedar-trees in the garden of God could not surpass it. The juniper-trees could not match its twigs. The plane trees had no branches like those of this tree. No tree in the garden of God could equal it in beauty. <sup>9</sup> I had made it beautiful with its many leafy branches. All the trees in Eden, which were in the garden of God, envied it.”

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: “Because it has grown very high and set its top up among the leafy branches and because it was proud of being so high, <sup>11</sup> I shall hand it over to a ruler among the nations. He will certainly deal with it. So, I drove it out, as its wickedness deserved. <sup>12</sup> Foreigners, the most ruthless of the nations, have cut it down and made it fall. Its branches have fallen on the mountains and in all the valleys. Its boughs have been broken in all the streambeds of the land. All the peoples of the earth have gone down from its shade and have left it. <sup>13</sup> All the birds of the sky have perched on its fallen trunk, and all the wild animals have been among its branches. <sup>14</sup> This has happened that no trees growing beside water may become arrogant because of their height and may not set their tops up among the thick foliage and that no other trees among all those that are well-watered may reach up as high as they have. For they have all been consigned to death, to the world below, to be among the children of Adam, to go to those who go down to the pit.”

<sup>15</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “I caused mourning on the day when the cedar went down to Sheol. I closed off the underground-springs because of it and held back its streams. The many sources of water were restrained. I dressed Lebanon in mourning clothes because of it. All the other trees in the area withered because of it. <sup>16</sup> I made the other nations tremble at the sound of its fall, when I cast it down to Sheol with those who go down to the pit. All the trees of Eden, the choicest and best ones in Lebanon, all that were well watered, were consoled in the world below. <sup>17</sup> They also went down to Sheol with it, to those who had been killed by the sword. They had also been its auxiliaries and had been living in its shade among the nations. <sup>18</sup> Which among the trees of Eden have you resembled in this way in glory and in greatness? Nevertheless, you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the world below. You will lie among the uncircumcised, with those whom the sword has killed. This tree is Pharaoh and all his many people,” declares the Lord GOD.

32

A lamentation over Pharaoh and Egypt

<sup>1</sup> On the first day of the twelfth month in the twelfth year, the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh, the king of Egypt! You shall tell him: ‘You thought that you were like a lion among the nations but are like a monster in the waters. You have been thrashing about in your streams, churning up the water with your feet and making its streams muddy.’”

<sup>3</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “I shall spread My net over you, when many peoples have assembled, and they will haul you up in My dragnet. <sup>4</sup> I shall throw you down on the ground. I shall fling you over an open field. I shall make all the birds of the sky perch on you and make the animals of the whole earth have enough to eat from you. <sup>5</sup> I shall lay your flesh on the mountains and fill the valleys with your rotting carcass. <sup>6</sup> I shall drench the land with your flowing blood as far as the mountains. The ravines will be full of you. <sup>7</sup> When I put out your light, I shall cover the sky and darken its stars. I shall cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not give its light. <sup>8</sup> I shall darken all the shining lights in the sky above you. I shall put darkness on your land,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>9</sup> “I shall disturb the hearts of many peoples, when I bring the news of your collapse among the nations, into lands that you have not known. <sup>10</sup> I shall make many peoples dumbfounded because of you. The hair of their kings will bristle with horror because of you, when I swing My sword before them. On the day when you fall, each of them will tremble every moment for his own life.”

<sup>11</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD has said: “The sword of the king of Babylon will come against you.

<sup>12</sup> I shall cause your many people to fall by the swords of warriors. All of them will be the most ruthless among the nations. They will smash the pride of Egypt, and all its many people will be destroyed. <sup>13</sup> I shall destroy all its animals beside many streams of water. The feet of human beings will not churn the water up any longer, and the hoofs of animals will not make it muddy. <sup>14</sup> Then I shall make their water settle and cause their streams to flow like olive-oil,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>15</sup> “When I turn Egypt into a wasteland, when the land has been stripped of everything that had filled it and when I have struck down all who are living in it, they will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>16</sup> This is a funeral-song. The women of the nations will chant this funeral-song for Egypt. They will chant the funeral-song over it, over Egypt and over all its many people. They will chant a funeral-song for it,” declares the Lord God.

A prediction that the Egyptians will join the other nations in the grave

<sup>17</sup> On the fifteenth day of the month, in the twelfth year, the Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>18</sup> “Son of man, mourn over the many people of Egypt! Send them down, along with the daughters of other mighty nations, to the world below, to those who go down to the pit: <sup>19</sup> ‘Whom have you surpassed in beauty? Go down and be laid to rest with uncircumcised people!’

<sup>20</sup> The Egyptians will fall among those who have been slain by the sword. Egypt has been consigned to the sword. Drag it away, together with all its many people! <sup>21</sup> The mightiest warriors will speak in the middle of Sheol to Pharaoh together with his allies: ‘The uncircumcised people have come down and have lain down, struck down by the sword.’ <sup>22</sup> Assyria and all its company are there. Its graves are all around it. All of them have been slain. They have fallen by the sword. <sup>23</sup> The graves of Assyria have been made in the innermost parts of the pit. Its company is all around its grave. All of them have been slain. Those who had caused terror in the land of the living have fallen by the sword.

<sup>24</sup> “Elam is there and all its many people, around its grave. All of them have been slain. They have fallen by the sword and gone down uncircumcised to the world below. They had terrified people in the land of the living. They have borne their disgrace with those who go down to the pit. <sup>25</sup> A bed has been assigned to Elam among the slain with all its many people. Its graves are all around it. All of them are uncircumcised and have been slain by the sword. For they had terrified others in the land of the living. They have borne their disgrace with those who go down to the pit. Elam has been put among those who have been slain.

<sup>26</sup> “Meshech and Tubal are there, and all their many people. Their graves are all around them. All of them are uncircumcised. They have been slain by the sword. For they terrified people in the land of the living. <sup>27</sup> They do not lie with the fallen uncircumcised warriors who have gone down to Sheol with their weapons of war. Their swords have been placed under their heads. Their wrongs have been laid on their bones. For as warriors they have terrified others in the land of the living. <sup>28</sup> However, as for you, [Pharaoh], you will be broken and lie among uncircumcised people, with those who have been slain by the sword.

<sup>29</sup> “Edom is there, with its kings and all its princes. Despite all their strength, they have been laid with those who have been slain by the sword. They lie with uncircumcised people, with those who go down to the pit.

<sup>30</sup> “The clan-leaders of the north are there, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who have gone down in shame with those who have been slain, although they have used their strength to terrify others. They lie uncircumcised with those who have been slain by the sword. They have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit.

31 “When Pharaoh sees them, Pharaoh himself, together with his whole army, will be consoled for all his many people, who have been slain by the sword,” declares the Lord GOD. 32 “For I have had him cause terror in the land of the living. Pharaoh himself, together with all his many people, will be laid to rest among those who are uncircumcised, with those who have been slain by the sword,” declares the Lord GOD.

The call of Ezekiel to be a watchman for Israel

1 The Word of the LORD came to me: 2 “Son of man, speak to your countrymen and tell them, ‘If I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land choose one of their men and make him their watchman, 3 and, if he sees the sword coming against the land and blows the trumpet and warns the people, 4 then if anyone who hears the sound of the trumpet ignores the warning, and the sword comes and takes his life, his blood will be on his own head. 5 He has heard the sound of the trumpet but ignored its warning. His blood will be on himself. However, if he has taken the warning, he will have saved his life. 6 However, if the watchman sees the sword coming and does not blow his trumpet, so that he fails to warn the people, and the sword comes and takes the life of one of them, that person has been taken away because of his sin. However, I shall hold that watchman responsible for his death.’

7 “As for you, son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman for the family of Israel. You shall listen to what I say and give them a warning from Me! 8 When I tell a wicked person, ‘You wicked person, you will certainly die!’ and you do not speak to warn the wicked person to turn from his way, that wicked person will die in his wickedness, but I shall hold you responsible for his death. 9 However, if you warn a wicked person to turn from his way, and he has not turned from his way, he will die because of his sin. However, you yourself will have saved your own life.

A statement of God’s justice and mercy

10 “As for you, son of man, tell the family of Israel, ‘This is what you have been saying: “Our wrongdoings and our sins are weighing us down. We are wasting away because of them. How, then, can we live?”’

11 “Tell them, ‘As surely as I live,’ declares the Lord GOD, ‘I certainly take no pleasure in the death of a wicked person. Rather, I take pleasure in the wicked person’s turning from his way that he may live. Turn back! Turn back from your evil ways! Why, then, will you die, family of Israel?’

12 “As for you, son of man, tell your countrymen, ‘The righteousness of a righteous person will not deliver him on the day when he rebels. On the day when a wicked person turns from his wickedness, he will not stumble because of his wickedness. The righteous person will not be able to live because of his righteousness on the day when he sins. 13 When I promise a righteous person that he will certainly live, and he then trusts in his own righteousness and commits evil, none of his righteous deeds will be remembered. Rather, he will die because of his evil, which he has committed. 14 When I tell a wicked person, “You will certainly die,” and he then turns away from his sin and does what is just and right, 15 if the wicked person returns the security for a loan, makes restitution for what he has stolen, lives by the Statutes of life and does not commit evil, then he will certainly live. He will not die. 16 None of his sins, which he has committed, will be remembered against him. He has done what is just and right. He will certainly live.’

17 “However, your countrymen are saying, ‘The Way of the Lord is not just,’ when it is their own way that is not just. 18 When a righteous person turns away from his righteousness and commits evil, he will die because of it. 19 When a wicked person turns away from his wickedness and does what is just and right, he will live because of it. 20 Nevertheless, you are saying, ‘The Way of the Lord is not just.’ You family of Israel, I shall judge each of you according to his own ways.”

A report about the capture of Jerusalem

21 On the fifth day of the tenth month, in the twelfth year of our captivity, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me and said, “The city has been captured.”

22 In the evening before the man who had escaped arrived, the hand of the LORD had come on me. He had opened my mouth by the time the man came to me in the morning. Therefore, my mouth was opened, and I was not silenced any longer.

A prediction of calamity for the survivors in Jerusalem

23 The Word of the LORD came to me: 24 “Son of man, the people who are living in these ruined places in the land of Israel keep saying, ‘Abraham was only one man, yet he gained possession of the land. However, we are many. The land has been given to us as our possession.’ 25 Therefore, tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “You are eating meat with the blood in it. You are looking up to your idols. You are murdering people. Should you, then, possess the land? 26 You have been relying on your swords. You have been doing detestable things. Each of you is defiling his neighbour’s wife. Should you, then, possess the land?”’

27 “This is what you shall tell them: ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “As surely as I live, those who are in the ruined places will certainly fall by the sword. I shall give anyone who is in the open field to the wild animals to devour. Those who are in strongholds and in caves will die from the plague. 28 I shall make the land a desolate waste. Its proud strength will come to an end. The mountains of Israel will be so desolate that no one goes across them. 29 Then they will know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolate waste because of all their detestable things, which they have been committing.”

<sup>30</sup> “As for you, son of man, your countrymen, who are talking together about you beside the walls and in the doorways of the houses, have each been telling one another: ‘Please, come and listen to what the Word is that is coming from the LORD!’ <sup>31</sup> They have been coming to you as people usually come. They have been sitting in front of you as if they were My people. They are listening to what you are saying but will not carry it out. For, although they are acting with devotion in their mouths, their hearts are pursuing their unjust gain. <sup>32</sup> Look! They regard you as a love-song sung with a beautiful voice and as one who plays well on an instrument. Although they listen to what you are saying, they do not put it into practice. <sup>33</sup> When this happens, and it will certainly happen, then they will know that a prophet has been among them.”

34

A promise that God Himself will take care of His sheep, because the shepherds of Israel have not been good shepherds

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel! Prophesy! You shall tell these shepherds: ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “How terrible it will be for the shepherds of Israel, who have been taking care only of themselves! Should not shepherds take care of the sheep? <sup>3</sup> You eat the fat parts. You clothe yourselves with the wool. You slaughter the fat animals. You do not take care of the sheep. <sup>4</sup> You have not strengthened the weak ones or healed the sick ones; you have not bandaged the injured ones or brought back the scattered ones; you have not searched for the lost ones and have ruled them harshly and violently. <sup>5</sup> They have scattered because there has been no shepherd. They became food for all the wild animals when they were scattered. <sup>6</sup> My sheep are going astray through all the mountains and over every high hill. My sheep have been dispersed over the whole surface of the earth, with no one searching for them and no one trying to find them.”’

<sup>7</sup> “Therefore, shepherds, listen to the Word of the LORD: <sup>8</sup> ‘As surely as I live,’ declares the Lord GOD, ‘the reason why My sheep have become a prey and My sheep have become food for all the wild animals is certainly that there has been no shepherd. My shepherds have not been searching for My sheep but have been taking care only of themselves and have not been taking care of My sheep. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, shepherds, listen to the Word of the LORD: <sup>10</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I am against the shepherds. I shall hold them accountable for My sheep. I shall dismiss them from taking care of the sheep. The shepherds will not take care only of themselves any longer. I shall rescue My sheep from their mouths, to prevent them from being food for them.”’”

Myself shall search for My sheep and look after them.

<sup>12</sup> As a shepherd cares for his flock when he is among his scattered sheep, so I shall look after My sheep. I shall rescue them from all the places where they have been scattered on a cloudy and very gloomy day. <sup>13</sup> I shall bring them out from the peoples, gather them from the countries and bring them to their own land. I shall be a shepherd to them on the mountains of Israel, in the ravines and in all the inhabited places of the land. <sup>14</sup> I shall look after them in good pasture, and their grazing-land will be on the mountain-heights of Israel. There they will lie down in good grazing-land and graze in rich pasture on the mountains of Israel. <sup>15</sup> I Myself shall shepherd My sheep and I Myself shall let them lie down,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>16</sup> “I shall search for the lost ones, bring back those that have been scattered, bandage the injured ones and strengthen the sick ones. I shall destroy the ones that are fat and the strong. I shall shepherd them with justice.

<sup>17</sup> “As for you, My flock, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Look! I judge between individual sheep and between rams and male goats. <sup>18</sup> Is it not enough for you to feed on the good pasture, that you must trample the rest of your pasture with your feet? Is it not enough for you to drink water that has settled that you must make the rest of the water muddy with your feet? <sup>19</sup> Must My sheep feed on what you have trampled with your feet and drink what you have made muddy with your feet?’”

<sup>20</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said to them: “Look! I, yes, I Myself, shall judge between a fat sheep and a lean sheep. <sup>21</sup> Because you shove with your sides and shoulders and butt all the weak animals away with your horns until you have scattered them to the outside, <sup>22</sup> I shall save My flock, that they may not be something to plunder any longer. I shall judge between one sheep and another.

A promise of one Messianic Shepherd and a Covenant of peace

<sup>23</sup> “I shall appoint one Shepherd over them, My Servant David, and He will shepherd them. He will take care of them and He Himself will be their Shepherd.

<sup>24</sup> I Myself, the LORD, shall be their God, and My Servant David will be the Prince among them. I Myself, the LORD, have spoken.

<sup>25</sup> “I shall make a Covenant of peace with them and rid the land of wild animals, that they may live safely in the wilderness and sleep in the woods. <sup>26</sup> I shall make them and the places around My hill a blessing. I shall send the rain at the right time. There will be showers of blessing. <sup>27</sup> Then the trees in the field will produce their fruit, and the earth will yield its crops. People will live safely on their own land. They will know that I am the LORD when I break the bars of their yokes and rescue them from the hands of those who had enslaved them. <sup>28</sup> The nations will not plunder them any longer, and the wild animals will not devour them. They will live securely, and no one will make them afraid. <sup>29</sup> I shall provide for them a place that is renowned for its good crops. No people will be carried off by hunger in the land any longer, and they will not suffer the insults of the nations any longer. <sup>30</sup> They will know that I, the LORD, their God, am with them and that they, the family of Israel, are My people,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>31</sup> “You are My sheep, the sheep of My pasture. You are human beings, and I am your God,” declares the Lord GOD.

35

A proclamation against Edom

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, set your face against Mount Seir and prophesy against it! <sup>3</sup> You shall tell it, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I am against you, Mount Seir. I shall stretch out My hand against you and make you a desolate waste. <sup>4</sup> I shall turn your cities into ruins, and you will become a wasteland. Then you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>5</sup> Because you have always been an enemy of Israel and have handed the Israelites over to the sword at the time of their calamity, at the time of their final punishment, <sup>6</sup> therefore, as surely as I live,” declares the Lord GOD, “I shall prepare you for bloodshed, and bloodshed will pursue you. Since you have not hated bloodshed, bloodshed will pursue you. <sup>7</sup> I shall make Mount Seir a desolate waste and cut off from it all who go there and come from there. <sup>8</sup> I shall fill its mountains with people who have been killed. People killed by the sword will fall on your hills, in your valleys and in all your ravines. <sup>9</sup> I shall turn you into a permanent wasteland. No one will live in your cities. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup> “Because you have been saying, ‘These two nations and these two countries will be mine, and we shall take possession of them’ — even though the LORD has been there — <sup>11</sup> ‘therefore, as surely as I live,’ declares the Lord GOD, ‘I shall do to you what you have done to them in your anger and your envy, because you hate them. I shall also make Myself known among them when I judge you. <sup>12</sup> Then you will know that I am the LORD. I have heard all the insults that you have been speaking against the mountains of Israel. You have been saying: “They have been deserted. They have been handed over to us to devour.”

<sup>13</sup> “You have been using your mouths to magnify yourselves against Me. You have been speaking against Me profusely. I have heard it.”

<sup>14</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “The whole world will be glad when I turn you into a wasteland.

<sup>15</sup> Because you were glad because the inheritance of the family of Israel became desolate, that is how I shall treat you. You will become a wasteland, Mount Seir, and so will all Edom, all of it. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

A prophecy of blessings for the mountains of Israel

<sup>1</sup> “As for you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel! You shall say, ‘You mountains of Israel, listen to the Word of the LORD! <sup>2</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Because the enemy has been saying about you, ‘Aha!’ and, ‘The ancient heights have become our possession,’ <sup>3</sup> therefore prophesy! Say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Precisely because they have made you desolate and pestered you from all sides, so that you have become the possession of the rest of the nations, and people have been talking maliciously and gossiping about you, <sup>4</sup> therefore, mountains of Israel, listen to the Word of the Lord GOD: This is what the Lord GOD has said to the mountains, the hills, the ravines, the valleys, the desolate wastes and the abandoned cities, which have been plundered and mocked by the rest of the surrounding nations: <sup>5</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘I have certainly spoken in My fiery zeal against the rest of the nations and against all Edom.’”””””

“They have given My land to themselves as a possession with wholehearted joy and deep disdain, that they may plunder its pasturelands. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, prophesy about the land of Israel! You shall tell the mountains, the hills, the ravines and the valleys, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I have spoken in My zeal and My wrath, because you have suffered the insults of the nations.”

<sup>7</sup> “Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘I have raised My hand to swear that the nations that are all around you will certainly suffer for their own insults.’

<sup>8</sup> “However, O mountains of Israel, you will put forth your branches and bear your fruit for My people Israel. For they will soon come back in. <sup>9</sup> For look! I am for you. I shall turn toward you, and you will be cultivated and sown. <sup>10</sup> I shall increase the number of people on you. The whole family of Israel, all of it, will live on you. The cities will be inhabited, and the ruined places will be rebuilt. <sup>11</sup> I shall increase the number of people and animals on you. They will be numerous and fruitful. I shall cause you to be inhabited as in your previous time and do more good to you than when you began. Then you will know that I am the LORD. <sup>12</sup> I shall cause human beings to walk on you, even My people Israel. They will take possession of you, and you will be their inheritance. You will never again bereave them of children.”

<sup>13</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Because they have been telling you, ‘You have been devouring human beings and been bereaving your nation of children,’ <sup>14</sup> therefore you will not devour human beings any longer or cause your nation to stumble any longer,” declares the Lord GOD. <sup>15</sup> “I shall not let you hear the insults of the nations any longer. You will no longer bear the taunts of other peoples. You will no longer cause your nation to stumble any longer,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>16</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>17</sup> “Son of man, when the family of Israel were living in their own land, they used to defile it by their conduct and their actions. To Me their conduct was as unclean as a woman’s menstrual period. <sup>18</sup> Therefore, I poured out My wrath on them because of the blood that they had poured out on the land and because they had defiled the land with their idols. <sup>19</sup> I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the other countries. I judged them as their conduct and their actions deserved. <sup>20</sup> However, wherever they went among the nations they profaned My holy name. For people used to say about them, ‘These are the people of the LORD and yet they have left His land.’ <sup>21</sup> Nevertheless, I took pity on My holy name, which the family of Israel had been profaning among the nations where they had gone. <sup>22</sup> Therefore, tell the family of Israel: ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “It is not for your sake that I am doing this, O family of Israel, but for My holy name, which you have been profaning among the nations where you have gone. <sup>23</sup> I shall restore the holiness of My great name, which has been profaned among the nations, the name that you have been profaning among them. Then the nations will know that I am the LORD,” declares the Lord GOD, “when I show Myself as holy among you while they are watching. <sup>24</sup> I shall take you out of the nations, gather you out of all the other lands and bring you into your own land. <sup>25</sup> I shall pour out clean water on you, and you will be clean. I shall pronounce you clean from all your forms of uncleanness and from all your idols. <sup>26</sup> I shall give you a new heart and put a new spirit inside you. I shall remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. <sup>27</sup> I shall put My Spirit inside you and cause you to walk in My Statutes, keep My Decisions and put them into practice. <sup>28</sup> You will live in the land that I have given to your fathers. You will be My people, and I Myself shall be your God. <sup>29</sup> I shall save you from all your uncleanness. I shall summon the grain and make it plentiful and not bring any famine on you. <sup>30</sup> I shall make the trees bear fruit plentifully and make the fields yield plentifully, that you may not suffer disgrace among the nations any longer because of famine. <sup>31</sup> Then you will remember your evil ways and your wicked deeds and you will be disgusted with yourselves for your sins and your detestable practices. <sup>32</sup> It is not for your sake that I shall act,” declares the Lord GOD. “You must know this! Be ashamed and embarrassed because of your conduct, family of Israel!””

<sup>33</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “On the day when I cleanse you from all your sins, I shall cause the cities to be lived in again and the ruined places will be rebuilt. <sup>34</sup> The land that has been laid waste will be cultivated, instead of being a wasteland for everyone going past to see. <sup>35</sup> People will say: ‘This land here, which had been laid waste, has become like the Garden of Eden. The cities that had been ruined places, laid waste and overthrown are now fortified and inhabited.’ <sup>36</sup> Then the nations that are left all around you will know that I am the LORD. I shall have rebuilt the ruined places. I shall have replanted the desolated place. I am the LORD. I have spoken and I shall do it.”

<sup>37</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “I shall also let the family of Israel ask Me to do this for them: I shall make their people as numerous as sheep. <sup>38</sup> The cities that had been laid waste will be filled with flocks of people like the flocks for holy offerings, like the flocks at Jerusalem during its times for feasts. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

The vision of the valley of dry bones

<sup>1</sup> The hand of the LORD came on me. He brought me out by the Spirit of the LORD and put me down in the middle of the valley. It was full of bones. <sup>2</sup> He kept leading me past them and all around them. I saw very many of them on the surface of the valley and saw that they were very dry. <sup>3</sup> Then He asked me, “Son of man, can these bones return to life?”

I answered, “Lord GOD, You Yourself know.”

<sup>4</sup> Then He told me: “Prophesy over these bones and tell them, ‘Dry bones, listen to the Word of the LORD! <sup>5</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said to these bones: “Look! I shall cause breath to enter you, and you will live. <sup>6</sup> I shall put tendons on you, make flesh come on you and cover you with skin. I shall put breath in you, and you will return to life. Then you will know that I am the LORD.””

<sup>7</sup> So, I kept prophesying as I had been commanded. While I was prophesying, there was a noise and suddenly a rattling sound, and the bones came closer together, one bone attaching itself to another. <sup>8</sup> While I kept looking, I saw that there were tendons on them, flesh grew on them, and skin covered them over. However, there was no breath in them.

<sup>9</sup> Then He told me: “Prophesy to the breath! Prophesy, son of man, and tell the breath, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain people, that they may return to life.””

<sup>10</sup> So, I kept prophesying, as He had commanded me, and breath entered them. They returned to life and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly large army.

<sup>11</sup> Then He told me: “Son of man, these bones are the whole family of Israel. Look! They are saying, ‘Our bones are dry, and our hope is being lost. We have been completely cut off.’ <sup>12</sup> Therefore, prophesy and tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look, My people! I shall open your graves and bring you up out of your graves. I shall bring you to the land of Israel. <sup>13</sup> Then, My people, you will know that I am the LORD when I open your graves and bring you up out of your graves. <sup>14</sup> I shall put My Spirit in you; you will live, and I shall settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I am the LORD. I have spoken and shall carry it out,” declares the LORD.”

God's promise to be the God of Israel and Judah

<sup>15</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>16</sup> “As for you, son of man, take a piece of wood and write on it, ‘Belonging to Judah and to the people of Israel associated with him!’ Then take another piece of wood and write on it, ‘Ephraim’s piece of wood, belonging to Joseph and all the family of Israel associated with him!’ <sup>17</sup> Join them to one another to form one piece of wood, that they may become one in your hand! <sup>18</sup> When your countrymen ask you, ‘Will you not tell us what you mean by these?’ <sup>19</sup> tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I shall take Joseph’s piece of wood, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel associated with him and put them with Judah’s piece of wood. I shall make them one piece of wood, that they may be one in My hand.”’

<sup>20</sup> “When the pieces of wood on which you write are in your hand where they can see them, <sup>21</sup> tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I shall take the people of Israel out of the nations where they have gone. I shall gather them from all around and bring them to their own land. <sup>22</sup> I shall make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel. One King will reign over them all. They will not be two nations any longer and not divided into two kingdoms any longer. <sup>23</sup> They will not defile themselves with their idols, with their other detestable practices or with any of their rebellious acts any longer. I shall save them from all their settlements in which they have been sinning. I shall declare them clean. They will be My people, and I shall be their God. <sup>24</sup> My Servant David will be King over them, and they will all have one Shepherd. They will live according to My Decisions, keep My Statutes and put them into practice. <sup>25</sup> They will live in the land that I gave to My servant Jacob, where your fathers lived. They, their children and their grandchildren will live in it for ever. David, My Servant, will be their Prince for ever. <sup>26</sup> I shall make a Covenant of peace with them. It will be an everlasting Covenant with them. I shall put them in their land, cause them to increase in number and put My Holy Place among them for ever. <sup>27</sup> My residence will be with them. I shall be their God, and they will be My people. <sup>28</sup> Then the nations will know that I am the LORD and that I make Israel holy, when My Holy Place is among them for ever.””

A proclamation of judgment against Gog, the prince of Meshech and Tubal and against his army

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to me: <sup>2</sup> “Son of man, set your face against Gog, in the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech, and Tubal! Prophecy against him! <sup>3</sup> You shall say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I am against you, Gog, chief prince of Meshech, and Tubal. <sup>4</sup> I shall turn you around and put hooks into your jaws. I shall lead you out with your whole army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armour, a large company. All of them will have large and small shields and will be armed with swords. <sup>5</sup> Persia, Cush and Put will be with them. They will all have shields and helmets. <sup>6</sup> Gomer will come with all his contingents. Beth-Togarmah will come from the farthest part of the north with all its contingents. There will be many peoples with you. <sup>7</sup> Be ready! Be prepared, you and all your forces, which have assembled around you! You shall be a sentinel for them! <sup>8</sup> You will be summoned after a long time. In the years to come you will go to a land that has been restored after war. It will be a land whose people have been gathered out of many nations on the mountains of Israel, which had been an ongoing wasteland. Its people have been brought out of the nations and are now all living in safety. <sup>9</sup> Then you will go up. You will go in like a storm. You, together with and all your contingents and the many peoples with you will cover the land like a cloud.”’

<sup>10</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘On that day thoughts will come into your mind, and you will invent an evil plan. <sup>11</sup> You will say: “I shall go up against a country with unwalled villages. I shall attack the people who are living peacefully and securely. All of them will be living without walls and without bars and gates.” <sup>12</sup> You will take plunder and loot them. You will turn your hand against the ruined places where people are living again and against a people that has been gathered out of the nations, who have been acquiring livestock and possessions and who are living at the middle of the earth. <sup>13</sup> Sheba, Dedan, the merchants of Tarshish and all its leaders will ask you, ‘Are you coming to take plunder? Have you assembled your contingents to carry off booty, to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and possessions, to seize a large amount of plunder?’”

<sup>14</sup> “Therefore, son of man, prophecy! Tell Gog: ‘This is what the Lord GOD has asked: “On that day when My people Israel are living without fear of danger, will you not be aware of it? <sup>15</sup> You will come from your place in the farthest parts of the north, and many peoples will be with you. All of them will be riding on horses. You will be a large company and a huge army. <sup>16</sup> You will come up against My people Israel, like a cloud that covers the land. In a future time I shall bring you against My land, that the nations may acknowledge Me when I use you, Gog, to display My holiness while they are watching.”’

<sup>17</sup> “This is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Are you the one about whom I spoke in earlier times through My servants, the prophets of Israel? In those times they prophesied for years that I would bring you against them.’<sup>18</sup> “On that day, on the day when Gog attacks the land of Israel,” declares the Lord GOD, “My hot anger will be aroused.<sup>19</sup> I have said, in My zeal and in My blazing wrath: ‘On that day there will certainly be a great earthquake in the land of Israel.’<sup>20</sup> The fish in the sea, the birds in the sky, the animals in the field, all the creeping things that crawl on the ground and all the human beings that are on the surface of the earth will shake at My presence. The mountains will be thrown down, the steep cliffs will fall and every wall will fall to the ground.<sup>21</sup> I shall summon a sword against Gog on all My mountains,’ declares the Lord GOD. ‘Every man will use his sword against his brother.<sup>22</sup> I shall use plagues and bloodshed to carry out judgment against Gog. I shall send torrential rains, hailstones, fire and sulphur down on him, on his contingents and on the many peoples who are with him.<sup>23</sup> I shall prove that I am great, show that I am holy and make Myself known in the sight of many nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD.’”

39

The destruction caused by the armies of God

<sup>1</sup> “As for you, son of man, prophesy against Gog! You shall say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Look! I am against you, Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal.’<sup>2</sup> I shall turn you around, drag you along, bring you up from the farthest parts of the north and lead you in against the mountains of Israel.<sup>3</sup> Then I shall knock your bow out of your left hand and make your arrows fall out of your right hand.<sup>4</sup> You, together with all your contingents and the peoples that are with you will fall on the mountains of Israel. I shall give you as food to all kinds of birds of prey and to the wild animals.<sup>5</sup> You will fall on the open field. For I Myself have spoken,’” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>6</sup> “I shall send fire against Magog and on those who dwell without fear of danger on the coastlands. Then they will know that I am the LORD.<sup>7</sup> I shall make My holy name known among My people Israel and not allow My holy name to be profaned any longer. The nations will know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel.<sup>8</sup> Look! It is coming. It will happen,” declares the Lord GOD. “This is the day about which I have spoken.<sup>9</sup> Then those who live in the cities of Israel will go out, set fire to weapons and burn them. They will burn small and large shields, bows, arrows, javelins and lances. They will make fires with them for seven years.<sup>10</sup> They will not collect firewood from the fields or chop down anything from the forests. For they will make fires with the weapons. They will take plunder from those who used to plunder them. They will seize booty from those who used to take booty from them,” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>11</sup> “On that day I shall give Gog a burial place there in Israel, the Valley of the Travellers, east of the Sea. It will block the way for those who are travelling through. There people will bury Gog and his entire multitude. It will be called ‘The Valley of the Multitude of Gog.’<sup>12</sup> The family of Israel will keep on burying them for seven months, to make the land clean.<sup>13</sup> All the people of the land will keep on burying them. They will gain renown on the day when I show My glory,” declares the Lord GOD.<sup>14</sup> “They will delegate men to travel continually through the land. With the help of the people who are passing through, they will bury those who remain on the surface of the land, to make it clean. At the end of seven months they will make a search.<sup>15</sup> When these travellers go through the land and anyone sees a human bone, then he will set up a marker beside it, until the gravediggers have buried it in the Valley of the Multitude of Gog.<sup>16</sup> ‘Hamonah’<sup>*143</sup> will also be the name of the city. In this way will they make the land clean.”<sup>17</sup> “As for you, son of man, this is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘Tell every kind of bird and all the wild animals: “Gather together and come! Assemble from all around to My sacrificial meal, which I am preparing for you! It will be a huge sacrificial meal on the mountains of Israel. You will eat meat and drink blood.<sup>18</sup> You will eat the flesh of warriors and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, lambs, he-goats and bulls. They will all be fattened creatures of Bashan.<sup>19</sup> You will eat fat until you are satisfied and drink blood until you are drunk at My sacrificial meal, which I shall prepare for you.<sup>20</sup> You will be satisfied at My table with horses, charioteers, warriors and all other kinds of soldiers,’” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>21</sup> “I shall set My glory among the nations. All the nations will see My judgment, which I have carried out, and My hand, which I have laid on them.<sup>22</sup> The family of Israel will know that I am the LORD, their God, from that day on.<sup>23</sup> The nations will know that the family of Israel have gone into exile because of their sin, because they have acted so unfaithfully against Me that I hid My face from them and handed them over to their enemies, and all of them fell by the sword.<sup>24</sup> I have treated them as their uncleanness and as their rebellious actions have deserved, and I have hidden My face from them.”

<sup>25</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: “Now I shall bring Jacob back from captivity and have compassion on the whole family of Israel and be zealous for My holy name.<sup>26</sup> They will forget their shame and all the unfaithful things that they have done against Me when they live safely in their own land with no one to make them afraid.<sup>27</sup> When I bring them back from the other peoples and gather them from the lands of their enemies, I shall use them to show that I am holy in the sight of many nations. <sup>28</sup> Then they will know that I am the LORD, their God, because I have sent them into exile among the nations and then gathered them into their own land. I shall not leave any of them remaining among the nations any longer. <sup>29</sup> I shall not hide My face from them any longer, because I shall pour out My Spirit on the family of Israel," declares the Lord GOD.

A description of the new Temple of God

<sup>1</sup> On the tenth day of the month in the beginning of the twenty-fifth year of our captivity and fourteen years after Jerusalem had been captured, on that very day, the hand of the LORD came on me, and He took me there. <sup>2</sup> In visions of God He took me to the land of Israel and set me down on a very high mountain. On the south side of the mountain there were some buildings like those in a city. <sup>3</sup> When he took me there, I saw a man who looked like bronze. He had a linen cord and a reed for measuring in his hand. He was standing in the gateway. <sup>4</sup> The man told me: "Son of man, use your eyes to see and your ears to listen! Pay attention to everything that I shall show you! For you have been brought here that I may show it to you. Tell the family of Israel everything that you see!"

The eastern outer gateway

<sup>5</sup> I saw a wall all around the outside of the Temple. The measuring-reed in the man's hand was six cubits <sup>*144</sup> long, with one cubit consisting of a forearm and one span. He measured the width of the wall-structure as one reed-length, and it was one reed-length high. <sup>6</sup> Then he went into the gateway that faced east. He went up its steps and measured the threshold of the gateway. It was one reed-length wide, and the other threshold was one reed-length wide. <sup>7</sup> Each recess was one reed-length wide and one reed-length deep. The space between the recesses was two metres and sixty-seven centimetres. The threshold of the gateway beside the porch of the gateway facing the Temple was one reed-length. <sup>8</sup> Then he measured the porch of the gateway, facing the Temple. It was one reed-length. <sup>9</sup> Then he measured the porch of the gateway. It was four metres and twenty-five centimetres. Its columns were one metre and six centimetres. The porch of the gateway faced the Temple. <sup>10</sup> There were three recesses on one side of the eastern gateway, and three on the other side. All three were the same size. The columns on each side were the same size. <sup>11</sup> Then he measured the width of the entrance of the gateway. It was five metres and thirty-three centimetres. The gateway was six metres and ninety-three centimetres wide. <sup>12</sup> There was a barrier of five hundred and thirty-three centimetres on each side in front of the recesses. The recesses were three metres and twenty centimetres square. <sup>13</sup> Then he measured the gateway from the ceiling of the one recess to the ceiling of the opposite one. It was thirteen metres and thirty-two centimetres wide. The openings faced each other. <sup>14</sup> He also measured the columns. They were thirty-two metres high. He measured the gateways next to the columns on every side of the courtyard. <sup>15</sup> The distance from the front of the gateway at the entrance to the front of the porch of the gateway on the inside was twenty-six metres and sixty-five centimetres. <sup>16</sup> The recesses and their columns inside the gateway had framed windows all around. In just the same way the porches had windows all around on the inside. The columns had palm-shaped decorations.

The outer courtyard, the pavement and the blocks of thirty rooms — compare 42:1-9

<sup>17</sup> Then he brought me into the outer courtyard. I saw that rooms and a pavement had been made all around the courtyard. Thirty rooms were at the edge of the pavement. <sup>18</sup> The pavement ran along the sides of the gateways. It was as wide as the gateways were. This was the lower pavement. <sup>19</sup> Then he measured the distance from the inner front of the lower gate to the outer front of the inner court. It was fifty-three metres and thirty-three centimetres on the eastern side. The northern side was next.

The northern outer gateway and its steps

<sup>20</sup> He also measured the length and the width of the gateway that faced toward the north, which belonged to the outer court. <sup>21</sup> Its three recesses on each side, its columns and its porch were the same in size as those of the first gate. It was twenty-six metres and sixty-five centimetres long and thirteen metres and thirty-two centimetres wide. <sup>22</sup> Its windows, its porch and its palm-shaped decorations were the same in size as those of the gateway that faced toward the east. People could go up to it by seven steps so that its porch was in front of them. <sup>23</sup> There was a gateway to the inner courtyard opposite the gateway on the north, as there was on the east. He measured fifty-three metres and thirty-three centimetres from one gateway to the other one.

The southern outer gateway and its steps

<sup>24</sup> Then he led me toward the southern side. I saw that there was a gateway that faced south. He continued to measure its columns and its porch. They had the same measurements as the others. <sup>25</sup> The gateway and its porch had windows on all sides like the windows in the others. It was twenty-six metres and sixty-five centimetres long and thirteen metres and thirty-two centimetres wide. <sup>26</sup> Seven steps went up to it and led to its porch. Its columns had a palm-shaped decoration on each side of them.

The southern gateway to the inner courtyard and the inner courtyard — compare 40:44, 47

<sup>27</sup> There was a gateway on the southern side of the inner court. He measured fifty-three metres and thirty-three centimetres between the gateways on the southern side. <sup>28</sup> Then he brought me into the inner court through the southern gateway. He measured the southern gateway. It had the same measurements as the others.<sup>29</sup> Its recesses, columns and porch had the same measurements as the others. The gateway and its porch had windows all around. It was twenty-six metres and sixty-five centimetres long and thirteen metres and thirty-two centimetres wide.<sup>30</sup> There were porches all around, thirteen metres and thirty-two centimetres long and two metres and sixty-seven centimetres wide.<sup>31</sup> Its porches faced the outer courtyard. There were palm-shaped decorations on their columns, and their stairways had eight steps.

The eastern gateway to the inner courtyard

<sup>32</sup> Then he took me into the inner courtyard on the eastern side and measured the gateway. It had the same measurements as the others.<sup>33</sup> Its recesses, columns and porch had the same measurements as the others. The gateway and its porch had windows all around. It was twenty-six metres and sixty-five centimetres long and thirteen metres and thirty-two centimetres wide.<sup>34</sup> Its porch faced the outer courtyard. It had palm-shaped decorations on each side of its columns, and its stairway had eight steps.

The northern gateway to the inner courtyard

<sup>35</sup> Then he brought me to the northern gate and began to measure it. It had the same measurements as the others,<sup>36</sup> as did also its recesses, its columns and its porch. It had windows all around. It was twenty-six metres and sixty-five centimetres long and thirteen metres and thirty-two centimetres wide.<sup>37</sup> Its porch faced the outer court and had palm-shaped decorations on each side of its columns. Its stairway had eight steps.

Rooms where burnt offerings are washed

<sup>38</sup> There was a room with a door beside the columns at the gateways, where they washed the burnt offering.

Tables where sacrificial animals are slaughtered

<sup>39</sup> There were two tables on each side in the porch at the gateway, on which the burnt offerings, the sin-offerings and the guilt-offerings were slaughtered.

The rooms for priests

<sup>40</sup> Off to the side, on the outside as one goes up to the northern gateway there were two tables, and there were two more tables at the other side of the porch of the gateway.<sup>41</sup> There were four tables on each side of the gateway, eight tables on which the sacrifices were slaughtered.<sup>42</sup> There were also four tables of dressed stone for the burnt offering. They were eighty centimetres long, eighty centimetres wide and fifty-three centimetres high. The pieces of equipment with which they slaughtered the burnt offerings and the other sacrifices were to be placed on them.<sup>43</sup> Pegs seventy-six millimetres long had been set in the wall all around. The meat of the sacrifices was to be put on the tables.

Rooms for the singers and the priests

<sup>44</sup> On the outside of the inner gateway in the inner courtyard there were rooms for the singers. One room was at the side of the northern gateway facing south, and the other was at the side of the eastern gateway facing north.<sup>45</sup> He told me: "This room, which faces south, is for the priests who are fulfilling their duties at the Temple.<sup>46</sup> The room that faces north is for the priests who are fulfilling their duties at the altar. These are the descendants of Zadok, the only descendants of Levi who may approach the LORD to minister to Him."

The inner courtyard and the altar for sacrifice — compare 43:13-18)

<sup>47</sup> Then he measured the courtyard. It was square, fifty-three metres and thirty-three centimetres long and fifty-three metres and thirty-three centimetres wide. The altar was in front of the Temple.

The porch of the Temple

<sup>48</sup> Then he took me to the porch of the Temple and measured the columns of the porch. They were two metres and sixty-seven centimetres wide on each side. The width of the gateway was one metre and sixty centimetres on each side.

The Temple-steps

<sup>49</sup> The porch was ten metres and sixty-seven centimetres long and five metres and eighty-seven centimetres wide. Its columns were beside the steps that led up to it. Pillars were next to the columns, one on each side.

41

The Holy Place in the Temple

<sup>1</sup> Then he took me to the Temple and measured the columns. The columns were three metres and twenty centimetres wide on each side along the width of the Tabernacle.<sup>2</sup> The width of the doorway was five metres and thirty-three centimetres, and the sidewalls were two metres and sixty-seven centimetres on each side of the doorway. He measured the length of the Holy Place. It was twenty-one metres and thirty-three centimetres and was ten metres and sixty-seven centimetres wide.

The Most Holy Place

<sup>3</sup> Then he went into the inner room and measured the columns at the entrance. They were one metre and sixty-seven millimetres. The entrance was three metres and twenty centimetres high, and the entrance was three metres and seventy-three centimetres wide.<sup>4</sup> He measured the length of the room as far as the end of the main hall as ten metres and sixty-seven centimetres. It was ten metres and sixty-seven centimetres wide. He told me, "This is the Most Holy Place."

<sup>5</sup> Then he measured the wall of the Temple. It was three metres and twenty centimetres thick. Each side-room all around the Temple was two metres and thirteen centimetres wide.<sup>6</sup> The side-rooms were on three levels, one above the other. There were thirty on each level. The side-rooms extended to the wall of the Temple all around it. The side-rooms had supports, that the wall of the Temple might not support them.

<sup>7</sup> The side-rooms became wider all around at each successive level. For the structure surrounding the Temple went from one storey to another all around the Temple. Therefore, higher up, the Temple became wider. In this way one went up from the lowest storey to the top storey through the middle storey.

The raised platform

<sup>8</sup> I also saw that the Temple had a raised platform all around. From the foundations of the side-rooms the height was three metres and twenty centimetres, the full length of the measuring reed. <sup>9</sup> The outer wall of the side rooms was two metres and sixty-seven centimetres thick. The open area between the side rooms of the Temple had the same width. <sup>10</sup> The distance between the priests' rooms that were all around the Temple was ten metres and sixty-seven centimetres. <sup>11</sup> The doors of the side-rooms opened into the open area. One door faced toward the north, and another door toward the south. The open space was two metres and sixty-seven centimetres wide all around.

The annexe on the western side — compare 2 Kings 23:11

<sup>12</sup> The building that was facing the courtyard on the western side was thirty-seven metres and thirty-three centimetres wide. The wall of the building was two metres and sixty-seven centimetres wide all around and forty-eight metres long.

The western building

<sup>13</sup> Then he measured the Temple. It was fifty-three metres and thirty-three centimetres long. The courtyard, the building and its walls were also fifty-three metres and thirty-three centimetres long. <sup>14</sup> The eastern façade of the building and the courtyard were fifty-three metres and thirty-three centimetres wide. <sup>15</sup> Then he went on to measure the length of the building facing the courtyard that was at the back, together with its galleries on each side. They were fifty-three metres and thirty-three centimetres.

The appearance of the Temple and its surroundings

The inside of the outer sanctuary, the porches facing the courtyard, <sup>16</sup> the thresholds, the framed windows and the galleries all around their three stories from the threshold on were panelled with woodwork all around, from the floor up to the windows. The windows were covered <sup>17</sup> to the space above the doorway, even as far as the inner sanctuary, both on the outside and on all the walls all around, inside and outside, there was a measured pattern. <sup>18</sup> It had been made with cherubim and palm-trees. There was a palm-tree between every two cherubs. Each cherub had two faces. <sup>19</sup> A human face was turned toward the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion was turned toward the palm-tree on the other side. It had been made like this all around the whole Temple. <sup>20</sup> Cherubim and palm-trees had been made from the floor as far as the area above the doorway. They were on the wall of the Holy Place. <sup>21</sup> The doorposts of the Holy Place were square. The appearance of the front of the Holy Place was similar. <sup>22</sup> The altar was wooden, one metre and sixty centimetres high, one metre and sixty-seven millimetres long and one metre and sixty-seven millimetres wide. Its corners, its length and its walls were wooden. He also told me: "This is the table that is in the presence of the LORD." <sup>23</sup> The Holy Place and the Most Holy Place each had a double door. <sup>24</sup> The doors had two leaves each, two folding leaves. There were two leaves in the one door and two leaves in the other door. <sup>25</sup> Cherubim and palm-trees had been made on the doors of the Holy Place. They were cherubim and palm-trees like the ones that were on the walls. There was a wooden overhang on the front of the porch outside. <sup>26</sup> There were framed windows and palm-trees on each side, on the sidewalls of the porch, the side-rooms of the Temple and the overhangs.

The outer courtyard and the three-storey chambers for the priests

<sup>1</sup> Then he led me out on the northern pathway into the outer court. He brought me to the rooms that were opposite both the open area and the northern building. <sup>2</sup> The northern doorway was at the front of the longer side, which measured fifty-three metres and thirty-three centimetres. The width was twenty-six metres and sixty-five centimetres. <sup>3</sup> Opposite the ten metres and sixty-seven centimetres that belonged to the inner court and opposite the pavement that belonged to the outer court, one gallery faced another gallery in three stories. <sup>4</sup> In front of the rooms there was an inner passageway five metres and thirty-three centimetres wide at a distance of fifty-three centimetres. The doors of these rooms faced north. <sup>5</sup> The upper rooms were narrower. For the galleries took more space away from them than from rooms on the lower and middle levels of the building. <sup>6</sup> For they were arranged on three levels. They did not have pillars like the pillars in the courtyards. That is why the upper rooms were shorter than the rooms on the lower and the middle levels up from the ground. <sup>7</sup> There was a stone wall on the outside, parallel to the rooms, toward the outer court and in front of the rooms. It was twenty-six metres and sixty-five centimetres long. <sup>8</sup> For the rooms of the outer court were twenty-six metres and sixty-five centimetres long. However, the rooms that faced the sanctuary were fifty-three metres and thirty-three centimetres long. <sup>9</sup> Below these rooms there was an entrance on the eastern side. A person could enter them from the outer courtyard. <sup>10</sup> There were rooms on the breadth of the stone wall of the court, facing the east. They faced both the open area and the building. <sup>11</sup> There was a passageway in front of them. They were like the rooms on the northern side. They were as long and as broad as those were and had the same exits, dimensions and doorways. <sup>12</sup> They corresponded to the doorways of the rooms that faced the south. There was an entrance at the beginning of the passageway, the passage that was in front of the corresponding wall on the east as one enters them. <sup>13</sup> Then he told me: "The northern rooms and the southern rooms that are opposite the open area are the holy rooms, where the priests who approach the LORD will eat the most holy offerings. That is where they will place the most holy offerings, the grain-offerings, the sin-offerings and the guilt-offerings. For the place is holy. <sup>14</sup> When the priests enter the Holy Place, they do not go out of it into the outer court until they leave behind there the garments in which they have been ministering. For these are holy. They put on other clothes before they approach the places that are meant for the people.”

The measurements around the Temple area

<sup>15</sup> When he had finished measuring the interior of the Temple area, he led me out through the gateway that faces east and measured the area all around. <sup>16</sup> He measured the eastern side with the measuring reed. It was five hundred reed-lengths [one-kilometre and six-hundred metres] all around according to the measuring reed. <sup>17</sup> He measured the northern side. It was five hundred reed-lengths all around according to the measuring reed. <sup>18</sup> He measured the southern side. It was five hundred reed-lengths according to the measuring reed. <sup>19</sup> Then he turned to the western side and measured it. It was five hundred reed-lengths according to the measuring reed. <sup>20</sup> He measured it on the four sides. It had a wall all around it. It was five hundred reed-lengths long and five hundred reed-lengths wide, to separate what was holy from what was common.

The filling of the new Temple with God's glory

<sup>1</sup> Then he led me to the gate, the gate that faced towards the east. <sup>2</sup> I saw that the glory of the God of Israel came from the east. His voice was like the sound of plentiful water, and the earth shone because of His glory. <sup>3</sup> The vision that I saw seemed like the vision that I had seen when He came to destroy the city and like the visions that I had seen beside the Chebar Canal, and I fell face-down. <sup>4</sup> The glory of the LORD entered the Temple through the gate that faced toward the east. <sup>5</sup> The Spirit lifted me up and brought me into the inner courtyard. I saw that the glory of the Lord had filled the Temple. <sup>6</sup> While the man was standing beside me, I heard Someone speaking to me from the Temple. <sup>7</sup> He told me: “Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place for the soles of My feet. This is where I shall dwell among the Israelites for ever. The family of Israel will not defile My holy name any longer, neither they nor their kings, by their prostitution and by the dead bodies of their kings at their high places. <sup>8</sup> They have done this by setting their threshold beside My threshold and their doorposts beside My doorposts, with only a wall between Me and them. They have been defiling My holy name by their detestable practices, which they have been committing. So, I have destroyed them in My anger. <sup>9</sup> Now they must completely remove from Me their prostitution and the dead bodies of their kings. Then I shall dwell among them for ever.”

<sup>10</sup> “As for you, son of man, inform the family of Israel about the Temple, that they may be ashamed of their sins! Let them consider the detailed measurements!

<sup>11</sup> If they are ashamed of all that they have been doing, make known to them the design of the Temple, its arrangement, its exits, its entrances and its whole arrangement! Inform them about all its Statutes, its whole arrangement and all its Instructions! Then write these things down for them while they are watching, that they may remember all of its arrangement and all of its Statutes and put them into practice! <sup>12</sup> This is the Instruction about the Temple: The whole precinct all around the top of the mountain shall be most holy! Look! This is the Instruction about the Temple.”

The altar in the new Temple

<sup>13</sup> “These are the measurements of the altar in cubits that measure one cubit and one handbreadth: its gutter is fifty-three centimetres deep and fifty-three centimetres wide. There is a rim measuring one span <sup>*145</sup> around its edge. This is the trunk of the altar. <sup>14</sup> From the gutter on the ground to the lower ledge it is one metre and sixty-seven millimetres high and fifty-three centimetres wide. The distance from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge is two metres and thirteen centimetres and is fifty-three centimetres wide. <sup>15</sup> The altar-hearth is two metres and thirteen centimetres. There are four horns projecting upwards from the altar-hearth. <sup>16</sup> The altar-hearth has four corners and is completely square, six metres and forty centimetres long by six metres and forty centimetres wide. <sup>17</sup> The ledge is also completely square, seven metres and forty-seven centimetres long by seven metres and forty-seven centimetres wide. It has a rim around it twenty-seven centimetres wide. Its gutter is fifty-three centimetres all around. The steps of the altar face towards the east.”

<sup>18</sup> He told me, “Son of man, This is what the Lord GOD has said: ‘These are the Regulations for the altar on the day when it is made for offering burnt offerings on it and for pouring blood against it: <sup>19</sup> You shall give a bull from the herd for a sin-offering to the Levitical priests, who have descended from Zadok, and who come near Me to minister to Me!’ declares the Lord GOD. <sup>20</sup> ‘You shall take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar, on the four corners of the ledge and on the rim around it! You shall cleanse the altar from sin and make atonement for it! <sup>21</sup> You shall also take away the bull for the sin-offering, that it may be burnt in the designated part of the Temple area, outside the Holy Place! <sup>22</sup> On the second day you shall offer a male goat that has no blemish for a sin-offering! They shall cleanse the altar from sin as they have used the bull to cleanse it from sin! <sup>23</sup> When you have finished the cleansing from sin, you shall offer a bull that has no blemish from the herd and a ram from the flock that has no blemish! <sup>24</sup> You shall present them before the LORD, and the priests shall sprinkle salt on them and offer them as burnt offerings to the LORD! <sup>25</sup> Each day for seven days you shall prepare a male goat for a sin-offering! A bull from the herd and a ram from the flock that have no blemish shall also be prepared! <sup>26</sup> For seven days they shall make atonement for the altar, cleanse it and consecrate it! <sup>27</sup> When they have completed these days, then, from the eighth day on, the priests shall prepare your burnt offerings and your peace-offerings on the altar! Then I shall be favourable to you,” declares the Lord GOD.

44

The sealing of the eastern gate

<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me back to the outer gate of the Holy Place, which faces towards the east. It had been shut tight. <sup>2</sup> The LORD told me: “This gate will remain shut tight. It shall not be opened, and no one shall enter through it! For the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered through it. It shall remain shut tight! <sup>3</sup> The prince himself is the only one who may sit in it to eat bread before the LORD. He may come in through the porch of the gateway but shall go out the same way!”

The men who serve in the new Temple

<sup>4</sup> Then he brought me through the northern gateway to the front of the Temple. When I looked, I saw that the glory of the LORD had filled the Temple of the LORD, and I fell face-down. <sup>5</sup> The LORD told me: “Son of man, pay close attention! Use your eyes to see and your ears to hear everything that I am telling you about all the Regulations for the Temple of the LORD and all its Laws. Pay close attention to those who may enter the Temple and all those who must be brought out of the Holy Place. <sup>6</sup> Tell the rebellious people, the family of Israel, ‘This is what the Lord GOD has said: “Family of Israel, enough of all your detestable practices! <sup>7</sup> You are admitting foreigners, who are uncircumcised in hearts and bodies, so that they are in My Holy Place. You are profaning My Temple when you offer My food, the fat and the blood, to Me. You have been breaking My Covenant, in addition to all your other detestable practices. <sup>8</sup> You have not been keeping your Obligations concerning My holy things but have been arranging for others to observe My Requirements in My Holy Place for you.””

<sup>9</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “No foreigner, who is uncircumcised in heart and body, out of all the foreigners who are among the Israelites, shall enter My Holy Place!”

The unfaithfulness of the Levites

<sup>10</sup> “However, the Levites who went far away from Me when Israel wandered off, when they wandered away from Me to follow their idols, will suffer the consequences of their sin. <sup>11</sup> They should have been ministers in My Holy Place. They should have been sentries at the gates of the Temple and should have been ministering in the Temple. They should have been slaughtering the burnt offerings and the sacrifices for the people. They should have been standing in front of the people, to minister to them. <sup>12</sup> Because they were ministering to them in front of their idols and were causing the family of Israel to fall into sin, therefore I have raised My hand in an oath concerning them,” declares the Lord GOD, “that they will suffer the consequences of their sin. <sup>13</sup> They shall not approach Me to act as My priests! They shall not approach any of My holy things or the things that are most holy! They shall bear their disgrace and suffer for the detestable practices that they have been committing! <sup>14</sup> Nevertheless, I shall put them in charge of the duties at the Temple, to carry out all its service and all that must be done in it.

Permission for the priests to continue to serve

<sup>15</sup> “However, the Levitical priests, who are the descendants of Zadok, who observed the Requirements for My Holy Place when the Israelites wandered away from Me, shall come near to Me to minister to Me! They shall stand before Me to offer to Me the fat and the blood!” declares the Lord GOD.

<sup>16</sup> “They shall enter My Holy Place! They shall approach My table to minister to Me! They shall observe My Requirements! <sup>17</sup> When they enter the gates of the inner courtyard, they shall wear linen garments! They shall not wear any woollen material while they are ministering at the gates of the inner court or inside the Temple! <sup>18</sup> They shall wear linen turbans on their heads and linen double aprons around their waists! They shall not wear any clothes that make them perspire! <sup>19</sup> When they go out into the outer courtyard, where the people are, they shall take off their clothes, in which they were ministering! They shall leave them in the holy rooms! They shall put on other clothes, that they may not transfer holiness to the people by means of their garments! <sup>20</sup> They shall not shave their heads or allow their hair to hang loosely! They shall certainly keep the hair on their heads trimmed! <sup>21</sup> No priests shall drink any wine when they enter the inner courtyard! <sup>22</sup> They shall not marry a widow or a divorced woman! They may marry only virgins who are descendants of the family of Israel or a widow who is the widow of another priest. <sup>23</sup> They shall teach My people the difference between what is holy and what is common! They shall show them how to distinguish between what is unclean and what is clean! <sup>24</sup> In any lawsuit they shall act as judges and pass judgment on it according to My Decisions! They shall keep My Laws and My Statutes regarding all My appointed feasts! They shall keep My Sabbaths holy! <sup>25</sup> They shall not make themselves unclean by going near a dead human being! However, they may make themselves unclean for a father, a mother, a son, a daughter, a brother or an unmarried sister. <sup>26</sup> After he has become clean, a count of seven days shall be made for him! <sup>27</sup> On the day when he goes into the Holy Place in the inner court to minister in the Holy Place, he shall make his sin-offering!” declares the Lord GOD.

 28 “This shall be their inheritance! I am their inheritance. You shall not give them any possession in Israel! I am their possession. 29 They shall eat the grain-offering, the sin-offering and the guilt-offering! Everything dedicated by a ban in Israel shall belong to them! 30 The best of all the first-fruits of all kinds and every other contribution of every kind out of all your contributions shall belong to the priests! You shall also give the first of your dough to the priests, that a blessing may rest on your family! 31 The priests shall not eat anything that has been found dead or has been torn by wild animals, whether it is a bird or an animal!”

45

The allocation of land for the priests, the Levites and the prince

1 “When you allot the land as an inheritance, you shall select a portion of the land for the LORD as a holy district, thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres long and five kilometres and thirty-three metres wide! The entire area shall be holy! 2 Out of this, an area two hundred and sixty-six metres and sixty-six centimetres square shall be for the Holy Place, with an open space of twenty-six metres and sixty-five centimetres around it! 3 From this measured district you shall measure off a section that is thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres long and five kilometres and thirty-three metres wide! The sanctuary, the Most Holy Place, shall be in this! 4 It shall be the holy portion of the land for the priests, who minister in the Holy Place and come near to minister to the LORD! It shall be a place for their houses and a holy place for the sanctuary! 5 An area thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres long and five kilometres and thirty-three metres wide shall belong to the Levites, who minister at the Temple! They shall have twenty rooms as their possession!

6 “You shall assign an area two kilometres and sixty-seven metres wide and thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres long as the property of the city alongside the holy district! It shall belong to the whole family of Israel!

The ruler's portion

7 “The leader shall have the land on both sides of the holy district and on both sides of the property belonging to the city! It shall extend in the west from the western side and in the east from the eastern side! It shall run lengthways, parallel to one of the tribal portions from the western border to the eastern border! 8 This shall be his land! It shall be his property in Israel! My princes shall not oppress My people any longer but let the family of Israel have the land according to their tribes!”

9 This is what the Lord GOD has said: “You have gone far enough, princes of Israel! Desist from violence and oppression and do what is just and right! Stop driving My people from their land!” declares the Lord GOD.

The requirement that the people must use honest weights and measures

10 “You shall have honest scales, an accurate dry measure and an accurate liquid measure! 11 The dry measure and the liquid measure shall be the same size! The bath*<sup>146</sup> shall hold one tenth of a homer*<sup>147</sup> and the ephah*<sup>148</sup> shall hold one tenth of a homer! The homer shall be the standard of measurement! 12 The shekel*<sup>149</sup> shall consist of twenty gerahs! Your mina*<sup>150</sup> shall equal twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels!

Rules for contributions to the prince in Israel

13 “This is the contribution that you shall give: one sixth of an ephah*<sup>151</sup> from each homer of wheat, and you shall give one sixth of an ephah from each homer of barley! 14 The prescribed portion of olive-oil, measured by the bath, shall be one tenth of a bath from each cor! One cor*<sup>152</sup> shall consist of ten baths or one homer! For ten baths are equivalent to one homer. 15 You shall contribute one sheep from each flock of two hundred, from the well-watered land of Israel! You shall use them for offerings, for burnt offerings and for peace-offerings, to make atonement for them!” declares the Lord GOD.

16 “All the people of the land shall be obliged to make this contribution to the prince in Israel! 17 It shall be the prince's duty to furnish the burnt offerings, the grain-offerings and the drink-offerings at the feasts, the New Moon festivals, the Sabbaths, at all the other appointed feasts of the family of Israel! He shall provide the sin-offerings, the grain-offerings, the burnt offerings and the peace-offerings, to make atonement on behalf of the family of Israel!”

Instructions about feasts — Exodus 12:1-20, Leviticus 23:33-43

18 This is what the Lord GOD has said: “On the first day of the first month, you shall take a young bull that has no blemish from the herd and cleanse the sanctuary from sin! 19 The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin-offering and put it on the doorposts of the Temple, the four corners of the ledge of the altar and the gateposts of the inner courtyard! 20 You shall do the same on the seventh day of the month for anyone who has sinned unintentionally or through ignorance! So, you shall make atonement for the Temple! 21 On the fourteenth day of the first month you shall celebrate the Passover, a feast lasting for seven days, when bread without yeast shall be eaten! 22 On that day the prince shall provide a bull as a sin-offering for himself and for all the people of the land! 23 On each of the seven days of the feast he shall provide seven bulls and seven rams that have no blemish as a burnt offering to the LORD and a male goat on each day as

a sin-offering! <sup>24</sup> He shall also provide a grain-offering, forty litres for each bull, forty litres for each ram and four litres of olive-oil for every forty litres! <sup>25</sup> During the seven days of the feast beginning on the fifteenth day of the seventh month he shall make a similar provision of the sin-offerings, the burnt offerings, the grain-offerings and the olive-oil!”

46

Instructions about the Sabbath and the New-Moon feast

<sup>1</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: “The gate of the inner court that faces east shall be shut on the six working days but be opened on the Sabbath day! It shall also be opened on the day of the New Moon!

<sup>2</sup> The prince shall enter from the outside through the porch of the gateway! He shall take his stand beside the post of the gateway! The priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace-offerings! He shall worship at the threshold of the gateway and then leave! The gate shall not be shut until the evening! <sup>3</sup> The people of the land shall worship at the entrance of that gateway in the presence of the LORD on the Sabbaths and on the New Moons! <sup>4</sup> The burnt offering that the prince presents to the LORD on the Sabbath day shall be six lambs that have no blemish and one ram that has no blemish! <sup>5</sup> The grain-offering with the ram shall be forty litres and the grain-offering with the lambs shall be as much as he wants to give, together with four litres of olive-oil with each forty litres! <sup>6</sup> On the day of the New Moon he shall offer a young bull without blemish from the herd, six lambs and one ram, which shall be without blemish! <sup>7</sup> As a grain-offering he shall provide forty litres with the bull and forty litres with the ram, as much as he can afford to give with the lambs and four litres of olive-oil with each forty litres!

Other instructions about worship

<sup>8</sup> “When the prince enters, he shall enter through the porch of the gateway and leave by the same way!

<sup>9</sup> When the people of the land come before the LORD at the appointed feasts, the person who enters through the northern gate to worship shall leave through the southern gate! The person who enters through the southern gate shall leave through the northern gate! No one shall return through the gateway through which he has entered, but each one shall leave through the gateway opposite him! <sup>10</sup> When they enter, the prince shall enter with them and when they leave, he shall leave!

<sup>11</sup> “At the feasts and at the appointed festivals the grain-offering with each bull shall be forty litres and forty litres with each ram! However, with the lambs the prince may give as much as he wants to give. Four litres of olive-oil shall be given together with each forty litres!

<sup>12</sup> “When the prince prepares a voluntary offering, either a burnt offering or peace-offerings as a voluntary offering to the LORD, the gate that faces the east shall be opened for him! He shall provide his burnt offering or his peace-offerings as he provides them on the Sabbath day! Then he shall leave and, after he has left, the gate shall be shut!

<sup>13</sup> “You shall provide a lamb that is one year old and has no blemish as a burnt offering to the LORD every day! You shall provide one every morning! <sup>14</sup> You shall prepare a grain-offering with it every morning! It shall be seven litres, together with one litre and three hundred millilitres of olive-oil to moisten the flour! It shall be a grain-offering to the LORD! This is a permanent and regular statute. <sup>15</sup> Provide the lamb, the grain-offering and the olive-oil every morning as a regular burnt offering!”

The prince's inheritance

The priests' kitchens

<sup>19</sup> Then he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gateway, to the holy rooms for the priests that faced north. I saw that a place was there at the extreme western end of them. <sup>20</sup> He told me: “This is the place where the priests will boil the guilt-offerings and the sin-offerings and where they will bake the grain-offerings, to avoid bringing them out into the outer court and communicating holiness to the people.”

The rooms for cooking the sacrifices of the people

<sup>21</sup> Then he brought me out to the outer courtyard and took me past the four corners of the courtyard. I saw that there was another courtyard in each corner of the courtyard. <sup>22</sup> The enclosed courtyards that were in each of the four corners of the courtyard were twenty-one metres and thirty-three centimetres long and sixteen metres wide. Each of the four corner-rooms was the same size. <sup>23</sup> A stone wall was all around inside the four corner-rooms. Fireplaces had been made all around on the inside, at the bottom of the rows of stone. <sup>24</sup> Then he told me, “These are the kitchens where those who minister at the Temple will boil the sacrifices of the people.”

47

The water flowing from the Temple

<sup>1</sup> Then he brought me back to the door of the Temple. I saw water coming out from under the threshold of the eastern side of Temple. For the front of the Temple was facing the east. The water was flowing down from under the southern side of the Temple, south of the altar. <sup>2</sup> Then he brought me through the northern gateway and led me around on the way out to the outer gateway that faces towards the east. I saw that the water was spurting out of the southern side. <sup>3</sup> When the man was going out towards the east, he had a measuring-line in his hand. He measured five hundred and thirty-three metres and then led me through the water. The water was ankle-deep. <sup>4</sup> Then he measured another five hundred and thirty-three metres and led me through the water. The water was knee-deep. Then he measured another five hundred and thirty-three metres and led me through the water. The water was up to the hips. <sup>5</sup> Then he measured another five hundred and thirty-three metres. It was a river that I could not pass through. For the water had risen. The water was deep enough to swim in, a river that could not be waded through. <sup>6</sup> He asked me, "Son of man, have you seen this?"

Then he led me back to the bank of the river. <sup>7</sup> While I was going back, I saw very many trees on both banks of the river. <sup>8</sup> He told me: "This water is flowing away towards the eastern district. It is flowing down towards the desert region and going into the sea.*<sup>153</sup> When the water is made to flow into the sea, that water will be made fresh. <sup>9</sup> Wherever the two rivers go, every swarming living creature will live. There will be very many fish. For this water has gone there that the other water may be made fresh. Everything will live where the river flows. <sup>10</sup> Fishermen will stand beside the sea. From En-Gedi to En-Eglaim it will be a place to spread out dragnets. Its fish will be of very many kinds, like the fish of the Mediterranean Sea. <sup>11</sup> Its swamps and marshes will not be made fresh. They will be set apart for salt. <sup>12</sup> Every kind of fruit tree will grow on its bank, on both sides of the river. Their leaves will not wither, and their fruit will not come to an end. They will produce fresh fruit every month, because the water for them flows out of the Holy Place. Their fruit will supply food, and their leaves will provide healing."

The borders of the land when it is allocated — compare Numbers 34:1-12

<sup>13</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has said: "These are the boundaries at which you shall divide the land for an inheritance among the twelve tribes of Israel! Joseph shall receive two portions! <sup>14</sup> You shall divide equally with one another the inheritance that I raised My hand in an oath to give to your fathers! This land shall be allotted to you as your inheritance!

border of Damascus! The border of Hamath shall lie to the north! This shall be the northern side!

<sup>18</sup> "On the eastern side you measure off the boundary between Hauran and Damascus and along the Jordan between Gilead and the land of Israel. You shall make the border beside the Dead Sea! This shall be the eastern side!

<sup>19</sup> "On the southern side, it shall run from Tamar as far as the water of Meribah-Kadesh and along the ravine to the Mediterranean Sea! This shall be the southern side!

<sup>20</sup> "On the western side the Mediterranean Sea shall be the boundary to a position opposite Lebo-hamath! This shall be the western side!

<sup>21</sup> "You shall divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Israel. <sup>22</sup> You shall allot it as an inheritance for yourselves and for the foreign residents among you who have had children among you. You shall treat them as native-born people among the Israelites. They shall receive by lot an inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. <sup>23</sup> You shall assign foreigners their inheritance in whatever tribe they are living," declares the Lord GOD.

The land allocated for each tribe

<sup>8</sup> "Adjoining the territory of Judah, from the eastern side to the west, shall be the allocation that you shall set apart. It shall be thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres wide. It shall be equal in length to one of the other tribal portions, from the eastern side to the western side, and the sanctuary shall be in the middle of it. <sup>9</sup> The allocation that you shall set apart for the LORD shall be thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres long and five kilometres and thirty-three metres wide. <sup>10</sup> The holy allocation shall belong to these people, namely, the priests. It shall be thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres on the northern side, five kilometres and thirty-three metres wide on the western side, five kilometres and thirty-three metres wide on the eastern side and thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres long on the southern side. The sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the middle of it. <sup>11</sup> It shall belong to the consecrated priests, the descendants of Zadok, who have been fulfilling My Requirements and who did not go astray as the Levites did when the Israelites went astray. <sup>12</sup> It shall belong to them as an allocation to the LORD out of the allocation of the land. It shall be most holy, adjoining the territory of the Levites. <sup>13</sup> The Levites shall have an area that is thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres long and five kilometres and thirty-three metres alongside the territory of the priests. Its total length shall be thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres, and its width shall be five kilometres and thirty-three metres. <sup>14</sup> They shall not sell or exchange any of it. They shall not allow this best portion of the land to pass to others. For it is holy to the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> “The remainder, two kilometres and sixty-seven metres wide and thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres long, shall be for the ordinary use of the city, for houses and for pastureland. The city shall be in the middle of it. <sup>16</sup> These shall be its measurements: The northern side shall be two kilometres and four hundred metres. The southern side shall be two kilometres and four hundred metres. The eastern side shall be two kilometres and four hundred metres, and the western side shall be two kilometres and four hundred metres.

<sup>17</sup> The pastureland for the city shall be one hundred and thirty-three metres and thirty-two centimetres on the north, one hundred and thirty-three metres and thirty-two centimetres on the south, one hundred and thirty-three metres and thirty-two centimetres on the east and one hundred and thirty-three metres and thirty-two centimetres on the west. <sup>18</sup> The remainder of the length alongside the holy allocation shall be five kilometres and thirty-three metres on the east and five kilometres and thirty-three metres on the west. It shall be alongside the holy allocation. Its produce shall supply food for the workers of the city. <sup>19</sup> The workers of the city, from all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it. <sup>20</sup> The whole allocation, which you shall set apart, shall be square, thirteen-kilometres and thirty-three metres on each side. You shall set aside the holy allocation together with the property of the city.

<sup>21</sup> “What remains on both sides of the holy allocation and of the property of the city shall belong to the prince. It shall extend from the thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres of the allocation to the eastern border and westward from the thirteen kilometres and thirty-three metres to the western border, parallel to the tribal portions. These areas shall belong to the prince. The holy allocation with the sanctuary of the Temple shall be in the middle of them. <sup>22</sup> Therefore, the property of the Levites and the property of the city shall be in the middle of what belongs to the prince. What belongs to the prince shall be between the territory of Judah and the territory of Benjamin.

<sup>30</sup> “These shall be the exits of the city: The northern side shall be two kilometres and four hundred metres long. <sup>31</sup> Since the gates of the city shall be named after the tribes of Israel, the three gates on the northern side shall be one gate for Reuben, one gate for Judah and one gate for Levi. <sup>32</sup> The eastern side shall be two kilometres and four hundred metres long. The three gates shall be one gate for Joseph, one gate for Benjamin and one gate for Dan. <sup>33</sup> The southern side shall measure two kilometres and four hundred metres. The three gates shall be one gate for Simeon, one gate for Issachar and one gate for Zebulun. <sup>34</sup> The western side shall be two kilometres and four hundred metres long. Its three gates shall be one gate for Gad, one gate for Asher and one gate for Naphtali. <sup>35</sup> The circumference of the city shall be nine kilometres and six hundred metres. The name of the city from that time on shall be, ‘THE LORD IS THERE.’”

DANIEL

The faithfulness of Daniel and his three friends to the Law of God — compare 2 Kings 24:16

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem and besieged it. <sup>2</sup> The Lord delivered Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, into his hand, together with some of the vessels of the Temple of God. He took them to the temple of his god in Babylonia and placed the vessels in the treasury of his god. <sup>3</sup> The king ordered Ashpenaz, his chief court-official, to bring some of the Israelites, namely, descendants of the royal family and the nobility. <sup>4</sup> They were to be young men without physical defect, of good appearance, suitable for instruction in every kind of wisdom, endowed with knowledge, understanding learning and competent to stand in the king's palace. He was to teach them the literature and language of the Chaldeans. <sup>5</sup> The king assigned them a daily allowance of the fine food that the king ate and of the wine that he drank. They were to be educated for three years and at the end of that time they were to stand before the king. <sup>6</sup> Among these were some young men of Judah: Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. <sup>7</sup> The chief court-official gave them other names. He named Daniel "Belteshazzar", he named Hananiah "Shadrach", named Mishael "Meshach" and named Azariah "Abednego." <sup>8</sup> However, Daniel resolved that he would not defile himself with the king's fine food or with the wine that he drank. Therefore, he asked the chief court-official for permission not to defile himself. <sup>9</sup> God let the chief court-official be kind and compassionate towards Daniel. <sup>10</sup> The chief court-official told Daniel: "I am afraid of my master, the king. He has determined what you should eat and drink. Why, then, should he see that you people were looking thinner than the other young men who are your own age? Then you would endanger my head with the king."

<sup>14</sup> He listened to them about this and tested them for ten days. <sup>15</sup> After ten days they looked healthier and better fed than all the other young men who were eating the fine food of the king. <sup>16</sup> So, the overseer continued to remove their fine food and the wine that they were to drink and gave them vegetables. <sup>17</sup> God gave these four young men understanding and insight in all kinds of literature and wisdom. Daniel also had understanding about all kinds of visions and dreams. <sup>18</sup> At the end of the period that the king had set to bring them in, the chief court-official presented them to Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>19</sup> When the king interviewed them, no one out of them all could be found to equal Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. Therefore, they entered the king's service. <sup>20</sup> In every matter of wisdom and understanding about which the king consulted them, he found them ten times better than all the soothsayer-priests and enchanters that were in his whole kingdom. <sup>21</sup> Daniel continued there until the first year of King Cyrus.

The dream of Nebuchadnezzar about a statue made of four kinds of metals

<sup>5</sup> The king answered the Babylonian wise men: "This is what I have firmly decided: if you do not tell me the dream and explain what it means, the members of your bodies will be torn apart, and your houses will be turned into piles of rubble. <sup>6</sup> However, if you tell me the dream and its interpretation, you will receive from me gifts, presents and great honour. Therefore, show me the dream and its interpretation!"

<sup>8</sup> The king replied: "I am certain that you are trying to gain time, because you have seen that this is what I have firmly decided. <sup>9</sup> If you do not tell me the dream, there is only one verdict for you. You have conspired to speak deceitful and wicked words before me until the times change. Therefore, tell me the dream, that I may know whether you can tell me what it means!"

<sup>10</sup> The Babylonian wise men answered the king: "There is not a man on the earth who can tell the king what he is asking. For no other great and powerful king has asked such a thing of any magician, enchanter or Babylonian wise man. <sup>11</sup> What you are asking is difficult, Your Majesty. No one else can tell it to Your Majesty except the gods, who do not dwell with human beings."

<sup>12</sup> Because of this the king became furiously angry and commanded that all the wise men of Babylon should be executed. <sup>13</sup> So, the decree was issued that the wise men should be put to death. Men were searching for Daniel and his companions, to put them to death.

<sup>14</sup> Then Daniel spoke discretely and tactfully to Arioch, the captain of the king's guard, who had gone out to execute the wise men of Babylon. <sup>15</sup> He asked Arioch, the king's officer, "Why is the decree from the king so harsh?"

Then Arioch explained the situation to Daniel.

<sup>16</sup> Daniel went in and asked the king to grant him a period of grace, that he might explain the meaning to the king.

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel went home and made the matter known to his companions, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah. <sup>18</sup> He told them to ask for mercy from the God of heaven about this mystery, that Daniel and his companions might not be destroyed with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. <sup>19</sup> Then the mystery was revealed to Daniel in a vision during the night. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven. <sup>20</sup> Daniel said: "Blessed be the name of God from everlasting to everlasting! For He is wise and powerful. <sup>21</sup> He changes times and seasons. He deposes kings and establishes kings. He gives wisdom to wise people and discernment to those who have insight. <sup>22</sup> He reveals deep and hidden things. He knows what is in darkness, and light dwells with Him. <sup>23</sup> To You, O God of my fathers, I give thanks and praise. For You have given me wisdom and power. You have now made known to me what we asked from You. For you have made the king's matter known to us."

<sup>24</sup> Therefore, Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to execute the wise men of Babylon. When he went to him he told him: "Do not execute the wise men of Babylon! Bring me in before the king, and I shall tell the king the interpretation."

<sup>28</sup> However, there is a God in heaven who reveals mysteries. He will tell King Nebuchadnezzar what will happen in days to come. This is the dream that you had and the visions that passed through your mind while you were in bed. <sup>29</sup> Your Majesty, while you were on your bed, you began to think about what would happen in the future. He who reveals mysteries has made known to you what will happen. <sup>30</sup> This secret has not been revealed to me because I am wiser than any other living persons are but that Your Majesty may be told the meaning and that you may understand the thoughts in your mind.

a large image. This image, which was very large and exceptionally bright, was standing in front of you and looked awesome. <sup>32</sup> The head of this image was of pure gold. Its chest and arms were of silver. Its belly and thighs were of bronze. <sup>33</sup> Its lower legs were of iron. Its feet were partly of iron and partly of clay. <sup>34</sup> You kept watching until a stone was cut out without human hands. It struck the image on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them. <sup>35</sup> Then at the same time the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were smashed. They became like the chaff on threshing-floors in summer. The wind carried them away, so that not a trace of them could be found. However, the stone that had struck the image became a large mountain and filled the whole world.

<sup>36</sup> "That was the dream. Now we shall tell Your Majesty what it means. <sup>37</sup> Your Majesty, you are the greatest king. For the God of heaven has given to you the kingship, the power, the strength and the glory.

<sup>38</sup> He has put in your hand human beings, wild animals and the birds of the sky, wherever they live. He has made you ruler over them all. You are that head of gold. <sup>39</sup> Another kingdom that is inferior to yours will arise after you. Then there will be a third kingdom, one of bronze, which will rule over the whole world.

<sup>40</sup> A fourth kingdom will be as strong as iron. For iron smashes and crushes everything. As iron crushes things, it will shatter and crush all these others. <sup>41</sup> As you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter's clay and partly of iron, there will be a divided kingdom. Yet some of the strength of iron will be in it. For you saw iron mixed with the wet clay. <sup>42</sup> The toes on the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay. The kingdom will be partly strong and partly brittle. <sup>43</sup> As you saw the iron mixed with wet clay, so people will mix with one another in human offspring. However, they will not stick to one another, as iron does not mix with clay.

<sup>44</sup> "At the time of those kings, the God of heaven will set up a kingdom that will never be destroyed. The kingdom will not be left to another people. It will crush and completely annihilate all these kingdoms. However, it will last for ever. <sup>45</sup> Since you saw that a stone was cut from the mountain without human hands and that it crushed the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver and the gold, the great God has made known to Your Majesty what will happen in the future. The dream is true, and its interpretation is trustworthy."

<sup>46</sup> Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell face-down before Daniel and showed him respect. He commanded that an offering and incense should be presented to him.

<sup>47</sup> The king told Daniel: "Certainly, your God is the God of gods and the Lord of kings and one who reveals mysteries. For you have been able to reveal this mystery."

<sup>48</sup> Then the king gave Daniel high honours and many great gifts. He made Daniel ruler over the whole province of Babylon and the chief administrator over all the wise men of Babylon. <sup>49</sup> Daniel made a request of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego as administrators over the province of Babylon. However, Daniel remained at the king's court.

3

The refusal of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego to worship Nebuchadnezzar's golden idol

<sup>1</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar made a golden statue that was thirty metres high and three metres wide. He set it up on the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

<sup>2</sup> King Nebuchadnezzar sent men to gather the satraps, the prefects, the governors, the advisers, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates and all the other officials of the provinces to attend the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, when all the people heard the sound of the horn, the pipe, the zither, the lyre, the harp and every other kind of musical instrument, all the people, the nations and language-groups fell and worshipped the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. <sup>8</sup> Therefore, at that time certain Chaldeans came forward and denounced the Jews. <sup>9</sup> They addressed King Nebuchadnezzar: "Your Majesty, live for ever! <sup>10</sup> Your Majesty, you have issued a command that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, the pipe, the zither, the lyre, the harp, the sackbut and every other kind of musical instrument shall fall and worship the golden image. <sup>11</sup> Anyone who does not fall and worship will be thrown into the flaming fire of a furnace. <sup>12</sup> There are certain Jews whom you have put in charge of the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. Your Majesty, these men have not paid any attention to you. They were not serving your gods and were not worshipping the golden statue that you have set up."

that you are not serving my gods or worshipping the golden statue that I have set up? <sup>15</sup> Now, if you are ready, when you hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, the zither, the lyre, the harp, the sackbut and any other kinds of musical instruments, to fall and worship the golden statue that I have made, well and good. However, if you do not worship it, you will immediately be thrown into the middle of the furnace of blazing fire. Then who is the god who will rescue you from my hands?"

<sup>16</sup> Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego answered the king: "O Nebuchadnezzar, we do not need to make a reply to you about this. <sup>17</sup> If this happens, our God, whom we serve, can rescue us from the furnace of blazing fire and will rescue us from your hand, Your Majesty. <sup>18</sup> However, if not, let it be known to you, Your Majesty, that we are not going to serve your gods or worship the golden statue that you have set up!"

God's deliverance of the three men from the fiery furnace

<sup>19</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with fury, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. He reacted by ordering the furnace to be heated seven times more than it was usually heated. <sup>20</sup> He ordered some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego and to throw them into the furnace of blazing fire.

<sup>21</sup> Then these three men were tied up in their tunics, trousers, caps and their other clothes and were thrown into the middle of the furnace of blazing fire.

<sup>22</sup> Because the king's order was so urgent and the furnace was so extremely hot, those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were themselves killed by the flames of the fire. <sup>23</sup> Therefore, these three men, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, fell, as they had been tied up, into the middle of the furnace of blazing fire.

<sup>24</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar was amazed and quickly stood up. He asked his royal officials, "Did we not throw three men who were tied up into the middle of the fire?"

They replied to the king, "Certainly, Your Majesty."

<sup>25</sup> He said: "Look! I see four men walking untied in the middle of the fire, and they are unharmed. The fourth one also looks like a son of the gods."

<sup>26</sup> Then Nebuchadnezzar went near the opening of the furnace of blazing fire and said, "Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, servants of the Most High God, come out and come here!"

Then Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego came out of the fire. <sup>27</sup> The king's satraps, prefects, governors and royal officials gathered together and saw that the fire had had no effect on the bodies of these men. The hair on their heads had not been singed, their garments remained the same, and there was no smell of fire on them. <sup>28</sup> Nebuchadnezzar said: "May the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego be praised! He has sent His angel and has rescued His servants, who have trusted in Him. They have defied the command of the king and have surrendered their bodies that they may not serve or worship any god except their own God. <sup>29</sup> Therefore, I herewith give an order that any nation, tribe or language-group that says anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego will be cut into pieces, and their homes will be turned into piles of rubble. For there is no other god who can rescue like this.”

<sup>1</sup> “From King Nebuchadnezzar to all peoples, nations and language-groups that live on the whole earth: May your prosperity increase! <sup>2</sup> It has seemed good to me to tell about the miraculous signs and wonders that the Most High God has done for me. <sup>3</sup> How great are His miraculous signs! How mighty are His wonders! His kingdom is an everlasting kingdom and His dominion endures from generation to generation. <sup>4</sup> I, Nebuchadnezzar, was contented at my home and prosperous in my palace. <sup>5</sup> I had a dream that startled me. As I lay in bed the fantasies and the visions in my mind terrified me. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, I issued a command that all the wise men of Babylon should be brought in before me, that they might tell me what the dream meant. <sup>7</sup> Then the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans and the astrologers came in and I told them the dream. However, they could not tell me what it meant. <sup>8</sup> Finally, Daniel came in before me. He had been renamed ‘Beltshazzar’ after the name of my god. The spirit of the holy gods is in him. I told him the dream: <sup>9</sup> ‘Beltshazzar, chief of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you and that no mystery is too difficult for you, tell me the visions that I saw in my dream, and explain to me what it means! <sup>10</sup> These are the visions in my head as I lay in bed: While I was looking, I saw a tree in the middle of the earth. It was very high. <sup>11</sup> The tree grew large and became strong. Its top reached up to the sky, and it could be seen in the farthest parts of the whole world. <sup>12</sup> Its leaves were beautiful, it had plenty of fruit, and there was enough food on it for everyone. The wild animals found shelter under it, the birds of the sky lived in its branches, and it fed every living creature.’

<sup>13</sup> “While I was seeing the visions in my head as I was lying in bed, I saw a sentinel, a holy one, coming down from heaven. <sup>14</sup> He shouted loudly. This is what he said: ‘Cut the tree down and cut off its branches! Strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit! The wild animals under it must run away, and the birds must leave its branches! <sup>15</sup> However, leave the stump and its roots in the ground, tied up with a band of iron and bronze in the grass of the open country! Let him become wet with the dew of the sky! Let him get his share of the grass on the ground with the animals!

<sup>16</sup> Let his mind be changed from that of a man, and let him be given the mind of an animal! Let him remain like this until seven periods of time pass over him!

<sup>17</sup> The Decision has been made by the decree of the sentinels. The holy ones have announced this verdict that those who are living may know that the Most High has power over the kingdom of men, that He gives it to whomever He wishes and that He places the lowliest human beings in charge of it.”

<sup>18</sup> “This is the dream that I, King Nebuchadnezzar, had. You, Beltshazzar, must tell me what it means. For none of the wise men of my kingdom has been able to tell me what it means. However, you can. For the spirit of the holy gods is in you.”

Daniel’s interpretation of Nebuchadnezzar’s dream about the large tree

<sup>19</sup> “Then Daniel, whose name was Beltshazzar, was appalled for a while. What he was thinking frightened him. The king told him, ‘Beltshazzar, do not let the dream and what it means terrify you!’

“Beltshazzar answered, ‘My master, I wish that the dream were about those who hate you, and its meaning applied to your enemies! <sup>20</sup> The tree that you saw, which grew large and became strong, so that its top reached up to the sky and so that it could be seen by the whole world, <sup>21</sup> which had beautiful leaves and plenty of fruit, which had enough food on it for everyone, under which the wild animals found shelter and in the branches of which the birds of the sky lived, <sup>22</sup> that tree is you, Your Majesty! You have grown great and become strong. Your greatness has grown and has reached up to the sky, and your dominion has reached the farthest parts of the world. <sup>23</sup> Because the king saw a sentinel, a holy one, coming down from heaven and saying: “Cut the tree down and destroy it but leave the stump and its roots in the ground, tied up with a band of iron and bronze in the grass of the open field, let him be wet with the dew of the sky and let him get his share with the wild animals until seven periods of time pass over him!” <sup>24</sup> this is what it means, Your Majesty. It is a Decision of the Most High, which has been issued against my master, the king, <sup>25</sup> People will drive you away from human beings so that you will live with wild animals. You will be made to eat grass like cattle. You will be wet with the dew of the sky. Seven periods of time will pass over you, until you acknowledge that the Most High has power over the kingdom of men and that He gives it to anyone He wishes. <sup>26</sup> Moreover, since they commanded that the stump and the roots of the tree should be left, your kingdom will be restored to you when you acknowledge that Heaven is the ruler. <sup>27</sup> Therefore, Your Majesty, let my advice be acceptable to you! Stop sinning, and do what is right! Cease committing your wrongs and show mercy to miserable people, that your prosperity may perhaps be prolonged!”

The humiliation of Nebuchadnezzar

<sup>28</sup> “All this happened to King Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>29</sup> Twelve months later he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon. <sup>30</sup> The king was prompted to say, ‘Is not this the great Babylon, which I myself have built by my mighty power as a royal residence and for the honour of my majesty?’”

<sup>31</sup> “While the words were still in the king’s mouth, a voice came from heaven: ‘King Nebuchadnezzar, this is what you are told: “The kingdom has been taken from you. <sup>32</sup> You will be driven away from human beings and live with the wild animals. You will be made to eat grass like cattle. Seven periods of time will pass over you, until you acknowledge that the Most High has power over the kingdom of men, that He gives it to anyone He wishes.”’”

<sup>33</sup> “Immediately the prediction about Nebuchadnezzar came true. He was driven away from people and ate grass like cattle. Dew from the sky made his body wet until his hair grew as long as eagles’ feathers and his nails were like birds’ claws.

<sup>34</sup> “At the end of that time I, Nebuchadnezzar, raised my eyes to heaven, and my sanity came back to me. I blessed the Most High and praised and glorified Him who lives for ever. For His dominion is an everlasting dominion, and His kingdom lasts from generation to generation. <sup>35</sup> All those who live on the earth are regarded as nothing, and He does whatever He pleases with the host of heaven and with those who live on the earth. No one can hold back His hand or ask Him, ‘What have you been doing?’”

<sup>36</sup> “At the same time my sanity came back to me. My majesty and splendour were also restored to me for the glory of my kingdom. My advisers and my nobles came to me for help, my royal authority was established again for me, and I was made extraordinarily great. <sup>37</sup> Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise, exalt and glorify the King of heaven. For everything that He does is true, and His Ways are just. He can humble those who act arrogantly.”

The handwriting on the wall at Belshazzar’s feast

The king watched the back of the hand as it was writing. <sup>6</sup> Then the king became pale with fear, and his thoughts terrified him. His hip-joints lost their strength, and his knees knocked together. <sup>7</sup> The king called loudly for the enchanters, the Chaldeans and the astrologers to be brought in. The king told the wise men of Babylon: “Whoever reads this writing and tells me what it means will be clothed with purple cloth, will have a chain of gold around his neck and will be the third-highest ruler in the kingdom.”

<sup>8</sup> Then all the king’s wise men came in but could not read the writing or tell the king what it meant. <sup>9</sup> Then King Belshazzar became very alarmed. His face turned pale, and his nobles were perplexed.

<sup>10</sup> Because of the discussion between the king and his nobles, the queen came into the banquet hall. The queen said: “Your Majesty, live for ever! Do not let your thoughts alarm you and do not turn pale!

<sup>11</sup> There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your predecessor, insight, understanding and wisdom like the wisdom of the gods were found in him. Your predecessor, King Nebuchadnezzar, yes, your own predecessor, the king, made him chief of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans and astrologers. <sup>12</sup> For an outstanding spirit, knowledge and insight to tell the meaning of dreams, explain riddles and solve problems have been found in this Daniel. The king gave him the name ‘Belteshazzar.’ Now let Daniel be called! He will explain what it means.”

Daniel’s interpretation of the writing on the wall

<sup>13</sup> Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king asked Daniel: “Are you Daniel, one of the exiles of Judah, whom my predecessor, the king, brought from Judah? <sup>14</sup> I have heard about you, that you have the spirit of the gods in you and that insight, understanding and exceptional wisdom have been found in you. <sup>15</sup> Although the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me to read this writing and tell me what it means, they have not been able to explain what it means. <sup>16</sup> I have heard about you, that you can give interpretations and solve problems. If you can read the writing and explain to me what it means, you will be clothed with purple cloth, have a chain of gold around your neck and will be the third-highest ruler in the kingdom.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Daniel answered the king: “Keep your gifts for yourself and give your rewards to someone else! Nevertheless, I shall read the writing to the king and tell him what it means. <sup>18</sup> Your Majesty, the Most High God gave your predecessor, Nebuchadnezzar, kingship, greatness, honour and glory. <sup>19</sup> Because of the greatness that He had given him, all peoples, nations and language-groups used to tremble and be afraid in his presence. He used to kill whomever he wanted to kill and let live whomever he wanted to let live. He used to raise up whomever he wanted to raise up and used to humble whomever he wanted to humble. <sup>20</sup> However, when he became arrogant and overbearing, so that he behaved presumptuously, he was deposed from his royal throne. His glory was taken away from him. <sup>21</sup> He was driven away from people and his mind became like an animal's. He lived with the wild donkeys. He was fed grass like cattle, and the dew from the sky wet his body, until he acknowledged that the Most High God has power over the kingdom of men and appoints over it anyone whom He wishes. <sup>22</sup> However, you, his successor, Belshazzar, have not humbled yourself, although you have known all this. <sup>23</sup> Rather, you have risen up against the Lord of heaven. The vessels of His Temple have also been brought here before you and you, your nobles, your wives and your concubines have been using them to drink wine. You have been praising the gods of silver, gold, bronze, iron, wood and stone, which do not see, hear or understand, but have not honoured the God who holds in His hand the breath of your life and to whom all your ways belong.

<sup>29</sup> Then Belshazzar ordered that Daniel should be clothed with purple cloth, that a chain of gold should be put around his neck and that a proclamation should be made about him, that he should be the third-highest ruler in the kingdom. <sup>30</sup> That very night Belshazzar, the king of the Chaldeans, was killed. <sup>31</sup> Darius, the Mede, took over the kingdom when he was sixty-two years old.

Daniel's rescue from the lions' den

<sup>1</sup> Darius decided that it would be good to appoint one hundred and twenty satraps over the kingdom, to hold office throughout the kingdom. <sup>2</sup> He also set three administrators over them, and Daniel was one of these. The satraps were to submit an account to them, that the king's interests might not be impaired. <sup>3</sup> Then this Daniel distinguished himself more than all the other administrators and satraps, because he had an exceptional spirit in him. The king planned to appoint him over the whole kingdom. <sup>4</sup> Then the other administrators and the satraps tried to find a legal basis for a charge against Daniel about the kingdom but could not find any legal basis for a charge or any other fault. For he was trustworthy. No negligence or fault was found in him. <sup>5</sup> Then these men said, "We shall not find any basis for a legal charge against this Daniel unless we find it in connection with the Law of his God."

<sup>6</sup> Then these other administrators and satraps went as a group to the king and told him: "King Darius, live for ever! <sup>7</sup> All the presidents of the kingdom, the prefects, the satraps, the state advisers and the governors have come to an agreement that the king shall issue a decree and enforce an injunction, that whoever makes a petition to any god or human being for thirty days, except to you, Your Majesty, shall be thrown into the den of lions. <sup>8</sup> Now, Your Majesty, establish the injunction and put it in writing, that it may not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which cannot be repealed!"

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, King Darius signed the written injunction. <sup>10</sup> When Daniel learned that the document had been signed, he went to his house, where he had windows in his upper room that opened towards Jerusalem. He continued to get down on his knees three times a day, praying and giving thanks to his God, as he had been doing previously. <sup>11</sup> Then these men went as a group and found Daniel praying to his God and asking Him for help. <sup>12</sup> Then they approached the king and spoke to him about the king's decree: "Your Majesty, did you not sign an injunction, that anyone who makes a petition to any god or human being for thirty days, except to you, Your Majesty, should be thrown into the den of lions?"

The king answered, "The matter is well established, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which cannot be repealed."

<sup>13</sup> Then they answered the king: "Daniel, who is one of the exiles from Judah, has not been paying any attention to you, Your Majesty, or to the injunction that you have signed. He continues to make his prayer three times a day."

<sup>14</sup> When the king heard this, he was very distressed. He determined to rescue Daniel and kept trying to save him until the sun went down. <sup>15</sup> Then these men went to the king as a group and told him, "Realise, Your Majesty, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians that no injunction or edict that the king establishes can be changed."

<sup>16</sup> Then the king gave an order, and Daniel was brought and thrown into the den of lions. The king told Daniel, "May your God, whom you serve constantly, rescue you!"

<sup>17</sup> A stone was brought and laid over the entrance to the den. The king sealed it with his own signet ring and with the signet rings of his nobles, to prevent any change being made in Daniel's situation. <sup>18</sup> Then the king went to his palace and spent the night without eating. Nothing was brought to him to entertain him, and he could not sleep. <sup>19</sup> Then, at the first light of dawn, the king got up and went quickly to the lions' den. <sup>20</sup> When he came near the den where Daniel was, the king called to Daniel in an anguished voice: “Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God, whom you serve constantly, been able to save you from the lions?”

<sup>21</sup> Then Daniel replied to the king: “Your Majesty, may you live for ever! <sup>22</sup> My God has sent His angel and has shut the lions’ mouths, and they have not hurt me, because I have been found innocent before Him. Your Majesty, I have also not committed anything that you might consider a crime.”

<sup>23</sup> Then the king was very glad about him. He commanded that Daniel should be brought up out of the den. When Daniel had been brought up out of the den, he was found to be completely unharmed, because he had trusted in his God. <sup>24</sup> Then the king commanded that those men who had laid charges against Daniel should be brought. They, their children and their wives were thrown into the den of lions. The lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones before they reached the bottom of the den. <sup>25</sup> Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations and language-groups that were living all over the world: “May your prosperity increase! <sup>26</sup> I have issued a command, that in all my royal dominion people should tremble with fear before the God of Daniel. For He is the living God and endures for ever. His kingdom will never be destroyed, and His dominion will last to the end. <sup>27</sup> He rescues and saves. He performs miraculous signs and wonders in heaven and on earth. He has rescued Daniel from the power of the lions.”

Daniel’s vision about four kingdoms and the Son of Man

<sup>1</sup> In the first year of Belshazzar, the king of Babylon, Daniel had a dream and had visions in his head while he was on his bed. Then he wrote down the dream and told the main parts of it. <sup>2</sup> Daniel began to speak: “In my visions at night I saw the four winds of the sky stirring up the Great Sea. <sup>3</sup> Four large animals, each one different from the others, came up out of the sea.

<sup>4</sup> “The first was like a lion but it had the wings of an eagle. I kept watching until its wings were torn off and it was lifted up from the ground. It was made to stand on two feet like a human being and was given a human mind.

<sup>5</sup> “Then I saw another different animal, like a bear. It was raised on one side. It had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, ‘Get up and devour much meat!’

<sup>6</sup> “After this I saw that there was another. It looked like a leopard. It had four wings of a bird on its back. The animal also had four heads and was given authority to rule.

and tramped what was left with its feet. It was different from all the other animals that had been before it and had ten horns. <sup>8</sup> While I was thinking about the horns, I saw that another little horn came up among them. It plucked out three of the first horns. I saw that this horn had eyes like the eyes of a human being and a mouth that spoke boastful words. <sup>9</sup> I kept watching until thrones were put in place, and the Ancient of Days was seated. His clothes were as white as snow, and the hair on His head was like pure wool. His throne was flaming with fire, and its wheels were blazing with fire. <sup>10</sup> A river of fire was flowing and was coming out in front of Him. A thousand thousands were attending Him. Ten thousand times ten thousand stood in front of Him. The law-court was seated, and the books were opened. <sup>11</sup> I continued to watch then, because of the sound of the boastful words that the horn was speaking. I continued to watch until the animal was killed. Its body was destroyed and put into a blazing fire. <sup>12</sup> The rest of the animals had their dominion taken away, but their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. <sup>13</sup> When I continued to watch in visions during the night, I saw Someone like the Son of Man coming among the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was presented before Him. <sup>14</sup> Then dominion, glory and a kingdom were given to Him, that all peoples, nations and language-groups might serve Him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which will not pass away, and His kingdom is one that will not be destroyed.”

<sup>15</sup> As for me, Daniel, my spirit inside me became distressed, and the visions in my head frightened me. <sup>16</sup> I went up to one of those who were standing there and asked him for the truth about all this. So, he told me and made known to me the interpretation of these things: <sup>17</sup> “These four large animals are four kings who will arise out of the earth. <sup>18</sup> However, the holy people of the Most High God will receive the kingdom and take possession of the kingdom for ever, yes, for ever and ever.”

<sup>19</sup> Then I wished to know the truth about the fourth beast, which was different from all the others. It was most terrifying, with its iron teeth and bronze claws. It devoured and crushed its victims and trampled underfoot whatever was left. <sup>20</sup> I also wished to know about the ten horns that were on its head and about the other horn that came up, and before which three of them fell. That horn had eyes and a mouth that spoke boastfully. It seemed to be larger than the others.

<sup>21</sup> As I continued to watch, this horn was making war against the holy people and was defeating them. <sup>22</sup> It did this until the Ancient of Days came, and a verdict was pronounced in favour of the holy people of the Most High. The time came when the holy people took possession of the kingdom. <sup>23</sup> This is what he said: “The fourth animal will be the fourth kingdom on the earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms. It will devour the whole earth, trample it down and crush it. <sup>24</sup> The ten horns are ten kings that will arise out of this kingdom. Another king will arise after them. He will be different from the previous ones. He will subdue three kings. <sup>25</sup> He will speak words against the Most High. He will wear down the holy people of the Most High. He will plan to change the sacred occasions and the Law. The holy people will be handed over to him for a time and times and half a time. <sup>26</sup> Nevertheless, the judicial assembly will sit, and his dominion will be taken away. He will be consumed and permanently destroyed. <sup>27</sup> The kingdom, the dominion and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people who are the holy ones of the Most High. His kingdom will be an everlasting kingdom and all dominions will serve and obey Him.”

<sup>28</sup> This is the end of the matter. I, Daniel, was greatly terrified by my thoughts. My face turned pale but I kept the information in my mind.

Daniel's vision about the ram and the goat

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of the reign of King Belshazzar, I, Daniel, saw a vision. It came after the one that had appeared to me on the previous occasion. <sup>2</sup> I saw in the vision that, while I was looking, I was in the fortified palace at Susa, which is in the province of Elam. I also saw in the vision that I was beside the Ulai Canal. <sup>3</sup> When I looked up I suddenly saw a ram standing in front of the canal. It had two horns, and both horns were long. However, one was longer than the other, and the longer one had grown up later. <sup>4</sup> I saw the ram butting westwards, northwards and southwards. No other animals could stand in front of it and none could rescue from its power. He did whatever he pleased and became great. <sup>5</sup> While I was thinking about this, I saw that a male goat was coming from the west. It came across the whole world without touching the ground. The goat had a prominent horn between its eyes. <sup>6</sup> It came up to the ram that had the two horns, which I had seen standing in front of the canal. It charged at the ram in its furious power. <sup>7</sup> I saw it coming closer to the ram. It became furious with the ram, butted it and broke its two horns. The ram did not have the strength to stand up against it. The goat threw it down to the ground and trampled on it. No one could rescue the ram from the goat's power. <sup>8</sup> Then the goat became very great. However, when it became powerful, the long horn was broken off. Four prominent horns grew in its place, pointing towards the four winds of the sky. <sup>9</sup> A little horn came out of one of them. It grew extremely large towards the south, towards the east and towards the Beautiful Land. <sup>10</sup> It grew as high as the starry host of the sky. It threw some of the stars of the heavenly host down to the ground and trampled on them. <sup>11</sup> It became as great as the Prince of the heavenly host. It took away the regular offering from Him, and the place of His sanctuary was violated. <sup>12</sup> Because of this wrongdoing an army was being assigned to oppose the regular offering. It threw what was true down to the ground. It was successful when it did this. <sup>13</sup> Then I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one asked the one who was speaking: “How long will the vision last about the regular offering, the wrongdoing that causes devastation and the surrender of the Holy Place and the army to be trampled underfoot?”

<sup>14</sup> He told me: “It will last two thousand, three hundred evenings and mornings. Then the Holy Place will be declared to be in its rightful state.”

Gabriel's interpretation of the vision

<sup>15</sup> When I, Daniel, had seen the vision, I tried to understand it. Then I saw someone who looked like a man standing in front of me. <sup>16</sup> I heard a man's voice above the middle of the Ulai. It called out, “Gabriel, explain the vision to that person!”

<sup>17</sup> He came near the place where I was standing. When he came, I was terrified and fell face-down. However, he told me, “Son of man, understand that the vision refers to the time of the end.”

<sup>18</sup> While he was speaking to me, I was stunned, with my face on the ground. However, he touched me and made me stand up. <sup>19</sup> He said: “Look! I shall tell you what will happen in the last time of anger. For it refers to the time fixed for the end. <sup>20</sup> The ram that you saw with the two horns is the kings of Media and Persia. <sup>21</sup> The male goat is the king of Greece. The large horn between his eyes is the first king. <sup>22</sup> The horn that was broken off and the four others that came up to replace it mean that four kingdoms will emerge from that nation but will not be as powerful as it had been. <sup>23</sup> At the end of their kingdom, when the wrongdoers have reached their full measure, a king with a defiant face, who has a good knowledge of intrigue, will arise. <sup>24</sup> He will become very powerful but not by his own strength. He will cause astounding destruction and will be successful in what he does. He will destroy powerful men and the nation of the holy people. <sup>25</sup> He will use his cunning to cause deceit to be successful and will consider himself superior. He will destroy many who thought that they were secure. He will stand up against the Prince of princes but will be broken, although not by human agency. <sup>26</sup> The vision that has been told about the evenings and the mornings is true. However, you must seal up the vision! For it refers to the distant future.”

<sup>27</sup> I, Daniel, was exhausted and was overcome by sickness for some days. Then I got up and attended to the king's business. However, the vision amazed me, and I did not understand it.

Daniel's prayer about Jerusalem

who was descended from the Medes and who became ruler over the kingdom of Babylon. <sup>2</sup> In the first year of his reign, I, Daniel, learned from the Scriptures the number of years that had to elapse, according to the Word of the LORD to the prophet Jeremiah. The devastation of Jerusalem was going to last for seventy years. <sup>3</sup> Then I turned my face to the Lord God. I pleaded with Him, by prayer and pleas for mercy, with fasting and in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>4</sup> I prayed to the LORD, my God, and made a confession. I said: "Please, Lord, You great and awesome God! You keep Your Covenant and faithful love with those who love You and keep Your Commandments. <sup>5</sup> We have been sinning, doing wrong, making ourselves guilty and rebelling. We have been turning away from Your Commandments and Your Decisions. <sup>6</sup> We have not been listening to Your servants, the prophets, who have been speaking in Your name to our kings, our princes, our fathers and all the common people. <sup>7</sup> Lord, righteousness belongs to You, but, as is so today, open shame belongs to us, to the men of Judah, to those who used to live in Jerusalem, to all Israel, to those who are near and to those who are far away, in all the lands where You have driven them, because they have been violating their obligations to You. <sup>8</sup> LORD, open shame belongs to us, to our kings, to our princes and to our fathers, because we have sinned against You. <sup>9</sup> Compassion and pardon belong to the Lord, our God. For we have rebelled against Him. <sup>10</sup> We have not been listening to the voice of the LORD, our God, and have not been living according to His Laws, which He set before us through His servants, the prophets. <sup>11</sup> All Israel has been overstepping Your Law, turning away and refusing to listen to Your voice. Therefore, the sworn curse, which has been written in the Law of Moses, the servant of God, has gushed out over us. For we have sinned against Him. <sup>12</sup> He has confirmed His Words, which He has threatened against us and against our rulers, who governed us, by bringing a great calamity on us. For nothing has been done in the whole world like what has been done in Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> As Scripture has said in the Law of Moses, this entire calamity has come on us. Nevertheless, we have not been trying to win the favour of the LORD, our God, by turning from our wrongs and by paying close attention to Your truth. <sup>14</sup> Therefore, the LORD has remained intent on the calamity and has brought it on us. For the LORD, our God, is righteous in all the works that He has done, but we have not been listening to His voice. <sup>15</sup> "Now, therefore, Lord, our God, although You have brought Your people out of Egypt with a mighty hand and have made a name for Yourself, as is so today, we have sinned and acted wickedly. <sup>16</sup> Lord, according to all Your righteous acts, please let Your anger and Your fury turn away from Your city, Jerusalem, Your holy mountain! For Jerusalem and Your people are scorned by all who are around us because of our sins and the wrongdoings of our fathers. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore, our God, listen to the prayer of Your servant and his supplications for favour! For Your own sake, Lord, look favourably on Your Holy Place, which is lying in ruins! <sup>18</sup> O my God, bend Your ear towards us and listen! Open Your eyes and look at our desolate places and at the city that has Your name invoked over it! For we are not presenting our supplications for favour in Your presence because we rely on our own righteousness but because we rely on Your great compassion. <sup>19</sup> Lord, hear! Lord, forgive! Lord, listen attentively and act! My God, do not delay, for Your own sake! For Your name has been invoked over Your city and over Your people."

The answer to Daniel's prayer brought by Gabriel

<sup>20</sup> While I was still speaking, praying, confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel and presenting my plea for mercy for the holy mountain of my God before the LORD, my God, <sup>21</sup> while I was still saying the prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the earlier vision, reached me in swift flight at the time of the evening sacrifice. <sup>22</sup> He gave me an explanation and told me: "Daniel, I have now come out to give insight and understanding to you. <sup>23</sup> When you began your pleas for mercy a Message went out, and I myself have come to tell it to you. For you are highly esteemed. Therefore, consider the Message and understand the vision! <sup>24</sup> 'Seventy sets of seven time-periods have been determined for your people and your holy city, to bring the rebellion to an end, to put a stop to sin, to atone for wrongdoing, to bring in everlasting righteousness, to put a seal on vision and prophecy and to anoint the holy of holies. <sup>25</sup> Know therefore and understand that, from the pronouncement of the Command to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until the Anointed One, a Prince, there will be seven sets of seven time-periods. For sixty-two sets of seven time-periods, it will be restored and rebuilt with squares and ditches but in times of distress. <sup>26</sup> After the sixty-two sets of seven time-periods, the Anointed One will be cut off and will have nothing. The people of the prince who is to come will destroy the city and the Holy Place. Its end will come with a flood, and until the end there will be war. Destructive things have been determined. <sup>27</sup> He will make a strong covenant with many people for one set of seven time-periods. In the middle of the seven time-periods he will put an end to sacrifices and offerings. On the wing of disgusting things someone will come who causes desolation until the complete destruction. What has been determined will pour out on the one who causes desolation.'"

The arrival of an angel with a message for Daniel

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of Cyrus, the king of Persia, a Message was revealed to Daniel, who had been renamed

“Beltshazzar.” The Message was true. It was about a great war. He began to understand the Message and received insight during the vision. <sup>2</sup> In those days I, Daniel, was mourning for three full weeks. <sup>3</sup> I did not eat any tasty food. No meat or wine entered my mouth. I did not use any lotions at all until the full three weeks were over. <sup>4</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the first month, I was on the bank of the great river, the Tigris. <sup>5</sup> When I looked up, I suddenly saw a Man dressed in linen, who had a belt of fine gold from Uphaz around His waist. <sup>6</sup> His body was like beryl. His face looked like lightning. His eyes were like flaming torches. His arms and the place where His feet were gleamed like polished bronze. When He spoke, His voice sounded like the roar of a crowd. <sup>7</sup> I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision. The men who were with me did not see the vision but began to tremble violently, ran away and hid themselves. <sup>8</sup> I was left alone when I saw this great vision. However, I had no strength left in me. My complexion turned deathly pale, and I lost all my strength. <sup>9</sup> Then I heard the sound of His Words. When I heard the sound of His Words, I fainted face-down on the ground. <sup>10</sup> Suddenly a hand touched me and set me trembling on my knees and on the palms of my hands. <sup>11</sup> He said to me: “Daniel, highly esteemed man, understand the Words that I am speaking to you! Stand up where you are! For I have now been sent to you.” When he said this to me, I stood up trembling. <sup>12</sup> He told me: “Do not be afraid, Daniel! For since the first day when you set your mind to understand and to humble yourself before your God, what you have been saying has been heard, and I myself have come because of what you have been saying. <sup>13</sup> The prince of the Persian kingdom kept opposing me for twenty one days, but then Michael, the first of the leading princes, came to help me, because I had remained behind there against the kings of Persia. <sup>14</sup> I have come to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future, because the vision refers to times that are still to come.”

<sup>15</sup> When he had told me these things, I bowed with my face toward the ground and was struck dumb.

<sup>16</sup> When suddenly someone who looked like a human being touched my lips, I opened my mouth and began to speak. I told the one who was standing in front of me: “My master, my pains have overwhelmed me because of the vision, and I have no strength left.

<sup>17</sup> How can I, my master’s servant, speak to you, my master? For now I have no strength remaining in me, and no breath is left in me.”

A prophecy of events in Persia, Greece, Egypt and Aram

<sup>18</sup> The one who looked like a human being touched me again and gave me strength. <sup>19</sup> He said: “Do not be afraid! You are a highly esteemed man. Peace be with you! Be strong! Yes, be strong!”

While he was speaking to me, I became stronger. I said: “Let my master speak! For you have strengthened me.”

<sup>20</sup> He asked: “Do you know why I have come to you? Now, however, I shall return to fight against the prince of Persia. Look! While I am out there, the prince of Greece will come. <sup>21</sup> However, I shall tell you what is recorded in the document of truth. No one is supporting me against these princes except Michael, the prince over your people.”

11

<sup>1</sup> “In the first year of Darius the Mede, I myself stood up to confirm and protect him.

A prediction that Greece will conquer Persia

<sup>2</sup> “Now I shall tell you the truth. Look! Three more kings will arise in Persia, and the fourth one will be much richer than all of the others have been. When he has become powerful through his wealth, he will stir up everyone against the kingdom of Greece. <sup>3</sup> Then a mighty king will appear, who will rule over a vast empire and do as he pleases. <sup>4</sup> When he has arisen, his kingdom will be broken up and divided in the direction of the four winds of the sky. It will not go to his descendants. It will not exercise the authority with which he ruled. For his kingdom will be uprooted and go to others besides these.

Prophecies about the Seleucid kings of Aram and the Ptolemies of Egypt

<sup>5</sup> “Then the king of the south will become strong. Then one of his princes will be stronger than he. He will rule and have authority over a large kingdom.

<sup>6</sup> After some years they will make an alliance. The daughter of the king of the south will go to the king of the north to make an alliance. However, she will not hold on to her power and authority. He and his power will not last. She, together with her attendants and the one who had fathered and protected her during those times will be handed over.

<sup>7</sup> “Someone who is a branch from her roots will arise in his place. He will attack the army of the north and enter the stronghold of its king. When he assaults them he will be victorious. <sup>8</sup> He will also capture their gods with their metal images and their precious vessels of silver and gold and take them away to Egypt. For some years he will stay away from the king of the north. <sup>9</sup> Then the king of the north will invade the kingdom of the king of the south but retreat to his own land.

<sup>10</sup> “Then his sons will prepare for war. They will assemble many large armies. They will keep on coming like a flood, pass through and again carry on the war as far as his stronghold. <sup>11</sup> Then the king of the south will become furious, come out and fight against the king of the north. Although he will put a large army in position, it will be handed over to the southern king.

<sup>12</sup> When that large army has been cleared away, the southern king will become conceited. Although he brings tens of thousands to ruin, he will not continue to be strong. <sup>13</sup> The king of the north will set in position a larger army than the first one. After some years have passed, he will come on with a large army and many supplies.

<sup>14</sup> “In those times many people will rebel against the king of the south. Violent men among your own people will rise up, so that they will fulfil this vision but will fail. <sup>15</sup> Then the king of the north will come, heap up assault-ramps and capture a well-fortified city. The forces of the south will not be able to resist. Even their best troops will not be strong enough to resist. <sup>16</sup> He who is attacking him will do as he pleases, and no one will be able to stand firm against him. He will take his position in the Beautiful Land and will have the power to destroy it completely. <sup>17</sup> He will decide to invade with the might of his entire kingdom. He will bring the terms of an agreement and enforce them. He will give the king of the south a young woman in marriage to overthrow the kingdom. However, the plan will not succeed, and the kingdom will not become his. <sup>18</sup> Afterwards he will turn his attention to the coastlands and capture many of them. However, a commander will put an end to his insolence. Instead, he will turn his insolence back on him. <sup>19</sup> Then he will turn back towards the fortresses of his own land. However, he will stumble, fall and not be seen any longer.

<sup>20</sup> “Then another will arise in his place. He will send a tax collector through the Glorious Kingdom. However, he will be destroyed within a few days, although not in anger or in war.

A prophecy about Antiochus Epiphanes (175-164 BC)

<sup>21</sup> “A despicable person will arise in his place. Royal majesty will not be given to him. He will come in when people are unsuspecting and seize the kingship through intrigues. <sup>22</sup> Overwhelming forces will be swept away before him and smashed, including the prince of the Covenant. <sup>23</sup> After an alliance has been made with him, he will act deceitfully and rise to power with only a few people. <sup>24</sup> When no one expects him he will come into the richest parts of the province and will do what neither his fathers nor his fathers’ fathers have done. He will distribute plunder, spoil and wealth among them. He will invent his clever plans against fortifications, but it will be for only a little while. <sup>25</sup> He will stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army. The king of the south will prepare for war with a great and extremely powerful army. However, he will not be able to stand, because clever schemes will be concocted against him. <sup>26</sup> People who eat the king’s rich food will ruin him. His army will be overwhelmed, and many will die in battle. <sup>27</sup> Both kings will plan to do evil. They will tell lies while they are at the same table. However, there will be no success, because the end will still come at the appointed time. <sup>28</sup> He will return to his own land with great wealth. He will be determined to oppose the holy Covenant. When he has carried that out, he will return to his own country.

<sup>29</sup> “At the appointed time he will again invade the south, but the later time will be different from the first. <sup>30</sup> When ships come against him from the coastlands, he will be afraid and withdraw. Then he will carry out his anger against the holy Covenant. When he returns, he will show favour to those who forsake the holy Covenant. <sup>31</sup> Forces sent by him will appear and desecrate the Holy Place, the stronghold. He will abolish the regular offering. People will set up the abomination that causes devastation. <sup>32</sup> He will use smooth words to corrupt those who violate the Covenant. However, the people who know their God will stand firm and take action. <sup>33</sup> Those who have insight among the people will enable many people to understand. However, for some days the sword, flame, captivity and confiscation will bring them down. <sup>34</sup> When they stumble, they will receive a little help, but many others who are not sincere will join them. <sup>35</sup> Some of those who have insight will also be brought down, that these things may refine them, purify and make them white, until the time of the end. For the end is still waiting for the appointed time.

<sup>36</sup> “The king will do as he pleases. He will lift himself up proudly and boast against every god. He will speak amazing things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the indignation has come to an end. For what has been determined will be carried out. <sup>37</sup> He will pay no attention to the gods of his fathers or to the one dearly loved by women. He will not pay attention to any god at all. For he will exalt himself against anything else. <sup>38</sup> He will honour the god of fortresses instead of these. He will honour a god whom his fathers have not known with gold, silver, precious stones and other valuable things. <sup>39</sup> He will attack secure fortifications with the help of a foreign god. He will highly honour those who acknowledge him. He will make them rulers over many people and distribute land as a reward.

<sup>40</sup> “At the time of the end the king of the south will wage war against him. However, the king of the north will storm against him with chariots, horses and many ships. He will invade countries and sweep through them like a flood. <sup>41</sup> He will invade the Beautiful Land. Tens of thousands will be brought down. However, these will escape from him: Edom, Moab and the chief part of the Ammonites. <sup>42</sup> He will extend his power against various countries, and Egypt will not escape. <sup>43</sup> He will gain control over the treasures of gold and of silver and all the other valuable things of Egypt. The Libyans and the Cushites will follow in his footsteps. <sup>44</sup> However, rumours from the east and the north will alarm him, and he will go out with great fury to destroy and exterminate many people. <sup>45</sup> He will pitch his royal tents between the sea and the beautiful holy mountain. Nevertheless, he will come to his end, and no one will help him.”

12

A prophecy about the time of the end

<sup>1</sup> “At that time Michael, the great prince, who stands to protect the descendants of your people, will rise up. There will be a time of distress unlike any that has occurred since there has been a nation until that time. Nevertheless, at that time each one of your people who is found written in the book will be rescued. <sup>2</sup> Many of those who are asleep in the land of dust will wake up, some to everlasting life and others to shame and everlasting abhorrence. <sup>3</sup> Moreover, those who have insight will shine like the bright dome of the sky, and those who lead many to righteousness like the stars for ever and ever.

The sealing up of the Words

<sup>4</sup> “As for you, Daniel, keep the Words secret and seal the book until the time of the end. Many people will go here and there, and knowledge will increase.”

<sup>5</sup> When I, Daniel, looked, I saw two others standing there. One was on this bank of the river, and the other was on the other bank of the river. <sup>6</sup> One of them asked the man who was dressed in linen clothes and who was above the water of the river, “How long will it be until the end of these wonderful events?”

<sup>7</sup> Then I heard the Man clothed in linen, who was above the water of the river. He raised His right hand and his left hand towards heaven and swore by Him who lives for ever that it would be for a unit of time, units of time and half a unit of time and that all these things would come to an end when the shattering of the power of the holy people comes to an end.

<sup>8</sup> Although I heard, I did not understand. Then I asked, “My master, what will be the outcome of these things?”

<sup>9</sup> He replied: “Go your way, Daniel! For the Words have been kept secret and sealed up until the time of the end. <sup>10</sup> Many will be purified, made white and refined, but wicked people will act wickedly. None of the wicked people will understand, but those who have insight will understand. <sup>11</sup> From the time when the regular offering is abolished and the abomination that causes devastation is set up there will be one thousand, two hundred and ninety days. <sup>12</sup> Blessed is he who is patient and arrives at the one thousand, three hundred and thirty-five days! <sup>13</sup> You yourself, however, go your way until the end! You will rest and arise for your allotted inheritance at the end of the days.”

HOSEA

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word of the LORD that came to Hosea, the son of Beerī, at the time when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, were the kings of Judah and at the time when Jeroboam, the son of Joash, was the king of Israel.

The marriage of Hosea to a prostitute

<sup>3</sup> So, Hosea went and married Gomer, the daughter of Diblaim. She became pregnant and bore him a son.

<sup>6</sup> Gomer became pregnant again and gave birth to a daughter. God told him: “Name her ‘Lo Ruhamah!’<sup>*156</sup> For I shall no longer have compassion on the family of Israel, to forgive them at all. <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless, I shall have compassion on the family of Judah and save them through the LORD, their God. However, I shall not use a bow, a sword, a battle, horses or horsemen to save them.”

<sup>8</sup> After Gomer had weaned Not-Having-Received-Compassion, she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. <sup>9</sup> God said: “Name him ‘Lo-Ammi!’<sup>*157</sup> For you are not My people, and I shall have nothing to do with you. <sup>10</sup> Nevertheless, the Israelites will become as numerous as the sand beside the sea, which cannot be measured or counted. In the place where they used to be called, ‘Not-My-people,’ they will be called, ‘The-Children-of-the-Living-God.’ <sup>11</sup> The people of Judah and the people of Israel will assemble, appoint one leader for themselves and withdraw from the land. For the day of Jezreel will be great.

<sup>1</sup> “Name your brothers, ‘Ammi!’<sup>*158</sup> and your sisters, ‘Ruhamah!’<sup>*159</sup>

God’s declaration that Israel, His unfaithful wife, will be punished

<sup>2</sup> “Rebuke your mother! Rebuke her! For she is not My wife, and I am not her husband. She should get rid of the look of a prostitute on her face and should remove her marks of fornication from between her breasts!

<sup>3</sup> Otherwise I shall strip her naked and make her bare, as she was on the day when she was born. I shall make her like a desert, make her like a dry land and kill her with thirst. <sup>4</sup> I shall have no compassion on her children, because they are the children of prostitution. <sup>5</sup> For their mother has been committing fornication. She who was pregnant with them has been acting shamefully. For she has been saying, ‘I shall follow my lovers, who give me my food, my water, my wool, my linen, my olive-oil and my drinks.’

<sup>8</sup> “She did not recognise that I Myself had been giving her the grain, the new wine and the olive-oil. I had been generously supplying her with silver and gold, but people have been using them for Baal. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, I shall take back My grain when it is ripe and My new wine when it is in season. I shall take away My wool and My linen, which had been meant to cover her naked body. <sup>10</sup> Now therefore, I shall expose her genitals while her lovers are watching, and no one will rescue her from Me. <sup>11</sup> I shall put an end to all her gaiety, her feasts, her celebrations of the New Moon, her Sabbaths, yes, all her appointed feasts. <sup>12</sup> I shall lay waste her grapevines and her fig-trees. She had said about them, ‘These are my hire for prostitution, which my lovers have given me.’ I shall turn them into a thicket, and the wild animals will devour them. <sup>13</sup> I shall call her to account for the feast days of the Baals, when she used to burn offerings to them, when she adorned herself with her nose-ring and her jewellery, when she chased after her lovers and forgot Me,” declares the LORD.

A promise of mercy for Israel

<sup>14</sup> “Therefore, look! I shall persuade her. I shall lead her into the wilderness and speak tenderly to her. <sup>15</sup> There I shall give her vineyards to her. I shall make the Valley of Achor<sup>*160</sup> a doorway of hope. There she will be responsive, as she was when she was young, as she was when she came up out of Egypt. <sup>16</sup> On that day,” declares the LORD, “you will call Me ‘My Husband,’ and you will not call Me ‘My Baal’<sup>*161</sup> any longer. <sup>17</sup> I shall remove the names of the Baals from her mouth. They will not be remembered by their names any longer. <sup>18</sup> On that day I shall make a covenant for them with the wild animals, with the birds in the sky and with the creatures that crawl on the ground. I shall abolish bows, swords and war from the land and make them lie down in safety. <sup>19</sup> I shall betroth you to Myself for ever. I shall betroth you to Myself in righteousness, in justice, in faithful love and in compassion. <sup>20</sup> I shall betroth you to Myself in faithfulness. Then

you will know the LORD.

<sup>21</sup> “On that day I shall answer,” declares the LORD. “I shall respond willingly to the skies, and they will respond willingly to the earth. <sup>22</sup> The earth will respond willingly to the grain, the new wine and the olive-oil, and they will respond willingly to Jezreel. <sup>23</sup> I shall sow her in the land for Myself. I shall have compassion on Not Having Received Compassion. I shall name Not My People ‘You are My People.’ Then My people will say, ‘You are my God.’”

3

Hosea's renewal of love to his unfaithful wife

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told me: “Go again, love a woman who is loved by another man and who is an adulteress, as the LORD loves the Israelites, although they keep turning to other gods and love sacred raisin-cakes.”

<sup>3</sup> I told her: “You must stay at home as mine for a long time! You shall not be a prostitute or be intimate with any other man, and I shall be faithful to you. <sup>4</sup> For the Israelites shall stay at home for a long time without a king or a prince, without a sacrifice or a sacred stone, without an ephod or any household-gods! <sup>5</sup> After that, the Israelites will return and be intent on the LORD, their God and David, their king. They will come in fear to the LORD and to His blessings in the last days.”

God's legal case against Israel

<sup>1</sup> Listen to the Word of the LORD, Israelites! For the LORD has a lawsuit against the people who are living in the land. For there is no faithfulness, no faithful love and no knowledge of God in the land. <sup>2</sup> There are cursing, lying, murdering, stealing and committing adultery. People have been acting violently, and one murder has been following another. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, the land is drying up, and everyone who is living in it is withering away. The wild animals, the birds of the sky and even the fish in the sea are declining. <sup>4</sup> Nevertheless, no one should bring a legal action! No one should rebuke anyone else! Your people are like those who are in conflict with a priest.

<sup>5</sup> “You will stumble during the day. The prophet will also stumble with you during the night.

“I shall also destroy your mother. <sup>6</sup> My people have been destroyed because they lack knowledge. For you have rejected knowledge. I shall also reject you, so that you will not be My priest. You have forgotten the Law of your God. I Myself shall also forget your children.

<sup>7</sup> The more numerous they have become, the more they have been sinning against Me. I shall change their glory into shame.” <sup>8</sup> They feed on the sin-offering of My people. They want them to keep on sinning. <sup>9</sup> The people and the priests will be alike. I shall call them to account for their behaviour and pay them back for what they have been doing.”

<sup>14</sup> “I shall not punish your daughters when they engage in prostitution or your daughters-in-law when they commit adultery.”

For the men themselves are going aside with prostitutes and offering sacrifices with shrine-prostitutes. A people that does not understand will come to ruin.

<sup>15</sup> Israel, if you are engaging in prostitution, Judah should not become guilty. Do not go to Gilgal! Do not go up to Beth-Aven! Do not swear an oath using, “As surely as the LORD lives!” <sup>16</sup> Israel have been as stubborn as a stubborn cow. Will the LORD now shepherd them like lambs in a spacious pasture? <sup>17</sup> Ephraim have become allied with idols. Leave him<sup>162</sup> alone! <sup>18</sup> When their drinks have run out, they have indulged in prostitution. Their rulers dearly love what is shameful. <sup>19</sup> A wind will wrap that country in its wings, and they will be ashamed because of their sacrifices.”

The announcement of a verdict against Israel

<sup>1</sup> “You priests, listen to this! Family of Israel, pay close attention! You royal family, use your ears! For the judgment concerns you. For you have been a trapping-net at Mizpah, and a net has been spread out on Tabor. <sup>2</sup> Rebels have become deeply involved in slaughter, but I shall discipline all of them. <sup>3</sup> I Myself know Ephraim, and Israel has not been hidden from Me.”

For now, Ephraim, you have been practising prostitution. Israel has defiled himself. <sup>4</sup> What they are doing does not allow them to return to their God. For the spirit of prostitution is in their hearts, and they do not know the LORD. <sup>5</sup> The arrogance of Israel has been testifying against them. Israel and Ephraim stumble in their sin. Judah has also been stumbling with them. <sup>6</sup> Although they go to search for the LORD with their flocks and herds, they will not find Him. He has withdrawn from them. <sup>7</sup> They have been treating the LORD treacherously. For they have given birth to illegitimate children. Now the New Moon will devour them with their allot-

An announcement that God will punish Israel and Judah for their sin

“I have made known what is certain among the tribes of Israel. <sup>10</sup> The princes of Judah have become like those who move boundary markers. “I shall pour out My wrath on them like water.” <sup>11</sup> Ephraim has been oppressed and crushed in judgment, because he has been determined to pursue worthless idols.

<sup>12</sup> “However, I shall be like a clothes-moth to Ephraim. I shall be like decay to the family of Judah.”

<sup>13</sup> When Ephraim saw his sickness and Judah saw his ulcer, Ephraim went to Assyria. He sent to the great king for help. However, he cannot cure you people or heal your ulcers.

<sup>14</sup> “For I shall be like a lion to Ephraim and like a young lion to the family of Judah. I, yes, I, shall tear them to pieces and go away. I shall carry them off, and no one will rescue them. <sup>15</sup> I shall go back to My own place until they suffer for their guilt. Then they will be intent on My face, and, in their distress, they will earnestly search for Me.”

6

The insincere response of the people

<sup>1</sup> “Come! Let us return to the LORD! For, although He has torn us apart, He will heal us. Although He strikes us down, He will bandage our wounds. <sup>2</sup> After two days He will revive us. On the third day He will raise us, that we may live in His presence. <sup>3</sup> Let us know, let us press on to know the LORD! He will come out as surely as the dawn. He will come to us like the rain, like the Spring-rain, which waters the land.”

God’s reply to the people

<sup>4</sup> “What shall I do with you, Ephraim? What shall I do with you, Judah? Your faithful love is like a morning cloud and disappears like the early dew. <sup>5</sup> That is why I have used the prophets to cut them off. I have used the Words of My mouth to kill them. My Judgments against you go forth like the light. <sup>6</sup> For I desire mercy and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.

Israel’s rejection of God’s Covenant

<sup>7</sup> “However, like Adam, they have been breaking the Covenant. There they have been dealing treacherously with Me. <sup>8</sup> Gilead is a city of evildoers. It can be tracked by bloodshed. <sup>9</sup> As robbers lie in wait for a man, so priests band together. They commit murder on the road to Shechem. Indeed, they have been behaving shamefully. <sup>10</sup> I have seen something horrible in the family of Israel. Ephraim’s fornication is there. Israel has defiled himself. <sup>11</sup> A harvest has been appointed for you also, Judah, when I bring My people back from captivity.”

7

<sup>1</sup> “When I want to heal Israel, the guilt of Ephraim and the wicked deeds of Samaria are exposed. For they practise deceit. Thieves break in, and bandits grasp plunder outside. <sup>2</sup> However, they do not consider that I remember all their wickedness. Now what they have been doing is all around them and is right in front of Me.

The similarity between Israel and an oven

A condemnation of the Israelites’ appeal to other nations for help

<sup>8</sup> Ephraim mixes himself with the other nations. Ephraim has become a flat loaf that has not been turned over. <sup>9</sup> Although foreigners have been consuming his strength, he does not realise it. Although his hair has become dappled with grey, he does not realise it. <sup>10</sup> The arrogance of Israel has given evidence against him. Yet, despite all this, they have not returned to the LORD, their God, or looked to Him for help.

<sup>11</sup> “Ephraim has become like a gullible and senseless dove. They have been calling to Egypt. They have been going off to Assyria. <sup>12</sup> When they go off, I shall spread My net over them. I shall bring them down like birds of the sky. I shall discipline them according to the Message that their congregation has heard. <sup>13</sup> How terrible it will be for them! For they have fled from Me. They will be destroyed. For they have rebelled against Me. Although I Myself was redeeming them, they told lies about Me. <sup>14</sup> They have not been crying out to Me from their hearts, although they wail on their beds. They live like foreigners for the sake of grain and new wine. They rebel against Me. <sup>15</sup> Although I Myself have taught them and made their arms strong, they plan evil against Me.”

<sup>16</sup> Although they return, it is not to the Most High. They have become like a slack bow. Their princes will fall by the sword because they have been using their tongues to curse. They will be ridiculed for this in the land of Egypt.

8

A threat of punishment on Israel because of his rebellion

<sup>1</sup> “Put a horn to your mouth! Someone like an eagle is over the Temple of the LORD, because they have been breaking My covenant and have been rebelling against My Law. <sup>2</sup> Israel cry out to Me, ‘Our God, we know You!’ <sup>3</sup> Israel has rejected what is good. An enemy will pursue him. <sup>4</sup> Although they have been making kings, they have not done it at My direction. Although they have been installing officials, I have not known about it. They have been using their silver and gold to make idols for themselves, with the result that they will be exterminated. <sup>5</sup> My wrath has rejected your calf-idols, Samaria, and has become hot against them. How long will they be unable to be pure?”

<sup>6</sup> For Israel has made Samaria’s calf. A skilled workman has made it, and it is not God. Indeed, the calf of Samaria will be broken into splinters. <sup>7</sup> For they sow the wind and will harvest the storm wind. The grain-crops will not sprout up. They will not produce any flour. If they were to produce anything, foreigners would swallow it. <sup>8</sup> Israel will be swallowed up. Among the other nations they have already become like a container in which no one takes any delight. <sup>9</sup> For they have been going up to Assyria, like a wild donkey wandering by itself. The people of Ephraim have been hiring themselves out to lovers. <sup>10</sup> Although they are hiring themselves out among the nations, I shall now gather them together. They will begin to diminish because of the tribute of the king of princes. <sup>11</sup> Because Ephraim has made numerous altars for sin-offerings, they have become altars for committing sin for him. <sup>12</sup> If I were to write ten thousand things in My Law for him, they would be regarded as foreign. <sup>13</sup> They sacrifice My sacrificial offerings as meat and have eaten them.”

However, the LORD has not been well disposed towards them. Now He will remember their wrongs and call their sins to account. They will go back to Egypt. <sup>14</sup> Israel has forgotten his Maker and has built palaces. Judah has built many fortified cities. “Therefore, I shall send a fire on their cities, and it will consume their fortified palaces.”

A prophecy that Israel will go into exile

<sup>1</sup> Israel, do not rejoice! Do not be joyful like the other nations! For you have been practising prostitution, forsaking your God. You have loved a prostitute’s wages on all threshing floors. <sup>2</sup> Threshing floors and wine vats will not feed them and the new wine will not yield itself to her. <sup>3</sup> They will not remain in the land of the LORD. Ephraim will go back to Egypt. They will eat unclean food in Assyria. <sup>4</sup> They will not pour out drink-offerings of wine to the LORD, and their sacrifices will not please Him. Their sacrifices will be like the food that mourners eat. All who eat it will make themselves unclean. Their food will only satisfy their appetites. It will not come to the Temple of the LORD. <sup>5</sup> What will you do on the day appointed for an assembly and on the day of the feast of the LORD? <sup>6</sup> For look! Even if they avoid destruction, Egypt will gather them. Memphis will bury them. Weeds will take possession of their silver valuables. Thorn-bushes will grow in their tents. <sup>7</sup> The days for punishment will come. The days of retribution will come. Israel will know it. The prophet is considered a fool, and the spiritual man is thought to be mad because your sins are so many and your animosity is so great. <sup>8</sup> Although a prophet is a watchman for my God over Ephraim, a fowler’s trap is laid on all his paths, and there is animosity in the Temple of his God. <sup>9</sup> They have deeply corrupted themselves as they once did at Gibeah. He will remember their wrongdoing. He will call their sins to account.

A declaration that the rottenness of Israel is like that of bad grapes or bad figs

<sup>10</sup> “I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness. I saw your fathers like the first fruit on the fig-tree in its first season. When they arrived at Baal-Peor they consecrated themselves to that shameful idol. They became disgusting like the thing that they loved. <sup>11</sup> Ephraim’s glory will fly away like a bird. There will be no birth, no pregnancy and no conception! <sup>12</sup> Even if they bring up their children, I shall bereave them until none is left. Indeed, how terrible also for them when I stand aloof from them! <sup>13</sup> I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a meadow. However, Ephraim must lead his children out to be killed.”

<sup>15</sup> “All their wickedness was evident in Gilgal. For I hated them there. I shall drive them out of My house because of their evil deeds. I shall not love them any longer. All their princes are stubborn. <sup>16</sup> Ephraim has been struck down. Their roots have dried up. They will not produce any fruit. Even though they give birth, I shall put their dear babies to death.”

<sup>17</sup> My God will reject them because they have not been listening to Him. They will wander among the nations.

10

A prophecy of captivity for Israel because of his sin

<sup>1</sup> Israel is a luxuriant vine that repeatedly yields ripe fruit for himself. The more his fruit used to increase, the more altars he built. As his country improved, he improved sacred pillars. <sup>2</sup> Their hearts have been deceitful. Now they must bear their guilt. God will break down their altars and destroy their sacred pillars. <sup>3</sup> Indeed, now they are saying, “We have no king. For we do not fear the LORD. If we had a king, what could he do for us?” <sup>4</sup> They have been using empty talk. They have been concluding agreements by swearing to lies. Lawsuits have been sprouting up like poisonous weeds along the furrows of a field. <sup>5</sup> The residents of Samaria will be afraid because of the calves of Beth-Aven.<sup>*163</sup> For its people will mourn over it, and its priests will tremble because of it, because of its splendour. For it will depart from it. <sup>6</sup> Yes, the thing itself will be carried off to Assyria as a present to the great king. Ephraim will be disgraced, and Israel will be ashamed because of what he had been planning. <sup>7</sup> Samaria and its king will be destroyed like a twig on the surface of water. <sup>8</sup> The high places of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be made unusable. Thorn-bushes and thistles will grow up over their altars, and people will say, "Cover us!" to the mountains and, "Fall on us!" to the hills.

<sup>9</sup> "Israel, you have been sinning since the time of Gibeah. There they have continued. Will war not overtake the evildoers in Gibeah? <sup>10</sup> When I please I shall discipline them. Nations will be gathered against them when they are tied up because of their double wrongdoing.

A comparison of Israel to a heifer that threshes grain

<sup>11</sup> "Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh grain. I Myself had spared her beautiful neck. I shall place a yoke on Ephraim."

Judah will plough. Jacob will do his harrowing. <sup>12</sup> Sow righteousness for yourselves! Harvest faithful love in full measure! Break up your virgin-soil! It is the time to look for the LORD, until He comes and rains righteousness on you. <sup>13</sup> You have been ploughing wickedness. You have been harvesting evil. You have been eating the fruit of lies. For you have been trusting in your own behaviour and in your many warriors. <sup>14</sup> The roar of battle will arise among your people, and all your fortresses will be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-Arbel on the day of battle. Mothers were dashed in pieces on top of their children. <sup>15</sup> This is what will be done to you, Bethel, because of your great wickedness. When the day breaks the king of Israel will be completely destroyed.

11

The comparison of Israel to a wayward son

<sup>1</sup> "When Israel was a child, I loved him and called My son out of Egypt. <sup>2</sup> The more people called to them, the more they went away from them. They kept sacrificing to the Baals and burning offerings to idols. <sup>3</sup> Nevertheless, I was the One who taught Ephraim to walk. I took him up by his arms, but they did not realise that it was I who had healed them. <sup>4</sup> I used to lead them with strings of leather, with ropes of love. I became for them like one who took away the yoke on their jawbones. I bent down to him and fed him. <sup>5</sup> He will not return to the land of Egypt. Instead, the Assyrian will be his king. For they have refused to return". <sup>6</sup> The sword will whirl around in his cities. It will put an end to his gate-bars and devour them, because of their own plans. <sup>7</sup> My people are determined to turn away from Me."

Although they call out together to the Most High, He will not lift them up.

God's love for Israel

<sup>8</sup> "How can I give you up, Ephraim? How can I hand you over, Israel? How can I make you like Admah?

How can I treat you like Zeboim? My heart has altered inside Me. My compassion has all at once been aroused. <sup>9</sup> I shall not carry out My fierce anger. I shall not destroy Ephraim again. For I am God and not a man, the Holy One among you, and I shall not come in anger."

<sup>10</sup> They will follow the LORD. He will roar like a lion. When He roars, His children will come with trembling from the west. <sup>11</sup> They will come trembling like a bird from Egypt or like a dove from the land of Assyria.

"I shall settle them in their own homes," declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> "Ephraim has surrounded Me with lies and the family of Israel with deceit."

Judah has still been wandering with God, with the Holy One, who is faithful.

12

Israel's neglect of what God has done for him

<sup>1</sup> Ephraim feeds on the wind and chases after the east wind all day long. He tells many lies and commits much violence. They make a treaty with Assyria, and olive-oil is dispatched to Egypt. <sup>2</sup> The LORD is bringing a lawsuit against Judah and will call Jacob to account, as his conduct has deserved. He will pay him back for what he has been doing. <sup>3</sup> In the womb Jacob grasped his brother by the heel and, when he grew strong, he struggled against God. <sup>4</sup> When he struggled against the Angel, he prevailed. He wept and begged for His favour. He found Him at Bethel and there He used to speak to us. <sup>5</sup> The LORD, the God of hosts, the LORD, is the name by which He is invoked. <sup>6</sup> However, you yourself should turn back to your God! Maintain faithful love and justice and wait constantly for your God!

<sup>7</sup> He is a merchant who has fraudulent scales in his hands. He loves to defraud others. <sup>8</sup> Ephraim has been saying, "I have certainly become rich. I have found wealth for myself. People will not find me guilty of wrongdoing, which is sin, in any of my acquisitions."

A contrast between Jacob and his descendants in Israel

<sup>9</sup> "I have been the LORD, your God, ever since the land of Egypt. I shall make you live in tents again, as in the days of your appointed feasts. <sup>10</sup> I have been speaking to the prophets. I Myself have been giving many visions. I used to tell parables through the prophets."

<sup>11</sup> If Gilead is wicked, they will certainly come to nothing. When they sacrifice bulls in Gilgal, even their altars will become like heaps of stones in the furrows of a field. <sup>12</sup> Jacob fled to the territory of Aram. There Israel worked to acquire a wife. He watched sheep to acquire a wife. <sup>13</sup> The LORD used a prophet to bring Israel up from Egypt. He used a prophet to take care of him. <sup>14</sup> Ephraim has been causing bitter provocation. His Lord will leave his guilt for shedding blood on him and will pay him back for his scorn.

13

A prophecy that the people of Israel will be punished for their idolatry

<sup>1</sup> When Ephraim spoke, people used to tremble. Although he had lifted himself up in Israel, he incurred guilt through Baal and died. <sup>2</sup> Now they keep on sinning increasingly. They have been using their silver to make metal images for themselves. The idols correspond to their own understanding. All of them are the work of craftsmen. People say about them: "Those who offer human sacrifices kiss calves!" <sup>3</sup> That is why they will be like morning mist, like the early dew, which disappears, like the chaff that swirls away from the threshing floor and like smoke out of a window.

<sup>4</sup> "However, I have been the LORD, your God, ever since Egypt. You will not know any God but Me. There is no Saviour except Me. <sup>5</sup> I Myself took care of you in the wilderness, in the land of drought. <sup>6</sup> However, when they had finished grazing, they became satisfied and, when they were satisfied, their hearts became proud. That is why they have forgotten Me. <sup>7</sup> I have become like a lion to them. I shall lie in wait beside the road like a leopard. <sup>8</sup> I shall confront them like a bear robbed of her cubs. I shall tear open the cavities around their hearts. I shall devour them there like a lion, like a wild animal that tears them to pieces. <sup>9</sup> It has destroyed you, Israel. For you are against Me, against your Helper. <sup>10</sup> Where, then, is your king, that he should save you in all your cities? Where are your rulers, about whom you have been saying: 'Give us a king and princes!'" <sup>11</sup> I used to give you a king when I was angry and used to take him away when I was furious."

<sup>12</sup> The wrongdoing of Ephraim has been wrapped up. His sin has been stored up. <sup>13</sup> When the labour-pains of a mother in childbirth come for him, he is a foolish son. For, when it is his time, he does not present himself at the opening of the cervix.

<sup>14</sup> "I shall ransom them from the power of Sheol. I shall redeem them from death. Death, where are your stings? Sheol, where is your destruction? I shall not consider changing My mind."

<sup>15</sup> Although he may flourish among his relatives, an east wind, the wind of the LORD, will come. It will come up from the wilderness. Then his spring will become dry. His well will dry up. The east wind will plunder every precious article from his storehouse. <sup>16</sup> Samaria will suffer for her guilt. For she has rebelled against her God. They will fall by the sword. Their children will be dashed to pieces, and his pregnant women will be ripped open.

14

An offer of forgiveness and an encouragement to repent and return

<sup>1</sup> Israel, return to the LORD, your God! For you have stumbled because of your sin. <sup>2</sup> Take words with you and return to the LORD! Tell Him: "Forgive all our wrong! Receive what is good, that we may use bulls to repay what our lips have promised!"

<sup>3</sup> Assyria will not save us. We shall not ride on horses and no longer say, "Our gods," to what our own hands have made. For an orphan finds mercy in You.

<sup>4</sup> "I shall heal their apostasy. I shall love them freely. For My anger has turned away from them. <sup>5</sup> I shall be like the dew to Israel."

He will blossom like the lily. He will strike his roots like the trees of Lebanon. <sup>6</sup> Their shoots will spread out. They will be as splendid as an olive-tree. They will be as fragrant as the cedars of Lebanon. <sup>7</sup> People will return and live under God's shadow. They will grow grain. They will shoot like a grapevine. He will be as famous as the wine of Lebanon.

<sup>8</sup> "Ephraim, why should I be involved with idols any longer? I Myself have answered and shall look after him. I am like a leafy juniper tree. You find your fruit from Me."

<sup>9</sup> Whoever is wise should also understand these things. Whoever is discerning should also know them. For the Ways of the LORD are right. Righteous people walk in them, but rebellious people stumble over them.

JOEL

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word of the LORD, which came to Joel, the son of Pethuel:

The locust-plague and the famine in Judah

A call for repentance

<sup>13</sup> Put on sackcloth and mourn, priests! Wail, you who minister before the altar! Go inside! Spend the night in sackcloth, ministers of my God! For grain-offerings and drink-offerings have been withheld from the Temple of your God. <sup>14</sup> Announce a sacred period of fasting! Proclaim a solemn assembly! Gather the elders and all the others who live in the land, to the Temple of the LORD, your God, and cry out to the LORD! <sup>15</sup> How dreadful the day is! For the day of the LORD is near and will come like devastation from the Almighty. <sup>16</sup> Has the food not been cut off before our eyes? Have joy and rejoicing not been removed from the Temple of our God? <sup>17</sup> The seeds of grain have shrivelled under their husks. The storehouses have been deserted. The grain-silos have been torn down because the grain has dried up. <sup>18</sup> How the animals are groaning! The herds of cattle are wandering around in confusion. For there is no pasture for them. Even the flocks of sheep are suffering punishment. <sup>19</sup> I am calling to You, LORD. For fire has devoured the grazing places in the wilderness. Flames have scorched all the trees in the fields. <sup>20</sup> Even the wild animals are longing for You. For streams of water have dried up, and fire has devoured the grazing places in the wilderness.

Let all who live in the land tremble! For the day of the LORD is coming. Certainly, it is near. <sup>2</sup> It is a dark and gloomy day, a day of clouds and thick darkness. It is like the first light of morning spreading over the mountains. A great and mighty “army” is coming. There has never been anything like them, and there will be no others again after them, to the years of many generations. <sup>3</sup> A fire has been devouring in front of them. Flames are setting ablaze behind them. The land is like the Garden of Eden in front of them but is a desolate wilderness behind them, and nothing has escaped from them at all. <sup>4</sup> They look like horses and gallop like war-horses. <sup>5</sup> They rumble like chariots as they leap about over the tops of the mountains. They crackle like a flame of fire consuming stubble. They are like a powerful army in battle formation. <sup>6</sup> Nations writhe in anguish before them. All faces have flushed red. <sup>7</sup> They charge like warriors. They scale walls like soldiers. Each one marches straight ahead. They do not swerve from their paths. <sup>8</sup> They do not jostle one another. Each marches in line. They burst through under a hail of missiles. They make no detours. <sup>9</sup> They charge against the city. They run along the walls. They climb up into the houses. They enter through the windows like thieves. <sup>10</sup> The earth has been trembling in front of them. The sky has been quaking. The sun and the moon have become dark, and the stars have withdrawn their brightness. <sup>11</sup> The LORD has been raising His voice in front of His army. For His camp is very large; He who is carrying out His Command is powerful. For the day of the LORD is great and very awesome. Who can endure it?

An invitation from God to the people to return to Him

<sup>12</sup> “Nevertheless, even now,” declares the LORD, “return to Me with all your hearts, with fasting, with weeping and with mourning! <sup>13</sup> Tear your hearts and not your clothes!”

Return to the LORD, your God! For He is gracious and compassionate, slow to anger, abounding in mercy and relents from sending calamity. <sup>14</sup> Who knows whether He may turn back, relent and leave a blessing behind Him, a grain-offering and a drink-offering for the LORD, your God? <sup>15</sup> Blow a trumpet in Zion! Announce a holy fast! Call an assembly! <sup>16</sup> Gather the people! Consecrate the congregation! Assemble the aged people! Gather the children, even the breast-fed infants! Let the bridegroom leave his bedroom, and let the bride leave her bridal chamber! <sup>17</sup> Let the priests, who minister to the LORD, weep between the Temple-porch and the altar! Let them say, “Look compassionately on Your people, O LORD! Do not make Your inheritance a disgrace and a byword among the nations! Why should people ask among the nations, ‘Where is their God?’”

God’s promise of earthly blessings to His people

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD became deeply devoted to His land and took pity on His people. <sup>19</sup> The LORD answered His people: “Look! I am sending you grain, new wine and olive-oil. They will satisfy you. I shall not make you an object of scorn among the nations any longer. <sup>20</sup> I shall remove the northern army far away from you and force it out into a dry and desolate land. I shall drive its vanguard into the Eastern Sea and its rear-guard into the Western Sea.”

Its stench will come up and its smell will rise! For He has done great things!”

<sup>23</sup> People of Zion, be glad and rejoice in the LORD, your God! For He has given you the Autumn-rain for righteousness. He has sent abundant rain down for you, the early rain and the late rain as before. <sup>24</sup> The threshing-floors will be full of grain, and the vats will overflow with new wine and olive-oil.

<sup>25</sup> “I shall compensate you for the years that the locusts have consumed, the locusts without wings, the cutting locusts and the mature locusts — My large army, which I have been sending among you.”

<sup>26</sup> You will have plenty to eat and be satisfied. You will praise the name of the LORD, your God, who has treated you in wonderful ways.

“My people will never be ashamed again. <sup>27</sup> You will know that I am in the middle of Israel, that I am the LORD, your God, and that there is no one else. My people will never be ashamed again.”

God’s promise that He will pour His Spirit on all people

<sup>28</sup> “Afterwards I shall pour out My Spirit on all people. Your sons and your daughters will prophesy. Your old men will have dreams. Your young men will see visions. <sup>29</sup> In those days I shall pour out My Spirit even on male servants and female servants. <sup>30</sup> I shall put marvellous signs in the sky and blood, fire and columns of smoke on the earth.”

<sup>31</sup> The sun will be turned to darkness, and the moon to blood before the great and dreadful day of the LORD comes. <sup>32</sup> Then everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved. For there will be rescue on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem, as the LORD has promised. Among those who survive there will be those whom the LORD calls.

A promise that God will rescue His people and judge the nations

<sup>1</sup> “For look! In those days and at that time, when I bring back the captives of Judah and Jerusalem, <sup>2</sup> I shall gather all the nations and bring them down to the Valley of Jehoshaphat.*<sup>164</sup> I shall put them on trial there, on behalf of My people, yes, My inheritance, Israel, whom people have scattered among the nations. They have also divided up My land. <sup>3</sup> They have cast lots for My people. They have traded boys for prostitutes. They have sold girls for wine and have drunk it.

<sup>4</sup> “Besides, why should I be involved with you, Tyre, Sidon and all the districts of Philistia? Are you taking revenge on Me for something? If you are paying Me back, I shall very quickly return your repayment on your own heads. <sup>5</sup> For you have taken My silver and My gold and have carried off My finest treasures into your temples. <sup>6</sup> You have sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks, so that you have removed them far away from their own territory. <sup>7</sup> Look! I shall stir them up to leave the place where you have sold them. I shall turn what you have done back on your own heads. <sup>8</sup> I shall sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of the people of Judah. They will sell them to the Sabeans, to a nation far away.” For the LORD has spoken.

<sup>9</sup> Announce this among the nations: ‘Make yourselves holy for war! Stir up the warriors! Let all the men of war approach! Let them come up! <sup>10</sup> Hammer your ploughshares into swords and your pruning hooks into spears! The weak person should say, “I am a warrior.”’

<sup>12</sup> “Let the nations rouse themselves and come up to the Valley of Jehoshaphat! For there I shall sit to judge all the surrounding nations.”

A promise of a glorious future for Judah

<sup>17</sup> “You will know that I am the LORD, your God, and that I reside on Zion, My holy mountain. Jerusalem will be holy and foreigners will not pass through it any longer.”

Joel

<sup>18</sup> On that day the mountains will drip sweet wine, and the hills will flow with milk. All the streambeds of Judah will flow with water. A spring will flow out of the Temple of the LORD and water the Valley of Acacias.
<sup>19</sup> Egypt will become a desolate waste, and Edom a desolate wilderness, because of the violence done to the people of Judah. For they have murdered innocent people in their land. <sup>20</sup> However, Judah will be inhabited for ever, and Jerusalem through all generations.

<sup>21</sup> "I shall pardon their guilt for murder, which I had not pardoned."

For the LORD resides in Zion."

AMOS

1

<sup>1</sup> These are the Words of Amos, who was one of the shepherds from Tekoa. He saw as a seer the Words about Israel while Uzziah was the king of Judah and while Jeroboam, the son of Joash, was the king of Israel. It was two years before the earthquake. <sup>2</sup> He said: "The LORD roars from Zion and raises His voice from Jerusalem. The pastures of the shepherds are mourning, and the top of Carmel is withering."

An announcement that the Arameans will be judged for their crimes

<sup>3</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "I shall not cancel the punishment of Damascus for three offences or for four, because they have threshed Gilead with iron threshing sledges. <sup>4</sup> I shall send a fire against the palace of Hazael, and it will devour the fortresses of Ben-Hadad. <sup>5</sup> I shall break the bars on the gates of Damascus. I shall cut off those who are living in the Valley of Aven and the one who holds the sceptre in Beth-Eden. The people of Aram will go into exile at Kir." This is what the LORD has said.

An announcement that the Philistines will be judged for their crimes

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "I shall not cancel the punishment of Gaza for three offences or for four, because they have deported an entire community and delivered them into exile in Edom. <sup>7</sup> I shall send fire against the wall of Gaza, and it will consume its fortresses. <sup>8</sup> I shall cut off the inhabitants from Ashdod and the one who holds the sceptre in Ashkelon. I shall make My hand pass against Ekron again, and the rest of the Philistines will be destroyed."

This is what the Lord GOD has said.

An announcement that Tyre will be judged for its crimes

<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "I shall not cancel the punishment of Tyre for three offences or for four, because they have delivered an entire community into exile in Edom and have not kept in mind their obligations to relatives. <sup>10</sup> I shall send fire against the wall of Tyre, and it will consume its fortresses."

An announcement that Edom will be judged for its crimes

<sup>11</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "I shall not cancel the punishment of Edom for three offences or for four, because they have used swords to pursue their relatives. They have stifled their compassion. In their anger they have been constantly tearing their prey. Their rage has persisted for ever. <sup>12</sup> I shall send a fire against Teman, and it will consume the fortresses of Bozrah."

An announcement that the Ammonites will be judged for their crimes

<sup>13</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "I shall not cancel the punishment of the Ammonites for three offences or for four, because they have ripped open pregnant women in Gilead that they may enlarge their own territory.

<sup>14</sup> I shall set a fire against the wall of Rabbah. It will consume its fortresses. There will be a war-cry on the day of battle, and a heavy gale on a stormy day.

princes." This is what the LORD has said.

An announcement that the Moabites will be judged for their crimes

<sup>1</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "I shall not cancel the punishment of Moab for three offences or for four, because they have burnt the bones of the king of Edom to lime. <sup>2</sup> I shall send a fire against Moab, and it will consume the fortresses of Kerioth. Moab will die in the roar of battle, amid war cries and with the blast of the trumpet. <sup>3</sup> I shall cut off the judge from among them and kill all its commanders with him." This is what the LORD has said.

An announcement that Judah will be judged for its crimes

<sup>4</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "I shall not cancel the punishment of Judah for three offences or for four, because they have rejected the Law of the LORD. They have not been keeping His Prescriptions. Their lies, which their fathers had been following, have been leading them astray. <sup>5</sup> I shall send a fire against Judah, and it will consume the fortresses of Jerusalem."

An announcement that Israel will be judged for its crimes

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "I shall not cancel the punishment of Israel for three offences or for four, because they sell a righteous person for money and a poor person for the price of a pair of sandals. <sup>7</sup> They trample on the heads of poor people on the dust of the ground and deny just treatment to lowly people. A man and his father go to the same girl, so that they defile My holy name. <sup>8</sup> They spread themselves out beside every altar on garments that they have taken as security. In the temples of their gods they drink wine that they have levied in fines.

<sup>9</sup> "Nevertheless, I Myself had destroyed the Amorites in front of them, who were as tall as cedars and who were as strong as oaks. I had destroyed their fruit above the ground and their roots below it. <sup>10</sup> I Myself had brought you up out of Egypt and had led you in the wilderness for forty years, so that you took possession of the land of the Amorites. <sup>11</sup> I had appointed some of your sons as prophets and some of your young men as Nazirites. Is this not indeed so, people of Israel?" This is what the LORD declares.

<sup>12</sup> "However, you gave the Nazirites wine to drink. You commanded the prophets, 'You shall not prophesy!' <sup>13</sup> Look! I shall crush you in your places, as a wagon crushes when it is full of sheaves. <sup>14</sup> A fast runner will fail to flee to safety, a strong person will not muster his strength, and a warrior will not save his life. <sup>15</sup> One who handles a bow will not hold his ground, one who is swift-footed will not save himself and one who rides a horse will not save his life. <sup>16</sup> The most courageous among the warriors will run away naked on that day," declares the LORD.

An announcement that God will call Israel to account for its immoral behaviour

<sup>1</sup> Listen to this Message, which the LORD has spoken against you, O people of Israel, against the whole family that I brought up out of Egypt: <sup>2</sup> “I have taken care of no one else but you out of all the clans on the earth. That is why I shall call you to account for all your wrongdoings.”

<sup>3</sup> Do two people walk together if they have not agreed to meet? <sup>4</sup> Does a lion roar in the thicket if it has no prey? Does a young lion growl from its den if it has not caught something? <sup>5</sup> Does a bird fall into a trap on the ground if no snare has been set for it? Does a bird-trap spring up from the ground if it catches nothing at all? <sup>6</sup> If a trumpet is blown in a city, will the people not tremble? If a calamity occurs in a city, has the LORD not caused it? <sup>7</sup> Certainly, the Lord GOD does not do anything unless He has revealed His confidential conversation to His servants, the prophets. <sup>8</sup> The lion has roared. Who will not be afraid? The Lord GOD has spoken. Who will fail to prophesy?

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, this is what the Lord GOD has said: “An enemy will surround the land, strip you of your fortifications and plunder your fortresses.”

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD has said: “The Israelites who live in Samaria will be rescued as a shepherd saves two lower legs or a tip of an ear from the mouth of a lion. They will escape with the side of a bed and some damask from a couch. <sup>13</sup> Listen and testify against the family of Jacob!” declares the Lord GOD, the God of hosts. <sup>14</sup> “For on the day when I punish Israel for their rebellious acts, I shall also punish the altars of Bethel. The horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground. <sup>15</sup> I shall tear down the winter-houses along with the summerhouses. The houses decorated with ivory will be destroyed, and the mansions will come to an end,” declares the LORD.

An announcement that God will call the women of Samaria to account

<sup>1</sup> Listen to this Message, cows of Bashan, who are on Mount Samaria! You women oppress helpless people and mistreat poor people. You keep telling your husbands, “Bring us some drinks!” <sup>2</sup> The Lord GOD has sworn by His holiness that the days are indeed coming on you when people will use hooks to take you away. They will take the last of you away with fishhooks. <sup>3</sup> Each of you women will go out through the gaps in the wall immediately in front of you. “You will be driven along towards Harmon,” declares the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> “Come to Bethel and act rebelliously! Come to Gilgal and commit many more rebellious acts! Bring your sacrifices every morning and the tenth of your income every three days! <sup>5</sup> Use bread made with yeast to burn a sacrifice of thanksgiving! Proclaim freewill offerings! Make an announcement about them! For that is how you love to do it, Israelites,” declares the Lord GOD.

A report that Israel has not returned to God

<sup>6</sup> “Although I on My part have given you nothing for your teeth to chew in all your cities and left you short of food in all your places, you have nevertheless not returned to Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> “I Myself even held back the rain from you when it was still three months until the harvest. I used to send rain on one city and send no rain on another city. One field used to receive rain, and the field that received no rain used to wither. <sup>8</sup> Although two or three cities used to stagger to another city to get a drink of water and failed to get enough, you have nevertheless not returned to Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> “Although I struck you down with a scorching wind and mildew, and, although the locusts were devouring many of your gardens, your vineyards, your fig-trees and your olive-trees, you have nevertheless not returned to Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> “Although I sent plagues among you like those in Egypt, although I killed your young men with the sword when your horses were also captured, and, although I made the stench of your camps rise up into your noses, you have nevertheless not returned to Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> “Although I destroyed some of you as God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, and, although you were like a piece of burning wood snatched from the fire, you have nevertheless not returned to Me,” declares the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> “Therefore, this is what I shall do to you, Israel. Because I am going to do this to you, prepare to meet your God, Israel!”

<sup>13</sup> For look! He who formed the mountains and created the wind, who reveals to human beings what He is thinking, who turns the dawn into darkness and who treads on the heights of the earth has “the LORD, the God of hosts” as His name.

5

A funeral song about Israel

<sup>1</sup> Listen to this Message, which I am beginning to sing about you as a funeral song, family of Israel: <sup>2</sup> “The virgin Israel has fallen and will not rise again. She is lying abandoned on her land. There is no one to lift her up.”

<sup>3</sup> For this is what the Lord GOD has said: “The city in the family of Israel that marches out a thousand strong will have only a hundred survivors, and the one that marches out with a hundred will have only ten survivors.”

Admonitions to turn away from sin

<sup>4</sup> For this is what the LORD has said to the family of Israel: “Be intent on Me and live! <sup>5</sup> However, do not try to reach Bethel! You shall not go to Gilgal or go across to Beer-Sheba! For Gilgal will certainly go into exile, and Bethel will come to nothing.”

<sup>6</sup> Be intent on the LORD and live, that He may not break in like a fire among the family of Joseph and that it may not burn it down! Bethel will have no one to put it out. <sup>7</sup> They are the ones who turn justice into wormwood. They have thrown righteousness down to the ground. <sup>8</sup> He who made the Pleiades and Orion, who changes deep darkness into morning and darkens the day into night and who calls for the water of the sea and pours it out on the surface of the earth, has “the LORD” as His name. <sup>9</sup> He makes destruction come suddenly on what is strong, so that destruction comes on a fortress. <sup>10</sup> They hate a person who reproves another at the city-gate. They abhor a person who speaks sincerely. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, because you have been trampling on a lowly person and, because you take a portion of his grain away from him, although you have built houses of hewn stone, you will nevertheless not live in them. Although you have planted pleasant vineyards, you will nevertheless not drink their wine. <sup>12</sup> For I know that your wrongdoings are numerous and that your sins are great. You attack righteous people, you take bribes and have been depriving poor people of justice at the city-gate. <sup>13</sup> That is why a person who has insight will keep silent at this time. For this is an evil time. <sup>14</sup> Search for what is good and not what is evil, that you may live! Then the LORD, the God of hosts, will be with you, as you have been claiming. <sup>15</sup> Hate what is evil, love what is good and make justice effective in the city-gate! It may be that the LORD, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remainder of Joseph.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, has said: “There will be wailing in all the city-squares, and in all the streets people will say, ‘Alas! Alas!’ They will summon the farm-workers to mourn and those who are skilled in lamentation to wail.

<sup>17</sup> There will be wailing in all vineyards. For I shall pass through among you.” This is what the LORD has said.

A prophecy about the terrifying day of the Lord

<sup>18</sup> How horrible it will be for you who are longing for the day of the LORD! Why would you have the day of the LORD? It will be darkness and not light. <sup>19</sup> It will be like a man who runs away from a lion, only to have a bear confront him. It will be like a man who goes home and rests his hand against a wall, only to have a snake bite him. <sup>20</sup> Will not the day of the LORD be darkness, rather than light? Will it not be very dark, with nothing bright in it?

God’s rejection of Israel’s worship

the stench of your festive assemblies. <sup>22</sup> Although you offer burnt offerings and your grain-offerings to Me, I shall not accept them. I shall not accept favourably the peace-offerings of your fattened steers. <sup>23</sup> Take away from Me the noise of your songs! I shall not listen to the music of your harps! <sup>24</sup> Rather, let justice flow like water and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream!

<sup>25</sup> “Did you present sacrifices and grain-offerings to Me during the forty years in the wilderness, family of Israel? <sup>26</sup> You used to carry along Sikkuth as your king and Kaiwan, your images, your star-god, which you made for yourselves. <sup>27</sup> I shall send you into exile on the other side of Damascus.” This is what the LORD has said, whose name is the God of hosts.

A prophecy of the fall of Samaria

<sup>1</sup> How horrible it will be for those who are complacent in Zion, for those who feel secure on the mountain of Samaria and for the notable men of the leading nations, to whom the family of Israel comes! <sup>2</sup> Go across to Calneh and look! Go from there to the great Hamath! Then go down to Gath in Philistia! Are you better than these kingdoms? Or is their territory larger than your territory? <sup>3</sup> Although you imagine that a day of calamity is far away, you are bringing the throne of violence closer! <sup>4</sup> How horrible it will be for those who sleep on ivory beds, sprawl out on their couches and eat lambs from the flock and calves out of the stall! <sup>5</sup> How horrible it will be for those who improvise to the sound of a harp and who, like David, invent musical instruments for themselves! <sup>6</sup> How horrible it will be for those who drink from bowls of wine and smear the finest oils on themselves but who do not grieve over the ruin of Joseph! <sup>7</sup> Therefore, they will now be the first of the captives to go into exile, and the revelry of those sprawling people will end.

<sup>8</sup> “The Lord GOD has sworn by His life,” declares the LORD, the God of hosts: “I abhor the pride of Jacob and hate his fortified residences. I shall surrender the city and everything in it. <sup>9</sup> If ten men are left in one house, they will die. <sup>10</sup> If someone’s close relative is anointing him for burial and lifts him up to take his bones out of the house and asks a person who is an inner room in the house, ‘Is anyone still with you?’ he will answer, ‘No.’ Then he will say, ‘Keep quiet! For we must not mention the name of the LORD.”

<sup>11</sup> For look! When the LORD gives a Command, He will smash the large house into fragments and the small house into rubble. <sup>12</sup> Do horses run on cliffs? Does anyone plough there with oxen? However, you have turned justice into poison and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood. <sup>13</sup> You rejoice over Lo-debar and ask, “Did we not use our own strength to capture Karnaim for ourselves?”

<sup>14</sup> “For look! I shall raise a nation against you, family of Israel,” declares the LORD, the God of hosts. “They will oppress you from Lebo-Hamath to the Brook of the Arabah.”

A threat to send locusts

<sup>1</sup> This is what the Lord GOD has shown me: I saw that He was forming a swarm of locusts when the late crop was beginning to sprout. I saw that it was the late crop, which followed what had been mown for the king. <sup>2</sup> When they had finished eating the grass on the land, I said: “Lord GOD, please forgive! How can Jacob survive? For he is so small!”

<sup>3</sup> The LORD changed His mind about this. The LORD said, “This will not happen.”

A threat to send fire

<sup>4</sup> This is what the Lord GOD showed me: I saw that the Lord GOD was calling for a judgment by fire. The fire consumed the vast deep and would have consumed the plots of land. <sup>5</sup> Then I said: “Lord GOD, please stop! How can Jacob survive? For he is so small!”

<sup>6</sup> The LORD changed His mind about this. The Lord GOD said, “This also will not happen.”

God’s refusal to overlook Israel’s sin

I answered, “A plumb-line.”

Then the Lord said: “Look! I am putting a plumb-line among My people Israel. I shall not overlook them any longer. <sup>9</sup> The high places of Isaac will be made desolate, and the holy places of Israel will be in ruins. I shall use a sword to rise up against the family of Jeroboam.”

The opposition of Amaziah to Amos

<sup>10</sup> Then Amaziah, the priest at Bethel, sent a message to Jeroboam, the king of Israel: “Amos has been conspiring against you in the middle of the family of Israel. The land cannot endure everything that he is saying.

<sup>11</sup> For this is what Amos has been saying: ‘Jeroboam will be killed with the sword, and Israel will certainly leave its own land to go into exile.’”

<sup>12</sup> Amaziah told Amos: “Go away, seer! Run off to the land of Judah! Earn your living over there and prophesy there! <sup>13</sup> You shall never prophesy at Bethel again! For Bethel is a royal sanctuary and is a temple of the kingdom.”

<sup>14</sup> Amos answered Amaziah: “I had not been a prophet and had not been a disciple of a prophet. For I had been a herdsman and had also been taking care of sycamore-fig-trees. <sup>15</sup> However, the LORD took me away from following the flock and the LORD told me: ‘Go! Prophesy to My people Israel!’ <sup>16</sup> Now therefore, listen to the Word of the LORD! ‘You are saying, “You shall not prophesy against Israel and shall stop letting Words flow against the family of Isaac!”’”

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said: “Your wife will be a prostitute in the city, and your sons and daughters will fall by the sword. Your land will be divided up with a measuring-line. You yourself will die in an unclean country. Israel will certainly go into exile away from its own land.”

8

An announcement of bitter mourning for Israel

I answered, “A basket of summer fruit.”

The LORD told me: “The end has come upon My people Israel. I shall not spare them any longer. <sup>3</sup> The songs of the palace will become wailings on that day,” the Lord GOD declares. There will be many dead bodies. They will be thrown out everywhere! Be silent!

<sup>4</sup> Listen to this, you who trample on a needy person and put an end to the oppressed people of the land! <sup>5</sup> You ask yourselves: “When will the New Moon be over, that we may sell grain? When will the Sabbath be over, that we may offer wheat for sale, that we may shrink the forty-litre corn-measure, make the twelve-gram money-weight large and cheat with fraudulent scales, <sup>6</sup> that we may buy helpless people with silver and a needy person for a pair of sandals, that we may sell the chaff-sweepings as wheat?”

<sup>8</sup> Will not the country tremble because of this? Will not everyone living in it mourn? All of it will rise up like the Nile, be churned up and then subside, like the Nile of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> “On that day,” the Lord GOD declares, “I shall make the sun go down at noon and darken the earth in broad daylight. <sup>10</sup> I shall turn your feasts into a time of mourning and all your songs into a funeral song. I shall put sackcloth on every waist and make a bald patch on every head. I shall make it like mourning for an only child and the result of it like a bitter day.

<sup>11</sup> “Look! The days are coming,” declares the Lord GOD, “when I shall send a famine on the land, not hunger for food or thirst for water but a famine of hearing the Words of the LORD.” <sup>12</sup> People will wander from sea to sea and run back and forth from the north to the east, searching for the Word of the LORD but will not find it.

<sup>13</sup> On that day the beautiful virgins and the young men will become faint because of thirst. <sup>14</sup> Those who swear by the guilt of Samaria and who say, “As surely as your god lives, Dan,” and, “As surely as pilgrimage to Beer-Sheba continues,” will fall and will not get up again.

9

A vision of destruction that no one in Israel will escape

<sup>1</sup> I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and He said: “Strike the capitals of the pillars that the thresh-olds may shake! Shatter them on the heads of all the people! I shall kill the rest of them with the sword.

Amos

None of them will flee away. None of their fugitives will escape. <sup>2</sup> If they were to dig down into Sheol, My hand would get them up from there. If they were to climb up to heaven, I would bring them down from there. <sup>3</sup> If they were to hide themselves on the top of Carmel, I would track them down and take them from there. If they were to hide themselves from My sight at the bottom of the sea, I would command a sea snake, and it would bite them there. <sup>4</sup> If they were to go into captivity ahead of their enemies, I would command the sword, and it would kill them there. I would also fix My eyes on them for calamity and not for prosperity.”

<sup>5</sup> The Lord GOD of hosts is the One who touches the earth, and it melts, and all who live on it mourn. All of it rises like the Nile and subsides again, like the Nile of Egypt. <sup>6</sup> He is the One who has built His stairs in the heavens and has established His vault on the earth. He is the One who has been summoning the water of the sea and pouring it out on the surface of the earth. His name is the LORD.

An announcement that God will sift Israel out of all the nations

<sup>7</sup> “Are you not like the people of Cush to Me, people of Israel?” asks the LORD. “Have I not brought Israel up from Egypt, the Philistines from Caphtor and the Arameans from Kir?”

<sup>8</sup> Look! The eyes of the Lord GOD are on this sinful kingdom.

“I shall destroy it from the surface of the earth, except that I shall not completely destroy the family of Jacob,” declares the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> “For look! I shall give the Command and shake the family of Israel among all the other nations as something is shaken around in a sieve. Not one pebble will fall to the ground. <sup>10</sup> All the sinners among My people, who are saying, ‘Calamity will not approach us or confront us’ will die by the sword.”

A promise of restoration for Israel

<sup>11</sup> “On that day I shall raise up the hut of David, which has fallen. I shall repair the gaps in its walls and erect its ruins again. I shall rebuild it as it was in the days of old, <sup>12</sup> that they may take possession of the remnant in Edom and of all the other nations over whom My name is called,” declares the LORD, who is doing this.

<sup>13</sup> “Look! The days are coming,” declares the LORD, “when the one who is ploughing will catch up with the one who is harvesting and the one who is treading grapes with the one who is sowing the seed. Sweet wine will drip from the mountains and will flow from all the hills. <sup>14</sup> I shall bring back My exiled people Israel. They will rebuild the ruined cities and live in them. They will plant vineyards and drink their wine. They will plant gardens and eat their fruit. <sup>15</sup> I shall plant them on their own land, and they will not be uprooted any longer out of the land that I have given them,” says the LORD, your God.

OBADIAH

A prophecy of the fall of Edom — Jeremiah 49:9, 14-16

<sup>1</sup> This is the vision of Obadiah. This is what the Lord GOD has said about Edom: We have heard a report from the LORD. A messenger has been sent among the nations to say: “Get up! Let us rise up against it for battle!” <sup>2</sup> Look! I shall make you insignificant among the other nations. Others will despise you very much. <sup>3</sup> Your proud heart has deceived you, although you are living in the crevices in the cliffs. They make their homes high up. They think, ‘Who will bring us down to the ground?’ <sup>4</sup> Although you fly high like an eagle, although your nest is set among the stars, I shall bring you down from there,” declares the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> If thieves were to come to you, if plunderers were to come by night — how you will be destroyed! — would they not steal only enough for themselves? If grape-pickers were to come to you, would they not leave some gleanings behind? <sup>6</sup> How Esau will be ransacked! How his hidden treasures will be searched out! <sup>7</sup> All your allies will drive you to your borders. Those who are at peace with you will deceive you and overpower you. Those who eat your food will set traps under you. You will not detect them.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD asks: “Shall I not on that day exterminate the wise men from Edom and remove insight from the hill-country of Esau? <sup>9</sup> Teman, your warriors will be terrified, so that every man from the hill-country of Esau will be cut down in the slaughter.

Edom’s violence against Israel, which is the reason why Edom will be destroyed

<sup>10</sup> “You will be covered with shame and will be cut off for ever because of the violence that you have done to your brother Jacob. <sup>11</sup> On the day when you were standing at a distance, on the day when strangers were carrying off his wealth, when foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you were like one of them. <sup>12</sup> However, do not gloat over the day of your brother on the day of his calamity! Do not rejoice over the people of Judah on the day when they are ruined!

Do not speak boastfully on the day when they are in distress! <sup>13</sup> Do not enter the city-gate of My people on the day of their calamity! You yourself should not gloat over his trouble on the day of his calamity! Do not lay your hands on his wealth in the day of his calamity! <sup>14</sup> Do not stand at the crossroads to cut off his refugees! Do not hand over his survivors in the day of distress!”

An announcement that the day of the Lord is near <sup>15</sup> For the day of the LORD is near for all the nations. “You will be treated as you have treated others. What you have done will rebound on your own head. <sup>16</sup> For all the nations will drink continually as you have been drinking on My holy mountain. They will drink and swallow. They will be as though they had never existed. <sup>17</sup> However, there will be deliverance on Mount Zion. It will be a holy area. The family of Jacob will take possession of their own property again. <sup>18</sup> The family of Jacob will be a fire, and the family of Joseph a flame. However, the family of Esau will become stubble. They will set them on fire and consume them. No one will survive from the family of Esau.” For the LORD has spoken.

A promise about God’s kingdom

<sup>19</sup> People in the Negev will take possession of the hill-country of Esau. People from the foothills will take possession of Philistia. They will take possession of the territory of Ephraim, and the territory of Samaria and Benjamin will take possession of Gilead. <sup>20</sup> The exiles of this host of the people of Israel will take possession of the land of the Canaanites as far as Zarephath, and the exiles from Jerusalem who are in Sepharad will take possession of the cities in the Negev. <sup>21</sup> People who bring deliverance will go up on Mount Zion to rule over the hill-country of Esau, and the kingdom will belong to the LORD.

JONAH

The attempt of Jonah to run away from God — 2 Kings 14:25

<sup>3</sup> However, Jonah set out to flee from the presence of the LORD to Tarshish. He went down to Joppa and found a ship that was going to Tarshish. He paid the fare and went on board, to go away with them to Tarshish, from the presence of the LORD. <sup>4</sup> However, the LORD hurled a strong wind on the sea. A violent gale came on the sea, so that the ship was in danger of being broken up. <sup>5</sup> Then the sailors were afraid and each cried out to his god. They dumped the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten the load. However, Jonah had gone down into the lowest part of the ship, lain down and fallen into a deep sleep. <sup>6</sup> The captain went to him and asked him: “What do you mean by being asleep? Get up! Call on your God! Perhaps your God will bear us in mind, that we may not drown!”

The throwing of Jonah into the sea

<sup>7</sup> Then they said to one another: “Come! Let us cast lots, that we may know who is responsible for bringing this calamity on us!”

Therefore, they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah.

<sup>8</sup> They asked him: “Please, tell us on whose account this calamity has come on us! What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? From which people do you come?”

<sup>9</sup> He told them, “I am a Hebrew and fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land.”

<sup>10</sup> Then the men were extremely afraid and asked him, “What is this that you have done?”

For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them. <sup>11</sup> Then they asked him, “What should we do to you, that the sea that is against us may calm down?”

For the sea was growing increasingly turbulent. <sup>12</sup> He told them: “Pick me up and throw me into the sea, that the sea, which is against you, may calm down. For I know that it is my fault that this violent gale has come against you.”

<sup>13</sup> Nevertheless, the men rowed harder to get the ship back to dry land but could not do it. For the sea kept becoming rougher against them. <sup>14</sup> They called out to the LORD: “We implore You, LORD, please, let us not drown for taking this man’s life! Do not hold us responsible for killing an innocent man! For You Yourself, LORD, have done as You have desired.”

<sup>15</sup> Then they picked up Jonah and threw him into the sea, and the raging sea became calm. <sup>16</sup> The men feared the LORD greatly, offered a sacrifice to the LORD and made solemn vows.

The sending of a large fish to swallow Jonah — Matthew 12:39-41

<sup>17</sup> The LORD sent a large fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the belly of the fish for three days and three nights.

Jonah’s prayer from inside the fish

<sup>1</sup> Then Jonah prayed to the LORD, his God, from the belly of the fish. <sup>2</sup> He said: “I have called to the LORD because of my distress, and He has answered me. I have called for help from the belly of Sheol. You have heard my voice. <sup>3</sup> You have thrown me into the deep water, into the heart of the seas. The sea-currents are flowing around me. All Your waves and breakers have been passing over me.”

<sup>4</sup> Then I said: “I have been driven away from Your sight. Yet I shall again look towards Your holy Temple.

<sup>5</sup> The water has engulfed me, threatening my life. The deep is flowing around me. Seaweed has been wrapped around my head. <sup>6</sup> I have gone down to the lowest extremities of the mountains, to a world whose bars were behind me for ever. Yet You have brought my life up from the pit, O LORD, my God. <sup>7</sup> While my life was fainting inside me I remembered the LORD. My prayer came to You in Your holy Temple. <sup>8</sup> Those who cling to worthless idols are abandoning Him who is merciful to them. <sup>9</sup> However, I myself shall sacrifice to You with a song of thanksgiving. I shall pay what I have vowed. Salvation belongs to the LORD!”

The repentance of the people of Nineveh for their wicked ways

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time. He said: <sup>2</sup> “Leave at once for the large city of Nineveh! Announce to it the Message that I tell you!”

<sup>3</sup> Jonah got up and went to Nineveh, as the LORD had told him. Nineveh was a large city before God. It took three days to walk through it. <sup>4</sup> Jonah began to enter the city and walked for one day. He proclaimed: “There are still forty days until Nineveh will be overthrown!”

<sup>5</sup> The people of Nineveh believed God. They proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them to the least of them. <sup>6</sup> When the news reached the king of Nineveh, he got up from his throne, removed his robe, covered himself with sackcloth and sat in ashes. <sup>7</sup> He made a proclamation and published it through Nineveh, “By the decree of the king and his nobles: Let no human beings, animals, cattle or sheep, taste anything! They should not have food or drink any water!”

<sup>8</sup> Human beings and domestic animals must be covered with sackcloth and they must call out vehemently to God! Everyone must turn away from his wicked conduct! Let them turn away from the violence that their hands are committing! <sup>9</sup> Who knows? God may relent, reconsider and turn away from His burning anger, that we may not be ruined.”

<sup>10</sup> When God saw what they had done, that they had turned away from their wicked conduct, God relented from the calamity that He had threatened to send on them and did not do it.

Jonah's anger and God's reminder to Jonah about His mercy

<sup>1</sup> However, Jonah was extremely despondent and became angry. <sup>2</sup> He prayed to the LORD: “Ah, LORD, was this not what I was saying while I was still in my own country? That was why I fled towards Tarshish in the first place. For I knew that You are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to become angry and abundant in mercy and that You relent from sending calamity. <sup>3</sup> Now therefore, LORD, please take my life from me! For it is better for me to die than to live.”

<sup>5</sup> Jonah went out of the city and sat down on the eastern side of the city. He made a hut for himself there and sat under it in the shade, until he should see what would happen to the city. <sup>6</sup> The LORD God supplied a vine-plant and made it grow up above Jonah to provide shade over his head, to give him relief from his discomfort. Jonah was very happy about the plant. <sup>7</sup> However, when morning dawned on the next day God provided a worm. It attacked the plant, and it withered. <sup>8</sup> When the sun rose, God provided a scorching east wind. The sun beat down on Jonah's head, so that he became faint and wanted to die. He said, “It would be better for me to die than to live.”

<sup>9</sup> Then God asked Jonah, “Is it right for you to be angry about the plant?”

Jonah answered, “It is right for me to be angry enough to die!”

<sup>10</sup> The LORD said: “You yourself regarded the plant with compassion, although you had not worked for it. You did not make it grow up. It grew in one night and died in one night. <sup>11</sup> Should I Myself not regard the large city of Nineveh with compassion? It has more than one hundred and twenty thousand persons who cannot tell their right hands from their left, as well as many animals.”

MICAH

1

The prophet Micah

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word of the LORD, which came to Micah from Moresheth in the days of Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah, the kings of Judah. He saw it as a vision about Samaria and Jerusalem.

An announcement that Samaria will be destroyed

<sup>2</sup> Listen, peoples, all of you! Pay attention, O earth, and all that is in it! Let the Lord GOD become a witness against you, the Lord, from His holy Temple! <sup>3</sup> For look! The LORD is coming out of His place. He will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

<sup>4</sup> The mountains will melt under Him, and the valleys will split open like wax because of a fire, like water rushing down a steep place. <sup>5</sup> All this will happen because of the wrongdoing of Jacob and because of the sins of the family of Israel. What is the wrongdoing of Jacob? Is it not Samaria? What are the high places of Judah? Are they not Jerusalem?

<sup>6</sup> “Therefore, I shall turn Samaria into a heap of rubble in the open country, a place for planting vineyards. I shall pour down its stones into the valley and lay bare its foundations. <sup>7</sup> All its carved images will be smashed to pieces. All its wages for being a prostitute will be burnt up. I shall lay waste all its idols. For it has gathered them from the wages for being a prostitute.”

They will become like the pay for a prostitute again. <sup>8</sup> I shall mourn and howl because of this. I shall go about barefoot and naked. I shall mourn like jackals and moan like ostriches. <sup>9</sup> For its wounds are incurable. The news will come to Judah. It will reach the city-gate of my people at Jerusalem.

An announcement of calamity for Jerusalem and eleven other cities in Judah

<sup>10</sup> Do not report it in Gath! Do not weep at all! I shall roll about in mourning in the dust in Beth-Le-Aphrah.

<sup>11</sup> Go past in nakedness and shame, you who live in Shaphir! Those who live in Zaanan will not come out. The mourning in Beth-Ezel will withdraw its support from you. <sup>12</sup> For those who live at Maroth will writhe as they wait for relief, because calamity will come down from the LORD to the city-gate of Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> Harness the teams of horses to the war-chariots, you who live at Lachish! This city was the first to lead the daughter of Zion into sin. For the rebellious acts of Israel have been found in you. <sup>14</sup> That is why you will give farewell gifts to Moresheth near Gath. The houses of Achzib will become deceitful to the kings of Israel.

He who is the Glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

<sup>16</sup> Shave your heads and cut off your hair because of the children in whom you delight! Make your bald patch as large as that of a vulture! For they will leave you and go into exile.

2

A condemnation of the sins of Israel

<sup>1</sup> How terrible it will be for those who plan what is unjust and commit evil while they are on their beds! They carry it out when the morning dawns, because it is in their power to do it. <sup>2</sup> They covet fields and seize them. They covet houses and take them. They exploit a man and his family, a man and his inheritance. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said: “Look! I am planning calamity against this family. You will not rescue your necks from it. You will not walk with your heads erect, because this will be a time of calamity. <sup>4</sup> On that day people will use a taunt against you. They will make a lamentation. They will say: ‘Ruin has certainly come.’” He is giving other people control over the assigned land of my people. How He is taking it away from me! He is allocating our fields to treacherous people.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore, you will not have anyone in the assembly of the LORD to draw lots to apply the measuring-line.

<sup>6</sup> Some men are preaching: “Do not preach! People must not preach about these things! Will disgrace not turn away?”

<sup>7</sup> Should this be asked, family of Jacob: “Has the Spirit of the LORD become impatient? Does He do such things?”

“Do not My Words do good to the person who behaves uprightly? <sup>8</sup> However, My people have recently risen up as an enemy. You strip off the splendid coats from men who are free from worry and have no thought of war as they go past. <sup>9</sup> You drive the women of My people out of their comfortable houses and take My splendour away from their young children for ever.”

<sup>10</sup> Get up and go away! For this is no place to rest. Because it has become unclean, it will cause ruin, and there will be distressing destruction. <sup>11</sup> If a man were to go about uttering empty falsehoods, saying, ‘I shall preach to you about wine and strong drink,’ he would be the preacher for this people!

<sup>12</sup> “I shall certainly gather all of you, Jacob. I shall certainly gather the remnant of Israel. I shall put them together like sheep in an enclosure, like a flock in the middle of their pasture.”

They will make a noise because there will be many people. <sup>13</sup> The One who breaks through will go up in front of them. They will break through, pass through the city-gate and go out through it. Their King will go past in front of them. The LORD will be at their head.

3

A rebuke to Israel's sinful rulers, prophets and priests

<sup>1</sup> I said: “Listen, leaders of Jacob and rulers of the family of Israel! Is it not your duty to know what is right? <sup>2</sup> You hate what is good and love what is evil. You tear the skin off the people and their flesh from their bones. <sup>3</sup> You have been eating the flesh of my people and stripping their skin from them. You have been breaking their bones in pieces. You have been chopping them up like meat in a cooking-pot, like flesh in a pan. <sup>4</sup> When they call for help to the LORD, He will not answer them. He will hide His face from them at that time, because they have been acting wickedly.

Micah

<sup>5</sup> This is what the LORD has said about the prophets who are leading my people astray, who proclaim, "Peace!" when they have something to bite with their teeth but who declare a holy war against the man who does not put anything in their mouths: <sup>6</sup> "Therefore, you will have night, without any visions."

You will have darkness, without any divination. The sun will go down on the prophets, and the day will grow dark over them. <sup>7</sup> The seers will be ashamed, and those who make predictions will be embarrassed. All of them will cover their lips, because God will not answer them.

<sup>8</sup> However, I myself am filled with power, with the Spirit of the LORD, with justice and strength, to tell Jacob about his wrongdoing and Israel about his sin.

A rebuke to the leaders for bringing ruin to Zion

<sup>9</sup> Please listen to this, leaders of the family of Jacob, and you rulers of the family of Israel, you who detest justice and distort everything that is correct, <sup>10</sup> you who build Zion up with bloodshed and Jerusalem with injustice! <sup>11</sup> Zion's leaders give judgment in return for a bribe. Its priests teach in return for payment. Its prophets make predictions in return for money. However, they depend on the LORD and say: "Is the LORD not among us? No calamity will happen to us."

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, Zion will be ploughed like a field because of you. Jerusalem will be heaps of rubble, and the mountain of the Temple will be a wooded hill.

A promise that God will teach the nations — Isaiah 2:2-4

<sup>1</sup> In the last days the mountain of the Temple of the LORD will be established as the highest of the mountains. It will be elevated above the hills, and peoples will stream to it. <sup>2</sup> Then many peoples will come and say: "Come! Let us go up to the mountain of the LORD and to the Temple of the God of Jacob! He will teach us His Ways, that we may walk in His paths!"

For the Teaching will go out from Zion, and the Word of the LORD from Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> He will be the Judge between many peoples and will mediate for strong nations into the distant future. Then they will hammer their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning knives. No nation will take up a sword against another nation, and they will not learn war any longer.

<sup>4</sup> Everyone will sit under his own grapevine and under his own fig-tree, and no one will make them afraid. For the mouth of the LORD of hosts has spoken.

<sup>5</sup> Although every other people lives by the name of its own gods, we shall live by the name of the LORD, our God, for ever and ever.

A promise that the exiles will be brought back to Zion

<sup>6</sup> "On that day," declares the LORD, "I shall assemble the lame people and gather those who have been scattered and those whom I have injured. <sup>7</sup> I shall make the lame people into a remnant and make those who had been driven far away into a strong nation."

The LORD will reign over them on Mount Zion from now on and for ever.

<sup>8</sup> As for you, tower of the flock, stronghold of the daughter of Zion, it will come to you. The former dominion will come back. The kingdom will return for the daughter of Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> Why are you crying so loudly now? Do you not have a king with you? Has your adviser perished that pain should have seized you like a woman in labour? <sup>10</sup> Writhe and give birth, daughter of Zion, like a woman in labour! For now you will go out of the city and live in the open country. You will go to Babylon. There you will be rescued. There the LORD will redeem you from the hands of your enemies. <sup>11</sup> Now many nations have banded together against you. They are saying, "Let Zion be defiled, and let our eyes gloat over her!"

<sup>12</sup> However, they do not know the purposes of the LORD. They have not understood His plan, that He has gathered them like sheaves on the threshing floor.

<sup>13</sup> "Get up and thresh, daughter of Zion! For I shall turn your horn into iron. I shall turn your hoofs into bronze."

You will pulverise many peoples. You will dedicate their dishonest gain to the LORD, their wealth to the Lord of the whole earth.

5

<sup>1</sup> Now marshal your military divisions, warlike city! A siege has been laid against us. People will strike the judge of Israel on the cheek with a rod.

A promise that the Messiah will come from Bethlehem to rule

<sup>2</sup> However, although you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, are too small to be among the clans of Judah, yet out of you One who will be the Ruler over Israel will come forth for Me. His origins are from of old, from the days of eternity. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, He will give them up until the time when a woman in labour has a Child. Then the rest of His brothers will return to the people of Israel. <sup>4</sup> He will stand and shepherd His flock with the strength of the LORD, with the majesty of the name of the LORD, His God. They will live securely, for then His greatness will reach as far as the ends of the earth. <sup>5</sup> He will be a man of peace.

When the Assyrians come into our land and when they march into our fortresses, we shall raise against them seven shepherds, yes, eight leaders of men. <sup>6</sup> They will rule the land of Assyria with the sword and the land of Nimrod at its entrances. He will deliver us from the Assyrians when they come into our land and march into our territory.

<sup>7</sup> Then there will be a remnant of Jacob among many peoples like dew from the LORD and like showers on the grass, which do not delay for a man or wait for human beings. <sup>8</sup> There will be a remnant of Jacob among the nations, among many peoples, like a lion among the animals in the thicket and like a young lion among flocks of sheep. When the lion goes through, it tramples down and tears in pieces, and there is no one to rescue them. <sup>9</sup> You will raise your hand high over your adversaries, and all your enemies will be cut off.

<sup>10</sup> “On that day,” declares the LORD, “I shall get rid of your horses, which are among you, and destroy your war-chariots. <sup>11</sup> I shall destroy the cities of your land and throw down all your fortresses. <sup>12</sup> I shall cut off the acts of sorcery that you carry out, and you will have no more fortune-tellers. <sup>13</sup> I shall cut off your carved images and your sacred pillars, which are among you, and you will no longer bow down to what your hands have made. <sup>14</sup> I shall root out your Asherah-poles, which are among you, and destroy your cities. <sup>15</sup> I shall take revenge in anger and wrath on the nations that have not been listening.”

God's lawsuit against His people

<sup>2</sup> Listen, mountains, to the lawsuit of the LORD! Listen, long-lasting foundations of the earth! For the LORD has a lawsuit against His people and will argue against Israel: <sup>3</sup> “My people, what have I done to you? How, then, have I made you weary? Give evidence against Me! <sup>4</sup> For I brought you up out of Egypt and redeemed you out of slave-quarters. I sent before you Moses, Aaron and Miriam. <sup>5</sup> My people, please remember what Balak, the king of Moab, had planned to do to you and how Balaam, the son of Beor, answered him! Remember your journey from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may acknowledge the righteous acts of the LORD!”

<sup>6</sup> What should I bring when I come to meet the LORD and bow down before God on high? Shall I come to meet Him with burnt offerings, with one-year-old calves? <sup>7</sup> Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams or with ten thousand rivers of olive-oil? Shall I give my first-born because of my crime, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? <sup>8</sup> He has told you, O man, what is good and what the LORD requires from you: only that you should act justly, love mercy and walk carefully with your God.

A rebuke to dishonest rich people

<sup>9</sup> The voice of the LORD is calling out to the city — and with sound wisdom a person will see Your name — “Listen to the rod and to the One who has appointed it! <sup>10</sup> Are there still the treasures gained through wickedness in the house of the wicked person and the shortened grain measure, which is cursed? <sup>11</sup> Shall I acquit a person with dishonest scales and with a bag of inaccurate weights? <sup>12</sup> For the rich people in the city are full of violence. Those who live in it have been telling lies and have deceitful tongues in their mouths. <sup>13</sup> Therefore, I on My part shall make you sick by striking you and by ruining you because of your sins. <sup>14</sup> Although you eat, you will not be satisfied. Your stomach will still be hungry. Although you store up, you will not preserve, and I shall deliver to the sword what you do preserve. <sup>15</sup> Although you sow, you will not harvest. Although you tread out olives, you will not anoint yourselves with olive-oil. Although you tread out grapes, you will not drink any wine. <sup>16</sup> They are keeping the statutes of Omri and all the practices of the family of Ahab. You have been following their customs. As a result, I shall make you a desolation and make those who live in the city an object of hissing. You will bear the reproach of My people.”

The people's confession of their sin

<sup>1</sup> How miserable I am! For I have become as when the summer fruit has been gathered and as when the grape-harvest has been gleaned. There is no bunch of grapes to eat and no early fig, for which I have been longing.

<sup>2</sup> The godly person has been removed from the earth, and there is no upright person among human beings. All of them lie in wait to commit murder. Each one is hunting for the other with a snare. <sup>3</sup> Their hands are busy at accomplishing evil and at doing it skilfully. The official and the judge ask for a bribe, and the great man himself dictates his capricious wishes. They have been twisting their schemes together. <sup>4</sup> The best of them is like a thorn-bush. The most upright of them is worse than a hedge of thorns. The day announced by Your watchmen, the day when You call people to account, has come. Now they will be confounded. <sup>5</sup> Do not trust a neighbour! Do not have any confidence in a close friend! Guard the doors of your mouth from the wife in your embrace! <sup>6</sup> For a son calls his father a fool. A daughter rises up against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. A person's enemies are the members of his own family.

<sup>7</sup> However, I myself shall be on the lookout for the LORD. I shall wait for God, who saves me. My God will hear me. <sup>8</sup> Do not gloat over me, my enemy! Although I have fallen, I shall rise. When I sit in darkness, the LORD will be my light.

<sup>9</sup> Because I have been sinning against Him, I shall bear the wrath of the LORD until He pleads my cause and carries out justice for me. He will bring me out to the light. I shall see His righteousness. <sup>10</sup> When she who is my enemy sees this, shame will cover her. She had asked me, “Where is the LORD, your God?” My own eyes will look at her. Now she will be trampled down like mud in the streets. <sup>11</sup> That day will be a time to rebuild your walls. On that day the boundary will be far extended. <sup>12</sup> On that day people will come to you, from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, from Egypt to the Euphrates, from one sea to the next and from one mountain to the next. <sup>13</sup> However, the earth will be a desolate waste because of those who live on it, because of what their deeds have produced.

<sup>14</sup> Use Your shepherd's staff to take care of Your people, the flock that You have inherited! They are living alone in a thicket in the middle of a fruit-garden. Let them graze in Bashan and Gilead, as they used to do long ago!

<sup>15</sup> I shall show them miraculous deeds as in the days when you came out of Egypt. <sup>16</sup> When the nations see it they will be ashamed of all their strength. They will put their hands over their mouths. Their ears will become deaf. <sup>17</sup> They will lick dust like a snake, like creatures that crawl on the ground. They will come out of their fortresses quaking with fear. They will approach the LORD, our God, in trepidation and will be afraid of You.

A declaration about God's faithful love and compassion

<sup>18</sup> Who is a God like You? He forgives wrongdoing and passes over the transgression of the remnant of His inheritance. He has not retained His anger for ever, because He delights in mercy. <sup>19</sup> He will have compassion on us again. He will overcome our wrongdoings. You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea. <sup>20</sup> You will be faithful to Jacob and be merciful to Abraham, as You have been solemnly promising to our fathers from the days of old.

NAHUM

Nahum's vision about God's anger with Nineveh

<sup>12</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "Although they are at full strength and numerous, they will be cut off and pass away. Although I have humiliated you, I shall not humiliate you any longer. <sup>13</sup> Now therefore, I shall break his yoke away from you and tear your chains to pieces."

<sup>14</sup> The LORD will give an order about you: "None of your name will be perpetuated any longer. I shall cut off the carved image and the metal image from the temple of your gods. I shall prepare your grave. For you have become worthless."

<sup>15</sup> Look! The feet of a messenger who is bringing good news is on the mountains. He is announcing peace. Celebrate your feasts, Judah! Fulfil your vows! For a worthless person will never pass through you again. He will be completely destroyed.

2

A prediction that an army will conquer Nineveh

<sup>1</sup> The one who will scatter will come up against you. Keep watch over the fortress! Keep a lookout on the road! Tie up your clothes for action! Marshal all your strength! <sup>2</sup> For the Lord will restore the majesty of Jacob as the majesty of Israel, although plunderers have laid them waste and have ruined the branches of their vines. <sup>3</sup> The shields of its warriors will be dyed red. Its brave soldiers will be dressed in crimson. The iron on the chariots will flash on the day when he makes them ready. The cypress spears will be brandished. <sup>4</sup> The chariots will charge madly through the streets. They will rush this way and that through the city-squares. They will look like torches. They will drive back and forth like flashes of lightning. <sup>5</sup> He will remember his officers. They will stumble as they advance. They will hurry to the city-wall. The protective structure will be firmly set up. <sup>6</sup> The river-gates will be opened. The palace will collapse.

The plunder of the treasures of Nineveh

<sup>7</sup> It will be decreed. The city will be taken into exile and carried away. Its maid-servants will moan like doves and beat their breasts. <sup>8</sup> Nineveh has been like a pool of water from the time when it came into being. When the water is draining away and people cry, "Stop! Halt!" no one turns back. <sup>9</sup> "Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold!" There is no end of the supply or of the wealth of all the delightful articles. <sup>10</sup> The city will be emptied, laid waste and devastated. Hearts will melt and knees will stagger. All hips will tremble. The faces of them all will become pale. <sup>11</sup> Where is the lions' den, the feeding place for the young lions, where the lion and lioness walked, where the lion's cubs were and where no one caused them fear? <sup>12</sup> The lion used to tear enough for his cubs and used to strangle prey for his lionesses. He filled his lairs with prey and his dens with torn bodies.

<sup>13</sup> "Look! I am against you," declares the LORD of hosts. "I shall reduce the city's chariots to cinders, and the sword will devour your young lions. I shall cut off your prey from the earth, and the voices of your messengers will not be heard any longer."

The punishment of Nineveh for its sin

<sup>5</sup> "Look! I am against you," declares the LORD of hosts. "I shall lift your skirts up over your face. I shall show your naked body to the nations and your shame to the kingdoms. <sup>6</sup> I shall throw filth at you, treat you with contempt and make you a spectacle. <sup>7</sup> All who look at you will run away from you and say, ‘Nineveh has been devastated. Who will show sympathy for her? Where shall I try to find any who may comfort you?’”

Nahum

<sup>8</sup> Are you better than Thebes, which belonged to Amun, and which used to sit beside the Nile, with water surrounding it? The river was its defence. The water was its wall. <sup>9</sup> Cush and Egypt were her limitless strength. Put and the Libyans were your allies. <sup>10</sup> Even it was taken away as a captive and went into exile. Its babies were dashed in pieces at every street corner. Lots were cast for its noblemen, and all its great men were tied up with chains. <sup>11</sup> You also will become drunk. You will go into hiding. You, too, will try to find protection from the enemy. <sup>12</sup> All your fortresses will be like fig-trees with the earliest figs. If they are shaken around they will fall on the mouth of the one who eats them. <sup>13</sup> Look! Your soldiers, who are inside you, are women. The city-gates of your country will be opened wide to your enemies. Fire will devour the bars of your gates.

A prophecy that the strength of Nineveh will not save it

<sup>14</sup> Draw yourself water for the siege! Strengthen your fortifications! Go into the clay-pits! Tread on the mortar! Take hold of the brick-mould! <sup>15</sup> There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like creeping locusts. Multiply like creeping locusts! Multiply like migratory locusts! <sup>16</sup> You have made your merchants more numerous than the stars in the sky. They are like a creeping locust, which has shed its skin and flown away. <sup>17</sup> Your courtiers are like migratory locusts. Your officials are like swarms of locusts settling on the stone-fences on a cold day. When the sun rises, they fly away. No one knows where they have gone. <sup>18</sup> King of Assyria, your shepherds have fallen asleep. Your nobles are slumbering. Your people have been scattered over the mountains, and no one will gather them. <sup>19</sup> There is no remedy for your wound. Your affliction is incurable. All who hear the news about you will clap their hands over you. For who has not suffered from your unceasing evil?

HABAKKUK

The vision of Habakkuk

Habakkuk's first question

<sup>2</sup> How long, LORD, shall I keep calling for help when You do not listen? I keep crying out to You, 'There is violence!' but You will not save. <sup>3</sup> Why do You make me look at wrongdoing? Why do You make me stare at trouble? Destruction and violence are in front of me. There is disputing, and quarrelling arises. <sup>4</sup> That is why the Law is paralysed and justice has no successful result. For wicked people surround righteous people. That is why, when justice is issued, it is distorted.

God's answer to Habakkuk's question

<sup>5</sup> "You people should look among the nations and watch! Be astonished and horrified! For I am going to do something in your days that you would not believe if you were told about it. <sup>6</sup> For look! I am going to rouse the Chaldeans, that grim and impetuous nation, which marches through the whole earth to take possession of dwellings that do not belong to them. <sup>7</sup> They are terrifying and dreaded. They determine their own kind of justice and majesty. <sup>8</sup> Their horses will be faster than leopards and quicker than wolves in the evening. Their horsemen will charge along. Their horsemen will come from far away. They will fly like eagles that swoop to devour. <sup>9</sup> They will all come to be violent. Their whole vanguard will be like the east wind. They will gather prisoners like sand. <sup>10</sup> They will make fun of kings and laugh at notable persons. They will laugh at every fortress. For they will pile up earth and capture it. <sup>11</sup> Then they sweep through like the wind and go past. Nevertheless, they will suffer for their guilt because their own strength is their god."

Habakkuk's second question

<sup>12</sup> O LORD, my God, my Holy One, are You not from everlasting? We shall not die! O LORD, You have appointed them to bring judgment. O Rock, You have allocated them to bring a rebuke. <sup>13</sup> Your eyes are too pure to look at evil. You cannot look at harm. Why would You look at treacherous people? Why would You be silent when a wicked person swallows up someone who is more righteous than he is? <sup>14</sup> Why have You made human beings like the fish in the sea, like crawling creatures that have no ruler over them? <sup>15</sup> He will pull them all up with a fishhook. He will drag them away with his dragnet. He will gather them in his fishing net. That is why he rejoices and shouts for joy. <sup>16</sup> That is why he offers sacrifices to his dragnet and burns offerings to his fishing net. For it is by using them that he has a rich share of food and the choicest meals. <sup>17</sup> Is this the reason why he should be emptying his dragnet and why he should be constantly killing nations without pity?

2

Habakkuk's waiting for the answer of God

<sup>1</sup> Let me stand in position at my guard post! Let me take my stand on the watchtower! Let me watch to see what He will say to me and what I shall reply about my complaint!

God's answer that the righteous person will live through his faith

<sup>2</sup> Then the LORD answered me: "Write down the revelation! Inscribe it distinctly on tablets, that whoever reads it may move fluently! <sup>3</sup> For the vision is waiting for its appointed time. It longs for the end and will not tell a lie. If it delays, wait for it! For it will certainly come! It will not be late. <sup>4</sup> Look! His soul is puffed up. It is not upright inside him. But the righteous person will live by his faith."

A prediction of trouble for the oppressive Chaldeans

<sup>5</sup> How much more treacherous he is than wine! The man is arrogant and will not rest. He has opened his throat as wide as Sheol. He is like death and is never satisfied. He has grasped all nations to himself and has collected all the peoples as his own. <sup>6</sup> Will not all these peoples use a taunt against him and use a mocking poem and a riddle for him? Will they not say, 'How terrible for the one who heaps up what is not his own and who loads himself with securities for loans!' How long will this go on? <sup>7</sup> Will not those who take interest from you suddenly rise up? Will not those who make you tremble wake up? Then they will plunder you. <sup>8</sup> Because you yourself have plundered many nations, all the peoples that are left will plunder you, because of your murder of human beings and the violence you have done to the land, to cities and to all who live in them.

<sup>15</sup> How terrible for him who gives drink to his neighbours! You pour out your poison and even make them drunk, to gaze at their sexual organs! <sup>16</sup> You will satisfy yourself with shame instead of glory. You also, drink and expose your uncircumcision! The cup in the right hand of the LORD will come around to you and disgrace will cover your glory. <sup>17</sup> For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, as will the mistreatment of the animals, which shattered them, because of your murder of human beings and the violence you have done to the land, to cities and to all who live in them.

<sup>18</sup> What benefit is there in a carved idol when its maker has carved it? It is a metal image, a teacher of lies. For the one who shapes it trusts in what he has shaped himself, with the result that he makes pagan gods, which cannot speak. <sup>19</sup> How terrible for him who says to a piece of wood, 'Wake up!' and to a dumb stone, 'Awake!' Can this teach anyone? Look! It is overlaid with gold and silver, but there is no breath inside it at all. <sup>20</sup> Nevertheless, the LORD is in His holy Temple. Keep silent before Him, all the earth!

<sup>2</sup> LORD, I have heard about Your fame. I am afraid of Your actions. LORD, bring it back to life in the middle of the years! Make it known in the middle of the years! Although You have been angry, remember to be merciful!

His majesty has covered the heavens. His praise has filled the earth.

<sup>6</sup> He has been standing and shaking the earth. He has been looking at the nations and causing them to jump. The ancient mountains have been shattered. The everlasting hills have cowered down. Everlasting paths belong to Him.

<sup>8</sup> Was the LORD furious with the rivers? Were You angry with the rivers or were You raging against the sea when You were riding on Your horses, on Your chariot of salvation?

<sup>9</sup> You were beginning to uncover Your bow. Arrows were oaths at Your Command. Selah.

You were dividing the earth with rivers.

<sup>10</sup> When mountains saw You they began to writhe. A heavy rainstorm passed along. The deep ocean gave out its roar. It raised its hands up high.

<sup>11</sup> The sun and the moon stood still in their lofty dwellings. They began to vanish at the light of Your arrows, at the flash of Your glittering spear.

<sup>12</sup> You were striding through the earth in indignation. You were trampling down the nations in anger.

<sup>13</sup> You have gone out to save Your people, to save Your anointed one. You have smashed the leader away from the family of a wicked person. You have stripped his foundation bare up to his neck. Selah.

<sup>14</sup> You have pierced the heads of his warriors with his own arrows. His warriors had been coming like a storm to scatter me. They were gloating like those who devour a poor person in secret.

Habakkuk

<sup>15</sup> You have been walking through the sea with your horses, through the mighty, foaming waters.

<sup>16</sup> When I heard it, my inner being trembled. My lips quivered at the sound. Decay began to enter my bones. I was trembling where I stood. For I must wait for the day of distress to come against the people who will attack us.

The prophet Habakkuk's joy in the Lord

<sup>17</sup> Even if the fig-tree does not bud and there is no fruit on the vines, even if the produce of the olive-trees has failed and the fields have not yielded any food, even if the flock has been cut off from the sheep pen and there are no cattle in the stalls, <sup>18</sup> I myself shall be jubilant in the LORD. I shall rejoice in God, who saves me.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD God is my strength. He has made my feet like those of a deer. He causes me to walk on my high places.

To the director of music, on my stringed instruments.

ZEPHANIAH

<sup>1</sup> This is the Word of the LORD that came to Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, when Josiah, the son of Amon, was king of Judah.

A prophecy that God will judge the whole earth

<sup>2</sup> “I shall completely bring everything on the surface of the earth to an end,” declares the LORD. <sup>3</sup> “I shall put an end to human beings and animals. I shall put an end to the birds in the sky, the fish in the sea and the heaps of ruins together with the wicked people. I shall cut off mankind from the surface of the earth,” declares the LORD.

A prophecy that God will judge Judah

<sup>4</sup> “I shall stretch out My hand against Judah and against all those who live in Jerusalem. I shall also cut off the last traces of Baal from this place and the names of the pagan priests along with the other priests. <sup>5</sup> I shall also cut off those who bow down on the flat roofs to the starry host of the sky and those who bow down and swear oaths to the LORD but also swear by Milcom. <sup>6</sup> I shall also cut off those who have turned away from following the LORD and those who have not been devoted to the LORD or asking Him for advice.”

<sup>7</sup> Be silent in the presence of the Lord GOD! For the day of the LORD is near. For the LORD has prepared a sacrifice. He has declared holy those whom He has invited.

<sup>8</sup> “On the day of the sacrifice of the LORD I shall punish the princes, the king’s sons and all who dress in foreign clothing. <sup>9</sup> On that day I shall punish everyone who jumps over the threshold and all who fill their masters’ houses with violence and deception.

<sup>10</sup> “On that day,” declares the LORD, “a loud screaming will come from the Fish-Gate, a howling from the Second Quarter and a loud crash from the hills.

<sup>11</sup> Howl, you who live in Maktesh! For all the merchant people will be destroyed. All who weigh out silver will be exterminated. <sup>12</sup> At that time I shall search Jerusalem with lamps and punish the men who are becoming thick on their dregs of wine, those who are thinking, ‘The LORD will not do anything good or do anything evil.’ <sup>13</sup> Their wealth will be plundered, and their houses will become a sinister desolation. Although they build houses, they will not live in them. Although they plant vineyards, they will not drink their wine.”

An announcement that the great day of the Lord is near — Amos 5:18-20

<sup>14</sup> The great day of the LORD is near. It is near and coming very quickly. Listen! The day of the LORD will be bitter. There the warrior will scream for help.

against the fortified cities and against the high corner-towers.

<sup>17</sup> “I shall bring such distress on human beings that they will walk like blind people, because they have sinned against the LORD.”

Their blood will be poured out like dust, and their intestines like pellets of dung. <sup>18</sup> Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to rescue them on the day of the wrath of the LORD. The fire of His jealousy will devour the whole earth. For He will bring complete destruction, yes, something dreadful, on all who are living on the earth.

2

A call to Judah to turn away from sin

A prediction that God will judge His people’s enemies

<sup>4</sup> For Gaza will be abandoned, and Ashkelon will become a sinister ruin. Ashdod will be driven out at noon, and Ekron will be torn out by the roots. <sup>5</sup> How terrible for you who are living on the seacoast, nation of the Cherethites! The Word of the LORD is against you, Canaan, land of the Philistines.

“I shall exterminate you, so that no one will be living there.”

<sup>6</sup> The seacoast will be a place for grazing, with meadows for shepherds and fenced-in places for sheep. <sup>7</sup> The seacoast will become the possession of the remnant of the family of Judah. They will graze their sheep there. In the evenings they will lie down in the houses of Ashkelon. For the LORD, their God, will take care of them and bring about a restoration.

A proclamation against Moab and Ammon

<sup>8</sup> “I have heard the taunts of Moab and the scornful words of the Ammonites. They have been insulting My people and making boasts against their territory.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, as surely as I live,” declares the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, “Moab will certainly become like Sodom, and the Ammonites like Gomorrah, ground full of weeds and salt pits and a permanent wasteland. The remnant of My people will plunder them, and the survivors of My nation will inherit them.”

<sup>10</sup> This is what they will get in return for their pride. For they have been taunting the people of the LORD of hosts and boasting against them. <sup>11</sup> The LORD will be awesome against them. For He will cause all the gods of the earth to vanish. All the coastlands of the nations will worship Him, each one from its own place.

<sup>12</sup> “You Cushites, you also will be slain by My sword.”

A proclamation against Assyria

<sup>13</sup> He will stretch out His hand against the north and destroy Assyria. He will make Nineveh a sinister desolation, a dry region like the desert. <sup>14</sup> Herds will lie down in the middle of it and all kinds of wild animals. Even the desert-owl and the screech-owl will spend the night on the tops of its pillars. There will be sounds of hooting in the windows. There will be piles of rubble in the doorways. For He will expose its cedar panelling. <sup>15</sup> This is the exultant city that used to live in security. It used to think, “I am the only one, and there is no one else.” What a desolation it has become! It will be a place for wild animals to lie down. Everyone who goes past it will hiss and shake his fist.

A prediction that Jerusalem will be destroyed

<sup>1</sup> How terrible it will be for that rebellious, defiled and violent city! <sup>2</sup> It has not been listening to any voice. It has not been accepting any discipline. It has not been trusting in the LORD. It has not come near to its God. <sup>3</sup> Its officials, who are inside it, are roaring lions. Its judges are like wolves in the evening, which do not leave anything for the morning. <sup>4</sup> Its prophets are undisciplined deceivers. Its priests have been profaning what is holy. They have been violating the Law. <sup>5</sup> The LORD, who is inside it, is righteous. He does not do anything unjust. He dispenses His justice every morning. At each new day He does not fail. However, the unjust person knows no shame.

<sup>6</sup> “I shall cut off nations. Their corner-towers will be deserted. I shall reduce their streets to ruin so that no one will go past in them. Their cities will be made desolate. No one will be left. No one will live there. <sup>7</sup> I had thought, ‘Surely you will fear Me. You will accept discipline. Then its dwelling would not be cut off exactly as I had given instructions about it.’ Nevertheless, they have been all the more eager to behave corruptly in all their deeds.

<sup>8</sup> “Therefore, wait for Me,” declares the LORD, “until the day when I rise up for plunder. For I have decided to gather nations, to assemble kingdoms and to pour out My indignation, all My burning anger, on them.

For the fire of My jealousy will devour the whole earth. <sup>9</sup> For at that time I shall restore a pure language for the peoples, that all of them may call on the name of the LORD and serve Him with a single purpose.”

A prophecy of a humble remnant

<sup>10</sup> “My worshippers, the daughters of My dispersed people, will bring My offering from beyond the rivers of Cush. <sup>11</sup> On that day you will not be ashamed because of all your rebellious acts against Me. For then I shall remove your arrogant boasters from among you, and you will no longer be haughty on My holy mountain. <sup>12</sup> However, I shall leave among you a humble and poor people.”

They will take refuge in the name of the LORD. <sup>13</sup> Those who are left in Israel will not act unjustly or tell lies. No deceitful tongues will be found in their mouths. For they will be grazing and lying down, and no one will make them afraid.

Israel's joyful song about a promise of future happiness

<sup>14</sup> Cry out in jubilation, daughter Zion! Shout, Israel! Rejoice and triumph with all your heart, daughter Jerusalem! <sup>15</sup> The LORD has taken away the judgments against you. He has turned away your enemy. The King of Israel, the LORD, is among you. You will not fear calamity any longer. <sup>16</sup> On that day Jerusalem will be told, “Do not be afraid, Zion! Do not let your hands hang limp! <sup>17</sup> The LORD, your God, is among you. He is a Warrior, who saves. He will rejoice happily over you. He will reduce you to silence in His love. He will exult over you with shouts of joy.”

<sup>18</sup> “I shall gather those who are grieving because of the festival. They have been absent from you. The burden on Zion has been disgrace. <sup>19</sup> Look! At that time, I shall deal with all who are oppressing you. I shall save those who are lame. I shall gather those who have been scattered. I shall change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth. <sup>20</sup> At that time I shall bring you in, yes, at the time when I gather you together. For I shall make you famous and praised among all the peoples of the earth when I restore your fortunes before your eyes.” This is what the LORD has said.

HAGGAI

A call to rebuild the Temple at Jerusalem — Ezra 5:1

<sup>1</sup> On the first day of the sixth month in the second year of king Darius, the Word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai to the governor of Judah, Zerub-Babel, the son of Shealtiel, and to the High Priest, Joshua, the son of Jehozadak. He said: <sup>2</sup> “This is what the LORD of hosts has said: ‘These people have been saying that the time has not come yet, the time for the Temple of the LORD to be rebuilt.’”

<sup>3</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai: <sup>4</sup> “Is it a time for you yourselves to live in your panelled houses, while this house lies in ruins?”

<sup>5</sup> Now, therefore, this is what the LORD of hosts has said: “Think carefully about your behaviour!

<sup>6</sup> Although you have sown much, you have been harvesting little. Although you eat, you are not satisfied. Although you drink, you never have enough to drink. Although you clothe yourselves, no one is getting warm. The one who hiring himself out is earning wages only to put them into a bag with holes in it.”

<sup>7</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “Think carefully about your behaviour! <sup>8</sup> Go up to the hill-country, bring timber and build the Temple, that I may take pleasure in it and that I may be glorified!” This is what the LORD has said.

<sup>9</sup> “You have been beginning great projects, but look! They have come to little. When you brought anything home, I blew on it. Why?” asks the LORD of hosts. “It is because of My house, which is lying in ruins, while each of you is hurriedly attending to his own house.

<sup>10</sup> That is why the sky over you has been holding back the dew and the earth has been holding back its yield.

<sup>11</sup> I have called for a drought on the land and the hills, on the grain, the new wine, the olive-oil, on whatever else the ground produces, on human beings and animals and on everything for which your hands are toiling.”

The resumption of work on the Temple

<sup>12</sup> Then Zerub-Babel, the son of Shealtiel and the High Priest, Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, with all the people who were left, obeyed what the LORD, their God, was saying and the Words of the prophet Haggai, since the LORD, their God, had sent him. The people feared the LORD. <sup>13</sup> Then Haggai, the messenger of the LORD, used the Message of the LORD in speaking to the people: “‘I am with you,’ declares the LORD.”

<sup>14</sup> The LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerub-Babel, the son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, the spirit of the High Priest, Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, and the spirits of all the people who were left. They came and carried out work on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God.

<sup>15</sup> It was on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of King Darius.

A promise that the new Temple will be greater than the old one

<sup>1</sup> On the twenty-first day of the seventh month, the Word of the LORD came through the prophet Haggai. He said, <sup>2</sup> “Now, speak to Zerub-Babel, the son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and to the Chief Priest Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, and to the remnant of the people. Ask: <sup>3</sup> ‘Who is there among you who is left who saw this house in its former glory? How, then, do you see it now? Does it not seem like nothing to you?’

<sup>4</sup> “Now, however, Zerub-Babel, be strong!” declares the LORD. “Be strong, Joshua, the Chief Priest, the son of Jehozadak! Be strong, all you people of the land!” declares the LORD. “Work! For I am with you,” declares the LORD of hosts. <sup>5</sup> “This is the Promise that I made as a Covenant with you when you came out of Egypt. My Spirit remains among you. Do not be afraid!”

<sup>6</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts has said: “In a little while, I shall once again shake the heavens, the earth, the sea and the dry land. <sup>7</sup> I shall also shake all the nations, and they will come to the One whom all the nations desire. Then I shall fill this house with glory,” the LORD of hosts has said. <sup>8</sup> “The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,” declares the LORD of hosts. <sup>9</sup> “This latter house will be more splendid than the former one,” the LORD of hosts has said. “In this place I shall give peace,” declares the LORD of hosts.

A promise that God will bless the people despite their sin

<sup>10</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the Word of the LORD came to the prophet Haggai. He said: <sup>11</sup> “This is what the LORD of hosts has said: ‘Please ask the priests about the Law: <sup>12</sup> “If someone uses the skirt of his garment to carry holy meat in it and, if his skirt touches bread, cooked food, wine, olive-oil or any other kind of food, does it become holy?’”

The priests replied by saying, “No.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Haggai asked, “If someone who is ceremonially unclean through contact with a dead person touches any of these, does it become unclean?”

The priests answered, “It will be unclean.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Haggai answered: “It is like that with this people and it is like that with this nation before Me,” declares the LORD, “and it is like that with everything that they do with their hands. Whatever they offer there is unclean. <sup>15</sup> Now therefore, please think carefully about this from this day on! Even before one stone was laid on another in the Temple of the LORD, <sup>16</sup> since that time, when anyone came to a heap of twenty measures of grain, there were only ten. When anyone came to a wine vat to draw out fifty measures, there were only twenty. <sup>17</sup> I have been striking you in everything that you have been doing with your hands with blight, with mildew and with hail. Nevertheless, you have not been willing to come back to Me,” declares the LORD. <sup>18</sup> “Please think carefully from this day on, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, since the day when the foundation of the Temple of the LORD was laid! Think about it carefully! <sup>19</sup> Is there seed in the granary any longer? Even the vine, the fig-tree, the pomegranate and the olive-tree have not yielded anything. However, from this day on I shall bless you.”

Haggai

A promise to Zerub-Babel

<sup>20</sup> The Word of the LORD came to Haggai a second time, on the twenty-fourth day of the month. He said:

<sup>21</sup> “Tell Zerub-Babel, the governor of Judah, ‘I am about to make the heavens and the earth quake. <sup>22</sup> I shall overthrow the thrones of kingdoms. I shall destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. I shall overthrow the chariots and their riders. The horses and their riders will fall. They will kill one another with swords. <sup>23</sup> On that day,’ declares the LORD of hosts, ‘I shall take you, Zerub-Babel, My servant, the son of Shealtiel,’ declares the LORD, ‘and make you like a signet ring. For I have chosen you,’” declares the LORD of hosts.

ZECHARIAH

An admonition to turn from evil ways

<sup>1</sup> In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, the Word of the LORD came to the prophet Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo. He said: <sup>2</sup> “The LORD was very angry with your ancestors. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, tell them, ‘This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “Return to Me,” declares the LORD of hosts, “and I shall return to you!”’” This is what the LORD of hosts has said.

<sup>4</sup> “Do not be like your ancestors! The earlier prophets proclaimed to them: ‘This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “Please turn back from your evil behaviour and from your evil practices!” However, they did not listen or pay attention to Me,’” declares the LORD.

<sup>5</sup> “Your fathers — where are they? The prophets, do they stay alive for ever? <sup>6</sup> Nevertheless, did My Words and My Prescriptions, which I commanded My servants the prophets, not overtake your fathers?” Then they repented and said, “The LORD of hosts has done to us as He had planned to do to us for our behaviour and our deeds.”

A vision of a horseman among myrtles in a ravine

<sup>7</sup> On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month of Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the Word of the LORD came and spoke to the prophet Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo. <sup>8</sup> During the night I saw a man riding on a red horse. He was standing among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine. There were also red, light red and white horses behind him. <sup>9</sup> I asked, “What are these, my master?”

The angel who was speaking to me told me, “I shall show you what these are.”

<sup>10</sup> Then the man who was standing among the myrtle trees answered, “These are the ones that the LORD has sent to go throughout the earth.”

<sup>11</sup> Then they answered the Angel of the LORD, who was standing among the myrtle trees. They said, “We have been going throughout the earth and seen that the whole earth is still and quiet.”

<sup>12</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD asked: “LORD of hosts, how much longer will You withhold Your compassion from Jerusalem and the other cities of Judah? You have been angry with them for the past seventy years.”

<sup>13</sup> The LORD used kind and comforting Words to answer the angel who was talking to me. <sup>14</sup> Then the angel who was talking to me told me: “Announce: ‘This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “I have been extremely jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion. <sup>15</sup> I am extremely angry with the nations that feel secure. For while I Myself was only a little angry, they made the calamity worse.”’”

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said: “I have come back to Jerusalem to be compassionate. My Temple will be rebuilt in it,” declares the LORD of hosts, “and a measuring-line will be stretched out over Jerusalem.”

<sup>17</sup> “Announce further: ‘This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “My cities will overflow with prosperity again. The LORD will comfort Zion again and choose Jerusalem again.”’”

A vision of four horns and four craftsmen

<sup>18</sup> When I looked up, I suddenly saw four horns. <sup>19</sup> I asked the angel who was talking to me, “What are these?”

He told me, “These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem.”

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD showed me four craftsmen. <sup>21</sup> I asked: “What are these coming to do?”

He said: “These are the horns that scattered Judah so much that no one raised his head. The craftsmen have come to terrify them, to throw down the horns of the nations that used to lift up their horns against the land of Judah to scatter it.”

2

A promise that God will choose Jerusalem and that Jerusalem will be without walls

He told me, “To measure Jerusalem, to see how wide and how long it is.”

<sup>3</sup> Then I saw the angel who had been talking to me going out. Then another angel came out to meet him. <sup>4</sup> He told him: “Run! Tell that young man, ‘People will live in Jerusalem as people do in open country places, because it will have so many human beings and animals in it.’”

<sup>5</sup> “I Myself shall be a wall of fire all around it,” declares the LORD, “and I shall be the glory inside it.”

An appeal to exiles to come to Zion

<sup>6</sup> “Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north!” declares the LORD. “For I have dispersed you like the four winds of the sky,” declares the LORD.

<sup>7</sup> Come! Escape to Zion, you who are living with the daughter of Babylon! <sup>8</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts has said: “To obtain glory, He has sent Me to the nations who were plundering you.”

For anyone who touches you touches the pupil of His eye.

<sup>9</sup> “For look! I shall shake My fist against them, and they will become plunder for those who used to serve them. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me.”

<sup>10</sup> “Be glad and rejoice, daughter of Zion! For look! I am coming and shall live among you,” declares the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> “Many nations will join themselves to the LORD on that day and be My people. I shall live among you.”

Zechariah

Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you. <sup>12</sup> The LORD will inherit Judah as His own portion in the Holy Land and will again choose Jerusalem.”

<sup>13</sup> Be silent, all humankind, before the LORD! For He has roused Himself from His holy dwelling.

The cleansing of the High Priest and a promise that God will send His Servant, the Branch

Then He told Joshua, “Look! I have taken your guilt away from you and am dressing you in festival robes.”

They put a clean headband on his head and clothed him with garments while the Angel of the LORD was standing there. <sup>6</sup> The Angel of the LORD solemnly assured Joshua: <sup>7</sup> “This is what the LORD of hosts has said: ‘If you walk in My Ways and observe My Requirements, then you yourself will also rule My Temple and have charge of My courts. Then I shall give you free access among these who are standing here. <sup>8</sup> Please listen, O High Priest, Joshua, you and your companions who are sitting before you! For they are men who symbolise something wonderful. For look! I shall bring My Servant, the Branch. <sup>9</sup> For look at the stone that I have set before Joshua! See! On a single stone with seven eyes I shall engrave its inscription,’ declares the LORD of hosts, ‘and I shall remove the guilt of this land in a single day. <sup>10</sup> On that day,’ declares the LORD of hosts, ‘each one of you will invite his neighbour to come under his vine and under his fig-tree.’”

4

A vision of a lampstand and two olive-trees and a promise that the Temple will be rebuilt

<sup>1</sup> The angel who was speaking to me came again and woke me, like a man who is woken up out of his sleep.

<sup>2</sup> He asked me, “What do you see?”

I said: “I have suddenly seen a solid gold lampstand with a bowl on the top of it and seven lamps on it. There are also seven spouts for the lamps that are on the top of it. <sup>3</sup> There are two olive-trees beside it, one on the right, and the other on the left of the bowl.”

<sup>4</sup> I asked the angel who was speaking to me, “What are these, my master?”

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel who was speaking to me answered by asking me: “Do you not know what these are?”

I replied, “No, my master.”

<sup>6</sup> Then he told me: “This is the Word of the LORD to Zerub-Babel: ‘Not by human strength and not by power but by My Spirit,’” is what the LORD of hosts has said.

<sup>7</sup> “What are you, O high mountain? In front of Zerub-Babel you will become a plain. He will bring out the topmost stone while people shout, ‘Blessings, blessings be on it!’”

<sup>8</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to me. He said:

<sup>9</sup> “The hands of Zerub-Babel have laid the foundation of this Temple. His hands will also complete it. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent me to you. <sup>10</sup> For whoever have despised the day of small things will rejoice and see the plumb-line in Zerub-Babel’s hand. These seven are the eyes of the LORD, which roam about over the whole earth.”

<sup>12</sup> I spoke a second time and asked him, “What are these two clusters of branches of the olive-trees, which are beside the two golden pipes, which are pouring out the golden oil from high up on them?”

<sup>13</sup> He asked me, “Do you not know what these are?”

I said, “No, my master.”

<sup>14</sup> Then he said, “These are the two anointed ones, who stand beside the Lord of the whole earth.”

A vision of a flying scroll

I answered: “I see a flying scroll. It is ten metres long and five metres wide.”

<sup>3</sup> Then he told me: “This is the curse that is going out over the whole earth. For everyone who steals will be banished according to what is on the one side of the scroll, and everyone who takes an oath will be banished according to what is on the other side of it. <sup>4</sup> ‘I have sent it out,’ declares the LORD of hosts, “and it will enter the house of a thief and the house of one who uses My name to swear falsely. It will remain in his house and destroy it, both its timber and its stones.”

A prediction that wickedness will be removed from the land

<sup>5</sup> Then the angel who was speaking to me came forward and told me, “Please look up and see what this is that is appearing!”

<sup>6</sup> I asked, “What is it?”

He said, “This is the measuring-basket, which is coming out.” He added, “This is the sin of people all over the earth.”

<sup>7</sup> Then I saw that the lead-cover was being raised, and there was a woman sitting inside the basket! <sup>8</sup> He said, “This is Wickedness.”

Then he pushed her back inside the basket and pushed the slab of lead down over its opening.

<sup>9</sup> When I looked up and took notice, I suddenly saw that two women were coming forward. The wind was in their wings. They had wings like those of a stork. They lifted the measuring-basket up between the earth and the sky. <sup>10</sup> Then I asked the angel who was speaking to me, "Where are they taking the measuring-basket?"

<sup>11</sup> He told me: "To the land of Shinar, to build a house for it. When this has been prepared, the basket will be set down there on the place for it."

A vision of four chariots of God, which announce the victory of God throughout the earth

<sup>5</sup> The angel answered me: "These are the four winds of heaven. They are going out after they have been standing in the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

<sup>6</sup> The chariot with the black horses is going out toward the north country, and the white horses have followed them. The spotted ones have gone out toward the south country."

<sup>7</sup> When the strong horses came out, they were straining to leave and go throughout the earth. When he said, "Leave! Go throughout the earth!" they went throughout the earth. <sup>8</sup> Then He called out to me, "Look! The ones that were going out toward the north country have pacified My Spirit in the north country."

The making of a crown for Joshua and a prophecy of the Branch

<sup>9</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to me. He said:

<sup>10</sup> "Receive a gift from the exiles Heldai, Tobijah and Jedaiah, who have arrived from Babylon! Then you yourself shall go on the same day to the house of Josiah, the son of Zephaniah! <sup>11</sup> Receive silver and gold from them, make a crown and place it on the head of the High Priest, Joshua, the son of Jehozadak! <sup>12</sup> Tell him, 'This is what the LORD of hosts has said: "Here is the Man whose name is 'Branch.' He will branch out from His place and build the Temple of the LORD."

<sup>13</sup> He Himself will rebuild the Temple of the LORD and He Himself will bear majesty. He will sit on His throne and rule on it. He will also be a priest on His throne. Both of them will be planning peace. <sup>14</sup> The crown will be in the Temple of the LORD as a reminder to Helem,<sup>165</sup> Tobijah, Jedaiah and Hen, the son of Zephaniah. <sup>15</sup> People who are far away will come and help to rebuild the Temple of the LORD. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you. This will happen if you diligently listen to the voice of the LORD, your God."'"

A question about fasting and a rebuke for not listening to God's prophets

<sup>1</sup> In the fourth year of King Darius, the Word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chislev. <sup>2</sup> The people of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-Melech with their men to ask for the favour of the LORD. <sup>3</sup> They asked the priests at the Temple of the LORD of hosts and the prophets, "Should we mourn and fast in the fifth month, as we have been doing for so many years now?"

<sup>4</sup> Then the Word of the LORD of hosts came to me. He said: <sup>5</sup> "Ask all the people of the land and the priests, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and the seventh months during these past seventy years, was it really on My own account that you fasted?' <sup>6</sup> When you were eating and when you were drinking, were you yourselves not eating and were you yourselves not drinking? <sup>7</sup> Were not these the same Words as the LORD proclaimed through the earlier prophets, when Jerusalem and its surrounding cities were inhabited and undisturbed and when the Negev and the western foothills were still inhabited?"

A call for genuine justice

<sup>8</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to Zechariah. He said: <sup>9</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts has said: 'Administer genuine justice! Be merciful and compassionate to one another! <sup>10</sup> Do not oppress a widow, an orphan, a resident-foreigner or a poor person! Do not think evil in your hearts about one another!'"

<sup>11</sup> However, they refused to pay attention. They stubbornly turned their backs and blocked their ears to avoid listening. <sup>12</sup> They made their hearts as hard as diamonds, so that they would not listen to the Law and the Words that the LORD of hosts had sent by His Spirit through the earlier prophets. Therefore, the LORD of hosts became very angry. <sup>13</sup> "When I called, they would not listen. So, when they call, I shall not listen." This is what the LORD of hosts has said.

<sup>14</sup> "I also used a storm to blow them away among all the other nations, which they had not known. The land that they left behind was stripped of inhabitants, so that no one went through it or came back to it. They turned the pleasant land into a wasteland."

8

God's promise of peace and prosperity for Zion

<sup>1</sup> The Word of the LORD of hosts came. He said: <sup>2</sup> "This is what the LORD of hosts has said: 'I am very jealous about Zion. I am burning with great jealousy about it.'"

<sup>3</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "I have returned to Zion and shall live inside Jerusalem. Jerusalem will be called 'The City of Truth,' 'The Mountain of the LORD of Hosts,' and 'The Holy Mountain.'"

<sup>4</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said: "Old men and old women will again sit in the streets of Jerusalem. They will all have walking sticks in their hands because they will be very old. <sup>5</sup> The streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing in its open

<sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has asked: “If the remnant of this people think that this is too difficult in those days, should I also think that it is too difficult?” declares the LORD of hosts.

<sup>7</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “Look! I shall save My people from the land of the east and from the land of the west. <sup>8</sup> I shall bring them to live inside Jerusalem. They will be My people, and I Myself shall be their God, in truth and in righteousness.”

<sup>9</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “Work courageously, you people who are currently listening to these Words from the mouths of the prophets who were present on the day when the foundation of the Temple of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the Temple might be rebuilt! <sup>10</sup> For before that time there were no wages for any person, and there was no money to hire an animal. There was no safety for anyone to go or come because of the enemy. I had turned every person against everyone else. <sup>11</sup> However, now I shall not treat the remnant of this people as I did in the previous times,” declares the LORD of hosts. <sup>12</sup> “For people will sow seed successfully. The vine will produce its fruit. The ground will yield its produce. The sky will give its dew. I shall cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. <sup>13</sup> As you have been an expression to use in cursing among the nations, family of Judah and family of Israel, so I shall save you, and you will become an expression to use in blessing. Do not be afraid but work courageously!”

A promise of joyful fasting

<sup>14</sup> For this is what the LORD of hosts has said: “As I planned to treat you badly when your fathers provoked Me to anger,” says the LORD of hosts, “and I did not relent, <sup>15</sup> so I have planned again in these days to treat Jerusalem and the family of Judah well. Do not be afraid! <sup>16</sup> These are the things that you shall do: Speak the truth to one another! Give verdicts at your city-gates that are true, just and beneficial! <sup>17</sup> Do not think evil in your hearts about one another! Do not enjoy false oaths! For all these are things that I hate,” declares the LORD.

A promise that many nations will join God's people

<sup>18</sup> The Word of the LORD of hosts came to me. He said: <sup>19</sup> “This is what the LORD of hosts has said: ‘For the family of Judah the fast in the fourth month, the fast in the fifth month, the fast in the seventh month and the fast in the tenth month will be joyful and glad times and happy assemblies. Therefore, love truth and peace!’”

<sup>20</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “Nations and people who live in many cities will still come.

<sup>21</sup> People who live in one city will go to another and say, ‘Let us regularly go to ask for the favour of the LORD and to be intent on the LORD of hosts! We ourselves are also going.’ <sup>22</sup> Many peoples and powerful nations will come to be intent on the LORD of hosts at Jerusalem and to ask for the favour of the LORD.”

<sup>23</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “In those days ten men from every language among the nations will grasp the hem of the garment of a Jewish man and say, ‘Let us go with you! For we have heard that God is with you.’”

9

A judgment on Israel's enemies and a declaration that God will protect His Temple

<sup>1</sup> This is a pronouncement. “The Word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach and will rest on Damascus.”

For the LORD has an eye on human beings and on all the tribes of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> “It is also on Hamath, which borders on it, and on Tyre and Sidon, although they are very shrewd. <sup>3</sup> Tyre has built itself a fortress and has been heaping up silver like dust and fine gold like mud on the streets.”

<sup>4</sup> Look! The Lord will strip it of its possessions and throw its outer wall down into the sea, and it will itself be devoured by fire. <sup>5</sup> Ashkelon will see it and be afraid. Gaza will also see it and will writhe in anguish. Ekron will also writhe, because its hopes will be ruined. Gaza will lose its king. Ashkelon will be uninhabited.

It too will be left as a remnant that belongs to our God. It will be like a tribal chiefdom in Judah, and Ekron will be like the Jebusites. <sup>8</sup> “Then I shall camp in front of My house against an army, to prevent it from marching through and returning. No oppressor will march through against them again. For I have now been watching with My own eyes.”

A promise that God will send His humble Messianic King — Matthew 21:5, John 12:14-15

<sup>9</sup> Rejoice greatly, daughter of Zion! Shout in triumph, daughter of Jerusalem! Look! Your King is coming to you. He is righteous and victorious. He is humble and is riding on a donkey, yes, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

<sup>10</sup> “I shall cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the horse from Jerusalem. The bow of battle will be eliminated.”

He will proclaim peace to the nations. His dominion will extend from sea to sea and from the River to the ends of the earth.

<sup>11</sup> “As for you also, because of the blood of your Covenant, I shall release your prisoners from the waterless cistern.”

A promise of salvation

<sup>12</sup> “Return to your fortress, prisoners who have hope! Even today I declare that I shall restore twice as much to you. <sup>13</sup> For I shall bend Judah as My bow. I shall make Ephraim its arrow. I shall stir up your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece. I shall make you like the sword of a warrior.”

Zechariah

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD will appear over them, and His arrow will go out like lightning. The Lord GOD will blow the trumpet and will march out in the windstorms of the south. <sup>15</sup> The LORD of hosts will protect them. They will devour and will use sling-stones to subjugate. They will drink and roar as though with wine. They will be full, like a bowl that is used for pouring and drenched like the corners of the altar. <sup>16</sup> On that day the LORD, their God, will save them, as the flock of His people. Indeed, they will sparkle in His land like jewels in a crown. <sup>17</sup> Indeed, how attractive and how beautiful they will be! Grain will make the young men flourish, and new wine will make the young women thrive.

10

A promise that God will gather His people

<sup>1</sup> Ask the LORD for rain in the season for the Spring-rain! The LORD makes the storm clouds and will give showers of rain to people and plants in the field to everyone. <sup>2</sup> For the household-images have been telling what is false, and those who predict the future have been seeing illusory visions. They tell empty dreams and give futile comfort. That is why the people have been wandering on like sheep. They are suffering because they lack a shepherd.

<sup>3</sup> “My anger has been burning against the shepherds, and I shall punish the leaders.”

For the LORD of hosts has been caring for His flock, the family of Judah, and will make them like His majestic war-horse. <sup>4</sup> From the family of Judah the cornerstone will come. From it will come the tent peg, from it the bow for the battle, from it every ruler — all of them together. <sup>5</sup> They will be like warriors who trample their enemies down in the mud of the streets in battle. They will fight because the LORD is with them, and those who ride on horses will be ashamed.

<sup>6</sup> “I shall strengthen the family of Judah and save the family of Joseph. I shall bring them back because I have had compassion on them. They will be as though I had not rejected them. For I am the LORD, their God, and I shall answer them.”

<sup>7</sup> Then the people of Ephraim will become like warriors. Their hearts will be merry as if with wine. When their children see it they will be glad. Their hearts will rejoice in the LORD.

<sup>8</sup> “I shall whistle for them and gather them in. For I have redeemed them. They will become as numerous as they have been before. <sup>9</sup> Although I kept scattering them among the nations, they will remember Me in distant places. They will survive with their children and come back. <sup>10</sup> I shall bring them back from Egypt and gather them from Assyria. I shall bring them to the land of Gilead and to Lebanon, and there will not be enough room for them.”

<sup>11</sup> He will pass through the sea of trouble and strike down the waves in the sea. All the depths of the Nile will dry up. The arrogance of Assyria will be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt will disappear.

<sup>12</sup> “I shall make them strong in the LORD. They will conduct themselves in His name,” declares the LORD.

11

The instruction to Zechariah to take care of the sheep

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, I became the shepherd of the flock that was about to be slaughtered and especially of the wretched animals among the sheep. I chose two staffs. I named the one “Favour” and named the other one “Unity,” and I began to shepherd the sheep. <sup>8</sup> In one month I got rid of the three other shepherds. However, I had become impatient with the sheep, and they also despised me. <sup>9</sup> So, I said: “I shall not be your shepherd. Let what is dying die! Let what is being lost be lost! Let those who are left eat one another’s flesh!”

<sup>11</sup> So, it was revoked on that day, and the wretched animals among the sheep that were watching me knew that this was indeed the Word of the LORD. <sup>12</sup> Then I told them: “If you think it is right, give me my wages! However, if you do not, decline!”

They weighed out thirty pieces of silver as my wages.

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD told me, “Throw them to the potter!”

It was a “fine” price at which they valued Me! So, I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them to the potter at the Temple of the LORD. <sup>14</sup> Then I broke my second staff, Unity, to annul the brotherly relationship between Judah and Israel.

<sup>15</sup> Then the LORD told me, “Take up the equipment of a useless shepherd again! <sup>16</sup> For look! I am about to appoint a shepherd in the land who will not be concerned about those that are going astray, search for the young, heal the ones that have broken limbs or provide for the ones that can still stand. Rather, he will eat the meat of the fat ones and tear off their hoofs. <sup>17</sup> How terrible for My worthless shepherd, who deserts the flock! May the sword strike his arm and his right eye! Let his arm wither completely! May his right eye become completely blind!”

12

A promise that God will save Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> This is a revelation, the Word of the LORD about Israel: The LORD, who spreads out the heavens, lays the foundation of the earth and forms the spirit of a human being in him, declares: <sup>2</sup> “Look! I am about to make Jerusalem a cup that causes all the surrounding peoples to stagger. What happens to Jerusalem when it is besieged will also happen to Judah. <sup>3</sup> On that day I shall make Jerusalem a stone weight for all the peoples. All who lift it will severely injure themselves. All the nations of the earth will gather against it.

<sup>4</sup> “On that day,” declares the LORD, “I shall strike every horse with panic and its rider with madness. However, I shall keep my eyes open for the sake of the family of Judah when I strike every horse of the other peoples with blindness. <sup>5</sup> Then the leaders of Judah will think: ‘Those who are living in Jerusalem are supporting us strongly because of the LORD of hosts, their God.’ <sup>6</sup> On that day I shall make the leaders of Judah like a fire-pot among pieces of wood and like a flaming torch among sheaves.”

They will devour all the surrounding peoples to the right and to the left, but Jerusalem will again be inhabited in its place, in Jerusalem. <sup>7</sup> The LORD will save the tents of Judah first, that the honour of the family of David and the honour of those who are living in Jerusalem may not surpass that of Judah. <sup>8</sup> On that day the LORD will give protection around those who are living in Jerusalem, so that the one who stumbles among them will be like David on that day, and the family of David will be like God, like the Angel of the LORD, in front of them.

A prophecy that the people in Jerusalem will look at the One whom they have pierced.

<sup>9</sup> “On that day, I shall set out to destroy all the nations that attack Jerusalem. <sup>10</sup> I shall also pour out the Spirit of grace and of supplication for favour on the family of David and on those who are living in Jerusalem. They will look at Me, the One whom they have pierced.”

They will mourn over Him as people mourn over an only son and grieve bitterly for Him as people grieve for their first-born son. <sup>11</sup> On that day the mourning in Jerusalem will be as great as the mourning for Hadad-Rimmon in the valley of Megiddo. <sup>12</sup> The land will mourn, each clan by itself, the clan of the family of David by itself, their wives by themselves, the clan of the family of Nathan by itself, their wives by themselves, <sup>13</sup> the clan of the family of Levi by itself, their wives by themselves, the clan of the descendants of Shimei by itself, their wives by themselves <sup>14</sup> and all the clans that are left will each mourn by itself and their wives by themselves.

<sup>1</sup> On that day a fountain against sin and uncleanness will be opened for the family of David and those who live in Jerusalem.

A threat that false prophets will be judged

<sup>2</sup> “On that day,” declares the LORD of hosts, “I shall cut off the names of the idols from the land, so that they will not be remembered any longer. I shall also remove the prophets and the spirit of impurity from the land.”

<sup>3</sup> If anyone prophesies again, his father and his mother, who gave birth to him, will tell him, “You shall not live! For you have told lies in the name of the LORD.” His father and mother, who gave birth to him, will pierce him through when he prophesies.

<sup>4</sup> On that day every prophet will be ashamed of his vision when he prophesies. They will not put on garments made of hair to deceive. <sup>5</sup> However, he will say, “I am not a prophet. I till the soil, because a man bought me when I was a child.” <sup>6</sup> If someone asks him, “What are these wounds on your shoulders?” he will say, “They come from when I was beaten at the house of my friends.”

A prophecy that the Shepherd will be struck and the sheep will be scattered

<sup>7</sup> “Awake, sword, against My Shepherd, against the Man who is My Associate,” declares the LORD of hosts. “Strike the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered. I shall also turn My hand against the little ones. <sup>8</sup> In the whole land,” declares the LORD, “two-thirds will be cut off and perish, but the one third will be left in it. <sup>9</sup> I shall bring this third into the fire and refine them as silver is refined. I shall test them as gold is tested. They will call on My name, and I Myself shall answer them. I shall say, ‘They are My people.’ They will also say, ‘The LORD is my God.’”

14

A prophecy that God will fight the nations on the great coming day

<sup>1</sup> Look! A day is coming that will belong to the LORD, when your plunder will be divided among you.

<sup>2</sup> “I shall gather all the nations to Jerusalem for battle.” The city will be captured, the houses will be plundered and the women will be raped. Half of the city will go away into exile, but the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations as He fights in a day of battle. <sup>4</sup> On that day His feet will stand on the Mount of Olives, which faces Jerusalem on the eastern side. The Mount of Olives will be split in two from east to west to form a very wide valley. One half of the mountain will move away towards the north and the other half toward the south.

For the valley between the mountains will reach as far as Azal. You will flee as you fled from the earthquake at the time of Uzziah, the king of Judah. Then the LORD, my God, will come. All the holy ones will be with You. <sup>6</sup> On that day there will be no light. Precious things will congeal. <sup>7</sup> There will be one day, which is known to the LORD, without day or night. However, there will be light in the evening.

Zechariah

A promise of living water from Jerusalem

<sup>8</sup> On that day living water will flow out from Jerusalem, half of it to the Eastern Sea and half of it to the Western Sea. It will continue in summer and in winter.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD will be King over all the earth. On that day the LORD will be one, and His name one. <sup>10</sup> The whole land from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem, will change, to be like the Arabah. However, Jerusalem will rise up high and remain in its place from the Gate of Benjamin to the place of the Former-Gate, to the Corner-Gate and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's vineyards. <sup>11</sup> People will live there. There will be no ban of destruction any longer. People will live in security in Jerusalem. <sup>12</sup> This will be the plague that the LORD will use to strike all the peoples that have fought against Jerusalem: He will cause their flesh to rot while they are still standing on their feet. Their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. <sup>13</sup> On that day a great panic from the LORD will come among them, so that each one will seize the hand of another, and they will raise their hands against each other. <sup>14</sup> Judah will also fight in Jerusalem. The wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered, a very large amount of gold, silver and clothes. <sup>15</sup> A similar plague will fall on the horses, the mules, the camels, the donkeys and all the other animals that are in those camps.

<sup>16</sup> Everyone who is left from all the nations that had attacked Jerusalem will go up every year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. <sup>17</sup> If any of the clans of the earth do not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there will be no rain on them. <sup>18</sup> If the clan of Egypt does not go up and enter, there will be no rain on them either. It will be the plague with which the LORD strikes the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles. <sup>19</sup> This will be the punishment for sin for Egypt and the punishment for sin for all the nations that do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles.

<sup>20</sup> On that day "Holy to the LORD" will be inscribed on the bells of the horses. The cooking pots in the Temple of the LORD will be like the bowls used for pouring that are in front of the altar. <sup>21</sup> Every pot in Jerusalem and Judah will be holy to the LORD of hosts. All who sacrifice will come in, take some of them and cook meat in them. On that day there will no longer be any merchant in the Temple of the LORD of hosts.

MALACHI

<sup>1</sup> This is a pronouncement, the Word of the LORD to Israel through Malachi. <sup>*166</sup>

God's love for Israel

<sup>2</sup> The Lord has said, "I have loved you."

"However, you ask, 'How have You loved us?'"

"Was Esau not Jacob's brother?" the LORD asks. "Yet I have loved Jacob, <sup>3</sup> but have hated Esau. I made his hill-country a wasteland and left his inheritance to jackals in the desert.

<sup>4</sup> "If Edom says, 'Although we have been shattered, we shall build the ruins up again,' the LORD of hosts has said: 'They may rebuild them, but I Myself shall demolish them.'"

They will be called "The-Wicked-Territory," and "The People Whom the LORD Has Cursed for Ever."

<sup>5</sup> Your own eyes will see this, and you yourselves will say, "The LORD is great even outside the borders of Israel!"

A complaint that the priests are offering unacceptable sacrifices

<sup>6</sup> "A son honours his father, and a servant his master. Then, if I am a father, where is the honour to Me? If I am a master, where is the respect for Me? This is what the LORD of hosts has asked you, priests, who despise My name." However, you ask, 'How have we despised Your name?'

<sup>7</sup> "You are offering defiled food on My altar.

"However, you ask, 'How have we defiled You?'"

"By saying that the table of the LORD is despicable.

<sup>8</sup> When you present blind animals to sacrifice them, is that not evil? When you present those that are lame or sick, is that not evil? Please take them to your governor! Would he be pleased with you or be favourably disposed to you?" the LORD of hosts has asked.

<sup>9</sup> Now therefore, please implore God to be favourable, that He may be gracious to us.

"When this has come from your hands, will He be favourably disposed to you?" the LORD of hosts has asked. <sup>10</sup> "I even wish that someone among you would shut the doors, to prevent you from lighting up My altar in vain! I am not pleased with you," the LORD of hosts has said, "and I shall not welcome an offering from your hands. <sup>11</sup> For from the rising of the sun to the place where it sets My name will be great among the nations. In every place frankincense and ceremonially clean offerings will be presented to My name. For My name will be great among the nations," the LORD of hosts has said.

<sup>12</sup> However, you are profaning it when you say that the table of the Lord may be defiled and that its produce, its food, is despicable. <sup>13</sup> "You are saying, 'Look! What a nuisance this is!' and you are sniffing at it," the LORD of hosts has said. "You are bringing what has been stolen, what is lame or what is sick. When you bring such things as your offerings, shall I gladly accept them from your hands?" the LORD has asked.

<sup>14</sup> "May the person be cursed who acts deceptively, who has a male animal in his flock and vows to give it and who nevertheless sacrifices to the LORD one that is blemished! For I am a great King," the LORD of hosts has said, "and My name is to be feared among the nations."

2

A complaint that the priests are not teaching God's Word correctly

<sup>1</sup> "Now therefore, priests, this Commandment is for you. <sup>2</sup> If you do not listen and, if you do not take it to heart to give honour to My name," the LORD of hosts has said, "then I shall send a curse among you and curse your blessings. Indeed, I have already been cursing them, because you are not taking this to heart.

<sup>3</sup> Look! I am going to rebuke your offspring and shall spread dung on your faces, the dung from your feasts.

Someone will carry you away to it. <sup>4</sup> Then you will know that I have sent you this Commandment, that My Covenant with Levi may continue," the LORD of hosts has said. <sup>5</sup> "My Covenant with him was one of life and peace. I gave them to him that he might respect them.

He feared Me and stood in awe before My name. <sup>6</sup> True Instruction was in his mouth, and nothing unjust was found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and uprightness and turned many people away from sin."

<sup>7</sup> For a priest's lips preserve knowledge. People try to receive instruction from his mouth! For he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. <sup>8</sup> However, you have departed from the way. You have caused many to stumble by your instruction. You have corrupted the Covenant with Levi," the LORD of hosts has said.

<sup>9</sup> "I Myself have also made you contemptible and of low standing in front of all the people, because you have not been observing My Ways but have been showing favouritism in your instruction."

A complaint about the breaking of marriage vows by the people

<sup>10</sup> Do we not all have one Father? Has not one God created us? Why do we act unfaithfully towards each other, so as to profane the covenant of our fathers?

<sup>11</sup> Judah has been unfaithful. A disgusting thing has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem. For Judah has profaned the Holy Place of the LORD, which He loves, and has married a woman who worships a foreign god. <sup>12</sup> May the LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob the man who does this, whether the man is one who provides protection or who is a partner in conversation, even though he presents an offering to the LORD of hosts!

from you with pleasure any longer.

<sup>14</sup> However, you ask, “Why does He not?”

Because the LORD has been a witness between you and the wife you have had since you were young. You have been unfaithful to her, although she is your marriage-partner and your wife by a solemn agreement.

<sup>15</sup> Did He not make them a unity, with a portion of the Spirit in it? What was the one God trying to find? Godly descendants. Therefore, you shall guard yourselves in your minds, and none of you should be unfaithful to the wife that you had when you were young!

<sup>16</sup> “For I hate divorce,” the LORD, the God of Israel, has said. “Yes, he is one who has covered his garment with injustice,” the LORD of hosts has said.

Therefore, you shall guard yourselves in your spirit! You shall not be unfaithful!

<sup>17</sup> You have been wearying the LORD with your words.

However, you ask, “How have we been wearying Him?”

By saying: “The LORD regards everyone who does evil as good and delights in them,” or by asking, “Where is the God of justice?”

A prophecy about the coming of the messenger of the Covenant, who will prepare His way.

<sup>1</sup> “Look! I am sending My messenger, and he will make the way clear ahead of Me. Then the Lord, for whom you are looking, will suddenly come to His Temple, yes, the Messenger of the covenant, whom you desire. Look! He is coming,” the LORD of hosts has said.

<sup>2</sup> However, who will endure the day of His coming? Who can stand on the day when He appears? For He will be like a refiner’s fire and like launderers’ soap.

<sup>3</sup> He will sit down like a refiner and a purifier of silver, purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver. Then they will present an offering to the LORD in righteousness. <sup>4</sup> Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the LORD as in the days of long ago, as in former years.

<sup>5</sup> “Then I shall come near to you to judge you. I shall be quick to testify against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against those who swear to a lie, against those who defraud hired men of their wages, against those who exploit widows and orphans, against those who take away the rights of resident-foreigners and do not fear Me,” the LORD of hosts has said. <sup>6</sup> “For I, the LORD, have not changed. That is why you, O children of Jacob, have not come to an end. <sup>7</sup> Since the times of your fathers you have been turning away from My Prescriptions and have not been keeping them. Return to Me, and I shall return to you!” the LORD of hosts has said.

A warning not to rob God

“However, you ask, ‘How shall we return?’

<sup>8</sup> “Will a human being rob God? Yet you are robbing

Me.

“However, you ask, ‘How have we been robbing You?’

“In your tithes and contributions. <sup>9</sup> You have been placed under a curse. You, the whole nation of you, are robbing Me. <sup>10</sup> Bring the full tithes into the treasury, that there may be food in My house! Please test Me in this way!” the LORD of hosts has said, “whether I shall not open the windows of heaven for you and pour down a blessing for you until there is more than enough.

<sup>11</sup> Then I shall rebuke the devouring locusts for you, that they may not destroy what your soil produces. Then your vines in the fields will not fail to bear,” the LORD of hosts has said. <sup>12</sup> “Then all the nations will call you blessed. For you will be a delightful country,” the LORD of hosts has said.

<sup>13</sup> “You have been using harsh words against Me,” the LORD has said.

“However, you ask, ‘How have we been speaking against You to one another?’

<sup>14</sup> “You have been saying, ‘It is useless to serve God. What gain has there been from keeping His Requirements and from walking about with a mournful expression before the LORD of hosts? <sup>15</sup> Now therefore, we call insolent people blessed. Even those who act wickedly prosper.’”

They have even been putting God to the test and have been escaping.

The writing of a book of remembrance

<sup>16</sup> Then those who used to fear the LORD spoke to one another. The LORD paid attention and listened. A book of remembrance was written in His presence of those who feared the LORD and respected His name.

<sup>17</sup> “They will be Mine,” the LORD of hosts has said, “in the day when I make up My personal property. I shall have compassion on them as a man has compassion on his own son, who serves him.”

<sup>18</sup> Then you will again see the difference between a righteous person and a wicked person, between one who serves God and one who does not serve Him.

A prediction that the day of the Lord will bring judgment

<sup>1</sup> “For the day is certainly coming and will burn like a furnace. All the arrogant people and all the evildoers will be stubble. The day that is coming will burn them up,” the LORD of hosts has said. “It will not leave them either a root or a branch. <sup>2</sup> Nevertheless, the Sun of Righteousness will rise with healing in His wings for you who fear My name. You will go out and frisk about like bull-calves from the stall.

<sup>3</sup> “Then you will crush wicked people underfoot. For, on the day that I am preparing, they will be ashes under the soles of your feet,” the LORD of hosts has said.

An admonition to remember the Law of Moses and to expect the coming of the prophet Elijah

<sup>4</sup> “Remember the Law of My servant Moses, the Prescriptions and the Decisions that I commanded him at Horeb for all Israel! <sup>5</sup> Look! I am sending you the prophet Elijah before the great and dreadful day of the LORD comes. <sup>6</sup> He will turn the hearts of fathers to their children and the hearts of children to their fathers. Otherwise, I shall come and strike the land with a ban of destruction.”

Malachi

MATTHEW

1

Jesus' family-line and infancy (1:1-2:23)

Jesus' family-line — Luke 3:24-38

<sup>3</sup> Judah was the father of Perez and Zerach, whose mother was Tamar.

Perez was the father of Hezron, Hezron was the father of Ram,

<sup>4</sup> Ram was the father of Aminadab, Aminadab was the father of Nahshon, Nahshon was the father of Salmon,

Boaz was the father of Obed, whose mother was Ruth. Obed was the father of Jesse,

David was the father of Solomon, whose mother had been Uriah's wife.

<sup>7</sup> Solomon was the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam was the father of Abijah, Abijah was the father of Asa,

<sup>8</sup> Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat was the father of Joram,

Joram was the father of Uzziah,

<sup>9</sup> Uzziah was the father of Jotham,

Jotham was the father of Ahaz,

Ahaz was the father of Hezekiah,

<sup>10</sup> Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh,

Manasseh was the father of Amon,

Amon was the father of Josiah,

<sup>11</sup> Josiah was the father of Jechoniah and his brothers at the time of the Exile to Babylon.

Shealtiel was the father of Zerub-Babel,

<sup>13</sup> Zerub-Babel was the father of Abiud,

Abiud was the father of Eliakim,

Eliakim was the father of Azor,

<sup>14</sup> Azor was the father of Zadok,

Zadok was the father of Achim,

Achim was the father of Eliud,

<sup>15</sup> Eliud was the father of Eleazar,

Eleazar was the father of Matthan,

Matthan was the father of Jacob,

<sup>16</sup> Jacob was the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary.

She was the mother of Jesus, who is called "Christ."

<sup>17</sup> So, there were in all fourteen generations from Abraham to David, fourteen generations from David to the Babylonian Exile and fourteen generations from the Exile in Babylon to the Christ.

The announcement to Joseph of Jesus' birth

<sup>18</sup> This is how Jesus Christ was born. His mother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph. However, before they came together, she was found to be with child by the Holy Spirit. <sup>19</sup> Joseph, her husband, was an honourable man and, because he did not want to disgrace her, he intended to divorce her secretly. <sup>20</sup> After Joseph had thought about it, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take your wife Mary home with you! For what has been conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup> She will give birth to a son, and you shall name Him 'Jesus'! For He will save His people from their sins."

<sup>22</sup> All this happened to fulfil what the Lord had said through the prophet: <sup>23</sup> "Look! The virgin will become pregnant and have a son, and they will name Him 'Immanuel'" (which is translated, "God-With-Us").

The visit of the Magi

<sup>1</sup> After Jesus had been born at Bethlehem in Judea during the time of King Herod, Wise Men arrived from the East at Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> They asked, "Where is He who has been born King of the Jews? For we have seen His star in the East and have come to worship Him."

<sup>3</sup> When King Herod heard this, he was alarmed, and all Jerusalem with him. <sup>4</sup> He called together all the Chief Priests and scribes of the people and tried to find out from them where the Christ would be born.

<sup>5</sup> They told him, "At Bethlehem in Judea. For this is what Scripture has said through the prophet: <sup>6</sup> 'You, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means the least among the leading towns of Judah. For from you will come a Ruler, who will shepherd My people Israel.'"

<sup>7</sup> Then Herod secretly called the Wise Men and found out from them the exact time when the star had appeared. <sup>8</sup> When he sent them to Bethlehem, he said, "Go and search carefully for the Child and, when you find Him, report to me, that I too may go and worship Him!"

<sup>9</sup> After they had heard the king, they went on their way. There was the star that they had seen in the East! It kept leading them on until it stopped over the place where the Child was. <sup>10</sup> They were extremely happy when they saw the star. <sup>11</sup> When they came into the house, they saw the Child with His mother Mary. They knelt and worshipped Him. Then they opened their treasures and presented gifts to Him, gold, frankincense and myrrh. <sup>12</sup> When God warned them in a dream not to go back to Herod, they went back to their country by another road.

The flight to Egypt and return

<sup>13</sup> After the Wise Men had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. He said, "Get up! Take the little Child and His mother and flee to Egypt! Stay there until I tell you! For Herod is going to search for the Child to kill Him." <sup>14</sup> Joseph got up, took the little Child and His mother by night and left for Egypt. <sup>15</sup> He stayed there until Herod died, so that what the Lord had said through the prophet might be fulfilled: "I have called My Son out of Egypt."

<sup>16</sup> When Herod saw that the Wise Men had tricked him, he became very angry. He sent some men, and they killed all the boys in Bethlehem and in all the districts around it who were two years old and under, according to the time that he had determined exactly from the Wise Men. <sup>17</sup> Then what had been said through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: <sup>18</sup> "A voice was heard in Rama, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children and she refused to be comforted, because they are no more."

<sup>19</sup> However, after Herod had died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, <sup>20</sup> and told him, "Get up! Take the little Child and His mother and go to the land of Israel! For those who were trying to kill the little Child are dead."

<sup>21</sup> Joseph got up, took the little Child and His mother and came into the land of Israel. <sup>22</sup> However, when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Because God warned him in a dream, he withdrew to the district of Galilee. <sup>23</sup> He went and made his home in a city called "Nazareth," that what had been said through the prophets might be fulfilled: "He will be called a Nazarene."

3

First section (3:1-7:29)

The beginning of the Galilean ministry (3:1-4:25)

The preaching of John the Baptist — Mark 1:1-8, Luke 3:1-18, John 1:19-28

<sup>4</sup> John himself used to wear clothes of camels' hair and had a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. <sup>5</sup> Then Jerusalem, all Judea and the whole region of the Jordan kept going out to him. <sup>6</sup> They were baptised by him in the Jordan River, as they confessed their sins. <sup>7</sup> When he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for baptism, he asked them: "You brood of poisonous snakes, who warned you to flee from the coming wrath?" <sup>8</sup> Therefore, produce fruit that is worthy of repentance! <sup>9</sup> Do not think that you can tell yourselves, 'Abraham is our father'! For I tell you that God can raise up children for Abraham from these stones. <sup>10</sup> The axe has already been laid at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that does not produce good fruit is being cut down and thrown into the fire. <sup>11</sup> I baptise you with water to bring about a change of heart. However, the One who is coming after me is mightier than I am. I am not worthy to carry His sandals. He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. <sup>12</sup> His winnowing shovel is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean up His threshing floor. He will gather His wheat into the barn but will burn the chaff with a fire that cannot be put out."

The baptism of Jesus — Mark 1:9-11, Luke 3:21-22, compare John 1:29-34

<sup>13</sup> Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptised by him. <sup>14</sup> However, John tried to prevent Him. He said, "I need to be baptised by You, and are You coming to Me?"

<sup>15</sup> Jesus answered him, "Permit it to be so now! For that is how it is proper for us to fulfil all righteousness."

Then John allowed Him. <sup>16</sup> When Jesus had been baptised, He immediately came up from the water. At that moment the heavens were opened to Him, and He saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming on Him. <sup>17</sup> Suddenly a voice came from heaven saying, "This is My Son, whom I love and in whom I am well pleased."

The temptation of Jesus — Mark 1:12-13, Luke 4:1-13

<sup>1</sup> Then the Spirit led Jesus into the wilderness to be tempted by the Devil. <sup>2</sup> He did not eat anything for forty days and forty nights and at the end of that time He was hungry.

<sup>3</sup> The Tempter came to Him and said, "If You are the Son of God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread!"

<sup>4</sup> Jesus answered, "Scripture has said: 'A person does not live by bread alone but by every Word that comes out through the mouth of God.'"

<sup>5</sup> Then the Devil took Him into the Holy City and had Him stand on the ledge of the Temple. <sup>6</sup> He told Him, "If You are the Son of God, throw Yourself down! For Scripture has said: 'He will command His angels concerning you. They will carry you in their hands' that you may not strike your foot against a stone.”

<sup>7</sup> Jesus answered him, “Again, Scripture has said, ‘You shall not put the Lord, your God, to the test!’”

<sup>8</sup> Again, the Devil took Him to a very high mountain and showed Him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory. <sup>9</sup> The Devil told Him, “I shall give You all this if You fall and worship me.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus answered him: “Go away, Satan! For Scripture has said: ‘You shall worship the Lord, your God and shall serve Him alone!’”

Jesus’ stay at Capernaum and the first preaching in Galilee — Mark 1:14-15, Luke 4:14-15

<sup>12</sup> After Jesus had heard that John had been taken into custody, He withdrew to Galilee. <sup>13</sup> He left Nazareth and went and lived in Capernaum, which was by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, <sup>14</sup> that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled: <sup>15</sup> “Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, by the way of the sea, on one side of the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles. <sup>16</sup> The people who used to dwell in darkness have seen a great Light, and a Light has dawned for those who used to dwell in the land and shadow of death.”

Jesus’ call of His first disciples — Mark 1:14-20, and compare Luke 5:1-11, John 1:35-51

<sup>18</sup> While He was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, Simon, who was called “Peter,” and his brother Andrew throwing a casting-net into the sea. For they were fishermen. <sup>19</sup> Jesus told them, “Come! Follow Me! I shall make you fishers of men.”

Jesus’ first preaching-journey in Galilee Mark 1:35-39, Luke 4:42-44

<sup>23</sup> Jesus began to go around everywhere in Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the Good News of the kingdom and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. <sup>24</sup> The news about Him spread all over Syria, and people brought to Him all who were ill with various diseases, those who were suffering severe pain, demon-possessed people, epileptics and paralysed people, and He healed them.

The sermon on the mount (5:1-7:29)

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus saw the crowds, He went up on the mountainside. When He sat down, His disciples came to Him. <sup>2</sup> Then He began to speak and continued to teach them:

The beatitudes — Luke 6:20-23

<sup>3</sup> “Blessed are those who are poor in spirit! For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>6</sup> “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness! For they will be filled.

<sup>7</sup> “Blessed are those who are merciful! For they will be treated mercifully.

<sup>8</sup> “Blessed are those who are pure in heart! For they will see God.

<sup>9</sup> “Blessed are those who make peace! For they will be called ‘the children of God.’

<sup>10</sup> “Blessed are those who have been persecuted because of righteousness! For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>11</sup> “Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you, because of Me! <sup>12</sup> Rejoice and be very glad! For your reward in heaven is great. For in this way people persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Salt and light— compare with— Mark 4:21-23, Luke 11:33

<sup>13</sup> “You are the salt of the earth. However, if salt loses its saltiness, with what will it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled on by people. <sup>14</sup> You are the light of the world. A city that has been set on a hill cannot be hidden. <sup>15</sup> People also do not light a lamp and put it under a container but on the lamp-stand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. <sup>16</sup> Let your light so shine before other people, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father who is in heaven!

Jesus’ fulfilment of the Old Testament Scriptures

<sup>17</sup> “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets! I have not come to abolish them but to fulfil them. <sup>18</sup> For truly, I tell you, until the heaven and the earth pass away, one jot or one serif will certainly not pass away from the Law until everything is accomplished. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, anyone who breaks one of the least of these Commandments and teaches other people in this way will be called the least in the kingdom of heaven. However, anyone who practises and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. <sup>20</sup> For I tell you, unless your righteousness is much better than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.

Jesus’ teaching about murder — Luke 12:57-59

<sup>21</sup> “You have heard that it was said to the people long ago: ‘You shall not murder, and whoever murders will be subject to the judgment.’ <sup>22</sup> However, I tell you that anyone who is angry with his brother will be subject to the judgment. Anyone who says to his brother, ‘You numbskull!’ will be subject to the Sanhedrin. However, anyone who says, ‘You fool!’ will be subject to hellfire.

Jesus' teaching about the need to be reconciled with an adversary — Luke 12:58-59

23 “Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your gift there in front of the altar! First go away and be reconciled with your brother and then come and offer your gift! 25 Agree quickly with the one who wants to sue you, while you are still with him on the road, lest your accuser should hand you over to the judge, and the judge should hand you over to the officer, and you should be thrown into prison! 26 Truly, I tell you, you will certainly not get out of there until you have paid the last cent.

Jesus' teaching about adultery — Mark 9:43-48

27 “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery!’ 28 However, I tell you that everyone who looks at a woman to desire her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 If your right eye causes you to stumble, take it out and throw it away from you! It is better for you that one of your members should be lost than that your whole body should be thrown into hell. 30 If your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away from you! It is better for you that one of your members should be lost than that your whole body should go into hell.

Jesus' teaching about divorce — Matthew 19:9, Mark 10:11-12, Luke 16:18

31 “It was said: ‘Whoever divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce!’ 32 However, I tell you that everyone who divorces his wife for any reason except sexual unfaithfulness causes her to be an adulteress, and whoever marries a woman so divorced commits adultery.

Jesus' teaching about swearing

33 “Again, you have heard that it was said to the people long ago: ‘You shall not swear falsely but shall perform your oaths to the Lord!’ 34 However, I tell you not to swear at all, not by heaven, for it is God's throne, 35 and not by the earth, for it is His footstool, and not by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King. 36 Do not swear by your head either! For you cannot make one hair white or black. 37 Rather, let your language be, ‘Yes, yes,’ ‘No, no!’ Anything more than these comes from the Evil One.

Jesus' teaching about retaliation

38 “You have heard that it was said: ‘An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.’ 39 However, I tell you, do not resist an evil person! Rather, if anyone slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other one to him also! 40 If someone wants to sue you and take your shirt, let him have your coat as well! 41 If anyone forces you to go two kilometres, go four kilometres with him! 42 Give to the person who asks you for something and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you!

Jesus' teaching about love of enemies — Luke 6:27-36

43 “You have heard that it was said: ‘You shall love your neighbour and hate your enemy!’ 44 However, I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who are persecuting you, 45 that you may be the children of your Father in heaven! For He makes His sun rise on evil people and on good people and sends rain on righteous people and unrighteous people. 46 For, if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax-collectors do the same? 47 If you greet only your brothers, what are you doing more than others are? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? 48 Therefore, you shall be perfect, as your Father in heaven is perfect!

Jesus' teaching about giving to the poor

1 “Be careful not to perform your righteous deeds before other people, to be seen by them! If you do, you have no reward from your Father in heaven. 2 Therefore, when you give to the poor, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be praised by other people! Truly, I tell you, they have their reward in full.

3 “When you give to the poor, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, 4 that your giving may be in secret! Your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

Jesus' teaching about prayer

5 “When you pray, do not be like the hypocrites! For they love to stand praying in synagogues and on the street corners, to be seen by other people. Truly, I tell you, they have their reward in full. 6 However, when you pray, go into your room, shut your door and pray to your Father, who is in secret! Your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.

7 “When you pray, do not babble like the Gentiles! For they think that they will be heard if they talk on and on. 8 Do not be like them! For your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

Jesus' teaching of Lord's Prayer — Luke 11:2-4

9 “This is how you should pray:

‘Our Father in heaven,

‘May Your name be kept holy!

10 ‘May Your kingdom come!

‘May Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven!

11 ‘Give us today our daily bread!

12 ‘Forgive us our sins, as we have forgiven those who sin against us!

13 ‘Do not lead us into temptation,
‘But deliver us from evil!’

14 “For, if you forgive the sins of others, your Father in heaven will forgive you also. 15 However, if you do not forgive the sins of others, your Father will not forgive your sins.

Jesus' teaching about fasting

16 “When you fast, stop looking sombre, like the hypocrites! For they neglect their appearance, that they may appear to people to be fasting. Truly, I tell you, they have their reward in full. 17 However, when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, 18 that you may not appear to other people to be fasting, except to your Father, who is in secret! Your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.

Jesus' teaching about treasures — Luke 12:33-34

19 “Stop storing up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal! 20 Rather, keep storing up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal! 21 For your heart will also be where your treasure is.

Jesus' teaching about the sound eye — Luke 11:34-36

22 “The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, if your eye is sound, your whole body will be full of light. 23 However, if your eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. Therefore, if the light that is in you is darkness, how great that darkness is!

Jesus' teaching about serving two masters — Luke 16:13

24 “No one can serve two masters. For either he will hate the one and love the other or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

Jesus' teaching about worry — Luke 12:22-34

25 “Therefore, I tell you, stop worrying about your lives, what you are to eat or what you are to drink or about your bodies, what you are to put on! Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothing? 26 Look at the birds of the sky! They do not sow, reap or gather into barns, but your Father in heaven keeps feeding them. Are you not worth more than they are? 27 Which of you can, by worrying, add a single hour to his length of life? 28 Why, then, do you worry about clothing? Observe how the lilies of the field grow! They do not toil or spin. 29 Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendour was clothed like one of these. 30 If God in this way clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and is thrown into an oven tomorrow, will He not much more clothe you, O you of little faith? 31 Therefore, do not begin to worry, saying, ‘What are we to eat?’ or ‘What are we to drink?’ or ‘What are we to wear?’ 32 For the Gentiles try to get all these things. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. 33 Rather, first be eager to have the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will also be given to you. 34 Therefore, do not begin to worry about tomorrow! For tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Jesus' teaching about judging — Mark 4:24, Luke 6:37-42

1 “Stop judging, that you may not be judged! 2 For you will be judged with the judgment with which you judge, and it will be measured to you by the measure by which you measure. 3 Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye and do not notice the plank in your own eye? 4 Or how will you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when, look! There is a plank in your own eye? 5 You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye!

Jesus' teaching about throwing pearls to pigs

6 “Do not give what is holy to dogs or throw your pearls before pigs, that they may not trample them with their feet and turn and tear you to pieces!

Jesus' teaching about God's answer to prayer — Luke 11:5-13

7 “Ask, and it will be given to you! Search, and you will find! Knock, and it will be opened to you! 8 For everyone who asks receives, and he who searches finds, and to him who knocks it will be opened. 9 Or what man is there among you whose son asks him for bread? Surely he will not give him a stone? 10 Or if he also asks for a fish — surely he will not give him a snake? 11 Therefore, if, although you are wicked, you know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask Him?

The golden rule — Luke 6:31

12 “Therefore, do to others everything that you want people to do to you! For this is the Law and the Prophets.

The narrow gate — Luke 13:23-24

13 “Enter through the narrow gate! For the gate is wide, and the road is broad that leads to destruction, and there are many who are going in through it. 14 For the gate is narrow, and the road is confined that leads to life, and there are few who are finding it.

False prophets and the test of what is good — Luke 6:43-46, Matthew 12:33-35, Luke 6:43-45

15 “Beware of false prophets! They come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are ferocious wolves. 16 You will know them by their fruits. People do not pick grapes from thorn-bushes or figs from thistles, do they? 17 In the same way, every good tree bears good fruit, and a bad tree bears bad fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. 19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. 20 Therefore, you will know them by their fruits.

Jesus' warning against self-deception — Luke 13:26-27

21 “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Lord, Lord!’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but he who does the will of My Father, who is in heaven. 22 Many will ask Me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in Your name, in Your name driven out demons, and in Your name performed many miracles?’ 23 Then I shall tell them frankly, ‘I never knew you. Depart from Me, you who do what is evil!’

Jesus' teaching about hearing the Word and practising it — Luke 6:47-49

24 “Therefore, everyone who hears these Words of Mine and practises them is like a sensible man who built his house on the rock. 25 The rain came down, the floods came, the winds blew, and they beat against that house. However, it did not fall, because its foundation was on the rock. 26 Everyone who hears these Words of Mine but does not practise them is like a foolish man who built his house on the sand. <sup>27</sup> The rain came down, the floods came, the winds blew, and they struck that house. It fell, and its fall was great.”

The end of the sermon on the mount

<sup>28</sup> When Jesus finished speaking these Words, the crowds were amazed at His teaching. <sup>29</sup> For He used to teach them as one who had authority and not like their scribes.

8

Second section (8:1-11:1)

Ten powerful miracles in Galilee (8:1-9:35)

Jesus' healing of a leper — Mark 1:40-44, Luke 5:12-16

<sup>1</sup> After Jesus had come down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him. <sup>2</sup> There was a leper who went to Him and bowed down before Him. He said, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean.”

<sup>3</sup> Jesus stretched out His hand and touched him. He said, “I am willing. Be made clean!”

Immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

<sup>4</sup> Jesus told him, “Be careful that you do not tell anyone; but go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them!”

Jesus' healing of a centurion's servant — Luke 7:1-10

<sup>8</sup> The captain answered, “Lord, I do not deserve that You should come in under my roof. Instead, just say a word, and my slave will be healed! <sup>9</sup> For I myself am also a man under authority and I have soldiers under me. I tell this man, ‘Go!’ and he goes, and another man, ‘Come!’ and he comes, and my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

<sup>10</sup> When Jesus heard this, He was astonished and told the people who were following Him, “Truly, I tell you, I have not found anyone in Israel with such great faith! <sup>11</sup> I also tell you that many will come from the east and the west and will recline at table with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven.

<sup>12</sup> However, those who have been heirs of the kingdom will be thrown out into the darkness outside, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

<sup>13</sup> Jesus told the centurion, “Go! Let it be done to you as you have believed!”

His slave was healed in that same hour.

Jesus' healing of Peter's wife's mother — Mark 1:29-31, Luke 4:38-39

<sup>14</sup> Jesus went into Peter's home and saw Peter's mother-in-law lying down with a fever. <sup>15</sup> He touched her hand, and the fever left her. She got up and began to wait on Him.

Jesus' healing of sick people one evening — Mark 1:32-34, Luke 4:40-41

<sup>16</sup> When evening came, people brought to Him many who were possessed by demons. He cast out the spirits with a word and healed all those who were sick,

<sup>17</sup> that what had been said through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: “He Himself took away our infirmities and carried our diseases.”

Jesus' response to two claimants to discipleship — Luke 9:57-60

<sup>18</sup> When Jesus saw a crowd around Him, He gave a command to depart to the other side. <sup>19</sup> A scribe came up to Him and told Him, “Teacher, I shall follow You wherever You go.”

<sup>20</sup> Jesus told him, “Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man does not have anywhere to lay His head.”

<sup>21</sup> Another of His disciples said to Him, “Lord, first permit me to go and bury my father!”

<sup>22</sup> However, Jesus told him, “Follow Me, and let the dead bury their own dead!”

Jesus' stilling of a storm — Mark 4:35-41, Luke 8:22-25

<sup>23</sup> Then He got into the boat, and His disciples followed Him. <sup>24</sup> Suddenly a severe storm came on the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves. However, Jesus was sleeping. <sup>25</sup> They went to Him, woke Him up and said, “Lord, save us! We are drowning.”

Then He got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was a great calm. <sup>27</sup> The men were amazed and asked, “What kind of Man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?”

Jesus' healing of two Gadarene demoniacs — Mark 5:1-20, Luke 8:26-39

<sup>28</sup> When Jesus had gone to the region of the Gadarenes on the other side, two men who were possessed by demons came out of the tombs and met Him. They were extremely violent, so that no one could go past on that road. <sup>29</sup> Suddenly they shouted, “What do You want with us, Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?”

They came out and went into the pigs. Then suddenly the whole herd rushed down the cliff into the sea and died in the water. <sup>33</sup> Those who had been looking after them ran away and went into the city, where they reported everything, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men. <sup>34</sup> Then the whole city came out to meet Jesus. When they saw Him, they begged Him to leave their district.

Jesus' healing of a paralysed man — Mark 2:1-12, Luke 5:17-26

<sup>1</sup> Jesus got into a boat, crossed over and came to His own city. <sup>2</sup> There people were bringing to Him a paralysed man, who had been put on a stretcher. When Jesus saw their faith, He told the paralysed man, “Son, have courage! Your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>4</sup> Jesus perceived what they were thinking and asked them, “Why are you thinking evil in your hearts?”

you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk!?' <sup>6</sup> I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins."

Then He told the paralysed man, "Get up, take up your stretcher and go to your house!"

<sup>7</sup> He got up and went away to his house. <sup>8</sup> When the crowds saw this, they were afraid and glorified God, who had given such authority to human beings.

Jesus' call of Matthew (Levi) — Mark 2:13-17, Luke 5:27-32

<sup>9</sup> When Jesus went on from there, He saw a man named Matthew sitting in the tax-collector's booth. He told him, "Follow Me!"

Matthew got up and followed Him.

<sup>10</sup> As Jesus was reclining at the table in Matthew's house, many tax-collectors and other disreputable people came and reclined at the table with Jesus and His disciples. <sup>11</sup> When the Pharisees saw this, they asked His disciples, "Why does your Teacher eat with tax-collectors and sinners?"

<sup>12</sup> When Jesus heard that, He said: "It is not those who are healthy who need a doctor but those who are sick. <sup>13</sup> Rather, go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice'! For I have not come to call righteous people but sinners."

Jesus' response to a question about fasting — Mark 2:18-22, Luke 5:33-39

<sup>14</sup> Then John's disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your disciples not fast?"

<sup>15</sup> Jesus asked them, "Surely the guests of the bridegroom cannot mourn while the bridegroom is with them? The days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast. <sup>16</sup> No one puts a patch made of a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment. For the patch shrinks away from the garment, and the tear is made worse. <sup>17</sup> Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wineskins burst, the wine is spilt and the wineskins are ruined. Rather, people put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

Jesus' healing of a woman who was continuously bleeding and His raising of the daughter of Jairus — Mark 5:21-43, Luke 8:40-56

<sup>18</sup> While He was saying these things to them, an official came and bowed down before Him. He said, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay Your hand on her! Then she will live."

<sup>19</sup> Jesus got up and followed him, and so did His disciples.

<sup>20</sup> Just then a woman who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years approached from behind Him and touched the hem of His cloak. <sup>21</sup> For she had been saying to herself, "If I only touch His cloak, I shall be made well."

<sup>22</sup> Jesus turned around and, when He saw her, He said, "Take courage, daughter! Your faith has saved you."

The woman was made well from that hour.

<sup>23</sup> When Jesus came to the official's home and saw the flute players and the disorderly crowd, <sup>24</sup> He said, "Move away! The little girl has not died but is sleeping."

However, they ridiculed Him. <sup>25</sup> When the crowd had been put outside, Jesus went in and took hold of her hand, and the little girl was raised. <sup>26</sup> The news about this spread over that entire region.

Jesus' healing of two blind men — compare Mark 10:46-52, Luke 18:35-43

<sup>27</sup> While Jesus was going away from there, two blind men followed Him, shouting, "Have mercy on us, Son of David!"

<sup>28</sup> When He had entered the house, the blind men came to Him, and Jesus asked them, "Do you believe that I can do this?"

They told Him, "Yes, Lord."

<sup>29</sup> Then He touched their eyes and said, "According to your faith, so let it be done to you!"

<sup>30</sup> Their eyes were opened, and Jesus sternly warned them, "See that no one finds out about this!"

<sup>31</sup> However, they went out and spread the news about Him all over that region.

Jesus' healing of a demon-possessed man who could not talk — Mark 3:22, Luke 11:14-15

<sup>32</sup> While they were going out, people brought to Jesus a man who could not talk and was demon-possessed.

<sup>33</sup> However, when the demon had been cast out, the man who had been unable to talk began to speak. The crowds were amazed and said, "Never has anything like this been seen in Israel."

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus travelled through all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the Good News of the kingdom and healing every disease and every sickness.

Jesus' instructions to His disciples for their preaching in Galilee (9:36-11:1)

<sup>36</sup> When He saw the crowds, He felt sorry for them, because they were troubled and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. <sup>37</sup> Then He told His disciples, "The harvest is great, but the workers are few.

<sup>38</sup> Therefore, pray the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest!"

10

Jesus' choice of twelve apostles — Mark 3:13-19, Luke 6:13-16

<sup>1</sup> Jesus called His twelve disciples to Him and gave them authority to drive out unclean spirits and to heal every disease and every sickness.

<sup>2</sup> These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew;

Jesus' sending out of the twelve — Mark 6:7-13, Luke 9:1-6

sheep of the house of Israel! <sup>7</sup> As you go, preach: ‘The kingdom of heaven is near!’ <sup>8</sup> Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers and drive out demons! You have received freely: give freely! <sup>9</sup> Do not get any gold, silver or copper money to put into your money-belts!

<sup>10</sup> Do not take a bag for the road or two tunics or sandals or a staff! For a worker is worth his food.

<sup>11</sup> Whenever you go into any city or village, inquire who is worthy in it and stay there until you leave!

<sup>12</sup> When you go into the home, greet it! <sup>13</sup> If the home is deserving, let your peace come on it! However, if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you!

<sup>14</sup> If anyone does not welcome you or listen to your words, go outside of that house or that city and shake off the dust from your feet! <sup>15</sup> Truly, I tell you, it will be more bearable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the Day of Judgment than for that city. <sup>16</sup> You see, I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore, be as shrewd as snakes and as innocent as doves!

The lot that disciples face — compare Mark 13:9-13, Luke 12:11-12

<sup>17</sup> “Nevertheless, be on your guard against men! For they will hand you over to councils and will flog you in their synagogues. <sup>18</sup> You will be brought before governors and kings because of Me, to testify to them and to the Gentiles. <sup>19</sup> However, when they hand you over, do not worry how you are to speak or what you are to say! For it will be given to you in that hour what you are to say. <sup>20</sup> For you are not the ones who are speaking, but the Spirit of your Father, who is speaking in you. <sup>21</sup> One brother will betray another to death, and a father his child. Children will rebel against their parents and cause them to be put to death. <sup>22</sup> You will also be hated by all people because of My name. Nevertheless, he who endures to the end will be saved. <sup>23</sup> When people persecute you in this city, flee to another! Truly, I tell you, you will certainly not finish the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes. <sup>24</sup> A disciple is not above his teacher or a slave above his master. <sup>25</sup> It is enough for the student to be like his teacher and for a slave to be like his master. If people have been calling the master of the house ‘Beelzebul,’ how much more the members of his household!

An exhortation to the disciples to confess fearlessly — Luke 12:2-9

<sup>26</sup> “Therefore, do not be afraid of them! For there is nothing covered that will not be uncovered, and nothing hidden that will not be known. <sup>27</sup> Speak in the light what I tell you in the dark and proclaim on the housetops what you hear in your ears! <sup>28</sup> Stop being afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul! Rather, be afraid of Him who can destroy both soul and body in hell! <sup>29</sup> Are not two sparrows sold for a cent? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father. <sup>30</sup> As for you, even the hairs on your head have all been numbered. <sup>31</sup> Therefore, stop being afraid! You are worth more than many sparrows. <sup>32</sup> I shall confess before My Father in heaven whoever confesses Me before others. <sup>33</sup> I shall also deny before My Father in heaven whoever denies Me before others.

A prediction of division in households — Luke 12:51-53

<sup>34</sup> “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth! I have not come to bring peace but a sword.

<sup>35</sup> For I have come to turn a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. <sup>36</sup> A person’s enemies will be those in his own home.

The conditions of discipleship — Luke 14:26-27

<sup>37</sup> “Anyone who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me, and anyone who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. <sup>38</sup> The person who does not take his cross and follow Me is not worthy of Me. <sup>39</sup> The one who has found his life will lose it, but the one who has lost his life for My sake will find it.

The end of the discourse to the twelve

<sup>40</sup> “He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who has sent Me. <sup>41</sup> He who receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward. He who receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man’s reward. <sup>42</sup> Whoever gives one of these little ones only a cup of cold water because he is a disciple, truly, I tell you, will certainly not lose his reward.”

11

<sup>1</sup> After Jesus had finished giving His twelve disciples these Instructions, He went on from there to teach and preach in their cities.

Third section (11:2-13:53)

The question of John the Baptist — Luke 7:18-35

<sup>2</sup> When John had heard in prison about what the Christ was doing, he sent a message through his disciples, <sup>3</sup> to ask Him, “Are You the One who is coming or are we to expect someone else?”

Jesus’ testimony about John the Baptist — Luke 7:24-35

<sup>7</sup> When John’s disciples were leaving, Jesus began to talk to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed driven back and forth by the wind? <sup>8</sup> What did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft robes? Look! Those who wear soft robes are in kings’ palaces. <sup>9</sup> What did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, even someone greater than a prophet. <sup>10</sup> This is the one about whom Scripture has said: ‘Look! I am sending My messenger ahead of You, who will prepare Your way before You.’ <sup>11</sup> Truly, I tell you, no one among those born by women has appeared who is greater than John the Baptist. Yet he who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. <sup>12</sup> From the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven has been advancing with triumphant force, and violent men are laying hold of it. <sup>13</sup> For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John. <sup>14</sup> If you are willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who was to come. <sup>15</sup> Let the one who has ears hear!

<sup>16</sup> “To what shall I compare this generation? They are like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling out to others: <sup>17</sup> ‘We have played the flute for you, and yet you have not been dancing. We have sung a funeral song, and yet you have not been mourning.’ <sup>18</sup> For, when John came, he was neither eating nor drinking, and people used to say, ‘He has a demon.’ <sup>19</sup> When the Son of Man came, He was eating and drinking, and people are saying, ‘Look at the glutton and drunkard, a friend of tax-collectors and sinners!’ Yet wisdom is proved right by her actions.”

Jesus' woes on the cities of Galilee — Luke 10:13-15

<sup>20</sup> Then Jesus began to denounce the cities in which most of His miracles had been performed, because they had not repented: <sup>21</sup> “How terrible for you, Chorazin! How terrible for you, Bethsaida! For, if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>22</sup> However, I tell you: it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the Day of Judgment than for you. <sup>23</sup> As for you, Capernaum, you will not be lifted up to heaven, will you? You will go down to hell. For, if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. <sup>24</sup> However, I tell you that it will be more bearable for the land of Sodom on the Day of Judgment than for you.”

Jesus' thanksgiving to the Father — Luke 10:21-22

<sup>25</sup> At that time Jesus said, “I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from wise and intelligent people and have revealed them to infants. <sup>26</sup> Yes, Father, I praise You that this is how You have graciously wanted it to be. <sup>27</sup> All things have been committed to Me by My Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and the one to whom the Son wishes to reveal Him.

Jesus' offer of rest to the heavily-laden

<sup>28</sup> “Come to Me, all you who are working hard and carrying a heavy burden, and I shall give you rest! <sup>29</sup> Take My yoke on you and learn from Me! For I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>30</sup> For My yoke is easy, and My burden is light.”

12

The plucking of grain by Jesus' disciples on a Sabbath — Mark 2:23-28, Luke 6:1-5

the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick heads of grain and eat them. <sup>2</sup> When the Pharisees saw this, they told Him, “Look! Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on a Sabbath.”

<sup>3</sup> However, He asked them, “Have you not read what David did when he and his companions were hungry: <sup>4</sup> how he went into the house of God and ate the loaves that had been set out, which it was not lawful for him or for his companions to eat but only for the priests? <sup>5</sup> Or have you not read in the Law that on the Sabbath the priests in the Temple desecrate the Sabbath and yet are blameless? <sup>6</sup> However, I tell you that Something greater than the Temple is here. <sup>7</sup> If you had known what this means: ‘I desire mercy and not sacrifice,’ you would not have condemned people who are blameless. <sup>8</sup> For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

Jesus' healing of a man with a shrivelled hand — Mark 3:1-6, Luke 6:6-11

<sup>9</sup> He went on from there and entered their synagogue, <sup>10</sup> and a man with a shrivelled hand was there. They asked Jesus, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?” that they might accuse Him.

<sup>11</sup> Jesus asked them, “What man is there among you who has one sheep and, if it falls into a pit on a Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift it out? <sup>12</sup> Therefore, how much more valuable is a human being than a sheep? Therefore, it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath.”

<sup>13</sup> Then He told the man, “Stretch out your hand!” He stretched it out, and it was completely restored, as healthy as the other one. <sup>14</sup> However, the Pharisees went outside and plotted against Jesus, that they might kill Him. <sup>15</sup> Because Jesus knew about this, He withdrew from there.

Jesus' healing of many people — Mark 3:7-12, Luke 6:17-19

Many crowds followed Him, and He healed them all, <sup>16</sup> but warned them that they should not make Him known. <sup>17</sup> This was to fulfil what had been said through Isaiah the prophet: <sup>18</sup> “Here is My Servant, whom I have chosen, whom I love, and in whom My soul delights. I shall put My Spirit on Him, and He will announce justice to the nations. <sup>19</sup> He will not quarrel or shout, nor will anyone hear His voice in the streets. <sup>20</sup> He will not break a bruised reed or snuff out a smouldering wick, until He brings justice forth to victory, <sup>21</sup> and in His name the nations will hope.”

An accusation by the Pharisees and the controversy about Beelzebul — Mark 3:20-30, Luke 11:14-23

<sup>22</sup> Then a man who had a demon, was blind and could not speak was brought to Jesus. He healed him, so that the dumb man could speak and see. <sup>23</sup> All the crowds were amazed and were saying, “Can this Man possibly be the Son of David?”

kingdom that has been divided against itself is ruined. No city or family that has been divided against itself will stand. <sup>26</sup> If Satan is driving out Satan, he has been divided against himself. How, then, will his kingdom stand? <sup>27</sup> Moreover, if I am casting out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore, they themselves will be your judges. <sup>28</sup> However, if I am casting out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come on you. <sup>29</sup> Or how can anyone go into the strong man's house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? After that he will rob his house. <sup>30</sup> He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who is not gathering with Me is scattering. <sup>31</sup> Therefore, I tell you, human beings will be forgiven every sin and slander, but slandering the Spirit will not be forgiven. <sup>32</sup> Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven either in this age or in the age to come. <sup>33</sup> Either make the tree good and its fruit good or make the tree bad and its fruit bad! For a tree is known by its fruit. <sup>34</sup> You brood of vipers! How can you speak good things when you are evil? For the mouth speaks what runs over from the heart. <sup>35</sup> A good person brings good things out of his good treasure, and an evil person brings evil things out of his evil treasure. <sup>36</sup> I also tell you that people will give an account on the Day of Judgment for every careless word that they say. <sup>37</sup> For by your words you will be justified and by your words you will be condemned."

A warning against trying to see miraculous signs — Mark 8:11-12, Luke 11:29-32

<sup>38</sup> Then some scribes and Pharisees answered Him, "Teacher, we want to see a miraculous sign from You."

<sup>39</sup> He answered them, "A wicked and adulterous generation demands a miraculous sign, and a miraculous sign will not be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. <sup>40</sup> For, as Jonah was in the belly of the huge fish for three days and three nights, so the Son of Man will be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights. <sup>41</sup> The men of Nineveh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah, but, look! Something greater than Jonah is here. <sup>42</sup> The queen from the South will rise at the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon and look! Something greater than Solomon is here!

The return of the evil spirit — Luke 11:24-26

<sup>43</sup> "When an unclean spirit is cast out of a person, it goes through dry places, looking for a place to rest and does not find any. <sup>44</sup> Then it says, 'I shall return to my house, from which I have come out.' When it comes, it finds it unoccupied, swept and put in order. <sup>45</sup> Then it goes and takes with itself seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there.

Then the final condition of that person is worse than the first. That is how it will be with this wicked generation."

Jesus' declaration about His real brothers — Mark 3:31-35, Luke 8:19-21

<sup>46</sup> While He was still talking to the crowds, people noticed His mother and brothers standing outside, wanting to speak to Him. <sup>47</sup> Someone told Him, "Look! Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to You."

<sup>48</sup> Jesus asked the man who told Him, "Who is My mother, and who are My brothers?" <sup>49</sup> He stretched out His hand towards His disciples and said, "Here are My mother and My brothers! <sup>50</sup> For whoever does the will of My Father, who is in heaven, is My brother and sister and mother."

13

A collection of Jesus' Words: seven parables about the kingdom of God (13:1-53)

Jesus' parable about the sower — Mark 4:1-9, Luke 8:4-8

<sup>1</sup> That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat down beside the sea. <sup>2</sup> However, such large crowds gathered around Him that He got into a boat and sat in it, while the entire crowd was standing on the shore.

<sup>3</sup> Then He told them many things in parables. He said, "Look! A sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup> While he was sowing, some seeds fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured them. <sup>5</sup> Other seeds fell on the stony places, where they did not have much soil. Because their soil was not deep, the seeds came up quickly. <sup>6</sup> However, when the sun rose, they were scorched and, because they had no root, they withered. <sup>7</sup> Other seeds fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them. <sup>8</sup> However, other seeds fell on the good soil and produced grain, some a hundred, some sixty and some thirty times as much. <sup>9</sup> Let the one who has ears listen!"

<sup>10</sup> The disciples came to Him and asked Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

Jesus' reason for speaking in parables — Mark 4:10-12, Luke 8:9-10

<sup>11</sup> He answered, "It has been given to you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given. <sup>12</sup> For more will be given to the one who has, and he will be given plenty. However, if anyone does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. <sup>13</sup> This is why I speak to them in parables, because, although they see, they do not see and, although they hear, they do not hear or understand. <sup>14</sup> In them Isaiah's prophecy is being fulfilled: 'You will hear clearly but will certainly not understand; and you will see clearly but will certainly not see.

<sup>15</sup> For the hearts of this people have become dull, their ears have been hard of hearing, and they have shut their eyes, lest they should see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand in their hearts and turn, that I might heal them.'

Jesus' declaration about the blessedness of the disciples — Luke 10:23-24

<sup>16</sup> "Nevertheless, blessed are your eyes! For they see, and your ears! For they hear. <sup>17</sup> For truly, I tell you, many prophets and righteous people have longed to see the things that you are seeing and yet have not seen them and to hear the things that you are hearing and yet have not heard them.

The interpretation of the parable of the sower — Mark 4:13-20, Luke 8:11-15

<sup>18</sup> “Therefore, hear the parable of the sower! <sup>19</sup> When anyone hears the Word of the kingdom but does not understand it, the Evil One comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This one is he who has been sown along the path. <sup>20</sup> The one who has been sown on the stony places is the one who hears the Word and immediately receives it with joy, <sup>21</sup> but does not have root in himself. He lasts for only a short time and, when trouble or persecution comes because of the Word, he immediately falls away. <sup>22</sup> The person who has been sown among thorns is one who hears the Word, but the worry of the world and the seduction that comes from riches choke the Word, and it does not produce anything. <sup>23</sup> However, the person who has been sown on the good soil is the one who hears the Word and understands it, and so produces and yields, sometimes a hundred, sometimes sixty and sometimes thirty times as much.”

Jesus' parable about the weeds in the wheat

<sup>24</sup> He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. <sup>25</sup> However, while people were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat and went away. <sup>26</sup> When the wheat came up and formed grains, then the weeds also showed up. <sup>27</sup> The owner's slaves came to him and asked him, ‘Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where have the weeds come from?’

“The slaves asked him, ‘Do you want us to go and pull them out?’

<sup>29</sup> “He said, ‘No. If you pull out the weeds, you may pull up the wheat with them. <sup>30</sup> Let both grow together until the harvest! When the grain is cut, I shall tell the reapers, ‘Gather the weeds first and tie them in bundles to be burnt but bring the wheat into my barn!’”

Jesus' parable about the mustard seed — Mark 4:30-32, Luke 13:18-19

<sup>31</sup> He put another parable before them: “The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a man took and sowed in his field. <sup>32</sup> It is a very small seed among all the seeds, but, when it has grown, it is the largest of the garden plants. It becomes a tree, so that the birds of the sky come and nest in its branches.”

Jesus' parable about yeast — Luke 13:20-21

<sup>33</sup> He told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and put into three measures of flour until it was all leavened.”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus told all these things to the crowds in parables. He did not tell them anything without a parable, <sup>35</sup> that what had been said through the prophet might be fulfilled: “I shall open My mouth in parables. I shall utter things that have been hidden since the foundation of the world.”

Jesus' interpretation of the parable about the weeds in the wheat

<sup>36</sup> When Jesus had dismissed the crowds, He went into the house. His disciples came to Him and said, “Explain the parable of the weeds in the field to us!”

<sup>37</sup> He answered, “The one who sows the good seed is the Son of Man. <sup>38</sup> The field is the world. The good seeds are the people who belong to the kingdom. The weeds are the people who belong to the Evil One. <sup>39</sup> The enemy who sowed them is the Devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the angels. <sup>40</sup> Therefore, as the weeds are gathered and burnt with fire, it will be like that at the end of the age. <sup>41</sup> The Son of Man will send His angels, they will gather out of His kingdom all the things that cause sin and the people who continue to do evil, <sup>42</sup> and they will throw them into the fiery furnace. There people will weep and grind their teeth. <sup>43</sup> Then righteous people will shine forth like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let the one who has ears listen!

Jesus' parable about the hidden treasure

<sup>44</sup> “The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again and, because he was glad, he went and sold everything that he had and bought that field.

Jesus' parable about the valuable pearl

<sup>45</sup> “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dealer looking for fine pearls. <sup>46</sup> When he found one very expensive pearl, he went away, sold everything that he had and bought it.

Jesus' parable about the dragnet

<sup>47</sup> “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet that was thrown into the sea and gathered all kinds of fish. <sup>48</sup> When it was full, they pulled it up onto the shore, sat down and collected the good ones into containers but threw the bad ones away. <sup>49</sup> It will be like that at the end of the age. The angels will go out and separate wicked people from righteous people <sup>50</sup> and throw them into the fiery furnace. There they will weep and grind their teeth.

The end of the seven parables

<sup>51</sup> Have you understood all these things?”

They answered, “Yes.”

<sup>52</sup> He told them, “Therefore, every scribe who has been instructed for the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who brings new and old things out of his treasure.”

<sup>53</sup> When Jesus had finished these parables, He moved on from there.

Fourth section (13:54-18:35)

The rejection of Jesus at Nazareth — Mark 6:1-6, Luke 4:16-30

<sup>54</sup> He went to His hometown and began teaching the people in their synagogue, so that they were astonished and asked, “From where has He obtained this wisdom and these miracles? <sup>55</sup> Is He not the carpenter's son? Is His mother not called ‘Mary,’ and are not His brothers James, Joseph, Simon and Judas? <sup>56</sup> Are not all His sisters also here with us? From where, then, has this Man obtained all these things?"

<sup>58</sup> He did not perform many miracles there because of their unbelief.

14

Herod's opinion about Jesus — Mark 6:14-16, Luke 9:7-9

<sup>1</sup> At that time Herod the Tetrarch heard the news about Jesus. <sup>2</sup> He told his servants, "This is John the Baptist! He has risen from the dead, and that is why these miraculous powers are at work in Him."

The death of John the Baptist — Mark 6:17-29, Luke 9:7-9

<sup>9</sup> Although the king felt sorry, yet, because of his oaths and because of the guests at the table, he commanded that it should be granted. <sup>10</sup> He sent someone and had John beheaded in the prison. <sup>11</sup> His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she carried it to her mother. <sup>12</sup> John's disciples came, took his body away and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus.

Jesus' feeding of five thousand men — Mark 6:30-44, Luke 9:10-17, John 6:1-14

<sup>13</sup> When Jesus heard what had happened, He withdrew from there in a boat to a deserted place to be alone. The crowds heard about it and followed Him on foot from the cities. <sup>14</sup> When Jesus came out of the boat, He saw a large crowd. His heart was filled with pity for them, and He healed their sick. <sup>15</sup> In the evening His disciples came to Him and said, "This is a deserted place, and it is already late. Send the crowds away, that they may go into the villages to buy some food for themselves!"

<sup>18</sup> He said, "Bring them here to Me!"

<sup>19</sup> He ordered the people to sit down on the grass. He took the five loaves and the two fish, looked up to heaven, said a blessing and broke the loaves. He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. <sup>20</sup> All of them had enough to eat. They took up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve baskets full. <sup>21</sup> The number of men who had eaten was about five thousand, not counting the women and children.

Jesus' walking on the water — Mark 6:45-52, John 6:15-21

<sup>22</sup> Jesus immediately made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead of Him to the other side, while He dismissed the crowds. <sup>23</sup> After He had dismissed them, He went up on the mountain by Himself to pray. When evening came, He was there alone. <sup>24</sup> The boat was already a considerable distance from the shore and was being buffeted by the waves, because there was a headwind. <sup>25</sup> During the fourth watch of the night Jesus came towards them, walking on the sea.

<sup>26</sup> When the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were terrified. They said, "It is a ghost!" and cried out in fear.

<sup>27</sup> Immediately Jesus spoke to them. "Take courage! It is I. Stop being afraid!"

<sup>28</sup> Peter answered Him, "Lord, if it is You, order me to come to You on the water!"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said, "Come!"

When Peter had got down out of the boat, he began to walk on the water and went toward Jesus. <sup>30</sup> However, when he saw that the wind was strong, he was afraid, and, when he began to sink, he cried out, "Lord, save me!"

<sup>31</sup> Immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and caught him. He asked him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?"

<sup>32</sup> When they came into the boat, the wind died down.

<sup>33</sup> Those who were in the boat bowed down before Him and said, "Truly, You are the Son of God."

Jesus' healings at Gennesaret — Mark 6:53-56

15

Jesus' comments about the tradition of the elders — Mark 7:1-23

<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered them, "Why do you also transgress the Commandment of God because of your tradition?"

<sup>4</sup> For God has said: 'Honour your father and your mother!' and 'The person who speaks evil of father or mother must be put to death!' <sup>5</sup> However, you say, 'Whoever tells his father or mother, "Whatever help you might have received from me is a gift,"

<sup>6</sup> shall certainly not "honour his father!"' So, you have nullified the Word of God because of your tradition.

sied about you: <sup>8</sup> “This people honours Me with their lips, but their hearts are far away from Me.

<sup>9</sup> They are worshipping Me in vain, since they are teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”

<sup>10</sup> Then He called the crowd to Him and told them: “Listen and understand! <sup>11</sup> It is not what enters into a man’s mouth that defiles him, but it is what comes out of a man’s mouth that defiles him.”

<sup>12</sup> Then the disciples came to Him and asked Him, “Do You know that the Pharisees took offence when they heard this saying?”

<sup>13</sup> He answered, “Every plant that My Father in heaven has not planted will be pulled out by the roots.

<sup>14</sup> Let them go! They are blind leaders of the blind. If a blind man leads another blind man, both will fall into a pit.”

<sup>24</sup> He answered, “I have been sent only to the lost sheep of the family of Israel.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus answered her, “O woman, your faith is great! Let it be done for you as you wish!”

From that hour her daughter was made well.

Jesus’ healing of many sick people

<sup>29</sup> Jesus left from there and went along the Sea of Galilee. Then He went up on the hill-country and sat down there.

<sup>30</sup> Large crowds came to Him, bringing with them lame people, blind people, crippled people, those who could not talk and many others and laid them down at His feet, and He healed them. <sup>31</sup> As a result, the crowd marvelled when they saw those who could not talk speaking, crippled people being made sound, lame people walking and blind people seeing, and glorified the God of Israel.

Jesus’ feeding of the four thousand — Mark 8:1-9

<sup>32</sup> Jesus called His disciples to Him and said, “I have compassion for the crowd. For they have already been staying with Me for three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away hungry, that they may not become exhausted on the way.”

They said, “Seven and a few small fish.”

<sup>35</sup> He ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground.

<sup>36</sup> Then He took the seven loaves and the fish, gave thanks, broke them and kept giving them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. <sup>37</sup> All of them had enough to eat. They took up seven large baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over.

<sup>38</sup> Those who were eating were four thousand men, besides women and children. <sup>39</sup> After Jesus had dismissed the crowds, He got into the boat and came to the vicinity of Magadan.

16

The Pharisees’ attempt to see a miraculous sign — Mark 8:10-12

<sup>1</sup> The Pharisees and Sadducees came to Jesus and, to test Him, they asked Him to show them a miraculous sign from heaven.

<sup>2</sup> He answered them, “When evening comes, you say, ‘It will be fine weather. For the sky is red’; <sup>3</sup> and in the morning, ‘There will be a storm today. For the sky is red and overcast.’ You know how to judge the appearance of the sky but cannot judge the signs of the times. <sup>4</sup> A wicked and adulterous generation demands a miraculous sign, and a sign will not be given to it except the sign of Jonah.”

Then Jesus left them and went away.

Jesus’ warning about the yeast of the Pharisees — Mark 8:13b-21

<sup>5</sup> When the disciples had gone to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread. <sup>6</sup> Jesus told them, “Be on guard and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!”

<sup>7</sup> They began to discuss this among themselves. They said, “It is because we have not brought any bread.”

<sup>8</sup> Jesus knew it and asked, “Why are you discussing among yourselves, O you of little faith, about having no bread? <sup>9</sup> Do you not understand yet and do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand and how many baskets you took up? <sup>10</sup> Or the seven loaves for the four thousand and how many large baskets you took up? <sup>11</sup> How is it that you do not understand that I have not spoken to you about bread? Instead, beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!”

12 Then they understood that He had not said that they should beware of the yeast that is used in bread but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter's confession at Caesarea Philippi — Mark 8:27-30, Luke 9:18-21

13 When Jesus came to the district of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His disciples, “Who do people say the Son of Man is?”

14 They answered, “Some say John the Baptist, some Elijah, and others say Jeremiah or one of the other prophets.”

15 He asked them, “You, however, who do you say I am?”

16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

17 Jesus answered him, “Blessed are you, Simon, son of Jonah! For flesh and blood have not revealed this to you, but My Father, who is in heaven. 18 I also tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I shall build My church, and the gates of Hades will not overpower it. 19 I shall give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you tie up on earth will be tied up in heaven, and whatever you untie on earth will be untied in heaven.”

20 Then He warned the disciples not to tell anyone that He was the Christ.

Jesus' first explicit prediction of His passion — Mark 8:31-33, Luke 9:22

21 From that time on, Jesus began to show His disciples that He had to go to Jerusalem, suffer greatly at the hands of the elders, Chief Priests and scribes, be killed and be raised on the third day.

22 However, Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, “May God in His mercy spare You this, Lord! This will certainly not happen to You.”

23 However, Jesus turned and told Peter, “Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me, because you do not have in mind the things of God but the things of human beings.”

The conditions of discipleship — Mark 8:34-9:1, Luke 9:23-27

24 Then Jesus told His disciples, “If anyone wants to come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me! 25 For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. 26 For what good will it do a person if he gains the whole world and forfeits his soul? Or what will a person give in exchange for his soul? 27 For the Son of Man is going to come in His Father's glory with His angels and then He will repay each person according to what he has done. 28 Truly, I tell you that there are some of those who are standing here who will certainly not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in His kingdom.”

17

Jesus' transfiguration — Mark 9:2-13, Luke 9:28-36

1 After six days Jesus took with Him Peter, James and his brother John and led them up onto a high mountain by themselves. 2 Jesus was transfigured before them.

His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became as white as the light. 3 Suddenly Moses and Elijah appeared to them and began to talk with Jesus. 4 Peter reacted by saying to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here. If You wish, I shall make three tents here, one for You, one for Moses and one for Elijah.”

5 While he was still speaking, a bright cloud suddenly overshadowed them, and a voice out of the cloud said: “This is My Son, whom I love. With Him I am well pleased. Listen to Him!”

6 When the disciples heard it, they fell on their faces and were very afraid. 7 However, Jesus came and touched them and said, “Get up and stop being afraid!”

8 Then they looked up and saw no one except Jesus.

Jesus' explanation about the predicted coming of Elijah — Mark 9:9-13, Luke 7:27

9 While they were coming down from the mountain Jesus commanded them, “Do not tell anyone what you have seen until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead!”

10 The disciples asked Him, “Why then do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

11 Jesus answered, “Elijah does come and will restore all things. 12 However, I tell you that Elijah has already come, and people have not recognised him but have done to him whatever they have wanted to. In the same way the Son of Man is also about to suffer at their hands.”

13 Then the disciples understood that He had spoken to them about John the Baptist.

Jesus' healing of an epileptic boy who had a demon — Mark 9:14-29, Luke 9:37-43a

14 When they had come to the crowd, a man came to Jesus and knelt before Him. 15 He said, “Lord, have mercy on my son! For he is an epileptic and is suffering greatly. For he often falls into the fire and often into the water. 16 I took him to Your disciples, and they could not heal him.”

17 Jesus answered, “O you unbelieving and perverted generation! How long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me!”

18 Jesus rebuked the demon. It came out of the boy, and he was healed from that hour.

19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and asked, “Why could we not cast it out?”

20 He told them, “Because of your little faith. For truly, I tell you, if you have faith like a mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, ‘Move from here to there!’ It will move, and nothing will be impossible for you.”*<sup>167</sup>

Jesus' second explicit prediction of His passion — Mark 9:30-32, Luke 9:43b-45

22 While they were coming together in Galilee, Jesus told them, “The Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men, 23 and they will kill Him, but on the third day He will be raised.” Then they became

Peter's finding of a coin in a fish's mouth for the Temple tax

<sup>24</sup> After they had arrived at Capernaum, those who were collecting the two-drachma tax approached Peter and asked, "Does your Teacher not pay the Temple tax?"

He went into the house, but Jesus anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth collect customs duties or tax, from their children or from strangers?"

<sup>26</sup> When he answered, "From strangers," Jesus told him: "Then at least the children are exempt; <sup>27</sup> but that we may not give offence to them, go to the sea and throw in a hook. Take the first fish that comes up and open its mouth! You will find a four-drachma coin. Take that and pay it to them for Me and for you."

18

A section about Jesus' Words: rules for the new people of God (18:1-35)

A dispute among the disciples about greatness — Mark 9:33-37, Luke 9:46-48

<sup>1</sup> At that hour the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who, then, is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

Jesus' warning about causing others to stumble — Mark 9:42-48, Luke 17:1-2

<sup>6</sup> "Nevertheless, if anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him that a large millstone were hung around his neck and that he were drowned in the deepest part of the sea. <sup>7</sup> How terrible for the world because of the things that cause people to sin! Things that cause people to sin must come, but how terrible for the person through whom the cause for others to sin comes! <sup>8</sup> If your hand or your foot causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away from yourself! It is better for you to go into life maimed or crippled than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into the eternal fire. <sup>9</sup> If your eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away from yourself! It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell-fire. <sup>10</sup> Be careful that you do not despise one of these little ones! For I tell you that their angels in heaven are always looking at the face of My Father, who is in heaven. *168

Jesus' parable about the lost sheep — Luke 15:1-7

sheep, and one of them goes astray, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go to look for the one that is going astray? <sup>13</sup> If he happens to find it, truly, I tell you that he rejoices more about it than about the ninety-nine that have not gone astray. <sup>14</sup> In the same way your Father in heaven does not want one of these little ones to be lost.

Jesus' admonition to reprove one's brother

<sup>15</sup> "If your brother sins against you, go and point out his sin to him when you are alone with him! If he listens to you, you have won your brother. <sup>16</sup> However, if he will not listen, take one or two others with you so that you have two or three witnesses to verify every word! <sup>17</sup> If he will not listen to them, tell it to the church! However, if he will not listen even to the church, treat him like a heathen and a tax-collector! <sup>18</sup> Truly, I tell you, whatever you tie up on earth will be tied up in heaven, and whatever you untie on earth will be untied in heaven.

Jesus' instruction about agreement in prayer

<sup>19</sup> "Again I tell you, if two of you on earth agree about anything at all that they ask, My Father in heaven will do it for them. <sup>20</sup> For where two or three have come together in My name, there I am among them."

Jesus' answer to a question about forgiveness

<sup>21</sup> Then Peter came to Jesus and asked Him, "Lord, how often shall I forgive my brother when he keeps sinning against me? Up to seven times?"

<sup>22</sup> Jesus answered him, "I tell you, not up to seven times but up to seventy times seven.

Jesus' parable about the unmerciful servant

<sup>23</sup> "That is why the kingdom of heaven is like a king who wanted to settle accounts with his slaves. <sup>24</sup> When he had begun to settle accounts, a man who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him. <sup>25</sup> Since this slave could not pay the debt, the master ordered that he should be sold, with his wife, children and all that he had, and that payment should be made. <sup>26</sup> Therefore, the slave fell on his knees, bowed low before him and asked: 'Be patient with me! I shall pay everything back to you.' <sup>27</sup> The master of that slave felt compassion for him, freed him and forgave him his debt.

<sup>28</sup> "However, when that slave had gone out, he found one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii. He took hold of him and began to choke him. He said, 'Pay what you owe!' <sup>29</sup> Therefore, his fellow slave fell and begged him, 'Be patient with me! I shall pay you back.' <sup>30</sup> However, he refused. Instead, he went off and put him into prison until he should pay back what he owed. <sup>31</sup> Therefore, when his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were very sad and went and told their own master everything that had happened. <sup>32</sup> Then his master sent for him and said to him: 'You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you begged me. <sup>33</sup> Should you not also have pitied your fellow slave as I had also pitied you?'

torturers until he should pay back all that he owed.

<sup>35</sup> “That is also what My Father in heaven will do to you if each of you does not forgive his brother from his heart.”

Fifth section (19:1-25:46)

Jesus' ministry in Perea and Judea (19:1-22:46)

Jesus' instruction about marriage and divorce — Mark 10:1-12, Luke 16:18 — compare Matthew 5:31-32

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had finished saying these things, He left Galilee and went to the region of Judea on the other side of the Jordan. <sup>2</sup> Large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there. <sup>3</sup> Some Pharisees came to Him to test Him. They asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for just any reason?”

<sup>4</sup> Jesus replied, “Have you not read that He who created them from the beginning ‘made them male and female,’ <sup>5</sup> and said: ‘That is why a man will leave his father and mother and be united with his wife, and the two will become one flesh’? <sup>6</sup> So, they are no longer two but one flesh. Therefore, let no one separate what God has joined together!”

<sup>7</sup> They asked Him, “Why, then, did Moses command to give a certificate of divorce and divorce her?”

<sup>8</sup> Jesus replied, “Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because your hearts were hard. However, from the beginning it was not like that. <sup>9</sup> I also tell you, if anyone divorces his wife, except for adultery and marries another, he is living in adultery.”

<sup>11</sup> He answered them, “Not all can accept this saying, but it is only for those to whom it has been given.

<sup>12</sup> For there are eunuchs who were born like that from their mother’s wombs, there are eunuchs who were mutilated by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs because of the kingdom of heaven. The one who can accept this should accept it.”

Jesus' reception of little children — Mark 10:13-16, Luke 18:15-17

<sup>13</sup> Then little children were brought to Jesus that He might lay His hands on them and pray. However, the disciples rebuked those who brought them.

<sup>14</sup> Nevertheless, Jesus said, “Permit the little children to come to Me and stop hindering them! For the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

<sup>15</sup> When He had laid His hands on them, He went away from there.

Jesus' answer to a rich young leader's question — Mark 10:17-31, Luke 18:18-30

<sup>16</sup> Just then a man came up to Jesus and asked, “Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may have eternal life?”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus asked him, “Why are you asking Me about what is good? There is One who is good. However, if you want to enter life, keep the Commandments!”

<sup>18</sup> He asked Him, “Which ones?” Jesus said, “You shall not murder!’ ‘You shall not commit adultery!’ ‘You shall not steal!’ ‘You shall not bear false witness!’ <sup>19</sup> ‘Honour your father and your mother!’ and ‘You shall love your neighbour as yourself!’”

<sup>20</sup> The young man told Him, “I have been keeping all these. What do I still lack?”

<sup>21</sup> Jesus told him, “If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor! You will have treasure in heaven. Then come here and follow Me!”

<sup>22</sup> When the young man heard this saying, he went away sadly because he had great wealth.

<sup>23</sup> Jesus told His disciples, “Truly, I tell you, it will be difficult for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven. <sup>24</sup> Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>25</sup> When the disciples heard this, they were extremely astonished and asked, “Who, then, can be saved?”

<sup>26</sup> Jesus looked straight at them and said: “With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

<sup>27</sup> Then Peter answered Him: “Look! We have left everything and followed You. What, then, shall we get?”

<sup>28</sup> Jesus told them, “Truly, I tell you, in the renewed world, when the Son of Man sits on His glorious throne, you also, who have followed Me, will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>29</sup> Everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or fields for the sake of My name will receive a hundred times as much and will inherit eternal life. <sup>30</sup> However, many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first.

20

Jesus' parable about the labourers in the vineyard

<sup>1</sup> “For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire men to work in his vineyard. <sup>2</sup> He agreed with the workers to pay them a denarius a day and sent them into his vineyard.

<sup>3</sup> About the third hour he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. <sup>4</sup> He told them, ‘You also go into the vineyard! I shall pay you whatever is right.’ <sup>5</sup> So, they went.

“He went out again about the sixth hour and the ninth hour and did the same thing. <sup>6</sup> About the eleventh hour he went out and found some others standing around. He asked them, ‘Why are you standing here all day long doing nothing?’

<sup>7</sup> “They answered him, ‘Because nobody has hired us.’

“He told them, ‘You also go into the vineyard!’

<sup>8</sup> “When evening came, the owner of the vineyard told his manager, ‘Call the workmen and give them their pay! Begin with the last and go on to the first!’

<sup>9</sup> “Those who began working about the eleventh hour came and each received a denarius. <sup>10</sup> When the first ones came, they expected that they would receive more, but each of them also received a denarius.

<sup>11</sup> Although they took it, they began to grumble against the landowner. <sup>12</sup> They said, ‘These last men have worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who have endured the burden and the heat of the day.’

<sup>13</sup> ‘He answered one of them, ‘Friend, I am doing you no wrong. You agreed with me on a denarius, did you not? <sup>14</sup> Take what is yours and go! I want to give this last man as much as I have given you. <sup>15</sup> Or do I not have the right to do what I please with what is mine? Or are you envious because I am generous?’

<sup>16</sup> ‘In this way the last will be first, and the first last.’

Jesus’ third explicit prediction of His passion — Mark 10:32-34, Luke 18:31-34

<sup>17</sup> When Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, He took the Twelve by themselves and told them on the way:

<sup>18</sup> ‘Look! We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the Chief Priests and scribes. They will condemn Him to die <sup>19</sup> and hand Him over to the Gentiles to be made fun of, whipped and crucified, but on the third day He will be raised.’

The request of the sons of Zebedee for prominent positions in Jesus’ kingdom — Mark 10:35-45

<sup>20</sup> Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons came to Jesus with her sons and bowed before Him to make a request of Him.

She told Him, ‘Promise that one of my two sons will sit at Your right, and the other at Your left in Your kingdom!’

<sup>22</sup> Jesus answered, ‘You do not realise what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I am about to drink?’

They told Him, ‘We can.’

<sup>23</sup> He told them, ‘You will drink My cup, but to sit at My right and at My left I can grant only to those for whom My Father has prepared these positions.’

<sup>24</sup> When the other ten heard about it, they became angry with the two brothers. <sup>25</sup> Jesus called them and said: ‘You know that the rulers of the Gentiles are lords over them, and their great men are tyrants over them. <sup>26</sup> However, it is not like that among you. Let anyone who wants to become great among you be your servant, <sup>27</sup> and anyone who wants to be first among you should be your slave, <sup>28</sup> just as the Son of Man has not come to be served but to serve and give His life as a ransom for many.’

The healing of Bartimaeus and another blind man — Mark 10:46-52, Luke 18:35-43

<sup>29</sup> While they were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed Him. <sup>30</sup> There were two blind men sitting beside the road. When they heard that Jesus was going past, they shouted: ‘Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!’

<sup>31</sup> The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted even more: ‘Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!’

<sup>32</sup> Jesus stood still, called them and asked, ‘What do you want Me to do for you?’

<sup>34</sup> Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes, and immediately their sight was restored, and they began to follow Him.

21

Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem — Mark 11:1-10, Luke 19:28-38, John 12:12-19

<sup>10</sup> When He had entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, ‘Who is this?’

Jesus’ clearing of the Temple — Mark 11:15-19, Luke 19:45-46

<sup>12</sup> Then Jesus went into the Temple and drove out all those who were selling and buying in the Temple and overturned the tables of the moneychangers and the chairs of those who were selling doves. <sup>13</sup> He told them, ‘Scripture has said, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer,’ but you are making it ‘a den of robbers.’

<sup>14</sup> Blind and lame people came to Him in the Temple, and He healed them. <sup>15</sup> When the Chief Priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things He did and the children shouting ‘Hosanna to the Son of David!’ in the Temple, they were indignant. <sup>16</sup> They asked Him, ‘Do You hear what these are saying?’

Jesus replied to them, ‘Yes. Have you never read: ‘Out of the mouths of infants and breast-fed babies You have prepared praise for Yourself’?’

Jesus’ return to Bethany — Luke 11:11

<sup>17</sup> He left them, went out of the city to Bethany and spent the night there.

Jesus' cursing of the fig tree — Mark 11:12-14

<sup>18</sup> Early in the morning, while Jesus was going back to the city, He became hungry. <sup>19</sup> When He saw a fig tree beside the road, He went up to it and found nothing on it but leaves. He said to it, "May no fruit ever grow on you again!" Immediately the fig tree withered.

The meaning of the withered fig tree — Mark 11:20-26

<sup>20</sup> When the disciples saw this, they were astonished. They asked, "How has the fig tree withered so quickly?"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus answered them, "Truly, I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what has been done to the fig tree but also, if you tell this mountain, 'Be lifted up and be thrown into the sea,' it will be done. <sup>22</sup> If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer."

Jesus' response to a question about His authority — Mark 11:27-33, Luke 20:1-8

<sup>23</sup> When He had come to the Temple, the Chief Priests and the elders of the people came to Him while He was teaching. They asked, "By what authority are You doing these things?" and "Who has given You this authority?"

<sup>24</sup> Jesus answered them, "I also shall ask you one thing. If you tell it to Me, I too shall tell you by what authority I am doing these things. <sup>25</sup> From where did the baptism of John come? Was it from heaven or from men?"

They discussed it among themselves: "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will ask us, 'Then why did you not believe him?' <sup>26</sup> However, if we say, 'From men,' — we are afraid of the crowd. For they all regard John as a prophet."

Then He also told them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

Jesus' parable about the two sons

<sup>28</sup> "What do you think of this? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said, 'Son, go and work in the vineyard today!'

<sup>29</sup> "He answered, 'I do not want to.' Later he changed his mind and went.

<sup>30</sup> "The father went to the other one and told him the same thing. He answered, 'I shall, sir,' but did not go.

<sup>31</sup> "Which of the two did what the father wanted?"

They answered, "The first."

Jesus told them, "Truly, I tell you, tax-collectors and prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you. <sup>32</sup> For John came to you teaching you the way of righteousness, but you did not believe him. The tax-collectors and prostitutes believed him. However, even when you had seen that, you did not later change your minds and believe him.

Jesus' parable about the wicked tenant-farmers — Mark 12:1-12, Luke 20:9-19

<sup>33</sup> "Listen to another parable! There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a winepress in it and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard out to some farmers and went away on a journey. <sup>34</sup> When the vintage time approached, he sent his servants to the tenant-farmers to get his fruit. <sup>35</sup> The tenant-farmers seized his servants, beat one, killed another and stoned a third. <sup>36</sup> Then he sent other servants, more than the first, and the tenant-farmers treated them in the same way. <sup>37</sup> Finally he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' <sup>38</sup> However, when the tenant-farmers saw his son, they said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him and let us get his inheritance!' <sup>39</sup> They took him, threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

<sup>40</sup> "Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenant-farmers?"

<sup>41</sup> They answered, "He will make those scoundrels die a miserable death and rent out the vineyard to other tenant-farmers, who will give him the fruit due to him at its right time."

<sup>42</sup> Jesus asked them, "Have you never read in the Scriptures: 'The Stone that the builders rejected has become the Cornerstone. The Lord has done this, and it is marvellous for us to see'?"

<sup>43</sup> "Therefore, I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and will be given to a nation that continues to produce its fruit. <sup>44</sup> Anyone who falls on this Stone will be dashed in pieces and, if It falls on anyone, It will crush him."

<sup>45</sup> When the Chief Priests and Pharisees heard His parables, they knew that He was talking about them.

<sup>46</sup> Although they wanted to arrest Him, they were afraid of the crowds, because they regarded Him as a prophet.

22

Jesus' parable about the marriage-feast

<sup>8</sup> "Then he told his servants: 'The wedding is ready, but the people who have been invited have not deserved to come. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, go where the highways leave the city and invite everyone you find to the wedding!'

<sup>10</sup> "Those servants went out on the highways and brought in all the people whom they found, both bad and good. Then the wedding hall was filled with guests.

11 “When the king came in to observe the guests, he saw a man there who was not wearing a wedding garment. 12 He asked him, ‘Friend, how did you get in here without a wedding garment?’ The man could not say a thing. 13 Then the king told the servants, ‘Tie him hand and foot and throw him out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth!’

14 “For many are invited, but few are chosen.”

Jesus’ answer to a question about paying tax to Caesar — Mark 12:13-17, Luke 20:20-26

15 Then the Pharisees went away and plotted how to trap Him in His Words. 16 They sent their disciples to Him with Herod’s supporters to say to Him: “Teacher, we know that You are honest, that You teach the Way of God in truth. You pay no attention to who people are, since You do not show favouritism. 17 Therefore, tell us: What do You think? Is it right to pay a tax to Caesar or not?”

18 Jesus recognised their evil intent and asked, “Why are you testing Me, hypocrites? 19 Show Me the coin used for paying the tax!”

They brought Him a denarius. 20 He asked them, “Whose portrait is this, and whose inscription?”

21 They said to Him, “Caesar’s.”

Then He told them, “Therefore, pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s!”

22 They were astonished when they heard this. Then they let Him alone and went away.

Jesus’ answer to a question of the Sadducees about the resurrection — Mark 12:18-27, Luke 20:27-40

23 On that day Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked Him:

24 “Teacher, Moses said: ‘If anyone dies without any children, his brother should, as next of kin, marry his widow and have children for his brother.’

25 There were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died and, since he had no children, he left his wife to his brother. 26 Likewise the second brother also, and the third and down to the seventh. 27 Last of all, the woman died. 28 In the resurrection, therefore, of the seven, whose wife will she be, since they had all married her?”

29 Jesus answered them, “You are wrong, because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection people do not marry, nor are they given in marriage but are like the angels in heaven. 31 However, concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what has been spoken to you by God: 32 ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob’? He is not the God of the dead but of the living.”

33 When the crowds were hearing this, they were astonished at His teaching.

Jesus’ response about the greatest commandments, love of God and of the neighbour — Mark 12:28-34

34 When the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together.

35 One of them, an expert in the Law, asked Him a question, to test Him, 36 “Teacher, which is the greatest Commandment in the Law?”

37 Jesus answered him, “You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind!” 38 This is the greatest and the first Commandment. 39 The second is like it: ‘You shall love your neighbour as yourself!’ 40 All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two Commandments.”

Jesus’ question to the Pharisees about David’s Son — Mark 12:35-37a, Luke 20:41-44

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, 42 “What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is He?”

They said to Him, “The son of David.”

43 He asked them, “How, then, does David, by the Spirit, call Him ‘Lord’? For he says, 44 ‘The Lord said to my Lord: “Sit at My right hand until I put Your enemies under Your feet!”’ 45 Therefore, if David calls Him ‘Lord,’ how is He his son?”

46 No one could answer Him a word and from that day on no one dared to ask Him any more questions.

A selection of Jesus’ Words: seven woes and predictions about the last things (23:1-25:46)

Jesus’ woes against the Pharisees — Mark 12:37b-40, Luke 20:45-47

1 Then Jesus told the crowds and His disciples: 2 “The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses’ seat. 3 Therefore, do all the things that they tell you and keep them; but do not do as they do! For they tell others but do not practise it. 4 They tie up loads that are heavy and hard to carry and lay them on other people’s shoulders but they themselves are not willing to move them with one of their fingers. 5 They do everything that they do that other people may see them. For they make their prayer-strips broad and the tassels on their garments long. 6 They love the places of honour at dinners and the most important seats in synagogues. 7 They love to be greeted in the marketplaces and to be called ‘Rabbi’ by other people. 8 However, you, do not be called ‘Rabbi’! For you have only one Teacher, and you are all brothers. 9 Do not call anyone on earth ‘Father’! For you have only one Father, He who is in heaven. 10 Do not be called ‘teachers’! For you have only one Teacher, the Christ. 11 He who is the greatest among you shall be your servant! 12 He who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.

Jesus’ woes and warnings about the scribes and Pharisees — Luke 11:37-54

13 “How terrible for you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are locking up the kingdom of heaven against other people. For you are not going in yourselves and you are not allowing those who are trying to enter to go in. <sup>169</sup> <sup>15</sup> How terrible for you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! You travel around the sea and the dry land to make one convert and when, he becomes one, you make him twice as fit for hell as you are. <sup>16</sup> How terrible for you, blind guides! You say, ‘If anyone swears by the Temple, it means nothing; but if anyone swears by the gold in the Temple, he is bound by his oath.’ <sup>17</sup> You blind and foolish people! For which is greater, the gold or the Temple that has made the gold holy? <sup>18</sup> You also say, ‘If anyone swears by the altar, it means nothing; but, if anyone swears by the gift that is on it, he is bound by his oath.’ <sup>19</sup> You blind men! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that makes the gift holy? <sup>20</sup> Therefore, he who swears by the altar swears by it and by all the things that are on it. <sup>21</sup> He who swears by the Temple swears by it and by the One who dwells in it. <sup>22</sup> He who swears by heaven swears by the throne of God and by the One who is sitting on it. <sup>23</sup> How terrible for you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you pay a tenth of mint, dill and cumin but have neglected the weightier matters of the Law: justice, mercy and faithfulness. You should have done the latter things without neglecting the former! <sup>24</sup> Blind guides! You strain out the gnat but swallow the camel. <sup>25</sup> How terrible for you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. <sup>26</sup> You blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and of the dish that the outside also may be clean. <sup>27</sup> How terrible for you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed graves, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of dead men’s bones and everything unclean. <sup>28</sup> So, you also on the outside appear righteous to other people but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness. <sup>29</sup> How terrible for you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the monuments of those who were righteous, <sup>30</sup> and you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’ <sup>31</sup> Therefore, you are witnesses against yourselves that you are the sons of those who murdered the prophets. <sup>32</sup> Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers! <sup>33</sup> You snakes! You brood of vipers! How are you to escape being condemned to hell? <sup>34</sup> Therefore, now, I am sending to you prophets, wise men and scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify. Others of them you will flog in your synagogues and persecute from city to city, <sup>35</sup> that all the righteous blood that has been shed on the earth may come on you, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah, the son of Berehiah, whom you murdered between the sanctuary and the altar. <sup>36</sup> Truly, I tell you, all these things will come on this generation.

Jesus’ lament over Jerusalem — compare Luke 13:34-35

<sup>37</sup> “Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who have murdered the prophets and stoned those who have been sent to you, how often I have wanted to bring your children together as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, but you have not been willing! <sup>38</sup> Now your house will be left to you a deserted place. <sup>39</sup> For I tell you, you will never see Me again until you say, ‘Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!’”

Jesus’ prediction of the destruction of the Temple — Mark 13:1-4, Luke 21:5-7

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus left the Temple and was walking away, His disciples came to Him to show Him the buildings of the Temple. <sup>2</sup> Jesus told them, “You see all these things, do you not? Truly, I tell you, one stone will certainly not be left on another here. Each one will be thrown down.”

<sup>3</sup> While Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, His disciples came to Him privately and said, “Tell us, when will these things happen, and what the sign of Your coming will be and of the end of the age?”

The signs of the kingdom — Mark 13:5-8, Luke 21:8-11

<sup>4</sup> Jesus answered them, “Beware that no one deceives you! <sup>5</sup> For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am the Christ,’ and will deceive many. <sup>6</sup> You are going to hear of wars and rumours of wars. See that you do not become alarmed! For these things must happen, but the end is still to come. <sup>7</sup> For one nation will rise against another nation, and one kingdom against another kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. <sup>8</sup> However, all these are the beginning of birth-pains. <sup>9</sup> Then they will hand you over to be afflicted and will kill you, and all nations will hate you because of My name. <sup>10</sup> Then many will be offended and will betray one another and hate one another. <sup>11</sup> Many false prophets will arise and deceive many people. <sup>12</sup> Because lawlessness will increase, the love of most people will also grow cold. <sup>13</sup> However, the one who endures to the end will be saved.

The spread of the Gospel before the end — Mark 13:9-13, Luke 21:12-19

<sup>14</sup> “This Good News of the kingdom will also be preached in the whole world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come.

A prediction about the devastating abomination — Mark 13:14-20, Luke 21:20-24

<sup>15</sup> “Daniel the prophet spoke about the devastating abomination, which would stand in the Holy Place. When you see it — let the reader take note — <sup>16</sup> then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains! <sup>17</sup> He who is on the roof should not come down to take things out of his house! <sup>18</sup> He who is in the field should not turn back to get his coat!

<sup>19</sup> “How terrible for the women who are pregnant and for those who are nursing babies in those days!

you flee! <sup>21</sup> For it will be a time of great misery, such as has not happened from the beginning of the world until now — and surely will never happen again. <sup>22</sup> Moreover, if that time had not been cut short, no one would be saved. However, that time will be cut short for the sake of those whom He has chosen.

The culmination of the troubles — Luke 13:21-23, Luke 17:21

<sup>23</sup> “At that time if anyone tells you, ‘Look! Here is Christ!’ or ‘There He is!’ do not believe it! <sup>24</sup> For false christ and false prophets will come and work great miraculous signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even those whom God has chosen. <sup>25</sup> You see, I have told you this before it happens.

The day of the Son of Man — Luke 17:23-24, 37

<sup>26</sup> “So, when you are told, ‘There He is in the wilderness!’ do not go out or ‘Here He is in the inner rooms!’ do not believe it! <sup>27</sup> For the coming of the Son of Man will be like the lightning, which starts in the east and flashes across the whole sky, to the west. <sup>28</sup> Where the dead body is, there the vultures will gather.

The coming of the Son of Man — Mark 13:24-27, Luke 21:25-28

<sup>29</sup> “Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>30</sup> Then the miraculous sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn. They will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds in the sky with power and great glory. <sup>31</sup> He will send His angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather His elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

Jesus’ parable about the fig tree — Mark 13:28-29, Luke 21:29-31

<sup>32</sup> “Learn this parable from the fig tree! When its branch has already become tender and it sprouts its leaves, you know summer is near. <sup>33</sup> So you also, when you see all these things, you know that He is near, at the doors.

The certainty of Jesus’ Words and the time of His coming — Mark 13:30-32, Luke 21:32-33

<sup>34</sup> “Truly, I tell you, that this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things happen. <sup>35</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but My Words will certainly not pass away.

The need for watchfulness — compare Mark 13:32-37, Luke 21:34-36

<sup>36</sup> “No one knows about that day and hour, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

<sup>37</sup> For the coming of the Son of Man will be like what happened in the days of Noah. <sup>38</sup> For in those days before the flood people were eating and drinking and marrying and being married, until the day when Noah went into the ark. <sup>39</sup> They knew nothing until the flood came and swept them all away. That is what the coming of the Son of Man will also be like. <sup>40</sup> At that time two men will be in the field. One will be taken, and the other left. <sup>41</sup> Two women will be grinding at the mill. One will be taken, and the other left.

Jesus’ parable about the watchful householder — Luke 12:39-40

<sup>42</sup> “Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know at which hour your Lord is coming. <sup>43</sup> However, be aware of this! If the householder had known at which time of the night the burglar was coming, he would have stayed awake and would not have allowed his house to be broken into. <sup>44</sup> Therefore, you also, be ready! For the Son of Man is coming at an hour when you do not expect Him.

Jesus’ parable about the faithful and wise servant — Luke 12:42-46

<sup>45</sup> “Who then is the faithful and prudent servant, whom the master has put in charge of the servants in his household to give them their food at the right time? <sup>46</sup> Blessed is that servant whom his master finds doing this when he comes! <sup>47</sup> Truly, I tell you that he will put him in charge of all his possessions. <sup>48</sup> However, if that servant is wicked and says to himself, ‘My master is staying away for a long time,’ <sup>49</sup> and begins to beat his fellow servants and eats and drinks with the drunkards, <sup>50</sup> the master of that servant will come on a day when he is not expecting him and at an hour of which he is not aware. <sup>51</sup> His master will cut him in two and assign his place with the hypocrites. There they will weep and gnash their teeth.

25

Jesus’ parable about the ten virgins

<sup>1</sup> “Then the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. <sup>2</sup> Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. <sup>3</sup> For, when those who were foolish brought their lamps, they did not bring any olive-oil with them. <sup>4</sup> Those who were wise, however, brought olive-oil in their jars with their lamps. <sup>5</sup> When the bridegroom took a long time, they all became drowsy and began to sleep. <sup>6</sup> At midnight there was a shout: ‘The bridegroom is here! Come out to meet him!’ <sup>7</sup> Then all those virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps. <sup>8</sup> Those who were foolish asked those who were wise, ‘Give us some of your olive-oil! For our lamps are going out.’ <sup>9</sup> However, those who were wise answered, ‘No, otherwise there will certainly not be enough for us and for you. Rather, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves!’ <sup>10</sup> While they were going away to buy it, the bridegroom came. The ones who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet, and the door was shut. <sup>11</sup> Later the other virgins also came and said, ‘Lord, lord, open the door for us!’ <sup>12</sup> However, he answered them, ‘Truly, I tell you, I do not know you.’

Jesus’ parable about three kinds of workers and their talents — compare the parable of the minas, Luke 19:12-27

<sup>14</sup> “For it is like a man going on a journey. He called his servants and entrusted his property to them. <sup>15</sup> He gave one man five talents, another two talents and another one talent, each according to his ability and he immediately went on his journey. <sup>16</sup> The one who had received the five talents went and put them to work and gained five more. <sup>17</sup> In the same way the one who had received the two talents gained two more. <sup>18</sup> However, the one who had received the one talent went away, dug in the ground and hid his master's money. <sup>19</sup> After a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them. <sup>20</sup> The one who had received the five talents came and brought five more talents. He said, 'Master, you entrusted five talents to me. Look! I have gained five more talents.'

<sup>21</sup> "His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things. I shall put you in charge of many things. Enter your master's joy!'

<sup>22</sup> "The one who had received the two talents came and said, 'Master, you entrusted two talents to me. Look! I have gained two more talents.'

<sup>23</sup> "His master told him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things. I shall put you in charge of many things. Enter your master's joy!'

<sup>24</sup> "When the one who had received the one talent also came, he said, 'Master, I knew that you were a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering from where you have not scattered. <sup>25</sup> I was afraid. So, I went away and hid your talent in the ground. Look! Here you have what is yours.'

<sup>26</sup> "His master replied, 'You wicked and lazy servant! So, did you know that I harvest where I have not sown and gather from where I have not scattered?'

<sup>27</sup> Therefore, you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and, when I returned, I would have received my own back with interest. <sup>28</sup> Therefore, take the talent away from him and give it to the one who has the ten talents! <sup>29</sup> For everyone who has something will be given more and have plenty. However, he who has nothing will have even what he has taken away from him. <sup>30</sup> So, throw the useless servant out into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth!'"

The last judgment

<sup>31</sup> "When the Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, He will sit on His glorious throne. <sup>32</sup> All nations will be gathered before Him, and He will separate them from one another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. <sup>33</sup> He will have the sheep stand at His right but the goats at His left. <sup>34</sup> Then the King will say to those at His right, 'Come, you whom My Father has blessed! Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the time when the world was created! <sup>35</sup> For I was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave Me a drink. I was a stranger, and you took Me into your homes, <sup>36</sup> naked, and you gave Me something to wear, sick, and you looked after Me, in prison, and you visited Me.'

<sup>37</sup> "Then the righteous ones will ask Him, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry and feed You or thirsty and give You a drink? <sup>38</sup> When did we see You a stranger and take You into our homes or naked and give You something to wear? <sup>39</sup> When did we see You sick or in prison and visit You?'

<sup>40</sup> "Then the King will answer them, 'Truly, I tell you, anything you have done for one of My brothers here, even the least important of them, you have done for Me.'

<sup>44</sup> "Then they also will ask, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison and did not help You?'

<sup>45</sup> "Then He will answer them, 'Truly, I tell you, anything you have not done for one of these, even the least important of them, you have not done for Me.'

<sup>46</sup> "Then these will go away to everlasting punishment, but the righteous ones to everlasting life."

Jesus' passion, death and resurrection (26:1-28:20)

The plot of the Jews to put Jesus to death — Mark 14:1-2, Luke 22:1-2, John 11:45-57

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus finished saying all these things, He told His disciples, <sup>2</sup> "You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified."

<sup>3</sup> Then the Chief Priests and the elders of the people assembled in the palace of the Chief Priest, whose name was Caiaphas. <sup>4</sup> They plotted to arrest Jesus in an underhanded way and kill Him. <sup>5</sup> However, they said, "Not during the festival! Or there may be a riot among the people."

Mary's anointing of Jesus at Bethany — Mark 14:3-9, John 12:1-8

<sup>10</sup> Since He was aware of it, Jesus asked them, "Why are you bothering the woman? For she has done a beautiful thing to Me. <sup>11</sup> For you always have the poor with you but do not always have Me. <sup>12</sup> For she has put this perfume on My body to prepare Me for burial. <sup>13</sup> Truly, I tell you, wherever this Good News is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her."

Judas' plan to betray Jesus — Mark 14:10-11, Luke 22:3-6

14 Then one of the Twelve, the one called ‘Judas Iscariot,’ went to the Chief Priests.

15 He asked, “What are you willing to pay me if I hand Him over to you?”

They offered him thirty pieces of silver. 16 From then on Judas kept looking for an opportunity to betray Him.

The preparation for the Passover — Mark 14:12-16, Luke 22:7-13

17 On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?”

18 He said, “Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, ‘The Teacher says, “My appointed time is near. I shall celebrate the Passover at your house with My disciples”!’”

19 The disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover. 20 When evening had come, He was reclining at the table with the Twelve.

Jesus’ prediction of His betrayal — Mark 14:17-21, Luke 22:14, 21-23, John 13:21-30

21 While they were eating, He said, “Truly, I tell you that one of you will betray Me.”

22 They were very sad, and each one of them began to ask Him, “I am not the one, am I, Lord?”

23 Jesus answered, “He who has dipped his hand in the bowl with Me is the one who will betray Me.

24 The Son of Man is going as the Scriptures have said about Him, but how terrible for that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born.”

25 Then Judas, who was betraying Him, asked, “I am not the one, am I, Rabbi?”

Jesus told him, “You have said that.”

The institution of the Lord’s Supper — Mark 14:22-26, Luke 22:18-20, I Corinthians 11:23-25

26 While they were eating, Jesus took bread and gave thanks. He broke it, gave it to the disciples and said, “Take, eat! This is My body.”

27 He took a cup, gave thanks and gave it to them, saying, “Drink of it, all of you! 28 For this is My blood of the Covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. 29 For I tell you, I shall certainly not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it with you anew in My Father’s kingdom.”

The way to Gethsemane and prophecy of Peter’s denials — Mark 14:28-31, Luke 22:30-34, John 13:36-38

30 After they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

31 Then Jesus told them, “All of you will take offence at Me this night. For Scripture has said, ‘I shall strike down the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’ 32 However, after I have been raised, I shall go ahead of you to Galilee.”

33 Peter answered Him, “If they are all going to take offence at You, I shall never take offence.”

34 Jesus told him, “Truly, I tell you that tonight, before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.”

35 Peter told Him, “Even if I must die with You, I shall certainly not deny You.”

All the other disciples said something similar.

Jesus’ prayer in Gethsemane — Mark 14:32-42, Luke 22:39-46, John 18:1

36 Then Jesus went with the disciples to a place called “Gethsemane,” and told them, “Sit down here while I go over there and pray!”

37 He took with Him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee and began to be sorrowful and distressed.

38 Then He told them, “My soul is very sorrowful, to the point of death. Stay here and be watchful with Me!”

39 He went ahead a little, fell with His face to the ground and prayed, “My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from Me! Nevertheless, not as I will, but as You will!”

40 When He came back to the disciples, He found them sleeping. He asked Peter, “So, could you men not be watchful with Me for one hour? 41 Be watchful and pray, that you may not begin to be tempted! The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

42 Again, a second time, He went away and prayed, “My Father, if this cannot pass by unless I drink it, let Your will be done!”

43 He came again and found them sleeping, because their eyes had been weighed down. 44 He left them again and went away again and prayed the third time, saying the same words. 45 Then He came to the disciples and asked them, “Are you still sleeping on and resting? Look! The hour has come, and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Get up! Let us go! Look! The one who is betraying Me is at hand.”

The arrest of Jesus — Mark 14:43-52, Luke 22:47-54a, John 18:1-14

47 While Jesus was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived. With him was a large crowd from the Chief Priests and elders of the people. They were carrying swords and clubs. 48 The betrayer had given them a signal. He said, “The One whom I kiss is the Man. Arrest Him!”

49 Judas at once went up to Jesus, said, “Greetings, Rabbi,” and kissed Him.

50 Jesus told him, “Friend, do what you have come for!”

Then the men came forward, took hold of Jesus and arrested Him. 51 Suddenly, one of Jesus’ companions stretched out his hand and drew his sword. He struck the Chief Priest’s slave and cut off his ear. 52 Then Jesus told him, “Put your sword back in its place! For all who take the sword will die by the sword. 53 Or do you think that I cannot call on My Father, so that He will at once provide Me with more than twelve legions of angels? 54 How, then, are the Scriptures to be fulfilled, which say that it must happen in this way?”

55 At that time Jesus asked the crowd, “Have you come out to arrest Me with swords and clubs as if I were a robber? Every day I have been sitting and teaching in the Temple, and you have not arrested Me.

<sup>56</sup> However, all this has happened that the writings of the prophets may be fulfilled.”

Then all His disciples deserted Him and ran away.

Jesus' first trial before the Jewish court — Mark 14:53-72, Luke 22:54-71

<sup>57</sup> Those who had arrested Jesus led Him away to Caiaphas, the Chief Priest, where the scribes and the elders had been called together. <sup>58</sup> Peter followed Him at a distance right up to the Chief Priest's courtyard. He went inside and sat down with the servants to see how this would end.

<sup>59</sup> The Chief Priests and the whole Jewish council kept on looking for false testimony against Jesus to put Him to death. <sup>60</sup> However, they did not find any, although many false witnesses came forward. Later two men came forward, <sup>61</sup> and said, “This fellow said, ‘I can destroy the Temple of God and build it in three days.’”

<sup>62</sup> The Chief Priest stood up and asked Jesus, “Are You making no reply? What is it that these men are testifying against You?”

<sup>63</sup> However, Jesus remained silent. Then the Chief Priest said to Him, “I put You under oath by the living God: Tell us whether You are the Christ, the Son of God!”

<sup>64</sup> Jesus answered him, “It is as you have said, but I tell you all, from now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

<sup>65</sup> Then the Chief Priest tore his robes and said, “He has blasphemed! What further need do we have of witnesses? Look! Now you have heard the blasphemy.

<sup>66</sup> What do you think?”

They answered, “He is guilty and deserves to die.”

<sup>67</sup> Then they spat in His face and struck Him with their fists, and others slapped Him, <sup>68</sup> saying, “Prophecy to us, You Christ! Who is the one who has hit You?”

Peter's denials of Jesus — Mark 14:66-72, Luke 22:54b-62, John 18:15-18, 25-27

<sup>69</sup> Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. A servant girl came to him, saying, “You too were with Jesus of Galilee.”

<sup>70</sup> However, he denied it in front of them all. He said, “I do not know what you are talking about.”

<sup>71</sup> While he was going out to the gateway, another servant girl saw him. She told those who were there, “This fellow was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

<sup>73</sup> After a little while, those who were standing there approached Peter and said, “Surely you are also one of them. For your accent gives you away.”

Immediately a rooster crowed, <sup>75</sup> and Peter remembered the statement that Jesus had made, “Before a rooster crows, you will deny Me three times.”

He went outside and wept bitterly.

The death of Judas

<sup>1</sup> When morning came, all the Chief Priests and elders of the people came to a decision against Jesus, to put Him to death. <sup>2</sup> They bound Him, led Him away and handed Him over to Pilate, the governor. <sup>3</sup> When Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus had been condemned, he was filled with remorse and took the thirty silver coins back to the Chief Priests and elders. <sup>4</sup> He said, “I have sinned by betraying innocent blood.”

However, they said, “What is that to us? You should see to it!”

<sup>5</sup> He threw down the pieces of silver into the Temple and departed. Then he went away and hanged himself.

<sup>6</sup> The Chief Priests took the pieces of silver and said, “It is not lawful to put them into the treasury, since they are the price of blood.”

<sup>7</sup> They made the decision to use them to buy the Potter's Field, as a burial place for foreigners.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, that field has been called “the Field of Blood” to this day. <sup>9</sup> Then what had been spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, “I took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him who had been valued, whom those of the children of Israel had valued, and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord had commanded me.”

Jesus' trial before Pilate — Mark 15:1-5, Luke 23:1-5, John 18:28-38

<sup>11</sup> Jesus stood before the governor. The governor asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

Jesus answered, “It is as you say.”

<sup>12</sup> While the Chief Priests and elders were accusing Him, He did not answer at all. <sup>13</sup> Then Pilate asked Him, “Do You not hear how much testimony they are bringing against You?”

<sup>14</sup> However, Jesus made no reply to him, even about a single statement, so that the governor was very amazed.

The choice between Jesus and Barabbas and the sentencing of Jesus to death — Mark 15:6-15, Luke 23:17-25, John 18:39-40

<sup>15</sup> At every feast the governor used to release to the crowd one prisoner whom they chose. <sup>16</sup> At that time they were holding a well-known prisoner called Barabbas. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, when the people had gathered, Pilate asked them, “Which do you want me to release for you: Barabbas or Jesus, who is called ‘Christ’?”

<sup>18</sup> For he knew that they had handed Jesus over to him because they were jealous.

<sup>19</sup> While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent someone to tell him, “Do not have anything to do with that innocent Man! For I have suffered greatly today in a dream because of Him.”

<sup>20</sup> However, the Chief Priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus put to death. <sup>21</sup> The governor asked them, “Which of the two do you want me to release for you?”

They said, “Barabbas.”

<sup>22</sup> Pilate asked them, “Then what should I do with Jesus, who is called ‘Christ’?”

They all said, “Let Him be crucified!”

<sup>23</sup> Pilate said, “No, what wrong has He done?”

Nevertheless, they began to shout even louder: “Let Him be crucified!”

<sup>24</sup> When Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but that a riot was breaking out instead, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd. He said, “I am innocent of this Man’s blood. You will see to it yourselves.”

<sup>25</sup> All the people answered, “Let His blood be on us and on our children!”

<sup>26</sup> Then he released Barabbas for them but had Jesus scourged and handed Him over to be crucified.

The soldiers’ mockery of Jesus — Mark 15:16-20, John 19:1-3

<sup>30</sup> They spat on Him, took the stick and began to beat Him on the head.

<sup>31</sup> After they had made fun of Him, they took the robe off Him and put His own clothes on Him. Then they led Him away to crucify Him.

The road to Calvary — Mark 15:21, Luke 22:26-32

<sup>32</sup> While they were going out, they found a man from Cyrene by the name of Simon and forced him to carry Jesus’ cross.

Jesus’ crucifixion — Mark 14:22-32, Luke 23:33-43, John 19:16b-24

<sup>38</sup> At that time two robbers were crucified with Him, one at His right, and the other at His left. <sup>39</sup> Those who were passing by kept ridiculing Him, shaking their heads, <sup>40</sup> and saying, “You, who are going to tear down the Temple and build it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of God, come down from the cross!”

<sup>41</sup> The Chief Priests, together with the scribes and elders, also kept making fun of Him in a similar way, saying, <sup>42</sup> “He saved others: He cannot save Himself. He is the King of Israel. He should come down from the cross now, and we shall believe in Him. <sup>43</sup> He trusts in God. Let God rescue Him now if He wants Him! For He said, ‘I am the Son of God.’” <sup>44</sup> In the same way even the robbers who had been crucified with Him kept insulting Him.

Jesus’ death on the cross — Mark 15:33-41, Luke 23:44-49, John 19:28-30

<sup>45</sup> At noon darkness came over the whole land and lasted until three in the afternoon. <sup>46</sup> About three o’clock Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?” which means, “My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?”

<sup>51</sup> Just then the curtain in the Temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. The earth shook, and the rocks were split. <sup>52</sup> The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the saints who had died were raised. <sup>53</sup> They came out of the tombs, after Jesus had risen, went into the Holy City and appeared to many people.

<sup>54</sup> When the captain and those who were watching Jesus with him saw the earthquake and the other things that happened, they were terrified. They said, “Truly, this Man was the Son of God!”

<sup>55</sup> Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee and used to support Him. <sup>56</sup> Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph and the mother of Zebedee’s sons.

Jesus’ burial — Mark 15:42-47, Luke 23:50-56, John 19:38-42

<sup>57</sup> In the evening a rich man from Arimathea by the name of Joseph, who had also become a disciple of Jesus, came. <sup>58</sup> He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered that it should be given to him.

<sup>59</sup> Joseph took the body, wrapped it in clean linen cloth, <sup>60</sup> and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut in the rock. After he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, he went away. <sup>61</sup> Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were there, sitting opposite the tomb.

The guard at the tomb

<sup>62</sup> The next day, the one after the Day of Preparation, the Chief Priests and Pharisees met with Pilate.

<sup>63</sup> They said, “Sir, we remember how that deceiver said while He was still alive, ‘After three days I shall rise.’ <sup>64</sup> Therefore, order the tomb to be made secure until the third day, to keep His disciples from coming and stealing Him and telling the people, ‘He has been raised from the dead’! Then the latter deception will be worse than the former.”

<sup>65</sup> Pilate told them, “You have a guard. Go and make it as secure as you know how!”

<sup>66</sup> They went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal on the stone and posting the guard.

The resurrection of Jesus — Mark 16:1-8, Luke 24:1-12, John 20:1-10

<sup>1</sup> After the Sabbath, as Sunday was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb. <sup>2</sup> There was a great earthquake. For an angel of the Lord came down from heaven, went to the tomb, rolled the stone back and sat on it. <sup>3</sup> His appearance was like lightning and his clothes were as white as snow. <sup>4</sup> The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men. <sup>5</sup> The angel told the women, “Do not be afraid! For I know that you are looking for Jesus, who has been crucified. <sup>6</sup> He is not here. For He has risen, as He said. Come! See the place where He was lying! <sup>7</sup> Then go quickly and tell His disciples, ‘He has risen from the dead. Indeed, He is going ahead of you to Galilee. There you will see Him.’ Be sure! I have told you.”

<sup>8</sup> The women hurried away from the tomb with fear and great joy and ran to tell His disciples. <sup>9</sup> Just then Jesus met them and said, “Greetings!” They went up to Him, took hold of His feet and worshipped Him.

<sup>10</sup> Then Jesus told them, “Stop being afraid! Go and tell My brothers to go to Galilee! There they will see Me.”

The bribery of the soldiers

<sup>11</sup> While the women were on their way, some of the guard went into the city and reported to the Chief Priests everything that had happened. <sup>12</sup> When they had assembled with the elders and devised a plan, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers, <sup>13</sup> and told them, “Say, ‘His disciples came by night and stole Him while we were sleeping!’ <sup>14</sup> If the governor hears about it, we shall persuade him and keep you out of trouble.”

<sup>15</sup> They took the money and did as they had been instructed. This story has also been widely circulated among the Jews until the present day.

Jesus' command to the eleven to make disciples

<sup>16</sup> The eleven disciples went to the mountain in Galilee where Jesus had told them to go. <sup>17</sup> When they saw Him, they worshipped Him; but some doubted.

<sup>18</sup> When Jesus came near, He spoke to them. He said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. <sup>19</sup> Go, therefore, and make disciples of all the nations by baptising them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit <sup>20</sup> and by teaching them to keep all that I have commanded you! Certainly, I am with you always, until the end of the age.”

MARK

A. The theme (1:1) and introduction (1:2-13)

The preaching of John the Baptist — Matthew 3:1-12, Luke 3:1-18, John 1:19-28

<sup>4</sup> John the Baptist came in the wilderness and preached that people should repent and be baptised for the forgiveness of sins. <sup>5</sup> All the land of Judea and all the people of Jerusalem kept coming out to him. They were baptised by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. <sup>6</sup> John was dressed in camels’ hair, wore a leather belt around his waist and ate locusts and wild honey. <sup>7</sup> He preached: “He who is mightier than I am is coming after me, and I am not worthy to bend down and untie His sandal-straps. <sup>8</sup> I have baptised you with water, but He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit.”

The baptism of Jesus — Matthew 3:13-17, Luke 3:21-22, compare John 1:29-34

<sup>9</sup> In those days Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptised in the Jordan by John. <sup>10</sup> Just as Jesus was coming up out of the water, He saw heaven being torn apart and the Spirit coming down on Him like a dove. <sup>11</sup> Then a voice came from heaven: “You are My Son, whom I love. With You I am well pleased.”

The temptation of Jesus — Matthew 4:1-11, Luke 4:1-13

<sup>12</sup> At once the Spirit drove Him out into the wilderness, <sup>13</sup> and He was in the wilderness for forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and the angels served Him.

Galilean period of Jesus’ ministry (1:14-9:50)

Jesus’ ministry around the Sea of Galilee (1:14-5:43)

The first preaching in Galilee and the call of the first disciples — Matthew 4:18-22, Luke 5:1-11, John 1:35-51

<sup>14</sup> After John had been arrested, Jesus went to Galilee and preached the Good News of God: <sup>15</sup> “The time has come, and the kingdom of God is near. Repent and believe in the Good News!”

<sup>16</sup> While He was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Simon’s brother Andrew casting a net in the sea. For they were fishermen. <sup>17</sup> Jesus told them, “Come and follow Me! I shall make you fishers of men.”

<sup>19</sup> When He had gone on a little farther, He saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John, who were also in their boat, mending their nets. <sup>20</sup> He called them at once, and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men and followed Him.

Jesus’ driving out of a demon at Capernaum — Luke 4:31-37

<sup>21</sup> They went to Capernaum. On the next Sabbath, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach.

<sup>22</sup> The people were amazed at His teaching. For He was teaching them as one who had authority and not as the scribes taught. <sup>23</sup> Just then there was a man in their synagogue with an unclean spirit and he cried out, <sup>24</sup> “What do we have in common with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are, the Holy One of God!”

<sup>26</sup> The unclean spirit shook the man violently and, with a loud shriek, came out of him. <sup>27</sup> The people were all so amazed that they debated with one another: “What is this? This is a new teaching, with authority! He even gives orders to the unclean spirits, and they obey Him.”

Jesus’ healing of Peter’s wife’s mother — Matthew 8:14-15, Luke 4:38-39

Jesus’ healing of sick people one evening — Matthew 8:16-17, Luke 4:40-41

<sup>32</sup> In the evening, when the sun had set, people kept bringing to Him all who were sick and those who were demon-possessed. <sup>33</sup> The whole city had gathered at the door. <sup>34</sup> Jesus healed many who were sick with various diseases and drove out many demons but would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

Jesus’ departure from Capernaum and His first preaching-journey in Galilee — Matthew 4:23-25, Luke 4:42-44

<sup>35</sup> Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went away to a lonely place and there He prayed. <sup>36</sup> Simon and those who were with him searched for Him. <sup>37</sup> When they found Him, they told Him, “Everyone is looking for You.”

<sup>38</sup> He told them, “Let us go somewhere else, to the small towns that are near, that I may preach there also! For I have come forth for this purpose.”

<sup>39</sup> He went and preached in their synagogues everywhere in Galilee and drove out the demons.

Jesus’ healing of a leper — Matthew 8:1-4, Luke 5:12-14

<sup>40</sup> Then a leper came to Him and begged Him on his knees. He said to Him, “If You are willing, You can make me clean.”

<sup>41</sup> Jesus was moved with compassion. He stretched out His hand, touched him and told him, “I am willing. Be made clean!”

<sup>42</sup> Immediately the leprosy left him, and he was made clean. <sup>43</sup> Jesus sent him away at once with a strong warning: <sup>44</sup> “See that you do not say anything to anyone! Instead, go, show yourself to the priest and offer the sacrifices that Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them!”

<sup>45</sup> Instead, he went out and began to tell about it so much and to spread the news so widely that Jesus could no longer enter a city openly but stayed outside in lonely places. People kept coming to Him from every direction.

Jesus' healing of a paralysed man — Matthew 9:1-8, Luke 5:17-26

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus came back to Capernaum after some days, people heard that He was at home. <sup>2</sup> So many people gathered that there was no longer any room, even near the door. He kept speaking the Word to them. <sup>3</sup> Then some people came, bringing to Him a paralysed man. Four men carried him. <sup>4</sup> Since they could not bring him to Jesus because of the crowd, they opened the roof over where Jesus was. After they had dug through it, they let down the mat on which the paralytic was lying. <sup>5</sup> When Jesus saw their faith, He said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”

<sup>6</sup> Some of the scribes were sitting there and thought to themselves: <sup>7</sup> “Why is this Man speaking like this? He is blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?”

<sup>8</sup> Jesus immediately knew in His spirit that they were thinking to themselves like this. He asked them, “Why do you have these thoughts in your hearts? <sup>9</sup> Which is easier: to say to the paralysed man, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up, take your mat and walk!’?”

<sup>10</sup> “You should know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins!” Then He said to the paralysed man, <sup>11</sup> “I tell you, get up, take your mat and go to your home!”

<sup>12</sup> The man got up, immediately took his mat and went out before them all, so that they were all amazed and praised God. They said, “We have never seen anything like this.”

Jesus' call of Matthew (Levi) — Matthew 9:9-13, Luke 5:27-32

<sup>13</sup> Jesus went out again beside the sea. The entire crowd kept coming to Him, and He began to teach them. <sup>14</sup> As He was going past, He saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the tax office. Jesus told him, “Follow Me!”

Levi got up and began to follow Him.

<sup>15</sup> While Jesus was reclining at the table in Matthew’s home, many tax-collectors and sinners were eating with Jesus and His disciples. For there were many, and they were following Him. <sup>16</sup> When the scribes belonging to the Pharisees saw that He was eating with sinners and tax-collectors, they kept asking His disciples, “Why does He eat with tax-collectors and sinners?”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus heard them and told them: “Those who are healthy have no need of a doctor, but those who are sick. I have not come to call righteous people but sinners.”

Jesus' response to a question about fasting — Matthew 9:14-17, Luke

5:33-39

<sup>18</sup> John’s disciples and the Pharisees used to fast. People came to Jesus and asked Him, “Why is it that John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?”

<sup>19</sup> Jesus told them, “The friends of the bridegroom cannot fast while the bridegroom is with them, can they? While they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. <sup>20</sup> However, the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then, on that day, they will fast.

The plucking of grain by Jesus' disciples on a Sabbath — Matthew 12:1-8, Luke 6:1-5

<sup>23</sup> Once Jesus was going through the grain-fields on a Sabbath. As the disciples walked along, they began to pick heads of grain. <sup>24</sup> The Pharisees began to tell Him, “Look! Why are they doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath?”

<sup>25</sup> Jesus asked them, “Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were in need and became hungry: <sup>26</sup> how he went into the house of God at the time of Abiathar the Chief Priest and ate the loaves set out before God, which are unlawful for anyone to eat except the priests and how he also gave some to his companions?”

<sup>27</sup> Then He went on to tell them, “The Sabbath was made for the sake of man, not man for the sake of the Sabbath. <sup>28</sup> For this reason the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

Jesus' healing of a man with a shrivelled hand — Matthew 12:9-15a, Luke 6:6-11

<sup>1</sup> Then He went again into the synagogue, and a man was there who had a shrivelled hand. <sup>2</sup> They were watching Him closely to see whether He would heal him on the Sabbath, that they might accuse Him. <sup>3</sup> He told the man with the shrivelled hand, “Stand up in the middle!”

<sup>4</sup> Then Jesus asked them, “Is it lawful to do good on the Sabbath or to do evil, to save a life or to kill?”

However, they remained silent. <sup>5</sup> Jesus looked around at them with anger and was distressed at the hardness of their hearts. Then He told the man, “Stretch out your hand!”

He stretched it out, and his hand was completely restored. <sup>6</sup> Then the Pharisees went out and immediately began to plot with Herod’s supporters against Jesus that they might destroy Him.

Jesus' healing of many people — Luke 6:17-19

<sup>7</sup> Then Jesus withdrew with His disciples to the sea. A large crowd from Galilee followed Him. There was also a large crowd from Judea, <sup>8</sup> from Jerusalem, from Idumea, from the other side of the Jordan and from the area of Tyre and Sidon. They had heard about all the things that He was doing and came to Him. <sup>9</sup> He told His disciples that a small boat should be kept ready for Him because of the crowd, to prevent them from pressing against Him. <sup>10</sup> For He had healed many people, so that all who had diseases were pressing around Him to touch Him. <sup>11</sup> Whenever the unclean spirits saw Him, they would fall before Him and shout, “You are the Son of God!”

Jesus' choice of twelve apostles — Matthew 10:1-4, Luke 6:13-16

<sup>13</sup> Then He went up on the mountain and called to Him those whom He wanted, and they came to Him.

<sup>14</sup> He appointed twelve, whom He also named “apostles,” that they might be with Him, that He might send them out to preach <sup>15</sup> and to have authority to cast out demons.

<sup>16</sup> He appointed the Twelve: Simon, to whom He gave the name “Peter,” <sup>17</sup> James the son of Zebedee, and John, the brother of James, to whom He gave the name “Boanerges,” which means “Thunderbolts,” <sup>18</sup> Andrew, Philip, Bartholomew, Matthew, Thomas, James, the son of Alphaeus, Thaddaeus, Simon the Zealot, <sup>19</sup> and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

An accusation of the Pharisees and the controversy about Beelzebul — Matthew 12:22-32, Luke 11:14-23

<sup>20</sup> Then Jesus came into the house. The crowd gathered again, so that Jesus and those who were with Him were not even able to eat bread. <sup>21</sup> When His family heard about it, they came out to take charge of Him. For they were saying, “He has gone out of His mind!” <sup>22</sup> The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem began to say, “He is possessed by Beelzebul,” and, “It is by the ruler of the demons that He is driving out the demons.”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus called them to come to Him and spoke to them in parables: “How can Satan drive out Satan?”

<sup>30</sup> He said this because they were saying, “He has an unclean spirit.”

Jesus' declaration about His real brothers — Matthew 12:46-50, Luke 8:19-21

<sup>31</sup> Just then His mother and His brothers came. They stood outside and sent someone to Him to ask Him to come out. <sup>32</sup> A crowd was sitting around Jesus and they told Him, “Look! Your mother, Your brothers and Your sisters are outside, looking for You.”

<sup>33</sup> He answered them, “Who are My mother and My brothers?” <sup>34</sup> He looked around at those who sat in a circle around Him and said, “Look! Here are My mother and My brothers. <sup>35</sup> Whoever does the will of God is My brother and sister and mother.”

4

Jesus' parable about the sower — Matthew 13:1-9, Luke 8:4-8

<sup>1</sup> Again Jesus began to teach beside the sea. A very large crowd gathered around Him, so that He got into a boat and sat in it on the sea, while the entire crowd was on the land, facing the sea.

<sup>2</sup> He kept teaching them many things in parables and, as He was teaching, He told them, <sup>3</sup> “Listen! A sower went out to sow. <sup>4</sup> As he was sowing, some seed fell along the path, and the birds came and devoured it. <sup>5</sup> Some seed fell on rocky ground, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because it did not have deep soil. <sup>6</sup> When the sun came up, it was scorched and, because it had no roots, it withered. <sup>7</sup> Some seed fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no grain. <sup>8</sup> However, other seeds fell on the good soil. They came up, grew and produced grain, some thirty times as much, some sixty times as much and some a hundred times as much.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said, “He who has ears to hear should hear!”

Jesus' reason for speaking in parables — Matthew 13:10-15, Luke 8:9-10

<sup>10</sup> When He was alone, those who were with Him together with the Twelve began to ask Him about the parables. <sup>11</sup> He answered them, “To you it has been given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to those on the outside everything comes in parables, <sup>12</sup> that they may see clearly and yet not perceive and hear clearly and yet not understand, lest they should turn and be forgiven.”

Jesus' interpretation of the parable of the sower — Matthew 13:18-23, Luke 8:11-15

<sup>13</sup> He asked them, “Do you fail to understand this parable? Then how will you understand all the parables?”

<sup>14</sup> The sower sows the Word. <sup>15</sup> These are the ones along the path where the Word is sown: when they hear it, Satan comes immediately and takes away the Word that has been sown in them. <sup>16</sup> These are the ones who are sown on the rocky ground: when they hear the Word, they immediately receive it with joy, <sup>17</sup> and yet they have no root in themselves but last for only a while. Afterwards, when trouble or persecution comes because of the Word, they are immediately caused to stumble. <sup>18</sup> Still others are the ones who are sown among the thorns: these are the ones who have heard the Word, <sup>19</sup> but the worries of the world, the deceitfulness of wealth and the desires for the other things come in and choke the Word, and it does not produce anything. <sup>20</sup> These are the ones who have been sown on the good soil: they continue to hear the Word, receive it and go on producing a crop, some thirty times as much, some sixty times as much and some a hundred times as much.”

The comparison of a lamp and the right use of parables — (Matthew 5:14-16) Luke 11:33, Luke 8:16-18

<sup>21</sup> Then He asked them: “Surely a lamp is not brought that it may be placed under the grain-measure or under the bed? Rather, is it not brought that it may be placed on the lampstand? <sup>22</sup> For there is nothing so secret that it will not be revealed, and there is nothing so hidden that it is not brought into the open. <sup>23</sup> If anyone has ears to hear, he should hear!”

<sup>24</sup> Then He went on to tell them: “Pay attention to what you are hearing! You will be measured by the measure by which you measure and you will get even more. <sup>25</sup> For whoever has will be given more, and he who does not have will have even what he has taken away from him.”

Jesus’ parable about seed growing secretly

<sup>26</sup> Then He said: “The kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter seed on the ground, <sup>27</sup> and should sleep and get up, by night and by day, and the seed should sprout and grow, although he does not know how. <sup>28</sup> All by itself the ground produces grain, first the green blade, then the head and then the full wheat in the head. <sup>29</sup> As soon as the grain is ready, he puts in the sickle, because harvest has come.”

Jesus’ parable about the mustard seed — Matthew 13:31-32, Luke 13:18-19

<sup>30</sup> Then He asked, “To what are we to compare the kingdom of God or with what parable are we to present it? <sup>31</sup> It is like a mustard seed, which, when it is sown on the ground, is a very small seed among all the seeds on earth. <sup>32</sup> Nevertheless, when it is sown, it comes up and becomes the largest of all the garden plants. It produces large branches, so that the birds of the sky can make their dwelling under its shade.”

The use of parables — Matthew 13:36-43

<sup>33</sup> He used many parables like these to speak the Word to them, as they could hear it. <sup>34</sup> He did not speak to them without using a parable. However, in private He used to explain everything fully to His disciples.

Jesus’ stilling of a storm — Matthew 8:23-27, Luke 8:22-25

<sup>35</sup> That day, when evening came, Jesus said to His disciples, “Let us go over to the other side!”

<sup>36</sup> They left the crowd and took Him along in the boat just as He was. There were other boats with Him. <sup>37</sup> A violent windstorm came up, and the waves kept beating into the boat, so that the boat was already filling up. <sup>38</sup> Jesus was in the back of the boat, sleeping on the cushion. They woke Him and asked Him, “Teacher, do You not care that we are drowning?”

<sup>39</sup> When He had been wakened, He rebuked the wind and said to the sea, “Be quiet! Be silenced!”

The wind stopped, and it became very calm.

<sup>40</sup> He asked them, “Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

<sup>41</sup> They were very afraid and kept saying to one another, “Who is this, then, that even the wind and the sea obey Him?”

5

Jesus’ healing of a Gadarene demoniac — Matthew 8:28-34, Luke 8:26-39

<sup>1</sup> Then they went to the other side of the sea, to the region of the Gergesenes. <sup>2</sup> After Jesus had come out of the boat, a man with an unclean spirit immediately came out of the tombs to meet Him. <sup>3</sup> The man used to live in the tombs. No one could tie him up any longer, even with a chain. <sup>4</sup> For he had often been tied up with fetters and chains but had torn the chains apart and smashed the fetters, and no one was strong enough to subdue him. <sup>5</sup> Continually, by night and by day, he used to cry out in the tombs and in the mountains and beat himself with stones. <sup>6</sup> When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and bowed down before Him. <sup>7</sup> He shouted at the top of his voice, “What have I to do with You, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I implore You by God, do not torment me!”

<sup>8</sup> For Jesus had begun to tell him, “You unclean spirit, come out of the man!”

<sup>9</sup> Jesus asked him, “What is your name?”

He told Him, “My name is ‘Legion,’ because we are many.”

<sup>10</sup> He kept begging Jesus earnestly that He would not send them out of the area. <sup>11</sup> A large herd of pigs was feeding there near the mountain. <sup>12</sup> The demons begged Jesus, “Send us into the pigs! Let us go into them!”

<sup>13</sup> Jesus gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and went into the pigs; and the herd, about two thousand pigs, rushed down the cliff into the sea and drowned in the sea. <sup>14</sup> Those who used to take care of them ran away and reported it in the city and on the farms, and people came to see what had happened. <sup>15</sup> They came to Jesus and saw that the man who used to be possessed by the legion was sitting down, clothed and in his right mind and they were afraid. <sup>16</sup> Those who had seen it related to them what had happened to the man who used to be possessed by demons and told them about the pigs. <sup>17</sup> Then the people began to plead with Jesus to leave their region. <sup>18</sup> As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed kept begging Jesus that he might go with Him. <sup>19</sup> However, Jesus did not permit him but told him, “Go home to your people and report to them what great things the Lord has done for you and how He has had mercy on you!”

<sup>20</sup> The man went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis all that Jesus had done to him. They were all amazed.

Jesus’ healing of a woman who was continuously bleeding and His raising of the daughter of Jairus — Matthew 9:18-26, Luke 8:40-56

<sup>21</sup> After Jesus had crossed over again in the boat to the other side of the lake, a large crowd gathered around

Him while He was beside the lake. <sup>22</sup> Then one of the synagogue rulers, named Jairus, came. When he saw Jesus, he fell at His feet. <sup>23</sup> He pleaded earnestly with Jesus: “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay Your hands on her that she may be saved and live!”

<sup>24</sup> Jesus went with him. A large crowd was following Him and pressing around Him.

<sup>25</sup> There was a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years. <sup>26</sup> She had suffered much under the care of many doctors and had spent all that she had. She had not been helped at all but instead had become worse. <sup>27</sup> Since she had heard about Jesus, she came from behind in the crowd and touched His garment. <sup>28</sup> For she said, “If I only touch His clothes, I shall be made well.”

<sup>29</sup> Immediately the source of her haemorrhage dried up, and she was aware in her body that she had been healed from her affliction. <sup>30</sup> At once Jesus realised in Himself that power had gone out from Him. He turned around in the crowd and kept asking, “Who has touched My clothes?”

<sup>31</sup> His disciples kept saying to Him, “You see how the crowd is pressing around You, yet You ask, ‘Who has touched Me?’”

<sup>32</sup> However, He kept looking around to see the woman who had done this. <sup>33</sup> The woman, in fear and trembling, because she knew what had happened to her, came and fell before Him and told Him the whole truth.

<sup>34</sup> He told her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace! Be healed from your affliction!”

<sup>35</sup> While He was still speaking, some men came from the ruler of the synagogue and said, “Your daughter has died. Why do you trouble the Teacher any further?”

<sup>36</sup> Jesus disregarded the message that they were telling and told the ruler of the synagogue, “Stop being afraid! Only believe!”

<sup>37</sup> He did not allow anyone to go with Him except Peter, James and John, the brother of James. <sup>38</sup> When they came to the home of the ruler of the synagogue, Jesus saw a noisy crowd, with people weeping and wailing loudly. <sup>39</sup> When He had gone inside, He asked them, “Why do you go on making a commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but asleep.”

<sup>40</sup> They began to laugh at Him. However, He put them all outside, took with Him the child’s father and mother and those who were with Him and went in to where the child was. <sup>41</sup> He took the child’s hand and said to her, “Talitha, koum!” which means, “Little girl, I tell you, get up!”

<sup>42</sup> Immediately the girl stood up and walked around (she was twelve years old). At once they were completely astonished. <sup>43</sup> Jesus gave them strict orders that no one should find out about this and told them that something should be given to her to eat.

Jesus’ ministry in Galilee (6:1-9:50)

The rejection of Jesus at Nazareth — Matthew 13:54-58, Luke 4:16-30

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus went away from there and came to His hometown and His disciples followed Him. <sup>2</sup> When the Sabbath came, He began to teach in the synagogue. Many who heard Him were amazed. They asked, “Where did this Man get these things? What is this wisdom given to Him, that His hands are doing such miracles? <sup>3</sup> Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James, Joses, Judas and Simon? Are not His sisters also here with us?”

They took offence at Him.

<sup>4</sup> However, Jesus began to tell them, “A prophet is not without honour, except in his hometown, among his relatives and in his family.”

<sup>5</sup> He could not perform any miracle there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick people and healed them. <sup>6</sup> He was amazed at their unbelief. Then He went all around in the villages and taught.

Jesus’ sending out of the twelve — Matthew 10:1-42, Luke 9:1-6

<sup>7</sup> Jesus called the Twelve to Him, began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. <sup>8</sup> He commanded them to take nothing for the journey except a staff – no bread, no bag, no money in their belts, <sup>9</sup> but to wear sandals. He told them, “Do not put on two tunics!” <sup>10</sup> He also told them, “Wherever you go into a house, stay there until you leave that place! <sup>11</sup> Moreover, if any place does not welcome you or listen to you, leave that place and shake off the dust that is under your feet, as a testimony against them!”

<sup>12</sup> They went out and preached that people should repent. <sup>13</sup> They also drove out many demons and anointed many sick people with olive-oil and healed them.

Herod’s opinion about Jesus — Matthew 14:1-2, Luke 9:7-9

<sup>14</sup> King Herod heard about this. For Jesus’ name had become well known. Some people were saying, “John the Baptist has been raised from the dead, and that is why these miraculous powers are at work in Him.”

Others were saying, “He is a prophet, like one of the other prophets.”

<sup>16</sup> However, when Herod heard about it, he used to say, “John, the man whom I beheaded, has been raised.”

The death of John the Baptist — Matthew 14:3-12, Luke 3:19-20

<sup>17</sup> For Herod himself had sent some men, arrested John and bound him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, whom Herod had married.

<sup>18</sup> For John used to tell Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.” <sup>19</sup> Herodias held a grudge against John and wanted to kill him but could not do it, <sup>20</sup> because Herod was afraid of John. For he knew that John was a righteous and holy man and he kept protecting him. When he listened to John, he was greatly disturbed and yet he liked to hear him. <sup>21</sup> Then an opportune day came on Herod's birthday, when he made a dinner for his noblemen, his military officers and the leading men of Galilee. <sup>22</sup> When his daughter, that is, the daughter of Herodias, came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those who were sitting at table with him. The king told the girl, "Ask me for whatever you want! I shall give it to you."

<sup>23</sup> He solemnly swore to her: "I shall give you whatever you ask me for, up to half of my kingdom."

<sup>24</sup> She went out and asked her mother, "What am I to ask for?"

She answered, "The head of John the Baptist."

<sup>26</sup> Although the king became very sorry, yet, because of his oaths and because of those who were sitting at the table with him, he did not want to refuse her.

<sup>27</sup> Immediately the king sent an executioner and ordered him to bring John's head. He went and beheaded John in the prison, <sup>28</sup> brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. <sup>29</sup> When John's disciples heard this, they came and took away his body and laid it in a tomb.

The return of the twelve and Jesus' feeding of five thousand men — Matthew 14:13-21, Luke 9:10-17, John 6:1-14

<sup>30</sup> The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to Him everything that they had done and taught. <sup>31</sup> He told them, "Come away to a deserted place where you can be alone and rest a little!"

For so many people were coming and going that there was not even time to eat. <sup>32</sup> They went away in the boat to a deserted place to be alone. <sup>33</sup> However, many people who saw them leaving recognised them, ran there on foot from all the cities and arrived ahead of them. <sup>34</sup> When Jesus came out of the boat, He saw a large crowd and felt sorry for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. Then He began to teach them many things.

<sup>35</sup> When it was already late in the day, His disciples came to Him and began to say, "This is a deserted place, and it is already late. <sup>36</sup> Send them away, that they may go to the surrounding farms and villages and buy themselves something to eat!"

They asked Him, "Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread and give it to them to eat?"

<sup>38</sup> He asked them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and see!"

When they had found out, they said, "Five and two fish."

<sup>39</sup> He ordered them that they should all sit down in groups on the green grass. <sup>40</sup> So, they sat down in groups of hundreds and fifties. <sup>41</sup> After He had taken the five loaves and the two fish, He looked up to heaven and gave thanks. He broke the loaves apart and kept giving them to His disciples, that they might set them before the people. He also divided the two fish among them all. <sup>42</sup> They all had enough to eat. <sup>43</sup> They took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces of bread and the fish. <sup>44</sup> There were five thousand men who had eaten the bread.

Jesus' walking on the water — Matthew 14:22-33, John 6:15-21

<sup>45</sup> Immediately Jesus compelled His disciples to get into the boat and go on ahead of Him to the other side at Bethsaida, while He was sending the crowd away.

<sup>46</sup> After He had taken leave of them, He went away into the mountain to pray. <sup>47</sup> When evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and He was alone on the land. <sup>48</sup> When Jesus saw that they were having great trouble as they rowed, because the wind was against them, He came to them, about the fourth watch of the night, walking on the sea. He wanted to go past them. <sup>49</sup> When they saw Him walking on the sea, they thought that He was a ghost and cried out. <sup>50</sup> For they all saw Him and were terrified. However, He immediately spoke to them, "Be courageous! It is I. Stop being afraid!"

<sup>51</sup> Then He climbed into the boat with them, and the wind died down. They were altogether amazed in themselves. <sup>52</sup> For they had not understood about the loaves, but their hearts had been hardened.

Jesus' healings at Gennesaret — Matthew 14:34-36

<sup>53</sup> When they had crossed over, they came to the land at Gennesaret and anchored there. <sup>54</sup> When they had come out of the boat, people immediately recognised Him. <sup>55</sup> They ran all over that region and began to carry those who were sick on their stretchers to wherever they heard He was. <sup>56</sup> Wherever He went, into villages, cities or farms, people would lay down the sick in the market places. They begged Him that they might touch even the hem of His garment, and all who touched it were made well.

Jesus' comments about the tradition of the elders — Matthew 15:1-20, Luke 6:18-19

people honours Me with its lips, but its hearts are far from Me. <sup>7</sup> They worship Me in vain, since what they teach as doctrines are the commandments of men.’ <sup>8</sup> You have abandoned the Commandment of God but hold on to the tradition of men.”

<sup>9</sup> He told them: “You have a fine way of setting aside the Commandment of God to establish your own tradition! <sup>10</sup> For Moses said: ‘Honour your father and your mother!’ and ‘Let the person who speaks evil of father or mother be put to death!’ <sup>11</sup> However, you say, ‘If anyone says to his father or mother, “Anything by which I might have helped you is Corban (that is, a gift to God),”’ <sup>12</sup> then you do not let him do anything for his father or his mother any longer. <sup>13</sup> You make the Word of God of no effect by the tradition that you have handed down. You also do many other things like that.”

<sup>14</sup> When He had called the multitude to Himself again, He told them, “Listen to Me, all of you and understand this! <sup>15</sup> There is nothing that enters a person from outside that can defile him. Rather, the things that come out of a person are the things that defile a person.” *170

<sup>18</sup> He asked them, “Are you also so lacking in understanding? Do you not know that nothing that comes into a person from the outside can defile him, <sup>19</sup> because it does not go into his heart but into his stomach and goes out into the toilet?” — In saying this, Jesus declared all foods “clean.” — <sup>20</sup> He went on to say: “What comes out of a person is the thing that defiles him. <sup>21</sup> For from inside, out of people’s hearts, come evil thoughts, sexual sins, thefts, murders, <sup>22</sup> adulteries, sinful desires, greed, wickedness, cheating, shameless lust, a jealous eye, slander, pride and folly. <sup>23</sup> All these evils come from inside and ‘defile’ a person.”

Jesus’ healing of the daughter of the Syro-Phoenician woman — Matthew 15:21-31

<sup>24</sup> Jesus left that place and went away to the vicinity of Tyre. He went into a house and did not want anyone to know it but could not avoid being noticed. <sup>25</sup> Indeed, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about Him, came and fell at His feet. <sup>26</sup> The woman was a Greek, born in Syrian Phoenicia. She kept asking Jesus to cast the demon out of her daughter. <sup>27</sup> He answered her, “First let the children eat all they want! For it is not right to take the children’s bread and throw it to the pet-dogs.” <sup>28</sup> She answered Him, “Lord, even the pet-dogs under the table eat some of the children’s crumbs.”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus told her, “Because you have said this, go! The demon has gone out of your daughter.”

<sup>30</sup> When the woman went home, she found her little child lying on the bed and the demon gone.

Jesus’ healing of a man who was deaf and dumb — Matthew 15:29-31

Jesus’ feeding of the four thousand — Matthew 15:32-39, Luke 9:10-17

<sup>1</sup> During those days, when the crowd was again very large and since they had nothing to eat, Jesus called the disciples to Him and told them: <sup>2</sup> “I have compassion for the crowd, because they have been staying with Me for three days already and have nothing to eat. <sup>3</sup> If I send them away hungry, they will become exhausted on the road, and some of them have come from far away.”

<sup>6</sup> He ordered the crowd to sit down on the ground. Then He took the seven loaves, gave thanks, broke them and kept giving them to His disciples to set before them, and they set them before the crowd. <sup>7</sup> They also had a few small fish. He blessed them and told the disciples to set these also before them. <sup>8</sup> They had enough to eat. Then they picked up seven large baskets of broken pieces that were left over. <sup>9</sup> There were about four thousand people. Then He sent them away.

The Pharisees’ request to see a miraculous sign — Matthew 16:1-4, Luke 11:16-20

<sup>10</sup> Jesus immediately got into the boat with His disciples and went to the district of Dalmanutha. <sup>11</sup> The Pharisees came out and began to argue with Him. To test Him, they tried to get from Him a miraculous sign from heaven. <sup>12</sup> He sighed deeply in His spirit and said, “Why does this generation try to get a miraculous sign? Truly, I tell you, a miraculous sign will certainly not be given to this generation.”

Jesus’ warning about the yeast of the Pharisees — Matthew 16:5-12, Luke 12:1

away to the other side. <sup>14</sup> They had forgotten to bring bread and did not have anything with them in the boat except one loaf of bread. <sup>15</sup> Jesus ordered them, “Watch out! Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod!”

<sup>16</sup> They discussed this with one another and said, “It is because we have no bread.”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus knew it and asked them, “Why are you discussing about having no bread? Do you still not perceive or understand? Do you have hearts that have been hardened? <sup>18</sup> Do you have eyes but fail to see? Do you have ears but fail to hear? Do you not remember either? <sup>19</sup> When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?”

They answered Him, “Twelve.”

<sup>20</sup> “When I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets full of fragments did you take up?”

They answered Him, “Seven.”

<sup>21</sup> He asked them, “Do you still not understand?”

Jesus’ healing of a blind man of Bethsaida

<sup>22</sup> They went to Bethsaida. People brought a blind man to Jesus and begged Him to touch him. <sup>23</sup> He took hold of the blind man’s hand and led him outside of the village. Then He spat on the man’s eyes and laid His hands on him. Jesus asked him, “Do you see anything?”

<sup>24</sup> He looked up and kept saying, “I see people. I see that they are like trees and walking around.”

<sup>25</sup> Then Jesus again laid His hands on the man’s eyes, and he saw distinctly. He was completely restored and saw everything clearly. <sup>26</sup> Jesus sent him home, saying, “Do not even go into the village!”

Peter’s confession at Caesarea Philippi — Matthew 16:13-20, Luke 9:18-21

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus went away with His disciples to the villages around Caesarea Philippi. On the way He asked His disciples, “Who do people say I am?”

<sup>29</sup> He asked them, “You, however, who do you say I am?”

Peter answered Him, “You are the Christ!”

<sup>30</sup> He strictly warned them not to tell anyone about Him.

Jesus’ first explicit prediction of His passion — Matthew 16:21-23, Luke 9:22

<sup>31</sup> Then Jesus began to teach them that it was necessary for the Son of Man to suffer greatly, to be rejected by the elders, Chief Priests and scribes, to be killed and, after three days, to rise again. <sup>32</sup> He was speaking frankly about this, and Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him. <sup>33</sup> However, Jesus turned around, looked at His disciples and rebuked Peter, saying, “Get behind Me, Satan! For you do not have in mind the things of God but the things of men.”

The conditions for being a disciple — Matthew 16:24-28, Luke 9:23-27

<sup>34</sup> When He had called the crowd to Him together with His disciples, He told them: “If anyone wants to follow Me, let him deny himself, take up his cross and follow Me! <sup>35</sup> For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; but whoever will lose his life for My sake and for the sake of the Good News will save it. <sup>36</sup> For what good does it do a person to gain the whole world and yet lose his own soul? <sup>37</sup> For what is a person to give in exchange for his soul? <sup>38</sup> For, if anyone is ashamed of Me and of My Words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He comes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels.”

9

<sup>1</sup> Jesus went on to tell them, “Truly, I tell you that there are some of those standing here who will certainly not taste death until they see that the kingdom of God has come with power.”

Jesus’ Transfiguration — Matthew 17:1-8, Luke 9:28-36

<sup>2</sup> After six days Jesus took Peter, James and John with Him and led them up onto a high mountain, by themselves and alone. He was transfigured before them, <sup>3</sup> and His clothes became dazzling and very white, whiter than any launderer on earth could bleach them.

<sup>4</sup> Then Elijah appeared to them together with Moses, and they began to talk with Jesus.

<sup>5</sup> Then Peter said to Jesus, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let us make three Tabernacles, one for You, one for Moses and one for Elijah!”

<sup>6</sup> For he did not know what to say, because they had become very afraid. <sup>7</sup> Then a cloud came and overshadowed them, and a voice came out of the cloud: “This is My Son, whom I love. Listen to Him!”

<sup>8</sup> Suddenly, as they looked around, they did not see anyone with them any longer except Jesus only.

<sup>9</sup> While they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus ordered them not to tell anyone what they had seen until the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

Jesus’ explanation about the predicted coming of Elijah — Matthew 17:10-13, Luke 9:37

<sup>10</sup> They kept this saying to themselves but continued to discuss what “rising from the dead” meant. <sup>11</sup> They asked Him, “Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?”

<sup>12</sup> Jesus told them, “Indeed, Elijah is coming first and restores all things. How, then, has Scripture spoken concerning the Son of Man, that He must suffer much and be treated with contempt? <sup>13</sup> However, I tell you that Elijah has come, and people have done to him whatever they have wished, just as Scripture has said concerning him.”

Jesus’ healing of an epileptic boy with a demon — Matthew 17:14-20, Luke 9:37-43a

<sup>14</sup> When they came back to the other disciples, they saw a large crowd around them and scribes arguing with them. <sup>15</sup> As soon as the whole crowd saw Jesus, they were amazed and ran to Him and greeted Him.

16 He asked them, “What are you discussing with them?”

17 Someone in the crowd answered, “Teacher, I brought to You my son, who has a spirit who has robbed him of speech. 18 Wherever it takes hold of him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, gnashes his teeth and becomes rigid. I asked Your disciples to cast the spirit out, but they could not.”

19 Jesus answered them, “O faithless generation! How long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to Me!”

20 They brought the boy to Him. When the spirit saw Jesus, it immediately threw the boy into a convulsion. He fell to the ground, rolled around and foamed at the mouth.

21 Jesus asked his father, “How long has this been happening to him?”

He said, “Since he has been a child. 22 It has often thrown him into fire or into water to destroy him. Nevertheless, if You are at all able, have compassion on us and help us!”

23 Jesus answered him, “With reference to ‘If You are able’ — all things are possible for him who believes.”

24 Immediately the child’s father cried out, “I believe. Help my unbelief!”

25 When Jesus saw that a crowd was running together towards Him, He rebuked the unclean spirit: “You speechless and deaf spirit, I command you, ‘Come out of him and do not go into him again!’”

26 It cried out, convulsed him violently and came out. The boy became like a corpse, so that most of them were saying, “He has died.”

27 However, Jesus took hold of his hand and lifted him up, and he stood up. 28 After Jesus had gone into a house, His disciples asked Him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?”

29 He told them, “This kind cannot be driven out by any means except by prayer.”

Jesus’ second explicit prediction of His passion — Matthew 17:22-23, Luke 9:43b-45

30 They left that place and were passing through Galilee, and Jesus did not want anyone to know about it.

31 For He was teaching His disciples and telling them: “The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill Him, but, after He has been killed, He will rise on the third day.”

32 They did not understand what He said and were afraid to ask Him.

A dispute among the disciples about greatness — Matthew 18:1-5, Luke 9:46-48

33 Then they came to Capernaum. When He had come into the house, He asked them, “What were you discussing on the road?”

34 They kept quiet. For on the road they had been discussing who the greatest was. 35 Jesus sat down and called the Twelve. He told them, “If anyone wants to be the first, he must be the last of all and the servant of all!”

36 He took a little child and set him among them. He put His arms around him and told them, 37 “Whoever welcomes one of the little children like this one in My name welcomes Me. Whoever welcomes Me welcomes not Me but the One who has sent Me.”

Jesus’ comment about an exorcist who did not belong to the twelve — Luke 9:49-50

38 John told Jesus, “Teacher, we saw someone who is not one of us driving out demons in Your name. We tried to stop him because he was not one of us.”

39 Jesus said, “Do not try to stop him! For no one who works a miracle in My name will be able soon afterwards to speak evil of Me. 40 For he who is not against us is for us. 41 For truly, I tell you, whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because of your name as followers of Christ will certainly not lose his reward.

Jesus’ warning about causing others to stumble — Matthew 18:6-10, Luke 17:1-2

42 “If anyone causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for him if a heavy millstone were put around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea. 43 If your hand causes you to sin, cut it off! It is better for you to enter life maimed than to go into hell with two hands, into the fire that will never be put out. *171 45 If your foot causes you to sin, cut it off! It is better for you to enter life crippled than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. *172 47 If your eye causes you to sin, pluck it out! It is better for you to enter the kingdom of God with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell, 48 where their worm does not die, and the fire is not put out.

Jesus’ comparison about salt — Luke 14:34-35

49 “For everyone will be salted with fire. 50 Salt is good. However, if salt loses its saltiness, how will you make it taste salty again? Have salt in yourselves and be at peace with one another!”

Jesus’ Words and Works before His passion (10:1-13:37)

Jesus’ instruction about marriage and divorce — Matthew 19:1-12, Luke 16:18

1 Jesus left that place and went into the territory of Judea and to the other side of the Jordan, and crowds gathered around Him again. As was His custom, He began to teach them again. 2 Some Pharisees came to Him and asked Him, to test Him, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?”

3 He answered them by asking, “What has Moses commanded you?”

4 They said, “Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce and divorce her.”

5 Jesus told them, “It was because your hearts were hard that he wrote this Commandment for you.

6 However, at the beginning of creation God made them male and female.’<sup>7</sup> ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife,’<sup>8</sup> and the two will become one flesh.’ Therefore, they are no longer two but one flesh.<sup>9</sup> Therefore, no person should separate what God has joined together!”

<sup>10</sup> When they were in the house again, the disciples asked Jesus about this. <sup>11</sup> He answered them, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her. <sup>12</sup> If a wife divorces her husband and marries another man, she also commits adultery.”

Jesus’ reception of little children — Matthew 19:13-15, Luke 18:15-17

<sup>13</sup> People were bringing little children to Jesus that He might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. <sup>14</sup> However, when Jesus saw this, He was indignant. He told them, “Allow the little children to come to Me and stop forbidding them! For the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. <sup>15</sup> Truly, I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child does will certainly not enter it.”

Jesus’ answer to a rich young leader’s question — Matthew 19:16-30, Luke 18:18-30

<sup>17</sup> As Jesus was going out onto the road, a man came running to Him and fell on his knees before Him. He asked Him, “Good Teacher, what am I to do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>18</sup> Jesus asked him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good except One, that is, God. <sup>19</sup> You know the Commandments: ‘Do not murder,’ ‘Do not commit adultery,’ ‘Do not steal,’ ‘Do not give false testimony,’ ‘Do not defraud,’ ‘Honour your father and mother!’”

<sup>20</sup> He told Him, “Teacher, I have kept all these since I was a child.”

<sup>21</sup> Jesus looked straight at him and loved him. He told him, “You lack one thing, Go, sell everything you have and give to the poor! You will have treasure in heaven. Then come here and follow Me!”

<sup>22</sup> He looked gloomy when he heard that and went away sad, because he had great wealth. <sup>23</sup> Jesus looked around and said to His disciples, “How hard it will be for those who are rich to enter the kingdom of God!”

<sup>26</sup> They were extremely amazed. They asked one another, “Who then can be saved?”

<sup>27</sup> Jesus looked straight at them and said: “With men it is impossible but not with God. For with God all things are possible.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Peter began to say to Him: “Look! We have left everything and followed You.”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus said, “Truly, I tell you, there is no one who has left his house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or fields for My sake and for the sake of the Gospel, <sup>30</sup> who will fail to receive a hundred times as much, now, in this time, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and fields, with persecutions and, in the coming age, eternal life. <sup>31</sup> However, many who are first will be last, and the last first.”

Jesus’ third explicit prediction of His passion — Matthew 20:17-28, Luke 18:31-34

<sup>32</sup> They were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going ahead of them. The disciples were amazed, and the others who were following Him were afraid. Then He again took the Twelve aside and began to tell them the things that were going to happen to Him: <sup>33</sup> “Look! We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the Chief Priests and the scribes. They will condemn Him to death and will hand Him over to the Gentiles. <sup>34</sup> They will mock Him and spit on Him, flog Him and kill Him, and after three days He will rise.”

The request of the sons of Zebedee for prominent positions in Jesus’ kingdom — Matthew 20:20-28, Luke 9:48b

<sup>35</sup> James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came to Him. They told Him, “Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask.”

<sup>36</sup> He asked them, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

<sup>38</sup> Jesus told them, “You do not realise what you are requesting. Can you drink the cup that I drink or be baptised with the baptism with which I am baptised?”

Jesus told them, “You will drink the cup that I drink and be baptised with the baptism with which I am baptised, <sup>40</sup> but sitting at My right or at My left is not Mine to grant but is for those for whom it has been prepared.”

<sup>41</sup> When the other ten heard about it, they began to be angry with James and John. <sup>42</sup> Then Jesus summoned them and told them, “You know that those who are regarded as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them.

<sup>43</sup> However, it is not like that among you, but whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, <sup>44</sup> and whoever wants to be first among you must be the slave of all! <sup>45</sup> For even the Son of Man has not come to be served but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Jesus’ healing of blind Bartimaeus — Matthew 20:29-34, Luke 18:35-43

<sup>46</sup> Then they came to Jericho. As Jesus and His disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. <sup>47</sup> When he heard that it was Jesus from Nazareth, he began to shout, “Son of David, Jesus, have mercy on me!”

<sup>48</sup> Many people kept urging him to be quiet. Instead, he shouted much louder, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>49</sup> Jesus stopped and said, “Call him!”

Then they called the blind man and told him, “Cheer up! Get up! He is calling you.”

<sup>50</sup> He threw aside his outer garment, jumped up and went to Jesus. <sup>51</sup> Jesus asked him, “What do you want Me to do for you?”

The blind man told Him, “Rabboni, I want to see again.”

<sup>52</sup> Jesus told him, “Go! Your faith has saved you.”

Immediately he could see again and began to follow Jesus on the road.

Jesus' entry into Jerusalem — Matthew 21:1-9, Luke 19:28-38, John 12:12-19

<sup>1</sup> When they were approaching Jerusalem and came to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of His disciples. <sup>2</sup> He told them, “Go into the village ahead of you! Just as you enter it, you will find a colt tied up, on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here! <sup>3</sup> If anybody asks you, ‘Why are you doing that?’ say, ‘The Lord needs it!’ Then that person will promptly send it back here.”

<sup>4</sup> They went and found a colt tied at a doorway, outside in the street and began to untie it. <sup>5</sup> Some of the people standing there asked them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?”

<sup>6</sup> They answered them just as Jesus had told them, and the people let them go. <sup>7</sup> They brought the colt to Jesus, put their cloaks over it, and He sat on it. <sup>8</sup> Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others cut down leafy branches from the fields and spread them on the road. <sup>9</sup> Those who went ahead and those who followed Him kept shouting: “Hosanna! Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord! <sup>10</sup> Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David! Hosanna in the highest!”

Jesus' appearance at the Temple and His return to Bethany — Matthew 21:12-17, Luke 10:45-46

<sup>11</sup> Jesus entered Jerusalem and went into the Temple. He looked around at everything. Since it was already late, He went out to Bethany with the Twelve.

Jesus' cursing of the fig tree — Matthew 21:18-19

<sup>12</sup> On the next day, after they had left Bethany, Jesus became hungry. <sup>13</sup> He saw in the distance a fig tree with leaves and went to see if He would perhaps find something on it. When He came to it, He found nothing but leaves. For it was not the season for figs.

<sup>14</sup> Jesus reacted by saying to it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again!” His disciples heard Him.

Jesus' clearing of the Temple — Matthew 21:12-17, Luke 19:45-48

<sup>15</sup> When they had come to Jerusalem Jesus went into the Temple and began to drive out those who were selling and buying in the Temple. He overturned the tables of the moneychangers and the chairs of those who were selling doves. <sup>16</sup> He would not allow anyone to carry any object through the Temple. <sup>17</sup> Then He began to teach them: “Has not Scripture said, ‘My House will be called a house of prayer for all the nations’? However, you have made it ‘a den of robbers.’”

<sup>18</sup> When the Chief Priests and scribes heard this, they began to look for a way to destroy Him. For they were afraid of Him, because the whole crowd was astonished at His teaching. <sup>19</sup> Whenever evening came, they used to go out of the city.

The meaning of the withered fig tree — Matthew 21:18-22

<sup>20</sup> When they were walking past early in the morning, they saw that the fig tree had withered from the roots.

<sup>21</sup> Peter remembered and said to Jesus, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree that you cursed has withered.”

<sup>22</sup> Jesus answered them, “Have faith in God. <sup>23</sup> Truly, I tell you, if anyone says to this mountain, ‘Be lifted up and be thrown into the sea!’ and does not doubt in his heart but believes that what he is saying is happening, it will be done for him. <sup>24</sup> Therefore, I tell you, believe that you have received all the things that you pray for and ask for and you will have them.

<sup>25</sup> Whenever you stand and pray, if you hold anything against anyone, forgive him, that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses!” *173

Jesus' response to a question about His authority — Matthew 21:23-27, Luke 20:1-8

<sup>27</sup> They came to Jerusalem again. While Jesus was walking in the Temple, the Chief Priests, the scribes and the elders came to Him. <sup>28</sup> They asked Him, “By what authority are You doing these things? Or who has given You this authority, that you are doing these things?”

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered them, “I shall ask you one question. Answer me! Then I shall tell you by what authority I am doing these things. <sup>30</sup> Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men? Answer Me!”

<sup>31</sup> They began to discuss it among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will ask, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’ <sup>32</sup> However, if we say, ‘From men’ —” For they were afraid of the crowd, because they all considered that John had certainly been a prophet.

Then Jesus told them, “Neither do I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

12

Jesus' parable about the wicked tenant-farmers — Matthew 21:33-46, Luke 20:9-19

seized him, beat him and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>4</sup> Again, he sent another servant to them, and they hit him on the head and treated him shamefully. <sup>5</sup> Then he sent another, and they killed that one. He sent many others. They beat some and killed others. <sup>6</sup> He had one more, a son, whom he loved. He sent him to them last of all, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

<sup>7</sup> "However, those tenant-farmers said to one another, 'This is the heir. Come here, let us kill him! Then the inheritance will be ours.'

<sup>8</sup> "They took him, killed him and threw him out of the vineyard. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, what will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come, destroy the tenant-farmers and give the vineyard to others. <sup>10</sup> Have you not read this Scripture-passage: 'The Stone that the builders rejected has become the Cornerstone. <sup>11</sup> This has been done by the Lord, and it is marvellous in our eyes'?"

<sup>12</sup> They looked for a way to arrest Him and yet they were afraid of the crowd. For they knew that He had told the parable against them. They left Him and went away.

Jesus' answer to a question about paying tax to Caesar — Matthew 22:15-22, Luke 20:20-26

<sup>13</sup> Then they sent some of the Pharisees and some of the Herodians to Jesus to catch Him in His Words.

<sup>14</sup> They came to Him and said to Him, "Teacher, we know that You are true and that You do not court anyone's favour. For You do not regard the person of human beings but teach the Way of God in accordance with the truth. Is it lawful to pay tax to Caesar or not? Are we to pay it or are we not to pay it?"

<sup>15</sup> However, He was aware of their pretence and asked them, "Why are you testing Me? Bring Me a denarius that I may see it!"

<sup>16</sup> They brought one, and He asked them, "Whose image is this, and whose inscription?"

They said to Him, "Caesar's."

<sup>17</sup> Jesus told them, "Pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's!"

Then they were amazed at Him.

Jesus' answer to a question of the Sadducees about the resurrection — Matthew 22:23-33, Luke 20:27-40

<sup>18</sup> Then Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked Him, <sup>19</sup> "Teacher, Moses has written for us that, if someone's brother dies and leaves behind a wife but no child, as the dead man's brother he should marry the woman and raise up offspring for his brother. <sup>20</sup> There were seven brothers. The first married a woman and, when he died, he left no children. <sup>21</sup> The second married her and died and left no children, and so did the third. <sup>22</sup> None of the seven left any children. Last of all, the woman also died. <sup>23</sup> In the resurrection, when people rise, which of them will have her as his wife? For the seven had her as a wife."

<sup>24</sup> Jesus asked them, "Is not this the reason why you are mistaken, that you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God? <sup>25</sup> For, when people rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage but are like the angels in heaven. <sup>26</sup> Now, concerning the dead, that they are raised, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the passage about the bush, how God told him: 'I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob'? <sup>27</sup> He is not the God of the dead but of the living. You are greatly mistaken."

Jesus' response about the greatest commandments, love of God and of the neighbour — Matthew 22:34-40

<sup>28</sup> One of the scribes came to Him. When he heard them arguing and saw that Jesus had been answering them well, he asked Him, "Which Commandment is the first of them all?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered, "The first one is: 'Hear, Israel, the Lord, our God, the Lord is one, <sup>30</sup> and you shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength!' <sup>31</sup> The second one is this: 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself!' There is no other Commandment greater than these."

<sup>32</sup> The scribe said to Him, "Well said, Teacher! You have told the truth in saying that He is one and that there is no other besides Him. <sup>33</sup> Loving Him with all one's heart, with all one's understanding and with all one's strength and loving one's neighbour as oneself is also more than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices."

<sup>34</sup> When Jesus saw that he had answered sensibly, He told him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God."

After that, no one dared to ask Him another question.

Jesus' question to the Pharisees about David's Son — Matthew 22:41-46, Luke 20:41-44

<sup>35</sup> While Jesus was teaching in the Temple, He asked, "How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David? <sup>36</sup> David himself said by the Holy Spirit, 'The Lord said to my Lord: "Sit at My right hand until I put Your enemies under Your feet!"'"

<sup>37</sup> David himself calls Him 'Lord'. Then how is He his son?"

The large crowd used to enjoy listening to Him.

Jesus' warnings about the scribes — Matthew 23:1-12, Luke 20:45-47

<sup>38</sup> As Jesus was teaching, He said, "Beware of the scribes, who want to walk around in long robes, to be greeted in the marketplaces, <sup>39</sup> to sit in the chief seats in synagogues and to have the best places at dinners! <sup>40</sup> They devour widows' houses and, to put on a good appearance, they make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

Jesus' comment about a widow's coins — Luke 21:1-4

<sup>41</sup> As Jesus sat facing the contribution box, He was watching how the crowd was putting money into the contribution box. Many rich people were putting in large amounts. <sup>42</sup> A poor widow also came and put in two small copper coins, which make a quadrans. <sup>43</sup> He summoned His disciples and told them, "Truly, I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all the others who were putting money into the contribution box.

<sup>44</sup> For they all have put in out of their abundance, but she out of her poverty has put in all that she had, everything she had to live on.”

13

Jesus' prediction of the destruction of the Temple — Matthew 24:1-3, Luke 21:5-7

<sup>2</sup> Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Truly, not one stone will be left on another. Each one will be thrown down.”

<sup>3</sup> As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, opposite the Temple, Peter, James, John and Andrew asked Him privately: <sup>4</sup> “Tell us when these things will happen and what the miraculous sign will be when all these things are going to be fulfilled!”

The signs of the kingdom — Matthew 24:4-8, Luke 21:8-11

<sup>5</sup> Jesus began to tell them, “Beware that no one deceives you! <sup>6</sup> Many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and will deceive many. <sup>7</sup> When you hear about wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed! Such things must happen, but that is not yet the end.

<sup>8</sup> For one nation will rise against another nation, and one kingdom against another kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines. These things are the beginning of birth-pains.

The beginning of the troubles — Matthew 24:9-14, Luke 21:12-19

<sup>9</sup> “Nevertheless, watch out for yourselves! For they will hand you over to councils, and you will be beaten in the synagogues. You will be brought before governors and kings for My sake, to testify to them. <sup>10</sup> The Good News must also first be preached to all nations.

<sup>11</sup> When they are taking you away to hand you over, do not worry beforehand about what to say! Instead, say whatever is given you at that time! For you are not the ones who are speaking, but the Holy Spirit. <sup>12</sup> A brother will betray his brother to death, and a father his child. Children will rebel against their parents and cause them to be put to death. <sup>13</sup> All people will also hate you because of My name. However, he who endures to the end will be saved.

A prediction about the devastating abomination — Matthew 24:15-22, Luke 21:20-24

<sup>14</sup> “When you see ‘the devastating abomination’ standing where it should not be (let the reader understand!), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains! <sup>15</sup> He who is on the roof of his house should not come down or go inside to get anything out of his house! <sup>16</sup> He who is in the field should not return to get his cloak! <sup>17</sup> How terrible for the women who are pregnant and to those who are breast-feeding in those days! <sup>18</sup> Pray that it will not happen during winter! <sup>19</sup> For in those days there will be such distress as has not happened from the beginning of the world, which God created, until now and will certainly not happen again. <sup>20</sup> Moreover, if the Lord had not shortened those days, no human being would have been saved. However, because of the elect, whom He has chosen, He has shortened the days.

The culmination of the troubles — Matthew 24:23-25, Luke 17:21

<sup>21</sup> “Then if anyone tells you, ‘Look! Here is the Christ,’ or ‘Look! There He is,’ do not believe it!

<sup>22</sup> For false christs and false prophets will appear and offer miraculous signs and wonders, to deceive the elect, if that were possible. <sup>23</sup> However, as for you, be on your guard! I have told you everything in advance.

The coming of the Son of Man — Matthew 24:29-31, Luke 21:25-28

<sup>24</sup> “However, in those days, after that distress, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light. <sup>25</sup> The stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. <sup>26</sup> Then people will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. <sup>27</sup> Then He will send the angels and gather His elect from the four winds, from the farthest part of earth to the farthest part of heaven.

Jesus' parable about the fig tree — Matthew 24:32-33, Luke 21:29-31

<sup>28</sup> “Learn this parable from the fig tree! When its branch has already become tender and puts out leaves, you know the summer is near. <sup>29</sup> So also, when you see these things happening, you know He is near, at the doors.

The certainty of Jesus' Words and the time of His coming — Matthew 24:34-36, Luke 21:32-33

<sup>30</sup> “Truly, I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until these things all take place. <sup>31</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but My Words will certainly not pass away.

<sup>32</sup> “No one knows about that day or hour, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

The conclusion of Jesus' eschatological discourse — Matthew 24:42, Luke 12:38-40

14

Jesus' passion and resurrection (14:1-16:8)

The plot of the Jews to put Jesus to death — Matthew 26:1-5, Luke 22:1-2, John 11:45-57

<sup>1</sup> It was two days before the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The Chief Priests and the scribes were looking for a way to arrest Jesus in an underhand manner and kill Him. <sup>2</sup> For they were saying, “Not during the feast, to avoid a riot among the people!”

Mary's anointing of Jesus at Bethany — Matthew 26:6-13, John 12:1-8

the leper and was reclining at the table, a woman came with an alabaster jar of perfume, pure nard and very expensive. She broke the alabaster jar and poured the perfume on His head. <sup>4</sup> Some people were saying indignantly to one another, “Why has the perfume been wasted like this? <sup>5</sup> For this perfume could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and the money given to the poor.”

They also scolded her. <sup>6</sup> Jesus said, “Leave her alone! Why are you bothering her? She has done a beautiful thing to Me. <sup>7</sup> For you always have the poor with you and can do good to them whenever you want to but do not always have Me. <sup>8</sup> She has done what she could. She has put perfume on My body in advance for My burial. <sup>9</sup> Truly, I tell you, wherever the Good News is preached in the entire world, what this woman has done will also be told in memory of her.”

Judas' plan to betray Jesus — Matthew 26:14-16, Luke 22:3-6

<sup>10</sup> Then Judas Iscariot, one of the Twelve, went to the Chief Priests to betray Jesus to them. <sup>11</sup> When they heard this, they were delighted and promised to give him money. He kept trying to find a convenient way of betraying Him.

The preparation for the Passover — Matthew 26:17-20, Luke 22:7-17

<sup>12</sup> On the first day of the Feast of Unleavened Bread, when people used to kill the Passover lamb, the disciples asked Jesus, “Where do You want us to go and prepare for You to eat the Passover?”

<sup>13</sup> He sent two of His disciples and told them: “Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him! <sup>14</sup> Where he goes inside, tell the owner: ‘The Teacher asks, “Where is My guest-room, in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?”’ <sup>15</sup> Then he will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Prepare for us there!”

Jesus' prediction of His betrayal — Matthew 26:21-25, Luke 22:21-23, John 13:21-30

<sup>18</sup> While they were reclining at the table and eating, Jesus said, “Truly, I tell you, one of you, one who is eating with Me, will betray Me!”

<sup>19</sup> They began to be sad and to ask Him one after another, “I am not the one, am I?”

<sup>20</sup> He told them, “It is one of the Twelve, the one who is dipping into the bowl with Me. <sup>21</sup> For the Son of Man is going away as Scripture has said about Him, but how terrible for that man by whom the Son of Man is being betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had never been born.”

The institution of the Lord's Supper — Matthew 26:26-30, Luke 22:18-20, I Corinthians 11:23-25

<sup>22</sup> While they were eating, Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it, gave it to them and said, “Take it! This is My body.”

<sup>23</sup> Then He took a cup, gave thanks and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. <sup>24</sup> He told them, “This is My blood of the Covenant, which is poured out for many. <sup>25</sup> Truly, I tell you, I shall certainly not drink of the fruit of the vine any longer until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God.”

The way to Gethsemane and Jesus' prediction of Peter's denials — Matthew 26:30-35, Luke 22:30, John 13:36-38

<sup>26</sup> After they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

<sup>27</sup> Then Jesus told them, “You will all fall away. For Scripture has said, ‘I shall strike down the Shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.’ <sup>28</sup> However, after I have been raised, I shall go ahead of you to Galilee.”

<sup>29</sup> However, Peter said to Him, “Even if they are all going to fall away, yet I shall not.”

<sup>30</sup> Jesus told him, “Truly, I tell you, today, this very night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.”

<sup>31</sup> However, he kept insisting strongly, “If I must die with You, I shall certainly not deny You.”

All the others also kept speaking like that.

Jesus' prayer in Gethsemane — Matthew 26:36-46, Luke 22:39-46

<sup>32</sup> Then they came to a place that had the name “Gethsemane,” and Jesus told His disciples, “Sit down here while I pray!”

<sup>33</sup> He took Peter, James and John with Him and began to be deeply distressed and troubled. <sup>34</sup> He told them, “My soul is very sad, to the point of death. Remain here and be watchful!”

<sup>35</sup> He went forward a little, fell to the ground and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him. <sup>36</sup> He was saying, “Abba! Father! All things are possible for You. Take this cup away from Me! Nevertheless, not what I want but what You want!”

<sup>37</sup> Then He came and found them sleeping. He asked Peter, “Simon, are you sleeping? Could you not be watchful for one hour? <sup>38</sup> Be watchful and pray, that you may not begin to be tempted! The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

<sup>39</sup> Then He went away again and prayed, saying the same words. <sup>40</sup> He came again and found them sleeping. For their eyes were heavy, and they did not know what to answer Him. <sup>41</sup> Then He came a third time and asked them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough. The hour has come. Look! The Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>42</sup> Get up! Let us go! Look! The one who is betraying Me has arrived.”

The arrest of Jesus — Matthew 26:47-56, Luke 22:47-54a, John 18:1-14

<sup>43</sup> Just then, while Jesus was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived. With him there was a crowd with swords and clubs, from the Chief Priests, the scribes and the elders. <sup>44</sup> The man who was betraying Him had given them a signal. He told them, “The One whom I kiss is the One. Arrest Him and lead Him away securely!”

<sup>45</sup> When he came, he immediately went up to Jesus and said, “Rabbi,” and kissed Him. <sup>46</sup> Then the men took hold of Jesus and arrested Him. <sup>47</sup> A certain one of those who were standing near drew his sword, struck the Chief Priest’s servant and cut off his ear.

<sup>48</sup> Jesus answered them, “Have you come out to capture Me as if you were coming against a robber, with swords and clubs? <sup>49</sup> Every day I was with you while I was teaching in the Temple, and you did not arrest Me. However, let the Scriptures be fulfilled!”

Jesus’ first trial before the Jewish court — Matthew 26:57-68

<sup>53</sup> The men led Jesus away to the Chief Priest and all the Chief Priests, the elders and the scribes assembled.

<sup>54</sup> Peter followed Him at a distance, right into the courtyard of the Chief Priest. He was sitting with the servants and warming himself at the fire. <sup>55</sup> The Chief Priests and the whole Jewish council were trying to find some evidence against Jesus to put Him to death but could not find any. <sup>56</sup> For many were testifying falsely against Him, but their statements in evidence did not agree. <sup>57</sup> Then some men stood up and gave this false testimony against Him: <sup>58</sup> “We heard Him saying, ‘I shall destroy this Temple, made with hands; and in three days I shall build another not made with hands.’” <sup>59</sup> However, even on this point their evidence did not agree.

<sup>60</sup> Then the Chief Priest stood up in the middle and asked Jesus, “Are You not answering at all? What is it that these men are testifying against You?”

<sup>61</sup> However, Jesus remained silent and did not answer at all. The Chief Priest asked Him again, “Are You the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?”

<sup>62</sup> Jesus said, “I am, and you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming with the clouds of heaven.”

<sup>63</sup> Then the Chief Priest tore his clothes and said, “Why do we need witnesses any longer? <sup>64</sup> You have heard the blasphemy. What is your opinion?” They all condemned Him, saying that He deserved to die. <sup>65</sup> Then some men began to spit at Him, cover His face, strike Him with their fists and say to Him, “Prophecy!” The attendants also gave Him blows.

Peter’s denials of Jesus — Matthew 26:69-75, Luke 22:54b-62, John 18:15-18, 25-27

<sup>68</sup> However, he denied it, saying: “I neither know nor understand what you are saying.” He went outside to the forecourt, and a rooster crowed. <sup>69</sup> When the servant girl saw him, she again began to tell those who were standing around, “This is one of them!”

<sup>70</sup> However, he denied it again. After a little while, those who were standing near began to say to Peter again, “In fact you are one of them. For you are a Galilean.”

<sup>71</sup> However, he began to curse and swear: “I do not know this Man, about whom you are talking.”

<sup>72</sup> Immediately a rooster crowed a second time. Then Peter remembered the Words that Jesus had told him: “Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny Me three times.”

Then he began to weep.

An early-morning meeting of the Jewish council — Matthew 27:1-2, Luke 23:1, John 18:28-38

<sup>1</sup> Very early in the morning, the Chief Priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council. They bound Jesus, led Him away and handed Him over to Pilate.

Jesus’ trial before Pilate — Matthew 27:11-14, Luke 23:2-5

<sup>2</sup> Pilate then asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

Jesus answered him, “Yes, it is as you say.”

<sup>4</sup> Pilate asked Him again, “Are You making no reply at all? See how many things about which they are accusing You!”

<sup>5</sup> However, Jesus still answered nothing, so that Pilate was amazed.

The choice between Jesus and Barabbas and the sentencing of Jesus to death — Matthew 27:15-26, Luke 23:17-25, John 18:39-40

<sup>6</sup> At every festival Pilate used to release a prisoner whom the people requested. <sup>7</sup> There was a man by the name of Barabbas. He had been in prison with the rebels who had committed a murder in the rebellion.

<sup>8</sup> The crowd came up and began to ask Pilate to do as he usually did for them. <sup>9</sup> Pilate answered them by asking, “Do you want me to release ‘the King of the Jews’ for you?”

<sup>10</sup> For he knew that the Chief Priests had handed Jesus over because they were jealous. <sup>11</sup> The Chief Priests stirred up the crowd, that Pilate might release Barabbas to them instead. <sup>12</sup> Pilate again asked them, “Therefore, what am I to do with the One whom you call ‘the King of the Jews’?”

However, they shouted even louder, “Crucify Him!”

<sup>15</sup> Then Pilate, wanting to satisfy the people, released Barabbas to them but scourged Jesus and handed Him over to be crucified.

The soldiers’ mockery of Jesus — Matthew 27:27-31, Luke 23:26

<sup>16</sup> The soldiers took Him away into the palace (that is, the Praetorium) and called together the whole company of soldiers. <sup>17</sup> They put a purple robe on Him, twisted together a crown of thorns, put it on Him,

<sup>18</sup> and began to greet Him: “Welcome, King of the Jews!” <sup>19</sup> They kept hitting Him on the head with a stick, spitting on Him, kneeling down and paying homage to Him.

<sup>20</sup> After they had mocked Him, they took off the purple robe and put His own clothes on Him. Then they led Him out to crucify Him.

The road to Calvary — Matthew 27:32, Luke 23:26-32

<sup>21</sup> A certain man, Simon from Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, was going past as he was coming in from the country, and they forced him to carry Jesus’ cross.

The crucifixion of Jesus — Matthew 27:33-44, Luke 23:33-43, John 19:16b-24

<sup>22</sup> They took Jesus to the place called “Golgotha,” which means “The Place of the Skull.” <sup>23</sup> They tried to give Him wine mixed with myrrh, but He did not take it. <sup>24</sup> They crucified Him and divided His clothes by casting lots for them, to see what each one should get. <sup>25</sup> It was the third hour when they crucified Him. <sup>26</sup> The notice of the accusation against Him had been written above Him: “The King of the Jews.” <sup>27</sup> With Him they crucified two robbers, one on His right, and one on His left. <sup>*174</sup> <sup>29</sup> Those who were going past kept ridiculing Him, shaking their heads and saying, “Ha! You who are tearing down the Temple and building it in three days, <sup>30</sup> come down from the cross and save Yourself!”

<sup>31</sup> In the same way the Chief Priests and the scribes kept mocking Him among themselves, saying, “He saved others. He cannot save Himself. <sup>32</sup> Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe!”

Those who had been crucified with Him also kept insulting Him.

The death of Jesus on the cross — Matthew 27:45-56, Luke 23:44-49, John 19:28-30

<sup>33</sup> At the sixth hour darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour. <sup>34</sup> At the ninth hour Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?” which means, “My God, My God, why have You forsaken Me?” <sup>35</sup> When some of those who were standing nearby heard that, they said, “Look! He is calling for Elijah.”

<sup>36</sup> Someone ran, filled a sponge with wine-vinegar, put it on a stick and offered it to Jesus to drink. He said, “Let Him alone! Let us see whether Elijah is coming to take Him down!”

<sup>37</sup> Jesus cried out in a loud voice and breathed His last. <sup>38</sup> The curtain of the Temple was torn in two from top to bottom. <sup>39</sup> When the centurion, who was standing opposite Jesus, saw that He breathed His last like this, he said, “Truly, this Man was the Son of God.”

<sup>40</sup> There were also some women watching from a distance. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary, the mother of James the Younger and of Joses and Salome. <sup>41</sup> While Jesus was in Galilee, they had been following Him and supporting Him. There were also many other women who had come up to Jerusalem with Him.

The burial of Jesus — Matthew 27:57-61, Luke 23:50-56, John 19:38-42

<sup>42</sup> When evening had already come, since it was the Day of Preparation, which is the day before the Sabbath, <sup>43</sup> Joseph from Arimathea, a prominent member of the Council, who himself also was waiting for the kingdom of God, dared to go in to Pilate and ask for the body of Jesus. <sup>44</sup> Pilate wondered whether Jesus had already died. He summoned the centurion and asked him if Jesus was already dead. <sup>45</sup> When he had found from the centurion that this was so, Pilate granted the body to Joseph. <sup>46</sup> Joseph bought linen, took Him down and wrapped Him in the linen. He laid Him in a tomb that had been cut out of rock and rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. <sup>47</sup> Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of Joses, were watching where He was laid.

16

The resurrection — Matthew 28:1-10, Luke 24:1-12, John 20:1-10

<sup>1</sup> When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary, the mother of James, and Salome bought spices to go and anoint Jesus. <sup>2</sup> On Sunday they were coming to the tomb very early when the sun had just come up. <sup>3</sup> They asked one another, “Who is going to roll away the stone for us from the door of the tomb?”

<sup>4</sup> However, when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back, even though it was very large. <sup>5</sup> As they went into the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting at the right side and were amazed.

<sup>6</sup> He told them, “Do not be amazed any longer! You are looking for Jesus from Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen. He is not here. See the place where He was laid! <sup>7</sup> Go, however, and tell His disciples and Peter, ‘He is going ahead of you to Galilee. There you will see Him, just as He told you!’”

<sup>8</sup> They went out and hurried away from the tomb, because they were trembling and bewildered, and said nothing to anyone, because they were afraid.

*Postscript (16:9-20) *175*

Jesus’ command to the eleven to preach the Gospel to the whole creation

<sup>9</sup> After Jesus had risen early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven demons. <sup>10</sup> She went and reported it to those who had been with Him as they were mourning and weeping. <sup>11</sup> When they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe it. <sup>12</sup> After that, Jesus appeared in a different form to two of them as they were walking on a journey into the country. <sup>13</sup> They went back and reported it to the rest of them, but they did not believe them either. <sup>14</sup> Later He appeared to the Eleven while they were reclining at the table. He scolded them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they had not believed those who had seen Him after He had been raised. <sup>15</sup> He told them, “Go into the entire world and preach the Good News to the whole creation! <sup>16</sup> He who has come to faith and been baptised will be saved, but he who has not believed will be condemned. <sup>17</sup> These are the miraculous signs that will accompany those who have become believers: In My name they will cast out demons. They will speak in new languages. <sup>18</sup> They will pick up snakes in their hands, and, if they drink anything deadly, it will certainly not harm them. They will lay their hands on sick people, and they will get well.”

<sup>19</sup> So, after the Lord Jesus had spoken to them, He was taken up into heaven and sat down at the right hand of God. <sup>20</sup> However, the disciples went out and preached everywhere, while the Lord was working with them and confirming the Word by the miraculous signs that accompanied it.

The preface about Luke's research (1:1-4)

<sup>1</sup> Many have undertaken to draw up an account of the things that have been fulfilled among us, <sup>2</sup> just as those who from the beginning have been eyewitnesses and servants of the Word have handed them over to us. <sup>3</sup> For this reason, since I too have carefully investigated everything from the beginning, I have decided to write down an orderly account for you, most noble Theophilus, <sup>4</sup> that you may be sure that the things about which you have been instructed are certain.

Beginnings of the New Testament: the period from the birth of John the Baptist to the temptation of Jesus (1:5-4:13)

The angel Gabriel's promise of the birth of John the Baptist

<sup>5</sup> In the days of Herod, the King of Judea, there was a priest by the name of Zacharias. He belonged to the division of priests named after Abijah. His wife was a descendant of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

<sup>6</sup> Both were righteous before God, living blamelessly according to all the Commandments and Regulations of the Lord. <sup>7</sup> However, they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren and they were both well advanced in years. <sup>8</sup> When Zacharias was serving as a priest before God in the order of his division, <sup>9</sup> he was chosen by lot, according to the custom of the priesthood, to go into the Temple of the Lord to burn incense. <sup>10</sup> The whole multitude of the people was praying outside at the time for burning incense. <sup>11</sup> An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. <sup>12</sup> When Zacharias saw him, he was startled and was gripped with fear. <sup>13</sup> However, the angel told him, "Stop being afraid, Zacharias! For your prayer has been heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall name him 'John.'" <sup>14</sup> He will be a joy and delight to you, and many will be glad when he is born. <sup>15</sup> For he will be great in the sight of the Lord. He must never drink any wine or other intoxicating drink! He will be filled with the Holy Spirit even from his mother's womb. <sup>16</sup> He will turn many of the people of Israel back to the Lord, their God. <sup>17</sup> He will go ahead of Him with the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' to turn those who are disobedient to the wisdom of those who are righteous and to make the people ready, so that they are thoroughly prepared for the Lord."

<sup>18</sup> Zacharias asked the angel, "How shall I know this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

<sup>19</sup> The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel! I stand before God and have been sent to speak to you and tell you this Good News. <sup>20</sup> Look! You will be silent and not able to talk until the day when this happens, because you have not believed my words. However, they will be fulfilled at their proper time."

<sup>21</sup> The people were waiting for Zacharias and were astonished that he was staying so long in the Temple.

<sup>22</sup> When he came out, he could not speak to them. Then they realised that he had seen a vision in the Temple. He kept beckoning to them and remained unable to speak. <sup>23</sup> When his time of service as priest was completed, he returned home. <sup>24</sup> After this time, his wife Elizabeth conceived and remained in seclusion for five months. She said, <sup>25</sup> "The Lord has dealt with me in this way at a time when He has looked with favour on me and removed my disgrace among people."

The angel Gabriel's annunciation to Mary of Jesus' birth

<sup>26</sup> In the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city in Galilee called "Nazareth," <sup>27</sup> to a virgin betrothed to a man by the name of Joseph, a descendant of David. The virgin's name was Mary. <sup>28</sup> When the angel entered her home, he said, "Greetings, you who are highly favoured! The Lord is with you."

<sup>29</sup> She was greatly troubled at what he said and was wondering what kind of greeting this was. <sup>30</sup> The angel told her: "Stop being afraid, Mary! For you have found favour with God. <sup>31</sup> You see: you will conceive in your womb and give birth to a Son and you shall call His name 'Jesus.'" <sup>32</sup> He will be great and will be called 'the Son of the Most High.' Moreover, the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David. <sup>33</sup> He will reign over the family of Jacob forever, and there will be no end of His kingdom."

<sup>34</sup> Mary asked the angel, "How will this be, since I am not living with a husband?"

<sup>35</sup> The angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit will come over you, and the Power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore, also the Holy One who is conceived will be called 'the Son of God.'" <sup>36</sup> In addition, look! Your relative Elizabeth has also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her, whom people used to call barren. <sup>37</sup> For nothing will be impossible with God."

<sup>38</sup> Mary answered, "Look! I am the Lord's servant. May it happen to me as you have said!"

Then the angel left her.

Mary's visit to Elizabeth

<sup>45</sup> Moreover, blessed is she who has believed that the Lord will accomplish what He has promised to do for her!”

Mary's song

<sup>46</sup> Mary said, <sup>47</sup> “My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit has rejoiced in God, my Saviour, <sup>48</sup> because He has looked kindly on the humble state of His servant. For look! From now on all generations will call me blessed. <sup>49</sup> For the Mighty One has done great things for me, and His name is holy; <sup>50</sup> and He is merciful to those who fear Him throughout all generations. <sup>51</sup> He has performed mighty deeds with His arm. He has scattered those who have proud thoughts in their hearts. <sup>52</sup> He has brought strong rulers down from their thrones but has exalted lowly people. <sup>53</sup> He has filled hungry people with good things but has sent rich people away empty. <sup>54</sup> He has come to help His servant Israel, so that He has remembered to be merciful, <sup>55</sup> to Abraham and his descendants for ever, as He has promised our fathers.”

The birth of John the Baptist

<sup>57</sup> When the full time came for Elizabeth to have her baby, she gave birth to a son. <sup>58</sup> When her neighbours and relatives heard that the Lord had shown great mercy to her, they rejoiced with her. <sup>59</sup> On the eighth day they came to circumcise the baby. They were going to call him “Zacharias” because that was his father’s name. <sup>60</sup> However, his mother spoke up and said, “No, he will be named ‘John.’”

They were all astonished. <sup>64</sup> At once Zacharias’ mouth and tongue were opened, and he began to speak, praising God. <sup>65</sup> Then fear came on all who lived around them, and through all the hill-country of Judea people kept talking about all these things. <sup>66</sup> All who heard about them thought them over and asked, “What, then, is this child going to be?”

For it was clear that the hand of the Lord was with him.

<sup>67</sup> His father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit and prophesied: <sup>68</sup> “Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel! For He has visited His people and has redeemed them. <sup>69</sup> He has raised up a Horn of salvation for us in the family of His servant David, <sup>70</sup> as He has promised by the mouths of His holy prophets, who have been since the world began, <sup>71</sup> that He would save us from our enemies and from the hands of all who hate us. <sup>72</sup> He has promised to be merciful to our fathers and to remember His holy Covenant, <sup>73</sup> the oath that He swore to our father

Abraham: <sup>74</sup> that we would be rescued from the hands of our enemies and serve Him without fear, <sup>75</sup> in holiness and righteousness before Him all our days. <sup>76</sup> You, child, will be called ‘the prophet of the Most High.’ For you will go ahead of the Lord, to prepare His ways, <sup>77</sup> to give the knowledge of salvation to His people by the forgiveness of their sins, <sup>78</sup> because of the compassionate mercy of our God, by which the Dawn from on high will visit us, <sup>79</sup> to shine on those who live in darkness and in the shadow of death and to guide our feet into the way of peace.”

The birth of Jesus

The announcement to shepherds of Jesus' birth

<sup>8</sup> There were shepherds in the same district, staying out in the fields, watching over their flocks by night.

<sup>9</sup> An angel of the Lord appeared to them, the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were very afraid. <sup>10</sup> The angel said to them, “Stop being afraid! For look! I am bringing you Good News of great joy, which will be for all the people, <sup>11</sup> because a Saviour, who is Christ, the Lord, has been born for you today, in the city of David. <sup>12</sup> This will also be the sign to you: you will find an Infant wrapped in swaddling cloths and lying in a manger.”

<sup>13</sup> Suddenly there was with the angel a great company of the heavenly host, who were praising God and saying, <sup>14</sup> “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people whom He favours!”

<sup>15</sup> When the angels had gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, “Let us go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us!” <sup>16</sup> Then they came quickly and found Mary and Joseph and the Infant, who was lying in the manger. <sup>17</sup> When they had seen Him, they declared to others the Word that had been told them about this Child. <sup>18</sup> All those who heard it were astonished at what the shepherds told them. <sup>19</sup> Mary kept treasuring up all these things and pondered them in her heart. <sup>20</sup> The shepherds went back, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen. They were just as they had been told them.

The circumcision of Jesus

<sup>21</sup> On the eighth day, when the time came to circumcise the Baby, He was named “Jesus,” the name that the angel had given Him before He was conceived in the womb.

The presentation of Jesus at the Temple

<sup>22</sup> When the time of their purification according to the Law of Moses had been completed, they took Him to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord <sup>23</sup> (as it is written in the Law of the Lord: “Every first-born male will be called ‘holy to the Lord’”). <sup>24</sup> They also went to offer a sacrifice according to what is said in the Law of the Lord: “a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.”

<sup>25</sup> Now there was a man in Jerusalem by the name of Simeon. This man was righteous and devout. He was waiting for the Consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him. <sup>26</sup> The Holy Spirit had revealed to him that he would not die until he had seen the Christ of the Lord. <sup>27</sup> Moved by the Spirit, he went into the Temple. When the parents brought in the Child Jesus to do for Him what was customary according to the Law, <sup>28</sup> Simeon took Him in his arms, blessed God and said: <sup>29</sup> “Now, Lord, You are letting Your servant depart in peace, as You have promised, <sup>30</sup> because my eyes have seen Your Salvation, <sup>31</sup> which You have prepared in the sight of all the peoples, <sup>32</sup> a Light to bring revelation to the Gentiles and the Glory of Your people Israel.”

<sup>33</sup> The Child’s father and mother were astonished at the things that were being said about Him. <sup>34</sup> Then Simeon blessed them and told Mary, His mother, “Look! This Child is appointed for many in Israel to fall and to rise and to be a Sign that is spoken against, <sup>35</sup> that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. A sword will also pierce your own soul.”

<sup>36</sup> Moreover, there was Anna, a prophetess, a daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was very old. She had lived with her husband for seven years after her marriage. <sup>37</sup> This woman had been a widow for as much as eighty-four years. She never left the Temple but worshipped night and day, fasting and praying. <sup>38</sup> Just then she came up to them, gave thanks to God and kept speaking about the Child to all who were looking forward to the redemption of Jerusalem. <sup>39</sup> When Joseph and Mary had done everything required by the Law of the Lord, they went back to Galilee, to their own city of Nazareth.

<sup>40</sup> The Child grew and became strong, being filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was on Him.

for the feast of the Passover. <sup>42</sup> When He was twelve years old, they went up to the Feast, according to the custom. <sup>43</sup> When they had spent the days there and while they were returning, the Boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. His parents were unaware of this. <sup>44</sup> They thought He was with the others who were travelling with them. After travelling for a day, they began to look for Him among their relatives and acquaintances. <sup>45</sup> When they did not find Him, they went back to Jerusalem, looking for Him. <sup>46</sup> After three days they found Him in the Temple, sitting among the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions. <sup>47</sup> All those who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers. <sup>48</sup> When His parents saw Him, they were astonished. His mother asked Him, “Son, why have You done this to us? Look! Your father and I have been anxiously searching for you.”

<sup>49</sup> He asked them, “Why have you been looking for Me? Did you not know that I had to be about My Father’s business?”

<sup>50</sup> However, they did not understand what He said to them. <sup>51</sup> Then He went down with them, came to Nazareth and was obedient to them. His mother kept all these things in her heart. <sup>52</sup> Jesus grew wiser and taller and increased in the approval of God and of people.

The preaching of John the Baptist — Matthew 3:1-12, Mark 1:1-8, John 1:19-28

<sup>1</sup> In the fifteenth year of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, while Pontius Pilate was the governor of Judea, while Herod was the tetrarch of Galilee, while his brother Philip was the tetrarch of Iturea and the region of Trachonitis and while Lysanias was the tetrarch of Abilene, <sup>2</sup> and at the time when Annas and Caiaphas were the Chief Priests, the Word of God came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness. <sup>3</sup> He went into all the country around the Jordan and preached that people should repent and be baptised for the forgiveness of sins. <sup>4</sup> It was as Scripture has said in the book of the Words of the prophet Isaiah: “The voice of one crying in the wilderness: ‘Prepare the way of the Lord! Make His paths straight!’ <sup>5</sup> Every ravine will be filled in. Every mountain and hill will be levelled. The crooked roads will be made straight, and the rough roads smooth, <sup>6</sup> and all people will see the salvation of God.”

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, John kept saying to the crowds who were coming out to be baptised by him, “You brood of poisonous snakes, who has warned you to run away from the coming wrath? <sup>8</sup> Therefore, produce fruits worthy of repentance! Do not begin to tell yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father’! For I tell you that God can raise children for Abraham from these stones. <sup>9</sup> The axe has already been laid at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.”

<sup>10</sup> The crowds used to ask him, “Therefore, what are we to do?”

<sup>11</sup> He used to answer them, “The person who has two tunics should share with the person who has none, and the person who has food should do the same!”

<sup>12</sup> Tax-collectors also came to be baptised and asked him, “Teacher, what are we to do?”

<sup>13</sup> He told them, “Stop collecting any more money than what has been laid down for you!”

<sup>14</sup> Soldiers also used to ask him, “What are we also to do?”

He told them, “Do not extort money by violence, do not accuse people falsely and be satisfied with your wages!”

<sup>15</sup> The people were expecting something and were all wondering in their hearts whether John might perhaps be the Christ. <sup>16</sup> John answered them all: “I am baptising you with water. However, the One who is more powerful than I am is coming. I am not worthy to untie His sandal-strap. He will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. <sup>17</sup> He has His winnowing fork in His hand to clean up His threshing floor and to gather the wheat into His barn but will burn the chaff with fire that cannot be put out.”

The imprisonment of John the Baptist — Matthew 14:3-4, Mark 6:17-18

<sup>19</sup> However, when John rebuked Herod the tetrarch because of Herodias, his brother’s wife, and all the other evil things he had done, <sup>20</sup> Herod added this to them all: he locked John up in prison.

The baptism of Jesus — Matthew 3:13-17, Mark 1:9-11, compare John 1:29-34

<sup>21</sup> When all the people were being baptised, Jesus was also baptised. While He was praying, heaven was opened, <sup>22</sup> and the Holy Spirit came down on Him in bodily form like a dove. Then a voice came from heaven, which said, “You are My Son, whom I love. I am well pleased with You.”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus Himself was about thirty years old when He began His ministry.

The family-line of Jesus — Matthew 1:1-17

He was the son, so it was thought, of Joseph, the son of Heli, <sup>24</sup> the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, <sup>25</sup> the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, <sup>26</sup> the son of Maath, the son of Mattathias, the son of Semein, the son of Josech, the son of Joda, <sup>27</sup> the son of Joanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerub-Babel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, <sup>28</sup> the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmadam, the son of Er, <sup>29</sup> the son of Jesus, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, <sup>30</sup> the son of Simeon, the son of Judas, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonam, the son of Eliakim, <sup>31</sup> the son of Melea, the son of Menna, the son of Mattatha, the

The temptation of Jesus in the wilderness — Matthew 4:1-11, Mark 1:12-13

<sup>1</sup> Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, left the Jordan and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, <sup>2</sup> where the Devil continued to tempt Him for forty days. He ate nothing during those days and, when they were over, He was very hungry.

<sup>3</sup> The Devil said to Him, “If You are the Son of God, tell this stone to become a loaf of bread!”

<sup>4</sup> Jesus answered him, “Scripture has said, ‘A person will not live by bread alone.’”

<sup>5</sup> The Devil took Him up and, in a moment, showed Him all the kingdoms of the world. <sup>6</sup> The Devil told Him, “I shall give You all this authority and glory, because it has been given to me, and I give it to anyone to whom I please. <sup>7</sup> So, if You worship me, all this will be Yours.”

<sup>8</sup> Jesus answered him, “Scripture has said, ‘Worship the Lord, your God, and serve Him only!’”

<sup>9</sup> The Devil took Him into Jerusalem and had Him stand on the summit of the Temple. The Devil told Him, “If You are the Son of God, jump down from here! <sup>10</sup> For Scripture has said: ‘He will order His angels about you, to watch over you carefully.

11 They will carry you in their hands and never let you stub your foot against a stone.’”

<sup>12</sup> Jesus answered him, “Scripture has said, ‘You shall not put the Lord, your God, to a test!’”

<sup>13</sup> When the Devil had finished every way of tempting Him, he left Him until another opportunity would present itself.

Jesus’ ministry in Galilee (4:14-9:50)

The rejection of Jesus at Nazareth — Matthew 13:53-58, Mark 6:1-6

<sup>14</sup> Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and news about Him spread all over the surrounding country. <sup>15</sup> He continued to teach in their synagogues, and everyone praised Him.

<sup>16</sup> Then Jesus went to Nazareth, where He had been brought up. On the Sabbath He went into the synagogue, as His custom was, and stood up to read. <sup>17</sup> He was given the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. Unrolling the scroll, He found the place where Scripture had said: <sup>18</sup> “The Spirit of the Lord is on Me because

He has anointed Me to tell the Good News to poor people. He has sent Me to announce freedom to prisoners and restoration of sight to blind people, to set free those who have been oppressed,<sup>19</sup> and to announce the acceptable year of the Lord.”

<sup>20</sup> He rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of all who were in the synagogue were fixed on Him. <sup>21</sup> He began to tell them, “Today, while you are listening, this passage of Scripture has been fulfilled.”

<sup>22</sup> All spoke well of Him and were astonished at the gracious words that were coming from His mouth. They were asking, “Is This not Joseph’s son?”

<sup>23</sup> He told them: “You will surely say this proverb to Me, ‘Doctor, heal yourself!’ and say, ‘Do the same things here in Your hometown as we have heard that You have done at Capernaum!’” <sup>24</sup> He added, “Truly, I tell you, no prophet is accepted in his hometown.

<sup>25</sup> However, I tell you truly, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up for three years and six months and there was a severe famine all over the land. <sup>26</sup> Yet Elijah was not sent to any of them but to a widow at Zarephath in the territory of Sidon. <sup>27</sup> There were also many lepers in Israel at the time of the prophet Elisha. Yet none of them was made clean, only Naaman the Syrian.”

<sup>28</sup> All the people in the synagogue were filled with anger when they heard these things. <sup>29</sup> They got up, drove Him out of the city and took Him to the brow of the hill on which their city had been built, to throw Him down the cliff. <sup>30</sup> However, He walked right through them and went on His way.

Jesus’ transfer to Capernaum and His driving out of a demon — Mark 1:21-28, Matthew 7:28-29

<sup>31</sup> Then He went down to Capernaum, a city in Galilee and was teaching people on the Sabbath. <sup>32</sup> The people were amazed at His teaching, because His Word had authority.

<sup>33</sup> In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon. He cried out with a loud voice, <sup>34</sup> “Ha! What do we have in common with You, Jesus of Nazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are, the Holy One of God.”

<sup>35</sup> Jesus rebuked him: “Be quiet and come out of him!”

The demon threw him down in the middle of the crowd and came out of him, without doing him any harm. <sup>36</sup> They were all amazed and began to ask one another, “What kind of speaking is this, that with authority and power He gives orders to unclean spirits, and they come out?”

<sup>37</sup> The news about Him kept spreading to every place in the surrounding region.

Jesus’ healing of Peter’s wife’s mother — Matthew 8:14-15, Mark 1:29-28

She got up at once and began to wait on them.

Jesus’ healing of sick people one evening — Matthew 8:16-17, Mark 1:32-34

<sup>40</sup> When the sun was going down, all who had people who were sick with various diseases brought them to Him. He laid His hands on each one of them and healed them.

<sup>41</sup> Moreover, demons were also being cast out of many people, shouting, “You are the Son of God!” However, He rebuked them and would not allow them to speak, because they knew that He was the Christ.

Jesus’ departure from Capernaum — Mark 1:35-38

<sup>42</sup> At daybreak Jesus came out and went to a solitary place. The crowds continued to look for Him. When they came to Him, they tried to keep Him from leaving them. <sup>43</sup> However, He told them, “I must tell the Good News of the kingdom of God in other cities also, because I have been sent for this purpose.”

Jesus’ first preaching-journey in Galilee — Matthew 4:23-25, Mark 1:39

A miraculous catch of fish — Matthew 4:18-22, Mark 1:14-20, (John 1:35-51)

<sup>6</sup> When the men had done this, they caught a very large number of fish, and their nets began to tear.

<sup>7</sup> They signalled to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. They came, and they filled both the boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>8</sup> When Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus’ knees and said, “Go away from me! For I am a sinful man, Lord.”

<sup>9</sup> He and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken, <sup>10</sup> and so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were Simon’s partners. Then Jesus told Simon, “Stop being afraid! From now on you will be catching people.”

Jesus’ healing of a leper — Matthew 8:1-4, Mark 1:40-45

<sup>12</sup> When Jesus was in one of the cities, there was a man who was covered with leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell face-down and begged Him, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean.”

<sup>13</sup> Jesus stretched out His hand and touched him. He said, "I am willing. Be made clean!"

Immediately the leprosy left him.

<sup>14</sup> Jesus ordered him, "Do not tell anyone but go, show yourself to the priest and make an offering for your cleansing as Moses commanded, as a testimony to them!"

<sup>15</sup> However, the news about Jesus kept spreading even more, and large crowds were gathering to hear Him and to be healed of their diseases. <sup>16</sup> Nevertheless, Jesus used to withdraw to lonely places and pray.

Jesus' healing of a paralysed man — Matthew 9:1-8, Mark 2:1-12

<sup>17</sup> One day while Jesus was teaching, some Pharisees and teachers of the Law were sitting there. They had come from every village in Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem, and He had the power of the Lord to heal. <sup>18</sup> Then some men brought a paralysed man on a bed and tried to take him inside and place him in front of Jesus. <sup>19</sup> However, when they could not find how to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the roof. They let him down with his stretcher through the tiles into the middle of the people, in front of Jesus. <sup>20</sup> When Jesus saw their faith, He said, "Man, your sins have been forgiven you."

<sup>21</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees began thinking to themselves, "Who is this Man who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

<sup>22</sup> Jesus perceived what they were thinking and asked them, "Why are you reasoning in your hearts?"

<sup>23</sup> Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins have been forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk!?' <sup>24</sup> You should know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins!" He said to the paralysed man, "I tell you, get up, pick up your stretcher and go home!"

<sup>25</sup> Immediately the man stood up in front of them, picked up the stretcher on which he had been lying and went home, glorifying God. <sup>26</sup> Astonishment gripped them all, and they began to praise God. They were filled with awe and said, "We have seen remarkable things today."

Jesus' call of Matthew (Levi) — Matthew 9:9-13, Mark 2:13-17

<sup>27</sup> After this, Jesus went out and saw a tax-collector by the name of Levi sitting in his tax booth. He told him, "Follow Me!"

<sup>30</sup> The Pharisees and their scribes complained to Jesus' disciples: "Why are you people eating and drinking with tax-collectors and sinners?"

<sup>31</sup> Jesus answered them, "Those who are healthy do not need a doctor, but those who are sick. <sup>32</sup> I have not come to call righteous people but sinners, to repentance."

Jesus' response to a question about fasting — Matthew 9:14-17, Mark 2:18-22

<sup>33</sup> However, they said to Him, "John's disciples often fast and say prayers, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees, but Yours eat and drink."

<sup>34</sup> Jesus asked them, "Surely you cannot make the guests of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them? <sup>35</sup> However, the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then, in those days, they will fast."

<sup>36</sup> Then He went on to tell them a parable: "No one tears a patch from a new garment and puts it on an old garment. Otherwise he will tear the new one, and the patch from the new one will not match the old one.

<sup>37</sup> No one puts new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the new wine will burst the wineskins, it will be spilt, and the wineskins will be ruined. <sup>38</sup> Rather, new wine must be put into new wineskins! <sup>39</sup> No one who has drunk old wine wants the new. For he says, 'The old is fine!'"

The plucking of grain by Jesus' disciples on a Sabbath — Matthew 12:1-8, Mark 2:23-28

<sup>2</sup> Some of the Pharisees asked, "Why are you people doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?"

<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered them, "Have you not even read this, what David did when he and those who were with him became hungry, <sup>4</sup> how he went into the house of God and took the loaves set out before God, which it is not lawful to eat, except only for the priests; and he ate and gave some to those who were with him?"

<sup>5</sup> Then Jesus told them, "The Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

Jesus' healing of a man with a shrivelled hand — Matthew 12:9-15, Mark 3:1-6

<sup>6</sup> On another Sabbath Jesus went into the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there whose right hand was shrivelled. <sup>7</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees were watching Jesus closely to see whether He would heal him on a Sabbath, that they might find an accusation against Him. <sup>8</sup> However, He knew what they were thinking and told the man with the shrivelled hand, "Get up and stand in the middle!" The man got up and stood there.

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you, is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do evil, to save a life or to destroy one?"

<sup>10</sup> After looking around at all of them, He told the man, "Stretch out your hand!"

He did, and his hand was completely restored. <sup>11</sup> They were filled with fury and began to discuss with one another what they were to do to Jesus.

Jesus' choice of twelve apostles — Matthew 10:1-4, Mark 3:13-19

<sup>12</sup> In these days Jesus went out to the mountain to pray and continued all night in prayer to God.

<sup>13</sup> When day came, He called His disciples and chose twelve of them, whom He also named "apostles":

<sup>14</sup> Simon, whom He also named “Peter,” and his brother Andrew, James, John, Philip, Bartholomew, <sup>15</sup> Matthew, Thomas, James, who was the son of Alphaeus, Simon, who was called “the Zealot,” <sup>16</sup> Judas, who was the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, who became a traitor.

Jesus' healing of many people — (Matthew 12:15-21), Mark 3:7-12

<sup>17</sup> Jesus went down with them and stood on a level place with a large crowd of His disciples and a great many people from all over Judea, Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>18</sup> They had come to hear Him and be healed of their diseases, and those who were troubled by unclean spirits were made well.

<sup>19</sup> All the people were trying to touch Him, because power was coming from Him and healing them all.

Jesus' sermon on the plain 6:20-49

Four beatitudes — Matthew 5:3-6, 11-12.

<sup>20</sup> Jesus looked at His disciples and said: “Blessed are you who are poor! For yours is the kingdom of God.

<sup>21</sup> “Blessed are you who are hungry now! For you will be satisfied.

“Blessed are you who are weeping now! For you will laugh.

<sup>22</sup> “Blessed are you when people hate you and when they exclude you, insult you and reject your name as evil, because of the Son of Man! <sup>23</sup> Rejoice in that day and leap for joy! For, you see, your reward is great in heaven. For that is how their fathers used to treat the prophets.

Four woes

<sup>24</sup> “However, how terrible for you who are rich! For you have already received your comfort.

<sup>25</sup> “How terrible for you who are well fed now! For you will be hungry.

“How terrible for you who are laughing now! For you will mourn and weep.

<sup>26</sup> “How terrible for you when all people speak well of you! For that is how their fathers used to treat the false prophets.

Jesus' teaching about love of one's enemies — Matthew 5:38-48

<sup>27</sup> “However, I tell you who are listening: Love your enemies! Do good to those who hate you! <sup>28</sup> Bless those who curse you! Pray for those who mistreat you! <sup>29</sup> If someone strikes you on the cheek, offer him the other also! If someone takes your cloak, do not stop him from taking your tunic as well! <sup>30</sup> Give to everyone who asks you and, if someone takes what belongs to you, do not demand it back! <sup>31</sup> Treat other people the same as you want them to treat you! <sup>32</sup> If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.

<sup>33</sup> For, if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same.

<sup>34</sup> If you lend to those from whom you expect to get it back, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners to get equal payment back. <sup>35</sup> Rather, love your enemies! Do good and lend, without expecting to get anything back! Then your reward will be great, and you will be the children of the Most High, because He is kind to ungrateful and wicked people.

<sup>36</sup> Be merciful, as your Father also is merciful!

Jesus' teaching about judging — Matthew 7:1-5

<sup>37</sup> “Stop judging, and you will certainly not be judged. Stop condemning, and you will certainly not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven. <sup>38</sup> Give, and it will be given to you. People will put a good measure, pressed together, shaken down and running over, into your lap. For the measure with which you measure others will be used for you in return.”

<sup>39</sup> Jesus also told them a parable “A blind man cannot lead another blind man, can he? Will not both fall into a ditch? <sup>40</sup> A pupil is not above his teacher. However, everyone who has been fully trained will be like his teacher. <sup>41</sup> Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye and do not notice the plank that is in your own eye? <sup>42</sup> How can you say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me take out the speck that is in your eye!’ when you yourself do not see the plank that is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First take the plank out of your own eye! Then you will see clearly, to take out the speck that is in your brother's eye.

The testing of what is good — Matthew 7:16-21

Jesus' teaching about hearing the Word and practising it — Matthew 7:24-27

<sup>47</sup> “I shall show you what everyone is like who comes to Me, hears My Words and continues to put them into practice. <sup>48</sup> He is like a person who was building a house, dug down deep and laid the foundation on the rock. When a flood came, the torrent dashed against that house but could not shake it, because it had been well built. <sup>49</sup> The one who has heard My words but has not put them into practice is like a person who built a house on the ground without a foundation. When the torrent dashed against it, it immediately collapsed. The ruin of that house was great.”

Jesus' healing of a centurion's servant — Matthew 8:5-13

<sup>1</sup> When Jesus had finished all His sayings to the people who were listening to Him, He entered Capernaum. <sup>2</sup> A certain centurion had a slave, who was dear to him and who was sick and about to die. <sup>3</sup> When the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to Him to ask Him to come and heal his slave. <sup>4</sup> They came to Jesus and earnestly pleaded with Him, “He deserves to have You do this for him, <sup>5</sup> because he loves our nation and has personally built the synagogue for us.”

<sup>6</sup> Jesus began to go with them. He was not far from the house when the centurion sent friends to tell Him, “Lord, do not trouble Yourself! For I do not deserve that You should come in under my roof. <sup>7</sup> That is why I did not think that I was worthy to come to You either. Rather, just give an order, and let my servant be healed! <sup>8</sup> For I also am a man placed under authority and I have soldiers under myself. I order one of them, ‘Go!’ and he goes, and another, ‘Come!’ and he comes. I order my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

<sup>9</sup> When Jesus heard these words, He was astonished at him. He turned to the crowd that was following Him and said, “I tell you, I have not found such great faith, even in Israel.”

<sup>10</sup> When the messengers returned to the house, they found that the slave was well.

Jesus’ raising of the widow’s son from the dead at Nain

<sup>11</sup> Soon after this, Jesus went to a city called Nain, and His disciples and a large crowd were going along with Him. <sup>12</sup> As He came near the gate of the city, they saw that a dead man was being carried out. He was his mother’s only son, and she was a widow. A large crowd from the city was with her. <sup>13</sup> When the Lord saw her, He had compassion on her and told her, “Stop crying!”

<sup>14</sup> He went up to the open coffin and touched it, and the men who were carrying it stood still. Jesus said, “Young man, I tell you, get up!”

<sup>15</sup> The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

<sup>16</sup> Fear came over them all, and they began to glorify God. They said, “A great prophet has arisen among us,” and “God has visited His people.”

<sup>17</sup> This news about Jesus spread throughout Judea and the entire surrounding region.

The question of John the Baptist — Matthew 11:2-6

<sup>18</sup> The disciples of John reported to him about all these things. <sup>19</sup> Then John called two of his disciples and sent them to ask the Lord, “Are You the One who is coming or are we to expect someone else?”

<sup>20</sup> The men came to Jesus and said, “John the Baptist has sent us to ask You, ‘Are You the One who is coming or are we to expect someone else?’”

<sup>21</sup> At that time Jesus had healed many people of their diseases, afflictions and evil spirits and had given sight to many who were blind.

<sup>22</sup> Jesus answered, “Go and report to John what you have seen and heard! Blind people see, lame people are walking, lepers are made clean, deaf people hear, the dead are raised, and poor people are having the good news told them. <sup>23</sup> Blessed is anyone who is not offended because of Me!”

Jesus’ testimony about John the Baptist — Matthew 11:7-19

<sup>24</sup> After the messengers of John had left, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swayed by the wind? <sup>25</sup> What, then, did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft robes? No, those who wear splendid clothing and live in luxury are found in kings’ palaces.

<sup>26</sup> What, then, did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. <sup>27</sup> This is the one about whom Scripture has said: ‘Look! I am sending My messenger ahead of You, who will prepare Your way before You.’ <sup>28</sup> I tell you, among those born to women no one is greater than John; but the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.”

<sup>29</sup> When all the people, even the tax-collectors, heard John, they acknowledged that God was right when they were baptised with the baptism of John.

<sup>30</sup> However, when the Pharisees and the lawyers were not baptised by John, they rejected God’s purpose for themselves.

<sup>31</sup> “Therefore, to what shall I compare the people of this generation, and what are they like? <sup>32</sup> They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling out to one another. They say: ‘We have played the flute for you, but you have not danced. We have sung a funeral song, but you have not wept.’ <sup>33</sup> For John the Baptist has come, neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon.’ <sup>34</sup> The Son of Man has come, eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look! A glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax-collectors and sinners!’ <sup>35</sup> Nevertheless, wisdom is proved right by all her children.”

Jesus’ forgiveness of a sinful woman

<sup>36</sup> One of the Pharisees invited Jesus to eat with him. Jesus went into the Pharisee’s home and reclined at the table. <sup>37</sup> In the city there was a sinful woman. When she found out He was reclining at a meal at the Pharisee’s home, she brought an alabaster jar of fragrant oil <sup>38</sup> and stood behind Jesus at His feet. She was weeping and began to wet His feet with her tears. Then she used the hair of her head to dry His feet, kissed His feet and poured the fragrant oil on them. <sup>39</sup> The Pharisee who had invited Jesus saw this and said to himself, “If this Man were a prophet, He would know who is touching Him and what kind of woman she is, that she is a sinner.”

<sup>40</sup> Jesus answered him, “Simon, I have something to say to you.”

Simon said, “Teacher, say it.”

<sup>41</sup> “Two men owed money to a certain moneylender. One owed him five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. <sup>42</sup> When they could not pay it back, he freely forgave them both. Therefore, which of them will love him more?”

<sup>43</sup> Simon answered, “I suppose the one whom he forgave more.”

Jesus told him, “You have judged correctly.”

<sup>44</sup> Then Jesus turned to the woman and asked Simon, “Do you see this woman? I came into your home, and you did not give Me any water for My feet, but she wet My feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. <sup>45</sup> You gave Me no kiss, but since I came in, this woman has not stopped kissing My feet. <sup>46</sup> You did not put olive-oil on My head, but she has poured fragrant oil on My feet. <sup>47</sup> That is why I tell you that the greatness of her love shows that her many sins have been forgiven. However, he who has little forgiven has only a little love.”

<sup>49</sup> His fellow guests began to say to themselves, “Who is this Person who even forgives sins?”

<sup>50</sup> Jesus told the woman, “Your faith has saved you. Go in peace!”

The women who supported Jesus

<sup>1</sup> After this, Jesus travelled through every city and village, preaching and telling the Good News of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with Him, <sup>2</sup> and some women who had been healed of evil spirits and diseases: Mary, the one called “Magdalene,” from whom seven demons had been cast out, <sup>3</sup> Joanna, the wife of Chusa, the manager of Herod’s household, Susanna and many other women. They used to support Jesus and His disciples from their own means.

Jesus’ parable of the sower — Matthew 13:1-9, Mark 4:1-9

<sup>4</sup> When a large crowd was gathering and the people were coming to Jesus from every city, He spoke by means of a parable: <sup>5</sup> “A sower went out to sow his seed. As he was sowing, some seed fell along the path. It was trampled on, and the birds of the air ate it.

<sup>6</sup> Some fell on rock. When it came up, it withered because it had no moisture. <sup>7</sup> Some seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it.

<sup>8</sup> However, other seed fell on good soil, came up and yielded a crop a hundred times as much.”

When He said this, He called out, “Let the one who has ears to hear listen!”

Jesus’ reason for speaking in parables — Matthew 13:10-15, Mark 4:10-12

<sup>10</sup> He answered, “To you it has been given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables, that ‘although they see they may not see and that although they hear they may not understand.’

Jesus’ interpretation of the parable of the sower — Matthew 13:18-23, Mark 4:13-20

<sup>12</sup> Those people along the path are those who hear. Then the Devil comes and takes the Word out of their hearts that they may not become believers and be saved. <sup>13</sup> The people on the rock are those who receive the Word with joy when they hear it and yet these have no root. They believe for a while and in time of temptation they fall away. <sup>14</sup> The seeds that fell among thorns are those who have heard and yet, as they go along, they are choked by worries, riches and pleasures of life and do not produce a mature crop. <sup>15</sup> However, the seeds on the good soil are the ones who, with a good and honest heart, have heard the Word, retain it and produce a crop with patience.

The comparison of a lamp and the right use of parables — Mark 4:21-25

<sup>16</sup> “No one lights a lamp and covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed. Instead, he puts it on a lampstand that those who come in may see the light. <sup>17</sup> For there is nothing secret that will not be made visible, and there is nothing hidden that will not surely be made known and be brought out into the open. <sup>18</sup> Therefore, be careful how you hear! For whoever has will be given more, and, if anyone does not have, even what he thinks he has will be taken away from him.”

Jesus’ declaration about His real brothers — Matthew 12:46-50, Mark 3:31-35

<sup>19</sup> Jesus’ mother and His brothers came to Him but could not get near Him because of the crowd. <sup>20</sup> He was told, “Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside and want to see You.”

<sup>21</sup> However, He answered them, “My mother and My brothers are these who are hearing the Word of God and putting it into practice.”

Jesus’ stilling of a storm — Matthew 8:23-27, Mark 4:35-41

<sup>22</sup> On a certain day Jesus and His disciples got into a boat. He said to them, “Let us cross over to the other side of the lake!” and they launched out. <sup>23</sup> However, while they were sailing along He fell asleep. A wind-storm came down on the lake, and they were being swamped and were in danger. <sup>24</sup> They came to Him and woke Him, saying, “Master, Master, we are drowning.”

When He was awakened He rebuked the wind and the raging of the water. They subsided, and it became calm.

<sup>25</sup> He asked them, “Where is your faith?”

They were afraid and amazed and asked one another, “Who, then, is this, that He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him?”

Jesus’ healing of a Gadarene demoniac — Matthew 8:28-34, Mark 5:1-20

<sup>26</sup> They sailed to the region of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. <sup>27</sup> When Jesus came out onto the shore, a certain man from the city, who was possessed by demons, met Him. He had not worn clothes for a long time and did not stay in a house but in the tombs. <sup>28</sup> When he saw Jesus, he cried out, fell before Him and shouted, “What do we have in common, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me!”

<sup>29</sup> For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had been seizing him violently for a long time. He used to be bound with chains and shackles and used to be kept under guard but would tear the chains and be driven by the demon into lonely places.

<sup>30</sup> Jesus asked him, “What is your name?”

He answered, “Legion,” because many demons had gone into him.

<sup>31</sup> They kept begging Him not to order them to go into the abyss. <sup>32</sup> There was a herd of many pigs there, feeding on the mountain. The demons begged Jesus to permit them to go into them, and He permitted them.

<sup>33</sup> The demons came out of the man and went into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the cliff into the lake and was drowned. <sup>34</sup> However, when those who had been taking care of the pigs saw what had happened, they ran off and reported it in the city and in the country. <sup>35</sup> People came out to see what had happened. When they came to Jesus they found the man from whom the demons had been cast out. He was sitting at Jesus' feet, clothed and in his right mind, and the people were afraid. <sup>36</sup> Those who had seen it told them how the man who had been demon-possessed had been made well. <sup>37</sup> Then the whole crowd from the surrounding region of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to go away from them, because they were overcome by great fear. He got into a boat and went back. <sup>38</sup> The man from whom the demons had gone out kept begging Jesus that he might be with Him. However, Jesus sent him away, saying, <sup>39</sup> "Return home and tell what great things God has done for you!"

The man left and preached throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

Jesus' healing of a woman who was continuously bleeding and His raising of the daughter of Jairus — Matthew 9:18-26, Mark 5:21-43

<sup>40</sup> When Jesus returned, the crowd welcomed Him. For they were all expecting Him. <sup>41</sup> Then a man named Jairus, who was a leader of the synagogue, came and fell at Jesus' feet. He began to plead with Jesus to come to his home, <sup>42</sup> because he had an only daughter, who was about twelve years old and was dying. While Jesus was going there, the crowds were pressing against Him.

<sup>43</sup> There was a woman who had had a flow of blood for twelve years. Although she had spent her whole livelihood on doctors, she could not be healed by anyone. <sup>44</sup> She came to Him from behind and touched the hem of His garment, and immediately her bleeding stopped. <sup>45</sup> Jesus asked, "Who is the one who has touched Me?"

When they all denied it, Peter said, "Master, the crowds are cramping You in and pressing against You."

<sup>46</sup> However, Jesus said, "Someone has touched Me. For I have perceived that power has gone out of Me."

<sup>47</sup> When the woman saw that she had not escaped notice, she came trembling and fell before Him. In front of all the people she told the reason why she had touched Him and how she had been healed immediately. <sup>48</sup> He told her, "Daughter, your faith has saved you. Go in peace!"

<sup>49</sup> While He was still speaking, someone came from the house of the leader of the synagogue. He said, "Your daughter is dead. Do not bother the Teacher any longer!"

<sup>50</sup> When Jesus heard this, He answered him, "Stop being afraid! Only believe, and she will be saved."

<sup>51</sup> When He arrived at the house, He did not permit anyone to go in with Him except Peter, John, James and the child's father and mother. <sup>52</sup> People were all weeping and mourning for her. However, He said, "Stop weeping! For she has not died but is sleeping."

<sup>53</sup> They ridiculed Him, because they knew that she had died. <sup>54</sup> However, He took hold of her hand and called out, "Girl, arise!"

<sup>55</sup> Her spirit returned, and she got up immediately, and Jesus ordered that she should be given something to eat. <sup>56</sup> Her parents were astonished, but He ordered them not to tell anyone what had happened.

Jesus' sending out of the twelve — Matthew 10:1-12, Mark 6:5-13

<sup>1</sup> Jesus called the Twelve together and gave them power and authority over all the demons and to heal diseases. <sup>2</sup> He sent them to preach the kingdom of God and to heal the sick. <sup>3</sup> He told them, "Do not take anything for the journey, no staff, no bag, no bread and no money! Do not take two tunics each!

<sup>4</sup> Whenever you go into a house, stay there and leave from there! <sup>5</sup> As for all who do not welcome you, when you go out of that city, shake the dust off your feet as a witness against them!"

Herod's opinion of Jesus — Matthew 14:1-2, Mark 6:14-16

<sup>7</sup> Herod the tetrarch heard about all that was happening and was perplexed, because some people were saying that John had risen from the dead. <sup>8</sup> It was being said by some that Elijah had appeared and by others that one of the other prophets of long ago had risen.

<sup>9</sup> Herod said, "I have beheaded John. However, who is this about whom I am hearing such things?"

He kept trying to see Jesus.

Jesus' feeding of five thousand men — Matthew 14:13-21, Mark 6:30-44, John 6:1-14

<sup>10</sup> The apostles came back and told Jesus all that they had done. He took them with Him and withdrew in private to a city called Bethsaida. <sup>11</sup> However, when the crowds found out about it, they followed Him. He welcomed them, began to speak to them about the kingdom of God and was healing those who needed healing. <sup>12</sup> The day began to decline, and the Twelve came to Him and told Him, "Send the crowd away, that they may go to the villages and farms round about, get lodging and find food! For here we are in a remote place."

<sup>13</sup> He told them, "You give them something to eat!" However, they answered, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless perhaps we go and buy food for all these people."

<sup>14</sup> For there were about five thousand men. Then He told His disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each!"

<sup>15</sup> The disciples did this and made them all sit down.

<sup>16</sup> He took the five loaves and the two fish, looked up to heaven, blessed them, broke them and kept giving them to the disciples to set them before the crowd.

<sup>17</sup> All of them had enough to eat. Twelve baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over by them were also taken up.

Peter's confession of Jesus at Caesarea Philippi — Matthew 16:13-20, Mark 8:27-30

<sup>18</sup> Once when Jesus was alone praying, His disciples were with Him, and He asked them, “Who do the crowds say I am?”

<sup>19</sup> They answered Him, “John the Baptist. Others say that You are Elijah, and still others say that one of the other ancient prophets has come back to life.”

<sup>20</sup> He asked them, “You, however, who do you say I am?”

Peter answered, “The Christ of God.”

<sup>21</sup> He strictly warned them and commanded them not to tell this to anyone.

Jesus' first explicit prediction of His passion — Matthew 16:21-23, Mark 8:31-33

<sup>22</sup> He said, “The Son of Man must suffer many things, be rejected by the elders, Chief Priests and scribes, be killed and be raised on the third day.”

The conditions of discipleship — Matthew 16:24-28, Mark 8:34-9:1

<sup>23</sup> He went on to tell them all, “If anyone wants to come after Me, he must deny himself and take up his cross every day and follow Me! <sup>24</sup> For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it. <sup>25</sup> For what good does it do a person to gain the whole world and lose himself or forfeit himself? <sup>26</sup> For, if anyone is ashamed of Me and My Words, the Son of Man will be ashamed of him when He comes in His glory and in the glory of the Father and of the holy angels. <sup>27</sup> However, I tell you truly, there are some of those who are standing here who will certainly not taste death until they see the kingdom of God.”

Jesus' transfiguration — Matthew 17:1-8, Mark 9:2-8

<sup>28</sup> About eight days after He said this, Jesus took Peter, John and James with Him and went up the mountain to pray. <sup>29</sup> While He was praying, the appearance of His face changed, and His clothing became dazzling white. <sup>30</sup> Suddenly two men were talking with Him. They were Moses and Elijah. <sup>31</sup> They appeared in glory and were talking about His departure, which He was about to make come true at Jerusalem.

<sup>32</sup> Peter and the men with him had been overcome by sleep. When they woke up, they saw His glory and the two men standing with Him. <sup>33</sup> When these were leaving Him, Peter said to Jesus, “Master, it is good for us to be here. Let us put up three shelters, one for You, one for Moses, and one for Elijah!”

He did not realise what he was saying. <sup>34</sup> While he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them. They were frightened as they went into the cloud. <sup>35</sup> Then a voice came out of the cloud: “This is

My Son, whom I have chosen. Listen to Him!”

<sup>36</sup> When the voice had spoken, there was Jesus all alone. The disciples kept quiet about this and, in those days, they did not tell anything of what they had seen.

Jesus' healing of an epileptic boy with an evil spirit — Matthew 17:14-21, Mark 9:14-29

<sup>41</sup> Jesus answered, “O you unbelieving and perverted generation! How long shall I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here!”

<sup>42</sup> While the boy was still coming, the demon flung him to the ground and threw him into convulsions. However, Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, healed the boy and gave him back to his father. <sup>43</sup> They were all amazed at the majesty of God.

Jesus' second explicit prediction of His passion — Matthew 17:22-23, Mark 9:30-32

While they were all marvelling at all the things that Jesus was doing, He told His disciples, <sup>44</sup> “As for you, put these Words into your ears! For the Son of Man is going to be betrayed into the hands of men.”

<sup>45</sup> However, they did not understand this saying. It had been hidden from them, so that they did not grasp it and they were afraid to ask Him about this saying.

A dispute among the disciples about greatness — Matthew 18:1-5, Mark 9:33-37

<sup>46</sup> An argument began among them about which of them was the greatest. <sup>47</sup> However, because Jesus knew the thoughts of their hearts, He took a little child, set him beside Him, <sup>48</sup> and told them, “Whoever receives this little child in My name receives Me. Moreover, whoever receives Me receives the One who has sent Me. For the one who is least among you all is the one who is the greatest.”

Jesus' comment about an exorcist who did not belong to the twelve — Mark 9:38-41

<sup>49</sup> John replied, “Master, we saw a man casting out demons in Your name and tried to stop him, because he is not a follower together with us.”

<sup>50</sup> However, Jesus told him, “Do not try to stop him! For the one who is not against you is for you.”

Jesus' journey from Galilee to Jerusalem (9:51-19:27)

His refusal to harm a Samaritan village for refusing to welcome Him

<sup>51</sup> As the time was coming nearer for Jesus to be taken up, He steadfastly set His face to go to Jerusalem.

<sup>52</sup> He sent messengers ahead of Him. They went and entered a village of the Samaritans to get things ready for Him. <sup>53</sup> However, the people did not welcome Him, because He was journeying with His face toward Jerusalem. <sup>54</sup> When His disciples James and John saw this, they asked, “Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and destroy them?”

<sup>55</sup> However, Jesus turned and rebuked them. <sup>56</sup> Then Jesus and His disciples went on to another village.

Jesus' response to claimants to discipleship — Matthew 8:19-22

<sup>57</sup> While they were walking along the road, someone told Jesus, "I shall follow You wherever You go."

<sup>58</sup> However, Jesus told him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay His head."

<sup>59</sup> He told another man, "Follow Me!"

However, he said, "Lord, first permit me to go back and bury my father!"

<sup>60</sup> Jesus told him, "Let the dead bury their own dead! Rather, you go and proclaim the kingdom of God!"

<sup>61</sup> Another man also said, "I shall follow You, Lord, but first permit me to say good-bye to those at home!"

<sup>62</sup> Jesus replied, "No one who puts his hand to the plough and looks back is fit for the kingdom of God."

10

Jesus' sending out of the seventy-two

<sup>1</sup> After this the Lord appointed seventy-two other men and sent them out in pairs to go ahead of Him to every city and place where He Himself was intending to go.

<sup>2</sup> He told them, "The harvest is great, but the labourers are few. Therefore, ask the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest! <sup>3</sup> Go! Look! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. <sup>4</sup> Do not carry a purse or a bag or sandals and do not greet anyone on the road! <sup>5</sup> Whenever you go into a house, first say, 'Peace to this house!' <sup>6</sup> If a man of peace is there, let your peace rest on him, but, if not, it will return to you. <sup>7</sup> Stay in the same house and eat and drink what they give! For a worker is worthy of his wages. Do not move around from one house to another!

<sup>8</sup> Whenever you go into a city and the people welcome you, eat what is set before you! <sup>9</sup> Heal the sick that are in it and tell the people, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you'! <sup>10</sup> However, whenever you go into a city and they do not welcome you, go out on its streets and say, <sup>11</sup> 'We are wiping off against you even the dust of your city that has clung to our feet! Nevertheless, realise this: The kingdom of God has come near you'!

<sup>12</sup> I tell you, on that day it will be more bearable for Sodom than for that city. <sup>13</sup> How terrible for you, Chorazin! How terrible for you, Bethsaida! For, if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

<sup>14</sup> However, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. <sup>15</sup> As for you, Capernaum, you will not be lifted up to heaven, will you? You will go down to Hades. <sup>16</sup> The person who hears you hears Me, and the person who rejects you rejects Me. The person who rejects Me rejects the One who has sent Me."

The return of the seventy-two men to Jesus

<sup>17</sup> The seventy-two men returned with joy. They said,

"Lord, even the demons do what we tell them in Your name."

<sup>18</sup> He replied to them, "I was watching Satan falling like lightning from heaven. <sup>19</sup> Look! I have given you the authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and on all the power of the enemy, and nothing at all will harm you. <sup>20</sup> However, do not rejoice because the spirits are subordinate to you! Rather, rejoice that your names have been written in heaven!"

Jesus' thanksgiving to the Father — Matthew 11:25-27

<sup>21</sup> In that hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit and said, "I praise You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that You have hidden these things from wise and intelligent people and have revealed them to infants. Yes, Father, because this has been Your gracious purpose. <sup>22</sup> All things have been handed over to Me by My Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son and anyone to whom the Son wishes to reveal Him."

Jesus' declaration about the blessedness of the disciples — Matthew 13:16-17

<sup>23</sup> Jesus turned to His disciples and told them privately: "Blessed are the eyes that see the things that you see! <sup>24</sup> For I tell you that many prophets and kings have desired to see the things that you are seeing but have not seen them and to hear the things that you are hearing but have not heard them."

Jesus' response to a lawyer's question — compare Matthew 22:34-40, Mark 12:28-31

<sup>25</sup> On one occasion a certain lawyer stood up to test Jesus. He asked, "Teacher, what should I do to inherit eternal life?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus asked him, "What do the Scriptures say in the Law? How do you read it?"

<sup>27</sup> He answered, "'You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength and with all your mind,' and 'You shall love your neighbour as yourself!'"

<sup>28</sup> Jesus told him, "You have answered correctly. Continue to do this and you will live!"

<sup>29</sup> However, the lawyer wanted to justify himself. So, he asked Jesus, "Who, then, is my neighbour?"

Jesus' parable about the good Samaritan

<sup>30</sup> Jesus answered: "A certain man was going from Jerusalem down to Jericho and fell into the hands of robbers. They stripped him, struck him blow after blow and went away, leaving him half-dead. <sup>31</sup> A priest happened to be going down that road, but, when he saw him, he went past on the other side. <sup>32</sup> When a Levite came to the place he too did the same thing. He looked at him and went past on the other side.

<sup>33</sup> However, as a certain Samaritan was travelling, he came on the man. When he saw him, he felt sorry for him. <sup>34</sup> He went over to him, poured olive-oil and wine on his wounds and bandaged them. Then he put him on his own animal, brought him to an inn and took care of him. <sup>35</sup> On the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. He said, 'Take care of him! When I return I shall pay you back for whatever else you spend on him.’

<sup>36</sup> “Which one of those three, do you think, has been a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of the robbers?”

<sup>37</sup> He said, “The one who has shown mercy to him.” Jesus told him, “You, too, go and keep doing as he did!”

Jesus’ statement about the one thing needful in the home of Martha and Mary

<sup>38</sup> As they were on their journey, Jesus entered a certain village, where a woman by the name of Martha welcomed Him into her home. <sup>39</sup> She had a sister by the name of Mary, who also kept sitting at the Lord’s feet, listening to His Word. <sup>40</sup> However, Martha was distracted with much serving. She came and asked, “Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to do the serving alone? Tell her to help me, then!”

<sup>41</sup> The Lord answered her, “Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted about many things, <sup>42</sup> but only one thing is needed. Yes, Mary has chosen that better part, and it will not be taken away from her.”

11

Jesus’ teaching of the Lord’s Prayer — Matthew 6:9-13

<sup>1</sup> Once Jesus was praying in a certain place. When He had finished, one of His disciples asked Him, “Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples!”

<sup>2</sup> He told them, “When you pray, say: ‘Our Father in heaven,

‘May Your name be kept holy!

‘May Your kingdom come!

<sup>4</sup> ‘Forgive us our sins! For we also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.

‘Do not lead us into temptation!’”

Jesus’ parable about a friend at midnight

<sup>5</sup> He also asked them, “Which of you will have a friend and will go to him at midnight and ask him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, <sup>6</sup> because a friend of mine on a journey has just come to my house, and I have nothing to set before him?’ <sup>7</sup> If he answers from inside: ‘Stop bothering me! The door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed. I cannot get up and give you anything,’ <sup>8</sup> I tell you, although he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet, because he persists, he will get up and give him as much as he needs.

Jesus’ teaching about God’s answer to prayer — Matthew 7:7-13

<sup>9</sup> “I also tell you: Keep asking! It will be given to you. Keep searching! You will find. Keep knocking! The door will be opened to you. <sup>10</sup> For everyone who continues to ask receives, and he who continues to search finds, and to him who continues to knock the door will be opened.

<sup>11</sup> “Which father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will give him a snake instead of a fish? <sup>12</sup> Or if he asks for an egg, will he give him a scorpion?

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, if you, although you are wicked, know how to give your children good gifts, how much more will your Father from heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him!”

An accusation of the Pharisees and the controversy about Beelzebul — Matthew 12:22-30, Mark 3:22-27

<sup>14</sup> Jesus was casting out a demon, and it could not talk. After the demon had gone out, the man who had been unable to talk began to speak and the crowds were amazed. <sup>15</sup> However, some of them said, “He is casting out the demons by Beelzebul, the ruler over the demons.”

<sup>16</sup> Others, testing Him, were trying to get from Him a miraculous sign from heaven. <sup>17</sup> Since He knew their thoughts, He told them, “Every kingdom that has been divided against itself is ruined, and a family that has been divided against a family falls. <sup>18</sup> If Satan also has been divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you are saying that I am casting out the demons by Beelzebul. <sup>19</sup> Moreover, if I am casting out the demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore, they will be your judges. <sup>20</sup> Nevertheless, if I am driving out the demons by the Finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come on you.

<sup>21</sup> “Whenever the strong man, fully armed, guards his own house, his possessions are secure. <sup>22</sup> However, when someone stronger than he attacks him and defeats him, he takes away his full armour, in which he had been trusting, and divides the spoils.

<sup>23</sup> “He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who is not gathering with Me is scattering.

The return of the evil spirit — Matthew 12:43-45

<sup>24</sup> “When the unclean spirit is cast out of a person, it goes through dry places, looking for rest. When it does not find it, then it says, ‘I shall return to my house, from which I have come out.’ <sup>25</sup> When it comes, it finds the house swept and put in order. <sup>26</sup> Then it goes and fetches with it seven other spirits that are more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there, and the last condition of that person is worse than the first.”

Jesus’ declaration about the blessedness of those who hear the Word

<sup>27</sup> While Jesus was saying these things, a certain woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, “Blessed is the womb that gave birth to You, and the breasts that You have sucked!”

<sup>28</sup> However, He said, “Rather, blessed are those who hear the Word of God and keep it!”

Jesus’ warning against trying to see miraculous signs — Matthew 12:38-42, Mark 8:11-12

<sup>29</sup> While the crowds were gathering even more, He began to say, “This is a wicked generation. It is trying to get a miraculous sign, and a miraculous sign will not be given to it except the miraculous sign of Jonah.

<sup>30</sup> For, as Jonah became a miraculous sign to the people of Nineveh, so also the Son of Man will be to this generation. <sup>31</sup> The Queen of the South will stand up at the judgment with the men of this generation and will condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and look! Something greater than Solomon is here. <sup>32</sup> The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah. and look! Something greater than Jonah is here.

Jesus comparison with light — Matthew 5:14-16, Matthew 6:22-28, Mark 4:21

<sup>33</sup> “No one lights a lamp and puts it in a cellar or under the grain-measure but on the lampstand, that those who come in may see the light. <sup>34</sup> Your eye is the lamp of your body. When your eye is sound, your whole body also is full of light. However, when your eye is bad, your body also is full of darkness.

<sup>35</sup> Therefore, take heed that the light that is in you is not darkness! <sup>36</sup> Therefore, if your whole body is full of light, without any part of it being dark, your whole body will be full of light as when a lamp shines on you with its light.”

Jesus' warnings about the Pharisees and the lawyers — Matthew 23:13-39, Mark 12:38-39

<sup>37</sup> When Jesus had finished speaking, a Pharisee invited Him to eat a meal with him. He went in and reclined at the table. <sup>38</sup> However, the Pharisee was astonished when he saw that Jesus did not first wash before the meal. <sup>39</sup> The Lord told him, “Now, you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but the inside of you is full of greed and wickedness. <sup>40</sup> You foolish people! Has not the One who has made the outside also made the inside? <sup>41</sup> Rather, give the things that are on the inside as a gift to help the poor! Then, you see, everything is clean for you.

<sup>42</sup> “However, how terrible for you Pharisees! For you give a tenth of mint, rue and every other garden herb and yet you neglect justice and the love of God. You should have practised the latter things without leaving the former things undone!

<sup>43</sup> “How terrible for you Pharisees! For you love the most important seats in the synagogues and greetings in the marketplaces.

<sup>44</sup> “How terrible for you! For you are like the unmarked graves People who walk over them without being aware of them.”

<sup>45</sup> One of the lawyers replied to Him, “Teacher, when You say these things You are insulting us also.”

<sup>46</sup> Jesus said, “How terrible for you lawyers also! For you load people with burdens that are hard to carry and yet you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

<sup>47</sup> “How terrible for you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and it was your fathers who killed them.

<sup>48</sup> Therefore, you are witnesses that you approve of what your fathers did, because they killed them, and you build their tombs. <sup>49</sup> Because of this, the wisdom of God has also said: ‘I shall send to them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill or persecute,’ <sup>50</sup> with the result that this generation will have to answer for the blood of all the prophets that has been shed from the foundation of the world, <sup>51</sup> from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zachariah, who was killed between the altar and the Temple. Yes, I tell you, this generation will have to answer for it.

<sup>52</sup> “How terrible for you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge. You have not gone in yourselves and you have hindered those who were entering.”

<sup>53</sup> When Jesus had gone out from there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be fiercely hostile to Him and to try to catch Him in many things that He said,

<sup>54</sup> lying in wait for Him, to trap Him in something He might say.

12

Jesus' warning about the hypocrisy of the Pharisees

<sup>1</sup> Meanwhile, after a crowd of many thousands had come together to Him, so that they were trampling on one another, Jesus began to speak first to His disciples: “Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy!

An exhortation to fearless confession — Matthew 10:19-20, 26-33, Mark 3:28-29

<sup>2</sup> “There is nothing that has been completely concealed that will not be revealed or hidden that will not be known. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, everything that you have spoken in the dark will be heard in the light, and what you have said in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops. <sup>4</sup> However, I tell you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that there is nothing more that they can do! <sup>5</sup> However, I shall show you the One whom you are to fear. Fear Him who, after He has killed, has the authority to cast into hell! Yes, I tell you, fear Him!

<sup>6</sup> “Are not five sparrows sold for two cents? Nevertheless, not one of them has been forgotten before God.

<sup>7</sup> However, even the hairs on your heads have all been counted! Stop being afraid! You are worth more than many sparrows. <sup>8</sup> I tell you, if anyone confesses Me before other people, the Son of Man will also confess him before the angels of God. <sup>9</sup> However, he who denies Me before other people will be denied before the angels of God. <sup>10</sup> Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven; but he who has blasphemed against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

<sup>11</sup> “When people bring you in before synagogues, rulers and other authorities, do not begin to worry about how you are to defend yourselves or what you are to say! <sup>12</sup> For the Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you must say.”

Jesus' parable about a rich fool

<sup>13</sup> Someone in the crowd asked Him, “Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me!”

<sup>14</sup> Jesus asked him, “Man, who appointed Me to be a judge or an arbitrator over you?”

<sup>15</sup> Then He told them, “Beware and be on your guard against all greed! For a person's life does not consist in how plentiful his possessions are."

16 Then Jesus told them a parable: "The ground of a certain rich man yielded plentifully. 17 He thought to himself, 'What am I to do? For I have no place to store my produce.'

18 "Then he said, 'This is what I shall do: I shall pull down my barns and build bigger ones and shall store my grain and all my other goods in them. 19 Then I shall say to myself, "Soul, you have many good things stored up for many years. Take life easy, eat, drink and enjoy yourself!"'

20 "However, God said to him, 'You fool, this very night your life will be demanded of you. Then who will get the things that you have prepared?'"

21 Jesus said, "So is he who lays up treasure for himself and is not rich toward God."

Jesus' teaching about worry — Matthew 6:19-21, 26-33

22 Jesus said to His disciples: "Therefore, I tell you: Stop worrying about your lives, what you are to eat or about your bodies, what you are to wear! 23 For life is a greater thing than food, and the body is a greater thing than clothing. 24 Consider the ravens! They do not sow or reap. They have no storeroom or barn, and yet God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than the birds? 25 Which of you by worrying can add an hour to his length of life? 26 Therefore, if you cannot do even the smallest thing, why do you worry about the rest? 27 Consider how the lilies grow! They do not labour or spin. Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendour was dressed like one of these.

28 If that is how God clothes the grass, which is in the field today and tomorrow is thrown into an oven, how much more will He clothe you, O you of little faith!

29 You also, stop trying to get what you are to eat and what you are to drink and stop being anxious! 30 For all the nations of the world search for these things, but your Father knows that you need them. 31 Rather, be eager to have His kingdom! These things will be given to you as well.

32 "Stop being afraid, little flock! For your Father has considered it good to give you the kingdom. 33 Sell your possessions and give to the poor! Make yourselves purses that do not wear out, a treasure that will never be used up, in heaven, where no thief comes near, and no moth destroys! 34 For your heart will also be where your treasure is.

Jesus' admonitions to be watchful and faithful — Matthew 24:43-51, Mark 13:35-36

35 "Be dressed for action and have your lamps burning! 36 Be like people who are waiting for their master when he comes back from the wedding feast, so that, when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open the door for him! 37 Blessed are those slaves whom the master will find wide-awake when he comes! Truly, I tell you, he will dress himself for work, have them recline at the table and will come and wait on them. 38 If he comes even in the second watch or even in the third watch and finds them like that, blessed are they! 39 Be aware of this, that if the owner of a house had known at what hour the burglar was coming, he would not have allowed his house to be broken into! 40 You also, be ready! For the Son of Man is coming at an hour when you do not expect Him."

41 Peter asked, "Lord, are You telling this parable to us or also to all people?"

42 The Lord said, "Who, then, is the trustworthy and sensible manager whom the master will put in charge of his other servants, to give them their food-allowance at the right time? 43 Blessed is that slave whom his master will find doing this when he comes! 44 Truly, I tell you that he will put him in charge of all his property. 45 However, if that slave says to himself, 'My master is taking a long time to come,' and begins to beat the male and female servants and to eat and drink and get drunk, 46 the master of that slave will come on a day when he is not expecting him and at an hour about which he is not aware. He will cut him in two and assign him his place with those who cannot be trusted.

Jesus' teaching about what is required from a servant

47 "That slave who has known what his master has wanted and has not prepared or done what he has wanted will be beaten with many blows. 48 However, he who has not known and has done things for which he has deserved to be beaten will be beaten with few blows. Much will be required from everyone who has been given much; and, if people have entrusted much to someone, they will require more from him.

Jesus' warning that He causes division and His criticism of the inability of His generation to discern its crucial time — Matthew 10:34-36, Matthew 16:2-3, Mark 10:38

49 "I have come to set fire on the earth, and how I wish it had already been kindled! 50 I have a baptism to be baptised with, and how troubled I am until it is completed! 51 Do you think that I have come to give peace on the earth? No, I tell you but rather, division. 52 For from now on there will be five in one family who have been divided, three against two, and two against three. 53 A father will be divided against a son, and a son against a father, a mother against her daughter, and a daughter against her mother, a mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

54 Jesus also told the crowds, "When you see the cloud coming up in the west, you immediately say, 'A rainstorm is coming,' and that is what happens. 55 In addition, when you see the south wind blowing, you say, 'It will be a hot day,' and it is. 56 You hypocrites! You know how to discern the appearance of the earth and of the sky. How is it that you do not know how to discern this present time? 57 Why, even for yourselves, do you not judge what is right?"

Jesus' teaching about the need to be reconciled with an adversary — Mat- thew 5:23-26

58 “For, when you are going with your opponent in a lawsuit before a magistrate, try hard to come to a settlement with him on the way, that he may not drag you off before the judge and the judge may not throw you over to the officer and the officer may not throw you into prison! 59 I tell you, you will certainly not get out of there until you have paid the very last cent.”

13

Jesus' exhortation to repentance

1 At that time some people were present who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. 2 Jesus answered them, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered in this way?

3 I tell you, no. However, unless you repent, you too will all perish in a similar way. 4 Or do you think that those eighteen who were killed when the tower at Siloam fell on them were guiltier than all the other people who were living in Jerusalem were? 5 I tell you, no; but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way.”

Jesus' teaching about God's patience and its limits

6 Jesus told them this parable: “A man had a fig tree that had been planted in his vineyard. He came looking for fruit on it but did not find any. 7 He told the man who worked the vineyard, ‘Look here! For the last three years I have been coming here looking for fruit on this fig tree and have not been finding any. Therefore, cut it down! Why does it keep using up the ground?’

8 “However, the man answered him, ‘Sir, allow it to stand this year also, until I dig around it and put fertiliser on it! 9 If the tree bears fruit in future, fine. However, if it does not, you will cut it down.’”

Jesus' healing of a woman who had been sick for eighteen years

10 Jesus was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath, 11 and a woman was there whom a spirit had caused to be unwell for eighteen years. She was bent over and could not straighten up at all. 12 When Jesus saw her, He called her to Himself and told her, “Woman you have been set free from your sickness.”

13 He laid His hands on her, and immediately she was made straight and began to glorify God.

14 However, the ruler of the synagogue responded with indignation that Jesus had healed on the Sabbath. He kept telling the crowd, “There are six days in which people ought to work. So, come on those days and be healed and not on the Sabbath day!”

15 The Lord answered him, “You hypocrites! Does not each of you untie his ox or donkey from its stall on the Sabbath and lead it out to give it a drink? 16 Should not this woman, who is a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has tied up for eighteen whole years, be untied on the Sabbath day from this thing that has tied her up?”

17 As He said this, all His opponents were put to shame, but all the crowd began to rejoice over all the glorious things that were being done by Him.

Jesus' parable about the mustard seed — Matthew 13:31-32, Mark 4:30-32

18 Then Jesus went on to say, “What is the kingdom of God like, and to what shall I compare it? 19 It is like a mustard seed that a man took and put in his garden. It grew and became a tree, and the birds of the sky nested in its branches.”

Jesus' parable about yeast — Matthew 13:33

20 He asked again, “To what shall I compare the kingdom of God? 21 It is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour, until it was all leavened.”

Jesus' admonition to enter through the narrow door, a warning about false confidence in being Israelites and a promise of God's grace to Gentiles

22 Jesus was travelling through each of the cities and villages and teaching as He was making the journey to Jerusalem. 23 Someone asked Him, “Lord, are there only few who are saved?”

He told them: 24 “Make every effort to enter through the narrow door! For, I tell you, many will try to enter and not be able to. 25 After the Owner of the house gets up and closes the door, and after you begin to stand outside and knock at the door, saying, ‘Lord, open it for us!’ He will answer you, ‘I do not know you or where you are from.’ 26 Then you will begin to say, ‘We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets.’ 27 However, He will tell you, ‘I do not know you or where you are from. Go away from Me, all you evildoers!’ 28 There will be weeping there and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God and see yourselves being thrown out. 29 People will also come from the east and the west and from the north and the south and will recline at table in the kingdom of God. 30 Indeed, there are those who are last who will be first, and there are those who are first who will be last.”

Jesus' departure from Galilee

31 Right at that time some Pharisees came to Jesus and told Him, “Leave here and go away! For Herod wants to kill You.”

32 He answered them, “Go and tell that fox, ‘Look! Today and tomorrow I am driving out demons and working healings and on the third day I shall be perfected!’ 33 Nevertheless I must be on My way today, tomorrow and the next day, because it is impossible that a prophet should perish outside of Jerusalem.

Jesus' lament over Jerusalem — compare Matthew 23:37-39

34 “Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the one that kills the prophets and stones those who have been sent to it! How often I have wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you have not been willing! 35 Look! Your house is abandoned to your disadvantage. I also tell you, you certainly will not see Me until the time comes when you say, ‘Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!’”

14

Jesus' healing of a man with dropsy

<sup>1</sup> On a Sabbath Jesus went to the home of one of the rulers of the Pharisees to eat a meal, and they were watching Him closely. <sup>2</sup> He saw a man in front of Him who had dropsy. <sup>3</sup> Jesus asked the lawyers and Pharisees, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath or not?"

<sup>4</sup> However, they remained silent. Jesus took hold of the man, healed him and sent him away. <sup>5</sup> Then He asked them, "Which of you, whose son or ox falls into a well, will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?"

<sup>6</sup> They could not answer this.

Jesus' teaching about humility

<sup>7</sup> Then He began to tell a parable to those who had been invited, since He noticed how the guests were trying to choose the places of honour: <sup>8</sup> "When you are invited by someone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the place of honour! It may be that he has invited a person who is more distinguished than you are. <sup>9</sup> Then he who has invited him and you will tell you, 'Give this man your place!' and then with shame you will begin to take the last place. <sup>10</sup> However, when you are invited, go and sit down in the last place, and so when your host comes he will tell you, 'Friend, move up higher!' Then you will be honoured in the presence of all the fellow guests who are sitting with you. <sup>11</sup> For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

<sup>12</sup> Then He told the man who had invited Him, "When you give a meal or a dinner, do not invite your friends, your brothers, your relatives or your rich neighbours, to avoid having them invite you back and repaying you! <sup>13</sup> Rather, when you give a banquet, invite poor people, crippled people, lame people and blind people. <sup>14</sup> Then you will be blessed, because they have nothing with which to pay you back. For you will be paid back when those who are righteous rise from the dead."

Jesus' parable about the great supper

<sup>15</sup> When one of those who were reclining at table with Jesus heard this, he said to Him, "Blessed is the person who will eat bread in the kingdom of God!"

<sup>16</sup> Jesus told him: "A certain man was preparing a great banquet and invited many people. <sup>17</sup> When it was time for the banquet, he sent his slave to tell those who had been invited, 'Come! For everything is now ready.'

<sup>18</sup> "Then they all alike began to excuse themselves. The first told him, 'I have bought a field and must go out to see it. I ask you, have me excused!'

<sup>19</sup> "Another said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen and am on my way to try them out. I ask you, have me excused!'

<sup>20</sup> "Another said, 'I have married a wife and therefore I cannot come.'

<sup>21</sup> "The slave came back and reported this to his master. Then the master of the house became angry and told his slave, 'Go out quickly into the streets and alleys of the city and bring in here poor people, crippled people, blind people and lame people!'

<sup>22</sup> "The slave said, 'Master, what you have ordered has been done and there is still room.'

<sup>23</sup> "Then the master told the slave, 'Go out to the roads and hedges and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled! <sup>24</sup> For I tell you that none of those men who had been invited will taste my banquet.'"

The conditions of discipleship — Matthew 10:37-38

<sup>25</sup> Large crowds were travelling with Jesus. He turned to them and said, <sup>26</sup> "If anyone comes to Me and does not hate his father, mother, wife, children, brothers and sisters, yes and his own life also, he cannot be My disciple. <sup>27</sup> Whoever does not carry his cross and come after Me cannot be My disciple. <sup>28</sup> For which of you, intending to build a tower, does not first sit down and calculate what it will cost, to see if he has enough to finish it? <sup>29</sup> Otherwise, when he has laid a foundation and cannot finish the building, all who watch him might begin to make fun of him, <sup>30</sup> and say, 'This man began to build but could not finish it.' <sup>31</sup> Or what king, on his way to make war against another king, does not first sit down and consider whether with ten thousand men he can oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand? <sup>32</sup> Otherwise, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation to ask for terms of peace. <sup>33</sup> In the same way, therefore, whoever of you does not give up everything that he has cannot be My disciple. <sup>34</sup> Therefore, salt is good. However, if salt loses its taste, how will it be seasoned? <sup>35</sup> It is no good either for the soil or for the manure pile. People throw it away. He who has ears to hear should listen!"

15

Jesus' parable about the lost sheep — Matthew 18:12-14

<sup>1</sup> All the tax-collectors and other sinners were coming to Jesus to hear Him. <sup>2</sup> However, the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled and said, "This Man welcomes sinners and eats with them."

<sup>3</sup> He told them this parable: <sup>4</sup> "Which man among you who has a hundred sheep, if he loses one of them, does not leave the other ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the lost one until he finds it? <sup>5</sup> When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and is glad.

<sup>6</sup> He goes home, calls his friends and neighbours together and tells them, 'Be happy with me! For I have found my lost sheep.' <sup>7</sup> I tell you that in the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who do not need to repent.

Jesus' parable about the lost coin

<sup>8</sup> "Or which woman who has ten silver coins, if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp, sweep the house and look for it carefully until she finds it? <sup>9</sup> When she has found it, she calls her friends and neighbours together and says, 'Be happy with me! For I have found the coin that I lost.' <sup>10</sup> In the same way, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

Jesus' parable about the lost son

<sup>11</sup> Jesus said: "A certain man had two sons. <sup>12</sup> The younger one of them asked his father, 'Father, give me my share of the property!' So, he divided his property between them. <sup>13</sup> Not many days later the younger son got together all he had and left home for a distant country and there he wasted his possessions in wild living. <sup>14</sup> When he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need. <sup>15</sup> He went and attached himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs. <sup>16</sup> He longed to fill up on the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one would give him anything. <sup>17</sup> When he came to himself, he said, 'How many of my father's hired men have plenty of bread, and here I am starving to death. <sup>18</sup> I shall get up and go to my father and tell him, "Father, I have sinned against Heaven and against you. <sup>19</sup> I do not deserve to be called your son any longer. Make me one of your hired men!"'

<sup>20</sup> "So, he got up and went to his father. While he was still far away, his father saw him and was filled with compassion. He ran, fell on his neck and kissed him. <sup>21</sup> The son told him, 'Father, I have sinned against Heaven and against you. I do not deserve to be called your son any longer.'

The resentment of the elder brother

<sup>25</sup> "His elder son was in the field. As he was coming in and approached the house, he heard music and dancing. <sup>26</sup> He called one of the servants and asked what this meant.

<sup>27</sup> "The servant answered, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has received him back safe and sound.'

<sup>28</sup> "However, the elder brother became angry and would not go in. His father came out and pleaded with him.

<sup>29</sup> "However, he answered his father, 'Look! All these years I have been working like a slave for you and have never disobeyed a command of yours, and yet you have never given me a little goat to celebrate with my friends. <sup>30</sup> However, as soon as this son of yours has come back, who has squandered your property with prostitutes, you have killed the fattened calf for him.'

<sup>31</sup> "The father told him, 'Son, you are always with me, and everything that I have is yours; <sup>32</sup> but we had to celebrate and be glad. For this brother of yours was dead and has come to life. He was lost and has been found.'"

16

Jesus' parable about a shrewd manager

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus also told His disciples: "There was a certain rich man who had a manager, and allegations were brought to him that this man was squandering his property. <sup>2</sup> He called the manager and asked him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give an account of your management! For you cannot be manager any longer.'

<sup>3</sup> "The manager said to himself, 'What am I to do? For my master is taking my position as manager away from me. I am not strong enough to dig, I am ashamed to beg. <sup>4</sup> I have realised what I should do, so that, when I am dismissed from my position as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.'

<sup>5</sup> "So, he called in each one of his master's debtors. He asked the first one, 'How much do you owe my master?'

"The manager said, 'Take your bill and sit down quickly and write "one thousand, five hundred!"'

<sup>7</sup> "Then he asked another, 'How much do you owe?'

"He answered, 'Thirty tonnes of wheat.'

"The manager told him, 'Take your bill and write, "Twenty-four!"'

<sup>8</sup> "The master praised the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are shrewder than the people of the light in dealing with their own kind of people. <sup>9</sup> I also tell you: Make friends for yourselves with unrighteous mammon, so that, when it runs out, they may welcome you into the eternal dwellings! <sup>10</sup> The person who is trustworthy in what is least is also trustworthy in much. The person who is unjust in what is least is also unjust in much.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, if you have not been trustworthy with unrighteous mammon, who will trust you with what is genuine? <sup>12</sup> If you have not been trustworthy with someone else's property, who will give you property of your own? <sup>13</sup> No household slave can serve two masters. For either he will hate the one and love the other or he will be loyal to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon.

Jesus' criticism of the Pharisees' hypocrisy

<sup>14</sup> The Pharisees, who were fond of money, heard all this and began to sneer at Jesus. <sup>15</sup> He told them, "You are the ones who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts. For what is exalted among men is detestable in the sight of God.

Jesus' teaching about the Law and the prophets — Matthew 11:12-13, Matthew 5:18

<sup>16</sup> "The Law and the Prophets were until John. Since then the good news of the kingdom of God is being told, and everyone is forcing his way into it.

17 “It is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one small part of a letter to drop out of the Law.

Jesus’ teaching about divorce — Matthew 5:12

18 “Anyone who divorces his wife and marries another is committing adultery. The man who marries a woman who has been divorced from her husband is also committing adultery.

Jesus’ contrast between a rich man and Lazarus

19 “A certain man was rich. He used to dress in purple and fine linen and enjoyed himself splendidly every day. <sup>20</sup> A certain beggar by the name of Lazarus had been laid at his gate. He was covered with ulcers, <sup>21</sup> and longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man’s table. Moreover, even the dogs used to come and lick his ulcers. <sup>22</sup> The beggar died, and the angels carried him to Abraham’s side. The rich man also died and was buried. <sup>23</sup> In Hades he looked up, as he was being tormented and saw Abraham far away and Lazarus at his side. <sup>24</sup> He called, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue! For I am in agony in this flame.’

<sup>25</sup> “However, Abraham replied, ‘Son, remember that you received your good things in your lifetime, while Lazarus received bad things! However, now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. <sup>26</sup> Besides all these things, a great chasm has been fixed between us and you, so that those who want to cross over from here to you cannot, and people cannot cross over from there to us.’

<sup>27</sup> “He answered, ‘Therefore, I ask you, father, to send Lazarus to my father’s family. <sup>28</sup> For I have five brothers. Let him warn them, that they also may not come to this place of torture!’

<sup>29</sup> “Abraham replied, ‘They have Moses and the prophets. They should listen to them!’

<sup>30</sup> “He said, ‘No, father Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’

<sup>31</sup> “Abraham answered him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, they will not be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’”

Jesus’ warning about causing others to stumble — Matthew 18:6-7, Mark 9:42

<sup>1</sup> Jesus told His disciples, “It is impossible that things that cause people to stumble will not come, but how terrible for the person through whom they do come!

<sup>2</sup> It would be better for him if a large millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble.

Jesus’ teaching about forgiving others — Matthew 18:15, 21-22

<sup>3</sup> “Be on your guard! If your brother sins, rebuke him, and, if he repents, forgive him! <sup>4</sup> If he sins against you seven times in a day and comes back to you seven times and says, ‘I repent,’ you shall forgive him!”

Jesus’ teaching about faith — Matthew 17:20

<sup>6</sup> The Lord said, “If you have faith like a mustard seed, you would tell this mulberry tree, ‘Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea!’ and it would obey you.

Jesus’ teaching that doing one’s duty does not earn reward

<sup>7</sup> “Which of you who has a slave ploughing or looking after sheep will tell him, when he comes in from the field, ‘Come here at once and sit down to eat!’?”

<sup>8</sup> Rather, will he not tell him, ‘Get dinner ready for me! Tuck your clothes up and wait on me while I eat and drink! After that you may eat and drink’? <sup>9</sup> He does not thank the slave for doing what he has been ordered to do, does he? <sup>10</sup> When you have done everything you have been ordered to do, you also should say, ‘We are worthless slaves. We have only done what our duty was to do.’”

Jesus’ healing of ten lepers and the return of one of them to thank Him

<sup>11</sup> As Jesus was travelling to Jerusalem, He went along the border between Samaria and Galilee. <sup>12</sup> As He was entering a village, ten men who were lepers came toward Him. They stood at a distance <sup>13</sup> and called out aloud, “Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!”

<sup>14</sup> When Jesus saw them, He told them, “Go! Show yourselves to the priests!”

As they went, they were made clean. <sup>15</sup> When one of them saw that he had been healed, he came back, loudly glorifying God. <sup>16</sup> He fell on his face at Jesus’ feet, thanking Him; and he was a Samaritan.

<sup>17</sup> Jesus asked, “Were not the ten made clean? Where are the other nine? <sup>18</sup> Has no one been found to return and give glory to God except this foreigner?”

<sup>19</sup> Then Jesus told him, “Get up and go! Your faith has saved you.”

Jesus’ teaching about the coming of the kingdom of God — Matthew 24:23, Mark 13:21

<sup>20</sup> Jesus was asked by the Pharisees, “When will the kingdom of God come?”

He answered them, “The kingdom of God does not come in such a way that people can observe it. <sup>21</sup> Nor will people say, ‘Look! Here it is,’ or ‘There it is.’ For, indeed, the kingdom of God is in your midst.”

The day of the Son of Man — Matthew 24:26-28, 37-41, Matthew 10:39, Matthew 24:40, 28

<sup>22</sup> He told His disciples, “The days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man and you will not see it. <sup>23</sup> People will tell you, ‘Look! There!’ or ‘Look! Here!’ Do not go off or follow them. <sup>24</sup> For the Son of Man in His day will be like the lightning, which flashes out of one part under the sky and shines to the other part under the sky.

<sup>25</sup> However, first He must suffer much and be rejected by this generation. <sup>26</sup> In the days of the Son of Man it will be as it was in the days of Noah. <sup>27</sup> People were eating, drinking, marrying and being given in marriage until the day when Noah went into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all. <sup>28</sup> Likewise, it will be as it was in the days of Lot: people were eating and drinking, buying and selling, planting and building. <sup>29</sup> However, on the day when Lot went out of Sodom, fire and sulphur rained from heaven and destroyed them all. <sup>30</sup> That is what it will be like on the day when the Son of Man is revealed. <sup>31</sup> On that day, the person who is on the roof of his house and has his goods in the house should not come down to fetch them! Likewise, the person who is in the field should not turn back! <sup>32</sup> Remember Lot's wife! <sup>33</sup> Whoever tries to preserve his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life will keep it alive. <sup>34</sup> I tell you, on that night there will be two people in one bed, the one will be taken and the other will be left. <sup>35</sup> Two women will be grinding grain at the same place, the one will be taken and the other will be left.” *176

18

Jesus' parable about the unjust judge

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus told them a parable to show them that they should always pray and not give up: <sup>2</sup> He said: “In a certain city there was a judge who did not fear God or respect people. <sup>3</sup> There was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, ‘Get justice for me against my adversary!’ <sup>4</sup> For some time he refused. However, afterwards he said to himself, ‘Even though I do not fear God or respect a human being either, <sup>5</sup> yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I shall secure justice for her, that she may not finally wear me out by her coming.’”

<sup>6</sup> Then the Lord said, “Listen to what the unjust judge says! <sup>7</sup> Will God also not surely get justice for His elect, who cry out to Him for help day and night? Does He then delay a long time to help them? <sup>8</sup> I tell you, He will quickly get justice for them. However, when the Son of Man comes, will He find faith on the earth?”

Jesus' parable about the Pharisee and the tax-collector

<sup>9</sup> Jesus also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous and despised everyone else: <sup>10</sup> “Two men went up to the Temple to pray. One was a Pharisee, and the other a tax-collector. <sup>11</sup> The Pharisee stood and prayed this about himself: ‘God, I thank You that I am not like other people: robbers, wrongdoers, adulterers or even like this tax-collector. <sup>12</sup> I fast twice a week and give a tenth of all my income.’ <sup>13</sup> However, the tax-collector, standing at a distance, did not even want to look up to heaven but kept beating his chest and saying, ‘God, be propitiated to me, the sinner!’ <sup>14</sup> I tell you, this man, rather than the other, went home justified. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Jesus' reception of little children — Matthew 19:13-15, Mark 10:13-16

<sup>15</sup> People were bringing even the infants to Jesus that He might touch them. When the disciples saw it, they began to rebuke them. <sup>16</sup> However, Jesus called the infants to Him and said, “Let the little children come to Me and do not forbid them! For the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. <sup>17</sup> Truly, I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will certainly not enter it.”

Jesus' answer to a rich young leader's question — Matthew 19:16-30, Mark 10:17-31

<sup>18</sup> A certain ruler asked Him, “Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?”

<sup>19</sup> Jesus asked him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good except One, God. <sup>20</sup> You know the Commandments: ‘Do not commit adultery!’ ‘Do not murder!’ ‘Do not steal!’ ‘Do not give false testimony!’ ‘Honour your father and mother!’”

<sup>21</sup> He said, “I have been keeping all these since I was young.”

<sup>22</sup> When Jesus heard this, He told him, “You still lack one thing: Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor! You will have treasure in heaven. Then come here and follow Me!”

<sup>23</sup> When he heard this, he became very sad. For he was extremely rich.

<sup>24</sup> When Jesus saw that he had become very sorrowful, He said, “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God! <sup>25</sup> For it is easier for a camel to enter through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Peter said, “Look! We have left our own possessions and have been following You.”

<sup>29</sup> He answered them, “Truly, I tell you that there is certainly no one who has left home or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the kingdom of God <sup>30</sup> who will not receive many times as much in this present time and, in the coming age, eternal life.”

Jesus' third explicit prediction of His passion — Matthew 20:17-19, Mark 10:32-34

<sup>31</sup> Jesus took the Twelve aside and told them: “Look! We are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that have been written through the prophets about the Son of Man will be fulfilled. <sup>32</sup> For He will be handed over to the Gentiles and will be mocked, insulted and spat on. <sup>33</sup> They will scourge Him and kill Him, and on the third day He will rise again.”

<sup>34</sup> However, the disciples understood none of these things. This saying had been hidden from them, and they did not understand the things that were being said.

Jesus' healing of blind Bartimaeus — Matthew 20:29-34, Mark 10:46-52

<sup>38</sup> He shouted, “Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>39</sup> Those who were going in front were rebuking him, telling him to be quiet. Instead, he kept shouting even more, “Son of David, have mercy on me!”

<sup>40</sup> Jesus stood still and ordered that the man should be brought to Him. After he had come close, Jesus asked him, <sup>41</sup> “What do you want Me to do for you?” He said, “Lord, I want to get my sight back.”

<sup>42</sup> Jesus told him, “Receive your sight again! Your faith has saved you.”

<sup>43</sup> Immediately he received his sight again and began to follow Jesus, glorifying God. When all the people saw this, they gave praise to God.

19

The change in Zacchaeus when Jesus went to his home

<sup>1</sup> Then Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through it. <sup>2</sup> A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax-collector and was rich. <sup>3</sup> He was trying to see who Jesus was but could not see Him because of the crowd. For he was a short man. <sup>4</sup> So, he ran ahead and climbed up a sycamore-fig tree to see Jesus, because Jesus intended to go through that way. <sup>5</sup> When Jesus came to the place, He looked up and told him, “Zacchaeus, come down quickly! For today I must stay at your house.”

<sup>6</sup> He came down quickly and welcomed Him joyfully.

<sup>7</sup> However, when they all saw it, they began to grumble: “He has gone to be the guest of a man who is a ‘sinner’.”

<sup>8</sup> Zacchaeus stood up and told the Lord, “Look! I am giving half of my property, Lord, to the poor and, if I have cheated anyone out of anything, I shall pay him back four times as much.”

<sup>9</sup> Jesus said to him, “Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. <sup>10</sup> For the Son of Man has come to search for and to save what has been lost.”

The parable about the ten minas

<sup>11</sup> While they were listening to these things, Jesus told another parable, because He was near Jerusalem and because they thought that the kingdom of God was about to appear immediately. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, He said, “A certain man of noble birth went to a distant country to receive a kingdom for himself and then to return. <sup>13</sup> He called ten of his slaves, gave them ten minas and told them, ‘Do business until I come back!’”

<sup>14</sup> “However, his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him to say, ‘We do not want this man to reign over us.’”

<sup>15</sup> “After he had received the kingdom, he came back.

He then commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, to find out what business they had done.

<sup>16</sup> “The first one came and said, ‘Master, your mina has earned ten more minas.’”

<sup>17</sup> “He told him, ‘Well done, good slave!’ Because you have been faithful in very little, have authority over ten cities!”

<sup>18</sup> “The second one came and said, ‘Your mina, master, has made five more minas.’”

<sup>19</sup> “He told this one also, ‘You too be over five cities!’”

<sup>20</sup> “Then another one came and said, ‘Master, here is your mina, which I have been keeping, laid aside in a face-cloth. <sup>21</sup> For I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man. You withdraw what you have not deposited and harvest what you have not sown.’”

<sup>22</sup> “He told him, ‘I judge you by what you say, wicked slave.’ You knew, did you, that I am a hard man, withdrawing what I have not deposited and harvesting what I have not sown? <sup>23</sup> Why, then, did you not put my money in the bank? Then, when I came back, I would have collected it with interest.’”

<sup>24</sup> “He told those who were standing by, ‘Take the mina away from him and give it to the one who has ten minas!’”

<sup>25</sup> However, they answered him, ‘Master, he has ten minas.’”

<sup>26</sup> “I tell you that more will be given to everyone who has, and even what he has will be taken away from the one who has nothing. <sup>27</sup> However, bring here these enemies of mine who did not want me to reign over them and slaughter them in front of me!””

Jesus’ last days in and around Jerusalem: Holy Week, Jesus’ passion, death and resurrection, to the ascension (19:28-24:53)

Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem — Matthew 21:1-9, Mark 11:1-10, John 12:12-19

<sup>28</sup> After Jesus had said this, He continued His way in front of them up to Jerusalem. <sup>29</sup> When He came near Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives, as it was called, He sent two of His disciples. <sup>30</sup> He said, “Go into the village ahead of you! As you enter, you will find a colt tied up on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it! <sup>31</sup> If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ say, ‘The Lord needs it!’”

<sup>32</sup> The men whom He had sent went and found it just as He had told them. <sup>33</sup> While they were untying the colt, its owners asked them, “Why are you untying the colt?”

<sup>38</sup> They said: “Blessed is the King who is coming in the name of the Lord! In heaven peace, and glory in the highest heavens!”

Jesus' prediction of the destruction of Jerusalem — Matthew 21:14-16

<sup>39</sup> Some of the Pharisees in the crowd told Him, “Teacher, order Your disciples to be quiet!”

<sup>40</sup> He answered them, “I tell you, if these keep quiet, the stones will cry out.”

<sup>41</sup> When Jesus approached the city and saw it, He wept over it, <sup>42</sup> and said, “If you, yes, you, had known, on this day, the things that bring peace! However, now they have been hidden from your eyes.

<sup>43</sup> For days will come on you when your enemies will build a palisade against you, surround you and hem you in from every side. <sup>44</sup> They will dash to the ground you and your children inside your walls and will not leave one stone on another in you, because you have not recognised the time of your gracious visitation.”

Jesus' clearing of the Temple — Matthew 21:12-19, Mark 11:15-19

<sup>45</sup> Then Jesus entered the Temple and began to drive out the traders. <sup>46</sup> He told them, “Scripture has said, ‘My house will be a house of prayer,’ but you have made it ‘a den of thieves.’”

<sup>47</sup> He was teaching daily in the Temple. However, the Chief Priests, the scribes and the leaders of the people were trying to destroy Him. <sup>48</sup> However, they could not find what they were to do. For all the people used to hang on His Words as they listened to Him.

20

Jesus' response to a question about His authority — Matthew 21:23-27, Mark 11:27-31

<sup>1</sup> On one of the days, while He was teaching the people in the Temple and telling the Good News, the Chief Priests and the scribes, together with the elders, came up to Him. <sup>2</sup> They asked Him, “Tell us by what authority You are doing these things or who the One is who has given You this authority!”

<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered them, “I also shall ask you a question, and you tell Me! <sup>4</sup> ‘The baptism of John, was it from heaven or from men?’”

<sup>5</sup> They discussed it among themselves, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will ask, ‘Why did you not believe him?’ <sup>6</sup> However, if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us. For they are convinced that John was a prophet.”

<sup>7</sup> So, they answered that they did not know where it was from. <sup>8</sup> Then Jesus told them, “Neither do I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

Jesus' parable about the wicked tenant-farmers — Matthew 21:33-46, Mark 12:1-12

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesus began to tell the people this parable: “A certain man planted a vineyard, leased it out to tenant-farmers and left home for a long time. <sup>10</sup> At the right time he sent a servant to the tenant-farmers that they might give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. However, the tenant-farmers beat him and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>11</sup> Then he sent another servant. They also beat him, treated him shamefully and sent him away empty-handed. <sup>12</sup> Then he sent a third servant. They wounded this one, too and threw him out. <sup>13</sup> Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What am I to do? I shall send my son, whom I love. Perhaps they will respect him.’

<sup>14</sup> “However, when the tenant-farmers saw him, they discussed it among themselves. They said, ‘This is the heir. Let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours!’

<sup>15</sup> “They threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

“Therefore, what will the owner of the vineyard do to them? <sup>16</sup> He will come and destroy these tenant-farmers and give the vineyard to others.”

When the people heard this, they said, “May this not happen!”

<sup>17</sup> Jesus looked straight at them and asked, “Therefore, what does this Scripture-passage mean: ‘The Stone that the builders rejected has become the Cornerstone’? <sup>18</sup> Everyone who falls on that Stone will be dashed in pieces and, if that Stone falls on anyone, It will scatter him like dust.”

<sup>19</sup> The scribes and the Chief Priests looked for a way to lay hands on Him immediately, because they knew that He had spoken this parable against them but were afraid of the people.

Jesus' answer to a question about paying tax to Caesar — Matthew 22:15-22, Mark 12:13-17

<sup>20</sup> They kept a close watch on Him and sent spies who pretended to be righteous men, that they might catch Him in what He said, to hand Him over to the power and authority of the governor. <sup>21</sup> They said to Him, “Teacher, we know that You speak and teach what is right and that You do not show personal favouritism. Rather, You teach the Way of God in truth. <sup>22</sup> Is it right for us to pay a tax to Caesar or not?”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus perceived their craftiness and said to them, <sup>24</sup> “Show Me a denarius! Whose image and inscription does it have?”

They answered, “Caesar’s.”

<sup>25</sup> He told them, “Therefore, pay to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s and to God the things that are God’s!”

<sup>26</sup> They could not trap Him before the people in what He said and, since they were astonished at His answer, they became silent.

Jesus' answer to a question of the Sadducees about the resurrection — Matthew 22:23-33, Mark 12:18-27

<sup>27</sup> Some of the Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection, came to Jesus and asked Him:

<sup>28</sup> “Teacher, Moses has written for us, ‘If any married man dies and has no children, his brother should marry the widow and raise up children for his brother!’ <sup>29</sup> Now there were seven brothers. The first one married a woman and died without children.

<sup>30</sup> Then the second one, <sup>31</sup> and then the third one married her, and in the same way the rest of the seven died without leaving any children. <sup>32</sup> Finally, the woman also died. <sup>33</sup> Therefore, in the resurrection, whose wife does she become? For the seven were married to her.”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus told them: “The people of this world marry and are given in marriage, <sup>35</sup> but those who are considered worthy to obtain that world and the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. <sup>36</sup> For they cannot die any longer either, because they are equal to the angels. They are God’s children, since they are children of the resurrection. <sup>37</sup> However, that the dead are raised, even Moses revealed, in the passage about the bush, when he called the Lord ‘the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.’ <sup>38</sup> He is not the God of the dead but of the living. For to Him all are alive.”

Jesus’ question about David’s Son — Matthew 22:41-46, Mark 12:35-37

Jesus’ warning against the scribes — Matthew 23:1-12, Mark 12:37-40

21

Jesus’ comment about a widow’s coins — Mark 12:41-44

Jesus’ prediction of the destruction of the Temple — Matthew 24:1-3, Mark 13:1-4

<sup>5</sup> Some were saying about the Temple, “It has been beautifully constructed with fine stones and decorated with beautiful gifts.”

Jesus said, <sup>6</sup> “As for these things that you see, the days will come when not one stone will be left on another. Each one will be thrown down.”

<sup>7</sup> They asked Him, “Teacher, when will these things be, therefore. and what will be the miraculous sign when these things are about to happen?”

The signs of the kingdom — Matthew 24:4-8, Mark 13:5-8

<sup>8</sup> Jesus said, “Be careful that you are not deceived! For many will come in My name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and ‘The time has come near.’ Do not follow them! <sup>9</sup> When you hear of wars and revolutions, do not become alarmed! For these things must happen first, but the end will not come immediately.”

<sup>10</sup> Then He told them, “One nation will arise against another nation. and one kingdom against another kingdom. <sup>11</sup> There will be great earthquakes, famines, plagues in various places, terrifying sights and great miraculous signs from heaven.

The beginning of the troubles — Matthew 24:9-14, Mark 13:9-13

<sup>12</sup> “However, before all these things happen, people will lay their hands on you, persecute you and hand you over to synagogues and prisons. You will be brought before kings and governors because of My name. <sup>13</sup> This will result in your giving witness to them. <sup>14</sup> Therefore, make up your minds not to worry beforehand how to defend yourselves! <sup>15</sup> For I shall give you such wisdom to utter that none of your enemies will be able to resist it or contradict it. <sup>16</sup> Nevertheless, even parents, brothers, relatives and friends will betray you and will put some of you to death. <sup>17</sup> Because of My name all people will also hate you. <sup>18</sup> However, not a strand of hair on your heads will be lost. <sup>19</sup> Gain your lives by your patient endurance!

A prediction about the devastating abomination — Matthew 24:15-22, Mark 13:14-20

<sup>20</sup> “When you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is near! <sup>21</sup> Then those who are in Judea should flee to the mountains. and those who are inside the city should leave it! Those who are in the country should not go into the city! <sup>22</sup> For these are the days of vengeance, that all the things in the Scriptures may be fulfilled. <sup>23</sup> How dreadful it will be for the women who are pregnant and for those who are breast-feeding in those days! For there will be great distress in the land and wrath on this people. <sup>24</sup> They will fall by the edge of the sword and will be led away as prisoners among all the nations, and the Gentiles will trample on Jerusalem until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.

The coming of the Son of Man — Matthew 24:29-31, Mark 13:24-27

<sup>25</sup> “There will be miraculous signs in the sun, the moon and the stars and, on the earth, nations will be distressed and perplexed at the roaring and tossing of the sea. <sup>26</sup> People’s hearts will fail them as they fearfully wait for the things that are coming on the world. For the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>27</sup> Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. <sup>28</sup> When these things begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads! For your redemption is coming near.”

Jesus’ parable about the fig tree — Matthew 24:32-33, Mark 13:28-29

<sup>29</sup> Then He told a parable to them: “Look at the fig tree and all the other trees! <sup>30</sup> As soon as they put out their leaves, you see and know for yourselves that summer is near. <sup>31</sup> So you also, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near!

The certainty of Jesus' Words — Matthew 24:34-36, Mark 13:30-32

32 “Truly, I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things take place. 33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but My Words will certainly not pass away.

The need for watchfulness and prayer — compare Matthew 24:37-41, Mark 13:33-37

34 “However, be careful that your hearts do not become burdened with carousing, drunkenness and worries about this life or that day will come on you unexpectedly, 35 like a trap! For it will come on all those who live on the face of the whole earth. 36 However, always be on the watch and pray that you may be able to escape all these things that are going to happen and to stand before the Son of Man!”

A summary of the time that Jesus spent in Jerusalem before His passion

37 During the days, Jesus used to teach in the Temple, but, at nights, He used to go out to the mountain called “The Mount of Olives,” and stay there. 38 All the people used to get up very early in the morning to come to Him at the Temple to hear Him.

The plot of the Jews to put Jesus to death — Matthew 26:1-5, Mark 14:1-2, John 11:45-57

1 The Feast of Unleavened Bread, which is called “the Passover,” was approaching. 2 The Chief Priests and the scribes were searching for a way to put Him to death. For they were afraid of the people.

Judas' plan to betray Jesus — Matthew 26:14-16, Mark 14:10-11

3 Then Satan entered Judas, who was called “Iscaiot,” and who was numbered among the Twelve. 4 Judas went to the Chief Priests and the captains and discussed with them how he might betray Jesus to them. 5 They were glad and agreed to give him money. 6 He consented and kept looking for an opportunity to hand Jesus over to them when no crowd was present.

The preparation for the Passover — Matthew 26:17-19, Mark 14:12-16

7 Then the day of Unleavened Bread came, when the Passover lamb had to be killed. 8 Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat it!”

9 They asked Him, “Where do You want us to prepare it?”

10 He told them, “Look! When you have entered the city, a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him to the house that he enters! 11 You shall tell the owner of the house: ‘The Teacher asks you, “Where is the guest room, that I may eat the Passover in it with My disciples?”!’ 12 He will show you a large, furnished room upstairs. Prepare for it there!”

13 They went, found it as He had told them and prepared the Passover. 14 When the hour had come, He and the apostles reclined at the table. 15 He told them, “I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. 16 For I tell you, I shall certainly not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.”

17 Then He took a cup, gave thanks and said, “Take this and divide it among yourselves! 18 For I tell you, from now on I shall certainly not drink what comes from the vine until the kingdom of God comes.”

The institution of the Lord's Supper — Matthew 26:26-30, Mark 14:22-26, 1 Corinthians 11:23-25

19 Jesus took bread, gave thanks, broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is My body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of Me!”

20 In the same way He took the cup after the supper, saying, “This cup is the new Covenant in My blood, which is poured out for you.

Jesus' prediction of Judas' betrayal — Matthew 26:21-25, Mark 14:18-21, John 13:21-30

21 “Nevertheless, look! The hand of him who is betraying Me is with Me on the table. 22 For the Son of Man is going as it has been determined, but how terrible for that man through whom He is being betrayed!”

23 Then they began to discuss among themselves which of them it might be who was going to do this.

A dispute among the disciples about greatness in the kingdom of God — compare Matthew 20:25-28, Mark 10:42-45

24 Then a dispute arose among them about which of them seemed to be the greatest. 25 Jesus told them, “The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them. and those who exercise authority over them are called ‘benefactors.’ 26 However, you should not be like that! Rather, the one who is the greatest among you should become like the youngest. and the one who rules should be like the one who serves! 27 For who is greater, the one who reclines at the table or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at the table? However, I am among you as the One who serves. 28 However, you are those who have continued with Me in My temptations. 29 I also confer on you a kingdom, as My Father has conferred one on Me, 30 that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom and that you may sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.”

Jesus' prophecy of Peter's denials — Matthew 26:30-35, Mark 14:26-31, John 13:36-38

31 Then the Lord said, “Simon, Simon, look! Satan has asked for you people, to sift you like wheat.

32 However, I have prayed for you, Simon, that your faith may not fail. When you have turned back, strengthen your brothers!”

33 However, Peter told Him, “Lord, I am ready to go with You both to prison and to death.”

34 Jesus said, “I tell you, Peter, the rooster will not crow this day before you deny three times that you know Me.”

35 Then Jesus asked them, “When I sent you out without a purse or a bag or sandals, you did not lack anything, did you?”

They answered, “Nothing!”

36 He told them, “However, now the person who has a purse should take it and a bag too! The person who does not have a sword should sell his garment and buy one! 37 For I tell you that this passage of Scripture must be fulfilled in Me, ‘He was numbered with transgressors.’ Yes, what has been written about Me is being fulfilled.”

<sup>38</sup> The disciples said, “Lord, look! Here are two swords.”

He told them, “That is enough.”

Jesus’ prayer in Gethsemane — Matthew 26:36-46, Mark 14:32-42, John 18:1

<sup>39</sup> Jesus came out and went to the Mount of Olives, as He usually did, and His disciples also followed Him.

<sup>40</sup> When He reached the place, He told them, “Pray that you may not begin to be tempted!”

<sup>41</sup> He withdrew from them about a stone’s throw, knelt and began to pray: <sup>42</sup> “Father, if You are willing, take this cup away from Me! However, let not My will, but Yours be done!”

<sup>43</sup> An angel appeared to Him from heaven and strengthened Him. <sup>44</sup> He began to be in anguish and prayed more earnestly, and His sweat became like clots of blood falling to the ground. <sup>45</sup> When He rose up from the prayer and came to the disciples, He found them sleeping from sorrow. <sup>46</sup> He asked them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray, that you may not begin to be tempted!”

The arrest of Jesus — Matthew 26:47-56, Mark 14:43-52, John 18:2-9

<sup>47</sup> While He was still speaking, they saw a crowd, and the man who was called Judas, one of the Twelve, was coming in front of them. He came close to Jesus to kiss Him.

<sup>48</sup> However, Jesus asked him, “Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?”

<sup>49</sup> When Jesus’ followers saw what was going to happen, they asked, “Lord, shall we strike with the sword?”

<sup>52</sup> Then Jesus asked those who had come for Him, the Chief Priests, the captains of the Temple and the elders: “Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? <sup>53</sup> When I was with you daily in the Temple, you did not stretch out your hands against Me. Rather, this is your hour, when darkness reigns.”

Jesus’ trial before the Jewish council and Peter’s denials of Jesus — Matthew 26:57-75, Mark 14:53-72, John 18:15-18, 25-27

<sup>58</sup> After a little while, another man saw him and said, “You are also one of them.”

However, Peter said, “Man, I am not.”

<sup>59</sup> Then after about an hour had passed, another man began to assert: “It is certain that this man also was with Him. For, indeed, he is a Galilean.”

Just then, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. <sup>61</sup> Then the Lord turned and looked straight at Peter, and Peter remembered the Word of the Lord, how He had told him, “Before the rooster crows today, you will deny Me three times.”

<sup>62</sup> Then he went outside and wept bitterly.

The condemnation of Jesus by the Jewish court

<sup>63</sup> The men who were holding Jesus in custody were making fun of Him as they struck Him. <sup>64</sup> They covered His face and kept asking Him: “Prophecy! Who hit You?”

<sup>65</sup> They went on insulting Him in many other ways.

<sup>66</sup> In the morning, the council of elders of the people, including the Chief Priests and the scribes, held a meeting. They brought Jesus before their council and asked, <sup>67</sup> “Are You the Christ? Tell us!”

He replied to them, “If I tell you, you will not believe Me. <sup>68</sup> If I ask you a question, you will not answer.

<sup>69</sup> However, from now on the Son of Man will be sitting at the right hand of the power of God.”

<sup>70</sup> All of them asked, “Are You, then, the Son of God?”

He answered them, “As you say: I am He.”

<sup>71</sup> They asked, “Why do we need any more testimony? We ourselves have heard Him say it.”

23

The accusations against Jesus before Pilate and His trial before Pilate — Matthew 27:1-2, 11-14, Mark 15:1-5, John 18:28-38

<sup>1</sup> Then the whole assembly rose and took Him to Pilate. <sup>2</sup> They began to accuse Him: “We found that He makes our people disloyal, keeping them from paying taxes to Caesar, and saying that He is Christ, a King.”

<sup>3</sup> Pilate asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

Jesus answered him, “Yes, it is as you say.”

<sup>5</sup> However, they kept insisting, “He stirs up the people by teaching all over Judea. He began in Galilee and has come here.”

The questioning of Jesus by Herod

<sup>6</sup> When Pilate heard that, he asked if the Man was a Galilean. <sup>7</sup> When he found out that Jesus was under Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent Him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem at that time. <sup>8</sup> When Herod saw Jesus, he was very glad, because for a long time he had wanted to see Him. For he had been hearing about Him and was hoping to see some miracle done by Him. <sup>9</sup> Herod asked Him many questions, but Jesus did not answer him at all. <sup>10</sup> The Chief Priests and the scribes were standing there and accusing Him vehemently. <sup>11</sup> Herod and his soldiers treated Jesus with contempt and mocked Him. They put a splendid garment on Him and sent Him back to Pilate. <sup>12</sup> On that very day Herod and Pilate became friends with each other. For before this they had been enemies of each other.

The continuation of Jesus' trial before Pilate

<sup>13</sup> Then Pilate called the Chief Priests, the rulers and the people together. <sup>14</sup> He told them, "You have brought this Man to me as one who is inciting the people to rebellion. Now, look! I have examined this Man before you and found Him innocent of the charges that you are making against Him. <sup>15</sup> No, neither has Herod. For he has sent Him back to us, and, as you can see, He has done nothing to deserve death. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, I shall chastise Him and release Him."

The choice between Jesus and Barabbas and the sentencing of Jesus to death — Matthew 27:15-26, Mark 15:6-15, John 18:39-40

<sup>*177</sup> <sup>18</sup> The whole crowd then began to shout aloud: "Away with this Man! Release Barabbas for us!"

<sup>19</sup> Barabbas had been thrown into prison for a revolt that had taken place in the city and for murder.

<sup>20</sup> Pilate spoke to them again, because he wanted to release Jesus. <sup>21</sup> However, they kept shouting, "Crucify Him! Crucify Him!"

<sup>22</sup> Then Pilate spoke to them the third time, "No. What wrong has He done? I have found nothing in Him to make Him deserve to die. I shall therefore chastise Him and release Him."

<sup>23</sup> However, they were insistent, demanding with loud voices that He should be crucified. and their voices began to prevail. <sup>24</sup> Then Pilate decided that what they demanded should be done. <sup>25</sup> He released the man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they were asking. and delivered Jesus for them to do what they wanted.

The road to Calvary — Matthew 27:32, Mark 15:21

<sup>26</sup> As they led Jesus away, they took hold of Simon, a man from Cyrene, who was coming in from the country, and laid the cross on him, to carry it behind Jesus.

<sup>27</sup> A large crowd of the people followed Him. The women in the crowd were mourning and weeping for Him. <sup>28</sup> Jesus turned to them and said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, stop weeping for Me! Rather, weep for yourselves and for your children! <sup>29</sup> For indeed the days are coming when people will say, 'Blessed are the barren women, the wombs that have not borne children and the breasts that have not suckled!'"

<sup>30</sup> Then people will begin to say to the mountains: 'Fall on us!' and to the hills: 'Cover us!' <sup>31</sup> For, if they do these things to the green tree, what will be done to the dry one?"

<sup>32</sup> Two other men, who were criminals, were also led out to be executed with Him.

The crucifixion of Jesus — Matthew 27:31-44, Mark 15:22-32, John 19:16-24

<sup>33</sup> When they came to the place that is called "The Skull," they crucified Him there with the criminals, one at His right. and the other at His left. <sup>34</sup> Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them! For they do not know what they are doing."

They divided His clothes among them by casting lots. <sup>35</sup> The people stood there watching. The rulers were also sneering, "He saved others. Let Him save Himself if He is the Christ of God, the Chosen One!"

<sup>38</sup> There was also a written notice above Him, "This is the King of the Jews."

The repentance of one of the thieves

<sup>39</sup> One of the criminals who hung there was blaspheming Him: "Are You not the Christ? Save Yourself and us!"

<sup>40</sup> However, the other criminal rebuked him. He said, "Do you not even fear God? For you are under the same condemnation. <sup>41</sup> We are also being punished justly. For we are getting what we deserve for what we have done. However, this Man has done nothing wrong."

<sup>42</sup> Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when You come into Your kingdom!"

<sup>43</sup> Jesus told him, "Truly, I tell you, today you will be with Me in paradise."

Jesus' death on the cross — Matthew 27:45-56, Mark 15:33-41, John 19:28-30

<sup>44</sup> It was now about the sixth hour and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour, <sup>45</sup> because the sun stopped shining. The curtain in the Temple was torn in two. <sup>46</sup> Jesus cried out aloud, "Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit."

After He had said this, He breathed His last. <sup>47</sup> When the captain saw what had happened, he praised God and said, "Certainly this Man was righteous."

<sup>48</sup> When all the people who had gathered to witness this sight saw what had happened, they beat their breasts and went away.

<sup>49</sup> However, all those who knew Him, including the women who had followed Him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

Jesus' burial — Matthew 27:57-61, Mark 15:42-47, John 19:38-42

<sup>50</sup> There was a man by the name of Joseph, a member of the Jewish council, a good and righteous man,

<sup>51</sup> who had not consented to their decision and action. He was from Arimathea, a Jewish city and was waiting for the kingdom of God. <sup>52</sup> He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. <sup>53</sup> Then he took it down, wrapped it in linen and laid it in a tomb cut in the rock, in which no one had yet been laid. <sup>54</sup> It was the Day of Preparation. and the Sabbath was about to begin. <sup>55</sup> The women who had come with Him from Galilee followed closely behind. They observed the tomb. and how His body was laid. <sup>56</sup> When they went back, they prepared spices and perfumes. Then they rested on the Sabbath according to the Commandment.

The resurrection of Jesus from the dead — Matthew 28:1-10, Mark 16:1-8, <sup>177</sup> For 23:17 in some versions, see Matthew 27:15 and Mark 15:6.

<sup>1</sup> On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, some women went to the tomb, carrying the spices that they had prepared. <sup>2</sup> They found that the stone had been rolled back from the tomb, <sup>3</sup> but, when they went in, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>4</sup> While they were troubled about this, suddenly two men stood beside them in clothes that were shining like lightning. <sup>5</sup> The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground. The two men asked the women, "Why are you looking among the dead for Him who is alive?" <sup>6</sup> He is not here but has been raised. Remember how He told you while He was still in Galilee: <sup>7</sup> 'The Son of Man must be delivered to the hands of sinful men and be crucified and rise again on the third day!'

<sup>8</sup> Then they remembered His Words. <sup>9</sup> When the women returned from the tomb, they reported all these things to the Eleven and to all the others. <sup>10</sup> The women were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary, the mother of James, and the others with them. They told these things to the apostles. <sup>11</sup> However, these words seemed like nonsense to the Eleven, and they would not believe them. <sup>12</sup> However, Peter got up and ran to the tomb. He bent down and saw only the strips of linen. Then he went away, wondering to himself about what had happened.

Jesus' appearance to the two people going to Emmaus

<sup>13</sup> On the same day, two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, eleven kilometres from Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> They were talking with each other about all these things that had happened. <sup>15</sup> While they were talking and discussing, Jesus Himself came up to them and began to walk along with them. <sup>16</sup> Their eyes were restrained, so that they did not know who He was. <sup>17</sup> He asked them, "What are you discussing with one another as you are walking along?"

They stood still, with gloomy faces. <sup>18</sup> The one by the name of Cleopas asked Him, "Are You the only visitor staying in Jerusalem, and do You not know what things have happened there during these days?"

They told him, "The things about Jesus from Nazareth, who was a Prophet, mighty in what He did and said before God and all the people, <sup>20</sup> and how our Chief Priests and officials handed Him over to be sentenced to death and crucified Him. <sup>21</sup> However, we were hoping that He would be the One who was going to redeem Israel. What is more, today is the third day since these things have happened. <sup>22</sup> However, then some of our women startled us. They went to the tomb early this morning <sup>23</sup> and did not find His body. They came and told us that they had even seen a vision of angels, who said that He is alive. <sup>24</sup> Some of our companions went to the tomb and found it as the women had said but did not see Him."

your hearts to believe everything that the prophets have said! <sup>26</sup> Was it not necessary for the Messiah to suffer these things and enter His glory?" <sup>27</sup> Then He began from Moses and all the other prophets and explained to them what had been said about Himself in all the Scriptures.

<sup>28</sup> They approached the village to which they were going, and He acted as if He were going further.

<sup>29</sup> They urged Him strongly, "Stay with us! It is nearly evening, and the day has almost gone."

So, He went in, to stay with them.

<sup>30</sup> When He sat at the table with them, He took the bread and said a blessing. He broke it and began to give it to them. <sup>31</sup> Then their eyes were opened, and they recognised Him. However, He vanished from them.

<sup>32</sup> They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning in us as He was speaking to us on the road, and as He was opening the Scriptures to us?"

<sup>33</sup> That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem. They found the Eleven and those who were with them gathered together. <sup>34</sup> They were saying, "The Lord really has risen and has appeared to Simon."

<sup>35</sup> Then the two related what had happened on the road, and how they had recognised Jesus when He was breaking the bread.

Jesus' appearance in the locked room — John 20:19-25

<sup>36</sup> While they were talking about what had happened, Jesus stood among them. He said to them, "Peace to you!"

<sup>37</sup> They were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. <sup>38</sup> He asked them, "Why are you troubled? Why do doubts come into your minds?"

<sup>39</sup> Look at My hands and My feet! It is I Myself. Feel Me and see! A ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see Me have."

<sup>40</sup> After He said this, He showed them His hands and His feet.

<sup>41</sup> While they were still so overwhelmed with joy that they could not believe it, He asked them, "Do you have anything here to eat?"

<sup>44</sup> He told them, "These are the very words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, namely, that everything written about Me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled."

<sup>45</sup> Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. <sup>46</sup> He told them, "This is what Scripture has said: 'The Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, <sup>47</sup> and, based on His name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.' <sup>48</sup> You will testify to these things.

Jesus' ascension to heaven — Mark 16:19, Acts 1:9-11

<sup>49</sup> "I am sending you what My Father has promised. Wait here in the city until you are armed with power from above!”

<sup>50</sup> He led them out to where Bethany lay ahead of them. Then He raised His hands and blessed them.

taken up to heaven.

<sup>52</sup> They knelt in worship of Him and returned to Jerusalem with great joy. <sup>53</sup> They stayed continually at the Temple, praising God.

1

The prologue: the incarnation of the Word (1:1-18)

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning was the Word and the Word was with God and the Word was God. <sup>2</sup> He was in the beginning with God. <sup>3</sup> Everything was made through Him, and not one thing that was made was made without Him. <sup>4</sup> In Him was life and the Life was the Light of mankind. <sup>5</sup> The Light is shining in the dark, and the darkness has not understood it. <sup>6</sup> A man came, whom God sent and whose name was John. <sup>7</sup> He came to testify, that is, to testify about the Light that through Him everyone might believe. <sup>8</sup> He was not the Light but came to witness about the Light. <sup>9</sup> The genuine Light that gives light to everyone was coming into the world. <sup>10</sup> He was in the world and He had made the world, and the world did not know Him. <sup>11</sup> He came to His own, and His own people did not receive Him. <sup>12</sup> However, to all who received Him, who believe in His name, He gave the right to become the children of God. <sup>13</sup> They have been born not of blood or of an urge of the flesh or of a husband's desire but of God. <sup>14</sup> The Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen His glory, the glory of the Father's only Son — He is full of grace and truth.

<sup>15</sup> John testified about Him when he cried out: "This was the One about whom I said, 'He who is coming after me has been before me, because He has been before me.'" <sup>16</sup> For from His fullness we have all received and grace upon grace. <sup>17</sup> For the Law was given through Moses, but grace and truth have come through Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup> No one has ever seen God. The only God, who is in the lap of the Father, has made Him known."

The revelation of the Word to Israel (1:19-4:54)

The preaching of John the Baptist — Matthew 3:1-12, Mark 1:1-8, Luke 3:1-18

<sup>19</sup> This is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to him, to ask him, "Who are you?"

<sup>20</sup> He confessed and did not deny. He confessed: "I am not the Christ."

<sup>21</sup> They asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?"

He said, "I am not."

"Are you the Prophet?"

He answered, "No."

<sup>22</sup> Then they asked him, "Who are you, that we may give an answer to those who have sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

<sup>23</sup> John said: "I am 'a voice of one calling out in the wilderness: "Make straight the way of the Lord,"' as the prophet Isaiah said."

<sup>24</sup> They had been sent from the Pharisees. <sup>25</sup> They asked him, "Then why are you baptising, if you are not the Christ or Elijah or the Prophet?"

There is One standing among you whom you do not know, <sup>27</sup> the One who is coming after me. I am not worthy to untie the strap of His sandal."

<sup>28</sup> This happened at Bethany on the other side of the Jordan, where John was baptising.

John the Baptist's testimony to the Lamb of God — compare Matthew 3:13-17, Mark 1:9-11, Luke 3:21-22

<sup>29</sup> The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look! The Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! <sup>30</sup> This is the One about whom I said, 'A Man is coming after me who has been ahead of me, because He has existed before me.'" <sup>31</sup> I myself did not know Him, but the purpose for which I have come baptising with water is that He may be revealed to Israel."

<sup>32</sup> John testified: "I have seen the Spirit coming down from heaven like a dove, and He has remained on Him. <sup>33</sup> I did not know Him, but He who has sent me to baptise with water told me, 'The One on whom you see the Spirit come down and remain is the One who baptises with the Holy Spirit.'" <sup>34</sup> I have seen it and have been testifying that this is the Son of God."

Jesus' first disciples — Matthew 4:18-22, Mark 1:14-20, Luke 5:1-11

<sup>35</sup> On the next day John was again standing with two of his disciples, <sup>36</sup> and looked at Jesus as He was walking along and said, "Look! The Lamb of God!"

<sup>37</sup> When the two disciples heard him saying this, they began to follow Jesus. <sup>38</sup> Then Jesus turned around and, when He saw them following Him, He asked them, "What are you looking for?"

They asked Him, "Rabbi" (which is translated as "Teacher"), "where are You staying?"

<sup>39</sup> He told them, "Come! You will see."

So, they came, saw where He was staying and stayed with Him that day. It was about the tenth hour.

<sup>40</sup> Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two who had heard what John had said and began to follow Jesus.

<sup>41</sup> Andrew first found his brother Simon and told him, "We have found the Messiah" (which is translated as "the Christ"). <sup>42</sup> He brought Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked straight at him and said, "You are Simon, the son of John. You will be called 'Cephas'" (which is translated as "Peter").

<sup>43</sup> The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip. Jesus told him, "Follow Me!"

<sup>44</sup> Philip was from Bethsaida, the hometown of Andrew and Peter. <sup>45</sup> Philip found Nathanael and told him, "We have found the One about whom Moses wrote in the Law and about whom the prophets also wrote — Jesus, Joseph's son from Nazareth."

<sup>46</sup> Nathanael asked him, "Nazareth — can anything good come from there?"

Philip told him, "Come and see!"

<sup>47</sup> Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward Him. He said about him, "Here is a true Israelite, in whom there is no deceit.”

<sup>48</sup> Nathanael asked Him, “Where did You get to know me?”

Jesus answered him, “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”

<sup>49</sup> Nathanael answered Him, “Rabbi, You are the Son of God. You are the King of Israel.”

<sup>50</sup> Jesus answered him, “You believe because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree. You will see greater things than that.”

<sup>51</sup> Then He told him, “Truly, truly, I tell you, you will see heaven opened and the angels of God going up and coming down on the Son of Man.”

2

Jesus' changing of water into wine

<sup>1</sup> On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. <sup>2</sup> Jesus and His disciples had also been invited to the wedding.

<sup>3</sup> When the wine was gone, Jesus' mother told Him, “They have no more wine.”

<sup>4</sup> Jesus said to her, “Woman, what does your concern have to do with Me? My hour has not yet come.”

<sup>6</sup> Six stone water-jars were standing there, the kind used by the Jews for ceremonial washing. Each jar held between eighty and one hundred and eighteen litres. <sup>7</sup> Jesus told the servants, “Fill the water-pots with water!”

They filled them up to the top. <sup>8</sup> Then He told them, “Now dip some of it out and take it to the manager of the dinner!”

Then they took it to him. <sup>9</sup> When the manager of the dinner had tasted the water that had been turned into wine and did not know where it had come from, although the servants who had dipped the water out knew, the manager called the bridegroom. <sup>10</sup> He told him, “Everybody else serves his good wine first and, when people have had plenty to drink, then the inferior wine. You have kept the best wine until now.”

<sup>11</sup> Jesus performed this, as the first of His miraculous signs, at Cana in Galilee. He showed His glory, and His disciples believed in Him.

<sup>12</sup> After this He, His mother, His brothers and His disciples went down to Capernaum and stayed there for a few days.

Jesus' clearing out of the temple

<sup>13</sup> The Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> In the Temple He found those who were selling cattle, sheep and doves, as well as the moneychangers sitting there. <sup>15</sup> He made a whip of small ropes and drove them all out of the Temple, together with their sheep and cattle. He scattered the coins of the moneychangers and overturned their tables. <sup>16</sup> He told those who sold the doves, “Take these away from here! Stop making My Father's house a house of merchandise!”

<sup>17</sup> His disciples remembered that Scripture has said: “The zeal for Your house will consume Me.”

<sup>18</sup> The Jews spoke up and asked Him, “What miraculous sign do You show to us, seeing that You are doing these things?”

<sup>20</sup> Then the Jews said, “It has taken forty-six years to build this Temple, and will You raise it in three days?”

<sup>21</sup> However, He was speaking about the Temple of His body. <sup>22</sup> Therefore, after He had risen from the dead, His disciples remembered that He had said this and believed the Scripture and the statement that Jesus had made. <sup>23</sup> While He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name when they saw His miraculous signs, which He was doing. <sup>24</sup> However, Jesus Himself did not entrust Himself to them, because He knew all people, <sup>25</sup> and because He did not need anyone to testify about man. For He knew what was in man.

The visit of Nicodemus to Jesus and the necessity of rebirth

<sup>1</sup> There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. <sup>2</sup> He came to Jesus by night and said to Him, “Rabbi, we know that You have come from God as a teacher. For no one can do these miraculous signs, which You are doing, unless God is with him.”

<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered him, “Truly, truly, I tell you, unless anyone is born from above, he cannot see the kingdom of God.”

<sup>4</sup> Nicodemus asked Him, “How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born, can he?”

<sup>5</sup> Jesus answered, “Truly, truly, I tell you, unless anyone is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God. <sup>6</sup> What has been born of the sinful human nature is sinful human nature, but what has been born of the Spirit is spirit. <sup>7</sup> Do not be astonished that I have told you, ‘You people must be born from above!’ <sup>8</sup> The wind blows where it pleases, and you hear the sound of it but do not know where it is coming from or where it is going. It is like that with everyone who has been born of the Spirit.”

<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered him, “Are you the teacher of Israel without knowing these things? <sup>11</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, We speak what We know and testify to what We have seen, and you people do not accept Our testimony. <sup>12</sup> If I have told you people earthly things, and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? <sup>13</sup> No one has gone up into heaven except the One who has come down from heaven, the Son of Man. <sup>14</sup> As Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, <sup>15</sup> that everyone who believes in Him may have eternal life. <sup>16</sup> For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son, that everyone who believes in Him might not perish but have eternal life. <sup>17</sup> For God has not sent His Son into the world to condemn the world but that the world may be saved through Him. <sup>18</sup> The person who believes in Him is not condemned, but the person who does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of God's only Son. <sup>19</sup> This is the verdict, that the Light has come into the world, but people have loved darkness rather than the Light, because they have been doing evil. <sup>20</sup> For everyone who does wrong hates the Light and does not come to the Light, that his deeds may not be exposed. <sup>21</sup> However, he who practises the truth comes to the Light, that his deeds may be plainly seen to have been done in God."

John the Baptist's explanation about the Christ

<sup>22</sup> After this, Jesus went into the country of Judea with His disciples and there He spent some time with them and baptised. <sup>23</sup> John was also baptising at Aenon, near Salim, because water was plentiful there. People were coming to him and being baptised, <sup>24</sup> for John had not yet been thrown into prison. <sup>25</sup> Then an argument developed between some of John's disciples and a Jew about purification. <sup>26</sup> People came to John and told him, "Rabbi, He who was with you on the other side of the Jordan and to whom you gave your testimony, look! He is baptising, and everyone is going to Him."

<sup>27</sup> John answered, "A person cannot receive even one thing unless it has been given to him from heaven. <sup>28</sup> You yourselves bear me witness that I said, 'I am not the Christ but have been sent ahead of Him.' <sup>29</sup> The One who has the bride is the Bridegroom. However, the friend of the Bridegroom, who stands and listens to Him, is full of joy when he hears the Bridegroom's voice. Therefore, this joy of mine has been made complete. <sup>30</sup> He must become greater, but I must become less. <sup>31</sup> The One who comes from above is above all. The one who comes from the earth belongs to the earth and speaks from the earth. The One who comes from heaven is above all others. <sup>32</sup> He is testifying to what He has seen and heard, but no one is accepting His testimony. <sup>33</sup> The person who has received His testimony has set his seal to this, that God is true. <sup>34</sup> For the One whom God has sent is speaking the Words of God. For God is giving the Spirit without limit. <sup>35</sup> The Father loves the Son and has placed all things in His hand. <sup>36</sup> He who believes in the Son has eternal life, but he who does not believe in the Son will not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."

Jesus' conversation with a Samaritan woman

<sup>1</sup> When the Lord found out that the Pharisees had heard that He was making and baptising more disciples than John had, <sup>2</sup> although it was not Jesus Himself who was baptising but His disciples, <sup>3</sup> He left Judea and went back again to Galilee.

<sup>4</sup> Jesus had to go through Samaria. <sup>5</sup> He came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the piece of land that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. <sup>6</sup> Jacob's Well was there. Jesus, tired from His journey, simply sat down at the well. It was about noon.

<sup>7</sup> A Samaritan woman came to draw water. Jesus asked her, "Give Me a drink!"

<sup>8</sup> For His disciples had gone into the town to buy food. <sup>9</sup> The Samaritan woman asked Him: "How is it that You, a Jew, ask me, a Samaritan woman, for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans).

<sup>10</sup> Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is who is saying to you, 'Give Me a drink!' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water."

<sup>11</sup> The woman said, "Sir, You have nothing to draw water with, and the well is deep. From where, then, do You get this living water? <sup>12</sup> Surely You are not greater than Jacob, our ancestor, who gave us the well and used to drink from it himself, as did also his sons and his animals?"

<sup>13</sup> Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks this water will become thirsty again. <sup>14</sup> However, whoever drinks the water that I shall give him will never become thirsty. However, the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up to eternal life."

<sup>15</sup> The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, that I may not get thirsty or keep coming out here to draw water!"

<sup>16</sup> Jesus told her, "Go, call your husband and come back here!"

Jesus told her, "You were right when you said, 'I do not have a husband.' <sup>18</sup> For you have had five husbands, and the man you have now is not your husband. What you have just said is true."

<sup>19</sup> The woman said to Him, "Sir, I see that You are a prophet! <sup>20</sup> Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you Jews say, 'The place where people must worship is in Jerusalem.'"

<sup>21</sup> Jesus told her, "Believe Me, woman, the time is coming when you will not be worshipping the Father on this mountain or in Jerusalem. <sup>22</sup> You Samaritans worship what you do not know. We Jews worship what we know. For salvation comes from the Jews. <sup>23</sup> However, the time is coming and is now here, when the genuine worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth. For the Father is looking for such people to worship Him. <sup>24</sup> God is a spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and in truth."

<sup>25</sup> The woman said to Him, "I know that the Messiah" (who is called 'the Christ') "is coming. When He comes, He will tell us everything."

<sup>26</sup> Jesus told her, "I, the One speaking to you, am He."

<sup>27</sup> Just then His disciples came and were amazed that He was talking to a woman. However, no one asked, "What do You want?" or "Why are You talking to her?"

<sup>28</sup> Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the town. <sup>29</sup> She told the people, "Come! See a Man who told me everything that I have done! Could this be the Christ?"

<sup>30</sup> They went out of the town and came to Jesus.

<sup>32</sup> However, He told them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about."

<sup>33</sup> Therefore, the disciples asked one another, "Could anyone have brought Him something to eat?"

<sup>34</sup> Jesus told them, "My food is to do the will of Him who has sent Me and to finish His work. <sup>35</sup> Do you not say, 'Four more months and the harvest will be here'? I tell you, open your eyes and see that the fields are already white for harvest! <sup>36</sup> The reaper receives wages and gathers grain for eternal life, that the sower and the reaper may be glad together. <sup>37</sup> For in this respect the saying is true, 'One sows, and another reaps.' <sup>38</sup> I have sent you to reap what you have not laboured at. Others have done the hard work, and you have succeeded them in their work."

<sup>39</sup> Many of the Samaritans in that town began to believe in Him because of the statement of the woman, who had testified: "He told me everything that I have done."

<sup>40</sup> Therefore, when the Samaritans came to Him, they asked Him to stay with them. Then He stayed there for two days. <sup>41</sup> Then many more became believers because of His Words. <sup>42</sup> They told the woman, "We no longer believe because of what you have said. For we have heard Him ourselves and know that this is truly the Saviour of the world."

Jesus' healing of the son of a royal official

<sup>43</sup> After two days He went away from there to Galilee.

<sup>44</sup> For Jesus Himself testified that a prophet has no honour in his own country. <sup>45</sup> Therefore, when He had come to Galilee, the people of Galilee welcomed Him. They had seen all He had done at Jerusalem during the feast. For they also had gone to the feast. <sup>46</sup> Jesus went again to Cana in Galilee, where He had made water wine. There was a certain royal official whose son was ill at Capernaum. <sup>47</sup> When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea into Galilee, he went to Him and asked Him to come down and heal his son. For he was about to die. <sup>48</sup> Then Jesus told him, "Unless you see miraculous signs and wonders, you will certainly not believe."

before my child dies!"

The man believed the Word that Jesus told him and departed. <sup>51</sup> While he was still going down, his servants met him and told him, "Your son is alive."

<sup>52</sup> He inquired from them at which hour the child had become better. Then they told him, "The fever left him yesterday at the seventh hour."

<sup>53</sup> The father realised that it was at the same hour in which Jesus had told him, "Your son lives." He himself began to believe, together with his whole family.

<sup>54</sup> This again was the second miraculous sign that Jesus performed after He had come from Judea to Galilee.

The rejection of the Word by Israel (5:1-12:50)

Jesus' healing of a man who had been an invalid for thirty-eight years

<sup>1</sup> After this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> In Jerusalem there is a pool near the Sheep Gate, which in Aramaic is called "Bethesda." It has five porches. <sup>3</sup> In them a great number of people who were sick, blind, lame and paralysed, used to lie, [waiting for the water to be stirred. <sup>4</sup> At a certain time the Lord's angel used to come down into the pool and stir the water. After the stirring of the water, the first to step in was healed from whatever disease he was suffering.] *178 <sup>5</sup> A certain man was there who had been an invalid for thirty-eight years. <sup>6</sup> Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had already been sick for a long time. He asked him, "Do you want to be made well?"

<sup>7</sup> The invalid answered Him, "Lord, I do not have any person to put me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am going, someone else gets down ahead of me."

<sup>9</sup> Immediately the man was made well, picked up his mattress and began to walk. It was a Sabbath that day.

<sup>10</sup> So, the Jews began to tell the man who had been healed, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry your mattress."

<sup>11</sup> He answered them, "The One who made me well told me, 'Pick up your mattress and walk!'"

<sup>12</sup> They asked him, "Who is the Man who told you, 'Pick it up and walk'?"

<sup>13</sup> However, the man who had been healed did not know who He was. For Jesus had withdrawn from the crowd that was at the place. <sup>14</sup> Afterwards Jesus found him in the Temple and told him, "Look! You have been made well. Do not sin any longer, that something worse may not happen to you!"

<sup>15</sup> The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

Jesus' witness to Himself as the Son of God

<sup>16</sup> Because Jesus was doing these things on the Sabbath, the Jews began to persecute Him. <sup>17</sup> However, Jesus answered them, “My Father has been working until now, and I also am working.”

<sup>18</sup> Therefore, the Jews were trying even more to kill Him, because He was not only breaking the Sabbath but was also calling God His own Father, making Himself equal to God.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I tell you, the Son cannot do anything by Himself, unless He sees the Father doing something. For whatever the Father does the Son also does in a similar way. <sup>20</sup> For the Father loves the Son and shows Him all the things that He Himself is doing and will show Him greater works than these, with the result that you will be amazed. <sup>21</sup> For, as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to those whom He wishes. <sup>22</sup> For the Father does not even judge anyone but has given all the judgment to the Son, <sup>23</sup> that all may honour the Son as they honour the Father. He who does not honour the Son does not honour the Father, who has sent Him. <sup>24</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you that he who listens to My Word and believes Him who has sent Me has eternal life and will not come into judgment but has passed over out of death into life. <sup>25</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you that the hour is coming and is now here when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who hear will live. <sup>26</sup> For, as the Father has life in Himself, so He has also granted the Son to have life in Himself. <sup>27</sup> He has also given Him authority to carry out judgment, because He is the Son of Man. <sup>28</sup> Do not be astonished at this, because an hour is coming in which all who are in the graves will hear His voice <sup>29</sup> and will come out. Those who have done good will come out to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil will come out to the resurrection of condemnation. <sup>30</sup> I Myself cannot do anything by Myself. I judge as I hear, and My judgment is just, because I am not trying to do what I want but what He who has sent Me wants. <sup>31</sup> If I give evidence about Myself, My evidence is not true. <sup>32</sup> There is Someone else who gives evidence about Me, and I know that the evidence that He gives about Me is true. <sup>33</sup> You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. <sup>34</sup> Yet I do not receive testimony from a man but say these things that you may be saved. <sup>35</sup> John was a burning and shining lamp, and you wanted to rejoice for a while in his light. <sup>36</sup> However, I have witness that is greater than that of John. For the works that the Father has given Me to complete, these works, which I am doing, are testifying about Me, that the Father has sent Me. <sup>37</sup> The Father Himself, who has sent Me, has also testified about Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time nor seen His form. <sup>38</sup> You do not have His Word remaining in you, because you do not believe Him whom He has sent. <sup>39</sup> You examine the Scriptures, because you think that you have eternal life in them; and yet they are the ones that testify about Me! <sup>40</sup> Nevertheless, you are not willing to come to Me that you may have life. <sup>41</sup> I do not receive glory from men. <sup>42</sup> However, I know you, that you do not have the love of God in you. <sup>43</sup> I have come in the name of My Father, and you do not receive Me. If someone else comes in his own name, you will receive him. <sup>44</sup> How can you believe when you receive glory from one another and are not eager to have the glory that comes from the only God? <sup>45</sup> Stop thinking that I shall accuse you before the Father! There is the one who is accusing you, Moses, in whom you have been hoping. <sup>46</sup> For, if you had believed Moses, you would believe Me. For he has written about Me. <sup>47</sup> However, if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe My Words?”

Jesus' feeding of five thousand men — Matthew 14:13-21, Mark 6:30-44, Luke 9:10-17

<sup>1</sup> After these things Jesus went away to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, which is the Sea of Tiberias. <sup>2</sup> A large crowd was following Him, because they had been seeing the miraculous signs that He was performing on the sick. <sup>3</sup> Jesus went up on the mountain and sat down there with His disciples. <sup>4</sup> The Passover, the feast of the Jews, was near. <sup>5</sup> When Jesus looked up and saw that a large crowd was coming to Him, He asked Philip, “Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?”

<sup>8</sup> One of His disciples Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, told Him, <sup>9</sup> “There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what are these for so many people?”

<sup>10</sup> Jesus said, “Make the people sit down!” There was plenty of grass in that place. Therefore, the men sat down, numbering about five thousand.

<sup>11</sup> Jesus then took the loaves, gave thanks and distributed them to the people who were sitting down and in the same way as much of the fish as they wanted.

<sup>12</sup> When they had had enough, He told His disciples, “Gather the broken pieces that are left over, that nothing may be lost!”

<sup>13</sup> They gathered them and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves that were left over by those who had eaten. <sup>14</sup> Therefore, when the people had seen the miraculous sign that Jesus had performed, they began to say, “This is truly the Prophet who is coming into the world.”

Jesus' walking on water — Matthew 14:22-33, Mark 6:45-52

<sup>15</sup> Therefore, since Jesus knew that the people were about to come and take Him by force to make Him king, He withdrew again into the mountain by Himself. <sup>16</sup> When evening came, His disciples went down to the sea. <sup>17</sup> After they got into a boat, they began to go to the other side of the sea, towards Capernaum. It had already become dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. <sup>18</sup> A strong wind that was blowing began to make the sea rough. <sup>19</sup> Then, after they had been rowing for five or six kilometres, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming close to the boat and were terrified. <sup>20</sup> He told them, "It is I. Stop being afraid!"

<sup>21</sup> Then they wanted to take Him into the boat, and immediately the boat was at the land to which they were going.

Jesus' witness to Himself as the life-giving Bread from heaven

<sup>22</sup> The following day, the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the sea saw that there had been no other boat there except one and that Jesus had not gone into the boat with His disciples but that His disciples had gone away alone. <sup>23</sup> Other boats came from Tiberias, near the place where the people had eaten the bread after the Lord had given thanks. <sup>24</sup> When the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor His disciples were there, they got into the boats and went to Capernaum, looking for Jesus. <sup>25</sup> When they found Him on the other side of the lake, they asked Him, "Rabbi, when did You get here?"

<sup>26</sup> Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I tell you, you are looking for Me, not because you have seen miraculous signs but because you have eaten the loaves of bread and had your fill. <sup>27</sup> Stop working for the food that spoils but work for the food that remains for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you! For God, the Father, has set His seal on Him."

<sup>28</sup> Therefore, they asked Him, "What are we to do, that we may do the works of God?"

<sup>29</sup> Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in the One whom He has sent."

<sup>30</sup> Therefore, they asked Him, "So, what miraculous sign are You going to perform? Let us see it, that we may believe You! What work are You going to do?"

<sup>31</sup> Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, as Scripture has said: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"

<sup>32</sup> Then Jesus told them, "Truly, truly, I tell you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true Bread from heaven. <sup>33</sup> For the Bread of God is the One who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

<sup>34</sup> Therefore, they said to Him, "Lord, always give us this bread!"

<sup>35</sup> Jesus told them, "I am the Bread of life. The person who comes to Me will certainly not be hungry and the person who believes in Me will certainly never be thirsty. <sup>36</sup> However, I have told you both that you have seen Me and that you do not believe.

<sup>37</sup> Everything that the Father gives to Me will come to Me, and I shall certainly not cast out the person who comes to Me, <sup>38</sup> because I have come down from heaven, not that I may do My will but the will of Him who has sent Me. <sup>39</sup> This is also the will of the One who has sent Me, that I should not lose anything of what He has given to Me but that raise it on the last day. <sup>40</sup> For this is the will of My Father, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him should have eternal life, and that I should raise him on the last day."

<sup>41</sup> The Jews therefore grumbled because He said, "I am the Bread that has come down from heaven."

<sup>42</sup> They asked, "Is this not Jesus, Joseph's son, whose father and mother we know? How can He now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

<sup>43</sup> Jesus answered them, "Stop grumbling among yourselves! <sup>44</sup> A person can come to Me only if the Father, who has sent Me, draws him, and I shall raise him on the last day. <sup>45</sup> The prophets wrote: 'God will teach everyone.' Everyone who listens to the Father and learns from Him comes to Me. <sup>46</sup> Not that anyone has seen the Father. Only He who comes from God has seen the Father. <sup>47</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, the one who believes in Me has eternal life.

<sup>48</sup> "I am the Bread of Life. <sup>49</sup> Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness and died. <sup>50</sup> This is the Bread coming down from heaven, that anyone may eat from it and not die. <sup>51</sup> I am the living Bread that has come down from heaven. If anyone eats of this Bread, he will live for ever, and the Bread that I shall give is My flesh, for the life of the world."

<sup>52</sup> Therefore, the Jews kept arguing sharply with one another: "How can this Man give us His flesh to eat?"

<sup>53</sup> Therefore, Jesus told them, "Truly, truly, I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in you. <sup>54</sup> He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life, and I shall raise him up on the last day. <sup>55</sup> For My flesh is true food, and My blood is true drink. <sup>56</sup> He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood remains in Me, and I in him. <sup>57</sup> As the living Father has sent Me, and as I live because of the Father, so that person who feeds on Me will also live because of Me. <sup>58</sup> This is the Bread that has come down from heaven. It is not like the bread that the fathers ate, they died. He who eats this Bread will live for ever."

<sup>59</sup> He said these things in the synagogue, while He was teaching at Capernaum. <sup>60</sup> Therefore, when they heard this, many of His disciples said, "This is a hard statement. Who can listen to it?"

<sup>61</sup> Since Jesus knew in Himself that His disciples were grumbling about this, He asked them, "Does this offend you? <sup>62</sup> Then what if you see the Son of Man go up to where He was before? <sup>63</sup> The Spirit is the One who gives life. The sinful human nature is of no help at all. The Words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life. <sup>64</sup> However, there are some of you who do not believe."

For Jesus knew from the beginning who those were who did not believe and the one who would betray Him. <sup>65</sup> He went on to say, “That is why I have told you that no one can come to Me unless it has been given to him by My Father.”

<sup>66</sup> After this, many of His disciples went back and did not walk with Him any longer. <sup>67</sup> Therefore, Jesus asked the Twelve, “Surely you too do not want to go away?”

<sup>68</sup> Simon Peter answered Him, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the Words of eternal life. <sup>69</sup> We have come to believe and know that You are the Holy One of God.”

<sup>70</sup> Jesus answered them, “Have I not chosen you as the Twelve? Yet one of you is a devil!”

<sup>71</sup> He meant Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. For he was going to betray Him and he was one of the Twelve.

Jesus' secret journey to Jerusalem

<sup>1</sup> After this, Jesus went around in Galilee. For He did not want to go around in Judea, because the Jews were trying to kill Him. <sup>2</sup> The Jewish Feast of Tabernacles was near. <sup>3</sup> So, Jesus' brothers told Him, “Leave this place and go to Judea, that Your disciples also may see the works that You are doing! <sup>4</sup> For no one goes on doing something in secret when he himself wants to be known publicly. Since You are doing these things, show Yourself to the world!”

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, Jesus told them, “My time has not come yet. However, your time is always right. <sup>7</sup> The world cannot hate you but hates Me, because I testify about it, that its deeds are evil. <sup>8</sup> Go up to the Feast yourselves! I am not going up to this Feast, because My time has not yet been completed.”

<sup>9</sup> After He had said this, He stayed in Galilee.

<sup>10</sup> However, after His brothers had gone up to the feast, He also went up, not publicly, but, as it were, in secret.

Jesus' discussions with the Jews at the Feast of Tabernacles

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, the Jews kept looking for Jesus during the feast and asking, “Where is He?”

<sup>12</sup> There was much secret discussion about Him in the crowds. Some were saying: “He is a good Man,” but others were saying, “No. Rather, He is deceiving the crowd.”

<sup>13</sup> However, no one would talk about Him in public for fear of the Jews. <sup>14</sup> Nevertheless, when the feast was already half over Jesus went up into the Temple and began to teach. <sup>15</sup> Then the Jews were astonished and asked, “How is He so well educated when He has not received instruction?”

<sup>16</sup> Jesus answered them, “My teaching is not My own but belongs to Him who has sent Me. <sup>17</sup> If anyone wants to do His will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking it on My own authority. <sup>18</sup> He who speaks on his own authority tries to get glory for himself. However, He who wants to glorify the One who has sent Him is true, and there is no unrighteousness in Him. <sup>19</sup> Has not Moses given you the Law? Yet none of you is observing the Law. Why are you trying to kill Me?”

<sup>20</sup> The crowd answered, “You have a demon. Who is trying to kill You?”

<sup>21</sup> Jesus answered them, “I have performed one work, and you are all astonished. <sup>22</sup> Because Moses has given you circumcision (not that it has come from Moses but from the fathers), — you circumcise a person even on the Sabbath. <sup>23</sup> If a person receives circumcision on a Sabbath that the Law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with Me because I have made a whole person well on a Sabbath? <sup>24</sup> Stop judging by outward appearance! Rather, make a judgment that is just!”

<sup>25</sup> Then some of the people of Jerusalem began to ask, “Is this not the Man whom they are trying to kill?”

<sup>26</sup> However, look! He is speaking openly, and they are not saying anything to Him. Can it possibly be that the authorities have actually realised that He is the Christ?

<sup>27</sup> However, we know where this One is from. However, when the Christ comes, no one knows where He is from.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus cried out as He was teaching in the Temple, “You both know Me and know where I am from. I have not come on My own authority either, but He who has sent Me is true, the One whom you do not know. <sup>29</sup> I know Him, because I am from Him, and He has sent Me.”

<sup>30</sup> Therefore, they tried to arrest Him, but no one laid his hand on Him, because His time had not yet come.

<sup>31</sup> However, many from the crowd began to believe in Him and were asking, “When the Christ comes, He will not perform more miraculous signs than the ones that this Man has performed, will He?”

<sup>32</sup> The Pharisees heard the crowd whispering these things about Him, and the Chief Priests and the Pharisees sent servants to arrest Him. <sup>33</sup> Then Jesus said, “I am still with you for a little while and then I am going to Him who has sent Me. <sup>34</sup> You will search for Me and will not find Me, and where I am you cannot come.”

<sup>35</sup> Then the Jews asked one another, “Where does He intend to go, saying that we shall not find Him? Surely He does not intend to go to the Jews scattered among the Greeks and teach the Greeks? <sup>36</sup> What does this statement mean, which He has said, ‘You will search for Me and will not find Me,’ and ‘Where I am, you cannot come?’”

<sup>37</sup> On the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried aloud, “If anyone is thirsty, let him come to Me and drink! <sup>38</sup> As the Scripture has said, ‘Streams of living water will flow from inside the person who believes in Me.”<sup>39</sup> By this He meant the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were going to receive. For the Spirit had not yet come, because Jesus had not yet been glorified.

<sup>40</sup> After some people from the crowd heard Him say these Words, they began to say, “This is truly the Prophet.”<sup>41</sup> Others were saying, “This is the Christ.” Still others were saying, “No! For the Christ does not come from Galilee, does He?”<sup>42</sup> Has not the Scripture said that the Christ is coming from the descendants of David and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?”

<sup>43</sup> Therefore, a division arose in the crowd because of Jesus.<sup>44</sup> Some of them wanted to arrest Him, but no one laid his hands on Him.<sup>45</sup> Then the servants went to the Chief Priests and Pharisees, and they asked them, “Why have you not brought Him?”

<sup>47</sup> Then the Pharisees answered them, “Surely you have not also been deceived?”<sup>48</sup> No one from the rulers or from the Pharisees has become a believer in Him, has he?<sup>49</sup> However, this crowd, which does not know the Scriptures, is accursed.”

<sup>50</sup> Nicodemus, who had gone to Jesus previously and who was one of them, said to them,<sup>51</sup> “Our Law does not condemn a man unless it first hears him and knows what he is doing, does it?”

<sup>52</sup> They asked him, “You are not from Galilee too, are you? Examine and see that a prophet does not arise from Galilee!”

[*179<sup>53</sup> Then each one went to his own home.

Jesus' treatment of the woman caught in adultery

<sup>1</sup> Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.<sup>2</sup> Early in the morning He came back into the Temple. All the people kept coming to Him, and He sat down and taught them.<sup>3</sup> The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery and made her stand in the middle.<sup>4</sup> They told Him, “Teacher, this woman has been caught in adultery, in the very act.<sup>5</sup> In the Law Moses ordered us to stone such women. Now, what do You say?”

<sup>6</sup> They were asking this to test Him, that they might have something for which to accuse Him. Jesus bent down and began to write on the ground with His finger.<sup>7</sup> However, when they kept on asking Him, He straightened up and told them, “The person who is without sin among you should be the first to throw a stone at her!”

<sup>8</sup> Then He bent down again and kept writing on the ground.<sup>9</sup> However, when they heard Jesus they began to go out one by one, as they were convicted by their consciences, beginning with the older men. Jesus was left alone with the woman in the middle of the place.

<sup>10</sup> Jesus straightened up and asked her, “Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?”

Jesus said, “I do not condemn you either. Go and from now on do not sin any longer!”]

Jesus' testimony to the Jews

<sup>12</sup> Then Jesus spoke to them again: “I am the Light of the world. He who follows Me will certainly not walk in the darkness but will have the light of life.”

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, the Pharisees told Him, “You are testifying about Yourself. Your testimony is not true.”

<sup>14</sup> Jesus answered them, “Even if I am testifying about Myself, My testimony is true, because I know where I have come from and where I am going, but you do not know where I have come from or where I am going.

<sup>15</sup> You are judging by human standards. I do not judge anyone.<sup>16</sup> Yet, if I do judge, My judgment is valid, because I am not alone but with the Father, who has sent Me.<sup>17</sup> It has also been written in your own Law that the testimony of two people is true.<sup>18</sup> I am the One giving witness about Myself, and the Father, who has sent Me, is giving witness about Me.”

<sup>19</sup> Then they asked Him, “Where is Your Father?”

Jesus answered, “You know neither Me nor My Father. If you knew Me, you would also know My Father.”

<sup>20</sup> He spoke these Words at the treasury while He was teaching in the Temple, and yet no one arrested Him, because His hour had not yet come.<sup>21</sup> Then He told them again, “I am going away, and you will search for Me but will die in your sin. Where I am going, you cannot come.”

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, the Jews asked, “He will not kill Himself, will He? For He is saying, ‘Where I am going, you cannot come.’”

<sup>23</sup> He told them, “You are from things below. I am from things above. You are from this world. I am not from this world.<sup>24</sup> Therefore, I have told you that you will die in your sins. For, if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins.”

<sup>25</sup> Then they asked Him, “Who are You?”

Jesus asked them, “How is it that I even speak to you at all?<sup>26</sup> I have many things to say about you and to judge about you. However, He who has sent Me is true, and I am speaking to the world the things that I have heard from Him.”

<sup>27</sup> They did not understand that He was talking to them about the Father.

<sup>28</sup> Then Jesus told them, “When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am He and that I do nothing on My own authority but that I am speaking these things as My Father has taught Me.<sup>29</sup> He who has sent Me is also with Me. He has not left Me alone, because I always do the things that are pleasing to Him.”

believe in Him. <sup>31</sup> Therefore, Jesus said to those Jews who had become believers in Him, “If you remain in My Word, you are truly My disciples, <sup>32</sup> and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free.”

<sup>33</sup> They answered Him, “We are Abraham’s descendants and have never been in slavery to anyone. How do You mean, ‘You will be made free?’”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered them, “Truly, truly, I tell you that everyone who keeps on committing sin is a slave of sin. <sup>35</sup> The slave does not remain in the family for ever. The son remains for ever. <sup>36</sup> Therefore, if the Son makes you free, you will certainly be free. <sup>37</sup> I know that you are Abraham’s descendants. However, you are trying to kill Me because My Word has no place in you. <sup>38</sup> What I am saying is what I have seen at My Father’s side; and you therefore are doing what you have heard from your father.”

<sup>39</sup> They answered Him, “Our father is Abraham.” Jesus told them, “If you were Abraham’s children, you would be doing the things that Abraham did. <sup>40</sup> However, now you are trying to kill Me, a Man who has told you the truth, which I have heard from God. Abraham did not do this. <sup>41</sup> You are doing the things that your father does.”

Then they told Him, “We have not been born as illegitimate children. We have one Father, God.”

<sup>42</sup> Jesus told them, “If God were your Father, you would love Me. For I have come out and have come here from God. For I have not come on My own authority either, but He has sent Me. <sup>43</sup> Why do you not understand My way of speaking? Because you cannot hear My Word. <sup>44</sup> You are of your father the Devil and want to do the things that your father desires. He was a murderer from the beginning and does not stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. Whenever he speaks a lie, he tells it from his own resources, because he is a liar and the father of lies. <sup>45</sup> However, because I am telling the truth, you do not believe Me. <sup>46</sup> Which of you proves Me guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why do you not believe Me? <sup>47</sup> He who is from God listens to God’s Words. The reason why you do not listen is that you are not from God.”

<sup>48</sup> The Jews answered Him, “Are we not right when we say that You are a Samaritan and that You have a demon?”

<sup>49</sup> Jesus answered, “I do not have a demon but am honouring My Father, and you are dishonouring Me. <sup>50</sup> I am also not trying to glorify Myself. There is One who wants Me to have glory and He is the Judge. <sup>51</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, if anyone keeps My Word, he will certainly never see death.”

<sup>52</sup> Then the Jews told Him, “Now we know that You have a demon. Abraham died, and so did the prophets, but You say, ‘If anyone keeps My word, he will certainly never taste death.’ <sup>53</sup> Surely You are not greater than our father Abraham was? He died, and the prophets died. Whom are You making Yourself?”

<sup>54</sup> Jesus said, “If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father who glorifies Me, He of whom you say, ‘He is our God.’ <sup>55</sup> Yet you do not know Him, but I know Him. If I say that I do not know Him, I shall be a liar like you. Rather, I do know Him and keep His Word. <sup>56</sup> Abraham, your father, rejoiced to see My day, saw it and was glad.”

<sup>57</sup> Then the Jews said to Him, “You are not yet fifty years old and have You seen Abraham?”

<sup>58</sup> Jesus told them, “Truly, truly, I tell you, before Abraham came into being, I am.”

<sup>59</sup> Therefore, they took up stones to throw at Him, but Jesus hid Himself and went out of the Temple.

Jesus’ gift of sight to a blind man

<sup>1</sup> While Jesus was passing by, He saw a man who had been blind from his birth. <sup>2</sup> His disciples asked Him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”

<sup>3</sup> Jesus answered, “Neither has this man sinned, nor have his parents sinned. Rather, he is blind that the works of God may be revealed in him. <sup>4</sup> We must do the works of Him who has sent Me while it is day. The night is coming when no one can work. <sup>5</sup> As long as I am in the world, I am the Light of the world.”

<sup>6</sup> After He said this, He spat on the ground, made some mud with the saliva and anointed the man’s eyes with the mud. <sup>7</sup> He told him, “Go! Wash yourself in the Pool of Siloam!” (When translated, the name is “Sent”).

The man went, washed himself and came back seeing.

<sup>8</sup> His neighbours, therefore, and those who used to see him previously as a beggar asked, “Is not this the man who used to sit and beg?”

<sup>9</sup> Some said, “It is he.” Others said, “No, but he is like him.” He himself kept saying, “I am the one.”

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, they kept asking him, “How, then, have your eyes been opened?”

<sup>11</sup> He answered, “The Man who is called Jesus made some mud, anointed my eyes and told me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash yourself!’ Therefore, I went and washed myself and I received sight.”

<sup>12</sup> They asked him, “Where is He?”

He answered, “I do not know.”

<sup>13</sup> They brought the man who had once been blind to the Pharisees. <sup>14</sup> The day was a Sabbath when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes. <sup>15</sup> Therefore, the Pharisees also kept asking him how he had received his sight. The man told them, “He put mud on my eyes, and I washed myself and I see!”

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, because He does not keep the Sabbath.” Others were asking, “How can a man who is a sinner do such miraculous signs?”

There was a division among them. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, they asked the blind man again, “What do you say about Him? For He has opened your eyes.”

He answered, “He is a prophet.”

<sup>18</sup> Therefore, the Jews did not believe that the man had been blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight. <sup>19</sup> They asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? So, how does he now see?”

<sup>20</sup> Therefore, his parents answered, “We know that he is our son and that he was born blind. <sup>21</sup> However, we do not know how it is that he now sees or who has opened his eyes. Ask him! He is of age. He will tell you about himself.”

<sup>22</sup> His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews. For the Jews had already agreed to put out of the synagogue anyone who confessed that Jesus was the Christ. <sup>23</sup> That is why his parents said, “He is of age. Ask him!”

<sup>24</sup> So, they called a second time the man who had been blind. They told him. “Give glory to God! We know this Man is a sinner.”

<sup>25</sup> He answered, “I do not know whether He is a sinner. One thing I know, that, although I was blind, now I see.”

<sup>26</sup> Therefore, they asked him, “What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?”

<sup>27</sup> He answered them, “I have already told you, and you have not listened. Why do you want to hear it again? Can it possibly be that you also want to become His disciples?”

<sup>28</sup> They answered him insultingly, “You are that Fellow’s disciple. We are Moses’ disciples. <sup>29</sup> We know God has spoken to Moses, but as for this Fellow, we do not know where He is from.”

<sup>30</sup> The man answered them, “Well, the astonishing thing in this is that you do not know where He is from; yet He has opened my eyes. <sup>31</sup> We know that God does not listen to sinners, but, if anyone worships God and does what God wants, God listens to him. <sup>32</sup> Since the beginning of time no one has ever heard that anyone has opened the eyes of a person who has been born blind. <sup>33</sup> If this Man were not from God, He could not do anything.”

<sup>34</sup> They answered him, “You were completely born in sins and are you trying to teach us?”

Then they cast him out. <sup>35</sup> Jesus heard that they had cast him out. When He had found him, He asked, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”

<sup>36</sup> The man asked, “Who, then, is He, Sir, that I may believe in Him?”

<sup>37</sup> Jesus told him, “You have both seen Him, and He is the One who is talking with you.”

<sup>38</sup> He said, “I believe, Lord,” and worshipped Him.

<sup>39</sup> Then Jesus said, “For judgment I have come into this world, that those who do not see may see and that those who see may become blind.”

<sup>40</sup> Some of the Pharisees who were with Him heard this. They asked Him, “Surely we are not blind, too?”

<sup>41</sup> Jesus told them, “If you were blind, you would have no sin. However, now that you say, ‘We see,’ your sin remains.

Jesus’ testimony to Himself as the Door and as the Good Shepherd

<sup>1</sup> “Truly, truly, I tell you, the man who does not come into the sheepfold through the door but climbs over somewhere else is a thief and a robber. <sup>2</sup> However, the One who comes in through the door is the Shepherd of the sheep. <sup>3</sup> The doorkeeper opens the door for Him, and the sheep listen to His voice. He calls His own sheep by name and leads them out.

<sup>4</sup> “When He brings out all His own sheep, He walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow Him because they know His voice. <sup>5</sup> They will not follow a stranger but will run away from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers.”

<sup>6</sup> Jesus told them this dark saying, but they did not understand what He was telling them. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, Jesus spoke again: “Truly, truly, I tell you, I am the Door for the sheep. <sup>8</sup> All who have come before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep have not listened to them. <sup>9</sup> I am the Door. If anyone comes in through Me, he will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. <sup>10</sup> The thief comes only to steal, kill and destroy. I have come that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

<sup>11</sup> “I am the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd lays down His life for the sheep. <sup>12</sup> When the hired man, who is not the shepherd and who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, he leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf catches them and scatters them. <sup>13</sup> He runs away because he is a hired man and does not care about the sheep. <sup>14</sup> I am the Good Shepherd and I know My own, and My own know Me, <sup>15</sup> as the Father knows Me, and I know the Father and lay down My life for the sheep. <sup>16</sup> I also have other sheep, which are not in this fold. I must also lead them, they will listen to My voice, and there will be one flock and one Shepherd. <sup>17</sup> The reason why the Father loves Me is that I lay down My life, that I may take it back again. <sup>18</sup> No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of My own accord. I have authority to lay it down and have authority to take it back again. This command I have received from My Father.

<sup>19</sup> There was a division again among the Jews because of these Words. <sup>20</sup> Many of them were saying, “He has a demon and is mad. Why do you listen to Him?”

<sup>21</sup> Others were saying, “These Words are not those of a demon-possessed man. A demon cannot open the eyes of blind people, can it?”

Jesus’ claim that He is one with the Father

<sup>22</sup> Then the Feast of Dedication at Jerusalem came. It was winter. <sup>23</sup> Jesus was walking in the Temple, in Solomon’s Colonnade. <sup>24</sup> The Jews gathered around Him and began to ask Him, “How long are You keeping us in suspense? If You are the Christ, tell us plainly!”

<sup>25</sup> Jesus answered them, “I have told you, but you do not believe. The works that I am doing in the name of My Father give evidence about Me. <sup>26</sup> However, you do not believe, because you do not belong to My sheep. <sup>27</sup> My sheep listen to My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me, <sup>28</sup> and I give them eternal life, and they will certainly not be lost, and no one will snatch them out of My hand. <sup>29</sup> My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all, and no one can snatch them out of My Father’s hand. <sup>30</sup> I and the Father are one.”

<sup>33</sup> The Jews answered Him, “We are not stoning You for a good work but for blasphemy, because, although You are a man, You are making Yourself God.”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered them, “Has it not been written in your Law, ‘I said, “You are gods”’? <sup>35</sup> If He called them ‘gods’ to whom the Word of God came — and the Scripture cannot be broken — <sup>36</sup> do you say about the One whom the Father has sanctified and has sent into the world, ‘You are blaspheming,’ because I have said, ‘I am the Son of God’? <sup>37</sup> If I am not doing the works of My Father, do not believe Me! <sup>38</sup> However, if I am doing them, even if you do not believe Me, believe the works, that you may know and understand that the Father is in Me and that I am in the Father!”

<sup>39</sup> Therefore, they again tried to arrest Him, but He escaped from their hands. <sup>40</sup> Jesus went back again across the Jordan to the place where John had been baptising at first and stayed there. <sup>41</sup> Many people came to Him. They were saying, “John did not perform any miraculous sign, but all the things that John said about this Man were true.”

<sup>42</sup> Then many people became believers in Him there.

11

Jesus’ raising of Lazarus

<sup>4</sup> When Jesus heard that, He said, “This sickness will not end in death but is for the sake of the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it.”

<sup>5</sup> Jesus loved Martha, her sister and Lazarus. <sup>6</sup> Yet, when He heard that Lazarus was sick, He stayed in the place where He was for two more days. <sup>7</sup> After that, He told His disciples, “Let us go to Judea again!”

<sup>8</sup> The disciples said to Him, “Rabbi, recently the Jews were trying to stone You. So, are You going back there?”

<sup>9</sup> Jesus answered, “Are there not twelve hours in a day? If anyone walks during the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

<sup>10</sup> However, if anyone walks during the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him.”

<sup>11</sup> After He said this, He told them, “Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going that I may wake him up.”

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, His disciples said to Him, “Lord, if he has gone asleep, he will be restored to health.”

<sup>13</sup> However, Jesus had meant that he was dead, but His disciples thought He meant that Lazarus was taking rest in sleep. <sup>14</sup> Therefore, Jesus then told them plainly, “Lazarus has died, <sup>15</sup> and I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, that you may believe. However, let us go to him!”

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, Thomas, who was called “The Twin,” said to his fellow disciples, “Let us also go, that we may die with Him!”

<sup>17</sup> When Jesus arrived, He found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. <sup>18</sup> Bethany was near Jerusalem, about three kilometres away. <sup>19</sup> Many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them about their brother. <sup>20</sup> Therefore, when Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet Him, while Mary kept sitting in the house. <sup>21</sup> Martha told Jesus, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. <sup>22</sup> However, even now I know that God will give You whatever You ask from God.”

<sup>24</sup> Martha said to Him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.”

<sup>25</sup> Jesus told her, “I am the Resurrection and the Life. The person who believes in Me will live even if he dies, <sup>26</sup> and everyone who lives and believes in Me will assuredly never die. Do you believe this?”

<sup>27</sup> She told Him, “Yes, Lord, I have believed that You are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world.”

<sup>28</sup> After she had said this, she went back and called her sister Mary. She told her in private, “The Teacher is here and is asking for you.”

<sup>29</sup> When Mary heard this, she got up quickly and went to Him. <sup>30</sup> Jesus had not yet come into the village but was still at the place where Martha had met Him.

<sup>31</sup> Then the Jews who had been in the house with Mary and had been comforting her saw her get up quickly and leave. They followed her, thinking that she was going to the tomb, to weep there. <sup>32</sup> So, when Mary came to where Jesus was and saw Him, she fell at His feet. She said to Him, “Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.”

<sup>33</sup> When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews weeping who had come with her, He was deeply moved in spirit and was troubled.

<sup>34</sup> He asked, “Where have you laid him?”

They said to Him, “Lord, come and see!”

<sup>35</sup> Jesus wept. <sup>36</sup> Therefore, the Jews said, “See how He loved him!”

<sup>37</sup> However, some of them asked, “Could not this Man, who opened the eyes of the blind man, also have kept this man from dying?”

<sup>38</sup> Jesus, deeply moved again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone had been laid against it.

<sup>39</sup> Jesus said, “Move the stone away!”

Martha, the dead man’s sister, told Him, “Lord, he smells already. He has been dead for four days.”

<sup>40</sup> Jesus asked her, “Did I not tell you, ‘If you believe, you will see the glory of God?’”

<sup>41</sup> So, they moved the stone away. Jesus looked up and said, “Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. <sup>42</sup> I know that You always hear Me but have spoken because of the crowd that is standing around Me, that they may believe that You have sent Me.”

<sup>43</sup> After Jesus had said this, He called out with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out here!”

The plot of the Jews to put Jesus to death — Matthew 26:1-5, Mark 14:1-2, Luke 22:1-6

<sup>45</sup> Therefore, many of the Jews who had come to Mary and who had seen what Jesus did began to believe in Him. <sup>46</sup> However, some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. <sup>47</sup> Therefore, the Chief Priests and the Pharisees called a meeting of the council. They asked, “What are we accomplishing? For this Man is performing many miraculous signs. <sup>48</sup> If we let Him go on like this, everyone will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.”

<sup>49</sup> However, one of them, Caiaphas, who was the High Priest that year, told them, “You do not know anything <sup>50</sup> or consider that it is better for you that one Man should die for the people, than that the whole nation should be lost.”

<sup>51</sup> He did not say this on his own authority, but, as the High Priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation, <sup>52</sup> and not only for that nation but also that Jesus would gather God’s scattered children together and make them one.

<sup>54</sup> Therefore, Jesus no longer moved about in public among the Jews. Instead, He went from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim, and stayed there with His disciples.

<sup>55</sup> The Jewish Passover was near, and many people went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. <sup>56</sup> Therefore, they kept looking for Jesus. They were asking one another as they stood in the Temple, “What do you think, that He really will not come to the feast?”

<sup>57</sup> The Chief Priests and the Pharisees had given orders that, if anyone found out where Jesus was, he should report it, that they might arrest Him.

12

Mary’s anointing of Jesus at Bethany — Matthew 26:6-13, Mark 14:3-9

<sup>1</sup> Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus went to Bethany, where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. <sup>2</sup> People made a dinner for Jesus there. Martha was serving, and Lazarus was one of those who were reclining at the table with Him. <sup>3</sup> Then Mary took a third of a kilogram of perfume, pure and very expensive nard, and anointed Jesus’ feet. She wiped His feet with her hair, and the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume. <sup>4</sup> Judas Iscariot, one of His disciples, the one who was going to betray Him, asked, <sup>5</sup> “Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred denarii, and the money given to the poor?”

<sup>6</sup> He did not say this because he cared about the poor but because he was a thief. As the keeper of the moneybox, he used to pilfer what was put in it. <sup>7</sup> Then Jesus said, “Leave her alone! Let her keep it for the day of My burial! <sup>8</sup> For You always have the poor with you but do not always have Me.”

<sup>9</sup> Then a large crowd of the Jews realised that He was there and came, not only because of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom He had raised from the dead. <sup>10</sup> However, the Chief Priests resolved that they should also kill Lazarus. <sup>11</sup> For he was the reason why many of the Jews were going over to Jesus and becoming believers in Him.

Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem — Matthew 21:1-11, Mark 11:1-11, Luke 19:29-44

<sup>12</sup> On the next day, the large crowd that had come for the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem.

<sup>13</sup> They took branches of palm-trees, went out to meet Him and began to shout, “Hosanna!” “Blessed is He who is coming in the name of the Lord!” and “the King of Israel!”

<sup>14</sup> Jesus found a young donkey and sat on it, as Scripture has said: <sup>15</sup> “Stop being afraid, daughter of Zion! Look! Your King is coming, sitting on the colt of a donkey.”

<sup>16</sup> His disciples did not understand these things at first, but, when Jesus had been glorified, they remembered that these things had been written about Him and that they had done these things to Him.

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, the crowd that had been with Him when He had called Lazarus out of the tomb and had raised him from the dead continued to bear witness. <sup>18</sup> This was also a reason why the crowd went to meet Him, that they heard that He had performed this miraculous sign. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, the Pharisees said to one another, “You see that you are not achieving anything. Look!

The world has gone after Him.”

The glorification of the Son of Man

<sup>20</sup> There were some Greeks among those who were coming up to worship at the Feast. <sup>21</sup> They approached Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and asked him, “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.”

<sup>22</sup> Philip went and told Andrew. Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus. <sup>23</sup> Jesus answered them, “The hour has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.

<sup>24</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone, but, if it dies, it produces much grain.

<sup>25</sup> “The person who loves his life loses it, and the person who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. <sup>26</sup> If anyone serves Me, he should follow Me, and where I am there also My servant will be. If anyone serves Me, the Father will honour him.

<sup>27</sup> Now My soul is troubled, and what am I to say? ‘Father, save Me from this hour!’? No! For this reason, I have come to this hour. <sup>28</sup> Father, glorify Your name!”

Then a voice came from heaven: “I both have glorified it and shall glorify it again.”

<sup>29</sup> Therefore, the crowd that was standing there and heard it began to say that it had thundered. Others were saying, “An angel has spoken to Him.”

<sup>30</sup> Jesus answered: “This voice has not come because of Me but because of you. <sup>31</sup> Now is the judgment of this world. Now the ruler of this world will be cast out. <sup>32</sup> I, if I am lifted up from the earth, shall also draw all people to Myself.”

<sup>33</sup> He said this to indicate the kind of death that He was going to die.

<sup>34</sup> The crowd answered Him, “We have heard from the Law that the Christ remains for ever. How, then, are You saying that the Son of Man must be lifted up? Who is this ‘Son of Man’?”

<sup>35</sup> Then Jesus told them, “The Light is still among you for a little while. Walk while you have the Light, that darkness may not overtake you! The person who walks in the dark does not know where he is going. <sup>36</sup> While you have the Light, believe in the Light that you may become children of light!”

After Jesus had said these things, He went away and hid from them. <sup>37</sup> Although He had done so many miraculous signs in their presence, they would not believe in Him, <sup>38</sup> that the Word that the prophet Isaiah had said might be fulfilled: “Lord, who has believed our report? To whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”

<sup>39</sup> This was the reason why they could not believe. For Isaiah said again: <sup>40</sup> “He has blinded their eyes and hardened their hearts, that they may not see with their eyes and that they may not understand with their hearts and may not be converted, that I should heal them.” and spoke about Him. <sup>42</sup> Nevertheless, even among the rulers many became believers in Him but would not confess it publicly because of the Pharisees, to avoid being put out of the synagogue. <sup>43</sup> For they loved the glory of men more than the glory of God.

<sup>44</sup> Jesus cried out, “The person who believes in Me does not believe only in Me but in Him who has sent Me. <sup>45</sup> The person who sees Me also sees the One who has sent Me. <sup>46</sup> I have come as Light into the world that no one who believes in Me may remain in darkness. <sup>47</sup> If anyone hears My Words but does not keep them, I do not condemn him. For I have not come to judge the world but to save the world. <sup>48</sup> The person who rejects Me and does not receive My Words has the thing that judges him. The Word that I have spoken will judge him on the last day, <sup>49</sup> because I have not spoken on My own authority, but the Father, who has sent Me, has Himself given Me a Commandment, what I am to say and what I am to speak. <sup>50</sup> I also know that His Commandment is eternal life. Therefore, as for the things that I am saying, I am saying them as the Father has told Me.”

The reception of the Word by the disciples (13:1-17:26)
Jesus’ washing of His disciples’ feet

<sup>1</sup> Before the Feast of the Passover, Jesus knew that His hour had come to leave this world and go to the Father. He had loved His own who were in the world and loved them completely. <sup>2</sup> The evening meal was being served, and the Devil had already put the idea of betraying Jesus into the mind of Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. <sup>3</sup> Jesus knew that the Father had put everything into His hands and that He had come from God and was going back to God. <sup>4</sup> Jesus rose from the meal, laid aside His outer garments, took a towel and tied it around His waist. <sup>5</sup> Then He poured water into a basin and began to wash His disciples’ feet and to dry them with the towel that He had wrapped around Him. <sup>6</sup> When He came to Simon Peter, Peter asked Him, “Lord, are You going to wash my feet?”

<sup>7</sup> Jesus answered him, “You do not understand now what I am doing but later you will know.”

<sup>8</sup> Peter told Him. “You will assuredly never wash my feet.”

Jesus answered him, “If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me.”

<sup>9</sup> Simon Peter told Him, “Lord, not only my feet but also my hands and my head!”

<sup>10</sup> Jesus told him, “The person who has had a bath needs only to wash his feet. He is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you.”

<sup>11</sup> For He knew who would betray Him. That was why He said, “Not all of you are clean.”

<sup>12</sup> After He had washed their feet and put on His outer garments, He reclined at the table again. He asked them, “Do you know what I have done to you? <sup>13</sup> You call Me ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and you are right, because I am. <sup>14</sup> Therefore, if I, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet! <sup>15</sup> For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. <sup>16</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, a slave is not greater than his master is, and one who is sent is not greater than the one who has sent him. <sup>17</sup> If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them! <sup>18</sup> I am not talking about all of you. I know those whom I have chosen. Nevertheless, let the Scripture be fulfilled that says: ‘He who eats My bread has lifted up his heel against Me!’ <sup>19</sup> From now on I am telling you these things before they happen so that, when they happen, you may believe that I am He. <sup>20</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you, the person who receives anyone whom I send receives Me, and the person who receives Me receives Him who has sent Me.”

Jesus’ prediction of His betrayal — Matthew 26:21-25, Mark 14:18-21, Luke 22:21-23

<sup>21</sup> After He had said this, Jesus was troubled in spirit. He testified, “Truly, truly, I tell you, one of you will betray Me.”

<sup>26</sup> Jesus answered, “It is the one to whom I shall give the piece of bread when I have dipped it.”

Then He dipped the piece of bread and gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. <sup>27</sup> After Judas had taken the piece of bread, Satan entered him. So, Jesus told him, “Do quickly what you are doing!”

<sup>28</sup> None of those who were reclining at the table knew why Jesus had said this to him. <sup>29</sup> For, since Judas had the moneybag, some thought that Jesus was telling him, “Buy the things that we need for the feast!” or that he should give something to the poor. <sup>30</sup> After Judas had taken the piece of bread, he immediately went outside. It was night.

<sup>31</sup> When Judas had gone out, Jesus said, “Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in Him. <sup>32</sup> If God has been glorified in Him, God will also glorify Him in Himself and will glorify Him immediately.

Jesus’ prophecy of Peter’s denials — Matthew 26:31-35, Mark 14:27-31, Luke 22:31-38

<sup>33</sup> “Little children, I shall be with you a little longer yet. You will look for Me, but, as I told the Jews, so I tell you now: Where I am going, you cannot come.

<sup>34</sup> I am giving you a new Commandment, that you love one another. You also love one another, as I have loved you! <sup>35</sup> By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.”

ing?”

Jesus answered him, “You cannot follow Me now where I am going but will follow later.”

<sup>37</sup> Peter asked Him, “Lord, why can I not follow You now? I shall lay down my life for You.”

<sup>38</sup> Jesus answered, “Will you lay down your life for Me? Truly, truly, I tell you, a rooster will certainly not crow until you deny Me three times.

14

The meaning of Jesus’ going away

<sup>1</sup> “Let not your hearts be troubled! Believe in God and believe in Me! <sup>2</sup> In My Father’s house there are many rooms. If it were not so, I would have told you, because I am going to prepare a place for you. <sup>3</sup> If I go to prepare a place for you, I shall also come again and take you to be with Me, that you also may be where I am. <sup>4</sup> You know the way to where I am going.”

<sup>5</sup> Thomas said to Him, “Lord, we do not know where You are going. How can we know the way?”

<sup>6</sup> Jesus told him, “I am the Way, the Truth and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.

<sup>7</sup> If you have known Me, you will know My Father also and from now on you know Him and have seen Him.”

<sup>8</sup> Philip said to Him, “Lord, show us the Father! Then that is enough for us.”

<sup>9</sup> Jesus asked him, “Have I been with you for such a long time, and have you not known Me, Philip? The person who has seen Me has seen the Father. How do you say, ‘Show us the Father?’ <sup>10</sup> Do you not believe that I am in the Father and that the Father is in Me? These Words, which I am telling you, I am not speaking on My own authority, but the Father, who remains in Me, is doing His works. <sup>11</sup> Believe Me, that I am in the Father and that the Father is in Me. Or else, believe because of the works themselves!

<sup>12</sup> “Truly, truly, I tell you, the person who believes in Me will also do the works that I am doing and do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. <sup>13</sup> I shall also do whatever you ask in My name, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. <sup>14</sup> If you ask Me for anything in My name, I shall do it.

<sup>15</sup> “If you love Me, you will keep My Commandments. <sup>16</sup> I shall also ask the Father, and He will give you another Advocate, to be with you for ever. <sup>17</sup> He is the Spirit of Truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it does not see or know Him. You know Him, because He remains with you and will be in you. <sup>18</sup> I shall not leave you as orphans. I am coming back to you.

<sup>19</sup> “Only a little while longer and the world will not see Me any longer, but you will see Me. Because I live, you also will live. <sup>20</sup> On that day you will know that I am in My Father, that you are in Me and that I am in you.

<sup>21</sup> “The person who has My Commandments and keeps them is the one who loves Me. The person who loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I shall love him and show Myself to him.”

<sup>22</sup> Judas, not Judas Iscariot, asked Him, “Then, Lord, what has happened that You are going to show Yourself to us and not to the world?”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus answered him, “If anyone loves Me, he will keep My Word, and My Father will love him, and We shall come to him and make Our home with him.

<sup>24</sup> He who does not love Me does not keep My Words. The Word that you hear is not Mine but the Father’s, who has sent Me. <sup>25</sup> I have told you these things while I am still with you. <sup>26</sup> However, the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, will teach you everything and will remind you of everything that I have told you. <sup>27</sup> Peace I am leaving with you. A peace that is My own I am giving to you. I am not giving it to you as the world gives it. Let not your hearts be troubled or afraid! <sup>28</sup> You have heard Me telling you, ‘I am going away and am coming back to you.’ If you loved Me, you would be glad that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. <sup>29</sup> Now I have told you before it happens, so that, when it happens, you may believe. <sup>30</sup> I shall not say much to you any longer. For the ruler of the world is coming and has no hold on Me. <sup>31</sup> However, the world should realise that I love the Father and that I am doing as the Father has commanded Me! Get up! Let us be going from here!

15

Jesus’ allegory about the Vine and the branches

<sup>2</sup> He takes out every branch in Me that does not bear fruit and prunes every branch that bears fruit, that it may bear more fruit. <sup>3</sup> You are already clean because of the Word that I have spoken to you. <sup>4</sup> Remain in Me, and I shall remain in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you, unless you remain in Me. <sup>5</sup> I am the Vine. You are the branches. If a man remains in Me and I in him, he bears much fruit. For without Me you can do nothing. <sup>6</sup> If anyone does not remain in Me, he is thrown away like the branch and withers. Such branches are picked up, thrown into the fire and burnt. <sup>7</sup> If you remain in Me, and My Words remain in you, ask for whatever you wish! It will be done for you. <sup>8</sup> By this My Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit and become My disciples. <sup>9</sup> “As the Father has loved Me, so I have loved you. Remain in My love! <sup>10</sup> If you keep My Commandments, you will remain in My love, as I have also kept My Father’s Commandments and remain in His love. <sup>11</sup> I have told you these things that My joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete. <sup>12</sup> This is My Commandment, that you should love one another as I have loved you. <sup>13</sup> No one has greater love than this,

to lay down his life for his friends. <sup>14</sup> You are My friends if you continue to do what I command you.

<sup>15</sup> I no longer call you ‘servants,’ because a servant does not know what his master is doing. However, I have called you ‘friends’ because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from My Father.

<sup>16</sup> You have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you and appointed you that you may go and bear fruit and that your fruit may remain, that the Father may give you whatever you ask for in My name. <sup>17</sup> This is what I command you: Love one another!

<sup>18</sup> “If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. <sup>19</sup> If you belonged to the world, the world would love its own. Because you do not belong to the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, that is why the world hates you. <sup>20</sup> Remember the Word that I spoke to you: ‘A slave is not greater than his master’! If they have persecuted Me, they will also persecute you. If they have observed My Word, they will also observe yours. <sup>21</sup> Now they will do all these things to you because of My name, because they do not know Him who has sent Me. <sup>22</sup> If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. <sup>23</sup> The person who hates Me also hates My Father. <sup>24</sup> If I had not done the works among them that no one else has done, they would have no sin. However, now they have seen and also hated both Me and My Father. <sup>25</sup> However, this has happened that the Word may be fulfilled that has been written in their Law: ‘They have hated Me without any reason.’ <sup>26</sup> When the Advocate comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of Truth, who proceeds from the Father, He will testify about Me. <sup>27</sup> You also must testify, because you have been with Me from the beginning.

16

Jesus’ promise that sorrow will turn to joy

<sup>1</sup> “I have spoken these things to you that you may not fall away. <sup>2</sup> People will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the time is coming when anyone who murders you will think that he is offering a service to God. <sup>3</sup> They will do these things because they have not known the Father or Me. <sup>4</sup> However, I have told you these things so that, when their time comes, you may remember them, because I have told you about them. I did not tell you these things at first, because I was with you. <sup>5</sup> However, now I am going away to Him who has sent Me, and none of you is asking Me, ‘Where are You going?’ <sup>6</sup> However, because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your hearts. <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless, I tell you the truth, it is good for you that I am going away. For, if I do not go away, the Advocate will not come to you. However, if I go, I shall send Him to you. <sup>8</sup> When He comes, He will convict the world about sin, righteousness and judgment: <sup>9</sup> about sin, because they do not believe in Me, <sup>10</sup> about righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you do not see Me any longer, <sup>11</sup> about judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.

<sup>12</sup> “I still have many things to tell you, but you cannot endure them now. <sup>13</sup> However, when He, the Spirit of Truth, comes, He will lead you into the whole truth. For He will not speak on His own authority but will speak whatever He hears and will tell you what is coming. <sup>14</sup> He will glorify Me, because He will take from what is Mine and will tell it to you. <sup>15</sup> All things that the Father has are Mine. That is why I have said, ‘He takes from what is Mine and will tell it to you.’

<sup>16</sup> “A little while and you do not see Me any longer and, again, a little while, and you will see Me.”

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, some of His disciples asked one another, “What does this mean that He is telling us, ‘A little while and you do not see Me and, again, a little while, and you will see Me’ and ‘Because I am going to the Father’?”

<sup>18</sup> Therefore, they kept asking, “What does this mean that He is saying, ‘A little while’? We do not understand what He is saying.”

<sup>19</sup> Jesus knew that they wanted to ask Him. He said to them, “Are you trying to find out among yourselves about this thing that I said, ‘A little while and you do not see Me and, again, a little while and you will see Me’? <sup>20</sup> Truly, truly, I tell you that you will weep and mourn, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned to joy. <sup>21</sup> When a woman is giving birth, she has sorrow because her hour has come. However, when she has given birth to her child, she does not remember her anguish any longer, because of her joy that a human being has been born into the world. <sup>22</sup> Therefore, you also have sorrow now, but I shall see you again, and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you. <sup>23</sup> In that day you will not ask Me any questions. Truly, truly, I tell you, if you ask the Father for anything in My name, He will give it to you. <sup>24</sup> Until now you have not asked for anything in My name. Ask and you will receive, that your joy may be complete! <sup>25</sup> I have been telling you these things in figures of speech. The hour is coming when I shall no longer speak to you in figures of speech but shall report to you plainly about the Father. <sup>26</sup> In that day you will ask in My name, and I do not say to you that I shall ask the Father on your behalf. <sup>27</sup> For the Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me and because you have believed that I have come forth from God. <sup>28</sup> I have come forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I am leaving the world and am going to the Father.”

<sup>29</sup> His disciples said, “Look! Now You are speaking plainly and are not speaking any dark saying. <sup>30</sup> Now we know that You know all things and do not need to have anyone ask You questions. By this we believe that You have come forth from God.”

<sup>31</sup> Jesus answered them, “Do you now believe?

<sup>32</sup> Look! The hour is coming and has come, when you will be scattered, each to his own home, and you will leave Me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me. <sup>33</sup> I have spoken these things to you that in Me you may have peace. In the world you have distress. Nevertheless, have courage! I have overcome the world.”

Jesus' High Priestly prayer — prayer for Himself

<sup>1</sup> Jesus spoke these Words, looked up to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come. Glorify Your Son, that Your Son may glorify You! <sup>2</sup> For You have given Him authority over all people, to give eternal life to all whom You have given Him. <sup>3</sup> This is eternal life, to know You, the only true God and Jesus Christ, whom You have sent. <sup>4</sup> I have glorified You on the earth by finishing the work that You have given Me to do. <sup>5</sup> Now, Father, glorify Me at Your side with the glory that I had with You before the world existed!

Jesus' High Priestly prayer — prayer for His apostles

<sup>6</sup> “I have made Your name known to the people whom You have given Me out of the world. They were Yours, You gave them to Me, and they have kept Your Word. <sup>7</sup> Now they know that all things that You have given Me come from You, <sup>8</sup> because I have given them the Words that You have given Me, and they have received them and learned the truth that I have come from You and have believed that You have sent Me. <sup>9</sup> I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me. For they are Yours. <sup>10</sup> All that are Mine are Yours, and what are Yours are Mine, and I have been glorified in them. <sup>11</sup> I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name, the name that You have given Me, that they may be one, as We are one! <sup>12</sup> While I have been with them, I have kept them in Your name, which You have given Me. I have watched over them, and none of them has been lost except the one who will be lost, that the Scripture may be fulfilled. <sup>13</sup> Now I am coming to You and I say these things while I am in the world, that they may have a full measure of My joy in them. <sup>14</sup> I have given them Your Word, but the world has hated them, because they do not belong to the world, as I do not belong to the world. <sup>15</sup> I do not ask You to take them out of the world but to keep them from the Evil One. <sup>16</sup> They do not belong to the world, as I do not belong to the world. <sup>17</sup> Make them holy by the truth! Your Word is truth. <sup>18</sup> As You have sent Me into the world, I have also sent them into the world. <sup>19</sup> For their sakes I set Myself apart as holy, that they also may be set apart as holy by the truth.

Jesus' High Priestly prayer — prayer for believers of all times

<sup>20</sup> “I am not praying for these only but also for those who believe in Me through their Word, <sup>21</sup> that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I am in You. Let them also be in Us, that the world may believe that You have sent Me! <sup>22</sup> I have given them the glory that You have given Me, that they may be one, as We are one. <sup>23</sup> I am in them, and You are in Me. Let them be brought to complete unity that the world may know that You have sent Me and that You have loved them as You have loved Me! <sup>24</sup> Father, I desire that those also whom You have given to Me may be with Me where I am, that they may see My glory, which You have given to Me, because You have loved Me before the foundation of the world. <sup>25</sup> Righteous Father, the world has not known You, but I have known You, and these have come to know that You have sent Me. <sup>26</sup> I have made Your name known to them and shall make it known, that the love with which You have loved Me may be in them and that I may be in them.”

18

The Word's accomplishment of grace and truth through His passion, death and resurrection (18:1-20:31)

The arrest of Jesus — Matthew 26:47-56, Mark 14:43-52, Luke 22:47-54a

<sup>1</sup> After Jesus had said this, He went out with His disciples to the other side of the Kidron Valley, where there was a garden. He and His disciples went into it.

<sup>2</sup> Judas, who was betraying Him, also knew the place, because Jesus had often been meeting there with His disciples. <sup>3</sup> Then Judas took the troop of soldiers and assistants from the Chief Priests and Pharisees and came there with lanterns, torches and weapons.

<sup>4</sup> Therefore, Jesus, knowing all that was going to happen to Him, went out and asked them, “For whom are you looking?”

<sup>5</sup> They answered Him, “Jesus of Nazareth.” Jesus told them, “I am He.”

Judas, who was betraying Him, was also standing with them. <sup>6</sup> When Jesus told them, “I am He,” they went backwards and fell to the ground.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, Jesus asked them again, “For whom are you looking?”

They said, “Jesus of Nazareth.”

<sup>8</sup> Jesus answered, “I have told you that I am He. Therefore, if I am the One for whom you are looking, let these men go!”

<sup>9</sup> This happened that the statement that He had made might be fulfilled: “I have not lost any of those whom You have given Me.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it, struck the High Priest's slave and cut off his right ear. The slave's name was Malchus.

<sup>11</sup> Jesus told Peter, “Put your sword into its scabbard! Shall I not indeed drink the cup that My Father has given Me?”

<sup>12</sup> Then the troop of soldiers, the commander and the Jewish assistants arrested Jesus and tied Him up.

<sup>13</sup> They took Him to Annas first. For he was the father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was the High Priest that year. <sup>14</sup> It was Caiaphas who had advised the Jews, “It is better that one Man should die for the people.”

Peter's first denial — Matthew 26:69-75, Mark 14:66-72, Luke 22:54b-62

<sup>15</sup> Simon Peter was following Jesus, and so was another disciple. That disciple was known to the High Priest and went with Jesus into the High Priest's courtyard. <sup>16</sup> However, Peter was standing outside at the door. The other disciple, who was known to the High Priest, went out and spoke to the girl watching the door and brought Peter inside.

<sup>17</sup> The servant-girl who was keeping the door asked Peter, “You are not one of this Man's disciples too, are you?”

He answered, “I am not.”

<sup>18</sup> The slaves and the assistants were standing around and had made a heap of burning coals, because it was cold, and were warming themselves. Peter was also standing with them and warming himself.

Jesus' trial before Annas

<sup>19</sup> Then the High Priest questioned Jesus about His disciples and His teaching.

<sup>20</sup> Jesus answered him, “I have been speaking openly to the world. I have always been teaching in the synagogue and in the Temple, where all the Jews come together, and have not been saying anything in secret.

<sup>21</sup> Why do you question Me? Ask those who have heard what I have told them! Surely, they know what I have said.”

<sup>22</sup> After He had said this, one of the assistants who was standing near Jesus slapped His face and asked, “Is that how You answer the High Priest?”

<sup>23</sup> Jesus answered him, “If I have said anything wrong, give evidence about what has been wrong! However, if I have said what is good, why do you hit Me?”

<sup>24</sup> Then Annas sent Him, still bound, to Caiaphas, the High Priest.

Peter's subsequent denials — Matthew 26:69-75, Mark 14:66-72, Luke 22:54b-62

<sup>25</sup> Simon Peter continued to stand and warm himself. People asked him, “You are not one of His disciples too, are you?”

He denied it, saying, “I am not.”

<sup>26</sup> One of the slaves of the High Priest, a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off, asked, “Did I not see you in the garden with Him?”

<sup>27</sup> Peter then denied it again, and immediately a rooster crowed.

Jesus' trial before Pilate — Matthew 27:11-14, Mark 15:1-5, Luke 23:1-4

<sup>28</sup> They took Jesus from Caiaphas to the governor's quarters. It was early in the morning. The Jews themselves did not go into the governor's quarters, to avoid becoming unclean and to enable them to eat the Passover. <sup>29</sup> So, Pilate came outside to them and asked, “What accusation are you bringing against this Man?”

<sup>30</sup> They answered him, “If He were not a criminal, we would not have handed Him over to you.”

<sup>31</sup> Pilate therefore told them, “You take Him and judge Him according to your Law!”

The Jews answered him, “We are not permitted to execute anyone.”

<sup>32</sup> This happened that the statement that Jesus had made might be fulfilled, when He indicated the kind of death He was going to die.

<sup>33</sup> Then Pilate went into the governor’s quarters again and called for Jesus. He asked Him, “Are You the King of the Jews?”

<sup>34</sup> Jesus answered, “Are you saying this of yourself or have others told you about Me?”

<sup>35</sup> Pilate answered, “I am not a Jew, am I? Your own people and the Chief Priests have handed You over to me. What have You done?”

<sup>36</sup> Jesus answered, “My kingdom does not belong to this world. If My kingdom belonged to this world, My attendants would fight, to prevent Me from being handed over to the Jews. However, now My kingdom is not from here.”

<sup>37</sup> Therefore, Pilate asked Him, “Then are You a king?”

Jesus answered, “You are correct in saying that I am a king. I have been born for this reason and have come into the world for this reason, that I may testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to My voice.”

<sup>38</sup> Pilate asked Him, “What is truth?”

After he had said this, he went out to the Jews again and told them, “I do not find any ground for complaint in Him. <sup>39</sup> However, you have a custom for me to release one person for you at the Passover. So, would you like me to release the King of the Jews for you?”

<sup>40</sup> Then they shouted back: “No, not Him but Barabbas!” Barabbas was a revolutionary.

19

The scourging of Jesus and the soldiers’ mockery of Him — Matthew 27:27-30, Mark 15:16-19

Pilate’s attempts to avoid putting Jesus to death

<sup>4</sup> Pilate went outside again and told them, “Look! I am bringing Him out to you, that you may know that I find no cause for complaint in Him.”

<sup>5</sup> Jesus came outside, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate told them, “Look at the Man!”

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, when the Chief Priests and the attendants saw Him, they shouted, “Crucify, crucify!”

Pilate told them, “Take Him yourselves and crucify Him! For I do not find any basis for a charge against Him.”

<sup>7</sup> The Jews answered him, “We have a Law, and according to the Law He ought to die, because He has made Himself the Son of God.”

<sup>8</sup> When Pilate heard them say that, he was more afraid. <sup>9</sup> He went into the governor’s quarters again and asked Jesus, “Where are You from?”

However, Jesus did not give him an answer.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore, Pilate asked Him, “Are You refusing to speak to me? Do You not realise that I have authority to free You and authority to crucify You?”

<sup>11</sup> Jesus answered him, “You would not have any authority at all over Me if it had not been given to you from above. That is why the man who has handed Me over to you has the greater sin.”

<sup>12</sup> From then on Pilate kept trying to release Jesus, but the Jews shouted out, “If you let this Man go, you are no friend of Caesar. Everyone who makes himself a king is speaking against Caesar.”

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, when Pilate heard these words, he took Jesus outside and sat down in the judge’s seat at a place called “the Stone Pavement,” or “Gabbatha” in Aramaic. <sup>14</sup> It was the day of the Preparation of the Passover and about six in the morning. Pilate told the Jews, “Look at your King!”

<sup>15</sup> Therefore, they shouted, “Away with Him! Away with Him! Crucify Him!”

Pilate asked them, “Am I to crucify your King?”

The Chief Priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar.”

Jesus’ crucifixion — Matthew 27:31-44, Mark 15:20-32, Luke 23:26-38

<sup>16</sup> Then Pilate handed Jesus over to them to be crucified. So, the soldiers took charge of Jesus.

<sup>17</sup> Jesus went out, carrying His own cross, to the place that was called “the Place of the Skull,” which is called “Golgotha” in Aramaic. <sup>18</sup> There they crucified Him with two other men, one on each side, with Jesus in the middle.

<sup>19</sup> Pilate also wrote a notice and put it on the cross. It read: “Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews.”

<sup>20</sup> Therefore, many Jews read this notice, because the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city. The notice had been written in Aramaic, Latin and Greek.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, the High Priests of the Jews told Pilate, “Do not write: ‘The King of the Jews,’ but: ‘He said, ‘I am the King of the Jews!’”

<sup>23</sup> When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took His outer garments and divided them into four parts, one part for each soldier, and the undergarment. The undergarment was without a seam, woven from the top in one piece. <sup>24</sup> Therefore, they said to one another, “Let us not tear it but let us throw dice for it, to decide who will get it!”

This happened that the Scripture might be fulfilled that says: “They divided My outer garments among them and cast lots for My clothing.”

So, that is what the soldiers did.

Jesus’ provision for the care of Mary

<sup>25</sup> Jesus’ mother, His mother’s sister, Mary, the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene were standing near the cross of Jesus.

<sup>26</sup> Therefore, when Jesus saw His mother and the disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He said to His mother, “Woman, there is your son.” <sup>27</sup> Then He said to the disciple, “There is your mother.”

From that time on, this disciple took her into his own home.

Jesus’ death on the cross — Matthew 27:45-56, Mark 15:33-41, Luke 23:44-49

<sup>28</sup> After this, knowing that everything had now been finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, Jesus said, “I am thirsty.”

<sup>29</sup> A jar full of sour wine had been placed there. So, they put a sponge full of the sour wine on hyssop and lifted it to His mouth.

<sup>30</sup> When Jesus had taken the sour wine, He said, “It is finished.”

Then He bowed His head and gave up His spirit.

The fulfilment of the command that no bone of the Passover lamb should be broken

<sup>31</sup> Since it was the Day of Preparation, to prevent the bodies from remaining on the cross on the Sabbath, and because that Sabbath day was an important one, the Jews asked Pilate that the men’s legs should be broken, and the bodies taken away. <sup>32</sup> The soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and those of the other man who had been crucified with Jesus.

<sup>33</sup> However, when they came to Jesus and saw that He was dead already, they did not break His legs; <sup>34</sup> but one of the soldiers pierced Jesus’ side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. <sup>35</sup> He who has seen it has been testifying about it. His testimony is true, and he knows he is telling the truth, that you also may believe.

Jesus’ burial — Matthew 27:57-61, Mark 15:42-47, Luke 23:50-56

<sup>38</sup> After this, Joseph from Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus but secretly because he was afraid of the Jews, asked Pilate to let him remove the body of Jesus. Pilate gave Joseph permission. So, he came and took Jesus’ body away. <sup>39</sup> Nicodemus also came, the man who had come to Jesus by night at the beginning. He brought a mixture of about thirty kilograms of myrrh and aloes.

<sup>40</sup> Therefore, they took Jesus’ body and wrapped it in strips of linen with the spices according to the Jewish burial-custom.

<sup>41</sup> There was a garden at the place where Jesus was crucified, and, in the garden, there was a new tomb, in which no one had yet been laid. <sup>42</sup> They laid Jesus there, because it was the Jewish Day of Preparation and because the tomb was nearby.

Jesus’ resurrection from the dead — Matthew 28:1-10, Mark 16:1-8, Luke 24:1-12

<sup>1</sup> Early on Sunday, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb and saw that the stone had been taken away from the tomb. <sup>2</sup> So, she ran and came to Simon Peter and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved. She told them, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him.”

<sup>3</sup> Therefore, Peter and the other disciple went out and began to go to the tomb. <sup>4</sup> The two were running together, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and reached the tomb first. <sup>5</sup> He bent over and saw the strips of linen lying there but did not go in.

<sup>6</sup> Simon Peter, who was behind him, also arrived and went into the tomb. He saw the strips of linen lying there, <sup>7</sup> as well as the cloth that had been on Jesus’ head, not lying with the strips of linen but wrapped up in a place by itself. <sup>8</sup> Then the other disciple, who had arrived at the tomb first, also went inside. He saw and began to believe. <sup>9</sup> For they did not yet know the Scripture, that He had to rise from the dead.

<sup>10</sup> So, the disciples went back again to their lodgings.

Jesus’ appearance to Mary Magdalene

<sup>11</sup> Mary was standing outside, facing the tomb and crying. While she was crying, she bent over to see into the tomb. <sup>12</sup> She saw two angels in white clothes sitting where Jesus’ body had been lying, one at the head, and the other at the feet. <sup>13</sup> They asked her, “Woman, why are you crying?”

She told them, “They have taken my Lord away, and I do not know where they have laid Him.”

<sup>14</sup> After she said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there but did not realise that it was Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> Jesus asked her, “Woman, why are you crying? For whom are you looking?”

She thought that He was the gardener and said to Him, “Sir, if you have carried Him away, tell me where you have laid Him! Then I shall take Him away.”

<sup>16</sup> Jesus said to her, “Mary!”

She turned and said to Him in Aramaic, “Rabboni!” (The word means “Teacher”).

<sup>17</sup> Jesus told her, “Stop holding on to Me! For I have not yet gone up to the Father. Instead, go to My brothers and tell them, ‘I am going up to My Father and your Father, to My God and your God!’”

<sup>18</sup> Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples, “I have seen the Lord,” and that He had said these things to her.

Jesus’ appearance in the locked room and His commission to the apostles to forgive and retain sins — Luke 24:36-48

<sup>19</sup> That Sunday evening the doors had been locked where the disciples were, because they were afraid of the Jews. Then Jesus came, stood among them and said to them, “Peace be with you!”

<sup>20</sup> After He had said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.

<sup>21</sup> Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you! As the Father has sent Me, I also am sending you.”

22 After He had said this, He breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit! 23 If you forgive any people's sins, they have been forgiven; if you retain any people's sins, they have been retained."

24 However, Thomas, one of the twelve, who was called "The Twin," was not with them when Jesus came. 25 The other disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord."

He told them, "Unless I see the marks of the nails in His hands and put my finger into the marks of the nails and put my hand into His side, I shall certainly not believe."

26 A week later, His disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors had been locked, Jesus came, stood among them and said, "Peace be with you!"

27 Next He told Thomas, "Put your finger here and look at My hands! Take your hand and put it into My side! Stop your unbelief and believe!"

28 Thomas answered Him, "My Lord and my God!"

29 Jesus asked him, "Have you believed because you have seen Me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed!"

The purpose of the Gospel

30 Jesus also performed many other miraculous signs in the presence of His disciples, which have not been written in this book. 31 However, these things have been written that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that, believing, you may have life in His name.

Appendix (21:1-25)

The Lord Jesus' breakfast with some disciples at the Sea of Tiberias

1 After this, Jesus showed Himself again to His disciples at the Sea of Tiberias. This is how He showed Himself: 2 Simon Peter, Thomas, who was called "The Twin," Nathanael, who was from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two other disciples of Jesus were together. 3 Simon Peter said to the others, "I am going fishing."

They told him, "We too are coming with you."

They went out and got into the boat but that night they caught nothing. 4 When morning had already come, Jesus stood on the shore, but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus asked them, "Children, you do not have any fish, do you?"

They answered Him, "No."

6 He told them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat! You will find some!"

So, they cast the net and could not pull it in again, because there were so many fish. 7 Then the disciple whom Jesus loved told Peter, "It is the Lord."

When Simon Peter heard him say, "It is the Lord," he put on the outer garment that he had taken off, fastened it with his belt and jumped into the sea. 8 The other disciples came in the small boat, towing the net full of fish. For they were not far from the shore, only about a hundred metres away. 9 Then, when they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals set there, with fish laid on it and some bread.

10 Jesus told them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught!"

11 Then Simon Peter got into the boat and dragged the net ashore, full of one hundred and fifty-three large fish; and, although there were so many, the net had not been torn. 12 Jesus told them, "Come and have breakfast!"

None of the disciples dared to ask Him, "Who are You?"

They knew that it was the Lord. 13 Jesus came, took the bread and gave it to them and the fish as well.

14 This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after He had been raised from the dead.

Jesus' restoration of Peter and the commission to him to feed His sheep

15 So, when they had eaten breakfast, Jesus asked Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me more than these?"

He said to Him, "Yes, Lord, You know that I love You."

Jesus told him, "Feed My lambs!"

16 Jesus asked him again, a second time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?"

He answered Him, "Yes, Lord, You know that I love You."

Jesus told him, "Be a shepherd to My sheep!"

17 Jesus asked him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love Me?"

Peter was saddened because He had asked him the third time, "Do you love Me?"

He answered Him, "Lord, You know all things. You know that I love You."

Jesus told him, "Feed My sheep! 18 Truly, truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to tie on your belt and walk where you wished. However, when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will tie on your belt and carry you where you do not wish."

19 Jesus said this to signify by what kind of death Peter would glorify God. After He had said this, He told him, "Follow Me!"

20 Peter turned around and saw that the disciple whom Jesus loved was following them. He was the one who had also reclined at Jesus' chest at the supper and had asked, "Lord, who is the one who is betraying You?"

21 When Peter saw him, he asked Jesus, "Lord, and what about this man?"

22 Jesus asked him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow Me!"

23 Because of this, this saying spread among the brothers, that this disciple would not die. However, Jesus had not told him that he would not die but "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you?"

24 This is the disciple who is testifying about these things and who has written these things, and we know that his testimony is true.

John

A declaration that much more could have been written

<sup>25</sup> There are also many other things that Jesus has done and, if they were written one by one, I suppose that not even the world itself would have room for the books that would be written.

ACTS

1

Introduction and theme (1:1-8)

<sup>1</sup> In my former book, Theophilus, I have written about everything that Jesus began to do and to teach <sup>2</sup> until the day when He was taken up to heaven, after He had given Instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom He had chosen.

<sup>3</sup> After His suffering, Jesus also showed these men, through many convincing proofs, that He was alive. He was seen by them during a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God. <sup>4</sup> While He was eating with them, He ordered them not to leave Jerusalem but to wait for what the Father had promised. He said, "You have heard about this from Me. <sup>5</sup> For John baptised with water, but not many days from now you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit."

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, when they met together, they asked Him, "Lord, are You at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?"

<sup>7</sup> He told them, "It is not for you to know the times or events that the Father has set by His own authority.

<sup>8</sup> However, you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you and you will be My witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria and to the farthest parts of the world."

The Gospel in Jerusalem (1:9-7:60)

Jesus' ascension

<sup>9</sup> After He had said this and while they were watching Him, He was lifted up and a cloud took Him away from their sight. <sup>10</sup> While they were gazing into the sky as He was going, suddenly two men in white clothes stood beside them. <sup>11</sup> They asked, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing and looking up into the sky? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come back in the same way as you have seen Him go into heaven."

<sup>12</sup> Then they went back to Jerusalem from what was called "the Mount of Olives," which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away.

The appointment of Matthias as an apostle

<sup>13</sup> When they entered, they went to the second-floor room where they were staying. There were Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew; James, the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot and Judas, the son of James. <sup>14</sup> With one mind these all kept praying together, along with the women, Mary the mother of Jesus and His brothers.

<sup>15</sup> In those days Peter stood up among the disciples (the number of persons all together was about a hundred and twenty) and he said, <sup>16</sup> "Men, brothers, the passage of Scripture that the Holy Spirit spoke long ago through the mouth of David about Judas had to be fulfilled. He served as a guide for the men who arrested Jesus. <sup>17</sup> For Judas had been counted as one of us and had received his portion in this ministry. <sup>18</sup> With the reward that he got for his wickedness, Judas bought a field. He fell headlong and burst open in the middle and all his intestines poured out. <sup>19</sup> All those who live in Jerusalem have heard about it; and so that piece of land is called 'Akel-Dama' in their language, that is, 'Field of Blood.' <sup>20</sup> For Scripture has said in the book of Psalms: 'Let his home be deserted and let there be no one who lives in it!' and 'Let someone else take his position of oversight!'

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, there must be one of the men who have accompanied us all through the time when the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, <sup>22</sup> one of these men who have been with us, beginning with the baptism of John until the day when Jesus was taken up from us, to be a witness with us of His resurrection."

<sup>23</sup> They proposed two men: Joseph, called "Barsabbas," who was also known as "Justus," and Matthias. <sup>24</sup> Then they prayed, "Lord, You know the hearts of all. Show which of these two You have chosen <sup>25</sup> to take over the position of this ministry and office of apostle, from which Judas has transgressed, to go to his own place!"

<sup>26</sup> They cast lots for them, and the lot fell to Matthias, and he was chosen by vote to be added to the eleven apostles.

The coming of the Holy Spirit

<sup>5</sup> Jews who feared God from every nation under heaven were staying in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> When that sound occurred, a crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard the disciples speaking in his own native language. <sup>7</sup> They were astonished and amazed and asked: "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? <sup>8</sup> Then how is it that everyone of us hears in his own native language, <sup>9</sup> Parthians, Medes and Elamites, people living in Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and the province of Asia, <sup>10</sup> people living in Phrygia and Pamphilia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene, visitors from Rome, Jews as well as proselytes, <sup>11</sup> and people from Crete and Arabia? We hear them declaring in our own languages the wonderful works of God."

Peter's sermon at Pentecost

<sup>14</sup> Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: "Men who are Jews and all of you who are living in Jerusalem, understand this and listen closely to what I say! <sup>15</sup> These men are not drunk, as you suppose. For it is only nine in the morning. <sup>16</sup> Rather, this is what has been spoken through the prophet Joel: <sup>17</sup> ‘In the last days, God says, “I shall pour out My Spirit on all people. Your sons and your daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions and your old men will dream dreams. <sup>18</sup> Indeed, even on My male slaves and female slaves I shall pour out My Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. <sup>19</sup> I shall show wonders in the heaven above and miraculous signs on the earth below: blood, fire and a cloud of smoke. <sup>20</sup> The sun will turn dark, and the moon turn to blood before the coming of the great and splendid day of the Lord, <sup>21</sup> and everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.’”

<sup>22</sup> “Men of Israel, listen to these words! Jesus of Nazareth was a Man whom God commended to you, as you yourselves know, by miracles, wonders and miraculous signs, which God worked among you through Him. <sup>23</sup> This Man was handed over to you by God’s set plan and foreknowledge, and you, with the hands of wicked men, nailed Him to a cross and put Him to death. <sup>24</sup> Nevertheless, God raised Him and loosed the pains of death, because it was not possible for death to hold Him. <sup>25</sup> For David says about Him: ‘I have continually been foreseeing the Lord before Me. For He is at My right hand, that I may not be shaken. <sup>26</sup> For this reason My heart is glad, and My tongue rejoices; yes, even My body will rest in hope. <sup>27</sup> For You will not abandon My soul to Hades or allow Your Holy One to see decay. <sup>28</sup> You have made the paths of life known to Me. You will fill Me with joy through Your presence.’ <sup>29</sup> Brethren, I can tell you frankly that our ancestor David died and was buried, and his grave is with us to this day. <sup>30</sup> Therefore, because David was a prophet and knew that God had sworn to him by an oath to cause one of his descendants to sit on his throne, <sup>31</sup> he saw what would come and said concerning the resurrection of the Christ that He was not abandoned to the grave and that His body did not experience decay. <sup>32</sup> This One, Jesus, God has raised, and of that fact we are all witnesses.

<sup>33</sup> “Therefore, after He has been lifted up by God’s right hand and has received the promised Holy Spirit from the Father, He has poured out this, which you both see and hear. <sup>34</sup> For it was not David who went up to heaven, but he says himself: ‘The Lord said to my Lord: “Sit at My right hand, <sup>35</sup> until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.’”

<sup>36</sup> “Therefore, all the people of Israel should know for certain that God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, Lord and Christ!”

<sup>37</sup> When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart. They asked Peter and the rest of the apostles,

“Brethren, what are we to do?”

<sup>38</sup> Peter answered them: “Repent and let everyone of you be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. <sup>39</sup> For this promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far away, all whom the Lord, our God, calls.”

<sup>40</sup> With many other words he testified to them by argument. He urged them, “Be saved from this crooked kind of people!”

<sup>41</sup> Those who received what he said were baptised, and that day about three thousand persons were added. The manner of life of the first believers

<sup>42</sup> They continued steadfastly in the teaching of the apostles and in the fellowship, in the breaking of the bread and in the prayers. <sup>43</sup> Fear came on everyone, and many wonders and miraculous signs were being done through the apostles. <sup>44</sup> All the believers were together and shared everything with one another. <sup>45</sup> They used to sell their possessions and goods and divide them among them all, as anyone was in need. <sup>46</sup> All were one at heart as they continued to go to the Temple every day. They used to break bread from house to house and eat their food with glad and generous hearts. <sup>47</sup> They kept praising God and had the good will of all the people. Every day the Lord kept adding together those who were being saved.

The healing of the crippled man at the Temple

<sup>1</sup> Peter and John were going up to the Temple for the hour of prayer, the ninth hour. <sup>2</sup> A certain man had been a cripple from his birth, and people used to carry him every day and lay him at the gate of the Temple that was called “Beautiful,” that he might beg for gifts from those who were entering the Temple. <sup>3</sup> When he saw that Peter and John were about to go into the Temple, he asked to receive a gift. <sup>4</sup> Peter and John looked straight at him and Peter said, “Look at us!”

<sup>5</sup> The man gave them his attention, expecting to receive something from them. <sup>6</sup> Peter said, “I have no silver or gold but give you what I have: In the name of Jesus Christ from Nazareth, get up and walk!”

<sup>7</sup> He took hold of him by the right hand and raised him up, and immediately the man’s feet and ankles were made strong. <sup>8</sup> He jumped up, stood, began to walk and went with them into the Temple, walking, jumping and praising God. <sup>9</sup> All the people saw him walking and praising God. <sup>10</sup> They recognised him as the man who had been sitting and begging at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple and were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

<sup>11</sup> As the man clung to Peter and John, all the people came running together to them at the porch that is called “Solomon’s,” greatly amazed.

Peter’s address in Solomon’s colonnade

<sup>12</sup> When Peter saw the people, he responded to them, “Men of Israel, why are you wondering about this or why are you looking intently at us, as though we had made him walk by our own power or piety? <sup>13</sup> The God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified His Servant Jesus, whom you handed over and denied before Pilate when he had decided to release Him. <sup>14</sup> You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked for a murderer to be granted to you. <sup>15</sup> You killed the Author of life, but God raised Him from the dead. We are witnesses of this. <sup>16</sup> By faith in His name, His name has made this man, whom you see and know, strong. The faith that comes through Him has given him this perfect health in front of all of you.

<sup>17</sup> “Yet now, fellow Jews, I know that you have acted in ignorance, as your rulers have also done. <sup>18</sup> However, in this way God has fulfilled what He had foretold by the mouths of all the prophets, that His Christ would suffer. <sup>19</sup> Repent, therefore, and turn to God, that your sins may be wiped away, that times of refreshing may come from the Lord, <sup>20</sup> and that He may send the Christ, whom He has previously appointed for you, namely, Jesus! <sup>21</sup> Heaven must receive Him until the times when everything is restored, as God has promised since the world began by the mouths of His holy prophets.

<sup>22</sup> “Moses said: ‘The Lord, your God, will raise up for you a Prophet from among your brethren, who is like me. You shall listen to Him in everything that He tells you, <sup>23</sup> and every person who does not listen to that Prophet will be completely cut off from the people.’ <sup>24</sup> Indeed, Samuel and all the other prophets who have spoken after him have also proclaimed these days. <sup>25</sup> You are the children of the prophets and of the Covenant that God made with your fathers, when He said to Abraham: ‘In your Offspring all the families of the earth will be blessed.’ <sup>26</sup> God has raised up His Servant and has sent Him first to you, to bless you by turning each one of you from your wicked ways.”

The investigation of Peter and John by the Jewish council

<sup>1</sup> While Peter and John were speaking to the people, the priests, the captain of the Temple and the Sadducees approached them. <sup>2</sup> They were extremely annoyed because Peter and John were teaching the people and preaching in Jesus the resurrection of the dead. <sup>3</sup> They laid their hands on them and put them in custody until the next day. For it was already evening. <sup>4</sup> However, many of those who had heard the Word had become believers, and the number of the men grew to about five thousand. <sup>5</sup> On the next day, their rulers, elders and scribes assembled in Jerusalem. <sup>6</sup> Annas the High Priest, Caiaphas, John and Alexander were there and all the other members of the High Priest’s family. <sup>7</sup> They made the two men stand in the middle and began to ask, “By what power or by what name have you done this?”

<sup>8</sup> Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, replied to them, “Rulers of the people and elders! <sup>9</sup> If we are being examined today because of a good deed that we have done to a crippled man, by what means he has been made well, <sup>10</sup> let it be known to you all and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God has raised from the dead, by Him this man is standing here before you in good health! <sup>11</sup> This is ‘the Stone that was rejected by you builders, which has become the Cornerstone.’ <sup>12</sup> There is also salvation in no one else. For there is no other name under heaven that has been given among human beings by which we must be saved.”

<sup>13</sup> When they saw how boldly Peter and John spoke and perceived that they were unschooled laymen, they were astonished. Then they realised that these men had been with Jesus. <sup>14</sup> Since they saw the man who had been healed standing with them, they could not say anything against them. <sup>15</sup> So, they ordered them to go aside out of the council and then conferred together. <sup>16</sup> They asked, “What are we to do with these men? For it is evident to all who live in Jerusalem that a remarkable miraculous sign has been performed through them, and we cannot deny it. <sup>17</sup> However, that it may not spread any further among the people, let us threaten them not to speak to anyone any longer using this name!”

<sup>18</sup> They called Peter and John and ordered them to give up altogether speaking and teaching by using the name of Jesus. <sup>19</sup> Peter and John answered them, “You judge whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God! <sup>20</sup> For we cannot but speak the things that we have seen and heard.”

<sup>21</sup> However, they threatened them further and let them go, because they did not find any way of punishing them, because of the people. For they were all glorifying God for what had been done. <sup>22</sup> For the man on whom this miraculous sign had been performed was more than forty years old.

The prayer of the church for boldness

<sup>23</sup> When Peter and John had been released, they went to their own people and reported everything that the High Priests and elders had told them. <sup>24</sup> After they heard it, they raised their voices to God with one accord and said, “Master, You, who have made the heaven and the earth, the sea and everything in them, <sup>25</sup> You, who have said through the Holy Spirit, through the mouth of our father, Your servant David: ‘Why have the nations raged and why have the peoples plotted vain things? <sup>26</sup> The kings of the earth have taken their stand and the rulers have gathered together against the Lord and against His Christ.’ — <sup>27</sup> For truly, both Herod and Pontius Pilate have gathered together with the Gentiles and the people of Israel in this city against Your holy Servant

Jesus, whom You have anointed,<sup>28</sup> to do all the things that Your hand and Your plan had previously decided should be done.<sup>29</sup> Even now, Lord, look on their threats and grant to Your servants that they may keep speaking Your Word with all boldness,<sup>30</sup> as You stretch out Your hand to heal, and grant that miraculous signs and wonders may be done through the name of Your holy Servant Jesus!”

<sup>31</sup> After they had prayed, the place where they had assembled was shaken, and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and continued to speak the Word of God boldly.

The sharing of possessions by the first believers

<sup>32</sup> The large number of believers was one in heart and soul, and no one said that any of his possessions was his own, but they possessed everything in common.

<sup>33</sup> With great power the apostles continued to give testimony to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great good will rested on them all.

<sup>34</sup> For there was no one among them who was in need. For all who possessed pieces of land or houses used to sell them, bring the proceeds of the things that were sold<sup>35</sup> and lay them at the apostles’ feet. These used to be distributed to each one according to the need he had.<sup>36</sup> Joseph, the one whom the apostles called “Barnabas,” which is translated as “Son of Encouragement,” a Levite, born in Cyprus,<sup>37</sup> sold a field that he owned, brought the money and laid it at the apostles’ feet.

The deaths of Ananias and Sapphira for their deception

<sup>1</sup> A man by the name of Ananias also sold a piece of property together with his wife Sapphira.<sup>2</sup> He put aside part of the proceeds for himself and his wife was also aware of it. Then he brought a part of them and laid them at the apostles’ feet.<sup>3</sup> Peter asked, “Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart that you tell a lie to the Holy Spirit and put aside for yourself some of the price of the land?<sup>4</sup> While you had the land, did it not remain your own and, after it was sold, was it not at your disposal? Why is it that you have put it into your heart to do this? You have not lied to men but to God.”

<sup>5</sup> When Ananias heard these words, he fell and breathed out his life. Great fear came on all those who heard about it.<sup>6</sup> The young men arose, wrapped him up, carried him out and buried him.<sup>7</sup> There had been an interval of about three hours when his wife came in, without knowing what had happened.<sup>8</sup> Peter asked her, “Tell me, did you two sell the piece of land for so much?”

She answered, “Yes, for so much.”

<sup>9</sup> Peter asked her, “Why is it that you two have agreed together to test the Spirit of the Lord? Look! The feet of the men who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out.”

<sup>10</sup> Immediately she fell at his feet and breathed her last. When the young men came in, they found her dead, carried her out and buried her beside her husband.<sup>11</sup> Great fear came on the whole church and on all who heard these things.

The performing of many miracles by the apostles

<sup>12</sup> Many miraculous signs and wonders were performed among the people by the apostles. All the brethren used to be in unanimity in Solomon’s Porch.

<sup>13</sup> None of the others dared to join with them but regarded them highly.<sup>14</sup> Many believers were increasingly being added to the Lord, both men and women.

<sup>15</sup> As a result, people even carried the sick out into the streets and laid them down on beds and mats, so that, when Peter came, at least his shadow might fall on one of them.<sup>16</sup> Many people used to gather even from the towns around Jerusalem, bringing sick people and those whom unclean spirits troubled, and they were all healed.

The imprisonment of the apostles and their appearance before the Jewish council again

<sup>17</sup> Then the High Priest and all those who were with him, who were members of the local party of the Sadducees, began to be filled with envy.<sup>18</sup> They arrested the apostles and put them in the public prison.

<sup>19</sup> However, at night the angel of the Lord opened the prison doors and brought them out. He said,<sup>20</sup> “Go and stand in the Temple and keep on telling the people the full message about this life!”

<sup>21</sup> After they heard that, they went into the Temple at daybreak and began to teach. The High Priest and those who were with him came and called together the Jewish council, all the elders of the people of Israel. Then they sent some men to the prison to have the apostles brought.<sup>22</sup> However, when the officers arrived, they did not find them in prison. They came back and reported,<sup>23</sup> “We found the prison very securely locked and the guards standing at the doors, but, when we opened them, we found no one inside.”

<sup>24</sup> When the captain of the Temple and the High Priests heard these reports, they were puzzled about them, wondering what might come of this.<sup>25</sup> Then someone arrived and told them, “Look! The men whom you put in the prison are standing in the Temple and teaching the people.”

<sup>26</sup> Then the captain went with his officers and brought the apostles but without using force, because they were afraid that the people would stone them.<sup>27</sup> They brought them and made them stand before the Jewish Council, and the High Priest questioned them<sup>28</sup> and said, “Did we not give you strict orders not to teach using this name? Yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching and you want to bring this Man’s blood on us.”

<sup>29</sup> Peter and the other apostles answered, “We must obey God rather than men.<sup>30</sup> The God of our fathers has raised Jesus, whom you had murdered by hanging Him on a tree.<sup>31</sup> God has exalted Him to His right hand as Prince and Saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins to Israel. <sup>32</sup> We are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey Him.”

Gamaliel's advice and the dismissal of the apostles

<sup>33</sup> When they heard this, they were infuriated and wanted to put them to death. <sup>34</sup> However, a certain man in the council, a Pharisee by the name of Gamaliel, a teacher of the Law, who was respected by all the people, stood up and ordered them to put the men outside for a little while. <sup>35</sup> He told them, “Men of Israel, be careful what you intend to do with these men! <sup>36</sup> For Theudas appeared some time ago, claiming to be somebody, and a number of men, about four hundred, joined him. He was put to death, and all who followed him were dispersed and came to nothing. <sup>37</sup> After him, Judas the Galilean appeared in the days of the census and drew a host after him in a revolt. He also perished, and all who followed him were scattered. <sup>38</sup> In the present case I tell you, keep away from these men and dismiss them! For, if this purpose or activity is of human origin, it will fail, <sup>39</sup> but, if it is from God, you will not be able to overthrow them. Perhaps you will even be found to be fighting against God.”

<sup>40</sup> He persuaded them. Then they called the apostles in, flogged them, ordered them not to speak using the name of Jesus and let them go. <sup>41</sup> The apostles went away from the council, rejoicing that they had been thought worthy of being dishonoured for the sake of the Name. <sup>42</sup> Every day, in the Temple and from house to house, they did not cease teaching and telling the Good News that Jesus is the Christ.

The appointment of the seven assistants to serve the needs of Greek-speaking widows

<sup>1</sup> In those days, as the number of the disciples was multiplying, those who spoke Greek brought a complaint against those who spoke Aramaic, that their widows were being neglected in the daily distribution of food. <sup>2</sup> The Twelve called the whole group of disciples together and said, “It is not satisfactory for us to give up the Word of God to serve at tables. <sup>3</sup> Brethren, select seven men from among you who have a good reputation and who are full of the Spirit and wisdom, and we shall put them in charge of this duty. <sup>4</sup> However, we shall devote ourselves to prayer and the ministry of the Word.”

<sup>5</sup> The proposal pleased the whole group. So, they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas and Nicolaus from Antioch, who had previously become a Jew. <sup>6</sup> They placed these men before the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

<sup>7</sup> The Word of God kept on spreading. The number of disciples in Jerusalem was growing very large. Even many of the priests were becoming believers, as God wanted them to.

The arrest of Stephen

<sup>8</sup> Stephen, a man full of God's grace and power, was working great wonders and miraculous signs among the people. <sup>9</sup> Some men of the Synagogue of the Freedmen, as it was called, men from Cyrene and Alexandria and men from Cilicia and Asia, rose up to argue with Stephen. <sup>10</sup> However, they could not resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke.

<sup>11</sup> Then they secretly induced some men to say, “We have heard Stephen speaking blasphemous words against Moses and against God.”

<sup>12</sup> They stirred up the people, the elders and the scribes, went up to him, seized him and took him to the council. <sup>13</sup> They produced false witnesses, who said, “This man does not cease speaking words against this Holy Place and against the Law. <sup>14</sup> For we have heard him saying, ‘This Jesus of Nazareth will tear this place down and will change the customs that Moses has handed down to us.’”

<sup>15</sup> All who sat in the council looked intently at Stephen and saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

7

Stephen's defence

<sup>2</sup> Stephen answered, “Fellow-Jews and fathers, listen! The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham while he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran. <sup>3</sup> God told him, ‘Leave your country and your relatives and come to whichever land I shall show you!’

<sup>4</sup> “Then Abraham left the country of the Chaldeans and lived in Haran. After his father died, God transferred him from there to this land, where you are now living. <sup>5</sup> Yet He did not give him any inheritance in it, not even enough to set his foot on, but, while Abraham had no child, He promised to give it as a possession to him and to his descendants after him.

<sup>6</sup> However, God spoke in this way: that Abraham's descendants would reside as strangers in a foreign country and that its people would make slaves of them and mistreat them for four hundred years.

<sup>7</sup> God said, ‘However, I shall judge the people to whom they will be slaves, and afterwards they will come out and worship Me in this place.’

<sup>8</sup> “God gave Abraham the Covenant of circumcision. In this situation he fathered Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day. Isaac begot Jacob, and Jacob begot the twelve patriarchs. <sup>9</sup> When the patriarchs became jealous of Joseph, they sold him into Egypt, but God was with him. <sup>10</sup> God rescued Joseph from all his troubles and gave him favour and wisdom in the presence of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and Pharaoh made him ruler over Egypt and of his whole household. <sup>11</sup> Then a famine with great misery came over all of Egypt and Canaan, and our fathers could not find any food. <sup>12</sup> When Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers the first time.

<sup>13</sup> “During the second time, Joseph made himself known to his brothers, and the Pharaoh learned about Joseph’s family. <sup>14</sup> Joseph sent to his father Jacob and asked him and all his relatives to come, consisting of seventy-five persons. <sup>15</sup> So, Jacob went down to Egypt. He and our fathers died <sup>16</sup> and were brought back to Shechem and laid in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of money from the sons of Hamor at Shechem. <sup>17</sup> When the time of the promise that God had made to Abraham came near, the people had increased and had become very numerous in Egypt. <sup>18</sup> Then a different king over Egypt arose, who did not know Joseph. <sup>19</sup> By trickery he took advantage of our race and mistreated our fathers by making them expose their babies, that they might not be kept alive. <sup>20</sup> At that time Moses was born and was well pleasing to God. For three months he was cared for in his father’s home. <sup>21</sup> When he was exposed, Pharaoh’s daughter took him for herself and brought him up as her own son. <sup>22</sup> Moses was educated in all the wisdom of the Egyptians and was mighty in what he said and did. <sup>23</sup> When he was in his fortieth year, the thought came to him that he would visit his brothers, the Israelites. <sup>24</sup> When he saw a man being mistreated, he defended him. He avenged the man who was being oppressed by striking down the Egyptian. <sup>25</sup> Moses thought that his fellow-Israelites would understand that God was giving them deliverance by his hand, but they did not understand. <sup>26</sup> On the next day he appeared to them as they were fighting. He tried to reconcile them and restore peace by saying, ‘Men, you are brothers. Why are you doing wrong to one another?’

<sup>27</sup> “However, the man who was doing wrong to his neighbour pushed Moses away. He asked, ‘Who appointed you to be a ruler and a judge over us?

<sup>28</sup> Surely you do not want to kill me as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?’

<sup>29</sup> “Because he said that, Moses fled and became a foreigner residing in the land of Midian and there he had two sons. <sup>30</sup> After forty years had passed, an Angel appeared to Moses in the flames of a burning thorn-bush in the wilderness of Mount Sinai.

<sup>31</sup> When Moses saw it, he was astonished at the sight. While he was approaching to observe it carefully, the voice of the Lord came to him: <sup>32</sup> ‘I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.’

“Moses began to tremble and did not dare to look.

<sup>33</sup> The Lord told him, ‘Take your sandals off your feet! For the place on which you are standing is holy ground. <sup>34</sup> I have clearly seen the oppression of My people, who are in Egypt. I have heard their groaning and have come down to rescue them.

Now, come! Let Me send you to Egypt!’

<sup>35</sup> “This same Moses, whom they had rejected, saying, ‘Who appointed you as a ruler and a judge?’ God sent to be both a ruler and a redeemer, with the help of the Angel, the one who had appeared to him in the thorn-bush. <sup>36</sup> This man led them out, performing wonders and miraculous signs in the land of Egypt, in the Red Sea and, for forty years, in the wilderness. <sup>37</sup> This is the Moses who told the Israelites: ‘God will raise up for you a Prophet like me, out of your brothers.’ <sup>38</sup> This is the one who was in the congregation in the wilderness, with the Angel who spoke to him on Mount Sinai and with our fathers and he received living oracles to give to us. <sup>39</sup> However, our fathers were not willing to be obedient to him. Instead, they rejected him and in their hearts they turned back to Egypt. <sup>40</sup> They told Aaron, ‘Make gods for us who will go before us! For we do not know what has happened to this Moses, who has brought us out of the land of Egypt.’

<sup>41</sup> “In those days they made a calf, offered a sacrifice to the idol and rejoiced in what their hands had made. <sup>42</sup> Then God turned away and gave them over to worship the heavenly bodies, as Scripture has said in the Book of the Prophets: ‘Family of Israel, you did not offer slaughtered animals and sacrifices to Me for forty years in the wilderness, did you? <sup>43</sup> You took along the tabernacle of Moloch, the star of your god Rompha and the images that you had made to worship. I shall send you away to live beyond Babylon.’

<sup>44</sup> “In the wilderness our fathers had the Tabernacle of the Testimony. It was made according to the pattern that Moses had seen, as the One who spoke to Moses had directed him to make it. <sup>45</sup> Our fathers also received the Tabernacle in turn from Moses and brought it in, under Joshua, while they were taking possession of the land from the nations whom God drove out before our fathers. It remained until the time of David. <sup>46</sup> He found favour before God and asked that he might provide a dwelling place for the God of Jacob. <sup>47</sup> However, Solomon built a house for Him. <sup>48</sup> However, the Most High does not dwell in things made by human hands, as the prophet says: <sup>49</sup> “Heaven is My throne, and the earth is My footstool. What kind of house will you build Me?” asks the Lord, “or what is the place where I rest?” <sup>50</sup> Has not My hand made all these things?”

<sup>51</sup> “Stubborn people and uncircumcised in hearts and ears! You are always resisting the Holy Spirit. As your fathers have done it, you are doing it too.

<sup>52</sup> Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? They killed those who announced that the Righteous One would come, and now you have become the ones who have betrayed and murdered Him. <sup>53</sup> You were the people who received the Law through angels who were directed to transmit it, but you have not kept it.”

The stoning of Stephen

<sup>54</sup> When they heard these things, they became furious and ground their teeth at him. <sup>55</sup> However, full of the Holy Spirit, he looked intently up to heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. <sup>56</sup> He said, “Look! I see heaven opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.”

<sup>57</sup> However, they shouted aloud and held their ears shut. They rushed at him with one purpose, <sup>58</sup> threw him out of the city and began to stone him. The witnesses laid their outer clothes at the feet of a young man named Saul.

<sup>59</sup> While they were stoning Stephen, he was making an invocation and saying, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!” <sup>60</sup> Then he knelt and shouted aloud, “Lord, do not hold this sin against them!” When he had said this, he fell asleep.

The preaching of the Gospel in Samaria and Judea (8:1-12:25)

The persecution and dispersion of believers from Jerusalem

The preaching of the Gospel in Samaria

<sup>5</sup> Philip went down to the city of Samaria and preached Christ to the people. <sup>6</sup> The crowds kept paying close attention together to the things that were being said by Philip when they heard him and saw the miraculous signs that he was performing. <sup>7</sup> For unclean spirits were crying out aloud and were being cast out of many who had them, and many paralysed and crippled people were healed. <sup>8</sup> So, there was great joy in that city.

The insincere desire of Simon to impart the gift of the Spirit

<sup>9</sup> A certain man by the name of Simon had previously been practising magic in the city and astonishing the people of Samaria. He claimed that he was someone great, <sup>10</sup> and they all, from the least to the greatest, were paying close attention to him and saying, “This man is the power of God that is called ‘Great.’”

<sup>11</sup> They were paying close attention to him because he had astonished them with his magic arts for a long time. <sup>12</sup> However, when they believed Philip as he was telling the Good News about the kingdom of God and about the name of Jesus Christ, they were being baptised, both men and women. <sup>13</sup> Simon himself also believed and, after he had been baptised, he attached himself to Philip. He continued to be amazed as he saw the miraculous signs and great miracles that were being performed. <sup>14</sup> When the apostles, who were in Jerusalem, heard that Samaria had received the Word of God, they sent Peter and John to them. <sup>15</sup> They went down and prayed for the people, that they might receive the Holy Spirit. <sup>16</sup> For He had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been baptised into the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>17</sup> Then Peter and John kept laying their hands on them, and they were receiving the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup> When Simon saw that the Spirit was being given through the laying on of the apostles’ hands, he offered them money. <sup>19</sup> He said, “Give me this authority also, that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit!”

<sup>20</sup> Peter told him, “May your money perish with you! For you thought that you could obtain the gift of God by means of money. <sup>21</sup> You have no part or share in this message. For your heart is not right in the sight of God. <sup>22</sup> Therefore, repent of this wickedness of yours and pray to the Lord, if He will perhaps forgive you for having this thought in your heart! <sup>23</sup> For I see that you are becoming a bitter poison and bound by wickedness.”

<sup>24</sup> Simon answered, “You people, pray to the Lord for me, that none of the things that you have spoken about may come on me!”

<sup>25</sup> After Peter and John had given their testimony and spoken the Word of the Lord, they also continued to tell the Good News to many villages of the Samaritans as they were returning to Jerusalem.

The Spirit’s instruction to Philip to tell the Gospel to an Ethiopian eunuch

<sup>26</sup> An angel of the Lord told Philip, “Get up and go southwards on the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza!”

This is desert. <sup>27</sup> He got up and went. A man from Ethiopia was there, a eunuch, who was a high official in charge of all the treasury of Candace, the queen of the Ethiopians. He had gone to Jerusalem to worship <sup>28</sup> and was on his way home. He was sitting in his chariot and reading the prophet Isaiah. <sup>29</sup> The Spirit told Philip, “Go up to this chariot and stay close to it!” <sup>30</sup> Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

<sup>31</sup> He answered, “How could I, unless someone guided me?”

He invited Philip to come up and sit with him. <sup>32</sup> The passage of the Scripture that the man was reading was this: “He was led like a sheep to be slaughtered and, as a lamb is silent before its shearer, so He did not open His mouth. <sup>33</sup> In His humiliation, His justice was taken away. Who will describe His descendants? For His life has been taken from the earth.”

<sup>34</sup> The eunuch answered Philip, “I ask you, about whom is the prophet saying this, about himself or someone else?”

<sup>35</sup> Then Philip began to speak. He began from this passage of Scripture and told him the Good News about Jesus. <sup>36</sup> As they were travelling down the road, they came to some water. The eunuch said, "Look! Here is water. What is there to prevent me from being baptised?"

<sup>38</sup> He ordered the chariot to stop. Both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and Philip baptised him. <sup>39</sup> When they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him again but went on his way rejoicing. <sup>40</sup> However, Philip was found at Ashdod. As he passed through all the cities, he kept telling the Good News, until he came to Caesarea.

The conversion of Saul of Tarsus

<sup>1</sup> Saul was still breathing murderous threats against the disciples of the Lord. He went to the High Priest <sup>2</sup> and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, that, if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them back to Jerusalem as prisoners. <sup>3</sup> On his journey, as he was coming near Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. <sup>4</sup> He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting Me?"

<sup>5</sup> Saul asked, "Who are You, Lord?"

He said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting."

<sup>6</sup> However, get up, go into the city! You will be told what you must do."

<sup>7</sup> The men who were travelling with Saul were standing speechless. They heard the sound but did not see anyone. <sup>8</sup> Saul got up from the ground. However, when he opened his eyes, he could not see anything. So, they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. <sup>9</sup> For three days he could not see and did not eat or drink.

The restoration of sight to Saul and his baptism

<sup>10</sup> There was a certain disciple at Damascus by the name of Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision: "Ananias!"

He answered, "Yes, Lord, here I am."

<sup>11</sup> The Lord told him, "Get up, go to the street called 'Straight,' and in the home of Judas ask for a man from Tarsus by the name of Saul! For, you must know, he is praying. <sup>12</sup> He has also seen in a vision that a man by the name of Ananias has come in and laid his hands on him, that he may get his sight back."

<sup>13</sup> Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much wrong this man has done to Your holy people in Jerusalem, <sup>14</sup> and here he has authority from the Chief Priests to arrest all who call on Your name."

<sup>15</sup> However, the Lord told Ananias, "Go! For this man is My chosen instrument, to carry My name before the Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel.

<sup>16</sup> For I shall show him how much he must suffer for the sake of My name."

<sup>17</sup> Ananias went and arrived at the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord has sent me, even Jesus, who appeared to you on the road as you were coming here, that you may get your sight back and be filled with the Holy Spirit."

<sup>18</sup> Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he could see again. He got up and was baptised. <sup>19</sup> Then he had something to eat and regained his strength.

The preaching of the Gospel by Saul at Damascus

Then Saul spent some days with the disciples at Damascus. <sup>20</sup> At once he began to preach in the synagogues that Jesus is the Son of God. <sup>21</sup> All who heard him were amazed and asked, "Is he not the man who made havoc among those in Jerusalem who were calling on this name and has he not come here for this purpose, to take them as prisoners to the High Priests?"

<sup>22</sup> However, Saul became stronger and stronger and was causing consternation in the Jews living in Damascus by proving that Jesus is the Christ. <sup>23</sup> After many days had gone by, the Jews plotted to murder him, <sup>24</sup> but Saul was informed about their plot. They were closely watching the gates day and night to murder him, <sup>25</sup> but his disciples took him by night and let him down through the wall, by lowering him in a basket. <sup>26</sup> After he had arrived in Jerusalem, he tried to associate with the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, because they did not believe that he was a disciple. <sup>27</sup> However, Barnabas took an interest in him and brought him to the apostles. He related to them how Saul had seen the Lord on the road, what the Lord had told him and how in Damascus Saul had preached boldly in the name of Jesus. <sup>28</sup> Then he moved about freely with them in Jerusalem, preaching boldly in the name of the Lord. <sup>29</sup> He was talking with the Greek-speaking Jews and debating with them, but they attempted to murder him. <sup>30</sup> When the fellow-disciples found out about it, they took him down to Caesarea and sent him away to Tarsus.

<sup>31</sup> Therefore, the church throughout Judea, Galilee and Samaria continued to have peace and be strengthened. It lived in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit and continued to grow in numbers.

Peter's activity in western Palestine and the healing of Aeneas and the raising of Dorcas

<sup>32</sup> While Peter was travelling around everywhere, he also went down to God's holy people who were living in Lydda. <sup>33</sup> There he found a man by the name of Aeneas who was paralysed and had been lying on a mat for eight years. <sup>34</sup> Peter told him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your own bed."

Then Aeneas got up immediately. <sup>35</sup> All who lived in Lydda and Sharon saw him and turned to the Lord.

<sup>36</sup> In Joppa there was a woman-disciple by the name of Tabitha. When the name is translated, it is “Dorcas.” She was always doing good works and giving help to poor people. <sup>37</sup> However, in those days she became sick and died. People washed her and laid her in a room upstairs. <sup>38</sup> Since Lydda is near Joppa, the disciples heard that Peter was in Lydda, sent two men to him and urged him: “Do not fail to come here to us!”

<sup>39</sup> Peter arose and went with them. When he arrived there, they took him to the room upstairs. All the widows stood beside him, weeping and showing on themselves all the tunics and garments that Dorcas used to make while she was still with them. <sup>40</sup> However, Peter sent all the people out of the room. He knelt and prayed. Then he turned toward the body and said, “Tabitha, get up!”

She opened her eyes and, when she saw Peter, she sat up. <sup>41</sup> He gave her his hand and helped her stand up. Then he called God’s holy people, including the widows, and presented her to them alive. <sup>42</sup> This became known all over Joppa, and many people became believers in the Lord. <sup>43</sup> Peter stayed in Joppa for many days with Simon, a tanner.

<sup>1</sup> In Caesarea there was a man by the name of Cornelius, a centurion in what was called “the Italian Regiment.” <sup>2</sup> He was a devout man, who feared God together with all his family. He gave much to the poor among the people and used to pray to God continually. <sup>3</sup> About the ninth hour of the day he had a vision, in which he clearly saw an angel of God, who came in to him and said to him, “Cornelius!”

<sup>4</sup> He stared at the angel and was terrified. He asked him, “What is it, Lord?”

The angel answered him, “Your prayers and your gifts to the poor have come up as a memorial offering before God. <sup>5</sup> Now send some men to Joppa, to bring back a man named Simon, who is also called ‘Peter’! <sup>6</sup> He is a guest of Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the sea.”

<sup>7</sup> When the angel who was speaking to him had gone away, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier from among those who used to wait on him. <sup>8</sup> He explained everything to them and sent them to Joppa.

Three visions that encouraged Peter to preach the Gospel to a Gentile family

<sup>9</sup> The next day, while they were on their journey and getting close to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray, about the sixth hour. <sup>10</sup> However, he became hungry and wanted to eat, but, while they were preparing food, he fell into a trance. <sup>11</sup> He saw heaven opened and an object like a large linen sheet coming down, being lowered to the ground by its four corners. <sup>12</sup> In it were all kinds of four-footed animals, reptiles of the earth and birds of the sky. <sup>13</sup> A voice came to him, “Get up, Peter! Kill and eat!”

<sup>15</sup> A voice spoke to him a second time: “Stop regarding as unclean the things that God has declared clean!”

<sup>16</sup> This happened three times, and immediately the object was taken up into heaven.

<sup>17</sup> While Peter was greatly perplexed in his own mind about what the vision that he had seen might mean, the men who had been sent by Cornelius found out where Simon’s house was and stood at the gate.

<sup>18</sup> They called and asked, “Is Simon, who is also called ‘Peter,’ staying here?”

<sup>21</sup> Peter went down to the men and said, “Yes, I am the one you are looking for. What is the reason why you are here?”

<sup>22</sup> They answered, “Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man, who fears God and who is well spoken of by the whole nation of the Jews, has had it revealed to him by a holy angel that he should summon you to his house and hear what you have to say.”

<sup>23</sup> Then Peter invited them to come in and made them his guests. The next day he went away with them, and some of the fellow-disciples from Joppa accompanied him.

Peter’s entry into the house of Cornelius

<sup>24</sup> On the following day he arrived at Caesarea. Cornelius was expecting them and had called his relatives and close friends together. <sup>25</sup> When Peter was going in, Cornelius met him, fell at his feet and worshipped him. <sup>26</sup> However, Peter made him get up and said, “Stand up! I myself am also a man.”

<sup>27</sup> While Peter was talking to him, he went inside and found that many people had come together. <sup>28</sup> He told them, “You know how unlawful it is for a Jewish man to associate with anyone from another nation or visit him. However, God has shown me that I should not call anyone defiled or unclean. <sup>29</sup> That is also why I came without any objection when I was sent for. I ask, therefore, why have you sent for me?”

<sup>30</sup> Cornelius answered, “Three days ago until this hour, the ninth hour, I was praying in my house, when suddenly a man in shining clothes stood in front of me. <sup>31</sup> He said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your gifts to the poor have been remembered in the sight of God. <sup>32</sup> Therefore, send to Joppa and ask for Simon, who is also called ‘Peter,’ to come to you! He is a guest at the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.’ <sup>33</sup> Therefore, I sent to you immediately, and you have been kind enough to come. Now therefore, we are all present before God to hear all the things that have been commanded you by the Lord.”

Peter's preaching of the Good News to the Gentile family at Caesarea

<sup>34</sup> Then Peter began to speak: “Now I realise that it is true that God does not show favouritism,<sup>35</sup> but that in every nation the one who fears Him and does what is right is acceptable to Him.<sup>36</sup> You know the Word that God has sent to the people of Israel to tell the Good News of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all.<sup>37</sup> You know what took place throughout Judea. It began in Galilee after the baptism that John preached.<sup>38</sup> It was about Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed Him with the Holy Spirit and power. He went around doing good and healing all who were under the tyranny of the Devil, because God was with Him.<sup>39</sup> We are witnesses of all the things that He did in the land of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They also executed Him by hanging Him on a tree.<sup>40</sup> This man God raised on the third day and caused Him to be seen.<sup>41</sup> He was not seen by all the people but by witnesses whom God had selected beforehand, by us, who ate and drank with Him after He had risen from the dead.<sup>42</sup> He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that this is the One whom God has appointed to be the judge of the living and the dead.<sup>43</sup> All the prophets testify about Him, that, through His name, everyone who believes in Him receives forgiveness of sins.”

<sup>44</sup> While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all who were hearing the Word.<sup>45</sup> The believers who had been circumcised, namely, all those who had come with Peter, were astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles.<sup>46</sup> For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and glorifying God. Then Peter said,<sup>47</sup> “Surely no one can refuse water, that these people should not be baptised? They have received the Holy Spirit just as we also have.”

<sup>48</sup> He ordered that they should be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay for a few days.

11

Peter's defence of his visit to the Gentile family at Caesarea

<sup>1</sup> The apostles and other fellow-disciples throughout Judea heard that even the Gentiles had received the Word of God.<sup>2</sup> However, when Peter went up to Jerusalem, those who belonged to the circumcision disputed with him.<sup>3</sup> They said, “Why have you gone to visit uncircumcised men and eaten with them?”

<sup>4</sup> Then Peter began and explained it to them point by point. He said,<sup>5</sup> “I was in the city of Joppa praying and, in a trance, I saw a vision. An object like a large linen sheet was coming down, being lowered by its four corners out of heaven and came right down to me.<sup>6</sup> When I looked at it intently, I examined it and saw four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles and birds of the sky.<sup>7</sup> I also heard a voice telling me, ‘Get up, Peter! Kill and eat.’<sup>8</sup> However, I answered, ‘Surely not, Lord! For nothing defiled or unclean has ever entered my mouth.’<sup>9</sup> A voice spoke from heaven a second time, ‘Stop regarding as unclean the things that God has declared clean!’<sup>10</sup> This happened three times. Then it was all drawn up into heaven again.<sup>11</sup> At that very moment three men stood at the house where we were, the ones who had been sent to me from Caesarea.<sup>12</sup> The Spirit told me to go with them without making any distinction. These six fellow-disciples also accompanied me, and we entered the man’s house.<sup>13</sup> He reported to us how he had seen the angel standing in his house and saying, ‘Send to Joppa and ask Simon, who is also called “Peter,” to come!’<sup>14</sup> He will speak a message to you by which you and all your family will be saved.’

<sup>15</sup> “When I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them as He also did on us at the beginning.<sup>16</sup> Then I remembered the Word of the Lord, how He used to say: ‘John baptised with water, but you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.’<sup>17</sup> Therefore, if God has given to them the same gift as He gave to us too when we became believers in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I could hinder God?”

<sup>18</sup> When they had heard this, they became silent and began to glorify God, saying, “Therefore, God has given repentance to life even to the Gentiles.”

The life at the church at Antioch where there were many Gentiles

<sup>19</sup> The people who were scattered because of the persecution that broke out in connection with Stephen went as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus and Antioch but spoke the Word only to Jews.<sup>20</sup> However, there were some men among them from Cyprus and Cyrene. They came to Antioch and began to speak also to the Greeks, telling them the Good News about the Lord Jesus.<sup>21</sup> The hand of the Lord was with them, and many became believers and turned to the Lord.

<sup>22</sup> The local church at Jerusalem heard the news about them and sent Barnabas to go as far as Antioch.<sup>23</sup> When he arrived and saw the grace of God, he was glad and encouraged them all to purpose in their hearts to remain in the Lord.<sup>24</sup> For Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith; and many people were added to the Lord.

<sup>25</sup> Then he left for Tarsus to look for Saul.<sup>26</sup> He found him and brought him to Antioch. Then they met with the church for a whole year and taught many of people. It was at Antioch that the disciples were first commonly known as “Christians.”

The help provided by believers at Antioch to relieve famine in Judea

<sup>27</sup> During this time some prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.<sup>28</sup> One of them by the name of Agabus stood up and by the Spirit showed that there was going to be a severe famine all over the world (This happened during the time of Claudius).<sup>29</sup> Each one of the disciples arranged, as he had plenty, to send relief to the fellow-Christians living in Judea.<sup>30</sup> They did this and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

12

The martyrdom of James and the imprisonment and escape of Peter

<sup>1</sup> At about that time King Herod laid his hands on some who belonged to the church, to harm them. <sup>2</sup> He executed James, the brother of John, with the sword.

<sup>3</sup> When he saw that this pleased the Jews, he arrested Peter as well. It happened during the days of Unleavened Bread. <sup>4</sup> When Herod had taken Peter also into custody, he put him in prison and handed him over to four squads of four soldiers each to guard him. Herod wanted to bring him up before the people after the Passover. <sup>5</sup> Peter was therefore being kept in prison, and the church was continuously making fervent prayer to God for him. <sup>6</sup> The night before Herod was intending to bring Peter before the people, he was sleeping between two soldiers, tied up with two chains, and guards were watching the prison in front of the door. <sup>7</sup> Suddenly an angel of the Lord stood near him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side and woke him. He said, "Get up, quickly!" and the chains fell off Peter's wrists. <sup>8</sup> The angel told him, "Put on your clothes and your sandals!" Peter did this. Then the angel told him, "Wrap your outer-garment around yourself and follow me!"

<sup>9</sup> Peter went outside and began to follow and did not realise that what was being done by the agency of the angel was real. He thought he was seeing a vision.

<sup>10</sup> They passed through the first guard and the second guard and came to the iron gate that led into the city. It opened for them by itself, and they went outside and walked along one street. There the angel suddenly left him. <sup>11</sup> Then Peter came to himself and said, "Now I know for certain that the Lord has sent His angel and has rescued me from the hand of Herod and from everything that the Jewish people have been anticipating."

<sup>12</sup> When he realised what had happened, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John, who was also called "Mark." Many people had gathered there and were praying. <sup>13</sup> Peter knocked at the outer entrance, and a servant girl by the name of Rhoda came to answer the door. <sup>14</sup> When she recognised Peter's voice, she was so glad that she ran inside without opening the gate and announced that Peter was standing in front of the gate. <sup>15</sup> They told her, "You are out of your mind!"

However, she kept on insisting that it was so. Then they said, "It is his angel."

<sup>16</sup> However, Peter kept on knocking, and, when they opened the gate and saw him, they were astonished.

<sup>17</sup> Peter motioned with his hand for them to be quiet and described to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Tell these things to James and the other fellow-Christians!"

Then he left and travelled to another place.

<sup>18</sup> When daylight came, there was considerable consternation among the soldiers as they asked what had become of Peter. <sup>19</sup> After Herod had made a thorough search for Peter without finding him, he examined the guards and commanded that they should be led away to execution.

The death of Herod Agrippa

Then Herod went down from Judea to Caesarea and stayed there. <sup>20</sup> He had been very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon, but they came to him in a group. After they had won over Blastus, who was the king's chamberlain, they asked for peace, because the king's country used to provide food for their country.

<sup>21</sup> On the day that had been arranged, Herod put on his royal robe, sat on the platform and delivered a public address to them. <sup>22</sup> The populace kept shouting, "The voice of a god and not of a man!"

<sup>23</sup> Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him down, because he had not given the glory to God. He was eaten by worms and died.

<sup>24</sup> However, the Word of God continued to spread and win many followers.

The return to Antioch of the delegation that had been sent to Jerusalem

<sup>25</sup> Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem after they had completed the distribution of aid. They brought along with them John, who was also called "Mark."

13

The extension of the Gospel to the ends of the earth (13:1-28:31)

The sending of Barnabas and Saul to proclaim the Gospel in Gentile areas

<sup>1</sup> In the local church at Antioch there were prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon (called "Niger"), Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen (who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch) and Saul.

<sup>2</sup> While they were performing service to the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Set Barnabas and Saul apart for Me for the work to which I have called them!"

<sup>3</sup> Then, after they had fasted and prayed, they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

<sup>4</sup> So, Barnabas and Saul, sent by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia and from there they sailed to Cyprus. <sup>5</sup> When they arrived at Salamis, they began to preach the Word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. They also had John as their assistant. <sup>6</sup> They went through the whole island as far as Paphos. There they found a sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew named Barjesus. <sup>7</sup> He was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. The proconsul sent for Barnabas and Saul and wanted to hear the Word of God. <sup>8</sup> However, the sorcerer Elymas (that was what his name means) opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul away from his faith.

<sup>9</sup> However, Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked steadily at Elymas, <sup>10</sup> and said, "O you who are full of all deceit and villainy, son of the Devil, enemy of all that is right! Will you not stop twisting the straight ways of the Lord?<sup>11</sup> Now, the Lord's hand is also on you. You will be blind and not see the sun for a while."

Immediately mist and darkness came over him, and he went around looking for people to lead him by the hand.<sup>12</sup> When the proconsul saw what had happened, he began to believe. For he was amazed at the teaching of the Lord.

Paul's sermon at Antioch in Pisidia

<sup>13</sup> Paul and his companions put out to sea from Paphos and went to Perga in Pamphylia. There John left them and returned to Jerusalem.<sup>14</sup> However, they themselves went across from Perga and came to Antioch in Pisidia. On the Sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down.<sup>15</sup> After the reading of the Law and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent a message to them, saying: "Fellow-Jews, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, say it!"

<sup>16</sup> Paul stood up, motioned with his hand and said, "Men of Israel, and you Gentiles who fear God, listen to me.<sup>17</sup> The God of this people Israel chose our fathers and made them a great people while they lived as foreign residents in Egypt and, with an uplifted arm, He led them out of it.<sup>18</sup> He put up with their ways for about forty years in the wilderness.<sup>19</sup> Then He destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan and gave them their land as their inheritance.<sup>20</sup> He did this in about four hundred and fifty years. After that, He gave them judges, until the prophet Samuel.

<sup>21</sup> "After that, the people asked for a king for themselves, and God gave them Saul, the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.

<sup>22</sup> However, when God had removed him, He raised David up as their king. He testified concerning him: 'I have found David, the son of Jesse, to be a man after My own heart, who will do everything that I want him to do.'

<sup>23</sup> "From this man's descendants God has brought to Israel a Saviour, Jesus, as He had promised.<sup>24</sup> Before the coming of Jesus, John had first preached to all the people of Israel that they should repent and be baptised.<sup>25</sup> As John was completing his course, he said, 'Who do you think I am? I am not the One. No, but He is coming after me, and I am not worthy to untie the sandals on His feet.'

<sup>26</sup> "Fellow-Jews, sons of the family of Abraham and the Gentiles among you who fear God, it is to us that the message of this salvation has been sent.<sup>27</sup> The people who live in Jerusalem and their rulers did not know Him; and, by condemning Him, they fulfilled the messages of the prophets, who are read every Sabbath.<sup>28</sup> Although they found no reason to kill Him, they asked Pilate to have Him executed.<sup>29</sup> When they had fulfilled everything that had been written about Him, they took Him down from the tree and laid Him in a tomb.<sup>30</sup> However, God raised Him from the dead;<sup>31</sup> and for many days He appeared to those who had come up with Him from Galilee to Jerusalem. They are now His witnesses to the people.<sup>32</sup> We are also telling you the Good News about what God has promised the fathers,<sup>33</sup> that God has fulfilled it for us, their children, by raising Jesus, as the Scriptures have also said in the second Psalm: 'You are My Son. To-day I have begotten You.'<sup>34</sup> That He raised Him from the dead, no more to return to decay, He has spoken like this: 'I shall give you the holy and sure blessings of David.'<sup>35</sup> Therefore, He says, in a second place: 'You will not allow Your Holy One to see decay.'<sup>36</sup> After David had served the people of his own time, he, by God's will, fell asleep, was gathered to his forefathers and saw decay;<sup>37</sup> but the One whom God raised did not see decay.

<sup>38</sup> "Therefore, let it be known to you, fellow-Jews, that through this Man forgiveness of sins is being announced to you,<sup>39</sup> even from everything from which you could not be justified by the Law of Moses! Through Him everyone who believes is justified.

<sup>40</sup> Therefore, beware that what has been spoken in the prophets does not come on you:<sup>41</sup> 'Look, scorners, marvel and perish! For I am doing something in your days that you will never believe if anyone tells you!'"

<sup>42</sup> As Paul and Barnabas were going out, the people urged them that these things should be told them on the next Sabbath.<sup>43</sup> When the meeting of the synagogue broke up, many Jews and Gentile converts who feared God followed Paul and Barnabas. They spoke to them and kept urging them to continue in God's grace.

The arousal of envy among Jews because of Gentile interest at Antioch

<sup>44</sup> The next Sabbath almost the whole city assembled to hear God's Word.<sup>45</sup> When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy. They contradicted the things that were being said by Paul and spoke abusively.

<sup>46</sup> Paul and Barnabas boldly declared: "It was necessary for us to speak the Word of God to you first. Since you reject it and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, look! We are turning to the Gentiles.

<sup>47</sup> For that is what the Lord has commanded us: 'I have set You as the Light of the Gentiles, that You may bring salvation as far as the ends of the earth.'"

<sup>48</sup> When the Gentiles heard this, they were glad and kept praising what the Lord had said, and all who had been appointed to eternal life became believers.

nium; <sup>52</sup> and the disciples continued to be filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

14

The proclamation of the Gospel by Paul and Barnabas at Iconium

<sup>1</sup> In Iconium Paul and Barnabas went to the synagogue of the Jews in the same manner and spoke in such a way that a large crowd of Jews and Gentiles became believers. <sup>2</sup> However, the Jews who had refused to believe stirred up the Gentiles and poisoned their minds against the Christians. <sup>3</sup> So, Paul and Barnabas stayed there for a long time and continued to speak boldly in the Lord, who bore witness to the message of His grace by granting that miraculous signs and wonders should be done through their hands. <sup>4</sup> However, the people of the town were divided. Some sided with the Jews, and others with the apostles. <sup>5</sup> However, when both the Gentiles and the Jews with their rulers made an attempt to mistreat and stone Paul and Barnabas, <sup>6</sup> they found out about it and escaped to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the surrounding district. <sup>7</sup> They continued to tell the Good News there.

Paul's healing of a lame man at Lystra

<sup>8</sup> There was a man in Lystra who was sitting down, because his feet had no strength. He had been lame from his birth and had never walked. <sup>9</sup> This man heard Paul speaking. Paul watched him and, when he saw that the man had faith to be healed, <sup>10</sup> he said with a loud voice, "Stand up straight on your feet!"

The man jumped up and began to walk. <sup>11</sup> When the crowd saw what Paul had done, they shouted in the Lycaonian language, "The gods have become like men and have come down to us!" <sup>12</sup> They were calling Barnabas "Zeus" and Paul "Hermes," because Paul was the chief speaker. <sup>13</sup> The priest of Zeus, whose temple was at the entrance to the city, brought bulls and garlands to the gates, because he and the crowd wanted to offer sacrifices. <sup>14</sup> When the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard about this, they tore their clothes and rushed out into the crowd, shouting, <sup>15</sup> "Men, why are you doing this? We too are just human beings, and our feelings are like yours. We are telling you the Good News, that you may turn away from these worthless things to the living God, who has made the heaven, the earth, the sea and everything in them." <sup>16</sup> In the generations that have gone by He allowed all nations to walk in their own ways. <sup>17</sup> Yet He did not leave Himself without witness, by doing good, giving you rain from heaven and fruitful seasons, filling you with food and your hearts with happiness."

<sup>18</sup> Although they said these things, they had difficulty keeping the crowd from sacrificing to them.

The stoning of Paul at Lystra, the visit to Derbe and the return to Antioch in Syria

<sup>19</sup> However, then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium and won the people over. They stoned Paul and dragged him outside of the city, thinking that he was dead. <sup>20</sup> However, when the disciples gathered around him, he got up and went into the city.

<sup>21</sup> After they had told the Good News to that city and had made many disciples, they went back to Lystra, Iconium and Antioch. <sup>22</sup> They strengthened the souls of the disciples and encouraged them to continue in the faith, saying, "We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God."

<sup>23</sup> Paul and Barnabas appointed elders for them in each church. When they had prayed for them with fasting, they committed them to the Lord, in whom they had become believers. <sup>24</sup> They passed through Pisidia and came into Pamphylia. <sup>25</sup> After they had spoken the Word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.

<sup>26</sup> From there they sailed back to Antioch, where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work that they had now completed. <sup>27</sup> When they arrived there, they gathered the church together and reported all the things that God had done with them, and that He had opened a door of faith for the Gentiles. <sup>28</sup> Then they spent a considerable time with the disciples.

15

The meeting at Jerusalem about whether the Gentiles had to observe the Law of Moses

<sup>1</sup> Some men came down from Judea and began to teach the fellow-Christians: "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved."

<sup>2</sup> When Paul and Barnabas had considerable conflict and debate with them, it was arranged that Paul, Barnabas and some of their other people should go up to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem about this question. <sup>3</sup> When they had been sent on their way by the church, and, as they were going through Phoenicia and Samaria, they told in detail about the conversion of the Gentiles and made all the fellow-Christians very glad. <sup>4</sup> When they arrived at Jerusalem, the church, the apostles and the elders welcomed them, and they reported all the things that God had been doing with them. <sup>5</sup> However, some of the party of the Pharisees who had become believers stood up and said that it was necessary to circumcise them and command them to keep the Law of Moses. <sup>6</sup> The apostles and elders assembled to consider this question. <sup>7</sup> After there had been much discussion, Peter stood up and said to them, "Men and fellow-Jews, you know that in the first days God made a choice among you that the Gentiles should, through my mouth, hear the Word of the Good News and become believers. <sup>8</sup> Then God, who knows the hearts, acknowledged them by giving them the Holy Spirit, just as He had also done to us. <sup>9</sup> He made no distinction between us and them, when He purified their hearts by faith. <sup>10</sup> Now then, why are you testing God by putting a yoke on the necks of the disciples that neither our fathers nor we have been able to bear? <sup>11</sup> No! Through the grace of the Lord Jesus we believe to be saved, just as they also do.”

<sup>12</sup> The whole assembly became silent and listened to Barnabas and Paul as they described all the miraculous signs and wonders that God had been performing among the Gentiles through them.

<sup>13</sup> After they had finished speaking, James responded, “Men and brethren, listen to me. <sup>14</sup> Simon has described how God first concerned Himself about winning a people from among the Gentiles for His name.

<sup>15</sup> The Words of the prophets are in agreement with this, as Scripture has said: <sup>16</sup> ‘After this I shall return and rebuild the tent of David, which has fallen, and rebuild and restore the parts of it that have been torn down, <sup>17</sup> that the rest of mankind, even all the Gentiles on whom My name has been called, may be intent on the Lord. This is what the Lord says, who is doing these things, things that have been known from eternity.’ <sup>19</sup> Therefore, I for my part judge that we should stop making it difficult for the people from among the Gentiles who are turning to God, <sup>20</sup> but that we should send a letter to them, that they should abstain from food polluted by idols, from sexual immorality, from what has been strangled and from blood. <sup>21</sup> For Moses has had people who preach him in every city from generations long ago and he is read in the synagogues on every Sabbath.”

<sup>22</sup> Then the apostles and the elders, with the whole church, decided to choose some of their own men and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas, called Barsabbas, and Silas, men who were leaders among the fellow-Christians. <sup>23</sup> They wrote this letter for them to deliver: “The apostles and the elders, Christians, To the fellow-Christians who come from the Gentiles throughout Antioch, Syria and Cilicia: Greetings! <sup>24</sup> Since we have heard that some men have gone out from us without our instructions and have been subverting you by what they have been saying and continue to unsettle your souls, <sup>25</sup> we have met together unanimously and decided to choose some men and send them to you with our dear friends Barnabas and Paul, <sup>26</sup> men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>27</sup> Therefore, we are sending Judas and Silas, who also will themselves deliver the same report to you by word of mouth. <sup>28</sup> For it has seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to lay on you no greater burden than these necessary things: <sup>29</sup> that you should abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from strangled animals and from sexual immorality. You will be doing well if you keep yourselves free from these things. Farewell!”

<sup>30</sup> Therefore, the men were sent on their way and went down to Antioch. They gathered the community together and handed over the letter. <sup>31</sup> The people read it and rejoiced over its encouraging message. <sup>32</sup> Judas and Silas, who were themselves also prophets, said much to encourage and strengthen the fellow-Christians. <sup>33</sup> After they had spent some time, they were sent on their way with a greeting of peace from the fellow-Christians to those who had sent them.

<sup>36</sup> After some days Paul said to Barnabas, “Let us go back and visit our fellow-Christians in every city where we have preached the Word of the Lord and see how they are!”

<sup>37</sup> Barnabas wanted to take John, who was called “Mark,” along with them too. <sup>38</sup> However, Paul insisted that they should not take with them the one who had deserted them in Pamphylia and had not accompanied them into the work. <sup>39</sup> Such a sharp disagreement arose that they separated from each other; and Barnabas took Mark with him and sailed away to Cyprus. <sup>40</sup> However, Paul chose Silas and, after the fellow-Christians had committed him to the grace of the Lord, he departed. <sup>41</sup> He kept going through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the churches.

The joining of Timothy to Paul and Silas at Lystra

<sup>1</sup> Paul also arrived at Derbe and Lystra. Here there was a disciple by the name of Timothy. His mother was a Jewess and a believer, but his father was a Greek. <sup>2</sup> The Christians at Lystra and Iconium spoke well of him. <sup>3</sup> Paul wanted Timothy to go along with him, so he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those places, because they all knew that his father had been a Greek. <sup>4</sup> As they went through the cities, they delivered to them the decisions to observe that the apostles and elders in Jerusalem had made. <sup>5</sup> Therefore, the churches were strengthened in the faith and grew in number every day.

The call of Paul and Silas to preach the Gospel in Macedonia and the addition of Luke <sup>6</sup> They went through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, but the Holy Spirit had prevented them from speaking the Word in Asia. <sup>7</sup> They went down to Mysia and tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not permit them. <sup>8</sup> After they passed by Mysia, they went down to Troas. <sup>9</sup> During the night Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia, who was standing and begging him, “Come over to Macedonia and help us!” <sup>10</sup> As soon as Paul had seen the vision, we immediately looked for a way to go to Macedonia, since we concluded that God had called us to tell them the Good News.

The baptism of Lydia, the imprisonment of Paul and Silas at Philippi and the conversion of a jailer and his family

<sup>11</sup> After we had put out to sea from Troas, we sailed straight to Samothrace and the next day to Neapolis, <sup>12</sup> and from there to Philippi, which is a city belonging to the first part of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We continued to stay in that city for some days.

<sup>13</sup> On the Sabbath day we went outside of the gate and along the river, where we thought there was a place of prayer. We sat down and began to speak to the women who had assembled there. <sup>14</sup> There was a woman by the name of Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth, who came from the city of Thyatira and who was a worshipper of God. As she was listening, the Lord opened her heart to take heed of the things that were being said by Paul. <sup>15</sup> When she and her family had been baptised, she urged us, "If you are convinced that I believe in the Lord, come to my house and stay!" She urged us strongly.

<sup>16</sup> Once while we were going to the place of prayer, a slave girl who had a spirit by which she predicted the future met us. She made great profit for her owners by fortune telling. <sup>17</sup> She used to follow Paul and us and shout, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who are proclaiming to you the way of salvation."

<sup>18</sup> She continued to do this for many days. However, Paul was greatly annoyed, turned to her and told the spirit, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!"

The spirit came out at that very hour. <sup>19</sup> When her owners saw that their hope of making a profit had gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them to the marketplace before the magistrates. <sup>20</sup> They brought them before the chief magistrates and said, "These men are Jews and are throwing our city into confusion. <sup>21</sup> They are announcing customs that are not lawful for us, who are Romans, to adopt or practise."

<sup>22</sup> The crowd joined in the attack against them. Then the chief magistrates tore the clothes off Paul and Silas and ordered that they should be beaten with rods.

<sup>23</sup> After they had flogged them severely, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to guard them securely. <sup>24</sup> Since he had received such an order, the jailer put them in the inmost cell and fastened their feet in the stocks. <sup>25</sup> About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them. <sup>26</sup> Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken. Immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's chains were unfastened. <sup>27</sup> The jailer woke from sleep and, when he saw that the prison doors had been opened, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, because he thought that the prisoners had escaped. <sup>28</sup> However, Paul shouted aloud, "Do not harm yourself at all! For we are all here."

<sup>29</sup> The jailer asked for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. <sup>30</sup> He took them outside and asked, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

<sup>31</sup> They answered, "Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, you and your family."

<sup>32</sup> They spoke the Word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house. <sup>33</sup> He took them with him at that hour of the night and washed their wounds, and immediately he and all his family were baptised.

<sup>34</sup> He brought them up into his home and set a meal before them. He rejoiced that he had come to believe in God and so did everyone in his household. <sup>35</sup> When daylight came, the chief magistrates sent their police with the order: "Release those men!"

<sup>36</sup> The jailer reported these words to Paul. He said, "The chief magistrates have sent word that you and Silas should be released. So, come out now and go in peace!"

<sup>37</sup> However, Paul told them, "They have beaten us publicly, although we have not been found guilty and although we are Roman citizens and they have thrown us into prison. Are they now trying to throw us out secretly? No indeed! Rather, let them come themselves and conduct us out!"

<sup>38</sup> The police reported these words to the chief magistrates. When they heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were afraid. <sup>39</sup> They came and pleaded with them, escorted them out and requested them to leave the city. <sup>40</sup> After Paul and Silas had left the prison, they went to Lydia; and, when they had seen the fellow-Christians and encouraged them, they departed.

The proclamation of the Gospel at Thessalonica

<sup>1</sup> Paul and Silas took the road through Amphipolis and Apollonia and came to Thessalonica. There the Jews had a synagogue. <sup>2</sup> As his custom was, Paul went in to them and on three Sabbaths had discussions with them based on the Scriptures. <sup>3</sup> He explained the Scriptures and demonstrated to the Jews that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and rise from the dead. He said, "This One is the Christ, Jesus, whom I am proclaiming to you."

<sup>4</sup> Some of them were persuaded and joined Paul and Silas. A large crowd of the God-fearing Greeks also did and a considerable number of the wives of the chief men. <sup>5</sup> However, the Jews became jealous, took some wicked men from the marketplace, formed a mob and started a riot in the city. They approached Jason's home and tried to bring Paul and Silas out to the people. <sup>6</sup> When they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some other Christians before the city officials, shouting, "These men, who have made trouble all over the world, have come here, too. <sup>7</sup> Jason has welcomed them into his house. They are all acting contrary to Caesar's decrees by saying that there is another King, Jesus."

<sup>10</sup> The Christians immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea.

The reception of the Gospel by the people at Berea

When they arrived there, they went into the synagogue of the Jews. <sup>11</sup> These people were nobler than those at Thessalonica were. For they received the Word with all eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if these things were so. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, many of them became believers, and a considerable number of well-to-do Greek women and Greek men also did. <sup>13</sup> However, when the Jews of Thessalonica found out that the Word of God had been preached by Paul at Berea also, they went there too, caused the crowds to waver and stirred them up. <sup>14</sup> Then the Christians immediately sent Paul away to the coast, but Silas and Timothy stayed at Berea.

The attempt by Paul to make disciples at Athens

<sup>15</sup> The men who escorted Paul took him as far as Athens. They received an instruction for Silas and Timothy to join him as soon as possible and left.

<sup>16</sup> While Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was irritated in him when he saw that the city was full of idols. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, he had discussions in the synagogue with the Jews and with the God-fearing Greeks and in the marketplace every day with people who happened to be there. <sup>18</sup> Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also had conversations with him, but some were asking, "What might this scrap-collector want to say?" Others were saying, "He seems to be one who proclaims foreign divinities," because he was telling the Good News about Jesus and the resurrection. <sup>19</sup> They took an interest in him, brought him to the Areopagus and asked, "May we know what this new teaching is that you are presenting?" <sup>20</sup> For you are introducing some astonishingly strange things into our ears. Therefore, we want to know what these things mean."

<sup>21</sup> All the Athenians and the foreigners who were living there spent their time doing nothing but either saying or listening to something quite new.

<sup>22</sup> Paul stood in the meeting of the Areopagus and said, "Men of Athens, I see that you are very religious in every way. <sup>23</sup> For, as I walked around and carefully observed your objects of worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: 'To an unknown god.' Therefore, I am telling you about what you are worshipping, although you do not know about it. <sup>24</sup> God, who made the world and everything in it, is the Lord of heaven and earth. He does not live in temples made by human hands, <sup>25</sup> and human hands do not serve Him as if He needed anything. He Himself gives everyone life, breath and everything else. <sup>26</sup> From one man He has made every nation of mankind to live all over the earth. He has set the times allotted to them and the boundaries inside which they should live, <sup>27</sup> that they may search for God and perhaps feel their way to Him and find Him, although He is not far from each one of us. <sup>28</sup> For in Him we live, move and exist, as even some of your poets have said, 'For, we also are His offspring.' <sup>29</sup> Therefore, since we are God's offspring, we should not think that the Divine Being is like gold, silver or stone, like an image that the art and the imagination of a human being have formed. <sup>30</sup> Although in past times God overlooked such ignorance, He now commands people everywhere that they should all repent, <sup>31</sup> because He has set a day when He is going to judge the world justly, by a Man whom He has appointed. He has provided everyone reason to believe this by raising Him from the dead."

<sup>32</sup> When they heard about a resurrection of the dead, some began to mock, and others said, "We shall listen to you again about this."

<sup>34</sup> However, some men joined him and became believers. Among them were also Dionysius, who was a member of the Areopagus, a woman by the name of Damaris and some others with them.

18

The proclamation of the Gospel by Paul at Corinth

After this, Paul left Athens and went to Corinth. <sup>2</sup> He found a Jew by the name of Aquila, a native of Pontus, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome. Paul went to them, <sup>3</sup> and, because he had the same trade, he stayed with them and worked. For by occupation they were tent-makers. <sup>4</sup> He used to have discussions in the synagogue every Sabbath and tried to persuade both Jews and Greeks. <sup>5</sup> However, when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul devoted himself entirely to the Word, testifying to the Jews that Jesus is the Christ. <sup>6</sup> However, when the Jews opposed Paul and blasphemed, he shook off his garments and told them, "Let your blood be on your own heads! I am innocent. From now on I shall go to the Gentiles."

<sup>7</sup> Then he moved away from there and went to the home of a man by the name of Titius Justus, who worshipped God and whose house was next door to the synagogue. <sup>8</sup> Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, became a believer in the Lord, with his whole family, and many other people in Corinth who heard Paul were becoming believers and being baptised. <sup>9</sup> One night the Lord spoke to Paul in a vision, "Stop being afraid but keep speaking and do not be silent! <sup>10</sup> For I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, because I have many people in this city."

<sup>11</sup> Paul remained there for a year and six months, teaching the Word of God among them. <sup>12</sup> However, while Gallio was the proconsul of Achaia, the Jews united in an attack on Paul and brought him to the judicial platform. <sup>13</sup> They said, "This man is persuading the people to worship God in ways that are contrary to the Law."

told the Jews, “You Jews, if there were some misdemeanour or wicked crime, it would be reasonable for me to listen to your complaint. <sup>15</sup> However, since there are questions about words, names and your own Law, see to it yourselves! I do not want to be a judge of these matters.”

<sup>16</sup> Then he drove them away from the judicial platform. <sup>17</sup> Then all of them took hold of Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and began to beat him in front of the judicial platform, but Gallio was not concerned about these things at all.

Paul's hasty visit to Palestine

<sup>18</sup> Paul remained for a considerable time. Then he said farewell to the fellow-Christians and sailed for Syria. Priscilla and Aquila went with him. At Cenchrea Paul had his hair cut, because he had taken a vow. <sup>19</sup> They arrived at Ephesus, where Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. He himself went into the synagogue and had discussions with the Jews. <sup>20</sup> They asked him to stay longer, but he declined. <sup>21</sup> However, when he said farewell to them, he told them, “I shall come back to you if it is God’s will,” and sailed from Ephesus. <sup>22</sup> After Paul had landed at Caesarea and had gone up and greeted the church, he went down to Antioch.

Paul's third mission-journey and the proclamation by Apollos at Ephesus

<sup>23</sup> After Paul had spent some time there, he set out and travelled to one place after the other through the region of Galatia and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples. <sup>24</sup> A Jew by the name of Apollos, a native of Alexandria, had arrived at Ephesus. He was a learned man and mighty in the Scriptures. <sup>25</sup> He had been instructed in the way of the Lord and used to speak with burning zeal, teaching the story of Jesus accurately but knew only the baptism of John. <sup>26</sup> He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him to their home and explained the way of God to him more accurately. <sup>27</sup> When Apollos wished to cross over to Achaia, the fellow-Christians encouraged him to do so and wrote to the disciples there that they should welcome him. When he arrived, he gave much help to those who through grace had become believers. <sup>28</sup> For he used to completely refute the Jews vigorously and in public, showing through the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.

19

The administration of Christian baptism to about twelve men at Ephesus

<sup>1</sup> While Apollos was in Corinth, Paul travelled through the higher country and came down to Ephesus. There he found some disciples, <sup>2</sup> and asked them, “Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you became believers?”

They replied to him, “No, we have not even heard that there is a Holy Spirit.”

<sup>3</sup> He asked them, “Into what, then, were you baptised?”

They answered, “Into John’s baptism.”

<sup>4</sup> Paul said, “John baptised with the baptism of repentance and told the people to believe in the One who was coming after him, that is, in Jesus.”

<sup>5</sup> When they heard this, they were baptised into the name of the Lord Jesus. <sup>6</sup> When Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit also came on them, and they began to speak in tongues and to prophesy. <sup>7</sup> There were about twelve men in all. <sup>8</sup> Paul went into the synagogue and continued to speak boldly for three months, having discussions, and trying to convince people about matters related to the kingdom of God.

<sup>9</sup> When some became obstinate, refused to believe and slandered the Way before the congregation, Paul left them, withdrew his disciples and held daily discussions in the lecture hall of Tyrannus. <sup>10</sup> This went on for two years, so that all who lived in the province of Asia, both Jews and Greeks, heard the Word of the Lord. <sup>11</sup> God kept performing extraordinary miracles through Paul’s hands, <sup>12</sup> so that even handkerchiefs or aprons that had touched his skin were taken to the sick, and they were freed from their diseases, and the evil spirits came out of them. <sup>13</sup> Some of the Jewish exorcists who used to travel around even attempted to invoke the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits. They were saying, “I order you to come out, by the Jesus whom Paul is preaching!” <sup>14</sup> There were seven sons of a certain Sceva, a Jewish Chief Priest, who were doing this. <sup>15</sup> However, the evil spirit answered them, “I know about Jesus and I know Paul, but who are you?”

<sup>16</sup> Then the man who had the evil spirit jumped on them, got the better of them and overpowered them all, so that they ran away from that house naked and wounded. <sup>17</sup> This became known to all, both the Jews and the Greeks who were living in Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus began to be magnified. <sup>18</sup> Many of those who had become believers came and made confession and revealed their spells. <sup>19</sup> Many of those who had practised magic gathered their scrolls and began to burn them in front of everybody. People added up the value of these books and found that they were worth fifty thousand drachmas. <sup>20</sup> In this way the Word of the Lord kept growing strongly and having power.

<sup>21</sup> After these things had happened, Paul decided in the Spirit to go through Macedonia and Achaia and journey to Jerusalem. He said, “After I have been there, I must also see Rome.”

<sup>22</sup> He sent two of his assistants, Timothy and Erastus, to Macedonia, while he himself stayed for a while in Asia.

<sup>23</sup> About that time there was a considerable disturbance about the Way. <sup>24</sup> A silversmith by the name of Demetrius used to provide considerable business for his fellow-craftsmen by making silver shrines of Artemis. <sup>25</sup> He called a meeting of these men and others who made similar things and said, “Men, you know that we get our prosperity from this business, <sup>26</sup> and you see and hear that this Paul has convinced and led astray many of people, not only in Ephesus but almost all over the province of Asia. He has been telling them, ‘Gods that have been made by human hands are not gods.’ <sup>27</sup> Not only is there this risk for us, that our line of business will get a bad name but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be despised and that the goddess, whom all Asia and the world worship, is even about to be cast down from her majesty.”

<sup>28</sup> When they heard this, they became furious and began to shout, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

<sup>29</sup> The city was filled with the uproar. They dragged along with them Gaius and Aristarchus, Paul’s travelling-companions from Macedonia, and rushed into the theatre together. <sup>30</sup> Although Paul wanted to go into the assembly, the other disciples would not allow him.

<sup>31</sup> Even some of the officials of the province of Asia, who were friendly to Paul, sent some men to him to plead with him not to risk going into the theatre.

<sup>32</sup> Some were shouting one thing, some another, because the assembly was confused, and most of them did not know why they had come together. <sup>33</sup> The Jews pushed Alexander to the front, and some of the crowd instructed him what to do. Alexander motioned with his hand and wanted to make a defence to the people. <sup>34</sup> However, when they found out he was a Jew, they all with one voice kept shouting for about two hours, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

<sup>35</sup> After the city clerk had quietened the crowd, he said: “Men of Ephesus, yes, who in the world does not know that this city of the Ephesians is the guardian of the temple of the great Artemis and of the image that fell from Zeus? <sup>36</sup> Therefore, since these facts are undeniable, you must be calm and not do anything rash.

<sup>37</sup> For you have brought these men here although they have neither robbed temples nor insulted our goddess.

<sup>38</sup> Therefore, if Demetrius and his fellow craftsmen have a case against anyone, court sessions are conducted, and there are proconsuls. Let them bring charges against one another! <sup>39</sup> If there is anything further that you want to know, it will be settled in the legal assembly. <sup>40</sup> For, as it is, we are in danger of being charged with a riot because of today’s events, when there is no good reason for them, and shall not be able to account for this disorderly gathering.”

20

Paul’s visit to Macedonia and Greece

<sup>1</sup> When the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the other disciples and encouraged them. He took his leave of them and left to travel to Macedonia. <sup>2</sup> He went through those districts and spoke many words of encouragement to the people and then he went to Greece, <sup>3</sup> and stayed there three months.

Paul’s farewell at Troas

Because the Jews plotted against Paul, as he was about to sail for Syria, he decided to go back through Macedonia. <sup>4</sup> Sopater, the son of Pyrrhus from Berea, was accompanying him, together with Aristarchus and Secundus from Thessalonica, Gaius from Derbe and Timothy, Tychicus and Trophimus from the province of Asia. <sup>5</sup> These men went on ahead and waited for us at Troas. <sup>6</sup> However, we sailed away from Philippi after the Feast of Unleavened Bread and in five days joined the others in Troas and stayed there for seven days. <sup>7</sup> On the first day of the week, when we had gathered together to break bread, Paul had a conversation with the people. Since he intended to leave on the next day, he continued his Message until midnight.

<sup>8</sup> There were many torches in the upstairs room where we had assembled. <sup>9</sup> A certain young man by the name of Eutychus was sitting at the window and was sinking into a deep sleep as Paul continued to talk. When he was sound asleep, he fell from the third story and was taken up dead. <sup>10</sup> However, Paul went down, fell on him, threw his arms around him and said, “Stop making a fuss! For his life is in him.”

<sup>11</sup> Paul went up and broke the bread and took food. Then he had a long talk until daylight and so departed.

<sup>12</sup> The people took the boy along alive and were greatly comforted.

The journey from Troas to Miletus

<sup>13</sup> We went ahead to the ship and sailed for Assos. We were intending to take Paul on board from there. For he had arranged it in that way, since he was planning to go on foot. <sup>14</sup> When he met us at Assos, we took him on board and arrived at Mitylene. <sup>15</sup> We sailed from there and on the following day arrived opposite Chios. On the next day we crossed over to Samos and on the day after that we arrived at Miletus. <sup>16</sup> For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, to avoid spending time in the province of Asia. For he was hurrying to arrive at Jerusalem, if it should be possible, for the day of Pentecost.

Paul’s address to the elders of Ephesus

<sup>17</sup> From Miletus Paul sent to Ephesus and asked the elders of the church to come to him. <sup>18</sup> When they came to him, he said to them: “You know how I lived with you all the time, from the first day when I came into the province of Asia, <sup>19</sup> how I have served the Lord with all humility, with tears and in the trials that I endured because the Jews plotted against me, <sup>20</sup> how I have kept back nothing that was helpful but have proclaimed it to you and have taught you publicly and in your homes. <sup>21</sup> You know how I have earnestly warned both Jews and Greeks to turn to God in repentance and to believe in our Lord Jesus. <sup>22</sup> So now, you see, the Spirit has constrained me to go to Jerusalem. I do not know what will happen to me there, <sup>23</sup> except that the Holy Spirit keeps testifying in every city, telling me that chains and troubles are waiting for me. <sup>24</sup> However, I do not account my life as worth anything to me. I want only to finish running my race and to finish the ministry that I have received from the Lord Jesus, testifying to the Good News of the grace of God.

<sup>25</sup> “Now I know that none of you, among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom, will see my face any longer. <sup>26</sup> Therefore, I testify to you today that I am innocent of the blood of all people, <sup>27</sup> because I have not shrunk from proclaiming to you the whole plan of God. <sup>28</sup> Keep watch over yourselves and the whole flock among whom the Holy Spirit has made you bishops! You are to shepherd the church of God, which He has purchased for Himself with His own blood! <sup>29</sup> I know that, after I leave, savage wolves will come in among you and will not spare the flock. <sup>30</sup> Even from among yourselves men will stand up and say perverse things, to draw the disciples away after themselves. <sup>31</sup> Therefore, stay awake! Remember that for three years I did not cease day and night to warn every single one with tears! <sup>32</sup> Now I entrust you to God and to the Word of His grace, which can build you up and give you the inheritance among all those who have been made holy. <sup>33</sup> I have not coveted anyone’s silver, gold or clothes. <sup>34</sup> You yourselves know that these hands have worked for my own needs and for those who were with me. <sup>35</sup> In every way I have shown you that, by this kind of hard work, we must help the weak and that we should remember the Words that the Lord Jesus Himself said: ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’”

<sup>36</sup> When he had said this, he knelt and prayed with them all. <sup>37</sup> They all wept very much as they embraced Paul and kissed him. <sup>38</sup> What grieved them most was his statement that they would not see his face any longer. Then they accompanied him to the ship.

21

The arrival of Paul at Tyre

<sup>1</sup> When we had torn ourselves away from them, we put out to sea, ran a straight course and came to Cos, on the next day to Rhodes and from there to Patara.

<sup>2</sup> We found a ship going across to Phoenicia, went on board and set sail. <sup>3</sup> We came in sight of Cyprus and, leaving it on our left, we sailed on to Syria and landed at Tyre, because the ship was to unload its cargo there.

<sup>4</sup> We looked for the disciples and stayed there for seven days. They kept telling Paul through the Spirit to stop going on to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> When our time was over, we left on our journey. All of them, with their wives and children, accompanied us until we were outside of the city. Then we knelt on the shore and prayed. <sup>6</sup> We said farewell to one another and then we went on board the ship, and they returned to their own homes.

The arrival of Paul at Caesarea

<sup>7</sup> We continued our voyage from Tyre and arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the fellow-Christians and stayed with them for one day. <sup>8</sup> On the next day we left and came to Caesarea. We went into the house of Philip the evangelist, one of the Seven, and stayed with him. <sup>9</sup> He had four virgin daughters who prophesied. <sup>10</sup> While we were staying there for several days, a prophet by the name of Agabus came down from Judea. <sup>11</sup> He came to us, took Paul’s belt and tied up his own feet and hands. He said, “The Holy Spirit says this, ‘This is how the Jews in Jerusalem will tie up the man to whom this belt belongs and deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.’”

<sup>12</sup> When we heard this, we and the people at that place kept pleading with Paul to stop going up to Jerusalem. <sup>13</sup> Then Paul answered, “What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be tied up but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.”

<sup>14</sup> As he would not be persuaded, we ceased speaking and said, “Let the Lord’s will be done!”

Paul’s arrival at Jerusalem and his attempt to show Jewish Christians his respect for the Law of Moses

<sup>15</sup> After these days we prepared and went up to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup> Some of the disciples from Caesarea also accompanied us and took us to the home of Mnason, to be his guests. He was a man from Cyprus and an early disciple. <sup>17</sup> When we arrived at Jerusalem, the fellow-Christians gladly welcomed us. <sup>18</sup> On the next day Paul went in together with us to James and all the elders were present. <sup>19</sup> Paul greeted them and reported in detail all the things that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry. <sup>20</sup> When they heard about it, they kept glorifying God. They told Paul, “You see, brother, how many tens of thousands there are among the Jews who have become believers and are all zealous for the Law. <sup>21</sup> They have been informed that you are teaching all the Jews living among the Gentiles to turn away from Moses, telling them to stop circumcising their children and living according to our customs. <sup>22</sup> Therefore, what is there to do about it? They will certainly hear that you have come. <sup>23</sup> So, do what we tell you! We have four men who are under a vow on their own initiative. <sup>24</sup> Take these men with you, purify yourself with them and pay their expenses, that they may shave their heads and that all may know that there is no truth in what they have been informed about you but that you yourself are also in agreement as one who keeps the Law! <sup>25</sup> However, concerning the Gentiles who have become believers, we have written in a letter our decision they should keep away from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from what has been strangled and from sexual immorality.”

<sup>26</sup> Then Paul took the men with him and on the next day he purified himself with them and went to the Temple to give notice of the time when the days of purification would be over, at which time the sacrifice would be offered for each one of them. <sup>27</sup> When the seven days were almost over, the Jews from the province of Asia saw Paul in the Temple and stirred up the whole crowd. They laid their hands on him, <sup>28</sup> shouting, “Men of Israel, help! This is the man who is teaching all people everywhere against our people, the Law and this place. Besides, he has also brought Greeks into the Temple and has defiled this Holy Place.”

<sup>29</sup> For they had previously seen Trophimus from Ephesus in the city with Paul and assumed that Paul had taken him into the Temple. <sup>30</sup> The whole city was aroused and the people rushed together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the Temple, and immediately the doors were shut. <sup>31</sup> While they were trying to kill him, a report was taken up to the commander of the garrison that all Jerusalem was being stirred up. <sup>32</sup> He immediately took some soldiers and centurions with him and ran down to them. When they saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. <sup>33</sup> Then the commander went up to Paul, arrested him and ordered that he should be tied up with two chains. The commander tried to find out who Paul was and what he had done. <sup>34</sup> Some in the crowd kept shouting one thing, and others something else. Since the commander could not ascertain the truth because of the uproar, he ordered that Paul should be taken into the barracks. <sup>35</sup> When Paul came to the stairs, the soldiers were actually carrying him because of the violence of the mob. <sup>36</sup> For the large number of people followed and kept shouting, “Away with him!”

Paul's address to the crowd near the Temple

<sup>37</sup> As Paul was about to be led into the barracks, he asked the commander, “Am I permitted to say something to you?”

He asked, “Can you speak Greek? <sup>38</sup> Are you not the Egyptian who some time ago instigated a revolt and led the four thousand men of the assassins out into the wilderness?”

<sup>39</sup> Paul answered, “I am a Jewish man from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city. I ask you, permit me to speak to the people!”

<sup>40</sup> The commander gave permission, and Paul stood on the steps and motioned with his hand to the people. When there was a great silence, he addressed them in the Aramaic language:

22

<sup>2</sup> When they heard that he was addressing them in the Aramaic language, they quietened down still more. Then Paul said: <sup>3</sup> “I am a Jewish man, born at Tarsus in Cilicia but was brought up in this city, trained at the feet of Gamaliel according to the strict letter of the Law of our fathers. I was zealous for God, as all of you are today. <sup>4</sup> I persecuted this Way to the death, tying up both men and women and delivering them into prisons, <sup>5</sup> as the High Priest also and the whole council of elders bear me witness. From them I even obtained letters to their fellow-Jews at Damascus and was going there to bring the people who were there as prisoners to Jerusalem to be punished. <sup>6</sup> As I was travelling and approaching Damascus about noon, suddenly a very bright light from heaven flashed around me. <sup>7</sup> I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul! Saul! Why are you persecuting Me?’

<sup>8</sup> “I answered, ‘Who are You, Lord?’

“He replied to me, ‘I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are persecuting.’

<sup>9</sup> “The men who were with me saw the light but did not understand the voice of the One who was speaking to me. <sup>10</sup> Then I asked, ‘What am I to do, Lord?’

“The Lord told me, ‘Get up! Go into Damascus! There you will be told about all the things that have been assigned for you to do.’

<sup>11</sup> “Since I could not see, because of the brilliance of that light, I came into Damascus led by the hands of the men who were with me. <sup>12</sup> A certain Ananias was there, a devout man, who observed the Law and who was well spoken of by all the Jews who lived there. <sup>13</sup> He came to me, stood next to me and said to me, ‘Brother Saul, receive your sight again!’

“At that very moment I could see him. <sup>14</sup> He said, ‘The God of our fathers has chosen you to know His will, to see the Righteous One and to hear words from His mouth, <sup>15</sup> because you will be a witness to Him to tell all people about the things that you have seen and heard. <sup>16</sup> Now, why do you delay? Get up, be baptised and wash away your sins, invoking His name!’

<sup>17</sup> “After I had returned to Jerusalem and while I was praying in the Temple, I was in a trance <sup>18</sup> and saw Him. He was telling me, ‘Hurry, get out of Jerusalem quickly! For they will not accept your testimony about Me.’

<sup>19</sup> “I said, ‘Lord, they know that I used to put in prison people in every synagogue who were believers in You and flog them. <sup>20</sup> When the blood of Your witness Stephen was being shed, I myself was also standing near, giving my approval and minding the clothes of those who were murdering him.’

<sup>21</sup> “The Lord told me, ‘Go! For I shall send you far away to the Gentiles.’”

<sup>22</sup> They continued to listen to him until he said this. Then they raised their voices and said, “Away with such a fellow from the earth! For he is not fit to live.”

<sup>23</sup> While they were shouting, throwing off their cloaks and throwing dust into the air, <sup>24</sup> the commander ordered Paul to be taken into the barracks. He told his men to examine him by scourging him, that he might find out the reason why the people were shouting at him like this. <sup>25</sup> However, after the men had stretched him out with the straps, Paul asked the centurion who was standing there, "Is it legal for you to scourge a Roman citizen who has not even been found guilty?"

<sup>26</sup> When the centurion heard this, he went to the commander and reported it. He asked, "What do you intend to do? For this man is a Roman citizen."

<sup>27</sup> The commander went to Paul and asked him, "Tell me! Are you a Roman citizen?"

Paul said, "Yes."

<sup>28</sup> The commander answered, "I obtained this citizenship by paying a large sum of money."

Paul said, "However, I have indeed been born as a citizen."

<sup>29</sup> Those who were about to examine him immediately withdrew from him. When the commander found out, he was also afraid, because Paul was a Roman citizen and because he had tied him up.

Paul's appearance before the Jewish council at Jerusalem

<sup>30</sup> The next day, since the commander wanted to find out for certain why the Jews were accusing Paul, he released him and ordered the Chief Priests and the whole Jewish council to assemble. Then he brought Paul down and made him stand before them.

23

<sup>1</sup> Paul looked intently at the Jewish council and said, "Fellow-Jews, I have been living my life before God with a clear conscience to this very day."

<sup>2</sup> However, the High Priest, Ananias, ordered the men who were standing near Paul to strike him on the mouth. <sup>3</sup> Then Paul told him, "God is going to strike you, whitewashed wall! Do you actually sit there to judge me according to the Law and yet break the Law by ordering that I should be struck?"

<sup>4</sup> The men who were standing near Paul asked, "Do you insult God's High Priest?"

<sup>5</sup> Paul answered, "I did not realise, fellow-Jews, that he is the High Priest. For Scripture says: 'You shall not speak evil about a ruler of your people.'"

<sup>6</sup> When Paul became aware that some of them were Sadducees and others Pharisees, he began to call out in the council, "Fellow-Jews, I am a Pharisee and a son of Pharisees. It is about the hope of the resurrection of the dead that I am being put on trial."

<sup>7</sup> When he had said that, a dispute broke out between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. <sup>8</sup> For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, angel or spirit, but the Pharisees acknowledge them all. <sup>9</sup> There was a great uproar, and some of the scribes who belonged to the party of the Pharisees stood up and argued vigorously: "We find nothing wrong in this man. Suppose a spirit has spoken to him or an angel!"

<sup>10</sup> When the quarrel was becoming violent, the commander was afraid that they would tear Paul to pieces. So, he ordered the soldiers to come down, snatch Paul away from them and take him into the barracks.

<sup>11</sup> The next night the Lord stood over Paul and said,

"Have courage! For, as you have given witness to the things about Me in Jerusalem, so you must also give witness in Rome."

A Jewish plot to kill Paul

<sup>12</sup> When day came, the Jews made a conspiracy and laid themselves under a curse. They said that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.

<sup>13</sup> There were more than forty who had formed this conspiracy. <sup>14</sup> They went to the Chief Priests and elders and said, "We have solemnly bound ourselves with an oath not to taste any food until we have killed Paul. <sup>15</sup> Now therefore, you, together with the council, bring formal charges to the commander, that he may bring him down to you, as if you meant to obtain more exact information about matters concerning him! However, we are ready to kill him before he gets near you."

<sup>16</sup> However, when the son of Paul's sister heard about the conspiracy, as he had been present, he entered the barracks and reported it to Paul. <sup>17</sup> Then Paul called one of the centurions and said, "Take this young man to the commander! For he has something to report to him."

<sup>18</sup> The centurion took him to the commander and said, "The prisoner, Paul, has sent for me and has asked me to bring this young man to you. For he has something to tell you."

<sup>19</sup> The commander took the young man by the hand, went aside to be alone with him and asked, "What is it that you have to report to me?"

<sup>20</sup> He answered, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down into the council tomorrow as if they meant to obtain more accurate information about him.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, they should not persuade you! For more than forty of them are waiting in ambush for him. They have bound themselves with an oath neither to eat nor to drink until they have murdered him. They are ready now, waiting for your consent to their request."

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, the commander dismissed the young man. He commanded him, "Do not tell anyone that you have reported this to me!"

<sup>23</sup> Then he sent for two of his centurions and said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers, seventy cavalrymen and two hundred spearmen to go to Caesarea at the third hour of the night! <sup>24</sup> Provide mounts that they may have Paul ride on them and take him safely through to Felix the Governor!"

<sup>26</sup> "Claudius Lysias, To the excellent Governor Felix: Greetings! <sup>27</sup> The Jews had seized this man and were about to murder him, but I came with the soldiers and rescued him. When I found out that he was a Roman citizen, <sup>28</sup> and when I wanted to know the reason why they were accusing him, I took him down into their council. <sup>29</sup> I found that he was being accused about questions concerning their Law but that there was no charge at all against him that deserved death or imprisonment. <sup>30</sup> Since I have been informed that there will be a plot against the man, I am immediately sending him to you. I have also ordered his accusers to state before you what they have against him.”

The transfer of Paul to prison in Caesarea

<sup>31</sup> Therefore, the soldiers, as they had been ordered, took Paul with them and brought him by night to Antipatris. <sup>32</sup> The next day they let the cavalry go on with him and returned to their barracks. <sup>33</sup> When the cavalry arrived at Caesarea, they delivered the letter to the governor and handed Paul over to him. <sup>34</sup> The governor read the letter and asked which province Paul was from. When he found out that he was from Cilicia, <sup>35</sup> he said, “I shall hear your case when your accusers have also come.”

Then he ordered that Paul should be kept under guard in Herod’s palace.

24

The accusations against Paul before Felix

<sup>1</sup> After five days, the High Priest, Ananias, came down with some elders and Tertullus, an attorney, and they brought formal charges against Paul before the governor. <sup>2</sup> When Paul had been called in, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, “Since, through you, we are enjoying a long period of peace and since reforms are being achieved for this nation through your foresight, <sup>3</sup> we welcome them in every way and in every place, most excellent Felix, with all gratitude. <sup>4</sup> However, not to detain you any further, I ask you to listen to us briefly with your usual graciousness. <sup>5</sup> For we have found that this man is a troublemaker, stirring up dissensions among all the Jews throughout the world and that he is a ringleader of the party of the Nazarenes. <sup>6</sup> He even tried to desecrate the Temple, and so we arrested him. <sup>7</sup> <sup>180</sup> <sup>8</sup> When you examine him yourself, you will be able to get at the facts from him about all the accusations that we are making against him.”

<sup>9</sup> The Jews also joined with Tertullus in attacking Paul, by asserting that these things were so.

Paul’s defence before Felix

<sup>10</sup> When the governor nodded to him to speak, Paul answered, “Since I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I gladly make my defence. <sup>11</sup> For you can confirm that no more than twelve days ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship. <sup>12</sup> My accusers did not find me arguing with anyone in the Temple or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues or throughout the city. <sup>13</sup> They also cannot provide proof to you for the accusations that they are now making against me. <sup>14</sup> However, I confess this to you, that according to the Way, which they call a sect, I worship the God of our fathers. I believe all the things that have been written in the Law and in the Prophets. <sup>15</sup> I have hope in God, which these men also wait for, that there is going to be a resurrection of both those who are righteous and those who are wicked.

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, I myself also do my best always to have a clear conscience before God and human beings.

<sup>17</sup> After several years, I came to my people to bring gifts for the poor and to present offerings. <sup>18</sup> People found me in the Temple occupied with these things after I had been purified. However, I was not with a crowd or involved in any disturbance. <sup>19</sup> There were some Jews from Asia, who should have been here before you and accusing me if they had anything against me. <sup>20</sup> Or these men should themselves state what crime they found in me when I stood before their council, <sup>21</sup> unless it concerns this one thing that I cried out when I was standing among them: ‘It is about the resurrection of the dead that I am being put on trial before you today.’”

<sup>22</sup> However, Felix, who had very accurate knowledge about the matters concerning the Way, gave them a postponement. He said, “When the commander Lysias comes down I shall examine your case.”

<sup>23</sup> He ordered the centurion to guard Paul but that Paul should have some liberty and that none of his friends should be prevented from attending to his needs.

Paul’s interview with Felix and Drusilla

<sup>24</sup> Some days later Felix came again with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess. He sent for Paul and listened to him about the faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>25</sup> While Paul was discussing righteousness, self-control and the coming judgment, Felix became afraid and answered, “Enough for the present! Leave! When I have some spare time I shall send for you.”

<sup>26</sup> At the same time he was also hoping that Paul would give him money. For that reason he used to send for him very often and converse with him.

<sup>27</sup> After two years had passed, Porcius Festus succeeded Felix. Because Felix wanted to do the Jews a favour, he left Paul in prison.

25

Paul’s appeal to the emperor

<sup>1</sup> Three days after Festus had begun his duties in the province, he went from Caesarea up to Jerusalem.

<sup>2</sup> The High Priests and the chief men of the Jews made formal charges against Paul to Festus. They made a request to Festus, <sup>3</sup> asking for a sign of favour against Paul, that he would send for him to come to Jerusalem. They were laying an ambush along the road to kill him. <sup>4</sup> Festus, however, answered that Paul was being kept at Caesarea and that he himself intended to go there shortly. <sup>5</sup> He said, “Therefore, those among you who have the authority should come down with me and should accuse him, if the man has done anything improper.”

<sup>6</sup> Festus stayed with them for no more than eight or ten days and then went down to Caesarea. The next day he sat down at the judicial bench and ordered that Paul should be brought in. <sup>7</sup> When Paul appeared, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him and kept bringing many serious charges against him, which they could not prove. <sup>8</sup> Paul defended himself: "I have not sinned in any way either against the Law of the Jews, against the Temple or against Caesar."

<sup>9</sup> Since Festus wanted to do the Jews a favour, he asked Paul, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem and be tried there before me about these things?"

<sup>10</sup> Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's judicial bench, where I ought to be tried. I have not done anything wrong to the Jews, as you also know very well.

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, if I am guilty and have done something for which I deserve to die, I do not try to escape death. However, if there is nothing at all in the things about which these men are accusing me, no one can hand me over to them. I appeal to Caesar!"

<sup>12</sup> Then Festus conferred with his council and answered, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go!"

A report by Festus about Paul to King Agrippa and Bernice

<sup>13</sup> After some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at Caesarea and paid their respects to Festus. <sup>14</sup> Since they were spending many days there, Festus laid Paul's case before the king. He said, "There is a man here whom Felix has left as a prisoner. <sup>15</sup> When I went to Jerusalem, the Chief Priests and the elders of the Jews laid formal charges against him and asked me to condemn him. <sup>16</sup> I answered them, 'It is not customary for Romans to hand over any accused man before he faces his accusers and has an opportunity to defend himself against the accusation.'

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, after they had assembled here, I did not delay the case but sat down at the judicial bench on the next day and ordered that the man should be brought in. <sup>18</sup> When his accusers stood up, they did not accuse him of the crimes that I was suspecting.

<sup>19</sup> However, they had some questions against him about their own religion and about a certain Jesus who had died but whom Paul alleged to be alive.

<sup>20</sup> Because I was at a loss how to investigate these things, I asked if he wanted to go to Jerusalem and be tried about these matters. <sup>21</sup> However, when Paul appealed to be reserved for the decision of His Majesty, I ordered that he should continue to be held until I remanded him to Caesar."

<sup>22</sup> Agrippa told Festus, "I myself should also like to hear the man."

He replied, "Tomorrow you will hear him."

Paul's hearing before Agrippa

<sup>23</sup> Therefore, on the next day, Agrippa and Bernice came with great pomp and entered the audience-room with the military commanders and prominent men of the city. Then Festus gave the order, and Paul was brought in. <sup>24</sup> Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all you men present with us, you see this man. The whole community of the Jews in Jerusalem and here has petitioned me about him, shouting that he must not live any longer. <sup>25</sup> I have found that he has not done anything to deserve to die; but, when he appealed to His Majesty, I decided to send him. <sup>26</sup> I have nothing definite to write to our master about him. Therefore, I have brought him before you people, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that, after the inquiry has taken place, I may have something to write. <sup>27</sup> For I think it is unreasonable to send a prisoner without also indicating the charges against him."

26

Paul's defence before Agrippa

Then Paul stretched out his hand and began to make his defence. <sup>2</sup> "King Agrippa, I think that I am favoured in that I am about to defend myself before you today about all the things about which the Jews are accusing me, <sup>3</sup> especially since you are familiar with all the customs and disputes that have to do with the Jews. Therefore, I beg you to listen to me patiently.

<sup>4</sup> Well then, the Jews all know how I have been living since I was young. For from the beginning I have lived among my own nation and in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> They have known me previously from long ago and can testify, if they wish to, that I lived as a Pharisee, according to the strictest party of our religion. <sup>6</sup> Now I am standing here on trial because of my hope in what God has promised to our fathers. <sup>7</sup> Our twelve tribes hope to attain to this promise, earnestly serving God day and night. It is about this hope, O King, that the Jews are accusing me. <sup>8</sup> Why is it considered incredible on the part of you people that God raises the dead?

<sup>9</sup> I myself indeed thought that I had to do many things in opposition to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

<sup>10</sup> That was just what I did in Jerusalem. I obtained the authority from the Chief Priests and locked up many of God's holy people in prisons and, when they were put to death, I cast my vote against them. <sup>11</sup> In all the synagogues I often punished them and tried to compel them to blaspheme. In my furious rage against them I used to persecute them, going even as far as foreign cities. <sup>12</sup> While I was occupied with this, I was travelling to Damascus, with the authority and commission of the Chief Priests. <sup>13</sup> At midday, O King, while I was on the road, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and around the men who were travelling with me. <sup>14</sup> All of us fell on the ground, and I heard a voice speaking to me in the Aramaic language, 'Saul, Saul! Why are you persecuting Me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

<sup>15</sup> "I asked, 'Who are You, Lord?' "The Lord answered, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. <sup>16</sup> Get up and stand on your feet! For I

<sup>15</sup> "I asked, 'Who are You, Lord?'"

"The Lord answered, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. <sup>16</sup> Get up and stand on your feet! For I have appeared to you for this purpose, to choose you as a servant and a witness, both about the things that you have seen in Me and about the things in which I shall appear to you. <sup>17</sup> I shall rescue you from your people and from the Gentiles to whom I am sending you, <sup>18</sup> to open their eyes, to turn them from darkness to light and from the authority of Satan to God, that they may receive the forgiveness of sins and a share among those who have been made holy by faith in Me.’

<sup>19</sup> “Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the vision from heaven. <sup>20</sup> Rather, I began to proclaim, first to the people in Damascus, then in Jerusalem, then throughout the country of Judea and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God and perform deeds that were in keeping with repentance. <sup>21</sup> For these reasons, the Jews seized me when I was in the Temple and tried to murder me. <sup>22</sup> Therefore, I have been obtaining help from God up to this day and stand and bear witness to both small and great. I say nothing except the things that the prophets and Moses said were going to happen, <sup>23</sup> whether the Christ had to suffer and whether, as the first to rise from the dead, as a Light, He was going to make proclamation to His own people and to the Gentiles.”

<sup>25</sup> Paul said, “I am not insane, excellent Festus, but am speaking true and rational words. <sup>26</sup> Yes, the king knows about these things, and I am also speaking frankly before him. For I am convinced that nothing at all of these things has escaped his notice, since this has not been done in a corner. <sup>27</sup> King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you do believe them.”

<sup>28</sup> However, Agrippa said to Paul: “You are trying, in a short time, to persuade me, to make me a Christian.”

<sup>29</sup> Paul said, “I should like to pray to God that, both in a short time and in a long time, not only you but also all those who are listening to me today will become the kind of man I am, except for these chains.”

<sup>30</sup> The king stood up and with him the governor, Bernice and the others who were sitting with them.

<sup>31</sup> When they had withdrawn, they began to say to one another, “This man is not doing anything for which he deserves to die or to be in chains.”

<sup>32</sup> Agrippa told Festus, “This man could have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

27

Paul's departure for Rome

<sup>1</sup> When it had been decided that we should sail to Italy, Paul and some other prisoners were handed over to a centurion by the name of Julius, who belonged to the Imperial Regiment. <sup>2</sup> We boarded a ship from Adramyttium that was about to sail to the places in the province of Asia and put out to sea. Aristarchus, a Macedonian from Thessalonica, was with us. <sup>3</sup> On the next day we put in at Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly and allowed him to go to his friends to be cared for. <sup>4</sup> When we had put out to sea from there, we sailed on the sheltered side of Cyprus, because the winds were against us. <sup>5</sup> We sailed over the sea along the coast of Cilicia and Pamphylia and landed at Myra in Lycia. <sup>6</sup> There the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy and put us on board. <sup>7</sup> We were sailing slowly for many days and had difficulty arriving off Cnidus. The wind would not allow us to proceed, and so we sailed on the sheltered side of Crete, opposite Salmone. <sup>8</sup> We sailed past it with difficulty and came to a place called “Fair Havens,” which is near the city of Lasea. <sup>9</sup> After we had spent much time, sailing was already dangerous, because even the Fast had already gone by. So, Paul advised them, <sup>10</sup> “Men, I see that the voyage is going to be disastrous and bring great loss, not only to the cargo and the ship but also to our lives.”

<sup>11</sup> However, the centurion was persuaded by the pilot and the owner of the ship rather than by what Paul said. <sup>12</sup> Because the harbour was not suitable to spend the winter in, the majority decided to set out to sea from there, hoping that they could somehow reach Phoenix, to spend the winter there. It is a harbour in Crete, open to the southwest and the northwest. <sup>13</sup> When a south wind began to blow, they thought that they had obtained what they wanted. They weighed anchor and sailed along close to the shore of Crete. <sup>14</sup> However, not long afterwards a wind of hurricane force, called “the North-Easter,” rushed down from Crete. <sup>15</sup> Because it caught the ship so that it could not face the wind, we gave way to it and kept being driven along. <sup>16</sup> When we ran into the shelter of a small island called Cauda, we were able, with a struggle, to get the dinghy under control. <sup>17</sup> The men pulled it up on the deck. Then they used cables under the ship to reinforce it. Because they were afraid that they would run aground on the sandbars of Syrtis, they lowered the gear and kept being driven along. <sup>18</sup> Because we continued to be tossed violently by the storm, the next day the men began to throw the cargo overboard. <sup>19</sup> On the third day they threw the ship's rigging overboard with their own hands. <sup>20</sup> For many days neither sun nor stars appeared. Because a great storm continued to lie over us, at last all hope that we would be saved was gradually abandoned. <sup>21</sup> Since hardly anyone wanted to eat, Paul stood up among them and said, “Men, you should have taken my advice not to sail from Crete, with the result that you have incurred this damage and loss. <sup>22</sup> However, now I urge you to keep up your courage, because there will be no loss of life among you but only of the ship. <sup>23</sup> For last night an angel of the God to whom I belong and whom I also serve, stood beside me. <sup>24</sup> He said, ‘Stop being afraid, Paul! You must stand before Caesar, and look! God has graciously given you all who are sailing with you.’ <sup>25</sup> Therefore, keep up your courage, men! For I trust God that it will be just as it has been told me. <sup>26</sup> Nevertheless, we must be cast ashore on some island.”

<sup>27</sup> When the fourteenth night had come and while we were drifting through the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors suspected that some land was coming closer to them. <sup>28</sup> They took soundings and found that the water was forty-four metres deep. After they had sailed a short distance farther, they took soundings again and found that it was thirty-three metres. <sup>29</sup> Because the men were afraid that we would run aground against rocky places, they dropped four anchors from the stern and prayed for daylight to come. <sup>30</sup> The sailors attempted to escape from the ship. They let the dinghy down into the sea, pretending that they were going to let out anchors from the bow. <sup>31</sup> Paul told the centurion and the soldiers, “If these men do not remain in the ship, you cannot be saved.”

<sup>32</sup> Then the soldiers cut away the ropes that held the dinghy and allowed it to drift away. <sup>33</sup> When daylight was about to dawn, Paul began to urge all of them to eat something. He said, “Today is the fourteenth day that you have been in constant suspense, going without food, without eating at all. <sup>34</sup> Therefore, I urge you to take some food. For this is essential for your survival. For none of you will lose a hair of his head.”

<sup>35</sup> After he said this, he took some bread, gave thanks to God in front of them all, broke it and began to eat. <sup>36</sup> They were all encouraged and also had something to eat. <sup>37</sup> Altogether we were two hundred and seventy six persons on the ship. <sup>38</sup> After they had eaten as much as they wanted, they lightened the ship by dumping the wheat into the sea. <sup>39</sup> When daylight came, they did not recognise the land but began to notice a bay with a beach, where they decided to run the ship aground if they could. <sup>40</sup> They cast off the anchors and left them in the sea. At the same time they untied the ropes that held the rudders, hoisted the foresail to the wind and made for the beach. <sup>41</sup> They came to a place between two seas and ran the ship aground. The bow jammed fast and remained immovable, and the stern began to be broken up by the force of the waves. <sup>42</sup> The soldiers planned to kill the prisoners to prevent any from swimming away and escaping. <sup>43</sup> However, because the centurion wanted to save Paul, he kept them from carrying out their plan. He ordered those who could swim to leap off first and get to the land, <sup>44</sup> and the rest to get there, some on planks and others on some pieces from the ship. In this way it turned out that all of them reached the land in safety.

The honoured treatment of Paul at Malta after miracles there

<sup>1</sup> Only after we had been brought through safely did we find out that the island was called Malta. <sup>2</sup> The natives showed us unusual kindness. For they lit a fire and brought us all to it, because of the rain that had set in and because it was cold. <sup>3</sup> When Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and put them on the fire, the heat caused a viper to come out and it fastened itself on his hand. <sup>4</sup> When the natives saw the snake hanging from his hand, they began to say to one another, “This man is certainly a murderer. Although he has escaped from the sea, justice has not allowed him to live.”

<sup>5</sup> However, then Paul shook the snake off into the fire and suffered no harm. <sup>6</sup> The people were expecting that he would swell up or suddenly fall dead; but, after they had been waiting a long time and had seen nothing unusual happening to him, they changed their minds and kept saying that he was a god. <sup>7</sup> In the district around that place there was an estate belonging to the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius. He welcomed us and treated us kindly as his guests for three days. <sup>8</sup> The father of Publius happened to be sick in bed, suffering from attacks of fever and dysentery. Paul went in to him, prayed, laid his hands on him and healed him. <sup>9</sup> After that had happened, the rest of the people on the island who had diseases also began to come to Paul and were healed. <sup>10</sup> They also honoured us in many ways and, when we were going to sail, they provided us with the things that we needed.

The journey from Malta to Rome

<sup>11</sup> After three months we put out to sea on a ship from Alexandria that had stayed at the island for the winter. It had the twin sons of Zeus as its figurehead. <sup>12</sup> We put in at Syracuse and stayed there for three days. <sup>13</sup> We cast off from there and reached Rhegium. One day later, a south wind came up, and on the following day we came to Puteoli. <sup>14</sup> There we found fellow-Christians and were invited to stay with them for seven days. So, we came to Rome. <sup>15</sup> From there the fellow-Christians heard about us and came as far as the Forum of Appius and The Three Taverns to welcome us. When Paul saw them, he gave thanks to God and took courage.

Paul's discussions with the Jews in Rome

<sup>16</sup> When we came into Rome, Paul was permitted to live by himself with the soldier who was guarding him. <sup>17</sup> After three days, Paul called the leaders of the Jews together. When they had assembled, he proceeded to tell them, “Men and fellow-Jews, although I have not done anything against our people or the customs of our fathers, I was handed over as a prisoner into the hands of the Romans at Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup> They examined me and wanted to release me, because there was no reason why I should be put to death. <sup>19</sup> However, because the Jews kept objecting, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar — not that I had any accusation against my people. <sup>20</sup> The reason why I have asked you to come is that I may see you and speak with you, since it is because of the hope of Israel that I am wearing this chain.”

<sup>21</sup> They told him, “Neither have we received any letters from Judea about you, nor has any of our fellow-Jews come here and reported or spoken anything bad about you. <sup>22</sup> We consider it right to hear from you what you think. For this much we know about this party, that people everywhere are talking against it.”

<sup>23</sup> They appointed a day for him, and more of them came to him at the place where he was staying. From morning until evening he kept explaining and solemnly testifying to them about the kingdom of God and tried to convince them about Jesus from the Law of Moses and the Prophets. <sup>24</sup> Some of them were being convinced by what he said, but others would not believe. <sup>25</sup> When they did not agree with one another, they began to break up, and Paul added one more statement: “The Holy Spirit spoke the truth to your fathers through the prophet Isaiah <sup>26</sup> when He said: ‘Go to this people and say: “You will indeed hear but will certainly not understand. You will indeed see but will certainly not perceive. <sup>27</sup> For the hearts of these people have become dull. Their ears have become hard of hearing, and they have shut their eyes, that they may not see with their eyes, hear with their ears, understand with their hearts and turn, that I may heal them.’” <sup>28</sup> Therefore, let it be known to you that this salvation, which comes from God, has been sent to the Gentiles! They will listen.”

[<sup>29</sup> When Paul had said these words, the Jews departed and argued vigorously among themselves. *181]

The unhindered advance of the Gospel at Rome

<sup>30</sup> For two whole years Paul lived at his own expense and continued to welcome all who came to him, <sup>31</sup> preaching the kingdom of God and teaching the things about the Lord Jesus Christ, with all freedom of speech. and no one prevented him.

Introduction (1:1-15)

Paul's greeting to the Christians at Rome

<sup>1</sup> Paul, a slave of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle and set apart for the Good News of God. <sup>2</sup> He promised this Gospel in advance through His prophets in the Holy Scriptures. <sup>3</sup> It is about His Son, who was born a descendant of David according to His human nature, <sup>4</sup> but who, according to His holy divinity, was declared with power to be the Son of God by His resurrection from the dead. He is Jesus Christ, our Lord. <sup>5</sup> Through Him and for His name's sake, we have received the grace of holding the apostolic office among all the Gentiles, that they may be obedient by believing. <sup>6</sup> Among them, you also have been called to belong to Jesus Christ. <sup>7</sup> To all who are in Rome whom God loves and has called to be His holy people: Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

Paul's wish to see the Christians at Rome

<sup>8</sup> First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith is being reported all over the world. <sup>9</sup> For God, whom I serve in my spirit in the Good News of His Son, is my witness how I constantly make mention of you <sup>10</sup> whenever I pray, as I keep asking that, somehow, by the will of God, the way may now at last be opened for me to come to you. <sup>11</sup> For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, that you may be strengthened, <sup>12</sup> that is, that, when I am among you, we may be mutually encouraged, I by your faith, and you by mine. <sup>13</sup> I do not want you to be unaware, fellow-Christians, that I have often planned to come to you (although I have been hindered until now), that I may have some fruit among you also, just as I have had among the other Gentiles. <sup>14</sup> I have an obligation to both Greeks and non-Greeks, to both wise people and foolish people. <sup>15</sup> That is why I am eager to tell the Good News also to you who are at Rome.

The theme of the epistle (1:16-17)

<sup>16</sup> For I am not ashamed of the Good News. For it is the power of God to save everyone who believes it, the Jew first and also the Gentile. <sup>17</sup> For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith with a view to faith, as Scripture has said, "He who is righteous by faith will live."

The revelation of the wrath of God (1:18-3:20)

The wrath of God against the unrighteousness of the heathen (1:18-32)

<sup>18</sup> For the wrath of God is being revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of people who suppress the truth by unrighteousness, <sup>19</sup> because what can be known about God is plain to them. For God has made it plain to them. <sup>20</sup> For since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities, His eternal power and divine nature, have been perceived and understood by means of the things that have been made. Therefore, they have no excuse, <sup>21</sup> because, although they know God, they have not glorified Him as God or been thankful. Instead, they have become futile in their thinking, and their senseless hearts have been darkened.

The revelation of God's wrath against heathen wickedness

<sup>22</sup> Although they claim that they are wise, they have become fools <sup>23</sup> and have exchanged the glory of the imperishable God for a likeness that resembles a perishable human being, birds, four-footed animals and reptiles. <sup>24</sup> Therefore, God has handed them over to uncleanness, in the sinful desires of their hearts, to degrade their bodies with one another. <sup>25</sup> They have exchanged the truth of God for the lie and have worshipped and served what has been created instead of the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen! <sup>26</sup> For this reason, God has handed them over to shameful passions. For even their females have exchanged their natural function for what is unnatural. <sup>27</sup> Similarly, the males have also abandoned the natural function of the female and have been inflamed with lust for one another. Males have committed shameful acts with other males and have received in themselves the penalty that they have deserved for their error. <sup>28</sup> As they have not seen fit to retain a true knowledge of God, God has also handed them over to an unfit mind, to do things that ought not to be done. <sup>29</sup> They have been filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed and depravity. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit and malice. They are gossips, <sup>30</sup> they slander, they hate God and are insolent, arrogant and boastful. They contrive evil deeds. They disobey their parents. <sup>31</sup> They are senseless, unreliable, unloving and unmerciful. <sup>32</sup> Although they know God's just Requirement, that those who do such things deserve death, they not only continue to do them but also approve of others who do them.

The revelation of the wrath of God against the righteousness of the Law (2:1-3:20)

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, you have no excuse, O human being, whoever you are, when you judge others. For at the point where you judge the other person, you are condemning yourself. For you, who are judging, are doing the same things. <sup>2</sup> We know that God's judgment against those who do such things is right. <sup>3</sup> Man, you who judge those who do such things, when you do them yourself, do you think that you will escape the judgment of God? <sup>4</sup> Or do you despise God's rich kindness, tolerance and patience because you do not realise that God's kindness is leading you to repentance?

The failure of the Law to protect against the wrath of God

<sup>5</sup> Nevertheless, because you are stubborn and your heart is unrepentant, you are treasuring up wrath against yourself on the day of wrath, when God's righteous judgment is revealed. <sup>6</sup> He "will give what is due to every person according to what he has done."

<sup>7</sup> He will give eternal life to those who, by persistently doing good, are intent on glory, honour and immortality; <sup>8</sup> but there will be wrath and fury for those who, because of selfishness, both disobey the truth and obey unrighteousness. <sup>9</sup> There will be tribulation and distress for every human soul who does evil, first for the Jew and also for the Gentile; <sup>10</sup> but there will be glory, honour and peace for every person who does good, first for the Jew and also for the Gentile. <sup>11</sup> For God does not favour one person over another. <sup>12</sup> For all who have sinned without having the Law will also perish without the Law. All who have sinned under the Law will be judged by the Law. <sup>13</sup> For it is not those who only hear the Law who are righteous in God's sight, but those who observe the Law will be declared righteous. <sup>14</sup> Indeed, when Gentiles, who do not have the Law, do by nature what the Law requires, they are a law to themselves, although they do not have the Law. <sup>15</sup> They show that what the Law requires them to do is written in their hearts. Their consciences also bear witness and between themselves their thoughts accuse them or even defend them, <sup>16</sup> with reference to the day when, according to my Good News, God judges people's secrets through Christ Jesus.

The question who a Jew really is

<sup>17</sup> If you call yourself a Jew, rely on the Law and boast about God, <sup>18</sup> if you know what He wants and approve of the things that really matter, since you are instructed by the Law, <sup>19</sup> if you are confident that you are a guide for blind people and a light for those who are in darkness, <sup>20</sup> that you are an instructor of foolish people and a teacher of infants, because you have in the Law the embodiment of knowledge and truth, <sup>21</sup> you then, who teach someone else, do you fail to teach yourself? You, who preach, "Do not steal!" do you steal? <sup>22</sup> You who say, "Do not commit adultery!" do you commit adultery? You, who detest idols, do you rob temples? <sup>23</sup> You who boast about the Law, do you dishonour God by breaking the Law? <sup>24</sup> For, as the Scripture has said, "Because of you the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles."

The failure of circumcision to shield from the wrath of God

<sup>25</sup> For circumcision benefits you if you are observing the Law, but, if you are breaking the Law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. <sup>26</sup> Therefore, if those who are not circumcised keep the righteous Requirements of the Law, will their uncircumcision not be reckoned as though they were circumcised? <sup>27</sup> If a man who is not physically circumcised fulfils the Law, he will condemn you for transgressing the Law, although you have the written Law and circumcision. <sup>28</sup> For he is not a Jew who is one merely outwardly, nor is circumcision what is only outward in the body. <sup>29</sup> Rather, a Jew is one who is a Jew inwardly, and circumcision is a circumcision of the heart. It is in the Spirit, not in writing. A Jew is one who is praised, not by men but by God.

3

The result, that the whole world is guilty and subject to God's wrath

what benefit is there in being circumcised? <sup>2</sup> Much in every way! For the most important advantage is that they have been entrusted with the Words of God. <sup>3</sup> What if some have been unfaithful? Surely their unfaithfulness will not nullify the faithfulness of God? <sup>4</sup> Certainly not! Let God be true, and "every man a liar," as Scripture has said, "That You may be declared right when You speak and prevail when You engage in a legal suit." <sup>5</sup> However, if our unrighteousness demonstrates the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Surely not that God, who inflicts His wrath, is unjust? (I am talking in a human way). <sup>6</sup> Certainly not! For, otherwise, how will God judge the world? <sup>7</sup> If by means of my falsehood the truthfulness of God has shown itself to be supremely great, to His glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? <sup>8</sup> Then surely, it will not be, as we are slanderously reported and as some people allege that we are saying, "Let us do evil that good may result"? They deserve their condemnation. <sup>9</sup> What then? Do we have any advantage? Not at all! For we have already made the accusation that both Jews and Greeks are all under sin, <sup>10</sup> as Scripture has said: "There is no one righteous, not even one." <sup>11</sup> There is no one who understands, there is no one who searches for God. <sup>12</sup> All have turned away, they have together become worthless. There is no one who does good, there is not even one." <sup>13</sup> "Their throats are an open grave. With their tongues they have been practising deceit." "The poison of vipers is under their lips." <sup>14</sup> "Their mouths are full of cursing and bitterness." <sup>15</sup> "Their feet run quickly to shed blood." <sup>16</sup> "There is destruction and misery on their roads, <sup>17</sup> and they have not learned the way of peace." <sup>18</sup> "There is no fear of God before their eyes." <sup>19</sup> We know that, whatever the Law says, it says to those who are under the Law, that every mouth may be silenced and the whole world may be held accountable to God. <sup>20</sup> Therefore, no human being will be justified in His sight by doing what the Law says. For through the Law comes the recognition of sin.

The revelation of the grace of God, which shows the righteousness of God through Christ (3:21-4:25)

The righteousness of God that is not by the law but through faith

<sup>21</sup> Now, however, the righteousness of God apart from the Law has been made known, and the Law and the Prophets testify to it. <sup>22</sup> It is the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ, to all who believe. For there is no difference. <sup>23</sup> For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. <sup>24</sup> They are justified freely by His grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. <sup>25</sup> God has publicly displayed Him as the propitiatory-cover through faith in His blood, to show His righteousness, because He had let go unpunished the sins that had been committed in the past, <sup>26</sup> in His patience. God has done this to show His righteousness at the present time, that He may be righteous and the One who declares righteous is the person who believes in Jesus.

The exclusion of all boasting by the righteousness of faith

<sup>27</sup> Therefore, where is boasting? It has been excluded. Through what principle? Through the principle of works? No, rather, it is excluded through the principle of faith. <sup>28</sup> For we conclude that a person is justified by faith, apart from the works of the Law. <sup>29</sup> Or is God only the God of the Jews? Is He not the God of the Gentiles also? Yes, of the Gentiles also, <sup>30</sup> since there is one God, who will justify the circumcised by faith and the uncircumcised through the same faith. <sup>31</sup> Therefore, do we make the Law invalid through faith? Certainly not! Rather, we establish the Law.

The righteousness of God, to which the Law and the prophets testify (4:1-25)

A declaration that Abraham's righteousness was the righteousness of faith

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, what shall we say that Abraham, the ancestor of our race, has found? <sup>2</sup> For, if Abraham was justified by works, he had something about which to boast. However, he could not boast before God. <sup>3</sup> For what does the Scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness." <sup>4</sup> When a person works, his wages are not credited as grace but as a debt. <sup>5</sup> However, to the person who, instead of working, believes in God, who justifies the ungodly, his faith is credited as righteousness. <sup>6</sup> In the same way, David also speaks about the blessedness of the person to whom God credits righteousness apart from works: <sup>7</sup> "Blessed are those whose lawless deeds have been forgiven and whose sins have been covered! <sup>8</sup> Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will certainly not credit his sin!"

The righteousness credited to Abraham apart from circumcision.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, does this blessing come only on those who are circumcised, or does it also come on those who are uncircumcised? For we are saying, "Abraham's faith was credited to him as righteousness." <sup>10</sup> What was the situation when it was credited to him? Was he circumcised at that time or not? It was before he was circumcised, not after he was. <sup>11</sup> He also received the sign of circumcision as a seal of the righteousness of faith, which he had when he was still uncircumcised. As a result, he is the father of all who believe although they are not circumcised, that righteousness may be credited to them also. <sup>12</sup> As a result, he is also the father of circumcised people who not only have been circumcised but who also walk in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham had when he was still uncircumcised.

The righteousness credited to Abraham apart from the Law

<sup>13</sup> It was not through the Law that Abraham or his descendants received the promise that he would be the heir of the world but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>14</sup> For, if those who belong to the Law are the heirs, then faith has been made worthless, and the promise has been made ineffective. <sup>15</sup> For the Law works God's anger, and where there is no Law there is no transgression either.

Abraham as the type of the person who is righteous through faith

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, the promise belongs to faith, that it may be according to grace, that the promise may be sure to all Abraham's descendants, not only to those who belong to the Law but also to those who belong to the faith of Abraham. He is the father of us all, <sup>17</sup> as the Scriptures have said, "I have made you the father of many nations." He is our father in the presence of God, in whom he believed, the God who makes the dead live and calls what does not exist into existence.

<sup>18</sup> Abraham, contrary to hope, in hope believed and so became a father of many nations, as he had been told: "That is how many descendants you will have."

<sup>19</sup> Without becoming weak in faith, he considered that, since he was about a hundred years old, his own body was already dead, and that Sarah's womb was also dead. <sup>20</sup> There was no unbelief to make him doubt what God had promised, but his faith was made strong, and he gave glory to God. <sup>21</sup> He was fully convinced that God also had the power to do what He had promised. <sup>22</sup> That is why his faith "was reckoned to him as righteousness." <sup>23</sup> However, the Words "It was reckoned to him" were not written for him alone, <sup>24</sup> but also for us. God is about to reckon righteousness to us, who believe in Him who has raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. <sup>25</sup> He was handed over because of our offences and was raised for the sake of our justification.

He who is righteous through faith will live (5:1-8:39)

Freedom from the wrath of God by God's love (5:1-21)

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>2</sup> through whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand and rejoice in the hope of the glory of God. <sup>3</sup> Not only that, but we also glory in our tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance, <sup>4</sup> and perseverance produces character, and character, hope. <sup>5</sup> Hope does not disappoint us either, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to us. <sup>6</sup> For, while we were still helpless, at the set time Christ died for ungodly people. <sup>7</sup> For very rarely will someone die for a righteous person, although someone might perhaps even dare to die for a good person. <sup>8</sup> However, God shows His own love for us by this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us. <sup>9</sup> Much more, therefore, now that we have been justified by His blood, we shall be saved through Him from God's wrath. <sup>10</sup> For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, now that we have been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life. <sup>11</sup> Not only is this so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received reconciliation.

The contrast between Adam and Christ

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, as sin came into the world through one man and death through sin, so death also spread to all people, since all have sinned. <sup>13</sup> For until the Law sin was in the world. However, sin is not charged against anyone's account when there is no Law. <sup>14</sup> Yet death ruled from Adam to Moses, also over those who had not sinned in the same way as Adam did when he broke the Command (Adam was a type of Him who was to come). <sup>15</sup> However, the free gift is not like the transgression. For, if the many died as the result of the one man's transgression, much more, God's grace and the gracious gift of the One Man, Jesus Christ, have overflowed to the many. <sup>16</sup> The gift is also different from what came through the one man who sinned. For the judgment came from one man and resulted in condemnation, but the free gift came after many transgressions and resulted in justification. <sup>17</sup> For if, by the transgression of the one man, death reigned through the one man, much more, those who have received God's overflowing grace and His gift of righteousness will reign in life through the One Man, Jesus Christ. <sup>18</sup> Therefore, as through one man's transgression judgment came to all people, resulting in condemnation, so also, through One Man's righteous act, the free gift came to all people, resulting in justification, which brings life. <sup>19</sup> For as, through the disobedience of the one man, the many became sinners, so also through the obedience of the One Man, the many will become righteous. <sup>20</sup> The Law was added that the transgression might increase. However, where sin increased, God's grace overflowed even more. <sup>21</sup> This happened that, as sin reigned in death, so also grace might reign, through righteousness, resulting in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Freedom from sin through baptism (6:1-23)

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, what shall we say? "Shall we go on sinning that God may be more gracious to us?" <sup>2</sup> Certainly not! How shall we, who died to sin, live any longer in it? <sup>3</sup> Or do you not know that all of us who were baptised into Christ Jesus were baptised into His death? <sup>4</sup> Therefore, we were buried with Him through baptism into death, so that, as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we too might begin to live a new life. <sup>5</sup> If we have been planted together with Him in the likeness of His death, then we shall be planted together with Him also in the likeness of His resurrection. <sup>6</sup> We know that our old self was crucified with Him, that our sinful bodies might be rendered powerless, that we might not be slaves to sin any longer. <sup>7</sup> For the one who has died has been declared free from sin. <sup>8</sup> If we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him, <sup>9</sup> because we know that, since Christ was raised from the dead, He will not die again. Death no longer has any mastery over Him. <sup>10</sup> For the death that He died, He died to sin once for all, but the life that He lives He lives to God. <sup>11</sup> So you too, reckon yourselves to be dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus!

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, let sin not keep on reigning in your mortal bodies with the result that you obey their sinful desires!

<sup>13</sup> Stop presenting the parts of your bodies to sin as weapons of unrighteousness! Rather, present yourselves to God, as people who are alive from the dead, and present the parts of your bodies to God as weapons of righteousness! <sup>14</sup> For sin will not be master over you. For you are not under Law but under grace.

Freedom from sin opens the way to service of righteousness

<sup>15</sup> What then? Are we to sin because we are not under Law but under grace? Certainly not! <sup>16</sup> Do you not know that, when you present yourselves to someone to obey him as slaves, you are the slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which results in death or of obedience, which results in righteousness? <sup>17</sup> However, thanks be to God that, although you used to be the slaves of sin, you have obeyed from the heart the pattern of teaching to which you were entrusted! <sup>18</sup> You have been set free from sin and have been made the slaves of righteousness. <sup>19</sup> I am speaking in a human way because your human nature is weak. For, as you presented the members of your bodies as slaves of uncleanness and lawlessness, leading to more lawlessness, so now, present your members as slaves of righteousness, leading to holiness! <sup>20</sup> For, when you were the slaves of sin, you were free concerning righteousness. <sup>21</sup> Therefore, what harvest did you get from the things of which you are now ashamed? None, for the end of those things is death. <sup>22</sup> Rather, now, after you have been set free from sin and have been made the slaves of God, you have your harvest leading to holiness, and the end will be eternal life. <sup>23</sup> For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life, in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Freedom from the Law through Christ (7:1-25)

<sup>1</sup> Or do you not know, fellow-Christians (for I am speaking to people who know the Law) that the Law controls a person only while he is still alive? <sup>2</sup> For the woman who has a husband has been bound by the Law to her husband while he is alive. However, if her husband dies, she has been released from the Law that binds her to her husband. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, while her husband is alive, she will be called an adulteress if she lives with another man. However, if her husband dies, she is free from the Law, with the result that she is not an adulteress if she marries another man. <sup>4</sup> Therefore, fellow-Christians, you too have been put to death in relation to the Law through the body of Christ, with the result that you have begun to belong to Another, to Him who has been raised from the dead, that we may bear fruit to God. <sup>5</sup> For, while we were in the sinful human nature, the sinful passions that were aroused by the Law were at work in our members, that we produced fruit for death. <sup>6</sup> However, now we have been released from the Law, because we have died to what we were being bound by, with the result that we serve in the new way of the Spirit and not in the old way of the written code.

The power of the holy Law to provoke and increase sin

<sup>7</sup> What shall we say, then? Is the Law sin? Certainly not! Rather, I would not have come to know sin except through the Law. For I would not have known covetousness if the Law had not said, “You shall not covet!”

<sup>8</sup> However, sin took an opportunity through the Commandment and produced in me every kind of covetousness. For sin is dead without the Law. <sup>9</sup> Once I used to be alive without the Law; but, when the Commandment came, sin became alive, and I died. <sup>10</sup> The very Commandment that was intended to lead to life was found in my case to lead to death. <sup>11</sup> For sin took an opportunity through the Commandment, deceived me and through the Commandment killed me. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, the Law is holy, and the Commandment is holy, righteous and good. <sup>13</sup> So, did this good thing cause death for me? Certainly not! Rather, that sin might be recognised as sin, it was producing death for me through what is good, that sin might become extremely sinful through the Commandment.

The powerlessness of the Law to call forth what is good; he who is justified through faith is saint and sinner at the same time

<sup>14</sup> For we know that the Law is spiritual, but I have sinful human nature and am sold under sin. <sup>15</sup> For I do not understand what I am doing. For I do not do what I want to do but do what I hate. <sup>16</sup> If I do what I do not want to do, I also agree that the Law is good. <sup>17</sup> However, now it is no longer I who am doing it, but it is the sin that is living in me. <sup>18</sup> For I know that nothing good lives in me, that is, in my sinful human nature. For the willingness is present with me but doing what is good is not. <sup>19</sup> For I do not do the good that I want to do. Instead, I do the evil that I do not want to do. <sup>20</sup> If I am doing what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who am doing it, but the sin that is living in me. <sup>21</sup> Therefore, I find this to be the rule: Although I want to do what is good, evil is present with me. <sup>22</sup> For according to the inward human being I delight in God’s Law, <sup>23</sup> but in the members of my body I see another law, which is waging war against the Law of my mind and making me a prisoner to the law of sin that is in the members of my body. <sup>24</sup> What a wretched person I am! Who will rescue me from this body, which is bringing death? <sup>25</sup> Thanks be to God, through Jesus Christ our Lord! Therefore, with my mind I myself serve the Law of God but with my sinful nature I serve the law of sin.

Freedom from condemnation and death through the Spirit (8:1-39)

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, there is now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus. <sup>2</sup> For the principle of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has set you free from the principle of sin and death. <sup>3</sup> For what the Law could not do, because it was weak through the sinful human nature, God has done, by sending His own Son to be like sinful human nature, to be a sin-offering. He has condemned sin in human nature, <sup>4</sup> that the just Requirements of the Law may be fulfilled in us, who do not live according to the sinful human nature but according to the Spirit.

<sup>5</sup> For those who live according to the sinful nature set their minds on the things that belong to the sinful nature, but those who live according to the Spirit set their minds on the things that belong to the Spirit. <sup>6</sup> For the way of thinking that belongs to the sinful nature is death, but the way of thinking that belongs to the Spirit is life and peace. <sup>7</sup> This is so, because the way of thinking that belongs to the sinful nature is hostile to God. For it is not subordinate to God’s Law. Indeed, it cannot be. <sup>8</sup> Those who are in the sinful nature cannot please God. <sup>9</sup> You, however, are not in the sinful nature but in the Spirit, if God’s Spirit dwells in you. If anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Christ; <sup>10</sup> but, if Christ is in you, your bodies are dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness. <sup>11</sup> If the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead is dwelling in you, He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit, who dwells in you.

God’s children are free from death and heirs with Christ

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, fellow-Christians, we are in debt, not to the sinful nature, to live according to the sinful nature. <sup>13</sup> For, if you live according to the sinful nature, you will die. However, if, by the Spirit, you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. <sup>14</sup> For all who are led by God’s Spirit are God’s children. <sup>15</sup> For you have not received a spirit of slavery again, to make you afraid but have received the Spirit, who adopts, by whom we cry, “Abba, Father!” <sup>16</sup> The Spirit Himself testifies with our spirits that we are God’s children, <sup>17</sup> and that, if we are children, then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ, since indeed we suffer with Him, that we may also be glorified with Him.

The suffering of the present age as it waits for the glory of the age to come <sup>18</sup> For I consider that the sufferings of this present time do not deserve to be compared with the glory that is about to be revealed to us. <sup>19</sup> For the creation is waiting with eager expectation to see the revealing of God’s children. <sup>20</sup> For this created world has been subjected to futility, not by its own choice but because of the One who subjected it; in hope, <sup>21</sup> because the created world itself will also be freed from its slavery to decay, to have the glorious freedom of the children of God. <sup>22</sup> For we know that all the creation has been groaning together with them and labouring with birth-pangs together with them until now.

The Christians’ groaning as they wait for redemption

<sup>23</sup> Not only so, but we ourselves also, who have the first-fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption as His children, for the redemption of our bodies. <sup>24</sup> For we have been saved by hope. If hope is seen, it is not hope. Who hopes for what he sees? <sup>25</sup> However, if we hope for what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it, with patience.

The intercession of the Spirit for believers

<sup>26</sup> In the same way, the Spirit also helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what we are to pray for as we ought to, but the Spirit Himself pleads for us with groanings that cannot be uttered. <sup>27</sup> He who searches our hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is. For the Spirit pleads for God's holy people according to God's will.

The consummation of God's eternal purpose

<sup>28</sup> We know that all things work together for good to those who love God, for those whom He has called according to His purpose. <sup>29</sup> For He also predestined those whom He had foreknown, to be conformed to the likeness of His Son, that He might be the First-born among many brothers. <sup>30</sup> He also called those whom He had predestined. He also justified those whom He had called, and He also glorified those whom He had justified.

<sup>31</sup> Therefore, what shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? <sup>32</sup> How will He not, who did not spare His own Son but handed Him over for us all, along with Him, also freely give us all things? <sup>33</sup> Who will accuse those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. <sup>34</sup> Who will condemn? Christ Jesus, who died and, more than that, has been raised, is the One who is even at the right hand of God, who is also interceding for us.

Victory through the love of God in Christ

<sup>35</sup> Who will separate us from the love of Christ? Will trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? <sup>36</sup> As Scripture has said: "For Your sake we are being killed all day long. We have been considered as sheep to be slaughtered." <sup>37</sup> Yet in all these things we are more than conquerors through Him who has loved us. <sup>38</sup> For I am convinced that neither death nor life, nor angels nor rulers, nor present circumstances nor future circumstances, nor powers, <sup>39</sup> nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9

The consistency between the righteousness of faith and the promise of God (9:1-11:36)

God's faithfulness to His promise to believers (9:1-29)

<sup>1</sup> I am telling the truth in Christ. I am not lying, as my conscience bears witness to me by the Holy Spirit, <sup>2</sup> that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. <sup>3</sup> For I could wish that I myself were cursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my brothers, those who are my own flesh and blood. <sup>4</sup> They are Israelites. To them belong the adoption as sons, the glory, the Covenants, the receiving of the Law, the worship and the promises. <sup>5</sup> To them belong the fathers, and from them, according to His human nature, the Christ came, who is God over everything, blessed for ever! Amen.

<sup>6</sup> This does not mean that the Word of God has failed. For not all who are descended from Israel are Israel,

<sup>7</sup> and not all who are the offspring of Abraham are for that reason his children. Rather, "Isaac's children will be called your offspring." <sup>8</sup> This means that the children of God are not those who are children by natural birth. Rather, the children of the promise are reckoned as Abraham's offspring. <sup>9</sup> For this is how the promise was worded: "I shall come at this appointed time, and Sarah will have a son." <sup>10</sup> Not only this, but, Rebecca also conceived by one man, our father Isaac <sup>11</sup> For the children had not yet been born and had not done anything good or bad, that God's purpose according to election might remain, <sup>12</sup> which does not depend on works but on Him who calls, and yet she was told: "The elder one will serve the younger one." <sup>13</sup> It is as Scripture has said, "I have loved Jacob but have hated Esau."

The right of God to choose in mercy

<sup>14</sup> What shall we say, then? Surely there is no injustice on God's part? Certainly not! <sup>15</sup> For He says to Moses: "I shall be merciful to anyone to whom I am merciful and have compassion on anyone on whom I have compassion." <sup>16</sup> Therefore, it does not depend on the one who wills or the one who runs but on God, who shows mercy. <sup>17</sup> For the Scripture says to Pharaoh: "I have raised you up for this very purpose, that I may display My power in you and that My name may be proclaimed in all the earth." <sup>18</sup> Therefore, He has mercy on the one on whom He wants to have mercy and makes stubborn the one whom He wishes to make stubborn. <sup>19</sup> You will ask me, therefore, "Then why does He still find fault? For who has resisted His will?" <sup>20</sup> However, now, man, who are you to answer back to God? Surely the thing that is formed will not ask the one who has formed it, "Why have you made me like this?" <sup>21</sup> Or does not the potter have the right over his clay to make out of the same lump of clay one jar for a noble purpose and another for a lowly purpose?

God's choice of the Gentiles

<sup>22</sup> What if God, although He wanted to show His wrath and to make His power known, endured with great patience the vessels of wrath, who had prepared themselves for destruction? <sup>23</sup> What if He also did this to make known His rich glory on the vessels of mercy, whom He had prepared in advance for glory, <sup>24</sup> even us, whom He has called, not only from the Jews but also from the Gentiles? <sup>25</sup> It is as He also says in Hosea: "Him who is not My people I shall call 'My people,' and her who has not been loved I shall call 'My loved one.'" <sup>26</sup> In the place where they were told: 'You are not My people,' there they will be called 'the sons of the living God.'" <sup>27</sup> Isaiah exclaims concerning Israel: "Although the number of the people of Israel is like the sand by the sea, only the remnant will be saved. For the Lord will act on the earth by accomplishing His Word and by shortening it." <sup>29</sup> It is as Isaiah said long ago: "If the Lord of hosts had not left us descendants, we would have become like Sodom and caused to resemble Gomorrah."

The fault of Israel for its rejection (9:30-10:21)

<sup>30</sup> What shall we say, then? That the Gentiles who were not pursuing righteousness have obtained righteousness, a righteousness that is by faith, <sup>31</sup> but that Israel, who was pursuing the Law of righteousness, has not attained the Law.

<sup>32</sup> Why? Because they did not pursue it by faith but as if it were by works. They stumbled over the “Stumbling Stone,” <sup>33</sup> as Scripture has said: “See, I am putting in Zion a Stone over which people will stumble and a Rock over which they will fall. However, the person who believes in Him will not be put to shame.”

10

The faith that is open to both Jews and Gentiles

<sup>1</sup> Fellow-Christians, my heart’s desire and my prayer to God for the Israelites is that they may be saved. <sup>2</sup> I bear them witness that they are zealous for God, but their zeal is not based on knowledge. <sup>3</sup> For, because they do not know the righteousness of God and are trying to establish their own, they have not been subordinate to the righteousness of God. <sup>4</sup> For Christ is the end of the Law for righteousness to everyone who believes. <sup>5</sup> For Moses writes about the righteousness that is by the Law, “The person who has done these things will live by them.” <sup>6</sup> However, the righteousness that is by faith speaks in this way, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (which means, to bring Christ down) <sup>7</sup> or, “Who will descend into the depths?’” (which means, to bring Christ up from the dead). <sup>8</sup> Rather, what does it say? “The Word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart.” This is the Word of faith, which we are preaching, <sup>9</sup> that if you confess with your mouth, “Jesus is Lord,” and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. <sup>10</sup> For with the heart a person believes, so that he is counted righteous and with the mouth a person confesses and then he is saved. <sup>11</sup> For the Scripture says, “The person who believes in Him will not be put to shame.” <sup>12</sup> For there is no difference between Jew and Greek. For the same Lord is over them all and gives His riches to all who call on Him. <sup>13</sup> For “Whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.” <sup>14</sup> How then are they to call on Him in whom they have not believed? Moreover, how are they to believe in Him of whom they have not heard? How are they to hear without a preacher? <sup>15</sup> How are they to preach unless they are sent? As Scripture has said: “How beautiful are the feet of those who tell good things as Good News!” <sup>16</sup> However, they have not all obeyed the Good News. For Isaiah asks: “Lord, who has believed our message?” <sup>17</sup> Therefore, faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the Word of Christ. <sup>18</sup> However, I ask, “They certainly have heard, have they not?” Indeed, they have! “Their voice has gone out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.” <sup>19</sup> However, I ask, “Israel has certainly known, have they not?” First Moses says, “I shall make you jealous by those who are not a nation. I shall make you angry by a people that has no understanding.” <sup>20</sup> Isaiah also boldly says, “I have been found by those who were not searching for Me. I have been revealed to those who were not asking for Me.” <sup>21</sup> He also says concerning Israel: “All day long I have been stretching out My hands to a disobedient and obstinate people.”

11

The continuing existence of a remnant of grace

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, I ask, “God has not rejected His people, has He?” Certainly not! For I also am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>2</sup> God has not rejected His people, whom He foreknew. Or do you not know what the Scripture says in the passage about Elijah when he pleads with God against Israel: <sup>3</sup> “Lord, they have killed Your prophets, they have torn down Your altars, and I alone am left, and they are trying to kill me?” <sup>4</sup> However, what was God’s answer to him? “I have reserved for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed their knees to Baal.” <sup>5</sup> Therefore, in this way also at the present time there is a remnant according to the election of grace. <sup>6</sup> Moreover, if it is by grace, it is no longer by works. Otherwise, grace would no longer be grace.

God’s way of saving “all Israel”

<sup>7</sup> What then? Israel has not obtained what it is searching for, but the elect have obtained it, and the others have been hardened. <sup>8</sup> It is as Scripture has said, “God has given them a spirit of deep sleep, eyes so that they do not see and ears so that they do not hear, to this very day.”

<sup>9</sup> David also says: “Let their table become a snare, a trap, a stumbling-block and a retribution for them!” <sup>10</sup> Let their eyes be darkened so they may not see, and let their backs always be bent!”

Salvation for the Gentiles, which has resulted from the fall of Israel

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, I ask, “They have not stumbled that they might fall, have they?” Certainly not! Rather, by their own transgression, to make them jealous, salvation has come to the Gentiles. <sup>12</sup> Moreover, if their transgression has made the world rich and their loss has made the Gentiles rich, how much greater riches will their fulfilment bring! <sup>13</sup> I am speaking to you Gentiles. Since I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I continue to glorify my ministry, <sup>14</sup> in the hope that I may somehow arouse my own people to envy and save some of them. <sup>15</sup> For, if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

<sup>16</sup> If the part of the dough offered as first-fruits is holy, so is the whole dough. If the root is holy, so are the branches. <sup>17</sup> However, if some of the branches have been broken off and you, a wild olive, have been grafted in among them and have become one who shares the rich sap from the root of the olive-tree, <sup>18</sup> do not boast over the other branches! Moreover, if you do boast, consider that you do not support the root, but the root supports you. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, you will say: "Branches have been broken off that I may be grafted in." <sup>20</sup> Right! They have been broken off because of unbelief, and you stand by faith. Do not be arrogant but be afraid! <sup>21</sup> For, if God has not spared the natural branches, be afraid that somehow He will not spare you, either! <sup>22</sup> Consider therefore how kind and how severe God is. He has been severe to those who have fallen but is kind to you, if you continue in His kindness. Otherwise, you also will be cut off. <sup>23</sup> If those people do not continue in their unbelief, they will be grafted in. For God can graft them in again. <sup>24</sup> For, if you have been cut from the olive-tree that is wild by nature and have, contrary to nature, been grafted into a cultivated olive-tree, how much more will these, who are natural branches, be grafted into their own olive-tree!

God's will that rejection should lead to Israel's salvation

<sup>25</sup> For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, fellow-Christians, that you may not be conceited: Hardening has come on Israel in part until the full number of the Gentiles comes in. <sup>26</sup> In this way all Israel will be saved, as Scripture has said: "The Deliverer will come out of Zion, He will turn ungodliness away from Jacob." <sup>27</sup> This will also be My Covenant with them when I take away their sins." <sup>28</sup> From the viewpoint of the Good News, they are enemies on your account, but, from the viewpoint of election, they are dearly loved because of their fathers. <sup>29</sup> For the gifts and the calling of God cannot be revoked. <sup>30</sup> For, as you were once disobedient to God, yet you have now obtained mercy through their disobedience, <sup>31</sup> so also these people have become disobedient now, while you enjoy mercy, that they also may now receive mercy. <sup>32</sup> For God has locked all people into disobedience that He may be merciful to all people.

<sup>33</sup> How deep are the riches of God's wisdom and knowledge! How impossible it is to search out His Decisions and to trace His ways! <sup>34</sup> For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has become His adviser? <sup>35</sup> Or who has first given God something that He should pay him back? <sup>36</sup> For all things are from Him and through Him and for Him. To Him be the glory for ever! Amen!

12

The life of the person who through faith is righteous (12:1-15:13)

God's mercy as the motive for ethics

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, I appeal to you, fellow-Christians, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God. This is your spiritual worship. <sup>2</sup> Do not conform to this world but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, that you may approve of what God wants, namely, what is good, pleasing and perfect!

Admonitions to live for others in Christ

<sup>3</sup> For I tell everyone among you, through the grace that God has given to me: Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought to think! Rather, think of yourself with sober judgment, as God has given a measure of faith to each one! <sup>4</sup> For, as we have many members in one body and the members do not all have the same function, <sup>5</sup> so we, who are many, are one body in Christ and individually members of one another. <sup>6</sup> We have charismatic gifts that are different according to the grace that has been given to us. If we have prophecy, let us use it in agreement with the faith! <sup>7</sup> If we have ministry, let us use it in our ministering! If anyone is a teacher, let him use it in teaching! <sup>8</sup> If anyone encourages others, let him use it in encouraging! If anyone shares, let him be generous! If anyone is a leader, let him do it diligently! If anyone shows mercy, let him do it cheerfully!

Specific forms of conduct that are prompted by love

13

<sup>1</sup> Let everyone be subordinate to the governing authorities! For there is no authority except from God, and the authorities that exist have been ordained by God. <sup>2</sup> Therefore, he who refuses to subordinate himself to the authority resists God's ordinance, and those who resist it will bring judgment on themselves. <sup>3</sup> For rulers hold no terror for those who do right but for those who do wrong. Do you want to be free from fear of the governing authority? Do what is right, and it will praise you! <sup>4</sup> For it is God's servant for your benefit. However, if you do wrong, you should be afraid! For it does not bear the sword for nothing. It is God's servant, an avenger that is an agent of wrath to anyone who does wrong. <sup>5</sup> Therefore, it is necessary to subordinate oneself, not only because of God's wrath but also because of conscience. <sup>6</sup> For that is why you also pay taxes. For they are God's servants, who attend continually to this work. <sup>7</sup> Pay to all what you owe them! If you owe anyone tribute, pay tribute; if taxes, then taxes; if respect, then respect; if honour, then honour!

The fulfilment of the Law through love

<sup>8</sup> Do not owe anyone anything, except to love one another! For the person who loves the other person has fulfilled the Law. <sup>9</sup> For the Commandments, "You shall not commit adultery!" "You shall not murder!" "You shall not steal!" "You shall not covet!" and whatever other Commandment there may be are summed up in this: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself!" <sup>10</sup> Love does no harm to the neighbour. Therefore, love is the fulfilment of the Law.

Admonitions to lay aside indecent living and to put on the Lord Jesus Christ

<sup>11</sup> Do this, since you know the time, that now it is the hour for you to wake up from sleep! For our salvation is nearer now than when we first began to believe.

<sup>12</sup> The night has advanced, and the day is almost here. Therefore, let us lay aside the works of darkness and let us put on the weapons of light! <sup>13</sup> Let us live decently as in the daytime, not in excessive feasting or getting drunk, not in sinning sexually and living wildly, not in quarrelling and being jealous! <sup>14</sup> Rather, put on the Lord Jesus Christ and do not be concerned to gratify the desires of the sinful nature!

14

The relationship of strong Christians and weak Christians to each other (14:1-15:13)

<sup>1</sup> Welcome the person who is weak in the faith but not that you may get into quarrels about opinions! <sup>2</sup> One person believes he may eat anything, but another person, who is weak, eats only vegetables. <sup>3</sup> The person who eats should not despise the person who does not eat, and the person who does not eat should not criticise the person who eats! For God has accepted him. <sup>4</sup> Who are you to criticise someone else's servant? It is with reference to his own master that he succeeds or fails. He will also succeed. For the Lord can make him succeed. <sup>5</sup> For one person thinks that one day is better than another is, and another person thinks that every day is alike. Each one should be fully convinced in his own mind! <sup>6</sup> The person who observes the day observes it to the Lord. The person who eats eats to the Lord. For he gives thanks to God. The person who does not eat refrains from eating to the Lord and gives thanks to God. <sup>7</sup> For none of us lives to himself, and no one dies to himself. <sup>8</sup> For, if we live, we live to the Lord; and, if we die, we die to the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. <sup>9</sup> For Christ died and became alive again for this purpose: that He might be the Lord of both the dead and the living. <sup>10</sup> However, why do you criticise your fellow-Christian? Or why do you too despise your fellow-Christian? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of God. <sup>11</sup> For Scripture has said: "As surely as I live,' says the Lord, 'every knee will bow before Me, and every tongue will make confession to God.'" <sup>12</sup> So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God. <sup>13</sup> Therefore, let us not criticise one another any longer! Rather, make up your minds not to lay any stumbling-block or obstacle in the way of a fellow-Christian! <sup>14</sup> I know and am convinced in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself; except that, when a person thinks that something is unclean, it is unclean to him. <sup>15</sup> For, if your fellow-Christian is distressed because of what you eat, you are not living in love any longer. Do not, by what you eat, destroy the person for whom Christ has died! <sup>16</sup> Therefore, let your good thing not be spoken of as evil! <sup>17</sup> For the kingdom of God is not food and drink but righteousness, peace and joy in the Holy Spirit. <sup>18</sup> For the person who serves Christ in this way is pleasing to God and approved by human beings. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, let us pursue the things that make for peace and the things by which we build one another up! <sup>20</sup> Do not destroy the work of God for the sake of food! All things are clean, but it is an evil thing if a person eats something when it causes someone else to stumble. <sup>21</sup> It is a good thing not to eat meat, drink wine or do anything else that causes your fellow-Christian to stumble. <sup>22</sup> Keep for yourself before God the conviction that you have! Blessed is the person who does not condemn himself because of something that he regards as right! <sup>23</sup> However, the person who has doubts has been condemned if he eats, because he has not done it out of conviction. Anything that does not come from conviction is sin.

<sup>1</sup> However, we who are strong ought to be patient with the scruples of the weak and ought not to please ourselves. <sup>2</sup> Let each of us please his neighbour for his good, to build him up! <sup>3</sup> For even Christ did not please Himself, but, as Scripture has said: "The insults of those who were insulting You have fallen on Me." <sup>4</sup> For all the things that were written long ago were written to teach us, that we might have hope through the patient endurance and encouragement that the Scriptures give us. <sup>5</sup> May God, who gives you patient endurance and encouragement, give you harmony with one another according to Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup> that you may with one mind and one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! <sup>7</sup> Therefore, receive one another, as Christ has also received you, to glorify God! <sup>8</sup> For I say that Christ has become a servant of the Jews on behalf of the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers, <sup>9</sup> that the Gentiles may glorify God for His mercy, as Scripture has said: "Therefore, I shall praise You among the Gentiles and sing psalms to Your name." <sup>10</sup> Again it says, "Rejoice, Gentiles, together with His people!" <sup>11</sup> Again: "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and let all the peoples commend Him.” <sup>12</sup> Again Isaiah says, “The Root of Jesse will come, even One who will arise to rule over the Gentiles. The Gentiles will hope in Him.” <sup>13</sup> May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you believe, that you may be very hopeful, by the power of the Holy Spirit!

Conclusion (15:14-16:27)

Paul's travel-plans

<sup>14</sup> I myself am confident about you, my fellow-Christians, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge and able to admonish one another. <sup>15</sup> However, I am writing to you rather boldly in some places, as if I were reminding you, because of the gracious privilege that has been given to me by God, <sup>16</sup> that I should be a minister of Christ Jesus for the Gentiles in the priestly service of the Good News of God, that the offering of the Gentiles may be acceptable, having been made holy by the Holy Spirit. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, I have this reason for boasting in Christ Jesus about my relationship to God. <sup>18</sup> For I shall not dare to speak about anything that Christ has not accomplished through me, in Word and deed, to make the Gentiles obedient, <sup>19</sup> by the power of miraculous signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God, so that I have fully proclaimed the Good News of Christ from Jerusalem all the way around to Illyricum. <sup>20</sup> In this way, it has been my ambition to tell the Good News only where the name of Christ has not been known, that I may not build on someone else's foundation. <sup>21</sup> Rather, as Scripture has said: “Those who have not had it announced to them about Him will see, and those who have not heard will understand.” <sup>22</sup> That is also why I have so often been prevented from coming to you. <sup>23</sup> However, now I have no more opportunity in these regions and have been longing for many years to come to you, <sup>24</sup> whenever it is that I journey to Spain. For I hope to see you while I am passing through and, if I have first enjoyed being with you for a while, I hope to be sent on my way there by you. <sup>25</sup> Now, however, I am going to Jerusalem in the service of God's holy people. <sup>26</sup> For Macedonia and Greece have kindly decided to contribute for those who are poor among God's holy people in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup> They have indeed kindly decided it and are in debt to them. For, if the Gentiles have had a share of the Jews' spiritual goods, the Gentiles owe it to the Jews to serve them with their material goods. <sup>28</sup> Therefore, when I have completed this and have safely delivered this harvest to them, I shall come to you on my way to Spain. <sup>29</sup> I know that, when I come to you, I shall come with the full blessing of Christ. <sup>30</sup> I urge you, fellow-Christians, through our Lord Jesus Christ and through the love of the Spirit, to join me in my struggle by praying to God for me, <sup>31</sup> that I may be rescued from those in Judea who do not believe and that my service to Jerusalem may be acceptable to God's holy people, <sup>32</sup> so that, by the will of God, I may come to you with joy and be refreshed in your company. <sup>33</sup> May the God of peace be with you all! Amen.

Fellowship-greetings to house-churches in Rome and a warning to avoid errorists (16:1-27)

<sup>1</sup> I commend to you Phoebe, our fellow-Christian. She is also a servant of the church at Cenchreae. <sup>2</sup> Welcome her in the Lord in a way that is worthy of God's holy people and give her help in whatever matter she needs it from you! For indeed she has been a helper of many people and of myself also. <sup>3</sup> Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow-workers in Christ Jesus, <sup>4</sup> who have risked their own necks for my life! Not only I but also all the churches of the Gentiles are grateful to them. <sup>5</sup> Greet also the church that meets in their house! Greet my dear Epaenetus, who was the first convert to Christ in Asia! <sup>6</sup> Greet Mary, who has worked very hard for you! <sup>7</sup> Greet Andronicus and Junia, my relatives, who have been in prison with me! They are well known to the apostles. They also were in Christ before I was. <sup>8</sup> Greet Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord! <sup>9</sup> Greet Urbanus our fellow-worker in Christ and my dear Stachys! <sup>10</sup> Greet Apelles, a tried and true Christian! Greet those who belong to the household of Aristobulus! <sup>11</sup> Greet my relative Herodion! Greet those people in the household of Narcissus who are in the Lord! <sup>12</sup> Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who have worked hard in the Lord! All the churches of Christ greet you. <sup>17</sup> I urge you, fellow-Christians, to watch out for those who cause the divisions and the obstacles that are contrary to the teaching that you have learned and turn away from them. <sup>18</sup> For such people are not serving Christ our Lord but their own appetites and by their smooth words and flattering talk are deceiving the hearts of unsuspecting people. <sup>19</sup> For the report about your obedience has reached everyone. Therefore, I am glad about you but want you to be wise about what is good and innocent about what is evil. <sup>20</sup> The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. May the grace of our Lord Jesus be with you! <sup>21</sup> My fellow-worker Timothy greets you. So do Lucius, Jason and Sosipater, my relatives. <sup>22</sup> I, Tertius, who have written down this letter, greet you in the Lord. <sup>23</sup> Gaius, my host and the host of the whole church, greets you. Erastus, the city-treasurer, greets you and Quartus, our fellow-Christian. <sup>*182</sup>

<sup>182</sup> Later manuscripts have a verse Romans 16:24, most of the words of which are at the end of verse 20.

Romans

<sup>25</sup> To Him who can make you strong according to my Good News and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that has been kept in silence for long ages, <sup>26</sup> but has now been revealed and made known through the writings of the prophets, as the eternal God has commanded, that all the nations may be obedient by believing, <sup>27</sup> to the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, be glory for ever! Amen.

Congregational problems reported to Paul (1:1-6:20)

Factions in the church (1:1-4:21)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, called to be an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, together with Sosthenes, our fellow-Christian, <sup>2</sup> to the church of God at Corinth, to those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, called, holy people, with all those everywhere who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours: <sup>3</sup> Grace and peace to you from God, our Father and the Lord, Jesus Christ! <sup>4</sup> I am always thanking my God for you for the grace of God, which has been given to you in Christ Jesus. <sup>5</sup> For in Him you have been made rich in every way, in all speech and all knowledge, <sup>6</sup> just as the testimony about Christ has been confirmed in you. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, you do not lack any charismatic gift as you eagerly wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to be revealed. <sup>8</sup> He will also make you firm until the end, that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup> God, who has called you into the fellowship of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, is faithful.

<sup>10</sup> I appeal to you, fellow-Christians, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all agree with one another, that there may be no divisions among you and that you may be perfectly united with the same mind and with the same judgment! <sup>11</sup> For, my fellow-Christians, Chloe's people have informed me about you, that there are quarrels among you. <sup>12</sup> What I mean is this: Each of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ." <sup>13</sup> Has Christ been divided? Surely Paul was not crucified for you? Or were you baptised into the name of Paul? <sup>14</sup> I thank God that I did not baptise any of you except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>15</sup> that none of you may say that you have been baptised into my name. <sup>16</sup> Yes, I also baptised the family of Stephanas. Beyond that, I do not know whether I baptised anyone else. <sup>17</sup> For Christ has not sent me to baptise but to tell the Good News, not with wise words, that the cross of Christ may not be emptied of its power.

The crucified Christ as the wisdom and power of God

<sup>18</sup> For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. <sup>19</sup> For Scripture says: "I shall destroy the wisdom of wise people and frustrate the intelligence of intelligent people." <sup>20</sup> Where is the wise man? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this age? Has God not made foolish the wisdom of the world? <sup>21</sup> For, since the world by its wisdom has not come to know God, God has graciously resolved, in His wisdom, to use the foolishness of the preached message to save those who believe. <sup>22</sup> For Jews ask for miraculous signs, and Greeks look for wisdom.

<sup>23</sup> However, we preach a crucified Christ, to the Jews a stumbling-block and to the Greeks foolishness; <sup>24</sup> but to those whom God has called, both Jews and Greeks, we preach Christ, the power of God and the wisdom of God. <sup>25</sup> For God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom, and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.

<sup>26</sup> For see what you were, fellow-Christians, when God called you! Not many of you were wise from a human point of view, not many were influential and not many were born of noble parents. <sup>27</sup> However, God has chosen the foolish things in the world to put those who are wise to shame. God has chosen the weak things in the world to put those who are strong to shame. <sup>28</sup> God has chosen the lowly things in the world, the things that are despised and the things that are not, to bring to nothing the things that are, <sup>29</sup> that no one may boast before God. <sup>30</sup> However, you are from Him in Christ Jesus, who has become for us wisdom from God and righteousness, holiness and redemption, <sup>31</sup> that it may be as Scripture has said, "Let the one who boasts boast in the Lord!"

<sup>1</sup> When I came to you, fellow-Christians, to proclaim the testimony of God to you, I did not come as a person who was superior in speech or wisdom. <sup>2</sup> For I determined not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ and Him crucified. <sup>3</sup> I came to you in weakness, in fear and with much trembling. <sup>4</sup> I did not speak and preach with persuasive words of wisdom but with the demonstration of the Spirit and power, <sup>5</sup> that your faith might not rest on human wisdom but on the power of God.

The wisdom that comes from the Spirit of God

<sup>6</sup> However, we speak wisdom to those who are mature but not the wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are coming to nothing. <sup>7</sup> No, we tell about the wisdom of God in a mystery, a wisdom that has been hidden but that God ordained before the ages for our glory. <sup>8</sup> None of those who rule this world has known it. For, if they had known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. <sup>9</sup> Rather, as Scripture has said, "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, and no mind has comprehended what God has prepared for those who love Him." <sup>10</sup> Nevertheless, God has revealed it to us through His Spirit. The Spirit searches out all things, even the deep things of God. <sup>11</sup> For what human being knows the things that belong to the human being except the human being's spirit in him? In the same way, no one knows the things that belong to God except the Spirit of God. <sup>12</sup> We have not received the spirit of the world but the Spirit who comes from God, that we may know the things that God has freely given to us. <sup>13</sup> We speaking about these things in words not taught by human wisdom but in Words taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual things to those who have the Spirit. <sup>14</sup> However, an unspiritual person does not receive the things of the Spirit of God. For they are foolishness to him, and he cannot know them because they are discerned spiritually. <sup>15</sup> The spiritual person judges all things but he himself is not judged by anyone. <sup>16</sup> For “who has known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct Him?” However, we have the mind of Christ.

God's use of ministers to plant and build

<sup>1</sup> Fellow-Christians, I could not speak to you as spiritual people but as worldly people, as infants in Christ. <sup>2</sup> I gave you milk to drink, not solid food, because you could not receive it yet. Indeed, even now you cannot receive it. <sup>3</sup> For you are still influenced by your sinful natures. For, when there are jealousy and quarrelling among you, are you not influenced by your sinful natures and living by human standards? <sup>4</sup> When one says, “I belong to Paul,” and another, “I belong to Apollos,” are you not being like ordinary human beings? <sup>5</sup> What is Apollos? Or what is Paul? They are ministers through whom you have become believers, and each one has had what the Lord has assigned him. <sup>6</sup> I have planted, Apollos has watered, but God has caused the growth. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything but God, who causes the growth. <sup>8</sup> The one who plants and the one who waters are one, and each will receive his own reward according to his own labour. <sup>9</sup> For we are God's fellow-workers. You are God's field. You are God's building. <sup>10</sup> In accordance with the grace that God has given me, I have laid a foundation as an expert master-builder, and somebody else is continuing to build on it. However, each one should be careful how he builds on it! <sup>11</sup> For no one can lay any other foundation than the one that has already been laid, which is Jesus Christ. <sup>12</sup> If anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver or precious stones, wood, hay or straw, <sup>13</sup> each one's work will become evident. For that day will show it, because it will be revealed by fire, and the fire will test the quality of each man's work. <sup>14</sup> If anyone's work that he has built on it survives, he will receive a reward. <sup>15</sup> If anyone's work is burnt, he will suffer loss; but he himself will be saved but only as one escaping through fire. <sup>16</sup> Do you not know that you are the temple of God and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? <sup>17</sup> If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him. For the temple of God is holy, and you are that temple. <sup>18</sup> No one should deceive himself! If anyone among you thinks that he is wise in this world, he should become a fool, that he may become wise! <sup>19</sup> For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For Scripture has said, “He catches the wise people by their own craftiness;” <sup>20</sup> and again, “The Lord knows that the thoughts of wise people are futile.” <sup>21</sup> Therefore, let no one boast about human beings! For all things are yours, <sup>22</sup> whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or life or death or the present or the future. All are yours, <sup>23</sup> and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

The ministry of Christ's apostles

<sup>1</sup> Let a person regard us as servants of Christ and stewards of God's mysteries! <sup>2</sup> In this case, moreover, it is required of stewards that a person should be found faithful. <sup>3</sup> However, with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you or by a human court. Indeed, I do not even judge myself. <sup>4</sup> I am not conscious of anything against myself, but this does not justify me. He who judges me is the Lord. <sup>5</sup> Therefore, do not judge anything before the appointed time, before the Lord comes! He will bring to light the things that are hidden in darkness and will expose the plans in people's hearts. Then each one will receive his praise from God. <sup>6</sup> Fellow-Christians, I have applied these things to myself and to Apollos for your benefit, that you may learn from us the meaning of the saying, “Do not go beyond what Scripture has said!” that none of you may be puffed up in favour of one against the other.

<sup>7</sup> For who makes you different from anyone else? What do you have that you have not received? Moreover, if you have received it, why do you boast as if you had not received it? <sup>8</sup> So, you have already received all you could wish! You have already become rich! You have become kings without us! I only wish you had become kings, that we too might be kings with you! <sup>9</sup> For I think that God has put us apostles on display at the end of the procession, like men condemned to die, because we have been made a spectacle for the world, to angels as well as to men. <sup>10</sup> We are fools because of Christ, but you are wise in Christ! We are weak, but you are strong! You are distinguished, but we are dishonoured! <sup>11</sup> Up to the present hour we are hungry, are thirsty, are poorly clothed, are roughly treated, are homeless <sup>12</sup> and work hard, toiling with our hands. When we are insulted, we bless. When we are persecuted, we endure it. <sup>13</sup> When we are slandered, we entreat. We have until now become the refuse of the world, the scum of all things.

<sup>14</sup> I am not writing these things to make you feel ashamed but to warn you as my dear children. <sup>15</sup> For, although you have ten thousand guardians in Christ, you do not have many fathers, because in Christ Jesus I have become your father through the Good News. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, I urge you, be imitators of me! <sup>17</sup> That is why I am sending Timothy to you. He is my dear and faithful son in the Lord. He will remind you about my ways in Christ Jesus, as I teach them everywhere in every church. <sup>18</sup> Some people have become arrogant, as though I were not coming to you. <sup>19</sup> However, I shall come to you soon, if the Lord wills, and shall find out, not what the arrogant people are saying but what power they have. <sup>20</sup> For the kingdom of God is not a matter of talk but of power. <sup>21</sup> Which do you prefer? Am I to come to you with a rod or with love and a gentle spirit?

5

The need to deal with public immorality in people who have the reputation of being fellow-Christians (5:1-6:20)

An admonition to expel a wicked member

<sup>1</sup> It is actually reported that there is sexual sin among you, and such sexual sin as does not occur even among the Gentiles, that a man has his father's wife. <sup>2</sup> You have even become arrogant and have not mourned instead, that the man who has done this deed may be removed from among you. <sup>3</sup> For, although I am absent physically, I am present in spirit; and, as though I were present, I have already judged the man who has committed this in this way. <sup>4</sup> In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you have gathered together and when my spirit is with you, together with the power of our Lord Jesus, <sup>5</sup> hand the person who is like this over to Satan, to destroy his sinful flesh, that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord! <sup>6</sup> Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little yeast leavens the whole batch of dough? <sup>7</sup> Clean away the old yeast, that you may be a new batch of dough, just as you are unleavened! For indeed Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed. <sup>8</sup> Therefore, let us keep the feast, not with old leaven and not with the leaven of vice and wickedness but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth! <sup>9</sup> I have written to you in my letter not to associate with sexually immoral people — <sup>10</sup> I did not mean that you should altogether keep away from people of this world who live in sexual sin or from those who are greedy, who are swindlers or who worship idols; since, in that case, you would have had to get out of the world. <sup>11</sup> However, now I am writing to you that you should not associate with anyone who calls himself a fellow-Christian and yet is sexually immoral or greedy or worships idols or is a slanderer or a drunkard or a swindler. Do not even eat with the person who is like this! <sup>12</sup> For what business is it of mine to judge those who are outside? Do you not judge those who are inside? <sup>13</sup> God will judge those who are outside. “Expel the wicked man from among yourselves!”

<sup>1</sup> When one of you has a case against another, does he dare to go to law before unrighteous people instead of before God's holy people? <sup>2</sup> Or do you not know that God's holy people will judge the world? If the world will be judged by you, are you incompetent to decide very insignificant cases? <sup>3</sup> Do you not know that we shall judge angels? How much more the things that belong to this life? <sup>4</sup> Therefore, if you have matters to decide that belong to this life, do you appoint as judges men who are of no account in the church? <sup>5</sup> I say this to shame you. Is it so that there is no one among you who will be wise enough to decide a matter between his fellow-Christians? <sup>6</sup> Instead, one Christian goes to law against another, and this happens in front of unbelievers! <sup>7</sup> The fact that you have lawsuits against one another means that you have completely failed already. Why do you not rather be wronged? Why do you not rather let yourselves be cheated? <sup>8</sup> Instead, you yourselves are doing wrong and cheating and are doing this to fellow-Christians.

An admonition to flee sexual immorality

<sup>12</sup> “All things are permissible for me” — but not all things are beneficial. “All things are permissible for me” — but I shall not be brought under anyone's control. <sup>13</sup> “Foods are for the stomach, and the stomach is for foods” - but God will put an end to both it and them. The body is not for sexual sin but for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body. <sup>14</sup> God has both raised the Lord and will also raise us by His power. <sup>15</sup> Do you not know that your bodies are the members of Christ? Shall I therefore take the members of Christ and make them the members of a prostitute? Certainly not! <sup>16</sup> Or do you not know that he who unites himself with a prostitute is one body with her? For God says: “The two will become one flesh.” <sup>17</sup> However, he who is united with the Lord is one spirit with Him. <sup>18</sup> Flee from sexual sin! Every other sin that a person commits is outside the body. However, the person who sins sexually sins against his own body. <sup>19</sup> Or do you not know that your bodies are the temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? <sup>20</sup> For you have been bought at a price. Therefore, glorify God with your bodies!

7

Questions raised by the Corinthian Christians (7:1-15:58)

1. marriage and celibacy (7:1-40)

time, that you may devote yourselves to prayer, and that you may come together again, that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control! <sup>6</sup> However, I say this as a concession, not as a command. <sup>7</sup> I wish that all people were just like me. However, each one has his own gift from God, one in this way, and another in that way. <sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, I say to those who are not married and to the widows: It is good for them if they remain just like me; <sup>9</sup> but, if they cannot exercise self-control, let them marry! For it is better to marry than to burn with passion. <sup>10</sup> To those who have married I give this command (not I, but the Lord): A wife must not separate from her husband! <sup>11</sup> However, if she does separate, let her remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband! A husband must also not divorce his wife!

Advice to Christians who are married to unbelievers

<sup>12</sup> To the rest I say this (I, not the Lord): If a Christian man has a wife who is not a believer and she is willing to live with him, he must not divorce her! <sup>13</sup> If a woman has a husband who is not a believer and he is willing to live with her, she must also not divorce her husband! <sup>14</sup> For the unbelieving husband has been consecrated through his wife, and the unbelieving wife has been consecrated through her husband. For otherwise your children would be unclean but now are holy. <sup>15</sup> However, if the unbelieving person separates, let him separate! A Christian man or woman has not been bound like a slave in such cases. However, God has called us in peace. <sup>16</sup> For, wife, what do you know, whether you will save your husband? Or, husband, what do you know, whether you will save your wife?

Advice to Christians to continue as they were when God called them

<sup>17</sup> Nevertheless, each one should live as the Lord has assigned to him, as God has called each one! This is the rule that I am making in all the churches. <sup>18</sup> Has anyone been called after he has been circumcised? Let him not get rid of his circumcision! Has anyone been called when he has been uncircumcised? He should not be circumcised! <sup>19</sup> Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but keeping the Commandments of God is what matters. <sup>20</sup> Each one should remain in the calling he was in when he was called! <sup>21</sup> Were you a slave when you were called? Do not be concerned about it! However, if you can become a free man, rather, make use of your freedom! <sup>22</sup> For he who has been called in the Lord while a slave is the Lord's freedman. Similarly, he who has been called while a free man is a slave of Christ. <sup>23</sup> You have been bought for a price. Do not become the slaves of human beings! <sup>24</sup> Fellow-Christians, let each one remain with God in the situation he was in when he was called!

Advice to unmarried and widowed people

<sup>25</sup> Now concerning virgins I have no command from the Lord but am giving you a judgment as a person who has been shown mercy by the Lord, so that I am trustworthy. <sup>26</sup> I think, therefore, that this is good because of the present crisis: that it is a fine thing for a person to remain as he is. <sup>27</sup> Have you been bound to a wife? Do not try to get a divorce! Are you free from a wife? Do not try to get a wife! <sup>28</sup> However, if you do get married, you have not sinned; and, if a virgin gets married, she has not sinned. However, I would like to spare you the trouble that such people will have in this physical life.

<sup>29</sup> This is what I am saying, my fellow-Christians: the time has been shortened. From now on even those who have wives should be as if they had none! <sup>30</sup> Those who weep should be as though they were not weeping! Those who rejoice should be as though they were not rejoicing! Those who buy should be as though they did not possess! <sup>31</sup> Those who use the world should be as though they were not using it! For the form of this world is passing away. <sup>32</sup> However, I want you to be free from concern. An unmarried man is concerned about the affairs of the Lord, how he may please the Lord. <sup>33</sup> However, he who has married is concerned about the affairs of the world, how he may please his wife, <sup>34</sup> and his interests have been divided. The unmarried woman or the virgin is concerned about the affairs of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. However, the woman who has married is concerned about the affairs of the world, how she may please her husband. <sup>35</sup> I am saying this for your own good, not to throw a noose on you but with a view to good order and that you may be devoted to the Lord without being distracted. <sup>36</sup> If anyone thinks that he is acting improperly toward his fiancée if she is past the bloom of youth and that he ought to get married, he should do what he wishes! He is not sinning. They should get married! <sup>37</sup> However, the man who stands firm in his own mind, who is under no compulsion, but who has control over his own will and who has made up his mind to keep his fiancée as she is, will be doing right. <sup>38</sup> Therefore, both the man who gives his own daughter in marriage is doing right and he who does not give her in marriage will be doing better. <sup>39</sup> A wife has been bound to her husband while he is alive. If her husband dies, she is free to marry anyone whom she wishes but only in the Lord. <sup>40</sup> However, she is more blessed if she remains as she is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

The question of weak consciences when food has been sacrificed to idols (8:1-10:33)

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning the meat sacrificed to idols: We know that all of us have some knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. <sup>2</sup> The person who thinks that he knows something does not yet know as he ought to know. <sup>3</sup> However, if anyone loves God, God knows him. <sup>4</sup> Therefore, about eating meat that has been sacrificed to idols: We know that an idol is nothing in the world and that there is no other God but one. <sup>5</sup> For, even if there are so-called "gods," either in heaven or on earth (as there are many "gods" and many "lords"), <sup>6</sup> yet for us there is only one God, the Father, from whom all things come, and we exist for Him, and there is only one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things come, and we exist through Him.

<sup>7</sup> However, not everyone knows this. Some are still now so accustomed to an idol that they think about the meat that they eat as something that has been sacrificed to an idol and, since their consciences are weak, they are defiled. <sup>8</sup> Food will not commend us to God. We lose nothing if we do not eat and gain nothing if we do eat. <sup>9</sup> However, beware that somehow this liberty of yours does not become the thing that causes weak people to stumble! <sup>10</sup> For, if anyone who is weak sees you, who have this knowledge, sitting at a meal in a temple of an idol, will not his conscience be encouraged to eat the meat that has been sacrificed to idols? <sup>11</sup> For the weak person is being destroyed by your knowledge, your fellow-Christian, for whom Christ died. <sup>12</sup> However, when you sin against your fellow-Christians in this way and wound their weak consciences, you sin against Christ. <sup>13</sup> Therefore, if food causes my fellow-Christian to stumble, I shall certainly never eat meat, that I may not cause my fellow-Christian to stumble.

Paul's surrender of his right to receive remuneration

<sup>1</sup> Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are you not my work in the Lord? <sup>2</sup> If I am not an apostle to others, I certainly am one to you. For you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord. <sup>3</sup> This is my defence to those who sit in judgment on me. <sup>4</sup> Surely it is not so that we have no right to eat and drink? <sup>5</sup> Surely it is not so that we have no right to take along a Christian wife like the rest of the apostles, the brothers of the Lord and Peter? <sup>6</sup> Or is it only Barnabas and I who do not have a right to refrain from working? <sup>7</sup> Does a soldier ever pay his own expenses? Does anyone plant a vineyard and not eat its grapes? Or does anyone take care of a flock and not drink any milk from it? <sup>8</sup> Am I merely stating a man-made rule? Does the Law not say the same thing? <sup>9</sup> For the Law of Moses says, "Do not muzzle an ox when he is treading out grain." God is certainly not concerned about oxen, is He? <sup>10</sup> His Words have only us in mind, do they not? This has been written to show us that the person who ploughs or threshes ought to do so with the expectation that he will receive a share of the crop. <sup>11</sup> If we have sown spiritual life in you, is it too much if we reap your earthly goods? <sup>12</sup> If others have the right to expect this from you, do we not have a better claim? However, we have not made use of this right. Rather, we put up with anything that we may not hinder the Good News of Christ.

<sup>13</sup> Do you not know that the men who work at the Temple receive their share of what is on the altar? <sup>14</sup> In the same way, the Lord has commanded that those who preach the Good News should receive their living from the Good News. <sup>15</sup> However, I have not used any of these rights. I am not writing this to have such things done for me. For I would rather die than let anyone take away my boast. <sup>16</sup> If I tell the Good News, I have nothing to boast about, because I am compelled to preach it. How terrible for me if I do not tell the Good News! <sup>17</sup> For, if I do it because I want to do it, I receive a reward. However, if I do not want to do it, I still have this work entrusted to me.

<sup>18</sup> What then is my reward? Just this: That when I tell the Good News, I shall not let the Good News cost anyone anything, that I may not take advantage of my authority in the Good News.

Paul's use of his freedom with different kinds of people

<sup>19</sup> For, although I am free from all people, I have made myself a slave to all, that I may win more. <sup>20</sup> To the Jews I have become like a Jew, that I may win Jews. To those who are under the Law I have become like one under the Law, although I myself am not under the Law, that I may win those who are under the Law. <sup>21</sup> To those who are without the Law I have become like one who is without Law, although I am not without God's Law but am under Christ's law —, that I may win those who are without the Law. <sup>22</sup> To weak persons I have become a weak person, that I may win those who are weak. I have become all things to all people, that in every way I may save some. <sup>23</sup> I am doing everything because of the Good News, that I may become a participant in it. <sup>24</sup> Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but only one wins the prize? Run in such a way that you may win! <sup>25</sup> Everyone who enters an athletic contest goes into strict training. Now, they do it to win a wreath that withers, but we do it to win one that never withers. <sup>26</sup> Therefore, I am not like one who runs aimlessly. I do not box like one who beats the air. <sup>27</sup> Rather, I treat my body roughly and make it my slave, so that, after I have been a herald to others, I myself may not be disqualified.

10

<sup>1</sup> I want you to know, fellow-Christians, that our fathers were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea. <sup>2</sup> They were all baptised into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. <sup>3</sup> They all ate the same spiritual food <sup>4</sup> and they all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual Rock that accompanied them, and that Rock was Christ. <sup>5</sup> Yet God was not pleased with most of them. For they were scattered over the desert. <sup>6</sup> Now, these things happened as examples for us, that we might not covet evil things as they coveted them. <sup>7</sup> Do not be idolaters, as some of them were, as the Scripture has said, "The people sat down to eat and drink and got up to play!" <sup>8</sup> Let us not sin sexually as some of them did! Twenty-three thousand fell on one day. <sup>9</sup> Let us not put Christ to a test, as some of them did! They were destroyed by snakes. <sup>10</sup> Do not grumble, as some of them grumbled! The angel of death destroyed them. <sup>11</sup> These things happened to them to give examples to others and were written down to warn us, on whom the fulfilment of the ages has come. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, the one who thinks that he is standing firm should beware that he does not fall. <sup>13</sup> No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to all human beings. However, God is faithful. He will not allow you to be tested beyond what you can bear. Rather, when you are tested, He will also make the way of escape, that you may be able to bear it.

A warning that sacrifices to idols involve communion with the demons behind them

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, dearly loved people, flee from the worship of idols! <sup>15</sup> I am talking as to people who are sensible. Judge for yourselves what I am saying! <sup>16</sup> Is not the cup of blessing that we bless the communion of the blood of Christ? Is not the bread that we break the communion of the body of Christ? <sup>17</sup> Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body. For we all partake of the one bread. <sup>18</sup> Consider Israel according to human standards! Are not those who eat from the sacrifices partners in the altar? <sup>19</sup> What am I saying, then? That a sacrifice made to an idol is anything or that an idol is anything? <sup>20</sup> Rather, I am saying that what they are offering they are sacrificing to demons and not to God. I do not want you to become partners with demons. <sup>21</sup> You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You cannot partake from the table of the Lord and from the table of demons. <sup>22</sup> Or are we trying to make the Lord jealous? We are not stronger than He is, are we?

Advice about freedom and conscientious scruples

<sup>23</sup> “All things are permissible” — but not all things are beneficial. “All things are permissible” — but not all things are constructive. <sup>24</sup> Let no one try to get his own advantage but that of the other person! <sup>25</sup> Eat whatever is sold in the meat-market, without asking any questions because of your consciences! <sup>26</sup> For “The earth is the Lord’s, and all that fills it.” <sup>27</sup> If one of the unbelievers invites you and you wish to go, eat whatever is set before you, without asking any questions because of your consciences! <sup>28</sup> However, if someone tells you, “This has been sacrificed to idols,” do not eat it, because of the man who has informed you and because of conscience! <sup>29</sup> I say “conscience,” meaning not your own but the other person’s. For why is my freedom being judged by someone else’s conscience? <sup>30</sup> If I partake with thankfulness, why am I being denounced because of something when I thank God for it? <sup>31</sup> Therefore, whether you eat or drink or do anything else, do everything to glorify God! <sup>32</sup> Do not give any offence, either to Jews or to Greeks or to the church of God, <sup>33</sup> just as I also try to please all people in every way! I do not try to get my own advantage but that of many people, that they may be saved.

11

The custom of the head-covering for women

<sup>2</sup> I praise you for thinking of me in every way and for keeping the teachings as I have delivered them to you.

<sup>3</sup> I want you to know that the head of every man is Christ, the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God. <sup>4</sup> Every man who prays or prophesies with his head covered dishonours his head. <sup>5</sup> Every woman who prays or prophesies with her head uncovered also dishonours her head. For that is one and the same thing as if her head were shaved. <sup>6</sup> For, if a woman is not covered, let her also have her hair cut off! However, if it is shameful for a woman to have her hair cut or shaved off, let her be covered! <sup>7</sup> For a man ought not to cover his head! For he is the image and glory of God; but woman is the glory of man. <sup>8</sup> For man is not from woman, but woman from man. <sup>9</sup> Nor was man created because of the woman but woman because of the man. <sup>10</sup> For this reason, the woman ought to have authority on her head because of the angels! <sup>11</sup> Nevertheless, neither is woman without man nor man without woman in the Lord. <sup>12</sup> For, as the woman was from the man, even so, the man also is through the woman; but all things are from God. <sup>13</sup> Judge among yourselves! Is it proper for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? <sup>14</sup> Does not even nature itself teach you that, if a man has long hair, it is a dishonour to him, <sup>15</sup> but, if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her? For long hair has been given to her instead of a cloak. <sup>16</sup> However, if anyone seems to be contentious, we have no such custom—, nor do the churches of God.

b. The Lord’s Supper (11:17-34)

Admonitions to discern the Lord’s body and blood in the Lord’s Supper and not to ignore fellow-members — 1 Cor 10:16-17

<sup>17</sup> As I instruct you in this matter, I do not praise you, because you do not come together for the better but for the worse. <sup>18</sup> For, in the first place, I hear that, when you come together as a church, there are divisions among you and, to some extent, I believe it. <sup>19</sup> For there must also be divisions among you to indicate which of you are genuine. <sup>20</sup> So, when you are coming together to one place, it is not with the purpose of eating the Lord’s Supper! <sup>21</sup> For, as you eat, each one eats his own meal. One stays hungry, and another gets drunk. <sup>22</sup> Surely it is not so that you have no homes in which to eat and drink? Or do you despise the church of God and do you humiliate those who do not have anything? What should I say to you? Should I praise you? I do not praise you for this.

<sup>23</sup> For I received from the Lord what I have also passed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night when He was being betrayed, took bread. <sup>24</sup> When He had given thanks, He broke it and said, “This is My body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of Me!” <sup>25</sup> In the same way He also took the cup after the meal. He said,

“This cup is the new Covenant in My blood. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of Me!”<sup>26</sup> For, whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the Lord’s death, until He comes.

<sup>27</sup> Therefore, whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup> However, let a person examine himself and so let him eat from the bread and drink from the cup! <sup>29</sup> For he who eats and drinks without recognising the Lord’s body eats and drinks judgment on himself.

<sup>30</sup> For this reason, many among you are sick and ailing, and a number have fallen asleep. <sup>31</sup> However, if we were carefully judging ourselves, we should not be under judgment. <sup>32</sup> When the Lord judges us, we are being disciplined, that we may not be condemned with the world. <sup>33</sup> Therefore, my fellow-Christians, when you come together to eat, welcome one another! <sup>34</sup> If anyone is hungry, he should eat at home that you may not come together to be judged! I shall give directions concerning the other matters when I come.

12

Spiritual gifts (12:1-14:40)

The distribution of various charismatic gifts to all for the common good

<sup>1</sup> Now concerning spiritual gifts, fellow-Christians, I do not want you to be ignorant. <sup>2</sup> You know that you were Gentiles and were drawn away to dumb idols, however you happened to be led. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, I tell you that no one who is speaking by God’s Spirit says, “Cursed be Jesus,” and no one can say, “Jesus is the Lord,” except by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>4</sup> There are different kinds of charismatic gifts but the same Spirit. <sup>5</sup> There are differing ways of serving but the same Lord. <sup>6</sup> There are different kinds of activities but the same God, who works everything in all of them.

<sup>7</sup> Now the manifestation of the Spirit is given to each one for the common good. <sup>8</sup> For to one there is given through the Spirit the Word of wisdom, to another the Word of knowledge through the same Spirit, <sup>9</sup> to another faith by the same Spirit, to another charismatic gifts of healing by the one Spirit, <sup>10</sup> to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another distinguishing between spirits, to another speaking in different kinds of tongues and to another the interpretation of tongues. <sup>11</sup> One and the same Spirit works all these things and distributes them to each one individually, as He determines.

The need for differences between the members not to obscure the unity of the body

<sup>12</sup> For, as the body is one and yet has many members and as all the members of the body are one body, although they are many, so also is Christ. <sup>13</sup> For by one Spirit we have all been baptised into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and have all been made to drink of that one Spirit.

belong to the body,” it does not for that reason cease to belong to the body. <sup>16</sup> If the ear says, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” it does not for that reason cease to belong to the body. <sup>17</sup> If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole body were hearing, where would the sense of smell be? <sup>18</sup> However, now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body just as He has wished. <sup>19</sup> If they were all one member, where would the body be? <sup>20</sup> As it is, there are many members but one body. <sup>21</sup> The eye cannot say to the hand, “I do not need you,” or again the head to the feet, “I do not need you.” <sup>22</sup> No, much rather, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are necessary. <sup>23</sup> We bestow greater honour on those members of the body that we think are less honourable, and our unpresentable members have greater modesty, <sup>24</sup> which our presentable parts do not need. However, God has composed the body and given greater honour to the member that lacks it, <sup>25</sup> that there may be no division in the body, but that the members may have the same concern for one another. <sup>26</sup> If one member suffers, all the other members suffer with it; or, if one member is honoured, all the other members rejoice with it. <sup>27</sup> Now you are the body of Christ and members individually. <sup>28</sup> God has appointed in the church first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, then miracles, then charismatic gifts of healing, helpful deeds, positions of administration and different kinds of tongues. <sup>29</sup> Not all are apostles, are they? Not all are prophets, are they? Not all are teachers, are they? Not all work miracles, do they? <sup>30</sup> Not all have charismatic gifts of healing, do they? Not all speak in tongues, do they? Not all interpret, do they? <sup>31</sup> Eagerly desire the greater gifts! I shall also show you what the best way is by far.

13

The pre-eminence of love over charismatic gifts

<sup>1</sup> If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels but do not have love, I have become a loud gong or a clanging cymbal. <sup>2</sup> Even if I have the gift of prophecy and understand all mysteries and all knowledge and, if I have all faith so that I could remove mountains but do not have love, I am nothing. <sup>3</sup> If I give away all that I possess to feed the hungry and, if I give up my body to be burnt and do not have love, I gain nothing at all.

<sup>4</sup> Love is patient. Love is kind. Love is not envious. It does not brag or become conceited. <sup>5</sup> It does not behave dishonourably. It is not selfish. It does not become irritated. It keeps no record of wrongs. <sup>6</sup> It does not delight in wrongdoing but rejoices with the truth. <sup>7</sup> It covers everything in silence; it believes everything; it hopes for everything; it endures everything.

<sup>8</sup> Love never fails. If there are prophecies, they will be ended. If there are tongues, they will cease. If there is knowledge, it will be ended. <sup>9</sup> For we know in part and prophesy in part. <sup>10</sup> However, when what is complete comes, what is in part will be ended. <sup>11</sup> When I was a child, I used to talk like a child, think like a child and reason like a child. Now that I have become a man, I have ended childish things. <sup>12</sup> For now we see dimly in a mirror but then we shall see face to face. Now I know only in part but then I shall know just as I am fully known. <sup>13</sup> Moreover, now there remain these three: faith, hope and love. However, the greatest of these is love.

14

A comparison between prophecy and speaking in tongues, assessed by their ability to edify other people

<sup>1</sup> Pursue love and be eager to have the spiritual gifts but especially that you may prophesy! <sup>2</sup> For he who speaks in a tongue is not speaking to human beings but to God. For no one understands him. He is speaking mysteries by his spirit. <sup>3</sup> However, the person who prophesies is speaking to human beings, to edify, encourage and comfort them. <sup>4</sup> The person who speaks in a tongue is edifying himself, but the person who prophesies is edifying the church. <sup>5</sup> I want you all to speak in tongues but even more that you prophesy. For the person who prophesies is greater than the person who speaks in tongues is, unless he is interpreting, that the church may receive edification. <sup>6</sup> Now, my fellow-Christians, if I come to you and speak in tongues, how shall I help you unless I speak to you either by revelation, by knowledge, by prophesying or by teaching? <sup>7</sup> Likewise lifeless instruments such as a flute or a harp produce sounds, but, if they produce no distinction in the notes, how will anyone know what is being played on the flute or harp? <sup>8</sup> For again, if a trumpet makes a sound that is uncertain, who will get ready for battle? <sup>9</sup> In the same way, if you people also do not give a message with your tongues that is easily recognisable, how will anyone know what you are saying? For you will be talking into the air. <sup>10</sup> There are probably ever so many kinds of languages in the world, and none is without meaning. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, if I do not know what the language means, I shall be a foreigner to the speaker, and the speaker will be a foreigner to me. <sup>12</sup> So, since you are eager to have spiritual gifts, you too should try to excel in them that the church may be edified. <sup>13</sup> Therefore, let the person who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret! <sup>14</sup> For, if I pray in a tongue, my spirit is praying, but my mind is not productive. <sup>15</sup> What is the conclusion then? I shall pray with my spirit and shall also pray with my mind. I shall sing with my spirit and shall also sing with my mind. <sup>16</sup> Otherwise, if you praise God only with your spirit, how can the person who occupies the place of an uninformed person say "Amen" to your thanksgiving, since he does not know what you are saying? <sup>17</sup> For you indeed are giving thanks well, but the other person is not edified. <sup>18</sup> I thank God that I speak in tongues more than you all, <sup>19</sup> but, in the church, I would rather say five words with my understanding, that I may also instruct others, than ten thousand words in a tongue. <sup>20</sup> Fellow-Christians, stop being childish in your minds! Be infants in evil but be mature in your minds! <sup>21</sup> Scripture has said in the Law: "Through people with different languages and on the lips of foreigners I shall speak to this people, but even then they will not listen to Me," says the Lord." <sup>22</sup> Therefore, tongues serve as a miraculous sign, not for believers but for unbelievers. However, prophecy is a sign, not for unbelievers but for believers. <sup>23</sup> Therefore, if the whole church comes together in one place and all speak with tongues and those who are uninformed or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your minds? <sup>24</sup> However, if all prophesy and an unbeliever or an uninformed person comes in, he is convinced by all and is judged by all. <sup>25</sup> Thus the secrets of his heart are revealed, and so, falling on his face, he will worship God and report that God is truly among you.

Instruction to follow God's order in Christian assemblies

<sup>26</sup> How is it then, brothers? Whenever you come together, each has a psalm, a teaching, a revelation, a tongue or an interpretation. Let all things be done for edification! <sup>27</sup> If anyone speaks in a tongue, let there be two or at the most three, each in turn, and let one interpret! <sup>28</sup> However, if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in church and let him speak to himself and to God!

<sup>29</sup> Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others judge! <sup>30</sup> However, if anything is revealed to another who is sitting by, let the first keep silent! <sup>31</sup> For you can all prophesy one by one, that all may learn and all may be encouraged. <sup>32</sup> Moreover, the spirits of prophets are subordinate to other prophets. <sup>33</sup> For God is not a God of disorder but of peace.

As in all the churches of the saints, <sup>34</sup> let the women be silent in the churches! For it is not permitted to them to speak. Rather, let them be subordinate, as the Law also says! <sup>35</sup> Moreover, if they want to learn something, let them ask their own husbands at home! For it is shameful for a woman to speak in church. <sup>36</sup> Or did the Word of God come from you? Or has it reached you only? <sup>37</sup> If anyone thinks that he is a prophet or a spiritual person, let him acknowledge that what I am writing to you is the Commandment of the Lord! <sup>38</sup> However, if anyone does not recognise this, he is not recognised. <sup>39</sup> Therefore, my brothers, earnestly desire to prophesy and do not forbid speaking with tongues! <sup>40</sup> Let all things be done decently and in order!

15

Christ's resurrection and the resurrection of those who believe in Him (15:1-58)

The fact of Jesus' resurrection, attested by the Old Testament and by apostolic witnesses

<sup>1</sup> My fellow-Christians, I am telling you the Good News that I told you, which you also received and on which you also stand. <sup>2</sup> You are also saved by it if you cling to the Word that I have preached to you, unless you have become believers in vain. <sup>3</sup> For I delivered to you, first, what I also received: that Christ died for our sins as the Scriptures said He would, <sup>4</sup> and that He was buried and that He was raised again on the third day as the Scriptures said He would, <sup>5</sup> and that He appeared to Cephas and then to the Twelve. <sup>6</sup> After that, He appeared to more than five hundred Christians at the same time, most of whom are still living, but some have fallen asleep. <sup>7</sup> Then He appeared to James and then to all the apostles, <sup>8</sup> and, last of all, He appeared to me also, as to someone abnormally born. <sup>9</sup> For I am the least of the apostles and do not deserve to be called an apostle, because I had been persecuting the church of God. <sup>10</sup> However, by the grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me has not been without effect; but I have worked harder than all the others have — yet not I, but the grace of God, which has been with me. <sup>11</sup> Now, whether I have done it or they, this is what we preach, and this is what you have believed.

1 Corinthians

The paramount importance of Jesus' resurrection for the Gospel, faith and hope

<sup>12</sup> If it is preached that Christ has been raised from the dead, how can some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>13</sup> If there is no resurrection of the dead, Christ has not been raised either. <sup>14</sup> If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is useless, and your faith is also useless. <sup>15</sup> We are also found to be false witnesses of God, because we have testified about God that He has raised Christ; but He did not raise Him if it is true that the dead are not raised. <sup>16</sup> For, if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either. <sup>17</sup> If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile. You are still in your sins. <sup>18</sup> Then those who have fallen asleep in Christ have also perished. <sup>19</sup> If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are to be pitied more than all other people. <sup>20</sup> However, now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep. <sup>21</sup> For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead has also come through a man. <sup>22</sup> For, as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive. <sup>23</sup> However, each one in his own turn: Christ is the first-fruits. After that, when He comes, those who belong to Christ. <sup>24</sup> Then the end will come, when He hands over the kingdom to God, the Father, after He has put an end to all dominion, authority and power. <sup>25</sup> For He must reign until God has put all His enemies under His feet. <sup>26</sup> The last enemy that will be destroyed is death. <sup>27</sup> For “He has put all things under His feet.” However, when He says, “All things have been put under Him,” plainly this does not include the One who has put everything under Christ. <sup>28</sup> However, when all things have been put under Him, then the Son Himself will also be put under the One who has put all things under Him, that God may be all in all.

<sup>29</sup> Otherwise, what will those do who are baptised because of the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, then why are people baptised because of them? <sup>30</sup> Why are we also risking danger every hour? <sup>31</sup> Fellow-Christians, I die every day. It is as sure as the boast that I make about you in Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>32</sup> If, like an ordinary man, I fought wild animals at Ephesus, what have I gained? If the dead are not raised, “Let us eat and drink! For tomorrow we die.” <sup>33</sup> Do not let anyone deceive you! “Bad company corrupts good habits.” <sup>34</sup> Become sober, as you ought to be, and do not sin any longer! For there are some who are ignorant of God. I say this to your shame.

The nature of resurrected bodies

<sup>35</sup> However, someone will ask, “How are the dead raised? With what kind of body will they come?” <sup>36</sup> How foolish! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. <sup>37</sup> When you sow, you do not sow the body that will be but a bare seed, perhaps of wheat or one of the other seeds. <sup>38</sup> However, God gives it a body as He has determined and to each of the seeds its own body. <sup>39</sup> Not all flesh is the same. Human beings have one kind of flesh, animals have another kind of flesh, birds have another kind of flesh, and fish have still another. <sup>40</sup> There are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies; but the splendour of the heavenly bodies is different from that of the earthly bodies. <sup>41</sup> The splendour of the sun is different from the splendour of the moon, and the splendour of the stars is different again. Even one star differs in splendour from another star. <sup>42</sup> It will be like that with the resurrection of the dead. The body is sown in decay: it is raised without decay. <sup>43</sup> It is sown in dishonour: it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness: it is raised in power. <sup>44</sup> It is sown a natural body: it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body. <sup>45</sup> As Scripture has said: “The first man, Adam, became a natural living being.” The last Adam has become a life-giving spirit. <sup>46</sup> However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural, and after that the spiritual. <sup>47</sup> The first man was of the earth, made of dust. The second Man is from heaven. <sup>48</sup> Those who are made of dust are also like the man of dust, and those who are heavenly are also like the Man from heaven. <sup>49</sup> Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we shall also bear the image of the Man from heaven.

The victory that the resurrection on the last day will bring clothes itself with what is imperishable and when this dying body clothes itself with what cannot die, then this passage of Scripture will come true: “Death has been swallowed up in victory!”<sup>55</sup> “Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?”<sup>56</sup> The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the Law.<sup>57</sup> However, thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!<sup>58</sup> Therefore, my dearly loved fellow-Christians, stand firmly and immovably! Always do much work in the Lord, since you know that your hard work in the Lord is not in vain!

<sup>50</sup> Now I say this, fellow-Christians: Flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does decay inherit what does not decay. <sup>51</sup> Look! I am telling you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but shall all be changed, <sup>52</sup> in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed. <sup>53</sup> For this perishable body must clothe itself with what is imperishable, and this dying body must clothe itself with what cannot die. <sup>54</sup> When this perishable body

1 Corinthians

Conclusion (16:1-24)

An admonition to collect contributions regularly for the poor Christians in Judea — compare 2 Corinthians 8-9

<sup>1</sup> Concerning the collection for God’s holy people, you also should do as I have directed the churches in Galatia to do!<sup>2</sup> On the first day of the week, let each of you put something aside as he may prosper and save it up, that no collections may be made at the time when I come!<sup>3</sup> When I come, I shall send whichever men you approve, with letters of introduction, to take your gift to Jerusalem.<sup>4</sup> If it is appropriate that I should go too, they will travel with me.

Paul’s intention to visit Corinth soon

<sup>5</sup> I shall come to you when I pass through Macedonia. For I shall be coming through Macedonia<sup>6</sup> and perhaps stay with you or even spend the winter with you, that you may send me on my way wherever I may be going.<sup>7</sup> For I do not want to see you now just in passing, because I hope to stay with you for some time, if the Lord permits it.<sup>8</sup> However, I shall be staying on at Ephesus until Pentecost.<sup>9</sup> For a great and effective door has opened for me, and there are many people who are opposing me.

Advice about Timothy, Apollos and others

<sup>10</sup> If Timothy comes, see to it that he does not have to be afraid while he is with you! For he is doing the work of the Lord just as I am.<sup>11</sup> Therefore, no one should despise him! Send him on his way in peace, that he may come to me! For I am waiting for him together with the other Christians.<sup>12</sup> Concerning Apollos, our fellow-Christian — I strongly urged him to come to you with the other Christians, but it was not at all his wish to come now. However, he will come when he has an opportunity.

<sup>13</sup> Be watchful! Stand firmly in the faith! Be men of courage! Be strong!<sup>14</sup> Let all your affairs be carried out in love!<sup>15</sup> You know that the family of Stephanas were the first-fruits of Achaia and that they have devoted themselves to the ministry to God’s holy people. I urge you, fellow-Christians,<sup>16</sup> that you should also be subordinate to such people and to anyone else who is working and labouring with us!<sup>17</sup> I am glad that Stephanas, Fortunatus and Achaicus have come here, because they have supplied what was lacking from you.<sup>18</sup> For they have refreshed my spirit and also yours. Therefore, acknowledge men like them!

Fellowship-greetings

2 CORINTHIANS

1

Introduction (1:1-7)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God and Timothy our fellow-Christian, to the church of God at Corinth and to all God's holy people who are throughout Achaia: <sup>2</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

The comfort and rescue of God

<sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercy and the God of all comfort! <sup>4</sup> He comforts us in all our distress, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any distress, with the same comfort with which God comforts us. <sup>5</sup> For, as the sufferings of Christ overflow to us, so through Christ our comfort also overflows. <sup>6</sup> If we are distressed, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient endurance of the same sufferings as we also suffer. <sup>7</sup> Our hope for you is firm, because we know that, just as you share in our sufferings, so you also share in our comfort.

Paul's apostolic authority at Corinth (1:8-7:16)

<sup>8</sup> Fellow-Christians, we do not want you to be uninformed about how distressed we were in the province of Asia. We were burdened beyond measure, beyond what we could endure, so that we despaired even of life. <sup>9</sup> However, we had the sentence of death in ourselves that we might not trust in ourselves but in God, who raises the dead. <sup>10</sup> He is the One who has rescued us from so great a death and He will continue to rescue us. We have placed our hope in Him that He will also rescue us again, <sup>11</sup> since you are also joining in helping us through your prayers for us. As a result, many persons will thank God on our behalf for His gracious gift to us through many people.

Paul's declaration that he has been sincere

<sup>12</sup> For this is our boast: Our consciences testify that we have been conducting ourselves in the world and especially toward you, with the simplicity and sincerity that come from God, not with fleshly wisdom but by the grace of God. <sup>13</sup> For we are not writing to you any other things than what you read and understand, and I hope you will fully understand, <sup>14</sup> as you have to some extent understood us, that we are your reason to boast, just as you will also be our reason to boast on the day of our Lord Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Because I was confident of this, I wanted to come to you first, that you might have a second benefit, <sup>16</sup> that I would pass by way of you to Macedonia, come back from Macedonia to you and be sent on by you to Judea.

A declaration that Paul wanted to spare the Corinthians

<sup>17</sup> Therefore, when I was making this decision, did I do it lightly? Or do I make my decisions in a fleshly manner, so that with me "Yes, yes" should also mean "No, no"? <sup>18</sup> On the contrary! As God is faithful, our message to you is not "Yes and No." <sup>19</sup> For the Son of God,

Jesus Christ, whom I, Silvanus and Timothy have preached among you, has not been "Yes and no," but in Him it has been "Yes." <sup>20</sup> For, as all the promises of God are "Yes" in Him, for that reason also we speak the "Amen" to God through Him, to glorify Him. <sup>21</sup> God is the One who makes both us and you firm in Christ and who has anointed us, <sup>22</sup> who has also sealed us and has given us the guarantee of the Spirit in our hearts. <sup>23</sup> I call on God, as witness against my soul, that I refrained from coming to Corinth again to spare you. <sup>24</sup> I do not mean that we lord it over your faith but that we are working with you to make you joyful. For you stand by faith.

<sup>1</sup> For I made up my mind that I would not make another painful visit to you. <sup>2</sup> For, if I make you sad, then who is there to make me happy except the one whom I am making sad? <sup>3</sup> That is the very thing that I wrote, so that, when I came, those who ought to be making me glad might not make me sad. I am confident about all of you, that what makes me glad also makes all of you glad. <sup>4</sup> I was deeply distressed and in anguish of heart when I wrote to you, with many tears. I did not write to make you sad but that you might realise how very much I love you.

An instruction to forgive the man who had done wrong

<sup>5</sup> If someone has caused sadness, he has not made me sad, but, to some extent, he has made all of you sad — not to put it too strongly. <sup>6</sup> This reproof, which has been inflicted by the majority, is sufficient for such a person. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, on the contrary, you ought rather to be forgiving and give comfort, that someone like that may not perhaps be overwhelmed with too much sadness. <sup>8</sup> Therefore, I urge you to reaffirm your love to him. <sup>9</sup> For this was the purpose for which I wrote, to get to know your character and whether you are obedient in everything. <sup>10</sup> To whom you forgive anything, so do I. Indeed, what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I have done it for your sakes before the face of Christ, <sup>11</sup> that Satan may not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his designs.

Those who preach the Gospel are an aroma leading to life or to death

<sup>12</sup> When I went to Troas to tell the Good News of Christ and, when the Lord had opened a door to me, <sup>13</sup> I had no relief in my spirit, because I did not find Titus, my brother; but I said farewell to them and departed for Macedonia. <sup>14</sup> However, thanks be to God! He always leads us in a triumphal procession in Christ and through us makes the fragrant knowledge of Him known in every place. <sup>15</sup> For we are, to God, the fragrance of Christ among those who are saved and among those who are perishing. <sup>16</sup> To some we are an aroma from death leading to death but to others an aroma from life leading to life. Who is qualified for these things?

<sup>17</sup> For we are not peddlers of the Word of God, as so many are. On the contrary, in Christ we speak out of pure motives, as men from God and before God.

3

<sup>1</sup> Are we beginning to recommend ourselves again? Or surely, we do not, like some people, need letters of recommendation, to you or from you? <sup>2</sup> You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all people. <sup>3</sup> You show that you are a letter of Christ, which has resulted from our ministry and which has been written, not with ink but with the Spirit of the living God, not on stone tablets but on hearts of flesh as tablets. <sup>4</sup> Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God. <sup>5</sup> Not that we are qualified of ourselves to regard anything as if it came from ourselves, but our qualification comes from God. <sup>6</sup> He has also qualified us to be ministers of the new Covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life.

The ministry of the Spirit and its glory

<sup>7</sup> If the ministry that brought death, which was engraved with letters on stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not look steadily at the face of Moses because of “the glory of his face,” which was fading away, <sup>8</sup> how will the ministry of the Spirit not be more glorious? <sup>9</sup> If the ministry that condemns people was glorious, how much more exceedingly glorious is the ministry that brings righteousness! <sup>10</sup> For, indeed, what had been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, because of the other glory that surpasses it. <sup>11</sup> For, if what is being put out of effect came with glory, how much more does what is permanent come with glory?

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, since we have such hope, we speak very frankly. <sup>13</sup> We are not like Moses, who used to “put a veil over his face” to keep the Israelites from gazing at the end of the glory while it was fading away. <sup>14</sup> However, their minds were made dull. For to this day the same veil remains when the Old Testament is being read and is not removed, because only in Christ is it done away with. <sup>15</sup> Rather, to this day, whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their hearts. <sup>16</sup> However, “whenever anyone turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.” <sup>17</sup> This “Lord” is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. <sup>18</sup> As we all reflect “the glory of the Lord” in our unveiled faces, we are being transformed into the same likeness, from glory to glory, just as it comes from the “Lord,” who is the Spirit.

The Gospel is like a treasure in clay jars

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we have this ministry as we have received mercy, we do not become discouraged <sup>2</sup> but have renounced hidden and shameful ways. We do not live by trickery, nor do we falsify the Word of God. Rather, by making the truth plain, we commend ourselves to everyone’s conscience in the sight of God. <sup>3</sup> If our Good News has been veiled, it has been veiled to those who are perishing. <sup>4</sup> The god of this age has blinded the minds of these unbelievers, with the result that the light of the Good News of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, does not shine on them. <sup>5</sup> We do not preach ourselves but Jesus Christ as the Lord and ourselves as your servants for Jesus’ sake. <sup>6</sup> For it is God, who said, “Let light shine out of the darkness!” who has shone in our hearts, to give us the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the person of Jesus Christ. <sup>7</sup> However, we have this treasure in clay jars, with the result that this all-surpassing power comes from God and not from us. <sup>8</sup> In every way we are hard-pressed but not crushed. We are perplexed but not in despair. <sup>9</sup> We are persecuted but not forsaken. We are struck down but not destroyed. <sup>10</sup> We are always carrying around in our bodies the dying of Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our bodies. <sup>11</sup> For we, who are alive, are always being given over into death because of Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our mortal human nature. <sup>12</sup> Consequently, death is at work in us, but life is at work in you. <sup>13</sup> Furthermore, since we have the same spirit of faith, according to what Scripture has said, “I have believed and therefore I have spoken,” we also believe and therefore we speak, <sup>14</sup> because we know that the One who has raised the Lord Jesus will also raise us with Jesus and will make us stand before Him with you. <sup>15</sup> For all things are for your benefit, that God’s grace may spread to more and more people and may cause thanksgiving to increase greatly, to the glory of God. <sup>16</sup> That is why we are not discouraged. Rather, even though our outward person is wasting away, our inward person is being renewed day by day. <sup>17</sup> For our light and momentary trouble is producing for us an utterly extraordinary and eternal weight of glory. <sup>18</sup> We do not look at the things that are seen but at the things that are not seen. For the things that are seen are temporary, but the things that are not seen are eternal.

Christians’ longing for their heavenly dwelling

<sup>1</sup> For we know that, if the earthly tent in which we live is demolished, we have a house from God, not made by human hands, eternal in heaven. <sup>2</sup> To be sure, in this dwelling we groan, longing to be clothed with our dwelling that is from heaven, <sup>3</sup> since, after we have put it on, we shall not be found naked. <sup>4</sup> For we, who are in this tent, groan as we are weighed down, because we do not wish to be unclothed but to put on the additional clothing, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. <sup>5</sup> God is the One who has prepared us for this very thing and who has given us the Spirit as the guarantee. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, we are always confident. We know that, while we are at home in this body, we are in a strange land, away from the Lord. <sup>7</sup> For we live by faith, not by sight. <sup>8</sup> We are confident and even prefer to move out of the body and to be at home with the Lord. <sup>9</sup> Now, whether we are at home or in a strange land, we aspire to please Him. <sup>10</sup> We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive what is due to him according to what he has done while in the body, whether good or bad.

Christ's love motivates His ministers

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, since we know the fear of the Lord, we try to persuade people. God already knows what we are like, and I hope that this has also become plain to your consciences. <sup>12</sup> We are not recommending ourselves to you again but are giving you an opportunity to boast about us. We are doing this that you may answer those who boast about what is outward rather than about what is in the heart. <sup>13</sup> For, if we are out of our minds, it is for God. If our minds are sound, it is for you. <sup>14</sup> For Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that One has died for all. Therefore, all have died. <sup>15</sup> He has died for all, that those who live may no longer live for themselves but for Him, who has died for them and has been raised. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, from now on we do not regard anyone from a human point of view. Although we once regarded Christ from a human point of view, yet now we no longer regard Him in this way. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away. Look! They have become new!

The reconciliation of God to the world is the basis for His ministers' appeal to people to receive it

<sup>18</sup> However, all things are from God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Christ and has given to us the ministry of reconciliation, <sup>19</sup> that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and has committed to us the message of reconciliation. <sup>20</sup> Therefore, we are ambassadors on Christ's behalf, since God, as it were, is making His appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: "Be reconciled to God!" <sup>21</sup> God made Him who did not know sin to be sin for us, that in Him we might become the righteousness of God.

<sup>1</sup> As men who are working with God, we also plead with you not to receive the grace of God in vain. <sup>2</sup> For He says: "At a favourable time I have heard you and on the day of salvation I have helped you." Look! Now is the favourable time. Look! Now is the day of salvation.

Paul's request to be accepted as a genuine minister of God

<sup>3</sup> We do not lay any kind of obstacle, to avoid discredit on our ministry. <sup>4</sup> Rather, in everything we commend ourselves as the ministers of God: in great endurance, in troubles, in calamities, in difficulties; <sup>5</sup> in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots; in hard work, in sleepless nights, in hunger; <sup>6</sup> in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love, <sup>7</sup> in truthful speech and in the power of God; with weapons of righteousness on the right hand and on the left;

<sup>8</sup> through glory and dishonour, through bad report and good report; as deceivers and yet true; <sup>9</sup> as unknown and yet well known; as dying and, you see, we go on living; as chastened and yet not killed; <sup>10</sup> as made sad but always rejoicing; as beggars but making many rich; as having nothing and yet possessing everything. <sup>11</sup> O Corinthians! We have spoken openly to you. Our hearts have opened wide. <sup>12</sup> We are not being narrow in our feelings for you, but you are being narrow in your hearts toward us. <sup>13</sup> Treat me as I am treating you! I am speaking to you as my children. You, too, should open your hearts wide!

A warning not to be yoked with unbelievers

<sup>14</sup> Do not be unevenly yoked together with unbelievers! For what do righteousness and lawlessness have in common? Or what fellowship is there between light and darkness? <sup>15</sup> What agreement is there between Christ and Belial? Or what part has a believer with an unbeliever? <sup>16</sup> What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God, as God has said: "I shall live and walk among them and be their God, and they will be My people." <sup>17</sup> Therefore, come out from among them and be separate! says the Lord. 'Do not touch what is unclean! I shall receive you. <sup>18</sup> I shall be your Father, and you will be My sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty."

7

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we have these promises, dear friends, let us cleanse ourselves from everything that defiles body and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God!

Paul's encouragement about the Corinthians after the arrival of Titus from Corinth

<sup>2</sup> Make room for us in your hearts! We have not wronged anyone. We have not ruined anyone. We have not taken advantage of anyone. <sup>3</sup> I am not saying this to condemn you. I have already told you that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together. <sup>4</sup> I have great boldness toward you. I have much to boast about to others concerning you. I have been greatly encouraged. I am exceedingly joyful in all our trouble. <sup>5</sup> For indeed, since we came to Macedonia, our bodies have had no rest, but we have been troubled in every way. Outside there have been conflicts, inside there have been fears. <sup>6</sup> However, God, who comforts downcast people, has comforted us by the arrival of Titus, <sup>7</sup> and not only by his arrival but also by the comfort that he received about you. He has told us how you long for me, how sorry you are and how eager you are on my behalf, so that my joy has been greater. <sup>8</sup> For, even if I have made you sad with my letter, I do not regret it. Even if I have felt sorry, because I see that that letter has made you sad, although only for a while, <sup>9</sup> now I am glad, not because you have been sad but because your sorrow has led you to repentance. You have been made sad in a godly way. So, you have not suffered any loss at all because of us. <sup>10</sup> For godly sorrow produces repentance that leads to salvation and that is not regretted. However, worldly sorrow produces death. <sup>11</sup> For observe this very thing! When you have been led to godly sorrow, how eager it has made you! What a defence of yourselves also, what indignation, what alarm, what longing, what concern, what readiness to punish wrongdoing! In every way, you have shown that you are innocent in this matter. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, although I wrote to you, I did not write for the sake of the man who did wrong or for the sake of the one who had been wronged but that it might be made evident to you how zealous you are for us in the sight of God. <sup>13</sup> This is what has comforted us. In addition to our own encouragement, we have been much more delighted to see how glad Titus is, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. <sup>14</sup> For, if I have boasted to him about you in any way, I have not been put to shame. Rather, as we have told you everything truthfully, so our boasting to Titus has also been found to be true. <sup>15</sup> Moreover, his affection for you is all the greater as he remembers how obedient you have all been and how you welcomed him with fear and trembling. <sup>16</sup> I am glad that I have confidence in you in every way.

The collection for the needy Christians at Jerusalem (8:1-9:15)

An admonition to finish the collection

<sup>1</sup> Fellow-Christians, we make known to you the grace that God has bestowed on the churches of Macedonia. <sup>2</sup> While they were severely tested by trouble, their overflowing joy and their deep poverty overflowed to produce their rich generosity. <sup>3</sup> For I testify that they were freely willing, according to their ability and beyond their ability. <sup>4</sup> They urgently pleaded with us for the privilege of sharing in this ministry to God's holy people. <sup>5</sup> They did not do as we expected but through the will of God first gave themselves to the Lord and to us. <sup>6</sup> This has led us to urge Titus to complete among you this work of kindness also, in the same way as he had earlier begun it. <sup>7</sup> As you abound in everything, in faith, in speech, in knowledge, in all eagerness and in your love for us, see that you abound in this work of kindness also! <sup>8</sup> I do not say this as a command but am using the eagerness of others to test how genuine your love is. <sup>9</sup> For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, although He was rich, yet because of you He became poor, that you through His poverty might become rich. <sup>10</sup> I am giving you advice about this, because this is helpful to you. Last year you had made a beginning, not only to do something but also to want to do something. <sup>11</sup> Now complete the doing of it, that your eagerness to want to do it may be matched by your completion of it, out of what you have! <sup>12</sup> For, if a person is willing, his willingness is acceptable according to what he has, not according to what he does not have. <sup>13</sup> We do not desire others to have relief and you to have hardship but equality. <sup>14</sup> At the present time, your plenty will supply what they need, that their plenty may also supply what you need, that there may be equality, <sup>15</sup> as Scripture has said: "Anyone who gathered much did not have too much, and anyone who gathered little did not have too little." <sup>16</sup> I thank God, who has put into the heart of Titus the same devotion as I have for you. <sup>17</sup> For he welcomed my request and is very eagerly going from here to you on his own initiative. <sup>18</sup> We are also sending with him the Christian brother who is praised for his work in the Good News throughout all the churches. <sup>19</sup> More than that, the churches have elected him to travel with us in this work of love, which we are carrying on to honour the Lord Himself and to show our eagerness to help. <sup>20</sup> We are trying to avoid any criticism of the way in which we are handling this lavish gift. <sup>21</sup> For we have regard for what is honourable, not only in the sight of the Lord but also in the sight of men. <sup>22</sup> We are also sending with them our Christian brother, whom we have often tested in many ways and found to be zealous, and now we find him to be much more zealous, because he has great confidence in you. <sup>23</sup> As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow-worker among you. As for our fellow-Christians, they are the representatives of the churches and are the glory of Christ. <sup>24</sup> Therefore, show to them the proof of your love and of our boasting about you, that the churches may see it!

Instructions about how to contribute

<sup>1</sup> There is no need for me to write to you about this service to God's holy people. <sup>2</sup> For I know how eager you are. I have been boasting about your eagerness to the people of Macedonia: "Achaia has been ready since last year," and your enthusiasm has stirred up most of them. <sup>3</sup> I am sending my fellow-Christians, that our boasting about you may not prove to be empty in this regard but that, as I have been saying, you may be ready. <sup>4</sup> Otherwise, if some Macedonians come with me and find that you are not ready, you will make us (to say nothing of yourselves) feel ashamed of having been so confident. <sup>5</sup> Therefore, I thought it necessary to urge these fellow-Christians to go to you ahead of me and arrange in advance your generous gift, which you had previously promised. Then it will be ready as a generous gift and not as one grudgingly granted by avarice. <sup>6</sup> In addition, I say this: The person who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the person who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. <sup>7</sup> Each person should give as he has decided in his heart, not reluctantly or under compulsion! For God loves a cheerful giver.

Blessings that result from generosity in response to God's kindness

<sup>8</sup> God can make all grace abound toward you, that you may always have all that you need in every way and may abound in every good work, <sup>9</sup> as Scripture has said: "He has distributed. He has given to the poor."

His righteousness remains for ever.” <sup>10</sup> He who provides seed for the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed and will increase what your righteousness produces. <sup>11</sup> You are being made rich in every way that you may be totally generous. This is producing thanksgiving to God through us. <sup>12</sup> This work, which you are doing in serving others, not only supplies the needs of the believers but is also overflowing through many expressions of thanks to God. <sup>13</sup> By this service, by which you prove yourselves, you are glorifying God for your subordinate confession of the Good News of Christ and for your generous contribution to them and to all people, <sup>14</sup> while they also long for you deeply and pray for you, because of the extreme kindness that God has shown you. <sup>15</sup> Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift!

10

Paul's defence against his opponents (10:1-13:10)
Paul's assertion of his apostolic authority

<sup>1</sup> Now I myself, Paul, am pleading with you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, I, who am “humble when I am face to face with you” but “bold toward you when I am away”! <sup>2</sup> I beg you that, when I am present, I shall not have to be as confident and bold as I think I shall dare to be against some men who think we are living by the standards of the sinful human nature. <sup>3</sup> For, although we are living in sinful human nature, we do not wage war according to the sinful human nature. <sup>4</sup> For the weapons with which we wage war do not belong to the sinful human nature but have God's power to tear down fortresses. <sup>5</sup> We use them to tear down arguments and everything that rises up against the knowledge of God and take every thought captive, so that it obeys Christ. <sup>6</sup> We are ready to take vengeance on every act of disobedience once your obedience is complete. <sup>7</sup> You are looking at things as they appear outwardly. If anyone is convinced in himself that he belongs to Christ, he should consider, as he examines his own position again, that we belong to Christ just as he does! <sup>8</sup> For, even if I boast a little too much about our authority, which the Lord has given us to build you up and not to tear you down, I shall not be ashamed. <sup>9</sup> I do not want to seem to be frightening you with my letters. <sup>10</sup> For someone is saying, “His letters are weighty and forceful, but, when he is present in person, he is unimpressive, and his speaking amounts to nothing.” <sup>11</sup> Such a person should understand that we shall be the same in our actions when we are present as we are through the words of our letters when we are absent!

Paul's confidence that God authorises his apostolic ministry

<sup>12</sup> For we do not dare to classify or compare ourselves with some of those who are commending themselves. Rather, when they are measuring themselves by themselves and comparing themselves with themselves, they are not being wise. <sup>13</sup> We, however, shall not boast about things that cannot be measured but within the measure of the sphere that God has appointed for us, a measure that reaches even as far as you. <sup>14</sup> For we are not overextending ourselves, as though our authority did not extend to you. For we were the first to come even as far as you with the Good News of Christ. <sup>15</sup> We are not boasting about things that cannot be measured in the labours of other people. We have the hope that, as your faith grows, our area of activity among you will greatly expand, <sup>16</sup> by telling the Good News in the regions beyond you, so that we do not boast about things that have already been accomplished in someone else's sphere. <sup>17</sup> Rather, “the one who boasts should boast in the Lord!” <sup>18</sup> For it is not the person who commends himself who is approved, but the person whom the Lord commends.

Paul's zeal for the congregation and his opposition to false apostles

<sup>1</sup> I wish that you would put up with a little foolishness from me! Indeed, you are already putting up with me. <sup>2</sup> For I am jealous for you with the jealousy of God, because I have promised you in marriage to one Husband, to Christ, that I may present you as a pure virgin to Him. <sup>3</sup> However, I am afraid that, as the snake deceived Eve by his trickery, your minds will somehow be seduced away from your sincere and pure devotion to Christ. <sup>4</sup> For, if someone comes along and preaches a different Jesus from the One we have preached or if you receive a different spirit, which you have not received or different good news, which you have not received, you put up with it well enough! <sup>5</sup> For I consider that I am not in the least inferior to those “super-apostles.” <sup>6</sup> Even if I am untrained as a speaker, yet I am not untrained in knowledge. Rather, we have made this perfectly plain to you in every way. <sup>7</sup> Did I commit a sin when I humbled myself, that you might be lifted up, through my telling you the Good News of God free of charge? <sup>8</sup> I robbed other churches by taking wages from them to minister to you. <sup>9</sup> When I was present with you and needed anything, I was not a burden to anyone, because our fellow-Christians who came from Macedonia supplied everything that I needed. I have kept myself from being a burden to you in any way and shall continue to do that. <sup>10</sup> As surely as the truth of Christ is in me, this boast of mine will not be silenced in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11</sup> Why? Because I do not love you? God knows that I do. <sup>12</sup> I shall also keep on doing what I am doing, to remove the opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be considered the same as we are in what they boast about. <sup>13</sup> For such men are false apostles and deceitful workers, since they disguise themselves as apostles of Christ. <sup>14</sup> No wonder, indeed! For Satan himself disguises himself as an angel of light. <sup>15</sup> So, it is no great thing if his servants also disguise themselves as the servants of righteousness. Their end will be appropriate to what they are doing.

Paul's insistence that he could boast about more than the false apostles could <sup>16</sup> I repeat: No one should think that I am foolish! However, if you do, then receive me just as you would a fool, that I also may boast a little! <sup>17</sup> What I say in this confident boasting is not speaking in the Lord's way but foolishly. <sup>18</sup> Since many are boasting as sinful human beings do, I shall boast too. <sup>19</sup> For, since you are wise, you gladly put up with fools! <sup>20</sup> For you put up with it if anyone makes you his slaves, if anyone exploits you, if anyone takes advantage of you, if anyone pushes himself forward or if anyone slaps you in the face. <sup>21</sup> I am ashamed to admit it, but we have been too weak to do that. Nevertheless, whatever anyone else dares to do — I am talking foolishly, — I too dare to do the same. <sup>22</sup> Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they Abraham's descendants? So am I. <sup>23</sup> Are they ministers of Christ? (I am out of my mind to talk like this) I am more. I have done much more hard work, I have been in prison much more, I have been flogged more severely and have often faced death. <sup>24</sup> Five times I received from the Jews the forty lashes minus one. <sup>25</sup> Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was punished by stoning. Three times I was in a shipwreck. I spent a night and a day in the sea. <sup>26</sup> I have often been travelling. I have been in danger from rivers and from robbers, in danger from my own countrymen, in danger from Gentiles, in danger in the city, in danger in the wilderness, in danger at sea and in danger from false brothers. <sup>27</sup> I have laboured and toiled and have often gone without sleep. I have been hungry and thirsty and have often been without food. I have been cold and naked. <sup>28</sup> Besides everything else, I face daily the pressure of my concern for all the churches. <sup>29</sup> Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn with indignation? <sup>30</sup> If I must boast, I shall boast of the things that show how weak I am. <sup>31</sup> The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, who is blessed for ever, knows that I am not lying. <sup>32</sup> In Damascus, the governor under King Aretas had the city of the people of Damascus guarded to arrest me. <sup>33</sup> However, I was let down in a rope-basket through a window in the wall and escaped from his hands.

12

Paul's determination to boast about his weaknesses

<sup>1</sup> I must boast. There is nothing to be gained by it, but I shall go on to visions and revelations from the Lord. <sup>2</sup> I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago — whether in his body, I do not know or outside of the body, I do not know, God knows. Such a man was caught up to the third heaven. <sup>3</sup> I know that a man like that — whether in his body or without his body, I do not know, God knows — <sup>4</sup> was caught up into Paradise and heard inexpressible Words, which are not permissible for a human being to speak. <sup>5</sup> About a man like that I shall boast but shall not boast about myself, except about my weaknesses. <sup>6</sup> For, if I want to boast, I shall not be a fool. For I shall be telling the truth. However, I am sparing you, to prevent anyone from thinking more of me than he sees I am or than when he hears something from me. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, to keep me from becoming proud because of these surpassingly great revelations, I was given a thorn in my flesh, a messenger of Satan, to plague me, that I might not become proud. <sup>8</sup> About this, I begged the Lord three times, that it would leave me. <sup>9</sup> Nevertheless, He told me: "My grace is enough for you. For My power is made complete when you are weak." Therefore, I shall boast all the more gladly about my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest on me. <sup>10</sup> That is why, for Christ's sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions and in difficulties. For, when I am weak, then I am strong.

Paul's determination not to be a burden to the people at Corinth

<sup>11</sup> I have become a fool. You have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended by you. For I have not been inferior at all to those "most eminent" apostles, even if I am nothing. <sup>12</sup> Truly, the signs of an apostle were accomplished among you with all perseverance, in miraculous signs, wonders and mighty deeds. <sup>13</sup> For in which respect were you treated worse than the other churches, except that I did not burden you? Forgive me this wrong! <sup>14</sup> Look! I am ready to come to you for the third time now and shall not burden you. For I do not try to get what you have but you. For children are not obliged to save up for their parents, but parents for their children. <sup>15</sup> In addition, I shall be very glad to spend and be spent on behalf of your souls. If I love you more, am I loved less? <sup>16</sup> However, be that as it may, I did not burden you; but, because I was a crafty fellow, I caught you by cunning! <sup>17</sup> Did I take advantage of you through any of the men whom I sent to you? <sup>18</sup> I urged Titus and sent our brother with him. Titus did not take advantage of you, did he? Did we not walk in the same spirit? Did we not walk in the same footsteps? <sup>19</sup> Have you been thinking all along that we were only defending ourselves before you? We are speaking before God in Christ, and everything, dearly loved people, is meant to build you up.

Paul's wish to avoid grief over the Corinthians

<sup>20</sup> I am afraid that somehow, when I come, I shall not find you as I want you to be and that you will not find me as you want me to be. I am afraid that somehow there will be quarrelling, jealousy, outbursts of wrath, instances of selfish ambition, of slander, of gossiping, of pride and of disorderly conduct. <sup>21</sup> I am afraid that, when I come again, my God will humble me concerning you and that I shall weep over many of those who have been sinning previously and who have not repented of the uncleanness, fornication and lewdness that they have been practising.

13

Final warnings

<sup>1</sup> This is the third time I am coming to you. "Every matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.” <sup>2</sup> I have said it before and am saying it in advance, as if I were present for the second time, even though I am now absent, to all those who have previously been sinning and to all the rest: When I come again, I shall not spare you, <sup>3</sup> since you are demanding proof that Christ is speaking through me. He is not weak in dealing with you but is powerful among you. <sup>4</sup> For, although He was crucified in weakness, He lives by God's power. For we also are weak in Him but by God's power we shall live with Him in our dealings with you. <sup>5</sup> Examine yourselves, whether you are in the faith! Test yourselves! Do you not know yourselves that Christ Jesus is in you, unless, perhaps, you fail the test? <sup>6</sup> I hope that you will realise that we have not failed the test. <sup>7</sup> We pray to God that you will not do anything wrong, not that we may be shown to have passed the test but that you may do what is right, even if we are allegedly failing the test. <sup>8</sup> For we cannot do anything against the truth but only for the truth. <sup>9</sup> For we are glad when we are weak and you are strong. We are also praying for this, that you may be complete. <sup>10</sup> This is why I am writing these things while I am absent, that, when I am present, I may not be severe in my use of the authority that the Lord has given me to build you up and not to tear you down.

2 Corinthians

Conclusion (13:11-14)

Final fellowship-greetings

<sup>11</sup> Finally, fellow-Christians, farewell! Mend your ways! Receive encouragement! Be of one mind! Live in peace! The God of love and peace will be with you.

<sup>12</sup> Greet one another with a holy kiss! <sup>13</sup> All God's holy people greet you. <sup>14</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all!

GALATIANS

1

Introduction (1:1-5)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle (not sent from men or through any man but through Jesus Christ and through God the Father, who raised Him from the dead), <sup>2</sup> and all the Christians who are with me, To the churches in Galatia: <sup>3</sup> Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>4</sup> who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from this present wicked age according to the will of our God and Father! <sup>5</sup> To Him be glory for ever and ever! Amen.

Paul's defence of the Gospel that he had been preaching (1:6-2:21)

A warning against a different "Gospel" that is turning the Galatians away from the truth

<sup>6</sup> I am astonished that you are so quickly turning away from Him who has called you by the grace of Christ to a different gospel, <sup>7</sup> which is not another Gospel.<sup>183</sup> Rather, some men are troubling you and want to pervert the Gospel of Christ. <sup>8</sup> However, even if we or an angel from heaven tell you any other gospel than the one that we have told you, let him be anathema! <sup>9</sup> As we have said before, so now I say again: If anyone is telling you any other gospel than the one that you have received, let him be anathema! <sup>10</sup> For am I now trying to win the approval of men or of God? Or am I trying to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I should not be a slave of Christ.

An assertion that Jesus had given Paul the Good News that he is preaching

<sup>11</sup> For I make known to you, fellow-Christians, that the Good News that has been told by me does not fit human standards. <sup>12</sup> For I did not receive it from a human being, nor was I taught it, but it came through the revelation of Jesus Christ. <sup>13</sup> For you have heard about my previous way of life in the Jewish religion, that I fiercely persecuted the church of God and tried to destroy it, <sup>14</sup> and that I was advancing in the Jewish religion beyond many who were my contemporaries in my own nation, since I was extremely zealous for the traditions of my fathers. <sup>15</sup> However, when God, who set me apart from my mother's womb and called me through His grace, was pleased <sup>16</sup> to reveal His Son in me, that I might tell the Good News about Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood. <sup>17</sup> Nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who had been apostles before I was. Rather, I went away to Arabia and came back again to Damascus. <sup>18</sup> Then, after three years, I went up to Jerusalem to visit Peter and stayed with him for fifteen days. <sup>19</sup> I did not see any of the other apostles, only James, the brother of the Lord. <sup>20</sup> I declare before God that I am not lying in what I am writing to you. <sup>21</sup> Afterwards, I went to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. <sup>22</sup> I was personally unknown to the churches of Judea that are in Christ. <sup>23</sup> The only thing that they were hearing was this: "The man who once used to persecute us is now telling the Good News about the faith that he once tried to destroy," <sup>24</sup> and they used to glorify God because of me.

A declaration that the apostles at Jerusalem had endorsed the Gospel that Paul was preaching

<sup>1</sup> Then, after fourteen years, I went up to Jerusalem again with Barnabas and also took Titus with me. <sup>2</sup> Because of a revelation, I went up and laid before them the Good News that I preach among the Gentiles. I laid it privately before those who were influential, that I might not in any way be running or had been running, in vain. <sup>3</sup> Yet not even Titus, who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised, although he was a Greek. <sup>4</sup> This occurred because of false Christians who had been brought in secretly. They came in by stealth to spy on our freedom, which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might make us slaves. <sup>5</sup> We did not yield in subordination to them even for an hour, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you. <sup>6</sup> However, as for those who seemed to be important — what sort of people they once were makes no difference at all to me. God does not show favouritism to any human being — indeed, those who were influential did not add anything to me. <sup>7</sup> On the contrary, they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for uncircumcised people, as Peter had been with the Good News for circumcised people. <sup>8</sup> For He who had been working effectively in Peter as an apostle to the circumcised had also been working effectively in me as an apostle to the Gentiles. <sup>9</sup> When James, Cephas and John, who had the reputation of being pillars, came to know the grace that had been given to me, they gave Barnabas and me the right hand of fellowship. They agreed that we should go to the Gentiles and that they should go to the circumcised. <sup>10</sup> They asked only that we should continue to remember the poor, the very thing that I was also eager to do.

Paul's criticism of Peter for giving the impression that Christians had to fulfil the Law

<sup>11</sup> When Peter came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face because he stood condemned. <sup>12</sup> For he had been eating with the Gentiles before certain persons came from James. However, when they came, he began to draw back and separate himself from the Gentiles, because he was afraid of those who insisted on circumcision. <sup>13</sup> The rest of the Jews also joined him in his hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. <sup>14</sup> However, when I saw that they were not being straightforward about the truth of the Gospel, I told Cephas in front of them all: "If you, a Jew, live like a Gentile and not like a Jew, how can you compel Gentiles to follow Jewish customs?" <sup>15</sup> We, who are Jews by birth and not "Gentile sinners," <sup>16</sup> know that a person is not justified by doing what the Law says but through faith in Jesus Christ. So, we, too, have become believers in Christ Jesus that we may be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the Law, because no human being will be justified by the works of the Law. <sup>17</sup> However, if we, who want to be justified in Christ, are found to be sinners ourselves, has Christ then become One who promotes sin? Certainly not! <sup>18</sup> For, if I am building up again the very things that I have demolished, I demonstrate that I am a wrongdoer. <sup>19</sup> For I through the Law have died to the Law that I may begin to live to God. I have been crucified with Christ. <sup>20</sup> It is also no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me. The life that I now live in my body I live by faith in the Son of God, who has loved me and given Himself for me. <sup>21</sup> I do not set aside the grace of God. For, if righteousness comes through the Law, then Christ has died in vain.

3

Doctrinal argument about freedom from the Law (3:1-4:31)
An assertion that righteousness comes through faith in God's promise, not through doing what the Law requires

<sup>1</sup> Foolish Galatians! Who has bewitched you, you who saw Jesus Christ clearly portrayed before your eyes as crucified? <sup>2</sup> I want to learn only this from you: Did you receive the Spirit by doing what the Law says or by believing what you heard? <sup>3</sup> Are you so foolish? After you have begun by the Spirit, are you being made perfect by the sinful human nature? <sup>4</sup> Have you suffered so much for nothing — if it has really been for nothing? <sup>5</sup> Therefore, does God, who supplies you with the Spirit and works miracles among you, do these things by your keeping what the Law says or by your believing what you hear?

<sup>6</sup> Consider Abraham! He believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness. <sup>7</sup> Understand, then, that those who believe are children of Abraham. <sup>8</sup> Since the Scripture foresaw that God would justify the nations by faith, He announced the Gospel to Abraham beforehand: “Through you all the nations will be blessed.” <sup>9</sup> Therefore, those who have faith are blessed together with Abraham, who had faith.

<sup>10</sup> For all who rely on doing what the Law says are under a curse, because the Scriptures have said: “Cursed is everyone who does not continue to do all the things that have been written in the book of the Law.” <sup>11</sup> However, it is clear that no one is justified before God by the Law, because “the person who is righteous will live by faith.” <sup>12</sup> However, the Law is not based on faith. Rather, it says, “The person who has done them will live by them.”

<sup>13</sup> Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the Law by becoming a curse for us. For the Scriptures have said, “Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree.” <sup>14</sup> The result is that the blessing of Abraham has come on the nations in Christ Jesus, that we may receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.

An assertion that the promise about the Descendant of Abraham preceded

the Law at Sinai

<sup>15</sup> Fellow-Christians, I am speaking in an ordinary human way. After a covenant has been ratified, even if it is only a human one, no one sets it aside or adds to it.

<sup>16</sup> God spoke the promises about Abraham and about his Descendant. He does not say, “And to your descendants,” as if referring to many people but as referring to one Person: “And to your Descendant,” who is Christ. <sup>17</sup> What I mean is this: The Law, which came four hundred and thirty years after the Covenant that had previously been ratified by God, does not cancel it, so as to make the promise ineffective. <sup>18</sup> For, if the inheritance comes from Law, it no longer comes from a promise. However, God has given it to Abraham through a promise.

The role of the Law of Moses as a guardian until Christ came <sup>19</sup> Why then was the Law given? It was added because of trespasses until the Descendant came to whom the promise had been made. It was ordered through angels by the hand of a mediator. <sup>20</sup> A mediator does not deal with only one, but God is one. <sup>21</sup> Therefore, is the Law opposed to the promises of God? Certainly not! For, if a law had been given that could have given life to people, then certainly righteousness would have come by law. <sup>22</sup> However, the Scripture has imprisoned everything under sin, that the promise may be given through faith in Jesus Christ to those who believe.

<sup>23</sup> Before the faith came, we were being imprisoned by the Law, locked up until the faith came, which was about to be revealed. <sup>24</sup> Therefore, the Law was our guardian until Christ came, that we might be justified by faith. <sup>25</sup> However, now that faith has come, we are no longer under a guardian. <sup>26</sup> For you are all the sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus, <sup>27</sup> because all of you who were baptised into Christ put on Christ. <sup>28</sup> There is neither Jew nor Greek. There is neither slave nor free. There is neither male nor female. For you are all one in Christ Jesus. <sup>29</sup> Moreover, if you belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's descendants and heirs according to the promise.

Being children of God comes through faith in Jesus Christ

<sup>1</sup> What I am saying is that, while the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, although he is the owner of everything. <sup>2</sup> Rather, he is under guardians and managers until the time set by his father. <sup>3</sup> We also, when we were children, were enslaved under the elementary principles of the world. <sup>4</sup> However, when the time had fully come, God sent out His Son, born of a woman, born under the Law, <sup>5</sup> to redeem those who were under the Law, that we might receive adoption as His sons. <sup>6</sup> Moreover, because you are sons, God has sent out the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, the Spirit who cries, “Abba! Father!” <sup>7</sup> Therefore, you are no longer a slave but a son. Moreover, since you are a son, you are also an heir, through God. <sup>8</sup> However, when you formerly did not know God, you were the slaves to those who by nature are not gods. <sup>9</sup> Now that you know God or rather, now that you are known by God, how is it that you are turning back again to those weak and beggarly elementary principles and that you wish to be slaves to them all over again? <sup>10</sup> You are observing days, months, seasons and years. <sup>11</sup> I am afraid for you, that the hard work that I have been doing for you has somehow been wasted.

A reminder that the Galatians had previously welcomed the Gospel

<sup>12</sup> I beg you, my fellow-Christians, become like me! For I also became like you. You have not injured me at all. <sup>13</sup> You know that it was because of a physical illness that I told you the Good News on the first occasion. <sup>14</sup> You did not despise or scorn the trial that my physical condition caused for you. Instead, you welcomed me as an angel of God or as Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Where is your blessed condition now? For I testify to you that, if it had been possible, you would have torn out your eyes and given them to me. <sup>16</sup> Have I therefore become your enemy by telling you the truth? <sup>17</sup> Those people are courting your favour but for no good. They want to cut you off from me that you may court their favour. <sup>18</sup> It is commendable if zeal is always shown for a good cause and not only when I am present with you. <sup>19</sup> My children, for whom I am suffering birth-pains again until Christ is formed in you, <sup>20</sup> I wish that I were present with you now and were changing my tone! For I am perplexed about you.

An allegory about Hagar and Sarah to illustrate two kinds of children of Abraham

<sup>21</sup> Tell me, you who want to be under the Law, do you not listen to the Law? <sup>22</sup> For Scripture says that Abraham had two sons. One was the son of the slave-woman, and the other the son of the free woman. <sup>23</sup> However, the son from the slave woman was born in the natural way, but the son from the free woman was born through a promise. <sup>24</sup> When these things have been made into an allegory, they mean this: These women are two Covenants. One Covenant is from Mount Sinai, which gives birth to children for slavery. This one is Hagar. <sup>25</sup> Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia and corresponds to the Jerusalem of today. For she is in slavery with her children. <sup>26</sup> However, the Jerusalem that is above is free and is our mother. <sup>27</sup> For Scripture says: “Be glad, barren woman, you who do not have any children! Break forth and cry aloud, you who have no labour-pains! For the children of the deserted woman are more numerous than those of the woman who has her husband.” <sup>28</sup> Fellow-Christians, you, like Isaac, are children of promise. <sup>29</sup> However, as the son who had been born at that time in the natural way was persecuting the son who was born according to the Spirit, so it is even now. <sup>30</sup> Nevertheless, what does the Scripture say? “Throw out the slave-woman and her son! For the son of the slave woman will certainly not be an heir together with the son of the free woman.” <sup>31</sup> Therefore, fellow-Christians, we are not the children of a slave woman but of the free woman.

Practical applications of freedom from the Law (5:1-6:10)

An admonition to continue in freedom from the Law

<sup>1</sup> Christ has freed us that we may be free. Therefore, stand firm and do not be loaded down again by a yoke of slavery! <sup>2</sup> Look! I, Paul, am telling you, if you have yourselves circumcised, Christ will not benefit you at all. <sup>3</sup> In addition, I testify again to every man who has himself circumcised that he is obligated to do everything that the Law says. <sup>4</sup> You who are trying to be justified by the Law have been estranged from Christ. You have fallen away from grace. <sup>5</sup> For we through the Spirit eagerly await by faith the righteousness for which we hope. <sup>6</sup> For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value, but faith, which expresses itself through love.

<sup>7</sup> You were running well. Who has hindered you, so that you are not following the truth? <sup>8</sup> This persuasion does not come from the One who calls you. <sup>9</sup> “A little yeast works through the whole batch of dough.” <sup>10</sup> I have confidence in you, in the Lord, that you will not think in any other way, but he who is confusing you will bear his judgment, whoever he is. <sup>11</sup> My fellow-Christians, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case, the offence of the cross has been done away with. <sup>12</sup> I wish the men who are upsetting you would castrate themselves!

<sup>13</sup> For you have been called to be free, fellow-Christians. Only do not use your freedom to give your sinful nature a starting point but through love serve one another! <sup>14</sup> For the whole Law is summarised in a single saying: “You shall love your neighbour as yourself!” <sup>15</sup> However, if you bite and devour one another, beware that you are not destroyed by one another!

<sup>16</sup> I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you will not carry out what your sinful natures desire! <sup>17</sup> For the sinful nature desires what is contrary to the Spirit, and the Spirit desires what is contrary to the sinful nature. For these are opposed to each other, so that you do not do what you want to do. <sup>18</sup> However, if the Spirit leads you, you are not under the Law.

<sup>22</sup> However, what the Spirit produces is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup> gentleness and self-control. There is no law against such things. <sup>24</sup> Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified their sinful natures with their passions and desires. <sup>25</sup> If we live by the Spirit, let us also follow the

Galatians

Spirit! <sup>26</sup> Let us not be conceited, provoke one another or envy one another!

An admonition to bear one another's burdens

<sup>1</sup> My fellow-Christians, if a person is overtaken in some sin, you who are spiritual should set such a person right again in a gentle spirit! However, watch yourself, that you also may not be tempted! <sup>2</sup> Carry each other's burdens, and so you will fulfil the Law of Christ! <sup>3</sup> For, if anyone thinks that he is something when he is nothing, he is deceiving himself. <sup>4</sup> Let each one test his own work! Then he will have something to boast about concerning himself alone and not concerning somebody else. <sup>5</sup> For everyone will carry his own load.

A warning that people will reap what they sow

<sup>6</sup> The person who is instructed in the Word should share all good things with his instructor. <sup>7</sup> Do not be deceived! God is not mocked. For a person will harvest whatever he sows. <sup>8</sup> For the one who sows to his own sinful nature will from his sinful nature harvest destruction, but the one who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit harvest everlasting life. <sup>9</sup> Let us not become tired of doing good! For we shall harvest, each in his own appointed time, if we do not give up. <sup>10</sup> Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of faith!

Conclusion (6:11-18)

An admonition to cling to the cross of Christ and to dismiss demands for circumcision

<sup>11</sup> See what large letters I am making when I write to you with my own hand! <sup>12</sup> All who want to make a good showing in an outward way are compelling you to be circumcised. The only reason why they are doing this is to avoid being persecuted for the cross of Christ. <sup>13</sup> For not even those who are circumcised keep the Law themselves but want you to be circumcised that they may boast about your flesh. <sup>14</sup> May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world! <sup>15</sup> For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything, but what matters is a new creation. <sup>16</sup> May peace and mercy also be on all those who follow this rule, namely, on the Israel of God! <sup>17</sup> From now on, let no one make trouble for me! For I bear on my body the marks of Jesus. <sup>18</sup> May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my fellow-Christians! Amen.

Introduction (1:1-2)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will, to God's holy people in Ephesus who trust in Christ Jesus:

<sup>2</sup> May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ give you grace and peace!

Doctrinal section: the church as God's workmanship created in Christ Jesus (1:3-3:21)

Praise to God for spiritual blessings in Christ

<sup>3</sup> Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ! <sup>4</sup> For before He made the world, His love led Him to choose us in Christ to be holy and blameless in His sight. In love <sup>5</sup> He predestined us to be adopted as His own sons through Jesus Christ, in accordance with the good pleasure of His will. <sup>6</sup> He did this that His glorious grace, which He bestowed on us in His dearly loved Son, might be praised. <sup>7</sup> In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, because of God's rich grace. <sup>8</sup> He caused His grace to abound toward us in all wisdom and understanding, <sup>9</sup> when He made known to us the mystery of His will. According to His good pleasure it was His purpose in Christ <sup>10</sup> to manage everything, both in heaven and on earth, in such a way that, when the right time came, He might summarise all things in Christ. <sup>11</sup> In Christ we have also obtained an inheritance. He who carries out everything exactly as His will plans it has predestined us according to His purpose. <sup>12</sup> He did this that we, who were the first to hope in Christ, might praise His glory. <sup>13</sup> When you heard the message of the truth, the Good News that you have been saved and when you became believers, you were also sealed in Him by the Holy Spirit, whom God promised. <sup>14</sup> That Holy Spirit is the guarantee of our inheritance until God redeems us to be His very own, that His glory may be praised.

Thanksgiving and prayer

<sup>15</sup> For this reason, since I heard about the faith that you have in the Lord Jesus and your love for all God's holy people, <sup>16</sup> I do not stop thanking God for you as I remember you in my prayers. <sup>17</sup> I ask the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, to give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, that you may know Him better. <sup>18</sup> I pray that the eyes of your minds will be enlightened, that you may know the hope to which He has called you, how rich His glorious inheritance is among His holy people, <sup>19</sup> and how incomparably great His power is for us, who believe according to the working of His mighty power. <sup>20</sup> He worked with that same power in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly realms, <sup>21</sup> far above all rule, authority, power, dominion and every other name that can be mentioned, not only in this age but also in the one to come. <sup>22</sup> He also put everything under His feet and appointed Him as the Head of everything, for the benefit of the church, <sup>23</sup> which is His body, filled completely by Him who fills everything in every way.

Salvation through God's grace in Christ for Jews and Gentiles

<sup>1</sup> You also were dead in your trespasses and sins. <sup>2</sup> You once led your lives in those sins, following the ways of this present world and the ruler who governs the air, the spirit who is now working in the people who disobey. <sup>3</sup> All of us also once lived among them in the lusts of our sinful natures, doing what our sinful natures and minds wanted to do. By nature, we deserved God's anger like all the others. <sup>4</sup> However, God, who is rich in mercy, because of His great love for us, <sup>5</sup> also made us, even when we were dead in trespasses, alive with Christ. It is by grace that you have been saved. <sup>6</sup> Moreover, in Christ Jesus, God raised us with Him and seated us with Him in the heavenly realms, <sup>7</sup> to show, in the coming ages, the immeasurable riches of His grace by being kind to us in Christ Jesus. <sup>8</sup> For by grace you have been saved through faith. This is not of yourselves. It is the gift of God, <sup>9</sup> not of works, that no one may boast. <sup>10</sup> For He has made us what we are, creating us in Christ Jesus for good works, which God has prepared in advance, that we may live in them.

The oneness of Jews and Gentiles in Christ

<sup>11</sup> Remember, then, that once you were Gentiles in a bodily way, called "Uncircumcised" by those who were called "the Circumcised," in a bodily, hand-made way.

<sup>12</sup> Remember that at that time you were without Christ, excluded from citizenship in Israel and strangers to God's Covenants of promise! You had no hope and were without God in the world.

<sup>13</sup> However, now, in Christ Jesus, the blood of Christ has brought you, who once were far away, near. <sup>14</sup> For He Himself is our Peace. In His human nature He has made them both, Jew and Gentile, one, by breaking down the wall of hostility that kept them apart. <sup>15</sup> He has abolished the Law with its Commandments and Regulations, to create the two into one new person in Himself, so making peace, <sup>16</sup> and that He may reconcile them both to God in one body through His cross, on which He has killed the hostility. <sup>17</sup> He came, telling the Good News of peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. <sup>18</sup> For through Him we both have access, by one Spirit, to the Father.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, you are no longer foreigners and strangers but fellow citizens with God's holy people and members of God's household. <sup>20</sup> You have been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, and Christ Jesus Himself is the Cornerstone. <sup>21</sup> In Him the whole building is fitted together and grows to be a holy temple in the Lord. <sup>22</sup> In Him the Spirit also is building you up, with the others, into God's dwelling-place.

The revelation of the mystery of the Gospel

<sup>1</sup> For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles — <sup>2</sup> (Surely you have heard that God has given me the administration of His grace toward you, <sup>3</sup> that He has made the mystery known to me by revelation, as I have already briefly written. <sup>4</sup> When you read this, you can know my understanding of the mystery of Christ, <sup>5</sup> which was not made known to people in other generations, as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to His holy apostles and prophets. <sup>6</sup> This mystery is that, through the Good News, the Gentiles should have the same inheritance, belong to the same body and share the same promise in Christ Jesus. <sup>7</sup> I was made a minister of this Good News by the gracious gift that God gave me by the working of His power. <sup>8</sup> Although I am less than the least of all His holy people, He gave me this grace: that I should tell the Good News of the unsearchable riches of Christ among the Gentiles, <sup>9</sup> and to make clear to everyone what the administration of this mystery is, which from ages past has been hidden in God, who created all things. <sup>10</sup> God did this that through the church His many-sided wisdom might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavens. <sup>11</sup> This was according to His eternal purpose, and He carried it out in Christ Jesus our Lord. <sup>12</sup> In Him, by believing in Him, we are bold and can confidently approach God. <sup>13</sup> Therefore, I ask you not to be discouraged by my sufferings for you. They are your glory.)

Prayer for strength to know the love of Christ

<sup>14</sup> For this reason I bend my knees before the Father, <sup>15</sup> from whom every family in heaven and on earth has its name. <sup>16</sup> I ask Him to grant you that, according to His glorious riches, He will strengthen you with power through His Spirit in your inner being, <sup>17</sup> that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith and that you may be firmly rooted and established in love. <sup>18</sup> I ask that, with all God's holy people, you will be able to grasp what the width, length, height and depth is, <sup>19</sup> and that you will know the love of Christ, which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

<sup>20</sup> To Him who, by the power that is working in us, can do immeasurably more than anything we ask or imagine, <sup>21</sup> to Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, for ever and ever! Amen.

Practical section: the church is created to serve Christ by doing good works (4:1-6:20)

Unity in the body of Christ

<sup>1</sup> As a prisoner in the Lord, I urge you to live in a manner worthy of people whom the Lord has called. <sup>2</sup> Be humble and gentle in every way, be patient and bear with one another in a loving way! <sup>3</sup> Make every effort to keep the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace! <sup>4</sup> There is one body and one Spirit — just as God has called you to one hope — <sup>5</sup> one Lord, one faith, one baptism, <sup>6</sup> one God and Father of all, who is over all, through all and in all. <sup>7</sup> However, grace has been given to each one of us as Christ, who has given it, has measured it out. <sup>8</sup> That is why the Scripture says, “When He went up on high, He led many captives and gave gifts to people.” <sup>9</sup> Now what can “He went up” mean except that He also had gone down to the lower, earthly regions? <sup>10</sup> He who went down also “went up” above all the heavens, to fill everything. <sup>11</sup> He gave some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to be evangelists, and some to be pastors and teachers. <sup>12</sup> His purpose was to prepare God's holy people, to do the work of ministry and to build up the body of Christ, <sup>13</sup> until we all become one in our faith and in our knowledge of the Son of God, until we become mature, until we reach the full height of Christ. <sup>14</sup> His purpose was that we might not be babies any longer, tossed and driven by every doctrinal wind, by the trickery of people and by their clever and deceitful scheming to lead us astray. <sup>15</sup> Instead, His purpose is that, as we speak the truth with love, we may grow up into Him who is the Head, namely, Christ. <sup>16</sup> He makes the whole body fit together and unites it by every ligament that supports it; and to the extent that each and every part is doing its work, He makes the body grow, so that it builds itself up in love.

The new life in Christ

<sup>17</sup> So, I tell you and call on you in the Lord, not to live any longer like the Gentiles. Their minds are set on worthless things. <sup>18</sup> Their understanding is darkened. Their natural state of ignorance, caused by their closed minds, has made them strangers to the life that God gives. <sup>19</sup> Having become callous, they have given themselves over to a life of lust, to practise every kind of vice with a constant desire for more. <sup>20</sup> However, that is not what you learned when you came to know Christ, <sup>21</sup> if indeed you have heard Him and have been taught by Him as the truth is in Jesus. <sup>22</sup> You were taught to strip off your old self, which follows your former ways of living and ruins you, as it follows the desires that deceive you. <sup>23</sup> Instead, you were taught to be continually renewed in the spirit of your minds, <sup>24</sup> and to put on the new self, which is created to be like God, truly righteous and holy. <sup>25</sup> Therefore, each of you must put off falsehood and speak the truth to his neighbour! For we are members of one another. <sup>26</sup> Be angry without sinning! Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, <sup>27</sup> and do not give the Devil a foothold! <sup>28</sup> He who has been stealing must not steal any longer! Instead, he must work hard, doing something good with his own hands, that he may have something to share with anyone in need! <sup>29</sup> Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths but only what is helpful for building others up where they need it, that it may impart grace to those who listen! <sup>30</sup> Do not grieve God's Holy Spirit, by whom you were sealed for the day when you will be set free! <sup>31</sup> Get rid of all bitterness, rage, anger, brawling and slander, along with every way of hurting one another! <sup>32</sup> Be kind to one another and tender-hearted, forgiving one another, as God in Christ has forgiven you!

The Christian life of love

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, imitate God, as His dearly loved children, <sup>2</sup> and live in love, just as Christ also loved us and gave Himself up for us as a "fragrant offering and sacrifice" to God! <sup>3</sup> However, sexual sin and all other impurity or greed, must not even be mentioned among you! This is proper for God's holy people. <sup>4</sup> There should be no obscenity, foolish talk or coarse jokes! These are not proper, but rather, give thanks! <sup>5</sup> For be sure of this, that no one who is immoral, impure or greedy (such a person is an idolater) has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God! <sup>6</sup> Do not let anyone deceive you with empty words! For because of these sins God's anger comes on disobedient people. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, do not be partners with them! <sup>8</sup> For once you were darkness but now you are light in the Lord. Live as people who belong to the light! <sup>9</sup> For light produces everything that is good, righteous and true. <sup>10</sup> Approve what is pleasing to the Lord! <sup>11</sup> Do not have anything to do with the works of darkness, from which no good can come, but instead continue to expose them! <sup>12</sup> For it is a shame even to mention the things that they do in secret. <sup>13</sup> All things that are exposed are made visible by the light. <sup>14</sup> For everything that is revealed is light. For this reason, it is said: "Wake up, you who sleep! Rise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you!" <sup>15</sup> Therefore, be very careful how you live! Do not live as unwise people but as wise people! <sup>16</sup> Make the most of every opportunity! For the days are evil. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, do not be foolish but understand what the Lord wants! <sup>18</sup> Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to wild living! Instead, be filled with the Spirit! <sup>19</sup> Speak to one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs and sing and make music in your hearts to the Lord! <sup>20</sup> Always give thanks to God the Father for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ! <sup>21</sup> Be subordinate to one another out of respect for Christ!

The relationship of husbands and wives

<sup>22</sup> Wives, be subordinate to your own husbands as to the Lord! <sup>23</sup> For a husband is the head of his wife as Christ is also the Head of the church, His body, of which He is the Saviour; <sup>24</sup> but, as the church is subordinate to Christ, so also wives should be subordinate to their husbands in everything! <sup>25</sup> Husbands, love your wives, as Christ also loved the church and gave Himself up for her, <sup>26</sup> that He might make the church holy, by making her clean with the Washing of water by the Word! <sup>27</sup> He did this that He might present her to Himself as a glorious church, without spot or wrinkle or any other such blemish, but that she might be holy and without fault. <sup>28</sup> In this way husbands also ought to love their own wives, as their own bodies. A man who loves his own wife loves himself. <sup>29</sup> For no one has ever hated his own flesh. Rather, everyone feeds his body and treats it tenderly, as Christ also does the church. <sup>30</sup> For we are members of His body. <sup>31</sup> "This is why a man will leave his father and mother and remain united with his wife, and the two will become one flesh." <sup>32</sup> This mystery is great. However, I speak of it with reference to Christ and the church. <sup>33</sup> However, each one of you husbands should love his own wife as he loves himself, and the wife must respect her husband.

The relationship of children and parents

The relationship of slaves and masters

<sup>5</sup> Slaves, obey your earthly masters with respect and trembling and with sincerity of heart, just as you would obey Christ! <sup>6</sup> Do not serve only while you are being watched, as if you merely wanted to please people, but serve like slaves of Christ, doing the will of God from your hearts! <sup>7</sup> Serve eagerly, as if you were serving the Lord and not merely men! <sup>8</sup> For you know that each one will receive from the Lord whatever good he does, whether he is slave or free. <sup>9</sup> You masters, also, treat your slaves in the same way and give up threatening them! For you know that both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no favouritism with Him.

Warfare against spiritual forces

<sup>10</sup> Finally, be strong in the Lord and in His mighty power! <sup>11</sup> Put on the full armour of God, that you may be able to stand against the tricky schemes of the Devil, <sup>12</sup> because we are not wrestling against flesh and blood but against the rulers, against the authorities, against those who control this dark world, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms! <sup>13</sup> Therefore, take up the full armour of God, that you may be able to resist in the evil day and, after you have done everything, to stand! <sup>14</sup> Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness <sup>15</sup> and having shod your feet with the readiness that comes from the Good News of peace! <sup>16</sup> Besides all these, take up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to extinguish all the flaming arrows of the Evil One! <sup>17</sup> Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God! <sup>18</sup> Pray on every occasion with all kinds of prayers and requests in the Spirit! For this purpose, be alert with all perseverance as you pray for all God's holy people! <sup>19</sup> Pray also for me, that when I open my mouth what to say may be given to me, that I may boldly make known the mystery of the Good News!

Ephesians

<sup>20</sup> Because of it I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak it!

Conclusion (6:21-24)

Farewell greetings

servant in the Lord, will tell you everything, that you also may know how I am and what I am doing. <sup>22</sup> I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that you may know our affairs, and that he may encourage your hearts. <sup>23</sup> Peace to the fellow-Christians and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

<sup>24</sup> Grace be with all who have an undying love for our Lord Jesus Christ!

PHILIPPIANS

1

An introductory greeting and prayer (1:1-11)

<sup>1</sup> Paul and Timothy, slaves of Christ Jesus, to all God's holy people in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons: <sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

An assurance that Paul is praying for the Philippians and thanking God for them

<sup>3</sup> I thank my God every time I remember you. <sup>4</sup> Every time I pray for all of you I always make my prayer with joy, <sup>5</sup> because of your partnership in the Good News from the first day until now. <sup>6</sup> I am sure of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will carry it on to complete it until the day of Christ Jesus. <sup>7</sup> It is right for me to think like this about all of you, because, whether I am in chains or defending and confirming the Good News, I have you in my heart, as people who are all partners in God's grace with me. <sup>8</sup> For God is my witness how I long for all of you with the affection of Christ Jesus. <sup>9</sup> I also pray that your love will overflow still more and more in knowledge and in all insight, <sup>10</sup> that you may approve the things that are best, that you may be pure and without blame until the day of Christ, <sup>11</sup> filled with the fruit of righteousness, which comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

Personal news (1:12-26)

Paul's desire that the Gospel should be proclaimed

<sup>12</sup> I want you to know, my fellow-Christians, that what has happened to me has really turned out to advance the Good News. <sup>13</sup> As a result, it has become clear to the whole palace-guard and to all the rest that I am in chains for Christ. <sup>14</sup> So, my chains have given most of the brothers in the Lord the confidence to speak the Word more boldly and fearlessly. <sup>15</sup> Some people are moved even by jealousy and rivalry to preach Christ, but others are also moved by good will. <sup>16</sup> Some preach out of love. For they know that God has put me here to defend the Good News. <sup>17</sup> However, the others preach Christ out of selfish ambition, without a pure motive and suppose that they are stirring up trouble for me while I am in chains. <sup>18</sup> However, what does it matter? Only this, that in every way, whether from false motives or true, Christ is being preached, and I am glad of this. Yes, and I shall continue to rejoice.

Paul's desire to glorify Christ, either by life or death

<sup>19</sup> For I know that this will result in my deliverance, through your prayer and the help of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, <sup>20</sup> as I eagerly expect and hope that I shall in no way be ashamed but that, by speaking very boldly, I shall now, as always, glorify Christ in my body, whether by life or by death. <sup>21</sup> For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. <sup>22</sup> If I live on in my body, that will mean results from my labour. Yet I do not know which I should choose. <sup>23</sup> I am hard pressed between the two. I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far. <sup>24</sup> However, it is more necessary for you that I should remain in my body. <sup>25</sup> Since I am convinced of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all, that you may progress and be joyful in the faith, <sup>26</sup> that my coming to you again may cause you to rejoice more over me in Christ Jesus.

A plea for unity (1:27-2:18)

An exhortation to live worthily of the Gospel

<sup>27</sup> Only let your conduct be worthy of the Good News of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am away, I may hear how you are, that you are standing firmly in one spirit and striving together with one mind for the faith of the Good News! <sup>28</sup> Do not let those who oppose you frighten you in any way! This is a sign for them that they will be destroyed and a sign that you will be saved, and this is from God. <sup>29</sup> For it is God's gift to you concerning Christ, not only to believe in Him but also to suffer for His sake, <sup>30</sup> since you have the same struggle as you have seen me have and as you now hear that I still have.

An exhortation to harmony and humility, motivated by Christ's humbling Himself

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, if you have any encouragement in Christ, if you have any comfort from His love, if you have any fellowship of the Spirit, if you have any tenderness and compassion, <sup>2</sup> make my joy complete by being like-minded, having the same love, being harmonious and setting your minds on the same thing! <sup>3</sup> Do nothing out of selfish ambition or empty conceit but in humility regard others as being better than you are! <sup>4</sup> Each of you should look not only to his own interests but also to the interests of others!

<sup>5</sup> Have the same attitude as Christ Jesus had! <sup>6</sup> Although He was in the form of God, yet He did not consider His equality with God as a prize to exploit. <sup>7</sup> Instead, He emptied Himself, took the form of a slave and became like other human beings; and, when He was found in the appearance of a human being, <sup>8</sup> He humbled Himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross. <sup>9</sup> That is why God also has very highly exalted Him and given Him the name that is above every other name, <sup>10</sup> that at the name of Jesus everyone in heaven and on earth and under the earth may kneel, <sup>11</sup> and that everyone may confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

An exhortation to a blameless life

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, my dear friends, as you have always obeyed, not only when I have been with you but also even more now that I am absent, continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling! <sup>13</sup> For it is God who continues to work in you both to be willing and to be doing according to His good purpose. <sup>14</sup> Do everything without complaining or arguing, <sup>15</sup> that you may be blameless and pure, children of God without blame in a crooked and depraved generation, among whom you shine like stars in the universe, <sup>16</sup> as you cling to the Word of life, that I may boast on the day of Christ that I have not been running for nothing or labouring for nothing! <sup>17</sup> However, even if I am being poured out like a drink offering while I am offering your faith as a sacrificial service, I am glad and rejoice with you all. <sup>18</sup> In the same way you should also be glad and rejoice with me!

Information about Timothy and Epaphroditus (2:19-30)

<sup>19</sup> I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be encouraged when I receive news about you. <sup>20</sup> For I do not have anyone else so like-minded who will genuinely care for your welfare. <sup>21</sup> For they all look after their own interests, not after those of Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup> However, you know that Timothy has proved himself and that he has been serving with me in the Good News like a son serving his father. <sup>23</sup> I hope to send him as soon as I see how things are going with me. <sup>24</sup> I am confident in the Lord that I myself shall also be coming soon. <sup>25</sup> I think that it is necessary to send you Epaphroditus, my fellow-Christian, a fellow-worker and a fellow soldier, who is also your messenger and your attendant to my need, <sup>26</sup> since he has been longing for you all and has been distressed because you have heard that he has been sick. <sup>27</sup> For indeed, he has been sick, almost to the point of death, but God has had mercy on him and not only on him but also on me, that I may not have one sorrow after another. <sup>28</sup> Therefore, I am sending him more eagerly, that you may be glad when you see him again and that I may have less anxiety. <sup>29</sup> Welcome him in the Lord with all joy and honour such men highly, <sup>30</sup> because he came close to death for the work of Christ and risked his life to make up for the service that you could not give me!

3

Warnings against false teachers (3:1-21)
Righteousness through faith in Christ apart from the Law

<sup>1</sup> Finally, my fellow-Christians, rejoice in the Lord! It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you and it is safe for you. <sup>2</sup> Look out for those dogs, look out for those who do evil, look out for those who cut the body! <sup>3</sup> For it is we who are the circumcised people, we who worship in the Spirit of God, who boast in Christ Jesus and put no confidence in what is bodily, <sup>4</sup> although I myself have confidence even in what is bodily. If anyone else thinks that he has confidence in something bodily, I have more. <sup>5</sup> I was circumcised on the eighth day; I belong to the race of Israel, to the tribe of Benjamin. I am a Hebrew son of Hebrew parents. Concerning the Law, I was a Pharisee. <sup>6</sup> As for zeal, I used to persecute the church. As for the righteousness that is in the Law I was blameless. <sup>7</sup> However, I have reckoned those things that were gains to me as loss because of Christ. <sup>8</sup> However, more than that, I even consider everything as a loss because of the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. Because of Him I have lost all things and consider them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ, <sup>9</sup> and to be found in Him, not having my own righteousness that is from the Law but having the righteousness that is through faith in Christ, the righteousness that is from God based on faith. <sup>10</sup> I want to know Christ, the power of His resurrection and fellowship in His sufferings, as I am conformed to His death, <sup>11</sup> if, by any means, I shall attain to the resurrection from the dead. <sup>12</sup> I do not mean that I have already obtained this or have already been made perfect but eagerly strive to take hold of that for which Jesus Christ has also taken hold of me. <sup>13</sup> Fellow-Christians, I do not think I have taken hold of it. However, I do one thing: I forget the things that are behind and strain toward the things that are ahead. <sup>14</sup> I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup> Let as many of us as are mature think in this way! However, if you think differently about anything, God will also reveal this to you. <sup>16</sup> Only be guided by what we have learned so far!

An exhortation to live as citizens of heaven

<sup>17</sup> My fellow-Christians, keep on imitating me and taking note of those who live according to the example we are giving you! <sup>18</sup> For I have often told you and now tell you with tears, that many live as the enemies of the cross of Christ. <sup>19</sup> In the end they will be destroyed. Their own feelings are their god. They glory in their shame, and their minds are on earthly things. <sup>20</sup> For we are citizens of heaven and look for the Lord Jesus Christ to come from heaven as the Saviour. <sup>21</sup> He will change our humble bodies and make them like His glorified body, because He has the power by which He can make everything subordinate to Himself.

An exhortation to stand firm (4:1-9)

<sup>1</sup> So, my fellow-Christians, dearly loved people, for whom I long, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Lord!

The need for two women to agree

<sup>2</sup> I urge Euodia and urge Syntyche to agree in the Lord. <sup>3</sup> Yes, I urge you also, my loyal yoke-fellow, help these women! They have been contending together with me in the Good News, along with Clement also and the rest of my fellow-workers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

An encouragement to rejoice in the Lord

<sup>4</sup> Rejoice in the Lord always! I shall say it again: Rejoice! <sup>5</sup> Let your gentleness be evident to all people! The Lord is near. <sup>6</sup> Do not worry about anything but in everything make your requests known to God by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving! <sup>7</sup> The peace of God, which is beyond all understanding, will also guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

<sup>8</sup> Finally, my fellow-Christians, keep your minds on all things that are true, all things that are noble, all things that are right, all things that are pure, all things that are lovely, all things that are appealing and anything that is excellent and praiseworthy! <sup>9</sup> Continue to put into practice what you have learned, received and heard from me and what you have seen in me! The God of peace will also be with you.

Philippians

Thanks for the Philippians' gift to Paul (4:10-20)

<sup>10</sup> I am very glad in the Lord that now again you have revived your concern for me. You have been concerned but have not had an opportunity to show it. <sup>11</sup> I am not saying that I need anything. For I have learned to be content in whatever situation I am in. <sup>12</sup> I know how to be in need and know how to have plenty. In every way and in everything I have learnt the secret both of being fully satisfied and of being hungry, both of having plenty and of having too little. <sup>13</sup> I can do everything through Him who strengthens me. <sup>14</sup> Yet it has been kind of you to share my trouble. <sup>15</sup> You people of Philippi also know that in the early days of the Good News, when I left Macedonia, you were the only church to share with me in the settlement of our mutual account. <sup>16</sup> Even while I was in Thessalonica, you sent aid once and again when I was in need. <sup>17</sup> Not that I am looking for the gift but for the growing profit in your account. <sup>18</sup> You have paid me in full, and I have more than enough. I am fully supplied, now that I have received from Epaphroditus what you have sent. It is a sweet aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, which pleases God. <sup>19</sup> My God will give you everything that you need according to His riches, in glory, in Christ Jesus. <sup>20</sup> To our God and Father be the glory for ever and ever! Amen.

Concluding greetings (4:21-23)

<sup>21</sup> Greet each of God's holy people in Christ Jesus! The Christians who are with me send greetings to you. <sup>22</sup> All of God's holy people send you greetings, especially those who belong to Caesar's household. <sup>23</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit! Amen.

COLOSSIANS

1

Introduction (1:1-12)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God and our fellow-Christian, Timothy, <sup>2</sup> to the holy and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father!

An assurance that Paul regularly thanks God for the Colossians and prays for them

<sup>3</sup> We are always thanking God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, <sup>4</sup> because we have heard about your faith in Christ Jesus and about the love that you have for all God's holy people, <sup>5</sup> because of the hope that has been stored up for you in heaven. You have already heard about it in the truthful Word of the Good News, <sup>6</sup> which continues to come to you. As it is producing fruit and growing all over the world, it has also been doing this among you from the day when you heard it and came to know the grace of God in truth. <sup>7</sup> It is the same Gospel as you have learned from Epaphras, our dear fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf. <sup>8</sup> He is also the one who has informed us about your love in the Spirit. <sup>9</sup> That is why, since the day when we heard about you, we also have not ceased to pray for you and to ask God to fill you with the clear knowledge of His will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding. <sup>10</sup> We ask that you may live in a way that is worthy of the Lord and that you may please Him in every way, as you are fruitful in every good work and grow in the clear knowledge of God. <sup>11</sup> We ask Him to strengthen you with all power according to His glorious might, that you may be completely enduring and patient, as you joyfully <sup>12</sup> give thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of God's holy people in the light.

The pre-eminence of Christ (1:13-23)

Christ as the Head of both the creation and the church

<sup>13</sup> He has rescued us from the authority of darkness and has transferred us into the kingdom of the Son, whom He loves, <sup>14</sup> in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. <sup>15</sup> He is the Image of the invisible God, the First-born of all creation, <sup>16</sup> since in Him all things in heaven and on earth have been created, the visible things and the invisible things, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities. All things have been created through Him and for Him; <sup>17</sup> and He has been before all things, and all things hold together in Him.

<sup>18</sup> He is also the Head of His body, the church. He is the Beginning, the First-born from the dead, that He Himself may come to have the first place among all things. <sup>19</sup> For it has pleased God that all His fullness should dwell in Him, <sup>20</sup> and to reconcile all things to Himself through Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through His blood of the cross.

<sup>21</sup> Once you were alienated from God and, in your minds, were His enemies, because of your wicked behaviour. <sup>22</sup> However, now He has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you before Him holy, without blame and free from accusation, <sup>23</sup> if you continue established and steadfast in the faith and are not moved away from the hope of the Good News, which you have heard. This Gospel has been preached to every creature under heaven, and I, Paul, have become a minister of it.

Paul's ministry to the church (1:24-2:7)

<sup>24</sup> Now I rejoice in my sufferings for you and, in my body, am filling up what is still lacking in Christ's afflictions, for the sake of His body, the church. <sup>25</sup> I have been made a minister of this church by the commission that God has given me regarding you, to fulfil the Word of God. <sup>26</sup> This is the mystery that has been hidden from ages and generations but that has now been disclosed to His holy people. <sup>27</sup> God has wished to make known to them the glorious riches of this mystery among the Gentiles. This mystery is Christ in you, the Hope of glory. <sup>28</sup> We are proclaiming Him, warning every person and teaching every person, using all wisdom, that we may present every person perfect in Christ. <sup>29</sup> To this end I am labouring, struggling like an athlete by His power, which is working mightily in me.

2

<sup>1</sup> I want you to know how much I am struggling for you, for the people at Laodicea and for all who have not seen my face in person, <sup>2</sup> that their hearts may be encouraged, when they have been knit together in love, that they may have all the riches of the full assurance of understanding and that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ, <sup>3</sup> in whom all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge have been hidden. <sup>4</sup> I say this that no one may deceive you by fine-sounding arguments. <sup>5</sup> For, although I am absent from you physically, yet I am with you in spirit and rejoice to see how orderly you are and how firm your faith in Christ is. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, as you have received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in Him! <sup>7</sup> Be rooted and built up in Him and be strengthened in the faith, just as you have been taught, and abound in thanksgiving!

Warnings against false teaching (2:8-3:4)

<sup>8</sup> Beware that no one captures you through philosophy and empty deceit, as he follows human tradition and the basic principles of the world, rather than following Christ. <sup>9</sup> For in Him all the fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily. <sup>10</sup> You have also been made full in Him, who is the Head of all rule and authority. <sup>11</sup> In Him you have also been circumcised, by a circumcision made without hands, by putting off the body of the sinful nature, by the circumcision done by Christ, <sup>12</sup> since you were buried with Him by baptism, by which you were also raised with Him, through the faith that is worked by God, who raised Him from the dead. <sup>13</sup> Although you were dead in sins and in your uncircumcised flesh, God has made you alive with Christ, forgiving us all our trespasses. <sup>14</sup> He has wiped out the written code, with its regulations, which was against us and opposed to us. He has taken it out of the way by nailing it to the cross. <sup>15</sup> He disarmed rulers and authorities and made a public show of them when He triumphed over them in Christ.

A warning against legalism

<sup>16</sup> Therefore, let no one judge you in what you eat or drink or about a feast day or a New Moon or a Sabbath day! <sup>17</sup> These are a shadow of the things that were to come, but the reality is that of Christ. <sup>18</sup> Let no one rob you of your prize by delighting in false humility and in the worship of angels! Such a person goes on in detail about his visions and is groundlessly inflated by his sinful human mind. <sup>19</sup> Such a person does not cling to the Head, from whom the whole body, which is supported and held together by its sinews and ligaments, grows as God causes it to grow. <sup>20</sup> Since you have died with Christ away from the basic principles of the world, why, as though you were alive in the world, do you submit to regulations: <sup>21</sup> “Do not handle, do not taste and do not touch!”? <sup>22</sup> All these apply to things that perish when they are used up and are in line with what human beings command and teach. <sup>23</sup> They indeed have an appearance of wisdom, with their self-imposed worship, their false humility and their harsh treatment of the body but lack any value against the indulgence of the sinful human nature.

The Christian life in union with Christ

The life in Christ (3:5-4:6)

An admonition to put off what is old and put on what is new <sup>5</sup> Therefore, put to death your members, which are on the earth: sexual sin, impurity, passion, evil desire and greed, which is idolatry! <sup>6</sup> Because of these things the wrath of God is coming on disobedient people. <sup>7</sup> Once you also walked in these ways when you used to live in them. <sup>8</sup> However, now you yourselves must put them all off: anger, fury, malice, slander and filthy language from your mouths! <sup>9</sup> Do not lie to one another, since you have put off the old man with its deeds! <sup>10</sup> You have also put on the new man, which is being renewed in knowledge according to the image of Him who created him. <sup>11</sup> Here there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcised person nor uncircumcised person, no barbarian, Scythian, slave or free person, but Christ is all things and is in all.

Exhortations to live as God's people

<sup>12</sup> Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and dearly loved, dress yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness and patience! <sup>13</sup> Bear with one another and forgive one another if anyone has a complaint against another! You also forgive, just as the Lord has forgiven you! <sup>14</sup> In addition to all these, put on love, which binds them all together perfectly! <sup>15</sup> Let the peace of Christ, to which you have been called in one body, also rule in your hearts, and be thankful! <sup>16</sup> Let the Word of Christ dwell richly among you, as with all wisdom you teach and warn one another with psalms, hymns and spiritual songs, singing to God with grateful hearts! <sup>17</sup> Moreover, whatever you do, in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him!

The duties of parents, children and slaves

<sup>20</sup> Children, obey your parents in everything! For this is pleasing to the Lord.

<sup>22</sup> Slaves, obey in everything those who, by human standards, are your masters! Do not serve them only when they are watching you, as if you were pleasing human beings, but serve them with sincere hearts! For you fear the Lord. <sup>23</sup> In whatever you are doing, work from the heart, as for the Lord and not for human beings! <sup>24</sup> For you know that you will receive the inheritance from the Lord as your reward. You are being slaves to the Lord Christ. <sup>25</sup> Indeed, the person who does wrong will be paid back for the wrong that he has done, and there is no favouritism.

<sup>1</sup> Masters, provide your slaves with what is just and fair! For you know that you also have a Master in heaven.

Exhortations to prayer and thanksgiving

<sup>2</sup> Devote yourselves to prayer and be watchful in it, with thanksgiving! <sup>3</sup> At the same time pray for us also, that God may open to us a door for the Word, that we may tell the mystery of Christ! Because of it I have also been put in chains. <sup>4</sup> Pray that I may make it known clearly, as I ought to tell it! <sup>5</sup> Be wise in the way in which you act toward those who are outside and make the most of your opportunities! <sup>6</sup> Let your speaking always be gracious, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you should answer each individual!

Conclusion (4:7-18)

Information about Tychicus and Onesimus

<sup>7</sup> Tychicus, my dear fellow-Christian, a faithful minister and a fellow-servant in the Lord, will tell you all the news about me. <sup>8</sup> I am sending him to you for this express purpose, that you may know about our circumstances and that he may encourage your hearts. <sup>9</sup> He is coming with Onesimus, our faithful and dear fellow-Christian, who is one of you. They will tell you about everything that is happening here.

Colossians

Concluding greetings

<sup>10</sup> Aristarchus, my fellow-prisoner, sends you greetings. So does Mark, the cousin of Barnabas. You have received instructions about him. Welcome him if he comes to you! <sup>11</sup> Jesus, who is called Justus, also sends greetings. These are the only men belonging to the circumcision who are fellow-workers with me for the kingdom of God and have become a comfort to me.

<sup>12</sup> Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, greets you. He is always wrestling in his prayers for you, that you may stand firm, be mature and be fully convinced in everything that God wants. <sup>13</sup> For I bear him witness that he is working hard for you and for the people at Laodicea and Hierapolis. <sup>14</sup> Luke, the doctor, our dear friend, greets you, and so does Demas.

<sup>15</sup> Give greetings to the fellow-Christians at Laodicea, to Nympha and to the church in her house! <sup>16</sup> When this letter has been read among you, see that it is also read in the church of the Laodiceans, and see that you also read the letter from Laodicea! <sup>17</sup> Tell Archippus, "Take care of the ministry that you have received in the Lord, that you may fulfil it!" <sup>18</sup> I, Paul, am writing this greeting with my own hand. Remember my chains! Grace be with you!

Opening greeting (1:1)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, Silas and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace and peace to you!

Summary remarks about the church in Thessalonica (1:2-3:13)

Paul's assurance of regular prayers for the Thessalonians and a thanksgiving for their faith and example

<sup>2</sup> We always thank God for you all when we mention you in our prayers. <sup>3</sup> We continually remember before our God and Father that your faith is working, that your love is toiling and that your hope in our Lord Jesus Christ is enduring patiently. <sup>4</sup> For we know, fellow-Christians, whom God loves, that He has chosen you, <sup>5</sup> because our Good News did not come to you simply with words but also with power, with the Holy Spirit and with great conviction. You know what kind of men we were among you for your good. <sup>6</sup> You also became imitators of us and of the Lord when, although you suffered greatly, you received the Word, with joy, given by the Holy Spirit. <sup>7</sup> As a result, you became models for all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. <sup>8</sup> For the Word of the Lord has sounded forth from you not only through Macedonia and Achaia but also in every place. Your faith toward God has gone out, so that we do not need to say anything. <sup>9</sup> For they themselves report concerning you what kind of reception you gave us, and how you turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God, <sup>10</sup> and to wait for His Son to come from heaven, whom He raised from the dead, namely, Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath.

Paul's ministry to the Thessalonians

<sup>1</sup> For you yourselves know, fellow-Christians, that our coming to you has not been in vain. <sup>2</sup> We had previously suffered and been mistreated at Philippi, as you know, but we had the courage in our God, to tell you the Good News of God, in much conflict. <sup>3</sup> For our exhortation does not come from error, impurity or deceit. <sup>4</sup> Rather, we speak the Good News just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with it. We are not trying to please human beings but God, who tests our hearts. <sup>5</sup> For we have never used flattering speech, as you know. Nor have we used a pretext to satisfy greed — God is our witness. <sup>6</sup> Nor have we been trying to get praise from human beings, either from you or from others.

Paul's assurance that the Thessalonians are dear to him

<sup>7</sup> As apostles of Christ we could have been a burden to you. However, we became infants among you. We were like a nursing-mother caring for her own children. <sup>8</sup> We had such a kindly feeling for you that we were delighted to share with you not only the Good News of God but also our own lives, because you had become dear to us. <sup>9</sup> For you remember, fellow-Christians, our toil and hardship. For we preached to you the Good News of God while we were working night and day, that we might not be a burden to any of you. <sup>10</sup> You are witnesses, and God is also, of how holy, righteous and blameless we were among you believers. <sup>11</sup> As you know, like a father who deals with his children, we used to urge, encourage and warn each one of you <sup>12</sup> to live lives that are worthy of God, who is calling you into His kingdom and glory. <sup>13</sup> We also thank God without ceasing for this reason, that, when you received the Word of God, which you heard from us, you received it, not as the word of men but, as what it truly is, the Word of God, which is also working effectually in you who believe.

A recollection of persecution at Thessalonica

<sup>14</sup> For you, fellow-Christians, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, since you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen as they did from the Jews. <sup>15</sup> Those Jews killed both the Lord Jesus and the prophets. They also severely persecuted us. They do not please God and are opposed to all people. <sup>16</sup> They try to prevent us from speaking to the Gentiles that they may be saved. The result is that they are always filling up the cup of their sins, but the wrath of God has decisively come on them. <sup>17</sup> However, fellow-Christians, when we were made orphans by separation from you for a short time, in person but not in heart, we made even more efforts to see your faces and were intensely longing to do so. <sup>18</sup> For we wanted to come to you. Certainly I, Paul, did repeatedly, but Satan hindered us. <sup>19</sup> For what is our hope or joy or the crown of which we are proud in the presence of our Lord Jesus when He comes? Is that not precisely what you are? <sup>20</sup> For you are our glory and joy.

Paul's sending of Timothy to visit the Thessalonians

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, when we could not endure it any longer, we thought it best to be left in Athens alone. <sup>2</sup> We sent Timothy, our fellow-Christian and God's fellow-worker in the Good News of Christ, to strengthen you and encourage you in your faith, <sup>3</sup> that no one might be deceived by these afflictions. For you yourselves know that we have been appointed to this. <sup>4</sup> For indeed, when we were with you, we used to tell you in advance, "We are going to be afflicted." That is also what has happened, and you know it. <sup>5</sup> That is why, when I also could no longer endure it, I sent someone to find out about your faith. I was afraid that the Tempter had in some way tempted you and that our labour would be useless. <sup>6</sup> However, Timothy has just now come back to us from you and has told us the good news about your faith and love, that you continually think kindly of us and that you are longing to see us, just as we are

1 Thessalonians

longing to see you. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, fellow-Christians, in all our affliction and distress we have been encouraged about you, through your faith. <sup>8</sup> For now we live, if you stand firm in the Lord. <sup>9</sup> For what thanks can we render to God for you, for all the joy that we have in the presence of our God because of you? <sup>10</sup> We are most earnestly praying day and night that we may see your faces and supply what is lacking in your faith. <sup>11</sup> May our God and Father Himself and our Lord Jesus clear the way for us to come to you! <sup>12</sup> May the Lord make you grow in love and overflow with it for one another and for all people, just as we do to you, <sup>13</sup> that He may strengthen your hearts to be blameless and holy before our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all His holy ones! Amen.

Instruction and encouragement (4:1-5:22)

An exhortation to live to please God

<sup>1</sup> Finally, therefore, fellow-Christians, we ask and urge you, in the Lord Jesus, to progress more and more in the ways that you have learned from us about how you ought to live and to please God, as in fact you are living. <sup>2</sup> For you know what Commandments we gave you through the Lord Jesus. <sup>3</sup> For what God wants is that you should be holy, that you should keep away from sexual immorality, <sup>4</sup> that each of you should know how to control his own organ in a holy and honourable way, <sup>5</sup> not in passionate lust, just like the Gentiles, who do not know God. <sup>6</sup> No one should trespass and take advantage of his fellow-Christian in this matter! For the Lord is the Avenger of all these things, as we also have previously told you and testified to you. <sup>7</sup> For God has not called us to be unclean but to be holy. <sup>8</sup> Therefore, the person who rejects this does not reject a human being but God, who also gives you His Holy Spirit. <sup>9</sup> Moreover, concerning brotherly love you do not need anyone to write to you. For you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another. <sup>10</sup> For, indeed, you are practising it toward all the fellow-Christians throughout Macedonia. However, we urge you, fellow-Christians, to progress more and more, <sup>11</sup> and to make it your ambition to live quietly, to mind your own business and to work with your own hands, as we have commanded you, <sup>12</sup> that you may behave decently toward those who are outside and that you may have no lack of anything.

An exhortation to comfort one another about the return of the Lord

<sup>13</sup> Fellow-Christians, we do not want you to be ignorant about those who fall asleep, that you may not grieve like the others, who have no hope. <sup>14</sup> For, since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, we believe that even so, through Jesus, God will bring with Him those who have fallen asleep. <sup>15</sup> For this we tell you by the Word of the Lord, that we who are still alive, who are left until the Lord comes, shall certainly not arrive ahead of those who have fallen asleep. <sup>16</sup> For the Lord

Himself will come down from heaven with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead who are in Christ will rise first. <sup>17</sup> After that, we who are still alive, who are left, shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air and so we shall always be with the Lord. <sup>18</sup> Therefore, comfort one another with these Words!

An encouragement to be watchful for the day of the Lord

<sup>1</sup> Fellow-Christians, you do not need us to write to you about times and dates, <sup>2</sup> because you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord is coming like a thief in the night. <sup>3</sup> When people are saying, "Peace and safety!" then destruction will come on them suddenly like labour pains on a pregnant woman, and they will certainly not escape. <sup>4</sup> You, however, fellow-Christians, are not in darkness, that this day should overtake you like a thief. <sup>5</sup> For you are all children of the light and children of the day. We do not belong to the night or to darkness. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, let us not sleep, like the rest but let us keep awake and be sober! <sup>7</sup> For people who sleep sleep at night, and those who get drunk get drunk at night. <sup>8</sup> However, let us, who live in the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love and the hope of salvation as a helmet! <sup>9</sup> For God has not appointed us to His wrath but to gain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>10</sup> He has died for us, so that, whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with Him. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, encourage each other and build one another up, as in fact you are doing!

Final instructions

<sup>12</sup> We ask you, fellow-Christians, to respect those who labour among you and are over you in the Lord and admonish you. <sup>13</sup> Regard them very highly in love because of their work! Live in peace with each other! <sup>14</sup> We urge you, fellow-Christians, warn those who are disorderly! Encourage those who are timid! Help the weak! Be patient with everyone! <sup>15</sup> See to it that no one pays back wrong for wrong to anyone but always strive after what is good, both for one another and for all people! <sup>16</sup> Always be joyful! <sup>17</sup> Pray without ceasing! <sup>18</sup> Give thanks in everything! For this is what God wants for you in Christ Jesus. <sup>19</sup> Do not put out the fire of the Spirit! <sup>20</sup> Do not despise prophecies, <sup>21</sup> but test everything! Cling to what is good! <sup>22</sup> Keep away from every form of evil!

A concluding benediction (5:23-28)

<sup>23</sup> May the God of peace Himself make you completely holy and may your spirit, soul and body, be preserved sound and without blame when our Lord Jesus Christ comes! <sup>24</sup> The One who calls you is faithful and will also do it. <sup>25</sup> Fellow-Christians, pray also for us! <sup>26</sup> Greet all the fellow-Christians with a holy kiss! <sup>27</sup> I put you under solemn obligation by the Lord that this letter should be read to all your fellow-Christians. Amen.

1 Thessalonians

<sup>28</sup> May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you!

1

Opening greeting (1:1-2)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace from God, our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ!

Thanksgiving and encouragement (1:3-12)

<sup>3</sup> We ought always to thank God for you, fellow-Christians, as it is fitting, because your faith is growing more and more and the love that each one of you all has for each other is increasing. <sup>4</sup> As a result, we ourselves are boasting about you among the churches of God concerning your patient endurance and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions that you are enduring.

Encouragement for those who are suffering persecution

<sup>5</sup> All this is evidence of the righteous judgment of God, so that you are counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you are also suffering, <sup>6</sup> since it is a righteous thing for God to repay with affliction those who are afflicting you, <sup>7</sup> and to give relief to you, who are being afflicted, and to us. He will do this when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with His mighty angels, <sup>8</sup> in blazing fire, taking vengeance on those who do not know God and on those who are not obedient to the Good News of our Lord Jesus. <sup>9</sup> They will undergo the penalty of eternal destruction, away from the presence of the Lord and from His glorious power, <sup>10</sup> when He comes, on that day, to be glorified among His holy ones and marvelled at among all those who have become believers. For you have believed our testimony to you. <sup>11</sup> For this purpose, we are also always praying for you, that our God may count you worthy of His calling and may powerfully fulfil all the purpose of His goodness and every work of faith, <sup>12</sup> that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified among you and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and Lord Jesus Christ.

Instructions about the last times and Christ's return (2:1-17)
The coming of the "man of lawlessness"

<sup>1</sup> We ask you, fellow-Christians, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together with Him, <sup>2</sup> that you should not be quickly shaken out of your minds or be alarmed, either through a person possessed by a spirit or through a statement or through a letter that supposedly comes from us, saying that the day of the Lord has already come. <sup>3</sup> Let no one deceive you in any way! For that day will not come unless the revolt has first occurred and unless the "man of lawlessness," who is going to be destroyed, has been revealed. <sup>4</sup> He opposes and exalts himself above everyone who is called "God" or that is an object of worship, so that he sits in the Temple of God and proclaims that he himself is God. <sup>5</sup> Do you not remember that when I was still with you I used to tell you these things? <sup>6</sup> Now you know what is holding him back, so that he will be revealed at his own time. <sup>7</sup> For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work but only until he who is now holding it back gets out of the way. <sup>8</sup> Then the lawless one will be revealed, and the Lord Jesus will destroy him with the breath of His mouth and make him powerless when He appears at His coming. <sup>9</sup> The coming of this lawless one is in accordance with the working of Satan, with all kinds of false miracles, signs, wonders, <sup>10</sup> and with every kind of wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they have not received the love of the truth that they may be saved. <sup>11</sup> That is why God sends against them a deluding power, that they may believe what is false, <sup>12</sup> that all who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness may be condemned.

An assurance that God has chosen them from the beginning

<sup>13</sup> However, we ought to give thanks to God always for you, fellow-Christians, whom the Lord has loved, because from the beginning God has chosen you for salvation by the Spirit's making you holy and by faith in the truth. <sup>14</sup> For this purpose He has also called you through our Good News, that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>15</sup> Therefore, fellow-Christians, stand firm and hold to the traditions that you have been taught, whether by spoken Word or by our letter! <sup>16</sup> May our Lord Jesus Christ Himself and God, our Father, who has loved us and who, by His grace, has given us eternal encouragement and good hope, <sup>17</sup> encourage your hearts and establish you in everything good that you do and say!

3

Prayer and discipline (3:1-15)

Paul's request for their prayers

<sup>1</sup> Finally, fellow-Christians, pray for us that the Word of the Lord may run swiftly and be honoured, just as it has also with you, <sup>2</sup> and that we may be rescued from evil and wicked people! For not all have faith. <sup>3</sup> However, the Lord is faithful, will strengthen you and protect you from the Evil One. <sup>4</sup> We have confidence in the Lord about you, that you both are doing the things that we command and will continue to do them. <sup>5</sup> May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God and into the patient endurance of Christ!

A warning against idleness

<sup>6</sup> We command you, fellow-Christians, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ that you should keep away from any Christian who lives in a disorderly manner and not according to the tradition that you have received from us. <sup>7</sup> For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us, because we were not disorderly among you. <sup>8</sup> Nor did we eat anyone's food without paying for it but worked night and day, labouring and toiling, that we might not be a burden to any of you. <sup>9</sup> It is not that we do not have a right to receive support. However, we did it to give you an example, that you might imitate us.

2 Thessalonians

<sup>10</sup> For, even when we were with you, we gave you this instruction: "If anyone does not want to work, let him not eat, either!" <sup>11</sup> For we hear that some are living in a disorderly manner among you, not doing any work but being busybodies. <sup>12</sup> We command such people and encourage them in the Lord Jesus Christ to work quietly and eat their own bread. <sup>13</sup> As for you, fellow-Christians, do not become tired of doing good!

<sup>14</sup> If anyone does not obey what we are saying through this letter, take special note of him and do not associate with him, that he may be ashamed! <sup>15</sup> Yet do not regard him as an enemy but warn him like a brother!

Conclusion (3:16-18)

A benediction and a greeting

<sup>16</sup> May the Lord of peace Himself give you peace at all times in every way! The Lord be with you all! <sup>17</sup> I, Paul, am writing this greeting with my own hand. This is a distinguishing mark in every letter. This is how I write. <sup>18</sup> May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all!

1 TIMOTHY

1

Introduction and a warning about false teaching (1:1-20)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God, our Saviour, and of Christ Jesus, our Hope, <sup>2</sup> to Timothy, my real son in the faith. Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord!

A warning against false teachers and their doctrine

<sup>3</sup> When I was going to Macedonia, I urged you to stay in Ephesus, that you might command certain men not to teach a different doctrine, <sup>4</sup> and not to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which give rise to speculations rather than promote God's plan, which is by faith. <sup>5</sup> The purpose of this command is love from a pure heart, from a good conscience and from sincere faith. <sup>6</sup> Certain people have deviated from these and have turned to meaningless talk. <sup>7</sup> They want to be teachers of the Law but understand neither what they are saying nor the things about which they are speaking so confidently. <sup>8</sup> However, we know that the Law is good if someone uses it lawfully. <sup>9</sup> He knows this, that the Law has not been laid down for a righteous person but for those who are lawless and insubordinate, for ungodly and sinful people, for those who are unholy and irreligious, for those who kill their fathers, for those who kill their mothers, for murderers, <sup>10</sup> for those who are sexually immoral, for homosexuals, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers and for whatever else is contrary to sound teaching, <sup>11</sup> which conforms to the glorious Good News of the blessed God, which has been entrusted to me.

Paul's acknowledgement of God's mercy to him despite his former opposition

<sup>12</sup> I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has made me strong. For He has considered me to be trustworthy and has appointed me into the ministry, <sup>13</sup> although I used to be a blasphemer, a persecutor and a violent man. However, I have received mercy, because I acted ignorantly in unbelief. <sup>14</sup> The grace of our Lord has also been exceedingly abundant, along with faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. <sup>15</sup> The saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance: that Christ Jesus has come into the world to save sinners — of whom I am the chief. <sup>16</sup> However, for this reason I have received mercy, that Christ Jesus may demonstrate all His patience in me, the chief of sinners, as an example to those who are going to believe in Him for eternal life. <sup>17</sup> To the King eternal, the immortal, invisible and only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever! Amen.

An admonition to Timothy to hold on to faith and a good conscience

<sup>18</sup> I am entrusting this Instruction to you, my son Timothy, according to the prophecies that were made about you long ago, that by them you may fight the good campaign, <sup>19</sup> while you hold on to faith and a good conscience. Some have repudiated a good conscience and have suffered shipwreck in their faith. <sup>20</sup> Among them are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I handed over to Satan that they might be disciplined not to blaspheme.

Public worship (2:1-15)

Instructions about prayer for all people

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, I exhort, first, that supplications, prayers, intercessions and thanksgivings be made for all people, <sup>2</sup> for kings and all who are in authority, that we may live a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and reverence. <sup>3</sup> This is good and acceptable in the sight of God, our Saviour, <sup>4</sup> who wants all people to be saved and to come to know the truth. <sup>5</sup> For there is one God, and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, <sup>6</sup> who gave Himself as a ransom instead of all, to be testified in its proper time. <sup>7</sup> For this purpose I was appointed as a preacher and an apostle — I am telling the truth and not lying — a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, I desire that the men should pray everywhere, lifting holy hands, without anger and doubting.

Instructions for Christian women

<sup>9</sup> Similarly, I also desire that the women should adorn themselves in modest apparel, with propriety and moderation, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or expensive clothes, <sup>10</sup> but with good works. This is proper for women who profess godliness.

<sup>11</sup> Let a woman learn in quietness, with all subordination! <sup>12</sup> Nor do I permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but she should be in quietness! <sup>13</sup> For Adam was formed first, then Eve. <sup>14</sup> Moreover, Adam was not deceived; but, when the woman was deceived, she fell into transgression. <sup>15</sup> However, she will be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith, love and holiness, with self-control.

Qualifications for church workers (3:1-16)

<sup>8</sup> In the same way deacons must be worthy of respect, not insincere, not addicted to much wine, not fond of dishonest gain. <sup>9</sup> They must keep hold of the mystery of the faith with a pure conscience. <sup>10</sup> Let these men be tested first! After that let them serve as deacons if they are blameless! <sup>11</sup> In the same way their wives must be worthy of respect, refraining from slander, temperate and trustworthy in everything. <sup>12</sup> Let deacons be the husbands of one wife! Let them manage their children and their own families well! <sup>13</sup> For, when they have been serving well as deacons, they win a good standing for themselves and great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

The reasons for good Christian behaviour

<sup>14</sup> I am writing these things to you, although I hope to come to you soon; <sup>15</sup> but, if I am delayed, I am writing that you may know how people ought to conduct themselves in the household of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and foundation of the truth. <sup>16</sup> Most certainly also, the mystery of godliness is great: He has been made visible in human nature, He has been justified in the Spirit, He has appeared to angels, He has been preached among the Gentiles, He has been believed on in the world, He has been taken up in glory.

4

Warnings against false teachers (4:1-16)

A warning that some will depart from the faith

<sup>1</sup> The Spirit says explicitly that in later times some will turn away from the faith, as they pay attention to deceiving spirits and to things taught by demons, <sup>2</sup> because of the hypocritical speaking of liars, who have had their own consciences seared. <sup>3</sup> They forbid people to marry and tell them to abstain from foods that God has created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. <sup>4</sup> For everything that God has created is good, and nothing should be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving. <sup>5</sup> For it is made holy through the Word of God and prayer.

The behaviour of a good minister of Jesus Christ

<sup>6</sup> If you instruct our fellow-Christians in these things, you will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished by the Words of the faith and of the good teaching that you have been faithfully following. <sup>7</sup> However, reject profane old-wives' fables! Rather, train yourself to be godly! <sup>8</sup> For physical training helps a little, but godliness helps in every way, since it has a promise for the present life and for the life to come. <sup>9</sup> The saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance. <sup>10</sup> For this is the purpose for which we labour and struggle, that we have put our hope in the living God, who is the Saviour of all people, especially of those who believe. <sup>11</sup> Keep on commanding and teaching these things! <sup>12</sup> Let no one despise you because you are young, but be an example to those who believe, in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity! <sup>13</sup> Until I come, devote yourself to public reading, to encouragement and to teaching! <sup>14</sup> Do not neglect the charismatic gift that is in you, which was given to you through prophecy, when the body of elders laid their hands on you!

<sup>15</sup> Cultivate these things! Continue in these things, that your progress may be evident to everyone! <sup>16</sup> Take pains with yourself and with your teaching! Persevere in these things! For, when you do this, you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

5

Instructions for various groups of Christians (5:1-6:2a)

Care of widows

<sup>3</sup> Honour widows who are really widows! <sup>4</sup> If any widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to show piety toward their own family and to repay their parents and grandparents! For this is pleasing to God. <sup>5</sup> The woman who is really a widow and left all alone has put her hope in God and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. <sup>6</sup> However, the one who lives for pleasure is dead while she is alive. <sup>7</sup> Keep on commanding these things also, that they may be above reproach! <sup>8</sup> If anyone does not provide for his own relatives, especially for the members of his family, he has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever. <sup>9</sup> Let a widow be enrolled if she is over sixty, if she has been the wife of one husband, <sup>10</sup> if she is well spoken of because of good deeds, if she has raised children, if she has shown hospitality, if she has washed the feet of God's holy people, if she has helped people in distress and if she has devoted herself to every good work! <sup>11</sup> However, refuse the enrolment of younger widows! For, when they feel sensuous impulses that alienate them from Christ, they want to marry <sup>12</sup> and are subject to condemnation because they have broken their first pledge. <sup>13</sup> At the same time they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house, and are not only idle but also gossiping and meddling, saying things that they should not be saying. <sup>14</sup> Therefore, I want younger widows to marry, to have children, to manage their homes and so give the enemy no opportunity for slander. <sup>15</sup> For some have already turned away to follow Satan. <sup>16</sup> If any believing woman has widows in her family, let her help them, and let the church not be burdened, that the church may help those who are really widows!

Instructions about elders

<sup>17</sup> Let the older men who manage well be considered worthy of double honour, especially those who labour in speaking and teaching! <sup>18</sup> For the Scripture says: "You shall not muzzle an ox when he is treading out grain," and "The labourer deserves his wages." <sup>19</sup> Do not accept an accusation against an elder except on the evidence of two or three witnesses! <sup>20</sup> Correct those who keep on sinning in front of everyone, that the others also may be afraid! <sup>21</sup> I put you under solemn obligation, before God and Christ Jesus and the chosen angels, to observe these things without discrimination and without doing anything out of favouritism. <sup>22</sup> Do not be hasty in laying hands on anyone and do not share in other people's sins! Keep yourself pure! <sup>23</sup> Stop drinking only water but use a little wine because of your stomach and your frequent illnesses! <sup>24</sup> The sins of some people are obvious and go ahead of them to judgment, but those of other people come after them. <sup>25</sup> Similarly also good works are obvious, and those that are otherwise cannot be hidden.

1 Timothy

The conduct of slaves and masters

<sup>1</sup> Let all who are under the yoke of slavery regard their own masters as men who deserve all honour, that God's name and His teaching may not be slandered! <sup>2</sup> Let those who have masters who are believers not despise them because they are fellow-Christians but let them be better slaves! For those who benefit from their service are believers and are dearly loved people. Keep teaching and urging these things!

Final warnings against false teachers and advice to Timothy (6:2b-21)

<sup>3</sup> If anyone teaches differently and does not agree with the sound Words of our Lord Jesus Christ and the teaching that is in harmony with godliness, <sup>4</sup> he is conceited and does not understand anything but has a morbid craving for debates and arguments about words, which produce jealousy, strife, slanders, evil suspicions <sup>5</sup> and the constant irritation of people whose minds are corrupt, who have been deprived of the truth and who think that godliness is a means of financial gain.

The gain of godliness with contentment

<sup>7</sup> For we have not brought anything into the world and cannot take anything out of it, either. <sup>8</sup> Rather, if we have food and clothing, we shall be content with these.

<sup>9</sup> However, those who desire to be rich fall into temptation and a snare and into many foolish and harmful desires, which drown people in destruction and ruin.

<sup>10</sup> For the love of money is a root of all evils; and, because some people have been eager for money, they have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains.

Encouragement to fight the good fight of the faith

<sup>11</sup> However, you, man of God, flee from these things and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patient endurance and gentleness! <sup>12</sup> Fight the good fight of the faith! Take hold of eternal life, to which you have been called! You have also made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. <sup>13</sup> I charge you, in the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and in the presence of Christ Jesus, who testified with His good confession before Pontius Pilate, <sup>14</sup> to keep this command without spot or blame until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ, <sup>15</sup> which He, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings and Lord of lords, will display at His own right time. <sup>16</sup> He alone has immortality. He lives in a light that no one can approach, and no one has ever seen Him or can see Him. To Him be honour and everlasting power! Amen.

Advice for rich people

<sup>17</sup> Keep on telling those who are rich in this present world not to be arrogant or to put their hope in uncertain riches but in God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy! <sup>18</sup> Tell them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and willing to share, <sup>19</sup> storing up for themselves a treasure, as a good foundation for the future, that they may take hold of the life that is really life!

Encouragement to guard the faith

<sup>20</sup> Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you! Turn away from the profane chatter and the contradictions of what is falsely called "knowledge"! <sup>21</sup> Some people give themselves out as experts in it and have wandered from the faith.

Grace be with you!

1

Introduction (1:1-2)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, according to the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus, <sup>2</sup> to Timothy, my dear son: Grace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus, our Lord!

Encouragement to Timothy to remain loyal and guard the truth (1:3-18)

<sup>3</sup> I thank God, whom I serve with a pure conscience, as my forefathers did, when I constantly remember you in my prayers, day and night. <sup>4</sup> As I remember your tears, I long to see you, that I may be filled with joy. <sup>5</sup> I recall the genuine faith that is in you, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice, and, I am convinced, now dwells in you also. <sup>6</sup> For this reason I remind you to rekindle the charismatic gift of God that is in you through the laying on of my hands. <sup>7</sup> For God has not given us a timid spirit but a spirit of power, love and moderation. <sup>8</sup> So, do not be ashamed to bear witness about our Lord and do not be ashamed of me, His prisoner, but join me in suffering evil for the benefit of the Good News, by the power of God! <sup>9</sup> He has saved us and has called us with a holy calling, not because of what we have done but according to His own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before the world began, <sup>10</sup> but has now been revealed through the appearing of our Saviour, Christ Jesus. He has broken the power of death and through the Good News has brought life and immortality into the light. <sup>11</sup> Of this Good News I have also been appointed a preacher, an apostle and a teacher. <sup>12</sup> This is also why I am suffering these things. Nevertheless, I am not ashamed. For I know whom I have believed and am convinced that He can guard what has been entrusted to me until that day. <sup>13</sup> Keep as a pattern of sound Words what you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus! <sup>14</sup> Guard the good thing that has been entrusted to you through the Holy Spirit, who dwells in us!

Praise for Onesiphorus

<sup>15</sup> You know this, that everyone in the province of Asia has turned away from me, and Phygelus and Hermogenes are among them. <sup>16</sup> May the Lord grant mercy to the family of Onesiphorus! For he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chain. <sup>17</sup> On the contrary, when he arrived in Rome, he searched eagerly for me and found me. <sup>18</sup> May the Lord grant to him that he will find mercy from the Lord on that day! You also know very well in how many ways he helped me at Ephesus.

2

Encouragement to Timothy to face hardships (2:1-13)

<sup>1</sup> You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus <sup>2</sup> and entrust the things that you have heard from me before many witnesses to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also! <sup>3</sup> Endure hardships with me as a good soldier of Christ Jesus! <sup>4</sup> No one who serves in the army becomes entangled in civilian affairs, because he wants to please the one who has enlisted him. <sup>5</sup> Moreover, if anyone competes in athletics, he does not receive a crown unless he competes according to the rules. <sup>6</sup> The hard-working farmer must be the first to receive a share of the crops. <sup>7</sup> Understand what I am saying! For the Lord will give insight to you in all things.

<sup>8</sup> Remember that Jesus Christ has been raised from the dead and is a descendant of David, according to my Good News! <sup>9</sup> For this I am suffering, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. However, the Word of God has not been chained. <sup>10</sup> Therefore, I patiently endure all things because of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory. <sup>11</sup> This is a trustworthy saying: If we have died with Him, we shall also live with Him. <sup>12</sup> If we patiently endure, we shall also reign with Him. If we disown Him, He will also disown us. <sup>13</sup> If we are faithless, He remains faithful. For He cannot disown Himself.

An instruction to combat false teachers (2:14-26)

<sup>14</sup> Keep reminding them of these things and warn them before God not to quarrel about words! It is not useful at all but only ruins those who are listening. <sup>15</sup> Be eager to present yourself before God as one approved, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, guiding the Word of truth along a straight path! <sup>16</sup> Avoid profane chatter! For it will progress further in ungodliness, <sup>17</sup> and what they say will spread like a cancer. Among them are Hymenaeus and Philetus, <sup>18</sup> who have wandered away from the truth. They are saying that the resurrection has already taken place and are overthrowing the faith of some people. <sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, God's solid foundation stands firm and has this seal: "The Lord knows those who are His," and, "Let everyone who calls on the name of the Lord depart from wickedness!" <sup>20</sup> In a large house there are not only articles of gold and silver but also of wood and clay, and some are for honourable purposes and others for dishonourable purposes. <sup>21</sup> Therefore, if anyone cleanses himself from the latter, he will be an article for honourable purposes, made holy, useful to the Master and made ready for every good work. <sup>22</sup> Flee from the evil desires of young people and pursue righteousness, faith, love and peace, along with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart! <sup>23</sup> Do not have anything to do with foolish and stupid arguments! For you know that they breed quarrels. <sup>24</sup> A servant of the Lord must not quarrel but must be kind to everyone. He must be a skilful teacher and endure evil without resentment. <sup>25</sup> He must be gentle in correcting those who oppose him, hoping that God will perhaps grant them repentance, that they may know the truth,<sup>26</sup> and that they may come to their senses and escape from the snare of the Devil after they have been trapped by him into doing what he wanted.

A prophecy about dangers of the last days (3:1-17)

<sup>1</sup> However, know this, that in the last days difficult times will come! <sup>2</sup> For people will love themselves and love money. They will be boastful, proud, blasphemous, disobedient to parents, ungrateful, unholy, <sup>3</sup> unloving, unforgiving, slanderous, without self-control, savage and without love for what is good. <sup>4</sup> They will be treacherous, reckless, conceited and lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God. <sup>5</sup> They will have a form of godliness but will have denied its power. Keep on avoiding such people also! <sup>6</sup> For some of these are the ones who worm their way into homes and gain control over gullible women who are loaded down with sins and driven by various kinds of sinful desires, <sup>7</sup> always learning and never able to come to know the truth.

<sup>8</sup> As Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so also these people oppose the truth. They are men with depraved minds and disqualified concerning the faith. <sup>9</sup> However, they will not progress very far. For their folly will be clear to everyone, as the folly of Jannes and Jambres also was.

An encouragement to teach the truths of the Scriptures

<sup>10</sup> You, however, have been closely following my teaching, my way of living, my purpose, my faith, my patience, my love, my patient endurance, <sup>11</sup> my persecutions, my sufferings, the kinds of sufferings that happened to me at Antioch, Iconium and Lystra and the kinds of persecutions that I endured. Yet the Lord has delivered me from them all. <sup>12</sup> Indeed, all who want to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted, <sup>13</sup> whereas evil people and swindlers will become worse and worse, deceiving others and being deceived. <sup>14</sup> Nevertheless, as for you, continue in the things that you have learned and about which you have become convinced! For you know from whom you have learned them, <sup>15</sup> and that from infancy you have known the Holy Scriptures, which can make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. <sup>16</sup> All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for rebuking, for correcting and for training in righteousness, <sup>17</sup> that the man of God may be proficient and thoroughly equipped for every good work.

Correction of error (4:1-8)

<sup>1</sup> I solemnly charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of His appearing and His kingdom: <sup>2</sup> Preach the Word! Be ready whether it is convenient or inconvenient! Correct, rebuke and encourage, with all patience and teaching! <sup>3</sup> For a time will come when people will not endure sound doctrine. Instead, they will follow their own desires and, because they have itching ears, they will surround themselves more and more with teachers. <sup>4</sup> They will turn their ears away from the truth and turn aside to myths. <sup>5</sup> Nevertheless, as for you, be self-possessed in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist and fulfil your ministry! <sup>6</sup> For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure is at hand. <sup>7</sup> I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race and have kept the faith. <sup>8</sup> For the future, there is reserved for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved His appearing.

Personal instructions (4:9-18)

<sup>9</sup> Make every effort to come to me quickly! <sup>10</sup> For Demas has forsaken me, because he has loved this present world, and has gone to Thessalonica. Crescens has gone to Galatia and Titus to Dalmatia. <sup>11</sup> Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and bring him with you! For he is useful to me in my ministry. <sup>12</sup> I have sent Tychicus to Ephesus. <sup>13</sup> When you come, bring the cloak that I left with Carpus in Troas, the scrolls and especially the parchments! <sup>14</sup> Alexander the metalworker has done me much harm. The Lord will pay him back according to what he has done. <sup>15</sup> You too should be on your guard against him! For he has strongly opposed what we have been saying. <sup>16</sup> At my first defence no one supported me, but they all deserted me. May it not be reckoned against them! <sup>17</sup> However, the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, that the message might be fully proclaimed through me and all the Gentiles might hear it. I was also delivered from the lion's mouth.

Paul's conviction that the Lord will deliver him

<sup>18</sup> The Lord will deliver me from every evil deed and save me for His heavenly kingdom. To Him be glory for ever! Amen!

Conclusion (4:19-22)

Final greetings

TITUS

Introductory greeting (1:1-4)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ for the purpose of the faith of God's chosen people and the knowledge of the truth that promotes godliness. <sup>2</sup> These are based on the hope of eternal life, which God, who does not lie, promised before time began. <sup>3</sup> He also displayed His Word at His own right time through the preaching with which I have been entrusted, because of the command of God our Saviour. <sup>4</sup> To Titus, my real son in our common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus, our Saviour!

The qualifications for pastors (1:5-16)

An instruction to Titus to correct his opponents

<sup>10</sup> For there are many people who are insubordinate, idle talkers and deceivers, especially those who belong to "the circumcised." <sup>11</sup> It is necessary to silence them. They are ruining whole families by teaching what they must not teach, for the sake of dishonest gain. <sup>12</sup> One of their own people, a prophet of their own, has said, "People of Crete are always liars, savage animals, lazy gluttons." <sup>13</sup> That testimony is true. For this reason rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, <sup>14</sup> and may not pay attention to Jewish myths and commandments of people who reject the truth! <sup>15</sup> All things are pure to those who are pure, but nothing is pure to those who have been corrupted and do not believe. Rather, both their minds and their consciences have been corrupted. <sup>16</sup> They profess that they know God but deny Him by what they do. They are abominable, disobedient and disqualified for any good deed.

Moral instructions for various groups of Christians (2:1-15)

<sup>1</sup> Nevertheless, as for you, speak the things that are suitable for sound teaching! <sup>2</sup> Tell older men to be temperate, worthy of respect, prudent and sound in faith, in love and in patient endurance! <sup>3</sup> Similarly, tell older women to be reverent in their behaviour, not to be slanderers or addicted to much wine and to teach what is good, <sup>4</sup> that they may encourage young women to love their husbands and their children, <sup>5</sup> to be prudent, pure, to be good workers at home and to be subordinate to their husbands, that the Word of God may not be maligned! <sup>6</sup> Similarly, encourage the young men to be sensible! <sup>7</sup> In everything show yourself to be an example of good works! In your teaching display integrity, reverence, <sup>8</sup> and sound speech, which cannot be condemned, that a person who opposes us may be ashamed, because he cannot say anything bad about us! <sup>9</sup> Tell slaves to be subordinate to their own masters in everything, to give satisfaction and not to contradict, <sup>10</sup> not to misappropriate but to show that they can be trusted in every way, that in everything they may make the teaching of God our Saviour attractive! <sup>11</sup> For the grace of God that brings salvation has appeared to all people. <sup>12</sup> It trains us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly lusts and to live sensible, righteous and godly lives in the present age, <sup>13</sup> as we wait for our blessed hope, namely, the glorious appearance of our great God and Saviour, Jesus Christ. <sup>14</sup> He gave Himself for us, to redeem us from all wickedness and to cleanse for Himself a people that is His very own and eager to do good works. <sup>15</sup> These are the things you are to say! Continue to encourage and correct with full authority! Let no one ignore you!

Encouragement to be ready for every good work (3:1-7)

<sup>1</sup> Remind people to be subordinate to rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, <sup>2</sup> not to slander anyone, not to fight but to be yielding and to show gentleness to all people!

The Gospel of the saving grace of God in Christ

<sup>3</sup> For once we too were foolish, disobedient, deceived and enslaved by many kinds of evil desires and pleasures. We used to live in malice and jealousy, being detestable and hating one another. <sup>4</sup> However, when the kindness and love of God, our Saviour, toward human beings appeared, <sup>5</sup> He saved us, not because of any righteous works that we have done but because of His mercy, through the washing of regeneration and renewal by the Holy Spirit, <sup>6</sup> whom He poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ, our Saviour, <sup>7</sup> that we might be justified by His grace and become heirs in keeping with the hope of eternal life.

Advice to Titus about his ministry (3:8-11)

<sup>8</sup> The saying is trustworthy, and I want you to insist on these things, that those who have become believers in God may be careful to busy themselves with good works. These things are good and profitable to human beings. <sup>9</sup> However, avoid foolish controversies and genealogies! For these serve no purpose and are useless. <sup>10</sup> After you have given a warning to a person who insists on his self-chosen opinion and warned him a second time, reject him, <sup>11</sup> because you know that such a person has been perverted, keeps on sinning and is self-condemned!

Titus

Conclusion (3:12-15)

Final instructions and farewell greetings

<sup>12</sup> When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, hurry to come to me at Nicopolis! For I have decided to spend the winter there. <sup>13</sup> Do your best to send Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey, that they may not lack anything! <sup>14</sup> Let our people also learn to be busy with good works to meet pressing needs and that they may not be unproductive! <sup>15</sup> All who are with me send you greetings. Greet those who love us in the faith! Grace be with you all!

PHILEMON

Opening greeting (1-3)

<sup>1</sup> Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our fellow-Christian, to Philemon, our dear fellow-worker, <sup>2</sup> to Apphia, our sister in the faith, to Archippus, our fellow soldier, and to the church that meets in your house: <sup>3</sup> Grace to you and peace from God, our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ!

Philemon's love and faith (4-7)

<sup>4</sup> I am always thanking my God when I mention you in my prayers, <sup>5</sup> because I hear about your love and faith, which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all God's holy people. <sup>6</sup> I pray that the sharing of your faith may be effective, as you fully understand every good thing that is in us in Christ. <sup>7</sup> For your love has given me great joy and encouragement, because, brother, you have refreshed the hearts of God's holy people.

A plea on behalf of Onesimus (8-22)

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, although in Christ I am so bold as to order you to do what you ought to do, <sup>9</sup> I prefer to appeal to you moved by love. I am appealing as Paul, an old man, and now a prisoner of Christ Jesus. <sup>10</sup> I am appealing to you about my son Onesimus, who has become my son while I have been in chains. <sup>11</sup> Once he was useless to you but now has become useful both to you and to me. <sup>12</sup> I am sending him back to you, and he is my very heart. <sup>13</sup> I would have liked to keep him with me that he might serve me on your behalf while I am in chains for the Good News. <sup>14</sup> However, I do not want to do anything without your consent, that you may not be kind because you are compelled to be, as it were, but because you want to be. <sup>15</sup> For perhaps Onesimus left you for a while that you might have him back again for ever, <sup>16</sup> no longer as a slave but better than a slave, as a dearly loved brother. He is especially dear to me but how much dearer to you, both as a human being and in the Lord. <sup>17</sup> Now if you think of me as a partner, welcome him as you would welcome me! <sup>18</sup> If he has wronged you in any way or owes you anything, charge it to me! <sup>19</sup> I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand: I shall pay it back. I do not want to mention that you owe me more than that, your own self. <sup>20</sup> Yes, my fellow-Christian, I would like to have some benefit from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in Christ! <sup>21</sup> As I write to you, I am confident that you will be obedient, since I know that you will do even more than I ask. <sup>22</sup> One thing more: prepare a guestroom for me! For I hope to be restored to you through the prayers of you all.

Conclusion (23-25)

<sup>23</sup> Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends you greetings, <sup>24</sup> and so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas and Luke, my fellow-workers. <sup>25</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with the spirits of you all!

HEBREWS

1

Christ's superiority (1:1-3:6)

The superiority of the Son to the prophets

<sup>1</sup> God has long ago spoken at many times and in many ways to our fathers by the prophets, <sup>2</sup> but has in these last days spoken to us by His Son. He has made Him the Heir of all things and through Him He has also made the universe. <sup>3</sup> The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of His being. He maintains all things by His powerful Word. After He had made purification for sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.

The superiority of Christ to the angels

<sup>4</sup> He has become as much greater than the angels are as the name that He has inherited is superior to theirs. <sup>5</sup> For to which of the angels has God ever said, "You are My Son. Today I have begotten You"? Or again, "I shall be His Father, and He will be My Son"? <sup>6</sup> Again, when God brings His First-born Son into the world, He says: "And let all the angels of God worship Him!" <sup>7</sup> With reference to the angels He says, "Who makes His angels spirits and His servants flames of fire." <sup>8</sup> However, to the Son He says: "Your throne, O God, is for ever and ever, and the sceptre of uprightness is the sceptre of Your kingdom." <sup>9</sup> You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness. Therefore, God, Your God, has put You above Your companions by anointing You with the Olive-Oil of gladness. <sup>10</sup> He also says, "Lord, in the beginning You laid the foundation of the earth, and the heavens are the works of Your hands." <sup>11</sup> They will perish, but You continue. They will all become old like a garment. <sup>12</sup> You will roll them up like a robe and like a garment, and they will be changed. However, You are the same, and Your years will not come to an end. <sup>13</sup> To which of the angels has He ever said, "Sit at My right hand until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet"? <sup>14</sup> Are not all angels spirits in holy service, being sent to minister to those who are about to inherit salvation?

An exhortation not to neglect salvation

<sup>1</sup> That is why we must pay closer attention to the things that we have heard, that we may not drift away. <sup>2</sup> For, if the Word that was spoken through angels was valid and every trespass and disobedience received a just penalty, <sup>3</sup> how shall we escape if we have neglected such a great salvation, which was proclaimed at first through the Lord and then was confirmed to us by those who heard Him? <sup>4</sup> God also added His testimony to it by both miraculous signs and wonders, by different kinds of miracles and by distributing gifts of the Holy Spirit as He wished.

The Lordship of Christ over all things

<sup>5</sup> For it is not to angels that He has subordinated the coming world, about which we are speaking. <sup>6</sup> However, somewhere someone has declared: "What is man that You are mindful of him or a son of man that You are concerned about him?" <sup>7</sup> You have made him lower than the angels for a short time and have crowned him with glory and honour. You have placed him in charge of what Your hands have made. <sup>8</sup> You have subordinated all things under His feet." For, when God subordinated all things to Him, He left nothing that is not subordinated to Him.

At present, we do not yet see that all things have been made subordinate to him. <sup>9</sup> However, we see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, crowned with glory and honour because He suffered death, so that, by God's grace, He might taste death for everyone. <sup>10</sup> For it was fitting for Him, because of whom all things exist and through whom all things exist, that, when He brought many sons to glory, He should make the Author of their salvation complete through sufferings. <sup>11</sup> For He who makes people holy and those who are made holy are all derived from one. That is why He is not ashamed to call them "brothers." <sup>12</sup> He says: "I shall proclaim Your Name to My brothers. Amid the congregation I shall sing Your praise." <sup>13</sup> Again: "I shall trust in Him." Again, He says, "Here am I, and the children whom God has given to Me."

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, since the children have shared in blood and flesh, He also in just the same way participated in the same things, that, through His death, He might destroy the one who has power over death, that is, the Devil, <sup>15</sup> and that He might release all those who were subjected to slavery all their lives by fear of death. <sup>16</sup> For surely, He is not concerned with angels. Rather, He is concerned with the offspring of Abraham. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, He was obliged to be made like His brothers in every way, that He might become a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. <sup>18</sup> For, because He Himself suffered when He was tempted, He can help others who are being tempted.

The superiority of Christ to Moses

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, fellow-Christians, who are holy and share the heavenly calling, consider Jesus, the Apostle and High Priest of our confession! <sup>2</sup> He was faithful to the One who appointed Him, as Moses also was faithful in all God's household. <sup>3</sup> For He has been counted worthy of greater glory than Moses, just as the builder of a house has greater honour than the house. <sup>4</sup> For every house is built by someone, but He who built all things is God. <sup>5</sup> Moses was faithful in all God's household as a servant, to testify to what would be said in the future, <sup>6</sup> but Christ is faithful as a Son over God's household. We are also His house if we hold on to our confidence and to the hope about which we boast.

A warning against unbelief, 3:7-4:13

An exhortation not to be stubborn

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says: "Today, if you hear His voice, <sup>8</sup> do not harden your hearts, as you did in the rebellion, during the time of testing in the wilderness, <sup>9</sup> where your fathers tested and tried Me and saw My works for forty years! <sup>10</sup> That was why I was angry with that generation and said: 'In their hearts they are always going astray and have not known My ways.' <sup>11</sup> So, I declared on oath in My anger, 'They will certainly not enter My place of rest.'" <sup>12</sup> Be careful, fellow-Christians, that none of you has in him a wicked, unbelieving heart that turns away from the living God! <sup>13</sup> Rather, encourage one another daily, while it is called "Today," that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin! <sup>14</sup> For we have become people who share in Christ, if we firmly hold the reality that we had at the beginning until the end. <sup>15</sup> When it is said: "Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts, as you did in the rebellion!" <sup>16</sup> Who, indeed, were those that heard Him and rebelled? Were they not, in fact, all those who were brought out of Egypt through Moses? <sup>17</sup> With whom was He angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned and whose bodies fell in the wilderness? <sup>18</sup> To whom did He declare on oath that they would not enter His place of rest, if it was not to those who disobeyed? <sup>19</sup> So, we see that they could not enter because of unbelief.

An admonition not to miss the rest that is to come

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since the promise about entering His place of rest remains, let us be fearful that any of you will seem to have missed it! <sup>2</sup> For indeed we have had the Good News told us, just as they had, but the Word that they heard did not benefit them, because it was not united with faith in those who heard it. <sup>3</sup> For we who have become believers are entering His place of rest, as He has said: "As I declared on oath in My anger, 'They will certainly not enter My place of rest.'" Yet His works have been brought into being since the foundation of the world. <sup>4</sup> For somewhere He has spoken about the seventh day in this way: "And on the seventh day God rested from all His works." <sup>5</sup> Again, in this passage: "They will certainly not enter My place of rest." <sup>6</sup> Therefore, since it is certain that some people are entering it, although those to whom the Good News was formerly told did not enter because of their disobedience, <sup>7</sup> He is again appointing a certain day, "today." A long time afterwards, He says, through David, as has been stated above, "Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts!" <sup>8</sup> For, if Joshua had given them rest, God would not be speaking subsequently about another day. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, a Sabbath rest remains for the people of God. <sup>10</sup> For the person who has entered God's rest has himself also found rest from his works, as God did from His. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, let us be diligent to enter that rest, that no one may fall by following the same pattern of disobedience!

The efficacy of the living Word

<sup>12</sup> For the Word of God is living and active. It is sharper than any two-edged sword. It penetrates even as far as the dividing of soul and spirit and joints and marrow. It also discerns the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

<sup>13</sup> No creature is hidden from Him. All things are naked and exposed to the eyes of Him to whom we must give an account.

The superiority of Christ's priesthood to that of the Levitical priesthood (4:14-7:28)

The High Priesthood of Jesus

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, since we have a great High Priest, who has gone through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us cling to what we confess! <sup>15</sup> For we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathise with our weaknesses. However, we have One who has been tempted in every way like us. Yet He was without sin. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, let us come boldly to the throne of grace to receive mercy and find grace to help us when we need it!

5

A comparison of the High Priesthood of Christ to the priesthood of Melchizedek

<sup>1</sup> Every High Priest is selected from human beings and is appointed to represent human beings in matters that are related to God, that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. <sup>2</sup> He can be gentle with ignorant and erring people, because he himself is subject to weakness. <sup>3</sup> For that reason, he is obliged to offer sacrifices for his own sins, just as he does for the sins of the people. <sup>4</sup> No one takes this honour for himself but is called by God, just as Aaron was. <sup>5</sup> So also Christ did not glorify Himself to become a High Priest but was glorified by the One who said to Him: "You are My Son. Today I have begotten You." <sup>6</sup> As He also says in another place, "You are a Priest for ever, in the order of Melchizedek." <sup>7</sup> During His days in the human nature, Jesus offered prayers and petitions, with loud cries and tears, to the One who could save Him from death; and, because He feared God, He was heard. <sup>8</sup> Although Jesus is the Son, He learned obedience from the things that He suffered. <sup>9</sup> When He was perfected, He also became the Source of eternal salvation for all who obey Him, <sup>10</sup> after He had been proclaimed by God to be the High Priest, "just like Melchizedek."

The need of mature people for more than elementary truths

<sup>11</sup> We have much to say about this, and yet it is difficult to explain, since you have become hard of hearing. <sup>12</sup> For indeed, although by this time you ought to be teachers, you again need someone to teach you the elementary truths of the Oracles of God; and you have come to need milk, not solid food. <sup>13</sup> For anyone who lives on milk is not acquainted with the Word about righteousness. For he is an infant. <sup>14</sup> However, solid food belongs to mature people, to those who have senses that have been trained by practice to differentiate both good and evil.

<sup>1</sup> Let us leave behind the elementary teaching about Christ and let us move on towards maturity! Let us not lay again the foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith in God, <sup>2</sup> of teaching about ceremonial washings, of laying on of hands, of the resurrection of the dead and of eternal judgment! <sup>3</sup> We shall also do this if God permits it. <sup>4</sup> For it is impossible, in the case of those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, who have become participants in the Holy Spirit, <sup>5</sup> and who have tasted the good Word of God and the powers of the coming age, <sup>6</sup> and yet have fallen away, to renew them again to repentance. They are crucifying the Son of God again, to their own disadvantage and are holding Him up to public contempt. <sup>7</sup> For ground that drinks in the rain that often falls on it and ground that produces useful vegetation for the people for whose sakes it is also farmed, receives blessing from God. <sup>8</sup> However, ground that produces thorns and thistles is worthless, is close to being under a curse and, in the end, it will be burnt. <sup>9</sup> However, even though we are speaking like this, we are convinced, dear friends, that in your case there are better things, yes, things that belong to salvation. <sup>10</sup> For God is not unjust, that He should forget your work and the love that you showed for His name when you served His holy people and when you continue to serve them. <sup>11</sup> We want each one of you to show the same diligence, that your hope may be fully certain until the end. <sup>12</sup> We do not want you to become sluggish but to imitate those who, through faith and patience, are inheriting the promises.

The certainty of God's promise

<sup>13</sup> For, when God made a promise to Abraham, since He had no one greater to swear by, He swore by Himself, <sup>14</sup> saying, "I shall certainly bless you and certainly multiply you." <sup>15</sup> In this way, after Abraham had waited patiently, he obtained the promise. <sup>16</sup> For human beings swear by someone who is greater, and for them their oath ends every argument and serves as confirmation. <sup>17</sup> Because God wanted to point out the unchanging nature of His purpose even more clearly to those who were the heirs of His promise, He guaranteed it by means of an oath. <sup>18</sup> He did this so that, through two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we, who have fled to Him for refuge, might have strong encouragement to take hold of the hope that has been set before us. <sup>19</sup> We have this hope like an anchor for our souls, a hope that is firm and secure and that enters the inner part behind the curtain, <sup>20</sup> where Jesus, as the Forerunner, has entered on our behalf, after He had become a High Priest for ever "in the order of Melchizedek."

The priestly order of Melchizedek

<sup>1</sup> For this Melchizedek, the king of Salem and the priest of the Most High God, met Abraham when he was returning from the defeat of the kings. He blessed Abraham, <sup>2</sup> and Abraham gave him a tenth part of everything. His name, in the first place, is translated as "the king of righteousness," but then he is also called "the king of Salem," that is, "the king of peace." <sup>3</sup> He receives no mention of his father, mother, his genealogy, the beginning of his days or of the end of his life. However, when he has been likened to the Son of God, he remains as a priest for ever. <sup>4</sup> See how great this man was! Even the patriarch Abraham gave him a tenth from the best of the spoils. <sup>5</sup> According to the Law even the descendants of Levi who receive the priesthood have a Commandment to receive a tenth from the people, that is, from their brothers, although their brothers are descendants of Abraham. <sup>6</sup> However, this man, who was outside of their line of descent, received a tenth from Abraham and blessed the one who had the promises. <sup>7</sup> Beyond all contradiction those who are better bless those who are inferior. <sup>8</sup> Moreover, in the one case, human beings, who die, receive a tenth, but, in the other case, by him who is declared to be living. <sup>9</sup> In addition, one might almost say, even Levi, who receives a tenth, has paid a tenth through Abraham, <sup>10</sup> for Levi was still in the body of his forefather when Melchizedek met him.

A comparison of the priesthood of Jesus to that of Melchizedek

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, if there had been perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it the people received the Law), why was there still a need for another Priest to arise who was "in the order of Melchizedek," rather than to be described as "in the order of Aaron"? <sup>12</sup> For, when the priesthood is being changed, of necessity there is also a change of the Law. <sup>13</sup> For the One about whom these things are being said belongs to a different tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. <sup>14</sup> For it is evident that our Lord has descended from Judah, and Moses has not said anything about priests in connection with this tribe. <sup>15</sup> It is even more evident if a different priest appears who is exactly like Melchizedek, <sup>16</sup> who has not come according to a Law with a Commandment about something bodily but on the basis of a powerful life that cannot be destroyed. <sup>17</sup> For the testimony is made, "You are a Priest for ever in the order of Melchizedek." <sup>18</sup> For there is a cancellation of a former Commandment because it has been weak and useless. <sup>19</sup> For the Law did not make anything perfect. However, a better hope is introduced, through which we continue to come near to God. <sup>20</sup> To the degree that this Priesthood was not without an oath (for those men have been made priests without any oath, <sup>21</sup> whereas Jesus became a priest with an oath, through the One who said to Him: “The Lord has sworn and will not change His mind: ‘You are a Priest for ever’”), <sup>22</sup> to the same degree Jesus has also become the Guarantee of a better testament. <sup>23</sup> Many were made priests because death prevented them from continuing. <sup>24</sup> However, because Jesus continues for ever, the Priesthood that He has is permanent. <sup>25</sup> Therefore, He can save completely those who come to God through Him, because He is always alive to intercede for them. <sup>26</sup> For such a High Priest is what we needed, who is holy, blameless, spotless, separated from sinners and has been made higher than the heavens. <sup>27</sup> He has no need to offer sacrifices every day, like those High Priests, first for His own sins and then for the sins of the people. For He did this once for all when He offered Himself. <sup>28</sup> For the Law appoints as High Priests men who are weak; but the Word of the oath, which came after the Law, has appointed the Son, who has been made perfect for ever.

The superiority of Christ's sacrifice to the sacrifices of animals by Levitical priests (8:1-10:39)

The superiority of the new and better Covenant

<sup>1</sup> The point in what is being said is this: We have such a High Priest, who has sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in heaven <sup>2</sup> as a Minister of the sanctuary and of the true Tabernacle, which the Lord, not a human being, has set up. <sup>3</sup> For every High Priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore, it was necessary that this One also should have something to offer. <sup>4</sup> Therefore, if He were on earth, He would not even be a priest, because the men already exist who offer the gifts according to the Law. <sup>5</sup> They serve the imitation and the shadow of the heavenly things, as a divine revelation was given to Moses when he was about to erect the Tabernacle. For He said: “See to it that you make everything exactly like the pattern that has been shown you on the mountain!” <sup>6</sup> However, now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, to the degree that He is also the Mediator of a better Covenant, which has been enacted on the basis of better promises. <sup>7</sup> For, if that first Covenant had been without fault, there would have been no need for a second Covenant. <sup>8</sup> For God is finding fault with the people when He says: “‘Look! The days are coming,’ says the Lord, ‘when I shall establish a new Covenant for the family of Israel and the family of Judah. <sup>9</sup> It will not be like the Covenant that I made with their fathers on the day when I took them by their hands to lead them out the land of Egypt, because they did not abide by My Covenant. So, I have disregarded them,’ says the Lord. <sup>10</sup> ‘For this is the Covenant that I shall make with the family of Israel after those days,’ says the Lord: ‘I shall put My Laws into their minds and write them on their hearts and I shall be their God, and they will be My people. <sup>11</sup> Each one will certainly not teach his fellow citizen and each one will certainly not teach his brother, saying, ‘Know the Lord!’ For they will all know Me from the least to the greatest of them.

<sup>12</sup> For I shall be merciful toward their iniquities and certainly not remember their sins any longer.”

<sup>13</sup> By calling the Covenant “new,” He has made the first Covenant “old.” Moreover, what is becoming obsolete and is growing old is at the point of disappearing.

9

The inability of the first Tabernacle to make the consciences of the worshippers perfect

<sup>1</sup> The first Covenant used to have regulations for worship and its earthly sanctuary. <sup>2</sup> For a Tabernacle was set up. There is the first part, which contains the lampstand, the table and the presentation of the sacred bread. This is called “the Holy Place.” <sup>3</sup> Behind the second curtain there is the part of the Tabernacle that is called “the Most Holy Place,” <sup>4</sup> which has the golden altar of incense and the Ark of the Covenant, which had been overlaid on all sides with gold. In it there are the golden jar containing the manna, the staff of Aaron that had budded and the tablets of the Covenant. <sup>5</sup> Above it are the cherubim of glory overshadowing the propitiatory-cover. It is not possible to speak in detail now about these things. <sup>6</sup> After these things had been arranged in this way, the priests always used to go into the first part of the Tabernacle as they performed the rites. <sup>7</sup> However, into the second part only the High Priest used to go once a year, but not without blood, and used to offer it for himself and for the sins that the people had committed in ignorance. <sup>8</sup> The Holy Spirit was showing this clearly that the way into the Most Holy Place had not yet been disclosed while the first Tabernacle was still standing. <sup>9</sup> This is an illustration for the present time, in which both gifts and sacrifices are offered, although they cannot make the worshipper perfect in his conscience. <sup>10</sup> They are regulations imposed on the body only about kinds of food and drink and various ceremonial washings until the time of the new order.

Complete redemption through the blood of Jesus

<sup>11</sup> However, Christ has come as a High Priest of the good things that have been done, through the greater and more perfect Tabernacle, which has not been made by human hands, that is, not a part of this creation.

<sup>12</sup> Moreover, not through the blood of goats and calves but through His own blood He entered once for all into the Most Holy Place, when He obtained eternal redemption. <sup>13</sup> For, if the blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer that are sprinkled on people who have been defiled make them holy, so that their bodies are clean, <sup>14</sup> how much more will the blood of Christ, who, through the eternal Spirit, has offered Himself without blemish to God, make our consciences clean from dead works, that we may serve the living God? <sup>15</sup> This is also why He is the Mediator of the new Covenant, that, after death has taken place for the redemption of the transgressions under the first Covenant, those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. <sup>16</sup> For, where there is a testament, <sup>185</sup> it is necessary that the death of the one who has made the testament must be established. <sup>17</sup> For a testament is in force after people have died, since it is never valid while the one who has made the testament is still alive. <sup>18</sup> That is why even the first Covenant has not been inaugurated without blood. <sup>19</sup> For, after Moses had told all the people every Commandment in accordance with the Law, he took the blood of calves and goats, together with water, scarlet wool and hyssop and sprinkled both the scroll itself and all the people. <sup>20</sup> He said, “This is the blood of the Covenant, which God has commanded for you.” <sup>21</sup> Then in the same way he sprinkled with the blood both the Tabernacle and all the objects used in worship. <sup>22</sup> According to the Law almost everything is made clean by blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.

The superiority of the one perfect sacrifice to the sacrifices under the Law <sup>23</sup> Therefore, it was necessary that the copies of the things in the heavens should be purified by these means, but the heavenly things themselves are purified with better sacrifices than these. <sup>24</sup> For Christ has not gone into sacred places that have been made by hands, which are representations of the genuine ones. Rather, He has gone into heaven itself, where He now appears in the presence of God for us. <sup>25</sup> Nor did He go in to offer Himself often, as the High Priest enters the Most Holy Place every year with blood that is not his own. <sup>26</sup> Otherwise He would have had to suffer often since the foundation of the world. Instead, now He has appeared once, at the end of the ages, to do away with sin by the sacrifice of Himself. <sup>27</sup> Moreover, as it has been appointed for human beings to die once, but after this the judgment, <sup>28</sup> so Christ also has been sacrificed once to “take away the sins of many people.” He will appear a second time, dissociated from sin, to those who are eagerly waiting for Him, to bring salvation.

10

<sup>1</sup> The Law, which has only a dim outline of the good things in the future and not their substance, can never — by the same sacrifices repeatedly offered year after year — make perfect those who worship. <sup>2</sup> Otherwise would they not have stopped offering sacrifices? Once cleansed, the worshippers would no longer be aware of any sins. <sup>3</sup> Instead, year after year these sacrifices reminded people of their sins. <sup>4</sup> For the blood of bulls and goats cannot take away sins. <sup>5</sup> Therefore, when Christ came into the world, He said: “You have not wanted sacrifice and offering, but You have prepared a body for Me. <sup>6</sup> You have had no pleasure in burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin. <sup>7</sup> Then I said: ‘Look! I have come (It has been written about Me in the scroll of the book). I have come to do Your will, O God.’” <sup>8</sup> First Christ says: “You have not wanted sacrifices, offerings, burnt offerings, and sacrifices for sin,” which are offered according to the Law, and “You have had no pleasure in them.” <sup>9</sup> Then He has said, “Look! I have come to do Your will.” He does away with the first, in order to establish the second. <sup>10</sup> By this will we have been made holy, through the sacrifice of the body of Jesus Christ once and for all. <sup>11</sup> Every priest stands ministering every day and repeatedly offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. <sup>12</sup> However, when this Priest had offered one sacrifice for sins, which is good for ever, He sat down at the right hand of God. <sup>13</sup> Since that time, He is waiting for His enemies to be made a footstool for His feet. <sup>14</sup> For by one offering He has made perfect for ever those who are being made holy. <sup>15</sup> The Holy Spirit also witnesses to us. For, after He has said, <sup>16</sup> “This is the Covenant that I shall make with them after those days,’ says the Lord: ‘I shall put My Laws on their hearts and write them on their minds’,” <sup>17</sup> He then adds: “I shall certainly not remember their sins and their lawless deeds any longer.” <sup>18</sup> Where these have been forgiven, there is also no offering for sin any longer. <sup>19</sup> Therefore, fellow-Christians, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, <sup>20</sup> by the new, living way that He has opened for us through the curtain, that is, through His body, <sup>21</sup> and, since we have a High Priest over the house of God, <sup>22</sup> let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith! For our hearts have been sprinkled to take away guilty consciences, and our bodies have been washed with pure water. <sup>23</sup> Let us cling to the confession of our hope without wavering! For He who has made the promise is faithful.

An admonition to encourage one another

<sup>24</sup> Let us also consider how we may stimulate one another to love and to do good works! <sup>25</sup> Let us not forsake the assembling of ourselves together, as some are regularly doing, but let us continue to encourage one another, and so much more as you see the day approaching! <sup>26</sup> For, if we intentionally go on sinning after we have received the knowledge of the truth, no sacrifice for sin is left any longer, <sup>27</sup> but only a terrible expectation of judgment and an eager fire, which is about to devour the adversaries. <sup>28</sup> Anyone who rejected the Law of Moses died without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses. <sup>29</sup> How much worse a punishment do you think that person will be considered to deserve who has trampled on the Son of God, has considered as an unholy thing the blood of the Covenant, by which he has been made holy, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? <sup>30</sup> For we know the One who has said: “Vengeance belongs to Me. I shall repay,” and again, “The Lord will judge His people.”

An exhortation to patient endurance

<sup>32</sup> Remember the earlier days, when, after you had been enlightened, you patiently endured a hard struggle with suffering! <sup>33</sup> Sometimes you were publicly exposed to insults and tribulations and at other times you became companions with those who were being treated in this way. <sup>34</sup> For you showed sympathy for the prisoners and joyfully accepted the confiscation of your property, because you knew that you yourselves have a better and lasting possession. <sup>35</sup> Therefore, do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward! <sup>36</sup> For you need to endure patiently, so that, after you have done the will of God, you may receive the promise. <sup>37</sup> For in a very little while “He who is coming will come and will not delay, <sup>38</sup> and My righteous one will live by faith; and yet, if he shrinks back, My soul has no pleasure in him.” <sup>39</sup> However, we do not belong to those who shrink back so that they perish but belong to those who have faith, so that our souls are kept safe.

11

Examples provided by men and women of faith (11:1-40)

<sup>1</sup> Faith is the confident assurance of the things we hope for, the conviction about things that are not seen. <sup>2</sup> For by it the men of long ago were well attested. <sup>3</sup> By faith we understand that the universe has been created by the Word of God, so that what is seen has not been made from things that are visible.

<sup>4</sup> By faith Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain did. By faith he was approved as a righteous man, when God approved of his offerings and by faith he is still speaking, although he has died.

<sup>5</sup> By faith Enoch was taken away so that he would not see death and “he was not found, because God had taken him.” For, before he was taken away, he had this testimony, that he had pleased God. <sup>6</sup> Without faith it is impossible to please God. For he who comes to God must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who earnestly search for Him.

<sup>7</sup> By faith when God had warned Noah about the things that were not yet seen, he respected God and built an ark to save his family. By this faith he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes through faith.

<sup>8</sup> By faith, when Abraham was called to go away to a place that he would receive as an inheritance, he obeyed and went, although he did not know where he was going. <sup>9</sup> By faith he lived as a stranger in the Promised Land, as though it belonged to someone else. He lived in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. <sup>10</sup> For he was looking forward to the city with foundations, whose Architect and Maker is God.

<sup>11</sup> By faith Sarah herself also received the ability to conceive a child, even though she was barren and was past the age, because she considered Him faithful who had made the promise. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as countless as the sand on the seashore came from this one man, although he had been as good as dead.

<sup>13</sup> All these people died in faith. They did not receive what had been promised but saw them from far away and welcomed them. They also confessed that they were strangers and sojourners on the earth. <sup>14</sup> For those who say such things show that they are looking for a country of their own. <sup>15</sup> Indeed, if they were thinking of the country that they had left, they would have had an opportunity to return. <sup>16</sup> Instead, they were longing for a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore, God is not ashamed to be called their God. For He has prepared a city for them.

<sup>17</sup> By faith, when Abraham was tested, he offered up Isaac. Yes, this man, who had received the promises, was offering up his only son, <sup>18</sup> about whom God had said, “It is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned.” <sup>19</sup> He concluded that God was able even to raise him up from the dead. Moreover, figuratively speaking, he did get him back from the dead.

<sup>21</sup> By faith, when Jacob was dying, he blessed each of Joseph’s sons and worshipped while he leaned on the top of his staff.

<sup>22</sup> By faith, when Joseph’s end was near, he spoke about the departure of the Israelites from Egypt and gave instructions about his bones.

<sup>23</sup> By faith, when Moses was born, he was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that he was a good-looking child, and were not afraid of the king’s edict.

<sup>24</sup> By faith, when Moses had grown up, he refused to be called the son of Pharaoh’s daughter <sup>25</sup> and chose to be mistreated with God’s people rather than to enjoy the short-lived pleasures of sin. <sup>26</sup> He considered the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt, because he was paying attention to the reward.

<sup>27</sup> By faith he left Egypt, without being afraid of the king’s anger, because he persevered as a man who was seeing the One who cannot be seen. <sup>28</sup> By faith he kept the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, that the one who was destroying the first-born might not touch them. <sup>29</sup> By faith they went through the Red Sea as through dry land, but, when the Egyptians attempted it, they were drowned.

<sup>30</sup> By faith the walls of Jericho fell after the people had marched around them for seven days.

<sup>31</sup> By faith the prostitute Rahab did not perish with the disobedient people after she had welcomed the spies in peace.

<sup>32</sup> What more, then, am I to say? For the time would run out for me if I were to tell about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, and about David, Samuel and the prophets. <sup>33</sup> They through faith conquered kingdoms, they enforced justice, they obtained promises, they shut the mouths of lions, <sup>34</sup> they quenched fierce fire, they escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness they were made strong, they became powerful in battle, they turned foreign armies to flight. <sup>35</sup> Women received their dead raised to life again. Other people were tortured. They did not accept deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. <sup>36</sup> Others experienced mocking and whippings and even chains and imprisonment. <sup>37</sup> They were stoned, tempted, sawn in two and put to death by the sword. They went about in sheepskins and goatskins. They were destitute, oppressed and tormented. <sup>38</sup> The world was not worthy of them. They wandered in deserts and mountains and in caves and holes in the ground. <sup>39</sup> Through faith, all these had good testimony given to them but did not receive the promise, <sup>40</sup> since God had planned something better concerning us, that they might not be made perfect apart from us.

12

Encouragement in the present trials (12:1-29)
An exhortation to run the race with endurance

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a large cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every impediment and the sin that so easily ensnares us and let us run with patient endurance the race that has been set before us! <sup>2</sup> Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the Author and Perfecter of our faith! For the sake of the joy that was set before Him, He endured the cross, despising its shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. <sup>3</sup> For consider Him who has endured such opposition against Himself from sinful men, that you may not become weary or discouraged in your souls! <sup>4</sup> In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding your blood. <sup>5</sup> You have also forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons: “My son, do not regard lightly the Lord’s discipline and do not lose heart when He rebukes you!” <sup>6</sup> For the Lord disciplines the one whom He loves and whips every son whom He receives.” <sup>7</sup> Endure hardship as a discipline! God is dealing with you as with sons. For what son is there whom his father does not discipline? <sup>8</sup> If you are without discipline, and all sons have undergone discipline, then you are not sons but illegitimate. <sup>9</sup> Furthermore, we used to have earthly fathers to discipline us and used to respect them. Shall we not, much more, be subordinate to the Father of spirits and live? <sup>10</sup> For they used to discipline us for a short time as it seemed best to them. However, God disciplines us for our good, that we may share in His holiness. <sup>11</sup> No discipline at the time seems pleasant, but painful. Later, however, it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness for those who have been trained by it. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, “strengthen the hands that are letting go and the weakened knees,” <sup>13</sup> and “make straight paths for your feet,” that the crippled limb may not be dislocated but may, rather, be healed!

<sup>14</sup> Keep on striving for peace with all people and for holiness! Without holiness no one will see the Lord.

<sup>15</sup> Be careful that no one loses the grace of God, that a bitter root does not grow up and cause trouble, so that many people are defiled through it! <sup>16</sup> Be careful that no one is sexually immoral or is profane like Esau, who for a single meal sold his rights as the first-born! <sup>17</sup> For you know that afterwards, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected. Indeed, he had no opportunity for a change of mind, although he begged for the blessing with tears.

A reminder that the Hebrew Christians have come to God’s heavenly Zion

<sup>18</sup> For you have not come to a mountain that can be touched and that is burning with fire and to darkness, gloom and storm, <sup>19</sup> to the blast of a trumpet or to such a voice speaking Words that those who heard it begged that no further Word would be spoken to them, <sup>20</sup> because they could not endure what was commanded: “If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned.” <sup>21</sup> The sight was so terrible that Moses said, “I am very afraid and trembling.” <sup>22</sup> Rather, you have come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, to tens of thousands of angels in festal gathering, <sup>23</sup> to the assembly of the first-born, whose names have been written in heaven. You have come to the Judge, the God of all, to the spirits of righteous people who have been made perfect, <sup>24</sup> to Jesus, the Mediator of the new testament and to the sprinkled blood, which speaks better than the blood of Abel. <sup>25</sup> Be careful that you do not refuse to listen to Him who is speaking! For, if they did not escape when they refused to listen to Him who was warning them on earth, much less shall we escape if we turn away from Him who is warning us from heaven? <sup>26</sup> At that time His voice shook the earth; but now He has promised: “Once more I shall shake not only the earth but also the heavens.” <sup>27</sup> The Words “once more” indicate the removal of the things that are being shaken, as of things that have been created, that the things that are not being shaken may remain. <sup>28</sup> Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful and with thankfulness serve God in a way that pleases Him, with reverence and awe! <sup>29</sup> For our God “is a consuming fire.”

13

Concluding advice and encouragement to live in love (13:1-25)

<sup>1</sup> Keep on loving each other as fellow-Christians! <sup>2</sup> Do not forget to welcome strangers! For by so doing some have welcomed angels without knowing it. <sup>3</sup> Remember the prisoners as if you were in prison with them! Remember those who are being mistreated, since you yourselves are in the body also! <sup>4</sup> Let everyone honour marriage and let the marriage bed be kept pure! For God will judge sexually immoral people and adul-

Hebrews

terers. <sup>5</sup> Let your way of life be free from a love for money! Be content with what you have! For God has said: “I shall never leave you or forsake you.”

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, we may boldly say: “The Lord is my Helper, and I shall not be afraid. What can any human being do to me?”

<sup>7</sup> Remember your leaders, who have spoken the Word of God to you! Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate their faith! <sup>8</sup> Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever. <sup>9</sup> Do not be carried away with different kinds of strange teachings! For it is good for the heart to be strengthened by grace, not by foods. Those who live in them have not been helped by them. <sup>10</sup> We have an altar from which those who are serving the Tabernacle have no right to eat. <sup>11</sup> For the bodies of the animals whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the High Priest as a sin-offering are burnt outside the camp. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, Jesus also suffered outside the gate to make the people holy through His own blood. <sup>13</sup> Let us, then, go to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach! <sup>14</sup> For here we have no continuing city but are looking for the future one. <sup>15</sup> Through Jesus, therefore, let us continually offer to God a sacrifice of praise, that is, the fruit of lips that praise His name! <sup>16</sup> Do not forget to do good and to share! For with such sacrifices God is pleased.

<sup>17</sup> Obey your leaders and submit to them! For they keep watch over your souls as men who must give an account. Let them do so with joy and not with grief! For that would not be to your advantage.

<sup>18</sup> Pray for us! For we are confident that we have a good conscience, since we desire to behave honourably in every way. <sup>19</sup> I urge you even more to do this, that I may be restored to you sooner.

A benediction

<sup>20</sup> May the God of peace, who brought up from the dead our Lord Jesus, the Great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting Covenant, <sup>21</sup> equip you with every good thing, that you may do what He wants you to do! May He work in us what is pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory for ever and ever! Amen.

Concluding information and greetings

<sup>22</sup> I urge you, fellow-Christians, receive patiently my Word of encouragement! For the letter that I am writing to you is a short one. <sup>23</sup> You should know that Timothy, our fellow-Christian, has been released. If he comes soon, I shall see you together with him. <sup>24</sup> Greet all your leaders and all God's holy people! Those who are from Italy send you greetings. <sup>25</sup> May grace be with all of you!

JAMES

Introduction (1:1)

<sup>1</sup> James, a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, To the twelve tribes who are dispersed in the world: Greetings!

An exhortation to turn to God, the giver of perfect gifts (1:2-27)

An admonition to rejoice when faith is tested

<sup>2</sup> Consider it nothing but joy, my fellow-Christians, when you become involved in various trials, <sup>3</sup> because you know that the testing of your faith produces patient endurance! <sup>4</sup> Let patient endurance show itself perfectly in practice, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking nothing! <sup>5</sup> If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask for it from God, who gives generously to all without resentment! He will give it to him. <sup>6</sup> However, let that person ask in faith, without doubting at all! For one who doubts is like a wave of the sea, blown and tossed about by the wind. <sup>7</sup> For that person should not think that he will receive anything from the Lord! <sup>8</sup> He is an indecisive man, unstable in all his ways. <sup>9</sup> Let the lowly fellow-Christian take pride in his high position <sup>10</sup> and the rich one in his lowliness! For he will pass away like a wild flower. <sup>11</sup> For the sun comes up with its scorching heat and dries up the wild plant. Its flower falls, and its beautiful appearance is ruined. In this way the rich person will also fade away in his business dealings.

A warning that believers should not let desires tempt them

<sup>12</sup> Blessed is the man who patiently endures when he is tested, because, when he has passed the test, he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love Him! <sup>13</sup> No one should say when he is tempted, "I am being tempted by God"! For God cannot be tempted to do evil and does not tempt anyone. <sup>14</sup> Each person is tempted when he is dragged away and enticed by his own desire. <sup>15</sup> Next, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin and, when sin has run its course, it gives birth to death. <sup>16</sup> Do not be deceived, my dearly loved fellow-Christians! <sup>17</sup> Every act of giving that is good and every gift that is perfect comes down from above, from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change or shifting shadow. <sup>18</sup> As He planned, He gave birth to us by the Word of truth, that we might be a kind of first-fruits of His creatures.

Hearing and doing

<sup>19</sup> My dear fellow-Christians, realise this! Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry! <sup>20</sup> For a man's anger does not produce the righteousness of God. <sup>21</sup> Therefore, lay aside all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and, with a gentle spirit, welcome the Word planted in you, which can save your souls! <sup>22</sup> However, do what the Word says and do not merely hear it and deceive yourselves! <sup>23</sup> For, if anyone listens to the Word but does not do what it says, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror. <sup>24</sup> For he looks at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like.

<sup>25</sup> However, the man who looks intently into the perfect Law that gives freedom and continues in it and who is not a forgetful hearer but one who does what it says, will be blessed in what he does. <sup>26</sup> If anyone thinks that he is religious and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his heart, his religion is worthless. <sup>27</sup> Religion that is pure and unstained before Him who is God and the Father is this: to look after orphans and widows in their trouble and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

An admonition to have true and active faith (2:1-26)

The incompatibility of faith in Christ with partiality

<sup>1</sup> My fellow-Christians, as you hold the faith in Jesus Christ, our Lord of glory, do not show favouritism!

<sup>2</sup> For, if a man with a gold ring on his finger and wearing fine clothes comes into your assembly for worship, and a poor man in dirty clothes also comes in, <sup>3</sup> and, if you give special attention to the one wearing the fine clothes and say, "You take this good seat here!" and you tell the poor man, "You stand there!" or "Sit at my footstool!" <sup>4</sup> have you not shown favouritism among yourselves and become judges with evil motives?

<sup>5</sup> Listen, my dear fellow-Christians! Has God not chosen those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and to inherit the kingdom that He has promised to those who love Him? <sup>6</sup> However, you have dishonoured the poor man. Do not rich people oppress you and are not they the ones who drag you into the courts?

<sup>7</sup> Are not they the ones who say wicked things about the noble name after which you have been called? <sup>8</sup> If you really fulfil the Royal Law, according to the Scripture passage: "You shall love your neighbour as yourself!" you are doing well. <sup>9</sup> However, if you show favouritism, you are committing a sin, and the Law convicts you as transgressors.

The requirement of perfection by the Law

<sup>10</sup> For whoever keeps the whole Law and yet stumbles in one point has become guilty of them all. <sup>11</sup> For He who has said, "Do not commit adultery!" has also said, "Do not murder!" If you do not commit adultery but murder, you have become a transgressor of the Law. <sup>12</sup> Speak and act in such a way as people who are going to be judged by the Law that gives liberty. <sup>13</sup> For there will be judgment without mercy on the one who has not shown mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

The contrast between a faith that proves itself by works and a non-existent faith with mere words

<sup>14</sup> What good does it do, my fellow-Christians, if someone says that he has faith but if he does not have works? That faith cannot save him, can it? <sup>15</sup> If a Christian man or woman is without clothes and daily food, <sup>16</sup> and one of you tells them, "Go in peace! Keep warm and well fed!" but you do not give them what the body needs, what good does it do? <sup>17</sup> So also, faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead. <sup>18</sup> However, someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works. Show me your faith without works, and I shall show you my faith by my works!" <sup>19</sup> Do you believe that "God is one"? You are doing well! Even the demons believe that and shudder in fear. <sup>20</sup> You foolish person, do you want to find out that faith without works is dead? <sup>21</sup> Was our father Abraham not justified by works when he offered his son Isaac on the altar? <sup>22</sup> You see that his faith and his works were working together, and by his works his faith was made complete. <sup>23</sup> The Scripture was also fulfilled that says, "Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness," and he was called "the friend of God." <sup>24</sup> You see that a person is justified by works and not by faith only. <sup>25</sup> Similarly, was not the prostitute Rahab also justified by works when she welcomed the messengers as guests and sent them away by a different road? <sup>26</sup> For, as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is also dead.

Exhortations to turn to God-given wisdom (3:1-18)
A warning against sins of the tongue

<sup>1</sup> Not many of you should become teachers, my fellow-Christians! For you know that we shall be judged more severely. <sup>2</sup> For we all commit many sins. If anyone does not sin in what he says, he is a perfect man, who can also keep his whole body in check. <sup>3</sup> If we put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we turn their whole bodies. <sup>4</sup> Look also at the ships. Although they are so large and are driven by fierce winds, a very small rudder turns them wherever the inclination of the pilot leads him. <sup>5</sup> So also, the tongue is a small member of the body and yet it makes great boasts. See what a small fire sets such a large forest ablaze! <sup>6</sup> The tongue is also a fire. It is a world of wickedness in our members. It defiles the whole body, it sets the whole course of life aflame and is set aflame by hell. <sup>7</sup> For every creature, from animals to birds to reptiles and to sea-creatures, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind. <sup>8</sup> However, no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. <sup>9</sup> With the tongue we bless the Lord and Father and with it we curse human beings, who have been made in God's likeness. <sup>10</sup> Blessing and cursing come out of the same mouth. My fellow-Christians, these things ought not to be so. <sup>11</sup> Surely a spring does not pour out both fresh and bitter water from the same opening? <sup>12</sup> My fellow-Christians, surely a fig tree cannot produce olives, or a grapevine produce figs? Neither can a salt spring produce fresh water.

The contrast between earthly and heavenly wisdom

ousy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not boast and lie against the truth! <sup>15</sup> This "wisdom" does not come down from above but is earthly, unspiritual and demonic. <sup>16</sup> For where there is jealousy and selfishness, disorder and every evil practice are there. <sup>17</sup> The wisdom that comes from above is, first, pure, then peaceful, gentle, willing to obey, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial and without pretence. <sup>18</sup> Those who make peace are also sowing a harvest of righteousness in peace.

An admonition to turn to God, the giver of the Spirit and of all grace (4:1-12)

A warning not to love the world

<sup>1</sup> Where do wars and where do fights come from among you? Do they not come from this, from your desires for pleasure, which wage war among your members? <sup>2</sup> You desire and do not have. So, you murder. You try to get something and cannot obtain it. So, you quarrel and wage war. You do not have, because you do not ask. <sup>3</sup> You ask and do not receive, because you are asking wrongly, that you may spend it on your pleasures.

<sup>4</sup> Adulterous people, do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Therefore, whoever wants to be a friend of the world becomes an enemy of God. <sup>5</sup> Or do you think the Scripture says without reason: "God jealously longs for the Spirit, whom He has caused to dwell in us"? <sup>6</sup> However, He gives more grace. Therefore, it says, "God opposes proud people but gives grace to humble people." <sup>7</sup> Therefore, be subordinate to God! Resist the Devil! He will flee from you. <sup>8</sup> Go near to God! He will come near to you. Cleanse your hands, sinners, and purify your hearts, double minded people! <sup>9</sup> Be miserable, mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy into gloom! <sup>10</sup> Humble yourselves before the Lord! He will lift you up.

A warning not to speak against one another

<sup>11</sup> Stop speaking against one another, my fellow-Christians! He who speaks against his fellow-Christian or judges him speaks against the Law and judges the Law. However, if you judge the Law, you are not keeping the Law but judging it. <sup>12</sup> There is only one Law-giver and Judge, the One who can save and destroy. Who, then, are you to judge your neighbour?

An admonition to turn away from the world's self-assurance (4:13-5:6)

A reminder that the future is not under human control

<sup>13</sup> Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we shall go into this city, stay there a year, carry on business and make money." <sup>14</sup> You do not know about tomorrow. What is your life? For you are a mist, which is seen for a little while and then vanishes. <sup>15</sup> Instead, you ought to say, "If it is the Lord's will, we shall live and do this or that." <sup>16</sup> However, now, you boast in your arrogance. All such boasting is wicked. <sup>17</sup> Therefore, if a person knows how to do what is right and does not do it, he is sinning.

A warning against the deceitfulness of riches

<sup>1</sup> Come now, rich people, weep and wail over the miseries that are coming on you! <sup>2</sup> Your riches have become rotten, and moths have eaten your clothes. <sup>3</sup> Your gold and silver have become corroded, and their corrosion will be evidence against you and will eat your flesh like fire. You have hoarded wealth in the last days. <sup>4</sup> Look! The wages that you have held back from the workers who mowed your fields are crying out, and the outcries of those who did the harvesting have reached the ears of the Lord of hosts. <sup>5</sup> You have lived on the earth in luxury and self-indulgence. You have fattened hearts in a day of slaughter. <sup>6</sup> You have condemned and murdered the righteous man, who does not resist you.

An admonition to turn to the Lord in patience(5:7-20)

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, be patient, fellow-Christians, until the Lord comes! See how the farmer waits for the valuable crop of the ground and waits patiently for it until it receives the Autumn and the Spring rains! <sup>8</sup> You too, be patient and remain firm! For the Lord's coming is near. <sup>9</sup> Do not grumble against one another, fellow-Christians, that you may not be judged! Consider! The Judge is standing in front of the door. <sup>10</sup> Fellow-Christians, take the prophets, who spoke in the name of the Lord, as an example of being patient in the face of wrong treatment! <sup>11</sup> Remember that we call those people "blessed" who have persevered. You have heard how Job persevered and have seen what the Lord finally brought about, because the Lord is very compassionate and merciful.

A warning against using oaths

<sup>12</sup> Above all things, my fellow-Christians, do not swear, either by heaven or by the earth or with any other oath! Rather, let your "yes" be "yes," and your "no" be "no," that you may not come under judgment!

An encouragement about the power of prayer

<sup>13</sup> Is anyone among you suffering misfortune? Let him pray! Is anyone cheerful? Let him sing praise! <sup>14</sup> Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the church, and let them pray over him, anointing him with olive-oil in the name of the Lord! <sup>15</sup> The prayer offered in faith will save the sick person, and the Lord will raise him up, and, if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, that you may be healed! The effective prayer of a righteous person can do much. <sup>17</sup> Elijah was a man with the same nature as ours and prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the land for three years and six months. <sup>18</sup> Then he prayed again, and the heavens gave rain and the ground produced its crops.

An admonition to Christians to care for one another's welfare

<sup>19</sup> My fellow-Christians, if anyone among you wanders away from the truth and someone turns him back, <sup>20</sup> let him know that the person who has turned a sinner back from the error of his way will save his soul from death and will cover a multitude of sins!

1 PETER

Opening greeting (1:1-2)

<sup>1</sup> Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen people who are exiles and scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, the province of Asia and Bithynia, <sup>2</sup> chosen according to the foreknowledge of God the Father by the sanctifying work of the Spirit, that you may obey Jesus Christ and be sprinkled with His blood: May grace and peace be yours in ever greater measure!

*The living hope that believers have in Christ (1:3-12)
Reasons for Christian joy*

<sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! He has given us new birth by His great mercy, through raising Jesus Christ from the dead. Therefore, we have a living hope, <sup>4</sup> which waits for an inheritance that cannot be destroyed or defiled and never fades away and which God has reserved for you in heaven. <sup>5</sup> You are protected by God's power through faith, until you come to the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. <sup>6</sup> In this you greatly rejoice, even though now, for a little while, if it is necessary, you have been suffering grief in various trials. <sup>7</sup> These sufferings have come that your faith may be proved genuine. It is more precious than gold, which perishes, although it is tested by fire. Then the tested genuineness of your faith will result in praise, glory and honour when Jesus Christ is revealed. <sup>8</sup> Although you have not seen Him, you love Him. You do not see Him now but believe in Him and rejoice with unspeakable and glorious joy, <sup>9</sup> because you are receiving the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls. <sup>10</sup> The prophets, who wrote beforehand about the grace that was to come to you, searched for and inquired carefully about this salvation. <sup>11</sup> They were trying to find out what Person or what time the Spirit of Christ in them was indicating when He was bearing witness in advance about the sufferings of Christ and the glories that would follow. <sup>12</sup> It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you in these things, which have now been reported to you through those who have been telling you the Good News by the Holy Spirit, who has been sent from heaven. These are things at which angels desire to gain a clear glance.

*Christian hope and holiness of life (1:13-2:10)
An exhortation to be holy*

<sup>13</sup> Therefore, prepare your minds for action, be sober and set your hope completely on the grace that will be brought to you when Jesus Christ is revealed! <sup>14</sup> Be like obedient children, not conforming to the evil desires that you formerly had in your ignorance! <sup>15</sup> Rather, as the One who has called you is holy, you also be holy in all your conduct! <sup>16</sup> For Scripture has said: "You shall be holy! For I am holy." <sup>17</sup> Moreover, since you call on Him as your Father, who judges impartially, according to what each person has done, conduct yourselves reverently, as you spend your time as resident foreigners! <sup>18</sup> For you know that you have not been redeemed with perishable things, with silver or gold, from the worthless lives you had handed over to you from your fathers, <sup>19</sup> but with the precious blood of Christ, as of a spotless and unblemished lamb. <sup>20</sup> He was chosen previously, before the foundation of the world but was revealed in the last time for your sakes. <sup>21</sup> Through Him you believe in God, who has raised Him from the dead and has given Him glory, so that your faith and hope are in God.

The power of the ever-living Word to work sincere love

<sup>22</sup> You have purified yourselves by obeying the truth, with the result that the love that you have for your fellow-Christians is not insincere. Therefore, love one another eagerly with pure hearts! <sup>23</sup> For you have been born again, not from a seed that can perish but from one that cannot perish, through the Word of God, which lives and remains. <sup>24</sup> For "All human beings are like grass, and all their glory is like the flower of the grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, <sup>25</sup> but the Word of the Lord remains for ever." This is the Word that has been told you as the Good News.

2

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, get rid of every kind of wickedness and every kind of deceit, hypocrisy, jealousy and every kind of slander! <sup>2</sup> Like new-born babies, long for the pure milk of the Word, that by it you may grow up to salvation! <sup>3</sup> For you have tasted that the Lord is good.

Believers are built on Christ, the living stone

<sup>4</sup> You are coming to Him, as to a living Stone, whom human beings have rejected but whom God has chosen and who is precious to Him; <sup>5</sup> and you are also being built, as living stones, to be a spiritual temple and to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices, which are acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. <sup>6</sup> For in Scripture it says, "See, I am laying a Stone in Zion, a chosen and precious Cornerstone, and the person who believes in Him will by no means be put to shame."

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, He is precious to you who believe; but to those who do not believe, "He is the Stone, which, although rejected by the builders, has become the Cornerstone," <sup>8</sup> and "a Stone over which they stumble and a Rock over which they fall." They stumble because they disobey the Word. That is also the end appointed for them.

Believers are God's special people

<sup>9</sup> You, however, are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own special people, that you may extol the wonderful deeds of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvellous light. <sup>10</sup> Once you were "not a people," but now you are "the people of God." Once you had "not received mercy," but now you have "received mercy."

Christian hope in spite of suffering (2:11-4:11)

<sup>11</sup> Dear friends, I urge you, as resident foreigners and exiles, to abstain from the desires of your sinful natures, which wage war against your souls. <sup>12</sup> Keep conducting yourselves well among the Gentiles, so that, when they accuse you of doing wrong but observe your good conduct, they may, because of your good works, glorify God on the day when He visits them!

An exhortation to be subordinate to constituted authority

<sup>13</sup> Be subordinate to every human institution for the Lord's sake: whether to the emperor, as the supreme authority, <sup>14</sup> or to governors, as men who are sent by him to punish those who do wrong and to praise those who do right! <sup>15</sup> For this is what God wants, that, by doing what is right, you should silence the ignorant talk of foolish people. <sup>16</sup> Be like free people but do not use your freedom to conceal evil! Rather, be like God's slaves! <sup>17</sup> Honour all people, love your fellow believers, fear God and honour the emperor! <sup>18</sup> Domestic slaves, be subordinate to your masters with every respect, not only to the good and considerate ones but also to those who are harsh!

An exhortation to suffer patiently

<sup>19</sup> For this is a commendable thing, if someone is moved by his conscience toward God, to bear the pain patiently when he suffers unjustly. <sup>20</sup> For what credit is there if you are beaten for doing wrong and you patiently endure it? However, if you suffer for doing good and endure it patiently, this is commendable with God. <sup>21</sup> For God has called you for this purpose, because Christ also has suffered for you and has left you an example, that you may follow in His footsteps. <sup>22</sup> He did not commit any sin, and no deceit was found in His mouth. <sup>23</sup> When others insulted Him, He did not insult them in return. When He suffered, He did not make threats but handed it over to Him who judges justly. <sup>24</sup> He Himself carried our sins in His body to the cross, that we might die to sins and live to righteousness. By His wounds you were healed. <sup>25</sup> For you were like sheep going astray but now have returned to the Shepherd and Caretaker of your souls.

3

The relationship of wives and husbands

<sup>1</sup> In the same way, wives, be subordinate to your husbands, so that, even if some do not obey the Word, they may be won, without words, by the behaviour of their wives, <sup>2</sup> when they observe your chaste conduct, which is accompanied by reverence! <sup>3</sup> Do not let your beauty be something outward, braiding the hair and wearing gold or putting on fine clothes! <sup>4</sup> Rather, let your beauty be the hidden person of the heart, with the unfading quality of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is very precious in God's sight! <sup>5</sup> For this is how the holy women of long ago who hoped in God also used to make themselves beautiful. They were subordinate to their husbands, <sup>6</sup> like Sarah, who obeyed Abraham and called him "lord." You have become her daughters if you do good without letting anything make you afraid.

<sup>7</sup> Likewise, husbands, live with your wives with understanding, giving honour to the wife as to the weaker vessel, and also as fellow-heirs of life by grace, that your prayers may not be hindered!

An exhortation to be compassionate

<sup>8</sup> Finally, all of you, be like-minded, be sympathetic, love like brothers and be compassionate and humble!

<sup>9</sup> Do not pay back evil for evil, insult for insult, but, on the contrary, speak a blessing! For you have been called that you may inherit a blessing.

<sup>10</sup> For "the person who wants to love life and see good days should keep his tongue from evil and his lips from deceitful talk! He should turn aside from evil and do good! He should try to get peace and pursue it! He should try to get peace and pursue it!" <sup>12</sup> For the eyes of the Lord are on those who are righteous, and His ears are attentive to their prayers. However, the face of the Lord is against those who do evil." <sup>13</sup> Who is the one who will harm you if you are eager to do good? <sup>14</sup> However, even if you were to suffer because of what is right, you would be blessed. Do not be afraid of what they are afraid of and do not let yourselves be intimidated!

<sup>15</sup> Rather, in your hearts regard Christ the Lord as holy! Always be ready to make a defence to everyone who asks you to give an account for the hope that you have but do this with gentleness and respect! <sup>16</sup> Keep a good conscience, that those who make fun of your good life in Christ may be ashamed of their slander! <sup>17</sup> It is better to suffer, if it is God's will, for doing right than for doing wrong.

<sup>18</sup> For Christ also suffered once for sins, the Righteous One for the unrighteous, to bring you to God. He was put to death in the human nature but made alive by the Spirit, <sup>19</sup> through whom He also went and preached to the spirits in prison, <sup>20</sup> who were disobedient long ago, when God waited patiently, in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared. In it only a few people, that is, eight persons, were saved through water. <sup>21</sup> That also prefigured baptism, which now saves you, not by washing dirt from the body but by guaranteeing a good conscience before God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ. <sup>22</sup> He has gone to heaven and is at the right hand of God, after angels, rulers and powers have been made subordinate to Him.

<sup>1</sup> Since, therefore, Christ has suffered in His body, arm yourselves with the same attitude! For he who has suffered in his body has finished with sin. <sup>2</sup> As a result, he no longer lives for the rest of his time in the body for the sinful desires of human beings but for the will of God. <sup>3</sup> For you spent enough time in the past in doing what the Gentiles want to do. Then you had been living in unbridled immorality, sinful desires, drunkenness, wild celebrations, carousals and the wanton worship of idols. <sup>4</sup> In this regard they are astonished that you do not run together with them into the same flood of dissi-pation and slander you. <sup>5</sup> They will give an account to the One who is ready to judge the living and the dead. <sup>6</sup> For this is the reason why the Good News has been told to those who are now dead, that they may be judged in conformity with human beings in the sinful nature but may then live in conformity with God in the spirit.

An exhortation to love fervently

<sup>7</sup> The end of all things is near. Therefore, be reasonable and exercise self-restraint for your prayers! <sup>8</sup> Above all, continue to love one another fervently! For “love covers a multitude of sins.” <sup>9</sup> Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling! <sup>10</sup> You should each serve one another with whatever charismatic gift you have received, as good managers of the manifold grace of God! <sup>11</sup> If anyone speaks, he should do it as one speaking the Oracles of God! If anyone serves, he should do it with the strength that God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ! To Him be the glory and the power for ever and ever! Amen.

Advice for Christians who are being persecuted (4:12-5:11)

The participation of believers in Christ's sufferings

<sup>12</sup> Dearly loved people, do not be astonished at the fiery ordeal among you, by which you are being tested, as though something strange were happening to you!

<sup>13</sup> However, rejoice in as far as you share in Christ's sufferings, that you may also rejoice and be very glad when His glory is revealed! <sup>14</sup> If you are insulted because of the name of Christ, you are blessed, because the Spirit of glory and of God is resting on you. <sup>15</sup> Of course, none of you should suffer as a murderer, a thief, a criminal or one who meddles in the affairs of others!

<sup>16</sup> However, if anyone suffers as a Christian, he should not be ashamed but should glorify God for that name!

<sup>17</sup> For it is time for the judgment to begin with the household of God. However, if it begins with us, what will be the end for those who refuse to listen to the Good News of God? <sup>18</sup> If it is hard for a righteous person to be saved, what will become of the ungodly and sinful person? <sup>19</sup> Therefore, those who are suffering according to the will of God should commit their souls to the faithful Creator, as they continue to do good!

5

An appeal to the ministers of the Gospel

<sup>1</sup> I appeal to the elders among you, I, who am a fellow-elder, a witness of the sufferings of Christ and also one who will share in the glory that will be revealed: <sup>2</sup> be shepherds of the flock of God that is with you and care for it, not because you have to but because you want to, as is God's will, not because you are fond of dishonest gain but eagerly, <sup>3</sup> not lording it over the people assigned to you but being examples to the flock! <sup>4</sup> When the Chief Shepherd appears, you will also receive the unfading crown of glory.

An exhortation to humility

<sup>5</sup> In a similar way, younger people, be subordinate to those who are older! All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another! For “God opposes proud people but gives grace to humble people.”

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you at the right time! <sup>7</sup> Cast all your anxiety on Him! For He cares for you.

An admonition to be watchful

<sup>8</sup> Be self-controlled and alert! Your enemy, the Devil, is prowling around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. <sup>9</sup> Be strong in your faith and resist him, knowing that your fellow-Christians in the world are undergoing the same kinds of sufferings! <sup>10</sup> After you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you in Christ Jesus to His eternal glory, will Himself make you complete, make you firm, make you strong and give you a good foundation. <sup>11</sup> To Him be the power for ever! Amen.

Conclusion (5:12-14)

A concluding exhortation and a farewell

<sup>12</sup> With the help of Silvanus, a faithful fellow-Christian, as I regard him, I am writing you this short letter, to encourage you and to testify that this is the true grace of God. Stand firm in it! <sup>13</sup> She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, sends you her greetings, and so does my son Mark. <sup>14</sup> Greet one another with a kiss of love! Peace to all of you who are in Christ!

2 PETER

1

Opening greeting

<sup>1</sup> Simon Peter, a slave and apostle of Jesus Christ, To the people who have obtained a faith that is as precious as ours in the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ: <sup>2</sup> May grace and peace be yours in an ever greater measure through the knowledge of God and our Lord Jesus!

An exhortation to grow in true knowledge (1:3-21)

<sup>3</sup> For His divine power has given us everything that we need for life and godliness, through the knowledge of the One who has called us to His own glory and excellence. <sup>4</sup> Through these He has given us His precious and very great promises, so that, through these promises, you may begin to participate in the divine nature, after you have escaped from the depravity that exists in the world because of sinful desire. <sup>5</sup> For this very reason, make every effort to provide your faith with excellence, your excellence with knowledge, <sup>6</sup> your knowledge with self-control, your self-control with perseverance, your perseverance with godliness, <sup>7</sup> your godliness with brotherly kindness and your brotherly kindness with love! <sup>8</sup> For, if you have these and, if they are increasing, they keep you from being useless and unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. <sup>9</sup> For, if anyone does not have these, he is so shortsighted that he is blind and has forgotten that he has been cleansed from his past sins. <sup>10</sup> Therefore, be even more eager, fellow-Christians, to be certain that your calling and election are secure! For, if you do these things, you will certainly never stumble. <sup>11</sup> For in this way an entrance will be richly provided for you into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. <sup>12</sup> For this reason, I shall always be reminding you about these things, although you know them and have been firmly established in the truth that you now have. <sup>13</sup> I think it is right, while I am in this tent, to arouse you by way of a reminder. <sup>14</sup> For I know that I shall soon lay aside my tent, as our Lord Jesus Christ has also shown me. <sup>15</sup> Moreover, I shall do my best to see to it that, after I have departed, you always remember these things.

Apostolic testimony to the transfiguration of Christ and the Word of the Old Testament as reasons for certainty

<sup>16</sup> We were not following any clever myths when we told you about the power of our Lord Jesus Christ and His coming. Rather, with our own eyes we saw His majesty. <sup>17</sup> For He received honour and glory from God the Father when such a voice was spoken to Him by the Sublime Glory, “This is My Son, whom I love and with whom I am well pleased.” <sup>18</sup> We heard this voice, which came from heaven when we were with Him on the holy mountain. <sup>19</sup> We also have the prophetic Word confirmed, and you will do well to pay attention to it, as to a light shining in a gloomy place, until the day dawns and the Morning Star rises in your hearts. <sup>20</sup> Understand this first, that no prophetic utterance of Scripture comes because of someone’s own interpretation! <sup>21</sup> For no prophecy was ever spoken because of a human being’s decision, but men spoke from God as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

A warning about false teachers (2:1-22)

<sup>1</sup> There were also false prophets among the people, as there will also be false teachers among you. They will secretly bring in destructive opinions. They will deny even the Lord who has bought them and will bring swift destruction on themselves. <sup>2</sup> Many people will follow their immoral ways, and because of them the way of truth will be slandered. <sup>3</sup> In their greed they will make a profit out of you by means of fabricated words. From ancient times their condemnation is being prepared, and their destruction is not asleep. <sup>4</sup> For, if God did not spare angels when they sinned but held them captive in the gloomy place of punishment and handed them over to be kept in chains of darkness for judgment, <sup>5</sup> and, if He did not spare the ancient world, when He brought a flood on a world of ungodly people but protected Noah, who was a preacher of righteousness, and seven others, <sup>6</sup> and, if He reduced the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to ashes, condemned them to destruction and made them an example of what is going to happen to ungodly people, <sup>7</sup> but, if He rescued righteous Lot, who used to be distressed by the indecent conduct of those lawless people <sup>8</sup> (for, as he saw and heard them while he lived among them, this righteous man tormented his righteous soul day after day because of their lawless deeds), <sup>9</sup> then the Lord knows how to rescue godly people from temptation and to keep wicked people under punishment for the day of judgment, <sup>10</sup> especially those who follow their sinful natures in lust for what defiles them and despise the Lord’s majesty. They are audacious and headstrong and do not tremble when they slander glorious angelic beings, <sup>11</sup> whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, do not deliver an insulting condemnation from the Lord against them. <sup>12</sup> However, these people slander what they do not understand. They are like unthinking animals, which by nature have been born to be caught and destroyed; and, when animals are destroyed, they too will be destroyed. <sup>13</sup> They are hurt to pay them back for the hurt that they have caused. They consider that pleasure is revelling in the daytime. As spots and blemishes, they revel in their sinful pleasures when they feast with you. <sup>14</sup> They have eyes that are full of desire for an adulterous woman and that cannot cease from sin. They try to trap unstable souls. They have hearts that have been trained in greed. They are going to be cursed. <sup>15</sup> They have forsaken the straight way and wandered off. They follow the way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who loved the wages of wickedness.

<sup>16</sup> However, he received a rebuke for his wrongdoing: a donkey, which cannot speak, spoke with a human voice and restrained the prophet's madness. <sup>17</sup> These people are springs without water and mists driven by a storm. Black darkness has been reserved for them. <sup>18</sup> For, when they speak high-sounding but empty words, they try to trap, through the desires of the sinful nature and through indecent actions, the people who are barely escaping from those who live in error. <sup>19</sup> Although they promise them freedom, they are themselves the slaves of depravity. For, if something has defeated someone, he has been enslaved by it. <sup>20</sup> If they have escaped the defilements of the world by knowing our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ but have then been entangled and conquered by them again, their final condition has become worse than their first. <sup>21</sup> For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness than to have learned it and then to turn away again from the holy Commandment that had been handed over to them. <sup>22</sup> The proverb is true that tells what has happened to them: "A dog goes back to its own vomit," and "A sow that has washed herself goes back to roll around in the mud."

The need to be ready for Christ's return (3:1-18)
The coming destruction of the world

<sup>1</sup> Dearly loved people, this is now the second letter that I am writing to you. In both of them I am stirring up your pure minds as I remind you <sup>2</sup> to remember the Words that have been spoken in the past by the holy prophets and the command of your apostles of the Lord and Saviour. <sup>3</sup> First, you should know that in the last days mockers, following their own evil desires, will come with their mockery <sup>4</sup> and ask, "Where is the promise of His coming? For, since the fathers fell asleep, everything has remained as it has been since the world was first created." <sup>5</sup> What they deliberately forget is that a long time ago by the Word of God the heavens began to exist, the earth was formed out of water and by water <sup>6</sup> and that water flooded and destroyed that former world. <sup>7</sup> The same Word has also reserved the present heavens and the earth for fire and keeps them for the day when ungodly people are judged and destroyed. <sup>8</sup> Do not forget this one thing, dearly loved people, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years are like one day! <sup>9</sup> The Lord is not slow to keep what He has promised, as some people understand slowness. Rather, He is patient with you, because He does not want any to be lost but wants all to come to repentance. <sup>10</sup> The day of the Lord will come like a thief. On that day the heavens will pass away with a roar, burning will destroy the elements and the earth and the works that are on it will become evident. <sup>11</sup> Since all these things will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people must you be in forms of holy conduct and godliness, <sup>12</sup> as you look forward to and hasten, the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be destroyed with fire, and the elements will melt by burning? <sup>13</sup> Rather, according to His promise, we look forward to new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells. <sup>14</sup> Therefore, dearlyloved people, since you are looking forward to these things, make every effort to be found by Him without spot or blemish and at peace! <sup>15</sup> Regard the patience of our Lord as salvation, as our dear fellow-Christian Paul has also written to you, with the wisdom that God has given to him, <sup>16</sup> as he also does in all his letters! He speaks about these things in them. Some things in them are hard to understand, and people who are ignorant and unstable distort them, as they also do with the rest of the Scriptures, to their very own destruction. <sup>17</sup> As for you, therefore, dearly loved people, since you already know this, be on your guard, that you may not be carried away by the error of unprincipled people and lose your firm hold! <sup>18</sup> However, grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ! To Him be the glory both now and for the eternal day! Amen.

Introduction: the revelation of the Word of life (1:1-4)
Apostolic testimony to the Word of life

<sup>1</sup> That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and our hands have touched, concerning the Word of Life - <sup>2</sup> and the Life has been revealed; and we have seen It, testify to It and proclaim to you the eternal Life that was with the Father and that has been revealed to us. <sup>3</sup> What we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Our fellowship is also with the Father and with His Son, Jesus Christ. <sup>4</sup> We are writing these things that our joy may be complete.

The message that God is light (1:5-2:28)

<sup>5</sup> This is the message that we have heard from Him and that we are telling you: that God is Light and in Him there is no darkness at all. <sup>6</sup> If we say that we have fellowship with Him and yet walk in darkness, we are lying and not practising the truth.

The blood of Jesus cleanses from sin

<sup>7</sup> However, if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus, His Son, cleanses us from all sin. <sup>8</sup> If we say that we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves, and the truth is not in us. <sup>9</sup> If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>10</sup> If we say that we have not sinned, we are making Him a liar, and His Word is not in us.

<sup>1</sup> My little children, I am writing this to you that you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ, the Righteous One. <sup>2</sup> He is the propitiation for our sins and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world.

An exhortation to live in love and in the light

<sup>3</sup> We know that we know Him if we keep His Commandments. <sup>4</sup> The person who says, "I know Him," but does not keep His Commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him. <sup>5</sup> However, God's love has truly been made complete in whoever keeps His Word. That is how we know that we are in Him. <sup>6</sup> The person who says that he remains in Him should also himself live as He lived. <sup>7</sup> Dearly loved people, I am not writing a new Commandment for you but an old Commandment, which you used to have from the beginning. The old Commandment is the Word that you have heard.

<sup>8</sup> Again, I am writing a new Commandment for you, and this is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away and the genuine Light is already shining. <sup>9</sup> The person who says that he is in the light but hates his brother is in darkness until now. <sup>10</sup> The person who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is nothing in him that causes someone else to stumble.

walks in the darkness and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

A warning not to love the world

<sup>12</sup> I am writing to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven because of His name. <sup>13</sup> I am writing to you, fathers, because you know Him who has been from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you have conquered the Evil One. <sup>14</sup> I am writing to you, children, because you know the Father. I am writing to you, fathers, because you know Him who has been from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because you are strong, the Word of God remains in you and you have conquered the Evil One. <sup>15</sup> Do not love the world or the things in the world! If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. <sup>16</sup> For everything in the world — the sinful desires of the human nature, the sinful desires of the eyes and pride in one's possessions — does not come from the Father but from the world. <sup>17</sup> The world is also passing away with its sinful desires, but the person who does the will of God remains for ever.

A warning about the coming of the Antichrist and many antichrists

<sup>18</sup> Children, it is the last hour and, as you have heard that the Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have come. This is how we know that it is the last hour. <sup>19</sup> They went out from us but did not belong to us. For, if they had belonged to us, they would have remained with us. However, they went out that they might be made known, because not all belong to us. <sup>20</sup> You, however, have an anointing from the Holy One, and all of you have knowledge. <sup>21</sup> I am not writing to you because you do not know the truth but because you know it and because no lie comes from the truth. <sup>22</sup> Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This one is the Antichrist: he who denies the Father and the Son. <sup>23</sup> Everyone who denies the Son does not have the Father either. The one who confesses the Son also has the Father. <sup>24</sup> As for you, let what you have heard from the beginning remain in you! If what you have been hearing from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son and in the Father. <sup>25</sup> Moreover, this is the promise that He has promised us: eternal life. <sup>26</sup> I am writing these things to you about those who are trying to lead you astray. <sup>27</sup> However, as for you, the anointing that you have received from Him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. Rather, as His own anointing teaches you about all things and, as it is true and is not a lie and as it has taught you, remain in Him! <sup>28</sup> Now, little children, remain in Him, so that, when He appears, we may be confident and may not be put to shame before Him at His coming!

The message that believers are God's children (2:29- 4:6)
Rebirth from God and a warning against persistent sin

<sup>29</sup> If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone also who keeps on doing what is right has been born from Him.

3

<sup>1</sup> See what great love the Father has given to us, that we are called “the children of God”! That is what we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it has not known Him. <sup>2</sup> Dearly loved people, we are now the children of God, but it has not yet been shown what we shall be. We know that, when He appears, we shall be like Him because we shall see Him as He is.

<sup>3</sup> Everyone who has this hope in Him purifies himself, just as He is pure. <sup>4</sup> Everyone who keeps on committing sin also keeps on committing lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness. <sup>5</sup> You also know that He appeared to take away our sins, and there is no sin in Him. <sup>6</sup> No one who remains in Him keeps on sinning. No one who keeps on sinning has seen Him or known Him. <sup>7</sup> Little children, let no one lead you astray! Whoever does what is right is righteous, as He is righteous. <sup>8</sup> The person who keeps on committing sin is from the Devil, because the Devil has been sinning from the beginning. The purpose for which the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the Devil. <sup>9</sup> No one who has been born from God keeps on sinning, because God’s seed remains in him, and he cannot keep on sinning, because he has been born from God. <sup>10</sup> This is how the children of God and the children of the Devil are obvious: no one who fails to do what is right or to love his brother is from God.

An exhortation to love one another

<sup>11</sup> For this is the message that you have been hearing from the beginning: that we should love one another. <sup>12</sup> We should not be like Cain, who belonged to the Evil One and murdered his brother. Why did he murder him? Because his works were evil and his brother’s works were righteous. <sup>13</sup> Do not be astonished, my fellow-Christians, if the world hates you! <sup>14</sup> We know that we have moved away from death into life, because we love our brothers. The person who does not love remains in death. <sup>15</sup> Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him. <sup>16</sup> This is how we know love: He has laid down His life for us. We also ought to lay down our lives for our brothers. <sup>17</sup> If anyone has this world’s goods and sees his brother in need but shuts his heart against him, how does the love of God remain in him? <sup>18</sup> Little children, let us not only love in words or in talk but in deeds and in truth! <sup>19</sup> This is how we shall know that we belong to the truth and how we shall assure our hearts before Him: <sup>20</sup> For whenever our hearts condemn us, God is greater than our hearts and knows everything. <sup>21</sup> Dearly loved people, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have confidence before God <sup>22</sup> and receive from Him whatever we ask for, because we keep His Commandments and do the things that are pleasing in His sight. <sup>23</sup> This is also His Commandment, that we should believe in the name of His Son,

Jesus Christ and love one another as He has commanded us. <sup>24</sup> He who keeps His Commandments remains in God, and God remains in him. This is also how we know that He remains in us: by the Spirit, whom He has given to us.

A warning to beware of false prophets

<sup>1</sup> Dearly loved people, do not believe every spirit but test the spirits to see whether they are from God! For many false prophets have gone out into the world.

<sup>2</sup> This is how you recognise the Spirit of God: Every spirit who confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God. <sup>3</sup> However, any spirit who does not confess Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the Antichrist, which you have heard is coming and which is already now in the world. <sup>4</sup> You are from God, little children, and you have overcome them, because the One who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world. <sup>5</sup> They are from the world. That is why they speak from the viewpoint of the world and the world listens to them. <sup>6</sup> We are from God. He who knows God listens to us. He who is not from God does not listen to us. In this way we know the spirit of truth and the spirit of error.

The message that God is love (4:7-5:12)

The love of Christians is motivated by God’s love to them

<sup>7</sup> Dearly loved people, let us love one another! For love comes from God, and everyone who loves has been given birth by God and knows God. <sup>8</sup> The one who does not love has not known God, because God is Love. <sup>9</sup> This is how God has shown His love among us: He has sent His only Son into the world that we may live through Him. <sup>10</sup> This is what love is: not that we have loved God but that He has loved us and has sent His Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins.

<sup>11</sup> Dearly loved people, since that is how God has loved us, we also ought to love one another. <sup>12</sup> No one has ever seen God. If we love one another, God remains in us, and His love has been brought to maturity in us.

<sup>13</sup> This is how we know that we remain in Him and He in us: He has given us His Spirit. <sup>14</sup> We have seen and testify that the Father has sent His Son as the Saviour of the world. <sup>15</sup> If anyone confesses that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he remains in God.

<sup>16</sup> We have also known and have believed the love that God has for us. God is Love, and he who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him.

<sup>17</sup> His love has been brought to maturity with us in this, that we have confidence on the Day of Judgment, because we are like Him in this world. <sup>18</sup> There is no fear in love, but mature love casts out fear, because fear involves punishment. The person who is afraid has not been brought to maturity in love. <sup>19</sup> We love because He first loved us. <sup>20</sup> If anyone says, “I love God,” but hates his brother, he is a liar. For no one who fails to love his brother, whom he has seen, can love God, whom he has not seen. <sup>21</sup> This is also the Commandment that we have from Him, that he who loves God should also love his brother.

Faith in the Son of God and Christians' love for one another

<sup>1</sup> Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born from God, and everyone who loves the Father also loves the child who has been fathered by Him. <sup>2</sup> This is how we know that we love the children of God: when we love God and carry out His Commandments. <sup>3</sup> For this is love for God: that we keep His Commandments. His Commands are also not burdensome. <sup>4</sup> For whatever has been born from God conquers the world, and this is the victory that has overcome the world: our faith. <sup>5</sup> Who is the one who conquers the world but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? <sup>6</sup> This is the One who has come through water and blood: Jesus Christ. He has not come by water only but by water and by blood. Moreover, it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is the Truth. <sup>7</sup> There are three who are giving witness: <sup>8</sup> the Spirit, the water and the blood, and these three have one purpose. <sup>9</sup> If we receive the testimony of human beings, the testimony of God is greater, because this is the testimony of God, which He has given about His Son. <sup>10</sup> The person who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. The person who does not believe God has made Him a liar, because he has not believed the testimony that God has given about His Son. <sup>11</sup> This is the testimony: that God has given us eternal life and this life is in His Son. <sup>12</sup> The person who has the Son has life. The person who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

The great certainties to which believers hold (5:13-20)

<sup>13</sup> I am writing these things to you that you, who believe in the name of the Son of God, may know that you have eternal life. <sup>14</sup> This is the confidence that we have in Him, that, if we ask for anything according to His will, He hears us. <sup>15</sup> If we know that He hears us in whatever we ask, we also know that we have from Him the requests that we have made. <sup>16</sup> If someone sees his brother committing a sin that does not lead to death, he should ask, and God will give him life. This is so for those who commit sins that do not lead to death. There is a sin that leads to death. I am not saying that he should pray about that. <sup>17</sup> All wrongdoing is sin, and there is a sin that does not lead to death. <sup>18</sup> We know that no one who has been born from God keeps on sinning, but the One who has been born from God protects him, and the Evil One does not touch him. <sup>19</sup> We know that we are from God and that the whole world lies under the control of the Evil One. <sup>20</sup> We know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding, that we may know Him who is true; and we are in Him who is true, in His Son, Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

Closing admonition (5:21)

<sup>21</sup> Little children, keep yourselves from idols!

2 JOHN

Opening greeting (1-3)

<sup>1</sup> The Elder, To the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in the truth, and not only I but also all who know the truth, <sup>2</sup> because of the truth that remains in us and will be with us for ever. <sup>3</sup> Grace, mercy and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love!

Walking in the truth (4-6)

<sup>4</sup> I have been very joyful because I have found some of your children walking in the truth, as the Father has commanded us. <sup>5</sup> Now I ask you, lady, not as if I were writing a new Commandment to you but the one that we have had from the beginning, that we should love one another. <sup>6</sup> Moreover, this is love, that we walk according to His Commandments. This is the Commandment, that, as you have heard it from the beginning, you should walk in love.

Erroneous teachers (7-11)

Christ comes in a human body, have gone out into the world. This is the deceiver and the Antichrist. <sup>8</sup> Watch yourselves, that you may not lose what you have worked for but that you may receive a full reward.

<sup>9</sup> Everyone who goes beyond limits and does not remain in what Christ has taught does not have God. The person who remains in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. <sup>10</sup> If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house or say a greeting to him! <sup>11</sup> For the person who says a greeting to him shares in his wicked deeds.

Conclusion: John's plan to visit the congregation and a greeting (12-13)

<sup>12</sup> Although I have many things to write to you, I do not want to do it with paper and ink but hope to come to you and talk face to face, that our joy may be complete. <sup>13</sup> The children of your chosen sister greet you.

3 JOHN

Opening greeting (1)

<sup>1</sup> The Elder, To my dear Gaius, whom I love in truth.

A comment about Gaius (2-8)

<sup>2</sup> Dearly loved man, I pray that you are doing well in every way and are healthy, just as your soul is doing well. <sup>3</sup> I was delighted when some fellow-Christians came and told me about the truth that you have — how you continue to live in it. <sup>4</sup> Nothing gives me greater joy than to hear that my children continue to live in the truth.

<sup>5</sup> Dearly loved man, you are exercising your faith in what you are doing for your fellow-Christians, even though they are strangers. <sup>6</sup> They have publicly told the church about your love. Please help them on their way, as it is right before God, <sup>7</sup> because they went out for the sake of the Name, without accepting anything from the Gentiles. <sup>8</sup> We have an obligation to support such people to work with them for the truth.

Criticism of Diotrephes (9-10)

<sup>9</sup> I wrote something to the church, but Diotrephes, who loves to be in charge, will not listen to us. <sup>10</sup> For this reason, if I come, I shall bring up what he is doing when he talks such wicked nonsense about us. Not satisfied with that, he refuses to welcome the fellow-Christians as guests. He also attempts to stop those who want to welcome them and tries to put them out of the church.

About Demetrius (11-12)

<sup>11</sup> Dearly loved man, do not imitate what is wrong but what is right! The one who does what is right is the child of God. The one who does wrong has not seen God.

<sup>12</sup> Everyone speaks well of Demetrius, and so does the truth itself. We also speak well of him, and you know that our testimony is true.

Conclusion: John's plan to visit Gaius and greetings (13-15)

<sup>13</sup> I have much to write to you but do not want to do it with pen and ink. <sup>14</sup> I hope to see you very soon and talk with you face to face.

<sup>15</sup> Peace to you! The friends here send you their greetings. Greet each of our friends by name!

JUDE

Opening greeting (1-2)

<sup>1</sup> Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ and a brother of James, To those who have been called, who have been loved in God the Father and preserved through Jesus Christ:

<sup>2</sup> May mercy, peace and love be yours in ever greater measure!

The purpose of the letter (3-4)

An exhortation to fight for the faith

<sup>3</sup> Dearly loved people, although I have been very eager to keep writing to you about our common salvation, I have found it necessary to write to you and urge you to contend for the faith that has once for all been delivered to God's holy people. <sup>4</sup> There are some people who have slipped in stealthily among you. Some time ago it was written that they must be condemned in this way. They are ungodly persons, who turn the grace of our God into immorality and who deny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Examples of God's judgment (5-7)

<sup>5</sup> I want to remind you, although you already know all this, that the Lord once for all saved His people from the land of Egypt but afterwards destroyed those who did not believe. <sup>6</sup> He has also kept in everlasting chains and in gloom, for the judgment of the great day, the angels who did not keep their proper domain but abandoned their own dwelling. <sup>7</sup> They are like Sodom and Gomorrah and the cities around them, which in a similar way to theirs committed sexual sins and indulged in unnatural vice. As they suffer their penalty, they lie before us as an example of eternal fire.

A description of false teachers (8-16)

<sup>8</sup> Yet, in a similar way, these men also have visions in dreams and defile the body, reject the Lord's majesty and slander glorious angelic beings. <sup>9</sup> When the arch-angel Michael was disputing with the Devil and having a discussion about the body of Moses, he did not dare to pronounce a slanderous judgment against him but said, "May the Lord rebuke you!" <sup>10</sup> However, these people slander whatever they do not understand and whatever they do know naturally, like unthinking animals, they use to destroy themselves. <sup>11</sup> How terrible for them! For they have gone in the way of Cain. They have abandoned themselves to the error of Balaam for profit and been destroyed in the rebellion of Korah.

<sup>12</sup> They are the people who are stains on your love-feasts when they feast together with you without fear. They are shepherds who look after themselves. They are clouds without water driven along by the winds. They are trees in late autumn without fruit, twice dead, because they have been torn up by the roots. <sup>13</sup> They are wild waves of the sea, foaming up their own shame. They are wandering stars, for whom black darkness has been reserved for ever. <sup>14</sup> Enoch, the seventh in descent from Adam, prophesied about them also. He said, "Look! The Lord has come with ten thousands of His holy ones, <sup>15</sup> to carry out judgment on all and to convict every soul for all the ungodly things that they have done in their ungodliness and for all the harsh things that ungodly sinners have spoken against Him." <sup>16</sup> These people are grumblers and faultfinders. They follow their own sinful desires. Their mouths speak high-sounding words and they flatter people to gain an advantage.

Advice to remember Words of the apostles (17-23)

<sup>17</sup> However, as for you, dearly loved people, remember the Words that have been predicted by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ! <sup>18</sup> They have told you, "In the last time there will be scoffers who follow their own ungodly desires." <sup>19</sup> These people are the ones who cause divisions. They are worldly and do not have the Spirit.

An exhortation to increase in faith

<sup>20</sup> You, however, dearly loved people, build yourselves up in your most holy faith and pray in the Holy Spirit!

<sup>21</sup> Keep yourselves in the love of God and wait for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to give you eternal life!

<sup>23</sup> Save others "by snatching them out of the fire!"! Show mercy to still others, with fear, detesting even the garment stained by the flesh!

Closing doxology (24-25)

<sup>24</sup> Furthermore, to Him who can keep you from falling and to make you stand without fault and with great joy in His glorious presence, <sup>25</sup> to the only God, our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, power and authority, before all ages and now and for ever and ever! Amen.

REVELATION

1

Introduction (1:1-20)

<sup>1</sup> This is the revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave Him, to show His servants the things that must soon happen. He signified it and sent it through His angel to His servant John. <sup>2</sup> John has borne witness about the Word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, about everything that he has seen. <sup>3</sup> Blessed is the one who reads, and those who hear the Words of this prophecy and keep the things that have been written in it! For the time is near.

Messages to the seven churches

<sup>4</sup> John, To the seven churches in the province of Asia: Grace and peace to you from the One Who Is and the One Who Was and the One Who Is Coming and from the Seven Spirits who are before His throne, <sup>5</sup> and from Jesus Christ, the faithful Witness, the First-born from the dead and the Ruler over the kings of the earth. To Him who loves us and has freed us from our sins by His blood <sup>6</sup> and has made us a kingdom, priests to God and His Father — to Him be glory and power for ever and ever! Amen.

<sup>7</sup> Look! He is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see Him, even the men who pierced Him, and all the tribes of the earth will mourn because of Him. Even so, Amen.

<sup>8</sup> “I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, the One Who Is and the One Who Was and the One Who Is Coming, the Almighty.

<sup>9</sup> I, John, your fellow-Christian and companion with you in the tribulation and the kingdom and the patience in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos because of the Word of God and the testimony of Jesus. <sup>10</sup> I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s Day and heard behind me a loud voice like a trumpet, <sup>11</sup> saying: “Write on a scroll what you see and send it to the seven churches, to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia and Laodicea!”

<sup>12</sup> Then I turned to see the voice that was speaking to me. When I turned I saw seven golden lampstands, <sup>13</sup> and among the lampstands Someone like the Son of Man. He was clothed with a robe that reached down to His feet and wore a golden belt around His chest.

<sup>14</sup> His head and His hair were white like wool, white like snow, and His eyes were like a flame of fire.

<sup>15</sup> His feet were like fine brass, as if refined in a furnace, and His voice was like the sound of many waters. <sup>16</sup> In His right hand He was holding seven stars. Out of His mouth came a sharp, double-edged sword, and His face was like the sun when it shines in its strength.

<sup>17</sup> When I saw Him, I fell at His feet like a dead man. He laid His right hand on me, saying: “Stop being afraid! I am the First and the Last, <sup>18</sup> and the One Who Lives; and I died, and look! I am alive for ever and ever and I have the keys of death and of Hades.

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, write down the things that you have seen, the things that are now and the things that are going to happen after this! <sup>20</sup> The mystery of the seven stars that you have seen in My right hand and of the seven golden lampstands is this: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches and the seven lampstands are the seven churches.”

2

The first vision: the letters to the seven churches (2:1-3:22)

A letter to the church in Ephesus

<sup>1</sup> “Write to the angel of the church at Ephesus: ‘The One who holds the seven stars in His right hand, the One who walks among the seven golden lampstands, says these things: <sup>2</sup> “I know your deeds, your hard work and your patient endurance. I know that you cannot tolerate wicked people, that you have tested those who say that they are apostles and are not and that you have found that they are liars. <sup>3</sup> You have patiently endured and have suffered trouble because of My name and have not grown weary. <sup>4</sup> However, I have this against you, that you have left your first love. <sup>5</sup> Therefore, remember from where you have fallen, repent and do the things that you did at first! Otherwise, unless you repent, I shall come to you and remove your lampstand from its place. <sup>6</sup> However, you have this, that you hate the practices of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. <sup>7</sup> Let the one who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches! ‘I shall give to the one who wins the victory the right to eat from the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of God.’””

A letter to the church in Smyrna

<sup>8</sup> “Write to the angel of the church at Smyrna: ‘The First and the Last, who died and came to life, says these things: <sup>9</sup> “I know your tribulation and your poverty, but you are rich. I know the slander of those who say that they are Jews and are not but are the synagogue of Satan. <sup>10</sup> Do not be afraid at all of the things that you are about to suffer. Look! The Devil is about to throw some of you into prison that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Continue to be faithful until death, and I shall give you the crown of life. <sup>11</sup> Let the one who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches! ‘The one who overcomes will certainly not be hurt by the second death.’””

A letter to the church in Pergamum

<sup>12</sup> “Write to the angel of the church at Pergamum: ‘He who holds the sharp, two-edged sword says these things: <sup>13</sup> “I know where you are living, where the throne of Satan is, and yet you are clinging to My name and have not denied your faith in Me, even in the days of Antipas, My faithful witness, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. <sup>14</sup> However, I have a few things against you, that you have men there who hold what Balaam taught. He tried to teach Balak to put a stumbling-block in front of the people of Israel, that they might eat food sacrificed to idols and commit sexual immorality.<sup>15</sup> You also have those who hold the teaching of the Nicolaitans.<sup>16</sup> Therefore, repent! Otherwise, I shall come to you quickly and fight against them with the sword of My mouth.<sup>17</sup> Let the one who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches! 'I shall give to the one who overcomes some of the hidden manna and shall give him a white stone and a new name written on the stone, a name that no one knows except the one who receives it.'""

A letter to the church in Thyatira

<sup>18</sup> "Write to the angel of the church at Thyatira: 'The Son of God, whose eyes are like a flame of fire and whose feet are like fine brass, says these things: <sup>19</sup> "I know your deeds, your love, your faith, your service and your patient endurance, and that you are now doing more than you did at first. <sup>20</sup> However, I have this against you, that you tolerate the woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess and who teaches and misleads My servants to commit sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols. <sup>21</sup> I have given her time to repent, and yet she is unwilling to repent of her sexual immorality. <sup>22</sup> Look! I am throwing her into a bed and those who commit adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of what she is doing. <sup>23</sup> I shall certainly kill her children, and all the churches will know that I am the One who searches minds and hearts and I shall give to each of you according to what you have done. <sup>24</sup> However, I say to the rest of you at Thyatira, to all who do not hold this teaching, who have not learned the 'deep things' of Satan, as they call them: 'I am not putting any other burden on you. <sup>25</sup> Only cling to what you have until I come! <sup>26</sup> I shall also give authority over the nations to the one who conquers and continues to keep My works to the end. <sup>27</sup> 'He will rule them with a rod of iron. Second vision: seven seals (4:1-7:17)

A vision of the heavenly court in session around the throne

<sup>1</sup> After these things I looked and saw that a door had been opened in heaven. The first sound that I heard was like that of a trumpet speaking to me. It said, “Come up here, and I shall show you the things that must happen after this.”

<sup>2</sup> At once I was in the Spirit and saw that a throne had been placed in heaven, and Someone was sitting on the throne! <sup>3</sup> The One who was sitting there looked like a jasper-stone and like a carnelian-stone, and there was a rainbow around the throne that looked like an emerald. <sup>4</sup> Around the throne I saw twenty-four thrones and saw twenty-four elders sitting on the thrones, dressed in white garments, and I saw golden crowns on their heads. <sup>5</sup> Flashes of lightning, rumblings and peals of thunder were coming out of the throne, and seven flaming lamps, which are the Seven Spirits of God, were burning in front of the throne. <sup>6</sup> In front of the throne there was also something like a sea of glass, like crystal; and in the middle of the throne and around the throne there were four living creatures, full of eyes, in the front and in the back. <sup>7</sup> The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature was like an ox, the third living creature had a face like that of a human being and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle. <sup>8</sup> Each of the four living creatures had six wings that were full of eyes all around and on the inside. By day and by night they do not rest and keep saying: “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, The One Who Was and The One-Who Is and The One Who Is Coming.”

<sup>9</sup> Whenever the living creatures give glory, honour and thanks to Him who is sitting on the throne, to Him who lives for ever and ever, <sup>10</sup> the twenty-four elders fall before Him who is sitting on the throne and worship Him who lives for ever and ever. They place their crowns before the throne, saying: <sup>11</sup> “You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honour and power. For You have created all things, and because of Your will they came into existence and were created.”

A vision of the Lamb and the scroll with seven seals

<sup>1</sup> In the right hand of Him who was sitting on the throne I saw a scroll with writing on the inside and on the back, which had been sealed with seven seals.

<sup>2</sup> Then I saw a mighty angel, proclaiming in a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and to break the seals on it?”

<sup>3</sup> No one in heaven, on the earth or under the earth could open the scroll or look at it. <sup>4</sup> I was weeping bitterly because no one had been found who was worthy to open the scroll or look at it. <sup>5</sup> Then one of the elders told me: “Stop weeping! Look! The Lion from the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has won the victory, so that He can open the scroll and its seven seals.”

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw, in the middle of the throne and of the four living creatures and in the middle of the elders, a Lamb standing, looking as though it had been slain. He had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the Seven Spirits of God, who have been sent into all the earth.

<sup>7</sup> Then He went and took the scroll out of the right hand of the One who was sitting on the throne. <sup>8</sup> When He had taken the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell before the Lamb. Each held a harp and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of God’s holy people. <sup>9</sup> They sang a new song, with the words: “You are worthy to take the scroll and open its seals, because You have been slain, and by Your blood You have purchased people to be God’s own out of every tribe, language, people and nation. <sup>10</sup> You have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they will reign on the earth.”

<sup>11</sup> Then I looked and heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders. Their number was ten thousand times ten thousand and thousands of thousands. <sup>12</sup> They were saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who has been slain to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honour and glory and blessing!”

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard every creature that is in heaven, on earth, under the earth and on the sea and all that are in them, saying: “To Him who sits on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing, honour, glory and power for ever and ever!”

The carrying out of the initial verdicts, six afflictions

<sup>1</sup> I watched as the Lamb opened the first of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying with a voice like thunder, “Come!”

<sup>2</sup> I looked and saw a white horse. The one who was riding it had a bow. He was given a crown and went out conquering and to conquer. <sup>3</sup> When the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come!”

<sup>4</sup> Another horse came out, a fiery red one. Its rider was given the power to take peace away from the earth, that people should kill one another, and he was given a large sword. <sup>5</sup> When the Lamb opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, “Come!”

I looked and saw a black horse. Its rider had a pair of scales in his hand. <sup>6</sup> Then I heard what sounded like a voice among the four living creatures, saying: “A kilogram of wheat for a day’s wages, and three kilograms of barley for a day’s wages. Do not damage the olive-oil and the wine!” <sup>7</sup> When the Lamb opened the fourth seal I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, “Come!”

<sup>8</sup> Then I looked and saw a light-green horse. Its rider had the name “Death,” and Hades was following close behind him. They were given authority over a quarter of the earth to use the sword, famine, plague and the wild animals of the earth to kill people.<sup>9</sup> When He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been slain because of the Word of God and because of the testimony that they used to hold.<sup>10</sup> They called out with a loud voice, saying: “How long, holy and true Master, until You judge the inhabitants of the earth and take revenge on them for our blood?”<sup>11</sup> Each of them was given a white robe, and they were told to rest for a little while longer, until the number of their fellow-servants and of their brothers who were about to be killed was also completed, as they themselves had also been killed.

<sup>12</sup> When He opened the sixth seal, I looked and a great earthquake took place. The sun became as black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became like blood.<sup>13</sup> The stars in the sky fell to the earth as when a fig tree that is shaken by a strong wind drops its late figs.<sup>14</sup> The sky receded like a scroll when it is rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place.<sup>15</sup> The kings of the earth, the great men, the generals, the rich men, the mighty men and every slave and every free man hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains.<sup>16</sup> They kept saying to the mountains and rocks: “Fall on us and hide us from the face of the One who is sitting on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb!”<sup>17</sup> For the great day of their wrath has come, and who can stand?”

The sealing of believers for salvation before the opening of the seventh seal, and the sounding of seven trumpets

<sup>1</sup> After this I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, that no wind might blow on the land, on the sea or on any tree.<sup>2</sup> Then I saw another angel coming up from the east with the seal of the living God. He called out with a loud voice to the four angels who had been given power to damage the land and the sea,<sup>3</sup> saying: “Do not damage the land or the sea or the trees until we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads!”

<sup>4</sup> Then I heard the number of those who had been sealed: “one hundred and forty-four thousand,” sealed from every tribe of the people of Israel.<sup>5</sup> From the tribe of Judah twelve thousand had been sealed, from the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, from the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,<sup>6</sup> from the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, from the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand,<sup>7</sup> from the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, from the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand,<sup>8</sup> from the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand and from the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand had been sealed.<sup>9</sup> After this, I looked and saw a large crowd that no one could count, from every nation and all tribes, peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and carrying palm-branches in their hands.<sup>10</sup> They called out with a loud voice, saying, “Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne and to the Lamb!”

<sup>11</sup> All the angels were standing around the throne, around the elders and around the four living creatures. They fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God,<sup>12</sup> saying: “Amen! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honour, power and strength be to our God for ever and ever! Amen.”

<sup>13</sup> Then one of the elders asked me: “Who are these people who have been clothed in the white robes and where have they come from?”

He told me: “These are the people who have come out of the great tribulation. They have washed their robes and have made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup> Therefore, they are before the throne of God and keep serving Him day and night in His Temple, and He who is sitting on the throne will shelter them with His tent.<sup>16</sup> They will not be hungry any longer or thirsty any longer. The sun will certainly not beat on them or any scorching heat,<sup>17</sup> because the Lamb, who is in the middle of the throne, will be their Shepherd and lead them to springs of the water of life. God will wipe every tear from their eyes.”

8

The third vision: seven trumpets (8:1-11:19)

The offering of prayers with incense

<sup>1</sup> When He opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.<sup>2</sup> I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and they were given seven trumpets.<sup>3</sup> Another angel, who had a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. He was given much incense, that he might offer it on the golden altar that was in front of the throne with the prayers of all God’s holy people.<sup>4</sup> The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of God’s holy people, went up from the angel’s hand before God.<sup>5</sup> The angel took the censer, filled it with fire from the altar and threw it onto the earth. There were peals of thunder, rumblings, flashes of lightning and an earthquake.

The sounding of verdicts by the first six trumpets: six afflictions

<sup>6</sup> Then the seven angels who had the seven trumpets got themselves ready to blow them.<sup>7</sup> The first angel blew his trumpet, and hail and fire came, mixed with blood, and they were thrown onto the earth. A third of the earth was burnt up, a third of the trees were burnt up and all the green grass was burnt up.<sup>8</sup> The second angel blew his trumpet, and something like a huge mountain blazing with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood.<sup>9</sup> A third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.<sup>10</sup> The third angel blew his trumpet, and a huge star, flaming like a torch, fell from the sky. It fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water.<sup>11</sup> The star is named “Wormwood.” A third of the waters became wormwood, and many human beings died from the waters, because they had been made bitter. <sup>12</sup> The fourth angel blew his trumpet, and a third of the sun was struck, a third of the moon and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were made dark and so that a third of the day had no light and similarly for the night. <sup>13</sup> I looked and heard an eagle flying in the zenith of the heavens, saying with a loud voice: "How terrible! How terrible! How terrible for the inhabitants of the earth, because of the remaining trumpet-blasts of the three angels who are about to blow their trumpets!"

The first woe

<sup>1</sup> The fifth angel blew his trumpet, and I saw that a star had fallen out of the sky onto the earth. It was given the key to the shaft of the bottomless pit. <sup>2</sup> It opened the shaft of the bottomless pit, and smoke went up from the shaft like the smoke of a large furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the shaft. <sup>3</sup> Locusts came out of the smoke onto the earth and were given the kind of power that earthly scorpions have. <sup>4</sup> They were told not to damage the grass of the earth, any green plant or any tree but to harm only the people who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup> They were not given authority to kill them but only to torture them for five months. Their torture was like the torture of a scorpion when it stings a human being. <sup>6</sup> In those days, people will look for death but will certainly not find it. They will long to die, but death will flee from them. <sup>7</sup> The locusts looked like horses that have been prepared for battle. On their heads there seemed to be crowns that looked like gold, and yet their faces resembled human faces. <sup>8</sup> They had hair like women's hair, and yet their teeth were like lions' teeth. <sup>9</sup> They had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the roar of chariots with many horses rushing into battle. <sup>10</sup> They had tails like scorpions and stings, and in their tails they had the power to hurt people for five months. <sup>11</sup> They had the angel of the bottomless pit over them as king. In Hebrew his name is "Abaddon," and in Greek he has the name "Apollyon." <sup>12</sup> The first woe has gone past. Be aware that two more woes are coming after these things!

The second woe

<sup>13</sup> Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar, which is before God. <sup>14</sup> He was telling the sixth angel, the one who was holding the trumpet, "Release the four angels who have been tied up at the great river Euphrates!" <sup>15</sup> The four angels, who had been prepared for that hour, day, month and year, were untied to kill a third of human beings. <sup>16</sup> The number of the soldiers on horses was two hundred million. I heard how many there were. <sup>17</sup> This was the way in which I saw the horses in the vision and those who were riding on them: the riders had breastplates that were fiery-red, hyacinth-colour and sulphur-yellow. The horses had heads like lions' heads, and fire, smoke and sulphur were coming out of their mouths. <sup>18</sup> A third of human beings were killed by these three plagues, by the fire, the smoke and the sulphur, which kept coming out of their mouths. <sup>19</sup> For the power of the horses was in their mouths and in their tails. For their tails were like snakes and had heads, with which they were causing injury. <sup>20</sup> The rest of human beings, those who had not been not killed by these plagues, did not even repent over what their hands had made. If they had, they would have stopped worshipping demons and idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone and wood, things that cannot either see, hear or walk. <sup>21</sup> They also did not repent of their murders, their magic potions, their sexual sin or their thefts.

The vision of the mighty angel and the little scroll

<sup>1</sup> I saw another mighty Angel coming down from heaven. He was robed in a cloud, with a rainbow over His head. His face was like the sun, and His legs were like pillars of fire. <sup>2</sup> He was holding in His hand a little scroll, which was unrolled. He placed His right foot on the sea and His left foot on the land. <sup>3</sup> He shouted with a loud voice, like the roaring of a lion. When He shouted, the seven thunders uttered their own sounds. <sup>4</sup> When the seven thunders had spoken, I was about to write but heard a voice speaking from heaven: "Seal up what the seven thunders have spoken and do not write them down!" <sup>5</sup> The Angel whom I had seen standing on the sea and on the land raised His right hand up to heaven <sup>6</sup> and swore by Him who lives for ever and ever, who created heaven and what is in it, the earth and what is in it and the sea and what is in it: "There will be no more time. <sup>7</sup> However, in the days of the sound of the seventh angel, when he is about to blow his trumpet, the mystery of God will be completed, just as He made this good news known to His servants the prophets." <sup>8</sup> Then the voice that I had heard from heaven spoke to me again, "Go, take the scroll that is unrolled in the hand of the Angel who is standing on the sea and on the land!" <sup>9</sup> I went to the Angel and asked Him to give me the little scroll. He told me: "Take it and eat it! It will make your stomach bitter but in your mouth will be as sweet as honey."

<sup>10</sup> I took the little scroll from the Angel's hand and ate it. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but, when I had eaten it, my stomach became bitter. <sup>11</sup> Then they told me: "You must prophesy again about many peoples, nations, languages and kings."

11

The forty-two months and the two witnesses

<sup>1</sup> Then I was given a measuring stick like a rod. He said: "Stand up, measure the Temple of God and the altar and count those who are worshipping in it!"

<sup>2</sup> However, exclude the outer court of the Temple! Do not measure it! For it has been given to the Gentiles. They will trample on the Holy City for forty-two months. <sup>3</sup> I shall give authority to My two witnesses, and they will prophesy for one thousand, two hundred and sixty days, dressed in sackcloth. <sup>4</sup> These are the two olive-trees and the two lampstands that are standing before the Lord of the earth. <sup>5</sup> If anyone wishes to damage them, fire comes out of their mouths and devours their enemies. If anyone should wish to damage them, that is how he must be killed. <sup>6</sup> These have the authority to shut up the sky so that no rain falls during the days when they are prophesying and have the authority over the waters to turn them into blood and the authority to strike the earth with any plague as often as they desire. <sup>7</sup> When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the bottomless pit will wage war against them, overcome them and kill them. <sup>8</sup> Their dead bodies will lie on the street of the great city, which is figuratively called 'Sodom' and 'Egypt,' where their Lord was also crucified. <sup>9</sup> Men from the peoples, tribes, languages and nations will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days and will not allow anyone to put them into graves. <sup>10</sup> Those who live on the earth will rejoice over them, be glad and send gifts to one another, because these two prophets have tormented those who live on the earth." <sup>11</sup> However, after the three and a half days the breath of life from God entered them, and they stood up on their feet. Great fear fell on those who were looking at them. <sup>12</sup> Then they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" They went up into heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them. <sup>13</sup> At that hour there was a great earthquake. A tenth of the city fell, and the earthquake killed seven thousand people. The rest became very afraid and gave glory to the God of heaven. <sup>14</sup> The second woe has gone past. Take note that the third woe is coming soon!

The third woe

<sup>15</sup> Then the seventh angel blew his trumpet, and there were loud voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ, and He will reign for ever and ever."

<sup>16</sup> The twenty-four elders, who were sitting on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshipped God, <sup>17</sup> saying: "We give thanks to You, Lord God Almighty, the One Who Is and the One Who Was, because You have taken Your great power and have begun to reign. <sup>18</sup> The nations have been angry, but Your wrath has come. It is the time for the dead to be judged, for rewarding Your servants, the prophets, God's holy people and those who fear Your name, small and great, and for destroying those who destroy the earth."

<sup>19</sup> Then the Temple of God in heaven was opened, and the Ark of His Covenant was seen in His Temple.

There were flashes of lightning, rumblings, peals of thunder, an earthquake and heavy hail.

12

The fourth vision: the woman, her Son and the dragon (12:1-15:4)

<sup>1</sup> A great miraculous sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet and with a crown of twelve stars on her head. <sup>2</sup> She was pregnant and was crying out in labour and in the agony of giving birth. <sup>3</sup> Then another miraculous sign appeared in heaven: a large fire-red dragon appeared with seven heads and ten horns and with seven crowns on his heads. <sup>4</sup> His tail swept away a third of the stars of heaven and threw them onto the earth. The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give birth, to devour her Child when she gave birth. <sup>5</sup> She gave birth to a Son, a male Child, who was about to rule all the nations with an iron sceptre, and her Child was snatched away to God and to His throne.

<sup>6</sup> Then the woman fled into the wilderness, where she had a place that had been prepared by God, that they might feed her there for one thousand, two hundred and sixty days. <sup>7</sup> Then a war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought with the dragon. The dragon and his angels fought back, <sup>8</sup> but he was not strong enough, and no place was found for them in heaven any longer. <sup>9</sup> The great dragon was thrown out, the ancient snake, who is called "the Devil" and "Satan," who deceives the whole world. He was thrown onto the earth, and his angels were thrown out with him.

<sup>10</sup> Then I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying: "Now the salvation, the power, the kingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ have come. For the accuser of our fellow-Christians, the one who accuses them before our God day and night, has been thrown out.

<sup>11</sup> They have overcome him because of the blood of the Lamb and because of the Word of their testimony, and they have not loved their lives, even to the point of death. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, rejoice, heavens and you who dwell in them! How terrible for the earth and the sea! For the Devil has gone down to you with great anger, because he knows that he has little time."

<sup>13</sup> When the dragon saw that he had been thrown onto the earth, he pursued the woman who had given birth to the male Child. <sup>14</sup> However, the woman was given two wings of the great eagle, that she might fly away from the serpent's reach to her place in the wilderness, where she continued to be fed for a time and times and half a time.

The devil's war against the church

<sup>15</sup> Then the serpent threw water like a river out of his mouth after the woman, to cause the flood to carry her away. <sup>16</sup> However, the earth helped the woman. The earth opened its mouth and swallowed the flood that the dragon had hurled out of his mouth. <sup>17</sup> The dragon was angry with the woman and went away to wage war against the rest of her offspring, those who were keeping the Commandments of God and who were holding the testimony of Jesus. <sup>18</sup> Then the dragon stood on the sandy shore of the sea. <sup>*186</sup>

13

The first beast

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a beast coming up out of the sea. He had ten horns and seven heads, with ten crowns on his horns, and there were blasphemous names on his heads. <sup>2</sup> The beast that I saw was like a leopard, his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth was like a lion's mouth. The dragon gave the beast his power, his throne and great authority. <sup>3</sup> I saw that one of his heads looked as if it had been slain, so that it was dead, but his fatal wound had been healed. The whole world was astonished and was following the beast. <sup>4</sup> They worshipped the dragon, because he had given authority to the beast and worshipped the beast, asking, "Who is like the beast and who can wage war against him?" <sup>5</sup> The beast was given a mouth speaking arrogant and blasphemous things and given authority to act for forty-two months. <sup>6</sup> He opened his mouth to blaspheme God, to blaspheme His name, His Tabernacle and those who were dwelling in heaven. <sup>7</sup> He was given authority to wage war against God's holy people and to overcome them and given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation. <sup>8</sup> All who are living on the earth will worship the beast, everyone whose name has not been written in the Book of Life, which belongs to the Lamb, who has been slain from the foundation of the world. <sup>9</sup> If anyone has an ear, he should listen! <sup>10</sup> If anyone is to go into captivity, into captivity he will go. If anyone is to be killed with a sword, with a sword he must be killed. Under these circumstances, God's holy people have their patience and their faith.

The second beast

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, and yet he spoke like a dragon. <sup>12</sup> He exercises all the authority of the first beast before him. He makes the earth and those who live on it worship the first beast, whose fatal wound had been healed. <sup>13</sup> He performs great miraculous signs, so that he even makes fire come down from heaven onto the earth in the sight of people. <sup>14</sup> He deceives those who live on the earth because of the miraculous signs that he has been given to perform in front of the beast. He tells those who are living on the earth to make an image for the beast, who had been wounded by the sword and yet had come to life. <sup>15</sup> He was given power to give breath to the image of the beast, so that the image of the beast could both talk and cause all who do not worship the image of the beast to be killed. <sup>16</sup> He compels all people, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to put a brand on their right hands or on their foreheads. <sup>17</sup> He also brings it about that no one can buy or sell, except one who has the brand, the name of the beast or the number of his name. <sup>18</sup> Here is wisdom. The person who has insight should calculate the number of the beast. For it is the number of a human being, and his number is six hundred and sixty six.

14

The new song

<sup>1</sup> Then I looked and saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with Him there were one hundred and forty-four thousand, who had His name and the name of His Father written on their foreheads. <sup>2</sup> I heard a sound from heaven like the sound of many waters and the sound of loud thunder. The sound that I heard was also like the music of harpists playing on their harps. <sup>3</sup> They were singing a new song before the throne and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the one hundred and forty-four thousand who had been redeemed from the earth. <sup>4</sup> These are the ones who have not been defiled with women. For they are chaste people. They are the ones who follow the Lamb wherever He goes. They have been redeemed from among human beings as the first-fruits to God and to the Lamb. <sup>5</sup> No deceit has been found in their mouths. They are blameless.

Seven judgments from heaven

<sup>6</sup> Then I saw another angel flying in the zenith of the sky. He had the eternal Good News to tell those who are living on the earth and every nation, tribe, language and people. <sup>7</sup> He was saying with a loud voice: "Fear God and give glory to Him! For the hour has come for Him to judge. Worship Him who has made the heaven, the earth, the sea and the springs of water!"

<sup>8</sup> A second angel followed him, saying: "Babylon the Great has fallen, has fallen, she who has made all the nations drink the wine of her passionate fornication!"

<sup>9</sup> Then a third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice: "If anyone worships the beast and his image and receives his brand on his forehead or on his hand, <sup>10</sup> he himself will also drink the wine of the fury of God, which has been poured out unmixed into the cup of His wrath. He will be tormented with fire and sulphur in the presence of the holy angels and of the Lamb. <sup>11</sup> The smoke of their torment keeps going up for ever and ever. Those who worship the beast and his image and anyone who receives the brand of his name do not have any rest by day or night."

<sup>12</sup> Here is the patient endurance of God's holy people, those who keep the Commandments of God and the faith in Jesus.

<sup>13</sup> Then I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on!" "Yes," says the Spirit, "let them rest from their hard work! For their works follow them."

<sup>14</sup> I looked and saw a white cloud and One who was like the Son of Man was sitting on the cloud. He had a golden crown on His head and a sharp sickle in His hand. <sup>15</sup> Another angel came out of the Temple, calling out with a loud voice to the One who was sitting on the cloud: “Put in Your sickle and reap! For the hour has come to reap. For the harvest on the earth has ripened.”

<sup>16</sup> The One who was sitting on the cloud swung His sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.

<sup>17</sup> Then another angel came out of the temple in heaven and also had a sharp sickle. <sup>18</sup> Another angel, who had authority over the fire, came out of the altar. He called with a loud voice to the one with the sharp sickle: “Put in your sharp sickle and gather the bunches from the vine of the earth! For its grapes have ripened.”

<sup>19</sup> The angel applied his sickle to the earth and gathered the grapes from the vine of the earth and threw them into the great winepress of the wrath of God.

<sup>20</sup> The winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, up to the horses’ bridles, for one thousand, six hundred furlongs.

Seven plagues

<sup>1</sup> I saw another great and wonderful miraculous sign in heaven: seven angels holding the seven last plagues, because by them the wrath of God has been ended. <sup>2</sup> I saw what looked like a sea of glass mixed with fire. I saw those who had won the victory over the beast, over his image and over the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass. They were holding harps of God.

<sup>3</sup> They were singing the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying: “Great and wonderful are Your works, Lord God Almighty. Righteous and true are Your ways, King of the nations. Who is there who will not fear You, O Lord, and glorify Your name? For You alone are holy. For all the nations will come and worship before You. For Your righteous judgments have been revealed.”

The fifth vision: seven bowls (15:5-16:21)

<sup>5</sup> After this I looked, and the sanctuary of the Tabernacle of the testimony was opened in heaven. <sup>6</sup> Then the seven angels who were holding the seven plagues came out of the sanctuary. They had been clothed in clean, shining linen and had golden sashes fastened around their chests. <sup>7</sup> Then one of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls filled with the wrath of God, who lives for ever and ever.

<sup>8</sup> The sanctuary was filled with smoke because of the glory of God and because of His power. No one could go into the sanctuary until the seven plagues of the seven angels had been completed.

16

<sup>1</sup> Then I heard a loud voice from the sanctuary saying to the seven angels: “Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God onto the earth!”

<sup>2</sup> The first angel went and poured out his bowl onto the earth, and ugly and painful sores came on the people who had the brand of the beast and those who worshipped his image. <sup>3</sup> The second angel poured out his bowl onto the sea, and it turned into blood like that of a dead man, and every living creature in the sea died.

<sup>4</sup> The third angel poured out his bowl onto the ivers and the springs of water, and they became blood.

<sup>5</sup> Then I heard the angel of the waters saying: “You are just, You Who Are and You Who Were, the Holy One, because You have judged these things, because they have poured out the blood of Your holy people and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink. They have deserved it.”

<sup>7</sup> Then I heard the altar responding: “Yes, Lord God Almighty, Your judgments are true and just.”

<sup>8</sup> Then the fourth angel poured out his bowl onto the sun, and the sun was given power to scorch people with fire. <sup>9</sup> People were scorched very badly and blasphemed the name of God, who had the authority over these plagues, but did not repent and give Him glory.

<sup>10</sup> Then the fifth angel poured out his bowl onto the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was made dark, and people gnawed their tongues in pain. <sup>11</sup> They blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores, and yet they did not repent for what they had done. <sup>12</sup> Then the sixth angel poured out his bowl onto the great river Euphrates. Its water was dried up, that the way for the kings from the East might be made ready. <sup>13</sup> Then I saw three unclean spirits, which looked like frogs, coming out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet. <sup>14</sup> For they are spirits of demons, who perform miraculous signs. They go out to the kings of the whole world, to gather them for the battle on the great day of the Almighty God.

<sup>15</sup> “Look! I am coming like a thief. Blessed is the one who is watchful and keeps his clothes, that he may not go about naked and that people may not see his private parts!”

<sup>16</sup> They gathered the kings together at the place that in Hebrew is called “Armageddon.” <sup>17</sup> Then the seventh angel poured out his bowl over the air, and out of the shrine a loud voice came from the throne, saying, “It is all over.”

<sup>18</sup> There were flashes of lightning and rumblings and peals of thunder, and a great earthquake took place. It was such a great earthquake as has not occurred since a human being has been on the earth. <sup>19</sup> The great city was divided into three parts, and the other cities of the nations fell. Babylon the Great was remembered before God, so that He gave her the cup of the wine of His furious wrath. <sup>20</sup> Every island fled away, and the mountains could not be found. <sup>21</sup> Huge hailstones weighing about fifty kilograms each kept coming down from the sky onto people. The people kept blaspheming God because of the plague of hail, because the plague of hail was exceedingly great.

The sixth vision: God’s final triumph (17:1-20:15) The woman and the beast

<sup>1</sup> Then one of the seven angels who were holding the seven bowls came and told me: "Come here! Let me show you the judgment of the great prostitute, who sits on many waters! <sup>2</sup> The kings of the earth have been committing fornication with her, and those who were living on the earth have been made drunk by the wine of her sexual sin."

<sup>3</sup> Then the angel carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast, which was full of blasphemous names. It had seven heads and ten horns. <sup>4</sup> The woman had been dressed in purple and scarlet and had been decorated with gold, precious stones and pearls. She was holding in her hand a golden cup, which was filled with abominations and the filthiness of her sexual sin. <sup>5</sup> A name had been written on her forehead: "Mystery, Babylon the Great, the mother of prostitutes and of the abominations of the earth."

<sup>6</sup> I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of God's holy people and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus. When I saw her, I was extremely astonished.

<sup>7</sup> The angel asked me: "Why have you been astonished? I shall tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that is carrying her, the beast that has the seven heads and the ten horns. <sup>8</sup> The beast that you saw once was and is no longer and yet he is about to come up from the bottomless pit and go away to destruction. Those who are living on the earth, those whose names have not been written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, will be astonished when they see the beast, because he was, is no longer and yet is present again. <sup>9</sup> Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven hills, on which the woman is sitting, and there are also seven kings. <sup>10</sup> Five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come, but, when he comes, he must remain for a short time.

<sup>11</sup> The beast who was and is no longer, even he is the eighth king. He comes from the seven and goes away to destruction. <sup>12</sup> The ten horns that you saw are ten kings, who have not yet received a kingdom, but they will receive authority for one hour as kings with the beast. <sup>13</sup> These have one intention and will give their power and authority to the beast. <sup>14</sup> They will make war against the Lamb the Lamb will overcome them, because He is the Lord of lords and the King of kings, and those who are with Him are those who have been called, those who have been chosen and those who believe."

<sup>15</sup> Then the angel told me: "The waters that you saw, where the prostitute is sitting, are peoples, multitudes, nations and languages. <sup>16</sup> The ten horns and the beast that you saw will hate the prostitute. They will cause her to be forsaken and be naked, devour her flesh and burn her with fire. <sup>17</sup> For God has put it into their hearts to do what He has decided, to carry out one purpose and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the Words of God are brought to fulfilment. <sup>18</sup> The woman whom you saw is the great city, which has royal power over the kings of the earth."

18

The fall of Babylon

<sup>1</sup> After this I saw another angel come down from heaven. He had great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his splendour. <sup>2</sup> He shouted with a mighty voice: "Babylon the Great has fallen. She has fallen. She has become a dwelling-place of demons, a haunt for every unclean spirit, a haunt for every unclean bird and a haunt for every unclean and detestable beast! <sup>3</sup> For all the nations have drunk the wine of her passionate fornication. The kings of the earth have committed fornication with her. The merchants of the earth have become rich because of her powerful sensuality."

<sup>4</sup> Then I heard another voice saying from heaven: "Come out of her, My people, that you may not share in her sins and encounter any of her plagues! <sup>5</sup> For her sins have reached up to heaven, and God has remembered her crimes. <sup>6</sup> Give back to her as she also has given! Pay her back twice over in the same way as she has acted! Mix a double portion for her in the cup in which she has been mixing! <sup>7</sup> Give her as much torture and grief as she has given glory and luxury to herself! For in her heart she keeps saying: 'I sit as a queen. I am no widow and shall certainly see no grief.'

<sup>8</sup> Therefore, in one day her plagues will come, death, grief and famine. She will be burnt with fire, because the Lord God, who has judged her, is mighty.

<sup>9</sup> When the kings of the earth, who have been committing fornication with her and have been living in luxury with her, see the smoke when she is burnt, they will weep and mourn over her. <sup>10</sup> They will stand at a distance because they are afraid of her torment and say, 'Woe! Woe, O great city, Babylon, you mighty city!

For in one hour your judgment has come.' <sup>11</sup> The merchants of the earth are weeping and mourning over her, because no one buys their cargoes any longer:

<sup>12</sup> cargoes of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk and scarlet cloth, every kind of citron wood, every kind of ivory article and every article made of very precious wood, bronze, iron and marble,

<sup>13</sup> cinnamon, spice, incense, myrrh, frankincense, wine, olive-oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses, carriages and bodies and souls of human beings. <sup>14</sup> They will say, 'The fruit that your soul longed for has gone away from you, and all your luxury and splendour have perished and left you, and people will not find them any longer at all.'

<sup>15</sup> Those who have been trading in these things and who have been made rich through her, will stand at a distance, because they are afraid of her torment. They will weep and mourn, <sup>16</sup> saying: 'Woe! Woe, for the great city, which has been dressed in fine linen, purple and scarlet and decorated with gold, precious stones and pearls! <sup>17</sup> For in one hour such great wealth has been laid waste!' Every sea-captain also, everyone who travels anywhere by ship, the sailors and all who make a living from the sea stood at a distance.

<sup>18</sup> When they saw the smoke when she was burnt, they kept on crying out: ‘What city has been like this great city?’ <sup>19</sup> They threw dust on their heads and kept on crying out, weeping, mourning and saying: ‘How terrible! How terrible for the great city, whose wealth has made all who had ships on the sea rich! For in one hour the city has been laid waste!’ <sup>20</sup> Rejoice over her, O heaven, you holy people, apostles and prophets! For God has pronounced judgment for you against her.”

<sup>21</sup> Then a mighty angel lifted up a boulder like a large millstone, threw it into the sea and said: “With violence like this, Babylon, the great city, will be thrown down and not be found any longer at all.

<sup>22</sup> The sound of harpists, musicians, flautists and trumpeters will not be heard in you any longer at all. No skilled worker in any craft will be found in you any longer at all, and the sound of a millstone will not be heard in you any longer at all. <sup>23</sup> The light of a lamp will not shine in you any longer at all, and the voices of a bridegroom and a bride will not be heard in you any longer at all. For your merchants have been the great men of the world. For all the nations have been led astray by your sorcery. <sup>24</sup> The blood of prophets has been found in her, the blood of God’s holy people and of all those who have been murdered on the earth.”

19

Praise to the Lord

<sup>1</sup> After this I heard what seemed to be the loud sound of a great multitude in heaven, saying: “Hallelujah! Salvation, glory and power belong to our God! <sup>2</sup> For His judgments are true and just. For He has judged the great prostitute, who has corrupted the world with her fornication, and taken vengeance on her for the blood of His servants, which her hand has shed.”

<sup>3</sup> Then they said a second time: “Hallelujah! The smoke from her goes up for ever and ever.”

<sup>4</sup> The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell and worshipped God, who was sitting on the throne. They were saying, “Amen. Hallelujah!”

<sup>5</sup> Then a voice came from the throne, saying: “Praise our God, all you His servants, yes, you who fear Him, small and great!”

The wedding of the Lamb

<sup>6</sup> Then I heard what sounded like a large multitude, what sounded like many waters and what sounded like loud peals of thunder, saying: “Hallelujah! For the Lord, our God, the Almighty, has begun to reign.

<sup>7</sup> Let us be glad, let us rejoice and give Him glory! For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His bride has made herself ready. <sup>8</sup> She has been permitted to put on bright and pure fine linen.”

For the fine linen consists of the verdicts over God’s holy people. <sup>9</sup> Then the angel told me, “Write: ‘Blessed are those who have been invited to the wedding-banquet of the Lamb!’” He also told me, “These are the true Words of God.”

<sup>10</sup> Then I fell before his feet to worship him. However, he told me: “See that you do not do that! I am a fellow-servant of yours and of your fellow-Christians, who have the testimony of Jesus. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”

A vision of the King of kings

<sup>11</sup> Then I saw heaven opened, and look! There was a white horse, and the One who was sitting on it is called “Faithful and True,” and in righteousness He judges and makes war. <sup>12</sup> His eyes are like a flame of fire and on His head there are many crowns. He has a name written on Him, which no one knows but He Himself.

<sup>13</sup> He is clothed in a garment that has been dipped in blood, and His name is called “the Word of God.”

<sup>14</sup> The armies in heaven, dressed in white and clean fine linen, were following Him on white horses. <sup>15</sup> A sharp sword comes out of His mouth, that with it He may strike down the nations. He Himself will rule them with an iron sceptre. He Himself treads the winepress of the furious wrath of God Almighty.

<sup>16</sup> He has a name written on His garment and on His thigh: “King of kings and Lord of lords.” <sup>17</sup> Then I saw an angel standing in the sun. He cried out with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that were flying in the zenith of the sky: “Come here! Gather together for the great banquet of God, <sup>18</sup> that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of warriors, the flesh of horses and those who sit on them and the flesh of all people, both free and slave, both small and great!”

<sup>19</sup> Then I saw that the beast, the kings of the earth and their armies had gathered to make war against the One who was sitting on the horse and against His army.

<sup>20</sup> The beast was captured and with him the false prophet, who had performed the miraculous signs in the presence of the beast. With these signs he had led astray those who had received the brand of the beast and who worshipped his image. Both of them were thrown alive into the lake of fire burning with sulphur. <sup>21</sup> The rest were killed with the sword that came out of the mouth of the One who was sitting on the horse, and all the birds gorged themselves on their flesh.

20

The devil’s last battle

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw an Angel coming down from heaven, with the key to the bottomless pit and with a large chain in His hand. <sup>2</sup> He seized the dragon, the ancient snake, which is the Devil and Satan and bound him for a thousand years. <sup>3</sup> He threw him into the bottomless pit, shut it and sealed it over him, to keep him from leading the Gentiles astray any longer until the thousand years were finished. After this he must be untied for a short time. <sup>4</sup> I saw thrones, and those who had been given the right to judge sat on them. I also saw the souls of those who had been beheaded because of their witness to Jesus and because of the Word of God. I also saw those who had not worshipped the beast or his image and had not received his brand on their foreheads or on their hands. They began to live and began to reign with Christ for a thousand years <sup>5</sup> (The rest of the dead did not begin to live until the thousand years had ended). This is the first resurrection. <sup>6</sup> Blessed and holy is the one who has a part in the first resurrection! The second death has no authority over them, but they will be priests of God and of Christ and will reign with Him for a thousand years.

The judgment

<sup>7</sup> When the thousand years have ended, Satan will be set free from his prison. <sup>8</sup> He will go out to lead astray the Gentiles who are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for the battle. They will be as numerous as the sand by the sea. <sup>9</sup> They came up over the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of God's holy people and the city that God has loved. Then fire came down from heaven and consumed them. <sup>10</sup> Then the Devil, who had been leading them astray, was thrown into the lake of fire and sulphur, where both the beast and the false prophet are. They will be tormented by day and by night for ever and ever. <sup>11</sup> Then I saw a great white throne and the One who was sitting on it. The earth and the sky had fled from His presence, and no place was found for them. <sup>12</sup> Then I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne. Books were opened, and another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. The dead were judged according to what they had done, on the basis of what had been written in the books. <sup>13</sup> The sea gave up the dead people who were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead people who were in them, and each person was judged according to what he had done. <sup>14</sup> Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death: the lake of fire. <sup>15</sup> If anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

21

The seventh vision: God's new world (21:1-22:5)

A new heaven and a new earth

<sup>1</sup> Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth. For the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. <sup>2</sup> I saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>3</sup> I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying: "Look! The Tabernacle of God is among human beings. He will dwell with them, they will be His people, and God Himself will be with them as their God. <sup>4</sup> He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death. There will not be any more grief, crying or pain, because the former things have passed away." <sup>5</sup> The One who was sitting on the throne said: "Look! I am making all things new." He also said: "Write this down! For these Words are trustworthy and genuine."

<sup>6</sup> Then He said to me: "Everything has taken place. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I shall give to him who is thirsty water from the fountain of the water of life, without cost. <sup>7</sup> The one who wins the victory will inherit these things, and I shall be his God, and he will be My son. <sup>8</sup> However, the portion of cowardly, unbelieving and abominable people, murderers, sexual sinners, sorcerers, idolaters and all liars will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulphur, which is the second death."

The new Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup> Then one of the seven angels who were holding the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came and told me, "Come! I shall show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."

<sup>10</sup> He carried me away in the Spirit to a large, high mountain and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God. <sup>11</sup> It had the glory of God. Its brilliance was like a very precious stone, like a jasper stone, as clear as crystal. <sup>12</sup> It had a great, high wall with twelve gates, with twelve angels at the gates. Names had been written on the gates and are the names of the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>13</sup> There were three gates on the east side, three gates on the north, three gates on the south and three gates on the west. <sup>14</sup> The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. <sup>15</sup> The angel who was talking to me had a golden measuring-rod to measure the city, its gates and its wall. <sup>16</sup> The city was laid out as a square: its length was as great as its breadth. He measured the city with the rod: twelve thousand furlongs. Its length, breadth and height were equal. <sup>17</sup> He measured its wall: one hundred and forty-four cubits, according to human measurement, which the angel was using. <sup>18</sup> The material of its wall was jasper, and the city was pure gold, like clear glass. <sup>19</sup> The foundations of the wall of the city had been decorated with every kind of precious stone: the first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, <sup>20</sup> the fifth sardonyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth and the twelfth amethyst. <sup>21</sup> The twelve gates were twelve pearls: each individual gate was made of a single pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass. <sup>22</sup> I did not see any temple in the city. For the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple. <sup>23</sup> The city also does not need the sun or the moon to shine in it. For the glory of God has given it light, and the Lamb is its lamp. <sup>24</sup> The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth bring their splendour into it. <sup>25</sup> Its gates will not be shut at all by day. For there will be no night there. <sup>26</sup> People will bring the splendour and wealth of the nations into it. <sup>27</sup> Nothing that defiles and no one who does anything abominable or tells lies will ever come into it, but only those who have been written in the Lamb's Book of Life.

22

<sup>1</sup> Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, coming out from the throne of God and of the Lamb. <sup>2</sup> In the middle of its street and on each side of the river there was the tree of life. It produces twelve crops of fruit, each tree yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree serve to heal the nations. <sup>3</sup> There will be no curse any longer. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and His servants will serve Him. <sup>4</sup> They will see His face, and His name will be on their foreheads. <sup>5</sup> There will be no night any longer, and people do not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, because the Lord God will shine on them, and they will reign for ever and ever.

Conclusion (22:6-21)

I am coming soon

<sup>6</sup> He said to me: "These Words are faithful and genuine. The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent His angel to show His servants the things that must soon take place. <sup>7</sup> Look! I am coming soon. Blessed is he who keeps the Words of the prophecy of this book!"

<sup>8</sup> I, John, am the one who have heard and seen these things. When I had heard and seen them, I fell to worship at the feet of the angel who had been showing them to me. <sup>9</sup> However, he told me: "See that you do not do that! I am a fellow-servant of yours and of your fellow-Christians, the prophets and those who keep the Words of this book. Worship God!"

<sup>10</sup> Then he told me: "Do not seal up the Words of the prophecy of this book! For the time is near. <sup>11</sup> Let the wrongdoer still do wrong, let the filthy person still be filthy! Let the righteous person still do right, and let the holy person still be holy!

<sup>12</sup> "See! I am coming soon, and My reward is with Me, to repay everyone according to what he has done. <sup>13</sup> I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. <sup>14</sup> Blessed are those who wash their robes that they may have the right to the tree of life and may enter through the gates into the city! <sup>15</sup> Outside are the dogs, the people who practise witchcraft, sin sexually, murder and worship idols and everyone who loves and practises falsehood. <sup>16</sup> I, Jesus, have sent My angel to give this testimony to you for the churches. I am the Root and the Offspring of David, the Bright Morning Star."

<sup>17</sup> The Spirit and the bride also say, "Come!" Let the one who hears this also say, "Come!" Let the one who is thirsty also come! Let the one who desires it take the water of life as a free gift! <sup>18</sup> I testify to everyone who hears the Words of this prophetic book: If anyone adds anything to them, God will add to him the plagues that have been written in this book. <sup>19</sup> If anyone takes away any of the Words of this prophetic book, God will take away his part in the tree of life, in the Holy City and in the things that have been written in this book."

Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

<sup>21</sup> The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you all! Amen.
