

GOD'S ETERNAL WORD
Containing
THE OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS
of the
HOLY BIBLE

Translated from the original languages
By C R Priebbenow
BA, B Ed, MA (Cantab.)

First printed August 2005

National Library of Australia Cataloguing-in-Publication entry

ISBN: 0-646-41208-6

Revised Edition
2008
Third edition 2018

List of Abbreviations to use in Computer Searches

FINDING CHAPTERS

This version does not enable calling up a chapter and verse directly. To find a chapter, use Edit / Find (Ctrl f) and type in the required abbreviation below, followed by a space and then the chapter number and press Alt-f. In more recent versions of Windows, click Find and then More and remove the check in front of All Word forms. Then scroll down to the required verse. The abbreviation for each chapter is listed in hidden text at the beginning of each chapter. (Do not add a chapter number after Obd , 2 Jh, 3 Jh or Jd.) You can return to this list of abbreviations by using F5 and clicking Bookmark, then a, then Go to. Then use Esc to clear the box.

	Abbreviation	ECCLESIASTES	Eccl
GENESIS	Gn	SONG OF SOLOMON	SSol
EXODUS	Ex	ISAIAH	Isa
LEVITICUS	Lv	JEREMIAH	Jr
NUMBERS	Nm	LAMENTATIONS	Lam
DEUTERONOMY	Dt	EZEKIEL	Ezk
JOSHUA	Jos	DANIEL	Dn
JUDGES	Jdg	HOSEA	Hos
RUTH	Rth	JOEL	Jl
1 SAMUEL	1 Sm	AMOS	Ams
2 SAMUEL	2 Sm	OBADIAH	Obd
1 KINGS	1 Kng	JONAH	Jnh
2 KINGS	2 Kng	MICAH	Mch
1 CHRONICLES	1 Chr	NAHUM	Nah
2 CHRONICLES	2 Chr	HABAKKUK	Hbk
EZRA	Ezr	ZEPHANIAH	Zph
NEHEMIAH	Neh	HAGGAI	Hgg
ESTHER	Esth	ZECHARIAH	Zch
JOB	Jb	MALACHI	Ml
PSALMS	Ps
PROVERBS	Prv

MATTHEW	Mt	1 TIMOTHY	1 Tm
MARK	Mk	2 TIMOTHY	2 Tm
LUKE	Lk	TITUS	Tt
JOHN	Jn	PHILEMON	Plm
ACTS	Ac	HEBREWS	Hb
ROMANS	Rm	JAMES	Jm
1 CORINTHIANS	1 Cor	1 PETER	1 Pt
2 CORINTHIANS	2 Cor	2 PETER	2 Pt
GALATIANS	Gal	1 JOHN	1 Jh
EPHESIANS	Eph	2 JOHN	2 Jh
PHILIPPIANS	Plp	3 JOHN	3 Jh
COLOSSIANS	Col	JUDE	Jd
1 THESSALONIANS	1 Ths	REVELATION	Rv
2 THESSALONIANS	2 Ths

To save this file to a computer as editable text, click File, save as and give it a slightly different name perhaps adding 3rd or 2018

Pastor Clarence Priebbenow, 1 Fiona Street, Kingsthorpe, Queensland 4400.

07 4630 0818 cpriebe@bigpond.net.au

Preface

God-fearing translators work with the strong motivation of the redemption from sin and death that Jesus Christ has won for them. This motivates them to praise God and be humbly obedient for their great twofold task. They must be faithful in two respects in particular, faithful to the meaning of God's Word in the original and attuned to the nature of the receptor language.

Faithfulness to the original means honest grappling with the witness of Bible manuscripts and understanding of the biblical languages, Hebrew, some Aramaic and Greek. Personal preferences must never decide what the Word of God is and what is not. Let one example suffice. In the KJV, "out the book of life," in a passage that warns against adding or omitting (Revelation 22:19), cannot claim to be the Word of God. Erasmus had no Greek available for this section and translated back from the Vulgate, which had libro ("from the book") instead of ligno "from the tree." The Greek manuscripts affirm that "from the tree" is Word of God.

Those who ask, "Why another translation?" deserve an answer. Some recent translations have far too readily assumed that some readings in the Hebrew of the Old Testament were corrupt. They have often had recourse to Greek and other versions, which the footnotes in editions of the Hebrew text reproduced, instead of translating the Masoretic text and even put conjectures into the text as the Word of God. Several versions have designated these in footnotes as "corrections." Hebrew copyists had never tampered with the text. Even when they recognised that what they read differed from copyists' transmission of what the inspired authors had written, they placed what people were to read in the margin. The Dead Sea Scrolls have affirmed the accurate transmission of the Hebrew text in books such as Isaiah. Some translations have exposed their biases towards higher criticism.

An important principle in translation should be the rule that the context should determine the shades of meaning in words in the original, not the mere words themselves. "To shed blood" often meant, "to commit murder." However, it is wrong to replace the word "blood" by "death" in sacrificial and redemptive contexts. Lock-step translation of a word in the original Hebrew or Greek by the same equivalent in English is a barrier to intelligibility. An idiomatic translation does not try to retain the forms of the original languages but the meaning of the original, which is God's message.

Idiom should be appropriate for the people who speak the language. Idioms differ from one language to another and in a language over time. An American does not like saying that Stephen was "stoned," because they want to avoid suggesting that he was drunk! Luther was more successful in finding appropriate expressions in the receptor language than translators like Jerome had been before him. Hebrew had a meagre supply of adjectives and adverbs and often used nouns that depended on other nouns, where Modern English abounds in adjectives and adverbs. Modern English prefers to translate many event-nouns by verbs. People who have been translating the Scriptures in some third-world countries have shown the way towards the translation of abstracts, events and relations by the route of "kernel sentences" like "God declares me righteous" for "justification." They had to work in some languages without a passive voice and had to recast sentences in the active voice. Such expertise has shown the way to translation into Modern English. Grammatical spell-checkers in computers for Modern English call attention to passive formulations, which increase reading difficulty. Passives are wordier and are less precise if there is no mention of an agent or instrument. Jewish people who spoke Greek, including Jesus, often reverently avoided direct use of God's name through passive formulations like "will not be judged." Speakers of Modern English find difficulty with very long sentences, as Ephesians 1:3-14 is in the original Greek. In short, translators must be keenly aware of the language into which they are translating.

Some recent English translations handled well relational words such as connectives, prepositions and genitive nouns. Translators often ought to handle the Hebrew construct-absolute relation and the Greek genitive that depends on another noun in a broad variety of ways. They may have to render "the blessing of God" as "the blessing that God gives" or "our praising God." "The Promise of the Father" in Acts means, "the Spirit, whom the Father has promised." However, "the gift of the Spirit" is not "the charismatic gift that the Spirit gives," but "the Spirit, whom the Father gives."

What a translator chooses often has profound effects. Translators have often exposed their doctrinal biases when they have rendered relational words into English. Examples abound. Jerome's use of gratia for both charis (grace) and charisma (charismatic gift) led to the Roman Catholic understanding of God's grace as something in human beings. A crucial test for some translators has been the relationship of the two event nouns "repentance" and "forgiveness" in Mark 1:4, "preaching a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins." The translators of the GNB and the CEV have demonstrated their conviction that there is no direct relationship between baptism and God's forgiveness. Modern English often does not need to express particles in the original like “for” and “therefore” because they are obvious from the context. However, some translators have simply omitted theologically important relational words like “for” in passages like Galatians 3:26-27. The GNB reflects a Baptist bias. The NIV and some others reflect a Reformed bias. The Jerusalem Bible reflects a Roman Catholic bias when it frequently translates dikaiosynê by “justice” instead of “righteousness.” Some of the passages on which the Pentecostals base wrong doctrine (like “received the Holy Ghost since ye believed,” Acts 19:2) have been unfortunate translations in the KJV and they often refuse to use any other translation. Baptists rely heavily on the mistranslation “teach” as the main verb in Matt 28:19 before “baptising and teaching.”

In addition, Australian idiom is closer to British than to American usage. Bible translations from America often ignore the fact that the Greek Aorist was wider than the English past tense. It is appropriate to translate it by an English perfect tense in primary sequence when there is no definite reference to time. Therefore, “The Son of Man has come” is preferable when Jesus speaks to His disciples, rather than “The Son of Man came.” There is a difference between “Jesus rose from the dead on the third day” and “Jesus has risen from the dead.” The effect of the past event continues up to the present. The two Hebrew tenses had to cover the whole range of meaning in all the English tenses. Some translators have far too often ignored options such as the pluperfect and the perfect continuous for the Hebrew perfect and have often unnecessarily translated the Hebrew perfect as a present tense in English. The context often suggests that “I have been crying to You” is more appropriate than “I cried to You.” American translators unnecessarily avoid “may” in final clauses as if it were always permissive. In final clauses, they often use “might” in primary sequence and even “do,” “does,” “will,” and “can.” In historic sequence, they often use “could” or “would” instead of “might.” When you listen for the final clause in a collect in the liturgy, you can easily tell if it comes from America. Imperatives, in collects and everywhere else, are primary verbs.

People should acknowledge that their language changes over time. In formal written English, the use of “shall” and “will” is almost the opposite of what it was in 1611. Besides, modern spoken English often reflects a different usage from formal written English. In spoken English “I will” mostly does not mean, “I am determined to.” This translation consistently uses “shall” for the simple future after “I” and “We.”

Here is a paradox. There are good and bad ways to be literal. When we interpret the Scriptures, we usually require the literal meaning, not a figurative one as the intended one. Exceptions arise only when the context requires a figurative meaning. However, in translation, an idiomatic translation readily conveys the right meaning. A literal translation encourages people to allegorise when they have misunderstood the meaning.

Greek often preferred to subordinate one clause to another. Modern English, which is closer to Hebrew than Greek in this respect, prefers to co-ordinate ideas. Therefore, final verbs often replace participles.

Some translators should have been more aware of the need to retain key words as important bearers of meaning in some passages and contexts.

Translators into Modern English can often avoid Semitic idioms without being unfaithful to the meaning of the original. “And it came to pass” was a device that kept an expression of time away from the beginning of a sentence. Modern English does not feel the need for this. Hebrew often used a second verb of speaking or “saying” to introduce direct speech, where English simply uses inverted commas. Hebrew sometimes used the verb “add” to express repetition. “He added to do it” means, “He did it again.” Hebrew uses the word “if” to introduce a strong statement with the main clause omitted. “If I see him again (may God treat me severely)” means, “I shall certainly not see him again.” Hebrew often used the future indicative to express a command and a negative future to express a categorical command, as in the Ten Commandments. In the Commandments, “You shall not” is appropriate but not “Don’t”. Hebrew used expressions like “sons of” freely but English prefers to translate the meaning differently. “Israelites” or “people of Israel” catches the meaning of “sons of Israel.” “Wedding guests” is preferable to “sons of the wedding hall.” Hebrew often used a pronoun or adverb later in an adjectival clause to focus the meaning of a relative pronoun. These are redundant in English. “...Who...his” means, “...whose”. Hebrew sometimes expressed distributive ideas by repetition. “Two two” means, “in pairs,” or “two by two”. Most of these Semitic expressions occur also in the Greek of the New Testament.

Sometimes the loss of imagery in a translation is regrettable. That may happen when a translator goes for meaning only. Sometimes the imagery in the original makes it difficult for the English hearer to understand the meaning. Agricultural people understood about a bullock being “stiff-necked” when it refused to submit to a yoke. “Stubborn” may convey the meaning, at the loss of some of the imagery.

The translators of the GNB have often ruled out suggestive ambiguity by opting for one meaning. They should have recognised that putting in more words often limits meaning. “By water and by blood” has fuller meaning than “by the water of His baptism and the blood of His death.”

Hebrew people often used parallelism in poetry. Translators should be cautious not to telescope the two parts of a parallelism, because it results, at least, in a loss of emphasis. Fine liturgical language, as Cranmer has shown, can result from carefully chosen synonyms used together. It is a pity when translators destroy parallelisms in the Psalms and elsewhere. Telescoping should not compress: “I shall be merciful to anyone to whom I am merciful; and I shall have compassion on anyone on whom I have compassion.” The GNB telescopes Exodus 33:19, for example.

English is not particularly fond of beginning sentences with “and” and “but.” Count the number of times this occurs in Mark Chapter 1 in the KJV. However, it is unnecessary to try to exclude “ands” and “buts” from the beginning of all sentences. Since the distinction between Law and Gospel is theologically important and part of this is the difference between imperatives and indicatives, this translation generally marks commands and prohibitions with an exclamation mark.

Masoretes and editors of the Greek New Testament did not add punctuation until later. A good translation should not rely on punctuation or capitalisation for meaning, because people obviously do not hear them.

According to English grammarians like Partridge, after a definite antecedent (a name or a noun with some way of defining it), a relative clause is essentially parenthetical. It adds more information and does not provide definition. Accordingly, a comma should regularly precede a parenthetical “which,” except when a preposition governs it. “That” without a comma before it should be the relative that introduces defining relative clauses.

In formal English, translators should avoid abbreviations like “can’t,” “don’t,” and “isn’t,” except where colloquial expressions are appropriate to the context.

Both Hebrew and Greek often did not add words like “only” and “other” where speakers of Modern English feel that they are necessary. The translator may supply these from the context without fearing the accusation that he is adding to God’s Word.

Hebrew and Greek often expressed a reflexive or an emphasising idea by using words like “body,” “soul,” and “spirit.” “Every soul” sometimes meant “everyone.” Jesus talked about exchanging one’s “soul” (or “life”) alongside of the expression “denying oneself.” “He poured out his soul” may mean, “He poured out himself.” In some Psalms, “My soul” is a rough equivalent for the personal pronoun. However, in contexts of death and dying, the Bible says different things about the body and the soul.

People who spoke Hebrew and Greek regularly used words like “heart” and “life” in the singular where English idiom prefers the plural. No one should criticise the use of plurals for these.

The headings and sub-headings owe much to those in God’s Word to the Nations (NET) but in Romans the headings follow the outline in Nygren’s commentary.

The Old Testament has gone a little further in avoiding “And” and “But” at the beginning of sentences and reducing the use of semi-colons.

This translation has capitalised personal pronouns that refer to God. It has used exclamation marks after sentences with imperatives, prohibitions and wishes. This second edition makes a few slight corrections, several resulting from further study. In the prophets paragraphing and quotation marks have made clearer the interplay between the words of the Lord and of His prophets.

Words in the Old Testament that are quoted or alluded to in the New Testament are in bold font and words in the New Testament that are quoted or alluded to in the Old Testament are also in bold font. The principle is that the New Testament lies hidden in the Old and the Old Testament is revealed in the New; and Christ is the centre of both.

In the third edition, more attention has been given to direct and reported speech in the OT prophets.

GENESIS

1

The account of the origin of the earth (1:1-2:4) — Job 38:4-11; John 1:1-5

<sup>1</sup> In the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. <sup>2</sup> The earth was formless and empty, darkness covered the surface of the deep and the Spirit of God was hovering over the surface of the water. <sup>3</sup> God said, “Let there be light!”<sup>*1</sup> And there was light.

<sup>4</sup> God saw that the light was good. God separated the light from the darkness. <sup>5</sup> God named the light “day” and named the darkness “night.” There was evening and there was morning, the first day.

<sup>6</sup> God said, “Let there be an expanse between the waters to separate water from water!”

<sup>7</sup> So, God made the expanse and separated the water below the expanse from the water above it. It was so.

<sup>8</sup> God named the expanse “sky.” There was evening and there was morning, the second day.

<sup>9</sup> God said, “Let the water under the sky be gathered to one place and let the dry land appear!”

It was so. <sup>10</sup> God named the dry land “earth,” and named the gathered water “seas.” God saw that it was good.

<sup>11</sup> God said, “Let the earth sprout vegetation: plants bearing seeds and fruit trees bearing fruit with seeds in it, each according to its kind!”

It was so. <sup>12</sup> The earth produced vegetation: plants bearing seeds according to their own kinds and trees bearing fruit with seeds in it each according to its kind. God saw that it was good. <sup>13</sup> There was evening and there was morning, the third day.

<sup>14</sup> God said, “Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night! Let them serve as signs to mark feasts, days and years, <sup>15</sup> and let them be lights in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth!”

It was so. <sup>16</sup> God made the two great lights, the greater light to govern the day and the smaller light to govern the night. He also made the stars. <sup>17</sup> God set them in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth, <sup>18</sup> to govern the day and the night and to separate the light from the darkness. God saw that it was good. <sup>19</sup> There was evening and there was morning, the fourth day.

<sup>20</sup> God said, “Let the water teem with living creatures and let flying creatures fly above the earth across the expanse of the sky!”

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, God created the large sea creatures, every living and moving thing with which the water teems, according to their kinds and every winged creature according to its kind. God saw that they were good. <sup>22</sup> God blessed them and said: “Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the water in the seas; and let there be many flying creatures on the earth!”

<sup>23</sup> There was evening and there was morning, the fifth day.

<sup>24</sup> God said, “Let the earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinds: domestic animals, crawling animals and wild animals according to their kinds!”

It was so. <sup>25</sup> God made the wild animals according to their kinds, the domestic animals according to their kinds and every animal that crawls on the ground according to its kind. God saw that it was good.

<sup>26</sup> God said: “Let Us make man in Our image, in Our likeness and let them rule over the fish in the sea, over the flying creatures in the sky, over the domestic animals and over every kind of animal that crawls on the earth!”

<sup>27</sup> So, God created man in His own image. He created them in God’s image. He created them male and female.

<sup>28</sup> God blessed them and told them: “Be fruitful and increase in number, fill the earth and bring it under your control! Rule over the fish in the sea, the flying creatures in the sky and over every kind of animal that crawls on the earth.

<sup>29</sup> God said: “Look! I have given you every seed-bearing plant on the face of all the earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food. <sup>30</sup> I have also given every green plant as food to every wild animal, to every flying creature in the sky and to every animal that crawls on the ground, to everything that has the breath of life.” It was so. <sup>31</sup> God saw all that He had made and, indeed, it was very good. There was evening and there was morning, the sixth day.

2

God’s rest on the seventh day

<sup>1</sup> Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in their entire vast array. <sup>2</sup> By the seventh day God had completed the work that He had been doing. Then, on the seventh day, He rested from all His work, which He had done. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, God has blessed the seventh day and has set it apart as holy, because on that day He rested from all the work of creation that He had done.

<sup>4</sup> This is the account of the origin of the heavens and the earth.

The family history of Adam (2:4b-5:1)

<sup>4b</sup> When earth and sky were created, at the time when the LORD God made them, <sup>5</sup> there was yet no shrub of the field on the earth and no green plants were yet springing up in the field. For the LORD God had not caused it to rain on the earth. There was no man to farm the ground. <sup>6</sup> Surface-water used to go up from the earth and water the whole face of the ground.

<sup>1</sup> In this translation words in bold face are ones that are quoted or alluded to in the New Testament.

God's forming of the first two human beings

<sup>7</sup> Then the LORD God formed the man from the dust of the ground and breathed the breath of life into his nostrils and the man became a living being. <sup>8</sup> The LORD God had planted a garden in Eden, in the east and there He put the man whom He had formed. <sup>9</sup> The LORD God had caused every kind of tree that was pleasing to the eye and that was good for food to grow out of the ground. The tree of life was in the middle of the garden, as well as the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. <sup>10</sup> A river flowed from Eden to water the garden. From there it divided into four headwaters. <sup>11</sup> The name of the first river is Pishon. This one flows around the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold. <sup>12</sup> The gold of that land is good. Bdelium and onyx stone are also found there. <sup>13</sup> The name of the second river is Gihon. This one winds around the whole land of Cush. <sup>14</sup> The name of the third river is Tigris. This one flows east of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates.

<sup>15</sup> Then the LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden, to farm it and to take care of it.

<sup>16</sup> The LORD God commanded the man: "Although you may freely eat from every tree of the garden, <sup>17</sup> you shall not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil! For in the day when you eat from it you will surely die."

<sup>18</sup> The LORD God said, "It is not good for the man to be alone. I shall make him a helper, suitable for him."

<sup>19</sup> The LORD God had formed from the ground every beast of the field and every bird in the sky. He brought them to the man to see what he would name them. Whatever the man named each living creature, that became its name. <sup>20</sup> The man gave names to all the domestic animals, the birds in the sky and every wild animal. However, Adam did not find a helper who was suitable for him. <sup>21</sup> The LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep and, while the man was sleeping, He took out one of his ribs and closed its place with flesh. <sup>22</sup> Then the LORD God fashioned the rib that He had taken from the man into a woman and brought her to the man. <sup>23</sup> The man said: "This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh. She will be named 'woman,' because she has been taken from 'man.'" <sup>24</sup> Therefore, a man will leave his father and his mother. He will be united with his wife and they will become one flesh. <sup>25</sup> The man and his wife were both naked but were not ashamed.

3

Adam and Eve's fall into sin and the first promise of the Saviour — Rom 5:12-21

<sup>1</sup> The snake was more cunning than any other wild animal that the LORD God had made. He asked the woman, "Has God really said, 'You shall not eat from any tree in the garden!'"?

<sup>2</sup> The woman told the snake: "We may eat the fruit from the trees in the garden. <sup>3</sup> However, God has said about the fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden: 'You shall not eat from it, and shall not touch it or you will die!'"

<sup>4</sup> The snake told the woman, "You will certainly not die. <sup>5</sup> For God knows that in the day when you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

<sup>6</sup> When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it was a delight to look at and that the tree was desirable for making someone wise, she took some of its fruit and ate it. Then she also gave some to her husband, who was with her and he ate it. <sup>7</sup> Then the eyes of both were opened and they realised that they were naked. Therefore, they sewed fig leaves together and made loin coverings for themselves.

<sup>8</sup> At the time of the day when there was a breeze, the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God walking in the garden and hid from the presence of the LORD God among the trees in the garden. <sup>9</sup> Then the LORD God called to the man and asked him, "Where are you?"

<sup>10</sup> The man said, "I heard Your voice in the garden and was afraid, because I was naked. So, I hid."

<sup>11</sup> He said, "Who has told you that you are naked? Have you eaten fruit from the tree from which I have commanded you not to eat?"

<sup>12</sup> Then the man said, "The woman whom You gave to be with me, she gave me some fruit from the tree and I ate it."

<sup>13</sup> Then the LORD God asked the woman, "What is this that you have done?"

The woman said, "The snake deceived me, and I ate."

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD God told the snake: "Because you have done this, you are cursed, more than any domestic animal and any wild animal. You will crawl on your belly and eat dust all the days of your life. <sup>15</sup> I shall make you and the woman hostile to each other and shall make your descendants and her Descendant hostile to each other. He will crush your head and you will crush His heel."

<sup>16</sup> He told the woman: "I shall greatly increase your painful labour and your pregnancy. In pain you will give birth to children. You will yearn for your husband and he will rule over you."

<sup>17</sup> Then to the man He said: "Because you have listened to what your wife has said and have eaten from the tree about which I had commanded you, 'You shall not eat from it!' the ground is cursed because of you. You will eat from it through painful toil all the days of your life. <sup>18</sup> It will cause both thorns and thistles to grow for you and you will eat the plants of the field. <sup>19</sup> You will eat bread in the sweat of your brow until you return to the ground. For you were taken from it. For you are dust and you will return to dust."

<sup>20</sup> The man named his wife “Eve,”<sup>2</sup> because she was the mother of every living person.

<sup>21</sup> Then the LORD God made tunics from skins for the man and his wife and clothed them.

<sup>22</sup> Then the LORD God said: “Look! Man has become like one of Us, knowing good and evil. However, that he may not reach out his hand and take from the tree of life as well and eat it, so that he would live for ever —.”

<sup>23</sup> Therefore, the LORD God sent him out of the Garden of Eden to work the ground from which he had been taken. <sup>24</sup> He drove the man out and placed cherubim at the east of the Garden of Eden with a flaming sword-blade, which turned in all directions, to guard the way to the tree of life.

4

Cain’s murder of Abel — Luke 11:51, Heb 11:4, Heb 12:24

<sup>1</sup> The man had relations with his wife Eve, and she became pregnant and gave birth to Cain. She said, “I have acquired a man, the LORD.”

<sup>2</sup> Then she gave birth to his brother Abel. Abel was the shepherd of a flock of sheep, but Cain farmed the soil. <sup>3</sup> In the course of time, Cain brought some of what the ground produced as an offering to the LORD. <sup>4</sup> Abel also brought some first-born animals of his flock and some of their pieces of fat. The LORD looked favourably at Abel and his offering.

<sup>5</sup> However, He did not look favourably at Cain and his offering. Cain became very angry and his face was downcast.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD asked Cain: “Why are you angry and why has your face fallen? <sup>7</sup> If you do right, will you not be accepted? However, if you do not do right, sin is crouching at the door. It longs to get you, but you should master it!”

<sup>8</sup> Cain spoke to his brother Abel. However, while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD asked Cain, “Where is your brother Abel?”

He answered, “I do not know. Am I my brother’s keeper?”

<sup>10</sup> He asked: “What have you done? The voice of your brother’s spilt blood is crying out to Me from the ground. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, you are cursed from the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother’s spilt blood from your hand. <sup>12</sup> When you work the ground, it will no longer yield you its produce. You will be a homeless wanderer on the earth.”

<sup>13</sup> Cain told the LORD: “My punishment is greater than I can endure. <sup>14</sup> Look! Today You have driven me from the face of the ground, and I shall be hidden from Your presence. I shall be a homeless wanderer on the earth, and anyone who finds me will kill me.”

<sup>15</sup> However, the LORD told him, “Therefore, anyone who kills Cain will meet with sevenfold retribution.”

Then the LORD put a mark on Cain to keep anyone who found him from killing him. <sup>16</sup> Cain went away from the presence of the LORD and lived in the land of Nod,<sup>3</sup> to the east of Eden.

The family-line of Cain

<sup>17</sup> Cain had relations with his wife, she became pregnant and gave birth to Enoch. Cain was building a city and named the city “Enoch,” after his son’s name.

<sup>18</sup> Enoch was the father of Irad. Irad was the father of Mehujael. Mehujael was the father of Methushael and Methushael was the father of Lamech.

<sup>19</sup> Lamech married two women. One was named “Adah,” and the other was named “Zillah.” <sup>20</sup> Adah gave birth to Jabal. He was the father of those who live in tents and own livestock.

<sup>21</sup> His brother’s name was “Jubal.” He was the father of all who play the lyre and the pipe. <sup>22</sup> Zillah also gave birth to Tubal-Cain. He was a smith, who taught every craftsman in copper and iron. Tubal-Cain’s sister was Naamah.

<sup>23</sup> Lamech told his wives: “Adah and Zillah, listen to me! You wives of Lamech, listen to what I say! ‘I have killed a man for bruising me, a boy for wounding me.’ <sup>24</sup> If revenge is taken on Cain seven times as much, then on Lamech seventy-seven times as much.”

The birth of Seth

<sup>25</sup> Adam came together with his wife again. She gave birth to a son and named him “Seth,” saying, “It is because God has appointed another child for me instead of Abel. For Cain has killed Abel.”

<sup>26</sup> Seth also had a son and named him “Enosh.”

At that time, a beginning was made in calling on the name of the LORD.

5

<sup>1</sup> This is the family history of Adam.

The family history of Noah (5:3-6:9)

The account of the line from Adam to Noah — 1 Chron 1:1-4, Luke 3:36-38

<sup>1b</sup> When God created man He made him like God.

<sup>2</sup> He created them male and female. He blessed them and named them “mankind” when He created them.<sup>3</sup> When Adam had lived a hundred and thirty years, he had a son who was in his own likeness, in his own image, and named him “Seth.” <sup>4</sup> After Adam became the father of Seth, he lived for eight hundred years and had other sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup> Altogether, Adam lived for nine hundred and thirty years and died.

<sup>6</sup> When Seth had lived for a hundred and five years, he became the father of Enosh. <sup>7</sup> After Seth became the father of Enosh, he lived for eight hundred and seven years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>8</sup> Altogether, Seth lived for nine hundred and twelve years and died.

<sup>2</sup> Eve means, “Life.”

<sup>3</sup> Nod means, “Wandering.”

<sup>9</sup> When Enosh had lived for ninety years, he became the father of Kenan. <sup>10</sup> After Enosh became the father of Kenan, he lived for eight hundred and fifteen years and had other sons and daughters. <sup>11</sup> Altogether, Enosh lived for nine hundred and five years and died.

<sup>12</sup> When Kenan had lived for seventy years, he became the father of Mahalalel. <sup>13</sup> After Kenan became the father of Mahalalel, he lived for eight hundred and forty years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>14</sup> Altogether, Kenan lived for nine hundred and ten years and died.

<sup>15</sup> When Mahalalel had lived for sixty-five years, he became the father of Jared. <sup>16</sup> After Mahalalel became the father of Jared, he lived for eight hundred and thirty years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>17</sup> Altogether, Mahalalel lived for eight hundred and ninety-five years and died.

<sup>18</sup> When Jared had lived for one hundred and sixty-two years, he became the father of Enoch. <sup>19</sup> After Jared became the father of Enoch, he lived for eight hundred years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup> Altogether, Jared lived for nine hundred and sixty-two years and died.

<sup>21</sup> When Enoch had lived for sixty-five years, he became the father of Methuselah. <sup>22</sup> After Enoch became the father of Methuselah, he walked with God for three hundred years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>23</sup> Altogether, Enoch lived for three hundred and sixty-five years. <sup>24</sup> Enoch walked with God and then he was no more, because God took him away.

<sup>25</sup> When Methuselah had lived for one hundred and eighty-seven years, he became the father of Lamech.

<sup>26</sup> After Methuselah became the father of Lamech, he lived for seven hundred and eighty-two years and had other sons and daughters. <sup>27</sup> Altogether, Methuselah lived for nine hundred and sixty-nine years and died.

<sup>28</sup> When Lamech had lived for one hundred and eighty-two years, he had a son <sup>29</sup> and named him "Noah."<sup>4</sup> He said, "This child will bring us comfort from the work and painful toil of our hands because of the ground, which the LORD has cursed."

<sup>30</sup> After Lamech became the father of Noah, he lived for five hundred and ninety-five years and had other sons and daughters. <sup>31</sup> Altogether, Lamech lived for seven hundred and seventy-seven years and then he died. <sup>32</sup> After Noah was five hundred years old, he became the father of Shem, Ham and Japheth.

6

The increasing wickedness in the world and God's intention to wipe out sinful mankind

<sup>1</sup> When mankind began to become numerous on the surface of the earth, daughters were born to them.

<sup>2</sup> The sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful and married whatever women they chose.

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD said: "My Spirit will not struggle for ever with human beings because of their errors. They are sinful human nature. However, they will still live for a hundred and twenty years."

<sup>4</sup> There were giants on the earth in those days, as well as later, when the sons of God had intercourse with the daughters of men, who gave birth to children by them. These were the heroes who were famous men from time long ago. <sup>5</sup> The LORD saw that the people on the earth were very wicked and that every tendency of the thoughts in their hearts was nothing but evil all the time.

<sup>6</sup> The LORD regretted that He had made mankind on the earth and felt grieved in His heart. <sup>7</sup> The LORD said: "I shall wipe from the face of the ground the people whom I have created, both people, cattle, creeping things and birds of the sky, because I am sorry that I have made them."

<sup>8</sup> However, the LORD regarded Noah kindly. <sup>9</sup> This is the family-history of Noah.

The family history of the sons of Noah, Shem, Ham and Japheth (6:10-10:1)

<sup>9b</sup> Noah was a righteous man. He was blameless among the people of his time. Noah walked with God.

<sup>10</sup> Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham and Japheth.

<sup>11</sup> The world was corrupt in God's sight, and the earth was filled with violence. <sup>12</sup> God saw that the world was indeed corrupt, because every human being on earth had made his way of life corrupt.

The building of the ark

<sup>13</sup> God told Noah: "The end of all human beings has come before Me, because the earth has become full of violence because of them. So, look! I am about to destroy them together with the earth. <sup>14</sup> Make yourself an ark of gopher-wood! Make compartments in the ark! Coat it inside and outside with tar! <sup>15</sup> This is how you shall make it: The ark shall be a hundred and fifty metres long, twenty-five metres wide and fifteen metres high! <sup>16</sup> Make a roof for the ark! Finish it to precisely fifty centimetres from the top! Put the door of the ark in the side of it! Build it with lower, second and third decks! <sup>17</sup> Look! I am about to bring flood water on the earth to destroy every being that has the breath of life under the sky. Everything that is on the earth will die. <sup>18</sup> However, I shall establish My Covenant with you: You shall go into the ark, you, your sons, your wife and your sons' wives with you!

<sup>19</sup> You shall take two of every kind of living being, of every animal, into the ark, to keep them alive with you! They must be a male and a female! <sup>20</sup> Two of every kind of bird, every kind of animal and every kind of creature that crawls on the ground will come to you to keep them alive. <sup>21</sup> You shall collect every kind of food that is eaten and store it with you, that it may be food for yourself and for them!"

<sup>22</sup> Noah did exactly as God had commanded him. That is what he did.

7

<sup>4</sup> Noah means, "Rest."

Genesis

The great flood — Luke 17:26-27

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Noah: “Go into the ark, you and your whole family! For I have seen that you are righteous before Me among the people of today. <sup>2</sup> Take with you seven pairs of every clean animal, a male and its female and a pair of the unclean animals, a male and its female! <sup>3</sup> Take also seven pairs of the birds of the sky, male and female, to keep their progeny alive all over the earth! <sup>4</sup> For after seven more days I shall make it rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights and shall wipe from the face of the ground every living creature that I have made.”

<sup>5</sup> Noah did exactly as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>6</sup> Noah was six hundred years old when the flood water came on the earth. <sup>7</sup> Noah, his sons, his wife and his sons’ wives went with him into the ark to escape from the water of the flood. <sup>8</sup> Clean animals and unclean animals, birds and everything that crawls on the ground <sup>9</sup> came in pairs, male and female, to Noah in the ark as God had commanded Noah. <sup>10</sup> After seven days, the water of the flood came on the earth. <sup>11</sup> In the six-hundredth year of Noah’s life, on the seventeenth day of the second month, on that day, all the springs of the great deep broke open, the windows of the heavens burst open, <sup>12</sup> and the rain came down on the earth for forty days and forty nights. <sup>13</sup> On that very day Noah and Noah’s sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth, as well as Noah’s wife and his sons’ three wives, went with them into the ark. <sup>14</sup> They came, together with every wild animal according to its kind, every domestic animal according to its kind, every creature that crawls on the earth according to its kind and every bird according to its kind, every creature with wings. <sup>15</sup> They came in pairs to Noah in the ark out of all living creatures that had the breath of life in them. <sup>16</sup> Those that came in were male and female. Some of every kind of living creature came as God had commanded Noah. Then the LORD shut him in. <sup>17</sup> For forty days the flood came on the earth. As the water increased, it lifted the ark, so that it rose high above the ground. <sup>18</sup> As the water swelled and became very deep on the earth, the ark floated on the surface of the water. <sup>19</sup> The water swelled extremely over the earth and all the high mountains under the entire sky were covered. <sup>20</sup> They swelled seven and a half metres on top of the mountains, and they were covered. <sup>21</sup> Every living creature that moved on the earth died, including the birds, the tame animals, the wild animals, all the swarming creatures that teemed on the earth and every human being. <sup>22</sup> Everything that had in its nostrils the breath of the spirit of life, everything that was on the dry land, died. <sup>23</sup> Therefore, God wiped out every living being that was on the surface of the ground, human beings, animals, crawling creatures and birds of the sky. They were wiped off the earth. Only Noah and those who were with him in the ark were left.

The end of the flood

<sup>24</sup> The water flooded the earth for a hundred and fifty days.

8

<sup>1</sup> However, God remembered Noah, every wild animal and every tame animal that was with him in the ark. God made a wind blow over the earth and the water receded. <sup>2</sup> The springs of the deep and the windows of the heavens had been stopped up and the rain from the sky had been kept back. <sup>3</sup> The water continued to recede from the earth, so that by the end of the one hundred and fifty days the water had gone down.

<sup>4</sup> On the seventeenth day of the seventh month, the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat. <sup>5</sup> The water continued to decrease until the tenth month. On the first day of the tenth month the tops of the mountains appeared. <sup>6</sup> After forty more days, Noah opened the window that he had made in the ark <sup>7</sup> and sent out a raven. It kept flying back and forth until the water had dried up from the earth. <sup>8</sup> Next, he sent out a dove, to find out if the water had receded from the surface of the ground. <sup>9</sup> However, when the dove could not find a place to set the sole of its foot, because there was water all over the whole earth, it came back to him at the ark. He put out his hand, caught the dove and brought it back into the ark with him. <sup>10</sup> After he had again waited for seven more days, he sent the dove out of the ark again. <sup>11</sup> The dove came to him in the evening, and there in its beak was a freshly plucked leaf of an olive-tree! Then Noah knew that the water had subsided on the earth. <sup>12</sup> After he had waited again for seven days more, he sent the dove out, and it did not come back to him any longer. <sup>13</sup> By the first day of the first month of the six hundred and first year of Noah, the water had dried up from the land. Then Noah took off the roof of the ark, looked out and saw that the surface of the ground had dried up.

<sup>14</sup> By the twenty-seventh day of the second month, the earth had become dry. <sup>15</sup> Then God spoke to Noah, <sup>16</sup> “Come out of the ark, you and your wife, your sons and your sons’ wives with you! <sup>17</sup> Bring out with you every kind of living being that is with you, birds, domestic animals and every creature that crawls on the ground, that they may abound on the earth, have young and increase in number on the earth!”

<sup>18</sup> Therefore, Noah came out together with his sons, his wife and his sons’ wives. <sup>19</sup> Every animal, every crawling creature and every bird, everything that moves on the earth, came out of the ark by their families.

<sup>20</sup> Noah built an altar to the LORD, took some of every kind of clean animal and every kind of clean bird and made a burnt offering on the altar. <sup>21</sup> When the LORD smelled the soothing aroma, the LORD told Himself: “I shall not curse the ground again because of human beings. For what human beings think in their hearts is evil from their youth. Never again shall I kill every living thing, as I have done. <sup>22</sup> While the earth continues to exist, sowing and harvesting, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will not cease.’

9

God's Covenant with Noah and his sons

<sup>1</sup> God blessed Noah and his sons. He told them: “Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the earth! <sup>2</sup> All the animals on the earth, all the birds of the sky, everything else that moves on the ground and all the fish in the sea will be afraid of you and be terrified by you. You have been given control over them. <sup>3</sup> You may eat any moving thing that has life. As I have given you the green plants, I have given you them all. <sup>4</sup> However, you shall not eat any meat that contains its life, that is, its blood! <sup>5</sup> I shall certainly demand an accounting for your lifeblood. I shall demand it from every animal and from human beings. I shall demand an accounting for the life of a human being from his fellowman. <sup>6</sup> If anyone sheds the blood of a human being, his blood should be shed by a human being! For God made human beings in His own image. <sup>7</sup> As for you, be fruitful and increase in number! Abound on the earth and become numerous on it!”

<sup>8</sup> Then God told Noah and his sons with him: <sup>9</sup> “Look! I Myself am establishing My Covenant with you and with your descendants after you, <sup>10</sup> and with every living being that has been with you, the birds, the domestic animals and all the wild animals together with you. It is for all those that have come out of the ark, yes, for every living being on the earth. <sup>11</sup> I shall establish My Covenant with you: Never again will the water of a flood cut off every living being. Never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth.”

<sup>12</sup> God also said: “This is the sign of the Covenant that I am giving between Me and you and every living being that is with you, for all generations to come. <sup>13</sup> I have put My rainbow in the clouds that it may be a sign of the Covenant between Me and the earth.

<sup>14</sup> Whenever I bring clouds over the earth and the rainbow appears in the clouds, <sup>15</sup> I shall remember My Covenant, which is between Me and you and every living being with every kind of flesh. Never again will the water become a flood to destroy all flesh. <sup>16</sup> When the rainbow is in the clouds, I shall see it and remember the everlasting Covenant between God and every living being of every kind of flesh that is on the earth.”

<sup>17</sup> God told Noah, “That is the sign of the Covenant that I have established between Me and all living beings that are on the earth.”

Noah's curse on Canaan and his blessing on Shem and Japheth

<sup>18</sup> Noah's sons, who had come out of the ark, were Shem, Ham and Japheth. Ham was the father of Canaan. <sup>19</sup> These were the three sons of Noah and from them the people came who spread out all over the earth.

<sup>20</sup> Noah began to farm the soil and planted a vineyard.

<sup>21</sup> He drank some of the wine, became drunk and exposed himself inside his tent. <sup>22</sup> When Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father naked, he told his two brothers outside. <sup>23</sup> However, Shem and Japheth took his garment and the two of them laid it over their shoulders, walked backwards and covered their naked father. Because they faced the other way, they did not see their naked father. <sup>24</sup> When Noah woke up from his wine and found out what his youngest son had done to him, <sup>25</sup> Noah said, “Cursed be Canaan! He will be the lowest of slaves to his brothers.”

<sup>26</sup> He also said: “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem! May Canaan be the slave of Shem! <sup>27</sup> May God provide ample space for Japheth! May Japheth live in the tents of Shem and may Canaan be his slave!”

<sup>28</sup> Noah lived for three hundred and fifty years after the flood. <sup>29</sup> Altogether, Noah lived for nine hundred and fifty years and died.

10

<sup>1</sup> This is the family history of Noah's sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth. Children were born to them after the flood.

The account of the nations descended from Japheth, Ham and Shem (10:2-11:10)

The descendants of Japheth — 1 Chronicles 1:4-7

<sup>2</sup> The sons of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech and Tiras. <sup>3</sup> The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Riphath and Togarmah. <sup>4</sup> The sons of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim, the people of Cyprus and the Dodanim.*<sup>5</sup> <sup>5</sup> From these the maritime nations branched off in their countries, each with its own language, by their clans inside their nations.

The descendants of Ham — 1 Chronicles 1:8-16

<sup>6</sup> The sons of Ham were Cush, Mizraim, Put and Canaan. <sup>7</sup> The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan.

<sup>8</sup> Cush became the father of Nimrod. Nimrod began to be a despot on the earth. <sup>9</sup> He was a mighty hunter before the LORD. That is why people say, “Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup> Nimrod began his kingdom with Babylon, Erech, Akkad and Calneh, in the country of Shinar. <sup>11</sup> From that country, he went out to Assyria and built Nineveh, Rehoboth-Ir, Calah, <sup>12</sup> and Resen, which is between Nineveh and Calah. That is the greatest city.

<sup>13</sup> Mizraim was the father of the people of Lud, Anam, Lehab, Naphtuh, <sup>14</sup> Pathrus, Casluh (from whom the Philistines originated) and the people of Caphtor. <sup>15</sup> Canaan was the father of Sidon, his first-born and then he had Heth,<sup>16</sup> and the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites,<sup>17</sup> the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites,<sup>18</sup> the Arvadites, the Zemarites and the Hamathites. Later the Canaanite clans dispersed.<sup>19</sup> The boundary of the Canaanites extended from Sidon towards Gerar as far as Gaza and then towards Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.<sup>20</sup> These were the sons of Ham by their clans and languages, in their countries and their nations.

<sup>5</sup> The Septuagint reads: “and the people of Rhodes.”

The descendants of Shem — Genesis 11:10-27, 1 Chronicles 1:17-27

<sup>21</sup> Shem, Japheth's elder brother, also had children. He was the ancestor of all the sons of Eber.<sup>22</sup> The sons of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud and Aram.<sup>23</sup> The sons of Aram were Uz, Hul, Gether and Mash.<sup>24</sup> Arphaxad was the father of Shelah and Shelah was the father of Eber.<sup>25</sup> Eber had two sons. One had the name "Peleg,"<sup>26</sup> because in his time the earth was divided. His brother's name was "Joktan."<sup>27</sup> Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,<sup>28</sup> Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,<sup>29</sup> Obal, Abimael, Sheba,<sup>30</sup> Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan.<sup>31</sup> The region where they lived extended from Mesha towards Sephar, in the eastern hill-country.<sup>32</sup> These were the sons of Shem by their clans and their languages, in their countries according to their nations.<sup>33</sup> These were the clans of Noah's sons, according to their lines of descent, inside their nations. From these the nations branched out in the world after the flood.

11

The confusion of languages at Babel

<sup>1</sup> The whole earth had one language with a common vocabulary.<sup>2</sup> As people journeyed from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there.<sup>3</sup> They told one another, "Come! Let us make bricks and bake them thoroughly!"

They had bricks for stones and tar for mortar.<sup>4</sup> Then they said: "Come! Let us build a city for ourselves and a tower with its top in the sky, that we may make a name for ourselves and that we may not be scattered over the surface of the whole earth!"

<sup>5</sup> The LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the sons of men had built.<sup>6</sup> The LORD said: "Look! They are one people. They all have one language, and this is what they are beginning to do. Now nothing that they plan to do will be impossible for them.<sup>7</sup> Come! Let Us go down there and confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech!"

<sup>8</sup> So, the LORD scattered them from there all over the earth, and they ceased building the city.<sup>9</sup> This is why it was named "Babel,"<sup>10</sup> because there the LORD confused the language of all the earth. From there, the LORD scattered them all over the surface of the whole earth.

<sup>10</sup> This is the family history of Shem.

The history of the family-line from Shem to Terah and Abram (11:10-11:26) — 1 Chronicles 1:17-23, Luke 3:34-36

<sup>10b</sup> Shem was one hundred when he became the father of Arphaxad, two years after the flood.<sup>11</sup> After Shem became the father of Arphaxad, he lived for five hundred years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>12</sup> When Arphaxad had lived for thirty-five years, he became the father of Shelah.<sup>13</sup> After Arphaxad became the father of Shelah, he lived for four hundred and three years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>14</sup> When Shelah had lived for thirty years, he became the father of Eber.<sup>15</sup> After Shelah became the father of Eber, he lived for four hundred and three years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>16</sup> When Eber had lived thirty-four years, he became the father of Peleg.<sup>17</sup> After Eber became the father of Peleg, he lived for four hundred and thirty years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>18</sup> When Peleg had lived for thirty years, he became the father of Reu.<sup>19</sup> After Peleg became the father of Reu, he lived for two hundred and nine years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>20</sup> When Reu had lived for thirty-two years, he became the father of Serug.<sup>21</sup> After Reu became the father of Serug, he lived for two hundred and seven years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>22</sup> When Serug had lived for thirty years, he became the father of Nahor.<sup>23</sup> After Serug became the father of Nahor, he lived for two hundred years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>24</sup> When Nahor had lived for twenty-nine years, he became the father of Terah.<sup>25</sup> After Nahor became the father of Terah, he lived for one hundred and nineteen years and had other sons and daughters.

<sup>26</sup> After Terah had lived for seventy years, he became the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran.

<sup>27</sup> This is the family history of Terah.

The family-history of Abram, Lot, Hagar and Ishmael and Isaac (11:27-25:19)

<sup>27b</sup> Terah was the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran. Haran was the father of Lot.<sup>28</sup> Haran died while his father Terah was still with him in Ur of the Chaldeans, in his native land.<sup>29</sup> Abram and Nahor married. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah. She was the daughter of Haran, who was the father of Milcah and Iscah.<sup>30</sup> Sarai was barren. She had no children.

<sup>31</sup> Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot, the son of Haran and his daughter-in-law Sarai, the wife of his son, Abram, and together they left Ur of the Chaldeans to go to the country of Canaan. However, when they came to Haran, they settled there.<sup>32</sup> Terah lived for two hundred and five years. Terah died in Haran.

<sup>6</sup> Eber is the origin of the word "Hebrews."

<sup>7</sup> Peleg means, "Division."

<sup>8</sup> Babel means, "Gate of God."

12

God's first promise to Abram — Acts 7:2-5

<sup>1</sup> The LORD had told Abram: “Leave your land, your relatives and your father’s family and go to the land that I shall show you!” <sup>2</sup> I shall make you into a great nation. I shall bless you. I shall make your name great, and you will be a blessing. <sup>3</sup> I shall bless those who bless you and shall curse him who curses you and in you all the families of the earth will be blessed.”

The arrival of Abram in the promised land and the second promise to Abram

<sup>4</sup> Therefore, Abram left, as the LORD had told him, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he left Haran. <sup>5</sup> Abram took his wife Sarai, his brother’s son Lot and all the possessions that they had accumulated, as well as the people whom they had acquired in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan. When they arrived in the land of Canaan, <sup>6</sup> Abram travelled through the land to the place at Shechem, to the large tree of Moreh. The Canaanites were then in the land. <sup>7</sup> The LORD appeared to Abram and said, “I shall give this land to your offspring.”

Therefore, he built an altar there to the LORD, who had appeared to him. <sup>8</sup> He moved on from there to the hill-country east of Bethel and put up his tent with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the LORD and called on the name of the LORD. <sup>9</sup> Then Abram broke camp and continued to move on toward the Negev.

Abram's deception of Pharaoh in Egypt — compare similar incidents in 20:1-18, 26:1-11

<sup>10</sup> There was a famine in the land and Abram went down to Egypt to stay there as a foreigner for a while, because the famine was severe in the land. <sup>11</sup> When Abram came close to Egypt and was about to enter it, he told his wife Sarai: “Please listen! I know that you look beautiful. <sup>12</sup> When the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife.’ They will kill me but let you live. <sup>13</sup> Please say that you are my sister, that it may go well with me because of you, and I may stay alive because of you!”

<sup>14</sup> When Abram came into Egypt, the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful. <sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh’s officials saw her, they commended her to Pharaoh and the woman was taken to his palace. <sup>16</sup> He treated Abram well for her sake and Abram obtained sheep, cattle, male donkeys, menservants, maidservants, female donkeys and camels.

<sup>17</sup> However, the LORD inflicted serious diseases on Pharaoh and his household because of Abram’s wife Sarai. <sup>18</sup> Pharaoh summoned Abram and asked: “What is this that you have done to me? Why have you not told me that she is your wife? <sup>19</sup> Why have you said, ‘She is my sister,’ so that I have taken her to be my wife? Now therefore, here is your wife. Take her and go away!”

<sup>20</sup> Pharaoh gave some men orders about Abram, and they sent him away, with his wife and everything that he had.

13

The separation of Lot from Abram

<sup>1</sup> Therefore, Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, with his wife and everything that he had, and Lot went with him. <sup>2</sup> Abram had become very rich in livestock, silver and gold. <sup>3</sup> He often moved camp and went from the Negev as far as Bethel, to the place between Bethel and Ai where his tent had been the first time, <sup>4</sup> the place where he had first made the altar. Abram called on the name of the LORD there.

<sup>5</sup> Lot, who was accompanying Abram, also had flocks, herds and tents. <sup>6</sup> However, the land could not support them, so that they could live together. For their possessions were too great for them to be able to live together. <sup>7</sup> The men who were minding Abram’s herds quarrelled with those who were minding Lot’s herds. The Canaanites and Perizzites were also living in the country at that time. <sup>8</sup> Therefore, Abram told Lot: “Please, let there be no quarrelling between you and me or between your herdsmen and mine! For we are relatives. <sup>9</sup> Is not the whole land before you? Please separate from me! If you go to the left, I shall go to the right. If you go to the right, I shall go to the left.”

<sup>10</sup> Lot looked up and saw that the whole wide area of the Jordan was well watered everywhere towards Zoar, like the garden of the LORD and like the land of Egypt. This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. <sup>11</sup> Then Lot chose for himself the whole wide area of the Jordan and set out to the east. So, they separated from each other. <sup>12</sup> Abram lived in the land of Canaan, while Lot lived among the cities of the plain and moved his tents as far as Sodom. <sup>13</sup> The men of Sodom were wicked and very sinful against the LORD.

The third promise to Abram

<sup>14</sup> After Lot moved away from Abram, the LORD told Abram: “Lift up your eyes from the place where you are and look to the north, to the south, to the east and to the west! <sup>15</sup> For I shall give all the land that you see to you and to your offspring for ever. <sup>16</sup> I shall also make your descendants like the dust of the earth, so that, if anyone could count the dust of the earth, your descendants could also be counted. <sup>17</sup> Get up and walk through the length and breadth of the land! For I shall give it to you.”

<sup>18</sup> Then Abram moved his tents and went to live beside the large trees of Mamre, which are at Hebron. There he built an altar to the LORD.

14

Abram's rescue of Lot and the people of Sodom

<sup>1</sup> At the time when Amraphel was the king of Shinar, Arioch was the king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer was the king of Elam and Tidal was the king of Goiim, <sup>2</sup> these kings made war against Bera, the king of Sodom, Birsha, the king of Gomorrah, Shinab, the king of Admah, Shemeber, the king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar). <sup>3</sup> All these latter kings joined their forces in the valley of Siddim (that is, the Salt Sea). <sup>4</sup> They had been subject to Chedorlaomer for twelve years but in the thirteenth year they rebelled. <sup>5</sup> In the fourteenth year Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him had come and defeated the Rephaites at Ashteroth-Karnaim, the Zuzites at Ham, the Emites in the plain of Kiriathaim <sup>6</sup> and the Horites in their hill-country of Seir, as far as El-Paran, which is near the desert. <sup>7</sup> Then they had turned back and gone to En-Mishpat (that is, Kadesh) and had defeated the whole domain of the Amalekites, as well as the Amorites who were living in Hazazon-Tamar. <sup>8</sup> Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) went out and drew up in battle order against them in the Valley of Siddim <sup>9</sup> against Chedorlaomer, the king of Elam, Tidal, the king of Goiim, Amraphel, the king of Shinar and Arioch, the king of Ellasar. Four kings were against five. <sup>10</sup> The valley of Siddim had many bitumen pits. When the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some men fell into them and the rest fled to the hill-country. <sup>11</sup> The enemy seized all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food and went away. <sup>12</sup> They also took Abram's nephew Lot and his goods and departed. Lot had been living in Sodom. <sup>13</sup> Someone who had escaped came and reported this to Abram, the Hebrew. Abram was living near the large trees of Mamre, who was an Amorite, a brother of Eshcol and Aner. They were allies of Abram. <sup>14</sup> When Abram heard that his relative had been taken captive, he led out his three hundred and eighteen followers, who were slaves born in his household and went in pursuit as far as Dan. <sup>15</sup> He and his servants split up, attacked them by night, defeated them and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is north of Damascus. <sup>16</sup> He brought back all the goods and brought back his relative Lot with his goods, as well as the women and the other people.

<sup>17</sup> After Abram had defeated Chedorlaomer and the kings with him and had come back, the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Valley of the Plain (that is, the King's Valley).

The blessing of Abram by Melchizedek — Hebrews 7:1-2

<sup>18</sup> Then Melchizedek, the king of Salem brought out bread and wine. He was the priest of God Most High. <sup>19</sup> He blessed Abram, saying: "May Abram be blessed by God Most High, the Creator of heaven and earth! <sup>20</sup> May God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hands, also be blessed!"

Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

<sup>21</sup> The king of Sodom told Abram, "Give me the people but take the goods for yourself!"

<sup>22</sup> However, Abram answered the king of Sodom: "I have raised my hand to the LORD, to God Most High, the Maker of heaven and earth, <sup>23</sup> that I shall certainly not take anything that belongs to you, not even a thread or a sandal-thong, that you may not say, 'I have made Abram rich.' <sup>24</sup> The only exceptions are what the young men have eaten and the share of the men who have come with me. As for Aner, Eshcol and Mamre, let them take their share!"

15

God's fourth promise to Abram and His Covenant with him — Hebrews 11:8-10

<sup>1</sup> After this, the Word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision: "Do not be afraid, Abram! I am your Shield and your very great Reward."

<sup>2</sup> Abram asked: "O Lord GOD, what will You give me? For I continue to be childless and the one who will become the heir of my household is Eliezer of Damascus."

<sup>3</sup> Then Abram also said, "Look! You have given me no offspring and so a member of my household will be my heir."

<sup>4</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to him: "This man will not be your heir, but one who comes from your own body will be your heir."

<sup>5</sup> He took Abram outside and said, "Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can count them!"

He also told him, "Your offspring will be like them!"

<sup>6</sup> Abram believed the LORD, and He credited it to him as righteousness.

<sup>7</sup> God also told Abram, "I am the LORD and have brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans, to give you this land to inherit."

<sup>8</sup> However, Abram asked, "O Lord GOD, how can I know that I shall inherit it?"

<sup>9</sup> He told Abram, "Bring Me a young cow three years old, a three-year-old she-goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtle-dove and a young pigeon!"

<sup>10</sup> Abram brought all these for Him. Then he cut them into halves and laid each half opposite its corresponding piece. However, he did not cut the birds into halves. <sup>11</sup> When birds of prey came down on the carcasses, Abram frightened them away. <sup>12</sup> While the sun was going down, Abram fell into a deep sleep, and then a dreadful, deep darkness came over Abram.

<sup>13</sup> God told Abram: "You should know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a country that is not their own, where they will serve them as slaves! They will subdue them for four hundred years. <sup>14</sup> However, I shall also judge the nation whom they serve, and after that they will leave with many possessions. <sup>15</sup> You yourself will go to your fathers in peace. You will be buried at a good old age. <sup>16</sup> The fourth generation will come back here. For the iniquity of the Amorites has not yet reached its full measure."

<sup>17</sup> After the sun had gone down and it was dark, a smoking fire-pot and a flaming torch appeared and passed between those pieces. <sup>18</sup> On that day, the LORD made a Covenant with Abram. He said: "I have given this land to your descendants, from the river of Egypt as far as the great river, the river Euphrates, <sup>19</sup> where the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, <sup>20</sup> the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaites, <sup>21</sup> the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites and the Jebusites are."

16

The birth of Abram's son Ishmael from his maidservant Hagar

<sup>1</sup> Abram's wife Sarai had not borne him any children. However, she had an Egyptian maidservant, whose name was Hagar. <sup>2</sup> So, Sarai told Abram, "Look! Since the LORD has prevented me from bearing children, please cohabit with my maid! Perhaps I shall get a child from her."

Abram agreed to what Sarai had told him. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, after Abram had been living in Canaan for ten years, Sarai, Abram's wife, took her Egyptian maidservant Hagar and gave her to her husband, Abram, to be his wife. <sup>4</sup> He cohabited with Hagar, and she became pregnant. When she knew that she was pregnant, she despised her mistress. <sup>5</sup> Then Sarai told Abram: "You are responsible for the wrong that I am suffering. I put my maidservant into your embrace, and, now that she has seen that she is pregnant, she despises me. May the LORD judge between you and me!"

<sup>6</sup> Abram told Sarai: "Look! Your maidservant is under your control. Do to her what you think is best!" Then Sarai humiliated her, so that she ran away from her. <sup>7</sup> However, the Angel of the LORD found her at a spring of water in the wilderness. It was the spring on the road to Shur. <sup>8</sup> He said, "Hagar, Sarai's maidservant, where have you come from and where are you going?"

She answered, "I am running away from my mistress Sarai."

<sup>9</sup> The Angel of the LORD told her, "Go back to your mistress and submit yourself to her control!" <sup>10</sup> The Angel of the LORD also told her, "I shall indeed give you so many descendants that they will be too many to be counted."

<sup>11</sup> The Angel of the LORD also told her: "Look! You are pregnant. You will have a son and you shall name him 'Ishmael'!" <sup>9</sup> For the LORD has heard about your affliction. <sup>12</sup> He will be a wild donkey of a man. His hand will be against everyone, else and everyone else's hand will be against him. He will live in opposition to all his relatives."

<sup>13</sup> She gave the name "El-Roi"*<sup>10</sup> to the LORD, who had been talking to her. For, she said, "Have I, even here, seen the back of Him who is looking after me?"

<sup>14</sup> That is why the well has been called, "Beer-Lahai-Roi."*<sup>11</sup> It is there, between Kadesh and Bered.

<sup>15</sup> Hagar bore Abram a son and Abram named his son, to whom Hagar had given birth, "Ishmael." <sup>16</sup> Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

17

God's fifth promise to Abram, followed by circumcision — Exodus 12:43-13:2.

<sup>1</sup> When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram and told him: "I am God Almighty. Live in My presence and be blameless! <sup>2</sup> I shall make My Covenant between Me and you and shall give you very many descendants."

<sup>3</sup> Abram fell face-down, and God spoke to him:

<sup>4</sup> "This is My very own Covenant with you. You will be the father of many nations. <sup>5</sup> You will not be called 'Abram' any longer, but your name will be 'Abraham,'*<sup>12</sup> because I have made you a father of many nations.

<sup>6</sup> I shall make you extremely fruitful, I shall make nations of you and kings will come from you.

<sup>7</sup> I shall establish My Covenant between Me and you and your descendants after you for generations to come. It will be an everlasting Covenant, that I may be your God and the God of your descendants after you. <sup>8</sup> I shall also give you and your descendants after you the land in which you are living as a stranger, all the land of Canaan, as their property for ever. I shall also be their God."

<sup>9</sup> Then God told Abraham: "You shall keep My Covenant, you and your descendants after you in their generations! <sup>10</sup> This is My Covenant, which you shall keep, between Me, your people and your descendants after you: Every male among you must be circumcised! <sup>11</sup> You shall have yourselves circumcised in the flesh of your foreskins, and that will be the mark of the Covenant between Me and you! <sup>12</sup> When any boy among you is eight days old, he shall be circumcised, every male in your coming generations, whether he is born in the household or purchased with money from any foreigner who is not one of your descendants! <sup>13</sup> Every boy born in your household or purchased with your money shall certainly be circumcised, that My Covenant in your flesh may be an everlasting Covenant! <sup>14</sup> If any male is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that person shall be cut off from his people! He has broken My Covenant."

The promise of Isaac's birth

<sup>15</sup> God also told Abraham: "As for your wife Sarai, you shall not call her 'Sarai,' but her name shall be 'Sarah'!*<sup>13</sup> <sup>16</sup> I shall bless her and have also given you a son from her. I shall bless her, and she will become the mother of nations. Kings of peoples will come from her."

<sup>9</sup> Ishmael means, "God hears."

<sup>10</sup> El-Roi means, "God sees me."

<sup>11</sup> Beer-Lahai-Roi means, "Well of the Living One, who sees me."

<sup>12</sup> Abram means, "High father" and Abraham means, "Father of many."

<sup>13</sup> Sarah means, "Princess."

<sup>17</sup> Abraham fell face-down and laughed. He asked himself. “Will a son be born to a man when he is a hundred years old? Or will Sarah have a child when she is ninety?”

<sup>18</sup> Then Abraham told God, “If only Ishmael might live in Your presence!”

<sup>19</sup> God said: “On the contrary! Your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you shall name him ‘Isaac’!<sup>14</sup> I shall establish My Covenant with him as an everlasting Covenant with his descendants after him. <sup>20</sup> I have heard you also concerning Ishmael. Look! I have blessed him and shall make him fruitful. I shall make him exceedingly many. He will be the father of twelve princes, and I shall make him into a great nation. <sup>21</sup> Nevertheless, I shall establish My Covenant with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this fixed time next year.”

<sup>22</sup> When God had finished speaking to Abraham, He went up from him.

The circumcision of Abraham’s household

<sup>23</sup> Abraham took his son Ishmael, every slave who had been born in his household and everyone whom he had bought with his money, every male among the men of Abraham’s household and circumcised the flesh of their foreskins on that very day, as God had told him. <sup>24</sup> Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>25</sup> His son Ishmael was thirteen when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>26</sup> On that very same day, Abraham and his son Ishmael were circumcised. <sup>27</sup> All the men of his household, the slaves who had been born in the household and those who had been bought with money from a foreigner were circumcised with him.

18

Abraham’s hospitality to visitors, God’s sixth promise to Abraham and the promise of a son — Hebrews 13:2

<sup>1</sup> The LORD appeared to Abraham beside the large trees of Mamre when he was sitting at the entrance of his tent in the heat of the day. <sup>2</sup> When Abraham looked up, he suddenly saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of his tent to meet them and bowed down to the ground.

<sup>3</sup> Abraham said: “My Lord, if I have now found favour in Your sight, please do not pass Your servant by! <sup>4</sup> Please let a little water be brought! Wash your feet and rest yourselves under the tree! <sup>5</sup> Let me bring some bread! Then you may refresh yourselves. After that you may go on your way, since this is why you have come to your servant.”

They answered, “Do as you have said!”

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, Abraham hurried to Sarah in the tent. He said, “Quickly, get seven litres of fine flour, knead it and make some bread-cakes!”

<sup>7</sup> Then Abraham ran to the herd, took a calf that was tender and good and gave it to his servant, who quickly prepared it. <sup>8</sup> He also took curds and milk as well as the calf that he had prepared and set these before them. Then he stood beside them under the tree while they ate.

<sup>9</sup> They asked him, “Where is your wife, Sarah?” He answered, “There, in the tent.”

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD said, “I shall surely return to you about this time next year and, indeed, your wife Sarah will have a son.”

Sarah was listening at the entrance to the tent, which was behind Him. <sup>11</sup> Abraham and Sarah were old and well advanced in years, and Sarah was past the age of childbearing. <sup>12</sup> Sarah laughed to herself, thinking, “Now that I am worn out, shall I have pleasure? What is more, my lord is old.”

<sup>13</sup> The LORD asked Abraham: “Why has Sarah laughed and asked, ‘Shall I really bear a child now that I am old?’ <sup>14</sup> Is anything too difficult for the LORD? When I come back to you about this time next year, Sarah will have a son.”

<sup>15</sup> Sarah denied it, saying, “I did not laugh.”

For she was afraid. However, He said, “Not so, but you did laugh.”

God’s disclosure of His plan to destroy Sodom

<sup>16</sup> When the men stood up to leave, they looked down toward Sodom and Abraham kept walking along with them to send them on their way. <sup>17</sup> The LORD said: “Should I hide from Abraham what I am going to do, <sup>18</sup> since Abraham will certainly become a great and powerful nation, and all nations of the earth will be blessed in him? <sup>19</sup> For I have chosen him, that he may command his children and his family after him to keep the Way of the LORD by doing what is right and just, that the LORD may bring about for Abraham what He has promised about him.”

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD said: “The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is certainly great, and their sin is very serious. <sup>21</sup> I shall go down and see whether everything that they have been doing is entirely as bad as the outcry that has come to Me against them. If not, I shall know it.”

<sup>22</sup> Then the men turned away from there and went on toward Sodom, but Abraham remained standing before the LORD.

Abraham’s intercession for Sodom

<sup>23</sup> Abraham came closer and asked: “Will You really sweep away the innocent person with the guilty person? <sup>24</sup> Suppose there are fifty innocent people in the city. Will You really sweep them away? Will You not spare the place for the sake of the fifty innocent people who are in it? <sup>25</sup> Far be it from You to do such a thing, to kill the innocent person with the guilty person and treat the innocent person and the guilty person alike! Far be it from You! Will not the Judge of the entire earth do what is just?”

<sup>26</sup> The LORD said, “If at Sodom I find fifty innocent

<sup>14</sup> Isaac means, “He laughs.”

people in the city, I shall spare the whole place for their sake.”

<sup>27</sup> Abraham answered: “Indeed now, although I am only dust and ashes, I have taken it on myself to speak to the LORD: <sup>28</sup> Suppose there are five fewer than fifty innocent people? Will You destroy the whole city because of the five?”

He said, “I shall not destroy it if I find forty-five there.”

<sup>29</sup> Abraham spoke to Him yet again, “Suppose only forty are found there?”

He answered, “I shall not do it for the sake of forty.”

<sup>30</sup> Then he said, “Please let the Lord not be angry but let me speak! Suppose thirty are found there?”

He answered, “I shall not do it if I find thirty there.”

<sup>31</sup> He said, “Indeed now, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Lord. Suppose twenty are found there?”

He answered, “I shall not destroy it for the sake of the twenty.”

<sup>32</sup> He said, “Please let the Lord not be angry, but let me speak just once more! Suppose only ten are found there?”

He answered, “I shall not destroy it for the sake of the ten.”

<sup>33</sup> When the LORD had finished speaking to Abraham, He left, and Abraham returned home.

19

The wickedness of the people of Sodom and their assault on Lot's guests

<sup>1</sup> The two angels arrived at Sodom in the evening, while Lot was sitting in the gateway of Sodom. When Lot saw them, he got up to meet them and bowed down with his face toward the ground. <sup>2</sup> He said, “Please, my masters, please turn in at your servant's home and spend the night! Wash your feet! Then you may get up early and go on your way.”

However, they said, “No! We shall spend the night in the open square.”

<sup>3</sup> Nevertheless, he urged them very strongly so that they turned in with him. They went into his home, and he prepared a dinner for them. He baked bread without yeast, and they ate it. <sup>4</sup> Before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, both old and young, all the people to the last man, surrounded the house. <sup>5</sup> They called to Lot and asked him, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us that we may have intercourse with them!”

<sup>6</sup> Lot went out to them at the doorway and shut the door behind him. <sup>7</sup> He said: “Please, my friends, do not behave wickedly! <sup>8</sup> Please look! I have two daughters who have never slept with a man. Please let me bring them out to you! Do whatever you like with them! Only do not do anything to these men! For this is the reason why they have come under the protection of my roof.”

<sup>9</sup> However, they replied, “Stand farther back!” Then they said: “This one man has come here as a foreigner and has continually been acting as a judge! We shall treat you more wickedly than those men.”

Then they urged Lot very strongly and moved closer to break down the door. <sup>10</sup> However, the men inside reached out their hands, pulled Lot towards them into the house and shut the door. <sup>11</sup> They struck the men in front of the door of the house, both young and old, with dazzling light, so that they gave up trying to find the door.

Lot's rescue from Sodom and the destruction of the cities on the plain — Matthew 11:23-24, Luke 17:28-32

<sup>12</sup> Then the men asked Lot: “Have you anyone else here, a son-in-law, your sons, your daughters or anyone else whom you have in the city? Take them out of the place! <sup>13</sup> For we are about to destroy this place. For their outcry has become so loud in the presence of the LORD that the LORD has sent us to destroy it.”

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were to marry his daughters. He said: “Get up! Come out of this place! For the LORD is about to destroy the city!”

However, his sons-in-law thought that he was joking.

<sup>15</sup> When the morning dawned, the angels urged Lot. They said: “Get up! Take your wife and your two daughters, who are here, that you may not be swept away when the city is punished!”

<sup>16</sup> When he kept delaying, the men took him by the hand and took his wife by her hand and his two daughters by their hands, because the LORD was sparing him. Then they brought him out and set him outside of the city. <sup>17</sup> After they had brought them outside, one said: “Get yourselves to safety for the sake of your lives! Do not look behind and do not stop anywhere in the plain! Get to the hills for safety, that you may not be swept away!”

<sup>18</sup> However, Lot told them: “No, my masters, please!

<sup>19</sup> Please consider! Your servant has found favour in your sight, and You have been very kind to me by saving my life. However, I cannot get myself safely to the hill-country. Otherwise, the calamity will overtake me, and I shall die. <sup>20</sup> Please look! This city is near enough to flee to and is a modest one. Please let me get myself there for safety! Is it not a modest one? Then I shall stay alive.”

<sup>21</sup> He told him: “See! I have been favourable to you also in this matter. I shall not overthrow the city about which you have spoken. <sup>22</sup> Hurry! Get yourself there safely! For I cannot do anything until you arrive there.”

That is why the town was named “Zoar.”*<sup>15</sup> <sup>23</sup> The sun had risen over the country when Lot arrived at Zoar.

<sup>24</sup> Then the LORD rained sulphur and fire on Sodom and Gomorrah, from the LORD out of heaven. <sup>25</sup> He overthrew those cities, the whole plain, all who were living in the cities and what was growing on the ground. <sup>26</sup> However, Lot's wife looked back and turned into a pillar of salt.

<sup>15</sup> Zoar means, “Little.”

<sup>27</sup> Early in the morning Abraham got up and went to the place where he had stood before the LORD.

<sup>28</sup> When he looked down towards Sodom and Gomorrah and over the entire land of the plain, he saw that the smoke of the land went up like the smoke of a furnace. <sup>29</sup> In this way, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, He remembered Abraham and brought Lot out of the destruction when He overthrew the cities where Lot had been living.

The birth of two sons of Lot by his own daughters, the origin of the Moabites and the Ammonites

<sup>30</sup> However, Lot went up out of Zoar and settled in the hill-country with his two daughters, because he was afraid to live in Zoar and lived in a cave with his two daughters. <sup>31</sup> The first-born told the younger one: "Our father is old, and there is no man in the country to marry us as is the custom all over the earth.

<sup>32</sup> Come! Let us give our father a drink of wine, that we may sleep with him, that we may preserve descendants from our father!"

<sup>33</sup> Therefore, that night they gave their father wine to drink, and the elder daughter went in and lay down with her father. He did not know when she lay down or when she got up. <sup>34</sup> The next day the elder daughter told the younger: "Yesterday evening I slept with my father. Let us make him drink wine tonight too! Then you go and sleep with him, that we may preserve descendants from our father!"

<sup>35</sup> Therefore, they gave their father wine to drink that night too. The younger daughter went and slept with him. He did not know when she lay down or when she got up. <sup>36</sup> Lot's two daughters became pregnant from their own father. <sup>37</sup> The first-born gave birth to a son and named him "Moab."<sup>16</sup> He is the ancestor of the Moabites of today. <sup>38</sup> The younger daughter also gave birth to a son and named him "Ben-Ammi."<sup>17</sup> He is the ancestor of the Ammonites of today.

20

Abraham's deception of Abimelech — compare similar incidents, Genesis 12:10-20, 26:1-11

<sup>1</sup> Abraham left from there, moved to the country of the Negev and lived between Kadesh and Shur. He stayed as a foreigner in Gerar. <sup>2</sup> Abraham said about his wife Sarah, "She is my sister."

Then Abimelech, the king of Gerar, sent some men and took Sarah away. <sup>3</sup> However, God came to Abimelech in a dream during the night and told him, "Look! You are as good as dead because of the woman whom you have taken. She is a man's wife."

<sup>4</sup> However, Abimelech had not yet come near her. He asked: "LORD, will You kill a nation even if it is innocent? <sup>5</sup> Did he not tell me himself, 'She is my sister,' and did not she herself say, 'He is my brother'? I have done this in good faith and with innocent hands."

<sup>6</sup> Then God told him in the dream: "Yes, I know that you have done this in good faith. I Myself have also held you back from sinning against Me. That is why I have not allowed you to touch her. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore, give the man's wife back to him, because he is a prophet, that he may pray for you! So, save your life! However, if you do not give her back, be aware that you and all who belong to you will certainly die!"

<sup>8</sup> Abimelech got up early in the morning and summoned all his officials. When the men heard him tell them all about this, they were very afraid. <sup>9</sup> Then Abimelech summoned Abraham. He asked him: "What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought a serious sin on me and on my kingdom? You have done things to me that should not be done."

<sup>10</sup> Abimelech also asked Abraham, "What did you have in mind when you did this?"

<sup>11</sup> Abraham said: "I did it because I thought, 'Nobody fears God at all in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.' <sup>12</sup> Besides, she truly is my sister, the daughter of my father, although not of my mother, and she became my wife. <sup>13</sup> When God made me wander from my father's home, I told her, 'This is the favour that you should do to me: Whenever we come to any place, say about me, 'He is my brother!''"

<sup>14</sup> Then Abimelech took sheep, cattle, men-servants and maidservants, gave them to Abraham and gave his wife Sarah back to him. <sup>15</sup> Abimelech said: "Look! My country is open to you. Live wherever you please!"

<sup>16</sup> Then he told Sarah: "Look! I have given your brother a thousand shekels of silver. See! That is a declaration to all who are with you and to everyone else that your honour is unblemished, and before everyone you will be completely in the right."

<sup>17</sup> Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, his wife and his maidservants, so that they could have children. <sup>18</sup> For the LORD had closed every womb in Abimelech's household because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

21

The birth of Isaac — Hebrews 11:11

<sup>1</sup> The LORD came to help Sarah as He had said, and the LORD did for Sarah what He had promised.

<sup>2</sup> Sarah became pregnant and gave birth to a son for Abraham in his old age at the exact time that God had promised him. <sup>3</sup> Abraham named his new-born son, whom Sarah had borne to him, "Isaac."<sup>18</sup> <sup>4</sup> Abraham circumcised his son Isaac on the eighth day, as God had commanded him. <sup>5</sup> Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him. <sup>6</sup> Sarah said, "God has brought me laughter, and everyone who hears about this will laugh with me." <sup>7</sup> She also said: "Who would ever have told Abraham, 'Sarah has

<sup>16</sup> Moab sounds like "From a father."

<sup>17</sup> Ben-Ammi means, "Son of my own people."

<sup>18</sup> Isaac means, "He laughs" (cf. Gn 17:17, 18:12-14).

suckled children'? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age."

The sending away of Hagar and Ishmael and God's protection of them — Galatians 4:21-30

<sup>8</sup> The child grew and was weaned. On the day when Isaac was weaned, Abraham made a big feast. <sup>9</sup> Sarah saw that the son of the Egyptian Hagar, whom she had borne to Abraham, was mocking. <sup>10</sup> She told Abraham, "Get rid of this slave-woman and her son! For this slave-woman's son will not share the inheritance with my son Isaac."

<sup>11</sup> Abraham was very distressed about this, because his son was involved. <sup>12</sup> However, God told Abraham: "Do not be distressed about the boy or about your slave-woman! Comply with everything that Sarah is telling you! For it is through Isaac that your offspring will be named." <sup>13</sup> I shall also make the slave-woman's son into a nation, because he is your offspring."

<sup>14</sup> Abraham got up early the next morning, took some bread and a skin containing water and gave them to Hagar. He put them on her shoulder, gave the boy to her and sent her away. So, she left and wandered around in the Wilderness of Beer-Sheba. <sup>15</sup> When the water in the container was used up, she put the boy under one of the bushes. <sup>16</sup> Then she went a good way off, about as far away as an arrow can be shot, and sat down by herself. For she thought, "I do not want to watch the boy die."

So, she sat down opposite him and wept aloud. <sup>17</sup> God heard the boy's voice, and the Angel of God called to Hagar from heaven. He asked her: "What is the matter, Hagar? Do not be afraid! For God has heard the boy's voice from where he is lying. <sup>18</sup> Get up! Lift the boy up and take hold of him with your hand! For I shall make him into a great nation."

<sup>19</sup> Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went, filled the container with water and gave the boy a drink. <sup>20</sup> God was with the boy. He grew up, lived in the wilderness and became an archer. <sup>21</sup> He lived in the Wilderness of Paran, and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

Abraham's treaty with Abimelech

<sup>22</sup> At that time Abimelech and Phicol, the general of his army, told Abraham: "God is with you in everything that you are doing. <sup>23</sup> Now therefore, swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me, with my children or with my descendants but treat me and the country in which you have been residing as a foreigner as kindly as I have been treating you!"

<sup>24</sup> Abraham said, "I swear it."

<sup>25</sup> Then Abraham began to rebuke Abimelech about a well of water that Abimelech's servants had seized.

<sup>26</sup> Abimelech answered, "I do not know who has done this. You have neither told me about it, nor have I heard about it until today."

<sup>27</sup> Abraham took some sheep and cattle and gave them to Abimelech, and the two of them made a treaty.

<sup>28</sup> Then Abraham put seven young ewe-lambs of the flock to one side by themselves.

<sup>29</sup> Abimelech asked Abraham, "What is the meaning of these seven ewe-lambs, which you have put to one side by themselves?"

<sup>30</sup> He replied, "You will accept these seven ewe-lambs from my hand, that you may be my witness that I have dug this well."

<sup>31</sup> Therefore, he called that place "Beer-Sheba,"<sup>19</sup> because the two of them swore an oath there. <sup>32</sup> After they had made a treaty at Beer-Sheba, Abimelech and Phicol, the general of his army, left to go back to the land of the Philistines. <sup>33</sup> Abraham planted a tamarisk tree at Beer-Sheba and there he called on the name of the LORD, the everlasting God. <sup>34</sup> Abraham resided for a long time as a foreigner in the land of the Philistines.

22

God's testing of Abraham's faith — Hebrews 11:17-19

<sup>1</sup> After these things, God tested Abraham. God said to him, "Abraham!"

He replied, "Here I am."

<sup>2</sup> God said: "Take your son, your only son, Isaac, whom you love, and go to the region of Moriah! Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I shall point out to you!"

<sup>3</sup> Abraham got up early the next morning and saddled his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. He cut the wood for the burnt offering. Then he got up and started out for the place about which God had told him. <sup>4</sup> On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. <sup>5</sup> Then Abraham told his servants: "Stay here with the donkey and let the lad and me go over there, that we may worship! Then we shall come back to you."

<sup>6</sup> Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac and he himself carried the burning coals and the knife. The two of them went on together. <sup>7</sup> Then Isaac said to his father Abraham, "Father!"

Abraham said, "Here I am, my son."

Then Isaac said, "Look! We have the fire and the wood where is the lamb for a burnt offering?"

<sup>8</sup> Abraham answered, "God will provide Himself with a lamb for the burnt offering, my son."

The two of them went on together. <sup>9</sup> When they reached the place about which God had told him, Abraham built the altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he tied up his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. <sup>10</sup> Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.

<sup>11</sup> However, the Angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said: "Abraham! Abraham!"

He replied, "Here I am."

<sup>12</sup> He said: "Do not lay your hand on the boy! Do not do anything to him! For I know now that you fear God. You have not withheld your son, your only son, from Me.”

<sup>19</sup> Beer-Sheba means, "Well of an oath."

<sup>13</sup> When Abraham looked up, he saw behind him a ram caught by his horns in the thicket. So, Abraham went, took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son. <sup>14</sup> Abraham named that place “The LORD Will Provide.” It is still said today, “On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided.”

God's seventh promise to Abraham

<sup>15</sup> The Angel of the LORD called to Abraham from heaven a second time. <sup>16</sup> He said: “I have sworn an oath by Myself,” declares the LORD, ‘that, because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your only son, <sup>17</sup> I shall certainly bless you. I shall certainly also make your descendants as many as the stars in the sky and as the sand on the seashore. Your descendants will possess the city-gates of their enemies. <sup>18</sup> In your Descendant all the nations of the earth will be blessed, because you have listened to what I have said.’”

<sup>19</sup> Abraham went back to his men-servants, and they set out and went together to Beer-Sheba. Then Abraham lived at Beer-Sheba.

The family of Nahor

<sup>20</sup> After this, Abraham was told: “Milcah has also given birth to children to your brother Nahor: <sup>21</sup> his first-born Uz, his brother Buz, Kemuel (the father of Aram), <sup>22</sup> Kesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph and Bethuel.” <sup>23</sup> Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. Milcah bore these eight sons to Nahor, Abraham’s brother. <sup>24</sup> Nahor’s concubine, whose name was Reumah, also gave birth to Tebah, Gaham, Tahash and Maacah.

23

The death and burial of Sarah

<sup>1</sup> Sarah lived for one hundred and twenty-seven years. That was the length of Sarah’s life. <sup>2</sup> Sarah died at Kiriath-Arba, which is Hebron, in the land of Canaan, and Abraham went in to mourn for Sarah and to weep over her. <sup>3</sup> Then Abraham left the side of his dead wife and spoke to the Hittites. He said, <sup>4</sup> “I am a sojourner and a foreigner among you. Sell me property for a burial place in your country, that I may take my dead wife away and bury her!”

<sup>5</sup> The Hittites answered Abraham, <sup>6</sup> “Listen to us, my master! You are a prince of God among us. Bury your dead wife in the best of our burial places! None of us will refuse to let you bury your dead wife in his burial place.”

<sup>7</sup> Abraham stood up and then bowed down before the people of the land, the Hittites. <sup>8</sup> He told them: “If you are willing to let me take my dead wife away and bury her, then listen to me! Intercede with Ephron, the son of Zohar, on my behalf, <sup>9</sup> that he may let me have the cave of Machpelah, which belongs to him! It is at the edge of his field. Let him give it to me in your presence for its full price as a property for a burial place in your country!”

<sup>10</sup> Ephron was sitting among the Hittites. Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham while all the Hittites who had come to the gate of his city were listening:

<sup>11</sup> “No, my master! Listen to me! I am herewith giving you the field and am giving you the cave that is in it. I am giving it to you in the presence of my kinsmen. Bury your dead wife!”

<sup>12</sup> Abraham bowed down before the people of the land. <sup>13</sup> He told Ephron, while the people of the country were listening: “However, if you are willing, if only you might listen to me! I am herewith paying you the price of the field. Accept it from me! Then I shall bury my dead wife there.”

<sup>14</sup> Ephron answered Abraham, <sup>15</sup> “My master, listen to me! The land is worth four kilograms and eight hundred grams of silver. What is that between you and me? So, bury your dead wife!”

<sup>16</sup> Abraham agreed to Ephron’s terms. Abraham weighed out for Ephron the price that he had stated while the Hittites were listening: four kilograms and eight hundred grams of silver, at the current weight among the merchants. <sup>17</sup> So, the field of Ephron, which was at Machpelah near Mamre, the field with the cave in it and all the trees that were in the field inside its entire boundary were purchased <sup>18</sup> by Abraham. They became his property in the presence of all the Hittites who had come to the gate of Ephron’s city.

<sup>19</sup> After this, Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre, which is Hebron, in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup> So, the field and the cave in it, which had once belonged to the Hittites, were deeded to Abraham as his property for a burial place.

24

Abraham's instructions to his servant about a wife for Isaac

<sup>1</sup> Abraham was old and well advanced in age, and the LORD had blessed Abraham in every way. <sup>2</sup> Abraham told the oldest servant of his household, who was managing everything that he owned: “Please put your hand under my thigh, <sup>3</sup> that I may make you swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of the earth, that you will not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites among whom I am living!

<sup>4</sup> Rather, swear that you will go to my country and my own relatives and get a wife for my son Isaac!”

<sup>5</sup> The servant asked him: “What if the woman is not willing to come away with me to this country? Should I without fail take your son back to the country from which you have come?”

<sup>6</sup> Abraham told him: “Be careful that you do not take my son back there! <sup>7</sup> The LORD, the God of heaven, who has taken me from my father’s home and the land of my relatives, who has spoken to me and who has sworn to me, ‘I shall give this land to your descendants,’ will send His angel ahead of you, and you shall get a wife for my son from there! <sup>8</sup> However, if the woman is not willing to come back with you, you will not be bound any longer by what you swear to me here. You shall simply not take my son back there!”

Abraham's servant's journey to Haran to find a wife for Isaac

<sup>9</sup> The servant put his hand under the thigh of his master Abraham and swore an oath to him about this matter. <sup>10</sup> Then the servant took ten of his masters' camels and left. He also took all kinds of his masters' valuable articles with him. He set out and went to the city of Nahor in Mesopotamia. <sup>11</sup> He made the camels kneel outside of the city near a well. It was in the evening, at the time when women go out to draw water. <sup>12</sup> Then he said: “O LORD, the God of my master Abraham, please give me success today and be kind to my master Abraham! <sup>13</sup> See! I am standing beside this spring of water and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. <sup>14</sup> Let it be so that the girl is the one, who, when I ask her, ‘Please tilt your jar for me, that I may have a drink,’ replies, ‘Drink, and I shall also give your camels a drink!’ Let her be the one whom You have assigned for Your servant Isaac! This is how I shall know that You have been kind to my master.”

<sup>15</sup> Before he had finished speaking, there was Rebekah coming out. She was the daughter of Bethuel, the son of Milcah, who was the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother. She had her jar on her shoulder. <sup>16</sup> The young woman had a very beautiful figure. She was a virgin. No man had slept with her. She went down to the spring, filled her jar and came up again. <sup>17</sup> Then the servant ran to meet her and asked her: “Please, let me sip a little water from your jar!”

<sup>18</sup> She said, “Drink, my master!”

She quickly lowered her jar to her hand and gave him a drink. <sup>19</sup> After she had finished giving him a drink, she said, “I shall also keep drawing water for your camels, until they have finished drinking.”

<sup>20</sup> She quickly emptied out her jar into the watering-trough, ran back to the well to draw more water and drew enough for all his camels. <sup>21</sup> The man was standing gazing at her silently, to find out whether the LORD had made his journey successful or not. <sup>22</sup> When the camels had finished drinking, the man took out a golden nose-ring weighing six grams and two golden bracelets weighing one hundred and twenty grams for her wrists. <sup>23</sup> Then he asked, “Whose daughter are you? Please tell me! Is there room in your father's house for us to spend the night?”

<sup>24</sup> She answered him: “I am the daughter of Bethuel, who is the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.”

<sup>25</sup> She also told him, “We have plenty of straw and other fodder and also a place to spend the night.”

<sup>26</sup> The man knelt and worshipped the LORD. <sup>27</sup> He said: “Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham! He has not failed to be merciful and faithful to my master. As for me, the LORD has led me on the journey to the home of my master's relatives.”

<sup>28</sup> The young woman ran and told her mother's household about these things. <sup>29</sup> Rebekah had a brother whose name was Laban. Laban ran outside to the man at the spring. <sup>30</sup> When he had seen the nose-ring and the bracelets on his sister's wrists and had heard his sister Rebekah tell what the man had told her, he went to the man. There he was, standing with the camels beside the spring. <sup>31</sup> He said: “Come in, you whom the LORD has blessed! Why are you standing outside? I have made room in the house and cleared up a place for the camels.”

<sup>32</sup> So, the man went to the house, unsaddled the camels, gave them straw and other fodder and gave him water to wash his feet and for the feet of the men who were with him. <sup>33</sup> However, when food was set before him, he said, “I shall not eat until I have told you what I have to say.”

Laban said, “Speak on!”

<sup>34</sup> He said: “I am Abraham's servant. <sup>35</sup> The LORD has richly blessed my master, and he has become wealthy. He has given him sheep and cattle, silver and gold, men-servants and women-servants and camels and donkeys. <sup>36</sup> Sarah, my master's wife, bore a son to my master after she had grown old, and my master has given him everything that he owns. <sup>37</sup> My master has made me swear, ‘You shall not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose country I am living! <sup>38</sup> Instead, you shall go to my father's family and my relatives and get a wife for my son!’ <sup>39</sup> I asked my master, ‘What if the woman will not come with me?’ <sup>40</sup> He answered me, ‘The LORD, before whom I have been living, will send His angel with you. He will make your journey successful, and you shall get my son a wife from my relatives and from my father's family! <sup>41</sup> Then you will be released from the obligation of my oath. After you go to my relatives, even if they do not give anyone to you, you will be free from the obligation of your oath to me.’

<sup>42</sup> When I came to the spring today, I prayed: ‘LORD, God of my master Abraham, please, if You are really granting success to my errand, on which I am coming, <sup>43</sup> look! I am standing beside the spring of water. When the virgin comes out to draw water, and I tell her, ‘Please give me a little water to drink from your jar!’ <sup>44</sup> and she tells me, ‘Not only may you have a drink, but I shall also draw water for your camels,’ let her be the woman whom the LORD has assigned for my master's son!’ <sup>45</sup> I had not yet finished saying this in my heart when there was Rebekah coming out with her jar on her shoulder. She went down to the spring and drew water. I asked her, ‘Please, give me a drink!’ <sup>46</sup> She quickly let down her jar from her shoulder and said, ‘Have a drink! I shall also give your camels a drink.’ Therefore, I had a drink and she also gave the camels a drink. <sup>47</sup> Then I asked her, ‘Whose daughter are you?’ She answered, ‘The daughter of Bethuel, the son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him.' Then I put the ring in her nose and the bracelets on her wrists. <sup>48</sup> I knelt and worshipped the LORD. I blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who led me on the right way to get the daughter of my master's relative for his son. <sup>49</sup> So now, tell me whether you intend to treat my master with true kindness, and, if not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand or to the left!"

<sup>50</sup> Laban and Bethuel answered: "The thing has come from the LORD. We cannot say anything bad or anything good to you. <sup>51</sup> Here before you is Rebekah. Take her and go, and let her be the wife of your master's son, as the LORD has said!"

<sup>52</sup> When Abraham's servant heard what they said, he bowed down to the ground before the LORD. <sup>53</sup> Then the servant took out silver and gold jewellery and garments and gave them to Rebekah. He also gave expensive gifts to her brother and to her mother. <sup>54</sup> Then he and the men who were with him ate, drank and stayed overnight. When they got up in the morning, he said, "Send me on my way to my master!"

<sup>55</sup> Her brother and her mother said, "Let the young woman stay with us ten days or so! After that she may go."

<sup>56</sup> He told them, "Do not delay me! Now that the LORD has made my errand successful, send me on my way, that I may go to my master!"

<sup>57</sup> They said, "We shall call the young woman, that we may ask her personally."

<sup>58</sup> They called Rebekah and asked her, "Will you go with this man?"

She said, "I shall go."

<sup>59</sup> Therefore, they sent their sister Rebekah on her way, along with her nurse, Abraham's servant and his men. <sup>60</sup> They blessed Rebekah, saying to her: "Our sister, may you become the mother of ten million! May your descendants also take possession of the city-gates of those who hate them!"

<sup>61</sup> Rebekah and her maids started out. They rode on the camels and followed the man. So, the servant took Rebekah with him and left.

The marriage of Isaac and Rebekah

<sup>62</sup> Isaac had arrived back after he had come from Beer-Lahai-Roi and was living in the Negev. <sup>63</sup> Isaac had gone out into the field toward evening to meditate. When he looked up, there he saw camels approaching. <sup>64</sup> Rebekah also looked up and, when she saw Isaac, she dismounted from her camel. <sup>65</sup> She asked the servant, "Who is the man over there coming through the field to meet us?"

The servant answered, "That is my master."

Then she took her veil and covered herself. <sup>66</sup> The servant reported to Isaac everything that he had done.

<sup>67</sup> Isaac brought her into the tent of his mother Sarah. He married Rebekah. She became his wife, and he loved her. So, Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

25

Abraham's marriage to Keturah — 1 Chronicles 1:32-33

<sup>1</sup> Abraham married again, and his wife's name was Keturah. <sup>2</sup> She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah. <sup>3</sup> Jokshan became the father of Sheba and Dedan. The descendants of Dedan were the Asshurites, the Letushites and the Lemmites. <sup>4</sup> The descendants of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaah. All these were descendants of Keturah. <sup>5</sup> Abraham gave Isaac everything that he owned. <sup>6</sup> However, Abraham gave presents to the sons of the concubines that he had and while he was still living sent them away from his son Isaac to a land in the east.

The death of Abraham

<sup>7</sup> This was the span of the years of Abraham's life. He lived for one hundred and seventy-five years.

<sup>8</sup> Abraham breathed his last and died at a good old age. After a long and full life he was gathered to his people. <sup>9</sup> His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, which is near Mamre, in the field of Ephron, the son of Zohar the Hittite. <sup>10</sup> It was the field that Abraham had bought from the Hittites. Abraham was buried there with his wife Sarah. <sup>11</sup> After Abraham died, God blessed his son Isaac. Isaac lived at Beer Lahai-Roi.

<sup>12</sup> This is the family record of Ishmael, the son of Abraham, whom Hagar, Sarah's Egyptian maidservant, bore to Abraham.

Ishmael's descendants — 1 Chronicles 1:29-31

<sup>13</sup> These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, listed in the order of their birth: The first-born of Ishmael was Nebaioth, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, <sup>14</sup> Mishma, Dumah, Massa, <sup>15</sup> Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah. <sup>16</sup> These were the sons of Ishmael and these were their names according to their settlements and camps. There were twelve leaders of their tribes. <sup>17</sup> Altogether, Ishmael lived for one hundred and thirty-seven years. He breathed his last, died and was gathered to his people. <sup>18</sup> His descendants lived in the area from Havilah to Shur, which is opposite Egypt, in the direction of Asshur. He settled over against all his relatives.

<sup>19</sup> This is the family-history of Isaac, Abraham's son.

The family-history of Isaac 25:19-26:34

The birth of the twins Esau and Jacob — Romans 9:10-12

<sup>19b</sup> Abraham became the father of Isaac. <sup>20</sup> Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah, the daughter of Bethuel, the Aramean from Paddan-Aram and the sister of Laban the Aramean. <sup>21</sup> Isaac pleaded with the LORD for his wife, because she was childless. The LORD granted his plea, and his wife Rebekah became pregnant. <sup>22</sup> When the babies inside her were pushing each other around, she said, "If it is like this, why am I like this?"

Therefore, she went to inquire of the LORD. <sup>23</sup> The LORD told her: “Two nations are in your womb. Two peoples will go their separate ways from your body. One people will be stronger than the other, and the older one will serve the younger one.”

<sup>24</sup> When her time was due for her to give birth, it was apparent that there were twins in her womb. <sup>25</sup> The first came out red. His whole body was like a hairy coat, and so they named him “Esau.”<sup>*20</sup> <sup>26</sup> After that, his brother came out, with his hand holding Esau’s heel, and so he was named “Jacob.”<sup>*21</sup> Isaac was sixty years old when Rebekah gave birth to them.

Esau’s contempt for his rights as the first-born — Hebrews 12:16

<sup>27</sup> When the boys grew up, Esau was an expert hunter, a man of the outdoors. However, Jacob was an orderly man, living in tents. <sup>28</sup> Isaac loved Esau because he liked to eat wild game, but Rebekah loved Jacob. <sup>29</sup> Once, when Jacob was boiling some food, Esau came in from the field, feeling exhausted. <sup>30</sup> Esau told Jacob, “Please let me gulp down some of the red food — this red food! For I am exhausted.”

That is why he was called “Edom.”

<sup>31</sup> Jacob answered, “First sell me your rights as the elder son!”

<sup>32</sup> Esau said, “Look! I am about to die. Then what good is a birth-right to me?”

<sup>33</sup> However, Jacob said, “Swear an oath to me first!”

Esau swore an oath to him and sold his rights as the first-born to Jacob. <sup>34</sup> Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and lentils that he had cooked. Esau ate and drank, and then got up and went away. In this way Esau showed contempt for his rights as the first-born.

26

God’s first promise to Isaac

<sup>1</sup> There was a famine in the land in addition to the earlier famine that had occurred in the time of Abraham and Isaac went to Abimelech, the king of the Philistines at Gerar. <sup>2</sup> The LORD appeared to Isaac. He said: “Do not go down to Egypt! Live in the land where I am telling you to live! <sup>3</sup> Live as a foreigner in this country! I shall be with you and bless you. For I shall give all these lands to you and your descendants and shall carry out the oath that I have sworn to your father Abraham. <sup>4</sup> I shall make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky. I shall give all these lands to your descendants and in your Descendant all the nations of the earth will be blessed.

<sup>5</sup> For Abraham listened to My voice and kept what I obligated him to do, My Commandments, My Prescriptions and My Laws.”

Isaac’s deception of Abimelech at Gerar — compare similar incidents Genesis 12:10-20, 20:1-18

<sup>6</sup> So, Isaac continued to live in Gerar. <sup>7</sup> When the men of the place asked him about his wife, he answered, “She is my sister.” For he was afraid to say, “She is my wife.” For he thought, “Otherwise the men of this place might kill me for the sake of Rebekah, because she has a beautiful figure.”

<sup>8</sup> When Isaac had been there for a long time, Abimelech, the king of the Philistines, looked down out of the window and saw Isaac fondling his wife Rebekah. <sup>9</sup> Abimelech summoned Isaac and said, “So, she is your wife! How then could you say, ‘She is my sister’?”

Isaac answered, “I thought, ‘Otherwise I might die because of her.’”

<sup>10</sup> Abimelech said: “What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have slept with your wife. Then you would have made us guilty of a wrong.”

<sup>11</sup> Abimelech gave orders to all the people: “Anyone who touches this man or his wife will certainly be put to death.”

Isaac’s struggle for peace and prosperity

<sup>12</sup> Isaac sowed a seed in that country and that year he harvested a hundred measures of grain, because the LORD had been blessing him. <sup>13</sup> The man became rich and kept on progressing and becoming richer, until he had become very wealthy. <sup>14</sup> He owned flocks and herds and had many servants, so that the Philistines envied him. <sup>15</sup> The Philistines had stopped up all the wells that his father’s servants had dug while Abraham was alive and had filled them with soil. <sup>16</sup> Abimelech told Isaac, “Move away from us! For you have become much mightier than we are.”

<sup>17</sup> So, Isaac moved away from there, camped in the Valley of Gerar and lived there. <sup>18</sup> Isaac dug out again the wells of water that they had dug during his father Abraham’s lifetime, because the Philistines had stopped them up after Abraham died. He gave them the same names as his father had given them. <sup>19</sup> Isaac’s servants dug in the valley and found a spring-fed well there. <sup>20</sup> However, the herdsmen of Gerar had a dispute with Isaac’s herdsmen, saying, “This water is ours!” So, Isaac named the well “Esek,”<sup>*22</sup> because they had quarrelled with him. <sup>21</sup> Then they dug another well but had a dispute over that one also. So, Isaac named it “Sitnah,”<sup>*23</sup> <sup>22</sup> He moved on from there and dug another well. When they did not have a dispute over that well, he named it “Rehoboth,”<sup>*24</sup> saying, “Surely now the LORD has provided wide room for us, that we may be fruitful in the land.”

God’s second promise to Isaac

<sup>23</sup> Then Isaac went up from there to Beer-Sheba. <sup>24</sup> The same night the LORD appeared to him and said: “I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid! For I am with you, I shall bless you and give you many descendants because of My servant

<sup>20</sup> Esau means, “Hairy.”

<sup>21</sup> Jacob means, “He grasps the heel.”

<sup>22</sup> Esek means, “Quarrel.”

<sup>23</sup> Sitnah means, “Hostility.”

<sup>24</sup> Rehoboth means, “Open places.”

Abraham.”

<sup>25</sup> Isaac built an altar there and called on the name of the LORD. Then Isaac pitched his tent there and his servants dug a well there.

Isaac's treaty with Abimelech

<sup>26</sup> Then Abimelech came to him from Gerar with his close friend Ahuzzath and Phicol, the commander of his army. <sup>27</sup> Isaac asked them, “Why have you come to me, since you hate me and have sent me away from you?”

<sup>28</sup> However, they said: “We have clearly seen that the LORD has been with you. So, we said, ‘There ought to be an obligation by an oath between you and us, which puts a curse on a transgressor.’ Therefore, let us make a treaty with you, <sup>29</sup> that you will not do any harm to us, as we on our part have not touched you and as we have been doing nothing but good to you! We have let you go away in peace. You are now blessed by the LORD.”

<sup>30</sup> Isaac made a feast for them, and they ate and drank.

<sup>31</sup> Early the next morning the men swore an oath to one another. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they parted from him in peace. <sup>32</sup> On that day Isaac’s servants came and informed him about the well that they had dug. They told him, “We have found water.”

<sup>33</sup> He called it “Shibah.” That is why the city is called “Beer-Sheba” to this day.

Esau's marriages to Hittite wives

<sup>34</sup> When Esau was forty years old, he married Judith, the daughter of Beerli the Hittite. He also married Basemath, the daughter of Elon the Hittite. <sup>35</sup> These women were a source of bitter grief to Isaac and Rebekah.

27

The family-history of Jacob 27:1-37:2

Jacob's deception of Isaac to obtain his blessing

<sup>1</sup> When Isaac was old, his eyesight became so dim that he could not see. He called Esau, his elder son and said to him, “My son!”

He answered him, “Yes, I am here.”

<sup>2</sup> Isaac said: “You see that I am old and do not know when I am going to die. <sup>3</sup> Now then, please get your weapons, your quiver and your bow, go out to the open country and hunt some game for me! <sup>4</sup> Then prepare for me the kind of delicious meal that I like! Bring it to me to eat, that I myself may give you my blessing before I die!”

<sup>5</sup> Rebekah was listening while Isaac was speaking to his son Esau. When Esau went to the open country to hunt some game and bring it back, <sup>6</sup> Rebekah told her son Jacob: “Look! I have just heard your father speaking to your brother Esau. He said, <sup>7</sup> ‘Fetch me some game and prepare a delicious meal for me to eat! Then I shall give you my blessing in the presence of the LORD before I die.’ <sup>8</sup> Now therefore, my son, obey me in what I am telling you to do! <sup>9</sup> Please, go to the flock and get me two choice young goats from there, that I may use them to prepare for your father the kind of delicious meal that he likes! <sup>10</sup> Then you shall take it to your father to eat, that he may give you his blessing before he dies!”

<sup>11</sup> However, Jacob answered his mother Rebekah: “Look! My brother Esau is a hairy man, and I am a man with a smooth skin. <sup>12</sup> What if my father feels me? He will think that I am mocking him. Then I shall bring a curse on myself instead of a blessing.”

<sup>13</sup> However, his mother told him, “Let your curse be on me, my son! Just do as I say! Go and get them for me!”

<sup>14</sup> He went, got them and brought them to his mother. His mother prepared the kind of delicious meal that his father liked. <sup>15</sup> Rebekah took her elder son Esau’s favourite clothes, which she had with her in the house, and put them on her younger son Jacob. <sup>16</sup> She also covered his hands and the hairless parts of his neck with pieces of skin from the young goats. <sup>17</sup> Then she put the delicious meat and the bread that she had prepared in the hands of her son Jacob. <sup>18</sup> He went in to his father and said, “My father!”

He said, “Yes, I am here. Who are you, my son?”

<sup>19</sup> Jacob told his father: “I am Esau, your first-born son. I have done as you told me. Please get up, take a seat and eat some of my game, that you may give me your blessing in person!”

<sup>20</sup> Isaac asked his son, “How did you find anything as quickly as this, my son?”

He answered, “Because the LORD, your God, ordained it for me.”

<sup>21</sup> Isaac told Jacob, “Please come closer, that I may feel you, my son, to see whether you really are my son Esau or not!”

<sup>22</sup> Jacob went closer to his father Isaac. He felt him and said, “The voice is Jacob’s, but the hands are Esau’s.”

However, he did not recognise him, because his hands were hairy like the hands of his brother Esau. That is why he blessed him.

<sup>24</sup> However, he asked, “Are you really my son Esau?” He answered, “I am.”

<sup>25</sup> He said, “Bring it closer to me, that I may eat some of my son’s game, that I may give you my blessing in person!”

Jacob took it closer to Isaac, and Isaac ate it. Jacob also passed him some wine, and he drank it. <sup>26</sup> Then his father Isaac told him, “Please come here and kiss me, my son!”

<sup>27</sup> He went closer and kissed him. When Isaac had caught the smell of his clothes, he gave him his blessing. He said: “See! The smell of my son is like the smell of an open field that the LORD has blessed.

<sup>28</sup> Therefore, may God give you the dew from the sky and fertile tracts of the earth, with plenty of grain and wine! <sup>29</sup> May nations serve you, and peoples bow down before you! Be a master over your brothers!

May your mother's sons bow down before you! Cursed be those who curse you, and blessed be those who bless you!"

Esau's reception of an inferior blessing and his hatred of Jacob — Hebrews 12:17

<sup>30</sup> When Isaac had finished blessing Jacob and Jacob had scarcely left the presence of his father Isaac, his brother Esau came in from his hunting. <sup>31</sup> He also had prepared a delicious meal and took it to his father. He told his father, "Let my father please sit up and eat some of his son's game, that you may give me your blessing in person!"

<sup>32</sup> His father Isaac asked him, "Who are you?" He answered, "I am your son, your first-born, Esau."

<sup>33</sup> Isaac shook very violently and asked: "Who was it then who hunted game and brought it to me, so that I ate all of it just before you came in and so that I gave him my blessing? Yes, and he must stay blessed!"

<sup>34</sup> When Esau heard what his father said, he cried out very loudly and very bitterly. He told his father, "Bless me, me also, my father!"

<sup>35</sup> Isaac said, "Your brother has come in deceitfully and has taken away your blessing."

<sup>36</sup> Esau said: "Is he not rightly named 'Jacob'?"<sup>25</sup> He has cheated me these two times. He has taken away my rights as the first-born son. Look! Now he has also taken away my blessing."

Then he asked, "Have you not reserved a blessing for me?"

<sup>37</sup> Isaac answered Esau: "Look! I have made him your master and have made all his relatives his servants. I have supported him with grain and wine. What, then, am I to do for you, my son?"

<sup>38</sup> Esau asked his father, "Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me, me too, my father!"

Then Esau wept aloud. <sup>39</sup> His father Isaac answered him: "Your dwelling will be fertile tracts of the earth but away from the dew of the sky above. <sup>40</sup> You will use your sword to live and serve your brother. However, the time will come when you roam about and pull his yoke away from the back of your neck."

<sup>41</sup> Esau harboured animosity towards Jacob because of the blessing that his father had given him. Esau said to himself, "The time to mourn for my father is coming closer. Then I shall kill my brother Jacob."

<sup>42</sup> When Rebekah was told what her elder son Esau was saying, she sent a message and summoned her younger son Jacob. She told him: "Watch out! Your brother Esau is planning revenge against you, intending to kill you. <sup>43</sup> So now, my son, do what I say! Flee at once for your safety to my brother Laban at Haran!"

<sup>44</sup> Stay with him for a few days until your brother's fury subsides, <sup>45</sup> until your brother is not angry with you any longer and forgets what you have done to him! Then I shall send word and get you from there. Why should I have to mourn the loss of both of you in one day?"

<sup>46</sup> Then Rebekah told Isaac: "I am disgusted with living because of the Hittite women. If Jacob marries a Hittite woman like these, one of the women of this country, why should I go on living?"

28

Jacob's journey to his mother's relatives

<sup>1</sup> Isaac called Jacob, blessed him and gave him a command. He told him: "You shall not marry one of the women of Canaan! <sup>2</sup> Go at once to Paddan-Aram, to the home of Bethuel, your mother's father and get yourself a wife there from the daughters of Laban, your mother's brother! <sup>3</sup> May God Almighty bless you, make you fruitful and make you many, that you may become a company of peoples! <sup>4</sup> May He give the blessing given to Abraham to you and to your descendants with you, that you may inherit the land where you are living as a foreigner, the land that God gave to Abraham!"

<sup>5</sup> Then Isaac sent Jacob away, and he went to Paddan-Aram, to Laban, the son of Bethuel, the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, who was the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Esau's marriage to an Ishmaelite

<sup>6</sup> Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Paddan-Aram to get a wife from there. He learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had commanded him, "You shall not marry a Canaanite woman!" <sup>7</sup> He also saw that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and had gone to Paddan-Aram. <sup>8</sup> When Esau realised that his father Isaac considered that the women of Canaan were evil, <sup>9</sup> Esau went to Ishmael and married Mahalath, who was the daughter of Abraham's son Ishmael and who was the sister of Nebaioth, in addition to the wives whom he already had.

God's promise to Jacob in a dream at Bethel

<sup>10</sup> Then Jacob left Beer-Sheba and travelled towards Haran. <sup>11</sup> When he came to a certain place, he spent the night there because the sun had gone down. He took one of the stones of the place, put it under his head as a pillow and lay down there. <sup>12</sup> He had a dream in which he saw a stairway set up on the earth. Its top reached up to heaven, and he saw the angels of God going up and coming down on it. <sup>13</sup> He saw the LORD standing above it, and He said: "I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I shall give the land on which you are lying to you and to your descendants. <sup>14</sup> Your descendants will be like the dust on the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south. In you and in your Descendant all the families of the earth will be blessed. <sup>15</sup> Moreover, look! I shall be with you and shall watch over you everywhere you go. I shall bring you back to this land. For I shall not leave you until I have done what I have promised you."

<sup>16</sup> When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he exclaimed,

<sup>25</sup> Jacob means, "He grasps the heel."

“Surely the LORD is in this place, and I was not aware of it.”<sup>17</sup> He was afraid and said: “How awe-inspiring this place is! This is nothing less than the house of God! This is the gate of heaven!”

<sup>18</sup> Jacob got up early in the morning, took the stone he had put under his head, set it up as an upright memorial stone and poured olive-oil on top of it. <sup>19</sup> He named that place “Bethel.”<sup>26</sup> However, previously that city used to be called “Luz.”

<sup>20</sup> Then Jacob made a vow, saying: “If God is with me, if He keeps me on this journey that I am making, if He gives me food to eat and clothes to wear,<sup>21</sup> and, if I return to my father’s house in safety, then the LORD will be my God. <sup>22</sup> In addition, this stone, which I have set as a marker, will be ‘the House of God.’ I shall also surely give to You a tenth of all that You give to me.”

29

Jacob’s arrival at Haran and his meeting with Rachel

<sup>1</sup> Jacob departed and came to the land of the people in the east. <sup>2</sup> When he looked, he saw a well in the field and also saw three flocks of sheep there lying near it, because shepherds watered the flocks at that well. The stone over the mouth of the well was large. <sup>3</sup> After all the flocks had gathered there, the shepherds used to roll the stone away from the mouth of the well, water the sheep and put the stone back in its place over the mouth of the well. <sup>4</sup> Jacob asked the shepherds, “My friends, where are you from?”

They said, “We are from Haran.”

<sup>5</sup> He asked them, “Do you know Laban, Nahor’s grandson?”

They answered, “We know him.”

<sup>6</sup> Jacob asked them, “Is he well?”

They answered, “He is well. Look! Here his daughter Rachel is coming with his sheep.”

<sup>7</sup> He said: “Look! It is still broad daylight. It is not time yet for the livestock to be rounded up. Water the sheep and go and pasture them!”

<sup>8</sup> They said: “We cannot, until all the flocks gather together, and the shepherds roll the stone away from the mouth of the well. Then we water the sheep.”

<sup>9</sup> While he was still talking to them Rachel came with her father’s sheep. For she was a shepherdess.

<sup>10</sup> When Jacob saw Rachel, the daughter of Laban, his mother’s brother, and the sheep of Laban, his mother’s brother, he went nearer, rolled the stone away from the mouth of the well and watered the flock of Laban, his mother’s brother. <sup>11</sup> Then Jacob kissed Rachel and wept aloud. <sup>12</sup> When Jacob told Rachel that he was her father’s relative and that he was Rebekah’s son, she ran and told her father. <sup>13</sup> When Laban heard the news about his sister’s son Jacob, he ran to meet him. He hugged and kissed him and took him to his home. Then Jacob told Laban all these things.

<sup>14</sup> Laban told him, “You really are my own bone and flesh!”

Jacob’s marriage to both daughters of Laban, Leah and Rachel

<sup>14b</sup> After Jacob had stayed with him for a whole month, <sup>15</sup> Laban asked Jacob, “Should you work for me for nothing because you are my relative? Tell me what your wages should be!”

<sup>16</sup> Laban had two daughters. The name of the elder one was Leah and the name of the younger one was Rachel. <sup>17</sup> Leah’s eyes were delicate, but Rachel was beautiful in form and looks. <sup>18</sup> Jacob loved Rachel. So, he said, “I shall work for you for seven years in return for Rachel, your younger daughter.”

<sup>19</sup> Laban said, “It is better that I should give her to you than that I should give her to any other man. Stay here with me!”

<sup>20</sup> Jacob worked for seven years in return for Rachel and they seemed like only a few days to him because he loved her.

<sup>21</sup> Then Jacob told Laban, “Give me my wife! My time is up. I want to marry her.”

<sup>22</sup> So, Laban gathered all the people of the place and gave a feast. <sup>23</sup> However, in the evening he took his daughter Leah and brought her to Jacob. Jacob slept with her. <sup>24</sup> (Laban had given his servant-girl Zilpah to his daughter Leah to be her servant-girl.) <sup>25</sup> In the morning, Jacob saw that she was Leah. Jacob asked Laban, “What is this you have done to me? Have I not been working with you in return for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?”

<sup>26</sup> Laban answered: “Things are not done like that in our country, that the younger daughter should be given in marriage before the first-born. <sup>27</sup> Finish the bridal week of this woman! Then this other one will also be given to you, in return for working seven more years with me.”

<sup>28</sup> That is what Jacob did. He finished the week with Leah. Then Laban gave his daughter Rachel to Jacob to be his wife. <sup>29</sup> (Laban had given his maidservant Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her maidservant.)

<sup>30</sup> So, Jacob married Rachel too. He also loved Rachel more than Leah and worked for Laban for still another seven years.

Leah and Rachel’s competition for Jacob’s love and Jacob’s eleven children

<sup>31</sup> When the LORD saw that Leah was slighted, He opened her womb, whereas Rachel was barren.

<sup>32</sup> Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him “Reuben.”<sup>27</sup> For she said, “It is because the LORD has seen my misery. Surely now my husband will love me.”

<sup>33</sup> She became pregnant again and, when she had given birth to a son, she said, “Because the LORD has heard that I am being slighted, He has also given me this one.” So, she named him “Simeon.”<sup>28</sup>

<sup>26</sup> Bethel means, “House of God.”

<sup>27</sup> Reuben means, “See, a son.”

<sup>28</sup> Simeon means, “Hearing.”

<sup>34</sup> She became pregnant again and, when she had given birth to a son, she said: “Now at last my husband will attach himself to me, because I have borne him three sons.” Therefore, he was named “Levi.”<sup>*29</sup>

<sup>35</sup> She became pregnant again and, when she had given birth to a son, she said, “This time I shall praise the LORD.” Therefore, she named him “Judah.”<sup>*30</sup> Then she stopped having children.

30

<sup>1</sup> When Rachel saw she had given Jacob no children, she became jealous of her sister. She told Jacob, “Give me children! If I do not have any, I am going to die.”

<sup>2</sup> Jacob became angry with Rachel. He asked, “Am I in the place of God? He has kept you from having children.”

<sup>3</sup> She said: “There is my maidservant Bilhah. Sleep with her, that she may give birth to a child on my knees, that I also may get a child from her!”

<sup>4</sup> So, she gave him her maidservant Bilhah as a wife, and Jacob slept with her. <sup>5</sup> Bilhah became pregnant and bore a son to Jacob. <sup>6</sup> Rachel said: “God has judged in my favour. He has also heard my request and has given me a son.” Because of this, she named him “Dan.”<sup>*31</sup>

<sup>7</sup> Then Bilhah, Rachel’s maidservant became pregnant again and bore Jacob a second son. <sup>8</sup> Rachel said, “I have wrestled mightily with my sister. I have even won.” So, she named him “Naphtali.”<sup>*32</sup>

<sup>9</sup> When Leah saw that she had ceased bearing children, she took her maidservant Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as his wife. <sup>10</sup> Then Zilpah, Leah’s maidservant, bore Jacob a son. <sup>11</sup> Leah said. “Good fortune has come.” So, she named him “Gad.”<sup>*33</sup>

<sup>12</sup> When Zilpah, Leah’s maidservant, bore Jacob a second son, <sup>13</sup> Leah said, “How happy I am! Women will call me happy.” So, she named him “Asher.”<sup>*34</sup>

<sup>14</sup> During the wheat harvest Reuben went out and found some mandrakes in the field and brought them to his mother Leah. Rachel asked Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s mandrakes!”

<sup>15</sup> Leah asked her, “Has it not been enough for you to take away my husband? Will you also take my son’s mandrakes?”

Rachel said, “Very well. He will sleep with you tonight in return for your son’s mandrakes.”

<sup>16</sup> When Jacob came in from the field that evening, Leah went out to meet him. She told him: “You must sleep with me! For I have unquestionably hired you with my son’s mandrakes.”

So, he slept with her that night. <sup>17</sup> God heard Leah, and she became pregnant and bore Jacob a fifth son.

<sup>18</sup> Leah said, “God has given me my wages, because I have given my maidservant to my husband.” So, she named him “Issachar.”<sup>*35</sup>

<sup>19</sup> Leah became pregnant again and bore Jacob a sixth son. <sup>20</sup> Leah said: “God has made me a fine gift. Now my husband will make me a lawful wife, because I have borne him six sons.” So, she named him “Zebulon.”<sup>*36</sup>

<sup>21</sup> Later she gave birth to a daughter and named her “Dinah.”

<sup>22</sup> God also remembered Rachel. God listened to her and opened her womb. <sup>23</sup> She became pregnant, gave birth to a son and said, “God has taken away my disgrace.” <sup>24</sup> She named him “Joseph,”<sup>*37</sup> and said, “May the LORD add to me another son!”

Jacob’s struggle with Laban for prosperity

<sup>25</sup> After Rachel had given birth to Joseph, Jacob told Laban: “Send me on my way, that I may go to my own home and my own country! <sup>26</sup> Give me my wives and my children, for whom I have been serving you, that I may leave! For you know the service that I have been doing for you.”

<sup>27</sup> However, Laban answered him: “Please do not leave! If you are kind to me, I have learned through divination that the LORD has been blessing me because of you.”

<sup>28</sup> Laban added, “Specify the wages I should pay you, and I shall pay them!”

<sup>29</sup> Jacob answered him: “You yourself know the work that I have been doing for you and what has happened to your livestock under my care. <sup>30</sup> For, before I came, you had only a little, but now it has increased greatly. The LORD has been blessing you because I am here. Now, however, when am I to do something for my own family as well?”

<sup>31</sup> Laban asked, “What should I pay you?”

Jacob answered: “Do not pay me anything! If you do this one thing for me, I shall feed and watch your flock again. <sup>32</sup> I shall go through your whole flock today and take out of it every speckled or spotted sheep, every lamb that is neither black nor white and any of the goats that are spotted and speckled. These will be my wages. <sup>33</sup> My honesty will testify for me in time to come when you come to check on my wages. If I have any goat that is not speckled or spotted or any lamb that is neither black nor white, it will be considered as stolen.”

<sup>34</sup> Laban answered, “Yes. Please let it be as you have said!”

<sup>35</sup> However, that day Laban removed the striped and spotted he-goats and all the speckled and spotted she-goats, every animal that had only some white on it and every lamb that was neither white nor black, and

<sup>29</sup> Levi means, “Joined.”

<sup>30</sup> Judah means, “Let Him be praised!”

<sup>31</sup> Dan means, “He has judged.”

<sup>32</sup> Naphtali means, “My wrestling.”

<sup>33</sup> Gad means, “Good fortune.”

<sup>34</sup> Asher means, “Happy.”

<sup>35</sup> Issachar means, “Wages.”

<sup>36</sup> Zebulon means, “Dwelling.”

<sup>37</sup> Joseph means, “May He add!”

placed them in the care of his sons. <sup>36</sup> Then he put a three-days' journey between himself and Jacob and Jacob continued to be the shepherd of the rest of Laban's flock. <sup>37</sup> Jacob chose fresh rods of storax trees, almond trees and plane trees and peeled off bark to make white stripes in them, to expose the white that was in the rods. <sup>38</sup> Then he placed the rods that he had peeled in the troughs at the watering places where the flocks used to come to drink, directly in front of the flocks, so that they were in heat when they came to drink. <sup>39</sup> The flocks were in heat in front of the rods and gave birth to young that had twisted tails or were speckled or spotted. <sup>40</sup> Jacob separated the young rams and set them in front of the ones in the flock that had twisted tails and all the ones that were neither white nor black in Laban's flock. Then he put his own flocks by themselves and did not put them with Laban's flocks. <sup>41</sup> Whenever the stronger ewes were in heat, Jacob used to place the rods in the troughs where the flock could see them, that they might breed near the rods. <sup>42</sup> However, when the animals were weaker, he did not put out the rods. Consequently, the weaker animals belonged to Laban, but the stronger ones belonged to Jacob. <sup>43</sup> In this way, the man became exceedingly prosperous and had large flocks, as well as maidservants, male servants, camels and donkeys.

31

<sup>1</sup> Jacob heard that Laban's sons were saying, "Jacob has taken everything that our father owned and has acquired all this wealth out of what used to belong to our father."

<sup>2</sup> Jacob also saw that Laban's attitude towards him was indeed not as friendly as it had been before.

God's repetition of His promise to Jacob

<sup>3</sup> Then the LORD told Jacob, "Go back to the country of your fathers and your relatives! I shall be with you."

Jacob's departure from Haran with his family and possessions

<sup>4</sup> So, Jacob sent someone to call Rachel and Leah to come to the field where his flock was. <sup>5</sup> He told them: "I see that your father's attitude toward me is not as it has been until now, but that the God of my father has been with me. <sup>6</sup> However, you know that I have been serving your father with all my strength. <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless, your father has been cheating me and has changed my wages ten times. However, God has not allowed him to harm me. <sup>8</sup> If he said, 'The speckled animals will be your wages,' then the whole flock gave birth to speckled young. If he said, 'The animals with twisted tails will be your wages,' the whole flock gave birth to young with twisted tails. <sup>9</sup> So, God has taken away your father's livestock and has given them to me. <sup>10</sup> Once, when the flocks were mating, I had a dream in which I looked up and saw that the male-goats that were mating with the flock had twisted tails or were speckled or multi-coloured. <sup>11</sup> In the dream the Angel of God said to me, 'Jacob!' I answered,

'Here I am.' <sup>12</sup> He said, 'Look up! Notice that all the male goats that are mating with the flock have twisted tails or are speckled or multi-coloured! For I have been watching everything that Laban has been doing to you. <sup>13</sup> I am the God whom you saw at Bethel, where you poured oil on the upright stone marker and where you made a vow to me. Now leave this land at once and go back to the land of your relatives!'"

<sup>14</sup> Rachel and Leah answered him: "Do we still have any share in property or inheritance in our father's household? <sup>15</sup> Has he not been regarding us as foreigners? For he sold us and has completely consumed our money. <sup>16</sup> Surely all the wealth that God has taken away from our father belongs to us and to our children. Now then, do everything that God has told you!"

<sup>17</sup> Jacob acted. He put his children and his wives on camels. <sup>18</sup> He drove away all his livestock and all his property, which he had earned, the livestock that was his property, which he had acquired in Paddan-Aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.

<sup>19</sup> When Laban had gone to shear his sheep, Rachel stole the household gods that belonged to Laban.

<sup>20</sup> Jacob tricked the Aramean Laban by not telling him that he was running away. <sup>21</sup> He fled with all that he had. He set off, crossed the Euphrates and headed for the hill-country of Gilead.

Laban's pursuit of Jacob

<sup>22</sup> On the third day Laban was told, "Jacob has fled."

<sup>23</sup> Laban took his relatives with him, pursued Jacob for seven days and caught up with him in the hill-country of Gilead. <sup>24</sup> However, God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night and told him, "Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad!"

<sup>25</sup> When Laban overtook Jacob, Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill-country. Laban and his relatives also pitched their tents in the hill-country of Gilead.

<sup>26</sup> Laban asked Jacob: "What have you done? You have both deceived me and led away my daughters like captives taken with the sword. <sup>27</sup> Why have you run away secretly and deceived me, without telling me? Otherwise, I might have sent you away with joy and songs, with tambourine and lyre. <sup>28</sup> You did not give me the opportunity to kiss my grandchildren and my daughters. Now you have done a foolish thing. <sup>29</sup> I have the power to harm you all, but yesterday evening the God of your father told me, 'Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad!' <sup>30</sup> So now, although you have evidently left because you have been longing deeply for the home of your father, why have you stolen my gods?"

<sup>31</sup> Jacob answered Laban: "I left because I was afraid. For I thought that otherwise you would take your daughters away from me by force. <sup>32</sup> No person with whom you find your gods shall live! In the presence of our relatives investigate for yourself what is here with me and take what is yours with you!"

However, Jacob did not know Rachel had stolen them.

<sup>33</sup> Then Laban went into Jacob's tent, into Leah's tent and into the tents of the two maidservants. However, he found nothing. After he had come out of Leah's tent, he went into Rachel's tent. <sup>34</sup> Rachel had taken the household gods, had put them in her camel's saddlebag and had sat on them. Laban rummaged through the whole tent but found nothing.

<sup>35</sup> Rachel told her father, "Do not be angry, my master, that I cannot stand up in your presence! For I am having my period."

So, he searched for the household gods but did not find them. <sup>36</sup> Then Jacob became angry and scolded Laban. Jacob demanded of Laban: "What offence have I committed? What is my sin, so that you have come in hot pursuit after me? <sup>37</sup> For, although you have been rummaging through all my goods, what have you found of all your household goods? Put it here in front of your relatives and mine, and let them judge between the two of us! <sup>38</sup> For twenty years now I have been with you. Your ewes and your she-goats have not miscarried, and I have not eaten any rams of your flock. <sup>39</sup> I did not bring anything torn by wild animals to you. I stood the loss of it myself. You used to require from me anything that had been stolen by day or stolen by night. <sup>40</sup> There I was! In the day the heat consumed me and the frost by night, and my sleep fled from my eyes. <sup>41</sup> I was in your home like this for twenty years. I worked for you for fourteen years for your two daughters and for six years for your flock, and you changed my wages ten times. <sup>42</sup> If the God of my father, the God of Abraham, the Awesome One of Isaac, had not been on my side, you would surely by now have sent me away empty-handed. God has seen my misery and the toil of my hands and yesterday evening He gave judgment."

<sup>43</sup> Laban answered Jacob: "These women are my daughters, these children are my children, and this is my flock. Everything that you see is mine. Yet what can I do today for these daughters of mine or for their children, whom they have borne? <sup>44</sup> Come then, let us, you and me, make a covenant, and let it stand as a witness between you and me!"

The covenant between Laban and Jacob

<sup>45</sup> Jacob took a stone and set it up as a marker.

<sup>46</sup> Jacob told his relatives, "Gather some stones!"

They took some stones and made a pile of them. Then they ate there on the pile of stones. <sup>47</sup> Laban called it "Jegar-Sahadutha," but Jacob called it "Galeed."<sup>38</sup>

<sup>48</sup> Laban said, "This pile of stones is a witness between you and me today."

This is why it was called "Galeed." <sup>49</sup> It was also called "Mizpah,"<sup>39</sup> because he said: "May the LORD keep guard between you and me while we are away from each other! <sup>50</sup> If you mistreat my daughters or marry other women in addition to my daughters, even though no one is with us, then you should see that God is a witness between you and me!"

<sup>51</sup> Laban also told Jacob: "Here is this pile of stones, and here is the marker that I have raised between you and me. <sup>52</sup> This pile of stones is a witness, and the pillar is a witness, that I shall not go past this pile of stones to your side to harm you and that you will not go past this pile of stones and this pillar to my side to harm me. <sup>53</sup> Let the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us!"

Jacob made an oath by the Awesome One of his father Isaac. <sup>54</sup> Jacob offered a sacrifice in the hill-country and invited his relatives to eat a meal. After they had eaten a meal, they spent the night in the hill-country. <sup>55</sup> Early the next morning Laban got up, kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them. Then Laban left and went back home.

32

Jacob's plans to win Esau's favour with gifts

<sup>1</sup> Jacob also went on his way, and the angels of God met him. <sup>2</sup> When Jacob saw them, he said, "This is the camp of God!" He named that place "Mahanaim."<sup>40</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Then Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

<sup>4</sup> He gave them orders: "This is what you are to tell my master Esau: 'This is what Jacob your servant has said: "I have been living with Laban and have been staying away until now. <sup>5</sup> I have cattle and donkeys, sheep and goats and male and female servants. I have sent this message to my master that he may be kind to me."'"

<sup>6</sup> When the messengers came back to Jacob, they said: "We went to your brother Esau. He is also coming to meet you. There are four hundred men with him."

<sup>7</sup> Jacob was very afraid and distressed. He divided the people who were with him, as well as the flocks, cattle and camels, into two groups. <sup>8</sup> He said: "If Esau comes to the first group and attacks it, then the group that is left may escape."

<sup>9</sup> Then Jacob prayed: "O God of my grandfather Abraham and of my father Isaac! O LORD, You told me: 'Go back to your country and your relatives, and I shall treat you well.' <sup>10</sup> I am not worthy of any of the loving treatment or any of the faithfulness that You have shown to Your servant. For I crossed this Jordan with only my shepherd's staff and now I have become two groups. <sup>11</sup> Please save me from the hand of my brother Esau! For I am afraid of him, that he will come and attack me, as well as the mothers and their children. <sup>12</sup> However, You have promised, 'I shall certainly treat you well and make your descendants like the sand of the sea, which is too much to count.'"

<sup>13</sup> He stayed there that night and then selected a present for his brother Esau from what he had with him: <sup>14</sup> two hundred female-goats, twenty male-goats, two hundred ewes, twenty rams, <sup>15</sup> thirty milking camels with their young, forty cows, ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys. <sup>16</sup> He placed them in the care of his servants, each herd by itself. He told his servants, "Go on ahead of me and keep an interval between each herd and the next!"

<sup>38</sup> Jegar-Sahadutha" and "Galeed" both mean, "Heap of Witness."

<sup>39</sup> Mizpah means, "Watch-Station."

<sup>40</sup> Mahanaim means, "Two camps."

<sup>17</sup> He ordered the one in the lead: "When my brother Esau meets you and asks you, 'To whom do you belong? Where are you going? Besides, who owns these animals in front of you?'" <sup>18</sup> then you shall say, 'They belong to your servant Jacob! They are a gift sent to my master Esau and, you should know, he also is behind us.'"

<sup>19</sup> He gave the same orders to the second man, the third man and all the others who were driving the herds. He said: "That is how you should speak to Esau when you meet him!" <sup>20</sup> You should also say, 'Realise that your servant Jacob is behind us!'" For he thought: "I shall appease him with the gift that is going ahead of me. Perhaps he will be friendly to me when I see his face after that."

<sup>21</sup> So, the gift went on ahead of Jacob, but he himself spent that night in the camp.

Jacob's wrestling with God

<sup>22</sup> During that night he got up, gathered his two wives, his two maidservants and his eleven children and crossed the ford of the Jabbok. <sup>23</sup> He took them, sent them across the stream and sent over his possessions. <sup>24</sup> When Jacob was left alone, a Man wrestled with him until daybreak. <sup>25</sup> When the Man saw that He could not overpower him, He touched the socket of Jacob's hip, and the socket of Jacob's hip was dislocated as the Man wrestled with him. <sup>26</sup> Then the Man said: "Let Me go! For it is daybreak."

However, Jacob answered, "I shall not let You go unless You bless me."

<sup>27</sup> Therefore, He asked him, "What is your name?" He answered, "Jacob."

<sup>28</sup> In addition, He said: "Your name will no longer be "Jacob" but "Israel,"<sup>*41</sup> because you have struggled with God and with men and have overcome."

<sup>29</sup> Then Jacob asked, "Please tell me Your name!" He answered, "Why is it that you ask for My name?"

Then He blessed Jacob there. <sup>30</sup> So, Jacob named that place "Peniel,"<sup>*42</sup> saying, "It is because I have seen God face to face and yet my life has been preserved."

<sup>31</sup> The sun rose on him as he passed Penuel, and he was limping because of his hip. <sup>32</sup> That is the reason why to this day the Israelites do not eat the sinew attached to the socket of the upper thigh, because He touched the socket of Jacob's hip at the sinew of the upper thigh.

33

Jacob's meeting with Esau

<sup>1</sup> Jacob looked up and saw Esau coming with four hundred men. Jacob divided his children among Leah, Rachel and the two maidservants. <sup>2</sup> He put the maidservants with their children in front, Leah and her children after them and Rachel and Joseph in the rear.

<sup>3</sup> He himself went on ahead of them and bowed down to the ground seven times until he came close to his brother. <sup>4</sup> However, Esau ran to meet Jacob and embraced him. He threw his arms around his neck and kissed him. Then they wept. <sup>5</sup> When Esau looked up and saw the women and the children, he asked, "Who are these with you?"

Jacob answered, "They are the children whom God has graciously given to your servant."

<sup>6</sup> Then the maidservants and their children came closer and bowed down. <sup>7</sup> Then Leah and her children also approached and bowed down. Finally, Joseph and Rachel approached and bowed down. <sup>8</sup> Esau asked, "What do you mean by this whole drove that I have met?"

He answered, "That my master may be kindly disposed to me."

<sup>9</sup> However, Esau said, "I have plenty, my brother. Keep what you have for yourself!"

<sup>10</sup> Jacob said: "No, please. If I have found that you are kindly disposed to me, please accept my gift from my hand! The reason is that for me to have seen your face is like seeing the face of God. You have been favourable to me. <sup>11</sup> Please take the gift that I have brought you! God has been kind to me, and I have everything."

When Jacob urged him strongly, he accepted it.

<sup>12</sup> Esau said, "Let us get ready to go, and let me accompany you!"

<sup>13</sup> However, Jacob told him: "My master knows that the children are tender and that I am caring for flocks and herds that are nursing their young. If anyone drives them too hard for just one day, all the animals will die. <sup>14</sup> My master should please go on ahead of his servant, that I may move along as slowly as is suitable for the pace of the expedition ahead of me and for the pace of the children, until I come to my master in Seir!"

<sup>15</sup> Esau said, "Please let me leave some of my men with you!"

However, Jacob asked, "Why do that? Let my master just have a friendly attitude towards me!"

<sup>16</sup> That day Esau left on his way back to Seir. <sup>17</sup> Jacob journeyed to Succoth, where he built a home for himself and shelters for his livestock. This is why the place was named "Succoth."<sup>*43</sup>

Jacob's arrival at Shechem

<sup>18</sup> When Jacob returned from Paddan-Aram, he ar-

<sup>41</sup> Israel means, "God strives."

<sup>42</sup> Peniel means, "Face of God" (elsewhere Penuel).

<sup>43</sup> Succoth means, "Shelters."

rived safely at the city of Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, and camped in sight of the city. <sup>19</sup> He bought a piece of land for one hundred pieces of currency from the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, and there he pitched his tent. <sup>20</sup> He set up an altar there and called it "El-Elohe-Israel."<sup>*44</sup>

34

The rape of Dinah by Shechem and her brothers' revenge

<sup>1</sup> Dinah, the daughter of Leah, whom Leah had borne to Jacob, went out to visit some women of the land.

<sup>2</sup> Shechem, the son of Hamor, the Hivite, the local ruler, saw Dinah, seized her, lay with her and violated her. <sup>3</sup> However, he became very fond of Dinah, the daughter of Jacob. He loved the young woman and spoke affectionately to her. <sup>4</sup> Shechem told his father Hamor, "Get me this girl to be my wife!"

<sup>5</sup> When Jacob heard that Shechem had defiled Dinah his daughter, his sons were with his livestock in the open country. So, Jacob kept quiet about it until they came in. <sup>6</sup> Hamor, the father of Shechem, came out to talk with Jacob. <sup>7</sup> Jacob's sons came in from the field when they heard what had happened. The men were indignant and very angry because Shechem had done a disgraceful thing to Israel's family by lying with Jacob's daughter. That kind of thing should not have happened. <sup>8</sup> Hamor told them: "My son Shechem deeply loves your daughter. Please give her to him as his wife! <sup>9</sup> Become related to us by marriage! Give us your daughters and take ours for yourselves! <sup>10</sup> Then you will live among us, and the country will be open to you. Live and move about freely in it and settle down in it!"

<sup>11</sup> Shechem also told Dinah's father and her brothers: "Let me find that you are kindly disposed towards me! Then I shall give you whatever you ask of me. <sup>12</sup> Set the money to be paid to the bride's family and the gift that I should give as high as you want! I shall pay whatever you tell me. Only give me the young woman as my wife!"

<sup>13</sup> Jacob's sons answered Shechem and his father Hamor deceitfully because Shechem had defiled their sister Dinah. <sup>14</sup> They told them: "We cannot do this. We cannot give our sister to an uncircumcised man. For to us that would be disgraceful. <sup>15</sup> We are ready to do this for you on only one condition: that every male among you allows himself to be circumcised, so that you become like us. <sup>16</sup> Then we shall give you our daughters and take your daughters for ourselves. We shall settle among you and become one people. <sup>17</sup> However, if you do not listen to us and have yourselves circumcised, we shall take our daughter and go."

<sup>18</sup> Hamor and his son Shechem liked their proposal.

<sup>19</sup> The young man, who was the most honoured person in all his father's family, did what they said immediately, because he took such pleasure in Jacob's daughter. <sup>20</sup> Hamor and his son Shechem went to the gate of their city and spoke with the men of their city: <sup>21</sup> "These men are peaceable towards us. They should settle in the country and move about in it! You see that the land has plenty of room for them. We shall marry their daughters and let them marry our daughters. <sup>22</sup> The men are ready to live with us and become one people on only this one condition: that every one of our males lets himself be circumcised, just as they are circumcised. <sup>23</sup> Will not their livestock, their property and all their animals become ours? Let us agree to do only this for them, that they may settle among us!"

<sup>24</sup> All the men who went out to the gate of Hamor's city agreed with Hamor and his son Shechem, and every male who went out to the gate of his city had himself circumcised. <sup>25</sup> On the third day, when the men of the city were in pain, Simeon and Levi, two of Jacob's sons, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword, attacked the city while they felt secure and killed every male. <sup>26</sup> They killed Hamor and his son Shechem with the sword. Then they took Dinah from Shechem's house and left. <sup>27</sup> Then the sons of Jacob came upon the dead bodies and plundered the city where their sister had been defiled. <sup>28</sup> They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys, whatever was in the city and in the open country, <sup>29</sup> and all their wealth. They also took all their children and their wives captive and also plundered whatever was in the houses. <sup>30</sup> Jacob told Simeon and Levi: "You have made me a social outcast. You have made the inhabitants of the country, the Canaanites and the Perizzites, hate me. My people are few in numbers. If they join forces against me and attack me and my family, and I shall be destroyed."

<sup>31</sup> However, they replied, "Should he treat our sister like a prostitute?"

35

God's blessing on Jacob at Bethel

<sup>1</sup> God told Jacob: "Get ready! Go up to Bethel and stay there! Build an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you were fleeing from your brother Esau."

<sup>2</sup> Then Jacob told his family and all who were with him: "Get rid of the foreign gods that you have with you! Purify yourselves and change your clothes!"

<sup>3</sup> Then let us get ready, that we may go up to Bethel! I shall build an altar there to God, who answered me at the time when I was in trouble and who has been with me wherever I have been going."

<sup>4</sup> Therefore, they handed over to Jacob all the foreign gods that they had and the rings in their ears, and Jacob buried them under the big tree that was near Shechem. <sup>5</sup> When they set out, God terrified the people in the cities all around them, and so they did not pursue the sons of Jacob. <sup>6</sup> Jacob and all the people who were with him arrived at Luz (that is, Bethel) in the land of Canaan. <sup>7</sup> He built an altar there and called the place “El-Bethel,” because God had revealed Himself to him there when he was fleeing from his brother. <sup>8</sup> Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, died and was buried under the tall tree below Bethel. It was given the name “Allon-Bacuth.”*<sup>45</sup>

<sup>44</sup> El-Elohe-Israel means, "A Mighty God is the God of Israel."

The change of Jacob’s name to “Israel” and the repetition of the promise to him

<sup>9</sup> After Jacob had come back from Paddan-Aram God appeared to him again and blessed him. <sup>10</sup> God told him, “Although your name has been ‘Jacob,’ you will no longer be named ‘Jacob,’ but your name will be ‘Israel.’”*<sup>46</sup> So, He named him “Israel.”

<sup>11</sup> God told him: “I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and increase in number! A nation, yes, a group of nations will come from you, and you will be the father of kings. <sup>12</sup> I shall give to you the land that I gave to Abraham and Isaac. I shall give the land to your descendants after you.”

<sup>13</sup> God went up from Jacob at the place where He had been speaking to him. <sup>14</sup> Jacob set up a stone memorial to mark the place where God had been talking to him. He poured out a wine offering on it. He also poured olive-oil on it. <sup>15</sup> Jacob had named the place where God had been speaking to him “Bethel.”*<sup>47</sup>

The birth of Benjamin and the death of Rachel

<sup>16</sup> Then they moved away from Bethel and were still some distance on the way to Ephrath when Rachel began giving birth to a child and she was having a difficult labour. <sup>17</sup> When she was having great difficulty in childbirth, the midwife told her, “Do not be afraid! For you are having another son.”

<sup>18</sup> Rachel was dying and, while her life was departing, she named him “Ben-Oni.”*<sup>48</sup> However, his father called him “Ben-Jamin.”*<sup>49</sup> <sup>19</sup> Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath, which is Bethlehem. <sup>20</sup> Jacob set up a memorial stone over her grave. That is the memorial stone that is still at Rachel’s grave today.

<sup>21</sup> Israel moved on and pitched his tent beyond Migdal-Eder. <sup>22</sup> While Israel was living in that region, Reuben went and lay with Bilhah, his father’s concubine, and Israel heard about it.

Jacob’s [Israel’s] twelve sons — 1 Chronicles 2:1-2

<sup>22b</sup> Jacob had twelve sons. <sup>23</sup> Leah’s sons were Reuben, Jacob’s first-born and Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar and Zebulun. <sup>24</sup> Rachel’s sons were Joseph and Benjamin. <sup>25</sup> The sons of Bilhah, Rachel’s maidservant, were Dan and Naphtali. <sup>26</sup> The sons of Zilpah, Leah’s maidservant, were Gad and Asher. These were Jacob’s sons, who were born in Paddan-Aram.

<sup>45</sup> Allon-Bacuth means, “Oak of mourning.”

<sup>46</sup> Israel means, “God strives” — compare Gn 32:28).

<sup>47</sup> Bethel means, “House of God.”

<sup>48</sup> Ben-Oni means, “Son of my sorrow.”

<sup>49</sup> Ben-Jamin means, “Son of my right hand.”

The death of Isaac

<sup>27</sup> Jacob went to his father Isaac at Mamre, at Kiriath-Arba, which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isaac had lived as foreigners. <sup>28</sup> Isaac was a hundred and eighty years old <sup>29</sup> when he took his last breath and died. He was gathered to his people, old and having had a full life. His sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

36

The family-history of Esau and the first Edomites (36:1-40) — 1 Chronicles 1:35-54

<sup>1</sup> This is the family history of Esau, who is Edom.

<sup>2</sup> Esau chose his wives from the women of Canaan: Adah, the daughter of Elon the Hittite and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon, the Hivite. <sup>3</sup> He also married Basemath, the daughter of Ishmael and the sister of Nebaioth. <sup>4</sup> Adah gave birth to Eliphaz for Esau, Basemath gave birth to Reuel, <sup>5</sup> and Oholibamah gave birth to Jeush, Jalam and Korah. These were the sons of Esau, who were born to him in the land of Canaan.

<sup>6</sup> Esau took his wives, his sons, his daughters, all the other persons in his household, his cattle, all his other animals and all the property that he had acquired in Canaan and went to another land away from his brother Jacob. <sup>7</sup> He did this because they had too many possessions for them to remain together. The land where they were living as foreigners could not support them both, because of their livestock. <sup>8</sup> So, Esau lived in the hill-country of Seir. Esau is Edom. <sup>9</sup> This is the family history of Esau, the father of the Edomites in the hill-country of Seir.

<sup>10</sup> These were the names of Esau’s sons: Eliphaz, the son of Esau’s wife Adah and Reuel, the son of Esau’s wife Basemath. <sup>11</sup> The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam and Kenaz. <sup>12</sup> Timna was a concubine of Esau’s son Eliphaz. She gave birth to Amalek for Eliphaz. These were the descendants of Esau’s wife Adah. <sup>13</sup> These were the sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the descendants of Esau’s wife Basemath. <sup>14</sup> These were the sons of Esau’s wife Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah and the granddaughter of Zibeon. She gave birth to Jeush, Jalam and Korah for Esau.

Clans and kings of Edom

<sup>15</sup> These were the tribal chiefs among Esau’s descendants: the sons of Eliphaz, Esau’s first son: Chief Teman, Chief Omar, Chief Zepho, Chief Kenaz, <sup>16</sup> Chief Korah, Chief Gatam and Chief Amalek. These were the chiefs descended from Eliphaz in the country of Edom. They were the descendants of Adah. <sup>17</sup> These were descendants of Esau’s son Reuel: Chief Nahath, Chief Zerah, Chief Shammah and Chief Mizzah. These were the chiefs of Reuel in the country of Edom. They were the descendants of Esau’s wife Basemath.

<sup>18</sup> These were the descendants from Esau’s wife Oholibamah: Chief Jeush, Chief Jalam and Chief Ko-

rah. These were the chiefs that descended from Esau's wife Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah.

<sup>19</sup> These were the descendants of Esau who were their tribal chiefs. Esau is Edom.

<sup>20</sup> These were the sons of Seir the Horite, who lived in that region: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, <sup>21</sup> Dishon, Ezer and Dishan. These were the Horite tribal chiefs, the sons of Seir, in the land of Edom. <sup>22</sup> The sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam. Timna was Lotan's sister. <sup>23</sup> These were the sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho and Onam. <sup>24</sup> These were the sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. He was the Anah who found the hot springs in the wilderness while he was minding the donkeys of his father Zibeon. <sup>25</sup> These were the children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah. <sup>26</sup> These were the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran and Cheran. <sup>27</sup> These were the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan and Akan. <sup>28</sup> These were the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran. <sup>29</sup> These were the Horite chiefs: Chief Lotan, Chief Shobal, Chief Zibeon, Chief Anah, <sup>30</sup> Chief Dishon, Chief Ezer and Chief Dishan. These were the Horite tribal chiefs in the land of Seir, chief by chief.

<sup>31</sup> These were the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the Israelites:

<sup>32</sup> Bela, the son of Beor, reigned in Edom. His city was named "Dinhabah." <sup>32</sup> After Bela died, Jobab, the son of Zera from Bozrah, succeeded him as king.

<sup>34</sup> After Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites succeeded him as king. <sup>35</sup> After Husham died, Hadad, the son of Bedad, who defeated the Midianites in the open country of Moab, succeeded him as king. The name of his city was "Avith." <sup>36</sup> After Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah succeeded him as king. <sup>37</sup> After Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth on the Euphrates succeeded him as king. <sup>38</sup> After Shaul died, Baal-Hanan, the son of Acbor, succeeded him as king. <sup>39</sup> After Baal-Hanan, the son of Acbor, died, Hadar succeeded him as king. The name of his city was "Pau." His wife's name was "Mehetabel," the daughter of Matred and the granddaughter of Mezahab.

<sup>40</sup> These were the names of the tribal chiefs who descended from Esau, according to their families, their places and by their names: Chief Timna, Chief Alvah, Chief Jetheth, <sup>41</sup> Chief Oholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon, <sup>42</sup> Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar, <sup>43</sup> Chief Magdiel and Chief Iram. These were the tribal chiefs of Edom, according to the areas where they lived and by the property that they owned. Edom was Esau, the father of the Edomites.

37

<sup>1</sup> Jacob continued to live in the land of Canaan, the country where his father had been living as a foreigner.

<sup>2</sup> This is the family-history of Jacob.

The story of Joseph, ending with Jacob's arrival in Egypt, Jacob's

death and Joseph's death (37:3-50:26)

Joseph's dreams

<sup>2b</sup> When Joseph was seventeen years old, he was taking care of the flock with his brothers. While he was a lad he was with the sons of his father's wives Bilhah and Zilpah, and Joseph told his father about the bad things that his brothers were doing. <sup>3</sup> Israel loved Joseph more than all his other sons because he was born when Israel was old. He made Joseph a tunic reaching to the ankles. <sup>4</sup> When his brothers saw that their father loved Joseph more than he loved any of Joseph's brothers, they hated him and could not speak to him in a friendly way.

<sup>5</sup> Joseph had a dream and, when he told it to his brothers, they hated him even more. <sup>6</sup> He told them: "Please listen to this dream, which I have had! <sup>7</sup> I saw us tying up sheaves out in the field, and suddenly my sheaf got up and even stood upright, while your sheaves actually gathered around and bowed down to my sheaf."

<sup>8</sup> His brothers asked him: "Will you really be a king over us? Or will you really rule over us?"

Therefore, they hated him even more because of his dreams and because of what he had said.

<sup>9</sup> Then he had another dream and told his brothers about it. He said: "Listen! I have had another dream. I saw the sun, the moon and eleven stars bowing down to me."

<sup>10</sup> When he told his father as well as his brothers about it, his father rebuked him. He asked him: "What is this dream that you have had? Shall we, I, your mother and your brothers, really come and bow down to the ground in front of you?"

<sup>11</sup> Joseph's brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept thinking about what he had said.

The sale of Joseph into slavery by his brothers

<sup>12</sup> Joseph's brothers went to Shechem to graze their father's flock there. <sup>13</sup> Israel asked Joseph, "Are your brothers not grazing the flock at Shechem? Come! I shall send you to them."

Joseph answered him, "Very well."

<sup>14</sup> Jacob told him, "Please go and see if all is well with your brothers and well with the flock and bring me a report!"

Therefore, he sent him from the Valley of Hebron. When Joseph arrived at Shechem, <sup>15</sup> a man found him wandering around in the open country. The man asked him, "What are you looking for?"

<sup>16</sup> He said, "I am looking for my brothers. Please tell me where they are grazing the flock!"

<sup>17</sup> The man said, "They have moved away from here. For I heard them say, 'Let us go to Dothan!'"

So, Joseph went after his brothers and found them at Dothan. <sup>18</sup> They saw him from a distance, but, before he reached them, they plotted against him to kill him.

<sup>19</sup> They said to one another: "Look! Here comes that master-dreamer! <sup>20</sup> So come now! Let us kill him, throw him into one of the pits and say, 'A wild animal has devoured him!’ Then we shall see what will become of his dreams.”

<sup>21</sup> However, when Reuben heard this, he tried to save him from their hands. He said, “Let us not take his life!”

<sup>22</sup> Reuben also told them: “Do not shed blood! Throw him into this cistern in the wilderness but do not lay a hand on him!”

Reuben said this to rescue him from their hands, to take him back to his father.

<sup>23</sup> When Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped off Joseph’s tunic, the tunic reaching to the ankles, which he was wearing. <sup>24</sup> Then they took him and threw him into the cistern. It was an empty cistern, without water in it. <sup>25</sup> When they sat down to eat a meal, they looked up and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead. Their camels were carrying resinous gum, balm and myrrh. They were on their way to take them down to Egypt. <sup>26</sup> Judah asked his brothers: “What shall we gain if we kill our brother and cover up his death?”

<sup>27</sup> Come! Let us sell him to the Ishmaelites! Let us not lay our hands on him! For he is our brother, our own flesh.”

His brothers agreed. <sup>28</sup> When the Midianite traders were going past, the brothers pulled Joseph up and lifted him out of the cistern. They sold Joseph for twenty shekels of silver to the Ishmaelites, who took Joseph to Egypt.

<sup>29</sup> When Reuben returned to the cistern and saw that Joseph was not in the cistern, he tore his clothes.

<sup>30</sup> He went back to his brothers and said, “The boy is not there! Where do I myself go from here?”

<sup>31</sup> Then they took Joseph’s tunic, slaughtered a male goat and dipped the tunic in the blood. <sup>32</sup> Then they sent the tunic, which reached to the ankles, back to their father. They said, “We have found this. Find out whether that is your son’s tunic or not!”

<sup>33</sup> Jacob recognised it and said: “It is my son’s tunic! A wild animal has devoured him. Joseph has certainly been torn in pieces.”

<sup>34</sup> Jacob tore his clothes, put sackcloth around his waist and mourned for his son for a long time. <sup>35</sup> All his other sons and daughters came to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. He said, “No! I shall still be mourning when I go down to my son in the grave.” This is how his father wept for him.

<sup>36</sup> In Egypt the Midianites sold Joseph to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh and a captain of the bodyguards.

38

Judah’s sin with Tamar

<sup>1</sup> At that time Judah left his brothers and went down to a man at Adullam whose name was Hirah. <sup>2</sup> There Judah saw the daughter of a Canaanite whose name was Shua. He married her and lay with her. <sup>3</sup> She became pregnant and gave birth to a son, who was named “Er.” <sup>4</sup> She conceived again and gave birth to a son and named him “Onan.” <sup>5</sup> She gave birth to still another son and named him “Shelah.” It was at Chezib that she gave birth to him.

<sup>6</sup> Judah chose a wife for his first-born son Er and her name was “Tamar.” <sup>7</sup> However, the LORD regarded Er, Judah’s first-born, as a wicked person and the LORD killed him. <sup>8</sup> Then Judah told Onan: “Marry your brother’s widow and fulfil your duty to her as a brother-in-law! Have a child who will belong to your brother!”

<sup>9</sup> However, Onan knew that the child would not belong to him. So, whenever he had intercourse with his brother’s widow, he spilled his semen on the ground, to avoid producing a child for his brother. <sup>10</sup> The LORD regarded what he had done as wicked and killed him also. <sup>11</sup> Then Judah told Tamar, his daughter-in-law, “Stay as a widow in your father’s home, until my son Shelah grows up!” For he thought, “I do not want him to die too, like his brothers.”

So, Tamar went to live in her father’s home.

<sup>12</sup> After a long time, Judah’s wife, Shua’s daughter, died. When Judah recovered from his grief, he and his friend Hirah from Adullam went up to Timnah to the men who were shearing Judah’s sheep. <sup>13</sup> Tamar was told: “Look! Your father-in-law is going up to Timnah to shear his sheep.”

<sup>14</sup> She took off her widow’s clothes, covered herself with a shawl, wrapped herself up and sat at the entrance to Enaim on the road to Timnah. For she had seen that, although Shelah had grown up, she had not been given to him as his wife. <sup>15</sup> When Judah saw her, he thought that she was a prostitute, because she had covered her face. <sup>16</sup> He went over to her by the roadside. He said, “Come now, let me sleep with you!” For he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. She asked, “What will you give me, to let you sleep with me?”

<sup>17</sup> He answered, “I shall send a young goat from the flock.”

She said, “Would you give me a pledge until you send it?”

<sup>18</sup> He asked, “What pledge should I give you?”

She answered, “Your seal, cord and the shepherd’s staff that is in your hand.”

He gave her these and slept with her, and she became pregnant by him. <sup>19</sup> After she got up and left, she took off her shawl and put on her widow’s clothes again. <sup>20</sup> Judah sent his friend the Adullamite to take the young goat and get the pledge from the woman, but he could not find her. <sup>21</sup> He asked the men who lived where she had been, “Where is the cult prostitute, the one by the roadside at Enaim?”

They answered, “There has not been any cult prostitute in this place.”

<sup>22</sup> He went back to Judah and told him: “I could not find her, and the men at the place also said, ‘There has not been any cult prostitute in this place.’”

<sup>23</sup> Judah said: "Let her keep them! Otherwise we shall become a laughingstock. Look! I did send this young goat, but you could not find her."

<sup>24</sup> About three months afterwards Judah was told: "Your daughter-in-law Tamar has been a prostitute and, what is more, by being a prostitute she has become pregnant."

Judah said, "Bring her out! She must be burnt!"

<sup>25</sup> When she was being brought out, she sent a message to her father-in-law: "I am pregnant by the man to whom these things belong." She also said: "Please recognise to whom this signet ring, this cord and this shepherd's staff belong!"

<sup>26</sup> Judah recognised them and said, "She has been more righteous than I have been, because I did not let her marry my son Shelah."

However, he did not sleep with her again.

<sup>27</sup> When the time came for her to give birth, it became evident that there were twins in her womb. <sup>28</sup> When she was giving birth, one of them put out his hand, and the midwife took a crimson thread and tied it on his wrist. She said, "This one came out first."

<sup>29</sup> However, when he pulled back his hand, his brother came out unexpectedly. She said: "How have you managed to break through? That is why he was named 'Perez.'" <sup>50</sup> <sup>30</sup> After that, his brother, who had the crimson thread on his wrist, came out and he was named "Zerah." <sup>51</sup>

39

Joseph's life as a slave in Potiphar's house

<sup>1</sup> Joseph was taken down to Egypt. Potiphar, an Egyptian, an official of Pharaoh and captain of the bodyguards, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him down there. <sup>2</sup> However, the LORD was with Joseph, and he became a successful man. He was in the home of his Egyptian master. <sup>3</sup> His master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD used to give him success in everything that he undertook. <sup>4</sup> Joseph's master was kind to him, and Joseph became his servant. His master put him in charge of his household and entrusted everything that he owned to him. <sup>5</sup> After the Egyptian appointed Joseph over his household and over everything that he owned, the LORD blessed his household because of Joseph. The blessing of the LORD was on everything that his master had, both in the household and in the field. <sup>6</sup> He left everything that he had in Joseph's charge. Because he had him, he did not concern himself with anything except the food that he was eating.

Joseph was well built and good-looking. <sup>7</sup> After these things, his master's wife took notice of Joseph and said, "Come to bed with me!"

<sup>8</sup> He refused. He told his master's wife: "Look! Because I am here, my master does not concern himself with anything in the house. He has entrusted everything that he has to me. <sup>9</sup> In this house my master is no greater than I am. He has not withheld anything from me except yourself, because you are his wife. How then could I do this very wicked thing and sin against God?"

<sup>10</sup> Although she kept talking to Joseph day after day, he refused her requests to lie beside her and even to be with her. <sup>11</sup> One day he went into the house to do his work, when none of the household servants was there in the house. <sup>12</sup> She caught him by his cloak and said, "Come to bed with me!" However, he left his cloak in her hand, ran away and went outside. <sup>13</sup> When she saw that he had left his cloak in her hand and had run outside, <sup>14</sup> she called her household servants. She told them: "Look! He has brought us a Hebrew man to play around with us. He came to me to sleep with me, but I screamed. <sup>15</sup> As soon as he heard me scream for help, he left his cloak beside me, ran away and went outside."

<sup>16</sup> She kept Joseph's cloak with her until his master came home. <sup>17</sup> Then she told him a similar story. She said: "The Hebrew slave whom you brought to us came to me to play around with me. <sup>18</sup> However, when I screamed for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran outside."

Joseph's imprisonment

<sup>19</sup> When his master heard the story that his wife told him, "This is what your slave did to me," he burned with anger. <sup>20</sup> Joseph's master arrested him and put him in prison, in the place where the king's prisoners were held. So, Joseph was there in the prison. <sup>21</sup> Nevertheless, the LORD was with Joseph and extended His mercy to him. He made the superintendent of the prison kind to him. <sup>22</sup> The superintendent of the prison put Joseph in charge of all the others who were held in that prison. He was responsible for everything that they were doing there. <sup>23</sup> The superintendent of the prison paid no attention to anything entrusted to Joseph, because the LORD was with Joseph and because the LORD kept making whatever Joseph was doing successful.

40

Joseph's interpretation of the cup-bearer's and the baker's dreams in prison

<sup>1</sup> After this, the cup-bearer and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their master, the king of Egypt.

<sup>2</sup> Pharaoh became angry with his two officers, the chief cup-bearer and the chief baker. <sup>3</sup> He put them under guard at the house of the captain of the bodyguards, in the same prison as where Joseph was being held. <sup>4</sup> The captain of the bodyguards assigned them to Joseph, who waited on them. After they had been under guard for a while, <sup>5</sup> each of the two men, the cup-bearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were being held in the prison, had a dream during the same night. Each had his own dream, which fitted its interpretation. <sup>6</sup> When Joseph went to them in the morning and looked at them, he saw that they were unhappy. <sup>7</sup> He asked Pharaoh's officials, who were with him under guard in his master's house, "Why are your faces so worried today?"

<sup>50</sup> Perez means, "Breaking out."

<sup>51</sup> Zerah means, "Brightness."

<sup>8</sup> They answered him, "We have each had a dream, but there is no one to explain what each one means."

Joseph asked them. "Do not interpretations belong to God? Please tell me your dreams!"

<sup>9</sup> So, the chief cup-bearer told Joseph his dream. He told him: "In my dream I saw a grapevine in front of me. <sup>10</sup> There were three branches on the vine. It looked as if it was budding. Its cluster of blossoms sprang up and its clusters ripened into grapes.

<sup>11</sup> Pharaoh's cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, squeezed them out into Pharaoh's cup and put the cup in Pharaoh's hand."

<sup>12</sup> Joseph told him: "This is the interpretation of it. The three branches are three days. <sup>13</sup> In three days Pharaoh will restore you to honour and put you back in your position. You will put Pharaoh's cup in his hand as you used to do when you were his cup-bearer.

<sup>14</sup> However, I want you to remember me when all is well with you. Please be kind to me and mention me to Pharaoh! Get me out of this building! <sup>15</sup> For I have indeed been stolen away from the country of the Hebrews and here too I have not done anything to justify my being put into this dungeon."

<sup>16</sup> When the chief baker saw that Joseph had given a favourable interpretation, he told Joseph: "I also have had a dream. I saw three baskets of cakes made with fine flour on my head. <sup>17</sup> In the top basket there were all kinds of baked food for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head."

<sup>18</sup> Joseph answered: "This is the interpretation of it: The three baskets are three days. <sup>19</sup> In three days Pharaoh will lift up your head from you and hang you on a tree, and the birds will eat your flesh from you."

<sup>20</sup> On the third day, which was Pharaoh's birthday, Pharaoh arranged a feast for all his officials. He gave special attention to the chief cup-bearer and the chief baker among his officials. <sup>21</sup> He put the chief cup-bearer back in his position, so that his cup-bearer again put the cup in Pharaoh's hand <sup>22</sup> but hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had told them in his interpretation. <sup>23</sup> Nevertheless, the chief cup-bearer did not remember Joseph but forgot him.

41

Joseph's interpretation of the Pharaoh's dreams

<sup>1</sup> After two whole years, Pharaoh dreamed that he was standing beside the River Nile. <sup>2</sup> He saw seven fine-looking fat cows coming up out of the river, and they grazed among the reeds. <sup>3</sup> Then he saw seven other cows, ugly and lean, coming up out of the river after them. They stood beside the other cows on the riverbank. <sup>4</sup> The ugly, lean cows ate up the seven fine-looking fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

<sup>5</sup> He fell asleep and had a second dream. He saw seven heads of grain, plump and healthy, sprouting up on a single stalk. <sup>6</sup> Then he saw seven scanty heads of grain scorched by the east wind sprouting up after them. <sup>7</sup> The scanty heads of grain swallowed up the seven plump and full heads. Then Pharaoh woke up and realised that it had been a dream. <sup>8</sup> In the morning his spirit was disturbed and he sent some men to call all the soothsayer-priests of Egypt and all its wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no one could interpret them for Pharaoh.

<sup>9</sup> Then the chief cup-bearer spoke up to Pharaoh. He said: "Today I must mention my faults. <sup>10</sup> When Pharaoh was angry with his officials, he placed me in custody at the house of the captain of the bodyguards, together with the chief baker. <sup>11</sup> He and I each had dreams in the same night. Each of us had a dream that matched its own interpretation. <sup>12</sup> A young Hebrew was there with us, a slave belonging to the captain of the bodyguards. We told him our dreams, and he interpreted them for us. He told each of us the interpretation of his dream. <sup>13</sup> Our dreams turned out as he had interpreted them: Pharaoh restored me to my position and hanged the other man."

<sup>14</sup> Then Pharaoh sent some men to call Joseph, and they quickly brought him out of the dungeon. He shaved, changed his clothes and came to Pharaoh. <sup>15</sup> Pharaoh told Joseph: "I have had a dream, but no one can interpret it. However, I have heard that, when you hear a dream, you can interpret it."

<sup>16</sup> Joseph answered Pharaoh: "I cannot do it. However, God will give Pharaoh an answer that indicates his welfare."

<sup>17</sup> Pharaoh told Joseph: "In my dream I was standing beside the bank of the Nile. <sup>18</sup> I saw seven fat fine-looking cows coming up out of the river, and they grazed among the reeds. <sup>19</sup> Then I saw seven other cows coming up after them. They were thin, very ugly and skinny. I have never seen anything as ugly as they were in all the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> The skinny, ugly cows ate up the first seven fat cows. <sup>21</sup> Although these went into their bodies, no one would have known that they had gone into their bodies. They looked as ugly as they had at the beginning. Then I woke up.

<sup>22</sup> "Then I suddenly saw in my dream seven heads of grain, full and good, sprouting up on a single stalk. <sup>23</sup> Next I saw seven barren, thin heads scorched by the east wind sprouting up after them. <sup>24</sup> The thin heads swallowed up the seven good heads. I told this to the soothsayer-priests, but no one could explain it to me."

<sup>25</sup> Joseph told Pharaoh: "The dreams of Pharaoh mean the same. God has told Pharaoh what He is about to do. <sup>26</sup> The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good heads are seven years. The dreams are the same. <sup>27</sup> The seven skinny, ugly cows coming up after them are seven years, and the seven empty heads of grain scorched by the east wind will be seven years of famine. <sup>28</sup> It is just as I have told Pharaoh. God has shown Pharaoh what He is about to do. <sup>29</sup> Look! Seven years are coming when there will be great plenty throughout the land of Egypt. <sup>30</sup> Seven years of famine will follow them, during which a famine will exhaust the land, and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt. <sup>31</sup> The plenty will no longer be remembered in the land because of the famine that follows. For it will be very severe. <sup>32</sup> The reason why the dream has been given to Pharaoh in two forms is that the matter has been firmly decided by God, and God will make it happen soon.

Joseph's advice to the Pharaoh

<sup>33</sup> "Now therefore, Pharaoh should choose an intelligent and wise man and put him in charge of the land of Egypt! <sup>34</sup> Pharaoh should do this and should appoint overseers over the land and collect one-fifth of what the land of Egypt produces during the seven plentiful years! <sup>35</sup> They should collect all the food of these good years that are coming and, under Pharaoh's authority, heap up grain for food in the cities and store it there! <sup>36</sup> This food should be a reserve supply for the land for the seven years of famine that will occur in the land of Egypt, that the country may not be ruined by the famine!"

The elevation of Joseph to high office

<sup>37</sup> Pharaoh and all his officials approved the advice. <sup>38</sup> Pharaoh asked his officials, "Can we find anyone like this, a man who has the Spirit of God in him?" <sup>39</sup> Then Pharaoh told Joseph: "Since God has made all this known to you, there is no one as perceptive and wise as you are. <sup>40</sup> You shall be in charge of my palace, and all my people shall obey your instructions! Only in regard to the throne shall I be superior to you."

<sup>41</sup> Pharaoh told Joseph, "See! I have hereby put you in charge of the entire land of Egypt."

<sup>42</sup> Pharaoh removed his signet ring from his finger and put it on Joseph's finger. He dressed him in fine linen and put a golden chain around his neck. <sup>43</sup> He had Joseph ride in his second chariot of state. People called out ahead of him, "Bow down!" Pharaoh put Joseph in charge of the entire land of Egypt.

<sup>44</sup> Pharaoh told Joseph, "Although I am Pharaoh, no one throughout the land of Egypt will raise his hand or his foot without your permission."

<sup>45</sup> Pharaoh gave Joseph the name "Zaphenath-Paneah"<sup>52</sup> and gave him Asenath as his wife. She was the daughter of Potiphara, the priest of On. Then Joseph travelled over the land of Egypt.

Joseph's supervision of storage of grain

<sup>46</sup> Joseph was thirty years old when he began to work for Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. Joseph went out from Pharaoh's presence and travelled through the entire land of Egypt. <sup>47</sup> During the seven plentiful years the land produced abundantly. <sup>48</sup> Joseph collected all the food produced during the seven plentiful years that ensued in the land of Egypt. He stored the food in the cities. Inside each city he deposited the food from the fields around it. <sup>49</sup> The grain that Joseph heaped up was like the sand by the sea. It was so plentiful that he stopped keeping records, because it could not be recorded.

<sup>50</sup> Two sons were born to Joseph by Asenath, the daughter of Potiphara, the priest of On, before the first year of famine came. <sup>51</sup> Joseph named his first-born "Manasseh."<sup>53</sup> For he said, "God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father's household." <sup>52</sup> He named the second son "Ephraim."<sup>54</sup> For he said, "God has made me fruitful in the land of my suffering."

Joseph's distribution of relief during the famine

<sup>53</sup> The seven plentiful years that occurred in the land of Egypt ended. <sup>54</sup> Then the seven years of famine began, as Joseph had said they would, and there was a famine in all the other countries. However, there was food in the entire land of Egypt. <sup>55</sup> When the whole land of Egypt was suffering from hunger, the people cried to Pharaoh for food. Then Pharaoh told all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph! Do what he tells you!" <sup>56</sup> When the famine had spread all over the land, Joseph opened all the stores that were among the Egyptians and sold grain to them. The famine was severe throughout the land of Egypt. <sup>57</sup> Because the famine was severe all over the world, the whole world came to Joseph in Egypt to buy grain.

42

The arrival of Jacob's sons in Egypt

<sup>1</sup> When Jacob found out that there was grain for sale in Egypt, he asked his sons, "Why do you keep looking at one another?" <sup>2</sup> He added: "Look! I have heard there is grain for sale in Egypt. Go down there and buy some grain for us from there, that we may live and not die!"

<sup>3</sup> Ten of Joseph's brothers went down to buy grain in Egypt. <sup>4</sup> However, Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with the other brothers. For he said, "I am afraid that some fatal accident may happen to him."

<sup>5</sup> Israel's sons went to buy grain along with the other people who were going, because there was famine in the land of Canaan also. <sup>6</sup> Joseph, as the ruler of the country, was selling grain to all the people of the country. So, when Joseph's brothers arrived, they bowed down to him with their faces on the ground.

<sup>7</sup> When Joseph saw his brothers, he recognised them. However, he kept his identity from them and spoke harshly to them. He asked them, "From where have you come?"

<sup>52</sup> Zaphenath-Paneah" means, "God speaks and lives."

<sup>53</sup> Manasseh means, "He causes to forget."

<sup>54</sup> Ephraim means, "Double fruitfulness."

They answered, "From the land of Canaan, to buy food."

<sup>8</sup> Although Joseph recognised his brothers, they did not recognise him. <sup>9</sup> Joseph remembered the dreams that he had had about them. He told them: "You are spies. You have come to find out where the country is undefended."

<sup>10</sup> They answered him: "No, my master! Your servants have come to buy grain for food. <sup>11</sup> We are all the sons of one man. We are honest men. Your servants have never been spies."

<sup>12</sup> However, he told them, "No! You have come to find out where the country is undefended."

<sup>13</sup> They answered him: "Your servants are twelve brothers, the sons of one man in the land of Canaan. In fact, the youngest is now with our father and one is no more."

<sup>14</sup> However, Joseph told them: "It is just as I have told you. You are spies. <sup>15</sup> This is how you will be tested: As surely as Pharaoh lives, you will not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here.

<sup>16</sup> Send one of you to fetch your brother. The rest of you shall be kept in prison, that what you are saying may be tested, to see whether you are telling the truth! If not, as surely as Pharaoh lives, you are spies."

<sup>17</sup> So, he put them in prison for three days. <sup>18</sup> On the third day Joseph told them: "Do this and live! I too fear God. <sup>19</sup> If you are honest men, let one of your brothers remain confined where you are in custody! The rest of you, go and take grain for your hungry families! <sup>20</sup> You shall also fetch me your youngest brother, that what you are saying may be confirmed! Then you will not die."

The return of nine brothers to Canaan

So, that is what they did. <sup>21</sup> Then they told one another: "Surely we are bearing the consequences of our guilt concerning our brother. We saw how distressed he was when he was pleading with us for pity, and we would not listen. This is why this distress has come on us."

<sup>22</sup> Reuben answered them: "Did I not tell you, 'Do not sin against the boy!?' However, you would not listen. Yes, you see, we are being called to account for his blood."

<sup>23</sup> However, they were not aware that Joseph understood them. For he had been speaking to them through an interpreter. <sup>24</sup> Joseph turned away from them and wept. When he came back, he spoke to them. Then he took Simeon from them and had him arrested while they were watching. <sup>25</sup> Then Joseph gave an order to fill their sacks with grain, to return each man's money to his sack and to give them provisions for their journey. This was done for them. <sup>26</sup> They loaded their grain on their donkeys and left. <sup>27</sup> When one of them opened his sack to give fodder to his donkey at the place where they camped for the night, he saw his money. There it was in the mouth of his sack! <sup>28</sup> He told his brothers: "My money has been put back! Look! Here it is, in the mouth of my sack."

Their hearts sank and they trembled as they looked at each other. They asked, "What is this that God has done to us?"

The report of the nine brothers to Jacob in Canaan

<sup>29</sup> When they came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him everything that had happened to them. They said, <sup>30</sup> "The ruler of the land spoke harshly to us and treated us as though we were spying on the land. <sup>31</sup> We told him, 'We are honest men. We have never been spies. <sup>32</sup> We are twelve brothers, the sons of our father. One is no more and the youngest is still with our father in the land of Canaan.' <sup>33</sup> The man who is ruler of the land told us, 'This is how I shall know that you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers with me! Take food for your hungry families and go! <sup>34</sup> Then bring your youngest brother to me, that I may know you are no spies but honest men! Then I shall give your brother back to you, and you may move about in this country.'"

<sup>35</sup> While they were emptying their sacks, they saw each one's bag of money in his sack. When they saw their bags of money, they and their father were afraid.

<sup>36</sup> Their father Jacob told them: "You have deprived me of my children. Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, and you are going to take Benjamin. All these things have come against me!"

<sup>37</sup> Reuben told his father: "You may put both of my sons to death if I do not bring him back to you. Entrust him to my care! I shall bring him back to you."

<sup>38</sup> However, Jacob replied: "My son shall not go down with you! His brother is dead, and he is the only one left. If a fatal accident should happen to him on the journey that you would make, you would bring this grey-haired old man down to his grave in sorrow."

43

The second journey to Egypt for food together with Benjamin

<sup>1</sup> The famine continued to be severe in the land.

<sup>2</sup> After they had finished eating all the grain that they had brought from Egypt, their father told them, "Go back and buy us a little food!"

<sup>3</sup> However, Judah told him: "The man warned us solemnly, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.' <sup>4</sup> If you are going to send our brother along with us, we shall go down to buy food for you.

<sup>5</sup> However, if you are not going to send him, we shall not go down, because the man told us, 'You will not see my face unless your brother is with you.'"

<sup>6</sup> Israel asked, "Why did you cause trouble for me by telling the man whether you had another brother?"

<sup>7</sup> They replied: "The man questioned us closely about ourselves and our relatives. He asked, 'Is your father still alive? Do you have another brother?' We told him exactly what he was asking. Could we in any way know that he would say, 'Fetch your brother down here!?'?"

<sup>8</sup> Then Judah told his father Israel: "Send the lad with me, and let us go at once, that both you, we and our families may live and not die! <sup>9</sup> I shall myself stand surety for him. You may hold me personally responsible for him. If I fail to produce him before you, then you may blame me for it all my life. <sup>10</sup> For, if we had not been delaying so long, we could surely have returned twice by now."

<sup>11</sup> Their father Israel told them: "If it must be so, then do this: Put in your sacks some of the best produce of the land and take a gift down to the man, a little mastic, a little honey, resin, gum, some pistachio nuts and almonds! <sup>12</sup> Take a double amount of money with you and take back with you the money that was put back into the mouths of your sacks! Perhaps there was an oversight. <sup>13</sup> Take your brother also and go back to the man at once! <sup>14</sup> May God Almighty make the man merciful to you, that he may release your other brother to you and send Benjamin back! As for me, if I have lost my children, I have lost them."

Joseph's dinner for his brothers at his house

<sup>15</sup> So, the men took that gift. They also took twice as much money with them, as well as Benjamin. They got ready, went down to Egypt and stood before Joseph. <sup>16</sup> When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he told the man in charge of his house: "Take these men to my house, butcher an animal and prepare a meal! For the men will have dinner with me at noon."

<sup>17</sup> The man did as Joseph had told him and took the men to Joseph's home. <sup>18</sup> The men were afraid because they had been brought into Joseph's home. They said: "We are being brought here because of the money that was put back into our sacks the first time. He wants to fall upon us, attack us, take us as slaves and seize our donkeys."

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, they approached the man in charge of Joseph's house and spoke to him at the entrance to the house. <sup>20</sup> They said: "With your permission, sir, we indeed came down the first time to buy food. <sup>21</sup> However, when we came to the place where we spent the night, we opened our sacks and saw that each man's money was in the mouth of his sack, the full amount of our money. So, we have brought it back with us. <sup>22</sup> We have also brought down additional money with us to buy food. We do not know who put our money in our sacks."

<sup>23</sup> However, he said: "You have nothing to worry about. Do not be afraid! Your God and the God of your father has put treasure in your sacks for you. I received your money."

Then he brought Simeon out to them. <sup>24</sup> The steward took the brothers into Joseph's home. He gave them water, and they washed their feet. He also provided fodder for their donkeys. <sup>25</sup> The men prepared their gift for when Joseph came at noon, because they had heard that they were going to eat there. <sup>26</sup> When Joseph came home, they presented to him the gift that they had brought into the house and bowed down to the ground before him. <sup>27</sup> He inquired of them how they were and then he asked, "How is your aged father, about whom you told me? Is he still alive?"

<sup>28</sup> They answered, "Your servant, our father, is well. He is still alive."

Then they knelt and prostrated themselves. <sup>29</sup> When he looked around, he saw his brother Benjamin, his own mother's son. He asked, "Is this your youngest brother, about whom you told me?" He said, "May God be gracious to you, my son!"

<sup>30</sup> Then Joseph hurried out and looked for a place to weep, because his loving feelings towards his brother were aroused. He went into his private room and wept there. <sup>31</sup> Then he washed his face, came out and controlled himself. He said, "Serve the food!"

<sup>32</sup> They served Joseph by himself and the brothers by themselves and served the Egyptians who were eating with him separately. For the Egyptians could not share their food with the Hebrews, because that is detestable to Egyptians. <sup>33</sup> When the brothers sat down facing Joseph, the first-born was in the first-born's place and the youngest was in the youngest one's place, and the men looked at one another in astonishment. <sup>34</sup> Joseph took up servings for them from his own table, but Benjamin's portion of honour was five times larger than the portions of all the others. So, they feasted and drank wine with him.

44

Joseph's plan to test his brothers again

<sup>1</sup> Joseph gave these orders to the man in charge of his house: "Fill the men's sacks with as much food as they can carry and put each man's money in the mouth of his sack! <sup>2</sup> Then put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the youngest one's sack, together with the money for his grain!"

He did as Joseph had told him. <sup>3</sup> At daybreak the men were sent on their way with their donkeys. <sup>4</sup> They had left the city but had not gone far when Joseph told the man in charge of his house: "Follow the men at once and, when you catch up with them, ask them, 'Why have you repaid good with evil?' <sup>5</sup> Is this not the thing from which my master drinks and which he uses to search for omens and to give them? This is a wicked thing that you have done!"

<sup>6</sup> When he had caught up with them, he repeated these words to them. <sup>7</sup> They answered him: "Why should my master say such things? Your servants would never do anything like that. <sup>8</sup> Look! We brought back to you from the land of Canaan the money that we found in the mouths of our sacks. How, then, would we steal silver or gold from your master's house? <sup>9</sup> If it is found with anyone of your servants, he will die, and the rest of us will become my master's slaves."

<sup>10</sup> He said: "Yes, now let it be as you say! The one with whom it is found will be my slave, but the rest of you will be innocent.”

<sup>11</sup> Each one quickly took his sack down to the ground and each one opened his sack. <sup>12</sup> So, the steward searched for it. He began with the eldest and ended with the youngest, and the cup was found in Benjamin’s sack. <sup>13</sup> Then they tore their clothes. After each one loaded his donkey, they returned to the city.

<sup>14</sup> Joseph was still in the house when Judah and his brothers came. They fell to the ground before him.

<sup>15</sup> Joseph asked them: “What is this that you have done? Do you not know that a man like me searches for omens and issues them?”

<sup>16</sup> Then Judah said: “What can we answer my master? What can we say? How can we prove that we are innocent? God has found out the guilt of your servants. Here we are. We are my master’s slaves, we ourselves in addition to the one in whose possession the cup has been found.”

<sup>17</sup> He said: “I would never do that! The man in whose possession the cup has been found will become my slave, but the rest of you may go unharmed to your father.”

Judah’s intercession for Benjamin

<sup>18</sup> Then Judah went closer to Joseph. He said: “With your permission, my master, please let your servant say something for my master to hear and do not become angry with your servant, even though you are equal to Pharaoh! <sup>19</sup> My master asked his servants, ‘Do you have a father or a brother?’ <sup>20</sup> We told my master, ‘We have an old father and a young brother who was born when our father was old. His brother is dead, he is the only one of his mother’s sons left, and his father loves him.’ <sup>21</sup> Then you told your servants, ‘Bring him down to me, that I may see him for myself!’

<sup>22</sup> “We told my master, ‘The lad cannot leave his father. If the lad left his father, his father would die.’

<sup>23</sup> Nevertheless, you told your servants, ‘If your youngest brother does not come down with you, you will not see my face again.’ <sup>24</sup> When we went up to your servant, my father, we told him what my master had said. <sup>25</sup> Then our father said, ‘Go back and buy us a little food!’ <sup>26</sup> However, we replied, ‘We cannot go down. If our youngest brother is with us, we shall go down. For we cannot see the man’s face unless our youngest brother is with us.’ <sup>27</sup> Your servant, my father, told us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons. <sup>28</sup> One went away from me, and I said: “He has certainly been torn in pieces. I have not seen him since.” <sup>29</sup> If you take this one away from me too, and he meets with a fatal accident, you will bring my grey hair down to the grave in misery.’ <sup>30</sup> Now therefore, when I come to your servant, my father and the lad is not with us, since his father’s life is wrapped up with the lad’s life, <sup>31</sup> when he sees that the lad is not there, he will die. Your servants will bring the grey hair of your servant, our father, down to the grave in sorrow.

<sup>32</sup> For your servant stood surety for the lad to my father and said, ‘If I do not bring him back to you, then, my father, you may blame me for it for the rest of my life.’ <sup>33</sup> Now therefore, please let your servant remain here as my master’s slave instead of the lad but let the lad go back up with his brothers! <sup>34</sup> For how could I go back up to my father if the lad were not with me? I would not wish to see the misery that would come on my father.”

45

Joseph’s revelation of his identity to his brothers

<sup>1</sup> Then Joseph could no longer hold back his emotions before all who were standing near him and called out, “Make everyone leave my presence!”

There was no one else standing with Joseph when he told his brothers who he was. <sup>2</sup> He wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard him and the household of Pharaoh heard him. <sup>3</sup> Then Joseph told his brothers, “I am Joseph! Is my father still alive?”

However, his brothers could not answer him because they were terrified at his presence. <sup>4</sup> Joseph told his brothers, “Please come closer to me!”

Therefore, they went closer. He said: “I am your brother Joseph, whom you sold into Egypt. <sup>5</sup> Now, however, do not be sad or angry with yourselves for selling me here! For it was to save lives that God has sent me ahead of you. <sup>6</sup> For two years now there has been a famine in the land, and there are five more years when there will be no ploughing or harvesting.

<sup>7</sup> God has sent me ahead of you to preserve for you a remnant on the earth and to save your lives by a great deliverance. <sup>8</sup> So now, it has not been you who have sent me here, but God. He has also made me a father to Pharaoh, master over his entire household and ruler over all the land of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> Go up to my father quickly and tell him, ‘This is what your son Joseph has said: “God has made me master of all Egypt. Come down to me immediately! <sup>10</sup> You shall live in the region of Goshen, and you yourself, your children and your grandchildren will be near me with your flocks, your herds and everything else that you have! <sup>11</sup> I shall provide for you there. For there will be five more years of famine. Otherwise you, your family and all who belong to you will lose your property.”’ <sup>12</sup> Look! Your own eyes and the eyes of my brother Benjamin can see that it is my mouth that is speaking to you.

<sup>13</sup> Tell my father about all the honour given to me in Egypt and about everything that you have seen and bring my father down here quickly!”

<sup>14</sup> Then he fell on his brother Benjamin’s neck and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck. <sup>15</sup> Joseph kissed all his brothers and wept over them. After that, his brothers talked with him.

Pharaoh’s invitation to Israel’s family to live in Egypt

<sup>16</sup> When the news reached Pharaoh’s palace: “Joseph’s brothers have come,” Pharaoh and his officials were pleased. <sup>17</sup> Pharaoh told Joseph, “Tell your brothers, ‘Do this: Load your animals, leave and go to the land of Canaan!’ <sup>18</sup> Fetch your father and your families and come to me, that I may give you the best of the land of Egypt! Then eat the finest things in the land!’ <sup>19</sup> You yourself are commanded to say, ‘Do this: Take some carts from the land of Egypt for your children and your wives! Bring your father and come!’ <sup>20</sup> Do not begrudge seeing your belongings left behind! For the best of all the land of Egypt is yours.”

<sup>21</sup> This is what the sons of Israel did. As Pharaoh had ordered, Joseph gave them carts and also gave them provisions for their journey. <sup>22</sup> He gave festive garments to all of them individually but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five festive garments. <sup>23</sup> This is what he sent to his father: ten male donkeys loaded with the best things of Egypt and ten female donkeys loaded with grain, bread and other food for his father on the journey. <sup>24</sup> As Joseph dismissed his brothers and they were leaving, he told them, “Do not be upset on the way!”

<sup>25</sup> They left Egypt and went up to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan. <sup>26</sup> When they told him, “Joseph is still alive and is ruler over all the land of Egypt,” his heart became numb, because he did not believe them. <sup>27</sup> However, when they had told him everything that Joseph had told them and when he saw the carts that Joseph had sent to fetch him, the spirit of their father Jacob revived. <sup>28</sup> Israel said, “Enough! My son Joseph is still alive. Let me go that I may see him before I die!”

46

The departure of Jacob's whole family for Egypt

<sup>1</sup> Israel set out with all that he had. When he arrived at Beer-Sheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

God's revelation to Jacob about his descendants' return to Canaan

<sup>2</sup> God spoke to Israel in a vision at night. He said, “Jacob, Jacob!”

He answered, “Here I am.”

<sup>3</sup> He said: “I am God, the God of your father. Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt! For I shall make you into a great nation there. <sup>4</sup> I Myself shall go down to Egypt with you and shall surely bring you back up again. Joseph's hand will also close your eyes.”

Jacob's journey to Egypt with his family

<sup>5</sup> Then Jacob set out from Beer-Sheba. Israel's sons carried their father Jacob, their children and their wives in the carts that Pharaoh had sent to transport them. <sup>6</sup> They also took their livestock and the other possessions that they had acquired in the land of Canaan. So, Jacob went to Egypt together with all his descendants. <sup>7</sup> He took with him to Egypt his sons, his grandsons, his daughters and his granddaughters — all his descendants.

Israel's descendants — compare Exodus 6:14-16, 1 Chronicles 2:3-5

<sup>8</sup> These are the names of Israel's descendants who came into Egypt: Jacob and his sons. Jacob's first-born son was Reuben. <sup>9</sup> The sons of Reuben were Hanoah, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. <sup>10</sup> The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar and Shaul, the son of a Canaanite woman. <sup>11</sup> The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath and Merari. <sup>12</sup> The sons of Judah were Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez and Zerah (but Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul. <sup>13</sup> The sons of Issachar were Tola, Puvah, Yob and Shimron. <sup>14</sup> The sons of Zebulun were Sered, Elon and Jahleel. <sup>15</sup> These were the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Paddan-Aram, together with his daughter Dinah. All these persons, his sons and his daughters, numbered thirty-three.

<sup>16</sup> The sons of Gad were Ziphion, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi and Areli. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi and Beriah and their sister was Serah. The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel.

<sup>18</sup> These were the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban had given to his daughter Leah. She bore these to Jacob and they numbered sixteen persons.

<sup>19</sup> The sons of Jacob's wife Rachel were Joseph and Benjamin. <sup>20</sup> In Egypt, Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph. Asenath the daughter of Potiphera, the priest of On, bore them to him. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Benjamin were Bela, Becher, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim and Ard. <sup>22</sup> These were the descendants of Rachel, who were born to Jacob, fourteen persons in all.

<sup>23</sup> The son of Dan was Hushim. <sup>24</sup> The sons of Naphtali were Jahzeel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem. <sup>25</sup> These were the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban had given to his daughter Rachel, and she bore these to Jacob, seven persons in all.

<sup>26</sup> All the persons who went to Egypt with Jacob, those who were his direct descendants, not counting the wives of Jacob's sons, numbered sixty-six persons in all. <sup>27</sup> With the sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt, numbering two persons, the grand total of the members of Jacob's family who went to Egypt was seventy.

<sup>28</sup> Jacob sent Judah in front of him to Joseph to show the way ahead to Goshen. So, they arrived in the region of Goshen.

Israel's reunion with Joseph

<sup>29</sup> Joseph hitched up his chariot and went up to Goshen to meet his father Israel. When Joseph appeared before him, he put his arms around his father's neck and wept on his shoulder continuously. <sup>30</sup> Israel told Joseph, “Let me die at last, since I have seen your face! For you are still alive.”

Israel's audience with Pharaoh

<sup>31</sup> Joseph told his brothers and his father's family: “I shall go up that I may make a report to Pharaoh. I shall tell him, ‘My brothers and my father's family, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me.

<sup>32</sup> The men are shepherds. For they have been looking after livestock. They have brought along their flocks and herds and everything that they have.’ <sup>33</sup> When Pharaoh calls you in and asks, ‘What is your occupation?’ <sup>34</sup> you should answer, ‘Your servants, like their fathers, have been minding livestock from their youth until now,’ that you may live in the region of Goshen! For all shepherds are disgusting to Egyptians.”

47

The relocation of Jacob’s family to Goshen

<sup>1</sup> Joseph went and told Pharaoh: “My father and my brothers have come from the land of Canaan with their flocks, herds and everything that they have and are now in the region of Goshen.”

<sup>2</sup> He selected five from the full number of his brothers and presented them before Pharaoh. <sup>3</sup> Pharaoh asked his brothers, “What is your occupation?”

They answered Pharaoh: “Your servants are shepherds, as our fathers have also been.”

<sup>4</sup> They told Pharaoh: “We have come to stay as foreigners in this country, because your servants have no pasture for their flocks. For the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please let your servants live in the region of Goshen!”

<sup>5</sup> Then Pharaoh told Joseph: “Your father and your brothers have come to you. <sup>6</sup> The land of Egypt lies before you. Settle your father and your brothers in the best part of the land! Let them live in the region of Goshen! If you know of any among them who have special ability, make them the chief herdsmen over my own livestock!”

Jacob’s presentation to the Pharaoh

<sup>7</sup> Then Joseph brought his father Jacob and presented him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh.

<sup>8</sup> Pharaoh asked Jacob, “How old are you?”

<sup>9</sup> Jacob told Pharaoh: “I have been living as a foreigner for a hundred and thirty years. The days of the years of my life have been few and disagreeable. They have not reached the amount of time that my fathers lived during their lives as foreigners.”

<sup>10</sup> Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went out from his presence.

<sup>11</sup> Joseph gave his father and his brothers a place to live and gave them property in the land of Egypt, in the best part of the land, in the district of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. <sup>12</sup> Joseph provided his father, his brothers and his father’s entire household with food according to the size of their families.

The famine in Egypt and Joseph’s acquisition of most of the land in Egypt for the Pharaoh

<sup>13</sup> There was no food anywhere in the country, because the famine was very severe and the countries of Egypt and Canaan were languishing because of the famine. <sup>14</sup> Joseph collected all the money that could be found in the countries of Egypt and in Canaan as payment for the grain that people were buying and Joseph deposited the money at Pharaoh’s palace.

<sup>15</sup> When the money from the countries of Egypt and Canaan had all been spent, all the Egyptians came to Joseph and said, “Give us food! Why should we die here in front of you? For our money has been used up.”

<sup>16</sup> Joseph said: “Hand over your livestock! I shall sell you food in exchange for your livestock if all your money has been spent.”

<sup>17</sup> So, they brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them food in exchange for their horses, for their livestock from their flocks and herds and for their donkeys. He supplied them with food during that year in exchange for all their livestock.

The enslavement of the people in Egypt to the Pharaoh in return for food

<sup>18</sup> That year elapsed. When they came to him the next year, they told him: “We shall not hide from our master that, since all our money has been spent, our property in animals has also gone to my master, and there is nothing left to bring to our master except ourselves and our land. <sup>19</sup> Why should both we and our land perish before your eyes? Buy us and our land in exchange for food! Then we shall be Pharaoh’s slaves, and our land will be transferred to Pharaoh. However, give us grain, that we may live and not die, and that the land may not be deserted!”

<sup>20</sup> So, Joseph bought all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh. The Egyptians, one and all, sold their fields, because the famine was severe on them. Therefore, the land became Pharaoh’s. <sup>21</sup> Joseph moved the people to the cities, from one end of the territory of Egypt to the other. <sup>22</sup> However, he did not buy the land of the priests, because the priests received an income from Pharaoh. They had their food from the allowance that Pharaoh gave them. That is why they did not sell their land. <sup>23</sup> Joseph told the people: “Look! Because I have bought you and your land for Pharaoh today, here is seed for you, that you may sow the ground. <sup>24</sup> At the harvest you shall give a fifth to Pharaoh, and four-fifths shall be your own to sow the fields and to feed yourselves, those in your households and your children!”

<sup>25</sup> They answered: “You have saved our lives. May our master be kind to us, that we may be Pharaoh’s slaves!”

<sup>26</sup> So, Joseph established it as a rule that is still in force today for property in Egypt, that Pharaoh must receive one fifth. Only the property of the priests did not become Pharaoh’s.

Israel’s [Jacob’s] last days in Egypt

<sup>27</sup> So, the Israelites lived in the district of Goshen in Egypt. They settled there, had many children and became very numerous. <sup>28</sup> Jacob lived in the land of Egypt for seventeen years. So, the length of Jacob’s life was one hundred and forty-seven years. <sup>29</sup> The time came near for Israel to die. He called his son Joseph and told him: “If you are kindly disposed to me, please put your hand under my thigh to promise that you will treat me kindly and faithfully! Please do not bury me in Egypt! <sup>30</sup> Let me lie with my fathers! You shall carry me out of Egypt and bury me in their burial place!”

Joseph answered, “I shall do as you have asked.”

<sup>31</sup> Israel said, “Swear to me!”

So, Joseph swore to him. Then Israel bowed down on the head of his bed.

48

Jacob's [Israel's] blessing of Joseph's sons, Ephraim and Manasseh — Hebrews 11:21

<sup>1</sup> Later someone told Joseph: “Look! Your father is ill.”

So, he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim with him. <sup>2</sup> When someone told Jacob, “Look! Your son Joseph is coming to you,” Israel rallied his strength and sat up on the bed.

<sup>3</sup> Jacob told Joseph: “God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan and blessed me. <sup>4</sup> He told me, ‘Look! I shall make you fruitful and increase your numbers. I shall make you a community of peoples and give this land to your descendants after you for an everlasting possession.’ <sup>5</sup> Now therefore, your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you in Egypt, are mine. Ephraim and Manasseh shall belong to me as Reuben and Simeon do! <sup>6</sup> Any other children whom you father after them shall belong to you! These shall be reckoned among their brothers’ names in the territory that they inherit!

<sup>7</sup> When I was coming from Paddan, to my loss, Rachel died in the land of Canaan while we were travelling, and I was still a little distance from Ephrath. I buried her there on the road to Ephrath (which is Bethlehem).”

<sup>8</sup> When Israel saw Joseph’s sons, he asked, “Who are these?”

<sup>9</sup> Joseph told his father, “They are my sons, whom God has given me here.”

Israel answered, “Please bring them here to me, that I may bless them!”

<sup>10</sup> Israel’s eyesight was poor because he was old, so that he could not see well. When Joseph brought his sons closer to him, he kissed them and embraced them. <sup>11</sup> Israel told Joseph: “I had not expected to see your face again, but look! God has let me see your children as well.”

<sup>12</sup> Joseph removed them from Jacob’s knees and bowed with his face to the ground. <sup>13</sup> Then Joseph took both of them, Ephraim with his right hand, at Israel’s left, and Manasseh with his left hand at Israel’s right and brought them close to him. <sup>14</sup> However, Israel stretched out his right hand and put it on Ephraim’s head, although he was the younger. He placed his hands crosswise and put his left hand on Manasseh’s head, although Manasseh was the first-born. <sup>15</sup> Then Jacob blessed Joseph and said: “May God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, may God, who has been my Shepherd all my life long to this day, <sup>16</sup> may the Angel, who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the young men! Let my name be carried on in them together with the names of my fathers, Abraham and Isaac! May they have very many descendants in the middle of the earth!”

<sup>17</sup> When Joseph saw that his father had placed his right hand on Ephraim’s head, he was displeased. He took hold of his father’s hand to move it from Ephraim’s head to Manasseh’s head. <sup>18</sup> Joseph told his father: “Not that way, my father! For this one is the first-born. Put your right hand on his head!”

<sup>19</sup> However, his father refused. He said: “I know, my son, I know. He too will become a people and he too will be great. Nevertheless, his younger brother will be greater than he and his descendants will become a full number of nations.”

<sup>20</sup> He blessed them that day saying: “Joseph, Israel will pronounce blessings through you: ‘May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh!’” In this way he put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup> Israel told Joseph: “See, I am about to die, but God will be with you people and bring you back to the land of your fathers. <sup>22</sup> Moreover, I myself have given one mountain-ridge to you rather than to your brothers, the one that I took from the Amorites with my sword and my bow.”

49

Jacob's prophecies about his twelve sons — compare Deuteronomy 33:1-20

<sup>1</sup> Then Jacob called for his sons and said:

“Gather around, that I may tell you what will happen to you in the future! <sup>2</sup> Gather and listen, sons of Jacob! Listen to your father Israel!

<sup>3</sup> “Reuben, you are my first-born, my strength and the first child of my generative power, excellent in dignity and excellent in strength. <sup>4</sup> Undisciplined like water, you will not have the first place, because you went up on your father’s bed. Then you defiled it. He went up on my couch!

<sup>5</sup> “Simeon and Levi are brothers. Their plans are violent weapons. <sup>6</sup> Let me not enter their circle of confidants! My honour, do not join their assembly! For they have murdered men in their anger and arbitrarily cut the leg-tendons of oxen. <sup>7</sup> A curse on their anger! For it was fierce. A curse on their fury! For it was harsh. I shall divide them in Jacob and scatter them in Israel.

<sup>8</sup> “Judah, your brothers will praise you. Your hand will be on the necks of your enemies. Your father’s sons will bow down to you. <sup>9</sup> You are a lion’s cub, Judah. You have come up from the prey, my son. He has been crouching and lying down like a lion and, like a lioness, who will rouse him? <sup>10</sup> The sceptre will not pass away from Judah or a ruler’s staff from between his feet until the Man of Peace comes, and the nations will obey Him. <sup>11</sup> He ties his donkey up to a vine, his donkey’s colt to a vine with choice grapes.

He will wash his clothes in wine and his garment in the blood of grapes. <sup>12</sup> His eyes are more sparkling than wine, and his teeth are whiter than milk.

<sup>13</sup> “Zebulun will live by the seashore and become a harbour for ships. His rear will adjoin Sidon.

<sup>14</sup> “Issachar is a bony donkey, lying down between its two saddlebags. <sup>15</sup> When he has seen that his resting-place is good and that the land is pleasant, he will bend his shoulder to carry loads and will become completely enslaved.

<sup>16</sup> “Dan will provide justice for his people as one of the tribes of Israel. <sup>17</sup> Dan will be a snake on a road, a horned snake on a path, which bites a horse’s heels, so that its rider falls off backwards.

<sup>18</sup> “I have been eagerly waiting for Your salvation, LORD.

<sup>19</sup> “A raiding party will attack Gad, but he will attack them at their heels.

<sup>20</sup> “From Asher will come rich food. He will provide delicacies for a king.

<sup>21</sup> “Naphtali is the doe of a fallow deer, which has been set free and produced lovely young animals.

<sup>22</sup> “Joseph is a son of a plant that bears fruit, a son of a plant that bears fruit near a spring. With its branches as daughters it has grown over a wall. <sup>23</sup> Archers have provoked him and shot arrows at him with hostility.

<sup>24</sup> However, his bow has remained steady, and his arms and hands have moved nimbly because of the hands of the Mighty God of Jacob, because He is the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel. <sup>25</sup> It has remained steady because of the God of your father, who supports you, and with the help of the Almighty, who blesses you with blessings of the heavens above, blessings of the deep that lies below and blessings of breasts and the womb. <sup>26</sup> These blessings of your father have been greater than the blessings of my parents and greater than the desirable things on the everlasting hills. May these be on Joseph’s head, on the crown of the head of the consecrated prince among his brothers!

<sup>27</sup> “Benjamin, like a wolf, tears his prey in pieces. In the morning he devours the prey and in the evening he divides the plunder.”

<sup>28</sup> All these are the twelve tribes of Israel and this is what their father told them when he blessed them. He gave each of them the blessing that was appropriate to him.

Jacob’s request to be buried with his fathers

<sup>29</sup> Then he gave them these instructions: “I shall soon be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, <sup>30</sup> in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is near Mamre in the land of Canaan! Abraham bought it together with the field from Ephron the Hittite as property for a burial place. <sup>31</sup> People buried Abraham and his wife Sarah there. People buried Isaac and his wife Rebekah there, and there I buried Leah. <sup>32</sup> The field and the cave that is in it were bought from the Hittites.”

<sup>33</sup> When Jacob had finished his instructions to his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed, breathed his last and was gathered to his people.

50

Joseph’s burial of his father Jacob in Canaan

<sup>1</sup> Then Joseph fell on his father’s face, wept over him and kissed him. <sup>2</sup> Joseph ordered the doctors in his service to embalm his father. So, the doctors embalmed Israel. <sup>3</sup> They required a full forty days for it. That is how many days are required for the embalming. The Egyptians also mourned for him for seventy days. <sup>4</sup> When the time of mourning for him was over, Joseph told Pharaoh’s court: “Please, if you are kindly disposed to me, speak to Pharaoh and tell him, <sup>5</sup> ‘My father made me swear an oath, saying, “You see, I am about to die. Bury me in the grave that I cut out for myself in the land of Canaan!” Now therefore, please let me go up that I may bury my father! Then I shall come back.’”

<sup>6</sup> Pharaoh said, “Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear!”

<sup>7</sup> So, Joseph went up to bury his father. All Pharaoh’s officials, the elders of his palace and all the elders of the land of Egypt went up with him. <sup>8</sup> All of Joseph’s household, his brothers and his father’s household also went up. They left only their children, their flocks and their herds in the district of Goshen. <sup>9</sup> Chariots and horsemen also went up with him. It was a very numerous company. <sup>10</sup> When they came to the threshing floor of Atad, which is alongside the Jordan, they made a very loud and sorrowful lamentation. Joseph observed seven days of mourning for his father. <sup>11</sup> When the inhabitants of the land of Canaan saw the mourning on the threshing floor of Atad, they said, “The Egyptians are having a sorrowful mourning,” and so the place was named “Abel-Mizraim”.<sup>55</sup> It is along the Jordan. <sup>12</sup> Therefore, Jacob’s sons did for him as he had commanded them. <sup>13</sup> His sons carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field at Machpelah. Abraham had bought the field as a property for a burial place from Ephron the Hittite. It is near Mamre. <sup>14</sup> After Joseph had buried his father, he, his brothers and all who had gone up with him to bury his father, returned to Egypt.

Joseph’s forgiveness of his brothers

<sup>15</sup> When Joseph’s brothers realised that their father was dead, they asked, “What if Joseph holds a grudge against us and actually pays us back for all the evil that we have done to him?”

<sup>16</sup> They sent a messenger to Joseph to say: “Before your father died, he left these instructions, <sup>17</sup> ‘This is what you are to tell Joseph: “We are begging you, please forgive the crime and the sin that your brothers committed against you, because they did evil to you!” So now, please, forgive the crime of the servants of the God of your father!”

<sup>55</sup> Abel-Mizraim means, “Mourning of the Egyptians.”

Genesis

Joseph wept when their message came to him. <sup>18</sup> Then his brothers themselves came and threw themselves down before him. They said, “See! We are your slaves.”

<sup>19</sup> However, Joseph told them: “Do not be afraid! For am I in the place of God? <sup>20</sup> Although you planned evil against me, God has planned good to come from it, to accomplish what is so this day, the preservation of the lives of many people. <sup>21</sup> So now, do not be afraid! I shall provide for you and your little ones.”

He reassured them with words that touched their hearts.

The death of Joseph — Hebrews 11:22

<sup>22</sup> So, Joseph and his father’s family lived in Egypt.

Joseph lived for a hundred and ten years. <sup>23</sup> Joseph saw the third generation of Ephraim’s children and also the children of Machir, the son of Manasseh. They were placed at birth on Joseph’s lap.

<sup>24</sup> Joseph told his brothers: “I am about to die, but God will surely visit you and take you up out of this land to the land that He promised with an oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.”

<sup>25</sup> Joseph made Israel’s sons swear an oath, saying, “When God surely visits you, you shall carry my bones up from here!”

<sup>26</sup> Joseph died when he was one hundred and ten years old. They embalmed him and put him in his coffin in Egypt.

EXODUS

1

Ex 1The family of Israel in Egypt

<sup>1</sup> These are the names of the sons of Israel (that is, Jacob), who came with him to Egypt with his family:

<sup>2</sup> Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, <sup>3</sup> Issachar, Zebulun, Benjamin, <sup>4</sup> Dan, Naphtali, Gad and Asher. <sup>5</sup> The total number of Jacob's descendants was seventy persons. Joseph was already in Egypt.

<sup>6</sup> Joseph, all his brothers and all the rest of that generation died. <sup>7</sup> The people of Israel had many children. They became very numerous. They became exceedingly strong, so that the land was filled with them.

The enslavement of the Israelites

<sup>8</sup> Then a new king, who knew nothing of Joseph, began to rule over Egypt. <sup>9</sup> He told his people: "Look! The people of Israel are too many and too strong for us. <sup>10</sup> Come! Let us show ourselves wise in dealing with them or they will become more numerous! Then, when a war breaks out, they will even join those who hate us, fight against us and leave the country."

<sup>11</sup> Therefore, they appointed overseers of forced labour to make their lives miserable with their forced labour. They built Pithom and Rameses as supply-depots for Pharaoh. <sup>12</sup> However, the more they oppressed the Israelites, the more they grew and spread out. The Egyptians began to dread the Israelites.

<sup>13</sup> The Egyptians forced the Israelites to work brutally hard as slaves. <sup>14</sup> They made their lives bitter with hard work in mortar and bricks and every kind of labour in the fields. All the work that the Israelites did for the Egyptians was brutally hard.

Pharaoh's instruction to kill all Hebrew boys

<sup>15</sup> Then the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives. The name of one of them was Shiprah, and the name of the other one was Puah. <sup>16</sup> He said: "When you help the Hebrew women in childbirth and see them on the birth-stools, if it is a boy, kill him! If it is a girl, she may live."

<sup>17</sup> However, the midwives feared God and did not do what the king of Egypt had told them. They let the boys live. <sup>18</sup> Therefore, the king of Egypt summoned the midwives. He asked them, "Why have you done this? Why have you let the boys live?"

<sup>19</sup> The midwives answered Pharaoh: "Because the Hebrew women are not like the Egyptian women but are vigorous. They give birth before a midwife comes to them."

<sup>20</sup> God was good to the midwives. So, the people increased in number and became very strong.

<sup>21</sup> Because the midwives feared God, He gave them families of their own. <sup>22</sup> Then Pharaoh gave this order to all his people, "You must throw every Hebrew boy that is born into the Nile, but let every girl live!"

2

The birth of Moses — Hebrews 11:23

<sup>1</sup> A man from Levi's family proceeded to marry a Levite woman. <sup>2</sup> The woman became pregnant and had a son. She saw that he was a fine boy and hid him for three months. <sup>3</sup> When she could not hide him any longer, she got for him a basket made of papyrus reeds and sealed it with tar and pitch. She laid the boy in it and put it among the reeds along the bank of the Nile. <sup>4</sup> The child's sister stood at a distance to find out what would happen to him.

The adoption of Moses by Pharaoh's daughter

<sup>5</sup> Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe at the Nile, while her maids walked along the bank of the Nile. She noticed the basket among the reeds and sent her maid, and she brought it out.

<sup>6</sup> When Pharaoh's daughter opened the basket, she looked at the baby and saw that it was a boy. He was crying, and she felt sorry for him. She said, "This is one of the Hebrews' babies."

<sup>7</sup> Then his sister asked Pharaoh's daughter, "Should I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women, to suckle the baby for you?"

<sup>8</sup> Pharaoh's daughter told her, "Go!"

So, the maiden went and called the baby's mother.

<sup>9</sup> Pharaoh's daughter told the woman: "Take this baby! Suckle him for me! I shall pay you for it myself."

The woman took the baby and fed him. <sup>10</sup> When the child had become old enough, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. Pharaoh's daughter named him "Moses,"<sup>*56</sup> saying, "It is because I pulled him out of the water."

Moses' murder of an Egyptian and his flight from Egypt — Hebrews 11:24-25

<sup>11</sup> One day, after Moses had grown up, he went out to his own people and watched their forced labour. He saw an Egyptian man striking a Hebrew man, one of his own people. <sup>12</sup> He looked this way and that, and, when he saw no one else present, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand. <sup>13</sup> When he went out the next day, he saw two Hebrew men quarrelling. He asked the man who was in the wrong, "Why are you hitting your comrade?"

<sup>14</sup> The man replied: "Who made you a ruler and judge over us? Do you intend to kill me as you killed the Egyptian?"

Moses was alarmed and thought, "This thing has certainly become known."

<sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh heard about this, he tried to kill Moses. However, Moses fled from Pharaoh and went to live in the land of Midian. There he sat down beside a well.

Moses' marriage to Zipporah

<sup>16</sup> The priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came to draw water and fill the watering troughs, to give their father's flock a drink. <sup>17</sup> However, some shepherds came and drove them away. Then Moses got up, came to the girls' rescue and gave their flock a drink. <sup>18</sup> When the girls returned to their father, Reuel, he asked them, "Why have you returned so soon today?"

<sup>56</sup> Moses means, either "Son" or "Pulled out."

<sup>19</sup> They answered: "An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds. He even drew water for us and gave the flock a drink."

<sup>20</sup> He asked his daughters: "Where is he? Why is it that you have left the man there? Invite him to eat a meal!"

<sup>21</sup> Moses agreed to stay with the man. He gave Moses his daughter Zipporah to be his wife. <sup>22</sup> She gave birth to a son, and Moses named him "Gershom."<sup>57</sup> For he said, "I have become a stranger in a foreign land."

The Israelites' prayer to God because of their suffering

<sup>23</sup> During that long period, the king of Egypt died. The Israelites continued to groan because of their slavery. They cried out, and their cry for help because of their slavery went up to God. <sup>24</sup> God heard their groaning and remembered His Covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. <sup>25</sup> God saw the Israelites and cared about them.

3

God's meeting with Moses at the burning bush

<sup>1</sup> Moses was looking after the sheep of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. He led the flock to the far side of the wilderness and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. <sup>2</sup> The Angel of the LORD appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush. He noticed that, although the bush was on fire, it was not being burnt up. <sup>3</sup> Then Moses said, "I shall go over there and see this great sight, why the bush does not burn up."

<sup>4</sup> When the LORD saw that Moses had turned aside to look, God called to him from inside the bush. He said: "Moses, Moses!"

Moses answered, "Here I am!"

<sup>5</sup> God said: "Do not come close to here! Take your sandals off your feet! For the place where you are standing is holy ground." <sup>6</sup> Then God said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob."

Then Moses covered his face, because he was afraid to look at God. <sup>7</sup> The LORD said: "I have certainly seen the misery of My people, who are in Egypt. I have heard their cry because of their slave-drivers. Yes, I know about their suffering. <sup>8</sup> So, I have come down to rescue them from the power of the Egyptians and to bring them up from that land to a fine, spacious land. It is a land flowing with milk and honey, the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites. <sup>9</sup> Now, you see, the cry of the people of Israel has reached Me, and I have seen how the Egyptians are oppressing them. <sup>10</sup> Therefore, go now! I am sending you to Pharaoh, that you may bring My people, the Israelites, out of Egypt."

<sup>11</sup> However, Moses asked God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and that I should bring the people of Israel out of Egypt?"

<sup>12</sup> God said: "I shall certainly be with you, and this will be the sign to you that I have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will all worship God here on this mountain."

God's revelation to Moses as "I AM" — John 5:58

<sup>13</sup> Moses said to God: "Look! Suppose I have gone to the people of Israel and have told them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is His name?' what shall I tell them?"

<sup>14</sup> God answered Moses: "I AM WHO I AM." He also said: "This is what you shall tell the people of Israel, 'I AM has sent me to you!'"<sup>58</sup> <sup>15</sup> God also instructed Moses: "This is what you shall tell the people of Israel: 'The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you!' This is My name for ever, by which I am to be remembered from generation to generation. <sup>16</sup> Go and gather the elders of Israel together! Tell them: 'The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, has appeared to me! He said: "I have certainly taken up your cause and have looked at what has been done to you in Egypt. <sup>17</sup> I have also promised that I shall take you up away from your misery in Egypt to the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, a land flowing with milk and honey.'"

<sup>18</sup> "The elders of Israel will listen to you. Then you and the elders of Israel shall go to the king of Egypt and tell him: 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us! Now, please, we should like to go on a three-day journey into the wilderness to sacrifice to the LORD, our God!' <sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, I know that the king of Egypt will not permit you to go unless a strong hand compels him. <sup>20</sup> Therefore, I shall stretch out My hand and strike Egypt with all My wonders, which I shall perform among them. After that he will let you go. <sup>21</sup> I shall move the Egyptians to be kind to this people, so that, when you leave, you will not leave empty-handed. <sup>22</sup> Each Hebrew woman shall ask her Egyptian neighbour and any woman who lives at her house for silver and gold jewellery and clothes! You shall put them on your sons and daughters! In this way you will strip the Egyptians of their wealth."

4

God's use of miraculous signs with Moses and Moses' reluctance to go to Egypt

<sup>1</sup> Moses answered, "What if they do not believe Me or listen to me but say, 'The LORD has not appeared to you'?"

<sup>57</sup> Gershom means, "Resident-foreigner there."

<sup>58</sup> "I am" explains the origin of the Hebrew name for the LORD, which means, "He is," or "He causes existence."

<sup>2</sup> The LORD asked him, "What is that in your hand?" Moses answered, "A shepherd's staff."

<sup>3</sup> He said, "Throw it down on the ground!" He threw it down on the ground, and it became a snake. Moses ran away from it. <sup>4</sup> However, the LORD told Moses, "Put your hand out and take hold of it by its tail!"

He reached out his hand and took hold of it, and it turned back into a staff in his hand. <sup>5</sup> He said: "This is to convince them to believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you."

<sup>6</sup> The LORD spoke to him again, "Now, put your hand inside your cloak!"

Moses put his hand inside and, when he drew it back out, he saw that his hand was infected by a skin-disease, as white as snow. <sup>7</sup> God said, "Put your hand back inside your cloak!"

Moses put his hand back inside and, when he drew it back out of his cloak, he saw that it had been restored, as healthy as the rest of his body. <sup>8</sup> God said: "If they do not believe you or pay attention to the former miraculous sign, they may believe the latter miraculous sign. <sup>9</sup> However, if they do not believe even these two miraculous signs or listen to you, you shall fetch some water from the Nile and pour it out on the dry ground! Then the water that you have taken from the Nile will turn to blood on the dry ground."

<sup>10</sup> Nevertheless, Moses said to the LORD: "With Your permission, Lord, I am not a good speaker, neither in the past nor since You began to speak to Your servant. For My speech is slow, and my tongue is clumsy."

<sup>11</sup> However, the LORD asked him: "Who has made a man's mouth? Who makes a person dumb or a person deaf, a person who can see or a person who is blind? Do not I, the LORD? <sup>12</sup> Now, therefore, go! I shall help your speech and teach you what to say."

<sup>13</sup> However, Moses said, "With Your permission, Lord, please send Your Message through some other messenger!"

<sup>14</sup> Then the anger of the LORD flared against Moses. He asked: "Is not Aaron the Levite your brother? I know that he can certainly speak well. Look! He is already coming out to meet you. He will certainly be glad to see you. <sup>15</sup> You shall speak to him and put in his mouth what he is to say! I shall also help both of you to speak and instruct both of you what you must do. <sup>16</sup> He will be your spokesman to the people. He himself will become your mouthpiece, and you will become like God to him. <sup>17</sup> You must take that staff in your hand, that you may perform the miraculous signs with it!"

The return of Moses to Egypt

<sup>18</sup> Moses went back to Jethro his father-in-law. He told him, "I should like to go back to my relatives, who are in Egypt, that I may see if they are still alive." Jethro told Moses, "Go! I wish you well."

<sup>19</sup> The LORD had told Moses in Midian: "Go back to Egypt! For all the men who tried to kill you are dead."

<sup>20</sup> So, Moses took his wife and his sons, put them on a donkey and returned to the land of Egypt. Moses also took the staff of God in his hand. <sup>21</sup> The LORD told Moses: "When you go back to Egypt, see that you perform in Pharaoh's presence all the wonders that I have given you the power to do! Nevertheless, I shall make him stubborn, so that he will not let the people go. <sup>22</sup> You shall tell Pharaoh: 'This is what the LORD has said: "Israel is My first-born son! <sup>23</sup> Therefore, I have told you: 'Let My son go that he may worship Me! However, if you refuse to let him go, I shall certainly kill your first-born son.''"

<sup>24</sup> On the way, while they were at a camping-ground for the night, the LORD met Moses and tried to kill him. <sup>25</sup> Then Zipporah took a flint knife, cut off her son's foreskin and threw it at Moses' feet. She said, "Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me!"

<sup>26</sup> So, God withdrew from him. At that time she said, "A bridegroom of blood" with reference to circumcision.

Moses and Aaron's report to the people about what God had said

<sup>27</sup> "The LORD had told Aaron, "Go into the wilderness to meet Moses!"

Aaron went and met Moses at the mountain of God and kissed him. <sup>28</sup> Moses told Aaron everything that the LORD, who had sent him, had said and about all the miraculous signs that He had commanded him to perform. <sup>29</sup> Then Moses and Aaron went and gathered all the elders of the Israelites. <sup>30</sup> Aaron told them everything that the LORD had told Moses and performed the miraculous signs before the people. <sup>31</sup> The people believed and, when they heard that the LORD had shown His concern for Israel and that He had seen their misery, they knelt and worshipped.

5

Moses and Aaron's first confrontation with Pharaoh

<sup>1</sup> After this, Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said: "The LORD, the God of Israel, has said this: 'Let My people go, that they may celebrate a festival in My honour in the wilderness!'"

<sup>2</sup> However, Pharaoh asked: "Who is the LORD, that I should obey Him and let Israel go? I do not know the LORD and shall also not let Israel go."

<sup>3</sup> They said: "The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go a three-day journey into the wilderness to sacrifice to the LORD, our God, that He may not attack us with a plague or a sword!"

<sup>4</sup> However, the king of Egypt asked: "Moses and Aaron, why are you letting the people neglect their work? Go back and carry your burdens!" <sup>5</sup> Pharaoh added: "Look! Although the people of the land are now numerous, you are stopping them from working at their burdens.”

The increase in the Israelites' labour

<sup>6</sup> The same day Pharaoh ordered the slave-drivers of the people and their foremen: <sup>7</sup> “You shall no longer supply the people with straw to make bricks, as you have been doing in the past! They must go and gather their own straw! <sup>8</sup> You shall require them to make the same number of bricks as they were making before! You shall not reduce the quota! For they are lazy. That is why they are clamouring: ‘Let us go! Let us sacrifice to our God!’ <sup>9</sup> Let the forced labour required of the men be harsh and let them attend to that! They should take no notice of deceptive words!”

<sup>10</sup> The slave-drivers of the people and their foremen went out and told the people: “This is what Pharaoh has said: ‘I am not going to supply you with straw.

<sup>11</sup> Go yourselves and get your own straw wherever you can find it! Nevertheless, your output must not be reduced at all!”

<sup>12</sup> So, the people scattered all over Egypt to gather stubble for straw. <sup>13</sup> The slave-drivers kept urging them. They said, “Complete the work required of you for each day, the same quota as when the straw was supplied!”

<sup>14</sup> Then the Israelite foremen whom Pharaoh’s slave-drivers had appointed over the Israelites were flogged. The slave-drivers asked, “Why have you not met your quota of bricks both yesterday and today, as in the past?”

<sup>15</sup> The Israelite foremen went and appealed to Pharaoh. They asked: “Why are you treating your servants like this? <sup>16</sup> Your servants are not being supplied with any straw, and yet they keep telling us, ‘Make bricks!’ Look! Your servants are being flogged, although your own people are at fault.”

<sup>17</sup> However, Pharaoh told them: “You are lazy! Lazy! That is why you are saying, ‘Let us go! Let us sacrifice to the LORD!’ <sup>18</sup> Now, therefore, get to work! No straw will be supplied to you, but you shall deliver the same number of bricks!”

<sup>19</sup> The Israelite foremen saw that they were in trouble when they were told, “You shall not reduce the number of bricks required of you for each day!”

<sup>20</sup> They met Moses and Aaron, who were standing there to meet them when they came out from Pharaoh’s presence. <sup>21</sup> The foremen told them: “May the LORD look on you and judge! For you have made Pharaoh and his officials regard us as a stench and put a sword in their hands to kill us.”

<sup>22</sup> Moses went back to the LORD and asked: “O Lord, why have You treated this people so badly? Just why have You sent me? <sup>23</sup> Since I first went to Pharaoh to speak in Your name, he has been mistreating this people, and You have not delivered Your people at all!”

6

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Now you will see what I shall do to Pharaoh. For because of My strong hand he will let them go and because of My strong hand he will drive them out of his land.”

God's instruction to speak to Pharaoh again

<sup>2</sup> God spoke to Moses and told him: “I am the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob, in the character of God Almighty but did not make My character known to them by My name, the LORD.<sup>*59</sup> <sup>4</sup> I also established My Covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land where they lived for a time as foreigners. <sup>5</sup> I have also heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are keeping as slaves, and have remembered My Covenant.

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, tell the Israelites, ‘I am the LORD. I shall bring you out from under the heavy labours imposed by the Egyptians and rescue you from being slaves to them. I shall redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment. <sup>7</sup> Then I shall take you as My people and shall be your God. You will know that I am the LORD, your God, and that I have brought you out from under the heavy labours imposed by the Egyptians. <sup>8</sup> I shall bring you into the land that I swore with My raised hand to give to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob. I shall give it to you as your possession. I am the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup> Moses repeated this Message to the Israelites, but they did not listen to him. They had become despondent, because of their difficult forced labour. <sup>10</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses. He said, <sup>11</sup> “Go and tell Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to let the Israelites leave his land!”

<sup>12</sup> Moses said before the LORD: “Look! The Israelites have not listened to me. How, then, will Pharaoh listen to me when I am such an unskilled speaker?”

<sup>13</sup> However, the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron and gave them their commission concerning the Israelites and Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, namely, that they should bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt.

The genealogy of Moses and Aaron — Genesis 46:8-27

<sup>14</sup> These were the heads of their fathers’ families: The sons of Reuben, the first-born son of Israel, were Hanoah, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These were the clans of Reuben. <sup>15</sup> The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jachin, Zohar and Shaul, who was the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clans of Simeon. <sup>16</sup> These were the names of the sons of Levi according to their family records: Gershon, Kohath and Merari. Levi lived for one hundred and thirty-seven years. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Gershon, by their clans, were Libni and Shimei. <sup>18</sup> The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. Kohath lived for one hundred and thirty-three years. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of Levi according to their family records. <sup>20</sup> Amram married his father's sister Jochebed, and she bore him Aaron and Moses. Amram lived for one hundred and thirty-seven years. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg and Zichri. <sup>22</sup> The sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan and Sithri. <sup>23</sup> Aaron married Elisheba, the daughter of Amminadab and the sister of Nahshon. She bore him Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>24</sup> The sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah and Abiasaph. These were the clans descended from Korah. <sup>25</sup> Aaron's son Eleazar married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas. These were the heads of the Levite families, clan by clan. <sup>26</sup> It was this Aaron and this Moses to whom the LORD said: "Bring the Israelites out of the land of Egypt according to their military divisions!"

<sup>59</sup> The Hebrew for the LORD means, “He is,” or “He causes existence.” It is the third person form of “I am” (compare Ex 3:14).

<sup>27</sup> These were the men who told Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to let the Israelites leave Egypt. These were the same Moses and Aaron.

<sup>28</sup> On the day when the LORD had spoken to Moses in the land of Egypt, <sup>29</sup> the LORD told Moses: "I am the LORD. Tell Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, everything that I tell you!"

<sup>30</sup> However, Moses had said before the LORD: "You see, I am an unskilful speaker. How, then, would Pharaoh listen to me?"

7

<sup>1</sup> The LORD answered Moses: "See, I have made you like God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron shall be your prophet! <sup>2</sup> You shall say everything that I command you, and your brother Aaron shall tell Pharaoh that he should let the Israelites leave his land!

<sup>3</sup> Nevertheless, I shall make Pharaoh stubborn. I shall cause My miraculous signs and wonders to be numerous in the land of Egypt. <sup>4</sup> However, Pharaoh will refuse to listen to you. Then I shall lay My hand on Egypt and bring My army, My people, the Israelites, out of the land of Egypt by mighty acts of judgment. <sup>5</sup> The Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I stretch out My hand against Egypt and bring the Israelites out from among them."

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded them to do. <sup>7</sup> Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron was eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.

The miraculous turning of Aaron's rod into a snake — Exodus 4:1-5

<sup>8</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron: <sup>9</sup> "When Pharaoh says to you, 'Provide a sign for yourselves!' then, Moses, you shall tell Aaron, 'Take your staff and throw it down in front of Pharaoh,' that it may become a large snake!"

<sup>10</sup> When Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh, they did just as the LORD had commanded. Aaron threw his staff down in front of Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a large snake. <sup>11</sup> Pharaoh also called his wise men and sorcerers, and these soothsayer-priests of Egypt also did the same thing by their secret arts.

<sup>12</sup> Each of them threw his staff down, and each of their staffs changed into large snakes. However, Aaron's staff swallowed their staffs. <sup>13</sup> Nevertheless, Pharaoh became stubborn and would not listen to them, as the LORD had foretold.

The first plague, the turning of the Nile into blood

<sup>14</sup> The LORD told Moses: "Pharaoh is stubborn. He has refused to let the people go. <sup>15</sup> Go to Pharaoh in the morning! Look! He will be going out to the river. You shall stand and wait on the bank of the Nile to meet him! Take in your hand the staff that turned into a snake! <sup>16</sup> You shall tell him: 'The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you to say: "Let My people go that they may worship Me in the wilderness! However, until now you have not listened. <sup>17</sup> This is what the LORD has said: "By this you will know that I am the LORD. Look! I am going to strike the water in the river with the staff in my hand, and it will turn to blood. <sup>18</sup> The fish in the river will die, the river will stink, and the Egyptians will no longer be able to drink any water from the Nile.'"

<sup>19</sup> The LORD instructed Moses: "Tell Aaron: 'Take your staff and stretch out your arm over the waters of Egypt, over their streams, over their branches and canals, over their reed-pools and over every reservoir of their water! They will become blood, and there will be blood all over the land of Egypt, even in the wooden buckets and stone jars.'"

<sup>20</sup> Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded. Aaron raised the staff and struck the water in the Nile while Pharaoh and his officials watched, and all the water in the river turned to blood. <sup>21</sup> The fish in the Nile died, and the Nile smelled so bad that the Egyptians could not drink any water from it. There was blood everywhere in the land of Egypt. <sup>22</sup> However, the soothsayer-priests of Egypt used their secret arts to do the same, and so Pharaoh continued to be stubborn and did not listen to Moses and Aaron, as the LORD had foretold. <sup>23</sup> Rather, Pharaoh turned, went home and dismissed the matter from his mind. <sup>24</sup> All the Egyptians dug along the Nile for water to drink, because they could not drink any water from the Nile. <sup>29</sup> Seven days passed after the LORD had struck the Nile.

8

The second plague, frogs

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: "Go to Pharaoh and tell him: 'This is what the LORD has said: "Let My people go that they may worship Me! <sup>2</sup> However, if you refuse to let them go, look! I shall bring a plague of frogs on your whole territory. <sup>3</sup> The Nile will teem with frogs. They will come up and get into your palace, into your bedroom, onto your bed, into the houses of your officials, on your people and into your ovens and your kneading bowls. <sup>4</sup> The frogs will jump up on you, on your people and on all your officials.'"

<sup>5</sup> The LORD instructed Moses: "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your hand with your staff over the streams, over the canals and over the ponds, to bring up frogs over the land of Egypt!”

<sup>6</sup> Aaron stretched out his arm over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup> However, the soothsayer-priests used their secret powers to do the same. They too made frogs come up over the land of Egypt. <sup>8</sup> Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron. He said: “Plead with the LORD, to take the frogs away from me and from my people! I shall let the people go to sacrifice to the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup> Moses answered Pharaoh: “Please determine for me when I should intercede for you, for your officials and for your people, to rid you and your houses of the frogs, except for those that remain in the Nile!”

<sup>10</sup> Pharaoh answered, “Tomorrow.”

Moses said: “It will be as you say, that you may know there is no one like the LORD, our God. <sup>11</sup> The frogs will leave you, your houses, your officials and your people. They will remain only in the Nile.”

<sup>12</sup> When Moses and Aaron had left Pharaoh, Moses appealed to the LORD about the frogs, which He had brought on Pharaoh. <sup>13</sup> The LORD did what Moses had asked. The frogs died in the houses, the courtyards and the fields. <sup>14</sup> The people piled them up in many heaps, and the land stank. <sup>15</sup> However, when Pharaoh saw that there had been relief, he hardened his heart and did not listen to Moses and Aaron, as the LORD had foretold.

The third plague, gnats

<sup>16</sup> The LORD instructed Moses: “Tell Aaron, ‘Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the ground! It will become gnats all over the land of Egypt.’”

<sup>17</sup> They did that. Aaron stretched out his hand with the staff and struck the dust of the ground, and it became gnats on human beings and on animals. All the dust of the ground became gnats throughout the land of Egypt. <sup>18</sup> However, when the soothsayer-priests tried likewise to produce gnats with their secret arts, they could not do it. The gnats were on human beings and on animals. <sup>19</sup> The soothsayer-priests told Pharaoh, “This is the finger of God!”

Nevertheless, Pharaoh continued to be stubborn and did not listen to Moses and Aaron, as the LORD had foretold.

The fourth plague, flies

<sup>20</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Get up early in the morning and take your position before Pharaoh! He will come out to the river. Tell him: ‘This is what the LORD has said: “Let My people go that they may worship Me! <sup>21</sup> Otherwise, if you do not let My people go, I shall send swarms of flies on you, on your officials, on your people and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians and even the ground where they are standing will be full of flies. <sup>22</sup> On that day I shall treat the region of Goshen, where My people live, differently, so that no swarms of flies will be there. In this way you will know that I, the LORD, am here in the middle of the land. <sup>23</sup> I shall make a liberating exception with My people compared with your people. This miraculous sign will take place tomorrow.’”

<sup>24</sup> The LORD did this. Dense swarms of flies came into Pharaoh’s palace and the houses of his officials and over the entire land of Egypt. The land was being ruined because of the swarms of flies. <sup>25</sup> Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “Go and sacrifice to your God but here in this land!”

<sup>26</sup> However, Moses answered: “It would not be legitimate to do that. For the Egyptians think that our sacrifices to the LORD, our God, are disgusting. Look! If we offered sacrifices that they thought disgusting in their presence, would they not stone us? <sup>27</sup> We must go on a three-day’s journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the LORD, our God, as He is commanding us.”

<sup>28</sup> Pharaoh said: “I shall let you go, and you will sacrifice to the LORD, your God, in the wilderness, except that you must not go very far. Now intercede for me!”

<sup>29</sup> Moses answered: “Look! I am going out from your presence. I shall plead to the LORD, and tomorrow the swarms of flies will leave Pharaoh, his officials and his people. Only let Pharaoh not cheat us again by preventing the people from going to sacrifice to the LORD!”

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses left Pharaoh and interceded with the LORD. <sup>31</sup> The LORD did what Moses asked. The swarms of flies left Pharaoh, his officials and his people. Not one was left. <sup>32</sup> However, Pharaoh hardened his heart once again and did not let the people go.

9

The fifth plague, disease in livestock

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Go to Pharaoh and tell him, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has said: “Let My people go that they may worship Me!

<sup>2</sup> For if you refuse to let them go and keep your hold on them, <sup>3</sup> be sure that the hand of the LORD will strike your livestock in the fields, the horses, the donkeys, the camels, the cattle and the sheep! It will be a very severe plague. <sup>4</sup> However, the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt. No animal belonging to the Israelites will die. <sup>5</sup> The LORD has fixed a definite time, saying, ‘Tomorrow the LORD will do this in the land.’”

<sup>6</sup> On the next day the LORD did that. All the livestock of Egypt died, but not one animal of the Israelites died. <sup>7</sup> Pharaoh sent some men, and they found out that not even one animal of the Israelites had died. However, Pharaoh continued to be stubborn and did not let the people go.

The sixth plague, boils

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD told Moses and Aaron: “Take both hands full of soot from a furnace for yourselves, and Moses shall scatter it toward the sky while Pharaoh is watching! <sup>9</sup> It will become fine dust over the whole land of Egypt and will become boils that break open on human beings and on animals throughout the land of Egypt.”

<sup>10</sup> They took soot from a furnace and stood before Pharaoh. Moses scattered it into the air, and it became boils in the form of blisters that kept breaking open on human beings and on animals. <sup>11</sup> The soothsayer-priests could not stand before Moses because of the boils, because the boils affected the soothsayer-priests as well as all the other Egyptians. <sup>12</sup> Nevertheless, the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart and did not listen to them, as the LORD had foretold to Moses.

The seventh plague, hail

<sup>13</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Get up early in the morning, take up your positions before Pharaoh and tell him, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has said: “Let My people go that they may worship me! <sup>14</sup> For this time I am letting you, all your officials and all your people suffer from all My plagues, that you may know that that there is no one like Me in all the earth. <sup>15</sup> For by now I could have stretched out My hand and struck you and your people with the plague, and you would have been destroyed from the earth. <sup>16</sup> However, I have raised you up for this very purpose, to show you My power and to make My name famous in all the earth. <sup>17</sup> You are still behaving haughtily against My people by not letting them go. <sup>18</sup> Therefore, tomorrow at this time I shall send a very severe hailstorm, such as has never been in Egypt from the day when it first began until now. <sup>19</sup> Now, therefore, send a Message and bring under shelter your livestock and everything else that you have in the open fields. All human beings or animals that are found outside and are not gathered in under shelter will die when the hail falls on them.””

<sup>20</sup> Any of Pharaoh’s officials who feared the Word of the LORD brought their servants and their livestock to safety indoors. <sup>21</sup> However, those who did not take the Word of the LORD seriously left their slaves and their livestock out in the fields. <sup>22</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that hail may fall all over the land of Egypt, on human beings, on animals and on every plant in the field throughout the land of Egypt!”

<sup>23</sup> Moses stretched out his staff toward the sky, and the LORD sent thunder and hail, with fire flashing down to the ground. So, the LORD rained hail down on the land of Egypt. <sup>24</sup> There was hail, and fire kept on flashing here and there in the middle of the hail. It was so very severe that there had been nothing like it in all the land of Egypt since it had become a nation. <sup>25</sup> All over the land of Egypt the hail struck everything that was out of doors. It struck human beings and animals and every plant in the field and shattered every tree in the field. <sup>26</sup> Only in the region of Goshen, where the Israelites lived, there was no hail.

<sup>27</sup> Pharaoh sent messengers and summoned Moses and Aaron. He told them: “This time I have sinned. The LORD is in the right, and my people and I are in the wrong. <sup>28</sup> Intercede with the LORD! There has been enough of God’s thunder and hail. I shall let you go. You need not wait any longer.”

<sup>29</sup> Moses told him: “As soon as I have gone out of the city, I shall spread out my hands to the LORD. The thunder will stop, and there will be no more hail, that you may know that the earth belongs to the LORD.

<sup>30</sup> However, I know that you and your officials do not yet fear the LORD God.”

<sup>31</sup> The flax and the barley were destroyed, because the barley had formed heads, and the flax was in bud.

<sup>32</sup> The wheat and the spelt were not destroyed, because they ripened later. <sup>33</sup> Then Moses left Pharaoh and went out of the city. He spread out his hands to the LORD. The thunder and the hail stopped, and no more rain poured down on the ground. <sup>34</sup> When Pharaoh saw that the rain, the hail and the thunder had stopped, he sinned again, He and his officials hardened their hearts. <sup>35</sup> Pharaoh’s heart remained stubborn and he did not let the Israelites go, as the LORD had foretold through Moses.

10

The eighth plague, locusts

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses, “Go to Pharaoh. For I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his officials, that I may send these miraculous signs of Mine among them. <sup>2</sup> I have also sent them that you may personally inform your children and grandchildren about how I made fools of the Egyptians and what miraculous signs I have sent among them, that you all may know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup> So, Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and told him: “This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has asked: ‘How long will you refuse to humble yourself before Me? Let My people go, that they may worship Me! <sup>4</sup> Otherwise, if you refuse to let My people go, be sure that tomorrow I shall bring locusts into your territory! <sup>5</sup> They will cover the surface of the land so that no one will be able to see the ground. They will eat every last bit of what you have left, which has survived after the hail. They will eat every tree that you have growing in the fields. <sup>6</sup> They will fill your houses, the houses of all your officials and the houses of all the other Egyptians. Your fathers and forefathers have not seen anything like this since they have been in this land until today.’”

Then Moses turned and left Pharaoh. <sup>7</sup> Pharaoh’s officials asked him: “How long will this man be a snare for us? Let their men-folk go and worship the LORD, their God! Do you not know yet that Egypt has been ruined?”

<sup>8</sup> So, Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. He told them: “Go, worship the LORD, your God. Precisely who are the ones who will be going?”

<sup>9</sup> Moses answered: “We shall go with our young people and our old people. We shall go with our sons and our daughters and with our flocks and our herds, because we are observing the festival of the LORD.”

<sup>10</sup> Pharaoh told them: “The LORD would have to be with you if I ever let you and your children go like this! Beware! For there is trouble in store for you.

<sup>11</sup> No! Go now, you strong young men, and worship the LORD, since that is what you have been asking for!”

Then Pharaoh drove Moses and Aaron away from his presence.

<sup>12</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Stretch your hand out over the land of Egypt, that the locusts may come over the land of Egypt! Let them eat up every plant in the land, everything that the hail has left!”

<sup>13</sup> Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought a wind roaring in from the east across the land all that day and all that night. When morning came, the east wind had carried in the locusts. <sup>14</sup> The locusts invaded all the land of Egypt and settled on the whole territory of Egypt. There had never been such a very severe locust plague like that before, and there will never be any like it again.

<sup>15</sup> They covered the surface of the whole land until the land was black. They ate up all the plants of the land and all the fruit on the trees that the hail had spared. Nothing green remained on trees or plants in the fields in the whole land of Egypt. <sup>16</sup> Then Pharaoh quickly summoned Moses and Aaron. He said: “I have sinned against the LORD, your God, and against you. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore, please forgive my sin just once more! Intercede with the LORD, your God, that He may only remove this deadly plague from me!”

<sup>18</sup> Moses left Pharaoh and interceded with the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD changed the wind to a westerly gale. It caught up the locusts and blew them into the Red Sea. Not a single locust was left anywhere in the territory of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> However, the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he did not let the Israelites go.

The ninth plague, darkness

<sup>21</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Stretch out your hand towards the sky, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, darkness that people can feel!”

<sup>22</sup> Moses stretched out his hand towards the sky, and there was thick darkness in all the land of Egypt for three days. <sup>23</sup> No one could see anyone else and no one got up from where he was for three days. However, all the Israelites had light where they lived.

<sup>24</sup> Then Pharaoh summoned Moses. He said: “Go and worship the LORD! Even your women and children may go with you. Only your flocks and your herds must be left behind!”

<sup>25</sup> However, Moses said: “You must also provide us with sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may offer them to the LORD, our God! <sup>26</sup> Our livestock must also go with us! Not a hoof must be left behind! For we must take some of them for the worship of the LORD, our God. We do not know what service we must do to the LORD until we arrive there.”

<sup>27</sup> However, the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he refused to let them go. <sup>28</sup> He told Moses: “Get away from me! Be careful that you do not see my face again! For on the day when you see my face again you will die.”

<sup>29</sup> Moses replied, “Yes, it will be as you have said. I shall never see your face again.”

11

A warning about a tenth plague, the death of all first-born — Exodus 3:21-22, 12:35-36

<sup>1</sup> The LORD had told Moses: “I shall bring one more plague against Pharaoh and Egypt. After that he will let you all leave from here. When he lets you go he will certainly drive you out from here like one who sends destruction. <sup>2</sup> Now tell the people personally that each man should ask his neighbour, and each woman should ask her friend for silver and gold jewellery!”

<sup>3</sup> The LORD made the Egyptians favourably disposed to the people. Besides, Moses was very highly respected in the land of Egypt by Pharaoh’s officials and by the people. <sup>4</sup> Moses said: “This is what the LORD has said: ‘About midnight I shall go out among the Egyptians. <sup>5</sup> Every first-born creature in the land of Egypt will die, from the first-born of Pharaoh, who sits on his throne, to the first-born of the slave girl who is using her hand-mill and also all the first-born among the animals. <sup>6</sup> There will be loud wailing all over the land of Egypt, such as has never been heard before or will ever be again. <sup>7</sup> However, among all the Israelites not even a dog will bark at a man or an animal, that you may know that the LORD treats Egyptians and Israelites differently.’ <sup>8</sup> Then all these officials of yours will come down to me, bow down before me and say, ‘Get out, you and all the people who follow you!’ After that I shall go out.”

Moses left Pharaoh hot with anger.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD had told Moses, “Pharaoh will not listen to you, that I may do My many wonders in the land of Egypt.”

<sup>10</sup> Although Moses and Aaron had performed all these wonders before Pharaoh, the LORD had hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he had not let the Israelites go out of his land.

12

The institution about the Passover — Leviticus 23:4-8, Numbers 9:1-14, 28:16-25, Deuteronomy 16:1-8, Ezekiel 45:21-25

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses and Aaron in Egypt, <sup>2</sup> “This month shall be the first month for you, the first month of your year! <sup>3</sup> Tell the whole congregation of Israel, ‘On the tenth day of this month each man shall take a lamb or kid for himself, according to the household of his father, one lamb for each household! <sup>4</sup> However, if any household is too small for one lamb or one kid, he and the neighbour next to his house shall take one between them, depending on the number of people! You shall determine your count for the lamb by how much each person eats! <sup>5</sup> The lamb or kid shall be a one-year-old male without defect! You may take it from the sheep or the goats. <sup>6</sup> Take care of it until the fourteenth day of this month! Then the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight! <sup>7</sup> They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two sides and the tops of the doorframes of the houses where they eat the lambs! <sup>8</sup> That same night they shall eat the meat roasted on a fire! They shall eat it together with bread made without yeast and with bitter herbs! <sup>9</sup> Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water but roasted on a fire, with its head, legs and internal organs! <sup>10</sup> You shall not leave any of it until the next morning but burn up whatever remains of it until morning! <sup>11</sup> This is how you shall eat it: You shall have your cloaks tucked into your belts, your sandals on your feet and your staffs in your hands! You shall eat it quickly! It is the Passover of the LORD. <sup>12</sup> On that night I shall pass through Egypt and strike down every first-born in Egypt, both human beings and animals. I shall bring judgment against all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD. <sup>13</sup> The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are. When I see the blood, I shall pass over you. The plague will not strike you to destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.'

<sup>14</sup> "You shall commemorate this day! You shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD throughout your generations! You and your descendants shall celebrate it as a festival by a permanent Statute! <sup>15</sup> You shall eat bread without yeast for seven days! On the first day you shall be sure to remove any yeast from your houses! For any person who eats anything made with yeast from the first day to the seventh day shall be excluded from Israel! <sup>16</sup> You shall have a holy assembly on the first day and another holy assembly on the seventh day! You shall not do any work on them except to prepare food for everyone! That is the only thing that you may do. <sup>17</sup> You shall observe the festival of bread without yeast! For this was the very day when I brought your great numbers out of the land of Egypt. You shall observe this day throughout your generations as a permanent Statute! <sup>18</sup> From the evening of the fourteenth day of the first month you shall eat bread without yeast until the evening of the twenty-first day of the month! <sup>19</sup> For seven days no yeast shall be found in your houses! For any person who eats anything made with yeast shall be excluded from the congregation of Israel, whether he is a foreigner or a native of the land! <sup>20</sup> You shall not eat anything made with yeast! You shall eat bread without yeast wherever you live!"

<sup>21</sup> Moses summoned all the elders of Israel. He told them: "Go off, select lambs for your families and kill

the Passover lamb! <sup>22</sup> You shall take a sprinkling brush of hyssop, dip it into the blood, which is in the basin, and brush the upper crosspiece and the two posts of the door with the blood from the basin! None of you shall go outside the door of his house until morning! <sup>23</sup> The LORD will pass through to strike down the Egyptians. When the LORD sees the blood on the upper crosspiece and the two doorposts, He will pass over the entrance and will not permit the destroyer to come into your homes to strike you down. <sup>24</sup> You shall observe this as a Prescription for yourself and for your children for ever! <sup>25</sup> When you enter the land that the LORD will give you as He has promised, you shall observe this ceremony! <sup>26</sup> When your children ask you, 'What do you mean by this ceremony?' <sup>27</sup> you shall answer, 'This is the sacrifice of the Passover to the LORD, who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt and rescued our families when He struck down the Egyptians!"

The people bowed down and worshipped.

The tenth plague, the death of the first-born — Exodus 11:1-10

<sup>28</sup> The Israelites went and did exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron. <sup>29</sup> At midnight the LORD struck down every first-born male in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh, who was sitting on his throne, to the first-born of the prisoner in the dungeon and also every first-born animal. <sup>30</sup> Pharaoh and all his officials and all the other Egyptians got up at night, and there was loud wailing in Egypt, because there was not a house without someone dead.

Pharaoh's order to the Israelites to leave Egypt

<sup>31</sup> Pharaoh sent a message to Moses and Aaron at night. He said: "Go away from my people immediately, both you and the Israelites! Go and worship the LORD, as you have been asking! <sup>32</sup> Take your flocks and herds too, as you have been asking and go! You should also bless me!"

<sup>33</sup> The Egyptians urged on the people, to send them out of the land quickly. For they said, "We shall all be dead!"

<sup>34</sup> The people took up their dough before yeast was added and carried their kneading troughs on their shoulders, wrapped up in their garments. <sup>35</sup> The Israelites had done what Moses had told them and had asked the Egyptians for silver and gold jewellery and for clothing. <sup>36</sup> The LORD had made the Egyptians favourably disposed toward the people, and they had let them have what they asked for. So, they had plundered the Egyptians.

The exodus of the Israelites from Egypt

<sup>37</sup> The Israelites journeyed from Rameses to Succoth. There were about six hundred thousand strong men on foot, besides the women and children. <sup>38</sup> A numerous mixed race of people also went up with them, as well as a very large number of livestock, in both flocks and herds. <sup>39</sup> They baked the dough that they brought from Egypt into bread-cakes without yeast, because there was no food with yeast. For they had been driven out of Egypt and could not delay. They had also not prepared any provisions for their journey.

<sup>40</sup> The length of time the Israelite people had been living in Egypt was four hundred and thirty years.

<sup>41</sup> At the end of the four hundred and thirty years, on that very day, all the great numbers of the LORD marched out of the land of Egypt. <sup>42</sup> It was a night when the LORD kept vigil to take them out of the land of Egypt. It is this night, which belongs to the LORD, in which all the Israelites keep vigil throughout their generations.

Regulations for the Passover — Exodus 12:1-13

<sup>43</sup> The LORD told Moses and Aaron: “This is the Statute for the Passover: ‘No foreigner shall eat of it!

<sup>44</sup> However, any slave who has been bought with money may eat of it after you have circumcised him.

<sup>45</sup> No temporary resident or hired worker shall eat of it! <sup>46</sup> Each lamb shall be eaten in one house! You shall not take any of the meat outside! You shall not break any bone of it! <sup>47</sup> The whole congregation of Israel shall celebrate this festival! <sup>48</sup> When a foreigner is living with you and wants to celebrate the Passover of the LORD, all his males shall be circumcised! Then he may approach to celebrate it and shall be like any citizen who has full rights in the land! However, no uncircumcised person shall eat of it! <sup>49</sup> The same Law shall apply to the citizen with full rights and to the foreigner who is living among you!”

<sup>50</sup> All the Israelites did exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron. <sup>51</sup> On that same day the LORD brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt in their military divisions.

13

The provision to dedicate first-born males — Deuteronomy 15:19-23

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Consecrate to Me every first-born male! The first offspring of every womb among the Israelites, both human beings and animals, belongs to Me.”

Regulations for the annual festival of bread without yeast — Exodus 12:14-20

<sup>3</sup> Moses told the people: “Remember this day, on which you have come out of slave-quarters in Egypt! For the LORD has brought you out from this place with His mighty hand. You shall eat nothing containing yeast! <sup>4</sup> Today, in the month of Abib, you are going out. <sup>5</sup> When the LORD brings you to the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, which He swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, you shall observe this ceremony in this month!

<sup>6</sup> You shall eat bread without yeast for seven days, and there shall be a festival to the LORD on the seventh day! <sup>7</sup> Only bread without yeast shall be eaten for the seven days! No yeast or any fermented dough shall be seen among you anywhere in your territory!

<sup>8</sup> On that day you shall tell your son, ‘I am doing this because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt!’ <sup>9</sup> You shall have a record of it like a sign on your hand and a memorial on your forehead, that you may keep talking about the Law of the LORD! For the LORD has brought you out of Egypt with a mighty hand. <sup>10</sup> You shall keep this Statute at the appointed time every year!

Regulations about first-born male children

<sup>11</sup> “After the LORD has brought you to the land of the Canaanites, as He swore to you and your fathers and given it to you, <sup>12</sup> you shall set apart to the LORD the first offspring of every womb and every first-born offspring of the animals that you have! If they are males, they belong to the LORD. <sup>13</sup> However, you shall redeem every first-born male donkey with a lamb or a kid and, if you do not redeem it, you shall break its neck! Of human beings, you shall redeem every first-born among your sons! <sup>14</sup> When in the future your son asks you, ‘What does this mean?’ you shall tell him, ‘With a mighty hand the LORD brought us out of slave-quarters in Egypt! <sup>15</sup> When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD killed every first-born in the land of Egypt, both the first-born of human beings and the first-born of animals. This is the reason why I am sacrificing to the LORD the first male offspring of every womb and am redeeming every first-born of my sons.’ <sup>16</sup> It shall be a sign on your hand and a mark on your forehead! For the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.”

God’s leading the Israelites on their journey out of Egypt with pillars of cloud and fire — Exodus 40:34-38, Numbers 9:15-23, 1 Kings 8:10-11

<sup>17</sup> When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them on the road that goes to the land of the Philistines, although that was the shortest way. For God said, “It is to avoid having the people change their minds and go back to Egypt when they face war.”

<sup>18</sup> Therefore, God led the people around by way of the wilderness to the Red Sea. The Israelites were organised for war when they came up out of the land of Egypt. <sup>19</sup> Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, because Joseph had made the Israelites swear a solemn oath. He had said, “God will certainly take up your cause. Then you shall carry my bones up from here with you!”

<sup>20</sup> They journeyed from Succoth and camped at Etham, on the edge of the wilderness. <sup>21</sup> The LORD kept going ahead of them in a pillar of cloud during the day to lead them on their way and in a pillar of fire by night to give them light, so they could travel by day and by night. <sup>22</sup> Neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night failed to be present as it went ahead of the people.

14

The Israelites’ journey to the Red Sea

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites that they should turn back and camp in front of Pi-Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea, in front of Baal-Zephon! Camp opposite it, beside the sea!

<sup>3</sup> Pharaoh will say, about the Israelites, ‘They are wandering aimlessly in the land. The wilderness has hemmed them in!’ <sup>4</sup> I shall harden Pharaoh’s heart, and he will pursue them. Then I shall appear in My glory at the expense of Pharaoh and his whole army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD.”

Then the Israelites did this. <sup>5</sup> When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds about the people. They asked, “What have we done here? For we have let Israel go and lost our slaves.”

Pharaoh’s pursuit of the Israelites

<sup>6</sup> So, Pharaoh harnessed his chariot and took his troops with him. <sup>7</sup> He took six hundred of the best chariots as well as the other chariots of Egypt, with adjutant chariot-officers in all of them. <sup>8</sup> The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, so that he pursued the Israelites, who were leaving defiantly. <sup>9</sup> The Egyptians pursued them and all Pharaoh’s horses and chariots, his horsemen and his other fighting forces, overtook them as they were camping for the night beside the sea near Pi-Hahiroth, in front of Baal-Zephon.

<sup>10</sup> When Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up and saw the Egyptians marching behind them. The Israelites were terrified and cried out to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> They asked Moses: “Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you have brought us to die in the wilderness? What is this that you have done to us, by bringing us out of Egypt? <sup>12</sup> Is this not what we told you in Egypt: ‘Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians’? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than for us to die in the wilderness.”

God’s miraculous deliverance at the Red Sea

<sup>13</sup> Moses told the people: “Do not be afraid! Stand still and see what the LORD will do to save you today! For you will never see again the Egyptians whom you have seen today. <sup>14</sup> The LORD will fight for you. Therefore, you yourselves must be silent!”

<sup>15</sup> The LORD asked Moses: “Why are you crying out to Me? Tell the Israelites to go forward! <sup>16</sup> As for you, raise your staff, stretch out your hand over the sea and divide the sea, that the Israelites may go through the sea on dry ground! <sup>17</sup> Look! I am making the hearts of the Egyptians stubborn, that they may go in after the Israelites, and that I may be glorified at the expense of Pharaoh, all his army, his chariots and his horsemen. <sup>18</sup> Then the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD, when I am glorified at the expense of Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen.”

<sup>19</sup> Then the Angel of God, who had been going ahead of the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them. The column of cloud also moved away from in front of them and took its place behind them. <sup>20</sup> It came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel. The cloud brought darkness for the one side and lit up the night for the other. Neither side went near the other all night long. <sup>21</sup> Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the LORD pushed back the sea with a strong east wind all that night and turned the sea into dry land. The water was divided.

<sup>22</sup> Therefore, the Israelites went through the middle of the sea on dry ground. The water was like a wall for them on their right side and on their left. <sup>23</sup> The Egyptians, all of Pharaoh’s horses, his chariots and his horsemen, pursued them and followed them into the middle of the sea. <sup>24</sup> In the watch before dawn the LORD looked down through the column of fire and cloud at the Egyptian army and threw it into a panic. <sup>25</sup> He made the wheels of their chariots come off, so that they had difficulty driving them. The Egyptians said: “Let us flee from the Israelites! For the LORD is fighting for Israel and against Egypt.”

The destruction of the Egyptian army in the Red Sea

<sup>26</sup> The LORD told Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the water may flow back over the Egyptians, over their chariots and over their horsemen!”

<sup>27</sup> Moses stretched out his hand over the sea and, at daybreak, the sea flowed back to its normal depth. The Egyptians were fleeing to meet it, but the LORD shook them off into the middle of the sea. <sup>28</sup> The water flowed back and covered the chariots, the horsemen and all the army of Pharaoh, which had followed the Israelites into the sea. Not even one of them remained. <sup>29</sup> The Israelites had walked through the middle of the sea on dry ground while the water was a wall for them on their right side and on their left. <sup>30</sup> Therefore, the LORD saved Israel that day from the power of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. <sup>31</sup> When the Israelites saw the great power that the LORD had used against the Egyptians, the people feared the LORD and put their trust in the LORD and in His servant Moses.

15

The song of Moses after the deliverance at the Red Sea — Exodus 14:13-14, Psalm 78:12-14, Revelation 15:3-4

<sup>1</sup> Then Moses and the people of Israel sang this song to the LORD:

“I shall sing to the LORD. For He has been highly exalted. The horse and its rider He has thrown into the sea.

<sup>2</sup> “The LORD is my Strength and my Song. He has become my Salvation. This is my God, and I shall praise Him, my father’s God, and I shall exalt Him.

<sup>3</sup> “The LORD is a warrior. The LORD is His name.

<sup>4</sup> “He has thrown Pharaoh’s chariots and his army into the sea. His chosen captains have been engulfed in the Red Sea.

<sup>5</sup> “The deep waters have covered them. They have gone down to the depths like a stone.

<sup>6</sup> “Your right hand, O LORD, was glorious in power. Your right hand, O LORD, was shattering the enemy.

<sup>7</sup> “By Your great Majesty You were destroying those who rebelled against You. You were sending out Your blazing anger. It was consuming them like stubble.

<sup>8</sup> “At the blast of Your nostrils the waters rose. The waves stood upright like a dam. The depths congealed in the heart of the sea.

<sup>9</sup> “The enemy said, ‘I shall pursue, I shall overtake, I shall divide the spoil. I shall glut my appetite on them. I shall draw my sword. I shall rid myself of them.’

<sup>10</sup> “You blew with Your breath: the sea covered them. They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

<sup>11</sup> “Who is like You among the gods, O LORD? Who is like You, glorious in holiness, worthy of awe and praise, and working wonders?

<sup>12</sup> “You stretched out Your right hand: the earth swallowed them.

<sup>13</sup> “You in Your mercy have led forth the people whom You have redeemed. You have guided them in Your strength to Your holy dwelling.

<sup>14</sup> “The peoples have heard and will tremble in fear. Anguish will take hold of the inhabitants of Philistia.

<sup>15</sup> “Next the chiefs of Edom will be terrified. Trembling will take hold of the powerful men of Moab. All the inhabitants of Canaan will be disheartened.

<sup>16</sup> “Terror and dread will fall on them. Because of the greatness of Your arm, they will be rigid like a stone, until Your people pass over, O LORD, until the people whom You have purchased pass over.

<sup>17</sup> “You will bring them in and plant them on the mountain of Your inheritance, in the place that You have made, O LORD, for Your dwelling, the sanctuary, O LORD, that Your own hands have established.

<sup>18</sup> “The LORD will reign for ever and ever.”

<sup>19</sup> For Pharaoh’s horses, with his chariots and horsemen had gone into the sea, and the LORD had made the water of the sea flow back over them. However, the Israelites had walked on dry ground through the middle of the sea.

The refrain of Miriam — Numbers 26:59

<sup>20</sup> Then the prophetess Miriam, Aaron’s sister, took a tambourine in her hand, and all the women followed her with tambourines and dancing. <sup>21</sup> Miriam sang this refrain to them:

“Sing to the LORD! For He has been highly exalted. The horse and its rider He has thrown into the sea.”

God’s provision of sweet water for the Israelites

<sup>22</sup> Then Moses made Israel start out away from the Red Sea. They went out into the wilderness of Shur. They travelled in the wilderness for three days without finding water. <sup>23</sup> They came to Marah but could not drink the water at Marah, because it was bitter. That was the reason why the place was named “Marah.”<sup>60</sup>

<sup>24</sup> The people grumbled against Moses. They asked, “What shall we drink?”

<sup>25</sup> Moses cried out to the LORD, and the LORD directed him to a tree. He threw it into the water, and then the water became sweet. There God laid down a Prescription and a Decision for the people and there

He tested them. <sup>26</sup> He said: “If you carefully obey the LORD, your God, if you do what He considers right, if you listen to His Commands, and, if you keep all His Prescriptions, I shall not bring on you any of the sickness that I inflicted on Egypt. For I am the LORD, your Healer.”

<sup>27</sup> Then they arrived at Elim, where there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm-trees and camped there beside the water.

16

God’s provision of manna and quails for the Israelites to eat

<sup>1</sup> The whole congregation of the Israelites moved from Elim and on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had left the land of Egypt they came into the wilderness of Sin, which lies between Elim and Sinai. <sup>2</sup> The whole congregation of the Israelites grumbled against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.

<sup>3</sup> The Israelites said to them: “If only we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt! Then we sat around the pots of meat and ate all the food that we wanted! However, You have brought us into this wilderness to starve this whole assembly to death!”

<sup>4</sup> Then the LORD told Moses: “Look! I shall rain bread down from heaven for you. Then each day the people shall go out and gather a daily quantity for that day, that I may test them, to see whether they will live according to My Instructions or not! <sup>5</sup> However, on the sixth day, when they prepare what they bring in, it shall be twice as much as they gather on every other day!”

<sup>6</sup> So, Moses and Aaron spoke to all the Israelites: “In the evening, you will know that the LORD has brought you out of the land of Egypt <sup>7</sup> and in the morning, you will see the glory of the LORD. For He has heard your grumbling against the LORD. Who are we, that you are grumbling against us?” <sup>8</sup> Moses also said: “You will know this when He gives you meat to eat in the evening and all the bread you need to satisfy yourselves in the morning. For the LORD has heard your grumbling against Him. Who are we? Your grumbling is not against us but against the LORD.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Moses told Aaron: “Tell the whole congregation of the Israelites: ‘Come near before the LORD! For He has heard your grumbling.’”

<sup>10</sup> While Aaron was speaking to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they turned toward the wilderness, and there was the glory of the LORD appearing in the cloud. <sup>11</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses, <sup>12</sup> “I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them, ‘At twilight, you will eat meat, and, in the morning, you will have all the bread you need to satisfy you! Then you will know that I am the LORD, your God.’”

<sup>13</sup> That evening quails came up and settled over the camp, and the next morning there was a layer of dew around the camp. <sup>14</sup> When the layer of dew evaporated, there, on the surface of the wilderness, was something fine and scale-like, as fine as frost, on the ground. <sup>15</sup> When the Israelites saw it, they asked one another, “What is that?”

<sup>60</sup> Marah means, “Bitterness.”

For they did not know what it was. Moses told them: “That is the bread that the LORD has given you to eat.

<sup>16</sup> This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Everyone should gather as much of it as he can eat! Collect two litres for each person as you count the persons that each of you has in his tent!’”

<sup>17</sup> That is what the Israelites did. Some gathered much, and others gathered little. <sup>18</sup> However, when they measured it with a two-litre measure, the one who had gathered much did not have a surplus, and the one who had gathered little did not have too little. Each had gathered as much as he could eat.

<sup>19</sup> Moses told them, “No one shall keep any of it until morning!”

<sup>20</sup> However, some did not listen to Moses. These people kept part of it until morning, and it swelled up with maggots and stank. So, Moses was angry with them. <sup>21</sup> Every morning each one gathered as much as he could eat. However, when the sun became hot, it melted away. <sup>22</sup> On the sixth day they gathered twice as much food, four litres for each person, and all the leaders of the congregation came and reported this to Moses. <sup>23</sup> He told them: “This is what the LORD has said, ‘Tomorrow is a Sabbath observance, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. Bake what you want to bake and boil what you want to boil! Save for yourselves everything that is left over and store it until the morning!’”

<sup>24</sup> So, they saved it until the morning, as Moses had commanded, and it did not stink or have maggots in it.

<sup>25</sup> Moses said: “Eat it today! For today is a Sabbath to the LORD. You will not find any in the open today.

<sup>26</sup> You shall gather it for six days! However, on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will not be any.”

<sup>27</sup> Nevertheless, on the seventh day some of the people went out to gather it but did not find anything.

<sup>28</sup> The LORD asked Moses: “How long do you people refuse to keep My Commandments and My Laws?

<sup>29</sup> Realise that the LORD has given you the Sabbath! That is the reason why He is giving you enough food on the sixth day for two days. Everyone should stay in his place! No one shall go out from where he is on the seventh day!”

<sup>30</sup> So, the people observed the Sabbath on the seventh day. <sup>31</sup> The people of Israel called it “manna.” It was white like coriander seed and tasted like a flat cake made with honey. <sup>32</sup> Moses said: “This is what the LORD has commanded: ‘Take two litres of it and store it for your coming generations, that they may see the food that I gave you to eat in the wilderness when I brought you out of the land of Egypt!’”

<sup>33</sup> Moses told Aaron: “Take a jar, put two litres of manna in it and save it in the presence of the LORD, to store it for your coming generations!”

<sup>34</sup> As the LORD commanded Moses, Aaron stored it in front of the Testimony, for safe-keeping. <sup>35</sup> The Israelites ate the manna for forty years until they came to a land where they could settle. They ate the manna until they came to the border of the land of Canaan.

<sup>36</sup> (A two-litre omer is one tenth of an ephah).

17

God’s provision of water for the Israelites from a rock — compare Numbers 20:1-13

<sup>1</sup> The whole assembly of the Israelites broke camp from the Wilderness of Sin to travel by stages, as the LORD directed. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>2</sup> The people quarrelled with Moses. They said, “Give us water, that we may drink it!”

Moses asked them, “Why are you quarrelling with me? Why are you testing the LORD?”

<sup>3</sup> There the people were so thirsty for water that they grumbled against Moses. They asked: “Why have you brought us up here out of Egypt? Was it to kill me, my children and my cattle with thirst?”

<sup>4</sup> Moses cried out to the LORD. He asked: “What should I do with this people? They are almost stoning me.”

<sup>5</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Go in front of the people and walk past them! Take with you some of the elders of Israel! Take also in your hand your staff, with which you struck the Nile, and go! <sup>6</sup> Look! I shall stand before you there on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock! Water will come out of it, and the people will drink it.”

Moses did this while the elders of Israel were watching him. <sup>7</sup> Moses named the place “Massah”<sup>*61</sup> and “Meribah,”<sup>**62</sup> because the Israelites had quarrelled and because they had tested the LORD, by asking, “Is the LORD among us or not?”

The battle between the Israelites and the Amalekites — Genesis 14:7, Numbers 13:29, 14:25

<sup>8</sup> The Amalekites came and fought with the Israelites at Rephidim. <sup>9</sup> Moses told Joshua,<sup>*63</sup> “Choose men for us and go out to fight against the Amalekites! Tomorrow I shall be standing on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hand.”

<sup>10</sup> Joshua followed Moses’ instructions about fighting with the Amalekites, but Moses, Aaron and Hur went up to the top of the hill. <sup>11</sup> When Moses kept holding up his hand, the Israelites kept winning, but when he lowered his hand, the Amalekites kept winning. <sup>12</sup> However, Moses’ hands began to feel heavy. So, they took a rock and put it under him, and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur took hold of his hands, one on each side. His hands were supported in this way until the sun went down. <sup>13</sup> So, Joshua defeated the Amalekite army with the edge of the sword. <sup>14</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Write this on a scroll as something to be remembered and impress it on Joshua as he listens to you: ‘I shall certainly blot out all the memory of the Amalekites from under heaven!’”

<sup>61</sup> Massah means, “Testing.”

<sup>62</sup> Meribah means, “Quarrel.”

<sup>63</sup> Joshua means, “The LORD saves.” A later Hebrew form of it was Jeshua and is the origin of the name “Jesus.”

<sup>15</sup> Moses built an altar and named it “YAHWEH-Nissi.”*<sup>64</sup> <sup>16</sup> He said: “A hand is lifted in an oath to the throne of the LORD. The LORD will be at war against the Amalekites from generation to generation.”

18

The visit of Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, to the Israelite camp — Deuteronomy 1:9-18

<sup>1</sup> Jethro, the priest of Midian and the father-in-law of Moses, heard about everything that God had done for Moses and for His people Israel and that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt. <sup>2</sup> Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, had taken back Moses' wife, Zipporah, after Moses had dismissed her. <sup>3</sup> He had also taken back her two sons. The name of the one was “Gershom,”*<sup>65</sup> because Moses had said, “I have become a stranger in a foreign land.” <sup>4</sup> The name of the other was “Eliezer,”*<sup>66</sup> because Moses had said, “The God of my father has helped me and has rescued me from the sword of Pharaoh.”

<sup>5</sup> Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, his sons and his wife came to Moses in the wilderness where he was camping at the mountain of God. <sup>6</sup> He had someone tell Moses, “I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you, bringing your wife and her two sons with her.”

<sup>7</sup> Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, bowed down and kissed him. After they had greeted one another and had gone into the tent, <sup>8</sup> Moses reported to his father-in-law everything that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians because of Israel, all the hardship that had happened to them on the way and how the LORD had rescued them. <sup>9</sup> Jethro was glad about all the good things that the LORD had done for Israel, whom He had rescued from the control of the Egyptians. <sup>10</sup> Jethro said: “Blessed be the LORD, who has rescued you all from the power of the Egyptians and from the power of Pharaoh! He has rescued the people from the power of the Egyptians. <sup>11</sup> Now I know that the LORD is greater than all the other gods are. For He has done this to those who had been treating Israel so insolently.”

<sup>12</sup> Then Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, offered a burnt offering and other sacrifices to God. Aaron and all the elders of Israel also came to eat a meal with Moses' father-in-law in the presence of God. <sup>13</sup> The next day Moses took his seat to settle disputes among the people, and the people stood beside Moses from morning until evening. <sup>14</sup> When Moses' father-in-law watched everything that Moses was doing for the people, he asked: “What is this that you are doing for the people? Why do you sit here alone, with all the people standing beside you from morning until evening?”

<sup>15</sup> Moses answered his father-in-law: “Because the people are coming to me to ask for God's guidance.

<sup>16</sup> When they have a dispute, it is brought to me, that I may decide between one man and another and that I may inform them about God's Prescriptions and Laws.”

<sup>17</sup> However, Moses' father-in-law told him: “This is not a good way to do it. <sup>18</sup> Both you and these people who are with you will certainly wear yourselves out. For this is too difficult for you. You cannot do it alone. <sup>19</sup> Now listen to what I say! I shall give you some advice, and may God be with you! You should be the people's representative before God and present their problems before God! <sup>20</sup> Then you should warn them about the Prescriptions and Laws and teach them how they should behave and what they should do! <sup>21</sup> Therefore, you should select capable men from all the people, men who fear God, reliable men, who hate corruption! You should appoint them as officials over units of a thousand, of a hundred, of fifty and of ten! <sup>22</sup> They should judge the people at all times! Although they should refer every important matter to you, they should decide every minor matter themselves! Take off some of your burden to make it lighter, and let them help you carry it! <sup>23</sup> If you do this, and, if God so commands, you will be able to survive, and all these people will go home well treated.”

<sup>24</sup> Moses listened to his father-in-law's advice and did everything that he suggested. <sup>25</sup> Moses chose capable men from all Israel and appointed them as leaders over the people, officials over units of a thousand, of a hundred, of fifty and of ten. <sup>26</sup> These men kept judging the people at all times. They used to refer the difficult cases to Moses but decide every minor matter themselves. <sup>27</sup> Then Moses let his father-in-law leave, and Jethro returned to his own country.

19

The Israelites' arrival at Sinai and God's instructions to Moses at Mount Sinai

<sup>1</sup> In the third month, after the people of Israel had left Egypt, on the very day, they came to the Wilderness of Sinai. <sup>2</sup> After they set out from Rephidim, they entered the Wilderness of Sinai and set up camp in the wilderness. Therefore, Israel camped there in front of the mountain. <sup>3</sup> Then Moses went up the mountain to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain. He said: “This is what you shall inform the family of Jacob and what you shall tell the people of Israel: <sup>4</sup> ‘You have seen for yourselves what I have done to the Egyptians and how I have carried you on the wings of eagles and have brought you here to Myself! <sup>5</sup> Now, if you strictly obey Me and keep My Covenant, then out of all nations you will be a special treasure to Me, because the whole earth is Mine. <sup>6</sup> You will be My kingdom of priests and My holy nation.’ These are the Words that you shall speak to the people of Israel!”

<sup>64</sup> YAHWEH-Nissi means, “The LORD is my flag.”

<sup>65</sup> Gershom means, “A resident-foreigner there.”

<sup>66</sup> Eliezer means, “My God is a help.”

<sup>7</sup> Moses came back, summoned the elders of the people and laid before them all these things, which the LORD had commanded him. <sup>8</sup> All the people answered together and said, “We shall do everything that the LORD has said.”

Then Moses took the answer of the people back to the LORD. <sup>9</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Look! I am coming to you in a dense cloud, that the people may hear Me speaking with you and that their trust in you may never fail.”

Then Moses reported the response of the people to the LORD.

The consecration of the people

<sup>10</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow! They should wash their clothes, <sup>11</sup> and be ready for the day after tomorrow! For on the day after tomorrow the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai while all the people are watching. <sup>12</sup> You shall set a barrier around the mountain for the people and tell them that they must be careful not to come up the mountain or touch the foot of it! Anyone who touches the mountain shall certainly be put to death! <sup>13</sup> No hand shall touch him, but he shall certainly be stoned or shall certainly be shot with an arrow! Whether an animal or a man, he shall not live! However, when a ram’s horn sounds a long blast, they should come up near the mountain!”

<sup>14</sup> After Moses had gone down the mountain to the people, he consecrated them, and they washed their clothes. <sup>15</sup> He told the people: “Be ready for the day after tomorrow! Abstain from sexual relations!”

<sup>16</sup> On the morning of the third day there were peals of thunder and flashes of lightning, a dense cloud over the mountain and a very loud trumpet-blast. All the people who were in the camp trembled. <sup>17</sup> Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain. <sup>18</sup> All of Mount Sinai was wrapped in smoke, because the LORD had come down on it in fire. The smoke went up from it like the smoke from a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked violently. <sup>19</sup> The blast of the trumpet kept growing louder and louder. Moses spoke, and God answered him with a voice. <sup>20</sup> The LORD came down over Mount Sinai to the top of the mountain and the LORD summoned Moses to the top of the mountain. So, Moses went up.

<sup>21</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Go down and warn the people not to break through to the LORD to see Him! Otherwise many of them will perish. <sup>22</sup> Even the priests, who have access to the LORD, should consecrate themselves, that the LORD may not break out against them!”

<sup>23</sup> Moses told the LORD: “The people cannot come up onto Mount Sinai, because You Yourself have warned us, ‘Set a barrier around the mountain, to keep it holy!’” back up with you! However, the priests and the people should not break through to come up to the LORD, that He may not break out against them!”

<sup>24</sup> The LORD told him: “Go down and bring Aaron

<sup>25</sup> So, Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

20

The giving of the Ten Commandments — Deuteronomy 5:6-21

<sup>1</sup> Then God spoke all these Words: <sup>2</sup> “I am the LORD, your God, and have brought you out of slave-quarters in the land of Egypt. <sup>3</sup> You shall have no other gods before Me! <sup>4</sup> You shall not make a carved image for yourself or any likeness of anything that is in the heavens above or that is on the earth below or that is in the water under the earth! <sup>5</sup> You shall not worship them or serve them! For I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God. I punish the children for the sin of the parents to the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me. <sup>6</sup> However, I show mercy for a thousand generations to those who love Me and keep My Commandments. <sup>7</sup> You shall not use the name of the LORD, your God, in a wrong way! For the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who uses His name wrongly. <sup>8</sup> Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy!

<sup>9</sup> For six days you shall labour and do all your work! <sup>10</sup> However, the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD, your God. On it you shall not do any work, you, your son, your daughter, your male servant, your female servant, your cattle or your foreign resident, who is inside your gates! <sup>11</sup> For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea and everything that is in them but rested on the seventh day. Therefore, the LORD has blessed the Sabbath day and has declared it holy. <sup>12</sup> Honour your father and your mother, that your days may be prolonged in the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you! <sup>13</sup> You shall not murder! <sup>14</sup> You shall not commit adultery! <sup>15</sup> You shall not steal! <sup>16</sup> You shall not give false evidence against your neighbour! <sup>17</sup> You shall not desire your neighbour’s house! You shall not desire your neighbour’s wife or his male servant, his female servant, his ox, his donkey or anything else that belongs to your neighbour!”

The reaction of the people to the giving of the commandments

<sup>18</sup> All the people were witnessing the thundering, the lightning flashes, the blast of the ram’s horn and the mountain smoking. When the people saw them, they trembled and stood at a distance. <sup>19</sup> They told Moses: “Speak to us yourself, that we may listen! However, let God not speak to us or we shall die!”

<sup>20</sup> Moses told the people: “Do not be afraid! For God has come to test you and that there may be fear of Him on your faces, that you may not sin.”

<sup>21</sup> The people stood at a distance, while Moses went closer, into the darkness where God was.

General regulations for worship

<sup>22</sup> The LORD instructed Moses: “This is what you shall tell the Israelites: ‘You yourselves have witnessed that I have spoken to you from heaven! <sup>23</sup> You shall not make any gods alongside of Me! You shall not make for yourselves gods of silver or gods of gold!

<sup>24</sup> “You shall make an altar of earth for Me and shall sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and your peace-offerings, your flocks and your cattle! In every place where I make My name known I shall come to you and bless you. <sup>25</sup> If you make an altar of stones for Me, you shall not build it with hewn stones! For, if you move your chisel back and forth over it, you have made it unholy. <sup>26</sup> You shall not go up to My altar on steps, that your nakedness may not be exposed on it!

21

Legislation about the rights of Hebrew slaves – Leviticus 25:39-55, Deuteronomy 15:12-18

<sup>1</sup> “These are the Decisions that you shall set before them: <sup>2</sup> When you buy a Hebrew slave, he shall be your slave for six years but in the seventh year he shall go free without paying anything! <sup>3</sup> If he comes in alone, he shall leave alone! If he comes in as a married man, his wife shall leave with him! <sup>4</sup> If his master gives him a wife, and she bears him sons or daughters, the woman and her children shall belong to her master, and the man shall leave alone! <sup>5</sup> However, if the slave plainly says, ‘I love my master, my wife and my children, I shall not go out free,’ <sup>6</sup> his master shall bring him before God! Then his master shall take him to the door or the doorpost and pierce his ear with an awl! Then he shall be his slave for life!

<sup>7</sup> “When a man sells his daughter to be a slave, she shall not go free as male slaves go free! <sup>8</sup> If she does not please her master after he has assigned her to himself, he shall let her be ransomed! He shall not be entitled to sell her to strangers! For he has treated her unfairly. <sup>9</sup> If he assigns her to be his son’s wife, he shall treat her as daughters may legally claim! <sup>10</sup> If he marries another woman, he shall not diminish her food, her clothing or her marital rights! <sup>11</sup> If he does not do these three things for her, she shall go free without any payment of money!

Legislation about responsibility for bodily injuries

<sup>12</sup> “If anyone strikes another, so that he dies, he shall certainly be put to death! <sup>13</sup> However, if he has not killed him deliberately, but God has let him fall into his hand, I shall designate a place for you to which he may flee. <sup>14</sup> However, when a man treats another man insolently, by scheming to kill him, you shall take him away from My altar to be put to death!

<sup>15</sup> “If anyone strikes his father or his mother, he shall certainly be put to death!

<sup>16</sup> “If one man kidnaps another, whether he sells him or he is found in the man’s possession, he shall certainly be put to death!

<sup>17</sup> “If anyone curses his father or his mother, he shall certainly be put to death!

<sup>18</sup> “When men quarrel, and one man strikes the other man with a stone or with his fist, and the man does not die but becomes confined to his bed, <sup>19</sup> if he recovers so as to walk around outside with his walking-stick, the one who hit him shall not be punished. Nevertheless, he shall pay for his loss of work and shall pay for him to get completely well again!

<sup>20</sup> “When a man strikes his male slave or female slave with a stick, so that he dies as a direct result, he shall certainly be punished! <sup>21</sup> However, if the slave gets up in one day or two days, the man shall not be punished! For he is his property.

<sup>22</sup> “When men who are quarrelling injure a pregnant woman so that she gives birth prematurely, but there is no mortal harm, the man shall certainly pay the fine that the woman’s husband imposes on him and pay as the judges determine! <sup>23</sup> However, if any mortal harm follows, you shall give a life for a life, <sup>24</sup> an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand, a foot for a foot, <sup>25</sup> a scar for a scar, a bruise for a bruise, a wound for a wound!

<sup>26</sup> “When a man strikes his male slave or female slave in the eye and destroys it, he shall let him go free to compensate for his eye! <sup>27</sup> If he knocks out a tooth of his male slave or female slave, he shall let the slave go free to compensate for his tooth!

<sup>28</sup> “When a bull gores a man or a woman to death, the bull shall be stoned to death! Its meat shall not be eaten! However, the bull’s owner shall not be held responsible! <sup>29</sup> However, if the bull was likely to gore in the past, and his owner has been warned and has not kept him in an enclosure, and the bull kills a man or a woman, the bull shall be stoned, and his owner shall also be put to death! <sup>30</sup> If only money as a ransom is demanded from him, he shall redeem his life by paying exactly what is imposed on him! <sup>31</sup> If the bull gores a son or a daughter, this same Decision shall be applied to the owner! <sup>32</sup> If the bull gores a male slave or a female slave, the owner shall pay three hundred and sixty grams of silver to the slave’s master, and the bull shall be stoned!

Regulations about injury through negligence

<sup>33</sup> “When a man opens a cistern or digs a cistern and fails to cover it, and a bull or a donkey falls into it, <sup>34</sup> the owner of the cistern shall make amends with money! He shall make restitution to its owner but the dead animal shall be his!

<sup>35</sup> “When someone’s bull injures another man’s bull so that it dies, they shall sell the live bull and shall divide both the money and the dead bull! <sup>36</sup> If it was known in the past that the bull was likely to gore, and his owner had not been keeping him in an enclosure, he shall certainly make amends for the bull with another bull, but the dead animal shall be his!”

22

Legislation about stealing, loss of property and restitution

<sup>1</sup> “When a man steals a bull or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he shall make amends with five cattle for the one bull and with four sheep for the one sheep!

<sup>2</sup> “If a thief is caught while he is breaking into a house and is struck so that he dies, the defender is not guilty of murder. <sup>3</sup> If it has happened after sunrise, then it has been murder.

“A thief shall certainly make amends! If he has no means, he shall be sold because of what he has stolen!

<sup>4</sup> If a stolen animal is actually found alive in his possession, whether a bull, a donkey or a sheep, he shall repay double!

<sup>5</sup> “When a man uses a field or a vineyard for grazing and allows his animal to stray, and it grazes in another man’s field, he shall make restitution from the best part of his own field or vineyard!

<sup>6</sup> “When a fire breaks out and spreads into thorn-bushes, so that a stack of grain or standing grain or a field is burnt, the one who set fire to the field shall certainly make restitution for what the fire has damaged!

<sup>7</sup> “When a man gives his neighbour some money or articles for safekeeping, and they are stolen from that man’s house, if the thief is caught, the thief shall pay back double! <sup>8</sup> If the thief is not caught, the owner of the house shall be brought before God to see whether he has not laid his hand on his neighbour’s goods! <sup>9</sup> In every case of contested ownership of a bull, a donkey, a sheep, a mantle or of any other lost property, about which somebody claims: ‘This is it,’ the case of both persons shall be brought before God! The one whom God pronounces guilty shall repay double to his neighbour!

<sup>10</sup> “When anyone gives a donkey, a bull, a sheep or any other animal to his neighbour for safekeeping, and it dies, is injured or is captured, and no one has seen what has happened, <sup>11</sup> the two of them shall swear by the LORD! If the one has not laid his hand on his neighbour’s goods, then the owner shall accept this, without being paid for the loss! <sup>12</sup> However, if it has indeed been stolen from the neighbour, he shall make restitution to the owner! <sup>13</sup> If a wild animal has indeed torn it in pieces, the man shall bring the remains as evidence! He shall not make restitution for what a wild animal has torn in pieces!

<sup>14</sup> “When anyone borrows an animal from his neighbour, and it is injured or dies while its owner is not with it, the borrower shall make full restitution! <sup>15</sup> If the owner is with it, the borrower shall not make restitution! If it has been hired, it shall be reckoned in the money paid to hire it.”

Regulations for living as God’s holy people

<sup>16</sup> “When a man seduces a virgin who has not become engaged and sleeps with her, he shall certainly acquire her as his wife by paying the bridal money! <sup>17</sup> If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he shall pay in silver the amount of bridal money for a virgin!

<sup>18</sup> “You shall not permit a sorceress to live!

<sup>19</sup> “Anyone who has sexual relations with an animal shall certainly be put to death!

<sup>20</sup> “Anyone who sacrifices to any god except the LORD alone shall be put to death under solemn ban!

<sup>21</sup> “You shall not oppress a foreigner or torment him! For you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

<sup>22</sup> “You shall not oppress any widow or a child who is fatherless! <sup>23</sup> If, on the contrary, you oppress such a person, and he actually cries to Me for help, I shall certainly hear his cry for help. <sup>24</sup> I shall become very angry and shall kill you with the sword, and then your own wives will be widows, and your own children will be fatherless.

<sup>25</sup> “If you lend money to any poor person among you who belongs to My people, you shall not act like a money-lender toward him! You shall not charge him any interest! <sup>26</sup> If you indeed take your neighbour’s cloak as security, you shall give it back to him before the sun goes down! <sup>27</sup> For that is his only covering in which to wrap his skin. In what else can he sleep? When he cries to Me for help, I shall listen, because I am compassionate.

<sup>28</sup> “You shall not blaspheme God and you shall not curse a leader of your people!

<sup>29</sup> “You shall not hold back offerings from the full yield of your crop or from the juice in your wine-vat!

“You shall give the first-born of your sons to Me!

<sup>30</sup> You shall do the same with your cattle and your sheep! The young one shall stay with its mother for seven days! On the eighth day you shall give it to Me!

<sup>31</sup> “You shall be My holy people! You shall not eat meat from an animal torn to pieces by a wild animal in the open field! You shall throw it to the dog!

23

<sup>1</sup> “You shall not spread a false report! Do not make common cause with a wicked person by giving false evidence! <sup>2</sup> Do not follow a crowd in doing wrong! When you give evidence in a lawsuit you shall not side with the majority to pervert justice! <sup>3</sup> You shall not give special favours to a powerless man in his lawsuit!

<sup>4</sup> “When you happen to find your enemy’s ox or donkey going astray, you shall certainly take it back to him!

<sup>5</sup> “When you see the donkey of someone who hates you lying exhausted under its load, you shall not leave him alone with it! You shall certainly help him set it free!

<sup>6</sup> “You shall not pervert justice when a poor person among you has a public dispute! <sup>7</sup> Have nothing to do with anything false! Do not put an innocent and righteous person to death! For I shall not acquit a wicked person. <sup>8</sup> You shall not accept a bribe! For a bribe blinds clear-sighted persons and distorts the cases of righteous people.

<sup>9</sup> “You shall not oppress a foreigner! You know a foreigner’s state of mind, because you were foreigners in the land of Egypt.

The sabbatical year — Leviticus 25:1-7

10 “For six years you may sow your land and gather what it yields. 11 However, in the seventh year you shall leave the land unploughed and fallow, that those who are poor among your people may eat, and the wild animals may eat what the poor people leave! You shall do the same with your vineyard and your olive orchard! 12 You shall do your work in six days but shall rest on the seventh day, that your ox and your donkey may rest, and your home-born person and the foreigner may be refreshed!

13 “Pay careful attention to everything that I have told you!

“You shall not mention the names of other gods! They shall not be heard on your lips!

Legislation about three festivals — Exodus 34:18-26, Leviticus 23:4-44, Numbers 28:16-29:40, Deuteronomy 16:1-17

14 “Three times a year you shall celebrate a festival to Me! 15 You shall keep the Festival of Bread without Yeast: You shall eat bread without yeast for seven days at the right time in the month of Abib, as I commanded you! For you left Egypt in that month. You shall not come into My presence without an offering!

16 You shall also keep the Festival of the Harvest with the first-fruits of your labour when you have sown the field, as well as the Festival of In-Gathering at the end of the year, when you have gathered from the field what your labour has produced! 17 Three times a year all your males shall come into the presence of the Lord GOD!

18 “You shall not offer the blood of a sacrifice to Me together with anything that contains yeast!

“The fat sacrificed at My festival shall not remain overnight until morning!

19 “You shall bring the best of the first-fruits of your soil to the house of the LORD, your God!

“You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk!

The promise about God’s Messenger, who will lead the Israelites to Canaan

20 “See! I am sending an Angel ahead of you, to protect you on the way and to bring you to the place that I have prepared. 21 Be on your guard before Him and listen to what He says! Do not cause trouble for Him! For He will not forgive your rebellion. For My name is in Him. 22 Rather, if you indeed listen to Him and do everything that I say, I shall be an enemy to your enemies and shall be hostile toward those who are hostile to you. 23 When My Angel goes ahead of you and brings you to the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, I shall destroy them. 24 You shall not bow down before their gods, you shall not serve them and shall not follow their practices! Rather, you shall certainly destroy their images! You shall certainly break their sacred stones in pieces! 25 You shall serve the LORD, your God! Then He will bless your food and water. I shall take sickness away from among you. 26 No woman in your land will have a miscarriage or be barren. I shall give you a full life span. 27 I shall send terror of Me ahead of you. I shall throw into confusion all the people whom you encounter. I shall make all your enemies turn their backs to you. 28 I shall send discouragement ahead of you to drive out the Hivites, the Canaanites and the Hittites as you advance. 29 I shall not drive them out before you in one year, that the land may not become deserted, and that the wild animals may not become too numerous for you. 30 I shall drive them out ahead of you gradually until you increase enough to take possession of the land. 31 I shall establish your borders from the Red Sea to the Sea of the Philistines and from the wilderness to the Euphrates. For I shall hand the people who live in the land into your power, so that you will drive them out as you advance. 32 You shall not make a covenant with them or with their gods! 33 They must not live in your land, that they may not cause you to sin against Me! For the worship of their gods will surely be a snare to you.”

24

The ratification of the Covenant with blood

1 God told Moses: “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab, Abihu and seventy of the elders of Israel! While you are still at a distance you shall worship! 2 Then Moses alone shall approach the LORD! The others shall not come near, and the people shall not come up with him!”

3 When Moses came and recounted to all the people all the Words of the LORD and all the Ordinances, all the people answered with one voice: “We shall do all the things that the LORD has spoken.”

4 Then Moses wrote down all the Words of the LORD. He got up early in the morning, built an altar at the foot of the mountain and set up twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. 5 Then he sent the young Israelite men, and they offered whole burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as fellowship offerings to the LORD. 6 Moses took half of the blood and put it in bowls and poured the other half out on the altar. 7 Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it aloud for the people to hear. They said, “We shall do all that the LORD has spoken, that we may be obedient.”

8 Moses then took the blood, sprinkled it on the people and said, “Look! The blood of the Covenant, which the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these Words.”

9 Then Moses went up, together with Aaron, Nadab, Abihu and the seventy elders of Israel, 10 and they saw the God of Israel. Under His feet there was something like a pavement of sapphire, as clear as the sky itself. 11 However, God did not stretch out His hand against the eminent men of Israel. They saw God and ate and drank.

Moses’ ascent of the mountain to receive God’s Words written on stone —

compare Exodus 34:1-4

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD told Moses: “Come up to Me on the mountain! Wait there, that I may give you the tablets of stone with the Law and the Commandments that I have written, to instruct them!”

<sup>13</sup> Moses and Joshua, his assistant, set out, and Moses went up onto the mountain of God. <sup>14</sup> He told the elders: “Wait here for us until we come back to you! Look! Aaron and Hur are here with you. Anyone who is involved in a dispute should go to them!”

<sup>15</sup> When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud covered the mountain. <sup>16</sup> The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai. For six days the cloud covered it and, on the seventh, He called to Moses from inside the cloud. <sup>17</sup> The glory of the LORD appeared to the Israelites like a consuming fire on the top of the mountain. <sup>18</sup> Moses entered the cloud as he went up onto the mountain. Moses was on the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

25

Instructions about freewill contributions for the Tent of Meeting — Exodus 35:4-9

<sup>1</sup> The LORD instructed Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites to take a contribution for Me. You shall take the contribution to Me from everyone whose heart makes him willing! <sup>3</sup> This is the contribution that you shall take from them: gold, silver, bronze, <sup>4</sup> purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material, fine linen, goat hair, <sup>5</sup> ram skins dyed red, dolphin skins and acacia wood, <sup>6</sup> olive-oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant perfumes, <sup>7</sup> onyx stones and other gems to be mounted on the priestly garment and the priestly breast-piece!

<sup>8</sup> “Then they shall make a sanctuary for Me, that I may dwell among them! <sup>9</sup> You shall make it exactly like the pattern of the Tabernacle and the pattern of all its furnishings that I am showing you!”

Instructions about the Ark of the Testimony — Exodus 37:1-5

<sup>10</sup> “They shall also make an Ark of acacia wood, one hundred and twenty-five centimetres long, seventy-five centimetres wide and seventy-five centimetres high! <sup>11</sup> You shall plate it with pure gold! You shall plate it inside and outside! You shall make a moulding of gold all around on it! <sup>12</sup> You shall cast four rings of gold for it and put them on its four lower corners, two rings on one side and two rings on the other side! <sup>13</sup> You shall also make carrying-poles of acacia wood and plate them with gold! <sup>14</sup> You shall insert the poles through the rings on the sides of the Ark, that they may carry the Ark! <sup>15</sup> The poles shall remain in the rings of the Ark and shall not be removed from it! <sup>16</sup> Then you shall put the Testimony that I shall give you into the Ark!

Instructions about the propitiatory cover — Exodus 37:6-9

<sup>17</sup> “You shall make a propitiatory cover of pure gold, one hundred and twenty-five centimetres long and seventy-five centimetres wide! <sup>18</sup> You shall also make two cherubim! You shall make them by hammering them out of gold on the two ends of the propitiatory cover! <sup>19</sup> Make one cherub on one end and the other cherub on the other end! You shall make the two cherubim at the two ends, to form one whole with the propitiatory cover! <sup>20</sup> The cherubim shall have wings that spread out upwards, screening the propitiatory cover with their wings as they face each other! The faces of the cherubim shall look towards the propitiatory cover! <sup>21</sup> You shall put the propitiatory cover on top of the Ark and put the Testimony, which I shall give you, into the Ark! <sup>22</sup> I shall make Myself known to you there and shall speak to you from above the propitiatory cover, from between the two cherubim that are over the Ark of the Testimony. There I shall speak about everything that I shall command you for the Israelites.

Instructions about the table for the Holy Place — Exodus 37:10-16

<sup>23</sup> “You shall also make a table of acacia wood one metre long, fifty centimetres wide and seventy-five centimetres high! <sup>24</sup> You shall plate it with pure gold and make a moulding of gold for it all around! <sup>25</sup> You shall make a rim for it all around, a handbreadth wide, and make a moulding of gold for the rim all around! <sup>26</sup> You shall make four rings of gold for it and fasten the rings to the four edges that are on the table’s legs! <sup>27</sup> The rings shall be close to the rim as sockets for the poles to carry the table! <sup>28</sup> You shall make the poles of acacia wood and plate them with gold, that the table may be carried with them! <sup>29</sup> You shall also make its dishes, its basins, its jars and its bowls with which to pour drink offerings and shall make them of pure gold! <sup>30</sup> You shall always set the bread of the Presence on the table before Me!”

Instructions about the lampstand — Exodus 37:17-24

<sup>31</sup> “You shall also make a lampstand of pure gold! The lampstand shall be made as hammered metalwork! Its base and its shaft, its cups, its buds and its flower-shaped ornaments shall be of one piece with it! <sup>32</sup> Six shafts shall extend from its sides, three shafts of the lampstand from its one side and three shafts of the lampstand from its other side! <sup>33</sup> Three cups shaped in the form of almond blossoms with a bulb and a flower shall be on the one shaft and three cups in the form of almond blossoms with a bulb and a flower on the other shaft! There shall also be the same for all six shafts, which extend from the lampstand! <sup>34</sup> On the lampstand there shall also be four cups in the form of almond-blossoms, each with its bulb and its flower! <sup>35</sup> One bulb shall be under the first pair of shafts extending from the lampstand, a second bulb under the second pair of shafts extending from it and a third bulb under the third pair of shafts extending from it! The six shafts that extend from the lampstand shall be like this! <sup>36</sup> Their buds and their shafts shall be of one piece with the lampstand! All of it shall be one piece of hammered metalwork of pure gold! <sup>37</sup> You shall also make seven lamps for it and set up its lamps, that it may give light over the space in front of it! <sup>38</sup> Its wick-trimmers and its fire-pans shall be of pure gold! <sup>39</sup> Thirty-five kilograms of pure gold shall be used to make the lampstand and all these accessories! <sup>40</sup> See that you make them according to the pattern of them, which you have been shown on the mountain!"

26

Instructions about the Tabernacle — Exodus 36:8-38

<sup>1</sup> "You shall make the Tabernacle with ten curtains! You shall make them with twisted fine linen and purple wool, wool dyed with maroon and crimson material, with cherubim worked into them by a weaver! <sup>2</sup> The length of one curtain shall be fourteen metres and the width of one curtain two metres! All of the other curtains shall be the same size as the first! <sup>3</sup> Five curtains shall be joined to one another, and the other five curtains shall be joined to one another! <sup>4</sup> You shall also make loops of purple wool on the edge of the end-curtain in the one set and do the same on the edge of the outermost curtain in the other set! <sup>5</sup> You shall make fifty loops on the one curtain and make fifty loops on the edge of the curtain that is in the other set, so that the loops are opposite to each other! <sup>6</sup> You shall also make fifty golden hooks and with the hooks you shall join the curtains to one another, so as to form the Tabernacle as a unit!

Instructions about the covering for the Tabernacle — Exodus 36:14-19

<sup>7</sup> "You shall also make curtains of goat hair to be a tent over the Tabernacle! You shall make eleven of these curtains! <sup>8</sup> The one curtain shall be fifteen metres long and two metres wide, and the eleven curtains shall all be the same size as the first curtain! <sup>9</sup> You shall join five of the curtains to one another as one set and the other six to one another as a second set and shall fold the sixth curtain double at the front of the tent! <sup>10</sup> You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the end-curtain in the one set and fifty loops on the edge of the end-curtain in the second set! <sup>11</sup> You shall also make fifty bronze hooks and put the hooks through the loops, that you may join the tent together to form a unit! <sup>12</sup> The projecting part of the tent-curtains that is left, the one half-curtain that is left over, shall hang over the back of the Tabernacle! <sup>13</sup> The fifty centimetres that are left over on each side in the length of the tent-curtains shall be an overhang on each side of the Tabernacle, to cover it! <sup>14</sup> You shall also make a covering for the tent of ram-skins dyed red and over that another covering of dolphin skins!

Instructions about the planks of the Tabernacle — Exodus 36:20-34

<sup>15</sup> "You shall also make the planks for the Tabernacle of acacia wood, as uprights! <sup>16</sup> The length of each plank shall be five metres, and the width of each plank shall be seventy-five centimetres! <sup>17</sup> Each plank shall have two tenons to be dovetailed into the next plank! You shall make them like this on all the planks of the Tabernacle! <sup>18</sup> You shall make twenty planks for the southern side of the Tabernacle! <sup>19</sup> You shall also make forty silver pedestals under the twenty planks, two pedestals under the one plank for its two tenons and two pedestals under the next plank for its two tenons! <sup>20</sup> You shall also make twenty planks on the other side of the Tabernacle, the northern side, <sup>21</sup> with their forty silver pedestals, two pedestals under the one plank and two pedestals under the next plank! <sup>22</sup> You shall also make six planks for the rear of the Tabernacle, the western side! <sup>23</sup> You shall also make two planks for the two rear corners of the Tabernacle! <sup>24</sup> These shall be made double from the bottom! They shall fit at the top into a single ring! Both of them shall be like that! They shall form the two corners! <sup>25</sup> There shall be eight planks with their sixteen silver pedestals, two pedestals under the one plank and two pedestals under the next plank!

<sup>26</sup> "You shall also make crosspieces of acacia wood, five for the planks on the one side of the Tabernacle, <sup>27</sup> five crosspieces for the planks on the other side of the Tabernacle and five crosspieces for the planks on the rear side of the Tabernacle, that is, the western side! <sup>28</sup> The middle crosspiece, halfway up the planks, shall slide through, from the one end to the other! <sup>29</sup> You shall plate the planks with gold! You shall also make golden rings for them as sockets for the crosspieces and plate the crosspieces with gold! <sup>30</sup> You shall erect the Tabernacle according to the building-plan of it, which you have been shown on the mountain!

Instructions about the curtain and the Most Holy Place — Exodus 36:35

<sup>31</sup> "You shall also make a curtain of purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine linen! It shall be made with cherubim worked into it by a weaver! <sup>32</sup> You shall hang it on four acacia posts overlaid with gold. Their hooks shall be of gold and stand on four silver pedestals! <sup>33</sup> You shall hang the curtain from the hooks and bring the Ark of the Testimony inside, behind the curtain! The curtain shall divide for you the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place. <sup>34</sup> You shall put the propitiatory cover on the Ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy Place!

Instructions about the table and the lampstand in the Holy Place — Exodus 37:10-16

<sup>35</sup> "You shall set the table outside the curtain! You shall put the lampstand opposite the table on the southern side of the Tabernacle! You shall set the table on the northern side!

Instructions about the entrance to the Tabernacle — Exodus 36:37

<sup>36</sup> "You shall also make a curtain for the entrance to the tent, of purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine linen, worked by a weaver of coloured fabric! <sup>37</sup> You shall also make for the curtain five posts of acacia wood! You shall plate them with gold! They shall have golden nails, and you shall cast five bronze pedestals for them!

27

Instructions about the altar for burnt offerings — Exodus 38:1-7

<sup>1</sup> “You shall also make the altar of acacia wood! The altar shall be square, two and a half metres long and two and a half metres wide and shall be one and a half metres high! <sup>2</sup> You shall also make its horns on its four corners! Its horns shall be of one piece with it, and you shall plate it with bronze!

<sup>3</sup> “You shall also make pots for it to clean it of fatty ashes and its fire-shovels, its bowls used for pouring, its meat-forks and its ash-buckets! You shall make all its utensils of bronze!

<sup>4</sup> “You shall also make a grating for it, a bronze network, and on the network you shall make four bronze rings, one on each of its four edges! <sup>5</sup> You shall put the network below, under the rim of the altar, so that the network is halfway up the altar!

<sup>6</sup> “You shall also make poles for the altar, poles of acacia wood, and plate them with bronze! <sup>7</sup> Its poles shall be inserted through the rings, and the poles shall be along two sides of the altar to be used in carrying it! <sup>8</sup> You shall make the altar as a hollow chest of boards! It shall be made as God has shown you on the mountain!

Instructions about the courtyard and its curtains — Exodus 38:9-20

<sup>9</sup> “You shall also make the courtyard of the Tabernacle! For the one side, on the southern side of the courtyard, there shall be curtains of twisted fine linen for the courtyard, fifty metres long, <sup>10</sup> with twenty posts and twenty bronze pedestals for them! The hooks on the posts and their bindings shall be of silver!

<sup>11</sup> Similarly there shall be curtains on the northern side, fifty metres long, with their twenty posts and twenty bronze pedestals! The hooks on the posts and their bindings shall be of silver! <sup>12</sup> The curtains on the western side of the courtyard shall be twenty-five metres wide and have their ten posts and their ten pedestals!

<sup>13</sup> On the eastern side, toward the rising sun, the courtyard shall be twenty-five metres wide! <sup>14</sup> On the one side of the entrance there shall be seven and a half metres of curtains with three posts and three pedestals for them! <sup>15</sup> On the other side of the entrance there shall be seven and a half metres of curtains with three posts and three pedestals for them! <sup>16</sup> For the gate of the courtyard there shall be a curtain ten metres long of purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine linen, worked by a weaver of coloured fabric! It shall have four posts and four pedestals! <sup>17</sup> All the posts around the courtyard shall have silver bindings! Their hooks shall be of silver, and their pedestals shall be of bronze! <sup>18</sup> The courtyard shall be fifty metres long, twenty-five metres wide all the way and two and a half metres high, with curtains of twisted fine linen and with bronze pedestals!

<sup>19</sup> “All the other articles used in the service of the Tabernacle, all its tent-pegs and all the tent-pegs for the courtyard shall be of bronze!

<sup>20</sup> “You shall also make the courtyard of the Tabernacle! For the one side, on the southern side of the courtyard, there shall be curtains of twisted fine linen for the courtyard, fifty metres long, <sup>10</sup> with twenty posts and twenty bronze pedestals for them! The hooks on the posts and their bindings shall be of silver!

<sup>11</sup> Similarly there shall be curtains on the northern side, fifty metres long, with their twenty posts and twenty bronze pedestals! The hooks on the posts and their bindings shall be of silver! <sup>12</sup> The curtains on the western side of the courtyard shall be twenty-five metres wide and have their ten posts and their ten pedestals!

<sup>13</sup> On the eastern side, toward the rising sun, the courtyard shall be twenty-five metres wide! <sup>14</sup> On the one side of the entrance there shall be seven and a half metres of curtains with three posts and three pedestals for them! <sup>15</sup> On the other side of the entrance there shall be seven and a half metres of curtains with three posts and three pedestals for them! <sup>16</sup> For the gate of the courtyard there shall be a curtain ten metres long of purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine linen, worked by a weaver of coloured fabric! It shall have four posts and four pedestals! <sup>17</sup> All the posts around the courtyard shall have silver bindings! Their hooks shall be of silver, and their pedestals shall be of bronze! <sup>18</sup> The courtyard shall be fifty metres long, twenty-five metres wide all the way and two and a half metres high, with curtains of twisted fine linen and with bronze pedestals!

<sup>19</sup> “All the other articles used in the service of the Tabernacle, all its tent-pegs and all the tent-pegs for the courtyard shall be of bronze!

Instructions about olive-oil for lamps — Exodus 35:28, Leviticus 24:1-4

<sup>20</sup> “You shall command the Israelites to bring you clear oil of beaten olives for the lighting to cause the lamps to burn continuously! <sup>21</sup> Aaron and his sons shall attend to this from evening until morning before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting, outside the curtain, which is in front of the Testimony! This shall be a lasting Statute for the Israelites in their coming generations!”

28

Sacred vestments for the priests — Exodus 39:1-21

<sup>1</sup> “You now, make your brother Aaron together with his sons come to you from among the other Israelites, that they may serve Me as priests! They shall be Aaron and Aaron’s sons Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar! <sup>2</sup> You shall make holy garments for your brother Aaron, to make him magnificent and splendid!

<sup>3</sup> “You shall tell all who have skilful minds, whom I have endowed with skill, to make Aaron’s garments to consecrate him, so he may serve Me as priest! <sup>4</sup> These are the garments that they shall make: a breast-piece, a priestly garment, a sleeveless robe, a tunic of chequered work, a headband and a sash! They shall make holy garments for your brother Aaron as well as for his sons, that Aaron may serve Me as a priest! <sup>5</sup> They shall use gold, purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and fine linen!

Instructions about the priestly garment (or ephod) — Exodus 39:2-7

<sup>6</sup> “They shall make the priestly garment by having a weaver work it with gold, purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine linen!

<sup>7</sup> It shall have two shoulder-pieces attached at the back and the front, that it may be fastened! <sup>8</sup> The waistband that is on it to fasten it shall be made like it and be of one piece with it! It shall be made of gold, purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine linen! <sup>9</sup> You shall also take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel, <sup>10</sup> six of their names on the one stone, and the names of the remaining six on the other stone, in the order in which they were born! <sup>11</sup> They shall be made as a gem-cutter engraves a seal! You shall engrave the names of the sons of Israel on the two stones! Then you shall mount them in filigree work of gold! <sup>12</sup> You shall fasten the two stones on the shoulder-pieces of the priestly garment as reminder-stones for the Israelites, that Aaron may bear their names before the LORD on his two shoulders as a reminder!

<sup>13</sup> You shall make filigree settings of gold! <sup>14</sup> You shall make two chains of pure gold by working twisted wires into chains and fasten the corded chains to the filigree settings!

<sup>15</sup> “You shall make a breast-piece of judgment! You shall use a weaver to make it as the priestly garment is made! You shall make it of gold, purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine

<sup>16</sup> “You shall make a breast-piece of judgment! You shall use a weaver to make it as the priestly garment is made! You shall make it of gold, purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine

<sup>17</sup> “You shall make a breast-piece of judgment! You shall use a weaver to make it as the priestly garment is made! You shall make it of gold, purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine

<sup>18</sup> “You shall make a breast-piece of judgment! You shall use a weaver to make it as the priestly garment is made! You shall make it of gold, purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine linen! <sup>16</sup> It shall be square, a span long and a span wide, when folded double! <sup>17</sup> You shall make settings of precious stones on it, four rows of precious stones! The first row shall consist of a ruby, a topaz and an emerald! <sup>18</sup> The second row shall consist of a turquoise, a lapis lazuli and a sardonyx! <sup>19</sup> The third row shall consist of a carnelian, an agate and an amethyst! <sup>20</sup> The fourth row shall consist of a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper! They shall be set in gold filigrees! <sup>21</sup> There shall be twelve stones, corresponding to the names of the sons of Israel! They shall be engraved like a seal, each bearing the name of one of the twelve tribes! <sup>22</sup> You shall also make chains on the breast-piece by welding cordage-work of pure gold together! <sup>23</sup> You shall make two golden rings on the breast-piece and fasten the two rings to the upper corners of the breast-piece! <sup>24</sup> You shall fasten the two golden cords to the two rings at the edges of the breast-piece! <sup>25</sup> You shall fasten the other two ends of the two cords to the two filigrees and attach them to the shoulder-pieces of the priestly garment at the front! <sup>26</sup> You shall also make two golden rings and fasten them to the other two edges of the breast-piece on the edge of it that is next to the inner side of the priestly garment! <sup>27</sup> You shall make two more golden rings and fasten them to the bottom of the two shoulder-pieces of the priestly garment at the front, close to its seam above the waistband of the priestly garment! <sup>28</sup> They shall tie the breast-piece by its rings to the rings of the priestly garment with a cord of purple wool, that it may lie over the waistband of the priestly garment, that the breast-piece may not come loose from the priestly garment! <sup>29</sup> Aaron shall wear the names of the sons of Israel on the breast-piece of judgment over his heart when he enters the Holy Place, as a constant reminder before the LORD! <sup>30</sup> You shall also put the Urim and Thummim into the breast-piece of judgment, that they may be over Aaron's heart when he enters the presence of the LORD! Aaron shall always wear the means of making judgment on the Israelites over his heart in the presence of the LORD!

<sup>19</sup> “You shall make a breast-piece of judgment! You shall use a weaver to make it as the priestly garment is made! You shall make it of gold, purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine

Instructions about the sleeveless robe for the priest — Exodus 39:22-26

<sup>31</sup> “You shall also make the sleeveless robe that goes with the priestly garment entirely of purple wool! <sup>32</sup> It shall have an opening in it for the head! There shall be a woven border all around, like the collar in a body-armour of leather! It shall have this to keep it from tearing! <sup>33</sup> You shall also make pomegranates of purple wool, wool dyed with maroon and crimson material all around on the hem of its skirt, with golden bells between them all around! <sup>34</sup> A golden bell shall alternate with a pomegranate all around the lower hem of the sleeveless robe! <sup>35</sup> Aaron must wear it when he ministers, that its sound may be heard when he enters the Holy Place before the LORD and when he comes out, that he may not die!

Instructions about the artificial flower — Exodus 39:30-31

<sup>36</sup> “You shall also make an artificial flower of pure gold and engrave on it, in the kind of engraving that a seal has: ‘THE HOLINESS OF THE LORD!’ <sup>37</sup> You shall fasten it to a cord of purple wool to attach it to the headband! It shall be on the front of the headband! <sup>38</sup> It shall be on Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall bear the guilt for shortcomings in the holy things that the Israelites consecrate, whatever their gifts may be! The artificial flower shall always be on his forehead, that the LORD may show favour to them!

Instructions about the tunics, the headbands, the sashes and the linen breeches for the priests — Exodus 39:27-29

<sup>39</sup> “You shall also weave the tunic in checker work of fine linen! You shall also make a headband of fine linen, and a weaver of coloured fabric shall make a sash!

<sup>40</sup> “You shall also make tunics for Aaron's sons, make sashes for them and make headbands for them, to give them dignity and grandeur!

<sup>41</sup> You shall put these on your brother Aaron and his sons, you shall anoint them, you shall install them as priests and consecrate them, that they may perform the duties of priests to Me!

<sup>42</sup> “Make for them white linen breeches to cover their private parts! These shall reach from the hips to the thighs! <sup>43</sup> Aaron and his sons shall wear them when they enter the Tent of Meeting or when they approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place, that they may not bring guilt on themselves and die! This shall be a permanent Statute for him and for his descendants after him!”

29

Instructions about the consecration of the priests — Exodus 40:12-15, Leviticus 8:1-36

<sup>1</sup> “This is what you shall do to the priests when you consecrate them to serve Me as priests: Take one young bull and two rams that are free from blemish! <sup>2</sup> Take bread without yeast and ring-shaped bread without yeast, which have been moistened with olive-oil and wafers without yeast, which have been spread with olive-oil! You shall make them with fine wheat flour! <sup>3</sup> You shall put them in a single basket and present them in the basket, together with the young bull and the two rams!

<sup>4</sup> “Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and shall wash them with water! <sup>5</sup> You shall take the garments and dress Aaron with the tunic, the sleeveless robe that is with the priestly garment, the priestly garment itself and the breast-piece! Then you shall put the priestly garment on him tightly by its waistband! <sup>6</sup> You shall put the headband on his head and fasten the holy crown on the headband! <sup>7</sup> Then you shall take the anointing oil and pour it on his head to anoint him!

<sup>8</sup> “Then you shall bring his sons forward and put tunics on them! <sup>9</sup> You shall fasten sashes around Aaron and his sons and tie their headbands on them, that the priesthood may belong to them by a lasting Statute! This is the way in which you shall install Aaron and his sons!

<sup>10</sup> “Then you shall bring the young bull forward, in front of the Tent of Meeting! Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the young bull! <sup>11</sup> Then you shall slaughter the young bull before the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting! <sup>12</sup> You shall take some of the blood of the young bull and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger and pour out all the rest of the blood against the base of the altar!

<sup>13</sup> “You shall take all the fat that covers the internal organs, the lobe on the liver, the two kidneys with the fat on them and burn them on the altar! <sup>14</sup> However, you shall burn the young bull’s meat, hide and the contents of its stomach in a fire outside the camp! It is a sin-offering.

<sup>15</sup> “You shall take one ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram! <sup>16</sup> Then you shall slaughter the ram, take its blood and pour it out against the altar all around! <sup>17</sup> You shall cut the ram into its pieces, wash its internal organs and its shins and lay them beside its other pieces and its head! <sup>18</sup> Then you shall burn the whole ram on the altar! It is a burnt offering to the LORD, a soothing aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>19</sup> “Then you shall take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on the head of the ram! <sup>20</sup> You shall slaughter the ram, take some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron’s right ear, on the lobes of his sons’ right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet! Then you shall pour the blood out against the altar all around! <sup>21</sup> You shall take some blood that is on the altar and some of the anointing oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments and on his sons and his sons’ garments! Then he and his garments and his sons and their garments will also be holy.

<sup>22</sup> “You shall also take the fat of the ram, the fat tail, the fat that covers the internal organs, the lobe of the liver, the two kidneys and the fat that is on them and the right leg! For this is a ram for the installation. <sup>23</sup> You shall also take one disk-shaped loaf of bread, one ring-shaped loaf of bread made with olive-oil and one wafer from the basket of bread without yeast, which is before the LORD! <sup>25</sup> You shall lay all these in the hands of Aaron and of his sons and move them back and forth as a wave offering to the LORD! <sup>26</sup> Then you shall take them from their hands and burn them on the altar together with the burnt offering, as a soothing aroma before the LORD! It will be an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>26</sup> “You shall take the brisket of the ram for Aaron’s installation and move it back and forth as a wave offering before the LORD! That shall be your portion!

<sup>27</sup> You shall consecrate the brisket of the wave offering that has been moved back and forth and the leg of the contribution that has been presented, taken from the ram for the installation! These parts of it shall belong to Aaron and to his sons! <sup>28</sup> By a permanent Statute this gift from the Israelites shall belong to Aaron and to his sons! For this is a contribution and shall be a contribution from the Israelites out of their peace-offerings! It is their contribution to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> “Aaron’s holy garments shall belong to his sons after him, that they may be anointed and installed in them! <sup>30</sup> When the son who succeeds him as priest goes into the Tent of Meeting to minister in the Holy Place, he shall wear them for seven days!

<sup>31</sup> “You shall take the ram for installation and boil its meat in a holy place! <sup>32</sup> Then Aaron and his sons shall eat the meat of the ram and the bread that is in the basket at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting! <sup>33</sup> They shall eat these offerings, by which atonement has been made for their ordination and consecration! However, no unqualified person shall eat them, because they are holy! <sup>34</sup> If any of the meat from the installation or any of the bread is left over until morning, you shall burn up what is left! It shall not be eaten! For it is holy.

<sup>35</sup> “You shall do this with Aaron and his sons exactly as I have commanded you! You shall take seven days to install them! <sup>36</sup> You shall sacrifice a young bull each day as a sin-offering, as an act of atonement! You shall also free the altar from sin when you make atonement for it and also anoint it to make it holy! <sup>37</sup> For seven days you shall make atonement for the altar and make it holy! Then the altar will be most holy, and anyone who touches the altar will be holy.

Instructions about the daily offerings — Numbers 28:1-8

<sup>38</sup> “This is what you shall prepare for the offering on the altar regularly each day: two male lambs that are one year old. <sup>39</sup> You shall prepare the one lamb in the morning and prepare the other lamb at twilight! <sup>40</sup> With the first lamb you shall prepare four litres of fine wheat flour mixed with one litre of olive-oil produced from beaten olives and a drink offering of one litre of wine! <sup>41</sup> You shall prepare the other lamb at twilight with the same cereal offering and drink offering as in the morning! You shall prepare it as a soothing aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD!

<sup>42</sup> “For your coming generations this burnt offering shall be made regularly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before the LORD! I shall reveal Myself to you and speak to you there. <sup>43</sup> I shall reveal Myself to the Israelites there, and My glory will make it a holy place. <sup>44</sup> I shall make the Tent of Meeting and the altar holy and make Aaron and his sons holy, to serve Me as priests. <sup>45</sup> I shall dwell among the Israelites and shall be their God. <sup>46</sup> They will know I am the LORD, their God. It is I who have brought them out of the land of Egypt to dwell among them. I am the LORD, their God.”

30

Instructions about the altar for incense — Exodus 37:25-29

<sup>1</sup> “You shall also make an incense-altar! You shall make it of acacia wood! <sup>2</sup> It shall be square, fifty centimetres long by fifty centimetres wide and one metre high! Its horns should be of one piece with it! <sup>3</sup> You shall plate it with pure gold, its top slab, its sides all around and its horns! You shall also make a golden moulding around it! <sup>4</sup> You shall make two rings of gold for it below its moulding on two of its sides! You shall make them on two of its sides, and they shall be sockets for the poles used to carry it! <sup>5</sup> You shall also make the poles of acacia wood and plate them with gold! <sup>6</sup> You shall set it in front of the curtain, which is before the Ark of the Testimony, in front of the propitiatory cover that is over the Testimony, where I shall reveal Myself to you!

<sup>7</sup> “Aaron shall burn fragrant perfumes on it every morning! He shall burn incense on it when he attends to the lamps! <sup>8</sup> When Aaron puts the lamps up at twilight, he shall burn incense on it regularly before the LORD in your coming generations!

<sup>9</sup> “You shall not offer any unauthorised incense on it or burnt offerings or grain-offerings and you shall not pour a drink offering on it! <sup>10</sup> Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once each year with the blood of the annual sin-offering of atonement! He shall make atonement for it in your coming generations! It is most holy to the LORD.”

Instructions about ransom after a census by the payment of a half shekel

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD told Moses: <sup>12</sup> “When you take a census of the Israelites, to count them, everyone shall pay to the LORD a ransom for his life when he is counted, that no plague may come among them when they are counted! <sup>13</sup> Each one who crosses over to those already counted shall pay a half shekel, according to the shekel valid at the Holy Place, twenty gerahs to the shekel! The half shekel shall be a contribution to the LORD! <sup>14</sup> Everyone who is twenty years old or more and crosses over to those who have already been counted shall pay the contribution to the LORD! <sup>15</sup> Rich people shall not pay more than the half shekel, and poor people shall not pay less when you give the contribution to the LORD to atone for your lives! <sup>16</sup> You shall receive the atonement money from the Israelites and use it for the service of the Tent of Meeting! It shall be a reminder to the Israelites before the LORD, to make atonement for your lives!”

Instructions about the bronze basin — Exodus 38:8

<sup>17</sup> Then the LORD told Moses: <sup>18</sup> “You shall also make a bronze basin for washing, with a bronze stand for it and place it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar! You shall put water in it! <sup>19</sup> Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and feet with water from it! <sup>20</sup> When they go into the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash with water, that they may not die! So also, when they approach the altar to minister by burning an offering made by fire to the LORD, <sup>21</sup> they shall wash their hands and feet, that they may not die! This shall be a permanent Statute for him and his descendants in their coming generations!”

Instructions about the holy oil for anointing — Exodus 37:29

<sup>22</sup> Then the LORD told Moses: <sup>23</sup> “In addition, you yourself shall get the choicest spices: six kilograms of myrrh-oil, half as much (that is, three kilograms) of fragrant cinnamon, three kilograms of sweet cane, <sup>24</sup> six kilograms of cassia-buds (according to the shekel weight valid in the Holy Place) and four litres of olive-oil! <sup>25</sup> You shall make holy anointing oil with these, a spice blended by the perfumer’s art! It shall be holy anointing oil! <sup>26</sup> With it you shall anoint the Tent of Meeting, the Ark of the Testimony, <sup>27</sup> the table with all its utensils, the lampstand with its utensils, the altar of incense, <sup>28</sup> the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils and the basin with its stand! <sup>29</sup> You shall make them holy, that they may be most holy! Whatever touches them shall be holy! <sup>30</sup> You shall anoint Aaron and his sons and make them holy to serve Me as priests!

<sup>31</sup> “You shall tell the Israelites: ‘This shall be My holy anointing oil throughout your coming generations!’

<sup>32</sup> It shall not be poured out on the body of other people, and you shall not make anything with similar proportions to this! This is holy, and you shall regard it as holy! <sup>33</sup> Anyone who blends a mixture like it or puts any of it on any unqualified person shall be cut off from his people!”

Instructions about the incense to be used in the Tabernacle

<sup>34</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Get yourself fragrant spices: stacte resin, onycha and galbanum! Add these spices and clear frankincense to these spices in equal parts! <sup>35</sup> You shall make it into incense, a spice made by the perfumer’s art! It shall be salted, pure and a holy thing! <sup>36</sup> You shall also grind some of it, crushing it fine, and put some of it in front of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting where I shall reveal Myself to you! You shall treat it as most holy! <sup>37</sup> You shall not make for yourselves anything with similar proportions to the incense that you will make! You shall regard it as holy to the LORD! <sup>38</sup> Anyone who makes anything like it to enjoy the smell of it shall be cut off from his people!”

31

Instructions about the craftsmen to make the Tabernacle — Exodus 35:30-35

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “See! I have by name called Bezalel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>3</sup> I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, intelligence and knowledge for every kind of craft, <sup>4</sup> to devise artistic designs for work in gold, silver and bronze. <sup>5</sup> He knows how to cut gemstones to be set, to carve wood and to engage in all other kinds of craftsmanship. <sup>6</sup> Further, I Myself have appointed with him Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. I have also given to all skilful persons the ability to make everything that I have commanded you: <sup>7</sup> the Tent of Meeting, the Ark of the Testimony, the propitiatory cover on it, all the equipment of the tent, <sup>8</sup> the table with its utensils, the pure-golden lampstand with all its utensils, the altar of incense, <sup>9</sup> the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, the basin with its stand, <sup>10</sup> the woven garments, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when they serve as priests, <sup>11</sup> the anointing oil and the fragrant incense for the Holy Place. They shall make them exactly as I have commanded you!”

The observance of the sabbath, as a sign

<sup>12</sup> Then the LORD instructed Moses: <sup>13</sup> “Tell the Israelites yourself: ‘You shall surely keep My Sabbaths! For they will be a sign between Me and you for your coming generations, that you may know that I am the LORD and I make you holy. <sup>14</sup> You shall keep the Sabbath! For it is holy to you. Anyone who profanes it shall certainly be put to death! For any person who does any work on it shall be cut off from his people! <sup>15</sup> Work shall be done on six days, but on the seventh day there shall be a most solemn Sabbath, holy to the LORD! Anyone who does any work on the Sabbath day shall surely be put to death! <sup>16</sup> The Israelites shall keep the Sabbath and observe the Sabbath throughout their coming generations as a Covenant for all time! <sup>17</sup> It shall be a sign between Me and the Israelites for ever! For the LORD made the heavens and the earth in six days and on the seventh He stopped working and refreshed Himself.’”

The two tablets of the Covenant

<sup>18</sup> When He had finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai, He gave Moses two tablets of the Testimony, which were tablets of stone, written with the finger of God.

32

The Israelites' worship of a golden calf — Deuteronomy 9:7-29

<sup>1</sup> When the people saw that Moses was taking a long time to come back down from the mountain, they gathered around Aaron. They said: “Come, make us gods who will go before us. For, as for this Moses, the man who has brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.”

<sup>2</sup> Aaron told them, “Pull off the golden ear-rings that your wives, sons and daughters have in their ears and bring them to me.”

<sup>3</sup> So, all the people pulled off the golden earrings that were in their ears and brought them to Aaron. <sup>4</sup> He took them from their hands, shaped it with a sharp instrument and made it into a cast image of a bull calf. Then they said, “These are your gods, O Israel, who have brought you up out of the land of Egypt.”

<sup>5</sup> When Aaron saw this, he built an altar in front of the calf. He announced, “Tomorrow there will be a festival to the LORD.”

<sup>6</sup> On the next day the people got up early, sacrificed burnt offerings and made peace-offerings. Then the people sat down to eat and drink and got up to amuse themselves.

<sup>7</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Moses: “Go! Get down! For your people, whom you have led up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves. <sup>8</sup> They have been quick to turn aside from the Way that I have commanded them and have made themselves a cast image of a bull-calf. They have been bowing down to it and sacrificing to it and have been saying, ‘These are your gods, O Israel, who have brought you up out of the land of Egypt.’” <sup>9</sup> The LORD also told Moses: “I have seen that this people is indeed a stiff-necked people. <sup>10</sup> Now therefore let Me alone, that My anger may burn against them, that I may consume them! Then I shall make you into a great nation.”

<sup>11</sup> However, Moses pleaded with the LORD, his God. He asked: “O LORD, why is Your anger burning against Your people, whom You have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? <sup>12</sup> Why should the Egyptians say, ‘He has taken them out to harm them, to kill them in the mountains and wipe them off the surface of the earth’? Turn from Your hot anger and relent from this harm to Your people! <sup>13</sup> Remember Abraham, Isaac and Israel, Your servants, to whom You swore by Your own self! You promised them: ‘I shall make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and give to your descendants all this land, which I have promised, and they will inherit it for ever.’”

<sup>14</sup> Then the LORD relented from the harm that He said He would do to His people.

<sup>15</sup> Moses turned and went down from the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hand. The tablets had been written on both sides. They were written on the front and on the back. <sup>16</sup> The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God engraved on the tablets. <sup>17</sup> Then Joshua heard the noise of the people shouting. He told Moses, “There is the sound of war in the camp.”

<sup>18</sup> However, Moses replied: “It is not the sound that greets a victory, nor is it the sound that reacts to defeat. It is the sound of singing that I hear.”

<sup>19</sup> When Moses approached the camp, he saw the bull calf and the dancing, and his anger blazed out. He threw the tablets out of his hands and broke them to pieces at the foot of the mountain. <sup>20</sup> He took the bull calf, which they had made, and burned it in a fire. Then he ground it into powder, scattered it over the water and made the Israelites drink it.

<sup>21</sup> Moses asked Aaron, “What has this people done to you, that you have led them into such great sin?”

<sup>22</sup> Aaron answered: “Do not become angry, my master! You yourself know that this people is inclined to evil. <sup>23</sup> They told me, ‘Make us gods who will go before us! For we do not know what has happened to this Moses, the man who has brought us out of the land of Egypt.’<sup>24</sup> So, I told them, ‘Those of you who have any gold, tear it off!’ So, they gave it to me. I threw it into the fire, and this calf came out!”

<sup>25</sup> When Moses saw that the people were out of control, because Aaron had let them get out of control, so that their enemies could whisper derisively about them,<sup>26</sup> Moses stood at the gate of the camp and said, “Whoever is for the LORD, come here to me!”

Then all the Levites gathered to him.<sup>27</sup> He told them: “The LORD, the God of Israel, has said: ‘Each of you, put your sword on your hip and go back and forth from gate to gate in the camp and, each of you, kill his brother, his friend and his neighbour!’”

<sup>28</sup> The Levites did as Moses had told them and that day about three thousand of the people fell.<sup>29</sup> Moses said: “Fill your own hands with sacrificial offerings to the LORD today! For each of you has turned against his own son and his own brother, that He may bestow a blessing on you today.”

<sup>30</sup> On the next day Moses told the people: “You have committed a great sin. Now, therefore, I shall go up to the LORD. Perhaps I may make atonement for your sin.”

Moses’ intercession with God to spare the people

<sup>31</sup> So, Moses went back to the LORD and said: “Oh! This people has committed a great sin! They have made gods of gold for themselves.<sup>32</sup> So now, will You forgive their sin? If not, please wipe me out of the book that You have written.”

<sup>33</sup> The LORD told Moses: “I shall wipe from My book whoever has sinned against Me.<sup>34</sup> Now, therefore, go! Lead the people where I have promised you. Look! My Messenger will go before you. However, at the time when I take revenge, I shall take revenge on them for their sin.”

<sup>35</sup> Then the LORD struck the people with a plague because of what they had done with the calf, which Aaron had made.

33

God’s refusal to go to Canaan with the Israelites

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Come! Leave this place, you and the people whom you have brought up from the land of Egypt and go up to the land that I have promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob with an oath, saying, ‘I shall give it to your descendants!’<sup>2</sup> I shall send a Messenger before you and shall drive out the Canaanites, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites.<sup>3</sup> Go up to a land flowing with milk and honey! For I shall not go up among you, because you are a stubborn people. Otherwise, I might annihilate you on the way.”

<sup>4</sup> When the people heard this adverse Message, they observed mourning rites, and no one put on his ornaments.<sup>5</sup> The LORD had told Moses: “Tell the Israelites: ‘You are a stubborn people. If for only a moment I went up among you, I would destroy you. Now, therefore, take off your ornaments, that I may determine what I am to do with you.’”

The erection of a tent outside the camp

<sup>6</sup> Therefore, the Israelites stripped off their ornaments, from Mount Horeb on.<sup>7</sup> Moses used to take a tent and set it up outside the camp at some distance from the camp. He used to call it “the Tent of Meeting.” Anyone who was making an inquiry of the LORD used to go out to the Tent of Meeting, which was outside the camp.<sup>8</sup> When Moses used to go out to the tent, each one of the people would rise, stand at the entrance of his own tent and watch Moses until he went into the tent.<sup>9</sup> When Moses used to go into the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and stand at the entrance of the tent while God was speaking to Moses.<sup>10</sup> Whenever all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people would get up and worship, everyone at the entrance of his own tent.<sup>11</sup> The LORD would speak to Moses face to face, as one man speaks to another. Then Moses used to return to the camp, but his young assistant Joshua, the son of Nun, used to remain inside the tent.

Moses’ intercession for the people

<sup>12</sup> Then Moses said to the LORD: “Look! You have been telling me, ‘Lead these people up! But You have not let me know whom You will send with me. You have also said, ‘I know you by name, and you have also found favour in My sight.’<sup>13</sup> Now therefore, please, if I have found favour in Your sight, cause me to know Your Way, that I may know You and find favour in Your sight! Consider also that this nation is Your people!”

<sup>14</sup> He answered, “My Presence will go with you, and I shall give you rest.”

<sup>15</sup> Then Moses said to Him: “If Your Presence is not going with us, do not make us go up from here!”

<sup>16</sup> How will anyone ever know that Your people and I have found favour in Your sight unless You go with us? Then we, Your people and I, shall be distinct from every other nation on the surface of the earth.”

God’s assurance that He will be merciful to Israel

<sup>17</sup> The LORD answered Moses, “I shall also do these things, which you have asked, because you have found favour in My sight, and I know you by name.”

Moses’ request to see God’s glory — Exodus 34:5-9

<sup>18</sup> Then Moses said, “Please, show me Your glory!”

<sup>19</sup> He answered: “I shall make all My goodness pass in front of you and shall proclaim My name, ‘the LORD’ in your presence. I shall be gracious to anyone to whom I am gracious. I shall have compassion on anyone on whom I have compassion.”

<sup>20</sup> However, He said, “You cannot see My face, because no human being may see Me and live.”<sup>21</sup> The LORD also said: “Look! Here is a place near Me. Stand on the rock!<sup>22</sup> When My glory goes past, I shall put you in a gap in the rock and shall cover you with My hand until I have gone past.<sup>23</sup> Then I shall take My hand away, and you will see My back. Nevertheless, My face will not be seen.”

34

God's replacement for the two smashed tablets — Exodus 31:18, Deuteronomy 10:1-5

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD told Moses: “Cut out for yourself two stone tablets like the first ones, and I shall write on the tablets the Words that were on the first tablets, which you smashed. <sup>2</sup> Be ready in the morning and in the morning you shall come up on Mount Sinai and stand before Me there on the top of the mountain! <sup>3</sup> No one shall come up with you and no one should even be seen anywhere on the mountain! Not even the flocks and the herds should graze in front of this mountain!”

<sup>4</sup> So, Moses cut two stone tablets like the first ones. He got up early in the morning and went up Mount Sinai as the LORD had commanded him. He took the two stone tablets in his hands.

God revelation of His Gracious name to Moses

<sup>5</sup> Then the LORD came down in the cloud, stood with Moses there and proclaimed the name of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD passed in front of him and proclaimed: “The LORD, the LORD, the merciful and compassionate God, slow to become angry, abounding in unfailing mercy and truth. <sup>7</sup> He preserves mercy for thousands and forgives wrongdoing, rebellion and sin. He certainly does not declare anyone exempt from punishment. He avenges the wrongdoing of the fathers on the children and on the children’s children, on the third and fourth generation.”

<sup>8</sup> Moses at once bowed down to the ground and worshipped. <sup>9</sup> Then he said: “O Lord, if now I have found favour in Your sight, please let the Lord go among us, even though this is a stiff-necked people! Pardon our wrongdoing and our sin and take us as Your inheritance!”

God's renewal of His Covenant with Israel — Exodus 23:14-19, Deuteronomy 7:1-6, Deuteronomy 16:1-17

<sup>10</sup> He said: “Look! I am making a Covenant. Before all your people I shall do such wonders as have never been performed anywhere on earth or among any other nation, that all the people who are around you may see that the work of the LORD, which I shall be doing for you, is awesome. <sup>11</sup> Carefully observe what I am commanding you today! Look! I shall drive out ahead of you the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites.

<sup>12</sup> Be on your guard that you do not make a covenant with those who are living in the land against which you are going, that they may not become snares among you! <sup>13</sup> Rather, you shall tear down their altars! You shall smash their upright stones and cut down their Asherah posts! <sup>14</sup> For you shall not worship any other god! For the LORD, whose name is ‘Jealous,’ is a jealous God. <sup>15</sup> Be careful not to make a covenant with those who are living in the land! When they run wantonly after their gods and sacrifice to their gods, they will invite you, and you will eat their sacrifices. <sup>16</sup> Then you will choose some of their daughters as wives for your sons. When their daughters run wantonly after their gods, they will lead your sons astray into worshipping other gods as idols. <sup>17</sup> “You shall not make any images of gods from cast metal for yourselves!

<sup>18</sup> “You shall keep the Festival of Bread without Yeast! As I commanded you, you shall eat bread without yeast for seven days, at the appointed time in the month of Abib! For in the month of Abib you came out of Egypt.

<sup>19</sup> “The first male offspring of every womb belongs to Me, including all the first-born males of your livestock, both from the herd and from the flock.

<sup>20</sup> However, you may redeem the first-born donkey with a lamb or kid. If you do not redeem it, you shall break its neck! You shall redeem all your first-born sons!

“No one shall appear before Me empty-handed!

<sup>21</sup> “You shall work for six days but rest on the seventh day. You shall rest even during the time of ploughing and the season of harvest.

<sup>22</sup> “You shall observe the Festival of Weeks with the first-fruits of the wheat harvest and the Festival of In-Gathering at the end of the year!

<sup>23</sup> “Three times a year all your males shall come into the presence of the Lord GOD, the God of Israel!

<sup>24</sup> For, after I drive nations out before you and enlarge your territory, no one will want to take your land when you go up three times a year to appear before the LORD, your God.

<sup>25</sup> “You shall not slaughter the blood of any sacrifice to Me along with anything containing yeast!

“The sacrifice at the Passover Festival shall not remain through the night until the morning!

<sup>26</sup> “You shall bring the best of the first-fruits of your ground to the house of the LORD, your God!

“You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk!”

<sup>27</sup> Then the LORD told Moses: “Write down these Words! For in accordance with these Words I have made a Covenant with you and with Israel.”

<sup>28</sup> Moses was there with the LORD for forty days and nights without eating food or drinking water. God also wrote on the tablets the Words of the Covenant, the Ten Commandments.

Moses' return to the people with a shining face after speaking with God

<sup>29</sup> Moses came down from Mount Sinai. The two tablets of the Testimony were in Moses’ hands when he came down the mountain. Moses did not know that the skin of his face was radiant because God had been speaking with him. <sup>30</sup> When Aaron and all the other Israelites looked at Moses, they saw that the skin of Moses’ face was radiant and were afraid to come near him. <sup>31</sup> However, when Moses called to them, Aaron and all the leaders of the community came back to him, and Moses spoke to them. <sup>32</sup> After that, all the other Israelites came near him, and he commanded them to do everything that the LORD had told him on Mount Sinai. <sup>33</sup> When Moses had finished speaking to them, he put a veil over his face. <sup>34</sup> However, when ever Moses entered the presence of the LORD to speak with Him, he used to remove the veil until he came out. Whenever he came out he used to tell the Israelites what he had been commanded. <sup>35</sup> When the Israelites saw Moses' face, they observed that the skin on Moses' face was shining. Then Moses used to put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with Him.

35

Regulations about the Sabbath

<sup>1</sup> Moses assembled the whole congregation of the Israelites and told them: "These are the things that the LORD has commanded you to do: <sup>2</sup> Work may be done for six days, but you shall keep the seventh day as your most solemn Sabbath holy to the LORD! Anyone who does any work on it shall be put to death! <sup>3</sup> You shall not light a fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day!"

The people's contributions for the Tabernacle — Exodus 25:1-7, Exodus 39:32-43

<sup>4</sup> Then Moses told the whole congregation of the Israelites: "This is what the LORD has commanded: <sup>5</sup> 'Out of what you possess make a contribution to the LORD! Everyone with a willing heart should bring a contribution to the LORD: gold, silver and bronze, <sup>6</sup> purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material, fine linen, goat hair, <sup>7</sup> ram skins dyed red, dolphin skins, acacia wood, <sup>8</sup> olive-oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense, <sup>9</sup> onyx stones and other precious stones to be mounted on the priestly garment and the breast-piece!"

The craftsmen to make the Tabernacle and its furnishings — Exodus 31:2-6, 39:32-41

<sup>10</sup> "All skilful persons among you should come to make everything that the LORD has commanded: <sup>11</sup> the Tabernacle with its tent and its covering, its hooks, its planks, its bars, its posts and its pedestals, <sup>12</sup> the Ark with its poles, the propitiatory cover, the covering curtain, <sup>13</sup> the table with its poles and all its utensils, the bread of the Presence, <sup>14</sup> the lampstand for the light with its utensils, its lamps and the oil for the light, <sup>15</sup> the altar of incense with its poles, the anointing oil, the fragrant incense, the curtain for the doorway at the entrance to the Tabernacle, <sup>16</sup> the altar for burnt offering with the bronze grating for it, its poles and all its utensils, the basin with its stand, <sup>17</sup> the curtains for the courtyard, its posts, its pedestals, the curtain for the gate to the courtyard, <sup>18</sup> the pegs for the Tabernacle, the tent-pegs for the courtyard with their tent-cords, <sup>19</sup> the woven garments worn for ministering in the Holy Place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments in which his sons will serve as priests!"

The offerings for the Tabernacle

<sup>20</sup> Then the whole congregation of the Israelites went away from Moses' presence, <sup>21</sup> and everyone who was willing, and everyone whose spirit prompted him came and brought a contribution to the LORD for the making of the Tent of Meeting, for all its service and for the holy garments. <sup>22</sup> All who were willing, both men and women, came and brought brooches, earrings, rings, necklaces and golden articles of all kinds. Yes, all of them offered gifts of gold as wave offerings to the LORD. <sup>23</sup> Everyone who found that he had purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material, fine linen, goat hair, ram skins dyed red or dolphin skins came and brought them. <sup>24</sup> All came who made a contribution of silver or bronze and brought them as contributions to the LORD. Everyone who found that he had acacia wood that could be used in any of the sacred work brought it. <sup>25</sup> Every skilled woman spun with her hands and brought what she had spun, purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material or fine linen, <sup>26</sup> and all the women who were willing and skilful spun the goat hair. <sup>27</sup> The leaders brought onyx stones and other precious stones to be mounted on the priestly garment and the breast-plate. <sup>28</sup> They also brought the spices and the olive-oil for the light, for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense. <sup>29</sup> The Israelites brought voluntary gifts to the LORD, every man and woman bringing whatever their hearts prompted them to bring for all the work that the LORD through Moses had commanded them to do.

The work of the skilled craftsmen, Bezalel and Oholiab — Exodus 31:2-6 <sup>30</sup> Moses told the Israelites: "See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, <sup>31</sup> and has filled him with God's Spirit, with skill, intelligence and knowledge and with every kind of craftsmanship, <sup>32</sup> to devise artistic designs for work in gold, silver and bronze, <sup>33</sup> to cut gemstones to be set, to carve wood and to engage in all kinds of craftsmanship. <sup>34</sup> He has also made him and Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, able to train others. <sup>35</sup> He has also filled them with skill to do all kinds of work: engraving, designing, embroidering with purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and fine linen, weaving all kinds of things and the ability to devise artistic designs.

36

<sup>1</sup> "So, Bezalel and Oholiab should do the work with every other skilled workman to whom the LORD has given skill and intelligence, so that they know how to do all the work for the service of the Holy Place exactly as the LORD has commanded."

The excess in contributions

<sup>2</sup> Moses summoned Bezalel and Oholiab and every other skilled workman to whom the LORD had given skill and everyone who was willing to come and do the work. <sup>3</sup> They received from Moses every contribution that the Israelites had brought to carry out the work on the Holy Place. However, people still brought voluntary gifts to Moses every morning <sup>4</sup> so that all the skilled workmen who were doing all the work on the Holy Place came. Each one left the work that he was doing <sup>5</sup> and told Moses, “The people are bringing much more than we need to carry out the work that the LORD has commanded us to do.”

<sup>6</sup> ‘So, Moses gave the order and sent the command throughout the camp: “No man or woman should prepare any more work to contribute towards the Holy Place.”

This restrained the people from bringing more. <sup>7</sup> The material for all the work to be done was enough for them and to spare.

The construction of the Tabernacle — Exodus 26:1-37

<sup>8</sup> All those who were skilled among the workers built the Tabernacle with its ten curtains. They made these of fine twisted linen, purple wool, wool dyed with maroon and crimson material, with a pattern of cherubim worked into them by a weaver. <sup>9</sup> Each curtain was fourteen metres long and two metres wide. All the other curtains were the same size. <sup>10</sup> Five curtains were joined to one another, and the five other curtains were joined to one another. <sup>11</sup> They made loops of purple wool on the edge of the end-curtain in the one set and did the same on the edge of the outermost curtain in the other set. <sup>12</sup> They made fifty loops on the one curtain and made fifty loops on the edge of the curtain in the other set, so that the loops were opposite to each other. <sup>13</sup> They made fifty golden hooks and with these hooks they joined the curtains to one another, so that the Tabernacle formed a unit.

The covering for the Tabernacle — Exodus 26:7-14

<sup>14</sup> They made curtains of goat hair for a tent over the Tabernacle. They made eleven of these curtains. <sup>15</sup> The one curtain was fifteen metres long and two metres wide, and the eleven curtains were all the same size. <sup>16</sup> Five of the curtains were joined together as one set, and the other six curtains as a second set. <sup>17</sup> They made fifty loops on the edge of the end-curtain in the one set and fifty loops on the edge of the end-curtain in the second set. <sup>18</sup> They also made fifty bronze hooks to join the tent together to form a unit.

<sup>19</sup> They also made a covering for the tent of ram skins, dyed red and over that another covering of dolphin skins.

The making of the planks for the Tabernacle — Exodus 26:15-25

<sup>20</sup> They also made the planks of acacia wood as uprights for the Tabernacle. <sup>21</sup> Each plank was five metres long and seventy-five centimetres wide. <sup>22</sup> Each plank had two tenons that dovetailed into the next plank. They made them like this on all the planks of the Tabernacle. <sup>23</sup> They made the twenty planks for the southern side of the Tabernacle.

<sup>24</sup> They also made forty silver pedestals under the twenty planks, two pedestals under the one plank for its two tenons and two pedestals under the next plank

for its two tenons. <sup>25</sup> They also made twenty planks on the other or northern side of the Tabernacle, <sup>26</sup> and their forty silver pedestals, two pedestals under the one plank and two pedestals under the next plank. <sup>27</sup> They also made six planks for the rear or the western side of the Tabernacle. <sup>28</sup> They made two planks for the two rear corners of the Tabernacle. <sup>29</sup> They were made double from the bottom and were completed at the top in a single ring. They did the same for both of them at the two corners. <sup>30</sup> There were eight planks with their sixteen silver pedestals, two pedestals under each plank.

<sup>31</sup> They also made crosspieces of acacia wood, five for the planks on the one side of the Tabernacle, <sup>32</sup> five crosspieces for the planks on the other side of the Tabernacle and five crosspieces for the planks on the rear or the western side of the Tabernacle. <sup>33</sup> They made the middle crosspiece slide through, from the one end to the other, halfway up the planks. <sup>34</sup> They overlaid the planks with gold, made golden rings for them as sockets for the crosspieces and overlaid the crosspieces with gold.

The making of the curtain between the Most Holy Place and the Holy Place — Exodus 26:31-32

<sup>35</sup> They made the curtain of purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine linen. They made it with cherubim worked into it by a weaver. <sup>36</sup> They also made for it four acacia posts and overlaid them with gold. Their hooks were of gold, and they cast four silver pedestals for them. <sup>37</sup> They also made a curtain for the entrance to the tent, of purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine linen, worked by a weaver of coloured fabric, <sup>38</sup> and five posts with their nails for the curtain. They overlaid their tops and their binders with gold, and their five pedestals were of bronze.

37

The making of the Ark of the Testimony — Exodus 25:10-16

<sup>1</sup> Bezalel made the Ark of acacia wood, one hundred and twenty-five centimetres long, seventy-five centimetres wide and seventy-five centimetres high. <sup>2</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside and made a moulding of gold all around it. <sup>3</sup> He cast four rings of gold for it and put them on its four lower corners, two rings on one side and two rings on the other side. <sup>4</sup> He also made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold <sup>5</sup> and inserted the poles through the rings on the sides of the Ark that they might carry the Ark.

The making of the propitiatory cover — Exodus 25:17-22

<sup>6</sup> He also made a propitiatory cover of pure gold, one hundred and twenty-five centimetres long and seventy-five centimetres wide. <sup>7</sup> He made two cherubim by hammering them out of gold. He made them on the two ends of the propitiatory cover. <sup>8</sup> He made one cherub on one end and the other cherub on the other end. He made the two cherubim at the two ends, to form one whole with the propitiatory cover. <sup>9</sup> The angels had wings that spread out upwards, screening the propitiatory cover with their wings as they faced each other. The faces of the cherubim looked towards the propitiatory cover.

The making of the table for the Holy Place — Exodus 25:23-30

<sup>10</sup> He also made the table of acacia wood, one metre long, fifty centimetres wide and seventy-five centimetres high. <sup>11</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold and made a moulding of gold for it all around. <sup>12</sup> He also made a rim for it all around, a handbreadth wide, and a moulding of gold for the rim all around. <sup>13</sup> He also cast four gold rings for it and fastened the rings to the four edges that were on the table's legs. <sup>14</sup> The rings were close to the rim as sockets for the poles to carry the table. <sup>15</sup> He also made the poles of acacia wood, overlaid them with gold, that the table might be carried with them. <sup>16</sup> He also made, out of pure gold, the utensils to be used on the table, its dishes, its basins, its jars and its bowls, with which to pour drink offerings.

The making of the lampstand — Exodus 25:31-40

<sup>17</sup> He also made the lampstand of pure gold. He made it as hammered metalwork. Its base and its shaft, its cups, its buds and its flower-shaped ornaments were of one piece with it. <sup>18</sup> Six shafts extended out of its sides, three shafts of the lampstand from its one side and three shafts of the lampstand from its other side. <sup>19</sup> Three cups shaped in the form of almond blossoms with a bulb and a flower were on the one shaft, and three cups in the form of almond blossoms with a bulb and a flower were on the next shaft, and the same for all six shafts that extended from the lampstand. <sup>20</sup> On the lampstand there were also four cups in the form of almond blossoms, each with its bulb and its flower. <sup>21</sup> There was a bulb under the first pair of shafts extending from the lampstand, there was a second bulb under the second pair of shafts extending from it, and there was a third bulb under the third pair of shafts extending from it. The six shafts that extended from the lampstand were like this. <sup>22</sup> Their buds and their shafts were of one piece with the lampstand. All of it was one piece of hammered metalwork of pure gold. <sup>23</sup> He made seven lamps for it with its wick-trimmers and fire-pans of pure gold. <sup>24</sup> He made the lampstand and all its equipment out of thirty-five kilograms of pure gold.

The making of the altar for incense — Exodus 30:1-5

<sup>25</sup> He also made an altar of incense from acacia wood. It was square, fifty centimetres long, fifty centimetres wide and one metre high. Its horns were of one piece with it. <sup>26</sup> He overlaid it with pure gold, its top slab, its sides all around and its horns. He also made a golden moulding around it. <sup>27</sup> He also made two rings of gold for it below its moulding on two of its sides, as sockets for the poles used to carry it. <sup>28</sup> He also made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

The making of the anointing oil and the incense — Exodus 30:22-38

<sup>29</sup> He also made the holy anointing oil and the pure fragrant incense, blended by a perfumer.

38

The making of the altar for burnt offerings — Exodus 27:1-8

<sup>1</sup> He also made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood, two and a half metres long and two and a half metres wide. The altar was square and one and a half metres high. <sup>2</sup> He also made its horns on its four corners. Its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with bronze. <sup>3</sup> He also made all the utensils for the altar, the pots, its fire-shovels, its bowls used for pouring, its meat-forks and its ash-buckets. He made all its utensils of bronze. <sup>4</sup> He also made a grating for the altar, a bronze network below, under the rim of the altar, halfway up the altar. <sup>5</sup> He also cast four rings at the four corners of the bronze grating as sockets for the poles. <sup>6</sup> He also made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze. <sup>7</sup> He inserted the poles through the rings along the sides of the altar, to be used in carrying it. He made it as a hollow chest of boards.

The making of the bronze basin — Exodus 30:17-21

<sup>8</sup> He also made the bronze basin with a bronze stand for it, out of the bronze mirrors given by the women who were on duty at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.

The making of the courtyard around the Tabernacle — Exodus 27:9-19

<sup>9</sup> He also made the courtyard. On the southern side the curtains of the courtyard were fifty metres long, of twisted fine linen. <sup>10</sup> Their twenty posts and twenty pedestals were of bronze, and the hooks on the posts and their bindings were of silver. <sup>11</sup> On the northern side the curtains were also fifty metres long. Their twenty posts and twenty pedestals were of bronze, and the hooks on the posts and their bindings were of silver. <sup>12</sup> On the western side the curtains were twenty-five metres wide, with their ten posts and their ten pedestals. The hooks on the posts and their bindings were of silver. <sup>13</sup> On the eastern side, toward the rising sun, the curtains were twenty-five metres wide. <sup>14</sup> The curtains on the one side of the entrance were seven and a half metres long, with their three posts and their three pedestals. <sup>15</sup> There were also curtains seven and a half metres wide on the other side of the gateway of the courtyard, with their three posts and their three pedestals, the same as on the first side. <sup>16</sup> The curtains all around the courtyard were of twisted fine linen. <sup>17</sup> The pedestals for the posts were of bronze, and the hooks on the posts and their bindings were of silver. The tops of the posts were overlaid with silver. The bindings on all the posts of the courtyard were of silver. <sup>18</sup> A weaver of coloured fabric worked the curtain for the gateway of the courtyard. It was made of purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted linen. It was ten metres long and two and a half metres high all the way, corresponding to the rest of the curtains of the courtyard. <sup>19</sup> Their four posts and their four pedestals were of bronze, the hooks on them were of silver, their tops were overlaid with silver and their bindings were of silver. <sup>20</sup> All the tent-pegs for the Tabernacle and for the courtyard all around were of bronze.

The inventory of the gold, silver and bronze used for the Tabernacle

<sup>21</sup> This is an accounting of the materials used in the Tabernacle, the Tabernacle of the Testimony. It was counted at Moses' command by the Levites under the direction of Ithamar, the son of Aaron the priest. <sup>22</sup> Bezalel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything that the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>23</sup> Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan, assisted him. He was a craftsman, a weaver and an embroiderer of purple wool, of wool dyed with maroon, of crimson material and of fine linen. <sup>24</sup> The total amount of gold, that is, the gold that was contributed and used for all the work of the Holy Place weighed one thousand and twenty three kilograms and seven hundred and sixty grams, according to the monetary weight used in the Holy Place. <sup>25</sup> The silver that was obtained from the men of the congregation who were registered weighed three tonnes, five hundred and twenty-one kilograms and three hundred grams, according to the monetary weight used in the Holy Place. <sup>26</sup> Six grams was collected from each man who was twenty years old or older and who crossed over to those who had already been registered. The amount was a half-shekel by the standard of the shekel used in the Holy Place. The total levied came from six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty men. <sup>27</sup> Three and a half tonnes of the silver were used to cast the pedestals for the Holy Place and the pedestals for the curtain. Three thousand, five hundred kilograms were used for one hundred pedestals, thirty-five kilograms for each pedestal. <sup>28</sup> With the twenty-one kilograms and three hundred grams he made the hooks for the posts, overlaid the tops of the posts and made bindings for them. <sup>29</sup> The wave offering of bronze weighed two tonnes, four hundred and seventy-eight kilograms and eight hundred grams. <sup>30</sup> With this he made the pedestals for the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar with its bronze grating, all the utensils for the altar, <sup>31</sup> the pedestals all around the courtyard, the pedestals for the gateway of the courtyard, all the tent pegs for the Tabernacle and all the tent-pegs for the surrounding courtyard.

39

The making of garments for Aaron — Exodus 28:1-5

<sup>1</sup> They used purple wool, wool dyed with maroon and crimson material to make woven garments for ministering in the Holy Place. They made the holy garments for Aaron as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The making of the priestly garment or ephod — Exodus 28:6-14

<sup>2</sup> They also made the priestly garment of gold, purple

wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine linen. <sup>3</sup> They hammered out thin sheets of gold and cut these up into threads that a weaver might work them into the purple wool, into the wool dyed with maroon, into the crimson material and into the fine linen. <sup>4</sup> They made shoulder pieces for the priestly garment, which were attached to its two edges so that it could be fastened. <sup>5</sup> The waistband on his priestly garment was of one piece with it. It was made like it, of gold, purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine linen, as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>6</sup> They also prepared onyx stones, mounted them in filigree work of gold and engraved them, as seals are engraved, with the names of the sons of Israel. <sup>7</sup> He fastened them on the shoulder pieces of the priestly garment as reminder-stones for the sons of Israel, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The making of the breast-piece for the High Priest — Exodus 28:15-28

<sup>8</sup> He also made a breast-piece, using a weaver to make it as the priestly garment had been made, of gold, purple wool, wool dyed with maroon, crimson material and twisted fine linen. <sup>9</sup> The breast-piece was square. They made it a span long and a span wide, and it was folded double. <sup>10</sup> On it they made settings with four rows of precious stones. The first row had a ruby, a topaz and an emerald. <sup>11</sup> The second row had a turquoise, a lapis lazuli and a sardonyx. <sup>12</sup> The third row had a carnelian, an agate and an amethyst. <sup>13</sup> The fourth row had a chrysolite, an onyx and a green jasper. They were set in golden filigrees. <sup>14</sup> The twelve stones corresponded to the names of the sons of Israel and were engraved like a seal, each bearing the name of one of the twelve tribes. <sup>15</sup> On the breast-piece they made chains by welding cordage work of pure gold together. <sup>16</sup> They made two golden filigrees and two golden rings and fastened the two rings to the two edges of the breast-piece. <sup>17</sup> They fastened the two golden cords to the two rings at the edges of the breast-piece. <sup>18</sup> They fastened the other two ends of the two cords to the two filigrees and attached them to the shoulder pieces at the front of the priestly garment. <sup>19</sup> They made two golden rings and fastened them to the other two edges of the breast-piece, on the edge of it that is next to the inner side of the priestly garment. <sup>20</sup> They made two more golden rings and fastened them to the bottom of the two shoulder-pieces of the priestly garment at the front, close to its seam above the waistband of the priestly garment. <sup>21</sup> They tied the breast-piece by its rings to the rings of the priestly garment with a cord of purple wool, so that it lay over the waistband of the priestly garment and so that the breast-piece would not become detached from the priestly garment, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The making of the priestly robe — Exodus 28:31-35

<sup>22</sup> They also made the robe that went with the priestly garment. A weaver worked it, entirely of violet material. <sup>23</sup> There was an opening in the sleeveless robe like the collar in a body-armour of leather. Its opening had a hem all around to keep it from tearing. <sup>24</sup> They also made pomegranates of purple wool, wool dyed with maroon and twisted crimson material, on the lower border of the sleeveless robe. <sup>25</sup> They also made bells of pure gold and fastened the bells between the pomegranates all around the lower hem of the sleeveless robe between the pomegranates. <sup>26</sup> A golden bell alternated with a pomegranate all around the lower hem of the sleeveless robe, for the priest to use when he was ministering, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The making of the other priestly garments — Exodus 28:36-43

<sup>27</sup> They also had weavers make tunics of fine linen for Aaron and his sons, <sup>28</sup> the headband of fine linen, the ornamental headbands of fine linen, the breeches of twisted fine linen, <sup>29</sup> and the sash of twisted fine linen, which an embroiderer made with purple wool, wool dyed with maroon and crimson material, as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>30</sup> They made the artificial flower for the holy headband, of pure gold and engraved on it, in the kind of engraving that a seal has, “THE HOLINESS OF THE LORD.” <sup>31</sup> They fastened it to a cord of purple wool, to attach it to the top of the headband, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The completion of the Tabernacle and its presentation to Moses — compare 35:10-19

<sup>32</sup> So, all the work on the Tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, was completed. The Israelites did everything exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>33</sup> They brought the Tabernacle to Moses, the tent with all its equipment, its hooks, its planks, its bars, its posts and its pedestals, <sup>34</sup> the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of dolphin skins, the covering curtain, <sup>35</sup> the Ark of the Testimony with its poles and the propitiatory cover, <sup>36</sup> the table with all its utensils and the bread of the Presence, <sup>37</sup> the lampstand of pure gold with its lamps set in order and all its accessories, the olive-oil for the light, <sup>38</sup> the golden altar, the anointing oil, the fragrant incense, the curtain for the entrance to the tent, <sup>39</sup> the bronze altar with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils, the basin with its stand, <sup>40</sup> the curtains for the courtyard with its posts and pedestals, the curtain for the gateway to the courtyard with its tent-cords and tent-pegs, all the other articles needed for the service of the Tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, <sup>41</sup> the woven garments for serving in the Holy Place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when they served as priests.

<sup>42</sup> The Israelites had done all the work exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>43</sup> When Moses inspected all the work, he saw that they had done it as the LORD had commanded. Then Moses blessed them.

40

The instructions for setting up the Tabernacle

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “On the first day of the first month you shall set up the Tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting! <sup>3</sup> You shall put the Ark of the Testimony there and partition off the Ark with the curtain! <sup>4</sup> You shall also bring in the table and arrange its accessories! You shall bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps! <sup>5</sup> You shall put the golden altar for incense in front of the Ark of the Testimony! You shall also put the curtain at the entrance of the Tabernacle! <sup>6</sup> You shall also put the altar of burnt offering in front of the entrance of the Tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting! <sup>7</sup> You shall also put the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it! <sup>8</sup> You shall also set up the courtyard all around and put the curtain at the gateway to the courtyard! <sup>9</sup> You shall also take the anointing oil and anoint the Tabernacle and everything that is in it and you shall consecrate it with all its equipment, that it may be holy! <sup>10</sup> You shall also anoint the altar of burnt offering with all its equipment and consecrate the altar, that it may be most holy! <sup>11</sup> You shall also anoint the basin and its stand and consecrate it!

The consecration of priests — Exodus 29:1-46, Leviticus 8:1-36

<sup>12</sup> “Then you shall bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and wash them with water! <sup>13</sup> You shall also clothe Aaron with the holy garments and anoint him and consecrate him, that he may serve Me as priest! <sup>14</sup> Then you shall bring his sons forward and clothe them in tunics! <sup>15</sup> You shall also anoint them as you have anointed their father, that they may serve Me as priests! Their anointing will constitute them as a perpetual priesthood throughout their coming generations.”

The erection of the Tabernacle

<sup>16</sup> Moses did this exactly as the LORD had commanded him. <sup>17</sup> On the first day of the first month in the second year the Tabernacle was set up. <sup>18</sup> Moses set up the Tabernacle. He placed the pedestals for it, set up its planks, inserted its crossbars and set up its posts. <sup>19</sup> Then he spread the tent over the Tabernacle and put the covering for the tent on top of it, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The arrangement of the Tabernacle

<sup>20</sup> Then he took the Testimony and placed it in the Ark, attached the poles to the Ark and put the propitiatory cover on top of the Ark. <sup>21</sup> Then Moses brought the Ark into the Tabernacle, put up the covering curtain and shielded the Ark of the Testimony, as the LORD had commanded him. <sup>22</sup> Then Moses put the table in the Tent of Meeting, on the northern side of the Tabernacle, outside the curtain. <sup>23</sup> Then Moses arranged the appropriate number of loaves on it before the LORD, as the LORD had commanded him. <sup>24</sup> Then he placed the lampstand in the Tent of Meeting, opposite the table, on the southern side of the

Exodus

Tabernacle. <sup>25</sup> Moses set up the lamps before the LORD as the LORD had commanded him. <sup>26</sup> He put the golden altar in the Tent of Meeting in front of the curtain. <sup>27</sup> Then Moses burned fragrant incense on it as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>28</sup> He put up the curtain at the entrance of the Tabernacle. <sup>29</sup> He put the altar of burnt offering at the entrance of the Tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting. Then Moses offered the burnt offering and the grain-offering on it, as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>30</sup> He put the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing. <sup>31</sup> Moses, Aaron and his sons used to wash their hands and their feet from it. <sup>32</sup> They used to wash whenever they went into the Tent of Meeting or approached the altar, as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>33</sup> Moses set up the courtyard around the Tabernacle and the altar and put up the curtain at the gateway of the courtyard. So, Moses finished the work.

The indication of God's presence by a cloud at the Tent of Meeting — Exodus 13:21-22, Numbers 9:15-23

<sup>34</sup> Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the Tabernacle.

<sup>35</sup> Moses could not go into the Tent of Meeting, because the cloud had settled down on it, and the glory of the LORD had filled the Tabernacle.

<sup>36</sup> In all their journeys, whenever the cloud was taken up from over the Tabernacle, the Israelites used to set out. <sup>37</sup> However, if the cloud was not taken up, they would not set out, until the day when it was taken up.

<sup>38</sup> For the cloud of the LORD was over the Tabernacle by day, and fire used to be in it at night for all the family of Israel to see, throughout all their journeys.

LEVITICUS

1

Instructions about burnt offerings — Leviticus 1:6-13, 8:18-21, 16:24

<sup>1</sup> The LORD called Moses and spoke to him from the Tent of Meeting. He told him: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘When anyone of you offers a gift to the LORD, you shall offer your gifts of livestock from the herd or from the flock!

Instructions about burnt offerings of cattle

<sup>3</sup> “If anyone’s gift is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer a male without blemish! He shall bring it to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, that it may be acceptable to the LORD! <sup>4</sup> He shall lay his hand on the head of the animal that is being offered as a burnt offering! Then it will be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him. <sup>5</sup> He shall slaughter the young bull before the LORD, and Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall bring the blood and pour the blood out all around against the altar that is at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting! <sup>6</sup> He shall skin the animal that is being offered for the burnt offering and cut it into its pieces! <sup>7</sup> The sons of Aaron, the priest, shall put fire on the altar and arrange the wood on the fire! <sup>8</sup> Then Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall arrange the pieces, the head and the fat, on the burning wood that is on the altar! <sup>9</sup> He shall wash its inner parts and its legs with water! Then the priest shall burn all of it on the altar as a burnt offering, an offering by fire, a soothing aroma to the LORD!

Instructions about burnt offerings of sheep or goats

<sup>10</sup> “If anyone offers his gift from the flock, from either the sheep or the goats, as a burnt offering, he shall bring a male without blemish! <sup>11</sup> He shall slaughter it on the northern side of the altar before the LORD, and Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall pour its blood out against the altar on all sides! <sup>12</sup> He shall cut it into its pieces, together with its head and its fat, and the priest shall arrange the pieces on the burning wood that is on the altar! <sup>13</sup> He shall wash the inner parts and the legs with water! Then the priest shall offer all of it and burn it on the altar! It is a burnt offering, an offering by fire and a soothing aroma to the LORD.

Instructions about burnt offerings of birds

<sup>14</sup> “If anyone’s gift to the LORD is a burnt offering from the birds, he shall bring some turtledoves or some young pigeons as his gift! <sup>15</sup> The priest shall take it to the altar, wring off its head and burn it on the altar. Its blood shall be pressed out against the side of the altar! <sup>16</sup> He shall remove its crop and its feathers and throw them at the eastern side of the altar, on the place for the ashes! <sup>17</sup> He shall tear it open by its wings without severing it completely! Then the priest shall burn it on the altar, on the burning wood! This is a burnt offering, an offering by fire and a soothing aroma to the LORD.

2

Instructions about uncooked grain-offerings — Leviticus 6:14-23

<sup>1</sup> “When anyone brings, as a gift, a grain-offering to the LORD, his gift shall be of fine wheat flour! He shall pour olive-oil on it, put frankincense on it <sup>2</sup> and take it to Aaron’s sons, the priests! A priest shall take from this a handful of its fine wheat flour and some of its olive-oil, with all its incense and the priest shall burn it on the altar as its memorial portion, an offering by fire and a soothing aroma to the LORD! <sup>3</sup> The rest of the grain-offering shall be for Aaron and his sons! It is a most holy part of the offerings made by fire to the LORD.

Instructions about baked grain-offerings

<sup>4</sup> “When you bring something baked in an oven as the gift of a grain-offering, it shall be made with fine wheat flour, either ring-shaped loaves made without yeast, mixed with olive-oil or wafers made without yeast, spread with olive-oil! <sup>5</sup> If your gift is a grain-offering prepared on a griddle, it shall be made of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil and without yeast! <sup>6</sup> You shall crumble it into small pieces and pour olive-oil on it! It is a grain-offering. <sup>7</sup> If your gift is a grain-offering prepared in a baking-pan, it shall be made of fine wheat flour with olive-oil! <sup>8</sup> You shall bring the grain-offering, which is prepared from these things, to the LORD! When it is presented to the priest, he shall take it to the altar! <sup>9</sup> The priest shall present some of the grain-offering as its memorial portion and burn it on the altar! It is an offering by fire and a soothing aroma to the LORD. <sup>10</sup> The rest of the grain-offering shall be for Aaron and his sons! It is a most holy part of the offerings made by fire to the LORD.

Instructions about other ingredients with offerings

<sup>11</sup> “No grain-offering that you bring to the LORD shall be prepared with yeast, because you shall burn no yeast or honey in any offering made by fire to the LORD! <sup>12</sup> As for the gift of first-fruits, you may bring them to the LORD. However, they shall not be brought up to the altar for a soothing aroma! <sup>13</sup> You shall season every gift of your grain-offering with salt! You shall not let the salt of the Covenant of your God be lacking from your grain-offering! You shall offer salt with every one of your gifts!

Instructions about offerings of the first grain of the harvest

<sup>14</sup> “If you offer a gift of first-fruits to the LORD, it shall be heads of grain roasted in the fire! You shall offer crushed newly ripe grains as your gift of first-fruits! <sup>15</sup> You shall put olive-oil on it and place frankincense on it! It is a grain-offering. <sup>16</sup> The priest shall burn some of its crushed grain and some of its olive-oil with all the frankincense as its memorial portion, an offering made by fire to the LORD!

3

Instructions about peace-offerings — Leviticus 7:11-34

Instructions about peace-offerings of cattle

<sup>1</sup> “If anyone’s gift is a peace-offering, if he is offering it from the herd, either male or female, he shall offer an animal without blemish before the LORD!
<sup>2</sup> He shall lay his hand on the head of his gift and slaughter it at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting! Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall pour the blood out against the altar on all sides!
<sup>3</sup> He shall offer part of the peace-offering as an offering by fire to the LORD! He shall remove the fat that covers the inner parts, all the fat that is connected with the inner parts,
<sup>4</sup> the two kidneys with the fat on them at the loins and the long lobe of the liver in addition to the kidneys!
<sup>5</sup> Then Aaron’s sons shall burn these parts on the altar along with the burnt offering that is on the burning wood! It shall be an offering by fire and a soothing aroma to the LORD!

Instructions about peace-offerings of sheep

<sup>6</sup> “If anyone’s gift, as a peace-offering to the LORD, is an animal from the flock, he shall offer a male or female without blemish!
<sup>7</sup> If he is offering a lamb as his gift, he shall present it before the LORD!
<sup>8</sup> He shall lay his hand on the head of his gift and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting! Aaron’s sons shall pour its blood out against the altar on all sides!
<sup>9</sup> Then he shall offer part of the peace-offering as an offering by fire to the LORD! He shall remove its fat, the whole fat tail, which he shall take off close to the tail-bone, the fat that covers the inner parts, all the fat that is connected with the inner parts,
<sup>10</sup> the two kidneys with the fat on them at the loins and the long lobe of the liver in addition to the kidneys!
<sup>11</sup> The priest shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering by fire to the LORD!

Instructions about peace-offerings of goats

<sup>12</sup> “If anyone’s gift is a goat, he shall present it before the LORD!
<sup>13</sup> He shall lay his hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting! Aaron’s sons shall pour its blood out against the altar on all sides!
<sup>14</sup> He shall offer part of it as his gift, an offering made by fire to the LORD! He shall remove the fat that covers the inner parts, all the fat that is connected with the inner parts,
<sup>15</sup> the two kidneys, with the fat on them at the loins and the long lobe of the liver, in addition to the kidneys!
<sup>16</sup> The priest shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering by fire for a soothing aroma! All the fat shall belong to the LORD!
<sup>17</sup> This shall be a permanent Statute throughout your coming generations wherever you live: You shall not eat any fat or any blood!”

4

Instructions about special offerings for thoughtless sins or sin-offerings — Leviticus 6:24-30, 8:14-17, 16:3-22

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD instructed Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites: ‘When anyone sins thoughtlessly and does something that one of the Commandments of the LORD forbids, this is what he must do!

Instructions about offerings for thoughtless sins by the High Priest

<sup>3</sup> “If the anointed priest sins and brings guilt on the people, he shall offer to the LORD, for his sin, which he has committed, a young bull without blemish from the herd as a sin-offering!
<sup>4</sup> He shall take the bull to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting before the LORD, shall lay his hand on the head of the bull and slaughter the bull before the LORD!
<sup>5</sup> Then the anointed priest shall take some of the bull’s blood and bring it into the Tent of Meeting!
<sup>6</sup> The priest shall dip his finger in the blood and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD on the surface of the curtain of the Holy Place!
<sup>7</sup> Then the priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense, which is in the Tent of Meeting, before the LORD! He shall pour out all the rest of the bull’s blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting!
<sup>8</sup> He shall remove all the fat of the bull of the sin-offering! He shall remove the fat that covers the inner parts, all the fat that is connected with the inner parts,
<sup>9</sup> the two kidneys with the fat on them at the loins and the long lobe of the liver in addition to the kidneys,
<sup>10</sup> just as these are removed from the bull of the peace-offering! The priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering!
<sup>11</sup> However, the bull’s hide, all its meat, as well as its head legs, its inner parts and the contents of its stomach, <sup>12</sup> that is, all the rest of the bull, he shall carry them outside the camp to a ceremonially clean place, where the ashes are dumped, and burn it on a wood fire there! It shall be burnt where the ashes are dumped!

Instructions about sin-offerings for a thoughtless sin by the whole congregation

<sup>13</sup> “If the whole congregation of Israel sins thoughtlessly, and the assembly is unaware of the matter and they have done something forbidden by one of the Commandments of the LORD, they have become guilty.
<sup>14</sup> When the sin that they have committed against the Commandment becomes known, the assembly shall bring a young bull from the herd as a sin-offering, and present it before the Tent of Meeting!
<sup>15</sup> The elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the bull’s head before the LORD and slaughter the bull before the LORD!
<sup>16</sup> The anointed priest shall take some of the bull’s blood into the Tent of Meeting!
<sup>17</sup> The priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD on the surface of the curtain!
<sup>18</sup> He shall also put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting and pour out all the rest of the blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting!
<sup>19</sup> He shall remove all the fat from it and burn it on the altar!
<sup>20</sup> He shall do the same with this bull as he has done with the bull for the sin-offering! Therefore, when the priest makes atonement for them, they will be forgiven for it.
<sup>21</sup> Then he shall carry the bull outside the camp and burn it as he has burnt the first bull! This is the sin-offering for the assembly.

Instructions about the sin-offering for the thoughtless sin of a tribal leader

22 “When a tribal leader sins thoughtlessly by doing something forbidden in one of the Commandments of the LORD, his God, he has become guilty.

23 Likewise, when the sin that he has committed against the Commandment has been made known to him, he shall bring a male goat without blemish as his gift! 24 He shall lay his hand on the goat’s head and slaughter it at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered before the LORD! It is a sin-offering.

25 The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin-offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar for burnt offering! Then he shall pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar for burnt offering!

26 He shall burn all the fat on the altar just as is done with the fat of the peace-offering! When the priest makes atonement for his sin, he will be forgiven for it.

Instructions about the sin-offering made with a goat for a thoughtless sin by any ordinary person

27 “If anyone of the ordinary people sins thoughtlessly by doing something forbidden in one of the Commandments of the LORD, he has become guilty.

28 Likewise, when the sin that he has committed has been made known to him, he shall bring a female goat without blemish as his gift for his sin, which he has committed! 29 He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin-offering and slaughter the sin-offering at the place for the burnt offering! 30 The priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out all the rest of the blood at the base of the altar! 31 He shall remove all the fat as the fat is removed from the peace-offering! The priest shall burn it on the altar as a soothing aroma to the LORD! When the priest makes atonement for his sin, he will be forgiven for it.

The sin-offering made with a lamb for a thoughtless sin by any ordinary person

32 “If the man brings a lamb as his gift for a sin-offering, he shall bring a female without blemish!

33 He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin-offering and slaughter it for a sin-offering at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered! 34 The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin-offering with his finger, put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out all the rest of the blood at the base of the altar! 35 He shall remove all the fat just as the fat of the lamb for the peace-offering is removed, and the priest shall burn it on the altar on top of the offerings made by fire to the LORD! When the priest makes atonement for the sin that the person has committed, he will be forgiven for it.

5

A list of sins that require guilt-offerings — Leviticus 7:1-6

1 “When a person sins because he refuses to report a publicly uttered curse that he has heard or witnessed, either by seeing it or hearing about it, he brings guilt on himself. 2 Or if a person touches anything that is ceremonially unclean, either the carcass of an unclean wild animal or the carcass of an unclean domestic animal or the carcass of an unclean swarming creature, even when he has been unaware of it, he becomes unclean and guilty. 3 Or when a person touches any human uncleanness of any kind, which makes him unclean, even when he has not been aware of it, when he finds out about it, he becomes guilty. 4 Or if a person takes an oath by speaking thoughtlessly that he will do evil or do good, in any matter in which a human being might swear a rash oath, even if he is unaware of it, when he realises it, he becomes guilty in any of these matters. 5 When he is guilty of any of these, he shall confess that he has sinned in doing that! 6 He shall also bring his guilt-offering to the LORD for his sin! It shall be a female animal from the flock, a young lamb or a goat, as a sin-offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin!

Provision for guilt-offerings when a person cannot afford a sheep

7 “However, if he cannot afford the expenditure for a lamb, he shall bring to the LORD two turtledoves or two young pigeons as his guilt-offering for the sin that he has committed! One shall be a sin-offering, and the other a burnt offering! 8 He shall take them to the priest, who shall first offer the one for the sin-offering! He shall wring its head from the front of its neck without severing it completely! 9 He shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin-offering against the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be pressed out against the base of the altar! It is a sin-offering. 10 Then he shall offer the second one as a burnt offering in the prescribed manner! When the priest makes atonement for him to take away his sin, which he has committed, he will be forgiven for it.

Provision for guilt-offerings when a person cannot afford two doves

11 “However, if he cannot afford two turtledoves or two young pigeons, he shall bring, as his gift for the sin that he has committed, four litres of fine wheat flour as a sin-offering! He shall not pour olive-oil on it or put frankincense on it! For it is a sin-offering. 12 He shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take a handful of it as its memorial portion and burn it on the altar on top of the offerings made to the LORD by fire! It is a sin-offering. 13 The priest shall make atonement for him for his sin, which he has committed in any of these ways, and he will be forgiven for it! The remainder shall belong to the priest, as in a grain-offering!”

Instructions about guilt-offerings for thoughtless sins against the property of God — Leviticus 7:1-6

14 Then the LORD told Moses: 15 “When a person is unfaithful and sins thoughtlessly in any of the holy things of the LORD, he shall bring his guilt-offering to the LORD! It shall be a ram without blemish from the flock of the estimated value in silver, according to the weight used at the Holy Place, for a guilt-offering!

16 He shall make amends for the sin that he has committed concerning the holy thing and add one fifth to it! He shall give it to the priest, and the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram as the guilt-offering! Then he will be forgiven for it.

Instructions about guilt-offerings for thoughtless disobedience to God's Commands

17 "If a person sins by doing something that is forbidden in any of the Commandments of the LORD, even though he is not aware of it, he becomes guilty and brings guilt on himself. 18 He shall bring to the priest a ram without blemish from the flock of the estimated value as a guilt-offering! The priest shall make atonement for him for the error that he has committed thoughtlessly, even though he has not been aware of it and he will be forgiven for it! 19 It is a guilt-offering. He has incurred guilt before the LORD."

6

Instructions about guilt-offerings for sins against God's people

1 Then the LORD told Moses, 2 "When a person sins by being unfaithful to the LORD, if it is by making a denial to his neighbour about something entrusted to him, about joint property, about something stolen, if he has extorted something from his neighbour, 3 if he has found some lost property and made a denial about it or if he swears a false oath about any of the other sins that people may commit, 4 then, because he sins and becomes guilty, he shall restore the stolen property that he has taken, the thing that he has extorted, the deposit that has been entrusted to him, the lost property that he has found 5 or any of the other things about which a false oath may have been sworn! He shall restore the full amount, add one fifth to it and give it to the person to whom it belongs on the day when he realises his guilt! 6 He shall also bring to the priest his guilt-offering to the LORD! It shall be a ram without blemish from the flock, of the estimated value for a guilt-offering! 7 The priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD! Then he will be forgiven for any of the things he may have done to make him guilty."

Instructions about the fire on the altar and regulations for the burnt offering — Leviticus 1, Numbers 15:1-16

8 Then the LORD told Moses: 9 "Give Aaron and his sons this Command: 'This is the Law for the burnt offering: The burnt offering shall remain on the hearth on the altar all night until morning, and the fire shall be kept burning on the altar! 10 The priest shall put on his linen garment, with the linen breeches next to his body! He shall remove the ashes of the burnt offering that the fire has been consuming on the altar and put them beside the altar! 11 Then he shall take off his clothes, put on other clothes and take the ashes to a ceremonially clean place outside the camp! 12 The fire shall be kept burning on the altar and shall not go out! The priest shall burn wood on it every morning! He shall arrange the burnt offering on it and shall burn the fat of the peace-offerings on it! 13 The fire shall be kept burning on the altar constantly! It shall not go out!

Instructions about the grain-offering from the people — Leviticus 2

14 "This is the Law for the grain-offering: Aaron's sons shall bring it before the LORD, in front of the altar! 15 One priest shall take a handful of the fine wheat flour from the grain-offering, some of its olive-oil and all the frankincense that is on the grain-offering and shall burn the grain-offering on the altar as a soothing aroma, as its memorial portion, to the LORD! 16 Aaron and his sons shall eat the rest of it! They shall eat it as bread without yeast! They shall eat it in a sacred place, in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting! 17 It shall not be baked with yeast! I have given it to them as their share of the offerings made to Me by fire. It is most holy, like the sin-offering and the guilt-offering. 18 Any male descendant of Aaron may eat it. This shall be permanently due to them in the coming generations from the offerings made to the LORD by fire! Everyone who touches them will become holy."

Instructions about special grain-offerings from the priests

19 The LORD also told Moses: 20 "This is the gift that Aaron and his sons shall bring to the LORD on the day when he is anointed: four litres of fine wheat flour as a regular grain-offering, half of it in the morning and the other half of it in the evening! 21 It shall be prepared on a griddle with olive-oil! You shall bring it in as mixed dough! You shall offer the baked parts of the grain-offering in small pieces, as a soothing aroma to the LORD! 22 The one from the sons of Aaron who is anointed as priest to succeed him shall prepare it! It shall be the part that permanently belongs to the LORD! It shall be burnt completely! 23 Every grain-offering made by a priest shall be burnt completely! It shall not be eaten!"

Instructions about sin-offerings — Leviticus 4:1-5:13

24 The LORD also told Moses: 25 "Tell Aaron and his sons: 'This is the Law for the sin-offering: The sin-offering shall be slaughtered before the LORD in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered! It is most holy. 26 The priest who makes the sin-offering shall eat it! It shall be eaten in a Holy Place, in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting! 27 Everyone who touches its meat will be holy, and you shall wash any garment that has any of its blood sprinkled on it in a holy place! 28 Any earthenware vessel in which it is cooked shall be broken and, if it is cooked in a bronze vessel, it shall be scoured and washed off with water! 29 Any male among the priests may eat it. It is most holy. 30 However, when any blood of a sin-offering is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place, the sin-offering shall not be eaten! It shall be burnt with fire!

7

Instructions about guilt-offerings — Leviticus 5:14-6:7

1 "This is the Law for the guilt-offering: It is most holy. 2 They shall slaughter the guilt-offering in the place where they slaughter the burnt offering! The priest shall pour its blood out against the altar on all sides! <sup>3</sup> He shall offer all its fat, the fat tail, the fat that covers the inner parts <sup>4</sup> and the two kidneys with the fat on them at the loins! He shall remove the long lobe of the liver in addition to the kidneys! <sup>5</sup> The priest shall burn them on the altar as an offering made to the LORD by fire! It is a guilt-offering. <sup>6</sup> Any male among the priests may eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place! It is most holy.

<sup>7</sup> “The same Law applies to both the sin-offering and the guilt-offering: The priest who makes atonement with each of them shall have it! <sup>8</sup> The priest who offers anyone’s burnt offering shall have the hide of the burnt offering that he has offered! <sup>9</sup> Every grain-offering that is baked in an oven or prepared in a covered pan or on a griddle shall also belong to the priest who offers it! <sup>10</sup> Every grain-offering, whether mixed with olive-oil or dry, shall belong equally to all the sons of Aaron!

Instructions about peace-offerings as thanksgivings — Leviticus 3

<sup>11</sup> “This is the Law for the peace-offerings that a person may offer to the LORD: <sup>12</sup> If he offers it as a sacrifice of thanksgiving, he shall offer, together with the sacrifice of thanksgiving, ring-shaped loaves without yeast and mixed with olive-oil, wafers without yeast and spread with olive-oil and ring-shaped loaves kneaded from fine wheat flour and spread with olive-oil! <sup>13</sup> Together with the ring-shaped loaves he shall offer bread with yeast as his gift, in addition to the sacrifice of his peace-offering for a thanksgiving! <sup>14</sup> Out of every gift he shall present one part as a contribution to the LORD! It shall belong to the priest who pours out the blood of the peace-offering! <sup>15</sup> The meat of the sacrifice of thanksgiving that is anyone’s peace-offering shall be eaten on the day when he offers it! He shall not leave any of it until morning!

Instructions about other peace-offerings

<sup>16</sup> “However, if the sacrifice that anyone gives is the result of a vow or is a free-will offering, it may be eaten on the day when he offers his sacrifice, and what is left over from it may also be eaten on the next day. <sup>17</sup> However, any of the meat of the sacrifice that is left over on the third day shall be burnt up with fire! <sup>18</sup> If any of the meat of the peace-offering is nevertheless eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted. It will not be credited to the person who offers it. It will be sacrificial meat that has become unclean. The person who eats any of it will bring guilt on himself. <sup>19</sup> Meat that touches anything that is ceremonially unclean shall not be eaten! It shall be burnt up with fire! Anyone who is ceremonially clean may eat the meat. <sup>20</sup> However, if anyone eats meat from a peace-offering, which belongs to the LORD, while he is unclean, that person will be cut off from his people. <sup>21</sup> When anyone touches something unclean, whether human uncleanness or an unclean animal or any other unclean, detestable thing and then eats any of the meat of a peace-offering, which belongs to the LORD, that person will be cut off from his people.”

The prohibition of eating fat and blood

<sup>22</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>23</sup> “Tell the Israelites: ‘You shall not eat any fat of cattle, sheep or goats! <sup>24</sup> The fat of the carcass of any animal that dies by itself and the fat of one that is torn by wild animals may be used for any other purpose, but you shall certainly not eat it! <sup>25</sup> Indeed, when anyone eats the fat of an animal, part of which is offered by fire to the LORD, the person who eats it will be cut off from his people. <sup>26</sup> Moreover, you shall not eat the blood of any bird or animal, wherever you live! <sup>27</sup> Any person who eats any blood will be cut off from his people.”

The division of peace-offerings between the people and the priests — Leviticus 10:12-15, Numbers 18:8-20, Deuteronomy 18:1-5

<sup>28</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses: <sup>29</sup> “Tell the Israelites: ‘Anyone who offers a peace-offering to the LORD shall bring a part of his peace-offering as his gift to the LORD! <sup>30</sup> He shall bring with his own hands the offerings made by fire to the LORD! He shall bring the fat, together with the brisket, that he may move the brisket back and forth before the LORD as a wave offering! <sup>31</sup> The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the brisket shall belong to Aaron and his sons! <sup>32</sup> You shall also give the right leg from your peace-offerings as a contribution to the priest! <sup>33</sup> When any of the sons of Aaron offers the blood of the peace-offering and the fat, he shall have the right leg as his portion! <sup>34</sup> For I have taken the brisket of the wave offering and the hind leg that is contributed, out of the peace-offerings of the Israelites and have given them to Aaron, the priest, and to his sons, as what is regularly due them from the Israelites.

<sup>35</sup> “This is the portion that belongs to Aaron and to his sons out of the offerings made by fire to the LORD. It became theirs when Moses presented them to serve the LORD as priests. <sup>36</sup> The LORD commanded that these should be given to them by the Israelites on the day when He anointed them. It shall be regularly due to them throughout their coming generations!”

A summary of the offerings

<sup>37</sup> This is the Law for the burnt offering, for the grain-offering, for the sin-offering, for the guilt-offering, for the offering at an installation and for the peace-offering. <sup>38</sup> The LORD issued Commands about them to Moses on Mount Sinai on the day when He commanded the Israelites to offer their gifts to the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai.

8

The installation of Aaron and his sons as priests — Exodus 29:1-46, Exodus 40:12-15

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Take Aaron and his sons with him, the garments, the anointing oil, the young bull for the sin-offering, the two rams and the basket of bread made without yeast! <sup>3</sup> Gather the whole congregation at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting!”

<sup>4</sup> Moses did as the LORD had commanded him. The congregation gathered at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. <sup>5</sup> Moses told the congregation: “The LORD has commanded that this is what you must do.”

<sup>6</sup> Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons forward and washed them with water. <sup>7</sup> He put the tunic on him, fastened the sash around him, clothed him with the sleeveless robe and put the priestly garment on him. He fastened the priestly garment with a waistband, tying it tightly on him. <sup>8</sup> Then he put the breast-piece on him and put the Urim and Thummim into the breast-piece. <sup>9</sup> Moses put the headband on his head and fastened the golden flower, the holy crown, to the front of the headband, as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>11</sup> Then Moses took the anointing oil, anointed the Tabernacle and everything in it and made them holy.

<sup>11</sup> He used some of the oil to sprinkle the altar seven times and anointed the altar with all its utensils and the basin with its stand, to make them holy. <sup>12</sup> He also poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head and anointed him, to make him holy.

<sup>13</sup> Then Moses brought Aaron’s sons forward and put tunics on them. He fastened sashes around them and tied headbands on them, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>14</sup> Then he brought the young bull forward, which was the sin-offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the young bull for the sin-offering. <sup>15</sup> Moses slaughtered the bull, took the blood and with his finger put it on the horns of the altar on all sides and freed the altar from sin. Then he poured the rest of the blood against the base of the altar and made it holy, to provide atonement for it. <sup>16</sup> Moses also took all the fat that was on the inner parts, the long lobe of the liver and the two kidneys with the fat on them and burned them on the altar. <sup>17</sup> However, Moses burned with fire the rest of the young bull, its hide, meat and the contents of its stomach outside the camp, as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>18</sup> He then brought the ram forward for the burnt offering. Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the ram’s head. <sup>19</sup> Then Moses slaughtered the ram and poured the blood out against the altar on all sides.

<sup>20</sup> Moses cut the ram into its pieces and burned the head, the pieces of meat and the fat. <sup>21</sup> Moses washed the inner parts and the legs with water and burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering and a soothing aroma. It was an offering made to the LORD by fire, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>22</sup> Then Moses brought the second ram forward, the ram for the installation, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the ram’s head. <sup>23</sup> Moses slaughtered the ram, took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron’s right ear, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>24</sup> Then Moses brought Aaron’s sons forward and put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet. Then Moses poured the blood out against the altar on all sides. <sup>25</sup> Then he took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat that was on the inner parts, the long lobe of the liver, the two kidneys with their fat and the right leg. <sup>26</sup> Then he took out of the basket of bread made without yeast, which had been before the LORD, one ring-shaped loaf made without yeast, one ring-shaped loaf of bread made with olive-oil and one wafer and laid them on the fat portions and on the right leg. <sup>27</sup> He laid all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and moved them back and forth as a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>28</sup> Then Moses took them from their hands and burned them on the altar, on top of the burnt offering. They were an installation offering, a soothing aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> Then Moses took the brisket from the ram for the installation and moved it back and forth as a wave offering before the LORD. It belonged to Moses as his portion, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood that was on the altar. He sprinkled them on Aaron and his clothes and on his sons and his sons’ clothes. In this way he made Aaron holy and made his clothes, his sons and his sons’ clothes holy with him.

<sup>31</sup> Then Moses told Aaron and his sons: “Cook the meat at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, that you may eat it there together with the bread in the basket for the installation offering, as I commanded when I said: ‘Aaron and his sons shall eat it!’ <sup>32</sup> You shall burn up any meat or bread that is left over! <sup>33</sup> You shall not leave the entrance to the Tent of Meeting for seven days, until the days of your ordination are completed! For your installation will last for seven days. <sup>34</sup> The LORD commanded me to do today what has been done, to make atonement for you. <sup>35</sup> You shall stay day and night, for seven days, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, that you may keep your obligation to the LORD and that you may not die! For this is what I have been commanded.”

<sup>36</sup> Aaron and his sons did all the things that the LORD had commanded through Moses.

9

The first sacrifices offered by Aaron

<sup>1</sup> On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel. <sup>2</sup> He told Aaron: “Choose a bull calf from the herd as a sin-offering and a ram for a burnt offering! They shall be without blemish! Then present them before the LORD! <sup>3</sup> Then tell the Israelites, ‘Take a male goat for a sin-offering, a calf and a lamb, each a year old and without blemish, for a burnt offering! <sup>4</sup> Take also a bull and a ram for peace-offerings to sacrifice before the LORD, together with a grain-offering mixed with olive-oil! For the LORD will appear to you today.”

<sup>5</sup> They brought what Moses had commanded to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and the whole congregation approached and stood before the LORD. <sup>6</sup> Then Moses said, “This is what the LORD has commanded you to do, that the glory of the LORD may appear to you.”

<sup>7</sup> Moses told Aaron: “Approach the altar and make your sin-offering and your burnt offering, to make atonement for yourself and for the people! Offer the gift of the people also and make atonement for them, as the LORD has commanded!”

<sup>8</sup> Aaron approached the altar and slaughtered the calf as a sin-offering for himself. <sup>9</sup> Aaron’s sons brought the blood to him, dipped his finger in the blood and put it on the horns of the altar. Then he poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. <sup>10</sup> He burned the fat, the kidneys and the long lobe of the liver from the sin-offering on the altar, as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>11</sup> Then he burned up the meat and the hide outside the camp. <sup>12</sup> Then he slaughtered the animal for the burnt offering. Aaron’s sons handed the blood to him, and he poured it out against the altar on all sides. <sup>13</sup> They also brought the burnt offering to him, piece by piece, including the head, and he burned them on the altar. <sup>14</sup> He washed the inner parts and the legs and burned them on top of the burnt offering on the altar.

<sup>15</sup> Then Aaron brought the people’s gift. He took the male goat for the people’s sin-offering, slaughtered it and offered it as a sin-offering, as he had done with the first one. <sup>16</sup> Then he brought forward the burnt offering and dealt with it in the specified manner. <sup>17</sup> Then he brought the grain-offering. He took a handful of it and burned it on the altar in addition to the morning burnt offering.

<sup>18</sup> Then he slaughtered the bull and the ram as the peace-offering for the people. Aaron’s sons handed the blood to him, and he poured it out against the altar on all sides. <sup>19</sup> However, as for the fat portions from the bull and the ram, the fat tail, the fatty layer, the kidneys and the long lobe of the liver, <sup>20</sup> they placed these fat portions on top of the briskets, and he burned the fat portions on the altar. <sup>21</sup> Aaron had moved the briskets and the right leg back and forth before the LORD as a wave offering, as Moses had commanded.

<sup>22</sup> Then Aaron raised his hands toward the people and blessed them. After he had dealt with the sin-offering, the burnt offering and the peace-offering, he came down. <sup>23</sup> Then Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of Meeting. When they came out, they blessed the people, and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people. <sup>24</sup> Fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat portions on the altar. When all the people saw it, they shouted with joy and fell face-down.

10

The death of two of Aaron’s sons, Nadab and Abihu, for improper priestly conduct

<sup>1</sup> Aaron’s sons Nadab and Abihu each took his fire pan, put fire in it, laid incense on it and brought unauthorised fire before the LORD, which He had commanded them not to bring. <sup>2</sup> A fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD. <sup>3</sup> Moses told Aaron: “This is what the LORD has said: ‘I must be treated as holy by those who come near Me. All the people must regard Me with honour!’”

Aaron stood motionless. <sup>4</sup> Then Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Aaron’s uncle Uzziel. He told them, “Come here and carry your cousins outside the camp, away from the front of the Holy Place!”

<sup>5</sup> They came near and carried them outside the camp by their tunics, as Moses had told them. <sup>6</sup> Then Moses told Aaron and his sons, Eleazar and Ithamar: “Do not let your hair hang loose! You shall not tear your clothes to pieces, that you may not die and that God may not be angry with the whole congregation! However, your relatives, the whole house of Israel, may mourn because of the fire that the LORD has sent. <sup>7</sup> You shall not go outside the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, that you may not die, because the anointing oil of the LORD is on you.”

So, they did as Moses had told them.

Instructions about proper conduct for priests

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD told Aaron, <sup>9</sup> “You and your sons must not drink any wine or other intoxicating drink when you go into the Tent of Meeting, that you may not die! This is a lasting ordinance for your coming generations. <sup>10</sup> You must distinguish between what is holy and what is profane and between what is unclean and what is clean! <sup>11</sup> You must also teach the Israelites all the Prescriptions that the LORD has told them through Moses!”

<sup>12</sup> Moses told Aaron and his surviving sons, Eleazar and Ithamar: “Take the grain-offering that has been left over from the offerings made by fire to the LORD and eat it without yeast beside the altar! For it is most holy. <sup>13</sup> You shall eat it in a holy place! For it is your proper portion and the proper portion of your sons, out of the offerings made by fire to the LORD. For this is what I have been commanded. <sup>14</sup> You, together with your sons and your daughters, shall also eat the brisket of the wave offering and the hind leg of the wave offering in a clean place! For they have been given as your proper portion and the proper portion of your children out of the peace-offerings of the Israelites.

<sup>15</sup> They shall bring the hind leg of the wave offering and the brisket of the wave offering, together with the fat portions of the offerings made by fire and move them back and forth as a wave offering before the LORD! These shall continue to be the proper portion that belongs to you and to your children, as the LORD has commanded!”

The sin-offering by Eleazar and Ithamar

<sup>16</sup> Then Moses searched carefully for the male goat of the sin-offering and found that it had already been burnt. He became angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s remaining sons, and asked: <sup>17</sup> “Why have you failed to eat the sin-offering in the Holy Place? For it is most holy, and God has given it to you to take away the guilt of the congregation by making atonement for them before the LORD. <sup>18</sup> Look! Its blood was not brought inside the Holy Place. You certainly should have eaten the sin-offering in the Holy Place, as I had commanded.”

<sup>19</sup> However, Aaron answered Moses: “Look! Today they presented their sin-offering and their burnt offering before the LORD, although such things have happened to me! If I had eaten a sin-offering today, would that have been pleasing to the LORD?”

<sup>20</sup> When Moses heard that, he approved.

11

Instructions about clean and unclean kinds of food— Deuteronomy 14:3-20

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron and told them, <sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites: ‘Out of all the animals that are on the earth, these are the animals that you may eat: <sup>3</sup> You may eat any animal that has a divided or split hoof and that also chews the cud. <sup>4</sup> Nevertheless, you shall not eat any of those that only chew the cud or only have a divided hoof! You shall not eat the camel, because, although it chews the cud, it does not have a divided hoof! It is ceremonially unclean for you. <sup>5</sup> You shall not eat the coney! For, although it chews the cud, it does not have a divided hoof! It is unclean for you. <sup>6</sup> You shall not eat the hare! For, although it chews the cud, it does not have a divided hoof. It is unclean for you. <sup>7</sup> You shall not eat the pig! For, although it has a divided or cloven hoof, it does not chew the cud. It is unclean for you. <sup>8</sup> You shall not eat any meat from them our touch their dead bodies! They are unclean for you.

<sup>9</sup> “Of all the creatures in the water you may eat anything in the water of the seas and of the streams if they have fins and scales. <sup>10</sup> However, you shall consider disgusting any creatures in the seas and the streams that do not have fins or scales, both any things that move in shoals and any other living creatures that are in the water! <sup>11</sup> You shall consider them disgusting! You shall not eat meat from them and you shall detest their dead bodies! <sup>12</sup> You shall consider anything in the water that does not have fins or scales disgusting!

<sup>13</sup> “These are ones from the flying creatures that you shall consider disgusting! You shall not eat them! They shall be detestable! They are the eagle, the great bearded vulture, the black vulture, <sup>14</sup> the kite, any kind of black kite, <sup>15</sup> any kind of crow, <sup>16</sup> the horned owl, the screech owl, the seagull, any kind of falcon, <sup>17</sup> the little owl, the cormorant, the ibis, <sup>18</sup> the barn owl, the jackdaw, the carrion vulture, <sup>19</sup> the stork, any kind of plover, the hoopoe and the bat.

<sup>20</sup> “You shall consider disgusting all swarming creatures that have wings and crawl on four feet!

<sup>21</sup> However, of all the swarming things that have wings, you may eat those that have jointed lower legs above their feet with which they hop over the ground.

<sup>22</sup> Of these you may eat any kind of locust, any kind of consuming locust, any kind of grasshopper and any kind of non-flying locust. <sup>23</sup> However, you shall consider disgusting all other swarming things that have wings and four feet!

Instructions about unclean animals

<sup>24</sup> “These will make you unclean. Anyone who touches their dead bodies will be unclean until the evening. <sup>25</sup> Anyone who carries any of their dead bodies shall wash his clothes! He will be unclean until the evening. <sup>26</sup> The dead bodies of all animals that have divided hoofs without being completely cloven and that do not chew the cud are unclean for you. Anyone who touches them will be unclean. <sup>27</sup> Among all the animals that walk on four legs, all those that walk on their paws are unclean for you. Anyone who touches their dead bodies will be unclean until the evening. <sup>28</sup> Anyone who carries their dead bodies shall wash his clothes! Then he will be unclean until the evening. They are unclean for you.

<sup>29</sup> “The following tiny creatures that occur in large numbers on the ground are unclean for you: the mole, the small rodent and every kind of lizard, <sup>30</sup> the gecko, the monitor lizard, the wall lizard, the skink and the chameleon. <sup>31</sup> Among all the small crawling creatures these are unclean for you. Anyone who touches them when they are dead will be unclean until the evening. <sup>32</sup> When one of them dies and falls on any article, that article, with which any work is done, will be unclean, whether it is made of wood, is an article of clothing, is made of leather or is made of sackcloth. It shall be put in water. It will be unclean until the evening and then be clean. <sup>33</sup> When any of them falls inside any clay pot, everything in the pot will be unclean. You shall break the pot. <sup>34</sup> If water from any such pot comes on any food that could be eaten, the food will be unclean, and any liquid that could be drunk from any pot like that will be unclean. <sup>35</sup> Anything on which any of their dead bodies falls will be unclean. An oven or a small stove shall be broken up! They are unclean and shall remain unclean for you! <sup>36</sup> Although a spring or a cistern for collecting water shall remain clean, anyone who touches a dead body in them will be unclean. <sup>37</sup> If any of their dead bodies falls on any seed that is to be sown, the seed remains clean. <sup>38</sup> However, if water is put on the seed and any of their dead bodies falls on it, it will be unclean for you.

<sup>39</sup> “When any animal that you are allowed to eat dies, anyone who touches its dead body will be unclean until the evening. <sup>40</sup> Anyone who eats any of its dead body shall wash his clothes! He will be unclean until the evening. Anyone who carries its dead body shall wash his clothes! He will be unclean until the evening.

<sup>41</sup> “You shall consider disgusting any small animal that crawls on the ground! It shall not be eaten!

<sup>42</sup> You shall not eat any creature that crawls on its belly or on four legs, any creature with many legs or any other small creature that crawls on the ground! For they are detestable. <sup>43</sup> You shall not make yourselves detestable by any creature that crawls on the ground! You shall not make yourselves unclean by them or defile yourselves with them!

<sup>44</sup> “For I am the LORD, your God. You shall behave as people who have been made holy and you shall be holy! For I am holy. You shall not make yourselves unclean by means of any creature that moves about and crawls on the ground! <sup>45</sup> For I am the LORD and have brought you up out of the land of Egypt to be your God. You shall be holy! For I am holy.”

<sup>46</sup> This is the Law about animals, flying creatures and every living thing that moves in the water and every small living creature that moves about on the ground, <sup>47</sup> that you may distinguish between what is unclean and what is clean and between the living creatures that may be eaten and those that shall not be eaten.

12

Instruction for the cleansing of women after childbirth — Luke 2:22-24

<sup>1</sup> The LORD instructed Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites: ‘When a woman becomes pregnant and gives birth to a male child, she will be unclean for seven days, the same number of days as she is unclean during her menstruation. <sup>3</sup> On the eighth day the boy shall have the flesh of his foreskin circumcised! <sup>4</sup> Then the woman shall wait for thirty-three days to be ceremonially purified from her bleeding! She shall not touch anything holy or go to the Holy Place until the days of her purification are over! <sup>5</sup> If the woman gives birth to a female child, she will be unclean for two weeks, as during her menstruation. Then she shall wait for sixty-six days to be purified from her bleeding!

<sup>6</sup> “When the days of her purification for a son or a daughter are completed, she shall bring a one-year-old lamb to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or a turtledove for a sin-offering! <sup>7</sup> The priest shall offer it before the LORD and make atonement for her! Then she will be ceremonially clean from her flow of blood. This is the Law for the woman who gives birth to a boy or a girl. <sup>8</sup> If she cannot afford a lamb, she shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin-offering! In this way the priest shall make atonement for her! Then she will be clean.”

13

Instructions about infectious skin-diseases

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses and Aaron: <sup>2</sup> “When any person has a swelling, a rash or a white patch on the skin of his body, and it begins to look like infectious skin-disease in his body, he shall be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons, who are the priests!

<sup>3</sup> The priest shall examine the sore on the skin of his body! If the hair in the sore has turned white, and the sore appears to have gone deeper than the rest of the skin of his body, it is an infectious skin-disease. The priest shall examine him and declare him ceremonially unclean! <sup>4</sup> If the bright spot on his skin is white but does not appear to have gone deeper than the rest of the skin and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest shall isolate the person who has the sore for seven days! <sup>5</sup> On the seventh day the priest shall examine him! If indeed the sore appears to him not to have changed and the sore has not spread in the skin, the priest shall isolate him for another seven days!

<sup>6</sup> On the seventh day the priest shall examine him again, and, if the spot has faded, and the sore has not spread in the skin, the priest shall declare him clean! It is a harmless skin-eruption. The person shall wash his clothes! Then he will be clean. <sup>7</sup> However, if the skin-eruption has indeed spread in the skin after the person has shown himself to the priest to determine his cultic purity, he shall appear again before the priest! <sup>8</sup> The priest shall examine him, and, if the skin-eruption has indeed spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean! It is an infectious skin-disease.

<sup>9</sup> “When any person has an infectious skin-disease, he shall be brought to the priest! <sup>10</sup> The priest shall examine him! If there indeed is a white swelling in the skin that has turned the hair white, and, if raw flesh has emerged in the swelling, <sup>11</sup> it is a chronic infectious skin-disease in the skin of his body. The priest shall declare him unclean! He shall not shut him up! For he is unclean. <sup>12</sup> If the infectious skin-disease breaks out all over the skin and covers the whole skin of the diseased person from his head to his foot, wherever the priest looks, <sup>13</sup> the priest shall examine him! If an infectious skin-disease has covered his whole body, he shall declare the person who had been infected clean! Since it has all turned white, he is clean. <sup>14</sup> However, when raw flesh appears on him, he will be unclean. <sup>15</sup> The priest shall examine the raw flesh and declare him unclean! Raw flesh is unclean. It is an infectious skin-disease. <sup>16</sup> Nevertheless, if the raw flesh recovers and turns white, he shall come to the priest! <sup>17</sup> The priest shall examine him and, if the sore spot has indeed turned white, the priest shall declare the person who had been diseased clean! He is clean.

<sup>18</sup> “When someone’s body has a boil on the skin, and it has healed, <sup>19</sup> and a white swelling or a reddish-white spot appears where the boil had been, it shall be shown to the priest! <sup>20</sup> The priest shall examine it, and, if it looks deeper than the rest of the skin and its hair has turned white, the priest shall declare him un-

clean! It is an infectious skin-disease, which has broken out where the boil had been. <sup>21</sup> However, if, when the priest examines it, there is indeed no white hair on it and it is not deeper than the rest of the skin and has faded, the priest shall isolate him for seven days! <sup>22</sup> If it has indeed spread in the skin, the priest shall declare him unclean! It is a skin-disease. <sup>23</sup> However, if the bright spot stays where it has been and has not spread, it is a scar from the boil. The priest shall declare him clean.

<sup>24</sup> “Moreover, when fire leaves a burn in the skin of anyone’s body and a reddish-white or a white spot emerges from raw flesh of the burn, <sup>25</sup> the priest shall examine it and, if the hair on the bright spot has indeed turned white and looks deeper than the rest of the skin, it is a skin-disease. It has broken out in the burn. The priest shall declare him unclean! It is an infectious skin-disease. <sup>26</sup> However, if, when the priest examines it, there is indeed no white hair on the bright spot, if it is not deeper than the rest of the skin, and, if it has faded, the priest shall isolate him for seven days! <sup>27</sup> On the seventh day the priest shall examine him! If it is indeed spreading in the skin, the priest shall declare him unclean! It is an infectious skin-disease. <sup>28</sup> However, if the bright spot stays where it has been and has not spread in the skin but has faded, it is only a swelling caused by the burn. The priest shall declare him clean! For it is a scar from the burn.

<sup>29</sup> “When a man or a woman has a sore on the head or on the cheeks and chin, <sup>30</sup> the priest shall examine the sore! If it indeed appears to be deeper than the rest of the skin and there is gleaming-red thin hair on it, the priest shall declare the person unclean! It is an itch, an infectious skin-disease on the head or on the cheeks and chin. <sup>31</sup> However, if, when the priest examines the itching sore in the skin, it does not indeed appear to be any deeper than the rest of the skin and there is no black hair on it, the priest shall isolate the person infected with the itching sore for seven days! <sup>32</sup> The priest shall examine the infected spot on the seventh day! If the itch has not in fact been spreading, no gleaming-red hair has come on it and the itching spot does not appear to be deeper than the rest of the skin, <sup>33</sup> the person shall shave himself but shall not shave the itching spot! The priest shall isolate the person with the itching spot for another seven days! <sup>34</sup> On the seventh day the priest shall examine the itching spot and, if the itching spot has not indeed spread on the skin and does not appear to be deeper than the rest of the skin, the priest shall declare him clean! He shall wash his clothes! Then he will be clean. <sup>35</sup> However, if the itching spot does indeed spread in the skin after the person has been declared clean, <sup>36</sup> the priest shall examine him! If the itching spot has indeed spread on the skin, the priest shall not investigate carefully whether there is gleaming-red hair! The person is unclean. <sup>37</sup> However, if he considers that the itching spot has not changed and that black hair has been growing on it, the itch has healed. He is clean. The priest shall declare him clean!

<sup>38</sup> “When a man or a woman has bright spots on the skin of the body, that is, bright-white spots, <sup>39</sup> the priest shall examine them! If the bright spots on the skin of the body are indeed dull white, a harmless rash has broken out on the skin. That person is clean.

<sup>40</sup> “When a man loses the hair on the back of his head, he is bald but is clean. <sup>41</sup> If he loses his hair on the front of his scalp, he has become bald on the forehead but is clean. <sup>42</sup> However, when there is a reddish-white sore on the bald spot on the head or on the forehead, it is an infectious skin-disease breaking out on his bald head or on his bald forehead. <sup>43</sup> The priest shall examine him! If the swollen sore on his bald head or on his bald forehead is indeed reddish-white and looks like an infectious disease in the skin elsewhere on the body, <sup>44</sup> the man is suffering from a skin-disease. He is unclean. The priest shall certainly declare him unclean! He has the disease on his head.

<sup>45</sup> “Anyone who is suffering from the sore of an infectious skin-disease shall wear his clothes torn and let the hair on his head hang loose! He shall cover his upper lip and shall call out, ‘Unclean, unclean!’ <sup>46</sup> He shall remain unclean while he has the infection! He is unclean. He shall live alone! His dwelling shall be outside the camp!”

Instructions about fungus on clothing or leather articles

<sup>47</sup> “When there is an infectious fungus on any woollen garment or linen garment, <sup>48</sup> whether it is in woven material or knitted material from linen or wool or in leather or in anything made of leather, <sup>49</sup> if the contamination is greenish or reddish in the garment, in the leather, in the woven material, in the knitted material or in any leather article, it is an infectious fungus and shall be shown to the priest! <sup>50</sup> The priest shall examine the fungus and isolate the infected article for seven days! <sup>51</sup> He shall examine the infected article on the seventh day! When the infection has spread in the woven or knitted garment, in the leather or in anything made of leather for any purpose, the infection is a malignant fungus. The article is unclean. <sup>52</sup> He shall burn the garment, the woven material, the knitted material, of wool or linen or any leather article that has the infection on it! For it is a malignant fungus. The article shall be burnt up! <sup>53</sup> However, if, when the priest examines it and sees that the spot has not spread in the woven or knitted garment or in any leather article, <sup>54</sup> the priest shall order that the contaminated article shall be washed! Then he shall isolate it for seven more days! <sup>55</sup> The priest shall examine the contamination after the article has been washed! If, although the discoloration has not spread, it has not changed its appearance, it is unclean. You shall burn it up! It is eaten away, whether the fungus is on its outer side or on its inner side. <sup>56</sup> If, when the priest examines it, he sees that the fungus has faded after the article has been washed, he shall tear the contaminated part out of the clothing or out of the leather or out of the woven or knitted material! <sup>57</sup> If the discoloration reappears in the woven or knitted garment or in any leather article, the fungus is spreading. You shall burn up whatever has the contamination on it! <sup>58</sup> However, if the fungus disappears from the clothing or the woven or the knitted material or from any leather article when you have washed it, it shall be washed a second time! Then it will be clean.”

<sup>59</sup> This is the Law concerning contamination by a fungus on woollen or linen clothing, on woven or knitted material or on any leather article, to declare whether it is clean or unclean.

14

Regulations for cleansing a person infected with a skin-disease — Matthew 8:1-4, Luke 5:12-14

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “This shall be the Law for the person who is infected with a skin-disease at the time of his ceremonial cleansing! He shall be brought to the priest! <sup>3</sup> The priest shall go outside the camp! The priest shall examine him! If the person who had the infectious skin-disease has indeed been healed of it, <sup>4</sup> the priest shall order someone to get two living clean birds, some cedar-wood, crimson material and hyssop for the person who is about to be cleansed! <sup>5</sup> Then the priest shall order someone to kill the one bird over fresh water in a clay pot! <sup>6</sup> He shall take the living bird, with the cedar-wood, the crimson material and the hyssop and dip them, together with the living bird, in the blood of the bird that that has been killed over the fresh water! <sup>7</sup> Then he shall sprinkle it seven times on the person who is about to be cleansed of the infectious skin-disease! He shall declare the person clean and release the living bird in the open field! <sup>8</sup> The person who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, shave off all his hair and wash himself in water! Then he is ceremonially clean. After that he may come into the camp. However, he shall live outside his tent for seven days! <sup>9</sup> On the seventh day he shall shave off all the hair on his head, his beard and his eyebrows and shave off all the rest of his hair! He shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water! Then he will be clean.

<sup>10</sup> “On the eighth day he shall take two male lambs without blemish and one female lamb one year old without blemish, twelve litres of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil as a grain-offering and a third of a litre of olive-oil! <sup>11</sup> The priest who is declaring the person ceremonially clean shall station the man who is purifying himself together with his offerings before the LORD at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting! <sup>12</sup> The priest shall take the one male lamb and offer it as a guilt-offering with the one third of a litre of olive-oil and shall move them back and forth as a wave offering before the LORD! <sup>13</sup> He shall slaughter the

lamb where he slaughters the sin-offering and the burnt offering in the Holy Place, because the guilt-offering, like the sin-offering, belongs to the priest! It is most holy. <sup>14</sup> The priest shall take some of the blood of the guilt-offering! The priest shall put it on the lobe of the right ear of the person who is purifying himself, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot! <sup>15</sup> Then the priest shall take some of the one third of a litre of olive-oil and the priest shall pour it into the palm of his own left hand! <sup>16</sup> The priest shall dip his right finger in the olive-oil in his left hand and with his finger he shall sprinkle some of the oil seven times before the LORD! <sup>17</sup> The priest shall put some of the rest of the olive-oil that is in his hand on the lobe of the right ear of the person who is purifying himself, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot, on top of the blood of the guilt-offering! <sup>18</sup> The priest shall put the rest of the olive-oil that is in his hand on the head of the person who is purifying himself! Then the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD! <sup>19</sup> The priest shall make the sin-offering to make atonement for the person who is purifying himself from his ceremonial uncleanness and after that he shall slaughter the burnt offering! <sup>20</sup> The priest shall offer the burnt offering together with the grain-offering on the altar! So, the priest shall make atonement for him! Then he will be clean.

Instructions about the cleansing of a poor person after a skin-disease

<sup>21</sup> “However, if the person is poor and cannot afford so much, he shall take one lamb as a guilt-offering to be moved back and forth, to make atonement for him! He shall bring only four litres of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil as a grain-offering, three hundred and thirty millilitres of olive-oil, <sup>22</sup> and two turtle-doves or two young pigeons, whichever he can afford! The one shall be a sin-offering, and the other a burnt offering! <sup>23</sup> On the eighth day he shall bring them to the priest for his cleansing, to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before the LORD! <sup>24</sup> The priest shall take the lamb for the guilt-offering, together with three hundred and thirty millilitres of olive-oil and the priest shall move them back and forth before the LORD as a wave offering! <sup>25</sup> The priest shall slaughter the lamb for the guilt-offering! He shall take some of the blood of the guilt-offering and shall put it on the lobe of the right ear of the person who is purifying himself, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot! <sup>26</sup> The priest shall pour some of the olive-oil into the palm of his own left hand! <sup>27</sup> Then the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the olive-oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD! <sup>28</sup> The priest shall put some of the olive-oil that is in his hand on the lobe of the right ear of the person who is purifying himself, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot, on the same places as he had put the blood of the guilt-offering! <sup>29</sup> The priest shall pour the rest of the olive-oil that is in his hand on the head of the person who is purifying himself to make atonement for him before the LORD! <sup>30</sup> Then he shall prepare one of the turtle-doves or the young pigeons, whichever the person can afford! <sup>31</sup> He shall offer the one, such as the person can afford, as a sin-offering and the other as a burnt offering together with the grain-offering! So, the priest shall make atonement for the person who is purifying himself before the LORD!”

<sup>32</sup> This is the Law for a person who has had an infectious skin-disease and who cannot afford the usual offering for his cleansing.

Regulations for the cleansing of a spreading mildew in houses

<sup>33</sup> The LORD told Moses and Aaron: <sup>34</sup> “When you enter the land of Canaan, which I am giving you to own, and I put a spreading mildew in a house in the land that you own, <sup>35</sup> the owner of that house shall come and tell the priest, ‘There is something that looks to me like mildew in my house!’

<sup>36</sup> “Then the priest shall order the people to take everything out of the house before the priest goes in to examine the mildew, that he may not declare everything in the house unclean! After that, the priest shall go in to inspect the house! <sup>37</sup> He shall examine the mildew! If the mildew in the walls of the house has greenish or reddish depressions that appear to be deeper than the surface of the wall, <sup>38</sup> the priest shall come out of the doorway of that house and close the house up for seven days! <sup>39</sup> On the seventh day the priest shall go back and inspect it! If the mildew has indeed spread in the walls of the house, <sup>40</sup> the priest shall order people to pull out the stones that have the mildew on them, and they shall throw them into an unclean place outside the city! <sup>41</sup> He shall have the inside of the house scraped off all around, and people shall dump the dust that they have scraped-off in an unclean place outside the city! <sup>42</sup> They shall fetch fresh stones to replace the other stones and fetch fresh clay to plaster the house! <sup>43</sup> If the mildew breaks out in the house again after they have pulled out the stones and after they have scraped and plastered the house, <sup>44</sup> the priest shall come and examine it! If the mildew has indeed spread in the house, there is a malignant mildew in the house. It is unclean. <sup>45</sup> They shall tear down the house, its stones, its timbers and all the plaster in the house and carry them to an unclean place outside the city! <sup>46</sup> Anyone who goes into the house at any time after the priest has closed it up will be ceremonially unclean until the evening. <sup>47</sup> Anyone who lies down in the house shall wash his clothes, and anyone who eats in the house shall wash his clothes! <sup>48</sup> However, if the priest comes and examines it, and the mildew has not indeed spread in the house after the house has been plastered, the priest shall declare the house ceremonially clean! For the mildew has been cured.

<sup>49</sup> “To purify the house from its defect, he shall take two birds, cedar-wood, crimson material and hyssop! <sup>50</sup> He shall kill the one bird over fresh water in a clay pot! <sup>51</sup> He shall take the cedar-wood, the hyssop, the crimson material and the living bird and dip them in the blood of the bird that has been killed and in the fresh water and sprinkle the house seven times! <sup>52</sup> He shall purify the house with the bird’s blood and the fresh water, with the living bird, the cedar-wood, the hyssop and the crimson material! <sup>53</sup> Then he shall release the living bird in the open fields outside the city! So, he shall make atonement for the house! Then it will be clean.”

<sup>54</sup> This is the Law for any kind of infectious skin-disease, for an itch, <sup>55</sup> for mildew in clothing or in a house, <sup>56</sup> for a swelling, for a rash and for a white patch, <sup>57</sup> to show when it is unclean and when it is clean. This is the Law for infectious skin-diseases and mildew.

15

Regulations about bodily discharges from men

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses and Aaron: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘When any man has a mucous discharge from his penis, his discharge is unclean. <sup>3</sup> This shall be the manner in which he becomes unclean because of his discharge: whether his body continues to let his discharge flow or whether he keeps his member blocked up, it makes him unclean! <sup>4</sup> Any bed on which anyone with a discharge lies will be unclean, and anything on which he sits will be unclean. <sup>5</sup> Anyone who touches his bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water! He will be unclean until the evening. <sup>6</sup> Anyone who sits on anything on which a person with the discharge was sitting shall wash his clothes and bathe in water! He will be unclean until the evening. <sup>7</sup> Anyone who touches the body of anyone with the discharge shall wash his clothes and bathe in water! He will be unclean until the evening. <sup>8</sup> When a person with the discharge spits on anyone who is clean, that person shall wash his clothes and bathe in water! He will be unclean until the evening. <sup>9</sup> Any saddle on which a person with the discharge rides will be unclean. <sup>10</sup> Anyone who touches anything that was under him will be unclean until the evening. Anyone who carries such things shall wash his clothes and bathe in water! He will be unclean until the evening. <sup>11</sup> Anyone whom a person with the discharge touches and has not washed his hands off in water, shall wash his clothes and bathe in water! He will be unclean until the evening. <sup>12</sup> Any pottery that a person with the discharge touches shall be broken, and any wooden container shall be washed off with water!

<sup>13</sup> “When a person with the discharge is being cleansed from it, he shall count off seven days for his cleansing, wash his clothes and bathe his body in running water! Then he will be clean. <sup>14</sup> On the eighth day he shall get two turtledoves or two young pigeons for himself, come before the LORD at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and give them to the priest!

<sup>15</sup> The priest shall prepare them, the one for a sin-offering and the other for a burnt offering! So, the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD because of his discharge!

<sup>16</sup> “When a man has an emission of semen, he shall bathe his whole body in water! He will be unclean until the evening. <sup>17</sup> Any garment and any leather that has an emission of semen on it shall be washed in water! It will be unclean until the evening. <sup>18</sup> When a man has sexual relations with a woman and has an emission of semen, they shall bathe in water! They will be unclean until the evening.

Regulations about bodily discharges from women

<sup>19</sup> “When a woman has her regular flow of blood, the discharge from her body in her menstruation lasts for seven days, and anyone who touches her will be unclean until the evening. <sup>20</sup> Anything on which she lies during her menstruation will be unclean, and anything on which she sits will be unclean. <sup>21</sup> Anyone who touches her bed shall wash his clothes and bathe in water! He will be unclean until the evening. <sup>22</sup> Anyone who touches anything on which she sits shall wash his clothes and bathe in water! He will be unclean until the evening. <sup>23</sup> If anything is on the bed or on anything on which she sits, anyone who touches it will be unclean until the evening. <sup>24</sup> If a man has sexual relations with her, and her menstrual flow comes on him, he will be unclean for seven days, and any bed on which he lies will be unclean.

<sup>25</sup> “When a woman has a discharge of blood for many days at some other time than her menstruation or when she has a discharge that continues beyond her period, she will be unclean while she has the discharge. She will be unclean as at the time of her regular menstruation. <sup>26</sup> Any bed on which she lies while her discharge continues will be unclean, like her bed during her menstruation, and anything on which she sits will be unclean, as during her menstruation. <sup>27</sup> Whoever touches those things will be unclean. He shall wash his clothes and bathe with water! He will be unclean until the evening.

<sup>28</sup> “If she is clear of her discharge, she shall count off seven days for herself! After that she will be ceremonially clean. <sup>29</sup> On the eighth day she shall get two turtledoves or two young pigeons for herself and bring them to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting! <sup>30</sup> The priest shall prepare the one as a sin-offering and the other as a burnt offering! In this way the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD because of the discharge that had made her unclean!

<sup>31</sup> “You shall keep the Israelites separate from what makes them unclean, that they may not die in their uncleanness because they defile My Tabernacle, which is among them!”

<sup>32</sup> This is the Law for the man who has a discharge or an emission of semen to make him unclean, <sup>33</sup> for a woman who is menstruating, for a man or a woman who has a discharge and for a man who has sexual intercourse with a woman who is ceremonially unclean.

16

Regulations for the Day of Atonement — compare Leviticus 23:26-32, Numbers 29:7-11

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, who died when they came into the presence of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> The LORD instructed Moses: “Tell your brother Aaron not to come at just any time into the Holy Place inside the curtain in front of the propitiatory cover, which is on the Ark, that he may not die! For I appear in the cloud over the propitiatory cover. <sup>3</sup> Aaron shall use a young bull as a sin-offering and a ram as a burnt offering to come into the holy place in the following way! <sup>4</sup> He shall put on the holy linen tunic and wear the linen breeches on his body! He shall tie the linen sash around him and wrap on the linen headband! These are holy garments. He shall bathe his body in water before he puts them on! <sup>5</sup> He shall take two male goats from the congregation of Israel as a sin-offering and one ram as a burnt offering!

<sup>6</sup> “Aaron shall offer the young bull as the sin-offering for himself and make atonement for himself and for his family! <sup>7</sup> He shall take the two goats and place them before the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting! <sup>8</sup> Then Aaron shall cast lots for the two male goats, one lot for the LORD and the other lot for a scapegoat! <sup>9</sup> Aaron shall bring forward the goat on which the lot for the LORD has fallen and prepare it as a sin-offering! <sup>10</sup> However, the goat on which the lot has fallen to be the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the LORD, that atonement may be made over it and that it may be released into the wilderness as the scapegoat!

<sup>11</sup> “Aaron shall bring forward the young bull for his own sin-offering, make atonement for himself and his family and slaughter the young bull as his own sin-offering! <sup>12</sup> He shall take a pan full of burning coals from the altar before the LORD and two handfuls of finely ground fragrant perfumes and take them up to the curtain! <sup>13</sup> He shall put the incense on the fire before the LORD, that the cloud of incense may cover the propitiatory cover, which is over the Testimony, that he may not die! <sup>14</sup> He shall take some of the young bull’s blood and with his finger sprinkle it on the eastern side in front of the propitiatory cover! Then he shall with his finger sprinkle some of the blood seven times in front of the propitiatory cover!

<sup>15</sup> “He shall slaughter the goat for the sin-offering that is for the people! He shall bring its blood inside the curtain and do with its blood as he has done with the blood of the young bull! He shall sprinkle it on the propitiatory cover and in front of the propitiatory cover! <sup>16</sup> He shall make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of the Israelites and because of their rebellious acts, that is, for all their other sins! He shall do the same for the Tent of Meeting, which remains among the people, in the middle of their forms of uncleanness! <sup>17</sup> No other person shall be in the Tent of Meeting when he goes into the Holy Place to make atonement until he comes out, that he may make atonement for himself, for his family and for the whole assembly of Israel! <sup>18</sup> Then he shall go out to the altar, which is before the LORD, and make atonement for it! He shall take some of the young bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and shall put it on the horns of the altar on all sides! <sup>19</sup> He shall use his finger to sprinkle some of the blood on it seven times, that he may cleanse it and make it holy from the forms of uncleanness of the Israelites!

<sup>20</sup> "After he has finished making atonement for the Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting and the altar, he shall bring forward the living goat! <sup>21</sup> Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the living goat! He shall confess over it all the offences of the Israelites, all their transgressions and all their other sins and shall put them on the head of the goat! Then he shall use a man, standing beside him, to release it into the wilderness! <sup>22</sup> The goat will carry all their offences on itself away to unfertile land. The man shall release the goat in the wilderness!

<sup>23</sup> "Then Aaron shall go into the Tent of Meeting, take off the linen clothes that he had put on when he went into the Holy Place and leave them there! <sup>24</sup> He shall bathe his body in water in a holy place and put on his other clothes! Then he shall come out and make the burnt offering for himself and the burnt offering for the people, that he may make atonement for himself and for the people! <sup>25</sup> He shall also burn the fat of the sin-offering on the altar! <sup>26</sup> The man who releases the scapegoat shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water! After that, he may come into the camp. <sup>27</sup> He shall take outside the camp the young bull for the sin-offering and the goat for the sin-offering, whose blood has been brought into the Holy Place to make atonement! Their hides, their meat and the contents of their stomachs shall be burnt up! <sup>28</sup> The man who burns them shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water! After that he may come into the camp.

<sup>29</sup> "This shall be a permanent Statute for you: On the tenth day of the seventh month you shall humble yourselves by fasting! You shall not do any work, neither the native Israelite nor the foreigner who is living among you! <sup>30</sup> For on this day the priest shall make atonement for you to make you clean! You will be clean before the LORD from all your sins. <sup>31</sup> It shall be a most solemn Sabbath for you! You shall humble yourselves by fasting! It is a permanent Statute.

<sup>32</sup> The priest who is anointed and installed to serve as a priest in his father's place shall make the atonement! He shall put on the linen clothes, the holy garments, <sup>33</sup> and make atonement for the Most Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting and the altar! He shall also make atonement for the priests and make atonement for all the people of the assembly!

<sup>34</sup> "This shall be a permanent Statute for you, to make atonement for the Israelites once each year because of all their sins!"

Aaron did what the LORD had commanded Moses.

17

Regulations about the slaughter of animals and about the eating of sacrifices at the Tabernacle

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> "Speak to Aaron, his sons and all the Israelites and tell them: 'This is what the LORD has commanded: <sup>3</sup> Any man belonging to the family of Israel who butchers a bull, a young ram or a goat inside the camp or butchers it outside the camp <sup>4</sup> and has not brought it to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting to present it as a gift to the LORD before the sanctuary of the LORD, that man will be considered guilty of bloodshed. He has poured out blood. That man will be cut off from his people. <sup>5</sup> The purpose is that the Israelites shall bring their sacrifices, which they have been making in the open field, to the LORD instead. They shall bring them to the priest at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and offer them as their peace-offerings to the LORD! <sup>6</sup> The priest shall pour out the blood against the altar of the LORD at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting and burn the fat for a soothing aroma to the LORD! <sup>7</sup> They shall no longer offer their sacrifices to evil spirits, after whom they used to run wantonly! This shall be a permanent Statute for them throughout their coming generations!'

<sup>8</sup> "You shall also tell them: 'If any man belonging to the family of Israel or any stranger who lives among them offers a burnt offering or any other sacrifice <sup>9</sup> but does not bring it to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting to offer it to the LORD, that man will be cut off from his people.'

The prohibition of the consumption of blood

<sup>10</sup> "If any man belonging to the family of Israel or any stranger who lives among them eats any blood, I shall set My face against the person who eats the blood and cut him off from his people. <sup>11</sup> For the life of the body is in the blood, and I have given it to you to make atonement for your lives on the altar. For it is the blood that makes atonement by means of the life. <sup>12</sup> That is why I have told the Israelites: "No person among you shall eat blood, and the stranger who lives among you shall also not eat blood!

<sup>13</sup> "If any man belonging to the family of Israel or any stranger who lives among you hunts as game an animal or a bird that may be eaten, he shall drain out its blood and cover it with soil! <sup>14</sup> For the life of any creature is its blood. Its blood is its life. Therefore, I have told the Israelites: “You shall not eat the blood of any creature! For the life of every creature is its blood. Anyone who eats it will be cut off.”

<sup>15</sup> “Any person, either a native Israelite or a stranger, who eats the carcass of an animal that has died by itself or that has been torn by wild animals shall wash his clothes and bathe in water! He will be unclean until the evening. Then he will be clean. <sup>16</sup> However, if he does not wash his clothes and bathe his body, he will bear his guilt.”

18

Forbidden sexual relationships

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘I am the LORD, your God! <sup>3</sup> You shall not do what the people do in the land of Egypt, where you lived! You shall also not do what the people do in the land of Canaan, where I am taking you! You shall not follow their statutes! <sup>4</sup> You shall observe My Decisions! You shall keep My Statutes and walk in them! I am the LORD, your God. <sup>5</sup> You shall keep My Statutes and My Decisions! If a man practises them, he will live by them. I am the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> “No person shall approach anyone closely related to him to have sexual relations! I am the LORD. <sup>7</sup> You shall not uncover the genital area of your father by having sexual relations with your mother! She is your own mother. You shall not have sexual relations with her! <sup>8</sup> You shall not have sexual relations with your father’s wife! Her genital area belongs to your father. <sup>9</sup> You shall not have sexual relations with your sister, either your father’s daughter or your mother’s daughter! Whether she has been born in the same home or elsewhere, you shall not have sexual relations with either! <sup>10</sup> You shall not have sexual relations with your son’s daughter or your daughter’s daughter! For their genital area belongs to you. <sup>11</sup> You shall not have sexual relations with a daughter of your father’s wife, born to your father! She is your own sister. You shall not have sexual relations with her! <sup>12</sup> You shall not have sexual relations with your father’s sister! She is your father’s close relative. <sup>13</sup> You shall not have sexual relations with your mother’s sister, because she is your mother’s close relative! <sup>14</sup> You shall not uncover the genital area that belongs to your father’s brother! You shall not approach his wife! She is your aunt. <sup>15</sup> You shall not have sexual relations with your daughter-in-law! She is your son’s wife. You shall not have sexual relations with her! <sup>16</sup> You shall not have sexual relations with your brother’s wife! Her genital area belongs to your brother.

<sup>17</sup> “You shall not have sexual relations with both a woman and her daughter! You shall not take the daughter of her son or her daughter’s daughter and have sexual relations with them! They are close relatives. That is a shameful evil. <sup>18</sup> You shall not marry your wife’s sister to be a rival-wife and have sexual relations with her while your wife is alive!

<sup>19</sup> “You shall not go to a wife to have intercourse with her while she is ceremonially unclean from her menstruation!

<sup>20</sup> “You shall not consummate intercourse with your neighbour’s wife and so become ceremonially unclean with her!

<sup>21</sup> “You shall not give any of your children to be sacrificed to Molech! You shall not profane the name of your God! I am the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> “You shall not have sexual relations with a man as with a woman! That is detestable. <sup>23</sup> You shall not have intercourse with any animal and become unclean with it! A woman must also not offer herself to an animal for intercourse with her! That is perversion.

Punishment for sexual sins

<sup>24</sup> “You shall not make yourselves unclean in any of these ways! For by all these practices the nations that I am driving out ahead of you have made themselves unclean. <sup>25</sup> The land has become unclean. I have punished it for its guilt, and the land has vomited out its inhabitants. <sup>26</sup> You yourselves shall keep My Statutes and My Decisions! You shall not do any of these detestable things, either a native Israelite or a stranger who is living among you! <sup>27</sup> For the people of the land, who were there before you, have been doing all these detestable things, and so the land has become unclean. <sup>28</sup> You shall avoid having the land vomit you out because you make it unclean, as it has vomited out the nation that was there before you! <sup>29</sup> For, as for everyone who commits any of these detestable things — the persons who commit them will be cut off from their people. <sup>30</sup> So, you shall keep your obligation to Me, not to practise any of these detestable customs, which were practised before you came! You shall not make yourselves unclean by means of them! I am the LORD, your God.”

19

The requirement for the people to be ritually and morally holy <sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the whole congregation of the Israelites and tell them: ‘You shall be holy! For I am the LORD, your God and I am holy.

<sup>3</sup> “Each of you shall respect his mother and his father! You shall also keep My Sabbaths! I am the LORD, your God. <sup>4</sup> Do not turn to idols! You shall not make any gods of cast metal for yourselves! I am the LORD, your God.

<sup>5</sup> “When you sacrifice a peace-offering to the LORD, you shall sacrifice it that God may grant you favour!

<sup>6</sup> It shall be eaten on the day when you sacrifice it or on the next day! What is left over until the third day shall be burnt up! <sup>7</sup> If any is nevertheless eaten on the third day, it is sacrificial meat that has become unclean and will not be accepted. <sup>8</sup> Anyone who eats it will bring guilt on himself, because he has profaned what is holy to the LORD. That person will be cut off from his people.

Leviticus

The duties of the people toward each other

9 “When you harvest the grain on your land, you shall not finish harvesting the edge of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest! 10 You shall not pick your vineyard a second time or pick up the fallen grapes in your vineyard! You shall leave them for the poor man and the stranger! I am the LORD, your God.

11 “You shall not steal! You shall not tell lies and shall not deal falsely with one another! 12 You shall not swear by My name to deceive anyone or profane the name of your God! I am the LORD.

13 “You shall not oppress your neighbour or rob him! You shall not keep the wages of your hired labourer with you overnight until morning! 14 You shall not curse a deaf person or place an obstacle in front of a blind person to make him stumble but shall fear your God! I am the LORD.

15 “You shall not deliver unjust verdicts! You shall not show partiality to poor people or give preference to important people! You shall judge your neighbour fairly! 16 You shall not go about spreading slander among your people! You shall not do anything that endangers your neighbour’s life! I am the LORD.

17 “You shall not hate your brother in your heart! You shall be sure to correct your neighbour, that you may not be guilty of sin because of him! 18 You shall not take revenge! You shall not hold a grudge against any of your own people! Instead, you shall love your neighbour as yourself! I am the LORD.

Prohibitions about mixing — Deuteronomy 22:8-10

19 “You shall keep My Statutes! You shall not cross-breed two different kinds of your animals! You shall not sow your field with two different kinds of seed! You shall not put on a garment woven from two different kinds of material!

Instructions about a guilt-offering for illicit intercourse

20 “When a man has intercourse with a woman who is a slave and who is engaged to another man and who has not been ransomed at all or who has not been emancipated from slavery, there shall be due punishment! Such persons shall not be put to death! For there had been no emancipation from slavery.

21 Nevertheless, the man shall bring his guilt-offering to the LORD at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting! The guilt-offering shall be a ram! 22 The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the guilt-offering before the LORD for his sin, which he has committed! He will then be forgiven for his sin, which he has committed.

Various regulations

23 “When you come into the land and plant all kinds of fruit trees, you shall leave their fruit unharvested as though it were uncircumcised! For three years you shall consider it uncircumcised! It shall not be eaten!

24 In the fourth year all its fruit shall be a holy offering of praise to the LORD! 25 However, in the fifth year you may eat its fruit. In this way it will yield all the more for you. I am the LORD, your God.

26 “You shall not eat any meat with its blood still in it!

“You shall not practise divination and you shall not conjure up spirits!

27 “You shall not trim the hair at the sides of your head or clip off the edges of your beard! 28 You shall not make incisions in your bodies because a person has died and shall not put tattoo marks on yourselves! I am the LORD.

29 “You shall not profane your daughter by urging her into cultic prostitution, that the land may not turn to prostitution and that the land may not be full of shameful evil!

30 “You shall keep My Sabbaths and have reverence for My sanctuary! I am the LORD.

31 “Do not turn to mediums or to soothsayers! Do not search for them to become unclean through them! I am the LORD, your God.

32 “You shall stand up in the presence of a grey-haired person and treat the presence of an old man with respect! You shall also fear your God! I am the LORD.

33 “When a foreigner lives in your country with you, you shall not oppress him! 34 The stranger who lives with you shall be treated like a native Israelite among you! You shall love him as yourself! For you were strangers in the land of Egypt. I am the LORD, your God.

35 “You shall not act unjustly when you impose a sentence, when you measure length, when you measure weight or when you measure liquids! 36 You shall have honest scales, honest weights, an honest grain measure and an honest liquid measure! I am the LORD, your God, and I have brought you out of the land of Egypt.

37 “You shall keep all My Statutes and all My Decisions and shall put them into practice! I am the LORD.”

20

Punishments for the sacrifice of children

1 The LORD told Moses: 2 “You shall tell the Israelites: ‘If there is any Israelite or any stranger who lives in Israel who gives any of his children to Molech, he shall certainly be put to death! The people of the land shall stone him! 3 I Myself shall set My face against that man and shall cut him off from his people. For he has given some of his children to Molech, with the result that he has made My sanctuary unclean and has profaned My holy name. 4 If the people of the country actually cover their eyes to that person when he gives some of his children to Molech and fail to put him to death, 5 I shall set My face against that man and his family. I shall cut him off from his people when he runs wantonly after Molech, together with all who run wantonly after him.

6 “When a person turns to mediums and to soothsayers to run wantonly after them, I shall also set My face against that person and cut him off from his people.

<sup>7</sup> “You shall behave as people who have been made holy and you shall be holy! For I am the LORD, your God.

<sup>8</sup> “You shall keep My Statutes and shall put them into practice! I am the LORD and I make you holy.

<sup>9</sup> “When there is anyone who curses his father or his mother, he shall certainly be put to death! He has cursed his father or mother. His blood-guilt shall be on him!

Penalties for sexual immorality

<sup>10</sup> “When anyone commits adultery with another man’s wife, he who commits adultery with his neighbour’s wife, the adulterer, together with the adulteress, shall surely be put to death! <sup>11</sup> If a man has sexual relations with his father’s wife, he has uncovered the genital area that belongs to his father. Both the man and the woman shall certainly be put to death! Their blood-guilt shall be on them!

<sup>12</sup> “If a man has sexual relations with his daughter-in-law, both shall certainly be put to death! What they have done is a perversion. Their blood-guilt shall be on them! <sup>13</sup> When a man has sexual relations with another male as with a woman, both of them have done something detestable. They shall certainly be put to death! Their blood-guilt shall be on them! <sup>14</sup> If a man marries both a woman and her mother, it is a shameful evil. People shall burn the man and the two women, that no shameful evil may be among you!

<sup>15</sup> If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he shall certainly be put to death! You shall also kill the animal! <sup>16</sup> If a woman approaches any animal to have sexual relations with it, you shall kill the woman and the animal! They shall certainly be put to death! Their blood-guilt is on them. <sup>17</sup> When a man takes his sister, either his father’s daughter or his mother’s daughter and sees her genital area and she sees his genital area, it is a disgrace. Their people shall regard them as outcasts! He has uncovered his sister’s nakedness. He shall bear his guilt! <sup>18</sup> If a man lies with a woman while she is menstruating and has intercourse with her, he has exposed her source, and she has uncovered the source of her blood. Both of them shall be cut off from their people! <sup>19</sup> You shall not have intercourse with your mother’s sister or your father’s sister! For such a person has made a close relative naked. They shall bear their guilt! <sup>20</sup> When a man has sexual relations with his uncle’s wife, he has uncovered the genital area that belongs to his uncle. They shall bear their sin! They shall die childless! <sup>21</sup> If a man marries his brother’s wife, it will be something detestable. He has uncovered the genital area that belongs to his brother. They shall be childless!

The requirement for holiness

<sup>22</sup> “You shall keep all My Statutes and all My Decisions and put them into practice, that the land where I am bringing you to live may not vomit you out!

<sup>23</sup> You shall not live according to the statutes of the nation that I am throwing out ahead of you! Because they have been doing all these things, I have been disgusted with them. <sup>24</sup> I have been telling you: “You will inherit their land. I shall give it to you to inherit, a land flowing with milk and honey.” I am the LORD, your God and I have separated you from the other peoples.

<sup>25</sup> “You shall make a distinction between the animals that are clean and that are unclean, between birds that are unclean and that are clean! You shall not make yourselves detestable with any animal, bird or any reptile on the ground that I have set apart for you by declaring it unclean! <sup>26</sup> You shall be holy to Me! For I, the LORD, am holy and I have set you apart from the other peoples to be My own.

<sup>27</sup> “Any man or woman who has a demon or a spirit of the dead in them shall certainly be put to death! People shall stone them! Their blood-guilt shall be on them!”

21

Requirements for the holiness of the priests — Ezekiel 44:15-31

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron and tell them: ‘None of them shall become ceremonially unclean for any person in his family who has died <sup>2</sup> except for his nearest relatives: his mother, his father, his son, his daughter and his brother! <sup>3</sup> He may also become unclean for his sister if she is not married but a virgin and is dependent on him. <sup>4</sup> Because he is the head of his family, he shall not become unclean by profaning himself!

<sup>5</sup> “Priests shall not shave their heads bald, shave the edges of their beards or make incisions on their bodies! <sup>6</sup> They shall be holy to their God and shall not profane the name of their God! For they present the offerings made to the LORD by fire, the food of their God. They shall be holy!

<sup>7</sup> “They must not marry any woman who is a prostitute, who has lost her virginity or who has been divorced from her husband! For a priest is holy to his God. <sup>8</sup> You shall regard him as holy! For he offers the food of your God. You shall consider him holy to you! For I, the LORD, am holy — I Myself, who make you holy. <sup>9</sup> When the daughter of any priest profanes herself by being a prostitute, she is profaning her father. She shall be burnt with fire!

Requirements for the holiness of the Chief Priest

<sup>10</sup> “Moreover, the one who is the High Priest among his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil has been poured and who has been installed to wear the garments, shall not let the hair on his head hang loose or tear his clothes! <sup>11</sup> He shall not go near any dead bodies! He shall not become unclean even for his father or his mother! <sup>12</sup> He shall not leave the sanctuary and shall not profane the sanctuary of his God! For the anointing oil of his God, which has consecrated him, is on him. I am the LORD.

<sup>13</sup> “He shall marry a woman who is a virgin! <sup>14</sup> He shall not marry any of these, a widow, a divorced woman, a woman who has lost her virginity or a prostitute! Rather, he shall marry a virgin from his own people! <sup>15</sup> He shall not profane his children among his people! For I am the LORD and I make him holy.”

<sup>16</sup> The LORD instructed Moses: <sup>17</sup> “Tell Aaron: ‘If any man among your descendants in their succeeding generations has any blemish, he shall not come near to offer the food of his God! <sup>18</sup> For no man who has any blemish shall come near: no man who is blind, lame, with a split nose or deformed, <sup>19</sup> no man with a broken foot or broken hand, <sup>20</sup> or who is hunchbacked, who is dwarfed, who has a spot in the eye, who has a festering sore, who has a skin-disease with scabs or who has damaged testicles! <sup>21</sup> No descendant of Aaron the priest who has a defect shall come near to present the offerings made to the LORD by fire! He has a defect. He shall not come near to offer the food of his God! <sup>22</sup> He may eat the food of his God, both some of the most holy things and some of the holy things. <sup>23</sup> Nevertheless, he shall not come up to the curtain or up to the altar! For he has a defect and shall not profane My holy places! For I am the LORD and I make them holy.”

<sup>24</sup> So, Moses told this to Aaron, his sons and all the Israelites.

22

Regulations about eating the priests' share of the holy things

<sup>1</sup> The LORD instructed Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Tell Aaron and his sons that they shall treat with awe the holy offerings of the Israelites, which they consecrate to Me, that they may not profane My holy name! I am the LORD.”

<sup>3</sup> “Tell them: ‘In your coming generations, if any of your descendants, while he is ceremonially unclean, comes near the holy offerings that the Israelites consecrate to the LORD, that person shall be cut off from My presence! I am the LORD.

<sup>4</sup> “If any descendant of Aaron has an infectious skin-disease or suffers from a discharge, he shall not eat any of the holy offerings until he is clean! Whoever touches anything unclean by contact with a corpse or any man who has had an emission of semen <sup>5</sup> or anyone who touches any swarming thing, which makes him unclean, or any human being in whatever way he is ceremonially unclean, <sup>6</sup> the person who touches any such thing will be unclean until the evening. He shall not eat any of the holy offerings unless he has bathed his body with water! <sup>7</sup> When the sun goes down, he will be clean and after that he may eat the holy offerings. For they are his food. <sup>8</sup> He shall not eat the meat of an animal that has died by itself or that has been torn by wild animals, so that it makes him unclean! I am the LORD. <sup>9</sup> They shall keep My Requirement, that they may not bring sin on themselves through this and die because of this when they profane it! I am the LORD and I make them holy.

<sup>10</sup> “No unauthorised person shall eat a holy offering! No foreigner who is living with the priest and no hired servant shall eat a holy offering! <sup>11</sup> However, when a priest buys a slave as personal property with his money, he may eat his food. Any slave born in his household may also eat it. <sup>12</sup> When a priest's daughter marries anyone who is not a priest, she shall not eat any of the holy contributions! <sup>13</sup> However, when a priest's daughter is a widow or has been divorced and has no child comes back to her father's home as when she was young, she may eat her father's food. However, no unauthorised person shall eat it!

<sup>14</sup> “When anyone by mistake eats a holy offering, he shall add a fifth of its value to it and give the holy offering to the priest! <sup>15</sup> The priests shall not make profane use of the sacred offerings that the Israelites present to the LORD! <sup>16</sup> The priests shall burden such people with guilt that requires repayment when they eat the priests' holy offerings! For I am the LORD and I make them holy.”

Regulations about acceptable offerings

<sup>17</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>18</sup> Speak to Aaron, his sons and all the Israelites and tell them: ‘If anyone in the family of Israel or any stranger in Israel presents, as his gift, something to fulfil any vow that he has made or if he makes any kind of free-will offering and offers it to the LORD as a burnt offering, <sup>19</sup> that God may be favourable to you, it shall be a male without blemish from the herd, from the sheep or from the goats! <sup>20</sup> You shall not offer anything with a defect! For God will not treat it as acceptable on your behalf. <sup>21</sup> When anyone brings from the herd or from the flock a peace-offering to the LORD to fulfil a special vow or as a free-will offering, it shall be without blemish to be acceptable! There shall be no defect in it! <sup>22</sup> You shall not offer these to the LORD: anything blind, broken, mutilated, with warts, with festering sores or with scabs! You shall not give any of these as an offering made to the LORD on the altar by fire! <sup>23</sup> You may use a bull or a sheep that has a deformity or a bodily defect as a free-will offering, but it will not be regarded as acceptable in fulfilment of a vow. <sup>24</sup> You shall not bring to the LORD any animal whose testicles are crushed, torn away or cut out! You shall not use them in your country! <sup>25</sup> You shall also not accept any of these animals from any stranger to offer them as food to your God! For they have a defect or a blemish in them. God will not treat them as acceptable on your behalf.”

<sup>26</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>27</sup> “When a calf, a lamb or a goat is born, it shall stay with its mother for seven days! However, from the eighth day on it will be regarded as acceptable as a gift offered by fire to the LORD. <sup>28</sup> You shall not slaughter a cow or a ewe and its young the same day!

<sup>29</sup> “When you offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, you shall sacrifice it in such a way as will be accepted on your behalf! <sup>30</sup> It shall be eaten on the same day! You shall not leave any of it until the next morning! I am the LORD.

<sup>31</sup> “You shall keep My Commandments and put them into practice! I am the LORD. <sup>32</sup> You shall not profane My holy name! I must be treated as holy among the Israelites! I am the LORD and I make you holy.

<sup>33</sup> It is I who have brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD.”

23

Instructions about the appointed festivals

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘The following are the fixed days of the LORD, which you shall proclaim as holy assemblies! These are My fixed days.

The observance of the Sabbath

<sup>3</sup> “‘Work may be done for six days, but on the seventh day there shall be a most solemn Sabbath, a holy assembly! You shall not do any work! It shall be the Sabbath to the LORD wherever you live!

<sup>4</sup> “‘The following are the fixed days of the LORD. They are holy assemblies, which you shall announce at their appointed times.

The Spring festivals, the Passover, Unleavened Bread, the Presentation of the first ears of barley and the Festival of Weeks

The Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread — Exodus 12:1-30, 43-51, Numbers 28:16-25, Deuteronomy 16:1-8

<sup>5</sup> “‘The Passover of the LORD shall begin at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month! <sup>6</sup> The Festival of Bread without Yeast to the LORD shall begin on the fifteenth day of that month! You shall eat bread without yeast for seven days! <sup>7</sup> On the first day you shall hold a holy assembly! You shall not do any regular work! <sup>8</sup> You shall present to the LORD an offering made by fire for seven days! On the seventh day there shall be a holy assembly! You shall not do any regular work!’”

The Presentation of the first ears of barley or first-fruits

<sup>9</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>10</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘When you come to the land that I am giving you and are reaping its harvest, you shall bring to the priest the first ears of grain from your harvest!

<sup>11</sup> He shall move the sheaf back and forth before the LORD that you may be accepted! The priest shall move it back and forth on the day after the Sabbath!

<sup>12</sup> On the day when you move the ears of grain back and forth, you shall also offer a one-year-old ram without blemish, as a burnt offering to the LORD!

<sup>13</sup> The grain-offering with it shall be four-fifths of a litre of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil as a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD as a soothing aroma, together with a drink offering of one litre of wine!

<sup>14</sup> You shall not eat bread, parched grain or fresh grain until this very day, until you bring this gift to your God! It shall be a permanent Statute throughout your coming generations, wherever you live!

The Festival of Weeks (Harvest or Pentecost) — Exodus 34:22, Numbers 28:26-31, Deuteronomy 16:9-12

<sup>15</sup> “‘You shall count off for yourselves seven weeks

from the day after the Sabbath, from the day when you bring the ears of grain as a wave offering! They shall be seven full weeks! <sup>16</sup> You shall count off fifty days, until the day after the seventh Sabbath! Then you shall present an offering of new grain to the LORD! <sup>17</sup> From wherever you live you shall bring two loaves of bread as a wave offering! They shall be made of four-fifths of a litre of fine wheat flour! They shall be baked with yeast! They are first-fruits to the LORD. <sup>18</sup> Together with the bread you shall present seven one-year-old male lambs without blemish, one young bull from the herd and two rams! They shall be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their grain-offering and drink offerings! It is an offering made by fire and a soothing aroma to the LORD. <sup>19</sup> You shall also use one male goat for a sin-offering and two lambs one year old for a peace-offering! <sup>20</sup> The priest shall move them back and forth before the LORD as a wave offering, with the bread of the first-fruits! They, together with the two lambs, shall be holy to the LORD and belong to the priest! <sup>21</sup> On that very day you shall proclaim that you are holding a holy assembly! You shall not do any regular work! It is a permanent Statute wherever you live throughout your coming generations.

<sup>22</sup> “‘When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap everything on the edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest! You shall leave them for poor people and for strangers! I am the LORD, your God.’”

The festivals in Autumn, the Blowing of Trumpets, the Day of Atonement and the Festival of Booths — compare Numbers 29:1-40

The Blowing of Trumpets — Numbers 29:1-6

<sup>23</sup> The LORD instructed Moses: <sup>24</sup> “Tell the Israelites: ‘On the first day of the seventh month you shall have a Sabbath festival as a memorial day with the blowing of trumpets and a holy assembly! <sup>25</sup> You shall not do any regular work and shall present an offering made to the LORD by fire!’”

The Day of Atonement — compare Leviticus 16:1-34, Numbers 29:7-11

<sup>26</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>27</sup> “Now, the Day of Atonement is on the tenth day of this seventh month. You shall hold a holy assembly, humble yourselves by fasting and present an offering made to the LORD by fire! <sup>28</sup> You shall not do any work on that day! For it is a Day of Atonement, when atonement is made for you before the LORD, your God. <sup>29</sup> Any person who does not humble himself by fasting on that day shall be cut off from his people! <sup>30</sup> If any person does any work on that day, I shall destroy that person from among his people. <sup>31</sup> You shall not do any work! It is a permanent Statute throughout your coming generations, wherever you live. <sup>32</sup> It shall be a most solemn Sabbath for you! You shall humble yourselves by fasting! You shall observe your Sabbath on the evening of the ninth day of the month, from the one evening until the next!”

The Festival of Tabernacles or the Festival of Booths or the Ingathering —

Numbers 29:12-40, Deuteronomy 16:13-17, Zechariah 14:16-19

<sup>33</sup> The LORD instructed Moses: <sup>34</sup> “Tell the Israelites: ‘On the fifteenth day of this seventh month there shall be the Festival of Booths to the LORD and last for seven days! <sup>35</sup> On the first day there shall be a holy assembly! You shall not do any regular work! <sup>36</sup> You shall present to the LORD an offering made by fire for seven days! On the eighth day you shall hold a holy assembly and shall present to the LORD an offering made by fire! It is a festive assembly. You shall not do any regular work!

<sup>37</sup> “These are the appointed festivals of the LORD, which you shall announce as holy assemblies, for presenting to the LORD sacrifices made by fire, burnt offerings, grain-offerings, other sacrifices and drink offerings, each on its right day. <sup>38</sup> These offerings shall be in addition to Sabbaths of the LORD, in addition to your gifts, in addition to all your vow offerings and in addition to all your freewill offerings, which you give to the LORD!

<sup>39</sup> “Moreover, on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered what the land has yielded, you shall celebrate the festival of the LORD for seven days! On the first day there shall be a Sabbath festival, and on the eighth day there shall be a Sabbath festival! <sup>40</sup> On the first day you shall take for yourselves choice fruit from the trees, palm-branches, the branches of leafy trees and poplars of the Euphrates and shall rejoice before the LORD, your God, for seven days! <sup>41</sup> You shall celebrate it as the festival of the LORD for seven days each year! It is a permanent Statute throughout your coming generations. You shall celebrate it in the seventh month! <sup>42</sup> You shall live in booths for seven days! All native-born Israelites shall live in booths, <sup>43</sup> that your coming generations may know that I made the Israelites live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt! I am the LORD, your God.”

<sup>44</sup> So, Moses announced to the Israelites the fixed days of the LORD.

24

Instructions about the light in the Tent of Meeting — Exodus 27:20-21

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Command the Israelites to bring you pure oil from beaten olives for the lamp, that the lamps may burn continuously! <sup>3</sup> In the Tent of Meeting, outside the curtain of the Testimony, Aaron shall continually keep the lamp supplied before the LORD from evening until morning! It is a permanent Statute throughout your coming generations. <sup>4</sup> Aaron shall continually keep the lamps on the pure-golden lampstand in trim before the LORD!

Instructions about the bread that is set before God

<sup>5</sup> “You shall take fine wheat flour and bake twelve ring-shaped loaves with it, using four-fifths of a litre for each loaf! <sup>6</sup> You shall arrange them in two rows, with six in each row, on the table of pure gold before the LORD! <sup>7</sup> You shall lay pure frankincense beside each row! When it is offered by fire to the LORD, it will become a memorial of the bread. <sup>8</sup> On each Sabbath day Aaron shall regularly set this out before the LORD! It shall come from the Israelites as an unending Covenant! <sup>9</sup> The bread shall belong to Aaron and his sons, and they shall eat it in a holy place! For it is most holy. It shall be Aaron’s part out of the offerings made by fire to the LORD! It shall be a permanent Statute!

The punishment of a man who blasphemed

<sup>10</sup> A man who had an Israelite mother and an Egyptian father went out among the Israelites, and this Israelite woman’s son and a man of Israel had a quarrel in the camp. <sup>11</sup> The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name and cursed it. People brought him to Moses. His mother’s name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, belonging to the tribe of Dan. <sup>12</sup> They put him in custody to obtain precise information about what the LORD wanted them to do. <sup>13</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>14</sup> “Take the man who has cursed outside the camp! All who heard him shall lay their hands on his head, and then the whole congregation shall stone him! <sup>15</sup> Tell the Israelites: ‘Any man who curses his God shall pay the penalty for his sin! <sup>16</sup> He who blasphemes the name of the LORD shall certainly be put to death! The whole congregation shall certainly stone him! The stranger shall be treated like the native-born Israelite! When he blasphemes the Name, he shall be put to death!

The principle of retaliation

<sup>17</sup> “When any man kills another human being, he shall certainly be put to death! <sup>18</sup> Anyone who kills an animal shall make restitution for it, a life for a life! <sup>19</sup> When anyone causes any disfigurement to his neighbour, whatever he has done shall be done to him: <sup>20</sup> a broken bone for a broken bone, an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth! As he has caused a disfigurement to another human being, so it shall be done to him! <sup>21</sup> Anyone who kills an animal shall make restitution for it, but anyone who kills a human being shall be put to death! <sup>22</sup> You shall make the same decision about the stranger as you make about the native-born Israelite! For I am the LORD, your God.”

<sup>23</sup> Moses told this to the Israelites. So, they took outside the camp the man who had cursed and stoned him. The Israelites did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

25

Instructions about a year of rest for the land — Exodus 23:10-11, Deuteronomy 15:1-11

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses on Mount Sinai: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘When you come into the land that I am giving to you, the land itself shall stop working for a Sabbath to the LORD! <sup>3</sup> You shall sow your field for six years, prune your vineyard and gather what it produces for six years, <sup>4</sup> but in the seventh year the land shall stop working for a most solemn Sabbath, a Sabbath to the LORD! You shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard! <sup>5</sup> You shall not harvest what grows of its own accord after your harvest or pick the grapes of your unpruned vines! The land shall have a year of rest! <sup>6</sup> You, together with your manservant, your maidservant, your hired worker and the temporary resident, who live among you, may use what the Sabbath of the land produces as your food. <sup>7</sup> Everything that it produces shall also feed your livestock and the wild animals that are in the land!

The Year of Jubilee for the land – Leviticus 27:17-24, Numbers 36:4, Deuteronomy 15:1-11

<sup>8</sup> “You shall also count off for yourself seven weeks of years, seven times seven years, so that the seven weeks of years amount to forty-nine years for you! <sup>9</sup> You shall sound the loud trumpet on the tenth day of the seventh month, on the Day of Atonement and sound trumpets all over your land! <sup>10</sup> Then you shall consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty in the land for all its inhabitants! This shall be your Jubilee, when everyone shall return to his family-property and everyone shall return to his own clan! <sup>11</sup> That fiftieth year shall be your Jubilee year! You shall not sow or reap what grows of its own accord or pick grapes from the unpruned vines in the land! <sup>12</sup> For it is the Jubilee. It shall be holy for you! You shall eat from the field what it produces! <sup>13</sup> In this Year of Jubilee each of you shall return to his family-property! <sup>14</sup> When you sell something saleable to your neighbour or buy anything from him, do not drive a hard bargain with one another! <sup>15</sup> You shall buy from your neighbour on the basis of the number of years after the Jubilee! He shall sell to you on the basis of the number of years left for crops! <sup>16</sup> If there are still many years, you shall increase the purchase-price for it! If there are only a few years, you shall decrease the purchase-price for it! For he is selling only the number of crops to you. <sup>17</sup> You shall not drive hard bargains with one another but shall fear your God! For I am the LORD, your God.

<sup>18</sup> “You shall put My Statutes into practice, observe My Decisions and put them into practice! Then you will live safely in the land. <sup>19</sup> Then the land will yield its fruit, you will be satisfied with what you eat and live there in safety. <sup>20</sup> When you ask, “What shall we eat in the seventh year, since we must not sow or harvest our crops?” <sup>21</sup> I shall command My blessing on you in the sixth year, and the land will yield enough for three years. <sup>22</sup> While you sow in the eighth year you will be eating some of the old crop until the ninth year. You will continue to eat the old crop until the harvest of the ninth year comes in.

The redemption of family-property

<sup>23</sup> “The land shall not be sold in such a way that the right of repurchase is forfeited! For the land is Mine. For you are only foreigners and temporary residents with Me. <sup>24</sup> In all the land that you hold as family-property you shall provide a right of redemption for the land! <sup>25</sup> When your fellow-Israelite becomes poor and sells some of his family-property, his relative shall come to him as his redeemer and shall buy back what his relative has sold! <sup>26</sup> However, when a man has no one to redeem it but comes into property and acquires enough to redeem it, <sup>27</sup> he shall calculate the years since he sold it and refund the balance to the man to whom he sold it! Then he may return to his family-property. <sup>28</sup> But if he has not acquired enough to repay him, what he has sold shall remain in the possession of the man who has bought it until the year of the Jubilee. It shall be released in the Jubilee, and he shall go back to his family-property!

<sup>29</sup> “If anyone sells a home in a walled city, he shall have the right of redemption for a whole year! During the year after he has sold it he shall retain his right to redeem it! <sup>30</sup> However, if it is not redeemed before the man’s full year has elapsed, the house that is in the walled town shall belong permanently throughout his coming generations to the one who has bought it! It shall not be released in the Jubilee! <sup>31</sup> However, houses in villages without walls around them shall be regarded as belonging to the fields in the open country! They shall retain the right of redemption and in the Jubilee they shall be released!

<sup>32</sup> “Nevertheless, as for the cities of the Levites and the houses in the cities that are their family-property, the Levites shall have the permanent right to redeem them! <sup>33</sup> With respect to what any of the Levites redeems, the sale of a house that is in a city that is his family-property shall be released in the Jubilee! For the houses in the cities of the Levites shall be their family-property among the Israelites! <sup>34</sup> However, a field that is pastureland around their cities shall not be sold! For it is their perpetual family-property.

Concern for impoverished people in the Year of Jubilee

<sup>35</sup> “When your fellow Israelite becomes poor and impoverished among you, you shall hold on to him as you would a stranger or a temporary resident, that he may continue to live among you! <sup>36</sup> Do not take interest from him or require other additional charges from him, but you shall fear your God, that your fellow Israelite may continue to live among you! <sup>37</sup> You shall not lend him your money at interest or loan him your food at a profit! <sup>38</sup> I am the LORD, your God and I have brought you out of the land of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan, that I may be your God.

Regulations about Hebrew servants – Exodus 21:2-11, Deuteronomy 15:12-18

<sup>39</sup> “When your fellow Israelite becomes poor among you and sells himself to you, you shall not compel him to work like a slave! <sup>40</sup> He shall be like a hired worker or a temporary resident with you! He shall work with you until the Year of Jubilee! <sup>41</sup> Then he and his children shall be released from you! He shall go back to his own clan! He shall return to the family-property of his fathers! <sup>42</sup> For they are My servants, whom I have brought out of the land of Egypt. They shall not be sold like slaves! <sup>43</sup> You shall not manage him violently but shall fear your God!

The possession of slaves

44 “You may acquire your manservant and maidservant that you have from the nations around you. You may acquire a manservant and a maidservant from them. 45 You may also acquire them from the descendants of temporary residents who are foreigners living with you. You may own as family-property members of their clans who are among you and who have been born in your country. 46 You may bequeath them to your children after you as inherited family-property. You may use them as slaves permanently. However, with respect to your brothers, the Israelites, you shall not manage one another violently!

The redemption of a poor man

47 “When a stranger or a temporary resident among you becomes wealthy and your fellow Israelite becomes poor and he sells himself to a foreigner who is living among you or to a member of a foreigner’s clan, 48 after he has sold himself, there shall be a right of redemption for him! One of his brothers may redeem him. 49 Alternatively, his uncle or his cousin may redeem him or any other close relative in his clan may redeem him. Or, if he becomes wealthy, he may redeem himself. 50 Together with the man who has bought him he shall calculate the time from the year when he sold himself until the Year of Jubilee! The money paid for him shall be based on the number of years, as if he had spent the time with him as a hired man! 51 If they still have many years left, he shall repay, as his redemption, a price relative to what had been paid for him! 52 If there are only a few years left until the Year of Jubilee, he shall put them down to his account! He shall pay for his redemption in proportion to the years he would still have had to serve! 53 The man shall be with him like a hired worker on a yearly basis! He shall not manage the man in what you regard as a violent manner! 54 Moreover, if he is not redeemed in any of these ways, he and his children shall be released in the Year of Jubilee!

55 “For the Israelites belong to Me as servants. They are My servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD, your God.

26

The rewards for obedience — Deuteronomy 7:12-24, Deuteronomy 28:1-14

1 “You shall not make any idols for yourselves or set up any image or sacred stone for yourselves! You shall not place any stone carved in relief in your land to bow down before it! For I am the LORD, your God. 2 “You shall keep My Sabbaths and respect My sanctuary! I am the LORD.

God’s blessings on those who keep His Laws

3 “If you live according to My Statutes and carefully keep My Commandments, 4 I shall give you your rain at the right time, the land will produce its crops and the trees in the field will produce their fruit. 5 Your threshing will continue until grape harvest, the grape harvest will continue until planting, you will eat all the food you want and live in safety in your land. 6 I shall give peace in the land. You will lie down, and no one will make you afraid. I shall remove savage beasts from the land, and the sword will not pass through your country. 7 You will pursue your enemies and fall before you by the sword. 8 Five of you will chase a hundred, a hundred of you will chase ten thousand, and your enemies will fall before you by the sword. 9 I shall look kindly on you, make you fruitful, increase your numbers and confirm My Covenant with you. 10 You will eat old produce that has been stored up and clear out old stores of food to make room for new ones. 11 I shall put My dwelling place among you and My soul will not abhor you. 12 I shall walk among you and be your God, and you will be My people. 13 I am the LORD, your God, and have brought you out of the land of Egypt, so that you should no longer be their slaves. I have broken the bars of your yoke and made you walk erect.”

God’s curses on those who disobey His Laws — Deuteronomy 28:15-68

14 “However, if you do not listen to Me and do not practise all these Commandments, 15 and, if you reject My Statutes and your soul abhors My Decisions, so that you do not practise all My Commandments and so break My Covenant, 16 then I, too, shall do this to you: I shall punish you with terror, consumption and inflammation, which will make your eyes go dead and wear your life away. You will sow your seed for nothing, because your enemies will eat it. 17 I shall set My face against you, so that you will be defeated by your enemies. Those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee when no one is pursuing you.

18 “If, after all this, you refuse to listen to Me, I shall again chastise you for your sins, seven times over. 19 I shall break down your stubborn pride. I shall make your sky like iron and your soil like bronze. 20 You will use up your strength for nothing. Your land will not yield its produce, and the trees of the land will not yield their fruit. 21 If you set yourselves against Me and refuse to listen to Me, I shall bring seven more plagues on you, as your sins deserve. 22 I shall send wild animals among you to rob you of your children, to destroy your livestock and to make you few in number, so that your roads will become deserted.

23 “If, despite these things, you do not accept My correction but set yourselves against Me, 24 then I too shall set Myself against you and I Myself shall also strike you down seven times for your sins. 25 I shall bring a sword against you to take revenge for breaking My Covenant. When you withdraw into your cities, I shall send a plague among you, and you will be delivered into the control of your enemy. 26 When I cut off your supply of bread, ten women will bake your bread in one oven and weigh it out exactly when they give it back to you. Although you eat, you will not be satisfied.

27 “If, despite this, you do not listen to Me but set yourselves against Me, 28 then I shall resist you furiously and I myself shall chastise you for your sins seven times over. 29 You will eat the flesh of your sons and eat the flesh of your daughters. 30 I shall destroy your high places, cut down your incense-altars and pile your dead bodies on your lifeless idols and I Myself shall abhor you. 31 I shall turn your cities into ruin and rubble. I shall make your sanctuaries desolate. I shall not smell the soothing aroma of your offerings. 32 I Myself shall make the land desolate, so that your enemies, who settle in it, will be horrified at it. 33 I shall scatter you among the nations. I shall draw out a sword after you. Your land will be a sinister desolation, and your cities will be places of ruin and rubble.

34 “Then the land will enjoy its Sabbath days the whole time it lies desolate and while you are in your enemies’ land. Then the land will rest and cause the debt to its Sabbath days to be paid off. 35 For while it lies desolate the land will have the rest that it failed to have during the Sabbath days when you were living in it. 36 I shall also make the hearts of those among you who are left dejected in the lands of their enemies. The sound of a leaf when it is blown away will make them flee. They will flee to a sword as a place of refuge. They will fall when no one is pursuing them. 37 You will fall over one another as if running from a sword when no one is chasing you. You will not be able to stand before your enemies. 38 You will perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies will devour you. 39 Those among you who are left will waste away because of their guilt in the lands of your enemies. Indeed, they will waste away because of their fathers’ guilt together with their own.

God’s promise to pardon His people when they repent

40 “Then they will confess their guilt and the guilt of their fathers, when they were unfaithful to Me and when they even set themselves against Me, 41 so that I also set Myself against them and brought them into the land of their enemies. If then they humble their uncircumcised hearts and, if they freely admit their guilt, 42 then I shall remember My Covenant with Jacob and remember My Covenant with Isaac and My Covenant with Abraham. I shall also remember the land. 43 However, the land, which will be abandoned by them, will enjoy its Sabbath days while it lies desolate without them. They will freely admit their guilt because they had been rejecting My Decisions and because they themselves had abhorred My Statutes. 44 Nevertheless, despite this, while they are in the land of their enemies I shall not reject them or abhor them so that I exterminate them and make My Covenant with them invalid. For I am the LORD, their God. 45 Rather, for their sake I shall remember the Covenant with their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt so that the nations could see it, that I might be their God. I am the LORD.”

46 These are the Prescriptions, the Decisions and the Laws, which the LORD established on Mount Sinai between Himself and the Israelites through Moses.

27

Regulations about special vows and votive offerings

1 The LORD told Moses: 2 “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘When anyone makes an extraordinary vow to consecrate persons to the LORD by the value that you estimate, 3 if you estimate the value of a man from twenty to sixty years old, you shall value him at six hundred grams of silver, according to the weight used at the Holy Place! 4 If it is a woman, you shall value her at three hundred and sixty grams of silver! 5 If it is a person from five to twenty years old, you shall value a male at two hundred and forty grams and a female at one hundred and twenty grams! 6 If it is a person from one month to five years old, you shall value a boy at sixty grams of silver and a girl at thirty-six grams of silver! 7 If it is a person sixty years old or older, you shall value a male at one hundred and eighty grams and a female at one hundred and twenty grams!

8 “However, if the person is too poor to pay the amount that you estimate, he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall assess his value! The priest shall assess the value of the one who is making a vow according to what he can afford!

9 “If it is a domestic animal that people are presenting as a gift to the LORD, any such animal that a person presents to the LORD shall become holy! 10 He shall not substitute anything for it and shall not exchange it, a good one for a bad one or a bad one for a good one! If he does indeed exchange one animal for another, then both it and the one exchanged for it shall become holy! 11 If it is any ceremonially unclean animal, which people may not present as a gift to the LORD, the person shall present the animal before the priest, 12 and the priest shall assess its value as either good or bad! Its value shall be whatever the priest estimates! 13 However, if the person wants to buy the animal back after all, he shall add a fifth to the value that you assess!

14 “When anyone dedicates his house as something holy to the LORD, the priest shall estimate its value as either good or bad! Its value shall remain at whatever the priest estimates! 15 However, if the person who dedicates his house wants to redeem it, he shall add a fifth to the price that you estimate for it! Then the house will become his again. 16 If anyone dedicates part of his inherited property to the LORD, you shall value it according to the amount of seed required for it! You shall value six bushels of barley seed at six hundred grams of silver! 17 If he dedicates his field at the Year of Jubilee, whatever you value it at shall stand! 18 However, if he dedicates his field after the

Leviticus

Jubilee, the priest shall value it according to the years left until the next Year of Jubilee! Your estimated value shall be reduced! <sup>19</sup> However, if the man who dedicates his field wishes to redeem it after all, he shall add a fifth to the amount of money that you estimate for it, and the field shall continue to be his! <sup>20</sup> However, if he does not redeem the field or if he has sold the field to someone else, it shall never be redeemed! <sup>21</sup> When the field is released in the Jubilee Year, it shall be holy to the LORD! It shall be like a field that has been devoted to God and become the family-property of the priest! <sup>22</sup> However, if a man dedicates to the LORD a field that he has bought, which is not a part of his family property, <sup>23</sup> the priest shall calculate for him how much it is worth until the Year of Jubilee, and on that day the man shall pay what is assessed as something holy to the LORD! <sup>24</sup> At the Year of Jubilee the field shall revert to the man from whom he had bought it, to the man who had owned the land as family property! <sup>25</sup> “Every valuation that you make shall be according to the weight used in the Holy Place, twenty gerahs to twelve grams! <sup>26</sup> “Nevertheless, no one shall dedicate the first-born of an animal, whether it is a bull or a sheep! For it already belongs to the LORD by being born first. It belongs to the LORD. <sup>27</sup> If it is one of the unclean animals, a person may redeem it at the value that you estimate but shall add a fifth of its value to it! However, if it is not redeemed, it shall be sold at the price that you set!

Persons and things devoted to God under the ban

<sup>28</sup> “Nevertheless, nothing that a person devotes unconditionally to the LORD from what he owns, whether it is a human being, an animal or a field that is his family property, shall be sold or be redeemed! Everything devoted by the ban is most holy to the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> “No human being who has been devoted to destruction by the ban shall be ransomed! He shall certainly be put to death!

The reservation of one tenth to God

<sup>30</sup> “One tenth of everything that comes from the land, whether from the grain of the land or from the fruit of the trees, belongs to the LORD. It is holy to the LORD. <sup>31</sup> If anyone nevertheless redeems any part of his tenth, he shall add a fifth to it! <sup>32</sup> The full tenth part of the herd or the flock, each tenth being one of all the animals that pass under the shepherd’s staff, shall be holy to the LORD! <sup>33</sup> He shall not investigate whether it is good or bad or exchange it! However, if he does exchange it, that animal and its substitute shall be holy! There shall be no redemption!”

<sup>34</sup> These are the Commandments that the LORD gave to Moses on Mount Sinai for the Israelites.

NUMBERS

1

A census of the Israelite soldiers — compare Numbers 26, 2 Samuel 24:1-9, 1 Chronicles 21:1-6

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses in the Tent of Meeting in the Wilderness of Sinai. It was on the first day of the second month in the second year after the Israelites had left the land of Egypt. He said: <sup>2</sup> “Take a census of the whole congregation of the Israelites according to their clans and their families! Count every man by name individually! <sup>3</sup> You and Aaron shall count by their fighting forces all the men in Israel twenty years old or more who can serve in the army! <sup>4</sup> One man from each tribe, each of whom is the head of his family, shall assist you! <sup>5</sup> These are the names of the men who shall assist you: from Reuben, Elizur, the son of Shedeur; <sup>6</sup> from Simeon, Shelumiel, the son of Zurishaddai; <sup>7</sup> from Judah, Nahshon, the son of Amminadab; <sup>8</sup> from Issachar, Nethanel, the son of Zuar; <sup>9</sup> from Zebulun, Eliab, the son of Helon; <sup>10</sup> from the sons of Joseph: from Ephraim, Elishama, the son of Ammihud and from Manasseh, Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur; <sup>11</sup> from Benjamin, Abidan, the son of Gideon; <sup>12</sup> from Dan, Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai; <sup>13</sup> from Asher, Pagiel, the son of Ocran; <sup>14</sup> from Gad, Eliasaph, the son of Deuel; <sup>15</sup> from Naphtali, Ahira, the son of Enan.”

<sup>16</sup> These were the men who were chosen from the congregation, the leaders of the tribes of their fathers. They were the heads of the tribal subdivisions of Israel. <sup>17</sup> Moses and Aaron took these men, who had been designated by name. <sup>18</sup> They gathered the whole congregation on the first day of the second month. The people had themselves entered in a family-register according to their clans and their families. They counted individually the names of the men who were aged twenty years and more, <sup>19</sup> as the LORD had commanded Moses to do. So, he counted them in the Wilderness of Sinai.

<sup>20</sup> This is the family-record of the descendants of Reuben, the first-born son of Israel, according to their clans and their families. All the men aged twenty years and over who could serve in the army were counted individually by their names. <sup>21</sup> The total for the tribe of Reuben was forty-six thousand, five hundred.

<sup>22</sup> This is the family-record of the descendants of Simeon according to their clans and their families. All the men aged twenty years and over who could serve in the army were counted individually by their names.

<sup>23</sup> The total for the tribe of Simeon was fifty-nine thousand, three hundred.

<sup>24</sup> This is the family-record of the descendants of Gad, according to their clans and their families. All the men aged twenty years and over who could serve in the army were counted individually by their names.

<sup>25</sup> The total for the tribe of Gad was forty-five thousand, six hundred and fifty.

<sup>26</sup> This is the family-record of the descendants of Judah, according to their clans and their families. All the men aged twenty years and over who could serve in the army were counted individually by their names.

<sup>27</sup> The total for the tribe of Judah was seventy-four thousand, six hundred.

<sup>28</sup> This is the family-record of the descendants of Issachar, according to their clans and their families. All the men aged twenty years and over who could serve in the army were counted individually by their names.

<sup>29</sup> The total for the tribe of Issachar was fifty-four thousand, four hundred.

<sup>30</sup> This is the family-record of the descendants of Zebulun, according to their clans and their families. All the men aged twenty years and over who could serve in the army were counted individually by their names. <sup>31</sup> The total for the tribe of Zebulun was fifty-seven thousand, four hundred.

<sup>32</sup> From the descendants of Joseph, this is the family-record of the descendants of Ephraim, according to their clans and their families. All the men aged twenty years and over who could serve in the army were counted individually by their names. <sup>33</sup> The total for the tribe of Ephraim was forty thousand, five hundred.

<sup>34</sup> This is the family-record of the descendants of Manasseh, according to their clans and their families. All the men aged twenty years and over who could serve in the army were counted individually by their names.

<sup>35</sup> The total for the tribe of Manasseh was thirty-two thousand, two hundred.

<sup>36</sup> This is the family-record of the descendants of Benjamin, according to their clans and their families. All the men aged twenty years and over who could serve in the army were counted individually by their names.

<sup>37</sup> The total for the tribe of Benjamin was thirty-five thousand, four hundred.

<sup>38</sup> This is the family-record of the descendants of Dan, according to their clans and their families. All the men aged twenty years and over who could serve in the army were counted individually by their names.

<sup>39</sup> The total for the tribe of Dan was sixty-two thousand, seven hundred.

<sup>40</sup> This is the family-record of the descendants of Asher, according to their clans and their families. All the men aged twenty years and over who could serve in the army were counted individually by their names.

<sup>41</sup> The total for the tribe of Asher was forty-one thousand, five hundred.

<sup>42</sup> This is the family-record of the descendants of Naphtali, according to their clans and their families. All the men aged twenty years and over who could serve in the army were counted individually by their names. <sup>43</sup> The total for the tribe of Naphtali was fifty-three thousand, four hundred.

<sup>44</sup> These are the men who were counted by Moses and Aaron and the twelve leaders of Israel, each one representing his family. <sup>45</sup> All the Israelites who were aged twenty years and over and who could serve in the army of Israel were counted by their families.

<sup>46</sup> The total number was six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty.

The exemption of the Levites

<sup>47</sup> However, the Levites were not numbered along with the others by the tribe of their fathers. <sup>48</sup> The LORD had told Moses: <sup>49</sup> “You shall omit only the tribe of Levi from the count! You shall not take a census of them among the other Israelites. <sup>50</sup> Instead, you personally shall appoint the Levites to be in charge of the Tabernacle of the Testimony, all its equipment and everything else that belongs to it! They shall carry the Tabernacle with all its equipment! They shall take care of it and camp around the Tabernacle! <sup>51</sup> When the Tabernacle must move, the Levites shall take it down, and, when it must be set up, the Levites shall erect it! Any outsider who comes near it shall be put to death! <sup>52</sup> The Israelites shall set up their tents in their own sections of the camp by their military divisions, each under his own standard! <sup>53</sup> However, the Levites shall camp all around the Tabernacle of the Testimony, that God may not be angry with the congregation of the Israelites! The Levites shall stand guard over the Tabernacle of the Testimony!”

<sup>54</sup> The Israelites did that. They did exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses.

2

The arrangement of the camp of the Israelites and the order in which they were to march

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses and Aaron: <sup>2</sup> “The Israelites shall camp all around the Tent of Meeting and facing it, and each man shall be under his own standard with the banners of his family!

<sup>3</sup> “The tribal division of the camp of Judah shall be the ones who camp, in their military divisions, on the eastern side, toward the rising sun! Nahshon, the son of Amminadab, shall be the leader of the descendants of Judah! <sup>4</sup> The total of his military division is seventy-four thousand, six hundred.

<sup>5</sup> The tribe of Issachar shall be the ones who camp next to Judah! Nethanel, the son of Zuar, shall be the leader of the descendants of Issachar! <sup>6</sup> The total of his military division is fifty-four thousand, four hundred.

<sup>7</sup> Next there shall be the tribe of Zebulun! Eliab, the son of Helon, shall be the leader of the descendants of Zebulun! <sup>8</sup> The total of his military division is fifty-seven thousand, four hundred.

<sup>9</sup> The total number of men in their military divisions that are assigned to the camp of Judah is one hundred and eighty-six thousand, four hundred. They shall set out first on the march!

<sup>10</sup> “The tribal division of the camp of Reuben in their military divisions shall be on the southern side! Elizur, the son of Shedeur, shall be the leader of the descendants of Reuben! <sup>11</sup> The total of his military division is forty-six thousand, five hundred.

<sup>12</sup> The tribe of Simeon shall be the ones who camp next to Reuben! Shelumiel, the son of Zurishaddai, shall be the leader of the descendants of Simeon!

<sup>13</sup> The total of his military division is fifty-nine thousand, three hundred.

<sup>14</sup> Next there shall be the tribe of Gad! Eliasaph, the son of Reuel, shall be the leader of the descendants of Gad! <sup>15</sup> The total of his military division is forty-five thousand, six hundred and fifty. <sup>16</sup> The total number of men in their military divisions that are assigned to the camp of Reuben is one hundred and fifty-one thousand, four hundred and fifty. They shall be the second to set out!

<sup>17</sup> Then the Tent of Meeting shall set out with the camp of the Levites in the middle of the other camps! They shall break camp in the same order as they pitch camp! Each shall be in his own place, one tribal division after another!

<sup>18</sup> “The tribal division of the camp of Ephraim, in their military divisions, shall be on the western side! Elishama, the son of Ammihud, shall be the leader of the descendants of Ephraim! <sup>19</sup> The total of his military division is forty thousand, five hundred.

<sup>20</sup> The tribe of Manasseh shall be the ones who camp next to Ephraim! Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur, shall be the leader of the descendants of Manasseh! <sup>21</sup> The total of his military division is thirty-two thousand, two hundred.

<sup>22</sup> Next there shall be the tribe of Benjamin! Abidan, the son of Gideoni, shall be the leader of the descendants of Benjamin! <sup>23</sup> The total of his military division is thirty-five thousand, four hundred. <sup>24</sup> The total number of men in their military divisions that are assigned to the camp of Ephraim is one hundred and eight thousand, one hundred. They shall be the third to set out!

<sup>25</sup> “The tribal division of the camp of Dan shall be the ones who camp, in their military divisions, on the northern side! Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai, shall be the leader of the descendants of Dan! <sup>26</sup> The total of his military division is sixty-two thousand, seven hundred.

<sup>27</sup> The tribe of Asher shall be the ones who camp next to Dan! Pagiel, the son of Ocran, shall be the leader of the descendants of Asher! <sup>28</sup> The total of his military division is forty-one thousand, five hundred.

<sup>29</sup> Next there shall be the tribe of Naphtali! Ahira, the son of Enan, shall be the leader of the descendants of Naphtali! <sup>30</sup> The total of his military division is fifty-three thousand, four hundred.

<sup>31</sup> The total number of men that are assigned to the camp of Dan is one hundred and fifty-seven thousand, six hundred. They shall be the last to set out, one tribal division after another!”

<sup>32</sup> “These were the Israelites as they were counted according to their families. The total of those who were counted in the camps, in their military divisions, was six hundred and three thousand, five hundred and fifty. <sup>33</sup> The Levites, however, were not counted along with the other Israelites, as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>34</sup> The Israelites put this into practice. They pitched their camps in their tribal divisions exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses. They also broke camp in this manner, each with his clan and according to his family.

3

The census of the sons of Aaron — Leviticus 10:1-7

<sup>1</sup> The following is the family-record of Aaron and Moses at the time when the LORD spoke to Moses on Mount Sinai. <sup>2</sup> These were the names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab, the first-born and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>3</sup> These were the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, who were installed to serve as priests. <sup>4</sup> However, Nadab and Abihu died before the LORD because they made an offering with unauthorised fire before the LORD in the Wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children. Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests during the lifetime of their father Aaron.

The duties assigned to the Levites

<sup>5</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>6</sup> “Bring the tribe of Levi forward and appoint them as assistants to Aaron the priest! <sup>7</sup> They shall perform duties for him and for the whole congregation at the Tent of Meeting, by doing the work that needs to be done at the Tabernacle! <sup>8</sup> They shall take care of all the equipment of the Tent of Meeting and fulfil the obligations of the Israelites by doing the work that needs to be done at the Tabernacle! <sup>9</sup> You shall assign the Levites to Aaron and his sons! Out of the Israelites they are unconditionally given to Aaron. <sup>10</sup> You shall appoint Aaron and his sons to attend to the priestly work! Any unauthorised person who comes near shall be put to death!”

<sup>11</sup> The LORD also told Moses: <sup>12</sup> “See! I have Myself taken Levi’s descendants from among the Israelites instead of the first-born male children of the rest of the Israelite women. So, the Levites shall belong to Me! <sup>13</sup> For every first-born is Mine. At the time when I struck down every first-born in the land of Egypt, I declared every first-born in Israel, both human being and animal, holy to Me. They shall belong to Me! I am the LORD.”

A census of the Levites — Numbers 1:47-54

<sup>14</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai: <sup>15</sup> “Count the descendants of Levi by their families and clans! You shall count every male one month old and more!”

<sup>16</sup> So, Moses counted them, as the Word of the LORD had commanded him. <sup>17</sup> These were the names of the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari. <sup>18</sup> These were the names of the sons of Gershon by their clans: Libni and Shimei. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Kohath by their clans were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. <sup>20</sup> The sons of Merari by their clans were Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of Levi by their families.

The duties of the clan of Gershon

<sup>21</sup> From Gershon came the clans of Libni and of Shimei. These were the Gershonite clans. <sup>22</sup> The total of all the males who were counted from one month old and over was seven thousand, five hundred. <sup>23</sup> The Gershonite clans used to camp behind the Tabernacle, on the western side. <sup>24</sup> Eliasaph, the son of Lael, was the leader of the family of the Gershonites. <sup>25</sup> At the Tent of Meeting the descendants of Gershon were responsible for the care of the Tabernacle, the tent with its covering, the curtain at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, <sup>26</sup> the curtains of the courtyard, the curtain at the entrance of the courtyard, which surrounded the Tabernacle and the altar, its ropes and all the work connected with them.

The duties of the clan of Kohath

<sup>27</sup> From Kohath came the clans of Amram, of Izhar, of Hebron and of Uzziel. These were the Kohathite clans. <sup>28</sup> The number of all the males from one month old and more was eight thousand, six hundred. They were responsible for the care of the Holy Place. <sup>29</sup> The clans of the descendants of Kohath used to camp on the southern side of the Tabernacle. <sup>30</sup> Elizaphan, the son of Uzziel, was the leader of the family of the Kohathite clans. <sup>31</sup> They were responsible for the care of the Ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the utensils of the sanctuary that were used in ministering, the curtain and all the work connected with them. <sup>32</sup> Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, supervised the leaders of the Levites. He supervised those who were responsible for the care of the Holy Place.

The duties of the clan of Merari

<sup>33</sup> From Merari came the clans of Mahli and of Mushi. These were Merarite clans. <sup>34</sup> The number of all the males who were counted from one month old and more was six thousand, two hundred. <sup>35</sup> Zuriel, the son of Abihail, was the leader of the family of the Merarite clans. They used to camp on the northern side of the Tabernacle. <sup>36</sup> The descendants of Merari were appointed to take care of the planks of the Tabernacle, its crosspieces, posts, pedestals and all its utensils and all the work connected with them, <sup>37</sup> as well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their pedestals, tent pegs and ropes.

<sup>38</sup> Moses and Aaron and Aaron’s sons were the ones who used to camp in front of the Tabernacle on the eastern side, in front of the Tent of Meeting, toward the sunrise. They were responsible for the care of the Holy Place, to perform the duties that the Israelites needed. However, anyone else who came near had to be put to death. <sup>39</sup> The total number of the Levites whom Moses and Aaron counted according to their clans, as the LORD had commanded them, including every male who was one month old and more, was twenty-two thousand.

The substitution of the Levites for all the first-born Israelites and the redemption of those who exceeded the number

<sup>40</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Count all the first-born Israelite males who are one month old and more and determine the number of their names! <sup>41</sup> You shall take the Levites to be Mine — I am the LORD — as substitutes for all the first-born among the Israelites, and you shall take the livestock of the Levites as substitutes for all the first-born of the livestock of the Israelites!”

<sup>42</sup> So, Moses counted all the first-born among the Israelites, as the LORD had commanded him. <sup>43</sup> When the names were counted, all the first-born males who were one month old and more totalled twenty-two thousand, two hundred and seventy-three.

<sup>44</sup> The LORD also told Moses, <sup>45</sup> “You shall take the Levites as substitutes for all the first-born among the Israelites and take the livestock of the Levites as substitutes for their animals! The Levites shall belong to Me! I am the LORD. <sup>46</sup> As a ransom for the two hundred and seventy-three first-born of the Israelites who exceed the total of the male Levites, <sup>47</sup> you shall collect for each person sixty grams of silver as it is weighed in the Holy Place! You shall reckon twenty gerahs to one shekel! <sup>48</sup> You shall give to Aaron and his sons the money paid to redeem the number by which the first-born people exceed the Levites!”

<sup>49</sup> So, Moses took the money to redeem the number in excess of those whom the Levites redeemed. <sup>50</sup> He collected from the first-born of the Israelites sixteen kilograms and three hundred and eighty grams of silver according to the weight used in the Holy Place. <sup>51</sup> Then Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, according to the Word of the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

4

The duties of the families of the Levites descended from Kohath

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses and Aaron: <sup>2</sup> “Among the descendants of Levi, take a census of the descendants of Kohath by their clans and their families! <sup>3</sup> Count all the men between thirty and fifty years of age who come on duty to work at the Tent of Meeting! <sup>4</sup> In the Tent of Meeting the work of the descendants of Kohath shall be the care of the most holy things! <sup>5</sup> When the camp is going to move, Aaron and his sons shall go in and take down the curtain that serves as a screen and shall cover the Ark of the Testimony with it! <sup>6</sup> They shall put over the Ark a covering of dolphin-skin, shall spread over the top of that a cloth made entirely of purple wool and insert the poles of the Ark! <sup>7</sup> They shall spread a cloth of purple wool over the table of the Presence and put on it the dishes, the basins, the offering-bowls and the jars for the drink offerings! The bread that is regularly laid out shall also remain on it! <sup>8</sup> Then they shall spread over them a cloth that has been dyed red, shall cover this with a wrapper of dolphin skins and insert the poles of the table! <sup>9</sup> Then they shall take a cloth of purple wool and cover the lampstand that provides the light, its lamps, its snuffers, its fire-pans and all the olive-oil containers with which the lamp is supplied! <sup>10</sup> They shall put the lampstand and all its accessories into a covering of dolphin skins and shall put it on the carrying frame! <sup>11</sup> They shall spread a cloth of purple wool over the golden altar, cover that with a wrapper of dolphin skins and insert the poles of the altar! <sup>12</sup> They shall take all the utensils that are used for the ministering that is done in the Holy Place, put them in a cloth of purple wool, cover them with a wrapper of dolphin skins and put them on the carrying frame! <sup>13</sup> They shall clear away the fatty ashes from the bronze altar and spread a maroon woollen cloth over it! <sup>14</sup> Then they shall place on the altar all its utensils, with which ministry is performed on it, the fire-pans, the meat-forks, the fire-shovels, the bowls used for pouring and all the utensils of the altar! They shall spread over it a covering of dolphin skins and insert the poles of the altar! <sup>15</sup> After Aaron and his sons have finished covering the Holy Place and all the articles of the Holy Place and the camp starts moving, then the descendants of Kohath shall come to carry them! However, they shall not touch anything holy or they will die! These are the things in the Tent of Meeting that are carried by the descendants of Kohath.

<sup>16</sup> “Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, shall be in charge of the olive-oil for the light, the fragrant perfumes, the regular grain-offering and the anointing oil! He shall be in charge of the whole Tabernacle and everything in it, the Holy Place and its equipment!”

<sup>17</sup> The LORD told Moses and Aaron: <sup>18</sup> “Do not cut off the tribal clans of the Kohathites from the Levites! <sup>19</sup> Do this for them, that they may live and not die when they come near the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in and assign to each of them the work that he shall do and what he shall carry! <sup>20</sup> However, the Kohathites shall not go in to look at the holy things even for a moment or they will die!”

The duties of the families of the Levites descended from Gershon

<sup>21</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>22</sup> “Take a census also of the descendants of Gershon by their families and their clans! <sup>23</sup> You shall count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come in to perform the service, to carry out the work at the Tent of Meeting! <sup>24</sup> This is the service of the Gershonite clans, the work that they shall do and the loads that they shall carry. <sup>25</sup> They shall carry the curtain material of the Tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, its covering, its outer covering made of dolphin skins and the curtain for the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, <sup>26</sup> the curtains of the courtyard and the curtain for the entrance at the gate of the courtyard, which surround the Tabernacle and the altar, the ropes for them and all the equipment used in their upkeep! The Gershonites shall attend to everything that needs to be done with these things! <sup>27</sup> Aaron and his sons shall supervise all the work of the descendants of Gershon, everything that they must carry and everything that they must do! You shall assign to them the carrying of all the loads for which they are responsible! <sup>28</sup> This shall be the work of the Gershonite clans at the Tent of Meeting! Ithamar, the son of Aaron, the priest, shall supervise their duties!

The duties of the families of the Levites descended from Merari

<sup>29</sup> “You shall count the descendants of Merari by their clans and their families! <sup>30</sup> You shall count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who enter the service, to carry out the work at the Tent of Meeting! <sup>31</sup> In all their work for the Tent of Meeting their duty shall be to carry the following: the planks of the Tabernacle, its crossbars, its posts, its pedestals, <sup>32</sup> the posts of the surrounding courtyard, their pedestals, their tent-pegs, their ropes, with all their equipment and all their accessories! You shall assign to each man by name the articles that he is required to carry! <sup>33</sup> This is the service of the Merarite clans in all the work they have to do in the Tent of Meeting. It shall be under the supervision of Ithamar, the son of Aaron, the priest!”

The register of the families descended from Kohath

<sup>34</sup> Moses, Aaron and the leaders of the congregation counted the descendants of Kohath by their clans and their families, <sup>35</sup> all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who could come on duty to work in the Tent of Meeting. <sup>36</sup> Those who were counted according to their clans totalled two thousand, seven hundred and fifty. <sup>37</sup> This was the total of all those in the Kohathite clans who were serving in the Tent of Meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

The register of the families descended from Gershon

<sup>38</sup> The descendants of Gershon were counted according to their clans and their families, <sup>39</sup> all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who entered the service to work in the Tent of Meeting. <sup>40</sup> Those who were counted according to their clans and their families totalled two thousand, six hundred and thirty. <sup>41</sup> This was the total of all those in the clans of the descendants of Gershon who were serving in the Tent of Meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them, as the LORD had commanded.

The register of the families descended from Merari

<sup>42</sup> The descendants of Merari were counted according to their clans and their families, <sup>43</sup> all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who could come on duty to work in the Tent of Meeting. <sup>44</sup> Those who were counted according to their clans totalled three thousand, two hundred. <sup>45</sup> This was the total of those in the clans of the descendants of Merari. Moses and Aaron counted them as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

<sup>46</sup> All the Levites whom Moses, Aaron and the leaders of Israel counted according to their clans and their families, <sup>47</sup> all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to do the work of serving and carrying the Tent of Meeting, totalled eight thousand, five hundred and eighty. <sup>49</sup> As the LORD had commanded through Moses, Moses assigned each man to his task of serving or carrying his load. So, Moses counted them, as the LORD had commanded him.

5

The instruction to remove unclean persons outside the camp — compare Leviticus 15:1-33

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Command the Israelites to put outside the camp anyone who has an infectious skin-disease, everyone who has a discharge and everyone who has become unclean through contact with a dead body! <sup>3</sup> You shall put them outside the camp, both male and female, that they may not defile their camps, among which I am dwelling!”

<sup>4</sup> The Israelites did this and put them outside the camp. The Israelites did just as the LORD had told Moses.

Confession and restitution, to right wrongs — Leviticus 6:1-7

<sup>5</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>6</sup> Tell the Israelites: ‘When any man or woman does any of the sins that people commit and so is unfaithful to the LORD, so that that person has become guilty, <sup>7</sup> he shall confess the sin that he has committed and make full restitution for his wrong! He shall also add one fifth to the restitution and give it to the person whom he has wronged!

The allocation of contributions to the priests

<sup>8</sup> “‘However, if the man has no close relative to whom restitution for the wrong can be made, the amount for the wrong that is being repaid shall belong to the LORD! It shall be given to the priest, in addition to the ram of the atonement, with which the priest makes atonement for him! <sup>9</sup> Any contribution among all the holy things of the Israelites, which they bring to the priest, shall belong to him! <sup>10</sup> Each person shall keep his holy donations! What any person gives to the priest shall belong to the priest!’”

Instruction about a woman who is suspected of adultery

<sup>11</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>12</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘When any man’s wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him, <sup>13</sup> and another man has intercourse with her and this is hidden from her husband and her impurity is not detected and there is no witness against her and she has not been caught in adultery, <sup>14</sup> if then feelings of jealousy come over her husband and he suspects his wife when she has become unclean or if feelings of jealousy come over him and he suspects his wife although she has not become unclean, <sup>15</sup> the man shall bring his wife to the priest! He shall also bring four litres of barley flour, as the gift required for her! He shall not pour olive-oil on it or put frankincense on it! For it is a grain-offering for jealousy, a grain-offering of confession of sin, which makes known some wrong. <sup>16</sup> The priest shall bring her forward and have her stand before the LORD!

<sup>17</sup> Then the priest shall take holy water in a clay jar and the priest shall take some dust that is on the floor of the Tabernacle and put it in the water! <sup>18</sup> When the priest makes the woman stand before the LORD, he shall untie the hair of her head and place in her hands the grain-offering for confession of sin, which is the grain-offering of jealousy! Meanwhile, the priest shall hold in his hand the bitter water, which brings a curse!

<sup>19</sup> The priest shall make the woman take an oath, saying to her: "If no other man has had intercourse with you and you have not gone astray and become unclean while you have been married to your husband, be exempt from this bitter water, which brings a curse!

<sup>20</sup> However, if you have gone astray while you have been married to your husband, have become unclean and some man other than your husband has had intercourse with you" — <sup>21</sup> here the priest shall have the woman swear and bind herself with the curse! The priest shall tell the woman: "May the LORD cause an imprecatory oath to be brought down against you among your people by making your thigh waste away and your abdomen swell up! <sup>22</sup> May this water, which brings a curse, go into your bowels to make your abdomen swell and make your thigh waste away!" Then the woman shall say, "Amen. Amen!"

<sup>23</sup> "Then the priest shall write these curses on a scroll and wash them off into the bitter water! <sup>24</sup> Then he shall make the woman drink the bitter water, which brings a curse! The water, which brings a curse, will enter her and cause bitter pain. <sup>25</sup> The priest shall take from the woman's hand the grain-offering of jealousy, move the grain-offering back and forth before the LORD and take it to the altar! <sup>26</sup> The priest shall take a handful of the grain-offering as a memorial portion of it and burn it on the altar! After that, he shall make the woman drink the water! <sup>27</sup> When he has made her drink the water, if she has become unclean by being unfaithful to her husband, the water that brings a curse will enter her and cause bitter pain. Her abdomen will swell, her thigh will waste away and the woman will be accursed among her people. <sup>28</sup> However, if the woman has not defiled herself but is pure, she will be exempt from the oath and be able to become pregnant."

<sup>29</sup> This is the Law in cases of jealousy, when a woman goes astray while she is married to her husband and defiles herself <sup>30</sup> or when feelings of jealousy come over a man because he suspects his wife. He shall make the woman stand in the presence of the LORD, and the priest shall apply all this Law to her! <sup>31</sup> The man shall be free from guilt, but the woman shall bear her own guilt!

6

Instructions about the vow to live as a Nazirite

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> "Speak to the Israelites and tell them: 'When a man or a woman makes an extraordinary vow, a vow to be separate to the LORD

as a Nazirite, <sup>3</sup> he shall abstain from wine and other intoxicating drink! He shall not drink any vinegar made from wine or from any other intoxicating drink! He shall not drink any kind of grape juice! He shall not eat any fresh grapes or raisins! <sup>4</sup> All the time he is consecrated as a Nazirite, he shall not eat anything made from the grapevine, not even unripe grapes or seeds and skins! <sup>5</sup> All the time he is under his consecration-vow, no razor shall be used on his head! He shall be holy and let the hair on his head grow long and loose, until the period for which he has accepted the obligations of a Nazirite to the LORD is over! <sup>6</sup> Throughout the period for which he accepts the obligations of a Nazirite to the LORD he shall not go near a dead body! <sup>7</sup> He shall not make himself ceremonially unclean for his father, mother, brother or sister when they die, because his consecration to God is on his head! <sup>8</sup> Throughout the period of his consecration he shall be holy to the LORD!

<sup>9</sup> "When somebody near him dies very suddenly and makes his consecrated head unclean, he shall shave his head on the day when he is purified! He shall shave it on the seventh day! <sup>10</sup> On the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting!

<sup>11</sup> The priest shall prepare the one as a sin-offering and the other as a burnt offering and shall make atonement for him because he has sinned in connection with the dead body! He shall consecrate his head on the same day! <sup>12</sup> He shall accept the obligations of a Nazirite to the LORD for the period for which he was consecrated! He shall also bring a one-year-old male lamb as a guilt-offering! The first period shall lapse, because his consecration has become unclean!

<sup>13</sup> "This also is the Law for the Nazirite when the period of his consecration is over: He shall proceed to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, <sup>14</sup> and offer, as his gift to the LORD, a one-year-old male lamb without blemish as a burnt offering, a one-year-old female lamb without blemish as a sin-offering and one ram without blemish as a peace-offering, <sup>15</sup> a basket of bread without yeast, ring-shaped loaves of fine wheat flour, mixed with olive-oil, wafers without yeast smeared with olive-oil, together with their grain-offering and their drink offerings! <sup>16</sup> The priest shall present these before the LORD and prepare his sin-offering and his burnt offering! <sup>17</sup> He shall prepare the ram as a peace-offering to the LORD together with the basket of bread without yeast! The priest shall also prepare its grain-offering and its drink offering!

<sup>18</sup> Then the Nazirite shall shave his consecrated head at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting! He shall take the hair of his head, which he had consecrated, and put it on the fire that is under the peace-offering! <sup>19</sup> After the Nazirite has shaved the hair from his consecrated head, the priest shall take a boiled shoulder of the ram, one ring-shaped loaf of bread without yeast from the basket and one wafer without yeast and put them in the hands of the Nazirite! <sup>20</sup> The priest shall move them back and forth as a wave offering before the LORD! They shall be holy and belong to the priest, together with the brisket of the wave offering and the hind leg that has been contributed! After that, the Nazirite may drink wine.”

<sup>21</sup> This is the Law for the Nazirite. However, if he vows an offering to the LORD in addition to his Nazirite vow, as something else that he can afford, he shall do it in addition to the Law for the Nazirite in exact accordance with the vow that he takes!

The blessing of the Israelites by Aaron and his sons

<sup>22</sup> The LORD told Moses, <sup>23</sup> “Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, ‘This is how you shall bless the people of Israel. Say to them: <sup>24</sup> “The LORD bless you and keep you! <sup>25</sup> The LORD make His face shine on you and be gracious to you! <sup>26</sup> The LORD look on you with favour and give you peace!”

<sup>27</sup> ““In this way they will put My name on the people of Israel and I shall bless them.””

7

Offerings from the leaders of each tribe for the dedication of the Tent of Meeting and the altar

<sup>1</sup> On the day when Moses had finished setting up the Tabernacle and had anointed and consecrated it and all its equipment, the altar and all its utensils, which he had also anointed and consecrated, <sup>2</sup> the leaders of Israel, the heads of their families, who had been the tribal leaders in charge of the census, came forward.

<sup>3</sup> They brought, as their gifts before the LORD, six covered wagons and twelve oxen, a wagon for each two leaders and an ox for each one of them. They presented them in front of the Tabernacle.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>5</sup> “Take these from them and let them be used for doing the work at the Tent of Meeting! You shall give them to the Levites, as each man needs them for his work!”

<sup>6</sup> Moses took the wagons and the oxen and gave them to the Levites. <sup>7</sup> He gave two wagons and four oxen to the descendants of Gershon for the work that they had to do. <sup>8</sup> He gave four wagons and eight oxen to the descendants of Merari for the work they had to do under the supervision of Ithamar, the son of Aaron, the priest. <sup>9</sup> However, he did not give any to the descendants of Kohath, because their work involved responsibility for the holy things, which they used to carry on their shoulders.

<sup>10</sup> When the altar was anointed, the leaders also presented gifts to dedicate it. The leaders presented their gift in front of the altar. <sup>11</sup> The LORD told Moses, “A different leader on each day shall present his gift to dedicate the altar.”

<sup>12</sup> The one who presented his gift on the first day was Nahshon, the son of Amminadab from the tribe of Judah. <sup>13</sup> His gift was one silver dish weighing one kilogram and five hundred and sixty grams and one silver bowl used for pouring weighing eight hundred and forty grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place, both of which were filled with fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil, for a grain-offering, <sup>14</sup> one golden basin weighing one hundred and twenty grams, filled with incense, <sup>15</sup> one young bull from the herd, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering, <sup>16</sup> one male goat, for a sin-offering, <sup>17</sup> and, for a peace-offering, two bulls, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old. This was the gift of Nahshon, the son of Amminadab.

<sup>18</sup> On the second day Nethanel, the son of Zuar, the leader of Issachar, presented his gift. <sup>19</sup> He presented, as his gift, one silver dish weighing one kilogram, five hundred and sixty grams and one silver sprinkling-basin weighing eight hundred and forty grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place, both of which were filled with fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil, for a grain-offering, <sup>20</sup> one golden basin weighing one hundred and twenty grams, filled with incense, <sup>21</sup> one young bull from the herd, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering, <sup>22</sup> one male goat, for a sin-offering, <sup>23</sup> and, for a peace-offering, two bulls, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old. This was the gift of Nethanel, the son of Zuar.

<sup>24</sup> On the third day, the leader of the descendants of Zebulun, Eliab, the son of Helon, presented his gift.

<sup>25</sup> His gift was one silver dish weighing one kilogram, five hundred and sixty grams, one silver bowl used for pouring weighing eight hundred and forty grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place, both of which were filled with fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil, for a grain-offering, <sup>26</sup> one golden basin weighing one hundred and twenty grams, filled with incense, <sup>27</sup> one young bull from the herd, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering, <sup>28</sup> one male goat, for a sin-offering, <sup>29</sup> and, for a peace-offering, two bulls, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old. This was the gift of Eliab, the son of Helon.

<sup>30</sup> On the fourth day, the leader of the descendants of Reuben, Elizur, the son of Shedeur, presented his gift.

<sup>31</sup> His gift was one silver dish weighing one kilogram, five hundred and sixty grams, one silver bowl used for pouring weighing eight hundred and forty grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place, both of which were filled with fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil, for a grain-offering, <sup>32</sup> one golden basin weighing one hundred and twenty grams, filled with incense, <sup>33</sup> one young bull from the herd, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering, <sup>34</sup> one male goat, for a sin-offering, <sup>35</sup> and, for a peace-offering, two bulls, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old. This was the gift of Elizur, the son of Shedeur.

<sup>36</sup> On the fifth day the leader of the descendants of

Numbers

Simeon, Shelumiel, the son of Zurishaddai, presented his gift. <sup>37</sup> His gift was one silver dish weighing one kilogram, five hundred and sixty grams, one silver bowl used for pouring weighing eight hundred and forty grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place, both of which were filled with fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil, for a grain-offering, <sup>38</sup> one gold basin weighing one hundred and twenty grams, filled with incense, <sup>39</sup> one young bull from the herd, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering, <sup>40</sup> one male goat, for a sin-offering, <sup>41</sup> and, for a peace-offering, two bulls, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old. This was the gift of Shelumiel, the son of Zurishaddai.

<sup>42</sup> On the sixth day the leader of the descendants of Gad, Eliasaph, the son of Deuel, presented his gift.

<sup>43</sup> His gift was one silver dish weighing one kilogram, five hundred and sixty grams, one silver bowl used for pouring weighing eight hundred and forty grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place, both of which were filled with fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil, for a grain-offering, <sup>44</sup> one gold basin weighing one hundred and twenty grams, filled with incense, <sup>45</sup> one young bull from the herd, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering, <sup>46</sup> one male goat, for a sin-offering, <sup>47</sup> and, for a peace-offering, two bulls, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old. This was the gift of Eliasaph, the son of Deuel.

<sup>48</sup> On the seventh day the leader of the descendants of Ephraim, Elishama, the son of Ammihud, presented his gift. <sup>49</sup> His gift was one silver dish weighing one kilogram, five hundred and sixty grams, one silver bowl used for pouring weighing eight hundred and forty grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place, both of which were filled with fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil, for a grain-offering, <sup>50</sup> one golden basin weighing one hundred and twenty grams, filled with incense, <sup>51</sup> one young bull from the herd, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering, <sup>52</sup> one male goat, for a sin-offering, <sup>53</sup> and, for a peace-offering, two bulls, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old. This was the gift of Elishama, the son of Ammihud.

<sup>54</sup> On the eighth day the leader of the descendants of Manasseh, Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur, presented his gift. <sup>55</sup> His gift was one silver dish weighing one kilogram, five hundred and sixty grams and one silver bowl used for pouring, weighing eight hundred and forty grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place, both of which were filled with fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil for a grain-offering, <sup>56</sup> one golden basin weighing one hundred and twenty grams, filled with incense, <sup>57</sup> one young bull from the herd, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering, <sup>58</sup> one male goat, for a sin-offering, <sup>59</sup> and, for a peace-offering, two bulls, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old. This was the gift of Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur.

<sup>60</sup> On the ninth day the leader of the descendants of Benjamin, Abidan, the son of Gideoni, presented his gift. <sup>61</sup> His gift was one silver dish weighing one kilogram, five hundred and sixty grams and one silver bowl used for pouring weighing eight hundred and forty grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place, both of which were filled with fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil for a grain-offering, <sup>62</sup> one golden basin weighing one hundred and twenty grams, filled with incense, <sup>63</sup> one young bull from the herd, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering, <sup>64</sup> one male goat, for a sin-offering, <sup>65</sup> and, for a peace-offering, two bulls, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old. This was the gift of Abidan, the son of Gideoni.

<sup>66</sup> On the tenth day the leader of the descendants of Dan, Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai, brought his gift. <sup>67</sup> His gift was one silver dish weighing one kilogram, five hundred and sixty grams and one silver bowl used for pouring weighing eight hundred and forty grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place, both of which were filled with fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil for a grain-offering, <sup>68</sup> one golden basin weighing one hundred and twenty grams, filled with incense, <sup>69</sup> one young bull from the herd, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering, <sup>70</sup> one male goat, for a sin-offering, <sup>71</sup> and, for a peace-offering, two bulls, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old. This was the gift of Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai.

<sup>72</sup> On the eleventh day the leader of the descendants of Asher, Pagiel, the son of Ocran, presented his gift.

<sup>73</sup> His gift was one silver dish weighing one kilogram, five hundred and sixty grams and one silver bowl used for pouring, weighing eight hundred and forty grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place, both of which were filled with fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil for a grain-offering, <sup>74</sup> one golden basin weighing one hundred and twenty grams, filled with incense, <sup>75</sup> one young bull from the herd, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering, <sup>76</sup> one male goat, for a sin-offering, <sup>77</sup> and, for a peace-offering, two bulls, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old. This was the gift of Pagiel, the son of Ocran.

<sup>78</sup> On the twelfth day the leader of the descendants of Naphtali, Ahira, the son of Enan, presented his gift.

<sup>79</sup> His gift was one silver dish weighing one kilogram, five hundred and sixty grams and one silver bowl used for pouring, weighing eight hundred and forty grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place, both of which were filled with fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil for a grain-offering, <sup>80</sup> one golden basin weighing one hundred and twenty grams, filled with incense, <sup>81</sup> one young bull from the herd, one ram and

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering, <sup>82</sup> one male goat, for a sin-offering, <sup>83</sup> and, for a peace-offering, two bulls, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old. This was the gift of Ahira, the son of Enan.

<sup>84</sup> This was the gift of the leaders of Israel to dedicate the altar at the time when it was anointed: twelve silver dishes, twelve silver sprinkling-basins and twelve golden basins. <sup>85</sup> Each silver dish weighed one kilogram, five hundred and sixty grams and each bowl used for pouring weighed eight hundred and forty grams. The total weight of the silver vessels was twenty-eight kilograms and eight hundred grams, according to the weight used in the Holy Place. <sup>86</sup> Each of the twelve golden basins filled with incense weighed one hundred and twenty grams according to the weight used in the Holy Place. The total weight of the golden basins was one kilogram, four hundred and forty grams. <sup>87</sup> The total number of the animals for burnt offerings was twelve young bulls from the herd, twelve rams, twelve male lambs a year old, with their grain-offerings and twelve male goats for sin-offerings. <sup>88</sup> The total number of the animals for peace-offerings was twenty-four bulls, sixty rams, sixty male goats and sixty male lambs a year old. This was the gift to dedicate the altar after it was anointed.

<sup>89</sup> When Moses entered the Tent of Meeting to speak with God, he heard the Voice speaking to him from above the propitiatory cover that was on the Ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubim. Then God spoke to him.

8

The arrangement of the seven lamps in the Tent of Meeting — Exodus 25:31-40

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to Aaron and tell him: ‘When you set up the lamps, the seven lamps shall throw their light towards the front of the lampstand!’”

<sup>3</sup> Aaron did that. He set up the lamps in such a way that they faced toward the front of the lampstand, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>4</sup> This is how the lampstand was made: It was made of hammered gold. It was hammered work from its foot to its flower-shaped ornaments. Moses made the lampstand according to the pattern that the LORD had shown him.

The preparation of the Levites to serve at the Tent of Meeting

<sup>5</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>6</sup> “Take the Levites from among the other Israelites and make them ceremonially clean! <sup>7</sup> You shall do this to make them clean: Sprinkle on them the water that purifies from sin, and they shall shave their whole bodies, wash their clothes and so purify themselves! <sup>8</sup> They shall take from the herd a young bull with its grain-offering of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil, and you shall take a second young bull from the herd for a sin-offering! <sup>9</sup> Then you shall bring the Levites forward to the front of the Tent of Meeting and gather together the whole congregation of the Israelites! <sup>10</sup> You shall present the Levites before the LORD, and the Israelites shall lay their hands on the Levites! <sup>11</sup> Aaron shall present the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the Israelites that they may become men who perform the service of the LORD! <sup>12</sup> Then the Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the young bulls from the herd and prepare the one as a sin-offering and the other as a burnt offering to the LORD to make atonement for the Levites! <sup>13</sup> You shall then make the Levites stand before Aaron and his sons and present them as a wave offering to the LORD! <sup>14</sup> In this way you shall separate the Levites from the other Israelites, that the Levites may be Mine! <sup>15</sup> After that, the Levites shall go in to serve at the Tent of Meeting! In this way you shall purify them and present them as a wave offering! <sup>16</sup> For they have been completely given to Me from among the rest of the Israelites. I have taken them to be My own instead of all the first-born, the first male offspring from all the Israelite women. <sup>17</sup> For every first-born male among the Israelites, whether human being or animal, is Mine. On the day when I struck down all the first-born in the land of Egypt, I consecrated them to be Mine. <sup>18</sup> I have taken the Levites instead of all the first-born among the Israelites. <sup>19</sup> I have completely given the Levites from among the Israelites to belong to Aaron and his sons, to perform the service of the Israelites in the Tent of Meeting and to make atonement for the Israelites, that there may be no plague among the Israelites when the Israelites approach the Holy Place.”

<sup>20</sup> Moses, Aaron and the whole congregation of Israel did to the Levites exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites. This is what the Israelites did to them. <sup>21</sup> The Levites purified themselves from sin and washed their clothes. Then Aaron presented them as a wave offering before the LORD and Aaron made atonement for them to make them ceremonially clean. <sup>22</sup> After that, the Levites went in to perform their service at the Tent of Meeting under the supervision of Aaron and his sons. They did to the Levites just as the LORD had commanded Moses about them.

Instructions about retirement for the Levites

<sup>23</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>24</sup> “This shall apply to the Levites: Everyone twenty-five years old and more shall come in to do duty in the work at the Tent of Meeting! <sup>25</sup> However, when he is fifty years old, he shall retire from serving in this work and shall not serve any longer! <sup>26</sup> He may assist the other Levites in performing their duties at the Tent of Meeting but shall not perform any service! This is how you shall deal with the Levites regarding their responsibilities!”

9

The observance at Mount Sinai of the second Passover — compare Exodus 12:1-20

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses in the Wilderness of Sinai in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt. He said, <sup>2</sup> “The Israelites shall celebrate the Passover at the time appointed for it! <sup>3</sup> You shall celebrate it at the time appointed for it, at twilight on the fourteenth day of this month! You shall celebrate it according to all the Statutes for it and all the Decisions about it!”

<sup>4</sup> So, Moses told the Israelites to celebrate the Passover, <sup>5</sup> and they celebrated the Passover in the Wilderness of Sinai at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month. The Israelites did exactly as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>6</sup> However, when there were some men who had become unclean by touching the dead body of a human being, so that they could not celebrate the Passover on that day, they came before Moses and Aaron that day.

<sup>7</sup> These men told him: “We are ceremonially unclean because we have touched a human corpse. However, why should we be disadvantaged, that we may not offer the gift of the LORD at the appointed time together with the rest of the Israelites?”

<sup>8</sup> Moses answered them, “Wait here, until I find out what the LORD will command about you!”

<sup>9</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>10</sup> “Tell the Israelites, ‘When anyone of you or your descendants becomes unclean by touching a dead body or is far away on a journey, he shall celebrate the Passover of the LORD!

<sup>11</sup> Such people shall celebrate it at twilight on the fourteenth day of the second month! They shall eat it together with bread without yeast and with bitter herbs! <sup>12</sup> They shall not leave any of it until morning and shall not break any bone in it! They shall celebrate the Passover according to all the Statutes for it!

<sup>13</sup> However, if a man is ceremonially clean and not on a journey and yet fails to celebrate the Passover, that person shall be cut off from his people! For he has not offered his gift to the LORD at the time appointed for it. That man shall bear the consequences of his sin!

<sup>14</sup> When a foreigner is living among you and celebrates the Passover of the LORD, he shall celebrate it according to the Statute for the Passover and according to the specifications for it! You shall apply the same Statute for the foreigner as for the Israelite born in the land!”

God's leading of the Israelites in the wilderness by cloud and fire — Exodus 13:21-22, Exodus 40:34-38

<sup>15</sup> On the day when the Tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the Tabernacle, the tent of the Testimony. From evening until morning the cloud used to look like fire above the Tabernacle. <sup>16</sup> It continued to be like that. The cloud used to cover it and at night it looked like fire. <sup>17</sup> Whenever the cloud rose from above the tent the Israelites used to set out, and wherever it settled the Israelites used to pitch camp.

<sup>18</sup> When the LORD gave His Command, the Israelites used to set out, and when the LORD gave His Command they used to pitch camp. They used to remain in camp for while the cloud stayed over the Tabernacle.

<sup>19</sup> When the cloud remained over the Tabernacle for a long time, the Israelites observed the Commandment of the LORD and did not break camp. <sup>20</sup> Sometimes, when the cloud used to stay over the Tabernacle for only a few days, they used to remain in the camp, at the Direction of the LORD, and, when the LORD directed them, they used to break camp. <sup>21</sup> Sometimes the cloud stayed from evening until morning. When the cloud rose in the morning, they used to break camp. Whether it was by day or by night, whenever the cloud rose they used to break camp. <sup>22</sup> Whether the cloud remained over the Tabernacle for two days or a month or a longer time, the Israelites used to stay in camp and did not set out, but when it rose, they used to break camp. <sup>23</sup> They used to camp at the Direction of the LORD and set out at the Direction of the LORD. They observed what the LORD commanded them to do, according to the Direction that the LORD gave through Moses.

10

The provision for two silver trumpets to give signals

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Make yourself two trumpets! You shall make them by hammering them out of silver, that you may use them to call the congregation together and to tell the camps when to set out! <sup>3</sup> When both of them are blown, the whole congregation shall gather around you at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting! <sup>4</sup> If only a single trumpet is blown, the leaders, the heads of the tribes of Israel, shall gather before you! <sup>5</sup> When an alarm is blown, the camps that are situated on the eastern side shall set out! <sup>6</sup> When you blow a second alarm, the camps that are situated on the southern side shall set out! The blowing of an alarm shall signal them to set out! <sup>7</sup> However, when you call the assembly together, you shall give a trumpet blast without sounding an alarm! <sup>8</sup> The sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow the trumpets! The trumpets shall be a permanent Statute for you throughout your coming generations! <sup>9</sup> When you go into battle in your own country against an enemy who is oppressing you, you shall blow the alarm on the trumpets! Then you will be remembered before the LORD, your God and be saved from your enemies. <sup>10</sup> In addition, on the days when you are rejoicing, on your appointed festivals and on your New Moon festivals, you shall blow the trumpets over your burnt offerings and your peace-offerings! The blowing of trumpets shall be a memorial before your God! I am the LORD, your God.”

The departure of the Israelites from Mount Sinai

<sup>11</sup> On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year, the cloud rose from above the Tabernacle of the Testimony. <sup>12</sup> So, the Israelites set out on their stages from the Wilderness of Sinai, until the cloud settled down in the Wilderness of Paran. <sup>13</sup> They broke camp, this first time, according to the Command of the LORD through Moses. <sup>14</sup> The tribal division of the camp of Judah set out first, in their military companies. Nahshon, the son of Amminadab, was in command of its military force. <sup>15</sup> Nethanel, the son of Zuar, was in command of the military division of the tribe of Issachar. <sup>16</sup> Eliab, the son of Helon, was in command of the division of the tribe of Zebulun. <sup>17</sup> The Tabernacle was then taken down and the descendants of Gershon and of Merari set out, carrying the Tabernacle. <sup>18</sup> Then the tribal division of the camp of Reuben set out in their military divisions. Elizur, the son of Shedeur, was in command of its force. <sup>19</sup> Shelumiel, the son of Zurishaddai, was in command of the military division of the tribe of Simeon. <sup>20</sup> Eliasaph, the son of Deuel, was in charge of the military division of the tribe of Gad. <sup>21</sup> Then the descendants of Kohath set out, carrying the holy things. They set up the Tabernacle before the rest arrived. <sup>22</sup> Then the tribal division of the camp of Ephraim set out in their military divisions. Elishama, the son of Ammihud, was in charge of its force. <sup>23</sup> Gamaliel, the son of Pedahzur, was in charge of the military division of the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>24</sup> Abidan, the son of Gideon, was in charge of the military division of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>25</sup> Then the tribal division of the camp of Dan used to form the rear-guard for all the camps in their military divisions. Ahiezer, the son of Ammishaddai, was in charge of its force. <sup>26</sup> Pagiël, the son of Ocran, was in charge of the military division of the tribe of Asher. <sup>27</sup> Ahira, the son of Enan, was in charge of the military division of the tribe of Naphtali. <sup>28</sup> This was the order of departure when the Israelites set out in their military divisions when they broke camp.

<sup>29</sup> Moses told Hobab, the son of his father-in-law Reuel, the Midianite: "We are setting out for the place about which the LORD promised, 'I shall give it to you.' Come along with us! We shall treat you well. For the LORD has promised good things to Israel."

<sup>30</sup> However, Hobab answered him, "I shall not go. Rather, I shall go to my own land and to my relatives."

<sup>31</sup> Moses said: "Please do not leave us! For, because you know the places in the wilderness where we can camp, you should be our guide! <sup>32</sup> If you come with us, we shall treat you well with the same good things with which the LORD treats us well."

<sup>33</sup> So, they set out from the mountain of the LORD and travelled for three days. The Ark of the Covenant of the LORD went ahead of them during that journey of three days, to search for a place for them to rest.

<sup>34</sup> The cloud of the LORD was above them during the day when they set out from the camp.

<sup>35</sup> When the Ark set out, Moses used to say: "Rise up, O LORD! May Your enemies be scattered, and may those who hate You flee before You!" <sup>36</sup> When it came to rest, he used to say: "Return, O LORD, to the large numbers of the clans of Israel!"

11

The people's craving for meat to eat

<sup>1</sup> When the people complained about their misfortunes, the LORD heard it and was displeased. The anger of the LORD flared out, and fire from the LORD blazed up among them and consumed some outlying parts of the camp. <sup>2</sup> When the people cried out to Moses, Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire died down. <sup>3</sup> That place was named "Taberah,"<sup>*67</sup> because the fire of the LORD had been burning among them.

<sup>4</sup> The non-Israelite rabble among them began to have a strong craving, and the Israelites wept again and said: "If only we had meat to eat!" <sup>5</sup> We remember the fish that we ate freely in Egypt, the cucumbers, the watermelons, the leeks, the onions and the garlic. <sup>6</sup> Now, however, our appetites are shrivelled. There is nothing but this manna to look at!"

<sup>7</sup> The manna was like coriander seed and looked like a gum resin. <sup>8</sup> The people used to go around and gather it, grind it in hand-mills or crush it in mortars, boil it in cooking-pots and make bread-cakes with it. It tasted like cakes baked with olive-oil. <sup>9</sup> When the dew fell on the camp at night, the manna fell with it.

<sup>10</sup> Moses heard the people weeping in their family groups, everyone at the door of his tent. The LORD became exceedingly angry, and Moses was upset.

<sup>11</sup> Moses asked the LORD: "Why have You brought trouble on Your servant and why are You not kindly disposed towards me? You are placing the burden of all these people on me! <sup>12</sup> Have I fathered all these people? Have I given birth to them, that You should tell me: 'Carry them in your arms, like a nurse carrying a baby, to the land that You have promised by an oath to their fathers'?" <sup>13</sup> Where can I get meat to give to all these people? For they are weeping beside me and saying, 'Give us meat to eat!' <sup>14</sup> I alone cannot carry all these people. For they are too heavy for me. <sup>15</sup> If You are going to treat me like this, and, if You are kindly disposed towards me, please just kill me outright and let me not look at my misery!"

The appointment of seventy elders to help Moses

<sup>16</sup> The LORD answered Moses: "Gather together for Me seventy men from the elders of Israel, whom you know to be elders of the people and officers over them! Bring them to the Tent of Meeting, that they may stand there with you! <sup>17</sup> I shall come down and speak with you there. I shall take some of the Spirit that is on you and put it on them. They will carry the burden of the people with you, that you may not carry it alone. <sup>18</sup> You shall also tell the people: 'Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow! You will eat meat. For you have been weeping in the hearing of the LORD and asking: "Who will give us meat to eat? For we were better off in Egypt.” The LORD will give you meat to eat. <sup>19</sup> You will not eat it for one day or for two days or for five days or for ten days or for twenty days. <sup>20</sup> Rather, you will eat it for a whole month, until it comes out of your nostrils and you become sick of it, because you have been rejecting the LORD, who is among you, and have been weeping before Him, asking: “Why did we ever come out of Egypt?””

<sup>67</sup> Taberah means, "burning."

<sup>21</sup> Moses said: “The people who are with me number six hundred thousand men on foot, and yet You have said, ‘I shall give them meat to eat for a whole month!’ <sup>22</sup> Could flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, would they be enough for them? Or could all the fish in the sea be caught for them, and would they be enough for them?”

<sup>23</sup> However, the LORD asked Moses: “Is the arm of the LORD too short? Now you will see whether what I have said will come true for you or not.”

The descent of the Spirit on seventy elders

<sup>24</sup> Moses went out and told the people what the LORD had said. He also gathered seventy men from the elders of the people and made them stand around the tent. <sup>25</sup> Then the LORD came down in a cloud and spoke to him and took some of the Spirit who was on Moses and put Him on the seventy elders. When the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied but did not continue to do it. <sup>26</sup> Two men, the one named Eldad and the other named Medad, had remained in the camp. The Spirit also rested on them. They had been among those who had been listed but had not gone out to the tent. However, they prophesied in the camp.

<sup>27</sup> Then a young man ran and told Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!”

<sup>28</sup> Joshua, the son of Nun, who had been Moses’ assistant since he had been a young man, spoke up and said, “My master, Moses, stop them!”

<sup>29</sup> Moses asked him: “Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all the people of the LORD were prophets and that the LORD would put His Spirit on them!”

<sup>30</sup> Then Moses and the elders of Israel went back to the camp.

The sending of quails around the camp

<sup>31</sup> Then a wind from the LORD sprang up and drove quails in from the sea. It threw them down over the camp about a day’s walk in any direction around the camp, about one metre above the surface of the ground. <sup>32</sup> The people went out and all that day and night and all the next day they gathered the quails. The one who gathered the least collected thirty-eight litres. They kept spreading them out for themselves around the camp.

The sending of a plague

<sup>33</sup> The meat was still between their teeth and not yet chewed up, when the anger of the LORD burned against the people, and the LORD struck the people down with a very severe plague. <sup>34</sup> That place was named “Kibroth-Hattaavah,”<sup>68</sup> because there they buried the people who had been craving for other food.

<sup>31</sup> From Kibroth-Hattaavah the people journeyed to Hazeroth and then stayed at Hazeroth.

12

The opposition of Miriam and Aaron to Moses

<sup>1</sup> Miriam and Aaron criticised Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married. For Moses had married a Cushite woman.

<sup>2</sup> They asked: “Can it be that the LORD has spoken only through Moses? Has He not also spoken through us?”

The LORD heard this. <sup>3</sup> Now Moses was a very humble man, humbler than anyone else on the surface of the earth. <sup>4</sup> Suddenly the LORD spoke to Moses, Aaron and Miriam: “Come out, you three, to the Tent of Meeting!”

So, the three of them went out. <sup>5</sup> Then the LORD came down in the pillar of a cloud and stood at the entrance of the tent. He called, “Aaron and Miriam!”

So, the two of them went out to him. <sup>6</sup> He said: “Please listen to what I say! If you have a prophet, I, the LORD, make Myself known to him in a vision. I speak to him in a dream. <sup>7</sup> This is not so with My servant Moses. He is faithful in My whole family.

<sup>8</sup> I speak to him face to face, clearly, and not in riddles. He sees the form of the LORD. Why, then, have you not been afraid to speak against My servant Moses?”

<sup>9</sup> The anger of the LORD burned against them, and He departed. <sup>10</sup> When the cloud had moved away from the tent, Miriam was seen to be struck with an infectious skin-disease, as white as snow. Aaron turned to Miriam and saw that she had been struck with a skin-disease. <sup>11</sup> Aaron asked Moses: “With your permission, please do not hold this sin against us! We have proved ourselves foolish and sinned by what we have done. <sup>12</sup> Please do not let her be like a stillborn infant, who comes from its mother’s womb with its flesh half eaten away!”

<sup>13</sup> Moses cried out to the LORD, “Please, God, please heal her!”

<sup>14</sup> The LORD told Moses: “If her father had only spit in her face, would she not be in disgrace for seven days? Let her be shut outside of the camp for seven days! After that she may be brought in again.”

<sup>15</sup> So, Miriam was shut outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not set out on the march until Miriam had been brought in again. <sup>16</sup> After that the people set out from Hazeroth and pitched camp in the Wilderness of Paran.

13

The sending of twelve spies into Canaan — Deuteronomy 1:19-33

<sup>68</sup> Kibroth-Hattaavah means, “Graves of greed.”

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Send some men to spy out the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites! You shall send one man from each ancestral tribe! Each one shall be one of their leaders!”

<sup>3</sup> So, Moses sent them from the Wilderness of Paran, as the LORD had commanded him. All of them were leaders of the Israelites. <sup>4</sup> These were their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua, the son of Zaccur; <sup>5</sup> from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat, the son of Hori; <sup>6</sup> from the tribe of Judah, Caleb, the son of Jephunneh; <sup>7</sup> from the tribe of Issachar, Igal, the son of Joseph; <sup>8</sup> from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea, the son of Nun; <sup>9</sup> from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti, the son of Raphu; <sup>10</sup> from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel, the son of Sodi; <sup>11</sup> from the tribe of Joseph, that is, from the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi, the son of Susi; <sup>12</sup> from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel, the son of Gemalli; <sup>13</sup> from the tribe of Asher, Sethur, the son of Michael; <sup>14</sup> from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi, the son of Vophsi; <sup>15</sup> from the tribe of Gad, Geuel, the son of Machi. <sup>16</sup> These were the names of the men whom Moses sent to spy out the land. Moses called Hoshea, the son of Nun, “Joshua.”

<sup>17</sup> When Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, he told them: “Go up here through the Negev and then go up into the hill-country! <sup>18</sup> See what the land is like! See whether the people who are living there are strong or feeble, few or many! <sup>19</sup> See whether the land in which they are living is good or bad! See whether the cities in which they are living are camps or fortified places! <sup>20</sup> See whether the soil is fertile or lean! See whether there are trees there or not! Have courage and bring back some of the fruit of the land!”

It was the season for the first ripe grapes. <sup>21</sup> So, they went up and spied out the land from the Wilderness of Zin to Rehob, near the entrance to Hamath. <sup>22</sup> They went up through the Negev and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmai, the descendants of Anak, lived (Hebron had been built seven years before Zoan in Egypt). <sup>23</sup> When they reached the Valley of Eshcol,<sup>69</sup> they cut off a branch there with a single cluster of grapes, and two of them carried it on a pole. They also brought some pomegranates and some figs. <sup>24</sup> That place was called “the Valley of Eshcol” because of the cluster of grapes that the Israelites had cut off there.

<sup>25</sup> Forty days later they came back from spying out the land. <sup>26</sup> They came to Moses and Aaron and the whole congregation of the Israelites at Kadesh in the Wilderness of Paran. They brought them and the whole congregation a report and showed them the fruit of the land. <sup>27</sup> They reported to Moses: “We came to the land to which you sent us, and it truly does flow with milk and honey. Here is some of its fruit. <sup>28</sup> Nevertheless, the people who are living in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large. We even saw the descendants of Anak there.

<sup>29</sup> The Amalekites are living in the Negev. The Hittites, the Jebusites and the Amorites are living in the hill-country, and the Canaanites are living near the sea and beside the bank of the Jordan.”

<sup>30</sup> However, Caleb silenced the people in front of Moses. He said: “Let us by all means go up and take possession of the land! For we shall certainly be able to conquer it.”

<sup>31</sup> Nevertheless, the men who had gone up with him said: “We shall not be able to attack the people. For they are stronger than we are.”

<sup>32</sup> They spread among the Israelites an untruthful report about the land that they had spied out. They said: “The land, through which we have passed, and which we have been spying out, is one that devours those who are living there. All the people we saw in it are unusually tall. <sup>33</sup> We saw the Nephilim there. The sons of Anak have descended from the Nephilim. We felt like locusts and seemed like locusts to them.”

14

The rebellion of the people

<sup>1</sup> Then the whole congregation broke into loud crying and the people wept that night. <sup>2</sup> All the Israelites grumbled against Moses and Aaron. The whole congregation told them: “If only we had died in the land of Egypt! Or if only we had died in this wilderness!

<sup>3</sup> Why is the LORD bringing us into this land just to fall by the sword? Our wives and little ones will be taken as plunder! Would it not be better for us to go back to Egypt?”

<sup>4</sup> They said to one another, “Let us appoint a leader and let us go back to Egypt!”

<sup>5</sup> Moses and Aaron fell face-down in front of the whole assembly of the congregation of the Israelites.

<sup>6</sup> Joshua, the son of Nun, and Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, who had been among those who had spied out the land, tore their clothes. <sup>7</sup> They told the whole congregation of the Israelites: “The land through which we passed, and which we spied out, is good! The land is very, very good! <sup>8</sup> If the LORD takes pleasure in us, He will bring us into this land. He will give it to us, a land that flows with milk and honey.

<sup>9</sup> Only do not rebel against the LORD! You should not be afraid of the people of the land! For we can eat them like bread. Their protection has left them. The LORD is with us. Do not be afraid of them!”

<sup>10</sup> However, the whole congregation talked about stoning them. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to all the Israelites at the Tent of Meeting. <sup>11</sup> The LORD asked Moses: “How long will these people scornfully reject Me? How long are they going to refuse to believe in Me, despite all the miraculous signs that I have been performing among them? <sup>12</sup> I shall strike them down with a plague and disinherit them. Then I shall make you into a greater and mightier nation than they are.”

<sup>69</sup> “Eshcol” means, “cluster.”

Moses' intercession for the Israelites

<sup>13</sup> Nevertheless, Moses replied to the LORD: “Then the Egyptians will hear about this! For by Your power You have brought these people up from among them.

<sup>14</sup> They will tell the inhabitants of this land about it. They have already heard that You, the LORD, are among the Israelites, that You, O LORD, have been appearing face to face, that Your cloud is standing over them and that You are going before them in a pillar of cloud by day and in a pillar of fire by night.

<sup>15</sup> If You kill all these people as one man, then the nations who have been hearing this report about You will say: <sup>16</sup> ‘Because the LORD has not been able to bring these people into the land that He had sworn to give them, He has slaughtered them in the wilderness.’ <sup>17</sup> Now then, please let the strength of my Lord be great! You promised just this when You said:

<sup>18</sup> ‘The LORD is slow to become angry and abounding in mercy. He forgives wrongdoing and rebellion. He certainly does not declare anyone exempt from punishment. He avenges the wrongdoing of the fathers on the children to the third and fourth generation.’

<sup>19</sup> Please forgive the wrongdoing of these people, according to Your great mercy and as You have been pardoning this people from Egypt even until now!”

God's threat of judgment on the Israelites

<sup>20</sup> Then the LORD said: “I have forgiven them, as you have asked. <sup>21</sup> Nevertheless, as surely as I live, and as surely as the glory of the LORD will fill the whole earth, <sup>22</sup> truly, none of the men who have seen My glory and the miraculous signs that I have performed in Egypt and in the wilderness and yet have put Me to the test ten times and have been refusing to obey Me, <sup>23</sup> will see the land that I promised with an oath to their fathers. None of those who are scornfully rejecting Me will see it. <sup>24</sup> However, I shall take My servant Caleb into the land to which he has gone, because he has had a different spirit in him and has followed Me fully. His descendants will also take possession of it. <sup>25</sup> Since the Amalekites and Canaanites are living in the valleys, turn and set out toward the wilderness tomorrow, along the road to the Red Sea!”

The condemnation to forty years of wandering in the wilderness

<sup>26</sup> Then the LORD asked Moses and Aaron: <sup>27</sup> “How long shall I put up with this wicked congregation, which keeps on grumbling against Me? I have been hearing the complaints that the Israelites are making against Me. <sup>28</sup> Tell them: ‘As surely as I live,’ the LORD has said, ‘I shall certainly do to you what I heard you saying! <sup>29</sup> Your bodies will fall dead in this wilderness. Because you have been grumbling against Me, absolutely none of you who were counted in your entire census, from twenty years old and more, <sup>30</sup> will enter the land where I swore with a raised hand I would let you live, except Caleb, the son of Jephunneh and Joshua, the son of Nun. <sup>31</sup> As for your little ones, who, you said, would be taken as plunder, I shall bring them in, that they become acquainted with the land that you have rejected. <sup>32</sup> However, your own bodies will fall in this wilderness. <sup>33</sup> Your children will be shepherds in the wilderness for forty years. They will suffer because of your unfaithfulness, until the last of your bodies have died in the wilderness. <sup>34</sup> You will suffer for your offences according to the number of days during which you spied out the land. You spied for forty days. You will suffer a year for each day, for forty years. You will experience My opposition. <sup>35</sup> I, the LORD, have spoken. I shall certainly do this to this whole wicked congregation, which has banded together against Me. They will perish in this wilderness and there they will die.”

<sup>36</sup> Therefore, the men whom Moses had sent to spy out the land, who had returned and made the whole congregation grumble against him by spreading an untruthful report about the land, <sup>37</sup> these men, who had authored the bad report about the land, died of a plague before the LORD. <sup>38</sup> Only Joshua, the son of Nun, and Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, survived out of those men, after they had gone to spy out the land.

The unauthorised attempt to enter Canaan and its defeat — Deuteronomy 1:41-45

<sup>39</sup> When Moses reported this to all the Israelites, the people mourned bitterly. <sup>40</sup> They got up early the next morning and went up to the top of the hill-country. They said, “Here we are. We shall go up to the place that the LORD has promised. For we have sinned.”

<sup>41</sup> However, Moses asked: “Why then do you keep on transgressing against the Command of the LORD? This will not be successful! <sup>42</sup> Do not go up! For the LORD is not among you. Desist, that your enemies may not defeat you! <sup>43</sup> For the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there to face you, and you will fall by the sword. For the LORD will not be with you, because you have turned away from following the LORD.”

<sup>44</sup> Nevertheless, they had the audacity to go up to the top of the hill-country, although neither the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD nor Moses left the camp. <sup>45</sup> Then the Amalekites and Canaanites who were living in that hill-country came down, defeated them and scattered them as far as Hormah.

15

Instructions about the offering of grain and wine with sacrifices

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘When you come into the land where you will live, which I am giving to you, <sup>3</sup> and you prepare an offering made by fire to the LORD, from the herd or the flock, either a burnt offering or a sacrifice to fulfil a vow or a freewill offering or an offering at your appointed festivals, to make a soothing aroma to the LORD, <sup>4</sup> then the one who presents his gift shall also offer to the LORD, as a grain-offering, four litres of fine wheat flour mixed with one litre of olive-oil! <sup>5</sup> You shall also prepare, as a drink offering, one litre of wine for each lamb as an addition to the burnt offering or the sacrifice! <sup>6</sup> If it is an addition to a ram, you shall prepare, as a grain-offering, eight litres of fine wheat flour mixed with one litre and two hundred and seventy millilitres of olive-oil! <sup>7</sup> You shall also offer, for a drink offering, one litre and two hundred and seventy millilitres of wine, as a soothing aroma to the LORD!

<sup>8</sup> “When you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering or as a sacrifice to fulfil a vow or as a peace-offering to the LORD, <sup>9</sup> twelve litres of fine wheat flour mixed with two litres of olive-oil shall be offered as an addition to the young bull! <sup>10</sup> You shall also present two litres of wine as a drink offering! It will be a sacrifice made by fire as a soothing aroma to the LORD.

<sup>11</sup> Each bull, each ram, each lamb or each young goat shall be prepared in this manner! <sup>12</sup> Whatever number you prepare, you shall do this for each one of them!

<sup>13</sup> Every native-born Israelite shall do these things in this way when he presents a sacrifice made by fire for a soothing aroma to the LORD! <sup>14</sup> When a stranger is residing among you or when anyone else is living permanently among you in your coming generations and prepares a sacrifice made by fire as a soothing aroma to the LORD, he shall do it in the same way as you do it! <sup>15</sup> The same Statute shall apply to your congregation and to the foreigner who is residing among you! The same Statute shall apply permanently throughout your coming generations! The foreigner shall be as you are before the LORD! <sup>16</sup> The same Law and the same Regulation shall apply both to you and to the stranger who is residing among you!”

The requirement to give the first dough to God

<sup>17</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>18</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘When you come into the land to which I am bringing you, <sup>19</sup> and when you eat any of the bread of the land, you shall present a contribution to the LORD! <sup>20</sup> You shall present a ring-shaped loaf from the first of your dough as a contribution and present it as a contribution from the threshing floor! <sup>21</sup> You shall give some of the first of your dough as a contribution to the LORD throughout your coming generations!

Offerings after unintentional sins

<sup>22</sup> “When you do wrong involuntarily by failing to observe any of these Commandments, which the LORD has spoken to Moses — <sup>23</sup> any of the Commandments that the LORD has given you through Moses, from the day when the LORD gave His Commandments and then on throughout your coming generations — <sup>24</sup> if it has been committed inadvertently and the congregation has not been aware of it, the whole congregation shall prepare one young bull from the herd as a burnt offering, as a soothing aroma to the LORD! You shall prepare it with its accompanying grain-offering and drink offering, as prescribed and one male goat as a sin-offering! <sup>25</sup> The priest shall make atonement for the whole congregation of the Israelites! Then they will be forgiven. For the sin had been unintentional, and they had presented their gift as a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD and had brought their sin-offering before the LORD because of their unintentional sin. <sup>26</sup> So, the whole congregation of the Israelites will be forgiven, together with the foreigner who is living among them. For all the people had been involved in the unintentional wrong.

<sup>27</sup> “However, if one person sins unintentionally, he shall present a one-year old female goat as a sin-offering! <sup>28</sup> The priest shall make atonement before the LORD for the person who has sinned inadvertently! When the priest has made atonement for him, he will be forgiven.

<sup>29</sup> “You shall have the same Law for the person who commits a sin in ignorance, whether he is a native-born Israelite or he is a foreigner who is living among them!

The consequence of deliberate sin

<sup>30</sup> “However, the person who sins deliberately, whether he is a native-born Israelite or a foreigner, and insults the LORD, that person shall be cut off from his people! <sup>31</sup> For he has despised the Word of the LORD and has broken His commandment. That person shall certainly be cut off! His guilt shall remain on him!”

The stoning of a man for breaking the Sabbath — Exodus 31:12-17

<sup>32</sup> While the Israelites were in the wilderness, they found a man collecting pieces of wood on the Sabbath day. <sup>33</sup> Those who had found him collecting pieces of wood brought him to Moses and Aaron and the whole congregation. <sup>34</sup> They put him in custody, because it had not been explained what should be done to him.

<sup>35</sup> The LORD told Moses: “The man shall certainly be put to death! The whole congregation must stone him outside the camp!”

<sup>36</sup> The whole congregation took him outside the camp and stoned him to death as the LORD had commanded Moses.

The command to the Israelites to wear fringes on their garments

<sup>37</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>38</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them to make tassels for themselves on the corners of their garments throughout their coming generations and to attach a cord of purple wool to the tassel on each corner! <sup>39</sup> They shall become your tassels! You shall look at them and remember all the Commandments of the LORD, that you may obey them and may not eagerly go after what you desire in your hearts and what your eyes see! You used to run wantonly after these things. <sup>40</sup> Do this, that you may remember to obey all My Commandments and may be holy to your God! <sup>41</sup> I am the LORD, your God, and I have brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD, your God.”

16

The rebellion of Korah, Dathan and Abiram

<sup>1</sup> Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi and Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, who were Reuben's descendants, gathered a following. <sup>2</sup> They rebelled against Moses, along with two hundred and fifty other Israelites. They were well-known leaders of the congregation and had been appointed by the assembly.

<sup>3</sup> They gathered together against Moses and Aaron. They told them: "You have taken on too much! For the whole congregation is holy, every member of it, and the LORD is among them. Why, then, are you putting yourselves above the assembly of the LORD?"

<sup>4</sup> When Moses heard this, he fell face-down. <sup>5</sup> He told Korah and all his company: "In the morning the LORD will show who is His and who is holy and will cause that person to come near to Him. He will cause the man whom He chooses to come near to Him.

<sup>6</sup> You, Korah, and all your followers should do this: Take fire-pans, <sup>7</sup> put fire in them tomorrow and put incense on them before the LORD! Then the man whom the LORD chooses will be the holy one. You Levites have taken on too much!"

<sup>8</sup> Moses told Korah: "Now listen, Levites! <sup>9</sup> Is it not enough for you that the God of Israel has selected you from the congregation of Israel and has brought you near to Himself to work in the service of the Tabernacle of the LORD and to stand before the congregation to minister to them? <sup>10</sup> He has brought you near Himself with all of your fellow Levites, but now you are demanding the priesthood as well! <sup>11</sup> Therefore, it is against the LORD that you and all your company are gathering together. As for Aaron, what is he, that you should be grumbling against him?"

<sup>12</sup> Moses sent someone to summon Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. However, they answered: "We shall not come! <sup>13</sup> Is it not enough that you have brought us out of a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the wilderness, that you must also keep on lording it over us? <sup>14</sup> Besides, you have not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey or given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards! Will you gouge out the eyes of these men? We shall not come."

<sup>15</sup> Then Moses became very angry and said to the LORD: "Do not pay attention to their grain-offering! I have not taken as much as one donkey from them or harmed any of them."

<sup>16</sup> Moses told Korah: "Tomorrow you and all your followers shall appear before the LORD — both you, they, and Aaron! <sup>17</sup> Each of you shall bring his fire-pan and you shall all put incense on them! Then each of you shall present his fire-pan before the LORD, two hundred and fifty fire-pans in all! You and Aaron shall also come, each with his fire-pan!"

<sup>18</sup> So, each man took his fire-pan. They all put fire in them, laid incense on them and, together with Moses and Aaron, they stood at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>19</sup> When Korah had gathered the entire congregation against them at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting, the glory of the LORD appeared to the whole congregation.

<sup>20</sup> The LORD told Moses and Aaron, <sup>21</sup> "Separate yourselves from this congregation, that I may suddenly destroy them!"

<sup>22</sup> However, Moses and Aaron fell face-down and said: "O God, the God of the breath of life inside all mankind! When one man sins, will You be angry with the whole congregation?"

<sup>23</sup> Then the LORD instructed Moses, <sup>24</sup> "Tell the congregation: 'Move away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram!'"

<sup>25</sup> Then Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram and the elders of Israel followed him. <sup>26</sup> He told the congregation: "Please move back from the tents of these wicked men and do not touch anything belonging to them, that you may not be swept away because of all their sins!"

<sup>27</sup> So, they withdrew from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram. Dathan and Abiram had come out and were standing at the entrances to their tents with their wives, their children and their little ones.

<sup>28</sup> Moses said: "This will show you that the LORD has sent me to do all these things and that I have not done them of my own accord. <sup>29</sup> If these people die as all other human beings die, and, if what happens to all other human beings happens to them, then the LORD has not sent me. <sup>30</sup> However, if the LORD creates something new and the ground opens up its mouth and swallows them and everything that belongs to them and they go down alive into Sheol, then you will know that these men have scornfully rejected the LORD."

<sup>31</sup> As soon as he had finished speaking all these words, the ground that was under them split open.

<sup>32</sup> The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, their families and all the other people who were with Korah, together with all their property. <sup>33</sup> They went down alive to Sheol with everything that belonged to them. The ground closed over them, and so they perished and were gone from the assembly. <sup>34</sup> All the people of Israel who were around them ran away when they heard their cries. For they thought, "We do not want the ground to swallow us, too!"

<sup>35</sup> Then a fire came out from the LORD and consumed the two hundred and fifty men who were offering incense.

<sup>36</sup> Then the LORD instructed Moses: <sup>37</sup> "Tell Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, to pick the fire-pans out of the smouldering remains and scatter the fire elsewhere! For the fire-pans have become holy. <sup>38</sup> The fire-pans of these men, who have sinned at the cost of their lives, shall be hammered into plates to cover the altar! For they have brought the fire-pans before the LORD, so that they have become holy. Let them become a sign to the Israelites!”

<sup>39</sup> So, Eleazar the priest took the bronze fire-pans, which the men who were burned up had presented, and they were hammered out to make a covering for the altar. <sup>40</sup> The covering became a reminder to the Israelites that no unauthorised person, who was not a descendant of Aaron, should come near to burn incense before the LORD, that he might not become like Korah and his company. This was done as the LORD had directed Eleazar through Moses.

<sup>41</sup> The next day the whole congregation of the Israelites grumbled against Moses and Aaron. They said, “You have killed the people of the LORD.”

<sup>42</sup> However, when the congregation had gathered together against Moses and Aaron and turned toward the Tent of Meeting, they saw that the cloud had covered it and that the glory of the LORD had appeared.

<sup>43</sup> Then Moses and Aaron went to the front of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>44</sup> The LORD told Moses, <sup>45</sup> “Move away from this congregation, that I may destroy them at once!”

They fell face-down. <sup>46</sup> Moses told Aaron: “Take the fire-pan and put fire from the altar on it! Lay incense on it, and hurry into the congregation and make atonement for them! For wrath has come out from the LORD. The plague has begun.”

<sup>47</sup> Aaron took it, as Moses had told him, and ran into the middle of the congregation. Indeed, the plague had already begun among the people. Aaron put on the incense and made atonement for the people. <sup>48</sup> He stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was brought to a standstill. <sup>49</sup> The people who died in the plague numbered fourteen thousand, seven hundred, in addition to those who had died in the affair of Korah. <sup>50</sup> Then Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. For the plague had been brought to a standstill.

17

The silencing of complaints by the growing and blossoming of Aaron's staff

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and get from them one staff from each paternal family, one each from all the leaders of their paternal families, twelve staffs! You shall write each man's name on his staff! <sup>3</sup> You shall write Aaron's name on the staff of Levi! For there shall be one staff for the head of each paternal family! <sup>4</sup> You shall place them in front of the Tent of Meeting before the Testimony, where I appear to you! <sup>5</sup> The staff belonging to the man whom I choose will sprout, and I shall rid Myself of the grumblings that the Israelites are making against both of you.”

<sup>6</sup> So, Moses spoke to the Israelites, and all their leaders gave him a staff, one staff for each leader of their paternal families. There were twelve staffs and Aaron's staff was among them. <sup>7</sup> Moses placed the staffs before the LORD in the tent of the Testimony. <sup>8</sup> The next day Moses went into the tent of the Testimony and saw that Aaron's staff for the family of Levi had sprouted and that, after it had sprouted, it had blossomed and produced ripe almonds. <sup>9</sup> Moses brought out all the staffs from the presence of the LORD to all the Israelites. They looked at them, and each man took his own staff. <sup>10</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Put Aaron's staff back in front of the Testimony, to be kept there as a sign to obstinate people! In this way you will bring their grumblings against Me to an end, that they may not die.”

<sup>11</sup> Moses did that. He did as the LORD had commanded him.

<sup>12</sup> The Israelites told Moses: “Look! We are as good as dead! We have perished! All of us have perished!

<sup>13</sup> Anyone who even goes near the Tabernacle of the LORD will die. Are we all going to die?”

18

The responsibilities of the Levites and the priests

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Aaron: “You, together with your sons and your father's family, will be responsible for any sins connected with the Holy Place. You together with your sons will be responsible for any sins associated with your work as priests. <sup>2</sup> Bring with you also your relatives from the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, that they may join you and assist you and your sons before the tent of the Testimony! <sup>3</sup> They shall fulfil their responsibilities to you and to the whole tent but shall not come near the equipment of the Holy Place or the altar, that both they and you may not die!

<sup>4</sup> They shall join you and attend to the needs of the Tent of Meeting, including all the service at the tent! However, no unauthorised person shall come near you! <sup>5</sup> You people shall attend to the duties of the Holy Place and the altar, that the Israelites may not incur wrath again! <sup>6</sup> Be aware that I Myself have chosen your relatives, the Levites, from among the Israelites. They are a gift to you and allotted to the LORD, to attend to the service at the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>7</sup> However, you and your sons shall carry out your priestly work, in connection with everything at the altar and inside the curtain! You shall attend to the service as a gift! I shall give you your priestly work. However, any unauthorised person who comes near shall be put to death!”

The support of the priests and Levites through the contributions of the people

<sup>8</sup> The LORD told Aaron: “Look! I Myself have given you the responsibility for the contributions made to Me in connection with all the holy offerings of the Israelites. I have given them as a portion to you and your descendants as a permanent rule. <sup>9</sup> This is what shall belong to you out of the most holy offerings, kept back from the fire! All their gifts, including all their grain-offerings, all their sin-offerings and all their guilt-offerings, which they render to Me, shall be most holy, belonging to you and your sons! <sup>10</sup> You shall eat it in a most holy place! Any male may eat it. You shall regard it as holy!

<sup>11</sup> “This also is yours: whatever gifts the Israelites contribute in connection with all their wave offerings. I have given them to you, your sons and your daughters as your regular portion. Any ceremonially clean person in your family may eat them. <sup>12</sup> I have given to you all the best of the olive-oil, all the best wine and grain that they give to the LORD as their first-fruits.

<sup>13</sup> The first products of everything that is in their land, which they will bring to the LORD, shall be yours! Any ceremonially clean person in your family may eat them. <sup>14</sup> Everything set apart for holy use in Israel shall be yours! <sup>15</sup> Every first-born of any living thing, both man and animal, which they will bring to the LORD, shall be yours! Nevertheless, you shall certainly redeem the first-born of human beings and redeem the first-born of any unclean animal! <sup>16</sup> When a boy is one month old, you shall redeem him at the ransom value of sixty grams of silver according to the shekel at the Holy Place, which weighs twenty gerahs!

<sup>17</sup> Nevertheless, you shall not redeem the first-born of a cow, a sheep or a goat! They are holy. You shall pour their blood out against the altar and burn their fat as an offering made by fire, for a soothing aroma to the LORD! <sup>18</sup> Their meat shall be yours, just as the brisket of the wave offering and the right leg are yours! <sup>19</sup> I have given to you, to your sons and to your daughters, as a regular portion, all the holy contributions that the Israelites offer to the LORD. It shall be an everlasting Covenant of salt before the LORD, for you and for your descendants!”

<sup>20</sup> The LORD told Aaron: “You shall have no inheritance in their land or any share among them! I am your Share and your Inheritance among the Israelites. <sup>21</sup> Be aware that I have given to the Levites every tithe in Israel as their inheritance, as compensation for their service, which they are carrying out, the service at the Tent of Meeting. <sup>22</sup> The other Israelites shall never again come near the Tent of Meeting! Otherwise, they will bring sin on themselves and die. <sup>23</sup> The Levites are the ones who shall carry out the service at the Tent of Meeting! They shall be responsible for any guilt on their part! This shall be a permanent Statute throughout your coming generations! They shall not inherit any property among the Israelites! <sup>24</sup> For I have given to the Levites, as their inheritance, the tithe, which the Israelites will contribute to the LORD. That is why I have said about them, ‘They will not inherit any property among the Israelites.’”

<sup>25</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>26</sup> “You shall speak to the Levites and tell them: ‘When you receive from the Israelites the tithe, which I have given you from them as your inheritance, you shall present a tenth out of the tithe as the contribution of the LORD! <sup>27</sup> Your contribution will be credited to you as if it were grain from the threshing floor or as full yield from the winepress. <sup>28</sup> In this way you yourselves will also present a contribution to the LORD out of all the tithes that you will receive from the Israelites. Out of these tithes you shall give the contribution of the LORD to Aaron the priest! <sup>29</sup> You shall present every contribution to the LORD out of all the choicest parts of all your gifts, as the holiest parts of them!

<sup>30</sup> “You shall also tell them: ‘When you present the choicest parts of them, the rest shall be reckoned as the property of the Levites, as if it were the produce of the threshing floor or of the winepress! <sup>31</sup> You may eat it anywhere with your families. For it is your wages to compensate for your service at the Tent of Meeting. <sup>32</sup> You will not bear sin because of it when you have presented the best part out of it. Then you will not profane the holy offerings of the Israelites and you will not die.’”

19

The cleansing of persons who become ceremonially unclean through contact with a dead body

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses and Aaron: “This is the requirement of the Law that the LORD has commanded: ‘Tell the Israelites to bring you a red heifer that has no defect or blemish in it and that has never had a yoke on it! <sup>3</sup> You people shall give it to Eleazar the priest, and he shall take it outside the camp, and it shall be slaughtered in his presence! <sup>4</sup> Eleazar the priest shall take some of its blood with his finger and sprinkle it seven times in the direction of the front of the Tent of Meeting! <sup>5</sup> The heifer shall be burnt while he watches! Its hide, its meat, its blood, as well as the contents of its stomach shall be burnt! <sup>6</sup> The priest shall take cedar-wood, hyssop and a crimson yarn and throw them into the fire that is burning the heifer! <sup>7</sup> Then the priest shall wash his clothes and bathe his body in water! After that he may come into the camp. However, the priest shall be ceremonially unclean until the evening. <sup>8</sup> The one who burns the heifer shall also wash his clothes in water, bathe his body in water and be ceremonially unclean until the evening! <sup>9</sup> Then a man who is ceremonially clean shall gather the ashes of the heifer and put them in a clean place outside the camp! They shall be preserved for the congregation of the Israelites for use in the water to remove impurity! It is for purification from sin. <sup>10</sup> The man who gathers the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes and be unclean until the evening! This shall be a permanent Statute for the Israelites and for the stranger who is living among them!

<sup>11</sup> “Whoever touches the dead body of any human person shall be unclean for seven days! <sup>12</sup> He shall free himself from sin with the water on the third day and the seventh day! Then he will be clean. However, if he does not free himself from sin on the third day and on the seventh day, he will not become clean. <sup>13</sup> Whoever touches the body of any human person who dies and does not free himself from sin, has profaned the Tabernacle of the LORD. That person shall be cut off from Israel! For the water to remove impurity has not been poured out on him. He shall be unclean! His uncleanness remains on him. <sup>14</sup> This is the Law when a human being dies in a tent: Everyone who enters the tent and everyone who is in the tent shall be unclean for seven days! <sup>15</sup> Every open container that has no lid fastened on it by a cord shall be unclean! <sup>16</sup> Everyone in the open field who touches someone who has been killed with a sword or who has died or touches a human bone or a grave shall be unclean for seven days! <sup>17</sup> For such an unclean person, people shall take some ashes left by the burning of the sin-offering and pour fresh water over them in a container! <sup>18</sup> Then a ceremonially clean person shall take some hyssop, dip it in the water and sprinkle the tent, all the furnishings and all the persons who were there, and anyone who has touched the bone or the person who has been slain or the person who has died or the grave! <sup>19</sup> The clean person shall sprinkle it on the unclean person on the third day and on the seventh day and so shall free him from sin by the seventh day! Then he shall wash his clothes and bathe in water! Then in the evening he will be clean. <sup>20</sup> However, any person who becomes unclean and does not free himself from sin shall be cut off from the congregation! For he has profaned the sanctuary of the LORD. The water to remove impurity has not been poured out on him. He is unclean. <sup>21</sup> This shall be a permanent Statute for them! The one who sprinkles the water to remove impurity shall wash his clothes and anyone who touches the water to remove impurity shall be unclean until the evening! <sup>22</sup> Everything that the unclean person touches shall be unclean, and any person who touches him shall be unclean until the evening!"

20

The supply of water from a rock and Moses' disobedience — Deuteronomy 3:23-29, — compare Exodus 17:1-7

<sup>1</sup> The whole congregation of the Israelites came into the wilderness of Zin in the first month and the people stayed at Kadesh. There Miriam died and was buried.

<sup>2</sup> The congregation had no water and the people gathered against Moses and Aaron. <sup>3</sup> The people quarrelled with Moses. They said: "We wish that we had died when our fellow-Israelites died before the LORD! <sup>4</sup> Why have you brought the assembly of the LORD into this wilderness, so that we and our livestock should die here? <sup>5</sup> Why have you people made us come up out of Egypt to bring us into this unfavourable place? The place has no grain, figs, grapes or pomegranates, and there is no water to drink!"

<sup>6</sup> Moses and Aaron went from the assembly to the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. They fell face-down, and the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>8</sup> "You and your brother Aaron, take the staff and gather the congregation!

Speak to that rock while they are watching you! Then it will yield its water. You will bring water out of the rock for them and provide drink to the congregation and their livestock."

<sup>9</sup> Moses took the staff from the presence of the LORD as He had commanded him. <sup>10</sup> Then Moses and Aaron gathered the assembly together in front of the rock. He told them, "Just listen, rebels! Must we bring water for you out of this rock?"

<sup>11</sup> Then Moses raised his hand and struck the rock twice with his staff. A great deal of water gushed out, and the congregation and their livestock drank.

<sup>12</sup> However, the LORD told Moses and Aaron: "Because you have not trusted Me, so that you should treat Me as holy while the Israelites were watching, you will not bring this assembly into the land that I have given them."

<sup>13</sup> That was the water of Meribah,<sup>*70</sup> where the Israelites quarrelled with the LORD and where He proved Himself holy among them.

The refusal of the Edomites to allow Israel to pass through their country

<sup>14</sup> Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, to tell him: "This is what your brother Israel has said: 'You know all the hardship that we have endured. <sup>15</sup> Our fathers went down to Egypt, and we lived in Egypt for a long time. The Egyptians mistreated our fathers and us. <sup>16</sup> We cried out to the LORD, and He heard our cry, sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt. Now we are here in Kadesh, a city on the edge of your territory. <sup>17</sup> Please let us pass through your country! We shall not go through any field or vineyard or drink water from any well. We shall go along the King's Highway and not turn aside to the right or the left until we have passed through your territory.'" "

<sup>18</sup> However, Edom answered him: "You shall not pass through my land! If you try, I shall come out against you with the sword."

<sup>19</sup> So, the Israelites told him: "We shall go along the formed road and, if we or our livestock drink any of your water, we shall pay for it. We merely want to pass through on foot, nothing else."

<sup>20</sup> Edom answered, "You shall not pass through!"

Then Edom came out against them with a large and powerful army. <sup>21</sup> When the Edomites refused to allow Israel to pass through their territory, Israel turned away from them.

The death of Aaron

<sup>22</sup> The whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor. <sup>23</sup> At Mount Hor, near the border of the land of Edom, the LORD told Moses and Aaron: <sup>24</sup> "Aaron will be gathered to his people. For he will not enter the land that I have given to the Israelites, because you people rebelled against My Word at the water of Meribah. <sup>25</sup> Take Aaron and his son Eleazar and bring them up on Mount Hor! <sup>26</sup> Remove Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar! Then Aaron will be gathered to his people and die there."

<sup>70</sup> "Meribah" means, "Quarrelling."

<sup>27</sup> Moses did as the Lord had commanded. They went up on Mount Hor while the whole congregation was watching. <sup>28</sup> Moses removed Aaron's garments and put them on his son Eleazar. Aaron died there on top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. <sup>29</sup> When the whole congregation learned that Aaron had died, the entire household of Israel mourned for Aaron for thirty days.

21

The defeat of the Canaanite king of Arad

<sup>1</sup> When the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming along the road to Atharim, he fought against Israel and captured some of them. <sup>2</sup> Then Israel made this vow to the LORD: "If You indeed deliver these people into our hands, I shall completely destroy their cities."

<sup>3</sup> The LORD heard Israel's request and delivered the Canaanites to them. Israel devoted them and their cities to destruction and named the place "Hormah."<sup>*71</sup>

The setting up of a bronze snake on a pole — compare John 3:14

<sup>4</sup> Then they journeyed from Mount Hor on the road to the Red Sea to go around the land of Edom, but the people grew impatient on the way. <sup>5</sup> The people spoke against God and against Moses: "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread or water, and we detest this wretched food."

<sup>6</sup> Then the LORD sent poisonous snakes among the people. They bit the people, and many of the people of Israel died. <sup>7</sup> Then the people came to Moses and said: "We have sinned, because we have spoken against the LORD and against you. Pray to the LORD, that He may take the snakes away from us!"

So, Moses prayed for the people. <sup>8</sup> The LORD told Moses: "Make a fiery snake and put it on a pole! Anyone who has been bitten should look at it! Then he will live."

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, Moses made a bronze snake and put it up on a pole. Then, when anyone who had been bitten by a snake looked at the bronze snake, he lived.

The journey of the Israelites past Edom and to the east of Moab

<sup>11</sup> The Israelites moved on and camped at Oboth.

<sup>11</sup> After they left Oboth, they camped at Iye-Abarim in the wilderness that faces Moab on the eastern side.

<sup>12</sup> From there they moved on and camped in the Zered Valley. <sup>13</sup> They set out from there and camped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that extends out from the border of the Amorites. For the Arnon is Moab's border between Moab and the Amorites. <sup>14</sup> This is why it is said in the Book of the Wars of the LORD: "Waheb in Suphah and the ravines, the Arnon, <sup>15</sup> and the slopes of the ravines that extend toward the site of Ar and that lean on the border of Moab."

<sup>16</sup> From there they went to Beer. This was the well where the LORD told Moses: "Gather the people together, that I may give them water!"

<sup>17</sup> Then Israel kept singing this song: "Spring up, O well! Sing about it, <sup>18</sup> the well that princes have sunk, that the nobles of the people have dug with their sceptres and their staffs!"

Then they went from the wilderness to Mattanah.

<sup>19</sup> From Mattanah they moved to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth, <sup>20</sup> and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the open country of Moab, beside the top of Pisgah, where it looks down on the wilderness.

The defeat of Sihon, the king of the Amorites — Deuteronomy 2:24-37, Joshua 12:1-6

<sup>21</sup> Then Israel sent messengers to tell Sihon, the king of the Amorites: <sup>22</sup> "Let me pass through your land! We shall not turn aside into any field or vineyard. We shall not drink water from any well. We shall go along the King's Highway until we have passed through your territory."

<sup>23</sup> However, Sihon did not permit Israel to pass through his territory. Sihon gathered his whole army and came out into the wilderness against Israel. When he reached Jahaz, he fought against Israel.

<sup>24</sup> Nevertheless, Israel struck him down with the edge of the sword and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok but only as far as the Ammonites. For the Ammonite border was fortified. <sup>25</sup> Israel captured all these cities and Israel settled in all the cities of the Amorites, including Heshbon and all its neighbouring settlements. <sup>26</sup> For Heshbon had been the city of Sihon, the Amorite king. He had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken from him all his land as far as the Arnon. <sup>27</sup> That is why those who compose proverbs say:

"Come to Heshbon! Let it be rebuilt! Let the city of Sihon be restored!

<sup>28</sup> For fire has come out of Heshbon, flame from the city of Sihon. It has consumed Ar of Moab, the land-owners on the heights of the Arnon.

<sup>29</sup> How terrible for you, Moab! You have perished, people of Chemosh! Chemosh has yielded up his sons as fugitives and his daughters as captives of Sihon, the king of the Amorites.

<sup>30</sup> However, we have shot arrows on them. Heshbon has been destroyed as far as Dibon. We have laid waste as far as Nophah, which reaches as far as Medeba."

<sup>31</sup> So, Israel settled in the land of the Amorites.

The defeat of Og, the king of Bashan — Deuteronomy 3:1-22

<sup>32</sup> Then Moses sent some men to spy out Jazer and they captured its neighbouring settlements and drove out the Amorites who were there. <sup>33</sup> Then they turned and went up along the road towards Bashan. Og, the king of Bashan, came out with his whole army to meet them in battle at Edrei. <sup>34</sup> The LORD told Moses: "Do not be afraid of him! For I have put him, all his people and his land into your hands. Do to him what you have done to Sihon, the king of the Amorites, who used to live in Heshbon!”

<sup>71</sup> Hormah means, "Banned to destruction."

<sup>35</sup> So, they struck him down, together with his sons and his whole army, so that he had no survivors, and took possession of his land.

22

The refusal of Balaam to come to Moab to curse the Israelites

<sup>1</sup> Then the Israelites moved and camped on the waterless plains of Moab, on the opposite side of the Jordan from Jericho. <sup>2</sup> Balak, the son of Zippor, saw everything that Israel had done to the Amorites, <sup>3</sup> and Moab was very afraid of the people because there were so many of them. Moab felt disgust with the Israelites. <sup>4</sup> The Moabites told the elders of Midian, “Now this crowd of people will lick up everything around us like an ox licking up the grass in the field.”

At that time Balak, the son of Zippor, was the king of Moab. <sup>5</sup> He sent messengers to Balaam, the son of Beor, at Pethor, which was in his people’s land near the Euphrates, to summon him. Balak said: “Look! A people has come out of Egypt. Indeed, they have covered the surface of the land and are settling in front of me. <sup>6</sup> So now, please come! Curse this people for me! For they are too powerful for me. Then perhaps I shall prevail, that I may defeat them and that I may drive them out of the land. For I know that the one whom you bless is blessed and that the one whom you curse is cursed.”

<sup>7</sup> The elders of Moab and the elders of Midian left with the fees for sorcery in their hands. They came to Balaam and told him what Balak had said. <sup>8</sup> He told them: “Stay here tonight! I shall report to you the reply that the LORD makes to me.”

So, the princes of Moab stayed with Balaam. <sup>9</sup> God came to Balaam and asked, “Who are these men with you?”

<sup>10</sup> Balaam replied to God: “Balak, the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, has sent them to me. <sup>11</sup> He says, ‘Look! This people has come out of Egypt and are covering the surface of the land. Come now! Curse them for me! Perhaps I shall be able to fight them, that I may drive them away.’”

<sup>12</sup> God told Balaam: “You shall not go with them! You shall not curse the people! For they are blessed.”

<sup>13</sup> When Balaam got up in the morning, he told Balak’s princes: “Go to your own land! For the LORD has refused to allow me to go with you!”

<sup>14</sup> The princes of Moab left and came to Balak! They said, “Balaam has refused to come with us!”

<sup>15</sup> Balak again sent other princes, this time a larger group, which was higher in rank than the others were.

<sup>16</sup> When they came to Balaam, they told him: “This is what Balak, the son of Zippor, has said: ‘Please do not let yourself be deterred from coming to me! <sup>17</sup> For I shall reward you very richly. I shall also do whatever you ask me. So, please come! Curse these people for me!’”

<sup>18</sup> Balaam answered Balak’s officials: “If Balak were to give me his palace full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the Directions of the LORD, my God, to do anything less or more. <sup>19</sup> So now you, too, please stay here tonight, that I may find out what else the LORD will tell me!”

<sup>20</sup> God came to Balaam at night and told him: “If the men have come to summon you, leave and go with them! However, you shall do only what I tell you!”

Balaam’s journey to Moab and his donkey’s rebuke to him

<sup>21</sup> When Balaam got up in the morning, he saddled his donkey and went with the princes of Moab. <sup>22</sup> However, God’s anger was aroused because he was going, and the Angel of the LORD took His stand on the road to oppose him. He was riding his donkey, and his two servants were with him. <sup>23</sup> When the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD standing on the road with His drawn sword in His hand, the donkey turned off the road and went into a field. Balaam hit the donkey to turn her back onto the road. <sup>24</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD stood on a narrow path between vineyards where there was a stone wall on each side. <sup>25</sup> When the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she pushed against the wall and pressed Balaam’s foot against the wall. Then he hit her again. <sup>26</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD moved on again and stood in a narrow place, where there was no room to turn to the right or to the left. <sup>27</sup> When the donkey saw the Angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam. Balaam’s anger was aroused and he hit the donkey with his staff. <sup>28</sup> Then the LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she asked Balaam, “What have I done to you, that you have hit me these three times?”

<sup>29</sup> Balaam told the donkey: “Because you have made a fool of me! If only I had a sword in my hand, I would kill you now.”

<sup>30</sup> The donkey asked Balaam: “Am I not your donkey, which you have always ridden until today? Have I really been in the habit of doing this kind of thing to you?”

He answered, “No.”

<sup>31</sup> Then the LORD opened Balaam’s eyes, and he saw the Angel of the LORD standing on the road with His drawn sword in His hand. He fell face-down and worshipped. <sup>32</sup> The Angel of the LORD asked him: “Why did you hit your donkey these three times? Look! I have come out Myself to oppose you, because your path against Me has been a steep one. <sup>33</sup> When the donkey saw Me, she turned away from Me these three times. If she had not turned away from Me, I would have killed you by now and would have let her live.”

<sup>34</sup> Balaam told the Angel of the LORD: “I have sinned. For I did not know that You were standing on the road to oppose me. However, now, if this displeases You, I shall go back.”

<sup>35</sup> Nevertheless, the Angel of the LORD told Balaam, “Go with the men but speak only the Word that I shall speak to you!”

So, Balaam went on with the princes of Balak.

The King of Moab's disappointment with Balaam

<sup>36</sup> When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him at the city of Moab that is on the border at the Arnon, at the edge of his territory. <sup>37</sup> Balak asked Balaam: “Did I not send men urgently to you to summon you? Why did you not come to me? Am I really unable to honour you?”

<sup>38</sup> Balaam told Balak: “You see that I have come to you now. Have I any ability of my own to say anything? I shall be speaking only what God puts in my mouth.”

<sup>39</sup> Balaam went with Balak, and they came to Kiriath-Huzoth. <sup>40</sup> Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep and sent some of them to Balaam and the princes who were with him. <sup>41</sup> The next morning Balak took Balaam and brought him up to Bamoth-Baal, from where he could see the nearest part of the people.

23

The first prophecy of Balaam

<sup>1</sup> Balaam told Balak, “Build me seven altars here and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me here!”

<sup>2</sup> Balak did what Balaam had asked, and Balak and Balaam sacrificed a bull and a ram on each altar!

<sup>3</sup> Balaam told Balak: “Stand beside your burnt offering that I may go away! Perhaps the LORD will make Himself available to meet me. I shall tell you whatever Word He reveals to me.”

Then he went away along a bare track. <sup>4</sup> God met Balaam, and Balaam told Him: “I have set out the seven altars and have sacrificed a bull and a ram on each altar.”

<sup>5</sup> The LORD put a Message into Balaam's mouth. He said, “Go back to Balak and speak this Message!”

<sup>6</sup> So, he went back to him and found him standing beside his burnt offering with all the princes of Moab.

<sup>7</sup> Then Balaam pronounced his Oracle:

“Balak has brought me from Aram, Balak the king of Moab, from the mountains of the east: ‘Come! Curse Jacob for me! Come! Condemn Israel!’

<sup>8</sup> “How shall I curse those whom God has not cursed? How shall I condemn those whom the LORD has not condemned?”

<sup>9</sup> “For I see them from the top of the rocks and gaze on them from the hills. Look! They are a people dwelling alone and do not count themselves among the nations.

<sup>10</sup> “Who can count the dust particles of Jacob? Or who can number the fourth part of Israel? May I die the death of righteous people and may my end be like theirs!”

<sup>11</sup> Balak asked Balaam: “What have you done to me? I have brought you here to curse my enemies. However, look! You have done nothing but bless them!”

<sup>12</sup> Balaam answered: “Shall I not faithfully speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?”

The second prophecy of Balaam

<sup>13</sup> Balak told him: “Please come with me to another place, from where you can see them! You will see only the nearest part of them. You will not see them all. Curse them for me from there!”

<sup>14</sup> So, he took him to the Field of Zophim on the top of Pisgah, built seven altars and sacrificed a bull and a ram on each altar. <sup>15</sup> Then Balaam told Balak, “Stand here beside your burnt offering and let me make myself available there!”

<sup>16</sup> The LORD met Balaam, put a Message in his mouth and said, “Go back to Balak and speak in this way!”

<sup>17</sup> Balaam went to Balak and found him standing beside his burnt offering with the princes of Moab. Balak asked him, “What has the LORD said?”

<sup>18</sup> Then he pronounced his Oracle:

“Rise up, Balak, and listen! Hear me, son of Zippor!

<sup>19</sup> “God is not a man, that He should lie or a son of man, that He should change His mind. If He says something, will He not do it? If He speaks, will He not carry it out?”

<sup>20</sup> “You see! I have received a Command to bless. If He blesses, I shall not reverse it.

<sup>21</sup> “He has not observed calamity in Jacob. He has not seen misfortune in Israel. The LORD, their God, is with them and the shout of a King is among them.

<sup>22</sup> “God has brought them out of Egypt and He is, for them, the horns of an Arabian antelope.

<sup>23</sup> “For there is no magic curse against Jacob and there is no divination against Israel. It will now be said about Jacob and about Israel: ‘See what God has done!’

<sup>24</sup> “Look! A people will rise up like a lioness. They will lift themselves up like a lion. It will not lie down until it devours the prey and drinks the blood of creatures that it has killed.”

<sup>25</sup> Then Balak told Balaam, “You shall neither curse them at all nor bless them at all!”

<sup>26</sup> Balaam answered Balak, “Have I not told you, ‘I shall do everything that the LORD says’?”

<sup>27</sup> Then Balak told Balaam: “Please come! Let me take you to another place! Perhaps God will consider it right if you curse them for me from there.”

<sup>28</sup> So, Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, which overlooks the nearest part of the wasteland. <sup>29</sup> Balaam told Balak, “Build me seven altars here and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me here!”

<sup>30</sup> Balak did what Balaam had told him and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

24

The third prophecy of Balaam

<sup>1</sup> When Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not resort to magic curses as he had done before but turned his face toward the wilderness.

<sup>2</sup> When Balaam looked out and saw that Israel was camping in their separate tribes, God's Spirit came on him, <sup>3</sup> and he proclaimed his Oracle:

"This is the Declaration of Balaam, the son of Beor. This is the Declaration of the man whose eye sees clearly:

<sup>4</sup> "This is the Declaration of him who hears the Words of God. He sees a vision from the Almighty. When he falls down, he has open eyes:

<sup>5</sup> "How attractive are your tents, O Jacob, and your dwelling places, O Israel!

<sup>6</sup> "They are like streambeds that have spread out, like gardens beside a river, like aloes that the LORD has planted, like cedar trees beside the waters.

<sup>7</sup> "Water will flow down from His leather buckets, and His seed will have abundant water. His king will rise higher than Agag, and His kingdom will be exalted.

<sup>8</sup> "God has brought Him out of Egypt. He has the strength of an Arabian antelope for them. He will devour nations who are His enemies. He will gnaw His bones and pierce them with His arrows.

<sup>9</sup> "They have crouched and lain down like a lion and, like a lioness, who will rouse them? Blessed is the one who blesses You and cursed is the one who curses You!"

<sup>10</sup> Balak became very angry with Balaam and clapped his hands. Balak told Balaam: "I have summoned you to curse my enemies but look! You have continued to bless them these three times. <sup>11</sup> So now, leave at once and go back home! I had promised that I would certainly honour you, but, you see, the LORD has prevented you from being honoured."

<sup>12</sup> Balaam answered Balak "Did I not already tell your messengers, whom you sent to me, <sup>13</sup> 'If Balak were to give me his palace full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the Directions of the LORD to do anything good or bad of my own accord. I shall speak only what the LORD speaks'? <sup>14</sup> So now, you see, I am going back to my people. Come! Let me advise you what these people will do to your people in the future!"

The fourth prophecy of Balaam

<sup>15</sup> Then he proclaimed his Oracle:

"This is the Oracle of Balaam, the son of Beor, the Oracle of the man whose eye sees clearly, <sup>16</sup> the Declaration of him who hears the Words of God, who has knowledge from the Most High, who sees a vision from the Almighty. When he falls down, he has open eyes:

<sup>17</sup> "I shall see Him who is not here now. I shall gaze on Him who is not near. A Star will come from Jacob. A Sceptre will rise from Israel. He will beat to pieces the heads of Moab and the skulls of all the sons of Sheth.

<sup>18</sup> "Edom will be occupied land, and Seir, Edom's enemy, will be occupied land, but Israel will gain strength.

<sup>19</sup> "One from Jacob will rule and will destroy the survivors from the city."

<sup>20</sup> Then Balaam looked at Amalek and proclaimed his Oracle:

"Amalek was first among the nations but in the end he will be destroyed."

<sup>21</sup> Then he looked at the Kenites and proclaimed his Oracle:

"Your dwelling-place is permanent. Your nest is set on a rock.

<sup>22</sup> "However, it will fall into ruin, O Kenite. How long until Asshur takes you away as a captive?"

<sup>23</sup> Then he proclaimed his Oracle:

"How terrible! Who will live because God has appointed this to happen?

<sup>24</sup> "Ships will come from the coast of Cyprus. They will humiliate Asshur and humiliate Eber. However, they too will be destroyed."

<sup>25</sup> Then Balaam left and went back home and Balak also went his way.

25

The worship of Baal by the Israelites at Peor

<sup>1</sup> While Israel was staying at Shittim, the people began to sin sexually with Moabite women. <sup>2</sup> The women invited the people to the sacrifices to their gods. The people ate food and worshipped their gods.

<sup>3</sup> When the Israelites attached themselves to the Baal of Peor, the anger of the LORD burned against Israel.

<sup>4</sup> The LORD told Moses: "Take all the leaders of these people and expose them with broken limbs in the light of the sun before the LORD, that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel!"

<sup>5</sup> So, Moses told the judges of Israel: "Each of you, kill those of your men who have attached themselves to the Baal of Peor!"

<sup>6</sup> Indeed, an Israelite man came and brought to his kinsmen a Midianite woman in plain view of Moses and of the whole congregation of the Israelites while they were weeping at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>7</sup> When Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw this, he left the congregation and took a spear in his hand. <sup>8</sup> He followed the Israelite man into the women's quarters and pierced both of them, through the Israelite man and into the woman's belly. So, the plague against the Israelites was stopped. <sup>9</sup> Nevertheless, those who died in the plague numbered twenty-four thousand.

The Covenant of God with the priest Phinehas

<sup>10</sup> Then the LORD told Moses: <sup>11</sup> "Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, turned My anger away from the Israelites when he eagerly supported My jealousy among them. As a result, I did not, in My jealousy, completely destroy the Israelites.

<sup>12</sup> Announce, therefore: 'Look! I am making My Covenant of peace with him! <sup>13</sup> He and his descendants after him will have a Covenant that ensures a permanent priesthood, because he was zealous for his God and made atonement for the Israelites.”

<sup>14</sup> The name of the Israelite man who was killed, the one killed with the Midianite woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, the leader of a clan of Simeon. <sup>15</sup> The name of the Midianite woman who was killed was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur, who was a tribal chief of a Midianite clan.

<sup>16</sup> Then the LORD told Moses: <sup>17</sup> “Treat the Midianites as enemies and attack them! <sup>18</sup> For they have treated you as enemies with their cunning schemes, by which they have tricked you in the incident at Peor and in the affair of Cozbi, the daughter of the prince of Midian.”

She was one of their women, who was killed at the time when the plague struck because of what happened at Peor.

26

The census of the new generation of the Israelites — compare Numbers 1

<sup>1</sup> After the plague the LORD told Moses and Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest: <sup>2</sup> “Take a census of the whole congregation of the Israelites, of the people who are twenty years old or more, according to their clans, everyone in Israel who can serve in the army!”

<sup>3</sup> Moses and Eleazar the priest told them, in the waterless regions of Moab near the Jordan across from Jericho: <sup>4</sup> “Take a census of the people who are twenty years or more, as the LORD has commanded Moses!” The Israelites, who had come from the land of Egypt, were as follows. <sup>5</sup> Reuben was Israel’s first-born. The descendants of Reuben were: from Hanoth the clan of the Hanothites; from Pallu the clan of the Palluites; <sup>6</sup> from Hezron the clan of the Hezronites; from Carmi the clan of the Carmites. <sup>7</sup> These were the clans of Reuben. Those of them who were counted were forty-three thousand, seven hundred and thirty. <sup>8</sup> Eliab was the son of Pallu, <sup>9</sup> and the sons of Eliab were Nemuel, Dathan and Abiram. Dathan and Abiram were the men whom the congregation had chosen, and who had quarrelled with Moses and Aaron. They had been in Korah’s band when they quarrelled with the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> The ground had opened its mouth and swallowed them along with Korah, when his band had died as the fire consumed the two hundred and fifty men. They had served as a warning. <sup>11</sup> However, the sons of Korah did not die.

<sup>12</sup> The descendants of Simeon by their clans were: from Nemuel the clan of the Nemuelites, <sup>13</sup> from Jamin the clan of the Jaminites; from Jachin the clan of the Jachinites; <sup>13</sup> from Zerah the clan of the Zerahites; and from Shaul the clan of the Shaulites. <sup>14</sup> These were the clans of Simeon. They totalled twenty-two thousand, two hundred.

<sup>15</sup> The descendants of Gad by their clans were: from Zephon the clan of the Zephonites; from Haggai the clan of the Haggites; from Shuni the clan of the Shunites; <sup>16</sup> from Ozni the clan of the Oznites; from Eri the clan of the Erites; <sup>17</sup> from Arod the clan of the Arodites; and from Areli the clan of the Arelites. <sup>18</sup> These were the clans of the sons of Gad. Those of them who were counted totalled forty thousand, five hundred.

<sup>19</sup> Er and Onan were sons of Judah but Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan. <sup>20</sup> The descendants of Judah by their clans were: from Shelah the clan of the Shelanites; from Perez the clan of the Parzites; from Zerah the clan of the Zerahites. <sup>21</sup> The descendants of Perez were: from Hezron the clan of the Hezronites; from Hamul the clan of the Hamulites. <sup>22</sup> “These were the clans of Judah. Those of them who were counted totalled seventy-six thousand, five hundred.

<sup>23</sup> The descendants of Issachar by their clans were: from Tola the clan of the Tolaites; from Puah the clan of the Punites; <sup>24</sup> from Jashub the clan of the Jashubites; from Shimron the clan of the Shimronites. <sup>25</sup> These were the clans of Issachar. Those of them who were counted totalled sixty-four thousand, three hundred.

<sup>26</sup> The descendants of Zebulun by their clans were: from Sered the clan of the Sardites; from Elon the clan of the Elonites; from Jahleel the clan of the Jahleelites. <sup>27</sup> These were the clans of Zebulun. Those of them who were counted totalled sixty thousand, five hundred.

<sup>28</sup> The descendants of Joseph by their clans through Manasseh and Ephraim were: <sup>29</sup> the descendants of Manasseh: from Machir, the clan of the Machirites, and Machir was the father of Gilead; and from Gilead the clan of the Gileadites. <sup>30</sup> These were the descendants of Gilead: from Iezer the clan of the Iezerites; from Helek the clan of the Helekites; <sup>31</sup> from Asriel the clan of the Asrielites; from Shechem the clan of the Shechemites; <sup>32</sup> from Shemida the clan of the Shemidaites; and from Hopher the clan of the Hopherites. <sup>33</sup> Zelophehad, the son of Hopher, had no sons but only daughters. The names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah. <sup>34</sup> These were the clans of Manasseh. Those of them who were counted totalled fifty-two thousand, seven hundred.

<sup>35</sup> These were the descendants of Ephraim by their clans: from Shuthelah the clan of the Shuthalmites; from Becher the clan of the Bachrites; and from Tahan the clan of the Tahanites. <sup>36</sup> These were the descendants of Shuthelah: from Eran the clan of the Eranites. <sup>37</sup> These were the clans of the sons of Ephraim. Those of them who were counted totalled thirty-two thousand, five hundred. These were the descendants of Joseph by their clans.

<sup>38</sup> The descendants of Benjamin by their clans were: from Bela the clan of the Belaites; from Ashbel the clan of the Ashbelites; from Ahiham the clan of the Ahramites; <sup>39</sup> from Shupham the clan of the Shuphamites; and from Hupham the clan of the Huphamites. <sup>40</sup> The descendants of Bela through Ard and Naaman were: from Ard the clan of the Ardites and from Naaman the clan of the Naamanites. <sup>41</sup> These were the descendants of Benjamin by their clans. Those of them who were counted totalled forty-five thousand, six hundred.

<sup>42</sup> These were the descendants of Dan by their clans: from Shuham the clan of the Shuhamites. These were the clans of Dan by their clans. <sup>43</sup> All of them were Shuhamite clans. Those of them who were counted totalled sixty-four thousand, four hundred.

<sup>44</sup> The descendants of Asher by their clans were: from Imnah the clan of the Imnites; from Ishvi the clan of the Ishvites; from Beriah the clan of the Beriites.

<sup>45</sup> The descendants of Beriah were: from Heber the clan of the Heberites and from Malchiel the clan of the Malchielites. <sup>46</sup> The name of the daughter of Asher was Serah. <sup>47</sup> These were the clans of the sons of Asher. Those of them who were counted totalled fifty-three thousand, four hundred.

<sup>48</sup> The descendants of Naphtali by their clans were: from Jahzeel the clan of the Jahzeelites; from Guni the clan of the Gunites; <sup>49</sup> from Jezer the clan of the Jezerites: from Shillem, the clan of the Shillemites.

<sup>50</sup> These were the clans of Naphtali by their clans. Those of them who were counted totalled forty-five thousand, four hundred.

<sup>51</sup> The total of Israelites who were counted was six hundred and one thousand, seven hundred and thirty.

<sup>52</sup> Then the LORD told Moses: <sup>53</sup> "The land shall be allotted as an inheritance among these according to the number of names! <sup>54</sup> You shall give a larger inheritance to a large tribe and a smaller inheritance to a small one! Each tribe shall be given its inheritance according to the number of those who have been counted! <sup>55</sup> However, the land shall be distributed by lot! The people shall obtain their inheritance according to the names of the tribes of their fathers! <sup>56</sup> Each inheritance shall be distributed by lot among the larger and smaller clans!"

<sup>57</sup> These were the Levites who were counted by their clans: from Gershon the clan of the Gershonites, from Kohath the clan of the Kohathites, from Merari the clan of the Merarites. <sup>58</sup> These also were Levite clans: the clan of the Libnites, the clan of the Hebronites, the clan of the Mahlites, the clan of the Mushites and the clan of the Korahites. Kohath was the ancestor of Amram. <sup>59</sup> The name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, a female descendant of Levi, who was born to the Levites in Egypt. To Amram she bore Aaron, Moses and their sister Miriam. <sup>60</sup> Aaron was the father of Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>61</sup> However, Nadab and Abihu had died when they had offered unauthorised fire before the LORD. <sup>62</sup> Those of the males who were counted, from one month old and more, totalled

twenty-three thousand. They were not counted along with the other Israelites, because they were not given any inheritance among the other Israelites. <sup>63</sup> These were the people whom Moses and Eleazar the priest counted when they counted the Israelites on the waterless plains of Moab near the Jordan across from Jericho. <sup>64</sup> Among these there was not a single man whom Moses and Aaron the priest had counted when they had counted the Israelites in the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>65</sup> For the LORD had told them: "They will certainly die in the wilderness!"

So, not one of them was left except Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

27

Permission to the daughters of Zelophehad to inherit their father's property — Numbers 26:33, Numbers 36:1-12

<sup>1</sup> The daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, members of the clans of Manasseh, the son of Joseph, came forward. These were the names of the daughters of Zelophehad: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah. <sup>2</sup> They stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders and the whole congregation at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. They said, <sup>3</sup> "Our father died in the wilderness. He was not in the company that gathered together against the LORD in the company of Korah but died for his own sin. He had no sons. <sup>4</sup> Why should our father's name be removed from his clan because he had no son? Give us property among our father's relatives!"

<sup>5</sup> Moses brought their case before the LORD. <sup>6</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>7</sup> "What the daughters of Zelophehad are saying is right. You shall certainly give them property as an inheritance among their father's relatives and transfer their father's inheritance to them! <sup>8</sup> You shall also tell the Israelites: 'When any man dies and has no son, you shall transfer his inheritance to his daughter! <sup>9</sup> If he has no daughter, you shall give his inheritance to his brothers! <sup>10</sup> If he has no brothers, you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers! <sup>11</sup> If his father has no brothers, you shall give his inheritance to the closest relative to him in his clan, that he may possess it! This shall be the legal Statute for the Israelites, as the LORD has commanded Moses!"

The appointment of Joshua to succeed Moses — Deuteronomy 31:1-8

<sup>12</sup> The LORD told Moses: "Go up this mountain in the Abarim range and see the land that I have given to the Israelites! <sup>13</sup> When you have seen it, you too will be gathered to your people, as your brother Aaron was. <sup>14</sup> For both of you rebelled against My Command in the wilderness of Zin when the congregation quarrelled. You did not treat Me as holy in their sight at the water. This was the water of Meribah, at Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin."

<sup>15</sup> Moses answered the LORD: <sup>16</sup> "Let the LORD, the God of the spirits of all mankind, appoint over the congregation a man <sup>17</sup> who will go out and come in before them and who will lead them out and bring them in, that the congregation of the LORD may not be like sheep without a shepherd!"

<sup>18</sup> The LORD told Moses: "Take Joshua, the son of Nun with you! He is a man who has the Spirit in him! You shall lay your hand on him! <sup>19</sup> You shall have him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole congregation and appoint him in their presence! <sup>20</sup> You shall invest him with some of your authority, that the whole congregation of the Israelites may obey him! <sup>21</sup> He shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who will inquire for him by the Decision of the Urim before the LORD! Then at his command he and the whole congregation of the Israelites with him will go out, and at his command they will come in."

<sup>22</sup> Moses did as the LORD had commanded him. He took Joshua and had him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole congregation. <sup>23</sup> He laid his hands on him and appointed him, as the LORD had directed through Moses.

28

The daily sacrifices — Exodus 29:38-46

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses. <sup>2</sup> "Give this Command to the Israelites and tell them: 'You shall be careful to offer My gift to Me, My food, which is made by fire as a pleasing aroma, that you may offer it to Me at the appointed time!' <sup>3</sup> You shall tell them, 'This is the offering made by fire, which you shall offer to the LORD: two male lambs a year old without blemish as a regular burnt offering each day! <sup>4</sup> You shall prepare the one lamb in the morning and the other lamb at the twilight, <sup>5</sup> with four litres of fine wheat flour, mixed with one litre of oil from beaten olives, as a grain-offering! <sup>6</sup> This is the regular burnt offering, which has been appointed at Mount Sinai, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD for a soothing aroma. <sup>7</sup> Its accompanying drink offering shall be one litre for each lamb! Pour out the intoxicating drink offering to the LORD in the Holy Place! <sup>8</sup> You shall prepare the second animal in the twilight, with the same grain-offering and its accompanying drink offering as in the morning! You shall prepare it as an offering made by fire to the LORD for a soothing aroma!

The sacrifices on the Sabbath

<sup>9</sup> "On the Sabbath day you shall prepare two male lambs one year old without blemish and eight litres of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil as a grain-offering, with its accompanying drink offering! <sup>10</sup> This is the burnt offering for every Sabbath day, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its drink offering.

The sacrifices on each New Moon

<sup>11</sup> "On the first day of each of your months you shall offer to the LORD a burnt offering of two young bulls from the herd, one ram and seven male lambs a year old without blemish! <sup>12</sup> With each bull you shall prepare twelve litres of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil as a grain-offering! With each ram you shall prepare eight litres of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil as a grain-offering! <sup>13</sup> With each one-year-old lamb you shall prepare four litres of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil as a grain-offering! It is a burnt offering for a soothing aroma, a sacrifice made by fire to the LORD. <sup>14</sup> With each bull there shall be its accompanying drink offering of two litres of wine! With each ram, there shall be one litre and two hundred and seventy millilitres! With each lamb there shall be one litre! This is the monthly burnt offering to be made at each New Moon during the year. <sup>15</sup> In addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering, one male goat shall be prepared as a sin-offering to the LORD!

The annual sacrifices — the Passover, Leviticus 23:5-14

<sup>16</sup> "On the fourteenth day of the first month there is the Passover of the LORD. <sup>17</sup> On the fifteenth day of that month there shall be a festival when bread without yeast shall be eaten for seven days! <sup>18</sup> On the first day there shall be a holy assembly! You shall not do any regular work on it! <sup>19</sup> You shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD, as a sacrifice made by fire, two young bulls from the herd, one ram and seven male lambs one year old! You shall use animals that are without blemish! <sup>20</sup> Their accompanying grain-offerings shall be fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil! You shall prepare twelve litres with each bull and eight litres with each ram! <sup>21</sup> You shall prepare four litres with each of the seven lambs! <sup>22</sup> You shall also use one male goat as a sin-offering to make atonement for yourselves! <sup>23</sup> You shall prepare these in addition to the morning burnt offering, which is the regular burnt offering! <sup>24</sup> In this way you shall prepare, on each of the seven days, the food for the offering made by fire, for a soothing aroma to the LORD! It shall be prepared in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering! <sup>25</sup> On the seventh day you shall have a holy assembly! You shall not do any regular work on it!

The sacrifices on the Festival of Weeks (Pentecost or Harvest) — Leviticus 23:15-22, Deuteronomy 16:9-12

<sup>26</sup> "On the day of first-fruits, when you present to the LORD a grain-offering of new grain during the Festival of Weeks, you shall hold a holy assembly! You shall not do any regular work on it! <sup>27</sup> You shall offer, as a burnt offering for a soothing aroma to the LORD, two young bulls from the herd, one ram and seven one-year-old male lambs! <sup>28</sup> With their accompanying grain-offering of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil there shall be twelve litres with each bull, eight litres with each ram, <sup>29</sup> and four litres with each of the seven lambs! <sup>30</sup> You shall also use one male goat to make atonement for yourselves! <sup>31</sup> You shall use animals that are without blemish! You shall prepare them together with their drink offerings, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain-offering!

29

The sacrifices for the Festival of Trumpets — compare Leviticus 23:23-25

1 “On the first day of the seventh month you shall have a holy assembly! You shall not do any regular work on it! It shall be a day for you to sound the trumpets! 2 You shall prepare, as a burnt offering for a soothing aroma to the LORD, one young bull, one ram and seven one year-old male lambs without blemish! 3 Their accompanying grain-offering of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil shall be twelve litres with the bull, eight litres with the ram 4 and four litres with each of the seven lambs! 5 You shall also use one male goat as a sin-offering to make atonement for yourselves! 6 These shall be in addition to the burnt offering of the New Moon with its grain-offering and the regular burnt offering with its grain-offering and their drink offerings as they are prescribed, as a soothing aroma! They are sacrifices made by fire to the LORD.

The sacrifices on the Day of Atonement — compare Leviticus 16: 1-34, Leviticus 23:26-32

7 “On the tenth day of this seventh month you shall hold a holy assembly! You shall humble yourselves by fasting! You shall not do any work! 8 You shall present, as a burnt offering to the LORD for a soothing aroma, one young bull from the herd, one ram and seven male lambs a year old! You shall use animals that are without blemish! 9 As their accompanying grain-offerings of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil, you shall prepare twelve litres for the bull, eight litres for the one ram, 10 and four litres with each of the seven lambs! 11 You shall also use one male goat as a sin-offering, in addition to the sin-offering for making atonement, the regular burnt offering with its grain-offering and their drink offerings!

The offerings on the Festival of Tabernacles (or the Festival of Booths or the Ingathering) —Leviticus 23:33-34, Deuteronomy 16:13-17, Zechariah 14:16-19

12 “On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall hold a holy assembly! You shall not do any regular work but shall celebrate a festival to the LORD for seven days! 13 You shall present, as a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire for a pleasing aroma to the LORD, thirteen young bulls from the herd, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old! They shall be without blemish! 14 Their accompanying grain-offerings of fine wheat flour mixed with olive-oil shall be twelve litres with each of the thirteen bulls, eight litres with each of the two rams, 15 and four litres with each of the fourteen lambs! 16 You shall use one male goat as a sin-offering in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain-offering and its drink offering!

17 “On the second day you shall prepare twelve young bulls from the herd, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish! 18 You shall prepare their accompanying grain-offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams and for the lambs according to the quantity specified! 19 You shall use one male goat as a sin-offering in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain-offering and their drink offerings!

20 “On the third day you shall prepare eleven bulls, two rams and fourteen one-year-old lambs without blemish! 21 You shall prepare their accompanying grain-offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams and for the lambs according to the quantity specified! 22 You shall use one male goat as a sin-offering in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain-offering and its drink offerings!

23 “On the fourth day you shall prepare ten bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish! 24 You shall prepare their accompanying grain-offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams and for the lambs according to the quantity specified! 25 You shall use one male goat as a sin-offering in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain-offering and its drink offering!

26 “On the fifth day you shall prepare nine bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish! 27 You shall prepare their accompanying grain-offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams and for the lambs according to the quantity specified! 28 You shall use one male goat as a sin-offering in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain-offering and its drink offering!

29 “On the sixth day you shall prepare eight bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish! 30 You shall prepare their accompanying grain-offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams and for the lambs according to the quantity specified! 31 You shall use one male goat as a sin-offering in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain-offering and its drink offerings!

32 “On the seventh day you shall prepare seven bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old without blemish! 33 You shall prepare their accompanying grain-offering and their drink offerings for the bulls, for the rams and for the lambs according to the quantity specified! 34 You shall use one male goat as a sin-offering in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain-offering and its drink offering!

35 “On the eighth day have a festive assembly! You shall not do any regular work! 36 You shall present, as a burnt offering, a sacrifice made by fire for a pleasing aroma to the LORD, one bull, one ram and seven male lambs a year old without blemish! 37 Their accompanying grain-offerings and their drink offerings for the bull, for the ram and for the lambs shall be according to the quantity specified! 38 You shall use one male goat as a sin-offering in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain-offering and its drink offering! 39 You shall prepare these for the LORD on your appointed festivals as your burnt offerings, as your grain-offerings, as your drink offerings and as your peace-offerings, in addition to the offerings that you vow and your freewill offerings!”

<sup>40</sup> Moses spoke to the Israelites exactly as the LORD had commanded him.

30

Regulations for vows made by women — Deuteronomy 23:21-23

<sup>1</sup> Moses told the heads of the tribes of the Israelites: “This is what the LORD has commanded: <sup>2</sup> ‘When a man makes a vow to the LORD or swears pledges by an oath not to do something, he shall not break his word! He shall do exactly as he has promised!

<sup>3</sup> “When a woman makes a vow to the LORD or pledges herself not to do something while she is in her father’s home, in her youth, <sup>4</sup> and her father hears about her vow and about her pledge, by which she has bound herself, but her father has let her do it without objection, all her vows and every pledge by which she has bound herself shall be valid! <sup>5</sup> However, if her father has overruled her on the day when he has heard about them, none of her vows and no pledge by which she has bound herself shall be valid! The LORD will forgive her, because her father has overruled her.

<sup>6</sup> “If, when she has married, she has placed herself under vows or has uttered any rash promise by which she has bound herself <sup>7</sup> and her husband hears about it but has let her do it without objection on the day when he heard about it, her vows and her pledges, by which she has bound herself, shall be valid! <sup>8</sup> However, if her husband overrules her on the day when he hears about it, he invalidates her vow, which obligates her and the rash utterance, by which she has bound herself. The LORD will forgive her.

<sup>9</sup> “However, any vow of a widow or a divorced woman, by which she has bound herself, shall be valid for her!

<sup>10</sup> “If a woman has made a vow in her husband’s home or has bound a pledge on herself with an oath <sup>11</sup> and her husband hears about it, lets her do it without objection and has not overruled her, all her vows shall be valid and every pledge by which she has bound herself shall be valid! <sup>12</sup> However, if her husband invalidates them on the day when he hears about them, nothing that she has uttered in her vows or in any pledge on herself shall be valid! Her husband has invalidated them. The LORD will forgive her. <sup>13</sup> Her husband may confirm any vow or any binding oath that she makes to humble herself and her husband may also invalidate them. <sup>14</sup> However, if her husband has indeed let her do it without objection from day to day, he confirms all her vows or all her pledges, which obligate her. He has confirmed them, because he let her do it without objection on the day when he heard about them. <sup>15</sup> However, if he has indeed invalidated them some time after he has heard about them, he shall be responsible for her guilt!”

<sup>16</sup> These are the Statutes that the LORD commanded Moses, to decide matters between a man and his wife and between a father and his daughter while she is in her youth in her father’s home.

31

The defeat of the Midianites by Israel

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Take revenge on the Midianites for what they did to the Israelites! After that you will be gathered to your people.”

<sup>3</sup> Moses told the people: “Prepare some of your men to go to war and let them go against the Midianites to take revenge for the LORD on Midian! <sup>4</sup> You shall send into battle one thousand men from each of the tribes of Israel!”

<sup>5</sup> So, from the clans of Israel one thousand men were chosen from each tribe. Twelve thousand men were ready for battle. <sup>6</sup> Then Moses sent them to the war, one thousand from each tribe. He sent them to the war with Phinehas, the son of Eleazar the priest. Phinehas took with him articles from the sanctuary and the trumpets for signalling. <sup>7</sup> They went to war against Midian, as the LORD had commanded Moses, and killed every man. <sup>8</sup> Together with the rest who were slain, they killed the kings of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba, the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam, the son of Beor, with the sword.

<sup>9</sup> The Israelites captured the women and children of the Midianites and took all their animals, all their herds and all their goods as plunder. <sup>10</sup> They also burned down all the cities where the Midianites lived and all their camps. <sup>11</sup> They took all the plunder and all the booty of war, including the people and the animals, <sup>12</sup> and brought the captives, the booty of war and the plunder to Moses, Eleazar and the congregation of the Israelites at the camp on the waterless plains of Moab, which was beside the Jordan across from Jericho.

The aftermath of the war against the Midianites

<sup>13</sup> Moses, Eleazar the priest and all the leaders of the congregation went outside the camp to meet them.

<sup>14</sup> Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, who were returning from service in the war.

<sup>15</sup> Moses asked them: “Have you let all the women live? <sup>16</sup> Look! They were the ones who, at Balaam’s advice, became the occasion for the Israelites to fall away from the LORD in the incident at Peor, so that the plague came on the congregation of the LORD.

<sup>17</sup> Now then, kill every boy among the children and kill every woman who has had sexual relations with a man, <sup>18</sup> but keep alive for yourselves every young girl who has not had sexual relations! <sup>19</sup> Each of you who has killed anyone and everyone who has touched a person who has been killed must stay outside the camp for seven days! Both you and your captives shall purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day! <sup>20</sup> You shall also purify every garment, as well as every leather article, everything made of goat hair and everything made of wood!”

<sup>21</sup> Eleazar the priest told the soldiers who had gone to the battle: “This is the requirement of the Law, which the LORD has commanded Moses: <sup>22</sup> ‘You shall put through fire only the gold, the silver, the copper, the iron, the tin and the lead! <sup>23</sup> You shall heat everything else that can withstand fire, that it may be clean! The water used to cleanse impurity shall purify everything else from sin! You shall pass through that water everything that cannot withstand fire! <sup>24</sup> You shall also wash your clothes on the seventh day, that you may be clean! After that you may come into the camp.’”

The instructions about the sharing of captives and plunder

<sup>25</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>26</sup> “You, Eleazar the priest and the heads of the families of the congregation, should count up how many people and animals you have captured! <sup>27</sup> You shall then divide what you have taken as plunder between those who have taken part in the war by going out to battle and all the rest of the congregation! <sup>28</sup> From what belongs to the soldiers who have gone out to battle you shall set aside, as a tribute for the LORD, one individual out of every five hundred of the persons, the cattle, the donkeys and the flocks! <sup>29</sup> You shall take it from their half and give it to Eleazar the priest as the contribution offered to the LORD! <sup>30</sup> From the Israelites’ half you shall take one individual drawn out of every fifty persons, cattle, donkeys, flocks and all other animals and give them to the Levites, who care for the service of the Tabernacle of the LORD!”

<sup>31</sup> Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>32</sup> The rest of the booty that the soldiers had taken as plunder totalled six hundred and seventy-five thousand sheep, <sup>33</sup> seventy-two thousand cattle, <sup>34</sup> sixty-one thousand donkeys, <sup>35</sup> and thirty-two thousand human beings in all, consisting of the women who had not had sexual relations. <sup>36</sup> The half-share of the men who had gone out to the battle totalled three hundred and thirty-seven thousand, five hundred sheep. <sup>37</sup> The tribute to the LORD from the sheep was six hundred and seventy-five. <sup>38</sup> The cattle totalled thirty-six thousand and the tribute to the LORD from them was seventy-two. <sup>39</sup> The donkeys totalled thirty thousand, five hundred, and the tribute to the LORD from them was sixty-one. <sup>40</sup> The human beings totalled sixteen thousand and the tribute to the LORD out of them was thirty-two persons. <sup>41</sup> Moses gave the tribute, which was the contribution that was due to the LORD, to Eleazar the priest, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>42</sup> From the half share belonging to the Israelites, which Moses had separated from that of the soldiers, <sup>43</sup> that is, the half belonging to the congregation, there were three hundred and thirty-seven thousand, five hundred sheep, <sup>44</sup> thirty-six thousand cattle, <sup>45</sup> thirty thousand, five hundred donkeys, <sup>46</sup> and sixteen thousand human beings. <sup>47</sup> From the Israelites’ half Moses took away one drawn out of every fifty of the human beings and of the animals and gave them to the Levites, who were taking care of the service at the Tabernacle of the LORD, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

<sup>48</sup> Then the officers, who had been over the regiments of the army, the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds, came to Moses. <sup>49</sup> They told him: “Your servants have counted all the soldiers who were under our command, and not one of us is missing. <sup>50</sup> Therefore, we have brought, as a gift to the LORD, the articles of gold, armlets, bracelets, signet rings, earrings and necklaces, which each of us has found, to make atonement for our lives before the LORD.”

<sup>51</sup> Moses and Eleazar the priest received all the golden crafted articles from them. <sup>52</sup> All the gold from the contribution that the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds made to the LORD weighed two hundred and one kilograms. <sup>53</sup> Each of the soldiers had taken plunder for himself. <sup>54</sup> Moses and Eleazar the priest received the gold from the commanders of thousands and the commanders of hundreds and brought it into the Tent of Meeting, as a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD.

32

The allocation of land east of the Jordan River to two and a half tribes — Deuteronomy 3:12-22

<sup>1</sup> The tribes of Reuben and Gad had very large numbers of livestock and saw that the land of Jazer and the land of Gilead were indeed good places for livestock.

<sup>2</sup> So, the tribes of Gad and Reuben came to Moses, Eleazar the priest and the other leaders of the congregation and said: <sup>3</sup> “Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo and Beon, <sup>4</sup> the land that the LORD defeated before the congregation of Israel, is a good land for livestock, and we, your servants, have livestock.”

<sup>5</sup> They added: “If you are kindly disposed towards us, let your servants be given this land as their possession! Do not make us cross the Jordan!”

<sup>6</sup> Moses asked the tribes of Gad and Reuben: “While your countrymen go to war, will you yourselves stay here? <sup>7</sup> Why, then, will you discourage the other Israelites from going across into the land that the LORD has given to them? <sup>8</sup> This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh-Barnea to look at the land. <sup>9</sup> After they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and saw the land, they discouraged the Israelites from going into the land that the LORD had given them. <sup>10</sup> On that day the anger of the LORD was aroused, and He swore this oath: <sup>11</sup> ‘None of the men who came up from Egypt, from twenty years old and older, will see the land that I promised with an oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, because they have not followed Me fully, <sup>12</sup> except Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, the Kenizzite, and Joshua, the son of Nun, because they have followed the LORD completely. <sup>13</sup> The anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and He made them wander in the wilderness for forty years, until the whole generation of those who had done this thing, which the LORD regarded as evil, had gone. <sup>14</sup> Now look! You have risen in your fathers' place, a brood of sinful men, to increase still more the fierce anger of the LORD towards Israel. <sup>15</sup> For, if you turn away from following Him, He will again abandon all these people in the wilderness, and you will be the cause of their destruction!"

<sup>16</sup> They came up to him and said: "We shall build stone sheep-pens here for our livestock and cities for our women and children. <sup>17</sup> However, we ourselves shall quickly prepare ourselves and go ahead of the other Israelites until we have brought them to their place. Meanwhile our women and children will live in the fortified cities, out of reach of other people living in the land. <sup>18</sup> We shall not return to our homes until every Israelite has obtained possession of his inheritance. <sup>19</sup> We shall not receive any inheritance with them on the other side of the Jordan and beyond that, because our inheritance has come to us on this eastern side of the Jordan."

<sup>20</sup> Moses told them: "If you do this, if you prepare yourselves before the LORD for the war, <sup>21</sup> and, if all your men cross the Jordan before the LORD ready for battle until He has driven His enemies before Him, <sup>22</sup> and, if the land has been subjugated before the LORD, after that you may return. Then you will be free from your obligation to the LORD and to Israel. Then this land will be your possession before the LORD. <sup>23</sup> However, if you do not do this, be aware that you will have sinned against the LORD! Then be sure that your sin will find you out! <sup>24</sup> Build yourselves cities for your women and children and stone pens for your flocks but carry out your verbal promises!"

<sup>25</sup> The tribes of Gad and Reuben told Moses: "We, your servants, shall do as you, our master, command.

<sup>26</sup> Our children, our wives, our flocks and all our cattle will remain here in the cities of Gilead.

<sup>27</sup> Meanwhile we, your servants, shall all cross over as an army ready for battle before the LORD into the war, as you, our master, command."

<sup>28</sup> So, Moses gave commands about them to Eleazar the priest, Joshua, the son of Nun, and the family heads of the ancestral tribes of the Israelites. <sup>29</sup> Moses told them: "If the tribes of Gad and Reuben all cross over the Jordan with you, ready for the war before the LORD, and the land has been conquered before you, then you shall give them the land of Gilead as their possession! <sup>30</sup> However, if they do not cross over with you ready for battle, then they shall be settled among you in the land of Canaan!"

<sup>31</sup> The tribes of Gad and Reuben answered: "We shall do just as the LORD has told us, your servants. <sup>32</sup> We shall cross over ready for battle before the LORD into the land of Canaan. However, the property that we inherit shall remain with us on this side of the Jordan!"

<sup>33</sup> So, Moses gave the kingdom of Sihon, the king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og, the king of Bashan, to the tribes of Gad and Reuben and half of the tribe of Manasseh, the son of Joseph. He gave them the whole land with its cities inside the borders, the cities of the surrounding territory. <sup>34</sup> The tribe of Gad rebuilt Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer, <sup>35</sup> Atroth-Shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah, <sup>36</sup> Beth-Nimrah and Beth-Haran as fortified cities, as well as stone pens for sheep.

<sup>37</sup> The tribe of Reuben rebuilt Heshbon, Elealeh, Kir-iathaim, <sup>38</sup> as well as Nebo and Baal-Meon with their names changed and Sibmah. They gave different names to the cities that they rebuilt.

<sup>39</sup> The descendants of Machir, the son of Manasseh, went to Gilead, captured it and drove out the Amorites who were there. <sup>40</sup> So, Moses gave Gilead to Machir, the son of Manasseh, and his descendants lived there.

<sup>41</sup> Then Jair, the descendant of Manasseh, went and captured their tent-villages and called them "Havvoth-Jair." <sup>42</sup> Nobah went and captured Kenath and its surrounding settlements and called it "Nobah," after his own name.

33

Summary of the stages of Israel's journey after leaving Egypt

<sup>1</sup> These are the stages in the journey of the Israelites when they came out of the land of Egypt in their military divisions under the leadership of Moses and Aaron. <sup>2</sup> Moses wrote down the starting places of their journeys as the LORD directed them. These are their journeys according to their starting places. <sup>3</sup> The Israelites set out from Rameses in the first month. It was on the fifteenth day of the first month, the day after the Passover. The Israelites came out boldly in full view of all the Egyptians. <sup>4</sup> The Egyptians were burying all their first-born, whom the LORD had struck down among them, after the LORD had carried out acts of judgment on their gods.

<sup>5</sup> The Israelites set out from Rameses and camped at Succoth. <sup>6</sup> They set out from Succoth and camped at Etham, which is on the edge of the wilderness. <sup>7</sup> They set out from Etham and turned back to Pi-Hahiroth, which is opposite Baal-Zephon, and camped in front of Migdol. <sup>8</sup> They set out from in front of Pi-Hahiroth and passed through the middle of the sea into the wilderness. Then they travelled for three days in the wilderness of Etham and camped at Marah. <sup>9</sup> They set out from Marah and came to Elim. At Elim there were twelve springs of water and seventy palm-trees, and they camped there. <sup>10</sup> They set out from Elim and camped beside the Red Sea. <sup>11</sup> They set out from the Red Sea and camped in the wilderness of Sin. <sup>12</sup> They set out from the Wilderness of Sin and camped at Dophkah. <sup>13</sup> They set out from Dophkah and camped

at Alush. <sup>14</sup> They set out from Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>15</sup> They set out from Rephidim and camped in the Wilderness of Sinai. <sup>16</sup> They set out from the Wilderness of Sinai and camped at Kibroth-Hattaavah. <sup>17</sup> They set out from Kibroth-Hattaavah and camped at Hazeroth. <sup>18</sup> They set out from Hazeroth and camped at Rithmah. <sup>19</sup> They set out from Rithmah and camped at Rimmon-Perez. They set out from Rimmon-Perez and camped at Libnah. <sup>21</sup> They set out from Libnah and camped at Rissah. <sup>22</sup> They set out from Rissah and camped at Kehelathah. <sup>23</sup> They set out from Kehelathah and camped at Mount Shepher. <sup>24</sup> They set out from Mount Shepher and camped at Haradah. <sup>25</sup> They set out from Haradah and camped at Makheloth. <sup>26</sup> They set out from Makheloth and camped at Tahath. <sup>27</sup> They set out from Tahath and camped at Terah. <sup>28</sup> They set out from Terah and camped at Mithkah. <sup>29</sup> They set out from Mithkah and camped at Hashmonah. <sup>30</sup> They set out from Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth. <sup>31</sup> They set out from Moseroth and camped at Bene-Jaakan. <sup>32</sup> They set out from Bene-Jaakan and camped at Hor-Haggidgad. <sup>33</sup> They set out from Hor-Haggidgad and camped at Jotbathah. <sup>34</sup> They set out from Jotbathah and camped at Abronah. <sup>35</sup> They set out from Abronah and camped at Ezion-Geber. <sup>36</sup> They set out from Ezion-Geber and camped in the Wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh. <sup>37</sup> They set out from Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor on the border of the land of Edom. <sup>38</sup> Then Aaron the priest went up on Mount Hor at the Command of the LORD and died there on the first day of the fifth month in the fortieth year after the Israelites had come out of the land of Egypt. <sup>39</sup> Aaron was one hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

<sup>40</sup> The Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev in the land of Canaan, heard that the Israelites were coming.

<sup>41</sup> They set out from Mount Hor and camped at Zalmonah. <sup>42</sup> They set out from Zalmonah and camped at Punon. <sup>43</sup> They set out from Punon and camped at Oboth. <sup>44</sup> They set out from Oboth and camped at Iye-Abarim on the border of Moab. <sup>45</sup> They set out from Iyim and camped at Dibon-Gad. <sup>46</sup> They set out from Dibon-Gad and camped at Almon-Diblathaim. <sup>47</sup> They set out from Almon-Diblathaim and camped in the Mountains of Abarim, in front of Nebo. <sup>48</sup> They set out from the Mountains of Abarim and camped on the waterless plains of Moab beside the Jordan across from Jericho. <sup>49</sup> They camped beside the Jordan from Beth-Jeshimoth as far as Abel-Shittim on the waterless plains of Moab.

Instructions about the Canaanites and the division of their land

<sup>50</sup> The LORD told Moses on the waterless plains of Moab beside the Jordan across from Jericho:

<sup>51</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘When you cross the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>52</sup> you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land before you! You shall destroy all their carved images! You shall destroy all their images of cast metal! You shall demolish all their high places! <sup>53</sup> You shall take possession of the land and live there! For I have given you the land to possess. <sup>54</sup> You shall receive hereditary possession of the land by lot according to your clans! You shall give a larger inheritance to a large clan and a smaller one to a small clan! Each one shall have what falls to him by lot! You shall receive hereditary possession according to the tribes of your fathers! <sup>55</sup> However, if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land before you, then those of them whom you allow to remain in the land will be thorns in your eyes and barbs in your sides. They will be in a state of conflict with you in the land in which you are living. <sup>56</sup> Then I shall do to you what I had planned to do to them.’”

34

The borders of the land of Israel

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>2</sup> “Command the Israelites and tell them: ‘When you enter the land of Canaan, this is the land that will be apportioned to you as an inheritance, the land of Canaan inside its boundaries.

<sup>3</sup> Your southern border will be from the Wilderness of Zin along the border of Edom. Your southern border will extend from the far end of the Salt Sea on the east. <sup>4</sup> Then your border will change direction south of the Ascent of Akrabbim, will continue over to Zin, and its limit will be south of Kadesh-Barnea. Then it will extend to Hazar-Addar and continue on to Azmon. <sup>5</sup> The border will change direction from Azmon to the Brook of Egypt and will end at the Sea.

<sup>6</sup> “Your western border will be the Great Sea. This will be your western border.

<sup>7</sup> “This will be your northern border: you shall mark out your border from the Great Sea to Mount Hor.

<sup>8</sup> From Mount Hor you shall mark out your border to Lebo-Hamath, and the boundary will end at Zedad.

<sup>9</sup> From there the border will extend to Ziphron and will end at Hazar-Enan. This will be your northern border.

<sup>10</sup> “You shall desire to have your eastern border from Hazar-Enan to Shepham! <sup>11</sup> From Shepham the border will go down to Riblah, on the eastern side of Ain. Then the border will go down and adjoin the eastern shoulder of the Sea of Chinnereth. <sup>12</sup> Then the border will go down the Jordan and will end at the Salt Sea. This will be your land with its surrounding boundaries.”

<sup>13</sup> Moses commanded the Israelites: “This is the land that you shall receive by lot as your hereditary possession. The LORD has commanded it to be given to the nine and a half tribes. <sup>14</sup> For the paternal families of the tribe of Reuben, the paternal families of the tribe of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance. <sup>15</sup> These two and a half tribes have received their inheritance along the eastern side of the Jordan across from Jericho, toward the sunrise.”

The appointment of men to apportion the land

<sup>16</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>17</sup> “These are the names of the men who shall assign your hereditary possession of the land: Eleazar the priest and Joshua, the son of Nun. <sup>18</sup> You people shall also take one leader from each tribe to assign hereditary possession of the land! <sup>19</sup> These are the names of the men: from the tribe of Judah, Caleb, the son of Jephunneh; <sup>20</sup> from the tribe of the descendants of Simeon, Shemuel, the son of Ammihud; <sup>21</sup> and from the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad, the son of Chislon. <sup>22</sup> From the tribe of the descendants of Dan the leader shall be Bukki, the son of Jogli! <sup>23</sup> From the descendants of Joseph: from the tribe of the descendants of Manasseh the leader shall be Haniel, the son of Ephod, <sup>24</sup> and from the tribe of Ephraim the leader shall be Kemuel, the son of Shiphtan! <sup>25</sup> From the tribe of the descendants of Zebulun the leader shall be Elizaphan, the son of Parnach! <sup>26</sup> From the tribe of the descendants of Issachar the leader shall be Paltiel, the son of Azzan! <sup>27</sup> From the tribe of the descendants of Asher the leader shall be Ahihud, the son of Shelomi! <sup>28</sup> From the tribe of the descendants of Naphtali the leader shall be Pedahel, the son of Ammihud! <sup>29</sup> These were the men whom the LORD commanded to assign hereditary possession to the Israelites in the land of Canaan.

35

The allocation of cities to the Levites — Joshua 21

<sup>1</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses on the waterless plains of Moab beside the Jordan across from Jericho: <sup>2</sup> “Out of the property that the Israelites inherit, command them to give cities to the Levites to live in! You shall also give the Levites pasturelands around the cities! <sup>3</sup> They shall have the cities to live in, and their cattle, flocks and other livestock shall have pasturelands! <sup>4</sup> The pasturelands of the cities, which you give to the Levites, shall extend outwards from the wall of the city for five hundred metres on all sides! <sup>5</sup> Outside the city you shall also measure off one thousand metres on the eastern side, one thousand metres on the southern side, one thousand metres on the western side and one thousand metres on the northern side, with the city in the middle! These areas shall belong to them as pasturelands for their cities! <sup>6</sup> “You shall appoint six of the cities that you give to the Levites as cities of refuge! A person who has killed someone may flee to them. In addition to these cities you shall give the Levites forty-two other cities! <sup>7</sup> The total of the cities that you give to the Levites shall be forty-eight! You shall allocate the cities together with their pasturelands! <sup>8</sup> You shall allot more of the cities that you give to the Levites from the property of the Israelites from the larger tribes and fewer cities from the smaller tribes! Each shall give some of its cities to the Levites in proportion to its hereditary possession, which it receives!”

The allocation of cities of refuge — Deuteronomy 4:41-43, 19:1-14, Joshua 20:1-9

<sup>9</sup> The LORD told Moses: <sup>10</sup> “Speak to the Israelites and tell them: ‘When you cross over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>11</sup> you shall select cities that will serve as your cities of refuge, that a person who has killed someone accidentally may flee there! <sup>12</sup> You shall use the cities as places of refuge from an avenger, that a person who kills someone may not die before he has stood on trial before the congregation! <sup>13</sup> You shall allocate six cities to be your cities of refuge! <sup>14</sup> You shall allocate three cities on this side of the Jordan and three cities in the land of Canaan to serve as cities of refuge! <sup>15</sup> These six cities shall be places for Israelites, foreigners and any other people living among them to take refuge in, that anyone who has accidentally killed another person may flee there!

Regulations about murder and unintentional homicide

<sup>16</sup> “However, if someone has struck another with an iron object, so that he dies, he is a murderer. A murderer shall certainly be put to death! <sup>17</sup> If anyone has struck another with a stone in his hand that could cause death and the other dies, he is a murderer. A murderer shall certainly be put to death! <sup>18</sup> Or if anyone has had a wooden object in his hand that could cause death and has hit someone so that he dies, he is a murderer. A murderer shall certainly be put to death! <sup>19</sup> The avenger of blood himself shall put the murderer to death! When he meets him, he shall put him to death! <sup>20</sup> Or if a person has shoved another out of hatred or has thrown something at him with premeditated malice, so that he dies, <sup>21</sup> or if in enmity a person has struck another with his fist, so that he dies, the one who has struck him shall certainly be put to death! He is a murderer. The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death when he meets him! <sup>22</sup> However, if he has pushed him suddenly and without hostility or has thrown any object at him without intended malice <sup>23</sup> or, if he has dropped on him any kind of stone that could kill him without seeing him and he dies, when he has not been his enemy and has not tried to harm him, <sup>24</sup> the congregation shall decide according to these Regulations between the man who has struck the blow and the avenger of blood! <sup>25</sup> The congregation shall rescue the man who has done the killing from the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall bring him back into the city of refuge to which he has fled! Then he shall live there until the death of the High Priest, who has been anointed with the holy oil! <sup>26</sup> However, if the one who has done the killing ever goes beyond the limits of his city of refuge, to which he has fled, <sup>27</sup> and the avenger of blood finds him outside the limits of his city of refuge and kills the man who has done the killing, then the avenger of blood is not guilty of murder. <sup>28</sup> For the man shall stay in his city of refuge until the High Priest dies! However, after the High Priest dies, the man who has done the killing may return to the land that he owns. <sup>29</sup> These shall be your legal Requirements, for you and for your coming generations, wherever you live!

<sup>30</sup> “Whoever kills another person shall be put to death as a murderer only on the testimony of witnesses! However, one witness alone shall not be sufficient to confront another person to put him to death! <sup>31</sup> You shall not accept a ransom for the life of a murderer, who is guilty and deserves to die! Rather, he shall certainly be put to death! <sup>32</sup> You shall not accept a ransom from anyone who has fled to his city of refuge to allow him to return to live in the land before the death of the High Priest! <sup>33</sup> You shall not defile the land in which you live, because it is bloodshed that defiles the land! Atonement cannot be made for the land on which blood has been shed except by the blood of the person who has shed it. <sup>34</sup> You shall not defile the land in which you are living, because I too am dwelling in it! For I am the LORD and I am dwelling among the Israelites.”

36

Instructions for retaining inherited property in a tribe — Numbers 27:1-11

<sup>1</sup> The family leaders of the clans of the descendants of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, who belonged to the clans of the descendants of Joseph, approached Moses and spoke in his presence and in the presence of the other leaders, the heads of the other Israelite clans. <sup>2</sup> They said: “The LORD has commanded you, my master, to allocate the land by lot to the Israelites as a hereditary possession. Furthermore, the LORD has commanded you, my master, to allocate the hereditary possession of our fellow-countryman, Zelophehad, to his daughters. <sup>3</sup> Now if they marry any men from the other tribes of the Israelites, their hereditary possession will be taken away from the hereditary possession of our fathers and will be added to the hereditary possession of the tribe into which they marry. Then part of our allotted hereditary possession will be taken away. <sup>4</sup> Even when the Year of Jubilee of the Israelites comes, the women’s hereditary possession will be added to the hereditary possession of the tribe into which they marry. Their hereditary possession will be taken away from the hereditary possession of the tribe of our forefathers.”

<sup>5</sup> Moses then gave the Israelites this Command, as the LORD had told him: “What the tribe of the descendants of Joseph is saying is correct. <sup>6</sup> This is what the LORD has commanded about Zelophehad’s daughters: ‘They may marry anyone whom they think best, except that they shall marry men who belong to the family of the tribe of their father!’ <sup>7</sup> In this way hereditary property of the Israelites will not be transferred from one tribe to another. For each Israelite will hold onto the hereditary possession of the tribe of his fathers. <sup>8</sup> Every daughter who inherits property in any Israelite tribe shall marry someone belonging to the family of her father’s tribe, that each Israelite may possess the hereditary property of his fathers! <sup>9</sup> No hereditary property shall be transferred from one tribe to another tribe! For each Israelite tribe shall retain its hereditary property!”

<sup>10</sup> The daughters of Zelophehad did as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>11</sup> Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, married their cousins on their father’s side. <sup>12</sup> They married inside the clans of the descendants of Manasseh, the son of Joseph. So, their hereditary property remained in the tribal family to which their father belonged.

<sup>13</sup> These are the Commandments and the Decisions that the LORD commanded the Israelites through Moses on the waterless plains of Moab beside the Jordan across from Jericho.

DEUTERONOMY

1

Moses' explanation of the Law on the plains of Moab, forty years after leaving Egypt

<sup>1</sup> This is the speech that Moses gave to all Israel east of the Jordan, in the wilderness, in the waterless region opposite Suph, between Paran, Tophel, Laban, Hazereth and Dizahab. <sup>2</sup> It takes eleven days to go from Horeb by way of Mount Seir to Kadesh-Barnea.

<sup>3</sup> In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses told the Israelites everything that the LORD had commanded him concerning them. <sup>4</sup> This was after they had defeated Sihon, the king of the Amorites, who lived in Heshbon and after they had, at Edrei, defeated Og, the king of Bashan, who lived at Ashtaroth.

Reminder about the events at Mount Horeb

<sup>5</sup> There in the country of Moab, east of the Jordan, Moses began to explain this Law. He said, <sup>6</sup> "The LORD, our God, told us at Horeb: 'You have stayed at this mountain long enough. <sup>7</sup> Move on and set out! Go into the hill-country of the Amorites and to all the neighbouring people in the waterless region, the hill-country, the lowlands, the Negev and the seacoast, the land of the Canaanites, and to the Lebanon range, as far as the great river, the Euphrates! <sup>8</sup> See! I have set the land before you. Go and take possession of the land that the LORD promised with an oath to give to your forefathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and to their descendants after them!'

The appointment of leaders in the tribes— Exodus 18:13-26, Deuteronomy 16:18-20

<sup>9</sup> "At that time I told you, 'I cannot support you alone.

<sup>10</sup> The LORD, your God, has made you so numerous that here you are today, as many as the stars in the sky. <sup>11</sup> May the LORD, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times as many as you are and may He bless you as He has promised you! <sup>12</sup> How could I alone bear your load, your burden and your litigation?

<sup>13</sup> Choose men who are wise, perceptive and experienced for your tribes, that I may appoint them as your leaders!'

<sup>14</sup> "You answered me, 'What you have proposed to do is good.'

<sup>15</sup> "So, I took the leaders of your tribes, men who were wise and experienced, and appointed them over you as leaders, as commanders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens and as officers for your tribes. <sup>16</sup> At that time I commanded your judges: 'Hear the cases between your fellow-countrymen and judge fairly between one man and his countryman and between one of them and a foreigner who is with him!'

<sup>17</sup> When you judge, you shall not be partial to anyone but hear an insignificant person in the same way as an important person! You shall not be intimidated by anyone! For the decision belongs to God Himself. You shall bring to me any case that is too hard for you, and

I shall hear it!' <sup>18</sup> At that time I gave you commands about everything that you had to do.

Reminder about the sending of the spies into Canaan from Kadesh-Barnea

<sup>19</sup> "When we set out from Horeb, we went through all that vast and terrible wilderness, which you saw on the way to the hill-country of the Amorites, as the LORD, our God, had commanded us, and so we arrived at Kadesh-Barnea. <sup>20</sup> Then I told you, 'You have reached the hill-country of the Amorites, which the LORD, our God, is giving to us. <sup>21</sup> Look! The LORD, your God, has set the land before you. Go up and take possession of it as the LORD, the God of your forefathers, has promised you. Do not be afraid or terrified!'

<sup>22</sup> Then all of you approached me. You said, 'Let us send some men ahead of us, to spy out the land for us and to bring back a report to us about the route by which we should go up and about the cities into which we shall come!' <sup>23</sup> The suggestion seemed good to me. So, I chose twelve of your men, one man from each tribe. <sup>24</sup> They left, went up into the hill-country, went as far as the Valley of Eshcol and spied it out. <sup>25</sup> They also took some of the fruit of the land with them, brought it down to us and reported to us. They said, 'The land that the LORD, our God, is giving to us is good.'

Reminder about the Israelites' refusal to enter Canaan— Numbers 13:1-33

<sup>26</sup> "However, you refused to go up and rebelled against the Command of the LORD, your God. <sup>27</sup> You appeared sullen in your tents. You said, 'Because the LORD hates us, He has brought us out of the land of Egypt to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us. <sup>28</sup> To what kind of place are we going up? Our fellow-Israelites have made our courage melt by saying: "The people are stronger and taller than we are, and the cities are large with walls up to the sky. We have even seen the descendants of Anak there!"'

<sup>29</sup> "However, I told you, 'You must not be terrified or afraid of them! <sup>30</sup> The LORD, your God, who is going ahead of you, will Himself fight for you, exactly as He did for you in Egypt, before your very eyes, <sup>31</sup> and in the wilderness. There you have seen that the LORD, your God, has been carrying you, like a man carrying his son, all the way you have been travelling, until you have arrived at this place.'

<sup>32</sup> "However, although I told you that, you would not trust the LORD, your God, <sup>33</sup> who has been going ahead of you on the journey, to search out a place for you to camp. He has been providing the fire by night, that you may see on the way on which you have been going, and the cloud by day.

The penalty for Israel's rebellion — Numbers 14:20-45

<sup>34</sup> When the LORD heard what you were saying, He became angry and swore this oath: <sup>35</sup> 'Truly not one of these men from this wicked generation will see the good land that I promised with an oath to give to your forefathers, <sup>36</sup> except Caleb, the son of Jephunneh. He will see it, and I shall give to him and to his descendants the land on which he has walked, because he has followed the LORD completely!

<sup>37</sup> “On account of you the LORD was also angry with me. He said, ‘You will not go in there, either.

<sup>38</sup> Joshua, the son of Nun, who is your assistant, will go in there. Encourage him! For he will give hereditary possession of it to Israel. <sup>39</sup> However, your little ones, who you said would be taken as plunder, and your children, who today do not know good and evil, will go in there. I shall give it to them, and they will take possession of it. <sup>40</sup> However, as for you, turn back and set out toward the wilderness on the road to the Red Sea!’

Reminder to Israel about their defeat by the Amorites — Numbers 14:39-45

<sup>41</sup> “Then you answered me, ‘We have sinned against the LORD! We ourselves shall go up and fight, just as the LORD, our God, has commanded us!’ Each of you fastened on his weapons, and you thought that it would be easy to go up into the hill-country.

<sup>42</sup> However, the LORD told me, ‘Tell them: “You shall not go up or fight! For I shall not be among you. If you do, your enemies will defeat you.”’

<sup>43</sup> “So, I spoke to you, but you would not listen. You rebelled against the Command of the LORD and arrogantly went up into the hill-country. <sup>44</sup> The Amorites who were living in that hill-country came out against you, chased you like bees and struck you down in Seir as far as Hormah. <sup>45</sup> Then you came back and wept before the LORD. Nevertheless, the LORD did not hear what you were asking and did not listen to you. <sup>46</sup> Then you stayed at Kadesh all the time that you did.”

2

A reminder about the journeys in the wilderness, the events at Mount Seir and the prohibition against fighting against Edom, Moab and Ammon — Numbers 20:14-21, 21:11-20

<sup>1</sup> “Then we turned back and set out toward the wilderness on the road to the Red Sea, as the LORD had told me. For a long time we went around the hill-country of Seir.

<sup>2</sup> “Then the LORD told me: <sup>3</sup> ‘You have been going around this hill-country long enough. Turn to the north. <sup>4</sup> Command the people: “You are about to pass through the territory of your relatives, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. They will be afraid of you. So, be very careful! <sup>5</sup> Do not venture into conflict with them! For I shall not give you any of their land, even as much as a foot-width. For I have given the hill-country of Seir to Esau as his property. <sup>6</sup> You shall purchase food from them with money, that you may eat and shall also purchase water from them with money, that you may drink! <sup>7</sup> For the LORD, your God, has been blessing you in everything that your hands have been doing. He has been taking care of your journey in this vast wilderness. For these forty years the LORD, your God, has been with you, and you have not lacked anything.”’

<sup>8</sup> “So, we moved away from our relatives, the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. We left the road in the waterless region from Elath and Ezion-Geber. We changed direction and travelled along the road in the Wilderness of Moab.

<sup>9</sup> “The LORD told me, ‘Do not show hostility towards the Moabites and do not venture into military conflict with them! For I shall not give you any of their land to possess. For I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot as their property.’ <sup>10</sup> The Emites had lived there previously. They had been a mighty and numerous people and as tall as the Anakites. <sup>11</sup> They used to be regarded as Rephaites, like the Anakites, but the Moabites used to call them ‘Emites.’ <sup>12</sup> The Horites had previously been living in Seir, but the descendants of Esau dispossessed them, destroyed them as they advanced and settled in their place, as Israel did to the land that they possessed, which the LORD had given to them.

<sup>13</sup> “God said, ‘Now start out and cross over the Zered Valley!’ So, we crossed over the Zered Valley. <sup>14</sup> The time we took to come from Kadesh-Barnea until we crossed over the Zered Valley was thirty-eight years. We remained until that entire generation of the men who could fight was no longer present in the camp, as the LORD had sworn to them. <sup>15</sup> Indeed, the hand of the LORD was against them, to push them on, out of the camp, until they were annihilated.

Reminder to Israel about the Ammonites

<sup>16</sup> “When the men who could fight had all died and were no more among the people, <sup>17</sup> the LORD told me: <sup>18</sup> ‘Now you are about to go past Ar, along the border of Moab. <sup>19</sup> When you come close to the Ammonites, do not trouble them or venture into conflict with them! For I shall not give you any land of the Ammonites as your property. For I have given it to the descendants of Lot as their property.’ <sup>20</sup> (It had also been regarded as the land of the Rephaites, who had previously lived there, but the Ammonites used to call them ‘Zamzummites.’ <sup>21</sup> They had been a mighty and numerous people and as tall as the Anakites, but the LORD destroyed them as the Ammonites advanced, and the Ammonites dispossessed them and settled in their place. <sup>22</sup> The LORD had done the same for the descendants of Esau, who were living in Seir, when He destroyed the Horites as the descendants of Esau advanced. They dispossessed them, settled in their place and are still there today. <sup>23</sup> As for the Avvites who had been living in unwalled settlements as far as Gaza, the Caphtorites, who came from Caphtor, destroyed them and settled in their place.)

Reminder to Israel about the defeat of Sihon, the king of Heshbon — Numbers 21:21-32, Joshua 12:1-6, Judges 11:19-22

<sup>24</sup> “God said, ‘Move on, set out and cross over the stream of the Arnon! You see, I have handed over to you Sihon, the Amorite king of Heshbon and his land. Make a beginning, take possession and engage him in battle! <sup>25</sup> Today I shall begin to make all the nations under the sky fear you and be terrified of you. When they hear reports about you, they will tremble and squirm because of you.'

<sup>26</sup> "Then I sent messengers from the Wilderness of Kedemoth to Sihon, the king of Heshbon, offering peace and saying: <sup>27</sup> 'Let me pass through your land! I shall travel only on the road. I shall not turn aside to the right or to the left. <sup>28</sup> I shall pay you with money for food, that I may eat and shall pay you with money for the water that you provide me, that I may drink. Only let me pass through on foot, <sup>29</sup> as the descendants of Esau, who are living in Seir, and as the Moabites, who are living in Ar, have done for me, until I have crossed over the Jordan into the land that the LORD, our God, is giving to us!'

<sup>30</sup> "However, Sihon, the king of Heshbon, refused to let us pass through his territory. For the LORD, your God, had made him stubborn and had hardened his heart, that He might deliver him into your hands, as He now has done. <sup>31</sup> The LORD told me, 'Look! I have begun to place Sihon and his land before you. Go ahead! Take possession, that you may occupy his land!'

<sup>32</sup> "Then Sihon and all his army came out to meet us in battle at Jahaz. <sup>33</sup> However, the LORD, our God, delivered him over to us, and we defeated him with his sons and his whole army. <sup>34</sup> At that time we captured all his cities and devoted every town, with men, women and children, to destruction. We left no survivors. <sup>35</sup> We took only the livestock as plunder for ourselves, as well as the booty of the cities that we had captured. <sup>36</sup> From Aroer, which is on the edge of the stream of the Arnon and from the city that is in the valley, as far as Gilead, there was no city that was too strongly fortified for us. The LORD, our God, gave them all to us as we advanced. <sup>37</sup> However, you did not go near the land of the Ammonites, any land on the bank of the River Jabbok, the cities of the hill-country or anything else that the LORD, our God, had forbidden.

3

A reminder to Israel about the capture of the territory of Og, the king of Bashan — Numbers 21:33-35

<sup>1</sup> "When we turned and went up along the road toward Bashan, Og, the king of Bashan, came out with his whole army to meet us in battle at Edrei. <sup>2</sup> The LORD told me, 'Do not be afraid of him! For I have put him, all his people and his land in your hands. You shall do to him what you have done to Sihon, the king of the Amorites, who used to live in Heshbon!' <sup>3</sup> The LORD, our God, also put Og, the king of Bashan and his whole army into our hands. We struck him down until he had no survivors left. <sup>4</sup> At that time we captured all his cities. There was not one of the sixty cities that we did not take from them. We captured the whole district of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Ba-

shan. <sup>5</sup> All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates and bars. Besides, there were very many unwalled villages. <sup>6</sup> We devoted them to destruction, as we had done to Sihon, the king of Heshbon. We devoted every city to destruction, including men, women and children. <sup>7</sup> However, we took all the livestock and the booty of the cities as plunder for ourselves.

<sup>8</sup> "At that time we took the land from the two kings of the Amorites who were on this side of the Jordan, from the stream of the Arnon to Mount Hermon. <sup>9</sup> (The Sidonians call Hermon 'Sirion,' and the Amorites call it 'Senir'). <sup>10</sup> We took all the cities of the tableland, all Gilead and all Bashan, as far as Salcah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. <sup>11</sup> For only Og, the king of Bashan, was left from the remnant of the Rephaites. Indeed, his bedstead was made of iron. (Is it not still in Rabbah, the city of the Ammonites?) <sup>12</sup> It is four-and-a-half metres long and two metres wide according to the standard length of the cubit. <sup>12</sup> We took possession of this land at that time.

The allocation of land east of the Jordan to two and a half tribes — Numbers 32, Joshua 13:8-33

"I gave to Reuben and Gad the land from Aroer, beside the stream of the Arnon and half of the hill-country of Gilead, together with its cities. <sup>13</sup> I gave to half of the tribe of Manasseh the rest of Gilead and all of Bashan, the kingdom of Og. (The whole district of Argob, the whole of that part of Bashan, used to be called 'the Land of the Rephaites'). <sup>14</sup> Jair, the descendant of Manasseh, took the whole district of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites and called those places of Bashan by his own name, 'Havvoth-Jair,'<sup>72</sup> and they are still called that today. <sup>15</sup> I also gave Gilead to Machir. <sup>16</sup> I gave to Reuben and Gad the land extending from Gilead as far as the stream of the Arnon, with the middle of the stream as the border, as far as the stream of the Jabbok, which is the border of the Ammonites. <sup>17</sup> I also gave them the waterless plain, with the Jordan as the border, from Chinnereth to the eastern side of the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, below the slopes of Pisgah.

<sup>18</sup> "At that time I commanded you: 'The LORD, your God, has given you this land to possess. All your men qualified for military service shall cross over, ready for battle, ahead of your fellow-Israelites! <sup>19</sup> However, your wives, your children and your livestock (I know that you have much livestock) shall stay in your cities, which I have given you, <sup>20</sup> until the LORD gives rest to your fellow-Israelites as He has done to you and until they, too, have taken possession of the land that the LORD, your God, is giving to them on the other side of the Jordan! Then everyone may come back to his own hereditary property, which I have given to you.'

<sup>72</sup> Havvoth-Jair means, "Tent-villages of Jair."

21 “At that time I also commanded Joshua: ‘You have witnessed personally everything that the LORD, your God, has done to those two kings. The LORD will do the same to all the kingdoms into which you will cross over. 22 You shall not be afraid of them! For the LORD, your God, is Himself fighting for you.’

The denial of Moses’ wish to enter Canaan, but his permission to view Canaan from Mount Pisgah — Numbers 20:1-13

23 “At that time I pleaded with the LORD for pity:

24 ‘Lord GOD, You have begun to show Your servant that You are great and that Your hand is strong. For what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do the kinds of deeds and mighty acts that You have done?’

25 Please let me cross over and let me see the good land, which is on the other side of the Jordan, that fine hill-country and Lebanon!’

26 “However, the LORD was angry with me because of you and would not listen to me. The LORD told me: ‘Enough of that! Do not speak to Me about this matter any longer! 27 Go up to the top of Pisgah and look to the west, the north, the south and the east! See it with your own eyes! For you are not going to cross over the Jordan here. 28 Give instructions to Joshua, encourage him and strengthen him! For he will cross over at the head of these people. He will also give them hereditary possession of the land that you will see.’

29 “Then we stayed in the valley near Beth-Peor.

4

Instructions about how the Israelites should be loyal to the Law

1 “Now, Israel, listen to the Statutes and Decisions that I am teaching you to observe, that you may live, enter and take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving to you! 2 You shall not add anything to the Word that I am commanding you and you shall not take anything away from it, that you may keep the Commandments of the LORD, your God, which I am commanding you!

3 “With your own eyes you saw what the LORD did at Baal-Peor. The LORD, your God, destroyed everyone from among you who went after the Baal of Peor.

4 However, you who were faithful to the LORD, your God, are all alive today. 5 Look! I have taught you Statutes and Decisions, as the LORD, my God, has commanded me, that you may live according to them in the land to which you are going to possess.

Admonition not to forget Mount Sinai — Exodus 19:18-25

6 “Therefore, you shall keep them and observe them! For this is your wisdom and your understanding that the other peoples should see. For, when they hear all these Statutes, they will say, ‘Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people!’ 7 For what other great nation has gods who are as near to it as the LORD, our God, has been in everything for which we have called on Him? 8 Or what other great nation is there that has Statutes and Decisions as righteous as all this teaching, which I am setting before you today?

9 Only be on your guard and watch yourself carefully, that you may not forget the things that you have seen with your own eyes and that you may not fail to keep them in mind all your life! You shall teach them to your children and to your grandchildren! 10 Teach them about the day when you stood before the LORD, your God, at Horeb! Then the LORD told me: ‘Gather the people before Me, that I may let them hear My Words, that they may learn to fear Me while they live on the earth and that they may teach their children!’

11 You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain while the mountain was blazing with fire up to the middle of the sky while it was dark, cloudy and gloomy.

12 Then the LORD spoke to you out of the fire. You heard a voice speaking Words but saw no form. You heard only a voice.

13 He declared to you His Covenant, the Ten Commandments, which He commanded you to carry out. He then wrote them on two stone tablets. 14 At that time the LORD commanded me to teach you Statutes and Decisions that you might carry them out in the land into which you are crossing over to possess.

15 You shall watch yourselves very carefully! For you did not see any form when the LORD spoke to you out of the fire at Horeb.

16 Do this, that you may not act corruptly and carve an idol for yourselves, an image of any shape, a representation of any male or female, 17 a representation of any animal that is on the earth, a representation of any winged creature that flies in the sky, 18 a representation of any animal that creeps on the ground or a representation of any fish that is in the water below the earth! 19 Be careful that, when you look up to the sky and see the sun, the moon and the stars, the whole array of the sky, you are not led astray and worship them and serve them! For the LORD, your God, has made them available to all the nations under the sky! 20 However, the LORD has taken you and has brought you out of Egypt, that iron-smelter, that you may be a people that He inherits, as you are today.

21 “However, the LORD was angry with me because of you and swore that I should not cross over the Jordan or enter the good land that the LORD, your God, is giving to you as an inheritance. 22 For I shall die in this land. I shall not cross over the Jordan. However, you will cross over and inherit that good land.

23 “Be careful that you do not forget the Covenant of the LORD, your God, which He has made with you! Do not carve an idol for yourselves or a representation of anything that the LORD, your God, has forbidden!

24 For the LORD, your God, is a devouring fire, a jealous God.

25 “If, when you have children and grandchildren and become familiar with the land, you act corruptly and carve an idol or a representation of anything and if you do what the LORD, your God, considers evil and provoke Him to rage, 26 today I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you that you will certainly perish quickly from the land into which you are crossing over the Jordan to possess. You will not live long in it but will certainly be destroyed. <sup>27</sup> The LORD will scatter you among the other nations and only a few of you will survive among the nations to which the LORD will carry you away. <sup>28</sup> There you will serve wooden and stone gods that human hands have made, which cannot see, hear, eat or smell.

<sup>29</sup> “However, when from there you look for the LORD, your God, you will find Him when you search for Him with all your heart and with all your soul.

<sup>30</sup> When you are in distress and all these things come on you in later years, you will come back to the LORD, your God, and listen to what He says. <sup>31</sup> For the LORD, your God, is a compassionate God. He will not abandon you, destroy you or forget the Covenant that He confirmed by an oath with your forefathers.

<sup>32</sup> “For you should ask about former times, before your time, from the time when God created man on the earth! Ask from one end of the sky to the other! Has anything as grand as this ever happened? Or has anything like it ever been heard of? <sup>33</sup> Has any other nation ever heard the voice of God speaking out of a fire, as you have heard it and survived? <sup>34</sup> Or has any god ever tried to go and take for himself one nation out of another nation by trials, by miraculous signs and wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm or by awesome terrors, like all the things that the LORD, your God, has done for you in Egypt, before your very eyes? <sup>35</sup> You yourself were shown these things that you might know that the LORD is God. There is no one else besides Him.

<sup>36</sup> He caused you to hear His voice from heaven to train you. He showed you His great fire on the earth, and you heard His Words out of the middle of the fire.

<sup>37</sup> Moreover, because He loved your forefathers and chose their descendants after them, He brought you out of Egypt by His Presence and His great strength, <sup>38</sup> to dispossess before you nations that are greater and mightier than you are, to bring you in and to give you their land as your inheritance, as He is doing today.

<sup>39</sup> “You shall acknowledge and take to heart today that the LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth below! There is no other. <sup>40</sup> You shall keep His Statutes and His Commandments, which I am giving you today, that it may be well with you and your children after you and that you may live long in the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you for all time!”

The allocation of three cities of refuge east of the Jordan — Numbers 35:6-34, Deuteronomy 19:1-14, Joshua 20:1-9

<sup>41</sup> Then Moses set aside three cities on the one side, the eastern side, of the Jordan, <sup>42</sup> to which a person might flee when he has killed another person unintentionally, when he had not hated him in the past. If he fled to one of these cities, he would stay alive. <sup>43</sup> He chose Bezer in the wilderness, on the tableland, for Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead for Gad and Golan in Bashan for Manasseh.

A reminder about the Ten Commandments — Exodus 20:1-21

<sup>44</sup> This is the Law that Moses set before the Israelites.

<sup>45</sup> These are the Testimonies, the Prescriptions and the Decisions that Moses spoke to the Israelites when they had come out of Egypt. <sup>46</sup> They were on the eastern side of the Jordan in the valley near Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon, the king of the Amorites, who used to live in Heshbon. Moses and the Israelites had defeated him when they had come out of Egypt. <sup>47</sup> They took possession of his land and the land of Og, the king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites, who had been on the eastern side of the Jordan. <sup>48</sup> This land extended from Aroer, which is on the bank of the stream of the Arnon, as far as Mount Sion (that is, Hermon), <sup>49</sup> and included all the waterless plain on the eastern side of the Jordan as far as the Sea of the Arabah, below the slopes of Pisgah.

5

<sup>1</sup> Moses summoned all Israel and told them: “Hear, O Israel, the Prescriptions and the Decisions that I am speaking today for you to hear! You shall learn them and be careful to carry them out! <sup>2</sup> The LORD, our God, made a Covenant with us at Horeb. <sup>3</sup> He did not make this Covenant with our forefathers but with us, with all of us, who are alive here today. <sup>4</sup> The LORD spoke to you face to face from the middle of the fire on the mountain. <sup>5</sup> At that time I was standing between the LORD and you, to declare to you the Word of the LORD, because you were afraid of the fire and did not go up on the mountain. He said: <sup>6</sup> ‘I am the LORD, your God, and I have brought you out of slave-quarters in the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup> You shall not have any other gods before Me! <sup>8</sup> You shall not make any carved image for yourself or any likeness of anything that is in the sky above, that is on the earth below or that is in the water below the earth! <sup>9</sup> You shall not bow down to them or serve them! For I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God. I punish the children for the sin of the parents to the third and fourth generation of those who hate Me. <sup>10</sup> However, I show mercy to a thousand generations of those who love Me and keep My Commandments. <sup>11</sup> You shall not use the name of the LORD, your God, in a wrong way! For the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who uses His name wrongly. <sup>12</sup> Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as the LORD, your God, has commanded you! <sup>13</sup> You shall labour and do all your work for six days! <sup>14</sup> However, the seventh day is a Sabbath for the LORD, your God. You shall not do any work, you, your son, your daughter, your manservant, your maidservant, your ox, your donkey, any of your domestic animals or your foreign resident, who is inside your gates, that your manservant and maidservant may rest, as you do! <sup>15</sup> You shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt and the LORD, your God, brought you out from there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm! Therefore, the LORD, your God, has commanded you to observe the Sabbath day. <sup>16</sup> Honour your father and your mother, as the LORD, your God, has commanded you, that your days may be prolonged and that it may be well with you in the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you! <sup>17</sup> You shall not murder! <sup>18</sup> You shall not commit adultery! <sup>19</sup> You shall not steal! <sup>20</sup> You shall not give false witness against your neighbour! <sup>21</sup> You shall not selfishly desire your neighbour's wife or wish that you had his home, his field, his male servant, his female servant, his ox, his donkey or anything else that belongs to your neighbour!

The role of Moses as intermediary between God and the people — Exodus 20:18-21

<sup>22</sup> “These are the Commandments that the LORD spoke in a loud voice to your whole assembly on the mountain, out of the fire, the cloud and the thick darkness. He added nothing more. Then He wrote them on two stone tablets and gave them to me.

<sup>23</sup> “However, when you heard the voice coming out of the darkness while the mountain was blazing with fire, all the leaders of your tribes and your elders came to me. <sup>24</sup> You said, ‘Look! The LORD, our God, has shown us His glory and His majesty, and we have heard His voice from the fire. We have seen today that God may speak to a man and yet he may stay alive. <sup>25</sup> Now, therefore, why should we die? For this great fire will consume us. If we hear the voice of the LORD, our God, yet again, we shall die. <sup>26</sup> For what human being has ever heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the fire, as we have done and yet has stayed alive? <sup>27</sup> You go near yourself and listen to everything that the LORD, our God, speaks! Then you shall speak to us everything that the LORD, our God, speaks to you! We shall listen and put it into practice.’

<sup>28</sup> “The LORD heard what you had said to me. The LORD told me, ‘I have heard what these people have said to you. They have been right in everything that they have said. <sup>29</sup> I wish that they were always inclined to fear Me like this and always keep all My Commandments, that it might be well with them and with their children for ever! <sup>30</sup> Go and tell them: “Return to your tents!”’ <sup>31</sup> However, you yourself, stay here with Me! I shall speak to you all the Commandments, the Prescriptions and the Decisions. Then you shall teach them to them, that they may observe them in the land that I am giving to them to possess!’

<sup>32</sup> “Therefore, you shall be careful to do as the LORD, your God, has commanded you! You shall not turn aside to the right or to the left! <sup>33</sup> You shall walk in the whole Way that the LORD, your God, has commanded you, that you may live, that it may be well with you and that you may live for a long time in the land that you will possess!

The Commandment to love God

<sup>1</sup> “These are the Commandments and these are the Prescriptions and the Decisions that the LORD, your God, has commanded me to teach you to observe in the land into which you are crossing over to occupy, <sup>2</sup> that you, your children and your grandchildren may fear the LORD, your God, by keeping all His Statutes and His Commandments, which I am giving you, all the days of your life and that you may have a long life. <sup>3</sup> You shall hear, O Israel and shall be careful to do them, that all may be well with you and that you may become very numerous in a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised you!

<sup>4</sup> “Hear, O Israel! The LORD, our God, the LORD is one. <sup>5</sup> You shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your strength! <sup>6</sup> These Words, which I am commanding you today, shall be in your heart! <sup>7</sup> You shall recite them to your children and talk about them when you sit at home, when you walk on the road, when you lie down and when you get up! <sup>8</sup> You shall tie them as a sign on your wrist, and they shall become headbands on your forehead! <sup>9</sup> You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates!”

A warning against disobedience

<sup>10</sup> “When the LORD, your God, brings you into the land that He swore to your forefathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, that He would give to you, there will be large and lovely cities, which you have not built. <sup>11</sup> There will be houses full of all kinds of good things, which you have not filled. There will be cisterns already dug out, which you have not dug and vineyards and olive-trees, which you have not planted. Then you will have as much as you want. <sup>12</sup> Be careful that you do not forget the LORD, who has brought you out of slave-quarters in the land of Egypt! <sup>13</sup> You shall fear the LORD, your God, serve Him and use His name when you swear your oaths!

<sup>14</sup> “You shall not follow other gods, any of the gods of the peoples that are around you! <sup>15</sup> For the LORD, your God, who is among you, is a jealous God. Otherwise, the anger of the LORD, your God, will burn against you, and He will destroy you from the face of the land.

<sup>16</sup> “You shall not test the LORD, your God, as you tested Him at Massah! <sup>17</sup> You shall carefully keep the Commandments of the LORD, your God, His Testimonies and His Prescriptions, which He has commanded you! <sup>18</sup> You shall do what the LORD considers right and good, that it may be well with you and that you may go in and take possession of the good land that the LORD has promised with an oath to your forefathers, <sup>19</sup> that He may drive away all your enemies as you advance, as the LORD has promised! <sup>20</sup> In the future, when your son asks you, ‘What is the meaning of these Testimonies, Prescriptions and Decisions, which the LORD, our God, has commanded you?’<sup>21</sup> you shall tell your son, ‘We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand!’<sup>22</sup> The LORD sent miraculous signs and great, destructive wonders against Egypt, against Pharaoh and against his whole family while we watched them.<sup>23</sup> Then He brought us out from there, that He might bring us in and give us the land that He promised with an oath to our forefathers.<sup>24</sup> The LORD commanded us to keep all these Prescriptions and to fear the LORD, our God, that we might always prosper, that He might preserve us alive, as He is doing today.<sup>25</sup> We shall be righteous if we are careful to observe all these Commandments before the LORD, our God, as He has commanded us.’

7

The Command to wipe out the Canaanites and their idols

<sup>1</sup> “When the LORD, your God, brings you to the land that you are about to enter to possess and when He drives out before you many nations, the Hittites the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, seven nations more numerous and stronger than you are,<sup>2</sup> and when the LORD, your God, delivers them to you and you defeat them, you shall destroy them completely! You shall not make a treaty with them or show mercy to them!<sup>3</sup> You shall not become related to them by marriage! You shall not give your daughter to his son to marry! You shall not take his daughter for your son to marry!<sup>4</sup> For they will turn your sons away from following Me and they will serve other gods. Then the anger of the LORD will burn against you and will quickly destroy you.<sup>5</sup> Rather, this is how you shall treat them: You shall tear down their altars, you shall smash their sacred stones, you shall break their cultic posts in pieces and burn their idols with fire!

God’s desire for His people to be His own — Exodus 34:10-16

<sup>6</sup> “For you are a people that is holy to the LORD, your God. The LORD, your God, has chosen you out of all the other peoples on the surface of the earth to be a people that is His personal property.<sup>7</sup> The LORD has not clung to you and chosen you because you had been more numerous than all the other nations. For you were the smallest of all the nations.<sup>8</sup> Rather, because the LORD loved you and kept the oath that He had made with your forefathers, the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from slave-quarters, from the power of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt.<sup>9</sup> Therefore, you shall know that the LORD, your God, is God, the faithful God, who keeps His Covenant and His mercy for a thousand generations with those who love Him and who keep His Commandments!<sup>10</sup> However, He repays to his face and will destroy each of those who hate Him. He will not hold back from the person who hates Him. He will repay him to his face.

<sup>11</sup> “You shall keep the Commandments, the Prescriptions and the Decisions, which I am giving you today, by putting them into practice!<sup>12</sup> Then, because you will listen to these Decisions and will be careful to observe them, the LORD, your God, will keep with you the Covenant and the mercy that He promised with an oath to your forefathers.<sup>13</sup> He will love you, bless you and increase your numbers. He will bless the fruit of your womb, the crops of your land, your grain, your wine, your olive-oil, the offspring of your cattle and the increase of your flocks in the land that the LORD promised with an oath to your fathers to give to you.<sup>14</sup> You will be more blessed than all other peoples will be. There will be no male without offspring and no female without offspring among you or among your livestock.<sup>15</sup> The LORD will keep away from you every kind of illness. He will not inflict on you any of the severe Egyptian diseases with which you are familiar but inflict them on all who hate you.

<sup>16</sup> “You shall consume all the peoples that the LORD, your God, is handing over to you! You shall not look compassionately on them or serve their gods! For that will be a snare to you.<sup>17</sup> If you think: ‘These nations are more numerous than I am. How can I drive them out?’<sup>18</sup> you shall not be afraid of them! You shall remember clearly what the LORD, your God, has done to Pharaoh and all the Egyptians!<sup>19</sup> You saw with your own eyes the great trials, the miraculous signs, the omens, the mighty hand and the outstretched arm, with which the LORD, your God, brought you out. The LORD, your God, will do the same to all the peoples of whom you are afraid.<sup>20</sup> Moreover, the LORD, your God, will also make them discouraged, until the survivors and those who hide from you have perished.<sup>21</sup> You shall not be terrified by them! For the LORD, your God, a great and awesome God, is among you.<sup>22</sup> The LORD, your God, will only gradually drive these nations away. You will not be able to destroy them quickly. Otherwise the wild animals will become too many for you.<sup>23</sup> However, the LORD, your God, will hand them over to you and throw them into great confusion, until they are destroyed.<sup>24</sup> He will put their kings in your power, and you will wipe out their names from under the sky. No one will be able to stand up against you until you have exterminated them.<sup>25</sup> You shall burn up the images of their gods! You shall not try to acquire the silver and gold on them take them for yourself! Otherwise, they will ensnare you. For they are detestable to the LORD, your God.<sup>26</sup> You shall not bring any detestable thing into your home, that you may not be totally destroyed, like it! You shall thoroughly detest it and loathe it! For it is set apart for destruction.”

8

An admonition to remember past deliverance and not to forget God in times of prosperity

<sup>1</sup> “You shall be careful to carry out all the Commandments that I am giving to you today, that you may live, become numerous, enter and take possession of the land that the LORD has promised with an oath to your forefathers! <sup>2</sup> You shall also remember the whole journey on which the LORD, your God, led you through the wilderness these forty years, that He might humble you and test you, that He might know what is in your hearts, whether you would keep His Commandments or not! <sup>3</sup> So, He humbled you, let you go hungry and fed you with manna, which neither you nor your forefathers had known about, to teach you that a human being does not live by bread alone but that a human being lives by every Word that comes out of the mouth of the LORD. <sup>4</sup> Your clothes did not wear out on you, and your feet did not swell during these forty years. <sup>5</sup> You shall know in your hearts that, as a man disciplines his son, so the LORD, your God, is disciplining you! <sup>6</sup> You shall keep the Commandments of the LORD, your God, by walking in His Ways and by fearing Him! <sup>7</sup> For the LORD, your God, is bringing you into a good land, a land with streams of water, springs and subterranean water, which flows out of valleys and hills. <sup>8</sup> It is a land with wheat and barley, grapevines, fig trees and pomegranates, a land with olive-oil and honey, <sup>9</sup> a land where you will eat bread without poverty, where you will lack nothing, a land the stones of which are iron and out of the hills of which you can dig copper. <sup>10</sup> You will eat all you want and bless the LORD, your God, for the good land that He has given to you.

<sup>11</sup> “Be careful that you do not forget the LORD, your God, by failing to keep His Commandments, His Decisions and His Statutes, which I am commanding you today! <sup>12</sup> Otherwise you will eat all you want, build fine houses and live in them, <sup>13</sup> your herd and your flock will increase, you will acquire more and more silver and gold and everything that you have will increase, <sup>14</sup> and then your heart will become proud and you will forget the LORD, your God, who has brought you out of slave-quarters in the land of Egypt! <sup>15</sup> He has been the One who has been leading you through the great and terrible desert with venomous snakes and scorpions, a thirsty region without water. He is the One who made water come out of the flinty rock for you. <sup>16</sup> He is the One who has been feeding you in the wilderness with manna, which your forefathers had not known, to humble you, to test you and to do you good in the end. <sup>17</sup> If you think, ‘My power and my strong hand have produced this wealth for me,’ <sup>18</sup> then you shall remember the LORD, your God! For He is the One who is giving you the power to produce wealth, that He may fulfil His Covenant, which He made by an oath with your forefathers, as it is in effect today. <sup>19</sup> However, if you really do forget the LORD, your God, follow other gods, serve them and bow down to them, I testify against you today that you will certainly be destroyed. <sup>20</sup> Then you will be destroyed like the nations whom the LORD is destroying ahead of you, because you refuse to listen to what the LORD, your God, says.”

9

A reminder that the Israelites will not inherit Canaan because of their goodness but because of God's mercy

<sup>1</sup> “Listen, Israel! You are now crossing over the Jordan to go in, force out nations that are greater and stronger than you are, with large cities, which are fortified up to the sky. <sup>2</sup> They are a great and tall people, the Anakites, about whom you know. You yourself have heard it said, ‘Who can stand before the descendants of Anak?’ <sup>3</sup> You shall be aware today that the LORD, your God, is the One who is crossing over ahead of you like a consuming fire! He Himself will destroy them. He Himself will subdue them before you. You will dispossess them and quickly destroy them, as the LORD has promised you.

<sup>4</sup> “Do not think, when the LORD, your God, drives them out ahead of you, ‘Because I am righteous, the LORD has brought me in to take possession of this land!’ No, the LORD is dispossessing these nations ahead of you because they are wicked. <sup>5</sup> It is not because of your righteousness or your integrity that you are going in to take possession of their land. Rather, because of the wickedness of these people, the LORD, your God, is dispossessing them ahead of you, and that the LORD may fulfil the promise that He made by an oath to your forefathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, you shall understand that it is not because of your own righteousness that the LORD, your God, is giving you this good land to possess! For you are a stubborn people. <sup>7</sup> Remember and do not forget, that you provoked the LORD, your God, to anger in the wilderness! From the day when you came out of the land of Egypt until you arrived at this place you have been behaving rebelliously against the LORD.

A reminder about the worship of the golden calf — Exodus 32: 1-35

<sup>8</sup> “Even at Horeb you provoked the LORD to anger, and the LORD became angry enough with you to destroy you. <sup>9</sup> When I went up the mountain to receive the stone tablets, the tablets of the Covenant, which the LORD made with you, I stayed on the mountain for forty days and forty nights without eating bread or drinking water. <sup>10</sup> The LORD gave me the two stone tablets, written with the finger of God. On them the Commandments were exactly as the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain from the middle of the fire on the day of the assembly. <sup>11</sup> At the end of the forty days and forty nights, the LORD gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the Covenant. <sup>12</sup> Then the LORD told me, ‘Get up! Go down from here at once! For your people, whom you have brought out of Egypt, have been acting corruptly. They have quickly turned away from the Way that I have commanded them. They have made a cast image for themselves.’

<sup>13</sup> The LORD also told me, ‘I have seen these people and, indeed, they are a stubborn people. <sup>14</sup> Let Me alone, that I may destroy them and blot out their name under the sky! I shall make you into a nation that is stronger and more numerous than they are.’ <sup>15</sup> Then I turned and went down from the mountain, which was flaming with fire. The two tablets of the Covenant were in my two hands. <sup>16</sup> When I looked, I saw that you had been sinning against the LORD, your God. You had made a cast image of a calf for yourselves. You had quickly turned aside from the Way that the LORD had commanded you. <sup>17</sup> I took hold of the two tablets, flung them out of my two hands and broke them in pieces while you were watching. <sup>18</sup> I threw myself down before the LORD as I had done the first time, for forty days and forty nights. I did not eat bread or drink water because of all the sin that you had committed in doing what the LORD regarded as evil and in provoking Him to rage. <sup>19</sup> For I was afraid of the anger and wrath of the LORD, who was furious enough with you to destroy you. However, at that time also the LORD listened to me. <sup>20</sup> The LORD was also very angry with Aaron, enough to destroy him. However, at that time I also prayed for Aaron. <sup>21</sup> I also took the calf, the wicked thing that you had made, and burned it up. I had beaten it in pieces and had ground it thoroughly until it was as fine as dust. Then I threw its dust into the stream that was flowing down from the mountain.

Other examples of the Israelites' disobedience in the wilderness

<sup>22</sup> “At Taberah, Massah and Kibroth-Hattaavah you kept on provoking the LORD to anger. <sup>23</sup> When the LORD sent you out from Kadesh-Barnea, He said, ‘Go up and take possession of the land that I have given to you,’ but you behaved obstinately against the Command of the LORD, your God, and did not trust Him or listen to what He said. <sup>24</sup> You have been behaving obstinately against the LORD ever since I have known you. <sup>25</sup> I prayed before the LORD those forty days and forty nights while I lay prostrate, because the LORD had said that He would destroy you. <sup>26</sup> I prayed to the LORD and said, ‘Lord GOD, do not destroy Your people, Your own inheritance, whom You have redeemed by Your great power and have brought out of Egypt with a strong hand! <sup>27</sup> Remember Your servants Abraham, Isaac and Jacob! Overlook the stubbornness of these people, their wickedness and their sin! <sup>28</sup> Otherwise, the land out of which You have brought us will say: “Because the LORD could not bring them into the land that He had promised to them because He hated them, He brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.” <sup>29</sup> Nevertheless, they are Your people and Your inheritance, which You have brought out by Your great power and Your outstretched arm.’

10

The instruction for making the ark and God's provision of two new tablets

— Exodus 34:1-28

<sup>1</sup> “At that time the LORD told me: ‘Hew out two stone tablets like the first ones and come up to Me on the mountain! You shall also make an Ark of wood!

<sup>2</sup> Then I shall write on the tablets the Words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. You shall place them in the Ark!’

<sup>3</sup> “I made an Ark of acacia wood, hewed out two stone tablets like the first ones and went up on the mountain with the two tablets in my hands. <sup>4</sup> He wrote on the tablets the same as He had written on the first ones, the Ten Commandments, which the LORD had spoken to you on the mountain out of the fire, on the day of the assembly. Then the LORD gave them to me. <sup>5</sup> I turned, came back down from the mountain and placed the tablets in the Ark, which I had made, as the LORD had commanded me, and they have remained there.

<sup>6</sup> “The Israelites set out from the wells of Bene-Jaakan to Moserah. Aaron died there. He was buried and his son Eleazar succeeded him in performing the duties of a priest. <sup>7</sup> From there they journeyed to Gudgodah and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land with streams of water.

<sup>8</sup> “At that time the LORD set the tribe of Levi apart to carry the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD, to minister to Him and to pronounce blessings using His name, as they still do today. <sup>9</sup> This is why Levi has had no share of property or inheritance among his fellow-Israelites. The LORD is his inheritance, as the LORD, your God, promised him.

<sup>10</sup> “I stayed on the mountain for forty days and forty nights as I had done the first time. The LORD listened to me at this time also and the LORD consented not to destroy you. <sup>11</sup> The LORD told me, ‘Get up and start out on your journey before the people, that they may go in and take possession of the land that I have sworn to give to their forefathers!’

An encouragement to Israel to love God and to follow His guidance

<sup>12</sup> “So now, Israel, what does the LORD, your God, ask of you but to fear the LORD, your God, to walk in all His Ways, to love Him, to serve the LORD, your God, with all your heart and with all your soul <sup>13</sup> and to keep the Commandments of the LORD and His Statutes, which I am commanding you today for your own good? <sup>14</sup> Look! The heavens, the heaven of heavens, the earth and everything in it belong to the LORD, your God. <sup>15</sup> The LORD has set His affection only on your forefathers, to love them, and has chosen you, their descendants after them, rather than all the other nations, as is so today. <sup>16</sup> Therefore, circumcise your uncircumcised hearts! You shall not be stubborn any longer! <sup>17</sup> For the LORD, your God, is the God of gods and the Lord of lords, the great, the mighty and the awesome God, who shows no partiality and accepts no bribe. <sup>18</sup> He administers justice for the orphan and the widow. He loves the foreigner and gives him food and clothing. <sup>19</sup> You shall also love the foreigner! For you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. <sup>20</sup> You shall fear the LORD, your God! You shall serve Him! You shall be faithful to Him and use His name when you swear oaths! <sup>21</sup> He is the One whom you praise and He is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things, which you have seen with your own eyes. <sup>22</sup> Your forefathers numbered seventy persons when they went down into Egypt, and now the LORD, your God, has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky.

11

A promise of blessings if the Israelites are obedient

<sup>1</sup> “Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God and always keep His Requirements, His Statutes, His Decisions and His Commandments! <sup>2</sup> You shall be aware today that I am not speaking to your children, who have not known or experienced the discipline of the LORD, your God! You have experienced His majesty, His mighty hand and His outstretched arm, <sup>3</sup> His miraculous signs and His works, which He performed in the heart of Egypt to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to his whole country. <sup>4</sup> You have experienced what He did to the army of Egypt, its horses and chariots, that He made the water of the Red Sea flood before them when they were pursuing you, and that the LORD destroyed them, to this day. <sup>5</sup> You have also experienced what He did for you in the wilderness until you arrived at this place. <sup>6</sup> You have experienced what He did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the descendant of Reuben, that the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, their families, their tents and every living thing that followed them, in the middle of all Israel. <sup>7</sup> On the contrary, it was with your own eyes that you saw all the great work that the LORD has done.

<sup>8</sup> “Therefore, you shall keep all the Commandments that I am now commanding you today that you may be strong and may go in and possess the land into which you are crossing over the Jordan to occupy! <sup>9</sup> Do this, that you may live for a long time in the land that the LORD swore to your forefathers to give to them and to their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey! <sup>10</sup> For the land that you are going to enter and possess is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you used to sow your seed and then water it with your foot like a vegetable garden. <sup>11</sup> The land into which you are crossing over to occupy is a land of hills and valleys, which drinks water that rains from the sky. <sup>12</sup> It is a land for which the LORD, your God, cares. The eyes of the LORD, your God, are on it unceasingly, from the beginning of the year to the very end of the year.

<sup>13</sup> “If you listen intently to My Commandments, which I am ordering you today, to love the LORD, your God, and serve Him with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>14</sup> then I shall give you the rain for your land at the right time, the Autumn-rain and the Spring-rain, so that you gather in your grain, your wine and your olive-oil. <sup>15</sup> I shall give grass in your field for your livestock, and you will eat as much as you want.

<sup>16</sup> “Be careful that your hearts are not easily deceived, that you may not turn away, serve other gods and worship them! <sup>17</sup> Otherwise, the anger of the LORD will burn against you, and He will shut up the sky, so that there will be no rain, the ground will not yield its produce and you will quickly perish from the good land that the LORD is giving to you.

<sup>18</sup> “You shall put these Words of Mine in your hearts and minds! You shall tie them as signs on your wrists and wear them as headbands, as reminders! <sup>19</sup> You shall teach them to your children, speaking about them when you sit at home, when you walk along on the road, when you lie down and when you get up! <sup>20</sup> Each of you shall write them on the doorposts of his home and on his gates, <sup>21</sup> that your days and the days of your children may be many in the land that the LORD has sworn to your forefathers to give them and that you may live there for as long as the sky is over the earth! <sup>22</sup> For, if you carefully keep all these Commandments, which I am ordering you to carry out, so that you love the LORD, your God, walk in all His Ways and are faithful to Him, <sup>23</sup> the LORD will drive out all these nations before you, and you will dispossess nations that are greater and more numerous than you are. <sup>24</sup> Every place on which the sole of your foot treads will be yours. Your territory will extend from the wilderness to Lebanon and from the Euphrates River to the Western Sea. <sup>25</sup> No one will stand against you. The LORD, your God, will make people terrified of you on the surface of the whole land on which you tread, as He has promised you.

An instruction to recite the promises of blessing and the threats of curse — Deuteronomy 27:11-28:68, Joshua 8:30-35

<sup>26</sup> “Look! Today I am setting before you a blessing and a curse. <sup>27</sup> I am setting before you the blessing if you keep the Commandments of the LORD, your God, which I am ordering you today. <sup>28</sup> I am also setting the curse before you if you refuse to listen to the Commandments of the LORD, your God, and turn aside from the Way that I am commanding you today by following other gods, which you have not known. <sup>29</sup> When the LORD, your God, brings you into the land that you are entering to possess, you shall recite the blessings from Mount Gerizim and the curses from Mount Ebal! <sup>30</sup> Are they not on the other side of the Jordan, beyond the road that goes toward the setting sun, in the land of the Canaanites who live in the waterless region, opposite Gilgal, near the big trees at Moreh? <sup>31</sup> For you are crossing over the Jordan to go in and take possession of the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you and you will take possession of it and live in it. <sup>32</sup> However, you shall put into practice all the Prescriptions and the Decisions that I am setting before you today!”

12

A command to worship in only one place and to destroy pagan shrines

<sup>1</sup> “These are the Prescriptions and Decisions that you shall carefully put into practice in the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving to you to possess all your life in the land. <sup>2</sup> You shall completely destroy all the places where the nations that you are driving out have been serving their gods, on the high mountains, on the hills and under every leafy tree! <sup>3</sup> You shall tear down their altars, you shall break to pieces their sacred stones, you shall burn up their cultic posts, cut down the images of their gods and destroy their names from each of those places! <sup>4</sup> You shall not do as they have been doing when you worship the LORD, your God! <sup>5</sup> Rather, you shall look for the place where the LORD, your God, will choose out of all your tribes to put His name for His dwelling and you shall go there! <sup>6</sup> You shall take to that place your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the contributions that you take in your hands, your vowed offerings, your freewill offerings and the first-born of your herds and flocks! <sup>7</sup> You shall eat there in the presence of the LORD, your God, and rejoice together with your families over everything that you have undertaken, because the LORD, your God, has blessed you!

<sup>8</sup> “You shall not in any way do what we are doing here today, where each one does what seems right to him! <sup>9</sup> For you have not yet come to the place of rest and the inheritance that the LORD, your God, is giving to you. <sup>10</sup> However, you will cross over the Jordan and live in the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you to inherit, and He will give you rest from all your enemies around you, so that you will live in safety. <sup>11</sup> Then you shall bring, to the place where the LORD, your God, chooses to make His name dwell, everything that I am commanding you: your burnt offerings, your sacrifices, your tithes, the contributions that you bring in your hands and every choicest one of your offerings that you vow to the LORD! <sup>12</sup> You shall rejoice before the LORD, your God, together with your sons, your daughters, your menservants, your maidservants and the Levite who lives inside your city! For he has no share of property or inheritance with you. <sup>13</sup> Be careful not to sacrifice your burnt offerings in any place that you see! <sup>14</sup> Instead, you shall sacrifice your burnt offerings at the place that the LORD chooses in one of your tribes and there you shall do everything that I am commanding you!

Regulations about the slaughter of meat away from the place of worship

<sup>15</sup> “Nevertheless, you may slaughter and eat whatever meat your heart desires in any of your cities, as the LORD, your God, has blessed you. A ceremonially unclean person and a clean person may eat it as if it were a gazelle or a deer. <sup>16</sup> However, you shall not eat the blood! You shall pour it on the ground like water! <sup>17</sup> You shall not dare to eat inside your cities the tithe of your grain, your wine or your olive-oil, the first-born of your herds or flocks, any offering that you have vowed, your freewill offerings or any contribution that you bring in your hands! <sup>18</sup> Instead, you shall eat these before the LORD, your God, at the place that the LORD, your God, chooses, together with your son, your daughter, your manservant, your maidservant and the Levite who lives in your city! You shall rejoice before the LORD, your God, over everything that you undertake! <sup>19</sup> Be careful that you do not neglect the Levite all your life in your land!

<sup>20</sup> “When the LORD, your God, extends your territory, as He has promised you, and you say, ‘I should like to eat some meat,’ because you want to eat meat, then you may eat as much meat as your heart desires. <sup>21</sup> When the place where the LORD, your God, chooses to put His name is too far away, you may slaughter any of your herd or your flock, which the LORD has given you, in the way in which He has commanded you and you may eat as much as your heart desires in your city. <sup>22</sup> Indeed, you may eat it as you would eat a gazelle or a deer. A ceremonially unclean person as well as a clean person may eat it. <sup>23</sup> Nevertheless, be determined not to eat the blood, because the blood is the life! You shall not eat the life with the meat! <sup>24</sup> You shall not eat it but pour it on the ground like water! <sup>25</sup> You shall avoid eating it, that it may be well with you and with your descendants after you! For you will be doing what the LORD considers right.

The use of blood and meat at the place of worship

<sup>26</sup> “However, you shall take the consecrated things that you have and the offerings that you have vowed and shall come to the place that the LORD chooses! <sup>27</sup> You shall prepare your burnt offerings, both the meat and the blood, on the altar of the LORD, your God but you shall pour out the blood of your sacrifices against the altar of the LORD, your God! Then you may eat the meat. <sup>28</sup> You shall listen carefully to all these things, which I am commanding you, that it may always go well with you and your descendants after you! For you shall do what the LORD, your God, considers good and right!

An admonition to avoid idolatrous worship

<sup>29</sup> “When the LORD, your God, cuts off before you the nations where you are going, to dispossess them, and you drive them out and settle in their land, <sup>30</sup> be careful that you are not ensnared into imitating them after they have been destroyed ahead of you! Be careful not to inquire about their gods, asking, ‘How did these nations serve their gods, that I also may do the same?’ <sup>31</sup> You shall not worship the LORD, your God, as they have been worshipping their gods! For they have been doing to their gods everything that the LORD detests and hates. For they used to burn even their sons and daughters in fire to their gods.

<sup>32</sup> “You shall be careful to put into practice everything that I am commanding you! You shall not add to it or take anything away from it!

13

A command to kill any prophet who wants the Israelites to worship idols

<sup>1</sup> “When anyone appears among you as a prophet or a person with dreams and offers you a miraculous sign or a wonder, <sup>2</sup> and the miraculous sign or wonder that he has promised you takes place and he says, ‘Let us follow other gods’ (which you have not known), ‘and let us serve them!’ <sup>3</sup> you shall not listen to what that prophet or that man who has dreams is saying! For the LORD, your God, is testing you, to find out if you love the LORD, your God, with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>4</sup> It is the LORD, your God, whom you shall follow. You shall fear Him! You shall keep His Commandments, you shall listen to what He says, you shall serve Him and be faithful to Him! <sup>5</sup> That prophet or that man who has dreams shall be put to death! For he has preached apostasy against the LORD, your God, who has brought you out of the land of Egypt and has redeemed you from slave-quarters. He has been trying to lead you astray from the Way on which the LORD, your God, has commanded you to go. You shall completely remove the evil from among you!

<sup>6</sup> “When your brother, your mother’s son, your son, your daughter, your wife, whom you love or your friend, who is as dear as your own life, secretly coaxes you: ‘Let us go and serve other gods!’ (which you and your forefathers have not known), <sup>7</sup> some of the gods of the nations that are around you, either near to you or far from you, from one end of the world to the other, <sup>8</sup> you shall not yield to him or listen to him! You shall not pity him, you shall not spare him or conceal him! <sup>9</sup> Rather, you shall certainly put him to death! Your hand shall be the first in putting him to death, and after that the hands of all the other people shall join you! <sup>10</sup> You shall stone him to death because he has tried to lead you astray from the LORD, your God, who has brought you out of slave-quarters in the land of Egypt! <sup>11</sup> Then all Israel will hear about it, will be afraid and never again do such an evil thing among you.

<sup>12</sup> “When you hear it said about one of your cities, which the LORD, your God, is giving you to live in, <sup>13</sup> ‘Certain wicked men have come out from among you and have been leading astray the people who are living in their city, by saying, “Let us go and serve other gods!”’ (which you have not known), <sup>14</sup> then you shall make inquiries, you shall investigate and demand thorough information! If it is indeed true and it has been established that this detestable thing has been done among you, <sup>15</sup> you shall certainly strike down with the sword the people who live in this city! You shall devote it to destruction with everything in it, including its livestock, with the edge of the sword!

<sup>16</sup> You shall gather all the plunder from the city into the middle of its public square and completely burn up the city and all the plunder from it, as an offering to the LORD, your God! It shall always be a mound of ruins and never be rebuilt! <sup>17</sup> None of the condemned things shall cling to your hand, that the LORD may turn from His fierce anger, have compassion on you, show love for you and increase your numbers, as He has promised with an oath to your forefathers! <sup>18</sup> For you shall listen to what the LORD, your God, is telling you, so that you keep all His Regulations, which I am commanding you today, so that you do what the LORD, your God, considers right!

14

God’s desire for His people to be His personal property

<sup>1</sup> “You are the children of the LORD, your God. You shall not inflict cuts on yourselves or shave the fronts of your heads bare for a dead person! <sup>2</sup> For you are a people that is holy to the LORD, your God and the LORD has chosen you out of all the peoples that are on the surface of the earth to be a people that is His personal property.

The command to eat only ceremonially clean animals — Leviticus 11: 1-47

<sup>3</sup> “You shall not eat any detestable thing! <sup>4</sup> These are the animals that you may eat: an ox, a sheep, a goat, <sup>5</sup> a deer, a gazelle, a roebuck, a wild goat, a mountain goat, an antelope and a mountain sheep. <sup>6</sup> You may eat any animal that has a divided hoof and that has a hoof split into two parts and that brings up the cud. <sup>7</sup> However, among the animals that bring up the cud or that have a completely divided hoof you shall not eat the camel, the hare or the coney! Even though they chew the cud, they do not have a split hoof. They are ceremonially unclean for you. <sup>8</sup> The pig is also unclean. Even though it has a split hoof, it does not chew the cud. It is unclean for you. You shall not eat any of their flesh or touch their carcasses!

<sup>9</sup> “Of all the creatures in the water you may eat anything that has fins and scales. <sup>10</sup> However, you shall not eat anything that has no fins and scales! It is unclean for you.

<sup>11</sup> “You may eat any clean bird. <sup>12</sup> However, you shall not eat these: the eagle, the great bearded vulture, the black vulture, <sup>13</sup> the kite, the black kite, any kind of kite, <sup>14</sup> any kind of crow, <sup>15</sup> the horned owl, the screech owl, the seagull or any kind of falcon, <sup>16</sup> the little owl, the ibis, the barn owl, <sup>17</sup> the jackdaw, the carrion vulture, the cormorant, <sup>18</sup> the stork, any kind of plover, the hoopoe or the bat! <sup>19</sup> All swarming creatures that have wings are unclean for you. They shall not be eaten! <sup>20</sup> You may eat any winged creature that is clean.

<sup>21</sup> “You shall not eat anything that has died naturally! You may give it to the stranger who lives inside your city to eat or sell it to a foreigner. However, you are a people that is holy to the LORD, your God.

“You shall not boil a young goat in its mother’s milk!

Regulations about the tithe — Numbers 18:21-29

22 “You shall certainly give one tenth of everything that your seed produces and that comes from your field every year! 23 You shall eat the tenth of your grain, your wine, your olive-oil and the first-born of your herd and flock before the LORD, your God, at the place where He chooses to make His name dwell, that you may learn to fear the LORD, your God always!

24 “When the journey is too far for you, so that you cannot take the tenth part there, because the place where the LORD, your God, chooses to put His name is too far away, then, when the LORD, your God, blesses you, 25 you shall exchange it for money and go with the money wrapped in your hand to the place that the LORD, your God, chooses! 26 You shall spend the money on anything that your heart desires: cattle, sheep, wine or other fermented drink or anything else that you wish! Then you and your family shall eat there in the presence of the LORD, your God and rejoice! 27 However, you shall not neglect the Levite who lives inside your city! For he has no share of property or inheritance with you.

28 “At the end of every three years you shall subtract the whole tenth part of your produce for that year and store it inside your city-gates, 29 so that, because the Levite has no share of property and inheritance with you, he may come, together with the foreigner, the orphan and the widow, who are in your cities, and that they may eat all that they want, that the LORD, your God, may bless you in all the manual work that you do!”

15

Regulations about the cancellation of debts every seventh year — Exodus 21:1-11, Leviticus 25:1-7

1 “At the end of every seven years you shall cancel debts! 2 This is the way in which debts shall be cancelled: Every creditor shall cancel a loan that he has made to his fellow-Israelite. He shall not press his fellow-Israelite, his brother, to repay it! For the remission of the LORD has been proclaimed. 3 You may press a foreigner for repayment. However, you shall cancel what your fellow-Israelite owes to you! 4 There is this exception, that there shall be no poor person among you. For the LORD, your God, will certainly bless you in the land that the LORD, your God, is giving to you to possess as your inheritance, 5 if only you strictly obey what the LORD, your God, is telling you and carefully put into practice all these Requirements, which I am commanding you today. 6 For the LORD, your God, has blessed you, as He has promised you, and you will lend to many nations but you yourself will borrow nothing. You will rule over many nations, but they will not rule over you.

7 “When there is a fellow-Israelite among you who is poor in any of the cities in your land, which the LORD, your God, is giving you, you shall not be unsympathetic! You shall not be tight-fisted toward a fellow-Israelite who is poor! 8 Rather, you shall certainly open your hand to him! You shall certainly lend him enough for whatever he needs! 9 Be careful that you do not have this wicked thought in your heart: ‘The seventh year, the year for cancelling debts, has come near,’ and have a mean attitude toward your poor fellow-Israelite and give him nothing! He will appeal to the LORD against you, and you will be guilty of sin. 10 You shall give generously to him and shall not begrudge it when you give something to him! For the LORD, your God, will bless you because of this in everything that you do and in everything that you undertake! 11 For there will always be poor people in the land! Therefore, I am commanding you: ‘You shall certainly be open-handed to your fellow-Israelite, to the needy person and to the poor person in your land!’

Freedom for slaves — Exodus 21:2-6, Leviticus 25:38-55

12 “When your fellow-Israelite, a Hebrew man or Hebrew woman, sells himself to you, the person shall serve you for six years, and you shall let him go free from you in the seventh year! 13 However, when you release him, you shall not release him empty-handed!

14 You shall supply him liberally with something from your flock, from your threshing floor and from your winepress! You shall give him something with which the LORD, your God, has blessed you! 15 You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt and the LORD, your God, redeemed you! That is why I am commanding you today to do this.

16 “However, when he tells you, ‘I do not want to leave you,’ because he loves you and your family, since he is well off with you, 17 you shall take an awl and push it through his ear lobe into the door and he shall always be your slave! You shall also do the same with your maidservant! 17 You shall not consider it a hardship when you send your servant away free! For his service to you for six years has been worth twice as much as that of a hired hand. Besides, the LORD, your God, will bless you in everything that you do.

The reservation of the first-born of livestock to God — Exodus 13:1-2, 11-16, 34:19-20, Numbers 3:11-13, 40-51

19 “You shall treat every first-born male that is born in your herd and in your flock as consecrated to the LORD, your God! You shall not do any work with your first-born bull or shear the first-born of your sheep! 20 Every year you and your family shall eat them before the LORD, your God, in the place that the LORD will choose! 21 However, if it has any blemish, if it is lame or blind or has any other serious blemish, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD, your God! 22 You shall eat it in your own city! Both a ceremonially unclean person and a clean person may eat it, as if it were a gazelle or a deer. 23 Nevertheless, you shall not eat its blood! You shall pour it out on the ground like water!

16

The observance of three festivals — Exodus 34:14-25

1) The Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread — Exodus 12:1-20, Exodus 23:14-19, Exodus 34:18-20, Leviticus 23:5-8, Numbers 9:1-14, Numbers 28:11-25

<sup>1</sup> “You shall observe the month of Abib and celebrate the Passover of the LORD, your God! For in the month of Abib the LORD, your God, brought you out of Egypt by night. <sup>2</sup> You shall sacrifice, as the Passover to the LORD, your God, an animal from your flock or herd at the place where the LORD will choose to make His name dwell! <sup>3</sup> You shall not eat any bread with yeast together with it! For seven days you shall eat bread without yeast as the bread of affliction! For you left the land of Egypt in haste. Do this that you may remember the day when you came out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life! <sup>4</sup> No yeast shall be seen among you throughout your territory for seven days! None of the meat that you sacrifice in the evening of the first day shall remain overnight until the morning! <sup>5</sup> You shall not dare to sacrifice the Passover in just any of the cities that the LORD, your God, is giving you! <sup>6</sup> Instead, you shall go to the place where the LORD, your God, will choose to make His name dwell! You shall sacrifice the Passover in the evening as the sun goes down, on the very day when you left Egypt! <sup>7</sup> You shall cook it and eat it at the place that the LORD, your God, will choose! Then in the morning you may go back to your tents. <sup>8</sup> For six days you shall eat bread without yeast, and on the seventh day there shall be a festive assembly to the LORD, your God! You shall not do any work!

2) The Festival of Weeks (or Harvest or First-fruits or Pentecost) — Exodus 34:22-23, Leviticus 23:15-21, Numbers 28:26-31, 1 Kings 9:25, 2 Chronicles 8:12-13

<sup>9</sup> “Then you shall count off seven weeks! You shall begin to count the seven weeks from the time when the sickle is first used in the standing grain! <sup>10</sup> You shall celebrate the Festival of Weeks to the LORD, your God, with as large a freewill offering as you can give, as the LORD, your God, has blessed you! <sup>11</sup> You shall rejoice before the LORD, your God, together with your son, your daughter, your manservant, your maidservant, the Levite in your city, the foreigner, the orphan and the widow who are among you, at the place where the LORD, your God, will choose to make His name dwell! <sup>12</sup> You shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt! Therefore, you shall carefully carry out these Prescriptions!

3) The Festival of Booths — Exodus 23:16, Exodus 34:22, Leviticus 23:33-43, Numbers 29:12-40, 1 Kings 9:25, 1 Kings 12:32-33, 2 Chronicles 8:12-13

<sup>13</sup> “You shall celebrate the Festival of Booths for seven days after you have gathered in the produce from your threshing floor and your winepress! <sup>14</sup> You shall rejoice at your festival together with your son, your daughter, your manservant, your maidservant, the Levite, the foreigner, the orphan and the widow who are in your city! <sup>15</sup> For seven days you shall celebrate the festival to the LORD, your God, in the place that the LORD will choose! For the LORD, your God, will bless you in all your produce and in everything that your hands do, so that you will be entirely joyful.

<sup>16</sup> “Three times a year all your men shall appear before the LORD, your God, at the place that He will choose, for the Festival of Bread without Yeast, for the Festival of Weeks and for the Festival of Booths! However, no one shall appear before the LORD empty-handed! <sup>17</sup> Everyone shall present his gift in proportion to the blessing that the LORD, your God, has given to you!

The Commandment for judges to deliver just verdicts

<sup>18</sup> “You shall appoint judges and officials in all your cities, which the LORD, your God, is giving you, for your tribes, that they may judge the people with just decisions! <sup>19</sup> You shall not pervert justice or show favouritism toward certain persons! You shall not accept a bribe! For a bribe blinds the eyes of wise men and distorts the causes of righteous men. <sup>20</sup> You shall strive for justice and justice alone, that you may live and inherit the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you!

A prohibition of idolatry

<sup>21</sup> “You shall not set up any wooden post as a cultic pole, which you build for yourself, in opposition to the altar of the LORD, your God! <sup>22</sup> You shall not erect any sacred stone for yourself! These are things that the LORD, your God, hates.

17

<sup>1</sup> “You shall not sacrifice a bull or a sheep that has any blemish or other serious defect in it to the LORD, your God! For this is detestable to the LORD, your God.

The death penalty for idolatry

<sup>2</sup> “When in any of the cities that the LORD, your God, is giving you there is found among you any man or woman who is doing what the LORD, your God, regards as wicked, in transgressing His Covenant, <sup>3</sup> who has gone and served other gods and worshipped them or has worshipped the sun, the moon or the stars in their whole array in the sky, which I have forbidden <sup>4</sup> and you are told about it or you hear about it, you shall investigate it thoroughly! If you see that it is true and, if it has been proved that this detestable thing has been done in Israel, <sup>5</sup> you shall bring that man or woman, who has done this wicked thing, to your city-gates and stone that man or woman to death! <sup>6</sup> He who deserves to die shall be put to death on the evidence of two or three witnesses! He shall not be put to death on the evidence of only one witness! <sup>7</sup> The hands of the witnesses shall be the first to act against him to put him to death, and after that the hands of all the other people! You shall completely remove the evil from among you!

The requirement for priests and judges to make legal decisions

<sup>8</sup> “When a case is too difficult for you to decide, whether it is one kind of homicide or another, one kind of legal claim or another, one kind of assault or another or any legal matters in dispute in your city, you shall leave and go up to the place that the LORD, your God, will choose! <sup>9</sup> You shall go to the Levitical priests and the judge who is there at that time and ask them, and they will declare to you the decision in the case! <sup>10</sup> You shall act according to the verdict that those who are at that place, which the LORD will choose, declare to you! You shall carefully do exactly as they direct you! <sup>11</sup> You shall act according to the Instruction that they teach you and according to the decision that they pronounce to you! You shall not turn aside from what they pronounce to you, to the right or to the left! <sup>12</sup> The man who acts arrogantly, by not obeying the priest who stands to minister there to the LORD, your God, or the judge, shall be put to death! You shall completely remove the evil from Israel! <sup>13</sup> All the people will hear about it, so that they will be afraid and not act insolently again.

The limitations to royal authority in Israel

<sup>14</sup> “When you enter the land that the LORD, your God, is giving to you and you take possession of it and settle in it and then say, ‘Let me appoint a king over myself like all the other nations around me!’ <sup>15</sup> you shall be sure to appoint over yourself a king whom the LORD, your God, chooses! You shall appoint over yourself one who is your fellow-Israelite! You shall not dare to appoint a foreigner over yourself, one who is not a fellow-Israelite! <sup>16</sup> However, he shall not acquire many horses for himself and shall not make the people return to Egypt to get more horses, since the LORD has told you, ‘You shall not go back that way again!’ <sup>17</sup> He shall also not acquire many wives for himself, that his heart may not turn away! He shall also not accumulate large amounts of silver and gold for himself! <sup>18</sup> When he sits on the throne of his kingdom, he shall write a copy of this Law for himself on a scroll, taken from the one held by the Levitical priests! <sup>19</sup> He shall keep it with him and read it all the days of his life, that he may learn to fear the LORD, his God, and may be careful to put into practice all the Words of this Law and these Prescriptions! <sup>20</sup> Then he will not think that he is better than the rest of his fellow-Israelites and will not turn away from the Commandments, to the right or to the left. Then he and his descendants will reign over his kingdom in Israel for a long time.

18

The division of peace-offerings between the people, the Levites and the priests — Leviticus 10:12-15, Numbers 18:8-20

<sup>1</sup> “The Levitical priests, as well as all the rest of the tribe of Levi, shall not have a share of property or inheritance with the rest of Israel! They shall live on the offerings made by fire to the LORD and on what is His inheritance! <sup>2</sup> They shall have no inheritance among their fellow-Israelites! The LORD is their inheritance, as He has promised them. <sup>3</sup> This shall be what is legally due to the priests from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, either a bull or a sheep: Each shall give to the priest the shoulder, the jaws and the stomach! <sup>4</sup> You shall give the priest the first-fruits of your grain, your wine and your olive-oil and the first fleece of your flock! <sup>5</sup> For the LORD, your God, has chosen him and his descendants for all time out of all your tribes to stand and minister in the name of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> “When a Levite moves from one of your cities anywhere in Israel where he has been living, he shall come with a wholehearted desire to the place that the LORD will choose! <sup>7</sup> He shall minister in the name of the LORD, his God, like all his fellow-Levites who stand there before the LORD! <sup>8</sup> He shall have an equal share to support him, besides what he receives from the sale of his family-inheritance!

The prohibition of occult practices, child-sacrifice, divination and magic

<sup>9</sup> “When you enter the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you, you shall not learn to imitate the detestable practices of those nations! <sup>10</sup> No one shall be found among you who sacrifices his son or his daughter in the fire, anyone who makes predictions by casting lots, who conjures up spirits, who observes omens, who practices sorcery, <sup>11</sup> who casts spells, who is a medium, who possesses a familiar spirit or who consults the dead! <sup>12</sup> For the LORD detests all who do these things and the LORD, your God, is driving those nations out before you because of these detestable practices. <sup>13</sup> You shall be blameless before the LORD, your God! <sup>14</sup> For these nations, which you are about to dispossess, listen to those who conjure up spirits and those who make predictions by casting lots. However, the LORD, your God, has not permitted you yourself to do such things.

Moses’ prophecy about the future Prophet who would be like himself

<sup>15</sup> “The LORD, your God, will raise up for you a Prophet like me from among you, from your fellow-Israelites. You shall listen to Him! <sup>16</sup> This is exactly what you asked from the LORD, your God, at Horeb, on the day of the assembly, when you said, ‘Let me not hear the voice of the LORD, my God, any longer or see this great fire any longer, that I may not die!’

The promise of a Prophet like Moses

<sup>17</sup> “The LORD told me, ‘What they have said is good. <sup>18</sup> I shall raise up for them a Prophet like you, from among their fellow-Israelites. I shall put My Words in His mouth, and He will tell them everything that I command Him. <sup>19</sup> I Myself shall call to account any person who does not listen to My Words, which He speaks in My name. <sup>20</sup> However, that prophet who acts insolently by speaking anything in My name that I have not commanded him to speak or who speaks in the name of other gods, shall die!’

<sup>21</sup> “When you ask yourselves, ‘How shall we detect the message that the LORD has not spoken?’ <sup>22</sup> if what a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD does not happen or come true, that is a message that the LORD has not spoken. The prophet has spoken it arrogantly. You shall not be afraid of him!

19

Instructions about cities of refuge — Numbers 35:6-29, Deuteronomy 4:41-43, Joshua 20:1-9

<sup>1</sup> “When the LORD, your God, destroys the nations whose land the LORD, your God, is giving you, and you dispossess them and settle in their cities and their houses, <sup>2</sup> you shall select three cities for yourself in the middle of your land, which the LORD, your God, is giving you to possess! <sup>3</sup> You shall provide roads for yourself and divide into three parts the territory of your land, which the LORD, your God, is giving you as an inheritance, that anyone who kills another person may flee there! <sup>4</sup> This is the rule concerning the man who kills another and flees there to save his life: Anyone who kills his neighbour unintentionally and when he has not hated him in the past (<sup>5</sup> as when a man goes into the forest with his neighbour to gather firewood and, as he swings his axe to cut the timber, the head may slip off the handle and happen to hit his neighbour so that he dies), then he shall flee to one of these cities, that he may stay alive! <sup>6</sup> Otherwise the avenger of blood may, in hot anger, pursue the man who has killed another, overtake him, if the distance is too great, and kill him, although he does not deserve to die, because he has not hated his neighbour in the past. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, I command you: ‘You shall reserve three cities for yourself!’

<sup>8</sup> “If the LORD, your God, enlarges your territory, as He has sworn to your forefathers, and gives you all the land that He has promised to give your forefathers (<sup>9</sup> provided that you carefully carry out all these Commandments, which I command you today, to love the LORD, your God and always to walk in his Ways), then you shall add three more cities to these three! <sup>10</sup> Then no innocent blood will be shed in your land, which the LORD, your God, is giving you as your inheritance. Otherwise you would be guilty of bloodshed.

Laws for dealing with deliberate crime

<sup>11</sup> “However, if a man hates his neighbour, lies in wait for him, assaults him, beats him to death and then flees to one of these cities, <sup>12</sup> then the elders of his city shall send men to fetch him from there and hand him over to the avenger of bloodshed, that he may die! <sup>13</sup> You shall not look on him with pity but rid Israel of innocent bloodshed, that it may go well with you!

A regulation about property-boundaries

<sup>14</sup> “You shall not displace your neighbour’s boundary-stone, which your ancestors have set up on your property, which you will inherit in the land that the LORD, your God, is giving to you to possess!

Regulations about witnesses

<sup>15</sup> “A single witness shall not be sufficient to accuse anyone about any wrong or any sin, regarding any fault that he commits! The evidence of two or three witnesses shall establish any charge! <sup>16</sup> When a malicious witness rises to accuse any person of any offence, <sup>17</sup> the two men who are involved in the dispute shall stand in the presence of the LORD before those who are the priests and the judges at that time! <sup>18</sup> Then the judges shall investigate thoroughly! If they find that the witness is a liar, who has given false testimony against his fellow-Israelite, <sup>19</sup> then you shall do to him what he has planned to do to his neighbour! You shall get rid of this wickedness from among you! <sup>20</sup> Then the rest will hear about it, be afraid and never again commit such a wicked thing among you. <sup>21</sup> You shall not look on him with pity! You shall take a life for a life, an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a hand for a hand and a foot for a foot!

20

Regulations for times of war

<sup>1</sup> “When you go out to war against your enemies and see horses and chariots and a larger army than your own, you shall not be afraid of them! For the LORD, your God, who has brought you up from the land of Egypt, will be with you. <sup>2</sup> When you approach the time of the battle, the priest shall come forward and shall address the army! <sup>3</sup> He shall tell them, ‘Listen, O Israel, today you are soon to go into battle against your enemies! Do not be fainthearted! Do not be afraid! Do not flee in panic and do not be terrified because of them! <sup>4</sup> For the LORD, your God, is going with you to fight for you against your enemies and to give you victory.’

<sup>5</sup> “The officers shall address the army: ‘Has anyone built a new house and not dedicated it? Let him leave and go back home, that he may not die in battle, with the result that another man will dedicate it! <sup>6</sup> Has anyone planted a vineyard and not made use of it? Let him leave and go back home, so that he does not die in the battle, with the result that someone else will make first use of it! <sup>7</sup> Has anyone become engaged to a woman and not married her? Let him leave and go back home, that he may not die in the battle, with the result that someone else will marry her!’

<sup>8</sup> “The officers shall also ask the army: ‘Is anyone afraid and fainthearted? Let him leave and go back home, that the courage of his fellow-Israelites may not melt like his own!’

<sup>9</sup> “When the officers have finished speaking to the army, they shall appoint commanders of the divisions to lead the army!

<sup>10</sup> “When you approach a city to fight against it, you shall proclaim an offer of peace to it! <sup>11</sup> If it accepts your offer of peace and opens its gates to you, then all the people found in it shall become subject to compulsory labour and be your slaves! <sup>12</sup> If the city refuses to come to peaceful terms with you but engages in battle against you, you shall besiege it! <sup>13</sup> When the LORD, your God, puts it in your hands, you shall kill every male in it with the sword! <sup>14</sup> However, you may take as plunder for yourselves the women and children, the livestock and everything else in the city, all its booty. Then you may live on your enemies' booty, which the LORD, your God, has given you. <sup>15</sup> You shall treat in this way all the cities that are very far away from you and that are not any of the cities that belong to the nations here! <sup>16</sup> However, you shall not leave alive anything that breathes in the cities of these peoples, which the LORD, your God, is giving you as an inheritance! <sup>17</sup> Rather, you shall devote them to complete destruction, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, as the LORD, your God, has commanded you! <sup>18</sup> Do this so they may not teach you to imitate all the detestable things that they have been doing for their gods and that you may not sin against the LORD, your God!

<sup>19</sup> "When you besiege a city for a long time while you are fighting against it to capture it, you shall not destroy its trees by wielding an axe against them! Although you may get fruit from them, you shall not cut them down! For are the trees of the field human beings, that you should besiege them? <sup>20</sup> You may destroy only the trees that you know are not fruit trees. You may cut them down and use them to build siege-works against the city that is fighting against you, until it falls.

21

Instructions about how to act when there is an unsolved murder

<sup>1</sup> "This is what you shall do when anyone is found killed, lying in the open country in the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you to possess and no one knows who has murdered him: <sup>2</sup> Your elders and your judges shall come out and measure the distances from the dead body to the surrounding cities! <sup>3</sup> Then the elders of the city nearest to the dead man shall take a heifer that has never been put to work and has never pulled with a yoke! <sup>4</sup> The elders of that city shall bring the heifer down to a stream that is always flowing where the ground is not cultivated or sown! There at the stream they shall break the heifer's neck! <sup>5</sup> Then the priests, who are descendants from Levi, shall come forward! For the LORD, your God, has chosen them to minister to Him, to pronounce blessings in the name of the LORD and to use their word to settle every dispute and every assault. <sup>6</sup> Then all the elders of that city, who live nearest to the place where the dead man has been found, shall wash their hands over the heifer, whose neck has been broken at the stream! <sup>7</sup> Then they shall declare, 'Our hands have not shed this blood and our eyes have not seen it done! <sup>8</sup> O LORD, accept atonement for Your people, Israel, whom You have redeemed, and do not charge Your people, Israel, with guilt for innocent bloodshed!' Then the bloodshed will be atoned for with respect to them. <sup>9</sup> In this way you yourself will get rid of the guilt of innocent bloodshed from among you, when you do what the LORD considers right.

Regulations about female captives

<sup>10</sup> "When you go out to fight with your enemies and the LORD, your God, delivers them into your hands, and you take captives <sup>11</sup> and you see a beautiful woman among the captives and are attracted to her, you may marry her <sup>12</sup> and bring her into your home. She shall shave her head, trim her nails, <sup>13</sup> and discard the clothes that she was wearing when she was captured! Then she shall live in your home and mourn over her father and her mother for a full month! After that you may begin sexual relations with her and be her husband, and she will be your wife. <sup>14</sup> However, if you do not find her agreeable, you shall let her go wherever she wishes! You shall certainly not sell her for money! You shall not treat her brutally! For you have humiliated her.

The rights of a first-born child in the inheritance of property

<sup>15</sup> "When a man has two wives and the one is loved and the other is unloved and both the loved wife and the unloved one have borne him children and the first-born is the son of the wife who is unloved, <sup>16</sup> when he wills his property to his sons as their inheritance, he dare not treat the son of the wife whom he loves as the first-born, in preference to the son of the wife who is unloved, who is the first-born! <sup>17</sup> Rather, he shall treat the son of the unloved wife as the first-born and shall give him a double share of everything that he owns! For that son is the first child of his father's generative power. The right of the first-born shall belong to him!

The action to be taken with a rebellious son

<sup>18</sup> "When a man has a stubborn and obstinate son who refuses to obey his father and his mother and will not listen to them when they discipline him, <sup>19</sup> his father and his mother shall take hold of him and bring him out to the elders at the gate of his city. <sup>20</sup> They shall tell the elders of his city, 'This son of ours is stubborn and obstinate! He refuses to obey us. He is frivolous and a drunkard.' <sup>21</sup> Then all the men of his city shall stone him to death! You shall get rid of such wickedness from among you! Then all Israel will hear about it and be afraid.

The curse on a hanged man

<sup>22</sup> "When anyone is put to death for committing a crime that has a death-penalty and you hang him on a tree, <sup>23</sup> his corpse shall not remain on the tree all night! Rather, you shall be sure to bury him on the same day! For a hanged man is under God's curse. You shall not defile your land, which the LORD, your God, is giving you as an inheritance!

22

Responsibility for what is lost

<sup>1</sup> "You shall not watch your fellow-Israelite's ox or his sheep going astray and refrain from helping! You shall be sure to take them back to your fellow-Israelite! <sup>2</sup> If your fellow-Israelite does not live near you and you do not know him, you shall take it home with you! It shall stay with you until your fellow-Israelite comes looking for it! Then you shall give it back to him! <sup>3</sup> You shall do the same with his donkey or with his garment! You shall do the same with any lost article of your fellow-Israelite, which he has lost and you have found! You shall not dare to withdraw your help!

<sup>4</sup> “You shall not watch your fellow-Israelite’s donkey or ox falling down on the road and refrain from helping them! You shall be sure to help him get it to its feet!

Regulations about men’s and women’s clothes

<sup>5</sup> “A woman shall not wear a man’s things, and a man shall not wear a woman’s clothing! For the LORD, your God, detests anyone who does these things.

Regulations about the care of birds

<sup>6</sup> “When you come across a bird’s nest on the road, either in any tree or on the ground, with young birds or eggs and the mother is sitting on the young birds or on the eggs, you shall not take the mother with the young! <sup>7</sup> You may take the young for yourself but be sure to let the mother go, that it may be well with you and that you may live a long life!

The requirement to add a railing to a flat roof

<sup>8</sup> “When you build a new house, you shall put up a low wall on your flat roof, that you may not bring the guilt of bloodshed on your home if anyone should fall from the roof.

The prohibition about mixing dissimilar seeds, vines and livestock – Leviticus 19:19

<sup>9</sup> “You shall not sow two kinds of seed in your vineyard, that the whole yield of your seed, which you sow and what the vineyard yields may not become forfeit to the sanctuary!

<sup>10</sup> “You shall not plough with an ox and a donkey hitched together!

<sup>11</sup> “You shall not wear material of different kinds, such as wool and linen, together!

<sup>12</sup> “You shall make tassels for yourself on the four corners of the outer garment that you wear!

Regulations for sexual purity

<sup>13</sup> “If a man marries a woman, has intercourse with her and then hates her, <sup>14</sup> accuses her of shameful conduct and gives her a bad reputation by saying, ‘I have married this woman but, when I came near her, I did not find that she had evidence of virginity,’ <sup>15</sup> then the young woman’s father and mother shall take the evidence of the young woman’s virginity to the elders of the city at the city-gate! <sup>16</sup> The father of the young woman shall tell the elders, ‘I have given my daughter to this man to marry, but he hates her!’ <sup>17</sup> Look! He is accusing her of shameful conduct, saying, ‘I have not found that your daughter has proof of virginity.’ However, here is the proof that my daughter was a virgin.’ Then they shall spread out the garment before the elders of the city. <sup>18</sup> Then the elders of that city shall take the man and discipline him! <sup>19</sup> They shall fine him twelve hundred grams of silver and give it to the young woman’s father! For the husband has given a virgin of Israel a bad reputation. She shall be his wife! He shall not dare to divorce her all his life!

<sup>20</sup> “However, if this accusation is true and no evidence that the young woman was a virgin could be found, <sup>21</sup> they shall take the young woman to the door of her father’s home, and the men of her city shall stone her to death! For she has committed an infamous thing in Israel by sinning sexually in her father’s home. You shall completely remove such evil from among you!

<sup>22</sup> “If a man is caught having intercourse with another man’s wife, both of them, the man who had relations with the woman and the woman shall die! You shall purge such evil from Israel!

<sup>23</sup> “If a young woman who is a virgin is engaged to a man, and another man meets her in the city and has sexual relations with her, <sup>24</sup> you shall take both of them out to the gate of that city and stone them to death, the girl because she has not screamed for help, although she was in the city, and the man because he has sexually violated his neighbour’s wife! You shall completely remove such evil from among you!

<sup>25</sup> “However, if the man meets the engaged young woman in the country and the man takes hold of her and rapes her, then only the man who had relations with her shall die! <sup>26</sup> You shall not do anything to the young woman! The young woman has not committed any sin for which she deserves to die. For this case is like that of someone who attacks and murders his neighbour. <sup>27</sup> For the man has met her in the open country. Although the young woman who was engaged has screamed, there has been no one to rescue her.

<sup>28</sup> “If a man meets a young woman who is a virgin who is not engaged, takes hold of her and has sexual relations with her, and they are caught, <sup>29</sup> the man who has had relations with her shall pay the girl’s father six hundred grams of silver, and she shall be his wife! For he has sexually violated her. He shall not dare to divorce her all his life!

<sup>30</sup> “No man shall marry his father’s wife! He shall not have intercourse with the woman who belongs to his father!

23

The criteria for the exclusion of people from the assembly

<sup>1</sup> “No one whose testicles are crushed or whose penis is cut off shall enter the assembly of the LORD!

<sup>2</sup> “No one of illegitimate birth shall enter the assembly of the LORD! No descendant of his even to the tenth generation shall come into the assembly of the LORD!

<sup>3</sup> “No Ammonite or Moabite may enter the assembly of the LORD! No descendant of theirs even to the tenth generation shall enter the assembly of the LORD! <sup>4</sup> For they did not meet you with bread and with water on the way, when you came out of Egypt. They also hired Balaam, the son of Beor from Pethor in Mesopotamia, against you, to curse you.

<sup>5</sup> However, the LORD, your God, refused to listen to Balaam. Instead, the LORD, your God, changed the curse into a blessing for you. For the LORD, your God, loves you. <sup>6</sup> You shall never try to achieve what is advantageous to them or makes them prosperous all your life!

<sup>7</sup> “You shall not detest an Edomite! For he is your relative. You shall not detest an Egyptian! For you were a foreigner in his land. <sup>8</sup> Children who are born to them in the third generation may enter the assembly of the LORD.

The need to be ceremonially clean in an army camp

<sup>9</sup> “When you go out with an army against your enemies, you shall be on your guard against everything evil!

<sup>10</sup> “When any man among you becomes unclean because of a nocturnal emission, he shall go outside the camp! He shall not come inside the camp!

<sup>11</sup> However, when evening comes, he shall wash himself with water! When the sun goes down, he may come inside the camp.

<sup>12</sup> “You shall have a place outside the camp and go out to it! <sup>13</sup> You shall have a tent peg with your equipment and, when you sit down outside, you shall dig a hole with it and turn back and cover your excrement! <sup>14</sup> For the LORD, your God, walks about in your camp, to deliver you and to deliver your enemies to you. Therefore, your camp shall be holy, that He may not see anything indecent among you and turn away from you!

Instructions about the protection of a slave

<sup>15</sup> “You shall not hand a slave over to his master when he has escaped from his master to you! <sup>16</sup> He shall live with you, among your people, in the place that he chooses in one of your cities, wherever it suits him! You shall not oppress him!

A prohibition of prostitution

<sup>17</sup> “None of the daughters of Israel shall be a cult prostitute, and none of the sons of Israel shall be a cult prostitute! <sup>18</sup> You shall not bring the money paid to a prostitute or the earnings of a male cult prostitute into the house of the LORD, your God, in payment for any vow! For the LORD, your God, detests both of these.

A prohibition of the charging of interest to a fellow-Israelite

<sup>19</sup> “You shall not charge interest on loans to your fellow-Israelite, interest on money, interest on food or interest on anything else that could be loaned for interest! <sup>20</sup> You may charge a foreigner interest. However, you shall not charge your fellow-Israelite interest, that the LORD, your God, may bless you in all that you undertake in the land that you are entering to possess!

Regulations about vows

<sup>21</sup> “When you make a vow to the LORD, your God, you shall not delay in fulfilling it! For the LORD, your God, will certainly require it of you, and you would be guilty of sin. <sup>22</sup> However, if you refrain from making vows, you will not be guilty of sin.

<sup>23</sup> You shall be careful to carry out what your lips have uttered, since you have vowed what you have promised with your mouth to the LORD, your God, by your own choice!

Regulations about using the grapes and the grain of a neighbour

<sup>24</sup> “When you go into your neighbour’s vineyard, you may eat as many grapes as you like, until you have had enough. However, you shall not put any in your container! <sup>25</sup> If you go into your neighbour’s standing grain, you may pluck the ears of grain with your hand. However, you shall not use a sickle to cut your neighbour’s standing grain!

24

Regulations about divorce — compare Matthew 19:3-9

<sup>1</sup> “If a man takes a wife and marries her, and then she becomes displeasing to him because he has found some indecency in her and he writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand and sends her out of his house, <sup>2</sup> and, if she leaves his home, goes away, and becomes another man’s wife <sup>3</sup> and the next husband hates her, writes her a certificate of divorce, puts it in her hand and sends her out of his house or if the next husband, who has married her, dies, <sup>4</sup> then her former husband, who had divorced her, shall not dare to marry her again, after she has been touched by uncleanness! For the LORD regards that as detestable. You shall not pollute with sin the land that the LORD, your God, is giving to you as an inheritance!

Exemptions for a newly married man

<sup>5</sup> “When a man has recently married, he shall not go out with the army or become involved in any other public duty! He shall be free at home for one year to bring happiness to the wife whom he has married!

Limitations to what may be taken as security

<sup>6</sup> “No one shall take a hand-mill or an upper millstone as security for a debt! For he would be taking a life as security for a debt.

A prohibition of kidnapping

<sup>7</sup> “If a man is caught kidnapping any of his brothers, another Israelite and, if he treats him brutally or sells him, then that kidnapper shall die! You shall purge what is evil from among you!

Instructions about infectious skin-disease — Leviticus 13

<sup>8</sup> “Be very careful, when there is an outbreak of skin-disease, to do exactly as the Levitical priests instruct you! You shall be careful to do as I have commanded them! <sup>9</sup> Remember what the LORD, your God, did to Miriam on the journey after you had come out of Egypt!

Regulations about security for a loan

<sup>10</sup> “When you make your neighbour a loan of any sort, you shall not go into his house to collect his security!

<sup>11</sup> You shall stand outside, and the man to whom you make the loan shall bring the security outside to you!

<sup>12</sup> If the man is poor, you shall not sleep with his security in your possession! <sup>13</sup> You shall be sure to restore the security to him when the sun goes down, that he may sleep in his cloak! Then he will bless you, and the LORD, your God, will regard it as a righteous deed by you.

A regulation about the wages of a hired man

14 “You shall not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether he is one of your fellow-Israelites or one of the foreigners who is inside your city in your land! 15 You shall pay him his wages on the same day, before the sun goes down! For he is poor and counts on it. Otherwise he may cry against you to the LORD, and you will be guilty of sin.

A regulation about individual responsibility

16 “Fathers shall not be put to death because of their children, and children shall not be put to death because of their fathers! Each one shall be put to death for his own sin!

A regulation about foreigners, widows and orphans

17 “You shall not pervert the justice due to a foreigner or a fatherless child! You shall not take a widow’s dress as security! 18 You shall remember that you were a slave in Egypt and the LORD, your God, redeemed you from there! That is why I command you to do this.

A prohibition of gleaning by harvesters

19 “When you are reaping your grain harvest in your field and forget a sheaf in the field, you shall not go back to fetch it! It shall belong to the stranger, the fatherless child and the widow, that the LORD, your God, may bless you in all the work that your hands do! 20 When you beat the olives from your trees, you shall not go over the branches again! The stranger, the orphan and the widow shall have what remains! 21 When you pick the grapes of your vineyard, you shall not strip it afterwards! The stranger, the orphan and the widow shall have what remains! 22 You shall remember that you were a slave in the land of Egypt! That is why I command you to do this.

25

Regulations to limit the severity of a flogging

1 “When men have a dispute and come into court to have judges decide between them, acquitting the innocent man and condemning the guilty man, 2 then, if the guilty man deserves to be flogged, the judge shall cause him to lie down and have him flogged in his presence with a number of lashes in proportion to his guilt! 3 He may have him flogged with forty lashes. He shall not exceed this! Otherwise, if he has him flogged with more lashes than these, you would have a low regard for your fellow-Israelite.

Permission for an ox to eat while it is working

4 “You shall not muzzle an ox when it is treading out grain!

A requirement for a kinsman-redeemer to marry the widow of a relative — compare Ruth 4:1-10

5 “When brothers are living together and one of them dies and has no child, the wife of the dead man shall not be married outside the family to a stranger! Her deceased husband’s brother shall take her and marry her, that he may perform the duty of a hus- band’s brother to her! 6 Then the first son whom she bears shall succeed to the name of his dead brother, that his name may not be blotted out from Israel! 7 However, if the man does not wish to marry his brother’s widow, then his brother’s widow shall go up to the elders at the city-gate and say, ‘My deceased husband’s brother has refused to perpetuate his brother’s name in Israel! He is not willing to fulfil his duty of my husband’s brother to me.’ 8 Then the elders of his city shall summon him and speak to him! If he persists, saying, ‘I do not want to marry her,’ 9 then his brother’s widow shall go up to him in the presence of the elders and shall pull his sandal off his foot and spit in his face! Then she shall declare, ‘This is what is done to the man who will not build up his brother’s family!’ 10 His family in Israel shall be called, ‘The family of the man who had his sandal pulled off!’

Respect for male sexual organs

11 “When two men are fighting with one another and the wife of the one comes close to rescue her husband from the man who is attacking him and puts out her hand and seizes him by his genitals, 12 you shall cut off her hand! You shall not regard her with pity!

God’s requirements to be honest in business

13 “You shall not have unequal weights in your bag, a heavier one and a lighter one! 14 You shall not have unequal grain measures in your house, a larger one and a smaller one! 15 You shall have an accurate and honest weight! You shall have an accurate and honest measure, that you may live a long life in the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you! 16 For the LORD, your God, detests everyone who does these things, everyone who deals unjustly.

An instruction to wipe out the Amalekites

17 “Remember what the Amalekites did to you during the journey when you came out of Egypt! 18 They met you on the journey when you were weary and tired and cut off your rear-guard, all the stragglers behind you. They did not fear God. 19 Therefore, when the LORD, your God, has given you rest from all your enemies around you in the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you for an inheritance to possess, you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky! You shall not forget!

26

First-fruits from the land of Canaan

1 “When you enter the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you as an inheritance and you take possession of it and live in it, 2 you shall take some of the first from all the produce of the ground, which you will harvest from your land, which the LORD, your God, is giving you! You shall put it in a basket and go to the place where the LORD, your God, will choose to make His name dwell! 3 You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time and tell him, ‘I declare today to the LORD, your God, that I have come into the land that the LORD swore to our forefathers to give us!’<sup>4</sup> Then the priest shall take the basket from your hand and set it down in front of the altar of the LORD, your God!<sup>5</sup> You shall make this response before the LORD, your God: ‘My forefather was a wandering Aramean. He went down to Egypt with few people and lived as a foreigner there. There he became a great, powerful and numerous nation.<sup>6</sup> However, the Egyptians treated us harshly, oppressed us and imposed severe forced labour on us.<sup>7</sup> Then we cried to the LORD, the God of our forefathers, and the LORD heard our cry. He saw our misery, distress and oppression.<sup>8</sup> The LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with great terror and with miraculous signs and wonders.<sup>9</sup> He has brought us to this place and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey.<sup>10</sup> So now, look! I have brought the first produce of the land, which You, O LORD, have given me.’ Then you shall set it down before the LORD, your God, and worship before the LORD, your God!<sup>11</sup> Then you shall be glad about all the good things that the LORD, your God, has given to you and your family, together with the Levite and the foreigner who is living among you!

Regulations about tithes

<sup>12</sup> “When you have finished setting aside a tenth of all your produce in the third year, which is the year of the tithe, you shall give it to the Levite, to the foreigner, to the fatherless child and to the widow, that they may eat inside your cities and have as much as they want!<sup>13</sup> Then you shall say before the LORD, your God, ‘I have taken these holy offerings out of my home and have also given them to the Levite, to the foreigner, to the fatherless child and to the widow, exactly as You have commanded me. I have not transgressed any of Your Commandments and have not forgotten them.<sup>14</sup> I have not eaten any of the holy offerings while I was mourning or taken any of it away while I have been unclean or offered any of it to the dead. I have listened to what the LORD, my God, has said. I have done exactly as You have commanded me.<sup>15</sup> Look down from heaven, Your holy dwelling place, and bless Your people, Israel, and the ground that You have given to us, as You have sworn to our forefathers, “a land flowing with milk and honey!”’

An admonition to observe God’s Commandments

<sup>16</sup> “Today the LORD, your God, commands you to observe these Prescriptions and Decisions. You shall therefore be careful to put them into practice with all your heart and with all your soul!<sup>17</sup> You have declared today that the LORD is your God and that you will walk in His Ways and keep His Prescriptions, His Commandments and His Decisions and that you will listen to what He has said.<sup>18</sup> The LORD has also declared today that you are His own people, His treasured possession, as He has promised you, and that you shall keep all His Commandments.<sup>19</sup> He will then place you high above all the other nations that He has made, in praise, in fame and in honour, and you will be a people that is holy to the LORD, your God, as He has promised.”

27

The Commandment to write the Law on stones at Mount Ebal — Joshua 8:32

<sup>1</sup> Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people: “Keep all the Commandments that I am ordering you today!<sup>2</sup> On the day when you cross over the Jordan into the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you, you shall set up large stones and whitewash them with lime!<sup>3</sup> You shall write on them all the Words of this Law, when you cross over to enter the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you, ‘a land flowing with milk and honey,’ as the LORD, the God of your forefathers, has promised you!<sup>4</sup> When you have crossed over the Jordan, you shall set up these stones, about which I am commanding you today, on Mount Ebal and shall whitewash them with lime!<sup>5</sup> You shall build an altar there to the LORD, your God, an altar of stones! You shall not use any iron tool on them!<sup>6</sup> You shall build an altar to the LORD, your God, with uncut stones! You shall sacrifice burnt offerings on it to the LORD, your God!<sup>7</sup> You shall also sacrifice peace-offerings and eat there and rejoice in the presence of the LORD, your God!<sup>8</sup> Then you shall very plainly write on the stones all the Words of this Law!”<sup>9</sup> Then Moses and the Levitical priests told all Israel: “Be silent and listen, O Israel! Today you have become the people of the LORD, your God.<sup>10</sup> Therefore, you shall listen to what the LORD, your God, says! You shall put into practice His Commandments and His Prescriptions, which I am ordering you today!”

An instruction to proclaim curses on disobedience from Mount Ebal — Deuteronomy 11:26-32, Joshua 8:30-35

<sup>11</sup> On that day Moses commanded the people:
<sup>12</sup> “When you have crossed over the Jordan, these tribes shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph and Benjamin!<sup>13</sup> These tribes shall stand on Mount Ebal to pronounce the curses: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan and Naphtali!<sup>14</sup> Then the Levites shall declare to all the men of Israel in a loud voice:<sup>15</sup> ‘Cursed is the man who makes a carved or cast-metal idol, a thing that the LORD detests, a thing made by the hands of a craftsman, and sets it up in a secret place!’ Then all the people shall answer: ‘Amen!’<sup>16</sup> ‘Cursed is anyone who despises his father or his mother!’ Then all the people shall say: ‘Amen!’<sup>17</sup> ‘Cursed is anyone who displaces his neighbour’s boundary stone!’ Then all the people shall say: ‘Amen!’<sup>18</sup> ‘Cursed is anyone who leads a blind man astray on the road!’ Then all the people shall say: ‘Amen!’<sup>19</sup> ‘Cursed is anyone who perverts the justice due to a foreigner, a fatherless child or a widow!’ Then all the people shall say: ‘Amen!’<sup>20</sup> ‘Cursed is anyone who sleeps with his father’s wife, because he has uncovered the nakedness that belongs to his father!’ Then all the people shall say: ‘Amen!’<sup>21</sup> ‘Cursed is anyone who has sexual relations with any animal!’ Then all the people shall say: ‘Amen!’<sup>22</sup> ‘Cursed is anyone who has sexual relations with his sister, whether the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother!’ Then all the people shall say: ‘Amen!’<sup>23</sup> ‘Cursed is anyone who has sexual relations with his mother-in-law!’ Then all the people shall say: ‘Amen!’<sup>24</sup> ‘Cursed is anyone who strikes down his neighbour secretly!’ Then all the people shall say: ‘Amen!’<sup>25</sup> ‘Cursed is anyone who accepts a bribe to murder an innocent person!’ Then all the people shall say: ‘Amen!’<sup>26</sup> ‘Cursed is anyone who does not carry out the Words of this Law by putting them into practice!’ Then all the people shall say: ‘Amen!’

28

Promises of blessings for obedience — Leviticus 26:1-13, Deuteronomy 7:12-24, Deuteronomy 11:26-32

<sup>1</sup> ‘If you faithfully listen to what the LORD, your God, says and carefully observe all His Commandments, which I am ordering you today, the LORD, your God, will set you high above all the other nations of the earth. <sup>2</sup> All these blessings will come to you and accompany you if you listen to what the LORD, your God, says. <sup>3</sup> You will be blessed in the city and be blessed in the open country. <sup>4</sup> The children that your wife bears will be blessed, as well as what your ground produces, the young of your livestock, the offspring of your cattle and the increase of your flock. <sup>5</sup> Your basket and your kneading-trough will be blessed. <sup>6</sup> You will be blessed when you come in and be blessed when you go out. <sup>7</sup> The LORD will cause your enemies who attack you to be defeated before you. They will come out against you from one direction and run away from you in seven directions. <sup>8</sup> The LORD will command a blessing on you in your barns and in everything that you undertake. The LORD, your God, will bless you in the land that He is giving you. <sup>9</sup> The LORD will establish you as a people that is holy to Himself, as He has sworn to you, if you keep the Commandments of the LORD, your God, and walk in His Ways. <sup>10</sup> All the peoples of the earth will see that you have been called by the name of the LORD and will be afraid of you. <sup>11</sup> The LORD will pour out abundant kindness on you, on the children that your wives have, on the young that your livestock have and on what your ground produces, in the land that the LORD has sworn to your forefathers to give you. <sup>12</sup> The LORD will open to you His good treasury, the heavens, to give the rain to your land in its season and to bless all the work of your hands. You will lend to many nations but will not borrow. <sup>13</sup> The LORD will make you the head and not the tail. You will always be at the top and never at the bottom if you obey the Commandments of the LORD, your God, which I am ordering you today to put into practice carefully,<sup>14</sup> and, if you do not turn aside to the right hand or to the left from any of the Words that I am commanding you today, so that you should follow other gods, to serve them.

Threats of curses if the Israelites are disobedient — Exodus 9:8-12, Leviticus 26:14-46

<sup>15</sup> ‘However, if you do not listen to what the LORD, your God, says or are not careful to carry out all His Commandments and His Statutes, which I am ordering you today, then all these curses will come on you and overtake you. <sup>16</sup> You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the open country. <sup>17</sup> Your basket and your kneading trough will be cursed. <sup>18</sup> The children that your wife bears will be cursed, as well as what your ground produces, the offspring of your cattle and the increase of your flock. <sup>19</sup> You will be cursed when you come in and be cursed when you go out.

<sup>20</sup> ‘The LORD will send on you curses, confusion and frustration in all that you undertake to do, until you are destroyed and come to sudden ruin on account of the evil that you have done, because you have forsaken Me. <sup>21</sup> The LORD will make the plague cling to you until He destroys you from the land that you are entering to possess. <sup>22</sup> The LORD will strike you with wasting disease, fever, inflammation, burning fever, the sword, rust and mildew, and they will pursue you until you perish. <sup>23</sup> The sky over your head will be bronze and the earth under you will be iron. <sup>24</sup> The LORD will turn the rain of your land into powder and dust will come down on you from the sky until you are destroyed.

<sup>25</sup> ‘The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies. You will go out against them in one direction and run away from them in seven directions. You will cause all the kingdoms of the earth to be horrified. <sup>26</sup> Your dead bodies will be food for all the birds of the sky and for the beasts of the earth and there will be no one to frighten them away. <sup>27</sup> The LORD will afflict you with the boils that plagued the Egyptians, with haemorrhoids, with festering sores and with itch from which you cannot be healed. <sup>28</sup> The LORD will afflict you with madness, with blindness and with confusion of mind. <sup>29</sup> You will grope about at noonday, like a blind person groping in the dark. You will not prosper in your ways. You will experience nothing but oppression and robbery day after day, and there will be no one to save you. <sup>30</sup> You will become engaged to a woman, but another man will rape her. You will build a house but not live in it. You will plant a vineyard but not make use of it. <sup>31</sup> Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will not eat any of it. Your donkey will be taken away by force as you watch and will not be restored to you. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and there will be no one to rescue you. <sup>32</sup> Your sons and your daughters will be given to another people and your eyes will grow weak as you keep looking for them all day long, but there will be nothing that you can do.

Deuteronomy

<sup>33</sup> “A nation that you have not known will eat what your land and your labour produce, and you will have nothing but oppression and harsh treatment all your days. <sup>34</sup> You will be driven crazy by the sights that your eyes see.

<sup>35</sup> “The LORD will afflict your knees and legs with painful boils. There will be no cure for them from the soles of your feet to the crown of your head.

<sup>36</sup> “The LORD will make you and your king, whom you will set over yourselves, walk to a nation that you and your forefathers have not known. There you will serve other gods, made of wood and stone. <sup>37</sup> You will become a cause of horror, a standard warning to others and an object of scorn in all the nations where the LORD will lead you away.

<sup>38</sup> “You will carry much seed to the field but gather little in, because the locust will consume it. <sup>39</sup> You will plant vineyards and cultivate them but drink no wine and gather no grapes, because the worms will eat them. <sup>40</sup> You will have olive-trees throughout your territory but not anoint yourself with olive-oil, because your olives will drop off. <sup>41</sup> You will father sons and daughters but be without them, because they will go into captivity. <sup>42</sup> The mole crickets will take possession of all your trees and the produce of your land. <sup>43</sup> The foreigner who is among you will rise higher and higher above you, but you will sink lower and lower. <sup>44</sup> He will lend to you, and you will not lend to him. He will be the head and you will be the tail.

<sup>45</sup> “All these curses will come on you. They will pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed, because you have not listened to what the LORD, your God, has said and have not kept His Commandments and His Statutes, which He has commanded you.

<sup>46</sup> They will be a sign and a wonder against you and your descendants for ever. <sup>47</sup> Since you have not been serving the LORD, your God, with joy and a happy heart because you have had so much of everything, <sup>48</sup> you will serve your enemies, whom the LORD will send against you, and you will be hungry, thirsty and naked and lack everything. He will also put an iron yoke on your neck until He has destroyed you.

<sup>49</sup> “The LORD will bring a nation against you from far away, from the end of the earth, swooping down like an eagle, a nation whose language you do not understand, <sup>50</sup> a nation with defiant faces, who have no respect for the elderly and show no mercy to the young. <sup>51</sup> They will eat the young of your cattle and what your ground produces, until you are destroyed. They will leave you no grain, wine or olive-oil, no calves of your cattle or lambs of your flock until they have destroyed you. <sup>52</sup> They will besiege you in all your cities until your high and fortified walls, in which you have been trusting, come down throughout your land. They will besiege you in all your cities throughout your land, which the LORD, your God, has given to you. <sup>53</sup> You will eat children whom your own wife has borne, the flesh of your own sons and daughters, whom the LORD, your God, has given you, during the siege and in the hardship with which your enemies will oppress you. <sup>54</sup> The tenderest and the most pampered man among you will become mean to his brother, to the wife whom he embraces and to the last of the children whom he has left. <sup>55</sup> As a result, he will not give any of the flesh of his children, whom he is eating, to any of them. For he has nothing else left in the siege and in the hardship with which your enemy will oppress you in all your cities. <sup>56</sup> The most tender and fastidious woman among you, who has not been venturing to set the sole of her foot on the ground, because she is so fastidious and tender, will become mean to her husband, whom she embraces, and to her son and her daughter. <sup>57</sup> She will not share with them the afterbirth that comes from her body or her children, whom she bears, but will eat them secretly because she lacks everything else in the siege and in the hardship with which your enemy will oppress you in your cities.

<sup>58</sup> “If you are not careful to observe all the Words of this Law, which have been written in this book, so that you fear this glorious and awesome name, “the LORD, your God,” <sup>59</sup> the LORD will inflict extraordinary plagues on you and on your descendants, severe and tenacious plagues and serious and tenacious diseases. <sup>60</sup> He will bring back on you every disease of the Egyptians, which you dreaded, and they will cling to you. <sup>61</sup> The LORD will also bring on you every kind of sickness and plague that has not been recorded in this book of the Law until you are destroyed. <sup>62</sup> You will be left few in number, although you had been as numerous as the stars in the sky, because you have not listened to what the LORD, your God, has said. <sup>63</sup> As the LORD took delight in doing you good and making you numerous, so the LORD will take delight in bringing ruin on you and destroying you. You will be torn out of the land that you are entering to possess. <sup>64</sup> The LORD will scatter you among all the peoples, from one end of the earth to the other, and there you will serve other gods of wood and stone, which you and your forefathers have not known. <sup>65</sup> Among those nations you will find no relief and no place for the sole of your foot to rest. There the LORD will make your heart tremble, your eyes fail and your soul despair. <sup>66</sup> You will live in constant suspense, you will tremble in terror day and night and have no assurance of your life. <sup>67</sup> In the morning you will say, ‘If only it were evening!’ and in the evening you will say, ‘If only it were morning!’ because of the trembling that fills your hearts and because of the sights that your eyes see.

<sup>68</sup> “The LORD will bring you back in ships to Egypt, on the journey that I told you that you would not see again. There you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male slaves and female slaves, but no one will buy you.”

29

The renewal of the Covenant in Moab

<sup>1</sup> These are the Words of the Covenant that the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in the land of Moab, in addition to the Covenant that He had made with them at Horeb. <sup>2</sup> Moses summoned all Israel and told them: “You have seen everything that the LORD has done before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his officials and to all his land, <sup>3</sup> the great trials, which your eyes have seen, the miraculous signs and those great wonders. <sup>4</sup> However, until this day the LORD has not given you a mind to understand, eyes to see or ears to listen.

<sup>5</sup> “I have been leading you in the wilderness for forty years. Your clothes have not worn out on you and your sandals have not worn out on your feet. <sup>6</sup> You have not eaten bread or drunk any wine or other strong drink. I have done this, that you may know that I am the LORD, your God.’

<sup>7</sup> “When you came to this place, Sihon, the king of Heshbon, and Og, the king of Bashan, came out to fight against us, but we defeated them. <sup>8</sup> We took their land and gave it to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, as an inheritance. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, you shall keep the Words of this Covenant and carry them out, that you may have success in everything that you will be doing!

<sup>10</sup> “All of you are standing today in the presence of the LORD, your God, your leaders, your tribes, your elders and your officers, all the men of Israel, <sup>11</sup> your children, your wives and the foreigners who are in your camp, both the man who gathers your firewood and the man who draws your water. <sup>12</sup> You are standing here that you may enter the Covenant of the LORD, your God, and His Stipulation, which the LORD, your God, is making with you today, <sup>13</sup> that He may confirm you today as His people, that He may be your God, as He has promised you, and as He has sworn to your forefathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. <sup>14</sup> It is not with you alone that I am making this Covenant and this Stipulation, <sup>15</sup> but with anyone else who is standing with us here today before the LORD, our God, and with anyone who is not here with us today. <sup>16</sup> For you yourselves know that we lived in the land of Egypt and that we passed through the middle of the nations through which you have come. <sup>17</sup> You have also seen their detestable images and their idols, which were among them, wood, stone, silver and gold. <sup>18</sup> Beware that there is no man, woman, clan or tribe among you whose heart is turning away today from the LORD, our God, to go and serve the gods of those nations! Take care that there is no root that produces poisonous and bitter fruit among you! <sup>19</sup> When such a person hears the Words of this Stipulation, congratulates himself and thinks, ‘I shall be safe even if I go my own stubborn way,’ then the well-watered ground will be cleared away together with the dry. <sup>20</sup> The LORD will not be willing to pardon him. For then the anger of the LORD and His jealousy will smoke against that man. Every curse that has been written in this book will settle on him, and the LORD will blot out His name from under the sky. <sup>21</sup> The LORD will single him out from all the tribes of Israel for calamity, in accordance with all the curses of the Covenant, which have been written in this book of the Law. <sup>22</sup> The next generation, your children, who will rise up after you and the foreigner who will come from a distant land, will say, when they see the plagues of that land and its chronic diseases, with which the LORD has afflicted it, <sup>23</sup> ‘The whole land is a burned-out place, with sulphur and salt. Nothing is being sown, and nothing is growing. No green plants are coming up in it. It is like the destruction of Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in His anger and His wrath.’

<sup>24</sup> “All the nations will ask, ‘Why has the LORD done this to this land? What has caused the heat of this great anger?’

<sup>25</sup> “Then they will answer, ‘It is because they have forsaken the Covenant of the LORD, the God of their forefathers, which He made with them when He brought them out of the land of Egypt. <sup>26</sup> They have been going and serving other gods and have been worshipping them, gods that they had not known and that He had not permitted them to have. <sup>27</sup> That is why the anger of the LORD has blazed out against this land, so that He has brought on it all the curses that have been written in this book. <sup>28</sup> The LORD has uprooted them from their land in anger, in fury and in great wrath and has cast them into another land, where they are today.’

<sup>29</sup> “The secret things belong to the LORD, our God, but the things that have been revealed belong to us and to our children for ever, that we may put into practice everything that this Law says.”

30

A promise of restoration after repentance and forgiveness

<sup>1</sup> “When all these things happen to you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you again take them to heart wherever the LORD, your God, has driven you among all the nations, <sup>2</sup> and when you and your children return to the LORD, your God, and listen to everything that He says, with all your heart and with all your soul, as I am commanding you today, <sup>3</sup> then the LORD, your God, will suspend your sentence of imprisonment. He will have compassion on you and gather you again from all the nations where the LORD, your God, has scattered you. <sup>4</sup> Even if any of you have been banished in the most distant land under the sky, the LORD, your God, will gather you from there and bring you back from there. <sup>5</sup> The LORD, your God, will bring you to the land that your forefathers had possessed, that you may take possession of it, and He will make you more prosperous and more numerous than your forefathers. <sup>6</sup> The LORD, your God, will also circumcise your heart and the hearts of your descendants, so that you will love the LORD, your God, with all your heart and with all your soul, that you may live. <sup>7</sup> Then the LORD, your God, will put all these curses on your enemies and on those who have hated you and who have been persecuting you. <sup>8</sup> Then you will again listen to what the LORD says and put into practice all His Commandments, which I am ordering you today. <sup>9</sup> Then the LORD, your God, will make you very successful in whatever you do, in all the children that your wife bears, in the offspring from your livestock and in the produce of your land, so that they prosper. For the LORD will again delight in you, so that you prosper, as He delighted in your forefathers, <sup>10</sup> when you listen to what the LORD, your God, says, when you keep His Commandments and His Statutes, which have been written in this book of the Law, and when you turn to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and with all your soul.

The choice between life and death

<sup>11</sup> “For this commandment, which I am giving you today, is not too difficult for you and not far away. <sup>12</sup> It is not in heaven, so that you should ask, ‘Who will go up to heaven for us, fetch it for us and proclaim it to us, that we may perform it?’ <sup>13</sup> Nor is it beyond the sea, so that you should ask, ‘Who will cross over to the other side of the sea for us, to fetch it for us, that he may proclaim it to us, that we may perform it?’ <sup>14</sup> Rather, the Word is very near you. It is in your mouth and in your heart, that you may perform it.

<sup>15</sup> “See, I have set before you today life and prosperity, death and calamity. <sup>16</sup> For I am commanding you today to love the LORD, your God, to walk in His Ways and to keep His Commandments, His Statutes and His Decisions, that you may live and become numerous and that the LORD, your God, may bless you in the land that you are entering to possess. <sup>17</sup> However, if your heart turns away and you do not listen but are led astray, worship other gods and serve them, <sup>18</sup> I have been telling you today that you people will certainly be ruined. You will not live for long in the land that you are crossing over the Jordan to enter and to possess. <sup>19</sup> I call on heaven and earth as witnesses against you today. I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse. Therefore, you shall choose life, that you and your descendants may live, <sup>20</sup> that you may love the LORD, your God, that you may listen to what He says and cling to Him! For He is your life and your length of days, that you may dwell in the land that the LORD has promised with an oath to give to your forefathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.”

31

The choice of Joshua to succeed Moses — Numbers 27:12-23

<sup>1</sup> Then Moses continued to speak these Words to all Israel. <sup>2</sup> He told them: “I am one hundred and twenty years old today and can no longer associate with you. The LORD has also told me, ‘You will not cross over the Jordan here.’ <sup>3</sup> The LORD, your God, will Himself cross over ahead of you. He will destroy these nations before you, that you may dispossess them. Joshua himself will cross over as your leader, as the LORD has promised. <sup>4</sup> The LORD will do to them what He has done to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, when He destroyed them. <sup>5</sup> When the LORD gives them over to you, you shall do to them everything that I have commanded you! <sup>6</sup> Be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid or be terrified because of them! For the LORD, your God, is the One who is going with you. He will not abandon you or forsake you.”

<sup>7</sup> Then Moses summoned Joshua and told him, while all Israel was watching: “Be strong and courageous! For you will go with this people into the land that the LORD has sworn to give to their forefathers and you will give them hereditary possession of it. <sup>8</sup> The LORD Himself is going before you. He will be with you. He will not abandon you or forsake you. You shall not be afraid or terrified!”

The writing down of the Law and the requirement to hear it read every seventh year

<sup>9</sup> Then Moses wrote down this Law and gave it to the priests, who were descended from Levi, and who used to carry the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. <sup>10</sup> Moses commanded them: “At the end of every seven years, at the set time in the year when debts are cancelled, at the Festival of Booths, <sup>11</sup> when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD, your God, at the place that He will choose, you shall read this Law before all Israel while they listen! <sup>12</sup> Assemble the people, the men, the women and the children and your foreigners, who are in your cities, that they may hear, and that they may learn it, may fear the LORD, your God, and may be careful to put into practice everything that this Law says, <sup>13</sup> and that their children, who have not known it, may hear it and may learn to fear the LORD, your God, all your life in the land that you are crossing over the Jordan to occupy!”

The appearance of the Lord to Moses and Joshua

<sup>14</sup> The LORD told Moses: “Look! The time when you must die has come near. Call Joshua and present yourselves at the Tent of Meeting, that I may commission him!”

So, Moses and Joshua went and presented themselves at the Tent of Meeting. <sup>15</sup> Then the LORD appeared at the tent in a pillar of cloud, and the pillar of cloud stood over the entrance of the tent.

The instruction to Moses to write a song to warn the Israelites

16 “The LORD told Moses: “Look! You are about to lie down with your fathers. Then these people will get up, run wantonly after the gods of the foreigners among them in the land that they are entering and will forsake Me and break My Covenant, which I have made with them. 17 At that time My anger will break out against them. I shall forsake them and hide My face from them. They will be ready to be devoured. Many calamities and distresses will come on them and at that time they will ask, ‘Have not these calamities come on us because our God is not among us?’ 18 At that time I Myself shall certainly hide My face because of all the evil that they have been doing, in turning to other gods. 19 Now, therefore, write down this song for yourselves and teach it to the Israelites! Have them sing it, that this song may be a witness for Me against the Israelites! 20 For, when I bring them into the land that I have sworn to their forefathers, a land flowing with milk and honey, and when they eat all they want and grow fat, they will turn to other gods, serve them, treat Me irreverently and break My Covenant. 21 When many calamities and distresses come on them, this song will testify against them as a witness. For their descendants will not forget it but sing it. For I know what they are inclined to do today, before I bring them into the land that I have promised them with an oath.”

22 Moses wrote this song on that day and taught it to the Israelites. 23 God commissioned Joshua, the son of Nun, and said: “Be strong and courageous! For you will bring the Israelites into the land that I have promised them with an oath and I Myself shall be with you.”

24 When Moses had completely finished writing the Words of this Law in a book, 25 Moses commanded the Levites, who used to carry the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, 26 “Take this book of the Law and put it beside the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, your God, that it may remain there as a witness against you! 27 For I myself know how rebellious and stubborn you are. Look! Even today, while I am still alive with you, you have been rebelling against the LORD. How much more after I die! 28 Gather all the elders of your tribes and your officers before me, that I may speak these Words while they listen and that I may call heaven and earth as witnesses against them! 29 For I know that after I die you will certainly act corruptly and turn aside from the Way that I have commanded you. In days to come evil will come on you, because you will do what the LORD regards as evil and provoke Him to anger through what you are doing.”

The song that Moses wrote for the Israelites

30 Then, while the whole congregation of Israel listened, Moses recited the Words of this song from beginning to end:

32

1 “Listen, heavens, and I shall speak! Let the earth hear the Words of my mouth!

2 “Let my teaching shower down like the rain! Let my speech drift down like the dew, like showers of rain on fresh grass and like gentle rain on green plants!

3 “For I shall proclaim the name of the LORD. Ascribe greatness to our God!

4 “He is the Rock. His work is perfect. For all His Ways are just. He is a faithful God without wrong. He is righteous and upright.

5 “They have acted corruptly toward Him. They are no longer His children because they are blemished. They are a twisted and crooked kind of people.

6 “Is this how you repay the LORD, foolish and imprudent people? Is not He your Father, who has gained possession of you, has made you and has established you?

7 “Remember the days of long ago! Consider the years of many generations! Ask your father, that He may inform you, your elders, that they may tell you!

8 “When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance, when He divided the descendants of Adam, He fixed the borders of the peoples according to the number of the sons of Israel.

9 “However, the portion of the LORD is His people: Jacob is the plot of ground that He has inherited.

10 “He used to find him in a wilderness, in a wasteland, in a howling desert. He used to surround him, take care of him and protect him like the pupil of His eye.

11 “As an eagle stirs up its nest and hovers over its young birds, as it spreads out its wings to catch them and carries them on its pinions, 12 so the LORD alone used to lead him, and no foreign god was with him.

13 “He used to make him ride on the high places of the earth, and he ate the produce of the field. He let him suck honey from the rock and olive-oil out of the flinty rock.

14 “He used to give him curdled milk from the herd and milk from the flock, together with fattened young rams, rams bred in Bashan and male goats, together with the very finest wheat. You used to drink foaming wine made from the blood of the grape.

15 “However, Jeshurun grew fat and kicked. You grew fat, you became plump and stubborn. Then he left God, who had made him, and treated haughtily the Rock who had saved him.

16 “They aroused Him to jealousy with foreign gods. They provoked Him to anger with detestable deities.

17 “They used to sacrifice to the demons, which are not gods, to gods that they had not known, new gods, which had come in recently, about which your fathers had not bristled in terror.

18 “You used to neglect the Rock who fathered you, and forgot the God who gave you birth.

19 “When the LORD saw this, He rejected them, because His sons and His daughters had provoked Him.

20 “He said, ‘I shall hide My face from them. I shall see what their end will be. For they are a perverse generation, children who are unreliable.

21 “They have been making Me jealous with what is not God. They have been provoking Me to anger with their worthless idols. I Myself shall make them jealous with those who are not a people. I shall use a foolish nation to provoke them to anger.

22 “For a fire has been lit by My anger, and it has burnt down to the lowest part of Sheol. It has been devouring the earth and what it produces and has been setting the foundations of the mountains on fire.

23 “I shall heap up calamities on them. I shall use up My arrows on them.

24 “They will be exhausted by hunger and consumed by pestilence, plague and bitter disease. I shall send the fangs of wild animals against them, as well as the poison of creatures that crawl in the dust.

25 “Outdoors the sword will make them childless, and there will be terror in the inner rooms, for young men and virgins alike, for both nursing babies and men with grey hair.

26 “I had said: “I shall dash them to pieces. I shall make them disappear from human memory.” 27 I would have done so, if I had not feared provocation by the enemy, if I had not wished to prevent those who were oppressing them from misrepresenting it and to prevent them from saying, “Our hand has been triumphant, and it has not been the LORD who has done all this.”

28 “For they are a nation that has lost good sense and they have no discernment.

29 “If only they were wise! If only they would understand this! They would consider what their end would be!

30 “How could one have chased a thousand and two have made ten thousand flee, unless their Rock had sold them and unless the LORD had given them up?

31 “For their rock is not like our Rock. Our enemies make this conclusion.

32 “For their vines come from the vines of Sodom and from the terraces of Gomorrah. Their grapes are poisonous grapes. Their clusters are bitter.

33 “Their wine is the poison of serpents and the cruel venom of cobras.

34 “Is not this stored up with Me, sealed up in My storehouses?

35 “Vengeance and recompense belong to Me. In due time their foot will slip. For the day of their final calamity is close and the events to come will happen to them swiftly.’

36 “For the LORD will vindicate His people and have compassion on His servants, when He sees that their strength has gone away and that no one is left, either anyone imprisoned or anyone free.

37 “Then He will ask: ‘Where are their gods, the rock in which they have taken refuge, 38 who used to eat the fat of their sacrifices and used to drink the wine of their drink offerings?’ Let them rise and help you! Let them be your refuge!

39 “See now, that I, even I, am He and that there is no god besides Me. I shall kill, and I shall make alive. I have wounded and I Myself shall heal, and there is no one who can deliver from My hand.

40 “For I shall raise My hand to heaven and declare, ‘As surely as I live for ever, 41 if I sharpen My flashing sword and My hand takes hold of judgment, I shall take vengeance on My adversaries and repay those who hate Me.

42 “I shall make My arrows drunk with blood, and My sword will devour flesh, together with the blood of the slain and the captives, from the loose-haired heads of the enemy.

43 “You nations, make His people shout for joy! For He will avenge the blood of His servants. He will take revenge on His adversaries. He will make atonement for His land and His people.”

The recitation of Moses' song to the Israelites

44 Moses came, together with Hoshea, the son of Nun, and recited all the Words of this song while the people were listening. 45 When Moses had finished speaking all these Words to all Israel, 46 he told them: “Take to heart all the Words by which I am warning you today, that you may command them to your children, that they may be careful to put into practice all the Words of this Law! 47 For it is not speech that is too empty for you but is your life, and by this Word you will live long on the land that you are crossing over the Jordan to occupy.”

The permission given to Moses to look at the land of Canaan from Mount Nebo before his death

48 On that day the LORD also told Moses, 49 “Go up onto the Abarim Range here, on Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, opposite Jericho, and view the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites as their property! 50 Then die on the mountain that you climb! Be gathered to your people, as Aaron, your brother, died on Mount Hor and as he was gathered to his people! 51 This is because you failed to fulfil your duty to Me among the Israelites at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh in the wilderness of Zin and because you did not treat Me as holy among the Israelites. 52 For, although you will see the land on the other side, you will not go in there, into the land that I am giving to the Israelites.”

33

Moses' blessing on the twelve tribes of Israel — compare Genesis 49:1-28

1 This is the blessing that Moses, the man of God, pronounced on the Israelites before he died. 2 He said: “The LORD has come from Sinai and has shone from Seir on them. He has appeared in radiance from Mount Paran. He has come from the ten thousands of holy ones. From His right hand a fiery Law came forth for them.

<sup>3</sup> “Surely, He loves the people. All His holy ones are in His hand. They have been crowding together at Your feet and will receive guidance from Your pronouncements.

<sup>4</sup> “Moses has commanded a Law for us, as a possession for the assembly of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup> “He became King over Jeshurun, when the leaders of the people assembled, when all the tribes of Israel were together.

<sup>6</sup> “Let Reuben live and let him not die out, but let his persons be few!”

<sup>7</sup> He said this about Judah:

“Hear, O LORD, the voice of Judah and bring him in to his people! His hands have been conducting his case for him, and You will help him against his enemies.”

<sup>8</sup> About Levi he said:

“Your Thummim and your Urim belong to Levi, to your devout one, whom You tested at Massah, and before whom You laid a lawsuit at the waters of Meribah.

<sup>9</sup> He says, about His father and his mother, ‘I have not known them.’ He has not been acquainted with his brothers and has not acknowledged his children. For they have been observing your Word and have been keeping your Covenant. <sup>10</sup> They will teach Your Decisions to Jacob and Your Law to Israel. They will put incense before You and whole burnt offerings on Your altar.

<sup>11</sup> Bless, O LORD, his strength and be favourable to the work of his hands! Beat to pieces the loins of those who attack him and of those who hate him, that they may not rise again!”

<sup>12</sup> About Benjamin he said:

“The beloved of the LORD will dwell in safety beside Him. He shelters him all day long and he dwells between His shoulders.”

<sup>13</sup> About Joseph he said:

“May the LORD bless his land with the choicest gifts of heaven, with the dew and with the deep waters that lie stretched out beneath, <sup>14</sup> with the choicest things that the sun produces, with the best produce of each month, <sup>15</sup> with the finest produce of the ancient mountains, with the fruitful yield of the everlasting hills, <sup>16</sup> with the fruitful yield of the earth and its fullness and the favour of Him who dwelt in the thorny bush! May these come on the head of Joseph, on the crown of the head of the prince among his brothers!

<sup>17</sup> He will be splendid, like his first-born bull and have horns like the horns of an Arabian antelope. With them he will butt the peoples, all together, to the ends of the earth. Such will be the ten thousands of Ephraim and such will be the thousands of Manasseh.”

<sup>18</sup> About Zebulun he said:

“Rejoice, Zebulun, when you go out, and Issachar, when you stay in your tents!

<sup>19</sup> They will summon peoples to their mountain. There they will offer righteous sacrifices. For they will suck in the great abundance of the seas and the hidden secrets of the sand.”

<sup>20</sup> About Gad he said:

“Blessed is he who gives Gad a large territory! Gad has crouched down like a lion. He will tear in pieces an arm and even a scalp.

<sup>21</sup> He provided the best of the land for himself. For there a ruler’s portion had been reserved. He came with the leaders of the people and with Israel he carried out what the LORD considers righteous and what He decides.”

<sup>22</sup> About Dan he said,

“Dan is a lion’s cub, which jumps out from Bashan.”

<sup>23</sup> About Naphtali he said:

“O Naphtali, satisfied with favour and full of the blessing of the LORD, take possession of the sea and the land south of it!”

<sup>24</sup> About Asher he said:

“May Asher be most blessed of the sons! Let him be the favourite of his brothers and let him bathe his foot in olive-oil!

<sup>25</sup> The bolts of your gates will be iron and bronze and your strength will last as long as your days.”

<sup>26</sup> “O Jeshurun, there is no one like God, who rides through the heavens to help you. In His majesty He rides the clouds.

<sup>27</sup> The eternal God is your dwelling place and underneath are the everlasting arms. He has driven out the enemy before you and has said, ‘Destroy!’

<sup>28</sup> Therefore, Israel has been living in safety. The fountain of Jacob is living alone, in a land of grain and wine. Indeed, his skies will drop down dew.

<sup>29</sup> Blessed are you, O Israel! Who is like you, a people whom the LORD has saved? He is the Shield who helps you. He is the Sword who has made you majestic. Your enemies will pretend to be submissive to you and you will tread on their backs.”

34

The death of Moses and God’s burial of him in the land of Moab

<sup>1</sup> Then Moses went up from the waterless plains of Moab to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is across from Jericho. There the LORD showed him all the land, from Gilead to Dan, <sup>2</sup> all Naphtali, the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the Western Sea, <sup>3</sup> the Negev and the broad area, which is the Valley of Jericho, the City of Palm-trees, as far as Zoar. <sup>4</sup> Then the LORD told him: “This is the land that I have solemnly promised to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob with an oath, saying: ‘I shall give it to your offspring.’ I have let you see it with your own eyes, but you will not cross over there.”

<sup>5</sup> Then Moses, the servant of the LORD, died there in the land of Moab as the LORD had said. <sup>6</sup> He buried him in the valley in the land of Moab opposite Beth-Peor, and to this day no one knows where his grave is. <sup>7</sup> Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eyesight had not become dim and his vigour had not diminished. <sup>8</sup> The Israelites mourned for Moses on the waterless plains of Moab for thirty days. Then the days of weeping and mourning for Moses ended.

Deuteronomy

<sup>9</sup> Joshua, the son of Nun, was filled with a spirit of wisdom, because Moses had laid his hands on him.

The people of Israel listened to him and did as the LORD had commanded Moses. <sup>10</sup> A prophet like Moses has not arisen since then in Israel. The LORD knew him face to face. <sup>11</sup> He was unequalled for all the miraculous signs and wonders that the LORD had sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, to all his officials and to his whole land. <sup>12</sup> Moses was also unequalled for all the mighty power and all the great deeds of terror that he performed while all Israel witnessed them.

JOSHUA

1

The encouragement given by God to Joshua

<sup>1</sup> After Moses, the servant of the LORD, died, the LORD told Moses' assistant Joshua, the son of Nun, <sup>2</sup> "Moses, My servant, is dead. Now therefore, you and all these people, proceed and cross over this Jordan, into the land that I am giving to these Israelites!
<sup>3</sup> I have given you every place on which you will set the soles of your feet, as I have promised Moses.
<sup>4</sup> Your territory will extend from the desert to Lebanon there, as far as the great river, the River Euphrates, all the country of the Hittites and as far as the Great Sea on the west. <sup>5</sup> No one will be able to stand up against you all your life. I shall be with you as I was with Moses. I shall not leave you or forsake you. <sup>6</sup> Be strong and courageous! For you will cause these people to take possession of the land that I have sworn to give their forefathers. <sup>7</sup> Only be strong and very courageous! Be careful to keep all the Law, which My servant Moses has commanded you! Do not turn away from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may be successful wherever you go! <sup>8</sup> This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, that you may be careful to do exactly as has been written in it! For then you will make your way prosperous and be successful! <sup>9</sup> Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous! Do not be terrified and do not be discouraged! For the LORD, your God, will be with you wherever you go."

The preparation to cross the Jordan

<sup>10</sup> Joshua commanded the officers of the people,
<sup>11</sup> "Go through the camp and command the people, 'Prepare supplies for yourselves! For within three days you will be crossing over this Jordan to go in to take possession of the land that the LORD, your God, is giving you to possess."
<sup>12</sup> However, Joshua told the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh: <sup>13</sup> "Remember the Instructions that Moses, the servant of the LORD gave you, when he said, 'The LORD, your God, is providing you a place of rest and will give you this land!'
<sup>14</sup> Your wives, your children and your livestock shall remain in the land that Moses has given you on this side of the Jordan, but all the brave men among you shall cross over armed ahead of your fellow-Israelites and shall help them, <sup>15</sup> until the LORD gives rest to your fellow-Israelites, as He has to you and they also take possession of the land that the LORD, your God, is giving to them! Then you may return to the land that is your own possession, that you may occupy the land that Moses, the servant of the LORD, has given you on the eastern side of the Jordan."

<sup>16</sup> They answered Joshua: "We shall do everything that you have commanded us and we shall go wherever you send us. <sup>17</sup> We shall listen to you exactly as we have been listening to Moses. Only may the LORD, your God, be with you, as He has been with Moses!

<sup>18</sup> Whoever stubbornly disregards what you command and refuses to listen to what you say, no matter what you command him to do, shall be put to death! Only be strong and courageous!"

2

The visit of two Israelite spies to Jericho and their concealment by Rahab — Hebrews 11:31

<sup>1</sup> Joshua, the son of Nun, secretly sent two men from Shittim as spies. He said, "Go and look over the land, especially Jericho!"

They went and entered the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab and lay down to sleep there. <sup>2</sup> The king of Jericho was told, "Look! Some of the Israelite men have come here tonight to spy out the land."

<sup>3</sup> Then the king of Jericho sent this message to Rahab: "Bring out the men who have come to you and have entered your house! For they have come to spy out the whole land."

<sup>4</sup> However, the woman had taken the two men and hidden them. She said: "Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they had come from. <sup>5</sup> When the gate was about to be closed at dark, the men went out. I do not know where they have gone. Chase after them quickly! For you may catch up with them."

<sup>6</sup> However, she had taken them up to the roof and had hidden them with the stalks of flax that had been stacked on the roof. <sup>7</sup> So, the men pursued them on the road towards the Jordan as far as the fords. People shut the gate as soon as those who were pursuing them had gone out. <sup>8</sup> Before the spies went to sleep, she went up to them on the roof. <sup>9</sup> She told them: "I know that the LORD has given you the land, that a great fear of you has fallen on us and that all the inhabitants of the land are demoralised because of you. <sup>10</sup> For we have heard that the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea before you when you came out of Egypt and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites who were on the other side of the Jordan, to Sihon and Og, whom you completely destroyed. <sup>11</sup> When we heard it, our courage melted, and no one had any energy any longer because of you. For the LORD, your God, is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath. <sup>12</sup> Now therefore, please swear to me by the LORD that, because I have been kind to you, you also will be kind to my father's family! You must give me a sure sign <sup>13</sup> that you will spare the lives of my father and mother, my brothers and sisters and everything that they have and that you will deliver our lives from death!"

<sup>14</sup> The men promised her: "Our lives in death for yours, if you conceal what we are doing here! When the LORD gives us the land we shall treat you kindly and honestly.”

<sup>15</sup> Then she let them down by a rope through the window. For her house had been built on the city wall, so that she was living on the wall. <sup>16</sup> She told them: “Go into the hill-country, that the pursuers may not meet you! Hide there for three days until the pursuers have returned! After that you may go your way.”

<sup>17</sup> The men told her: “We shall be free from this oath of yours, which you have made us swear. <sup>18</sup> Look! When we come into the land, you must tie this line of crimson cord in the window through which you have let us down! You must gather into your house your father and mother, your brothers and all your father’s family! <sup>19</sup> Then, if anyone goes out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood will be on his own head, and we shall not be responsible. However, if a hand is laid on anyone who is with you in the house, we shall be responsible for his death. <sup>20</sup> Moreover, if you tell what we are doing here, then we shall be exempt from your oath, which you have made us swear.”

<sup>21</sup> She replied, “Yes, let it be as you say!” She sent them away, and they left. Then she tied the scarlet cord in the window. <sup>22</sup> When they left, they went into the hill-country and stayed there for three days, until the pursuers returned. The pursuers had been searching all along the road without finding them. <sup>23</sup> Then the two men returned. They came down from the hill-country, crossed over, came to Joshua, the son of Nun, and told him all that had happened to them. <sup>24</sup> They told Joshua: “The LORD has surely put the whole land in our hands. All the inhabitants of the land have also become disheartened because of us.”

3

The crossing of the Jordan River

<sup>1</sup> Joshua rose early in the morning and he and all the Israelites set out from Shittim, arrived at the Jordan and camped there before they crossed over. <sup>2</sup> After three days the officers went through the camp, <sup>3</sup> and commanded the people: “When you see the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, your God, and the priests, who are Levites, carrying it, you also shall move out from your positions and follow it! <sup>4</sup> However, there shall be a distance of about one kilometre between you and the Ark! Do not come closer to it, that you may know the way you should go! For you have not passed this way before.”

<sup>5</sup> Joshua also told the people: “Put yourselves into a state of dedication! For tomorrow the LORD will perform marvellous deeds among you.”

<sup>6</sup> Joshua told the priests, “Take up the Ark of the Covenant and pass on ahead of the people!” So, they took up the Ark of the Covenant and went ahead of the people. <sup>7</sup> Then the LORD told Joshua: “Today I shall begin to make all the Israelites honour you highly, that they may know that I shall be with you as I have been with Moses. <sup>8</sup> You yourself shall command the priests who carry the Ark of the Covenant: ‘When you come to the edge of the water of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan!’”

<sup>9</sup> Joshua told the Israelites, “Come here and listen to what the LORD, your God, says!”

<sup>10</sup> Joshua continued: “This is how you will know that the living God is among you and that He will certainly drive out ahead of you the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Hivites, the Perizzites, the Girgashites, the Amorites and the Jebusites. <sup>11</sup> Look! The Ark of the Covenant of the Lord of all the earth is crossing over ahead of you into the Jordan. <sup>12</sup> Now therefore, choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one man from each tribe! <sup>13</sup> When the soles of the feet of the priests who are carrying the Ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, are standing still in the water of the Jordan, the water of the Jordan that is flowing down from upstream will be cut off and the water will stand up in one dam.”

<sup>14</sup> The people set out from their tents to cross over the Jordan, while the priests who were carrying the Ark of the Covenant were going ahead of them. <sup>15</sup> When those who were carrying the Ark came to the Jordan and the feet of the priests who were carrying the Ark dipped into the edge of the water, although the Jordan overflows all its banks throughout the time of harvest, <sup>16</sup> the water flowing down from upstream stood still. It rose up in one dam very far away, at Adam, the city that is near Zarethan. Meanwhile, the water flowing down to the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, failed completely. It had been cut off. Then the people crossed over opposite Jericho. <sup>17</sup> The priests who were carrying the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD stood firmly on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, while all Israel kept crossing over on dry ground, until the entire nation had finished crossing over the Jordan.

4

The Command to make a memorial of the crossing of the Jordan

<sup>1</sup> When the whole nation had finished crossing over the Jordan, the LORD told Joshua, <sup>2</sup> “Choose twelve men from the people, one man from each tribe, <sup>3</sup> and command them, ‘Pick up twelve stones from here, from the middle of the Jordan, from right where the priests’ feet stood still! Bring the stones across with you and put them down at the place where you camp tonight!’”

<sup>4</sup> Then Joshua summoned the twelve men of the Israelites whom he had appointed, one man from each tribe. <sup>5</sup> Joshua told them: “Go across as far as the Ark of the LORD, your God, in the middle of the Jordan! Each of you shall lift up a stone on his shoulder, as many stones as the Israelites have tribes, <sup>6</sup> that this may be a sign among you! When your children ask in time to come, ‘What do those stones mean to you?’

<sup>7</sup> then you shall tell them that the water of the Jordan

was cut off in front of the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD! When it crossed over the Jordan, the water of the Jordan was cut off. These stones will always remind the Israelites of it.”

<sup>8</sup> So, the Israelites did as Joshua had commanded. They picked up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, as many stones as the Israelites had tribes, as the LORD had told Joshua. They carried them over with them to the place where they camped and put them down there. <sup>9</sup> Joshua also set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, at the place where the feet of the priests who were carrying the Ark of the Covenant had been standing, and they have been there until today. <sup>10</sup> The priests who were carrying the Ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything was finished that the LORD had commanded Joshua to tell the people, exactly as Moses had commanded Joshua. The people crossed over quickly. <sup>11</sup> When all the people had finished crossing over, the Ark of the LORD and the priests crossed over in the presence of the people.

<sup>12</sup> The men who were descended from Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over, armed, in front of the Israelites, as Moses had told them.

<sup>13</sup> About forty thousand men ready for battle crossed over before the LORD to the waterless plains of Jericho for war. <sup>14</sup> On that day the LORD honoured Joshua in the estimation of all Israel, and all his life they respected him just as they had respected Moses.

<sup>15</sup> Then the LORD told Joshua, <sup>16</sup> “Command the priests who are carrying the Ark of the Testimony to come up out of the Jordan!”

<sup>17</sup> So, Joshua commanded the priests, “Come up out of the Jordan!”

<sup>18</sup> When the priests who were carrying the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD came up from the middle of the Jordan and the priests lifted the soles of their feet up onto the dry ground, the water of the Jordan returned to its place. It overflowed all its banks, as it had been doing before.

<sup>19</sup> The people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth day of the first month and camped at Gilgal on the eastern border of Jericho. <sup>20</sup> Joshua set up at Gilgal those twelve stones, which they had taken out of the Jordan. <sup>21</sup> He told the Israelites: “In the future when your descendants ask their fathers, ‘What do these stones mean?’ <sup>22</sup> you shall inform your children, ‘Israel crossed over the Jordan here on dry ground!’ <sup>23</sup> For the LORD, your God, dried up the water of the Jordan in front of you until you had crossed over, as the LORD, your God, had done to the Red Sea, which He had dried up in front of us until we had crossed over. <sup>24</sup> He did this that all the peoples of the earth might know that the hand of the LORD is mighty and that you might always fear the LORD, your God.”

5

The circumcision of the Israelites at Gilgal after entering Canaan

<sup>1</sup> All the kings of the Amorites who were on the western side of the Jordan and all the kings of the Canaanites who were near the sea heard that the LORD had dried up the water of the Jordan in front of the Israelites until they had crossed over. Then their courage melted and they no longer had any determination to resist the people of Israel. <sup>2</sup> At that time the LORD told Joshua, “Make flint knives for yourself and once again circumcise the Israelites!”

<sup>3</sup> So, Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the Israelites at Gibeath-Ha-Araloth. <sup>4</sup> This is the reason why Joshua circumcised them: All the people who had come out of Egypt, all the males of military age, had died in the wilderness during the journey after they had left Egypt. <sup>5</sup> For, although all the people who had come out had been circumcised, none of the people who were born in the wilderness during the journey from Egypt had been circumcised. <sup>6</sup> For the Israelites had been walking in the wilderness for forty years, until the entire nation, the men of military age who had come out of Egypt, had gone, because they had not listened to what the LORD said. For the LORD had sworn to them that He would not let them see the land that the LORD had promised with an oath to their forefathers to give to us, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>7</sup> He had raised up their sons in their place. Joshua circumcised them. For they were uncircumcised, because they had not been circumcised during the journey. <sup>8</sup> After the circumcision of the whole nation was finished, they remained where they were in the camp until they were healed.

<sup>9</sup> The LORD told Joshua, “Today I have rolled the disgrace of Egypt away from you.” So, Joshua named that place “Gilgal,”<sup>73</sup> and it still has that name today.

The first Passover observed at Gilgal in Canaan

<sup>10</sup> While the Israelites were camping at Gilgal, they celebrated the Passover on the waterless plains near Jericho in the evening of the fourteenth day of the month. <sup>11</sup> On the day after the Passover, that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land, unleavened bread and roasted grain. <sup>12</sup> On the day after they had eaten some of the produce of the land, the manna stopped. The Israelites had no more manna but that year they ate what the land of Canaan yielded.

The appearance of the Captain of God's army to Joshua

<sup>13</sup> When Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a Man standing before him with His drawn sword in his hand. Joshua went to him and asked Him, “Do You belong to us or to our enemies?”

<sup>14</sup> He said, “Neither; but I have come now as the Commander of the army of the LORD.”

Joshua fell on his face to the ground, worshipped and asked Him, “What does my Lord have to tell His servant?”

<sup>15</sup> The Commander of the army of the LORD told Joshua: “Take your sandals off your feet! For the place where you are standing is holy.”

<sup>73</sup> Gilgal means, “Rolling away.”

Joshua did so.

6

The destruction of Jericho

<sup>1</sup> Jericho closed its gates, and they stayed closed because of the Israelites. No one went out or came in.

<sup>2</sup> The LORD told Joshua: “Look! I have delivered Jericho with its king and its fighting men into your hands. <sup>3</sup> All you men of war shall march around the city! You shall go around the city once and do this for six days! <sup>4</sup> Seven priests shall carry seven trumpets of rams’ horns in front of the Ark! However, on the seventh day you shall go around the city seven times while the priests blow the trumpets! <sup>5</sup> When they make a long blast with the ram’s horn and when you hear the sound of the trumpet, all the people shall give a loud shout! The wall of the city will fall in its place. Then the people shall go up, each one straight ahead!”

<sup>6</sup> So, Joshua, the son of Nun, called the priests and told them: “Take up the Ark of the Covenant! Seven priests shall carry seven trumpets of rams’ horns in front of the Ark of the LORD!”

<sup>7</sup> He told the people: “Proceed and go around the city! The armed men shall go ahead of the Ark of the LORD!”

<sup>8</sup> As Joshua had told the people, the seven priests who were carrying the seven trumpets of rams’ horns before the LORD went forward. They kept blowing the trumpets, and the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD continued to follow them. <sup>9</sup> The armed men continued to walk in front of the priests who were blowing the trumpets. The rear-guard kept following the Ark, while the trumpets were blown continuously.

<sup>10</sup> However, Joshua had commanded the people: “You shall not shout or raise your voices! Not a word shall come out of your mouths until the day when I tell you, ‘Shout!’ Then you shall shout!”

<sup>11</sup> So, he caused the Ark of the LORD to go around the city. When it had circled it once, they came into the camp and spent the night in the camp. <sup>12</sup> Joshua got up early the next morning, and the priests took up the Ark of the LORD. <sup>13</sup> The seven priests carrying the seven rams’ horns in front of the Ark of the LORD kept walking along and blowing the horns, and the armed men kept going ahead of them. The rear guard continued to follow the Ark of the LORD while the priests continued to blow the trumpets. <sup>14</sup> They went around the city once on the second day and then returned to the camp. They did this for six days. <sup>15</sup> However, on the seventh day they got up early at dawn and went around the city seven times in the same manner, except that on that day they went around the city seven times. <sup>16</sup> At the seventh time, when the priests had blown the trumpets, Joshua told the people: “Shout! For the LORD has given you the city. <sup>17</sup> The city and all that is in it shall be devoted to the LORD for destruction! Only Rahab the prostitute and all who are with her in her house shall live! For she hid the spies whom we sent. <sup>18</sup> However, you yourselves must avoid taking what is devoted to destruction, so that, when you have devoted any of the banned goods to destruction, you do not take them and so make the camp of Israel liable to destruction by making it taboo! <sup>19</sup> However, all the silver and gold and all vessels of bronze and iron are holy to the LORD. They shall go into the treasury of the LORD!” <sup>20</sup> So, the people shouted and the priests blew the trumpets. As soon as the people heard the sound of the trumpet, the people shouted very loudly, and the wall fell in its place. Then the people went up into the city, every man straight ahead of him and they captured the city. <sup>21</sup> Then with their swords they devoted everything in the city to destruction, both men and women, young and old, cattle, sheep and donkeys.

The rescue of Rahab and her family from Jericho

<sup>22</sup> However, Joshua had told the two men who had spied out the land: “Go into the prostitute’s house and bring out from there the woman and all who belong to her, as you promised her with an oath!”

<sup>23</sup> The young men who had been spies went in and brought out Rahab, her father, her mother, her brothers and all who belonged to her. They brought out all her relatives and left them outside the camp of Israel.

<sup>24</sup> They burned the city and everything in it. However, they put the silver, the gold and the vessels of bronze and of iron into the treasury of the house of the LORD. <sup>25</sup> Joshua spared the lives of Rahab the prostitute, her father’s family and all who belonged to her. She has been living among the Israelites to this day, because she hid the spies whom Joshua had sent to investigate Jericho.

A curse on any attempt to rebuild Jericho — 1 Kings 16:34

<sup>26</sup> Joshua pronounced a curse at that time. He said: “May the man be cursed before the LORD who undertakes to rebuild this city, Jericho! He will lay its foundation at the cost of his first-born son. He will set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son.”

<sup>27</sup> So, the LORD was with Joshua, and the rumour about him spread throughout the land.

7

The sin of Achan, who took banned goods, the defeat of the Israelites at Ai and the death of Achan

<sup>1</sup> However, the Israelites unfaithfully seized condemned goods. Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the condemned things. So, the anger of the LORD burned against the Israelites. <sup>2</sup> Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth-Aven, to the east of Bethel. He told them, “Go up and spy out the land!”

So, the men went up and spied out Ai. <sup>3</sup> When they returned to Joshua they told him: “The people should not all go up! Only about two or three thousand men should go up and attack Ai! Do not tire out the whole people there! For there are only a few there.”

<sup>4</sup> So, about three thousand men of the people went up there but ran away from the men of Ai. <sup>5</sup> The men of Ai struck down about thirty-six of their men. They chased the Israelites from the gate as far as Shebarim and killed some of them on the slopes. The hearts of the people melted away and became like water. <sup>6</sup> Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell with his face on the ground in front of the Ark of the LORD until the evening. The elders of Israel did the same and covered their heads with dust. <sup>7</sup> Joshua said: “Ah, O Lord GOD, why have You brought this people over the Jordan at all, to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us? If only we had agreed to live on the other side of the Jordan! <sup>8</sup> With Your permission, O Lord, what shall I say, now that Israel has turned his back before his enemies? <sup>9</sup> When the Canaanites and all the other people who live in the land hear about it, they will surround us and wipe out our name from the earth. What then will You do for Your great name?”

<sup>10</sup> The LORD told Joshua: “Get up! Why then are you bowing with your face to the ground? <sup>11</sup> Israel has sinned. They have transgressed My Covenant, which I have commanded them, taken some of the condemned things, stolen, lied and put them among their own belongings. <sup>12</sup> That is why the Israelites cannot stand before their enemies. They will turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become condemned to destruction. I shall not be with you any longer unless you destroy the condemned things among you. <sup>13</sup> Get up! Consecrate the people! Tell them, ‘Consecrate yourselves for tomorrow! For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: “There are condemned things among you, O Israel. You will not be able to stand before your enemies until you remove the condemned things from among you.” <sup>14</sup> In the morning you shall approach by your tribes! The tribe that the LORD designates shall approach by clans! The clan that the LORD designates shall approach by families! The family that the LORD designates shall approach man by man! <sup>15</sup> The man who is designated as the holder of the condemned things shall be burned up together with everything that he has! For he has transgressed the Covenant of the LORD. He has committed a serious sin in Israel.”

<sup>16</sup> Joshua rose early the next morning and made Israel approach by its tribes, and the tribe of Judah was chosen. <sup>17</sup> Then he made the clans of Judah come forward and designated the clan of the Zerahites. He made the clan of the Zerahites come forward man by man, and Zabdi was chosen. <sup>18</sup> He made his family come forward man by man, and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was chosen.

<sup>19</sup> Then Joshua told Achan: “My son, please give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and give praise to Him! Please tell me what you have done! Do not hide it from me!”

<sup>20</sup> Achan answered Joshua: “It is true. I myself have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel. This is what I have done: <sup>21</sup> When I saw in the plunder a beautiful cloak from Babylonia, two kilograms and four hundred grams of silver and a bar of gold weighing six hundred grams, I wanted to have them and took them. Look! They are hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver at the bottom.”

<sup>22</sup> Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent. They found it buried in his tent, with the silver at the bottom. <sup>23</sup> They took them out of the tent, brought them to Joshua and to all the Israelites and emptied them out before the LORD. <sup>24</sup> Joshua and all Israel with him took Achan, the son of Zerah, the silver, the cloak, the bar of gold, his sons and daughters, his cattle, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent and everything else that he had. They brought them up to the Valley of Achor. <sup>25</sup> Joshua said: “Why have you made us taboo? The LORD will make you taboo today.” All Israel stoned him. Then, after they had stoned the rest, they burned them. <sup>26</sup> Then they piled over him a large heap of stones, which remains to this day. Then the LORD relinquished His burning anger. That is why that place has been called “The Valley of Achor” ever since.

8

The use of an ambush to capture and destroy Ai

<sup>1</sup> The LORD told Joshua: “Do not be afraid or terrified! Take the whole army with you! Start out and go up to Ai! Look! I have delivered the king of Ai, his people, his city and his land into your hands. <sup>2</sup> You shall do to Ai and its king as you have done to Jericho and its king, except that you may take what you plunder from it and its livestock for yourselves! Set an ambush behind the city!”

<sup>3</sup> So, Joshua and the whole army set out to go up to Ai. Joshua chose thirty thousand bold fighting men and sent them out at night. <sup>4</sup> He commanded them: “Look! You will be lying in ambush behind the city. Do not go very far from the city, and all of you should be ready! <sup>5</sup> I and all the people who are with me shall approach the city. When they come out against us just as they did the first time, we shall run away from them. <sup>6</sup> They will come out after us, until we have lured them away from the city. For they will say, ‘They are fleeing from us, as they did the first time.’ So, we shall flee from them. <sup>7</sup> Then you shall rise up from the ambush and take the city! The LORD, your God, will deliver it into your hands. <sup>8</sup> When you have captured the city, you shall set it on fire! You shall do as the LORD has told you! See, I have commanded you.”

<sup>9</sup> When Joshua had sent them out, they went to the place of ambush and took their positions between Bethel and Ai, on the western side of Ai. However, Joshua spent that night with the people. <sup>10</sup> Joshua arose early the next morning and mustered the people. Then he and the elders of Israel led the people up to Ai. <sup>11</sup> The whole army that was with him went up and approached the city. When they came opposite the city, they camped north of Ai with the valley between them and Ai. <sup>12</sup> Joshua had taken about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city. <sup>13</sup> The soldiers had set up the entire camp that was on the northern side of the city, while its rear-guard was on the western side of the city. However, that night Joshua went into the middle of the valley. <sup>14</sup> When the king of Ai saw this, he and all his people, the men of the city, hurried out early in the morning to meet Israel in battle, to the place that had been chosen, overlooking the Arabah. However, he did not know that there was an ambush against him behind the city. <sup>15</sup> Joshua and all Israel let themselves be driven back before them and ran away in the direction of the wilderness. <sup>16</sup> All the people who were in Ai were called out to pursue them and, as they pursued Joshua, they let themselves be drawn away from the city. <sup>17</sup> Not a man was left in Ai or Bethel who did not go out after Israel. They left the city open and pursued Israel.

<sup>18</sup> Then the LORD told Joshua: "Stretch out the sword that is in your hand toward Ai! For I shall deliver it into your hand."

Joshua stretched out the sword that was in his hand toward the city. <sup>19</sup> The men in the ambush rose quickly out of their position and, as soon as he had stretched out his hand, they ran, entered the city and captured it. They quickly set the city on fire. <sup>20</sup> When the men of Ai looked back, they suddenly saw that the smoke of the city had gone up to the sky. They had no opportunity to flee this way or that. For the Israelites who had been fleeing towards the wilderness turned back against their pursuers. <sup>21</sup> When Joshua and all Israel saw that the men who had been in hiding had captured the city and that the smoke of the city had gone up, they turned around and struck down the men of Ai. <sup>22</sup> When the men of the ambush came out of the city against them, they were in the middle of Israel, with Israelites on both sides. Israel struck them down, until they left none of them who survived or escaped. <sup>23</sup> However, they took the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

<sup>24</sup> When Israel had finished killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the open country in the wilderness, where they had pursued them, and all of them to the very last had fallen by the edge of the sword, all Israel returned to Ai and struck it down with the edge of the sword.

<sup>25</sup> All who fell that day, both men and women, numbered twelve thousand, the whole population of Ai. <sup>26</sup> However, Joshua did not draw back his hand, with which he had stretched out his sword, until he had devoted all the inhabitants of Ai to destruction.

<sup>27</sup> Israel took as plunder for themselves only the livestock and the spoil of that city, according to the Command that the LORD had given to Joshua. <sup>28</sup> So, Joshua burned Ai and made it a permanent mound of ruins and a desolate place, as it is to this day. <sup>29</sup> He hanged the king of Ai on a tree until evening. At sunset Joshua commanded them to take his body down from the tree and throw it at the entrance of the gate of the city. They raised over it a large heap of stones, which remains to this day.

The pronouncement of blessings at Mount Gerizim and curses at Mount Ebal — Deuteronomy 11:26-32, 26:4-6, 27:4-28:68

<sup>30</sup> Then Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, on Mount Ebal, <sup>31</sup> as Moses, the servant of the LORD, had commanded the Israelites. It followed the written Instructions in the Book of the Law of Moses, "an altar of uncut stones, on which no iron tool had been used." They offered burnt offerings to the LORD on it and sacrificed peace-offerings. <sup>32</sup> There on the stones Joshua wrote a copy of the Law of Moses, which Moses had written down in the presence of the Israelites. <sup>33</sup> All Israel, foreigners as well as native Israelites, with their elders, officers and judges, were standing on opposite sides of the Ark, facing the Levitical priests, who used to carry the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD. Half of them were in front of Mount Gerizim, and the other half in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses, the servant of the LORD, had previously commanded them, to bless the people of Israel. <sup>34</sup> Afterwards Joshua read all the Words of the Law, the blessings and the curses, exactly as they had been written in the Book of the Law. <sup>35</sup> There was not a Word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read before the whole assembly of Israel, including the women, the little ones and the foreigners who were living among them.

9

The treaty that the Israelites were tricked into making with the Gibeonites

<sup>1</sup> Then all the kings who were west of the Jordan in the hill-country and in the lowlands, all along the coast of the Great Sea as far as Lebanon, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, heard about this. <sup>2</sup> They gathered together with the common purpose of fighting against Joshua and Israel. <sup>3</sup> However, when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai, <sup>4</sup> they on their part acted cunningly. They went as a delegation, took worn-out sacks for their donkeys and worn-out wineskins that had burst and been mended. <sup>5</sup> They were wearing worn-out and patched sandals on their feet and worn-out clothes. All the bread for their food supply was dry and crumbly. <sup>6</sup> They came to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal and told him and the men of Israel: "We have come from a distant country. Now make a treaty with us."

<sup>7</sup> However, the men of Israel replied to the Hivites: "Perhaps you are living near us. How then could we make a treaty with you?"

<sup>8</sup> They answered Joshua: "We are your servants."

Joshua asked them, "Who are you, and where do you come from?"

<sup>9</sup> They told him: "We, your servants have come from a very distant country, because of the name of the LORD, your God. For we have heard a report about Him, all that He has done in Egypt, <sup>10</sup> and all that He has done to the two kings of the Amorites who were on the other side of the Jordan, to Sihon, the king of Heshbon and to Og, the king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth. <sup>11</sup> So, our elders and all the inhabitants of our country told us, 'Take provisions with you for the journey and go to meet them! Tell them: "We are your servants! Now therefore, make a treaty with us!"'

<sup>12</sup> Here is our bread. It was still warm when we took it from our houses as our provisions for the journey on the day when we set out to come to you. Now, however, you see, it has become dry and crumbly.

<sup>13</sup> Look! These wineskins, which were new when we filled them, have burst. These clothes and sandals of ours have worn out from the very long journey."

<sup>14</sup> The men of Israel took some of their provisions but did not ask the LORD for advice. <sup>15</sup> Joshua made peace with them and made a treaty with them, to let them live, and the leaders of the congregation ratified it by an oath. <sup>16</sup> At the end of three days, after they had made a treaty with them, they heard that they were their neighbours and that they were living among them. <sup>17</sup> The Israelites set out and reached their cities on the third day. Their cities were Gibeon, Chephirah, Beeroth and Kiriath-Jearim. <sup>18</sup> However, the Israelites did not attack them, because the leaders of the congregation had sworn an oath to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. Then the entire congregation complained against the leaders. <sup>19</sup> However, all the leaders told the entire congregation: "We ourselves have sworn an oath to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. Now, therefore, we dare not touch them. <sup>20</sup> This is what we shall do to them. Let them live, that wrath may not come on us because of the oath that we have sworn to them!"

<sup>21</sup> The leaders told them, "Let them live!"

So, they became woodcutters and water carriers for the entire community, as the leaders had advised about them. <sup>22</sup> Joshua summoned them and asked them: "Why have you deceived us, saying, 'We are very far from you,' although you are living near us?" <sup>23</sup> Now therefore, you are under a curse and will never cease to serve as woodcutters and water carriers for the house of my God."

<sup>24</sup> They answered Joshua: "Your servants have definitely been told that the LORD, your God, had commanded His servant Moses to give you the whole land and destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you. We have done this because we were terrified for our lives because of you. <sup>25</sup> Now therefore, here we are in your hands. Do whatever you consider is good and right to do to us!"

<sup>26</sup> So, that was what Joshua did to them. He rescued them from the hands of the Israelites, so that they did not kill them. <sup>27</sup> However, that day Joshua made them woodcutters and water carriers for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD in the place that He would choose. That is what they are to this day.

10

Joshua's command to the sun to stand still during the battle against a coalition of Canaanites

<sup>1</sup> Adoni-Zedek, the king of Jerusalem, heard that Joshua had captured Ai and devoted it to destruction, doing to Ai and its king what he had done to Jericho and its king and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with the Israelites and were among them.

<sup>2</sup> Then they were very afraid, because Gibeon was a large city, like one of the royal cities. It was larger than Ai, and all its men were warriors. <sup>3</sup> Therefore, Adoni-Zedek, the king of Jerusalem, sent men to Hotham, the king of Hebron, to Piram, the king of Jarmuth, to Japhia, the king of Lachish, and to Debir, the king of Eglon, to request: <sup>4</sup> "Come up to me and help me, and let us attack Gibeon! For it has made peace with Joshua and the Israelites."

<sup>5</sup> Then the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish and the king of Eglon and all their forces gathered together. They went up and pitched camp against Gibeon and fought against it. <sup>6</sup> The men of Gibeon sent messengers to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal to tell him: "Do not abandon us, your servants! Come up to us quickly and save us! Help us! For all the kings of the Amorites who live in the hill-country have gathered together against us."

<sup>7</sup> Joshua went up from Gilgal together with his entire army, including all the brave soldiers. <sup>8</sup> The LORD told Joshua: "Do not be afraid of them! For I have delivered them into your hands. Not one of them will resist you."

<sup>9</sup> So, Joshua marched all night up from Gilgal and attacked them by surprise. <sup>10</sup> The LORD threw them into a panic before the Israelites and struck them down in a great defeat at Gibeon. They pursued them along the road going up to Beth-Horon. Then they struck them down as far as Azekah and Makkedah.

<sup>11</sup> While they were fleeing from the Israelites down the slope of Beth-Horon, the LORD threw large hailstones from the sky down on them, all the way to Azekah, and they died. More of them died because of the hailstones than the Israelites killed with their swords. <sup>12</sup> At that time Joshua was speaking to the LORD, on the day when the LORD delivered the Amorites to the Israelites. He said, in the sight of Israel, "Sun, stand still at Gibeon and, moon, at the Valley of Aijalon!"

<sup>13</sup> The sun stood still, and the moon stopped, until the nation took vengeance on its enemies. Has this not been written in the Book of Jashar? The sun stopped in the middle of the sky and delayed setting for about a whole day. <sup>14</sup> There has been no day like it before or since, when the LORD listened to what a man said. For the LORD was fighting for Israel. <sup>15</sup> Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gilgal.

The execution of five Amorite kings

<sup>16</sup> These five kings had fled and hidden in the cave at Makkedah. <sup>17</sup> When Joshua was told, "The five kings have been found hiding in the cave at Makkedah," <sup>18</sup> Joshua said: "Roll large stones against the mouth of the cave and assign some men beside it to guard them! <sup>19</sup> However, do not stay there yourselves! Pursue your enemies! Attack their rear guard! Do not allow them to enter their cities! For the LORD, your God, has delivered them into your hands."

<sup>20</sup> When Joshua and the Israelites had finished inflicting on them a very great defeat until they were wiped out and when those of them who had survived had escaped into the fortified cities, <sup>21</sup> all the people returned safely to Joshua at the camp at Makkedah. No one had been a threat to any of the Israelites. <sup>22</sup> Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave and bring those five kings out of the cave to me!"

<sup>23</sup> They did so! They brought those five kings out of the cave to him: the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish and the king of Eglon. <sup>24</sup> When they had brought those kings out to Joshua, Joshua summoned all the men of Israel. He told the captains of the soldiers who had come with him: "Come forward! Put your feet on the necks of these kings!"

Then they came forward and put their feet on their necks. <sup>25</sup> Joshua told them: "Do not be afraid or terrified! Be strong and courageous! For this is what the LORD will do to all your enemies against whom you are going to fight."

<sup>26</sup> After this, Joshua struck the kings, put them to death and hanged them on five trees. They remained hanging on the trees until the evening. <sup>27</sup> However, at sunset, Joshua gave a command, and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had hidden. They placed large stones against the mouth of the cave, and they are there to this very day.

The campaign against the Canaanites in the south of Canaan

<sup>28</sup> That day Joshua also captured Makkedah and struck down with the sword both it and its king. He devoted every person who was in it to destruction. He left no survivors. He did to the king of Makkedah what he had done to the king of Jericho. <sup>29</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Makkedah to Libnah and fought against Libnah. <sup>30</sup> The LORD also delivered it and its king into the hands of Israel. Joshua struck down with the edge of the sword both it and every person who was in it. He left no survivors there. He did to its king what he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>31</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Libnah to Lachish, pitched camp against it and fought against it. <sup>32</sup> The LORD delivered Lachish into the hands of Israel. Joshua captured it on the second day and struck down with the edge of the sword both it and every person in it, exactly as he had done to Libnah. <sup>33</sup> When Horam, the king of Gezer, had come up to help Lachish, Joshua struck down him and his people, until he had left no survivors. <sup>34</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel with him passed on from Lachish to Eglon. They pitched camp against it and fought against it. <sup>35</sup> They captured it that same day and struck it down with the edge of the sword. He devoted every person in it to destruction that day, exactly as he had done to Lachish.

<sup>36</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron and fought against it. <sup>37</sup> They captured it and struck it down with the edge of the sword, its king, its villages and every person in it. He left no survivors, as he had done to Eglon. He devoted it to destruction together with every person in it. <sup>38</sup> Then Joshua and all Israel with him turned back to Debir and fought against it. <sup>39</sup> He captured the city, its king and all its villages. They struck them down with the edge of the sword and devoted to destruction every person in it. He left no survivors. He did to Debir and to its king what he had done to Hebron and what he had done to Libnah and its king. <sup>40</sup> So, Joshua struck down the whole land, the hill-country, the Negev, the lowlands, the slopes and all their kings. He left no survivors. He devoted to destruction everything that breathed, as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded. <sup>41</sup> Joshua struck them down from Kadesh-Barnea as far as Gaza and from the whole region of Goshen to Gibeon. <sup>42</sup> Joshua captured all these kings and their land in one campaign, because the LORD, the God of Israel, was fighting for Israel. <sup>43</sup> Then Joshua returned to the camp at Gilgal with all the Israelites.

11

The campaign against the Canaanites in the north of Canaan

<sup>1</sup> When Jabin, the king of Hazor, heard about this, he sent messengers to Jobab, the king of Madon, to the king of Shimron and to the king of Achshaph. <sup>2</sup> He also sent messengers to the kings who were in the northern hill-country, in the waterless region south of Chinnereth, in the lowlands and in the hilly region around Dor on the west, <sup>3</sup> to the Canaanites in the east and the west, the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites in the hill-country and the Hivites below Hermon in the region of Mizpah. <sup>4</sup> They came out with all their armies, a huge number of people, as numerous as the sand that is on the seashore, with very many horses and chariots. <sup>5</sup> All these kings joined their forces. They came and camped together at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel. <sup>6</sup> The LORD told Joshua: “Do not be afraid of them! For about this time tomorrow I shall deliver all of them, slain, to Israel. You shall cut the hamstrings of their horses and burn up their chariots!”

<sup>7</sup> Joshua and the whole army came against them suddenly beside the waters of Merom and attacked them.

<sup>8</sup> The LORD delivered them into the hands of Israel. They struck them down and pursued them as far as Great Sidon and Misrephoth-Mayim and as far as the valley of Mizpah in the east. They struck them down until they left none of them as survivors. <sup>9</sup> Joshua did to them as the LORD had told him. He cut the hamstrings of their horses and burned up their chariots.

<sup>10</sup> Joshua turned back at that time and captured Hazor. He struck down its king with the sword. For Hazor had formerly been the head of all these kingdoms.

<sup>11</sup> They struck down every person who was in it with the edge of the sword, devoting them to destruction. Nothing was left that breathed, and he burned up Hazor. <sup>12</sup> So, Joshua had captured all the cities of those kings and all their kings and had struck them down with the edge of the sword, devoting them to destruction, as Moses, the servant of the LORD, had commanded. <sup>13</sup> However, Israel did not burn any of the cities that were standing on their mounds of ruins, with the exception of Hazor alone, which Joshua burned. <sup>14</sup> The Israelites took all the plunder of these cities and their livestock as booty for themselves. However, they struck down every human being with the edge of the sword until they had destroyed them. They did not leave anything that breathed. <sup>15</sup> Joshua did as the LORD had commanded Moses, His servant, and as Moses had commanded Joshua. He did not fail to do anything of all that the LORD had commanded Moses.

A summary of the conquest under Joshua

<sup>16</sup> So, Joshua had taken all this land, the hill-country, all the Negev, all the land of Goshen, the lowlands and the Arabah, both the hill-country and the lowlands of Israel, <sup>17</sup> from Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir, as far as Baal-Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He had captured all their kings, struck them down and put them to death. <sup>18</sup> Joshua had waged war against all these kings for a long time. <sup>19</sup> There was not a city that had made peace with the Israelites except the Hivites who lived at Gibeon. They had taken them all in battle. <sup>20</sup> For it was the LORD Himself who had made them stubborn, so that they attacked Israel in battle, that He might devote them to destruction and that they might receive no mercy, but that the LORD might destroy them, as He had commanded Moses.

<sup>21</sup> At that time Joshua also went and eliminated the Anakites from the hill-country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, from all the hill-country of Judah and from all the hill-country of Israel. Joshua devoted them to destruction with their cities. <sup>22</sup> No Anakites were left in the land of the Israelites. Only in Gaza, in Gath and in Ashdod did any survive. <sup>23</sup> So, Joshua had taken the whole land, exactly as the LORD had told Moses. Joshua gave it to Israel for an inheritance according to the share of their tribes. Then the land had rest from war.

12

A reminder of the victories of the Israelites under Moses east of the Jordan — Numbers 21:21-35, Deuteronomy 2:24-3:14

<sup>1</sup> These are the kings of the land east of the Jordan whom the Israelites had defeated and whose land they had taken, from the Arnon Valley to Mount Hermon, with all the eastern part of the Arabah: <sup>2</sup> Sihon had been the king of the Amorites, who had lived in Heshbon and ruled from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Arnon Valley, the middle of the valley and half of Gilead as far as the Jabbok River, the border of the Ammonites, <sup>3</sup> and the eastern part of the Arabah to the Sea of Chinnereth and to the Sea of the Arabah, the Salt Lake, in the direction of Beth-Jeshimoth and then southward below the slopes of Pisgah. <sup>4</sup> The territory of Og, the king of Bashan, had also been there. He was one of the survivors of the Rephaites, who used to live at Ashtaroth and at Edrei. <sup>5</sup> He used to rule over Mount Hermon, Salecah, all Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites and over half of Gilead to the border of Sihon, the king of Heshbon. <sup>6</sup> Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the Israelites had defeated them. Moses, the servant of the LORD, had assigned their land to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh to be their possession.

The list of the kings whom the Israelites under Joshua defeated west of the Jordan

<sup>7</sup> These are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the Israelites defeated on the western side of the Jordan, from Baal-Gad in the Valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir. Joshua gave their land to the tribes of Israel as a possession according to their shares. <sup>8</sup> It was in the hill-country, in the lowlands, in the Arabah, in the slopes, in the wilderness and in the Negev. It had been the land of the Hittites, the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites. <sup>9</sup> There were also the king of Jericho, one king; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one king; <sup>10</sup> the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one; <sup>11</sup> the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one; <sup>12</sup> the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one; <sup>13</sup> the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one; <sup>14</sup> the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one; <sup>15</sup> the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one; <sup>16</sup> the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one; <sup>17</sup> the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hopher, one; <sup>18</sup> the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasharon, one; <sup>19</sup> the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one; <sup>20</sup> the king of Shimron-Meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one; <sup>21</sup> the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one; <sup>22</sup> the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one; <sup>23</sup> the king of Dor in the hilly region near Dor, one; the king of the Goyim in Gilgal, one; <sup>24</sup> and the king of Tirzah, one king. There were thirty-one kings in all.

13

The parts of the land of Canaan that still had to be taken

<sup>1</sup> When Joshua was old and well advanced in years, the LORD told him: "Although you have become very old and have advanced in years, very much land remains to be taken over. <sup>2</sup> This is the land that remains: all the districts of the Philistines and all those of the Geshurites, <sup>3</sup> from the Shihor River on the east of Egypt to the territory of Ekron on the north, which used to be regarded as belonging to the Canaanites, the territory of the five Philistine princes, those of Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron, as well as the princes of the Avvites, <sup>4</sup> in the south, all the land of the Canaanites and Mearah, which belongs to the Sidonians, as far as Aphek, to the border of the Amorites, <sup>5</sup> the land of the Gebalites and all Lebanon, toward the east, from Baal-Gad below Mount Hermon as far as the entrance to Hamath, <sup>6</sup> all the inhabitants of the hill-country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-Mayim, that is, all the Sidonians. I Myself shall drive them out before the Israelites. However, allocate the land to Israel as an inheritance, as I have commanded you! <sup>7</sup> Now, therefore, allocate this land as an inheritance to the nine tribes and half of the tribe of Manasseh!"

The allocation of land to the two and a half tribes east of the Jordan — Numbers 32; Deuteronomy 3:12-17

<sup>8</sup> With the other half of Manasseh, the Reubenites and the Gadites had received their inheritance, which Moses had given them, on the eastern side of the Jordan, as Moses, the servant of the LORD, had assigned it to them, <sup>9</sup> from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Valley of the Arnon and the city that is in the middle of the valley and all the plateau of Medeba as far as Dibon, <sup>10</sup> and all the cities of Sihon, the king of the Amorites, who had been reigning in Heshbon, as far as the border of the Ammonites. <sup>11</sup> It also included Gilead, the territory of the Geshurites and Maacathites, all Mount Hermon, all Bashan as far as Salecah, <sup>12</sup> and all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who had reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei, and who had survived out of the remnant of the Rephaites, whom Moses had defeated and driven out. <sup>13</sup> Nevertheless, the Israelites have not driven out the Geshurites or the Maacathites, but Geshur and Maacath continue to live among the Israelites to this day. <sup>14</sup> The tribe of Levi was the only tribe to which Moses did not give any inheritance. The offerings made by fire to the LORD, the God of Israel, constitute their inheritance, as He had promised them.

The territory of Reuben

<sup>15</sup> Moses had allocated an inheritance to the tribe of the descendants of Reuben according to their clans. <sup>16</sup> Their territory was from Aroer, which is on the edge of the Arnon and the city that is in the middle of the valley and the entire plateau near Medeba, <sup>17</sup> Heshbon and all its cities, which are on the plateau, Dibon, Bamoth-Baal, Beth-Baal-Meon, <sup>18</sup> Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, <sup>19</sup> Kiriathaim, Sibmah and Zereth-Shahar on the hill in the valley, <sup>20</sup> Beth-Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, Beth-Jeshimoth, <sup>21</sup> all the cities of the plateau, the whole kingdom of Sihon, the king of the Amorites, who had ruled in Heshbon, and whom Moses had defeated with the chiefs of Midian: Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba, the tribal princes of Sihon, who were living in that country. <sup>22</sup> The children of Israel had also killed with the sword Balaam, the son of Beor, who used to practise divination, in addition to those whom they had slain. <sup>23</sup> The territory of the descendants of Reuben had the Jordan as their boundary. This was the inheritance of the descendants of Reuben, according to their clans, with their cities and villages.

The territory of Gad

<sup>24</sup> Moses had also given an inheritance to the tribe of Gad, to the descendants of Gad, according to their clans. <sup>25</sup> Their territory was Jazer, all the cities of Gilead and half the land of the Ammonites, as far as Aroer, which is near Rabbah, <sup>26</sup> and from Heshbon to Ramath-Mizpeh and Betonim and from Mahanaim as far as the territory of Debir, <sup>27</sup> and, in the valley, Beth-Haram, Beth-Nimrah, Succoth and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon, the king of Heshbon. They have the Jordan as a boundary, the territory on the eastern side of the Jordan as far as the end of the Sea of Chinnereth. <sup>28</sup> This is the inheritance of the descendants of Gad according to their clans, with their cities and their villages.

The territory of the half-tribe of Manasseh east of the Jordan

<sup>29</sup> Moses had also allotted an inheritance to the half-tribe of Manasseh. It belonged to the half-tribe of the descendants of Manasseh according to their clans. <sup>30</sup> Their territory extended from Mahanaim through all of Bashan, the whole kingdom of Og, the king of Bashan, all the tent settlements of Jair, which were in Bashan, sixty cities, <sup>31</sup> half of Gilead, with Ashtaroth and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. These belonged to the descendants of Machir, the son of Manasseh, to half of the descendants of Machir, according to their clans.

<sup>32</sup> These are the inherited territories that Moses allotted when he was on the waterless plains of Moab, on the eastern side of the Jordan, near Jericho. <sup>33</sup> However, Moses had allotted no inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The LORD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as He had promised them.

14

The first stage in the allocation of land west of the Jordan

<sup>1</sup> These are the areas that the Israelites received as an inheritance in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar, the priest, Joshua, the son of Nun, and the heads of the families of the tribes of the Israelites allotted to them.

<sup>2</sup> The nine and a half tribes received their inheritance by lot, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

<sup>3</sup> For Moses had given an inheritance to the two and a half tribes on the other side of the Jordan. However, he had given no inheritance to the Levites among the rest. <sup>4</sup> Because the descendants of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, consisted of two tribes, they did not give a share of the land to the Levites, except cities to live in and their pasturelands for their livestock and for their other property. <sup>5</sup> The Israelites did as the LORD had commanded Moses and allotted the land.

The capture of Hebron by Caleb and the special allocation of land to him — Judges 1:12-15

<sup>6</sup> Then the descendants of Judah approached Joshua at Gilgal. Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, the Kenizzite, told him: “You know what the LORD told Moses, the man of God, about you and me at Kadesh-Barnea. <sup>7</sup> I was forty years old when Moses, the servant of the LORD, sent me from Kadesh-Barnea to spy out the land, and I reported to him exactly what I thought.

<sup>8</sup> Although my kinsmen, who went up with me, discouraged the people, I followed the LORD, my God, completely. <sup>9</sup> That day Moses said an oath: ‘The land on which your feet have walked will certainly be an inheritance for you and for your descendants for ever, because you have been following the LORD, my God, completely.’ <sup>10</sup> Now, therefore, you see, as He has promised, the LORD has kept me alive these forty-five years since the LORD said this to Moses, while Israel wandered through the wilderness. So now, you see, today I am eighty-five years old. <sup>11</sup> I am still as strong today as I was when Moses sent me. I am now as vigorous as I was then, to fight and to move about.

<sup>12</sup> Now therefore, give me this hill-country about which the LORD spoke on that day! For you yourself heard on that day that the Anakites were there, with large fortified cities. Perhaps the LORD will help me, so that I shall drive them out, as the LORD has promised.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Joshua blessed Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and gave Hebron to him as his inheritance.

<sup>14</sup> Therefore, Hebron has become the inheritance of Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, the Kenizzite, to this day, because he had followed the LORD, the God of Israel, completely. <sup>15</sup> Hebron had formerly been named “Kiriath-Arba.”<sup>74</sup> Arba had been the greatest man among the Anakites. Then the land had rest from war.

15

The allocation of land to Judah

<sup>1</sup> The allotment for the tribe of the descendants of Judah according to their clans reached to the boundary of Edom and the wilderness of Zin, at its southern end. <sup>2</sup> They had their boundary at the end of the Salt Sea, from the bay that faces towards the south. <sup>3</sup> It extended from the southern side of the Slope of Akrabbim, passed along to Zin and went up south of Kadesh-Barnea. Then it passed along to Hezron, went up to Addar and curved around to Karka. <sup>4</sup> Then it passed on to Azmon and went out at the Brook of Egypt, so that the border ended at the sea. This will be your southern border. <sup>5</sup> The eastern border was the Salt Sea as far as the mouth of the Jordan. On the northern side the border began from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan. <sup>6</sup> The border went up to Beth-Hoglah and passed northwards to Beth-Arabah. The border then went up to the Stone of Bohan, the son of Reuben. <sup>7</sup> Then the border went up to Debir from the Valley of Achor and turned northward towards Gilgal, which is opposite the Slope of Adummim, which is on the southern side of the valley. Then the border continued to the waters of En-Shemesh and ended at En-Rogel. <sup>8</sup> Then the boundary went up the Valley of the Son of Hinnom at the southern shoulder of the Jebusite City (that is, Jerusalem). Then the boundary went up to the top of the mountain that overlooks the Valley of Hinnom in the west and that is at the northern end of the valley of the Rephaites.

<sup>9</sup> From the top of the mountain the border turned toward the spring of the waters of Nephtoah and came out at the cities of Mount Ephron. Then the border turned toward Baalah (that is, Kiriath-Jearim). <sup>10</sup> Then the border curved west of Baalah to Mount Seir and passed along to the northern shoulder of Mount Jearim (that is, Chesalon). Then it went down to Beth-Shemesh and crossed to Timnah. <sup>11</sup> The border went along to the shoulder on the northern side of Ekron. Then the border curved around to Shikkeron, passed along to Mount Baalah and reached Jabneel. Then the border ended at the sea. <sup>12</sup> The western border was the Great Sea and the coastline. This is the border all around the descendants of Judah for their clans.

The allocation of Hebron to Caleb inside the territory of Judah — Judges 1:11-15

<sup>13</sup> However, Joshua gave to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, a portion in the middle of the descendants of Judah, as the LORD had told Joshua. It was Kiriath-Arba, that is, Hebron (Arba was the father of the Anakites). <sup>14</sup> Caleb drove three Anakites out from there: Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai, who were descendants of Anak. <sup>15</sup> He went up from there against the inhabitants of Debir. The name of Debir had formerly been “Kiriath-Sepher.” <sup>16</sup> Caleb had said: “I shall give my daughter Achsah as a wife to anyone who strikes down Kiriath-Sepher and captures it.”

<sup>17</sup> Othniel, the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s brother, captured it, so Caleb gave him his daughter Achsah in marriage. <sup>18</sup> When she came to him, she urged him to ask her father for a field. When she was on her donkey, she clapped her hands to get his attention, so Caleb asked her, “What do you want?”

<sup>74</sup> Kiriath-Arba means, “City of Arba.”

<sup>19</sup> She answered: "Give me a blessing! Since you have put me in the land of the Negev, give me water-basins in addition!"

So, he gave her the upper and lower water-basins.

The cities inside the territory of Judah in the south

<sup>20</sup> This was the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Judah according to their clans. <sup>21</sup> The cities belonging to the tribe of the descendants of Judah in the Negev, toward the boundary of Edom, were Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur, <sup>22</sup> Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah, <sup>23</sup> Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan, <sup>24</sup> Ziph, Telem, Bealoth, <sup>25</sup> Hazor-Hadattah, Kerioth-Hezron (that is, Hazor), <sup>26</sup> Amam, Shema, Moladah, <sup>27</sup> Hazar-Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth-Pelet, <sup>28</sup> Hazar-Shual, Beer-Sheba, Biziothiah, <sup>29</sup> Baalah, Iyim, Ezem, <sup>30</sup> Eltolad, Chesil, Hormah, <sup>31</sup> Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah, <sup>32</sup> Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain and Rimmon. There were twenty-nine cities in all, with their villages.

The cities inside the territory of Judah in the western foothills

<sup>33</sup> In the lowlands there were Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah, <sup>34</sup> Zanoah, En-Gannim, Tappuah, Enam, <sup>35</sup> Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah, <sup>36</sup> Shaaraim, Adithaim and Gederah, (or Gederothaim), fourteen cities with their villages.

<sup>37</sup> There were Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal-Gad, <sup>38</sup> Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel, <sup>39</sup> Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon, <sup>40</sup> Cabbon, Lamas, Kithlish, <sup>41</sup> Gederoth, Beth-Dagon, Naamah and Makkedah, sixteen cities with their villages.

<sup>42</sup> There were Libnah, Ether, Ashan, <sup>43</sup> Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib, <sup>44</sup> Keilah, Achzib and Mareshah, nine cities with their villages.

<sup>45</sup> There was Ekron with its towns and its villages.

<sup>46</sup> Between Ekron and the sea there were all the cities near Ashdod with their villages.

<sup>47</sup> There was Ashdod, with its towns and its villages, Gaza, with its towns and its villages, as far as the Brook of Egypt and the Great Sea with its coastline.

The cities in the territory of Judah in the hill-country

<sup>48</sup> In the hill-country there were Shamir, Jattir, Socoh, <sup>49</sup> Dannah, Kiriath-Sannah (that is, Debir), <sup>50</sup> Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim, <sup>51</sup> Goshen, Holon and Giloh, eleven cities with their villages.

<sup>52</sup> There were Arab, Dumah, Eshan, <sup>53</sup> Janim, Beth-Tappuah, Aphekah, <sup>54</sup> Humtah, Kiriath-Arba (that is, Hebron) and Zior, nine cities with their villages.

<sup>55</sup> There were Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah, <sup>56</sup> Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah, <sup>57</sup> Kain, Gibeah and Timnah, ten cities with their villages.

<sup>58</sup> There were Halhul, Beth-Zur, Gedor, <sup>59</sup> Maarath, Beth-Anoth and Eltekon, six cities with their villages.

<sup>60</sup> There were Kiriath-Baal (that is, Kiriath-Jearim) and Rabbah, two cities with their villages.

The cities in the territory of Judah in the wilderness

<sup>61</sup> In the wilderness there were Beth-Arabah, Middin, Secacah, <sup>62</sup> Nibshan, the City of Salt and En-Gedi, six cities with their villages.

<sup>63</sup> However, the descendants of Judah could not drive out the Jebusites, who were living in Jerusalem. So, the Jebusites have been living with the descendants of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

16

The allocation of land to Ephraim

<sup>1</sup> The allocation by lot for the descendants of Joseph went from the Jordan at Jericho, from the water of Jericho on the east, into the wilderness that goes up from Jericho through the hill-country to Bethel.

<sup>2</sup> From Bethel the border extended to Luz and continued along to the border of the Archites at Ataroth.

<sup>3</sup> Then it went down westward to the border of the Japhletites, as far as the border of Lower Beth-Horon, then as far as Gezer and ended at the sea. <sup>4</sup> So, the descendants of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, received their inheritance.

<sup>5</sup> The territory of the descendants of Ephraim by their clans was as follows: the border of their inheritance on the east was Ataroth-Addar as far as Upper Beth-Horon. <sup>6</sup> Then the border went on from there to the sea. On the north was Michmethath. Then on the east the border curved around toward Taanath-Shiloh and went along beyond it to the east to Janoah. <sup>7</sup> Then it went down from Janoah to Ataroth and to Naarah, touched Jericho and came out at the Jordan. <sup>8</sup> From Tappuah the border kept going westward to the Kanah Brook and ended at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Ephraim, for their clans. <sup>9</sup> It also included the cities that had been set aside for the descendants of Ephraim inside the inheritance of the descendants of Manasseh, all those cities with their villages. <sup>10</sup> However, they did not drive out the Canaanites who were living in Gezer. So, the Canaanites have been living in the middle of Ephraim to this day. Nevertheless, they have been reduced to complete enslavement.

17

The allocation of land to the half-tribe of Manasseh west of the Jordan

<sup>1</sup> The lot was drawn for the tribe of Manasseh. For he had been the first-born of Joseph. Gilead and Bashan had been allotted to Machir, the first-born of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a warrior.

<sup>2</sup> Allotments were made to the rest of the descendants of Manasseh by their clans, Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hephher and Shemida. These were the other male descendants of Manasseh, the son of Joseph, by their clans. <sup>3</sup> However, Zelophehad, the son of Hephher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had had no sons but only daughters. These are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah. <sup>4</sup> They approached Eleazar, the priest, and Joshua, the son of Nun, and the leaders. They said, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our relatives."

Therefore, Joshua gave them an inheritance among their father's brothers, as the LORD had commanded. <sup>5</sup> Accordingly, ten shares were allotted to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is on the other side of the Jordan, <sup>6</sup> because the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance along with his sons. The land of Gilead had been allotted to the rest of the descendants of Manasseh.

<sup>7</sup> The border of Manasseh went from Asher to Michmethath, which is opposite Shechem. Then the border kept going along southward to include the people living at En-Tappuah. <sup>8</sup> The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh, but Tappuah itself, on the border of Manasseh, belonged to the descendants of Ephraim. <sup>9</sup> Then the boundary went down to the Kanah Brook. These cities, to the south of the brook, belonged to Ephraim, although they were among the cities of Manasseh. Then the border of Manasseh went on the northern side of the brook and ended at the sea. <sup>10</sup> On the southern side the land belonged to Ephraim and on the northern side to Manasseh. The border of Manasseh reached the sea. Manasseh's land adjoins Asher on the north and Issachar on the east. <sup>11</sup> Inside Issachar and Asher, Manasseh also had Beth-Shean and its villages, Ibleam and its villages, the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, the inhabitants of En-Dor and its villages, the inhabitants of Taanach and its villages and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages. There are three hilly regions. <sup>12</sup> Nevertheless, the descendants of Manasseh could not take possession of these cities, and the Canaanites were determined to live in this region. <sup>13</sup> When the Israelites grew stronger, they subjected the Canaanites to forced labour. However, they did not drive them out completely.

A protest made by the tribe of Joseph <sup>14</sup> The descendants of Joseph asked Joshua: "Why have you given us only one allotment and one portion for an inheritance? We, however, are a numerous people, and until now the LORD has been blessing us."

<sup>15</sup> Joshua answered them: "If you are a numerous people, go up by yourselves to the forest and clear ground there for yourselves in the land of the Perizzites and the Rephaites, since the hill-country of Ephraim is too narrow for you!"

<sup>16</sup> The descendants of Joseph replied: "The hill-country is not enough for us! Moreover, all the Canaanites who are living in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both those in Beth-Shean and its villages and those in the Valley of Jezreel!"

<sup>17</sup> Then Joshua told Ephraim and Manasseh, the family of Joseph: "You are a numerous people and you are very strong. You will not have only one allotment, <sup>18</sup> but the hill-country will be yours. For, although it is a forest, you shall clear it! Then its farthest limits will belong to you. For you shall drive out the Canaanites, even though they have chariots of iron and even though they are strong!"

The survey of the rest of Canaan before the second stage in the allocation of land to the tribes

<sup>1</sup> Then the whole congregation of the Israelites assembled at Shiloh and set up the Tent of Meeting there. The land had been subjugated before them. <sup>2</sup> However, seven tribes remained among the Israelites that had not yet obtained their inheritance. <sup>3</sup> So, Joshua asked the Israelites: "How long will you show yourselves lazy about going in to take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given to you? <sup>4</sup> Provide three men from each tribe, that I may send them out, that they may undertake a survey of the land! They shall write a description of it to be used in determining their inheritance! Then they shall come back to me! <sup>5</sup> They shall divide it into seven portions! Judah shall continue in his territory in the south, and the family of Joseph shall continue in their territory in the north. <sup>6</sup> You shall write a description of the land in seven parts and bring the description here to me! Then I shall cast lots for you here before the LORD, our God. <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless, the Levites have no allocation among you, for the priesthood of the LORD is their inheritance. Gad and Reuben and half the tribe of Manasseh have also received their inheritance on the eastern side of the Jordan. Moses, the servant of the LORD has given it to them."

<sup>8</sup> The men got ready to go. Joshua had commanded those who went to write a description of the land. He had told them: "Go, walk through the land, write a description of it and come back to me! Then I shall cast lots for you here before the LORD at Shiloh."

<sup>9</sup> The men went and passed through the land. They wrote in a book a description of it, city by city, in seven parts. Then they returned to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh. <sup>10</sup> Joshua cast lots for them at Shiloh before the LORD and there Joshua assigned the land to the Israelites according to their tribal divisions.

The allocation of land to Benjamin

<sup>11</sup> The allocation by lot fell to the tribe of the descendants of Benjamin according to their clans. The territory allotted to them fell between the descendants of Judah and the descendants of Joseph. <sup>12</sup> On the northern side their boundary began at the Jordan. Then the border went up to the shoulder north of Jericho. Next it went up to the west through the hill-country and ended at the Wilderness of Beth-Aven. <sup>13</sup> From there the border passed along towards Luz, southwards, to the shoulder of Luz (that is, Bethel). Then the border went down to Ataroth-Addar, on the mountain that is on the southern side of Lower Beth-Horon. <sup>14</sup> Then the border turned and went around on the western side, southwards from the mountain that faces Beth-Horon and came out at Kiriath-Baal (which is Kiriath-Jearim), a city belonging to the descendants of Judah. This was the western side. <sup>15</sup> The southern side began at the outskirts of Kiriath-Jearim. Then the border extended to the west and continued to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah. <sup>16</sup> Then the border went down to the end of the hill that faces the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which is at the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim. It then went down the Valley of Hinnom, to the southern slope of the Jebusite City and then down to En-Rogel. <sup>17</sup> Then it curved northwards and continued to En-Shemesh. Then it went on to Geliloth, which is opposite the Pass to Adummim. Next it descended to the stone of Bohan, the son of Reuben. <sup>18</sup> Then it continued to the northern side of the slope facing the Arabah and went down to the Arabah. <sup>19</sup> Then the border continued to the northern slope of Beth-Hoglah. The border ended at the northern bay of the Salt Sea, at the southern end of the Jordan. This was the southern border. <sup>20</sup> The Jordan formed its border on the eastern side. This was the inheritance of the descendants of Benjamin, according to their clans, with its borders all around.

<sup>21</sup> The cities that belonged to the tribe of the descendants of Benjamin according to their clans were Jericho, Beth-Hoglah, Emek-Keziz, <sup>22</sup> Beth-Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel, <sup>23</sup> Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, <sup>24</sup> Chephar-Ha-Ammona, Ophni and Geba, twelve cities with their villages: <sup>25</sup> Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth, <sup>26</sup> Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah, <sup>27</sup> Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, <sup>28</sup> Zela, Ha-Eleph, the Jebusite city, which is Jerusalem, Gibeah and Kiriath-Jearim, fourteen cities with their villages. This was the inheritance of the descendants of Benjamin according to their clans.

19

The allocation of land to Simeon inside the borders of Judah — 1 Chronicles 4:28-33

<sup>1</sup> The second lot was drawn for the families of the tribe of Simeon. Their inheritance was inside the inheritance of the descendants of Judah. <sup>2</sup> They had in their inheritance Beer-Sheba, Sheba, Moladah, <sup>3</sup> Hazar-Shual, Balah, Ezem, <sup>4</sup> Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah, <sup>5</sup> Ziklag, Beth-Marcaboth, Hazar-Susah, <sup>6</sup> Beth-Lebaoth and Sharuhem, thirteen cities with their villages; <sup>7</sup> Ain, Rimmon, Ether and Ashan, four cities with their villages; <sup>8</sup> together with all the villages that were around these cities as far as Baalath-Ber and Ramah of the Negev. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Simeon according to their clans. <sup>9</sup> The inheritance of the descendants of Simeon was included inside the share of the descendants of Judah because the share of the descendants of Judah was too large for them. The descendants of Simeon obtained an inheritance inside of the inheritance of the people of Judah.

The allocation of land to Zebulun

<sup>10</sup> The third lot was drawn for the descendants of Zebulun, according to their clans. The border of their inheritance reached as far as Sarid. <sup>11</sup> Then their border went up toward the west, on to Maralah, touched Dabbesheth and then the brook that is near Jokneam. <sup>12</sup> From Sarid it went back towards the east to the border of Chisloth-Tabor. Then it extended to Daberath and went up to Japhia. <sup>13</sup> From there it passed along towards the east to Gath-Hepher, to Eth-Kazin. Then it went on to Rimmon and turned towards Neah. <sup>14</sup> Then the border went around it on the north to Hannathon and ended at the Valley of Yiphtahel. <sup>15</sup> Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Yidalah and Bethlehem were included. There were twelve towns and their villages. <sup>16</sup> These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the descendants of Zebulun, clan by clan.

The allocation of land to Issachar

<sup>17</sup> The fourth lot was drawn for Issachar, for the descendants of Issachar, according to their clans. <sup>18</sup> Their territory went to Jezreel and included Chesloth, Shunem, <sup>19</sup> Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath, <sup>20</sup> Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez, <sup>21</sup> Remeth, En-Gannim, En-Haddah and Beth-Pazzez. <sup>22</sup> The border also touched Tabor, Shahazimah and Beth-Shemesh. Their border ends at the Jordan. There were sixteen cities with their villages. <sup>23</sup> These cities with their villages are the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Issachar, according to their clans.

The allocation of land to Asher

<sup>24</sup> The fifth lot was drawn for the tribe of the descendants of Asher according to their clans. <sup>25</sup> Their territory included Helkath, Hali, Beten, Achshaph, <sup>26</sup> Allammelech, Amad and Mishal. On the west it touches Carmel and Shihor-Libnah. <sup>27</sup> Then it turns east to Beth-Dagon and touches Zebulun and the Valley of Yiphtahel northward to Beth-Emek and Neiel. Then it continues on the left to Cabul, <sup>28</sup> and Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, Kanah and as far as Great Sidon. <sup>29</sup> Then the border turns back to Ramah and to the fortified city of Tyre. Then the border turns back to Hosah and ends at the sea, in the region of Achzib, <sup>30</sup> Ummah, Aphek and Rehob. There were twenty-two cities with their villages. <sup>31</sup> These cities with their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Asher according to their clans.

The allocation of land to Naphtali

<sup>32</sup> The sixth lot was drawn for the descendants of Naphtali, for the descendants of Naphtali according to their clans. <sup>33</sup> Their border ran from Heleph, from the oak at Zaananim and Adami-Nekeb and Jabneel, as far as Lakkum and ended at the Jordan. <sup>34</sup> Then the border turned back towards the west to Aznoth-Tabor and continued from there to Hukok. It touched Zebulun in the south, touched Asher in the west and Judah in the east at the Jordan. <sup>35</sup> The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Chinnereth, <sup>36</sup> Adamah, Ramah, Hazor, <sup>37</sup> Kedesh, Edrei, En-Hazor, <sup>38</sup> Yiron, Migdal-El, Horem, Beth-Anath and Beth-Shemesh. There were nineteen cities with their villages. <sup>39</sup> These cities with their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of the descendants of Naphtali according to their clans.

The allocation of land to Dan

<sup>40</sup> The seventh lot was drawn for the tribe of the descendants of Dan, according to their clans. <sup>41</sup> The territory of their inheritance included Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir-Shemesh, <sup>42</sup> Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Yithlah, <sup>43</sup> Elon, Timnah, Ekron, <sup>44</sup> Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath, <sup>45</sup> Jehud, Bene-Berak, Gath-Rimmon, <sup>46</sup> Me-Jarkon and Rakkon, with the region in front of Joppa.

The migration of the tribe of Dan to the far north — Judges 18

<sup>47</sup> When the territory of the descendants of Dan was lost to them, the descendants of Dan went up and fought against Leshem. They captured it, struck it down with the sword, took possession of it and settled in it. They called Leshem “Dan,” after the name of Dan, their forefather. <sup>48</sup> The tribe of the descendants of Dan inherited these cities with their villages, according to their clans.

The special inheritance of Joshua

<sup>49</sup> When they had finished assigning the borders of the land as inherited territories, the Israelites gave an inheritance among them to Joshua, the son of Nun.

<sup>50</sup> As the LORD directed them, they gave him the city that he asked for, Timnath-Serah in the hill-country of Ephraim. He rebuilt the city and settled in it.

<sup>51</sup> These were the inheritances that the priest Eleazar, Joshua, the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers’ houses of the tribes of the Israelites distributed by lot. They did this before the LORD at Shiloh at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. So, they finished dividing the land.

20

The allocation of six cities of refuge — Numbers 35:6-34, Deuteronomy 4:41-43, 19:1-14

<sup>1</sup> Then the LORD instructed Joshua, <sup>2</sup> “Tell the Israelites, ‘Appoint the cities of refuge, about which I have instructed you through Moses, <sup>3</sup> that anyone who strikes and kills another person accidentally and unintentionally may flee there, that they may become places of refuge from a person who takes revenge for bloodshed! <sup>4</sup> When he flees to one of these cities, he shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city and explain his case to the elders of that city! Then they shall admit him into their city and allocate him a place, that he may live with them! <sup>5</sup> When the person who is taking revenge for bloodshed pursues him, they shall not yield the person who has killed another into his hand! For he has struck his neighbour unintentionally, without having hated him in the past. <sup>6</sup> He shall remain in that city until he has appeared before the congregation for a trial and until the death of the man who is the High Priest at that time! Then the person who has killed another may return to his own city and to his own home in the city from which he had fled.’”

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill-country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim and Kiriath-Arba, which is Hebron, in the hill-country of Judah. <sup>8</sup> On the other side of the Jordan, east of Jericho, they allocated Bezer in the wilderness on the plateau, from the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead, from the tribe of Gad and Golan in Bashan, from the tribe of Manasseh. <sup>9</sup> These were the cities designated for all the Israelites and for the foreigners residing among them, that anyone who killed another person accidentally might flee there, that he might not die by the hand of a person who was taking revenge for bloodshed, before he had appeared before the congregation.

21

The Allocation of cities for the Levites — 1 Chronicles 6:54-81

<sup>1</sup> Then the leaders of the families of the Levites approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua, the son of Nun, and the leaders of the families of the other tribes of the Israelites. <sup>2</sup> They told them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan: “The LORD has commanded through Moses that you should give us cities to dwell in, along with their pasturelands for our livestock.”

<sup>3</sup> So, as the LORD had commanded, the Israelites gave the Levites the following towns and pasturelands out of their inheritance: <sup>4</sup> The allocation fell by lot for the clans of the Kohathites. So, those Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest received thirteen cities by lot from the tribes of Judah, Simeon and Benjamin. <sup>5</sup> The rest of the Kohathites received ten cities by lot from the clans of the tribes of Ephraim, Dan and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

<sup>6</sup> The descendants of Gershon received by lot thirteen cities from the clans of the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali and the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

<sup>7</sup> The descendants of Merari according to their clans received twelve cities from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Zebulun. <sup>8</sup> The Israelites gave these cities and their pasturelands by lot to the Levites, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

The allocation of cities for the descendants of Kohath

<sup>9</sup> They gave the following cities mentioned by name out of the tribes of the descendants of Judah and of Simeon. <sup>10</sup> The descendants of Aaron who were from the Kohathite clans of the Levites received these, because the allocation by lot fell to them first. <sup>11</sup> They gave them Kiriath-Arba, which is Hebron, with its surrounding pastureland, in the hill-country of Judah. (Arba was the forefather of Anak). <sup>12</sup> However, they had given the fields of the city and its villages to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, as his property.

<sup>13</sup> So, they allocated Hebron, the city of refuge for the person who had killed another, to the descendants of Aaron the priest, with its pasturelands, Libnah with its pasturelands, <sup>14</sup> Jattir with its pasturelands, Eshtemoa with its pasturelands, <sup>15</sup> Holon with its pasturelands, Debir with its pasturelands, <sup>16</sup> Ain with its pasturelands, Juttah with its pasturelands and Beth-Shemesh with its pasturelands. There were nine cities out of these two tribes. <sup>17</sup> They gave them, out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its pasturelands, Geba with its pasturelands, <sup>18</sup> Anathoth with its pas-

turelands and Almon with its pasturelands. There were four cities. <sup>19</sup> The cities of the priests, the descendants of Aaron, numbered thirteen in all, together with their pasturelands.

<sup>20</sup> The rest of the Kohathite clans of the Levites received cities by lot from the tribe of Ephraim. <sup>21</sup> They gave them Shechem, a city of refuge for the person who had killed another, with its pasturelands in the hill-country of Ephraim, Gezer with its pasturelands, <sup>22</sup> Kibzaim with its pasturelands and Beth-Horon with its pasturelands. There were four cities. <sup>23</sup> Out of the tribe of Dan they gave them Eltekeh with its pasturelands, Gibbethon with its pasturelands, <sup>24</sup> Aijalon with its pasturelands and Gath-Rimmon with its pasturelands. There were four cities. <sup>25</sup> Out of the half-tribe of Manasseh they gave them Taanach with its pasturelands and Gath-Rimmon with its pasturelands. There were two cities. <sup>26</sup> The cities of the clans of the rest of the Kohathites numbered ten in all, together with their pasturelands.

The allocation of cities for the descendants of Gershon

<sup>27</sup> They gave two cities with their pasturelands out of the half-tribe of Manasseh to the clans of the Levites who were descended from Gershon. They were Golan in Bashan, a city of refuge for the person who had killed another and Be-Eshterah. There were two cities. <sup>28</sup> Out of the tribe of Issachar they gave them Kishion with its pasturelands, Daberath with its pasturelands, <sup>29</sup> Jarmuth with its pasturelands and En-Gannim with its pasturelands. There were four cities. <sup>30</sup> Out of the tribe of Asher they gave them Mishal with its pasturelands, Abdon with its pasturelands, <sup>31</sup> Helkath with its pasturelands and Rehob with its pasturelands. There were four cities. <sup>32</sup> Out of the tribe of Naphtali they gave them Kedesh in Galilee with its pasturelands, a city of refuge for the person who had killed another, Hammoth-Dor with its pasturelands and Kartan with its pasturelands. There were three cities. <sup>33</sup> The cities of the Gershonites according to their clans numbered thirteen in all, together with their pasturelands.

The allocation of cities for the descendants of Merari

<sup>34</sup> They gave to the rest of the Levites, to the clans that were descended from Merari, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam with its pasturelands, Kartah with its pasturelands, <sup>35</sup> Dimnah with its pasturelands and Nahalal with its pasturelands. There were four cities. <sup>36</sup> Out of the tribe of Reuben they gave them Bezer with its pasturelands, Jahaz with its pasturelands, <sup>37</sup> Kedemoth with its pasturelands and Mephaath with its pasturelands. There were four cities. <sup>38</sup> Out of the tribe of Gad they gave them Ramoth in Gilead, a city of refuge for the person who had killed another, with its pasturelands, Mahanaim with its pasturelands, <sup>39</sup> Heshbon with its pasturelands and Jazer with its pasturelands. There were four cities in all. <sup>40</sup> The cities that the descendants of Merari, that is, the rest of the clans of the Levites, received by lot, according to their clans, numbered twelve in all.

<sup>41</sup> The cities of the Levites inside the territory of the Israelites numbered forty-eight in all, together with their pasturelands. <sup>42</sup> Each of these cities had its pasturelands around it. This was the same for all these cities. <sup>43</sup> So, the LORD gave to Israel all the land that He had sworn to give to their forefathers. They took possession of it and lived in it. <sup>44</sup> The LORD gave them rest on every side exactly as He had sworn to their forefathers. Not one of all their enemies had withstood them. The LORD had handed all their enemies over to them. <sup>45</sup> Not one Word of all the good promises that the LORD had made to the family of Israel had failed. All had come true.

22

Joshua's blessing to the two and a half tribes east of the Jordan and their return to their territory

<sup>1</sup> Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh. <sup>2</sup> He told them: "You have kept everything that Moses, the servant of the LORD, commanded you and have obeyed me in everything that I have commanded you. <sup>3</sup> You have not forsaken your fellow-Israelites during this long time, down to this day but done what the LORD, your God, has commanded you to do. <sup>4</sup> Now the LORD, your God, has given rest to your fellow-Israelites, as He has promised them. Return, therefore and go to your tents in the land that belongs to you, which Moses, the servant of the LORD, gave you on the other side of the Jordan! <sup>5</sup> Only be very careful to carry out the Commandment and the Law, which Moses, the servant of the LORD, commanded you, to love the LORD, your God, to walk in all His Ways, to keep His Commandments, to hold fast to Him and to serve Him with all your hearts and with all your souls!"

<sup>6</sup> When Joshua had blessed them and sent them away, they went to their tents.

<sup>7</sup> Moses had given a possession in Bashan to the one half of the tribe of Manasseh, and Joshua had given to the other half a possession beside their fellow-Israelites in the land west of the Jordan. When Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them. <sup>8</sup> He told them: "Go back to your tents with much wealth, with very much livestock, with silver, gold, bronze, iron and much clothing! Divide the plunder from your enemies with your fellow-Israelites!"

The dispute about the building of an altar near the Jordan by the eastern tribes

<sup>9</sup> So, the descendants of Reuben, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh left the other descendants of Israel at Shiloh in the land of Canaan to return to Gilead, to go to the land of Gilead, their own property, which they had obtained, as the LORD had commanded them through Moses. <sup>10</sup> When they came to the district near the Jordan that is in the land of Canaan, the descendants of Reuben and the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an altar

there beside the Jordan, a large altar visible from far away. <sup>11</sup> When the rest of the Israelites heard about it they said: “Look! The descendants of Reuben, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have built this altar on the border of the land of Canaan, in the district near the Jordan, on the side that belongs to the Israelites.”

<sup>12</sup> When the Israelites heard about it, the whole congregation of the Israelites gathered at Shiloh to go up and fight against them. <sup>13</sup> Then the Israelites sent Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the priest, to the descendants of Reuben, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead. <sup>14</sup> They sent with him ten leaders, one from each of the tribal families of Israel. Each one was the head of an ancestral family among the clans of Israel. <sup>15</sup> When they came to the descendants of Reuben, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh, in the land of Gilead, they told them: <sup>16</sup> “This is what the whole congregation of the LORD has asked, ‘What is this breach of faith that you have committed against the God of Israel? You have today turned away from the LORD by building an altar for yourselves. You have today rebelled against the LORD!’ <sup>17</sup> Has the sin of Peor meant so little to us? To this day we have not cleansed ourselves from it, although a plague fell on the congregation of the LORD. <sup>18</sup> Are you too turning away from LORD today? If you rebel against the LORD today, tomorrow He will be angry with the whole congregation of Israel. <sup>19</sup> However, if the land that you possess is unclean, come across into land that is the property of the LORD, where the Tabernacle of the LORD has settled down! Take land among us to settle on but do not rebel against the LORD or rebel against us by building an altar for yourselves in addition to the altar of the LORD, our God! <sup>20</sup> When Achan, the son of Zerah, broke faith concerning the condemned goods, did not wrath come on the whole congregation of Israel? He was not the only one who perished for his offence.”

<sup>21</sup> Then the descendants of Reuben, the descendants of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh replied to the heads of the clans of Israel: <sup>22</sup> “The LORD is the God of gods! The LORD is the God of gods! He knows, and Israel itself should know! If it has been in rebellion or in breach of faith against the LORD, do not spare us today! <sup>23</sup> If we have built our own altar to turn away from the LORD or to offer burnt offerings and grain-offerings on it or to sacrifice peace-offerings on it, may the LORD Himself demand an account! <sup>24</sup> We have certainly done this only because we are anxious, for a reason. We said, ‘In time to come your descendants may tell our descendants: “What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?’ <sup>25</sup> The LORD has made the Jordan a border between you descendants of Reuben and you descendants of Gad and us. You have no connection with the LORD!”” Your descendants would cause our descendants to cease fearing the LORD. <sup>26</sup> Therefore, we said, ‘Let us do something for ourselves by building the altar, not for burnt offering or for sacrifice <sup>27</sup> but to be a witness between us and you and between our generations after us, that we shall perform the service of the LORD in His presence with our burnt offerings, sacrifices and peace-offerings! Then your descendants will not tell our children in time to come, ‘You have no portion in the LORD.’ <sup>28</sup> Therefore, we thought, ‘If they should ever say this to us or to our coming generations in future, we should say, “Look at the replica of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offerings or for sacrifices but to be a witness between us and you!”’ <sup>29</sup> It would be unthinkable for us to rebel against the LORD and turn away from the LORD today by building an altar for burnt offering, grain-offering or sacrifice, other than the altar of the LORD, our God, which is in front of His Tabernacle!”

<sup>30</sup> When Phinehas the priest, the leaders of the congregation, the heads of the clans of Israel who were with him, had heard what the descendants of Reuben, the descendants of Gad and the people of Manasseh said, they approved of it. <sup>31</sup> Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the priest, told the descendants of Reuben, the descendants of Gad and the descendants of Manasseh: “Today we know that the LORD is among us, because you have not committed a breach of faith here against the LORD. Now you have delivered the Israelites from the hand of the LORD.”

<sup>32</sup> Then Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the priest, and the leaders returned from the descendants of Reuben and the descendants of Gad in the land of Gilead to the Israelites in the land of Canaan and brought them a report. <sup>33</sup> Israel approved of the report. Then the Israelites blessed God and did not talk any longer about going up to fight against them to destroy the land where the descendants of Reuben and the descendants of Gad were living. <sup>34</sup> The descendants of Reuben and the descendants of Gad gave the altar a name, saying: “It is a witness between us that the LORD is God.”

23

Joshua's reminder to the leaders of the Israelites to follow the teachings of Moses <sup>1</sup> A long time had passed after the LORD had given Israel rest from all their enemies around them, and Joshua had grown old and was well advanced in years.

<sup>2</sup> Joshua summoned all Israel, its elders, its leaders, its judges and its officers. He told them: “I have become old and am well advanced in years. <sup>3</sup> You yourselves have seen all that the LORD, your God, has done to all these nations on your behalf. For the LORD, your God, is the One who has been fighting for you.

<sup>4</sup> Look! I have allotted to you as an inheritance for your tribes those nations that remain, as well as all the nations that I have cut off, from the Jordan to the Great Sea in the west. <sup>5</sup> The LORD, your God, will Himself push them back ahead of you and drive them out ahead of you. You will take possession of their land, as the LORD, your God, has promised you. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, you must be very strong, so that you are careful to put into practice all that has been written in the Book of the Law of Moses, so that you do not turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left! <sup>7</sup> Do not associate with these nations that remain among you! You shall not mention the names of their gods, you shall not swear by them! You shall not serve them or bow down to them! <sup>8</sup> Rather, you shall hold fast to the LORD, your God, as you have been doing to this day! <sup>9</sup> The LORD has driven out great and strong nations before you. As for you, no one has been able to resist you to this day. <sup>10</sup> One of you used to chase a thousand, because the LORD, your God, was the One who was fighting for you, as He had promised you. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, you shall be very careful to love the LORD, your God! <sup>12</sup> For, if you really do turn away, join the rest of these nations that are remaining among you and intermarry with them, so that you associate with them and they with you, <sup>13</sup> you must know for certain that the LORD, your God, will no longer drive out these nations before you! Then they will be a snare and a trap for you, a whip on your sides and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land, which the LORD, your God, has given you. <sup>14</sup> Look! Today I am going the way of all the earth, and you know in your hearts and souls, all of you, that not a single Word of all the good things that the LORD, your God, has promised concerning you has failed. All have come true for you. Not one of them has failed. <sup>15</sup> However, as every good promise that the LORD, your God, has made concerning you has been fulfilled for you, so the LORD will bring on you every evil threat, until He has destroyed you from this good land, which the LORD, your God, has given you. <sup>16</sup> If you transgress the Covenant of the LORD, your God, which He has commanded you, and you go and serve other gods and bow down to them, the anger of the LORD will burn against you and you will quickly perish from the good land that He has given to you.”

24

The renewal of the Covenant at Shechem and the agreement of the Israelites to continue to worship God — compare Exodus 24:9-18

<sup>1</sup> Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel at Shechem. He summoned the elders, leaders, judges and officers of Israel, and they presented themselves before God. <sup>2</sup> Joshua told all the people: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: ‘Long ago your ancestors, including Terah, the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived on the other side of the Euphrates and served other gods. <sup>3</sup> However, I took your father Abraham from the other side of the Euphrates and made him go through the whole land of Canaan. I multiplied his descendants. I gave him Isaac. <sup>4</sup> I gave

Isaac Jacob and Esau. I gave Esau the hill-country of Seir to possess, but Jacob and his children went down to Egypt. <sup>5</sup> I sent Moses and Aaron and plagued Egypt by what I did in the middle of it and afterwards I brought you out. <sup>6</sup> When I brought your ancestors out of Egypt, you came to the sea, and the Egyptians pursued your ancestors with chariots and horsemen to the Red Sea. <sup>7</sup> When your ancestors cried out to the LORD, He put darkness between you and the Egyptians, brought the sea over them and covered them. So, your own eyes saw what I did in Egypt. Then you lived in the wilderness for a long time. <sup>8</sup> Then I brought you to the land of the Amorites, who used to live on the other side of the Jordan. When they fought against you, I gave them into your hands. You took possession of their land when I destroyed them before you. <sup>9</sup> Then Balak, the son of Zippor, the king of Moab, prepared to fight against Israel. He sent men to ask Balaam, the son of Beor, to come to curse you. <sup>10</sup> However, I would not listen to Balaam. He continued to bless you, and I delivered you from him. <sup>11</sup> Then you crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. The citizens of Jericho fought against you, as well as the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, but I gave them into your hands. <sup>12</sup> I put dejection ahead of you, which drove them out before you, as well as the two kings of the Amorites. You did not do it with your own sword and bow. <sup>13</sup> I gave you a land for which you had not taken pains and cities that you had not built, and you lived in them. You are eating from vineyards and olive trees that you have not planted.’

<sup>14</sup> “Now therefore, fear the LORD and serve Him sincerely and faithfully! Put away the gods that your ancestors served on the other side of the Euphrates River and in Egypt and serve the LORD! <sup>15</sup> However, if serving the LORD seems wrong to you, choose today whom you will serve: either the gods that your ancestors served on the other side of the Euphrates River or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living! However, as for me and my family, we shall serve the LORD.”

<sup>16</sup> Then the people answered: “Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD to serve other gods!

<sup>17</sup> For the LORD, our God, is the One who has brought our ancestors and us up out of slave-quarters in the land of Egypt. He is the One who has performed these great miraculous signs before our eyes. He is the One who has protected us on all the journeying that we have been doing and among all the nations through which we have passed. <sup>18</sup> The LORD has also driven out before us all the nations, even the Amorites, who used to live in the land. We also shall serve the LORD. For He is our God.”

<sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, Joshua told the people: “You cannot serve the LORD, because He is a holy God. He is a jealous God. He will not forgive your rebellion and your sins. <sup>20</sup> When you forsake the LORD and serve the gods of a foreign land, He will turn, do you harm and destroy you after He has been good to you.”

Joshua

<sup>21</sup> However, the people told Joshua, “No! Rather, we shall serve the LORD!”

<sup>22</sup> Then Joshua told the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves, that you have chosen the LORD, to serve Him.”

They answered, “We are witnesses.”

<sup>23</sup> He said, “Now therefore, get rid of the foreign gods that are among you and incline your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel!”

<sup>24</sup> The people replied to Joshua, “We shall serve the LORD, our God, and listen to what He says.”

<sup>25</sup> So, that day Joshua made a covenant for the people and drew up Prescriptions and Decisions for them at Shechem. <sup>26</sup> Joshua wrote these Words in the Book of the Law of God. He took a large stone and set it up there under the large tree that is at the sanctuary of the LORD.

<sup>27</sup> Joshua told all the people: “Look! This stone will be a witness against us. For it has heard all the Words that the LORD has spoken to us. It will be a witness against you, that you may not disown your God.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Joshua dismissed all the people to his own inheritance.

The death and burial of Joshua — Judges 2:6-10

<sup>29</sup> After this, Joshua, the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, at the age of one hundred and ten years. <sup>30</sup> They buried him on his own inherited property at Timnath-Serah, which is in the hill-country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash. <sup>31</sup> Israel served the LORD all Joshua’s life and all the lives of the elders who lived longer than Joshua and who had known all the work that the LORD had done for Israel.

The burial of Joseph’s bones — Genesis 50:25

<sup>32</sup> They buried the bones of Joseph, which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt, at Shechem, in the plot of ground that Jacob had bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, for a hundred measures of money. It became inherited property of the descendants of Joseph.

The death and burial of the High Priest Eleazar <sup>33</sup> Eleazar, the son of Aaron, also died, and they buried him at Gibeah, which had been allotted to his son Phinehas, in the hill-country of Ephraim.

JUDGES

1

The attempts by Judah to expel the remaining Canaanites — Joshua 15:13-19

<sup>1</sup> After Joshua died, the Israelites asked the LORD, “Who shall go up first for us to fight against the Canaanites?”

<sup>2</sup> The LORD said, “Judah shall go up! See, I have given the land into their hands.”

<sup>3</sup> The people of Judah told Simeon, their fellow-Israelites: “Come up with us into the territory allotted to us, that we may fight against the Canaanites! Then we shall also go with you into the territory allotted to you.”

So, Simeon went with them. <sup>4</sup> Then Judah went up, and the LORD gave the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hands, and they struck down ten thousand men at Bezek. <sup>5</sup> They caught up with Adoni-Bezek at Bezek, fought against him and defeated the Canaanites and the Perizzites. <sup>6</sup> Adoni-Bezek fled, but they pursued him, caught him and cut off his thumbs and his big toes. <sup>7</sup> Adoni-Bezek said: “Seventy kings with their thumbs and their big toes cut off used to pick up scraps under my table. God has paid me back for what I have done to them.”

They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

<sup>8</sup> The men of Judah fought against Jerusalem and captured it. They struck the city down with the edge of the sword and set it on fire. <sup>9</sup> After that, the men of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites who were living in the hill-country, in the Negev and in the foothills.

The capture of Hebron by Caleb and the special allocation of land to him — Joshua 14:6-15

<sup>10</sup> Then Judah advanced against the Canaanites who were living at Hebron. Hebron had formerly been called “Kiriath-Arba.” They defeated Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai. <sup>11</sup> From there they attacked the people who were living at Debir. Debir had formerly been called “Kiriath-Sepher.” <sup>12</sup> Caleb had said, “I shall give my daughter Achsah as a wife to anyone who attacks Kiriath-Sepher and captures it.”

<sup>13</sup> Othniel, the son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, captured it, and Caleb gave him his daughter Achsah as wife. <sup>14</sup> When she came to Othniel, she urged him to ask her father for a field. When she was on her donkey, she clapped her hands to get his attention; so Caleb asked her, “What do you want?”

<sup>15</sup> She told him: “Give me a blessing! Since you have set me in the land of the Negev, you must also give me water-basins!”

So, Caleb gave her the upper and the lower water-basins.

The settlement of Kenites in the Negev

<sup>16</sup> The descendants of Moses’ father-in-law, the Kenite, had gone up with the people of Judah from the City of Palms into the Wilderness of Judah, which is in the Negev near Arad and had gone and settled with the people.

Victories of Judah and Simeon in the south

<sup>17</sup> Then Judah went with Simeon, their fellow-Israelites, and they defeated the Canaanites who were living at Zephath and devoted Zephath to destruction. So, the city was named “Hormah.”<sup>75</sup> <sup>18</sup> Judah also captured Gaza with its territory, Ashkelon with its territory and Ekron with its territory. <sup>19</sup> The LORD was with Judah, and they took possession of the hill-country. However, they could not drive out the people living on the flat country, because they had chariots of iron. <sup>20</sup> They gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had promised. Caleb dispossessed the three sons of Anak from there. <sup>21</sup> However, the descendants of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who were living in Jerusalem. So, the Jebusites have been living in Jerusalem with the descendants of Benjamin to this day.

<sup>22</sup> The descendants of Joseph also went up against Bethel, and the LORD was with them. <sup>23</sup> The descendants of Joseph had sent men to spy out Bethel. Bethel had previously been named “Luz.” <sup>24</sup> When the spies who were watching saw a man coming out of the city, they asked him, “Please show us the way into the city and we shall treat you kindly!”

<sup>25</sup> After he had shown them the way into the city, they struck the city down with the edge of the sword. However, they spared the man and his whole family.

<sup>26</sup> The man then went to the land of the Hittites, built a city and named it “Luz.” That is still its name today.

<sup>27</sup> Moreover, Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth-Shean and its villages, Taanach and its villages, the inhabitants of Dor and its villages, the inhabitants of Ibleam and its villages or the inhabitants of Megiddo and its villages. The Canaanites persisted in dwelling in that land. <sup>28</sup> However, when Israel grew strong, they put the Canaanites under compulsory labour without driving them out completely.

<sup>29</sup> Ephraim also did not drive out the Canaanites who were living in Gezer, but the Canaanites have been living among them in Gezer.

<sup>30</sup> Zebulun also did not drive out the people who were living at Kitron or the people who were living at Nahalol. So, the Canaanites have been living among them, although they have become subject to compulsory labour.

<sup>31</sup> Asher did not drive out the people who were living in Acco or the people who were living in Sidon, Ahlab, Achzib, Helbah, Aphik and Rehob. <sup>32</sup> So, the Asherites have been living among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land. For they have not driven them out.

<sup>33</sup> Naphtali did not drive out the people who were living in Beth-Shemesh or the people who were living in

<sup>75</sup> Hormah means, “Banned to destruction.”

Beth-Anath. So, they have been living among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land. Nevertheless, they have put the inhabitants of Beth-Shemesh and of Beth-Anath under compulsory labour.

<sup>34</sup> The Amorites confined the descendants of Dan to the hill-country. For they did not allow them to come down to the flat country. <sup>35</sup> The Amorites persisted in living on Mount Heres, in Aijalon and in Shaalbim, but, when the family of Joseph grew stronger, the Amorites became subject to compulsory labour. <sup>36</sup> The border of the Amorites ran from the Pass of Akkrabbim, from Sela and up from there.

2

The announcement by the Angel of the Lord at Bochim about Israel's failure to drive out all the Canaanites

<sup>1</sup> The angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bochim. He said: "I was bringing you up from Egypt and have brought you into the land that I have sworn to give to your fathers. I have promised, 'I shall never break My Covenant with you. <sup>2</sup> You yourselves shall not make any covenant with the inhabitants of this land! You shall break down their altars!' However, you have not listened to what I have said. What is this that you have done? <sup>3</sup> Therefore, I have also said, 'I shall not drive them out before you. They will become snares, and their gods will become a trap for you.'"

<sup>4</sup> When the Angel of the LORD had told all the Israelites this, the people wept aloud. <sup>5</sup> So, they named that place "Bochim."<sup>76</sup> Then they offered sacrifices there to the LORD. <sup>6</sup> When Joshua had dismissed the people, each of the Israelites went to take possession of his own inheritance in the land. <sup>7</sup> The people served the LORD while Joshua was alive and while the elders were alive who continued to live after Joshua and who had seen all the great work that the LORD had done for Israel.

The death of Joshua — Joshua 24:29-31

<sup>8</sup> Joshua, the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of one hundred and ten years. <sup>9</sup> They buried him on his own inherited property at Timnath-Heres, in the hill-country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash. <sup>10</sup> After all that generation had also been gathered to their fathers, another generation grew up after them who knew neither the LORD nor the work that He had done for Israel.

The idolatry of the next generation of the Israelites

<sup>11</sup> Then the Israelites did what displeased the LORD and served the Baals. <sup>12</sup> They abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt. They went after other gods, some of the gods of the peoples who were around them and worshipped them. They provoked the LORD to anger. <sup>13</sup> They abandoned the LORD and served Baal and Ashtoreth. <sup>14</sup> So, the LORD became angry with Israel and put them into the hands of raiders, who robbed them and He sold them to their enemies all around, so they could not resist their enemies any longer. <sup>15</sup> Whenever they marched out, the hand of the LORD was against them to harm them, as the LORD had warned and as the LORD had sworn to them. They were in great distress. <sup>16</sup> Then the LORD raised up judges, who saved them out of the hands of those who were raiding them. <sup>17</sup> However, they did not listen to their judges but prostituted themselves to other gods and worshipped them. They quickly turned aside from the Way in which their fathers had been walking. Their fathers had obeyed the Commandments of the LORD, but they did not do so. <sup>18</sup> However, whenever the LORD raised up judges for them, the LORD was with the judge and saved them from the hands of their enemies all the judge's life. For the LORD was moved to compassion on them by their groaning because of those who were tormenting and afflicting them. <sup>19</sup> However, when the judge died, they turned back and behaved more corruptly than their fathers, by following other gods, serving them and worshipping them. They did not give up any of their evil practices or their stubborn ways.

God's permission for the rest of the nations to remain to test His people

<sup>20</sup> Therefore, the LORD was very angry with Israel and said: "Because this nation has transgressed My Covenant, which I had commanded their forefathers and because it has not listened to what I said, <sup>21</sup> I on My part shall no longer drive out before them any of the nations that Joshua left when he died. <sup>22</sup> I shall use them to test whether the Israelites will keep the Ways of the LORD and walk in them as their forefathers did or not."

<sup>23</sup> So, the LORD allowed those nations to remain. He did not drive them out quickly or deliver them into the hand of Joshua.

3

The nations that remained in Canaan

<sup>1</sup> These are the nations that the LORD left to test all those in Israel who had not experienced any of the wars in Canaan. <sup>2</sup> His sole purpose was that the generations of the Israelites might experience war, to teach war only to those who had not experienced it before. <sup>3</sup> These are the nations: the five princes of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians and the Hivites who have been living on the hill-country of Lebanon, from Mount Baal-Hermon as far as Lebo-Hamath. <sup>4</sup> They were there to test the Israelites, to find out whether they would obey the Commandments of the LORD, which He, through Moses, had ordered their forefathers to keep.

The falling away of the Israelites

<sup>5</sup> So, the Israelites lived among the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites. <sup>6</sup> They took their daughters to be their wives and let their own daughters marry their sons and served their gods.

The leadership of Othniel as the judge of Israel and his defeat of Cushan-Rishathaim

<sup>76</sup> Bochim means, "Weeping."

<sup>7</sup> The Israelites did what the LORD regarded as evil. They forgot the LORD, their God, and served the Baals and the Asherahs. <sup>8</sup> Therefore, the LORD became very angry with Israel and sold them into the hand of Cushan-Rishathaim, the king of Mesopotamia. The Israelites were subject to Cushan-Rishathaim for eight years. <sup>9</sup> Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD, and the LORD raised up a deliverer for the Israelites, and he saved them. He was Othniel, the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother. <sup>10</sup> The Spirit of the LORD came on him, and he became the judge of Israel. When he went out to war, the LORD gave Cushan-Rishathaim, the king of Mesopotamia, into his hand, and he conquered Cushan-Rishathaim. <sup>11</sup> So, the land had peace for forty years. Then Othniel, the son of Kenaz, died.

The leadership of Ehud as the judge of Israel and his defeat of the Moabites

<sup>12</sup> The Israelites again did what the LORD regarded as evil, and the LORD made Eglon, the king of Moab, stronger than Israel, because they had been doing what the LORD regarded as evil. <sup>13</sup> He arranged for the Ammonites and the Amalekites to join him, and they proceeded to defeat Israel. Then they took possession of the City of Palms. <sup>14</sup> The Israelites were subject to Eglon, the king of Moab, for eighteen years. <sup>15</sup> When the Israelites cried out to the LORD, the LORD raised up a deliverer for them. He was Ehud, the son of Gera, the Benjaminite and a left-handed man. The Israelites had used him to deliver tribute to Eglon, the king of Moab. <sup>16</sup> Ehud had made a short, double-edged sword for himself and strapped it to his right thigh under his clothes. <sup>17</sup> He delivered the tribute to Eglon, the king of Moab. Eglon was a very fat man. <sup>18</sup> When Ehud had finished delivering the tribute, he dismissed the people who had been carrying it. <sup>19</sup> However, he himself turned back at the idols that were near Gilgal and said, "I have a secret message for you, O king."

When the king commanded, "Silence!" all his attendants left his presence. <sup>20</sup> Ehud came to him while he was sitting alone in his cool upper room. When Ehud said, "I have a Message from God for you," he arose from his chair. <sup>21</sup> Ehud reached with his left hand for the sword on his right thigh and thrust it into Eglon's belly. <sup>22</sup> Even the hilt went in after the blade and the fat closed over the blade. For Ehud did not pull the sword out of Eglon's belly and the blade came out at his rump. <sup>23</sup> Then Ehud went out into the porch, closed the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them. <sup>24</sup> When he had gone out, Eglon's servants came in. When they saw that the doors of the upper room had been locked, they thought, "He must be relieving himself in the toilet of the cool room."

<sup>25</sup> They waited until they were embarrassed. However, when he still did not open the doors of the upper room, they took the key and opened them. Then they saw that their master had fallen dead on the floor.

<sup>26</sup> Ehud escaped while they were delaying. He went past the idols and escaped to Seirah. <sup>27</sup> When he arrived there, he sounded the trumpet in the hill-country of Ephraim. Then the Israelites went down with Ehud from the hill-country, with him at their head. <sup>28</sup> He told them: "Follow me quickly! For the LORD has given your enemies, the Moabites, into your hands." So, they followed him down, took possession of the fords of the Jordan that led to Moab and did not allow anyone to cross over. <sup>29</sup> At that time they killed about ten thousand Moabites, all well-fed, valiant men. Not one escaped. <sup>30</sup> That day Moab was made subject to Israel. Then the land had peace for eighty years.

The leadership of Shamgar as the judge of Israel and his defeat of the Philistines

<sup>31</sup> Shamgar, the son of Anath, came after Ehud and struck down six hundred Philistines with an ox-goad. He also saved Israel.

4

The leadership of Deborah as the judge of Israel and her call to Barak to fight Sisera

<sup>1</sup> After Ehud died, the Israelites again did what the LORD considered evil. <sup>2</sup> Therefore, the LORD handed them over to Jabin, the king of Canaan, who reigned at Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera, who lived at Harosheth-Haggoyim. <sup>3</sup> Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD, because Sisera had nine hundred iron chariots and had been violently oppressing the Israelites for twenty years. <sup>4</sup> Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was the judge in Israel at that time. <sup>5</sup> She used to sit under the Palm-tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill-country of Ephraim, and the Israelites came up to her for legal decisions. <sup>6</sup> She sent a Message and summoned Barak, the son of Abinoam, from Kedesh in Naphtali. She asked him: "Has not the LORD, the God of Israel, given this Command: 'Go and gather soldiers on Mount Tabor! Take ten thousand men with you from the people of Naphtali and the people of Zebulun'? <sup>7</sup> I shall lure Sisera, the commander of Jabin's army, his chariots and his military forces, to you beside the stream-bed of the Kishon and hand him over to you."

<sup>8</sup> Barak told her, "If you go with me, I shall go but if you do not go with me, I shall not go."

<sup>9</sup> She said: "I shall certainly go with you. Nevertheless, the road on which you are going will not bring you honour. For the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman."

The defeat of Jabin by Barak

Then Deborah set out and went with Barak to Kedesh.

<sup>10</sup> Barak summoned Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh. Ten thousand men followed him up, and Deborah went up with him. <sup>11</sup> Heber, the Kenite, had separated from the other Kenites, the descendants of Hobab, the father-in-law of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far away as the large tree at Zaanaim, which is near Kedesh.

<sup>12</sup> People reported to Sisera that Barak, the son of Abinoam, had gone up to Mount Tabor. <sup>13</sup> Sisera called out all his chariots, nine hundred iron chariots and all the men who were with him, from Harosheth-Haggoyim to the Kishon River. <sup>14</sup> Deborah told Barak: "Go ahead! For this is the day on which the LORD has given Sisera into your hand. Has the LORD not gone out ahead of you?"

Barak went down from Mount Tabor at the head of ten thousand men. <sup>15</sup> The LORD threw Sisera, all his chariots and all his army into confusion as Barak fought them with the sword. Sisera got down from his chariot and fled on foot. <sup>16</sup> Barak pursued the chariots and the rest of the army to Harosheth-Haggoyim, and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword. Not a man was left.

The death of Sisera by the hand of Jael

<sup>17</sup> However, Sisera fled on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber, the Kenite. For there were friendly relations between Jabin, the king of Hazor and the family of Heber, the Kenite. <sup>18</sup> Jael came out to meet Sisera and told him: "Turn aside, my master! Turn aside to me! Do not be afraid!"

So, he came to her into the tent, and she covered him with a tent-curtain. <sup>19</sup> He asked her, "Please give me a little water to drink! For I am thirsty."

So, she opened a leather bottle of milk, gave him a drink and covered him up. <sup>20</sup> He told her: "Stand at the opening of the tent! If anyone comes and asks you, 'Is anyone here?' say, 'No!'"

<sup>21</sup> However, Jael, the wife of Heber, picked up a tent peg and took a small hammer in her hand. Then she went quietly to him while he was sound asleep from exhaustion, hammered the peg into his temple and drove it through into the ground, and he died.

<sup>22</sup> While Barak was still pursuing Sisera, Jael went out to meet him and told him: "Come! I shall show you the man for whom you are looking."

So, he went into her tent, and there was Sisera lying dead, with the tent peg through his temple. <sup>23</sup> So, on that day God subdued Jabin, the king of Canaan, before the Israelites. <sup>24</sup> The Israelites kept growing stronger against Jabin, the king of Canaan, until they destroyed Jabin, the king of Canaan.

5

The victory-song of Deborah and Barak

<sup>1</sup> That day Deborah and Barak, the son of Abinoam, sang this song:

<sup>2</sup> "When people let their hair hang loose in Israel, when the people offered themselves willingly — bless the LORD!

<sup>3</sup> "Hear this, kings! Listen, notable people! I myself shall sing to the LORD. I shall sing praise to the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>4</sup> "O LORD, when You went out from Seir, when You marched from the open country of Edom, the earth trembled. The heavens also poured, yes, the clouds poured down water.

<sup>5</sup> "The mountains quaked before the LORD, the One of Sinai, before the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>6</sup> "In the days of Shamgar, the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, people stopped using roads and people who walked on paths used to go on roundabout tracks.

<sup>7</sup> "People stopped living in open country in Israel, they stopped, until I, Deborah, arose, until I arose as a mother in Israel.

<sup>8</sup> "When new gods were chosen, then war was at the city-gates. There was not a shield or a spear to be seen among forty thousand in Israel.

<sup>9</sup> "My heart is with the men of Israel who make decrees, with those among the people who have offered themselves willingly. Bless the LORD!

<sup>10</sup> "Think about it, you who ride on tawny donkeys sit on rugs and walk along the road!

<sup>11</sup> "From the sound of people sharing water at the watering channels, there they were repeating the righteous acts of the LORD, the righteous acts for His people in Israel who live in open country. Then the people of the LORD went down to the city-gates.

<sup>12</sup> "Stir yourself! Stir yourself, Deborah! Stir yourself! Stir yourself! Sing a song! Arise, Barak! Take your prisoners, son of Abinoam!

<sup>13</sup> "Then those who were left of the noble people came down. The people of the LORD came down to me among the warriors.

<sup>14</sup> "Men whose roots were in the country of Amalek came from Ephraim. Benjamin was among the people who followed you. Commanding officers came down from Machir, and men who hold up the staff of a recorder came down from Zebulun.

<sup>15</sup> "The leaders in Issachar were with Deborah. Yes, Issachar was sent off into the valley with Barak, under his command. In the divisions of Reuben there were heavy obligations to be courageous.

<sup>16</sup> "Why did you sit still between the two saddlebags, to listen to the flutes playing to the flocks? Among the divisions of Reuben there were extensive prudent deliberations!

<sup>17</sup> "Gilead stayed on the other side of the Jordan! Dan, why did Dan also remain with the ships? Asher sat down on the shore of the sea. He stayed at his landing places!

<sup>18</sup> "The people of Zebulun risked their very lives. Naphtali did also, on the heights of the open country.

<sup>19</sup> "Kings came and fought. Then the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach, beside the water of Megiddo. They took no silver as plunder.

<sup>20</sup> "The stars fought from heaven. From their orbits they fought against Sisera.

<sup>21</sup> "The Kishon River washed them away, the river from ancient times, the Kishon River. March on strongly, my soul!

<sup>22</sup> "Then the horses' hoofs pounded with the galloping, the galloping of his stallions.

<sup>23</sup> “The Angel of the LORD said, ‘Curse Meroz! Curse its inhabitants thoroughly! For they have not come to help the LORD, to help the LORD against the warriors.’”

<sup>24</sup> “May Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, be the most blessed of women! May she be the most blessed of women living in tents!”

<sup>25</sup> “Sisera asked for water, and she gave him milk. She brought him curdled milk, in a bowl fit for nobles.

<sup>26</sup> “Her hand reached for the tent peg, and her right hand for the hammer of labourers. She struck Sisera. She crushed his head. She shattered and pierced his temple.

<sup>27</sup> “Between her feet he sank, he fell! He lay still between her feet! He sank, he fell! Where he sank, there he fell, laid waste!”

<sup>28</sup> “The mother of Sisera looked down through the window, lamented through the latticed window and asked, ‘Why is his chariot taking so long to come? Why have the hoof-beats of his chariots delayed?’”

<sup>29</sup> “Her wisest princesses answer her. Indeed, she keeps answering herself: <sup>30</sup> ‘Are they not finding and dividing the spoil? A womb or two for every man; dyed garments as spoil for Sisera, spoils of dyed, embroidered materials, dyed fabric embroidered on both sides that belonged to the necks of plundered men?’”

<sup>31</sup> “May all Your enemies perish like this, O LORD! However, may those who love Him be like the sun when it rises in its strength!”

Then the land had peace for forty years.

6

The repeated sin of Israel and its oppression by the Midianites

<sup>1</sup> Then the Israelites did what the LORD regarded as evil, and the LORD put them under the control of Midian for seven years. <sup>2</sup> The power of Midian against Israel was oppressive. To protect itself against Midian, the Israelites prepared underground holes for themselves in mountains, caves and strongholds.

<sup>3</sup> Whenever the Israelites planted crops, the Midianites used to come up. The Amalekites and other people of the East also used to come up against them.

<sup>4</sup> They used to pitch camp against them and ruined what the land produced as far as Gaza. They did not leave any food for the Israelites to live on or any sheep, cattle or donkeys. <sup>5</sup> For they used to come up with their livestock and their tents. Whenever they came they were as numerous as locusts. They and their camels could not be counted. They came into the land to ruin it. <sup>6</sup> Israel was brought very low because of Midian. Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help. <sup>7</sup> When the Israelites cried out to the LORD for help because of Midian, <sup>8</sup> the LORD sent a prophet to the Israelites. He told them: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: ‘I Myself brought you up from Egypt and I brought you out of slave-quarters. <sup>9</sup> I delivered you from the power of the Egyptians and from the power of all who were oppressing you. I drove them out before you and gave you their land. <sup>10</sup> I told you: ‘I am the LORD, your God. You shall not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living!’” However, you have not listened to what I said.”

The appearance of the Angel of the LORD to Gideon

<sup>11</sup> The Angel of the LORD came and sat under the high tree at Ophrah, which belonged to Joash, of the clan of Abiezer, while his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress, to keep it safe from the Midianites. <sup>12</sup> When the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, He told him, “The LORD is with you, you brave man!”

<sup>13</sup> Gideon replied to Him: “With Your permission, if the LORD is with us, why, then, has all this happened to us? Where are all His wonderful deeds, about which our fathers have been telling us, saying, ‘Did the LORD not bring us up from Egypt?’ Now, however, the LORD has forsaken us and delivered us into the control of Midian.”

<sup>14</sup> The LORD turned to him and said: “Use this strength that you have and save Israel from the control of Midian! Have I not sent you?”

<sup>15</sup> Gideon replied to Him: “With Your permission, how shall I save Israel? Look! My clan is the weakest in Manasseh and I am the least in my father’s family.”

<sup>16</sup> The LORD answered him, “Nevertheless, I shall be with you, and you will strike down the Midianites as if they were one man.”

<sup>17</sup> Gideon replied to Him: “Please, if You regard me kindly, perform a miraculous sign for me, to prove that it is really You speaking to me! <sup>18</sup> Please do not leave this place until I come to You, bring out my offering and set it before You!”

He replied, “I shall stay until you come back.”

<sup>19</sup> Then Gideon went inside and prepared a young goat and unleavened loaves from forty litres of flour. He put the meat in a basket, put the broth in a cooking pot, brought them out to Him under the high tree and presented them to Him. <sup>20</sup> The Angel of God told him, “Take the meat and the unleavened loaves, place them on this rock and pour out the broth!”

Gideon did so. <sup>21</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD reached out the end of the staff that was in His hand and touched the meat and the unleavened loaves. Fire sprang up from the rock and consumed the flesh and the unleavened loaves. Then the Angel of the LORD vanished from his sight. <sup>22</sup> Then Gideon perceived that He was the Angel of the LORD. Gideon said: “Ah, O Lord GOD! Indeed, I have now seen the Angel of the LORD face to face.”

<sup>23</sup> However, the LORD told him: “Peace be with you! Do not be afraid! You will not die.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD and called it, "Yahweh-Shalom."<sup>77</sup> To this day it is still at Ophrah, which belongs to the clan of Abiezer.

Gideon's tearing down of the altar dedicated to Baal

<sup>25</sup> That night the LORD told him: "Take your father's young bull and the second bull, which is seven years old! Pull down the altar to Baal that your father has and cut down the Asherah-pole that is beside it!

<sup>26</sup> Then build an altar to the LORD, your God, on the top of this fortified place, with the usual order of stones! Then take the second bull and offer it as a burnt offering, using the wood of the Asherah-pole that you have cut down!"

<sup>27</sup> Gideon took ten of his men-servants and did as the LORD had told him. However, because he was too afraid of his father's family and the men of the city to do it by day, he did it by night. <sup>28</sup> When the men of the city rose early in the morning, they saw that the altar of Baal had been broken down, that the Asherah-pole beside it had been cut down and that the second bull had been sacrificed on the altar that had been built. <sup>29</sup> They asked each other, "Who has done this?" After they had searched and inquired, they said, "Gideon, the son of Joash, has done this."

<sup>30</sup> Then the men of the city told Joash: "Bring your son out, that he may die! For he has broken down the altar of Baal and has cut down the Asherah-pole, which was beside it."

<sup>31</sup> However, Joash asked all who were standing against him: "Are you going to plead Baal's cause? Or are you going to save him? Whoever pleads his cause will be put to death by morning! If he is a god, let him plead his own cause when someone has broken down his altar!"

<sup>32</sup> Therefore, on that day Gideon was called "Jerub-Baal," <sup>78</sup> because Joash had been saying, "Let Baal contend against Gideon!" For he had broken down Baal's altar.

Gideon's requests about a fleece as signs from God

<sup>33</sup> All the Midianites and the Amalekites and the other people of the East had joined forces, crossed over and set up camp in the Valley of Jezreel. <sup>34</sup> However, the Spirit of the LORD took possession of Gideon. He sounded the trumpet, and the clan of Abiezer was called up to follow him. <sup>35</sup> He also sent messengers throughout Manasseh, and they were also called up to follow him. He also sent messengers through Asher, Zebulun and Naphtali, and they came up to meet them.

<sup>36</sup> Then Gideon said to God: "If it is true that You will save Israel through me as You have promised, <sup>37</sup> then, look! I am placing a fleece of wool on the threshing floor. If there is dew only on the fleece while all the ground is dry, then I shall know that You will save Israel through me, as You have promised."

<sup>38</sup> That is what happened. The next morning Gideon

got up early, wrung out the fleece, squeezed the dew out of the fleece and filled a bowl with water. <sup>39</sup> Then Gideon asked God: "Let Your anger not break out against me, but let me speak just once more! Please let me make just one more test with the fleece! Please let the fleece alone be dry and let there be dew all over the ground!"

<sup>40</sup> That night God did so. The fleece alone was dry, but there was dew all over the ground.

7

The leadership of Gideon as the judge of Israel and his summoning of an army against the Midianites

<sup>1</sup> Then Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) and all the people who were with him rose early and set up camp beside the spring of Harod. The camp of Midian was north of them, beside the hill of Moreh, in the valley. <sup>2</sup> The LORD told Gideon: "You have too many men with you for Me to give the Midianites into their hands. Israel must be prevented from boasting against Me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.' <sup>3</sup> Now, therefore, proclaim in the hearing of the people, 'Anyone who is afraid and trembling should quickly rush away from Mount Gilead!'"

Twenty-two thousand of the people left, but ten thousand remained. <sup>4</sup> Then the LORD told Gideon: "There are still too many men. Take them down to the water, that I may test them for you there! If I tell you about anyone, 'This one shall go with you!' he shall go with you and, if I tell you about anyone, 'This one shall not go with you!' he must not go."

<sup>5</sup> So, Gideon brought the men down to the water. The LORD told Gideon: "You shall separate everyone who laps water with his tongue like a dog from everyone who gets down on his knees to drink!"

<sup>6</sup> The number of the men who lapped by putting their hands to their mouths was three hundred. However, all the rest of the people got down on their knees to drink water. <sup>7</sup> The LORD told Gideon: "With the three hundred men who have been lapping I shall save you and give the Midianites into your hands. All the rest of the men should go to their own places!"

<sup>8</sup> The three hundred soldiers took their provisions with them, as well as their trumpets. When Gideon dismissed all the remaining men of Israel to their tents, he retained the three hundred men.

The dream of a Midianite

The camp of Midian was below Gideon in the valley.

<sup>9</sup> That night the LORD told him: "Get up, go down against the camp! For I have delivered it into your hands. <sup>10</sup> However, if you are afraid to go down, go down to the camp yourself with your servant Purah! <sup>11</sup> You will hear what they are saying and after that you will find the courage to go down against the camp."

Then Gideon went down with his servant Purah to the edge of the men who were organised for war in the camp. <sup>12</sup> The great number of the Midianites and the

<sup>77</sup> Yahweh-Shalom means, "The LORD is peace."

<sup>78</sup> Jerub-Baal means, "Baal should fight."

Amalekites and all the other eastern peoples were lying along the valley like locusts. Their camels could not be counted. They were as numerous as the sand on the seashore. <sup>13</sup> Gideon arrived just as a man was telling a dream to his companion. He said: "Look! When I had dream, I saw a round loaf of barley bread come rolling around in the camp of Midian. It came to the tent, struck it, fell and turned upside down, so that the tent was lying flat."

<sup>14</sup> His companion answered: "This is nothing but the sword of Gideon, the son of Joash, a man of Israel! God has delivered Midian and the whole camp into his hands."

The defeat of the Midianites by Gideon

<sup>15</sup> As soon as Gideon heard the report of the dream and its interpretation, he worshipped. He returned to the camp of Israel and said: "Get up! For the LORD has delivered the camp of Midian into your hands."

<sup>16</sup> He divided the three hundred men into three companies. He put trumpets into the hands of all of them and empty jars with torches inside them. <sup>17</sup> He told them: "Watch me and do what I do! When I reach the edge of the camp, do exactly as I do! <sup>18</sup> When I and all who are with me blow our trumpets, then you too, blow your trumpets all around the camp and say, 'For the LORD and for Gideon!'"

<sup>19</sup> Gideon and the hundred men who were with him arrived at the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just when they had posted the guards. They blew the trumpets and smashed the jars in their hands. <sup>20</sup> The three companies blew their trumpets and broke their jars. They held the torches in their left hands, held the trumpets they were to blow in their right hands and shouted, "A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!"

<sup>21</sup> Every man stood at his place around the camp, and the whole army began to run, cried out and fled.

<sup>22</sup> When the three hundred blew the trumpets, the LORD caused the men to turn on each other and on all the rest of the camp. The army fled as far as Beth-Shittah in the direction of Zererah and as far as the bank of the stream at Abel-Meholah, near Tabbath.

<sup>23</sup> The men of Israel were called out from Naphtali, Asher and all Manasseh and pursued the Midianites.

<sup>24</sup> Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill-country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down against the Midianites and occupy the streams against them, as far as Beth-Barah and occupy the Jordan as well!"

All the men of Ephraim were called out and occupied the streams as far as Beth-Barah, as well as the Jordan. <sup>25</sup> They captured the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the Rock of Oreb and Zeeb at the Winepress of Zeeb. Then they pursued them into Midian and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon on the other side of the Jordan.

8

The triumph of Gideon and his revenge on Israelites who had refused to assist him

<sup>1</sup> Then the men of Ephraim asked Gideon, "What is this that you have done to us, by omitting to call us when you went to fight with the Midianites?"

They criticised him sharply. <sup>2</sup> He asked them: "What have I done now in comparison with what you have done? Are not the grapes picked up after the harvest in Ephraim better than the whole vintage at Abiezer?"

<sup>3</sup> God has delivered the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb, into your hands. What, then, have I been able to do in comparison with you?"

When he told them this, their resentment against him subsided. <sup>4</sup> Although Gideon and his three hundred men were exhausted when they came to the Jordan and crossed over it, they continued the pursuit. <sup>5</sup> So, he asked the men of Succoth: "Please give loaves of bread to the soldiers who are following me! For they are exhausted, I am pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian."

<sup>6</sup> However, the officials of Succoth replied, "Do you already hold Zebah and Zalmunna in your custody, that we should give bread to your army?"

<sup>7</sup> Gideon said: "Because of this, when the LORD has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hands, I shall thresh your bodies with the thorn bushes of the wilderness and with spiky branches!"

<sup>8</sup> He went up from there to Penuel and made the same request of them, but the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had done. <sup>9</sup> So, he also told the men of Penuel, "When I return safely, I shall break down this tower!"

<sup>10</sup> Zebah and Zalmunna were at Karkor with their army of about fifteen thousand men. They were all who were left of the whole army of the eastern peoples. For one hundred and twenty thousand swordsmen had fallen. <sup>11</sup> Gideon went up by the route of the nomads east of Nobah and Jogbehah and attacked the army when the army thought it was secure. <sup>12</sup> When Zebah and Zalmunna fled, Gideon pursued them. He captured the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and threw all the army into a panic. <sup>13</sup> Then Gideon, the son of Joash, returned from the battle at the Pass of Heres. <sup>14</sup> Gideon captured a young man from the people of Succoth and questioned him. He wrote down for him the seventy-seven officials and elders of Succoth. <sup>15</sup> When he came to the men of Succoth, he said: "Here are Zebah and Zalmunna. You taunted me about them when you said, 'Do you already hold Zebah and Zalmunna in your custody, that we should give bread to your exhausted men?'"

<sup>16</sup> Gideon seized the elders of the city. Then he took thorn bushes of the wilderness and spiky branches and used them to teach the men of Succoth a lesson. <sup>17</sup> He also broke down the tower of Penuel and killed the men of the city. <sup>18</sup> Then he asked Zebah and Zalmunna, "Where are the men whom you killed at Tabor?" They answered: "They were like you. Each of them had the impressive appearance of the son of a king.”

<sup>19</sup> He said: “They were my brothers, the sons of my own mother. As surely as the LORD lives, if you had spared their lives, I would not kill you.”

<sup>20</sup> Then he told Jether, his first-born son, “Go ahead and kill them!”

However, the young man would not draw his sword, because he was afraid. For he was still only a young man. <sup>21</sup> Then Zebah and Zalmunna said: “Come and strike us yourself! For a man has a man’s strength.”

So, Gideon went and killed Zebah and Zalmunna. Then he took the crescent ornaments that were on the necks of their camels.

The worship of Gideon’s ephod by the Israelites

<sup>22</sup> Then the men of Israel asked Gideon: “Rule over us, you, your son and your grandson! For you have saved us from the power of Midian.”

<sup>23</sup> Gideon told them: “I myself shall not rule over you and my son will not rule over you. The LORD will rule over you.”

<sup>24</sup> However, Gideon told them: “Let me make a request of you! Each of you, give me an earring out of what he has plundered!”

The enemies had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites. <sup>25</sup> They answered, “We shall gladly give them.”

They spread out a garment and every man threw an earring from his plunder onto it. <sup>26</sup> The weight of the golden earrings that he had requested was twenty kilograms and four hundred grams of gold, besides the crescent ornaments, the pendants and the maroon garments that the kings of Midian had been wearing and besides the chains that had been around the necks of their camels. <sup>27</sup> Gideon made the gold into a priestly breastplate and placed it in his city of Ophrah. All the Israelites prostituted themselves by worshipping it there, and it became a trap for Gideon and for his family.

Gideon’s death and another relapse into idolatry

<sup>28</sup> So, Midian was subdued before the Israelites and did not raise its head again. The land had peace for forty years during Gideon’s lifetime. <sup>29</sup> Jerub-Baal, the son of Joash, went and lived in his own house.

<sup>30</sup> Gideon had seventy sons, his own offspring, because he had many wives. <sup>31</sup> When his concubine, who was in Shechem, also bore him a son, he named him “Abimelech.”<sup>79</sup> <sup>32</sup> Gideon, the son of Joash, died in a good old age and was buried in the tomb of Joash, his father, at Ophrah, the city of the Abiezrites. <sup>33</sup> As soon as Gideon died, the Israelites relapsed again and prostituted themselves to the Baals. They set up Baal-Berith as their god. <sup>34</sup> The Israelites did not remember the LORD, their God, who had delivered them from the power of all their enemies around them. <sup>35</sup> They also failed to be kind to the family of Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) for all the good that he had done for Israel.

9

The leadership of Abimelech as the judge of Israel and his murder of his brothers

<sup>1</sup> Abimelech, the son of Jerub-Baal, went to his mother’s relatives at Shechem and spoke to them and to the whole clan of his mother’s family. He said, <sup>2</sup> “Please ask all the citizens of Shechem, ‘Which is better for you, that all seventy of the sons of Jerub-Baal should rule over you or that one man should rule over you?’ Remember also that I am your own flesh and bone!”

<sup>3</sup> When his mother’s relatives repeated all this on his behalf to all the citizens of Shechem, they were inclined to follow Abimelech. For they said, “He is our relative.”

<sup>4</sup> They gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-Berith, and Abimelech used them to hire worthless and reckless men as his followers. <sup>5</sup> He went to his father’s house at Ophrah and killed his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerub-Baal, on one stone. However, Jotham, the youngest son of Jerub-Baal survived, for he had hidden himself.

The crowning of Abimelech as king at Shechem

<sup>6</sup> All the citizens of Shechem and Beth-Millo gathered and proceeded to make Abimelech king beside the high tree at the monument in Shechem.

The parable of Jotham about some trees

<sup>7</sup> When people told Jotham about this, he went and stood on top of Mount Gerizim and shouted out to them: “Listen to me, citizens of Shechem, that God may listen to you! <sup>8</sup> The trees once went to anoint a king over themselves and told the olive tree, ‘Be our king!’ <sup>9</sup> However, the olive tree replied to them, ‘Shall I leave my fat oil, which people use to honour God and men, that I should go to wave my branches over the other trees?’ <sup>10</sup> Then the trees told the fig tree, ‘You come and be our king!’ <sup>11</sup> However, the fig tree replied to them, ‘Shall I give up my sweet, good fruit and go to wave my branches over the other trees?’ <sup>12</sup> Then the trees told the grapevine, ‘You come and be our king!’ <sup>13</sup> However, the grapevine asked them, ‘Shall I leave my wine, which cheers God and men, and go to wave my branches over the trees?’

<sup>14</sup> Then all the trees told the box-thorn, ‘You come and be our king!’ <sup>15</sup> The box-thorn replied to the trees, ‘If you are truly anointing me as your king, come and take refuge in my shade! However, if you do not, let fire come out of the box-thorn and let it consume the cedars of Lebanon!’ <sup>16</sup> Now therefore, you have certainly not acted honestly and sincerely when you made Abimelech king. You have certainly not treated Jerub-Baal and his family well and certainly not treated him as his deeds have deserved! <sup>17</sup> My father fought for you, risked his life and delivered you from the power of Midian. <sup>18</sup> Nevertheless, you on your part have revolted against my father’s family this day, have killed his sons, seventy men, on a single stone and have made Abimelech, the son of his female servant, king over the citizens of Shechem, because he is your relative. <sup>19</sup> If you therefore have treated Jerub-Baal and his family honestly and sincerely today, then be glad about Abimelech and let him also be glad about you! <sup>20</sup> However, if you have not, let fire come out from Abimelech and let it consume the citizens of Shechem and Beth-Millo! Let fire also come out from the citizens of Shechem and from Beth-Millo and let it consume Abimelech!”

<sup>79</sup> Abimelech means, “My father is king.”

<sup>21</sup> Jotham began to run away and fled. He went to Beer and lived there because of his brother Abimelech.

The destruction of Shechem by Abimelech

<sup>22</sup> Abimelech ruled over Israel for three years. <sup>23</sup> God sent a spirit of ill will between Abimelech and the citizens of Shechem, and the citizens of Shechem acted disloyally towards Abimelech. <sup>24</sup> He did this that revenge might be taken on Abimelech for the violent murder of his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerub-Baal, which Abimelech had committed, and that revenge might be taken on the citizens of Shechem, who had encouraged him to kill his brothers. <sup>25</sup> When the citizens of Shechem stationed men to wait in ambush on the mountaintops against him and robbed all who used to go past them on the road, this was reported to Abimelech. <sup>26</sup> Gaal, the son of Ebed, moved into Shechem with his brothers, and the citizens of Shechem trusted him. <sup>27</sup> After they had gone out into the fields, gathered the grapes from their vineyards and trodden them out, they held a joyful celebration. When they had gone into the temple of their god and had eaten and drunk, they cursed Abimelech. <sup>28</sup> Gaal, the son of Ebed, asked: “Who is Abimelech, and who are we of Shechem, that we should serve him? Is he not the son of Jerub-Baal, and is not Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor, the father of Shechem! However, why should we ourselves serve Abimelech? <sup>29</sup> I wish that these people were under my control, that I might get rid of Abimelech! Such a man would send word to Abimelech, ‘Increase your army and come out!’”

<sup>30</sup> When Zebul, the governor of the city, heard what Gaal, the son of Ebed, had said, he was very angry.

<sup>31</sup> Under cover, he sent messengers to Abimelech, saying: “Look! Gaal, the son of Ebed, and his brothers are coming to Shechem and look! They are making the city hostile towards you. <sup>32</sup> Now therefore, you and the people who are with you, act by night and set an ambush in the open country! <sup>33</sup> Then in the morning, when the sun comes up, rise early and make a raid on the city! When he and the people who are with him come out against you, do to them whatever you find the opportunity to do!”

<sup>34</sup> Abimelech and all the men who were with him started out by night, and four companies took up concealed positions against Shechem. <sup>35</sup> When Gaal, the son of Ebed, had gone out and stood in the entrance of the city-gate, Abimelech and the people who were with him rose up from the ambush. <sup>36</sup> When Gaal saw the people, he told Zebul, “Look! People are coming down from the mountain-tops.”

Zebul replied to him, “The shadows of the mountains look like men to you.”

<sup>37</sup> However, Gaal spoke up again: “Look! People are coming down from the middle of the area, and one company is coming from the direction of the magicians’ high tree.”

<sup>38</sup> Then Zebul answered him: “Where then is your loud mouth, you who were saying, ‘Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?’ Are not these the people whom you rejected? Go out now and fight them!”

<sup>39</sup> Then Gaal led the citizens of Shechem out and fought against Abimelech. <sup>40</sup> Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him. Many fell wounded, as far as the entrance of the city-gate. <sup>41</sup> Abimelech continued to live at Arumah, and Zebul drove out Gaal and his brothers, so that they could not live at Shechem. <sup>42</sup> On the following day, the people went out into the fields, and some people told Abimelech. <sup>43</sup> He took his people, divided them into three companies and set an ambush in the fields. He watched and when he saw the people coming out of the city, he attacked them and struck them down. <sup>44</sup> Abimelech and the companies that were with him rushed forward and stood at the entrance of the city-gate. Then the two companies rushed on all who were in the fields and struck them down. <sup>45</sup> Abimelech fought against the city all that day. He captured the city, killed the people who were in it, broke down the city and scattered salt over it.

<sup>46</sup> When all the citizens in the Tower of Shechem heard about it, they entered the vault of the temple of El-Berith. <sup>47</sup> Abimelech was told that all the citizens of the Tower of Shechem had assembled. <sup>48</sup> Then Abimelech and all the people who were with him went up to Mount Zalmon. Abimelech took an axe in his hand, cut off some firewood, picked it up and put it on his shoulder. He told the men who were with him, “Quickly, do what you have seen me do!”

<sup>49</sup> So, all the men cut their own firewood, followed Abimelech and piled it against the vault. They set the vault on fire over the people, so that all the people of the Tower of Shechem, about a thousand men and women, also died.

The death of Abimelech at Thebez

<sup>50</sup> Then Abimelech went to Thebez, camped against Thebez and captured it. <sup>51</sup> However, there was a strong tower inside the city. All the men and women, all the citizens of the town, fled to it and shut themselves in away from them. They climbed up onto the roof of the tower. <sup>52</sup> Abimelech went to the tower and fought against it. He approached the entrance of the tower to set it on fire. <sup>53</sup> Then a certain woman threw an upper millstone on Abimelech’s head and crushed his skull to pieces. <sup>54</sup> He quickly called to the young man who was his armour-bearer and told him: "Draw your sword and kill me, that people may not say about me, 'A woman killed him!'"

So, his servant thrust him through, and he died. <sup>55</sup> When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, everyone went home. <sup>56</sup> So, God repaid the wickedness that Abimelech had done to his father by killing his seventy brothers. <sup>57</sup> God also made all the evil of the men of Shechem come back on their own heads. The curse of Jotham, the son of Jerub-Baal, came true on them.

10

The leadership of Tola as the judge of Israel

<sup>1</sup> After Abimelech a man of Issachar, Tola, the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, rose to save Israel. He used to live at Shamir, in the hill-country of Ephraim. <sup>2</sup> He ruled Israel as a judge for twenty-three years. Then he died and was buried at Shamir.

The leadership of Jair as the judge of Israel

<sup>3</sup> Jair, the Gileadite, followed him and ruled Israel as a judge for twenty-two years. <sup>4</sup> He had thirty sons, who used to ride on thirty donkeys, and his sons had thirty cities. People call them "Havvoth-Jair" to this day. They are in the land of Gilead. <sup>5</sup> When Jair died, he was buried at Kamon.

Another lapse into sin by Israel and oppression by the Ammonites

<sup>6</sup> The Israelites again did what the LORD regarded as evil and served the Baals, the Ashtaroth, the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites and the gods of the Philistines. They forsook the LORD instead of serving Him. <sup>7</sup> He became angry with Israel and sold them into the control of the Philistines and the Ammonites. <sup>8</sup> They beat down and oppressed the Israelites in that year and for eighteen years they oppressed all the Israelites who were east of the Jordan in the land of the Amorites in Gilead. <sup>9</sup> The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah, Benjamin and the tribe of Ephraim, so that Israel was in great distress. <sup>10</sup> The Israelites cried out to the LORD: "We have sinned against You. Indeed, we have forsaken our God and serving the Baals!"

<sup>11</sup> The LORD asked the Israelites: "Did I not save you from the Egyptians, the Amorites, the Ammonites and the Philistines? <sup>12</sup> When the Sidonians, the Amalekites and Maon oppressed you, and you cried out to Me, did I not save you from their hands? <sup>13</sup> Nevertheless, you on your part have forsaken Me and have been serving other gods. Therefore, I shall not save you again. <sup>14</sup> Go and cry out to the gods whom you have chosen! Let them save you when you are in distress!"

<sup>15</sup> However, the Israelites replied to the LORD: "We have sinned. You Yourself, do to us whatever you think is right! Please, just rescue us today!"

<sup>16</sup> So, they got rid of the foreign gods among them. When they served the LORD, He could not endure

Israel's misery.

The leadership of Jephthah as the judge of Israel and his victory over the Ammonites

<sup>17</sup> When the Ammonites were called up, they set up camp in Gilead. The Israelites also assembled and set up camp at Mizpah. <sup>18</sup> Then the people who were the leaders of Gilead made a common declaration: "Whoever begins the battle against the Ammonites will be the leader of all who live in Gilead."

11

<sup>1</sup> Jephthah, the Gileadite, was a mighty warrior but was the son of a prostitute. Jephthah's father was named "Gilead." <sup>2</sup> Gilead's wife had also borne him sons. When his wife's sons grew up, they drove Jephthah away and told him, "You will not receive any inheritance in our father's family, because you are the son of another woman."

<sup>3</sup> Then Jephthah fled from his brothers and lived in the land of Tob. Worthless men gathered around Jephthah and went out on raids with him. <sup>4</sup> After a time the Ammonites made war against Israel. <sup>5</sup> When the Ammonites made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah from the land of Tob. <sup>6</sup> They told Jephthah, "Come and be our leader, that we may fight against the Ammonites!"

<sup>7</sup> However, Jephthah told the elders of Gilead: "Did you not hate me and drive me away from my father's family? Why, therefore, have you come to me now when you are in distress?"

<sup>8</sup> The elders of Gilead told Jephthah: "That is why we have come back to you now. You must come with us, fight against the Ammonites and be our leader, over all who live in Gilead!"

<sup>9</sup> Jephthah told the elders of Gilead: "If you take me back to fight against the Ammonites and the LORD delivers them to me, I shall be your leader."

<sup>10</sup> The elders of Gilead told Jephthah, "The LORD will be a witness between us if we do not do as you say."

<sup>11</sup> So, Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead and the people made him the commander and the leader over them. Jephthah repeated all that he had said before the LORD at Mizpah. <sup>12</sup> Then Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites with the question: "What do you have against me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?"

<sup>13</sup> The king of the Ammonites answered the messengers of Jephthah: "Because, when the Israelites came up from Egypt, they took away my land, from the Arnon to the Jabbok and to the Jordan. Now therefore, give those lands back in peace!"

<sup>14</sup> Jephthah again sent messengers to the king of the Ammonites, <sup>15</sup> and told him: "This is what Jephthah has said: 'Israel did not take away the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites. <sup>16</sup> Rather, when Israel came up from Egypt, they went through the wilderness to the Red Sea and came to Kadesh. <sup>17</sup> Israel then sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Please let us pass through your land!' However, the king of Edom would not listen. They also sent a message to the king of Moab, but he refused. So, Israel remained at Kadesh. <sup>18</sup> Then they journeyed through the wilderness and went around the land of Edom and the land of Moab, arrived on the eastern side of the land of Moab and camped on the other side of the Arnon. However, they did not enter the territory of Moab. For the Arnon was the boundary of Moab. <sup>19</sup> Israel then sent messengers to Sihon, the king of the Amorites, who reigned at Heshbon. Israel told him, 'Please let us pass through your land to our own place!' <sup>20</sup> However, Sihon did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. Sihon gathered all his people together, pitched camp at Jahaz and fought against Israel. <sup>21</sup> Then the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his people into the hands of Israel, and they struck them down. Israel took possession of all the land of the Amorites who used to live in that region. <sup>22</sup> They took possession of all the territory of the Amorites from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the wilderness to the Jordan. <sup>23</sup> Now therefore, the LORD, the God of Israel, has driven the Amorites out before His people Israel. So, should you take possession of the land? <sup>24</sup> Will you not possess what your god Chemosh gives you to possess? We shall possess all that the LORD, our God, has taken possession of as we advanced. <sup>25</sup> Now therefore, are you so much better than Balak, the son of Zippor, the king of Moab? Did he ever quarrel with Israel or did he ever go to war against them? <sup>26</sup> While Israel was living in Heshbon and its villages, in Aroer and its villages and in all the cities that are on the banks of the Arnon, for three hundred years, why did you not liberate them during that time? <sup>27</sup> I, therefore, have not sinned against you, and you are doing me wrong by making war against me. Let the LORD, the Judge, decide this matter today between the Israelites and the Ammonites!" <sup>28</sup> However, the king of the Ammonites paid no attention to the message that Jephthah had sent to him. <sup>29</sup> Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Jephthah. He went across Gilead and Manasseh, passed on to Mizpah in Gilead and advanced from Mizpah in Gilead against the Ammonites.

The rash vow of Jephthah

<sup>30</sup> Jephthah made a vow to the LORD: "If You indeed deliver the Ammonites into my hands, <sup>31</sup> then whatever comes out of the doors of my house to meet me when I return from the Ammonites in peace shall belong to the LORD, and I shall sacrifice it as a burnt offering."

<sup>32</sup> So, Jephthah went across to the Ammonites to fight against them, and the LORD delivered them into his hands. <sup>33</sup> He struck them down in a very great defeat from Aroer to the neighbourhood of Minnith, where there were twenty cities, and as far as Abel-Keramim.

So, the Ammonites were subdued before the Israelites.

The consequence of Jephthah's rash vow for his daughter

<sup>34</sup> When Jephthah came to his home at Mizpah, he saw his daughter coming out to meet him with tambourines and with dancing. She was his only daughter. He had no son or daughter besides her. <sup>35</sup> When he saw her, he tore his clothes and said: "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low and have cut me off from social life. I have made a promise to the LORD and cannot go back on it."

<sup>36</sup> She told him: "My father, if you have made a promise to the LORD, do to me what you have promised, now that the LORD has taken revenge for you on your enemies, the Ammonites!"

<sup>37</sup> Then she told her father: "Let this thing be done for me: Leave me alone for two months, that my friends and I may go up and down on the mountains and mourn that I shall never be married!"

<sup>38</sup> He said, "Go!"

Then he sent her away for two months. She went with her companions and wept in the hills that she would never be married. <sup>39</sup> After the two months, she returned to her father, and he did to her as he had vowed. She did not marry a man and so it became a custom in Israel <sup>40</sup> that for four days every year the young women of Israel go to sing laments for the daughter of Jephthah, the Gileadite.

12

Civil war between Jephthah and Ephraim

<sup>1</sup> The men of Ephraim were called together, went across to Zaphon and asked Jephthah: "Why have you gone across to fight against the Ammonites without summoning us to go with you? We shall burn down your house over you!"

<sup>2</sup> Jephthah replied to them: "My people and I had a great dispute with the Ammonites, and, when I called you, you did not save me from their hands. <sup>3</sup> When I saw that you would not save me, I risked my life and went across against the Ammonites, and the LORD delivered them into my hands. Why, therefore, have you come up to me today to fight against me?"

<sup>4</sup> Then Jephthah gathered all the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. The men of Gilead struck Ephraim, down, because they had said, "You people of Gilead among Ephraim and Manasseh are fugitives from Ephraim!"

<sup>5</sup> The men of Gilead occupied the crossing places of the Jordan against the men of Ephraim. When any of the survivors of Ephraim said, "Let me cross over!" the men of Gilead asked him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he replied, "No," <sup>6</sup> they told him, "Please, say Shibboleth!" He would say, "Sibboleth." For he could not pronounce it correctly. Then they seized him and slaughtered him at the crossing places of the Jordan. Forty-two thousand men of Ephraim were killed at that time. <sup>7</sup> Jephthah ruled Israel as a judge for six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died and was buried in one of the cities in Gilead.

The leadership of Ibzan as the judge of Israel

<sup>8</sup> After him Ibzan from Bethlehem was a judge of Israel. <sup>9</sup> He had thirty sons. He also sent thirty daughters to marry outside his clan and brought in thirty young women from outside his clan to marry his sons. He was a judge in Israel for seven years. <sup>10</sup> Then Ibzan died and was buried at Bethlehem.

The leadership of Elon as the judge of Israel

<sup>11</sup> After him Elon from Zebulun was a judge in Israel and judged Israel for ten years. <sup>12</sup> Then Elon the Zebulunite died and was buried at Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

The leadership of Abdon as the judge of Israel

<sup>13</sup> After him Abdon, the son of Hillel, from Pirathon, was a judge in Israel. <sup>14</sup> He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who used to ride on seventy donkeys. He was a judge in Israel for eight years. <sup>15</sup> Then Abdon, the son of Hillel, from Pirathon, died and was buried at Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill-country of the Amalekites.

13

The appearance of the Angel of the LORD to Samson's parents

<sup>1</sup> When the Israelites again did what the LORD regarded as evil, the LORD delivered them into the hands of the Philistines for forty years. <sup>2</sup> There was a certain man from Zorah, belonging to a clan of the people of Dan, whose name was Manoah. His wife was barren and had no children. <sup>3</sup> The Angel of the LORD appeared to the woman and told her, "Look! You are barren and have not had any children but you will conceive and bear a son.

The requirement for their son to be a Nazirite — compare Numbers 6:1-21

<sup>4</sup> "Now therefore, be careful that you do not drink any wine or other fermented drink and do not eat anything unclean. <sup>5</sup> For, you see, you will conceive and bear a son. No razor shall be used on his head! For the boy will be a Nazirite, bound by a vow to God from before his birth. He will begin to deliver Israel from the power of the Philistines."

<sup>6</sup> Then the woman came and told her husband: "A Man of God came to me. He looked very awesome, like an angel of God. I did not ask Him where He came from, and He did not tell me His name. <sup>7</sup> However, He told me, 'Look! You will conceive and bear a son. Now therefore, do not drink any wine or other fermented drink and do not eat anything unclean! For the boy will be a Nazirite, bound to God by a vow from before his birth until the day when he dies.'"

<sup>8</sup> Then Manoah prayed to the LORD: "O LORD, with Your permission, let the Man of God, whom You sent, come to us again, that He may teach us what we are to do with the boy who will be born!"

<sup>9</sup> God listened to what Manoah asked, and the Angel of God came to the woman again while she was sitting out in the field. However, her husband Manoah was not with her. <sup>10</sup> The woman ran quickly and told her husband, "Look! The Man who came to me the other day has appeared to me."

<sup>11</sup> Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the Man, he asked Him, "Are You the Man who spoke to my wife?"

He said, "I am."

<sup>12</sup> Manoah said, "So, when what You have said comes true, by what rules shall the boy live and what shall his task be?"

<sup>13</sup> The Angel of the LORD told Manoah: "Your wife must carefully observe everything that I have told her!

<sup>14</sup> She shall not eat anything that comes from the grapevine or drink any wine or other fermented drink or eat anything unclean! She shall observe everything that I have commanded her!"

<sup>15</sup> Manoah told the Angel of the LORD, "Please let us keep You here that we may prepare a young goat and serve it to you!"

<sup>16</sup> However, the Angel of the LORD told Manoah: "If You keep Me back here, I shall not eat any of your food. However, if you prepare a burnt offering, you shall offer it to the LORD."

For Manoah did not know that He was the Angel of the LORD. <sup>17</sup> Then Manoah asked the Angel of the LORD, "What is Your name, that we may honour You when what You have said comes true?"

<sup>18</sup> However, the Angel of the LORD told him, "Why do you ask for My name, when it is marvellous?"

<sup>19</sup> So, Manoah took the young goat with the grain-offering and offered it on a rock to the LORD. The Angel did a marvellous thing while Manoah and his wife were watching. <sup>20</sup> While the flame was going up towards heaven from the altar, the Angel of the LORD went up in the flame from the altar. When Manoah and his wife saw that, they bowed down with their faces touching the ground. <sup>21</sup> When the Angel of the LORD did not appear again to Manoah and to his wife, Manoah realised that He had been the Angel of the LORD. <sup>22</sup> Manoah told his wife, "We shall certainly die, because we have seen God!"

<sup>23</sup> However, his wife told him: "If the LORD had meant to kill us, He would not have accepted a burnt offering and a grain-offering at our hands. He would not have shown us all these things or told us such a thing as this at this time."

<sup>24</sup> The woman gave birth to a son and named him "Samson." The boy grew up, and the LORD blessed him. <sup>25</sup> The Spirit of the LORD began to impel him at Mahaneh-Dan,<sup>*80</sup> between Zorah and Eshtaol.

14

The riddle of Samson at his wedding to a Philistine woman at Timnah

<sup>1</sup> Samson went down to Timnah and at Timnah he saw a young Philistine woman. <sup>2</sup> When he came back up he told his father and mother, "I have seen a young Philistine woman in Timnah. Now therefore, get her for me as my wife!”

<sup>80</sup> Mahaneh-Dan means, "Camp of Dan."

<sup>3</sup> However, his father and mother asked him, “Is there no young woman among your relatives or among all our people, that you should go to get a wife from the uncircumcised Philistines?”

However, Samson told his father, “Get her for me! For I consider that she is the right one for me.”

<sup>4</sup> His father and mother did not know that this was from the LORD. For He was looking for an opportunity to deal with the Philistines. At that time the Philistines were ruling over Israel. <sup>5</sup> When Samson went down to Timnah with his father and mother and came to the vineyards of Timnah, a young lion suddenly came roaring against him. <sup>6</sup> Then the Spirit of the LORD came on him strongly and, although he had nothing in his hand, he tore the lion in pieces as he might have torn a young goat. However, he did not tell his father or his mother what he had done. <sup>7</sup> Then he went down and talked with the woman and Samson thought that she was right for him. <sup>8</sup> After this, when he went back to marry her, he turned aside to look at the lion’s carcass. He found that there was a swarm of bees with some honey in the lion’s carcass. <sup>9</sup> He scraped some out into his hands and ate as he went along. When he came to his father and mother he gave some to them, and they too ate it. However, he did not tell them that he had scraped the honey out of the lion’s carcass. <sup>10</sup> When his father went down to the woman, Samson prepared a feast there, for that was what the young men used to do. <sup>11</sup> When the people saw him, they brought thirty companions to be with him. <sup>12</sup> Samson told them: “Please, let me ask you a riddle! If you find the answer and tell it to me correctly within the seven days of the feast, I shall give you thirty undergarments and thirty colourful garments. <sup>13</sup> However, if you cannot tell me the answer, you must give me thirty undergarments and thirty colourful garments!”

They told him, “Tell us your riddle, and let us hear it!”

<sup>14</sup> He told them, “Out of the eater came something to eat, and out of the strong came something sweet.”

However, for three days they could not give the answer to the riddle. <sup>15</sup> On the fourth day they told Samson’s wife: “Coax your husband to tell us the answer to the riddle! Otherwise, we shall burn up you and your father’s house. Have you people invited us here to take away our property? Is that not so?”

<sup>16</sup> Samson’s wife wept over him and said: “You only hate me. You do not love me. You have asked my people the riddle but have not told me the answer.”

He told her, “Look! I have not explained it to my father or my mother, so should I explain it to you?”

<sup>17</sup> She kept weeping on him for the seven days that they held the feast, and on the seventh day he told her, because she had been pressing him hard. Then she explained the riddle to her people. <sup>18</sup> Before sunset on the seventh day the men of the city asked him, “What is sweeter than honey, and what is stronger than a lion?”

<sup>19</sup> When the Spirit of the LORD came on him strongly, he went down to Ashkelon and struck down thirty of their men. He took the clothes that he stripped off them and gave the colourful garments to those who had explained the riddle. Then in hot anger he went up to his father’s house. <sup>20</sup> Samson’s wife was given to his companion, who had been his best man.

15

The leadership of Samson as the judge of Israel and his revenge on the Philistines at Timnah

<sup>1</sup> After some days, at the time of wheat harvest, Samson took a young goat and went to visit his wife. He said, “I shall go in to my wife in her room.”

However, her father would not allow him to go in.

<sup>2</sup> Her father said: “I really thought that you thoroughly hated her, so I gave her to your companion. Is her younger sister not better than she is? Please, take her instead!”

<sup>3</sup> However, Samson told them, “This time the Philistines cannot blame me when I harm them.”

<sup>4</sup> So, Samson went and caught three hundred foxes. He took torches, turned the foxes tail to tail and put a torch between each pair of tails. <sup>5</sup> He set fire to the torches and let the foxes go into the standing grain of the Philistines. He set fire to the stacked grain as well as the standing grain and the olive orchards. <sup>6</sup> Then the Philistines asked, “Who has done this?”

They were told, “Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife and has given her to his companion.”

So, the Philistines came up and burned her and her father. <sup>7</sup> Samson told them, “If this is what you do, I swear that I shall have taken revenge on you before I stop.”

<sup>8</sup> He struck them down hip and thigh and slaughtered many of them. Then he went down and lived in a space under the overhanging rock at Etam.

The attempt of the Philistines to capture Samson and his slaughter of a thousand Philistines at Lehi

<sup>9</sup> Then the Philistines went up, camped in Judah and spread out near Lehi. <sup>10</sup> The men of Judah asked, “Why have you come up against us?”

They answered, “We have come up to tie Samson up, to do to him as he has done to us.”

<sup>11</sup> Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cave in the rock at Etam and asked Samson, “Do you not know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to us?”

He told them, “I have done to them as they have done to me.”

<sup>12</sup> They told him, “We have come down to tie you up, that we may hand you over to the Philistines.”

Samson told them, “Swear to me that you will not attack me yourselves!”

<sup>13</sup> They told him: “No! We shall only tie you up that we may hand you over to them. We shall certainly not kill you.”

So, they tied him up with two new ropes and led him up from the rock. <sup>14</sup> When he approached Lehi, the Philistines came to meet him shouting in triumph. When the Spirit of the LORD came on him strongly, the ropes that were on his arms became like flax threads that have caught fire and the ropes restraining him broke loose from his hands. <sup>15</sup> He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, reached out, took it in his hand and struck down a thousand men with it. <sup>16</sup> Then Samson said: “With the jawbone of a donkey, one heap, two heaps! With the jawbone of a donkey I have struck down a thousand men!”

<sup>17</sup> When he had finished saying this, he threw away the jawbone in his hand. That place was called “Ramath-Lehi.”<sup>*81</sup>

<sup>18</sup> Because Samson was very thirsty, he cried out to the LORD: “You have granted this great victory through me, Your servant but now I shall die of thirst and be brought down by uncircumcised men.”

<sup>19</sup> Then God split open the hollow place in Lehi, and water came out of it. When Samson had drunk, his strength was refreshed, and he revived. That is why the spring was named “En-Hakkore,”<sup>*82</sup> and it is at Lehi to this day.

<sup>20</sup> Samson ruled Israel as judge for twenty years during the time of the Philistines.

16

The failure of the Philistines at Gaza to capture Samson

<sup>1</sup> Samson went to Gaza, saw a prostitute there and had relations with her. <sup>2</sup> When the people of Gaza were told, “Samson has come here,” they surrounded the place and waited in ambush for him all night at the gate of the city. They kept still all night, saying: “Let us wait until daylight! Then we shall kill him!”

<sup>3</sup> However, after Samson had lain there until midnight, he got up at midnight, took hold of the doors of the city-gate and the two gateposts and pulled them out, bar and all. He put them on his shoulders and carried them up to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

Samson's infatuation with Delilah at Gaza and his blinding after he revealed the secret of his strength

<sup>4</sup> After this, he fell in love with a woman in the Valley of Sorek, whose name was “Delilah.” <sup>5</sup> The princes of the Philistines went up to her and told her: “Seduce him and find out what makes him so strong, and by what means we may overpower him, that we may tie him up to subdue him! Each of us will give you one thousand, one hundred pieces of silver.”

<sup>6</sup> So, Delilah told Samson, “Please tell me what makes you so strong, and by what means you may be tied up, to subdue you!”

<sup>7</sup> Samson told her, “If people were to tie me up with seven animal sinews that are fresh and have not been dried, then I should become weak and be like any other man.”

<sup>8</sup> Then the princes of the Philistines brought up to her seven animal sinews that were fresh and had not been dried, and she tied him up with them. <sup>9</sup> When some men were hiding in the bedroom with her, she told him, “The Philistines have come against you, Samson!”

However, he tore up the sinews, as a skein of flax fibres is snapped in two when it comes close to a flame. So, the secret of his strength was not discovered.

<sup>10</sup> Then Delilah told Samson: “Look! You have cheated me and told me lies. Now please tell me what might be used to tie you up!”

<sup>11</sup> He told her, “If people were to tie me up securely with new ropes that have not been used, then I should become weak and be like any other man.”

<sup>12</sup> So, Delilah took new ropes, tied him up with them and told him, “The Philistines have come against you, Samson!” while some men were hiding in the bedroom. However, he tore the ropes off his arms as if they were threads. <sup>13</sup> Then Delilah told Samson: “Until now you have cheated me and told me lies. Tell me with what you might be tied up!”

He told her, “If you were to weave the seven locks of hair on my head with the warp threads of a loom—.”

<sup>14</sup> So, Delilah made his hair tight with the pin of a loom and told him, “The Philistines have come against you, Samson!”

However, he awoke from his sleep and pulled out the pin of the loom and its warp-threads. <sup>15</sup> She asked him: “How can you say, ‘I love you,’ when you do not confide in me? You have deceived me these three times and have not told me what makes you so strong.”

<sup>16</sup> When she pressed him hard with her talking day after day and kept urging him, he grew impatient to the point of death. <sup>17</sup> He told her the whole secret of his life: “No razor has ever been used on my head. For I have been bound to God by a vow from before my mother gave birth to me. If I were shaved, my strength would leave me, I would be weak and become like any other man.”

<sup>18</sup> When Delilah saw that he had told her the whole secret of his life, she sent word and asked the princes of the Philistines to come. She said: “Come up just once more! For he has told me the whole secret of his life.”

Then the princes of the Philistines came up to her and brought the money with them. <sup>19</sup> When she had put him to sleep on her knees she called a man and had him shave the seven locks of hair from his head. Then she began to subdue him, and his strength left him.

<sup>20</sup> Then she said, “The Philistines have come against you, Samson!”

When he awoke from his sleep, he thought, “I shall go out as at other times, that I may shake myself free.”

<sup>81</sup> Ramath-Lehi means, “The hill of the jawbone.”

<sup>82</sup> En-Hakkore means, “Spring of the One who calls.”

However, he did not know that the LORD had left him. <sup>21</sup> The Philistines seized him and gouged out his eyes. Then they took him down to Gaza and tied him up with double bronze chains, and he became a grain-grinder in the prison.

Samson's killing of three thousand Philistines and himself at the temple of Dagon

<sup>22</sup> However, the hair on his head began to grow again after it had been shaved. <sup>23</sup> The princes of the Philistines gathered to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon, their god, and to celebrate. They said, "Our god has delivered our enemy Samson into our hands."

<sup>24</sup> When the people saw him, they praised their god. For they said: "Our god has delivered our enemy into our hands, the one who was making our land desolate and who has killed many of us."

<sup>25</sup> When they were in high spirits, they said, "Call Samson, that he may entertain us!"

They called Samson out of the prison, and he performed before them. They made him stand between the pillars. <sup>26</sup> Samson told the young man who was holding him by the hand, "Let me touch the pillars on which the house rests, that I may lean against them!"

<sup>27</sup> The building was full of men and women. All the princes of the Philistines had come there, and there were about three thousand men and women on the roof watching Samson performing to amuse them.

<sup>28</sup> Then Samson called to the LORD: "O Lord GOD, please remember me! Please give me strength just this once, O God, that I may with one blow get revenge on the Philistines for my two eyes!"

<sup>29</sup> Then Samson felt out for the two middle pillars, on which the house rested. He leaned his weight against them, with his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other. <sup>30</sup> Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!"

Then he bent forward with all his strength, and the building fell on the princes and all the people who were in it. So, he killed many more when he died than he killed while he was alive. <sup>31</sup> Then his relatives and his father's whole family went down, took him, carried him up and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of his father Manoah. He had been ruling Israel as judge for twenty years.

17

Micah's idols

<sup>1</sup> There was a man from the hill-country of Ephraim whose name was Micah. <sup>2</sup> He told his mother: "Look! I have the one thousand, one hundred pieces of silver that had been taken from you. You spoke a curse about them, and I also heard you speak it. I myself had taken them."

His mother said, "May the LORD bless you, my son!"

<sup>3</sup> When he gave the one thousand, one hundred pieces of silver back to his mother, she said: "I have solemnly dedicated the silver from my hand to the LORD, that my son may make a carved image and an image of cast metal. Now therefore, I shall give it back to you."

<sup>4</sup> When he gave the money back to his mother, she took two hundred pieces of silver and gave it to a silversmith, and he made it into an idol and an image of cast metal. They were put in Micah's home. <sup>5</sup> This man Micah had a shrine and made a priestly garment and figurines. He installed one of his sons, who became his priest.

<sup>6</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone used to do what he thought was right. <sup>7</sup> There was a young man of Bethlehem in Judah, belonging to the family of Judah. He was a Levite and was staying there. <sup>8</sup> The man left the city of Bethlehem in Judah to stay wherever he could find a place. As he travelled, he came to the house of Micah in the hill-country of Ephraim. <sup>9</sup> Micah asked him, "Where do you come from?"

He answered him: "I am a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah. I am going to stay wherever I can find a place."

<sup>10</sup> Micah told him: "Stay with me and be my father and priest! I shall pay you ten pieces of silver a year, a set of clothes and your keep."

So, the Levite moved in. <sup>11</sup> The Levite agreed to live with the man, and he treated the young man as one of his own sons. <sup>12</sup> Micah installed the Levite, and the young man became Micah's priest and a member of his household. <sup>13</sup> Micah said, "Now I know that the LORD will make things go well for me, because I have acquired a Levite as my priest."

18

The migration of the tribe of Dan to Laish — Joshua 19:47-48

<sup>1</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel, and in those days the tribe of the descendants of Dan was looking for a place of their own to live in. For until then they had not yet obtained an inheritance among the tribes of Israel. <sup>2</sup> So, the descendants of Dan sent five warriors representing their clans from Zorah and from Eshtaol in their territory, to spy out the land and to explore it. They told them, "Go and explore the land!"

When they came to Micah's house in the hill-country of Ephraim, they stayed there for a night. <sup>3</sup> When they were near the house of Micah, they recognised the voice of the young Levite. So, they went over there and asked him: "Who has brought you here? What are you doing in this place? What is your business here?"

<sup>4</sup> He told them: "These are the things that Micah has done for me: he has hired me, and I have become his priest."

<sup>5</sup> They told him, "Please, inquire of God, that we may find out whether the journey that we are making will be successful!"

<sup>6</sup> The priest told them, "Go in peace! The LORD approves of the journey you are on."

<sup>7</sup> Then the five men left and arrived at Laish. They saw that the people felt safe living there, quietly and securely, like the people of Sidon. No one in the land was harming them at all. No one was driving them out or oppressing them. They were far away from the people of Sidon and had no ties with anyone else.

<sup>8</sup> When they came to their relatives at Zorah and Eshtaol, their relatives asked them, “What do you report?”

<sup>9</sup> They answered: “Come on, let us go up against them! For we have seen that the land is very good. Are you going to put off doing something? Do not hesitate to leave, to go in and to take possession of the land! <sup>10</sup> When you go in, you will come to an unsuspecting people. The land is spacious. Indeed, God has put it into your hands. It is a place where there is no lack of anything on the earth.”

<sup>11</sup> So, six hundred men of the clans of the people of Dan, equipped with weapons of war, set out from Zorah and Eshtaol. <sup>12</sup> They went up and set up camp at Kiriath-Jearim in Judah. That is why that place, which is west of Kiriath-Jearim, is called “Mahaneh-Dan” to this day. <sup>13</sup> They passed on from there to the hill-country of Ephraim and came to Micah’s house. <sup>14</sup> Then the five men who had gone to spy out the country of Laish asked the other members of their tribe: “Do you know that in these houses there are a priestly garment, figurines, an idol and an image cast from metal? Now therefore, consider what you should do!”

<sup>15</sup> They went over there and came to the house of the young Levite, at Micah’s home and gave him a friendly greeting. <sup>16</sup> The six hundred men of the people of Dan, equipped with their weapons of war, were standing at the entrance of the gate. <sup>17</sup> Then the five men who had gone to spy out the land went up and went inside there. They took the idol, the priestly garment, the figurines and the image of cast metal. The priest was standing at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men who were equipped with weapons of war. <sup>18</sup> When those other men went into Micah’s house and took the idol, the priestly garment, the figurines and the image of cast metal, the priest asked them, “What are you doing?”

<sup>19</sup> They told him: “Keep quiet! Put your hand on your mouth and come with us! Become our father and priest! Is it better for you to be the priest of one man’s home or to be the priest of a tribe and clan in Israel?”

<sup>20</sup> The priest consented gladly. He took the priestly garment, the figurines and the idol and went along with the people. <sup>21</sup> So, they turned away and left, putting their little children, their livestock and their valuable property in front of them. <sup>22</sup> When they had gone some distance from the home of Micah, the men who were in the houses near Micah’s house were called out and caught up with the people of Dan. <sup>23</sup> When they called out to the people of Dan, the people of Dan turned around and asked Micah, “What is the matter with you, that you have called up men to fight?”

<sup>24</sup> He said: “You have taken my gods, which I have made, and the priest and you are leaving. What, then, do I have left? How, then, can you ask me, ‘What is the matter with you?’”

<sup>25</sup> The descendants of Dan told him, “Do not let us hear any longer from you or else some hot-tempered men will attack you and your family, and you will lose your lives!”

<sup>26</sup> Then the descendants of Dan continued on their way. When Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back home.

The occupation of Laish by the tribe of Dan and their idolatry

<sup>27</sup> However, the people of Dan took what Micah had made and the priest who had belonged to him and went on to Laish, to a people who were quiet and unsuspecting. They struck them with the edge of the sword and burned down the city. <sup>28</sup> There was no one to rescue it, because it was far away from Sidon, and they had no ties with anyone else. The city was in the valley that belonged to Beth-Rehob. Then the people of Dan rebuilt the city and settled there. <sup>29</sup> They named the city “Dan,” after the name of their forefather Dan, who was a son of Israel. However, the original name of the city had been “Laish.” <sup>30</sup> Then the people of Dan set up the idol for themselves and Jonathan, the descendant of Gershom, the son of Moses and his sons were the priests of the tribe of the people of Dan down to the time when the country was taken captive. <sup>31</sup> So, they set up for themselves the idol that Micah had made, all through the time when the house of God was at Shiloh.

19

A Levite’s attempt to fetch back his concubine

<sup>1</sup> In those days, when there was no king in Israel, a certain Levite was living in a remote part of the hill-country of Ephraim. He took a woman as a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah. <sup>2</sup> His concubine was unfaithful to him. She left him and went to her father’s home at Bethlehem in Judah. After she had been there for four months, <sup>3</sup> her husband started out and went after her, to speak kindly to her and bring her back. He had with him his servant and a pair of donkeys. She took him into her father’s house. When the girl’s father saw him, he gladly welcomed him. <sup>4</sup> His father-in-law, the girl’s father, urged him to stay, and he remained with him for three days. So, they ate, drank and spent the night there. <sup>5</sup> On the fourth day they got up early in the morning, and he prepared to leave, but the girl’s father told his son-in-law: “Refresh yourself with something to eat! After that you may leave.”

<sup>6</sup> So, the two of them sat down, ate and drank together. Then the girl’s father told the man, “Please agree to stay tonight and enjoy yourself!”

<sup>7</sup> When the man got up to leave, his father-in-law urged him strongly, and so he stayed there for another night. <sup>8</sup> On the fifth day he arose early in the morning to leave, but the girl’s father said, “Please, refresh yourself and stay on until the afternoon!"

So, the two of them ate together. <sup>9</sup> When the man, his concubine and the man's servant got up to leave, his father-in-law, the girl's father, told him: "Look! Now the day has dwindled toward evening. Please, spend the night here! Look! The day is coming to an end. Stay for the night and enjoy yourself! Early tomorrow morning you people can get up and leave on your way back to your tent."

<sup>10</sup> However, the man refused to stay for another night. When he started out and left, he arrived opposite Jebus (that is, Jerusalem). He had with him a pair of saddled donkeys, and his concubine was also with him. <sup>11</sup> When they were near Jebus and the day was nearly over, the servant told his master, "Come now! Let us turn aside to this city of the Jebusites and stay there for the night!"

<sup>12</sup> However, his master told him: "We shall not turn aside into the city of foreigners. They do not belong to the Israelites. Instead, we shall go across to Gibeah."

<sup>13</sup> He told his servant, "Come! Let us approach one of these places, that we may spend the night at Gibeah or at Ramah!"

<sup>14</sup> So, they went past and continued. The sun went down on them near Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin. <sup>15</sup> They turned aside there, to stay in Gibeah for the night. He went in and sat down in the open square of the city, but no one took them into his home to spend the night. <sup>16</sup> Just then an old man was coming from his work in the field in the evening. Although the man was from the hill-country of Ephraim, he was staying in Gibeah. The men of the place were Benjaminites. <sup>17</sup> When he looked up, he saw the traveller in the open square of the city. The old man asked, "Where are you going, and where do you come from?"

<sup>18</sup> He told him: "We are on our way from Bethlehem in Judah to a remote part of the hill-country of Ephraim. I came from there and went to Bethlehem in Judah. I am going to the house of the LORD, but no one has taken me into his house. <sup>19</sup> We have straw and feed for our donkeys. We, your servants, also have bread and wine with us for your maidservant, the young man and myself. We do not lack anything."

<sup>20</sup> The old man said: "Peace be to you! However, let me supply all you need! You simply must not spend the night in the open square!"

<sup>21</sup> So, he took him into his house and fed the donkeys with mash. After they had washed their feet, they ate and drank.

The crime of the Benjaminites at Gibeah

<sup>22</sup> While they were enjoying themselves, suddenly some wicked men of the city surrounded the house and kept pushing each other against the door. They told the old man, the master of the house, "Bring out the man who has come into your house, that we may have relations with him!"

<sup>23</sup> However, the master of the house went out to them

and told them: "No, my fellow-countrymen, do not act so wickedly! Please, since this man has come into my home, do not commit this serious sin! <sup>24</sup> Look! Here are my virgin daughter and the man's concubine. Please, let me bring them out now! Violate them and do to them whatever you wish! However, do not do this shameful thing to this man!"

<sup>25</sup> However, the men refused to listen to him. Then the man took hold of his concubine and made her go out to them. They raped her and abused her all night until the morning. When the dawn began to break, they let her go. <sup>26</sup> At daybreak, the woman came and fell at the door of the man's house where her master was and lay there until daylight. <sup>27</sup> When her master got up in the morning, opened the doors of the house and went out to go on his way, there was his concubine lying at the entrance of the house, with her hands on the threshold. <sup>28</sup> He told her, "Get up! Let us be going!"

However, there was no answer. Then he put her on his donkey, set out and went home.

The horrified reaction in Israel

<sup>29</sup> When he entered his house, he took a knife, took hold of his concubine, cut her into twelve pieces, limb by limb and sent her throughout all the territory of Israel. <sup>30</sup> Everyone who saw it kept saying: "Such a thing has never happened or been seen from the day when the Israelites came up out of the land of Egypt until this day! Think about it! Decide! Speak up!"

20

The determination of the other Israelite tribes to punish the tribe of Benjamin

<sup>1</sup> Then all the Israelites from Dan to Beer-Sheba and from the land of Gilead came out and the congregation assembled as one man before the LORD at Mizpah. <sup>2</sup> The leaders of all the people of all the tribes of Israel took their positions in the assembly of the people of God. There were four hundred thousand foot-soldiers who could draw a sword. <sup>3</sup> The people of Benjamin heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah. The Israelites said, "Tell us how this evil thing has happened!"

<sup>4</sup> The Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, answered: "I came with my concubine to Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin, to stay there for the night.

<sup>5</sup> The citizens of Gibeah came to attack me. They surrounded the house against me by night. They meant to kill me but raped my concubine, and she died. <sup>6</sup> So, I took hold of my concubine, cut her in pieces and sent some of her to every region of Israel's inheritance. For they have committed an infamous and shameful act in Israel. <sup>7</sup> Look, all you Israelites! Speak up and give your advice here!"

<sup>8</sup> All the people rose up as one man and said: "None of us will go to his tent and none of us will return to his house. <sup>9</sup> Now therefore, this is what we shall do to Gibeah: we shall go up against it as is determined by

lot. <sup>10</sup> We shall take ten out of every hundred men from all the tribes of Israel, a hundred from a thousand and a thousand from ten thousand, to bring provisions for the army. Then, when the army arrives at Gibeah in Benjamin, they will repay Gibeah of Benjamin for the whole outrageous thing that they have committed in Israel.”

<sup>11</sup> So, all the men of Israel gathered against the city, united together as if they were one man.

Benjamin's support for Gibeah

<sup>12</sup> Then the tribes of Israel sent men throughout the tribe of Benjamin, to ask: “What is this evil that that has been committed among you? <sup>13</sup> Now therefore, surrender those wicked men in Gibeah, that we may put them to death and rid Israel of the evil!”

Repeated defeats of the Israelites by the tribe of Benjamin

However, the Benjaminites refused to listen to what their fellow-Israelites were saying. <sup>14</sup> Instead, the people of Benjamin gathered out of their cities to Gibeah to go out and fight against the other Israelites.

<sup>15</sup> On that day the people of Benjamin mustered twenty-six thousand swordsmen of their cities and in addition they mustered seven hundred chosen men from those who were living in Gibeah. <sup>16</sup> Among all this army there were seven hundred chosen men who were left-handed. Each of them could sling a stone at a hair without missing. <sup>17</sup> The men of Israel, apart from Benjamin, mustered four hundred thousand swordsmen. All these were fighting men. <sup>18</sup> The Israelites proceeded up to Bethel and inquired of God, “Who should go up the first time for us to fight against the people of Benjamin?”

The LORD said, “Judah shall go up first!”

<sup>19</sup> The next morning the Israelites rose and pitched camp against Gibeah. <sup>20</sup> The men of Israel went out to fight against Benjamin and arranged their men in battle order against them at Gibeah. <sup>21</sup> The people of Benjamin came out of Gibeah and on that day cut down to the ground twenty-two thousand men of Israel. <sup>22</sup> However, the people, the men of Israel, showed themselves courageous and again formed the battle line in the position where they had formed up on the first day. <sup>23</sup> Then the Israelites went up and wept before the LORD until the evening. They inquired of the LORD: “Shall we come to close quarters again to fight against our fellow-countrymen, the people of Benjamin?”

The LORD said, “Go up against them!”

<sup>24</sup> The Israelites advanced against the people of Benjamin on the second day. <sup>25</sup> Benjamin came out of Gibeah against them on the second day and struck down to the ground eighteen thousand more men of the Israelites. All these were swordsmen. <sup>26</sup> Then all the Israelites, the whole army, went up to Bethel and wept. They sat there before the LORD, went without food that day until the evening and offered burnt offerings and peace-offerings before the LORD. <sup>27</sup> Then the Israelites inquired of the LORD. (In those days the Ark of the Covenant of God was there, <sup>28</sup> and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, was serving before it in those days). They asked, “Shall we go out once more to battle against our fellow-countrymen, the people of Benjamin, or shall we refrain?”

The LORD said, “Go up! For tomorrow I shall deliver them into your hands.”

The near-annihilation of the tribe of Benjamin

<sup>29</sup> Then Israel set men in ambushes around Gibeah.

<sup>30</sup> The Israelites went up against the people of Benjamin on the third day and arranged their battle order against Gibeah, as they had done on the previous times. <sup>31</sup> When the people of Benjamin came out against the people they were drawn away from the city. As on the previous occasions they began to strike and kill some of the people of Israel in the highways. One of these goes up to Bethel, and another to Gibeah. About thirty men of Israel fell in the open country. <sup>32</sup> The people of Benjamin said, “They are defeated before us, as at the first.”

However, the Israelites said, “Let us retreat and draw them away from the city onto the highways!”

<sup>33</sup> All the men of Israel moved out of their places and arranged their battle line at Baal-Tamar. Then the men of Israel who were in ambush broke loose from their place on the exposed side of Gibeah. <sup>34</sup> Then ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel came to a place opposite Gibeah, and the fighting was so fierce that the Benjaminites did not realise how near calamity had come. <sup>35</sup> The LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel, and the Israelites struck down twenty-five thousand, one hundred men of Benjamin that day. All of these were swordsmen. <sup>36</sup> Then the people of Benjamin saw that they were defeated. The men of Israel had given ground to Benjamin, because they relied on the men in ambush whom they had set against Gibeah. <sup>37</sup> The men in ambush had quickly dashed out against Gibeah, spread out and struck down the entire city with the edge of the sword. <sup>38</sup> The arranged signal that the men in the ambush would give to the other men of Israel was that they would send up a big column of smoke from the city. <sup>39</sup> Then the men of Israel would turn back to fight. Benjamin had begun to inflict about thirty casualties on men of Israel. For they had said, “Surely, they have been thoroughly defeated before us, as in the first battle.”

<sup>40</sup> However, when the column of smoke, which was the fire signal, had begun to rise out of the city, the Benjaminites turned back and saw that the whole city was going up to the sky in smoke. <sup>41</sup> When the men of Israel turned around, the men of Benjamin were terrified, because they realised that calamity had overtaken them. <sup>42</sup> Therefore, they turned their backs before the men of Israel in the direction of the wilderness. However, the battle caught up with them. The men of Israel kept striking down whoever joined them out of the cities. <sup>43</sup> They surrounded the men of Benjamin, pursued them to places where they were stopping to rest and trod them down on the eastern side of Gibeah. <sup>44</sup> Eighteen thousand men of Benjamin fell. All of them had been brave fighting men. <sup>45</sup> The other Benjaminites turned and fled towards the wilderness to the Rock of Rimmon, but the Israelites cut down five thousand of the stragglers on the highways. Then they pursued them relentlessly as far as Gidom and struck down two thousand more of them. <sup>46</sup> So, the total of the men of Benjamin who fell that day was twenty-five thousand swordsmen. All of these had been brave fighting men. <sup>47</sup> However, six hundred men turned, fled toward the wilderness to the Rock of Rimmon and stayed at the rock of Rimmon for four months. <sup>48</sup> The men of Israel turned back against the rest of the people of Benjamin from the cities and struck them with the edge of the sword. They struck down both healthy people and livestock and everything else that could be found. They also set on fire all the cities to which they came.

21

The Israelites' regret that one of their tribes had been destroyed

<sup>1</sup> The men of Israel had sworn an oath at Mizpah: "None of us shall give his daughter in marriage to anyone from Benjamin!"

<sup>2</sup> When the people came to Bethel and sat there before God until evening, they raised their voices and wept bitterly. <sup>3</sup> They said, "O LORD, the God of Israel, why has this happened in Israel, that today one tribe is missing in Israel?"

<sup>4</sup> The next day the people rose early, built an altar there and offered burnt offerings and peace-offerings.

<sup>5</sup> The Israelites asked, "Is there anyone from all the tribes of Israel who has failed to come up in the assembly before the LORD?"

For they had taken a solemn oath about anyone who failed to come up before the LORD to Mizpah: "He shall certainly be put to death!"

<sup>6</sup> However, the Israelites felt sorry for their close relatives, the men of Benjamin and said: "Today one tribe has been cut off from Israel. <sup>7</sup> What shall we do for wives for those who are left, since we ourselves have sworn by the LORD that we shall not give them any of our daughters in marriage?"

<sup>8</sup> Then they asked, "Is there anyone from the tribes of Israel who has not come up before the LORD at Mizpah?"

They discovered that no one had come to the camp for the assembly from Jabesh-Gilead. <sup>9</sup> When the people were counted, they found that none of the inhabitants of Jabesh-Gilead was there. <sup>10</sup> The congregation sent twelve-thousand of their fighting men there. They ordered them: "Go and strike down the inhabitants of Jabesh-Gilead with the edge of the sword, including the women and the children. <sup>11</sup> This is what you shall do: you shall destroy every male and every woman who has had relations with a male!"

<sup>12</sup> They found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-Gilead four hundred young women who were virgins, who had not had sexual relations with a male and brought them to the camp at Shiloh in the land of Canaan.

<sup>13</sup> Then the whole congregation sent word to the people of Benjamin who were at the Rock of Rimmon with a declaration of peace to them. <sup>14</sup> So, the men of Benjamin came back at that time and were given the women whom the Israelites had spared from the women of Jabesh-Gilead. However, they had not found enough for them. <sup>15</sup> The people felt sorry for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a gap in the tribes of Israel. <sup>16</sup> Then the elders of the congregation asked, "What shall we do to provide wives for those who are left, now that the women of Benjamin have been destroyed?"

The stratagem to provide wives for the surviving men of Benjamin to save the tribe from extinction

<sup>17</sup> They said: "The survivors of Benjamin must have an inheritance, that a tribe may not be eliminated from Israel! <sup>18</sup> However, we ourselves cannot give them any of our daughters to marry."

For the Israelites had sworn, "Cursed be anyone who gives a wife to a Benjaminite!"

<sup>19</sup> They said: "Look! Every year there is a feast of the LORD at Shiloh to the north of Bethel on the east of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem and to the south of Lebonah."

<sup>20</sup> Therefore, they instructed the people of Benjamin: "Go and lie in ambush in the vineyards, <sup>21</sup> and watch! If you see that the girls of Shiloh have come out to take part in the dances, come out of the vineyards, and each of you should seize a girl of Shiloh and take her away to the land of Benjamin to be his wife! <sup>22</sup> When their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, we shall tell them, 'Do us a kindness by providing the girls to them. Truly, we did not get wives for each of them during the war. As it is, you yourselves are not incurring guilt by having given the girls to them at this time.'"

<sup>23</sup> That is what the people of Benjamin did. While the girls were dancing, they caught and forcibly carried off enough of them for their number, to be their wives. Then they left, returned to their inheritance, rebuilt the cities and lived in them. <sup>24</sup> At that time the Israelites left that place. Each one went to his tribe and clan. Everyone went out from there to his own inheritance. <sup>25</sup> In those days there was no king in Israel. Everyone did what he thought was right.

RUTH

1

The move of the family of Elimelech from Bethlehem to Moab and Naomi's bereavement

<sup>1</sup> In the days when the judges were ruling, there was a famine in the land. A man from Bethlehem in Judah, together with his wife and two sons, went to stay as a foreigner in the country of Moab. <sup>2</sup> The man's name was Elimelech, his wife's name was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion. As descendants of Ephrathah they came from Bethlehem in Judah to the country of Moab and were staying there. <sup>3</sup> Then Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died, and she was left alone with her two sons. <sup>4</sup> They married women from Moab. The name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other was Ruth. They continued to live there for about ten years. <sup>5</sup> Then both Mahlon and Chilion died too, and Naomi was left alone, without her two children and without her husband.

The return of Naomi from Moab

<sup>6</sup> Then Naomi and her daughters-in-law started out on the way back from the country of Moab, because while still in Moab she had heard that the LORD had taken care of His people and had given them food.

<sup>7</sup> Therefore, she left the place where she had been staying, and her two daughters-in-law went with her. They walked along the road back to the land of Judah.

Naomi's appeal to her daughters-in-law to stay in Moab

<sup>8</sup> However, Naomi told her two daughters-in-law: "Go! Return, each of you, to your mother's home! May the LORD be kind to you, as you have been kind to those who are now dead and to me! <sup>9</sup> May the LORD grant that each of you will find security in the home of her husband!"

Then she kissed them, and they wept aloud. <sup>10</sup> They told her, "No! We shall go back with you to your people."

<sup>11</sup> However, Naomi said: "Go back, my daughters! Why should you come with me? Do I have any more sons in my womb, that they should become your husbands? <sup>12</sup> Go back, my daughters! Leave me, because I am too old to have another husband. If I should say, 'I still have hope even if I had a husband tonight, and, even if I gave birth to sons, <sup>13</sup> would you wait until they grew up and remain unmarried for them? No, my daughters! It is certainly more bitter for me than for you, because the hand of the LORD has gone out against me!"

<sup>14</sup> Then they began to weep aloud again. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law good-bye, but Ruth firmly clung to her. <sup>15</sup> Then Naomi said: "Look! Your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods. Go back after your sister-in-law!"

Ruth's commitment to Naomi when Naomi returned to Bethlehem

<sup>16</sup> However, Ruth answered: "Do not urge me to leave you or to turn back and stop following you! For where you go, I shall go, and where you lodge, I shall lodge.

Your people will be my people, and your God my God. <sup>17</sup> I shall die in the place where you die and be buried there. May the LORD treat me harshly and even worse if anything except death separates you from me!"

<sup>18</sup> When Naomi saw that she was determined to go with her, she said no more to her.

The arrival of Naomi in Bethlehem

<sup>19</sup> So, the two of them went on until they came to Bethlehem. When they arrived at Bethlehem, the whole city was excited because of them. The women asked, "Is this Naomi?"

<sup>20</sup> She told them, "Do not call me 'Naomi!'<sup>*83</sup>. Call me 'Mara!'<sup>*84</sup> For the Almighty has been treating me very bitterly. <sup>21</sup> I was full when I went away, but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why do you call me 'Naomi,' when the LORD has testified against me and when the Almighty has injured me?"

<sup>22</sup> When Naomi had come back, together with Ruth, the Moabite, her daughter-in-law, who was migrating from the country of Moab, they arrived at Bethlehem when the barley harvest was beginning.

2

The meeting of Ruth with Boaz and her experience of his kindness

<sup>1</sup> Naomi had a relative on her husband's side, a wealthy landowner belonging to the clan of Elimelech, whose name was Boaz. <sup>2</sup> Ruth, the Moabite, asked Naomi, "Let me go to the field and pick up the leftover heads of grain behind someone who may be kind to me!"

Naomi told her, "Go, my daughter!"

<sup>3</sup> So, she left and went and gleaned in the field behind the reapers. She happened to come to the plot of ground in the country that belonged to Boaz, who was a member of the clan of Elimelech. <sup>4</sup> Just then Boaz arrived from Bethlehem. He greeted the reapers: "May the LORD be with you!"

They answered him: "May the LORD bless you!"

<sup>5</sup> Then Boaz asked the foreman of his reapers, "Whose young woman is this?"

<sup>6</sup> The foreman of the reapers answered: "She is the young Moabite woman who has come back from the country of Moab with Naomi. <sup>7</sup> She said, 'Please let me glean and gather among the sheaves behind the reapers!' So, she has come and has been on her feet from morning until now, except for a short rest in the shelter."

Boaz's kindness to Ruth

<sup>8</sup> Then Boaz told Ruth: "You have heard me, my daughter, have you not? Do not go to glean in another field or leave this one! Instead, stay close to my servant girls here! <sup>9</sup> Keep your eyes on the field that they are reaping and follow the servant girls! Have I not ordered the men servants not to touch you? When you are thirsty, go to the water jars and drink some of the water that the men servants draw!”

<sup>83</sup> Naomi means, "Pleasant."

<sup>84</sup> Mara means, "Bitter."

<sup>10</sup> Then she fell on her face, bowing down to the ground and asked him, “Why have you been so kind to me, that you take notice of me, since I am a foreign woman?”

<sup>11</sup> However, Boaz answered her: “I have been fully informed about all that you have been doing for your mother-in-law since your husband died and that you have left your father and mother and your native land and have come to a people that you had not known before. <sup>12</sup> May the LORD repay you for what you have been doing! May a full reward be given you by the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to look for refuge!”

<sup>13</sup> Then she said: “May you continue to be kind to me, my master! For you have stilled my anxiety and have encouraged me, your maid servant, although I am not like one of your other maid servants.”

<sup>14</sup> At mealtime Boaz told her, “Come closer here, eat some bread and dip your piece of bread into the sour wine!”

So, she sat beside the reapers, and he passed some roasted grain to her. She had all she wanted to eat and had some left over. <sup>15</sup> When she got up to glean, Boaz instructed his men servants: “Even if she gleans among the sheaves, do not reprimand her! <sup>16</sup> Yes, actually pull some stalks of grain out of the bundles for her, leave them for her to glean and do not scold her!”

<sup>17</sup> So, she gleaned in the field until the evening. Then she beat out what she had gleaned, and it amounted to about one bushel and a third of barley. <sup>18</sup> Then she took it up and went into the city. Her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. Ruth also brought out the food that she had left over after she had had enough to eat and gave it to Naomi. <sup>19</sup> Her mother-in-law asked her: “Where have you been gleaning today? Where have you been working? May the man who was considerate to you be blessed!”

So, Ruth told her mother-in-law with which man she had been working. She said, “The name of the man with whom I have been working today is ‘Boaz’.”

Naomi's information to Ruth about Boaz

<sup>20</sup> Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “May he be blessed by the LORD, because he has not ceased being kind to the living and the dead!” Naomi also told her, “The man is a close relative of ours, one of our family-redeemers.”

<sup>21</sup> Ruth, the Moabitess, said, “He even told me, ‘You must keep close to my men servants until they have finished my whole harvest!’”

<sup>22</sup> Naomi told Ruth, her daughter-in-law: “It is good, my daughter, that you should go out with his servant girls. Then no one will molest you in another field.”

<sup>23</sup> So, Ruth stayed close to the servant girls of Boaz and gleaned until the end of the barley harvest and the wheat harvest, while she lived with her mother-in-law.

3

Naomi's plan for Ruth's marriage

<sup>1</sup> Then Naomi, Ruth's mother-in-law, asked her: “My daughter, should I not try to find a secure place for you that you may be well provided for? <sup>2</sup> Now therefore, is not Boaz, with whose servant girls you have been, a relative of ours? Look! He is winnowing barley at the threshing floor tonight. <sup>3</sup> Wash, put on some perfume, put on your good clothes and go down to the threshing floor! However, do not let the man know that you are there until he has finished eating and drinking! <sup>4</sup> When he lies down, notice the place where he is lying! Then go in, uncover the place at his feet and lie down there! He will tell you what you should do.”

<sup>5</sup> Ruth answered her: “I shall do everything that you say.”

The meeting of Ruth and Boaz at the threshing floor

<sup>6</sup> She went down to the threshing floor and did exactly as her mother-in-law had commanded her. <sup>7</sup> When Boaz had eaten and drunk and was feeling contented, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. Then she came quietly, uncovered a place at his feet and lay down. <sup>8</sup> At midnight the man was startled, felt around and discovered that a woman was lying in a place at his feet. <sup>9</sup> He asked, “Who are you?”

She answered: “I am Ruth, your maidservant. Spread the skirt of your garment out over your maidservant! For you are a family-redeemer.”

<sup>10</sup> He said: “May the LORD bless you, my daughter! You have made this last kindness of yours greater than the first, in that you have not gone after young men, either poor or rich. <sup>11</sup> Now therefore, my daughter, do not be afraid! I shall do for you all that you are asking. For everyone at the city-gate of my people knows that you are a worthy woman. <sup>12</sup> Now therefore, although it is true that I am a family-redeemer, there is another family-redeemer who is a closer relative than I am. <sup>13</sup> Stay here tonight! In the morning, if he is willing to redeem you, that is fine. Let him redeem you! However, if he is not willing to redeem you, then, as surely as the LORD lives, I myself shall redeem you. Lie down until the morning!”

<sup>14</sup> So, she lay in the place at his feet until the morning. However, she got up before any person could recognise another. Boaz said, “Do not let it be known that you, a woman, have come to the threshing floor!”

<sup>15</sup> He also said, “Bring the shawl that you are wearing and hold it out!”

The return of Ruth to Bethlehem

Then she held it out, and he measured out six measures of grain and placed it on her. Then he went into the city. <sup>16</sup> When Ruth came to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, “Is that you, my daughter?”

Then she told her all that the man had done for her. <sup>17</sup> She also said: “He has given me these six measures of grain. For he told me: ‘Do not go to your mother-in-law empty-handed!”

<sup>18</sup> She replied: “Wait here, my daughter, until you learn how the matter turns out! For the man will not waste time but will settle the matter today.”

4

Boaz' arrangements to marry Ruth as a kinsman-redeemer according to the levirate custom — Deuteronomy 25:5-10

<sup>1</sup> Boaz went up to the city-gate and sat down there. When he saw the family-redeemer whom he had mentioned going past, Boaz said, “Come over here, my friend, and sit down!”

So, he went over and sat down. <sup>2</sup> Boaz took ten of the elders of the city and said, “Sit down here!”

Then they sat down. <sup>3</sup> Then he told the family-redeemer: “Naomi, who has come back from the country of Moab, has put up for sale the piece of land that belongs to our relative Elimelech. <sup>4</sup> So, I thought that I would tell you about it and say, ‘Buy it in the presence of those who are sitting here and in the presence of the elders of my people!’ If you are willing to redeem it, redeem it! However, if you are not willing, tell me, that I may know! For no one has a greater claim to redeem it than you have, and I come after you.”

Then he said, “I shall redeem it.”

<sup>5</sup> Boaz said: “On the day when you acquire the field from Naomi, you have also acquired it from Ruth, the Moabitess, the widow of the dead man, to preserve the name of the dead man on his inheritance.”

<sup>6</sup> Then the family-redeemer said: “I cannot redeem it for myself. If I did, I would spoil my own inheritance. Take over my right to redeem it yourself! For I cannot redeem it.”

<sup>7</sup> This had been the former custom in Israel for the redemption and transfer of property: To confirm any transaction, one man took off his sandal and gave it to the other man. This was the way a declaration used to be made in Israel. <sup>8</sup> So, when the family-redeemer told Boaz, “Buy it for yourself!” he took off his sandal. <sup>9</sup> Then Boaz told the elders and all the people: “You are witnesses today that I have bought from Naomi all that belonged to Elimelech and all that belonged to Chilion and to Mahlon. <sup>10</sup> I have also acquired Ruth the Moabitess, the widow of Mahlon, as my wife, to preserve the name of the dead man on his inheritance, that the name of the dead man may not be cut off from his relatives or from the city-gate of his hometown. You are witnesses today.”

<sup>11</sup> Then all the people who were at the city-gate, including the elders, said: “We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming into your home like Rachel and Leah, both of whom have built up the family of Israel! May you prosper in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem! <sup>12</sup> From the children that the LORD gives you through this young woman, may your family be like the family of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah!

The marriage of Boaz and Ruth and the birth of David's ancestor Obed

<sup>13</sup> So, Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife. He had relations with her, and the LORD enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son. <sup>14</sup> Then the women said to Naomi: “Blessed be the LORD, who today has not left you without a family-redeemer! May the child's name be famous in Israel! <sup>15</sup> May he be one who renews your life and provides for you in your old age! For he is the child of your daughter-in-law, who loves you, and who is better to you than seven sons.”

<sup>16</sup> Then Naomi took the child, laid him on her lap and became his nurse. <sup>17</sup> The women in the neighbourhood gave him a name. They said, “A son has been born to Naomi,” and they named him “Obed.”<sup>85</sup> He became the father of Jesse, who was the father of David.

The genealogy of David — 1 Chronicles 2:5-15, Matthew 1:2-6, Luke 3:31-33.

<sup>18</sup> This is the family-line of Perez: Perez was the father of Hezron. <sup>19</sup> Hezron was the father of Ram. Ram was the father of Amminadab. <sup>20</sup> Amminadab was the father of Nahshon. Nahshon was the father of Salmon. <sup>21</sup> Salmon was the father of Boaz. <sup>22</sup> Boaz was the father of Obed. Obed was the father of Jesse, and Jesse was the father of David.

<sup>85</sup> Obed means, “Servant (of God).”

1 SAMUEL

1

The birth of Samuel

<sup>1</sup> There was a certain man of Ramathaim-Zophim in the hill-country of Ephraim whose name was Elkanah. He was the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph. He belonged to Ephraim. <sup>2</sup> He had two wives. The name of the one was Hannah,<sup>*86</sup> and the name of the other was Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none. <sup>3</sup> This man used to go up from his city every year to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD of hosts at Shiloh. There the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were priests of the LORD. <sup>4</sup> Whenever the day came when Elkanah offered a sacrifice, he used to give portions of it to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters. <sup>5</sup> However, he used to give Hannah one portion before the others, because he loved Hannah, even though the LORD had closed her womb. <sup>6</sup> Her rival used to provoke her cruelly to irritate her, because the LORD had closed her womb. <sup>7</sup> This is what used to happen year after year. Whenever Hannah went up to the house of the LORD, Peninnah used to provoke Hannah, so that Hannah used to cry and would not eat.

<sup>8</sup> Elkanah, her husband, asked her: "Hannah, why are you crying? Why are you not eating and why are you downhearted? Do I not mean more to you than ten sons?"

<sup>9</sup> After they had finished eating and drinking at Shiloh, Hannah got up. Eli the priest was sitting on his chair near a doorpost of the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>10</sup> She was deeply distressed and prayed to the LORD while she was weeping copiously. <sup>11</sup> She made this vow: "LORD of hosts, if You really look at the misery of Your maidservant, remember me and do not forget Your maidservant but give Your maidservant a male child, then I shall give him to the LORD all his life. No razor will be used on his head."

<sup>12</sup> While Hannah kept on praying for a long time before the LORD, Eli was watching her mouth.

<sup>13</sup> Hannah was praying silently. Only her lips were trembling. Her voice could not be heard. Therefore, Eli thought she was drunk. <sup>14</sup> Eli asked her: "How long will you go on acting like a drunk? Get rid of your wine!"

<sup>15</sup> Hannah answered: "No, my master. I am a deeply troubled woman. I have not been drinking wine or other strong drink but have been pouring out my heart before the LORD. <sup>16</sup> Do not regard me, your maidservant, as a wicked woman! For until now I have been speaking because of my great concern and grief."

<sup>17</sup> Then Eli answered: "Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant your request, which you have been asking from Him!"

<sup>18</sup> She said, "May you continue to regard your maidservant kindly!"

When the woman went on her way and ate, her face was not downcast any longer. <sup>19</sup> They rose early in the morning and worshipped before the LORD. Then they returned and arrived home at Ramah. Elkanah had relations with his wife Hannah, and the LORD remembered her. <sup>20</sup> In the course of time Hannah conceived and gave birth to a son. She named him "Samuel,"<sup>*87</sup> saying, "Because I asked the LORD for him."

<sup>21</sup> The man Elkanah went up with all his family to offer the annual sacrifice to the LORD and to fulfil his vow. <sup>22</sup> However, Hannah did not go up. For she told her husband: "As soon as the boy is weaned, I shall bring him, that he may appear in the presence of the LORD and may always live there."

<sup>23</sup> Elkanah her husband told her: "Do what you think is best for you! Wait until you have weaned him! Only, may the LORD make His Word come true!"

Hannah's dedication of Samuel to God

The woman stayed and nursed her son until she weaned him. <sup>24</sup> When she had weaned him, she took him up with her, along with three bulls, forty litres of flour and a skin of wine. She brought the boy to the house of the LORD at Shiloh while he was still young. <sup>25</sup> When they had slaughtered the bull, they brought the boy to Eli. <sup>26</sup> Hannah said: "With your permission, as surely as you live, my master, I am the woman who was standing near you here, praying to the LORD. <sup>27</sup> I prayed for this child, and the LORD has granted me my petition, which I made to Him. <sup>28</sup> I have also lent him to the LORD. All his life he is lent to the LORD."

Then Samuel worshipped the LORD there.

2

Hannah's prayer — compare Luke 1:46-55

<sup>1</sup> Hannah prayed:

"My heart has been rejoicing in the LORD. In the LORD my horn has been lifted high. My mouth has opened wide over my enemies. For I rejoice in Your salvation.

<sup>2</sup> "There is no one holy like the LORD. For there is no one besides You, and there is no rock like our God.

<sup>3</sup> "Do not keep talking so haughtily! Let no insolent haughtiness come out of your mouths! For the LORD is a God who knows and is the One who examines actions.

<sup>4</sup> "The battle bows of mighty men have been filled with terror, but those who stumbled have been strapping strength on themselves.

<sup>5</sup> "Those who were well fed have hired themselves out for bread, but those who were hungry have ceased to be hungry. Even she who was childless has given birth to seven children, but she who has had many children has wasted away.

<sup>86</sup> Hannah means, "Gracious."

<sup>87</sup> Samuel means, "Name of God."

<sup>6</sup> “The LORD kills and makes alive. He sends people down to the abode of the dead and raises them up.

<sup>7</sup> “The LORD dispossesses and makes rich. He brings low and also exalts.

<sup>8</sup> “He raises up poor people from the dust. He lifts needy people up from the ash heap, to make him sit with nobles and makes them inherit a splendid throne. For the pillars of the earth belong to the LORD. He has set the world on them.

<sup>9</sup> “He will guard the feet of His faithful people, but wicked people will be silenced in darkness. For by strength no one will prevail.

<sup>10</sup> “Those who oppose the LORD will be struck down. He will send thunder against them in the heavens. The LORD will judge the ends of the earth. He will give strength to His king and exalt the horn of His Anointed One.”

The disobedience of Eli's sons

<sup>11</sup> Then Elkanah went home to Ramah. However, the boy ministered to the LORD in the presence of Eli the priest. <sup>12</sup> Nevertheless, the sons of Eli were wicked. They did not know the LORD. <sup>13</sup> This is what the priests used to do to the people: Whenever anyone was offering a sacrifice, and while the meat was boiling, the priest's servant would come with a three-pronged fork in his hand. <sup>14</sup> He used to plunge it into the pan, kettle, cauldron or pot. The priest used to take for himself whatever the fork brought up. This is what they used to do at Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there. <sup>15</sup> Moreover, before they burned the fat, the priest's servant used to come and tell the man who was sacrificing: “Give some meat for the priest to roast! For he will not accept boiled meat from you but only raw meat.”

<sup>16</sup> If the man told him, “They should really burn the fat first: then take whatever you want!” the priest's servant used to say, “No, you must give it now! Otherwise, I shall take it by force.”

<sup>17</sup> The LORD regarded the sin of the young men as very serious. For the men treated the offering of the LORD with contempt.

The service of the boy Samuel at Shiloh

<sup>18</sup> Samuel was ministering before the LORD as a boy, wearing a linen priestly apron. <sup>19</sup> His mother used to make a little robe for him and take it up to him each year when she came up with her husband to offer the annual sacrifice. <sup>20</sup> Then Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife and say, “May the LORD give you children from this woman in return for the request that she made to the LORD!”

Then they would go back home. <sup>21</sup> Indeed, the LORD treated Hannah kindly, and she conceived and bore three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile the boy Samuel grew up in the presence of the LORD.

Eli's rebuke to his sons

<sup>22</sup> When Eli was very old, he kept hearing all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and that they used to have relations with the women who were serving at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>23</sup> He asked them: “Why do you do such things? For I keep hearing about your wicked deeds from all these people.

<sup>24</sup> No, my sons! For the rumour that I hear the people of the LORD spreading is not good. <sup>25</sup> If someone sins against another man, God will arbitrate about him. However, if someone sins against the LORD, who will pray for him?”

Nevertheless, they would not listen to what their father said. For the LORD wanted to put them to death.

<sup>26</sup> The boy Samuel continued to grow up, and the LORD was kind to him, and people were too.

A prophecy about the rejection of Eli's family from the Aaronic priesthood

<sup>27</sup> Then a man of God came to Eli and told him: “This is what the LORD has said, ‘Did I not clearly reveal Myself to the family of your forefather when they were subject to the dynasty of Pharaoh in Egypt?’

<sup>28</sup> Did I not choose your forefather out of all the tribes of Israel to be My priest, to go up to My altar, to burn incense and to wear a priestly garment in My presence? Did I not also give to the family of your forefather all My offerings, which the people of Israel make by fire? <sup>29</sup> Why, then, do you scorn My sacrifices and My offerings, which I commanded at My dwelling, and why do you honour your sons more than Me by fattening yourselves on the best parts of every offering of My people Israel?’ <sup>30</sup> Therefore, the LORD, the God of Israel, declares: ‘I promised that your family and the family of your forefather would go in and out before Me for ever.’ However, now the LORD declares: “Far be it from Me! Rather, I shall honour those who honour Me, and those who despise Me will be lightly esteemed. <sup>31</sup> Look! The days are coming when I shall cut off your strength and the strength of your father's family, so that there will be no old man in your family. <sup>32</sup> You will see distress in My dwelling. Although God will treat Israel well, there will never be an old man in your family. <sup>33</sup> Anyone of yours whom I shall not cut off from My altar will only make your eyes go blank and make your heart feeble. In addition, all your next generation will die in the prime of life. <sup>34</sup> What will happen to your two sons Hophni and Phinehas will be a sign to you. Both of them will die on the same day. <sup>35</sup> Then I shall raise up for Myself a faithful priest. He will do what is in My heart and in My mind. I shall establish a lasting family for him, and he will live before My anointed one for ever. <sup>36</sup> Everyone who is left in your family will come and bow down before him for a piece of silver and a crust of bread. He will ask, “Please associate me with one of the priestly positions, that I may eat a little food!””

1 Samuel

God's Message to Samuel about Eli's priestly family

<sup>1</sup> The boy Samuel was ministering to the LORD under Eli. The Word of the LORD was rare in those days. Visions were infrequent. <sup>2</sup> At that time Eli, whose eyesight had begun to grow so dim that he could not see, was lying down in his own place. <sup>3</sup> The lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the Temple of the LORD, where the Ark of God was. <sup>4</sup> Then the LORD called Samuel. Samuel answered, "Here I am."

<sup>5</sup> He ran to Eli and said, "Here I am. For you have called me."

However, Eli said, "I have not called you. Go back and lie down!"

So, Samuel went and lay down. <sup>6</sup> Then the LORD called again, "Samuel!"

Samuel got up, went to Eli and said, "Here I am. For you have called me."

Eli answered: "I have not called you, my son. Go back and lie down!"

<sup>7</sup> Samuel did not yet know the LORD, and the Word of the LORD was not yet being revealed to him.

<sup>8</sup> Then the LORD called Samuel again, a third time. Samuel got up, went to Eli and said: "Here I am. For you have called me."

Then Eli realised that the LORD was calling the boy.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore, Eli told Samuel: "Go and lie down! If He calls you, you shall say, 'Speak, LORD, for Your servant is listening!'"

So, Samuel went and lay down in his place. <sup>10</sup> Then the LORD came, stood there and called as He had called at the other times: "Samuel! Samuel!"

Then Samuel answered, "Speak! For Your servant is listening."

<sup>11</sup> Then the LORD told Samuel: "Look! I am about to do something in Israel and the two ears of everyone who hears about it will tingle. <sup>12</sup> On that day, I shall carry out against Eli everything I have spoken about his family, from the beginning to the end. <sup>13</sup> I have told him that I shall condemn his family for ever for the guilt about which he has known. For, although his sons were calling a curse down on themselves, he did not restrain them. <sup>14</sup> This is why I have sworn concerning Eli's family that no sacrifice or offering will certainly ever atone for the guilt of Eli's family."

<sup>15</sup> Samuel lay down until the morning. Then he opened the doors of the house of the LORD. However, Samuel was afraid to tell Eli about the vision.

<sup>16</sup> Then Eli summoned Samuel and said, "Samuel, my son!"

Samuel answered, "Here I am."

<sup>17</sup> Eli asked: "What is the Message that He has told you? Please, do not hide it from me! May God treat you harshly and even worse if you hide anything from me out of the Message that He has spoken to you!"

<sup>18</sup> So, Samuel told him everything and did not hide anything from him. Eli answered: "He is the LORD.

Let Him do what He thinks is right!"

<sup>19</sup> As Samuel grew up, the LORD was with him and did not let any of His Words remain unfulfilled.

<sup>20</sup> All Israel from Dan to Beer-Sheba knew that Samuel was a reliable prophet of the LORD. <sup>21</sup> The LORD continued to appear at Shiloh. For the LORD revealed Himself to Samuel at Shiloh through the Word of the LORD.

4

<sup>1</sup> The Word of Samuel reached all Israel.

The defeat of the Israelites by the Philistines and the capture of the Ark of the Covenant

Israel went out to fight against the Philistines. They camped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines camped at Aphek. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines arranged their battle-line against Israel. When the fighting finished, the Philistines had defeated Israel and had struck down about four thousand men in their battle-line on the field.

<sup>3</sup> When the soldiers came to the camp, the elders of Israel asked: "Why has the LORD brought defeat on us today before the Philistines? Let us fetch the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD here to us from Shiloh, that it may come among us and save us from the power of our enemies!"

<sup>4</sup> The people sent men to Shiloh and brought from there the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD of hosts, who is enthroned between the cherubim. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the Ark of the Covenant of God. <sup>5</sup> When the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted so loudly that the earth rang with echoes.

<sup>6</sup> When the Philistines heard the sound of the shouting, they asked, "What does this sound of loud shouting in the camp of the Hebrews mean?"

When they found out that the Ark of the LORD had come into the camp, <sup>7</sup> the Philistines were afraid. Indeed, they said, "A god has come into the camp." They said: "How terrible for us! For nothing like this has ever happened before. <sup>8</sup> How terrible for us! Who will deliver us from the power of these mighty gods? These are the gods who struck the Egyptians down with every kind of plague in the wilderness. <sup>9</sup> Show your courage and be men, Philistines, that you may not become slaves to the Hebrews as they have been your slaves! Be men and fight!"

<sup>10</sup> So, the Philistines fought, and Israel was defeated, and everyone fled to his tent. The slaughter was very great. Israel lost thirty thousand foot-soldiers. <sup>11</sup> The Ark of God was captured and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

The death of Eli

<sup>12</sup> A man of Benjamin ran from the battle-line and arrived at Shiloh on the same day, with his clothes torn and with soil on his head. <sup>13</sup> Just when he arrived, Eli was sitting on his chair next to the road watching. For his heart was trembling because of the Ark of God. When the man entered the city to tell the news, the entire city cried out. <sup>14</sup> When Eli heard the sound of the outcry, he asked, "What does the sound of this uproar mean?"

Then the man came quickly and told Eli. <sup>15</sup> Eli was ninety-eight years old, and his eyes were motionless, so that he could not see. <sup>16</sup> The man told Eli: "I am the one who has come from the line of battle. I myself have fled from the line of battle today."

Eli asked, "What happened, my son?"

<sup>17</sup> The messenger replied: "Israel has fled before the Philistines. There has also been a great defeat among the soldiers. Your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead and the Ark of God has been captured."

<sup>18</sup> When he mentioned the Ark of God, Eli fell over backwards from his chair at the side of the city gate. His neck was broken, and he died. For the man was old and heavy. He had been ruling Israel as judge for forty years. <sup>19</sup> His daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant and about to give birth. When she heard the news that the Ark of God had been captured and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bent over and gave birth, for her labour-pains came on her. <sup>20</sup> About the time when she died, the women who were attending her told her: "Do not be afraid! For you have given birth to a son."

However, she did not answer or pay any attention.

<sup>21</sup> She named the boy "Ichabod,"<sup>88</sup> saying, "The glory has departed from Israel!" because the Ark of God had been captured and because of her father-in-law and her husband. <sup>22</sup> She said, "The glory has departed from Israel. For the Ark of God has been captured."

5

The plagues caused by the presence of the Ark in Ashdod, Gath and Ekron

<sup>1</sup> When the Philistines captured the Ark of God, they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines took the Ark of God, brought it into the temple of Dagon and set it down beside Dagon. <sup>3</sup> When the people of Ashdod rose early the next day, there was Dagon! It had fallen face downward on the ground before the Ark of the LORD. They took Dagon and put it back in its place. <sup>4</sup> However, when they rose early on the next morning, there was Dagon! It had fallen face downward on the ground before the Ark of the LORD. However, the head of Dagon and both palms of its hands were cut off and lying on the threshold. Only the trunk of Dagon was left to it. <sup>5</sup> This is why the priests of Dagon and all who enter the temple of Dagon avoid treading on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day. <sup>6</sup> The hand of the LORD came down heavily against the people of Ashdod. He disconcerted and plagued Ashdod and its territory with tumours. <sup>7</sup> When the men of Ashdod saw what was happening, they said: "The Ark of the God of Israel must not stay with us! For His hand has been heavy against us and against our god Dagon."

<sup>8</sup> They sent for all the princes of the Philistines and gathered them to where they were. They asked: "What shall we do with the Ark of the God of Israel?"

The princes answered: "Let the Ark of the God of Israel be brought around to Gath!"

So, they made the Ark of the God of Israel move on.

<sup>9</sup> However, after they had taken it around there, the hand of the LORD put that city into a very great panic. He afflicted the people of the city, both young and old, by causing tumours to break out on them. <sup>10</sup> So, they sent the Ark of God to Ekron. However, when the Ark of God came into Ekron, the people of Ekron cried out, "They have brought the Ark of the God of Israel around to us to kill us and our people."

<sup>11</sup> They sent for all the princes of the Philistines and gathered them together. They said: "Send the Ark of the God of Israel away! Let it go back to its own place! Then it will not kill us and our people."

For there was a panic of death throughout the whole city. The hand of God had been very severe there.

<sup>12</sup> The people who had not died had been plagued with tumours, and the cry of the city had gone up to heaven.

6

The plagues on the Philistines because of the Ark

<sup>1</sup> The Ark of the LORD had been in the territory of the Philistines for seven months. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines summoned the priests and those who practised divination and asked: "What shall we do with the Ark of the LORD? Tell us how we should send it back to its place!"

<sup>3</sup> They answered: "If you are sending the Ark of the God of Israel away, do not send it away empty! Rather, you shall certainly send a compensating gift back to Him! Then you will be healed and find out why His hand is not leaving you alone."

<sup>4</sup> The Philistines asked, "What compensating gift shall we send back to Him?"

They answered: "Five golden tumours and five golden rats, the same number as the princes of the Philistines. For the same plague has been striking all of you and your princes. <sup>5</sup> You must make representations of your tumours and representations of your rats, which have been ravaging the land, and you must give glory to the God of Israel! Perhaps He will lift His heavy hand away from you, your gods and your land. <sup>6</sup> Why should you become stubborn as the Egyptians and Pharaoh became stubborn? After He had made fools of them, did they not allow the people to leave, so they could go on their way? <sup>7</sup> Now therefore, take a new cart and make it ready, together with two cows that are feeding calves and that have never been under a yoke! Then hitch the cows to the cart but take their calves away from them, back to their yard! <sup>8</sup> Then take the Ark of the LORD and place it on the cart! Put the golden objects, which you are sending back to Him as a compensating gift, in a saddlebag beside it! Then send it off, that it may go on its way! <sup>9</sup> Then watch! If it goes up on the road to its own territory, towards Beth-Shemesh, then it is He who has been doing us this great harm. However, if it does not, then we shall know that it has not been His hand that has been striking us, but that what has happened to us has been a coincidence.”

<sup>88</sup> Ichabod means, "No glory."

<sup>10</sup> The men did this. They took two cows that were feeding calves, hitched them to the cart and shut their calves in their yard. <sup>11</sup> Then they put the Ark of the LORD on the cart together with the saddlebag holding the golden rats and the representations of their tumours. <sup>12</sup> Then the cows went straight along the road towards Beth-Shemesh. They kept on the highway, bellowing as they went. They did not turn off to the right or to the left, and the princes of the Philistines kept following them as far as the border of Beth-Shemesh.

The return of the Ark to Beth-Shemesh in Judah

<sup>13</sup> The people of Beth-Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley. When they looked up and saw the Ark, they were glad to see it. <sup>14</sup> The cart came into the field of Joshua, a man of Beth-Shemesh, and stopped where there was a large rock. The men chopped up the wood of the cart and sacrificed the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>15</sup> The Levites took down the Ark of the LORD and the saddlebag that was beside it, which contained the golden articles, and placed them on the large rock. On that day the men of Beth-Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices to the LORD. <sup>16</sup> When the five princes of the Philistines saw this, they went back that same day to Ekron. <sup>17</sup> These are the golden tumours that the Philistines sent back as a compensatory gift to the LORD: one for Ashdod, one for Gaza, one for Ashkelon, one for Gath and one for Ekron. <sup>18</sup> They also sent as many golden rats as there were cities of the Philistines belonging to the five princes, including walled cities and unwalled rural villages. The large rock of Abel, on which they set down the Ark of the LORD, remains to this day in the field of Joshua, the man of Beth Shemesh. <sup>19</sup> The Ark struck down some of the men of Beth-Shemesh, because they had looked into the Ark of the LORD. It struck down seventy of them (There were fifty thousand men). Then the people observed mourning rites because of the heavy blow that the LORD had dealt them. <sup>20</sup> Then the men of Beth-Shemesh asked: “Who can stand in the presence of the LORD, this holy God? To whom should the Ark be taken, that it may leave us?”

<sup>21</sup> They sent messengers to the people living at Kiriath-Jearim. They said: “The Philistines have sent back the Ark of the LORD. Come down and take it up to where you are!”

7

The removal of the Ark to Kiriath-Jearim

<sup>1</sup> The men of Kiriath-Jearim came, took away the Ark of the LORD and brought it to the house of Abinadab on the hill. Then they consecrated his son Eleazar to take care of the Ark of the LORD.

The defeat of the Philistines at Mizpah when Samuel was the judge

<sup>2</sup> From the day when the Ark was lodged at Kiriath-Jearim a long time passed. It was twenty years, and all the family of Israel remained loyal to the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> Samuel told all the family of Israel: “If you are returning to the LORD with all your hearts, get rid of the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth, commit your hearts to the LORD and serve Him alone, that He may deliver you from the control of the Philistines!”

<sup>4</sup> So, the people of Israel got rid of the Baals and the Ashtaroth and served the LORD alone. <sup>5</sup> Then Samuel said, “Assemble all Israel at Mizpah, that I may pray to the LORD for you!”

<sup>6</sup> When they gathered at Mizpah, they drew water, poured it out before the LORD, went without food on that day and there they confessed, “We have sinned against the LORD.”

Samuel ruled the people of Israel as judge at Mizpah.

<sup>7</sup> When the Philistines heard that the people of Israel had gathered at Mizpah, the princes of the Philistines went up to attack Israel. The people of Israel heard about it and were afraid of the Philistines. <sup>8</sup> The people of Israel told Samuel: “Do not stop crying out to the LORD, our God, for us, that He may save us from the hands of the Philistines!”

<sup>9</sup> Then Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. Samuel cried out to the LORD for Israel, and the LORD answered him.

<sup>10</sup> While Samuel was sacrificing the burnt offering, the Philistines came closer to fight against Israel. However, the LORD thundered very loudly that day against the Philistines and threw them into confusion. So, they were defeated before Israel. <sup>11</sup> The men of Israel went out from Mizpah, pursued the Philistines and struck them down, to a point below Beth-Car. <sup>12</sup> Then Samuel took a stone, set it up between Mizpah and Shen and named it “Ebenezer.”<sup>89</sup> For he said, “Until now the LORD has been helping us.”

<sup>13</sup> So, the Philistines were subdued and did not invade the territory of Israel again. The hand of the LORD was against the Philistines throughout Samuel’s lifetime. <sup>14</sup> The cities that the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron to Gath, and Israel delivered their territory from the control of the Philistines. There was also peace between Israel and the Amorites. <sup>15</sup> Samuel ruled Israel as judge all his life. <sup>16</sup> Every year he went on a circuit to Bethel, Gilgal and Mizpah and continued to judge Israel at all these places. <sup>17</sup> Then he used to return to Ramah, for his home was there. He also judged Israel there and built an altar to the LORD there.

<sup>89</sup> Ebenezer means, “Stone of help.”

8

The Israelites' request for a king

<sup>1</sup> When Samuel became old, he appointed his sons as judges for Israel. <sup>2</sup> The name of his first son was Joel, and the name of his second was Abijah. They were judges at Beer-Sheba. <sup>3</sup> However, his sons did not walk in his ways. They turned aside after dishonest profit. They accepted bribes and perverted justice.

<sup>4</sup> Then all the elders of Israel assembled and came to Samuel at Ramah. <sup>5</sup> They told him: "Look! You have become old and your sons have not been following your example. Now appoint a king for us to judge us, such as all the other nations have!"

<sup>6</sup> However, Samuel was displeased with their request, "Give us a king to judge us!"

So, Samuel prayed to the LORD. <sup>7</sup> The LORD told Samuel: "Listen to everything that the people are telling you! Indeed, they have not rejected you but rejected Me, that I should not reign over them. <sup>8</sup> They are also doing to you exactly as they have been doing from the time when I brought them up out of Egypt until this day. They have been forsaking Me and have been serving other gods. <sup>9</sup> So now, comply with what they are saying! However, you shall solemnly warn them and tell them about the legal claims that the king will make when he reigns over them!"

<sup>10</sup> Then Samuel reported everything that the LORD had said to the people who were asking him for a king. <sup>11</sup> Samuel said: "These will be the legal claims of the king who will be reigning over you: He will take your sons and assign them to his own chariots, to be his horsemen and to run in front of his chariots.

<sup>12</sup> He will appoint them to be his officers over thousands and officers over fifties, to plough his ground, harvest his crops and to make his weapons of war and the equipment for his chariots. <sup>13</sup> He will take your daughters to be mixers of perfume, cooks and bakers.

<sup>14</sup> He will take the best of your fields, vineyards and olive orchards and give them to his officials. <sup>15</sup> He will take a tenth of your grain and your vintage and give it to his court-officials and his other servants.

<sup>16</sup> He will take your male-servants, your female-servants, the best of your young men and your donkeys, that they may labour at his own work. <sup>17</sup> He will take a tenth of your flocks. In addition, you yourselves will be his servants. <sup>18</sup> When that day comes, you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen. However, the LORD will not answer you on that day."

<sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, the people refused to listen to what Samuel was saying. They replied: "No! On the contrary, there must be a king over us! <sup>20</sup> Then we also shall be like all the other nations, with our king to judge us, to go out ahead of us and to fight our battles."

God's granting of the Israelites' request for a king

<sup>21</sup> When Samuel heard everything that the people were saying, he reported it to the LORD. <sup>22</sup> Then the LORD told Samuel, "Listen to what they are saying and make them a king!"

Samuel then told the Israelites: "Each of you should go to his own city!"

9

Saul's search for lost donkeys

<sup>1</sup> There was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish. Kish was the son of Abiel, a son of Zeror, a son of Becorath, a son of Aphiah, a descendant of Benjamin. He was a wealthy man. <sup>2</sup> He had a son whose name was Saul, a handsome young man. There was no one among the Israelites who was more handsome than he was. From his shoulders up he was taller than any of the other people were. <sup>3</sup> When the female donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, became lost, Kish told his son Saul: "Please take one of the servants with you! Take action, go and look for the donkeys!"

<sup>4</sup> Saul went through the hill-country of Ephraim and through the region of Shalisha, but they did not find them. Next, they went through the district of Shaalim, but they were not there. Then they went through the region of the people of Benjamin but did not find them. <sup>5</sup> When they came to the district of Zuph, Saul told his servant, who was with him: "Come! Let us go back! Otherwise my father will stop worrying about the donkeys and worry about us."

The meeting of Saul and Samuel

<sup>6</sup> The servant told him: "Look! There is a man of God in this city. He is highly respected, and everything that he says really comes true. Let us go there now! Perhaps he will tell us which way we should take."

<sup>7</sup> Saul told his servant: "Look! If we go, what shall we take to the man? For the bread in our sacks is gone, and we have no gift to present to the man of God. What do we have?"

<sup>8</sup> The servant answered Saul again: "Look! I have three grams of silver here with me. I shall give it to the man of God, that he may tell us which way we should take."

<sup>9</sup> Formerly in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, he said, "Come! Let us go to the seer!" For a man who is now called a "prophet" used to be called a "seer." <sup>10</sup> Saul told his servant, "Well said! Come! Let us go!"

They went to the city where the man of God was.

<sup>11</sup> While they were going up the hill to the city, they met some girls coming out to draw water. They asked them, "Is the seer here?"

<sup>12</sup> They answered them: "He is. Look! He is ahead of you. Hurry now! For he has come to the city today, because the people are having a sacrifice today at the high place. <sup>13</sup> As soon as you enter the city you will find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat. For the people will not eat until he comes, because he will bless the sacrifice. After that those who have been invited will eat. Go up now! For you should find him at about this time.”

<sup>14</sup> So, they went up to the city. When they were entering the city, they saw Samuel coming out toward them on his way up to the high place. <sup>15</sup> On the day before Saul came, the LORD had made a spoken revelation to Samuel: <sup>16</sup> “Tomorrow at about this time I shall send a man to you from the land of Benjamin. You shall anoint him as the leader over My people Israel! He will save My people from the control of the Philistines. For I have looked on My people, because their cry has been coming to Me.”

<sup>17</sup> When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD told him, “Here is the man about whom I have told you! He will govern my people.”

<sup>18</sup> Then Saul approached Samuel in the gateway and asked, “Please, tell me where the house of the seer is!”

<sup>19</sup> Samuel answered Saul: “I am the seer. Go up ahead of me to the high place, that both of you may eat with me today! Then in the morning I shall let you go and shall tell you all that is on your mind. <sup>20</sup> As for your donkeys, which were lost three days ago, do not worry about them! For they have been found. Besides, whom does Israel fully desire? Is it not you and all your father’s family?”

<sup>21</sup> Saul answered: “Am I not a Benjaminite, from the smallest tribe of Israel? Is not my clan the least of all the clans of the tribe of Benjamin? Why, then, have you said such a thing to me?”

<sup>22</sup> Then Samuel took Saul and his servant, brought them into the hall and gave them a place at the head of those who had been invited, who numbered about thirty persons. <sup>23</sup> Samuel told the cook, “Bring the piece of meat that I gave you, about which I told you, ‘Keep this in reserve!’”

<sup>24</sup> So, the cook took up the leg and what was on it and set them before Saul. Samuel said: “Look! This has been set aside to be served to you. Eat it! For it has been reserved for you for this occasion, ever since I said that I have invited the people.”

Saul ate with Samuel on that day. <sup>25</sup> When they came down from the high place into the city, Samuel talked with Saul on the roof of his house.

The anointing of Saul as king

<sup>26</sup> They rose at about daybreak, and Samuel called to Saul on the flat roof, “Get up, that I may send you on your way!”

When Saul got up, both he and Samuel went out into the street. <sup>27</sup> While they were going down to the edge of the city, Samuel told Saul: “Tell the servant to go on ahead of us! When he has passed on, you yourself remain here now, that I may make known to you what God says!”

10

<sup>1</sup> Then Samuel took his flask of olive-oil, poured it on Saul’s head, kissed him and said: “Is this not because the LORD has anointed you to be prince over his inheritance? <sup>2</sup> When you leave me today, you will meet two men beside Rachel’s tomb at Zelzah on the border of Benjamin. They will tell you, ‘The donkeys that you went to search for have been found. Look! Now your father has stopped being concerned about the donkeys and is worried about both of you. He is asking, “What shall I do about my son?”’ <sup>3</sup> Then you will go on further from there and come to the large tree at Tabor. Three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you there. One will be carrying three young goats, another will be carrying three loaves of bread, and another will be carrying a jar of wine. <sup>4</sup> They will greet you and give you two loaves of bread, and you will accept them from them. <sup>5</sup> After that you will come to the Hill of God, where the Philistines have a military post. There, as you are approaching the city, you will meet a group of prophets coming down from the high place. They will have a harp, a tambourine, a flute and a lyre leading them and will be prophesying. <sup>6</sup> Then the Spirit of the LORD will come on you powerfully. You will prophesy with them and be changed into a different person. <sup>7</sup> When these signs come true for you, do whatever your hand finds to do! For God is with you. <sup>8</sup> Then you shall go down ahead of me to Gilgal! I shall certainly come down to you to offer burnt offerings and to sacrifice peace-offerings. You shall wait for seven days, until I come to you, that I may inform you what to do!”

The choice of Saul as king and his prophesying when the Spirit of God came over him

<sup>9</sup> When Saul turned around to leave Samuel, God transformed Saul’s heart. On that day all these signs also came true. <sup>10</sup> When they arrived at Gibeah, there was a group of prophets coming to meet him. The Spirit of God came on him powerfully, and he prophesied among them. <sup>11</sup> When all the people who had known him previously saw that he was prophesying with the prophets, they asked one another: “What has happened here to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?”

<sup>12</sup> A man from that place answered, “Who, then, is their father?” That is why it became a proverb: “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

<sup>13</sup> After Saul had finished prophesying, he went to the high place. <sup>14</sup> Saul’s uncle asked him and his servant, “Where have you gone?”

Saul said: “To search for the donkeys. When we saw that they were nowhere to be found, we went to Samuel.”

<sup>15</sup> Saul’s uncle asked, “Please tell me what Samuel told you!”

<sup>16</sup> Saul replied to his uncle, “He told us plainly that the donkeys had been found.”

However, he did not tell him what Samuel had told him about becoming king.

The proclamation of Saul as the king over Israel

<sup>17</sup> Then Samuel summoned the people to the LORD at Mizpah. <sup>18</sup> He told the Israelites: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel has said, ‘I brought Israel up out of Egypt and delivered you from the control of the Egyptians and from the control of all the other kingdoms that were oppressing you.’<sup>19</sup> However, today you have rejected your God, who saves you from all your calamities and your distresses, and you have told Him, ‘No. You must appoint a king over us.’ Now therefore, present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and by your clans!”

<sup>20</sup> Then Samuel made all the tribes of Israel come closer, and the tribe of Benjamin was chosen by lot.

<sup>21</sup> When he had made the tribe of Benjamin come closer by its clans, the clan of the Matrites was chosen by lot. Then Saul the son of Kish was chosen by lot. However, when they searched for him, he could not be found. <sup>22</sup> They inquired further of the LORD, “Has the man come here yet?”

The LORD answered, “Look! He has hidden himself in the baggage.”

<sup>23</sup> Then they ran and brought him from there. When he stood among the people, he was taller than any of the other people were from his shoulders upward.

<sup>24</sup> Samuel asked all the people: “Have you seen the one whom the LORD has chosen? Indeed, there is none like him among all the people.”

Then all the people shouted, “Long live the king!”

<sup>25</sup> Then Samuel explained to the people the legal decisions about the kingship. He wrote them down on a scroll and deposited it before the LORD. Then Samuel dismissed all the people, each one to his own home.

<sup>26</sup> Saul also went to his home at Gibeah. Some brave men, whose hearts God had impressed, also went with Saul. <sup>27</sup> However, some worthless fellows asked, “How can this man save us?”

They despised him and would not bring him any gift. However, Saul showed no disapproval.

11

Saul's rescue of the city of Jabesh-Gilead from the Ammonites

<sup>1</sup> Then Nahash the Ammonite came up and besieged Jabesh-Gilead. All the men of Jabesh told Nahash: “Make a treaty with us! Then we shall be subject to you.”

<sup>2</sup> However, Nahash the Ammonite replied to them: “I shall make a treaty with you on this condition, that I put out all your right eyes, that I may bring disgrace on all Israel.”

<sup>3</sup> The elders of Jabesh answered him: “Leave us alone for seven days, that we may send messengers through all the territory of Israel! Then, if there is no one to save us, we shall come out to you.”

<sup>4</sup> When the messengers came to Saul's city of Gibeah, they reported these terms to the people, and all the people wept aloud. <sup>5</sup> Just then Saul was returning from the field, behind his oxen. Saul asked, “What is wrong with the people, that they should be weeping?” So, they told him what the men of Jabesh had said.

<sup>6</sup> The Spirit of God came on Saul powerfully when he heard these words, and he became very angry. <sup>7</sup> He took a pair of oxen, cut them in pieces and used messengers to send them throughout all the territory of Israel. They proclaimed, “This is what will be done to the oxen of anyone who does not come out with Saul and Samuel!”

Then the terror caused by the LORD fell on the people, and they came out as if they were one man.

<sup>8</sup> When Saul mustered the Israelites at Bezek, they numbered three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah numbered thirty thousand. <sup>9</sup> They told the messengers who had come: “This is what you shall tell the men of Jabesh-Gilead: ‘Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you will be rescued!’”

When the messengers went and reported this to the men of Jabesh, they were glad. <sup>10</sup> Therefore, the men of Jabesh told the Ammonites, “Tomorrow we shall come out to you, and you may do to us whatever you think is right.”

<sup>11</sup> The next day Saul arranged the army in three companies. They invaded the camp of the Ammonites during the morning watch and struck down the Ammonites until the day became hot. Those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

The reaffirmation of Saul's kingship

<sup>12</sup> Then the people said to Samuel: “Who was it who asked, ‘Should Saul reign over us?’ Bring the men, that we may put them to death!”

<sup>13</sup> However, Saul said: “No one shall be put to death today! For today the LORD has achieved salvation in Israel.”

<sup>14</sup> Then Samuel told the people: “Come! Let us go to Gilgal, that we may reaffirm the kingship there!”

<sup>15</sup> Then all the people went to Gilgal, and there at Gilgal they made Saul king in the presence of the LORD. There they also sacrificed peace-offerings before the LORD, and there Saul and all the Israelites held a great celebration.

12

Samuel's address to the Israelites

<sup>1</sup> Samuel told all Israel: “Look! I have listened to everything that you have told me and have appointed a king over you. <sup>2</sup> Now therefore, you see the king leading you, and I myself am old and grey. You also see my sons here with you. I have been moving about among you since I was young until today. <sup>3</sup> Here I am. Testify against me before the LORD and before His anointed king! Whose ox have I taken? Or whose donkey have I taken? Or whom have I oppressed? Whom have I ill-treated? Or from whom have I accepted a bribe so that I should make my eyes blind with it? If so, I shall make restitution to you.”

<sup>4</sup> They replied, “You have not oppressed us, ill-treated us or accepted anything from anyone.”

<sup>5</sup> Samuel told them: “The LORD is witness against you and His anointed king is witness today, that you have not found anything in my possession.”

They answered, "He is witness."

<sup>6</sup> Then Samuel told the people: "The LORD is witness, the One who appointed Moses and Aaron and who brought your forefathers up out of the land of Egypt. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore, stand here, that I may put you on trial in the presence of the LORD and cite all the righteous deeds that the LORD has been performing for you and for your fathers! <sup>8</sup> When Jacob had gone to Egypt and your fathers cried out to the LORD, the LORD sent Moses and Aaron. They led your forefathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place. <sup>9</sup> However, they forgot the LORD, their God. So, He sold them into the control of Sisera, the commander of the army of Hazor, into the control of the Philistines and into the control of the king of Moab, and they fought against them. <sup>10</sup> Then they cried out to the LORD and said, 'We have been sinning, because we have forsaken the LORD and have been serving the Baals and the Ashtaroth. However, now deliver us from the control of our enemies, that we may serve You!' <sup>11</sup> Then the LORD sent Jerub-Baal, Barak, Jephthah and Samuel and delivered you from the control of your enemies on every side, and you lived in safety. <sup>12</sup> However, when you saw that Nahash, the king of the Ammonites, had come against you, you told me, 'No, but a king should be reigning over us!' although the LORD, your God, was your King. <sup>13</sup> Now therefore, you see the king whom you have chosen and whom you had requested. You see that the LORD has set a king over you. <sup>14</sup> If you fear the LORD, serve Him, listen to what He says and do not rebel against what the LORD commands, then both you and the king who has begun to reign over you will continue to follow the LORD, your God. <sup>15</sup> However, if you do not listen to what the LORD says but rebel against what the LORD commands, then the hand of the LORD will be against you as it was against your fathers. <sup>16</sup> Now therefore, stand here and look at this great thing, which the LORD will do while you are watching! <sup>17</sup> Is it not the wheat harvest today? I shall call on the LORD, that he may send thunder and rain. Then you will realise and see that you were doing something that the LORD regarded as very wicked when you were asking for your own king."

<sup>18</sup> Then Samuel called on the LORD, and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day, and all the people feared the LORD and Samuel very much. <sup>19</sup> All the people asked Samuel: "Pray to the LORD, your God, on behalf of your servants, that we may not die! For we have added to all our sins the evil of asking for our own king."

<sup>20</sup> However, Samuel told the people: "Do not be afraid! You have done all this evil. Nevertheless, do not turn aside from following the LORD but serve the LORD with all your hearts! <sup>21</sup> Do not turn away after meaningless idols! They cannot do you any good and cannot rescue you. For they do not exist. <sup>22</sup> For the LORD will not abandon His people for the sake of His great name. For the LORD has conferred the benefit of making you His own people. <sup>23</sup> Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by ceasing to pray on your behalf! I shall also teach you the way that is good and right. <sup>24</sup> Only fear the LORD and serve Him faithfully with all your hearts! For consider what great things He has done for you! <sup>25</sup> However, if you persist in being wicked, both you and your king will be swept away."

13

War against the Philistines

<sup>1</sup> Saul reigned for one year and when, he had reigned for two years over Israel, <sup>2</sup> Saul chose three thousand men from Israel. Two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the hill-country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah in Benjamin. He sent the rest of the army back to their homes. <sup>3</sup> Jonathan defeated the military post of the Philistines that was at Geba, and the Philistines heard about it. Then Saul blew the ram's horn throughout the whole land, saying, "Let the Hebrews listen!"

<sup>4</sup> All Israel heard the report: "Saul has defeated the military post of the Philistines, and Israel has also become odious to the Philistines."

Then the army was called out to join Saul at Gilgal.

<sup>5</sup> The Philistines assembled to fight against Israel. There were thirty thousand chariots and six thousand horsemen and as many soldiers as the sand on the seashore. They went up and camped in Michmash, to the east of Beth-Aven. <sup>6</sup> When the men of Israel saw that they were in trouble, because the soldiers were hard pressed, the soldiers hid in caves, in thorn-bushes, in rocks, in cellars and in cisterns. <sup>7</sup> Some Hebrews crossed the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. However, Saul was still at Gilgal, and all the soldiers who were with him trembled with fear.

Saul's disobedient offering of a sacrifice

<sup>8</sup> He waited for seven days, the time appointed by Samuel. However, Samuel had not come to Gilgal, and the soldiers were leaving him and scattering. <sup>9</sup> Then Saul said, "Bring the burnt offering and the peace-offerings here to me!"

So, he offered the burnt offering. <sup>10</sup> As soon as he had finished making the burnt offering, Samuel arrived. Saul went out to meet him and to greet him. <sup>11</sup> Samuel asked, "What have you done?"

Saul replied: "I saw that the soldiers were leaving me and scattering, that you had not come at the set time and that the Philistines were assembling at Michmash.

<sup>12</sup> So, I thought, 'Now the Philistines will come down against me at Gilgal before I have conciliated the presence of the LORD.' I took a risk and performed the burnt offering."

<sup>13</sup> Samuel told Saul: "You have behaved foolishly. You have not kept the Commandment that the LORD, your God, has given you. Otherwise, the LORD would have made your kingdom over Israel last for ever. <sup>14</sup> However, now your kingdom will not continue. The LORD has looked for a man after His own heart and the LORD has appointed him to be the leader over His people. For you have not kept what the LORD has commanded you.”

<sup>15</sup> Then Samuel left Gilgal and went up to Gibeah in Benjamin. When Saul counted the soldiers who were present with him, they numbered about six hundred men.

Israel's difficulty in resisting the Philistines without weapons

<sup>16</sup> Saul, his son Jonathan and the soldiers who were present with them stayed at Geba in Benjamin, while the Philistines camped at Michmash. <sup>17</sup> Raiding parties came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies. One company turned towards Ophrah, to the region of Shual. <sup>18</sup> Another company turned towards Beth-Horon, and another company turned towards the borderland that overlooks the valley of Zeboim facing the wilderness. <sup>19</sup> No blacksmith could be found throughout the land of Israel. For the Philistines said, “Otherwise the Hebrews will make swords or spears!” <sup>20</sup> Everyone in Israel went down to the Philistines to sharpen his plough-point, his mattock, his axe and his sickle. <sup>21</sup> The charge for sharpening the plough-points and the mattocks was eight grams of silver each and four grams of silver for a sharpened iron, for axes and for re-pointing ox-goats. <sup>22</sup> Therefore, on the day of the battle there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the soldiers with Saul and Jonathan. However, Saul and his son Jonathan had them.

<sup>23</sup> A detachment of Philistine sentries had gone out to the pass at Michmash.

14

Jonathan's surprise-attack on a Philistine sentry-post

<sup>1</sup> One day, Jonathan, the son of Saul, told the young man who used to carry his armour, “Come! Let us go across to the Philistine sentry-post over there on the other side!”

However, he did not tell his father. <sup>2</sup> Saul was staying in the outskirts of Gibeah at the pomegranate tree in Migron. He had about six hundred soldiers with him.

<sup>3</sup> Among them was Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of the LORD at Shiloh, who was wearing a priestly garment. The soldiers did not know that Jonathan had left. <sup>4</sup> Between the ravines where Jonathan tried to find a way to go across to attack the Philistine sentry-post there was a rocky crag on the one side and another rocky crag on the other side. The name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other was Seneh.

<sup>5</sup> The one crag rose like a pillar on the north facing Michmash, and the other was on the south facing Geba. <sup>6</sup> Jonathan told the young man who was carrying his armour: “Come! Let us go across to the sentry-post of these uncircumcised people! Perhaps the LORD will work for us. For nothing can prevent the LORD from saving whether He uses many or few.”

<sup>7</sup> His armour-bearer told him: “Do all that you have in mind! Go ahead! I am here with you in what you are planning.”

<sup>8</sup> Then Jonathan said: “Very well, we are going across to the men and shall make ourselves known to them.

<sup>9</sup> If they answer us in this way: ‘Wait until we reach you!’ then we shall stand still where we are and not go up to them. <sup>10</sup> However, if they answer like this, ‘Come up to us!’ then we shall go up. For the LORD has given them into our hands. This will be the sign for us.”

<sup>11</sup> So, both of them showed themselves to the Philistine sentry-post. The Philistines said, “Look! Hebrews are coming out of the caves where they have been hiding!”

<sup>12</sup> The men at the sentry-post called out to Jonathan and his armour-bearer: “Come up to us, that we may inform you of something!”

Jonathan told his armour-bearer: “Come up after me! For the LORD has delivered them into the hands of Israel.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and knees, with his armour-bearer following him. The Philistines fell before Jonathan, and his armour-bearer came behind him and killed them. <sup>14</sup> That first strike, which Jonathan and his armour-bearer made, killed about twenty men inside an area of about a fifth of a hectare.

Israel's defeat of the Philistines

<sup>15</sup> There was a panic in the camp, in the open country and among all the people. The sentry-post and the raiders also trembled with fear. The earth quaked. This became a panic sent by God. <sup>16</sup> When the look-outs of Saul at Gibeah in Benjamin looked, they saw that the crowd was melting away and moving in different directions. <sup>17</sup> Then Saul told the soldiers who were with him: “Please take a count and see who has left us!”

When they had taken a count, they realised that Jonathan and his armour-bearer were absent. <sup>18</sup> Then Saul told Ahijah, “Bring the Ark of God here!”

For on that occasion the Ark of God accompanied the Israelites. <sup>19</sup> While Saul was talking to the priest, the tumult in the camp of the Philistines became louder and louder. Then Saul told the priest, “Stop what you are doing!”

<sup>20</sup> Saul and all the soldiers who were with him assembled and went into the battle. They found the Philistines in extreme confusion, striking each other with their swords. <sup>21</sup> Even the Hebrews who had previously sided with the Philistines and who had gone up with them and were distributed in their camp also joined the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. <sup>22</sup> When all the men of Israel who were hiding in the hill-country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines had fled, they also followed hard after them in the battle.

<sup>23</sup> So, the LORD saved Israel that day. The battle moved on beyond Beth-Aven.

Jonathan's violation of Saul's oath by eating honey

<sup>24</sup> The men of Israel had been driven hard on that day, because Saul had threatened the soldiers with a curse, saying, "Cursed be anyone who eats food before evening comes and before I have taken revenge on my enemies!"

So, none of the soldiers had tasted any food. <sup>25</sup> When all the soldiers of the land entered the forest, they saw some honey on the ground. <sup>26</sup> However, when the soldiers entered the forest, although they saw the flowing honey, none of the soldiers put his hand to his mouth, because they feared the oath. <sup>27</sup> Since Jonathan had not heard his father bind the soldiers with the oath, he held out the tip of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it into the honeycomb. When he raised his hand to his mouth, he was refreshed. <sup>28</sup> Then one of the soldiers said: "Your father bound the army under a strict oath, saying, 'Cursed be any man who eats food today!' That is why the soldiers are exhausted."

<sup>29</sup> Then Jonathan said: "My father has caused trouble for the country. Please observe that I was refreshed when I tasted a little of this honey! <sup>30</sup> Surely it would have been better if today the soldiers had freely eaten some of their enemies' plunder, which they had found. For then would not the slaughter among the Philistines have been all the greater?"

<sup>31</sup> That day, after the soldiers had struck down the Philistines from Michmash to Aijalon, they were thoroughly exhausted. <sup>32</sup> The soldiers rushed on the plunder, took sheep, cattle and calves and slaughtered them on the ground. The soldiers ate the meat with the blood in it. <sup>33</sup> Some men told Saul, "Look! The soldiers are sinning against the LORD by eating meat with the blood."

Saul said, "You have broken faith. Roll a large stone over to me at once!"

<sup>34</sup> He said: "Scatter around among the soldiers and tell them, 'Everyone should bring his ox or his sheep here to me! You must slaughter them here! Then you may eat. You shall not sin against the LORD by eating meat with the blood in it!'"

So, each of the soldiers brought his ox with him that night and butchered them there. <sup>35</sup> Then Saul built an altar to the LORD. It was the first altar that he built to the LORD. <sup>36</sup> Then Saul said: "Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them until dawn! Let us not leave any survivors among them!"

They replied, "Do whatever you think is best!"

However, the priest said, "Let us approach God here!"

<sup>37</sup> Saul inquired of God: "Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will You deliver them into Israel's hands?"

However, God did not answer Saul that day.

The rescue of Jonathan from death after Saul's rash oath

<sup>38</sup> Saul said: "Come here, all you leaders of the army. Find out and see in what way a sin has been committed here today. <sup>39</sup> For as surely as the LORD, who rescues Israel, lives, even if it is in my son Jonathan, he will surely die!"

However, not one of all the soldiers would answer him. <sup>40</sup> Then he told all the Israelites, "You shall stand on one side, and I and my son Jonathan shall stand on the other side."

The soldiers told Saul, "Do what you think is best!"

<sup>41</sup> Then Saul said, "O LORD, God of Israel, give the right answer!"

Jonathan and Saul were taken by lot, and the rest of the soldiers were cleared. <sup>42</sup> Then Saul said, "Cast the lot between me and my son Jonathan!"

Then Jonathan was taken. <sup>43</sup> Saul asked Jonathan, "Tell me what you have done!"

Jonathan told him: "I merely tasted a little honey on the tip of the staff, which I was holding. Here I am. I must die."

<sup>44</sup> Saul said, "May God treat me like this and even worse if you do not certainly die, Jonathan!"

<sup>45</sup> However, the soldiers asked Saul: "Must Jonathan die, when he has brought about this great deliverance in Israel? Not at all! As surely as the LORD lives, not one hair of his head shall fall to the ground! For he has been working with God today."

So, the people rescued Jonathan, so that he did not die. <sup>46</sup> Then Saul broke off the pursuit of the Philistines, and the Philistines withdrew to their own land.

Wars in which Saul led the Israelites against surrounding nations

<sup>47</sup> After Saul had assumed the kingship over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, against the Ammonites, against Edom, against the kings of Zobah and against the Philistines. Wherever he turned he kept punishing them. <sup>48</sup> He fought courageously, struck down the Amalekites and rescued Israel from those who had been plundering them.

The family of Saul

<sup>49</sup> The sons of Saul were Jonathan, Ishvi and Malchishua. The name of the elder of his two daughters was Merab, and the name of his younger daughter was Michal. <sup>50</sup> The name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the commander of his army was Abner, the son of Saul's uncle, Ner. <sup>51</sup> Saul's father, Kish, and Abner's father, Ner, were the sons of Abiel. <sup>52</sup> There was fierce fighting against the Philistines all Saul's life. Whenever Saul saw any warrior or any courageous man, he took him into his service.

15

Saul's defeat of the Amalekites and his disobedient sparing of their king

<sup>1</sup> Samuel told Saul: "The LORD sent me to anoint you king over His people Israel. Now therefore, listen to what the LORD has commanded! <sup>2</sup> This is what the LORD of hosts has said, 'I have called to account what the Amalekites did to Israel when they stood in their way while they were coming up from Egypt.

<sup>3</sup> Now go, strike down the Amalekites and devote to destruction everything that they have! You shall not spare them but shall kill men, women, young children, infants, oxen, sheep, camels and donkeys!”

<sup>4</sup> Saul summoned the soldiers and mustered them at Telaim. He counted two hundred thousand men on foot and ten thousand men from Judah. <sup>5</sup> Saul came to the city of Amalek and set an ambush in the bed of the stream. <sup>6</sup> Then Saul told the Kenites: “Go away! Leave! Go down away from the Amalekites, that I may not exterminate you with them! You yourselves were kind to all the Israelites when they were coming up from Egypt.”

So, the Kenites moved away from the Amalekites.

<sup>7</sup> Saul struck down the Amalekites from Havilah as far as Shur, which is east of Egypt. <sup>8</sup> He captured Agag, the king of the Amalekites, alive but devoted all the people to destruction with the edge of the sword. <sup>9</sup> However, Saul and the soldiers spared Agag and the best of the sheep, the cattle, the more valuable calves and the young rams and everything else that was good. They were unwilling to destroy them totally. However, they devoted everything that was of little value and weak to destruction. <sup>10</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to Samuel: <sup>11</sup> “I have come to regret that I made Saul king. For he has turned away from following Me and has not carried out My Instructions.”

Samuel became indignant and cried out to the LORD all that night. <sup>12</sup> Samuel rose early in the morning and went to meet Saul. However, Samuel was told: “Saul has gone to Carmel. There he set up a monument in his own honour. Next he turned and continued on down to Gilgal.”

<sup>13</sup> When Samuel reached him, Saul told him: “May the LORD bless you! I have carried out what the LORD told me.”

<sup>14</sup> However, Samuel asked, “What, then, is this bleating of sheep in my ears and the bellowing of cattle that I hear?”

<sup>15</sup> Saul answered: “They have brought them from the Amalekites, because the soldiers have spared the best of the sheep and the cattle, to sacrifice them to the LORD, your God. We have devoted the rest to destruction.”

<sup>16</sup> Then Samuel told Saul: “Stop! Let me tell you what the LORD told me last night!”

Saul told him, “Speak on!”

<sup>17</sup> Samuel said: “Although you did not have a high regard of yourself, are you not the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel. <sup>18</sup> The LORD sent you on an errand. He said, ‘Go and devote those sinners, the Amalekites, to destruction! Fight against them until you exterminate them!’

<sup>19</sup> Why, then, have you not listened to what the LORD has said? Why have you swooped down on the plunder and done what the LORD regards as evil?”

<sup>20</sup> However, Saul told Samuel: “I have obeyed what the LORD has said. I have gone on the errand on which the LORD sent me. I have also brought back Agag, the king of the Amalekites and have devoted the Amalekites to total destruction. <sup>21</sup> However, the soldiers took some of the plunder, sheep and oxen, the best of the things devoted to destruction, to offer a sacrifice to the LORD, your God, at Gilgal.”

<sup>22</sup> However, Samuel replied: “Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obedience to what the LORD says? Look! Obedience is better than sacrifice, and paying attention is better than the fat of rams. <sup>23</sup> For rebellion is as sinful as divination, and obstinacy is like false worship and idols. Because you have rejected what the LORD has said, He has also rejected you from being king.”

<sup>24</sup> Saul told Samuel: “I have sinned. For I transgressed what the LORD commanded and what you said. For I was afraid of the soldiers and listened to what they said. <sup>25</sup> Now therefore, please forgive my sin and come back with me, that I may worship the LORD!”

The rejection of Saul as king

<sup>26</sup> However, Samuel told Saul: “I shall not go back with you. For you have rejected what the LORD has said, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel.”

<sup>27</sup> When Samuel turned around to leave, Saul took hold of the edge of Samuel’s robe, and it tore.

<sup>28</sup> Samuel told him: “The LORD has torn the kingship of Israel away from you today and has given it to a neighbour of yours, who is better than you.

<sup>29</sup> Moreover, the Glory of Israel will not lie or change His mind. For He is not a human being, that He should change His mind.”

<sup>30</sup> Then Saul replied: “I have sinned. Please honour me now before the elders of my people and before Israel and come back with me, that I may worship the LORD, your God!”

<sup>31</sup> Then Samuel went back with Saul, and Saul worshipped the LORD. <sup>32</sup> Then Samuel said, “Bring Agag, the king of the Amalekites, here to me!”

Agag came to him cheerfully. Agag said, “Surely the bitterness of death has gone away!”

<sup>33</sup> However, Samuel said, “As your sword has made women childless, so your mother will be childless among women.”

Samuel cut Agag in pieces before the LORD at Gilgal.

<sup>34</sup> Then Samuel went to Ramah, and Saul went up to his home in Gibeah of Saul. <sup>35</sup> Samuel did not see Saul again until the day of his death but Samuel observed mourning rites for Saul. The LORD also regretted that He had made Saul king over Israel.

16

God’s choice of David to be king and his anointing at Bethlehem

<sup>1</sup> The LORD asked Samuel: “How long are you going to keep observing mourning rites over Saul, although I have rejected him from being king of Israel? Fill your horn with olive-oil and go! I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem. For I have provided Myself a king from one of his sons.”

<sup>2</sup> Samuel asked: “How can I go? When Saul hears about it, he will kill me.”

The LORD replied: “Take a heifer with you and say, ‘I have come to sacrifice to the LORD!’ <sup>3</sup> Then invite Jesse to the sacrifice! I shall inform you what to do. You shall anoint for Me the one whom I indicate to you!”

<sup>4</sup> Samuel did what the LORD had told him and went to Bethlehem. The elders of the city were trembling with fear when they met him. They asked, “Have you come for a friendly purpose?”

<sup>5</sup> He answered: “For a friendly purpose. I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves and come with me to the sacrifice!”

He consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice. <sup>6</sup> When they came, Samuel saw Eliab and thought, “Surely the anointed of the LORD is in His presence!”

<sup>7</sup> However, the LORD told Samuel: “Do not take notice of what he looks like or of how tall he is! For I have rejected him. For it is not what a human being sees that counts. For a human being looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”

<sup>8</sup> Then Jesse called Abinadab and made him walk past in front of Samuel. However, Samuel said, “The LORD has not chosen this one, either.”

<sup>9</sup> Then Jesse made Shammah walk past, but Samuel said, “The LORD has not chosen this one, either.”

<sup>10</sup> When Jesse had made his seven sons walk past in front of Samuel, Samuel told him, “The LORD has not chosen these.”

<sup>11</sup> Then Samuel asked Jesse, “Have all the young men come?”

He answered: “There is still the youngest one left. You see, he is looking after the sheep.”

Samuel told Jesse: “Send someone to fetch him! For we shall not sit down around the table until he gets here.”

<sup>12</sup> Jesse sent someone to fetch him. He had a ruddy complexion, attractive eyes and a handsome appearance. The LORD said: “Get up and anoint him! For this is the one.”

<sup>13</sup> Then Samuel took the horn of olive-oil and anointed him in the presence of his brothers. The Spirit of the LORD came on David powerfully and from that day onward. Then Samuel left and went to Ramah.

David's playing of music on his lyre during his service to Saul

<sup>14</sup> However, the Spirit of the LORD had left Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD terrified him. <sup>15</sup> Saul's officials told him: “Please consider! An evil spirit from God is terrifying you. <sup>16</sup> Please, let our master command us, your servants, who are waiting on you, to search for a man who is skilful in playing the lyre! When the evil spirit from God comes on you, let him play it with his hands! Then you will feel better.”

<sup>17</sup> Saul told his officials, “Please provide me with a man who plays well and bring him to me!”

<sup>18</sup> One of the officials answered: “Look! I have seen a son of Jesse of Bethlehem who is a skilful player, a brave warrior and a man of war. He is a skilful speaker, a handsome man, and the LORD is with him.”

<sup>19</sup> Therefore, Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, “Send me your son David, who is with the sheep!”

<sup>20</sup> Jesse took a donkey-load of bread, a skin of wine and a young goat and had his son David take them to Saul. <sup>21</sup> When David came to Saul, he entered his service. Saul loved him very much, and he became his armour-bearer. <sup>22</sup> Saul sent word to Jesse, saying: “Please let David remain in my service! For I have been pleased with him.”

<sup>23</sup> When the spirit from God came on Saul, David used to take his lyre and played it with his hands. Then Saul felt relieved and became well, and the evil spirit used to leave him.

17

David's victory over Goliath

<sup>1</sup> The Philistines gathered their armies for battle. They assembled at Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and pitched camp between Socoh and Azekah at Ephes-Dammim. <sup>2</sup> Saul and the men of Israel assembled, pitched camp in the Valley of Elah and drew up in battle order against the Philistines. <sup>3</sup> The Philistines were stationed on a mountain on one side, the Israelites were stationed on a mountain on the other side, and there was a valley between them. <sup>4</sup> A champion came out of the camp of the Philistines. His name was Goliath, and he was from Gath. His height was three hundred and twenty-five centimetres. <sup>5</sup> He had a bronze helmet on his head and wore a bronze coat of scale-armour. The coat weighed sixty kilograms. <sup>6</sup> He had bronze leggings and slung a bronze javelin between his shoulders. <sup>7</sup> The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam. The blade of his iron spear weighed seven kilograms. The man who carried his shield used to walk in front of him. <sup>8</sup> Goliath stood and called out to the battle-lines of Israel. He asked them: “Why are you coming out to form up in order for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not Saul's servants? Make someone your representative and let him come down to me! <sup>9</sup> If he can fight with me and kills me, then we shall become your slaves. However, if I overpower him and kill him, then you will become our slaves and serve us.”

<sup>10</sup> Then the Philistine said: “I have defied the battle-lines of Israel today. Provide me with a man that we may fight each other!”

<sup>11</sup> When Saul and all the other Israelites heard these words of the Philistine, they were dismayed and very afraid.

<sup>12</sup> David was the son of that Ephrathite from Bethlehem in Judah whose name was Jesse. Jesse had eight sons and in Saul's days he was already an old man among the people. <sup>13</sup> Jesse's three eldest sons had gone to follow Saul to the battle. The names of his three sons who had gone to the battle were Eliab, the first-born and next to him was Abinadab and the third was Shammah. <sup>14</sup> David was the youngest. The three eldest followed Saul. <sup>15</sup> However, David used to go back and forth from Saul to take care of his father's flock at Bethlehem. <sup>16</sup> The Philistine came forward and took up his position every morning and evening for forty days.

<sup>17</sup> Jesse told his son David: "Take these forty litres of roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread to your brothers! Take them quickly to your brothers at the camp! <sup>18</sup> Take also these ten pieces of cheese to the captain of their regiment! See if your brothers are well and get some evidence from them that you have carried out your errand!"

<sup>19</sup> Saul, David's brothers and all the men of Israel were in the Valley of Elah, fighting against the Philistines. <sup>20</sup> David got up early and left the sheep with a shepherd. Then he took the load and went, as Jesse had told him to do. He came to the encampment as the army was going out to the battle-line and shouting for the battle. <sup>21</sup> Israel and the Philistines had drawn up their battle-lines facing each other. <sup>22</sup> David left the supplies that he had been carrying in the hands of the keeper of supplies and ran to the battle-line. When he arrived there, he greeted his brothers. <sup>23</sup> While he was talking to them, the champion, the Philistine from Gath, whose name was Goliath, came up out of the battle-lines of the Philistines. He repeated his words, and David heard them. <sup>24</sup> When all the men of Israel saw the man, they ran away from him in terror.

<sup>25</sup> The men of Israel asked: "Have you seen this man who is coming up? For he keeps coming up to defy Israel. The king will make the man who kills him very rich. He will give his daughter to him and make his father's family exempt from taxes in Israel."

<sup>26</sup> David asked the men who were standing near him: "What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and frees Israel from this disgrace? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he has defied the battle-lines of the living God?"

<sup>27</sup> The soldiers repeated to him what they had been saying. They told him, "This is what will be done for the man who kills him."

<sup>28</sup> When Eliab, his eldest brother, heard David talking to the men, Eliab became very angry with him. Eliab asked him: "Why have you come down here and with whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know how arrogant and insolent you are. For you have come down to watch the battle."

<sup>29</sup> David asked him: "What have I done now? Have I not merely asked a question?"

<sup>30</sup> He turned away from him to another man and asked the same question, and these soldiers answered him as the first ones had done. <sup>31</sup> What David was saying was overheard and reported to Saul, and Saul sent for him. <sup>32</sup> David told Saul: "No one should be discouraged because of him! I, your servant, shall go and fight with this Philistine."

<sup>33</sup> Saul answered David: "You cannot go against this Philistine and fight with him. For you are only a young man, and he has been a warrior since he was young."

<sup>34</sup> David replied to Saul: "I, your servant, have been a shepherd of my father's sheep. When a lion or a bear comes and takes a sheep from the flock, <sup>35</sup> I go out after him, strike him down and snatch the sheep from his mouth. If he attacks me, I take hold of his beard, strike him and kill him. <sup>36</sup> I, your servant, have struck down both a lion and a bear. This uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, because he has defied the battle-lines of the living God."

<sup>37</sup> David added: "The LORD, who has saved me from the paw of the lion and from the paw of the bear, will save me from the hand of this Philistine."

Then Saul told David, "Go! May the LORD be with you!"

<sup>38</sup> Saul dressed David in his own tunic. Saul tried to put a bronze helmet on his head and dressed him in a coat of mail. <sup>39</sup> David fastened Saul's sword over his tunic and tried to walk but had not tried them out. David told Saul: "I cannot walk in these. For I have not tried them out."

Therefore, David took them off. <sup>40</sup> Then he took his staff in his hand, selected five smooth stones from the stream-bed and put them in his shepherd's bag, in a pouch. He approached the Philistine with his sling in his hand. <sup>41</sup> The Philistine kept coming closer to David, with the man who was carrying his shield in front of him. <sup>42</sup> When the Philistine looked David over, he despised him, because he was only a boy, ruddy and good-looking. <sup>43</sup> The Philistine asked David: "Am I a dog, that you are coming to me with sticks?"

The Philistine cursed David by his gods. <sup>44</sup> The Philistine told David: "Come to me, and I shall give your flesh to the birds of the air and the animals in the field!"

<sup>45</sup> David told the Philistine: "You are coming to me with a sword, a spear and a javelin, but I am coming to you in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the battle-lines of Israel, whom you have been defying! <sup>46</sup> Today the LORD will deliver you into my hands. I shall strike you down and cut off your head. Today I shall also give the corpses of the army of the Philistines to the birds of the sky and the animals on the ground, that the whole world may know that there is a God in Israel, <sup>47</sup> and that this whole assembly may know that the LORD does not save with a sword and a spear. For the battle belongs to the LORD, and He will deliver all of you into our control."

<sup>48</sup> When the Philistine started out and was coming closer to meet David, David ran quickly towards the opposing battle-line to meet the Philistine. <sup>49</sup> Then David put his hand into his bag, took a stone out of it, slung it and struck the Philistine on his forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell to the ground on his face.

<sup>50</sup> Therefore, David defeated the Philistine with a sling and a stone. David struck down the Philistine and killed him, although he did not have a sword in his hand. <sup>51</sup> David ran and stood over the Philistine. He took Goliath's sword, pulled it out of its scabbard and killed him, cutting off his head with it. When the Philistines saw that their hero was dead, they fled.

<sup>52</sup> Then the men of Israel and Judah started out with a shout, pursued the Philistines to the entrance of Gai and to the gates of Ekron. Wounded Philistines fell along the road from Shaaraim as far as Gath and Ekron. <sup>53</sup> When the Israelites returned from their hot pursuit of the Philistines, they plundered their camp.

<sup>54</sup> David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem but put Goliath's armour in his own tent.

<sup>55</sup> When Saul had seen David going out to meet the Philistine, he had asked Abner, the captain of his army, "Abner, whose son is this young man?"

Abner had answered, "As surely as your soul lives, O king, I do not know."

<sup>56</sup> The king had said, "Find out personally whose son this young man is."

<sup>57</sup> When David came back after he had killed the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul. David had the Philistine's head in his hand.

<sup>58</sup> Saul asked him, "Whose son are you, young man?" David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse of Bethlehem."

18

The friendship between David and Jonathan

<sup>1</sup> When David had finished speaking to Saul, Jonathan's soul became bound together with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as much as he loved himself. <sup>2</sup> On that day Saul kept David with him and did not permit him to go back to his father's home.

<sup>3</sup> Jonathan made a covenant with David, because he loved him as much as he loved himself. <sup>4</sup> Jonathan took off the robe he was wearing and gave it to David, along with his military garment and even his sword, his bow and his belt. <sup>5</sup> Therefore, David went out wherever Saul sent him and was successful. Saul put him in charge of the fighting men, and all the people and Saul's officials also approved of him.

Saul's jealousy of David

<sup>6</sup> When the men were coming home, as David returned after he had struck down the Philistine, the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet King Saul, with tambourines, with songs of joy and with musical instruments. <sup>7</sup> The women sang to one another as they danced, "Saul has struck down his thousands, and David his ten thousands."

<sup>8</sup> Saul was very angry, because he disliked these words. He said: "They have ascribed to David ten thousands but have ascribed only thousands to me. What more can he have but the kingdom?"

Saul's attempt to kill David

<sup>9</sup> Saul treated David with suspicion from that day on.

<sup>10</sup> The next day an evil spirit from God came on Saul powerfully, and he raved inside his house. While David was playing the lyre with his hands, as he usually did, Saul had his spear in his hand. <sup>11</sup> Saul threw the spear, thinking, "I shall impale David to the wall."

However, David got away from him twice. <sup>12</sup> Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him but had left Saul. <sup>13</sup> Saul removed him from his presence and made him the commander of a regiment. So, David marched out and returned at the head of the army. <sup>14</sup> David was successful in everything he undertook, and the LORD was with him. <sup>15</sup> When Saul noticed that he was being very successful, he was afraid of him. <sup>16</sup> Everyone in Israel and Judah loved David, because he moved about among them as their leader.

David's marriage to Saul's daughter Michal

<sup>17</sup> Then Saul told David: "Here is my elder daughter Merab. I shall give her to you as your wife. Only serve me bravely and fight the battles of the LORD!" For Saul thought: "I must not harm him myself. Let the Philistines harm him!"

<sup>18</sup> David asked Saul: "Who am I, what is my life and who are my father's clan in Israel, that I should become the king's son-in-law?"

<sup>19</sup> However, when the time came when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, she was given to Adriel from Meholah as his wife. <sup>20</sup> Saul's daughter Michal was in love with David. When people told Saul about it, he was pleased. <sup>21</sup> Saul thought: "Let me give her to him, that she may be a snare for him and that the Philistines may lay their hands on him!"

Therefore, Saul told David a second time, "You will now become my son-in-law."

<sup>22</sup> Saul commanded his officials: "Speak to David in private and tell him, 'Look! The king is pleased with you, and all his officials love you. Now therefore, become the king's son-in-law!'"

<sup>23</sup> When Saul's officials repeated those words to David, he asked: "Do you think it is a trifle to become the king's son-in-law when I am a poor man and people think little of me?"

<sup>24</sup> When Saul's officials told him, "David spoke in this kind of way," <sup>25</sup> Saul replied: "This is what you shall tell David, 'The king does not want any bridal money except a hundred foreskins of the Philistines, that the king may take revenge on his enemies!'"

Saul thought that he would get the Philistines to take David's life. <sup>26</sup> When his officials told David this, the idea of becoming the king's son-in-law appealed to him. Before the time had expired, <sup>27</sup> David acted. He and his men went and struck down two hundred Philistines. David brought their foreskins and presented the full number to the king, that he might become the king's son-in-law. Then Saul gave him his daughter Michal as his wife. <sup>28</sup> When Saul saw for certain that the LORD was with David, and that his daughter Michal loved David, <sup>29</sup> Saul became still more afraid of David. Saul then became David's enemy for the rest of his life. <sup>30</sup> The princes of the Philistines continued to come out to battle, and whenever they came out David had more success than all the rest of Saul's officials did, so that David gained a very high reputation.

19

Jonathan's intercession for David

<sup>1</sup> Saul told his son Jonathan and all his officials that they should kill David. However, Saul's son Jonathan was very fond of David. <sup>2</sup> Jonathan told David: "My father Saul is trying to kill you. Now therefore, be on your guard tomorrow morning! Hide in a secret place and stay there! <sup>3</sup> I shall go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are and shall speak to my father about you. If I learn anything I shall tell you."

<sup>4</sup> Jonathan spoke well about David to his father Saul. He told him: "The king should not sin against his servant David! For he has not sinned against you, and what he has been doing has benefited you greatly. <sup>5</sup> He risked his life when he struck down the Philistine, and the LORD accomplished a great victory for all Israel. You were glad when you saw it. Why then will you be guilty of murdering an innocent man by killing David without a reason?"

<sup>6</sup> Saul listened to Jonathan's advice. Saul swore, "As surely as the LORD lives he will certainly not be put to death."

<sup>7</sup> Jonathan called David and reported all this to him. Then Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he continued to be in his presence as he had been previously.

<sup>8</sup> When there was war again, David went out and fought against the Philistines. He inflicted a great defeat on them, and they fled from him.

Saul's attempt to kill David and Michal's rescue of him

<sup>9</sup> Then an evil spirit from the LORD came on Saul while he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand. While David was playing the lyre with his hands, <sup>10</sup> Saul attempted to pin David to the wall with the spear, but he escaped from Saul, so that Saul drove the spear into the wall. David escaped and fled that night. <sup>11</sup> Saul had sent messengers to David's house to watch it, that he might kill him in the morning. However, Michal, David's wife, had told him, "If you do not save yourself tonight, you will be killed tomorrow."

<sup>12</sup> So, Michal had let David down through a window, and he had run away and escaped. <sup>13</sup> Then Michal took a figurine, laid it on the bed, put a braided cushion of goats' hair at its head and covered it with the clothes. <sup>14</sup> When Saul sent messengers to fetch David, she said, "He is sick."

<sup>15</sup> When Saul sent the messengers to see David, he told them, "Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him!"

<sup>16</sup> When the messengers came in, they saw the figurine in the bed, with the braided cushion of goats' hair at its head. <sup>17</sup> Saul asked Michal, "Why have you deceived me like this and let my enemy go, so that he has escaped?"

Michal answered Saul, "He told me himself, 'Help me get away! Why should I kill you?'"

David's meeting with Samuel at Naioth

<sup>18</sup> When David ran away and escaped, he came to Samuel at Ramah and told him all that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went to Naioth and stayed there. <sup>19</sup> Then Saul was told, "You should know that David is at Naioth in Ramah!"

<sup>20</sup> Then Saul sent messengers to fetch David. However, when the men saw the group of prophets prophesying, with Samuel standing there as their leader, the Spirit of God came on the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. <sup>21</sup> When people told Saul about it, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. When Saul sent a third group of messengers, they also prophesied. <sup>22</sup> Then Saul himself went to Ramah. He came to the large cistern at Secu and asked, "Where are Samuel and David?"

Someone answered, "I tell you, they are at Naioth in Ramah."

<sup>23</sup> He went there, to Naioth in Ramah. However, the Spirit of God came on him also and, as he went along, he prophesied until he came to Naioth in Ramah.

<sup>24</sup> He also stripped off his robes and prophesied in Samuel's presence. He lay naked all that day and all that night. This is why people use the expression, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

20

Jonathan's assistance to David

<sup>1</sup> Then David fled from Naioth in Ramah, came to Jonathan and asked: "What have I done? Of what am I guilty? What is my sin against your father, that he should be trying to kill me?"

<sup>2</sup> Jonathan answered him: "Not at all! You will not die! Look! My father does not do anything either great or small without disclosing it to me. Why should my father hide this from me? It is not so!"

<sup>3</sup> However, David took another oath and said: "Your father knows for certain that you are kindly disposed towards me. He has been thinking, 'Jonathan must not know this or he will be distressed.' However, as surely as the LORD lives and as you live, there is only a step between me and death."

<sup>4</sup> Then Jonathan told David, "I shall do for you whatever you request."

<sup>5</sup> David told Jonathan: "Look! Tomorrow is the New Moon, when I should not fail to sit with the king at dinner. However, let me go, that I may hide in the country until the evening of the day after tomorrow!

<sup>6</sup> If your father misses me at all, say, 'David earnestly asked my permission to run to his city Bethlehem! For his whole clan has a yearly sacrifice there.' <sup>7</sup> If he answers like this: 'Good!' then I, your servant, am safe. However, if he is clearly angry, be sure that he has resolved to harm me! <sup>8</sup> Therefore, treat me, your servant, kindly! For you have brought me, your servant, into a covenant of the LORD with you. Nevertheless, if I am guilty, kill me yourself! Why should you take me to your father?"

<sup>9</sup> Jonathan said: "Put that thought far away! For if I knew for certain that my father had resolved to harm you, would I not tell you?"

<sup>10</sup> Then David asked Jonathan, "Who will tell me whether your father answers you harshly?"

<sup>11</sup> Jonathan told David: "Come! Let us go out into the country!"

So, both of them went out into the country.

<sup>12</sup> Jonathan told David: "By the LORD, the God of Israel, I shall certainly sound out my father about this time tomorrow or on the day after tomorrow. If I see that he is favourably disposed towards you, David, shall I not then send you a message and tell you?"

<sup>13</sup> However, if my father decides to harm you, may the LORD treat me harshly and ever worse if I do not let you know and send you safely on your way! May the LORD be with you, as He has been with my father! <sup>14</sup> You shall certainly treat me as kindly as the LORD treats people, while I am still alive, that I may not die! <sup>15</sup> In addition, you shall never stop being kind to my family, not even when the LORD cuts off each of the enemies of David from the surface of the earth!"

<sup>16</sup> Jonathan made a covenant with the family of David, saying, "May the LORD demand an account from David's enemies!"

<sup>17</sup> Jonathan made David swear another oath by his love for him. For he loved him as he loved himself.

<sup>18</sup> Then Jonathan told David: "Tomorrow is the New Moon. You will be missed, because your seat will be empty. <sup>19</sup> On the day after tomorrow you must go down quickly to the place where you hid on that other occasion and wait beside the stone Ezel! <sup>20</sup> I myself shall shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I were shooting at a target. <sup>21</sup> Be sure that I shall send my servant and tell him, 'Go! Find the arrows!' If I clearly tell the young man, 'Look! The arrows are on this side of you. Bring them!' then you shall come! For, as surely as the LORD lives, it is safe for you and there is no danger. <sup>22</sup> However, if I tell the young man, 'Look! The arrows are on the other side of you,' then go! For the LORD has sent you away. <sup>23</sup> Look! The LORD is the witness between you and me for ever about the matter that you and I have been discussing."

<sup>24</sup> So, David hid in the field. When the New Moon came, the king sat down to eat the meal. <sup>25</sup> The king sat on his seat, as at other times, on the seat at the wall. Jonathan stood up and Abner sat beside Saul, but David's place was empty. <sup>26</sup> Nevertheless, Saul did not say anything that day. For he thought: "Something must have happened to him, so that he is ceremonially unclean. Yes, he must not be clean."

<sup>27</sup> However, on the second day of the month David's place was still empty. Saul asked his son Jonathan, "Why has the son of Jesse not come to the meal either yesterday or today?"

<sup>28</sup> Jonathan answered Saul: "David earnestly asked me for permission to go to Bethlehem. <sup>29</sup> He said, 'Please, let me go! For our clan is holding a sacrifice in the city, and my brother has required me to be there. So now, if you are kindly disposed towards me, please let me get away and see my brothers!' That is why he has not come to the king's table."

<sup>30</sup> Then Saul became angry with Jonathan and said to him: "You son of a disturbed and rebellious woman! Do I not know that you are siding with the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of the mother who gave birth to you? <sup>31</sup> While the son of Jesse is alive on the earth, neither you nor your kingship will be secure. Now therefore, send men and fetch him to me! For he must surely die."

<sup>32</sup> Jonathan replied to his father Saul by asking: "Why must he be put to death? What has he done?"

<sup>33</sup> However, Saul threw his spear at him to strike him down. Then Jonathan knew that his father was determined to put David to death. <sup>34</sup> Jonathan rose from the table in fierce anger and ate nothing that second day of the month. For he was worried about David, because his father had disgraced him. <sup>35</sup> In the morning Jonathan went out into the open country to keep his appointment with David and took a young boy with him. <sup>36</sup> He told his boy: "Run! Please find the arrows that I am shooting!"

While the boy was running, he shot an arrow beyond him. <sup>37</sup> When the boy came to the place where Jonathan had shot the first arrow, Jonathan called out after the boy, "Is not the arrow further on, past you?"

<sup>38</sup> Then Jonathan called after the boy: "Hurry! Go quickly! Do not wait there!"

Jonathan's boy gathered up the arrows and returned to his master. <sup>39</sup> However, the boy did not know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew what it meant.

<sup>40</sup> Then Jonathan gave his weapons to his boy and told him: "Go! Carry them to the city!"

<sup>41</sup> When the boy had gone, David got up from the southern side, fell on his face to the ground and bowed down three times. They kissed each other and wept together, until David wept aloud. <sup>42</sup> Then Jonathan told David: "Go in peace! For we have both sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, 'The LORD shall be between you and me and your descendants and my descendants for ever!” Then David got up and left, and Jonathan returned to the city.

21

David's request for the holy bread at Nob from Ahimelech, the High Priest of Eli's line

<sup>1</sup> Then David went to the priest Ahimelech at Nob. Ahimelech was trembling when he met David. He asked him: “Why are you alone? Why is no one with you?”

<sup>2</sup> David told Ahimelech the priest: “The king has commanded me to do something and has told me, ‘No one must know anything about the business on which I am sending you or what I have commanded you!’ I have directed my young men to go to a certain place.

<sup>3</sup> Now therefore, what do you have on hand? Supply me with five loaves of bread or whatever can be found!”

<sup>4</sup> The priest answered David: “I have no ordinary bread on hand. However, there is holy bread, provided that the young men have kept away from women.”

<sup>5</sup> Then David answered the priest: “Certainly! Women have been kept away from us, as they usually are when I go on a mission. The bodies of the young men are holy even when it is an ordinary journey. How much more will their bodies be holy today?”

<sup>6</sup> So, the priest gave him the holy bread. For there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence. It had been removed from the presence of the LORD, to place hot bread there on the day when it was taken away. <sup>7</sup> One of Saul's officials was there that day, detained before the LORD. His name was Doeg, an Edomite, and Saul's chief shepherd. <sup>8</sup> Then David asked Ahimelech: “Do you not have a spear or a sword available here? For I have not brought either my sword or my other weapons with me, because the king's business was urgent.”

<sup>9</sup> The priest said: “Look! The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you struck down in the valley of Elah, is here, wrapped in a cloth behind the priestly garment. If you want to take that, take it! For there is no sword here but that one.”

David said: “There is none like that one! Give it to me!”

David's escape to the Philistines at Gath for protection

<sup>10</sup> David left that day, fled from Saul and went to Achish, the king of Gath. <sup>11</sup> The officials of Achish asked him: “Is this not David, the king of the land? Did they not sign to one another about him in dances: ‘Saul has struck down his thousands, but David his ten thousands’?”

<sup>12</sup> David took these words to heart and was very afraid of Achish, the king of Gath. <sup>13</sup> So, he pretended to be insane in their presence and behaved as if he were mad while he was in their power. He scribbled on the doors of the city-gate and let his saliva run down his beard. <sup>14</sup> Then Achish told his officials:

“Look! You see that the man is behaving like a madman. Why have you brought him to me? <sup>15</sup> Am I so short of madmen that you have brought this fellow to behave like a madman in front of me? Must this fellow come into my palace?”

22

David's accumulation of a band of followers and his escape to the cave of Adullam

<sup>1</sup> David left from there and escaped to the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and his father's whole family heard about it, they went down there to him.

<sup>2</sup> Everyone who was in a distressful situation, everyone who was in debt and everyone who had a grudge gathered to him. David became the leader over them. About four hundred men were with him. <sup>3</sup> David went from there to Mizpeh in Moab. He asked the king of Moab, “Please, let my father and my mother come here with you people, until I know what God will do for me!”

<sup>4</sup> He brought them before the king of Moab, and they stayed with him all the time David was in the fortification in the mountains. <sup>5</sup> However, the prophet Gad told David: “You shall not remain in the mountain-stronghold! Leave and come to the land of Judah!”

So, David left and went to the forest of Hereth.

Saul's slaughter of the priests descended from Eli at Nob

<sup>6</sup> Saul heard that David and the men who were with him had been located. Saul was sitting under the tamarisk tree on the hill at Gibeah with his spear in his hand, and all his officials were standing around him.

<sup>7</sup> Saul told his officials who were standing around him: “Please listen, men of Benjamin! Will the son of Jesse give fields and vineyards to each of you? Will he appoint each of you commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds? <sup>8</sup> For all of you have conspired against me. No one discloses it to me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse. None of you is sorry for me or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as he is doing now.”

<sup>9</sup> However, Doeg the Edomite, who was standing with Saul's officials, answered: “I saw Jesse's son when he came to Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, at Nob.

<sup>10</sup> Ahimelech made an inquiry to the LORD for him, gave him provisions and gave him the sword of Goliath, the Philistine.”

<sup>11</sup> Then the king sent a message to summon Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and his father's whole family, the priests who were at Nob, and they all came to the king. <sup>12</sup> Saul said, “Please listen, son of Ahitub!”

He answered, “Here I am, my lord.”

<sup>13</sup> Saul asked him: “Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, by giving him bread and a sword and by making an inquiry to God for him, so that he is rebelling against me and lying in wait, as he is doing today?”

<sup>14</sup> Ahimelech answered the king: “Who among all your servants is as faithful as David, who is the king’s son-in-law, a captain over your bodyguard and highly respected in your household? <sup>15</sup> Have I just now begun to make inquiries to God for him? No indeed! The king should not accuse his servant of anything or accuse any of his father’s family! For your servant has not known anything about all this, either little or much.”

<sup>16</sup> However, the king said: “You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and your father’s whole family!”

<sup>17</sup> The king told the body-guards who were standing around him: “Move up and kill the priests of the LORD! For they have also sided with David. For when they were aware that he was fleeing, they also did not disclose it to me.”

However, the officials of the king refused to raise their hands to strike the priests of the LORD. <sup>18</sup> Then the king told Doeg, “You move up and strike the priests!”

Doeg the Edomite moved up and struck down the priests. On that day he killed eighty-five men who used to wear a linen priestly garment. <sup>19</sup> He also struck down Nob, the city of the priests, with the edge of the sword. He struck down with the edge of the sword men and women, children and infants, cattle, donkeys and sheep. <sup>20</sup> However, one of the sons of Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped and fled to join David. <sup>21</sup> Abiathar told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD. <sup>22</sup> David told Abiathar: “I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would be sure to tell Saul. I myself have assaulted all the persons in your father’s family. <sup>23</sup> Stay with me! Do not be afraid! For he who is trying to kill me is trying to kill you. You are in safe hands with me.”

23

David’s expulsion of the Philistines from Keilah

<sup>1</sup> Some people told David: “Look! The Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are plundering the threshing floors.”

<sup>2</sup> David inquired of the LORD: “Shall I go and strike down these Philistines?”

The LORD told David, “Go and strike the Philistines down and save Keilah!”

<sup>3</sup> However, David’s men told him: “Look! We ourselves are afraid here in Judah. How much more, then, if we go to Keilah against the battle-lines of the Philistines?”

<sup>4</sup> When David inquired of the LORD again, the LORD answered him: “Take action! Go down to Keilah! For I shall deliver the Philistines into your hands.”

<sup>5</sup> David and his men went to Keilah, fought with the Philistines, drove off their livestock and inflicted a great defeat on them. So, David rescued the people who were living in Keilah. <sup>6</sup> When Abiathar, the son of Ahimelech, had fled to David at Keilah, he had brought a priestly garment down with him.

Saul’s attempt to trap David in Keilah

<sup>7</sup> When Saul was informed that David had gone to Keilah he said: “God has delivered him over into my hands. For he has shut himself in by entering a city that has a double gate and bars.”

<sup>8</sup> Saul called up all the soldiers for war, to go down to Keilah and besiege David and his men. <sup>9</sup> Because David knew that Saul was plotting harm against him, he told Abiathar the priest, “Bring the priestly garment here!”

<sup>10</sup> David said: “O LORD, God of Israel, Your servant has heard definitely that Saul is attempting to come to Keilah to destroy the city because of me. <sup>11</sup> Will the citizens of Keilah hand me over to him? Will Saul come down, as I, Your servant, have heard? O LORD, God of Israel, please tell me, Your servant!”

The LORD said, “He will come down.”

<sup>12</sup> Then David asked, “Will the citizens of Keilah hand me and my men over to Saul?”

The LORD said, “They will hand you over.”

<sup>13</sup> Then David and his men, who numbered about six hundred, started out and left Keilah. They moved about wherever they could go. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah, he halted the campaign. <sup>14</sup> Then David stayed in the strongholds in the wilderness, in the hill-country of the Wilderness of Ziph. Although Saul searched for him every day, God did not deliver David into his hands.

Jonathan’s visit to David at Horesh

<sup>15</sup> David had seen that Saul had come out to try to kill him. David was at Horesh in the Wilderness of Ziph.

<sup>16</sup> Saul’s son Jonathan set out, went to David at Horesh and encouraged him in God. <sup>17</sup> He told him: “Do not be afraid! For the hand of my father Saul will not find you. You will be the king over Israel, and I shall be second to you. My father Saul also knows that this is so.”

<sup>18</sup> The two of them made a covenant before the LORD. Then David remained at Horesh, and Jonathan went home.

The frustration by a raid of the Philistines of Saul’s attempt to capture David

<sup>19</sup> Then the men of Ziph went up to Saul at Gibeath and asked: “Is David not hiding among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hachilah, which is south of Jeshimon? <sup>20</sup> Now therefore, come down, O king, whenever you want to come down! It will be our duty to hand him over to the king.”

<sup>21</sup> Saul replied: “May you be blessed by the LORD! For you have had compassion on me. <sup>22</sup> Please go! Prepare more! Find out and observe the place where he goes and find out who has seen him there! For people have told me that he is very cunning. <sup>23</sup> Take notice and find out all the hiding places that he uses and come back to me with definite information! Then I shall go with you. If he is in the land, I shall track him down among all the clans of Judah.”

<sup>24</sup> They set out and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. David and his men were in the Wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah to the south of Jeshimon. <sup>25</sup> Saul and his men went to search for him. When people told David, he went down to the rock and stayed in the Wilderness of Maon. When Saul heard that, he went into the Desert of Maon in pursuit of David. <sup>26</sup> Saul went on one side of the mountain, and David and his men went on the other side of the mountain. David was hurriedly moving away from Saul, and Saul and his men were closing in on David and his men to capture them. <sup>27</sup> However, a messenger came to Saul and said: “Come quickly! For the Philistines have made a raid against the land.”

<sup>28</sup> So, Saul broke off his pursuit of David and went back to meet the Philistines. Therefore, that place was called “Sela-Hammahlekoth.”<sup>90</sup> <sup>29</sup> Then David went up from there and lived in the strongholds of En-Gedi.

24

David's sparing of Saul's life at En-Gedi

<sup>1</sup> When Saul came back after pursuing the Philistines, people told him, “Look! David is in the wilderness of En-Gedi.”

<sup>2</sup> Then Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel and went to search for David and his men on the Rocks of the Wild Goats. <sup>3</sup> When he came to the sheep pens along the road, a cave was there. Saul went in to relieve himself. David and his men were sitting in the inmost parts of the cave. <sup>4</sup> David's men told him: “This is the day about which the LORD told you, ‘Look! I shall deliver your enemy into your hands.’ You may do to him what you think is right.”

Then David got up and cut off a corner of Saul's robe without being noticed. <sup>5</sup> Afterwards David's conscience troubled him because he had cut off the corner of Saul's robe. <sup>6</sup> David told his men: “The LORD forbid that I should do this to my master, the one whom the LORD has anointed, that I should raise my hand against him! For he is the one whom the LORD has anointed.”

<sup>7</sup> So, David dispersed his men with these words and did not permit them to attack Saul. Saul got up, left the cave and went along the road. <sup>8</sup> After that, David also got up, went out of the cave and called after Saul, “My master, the king!”

When Saul looked behind him, David bowed down respectfully with his face to the ground. <sup>9</sup> David asked Saul: “Why do you listen to people when they say, ‘Look! David is trying to harm you’? <sup>10</sup> Look! Today you have seen with your own eyes that the LORD has delivered you into my hands in the cave today. Although some told me to kill you, I have looked on you sympathetically. I said, ‘I shall not stretch out my hand against my master. For he is the one whom the LORD has anointed.’ <sup>11</sup> Besides, my father, look! Yes, look at the corner of your robe in my hand. For since I have cut off the corner of your robe without killing you, you should know and perceive that I am innocent of any wrong or rebellion. I have not sinned against you although you are hunting me down to take my life. <sup>12</sup> May the LORD judge between you and me! May the LORD take revenge against you for me! However, my hand will not be against you. <sup>13</sup> It is like the proverb that people long ago used to say: ‘Wickedness comes out of wicked people.’ However, my hand will not be against you. <sup>14</sup> After whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom are you pursuing? A dead dog? One flea? <sup>15</sup> So, may the LORD be the Judge and decide between you and me! May He be concerned about it, plead my cause and get justice for me by delivering me from your hands!”

<sup>16</sup> When David had finished saying this to Saul, Saul asked, “Is this your voice, my son David?”

Then Saul wept aloud. <sup>17</sup> He told David: “You are more righteous than I am. For you have treated me well, whereas I have been treating you badly. <sup>18</sup> You yourself have declared today that you have treated me well, in that you did not kill me when the LORD delivered me into your hands. <sup>19</sup> For when a man finds his enemy, does he let him go away safely? May the LORD reward you well for the way you have treated me today! <sup>20</sup> Now therefore, look! I know that you will surely be king and that the kingdom of Israel will continue in your hands. <sup>21</sup> Swear to me therefore by the LORD that you will certainly not cut off my descendants after me and that you will certainly not wipe out my name from my father's family!”

<sup>22</sup> So, David swore an oath to Saul. Then Saul went home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

25

The death of Samuel

<sup>1</sup> Samuel died, and all Israel assembled and mourned for him, and they buried him at his house in Ramah.

The death of Nabal and David's marriage to Abigail

Then David moved down into the wilderness of Paran.

<sup>2</sup> There was a man in Maon whose business was at Carmel. The man was very rich. He had three thousand sheep and a thousand goats. He was shearing his sheep in Carmel. <sup>3</sup> The name of the man was Nabal, and his wife's name was Abigail. The woman was intelligent and beautiful, but the man was severe and evil. He was a descendant of Caleb. <sup>4</sup> While David was in the wilderness, he heard that Nabal was shearing sheep. <sup>5</sup> David sent ten young men. David told the young men: “Go up to Carmel, visit Nabal and wish him prosperity in my name! <sup>6</sup> You shall greet him like this: ‘May you have a prosperous life! Good health to you and good health to your family! Good health to everything that you have! <sup>7</sup> Now therefore, I have heard that you have shearers. Your shepherds have been with us, and we have not harmed them, and while they have been at Carmel nothing of theirs has been missing. <sup>8</sup> Ask your young men! They will tell you. Therefore, look favourably on my young men! For we have come on a festive occasion. Please, give whatever you have at hand to your servants and to your son David!”

<sup>90</sup> Sela Hammahleqoth may mean “Rock of Escape.”

<sup>9</sup> When David’s young men arrived, they gave this whole message to Nabal on David’s behalf and then they waited. <sup>10</sup> Nabal answered David’s servants: “Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants nowadays who are breaking loose from their masters. <sup>11</sup> Should I take my bread, my water and my meat, which I have slaughtered for my shearers and give it to men when I do not know where they are from?”

<sup>12</sup> David’s young men turned around and went back. When they arrived, they reported all these words to David. <sup>13</sup> David told his men, “Strap on your swords, each of you!”

Each of them strapped on his sword, and David also strapped on his sword. About four hundred men went up with David, while two hundred men stayed with the baggage. <sup>14</sup> However, one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal’s wife: “Look! David sent messengers from the wilderness to greet our master, but he answered them harshly. <sup>15</sup> Nevertheless, the men have been very good to us, and we have not suffered any harm. We have not missed anything all the time we have been going with them while we have been in the fields. <sup>16</sup> They have been a wall around us both by night and by day, all the time when we have been looking after the sheep near them. <sup>17</sup> Now therefore, be aware of this and consider what you should do! For harm has been determined against our master and against all his family, and he is such a worthless fellow that no one can talk to him.”

<sup>18</sup> Then Abigail quickly took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five sheep already prepared, thirty-five litres of parched grain, a hundred cakes of raisins and two hundred cakes of figs and loaded them on donkeys. <sup>19</sup> She told her young men: “Go on ahead of me! Look! I am coming behind you.”

However, she did not tell her husband Nabal. <sup>20</sup> While she was riding on her donkey and was coming down under a covered mountain path, there were David and his men coming down towards her, and she met them.

<sup>21</sup> David had said: “Surely it has been pointless that I have been protecting all this fellow’s property in the wilderness, so that none of his property has gone missing! He has paid me back evil for good. <sup>22</sup> May God spare the enemies of David and treat them even better if by morning I leave alive one male out of all who belong to him!”

<sup>23</sup> When Abigail saw David, she quickly got down from her donkey, fell on her face before him and bowed down on the ground. <sup>24</sup> She fell at his feet and said: “My master, let the blame for the wrong be on me alone! Please let me, your maidservant, speak to you, and listen to what your maidservant says! <sup>25</sup> Please, my master should pay no attention to this worthless fellow, Nabal! He is like his name. His name is “Nabal,”<sup>91</sup> and godless folly goes with him. However, I, your maidservant, had not seen the young men, whom you, my master, had sent. <sup>26</sup> Now therefore, my master, as surely as the LORD lives and as surely as your soul lives, because the LORD has held you back from proceeding to shed blood and from coming to defend your own cause — now therefore, may your enemies and those who try to harm you, my master, be like Nabal! <sup>27</sup> So now, let this present, which your maidservant has brought to you, my master, be given to the young men who follow my master! <sup>28</sup> Please forgive the rebellious act of your maidservant! For the LORD will certainly make a long-lasting family for my master, because my master is fighting the battles of the LORD. May no wrongdoing be found in you all your life! <sup>29</sup> Some person has arisen to pursue you and tried to kill you. However, your life, my master, will be wrapped up in the bundle of the living under the care of the LORD, your God. He will sling out the lives of your enemies from inside the hollow of a sling. <sup>30</sup> When the LORD does to my master all the good that He has promised about you and has appointed you a prince over Israel, <sup>31</sup> then your conscience will not regret this. My master will not blame himself for needlessly shedding blood or for defending his own cause. My master, when the LORD gives you success, remember your maidservant!”

<sup>32</sup> David told Abigail: “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has sent you to meet me today!

<sup>33</sup> Blessed also be your good sense, and may you also be blessed! For you have kept me back today from proceeding to shed blood and from defending my own cause. <sup>34</sup> Otherwise, as surely as the LORD, the God of Israel lives, who has kept me back from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, truly by morning light not one male belonging to Nabal would have been left alive.”

<sup>35</sup> Then David accepted from her what she had brought him. He told her: “Go up in peace to your home! See! I have listened to what you have said and have granted your request.”

<sup>36</sup> When Abigail went to Nabal, there he was, having the kind of feast in his house that a king provides. Nabal was feeling very good and was very drunk. So, she did not tell him anything, either little or much, until the morning light. <sup>37</sup> In the morning, when the wine had worn off from Nabal, his wife told him these things. Then his heart died inside him and he became like a stone. <sup>38</sup> About ten days later, the LORD struck Nabal, and he died. <sup>39</sup> When David heard that Nabal had died, he said: “Blessed be the LORD, who has defended my cause against the insult that I received from Nabal and has kept me, His servant, back from doing wrong! The LORD has brought Nabal’s wickedness back on his own head.”

---

<sup>91</sup> Nabal means, “Foolish.”

Then David sent word to Abigail, asking her to become his wife. <sup>40</sup> When David’s servants came to Abigail at Carmel, they told her, “David has sent us to you to fetch you to become his wife.”

<sup>41</sup> She got up, bowed down with her face to the ground and said, “Here is your maidservant, a servant to wash the feet of my master’s servants.”

<sup>42</sup> Abigail quickly got up and rode on a donkey, with five of her female servants following her. She went along behind the messengers of David and became his wife. <sup>43</sup> David had also married Ahinoam of Jezreel and both of them were his wives. <sup>44</sup> Saul had given his daughter Michal, David’s wife, to Palti, the son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

26

David’s sparing of Saul’s life in the wilderness of Ziph

<sup>1</sup> Then the men of Ziph came to Saul at Gibeah and said, “Is David not hiding on the hill of Hachilah, which faces Jeshimon?”

<sup>2</sup> Saul acted and went down to the wilderness of Ziph with three thousand chosen men of Israel to search for David in the wilderness of Ziph. <sup>3</sup> Saul camped beside the road on the hill of Hachilah, which faces Jeshimon. However, David was staying in the wilderness. When David saw that Saul had come after him into the wilderness, <sup>4</sup> he sent out spies and learned that Saul had definitely come. <sup>5</sup> Then David set out and came to the place where Saul had camped. David saw the place where Saul and Abner, the son of Ner, the commander of his army, had lain down. Saul was lying inside the encampment and the army was camping around him. <sup>6</sup> Then David asked the Hittite Ahimelech and Joab’s brother Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, “Who will go down with me to Saul in the camp?”

Abishai said, “I shall go down with you.”

<sup>7</sup> When David and Abishai went to the army by night, David saw Saul lying asleep inside the encampment, with his spear stuck in the ground near his head. Abner and the army were lying around him. <sup>8</sup> Then Abishai told David: “Today God has delivered your enemy into your hands. Now, please, let me pin him to the ground with one stroke of the spear! I shall not hit him more than once.”

<sup>9</sup> However, David told Abishai: “Do not destroy him! For who has put out his hand against the one whom the LORD has anointed and been free from guilt?”

<sup>10</sup> David said: “As surely as the LORD lives, the LORD will strike him down or his day will come to die or he will go down into battle and be swept away.

<sup>11</sup> May the LORD forbid that I should put out my hand against the one whom the LORD has anointed!

Now, however, please take the spear that is near his head and the jar of water and let us go!”

<sup>12</sup> David took the spear and the jar of water near Saul’s head and they went away. No one saw them or knew about it and no one woke up. For they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD had fallen on them. <sup>13</sup> Then David went across to the opposite side and stood far off on the top of the mountain, with a great distance between them. <sup>14</sup> David called out to the army and to Abner, the son of Ner: “Will you not answer, Abner?”

Then Abner answered, “Who are you, who have called out to the king?”

<sup>15</sup> David asked Abner: “Are you not a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why, then, have you not been guarding your master, the king? For one of the people has come in to destroy your master, the king. <sup>16</sup> What you have been doing here is not good. As surely as the LORD lives, you deserve to die, because you have not been guarding your master, the one whom the LORD has anointed. Now therefore, notice where the king’s spear and the jar of water that was near his head are!”

<sup>17</sup> Saul recognised David’s voice and asked, “Is that your voice, my son David?”

David answered, “It is my voice, my master, O king.”

<sup>18</sup> He added: “Why is my master pursuing his servant like this? For what have I done? Of what wrong am I guilty? <sup>19</sup> Now therefore, please let my master, the king, hear what I, his servant, am saying! If the LORD is the One who has stirred you up against me, may He enjoy the smell of an offering! However, if the descendants of Adam have done so, may they be cursed before the LORD! For they have now driven me away from my share in the inheritance of the LORD and tell me, ‘Go, serve other gods!’ <sup>20</sup> Now therefore, let my blood not fall to the ground away from the presence of the LORD! For the king of Israel has come out to search for a single flea, like someone who is hunting a partridge in the mountains.”

<sup>21</sup> Then Saul said: “I have sinned. Come back, David my son! For I shall not harm you again, because you have regarded my life as something precious today. Indeed, I have been acting foolishly and have been making a very great mistake.”

<sup>22</sup> David answered: “Here is the king’s spear. One of the young men should come across and get it! <sup>23</sup> The LORD will reward everyone for being righteous and being faithful. The LORD delivered you into my hands today, but I refused to stretch out my hand against the one whom the LORD has anointed.

<sup>24</sup> Look! As I have valued your life highly today, so may the LORD value my life highly and may He deliver me from all trouble!”

<sup>25</sup> Then Saul said to David: “May you be blessed, my son David! You will do great things and will certainly also be successful!”

So, David went his way, and Saul went back home.

27

David's residence among the Philistines at Gath under king Achish

<sup>1</sup> However, David thought to himself: "I shall be destroyed one day now by Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will desist from searching for me any longer anywhere in Israel, and I shall slip out of his grasp."

<sup>2</sup> So, David and the six hundred men who were with him left and went across to Achish, the son of Maach, the king of Gath. <sup>3</sup> While David and his men stayed with Achish at Gath, each man had his family with him, and David had his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel, who had been Nabal's wife.

<sup>4</sup> When Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, he did not search for him any longer. <sup>5</sup> Then David told Achish: "If you are kindly disposed towards me, let people give me a place in one of the country towns, that I may live there! Why should I, your servant, live in the royal city with you?"

<sup>6</sup> So, on that day Achish gave him Ziklag. That is why Ziklag has belonged to the kings of Judah to this day.

<sup>7</sup> The length of time that David lived in the country of the Philistines was one year and four months. <sup>8</sup> David and his men went up and made raids against the Geshurites, the Girzites and the Amalekites. For these peoples had been living from ancient times in the land on the way to Shur and as far as the land of Egypt.

<sup>9</sup> David used to attack the land without leaving any man or woman alive. However, he used to take away sheep, cattle, donkeys, camels and garments. When he returned and came to Achish, <sup>10</sup> Achish asked, "Have you men not made a raid today?"

David said, "Against the Negev of Judah," or, "Against the Negev of the Jerahmeelites," or, "Against the Negev of the Kenites."

<sup>11</sup> David would not spare the life of any man or woman and bring them to Gath. He thought: "I do not want them to give information about us and say, 'This is what David has done.'" He regularly did this all the time he lived in the country of the Philistines.

<sup>12</sup> Achish trusted David. He thought, "Because he has made his people Israel utterly detest him, he will always be my servant."

28

Saul's visit to the witch at Endor — compare Deuteronomy 18:9-14

<sup>1</sup> In those days the Philistines gathered their forces for war, to fight against Israel. Achish told David, "You should understand clearly that you and your men are coming out with me in the army!"

<sup>2</sup> David told Achish, "Very well, you shall learn for yourself what I, your servant, can do!"

Achish told David, "Very well, I shall make you my bodyguard for life."

<sup>3</sup> Samuel had died and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in his own city of Ramah. Saul had expelled the mediums and the spiritists from the land.

<sup>4</sup> The Philistines assembled and came to Shunem, where they set up camp. Saul gathered all Israel, and they set up camp at Gilboa. <sup>5</sup> When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid and very perturbed at heart. <sup>6</sup> When Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD did not answer him, either by dreams or by the Urim or by the prophets. <sup>7</sup> Then Saul told his officials, "Search out for me a woman who is a medium, that I may go to her and inquire of her!"

His officials told him, "Indeed, there is a woman medium at En-Dor."

<sup>8</sup> Saul disguised himself by putting on different clothes. Saul left with two men, and they went to the woman by night. He said, "Please use a spirit to practise divination and bring up for me the one whom I shall name to you!"

<sup>9</sup> However, the woman told him: "Surely you yourself know what Saul has done. He has cut off the mediums and the spiritists from the land. Why, then, are you laying a trap for my life to bring about my death?"

<sup>10</sup> However, Saul swore to her by the LORD, "As surely as the LORD lives, you will not be punished in any way for this."

<sup>11</sup> Then the woman asked, "Whom shall I bring up for you?"

He said, "Bring Samuel up for me!"

<sup>12</sup> When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out aloud. The woman asked Saul: "Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!"

<sup>13</sup> The king told her: "Do not be afraid! However, what have you seen?"

The woman told Saul, "I have seen a spirit of the dead coming up out of the ground."

<sup>14</sup> He asked her, "What does he look like?"

She said, "An old man is coming up and wrapping himself in a robe."

Then Saul knew that it was Samuel and bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground.

<sup>15</sup> Then Samuel asked Saul, "Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?"

Saul answered: "I am in great distress. The Philistines are making war against me. God has also turned away from me and has not been answering me any longer, either through prophets or by dreams. So, I have called on you to inform me what I shall do."

<sup>16</sup> Samuel said: "Why, then, do you ask me, since the LORD has turned from you and has become your enemy?" <sup>17</sup> The LORD has done to you what He told you through me. The LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hands and given it to your neighbour, David.

<sup>18</sup> Because you did not listen to what the LORD had said and did not carry out His fierce wrath against Amalek, the LORD has done this to you this day.

<sup>19</sup> The LORD will also give both Israel and you into the hands of the Philistines and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also deliver the army of Israel into the hands of the Philistines.”

<sup>20</sup> Then immediately Saul fell full length on the ground. He was very afraid because of what Samuel had said. He had no strength in him, for he had not eaten any food all that day and all that night. <sup>21</sup> When the woman came to Saul she saw that he was terrified. She told him: “Look! I, your maidservant, have obeyed you. I have risked my life and have listened to what you have told me. <sup>22</sup> Now therefore, you yourself should please also obey me, your maidservant! Let me set a piece of bread before you! Then eat, that you may be strong when you go on your way!”

<sup>23</sup> However, he refused and said: “I shall not eat.” However, his officials and the woman urged him, and he followed their advice. So, he got up from the ground and sat on the bed. <sup>24</sup> The woman had a fattened bull-calf at her house. She quickly butchered it, took some flour, kneaded it and used it to bake bread without yeast. <sup>25</sup> When she had served it to Saul and his officials and they had eaten, they got up and went away that night.

29

David's dilemma about being forced to fight against Israel and Achish's dismissal of David to Ziklag

<sup>1</sup> The Philistines had gathered all their forces at Aphek. The Israelites had camped beside the spring that is in Jezreel. <sup>2</sup> While the princes of the Philistines were marching along in companies of hundreds and thousands, David and his men were marching along at the rear with Achish. <sup>3</sup> The commanders of the Philistines asked, “What about these Hebrews?”

Achish told the commanders of the Philistines: “Is this not David, the servant of Saul, the king of Israel? He has been with me already for a year or two. I have found no fault in him from the day when he deserted to me until now.”

<sup>4</sup> However, the commanders of the Philistines were angry with him. The commanders of the Philistines told him: “Send the man back, that he may return to his place, to which you have assigned him! He must not go down with us into battle, that he may not turn against us during the battle! For how could this fellow regain his master's favour? Would it not be with the heads of the men here? <sup>5</sup> Is not this David, about whom people sing to one another in dances: ‘Saul has struck down his thousands, and David his ten thousands’?”

<sup>6</sup> Then Achish called David and told him: “As surely as the LORD lives, you have been honest, and I consider that it is right that you should associate with me in the army. For I have found nothing wrong in you from the day when you came to me until today. Nevertheless, the princes do not approve of you. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore, go back! Leave in peace, without doing anything to displease the princes of the Philistines!”

<sup>8</sup> David asked Achish: “Indeed, what have I done? What have you found against me, your servant, from the day when I came to you until now, that I should not go and fight against the enemies of my master, the king?”

<sup>9</sup> Achish answered David: “I know that I consider that you are as good as an angel of God. Nevertheless, the commanders of the Philistines have said, ‘He shall not come into the battle with us!’ <sup>10</sup> Now therefore, get up early in the morning with the servants of your Lord, who have come with you! Get up early in the morning and leave as soon as you have light!”

<sup>11</sup> David and his men got up early in the morning to return to the land of the Philistines, but the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

30

A raid of the Amalekites on Ziklag and David's destruction of the Amalekites

<sup>1</sup> Before David and his men arrived at Ziklag on the third day, the Amalekites had made a raid against the Negev and against Ziklag. They had attacked Ziklag and burnt it. <sup>2</sup> They had taken captive the women and all the rest who were in it, both young and old. They had not killed anyone but had carried them off and gone on their way. <sup>3</sup> When David and his men reached the city, they found that it had been destroyed by fire and that their wives, sons and daughters had been taken captive. <sup>4</sup> Then David and the soldiers who were with him wept aloud until they had no strength left to weep. <sup>5</sup> David's two wives had also been taken captive, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel. <sup>6</sup> David was in great difficulty, because the soldiers spoke about stoning him. For all the soldiers were grieving, each for his sons and daughters. However, David felt himself strengthened in the LORD, his God. <sup>7</sup> David told the priest Abiathar, the son of Ahimelech, “Please bring me the priestly garment!”

So, Abiathar brought the priestly garment to David.

<sup>8</sup> David inquired of the LORD: “Shall I pursue this raiding party? Shall I catch up with them?”

He answered him: “Pursue them! For you will certainly catch up and will certainly succeed in a rescue.”

<sup>9</sup> So, David and the six hundred men who were with him set out and reached the Besor Brook, where some were left to remain behind. <sup>10</sup> David and four hundred men went in pursuit and two hundred men stayed behind. They were too exhausted to cross the Besor Brook. <sup>11</sup> They found an Egyptian in the open country and brought him to David. They gave him food to eat and water to drink. <sup>12</sup> They also gave him a slice of a cake of figs and two cakes of raisins. When he had eaten, he revived, for he had not eaten food or drunk water for three days and three nights. <sup>13</sup> David asked him: “To whom do you belong? Where are you from?”

He said: “I am an Egyptian servant, the slave of an Amalekite. My master left me behind because I became ill three days ago. <sup>14</sup> We had made a raid against the Negev of the Cherethites, against the territory of Judah, against the Negev of Caleb and burned Ziklag.”

<sup>15</sup> David asked him, “Will you lead me down to this raiding party?”

He said: “Swear to me by God that you will not kill me and that you will not hand me over to my master! Then I shall lead you down to this raiding party.”

<sup>16</sup> When he had taken him down, they saw them spread about all over the open countryside, eating, drinking and dancing, because they had taken so much plunder from the land of the Philistines and from the land of Judah. <sup>17</sup> David struck them down from the light before dawn until the evening of the next day. None of them escaped, except for four hundred young men, who rode off on camels and fled. <sup>18</sup> David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken. David also rescued his two wives. <sup>19</sup> They had lost nothing, either young or old, sons or daughters, plunder or anything else that the raiders had taken. David brought everything back. <sup>20</sup> David also seized all the sheep and cattle. The soldiers drove them ahead of the other livestock and said, “This is David’s plunder.”

<sup>21</sup> Then David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to follow David and whom the others had left behind at the Brook Besor. They came out to meet David and to meet the rest of the soldiers who were with him. When David approached those soldiers, he greeted them. <sup>22</sup> Then all the wicked and worthless fellows among the men who had gone with David said: “Because they have not gone with us, we shall not give them any of the plunder that we have recovered. However, each man may take away his wife and children and leave.”

<sup>23</sup> However, David said: “You shall not do that, my brothers, with what the LORD has given us! He has protected us and put into our hands the raiding party that had come against us. <sup>24</sup> Who would listen to you on this subject? For the share of the man who stays with the baggage shall be the same as that of the man who goes down into the battle! They shall share alike!”

<sup>25</sup> He made it a rule and a custom for Israel from that day until today. <sup>26</sup> When David came to Ziklag, he sent part of the plunder to his friends, the elders of Judah, saying, “Here is a present for you from the plunder taken from the enemies of the LORD.”

<sup>27</sup> He sent it to those who were at Bethel, at Ramoth in the Negev, at Jattir, <sup>28</sup> at Aroer, at Siphmoth, at Eshtemoa, <sup>29</sup> at Racal, in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, in the cities of the Kenites, <sup>30</sup> at Hormah, at Borashan, at Athach, <sup>31</sup> at Hebron and for all the places where David and his men had been moving back and forth.

31

The death of Saul and his three sons at Mount Gilboa — 1 Chronicles 10:1-14

<sup>1</sup> When the Philistines were fighting against Israel, the men of Israel fled before the Philistines and fell slain on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons and the Philistines struck down Jonathan, Abinadab and Malchi-Shua, the sons of Saul. <sup>3</sup> The battle grew fierce against Saul. When the archers who were shooting hit him, they wounded him severely. <sup>4</sup> Then Saul told his armour-bearer: “Draw your sword and stab me with it, that these uncircumcised men may not come, stab me and abuse me!”

However, his armour-bearer refused, because he was very afraid. So, Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

<sup>5</sup> When his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his own sword and died with him. <sup>6</sup> So, Saul, his three sons, his armour-bearer and all his men died together that day. <sup>7</sup> When the men of Israel who were on the other side of the valley and those across the Jordan saw that the men of Israel had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and fled. Then the Philistines came and lived in them. <sup>8</sup> The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup> They cut off his head, stripped off his armour and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines, to proclaim the good news in the temples of their idols and among the people.

<sup>10</sup> They put his armour in the temple of Ashtaroath and fastened his body to the wall of Beth-Shan. <sup>11</sup> However, when the inhabitants of Jabesh-Gilead heard what the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup> all the brave men set out, walked all night and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-Shan. Then they came back to Jabesh and burned them there. <sup>13</sup> They took their bones and buried them under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh and then fasted for seven days.

2 SAMUEL

1

The report to David about Saul's death— 1 Samuel 31:1-13, 1 Chronicles 10:1-12

<sup>1</sup> After Saul died and David returned from defeating the Amalekites, David remained in Ziklag for two days. <sup>2</sup> On the third day a man arrived from Saul's camp. His clothes were torn, and he had dust on his head. When he came to David, he fell to the ground to pay him honour. <sup>3</sup> David asked him, "Where then do you come from?"

He answered him: "I have escaped from the camp of Israel."

<sup>4</sup> David asked him, "How has the business turned out? Please tell me!"

He answered: "The army fled from the battle and many of the soldiers have also fallen and are dead. Saul and his son Jonathan are also dead."

<sup>5</sup> Then David asked the young man who was bringing him the report, "How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?"

<sup>6</sup> Then the young man who was bringing the report said: "I happened to be on Mount Gilboa and saw Saul leaning on his spear and look! The chariots and the horsemen had caught up with him. <sup>7</sup> When he looked behind him and saw me, he called out to me. I answered, 'Yes, I am here.' <sup>8</sup> He asked me, 'Who are you?' I told him: 'I am an Amalekite.' <sup>9</sup> Then he told me: 'Please, stand over me and kill me! For a seizure of weakness has gripped me, and yet I am still fully alive.' <sup>10</sup> I stood over him and killed him. For I knew that he could not live after he had fallen. Then I took the crown that was on his head and the bracelet that was on his arm and have brought them here to my master."

<sup>11</sup> Then David took hold of his own clothes and tore them. All the men who were with him did the same.

<sup>12</sup> Then they mourned, wept and fasted until evening for Saul, for Jonathan his son, for the army of the LORD and for the family of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword. <sup>13</sup> Then David asked the young man who had brought him the report, "Where then are you from?"

He answered, "I am the son of a foreign resident, an Amalekite."

<sup>14</sup> David asked him, "How is it you were not afraid to put out your hand to destroy the one whom the LORD had anointed?"

<sup>15</sup> Then David called one of the young men and said, "Go up to him and attack him!"

He struck him down so that he died. <sup>16</sup> David told him: "Your blood be on your own head! For your own mouth testified against you, when you said, 'I have killed the one whom the LORD anointed.'"

David's lament for Saul and Jonathan

<sup>17</sup> David sang this song of mourning over Saul and his son Jonathan. <sup>18</sup> He gave the order that the people of Judah should be taught this lament of the bow. Indeed, it is recorded in the Book of Jashar.

<sup>19</sup> "Your beauty, O Israel, has been slain on your high places. How the warriors have fallen!

<sup>20</sup> "Do not tell it in Gath! Do not tell the news in the streets of Ashkelon, that the daughters of the Philistines may not be glad, that the daughters of the uncircumcised may not be triumphant!

<sup>21</sup> "You mountains in Gilboa, may there be no dew or rain on you, no fields that yield offerings! For the shields of warriors have been defiled there. The shield of Saul is no longer anointed with olive-oil.

<sup>22</sup> "The bow of Jonathan did not draw back from the blood of slain men or from the fat of warriors. The sword of Saul also did not return without success.

<sup>23</sup> "Saul and Jonathan — they were loved and pleasant while they were living. They were not parted when they died. They were swifter than eagles; they were stronger than lions.

<sup>24</sup> "You daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, who clothed you in scarlet and with ornaments and who put golden jewellery on your dresses!

<sup>25</sup> "How the warriors have fallen in the middle of the battle! On your high places Jonathan has been slain.

<sup>26</sup> "I am grieving over you, my brother Jonathan. You have been very dear to me. Your love has been more wonderful to me than the love of women.

<sup>27</sup> "How the warriors have fallen! How the weapons of war have been ruined!"

2

The anointing of David as the king of Judah

<sup>1</sup> After this, David inquired of the LORD, "Shall I go up into one of the cities of Judah?"

The LORD told him, "Go up!"

David asked, "Where shall I go up?"

He said, "To Hebron."

<sup>2</sup> David went up there, together with his two wives, Ahinoam from Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel. <sup>3</sup> David also brought up his men, who were with him, each man with his family, and they lived in the cities around Hebron. <sup>4</sup> Then the men of Judah came and there they anointed David to be the king over the family of Judah. Some people told David, "The men of Jabesh Gilead were the ones who buried Saul."

<sup>5</sup> So, David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-Gilead and told them: "May the LORD bless you! For you have performed this faithful, loving act to your master, Saul, and have buried him. <sup>6</sup> Now therefore, may the LORD treat you mercifully and faithfully! Because you have done this, I shall also repay you for this kindness. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore, be strong and courageous! For your master Saul is dead and the family of Judah has also anointed me as king over them."

The crowning of Ish-Bosheth as king of Israel and the war between the families of David and Saul <sup>8</sup> However, Abner the son of Ner, the commander of Saul's army, had taken Ish-Bosheth, the son of Saul and brought him across to Mahanaim. <sup>9</sup> He had made him king over Gilead, the Ashurites, Jezreel, Ephraim, Benjamin and over all the rest of Israel. <sup>10</sup> Ish-Bosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he became king over Israel and reigned for two years. Nevertheless, the family of Judah followed David. <sup>11</sup> The length of time during which David was king in Hebron over the family of Judah was seven years and six months.

The contest between the followers of David and followers of the family of Saul at Gibeon

<sup>12</sup> Abner, the son of Ner, and the officials of Ish-Bosheth, the son of Saul, left Mahanaim and went to Gibeon. <sup>13</sup> Joab, the son of Zeruiah, and the officials of David went out and met them at the pool of Gibeon. One group sat down on one side of the pool, and the other group on the other side of the pool. <sup>14</sup> Abner told Joab, "Please, let the young men get up and have a contest before us!"

Joab answered, "Let them get up!"

<sup>15</sup> They stood up and were counted as they went across. There were twelve for Benjamin and Ish-Bosheth, the son of Saul, and twelve from the officials of David. <sup>16</sup> Each grasped his opponent by the head and thrust his sword into his opponent's side. Therefore, they fell together. Therefore, that place at Gibeon was called "Helkath-Hazzurim."<sup>92</sup> <sup>17</sup> There was very fierce fighting that day, and David's officials defeated Abner and the men of Israel. <sup>18</sup> The three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, Abishai and Asahel. Asahel was as fast on his feet as a wild gazelle.

<sup>19</sup> Asahel pursued Abner and, as he followed him, he turned neither to the right hand nor to the left. <sup>20</sup> When Abner looked behind him he asked, "Is that you, Asahel?"

Asahel answered, "Yes, it is."

<sup>21</sup> Abner told him, "Turn off to the right or to the left, catch one of the young men and take his equipment!" However, Asahel would not stop chasing him. <sup>22</sup> Then Abner told Asahel again: "Stop chasing me! Why should I strike you to the ground? How then could I look your brother Joab in the face?"

<sup>23</sup> However, he refused to go away. So, Abner struck him in the stomach with the butt end of his spear, so that the spear came out at his back. Asahel fell there and died on the spot. Everyone stood still when he came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died.

<sup>24</sup> Joab and Abishai also pursued Abner. At sunset they came to the Hill of Ammah, which is opposite Giah, on the road to the Wilderness of Gibeon. <sup>25</sup> The people of Benjamin rallied behind Abner. They formed one group and took their stand on the top of a hill. <sup>26</sup> Then Abner called out to Joab: "Must the sword devour for ever? Do you not know that this will come to a bitter end? How long will it be before you tell your men to stop pursuing their fellow-Israelites?"

<sup>27</sup> Joab answered: "As surely as God lives, if you had not spoken, the men would certainly not have stopped pursuing their fellow-Israelites until morning."

<sup>28</sup> So, Joab blew the trumpet and all the men came to a halt. They did not pursue Israel any longer or fight any longer. <sup>29</sup> Abner and his men walked all that night through the Arabah. They crossed over the Jordan, went through the whole valley and arrived at Mahanaim. <sup>30</sup> Joab returned from pursuing Abner. When he had gathered all the soldiers together, nineteen of David's servants were missing besides Asahel. <sup>31</sup> However, the servants of David had struck down and killed three hundred and sixty men of Benjamin and men who had been with Abner. <sup>32</sup> They took up Asahel and buried him in his father's tomb, which was at Bethlehem. Joab and his men marched all night and arrived at Hebron at daybreak.

3

<sup>1</sup> The war between the family of Saul and the family of David lasted for a long time. David became stronger and stronger, while the family of Saul became weaker and weaker.

David's family — 1 Chronicles 3:1-4

<sup>2</sup> Sons were born to David at Hebron. His first-born was Amnon, the son of Ahinoam from Jezreel. <sup>3</sup> His second was Chileab, the son of Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel. The third was Absalom the son of Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, the king of Geshur. <sup>4</sup> The fourth was Adonijah, the son of Haggith. The fifth was Shephatiah the son of Abital. <sup>5</sup> The sixth was Ithream, the son of David's wife Eglah. These were born to David at Hebron.

Abner's decision to join David

<sup>6</sup> During the war between the family of Saul and the family of David, Abner kept making himself more powerful in Saul's family. <sup>7</sup> Saul had had a concubine named Rizpah, who was the daughter of Aiah. Ish-Bosheth asked Abner, "Why have you slept with my father's concubine?"

<sup>8</sup> Abner became very angry because of Ish-Bosheth's question. He replied: "Am I a dog's head, on Judah's side? To this day I keep on showing loyal kindness to the family of your father, Saul, and to his relatives and his friends. I have also prevented you from falling into the hands of David. Yet now you have accused me of an offence involving this woman! <sup>9</sup> May God deal severely with Abner and do even worse to him, if I do not accomplish for David what the LORD has promised to him with an oath, <sup>10</sup> by transferring the kingdom from the family of Saul and establishing the throne of David over Israel in addition to Judah, from Dan to Beer-Sheba!"

<sup>11</sup> Ish-Bosheth did not dare to say another word to Abner, because he was afraid of him. <sup>12</sup> Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, to ask: "To whom does the land belong? Make your covenant with me, and I shall certainly assist you personally to make all Israel change sides and join you.”

<sup>92</sup> Helkath-Hazzurim means, "Field of Flint Blades."

<sup>13</sup> David said: “Good! I shall make a covenant with you. Nevertheless, I require one thing from you. You shall not come into my presence unless you first bring Saul’s daughter Michal when you first come to me!”

<sup>14</sup> Then David sent messengers to Ish-Bosheth, Saul’s son, to ask: “Give me my wife Michal, to whom I became engaged with the price of a hundred foreskins of the Philistines.”

<sup>15</sup> Ish-Bosheth sent instructions to take her away from her husband Paltiel, the son of Laish. <sup>16</sup> However, her husband went with her, weeping behind her all the way to Bahurim. When Abner told him, “Leave and go back!” he went back. <sup>17</sup> Abner had conferred with the elders of Israel, saying: “For some time past you have been trying to get David to be king over you.

<sup>18</sup> Now therefore, do it! For the LORD has promised David, ‘Through My servant David I shall save My people Israel from the Philistines and from the all their other enemies.’”

<sup>19</sup> Abner also spoke to Benjamin in person. Then Abner also went to tell David in person at Hebron everything that Israel and the whole family of Benjamin had decided to do. <sup>20</sup> When Abner came with twenty men to David at Hebron, David prepared a feast for Abner and the men who were with him. <sup>21</sup> Abner told David: “I shall go at once, that I may gather all Israel to my master, the king, that they may make a covenant with you and that you may be king over all that your heart desires.”

David sent Abner away, and he left in peace.

Joab’s murder of Abner

<sup>22</sup> Just then the servants of David arrived with Joab from a raid and brought much plunder with them. However, Abner was no longer with David at Hebron. For David had sent him away, and he had left in peace. <sup>23</sup> When Joab and all the army that was with him arrived, Joab was told: “Abner, the son of Ner, has come to the king. He has sent him away, and he has left in peace.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Joab went to the king and asked: “What have you done? Look! When Abner came to you, why is it that you have sent him away, so that he has already left? <sup>25</sup> You know that Abner, the son of Ner, came to deceive you, to find out about your movements and to get to know everything that you are doing.”

<sup>26</sup> When Joab had left David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the cistern of Sirah. However, David did not know about it.

<sup>27</sup> When Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside to the middle of the gateway to speak with him privately. There he stabbed him in the stomach. So, Abner died because he had killed Joab’s brother Asahel. <sup>28</sup> Afterwards, when David heard about it, he said: “I and my kingdom are for ever guiltless before the LORD for the murder of Abner, the son of Ner. <sup>29</sup> May it fall on the head of Joab and on all his father’s family! May the family of Joab never be without someone with a running sore, afflicted with a skin-disease, who can only grasp the disk on a spindle, who falls by the sword or who lacks food!”

<sup>30</sup> Joab and his brother Abishai had murdered Abner, because he killed their brother Asahel in the battle at Gibeon. <sup>31</sup> Then David told Joab and all the people who were with him: “Tear your clothes! Put on sack-cloth and walk in mourning in front of Abner!”

King David also followed the open casket. <sup>32</sup> They buried Abner at Hebron. The king wept aloud at the grave of Abner. All the people also wept. <sup>33</sup> The king sang this lament for Abner: “Should Abner die as a fool dies? <sup>34</sup> Your hands were not tied up. Your feet were not placed in bronze chains. You fell as someone falls before wicked men.”

Then all the people wept over him again. <sup>35</sup> Then all the people came to give David food to comfort him while it was still daylight. However, David swore an oath, saying, “May God deal severely with me and do even worse, if I taste bread or any other food before the sun sets!”

<sup>36</sup> All the people took notice of it and approved of it, as all the people approved of everything else that the king did. <sup>37</sup> On that day all the people and all Israel knew that it had not been the king’s intention to put Abner, the son of Ner, to death. <sup>38</sup> Then the king asked his officials: “Do you not know that a prince and a great man has fallen in Israel today? <sup>39</sup> I have been weak today, although I am the anointed king. These men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too cruel for me. May the LORD repay the evildoer as his evil deed deserves!”

4

The murder of Ish-Bosheth

<sup>1</sup> When Saul’s son heard that Abner had died at Hebron, he lost courage, and all Israel was dismayed.

<sup>2</sup> Saul’s son had two men who were captains of raiding parties. The name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other was Rechab. They were men of Benjamin, the sons of Rimmon from Beeroth. Indeed, Beeroth also used to be considered a part of Benjamin.

<sup>3</sup> However, the people of Beeroth fled to Gittaim and have been living there like foreigners to this day.

<sup>4</sup> Jonathan, the son of Saul, had a son with crippled feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel, and his nurse picked him up and fled. While she was hurrying to leave, he fell and became lame. His name was Mephi-Bosheth.

<sup>5</sup> Rechab and Baanah, the sons of Rimmon from Beeroth, set out for the house of Ish-Bosheth and arrived at the hottest time of the day, while he was taking his midday rest. <sup>6</sup> They came into the inner part of the house as if to get some wheat and stabbed him in the stomach. Then Rechab and his brother Baanah escaped. <sup>7</sup> They had come into the house while he was lying on his bed in his bedroom, had struck him, had put him to death and had beheaded him. Then they took his head and walked all night by way of the Jordan Valley. <sup>8</sup> They brought the head of Ish-Bosheth to David at Hebron. They told the king: “Here is the head of Ish-Bosheth, the son of Saul, your enemy, who tried to take your life. The LORD has given my master the king revenge today on Saul and on his descendants.”

<sup>9</sup> However, David answered Rechab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon from Beeroth: “As surely as the LORD lives, who has redeemed my life from all distress, <sup>10</sup> when someone told me, ‘Look! Saul is dead,’ and thought he was bringing good news, I seized him and killed him at Ziklag. That was the reward I gave him for his news. <sup>11</sup> How much more, when wicked men have killed an innocent man in his own house on his bed! Shall I not now hold you accountable for your murder of him and rid the earth of you?”

<sup>12</sup> So, David gave an order to his men, and they killed them. They cut off their hands and feet and hanged their bodies beside the pool in Hebron. However, they took the head of Ish-Bosheth and buried it in Abner’s tomb at Hebron.

5

The anointing of David as king over all Israel — 1 Chronicles 11:1-3

<sup>1</sup> All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said: “Look! We are your own bone and flesh. <sup>2</sup> Even in times past, when Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel out on campaigns and brought them home again. The LORD told you, ‘You will shepherd My people Israel and become the leader over Israel.’”

<sup>3</sup> When all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, King David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel. <sup>4</sup> David had been thirty years old when he had become king and reigned for forty years.

<sup>5</sup> At Hebron he had reigned over Judah for seven years and six months. Then at Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah for thirty-three years.

The capture and enlargement of Jerusalem — 1 Chronicles 11:4-9, 1 Chronicles 14:1-7

<sup>6</sup> The king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, who were living in the land. They told David: “You will certainly not get in here. Even the blind and the lame have been keeping you away!”

They thought, “David will not get in here.”

<sup>7</sup> Nevertheless, David captured the stronghold of Zion, that is, the City of David. <sup>8</sup> On that day David had said: “Anyone who defeats the Jebusites will have to attack ‘the lame and the blind,’ whom David despises, by using the water shaft.”

That is why there is the saying, “The blind and the lame will not get inside the house.”

<sup>9</sup> David lived in the stronghold and called it “The City of David.” David built up the area all around, on the inside of the supporting terraces. <sup>10</sup> David became increasingly powerful, because the LORD, the God of hosts, was with him.

Hiram’s friendship with David — 1 Chronicles 3:5-9, 14:1-7

<sup>11</sup> Hiram, the king of Tyre, sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs, as well as carpenters and stonemasons, and they built a palace for David.

<sup>12</sup> David knew that the LORD had established him as the king over Israel and that He had exalted his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

<sup>13</sup> David took more concubines and wives from Jerusalem after he had come from Hebron, and more sons and daughters were born to David. <sup>14</sup> These are the names of the children who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, <sup>15</sup> Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia, <sup>16</sup> Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet.

David’s defeat of the Philistines — 1 Chronicles 14:8-17

<sup>17</sup> When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, all the Philistines came up to search for David. However, David heard about it and went down to the stronghold. <sup>18</sup> The Philistines had come and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>19</sup> David inquired of the LORD: “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You deliver them into my hands?”

The LORD told David: “Go up! For I shall certainly deliver the Philistines into your hands.”

<sup>20</sup> David went to Baal-Perazim and David defeated them there. He said, “The LORD has broken through my enemies before me like the bursting of a dam.”

That is why he named that place “Baal-Perazim.”<sup>*93</sup>

<sup>21</sup> The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David and his men carried them away. <sup>22</sup> The Philistines came up yet again and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>23</sup> When David inquired of the LORD, He said: “You shall not go up! Circle around behind them and approach them from the direction of the balsam trees! <sup>24</sup> When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then pay attention! For then the LORD has gone out ahead of you to strike down the army of the Philistines.”

<sup>25</sup> David did as the LORD commanded him and struck down the Philistines all the way from Geba to Gezer.

6

The bringing of the Ark to Jerusalem — 1 Chronicles 13:1-14, 1 Chronicles 15:25-16:3

<sup>1</sup> David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand men. <sup>2</sup> David and all the people who were with him started out from Baale-Judah and went to bring up the Ark of God from where it was, the Ark that is called by the Name, the name of the LORD of hosts, who sits over the cherubim. <sup>3</sup> They placed the

<sup>93</sup> Baal-Perazim means, “Master of the breakthrough.”

Ark of God on a new cart and brought it from the house of Abinadab on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, were driving the new cart. <sup>4</sup> They brought it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. As they accompanied the Ark of God, Ahio was walking in front of the Ark. <sup>5</sup> David and all the family of Israel were celebrating before the LORD with all kinds of instruments made from fir wood, lyres, harps, tambourines, castanets and cymbals. <sup>6</sup> When they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out to the Ark of God and took hold of it, because the oxen caused it to go loose. <sup>7</sup> The LORD became very angry with Uzzah and God struck him down there because of his irreverent act. So, he died there beside the Ark of God. <sup>8</sup> David was angry because the LORD had burst forth against Uzzah. That place has been called “Perez-Uzzah” to this day.<sup>94</sup> <sup>9</sup> David was afraid of the LORD that day and asked, “How can the Ark of the LORD come to me?” <sup>10</sup> So, David was not willing to take the Ark of the LORD to be with him in the City of David. Instead, David took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom, who was from Gath. <sup>11</sup> The Ark of the LORD remained at the house of Obed-Edom, the Gittite, for three months, and the LORD blessed Obed-Edom and his whole family. <sup>12</sup> King David was told, “The LORD has been blessing the family of Obed-Edom and everything he has, because of the Ark of God.” Then David went and joyfully brought the Ark of God up from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David. <sup>13</sup> When those who were carrying the Ark of the LORD had gone six steps, he sacrificed a bull and a fattened calf. <sup>14</sup> David was dancing in the presence of the LORD with all his might. David was wearing a linen priestly garment. <sup>15</sup> So, David and all the family of Israel kept bringing up the Ark of the LORD with shouts of joy and with the blowing of horns. <sup>16</sup> When the Ark of the LORD came to the City of David, Michal, Saul’s daughter, looked down through a window. saw King David leaping and dancing in the presence of the LORD and despised him in her heart. <sup>17</sup> They brought the Ark of the LORD and set it in its place inside the tent that David had put up for it. Then David sacrificed burnt offerings and peace-offerings before the LORD. <sup>18</sup> When David had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and the peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts. <sup>19</sup> He also distributed to all the people, to the whole crowd of Israelites, both men and women, one loaf of bread, one cake of dates and one cake of raisins. Then all the people went to their homes. <sup>20</sup> When David returned to bless his family, Michal, the daughter of Saul, came out to meet David and said: “How the king of Israel has distinguished himself today! He has exposed himself today for the maidservants of his officials to see him, as one of the vulgar fellows might shamelessly expose himself!”

<sup>21</sup> David told Michal: “It was before the LORD, who has chosen me rather than your father and all his family, and He has appointed me as the leader over Israel, the people of the LORD. So, I shall celebrate before the LORD. <sup>22</sup> I shall make myself even more undignified than this and have a humble opinion of myself. However, I shall be held in honour by the maidservants about whom you have spoken.”

<sup>23</sup> Michal, the daughter of Saul, had no children all her life.

7

The promise about David's divine Descendant — 1 Chronicles 17:1-15

<sup>1</sup> When the king settled in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his neighbouring enemies, <sup>2</sup> the king told Nathan the prophet, “Look! I am living in a house of cedar, while the Ark of God remains inside the curtains of a tent.”

<sup>3</sup> Nathan told the king: “Go and do whatever you have in mind! For the LORD is with you.”

<sup>4</sup> However, that night the Word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying: <sup>5</sup> “Go and tell My servant David: ‘This is what the LORD has said: “Are you the one who will build a house for Me to live in? <sup>6</sup> For I have not lived in a house since I brought the Israelites up from Egypt, until this time. Instead, I have been moving about in a tent as a dwelling. <sup>7</sup> Wherever I have moved about with all the Israelites, have I ever spoken a Word to anyone from the tribes of Israel whom I had commanded to shepherd My people Israel, to ask: ‘Why have you not built a house of cedar for Me?’”’”

<sup>8</sup> Now therefore, this is what you shall tell My servant David: ‘This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “I have taken you from the pasture where you were following the sheep to be a leader over My people Israel. <sup>9</sup> I have been with you wherever you have gone and have cut off all your enemies who were in front of you. I shall make a great name for you, like the names of the greatest men on the earth. <sup>10</sup> I shall provide a place for My people Israel and plant them, that they may live in a place of their own and not be disturbed any longer. Wicked people will no longer oppress them as they used to do at the beginning, <sup>11</sup> since the time when I appointed judges over My people Israel. I shall give you rest from all your enemies. The LORD also tells you that the LORD will make a house for you. <sup>12</sup> When your days are complete and you lie down with your ancestors, I shall raise up your Descendant after you, who will come from your body, and I shall establish His kingdom. <sup>13</sup> He will build a house for My name and I shall make the throne of His kingdom stand for ever. <sup>14</sup> I shall be His Father, and He will be My Son. If He becomes guilty, I shall discipline Him with the rod of men and with blows inflicted by men. <sup>15</sup> I shall not stop being faithfully loving to Him as I did to Saul, whom I put out of your way. <sup>16</sup> Your house and your kingdom will stand firm before you for ever. Your throne will be established for ever.””

<sup>94</sup> Perez-Uzzah means, “Bursting forth of Uzzah.”

<sup>17</sup> Nathan told David all these Words, exactly as everything had been revealed in the vision.

David's prayer in response — 1 Chronicles 17:16-27

<sup>18</sup> Then King David went in and sat down before the LORD. He asked: “Who am I, O Lord GOD, and what is my family, that You have brought me as far as this?”

<sup>19</sup> Moreover, You have considered even this a small thing, O Lord GOD. You have also spoken about the distant future of Your servant's family, and this is the teaching about the Man, O Lord GOD. <sup>20</sup> What more, then, can David still say to You, since You know Your servant, O Lord GOD? <sup>21</sup> Because of Your promise and according to Your own will You have brought about all this greatness and so You are making them known to Your servant. <sup>22</sup> Therefore, You are great, O Lord GOD. For there is no one like You and there is no other God except You, exactly as we have heard with our own ears. <sup>23</sup> Moreover, who is like Your people Israel? It is the one nation on the earth that God has come to redeem to be His own people and to make a name for Himself. You have also done great and awesome things for Yourself, to benefit Your own land. You have done them in the presence of Your people, whom You have redeemed to be Your own, from Egypt, from the nations and from their gods. <sup>24</sup> You have established Your people Israel for Yourself, to be Your very own people for ever. You, O LORD, have also become their God. <sup>25</sup> Now therefore, O LORD God, make the promise that You have made about Your servant and about his house come true for ever! Do also as You have promised, <sup>26</sup> that Your name may be great for ever, when people say, ‘The LORD of hosts is God over Israel!’ Then the house of Your servant David will be established in Your presence. <sup>27</sup> For You, O LORD of hosts, O God of Israel, have revealed it for Your servant to hear, by saying, ‘I shall build a house for you.’ That is why Your servant has found the courage to make this prayer to You. <sup>28</sup> Now therefore, O Lord GOD, You are God, and Your Words will be true, since You have promised this good thing to Your servant. <sup>29</sup> Now therefore, please proceed to bless the house of Your servant, that it may continue in Your presence for ever! For You, O Lord GOD, have promised it and, with Your blessing, the house of Your servant will be blessed for ever.”

8

David's victories in various wars — 1 Chronicles 18:1-13

<sup>1</sup> After this, David defeated the Philistines and made them his subjects. David also took Metheg-Ammah away from the control of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup> When he defeated Moab, he made the Moabites lie down on the ground and measured them off with a length of rope. He measured two lengths of them to be put to death and one full length to be allowed to live. Then the Moabites became subjects of David and paid taxes to him. <sup>3</sup> David also defeated Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, the king of Zobah, when he went to restore his control at the Euphrates River. <sup>4</sup> David captured from him one thousand, seven hundred horsemen and twenty thousand foot-soldiers. David cut the leg tendons of all the chariot horses but left enough for a hundred chariots. <sup>5</sup> When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer, the king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand Arameans. <sup>6</sup> Then David put garrisons among the Arameans around Damascus and the Arameans became subjects of David and paid taxes to him. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went. <sup>7</sup> David took the golden shields that belonged to the officials of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> King David also took a very large quantity of bronze from the cities Bethah and Berothai, which belonged to Hadadezer. <sup>9</sup> When Toi, the king of Hamath, heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadadezer, <sup>10</sup> Toi sent his son Joram to King David, to ask about his health and to congratulate him for his victory in battle over Hadadezer. For Hadadezer had often been at war against Toi. Joram brought with him articles of gold, silver and bronze. <sup>11</sup> King David also dedicated these articles to the LORD, together with the silver and gold that he had dedicated from all the other nations that he had subdued. <sup>12</sup> They came from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines and the Amalekites and included some of the plunder taken from Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, the king of Zobah. <sup>13</sup> David made a name for himself when he returned after striking down eighteen thousand Arameans in the Valley of Salt. <sup>14</sup> Then he put garrisons in Edom. He put garrisons everywhere in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's subjects. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

A list of David's officials — 1 Chronicles 18:14-17

<sup>15</sup> So, David reigned over all Israel, doing what was just and right for all his people. <sup>16</sup> Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was over the army and Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, was the recorder. <sup>17</sup> Zadok, the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech, the son of Abiathar, were the priests and Seraiah was the secretary. <sup>18</sup> Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was in charge of both the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and David's sons were chief ministers.

9

David's kind treatment of Mephi-Bosheth

<sup>1</sup> David asked, “Is there still anyone left of the family of Saul, that I may treat him kindly for Jonathan's sake?”

<sup>2</sup> Saul's family had a servant whose name was Ziba. They called him to come to David. The king asked him, "Are you Ziba?"

He replied, "Yes, I am your servant."

<sup>3</sup> The king asked, "Is there no one still left of Saul's family, that I may show the kindness of God to him?"

Ziba told the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan, whose feet are crippled."

<sup>4</sup> The king asked him, "Where is he?"

Ziba told the king, "He is, indeed, at the home of Machir, the son of Ammiel, at Lo-Debar."

<sup>5</sup> Then King David sent men and brought him from the home of Machir, the son of Ammiel, at Lo-Debar.

<sup>6</sup> When Mephi-Bosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David, he fell reverently on his face. David said, "Mephi-Bosheth!"

He answered, "Yes, I, your servant, am here."

<sup>7</sup> David told him: "Do not be afraid! For I shall certainly treat you kindly for the sake of your father Jonathan. I shall also restore to you all the land of your grandfather, Saul, and you shall always eat at my table."

<sup>8</sup> Mephi-Bosheth bowed down and asked, "What is your servant, that you should have concerned yourself about a dead dog like me?"

<sup>9</sup> Then the king called Ziba, Saul's servant, and told him: "I have given your master's grandson all that belonged to Saul and to his whole family. <sup>10</sup> You, your sons and your servants shall cultivate the land for him and shall bring in the produce, that your master's grandson may have bread to eat! However, Mephi-Bosheth, your master's grandson, shall always eat at my table!"

Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. <sup>11</sup> Then Ziba told the king, "I, your servant, shall do whatever my master, the king, commands me, his servant, to do."

So, Mephi-Bosheth used to eat at David's table like one of the king's sons. <sup>12</sup> Mephi-Bosheth had a young son, whose name was Mica. All who lived at Ziba's house became Mephi-Bosheth's servants. <sup>13</sup> Mephi-Bosheth lived in Jerusalem, for he always ate at the king's table. He was crippled in both his feet.

10

David's defeat of the Ammonites and the Arameans — 1 Chronicles 19:1-19

<sup>1</sup> After this, the king of the Ammonites died, and Hanun, his son, succeeded him as king. <sup>2</sup> David thought, "I shall treat Hanun, the son of Nahash, kindly as his father has been treating me kindly."

So, David sent a message through his officials to express sympathy to him concerning his father. When David's officials came to the land of the Ammonites, <sup>3</sup> the princes of the Ammonites asked their master Hanun: "Do you think that David is honouring your father, because he has sent men to you to express sympathy? Has not David sent his officials to you to investigate the city, to spy it out and to overthrow it?"

<sup>4</sup> So, Hanun took David's officials, shaved off half of

each man's beard, cut their garments off in the middle, at their buttocks and sent them away. <sup>5</sup> When people told David, he sent men to meet them, for those men were deeply humiliated. The king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown and then come back!"

<sup>6</sup> When the Ammonites realised that they had made themselves odious to David, the Ammonites sent men and hired twenty thousand foot-soldiers from the Arameans of Beth-Rehob and the Arameans of Zobah, as well as the king of Maacah with one thousand men and twelve thousand men from Tob. <sup>7</sup> When David heard about it, he sent Joab out with the whole army of fighting men. <sup>8</sup> The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance of the city-gate, and the Arameans of Zobah and of Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah were by themselves in the open country. <sup>9</sup> When Joab saw that there were battle lines against him both in front and in the rear, he selected some of the best soldiers in Israel and deployed them against the Arameans. <sup>10</sup> He put the rest of the army under the command of his brother Abishai and deployed them against the Ammonites. <sup>11</sup> Joab said: "If the Arameans are too strong for me, you shall come to rescue me! However, if the Ammonites are too strong for you, I shall come to rescue you. <sup>12</sup> Be brave and let us show ourselves courageous for our people and for the cities of our God! Then the LORD will do what He considers good."

<sup>13</sup> Then Joab and the troops who were with him advanced to fight against the Arameans, and they fled before him. <sup>14</sup> When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans had fled, they also fled from Abishai and went inside the city. Then Joab returned from fighting against the Ammonites and came to Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup> However, when the Arameans saw that Israel had defeated them, they gathered together. <sup>16</sup> Hadadezer sent a message and brought out the Arameans who were on the other side of the Euphrates. They came to Helam, with Shobach, the commander of the army of Hadadezer, leading them. <sup>17</sup> When David was told about this, he gathered all Israel together, crossed the Jordan and went to Helam. The Arameans drew up their lines of battle against David and fought against him. <sup>18</sup> The Arameans fled from Israel, and David killed seven hundred Aramean chariot drivers and forty thousand Aramean horsemen. He also struck down Shobach, the commander of their army, and he died there. <sup>19</sup> When all the kings who had been subject to Hadadezer saw that Israel had defeated them, they made peace with Israel and became subject to them. The Arameans were afraid to come to rescue the Ammonites again.

11

David's adultery with Bathsheba and murder of Uriah

<sup>1</sup> In the spring of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, David sent out Joab with his officers and all Israel. They ravaged the Ammonites and besieged Rabbah. However, David remained at Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> In the evening David got up from his bed and walked around on the roof of the royal palace. From the roof, he saw a woman bathing and the woman was very beautiful. <sup>3</sup> David sent someone to ask about the woman, and he asked, “Is this not Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam and the wife of Uriah the Hittite?”

<sup>4</sup> Then David sent messengers, and they fetched her. She came to him and he lay with her. She had just cleansed herself from her uncleanness. Then she went back home. <sup>5</sup> The woman conceived and she sent someone to tell David, “I am pregnant.”

<sup>6</sup> Then David sent word to Joab: “Send Uriah the Hittite to me.”

Joab sent Uriah to David. <sup>7</sup> When Uriah came to him, David asked him how Joab was, how the soldiers were and how the war was going. <sup>8</sup> Then David told Uriah, “Go down to your home and wash your feet!”

Uriah left the king’s palace, and a gift from the king was sent after him. <sup>9</sup> However, Uriah slept at the entrance of the royal palace among all his master’s officials and did not go down to his home. <sup>10</sup> David was told, “Uriah has not gone down to his home.”

David asked Uriah: “Have you not come in from a journey? Why have you not gone down to your home?”

<sup>11</sup> Uriah answered David: “The Ark, Israel and Judah are living in tents, and my master, Joab, and my master’s officers are camping in the open field. Should I, then, go to my house to eat, drink and go to bed with my wife? As surely as you are alive and as surely as your soul is alive, I shall certainly not do that!”

<sup>12</sup> Then David told Uriah: “Stay here today also! Then tomorrow I shall send you away.”

So, Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next. <sup>13</sup> When David invited him, he ate and drank in his presence, and David made him drunk. However, in the evening Uriah went out to lie down on his couch among his master’s officials and did not go down to his house. <sup>14</sup> In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and had Uriah take it with him. <sup>15</sup> He had written in the letter: “Put Uriah out in front where the fighting is the fiercest! Then you should withdraw from him, that he may be struck down and die!”

<sup>16</sup> While Joab was besieging the city, he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew there were brave warriors. <sup>17</sup> When the men of the city came out and fought against Joab, some of the men in David’s army fell. Uriah the Hittite also died. <sup>18</sup> Then Joab sent David a full report about the battle. <sup>19</sup> He instructed the messenger: “When you have finished telling the king all about the battle, <sup>20</sup> if the king’s anger flares up and he asks you, ‘Why did you go so close to the city to fight? Did you not know that they would shoot from the wall?’ <sup>21</sup> Who killed Abimelech, the son of Jerubesheth? Did not a woman throw an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so close to the wall?’ then you shall say, ‘Your servant Uriah, the Hittite, is also dead!’”

<sup>22</sup> The messenger set out and came and told David everything that Joab had sent him to say. <sup>23</sup> The messenger told David: “The men gained an advantage over us and came out against us in the open, but we drove them back to the entrance of the city-gate.

<sup>24</sup> Then the archers shot arrows at your servants from the wall. Some of the king’s servants died. Your servant Uriah, the Hittite, is also dead.”

<sup>25</sup> David told the messenger: “This is what you shall tell Joab, ‘Do not let this incident upset you! For the sword devours one as well as another. Intensify your attack against the city and demolish it!’ Encourage him!”

<sup>26</sup> When Uriah’s wife heard that her husband Uriah was dead, she mourned for her husband. <sup>27</sup> When the time of mourning was over, David sent for her and brought her to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. However, what David had done displeased the LORD.

12

Nathan’s rebuke to David and David’s forgiveness — 1 Chronicles 20:1-3

<sup>1</sup> The LORD sent Nathan to David. When he came to him, he told him: “There were two men in a certain city. One was rich, and the other was poor. <sup>2</sup> The rich man had very many sheep and cattle, <sup>3</sup> but the poor man had nothing but one little female lamb, which he had bought. He kept her alive, and she grew up together with him and his children. She would eat some of his own little supply of food and drink from his cup. She used to lie down in his lap and was like a daughter to him. <sup>4</sup> When a visitor came to the rich man, the rich man could not bear to take any of his own sheep or cattle to prepare one for the traveller who had come to him. Instead, he took the poor man’s young ewe lamb and prepared her for the man who had come to him.”

<sup>5</sup> David became very angry with the man and told Nathan: “As surely as the LORD lives, the man who has done this deserves to die! <sup>6</sup> He must also pay back the price of the lamb four times over! For he has done this and has had no pity.”

<sup>7</sup> Then Nathan told David: “You are the man! This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: ‘I have anointed you king over Israel and have rescued you from the hand of Saul. <sup>8</sup> I have given you your master’s house and put your master’s wives into your arms. I have also given you the family of Israel and Judah. In addition, if that had not been enough, I would have given you even more like that. <sup>9</sup> Why have you despised the Word of the LORD by doing what I regard as evil? You have struck down Uriah, the Hittite, with the sword and have taken his wife to be your wife. You have killed him with the sword of the Ammonites. <sup>10</sup> Now therefore, the sword will never depart from your family, because you have despised Me and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.’<sup>11</sup> This is what the LORD has said, ‘Look! I shall raise up evil against you from your own family. I shall take your wives and, before your own eyes, I shall give them to someone who is close to you. He will go to bed with your wives in broad daylight.’<sup>12</sup> For you have done this secretly. However, I shall make this happen before all Israel and in broad daylight.’”

<sup>13</sup> Then David told Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD.”

Nathan told David: “The LORD has also put away your sin. You will not die.<sup>14</sup> Nevertheless, because by doing this you have made the enemies of the LORD show utter contempt, the son who is born to you will also certainly die.”

<sup>15</sup> Then Nathan went home.

The death of Bathsheba’s child

The LORD afflicted the child that Uriah’s wife had borne to David, and he became ill.<sup>16</sup> David pleaded with God on behalf of the child. David fasted and used to go in and lie on the ground all night.<sup>17</sup> The elders of his palace came and stood beside him, to get him up from the ground, but he refused and would not eat any food with them.<sup>18</sup> On the seventh day the child died. David’s servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead. For they said: “Indeed, while the child was alive, we spoke to him, and he would not listen to what we said. How then can we tell him, ‘The child is dead’? He may do some harm.”

<sup>19</sup> However, when David saw that his servants were whispering to each other, David understood that the child was dead. David asked his servants, “Is the child dead?”

They replied, “He is dead.”

<sup>20</sup> Then David got up from the ground, washed, anointed himself, changed his clothes, went into the house of the LORD and worshipped. Then he went to his own house, and, at his request they served him food, and he ate.<sup>21</sup> His servants asked him: “What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive, but, when the child died, you got up and ate food.”

<sup>22</sup> He answered: “While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept, because I thought, ‘Who knows whether the LORD may be gracious to me, that the child may live?’<sup>23</sup> However, now he is dead. Why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? Although I go to him, he will not come back to me.”

The birth of Solomon

<sup>24</sup> Then David comforted his wife, Bathsheba, and went in to her and lay with her. She gave birth to a son and named him “Solomon.”<sup>95</sup> The LORD loved him,<sup>25</sup> and sent a Message through Nathan the prophet.

Then he named him “Jedidiah,”<sup>96</sup> because of the LORD.

The defeat of the Ammonites and the capture of Rabbah — 1 Chronicles 20:1-3

<sup>26</sup> When Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites, he captured the royal citadel.<sup>27</sup> Then Joab sent messengers to David and said: “I have been fighting against Rabbah and have also captured the water supply of the city.<sup>28</sup> Now gather the rest of the army together, pitch a camp against the city and capture it! Otherwise I shall capture the city, and it will be named after me.”

<sup>29</sup> So, David gathered the whole army, went to Rabbah, fought against it and captured it.<sup>30</sup> He took the crown of their king from his head. It weighed thirty-five kilograms of gold and had a precious stone in it. It was placed on David’s head. He also took a very great quantity of plunder out of the city.<sup>31</sup> He brought out the people who were in it and consigned them to labour with saws, iron picks and iron axes and transferred them to the moulding of bricks. He continued to do this to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and the whole army returned to Jerusalem.

13

Amnon’s seduction of Tamar

<sup>1</sup> David’s son, Absalom, had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar. After this, David’s son Amnon fell in love with her.<sup>2</sup> Amnon became so anxious because of his sister Tamar that he became ill. For she was a virgin, and it seemed impossible for Amnon to do anything to her.<sup>3</sup> However, Amnon had a friend by the name of Jonadab, the son of David’s brother Shimeah. Jonadab was a very crafty man.<sup>4</sup> He asked Amnon: “Why are you, the king’s son, so dejected one morning after another? Will you not tell me?”

Amnon told him, “I am in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom’s sister.”

<sup>5</sup> Jonadab told him: “Lie down on your bed and pretend to be ill! When your father comes to see you, ask him, ‘Please let my sister Tamar come and give me some food to eat! Let her prepare the food in front of me, that I may watch and then eat from her hand!’”

<sup>6</sup> So, Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill. When the king came to see him, Amnon asked the king, “Please let my sister Tamar come and bake a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand!”

<sup>7</sup> David sent word to Tamar at the palace: “Please go to your brother Amnon’s house and prepare some food for him!”

<sup>8</sup> So, Tamar went to her brother Amnon’s house, where he was lying down. She took some dough, kneaded it, made cakes while he was watching and baked the cakes.<sup>9</sup> When she took the baking-pan and served it out to him, he refused to eat. Amnon said, “Have everyone leave me!”

<sup>95</sup> Solomon means, “Peaceable.”

<sup>96</sup> Jedidiah means, “The loved one of the LORD.”

So, everyone left him. <sup>10</sup> Then Amnon told Tamar, “Bring the food into the bedroom, that I may eat from your hand!”

Tamar took the cakes that she had made and brought them to her brother Amnon in his bedroom.

<sup>11</sup> However, when she brought them near him to eat, he took hold of her and told her: “Come! Lie with me, my sister!”

<sup>12</sup> She told him: “No, my brother! Do not rape me! For such a thing should not be done in Israel! Do not do this disgraceful thing! <sup>13</sup> As for me, where could I take my disgrace? As for you, you would be like one of the disgraceful fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king! For he will not keep me back from you.”

<sup>14</sup> However, he would not listen to what she said. He was stronger than she was, forced her down and raped her. <sup>15</sup> Then Amnon hated her very intensely. Indeed, his hatred for her was greater than the love he had felt for her. Amnon told her, “Get up and go!”

<sup>16</sup> However, she told him: “No! For this wrong in sending me away is greater than the other thing that you have done to me.”

However, he refused to listen to her. <sup>17</sup> He called his servant, who waited on him, and said: “Please put this woman outside, away from me and lock the door behind her!”

<sup>18</sup> So, his servant put her out so that he could lock the door behind her. She was wearing a long robe reaching to the ankles. For that was the kind of robe that the king’s daughters wore if they were virgins. <sup>19</sup> Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the long robe that she was wearing. She put her hand on her head and went away, crying aloud as she went. <sup>20</sup> Her brother Absalom asked her: “Has your brother Amnon been with you? Now therefore, do not say anything, my sister! He is your brother. Do not take this thing to heart!”

So, Tamar lived out of contact with people in her brother Absalom’s house. <sup>21</sup> When King David heard about all these things, he was very angry. <sup>22</sup> However, Absalom did not say a word to Amnon, either good or bad. For Absalom hated Amnon for raping his sister Tamar.

Absalom’s murder of Amnon for the violation of his sister and Absalom’s banishment

<sup>23</sup> After two full years, when Absalom had men shearing sheep at Baal-Hazor, which is near Ephraim, Absalom invited all the king’s sons to come there.

<sup>24</sup> Absalom came to the king and said: “Look! I, your servant, have men shearing sheep. Would the king and his officials please come with me, your servant?”

<sup>25</sup> However, the king told Absalom: “No, my son. Let us not all go, that we may not be too much trouble for you!”

Although Absalom urged him, David refused to go but gave him his blessing. <sup>26</sup> Then Absalom asked, “If not, please let my brother Amnon come with us!” The king asked him, “Why should he go with you?”

<sup>27</sup> However, Absalom urged him until he let Amnon and all the rest of the king’s sons go with him. <sup>28</sup> Then Absalom commanded his servants: “Watch now! When Amnon is in high spirits from drinking wine and I tell you, ‘Strike Amnon down!’ kill him! Do not be afraid! Have I not commanded you myself? Be strong and courageous!”

<sup>29</sup> When Absalom’s servants did to Amnon what Absalom had commanded, all the king’s sons got up and each one mounted his mule and fled. <sup>30</sup> While they were still on the road, the report reached David, “Absalom has struck down all the king’s sons, and not one of them is left!”

<sup>31</sup> Then the king stood up, tore his clothes and lay down on the ground. All his servants also stood there with their clothes torn. <sup>32</sup> However, Jonadab, the son of David’s brother Shimeah, said: “My master should not suppose that they have killed all the young men, the king’s sons. For only Amnon is dead. For Absalom has been determined to do this ever since the day when Amnon raped his sister Tamar. <sup>33</sup> Now therefore, my master, the king should not be concerned about the report that all the king’s sons are dead! For only Amnon is dead.”

<sup>34</sup> Absalom had fled. When the young man who was keeping watch looked up, he saw that many people were coming along the road behind him at the side of the mountain. <sup>35</sup> Jonadab told the king: “Look! The king’s sons have come. It has happened as your servant has said.”

<sup>36</sup> Just when he had finished speaking, the king’s sons came in and wept aloud. The king and all his servants also wept very bitterly. <sup>37</sup> However, Absalom had fled and had gone to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. David mourned for his son every day. <sup>38</sup> After Absalom had fled and had gone to Geshur, he stayed there for three years. <sup>39</sup> The king wore himself out by wanting to go to Absalom after he had been consoled about the death of Amnon.

14

Absalom’s return to Jerusalem and David’s pardon of him

<sup>1</sup> Joab, the son of Zeruiah, knew that the king’s heart longed for Absalom. <sup>2</sup> So, Joab sent to Tekoa and brought a wise woman from there. He told her: “Please pretend that you are in mourning and please dress in mourning clothes! Do not anoint yourself with olive-oil but behave like a woman who has been mourning over a dead person for a long time! <sup>3</sup> Go to the king and speak in this way!”

Then Joab put the words in her mouth. <sup>4</sup> When the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she respectfully fell on her face to the ground. She said, “Help me, O king!”

<sup>5</sup> The king asked her, “What is your trouble?” She answered: “Ah, I am a widow. My husband is dead. <sup>6</sup> I, your maidservant, had two sons, and they quarrelled with one another in the field. There was no one to separate them, and one struck the other down and killed him. <sup>7</sup> Now the whole clan has risen up against your maidservant. They have been saying, 'Give up the man who struck down his brother, that we may put him to death for the life of his brother, whom he has killed! Then we shall destroy the heir as well'. In this way they would put out my live coal, which is left, and would not let my husband have a name or any survivors on the surface of the earth."

<sup>8</sup> The king told the woman: "Go home! I shall give instructions about you."

<sup>9</sup> Then the woman of Tekoa told the king, "My master, the king, let me and my father's family be responsible for the wrong, and let the king and his throne be free from guilt!"

<sup>10</sup> The king said: "If anyone says anything against you, bring him to me! He will never hurt you again."

<sup>11</sup> Then she said, "Please may you, the king, invoke the LORD, your God, that the avenger of blood may not cause any more ruin and may not destroy my son!"

He said, "As surely as the LORD lives, not one hair of your son will fall to the ground."

<sup>12</sup> Then the woman said, "Please let me, your maidservant, speak a word to my master, the king!"

He replied, "Speak!"

<sup>13</sup> Then the woman said: "Why then have you planned a thing like this against the people of God? When the king says this, he is like a guilty person. For the king does not bring back the one whom he has banished.

<sup>14</sup> For we shall certainly die. We are like water that flows on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again. However, God will not take life away. He will devise means through which a banished person will not be expelled from Him. <sup>15</sup> Now therefore, I have come to say this to my master the king, because the people have made me afraid. Your maidservant thought, 'I should like to speak to the king. Perhaps the king will do what his servant asks. <sup>16</sup> For the king will hear and deliver his maidservant from the hand of the man who is trying to exterminate both me and my son from the inheritance that God has given.' <sup>17</sup> Your maidservant also thought, 'Please may what my master, the king, says bring me rest!' For my master the king is like an angel of God in distinguishing good and evil. May the LORD, your God, be with you!"

<sup>18</sup> Then the king answered the woman, "Please do not hide from me anything that I ask you!"

The woman said, "Please let my master, the king, speak!"

<sup>19</sup> The king asked, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?"

The woman answered: "As surely as you are alive, my master, the king, no one can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my master, the king, has said. Yes, your servant Joab himself gave me instructions. He put all these words in the mouth of your maidservant. <sup>20</sup> Your servant Joab has done this to change this situation. However, my master is as wise as the Angel of God, so that he knows everything on the earth."

<sup>21</sup> Then the king told Joab: "Look now, I have granted this. Go! Fetch the young man Absalom back!"

<sup>22</sup> Joab fell with his face on the ground to honour and thank the king. Joab said: "Today I, your servant, know that you, my master, the king, look kindly on me. For you, O king have done what your servant has wanted."

<sup>23</sup> Then Joab set out, went to Geshur and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. <sup>24</sup> However, the king said: "He must go off to his own house! He must not see my face!"

So, Absalom was isolated in his own house and did not see the king's face. <sup>25</sup> There was no one in all Israel who was praised as highly for his handsome appearance as Absalom was. There was no blemish in him from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

<sup>26</sup> At the end of every year he used to cut his hair because it was heavy on him. When he cut off the hair on his head and weighed it, it was two kilograms and four hundred grams according to the royal weight.

<sup>27</sup> Three sons and one daughter were born to Absalom. The daughter's name was Tamar and she was a beautiful woman. <sup>28</sup> Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem without seeing the king's face. <sup>29</sup> Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king, but Joab refused to come to him. He sent a second time, but Joab refused to come. <sup>30</sup> Then he told his servants: "Look! Joab's field is next to mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire!"

So, Absalom's servants set the field on fire. <sup>31</sup> Then Joab responded, went to Absalom at his house and asked him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?"

<sup>32</sup> Absalom answered Joab: "Look! I sent someone to you to tell you to come here, that I might send you to the king, to ask: 'Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me if I were still there.' Now therefore, let me see the king's face! If I am guilty of anything, let him put me to death!"

<sup>33</sup> Then Joab went to the king and told him this. Then the king summoned Absalom. Absalom came to the king and bowed down respectfully with his face on the ground before the king, and the king kissed him.

15

The rebellion of Absalom

<sup>1</sup> After this, Absalom provided himself with a chariot and horses and fifty men to run ahead of him.

<sup>2</sup> Absalom used to rise early and stand beside the road leading to the city-gate. When any man had a dispute to come before the king for a decision, Absalom would call out to him to ask, "From which city are you?"

He would answer, "Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel."

<sup>3</sup> Absalom would tell him, "See, your claims are good and right, but the king has not appointed anyone to hear you."

<sup>4</sup> Then Absalom used to say: "I wish someone would appoint me a judge in the land! Then every man with a dispute or a case would come to me, and I would give him justice."

<sup>5</sup> Whenever a man approached to bow down before him, Absalom used to reach out his hand, take hold of him and kiss him. <sup>6</sup> This is what Absalom did to all the Israelites who came to the king to have him try their cases. So, Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. <sup>7</sup> At the end of four [Hebrew: forty] years Absalom asked the king: "Please let me go to Hebron, that I may fulfil my vow, which I have made to the LORD! <sup>8</sup> For I, your servant, made a vow while I was living at Geshur in Aram. I said, 'If the LORD indeed brings me back to Jerusalem, then I shall offer worship to the LORD.'"

<sup>9</sup> The king told him, "Go in peace!"

So, he left and went to Hebron. <sup>10</sup> However, Absalom sent secret messengers throughout all the tribes of Israel, to say, "When you hear the sound of the trumpet, then you shall say, 'Absalom has become king at Hebron!'"

<sup>11</sup> Two hundred men from Jerusalem, who were invited guests, went with Absalom but went along innocently, without knowing anything. <sup>12</sup> While Absalom was offering the sacrifices, he sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, to come from his city, Giloh. The conspiracy grew stronger, and the number of people with Absalom kept on increasing.

David's flight from Jerusalem

<sup>13</sup> A messenger came and told David, "The men of Israel are keenly supporting Absalom."

<sup>14</sup> Then David told all his officials who were with him at Jerusalem: "Get up and let us flee! Otherwise we shall have no way to escape from Absalom. Leave quickly, that he may not suddenly overtake us, scatter calamity down on us and put the city to the sword!"

<sup>15</sup> The king's officials told the king, "Yes, we, your servants, are ready to do whatever our master, the king, decides."

<sup>16</sup> The king went out, with his entire household following him. However, the king left ten concubines behind to take care of the palace. <sup>17</sup> When the king set out, with all the people following him, they stopped at the last house. <sup>18</sup> All his servants were going past him. All the Cherethites, all the Pelethites and all the six hundred Gittites, who had followed him from Gath, were going past in front of the king. <sup>19</sup> Then the king told Ittai from Gath: "Why should you also come with us? Go back and stay with the king! For you are a foreigner and also an exile from your homeland. <sup>20</sup> You came only yesterday, and shall I today make you wander about with us, when I do not know where I am going? Go back and take your countrymen with you! May mercy and truth be with you!"

<sup>21</sup> However, Ittai answered the king: "As surely as the LORD lives and as my master, the king, lives, I, your servant, shall certainly be wherever my master, the king, is, whether it means life or death."

<sup>22</sup> David told Ittai, "Come then, pass along!"

So, Ittai the Gittite passed along, with all his men and all his family, who were with him. <sup>23</sup> All the people of the country were weeping aloud while all the people were going past. The king was crossing the brook Kidron and all the people were going through along on the road to the wilderness. <sup>24</sup> Zadok was there too, together with all the Levites, carrying the Ark of the Covenant of God. They set down the Ark of God, and Abiathar offered sacrifices until the people had finished passing through from the city. <sup>25</sup> Then the king told Zadok: "Take the Ark of God back into the city! If the LORD regards me kindly, He will bring me back and let me see it and His dwelling place again. <sup>26</sup> However, if He says, 'I do not delight in you,' I am ready. He will treat me as seems good to Him."

<sup>27</sup> The king also asked Zadok, the priest: "Are you not a seer? Go back to the city in peace, with your two sons, your son, Ahimaaz, and Jonathan, the son of Abiathar! <sup>28</sup> Look! I shall be waiting at the fords in the wilderness until word comes from you people to inform me."

<sup>29</sup> So, Zadok and Abiathar took the Ark of God back to Jerusalem and stayed there. <sup>30</sup> David was going up the slope of the Mount of Olives. He was weeping as he went up, with his head covered and walking barefoot. All the people who were with him also covered their heads and kept on weeping as they went up. <sup>31</sup> Someone told David, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom."

David said, "LORD, please make the advice that Ahithophel gives foolish!"

Hushai's service to David as a spy

<sup>32</sup> While David was coming to the summit, where people used to worship God, Hushai, the Archite, suddenly appeared to meet him with his garment torn and with soil on his head. <sup>33</sup> However, David told him: "If you pass along with me, you will be a burden to me. <sup>34</sup> Nevertheless, if you return to the city and tell Absalom, 'I shall be your servant, O king. I have been your father's servant in time past but now I shall be your servant,' then you will help me by frustrating what Ahithophel advises. <sup>35</sup> Will not Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, be with you there? You shall tell Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, whatever you hear from the king's palace! <sup>36</sup> Look! Their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son, are with them there. You people shall use them to send to me everything you hear!"

<sup>37</sup> So, David's friend Hushai entered the city while Absalom was coming into Jerusalem.

16

Ziba's desire to advance his own interests

<sup>1</sup> When David had proceeded a little past the summit, Ziba, the servant of Mephi-Bosheth, met him. He had a pair of donkeys saddled, loaded with two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred cakes of raisins, a hundred pieces of summer fruit and a skin of wine. <sup>2</sup> The king asked Ziba, "Why have you brought these?"

Ziba answered: "The donkeys are for the king's family to ride on, the bread and the summer fruit are for the young men to eat and the wine is for those to drink who become exhausted in the wilderness."

<sup>3</sup> Then the king asked, "Where is your master's grandson?"

Ziba told the king: "Indeed, he is staying in Jerusalem. For he has said, 'Today the family of Israel will give my grandfather's kingdom back to me.'"

<sup>4</sup> Then the king told Ziba, "Look! All that belonged to Mephi-Bosheth is now yours."

Ziba said: "I have humbly bowed before you. May you continue to regard me kindly, my master, the king!"

Shimei's cursing of David

<sup>5</sup> When King David came to Bahurim, he saw a man belonging to the same clan as Saul's family coming out. His name was Shimei, the son of Gera, and he was cursing while he was coming out. <sup>6</sup> He threw stones at David and at all the officials of King David, although all the people and all the fighting men were on David's right and left. <sup>7</sup> Shimei said as he was cursing: "Come out, come out, you bloodthirsty man, you scoundrel! <sup>8</sup> The LORD has repaid you for all the deaths you caused in the family of Saul, whom you have succeeded as king. The LORD has also handed the kingdom over to your son Absalom. Look! You are in trouble of your own making, because you are a bloodthirsty man!"

<sup>9</sup> Then Abishai the son of Zeruah asked the king: "Why should this dead dog curse my master, the king? Please let me go across and take off his head!"

<sup>10</sup> However, the king said: "What do you sons of Zeruah and I have in common? Let him curse like this! For the LORD has told him, 'Curse David!' Who, then, may ask, 'Why have you done this?'"

<sup>11</sup> David told Abishai and all his officials: "Look! My son, who has come from my own body, is trying to take my life. How much more now may this Benjamite do it? Leave him alone and let him curse! For the LORD has told him to do it. <sup>12</sup> It may be that the LORD will look at the wrong done to me and that the LORD will repay me with good for his cursing today."

<sup>13</sup> David and his men walked along the road, while Shimei kept walking along the hillside parallel to him. As Shimei kept walking along, he kept on cursing and throwing stones at David from the other side and flinging dust at him. <sup>14</sup> When the king and all the people who were with him reached a place where they were exhausted, David rested there.

The advice given to Absalom by Ahithophel

<sup>15</sup> When Absalom and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, Ahithophel accompanied him.

<sup>16</sup> When Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

<sup>17</sup> Absalom asked Hushai: "Is this your faithful love to your friend? Why have you not gone with your friend?"

<sup>18</sup> Hushai told Absalom: "No! For I shall support the one whom the LORD, this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, and I shall remain with him.

<sup>19</sup> Besides, whom should I serve? Should I not serve before his son? I shall serve before you as I have been serving before your father."

<sup>20</sup> Then Absalom asked Ahithophel: "Give your advice! What shall we do?"

<sup>21</sup> Ahithophel told Absalom: "Have relations with your father's concubines, whom he has left to take care of the palace! Then all Israel will hear that you have become odious to your father, and all who are with you will support you more."

<sup>22</sup> They pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof. Absalom had relations with his father's concubines while all Israel could watch. <sup>23</sup> In those days the advice that Ahithophel gave was like the advice that follows an inquiry of God's Word. That was how both David and Absalom regarded all of Ahithophel's advice.

17

The frustration of Ahithophel's advice by Hushai

<sup>1</sup> Ahithophel told Absalom: "Please let me choose twelve thousand men, that I may set out tonight in pursuit of David, <sup>2</sup> and that I may attack him while he is weary and discouraged and throw him into a panic! Then all the people who are with him will flee, and I shall strike down only the king. <sup>3</sup> Then I shall bring all the people back to you. The death of the man whom you want will mean the return of all, and all the people will have peace."

<sup>4</sup> Absalom and all the elders of Israel thought that the advice was good. <sup>5</sup> However, Absalom said, "Please call Hushai, the Archite, also and let us hear what he also has to say!"

The Advice of Hushai

<sup>6</sup> When Hushai came to Absalom, Absalom told him: "This is what Ahithophel has advised. Shall we do what he says? If not, give your advice!"

<sup>7</sup> Hushai replied to Absalom: "This time the advice that Ahithophel has given is not good." <sup>8</sup> Hushai said: "You yourself know that your father and his men are fighters and as fierce as a bear robbed of her cubs in the open country. Besides, your father is expert in war. He will not spend the night with the people.

<sup>9</sup> Look! Even now he has hidden away in one of the pits or in some other place. When he makes the first attack on the people, whoever hears about it will say, 'There has been a slaughter among the soldiers who are following Absalom.' <sup>10</sup> Then even the bravest soldier, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will melt with fear. For all Israel knows that your father is a fighter and that those who are with him are brave men. <sup>11</sup> Rather, I am advising that all Israel from Dan to Beer-Sheba should be fully gathered to you, as numerous as the sand on the seashore, and that you should go to the battle in person. <sup>12</sup> Then we shall attack him in some place where he is to be found. We shall fall on him as the dew falls on the ground, and not even one will be left alive of him and of all the men who are with him. <sup>13</sup> If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we shall pull it away into the valley, until not even a pebble can be found there."

<sup>14</sup> Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The advice that Hushai the Archite has given is better than the advice of Ahithophel."

For the LORD had ordered that the good advice of Ahithophel should be frustrated, that the LORD might bring calamity on Absalom.

Hushai's warning to David to escape

<sup>15</sup> Then Hushai told Zadok and Abiathar, the priests: "Ahithophel has advised Absalom and the elders of Israel to do such and such, but I myself have advised them to do so and so. <sup>16</sup> Now therefore, send a message immediately and tell David, 'Do not spend tonight at the fords in the wilderness! Indeed, you must by all means cross over, that the king and all the people who are with him may not be swallowed up!'"

<sup>17</sup> Jonathan and Ahimaaz were waiting at En-Rogel. A servant girl was to go and tell them, and they were to go and tell King David. For they dared not be seen entering the city. <sup>18</sup> However, a young man saw them and told Absalom. So, both of them left quickly and went to the house of a man at Bahurim. He had a well in his courtyard, and they climbed down into it. <sup>19</sup> His wife took a covering and spread it out over the opening of the well and poured grain out over it, so that nothing could be known about it. <sup>20</sup> When Absalom's officials came to the woman at the house, they asked, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?"

The woman told them, "They have gone across the pond of water."

When they had searched without finding them, they went back to Jerusalem. <sup>21</sup> After they had gone, the men climbed up out of the well and went to inform King David. They told David: "Set out and go across the water immediately! For Ahithophel has given such and such advice against you people."

<sup>22</sup> So, David and all the people with him set out and crossed the Jordan. By daybreak there was no one left who had not crossed the Jordan. <sup>23</sup> When Ahithophel saw that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and went home to his own city. He gave instructions to his family and then hanged himself. When he died, he was buried in his father's tomb.

David's stay at Mahanaim

<sup>24</sup> Then David went to Mahanaim. Absalom and all the men of Israel with him also crossed the Jordan. <sup>25</sup> Absalom had appointed Amasa to take Joab's place at the head of the army. Amasa was the son of a man named Ithra, an Israelite, who had married Abigail, the daughter of Nahash, and sister of Zeruiah, Joab's mother. <sup>26</sup> The Israelites and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead. <sup>27</sup> When David arrived at Mahanaim, Shobi, the son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites and Machir, the son of Ammiel from Lo-Debar and Barzillai, the Gileadite from Rogelim <sup>28</sup> brought beds, bowls, earthen vessels, wheat, barley, flour, roasted grain, broad beans, lentils and parched grain. <sup>29</sup> They also brought honey, curds, sheep and cheese from cows' milk for David and the people with him to eat. For they thought, "The people are hungry, tired and thirsty in the wilderness."

18

The defeat of Absalom's army

<sup>1</sup> David mustered the army that was with him and appointed commanders of thousands and of hundreds over them. <sup>2</sup> David sent out the army, one third under the command of Joab, one third under the command of Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and one third under the command of Ittai, the Gittite. The king told the soldiers, "I myself shall certainly also go out with you."

<sup>3</sup> However, the soldiers said: "You shall not come out! For if we flee, they will not care about us. If half of us die, they will not care about us. For now you are worth ten thousand of us. For now it would be better that you should give us support from the city."

<sup>4</sup> The king told them, "I shall do whatever you think is best."

So, the king stood beside the gate, while all the army marched out by hundreds and by thousands. <sup>5</sup> The king had ordered Joab, Abishai and Ittai: "Treat the young man Absalom gently for my sake!"

All the soldiers had heard him give all the commanders this order about Absalom. <sup>6</sup> Then the soldiers went out into the open country against Israel and the battle took place in the forest of Ephraim. <sup>7</sup> The army of Israel was defeated there by David's servants and there was a great slaughter there that day, of twenty thousand men. <sup>8</sup> The fighting there spread out over the whole country, and that day the forest devoured more people than the sword devoured. <sup>9</sup> Absalom happened to get in front of some of David's servants. Absalom was riding on his mule, and, when the mule went under the tangled branches of a large tree, Absalom's head was caught in the tree. So, he was suspended between the sky and the earth when the mule that was under him ran away. <sup>10</sup> A certain man saw it and told Joab, "Look! I saw Absalom hanging in a big tree."

<sup>11</sup> Joab asked the man who had told him this: “Look! When you saw him, why did you not strike him to the ground right there? I personally would have given you a hundred and twenty grams of silver and a belt.”

<sup>12</sup> However, the man told Joab: “Even if I felt in my hand the weight of twelve kilograms of silver, I would not reach out my hand against the king’s son. For we personally heard the king when he commanded you, Abishai and Ittai, ‘See to it that no one harms the young man Absalom!’ <sup>13</sup> If I had done it, I would have put my own life at risk. Nothing can be hidden from the king. Then you yourself would have stood aloof from me.”

<sup>14</sup> Joab said, “I shall not stand waiting like this with you.”

The death of Absalom

He took three spears in his hand and thrust them into Absalom’s heart while he was still alive in the middle of the tree. <sup>15</sup> Then ten young men, who were carrying Joab’s armour, surrounded Absalom, struck him and killed him. <sup>16</sup> Then Joab blew the trumpet, and the soldiers returned from pursuing Israel, because Joab had restrained them. <sup>17</sup> They took Absalom, threw him into a large pit in the forest and piled a very large heap of stones over him. Meanwhile, all the Israelites had fled to their tents. <sup>18</sup> During his lifetime Absalom had taken a pillar and erected it in the King’s Valley as a monument to himself. For he said, “I have no son to carry on the memory of my name.” He named the monument after himself, and it is called “Absalom’s Pillar” to this day.

The report of Absalom’s death to David and David’s grief

<sup>19</sup> Then Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok, asked, “Please let me run and take the news to the king that the LORD has obtained justice for him from the power of his enemies!”

<sup>20</sup> However, Joab told him: “You are not the one to carry the news today. You may carry the news another day. You shall not carry any news today, because the king’s son is dead!”

<sup>21</sup> However, Joab told the Cushite, “Go, tell the king what you have seen!”

The Cushite bowed down before Joab and ran off.

<sup>22</sup> Then Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok, asked Joab again, “Whatever happens, please let me also run after the Cushite!”

Joab replied: “Why should you run, my son? You do not have a message that will bring you a reward.”

<sup>23</sup> He said, whatever happens, I should like to run.”

So, Joab told him, “Run!”

Then Ahimaaz ran along the floor of the Jordan valley and outran the Cushite. <sup>24</sup> David was sitting between the two gates, and the watchman had gone up to the roof of the gate beside the wall. When he looked out, he saw a man running alone. <sup>25</sup> The watchman called out and told the king. The king said, “If he is alone, he has good news to tell.”

The man kept coming closer. <sup>26</sup> When the watchman saw another man running, the watchman called out to the gatekeeper, “There is another man running alone!” The king said, “He also is bringing good news.”

<sup>27</sup> The watchman said, “I can see that the first one is running like Ahimaaz, the son of Zadok.”

The king said, “He is a good man and coming with good news.”

<sup>28</sup> Then Ahimaaz cried out to the king, “All is well!”

He bowed before the king with his face to the earth and said, “Blessed be the LORD, your God, who has delivered up the men who raised their hands against my master, the king!”

<sup>29</sup> The king asked, “Is the young man Absalom safe?” Ahimaaz answered: “When Joab was sending the king’s servant and me, your servant, I saw a great commotion but do not know what it meant.”

<sup>30</sup> The king said, “Stand aside and wait here!”

He stepped aside and stood there. <sup>31</sup> Just then, the Cushite arrived. The Cushite said: “My master, the king, receives good news! For the LORD has obtained justice for you today from the hands of all who have rebelled against you.”

<sup>32</sup> The king asked the Cushite, “Is the young man Absalom safe?”

The Cushite answered, “May the enemies of my master, the king and all who have risen up against you to harm you be like that young man!”

<sup>33</sup> The king trembled with grief, went up to the room above the gate and wept. He said, as he went: “My son Absalom!<sup>*97</sup> My son, my son Absalom! I wish I had died instead of you! O Absalom, my son, my son!”

19

Joab’s rebuke to David

<sup>1</sup> Joab was told, “Look! The king is weeping and mourning for Absalom.”

<sup>2</sup> So, the victory that day was turned into mourning for the whole army. For that day the soldiers heard: “The king is grieving for his son.”

<sup>3</sup> The soldiers stole into the city that day like men stealing in who are ashamed because they have fled from battle. <sup>4</sup> The king covered his face and cried out loudly: “My son Absalom! Absalom, my son, my son!”

<sup>5</sup> Then Joab went to the king at the house and said: “You have today made the faces of all your servants ashamed. Today they have saved your life and the lives of your sons and your daughters and the lives of your wives and your concubines. <sup>6</sup> For you love those who hate you and hate those who love you. Indeed, you have shown clearly today that commanders and servants are nothing to you, because today I know that you would be pleased if Absalom were alive and all of us were dead today. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore, get up, go out and encourage your servants! For I swear by the LORD, that, if you do not go out, no one will stay with you tonight. Then this will be worse for you than all the trouble that has come on you from your youth until now.”

<sup>97</sup> Absalom means, “Father is peace.”

<sup>8</sup> Then the king got up and took his seat in the gateway. When the people told all the soldiers, “Look! The king is sitting in the gateway,” all the soldiers came before the king.

Meanwhile, all the Israelites had fled to their homes.

David's return to Jerusalem

<sup>9</sup> Throughout the tribes of Israel, the people were all arguing with each other. They were saying: “The king delivered us from the hands of our enemies. He is the one who rescued us from the hands of the Philistines. Nevertheless, now he has fled from the country because of Absalom. <sup>10</sup> However, Absalom, whom we anointed to rule over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore, why are you not doing anything about bringing the king back?”

<sup>11</sup> King David sent this message to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests: “Ask the elders of Judah, ‘Why should you be the last to bring the king back to his palace, when what all the Israelites are saying has reached the king at his quarters? <sup>12</sup> You are my relatives. You are my bone and my flesh. Why then should you be the last to bring the king back?’ <sup>13</sup> Ask Amasa also, ‘Are you not my bone and my flesh? May God treat me harshly and even worse if you are not the commander of my army from now on instead of Joab!’”

<sup>14</sup> Amasa persuaded all the men of Judah to act as one man, and they sent a message to the king: “Come back with all your servants!”

<sup>15</sup> Then the king returned and came as far as the Jordan, and the men of Judah went to Gilgal to meet the king and to escort the king across the Jordan.

<sup>16</sup> Shimei, the son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim, came down quickly with the men of Judah to meet King David. <sup>17</sup> A thousand men from Benjamin were with him. Ziba, the steward of Saul’s household, also rushed down to the Jordan with his fifteen sons and his twenty servants to meet the king. <sup>18</sup> They went across the ford to escort the king’s household across and to do whatever the king wanted.

The mercy shown to Shimei by David

When Shimei, the son of Gera, had gone across the Jordan, he fell before the king. <sup>19</sup> He told the king: “May my master not hold me guilty or remember how I, your servant, did wrong on the day when my master, the king, left Jerusalem! May the king not resent it! <sup>20</sup> For I, your servant, know that I have sinned. You see today that I have come down here as the first of all the family of Joseph to meet my master, the king.”

<sup>21</sup> Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, answered: “Should not Shimei be put to death for this? For he cursed the one whom the LORD anointed.”

<sup>22</sup> However, David replied: “What do you and I have in common, sons of Zeruiah, that you should become adversaries to me today? Should anyone be put to death in Israel today? For do I not know that today I am king over Israel?”

<sup>23</sup> Then the king told Shimei, “You will not die,” and the king promised him that with an oath.

David's meeting with Mephi-Bosheth

<sup>24</sup> Mephi-Bosheth, the grandson of Saul, also went down to meet the king. He had not taken care of his feet, trimmed his moustache or washed his clothes from the day when the king left until the day when he returned safely. <sup>25</sup> When he came to Jerusalem to meet the king, the king asked him, “Why did you not come with me, Mephi-Bosheth?”

<sup>26</sup> He answered: “My master, the king, my servant deceived me. For I, your servant, told him, ‘I should like to have the donkey saddled for me, that I may ride on it and go with the king.’ For your servant is lame.

<sup>27</sup> He has slandered me, your servant, to my master, the king. However, my master, the king, is like the angel of God. Therefore, do what you think is right!

<sup>28</sup> For, although all my father’s family deserved death from my master, the king, you set me, your servant among those who eat at your table. What right do I still have, then, to make any more appeals to the king?”

<sup>29</sup> The king told him: “Why should you say anything more? I have decreed that you and Ziba shall divide the land.”

<sup>30</sup> Mephi-Bosheth told the king, “Let him even take it all, now that my master, the king, has come home safely!”

David's kindness to Barzillai

<sup>31</sup> Barzillai the Gileadite had also come down from Rogelim and went on with the king to the Jordan, to send him on his way at the Jordan. <sup>32</sup> Barzillai was a very old man of eighty years. He had provided the king with food while he was staying at Mahanaim, for he was a very wealthy man. <sup>33</sup> The king told Barzillai: “You yourself, come across with me! I shall provide for you while you are with me in Jerusalem.”

<sup>34</sup> However, Barzillai replied to the king: “How many more years do I have to live, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? <sup>35</sup> I am now eighty years old. Can I discern what is pleasant and what is not? Can I, your servant, taste what I eat or drink? Can I still hear the voices of singing men and singing women? Why, therefore, should I, your servant, be an added burden to my master, the king? <sup>36</sup> I, your servant, shall go a little way across the Jordan with the king. Why should the king repay me in such a way? <sup>37</sup> Please let your servant go back, that I may die in my own city near the grave of my father and my mother! However, here is your servant Chimham. Let him go across with my master the king, and do for him whatever you think is right!”

<sup>38</sup> The king answered: “Let Chimham come across with me! Then I shall do for him what you think is right. I shall also do for you whatever you desire from me.”

<sup>39</sup> Then all the people crossed over the Jordan. The king also went across. The king kissed Barzillai and blessed him, and Barzillai went back to his own home.

<sup>40</sup> The king went along to Gilgal and Chimham went along with him. All the soldiers of Judah and half of the army of Israel escorted the king. <sup>41</sup> Then all the men of Israel kept coming to the king and asked the king: “Why have our relatives, the men of Judah, stolen you away and escorted the king and his household across the Jordan, together with all his men?”

<sup>42</sup> All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel: “Because the king is our close relative. Why, therefore, are you angry about this? Have we ever eaten at the king’s expense? Or have we completely snatched him away?”

<sup>43</sup> The men of Israel answered the men of Judah: “We have ten shares in the king. So, we also have a greater claim on David than you do. Why then did you despise us? Were we not the first to speak about bringing our king back?”

However, the men of Judah spoke more harshly than the men of Israel did.

20

Sheba’s rebellion against David

<sup>1</sup> A scoundrel named Sheba happened to be there. He was the son of Bichri, a Benjaminite. He blew the trumpet and said: “We have no share in David. We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to his tents, O Israel!”

<sup>2</sup> So, all the men of Israel deserted David and followed Sheba, the son of Bichri. However, the men of Judah loyally followed their king from the Jordan to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> When David came to his palace at Jerusalem, the king took the ten concubines whom he had left to take care of the palace and put them in a house under guard. He provided for them but had no relations with them. So, they were kept in confinement, living like widows until the day of their death.

<sup>4</sup> Then the king told Amasa, “Summon the men of Judah to come to me in three days and be present here yourself!”

<sup>5</sup> Amasa went to summon Judah but took longer than the time the king had set for him. <sup>6</sup> David told Abishai: “Now Sheba, the son of Bichri, will do us more harm than Absalom. Take your master’s servants and pursue him, to prevent him from finding fortified cities for himself and escaping from us!”

<sup>7</sup> So, Joab’s men, the Cherethites, the Pelethites and all the mighty warriors went out under the command of Abishai. They left from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba, the son of Bichri. <sup>8</sup> When they were at the large rock at Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Joab was wearing his military garment, and there was a belt fastened over it at his waist with a sword in its sheath. As he went forward the sword fell out. <sup>9</sup> Joab asked Amasa, “Are you well, my brother?”

Then Joab took hold of Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. <sup>10</sup> However, Amasa was not on his guard against the sword that was in Joab’s other hand. Joab struck him with it in the stomach and made his intestines pour out on the ground without striking a second blow, and Amasa died. Then Joab and Abishai, his brother, pursued Sheba, the son of Bichri.

<sup>11</sup> One of Joab’s young men stood beside Amasa and said, “Whoever supports Joab and whoever is on David’s side should follow Joab!”

<sup>12</sup> Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the highway. When the man saw that all the soldiers came to a halt, he removed Amasa from the highway into a field and threw a garment over him, because he had seen that everyone who came up to Amasa stopped. <sup>13</sup> After he had removed Amasa from the highway, all the men went past and followed Joab in pursuit of Sheba, the son of Bichri. <sup>14</sup> Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel of Beth-Maacah and through the entire region of the Berites. When they had assembled, they also followed Sheba. <sup>15</sup> The others came and besieged Sheba in Abel of Beth-Maacah. When they built a siege mound against the city, it stood against the outer wall. Then the whole army that was with Joab kept battering the wall to knock it down. <sup>16</sup> Then a wise woman called out from the city: “Listen! Listen! Please tell Joab, ‘Come closer, that I may speak to you!’”

<sup>17</sup> When he came closer to her, the woman asked, “Are you Joab?”

He answered, “I am.”

Then she told him, “Listen to what your maidservant has to say!”

He answered, “I am listening.”

<sup>18</sup> Then she said: “There was a saying in former times, ‘People should certainly ask for advice at Abel!’ In that way they settled matters. <sup>19</sup> I belong to those who are peaceful and faithful in Israel. You are trying to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?”

<sup>20</sup> Joab answered: “Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy! <sup>21</sup> That is not true. However, a man of the hill-country of Ephraim, called Sheba, the son of Bichri, has rebelled against the king, against David. Hand over this one man! Then I shall withdraw from the city.”

The woman told Joab: “Watch! His head will be thrown to you over the wall!”

<sup>22</sup> Then the woman went to all the people with her wise advice. They cut off the head of Sheba, the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. He blew the trumpet and all his men dispersed from the city and returned to their homes. Joab also returned to the king at Jerusalem.

The officials of David’s kingdom

<sup>23</sup> Joab was in command of the whole army of Israel and Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was in command of the Cherethites and the Pelethites. <sup>24</sup> Adoram was in charge of the compulsory labour and Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, was the recorder.<sup>25</sup> Sheva was the secretary and Zadok and Abiathar were the priests.<sup>26</sup> Ira, the Jairite, was also David's chief minister.

21

Redress for the Gibeonites after Saul's cruel treatment of them

<sup>1</sup> There was a famine for three successive years in the time of David. David asked the LORD about it. The LORD said: "It is on account of Saul and his family, which is guilty of murder. For Saul put Gibeonites to death."

<sup>2</sup> The king summoned the Gibeonites and spoke to them. The Gibeonites had not belonged to the people of Israel but were some of the survivors of the Amorites. Although the people of Israel had sworn to spare them, Saul had tried to annihilate them in his zeal for the people of Israel and Judah.<sup>3</sup> David asked the Gibeonites: "What shall I do for you? How shall I make atonement, that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD?"

<sup>4</sup> The Gibeonites told him: "We have no right to demand silver or gold from Saul or his family. We have no right, either, to put anyone in Israel to death." He asked, "What do you say that I should do for you?"

<sup>5</sup> They told the king: "About the man who destroyed us and plotted against us, so that we have been wiped out and prevented from having a firm place anywhere in the territory of Israel, <sup>6</sup> let seven of his male descendants be given to us, that we may expose them with broken limbs before the LORD at Gibeah of Saul, the one whom the LORD had chosen!"

The king said, "I shall hand them over."

<sup>7</sup> However, the king spared Mephi-Bosheth, the son of Jonathan and the grandson of Saul, because of the oath sworn by the LORD that was between David and Jonathan, the son of Saul.<sup>8</sup> The king took the two sons of Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, whom she had borne to Saul, Armoni and Mephi-Bosheth and the five sons of Merab<sup>*98</sup>, the daughter of Saul, whom she had borne to Adriel, the son of Barzillai, the Mehola-thite.<sup>9</sup> He handed them over to the Gibeonites, and they exposed them with broken limbs on the mountain before the LORD. All seven of them fell together. They were put to death during the first days of harvest, when the barley harvest was beginning.<sup>10</sup> Then Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, took sackcloth and spread it out for herself on a rock, from the beginning of harvest until rain poured down on the bodies from the sky. She did not allow the birds of the sky to come down on them by day or the wild animals by night.

<sup>11</sup> When David was told what Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had been doing,<sup>12</sup> David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of his son Jonathan from the citizens of Jabesh-Gilead, who had stolen them from the public square of Beth-Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, at the time when the Philistines had struck Saul down on Gilboa.

<sup>13</sup> When he had brought up the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from there, they gathered the bones of the others, who had been exposed with broken limbs.

<sup>14</sup> Then they buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the tomb of Saul's father Kish at Zela in the land of Benjamin. They did all that the king had commanded. After that God answered prayer on behalf of the land.

The renewed war between the Philistines and Israel and exploits of David's men — 1 Chronicles 20:4-8

<sup>15</sup> Once again there was war between the Philistines and Israel. When David went down together with his servants and they fought against the Philistines, David became exhausted.<sup>16</sup> Ishbi-Benob, who was one of the descendants of Rapha, whose bronze spear weighed three kilograms and six hundred grams and who was armed with a new sword, tried to kill David.

<sup>17</sup> However, Abishai, the son of Zeruihah, came to help him, attacked the Philistine and killed him. Then David's men declared to him with an oath: "You shall no longer come out with us to battle! You shall not put out the lamp of Israel!"

<sup>18</sup> After this, there was another battle against the Philistines at Gob. Then Sibbecai, the Hushathite, struck down Saph, who was another of the descendants of Rapha.<sup>19</sup> When there was another battle against the Philistines at Gob, Elhanan, the son of Jaare-Oregim from Bethlehem, struck down Goliath from Gath. The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam.<sup>20</sup> When there was another battle at Gath, there was a quarrelsome man, who had six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot, twenty-four in number. He also was descended from Rapha.<sup>21</sup> When he insulted Israel, Jonathan, the son of Shimea, David's brother, struck him down.<sup>22</sup> These four were descendants of Rapha in Gath and fell at the hands of David and his servants.

22

David's psalm of thanksgiving — compare Psalm 18:1-50

<sup>1</sup> David sang the Words of this song to the LORD after the LORD had rescued him from the hands of all his enemies, especially from the hand of Saul.

<sup>2</sup> He said:

"The LORD is my Rock, my Stronghold and my Deliverer.

<sup>3</sup> "He is the God who is my Rock. I try to find refuge in Him. He is my Shield and the Horn of my salvation. He is my Stronghold and my Place of refuge. He is my Saviour. You kept saving me from violence.

<sup>4</sup> "He should be praised! I used to call to the LORD and kept being saved from my enemies.

<sup>5</sup> "For the waves of death had surrounded me. The torrents of wickedness were terrifying me.

<sup>6</sup> "The cords of the grave had surrounded me. The snare of death had confronted me.

<sup>98</sup> Here the Hebrew reads "Michal."

7 "I was calling on the LORD in my distress and I was calling to my God. Then He heard my voice from His Temple and my cry for help reached His ears.

8 "Then the earth rose, fell noisily and quaked. The foundations of the heavens were trembling and shook violently because He was angry.

9 "Smoke went up in His nostrils, and a devouring fire was coming out of His mouth. Glowing coals blazed up from it.

10 "He spread out the heavens and came down, with heavy cloud under His feet.

11 "He rode on a cherub, flew and appeared on the wings of the wind.

12 "He set darkness around Him, a mass of water and rain-clouds as His canopy.

13 "Out of the brightness in front of Him coals of fire blazed out.

14 "The LORD was causing thunder from the sky and the Most High was uttering His voice.

15 "He shot arrows and scattered them. There was lightning, and He caused confusion.

16 "Then the deepest channels of the sea became visible. The foundations of the world were being laid bare, because of the rebuke of the LORD, because of the blast of the breath from His nostrils.

17 "He used to reach down from high above. He used to take hold of me. He used to pull me out of many waters.

18 "He used to rescue me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me. For they were too strong for me.

19 "They were confronting me on the day of my calamity, but the LORD was my Support.

20 "He brought me out into a spacious place. He kept delivering me, because He had taken pleasure in me.

21 "The LORD kept treating me well according to my righteousness. According to the cleanness of my hands He kept compensating me.

22 "For I have been keeping the Ways of the LORD and have not wickedly departed from my God.

23 "For all His Decisions used to be before me. I was not turning aside from His Statutes.

24 "I had been blameless before Him and had kept myself from my guilt.

25 "The LORD has paid me back according to my righteousness, as He regards me as clean.

26 "With a merciful man You were showing Yourself merciful. With a blameless warrior You were showing Yourself blameless.

27 "With a pure man You were showing Yourself pure but with a devious man You were showing Yourself shrewd.

28 "You were saving a poor people but Your eyes were on haughty people. You were bringing them down.

29 "Indeed, You were my Lamp, O LORD, and the LORD was turning my darkness into light.

30 "Indeed, with You I could run against a troop. With my God I could jump over a wall.

31 "As for God, His way is perfect. The Word of the LORD is refined. He is a Shield to all those who try to find refuge in Him.

32 "For who is God except the LORD? Who is a rock except our God?

33 "He is the God, who is my strong Fortress, and has faithfully set my way free.

34 "He used to make my feet like the feet of a deer and make me stand firmly on my high places.

35 "He used to train my hands for battle, so that my arms could bend a bow of bronze.

36 "You have given me the shield of Your salvation, and Your answer was making me great.

37 "You were making my path wide beneath me, and my ankles did not twist.

38 "I kept pursuing my enemies. I exterminated them and did not turn back until I had finished them off.

39 "I destroyed them and wounded them, so that they were not getting up. They fell under my feet.

40 "You armed me strongly for battle. You were making those who were rising up against me bow down beneath me.

41 "Moreover, as for my enemies, You had given to me their backs. As for those who used to hate me, I have also silenced them.

42 "They kept looking, but there was no one to save them. They kept looking to the LORD, but He did not answer them.

43 "I was grinding them fine, like dust of the earth. I was crushing them. I was stamping them down like mud in the streets.

44 "You have delivered me from disputes with my people. You kept protecting me as the head over nations. A people whom I had not known were serving me.

45 "Foreigners used to feign submission to me. As soon as their ears heard about me, they used to become obedient to me.

46 "Foreigners were withering and falling and came trembling out of their fortresses.

47 "The LORD lives. Blessed be my Rock! Let God, who is the Rock of my salvation, be exalted!

48 "It was God who was giving redress to me and who was subjugating nations under me.

49 "He was delivering me from my enemies. You were lifting me up above those who were rising up against me. You kept rescuing me from a man of violent deeds.

50 "That is why I shall give thanks to You, O LORD, among the nations and why I shall make music to praise Your name.

51 "He is the Giver of great deliverance to His king and the One who shows mercy to the one whom He has anointed, to David and to his Descendant for ever."

23

The last words of David

<sup>1</sup> These are the last Words of David.

“Here is the Declaration made by David, the son of Jesse, the Declaration by the man who has been raised to a high position, whom the God of Jacob has anointed and who is the sweet singer of the psalms of Israel:

<sup>2</sup> “The Spirit of the LORD has been speaking through me. His Word has been on my tongue.

<sup>3</sup> “The God of Israel has told me. The Rock of Israel has spoken: ‘He who rules over human beings should be righteous, ruling by the fear of God!’

<sup>4</sup> “He is like the light of the morning when the sun rises on a cloudless morning, when, because of the brightness after the rain, the grass comes up out of the ground.’

<sup>5</sup> “For is not my family like that with God? For He has made an everlasting Covenant with me. It is arranged and secured in every part. For will He not cause all my welfare and everything I desire to sprout up?

<sup>6</sup> “However, wicked people are like thorns that are all thrown aside, because the hand cannot grasp them.

<sup>7</sup> “A man who touches them must be equipped with iron or the shaft of a spear. They must certainly be burnt with a fire where they lie.”

A list of David’s heroes — 1 Chronicles 11:10-47

<sup>8</sup> These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: There was Josheb-Basshebeth, a Tahchemonite. He was the chief of the captains. He took pleasure in using his spear against eight hundred men, whom he killed at one time. <sup>9</sup> Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite was next to him among the three mighty men. He was with David when they ridiculed the Philistines who had gathered there for battle and the men of Israel withdrew. <sup>10</sup> He rose and struck down the Philistines until his hand grew tired and his hand clung to his sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day, and the soldiers came back behind Eleazar but only to strip the dead. <sup>11</sup> Shammah, the son of Agee, the Hararite, was next to him. The Philistines had gathered in a military camp where there was a plot of ground with a full crop of lentils, and the soldiers had fled from the Philistines. <sup>12</sup> However, when he took his stand in the middle of the plot, secured the position and struck down the Philistines, the LORD brought about a great victory. <sup>13</sup> Three of the thirty leading men went down to David at the cave of Adullam at harvest time, when an armed company of Philistines was camping in the Valley of Rephaim.

<sup>14</sup> While David was in the fortification, a sentry-post of the Philistines was at Bethlehem. <sup>15</sup> David felt a craving and said, “I wish that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is beside the gate!”

<sup>16</sup> Then the three mighty men broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water out of the well near the gate of Bethlehem. When they carried it back to David, he refused to drink it and poured it out to the LORD. <sup>17</sup> He said: “Far be it from me, O LORD, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of the men who have risked their lives to go there?”

He refused to drink it. The three mighty men did these things.

<sup>18</sup> Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was the chief of another three. When he was brandishing his spear against three hundred men, he killed them, and so he was famous among these three.

<sup>19</sup> Was he not more renowned than the other three were? Although he became their commander, he was not included among the other three. <sup>20</sup> Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was the son of a brave man from Kabzeel, who had performed great exploits. He struck down two Moabite warriors. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion. <sup>21</sup> He also struck down a formidable Egyptian. Although the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, Benaiah went down against him with a staff, snatched the spear from the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with his own spear.

<sup>22</sup> Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, did these things and was as famous as the three mighty men were. <sup>23</sup> He was honoured more highly than the thirty were but was not included among the three. David put him in charge of his bodyguard. <sup>24</sup> Asahel, the brother of Joab, was one of the thirty. Elhanan, the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, was also. <sup>25</sup> So were Shammah the Harodite, Erika the Harodite, <sup>26</sup> Helez, the Paltite, Ira, the son of Ikkesh from Tekoa, <sup>27</sup> Abiezer from Anathoth, Mebunnai, the Hushathite, <sup>28</sup> Zalmon, the Ahohite, Maharai from Netophah, <sup>29</sup> Heleb, the son of Baanah, from Netophah, Ittai, the son of Ribai from Gibeah belonging to the people of Benjamin, <sup>30</sup> Benaiah from Pirathon, Hiddai from the ravines of Gaash, <sup>31</sup> Abi-Albon from Arba, Azmaveth the Barhumite, <sup>32</sup> Eliahba from Shaalbon, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan, <sup>33</sup> Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam, the son of Sharar the Hararite, <sup>34</sup> Eliphelet, the son of Ahasbai, whose father came from Maacah, Eliam the son of Ahithophel from Gilo, <sup>35</sup> Hezrai from Carmel, Paarai from Arba, <sup>36</sup> Igal, the son of Nathan from Zobah, Bani from Gad, <sup>37</sup> Zelek, the Ammonite, Naharai from Beeroth, who was the armour-bearer of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, <sup>38</sup> Ira, the Ithrite, Gareb, the Ithrite, <sup>39</sup> and Uriah, the Hittite. These were thirty-seven in all.

24

David’s census of Israel and Judah — 1 Chronicles 21:1-6

<sup>1</sup> The anger of the LORD burned against Israel again and He incited David against them, by saying, “Go and count Israel and Judah!”

<sup>2</sup> The king told Joab, the commander of the army, who was with him: “Please go through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan to Beer-Sheba and count the people, that I may know how many people there are!”

<sup>3</sup> However, Joab told the king: “May the LORD, your God, increase the people a hundred times as many as they are while the eyes of my master the king still sees them! Nevertheless, why does my master the king desire to do this?”

<sup>4</sup> However, the king’s order overruled Joab and the commanders of the army. Joab and the commanders of the army left the presence of the king to count the people of Israel. <sup>5</sup> They went across the Jordan, camped at Aroer, south of the city that is in the middle of the valley and then went to Gad and on to Jazer.

<sup>6</sup> Then they went to Gilead and to the land of Tahtim-Hodshi. Then they went to Dan-Jaan and around toward Sidon. <sup>7</sup> They went to the fortress of Tyre and to all the cities of the Hivites and the Canaanites. Then they went on to Beer-Sheba in the Negev of Judah.

<sup>8</sup> When they had gone through the whole country, they came to Jerusalem after nine months and twenty days. <sup>9</sup> When Joab reported to the king the total of the people who had been counted, there were in Israel eight hundred thousand able-bodied men who could draw a sword, and there were five hundred thousand men in Judah.

Judgment on David for his sin in arranging the census — 1 Chronicles 21:7-17

<sup>10</sup> However, David’s conscience troubled him after he had numbered the people. David told the LORD: “I have sinned greatly in what I have done. However, now, O LORD, please take away the guilt of Your servant! For I have been behaving very foolishly.”

<sup>11</sup> When David got up in the morning, the Word of the LORD had come to the prophet Gad, David’s seer:

<sup>12</sup> “Go and tell David, ‘This is what the LORD has said: “I am laying three options before you. Choose one of them for Me to carry out against you!””

<sup>13</sup> When Gad went to David and told him about it, he asked: “Should seven years of famine come on you in your country? Or should you flee before your enemies for three months while they pursue you? Or should there be a plague in your country for three days? Now, consider and decide which answer I should take back to the One who has sent me!”

<sup>14</sup> Then David told Gad: “I am in great trouble. Please let us fall into the hands of the LORD! For He is very merciful. However, let me not fall into the hands of human beings!”

<sup>15</sup> So, the LORD sent a plague on Israel from the morning until the designated time, and seven thousand men died from Dan to Beer-Sheba. <sup>16</sup> However, when the angel stretched out his hand to destroy Jerusalem, the LORD relented from the calamity. He told the angel who was working destruction among the people: “It is enough! Now drop your hand!”

The angel of the LORD was at the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite. <sup>17</sup> When David saw the angel who was striking down the people, he said to the LORD: “Look! I am the one. I have sinned. I myself have done wrong. However, what have these sheep done? Please let your hand be against me and against my father’s family!”

The building of an altar to God at the threshing floor of Araunah — 1 Chronicles 21:18-27

<sup>18</sup> That day Gad came to David and told him, “Go up and set up an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite!”

<sup>19</sup> According to what Gad had said, David went up, as the LORD had commanded him. <sup>20</sup> When Araunah looked down, he saw the king and his officials coming toward him. Araunah went out and respectfully bowed down before the king with his face to the ground.

<sup>21</sup> Araunah asked, “Why has my master, the king, come to his servant?”

David answered, “To buy the threshing floor from you, to build an altar to the LORD, that the plague on the people may be stopped.”

<sup>22</sup> Araunah told David: “Let my master, the king, take whatever he thinks is right and offer it up! Look! There are the oxen for the burnt offering and the threshing sledges and the yokes of the oxen for the wood. <sup>23</sup> All this, O king, Araunah has given to the king.”

Araunah also said to the king, “May the LORD, your God, be favourable to you!”

<sup>24</sup> However, the king told Araunah: “No! Rather, I shall certainly buy it from you at a price. I shall not offer burnt offerings to the LORD, my God, that have cost me nothing.”

So, David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for six hundred grams of silver. <sup>25</sup> David built an altar to the LORD there and offered burnt offerings and peace-offerings. Then the LORD was moved by prayers for the country, and the plague on Israel was stopped.

1 KINGS

1

The appointment of Abishag to look after King David in his old age

<sup>1</sup> King David was old and advanced in years. Although people covered him with clothes, he could not get warm.

<sup>2</sup> Therefore, his officials told him: "Let people search for a young virgin for my master, the king, that she may wait on the king and be his attendant! Let her lie in your arms, that my master the king may get warm!"

<sup>3</sup> So, they searched for a beautiful young woman throughout all the territory of Israel found Abishag from Shunem and brought her to the king. <sup>4</sup> The young woman was very beautiful. She attended to the king and served him, but the king had no intimate relations with her.

Adonijah's plot to succeed David as king

<sup>5</sup> Adonijah, the son of Haggith, was ambitious and said, "I myself shall be the king."

He provided himself with chariots and horsemen and fifty men to run ahead of him. <sup>6</sup> His father had never at any time criticised him by asking, "Why have you been behaving like this?" He was also a very handsome man. His mother had given birth to him after Absalom. <sup>7</sup> He conferred with Joab, the son of Zeruah and with Abiathar, the priest, and they gave Adonijah their support. <sup>8</sup> However, Zadok, the priest, Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, Nathan, the prophet, Shimei, Rei and David's mighty men did not join Adonijah. <sup>9</sup> Adonijah sacrificed sheep, oxen and fattened cattle at the Stone of Zohemoth, which is near En-Rogel. He invited all his brothers, the king's sons and all the men of Judah who were royal officials.

<sup>10</sup> However, he did not invite Nathan, the prophet, Benaiah, the mighty men or his brother Solomon.

Nathan's warning to David and his help for Solomon to become king

<sup>11</sup> Then Nathan asked Bathsheba, Solomon's mother: "Have you not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith has become king without the knowledge of our master David? <sup>12</sup> Now therefore, come, please let me advise you, that you may save your own life and the life of your son Solomon! <sup>13</sup> Go in at once to King David and ask him, 'Have you not, my master, the king, sworn to your maidservant, 'Your son Solomon will certainly be king after me and he will sit on my throne'? Why then has Adonijah become king?"

<sup>14</sup> Look! While you are still there talking to the king, I also shall come in after you and confirm what you have said."

<sup>15</sup> Bathsheba went to the king in his bedroom. The king was very old and Abishag from Shunem was waiting on the king. <sup>16</sup> Bathsheba bowed down respectfully to the king, and the king asked, "What do you want?"

<sup>17</sup> She told him: "My master, you swore to me, your maidservant, by the LORD, your God, 'Your son Solomon will be king after me and he will sit on my throne.' <sup>18</sup> However, now, you see, Adonijah has become king without the knowledge of my master, the king. <sup>19</sup> He has sacrificed great numbers of oxen, fattened cattle and sheep and has invited all the king's sons, Abiathar, the priest, and Joab, the commander of the army, but has not invited your servant Solomon. <sup>20</sup> Now therefore, my master, the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to tell them who should succeed you, my master, the king, on your throne. <sup>21</sup> Otherwise when my master, the king, goes to rest with his fathers, my son Solomon and I will be treated as traitors."

<sup>22</sup> While she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet came in. <sup>23</sup> People told the king, "Nathan the prophet is here."

When he came in before the king, he bowed before the king with his face to the ground. <sup>24</sup> Nathan said: "My master, the king, have you said, 'Adonijah will reign after me and he will be sitting on my throne'? <sup>25</sup> For today he has gone down and sacrificed great numbers of cattle, fattened calves and sheep. He has also invited all the king's sons, the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest. Look! They are eating and drinking with him and have been saying, 'Long live King Adonijah!' <sup>26</sup> However, he has not invited me, your servant, or Zadok, the priest or Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, or your servant Solomon. <sup>27</sup> Is this something that my master, the king, has done without telling me, your servant, who should sit on my master the king's throne after him?"

David's crowning of Solomon as king — 1 Chronicles 29:22-25

<sup>28</sup> Then King David answered, "Call Bathsheba in to me!"

So, she came into the king's presence and stood before the king. <sup>29</sup> Then the king swore an oath: "As surely as the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of every distress, <sup>30</sup> I shall surely carry out today what I have sworn to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, when I promised: 'Your son Solomon will be king after me and he will succeed me on my throne.'"

<sup>31</sup> Then Bathsheba respectfully bowed down to the king with her face to the ground and said, "May my master, King David, live for ever!"

<sup>32</sup> Then King David said, "Call to me Zadok, the priest, Nathan, the prophet, and Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada!"

So, they came in before the king. <sup>33</sup> The king told them: "Take with you the officials of your master, mount my son Solomon on my own mule and take him down to Gihon! <sup>34</sup> Let the priest Zadok and the prophet Nathan anoint him there as king over Israel! Then blow the trumpet and say, 'Long live King Solomon!' <sup>35</sup> Then follow him up here, and he shall come and sit on my throne! He shall succeed me as king! I have appointed him to be the ruler over Israel and Judah."

<sup>36</sup> Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, answered the king: “Amen! May the LORD, the God of my master, the king, so declare it! <sup>37</sup> May the LORD be with Solomon as He has been with my master, the king, and may He make his throne greater than the throne of my master, King David!”

<sup>38</sup> Then the priest Zadok, the prophet Nathan and Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites and the Pelethites went down, mounted Solomon on King David’s mule and took him to Gihon. <sup>39</sup> Zadok, the priest, took the horn of olive-oil from the Tabernacle and anointed Solomon. Then they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, “Long live King Solomon!”

<sup>40</sup> All the people went up after him, playing flutes and rejoicing greatly, so that the ground shook with the sound.

The failure of Adonijah’s plot

<sup>41</sup> When Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it, they stopped eating. When Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, he asked, “Why is the city in a noisy uproar?”

<sup>42</sup> While he was still speaking, Jonathan, the son of Abiathar, the priest, arrived. Adonijah said: “Come in! For you are a worthy man and must be bringing good news.”

<sup>43</sup> Jonathan answered Adonijah: “On the contrary! Our master, King David, has made Solomon king.

<sup>44</sup> The king has sent the priest Zadok, the prophet Nathan, Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, the Cherethites and the Pelethites with him, and they have mounted him on the king’s mule. <sup>45</sup> The priest Zadok and the prophet Nathan have anointed him as king at Gihon. They have joyfully come up from there, so that the city is in an uproar. That is the noise that you have heard. <sup>46</sup> Solomon has also taken his seat on the royal throne. <sup>47</sup> Moreover, the king’s officials have also gone to congratulate our master, King David, saying, ‘May God make the name of Solomon more famous than yours and may He make his throne greater than your throne!’ Then the king bowed in worship on his bed. <sup>48</sup> The king also said: ‘Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has today granted someone to sit on my throne and has let me see it myself!’”

<sup>49</sup> Then all the guests of Adonijah got up trembling and left, and each one went his own way. <sup>50</sup> Because Adonijah was afraid of Solomon, he got up and left and took hold of the horns of the altar. <sup>51</sup> Then Solomon was told: “Look! Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon and has actually taken hold of the horns of the altar. He is saying, ‘Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword!’”

<sup>52</sup> Solomon said: “If he shows that he is worthy, not a hair of his head will fall to the ground. However, if wickedness is found in him, he must die!”

<sup>53</sup> King Solomon sent men, and they brought him down from the altar. When he came he bowed respectfully to King Solomon, and Solomon told him, “Go to your house!”

2

David’s final instructions to Solomon

<sup>1</sup> When the time approached for David to die, he gave instructions to his son Solomon. <sup>2</sup> He said: “I am going the way of all the earth. Be strong and show yourself a man! <sup>3</sup> Observe what the LORD, your God, requires by walking in His Ways and keeping His Statutes, His Commandments, His Decisions and His Testimonies, as they are written in the Law of Moses, that you may be successful in everything that you do and everywhere you turn, <sup>4</sup> that the LORD may fulfil His promise, which He has promised to me, ‘If your descendants pay close attention to their Way, so that they walk before Me faithfully with all their hearts and with all their souls, you will never fail to have a descendant on the throne of Israel!’ <sup>5</sup> Moreover, you also know what Joab, the son of Zeruiah, did to me, how he treated the two commanders of the armies of Israel, Abner, the son of Ner, and Amasa, the son of Jether. He killed them, shedding their blood in peacetime as if in battle. He put the blood of war on the belt around his waist and on the sandals on his feet. <sup>6</sup> Therefore, act according to your wisdom, that his grey head may not go down to the grave in peace!

<sup>7</sup> However, treat the sons of Barzillai from Gilead with faithful love! Let them be among those who eat at your table! For they stood beside me when I fled from your brother Absalom. <sup>8</sup> Look! You also have with you Shimei, the son of Gera, the Benjaminite from Bahurim. He pronounced against me a pernicious curse on the day when I went to Mahanaim. Nevertheless, when he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD, ‘I shall not put you to death with the sword.’ <sup>9</sup> Now therefore, do not consider him innocent! For you are a wise man. You will know what you ought to do to him, that you may bring his grey head down to the grave in blood.”

The death of David — 1 Chronicles 3:4, 1 Chronicles 29:26-28

<sup>10</sup> Then David went to rest with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. <sup>11</sup> David had been king of Israel for forty years. He had been king for seven years in Hebron and for thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

Solomon’s assertion of authority over Adonijah

<sup>12</sup> Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his kingdom became secure. <sup>13</sup> However, Adonijah the son of Haggith, came to Solomon’s mother Bathsheba. She asked, “Do you come peacefully?” He answered, “Peacefully.”

<sup>14</sup> Then he said, “I have something to say to you.” She said, “Say it!”

<sup>15</sup> He said: “You know that the kingdom was mine and that all Israel fully expected me to reign. However, the kingdom has turned around and become my brother’s. For it has come to him from the LORD.

<sup>16</sup> Now therefore, I have one request to make of you. Do not refuse me!”

She told him, “Say it!”

<sup>17</sup> He said: “Please ask King Solomon to give me Abishag from Shunem as my wife! He will not refuse you.”

<sup>18</sup> Bathsheba said, “Very well! I shall speak to the king for you.”

<sup>19</sup> When Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him on behalf of Adonijah, the king stood up to meet her and respectfully bowed down to her. When he sat on his throne he had a throne placed for the king’s mother, and she sat at his right hand. <sup>20</sup> Then she said: “I have one small request to make of you. Do not refuse me!”

The king told her: “Make your request, my mother! For I shall not refuse you.”

<sup>21</sup> She said, “Let Abishag from Shunem be given to your brother Adonijah as his wife!”

<sup>22</sup> King Solomon answered his mother: “Why are you requesting Abishag from Shunem for Adonijah? Request the kingdom also for him! For he is my elder brother. Request it also for him, for the priest Abiathar and for Joab, the son of Zeruah!”

<sup>23</sup> Then King Solomon swore by the LORD: “May God deal severely with me and more than that if Adonijah’s request does not cost him his life! <sup>24</sup> Now therefore, as surely as the LORD lives, who has established me, who has placed me on the throne of David my father, and who has made a house for me, as He has promised, Adonijah will be put to death today.”

<sup>25</sup> King Solomon sent a message through Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, and he struck Adonijah down, so that he died. <sup>26</sup> The king also told the priest Abiathar: “Go to your own estate at Anathoth! For you deserve to die. However, I shall not put you to death at this time, because you carried the Ark of the Lord GOD before my father David and because you suffered all my father’s hardships together with him.”

<sup>27</sup> So, Solomon removed Abiathar from being a priest to the LORD; and so the Word of the LORD, which He had spoken about the house of Eli at Shiloh, was fulfilled.

The death of Joab

<sup>28</sup> When the news reached Joab, for, although Joab had not supported Absalom, he had supported Adonijah, Joab fled to the Tabernacle of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar. <sup>29</sup> When King Solomon was told, “Joab has fled to the Tabernacle of the LORD, and look! He is there beside the altar,” Solomon sent Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, telling him, “Go, strike him down!”

<sup>30</sup> When Benaiah entered the Tabernacle of the LORD, he told Joab, “This is what the king has said, ‘Come out!’”

However, Joab answered, “No! I shall die here.”

Then Benaiah brought word back to the king: “This is what Joab has said, and this is what he has answered me.”

<sup>31</sup> The king answered him: “Do as he has said! Strike him down and bury him! Then you will take away from me and from my father’s family the innocent blood that Joab has shed. <sup>32</sup> The LORD will bring his blood back on his own head, because, without the knowledge of my father David, he attacked and killed with the sword two men who were more righteous and better than he was, Abner, the son of Ner, the commander of the army of Israel, and Amasa, the son of Jether, the commander of the army of Judah. <sup>33</sup> Their spilt blood will return on the head of Joab and on the heads of his descendants for ever. However, there will be peace from the LORD for ever for David, for his descendants, for his family and for his throne.”

<sup>34</sup> Then Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, went up, struck Joab down and put him to death. He was buried in his own house in the wilderness. <sup>35</sup> The king appointed Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, over the army instead of Joab. The king also put the priest Zadok in the place of Abiathar.

The death of Shimei

<sup>36</sup> Then the king sent men to summon Shimei and told him: “Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there! However, you shall not leave there to go anywhere else! <sup>37</sup> Know for certain that, on the day when you go out and go across the Kidron Valley, you will certainly die! <sup>38</sup> Shimei answered the king: “What you say is good, I, your servant shall do as my master, the king has said.”

So, Shimei lived in Jerusalem for a long time.

<sup>39</sup> However, after three years, two of Shimei’s slaves ran away to Achish, the son of Maacah, the king of Gath. When people told Shimei: “Look! Your slaves are in Gath,” <sup>40</sup> Shimei arose, saddled a donkey and went to Achish at Gath to look for his servants. Shimei went and brought his servants from Gath.

<sup>41</sup> When Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned, <sup>42</sup> the king sent men to summon Shimei. He asked him: “Did I not make you swear by the LORD, and did I not warn you, ‘Know for certain that, on the day you go out and go anywhere else, you will certainly die’? You replied to me, ‘What you say is good. I have heard it.’ <sup>43</sup> Why then have you not kept your oath to the LORD or obeyed the Command that I gave you?”

<sup>44</sup> The king also told Shimei: “You know in your own heart all the wrong that you did to my father David. The LORD will bring your wrong back on your own head. <sup>45</sup> However, King Solomon will be blessed, and the throne of David will be established before the LORD for ever.”

<sup>46</sup> Then the king gave a command to Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck him down, so that he died. The kingdom was established in Solomon’s hands.

1 Kings

The marriage of Solomon to Pharaoh's daughter — 2 Chronicles 1:1

<sup>1</sup> Solomon made a marriage alliance with Pharaoh, the king of Egypt. He married Pharaoh's daughter and brought her to the City of David until he had finished building his own palace, the Temple of the LORD and the wall around Jerusalem.

Solomon's request to God for wisdom — 2 Chronicles 1:2-13

<sup>2</sup> The people, however, used to sacrifice on the high places, because until that time no Temple had been built for the name of the LORD. <sup>3</sup> Solomon loved the LORD and lived according to the prescriptions of his father David, except that he used to offer sacrifices and burn offerings on the high places. <sup>4</sup> The king went to Gibeon to offer sacrifices there, for that was the most important high place. Solomon used to offer a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. <sup>5</sup> At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night. God said: "Ask Me! What shall I give you?"

<sup>6</sup> Solomon answered: "You have shown great kindness to Your servant, my father David, while he lived in Your presence in truth, in righteousness and with an upright heart toward You. You have continued to show him this great kindness and have given him a son to sit on his throne, as is so today. <sup>7</sup> Now, O LORD, my God, You have made me, Your servant, king instead of my father David, although I am only a little lad and do not know how to carry out my duties. <sup>8</sup> I, Your servant, am among Your people, whom You have chosen, a numerous people, too many to count or record. <sup>9</sup> Therefore, give me, Your servant, a mind that listens, that I may judge Your people and distinguish between good and evil! For who can judge this great people of Yours?"

<sup>10</sup> This request, which Solomon had made, pleased the LORD. <sup>11</sup> God replied to him: "Because you have asked for this, have not requested a long life for yourself, have not requested riches for yourself and have not requested the lives of your enemies but have requested understanding for yourself, to discern what is right, <sup>12</sup> look! I have done as you have asked. See! I have given you a wise and understanding mind, so that there has been no one like you before you and no one will arise like you after you."

<sup>13</sup> Moreover, I have also given you what you have not asked for, both riches and honour, so that no other king will have been like you all your life. <sup>14</sup> If you also live according to My Ways and keep My Prescriptions and My Commandments as your father David has lived, then I shall give you a long life."

<sup>15</sup> When Solomon woke up, he realised that it had been a dream. He went to Jerusalem, stood before the Ark of the Covenant of the Lord and offered burnt offerings and peace-offerings. He also made a feast for all his officials.

Solomon's wise ruling in a dispute

<sup>16</sup> Then two prostitutes came along to the king and stood before him. <sup>17</sup> The one woman said: "With your permission, this woman and I are living in the same house. I gave birth to a child while she was at the house with me. <sup>18</sup> On the third day after I had my baby, this woman also had a baby. We were alone. There was no one else with us in the house. Only the two of us were in the house. <sup>19</sup> This woman's son died during the night, because she lay on him. <sup>20</sup> She got up in the middle of the night and took my son from beside me, while I, your servant, was sleeping, laid him in her bosom and laid her dead son in my bosom. <sup>21</sup> When I got up in the morning to feed my child, I saw that he was dead. However, when I looked at him closely in the morning light, I saw that he was not the child to whom I had given birth."

<sup>22</sup> However, the other woman said: "No! The living child is my son, and the dead child is your son." The first kept saying: "No! The dead child is your son, and the living child is my son."

They spoke like this before the king. <sup>23</sup> Then the king said: "The one is saying, 'This is my son, which is alive, and your son is the dead one,' and the other is saying, 'No! Rather, your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.'"

<sup>24</sup> Then the king said, "Bring me a sword!"

People brought a sword before the king. <sup>25</sup> Then the king said, "Divide the living child in two and give half to the one and half to the other!"

<sup>26</sup> Then, because the compassion of the woman whose son was alive was stirred for her son, she told the king, "With your permission, give her the living child and by no means kill him!"

However, the other kept saying: "He should be neither mine nor yours. Divide him!"

<sup>27</sup> Then the king answered: "Give the living child to the first woman! By no means put him to death! She is his mother."

<sup>28</sup> All Israel heard about the decision that the king had made. They respected the king, because they saw that the wisdom of God was in him to decide what was right.

4

Solomon's officials and governors — 2 Chronicles 9:26

<sup>1</sup> King Solomon was the king over all Israel. <sup>2</sup> These were his chief officials: Azariah, the son of Zadok, was the priest. <sup>3</sup> Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, were the secretaries. Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, was the recorder. <sup>4</sup> Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was in command of the army. Zadok and Abiathar were the priests. <sup>5</sup> Azariah, the son of Nathan, was over the officers. Zabud, the son of Nathan, was a priest and personal adviser to the king. <sup>6</sup> Ahishar was in charge of the palace. Adoniram, the son of Abda, was in charge of the forced labour. <sup>7</sup> Solomon had twelve governors over all Israel, who were to provide food for the king and his palace. Each man had to provide supplies for one month in the year. <sup>8</sup> These were their names: Ben-Hur was in the hill-country of Ephraim. <sup>9</sup> Ben-Deker was in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth-Shemesh and Elon-Beth-Hanan. <sup>10</sup> Ben-Hesed was in Arubboth. He had Socoh and all the land of Hopher. <sup>11</sup> Ben-Abinadab had all the hilly country around Dor. He had married Taphath, the daughter of Solomon. <sup>12</sup> Baana, the son of Ahilud, was in Taanach, Megiddo and all Beth-Shean, which is beside Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth-Shean to Abel-Meholah, as far as the other side of Jokneam. <sup>13</sup> Ben-Geber was in Ramoth-Gilead. He had the villages of Jair, the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead. He also had the district of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty large walled cities with bronze gate-bars. <sup>14</sup> Ahinadab, the son of Iddo, was in Mahanaim. <sup>15</sup> Ahimaaz was in Naphtali. He also had married a daughter of Solomon, namely, Basemath. <sup>16</sup> Baana, the son of Hushai, was in Asher and Bealoth. <sup>17</sup> Jehoshaphat, the son of Paruah, was in Issachar. <sup>18</sup> Shimei, the son of Ela, was in Benjamin. <sup>19</sup> Geber, the son of Uri, was in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon, the king of the Amorites and of Og, the king of Bashan. He was the only governor over that district.

<sup>20</sup> Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They used to eat and drink and they were happy. <sup>21</sup> Solomon was the ruler over all the kingdoms from the Euphrates to the land of the Philistines and to the border of Egypt. They used to pay taxes and were Solomon's subjects all his life.

Solomon's daily provisions

<sup>22</sup> Solomon's daily provisions were five tonnes of fine flour and ten tonnes of flour, <sup>23</sup> ten stall-fed cattle, twenty pasture-fed cattle, a hundred sheep and goats, besides deer, gazelles, roebucks and fattened fowl. <sup>24</sup> Indeed, he was ruling over the entire region west of the Euphrates from Tiphseh to Gaza, over all the kings west of the Euphrates. He had peace around him on every side. <sup>25</sup> Judah and Israel, from Dan even to Beer-Sheba, lived in safety, everyone under his own vine and under his fig tree, while Solomon was alive. <sup>26</sup> Solomon also had forty thousand stalls for his chariot horses and twelve thousand horsemen. <sup>27</sup> Each of those governors in his month supplied provisions for King Solomon and for all who came to King Solomon's table. They did not omit anything. <sup>28</sup> Each of them, according to his stipulated quota, also used to bring barley and straw to the place where it was required for the horses and draught horses.

Solomon's wisdom

<sup>29</sup> God gave Solomon wisdom, very great insight and a breadth of understanding like the sand on the seashore. <sup>30</sup> Solomon's wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the men of the East and greater than all the wisdom of the Egyptians. <sup>31</sup> He was wiser than all other human beings were, wiser than Ethan the Ezrahite was and wiser than Heman, Calcol and Darda, the sons of Mahol, were. He was famous in all the surrounding nations. <sup>32</sup> He also spoke three thousand proverbs, and his songs numbered one thousand and five. <sup>33</sup> He spoke about trees, from the cedars in Lebanon to the hyssop that grows out of the wall. He also spoke about animals, birds, reptiles and fish. <sup>34</sup> People came from all nations, to hear the wisdom of Solomon and from all the kings of the earth, who had heard about his wisdom.

5

The supply of wood and stone for the Temple — 2 Chronicles 2:1-13, 15-18

<sup>1</sup> Hiram, the king of Tyre, sent his servants to Solomon when he heard that people had anointed him king to succeed his father. For Hiram had always had an affectionate regard for David. <sup>2</sup> Solomon sent this message to Hiram, <sup>3</sup> "You know that my father David could not build a Temple for the name of the LORD, his God, because of the wars that his enemies all around were fighting against him, until the LORD put them under his feet. <sup>4</sup> However, the LORD, my God, has now given me rest on every side. There is no one opposing me, and no calamity has occurred. <sup>5</sup> I intend, therefore, to build a Temple for the name of the LORD, my God, as the LORD told my father David, when He promised, 'Your son, whom I shall set on your throne to succeed you, will build the Temple for My name.' <sup>6</sup> Now therefore, give orders for people to cut cedars in Lebanon for me! My servants will join your servants, and I shall pay you whatever wages you set for your servants. For you yourself know that there is no one among us who is as skilled in felling timber as the men of Sidon."

<sup>7</sup> When Hiram heard Solomon's message, he was very pleased and said, "Blessed be the LORD today, who has given David a wise son to rule over this great people!"

<sup>8</sup> Hiram sent a message to Solomon: "I have heard the message that you have sent to me. I shall do all you want in providing the cedar and juniper logs. <sup>9</sup> My servants will bring them from Lebanon down to the sea, and I shall make them into rafts to go by sea to the place that you specify to me. I shall break the rafts up there, and you may take them away. You will also meet my wishes if you provide food for my household."

<sup>10</sup> So, Hiram kept supplying Solomon with all the cedar and juniper logs that he wanted. <sup>11</sup> Solomon also gave Hiram three thousand, three hundred and seventy tonnes of wheat as food for his household and seven kilolitres of beaten olive-oil. Solomon continued to provide this to Hiram every year. <sup>12</sup> The LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as He had promised him. There was peace between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty. <sup>13</sup> King Solomon imposed compulsory labour on all the Israelites. This forced labour numbered thirty thousand men. <sup>14</sup> He sent them to Lebanon in shifts of ten thousand each month. They used to spend one month in Lebanon and two months at home. Adoniram was in charge of the compulsory labour. <sup>15</sup> Solomon also had seventy thousand men who carried loads and eighty thousand men who quarried stones in the hill-country, <sup>16</sup> besides Solomon's three thousand, three hundred chief foremen, who were in charge of the work. They supervised the people who were doing the work. <sup>17</sup> At the king's command they quarried out large blocks of valuable stone to provide a foundation of dressed stone for the Temple. <sup>18</sup> Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the men of Gebal cut and prepared the timber and the stone to build the Temple.

6

The building of the Temple in seven years — 2 Chronicles 3:1-14

<sup>1</sup> In the four hundred and eightieth year after the Israelites had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, which is the second month, he began to build the Temple of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> The Temple that King Solomon built for the LORD was thirty metres long, ten metres wide and fifteen metres high. <sup>3</sup> The vestibule in front of the nave of the Temple was ten metres long, equal to the width of the Temple, and extended for five metres from the front of the Temple. <sup>4</sup> He also made closed slatted windows for the Temple. <sup>5</sup> He also built a flat surface against the wall of the Temple, running around the walls of the Temple, both the nave and the inner sanctuary. He also made side rooms all around. <sup>6</sup> The lowest part of the flat surface was two and a half metres wide. The middle part was three metres wide and the third part was three-and-a-half metres wide. For he placed ledges on the wall around the outside of the Temple that nothing might be fastened into the walls of the Temple. <sup>7</sup> When the house was being built, it was done with stone completely prepared at the quarry, so that no hammer or chisel or any other iron tool was heard in the Temple while it was being built. <sup>8</sup> The entrance for the middle side-room was on the south side of the Temple. People used to go up by a stairway to the middle side-room and from the middle side-room to the third. <sup>9</sup> When he had built the Temple and finished it, he made the ceiling of the Temple with rafters and cedar planks. <sup>10</sup> He built the flat surface alongside the whole Temple, two-and-a-half metres high. It was fastened to the Temple with cedar beams. <sup>11</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to Solomon, <sup>12</sup> "Concerning this house that you are building, if you live according to My Statutes and My Decisions, keep all My Commandments and walk in them, I shall fulfil My promise to you, which I made to your father David. <sup>13</sup> I shall dwell among the Israelites and shall not forsake My people Israel."

<sup>14</sup> When Solomon had built the Temple and finished it <sup>15</sup> he lined the inside walls of the Temple with cedar boards. He panelled the inside with wood, from the floor of the Temple to the beams of the ceiling. He covered the floor of the Temple with juniper planks. <sup>16</sup> He built ten metres at the rear of the Temple with cedar boards from the floor to the ceiling and built this on the inside of the Temple as an inner room, as the Most Holy Place. <sup>17</sup> The main sanctuary in front of this room was twenty metres long. <sup>18</sup> The cedar inside the Temple was carved with gourds and open flowers. All was cedar-wood. No stone could be seen. <sup>19</sup> He prepared the inner sanctuary inside the Temple to put the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD there. <sup>20</sup> The interior of the inner sanctuary was ten metres long, ten metres wide and ten metres high. He overlaid it with pure gold. He also overlaid the cedar altar. <sup>21</sup> Solomon overlaid the inside of the Temple with pure gold. He also put golden chains across the front of the inner sanctuary and overlaid it with gold. <sup>22</sup> He overlaid the whole Temple with gold, until the entire Temple was finished. He also overlaid with gold the altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary.

The furnishings of the Temple — 2 Chronicles 4:1-10, 19-22, 2 Chronicles 5:1

<sup>23</sup> In the inner sanctuary he also made two cherubim of olive-wood, each five metres high. <sup>24</sup> One wing of the first cherub was two and a half metres long, and the other wing of the cherub was two and a half metres. It was five metres from one wing tip to the other wing tip. <sup>25</sup> The other cherub also measured five metres. The two cherubim were identical in size and shape. <sup>26</sup> One cherub was five metres high, and so was the other cherub. <sup>27</sup> He placed the cherubim in the innermost part of the Temple. The wings of the cherubim were spread out so that a wing of one touched the one wall, and a wing of the other cherub was touching the other wall. Their other wings were touching each other in the middle of the room. <sup>28</sup> He also overlaid the cherubim with gold. <sup>29</sup> On the walls all around the Temple, in both the inner and outer rooms, he carved figures of cherubim, palm-trees and open flowers. <sup>30</sup> He also overlaid the floors of both the inner and outer rooms of the Temple with gold. <sup>31</sup> For the entrance to the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive-wood. The projecting columns that formed the doorposts were five-sided. <sup>32</sup> The two doors were also of olive-wood, and he made carvings of angels, palm-trees and open flowers on them. He covered them with gold and pressed the gold down on the angels and the palm-trees. <sup>33</sup> In the same way he made four-sided doorposts of olive-wood for the entrance to the Temple. <sup>34</sup> He also made two doors of juniper wood. The two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding. <sup>35</sup> He carved cherubim, palm-trees and open flowers on them and overlaid them with gold, applied evenly over the carved work. <sup>36</sup> He built the inner court with three courses of hewn stone and one course of trimmed cedar beams. <sup>37</sup> The foundation of the Temple of the LORD had been laid in the fourth year, in the month of Ziv.<sup>38</sup> In the eleventh year, in the month of Bul, which is the eighth month, the Temple was finished in all its details and according to all its specifications. He had spent seven years in building it.

7

The building of Solomon's palace in thirteen years

<sup>1</sup> After Solomon had been building his own palace for thirteen years, he completed his entire palace. <sup>2</sup> He built the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon. It was fifty metres long, twenty-five metres wide and fifteen metres high. It had four rows of cedar pillars, with trimmed cedar beams on the pillars. <sup>3</sup> It was roofed with cedar above its forty-five supporting beams, which rested on the pillars. There were fifteen beams in each row. <sup>4</sup> There were three levels of slatted windows, and windows were opposite each other on three levels. <sup>5</sup> All the entrances with their doorposts had square frames, and windows were opposite each other in sets of three. <sup>6</sup> He also made the Hall of Pillars. It was twenty-five metres long and fifteen metres wide. There was a porch in front of it. In front of that there were pillars and an overhanging roof. <sup>7</sup> He also built the Throne Hall, the Hall of Justice, where he would decide cases. It was panelled with cedar from the floor to the ceiling. <sup>8</sup> His own palace, where he would live, had another court behind the Hall and was built in a similar way. Solomon was also making a palace like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had married. <sup>9</sup> All these were made of high-grade stone, cut to size and trimmed with saws on the inner and outer faces, from the foundation to the top course and from the outside to the great court. <sup>10</sup> The foundation was laid with large high-quality stone, some stones measuring five metres and some four metres. <sup>11</sup> Above the foundation there were high-quality stones that had been cut to size and cedar-wood. <sup>12</sup> The great courtyard had three courses of dressed stone all around and a course of trimmed cedar beams. It was like the inner court of the Temple of the LORD and the porch of the Temple.

The work in bronze by Hiram of Tyre to furnish the Temple — 2 Chronicles 2:13-17, 3:15-5:1

<sup>13</sup> King Solomon sent someone to fetch Hiram from Tyre. <sup>14</sup> His mother was a widow from the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre. He was a craftsman in bronze and was endowed with the wisdom, understanding and skill to make any kind of bronze work. He came to King Solomon and did all his work.

The two pillars at the porch of the Temple

<sup>15</sup> He cast two bronze pillars. The first pillar was nine metres high, and a line measured the circumference of the second pillar at six metres. <sup>16</sup> He also made two capitals of cast bronze to set on the tops of the pillars. Each of the two capitals was two-and-a-half metres high. <sup>17</sup> He also made a lattice network in chain-like decoration for the capitals that were on the tops of the pillars. There were seven rows on each of the two capitals. <sup>18</sup> There were two rows of pomegranates all around the one capital above the network, and he made them for the other capital in the same way. <sup>19</sup> The capitals that were on the tops of the pillars in the porch were ornamented with lotus flowers and were two metres high. <sup>20</sup> The capitals were on the two pillars and above the rounded projection, which was beside the network and next to it. There were two hundred pomegranates in rows all around, and so with the other capital. <sup>21</sup> He erected the pillars at the porch of the Temple. He erected the pillar on the right and named it "Jachin,"<sup>99</sup> and erected the pillar on the left and named it "Boaz."<sup>100</sup> <sup>22</sup> The tops of the pillars were ornamented with lotus flowers. So, the work on the pillars was completed.

The bronze pool for the Temple — 2 Chronicles 4:2-5

<sup>23</sup> Then he made the pool with cast metal. It was five metres from rim to rim. It was circular, two-and-a-half metres high. It took a line of fifteen metres to measure its circumference. <sup>24</sup> Carved ornaments encircled it below the rim, ten to every half a metre and they surrounded the whole pool. The carved ornaments were in two rows, cast in one piece with the pool. <sup>25</sup> It was standing on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east. The pool was set on top of them and their hind quarters were all towards the middle. <sup>26</sup> It was a handbreadth thick, and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like a lotus flower. It held ninety thousand litres.

The wheeled stands

<sup>27</sup> He also made the ten movable stands of bronze. Each stand was two metres long, two metres wide and one-and-a-half metres high. <sup>28</sup> This is how the stands were made: They had side-panels, and the side-panels were between crosspieces. <sup>29</sup> On the side-panels that were between the crosspieces there were lions, bulls and cherubim. On the crosspieces, both above and below the lions and bulls, there were garlands of bevelled work. <sup>30</sup> Moreover, each stand had four bronze wheels and bronze axles. Each had four legs with flanges on them to hold a washbasin. The supports were made of cast metal with garlands at the side of each. <sup>31</sup> Each had an opening inside at the top for its circular frame, a half a metre deep. The opening was round, and the structure of the stand was sixty-seven centimetres high. At its opening there were also engravings. Its side-panels were square, not round. <sup>32</sup> The four wheels were underneath the side-panels. The axles of the wheels were attached to the stand. Each wheel was sixty-seven centimetres high. <sup>33</sup> The wheels were made like chariot wheels. Their axles, their rims, their spokes and their hubs were all of cast metal. <sup>34</sup> Each stand had four handles, one on each corner. The handles were of one piece with the stands.

<sup>99</sup> Jachin means, "He establishes."

<sup>100</sup> Boaz means, "In Him is strength."

<sup>35</sup> On the top of the stand there was a round band twenty-five centimetres high. Its stays and its side-panels on the top of the stand were of one piece with it. <sup>36</sup> He carved cherubim, lions and palm-trees on the surfaces of its stays and on its side-panels, wherever there was a blank space, with garlands all around. <sup>37</sup> This is the way he made the ten stands. All of them were cast in the same way and were identical in size and shape.

The bronze basins — 2 Chronicles 4:6, 10

<sup>38</sup> He also made ten bronze basins. Each basin held nine hundred litres. Each basin measured two metres. There was one basin on each of the ten stands. <sup>39</sup> He set five stands on the right side of the Temple and five on the left side of the Temple. He set the pool on the right side of the Temple, toward the south-east.

Other materials for the Temple — 2 Chronicles 4:11-5:1

<sup>40</sup> Hiram also made the basins, the fire-shovels and the bowls used for pouring. So, Hiram finished doing all the work that he did for King Solomon for the Temple of the LORD: <sup>41</sup> the two pillars, the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the pillars, the two lattice networks to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the tops of the pillars, <sup>42</sup> the four hundred pomegranates for the two lattice networks, two rows of pomegranates for each lattice network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the pillars, <sup>43</sup> the ten stands, the ten basins on the stands, <sup>44</sup> the one pool, the twelve bulls underneath the pool, <sup>45</sup> the basins, the fire-shovels and the bowls used for pouring. All these vessels that Hiram made for King Solomon for the Temple of the LORD were of polished bronze. <sup>46</sup> The king had them cast in the Jordan valley, in the foundry between Succoth and Zarethan. <sup>47</sup> Solomon left all the articles unweighted, because there was so very much. The weight of the bronze could not be determined.

<sup>48</sup> Solomon also made all the furnishings for the Temple of the LORD: the golden altar, the golden table that held the bread of the Presence, <sup>49</sup> the lampstands of pure gold (five on the right side and five on the left side in front of the inner sanctuary), the flowers, the lamps, the golden wick-snuffers, <sup>50</sup> the pure-gold bowls, wick-trimmers, bowls used for pouring, basins and fire pans. He also made the golden linings for the doors of the innermost part of the Temple, the Most Holy Place, and for the doors of the main hall of the Temple. <sup>51</sup> When all the work that King Solomon did on the Temple of the LORD had been finished, Solomon brought in the things that his father David had dedicated, the silver and the gold and the furnishings and placed them in the treasuries of the Temple of the LORD.

8

The bringing up of the Ark of the Covenant — 2 Chronicles 5:2-6:11

<sup>1</sup> Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, all the leaders of the tribes and the chiefs of the Israelite families, before King Solomon at Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD from the City of David, which is Zion. <sup>2</sup> All the men of Israel came together to King Solomon at the festival in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. <sup>3</sup> When all the elders of Israel had come, the priests took up the Ark. <sup>4</sup> They brought up the Ark of the LORD, the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy furnishings that were in the tent. The priests and the Levites brought them up. <sup>5</sup> King Solomon and the whole congregation of Israel, who had assembled before him and were with him in front of the Ark, were sacrificing so many sheep and cattle that they could not be recorded or counted. <sup>6</sup> Then the priests brought the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD to its place in the inner sanctuary of the Temple, the Most Holy Place, and put it underneath the wings of the cherubim. <sup>7</sup> For the cherubim were spreading out their wings over the place of the Ark, so that the cherubim overshadowed the Ark and its poles. <sup>8</sup> The poles were so long that the ends of the poles could be seen from the Holy Place before the inner sanctuary. However, they could not be seen from outside. They have been there to this day. <sup>9</sup> There was nothing in the Ark except the two stone tablets that Moses had put there at Horeb, where the LORD had made a Covenant with the Israelites after they had come out of the land of Egypt. <sup>10</sup> When the priests had come out of the Holy Place, the cloud filled the Temple of the LORD. <sup>11</sup> The priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, because the glory of the LORD had filled the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon said: "The LORD has said that He dwells in thick darkness. <sup>13</sup> I have certainly built for You a magnificent Temple, a place for You to live in for ever."

Solomon's address to the people at the dedication of the Temple — 2 Chronicles 6:3-11

<sup>14</sup> Then the king turned around and blessed the whole congregation of Israel while the whole congregation of Israel was standing there. <sup>15</sup> He said: "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel! He made a promise with His own mouth to my father David and with His hand He has fulfilled it. He said: <sup>16</sup> 'Since the day when I brought My people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen any city in any of the tribes of Israel in which to build a Temple where My name might be. However, I chose David to be over My people Israel.' <sup>17</sup> My father David wished to build a Temple for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>18</sup> However, the LORD told my father David, 'Because you desired to build a Temple for My name, you did well in desiring to do it. <sup>19</sup> Nevertheless, you shall not build the Temple! Rather, your son, who will come from your body, will build the Temple for My name.' <sup>20</sup> The LORD has fulfilled His promise, which He has made. For I have succeeded my father David and have occupied the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and I have built the Temple for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>21</sup> I have provided a place there for the Ark, which contains the Covenant of the LORD, which He made with our fathers, when He brought them out of the land of Egypt.”

Solomon's prayer at the dedication of the Temple — 2 Chronicles 6:12-42

<sup>22</sup> Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the whole assembly of Israel and spread his hands toward heaven. <sup>23</sup> He said: “O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like You in heaven above or on earth below. You keep Your Covenant and show faithful love to Your servants, who walk before You with all their hearts. <sup>24</sup> You have kept Your promise to Your servant, my father David. You promised it with Your mouth and carried it out with Your hand, as is so today. <sup>25</sup> Now, O LORD, God of Israel, keep Your promise to Your servant, my father David, when You said to him, ‘You will not fail to have a man sitting before Me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons pay close attention to their ways, so that they walk before Me as You have been walking before Me!’ <sup>26</sup> Now therefore, O God of Israel, please let the promise that You have made to Your servant, David, my father, be confirmed! <sup>27</sup> Nevertheless, will God really dwell on the earth? Look! The heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You. How much less this Temple, which I have built! <sup>28</sup> Yet give attention to the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O LORD, my God, and hear the cry and the prayer that Your servant is praying before You today! <sup>29</sup> May Your eyes be open toward this Temple night and day, toward the place about which You have said, ‘My name will be there,’ that You may hear the prayer that Your servant is making toward this place! <sup>30</sup> Hear the supplication of Your servant and of Your people Israel when they pray toward this place! May You Yourself hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, and, when You hear, forgive!

<sup>31</sup> “If a man sins against his neighbour and binds himself with a curse, to place himself under an imprecation and comes and swears his oath before Your altar in this Temple, <sup>32</sup> then may You Yourself hear in heaven, act and judge Your servants, condemning the guilty person by bringing his conduct on his own head, and justifying the righteous person by establishing his innocence!

<sup>33</sup> “When Your people Israel are defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against You and when they turn back to You, confess Your name, pray and plead with You in this Temple, <sup>34</sup> then may You Yourself hear in heaven, forgive the sin of Your people Israel and bring them back to the land that You have given to their fathers!

<sup>35</sup> “When the sky is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You and when they pray towards this place, confess Your name and turn away from their sin, because You have made them suffer, <sup>36</sup> then may You Yourself hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, when You teach them the good way in which they should walk and when You give rain on Your land, which You have given to Your people for an inheritance!

<sup>37</sup> “When there is famine in the land or a plague, when there is scorching or mildew or locusts or stripping locusts, when their enemy besieges them in the land at their gates or whatever plague or sickness there may be, <sup>38</sup> whenever any human being of all Your people Israel makes any prayer or any supplication, when each one’s conscience distresses him and he spreads out his hands toward this Temple, <sup>39</sup> then may You Yourself hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, forgive and act! May You allot to each one as all his ways deserve! For You know his heart. For You, You only, know the hearts of all the descendants of Adam. <sup>40</sup> Do this, that they may fear You for all their lives on the land that You have given to our fathers!

<sup>41</sup> “Likewise, when a foreigner, who does not belong to Your people Israel, comes from a distant country for Your name’s sake <sup>42</sup> (for people will hear about Your great name, Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm) — when he comes and prays towards this Temple, <sup>43</sup> then may You Yourself hear in heaven, Your dwelling place, and do whatever the foreigner asks from You, that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as Your own people Israel do, and that they may know that this Temple, which I have built, bears Your name!

<sup>44</sup> “When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way You send them and they pray to You, O LORD, facing towards the city that You have chosen and the Temple that I have built for Your name, <sup>45</sup> then may You hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication and do for them what is right!

<sup>46</sup> “When they sin against You — for there is no one who does not sin — and You are angry with them and deliver them to an enemy, so that they are taken away as captives to the land of the enemy, far away or near, <sup>47</sup> and when they come back to themselves in the land where they have been taken as captives, repent, plead with You in the land of their captors and say, ‘We have sinned, done wrong and acted wickedly,’ <sup>48</sup> and when they turn back to You with all their hearts and with all their souls in the land of their enemies, who have taken them away as captives, and pray to You towards their land, which You have given to their fathers, the city that You have chosen and the Temple that I have built for Your name, <sup>49</sup> then may You hear their prayer and their plea in heaven, Your dwelling place, and do for them what is right! <sup>50</sup> Then forgive Your people for the sins that they have committed against You and all their rebellious acts that they have committed against You! Cause those who have captured them to be compassionate on them, that they may treat them mercifully! <sup>51</sup> For they are Your people and Your inheritance, which You have brought out of Egypt, from inside that iron smelter. <sup>52</sup> May Your eyes be open to the supplication of Your servant and to the supplication of Your people Israel, so that You listen to them whenever they call to You! <sup>53</sup> For You Yourself have singled them out of all the peoples of the earth to be Your own inheritance, as You promised through Your servant Moses when You, O Lord GOD, brought our fathers out of Egypt.”

Solomon's blessing of the people — 2 Chronicles 6:40-42

<sup>54</sup> When Solomon had finished making all this prayer and supplication to the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, where he had been kneeling with his hands spread out toward heaven. <sup>55</sup> He stood up and blessed the whole congregation of Israel, saying loudly, <sup>56</sup> “Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to His people Israel, exactly as He has promised! Not one of all the good promises that He made through His servant Moses has failed to come true. <sup>57</sup> May the LORD, our God, be with us, as He has been with our fathers! May He not leave us or forsake us, <sup>58</sup> that He may turn our hearts to Himself, that we may walk in all His Ways and keep His Commandments, His Prescriptions and His Decisions, which He has ordered our fathers to keep! <sup>59</sup> May these words of mine, with which I have made supplication before the LORD, be near to the LORD, our God, day and night, so that He gives justice to His servant and His people Israel, as each day may require, <sup>60</sup> that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God and that there is no other! <sup>61</sup> May your hearts therefore be fully loyal to the LORD, our God, that you may walk by His Prescriptions and keep His Commandments, as you do today!”

The dedication of the Temple with sacrifices — 2 Chronicles 7:4-11

<sup>62</sup> Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices in the presence of the LORD. <sup>63</sup> Solomon offered, as peace-offerings that he made to the LORD, twenty-two thousand cattle and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So, the king and all the Israelites dedicated the Temple of the LORD. <sup>64</sup> On that day the king consecrated the middle part of the court that was in front of the Temple of the LORD. For there he had prepared the burnt offerings, the grain-offerings and the fat pieces of the peace-offerings, because the bronze altar, which was before the LORD, was too small to hold the burnt offerings, the grain-offerings and the fat pieces of the peace-offerings. <sup>65</sup> Solomon observed the feast at that time together with all Israel. It was a vast assembly of people from Lebo-Hamath to the Brook of Egypt. They had come before the LORD, our God, for seven days and for seven days more, fourteen days in all. <sup>66</sup> On the eighth day he dismissed the people. They blessed the king and went to their tents, joyful and glad in heart for all the goodness that the LORD had shown to His servant David and to His people Israel.

9

God's assurance that He had heard His people's prayers — 2 Chronicles 7:11-22

<sup>1</sup> When Solomon had finished building the Temple of the LORD, the king's palace and everything else that Solomon desired to build and took pleasure in doing, <sup>2</sup> the LORD appeared to Solomon a second time, as He had appeared to him at Gibeon. <sup>3</sup> The LORD told him: “I have heard your prayer and your supplication, which you have made before Me. I have consecrated this Temple, which you have built to put My name there for ever. My eyes and My heart will always be there. <sup>4</sup> As for you, if you walk before Me blamelessly and uprightly as your father David has done, if you do exactly as I have commanded you, and, if you keep My Prescriptions and My Decisions, <sup>5</sup> I shall establish your royal throne over Israel for ever, as I promised your father David, when I said, ‘You will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.’ <sup>6</sup> However, if you or your children indeed turn away and do not follow Me and do not keep My Commandments and My Statutes, which I have set before you, and, if you go and serve other gods and worship them, <sup>7</sup> I shall cut off Israel from the land that I have given them and cast out of My sight the Temple that I have consecrated for My name, and Israel will become a standard warning and an object of ridicule among all peoples. <sup>8</sup> Although this Temple is very eminent, everyone going past it will be astonished and hiss. They will ask, ‘Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this Temple?’ <sup>9</sup> Then people will answer, ‘Because they abandoned the LORD, their God, who had brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have clung to other gods, worshipped them and served them. That is why the LORD has brought this entire calamity on them.’”

Solomon's gift of cities in Galilee to Hiram of Tyre — 2 Chronicles 8:1-18

<sup>10</sup> At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon had built the two buildings, the Temple of the LORD and the royal palace, <sup>11</sup> because Hiram, the king of Tyre, had supplied Solomon with as much cedar and juniper timber and gold as he desired, King Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. <sup>12</sup> However, when Hiram came from Tyre to see the cities that Solomon had given him, he was not pleased with them. <sup>13</sup> He asked: “What kind of cities are these that you have given me, my brother?” So, they have been called “The Land of Cabul”<sup>*101</sup> to this day. <sup>14</sup> Hiram had sent to the king three thousand, six hundred kilograms of gold.

Solomon's use of forced labour to complete his building projects — 2 Chronicles 8:3-16

<sup>15</sup> This is the account of the forced labour that King Solomon conscripted to build the Temple of the

<sup>101</sup> Cabul means either “like nothing” or “fettered.”

LORD, his own palace, the supporting terrace, the wall of Jerusalem, Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer. <sup>16</sup> Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, had gone up and captured Gezer, burnt it down, killed the Canaanites who had been living in the city and had given it as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's wife. <sup>17</sup> Solomon rebuilt Gezer and built Lower Beth-Horon, <sup>18</sup> Baalath and Tadmor in the wilderness, inside the country, <sup>19</sup> as well as all the storage-cities that Solomon had, the cities for his chariots, the cities for his horses and whatever else Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon and in all the rest of the land over which he reigned. <sup>20</sup> All the people who were left from the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, who did not belong to the Israelites, <sup>21</sup> that is, their descendants, who were left in the land after them, whom the Israelites could not devote to destruction, these Solomon conscripted for forced labour, to be slaves and so they are to this day. <sup>22</sup> However, Solomon did not make slaves of any of the Israelites. For they were the soldiers, his officials, his commanders, his captains, his chariot-commanders and his horsemen. <sup>23</sup> The chief officers who were in charge of Solomon's work numbered five hundred and fifty men. They supervised the people who were doing the work. <sup>24</sup> Not until after Pharaoh's daughter had gone up from the City of David to her own house, which Solomon had built for her, did he construct the supporting terrace. <sup>25</sup> Three times a year Solomon used to offer up burnt offerings and peace-offerings on the altar that he had built for the LORD. He also burnt incense with the altar that was before the LORD. So, he used to restore the completeness of the Temple. <sup>26</sup> King Solomon also built a fleet of ships at Ezion-Geber, which is near Eloth<sup>*102</sup>, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom. <sup>27</sup> Hiram sent with the fleet his servants, who were seamen and familiar with the sea, together with the servants of Solomon. <sup>28</sup> They went to Ophir and brought twelve thousand, six hundred kilograms of gold from there and delivered it to King Solomon.

10

The visit of the Queen of Sheba to Jerusalem — 2 Chronicles 9:1-12

<sup>1</sup> When the queen of Sheba heard how famous Solomon was because of the name of the Lord, she came to test him with difficult questions. <sup>2</sup> She arrived at Jerusalem with a very great company, with camels carrying perfumes, very much gold and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she told him all that she had on her mind. <sup>3</sup> Solomon answered all her questions. Nothing was too difficult for the king to explain to her. <sup>4</sup> When the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, the palace that he had built, <sup>5</sup> the food on his table, how his officials were seated and how his servants waited at the table, their clothing, his cup-bearers and his burnt offerings, which he used to offer at the Temple of the LORD, she was overwhelmed. <sup>6</sup> She told the king: "The report that I have heard in my own land about your words and of your wisdom is true. <sup>7</sup> However, I did not believe the reports until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, I was not told half of it. In wisdom and prosperity you have exceeded the report that I heard. <sup>8</sup> How advantageous for your men! How advantageous for your officials, who continually stand in your presence and listen to your wisdom! <sup>9</sup> May the LORD, your God, also be blessed, who takes pleasure in you and has placed you on the throne of Israel! Because of the eternal love of the LORD for Israel, He has made you king, that you may carry out what is just and right."

<sup>10</sup> Then she gave the king three thousand, six hundred kilograms of gold, a very large quantity of perfumes and precious stones. Never again was such a large quantity of perfumes brought in as the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon. <sup>11</sup> Besides that, the fleet of Hiram, which brought gold from Ophir, brought a very great quantity of almug wood and precious stones from Ophir. <sup>12</sup> The king used the almug wood to make supports for the Temple of the LORD and for the king's palace and to make lyres and harps for the singers. Almug wood like it has never been brought in or been seen to this day. <sup>13</sup> King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all that she desired and asked for, besides what Solomon had given her in his royal generosity. Then she left and returned with her officials to her own country.

Solomon's splendour — 2 Chronicles 1:14-17, 9:13-25, 27-28

<sup>14</sup> The gold that came to Solomon in one year weighed nineteen thousand, nine hundred and eighty kilograms. <sup>15</sup> This was in addition to the revenue from the traders, from the business of the merchants, from all the Arabian kings and from the governors of the land. <sup>16</sup> King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold. He used seven kilograms of gold to cover each shield. <sup>17</sup> He also made three hundred shields of hammered gold. He used one-and-a-half kilograms of gold to cover each shield. The king placed them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon. <sup>18</sup> The king also made a large throne of ivory and overlaid it with pure gold. <sup>19</sup> There were six steps going up to the throne, and the top of the throne was round at the back. There were armrests on each side of the seat, and two lions were standing alongside the armrests. <sup>20</sup> Twelve lions were also standing there on each side of the six steps. Nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom. <sup>21</sup> All King Solomon's drinking vessels were golden and all the vessels of the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None were of silver. Silver was not regarded as valuable at the time of Solomon. <sup>22</sup> Indeed, the king had ships of Tarshish at sea with the fleet of Hiram. The ships of Tarshish used to come once every three years carrying gold, silver, ivory, apes and baboons. <sup>23</sup> King Solomon was greater than all the other kings of the earth were in wealth and in wisdom. <sup>24</sup> The whole world wanted to have an audience with Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his mind. <sup>25</sup> Each of them brought his gift, articles of silver and gold, garments, fragrant substances, perfumes, horses and mules. This continued year after year. <sup>26</sup> Solomon accumulated chariots and horsemen. He had one thousand, four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses. He placed them in the chariot cities as well as with the king in Jerusalem. <sup>27</sup> The king made silver as common as stones in Jerusalem and cedars as plentiful as the sycamore-fig trees in the foothills. <sup>28</sup> Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Cilicia. The king's traders purchased them in Cilicia at the market price. <sup>29</sup> A chariot could be imported from Egypt for seven kilograms and two hundred grams of silver and a horse for one kilogram and eight hundred grams. In this way these men also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

<sup>102</sup> Compare 2 Kings 14:22 (Elath).

11

Solomon's wives and their idolatry

<sup>1</sup> King Solomon loved many foreign women besides the daughter of Pharaoh: Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians and Hittites. <sup>2</sup> They were from the nations about whom the LORD had told the Israelites: "You shall not marry them, and they shall not marry you! They will certainly turn your hearts away to follow their gods." Solomon clung to these in love. <sup>3</sup> He had seven hundred wives who were princesses and three hundred concubines, and his wives turned his heart away. <sup>4</sup> When Solomon grew old, his wives turned away his heart to follow other gods, and his heart was not fully loyal to the LORD, his God, as the heart of his father David had been. <sup>5</sup> Solomon followed Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians and Milcom, the detestable idol of the Ammonites. <sup>6</sup> So, Solomon did what the LORD regarded as evil and did not follow the LORD completely, as his father David had done. <sup>7</sup> Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh, the detestable idol of Moab, on the mountain east of Jerusalem and for Molech, the detestable idol of the Ammonites. <sup>8</sup> He also did for all his other foreign wives, who used to burn incense and sacrifice to their gods.

The pronouncement of God's judgment on Solomon

<sup>9</sup> So, the LORD became angry with Solomon, because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice. <sup>10</sup> Although He had commanded Solomon about this, that he should not follow other gods, he did not keep what the LORD had commanded. <sup>11</sup> Therefore, the LORD told Solomon: "Because this has been your practice and you have not been keeping My Covenant and My Statutes, which I have commanded you, I shall certainly tear the kingdom away from you and shall give it to one of your officials. <sup>12</sup> Nevertheless, I shall not do it during your lifetime for the sake of your father David but shall tear it out of the hand of your son. <sup>13</sup> Yet I shall not tear away the whole kingdom but shall give one tribe to your son, for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen."

Solomon's enemy Hadad

<sup>14</sup> The LORD raised up an adversary against Solomon, Hadad, the Edomite. He was a descendant of the king in Edom. <sup>15</sup> For when David was in Edom, Joab, the commander of the army, had gone up to bury the dead and had struck down every male in Edom. <sup>16</sup> For Joab and all Israel had remained there for six months, until Joab had cut down every male in Edom. <sup>17</sup> However, Hadad had fled to Egypt, together with some of his father's Edomite officials, while Hadad was still a little boy. <sup>18</sup> They had set out from Midian, had gone to Paran, had taken some men with them from Paran and had gone to Egypt, to Pharaoh, king of Egypt. He had given him a house, had allocated an allowance of food for him and had given him some land. <sup>19</sup> Hadad had become a special favourite of Pharaoh, and Pharaoh had given him his own wife's sister to marry, the sister of Queen Tahpenes. <sup>20</sup> The sister of Tahpenes had borne him Genubath, his son, whom Tahpenes had weaned in Pharaoh's palace. Genubath had been in Pharaoh's palace with Pharaoh's own children. <sup>21</sup> However, when Hadad had heard in Egypt that David had gone to rest with his fathers and that Joab, the commander of the army, had died, Hadad asked Pharaoh, "Let me leave, that I may return to my own country!"

<sup>22</sup> However, Pharaoh had asked him, "What have you been lacking with me that now you should want to go back to your own country?"

Hadad had replied, "Nothing, but you must indeed let me leave!"

Solomon's enemy Rezon

<sup>23</sup> God also raised up Rezon, the son of Eliada, as an adversary to Solomon. He had fled from his master Hadadezer, the king of Zobah. <sup>24</sup> He had gathered men around him and had become leader of a raiding party after David had killed the men of Zobah. They had gone to Damascus, had been living there and had taken control in Damascus. <sup>25</sup> He became an adversary of Israel while Solomon was alive and added to the trouble that Hadad caused. He detested Israel and was the king of Aram.

Jeroboam's rebellion against Solomon

<sup>26</sup> Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, was an Ephraimite from Zeredah. His mother, whose name was Zeruah, was a widow. He had been one of Solomon's officials but he also rebelled against the king. <sup>27</sup> This is the account of how he rebelled against the king. Solomon had built the supporting terraces and had closed up the gap in the wall of the city of his father David.<sup>28</sup> Jeroboam was a very capable man and, when Solomon saw that the young man was industrious, he put him in charge of all the compulsory labour from the tribe of Joseph.<sup>29</sup> At that time, when Jeroboam had left Jerusalem, the prophet Ahijah from Shiloh found him on the road. Ahijah was wearing a new cloak. While the two of them were alone in the open country,<sup>30</sup> Ahijah took hold of the new garment that he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces.<sup>31</sup> He told Jeroboam: "Take ten pieces for yourself! For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said, 'Look! I am going to tear the kingdom away from Solomon and give you ten tribes.'<sup>32</sup> Nevertheless, he will have the one tribe, for the sake of My servant David and for the sake of Jerusalem, the city that I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel.<sup>33</sup> I shall do this because they have forsaken Me and have been worshipping Ashtoreth, the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh, the god of Moab and Milcom, the god of the Ammonites. They have also not been walking in My Ways, doing what I regard as right or keeping My Statutes and My Decisions, as Solomon's father David has done.<sup>34</sup> Nevertheless, I shall not take the whole kingdom out of Solomon's hand but shall make him ruler for all his life, for the sake of My servant David, whom I chose, and who kept My Commandments and My Statutes.<sup>35</sup> However, I shall take the kingdom out of his son's hand and shall give ten tribes to you.<sup>36</sup> I shall give his son one tribe, that My servant David may always have a lamp before Me in Jerusalem, the city where I have chosen to put My name.<sup>37</sup> However, I shall take you; you will reign over all that your heart desires and be king over Israel.<sup>38</sup> If you listen to all that I shall command you, walk in My Ways and do what I consider right by keeping My Statutes and My Decisions, as My servant David has done, I shall be with you, build you a family-line that is as sure as the one I have built for David and give Israel to you.<sup>39</sup> I shall humble the descendants of David because of this but not for ever."

The death of Solomon — 2 Chronicles 9:29-31

<sup>41</sup> As for the rest of what Solomon said and all that he did and his wisdom, have they not been recorded in the History of Solomon?<sup>42</sup> Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.<sup>43</sup> Solomon went to rest with his fathers and was buried in the city of his father David. His son Rehoboam succeeded him as king.

12

The accession of Rehoboam and the rebellion of Israel against him — 2 Chronicles 10:1-19

<sup>1</sup> Rehoboam went to Shechem, because all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king.<sup>2</sup> Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had fled to Egypt from King Solomon. Jeroboam heard about it and came back from Egypt.<sup>3</sup> People sent a messenger to invite him back, and Jeroboam and the whole assembly of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam:<sup>4</sup> "Your father put a heavy yoke on us. Now, however, you yourself, make the hard labour and the heavy yoke that your father imposed on us lighter! Then we shall serve you."

<sup>5</sup> Rehoboam answered, them: "Go away until the day after tomorrow and then come back to me!"

So, the people went away.<sup>6</sup> Then King Rehoboam consulted the old men, who had been standing before his father Solomon while he was still alive. He asked: "How do you advise me to reply to these people?"

<sup>7</sup> They replied to him: "If you are a servant to these people today, serve them and speak favourable words to them when you answer them, they will always be your servants."

<sup>8</sup> However, he rejected the advice that the old men had given him and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and were standing in his presence.

<sup>9</sup> He asked them: "What do you advise, that we may reply to these people, who have told me, 'Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter'?"

<sup>10</sup> The young men who had grown up with him told him: "You must speak in this way to these people, who have told you: 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you should make it lighter for us!' You should tell them this: 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist!<sup>11</sup> Now therefore, my father laid a heavy yoke on you. I shall add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I shall discipline you with scorpions.'"

<sup>12</sup> So, Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had said, "Come back to me the day after tomorrow!"

<sup>13</sup> The king answered the people harshly. He rejected the advice that the old men had given him.<sup>14</sup> He spoke to them as the young men had advised him: "My father made your yoke heavy, but I shall add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I shall discipline you with scorpions."

<sup>15</sup> The king did not listen to the people, for it was a turn of affairs that the LORD had brought about, that He might fulfil His Word, which the LORD had spoken through Ahijah from Shiloh to Jeroboam, the son of Nebat.<sup>16</sup> When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king: "What claim do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, O Israel! Look now to your own house, David!"

So, Israel went to their tents.<sup>17</sup> However, Rehoboam reigned over the Israelites who were living in the cities of Judah.<sup>18</sup> When King Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was in charge of the compulsory labour, all Israel stoned him to death. However, King Rehoboam managed to get into his chariot to escape to Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup> Israel has been in rebellion against the family of David to this day.

The establishment of idolatry in Israel by King Jeroboam — 2 Chronicles 11:1-17

<sup>20</sup> When all Israel heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent messengers, invited him to their meeting and made him king over all Israel. Only the tribe of Judah remained loyal to the family of David. <sup>21</sup> When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled the whole family of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand selected fighting men, to fight against the family of Israel, to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam, the son of Solomon. <sup>22</sup> However, the Word of God came to Shemaiah, the man of God. It said: <sup>23</sup> “Tell Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, the king of Judah, and the whole family of Judah and Benjamin and the rest of the people: <sup>24</sup> ‘This is what the LORD has said: “You shall not go up or fight against your relatives, the people of Israel! Every man, return to your own home! For this is My doing.””

So, they listened to the Word of the LORD. They turned back and left, as the LORD had told them.

Jeroboam's arrangement for golden calves to be worshipped at Bethel and Dan <sup>25</sup> Then Jeroboam rebuilt Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim and lived there. Then he left from there and fortified Penuel. <sup>26</sup> Jeroboam thought to himself: “Now the kingdom may revert to the family of David.

<sup>27</sup> If these people go up to prepare sacrifices in the Temple of the LORD at Jerusalem, these people will again give their allegiance to their master, Rehoboam, the king of Judah. Then they will kill me and return to Rehoboam, the king of Judah.”

<sup>28</sup> The king received advice and made two golden calves. He told the people: “It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here are your gods, O Israel, who have brought you up out of the land of Egypt.”

<sup>29</sup> He set up the one in Bethel and put the other one in Dan. <sup>30</sup> Then this thing became a sin. The people walked ahead of the one of them as far as Dan.

<sup>31</sup> Jeroboam also made temples on high places and appointed priests from all kinds of people, who did not belong to the Levites. <sup>32</sup> Jeroboam appointed a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month like the festival that was held in Judah and offered sacrifices on the altar. He did this at Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he made. He also located at Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made. <sup>33</sup> He offered sacrifices on the altar that he had made at Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, in the month that he had concocted at his own whim. He instituted a festival for the Israelites and went up to the altar to make offerings.

13

The prophecy of the man of God from Judah against the idolatry of Jeroboam

<sup>1</sup> A man of God came by the Word of the LORD from Judah to Bethel. Jeroboam was standing beside the altar to burn a sacrifice. <sup>2</sup> The man cried out against the altar by the Word of the LORD: “O altar, altar, this is what the LORD has said: ‘Indeed, a son named Josiah will be born to the house of David. He will sacrifice on you the priests of the high places who are burning sacrifices on you, and human bones will be burned on you.’”

<sup>3</sup> The man of God gave a sign the same day. He said: “This is the sign that the LORD has declared: ‘Look! The altar will be torn apart, and the ashes that are on it will be poured out.’”

<sup>4</sup> When the king heard what the man of God said when he cried out against the altar at Bethel, Jeroboam stretched out his hand over the altar and said, “Seize him!”

However, his hand, which he had stretched out toward the man, shrivelled up, so that he could not pull it back. <sup>5</sup> The altar was also split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign that the man of God had given by the Word of the LORD.

<sup>6</sup> Then the king asked the man of God: “Please plead with the LORD, your God, to be in a gentle mood and pray for me, that I may use my arm again!”

The man of God interceded with the LORD, and the king's hand was restored to him and became as it had been before. <sup>7</sup> Then the king asked the man of God, “Come home with me and refresh yourself! I shall also give you a present.”

<sup>8</sup> However, the man of God answered the king: “If you were to give me half your palace, I would not go in with you. I shall not eat any bread or drink any water in this place. <sup>9</sup> For this is what I have been commanded by the Word of the LORD, ‘You shall not eat any bread or drink any water or come back by the road on which you have gone!’”

<sup>10</sup> So, he left by another way and did not go back by the road on which he had come to Bethel.

The disobedience of a prophet

<sup>11</sup> An old prophet was living at Bethel. When his sons came and reported to him all that the man of God had done that day in Bethel, they also reported to their father the Words that he had spoken to the king.

<sup>12</sup> Their father asked them, “Which road has he taken?”

His sons had seen which road the man of God who had come from Judah had taken. <sup>13</sup> He told his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me!”

When they saddled the donkey for him, he rode off on it. <sup>14</sup> When he went after the man of God he found him sitting under a large tree. He asked him, “Are you the man of God who has come from Judah?”

He replied, “Yes, I am.”

<sup>15</sup> Then the prophet told him, “Come home with me and eat some food!”

<sup>16</sup> The man of God said: “I dare not go back with you or go in with you and I shall not eat any food or drink any water with you in this place. <sup>17</sup> For the Message came to me by the Word of the LORD, ‘You shall not eat any bread or drink any water there or come back by taking the road on which you have gone!’”

<sup>18</sup> The prophet answered him: “I also am a prophet like you, and an angel spoke to me by the Word of the LORD: ‘Bring him back with you to your house, that he may eat some bread and drink some water!’”

He was telling him a lie. <sup>19</sup> He went back with him, ate some bread at his house and drank some water. <sup>20</sup> While they were sitting at the table, the Word of the LORD came to the prophet who had brought him back. <sup>21</sup> He cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah: “This is what the LORD has said: ‘Because you have rebelled against the Word of the LORD and have not kept the Command that the LORD, your God, has given you, <sup>22</sup> but have come back, eaten some bread and drunk some water at the place about which He told you, “Do not eat any bread and do not drink any water!” your body will not come to the tomb of your fathers.’”

<sup>23</sup> After he had finished eating some bread and drinking, he saddled the donkey for the prophet whom he had brought back. <sup>24</sup> When he had left, a lion met him on the road and killed him. His body was thrown down on the road and the donkey was standing beside it. The lion also was standing beside the body. <sup>25</sup> Some men who were going past saw the body thrown down on the road and the lion standing beside the body. They came and reported it in the city where the old prophet was living. <sup>26</sup> When the prophet who had brought him back from the road heard about it, he said: “It is the man of God, who rebelled against the Word of the LORD! The LORD has delivered him to the lion. It has torn him in pieces and killed him, according to the Word of the LORD, which had spoken to him.”

<sup>27</sup> Then he told his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me!” So, they saddled it. <sup>28</sup> When he had left, he found his body thrown down on the road and the donkey and the lion standing beside the body. The lion had not eaten the body or mauled the donkey. <sup>29</sup> The old prophet took up the body of the man of God, laid it on the donkey and brought him back to his own city, to mourn for him and bury him. <sup>30</sup> Then he laid the body in his own grave. They mourned over him, saying, “Alas, my brother!”

<sup>31</sup> After he had buried him, he told his sons: “When I die, you shall bury me in the grave in which the man of God is buried! Lay my bones beside his bones! <sup>32</sup> For the Message that he has proclaimed by the Word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the shrines on the high places that are in the cities of Samaria will certainly come true.”

<sup>33</sup> After this happened Jeroboam did not turn from his evil way but again appointed priests for the high places from all kinds of people. He ordained anyone who wanted to become one of the priests for the high places. <sup>34</sup> Because he had done this, it became the sin of the family of Jeroboam, with the result that it obliterated and destroyed it from the surface of the earth.

14

The illness and death of Jeroboam's son Abijah

<sup>1</sup> At that time Abijah, the son of Jeroboam, became ill.

<sup>2</sup> Jeroboam told his wife: “Please do something! Disguise yourself, that people may not recognise you as the wife of Jeroboam! Then go to Shiloh! You see, Ahijah the prophet is there. He is the one who told me that I would be the king over this people. <sup>3</sup> Take ten loaves, some small cakes and a jar of honey with you. and go to him! He will tell you what will happen to the boy.”

<sup>4</sup> Jeroboam's wife did this. She set out, went to Shiloh and entered the house of Ahijah. Ahijah could not see. For his eyes had a fixed stare because he was old.

<sup>5</sup> The LORD had told Ahijah: “Look! The wife of Jeroboam is coming to ask you about her son. For he is ill. You shall give her such and such an answer! When she comes in she will pretend to be someone else.”

<sup>6</sup> When Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the doorway, he said: “Come in, wife of Jeroboam! Why are you pretending to be someone else? I have been sent to you with bad news. <sup>7</sup> Go, tell Jeroboam, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: “Because I raised you up from among the people, made you a leader over My people Israel, <sup>8</sup> tore the kingdom away from the family of David and gave it to you, and yet you have not been like My servant David, who kept My Commandments and followed Me with all his heart, doing only what I consider right, <sup>9</sup> but you have done more evil than all who have been before you and have gone and made for yourself other gods and metal images, provoking Me to anger, and have thrown Me behind your back, <sup>10</sup> therefore look! I shall bring calamity on the family of Jeroboam, I shall cut off every male from Jeroboam, both slave and free in Israel and sweep away the family of Jeroboam, as someone sweeps away dung pellets until they are all gone! <sup>11</sup> The dogs will eat anyone belonging to Jeroboam who dies in the city, and the birds of the sky will eat anyone who dies in the open country.’” For the LORD has spoken. <sup>12</sup> You yourself should start out and go home. When your feet enter the city, the boy will die. <sup>13</sup> All Israel will mourn for him and bury him. For he is the only one belonging to Jeroboam who will be buried, because he is the only one in the family of Jeroboam in whom the LORD, the God of Israel, has found anything good. <sup>14</sup> Moreover, the LORD will raise up for Himself a king over Israel who will cut off the family of Jeroboam. This is the day! What? Yes, it will happen now. <sup>15</sup> The LORD will strike Israel as a reed is shaken in the water and root Israel up, out of this good land, which He has given to their fathers and will scatter them beyond the Euphrates, because they have provoked the LORD to anger by making their Asherah posts. <sup>16</sup> He will give Israel up, because of the sins that Jeroboam has been committing and the ones that he has been causing Israel to commit.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Jeroboam’s wife got up, left and went to Tirzah. When she came to the threshold of the palace, the boy died. <sup>18</sup> All Israel buried him and mourned for him, according to the Word of the Lord, which He had spoken through His servant, the prophet Ahijah.

The death of Jeroboam

<sup>19</sup> As for the rest of the records about Jeroboam, how he made war and how he reigned, indeed, they have been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel. <sup>20</sup> Jeroboam had reigned for twenty-two years. He went to rest with his fathers, and his son Nadab succeeded him as king.

The reign of Rehoboam as king of Judah – 2 Chronicles 11:5-12:16

<sup>21</sup> Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, was king in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign and reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put His name. His mother’s name was Naamah, who was an Ammonite. <sup>22</sup> Judah did what the LORD regarded as evil and they stirred up His jealous anger more with their sins, which they had been committing, than anything that their fathers had done. <sup>23</sup> They built high places, sacred stones and Asherah posts for themselves on every high hill and under every leafy tree. <sup>24</sup> There were even male cult-prostitutes in the land. They engaged in all the same detestable practices as the nations that the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

The removal of the treasures from the Temple in Jerusalem by King Shishak of Egypt – 2 Chronicles 12:2, 9-11, 15-16

<sup>25</sup> In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak, the king of Egypt, attacked Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup> He took away the treasures of the Temple of the LORD and the treasures of the king’s palace. He took away everything. He also took away all the golden shields that Solomon had made. <sup>27</sup> So, King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and committed them to the hands of the officers of the bodyguard, who used to protect the entrance to the king’s palace. <sup>28</sup> Whenever the king went to the Temple of the LORD, the bodyguard used to carry them and then they used to take them back to the guardroom. <sup>29</sup> As for the rest of the acts of Rehoboam and all that he did, have they not been recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Judah?

<sup>30</sup> There was constant warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. <sup>31</sup> Rehoboam went to rest with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. His mother’s name was Naamah, who was an Ammonite. His son Abijam succeeded him as king.

15

The reign of Abijam as king of Judah - 2 Chronicles 13:1-2, 13:22-14:1

<sup>1</sup> In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, Abijam began to reign over Judah. <sup>2</sup> He reigned in Jerusalem for three years. His mother’s name was Maacah, the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>3</sup> He committed all the sins his father had done before him. His heart was not fully loyal to the LORD, his God, as the heart of his forefather David had been. <sup>4</sup> Nevertheless, for David’s sake the LORD, his God, gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, by setting up his son after him and by maintaining Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> For David had done what the LORD regarded as right and had not turned aside from anything that He commanded him all the days of his life, except in the case of Uriah the Hittite. <sup>6</sup> There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam throughout Abijam’s lifetime. <sup>7</sup> As for the rest of the acts of Abijam and all that he did, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. <sup>8</sup> Abijam went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. His son Asa succeeded him as king.

The reign of Asa as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 14: 2-3, 15:16-19

<sup>9</sup> In the twentieth year of Jeroboam, the king of Israel, Asa began to reign over Judah. <sup>10</sup> He reigned for forty-one years in Jerusalem. His grandmother’s name was Maacah, the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>11</sup> Asa did what the LORD regarded as right, like his ancestor David. <sup>12</sup> He expelled the male cult-prostitutes from the land and kept on removing all the idols that his fathers had been making. <sup>13</sup> He even deposed his grandmother Maacah from being the queen mother because she had made a disgraceful image for an Asherah-pole. Asa cut down her disgraceful image and burned it at the Brook Kidron. <sup>14</sup> Although the high places were not removed, Asa’s heart was nevertheless fully loyal to the LORD all his life. <sup>15</sup> He brought the silver, gold and vessels that his father and he had consecrated into the Temple of the LORD.

The war of Asa of Judah, in alliance with Aram, against Baasha of Israel — 2 Chronicles 15:19, 16:1-6, 11-14, 17:1

<sup>16</sup> There was war between Asa and Baasha, the king of Israel, throughout their lives. <sup>17</sup> Baasha, the king of Israel, invaded Judah and fortified Ramah, to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the territory of Asa, the king of Judah. <sup>18</sup> Then Asa took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasures of the Temple of the LORD and the treasures of the king’s palace. King Asa entrusted it to his officials and sent them to Ben-Hadad the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, the king of Aram, who was living in Damascus. He said: <sup>19</sup> “There is a treaty between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. Look! I have sent you a present of silver and gold. Come! Cancel your treaty with Baasha, the king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me!”

<sup>20</sup> Ben-Hadad consented to King Asa’s request and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel. He conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-Beth-Maacah and all Chinneroth, in addition to all the land of Naphtali. <sup>21</sup> When Baasha heard about it, he stopped forti-fyng Ramah and remained at Tirzah. <sup>22</sup> Then King Asa made a proclamation to all Judah, exempting no one. They carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber, with which Baasha had been fortifying it and King Asa used them to fortify Geba in Benjamin and Mizpah. <sup>23</sup> As for the rest of all the acts of Asa, all his mighty deeds and all that he did and the cities that he fortified, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? However, in his old age his feet became diseased. <sup>24</sup> Asa went to rest with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the City of David, his forefather, and his son Jehoshaphat succeeded him as king.

The reign of Nadab as king of Israel

<sup>25</sup> Nadab, the son of Jeroboam, began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa, the king of Judah, and reigned over Israel for two years. <sup>26</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil and walked in the way of his father and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit. <sup>27</sup> Baasha, the son of Ahijah, of the family of Issachar, conspired against him. Baasha struck him down at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines, while Nadab and all Israel were besieging Gibbethon.

The elimination of Jeroboam's family by Baasha

<sup>28</sup> Baasha killed him in the third year of Asa, the king of Judah, and succeeded him as king. <sup>29</sup> When he became king, he killed all the rest of the family of Jeroboam. He did not leave any of the family of Jeroboam who breathed and destroyed them all, according to the Word of the LORD, which He had spoken through his servant Ahijah from Shiloh. <sup>30</sup> This was because of the sins that Jeroboam had committed and the sins that he had caused Israel to commit, through which he had provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger. <sup>31</sup> As for the rest of the acts of Nadab and all that he did, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel? <sup>32</sup> There was war between Asa and Baasha, the king of Israel, all their lives.

The reign of Baasha as king of Israel

<sup>33</sup> In the third year of Asa, the king of Judah, Baasha, the son of Ahijah, began to reign over all Israel at Tirzah and reigned for twenty-four years. <sup>34</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil and walked in the ways of Jeroboam and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit.

16

The condemnation of King Baasha by God

<sup>1</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to Jehu, the son of Hanani, against Baasha: <sup>2</sup> "I lifted you up out of the dust and made you a leader over My people Israel. However, because you have been walking in the ways of Jeroboam and have been causing My people Israel to sin, so that they are provoking Me to anger by their sins, <sup>3</sup> indeed, I shall set a fire after Baasha and his family. I shall make your family like the family of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. <sup>4</sup> Dogs will eat anyone who belongs to Baasha and dies in the city, and birds of the sky will eat anyone who belongs to him and dies in the country."

<sup>5</sup> As for the rest of the acts of Baasha, what he did and his mighty acts, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel? <sup>6</sup> Baasha went to rest with his fathers and was buried at Tirzah, and his son Elah succeeded him as king. <sup>7</sup> The Word of the LORD also came through the prophet Jehu, the son of Hanani, against Baasha and his family, both because of everything that the LORD regarded as evil that he had been doing, by provoking Him to anger through what he was doing, so that he was like the family of Jeroboam, and because he had destroyed it.

The reign of Elah as king of Israel

<sup>8</sup> In the twenty-sixth year of Asa, the king of Judah, Elah, the son of Baasha, began to reign over Israel in Tirzah and reigned for two years. <sup>9</sup> However, his servant Zimri, who had command of half his chariots, conspired against him. Elah was at Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the home of Arza, who was in charge of the palace at Tirzah. <sup>10</sup> Zimri came in, struck him down and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa, the king of Judah. Then Zimri succeeded him as king. <sup>11</sup> When he began to reign, as soon as he was seated on his throne, he struck down the whole family of Baasha. He did not spare one male of his relatives or his friends. <sup>12</sup> So, Zimri destroyed all the family of Baasha, according to the Word of the LORD, which He had spoken about Baasha through the prophet Jehu, <sup>13</sup> because of all the sins of Baasha and the sins of his son Elah, which they had committed and which they had caused Israel to commit, by provoking the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger with their worthless idols. <sup>14</sup> As for the rest of the acts of Elah and all that he did, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

The seven-day reign of Zimri in Israel

<sup>15</sup> In the twenty-seventh year of Asa, the king of Judah, Zimri reigned for seven days in Tirzah. The soldiers were camping near Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. <sup>16</sup> When the soldiers who were in the camp heard that Zimri had conspired against the king and had also killed him, all Israel on the same day made Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel in the camp. <sup>17</sup> Then Omri together with all Israel withdrew from Gibbethon and besieged Tirzah. <sup>18</sup> When Zimri saw that the city had been captured, he went into the citadel of the king's palace and set the king's palace on fire over himself and so he died, <sup>19</sup> because of his sins, which he committed, doing what the LORD regarded as evil and walking in the ways of Jeroboam and because of his sin, which he had committed and which he had caused Israel to commit. <sup>20</sup> As for the rest of the acts of Zimri and the conspiracy that he made, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

The reign of Omri as king of Israel

<sup>21</sup> Then the people of Israel were divided into two factions. Half of the people supported Tibni, the son of Ginath, wishing to make him king, and the other half supported Omri. <sup>22</sup> However, the people who followed Omri proved stronger than the people who followed Tibni, the son of Ginath. When Tibni died, Omri became king. <sup>23</sup> In the thirty-first year of Asa, the king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel and reigned for twelve years. He reigned in Tirzah for six years.

The choice of Samaria as the new capital of Israel

<sup>24</sup> He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for seventy kilograms of silver. He fortified the hill and named the city that he built “Samaria,” after the name of Shemer, who had been the owner of the hill. <sup>25</sup> Omri did what the LORD regarded as evil and did more evil than all who had been before him. <sup>26</sup> He walked in all the ways of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit, provoking the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their worthless idols. <sup>27</sup> As for the rest of the acts that Omri did and the mighty deeds that he performed, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel? <sup>28</sup> Omri went to rest with his fathers and was buried in Samaria, and his son Ahab succeeded him as king.

The reign of Ahab as king of Israel

<sup>29</sup> In the thirty-eighth year of Asa, the king of Judah, Ahab, the son of Omri, began to reign over Israel, and Ahab, the son of Omri, reigned over Israel in Samaria for twenty-two years. <sup>30</sup> Ahab, the son of Omri did what the LORD regarded as evil. He was worse than all who had been before him.

The marriage of Ahab to Jezebel, a worshipper of Baal

<sup>31</sup> It was too trivial a thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. He also married Jezebel, the daughter of Ethbaal, the king of the people of Sidon, and proceeded to serve Baal and worship him. <sup>32</sup> He set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal that he built in Samaria. <sup>33</sup> Ahab also made an Asherah-pole. Ahab did more to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel had done who had been before him.

The rebuilding of Jericho — Joshua 6:26

<sup>34</sup> In Ahab’s time Hiel from Bethel rebuilt Jericho. He laid its foundation wall at the cost of Abiram, his first-born, and set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub, according to the Word of the LORD, which He had spoken through Joshua, the son of Nun.

17

The prediction of a drought and the preservation of Elijah by crows at the Cherith Ravine

<sup>1</sup> Elijah the Tishbite, from Tishbe in Gilead, told Ahab: “As surely as the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I have been standing, there will be no dew or rain these coming years, unless I say so.”

<sup>2</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to Elijah: <sup>3</sup> “Go away from here, turn to the east and hide beside the Cherith Ravine, which is east of the Jordan! <sup>4</sup> You shall drink from the stream, and I have commanded the crows to feed you there.”

<sup>5</sup> He went and did as the LORD had told him. He went and lived in the Cherith Ravine, which is east of the Jordan. <sup>6</sup> The crows used to bring him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he used to drink from the stream.

The stay of Elijah with a widow at Zarephath

<sup>7</sup> However, finally the stream dried up, because there had been no rain in the land. <sup>8</sup> Then the Word of the LORD came to Elijah, saying: <sup>9</sup> “Move away! Go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and stay there! See! I have commanded a widow there to provide for you.”

<sup>10</sup> He left and went to Zarephath. When he came to the gate of the city, he saw a widow gathering sticks. He called to her and said: “Please fetch me a little water in a container that I may have a drink!”

<sup>11</sup> When she went to get it, he called out to her: “Please fetch me a small piece of bread in your hand!”

<sup>12</sup> She replied: “As surely as the LORD, your God, lives, I have no supplies at all, except a handful of flour in a jar and a little olive-oil in a jug. As you see, I am also gathering a couple of sticks, that I may go and prepare it for myself and my son, that we may eat it and then die.”

<sup>13</sup> Elijah told her: “Do not be afraid! Go and do as you have said! However, make me a little cake from it first and bring it out to me! After that you may make something for yourself and your son. <sup>14</sup> For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: ‘The jar of flour will not be used up, and the jug of olive-oil will not run dry until the day when the LORD sends rain on the land.’”

<sup>15</sup> She went and did as Elijah had told her, and Elijah and the woman and her family had food for many days. <sup>16</sup> The jar of flour was not used up, and the jug of olive-oil did not run dry, according to the Word of the LORD, which He had promised through Elijah.

The raising of the widow’s son from death

<sup>17</sup> After this, the son of the woman, who was the owner of the house, became ill. His illness became very serious, so that he finally stopped breathing. <sup>18</sup> Then the woman asked Elijah: “What do you have against me, O man of God? Have you come to me to remind me of my sin and to cause the death of my son?”

<sup>19</sup> Elijah told her, “Give me your son!”

He took him from her arms and carried him up to the upper room, where he was lodging, and laid him on his own bed. <sup>20</sup> Then he cried to the LORD: “O LORD, my God, have You even brought calamity on the widow with whom I am staying as a foreigner, by causing her son to die?”

<sup>21</sup> Then he stretched himself out on the boy three times and called out to the LORD: “O LORD, my God, please let this child’s soul return into him!”

<sup>22</sup> Then the LORD heard the voice of Elijah, and the life of the child came back into him, and he revived.

<sup>23</sup> Elijah took the boy, carried him down from the upper room into the house and gave him to his mother. Elijah said: "Look! Your son is alive."

<sup>24</sup> The woman told Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God and that the Word of the LORD in your mouth is true."

18

Elijah's instructions to Obadiah to take a message to Ahab

<sup>1</sup> After a long time, in the third year, the Word of the LORD came to Elijah: "Go, present yourself to Ahab! Then I shall send rain over the ground."

<sup>2</sup> So, Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. The famine was severe in Samaria. <sup>3</sup> Ahab had summoned Obadiah, who was in charge of his palace. Obadiah was a devout worshipper of the LORD. <sup>4</sup> When Jezebel was killing the prophets of the LORD, Obadiah had taken a hundred prophets, had hidden them in two caves with fifty in each and had supplied them with bread and water. <sup>5</sup> Ahab had told Obadiah: "Go through the land to all the springs and all the streams! Perhaps we may find some grass to keep the horses and mules alive, that we may not lose any of the animals."

<sup>6</sup> So, they divided the country to go through it. Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went the other way by himself. <sup>7</sup> When Obadiah was on the road, Elijah suddenly met him. Obadiah recognised him, fell on his face and asked, "Are you really here, my master, Elijah?"

<sup>8</sup> He answered him: "Yes, I am. Go; tell your master, 'Look! Elijah is here!'"

<sup>9</sup> Obadiah asked: "How have I sinned, that you should hand your servant over to Ahab, for me to be put to death? <sup>10</sup> As surely as the LORD, your God, lives, there is no nation or kingdom where my master has not sent someone to search for you. Whenever any kingdom or nation said that you were not there, he used to make them swear an oath that they could not find you. <sup>11</sup> Now, however, you say, 'Go, tell your master, "Look! Elijah is here!"' <sup>12</sup> When I leave you, the Spirit of the LORD will carry you away I know not where. So, if I go and tell Ahab, and he cannot find you, he will kill me. Yet I, your servant, have feared the LORD since I was young. <sup>13</sup> Has it not been reported to my master what I did when Jezebel was killing the prophets of the LORD? I hid a hundred of the prophets of the LORD, fifty in each cave and supplied them with food and water. <sup>14</sup> Yet now you say, 'Go, tell your master, "Look! Elijah is here!"' He will kill me!"

<sup>15</sup> Elijah said, "As surely as the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I stand, I shall certainly present myself to him today."

<sup>16</sup> So, Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him, and Ahab came to meet Elijah.

The meeting of Elijah with Ahab

<sup>17</sup> When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab asked him, "Are you here, you disturber of Israel?"

<sup>18</sup> Elijah answered: "I have not been disturbing Israel. Rather, you and your father's family have been, because you people have abandoned the Commandments of the LORD and have been following the Baals. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore, send men and gather all Israel to me at Mount Carmel, together with the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table!"

Elijah's proof of God's superiority to Baal at Mount Carmel

<sup>20</sup> Ahab sent messages to all the Israelites and gathered the prophets together at Mount Carmel. <sup>21</sup> Elijah approached all the people and asked: "How long will you keep limping around between the two crutches? If the LORD is God, follow Him. However, if Baal is, follow him."

However, the people did not answer him at all.

<sup>22</sup> Then Elijah told the people: "I myself am the only one of the prophets of the LORD left, but there are four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal. <sup>23</sup> People should give us two bulls! Let them choose one bull for themselves, cut it in pieces and lay it on the wood but not set fire to it! I myself shall prepare the other bull and lay it on the wood but not set fire to it. <sup>24</sup> Then you shall call on the name of your god! I myself shall call on the name of the LORD. The God who answers by fire will be God."

All the people answered, "What you say is good."

<sup>25</sup> Then Elijah told the prophets of Baal: "Choose one bull for yourselves and prepare it first! For there are many of you. Then call on the name of your god, without lighting any fire!"

<sup>26</sup> They took the bull that had been given them, prepared it and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon. They kept saying, "Baal, answer us!"

However, there was no sound and no one answered. They danced with limping steps beside the altar that they had made. <sup>27</sup> At noon Elijah mocked them. He said: "Shout louder! For he is a god. For he is thinking deeply or he is excreting or he is on a journey. Perhaps he is sleeping and must wake up."

<sup>28</sup> So, they shouted louder and slashed themselves, as they usually did, with swords and long spears, until blood gushed out on them. <sup>29</sup> In the afternoon they raved on until the time for the evening sacrifice. However, there was no sound. No one answered and no one paid attention. <sup>30</sup> Then Elijah told all the people, "Come closer to me!"

All the people went closer to him. He repaired the altar of the LORD, which had been broken down.

<sup>31</sup> Elijah took twelve stones, one for each of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the Word of the LORD had come, "Your name shall be Israel." <sup>32</sup> With the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD. He also made a trench around the altar, large enough to hold fourteen litres of grain. <sup>33</sup> He arranged the wood, cut the bull in pieces and laid it on the wood. <sup>34</sup> Then he said, "Fill four large jars with water and pour it on the burnt offering and on the wood!" Then he said, "Do it a second time!" and they did it a second time. Then he said, "Do it a third time!" and they did it a third time. <sup>35</sup> The water ran down around the altar, and he even filled the trench with water.

<sup>36</sup> When it was time to offer the evening sacrifice, the prophet Elijah approached. He said: "LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, let it be known today that You are God in Israel, that I am Your servant and that I have done all these things at Your Word! <sup>37</sup> Answer me, LORD! Answer me, that these people may know that You, LORD, are God and that You Yourself have turned their hearts back again!"

<sup>38</sup> Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering, the wood, the stones and the dust and licked up the water that was in the trench. <sup>39</sup> When all the people saw it, they fell face-down and said: "The LORD is God! The LORD is God!"

<sup>40</sup> Elijah told them: "Seize the prophets of Baal! None of them must escape!"

When they had seized them, Elijah brought them down to the Kishon Brook and slaughtered them there.

The end of the drought

<sup>41</sup> Then Elijah told Ahab: "Go up! Eat and drink! For there is the sound of a heavy rain."

<sup>42</sup> Ahab went up to eat and to drink.

Elijah went up to the top of Mount Carmel. He bowed down on the ground and put his face between his knees. <sup>43</sup> He told his servant: "Please go up! Look towards the sea!"

When he had gone up and looked, he said, "There is nothing."

Elijah said, "Go back!" seven times. <sup>44</sup> The seventh time the servant said: "Look! A little cloud like a man's hand is coming up from the sea."

Elijah said: "Go up! Tell Ahab, 'Hitch your chariot and go down, that the rain may not delay you!'"

<sup>45</sup> Meanwhile, the sky grew black with clouds, wind arose and there was a heavy rain. Ahab rode away and went to Jezreel. <sup>46</sup> The hand of the LORD came on Elijah. He tucked his cloak around his waist and ran ahead of Ahab as far as the entrance to Jezreel.

19

The flight of Elijah to Horeb

<sup>1</sup> Ahab told Jezebel everything that Elijah had done and especially that he had killed all the prophets with the sword. <sup>2</sup> Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah saying, "May the gods deal severely with me and even worse than that if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like the life of one of them!"

<sup>3</sup> When he was aware of this, Elijah set out and fled for his life. He came to Beer-Sheba, which belongs to Judah and left his servant there. <sup>4</sup> Elijah himself went into the wilderness a day's journey. He came and sat down under a broom tree and asked that he might die.

He said: "It is enough now, LORD. Take away my life! For I am no better than my fathers."

<sup>5</sup> He lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Then suddenly an angel was there, touching him. He told him: "Get up and eat!"

<sup>6</sup> When Elijah looked, there, near his head, was a bread-cake on hot stones and a jar of water. So, he ate and drank and lay down again. <sup>7</sup> The angel of the LORD came back a second time and touched him. He said: "Get up and eat! Otherwise your journey will be too much for you."

<sup>8</sup> Elijah got up and ate and drank. Then, on the energy from that food, he travelled for forty days and forty nights, as far as Horeb, the mountain of God.

Elijah's complaint to God at Mount Horeb

<sup>9</sup> Elijah went into a cave and spent the night there. He heard the Word of the LORD coming to him. He asked him: "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

<sup>10</sup> Elijah answered: "I have been extremely jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts. For the Israelites have abandoned Your Covenant. They have torn down Your altars and they have killed Your prophets with the sword. I am the only one left and they have been trying to take my life!"

<sup>11</sup> He said: "Come out and stand on the mountain before the LORD!"

Suddenly, as the LORD was passing by, a fierce, strong wind was tearing mountains and shattering rocks ahead of the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake. <sup>12</sup> After the earthquake there was a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. Then, after the fire there was the sound of a quiet whisper. <sup>13</sup> When Elijah heard that, he wrapped his cloak over his face, went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. He heard a voice asking him: "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

<sup>14</sup> Elijah answered: "I have been extremely jealous for the LORD, the God of hosts. For the Israelites have abandoned Your Covenant. They have torn down Your altars and they have killed Your prophets with the sword. I am the only one left and they have been trying to take my life!"

<sup>15</sup> The LORD told him: "Go and make your way back to the wilderness of Damascus! When you arrive there, you shall anoint Hazael as king of Aram!

<sup>16</sup> You shall also anoint Jehu, the son of Nimshi, as king over Israel and Elisha, the son of Shaphat from Abel-Meholah, to succeed you as prophet! <sup>17</sup> Jehu will put to death anyone who escapes from the sword of Hazael, and Elisha will put to death anyone who escapes from the sword of Jehu. <sup>18</sup> However, I shall keep seven thousand men in Israel as a remnant, none of whom have knelt before Baal and none of whose mouths have kissed him."

The call of Elisha as Elijah's successor

<sup>19</sup> Elijah went from there and found Elisha, the son of Shaphat. He was ploughing behind twelve yoked pairs of oxen. He himself was with the twelfth pair. As Elijah went past him, he threw his cloak on him. <sup>20</sup> So, Elisha left the oxen and ran after Elijah. He said, "Please let me kiss my father and mother and then let me follow you!"

Elijah told him: "Go back again! For what have I done to you?"

<sup>21</sup> Elisha stopped following him and went back. He took his yoke of oxen, slaughtered them and used the yokes of the oxen to cook their meat. He gave it to the people, and they ate it. Then he set out to follow Elijah and became his attendant.

20

The defeat of King Ben-Hadad of Aram by Ahab

<sup>1</sup> Ben-Hadad, the king of Aram, mustered his entire army. Thirty-two kings with their horses and chariots accompanied him. He went up, besieged Samaria and fought against it. <sup>2</sup> He sent messengers into the city to Ahab, the king of Israel, to tell him: "This is what Ben-Hadad has said: <sup>3</sup> 'Your silver and your gold belong to me, and your wives and the finest of your children also belong to me.'"

<sup>4</sup> The king of Israel answered: "As you say, my master, the king. I and all I have are yours."

<sup>5</sup> The messengers came back and said, "This is what Ben-Hadad has said: 'I sent to you, saying, "You must deliver to me your silver, your gold, your wives and your children!" <sup>6</sup> Nevertheless, I shall send my servants to you about this time tomorrow, and they will search through your house and the houses of your officials, lay their hands on whatever is precious to you and bring it away.'"

<sup>7</sup> Then the king of Israel summoned all the elders of the land and said: "Please recognise and see that this man is trying to ruin us! For when he sent to me for my wives, my children, my silver and my gold, I did not refuse him."

<sup>8</sup> All the elders and all the people told him, "Do not listen or consent!"

<sup>9</sup> So, he told the messengers of Ben-Hadad: "Tell my master, the king, 'I, your servant, shall do all that you demanded of me the first time. However, I cannot meet this demand.'"

The messengers left to take back his reply. <sup>10</sup> Ben-Hadad sent this message to Ahab: "May the gods treat me like this and worse than this if enough dust remains in Samaria for all the soldiers who are following me to take a handful!"

<sup>11</sup> The king of Israel answered, "Tell him, 'One who straps on his armour should not boast like one who takes it off!'"

<sup>12</sup> When Ben-Hadad heard this message as he was drinking with the kings in their shelters, he ordered his officials, "Attack!" So, they attacked the city.

Another defeat of Ben-Hadad by Ahab

<sup>13</sup> Just then, a prophet approached Ahab, the king of Israel, and said: "This is what the LORD has said:

'Have you seen all this vast army? Look! I am giving it into your hands today, that you may know that I am the LORD.'"

<sup>14</sup> Ahab asked, "Whom will He use?"

The prophet replied: "This is what the LORD has said: 'I shall use the servants of the provincial governors.'"

Ahab asked, "Who will begin the battle?"

The prophet answered, "You will."

<sup>15</sup> Ahab mustered the servants of the provincial governors, and they numbered two hundred and thirty-two. After them he mustered all the Israelite soldiers. There were seven thousand. <sup>16</sup> They went out at noon, while Ben-Hadad and the thirty-two kings who were with him and who were helping him were getting drunk in their shelters. <sup>17</sup> The servants of the provincial governors went out first. Ben-Hadad sent out scouts, who reported to him, "Some men have come out from Samaria!"

<sup>18</sup> He said: "If they have come out for peace, take them alive! If they have come out for war, take them alive!"

<sup>19</sup> These men, the servants of the provincial governors, went out of the city, and then the army that followed them. <sup>20</sup> Each struck down his opponent. Then the Arameans fled, and Israel pursued them. However, Ben-Hadad, the king of Aram, escaped on a horse with some horsemen. <sup>21</sup> Then the king of Israel went out and struck down the horses and chariots. He also inflicted a great defeat on the Arameans.

The defeat of the Arameans at Aphek

<sup>22</sup> Then the prophet approached the king of Israel and told him: "Go! Strengthen your position! Understand and watch what you must do! For in the spring the king of Aram will attack you."

<sup>23</sup> The officials of the king of Aram told him: "Their gods are gods of the hills. That is why they were stronger than we were. However, if we fight against them on level country, we shall certainly be stronger than they will be. <sup>24</sup> This is what you must do. Remove each of the kings from his post and replace them with governors! <sup>25</sup> Then personally enlist an army like the army that you have lost, horse for horse and chariot for chariot, and let us fight against them on level country! We shall certainly be stronger than they will be."

He agreed with their advice, and that is what he did.

<sup>26</sup> The next spring, Ben-Hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

<sup>27</sup> When the Israelites were mustered and supplied, they went to meet them. The Israelites camped opposite them like two small flocks of goats, while the Arameans filled the countryside. <sup>28</sup> The man of God approached and told the king of Israel: "This is what the LORD has said: 'Because the Arameans have been saying, "The LORD is a god of hill-country but is not a god of the valleys," therefore I shall give all this large throng into your hands, that you may know that I am the LORD.”

<sup>29</sup> They camped opposite one another for seven days. Then on the seventh day the battle was joined. The Israelites struck down one hundred thousand Aramean foot soldiers in one day. <sup>30</sup> The rest fled into the city of Aphek, where the wall collapsed on twenty-seven-thousand of the men who were left. Ben-Hadad also fled and went from one room to another inside the city. <sup>31</sup> His officials told him: “Please look! We have heard that the kings of the family of Israel are merciful. Please let us put sackcloth around our waists and ropes around our necks and go out to the king of Israel! Perhaps he will spare your life.”

<sup>32</sup> So, they tied sackcloth around their waists, put ropes around their necks, went to the king of Israel and said, “Your servant Ben-Hadad says, ‘Please let me live!’”

The king replied, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”

<sup>33</sup> The men took this as a good sign and quickly took how he reacted as a valid assertion. They said, “Ben-Hadad is your brother.”

Then the king said, “Go and fetch him!”

Then Ben-Hadad came out to him, and Ahab made him get up into his chariot. <sup>34</sup> Ben-Hadad told him, “I shall restore the cities that my father took from your father, and you may set up your own market areas in Damascus, as my father set them up in Samaria.”

Ahab replied, “I shall let you go on these terms.”

He made a covenant with him and let him go.

The condemnation of Ahab by a prophet of God

<sup>35</sup> A certain man from the group of the prophets told his companion by the Word of the Lord: “Please strike me!”

However, the man refused to strike him. <sup>36</sup> The prophet told him: “Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, look! When you leave me a lion will strike you!”

When the man left him, a lion met him and struck him down. <sup>37</sup> Then the prophet found another man and said, “Please strike me!”

The man struck him hard and bruised him. <sup>38</sup> Then the prophet went and waited on the road for the king. He disguised himself with a bandage over his eyes.

<sup>39</sup> When the king was going past, he cried to the king: “Your servant went out into the middle of the battle and suddenly a soldier came over and brought a man to me. He said, ‘Guard this man! If by any means he is missing, you will pay for his life with your own life or else you shall pay thirty-five kilograms of silver!’”

<sup>40</sup> However, while I, your servant, was busy here and there, the man was gone.”

The king of Israel told him: “That is what the verdict on you is. You yourself have decided it.”

<sup>41</sup> Then the prophet quickly removed the bandage from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognised him as one of the prophets. <sup>42</sup> He told the king: “This is what the LORD has said: ‘Because you have released from your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, you shall pay for his life with your own life! Your people will pay for his people.’”

<sup>43</sup> Then the king of Israel went off to his palace dejected and in a rage, and so he came to Samaria.

21

Ahab's desire to acquire Naboth's vineyard

<sup>1</sup> Later the following happened. Naboth of Jezreel had a vineyard in Jezreel next to the palace of Ahab, the king of Samaria. <sup>2</sup> Ahab spoke to Naboth: “Give me your vineyard, that it may become my vegetable garden! For it is nearby, next to my palace. Let me give you a better vineyard instead of it, or, if you prefer, let me pay you whatever it is worth!”

<sup>3</sup> However, Naboth told Ahab, “The LORD forbid that I should give you what I have inherited from my fathers!”

<sup>4</sup> Ahab went home dejected and in a rage, because Naboth in Jezreel had told him, “I shall not give you what I have inherited from my fathers.” So, he lay down on his bed, turned his face away and refused to eat. <sup>5</sup> However, his wife Jezebel came to him and asked him, “Why are you so dejected in spirit here, so that you are not eating any food?”

<sup>6</sup> He told her: “Because I was speaking to Naboth of Jezreel. I asked him, ‘Give me your vineyard for money, or, if you prefer, let me give you another vineyard instead of it!’ However, he replied, ‘I shall not give you my vineyard.’”

<sup>7</sup> His wife Jezebel told him: “You are now ruling as king over Israel. Get up! Eat food and be cheerful at heart! I shall give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.”

<sup>8</sup> So, she wrote letters in Ahab's name, sealed them with his seal and sent the letters to the elders and noblemen who were living with Naboth in his city.

<sup>9</sup> In the letters she wrote: “Announce a fast and have Naboth sit in the chief place among the people!”

<sup>10</sup> Have two worthless men sit opposite him and let them testify, ‘You have cursed God and the king!’ Then take him outside and stone him to death!”

<sup>11</sup> The men in Naboth's city, the elders and noblemen who were living in his city, acted according to the instructions written in the letters that Jezebel had sent to them. <sup>12</sup> They announced a fast and had Naboth sit in the chief place among the people. <sup>13</sup> The two worthless men came in and sat opposite him. These worthless men testified against Naboth before the people, “Naboth has cursed God and the king.”

Then the people took him outside of the city and stoned him to death. <sup>14</sup> Then they sent this message to Jezebel: “Naboth has been stoned and is dead.”

<sup>15</sup> When Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, Jezebel told Ahab: “Get up! Take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to sell you for money! For Naboth is not alive but dead.”

<sup>16</sup> When he heard that Naboth was dead, Ahab got up to go down to take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.

God's condemnation of Ahab through Elijah

17 Then the Word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite: 18 "Get up and go down to meet Ahab, the king of Israel, who lives in Samaria! Look! He is in the vineyard of Naboth and has gone down there to take possession of it. 19 Tell him, 'This is what the LORD has asked, "Have you committed murder and also seized his property?'" You shall also tell him, 'This is what the LORD has said, "At the place where the dogs have licked up Naboth's blood, the dogs will also lick your own blood.'"

20 Ahab asked Elijah, "Have you found me, my enemy?"

He answered: "I have found you. Because you have sold yourself to do what the LORD considers wrong, 21 'Look! I shall bring calamity on you. I shall burn up everything after you. I shall cut off every male from Ahab, both slave and free, in Israel. 22 I shall make your family like the family of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, and like the family of Baasha, the son of Ahijah, because you have provoked Me to anger and because you have caused Israel to sin.' 23 The LORD has also spoken about Jezebel: 'The dogs will eat Jezebel inside the walled area of Jezreel.' 24 The dogs will eat anyone belonging to Ahab who dies in the city, and the birds of the sky will eat anyone of his who dies in the open country."

The repentance of Ahab

25 There was absolutely no one like Ahab, who sold himself to do what the LORD regarded as evil as his wife incited him. 26 He acted very abominably by going after idols, exactly as the Amorites had been doing, whom the LORD had driven out before the Israelites. 27 When Ahab heard those Words, he tore his clothes, put sackcloth on his body, fasted, lay in sackcloth and went about dejectedly. 28 Then the Word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite: 29 "Have you seen that Ahab has been humbling himself before Me? Because he has been humbling himself before Me, I shall not bring this calamity during his lifetime. I shall bring this calamity on his family during the time of his son."

22

The joint-campaign of Israel and Judah against Aram — 2 Chronicles 18:1-3

1 For three years there was no war between Aram and Israel. 2 However, in the third year Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, went down to the king of Israel. 3 The king of Israel had asked his officials, "Do you know that Ramoth-Gilead belongs to us, and yet we are delaying to take it from the hands of the king of Aram?"

4 He asked Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to fight at Ramoth-Gilead?"

Jehoshaphat replied to the king of Israel, "I am like you, my people are like your people, and my horses are like your horses."

The deception of Ahab by false prophets — 2 Chronicles 18:4-27

5 Jehoshaphat also told the king of Israel, "Please inquire first what the LORD says!"

6 Then the king of Israel gathered about four hundred prophets together and asked them, "Shall I go to fight against Ramoth-Gilead or shall I refrain?"

They said, "Go up, that the Lord may put it in the hands of the king!"

7 However, Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there not a prophet of the LORD here any longer, that we may inquire of him?"

8 The king of Israel told Jehoshaphat: "There is still one man through whom we may inquire of the LORD, Micaiah, the son of Imlah, but I myself hate him. For he never prophesies anything good about me but only evil."

Jehoshaphat replied, "The king should not say that!"

9 Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, "Bring Micaiah, the son of Imlah, at once!"

10 Both the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, were sitting on their thrones, dressed in their robes, at the threshing floor at the entrance of the city-gate of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying before them. 11 Zedekiah, the son of Chenaanah, had made iron horns for himself. He said, "This is what the LORD has said, 'You will gore the Arameans with these until they are destroyed.'"

12 All the other prophets were prophesying in this way, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-Gilead and be successful, that the LORD may put it in the hands of the king!"

13 The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah told him: "Please look here! The prophets are in full agreement in predicting success to the king. Please speak like one of them and speak favourably!"

14 However, Micaiah said, "As surely as the LORD lives, I shall speak what the LORD tells me."

15 When he had come to the king, the king asked him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-Gilead to fight or shall we refrain?"

He answered him, "Go up and be successful, that the LORD may put it in the hands of the king!"

16 However, the king asked him, "How many times must I personally make you swear that you will tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

Micaiah's prediction of failure — 2 Chronicles 18:12-27

17 Micaiah answered: "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, like sheep without a shepherd. The LORD said, 'These people have no masters. Let each return to his home in peace!'"

18 The king of Israel told Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy anything good about me but only evil?"

19 Then Micaiah said: "Therefore, hear the Word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, with all the host of heaven standing beside Him on His right hand and on His left. 20 The LORD asked,

‘Who will deceive Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-Gilead?’ One said one thing, and another said something else. <sup>21</sup> Then a spirit came forward, stood before the LORD and said, ‘I shall deceive him.’ The LORD asked him, ‘By what means?’ <sup>22</sup> He said, ‘I shall go out and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all His prophets.’ He said, ‘You will deceive him and be successful. Go out and do it!’ <sup>23</sup> Now therefore, look! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of all these prophets of yours. The LORD has also decreed calamity for you.”

<sup>24</sup> Then Zedekiah, the son of Chenaanah, went up, hit Micaiah on the cheek and asked, “Which way did the Spirit of the LORD go when he left me here to speak to you?”

<sup>25</sup> Micaiah replied: “Look! You will see on the day when you go into an inner room to hide.”

<sup>26</sup> Then the king of Israel ordered: “Seize Micaiah and take him back to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Joash, the king’s son! <sup>27</sup> Say, ‘This is what the king has said: “Put this fellow in prison and feed him with scanty rations of bread and water until I return safely!””

<sup>28</sup> Micaiah said, “If you really do come back safely, the LORD has not spoken through me.” Then he added, “Pay attention to this, all you people!”

The defeat and death of Ahab in battle — 2 Chronicles 18:28-34

<sup>29</sup> So, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-Gilead. <sup>30</sup> The king of Israel told Jehoshaphat, “I shall disguise myself when I go into battle, but you should wear your robes!”

So, the king of Israel disguised himself when he went into battle. <sup>31</sup> The king of Aram had given orders to the thirty-two captains of his chariots: “Do not fight with anyone, small or great but only with the king of Israel!”

<sup>32</sup> When the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, “Surely this is the king of Israel!”

So, they turned aside to fight against him. Then Jehoshaphat cried out. <sup>33</sup> When the captains of the chariots saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned away and stopped pursuing him. <sup>34</sup> However, a certain man drew his bow without aiming and struck the king of Israel between the scales of his body-armour. The king told the driver of his chariot: “Turn around and carry me out of the battlefield! For I have been wounded.”

<sup>35</sup> The battle continued that day, while the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans but died in the evening. The blood of the wound had spread into the floor of the chariot. <sup>36</sup> At about sunset a cry went across the line of battle, “Every man to his own city and every man to his own land!”

<sup>37</sup> When the king died and was brought to Samaria, people buried him in Samaria. <sup>38</sup> They washed off the chariot beside the pool of Samaria, the dogs licked up his blood, and the prostitutes washed in it, according to the Word of the LORD, which He had spoken. <sup>39</sup> As for the rest of the acts of Ahab and all that he did, the ivory palace that he built and all the cities that he built, have they not been recorded in the Book of the Annals of the Kings of Israel? <sup>40</sup> Ahab went to rest with his fathers, and his son Ahaziah succeeded him as king.

The reign of Jehoshaphat as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 20:31-21:1

<sup>41</sup> Jehoshaphat, the son of Asa, became king over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab, the king of Israel.

<sup>42</sup> Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he became king and reigned for twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother’s name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>43</sup> In every way he followed his father Asa without turning aside from it. He did what the LORD regarded as right. Nevertheless, the high places were not removed, and the people continued to offer sacrifices and burn incense on the high places.

<sup>44</sup> Jehoshaphat also lived in peace with the king of Israel. <sup>45</sup> As for the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, the great things he had achieved and the wars that he fought, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? <sup>46</sup> He rid the land of the rest of the male cult-prostitutes who had remained in the days of his father Asa. <sup>47</sup> There was no king in Edom, but a deputy was in charge. <sup>48</sup> Jehoshaphat had built large, sea-going ships to go to Ophir for gold, but they did not go, because the ships were wrecked at Ezion-Geber. <sup>49</sup> Then Ahaziah, the son of Ahab, told Jehoshaphat, “Let my servants go with your servants in the ships!”

However, Jehoshaphat refused. <sup>50</sup> Jehoshaphat went to rest with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the city of his father David, and Jehoram his son succeeded him as king.

The reign of Ahaziah as king of Israel

<sup>51</sup> Ahaziah, the son of Ahab, became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, and reigned over Israel for two years.

<sup>52</sup> He did what the LORD regarded as evil and walked in the ways of his father, in the ways of his mother and in the ways of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin. <sup>53</sup> Ahaziah served and worshipped Baal and provoked the LORD, the God of Israel to anger, exactly as his father had been doing.

2 KINGS

1

God's judgment through Elijah against Ahaziah, the king of Israel

<sup>1</sup> After Ahab died, Moab rebelled against Israel.

<sup>2</sup> Ahaziah fell through the lattice of his upper room in Samaria and injured himself. So, he sent messengers, telling them, "Go! Inquire from Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover from this injury!"

<sup>3</sup> However, the Angel of the LORD told Elijah, the Tishbite: "Set out! Go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria! Ask them, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are going to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron?' <sup>4</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said, 'You will not leave the bed on which you are lying but will certainly die.'"

Then Elijah went. <sup>5</sup> When the messengers returned to the king, he asked them, "Why have you returned like this?"

<sup>6</sup> They told him: "A man came to meet us and told us, 'Go back to the king, who has sent you, and tell him: "This is what the LORD has asked: 'Is it because there is no God in Israel that you are sending men to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore, you will not leave the bed on which you are lying but you will certainly die.'"""

<sup>7</sup> The king asked them, "What did the man look like who came to meet you and told you this?"

<sup>8</sup> They answered him: "He was wearing a garment of hair and had a leather belt fastened about his waist."

He said, "That was Elijah, the Tishbite."

<sup>9</sup> Then the king sent to him an army officer with his company of fifty men. He went up to Elijah, who was sitting on the top of a hill. He told him, "Man of God, the king has ordered, 'Come down!'"

<sup>10</sup> However, Elijah answered the officer of fifty men, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!"

Then fire came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men. <sup>11</sup> The king sent to him another officer with his fifty men. He told him: "Man of God, this is what the king has ordered, 'Come down at once!'"

<sup>12</sup> However, Elijah answered them: "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven and consume you and your fifty men!"

Then the fire of God came down from heaven and consumed him and his fifty men. <sup>13</sup> When the king sent a third officer with his fifty men, the third officer of fifty men went up and bowed down on his knees before Elijah. He pleaded with him: "Man of God, please regard my life and the lives of these fifty servants of yours as precious! <sup>14</sup> Look! Fire has come down from heaven and has consumed the two other officers with their fifty men. Now, however, regard my life as precious!"

<sup>15</sup> Then the Angel of the LORD told Elijah: "Go down with him! Do not be afraid of him!"

So, Elijah got up and went down with him to the king.

<sup>16</sup> He told the king: "This is what the LORD has said, 'You have sent messengers to consult Baal-Zebub, the god of Ekron. Is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire about His Word? That is why you will not leave the bed on which you are lying but will certainly die.'"

The death of Ahaziah

<sup>17</sup> So, he died, according to the Word of the LORD, which Elijah had spoken. Because Ahaziah had no son, Jehoram succeeded him as king, in the second year of Jehoram, the son of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah. <sup>18</sup> As for everything else that Ahaziah did, has it not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel?

2

The ascent of Elijah to heaven

<sup>1</sup> When the LORD was about to take Elijah up to heaven in a whirlwind, Elijah and Elisha were on their way from Gilgal. <sup>2</sup> Elijah told Elisha: "Please stay here! For the LORD has sent me to Bethel."

Elisha answered: "As surely as the LORD lives and as surely as your soul lives, I will not leave you."

So, they went down to Bethel. <sup>3</sup> Some of the disciples of the prophets who were at Bethel approached Elisha and asked him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?"

"Yes, I know it too," Elisha replied, "Keep quiet!"

<sup>4</sup> Then Elijah told him, "Elisha, please stay here! For the LORD has sent me to Jericho."

However, he replied, "As surely as the LORD lives and as surely as your soul lives, I will not leave you!"

So, they went to Jericho.

<sup>5</sup> A company of the prophets who were at Jericho approached Elisha and asked him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from over you today?"

"Yes, I know it too," he replied, "Keep quiet!"

<sup>6</sup> Then Elijah told him: "Please stay here! For the LORD has sent me to the Jordan."

Elisha answered, "As surely as the LORD lives and as surely as your soul lives, I will not leave you!"

The two of them went on. <sup>7</sup> Fifty disciples of the prophets also went and stood, facing these two men at a distance, while they stopped at the Jordan. <sup>8</sup> Elijah took his outer garment and rolled it up. He struck the water, and it was divided on the one side and on the other, and the two men went across on dry ground.

<sup>9</sup> When they had gone across, Elijah told Elisha, "Before I am taken away from you, ask me what I may do for you!"

Elisha said, "Please let a double portion of your spirit be on me!"

<sup>10</sup> Elijah said: "You have asked for a difficult thing.

Nevertheless, if you see me when I am taken from you, let it be so for you! However, if you do not see me, it will not be so.”

<sup>11</sup> They continued to talk as they walked along. Suddenly a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated the two of them, and Elijah went up to heaven in a whirlwind.

<sup>12</sup> When Elisha saw this, he cried out: “My father! My father! The chariot of Israel and its horsemen!”

Then Elisha did not see him any longer. He took hold of his own clothes and tore them in two pieces.

The succession of Elisha as prophet after Elijah

<sup>13</sup> Then he picked up Elijah’s cloak, which had fallen from him, went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. <sup>14</sup> He took the cloak of Elijah, which had fallen from him, and struck the water. He asked, “Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah, yes, even He?”

When he struck the water, it divided to the one side and to the other, and Elisha went across. <sup>15</sup> When the disciples of the prophets who were at Jericho saw him from the opposite side, they said, “Elijah’s spirit has rested on Elisha!”

Then they went to meet him and bowed to the ground in front of him.

<sup>16</sup> They asked him: “Please look here! We, your servants, have fifty strong men. Please let them go and search for your master! It may be that the Spirit of the LORD has caught him up and put him down on one of the mountains or in one of the valleys.”

However, he said, “You shall not send anyone!”

<sup>17</sup> When they implored him until he was ashamed, he said, “Send them!”

They sent fifty men, who searched for Elijah for three days without finding him.

<sup>18</sup> They came back to Elisha while he was staying at Jericho and he told them, “Did I not tell you, ‘Do not go’?”

Miraculous purification of water

<sup>19</sup> The men of the city told Elisha: “Please look! This city is in a good place, as my master can see, but the water is bad, and the land is unproductive.”

<sup>20</sup> He said, “Fetch me a new bowl and put salt in it!”

When they brought it to him, <sup>21</sup> he went out to the spring, threw salt in it and said: “This is what the LORD has said, ‘I have purified this water. It will not cause death or infertility any longer.’”

<sup>22</sup> The water has been made sound to this day, according to the Word that Elisha spoke.

The mocking of Elisha by boys

<sup>23</sup> From there Elisha went up to Bethel. While he was going up along the road, some small boys came out of the city and made fun of him. They told him: “Go up, you bald-head! Go up, you bald-head!”

<sup>24</sup> He turned around and, when he saw them, he cursed them in the name of the LORD. Then two she-bears came out of the forest and pulled forty-two of the boys to pieces. <sup>25</sup> From there he went on to Mount Carmel and then came back from there to Samaria.

3

The reign of Jehoram as king of Israel

<sup>1</sup> In the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, Jehoram, the son of Ahab, became king over Israel in Samaria and reigned for twelve years. <sup>2</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil but not as his father and mother had done. He got rid of the pillar of Baal that his father had made. <sup>3</sup> Nevertheless, he persisted in the sin that Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had caused Israel to commit. He did not turn away from it.

God’s deliverance of the armies of Israel, Judah and Edom during a war against Moab

<sup>4</sup> Mesha, the king of Moab, was a sheep breeder and used to supply a hundred thousand male lambs and the wool of a hundred thousand rams to the king of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> However, when Ahab died, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. <sup>6</sup> At that time King Jehoram left Samaria and mustered all Israel. <sup>7</sup> He sent word to Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah: “The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you come with me to fight against Moab?”

He replied: “I shall go. I am like you, my people are like your people, and my horses are like your horses.”

<sup>8</sup> Then he asked, “By which route shall we go up?”

Jehoram answered, “By the road through the Wilderness of Edom.”

<sup>9</sup> So, the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom. After they had marched on that roundabout route for seven days, the army had no more water for themselves or for the animals that had come with them. <sup>10</sup> Then the king of Israel said: “How tragic! The LORD has called us three kings here to deliver us into the hands of Moab.”

<sup>11</sup> Jehoshaphat asked, “Is there no prophet of the LORD here, whom we may use to consult the LORD?”

Then one of the king of Israel’s officials answered: “Elisha, the son of Shaphat, is here. He used to pour water on the hands of Elijah.”

<sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat said, “The Word of the LORD is with him.”

So, the king of Israel, Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him. <sup>13</sup> Elisha asked the king of Israel: “What have you and I in common? Go to the prophets of your father and to the prophets of your mother!”

However, the king of Israel answered him: “No! For it is the LORD who has called us three kings here to deliver them into the hands of Moab.”

<sup>14</sup> Elisha said: “As surely as the LORD of hosts lives, before whom I have been standing, if I did not respect Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, I would certainly not look at you or notice you. <sup>15</sup> Now therefore, fetch me a harpist!”

While the harpist was playing, the hand of the LORD came on Elisha. <sup>16</sup> He said: “This is what the LORD has said, ‘Make this dry stream-bed full of ditches!’”

<sup>17</sup> For this is what the LORD has said, ‘You will not see wind or see rain, but that dry stream-bed will be filled with water, that you, your cattle and your other animals may drink.’ <sup>18</sup> The LORD considers that this will be too simple a matter. He will also deliver Moab into your hands. <sup>19</sup> You shall also overthrow every fortified city and every major city! You shall also cut down every good tree, fill in all the springs and ruin every good field with stones!”

<sup>20</sup> The next morning, about the time when the sacrifice was offered, water suddenly came from the direction of Edom, and the land was filled with water.

<sup>21</sup> When all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, all who were fit for military service, including older men, were called out and took positions at the border. <sup>22</sup> When they rose early in the morning, the sun was shining on the water, and to the Moabites the water opposite them appeared to be as red as blood. <sup>23</sup> They said: “This is blood. The kings have certainly been fighting each other and have been striking each another down. Now therefore, Moab, get to the plunder!”

<sup>24</sup> However, when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and defeated the Moabites, and the Moabites fled before them. The Israelites continued the slaughter in the land and struck down the Moabites. <sup>25</sup> They demolished the cities, and every man threw a stone on every good piece of land until it was covered. They filled in every spring of water and cut down all the good trees. Finally only Kir-Hareseth was left with its stones in place, but men armed with slings surrounded and attacked it. <sup>26</sup> When the king of Moab saw that the battle was going against him, he took with him seven hundred swordsmen to cut their way through to the king of Edom, but they could not do it. <sup>27</sup> Then he took his eldest son, who would have succeeded him as king, and offered him for a burnt offering on the wall. They were very indignant against the Israelites, who then withdrew from them and returned to their own land.

4

The use of a miraculous supply of olive-oil to provide for a widow — compare 1 Kings 17:14-16

<sup>1</sup> The wife of one of the disciples of the prophets cried out to Elisha: “My husband, your servant, is dead, and you yourself know that he, your servant, feared the LORD. However, the money-lender has come to take away my two children as his slaves.”

<sup>2</sup> Elisha told her: “What shall I do for you? Tell me! What do you have in your house?”

She said: “Your maidservant has nothing in the house except a small jar of olive-oil.”

<sup>3</sup> Then he said: “Go! Borrow vessels from everywhere, from all your neighbours! They should be empty ones and not just a few of them! <sup>4</sup> Then go in, shut the door behind you and your sons and pour it into all these vessels! When one is full, put it to one side.”

<sup>5</sup> So, she left him and shut the door behind her and her sons. They kept bringing containers to her while she kept pouring. <sup>6</sup> When the containers were full, she told her son, “Bring me another container!”

He told her, “There are no more containers left.”

Then the olive-oil stopped flowing. <sup>7</sup> She came and told the man of God. He said: “Go, sell the olive-oil and pay your debts! You and your sons can live on what is left.”

The restoration to life of the son of a woman of Shunem — compare 1 Kings 17:17-24

<sup>8</sup> One day, Elisha went across to Shunem, where a wealthy woman lived. She urged him to eat some food. So, whenever he was going past, he used to turn in there to eat some food. <sup>9</sup> She told her husband: “Please consider this! I know that he is a holy man of God, who is regularly going past us. <sup>10</sup> Please let us make a small enclosed upper room and put a bed, a table, a chair and a lamp there for him, that he may stay there whenever he comes to us!”

<sup>11</sup> One day when Elisha came, he went into the upper room and lay down there. <sup>12</sup> He told his servant Gehazi, “Call this woman of Shunem!”

The servant called her, and she stood before Elisha.

<sup>13</sup> Elisha told Gehazi: “Please tell her, ‘See, you have gone to all this trouble for us! What should be done for you? Is there a word that could be spoken on your behalf to the king or to the commander of the army?’” She replied, “I am living among my own people.”

<sup>14</sup> Elisha asked, “What, then, can be done for her?”

Gehazi answered, “Indeed, she has no son, and her husband is old.”

<sup>15</sup> Then Elisha said, “Call her!”

When he had called her, she stood in the doorway.

<sup>16</sup> He said, “About this time next year you will hold a son in your arms.”

She said: “No, my master, man of God! Do not lie to your maidservant!”

<sup>17</sup> However, the woman became pregnant and gave birth to a son at the right time the next year, as Elisha had told her. <sup>18</sup> The child grew and one day he went out to his father, who was with the reapers. <sup>19</sup> He said to his father, “My head, my head!”

The father told his servant, “Carry him to his mother!”

<sup>20</sup> The servant lifted him up and carried him to his mother. The boy sat on her lap until noon and then he died. <sup>21</sup> She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, shut the door behind him and went out.

<sup>22</sup> Then she called to her husband and said: “Please send me one of the servants and one of the donkeys, that I may quickly go to the man of God and come back again!”

<sup>23</sup> Her husband asked: “Why are you going to him today? It is not the New Moon or the Sabbath.”

She answered, “All is well.”

<sup>24</sup> Then she saddled the donkey and told her servant:

“Drive off! On your way! Do not slow down for me unless I tell you!”

<sup>25</sup> So, she set out and came to the man of God at Mount Carmel. When the man of God saw her in the distance, he told his servant Gehazi: “Look! There is that woman from Shunem. <sup>26</sup> Please run at once to meet her and ask her, ‘Are you well? Is your husband well? Is the boy well?’”

She answered, “All is well.”

<sup>27</sup> When she came to the man of God at the mountain, she took hold of his feet. Gehazi came closer to push her away. However, the man of God said: “Leave her alone! For she is in bitter distress, but the LORD has hidden it from me and has not told me why.”

<sup>28</sup> Then she said: “Did I ask my master for a son? Did I not say, ‘Do not use false hopes to keep me quiet!’?”

<sup>29</sup> Elisha told Gehazi: “Tuck your cloak into your belt, take my staff in your hand and go! When you meet anyone, you shall not greet him and, when anyone greets you, do not reply! Lay my staff on the boy’s face!”

<sup>30</sup> Then the boy’s mother said, “As surely as the LORD lives and as surely as your soul lives, I shall not leave you.”

So, he set out and followed her. <sup>31</sup> Gehazi went on ahead and laid the staff on the boy’s face, but there was no sound and no response. So, he came back to meet him and told him, “The child has not woken.”

<sup>32</sup> When Elisha entered the house, he saw the child lying dead on his bed. <sup>33</sup> He went in, shut the door behind the two of them and prayed to the LORD.

<sup>34</sup> Then he went up and lay on the boy. He put his mouth on the boy’s mouth, his eyes on the boy’s eyes and his hands on the boy’s hands. When he bowed down over him, the boy’s body became warm.

<sup>35</sup> Elisha turned away and walked back and forth in the room. Then he went up and bowed down over him. The boy sneezed seven times. When the boy opened his eyes, <sup>36</sup> Elisha summoned Gehazi and said, “Call this woman of Shunem!”

When he called her, she came to him, and he said, “Pick up your son!”

<sup>37</sup> She came, fell at his feet and bowed down to the ground. Then she picked up her son and went out.

A miraculous remedy for poisoned food in a pot

<sup>38</sup> Elisha came to Gilgal again when there was a famine in the land. While the company of the prophets was sitting in front of him, he told his servant, “Set on the large pot and boil stew for the company of the prophets!”

<sup>39</sup> One of them went out into the field to gather mallows and found a wild vine. He gathered wild gourds from it and filled the fold of his cloak. Then he came and sliced them into the pot of stew, although no one knew what they were. <sup>40</sup> They poured out some for the men to eat. However, while they were eating some of the stew, they cried out, “There is death in the pot, man of God!”

They could not eat it. <sup>41</sup> Elisha said, “Then fetch some flour!”

He threw it into the pot and said, “Pour some out for the people to eat!”

Then there was nothing harmful in the pot.

The feeding of a hundred men by Elisha with a few loaves and some grain — compare Matthew 14:13-21, 15:32-39

<sup>42</sup> A man came from Baal-Shalishah and brought the man of God twenty loaves of barley bread baked from the first ripe grain, together with some newly ripe ears of grain in their husks. Elisha said, “Give it to the men to eat!”

<sup>43</sup> However, his assistant asked, “How shall I serve this before a hundred men?”

Elisha answered: “Give it to the people to eat! For this is what the LORD has said, ‘They will eat it and have some left over.’”

<sup>44</sup> His assistant set it before them, and they ate and had some left over, according to the Word of the LORD.

5

The healing of Naaman’s infectious skin-disease

<sup>1</sup> Naaman was the commander of the army of the king of Aram. He was a great man with his master and highly respected, because the LORD had used him to give victory to Aram. Although this man was a valiant soldier, he had an infectious skin-disease.

<sup>2</sup> Raiding parties from Aram had gone out and captured a little girl from the land of Israel, and she worked in the service of Naaman’s wife. <sup>3</sup> She told her mistress: “If only my master were with the prophet in Samaria! Then he would cure him of his infectious skin-disease.”

<sup>4</sup> Naaman went and told his master, “This is what the girl who came from the land of Israel has said.”

<sup>5</sup> The king of Aram replied, “By all means, go! I shall send a letter to the king of Israel.”

When Naaman left, he took with him three hundred and fifty kilograms of silver, seventy-two kilograms of gold and ten sets of clothing. <sup>6</sup> Then he took the letter to the king of Israel, which read: “Now be advised, when this letter comes to you, that I have sent my servant Naaman to you, that you may cure him of his infectious skin-disease!”

<sup>7</sup> When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes. He asked: “Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man is sending someone to me to cure him of his infectious skin-disease? For you must please understand and be aware that he is certainly trying to pick a quarrel with me!”

<sup>8</sup> When Elisha, the man of God, heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent someone to the king to ask: “Why have you torn your clothes? Please let the man come to me, that he may know that there is a prophet in Israel!”

<sup>9</sup> Naaman went with his horses and chariot and stopped at the door of Elisha's house. <sup>10</sup> Elisha sent a messenger to tell him: "Go! Wash yourself in the Jordan seven times, that your flesh may be restored and that you may become clean!"

<sup>11</sup> However, Naaman became angry and went away. He said: "Indeed, I thought that Elisha would certainly have come out to me, stood, called on the name of the LORD, his God, waved his hand over the place and healed the infectious skin-disease. <sup>12</sup> Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than any of the waters of Israel are? Should I not wash in them and become clean?"

So, he turned and went away in a rage. <sup>13</sup> However, Naaman's servants went up to him and spoke to him: "My father, if the prophet had asked you to do some great thing, would you not have done it? How much more, then, when he has told you, 'Wash and become clean!'"

<sup>14</sup> So, Naaman went down and dipped himself in the Jordan seven times, as the man of God had told him to do, and his flesh was restored like that of a little child, and he became clean.

The greed of Gehazi and his punishment

<sup>15</sup> Then Naaman and all his attendants went back to the man of God. He stood before him and said: "Indeed, now I know that there is no God in all the world except in Israel. Now therefore, please accept a gift from your servant!"

<sup>16</sup> However, Elisha answered, "As surely as the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I shall not accept anything."

Although Naaman strongly urged him to accept it, he refused. <sup>17</sup> Then Naaman said: "If not, please let me, your servant, be given as much soil as a pair of mules can carry! For from now on your servant will not make a burnt offering or other sacrifice to any other god than the LORD. <sup>18</sup> However, may the LORD pardon your servant for this one thing, when my master goes into the temple of Rimmon to worship there while he is leaning on my arm, and I bow down in the temple of Rimmon! May the LORD please pardon me, your servant, for this, when I bow down in the temple of Rimmon!"

<sup>19</sup> Elisha told him, "Go in peace!"

However, when Naaman had gone a short distance away from him, <sup>20</sup> Gehazi, the servant of Elisha, the man of God, thought: "Look! My master has been too easy on this Aramean, Naaman, by not accepting from him what he brought. As surely as the LORD lives, I shall run after him and get something from him."

<sup>21</sup> So, Gehazi hurried after Naaman. When Naaman saw him running behind him, he got down from his chariot to meet him and asked, "Is everything all right?"

<sup>22</sup> Gehazi answered: "Everything is all right. My master has sent me to say, 'Look! Just now two young men belonging to the company of the prophets have come to me from the hill-country of Ephraim. Please, give them thirty-five kilograms of silver and two sets of clothing!"

<sup>23</sup> Naaman said: "Go on! Take seventy kilograms!"

He strongly urged him and tied up seventy kilograms of silver in two bags, with two sets of clothing. He handed them to two of his servants, and they carried them in front of Gehazi. <sup>24</sup> When he came to the stronghold, he took them from their hands and stored them away in the house. Then he dismissed the men, and they left. <sup>25</sup> When he went in and stood before his master, Elisha asked him, "Where have you been, Gehazi?"

He answered, "Your servant did not go anywhere."

<sup>26</sup> However, Elisha asked him: "Did not my heart go with you when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is this a time to acquire money and acquire clothes, olive-orchards, vineyards, sheep and herds, menservants and maidservants? <sup>27</sup> The skin-disease of Naaman will cling to you and to your descendants for ever."

Gehazi went out from Elisha's presence with an infectious skin-disease, as white as snow.

6

The miracle of the floating axe-head

<sup>1</sup> The company of the prophets told Elisha: "Please consider this! The place where we are living together with you is too small for us. <sup>2</sup> Please, let us go to the Jordan, and let each of us get a log from there, that we may make ourselves another place to live!"

He answered, "Go!"

<sup>3</sup> Then one of them asked, "Please agree to come with your servants!"

Elisha answered, "I shall come."

<sup>4</sup> So, he went with them. When they came to the Jordan, they began to cut down trees. <sup>5</sup> However, as one man was felling a tree, his axe head fell into the water. He cried out: "Ah, my master! It was borrowed."

<sup>6</sup> Then the man of God asked, "Where did it fall?"

When he had shown Elisha the place, Elisha cut off a stick, threw it in there and made the iron float.

<sup>7</sup> He said, "Lift it out!"

He reached out his hand and took it.

The trapping of blinded Arameans in Samaria by Elisha

<sup>8</sup> Once the king of Aram was fighting against Israel. After he conferred with his officials, he said, "My camp will be at such and such a place."

<sup>9</sup> However, the man of God sent a Message to the king of Israel: "Beware that you do not go past this place! For the Arameans are marching down there."

<sup>10</sup> The king of Israel sent some men to the place about which the man of God had told him. Thus he used to warn the king to be on his guard there. He did this repeatedly. <sup>11</sup> This annoyed the king of Aram. He summoned his officials and asked them, "Will you not tell me which of us is on the side of the king of Israel?"

<sup>12</sup> One of his officials replied: "No one, O king, my master. However, Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, will tell the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom.”

<sup>13</sup> The king said, “Go and see where he is, that I may send men and capture him!”

He was told: “Look! He is in Dothan.”

<sup>14</sup> So, he sent horses, chariots and a large force there. They came by night and surrounded the city. <sup>15</sup> When the assistant of the man of God got up early in the morning and went out, he saw that an army with horses and chariots was surrounding the city. Elisha’s servant asked him: “Oh, my master! What shall we do?”

<sup>16</sup> Elisha answered: “Do not be afraid! For there are more with us than there are with them.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Elisha prayed, “LORD, please open his eyes that he may see!”

Then the LORD opened the young man’s eyes. When he looked, he saw that the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha. <sup>18</sup> When the Arameans came down against him, Elisha prayed to the LORD: “Please strike these soldiers with dazzling light!”

Then God struck them with dazzling light, as Elisha had asked. <sup>19</sup> Elisha told them: “This is not the road, and this is not the city. Follow me, that I may lead you to the man for whom you are searching.”

Then he led them to Samaria. <sup>20</sup> When they had entered Samaria, Elisha said, “LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see!”

Then the LORD opened their eyes so that they could see. They saw that they were in the middle of Samaria. <sup>21</sup> When the king of Israel saw them, he asked Elisha: “My father, shall I strike them down? Shall I strike them down?”

<sup>22</sup> He answered: “You shall not strike them down! Do you strike down those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set food and water before them that they may eat and drink and that they may then go to their master!”

<sup>23</sup> So, he prepared a great banquet for them. When they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. Then raiding parties from Aram stopped coming into the land of Israel.

The famine in Samaria during a siege

<sup>24</sup> After this, Ben-Hadad, the king of Aram, gathered his entire army, went up and besieged Samaria.

<sup>25</sup> There was a severe famine in Samaria. Indeed, they besieged it for so long that a donkey’s head was sold for nine hundred and sixty grams of silver and two hundred and seventy millilitres of dove’s dung cost sixty grams of silver. <sup>26</sup> While the king of Israel was going past along the wall, a woman cried out to him: “Help me, O king, my master!”

<sup>27</sup> He replied: “If the LORD will not help you, from where shall I get help for you? From the threshing floor or from the wine-press?”

<sup>28</sup> The king asked her, “What is your trouble?”

She answered: “This woman told me, ‘Donate your son, that we may eat him today and eat my son tomorrow!’ <sup>29</sup> So, we boiled my son and ate him. The next day I told her, ‘Donate your son, that we may eat him!’ However, she has hidden her son.”

<sup>30</sup> When the king heard what the woman had said, he tore his clothes. While he was going past along the wall the people saw that he actually had sackcloth underneath on his body. <sup>31</sup> He said: “May God deal severely with me and do even worse, if the head of Elisha, the son of Shaphat, remains on him today!”

<sup>32</sup> While Elisha was sitting in his house, the elders were sitting with him. The king had dispatched a man ahead of him. Before the messenger came to Elisha, Elisha asked the elders: “Have you not seen that this son of a murderer has sent someone to take off my head? Look! When the messenger comes, shut the door and use the door to hold him back! Is not the sound of his master’s feet behind him?”

<sup>33</sup> While Elisha was still speaking to them, there was the messenger coming down to him. The messenger said: “Look here! The LORD has sent this calamity. Why should I stand waiting before the LORD any longer?”

7

<sup>1</sup> However, Elisha said: “Listen to the Word of the LORD! This is what the LORD has said: “At about this time tomorrow seven litres of fine wheat flour will be sold at the city-gate of Samaria for twelve grams of silver and fourteen litres of barley for twelve grams of silver.”

<sup>2</sup> Then the assisting officer on whose arm the king was leaning asked the man of God: “Look! If the LORD were to make windows in heaven, could this happen?”

However, Elisha answered, “Indeed, you will see it with your own eyes but not eat any of it!”

The lifting of the siege of Samaria

<sup>3</sup> There were four men at the entrance to the city-gate who had an infectious skin-disease. They asked one another: “Why are we sitting here until we die? <sup>4</sup> If we say, ‘Let us enter the city!’ the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. If we keep sitting here, we shall also die. Now therefore, come! Let us surrender to the camp of the Arameans! If they spare our lives we shall live and, if they kill us, we shall die.”

<sup>5</sup> So, they set off at twilight to go to the camp of the Arameans. However, when they reached the edge of the camp of the Arameans, they saw that there was no one there. <sup>6</sup> The Lord had caused the army of the Arameans to hear the noise of chariots, horses and a large army, so that they said to one another, “Look! The king of Israel has hired the kings of the Hittites against us and the kings of Egypt to attack us!”

<sup>7</sup> So, they got up and fled at twilight. They abandoned their tents, their horses and their donkeys. They left the camp as it was and fled for their lives. <sup>8</sup> When these men with skin-diseases reached the edge of the camp, they went into a tent, ate and drank, took silver, gold and clothing out of it and went and hid them. Then they came back, entered another tent, took some things out of it and went and hid them. <sup>9</sup> Then they said to one another: "We are not doing what is right. This day is a day of good news, and we are not telling anyone about it. If we wait until the morning light, we shall be punished. Now therefore, come! Let us go and report this to the royal palace!"

<sup>10</sup> So, they went, called to the gatekeepers of the city and told them: "We went to the camp of the Arameans and look! There was no one there, not a sound of anyone. There were only the horses tied up, the donkeys tied up and the tents as they had been."

<sup>11</sup> Then the gatekeepers shouted the news, and it was reported inside the king's palace. <sup>12</sup> So, the king got up in the night and told his officials: "Let me just tell you what the Arameans have done to us! They know that we are hungry. They have left the camp to hide in the open country. They are thinking, 'When they come out of the city, we shall capture them alive and get into the city.'"

<sup>13</sup> One of his officials answered: "Then, please, let some men take five of the remaining horses that are left here! Look! They will be no worse at all than the entire multitude of the Israelites who are left here. Look! They will be no worse at all than the entire multitude of Israel that has already perished. Let us send them that we may find out!"

<sup>14</sup> So, they selected two chariots with their horses, and the king sent them after the army of the Arameans. He told the men, "Go and look!"

<sup>15</sup> They followed them as far as the Jordan and saw that the entire road was littered with garments and equipment that the Arameans had discarded as they hurried away. The messengers returned and reported this to the king. <sup>16</sup> Then the people went out and plundered the camp of the Arameans. So, seven litres of fine wheat flour were sold for twelve grams of silver and fourteen litres of barley cost twelve grams of silver, according to the Word of the LORD. <sup>17</sup> The king had appointed the assisting officer on whose arm he used to lean to be in charge of the city-gate. The people trampled on him in the gateway, so that he died, as the man of God had spoken. He had foretold it when the king had come down to him. <sup>18</sup> It happened as the man of God had told the king: "At about this time tomorrow fourteen litres of barley will be sold for twelve grams of silver and seven litres of fine wheat flour will cost twelve grams of silver at the city-gate of Samaria."

<sup>19</sup> The assisting officer had answered the man of God: "Look! If the LORD were to make windows in heaven, could this happen?" Elisha had replied, "Indeed, you will see it with your own eyes but not eat any of it!"

<sup>20</sup> That is what happened to him. The people trampled him to death in the gateway.

8

The restoration of the woman of Shunem's land

<sup>1</sup> Elisha had told the woman whose son he had restored to life: "Take action, leave with your family and live as a foreigner wherever you can! For the LORD has called for a famine, and, besides, it is coming on the land for seven years."

<sup>2</sup> The woman proceeded to do as the man of God had said. She and her family went and lived as foreigners in the land of the Philistines for seven years. <sup>3</sup> When, at the end of the seven years, the woman returned from the land of the Philistines, she went off to appeal to the king for her house and her farm. <sup>4</sup> The king was talking with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, and was saying, "Please tell me about all the great things that Elisha has done!"

<sup>5</sup> While Gehazi was telling the king about Elisha's restoration of the life of the dead boy, there was the woman whose son he had restored to life appealing to the king for her house and her land. Gehazi said, "O king, my master, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life."

<sup>6</sup> When the king asked the woman, she told him. So, the king appointed a court-official for her and told him, "Restore all that used to belong to her, together with all the income from the farm from the day when she left the land until now!"

Elisha's prophecy to Hazael and the murder of Ben-Hadad by Hazael

<sup>7</sup> When Elisha came to Damascus, Ben-Hadad, the king of Aram, was ill. He was told, "The man of God has come as far as here!"

<sup>8</sup> The king told Hazael: "Take a gift with you, go to meet the man of God and inquire of the LORD through him! Ask, 'Shall I recover from this illness?'"

<sup>9</sup> Hazael went to meet him and took with him, as a gift, forty camel-loads of all kinds of goods of Damascus. When he came and stood before him, he said: "Your son, Ben-Hadad, the king of Aram, has sent me to you, to ask, 'Shall I recover from this illness?'"

<sup>10</sup> Elisha told him: "Go! Tell him, 'You will certainly recover!' However, the LORD has revealed to me that he will certainly die."

<sup>11</sup> He stared at him with a fixed gaze until Hazael was embarrassed and then the man of God wept. <sup>12</sup> Hazael asked, "My master, why are you weeping?"

He answered: "Because I know the harm that you will do to the Israelites. You will set on fire their fortresses, you will kill their young men with the sword, you will smash to pieces their little children and rip open their pregnant women."

<sup>13</sup> Hazael asked: "Rather, what am I, your servant? Am I a dog, that I should do this horrible thing?"

Elisha answered, "The LORD has revealed to me that you will be king over Aram."

<sup>14</sup> Then Hazael left Elisha and returned to his master. When Ben-Hadad asked him, “What has Elisha told you?” he answered, “He has told me that you will certainly recover.”

<sup>15</sup> However, on the next day Hazael took a blanket, dipped it in water and spread it over the king’s face, so that he died. Then Hazael succeeded him as king.

The reign of Joram as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 21:2-11, 21:16-22:1

<sup>16</sup> In the fifth year of Jehoram,<sup>*103</sup> the son of Ahab, the king of Israel, when Jehoshaphat was the king of Judah, Joram, the son of Jehoshaphat, began to reign as the king of Judah. <sup>17</sup> He was thirty-two years old when he became king and reigned in Jerusalem for eight years. <sup>18</sup> He lived in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the family of Ahab had done. For he had married the daughter of Ahab. He did what the LORD considered evil. <sup>19</sup> However, the LORD was not willing to destroy Judah, for the sake of His servant David, since He had promised to give a lasting lamp to David and to his descendants for ever. <sup>20</sup> In the time of Jehoram, Edom rebelled against the rule of Judah and appointed their own king. <sup>21</sup> Then Joram went across to Zair with all his chariots. When the Edomites were surrounding him and his chariot-commanders, he rose up by night and struck them down. Then his army fled to their tents. <sup>22</sup> So, Edom has been in revolt against the control of Judah to this day. At that time Libnah also rebelled. <sup>23</sup> As for the other events of Joram’s reign and all that he did, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? <sup>24</sup> Joram went to rest with his ancestors and was buried with his fathers in the City of David, and his son Ahaziah succeeded him as king.

The reign of Ahaziah as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 22:2-6

<sup>25</sup> In the twelfth year of Jehoram, the son of Ahab, the king of Israel, Ahaziah, the son of Joram, the king of Judah, began to reign. <sup>26</sup> Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for one year. His mother’s name was Athaliah. She was a granddaughter of Omri, the king of Israel. <sup>27</sup> He also lived in the ways of the family of Ahab and did what the LORD considered evil, as the family of Ahab had done. Indeed, he was related by marriage to the family of Ahab. <sup>28</sup> He went with Joram, the son of Ahab, to fight against Hazael, the king of Aram, at Ramoth-Gilead, and the Arameans wounded Joram. <sup>29</sup> King Joram returned to Jezreel to recover from the wounds that the Arameans had inflicted on him at Ramoth when he was fighting against Hazael, the king of Aram. Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, went down to see Joram, the son of Ahab, in Jezreel, because he was ill.

9

The anointing of Jehu as the king of Israel

<sup>1</sup> Then the prophet Elisha called a man from the company of the prophets and told him: “Tuck your cloak up into your belt! Take this flask of olive-oil in your hand and go to Ramoth-Gilead! <sup>2</sup> When you arrive, look for Jehu, the son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi, there! Go in! Get him to stand up and leave his fellow-Israelites and take him to an inner room! <sup>3</sup> Then take the flask of olive-oil, pour it on his head and say, ‘This is what the LORD has said, “I have anointed you king over Israel!’” Then open the door and run away! You shall not delay!”

<sup>4</sup> The young man, the servant of the prophet, went to Ramoth-Gilead. <sup>5</sup> When he arrived, he saw that the army officers were sitting together. He said, “I have a word for you, commander.”

Jehu asked, “For which one out of us all?”

He replied, “For you, commander.”

<sup>6</sup> He got up and went inside the house. Then the prophet poured the olive-oil on his head and told him: “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: ‘I have anointed you king over Israel, the people of the LORD. <sup>7</sup> You shall strike down the family of your master Ahab, that I may take revenge on Jezebel for murdering My servants, the prophets, and for murdering all the other servants of the LORD! <sup>8</sup> For the whole family of Ahab will perish, and I shall cut off from Ahab every male in Israel both slave and free. <sup>9</sup> I shall make the family of Ahab like the family of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, and like the family of Baasha, the son of Ahijah. <sup>10</sup> Dogs will eat Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel, and no one will bury her.’”

Then he opened the door and ran away. <sup>11</sup> When Jehu came out to the other officials of his master, they asked him: “Is everything well? Why has this crazy fellow come to you?”

He answered them: “You know the man and his babble!”

<sup>12</sup> They said: “That is not true! Please tell us!”

He replied: “He spoke to me along these lines: ‘This is what the LORD has said, “I have anointed you king over Israel.’””

<sup>13</sup> Then each one quickly took his garment and put it under him on the bare steps. They blew trumpets and proclaimed, “Jehu has become king.”

The killing of King Joram of Israel by Jehu

<sup>14</sup> So, Jehu, the son of Jehoshaphat, the son of Nimshi, formed a conspiracy against Jehoram. Jehoram and all Israel had been defending Ramoth-Gilead against Hazael, the king of Aram. <sup>15</sup> However, King Joram had returned to recover in Jezreel from the wounds that the Arameans had inflicted on him while he was fighting against Hazael, the king of Aram. Jehu said, “If this is what you want, no one should escape from the city to go and tell the news in Jezreel!”

<sup>16</sup> Then Jehu got into his chariot and rode to Jezreel. For Joram was in bed there, and Ahaziah, the king of Judah, had come down to visit Joram. <sup>17</sup> The watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel and, when he saw Jehu's large crowd approaching, he called out, "I see a large crowd."

<sup>103</sup> The spelling varies between “Joram” and “Jehoram.”

Jehoram said: "Get a chariot driver, send him to meet them and ask, 'Is everything peaceful?'"

<sup>18</sup> So, a horseman went to meet him and said: "This is what the king has asked, 'Is everything peaceful?'"

Jehu replied: "What do you have to do with peace? Turn around and follow me!"

Then the watchman reported, "The messenger has reached them but is not coming back."

<sup>19</sup> Then the king sent out a second horseman. When he reached them, he said: "This is what the king has asked, 'Is it in peace?'"

Jehu answered: "What do you have to do with peace? Turn around and follow me!"

<sup>20</sup> The watchman reported: "He has reached them but is not coming back. The driving is like the driving of Jehu, the son of Nimshi, for he is driving like a madman."

<sup>21</sup> Jehoram ordered, "Hitch up the chariot!"

When someone had hitched up his chariot, Jehoram, the king of Israel and Ahaziah, the king of Judah, set out. Each was in his own chariot. When they had gone out to meet Jehu, they met him at the plot of ground that had belonged to Naboth of Jezreel. <sup>22</sup> When Jehoram saw Jehu, he asked, "Have you come peacefully, Jehu?"

He answered, "What peace is there while your mother Jezebel keeps committing so many acts of fornication and sorcery?"

<sup>23</sup> Then Jehoram turned his chariot around and tried to flee. He called out to Ahaziah, "Treason, Ahaziah!"

<sup>24</sup> Jehu took hold of his bow and shot Jehoram between his shoulder blades. The arrow came out of his heart again, and he collapsed in his chariot. <sup>25</sup> Jehu told his assisting officer Bidkar: "Pick him up and throw him on the plot of ground that belonged to Naboth of Jezreel! For remember that, when you and I were riding side by side in a chariot behind his father Ahab, the LORD made this pronouncement against him: <sup>26</sup> 'As surely as I saw the blood of Naboth and the blood of his sons yesterday,' declares the Lord, 'I shall pay you back on this plot of ground.' Now therefore, pick him up and throw him on that plot of ground, according to the Word of the LORD!"

The death of Ahaziah, the king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 22:7-9

<sup>27</sup> When Ahaziah, the king of Judah saw this, he fled in the direction of Beth-Haggan. Jehu pursued him and ordered, "Shoot him too in his chariot!"

They struck him on the way up to Gur, which is near Ibleam. Although he fled to Megiddo, he died there.

<sup>28</sup> His officials carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the City of David. <sup>29</sup> Ahaziah had become king of Judah in the eleventh year of Jehoram, the son of Ahab.

The death of Queen Jezebel

<sup>30</sup> When Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel heard about it. She applied black eye-paint, arranged her hair and looked down through a window. <sup>31</sup> When Jehu was coming through the city-gate, she asked, "Have you come peacefully, Zimri, you murderer of your master?"

<sup>32</sup> He looked up to the window and asked: "Who is on my side? Who?"

Two or three eunuchs looked down at him. <sup>33</sup> He said, "Drop her down!"

When they dropped her down, some of her blood splattered on the wall and on the horses when they trampled on her. <sup>34</sup> Then Jehu went in and ate and drank. Then he said: "Please take care of that cursed woman and bury her! For she was a king's daughter."

<sup>35</sup> However, when they went to bury her, they found no more of her than her skull, her feet and the palms of her hands. <sup>36</sup> When they came back and reported this to Jehu, he said: "This is the Word of the LORD, which He spoke through His servant, Elijah the Tishbite, 'The dogs will eat the body of Jezebel in the territory of Jezreel. <sup>37</sup> The corpse of Jezebel will be like manure on the surface of the field in the territory of Jezreel, so that no one will say, 'This is Jezebel.'"

10

The slaughter of Ahab's and Ahaziah's families by Jehu

<sup>1</sup> Ahab had seventy male heirs in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters and sent them to the rulers of the city in Samaria, to the leaders of Jezreel, to the elders and to the guardians of Ahab's children in Samaria. He said:

<sup>2</sup> "Now therefore, when this letter reaches you, since your master's children are with you and since you have chariots, horses, a fortified city and weapons, <sup>3</sup> select the best and most qualified of your master's sons! Put him on his father's throne and then fight for your master's family!"

<sup>4</sup> However, they were extremely afraid and said: "Look! The two kings could not resist him. How, then, can we ourselves resist him?"

<sup>5</sup> So, the manager of the palace, the manager of the city, the elders and the guardians sent men to tell Jehu: "We are your servants and shall do everything that you tell us. We shall not make anyone king. Do whatever you think is best!"

<sup>6</sup> Then he wrote to them a second letter, saying: "If you are on my side and, if you listen to what I say, take the heads of your master's heirs and come to me at Jezreel tomorrow at about this time!"

The seventy sons of the king were with the influential men of the city, who were rearing them. <sup>7</sup> When the letter reached them, they took the king's sons, slaughtered the seventy of them, put their heads in baskets and sent them to Jehu at Jezreel. <sup>8</sup> When the messenger came and reported to him, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons," Jehu ordered, "Lay them in two piles at the entrance of the city-gate until the morning!"

<sup>9</sup> When he went out the next morning, he stood and told all the people: "You are innocent. It has been I who have formed a conspiracy against my master and killed him; but who has struck down all these?

<sup>10</sup> Know then that nothing of the Word of the LORD that the LORD has spoken about the family of Ahab will fall to the ground! The LORD has carried out what He has predicted through His servant Elijah.”

<sup>11</sup> Jehu struck down all who remained of the family of Ahab in Jezreel, all his influential men, his close friends and his priests, until he left him no survivor.

<sup>12</sup> Then he set out and went towards Samaria. While he was on the road, at Beth-Eked of the Shepherds, <sup>13</sup> Jehu met the relatives of Ahaziah, the king of Judah. He asked, “Who are you?”

They answered, “We are relatives of Ahaziah and have come down to make a friendly visit to the sons of the king and the sons of the queen mother.”

<sup>14</sup> Jehu ordered, “Take them alive!”

They took them alive and then slaughtered them beside the cistern at Beth-Eked. He did not allow any of those forty-two men to survive.

<sup>15</sup> When Jehu left that place, he met Jehonadab, the son of Rechab, who was coming to meet him. He greeted him and asked him, “Are you as loyal to me as I am to you?”

Jehonadab answered, “Yes, I am.”

Jehu replied, “If you are, give me your hand!”

So, Jehonadab gave Jehu his hand, and Jehu took him up with him into his chariot. <sup>16</sup> He said, “Come with me and watch how devoted I am to the LORD!”

So, they had him ride in Jehu’s chariot. <sup>17</sup> When Jehu arrived at Samaria, he struck down all the rest of those who belonged to Ahab in Samaria, so that he wiped them out, according to the Word of the LORD, which He had spoken to Elijah.

The slaughter of the priests of Baal by Jehu

<sup>18</sup> Then Jehu assembled all the people and told them: “Ahab served Baal a little, but Jehu will serve him intensely. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore, summon to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants and all his priests! None should be missing! For I have a great sacrifice to offer to Baal. Anyone who fails to come shall not live!”

However, Jehu had acted cunningly to destroy the worshippers of Baal. <sup>20</sup> Jehu ordered, “Use rites of purification to prepare for a festive assembly in honour of Baal!”

So, they proclaimed it. <sup>21</sup> Jehu sent a message throughout Israel, and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was no one left who did not come. When they went into the temple of Baal, the temple of Baal was filled from one end to the other. <sup>22</sup> Jehu told the man in charge of the wardrobe, “Fetch out robes for all the worshippers of Baal!”

So, he brought the robes out for them. <sup>23</sup> Then Jehu and Jehonadab, the son of Rechab, went into the temple of Baal, and Jehu told the worshippers of Baal, “Check and see that there are no worshippers of the LORD here among you, but only the worshipers of Baal!”

<sup>24</sup> Then they went in to prepare sacrifices and burnt offerings. Jehu had stationed eighty men outside and said, “The man who allows any of the men whom I am placing in your hands to escape will pay for his life with his own.”

<sup>25</sup> When Jehu had finished preparing the burnt offering, he told the guards and the assisting officers: “Go in and strike them down! No one shall come out!”

So, they struck them down with the sword. Then the guards and the assisting officers threw the bodies out and went into the city of the temple of Baal. <sup>26</sup> They brought out the sacred pillars that were in the temple of Baal and burned them. <sup>27</sup> They broke down the sacred pillar of Baal, tore down the temple of Baal and turned it into a toilet. That is what it still is today.

<sup>28</sup> So, Jehu wiped out Baal from Israel. <sup>29</sup> However, Jehu did not turn away from the sins that Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had caused Israel to commit. He left the golden calves that were in Bethel and Dan. <sup>30</sup> The LORD told Jehu: “Because you have done well in carrying out what I consider right and have done to the family of Ahab everything that I had planned to do, four generations of your descendants will sit on the throne of Israel.”

The death of Jehu

<sup>31</sup> However, Jehu was not careful to live according to the Law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He did not turn away from the sins that Jeroboam had caused Israel to commit. <sup>32</sup> In those days the LORD began to cut off some parts of Israel. Hazael defeated the Israelites throughout their territory <sup>33</sup> east of the Jordan: all the land of Gilead, the people of Gad, Reuben and Manasseh, the land beyond Aroer, which is beside the stream of the Arnon, including Gilead and Bashan. <sup>34</sup> As for the other events of Jehu’s reign, all that he did and all his achievements, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel? <sup>35</sup> Jehu went to rest with his fathers and they buried him in Samaria. His son Jehoahaz succeeded him as king. <sup>36</sup> Jehu had been king of Israel in Samaria for a period of twenty-eight years.

11

The reign of Athaliah in Judah — 2 Chronicles 22:10-12

<sup>1</sup> When Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to destroy the whole royal family. <sup>2</sup> However, Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram and the sister of Ahaziah, took Joash, the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king’s sons who were being put to death. She put him and his nurse in a bedroom, and they hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not put to death. <sup>3</sup> Joash remained in hiding with his nurse for six years in the Temple of the LORD while Athaliah was reigning over the land.

The anointing of the child Joash by Jehoiada — 2 Chronicles 23:1-11

<sup>4</sup> However, in the seventh year Jehoiada sent for the captains of the units of a hundred, the Carian bodyguards and the other guards and had them come to him in the Temple of the LORD. He made a covenant with them, put them under oath in the Temple of the LORD and then showed them the king's son. <sup>5</sup> He commanded them: "This is what you must do: one third of you, those who are coming in on the Sabbath, and who are on guard duty at the king's palace, <sup>6</sup> another third who are at the Sur gate, and another third at the gate behind the guards — you shall take turns on guard duty at the palace! <sup>7</sup> The two divisions of you, all who come off duty on the Sabbath, shall be on guard duty at the Temple of the LORD to watch over the king! <sup>8</sup> You shall form a circle around the king! Everyone shall have his weapons in his hands! Whoever approaches your ranks shall be put to death! You shall stay close to the king wherever he goes!"

The crowning of the young king Joash

<sup>9</sup> The captains of units of a hundred did exactly as the priest Jehoiada had commanded. Each brought his men who were coming in for duty on the Sabbath, with those who were going off duty on the Sabbath and they came to the priest Jehoiada. <sup>10</sup> The priest supplied the captains of the units of a hundred with the spears and the small round shields that had belonged to King David, which were in the Temple of the LORD. <sup>11</sup> Each of the guards stood around the king with his weapons in his hands, from the southern side of the Temple to the northern side of the Temple, near the altar and near the Temple. <sup>12</sup> Jehoiada brought out the king's son, put the crown on him and gave him the Testimony. They made him king, anointed him, clapped their hands and said, "Long live the king!"

The death of Athaliah — 2 Chronicles 23:12-24:1

<sup>13</sup> When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the rest of the people, she went to the people at the Temple of the LORD. <sup>14</sup> When she looked, she saw the king standing beside the pillar, as the custom was, and the captains and the trumpeters beside the king and all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing trumpets. Athaliah tore her clothes and called out, "Treason! Treason!"

<sup>15</sup> Then the priest Jehoiada commanded the captains of units of a hundred, who were in charge of the army: "Take her outside between the ranks and use your swords to put to death anyone who follows her!"

For the priest had said, "She must not be put to death in the Temple of the LORD!"

<sup>16</sup> So, they arrested her and, when she was coming in through the place where the horses enter the palace grounds, she was put to death there. <sup>17</sup> Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD, the king and people, that they should be the people of the LORD. He also made a covenant between the king and the people. <sup>18</sup> Then all the people of the land went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They thoroughly smashed his altars and his images and killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars. Then the priest Jehoiada posted guards at the Temple of the LORD. <sup>19</sup> Then he took the captains of units of a hundred, the Carian bodyguards, the other guards and all the people of the land, and they brought the king down from the Temple of the LORD. They entered the king's palace through the gate of the guards. So, he sat on the throne of the kings. <sup>20</sup> All the people of the land were glad, and the city was at peace. They had put Athaliah to death with the sword at the king's palace. <sup>21</sup> Joash was seven years old when he became king.

12

The reign of Joash as king of Judah and the repair of the Temple — 2 Chronicles 24:1-14, 24:23-27

<sup>1</sup> In the seventh year of Jehu, Joash began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for forty years. His mother's name was Zibiah from Beer-Sheba. <sup>2</sup> Joash did what the LORD considered right while the priest Jehoiada was instructing him. <sup>3</sup> Nevertheless, the high places were not removed. The people continued to sacrifice and burn offerings on the high places.

<sup>4</sup> Joash told the priests: "Collect all the money that is brought into the Temple of the LORD from the sacred gifts, the money from the registration of each person in a census, the money from the valuation of persons and all the other money that anyone contributes voluntarily to the Temple of the LORD! <sup>5</sup> Each of the priests shall receive it from his treasurer and they shall repair deterioration in the Temple wherever any is found!"

<sup>6</sup> However, by the twenty-third year of King Joash, the priests had not repaired the dilapidation in the Temple. <sup>7</sup> Therefore, King Joash summoned the priest Jehoiada and the other priests and asked them: "Why are you not repairing the deterioration in the Temple? Now therefore, do not receive any more money from your treasurers! Rather, hand it over for the repairs to the Temple!"

<sup>8</sup> The priests agreed that they would not receive any more money from the people and that they would not repair the deterioration in the Temple themselves.

<sup>9</sup> Then Jehoiada the priest took a chest, bored a hole in its lid and placed it beside the altar on the right side as people entered the Temple of the LORD. The priests who guarded the entrance put into the chest all the money that was brought into the Temple of the LORD. <sup>10</sup> Whenever they saw that there was a large amount of money in the chest, the king's secretary and the High Priest came up, tied up in bags the money that was available in the Temple of the LORD and counted it. <sup>11</sup> Then they used to pay out the money that had been counted to the workmen who had been appointed to carry out the work on the Temple of the LORD. They paid it out to the carpenters and the builders who were working on the Temple of the LORD, <sup>12</sup> to the masons and the stonecutters, as well as to buy timber and quarried stone to repair the deterioration in the Temple of the LORD and for all the other expenses to repair the Temple. <sup>13</sup> However, the money that had been brought into the Temple of the LORD was not spent on making silver basins, wick trimmers, bowls used for pouring, trumpets or any other golden or silver articles for the Temple of the LORD. <sup>14</sup> Instead, they kept paying it out to the workmen, who used it to repair the Temple of the LORD. <sup>15</sup> They did not require an accounting from those to whom they issued the money to pay the workers, for they used to act honestly. <sup>16</sup> The money from the guilt-offerings and from the sin-offerings was not brought into the Temple of the LORD. It belonged to the priests.

The threat to Jerusalem by Hazael of Aram

<sup>17</sup> At that time Hazael, the king of Aram, came up, fought against Gath and captured it. Then Hazael decided to attack Jerusalem. <sup>18</sup> Joash, the king of Judah, took all the sacred objects that his forefathers, Jehoshaphat, Jehoram and Ahaziah, the kings of Judah, had dedicated, and the gifts he himself had dedicated and all the gold that was available in the treasuries of the Temple of the LORD and of the king's palace and sent them to Hazael, the king of Aram. Then Hazael withdrew from Jerusalem.

The assassination of King Joash — 2 Chronicles 24:23-27

<sup>19</sup> As for the other events of Joash's reign and all that he did, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? <sup>20</sup> His officials proceeded to make a conspiracy against Joash and struck Joash down at Beth-Millo, on the road down to Silla. <sup>21</sup> His officials who struck him down were Jozabad, the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad, the son of Shomer. He died, and they buried him with his fathers in the City of David, and his son Amaziah succeeded him as king.

13

The reign of Jehoahaz as king of Israel

<sup>1</sup> In the twenty-third year of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, the king of Judah, Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, began to reign over Israel in Samaria and reigned for seventeen years. <sup>2</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil and followed the sins that Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had caused Israel to commit. He did not turn away from them. <sup>3</sup> The LORD became angry with Israel and for all that time He delivered them into the control of Hazael, the king of Aram, and the control of Ben-Hadad, the son of Hazael. <sup>4</sup> Then Jehoahaz was intent on the favour of the LORD, and the LORD listened to him. For He saw that the king of Aram was oppressing Israel severely. <sup>5</sup> The LORD gave Israel a saviour, and they escaped from the power of the Arameans and then the Israelites lived in their homes as they had done before. <sup>6</sup> Nevertheless, they did not turn away from the sins of the family of Jeroboam, which he caused Israel to commit. Israel continued to practise them. The Asherah also remained standing in Samaria. <sup>7</sup> Indeed, Jehoahaz had no army left except fifty horsemen, ten chariots and ten thousand foot-soldiers, because the king of Aram had destroyed the rest and made them like the dust when grain is being threshed. <sup>8</sup> As for the other events of the reign of Jehoahaz, all that he did and his might, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel? <sup>9</sup> Jehoahaz went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria. His son Jehoash succeeded him as king.

The reign of Jehoash as king of Israel

<sup>10</sup> In the thirty-seventh year of Joash, the king of Judah, Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, began to reign over Israel in Samaria and reigned for sixteen years. <sup>11</sup> He also did what the LORD considered evil. He did not turn away from all the sins that Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had caused Israel to commit but continued to practise them. <sup>12</sup> As for the other events of the reign of Jehoash, all that he did and the ability with which he fought against Amaziah, the king of Judah, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel? <sup>13</sup> Jehoash went to rest with his fathers, and Jeroboam succeeded him on the throne. Jehoash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

The death of Elisha

<sup>14</sup> When Elisha was suffering from the illness from which he was to die, Jehoash, the king of Israel went down to him and wept before him, crying, "My father, my father! The chariots and the horsemen of Israel!"

<sup>15</sup> Elisha told him, "Take a bow and some arrows!" So, he took a bow and some arrows. <sup>16</sup> Then Elisha told the king of Israel, "Take the bow in your hands!" When he had taken it, Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands. <sup>17</sup> He said, "Open the eastern window!" When he opened it, Elisha said, "Shoot!" When he had shot, Elisha said: "The arrow of victory of the LORD and the arrow of victory over Aram! You will fight the Arameans in Aphek until you completely destroy them."

<sup>18</sup> Then Elisha said, "Take the arrows!" When the king took them, Elisha told the king of Israel: "Strike the ground!"

He struck three times and then stopped. <sup>19</sup> Then the man of God was angry with him and said: "You should have struck five or six times! Then you would have struck down Aram until you had completely destroyed it. Now, however, you will strike down Aram only three times."

Elisha's last miracle

<sup>20</sup> Elisha died, and they buried him. Moabite raiding parties used to invade the land at the beginning of the year. <sup>21</sup> When some Israelites were burying a man, they saw a raiding party and so they quickly put the man into the grave of Elisha. When the man touched the bones of Elisha, he came to life and stood up on his feet.

The recapture of Israelite cities from Aram

<sup>22</sup> Hazael, the king of Aram, oppressed Israel

throughout the time of Jehoahaz. <sup>23</sup> However, the LORD was gracious to them and had compassion on them. He turned toward them because of His Covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. To this day He has been unwilling to destroy them and has not cast them from His presence. <sup>24</sup> When Hazael, the king of Aram, died, his son Ben-Hadad succeeded him as king. <sup>25</sup> Then Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, recaptured from Ben-Hadad, the son of Hazael, the cities that Ben-Hadad had taken in war from his father Jehoahaz. Jehoash defeated him three times and recovered those cities of Israel.

14

The reign of Amaziah as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 25:1-13

<sup>1</sup> In the second year of Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel, Amaziah, the son of Joash, the king of Judah, began to reign. <sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Jehoaddin, from Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> He did what the LORD considered right, yet not like his forefather David. He did exactly what his father Joash had been doing. <sup>4</sup> Nevertheless, the high places were not removed. The people continued to sacrifice and burn offerings on the high places. <sup>5</sup> As soon as the royal power was firmly in his grasp, he killed his officials who had murdered his father, the king. <sup>6</sup> However, he did not put the children of the murderers to death, according to what has been recorded in the Book of the Law of Moses, where the LORD commanded: "Fathers shall not be put to death because of their children, and children shall not be put to death because of their fathers! Rather, any person shall be put to death only for his own sin!"

<sup>7</sup> Amaziah was the one who struck down ten thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt, captured Sela in battle and named it "Joktheel," the name it still has today.

The defeat and death of King Amaziah of Judah — 2 Chronicles 25:14-26:2

<sup>8</sup> Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, the king of Israel. He said, "Come, let us meet face to face!"

<sup>9</sup> Jehoash, the king of Israel, sent a reply to Amaziah, the king of Judah: "A thorn-bush in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar in Lebanon: 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife!' However, a wild animal in Lebanon came along and trampled down the thorn-bush.

<sup>10</sup> You have indeed defeated Edom and are conceited. Enjoy your glory and stay at home! Why, then, should you plunge into misfortune so that you fall and so that Judah falls with you?"

<sup>11</sup> However, Amaziah would not listen. So, Jehoash, the king of Israel, attacked, and he and Amaziah, the king of Judah, faced one another in battle at Beth-Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. <sup>12</sup> Israel defeated Judah, and every man fled to his home. <sup>13</sup> Jehoash, the king of Israel, captured Amaziah, the king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-Shemesh. Then Jehoash went to Jerusalem and broke down two hundred metres of the wall of Jerusalem from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate. <sup>14</sup> He took all the gold and silver and all the vessels that he found in the Temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's palace. He also took hostages and then returned to Samaria. <sup>15</sup> As for the other events of the reign of Jehoash, his achievements and his war against Amaziah, the king of Judah, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel? <sup>16</sup> Jehoash went to rest with his fathers and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel, and his son Jeroboam succeeded him as king. <sup>17</sup> Amaziah, the son of Joash, the king of Judah, lived for fifteen years after the death of Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel. <sup>18</sup> As for the rest of the deeds of Amaziah, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? <sup>19</sup> Some people formed a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. However, they sent men to Lachish after him and put him to death there. <sup>20</sup> They brought him back on horses, and he was buried in Jerusalem with his fathers, in the City of David. <sup>21</sup> All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king to succeed his father Amaziah. <sup>22</sup> Azariah was the one who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah, after King Amaziah had gone to rest with his fathers.

The reign of Jeroboam II as king of Israel

<sup>23</sup> In the fifteenth year of Amaziah, the son of Joash, the king of Judah, Jeroboam, the son of Jehoash, the king of Israel, began to reign in Samaria and reigned for forty-one years. <sup>24</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil. He did not turn away from all the sins that Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had caused Israel to commit. <sup>25</sup> He was the one who restored the border of Israel from Lebo-Hamath as far as the Sea of the Arabah, according to the Word of the LORD, the God of Israel, which He had spoken through His servant Jonah, the son of Amittai, the prophet from Gath-Hepher. <sup>26</sup> For the LORD had seen that Israel had been suffering very bitterly. The slaves and free people were all ruined, and there was no one to help Israel. <sup>27</sup> Since the LORD had not said that He would blot out the name of Israel from under the sky, He saved them through Jeroboam, the son of Jehoash. <sup>28</sup> As for the other events of the reign of Jeroboam, all that he did, his achievements, his warfare and his restoration to Israel of Damascus and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel? <sup>29</sup> Jeroboam went to rest with his fathers, the kings of Israel, and his son Zechariah succeeded him as king.

15

The reign of Uzziah (also called Azariah) as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 26:3-4

<sup>1</sup> In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam, the king of Israel, Azariah, the son of Amaziah, the king of Judah, began to reign. <sup>2</sup> He was sixteen years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for fifty-two years. His mother's name was Jecoliah. She was from Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> He did what the LORD considered right, exactly as his father Amaziah had been doing. <sup>4</sup> Nevertheless, the high places were not removed. The people still kept sacrificing and burning offerings on the high places.

The skin-disease of King Uzziah (or Azariah) — 2 Chronicles 26:21-23

<sup>5</sup> The LORD afflicted the king with an infectious skin-disease until the day he died. He lived in a separate house. The king's son Jotham was in charge of the palace and administered justice for the people of the land. <sup>6</sup> As for the other events of the reign of Azariah and all that he did, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? <sup>7</sup> Azariah went to rest with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the City of David. His son Jotham succeeded him as king.

The reign of Zechariah as king of Israel for six months

<sup>8</sup> In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah, the king of Judah, Zechariah, the son of Jeroboam, became king over Israel in Samaria and reigned for six months. <sup>9</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil, as his fathers had been doing. He did not turn away from the sins that Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had caused Israel to commit. <sup>10</sup> Shallum, the son of Jabesh, formed a conspiracy against him, struck him down in public, put him to death and succeeded him as king. <sup>11</sup> You will find the rest of the deeds of Zechariah recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel. <sup>12</sup> This was the promise that the LORD had spoken to Jehu: "Your sons will sit on the throne of Israel to the fourth generation."

That is what happened.

The reign of Shallum as king of Israel for one month

<sup>13</sup> Shallum, the son of Jabesh, began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah, the king of Judah, and reigned in Samaria for one month. <sup>14</sup> Then Menahem, the son of Gadi, came up from Tirzah and arrived at Samaria. He struck down and killed Shallum, the son of Jabesh, in Samaria and succeeded him as king. <sup>15</sup> You will find the rest of the deeds of Shallum and the conspiracy that he formed recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel. <sup>16</sup> At that time Menahem attacked Tiphseh and all who were in that city and its territory between it and Tirzah. He attacked it because they had not opened their gates. He ripped open all the women in it who were pregnant.

The reign of Menahem as king of Israel

<sup>17</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of Azariah, the king of Judah, Menahem, the son of Gadi, began to reign over Israel and reigned in Samaria for ten years. <sup>18</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil. Throughout his life he did not turn away from all the sins that Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had caused Israel to commit. <sup>19</sup> Pul, the king of Assyria, invaded the country, and Menahem gave Pul thirty-five thousand kilograms of silver to gain his support and strengthen his own control over the kingdom. <sup>20</sup> Menahem exacted the money from Israel. Every wealthy man had to pay six hundred grams of silver to the king of Assyria. Then the king of Assyria withdrew and stopped occupying the country. <sup>21</sup> As for the other events of the reign of Menahem and all that he did, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel? <sup>22</sup> Menahem went to rest with his fathers, and his son Pekahiah succeeded him as king.

The reign of Pekahiah as king of Israel

<sup>23</sup> In the fiftieth year of Azariah, the king of Judah, Pekahiah, the son of Menahem, began to reign over Israel in Samaria and reigned for two years. <sup>24</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil. He did not turn away from the sins that Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had caused Israel to commit. <sup>25</sup> Pekah, the son of Remaliah, his assisting officer, formed a conspiracy against him with fifty men from Gilead. Together with Argob and Arieah, Pekah struck Pekahiah down in the fortress of the king's palace in Samaria. Pekah killed him and succeeded him as king. <sup>26</sup> You will find the other events of the reign of Pekahiah and all that he did recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

The reign of Pekah as king of Israel

<sup>27</sup> In the fifty-second year of Azariah, the king of Judah, Pekah, the son of Remaliah, began to reign over Israel in Samaria and reigned for twenty years. <sup>28</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil. He did not turn away from the sins that Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had caused Israel to commit. <sup>29</sup> In the days of Pekah, the king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser, the king of Assyria, came and captured Ijon, Abel-Beth-Maacah, Janoah, Kedesh, Hazor, Gilead, Galilee and all the land of Naphtali and deported the people to Assyria. <sup>30</sup> Then Hoshea, the son of Elah, formed a conspiracy against Pekah, the son of Remaliah. He struck him down, killed him and succeeded him as king in the twentieth year of Jotham, the son of Uzziah. <sup>31</sup> You will find the other events of the reign of Pekah and all that he did recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Israel.

The reign of Jotham as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 27:1-9

<sup>32</sup> In the second year of Pekah, the son of Remaliah, the king of Israel, Jotham, the son of Uzziah, the king of Judah, began to reign. <sup>33</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. His mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok. <sup>34</sup> He did what the LORD considered right, exactly as his father Uzziah had been doing. <sup>35</sup> Nevertheless, the high places were not removed. The people still kept sacrificing and burning offerings on the high places. Jotham rebuilt the Upper Gate of the Temple of the LORD. <sup>36</sup> As for the other events of the reign of Jotham and all that he did, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? <sup>37</sup> In those days the LORD began to send Rezin, the king of Aram, and Pekah, the son of Remaliah, against Judah. <sup>38</sup> Jotham went to rest with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the City of David, the city of his father. His son Ahaz succeeded him as king.

16

The reign of Ahaz as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 28:1-27

<sup>1</sup> In the seventeenth year of Pekah, the son of Remaliah, Ahaz, the son of Jotham, the king of Judah, began to reign. <sup>2</sup> Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. He did not do what the LORD, his God, considered right, as his father David had done. <sup>3</sup> He lived like the kings of Israel. He even sacrificed his son in fire, copying the despicable practices of the nations that the LORD had driven out ahead of the Israelites. <sup>4</sup> He sacrificed and burnt offerings on the high places, on the hills and under every leafy tree. <sup>5</sup> Then Rezin, the king of Aram, and Pekah, the son of Remaliah, the king of Israel, came up to wage war on Jerusalem. Although they besieged Ahaz, they could not conquer him. <sup>6</sup> At that time Rezin, the king of Aram, recovered Elath for Aram. He drove the people of Judah out of Elath, and then the Edomites came to Elath and have been living there to this day. <sup>7</sup> Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser, the king of Assyria, to tell him: "I am your servant and your son. Come up and rescue me from the hands of the king of Aram and the king of Israel, who are attacking me!"

<sup>8</sup> Ahaz also took the silver and gold that were available in the Temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's palace and sent them as a present to the king of Assyria. <sup>9</sup> The king of Assyria listened to him. The king of Assyria attacked Damascus, captured it, deported its people to Kir and killed Rezin. <sup>10</sup> When King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser, the king of Assyria, he saw the altar that was in Damascus. King Ahaz sent a pattern and model of the altar to the priest Urijah, so that an exact copy could be built. <sup>11</sup> The priest Urijah built an altar, following all the details that King Ahaz had sent from Damascus. The priest Urijah finished it before King Ahaz returned from Damascus. <sup>12</sup> When the king came from Damascus, he saw the altar. Then the king approached the altar and made offerings on it. <sup>13</sup> He offered his burnt offering and his grain-offering, poured his drink offering and poured out the blood of his peace-offerings against the altar. <sup>14</sup> He even removed the bronze altar, which had been before the LORD, away from the front of the Temple. He moved it from the place between his altar and the Temple of the LORD and put it on the northern side of his altar. <sup>15</sup> King Ahaz commanded the priest Urijah: "Offer the morning burnt offering, the evening grain-offering, the king's burnt offering and his grain-offering, the burnt offering of all the people of the land, their grain-offering and their drink offering on the greater altar! Pour out against it all the blood of the burnt offerings and all the blood of the sacrifices! However, I shall use the bronze altar to carry out an examination of an offering."

<sup>16</sup> The priest Urijah did exactly as King Ahaz had commanded. <sup>17</sup> King Ahaz cut up the rims of the stands and removed the washbasin from each of them. He took the pool down from the bronze oxen that had been under it and put it on a layer of stones. <sup>18</sup> He removed from the Temple of the LORD the covered way for the Sabbath, which had been built at the Temple and the outer entrance for the king, in deference to the king of Assyria. <sup>19</sup> As for the rest of the things that Ahaz did, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? <sup>20</sup> Ahaz went to rest with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the City of David, and his son Hezekiah succeeded him as king.

17

The reign of Hoshea as king of Israel — 2 Kings 18:9-12

<sup>1</sup> In the twelfth year of Ahaz, the king of Judah, Hoshea, the son of Elah, began to reign over Israel in Samaria and reigned for nine years. <sup>2</sup> He did what the Lord considered evil but did not do the kinds of things that the kings of Israel before him had been doing.

The capture of Samaria and the end of the northern kingdom of Israel

<sup>3</sup> Shalmaneser, the king of Assyria came up against Hoshea, who had become his vassal and had been paying him tribute. <sup>4</sup> However, the king of Assyria had discovered that Hoshea had been a traitor. He had sent messengers to So, the king of Egypt and had not sent up any tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had been doing year by year. Therefore, the king of Assyria detained him and put him in prison. <sup>5</sup> Then the king of Assyria invaded the entire land, attacked Samaria and besieged it for three years. <sup>6</sup> In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria captured Samaria and deported the Israelites to Assyria. He settled them in Halah, beside the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

The reasons for the fall of Samaria

<sup>7</sup> This occurred because the people of Israel had been sinning against the LORD, their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, out of the hands of Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and had been fearing other gods. <sup>8</sup> They had been living according to the statutes of the nations that the LORD had driven out ahead of the Israelites and according to the practices that the kings of Israel had introduced. <sup>9</sup> The people of Israel had been attributing things to the LORD, their God, that were not right. They had been building high places for themselves in all their cities, from watchmen's towers to fortified cities. <sup>10</sup> They had been setting up pillars and Asherah posts for themselves on every high hill and under every leafy tree. <sup>11</sup> There they burnt offerings on all the high places, like the nations that the LORD had driven out ahead of them. They did wicked things, so that they provoked the LORD to anger. <sup>12</sup> They worshipped idols, about which the LORD had told them, “You shall not do this!” <sup>13</sup> Yet the LORD had been warning Israel and Judah through every prophet and every seer: “Turn from your evil ways and keep My Commandments and My Statutes, in accordance with the whole Law, which I have commanded your fathers, and which I have been sending to you through My servants, the prophets!”

<sup>14</sup> However, they would not listen. They were as stubborn as their fathers had been, who had not trusted in the LORD, their God. <sup>15</sup> They rejected His Prescriptions and His Covenant, which He had made with their fathers, and His warning signs, which He had given them. They went after worthless idols and became worthless. They followed the nations that were around them, about whom the LORD had commanded them that they should not act as they had been doing. <sup>16</sup> They abandoned all the Commandments of the LORD, their God, and made metal images of two calves for themselves. They also made an Asherah-pole. They worshipped all the starry host of the sky and served Baal. <sup>17</sup> They sacrificed their sons and their daughters in the fire, threw lots to practise divination, looked for and gave omens and sold themselves to do what the LORD considered evil, so that they provoked Him to anger. <sup>18</sup> Therefore, the LORD was very angry with Israel and removed them from His presence. None was left but the tribe of Judah alone. <sup>19</sup> Judah also had not been keeping the Commandments of the LORD, their God, but had been living by the statutes that Israel had introduced. <sup>20</sup> The LORD rejected all the descendants of Israel, afflicted them and put them into the hands of those who plundered them, until He threw them out of His sight. <sup>21</sup> When He had torn Israel from the family of David, they made Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, king. Jeroboam led Israel astray from following the LORD and caused them to commit great sin. <sup>22</sup> The Israelites lived in all the sins that Jeroboam committed. They did not turn away from them, <sup>23</sup> until the LORD removed Israel from His presence, as He had threatened through all His servants, the prophets. So, Israel was taken away from their own land into exile in Assyria and they are still there today.

The settlement of foreign people in the land of Israel, the origin of the Samaritans

<sup>24</sup> The king of Assyria brought people from Babylon, Cuthah, Avva, Hamath and Sepharvaim and settled them in the cities of Samaria instead of the Israelites. They took possession of Samaria and lived in its cities. <sup>25</sup> When they began to live there, they did not fear the LORD, and the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them. <sup>26</sup> Then some people told the king of Assyria: “The nations that you have deported and settled in the cities of Samaria do not know what the god of the land requires. Therefore, He has sent lions among them and, you see, they are killing them, because they do not know what the god of the land requires.”

<sup>27</sup> Then the king of Assyria commanded: “Send one of the priests to Samaria whom you have taken captive from there! Let him go and live there and instruct them what the god of the land requires!”

<sup>28</sup> One of the priests whom they had taken captive from Samaria came and lived at Bethel and kept instructing them how they should fear the LORD.

<sup>29</sup> However, every nation still kept making gods of its own and put them in the shrines that the Samaritans had made at the high places. Every nation kept doing that in the cities in which they were living. <sup>30</sup> The men of Babylon made Succoth-Benoth. The men of Cuth made Nergal. The men of Hamath made Ashima. <sup>31</sup> The men of Avva made Nibhaz and Tartak. The men of Sepharvaim kept burning their children in the fire to Adram-Melech and Anam-Melech, the gods of Sepharvaim. <sup>32</sup> While they feared the LORD, they also appointed all kinds of people as priests of the high places, who continued to officiate for them in the shrines on the high places. <sup>33</sup> Although they continued to fear the LORD, they continued to serve their own gods, in accordance with the customs of the nations from which they had been brought as exiles. <sup>34</sup> To this day they persist in their former practices. They do not fear the LORD or follow the Israelites’ Statutes and Requirements or the Law and the Commandments that the LORD had given to the descendants of Jacob, whom He had named “Israel.”

<sup>35</sup> The LORD had made a Covenant with them and had commanded them: “You shall not fear other gods, you shall not bow down to them, you shall not serve them or offer sacrifices to them! <sup>36</sup> Rather, you shall fear the LORD, who has brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm! You shall bow down to Him and offer sacrifices to Him! <sup>37</sup> You shall always be careful to put into practice the Prescriptions, the Decisions, the Law and the Commandments that He has written for you and you shall not fear other gods! <sup>38</sup> You shall not forget the Covenant that I have made with you and you shall not fear other gods! <sup>39</sup> Rather, you shall fear the LORD, your God! He will deliver you from the hands of all your enemies.”

<sup>40</sup> However, they would not listen but persisted in their former practices. <sup>41</sup> So, although these nations continued to fear the LORD, they also continued to serve their own idols. To this day their children and grandchildren continue to do as their fathers did.

18

The beginning of the reign of Hezekiah as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 29:1-2, 31:1, 31:20-21

<sup>1</sup> In the third year of Hoshea, the son of Elah, the king of Israel, Hezekiah, the son of Ahaz, the king of Judah, began to reign. <sup>2</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Abi, the daughter of Zechariah.<sup>3</sup> He did what the LORD considered right, exactly as his forefather David had done.<sup>4</sup> He removed the high places, smashed the sacred pillars and cut down the Asherah-poles. He broke in pieces the bronze snake that Moses had made, because up to that time the Israelites had been burning offerings to it. People had been calling it "Nehushtan."<sup>5</sup> He trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel. There was no one like him among all the kings of Judah who came after him or who had been before him.<sup>6</sup> He held fast to the LORD. He did not turn away from following Him but kept the Commandments that the LORD had given to Moses.<sup>7</sup> The LORD was with him. He was successful in whatever he undertook. He rebelled against the king of Assyria and did not serve him.<sup>8</sup> He struck down the Philistines as far as Gaza and its territory, including both the watchmen's towers and the fortified cities.

The capture of Samaria in the sixth year of Hezekiah — 2 Kings 17:3-7

<sup>9</sup> In the fourth year of King Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea, the son of Elah, the king of Israel, Shalmaneser, the king of Assyria, attacked Samaria and besieged it.<sup>10</sup> He captured it after three full years. Samaria was captured in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Israel.<sup>11</sup> The king of Assyria took the Israelites away to Assyria as captives and settled them in Halah, beside the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.<sup>12</sup> This happened because they had not been listening to what the LORD, their God, had been saying but had been transgressing His Covenant, everything that Moses, the servant of the LORD, had commanded. They would not listen or carry them out.

The invasion of Judah by the Assyrians under Sennacherib — 2 Chronicles 32:1-19, Isaiah 36:1-22

<sup>13</sup> In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, attacked all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.<sup>14</sup> Hezekiah, the king of Judah, sent this message to the king of Assyria at Lachish: "I have done wrong. Withdraw from me! I shall bear whatever you impose on me."

The king of Assyria demanded ten thousand, five hundred kilograms of silver and one thousand and fifty kilograms of gold from Hezekiah, the king of Judah.<sup>15</sup> Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was available in the Temple of the LORD and in the treasuries of the king's palace.<sup>16</sup> At that time Hezekiah, the king of Judah, stripped off the gold that he had used to plate the doors and doorposts of the Temple of the LORD and gave it to the king of Assyria.

<sup>17</sup> The king of Assyria sent his commander of the army, his chief officer and his chief cup-bearer with a large army from Lachish to King Hezekiah at Jerusalem. They came up and arrived at Jerusalem. When they had come up, they came and stood at the channel of the Upper Pool, which is on the road to the Fuller's Field.<sup>18</sup> When they called for the king, Eliakim, who was the son of Hilkiah, and who was the manager of the palace, Shebna, the secretary and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came out to them.

<sup>19</sup> The chief cup-bearer told them: "Please, tell Hezekiah, 'This is what the great king, the king of Assyria, has asked: "On what have you based this confidence of yours?"<sup>20</sup> Have you been thinking that mere words dropped from the lips are strategy and power for war? On whom are you relying now, that you have rebelled against me?'<sup>21</sup> Look, now! You are depending on Egypt, that staff that is a crushed reed, which will pierce the hand of anyone who leans on it. That is what Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is to all who are depending on him.<sup>22</sup> However, if you tell me, 'We are depending on the LORD, our God,' is not He the One whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed and who has told Judah and Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem'?'<sup>23</sup> Now therefore, please make a wager with my master, the king of Assyria! I shall give you two thousand horses, if you on your part can put riders on them.<sup>24</sup> How then can you drive back a single captain among the least of my master's officials, although you are depending on Egypt for chariots and horsemen?'<sup>25</sup> Moreover, have I come up against this place to destroy it without the consent of the LORD? The LORD has told me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it!'"

<sup>26</sup> Then Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, Shebna and Joah told the chief cup-bearer: "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic! For we understand it. Do not speak to us in the Jewish language while the people on the wall are listening!"

<sup>27</sup> However, the chief cup-bearer asked them: "Has my master sent me to say these things only to your master and to you? Has he not sent me to say them to the men sitting on the wall, when, like you, they will be eating their own dung and drinking their own urine?"

<sup>28</sup> Then the chief cup-bearer stood up and shouted loudly in the Jewish language: "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria!<sup>29</sup> This is what the king has said: 'Hezekiah should not deceive you!' For he will not be able to deliver you out of his hand.

<sup>30</sup> Hezekiah should not persuade you to trust in the LORD by saying, 'The LORD will certainly deliver us, and this city will not be handed over to the king of Assyria.'<sup>31</sup> Do not listen to Hezekiah! For this is what the king of Assyria has said: 'Surrender to me! Come out to me! Then everyone of you can eat from his own grapevine and from his own fig tree and each of you can drink the water from his own cistern,<sup>32</sup> until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and honey, that you may live and not die. Do not listen to Hezekiah when he misleads you by saying, 'The LORD will deliver us!'<sup>33</sup> Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land from the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>34</sup> Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivvah? Indeed, have they delivered Samaria from my hand? <sup>35</sup> Who among all the gods of these countries have delivered their lands from my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from my hand?"

<sup>36</sup> However, the people remained silent and did not answer him at all. For the king had commanded, "You shall not answer him!"

<sup>37</sup> Then Eliakim, who was the son of Hilkiyah and who managed the palace, Shebna, the secretary and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, went to Hezekiah with their clothes torn and reported to him what the chief cup-bearer had said.

19

Isaiah's prediction of deliverance for Jerusalem — Isaiah 37:1-7

<sup>1</sup> When King Hezekiah heard this, he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth and went into the Temple of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> He sent Eliakim, the manager of his palace, and Shebna, the secretary, and the senior priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz. <sup>3</sup> They told him: "This is what Hezekiah has said, 'This day is a day of distress, rebuke and disgrace. For children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to give them birth. <sup>4</sup> It may be that the LORD, your God will hear all that the chief cup-bearer has been saying, whom his master, the king of Assyria, has sent to insult the living God and will rebuke him for the words that the LORD, your God, has heard. Therefore, lift up your prayer for the remnant that still survives!"

<sup>5</sup> So, the officials of King Hezekiah went to Isaiah.

<sup>6</sup> Isaiah answered them: "This is what you shall tell your master, 'This is what the LORD has said: "Do not be afraid because of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have been blaspheming Me! <sup>7</sup> See! I am putting such a spirit in him, that, when he hears a rumour, he will go back to his own land. Then I shall cause him to fall by the sword in his own land."'

Sennacherib's threat — Isaiah 37:8-13

<sup>8</sup> When the chief cup-bearer returned, he found the king of Assyria fighting against Libnah. For he had heard that the king had left Lachish. <sup>9</sup> The king received a report about Tirhakah, the king of Cush: "Look! He has set out to fight against you."

He sent messengers to Hezekiah again: <sup>10</sup> "This is what you shall tell Hezekiah, the king of Judah: 'Your God, on whom you are depending, should not deceive you by promising that Jerusalem will not be handed over to the king of Assyria! <sup>11</sup> Look! You yourself have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the other lands, devoting them to destruction. Will you yourself be delivered? <sup>12</sup> Have the gods of the other nations delivered them, the nations that my forefathers have destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph and the people of Eden, who were in Tel-Assar? <sup>13</sup> Where is the king of Hamath, the king of Arpad, the king of the city of Sepharvaim or of Hena or of Ivvah?"

The prayer of Hezekiah — Isaiah 37:14-35

<sup>14</sup> When Hezekiah had received the letter from the messengers and read it, he went up to the Temple of the LORD and spread it out before the LORD.

<sup>15</sup> Hezekiah prayed before the LORD: "O LORD, God of Israel, You who are enthroned between the cherubim, You, You alone, are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup> Turn Your ear, O LORD and hear! Open Your eyes, O LORD and see! Listen to the words that Sennacherib has sent to insult the living God! <sup>17</sup> It is true, LORD, that the kings of Assyria have laid waste the other nations and their lands. <sup>18</sup> They have put their gods into the fire. For they were not gods but what men's hands have made of wood and stone, and so they have destroyed them. <sup>19</sup> Now therefore, LORD, our God, please save us from his hands, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that You, O LORD, You alone, are God!"

The prophecy through Isaiah that Sennacherib will be defeated — Isaiah 37:21-38

<sup>20</sup> Then Isaiah, the son of Amoz, sent a message to Hezekiah: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: 'I have heard your prayer to Me about Sennacherib, the king of Assyria. <sup>21</sup> This is the Word that the LORD has spoken against him: "The virgin, the daughter of Zion, has despised you. She has ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head behind you. <sup>22</sup> Whom have you insulted and blasphemed? Against whom have you raised your voice and lifted your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel! <sup>23</sup> Through your messengers you have been insulting the Lord. You have been saying, 'With my many chariots I myself have gone up the heights of the mountains, to the most distant part of Lebanon. I have cut down its tallest cedars and its choicest juniper trees. I have entered its most remote retreat, its densest forest. <sup>24</sup> I myself have dug wells and drunk foreign waters! I have dried up all the branching streams of Egypt with the soles of my feet!"

<sup>25</sup> "Have you not heard? I prepared it long ago. I shaped from days of old what I have now caused to happen, that you should be turning fortified cities into desolate heaps of ruins. <sup>26</sup> Their inhabitants, stripped of their power, have been filled with terror and become ashamed. They had been like plants in the field and like fresh green grass. Like grass on the rooftops, they have now been scorched before they have grown up. <sup>27</sup> However, I know where you sit down, when you go out, when you come in and how you are working yourself into a passion against Me. <sup>28</sup> Because you have worked yourself into a passion against Me, and your smugness has come up into My ears, I shall put My hook through your nose and My bridle through your lips and make you go back by the way on which you have come.

<sup>29</sup> “This will be the sign for you: This year, eat what grows by itself and in the second year what grows of its own accord! Then, in the third year, sow and reap, plant vineyards and eat their fruit! <sup>30</sup> What has been spared from the family of Judah and is left will again take root down below and bear fruit up above. <sup>31</sup> For a remnant will come out of Jerusalem and what has been spared will come out of Mount Zion. The eager devotion of the LORD will accomplish this. <sup>32</sup> Therefore, this is what the LORD has said about the king of Assyria: ‘He will not come into this city. He will not shoot an arrow there. He will not come before it with a shield and will not heap a siege mound up against it. <sup>33</sup> He will go back on the way by which he came and will not enter this city,’ declares the LORD. <sup>34</sup> ‘For I shall protect this city and save it, for My own sake and for the sake of My servant David.’”

The deliverance of Jerusalem from Sennacherib — 2 Chronicles 32:20-23, Isaiah 37:36-38

<sup>35</sup> That night the angel of the LORD went out and struck down one hundred and eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. When people got up in the morning, they saw all the dead bodies. <sup>36</sup> Then Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, broke camp and withdrew. He went back to Nineveh and stayed there. <sup>37</sup> While he was worshipping in the temple of his god, Nisroch, Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him down with the sword and escaped to the land of Ararat. Then his son Esarhaddon succeeded him as king.

20

The cure of Hezekiah's illness — 2 Chronicles 32:24-26, Isaiah 38:1-8, 21-22

<sup>1</sup> In those days Hezekiah became ill and was dying. The prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, came to him and told him: “This is what the LORD has said, ‘Give instructions to your family! For you will die. You will not recover.’”

<sup>2</sup> Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD: <sup>3</sup> “Oh, please, LORD, please remember that I have been living before You faithfully and with complete loyalty! I have been doing what You consider good.”

Hezekiah wept bitterly. <sup>4</sup> Before Isaiah had gone out of the middle court, the Word of the LORD came to him: <sup>5</sup> “Go back! Tell Hezekiah, the leader of My people, ‘This is what the LORD, the God of your ancestor David, has said: “I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Look! I shall heal you. On the day after tomorrow you will go up to the Temple of the LORD. <sup>6</sup> I shall also add fifteen years to your life. I shall deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria and shall also defend this city for My own sake and for the sake of My servant David.’”

<sup>7</sup> Isaiah said, “Bring a pressed cake of figs!”

So, people took one and applied it to the inflamed spot, and he recovered. <sup>8</sup> Hezekiah asked Isaiah,

“What will be the sign that the LORD will heal me and that I shall go up to the Temple of the LORD on the day after tomorrow?”

<sup>9</sup> Isaiah replied: “This will be the sign to you from the LORD that the LORD will do what He has promised: Shall the shadow go forward ten intervals or shall it go back ten intervals?”

<sup>10</sup> Hezekiah answered: “It is an easy thing for the shadow to grow ten intervals longer. No! Let the shadow go back ten intervals instead!”

<sup>11</sup> Then the prophet Isaiah called to the LORD, and He made the shadow that had gone down on the sundial of Ahaz go back ten intervals.

The permission for envoys from Babylon to inspect the treasures in Jerusalem — Isaiah 39:1-8

<sup>12</sup> At that time Merodach-Baladan, the son of Baladan, the king of Babylon, sent a letter and a gift to Hezekiah. For he had heard that Hezekiah was ill.

<sup>13</sup> Hezekiah listened to the envoys and showed them his whole treasure house, the silver, the gold, the perfumes, the precious oil, his armoury and everything else that was available in his storehouses. There was nothing in his house or in his entire realm that Hezekiah did not show them. <sup>14</sup> Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah and asked him, “What did these men say? From where did they come to you?”

Hezekiah answered, “They came from a distant country, from Babylon.”

<sup>15</sup> The prophet asked, “What have they seen in your palace?”

Hezekiah answered: “They have seen everything in my palace. There has been nothing in my storehouses that I have not shown them.”

<sup>16</sup> Then Isaiah told Hezekiah: “Hear the Word of the LORD: <sup>17</sup> ‘Look! The days are coming when everything that is in your palace and that your fathers have stored up until this day will be carried away to Babylon. Nothing will be left.’ The LORD has said so.

<sup>18</sup> Some of your own descendants, who will come from you, whose father you will be, will be taken away and will be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

<sup>19</sup> Hezekiah answered Isaiah: “The Word of the LORD, which you have spoken, is good.”

For he thought, “Is it not good if there is peace and security in my lifetime?”

The death of Hezekiah — 2 Chronicles 32:32-33

<sup>20</sup> As for the other events of the reign of Hezekiah, all his achievements and his construction of the pool and the tunnel by which he brought water into the city, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? <sup>21</sup> Hezekiah went to rest with his fathers, and his son Manasseh succeeded him as king.

21

The reign of Manasseh as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 33:1-10

<sup>1</sup> Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for fifty-five years. His mother's name was Hephzibah. <sup>2</sup> He did what the LORD regarded as evil, following the detestable practices of the nations that the LORD had driven out ahead of the Israelites. <sup>3</sup> He rebuilt the high places that his father Hezekiah had destroyed. He erected altars for Baal, made an Asherah-pole, as Ahab, the king of Israel, had done, worshipped all the starry host of the sky and served them. <sup>4</sup> He kept building altars in the Temple of the LORD, about which the LORD had said, "I shall put My name in Jerusalem."

<sup>5</sup> He built altars for the whole starry host of the sky in the two courts of the Temple of the LORD. <sup>6</sup> He sacrificed his own son in the fire, kept practising magic and observing omens and consulted spirits of the dead and familiar spirits. He did much that the LORD considered evil, so that he provoked Him to anger. <sup>7</sup> He placed the carved Asherah-pole that he had made in the Temple, about which the LORD had told David and his son Solomon: "I shall put My name for ever in this Temple and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel. <sup>8</sup> I shall not cause the feet of Israel to wander any longer out of the land that I have given to their forefathers, if only they carefully put into practice exactly what I have commanded them and the whole Law that My servant Moses commanded them."

<sup>9</sup> However, they did not listen, and Manasseh led them astray, so that they did more evil than the nations that the LORD had destroyed before the Israelites. <sup>10</sup> The LORD said through His servants, the prophets: <sup>11</sup> "Because Manasseh, the king of Judah, has committed these detestable sins and has done things that are more evil than all that the Amorites who were before him had been committing and because he has caused Judah also to sin with his disgusting idols, <sup>12</sup> therefore this is what the LORD, the God of Israel has said: 'Look! I am bringing such calamity on Jerusalem and Judah that the two ears of everyone who hears about it will ring. <sup>13</sup> I shall stretch the measuring line of Samaria and the levelling instrument of the family of Ahab over Jerusalem. I shall also wipe Jerusalem as someone wipes a dish. After he has wiped it he turns it upside down. <sup>14</sup> I shall forsake the remnant of My inheritance and put them into the hands of their enemies, and they will be plundered and pillaged by all their enemies. <sup>15</sup> For they have been doing what I consider evil and have been provoking Me to anger since the day when their forefathers came out of Egypt, even to this day."

The conclusion of the reign of Manasseh — 2 Chronicles 33:18-20

<sup>16</sup> Moreover, Manasseh also killed very many innocent people, until he had filled Jerusalem with murder from one end to the other, in addition to his sin, which he caused Judah to commit, so that they did what the LORD considered evil. <sup>17</sup> As for the other events of the reign of Manasseh, all that he did and the sin that he committed, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? <sup>18</sup> Manasseh went to rest with his fathers and was buried in the garden of his palace, in the garden of Uzza, and his son Amon succeeded him as king.

The reign of Amon as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 33:21-25

<sup>19</sup> Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for two years. His mother's name was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz, from Jotbah. <sup>20</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil, as his father Manasseh had been doing. <sup>21</sup> He lived in every way like his father, served the disgusting idols that his father had been serving and worshipped them. <sup>22</sup> He abandoned the LORD, the God of his fathers, and did not walk in the way of the LORD. <sup>23</sup> The officials of Amon formed a conspiracy against him and killed the king in his palace. <sup>24</sup> However, the people of the land struck down all those who had formed the conspiracy against King Amon. Then the people of the land made his son Josiah king in his place. <sup>25</sup> As for the rest of the things that Amon did, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? <sup>26</sup> He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza, and his son Josiah succeeded him as king.

22

The reign of Josiah as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 34:1-2

<sup>1</sup> Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for thirty-one years. His mother's name was Jedidah, the daughter of Adaiah, from Bozkath. <sup>2</sup> He did what the LORD considered right and walked in all the ways of his father David. He did not turn aside to the right or to the left. <sup>3</sup> In the eighteenth year of King Josiah, the king sent the secretary, Shaphan, the son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, to the Temple of the LORD. He said: <sup>4</sup> "Go up to Hilkiah, the High Priest, that he may get the money ready that has been brought into the Temple of the LORD, which the doorkeepers have been collecting from the people! <sup>5</sup> They shall also entrust it to the workmen who have been appointed to supervise the work on the Temple! They shall pay it to the workmen at the Temple of the LORD, who are carrying out the repairs on it! <sup>6</sup> They shall pay the carpenters, the builders and the masons and use it to buy timber and quarried stone to repair the Temple! <sup>7</sup> However, they shall not be asked to supply an accounting for the money that is entrusted to them! For they are acting honestly,"

The discovery of the book of the Law in the Temple — 2 Chronicles 34:8-28

<sup>8</sup> Then Hilkiah, the High Priest, told Shaphan, the secretary: "I have found the Book of the Law in the Temple of the LORD."

Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

<sup>9</sup> Shaphan, the secretary, went in to the king and reported to the king, "We, your officials, have poured out the money that was found in the Temple and have entrusted it to the workmen who have been appointed for the Temple of the LORD."

<sup>10</sup> Then Shaphan, the secretary, reported to the king, "Hilkiah the priest has given me a book."

Shaphan also read it before the king. <sup>11</sup> When the king heard what the Book of the Law said, he tore his clothes. <sup>12</sup> The king commanded Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, Achbor, the son of Micaiah, Shaphan, the secretary, and Asaiah, the king's minister: <sup>13</sup> "Go, inquire of the LORD for me, for the people and for all Judah, about the Words of this book, which has been found! For the wrath of the LORD, which has been inflamed against us, is great. For our fathers have not been listening to the Words of this book. They have not been carrying out all that has been written concerning us."

<sup>14</sup> Hilkiah the priest, Ahikam, Achbor, Shaphan and Asaiah went to the prophetess Huldah, the wife of Shallum, the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas. Shallum was the keeper of the wardrobe. Huldah was living in the Second District of Jerusalem, and they talked with her. <sup>15</sup> She told them: "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: 'Tell the man who has sent you to me, <sup>16</sup> "This is what the LORD has said, 'Look! I shall bring calamity on this place and on its inhabitants, everything that is said in the book that the king of Judah has read. <sup>17</sup> Because they have forsaken Me and have been burning offerings to other gods, so that they have been provoking Me to anger with all that they have been making with their hands, My wrath will be set on fire against this place and will not be put out.'"<sup>18</sup> However, this is what you shall tell the king of Judah, who has sent you to inquire of the LORD: 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, has said: "Concerning the Words that you have heard, <sup>19</sup> because your heart was responsive and you humbled yourself before the LORD when you heard what I have spoken against this place and against its inhabitants, that they would be laid waste and accursed and because you have torn your clothes and wept before Me, I Myself have also heard you," declares the Lord. <sup>20</sup> "Therefore, look! I shall gather you to your fathers, and you will be buried in your grave in peace. Your own eyes will not see all the calamity that I shall bring on this place.'"<sup>21</sup>

So, they reported this to the king.

23

King Josiah's reforms and the renewal of the Covenant — 2 Chronicles 34:29-33, 33, 35:1-27, 36:1

<sup>1</sup> After the king had sent a message to all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem, they assembled with him. <sup>2</sup> The king went up to the Temple of the LORD with all the men of Judah. All the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the prophets and all the people, both small and great, joined him. While they listened, he read all the Words of the Book of the Covenant, which had been found in the Temple of the LORD. <sup>3</sup> Then the king stood beside the pillar and renewed the Covenant before the LORD, to follow the LORD and to keep His Commandments, His Regulations and His Decrees, with all his heart and all his soul. He confirmed the Words of this Covenant, which had been written in this book. Then all the people agreed to the Covenant.

<sup>4</sup> The king commanded Hilkiah, the High Priest, the priests next in rank and the doorkeepers, to remove from the Temple of the LORD all the articles that had been made for Baal, Asherah and all the starry host of the sky. He burned the articles outside Jerusalem on the terraces near the Kidron and carried their ashes to Bethel. <sup>5</sup> Then he deposed the idolatrous priests whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn offerings on the high places in the cities of Judah and in the places around Jerusalem. He also deposed those who had been burning offerings to Baal, to the sun, to the moon, to constellations and to all the starry host of the sky. <sup>6</sup> He took the Asherah-pole from the Temple of the LORD to the Kidron Brook outside Jerusalem. He burned it in the Kidron Valley, ground it to powder and scattered its dust over the graves of the common people. <sup>7</sup> He tore down the huts of the male cult-prostitutes that were in the Temple of the LORD, where women used to weave coverings for the Asherah-pole. <sup>8</sup> He brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, from Geba to Beer-Sheba and defiled the high places where the priests had been burning sacrifices. He also broke down the high places at the gates that were at the entrance of the Gate of Joshua, the governor of the city. These had been to the left of anyone going through the city gate. <sup>9</sup> However, the priests of the high places had not been coming up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem. Instead, they had been eating unleavened bread among their fellow-Israelites. <sup>10</sup> Josiah also defiled Topheth, which was in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, that no one might use it to burn his son or daughter as an offering to Molech. <sup>11</sup> He removed the horses that the kings of Judah had dedicated to the sun from the entrance to the Temple of the LORD. They had been in the courtyard, near the room of the official named Nathan-Melech. Josiah then burned up the chariots of the sun. <sup>12</sup> The king also broke down the altars that the kings of Judah had erected on the roof near the upper room of Ahaz and the altars that Manasseh had built in the two courts of the Temple of the LORD. He tore them down from there, smashed them up and threw the rubble from them into the Kidron Valley. <sup>13</sup> The king also desecrated the high places east of Jerusalem. They had been on the southern part of the Hill of Corruption. Solomon, the king of Israel, had built them for Ashtoreth, the disgusting goddess of the Sidonians, for Chemosh, the disgusting god of the Moabites and for Milcom, the detestable god of the Ammonites. <sup>14</sup> Josiah smashed the sacred pillars, cut down the Asherah-poles and filled their places with human bones. <sup>15</sup> He also tore down the altar at Bethel, the high place that Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, who had caused Israel to sin, had made. He tore down both that altar and the high place. He burned the high place, crushing it to powder. He also burned the Asherah-pole. <sup>16</sup> When Josiah turned around and saw the graves on the hillside there, he sent men to take the bones out of the graves and burned them on the altar, to defile it. This fulfilled the Word of the LORD that the man of God, who had predicted these things, had proclaimed. <sup>17</sup> Then Josiah asked, "What gravestone is this that I see?"

The men of the city told him, "It is the grave of the man of God who came from Judah and pronounced against the altar of Bethel the very things that you have done to it."

<sup>18</sup> He said: "Let him rest! Let no one disturb his bones!"

So, they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who had come from Samaria. <sup>19</sup> Josiah also removed all the shrines of the high places that the kings of Israel had built in the cities of Samaria, which had provoked God to anger. Josiah dealt with them just as he had done at Bethel. <sup>20</sup> He slaughtered all the priests of the high places who were there, on the altars and burned human bones on them. Then he went back to Jerusalem.

The celebration of the Passover at the time of Josiah — 2 Chronicles 35:1, 18-19

<sup>21</sup> Then the king commanded all the people, "Celebrate the Passover to the LORD, your God, as it has been written in this Book of the Covenant!"

<sup>22</sup> For no such Passover had been celebrated during the time of the judges, who had ruled Israel or during the entire time of the kings of Israel and of Judah.

<sup>23</sup> However, in the eighteenth year of King Josiah, this Passover was celebrated to the LORD in Jerusalem.

<sup>24</sup> Josiah also got rid of those who talked to ghosts, those who told the future by spirits, the household gods, the other idols and all the other detestable things that could be seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem. He did this to carry out the Instructions of the Law that had been written in the book that the priest Hilkiah had found in the Temple of the LORD.

<sup>25</sup> Before Josiah there had been no king like him. He turned to the LORD with all his heart, with all his soul and with all his strength, according to the whole Law of Moses. No one else like him arose after him.

<sup>26</sup> Nevertheless, the LORD did not turn away His fiercely hot anger, which had broken out against Judah because of all that Manasseh had done to provoke Him to anger. <sup>27</sup> Therefore, the LORD said: "I shall remove Judah also from My presence, as I have removed Israel and shall reject this city, Jerusalem, which I have chosen, and the Temple about which I had promised, 'My name will be there.'"

The death of Josiah in battle — 2 Chronicles 35:20-36:1

<sup>28</sup> As for the other events of the reign of Josiah and all that he did, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? <sup>29</sup> In Josiah's days Pharaoh-Neco, the king of Egypt, went up to the king of Assyria at the Euphrates River. King Josiah went against him. When Pharaoh-Neco faced him at Megiddo, he killed him. <sup>30</sup> His officials carried his dead body away from Megiddo in a chariot, brought him to Jerusalem and buried him in his own tomb.

The reign of Jehoahaz as king of Judah and his captivity — 2 Chronicles 36:1-4

Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz, the son of Josiah, anointed him and made him king to succeed his father.

<sup>31</sup> Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for three months. His mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. <sup>32</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil, exactly as his forefathers had done. <sup>33</sup> Pharaoh-Neco put him in chains at Riblah in the land of Hamath, to prevent him from being king in Jerusalem and imposed a fine on the land of three thousand, five hundred kilograms of silver and thirty-five kilograms of gold. <sup>34</sup> Pharaoh-Neco made Eliakim, the son of Josiah, king to succeed his father Josiah and changed his name to "Jehoiakim."<sup>104</sup> However, he took Jehoahaz away when he went to Egypt, and Jehoahaz died there.

The reign of Jehoiakim (also called Eliakim) as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 36:5-8

<sup>35</sup> Jehoiakim paid the silver and the gold to Pharaoh but assessed the country for tax to pay the money that Pharaoh demanded. He compelled all the people of the land to pay the silver and the gold as he had been assessed, that he might pay it to Pharaoh-Neco.

<sup>36</sup> Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother's name was Zebidah, the daughter of Pedaiiah, from Rumah. <sup>37</sup> He did what the LORD regarded as evil, just as his forefathers had done.

24

The occupation of Judah by enemies

<sup>1</sup> During Jehoiakim's reign, Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, came up and Jehoiakim became subject to him for three years. Then he changed his mind and rebelled against Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>2</sup> The LORD sent raiding parties of the Chaldeans, of the Arameans, of the Moabites and of the Ammonites against Jehoiakim. The LORD sent them against Judah to destroy it, as He had threatened when He spoke through His servants, the prophets. <sup>3</sup> Surely this happened to Judah by the Command of the LORD, to remove them out of His sight, because of all the sins that Manasseh had committed, <sup>4</sup> and for the innocent people whom he had murdered. He had filled Jerusalem with the murder of innocent people, and the LORD refused to pardon it. <sup>5</sup> As for the other events of Jehoiakim's reign and all that he did, have they not been recorded in the Annals of the Kings of Judah? <sup>6</sup> Jehoiakim went to rest with his fathers, and his son Jehoiachin succeeded him as king. <sup>7</sup> The king of Egypt did not leave his land again, because the king of Babylon had taken all the territory of the king of Egypt from the Brook of Egypt to the Euphrates River.

<sup>104</sup> Eliakim means "God raises up," and Jehoiakim means, "The LORD raises up."

The reign of Jehoiachin as king of Judah and his captivity — 2 Chronicles 36:9-10

<sup>8</sup> Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he became king and reigned in Jerusalem for three months. His mother's name was Nehushta, the daughter of Elnathan from Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> He did what the LORD regarded as evil, just as his father had been doing. <sup>10</sup> At that time the officers of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, came up against Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. <sup>11</sup> Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, came to the city while his officers were besieging it. <sup>12</sup> Then Jehoiachin, the king of Judah, with his mother, his officials, his leading men and his palace-officers surrendered to the king of Babylon. The king of Babylon took Jehoiachin prisoner in the eighth year of his reign.

The capture of Jerusalem

<sup>13</sup> He carried off from there all the treasures of the Temple of the LORD and the treasures of the king's palace. He cut in pieces all the golden articles in the Temple of the LORD, which Solomon, the king of Israel, had made, as the LORD had threatened. <sup>14</sup> He also took all Jerusalem away into captivity: all the leading men, all the fighting men, ten thousand captives, all the craftsmen and the metalworkers. No one was left behind except the poorest people of the land. <sup>15</sup> He took Jehoiachin to Babylon as a captive. He also took the king's mother, the king's wives, his palace-officials and the leading men of the land from Jerusalem to captivity in Babylon. <sup>16</sup> The king of Babylon also brought into captivity in Babylon the entire force of seven thousand fighting men, one thousand craftsmen and metalworkers, all who were capable of military service.

The reign of Zedekiah as king of Judah — 2 Chronicles 36:11-14, Jeremiah 52:1-3

<sup>17</sup> The king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's uncle, his successor as king and changed his name to "Zedekiah."<sup>105</sup> <sup>18</sup> Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king and reigned in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah from Libnah. <sup>19</sup> He did what the LORD regarded as evil, just as Jehoiakim had done. <sup>20</sup> Indeed, this happened to Jerusalem and Judah because the LORD was angry. Finally He cast them out of His sight.

Then Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

25

The destruction of Jerusalem — 2 Chronicles 36:15-21, Jeremiah 39:1-10, 40:5-9, 41:1-3, 16-18, 52:3-30

<sup>1</sup> In the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, came with his whole army against Jerusalem. He encamped against the city, and they built a siege-mound all around it. <sup>2</sup> The city was kept under siege until the eleventh year of King Zedekiah. <sup>3</sup> On the ninth day of the (fourth) month the famine was so severe in the city that there was no food for the citizens. <sup>4</sup> Then the city wall was broken through, and all the soldiers fled during the night by the way of the city-gate between the two walls, which was beside the king's garden. Although the Chaldeans were attacking the city all around it, the king went along the road towards the Arabah. <sup>5</sup> However, the army of the Chaldeans pursued the king and caught up with him on the waterless plains of Jericho, and his whole company left him and was scattered from him. <sup>6</sup> When they had captured the king, they brought him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah and passed sentence on him. <sup>7</sup> They killed the sons of Zedekiah while he was watching, put out the eyes of Zedekiah, tied him up with bronze shackles and took him to Babylon.

<sup>8</sup> On the seventh day of the fifth month, in the nineteenth year of King Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, a captain of the imperial guard, an official of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> He burned the Temple of the LORD, the king's palace and all the houses in Jerusalem. He burned down every important building. <sup>10</sup> The whole army of the Chaldeans, who were with the captain of the imperial guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup> Nebuzaradan, the captain of the imperial guard, carried into exile the rest of the people who were left in the city, including those who had deserted to the king of Babylon and any others of the crowd that remained. <sup>12</sup> However, the captain of the imperial guard left behind some of the poorest people of the land to work in the vineyards and fields. <sup>13</sup> The Chaldeans broke in pieces the bronze pillars that were in the Temple of the LORD, the wheeled stands and the bronze pool that were in the Temple of the LORD and transported the bronze to Babylon. <sup>14</sup> They also took away the pots, shovels, wick trimmers, basins, all the bronze utensils used in the Temple service, <sup>15</sup> the fire pans and the bowls used for pouring. The captain of the imperial guard took away anything made of gold or silver. <sup>16</sup> The bronze from the two pillars, the one pool and the wheeled stands, from all these articles, which Solomon had made for the Temple of the LORD, was more than could be weighed. <sup>17</sup> The one pillar was nine metres high and had a bronze capital on it. The capital was one and a half metres high. There were a lattice network and pomegranates, all of bronze, around the capital. The second pillar with its network was similar. <sup>18</sup> The captain of the imperial guard took Seraiah, the Chief Priest and Zephaniah, the second priest, and the three doorkeepers. <sup>19</sup> He also took out of the city one officer who had been in command of the fighting men and five men who had access to the king and who had been found in the city. He also took the secretary, who was the commander of the army and who used to muster the soldiers of the land, and sixty male citizens who had been found in the city. <sup>20</sup> Nebuzaradan, the captain of the imperial guard, took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Riblah. <sup>21</sup> The king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So, the people of Judah went into exile away from their own land.

<sup>105</sup> Zedekiah means, "The LORD is righteous."

2 Kings

The appointment of Gedaliah as governor of Judah — Jeremiah 40:5-9, 41:1-3, 41:16-18

<sup>22</sup> Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, appointed Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, as governor over the people who had been left behind in the land of Judah, whom he had allowed to remain.

<sup>23</sup> When all the army officers and their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah, they came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They were Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, Johanan, the son of Kareah, Seraiah, the son of Tan-Humeth from Netophah and Jaazaniah from Maachah, together with their men.

<sup>24</sup> Gedaliah swore an oath to them and their men, telling them: “Do not be afraid of the Chaldean officials! Live in the land, serve the king of Babylon and you will be successful!”

<sup>25</sup> However, in the seventh month, Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, a member of the royal family, came with ten men, struck down Gedaliah and put him to death, as well as the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah. <sup>26</sup> Then all the people, both small and great, together with the army officers, left and went to Egypt. For they were afraid of the Chaldeans.

The imprisonment of Jehoiachin in Babylon and his release — Jeremiah 52:31-34

<sup>27</sup> On the twenty-seventh day of the twelfth month of the thirty-seventh year of the exile of Jehoiachin, the king of Judah, in the year when Evil-Merodach began to reign as the king of Babylon, Evil-Merodach graciously released Jehoiachin, the king of Judah, from prison. <sup>28</sup> He spoke kindly to him and gave him a more honourable seat than those of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. <sup>29</sup> Jehoiachin took off his prison garments and dined regularly in the king’s presence for the rest of his life. <sup>30</sup> He was given a regular daily allowance from the king all his life.

1 CHRONICLES

1

The genealogy from Adam to the sons of Noah — Genesis 5:1-32

<sup>1</sup> There were Adam, Seth, Enosh, <sup>2</sup> Kenan, Mahalalel, Jared, <sup>3</sup> Enoch, Methuselah, Lamech, <sup>4</sup> Noah, Shem, Ham and Japheth.

The descendants of Japheth — Genesis 10:2-5

<sup>5</sup> The sons of Japheth were Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech and Tiras. <sup>6</sup> The sons of Gomer were Ashkenaz, Diphath and Togarmah. <sup>7</sup> The sons of Javan were Elishah, Tarshish, Kittim and Rodanim.

The descendants of Ham — Genesis 10:6-20

<sup>8</sup> The sons of Ham were Cush, Mizraim, Put and Canaan. <sup>9</sup> The sons of Cush were Seba, Havilah, Sabta, Raama and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah were Sheba and Dedan. <sup>10</sup> Cush was the father of Nimrod. He was the first on earth to be a mighty warrior. <sup>11</sup> Mizraim was the father of Ludim, Anamim, Lehabim, Naphthum, <sup>12</sup> Pathrusim, Casluhim (from whom the Philistines came) and Capthorim. <sup>13</sup> Canaan was the father of Sidon, his first-born and Heth, <sup>14</sup> the Jebusites, the Amorites, the Girgashites, <sup>15</sup> the Hivites, the Arkites, the Sinites, <sup>16</sup> the Arvadites, the Zemarites and the Hamathites.

The descendants of Shem — Genesis 10:21-32, 11:10-27, Luke 3:34-38

<sup>17</sup> The descendants of Shem were Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud and Aram, Uz, Hul, Gether and Meshech. <sup>18</sup> Arpachshad was the father of Shelah and Shelah was the father of Eber. <sup>19</sup> Eber had two sons. The name of the one was Peleg, because in his days the earth was divided. His brother's name was Joktan. <sup>20</sup> Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, <sup>21</sup> Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, <sup>22</sup> Ebal, Abimael, Sheba, <sup>23</sup> Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan. <sup>24</sup> Shem, Arpachshad, Shelah, <sup>25</sup> Eber, Peleg, Reu, <sup>26</sup> Serug, Nahor, Terah, <sup>27</sup> and Abram, that is, Abraham.

The family of Abraham — Genesis 25:1-4

<sup>28</sup> The sons of Abraham were Isaac and Ishmael.

The descendants of Hagar and Ishmael — Genesis 25:12-16

<sup>29</sup> These are their family histories: the first-born of Ishmael was Nebaioth, then Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam, <sup>30</sup> Mishma, Dumah, Massa, Hadad, Tema, <sup>31</sup> Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah. These were the sons of Ishmael.

The descendants of Abraham and Keturah — Genesis 25:1-4

<sup>32</sup> The sons born to Keturah, Abraham's concubine, were Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah. The sons of Jokshan were Sheba and Dedan.

<sup>33</sup> The sons of Midian were Ephah, Ephraim, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaah. All these were the descendants of Keturah. <sup>34</sup> Abraham was the father of Isaac. The sons of Isaac were Esau and Israel.

The descendants of Abraham and Sarah — Genesis 36:10-14

<sup>35</sup> The sons of Esau were Eliphaz, Reuel, Jeush, Jalam and Korah. <sup>36</sup> The sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zephi, Gatam and Kenaz and, by Timna, Amalek. <sup>37</sup> The sons of Reuel were Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah.

The people of Seir in Edom — Genesis 36:20-28

<sup>38</sup> The sons of Seir were Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Dishon, Ezer and Dishan. <sup>39</sup> The sons of Lotan were Hori and Homam. Lotan's sister was Timna. <sup>40</sup> The sons of Shobal were Alyan, Manahath, Ebal, Shephi and Onam. The sons of Zibeon were Aiah and Anah. <sup>41</sup> The son of Anah was Dishon. The sons of Dishon were Hamran, Eshban, Ithran and Cheran. <sup>42</sup> The sons of Ezer were Bilhan, Zaavan and Yaakan. The sons of Dishan were Uz and Aran.

The kings of Edom — Genesis 36:31-43

<sup>43</sup> These are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom before any king reigned over the Israelites: Bela, the son of Beor, whose city was named "Dinhabah." <sup>44</sup> When Bela died, Jobab, the son of Zerah from Bozrah, succeeded him as king. <sup>45</sup> When Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites succeeded him as king. <sup>46</sup> When Husham died, Hadad, the son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the open country of Moab, succeeded him as king. His city was named "Avith." <sup>47</sup> When Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah succeeded him as king. <sup>48</sup> When Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth on the Euphrates succeeded him as king. <sup>49</sup> When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan, the son of Achbor, succeeded him as king. <sup>50</sup> When Baal-Hanan died, Hadad succeeded him as king. His city was named "Pai." His wife's name was "Mehetabel," the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zahab. <sup>51</sup> Hadad also died. The chiefs of Edom were: Chief Timna, Chief Alvah, Chief Jetheth, <sup>52</sup> Chief Oholibamah, Chief Elah, Chief Pinon, <sup>53</sup> Chief Kenaz, Chief Teman, Chief Mibzar, <sup>54</sup> Chief Magdiel and Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.

2

The sons of Israel — Genesis 29:31-30:24, 35:16-26, 46:8-25

<sup>1</sup> These were the sons of Israel: Reuben, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Zebulun, <sup>2</sup> Dan, Joseph, Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

The descendants of Judah — Genesis 46:12, Ruth 4:18-22, Matthew 1:3-6, Luke 3:1-33

<sup>3</sup> The sons of Judah were Er, Onan and Shelah. These three were born to him by Bath-Shua, a Canaanite woman. The LORD considered Er, Judah's first-born, evil and so He put him to death. <sup>4</sup> Tamar, Judah's daughter-in-law, also bore him Perez and Zerah. Judah had five sons in all. <sup>5</sup> The sons of Perez were Hezron and Hamul. <sup>6</sup> The sons of Zerah were Zimri, Ethan, Heman, Calcol and Dara, five in all. <sup>7</sup> The son of Carmi was "Achar,"<sup>106</sup> who made Israel taboo by acting unfaithfully, when he took things that were under the sacred ban. <sup>8</sup> The son of Ethan was Azariah.

<sup>106</sup> Achar means, "trouble." In Joshua 7 his name is spelt "Achan."

<sup>9</sup> The sons born to Hezron were Jerahmeel, Ram and Chelubai.

Ram and his descendants down to the family of David

<sup>10</sup> Ram was the father of Amminadab and Amminadab was the father of Nahshon, the leader of the people of Judah. <sup>11</sup> Nahshon was the father of Salma, Salma was the father of Boaz. <sup>12</sup> Boaz was the father of Obed and Obed was the father of Jesse. <sup>13</sup> Jesse was the father of Eliab, his first-born. The second was Abinadab, the third was Shimea, <sup>14</sup> the fourth was Nethanel, the fifth was Raddai, <sup>15</sup> the sixth was Ozem and the seventh was David. <sup>16</sup> Their sisters were Zeruihah and Abigail. Zeruihah's three sons were Abishai, Joab and Asahel. <sup>17</sup> Abigail was the mother of Amasa and the father of Amasa was Jether, the Ishmaelite.

The family of Caleb

<sup>18</sup> Caleb, the son of Hezron, was the father of children by his wife Azubah and by Jerioth. Azubah's sons were Jeshur, Shobab and Ardon. <sup>19</sup> When Azubah died, Caleb married Ephrath, who bore him Hur. <sup>20</sup> Hur was the father of Uri and Uri was the father of Bezalel. <sup>21</sup> Afterwards Hezron had relations with the daughter of Machir, the father of Gilead. He married her when he was sixty years old, and she bore him Segub. <sup>22</sup> Segub was the father of Jair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead. <sup>23</sup> However, Geshur and Aram took from them Havvoth-Jair, as well as Kenath with its surrounding settlements, sixty cities. All these people had been the descendants of Machir, the father of Gilead. <sup>24</sup> After Hezron had died in Caleb-Ephrathah, Hezron's wife Abijah bore him Ashhur, the father of Tekoa.

The descendants of Jerahmeel

<sup>25</sup> The sons of Jerahmeel, the first-born of Hezron, were Ram, his first-born, Bunah, Oren, Ozem and Ahijah. <sup>26</sup> Jerahmeel also had another wife, whose name was Atarah. She was the mother of Onam. <sup>27</sup> The sons of Ram, the first-born of Jerahmeel, were Maaz, Jamin and Eker. <sup>28</sup> The sons of Onam were Shammai and Jada. The sons of Shammai were Nadab and Abishur. <sup>29</sup> The name of Abishur's wife was Abihail, and she bore him Ahban and Molid. <sup>30</sup> The sons of Nadab were Seled and Appaim, but Seled died without children. <sup>31</sup> The son of Appaim was Ishi. The son of Ishi was Sheshan. The son of Sheshan was Ahlai. <sup>32</sup> The sons of Jada, Shammai's brother, were Jether and Jonathan and Jether died without children. <sup>33</sup> The sons of Jonathan were Peleth and Zaza. These were the descendants of Jerahmeel. <sup>34</sup> Sheshan had no sons but only daughters. Sheshan had an Egyptian servant whose name was Jarha. <sup>35</sup> Sheshan gave his daughter in marriage to his servant Jarha, and she bore him Attai. <sup>36</sup> Attai was the father of Nathan and Nathan was the father of Zabad. <sup>37</sup> Zabad was the father of Ephlal and Ephlal was the father of Obed. <sup>38</sup> Obed was the father of Jehu and Jehu was the father of Azariah. <sup>39</sup> Azariah was the father of Helez and Helez was the father of Eleasah. <sup>40</sup> Eleasah was the father of Sismai and Sismai was the father of Shallum. <sup>41</sup> Shallum was the father of Jekamiah and Jekamiah was the father of Elishama.

The clans descended from Caleb

<sup>42</sup> The descendants of Caleb, the brother of Jerahmeel, were Mesha, his first-born, who was the father of Ziph, as well as the sons of Mareshah. Mareshah was the father of Hebron. <sup>43</sup> The sons of Hebron were Korah, Tappuah, Rekem and Shema. <sup>44</sup> Shema was the father of Raham and Raham was the father of Jorkeam. Rekem was the father of Shammai. <sup>45</sup> The son of Shammai was Maon, and Maon was the founder of Beth-Zur. <sup>46</sup> Caleb's concubine Ephah was the mother of Haran, Moza and Gazez. Haran was the father of Gazez. <sup>47</sup> The sons of Jahdai were Regem, Jotham, Geshan, Pelet, Ephah and Shaaph. <sup>48</sup> Caleb's concubine Maacah was the mother of Sheber and Tirhanah. <sup>49</sup> She also bore Shaaph, the father of Madmannah and Sheva, the father of Machbenah and of Gibeon. Caleb's daughter was Achsah. <sup>50</sup> These were the descendants of Caleb.

The descendants of Hur

The sons of Hur, the first-born of Ephrathah, were Shobal, the founder of Kiriath-Jearim, <sup>51</sup> Salma, the founder of Bethlehem and Hareph, the founder of Beth-Gader. <sup>52</sup> Shobal, the founder of Kiriath-Jearim, had other descendants: Haroeh and half of the families of Menuhoth. <sup>53</sup> The clans of Kiriath-Jearim were the Ithrites, the Puthites, the Shumathites and the Mishraites. From these came the people of Zorah and of Eshtaol. <sup>54</sup> The descendants of Salma were Bethlehem, the Netophathites, Atroth-Beth-Joab and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites, <sup>55</sup> and the clans of the scribes who lived at Jabez, namely, the Tirathites, the Shimeathites and the Sucathites. These are the Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab, <sup>55</sup> and the clans of the scribes who lived at Jabez, namely, the Tirathites, the Shimeathites and the Sucathites. These are the Kenites who came from Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab.

3

The sons of David — 2 Samuel 3:2-5, 2 Samuel 5:5, 5:13-16, 1 Chronicles 14:4-7, Matthew 1:6-12

<sup>1</sup> These were the sons of David who were born to him in Hebron: the first-born was Amnon, by Ahinoam from Jezreel. The second was Daniel, by Abigail from Carmel. <sup>2</sup> The third was Absalom, whose mother was Maacah, the daughter of Talmai, the king of Geshur. The fourth was Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith. <sup>3</sup> The fifth was Shephatiah, by Abital. The sixth was Ithream, the son of David's wife Eglah. <sup>4</sup> David had six sons in Hebron, where he reigned for seven years and six months. He reigned for thirty-three years in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> These were the children born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea, Shobab, Nathan and Solomon.

These four were by Bath-Shua,<sup>*107</sup> the daughter of Ammiel. <sup>6</sup> There were also Ibhar, Elishama, Eliphelet, <sup>7</sup> Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, <sup>8</sup> Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet. There were nine. <sup>9</sup> All these were David's sons, besides the sons of the concubines, and Tamar was their sister.

The kings of Judah descended from David — Matthew 1:6-12

<sup>10</sup> Solomon's son was Rehoboam, Abijah was his son, Asa was his son, Jehoshaphat was his son, <sup>11</sup> Joram was his son, Ahaziah was his son, Joash was his son, <sup>12</sup> Amaziah was his son, Azariah was his son, Jotham was his son, <sup>13</sup> Ahaz was his son, Hezekiah was his son, Manasseh was his son, <sup>14</sup> Amon was his son, and Josiah was his son. <sup>15</sup> The sons of Josiah were Johanan, the first-born, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah and the fourth Shallum. <sup>16</sup> The descendants of Jehoiakim were his son Jeconiah and his son Zedekiah.

The royal line after the exile in Babylon

<sup>17</sup> The descendants of Jehoiachin the captive were his son Shealtiel, <sup>18</sup> Malchiram, Pedaiiah, Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama and Nedabiah. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Pedaiiah were Zerub-Babel and Shimei. The sons of Zerub-Babel were Meshullam and Hananiah and Shelomith was their sister. <sup>20</sup> There were also five others: Hashubah, Ohel, Berekiyah, Hasadiah and Jushab-Hesed. <sup>21</sup> The descendants of Hananiah were Pelatiah and Jeshaiiah, as well as the sons of Rephaiah, of Arnan, of Obadiah and of Shecaniah. <sup>22</sup> The descendants of Shecaniah were Shemaiah and his sons, Hattush, Igal, Bariah, Neariah and Shaphat. There were six of these. <sup>23</sup> The sons of Neariah were Elioenai, Hizkiah and Azrikam. There were three of these. <sup>24</sup> The sons of Elioenai were Hodaviah, Elishib, Pelaiah, Akkub, Johanan, Delaiah and Anani. There were seven of these.

4

Other clans of Judah

<sup>1</sup> The descendants of Judah were Perez, Hezron, Carmi, Hur and Shobal. <sup>2</sup> Reaiah, the son of Shobal, was the father of Jahath and Jahath was the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These were the clans of the Zorathites. <sup>3</sup> These were the sons of Etam: Jezreel, Ishma and Idbash and the name of their sister was Hazzelelponi. <sup>4</sup> Penuel was the father of Gedor and Ezer was the father of Hushah. These were the sons of Hur, the first-born of Ephrathah, the founder of Bethlehem. <sup>5</sup> Ashhur, the father of Tekoa, had two wives, Helah and Naarah. <sup>6</sup> Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, Hopher, Temeni and Haahashtari. These were the descendants of Naarah. <sup>7</sup> The sons of Helah were Zereth, Izhar and Ethnan. <sup>8</sup> Koz was the father of Anub, Zobeab and of the clans of Aharhel, the son of Harum. <sup>9</sup> Jabez was more honourable than his brothers were.

His mother named him Jabez, saying, "Because I gave birth to him in pain."

<sup>10</sup> Jabez cried out to the God of Israel: "I pray that You will bless me and enlarge my territory! Let Your hand be with me and keep me free from harm, that I may not cause trouble!"

God granted his request. <sup>11</sup> Chelub, the brother of Shuhah, was the father of Mehir, and he was the father of Eshton. <sup>12</sup> Eshton was the father of Beth-Rapha, Paseah and Tehinnah, who was the father of Ir-Nahash. These were the men of Recah. <sup>13</sup> The sons of Kenaz were Othniel and Seraiah. The sons of Othniel were Hathath and Meonothai. <sup>14</sup> Meonothai was the father of Ophrah. Seraiah was the father of Joab, the founder of Ge-Harashim.<sup>*108</sup> It was called that because the people were craftsmen. <sup>15</sup> The sons of Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, were Iru, Elah and Naam. The son of Elah was Kenaz. <sup>16</sup> The sons of Jehallelel were Ziph, Ziphah, Tiria and Asarel. <sup>17</sup> The sons of Ezrah were Jether, Mered, Ephraim and Jalon. Mered's wife bore Miriam, Shammai and Ishbah, the father of Eshtemoa. <sup>18</sup> Mered's Jewish wife bore Jered, the father of Gedor, Heber, the father of Soco and Jekuthiel, the father of Zanoah. The others were the children of Pharaoh's daughter Bithiah, whom Mered had married. <sup>19</sup> The sons of the wife of Hodiah, the sister of Naham, were the fathers of Keilah the Garmite and Eshtemoa the Maacathite. <sup>20</sup> The sons of Shimon were Amnon, Rinnah, Ben-Hanan and Tilon. The descendants of Ishi were Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth. <sup>21</sup> The sons of Shelah, the son of Judah, were Er, the father of Lecah, Laadah, the father of Mareshah and the clans of the family of linen workers at Beth-Ashbea, <sup>22</sup> Jokim, the men of Cozeba, Joash and Saraph, who ruled over Moab before he returned to Bethlehem. These records have been handed down from antiquity. <sup>23</sup> These were the potters who lived at Netaim and Gederah. They lived there with the king, doing his work.

The descendants of Simeon — Genesis 46:10, Joshua 19:2-10

<sup>24</sup> The sons of Simeon were Nemuel, Jamin, Jarib, Zerah and Shaul. <sup>25</sup> Shallum was the son of Shaul, Mibsam was his son and Mishma was his son. <sup>26</sup> The descendants of Mishma were his son Hammuel, Zaccur his son, Shimei his son. <sup>27</sup> Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters. However, his brothers did not have many children, so their entire clan did not become as numerous as the people of Judah were and their whole clan did not become as large as the people of Judah did. <sup>28</sup> They lived at Beer-Sheba, Moladah, Hazar-Shual, <sup>29</sup> Bilhah, Ezem, Tolad, <sup>30</sup> Bethuel, Hormah, Ziklag, <sup>31</sup> Beth-Marcaboth, Hazar-Susim, Beth-Biri and Shaaraim. These were their cities until David became king. <sup>32</sup> Their villages were Etam, Ain, Rimmon, Tochen and Ashan. There were five of these towns, <sup>33</sup> together with all their villages that were around these towns as far as Baal. These were their settlements, and they kept their own genealogical record. <sup>34</sup> Other descendants were Meshobab, Jamlech, Joshah, the son of Amaziah, <sup>35</sup> Joel, Jehu, the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, <sup>36</sup> Elioenai, Jaakobah, Jeshohaiah, Asaiah, Adiel, Jesimiel, Benaiah, <sup>37</sup> and Ziza, the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah. <sup>38</sup> These men who have been listed by name were princes in their clans, and their paternal families became very numerous. <sup>39</sup> They moved to the outskirts of Gedor, on the eastern side of the valley, to search for pasture for their flocks. <sup>40</sup> They found rich, good pasture, and the land was spacious, quiet and undisturbed, for some descendants of Ham had formerly been living there. <sup>41</sup> These men, who have been registered by name, came in the days of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, and destroyed their tents as well as the Meunites who were present there. They devoted them to destruction, as is evident to this day. Then they settled in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks there. <sup>42</sup> Some of them, five hundred men descended from Simeon, went to the hill-country of Seir. Their leaders were Pelatiah, Neariah, Rephaiah and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi. <sup>43</sup> They defeated the remaining Amalekites who had escaped and they have been living there to this day.

<sup>107</sup> Elsewhere spelt "Bathsehba."

<sup>108</sup> Ge Harashim means, "Valley of craftsmen."

5

The descendants of Reuben — Genesis 46:8-9

<sup>1</sup> The sons of Reuben, the first-born of Israel, — indeed, although he was the first-born, because he defiled his father's marriage bed, his birth-right was given to the sons of Joseph, the son of Israel, so that he could not have himself registered in the genealogical table as the oldest son. <sup>2</sup> Although Judah became strong among his brothers and a prince was to come from him, the birth-right belonged to Joseph. <sup>3</sup> The sons of Reuben, the first-born of Israel, were Hanoah, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. <sup>4</sup> The descendants of Joel were his son Shemaiah, Gog his son, Shimei his son, <sup>5</sup> Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son, <sup>6</sup> and Beerah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser, the king of Assyria, carried away into exile. Beerah was a leader of the Reubenites. <sup>7</sup> His kinsmen by their clans, when they were registered on a genealogical table were Jeiel, the chief, Zechariah, <sup>8</sup> and Bela, the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel. They lived in the area from Aroer to Nebo and Baal Meon. <sup>9</sup> To the east they lived as far as the edge of the desert that extends from the Euphrates River, because they had so many cattle in the land of Gilead. <sup>10</sup> In the days of Saul they waged war against the descendants of Hagar. They defeated them and then lived in their tents throughout the region east of Gilead.

The descendants of Gad

<sup>11</sup> The descendants of Gad lived next to them in the land of Bashan as far as Salecah. <sup>12</sup> Joel was the chief, Shapham the second and then Janai and Shaphat, in Bashan. <sup>13</sup> Their relatives in their paternal family were Michael, Meshullam, Sheba, Jorai, Jacan, Zia and Eber. There were seven of them. <sup>14</sup> These were the sons of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz. <sup>15</sup> Ahi, the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was the chief in their paternal family. <sup>16</sup> They lived in Gilead, in Bashan and in its villages and in all the pasturelands of Sharon as far as they extended. <sup>17</sup> All of these were entered in the genealogical tables in the days of Jotham, the king of Judah and in the days of Jeroboam, the king of Israel.

The battle of Reuben, Gad and Manasseh, against the descendants of Hagar

<sup>18</sup> The descendants of Reuben, Gad and half of the tribe of Manasseh had forty-four thousand, seven hundred and sixty valiant men, who were skilled in fighting, who could handle shield and sword and who could draw a bow. <sup>19</sup> They fought a war against the descendants of Hagar, Jetur, Naphish and Nodab. <sup>20</sup> They received help against them, and the descendants of Hagar and all who were with them were delivered into their power. For they cried out to God in the battle, and He was moved by their entreaties, because they trusted in Him. <sup>21</sup> They carried off their livestock: fifty thousand of their camels, two hundred and fifty thousand sheep and two thousand donkeys. They also took one hundred thousand people captive. <sup>22</sup> Indeed, many others fell slain, because the war was God's doing. Then they lived there instead of them until the exile.

The half-tribe of Manasseh east of the Jordan

<sup>23</sup> The people belonging to the half-tribe of Manasseh also lived in the land from Bashan to Baal-Hermon, Senir and Mount Hermon and there were many of them. <sup>24</sup> These were the heads of their paternal families: Ephraim, Ishi, Eliel, Azriel, Jeremiah, Hodaviah and Jahdiel. They were brave warriors, famous men and heads of their paternal families.

The capture of Gad, Reuben and the half of the tribe of Manasseh by the Assyrians

<sup>25</sup> However, they were unfaithful to the God of their fathers and ran wantonly after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had destroyed before them. <sup>26</sup> Then the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul, the king of Assyria, that is Tiglath-Pileser, the king of Assyria, and he took the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh into exile. He took them to Halah, Habor, Hara and the river Gozan, where they still are today.

6

The descendants of Levi — Genesis 46:11

<sup>1</sup> The sons of Levi were Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

<sup>2</sup> The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. <sup>3</sup> The children of Amram were Aaron, Moses and Miriam. The sons of Aaron were Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>4</sup> Eleazar was the father of Phinehas. Phinehas was the father of Abishua. <sup>5</sup> Abishua was the father of Bukki. Bukki was the father of Uzzi. <sup>6</sup> Uzzi was the father of Zerachiah. Zerachiah was the father of Meraioth. <sup>7</sup> Meraioth was the father of Amariah. Amariah was the father of Ahitub. <sup>8</sup> Ahitub was the father of Zadok. Zadok was the father of Ahimaaz. <sup>9</sup> Ahimaaz was the father of Azariah. Azariah was the father of Johanan. <sup>10</sup> Johanan was the father of Azariah. He was the one who served as a priest in the Temple that Solomon built in Jerusalem. <sup>11</sup> Azariah was the father of Amariah. Amariah was the father of Ahitub. <sup>12</sup> Ahitub was the father of Zadok. Zadok was the father of Shallum. <sup>13</sup> Shallum was the father of Hilkiah. Hilkiah was the father of Azariah. <sup>14</sup> Azariah was the father of Seraiah. Seraiah was the father of Jehozadak. <sup>15</sup> Jehozadak went into captivity when the LORD used Nebuchadnezzar to send Judah and Jerusalem into exile.

Levi's line

<sup>16</sup> The sons of Levi were Gershom, Kohath and Merari. <sup>17</sup> These are the names of the sons of Gershom: Libni and Shimei. <sup>18</sup> The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These are the clans of the Levites according to their fathers: <sup>20</sup> Gershom's son was Libni. His son was Jahath. His son was Zimmah. <sup>21</sup> His son was Joah. His son was Iddo. His son was Zerach. His son was Jeatherai. <sup>22</sup> The descendants of Kohath were as follows: His son was Amminadab. His son was Korah. His son was Assir. <sup>23</sup> His son was Elkanah. His son was Ebiasaph. His son was Assir. <sup>24</sup> His son was Tahath. His son was Uriel. His son was Uzziyah. His son was Shaul. <sup>25</sup> The sons of Elkanah were Amasai and Ahimoth. <sup>26</sup> The descendants of Elkanah were as follows: His son was Zophai. His son was Nahath. <sup>27</sup> His son was Eliab. His son was Jeroham. His son was Elkanah. <sup>28</sup> The sons of Samuel were Joel, his first-born and Abijah, the second son. <sup>29</sup> The descendants of Merari were as follows: Mahli. His son was Libni. His son was Shimei. His son was Uzzah. <sup>30</sup> His son was Shimea. His son was Haggiah, and his son was Asaiah.

The musicians appointed by David for the worship in Jerusalem

<sup>31</sup> These are the men whom David put in charge of the singing in the house of the LORD after the Ark had found its resting-place there. <sup>32</sup> They used to minister with song before the Tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting until Solomon built the Temple of the LORD in Jerusalem. They took their positions as they were allocated to perform their service. <sup>33</sup> These are the men who used to serve and their sons. From the descendants of Kohath there were Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel, <sup>34</sup> the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, <sup>35</sup> the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, <sup>36</sup> the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, <sup>37</sup> the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, <sup>38</sup> the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel. <sup>39</sup> There was also Heman's relative Asaph, who used to stand at his right hand, namely, Asaph, the son of Berechiah, the son of Shimea, <sup>40</sup> the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchijah, <sup>41</sup> the son of Ethni, the son of Zerach, the son of Adaiah, <sup>42</sup> the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, <sup>43</sup> the son of Jahath, the son of Gershon, the son of Levi. <sup>44</sup> Their other relatives were on the left hand. They were the descendants of Merari, Ethan, the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch, <sup>45</sup> the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah, <sup>46</sup> the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, <sup>47</sup> the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi. <sup>48</sup> Their other relatives, the Levites, were assigned to all the other service of the Tabernacle, the house of God.

The work of the priestly line of Aaron

<sup>49</sup> Moreover, Aaron and his descendants used to burn offerings on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense in connection with all the work of the Most Holy Place. They made atonement for Israel, exactly as Moses, the servant of God, had commanded. <sup>50</sup> These were the descendants of Aaron: his son was Eleazar. His son was Phinehas. His son was Abishua. <sup>51</sup> His son was Bukki. His son was Uzzi. His son was Zerachiah. <sup>52</sup> His son was Meraioth. His son was Amariah. His son was Ahitub. <sup>53</sup> His son was Zadok and his son was Ahimaaz.

The cities allotted to the Levites — Joshua 21:1-42

<sup>54</sup> These were the places where the Levites lived according to their settlements inside their borders (They were allocated by lot to the descendants of Aaron who belonged to the clan of Kohath): <sup>55</sup> Hebron in the land of Judah and its surrounding pasturelands were assigned to them. <sup>56</sup> However, the fields and villages around the city had been assigned to Caleb, the son of Jephunneh. <sup>57</sup> The cities of refuge were also assigned to the descendants of Aaron. They were given Hebron and also Libnah with its pasturelands, Jattir, Eshtemoa with its pasturelands, <sup>58</sup> Hilen with its pasturelands, Debir with its pasturelands, <sup>59</sup> Ashan with its pasturelands and Beth-Shemesh with its pasturelands. <sup>60</sup> From the tribe of Benjamin they received Geba with its pasturelands, Alemeth with its pasturelands and Anathoth with its pasturelands. All the cities that belonged to the Kohathite clans numbered thirteen. <sup>61</sup> Ten cities were assigned by lot from the half-tribe of Manasseh to the rest of the descendants of Kohath who belonged to the clan of the tribe. <sup>62</sup> Thirteen cities were allotted to the descendants of Gershom ac-

according to their clans from the tribe of Issachar, from the tribe of Asher, from the tribe of Naphtali and from the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan. <sup>63</sup> Twelve cities were allotted to the descendants of Merari according to their clans from the tribe of Reuben, from the tribe of Gad and from the tribe of Zebulun. <sup>64</sup> So, the Israelites gave these cities and their pasturelands to the Levites. <sup>65</sup> They gave by lot these cities, which are mentioned by name, from the tribe of Judah, the tribe of Simeon and the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>66</sup> Some of the clans of the descendants of Kohath had cities from the tribe of Ephraim as their territory. <sup>67</sup> They were given Shechem, one of the cities of refuge, together with its pasturelands, in the hill-country of Ephraim and Gezer, with its pasturelands, <sup>68</sup> Jokmeam with its pasturelands, Beth-Horon with its pasturelands, <sup>69</sup> Aijalon with its pasturelands and Gath-Rimmon with its pasturelands. <sup>70</sup> From the half-tribe of Manasseh the rest of the clans of the Kohathites were assigned: Aner with its pasturelands and Bileam with its pasturelands. <sup>71</sup> The descendants of Gershom received, from the clan of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its pasturelands and Ashtaroth with its pasturelands. <sup>72</sup> They received, from the tribe of Issachar: Kedesh with its pasturelands, Daberath with its pasturelands, <sup>73</sup> Ramoth with its pasturelands and Anem with its pasturelands. <sup>74</sup> They received, from the tribe of Asher: Mashal with its pasturelands, Abdon with its pasturelands, <sup>75</sup> Hukok with its pasturelands and Rehob with its pasturelands. <sup>76</sup> They received, from the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee with its pasturelands, Hammon with its pasturelands and Kiriathaim with its pasturelands. <sup>77</sup> The rest, the descendants of Merari, were allotted, from the tribe of Zebulun: Rimmono with its pasturelands and Tabor with its pasturelands. <sup>78</sup> From the tribe of Reuben across the Jordan east of Jericho they received Bezer in the wilderness with its pasturelands, Jahzah with its pasturelands, <sup>79</sup> Kedemoth with its pasturelands and Mephaath with its pasturelands. <sup>80</sup> From the tribe of Gad they received Ramoth in Gilead with its pasturelands, Mahanaim with its pasturelands, <sup>81</sup> Heshbon with its pasturelands and Jazer with its pasturelands.

7

The descendants of Issachar — Genesis 46:13

<sup>1</sup> Issachar had four sons: Tola, Puah, Jashub and Shimron. <sup>2</sup> The sons of Tola were Uzzi, Rephaiah, Jeriel, Jahmai, Ibsam and Shemuel. They were heads of their paternal families descended from Tola. During the time of David, twenty-two thousand, six hundred warriors were listed in their family records. <sup>3</sup> The son of Uzzi was Izrahiah. The sons of Izrahiah were Michael, Obadiah, Joel and Isshiah. All five of them were leading men. <sup>4</sup> In addition to them, according to the paternal families in their family-history, there were thirty-six thousand men in army units ready for war. For they had many wives and children. <sup>5</sup> Their relatives who were warriors belonging to all the clans of Issachar were registered in their genealogical table as eighty-seven thousand in all.

The descendants of Benjamin — Genesis 46:21

<sup>6</sup> Benjamin had three sons: Bela, Becher and Jediael. <sup>7</sup> Bela had five sons: Ezbon, Uzzi, Uzziel, Jerimoth and Iri. They were heads of paternal families, mighty warriors. Twenty-two thousand and thirty-four warriors were registered in their genealogical table. <sup>8</sup> The sons of Becher were Zemirah, Joash, Eliezer, Elieoenai, Omri, Jeremoth, Abijah, Anathoth and Alemeth. All these were the sons of Becher. <sup>9</sup> They were registered as leaders of their paternal families in their genealogical table according to their family histories. There were twenty-two thousand, two hundred warriors. <sup>10</sup> The son of Jediael was Bilhan, and the sons of Bilhan were Jeush, Benjamin, Ehud, Chenaanah, Zethan, Tarshish and Ahishahar. <sup>11</sup> All these descendants of Jediael according to the leaders of their paternal families numbered seventeen thousand, two hundred warriors, able to go out to war. <sup>12</sup> The Shuppites, and the Huppites were the sons of Ir. The Hushites were the descendants of Aher.

The descendants of Naphtali — Genesis 46:24

<sup>13</sup> The sons of Naphtali were Jahziel, Guni, Jezer and Shallum, the descendants of Bilhah.

The descendants of Manasseh who lived west of the Jordan River

<sup>14</sup> The following were the descendants of Manasseh: Asriel was his descendant through his Aramean concubine. She gave birth to Makir, the father of Gilead. <sup>15</sup> Machir took a wife from among the Huppites and Shuppites. The name of his sister was also Maacah. The name of the second son was Zelophehad, and Zelophehad had only daughters. <sup>16</sup> Maacah, the wife of Machir, bore a son and named him Peresh. The name of his brother was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Rakem. <sup>17</sup> The son of Ulam was Bedan. These were the descendants of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. <sup>18</sup> His sister Hammoleketh gave birth to Ishhod, Abiezer and Mahlah. <sup>19</sup> The sons of Shemida were Ahian, Shechem, Likhi and Aniam.

The descendants of Ephraim

<sup>20</sup> The descendants of Ephraim were Shuthelah and Bered, his son, Tahath, his son, Eladah his son, Tahath his son, <sup>21</sup> Zabad his son, Shuthelah his son and Ezer and Elead. The native-born men of Gath in that land killed them because they had come down to take away their livestock. <sup>22</sup> Their father Ephraim mourned for a long time, and his relatives came to comfort him. <sup>23</sup> When Ephraim had relations with his wife, she conceived and gave birth to a son. He named him Beriah, because calamity had happened in his family. <sup>24</sup> His daughter was Sheerah, who built both Lower and Upper Beth-Horon and Uzzan-Sheerah. <sup>25</sup> His son was Rephah. His son was Resheph. His son was Te-

lah. His son was Tahan. <sup>26</sup> His son was Ladan. His son was Ammihud. His son was Elishama. <sup>27</sup> His son was Nun, and his son was Joshua. <sup>28</sup> Their property in land and their settlements were Bethel and its villages, Naaran to the east, Gezer and its villages to the west, Shechem and its villages, as far as Ayyah and its villages. <sup>29</sup> The descendants of Manasseh also possessed Beth-Shean with its villages, Taanach with its villages, Megiddo with its villages and Dor with its villages. The descendants of Joseph, the son of Israel, lived in these places.

The descendants of Asher — Genesis 46:17

<sup>30</sup> The sons of Asher were Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi and Beriah, and their sister was Serah. <sup>31</sup> The sons of Beriah were Heber and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzaith. <sup>32</sup> Heber was the father of Japhlet, Shomer, Hotham and their sister Shua. <sup>33</sup> The sons of Japhlet were Pasach, Bimhal and Ashvath. These were the sons of Japhlet. <sup>34</sup> The sons of Shemer were Ahi, Rohgah, Hubbah and Aram. <sup>35</sup> The sons of his brother Helem were Zophah, Imna, Shelesh and Amal. <sup>36</sup> The sons of Zophah were Suah, Harnepher, Shual, Beri, Imrah, <sup>37</sup> Bezer, Hod, Shamma, Shilshah, Jithran and Beera. <sup>38</sup> The sons of Jether were Jephunneh, Pispah and Ara. <sup>39</sup> The sons of Ulla were Arah, Hanniel and Rizia. <sup>40</sup> All of these were descendants of Asher, leaders of paternal families, selected warriors who were leaders among princes. The number of men who were registered on their genealogical table as soldiers who were ready for war was twenty-six thousand.

8

The descendants of Benjamin — Genesis 46:21

<sup>1</sup> Benjamin was the father of Bela, his first-born. Ashbel was the second son, Aharah was the third, <sup>2</sup> Nohah was the fourth, and Rapha was the fifth. <sup>3</sup> The sons of Bela were Addar, Gera, Abihud, <sup>4</sup> Abishua, Naaman, Ahoah, <sup>5</sup> Gera, Shephuphan and Huram. <sup>6</sup> These were the sons of Ehud, who were the heads of families of the people living in Geba and were deported to Manahath: <sup>7</sup> Naaman, Ahijah and Gera, who deported them. Ehud was also the father of Uzza and Ahihud. <sup>8</sup> Shaharaim had children in the country of Moab after he had divorced his wives Hushim and Baara. <sup>9</sup> By his wife Hodesh he was the father of Jobab, Zibia, Mesha, Malcam, <sup>10</sup> Jeuz, Sachiah and Mirmah. These were his sons, who were heads of their families. <sup>11</sup> By Hushim Shaharaim was also the father of Abitub and Elpaal. <sup>12</sup> The descendants of Elpaal were Eber, Misham and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod with its villages, <sup>13</sup> and Beriah and Shema. They were heads of families of the people living at Aijalon, who had driven out the people living in Gath. <sup>14</sup> Ahio, Shashak, Jeremoth, <sup>15</sup> Zebadiah, Arad, Eder, <sup>16</sup> Michael, Jispah and Joha were the sons of Beriah. <sup>17</sup> Zebadiah, Meshullam, Hizki, Heber, <sup>18</sup> Ishmerai, Jizliah and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal. <sup>19</sup> Jakim, Zichri, Zabdi, <sup>20</sup> Elienai, Zillethai, Eliel, <sup>21</sup> Adaiah, Beraiah and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei. <sup>22</sup> Ishpan, Eber, Eliel, <sup>23</sup> Abdon, Zichri, Hanan, <sup>24</sup> Hananiah, Elam, Anthothijah, <sup>25</sup> Iphdeiah and Penuel were the sons of Shashak. <sup>26</sup> Shamsherai, Shehariah, Athaliah, <sup>27</sup> Jareshiah, Elijah and Zichri were the sons of Jeroham. <sup>28</sup> These were the heads of families, according to their family histories and leading men. These lived in Jerusalem.

<sup>29</sup> Jeiel, the father of Gibeon, lived in Gibeon, and the name of his wife was Maacah. <sup>30</sup> His first-born son was Abdon and then Zur, Kish, Baal, Nadab, <sup>31</sup> Gedor, Ahio, Zecher, <sup>32</sup> and Mikloth, who was the father of Shimeah. They also lived near their relatives in Jerusalem, not far from their other relatives. <sup>33</sup> Ner was the father of Kish. Kish was the father of Saul, and Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malki-Shua, Abinadab and Eshbaal. <sup>34</sup> The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal was the father of Micah. <sup>35</sup> The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tarea and Ahaz. <sup>36</sup> Ahaz was the father of Jehoaddah. Jehoaddah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri. Zimri was the father of Moza. <sup>37</sup> Moza was the father of Binea. Raphah was his son. Eleasah was his son and Azel was his son. <sup>38</sup> Azel had six sons, and these were their names: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel. <sup>39</sup> The sons of his brother Eshek were Ulam his first-born, Jeush the second son and Eliphelet the third. <sup>40</sup> The sons of Ulam were brave warriors, who were skilled bowmen. They had many sons and grandsons, one hundred and fifty of them. All these belonged to the descendants of Benjamin.

9

<sup>1</sup> All Israel had themselves registered on genealogical tables and have been recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel. Judah was taken into exile in Babylon because of their unfaithfulness.

The people who lived in Jerusalem after the exile — Nehemiah 11:3-19

<sup>2</sup> The first to live in their landed property in their cities again were some Israelites, the priests, the Levites and the Temple servants. <sup>3</sup> Some of the people of Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim and Manasseh, who lived in Jerusalem were: <sup>4</sup> Uthai, the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, who had descended from Perez, the son of Judah. <sup>5</sup> Some of the descendants of Shilah were Asaiah the first-born and his other sons. <sup>6</sup> Some of the descendants of Zerah were Jeuel and their six hundred and ninety relatives. <sup>7</sup> Among the descendants of Benjamin were Sallu, the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah, <sup>8</sup> Ibneiah, the son of Jeroham, Elah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri and Meshullam, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah, <sup>9</sup> and their nine hundred and fifty-six relatives according to their family histories. All these men were heads of their paternal families.

The priests, Levites and gatekeepers at Jerusalem after the return from Babylon

<sup>10</sup> Some of the priests were Jedaiah, Jehoiarib, Jachin, <sup>11</sup> Azariah, the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the High Priest in the house of God, <sup>12</sup> Adaiah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah and Maasai, the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer, <sup>13</sup> besides their one thousand, seven hundred and sixty relatives, who were heads of their paternal families, men who were well qualified to work in serving at the house of God.

<sup>14</sup> Among the Levites there were Shemaiah, the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, who had descended from Merari, <sup>15</sup> Bakbakkar, Heresh, Galal and Mattaniah, the son of Mica, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph, <sup>16</sup> Obadiah, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun and Berechiah, the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the people of Netophah. <sup>17</sup> The gatekeepers were Shallum, Akkub, Talmon, Ahiman and their relatives. Shallum was the chief. <sup>18</sup> Until now they have been stationed at the King's Gate on the eastern side.

These were the gatekeepers belonging to the camps of the Levites. <sup>19</sup> Shallum, the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his relatives belonging to his paternal family, the descendants of Korah, were in charge of the work of the service. They guarded the thresholds of the Tabernacle, as their fathers had been in charge of guarding the entrance of the dwelling of the LORD. <sup>20</sup> Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, had in an earlier time been the chief officer over them. The LORD was with him. <sup>21</sup> Zechariah, the son of Meshelemiah, was gatekeeper at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>22</sup> All these, who had been chosen to be gatekeepers at the thresholds, numbered two hundred and twelve. They had themselves registered by their genealogies in their villages. David and Samuel, the seer, had appointed them to their trusted duty. <sup>23</sup> So, they and their descendants were guards in charge of the gates of the house of the LORD, that is, the house called "the Tabernacle." <sup>24</sup> The gatekeepers were on the four sides, east, west, north and south. <sup>25</sup> Their relatives who were in their villages had to come in from time to time to share their duties for seven-day periods. <sup>26</sup> Indeed, the four chief gatekeepers, who were Levites, had the official duty of supervising the halls and the treasures of the house of God. <sup>27</sup> They used to spend the night around the house of God, for they were responsible to guard it and to open it every morning. <sup>28</sup> Some of them had charge of the articles used in the service. For they used to count them when they brought them in and took them out. <sup>29</sup> Others of them were appointed to take care of the furniture and all the other articles of the sanctuary, as well as the fine wheat flour, the wine, the olive-oil, the incense and the perfumes. <sup>30</sup> Some of the sons of the priests used to mix the perfumes. <sup>31</sup> Mattithiah, one of the Levites, the first-born son of Shallum, the descendant of Korah, was entrusted with making the flat cakes. <sup>32</sup> Some of their relatives among the descendants of Kohath were in charge preparing the bread that was laid out in rows every Sabbath. <sup>33</sup> Those who were the singers, the heads of Levite families, stayed in the halls of the Temple and were exempt from other service, because they were responsible for that work day and night. <sup>34</sup> These were heads of Levite families and listed in their family histories as leaders. These lived in Jerusalem.

The genealogy of Saul — 1 Chronicles 8:28-38

<sup>35</sup> Jeiel, the father of Gibeon, lived in Gibeon. His wife's name was Maacah. <sup>36</sup> His first-born son was Abdon and then Zur, Kish, Baal, Ner, Nadab, <sup>37</sup> Gedor, Ahio, Zechariah and Mikloth. <sup>38</sup> Mikloth was the father of Shimeam. These also lived opposite their relatives in Jerusalem, not far from their other relatives. <sup>39</sup> Ner was the father of Kish. Kish was the father of Saul. Saul was the father of Jonathan, Malchi-Shua, Abinadab and Eshbaal. <sup>40</sup> The son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal, and Merib-Baal was the father of Micah. <sup>41</sup> The sons of Micah were Pithon, Melech, Tahrea and Ahaz. <sup>42</sup> Ahaz was the father of Jarah. Jarah was the father of Alemeth, Azmaveth and Zimri. Zimri was the father of Moza. <sup>43</sup> Moza was the father of Binea. Rephaiah was his son. Eleasah was his son, and Azel was his son. <sup>44</sup> Azel had six sons and these were their names: Azrikam, Bocheru, Ishmael, Sheariah, Obadiah and Hanan. These were the sons of Azel.

10

The death of Saul and his sons — 1 Samuel 31:1-13, 2 Samuel 1:4-12

<sup>1</sup> When the Philistines fought against Israel, the Israelites fled from the Philistines and fell slain on Mount Gilboa. <sup>2</sup> The Philistines followed hard after Saul and his sons and the Philistines struck down Saul's sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malchi-Shua. <sup>3</sup> The battle became fierce against Saul. The archers got him in range of their bows and wounded him. <sup>4</sup> Then Saul told his armour-bearer: "Draw your sword and stab me with it, that these uncircumcised men may not come and abuse me!"

However, his armour-bearer refused, because he was very afraid. So, Saul took his own sword and fell on it. <sup>5</sup> When his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he also fell on his own sword and died. <sup>6</sup> So, Saul, his three sons and all his household died together. <sup>7</sup> When all the Israelites who were in the valley saw that the army had fled and that Saul and his sons were dead, they abandoned their cities and fled. Then the Philistines came and lived in them. <sup>8</sup> The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>9</sup> They stripped him, took his head and his weapons and sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines, to proclaim the good news among their idols and their people. <sup>10</sup> They put his weapons in the temple of their gods and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon. <sup>11</sup> However, when all the people of Jabesh-Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>12</sup> all the brave men set out, took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons and brought them to Jabesh. They buried their bones under the tamarisk tree at Jabesh and fasted for seven days. <sup>13</sup> So, Saul died because of his unfaithfulness, which he had committed against the LORD. He had not kept the Command of the LORD and had also consulted a medium to try to obtain guidance. <sup>14</sup> He had not tried to obtain guidance from the LORD. Therefore, He put him to death and turned the kingdom over to David, the son of Jesse.

11

The anointing of David as king over Israel — 2 Samuel 5:1-3

<sup>1</sup> Then all Israel gathered together to David at Hebron and said: "Look! We are your own bone and flesh.

<sup>2</sup> In times past, even when Saul was king, it was you who led the army of Israel as its commander. The LORD, your God, has told you, 'You will be the shepherd over My people Israel. You will be the leader over My people Israel.'"

<sup>3</sup> When all the elders of Israel had come to the king at Hebron, David made a covenant with them at Hebron before the LORD. They anointed David as king over Israel, as the LORD had promised through Samuel.

The capture of Jerusalem by David — 2 Samuel 5:6-20

<sup>4</sup> David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus. The Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. <sup>5</sup> The people who were living at Jebus told David, "You will not come in here."

Nevertheless, David captured the stronghold of Zion, which is the City of David. <sup>6</sup> David had said, "Whoever strikes the Jebusites first will become the chief and the commander."

Joab, the son of Zeruiah, went up first and so he became the commander. <sup>7</sup> Then David lived in the stronghold. That is why people called it "the City of David." <sup>8</sup> He built the city all around from the supporting terrace to the surrounding area, and Joab repaired the rest of the city. <sup>9</sup> David became increasingly powerful, and the LORD of hosts was with him.

David's three mighty men and their exploits — 2 Samuel 23:8-39

<sup>10</sup> These were the commanders of David's warriors, who gave him strong support in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, as the LORD had promised concerning Israel. <sup>11</sup> This is a list of David's mighty men: Jashobeam, a Hachmonite, was the chief of the assisting officers. He brandished his spear against three hundred men and killed them in one encounter. <sup>12</sup> After him among the three mighty men came Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite. <sup>13</sup> He was with David at Pas-Dammim, where the Philistines had gathered for battle. There was a plot of ground full of barley, and the army had fled from the Philistines.

<sup>14</sup> However, he took his stand in the middle of the plot. They defended it and struck down the Philistines.

The LORD brought about a great victory. <sup>15</sup> Three of the thirty leading men went down to David at the rock at the cave of Adullam, while an army of the Philistines was camping in the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>16</sup> At that time David was in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was at Bethlehem. <sup>17</sup> David said with longing, "I wish that someone would give me water to drink from the well of Bethlehem, which is beside the gate!"

<sup>18</sup> Then the three warriors broke through the camp of the Philistines and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, which was beside the gate, took it and brought it to David. However, David refused to drink it and poured it out to the LORD. <sup>19</sup> He said: "May God forbid that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men, who have risked their lives? For they have risked their lives to bring it."

He refused to drink it. This is what the three warriors did.

David's thirty warriors — 2 Samuel 23:18-39

<sup>20</sup> Abishai, the brother of Joab, was the chief of another Three. He brandished his spear against three hundred men and killed them and won a name among these Three. <sup>21</sup> He was more honoured than the other two men of the Three and became their commander. However, he was not included among the other Three.

<sup>22</sup> Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was a valiant man from Kabzeel, who performed great exploits. He struck down two Moabite warriors. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.

<sup>23</sup> He also struck down an Egyptian who was two and a half metres tall. Although the Egyptian had a spear like a weaver's beam in his hand, Benaiah went down against him with a staff, snatched the spear from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.

<sup>24</sup> These were things that Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did. He too was as famous as the three warriors were.

<sup>25</sup> He was more highly honoured than the Thirty were but was not included among the Three. David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

<sup>26</sup> The chief warriors were Asahel, the brother of Joab, Elhanan, the son of Dodo from Bethlehem, <sup>27</sup> Shammoth from Harod, Helez the Pelonite, <sup>28</sup> Ira the son of Ikkesh from Tekoa, Abiezer from Anathoth, <sup>29</sup> Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite, <sup>30</sup> Maharai from Netophah, Heled, the son of Baanah, from Netophah, <sup>31</sup> Ithai, the son of Ribai from Gibeah, belonging to the people of Benjamin, Benaiah from Pirathon, <sup>32</sup> Hurai from the ravines of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite, <sup>33</sup> Azmaveth from Baharum, Eliahba from Shaalbon, <sup>34</sup> the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan, the son of Shagee, the Ha-

rarite, <sup>35</sup> Ahiam the son of Sachar the Hararite, Eliphai the son of Ur, <sup>36</sup> Hephher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, <sup>37</sup> Hezro from Carmel, Naarai, the son of Ezbai, <sup>38</sup> Joel, the brother of Nathan, Mibhar, the son of Hagri, <sup>39</sup> Zelek, the Ammonite, Naharai of Beeroth (the armour-bearer of Joab, the son of Zeruah), <sup>40</sup> Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, <sup>41</sup> Uriah the Hittite, Zabab, the son of Ahlai, <sup>42</sup> Adina, the son of Shiza, the Reubenite (a leader of the Reubenites) and the thirty men with him, <sup>43</sup> Hanan, the son of Maacah and Joshaphat, the Mithnite, <sup>44</sup> Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel, the sons of Hotham from Aroer, <sup>45</sup> Jediel, the son of Shimri and his brother Joha, the Tizite, <sup>46</sup> Eliel, the Mahavite, Jeribai and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam and Ithmah, the Moabite, <sup>47</sup> Eliel, Obed and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

12

The warriors who joined David at Ziklag while Saul was pursuing him — 1 Samuel 22:1-2

<sup>1</sup> These were the men who came to David at Ziklag, while he was still banished from the presence of Saul, the son of Kish. They were among the warriors who helped him in the war. <sup>2</sup> They were armed with bows and could sling stones and shoot arrows with their bows, using either the right hand or the left. They were relatives of Saul from the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>3</sup> The chief was Ahiezer, then Joash, both sons of Shemaah from Gibeah. There were also Jeziel and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; Beracah, Jehu from Anathoth, <sup>4</sup> Ishmaiah from Gibeon, a warrior among the thirty and a leader over the thirty, Jeremiah, Jahaziel, Johanan, Jozabad from Gederah, <sup>5</sup> Eluzai, Jerimoth, Bealiah, Shemariah and Shephatiah, the Haruphite. <sup>6</sup> There were Elkanah, Jisshiah, Azarel, Joezer and Jashobeam, Korah's descendants. <sup>7</sup> There were also Joelah and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham from Gedor. <sup>8</sup> Some descendants of Gad went over to David at the stronghold in the wilderness. They were brave warriors, who had experience in battle and were expert with shields and spears. Their faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as gazelles on the mountains. <sup>9</sup> Ezer was the chief, Obadiah the second, and Eliab was the third. <sup>10</sup> Mishmannah was the fourth, and Jeremiah was the fifth. <sup>11</sup> Attai was the sixth, Eliel was the seventh, <sup>12</sup> Johanan was the eighth, Elzabad was the ninth, <sup>13</sup> Jeremiah was the tenth, and Machbannai was the eleventh. <sup>14</sup> These descendants of Gad were officers of the army. The least was a match for a hundred men, and the greatest for a thousand. <sup>15</sup> These were the men who crossed the Jordan in the first month, when it was overflowing all its banks, and put to flight all the people in the valleys, to the east and to the west. <sup>16</sup> Some of the men of Benjamin and Judah also came to David at the stronghold. <sup>17</sup> David went out to meet them and told them: "If you have come to me in peace to help me, I am willing for you to join me. However, if you have come to betray me to my enemies, when my hands are free from violence, may the God of our fathers see it and rebuke you!"

<sup>18</sup> Then the Spirit took possession of Amasai, the chief of the Thirty, and he said: "We are yours, David! We are with you, son of Jesse! May everything go well with you, and may everything be well with those who help you! For your God has been helping you."

Then David accepted them and made them leaders of his raiding party. <sup>19</sup> Some of the men of Manasseh deserted to David when he went with the Philistines to fight against Saul. Nevertheless, David did not help the Philistines, because, when the princes of the Philistines considered the matter, they sent him away. They said, "He will desert to his master Saul at the cost of our own heads."

<sup>20</sup> When David went to Ziklag, these were the men of Manasseh who deserted to join him: Adnah, Jozabad, Jediel, Michael, Jozabad, Elihu and Zillethai. They had been leaders of units of a thousand in Manasseh.

<sup>21</sup> They helped David against the raiding party. For they were all brave warriors and were commanders in the army. <sup>22</sup> For from day to day men kept coming to David to help him, until he had a large army, like an army of God.

The warriors who joined David at Hebron

<sup>23</sup> These are the numbers of the companies of the men who were ready for battle and who came to David in Hebron to turn the kingdom of Saul over to him, as the LORD had commanded. <sup>24</sup> The men of Judah equipped for war, bearing shields and spears, numbered six thousand, eight hundred. <sup>25</sup> The men from Simeon, brave warriors ready for battle, numbered seven thousand, one hundred. <sup>26</sup> The men from Levi numbered four thousand, six hundred. <sup>27</sup> There was also Jehoiada, the leader of the family of Aaron, and with him there were three thousand, seven hundred men. <sup>28</sup> There was also Zadok, a brave young warrior, with twenty-two officers from his own fathers' family.

<sup>29</sup> There were three thousand of the men of Benjamin, who were relatives of Saul, although until then the majority of them remained loyal to the family of Saul.

<sup>30</sup> There were twenty thousand, eight hundred brave warriors from the people of Ephraim. They were famous men in their paternal families. <sup>31</sup> There were eighteen thousand from the half-tribe of Manasseh, who had been designated by name to come and make David king. <sup>32</sup> There were two hundred leaders from the people of Issachar. They were men who understood the times, so that they knew what Israel should do, and all their relatives were under their command.

<sup>33</sup> There were fifty thousand experienced soldiers prepared for battle from Zebulun. They had all kinds of weapons and were seasoned troops, equipped for battle with all the weapons of war. They could keep their ranks and were completely loyal. <sup>34</sup> There were one thousand officers from Naphtali and they had with them thirty-seven thousand men armed with shields and spears. <sup>35</sup> There were twenty-eight thousand, six hundred men equipped for battle from the people of Dan. <sup>36</sup> There were forty thousand experienced soldiers from Asher who were ready for battle. <sup>37</sup> There were one hundred and twenty thousand men from east of the Jordan, from the people of Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh. They were armed with all kinds of military weapons. <sup>38</sup> All these were warriors, who could keep ranks. They had come to Hebron with the single purpose of making David king over all Israel. All the rest of the Israelites were also unanimous in wanting to make David king. <sup>39</sup> The men spent three days there with David, eating and drinking. For their families had supplied provisions for them. <sup>40</sup> Their neighbours from as far away as Issachar, Zebulun and Naphtali also brought food on donkeys, camels, mules and oxen. There were plentiful supplies of flour, fig cakes, raisin cakes, wine, oil, cattle and sheep, because there was joy in Israel.

13

The bringing of the Ark from Kiriath-Jearim to the house of Obed-Edom — 2 Samuel 6:1-11

<sup>1</sup> David consulted with the commanders of units of a thousand and units of a hundred and with every other leader. <sup>2</sup> David told the whole assembly of Israel: “If you consider it right and, if it is the will of the LORD, our God, let us spread out with a message to the rest of our relatives in all the lands of Israel and to the priests and Levites in the cities that have pasturelands, to tell them to join us! <sup>3</sup> Then let us bring the Ark of our God home to us! For we did not use it to obtain God’s advice during the time of Saul.”

<sup>4</sup> All the assembly agreed to do this, for all the people considered that it was right to do it. <sup>5</sup> So, David assembled all Israel from the Shihor River in Egypt to Lebo-Hamath, to bring the Ark of God from Kiriath-Jearim. <sup>6</sup> David and all Israel went up to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath-Jearim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the Ark of God, the LORD, who sits between the cherubim, the Ark that is called by the Name. <sup>7</sup> They carried the Ark of God from the house of Abinadab on a new cart. Uzzah and Ahio were driving the cart. <sup>8</sup> David and all Israel were rejoicing before God with all their might, with songs and with lyres, harps, tambourines, cymbals and trumpets. <sup>9</sup> When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzzah put out his hand to take hold of the Ark, for the oxen caused it to go loose. <sup>10</sup> The LORD became angry with Uzzah and struck him down because he laid his hand on the Ark, and he died there before God.

<sup>11</sup> David was angry because the LORD had burst out against Uzzah. That place has been called “Perez-Uzzah” to this day. <sup>12</sup> David was afraid of God that day and asked, “How shall I bring the Ark of God home to me?”

<sup>13</sup> So, David did not take the Ark into the city of David to be with him but took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom, who was from Gath. <sup>14</sup> The Ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house for three months. The LORD blessed the family of Obed-Edom and everything he had.

14

David’s palace and his family in Jerusalem — 2 Samuel 5:11-16, 1 Chronicles 3:5-8

<sup>1</sup> Hiram, the king of Tyre, sent messengers to David and also sent cedar trees, masons and carpenters, to build a palace for him. <sup>2</sup> David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and that He had highly honoured his kingdom for the sake of His people Israel.

<sup>3</sup> David married more women in Jerusalem and David was the father of more sons and daughters. <sup>4</sup> These were the names of the children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon, <sup>5</sup> Ithar, Elishua, Elpelet, <sup>6</sup> Nogah, Nepheg, Japhia, <sup>7</sup> Elishama, Be-Eliada and Eliphelet.

The defeat of the Philistines by David — 2 Samuel 5:17-25

<sup>8</sup> When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines came up to search for David. David heard about it and went out against them. <sup>9</sup> The Philistines had come and made a raid in the Valley of Rephaim. <sup>10</sup> David asked God: “Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will You hand them over to me?”

The LORD told him: “Go up! I shall hand them over to you.”

<sup>11</sup> He went up to Baal-Perazim and David struck them down there. David said, “God has used my hand to break through my enemies, like a bursting flood.”

That is why that place has been named “Baal-Perazim.”<sup>109</sup> <sup>12</sup> The Philistines had abandoned their gods there, and David gave orders, and his men burned them up. <sup>13</sup> Once again the Philistines made a raid in the valley. <sup>14</sup> When David inquired of God again, God told him: “You shall not go up after them! Circle around behind them and approach them from the direction of the balsam trees! <sup>15</sup> When you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, then go out to battle! For God has gone out before you to strike down the army of the Philistines.”

<sup>16</sup> David did as God had commanded him, and they struck down the Philistine army from Gibeon to Gezer. <sup>17</sup> The fame of David spread throughout all the other countries, and the LORD made all the other nations afraid of him.

15

The preparations for the Ark in Jerusalem and the bringing of the Ark to Jerusalem — 2 Samuel 6:12-19

<sup>1</sup> David had constructed buildings for himself in the City of David. He prepared a place for the Ark of God and pitched a tent for it. <sup>2</sup> Then David said: “No one but the Levites may carry the Ark of God! For the LORD has chosen them to carry the Ark of the LORD and to minister to Him for ever.”

<sup>109</sup> Baal-Perazim means, “Lord who breaks out.”

<sup>3</sup> David assembled all Israel at Jerusalem to bring the Ark of the LORD up to its place, which he had prepared for it. <sup>4</sup> David gathered together the descendants of Aaron and the Levites. <sup>5</sup> Uriel was the leader of the descendants of Kohath, and there were a hundred and twenty of his relatives. <sup>6</sup> Asaiah was the leader of the descendants of Merari, and there were two hundred and twenty of his relatives. <sup>7</sup> Joel was the leader of the descendants of Gershon, and there were one hundred and thirty of his relatives. <sup>8</sup> Shemaiah was the leader of the descendants of Eli-Zaphan, and there were two hundred of his relatives. <sup>9</sup> Eliel was the leader of the descendants of Hebron and there were eighty of his relatives. <sup>10</sup> Amminadab was the leader of the descendants of Uzziel, and there were one hundred and twelve of his relatives. <sup>11</sup> David summoned the priests, Zadok and Abiathar, and the Levites Uriel, Asaiah, Joel, Shemaiah, Eliel and Amminadab. <sup>12</sup> He told them: “You are the leaders of the paternal families of the Levites. You and your relatives, consecrate yourselves, that you may bring up the Ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it! <sup>13</sup> Because you were not here the first time, the LORD, our God, broke out against us. For we had not consulted Him about doing it in the prescribed way.”

<sup>14</sup> So, the priests and the Levites consecrated themselves to bring up the Ark of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>15</sup> The Levites carried the Ark of God with the poles on their shoulders, as Moses had commanded, according to the Word of the LORD. <sup>16</sup> David also commanded the leaders of the Levites to appoint their relatives to be singers who should play loudly on musical instruments, on harps, lyres and cymbals, to produce loud and joyful sounds. <sup>17</sup> So, the Levites appointed Heman, the son of Joel and Asaph, the son of Berechiah, from his relatives. From their relatives who were the descendants of Merari they appointed Ethan, the son of Kushaiah. <sup>18</sup> They appointed with them their relatives next in rank, Zechariah, Ben-Jaaziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattithiah, Eliphelehu and Mikneiah and Obed-Edom and Jeiel as the gatekeepers. <sup>19</sup> The singers, Heman, Asaph and Ethan, were to make music with bronze cymbals. <sup>20</sup> Zechariah, Aziel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Unni, Eliab, Maaseiah and Benaiah were to play harps according to Alamoth. <sup>21</sup> Mattithiah, Eliphelehu, Mikneiah, Obed-Edom, Jeiel and Azariah were to lead the music with lyres according to the Sheminith. <sup>22</sup> Chenaniah was a leader of the Levites in setting the pitch in the singing. He gave instruction in the pitch, because he was skilled at it. <sup>23</sup> Berechiah and Elkanah were to be doorkeepers for the Ark. <sup>24</sup> Shebaniah, Joshaphat, Nethanel, Amasai, Zechariah, Benaiah and Eliezer, the priests, were to blow the trumpets before the Ark of God. Obed-Edom and Jehiah were also to be doorkeepers for the Ark. <sup>25</sup> So, David, the elders of Israel and the commanders of units of a thousand went to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD from the house of Obed-Edom with rejoicing. <sup>26</sup> Because God helped the Levites who were carrying the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD, they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. <sup>27</sup> David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and so were all the Levites who were carrying the Ark, as well as the singers and Chenaniah, the leader who set the pitch for the singers. David wore a linen priestly garment. <sup>28</sup> All Israel brought up the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD with joyful shouting, with the sounding of rams’ horns, trumpets and cymbals and made loud music on harps and lyres. <sup>29</sup> When the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD came to the City of David, Michal, Saul’s daughter, looked down through a window and, when she saw King David dancing and rejoicing, she heartily despised him.

16

The placing of the Ark in the tent at Jerusalem — 2 Samuel 6:17-19

<sup>1</sup> They brought in the Ark of God and set it inside the tent that David had pitched for it. Then they offered burnt offerings and peace-offerings before God. <sup>2</sup> When David had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and the peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. <sup>3</sup> He also distributed to every man and woman in Israel a loaf of bread, a cake of dates and a cake of raisins. <sup>4</sup> Then he appointed some of the Levites to minister before the Ark of the LORD, to make invocations and to thank and praise the LORD, the God of Israel.

The leading of worship at Jerusalem by the Levites — 2 Samuel 6:19-20

<sup>5</sup> Asaph was the leader, and next to him were Zechariah, Jeiel, Shemiramoth, Jehiel, Mattithiah, Eliab, Benaiah, Obed-Edom and Jeiel. They were to play harps and lyres, and Asaph was to sound the cymbals. <sup>6</sup> The priests, Benaiah and Jahaziel, were to blow trumpets regularly before the Ark of the Covenant of God.

David’s psalm of thanksgiving — Psalm 105:1-15, Psalm 96:2-13, Psalm 106:1, 47-48

<sup>7</sup> On that day David for the first time entrusted to Asaph and his relatives, as the leaders, the task of giving thanks to the LORD:

<sup>8</sup> “Give thanks to the LORD! Call on His name! Make known among the peoples what He has done!

<sup>9</sup> “Sing to Him! Sing praises to Him! Give attention to all His marvellous deeds!

<sup>10</sup> “Glory in His holy name! Let the hearts of those who search for the LORD rejoice!

<sup>11</sup> “Try to find the LORD and His strength! Search for His face constantly!

<sup>12</sup> “Remember His marvellous deeds, which He has done, His omens and the Decisions that He has uttered, <sup>13</sup> descendants of His servant Israel, descendants of Jacob, His chosen ones!

<sup>14</sup> “He is the LORD, our God. His Decisions are in all the earth.

<sup>15</sup> “Remember His Covenant for ever, the Word that He has commanded, for a thousand generations, <sup>16</sup> the Covenant that He has made with Abraham and His oath to Isaac!

<sup>17</sup> “He has confirmed it as a Prescription for Jacob, as an everlasting Covenant for Israel, <sup>18</sup> saying, ‘I shall give you the land of Canaan as the region that you will inherit,’ <sup>19</sup> when you were few in number, few indeed and living in it as foreigners.

<sup>20</sup> “They wandered from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another nation.

<sup>21</sup> “He permitted no one to oppress them and reprovved kings because of them: <sup>22</sup> ‘Do not touch My anointed ones and do My prophets no harm!’

<sup>23</sup> “Sing to the LORD, all the earth! Proclaim the good news of His salvation from day to day!

<sup>24</sup> “Declare His glory among the nations, His marvelous deeds among all the peoples!

<sup>25</sup> “For the LORD is great and very worthy of praise. He should be feared above all gods.

<sup>26</sup> “For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD has made the heavens.

<sup>27</sup> “Splendour and grandeur are before Him. Strength and joy are in His place.

<sup>28</sup> “Give to the LORD, families of the peoples, give to the LORD glory and strength!

<sup>29</sup> “Give to the LORD the glory due to His name! Bring an offering and come before Him! Worship the LORD in holy grandeur!

<sup>30</sup> “Tremble before Him, all the earth! Yes, the world will be firmly established. It will not totter.

<sup>31</sup> “Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad! Let people say among the nations, ‘The LORD has been reigning!’

<sup>32</sup> “Let the sea and all its fullness roar like thunder! Let the field and all that is in it be jubilant!

<sup>33</sup> “Then all the trees of the forest will shout with joy before the LORD. For He is coming to judge the earth.

<sup>34</sup> “Give thanks to the LORD, for He is good, for His mercy endures for ever!

<sup>35</sup> “Say also: ‘Save us, O God of our salvation! Gather and deliver us from the nations, that we may give thanks to Your holy name and pride ourselves in praising You!’

<sup>36</sup> “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting to everlasting!”

Then all the people said, “Amen!” and “Praise to the LORD!”

The regular worship at Jerusalem

<sup>37</sup> David left Asaph and his relatives there before the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD to minister regularly before the Ark, as they were needed every day.

<sup>38</sup> He also left Obed-Edom and sixty-eight of their other relatives there. Obed-Edom, the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah were gatekeepers. <sup>39</sup> He left Zadok, the priest, and his relatives, the other priests, before the Tabernacle of the LORD at the high place in Gibeon.

<sup>40</sup> They were to offer burnt offerings to the LORD regularly morning and evening on the altar of burnt offering, in accordance with everything that had been written in the Law of the LORD, which He had commanded for Israel. <sup>41</sup> With them were Heman, Jeduthun and the rest of those who had been chosen and designated by name to give thanks to the LORD, because His mercy endures for ever. <sup>42</sup> Heman and Jeduthun were with them to play trumpets, cymbals and other instruments for sacred songs. The sons of Jeduthun were at the gate. <sup>43</sup> Then all the people went to their own homes. David also went back to bless his family.

17

*David's wish to build the Temple and God's Covenant with him—
2 Samuel 7:1-17*

<sup>1</sup> When David settled in his house he told the prophet Nathan, “Look! I am living in a house of cedar, while the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD remains inside the curtains of a tent.”

<sup>2</sup> Nathan told David, “Do whatever you have in mind! For God is with you.”

<sup>3</sup> However, that same night the Word of God came to Nathan, <sup>4</sup> “Go and tell My servant David: ‘This is what the LORD has said: “You are not the one who will build Me the house to dwell in. <sup>5</sup> For I have not lived in a house since I brought the Israelites up until this time but have been from one tent to another and from one Tabernacle to another. <sup>6</sup> Wherever I have moved about with all Israel, have I ever spoken a Word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I had commanded to shepherd My people, to ask: ‘Why have you not built a house of cedar for Me?’” <sup>7</sup> Now therefore, this is what you shall tell My servant David: ‘This is what the LORD of hosts has said: “I have taken you from the pasture where you were following the sheep to be a leader over My people Israel. <sup>8</sup> I have been with you wherever you have gone and have cut off all your enemies who were in front of you. I shall make a name for you, like the names of the greatest men on the earth. <sup>9</sup> I shall provide a place for My people Israel and plant them, that they may live in a place of their own and not be disturbed any longer. Wicked people will no longer wipe them out as they used to do at the beginning, <sup>10</sup> since the time when I appointed judges over My people Israel. I shall subdue all your enemies. I am also informing you that the LORD will build a house for you. <sup>11</sup> When your time has come to an end and you go to be with your ancestors, I shall raise up your Descendant after you, who will be one of your own offspring, and shall establish

His kingdom. <sup>12</sup> He will build a house for Me, and I shall establish His throne for ever. <sup>13</sup> I shall be His Father, and He will be My Son. I shall not take My faithful love away from Him as I took it away from your predecessor. <sup>14</sup> I shall set Him over My house and My kingdom for ever. His throne will be established for ever.””

<sup>15</sup> Nathan told David all these Words, exactly as everything had been revealed in the vision.

David's prayer in response to the Messianic promise — 2 Samuel 7:18-29

<sup>16</sup> Then King David went in and sat down before the LORD. He asked: “Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my family, that You have brought me as far as this? <sup>17</sup> Moreover, You have considered this a small thing, O God. You have also spoken about the distant future of Your servant's family and have looked on me as a man of exalted rank, O LORD God. <sup>18</sup> What more, then, can David say to You for honouring Your servant? Indeed, You Yourself know Your servant. <sup>19</sup> O LORD, You have brought about all this greatness for the sake of Your servant and according to Your own will and so You are making all these great things known to Your servant. <sup>20</sup> O LORD, there is no one like You, and there is no other God except You, exactly as we have heard with our own ears. <sup>21</sup> Moreover, who is like Your people Israel? It is the one nation on the earth that God came to redeem to be His own people and to make a name for Yourself by great and awesome deeds, by driving out nations from before Your people, whom You have redeemed from Egypt. <sup>22</sup> You have established Your people Israel for Yourself, to be Your very own people for ever. You, O LORD, have become their God. <sup>23</sup> Now therefore, O LORD, let the promise that You have made about Your servant and about his house be established for ever! Do also as You have promised, <sup>24</sup> that Your name may be established and be great for ever, when people say, ‘The LORD of hosts, the God over Israel, is Israel's God!’ Then the house of Your servant David will be established in Your presence. <sup>25</sup> For You, my God, have revealed it for Your servant to hear, that You will build a house for him. That is why I, Your servant, have found the courage to pray before You. <sup>26</sup> Now therefore, O LORD, You are God and have promised this good thing to Your servant. <sup>27</sup> Now therefore, You have been intent on blessing the house of Your servant, that it may continue in Your presence for ever. For You, O LORD, have blessed it, and it will be blessed for ever.”

18

The establishment and extension of David's kingdom — 2 Samuel 8:1-14

<sup>1</sup> After this, David defeated the Philistines and made them his subjects. He also took Gath and its villages away from the control of the Philistines. <sup>2</sup> When he defeated Moab, the Moabites became subject to David and paid taxes to him. <sup>3</sup> David also defeated Hadadezer, the king of Zobah, as far as Hamath, when he went to establish his control at the Euphrates River.

<sup>4</sup> David captured from him one-thousand chariots, seven-thousand horsemen and twenty-thousand foot-soldiers. David cut the leg tendons of all the chariot-horses but left enough for a hundred chariots. <sup>5</sup> When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer, the king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand Arameans. <sup>6</sup> Then David put garrisons among the Arameans around Damascus, and the Arameans became subjects of David and paid taxes to him. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went. <sup>7</sup> David took the golden shields that belonged to the officials of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8</sup> David also took a very large quantity of bronze from Tebah and Cun, cities that belonged to Hadadezer. Solomon used it to make the bronze pool, the pillars and the bronze utensils. <sup>9</sup> When Tou, the king of Hamath, heard that David had defeated the whole army of Hadadezer, the king of Zobah, <sup>10</sup> he sent his son Hadoram to King David, to ask about his health and to congratulate him for his victory in battle over Hadadezer. For Hadadezer had often been at war against Tou. Hadoram brought all kinds of articles of gold, silver and bronze. <sup>11</sup> King David also dedicated these articles to the LORD, together with the silver and gold that he had carried off from all the other nations, from Edom, Moab, the Ammonites, the Philistines and Amalek. <sup>12</sup> Abishai, the son of Zeruiah, also struck down eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt. <sup>13</sup> Then he put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became subjects to David. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went.

David's officials — 2 Samuel 8:15-18

<sup>14</sup> So, David reigned over all Israel, doing what was just and right for all his people. <sup>15</sup> Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was the commander of the army and Jehoshaphat, the son of Ahilud, was the recorder. <sup>16</sup> Zadok, the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech, the son of Abiathar, were the priests and Shavsha was the secretary. <sup>17</sup> Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was in charge of the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and David's sons were chief ministers at the king's side.

19

David's victory over Ammon and Aram — 2 Samuel 10:1-19

<sup>1</sup> After this, Nahash, the king of the Ammonites, died, and his son succeeded him as king. <sup>2</sup> David thought, “I shall treat Hanun, the son of Nahash, kindly as his father has been treating me kindly.”

So, David sent messengers to express sympathy to him concerning his father. David's officials came to Hanun in the land of the Ammonites, to express sympathy to him. <sup>3</sup> However, the princes of the Ammonites asked Hanun: “Do you think that David is honouring your father, because he has sent men to you to express sympathy? Have his officials not come to you to investigate, to overthrow and to spy out the land?”

<sup>4</sup> So, Hanun took David's officials, shaved them, cut

their garments off in the middle, at their hips and sent them away. <sup>5</sup> When some people came and told David about the men, he sent men to meet them, for those men were deeply humiliated. The king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown and then come back!"

<sup>6</sup> When the Ammonites realised that they had made themselves offensive to David, Hanun and the Ammonites sent thirty-five thousand kilograms of silver to hire chariots and horsemen for themselves from Mesopotamia, from Aram-Maacah and from Zobah.

<sup>7</sup> They also hired thirty-two thousand chariots, as well as the king of Maacah with his army, came and encamped in front of Medeba. Then the Ammonites were mustered from their cities and came for the battle. <sup>8</sup> When David heard about it, he sent Joab out with the whole army of warriors. <sup>9</sup> The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance of the city, and the kings who had come were by themselves in the open country. <sup>10</sup> When Joab saw that the line of battle was set against him both in front and in the rear, he selected some of the best soldiers in Israel and deployed them against the Arameans. <sup>11</sup> He put the rest of the army under the command of his brother Abishai, and they deployed them against the Ammonites. <sup>12</sup> Joab said: "If the Arameans are too strong for me, you shall come to rescue me! However, if the Ammonites are too strong for you, I shall rescue you. <sup>13</sup> Be brave and let us show ourselves courageous for our people and for the cities of our God! Then the LORD will do what He considers good."

<sup>14</sup> Then Joab and the troops who were with him advanced toward the Arameans to fight them, and they fled before him. <sup>15</sup> When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans had fled, they also fled from Joab's brother Abishai and went inside the city. Then Joab went back to Jerusalem. <sup>16</sup> However, when the Arameans saw that Israel had defeated them, they sent messengers and had Arameans brought from beyond the River, with Shophach the commander of the army of Hadadezer leading them. <sup>17</sup> When David was told about this, he gathered all Israel together, crossed the Jordan, advanced against them and drew up his forces against them. When David formed his lines to meet the Arameans in battle, they fought against him. <sup>18</sup> The Arameans fled from Israel, and David killed seven-thousand of their charioteers and forty-thousand foot-soldiers. He also killed Shophach, the commander of their army. <sup>19</sup> When the vassals of Hadadezer saw that Israel had defeated them, they made peace with David and became subject to him. The Arameans refused to come to rescue the Ammonites again.

20

The defeat of the Ammonites and the capture of Rabbah — 2 Samuel 11:1, 12:26-31

<sup>1</sup> In the spring of the year, at the time when kings go out to battle, Joab led out the armed forces. He ravaged the country of the Ammonites, went to Rabbah and besieged it. While David remained at Jerusalem, Joab defeated Rabbah and demolished it. <sup>2</sup> David took the crown from the head of their king. He found that it weighed thirty-five kilograms. It was made of gold and had a precious stone in it. It was placed on David's head. He also took a very great quantity of plunder out of the city.

<sup>3</sup> He brought out the people who were in it, consigned them to labour with saws, iron picks and stone-cutting tools and transferred them to moulding bricks. David did this to all the cities of the Ammonites. Then David and the whole army returned to Jerusalem.

The renewed war against the Philistines — 2 Samuel 21:15-22

<sup>4</sup> After this, war broke out with the Philistines at Gezer. Then Sibbecai the Hushathite struck down Sippai, who was one of the descendants of the Rephaites, and the Philistines were subjugated. <sup>5</sup> When there was another battle against the Philistines, Elhanan, the son of Jair, struck down Lahmi, the brother of Goliath from Gath. The shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam. <sup>6</sup> When there was another battle at Gath, there was a huge man who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six on each hand and six on each foot. He also was descended from Rapha. <sup>7</sup> When he insulted Israel, Jonathan, the son of Shimea, David's brother, struck him down. <sup>8</sup> These were descended from the Rephaites at Gath and fell by the hands of David and his servants.

21

David's census of his soldiers and the plague — 2 Samuel 24:1-17

<sup>1</sup> Satan stood up against Israel and incited David to count the people of Israel. <sup>2</sup> David told Joab and the other commanders of the army, "Go and count the Israelites from Beer-Sheba to Dan and bring me a report, that I may know how many there are!"

<sup>3</sup> However, Joab replied: "May the LORD increase His people a hundred times more than they are! O king, my master, are not all of them the subjects of my master? Why does my master want to do this? Why should he bring guilt on Israel?"

<sup>4</sup> However, the king's order overruled Joab. So, Joab left and went throughout Israel and then came back to Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> When Joab reported to David the total of the people who had been counted, there were in all Israel one million one hundred thousand men who could draw a sword, including four hundred and seventy thousand in Judah who could draw a sword.

<sup>6</sup> Moreover, Joab had not counted Levi and Benjamin among them, for the king's command had been disgusting to Joab. <sup>7</sup> However, God regarded this activity as evil and struck Israel. <sup>8</sup> David said to God: "I have sinned greatly by doing this. However, now, please take away the guilt of Your servant! For I have been behaving very foolishly."

<sup>9</sup> Then the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer: <sup>10</sup> "Go and tell David, 'This is what the LORD has said: "I am laying three options before you. Choose one of them for Me to carry out against you!””

<sup>11</sup> When Gad came to David he told him: “This is what the LORD has said, ‘Make your choice: <sup>12</sup> either three years of famine or three months during which your foes will sweep you away before them while the swords of your enemies overtake you or three days of the sword of the LORD, a plague on the country, with the angel of the LORD working destruction throughout the territory of Israel!’ Now therefore, consider which answer I should take back to the One who has sent me!”

<sup>13</sup> Then David told Gad: “I am in great trouble. Please let me fall into the hands of the LORD! For He is exceedingly merciful; but may I not fall into the hands of human beings!”

<sup>14</sup> So, the LORD sent a plague on Israel, and seventy thousand men of Israel died. <sup>15</sup> God sent the angel to Jerusalem to destroy it but, when he was about to destroy it, the LORD looked and relented from the calamity. He told the angel, who was working destruction: “It is enough! Now drop your hand!”

The angel of the LORD was standing at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>16</sup> When David looked up, he saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and heaven, with his drawn sword in his hand extended over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, covered with sackcloth, fell face-down. <sup>17</sup> David said to God: “Have not I myself given the order to number the soldiers? I myself have sinned and done great evil. However, what have these sheep done? O LORD, my God, please let Your hand be against me and against my father’s family! However, do not let the plague be on Your people!”

The building of an altar to God at the threshing floor of Araunah — 2 Samuel 24:18-25

<sup>18</sup> The angel of the LORD commanded Gad to tell David that David should go up and set up an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Ornan*<sup>110</sup> the Jebusite. <sup>19</sup> According to what Gad had said when he had spoken in the name of the LORD, David went up. <sup>20</sup> While Ornan was threshing wheat, he turned around and saw the angel. His four sons, who were with him, hid themselves. <sup>21</sup> When David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David. Ornan went out from the threshing floor and respectfully bowed down before David with his face to the ground. <sup>22</sup> David asked Ornan: “Give me the site of the threshing floor that I may build an altar to the LORD on it! Sell it to me at its full price, that the plague on the people may be stopped!”

<sup>23</sup> Then Ornan told David: “Take it and let my master, the king, do what he thinks is right! Look! I have donated the oxen for the burnt offerings, the threshing sledges for the wood and the wheat for the grain-offering. I have donated it all.”

<sup>24</sup> However, King David told Ornan: “No! Rather, I shall certainly buy it for the full price. For I shall not take what belongs to you for the LORD or offer burnt offerings that have not cost me anything.”

<sup>25</sup> So, David paid Ornan by weight seven kilograms and two hundred grams of gold for the place. <sup>26</sup> David built an altar to the LORD there, sacrificed burnt offerings and peace-offerings and called on the LORD, and He answered him with fire from heaven on the altar of burnt offering. <sup>27</sup> Then the LORD spoke to the angel, and he put His sword back in its scabbard.

The choice of a place for the Temple

<sup>28</sup> At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he offered sacrifices there. <sup>29</sup> The Tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gibeon. <sup>30</sup> However, David could not go before it to inquire of God, for the sword of the angel of the LORD terrified him.

22

<sup>1</sup> Then David said, “This is where the Temple of the LORD God shall be and this is where the altar of burnt offering for Israel shall be.”

David’s preparations to help Solomon build the Temple

<sup>2</sup> David gave orders to gather together the resident-foreigners who were in the land of Israel and appointed stonecutters to prepare dressed stones to build the Temple of God. <sup>3</sup> David also provided great quantities of iron for nails for the doors of the gates and for clamps, as well as more bronze than could be weighed. <sup>4</sup> He also provided more cedar logs than could be counted, because the men of Sidon and Tyre brought large quantities of cedar-wood to David. <sup>5</sup> For David said: “My son Solomon is young and inexperienced, and the Temple that will be built for the LORD must be exceedingly magnificent, famous and splendid throughout all other countries. I should like to prepare for it.”

So, David prepared extensively before he died.

David’s instructions to Solomon and the leaders

<sup>6</sup> Then he called for his son Solomon and charged him to build a Temple for the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>7</sup> David told Solomon: “My son, I myself had intended to build a Temple for the name of the LORD, my God. <sup>8</sup> However, the Word of the LORD came to me: ‘You have shed much blood and have fought great wars. You shall not build a Temple for My name! For you have shed so much blood on the earth in My sight. <sup>9</sup> Look! You will have a son who will be a man of peace. I shall give him rest from all his surrounding enemies. For his name will be Solomon,<sup>111</sup> and I shall give peace and tranquillity to Israel in his time.

<sup>10</sup> He will build a Temple for My name. He will be My son, and I shall be his Father and establish the throne of His kingdom over Israel for ever.’<sup>11</sup> Now, my son, may the LORD be with you, that you may be successful and build the Temple of the LORD, your God, just as He has promised about you!<sup>12</sup> Only may the LORD give you discretion and understanding, that, when He gives you charge over Israel, you may keep the Law of the LORD, your God!<sup>13</sup> Then you will be successful if you are careful to observe the Prescriptions and the Decisions that the LORD commanded Moses for Israel. Be strong and courageous! Do not be afraid or discouraged!<sup>14</sup> You see, with great pains I have provided for the Temple of the LORD three million five hundred thousand kilograms of gold, thirty-five million kilograms of silver and quantities of bronze and iron that are too great to be weighed, for there has been so much of it. I have also prepared timber and stones, and you may add to these.<sup>15</sup> You have many workmen: stonemasons, masons, carpenters and all kinds of craftsmen for every kind of work.<sup>16</sup> There is more gold, silver, bronze and iron than can be counted. Take action and work, and may the LORD be with you!”

<sup>110</sup> Araunah was also called “Ornan”

<sup>111</sup> Solomon means, “Peaceable.”

<sup>17</sup> David also commanded all the leaders of Israel to help his son Solomon:<sup>18</sup> “Is not the LORD, your God with you? Has He not given you peace on every side? For He has delivered the people who live in this country into my hands, and the land has been brought into subjection before the LORD and His people.<sup>19</sup> Now set your hearts and souls to search for the LORD, your God! Take action and build the sanctuary of the LORD God, that you may bring the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD and the sacred articles of God into the Temple, which will be built for the name of the LORD!”

23

The organisation of the Levites for service at the Temple

<sup>1</sup> When David was old after a long life, he made his son Solomon king over Israel.<sup>2</sup> David gathered all the leaders of Israel as well as the priests and the Levites.<sup>3</sup> The Levites who were thirty years old or more were counted and the number of individual men was thirty-eight thousand.<sup>4</sup> David said: “Twenty-four thousand of these shall supervise the work in the Temple of the LORD and six thousand shall be officers and judges!<sup>5</sup> Four thousand shall be gatekeepers and four thousand shall be men who praise the LORD, using the instruments that I have made for giving praise!”<sup>6</sup> David organised them in divisions corresponding to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

The descendants of Gershon

<sup>7</sup> Ladan and Shimei had been the sons of Gershon.<sup>8</sup> The three sons of Ladan had been Jehiel, the first, and then Zetham and Joel.<sup>9</sup> The three sons of Shimei had been Shelomoth, Haziël and Haran. These were the heads of the paternal families of Ladan.<sup>10</sup> The sons of Shimei had been Jahath, Zina, Jeush and Beriah. These had been the four sons of Shimei.

<sup>11</sup> Jahath had been the first, and Zizah was the second. However, Jeush and Beriah had not had many sons and so they were assigned responsibility as a single paternal family.

The descendants of Kohath

<sup>12</sup> The four sons of Kohath had been Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.<sup>13</sup> The sons of Amram had been Aaron and Moses. Aaron had been set apart to consecrate the most holy things, that he and his descendants might for ever offer sacrifices before the LORD, minister to Him and pronounce blessings in His name for ever.<sup>14</sup> Moreover, the sons of Moses, the man of God, had been reckoned as part of the tribe of Levi.<sup>15</sup> The sons of Moses had been Gershom and Eliezer.<sup>16</sup> Shebuel had been the first of the sons of Gershom.<sup>17</sup> The first son of Eliezer had been Rehabiah. Eliezer had had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah had been very numerous.<sup>18</sup> The first of the sons of Izhar had been Shelomith.<sup>19</sup> The sons of Hebron had been Jeriah the first, Amariah, the second, Jahaziel, the third and Jekameam, the fourth.<sup>20</sup> The sons of Uzziel had been Micah, the first, and Jisshiah the second.

The descendants of Merari

<sup>21</sup> The sons of Merari had been Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli had been Eleazar and Kish.<sup>22</sup> Eleazar had died without having sons but only daughters. Their relatives, the sons of Kish, had married them.<sup>23</sup> The three sons of Mushi had been Mahli, Eder and Jeremoth.

<sup>24</sup> These had been the descendants of Levi by their paternal families, the leaders of the paternal families as they were registered according to the number of the names of the individuals from twenty years old or more. They were to do the work for the service of the Temple of the LORD.<sup>25</sup> For David had said: “The LORD, the God of Israel, has given rest to His people and has begun to dwell in Jerusalem for ever.<sup>26</sup> The Levites no longer need to carry the Tabernacle or any of the equipment used in its service.”

<sup>27</sup> For according to the last instructions of David the descendants of Levi from twenty years old or more were counted.<sup>28</sup> Indeed, their duty was to assist the descendants of Aaron in the service of the Temple of the LORD. They were in charge of the courts, the side-rooms, the cleaning of all the sacred things and any other work in the service of the Temple of God.<sup>29</sup> Their duty was also to assist with the bread that was set out, the flour for the grain-offerings, the thin cakes of bread baked without yeast, the flat baking pans, the offering mixed with oil and all kinds of measures of quantity and size.<sup>30</sup> Their duty was also to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD. They were to do the same in the evening.<sup>31</sup> They were also to be before the LORD constantly whenever burnt offerings were sacrificed to the LORD on Sabbaths, New Moons and appointed feasts, in the required number and in the manner prescribed for them.<sup>32</sup> The Levites carried out their responsibility for the Tent of Meeting and for the Holy Place and their responsibility to their relatives, the descendants of Aaron, in the service of the Temple of the LORD.

24

The organisation of the divisions of the priests

<sup>1</sup> These were the divisions of the sons of Aaron: The sons of Aaron had been Nadab, Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>2</sup> However, Nadab and Abihu had died before their father did and had no children. So, Eleazar and Ithamar had served as the priests. <sup>3</sup> With the help of Zadok, one of the descendants of Eleazar, and Ahimelech, one of the descendants of Ithamar, David put them in divisions according to their appointed duties in their service. <sup>4</sup> Since a larger number of leaders were found among Eleazar's descendants than among Ithamar's, they allocated them in such a way that Eleazar's descendants had sixteen leaders of paternal families, and Ithamar's descendants had eight leaders of paternal families. <sup>5</sup> They put them into divisions impartially by lot. For there were officials of the sanctuary and officials of God among both the descendants of Eleazar and the descendants of Ithamar. <sup>6</sup> The scribe Shemaiah, the son of Nethanel, a Levite, recorded them in the presence of the king, the princes, Zadok, the priest, Ahimelech, the son of Abiathar, and the leaders of the paternal families of the priests and of the Levites. One paternal family was chosen for Eleazar, and then one was chosen for Ithamar. <sup>7</sup> The first lot that came out was for Jehoiarib, the second for Jedaiah, <sup>8</sup> the third for Harim, the fourth for Seorim, <sup>9</sup> the fifth for Malchijah, the sixth for Mijamin, <sup>10</sup> the seventh for Hakkoz, the eighth for Abijah, <sup>11</sup> the ninth for Jeshua, the tenth for Shecaniah, <sup>12</sup> the eleventh for Eliashib, the twelfth for Jakim, <sup>13</sup> the thirteenth for Huppah, the fourteenth for Jeshebeab, <sup>14</sup> the fifteenth for Bilgah, the sixteenth for Immer, <sup>15</sup> the seventeenth for Hezir, the eighteenth for Happizzes, <sup>16</sup> the nineteenth for Pethahiah, the twentieth for Jehezkel, <sup>17</sup> the twenty-first for Jachin, the twenty-second for Gamul, <sup>18</sup> the twenty-third for Delaiah and the twenty-fourth for Maaziah. <sup>19</sup> These had their appointed order of their service, so that they came into the Temple of the LORD according to the procedure established for them by their forefather Aaron, as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded him.

The organisation of the rest of the Levites

<sup>20</sup> Concerning the rest of Levi's descendants, there had been Shubael, one of the sons of Amram and Jehdeiah, one of the sons of Shubael. <sup>21</sup> As for Rehabiah, the first of Rehabiah's sons had been Isshiah. <sup>22</sup> There had been Shelomoth, one of Izhar's descendants and Jahath, one of the sons of Shelomoth. <sup>23</sup> Jeriah had been the [first] of [Hebron's] sons, the second had been Amariah, Jahaziel had been the third, and Jekameam had been the fourth. <sup>24</sup> Micah had been one of the sons of Uzziel, and Shamir was one of the sons of Micah. <sup>25</sup> Isshiah had been Micah's brother, and Zechariah had been one of the sons of Isshiah. <sup>26</sup> The sons of Merari had been Mahli and Mushi. Beno had been one of the sons of Jaaziah. <sup>27</sup> Merari's descendants by his son Jaaziah had been Shoham, Zaccur and Ibri. <sup>28</sup> Mahli's son had been Eleazar, but he had no sons. <sup>29</sup> Concerning Kish, Jerahmeel had been one of the sons of Kish. <sup>30</sup> The sons of Mushi had been Mahli, Eder and Jerimoth. These had been the descendants of the Levites according to their paternal families. <sup>31</sup> They also cast lots, exactly as their other relatives who had descended from Aaron had done, in the presence of King David, Zadok, Ahimelech and the leaders of the families of the priests and of the Levites. The families of the eldest brother were treated exactly as those of the youngest.

25

David's appointment of musicians for the Temple

<sup>1</sup> David, together with the commanders of the army, also set apart for the service the sons of Asaph, of Heman and of Jeduthun, to serve as prophets with lyres, harps and cymbals. This is the list of the men who performed this service: <sup>2</sup> Of the sons of Asaph there were Zaccur, Joseph, Nethaniah and Asharelah. The sons of Asaph were under the direction of Asaph, and he prophesied under the direction of the king. <sup>3</sup> Concerning Jeduthun, the six sons of Jeduthun were Gedaliah, Zeri, Jeshiah, Shimei, Hashabiah and Mattithiah. They were under the direction of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with the lyre in thanksgiving and praise to the LORD. <sup>4</sup> Concerning Heman, the sons of Heman were Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, Romamti-Ezer, Josh-bekashah, Mallothi, Hothir and Mahazioth. <sup>5</sup> All these were the sons of Heman, the king's seer. They were given to him according to God's promises to exalt him. For God had given Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. <sup>6</sup> All these men were under the direction of their fathers as they sang in the Temple of the LORD, with cymbals, harps and lyres, for the service at the Temple of God. Asaph, Jeduthun and Heman were under the direction of the king. <sup>7</sup> They, together with their relatives, who had been trained in singing to the LORD, all who were skilful, numbered two hundred and eighty-eight. <sup>8</sup> Young and old alike, teachers as well as students, they cast lots for their duties. <sup>9</sup> The first lot, which was for Asaph, came out for Joseph. The second came out for Gedaliah. He, his brothers and his sons numbered twelve. <sup>10</sup> The third came out for Zaccur. He, his sons and his brothers numbered twelve. <sup>11</sup> The fourth came out for Jizri. He, his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>12</sup> The fifth came out for Nethaniah. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>13</sup> The sixth came out for Bukkiah. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>14</sup> The seventh came out for Jesharelah. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>15</sup> The eighth came out for Jeshaiiah. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>16</sup> The ninth came out for Mattaniah. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>17</sup> The tenth came out for Shimei. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>18</sup> The eleventh came out for Azarel. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>19</sup> The twelfth came out for Hashabiah. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>20</sup> The thirteenth came out for Shubael. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>21</sup> The fourteenth came out for Mattithiah. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>22</sup> The fifteenth came out for Jeremoth. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>23</sup> The sixteenth came out for Hananiah. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>24</sup> The seventeenth came out for Joshbekashah. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>25</sup> The eighteenth came out for Hanani. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>26</sup> The nineteenth came out for Mallothi. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>27</sup> The twentieth came out for Eliathah. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>28</sup> The twenty-first came out for Hothir. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>29</sup> The twenty-second came out for Giddalti. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>30</sup> The twenty-third came out for Mahazioth. He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve. <sup>31</sup> The twenty-fourth came out for Romamti-Ezer: He with his sons and relatives numbered twelve.

26

The appointment of gatekeepers for the Temple

<sup>1</sup> The divisions of the gatekeepers were as follows: Among the descendants of Korah there was Meshelemiah, the son of Kore, one of the descendants of Asaph. <sup>2</sup> Meshelemiah had sons. His first-born was Zechariah, Jediael was the second, Zebadiah was the third, Jathniel was the fourth, <sup>3</sup> Elam was the fifth, Jehohanan was the sixth, and Elyehoenai was the seventh. <sup>4</sup> Obed-Edom had sons. Shemaiah was his first-born, Jehozabad was the second, Joah was the third, Sachar was the fourth, Nethanel was the fifth, <sup>5</sup> Ammiel was the sixth, Issachar was the seventh and Peullethai was the eighth. For God had blessed him. <sup>6</sup> His son Shemaiah also had sons, who were leaders of their paternal family, because they were very capable men. <sup>7</sup> The sons of Shemaiah were Othni, Rephail, Obed and El-Zabad. His relatives Elihu and Semachiah were capable men. <sup>8</sup> All these were descendants of Obed-Edom. They, their sons and their other relatives were capable men, with the strength to carry out the service. <sup>9</sup> Meshelemiah had sons and brothers, who were eighteen capable men. <sup>10</sup> Hosah, one of the descendants of Merari, had sons: Shimri was the first, for, although he had not been the first-born, his father had appointed him as the first. <sup>11</sup> Hilkiyah was the second, Tebaliah was the third and Zechariah was the fourth. There were, in all, thirteen sons and other relatives of Hosah. <sup>12</sup> These divisions of the gatekeepers, listed by their chief men, had duties as they ministered in the Temple of the LORD, just as their other relatives had. <sup>13</sup> Young and old alike, they cast lots for each gate, according to their paternal families. <sup>14</sup> The lot for the eastern side fell to Shelemiah. They cast lots also for his son Zechariah, a wise counsellor, and his lot came out for the northern side. <sup>15</sup> Obed-Edom's lot came out for the southern side, and the lot for the storehouse fell to his sons. <sup>16</sup> The lots for the western side and the Shallecheth Gate on the ascending road fell to Shuppim and Hosah. One guarding division was beside another. <sup>17</sup> On the eastern side there were the six Levites, on the northern side there were four each day, on the southern side there were four each day and there were two at a time at the storehouse. <sup>18</sup> For the court on the western side there were four at the road and two at the court itself. <sup>19</sup> These were the divisions of the gatekeepers, who were the descendants of Korah and Merari.

The allocation of other Levites as treasurers for the Temple and judges <sup>20</sup> Among the other Levites, Ahijah was in charge of the treasuries of the Temple of God and of the treasuries of the dedicated gifts. <sup>21</sup> The descendants of Ladan, who were descendants of Gershon through Ladan and who were the heads of the paternal families belonging to Ladan, the descendant of Gershon, were Jehieli, <sup>22</sup> and the sons of Jehieli, Zetham and his brother Joel. They were in charge of the treasuries of the Temple of the LORD. <sup>23</sup> Belonging to the descendants of Amram, of Izhar, of Hebron and of Uzziel <sup>24</sup> there was Shebuel, a descendant of Gershom, who had been the son of Moses. He was the chief officer in charge of the treasuries. <sup>25</sup> His relatives through Eliezer had been his son Rehabiah, his son Jeshaiiah, his son Joram, his son Zichri and his son Shelomoth. <sup>26</sup> This Shelomoth and his relatives were in charge of all the treasuries for the dedicated gifts that King David, the heads of the paternal families, the officers of the units of a thousand and units of a hundred and the other commanders of the army had dedicated. <sup>27</sup> They had dedicated some of the plunder taken in battles to maintain the Temple of the LORD. <sup>28</sup> There was also everything that Samuel the seer, Saul, the son of Kish, Abner, the son of Ner, and Joab, the son of Zeruihah, had dedicated. All such dedicated gifts were in the care of Shelomoth and his relatives.

The allocation of Levites to oversee the worship of Israel

<sup>29</sup> Among the descendants of Izhar there were Chenaniah and his sons. They were employed in external duties, as officers and judges over Israel. <sup>30</sup> Among the descendants of Hebron there were Hashabiah and his relatives, one thousand, seven hundred capable men. They were responsible for the administration of Israel on the western side of the Jordan in connection with all the work of the LORD and the service of the king. <sup>31</sup> Among the descendants of Hebron there was Jerijah. He was the chief of the descendants of Hebron according to the genealogical records of their paternal families. In the fortieth year of David's reign a search was made for them, and capable men were found among them at Jazer in Gilead. <sup>32</sup> Jeriah had two thousand, seven hundred relatives, who were capable men and the leaders of paternal families. King David put them in charge of the descendants of Reuben and Gad and the half-tribe of the descendants of Manasseh in every matter that related to God and the king.

27

The divisions of David's army

<sup>1</sup> This is the list of the Israelites who were the heads of their paternal families, the commanders of units of a thousand and units of a hundred and their officers who used to serve the king in all matters concerning the army divisions. These came on duty and left every month throughout the year. Each division consisted of twenty-four thousand men: <sup>2</sup> Jashobeam, the son of Zabdiel, was in charge of the first division for the first month. There were twenty-four thousand men in his division. <sup>3</sup> He was one of the descendants of Perez and was the chief of all the officers of the army for the first month. <sup>4</sup> Dodai, a descendant of Ahoh, was in charge of the division for the second month. Although it was his division, Mikloth was the commander. There were twenty-four thousand men in his division. <sup>5</sup> Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, the Chief Priest, was the third army commander, for the third month. He was the chief, and there were twenty-four thousand men in his division. <sup>6</sup> This was the Benaiah who was a warrior among the Thirty. He was also in command of the Thirty as well as his division. His son was Ammizabad. <sup>7</sup> Asahel, the brother of Joab, was the fourth, for the fourth month. His son Zebadiah was his successor. There were twenty-four thousand men in his division. <sup>8</sup> Shamhuth, the descendant of Izrah, was the fifth commander, for the fifth month. There were twenty-four thousand men in his division. <sup>9</sup> Ira, the son of Ikkesh from Tekoa, was the sixth, for the sixth month. There were twenty-four thousand men in his division. <sup>10</sup> Helez, the Pelonite, one of the descendants of Ephraim, was the seventh, for the seventh month. There were twenty-four thousand men in his division. <sup>11</sup> Sibbecai, a descendant of Hushah, a Zerahite, was the eighth, for the eighth month. There were twenty-four thousand men in his division. <sup>12</sup> Abiezer from Anathoth, a descendant of Benjamin, was the ninth, for the ninth month. There were twenty-four thousand men in his division. <sup>13</sup> Mahrai from Netophah, a Zerahite, was the tenth, for the tenth month. There were twenty-four thousand men in his division. <sup>14</sup> Benaiah from Pirathon, one of the descendants of Ephraim, was the eleventh, for the eleventh month. There were twenty-four thousand men in his division. <sup>15</sup> Heldai from Netophah, a descendant of Othniel, was the twelfth, for the twelfth month. There were twenty-four thousand men in his division.

The officers over the tribes

<sup>16</sup> There were men in charge of the tribes of Israel. Eliezer, the son of Zichri, was the chief officer in command of the descendants of Reuben. Shephatiah, the son of Maacah, was in command of the descendants of Simeon. <sup>17</sup> Hashabiah, the son of Kemuel, was in command of Levi. Zadok was in command of Aaron. <sup>18</sup> Elihu, one of David's brothers, was in command of Judah. Omri, the son of Michael, was in command of Issachar. <sup>19</sup> Ishmaiah, the son of Obadiah, was in command of Zebulun. Jeremoth, the son of Azriel, was in command of Naphtali. <sup>20</sup> Hoshea, the son of Azaziah, was in command of the descendants of Ephraim. Joel, the son of Pedaiah, was in command of the half-tribe of Manasseh. <sup>21</sup> Iddo, the son of Zechariah, was in command of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead. Jaasiel, the son of Abner, was in command of Benjamin. <sup>22</sup> Azarel, the son of Jeroham, was in command of Dan. These were the officers of the tribes of Israel.

The counting of Israel

<sup>23</sup> David did not count those who were twenty years old or under. For the LORD had promised to make Israel as numerous as the stars in the sky. <sup>24</sup> Joab, the son of Zeruiah, had begun to count but had not finished. Wrath came on Israel for this numbering, and the number was not entered in the annals of King David.

The king's civic officials

<sup>25</sup> Azmaveth, the son of Adiel, was in charge of the royal storehouses. Jonathan, the son of Uzziah, was in charge of the storehouses in the fields, cities, villages and towers. <sup>26</sup> Ezri, the son of Chelub, was in charge of those who worked in the fields cultivating the soil. <sup>27</sup> Shimei from Ramah was in charge of the vineyards and Zabdi from Shepham was in charge of the produce of the vineyards for the wine cellars. <sup>28</sup> Baal-Hanan from Gedor was the supervisor of the olive and sycamore-fig trees in the foothills and Joash was in charge of the stores of olive-oil. <sup>29</sup> Shitrai from Sharon was in charge of the herds grazing in Sharon. Shaphat, the son of Adlai, was in charge of the herds in the valleys. <sup>30</sup> Obil the Ishmaelite was in charge of the camels. Jehdeiah from Meronoth was in charge of the donkeys. <sup>31</sup> Jaziz, a descendant of Hagar, was in charge of the flocks. All these were overseers of King David's property. <sup>32</sup> Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counsellor, a man of insight and a scribe. He and Jehiel, the son of Hachmoni, took care of the king's sons. <sup>33</sup> Ahithophel was the king's adviser and Hushai, a descendant of Archi, was the king's companion. <sup>34</sup> Jehoiada, the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar succeeded Ahithophel. Joab was the commander of the king's army.

28

David's public assembly in Jerusalem and his plans for the Temple

<sup>1</sup> David assembled at Jerusalem all the officials of Israel, the officers over the tribes, the officers of the divisions that served the king, the commanders of units of a thousand, the commanders of units of a hundred, the stewards of all the property and livestock of the king and his sons, as well as the palace-officials, the mighty warriors and all the other brave warriors. <sup>2</sup> Then King David rose to his feet and said: "Listen to me, my relatives and my people! I had dearly wished to build a Temple where the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD might rest to be the footstool of our God and I had prepared to build it. <sup>3</sup> However, God told me, 'You shall not build a Temple for My name! For you are a man of war and have shed blood.' <sup>4</sup> Nevertheless, the LORD, the God of Israel has chosen me from all my father's family to be king over Israel for ever. For He has chosen Judah as leader and my father's house inside the family of Judah and among my father's sons. He has taken pleasure in making me king over all Israel. <sup>5</sup> From all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons) He has also chosen my son Solomon to sit on the throne of the kingdom of the LORD over Israel. <sup>6</sup> He has told me, 'Solomon your son is the one who will build My Temple and My courts. For I have chosen him to be My son and I shall be his Father. <sup>7</sup> I shall establish his kingdom for ever if he is as firm in keeping My Commandments and My Decisions as he is today.' <sup>8</sup> Now therefore, while all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, is watching us and while God is listening to us, observe and search for all the Commandments of the LORD, your God, that you may possess this good land and pass it on as an inheritance to your descendants after you for ever!

David's instructions to Solomon about the Temple

<sup>9</sup> "As for you, my son Solomon, know the God of your father and serve him wholeheartedly and with a willing mind! For the LORD searches all hearts and understands every tendency of thought. If you look for Him, He will let you find Him but, if you forsake Him, He will declare you rejected for ever. <sup>10</sup> Be careful now! For the LORD has chosen you to build a Temple for the sanctuary. Be strong and do it!"

<sup>11</sup> Then David gave his son Solomon the plans of the vestibule of the Temple and of its buildings, its store-rooms, its upper rooms, its inner rooms and of the room for the propitiatory cover. <sup>12</sup> He also gave him the plans of all that the Spirit had put in his mind for the courts of the Temple of the LORD, for all the surrounding side-rooms, for the treasuries of the Temple of God and the treasuries for dedicated gifts. <sup>13</sup> He gave him instructions for the divisions of the priests and of the Levites, for all the work of serving in the Temple of the LORD and for all the articles used in serving in the Temple of the LORD. <sup>14</sup> He gave instructions for the weight of gold for all golden articles to be used for each kind of service and for the weight of all silver articles to be used for each kind of service. <sup>15</sup> He gave instructions for the weight of the golden lampstands and their lamps, the weight of gold for each lampstand and its lamps, for the weight of silver for each lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand in the service. <sup>16</sup> He gave instructions about the weight of gold for the tables for the bread set out in rows, for each table and the silver for the silver tables. <sup>17</sup> He gave instructions for the meat-forks, the bowls used for pouring and the jars of pure gold, for the golden bowls and the weight of each bowl and for the silver bowls and the weight of each bowl. <sup>18</sup> He gave instructions for the altar of incense, made of refined gold, and its weight. He also gave him the plan for the golden chariot, that is, the golden cherubim, which are spreading their wings and covering the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD. <sup>19</sup> David said: "All this I have in writing from the hand of the LORD on me. He made me understand all the work to be done according to the plan."

<sup>20</sup> Then David told his son Solomon: "Be strong and courageous and do it! Do not be afraid or dismayed! For the LORD God, my God, is with you. He will not abandon you or forsake you until you finish all the work for the service of the Temple of the LORD. <sup>21</sup> Here are the divisions of the priests and the Levites for all the service of the Temple of God. You will also have with you every willing man who is skilled in any workmanship. The officers and all the people will also be completely at your command."

29

Gifts for building the Temple

<sup>1</sup> King David told the whole assembly: "My son Solomon, whom alone God has chosen, is young and inexperienced and the work is great. For the Temple will not be for a human being but for the LORD God.

<sup>2</sup> With all my resources I have provided for the Temple of my God the gold for the golden things, the silver for the silver things, the bronze for the bronze things, the iron for the iron things and wood for the wooden things, besides great quantities of onyx and frames in which gems are set, turquoise, variegated stone, all other kinds of precious stones and marble.

<sup>3</sup> Moreover, because I delight in the Temple of my God, I have a treasure of gold and silver that is my own and have donated it to the Temple of my God, in addition to everything else that I have prepared for the holy Temple: <sup>4</sup> one hundred and five thousand kilograms of gold, gold from Ophir and two hundred and forty five thousand kilograms of refined silver, for overlaying the walls of the buildings, <sup>5</sup> the gold for the golden objects and the silver for the silver objects and for everything that the craftsmen will make. Who, therefore, will make a voluntary contribution and con-secrete himself to the LORD today?"

<sup>6</sup> Then the leaders of the paternal families made their voluntary contributions, as did also the leaders of the tribes of Israel, the commanders of units of a thousand and of units of a hundred and the officials in charge of the king's work. <sup>7</sup> They donated, for the service of the Temple of God, a hundred and seventy-five thousand kilograms of gold, ten thousand darics of gold, three hundred and fifty thousand kilograms of silver, six hundred and thirty thousand kilograms of bronze and three million five hundred thousand kilograms of iron.

<sup>8</sup> Whoever had precious stones donated them to the treasury of the Temple of the LORD, in the care of Jehiel, who was a descendant from Gershon. <sup>9</sup> The people were glad that the leaders had contributed so generously. For they had contributed freely and wholeheartedly to the LORD. King David was also overjoyed.

David's prayer after contributions were made for the Temple

<sup>10</sup> Then David blessed the LORD in the presence of the whole assembly. David said: "Blessed are You, LORD, the God of Israel, our Father, from eternity to eternity! <sup>11</sup> To You, LORD, belong the greatness, the power, the splendour, the glory and the majesty. For everything that is in heaven and on earth is Yours. To You, O LORD, belongs the kingdom, and You exalt Yourself as Head over everything. <sup>12</sup> Both riches and honour come from You, and You rule over everything. In Your hand are power and strength. It is also in Your control to make great and to give strength to all. <sup>13</sup> Now therefore, our God, we thank You and praise Your glorious name. <sup>14</sup> However, who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to contribute as willingly as this? Yes, everything comes from You, and we have donated to You only what has come from Your hand. <sup>15</sup> For we are strangers and foreigners before You, as all our fathers have been. Our days on earth are like a shadow and without hope. <sup>16</sup> LORD, our God, all this abundance, which we have prepared to build a Temple for You, for Your holy name, comes from Your own hand, and all of it is Your own."

<sup>17</sup> "I know, my God, that You test the heart and delight in uprightness. With an upright heart I have willingly offered all these things. Now I have also seen your people, who are present here, offering willingly and joyfully to You. <sup>18</sup> O LORD, the God of our fathers Abraham, Isaac and Israel, preserve this motivation in the hearts of your people for ever and fix their hearts toward Yourself! <sup>19</sup> Grant to my son Solomon perfect devotion, that he may keep Your Commandments, Your Testimonies and Your Prescriptions and that he may carry out everything to build the Temple for which I have provided!"

<sup>20</sup> Then David told all the assembly, "Now bless the LORD, your God!"

The whole assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, bowed their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king. <sup>21</sup> They offered sacrifices to the LORD, and, on the next day, they sacrificed burnt offerings to the LORD: one thousand bulls, one thousand rams and one thousand lambs, with their drink offerings and a great number of other sacrifices for all Israel. <sup>22</sup> They ate and drank very joyfully before the LORD on that day.

The appointment of Solomon as the next king — 1 Kings 1:38-40, 2 Kings 2:12

For a second time they made Solomon, the son of David, king and anointed him for the LORD to be the leader and Zadok to be the priest. <sup>23</sup> Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as the king to succeed his father David. He was successful, and all Israel obeyed him. <sup>24</sup> All the leaders and the capable men, as well as all the sons of King David, submitted to King Solomon. <sup>25</sup> The LORD made all Israel esteem Solomon very highly and bestowed on him such royal majesty as no other king of Israel had had before him.

A summary of David's reign — 1 Kings 2:10-12

<sup>26</sup> David, the son of Jesse, had been the king over all Israel. <sup>27</sup> The time during which he had reigned over Israel was forty years. He had been reigning in Hebron for seven years and in Jerusalem for thirty-three years. <sup>28</sup> Then he died at a good age, after a long life, wealthy and honoured. His son Solomon succeeded him as king. <sup>29</sup> The acts of King David, from the first to the last, have been written down in the records of Samuel, the seer, in the records of the prophet Nathan and in the records of Gad, the seer. <sup>30</sup> They include everything about his reign, his might and the events that happened to him, to Israel and to all the kingdoms of the other countries.

2 CHRONICLES

1

Solomon's request to God for wisdom — 1 Kings 3:1-15, 10:26-29

<sup>1</sup> Solomon, the son of David, established himself firmly over his kingdom, and the LORD, his God, was with him and made him exceedingly great. <sup>2</sup> Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the commanders of units of a thousand and of units of a hundred, to the judges and to all the leaders throughout Israel, the heads of the paternal families. <sup>3</sup> Then Solomon, together with the whole assembly, went to the high place at Gibeon. For God's Tent of Meeting, which Moses, the servant of the LORD, had made in the wilderness, was there. <sup>4</sup> However, David had brought up the Ark of God from Kiriath-Jearim to the place that David had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> Moreover, the bronze altar that Bezalel, the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made was there in front of the Tabernacle of the LORD. Solomon and the assembly asked for advice there. <sup>6</sup> Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the Tent of Meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it. <sup>7</sup> That night God appeared to Solomon and told him, "Ask what I am to give you!"

<sup>8</sup> Solomon said to God: "You have shown great faithful love to David, my father, and have caused me to succeed him as king. <sup>9</sup> Now, LORD God, let Your promise to my father David be confirmed! For You have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust on the ground. <sup>10</sup> Now, give me wisdom and knowledge that I may be fully involved with this people! For who can be a judge of this people of yours, which is so great?"

<sup>11</sup> God told Solomon: "Because this has been your sincere wish and because you have not asked for wealth, riches, honour or the lives of those who hate you or even asked for a long life but have asked that you may have wisdom and knowledge, that you may use it to judge My people, over whom I have made you king, <sup>12</sup> wisdom and knowledge have been granted to you. I shall also give you wealth, riches and honour, such as none of the other kings who have been before you have had and such as none after you will have."

<sup>13</sup> Then Solomon went to Jerusalem from the high place at Gibeon, from before the Tent of Meeting, and began to reign over Israel.

Solomon's military and commercial activity — 1 Kings 10:26-29, 2 Chronicles 9:25-28

<sup>14</sup> Solomon accumulated chariots and horses. He had one thousand, four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he stationed in the chariot cities as well as with the king in Jerusalem. <sup>15</sup> The king made silver and gold as common in Jerusalem as stones and made cedars as plentiful as the sycamore-fig trees in the foothills. <sup>16</sup> Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt and from Cilicia. The king's traders used to get them from Cilicia at the market price. <sup>17</sup> They used to import a chariot from Egypt for seven kilograms and two hundred grams of silver and a horse for one kilogram and eight hundred grams. In this way these traders also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and the kings of Aram.

2

The provision of wood and stone for the Temple — 1 Kings 5:1-18, 7:13-14

<sup>1</sup> Solomon gave orders to begin building a Temple for the name of the LORD and a royal palace for himself.

<sup>2</sup> Solomon assigned seventy thousand men to carry loads, eighty thousand men to quarry in the hill-country and three thousand, six hundred men to supervise them.

Solomon's alliance with Hiram of Tyre — 1 Kings 5:1-18

<sup>3</sup> Solomon sent this message to Hiram, the king of Tyre: "As you did for my father David when you sent him cedar logs to build himself a palace to live in, do the same for me! <sup>4</sup> You see, I am about to build a Temple for the name of the LORD, my God, and dedicate it to Him for the burning of perfumed incense before Him, for the regular setting out of the rows of bread and for burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, the New Moons and the appointed feasts of the LORD, our God. This is a lasting ordinance for Israel. <sup>5</sup> The Temple that I am about to build will be great. For our God is greater than all other gods are.

<sup>6</sup> However, who can build Him a Temple, since heaven, even the highest heaven, cannot contain Him? Who, therefore, am I, that I should build a Temple for Him, except as a place to burn offerings before Him?

<sup>7</sup> Now therefore, send me a man who has the skill to work in gold, silver, bronze and iron and in maroon, crimson and purple wool and who is also experienced in the art of engraving, that he may be in Judah and Jerusalem with the skilled craftsmen who are with me, whom my father David has provided! <sup>8</sup> Send me also cedar, cypress and algum logs from Lebanon! For I myself know that your servants are experts in cutting timber in Lebanon. Then, you see, my servants will join your servants, <sup>9</sup> to prepare plenty of timber for me. For the Temple that I am about to build will be large and wonderful. <sup>10</sup> Indeed, I have supplied three thousand, three hundred and seventy tonnes of crushed wheat, three thousand, three hundred and seventy tonnes of barley, four hundred and forty kilolitres of wine and four hundred and forty kilolitres of olive-oil for your servants, the timber-cutters who fell the timber."

<sup>11</sup> Then Hiram, the king of Tyre, answered in a letter that he sent to Solomon, "Because the LORD loves His people, He has made you king over them."

<sup>12</sup> Hiram also said, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has made the heaven and the earth! He has given King David a wise son, who is endowed with understanding and insight, who will build a Temple for the LORD and a royal palace for himself. <sup>13</sup> Now therefore, I am sending a skilful and intelligent man, Hiram-Abi. <sup>14</sup> He is the son of one of the women descended from Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre. He is an experienced workman in gold, silver, bronze, iron, stone and wood and in wool dyed maroon, in purple wool, fine linen and crimson material. He is experienced in all kinds of engraving and can execute any design given to him. He will work with your craftsmen and with the craftsmen of my master, your father David. <sup>15</sup> Now, therefore let my master send to his servants the wheat, barley, oil and wine that he has promised! <sup>16</sup> We ourselves shall cut all the logs that you need from Lebanon and bring them in rafts by sea to Joppa for you, that you may take them up to Jerusalem.”

<sup>17</sup> Then Solomon took a census of all the foreigners living in the land of Israel, after the census that his father David had taken of them, and they were found to number one hundred and fifty-three thousand, six hundred. <sup>18</sup> He assigned seventy-thousand of them to carry loads, eighty thousand to quarry in the hill-country and three thousand, six hundred as supervisors to put the people to work.

3

The building of the Temple in seven years — 1 Kings 6:1-22

<sup>1</sup> Then Solomon began to build the Temple of the LORD in Jerusalem, on Mount Moriah, where the LORD had appeared to his father David, at the place that David had prepared, at the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>2</sup> He began to build on the second day of the second month of the fourth year of his reign. <sup>3</sup> This was the foundation that Solomon laid for building the Temple of God: it was thirty metres long, according to the old measurement for the cubit and ten metres wide. <sup>4</sup> The vestibule in front of the nave of the Temple was ten metres long, equal to the width of the Temple, and was sixty metres high. He overlaid the inside of it with pure gold. <sup>5</sup> He panelled the main hall with cypress, overlaid it with fine gold and decorated it with palms and chains. <sup>6</sup> He covered the Temple with precious stones to beautify it. The gold came from Parvaim. <sup>7</sup> He also overlaid the beams, door-frames, walls and doors of the Temple with gold and carved cherubim on the walls. <sup>8</sup> He made the room for the Most Holy Place. Its length corresponded to the width of the Temple, and was ten metres wide. He overlaid it with twenty-one thousand kilograms of fine gold. <sup>9</sup> The golden nails weighed six hundred grams. He also overlaid the roof chambers with gold. <sup>10</sup> In the room for the Most Holy Place he made images of two cherubim and overlaid them with gold. <sup>11</sup> The combined length of the wings of the cherubim was ten metres. One wing of the first cherub was two metres and a half long and touched the wall of the Temple and its other wing, two metres and a half long, touched the wing of the other cherub. <sup>12</sup> One wing of the second cherub was two metres and a half long and touched the other wall of the Temple and the other wing was two metres and a half long and touched the wing of the first cherub. <sup>13</sup> The wings of these cherubim extended for ten metres. The cherubim were standing on their feet, facing inwards. <sup>14</sup> He made the veil of purple wool, maroon wool, crimson fabric and fine linen and decorated it with cherubim. <sup>15</sup> He made two pillars in front of the Temple. They were seventeen and a half metres high, and the capital on the top of each was two and a half metres. <sup>16</sup> He made chains like the ones in the inner sanctuary and put them on the tops of the pillars. He also made a hundred pomegranates attached them to the chains. <sup>17</sup> He erected the pillars in front of the Temple, one on the south and the other on the north. He named the southern one “Jachin,”*<sup>112</sup> and named the northern one “Boaz.”*<sup>113</sup>

4

The furnishings in the Temple — 1 Kings 6:23-38, 7:13-51

<sup>1</sup> Solomon made an altar of bronze, ten metres long, ten metres wide and five metres high. <sup>2</sup> He also made the pool of cast metal. It was circular, five metres across from rim to rim and two and a half metres high and took a line of fifteen metres to measure its circumference. <sup>3</sup> Under it, figures of bulls encircled it, ten to each half a metre, going all around the pool. The bulls were in two rows, cast in one piece with the pool. <sup>4</sup> The pool was mounted on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east. The pool was set over them, and their hindquarters were all towards the middle. <sup>5</sup> It was a handbreadth in thickness. Its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily. It held one hundred and twenty thousand litres. <sup>6</sup> He also made ten basins in which to wash and placed five on the southern side and five on the northern side. In these they were to rinse off what was used for the burnt offering, but the pool was for the priests to wash in. <sup>7</sup> He made ten golden lampstands according to the specifications for them and placed them in the Temple, five on the south and five on the north. <sup>8</sup> He also made ten tables and placed them in the Temple, five on the southern side and five on the northern side. He also made a hundred golden bowls for pouring. <sup>9</sup> He also made the courtyard of the priests, the large court and doors for the court and overlaid their doors with bronze. <sup>10</sup> He placed the pool on the right side, toward the south-east. <sup>11</sup> Hiram also made the pots, the shovels and the bowls used for pouring. So, Hiram finished the work that he had been doing for King Solomon at the Temple of God: <sup>12</sup> the two pillars, the bowl-shaped ornaments, and two capitals on the tops of the pillars and the two lattice networks to cover the bowl-shaped capitals that were on the tops of the pillars.<sup>13</sup> He made the four hundred pomegranates for the two lattice networks with two rows of pomegranates for each lattice network to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the tops of the pillars.<sup>14</sup> He also made the movable stands, the basins on the stands,<sup>15</sup> the one pool and the twelve bulls underneath it.<sup>16</sup> Hiram-Abi also made the pots, the shovels, the forks and all the equipment for these out of burnished bronze for King Solomon for the Temple of the LORD.<sup>17</sup> The king had them cast in clay casting-moulds in the plain of the Jordan between Succoth and Zeredah.<sup>18</sup> Solomon made very large quantities of all these articles. Indeed, the weight of the bronze was not calculated.<sup>19</sup> Solomon also made all the other furnishings that were in the Temple of God: the golden altar, the tables that held the bread of the Presence,<sup>20</sup> the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold, to burn as prescribed in front of the inner sanctuary,<sup>21</sup> the flowers, the lamps, the tongs, which were of gold, the purest gold;<sup>22</sup> the wick-trimmers, the bowls used for pouring, the pans for incense and the fire pans, of pure gold. The doors of the Temple, its inner doors to the Most Holy Place and the doors of the main hall of the Temple were of gold.

<sup>112</sup> Jachin means, “He establishes.”

<sup>113</sup> Boaz means, “In Him is strength.”

5

The bringing up of the Ark of the Covenant into the Temple in Jerusalem — 1 Kings 8:1-11

<sup>1</sup> When all the work that Solomon had been doing for the Temple of the LORD was finished, Solomon brought in the things that his father David had dedicated and placed the silver, the gold and all the other articles in the treasury rooms of the Temple of God.<sup>2</sup> Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, all the leaders of the tribes and the leaders of the paternal families of the Israelites in Jerusalem, to bring up the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD from the City of David, which is Zion.<sup>3</sup> All the men of Israel assembled before the king at the festival that is in the seventh month.<sup>4</sup> When all the elders of Israel had come, the Levites took up the Ark.<sup>5</sup> They brought up the Ark, the Tent of Meeting and all the holy furnishings that were in the tent. The priests, who were Levites, brought them up.<sup>6</sup> King Solomon and the whole congregation of Israel, who had assembled before him, were in front of the Ark and were sacrificing so many sheep and cattle that they could not be recorded or counted.<sup>7</sup> Then the priests brought the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD to its place in the inner sanctuary of the Temple, in the Most Holy Place, underneath the wings of the cherubim.<sup>8</sup> The cherubim were spreading out their wings over the place of the Ark, so that the cherubim above it covered the Ark and its poles.<sup>9</sup> The poles were so long that the ends of the poles, extending from the Ark, could be seen from in front of the inner sanctuary. However, they could not be seen from outside. They have been there to this day.<sup>10</sup> There was nothing in the Ark except the two tablets that Moses had placed there at Horeb, where the LORD had made a Covenant with the Israelites, when they had come out of Egypt.<sup>11</sup> Then the priests came out of the Holy Place. For all the priests who were present had consecrated themselves, without regard to their divisions.<sup>12</sup> All the Levitical singers, Asaph, Heman and Jeduthun, their sons and other relatives, were dressed in fine linen, holding cymbals, harps and lyres, and were standing on the eastern side of the altar. One hundred and twenty priests blowing trumpets accompanied them.<sup>13</sup> It was the duty of the trumpeters and singers to make music in unison in praise and thanksgiving to the LORD. When they raised their voices, with the trumpets, the cymbals and the other musical instruments, in praise to the LORD: "For He is good, for His faithful love endures for ever," the house, the Temple of the LORD, was filled with a cloud.<sup>14</sup> The priests could not stand to minister because of the cloud, because the glory of the LORD had filled the Temple of God.

6

Solomon's address to the people at the dedication of the Temple — 1 Kings 8:12-21

<sup>1</sup> Then Solomon said: "The LORD has said that He dwells in thick darkness.<sup>2</sup> However, I have built You a magnificent Temple, a place for You to live in for ever."

<sup>3</sup> Then the king turned around and blessed the whole congregation of Israel while the whole congregation of Israel was standing there.<sup>4</sup> He said: "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel! He made a promise with His own mouth to my father David and with His hand He has fulfilled it. He said:<sup>5</sup> 'Since the day when I brought My people out of the land of Egypt, I have not chosen any city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a Temple where My name may be and have not chosen anyone to be a prince over My people Israel.<sup>6</sup> However, I have chosen Jerusalem that My name may be there and have chosen David to be over My people Israel.'<sup>7</sup> My father David wished to build a Temple for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.<sup>8</sup> However, the LORD told my father David, 'Because you desired to build a Temple for My name, you did well in desiring to do it.<sup>9</sup> Nevertheless, you shall not build the Temple! Rather, your son, who will come from your body, will build the Temple for My name.'<sup>10</sup> The LORD has fulfilled His promise, which He has made. I have succeeded my father, David, and occupied the throne of Israel, as the LORD has promised, and have built the Temple for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel.<sup>11</sup> There I have placed the Ark, which contains the Covenant of the LORD, which He has made with the Israelites."

Solomon's prayer at the dedication of the Temple — 1 Kings 8:22-53, Psalm 132:8-10

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD

in front of the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands. <sup>13</sup> For Solomon had made a bronze platform two and a half metres long, two and a half metres wide and one metre and a half high and had placed it in the middle of the court. He stood on it and then he knelt in front of the whole assembly of Israel and spread out his hands toward heaven. <sup>14</sup> He said: “O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like You, in heaven or on earth. You keep Your Covenant and show faithful love to Your servants, who walk before You with all their hearts. <sup>15</sup> You have kept Your promise to Your servant, my father David. You have promised it with Your mouth and you have carried it out with Your hand, as is so today. <sup>16</sup> Now therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, keep Your promise to Your servant, my father David, when You said, ‘You will not fail to have a man sitting before Me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons pay close attention to their ways, so that they walk according to My Law as you have been walking before Me!’ <sup>17</sup> Now therefore, O LORD, God of Israel, let Your promise, which You have made to Your servant, David, be confirmed!

<sup>18</sup> “Nevertheless, will God really dwell with man on the earth? Look! The heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain You. How much less this Temple, which I have built! <sup>19</sup> Yet give attention to the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O LORD, my God, and hear the cry and the prayer that Your servant is making before You! <sup>20</sup> May Your eyes be open toward this Temple day and night, toward the place where You have promised to put Your name, that You may listen to the prayer that Your servant is making toward this place! <sup>21</sup> Hear the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Israel when they pray toward this place! May You Yourself Hear from heaven, Your dwelling place and, when You hear, forgive! <sup>22</sup> “If a man sins against his neighbour and binds himself with a curse, to place himself under an imprecation and comes and swears his oath before Your altar in this Temple, <sup>23</sup> then may You Yourself hear from heaven, act and judge Your servants, repaying the guilty person by bringing his conduct on his own head and justifying the righteous person by establishing his innocence!

<sup>24</sup> “If Your people Israel are defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against You, turn back, confess Your name, pray and plead before You in this Temple, <sup>25</sup> then hear from heaven, forgive the sin of Your people Israel and bring them again to the land that You gave to them and to their fathers!

<sup>26</sup> “When the sky is shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You and when they pray towards this place, confess Your name and turn away from their sin, because You have made them suffer, <sup>27</sup> then may You Yourself hear in heaven and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Israel, when You teach them the good Way in which they should walk and when You give rain on Your land, which You have given to Your people for an inheritance!

<sup>28</sup> “When there is famine in the land or a plague, when there is scorching or mildew or locusts or stripping locusts, when their enemies besiege them in the land at their gates or whatever plague or sickness there may be, <sup>29</sup> whenever any human being of all Your people Israel makes any prayer or any supplication, when each one knows his own affliction and his own anguish and spreads out his hands toward this Temple, <sup>30</sup> then may You Yourself hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, and forgive! May You allot to each one as all his ways deserve! For You know his heart. For You, You only, know the hearts of the descendants of Adam. <sup>31</sup> Do this, that they may fear You and walk in Your ways all their lives on the land that You have given to our fathers!

<sup>32</sup> “Likewise, when the foreigner, who does not belong to Your people Israel, comes from a distant country for the sake of Your great name, Your mighty hand and Your outstretched arm — when he comes and prays toward this Temple, <sup>33</sup> then may You Yourself hear from heaven, Your dwelling place, and do whatever the foreigner asks of You, that all the peoples of the earth may know Your name and fear You, as Your own people Israel do and that they may know that this Temple, which I have built, bears Your name!

<sup>34</sup> “When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way You send them and they pray to You, facing towards this city, which You have chosen and the Temple that I have built for Your name, <sup>35</sup> then may You hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication and do for them what is right!

<sup>36</sup> “When they sin against You — for there is no one who does not sin — and You are angry with them and deliver them to an enemy, so that they are taken away as captives to a land that is far away or near, <sup>37</sup> and, when they come back to themselves in the land where they are captives, repent, plead with You in the land where they are captives and say, ‘We have sinned, done wrong and acted wickedly,’ <sup>38</sup> and when they turn back to You with all their hearts and with all their souls in the land where they are captives and in exile and pray towards their land, which You have given to their fathers, the city that You have chosen and the Temple that I have built for Your name, <sup>39</sup> then may You hear their prayer and their pleas from heaven, from Your dwelling place, do for them what is right and forgive Your people, who have sinned against You! <sup>40</sup> Now, my God, may Your eyes be open and may Your ears be attentive to what is prayed at this place!

<sup>41</sup> “Now therefore, arise, LORD God, and come to Your resting place, You and the Ark of Your strength! May Your priests, LORD God, be clothed with salvation and may Your faithful people rejoice in what is good! <sup>42</sup> LORD God, do not reject the one whom You have anointed! Remember Your faithful love towards Your servant David!”

7

The dedication of the Temple with sacrifices — 1 Kings 8:62-66

<sup>1</sup> When Solomon had finished his prayer, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the other sacrifices, and the glory of the LORD filled the Temple. <sup>2</sup> The priests could not enter the Temple of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the Temple of the LORD. <sup>3</sup> All the Israelites were watching when the fire came down and the glory of the LORD was on the Temple, and they bowed down with their faces to the ground on the pavement, worshipped and gave thanks to the LORD, saying: “For He is good, for His mercy endures for ever.”

<sup>4</sup> The king and all the people were offering sacrifices before the LORD. <sup>5</sup> King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand cattle and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. The king and all the people dedicated the Temple of God. <sup>6</sup> The priests were standing at their assigned places. The Levites also had the musical instruments of the LORD that King David had made for giving thanks to the LORD — for His mercy endures for ever — when David used them to offer praises. The priests were opposite the Levites blowing their trumpets, while all the Israelites were standing. <sup>7</sup> Solomon had consecrated the middle part of the court, which was in front of the Temple of the LORD. For there he had offered the burnt offerings and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the bronze altar that Solomon had made could not hold the burnt offerings, the grain-offerings and the pieces of fat. <sup>8</sup> At that time Solomon and all Israel with him observed the feast for seven days. It was a very large assembly of people from Lebo-Hamath to the Brook of Egypt. <sup>9</sup> On the eighth day they held an assembly. Indeed, they observed the dedication of the altar for seven days and then they celebrated the feast for another seven days. <sup>10</sup> On the twenty-third day of the seventh month Solomon sent the people away to their homes, joyful and glad in heart because of the goodness that the LORD had shown to David, to Solomon and to His people Israel.

God's second appearance to Solomon and His assurance that He had heard His people's prayers — 1 Kings 9:1-9

<sup>11</sup> When Solomon had finished the Temple of the LORD and the king's palace, he had successfully accomplished all that he had planned to do in the Temple of the LORD and in his own palace. <sup>12</sup> The LORD appeared to Solomon at night and told him: “I have heard your prayer and have chosen this place to be My own Temple for sacrifices. <sup>13</sup> Look! When I shut up the sky so that there is no rain or when I command the locust to devour the country or if I send a plague among My people, <sup>14</sup> if My people, who have been called by My name, humble themselves, pray, try to see My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I Myself shall hear from heaven, shall forgive their sin and heal their land. <sup>15</sup> Now My eyes will be open and My ears will be attentive to the prayer that is made in this place. <sup>16</sup> Now therefore, I have chosen and consecrated this Temple, that My name may be there for ever. My eyes and My heart will be there for all time.

<sup>17</sup> As for you, if you walk before Me as David your father has done, if you do exactly as I have commanded you and, if you keep My Prescriptions and My Decisions, <sup>18</sup> then I shall establish your royal throne, as I covenanted with David your father, when I said, ‘You will never fail to have a man ruling over Israel.’

<sup>19</sup> However, if you people turn aside and forsake My Statutes and My Commandments, which I have set before you and, if you go and serve other gods and worship them, <sup>20</sup> then I shall pull you out by the roots from My land, which I have given you. I shall cast out of My sight this Temple, which I have consecrated for My name, and shall make it a standard warning and an object of ridicule among all other peoples.

<sup>21</sup> Although this Temple has become very eminent, everyone going past it will be astonished and ask, ‘Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this Temple?’ <sup>22</sup> Then people will answer, ‘Because they have abandoned the LORD, their God, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods and worshipped them and served them. That is why He has brought this entire calamity on them.’”

8

Other activities of King Solomon — 1 Kings 9:10-28

<sup>1</sup> At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon had built the Temple of the LORD and his own palace, <sup>2</sup> Solomon rebuilt the cities that Hiram had given to him and settled Israelites in them. <sup>3</sup> Then Solomon went to Hamath-Zobah and captured it. <sup>4</sup> He also built up Tadmor in the wilderness as well as all the storage cities that he had built in Hamath. <sup>5</sup> He also rebuilt Upper Beth-Horon and Lower Beth-Horon as fortified cities with walls, double-gates and bars. <sup>6</sup> He also built Baalath, all the storage cities that Solomon had, all the cities for his chariots, the cities for his horses and everything else that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon and in all the rest of the land over which he ruled. <sup>7</sup> All the people who were left from the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, who did not belong to Israel, <sup>8</sup> that is, their descendants who were left in the land after them, whom the Israelites had not destroyed, these Solomon drafted as forced labour, and that is what they have been until today. <sup>9</sup> However, Solomon did not make slaves of the Israelites for his work, but they were the soldiers, the commanders of his officers, the commanders of his chariots and his horsemen. <sup>10</sup> These were the two hundred and fifty chief officers of King Solomon, who exercised authority over the people. <sup>11</sup> Solomon brought Pharaoh's daughter up from the City of David to the palace that he had built for her. For he said: "My wife shall not live in the house of David, the king of Israel! For the places to which the Ark of the LORD has come are holy."

<sup>12</sup> Then Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he had built in front of the porch. <sup>13</sup> He offered whatever the Law of Moses required for every day, for the Sabbaths, the New Moons and the three annual feasts, the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Booths. <sup>14</sup> According to the ruling of his father David, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their duties and the Levites for their offices of praise and ministry before the priests, as the duty of each day required and the gatekeepers in their divisions at each gate. For this is what David, the man of God, had commanded. <sup>15</sup> They did not fail to carry out what the king had commanded the priests and Levites in any matter, including that of the treasuries. <sup>16</sup> All Solomon's work was carried out, from the day when the foundation of the Temple of the LORD was laid until its completion. The Temple of the LORD was now completed. <sup>17</sup> Then Solomon went to Ezion-Geber and to Elath on the seacoast in the land of Edom. <sup>18</sup> Hiram sent to Solomon, in the care of his servants, ships and other servants who were familiar with the sea. They went to Ophir together with the servants of Solomon, brought back fifteen thousand, seven hundred and fifty kilograms of gold from there and delivered it to King Solomon.

9

The visit of the Queen of Sheba to Jerusalem — 1 Kings 10:1-13

<sup>1</sup> When the queen of Sheba heard how famous Solomon was, she came to test him with difficult questions. She had a very large retinue, camels carrying perfumes and very much gold and precious stones. When she came to Solomon, she discussed with him all that she had on her mind. <sup>2</sup> Solomon answered all her questions. Nothing was too difficult for Solomon to explain to her. <sup>3</sup> When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, the palace that he had built, <sup>4</sup> the food on his table, how his officials were seated and how his servants waited at the table, their clothing, his cup-bearers and their clothing and his upper room, through which he used to go up to the Temple of the LORD, she was overwhelmed. <sup>5</sup> She told the king: "The report that I have heard in my own land about your words and about your wisdom is true. <sup>6</sup> However, I did not believe the reports until I came and saw it with my own eyes. Indeed, I was not told half of your great wisdom. You have exceeded the report that I heard. <sup>7</sup> How advantageous for your men, and how advantageous for your officials, who continually stand in your presence and listen to your wisdom! <sup>8</sup> May the LORD, your God, also be blessed! He takes pleasure in you and has placed you on His throne as king to rule for the LORD, your God. Because your God has loved Israel, He has made you king over them, that you may carry out what is just and right."

<sup>9</sup> Then she gave the king three thousand, six hundred kilograms of gold, a very large quantity of perfumes and precious stones. There had never been such spices as those that the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

<sup>10</sup> Besides that, the servants of Hiram and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought algum wood and precious stones. <sup>11</sup> The king used the algum wood to make supports for the Temple of the LORD and for the king's palace and to make lyres and harps for the singers. Nothing like them had been seen before in the land of Judah. <sup>12</sup> King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all that she desired and requested. The king gave her more than she had brought to him. Then she left and returned with her officials to her own country.

Solomon's splendour — 1 Kings 5:1, 10:14-29, 2 Chronicles 1:14-17

<sup>13</sup> The gold that came to Solomon in one year weighed nineteen thousand, nine hundred and eighty kilograms. <sup>14</sup> This was in addition to the revenue that the traders and merchants kept bringing. All the kings of Arabia and the governors of the land also brought gold and silver to Solomon. <sup>15</sup> King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold. He used seven kilograms of gold for each shield. <sup>16</sup> He made three hundred shields of hammered gold. He used three kilograms and six hundred grams of gold to cover each of these shields. The king placed them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon. <sup>17</sup> The king also made a large ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold. <sup>18</sup> There were six steps going up to the throne, and a golden footstool was attached to it. There were armrests on each side of the seat, and two lions were standing alongside the armrests. <sup>19</sup> Twelve lions were also standing there on each side of the six steps. Nothing like this had been made for any other kingdom. <sup>20</sup> All King Solomon's drinking vessels were golden and all the vessels of the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were of pure gold. None were of silver. Silver was not regarded as valuable at the time of Solomon. <sup>21</sup> Indeed, the king had ships that went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram. The ships of Tarshish used to come once every three years carrying gold, silver, ivory, apes and baboons. <sup>22</sup> King Solomon was greater in wealth and in wisdom than all the other kings of the earth were. <sup>23</sup> All the other kings of the earth wanted to have an audience with Solomon to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his mind. <sup>24</sup> Each of them brought his gift, articles of silver and gold, garments, fragrant substances, perfumes, horses and mules. This continued year after year. <sup>25</sup> Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots and twelve thousand horses. He stationed them in the chariot cities and with the king in Jerusalem. <sup>26</sup> He ruled over all the kings from the Euphrates to the land of the Philistines and as far as the border of Egypt. <sup>27</sup> The king made silver as common as stones in Jerusalem and made cedar as plentiful as the sycamore-fig trees in the foothills. <sup>28</sup> Horses were imported for Solomon from Egypt and from all the other countries.

The death of Solomon — 1 Kings 11:41-43

<sup>29</sup> As for the rest of the acts of Solomon, from first to last, have they not been recorded in the history of Nathan the prophet, in the prophecy of Ahijah from Shiloh and in the visions of Iddo, the seer, concerning Jeroboam, the son of Nebat? <sup>30</sup> Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years. <sup>31</sup> Solomon went to rest with his fathers. He was buried in the city of his father David. His son Rehoboam succeeded him as king.

10

The accession of Rehoboam and the rebellion of Israel against him — 1 Kings 12:1-19

<sup>1</sup> Rehoboam went to Shechem, because all Israel had gone to Shechem to make him king. <sup>2</sup> Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had fled from King Solomon to Egypt. Jeroboam heard about it and came back from Egypt.

<sup>3</sup> People sent a messenger to invite him back, and Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam:

<sup>4</sup> “Your father put a heavy yoke on us. Now, however, make the hard labour and the heavy yoke that your father imposed on us lighter! Then we shall serve you.”

<sup>5</sup> Rehoboam answered them, “Come to me again on the day after tomorrow!”

So, the people went away. <sup>6</sup> Then King Rehoboam consulted the old men, who had been standing before his father Solomon while he was still alive. He asked: “How do you advise me to reply to these people?”

<sup>7</sup> They replied to him: “If you are kind to these people, please them and speak favourable words to them, they will always be your servants.”

<sup>8</sup> However, he rejected the advice that the old men had given him and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and were standing in his presence.

<sup>9</sup> He asked them: “What do you advise, that we may reply to these people? They have told me, ‘Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter!’”

<sup>10</sup> The young men who had grown up with him told him: “You must speak in this way to the people who have told you: ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you should make it lighter for us!’ You should tell them this: ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist! <sup>11</sup> Now therefore, my father laid a heavy yoke on you. I shall add to your yoke. My father disciplined you with whips, but I shall discipline you with scorpions.’”

<sup>12</sup> So, Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had said, “Come back to me the day after tomorrow!”

<sup>13</sup> The king answered them harshly. King Rehoboam rejected the advice of the old men. <sup>14</sup> He spoke to them as the young men had advised him: “I shall make your yoke heavier. I shall add to it. My father disciplined you with whips, but I shall discipline you with scorpions.”

<sup>15</sup> The king did not listen to the people. For it was a turn of affairs that God had brought about, that the LORD might fulfil His Word, which He had spoken through Ahijah from Shiloh to Jeroboam, the son of Nebat. <sup>16</sup> When all Israel saw that the king did not listen to them, the people answered the king: “What claim do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jesse. Each of you to your tents, O Israel! Look now to your own family, David!”

So, all Israel went to their tents. <sup>17</sup> However, Rehoboam reigned over the Israelites who were living in the cities of Judah. <sup>18</sup> When King Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was in charge of the compulsory labour, the Israelites stoned him to death. However, King Rehoboam managed to get into his chariot to escape to Jerusalem. <sup>19</sup> Israel has been in rebellion against the family of David to this day.

11

God’s command to Rehoboam not to try to regain the northern kingdom

<sup>1</sup> When Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, he assembled the family of Judah and Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand selected fighting men, to fight against Israel, to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam.

<sup>2</sup> However, the Word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, the man of God. He said: <sup>3</sup> “Tell Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, the king of Judah, and all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, <sup>4</sup> ‘This is what the LORD has said: “You shall not go up or fight against your relatives! Every man, return to your own home! For this is My doing.’””

So, they listened to the Word of the LORD. They turned back and left and did not go against Jeroboam.

The fortification of Judah by Rehoboam — 1 Kings 12:20-24

<sup>5</sup> Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem and built cities to defend Judah. <sup>6</sup> He built up Bethlehem, Etam, Tekoa,

<sup>7</sup> Beth-Zur, Soco, Adullam, <sup>8</sup> Gath, Mareshah, Ziph, <sup>9</sup> Adoraim, Lachish, Azekah, <sup>10</sup> Zorah, Aijalon and Hebron. These were fortified cities in Judah and Benjamin.

<sup>11</sup> He made the fortifications stronger and put commanders in them, with supplies of food, olive-oil and wine. <sup>12</sup> He stored shields and spears in all the cities and made the cities very secure. So, Judah and Benjamin continued to belong to him.

The support of Rehoboam by priests and Levites who had been living in Israel — 1 Kings 14:21-24

<sup>13</sup> The priests and Levites from all their districts throughout Israel committed themselves to Rehoboam. <sup>14</sup> The Levites even left their pasturelands and other inherited property and came to Judah and Jerusalem. For Jeroboam and his sons rejected them from serving as priests of the LORD. <sup>15</sup> Then Jeroboam appointed his own priests for the high places, for the goat idols and for the calves that he had made. <sup>16</sup> Those who had set their hearts to be intent on the LORD, the God of Israel, followed the Levites out of all the tribes of Israel to Jerusalem to offer sacrifices to the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>17</sup> So, they strengthened the kingdom of Judah and for three years they made Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, more secure. For they walked for three years in the ways of David and Solomon.

The family of Rehoboam

<sup>18</sup> Rehoboam married Mahalath, the daughter of David's son Jerimoth, and of Abihail, the daughter of Jesse's son Eliab. <sup>19</sup> She bore him the following sons: Jeush, Shemariah and Zaham. <sup>20</sup> After her he married Maacah, the daughter of Absalom. She bore him Abijah, Attai, Ziza and Shelomith. <sup>21</sup> Rehoboam loved Maacah, the daughter of Absalom more than any of his other wives and concubines. Indeed, he married eighteen wives, had sixty concubines and fathered twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters. <sup>22</sup> Rehoboam appointed Abijah, the son of Maacah, as the chief prince among his brothers, because he intended to make him king. <sup>23</sup> He acted wisely by distributing some of his sons through all the districts of Judah and Benjamin, in all the fortified cities. He supplied them with plenty of provisions and provided many wives for them.

12

The reign of Rehoboam as king of Judah and the removal of the treasures from the Temple in Jerusalem by King Shishak of Egypt – 1 Kings 14:21-31

<sup>1</sup> When Rehoboam had established his kingship and had become strong, he and all Israel with him abandoned the Law of the LORD. <sup>2</sup> Because they had been acting unfaithfully to the LORD, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem in the fifth year of King Rehoboam. <sup>3</sup> He came with one thousand, two hundred chariots and sixty thousand horses. The army that came with him from Egypt together with Libyans, Sukkiim and Cushites could not be counted. <sup>4</sup> He captured the fortified cities of Judah and came as far as Jerusalem. <sup>5</sup> Then the prophet Shemaiah came to Rehoboam and to the princes of Judah, who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shishak and told them: "This is what the LORD has said, 'You have abandoned Me. I have also abandoned you to the control of Shishak.'" <sup>6</sup> Then the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves and said, "The LORD is just." <sup>7</sup> When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the Word of the LORD came to Shemaiah: "They have humbled themselves. I shall not destroy them but shall soon grant them some deliverance. I shall not use Shishak to pour out My wrath on Jerusalem.

<sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, they will be subject to him, that they may know the difference between serving Me and serving the governments of other countries."

<sup>9</sup> When Shishak, the king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem, he took away the treasures of the Temple of the LORD and the treasures of the king's palace. He took everything away. He also took away the golden shields that Solomon had made. <sup>10</sup> So, King Rehoboam made shields of bronze to replace them and committed them to the hands of the officers of the bodyguard, who used to protect the entrance of the king's palace. <sup>11</sup> Whenever the king went to the Temple of the LORD, the bodyguard used to carry them and then they used to take them back to the guardroom. <sup>12</sup> When Rehoboam humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned away from him and He did not completely destroy him.

A summary of the reign of Rehoboam – 1 Kings 14:21-22, 24-31

Moreover, conditions were good in Judah. <sup>13</sup> King Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem and continued as king. Indeed, Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king and reigned for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put His name. His mother's name was the Ammonite Naamah. <sup>14</sup> He did what was evil because he had not set his heart on being devoted to the LORD. <sup>15</sup> As for the records about Rehoboam, the first to the last, have they not been recorded in the records of the prophet Shemaiah and the register of Iddo, the seer? There were continual wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam. <sup>16</sup> Rehoboam went to rest with his fathers and was buried in the City of David, and his son Abijah succeeded him as king.

13

The war of King Abijah of Judah against King Jeroboam of Israel – 1 Kings 15:1-8

<sup>1</sup> In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah began to reign over Judah. <sup>2</sup> He reigned in Jerusalem for three years. His mother's name was Micaiah, the daughter of Uriel from Gibeah. There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. <sup>3</sup> Abijah got ready for battle with an army of four hundred thousand chosen fighting men. Jeroboam drew up his line of battle against him with eight hundred thousand chosen brave soldiers. <sup>4</sup> Then Abijah stood up on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill-country of Ephraim, and said: "Listen to me, Jeroboam and all Israel! <sup>5</sup> Do you not realise that the LORD, the God of Israel, has given the kingship over Israel to David and his sons for ever by a Covenant of salt? <sup>6</sup> Nevertheless, Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, a servant of Solomon, the son of David, rose up and rebelled against his master. <sup>7</sup> Some worthless scoundrels gathered around him and persistently opposed Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young, indecisive and not strong enough to resist them. <sup>8</sup> Now therefore, you are planning to resist the kingship of the LORD, which is in the hands of David's descendants. You are an enormous multitude and have with you the golden calves that Jeroboam made for you, to be your gods. <sup>9</sup> Have you not driven out the priests of the LORD, the descendants of Aaron, and the Levites and made priests for yourselves like the peoples of other countries? Anyone who comes to consecrate himself with a young bull or seven rams may become a priest of what are not gods. <sup>10</sup> However, as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken Him. We have priests who are sons of Aaron, who are ministering to the LORD, and the Levites are assisting them. <sup>11</sup> They offer burnt offerings and spiced incense to the LORD every morning and every evening. They set out the rows of bread on the ceremonially clean table and care for the golden lampstand and its lamps, that they may burn every evening. For we observe the Requirements of the LORD, our God. You, however, have forsaken Him. <sup>12</sup> Look! God is with us as our Leader, and here are His priests, and the trumpets that blast to signal for battle against you. Men of Israel, do not fight against the LORD, the God of your fathers! For you will not be successful."

<sup>13</sup> Jeroboam had sent troops around in an ambush behind them. While they were in front of Judah, the ambush was behind them. <sup>14</sup> When Judah turned around, they saw that they had to fight in the front and the rear. Then they cried out to the LORD, and the priests blew their trumpets. <sup>15</sup> Then the men of Judah raised the shout for battle. When the men of Judah shouted, God defeated Jeroboam and all Israel, who were facing Abijah and Judah. <sup>16</sup> The Israelites fled before Judah, and God delivered them into their hands. <sup>17</sup> Abijah and his army struck them down in a great defeat, so that five hundred thousand chosen men of Israel fell slain. <sup>18</sup> So, the men of Israel were subdued at that time, and the men of Judah were victorious, because they relied on the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>19</sup> Abijah pursued Jeroboam and took cities away from him, Bethel with its villages, Jeshanah with its villages and Ephron with its villages. <sup>20</sup> Jeroboam did not regain power during the time of Abijah. The LORD struck him down, and he died. <sup>21</sup> However, Abijah grew stronger. He also married fourteen wives and had twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters. <sup>22</sup> The rest of the acts of Abijah, his ways and his sayings, have been written down in the historical record of the prophet Iddo.

14

<sup>1</sup> Abijah went to rest with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. His son Asa succeeded him as king.

The reign of Asa as King of Judah — 1 Kings 15:9-15

During Asa's time the land had peace for ten years. <sup>2</sup> Asa did what the LORD, his God, considered good and right. <sup>3</sup> He took away the foreign altars and the high places, broke down the pillars and cut down the Asherah-poles. <sup>4</sup> He commanded Judah to be intent on the LORD, the God of their fathers, and to put the Law and the Commandment into practice. <sup>5</sup> He also removed the high places and the incense-altars from all the cities of Judah. The kingdom was at peace under him. <sup>6</sup> He built fortified cities in Judah, because the land was at peace. No one was at war with him during those years, for the LORD had given him peace. <sup>7</sup> He told Judah: "We shall build up these cities and surround them with walls, towers, double-gates and bars. The land is still ours, because we have been intent on the LORD, our God. We have been intent on Him, and He has given us peace on every side."

So, they built and were prosperous. <sup>8</sup> Asa had an army of three hundred thousand men from Judah, armed with large shields and spears, and two hundred and eighty thousand men from Benjamin who carried shields and shot with bows. All these were brave fighting men.

The defeat of invading Cushites

<sup>9</sup> When Zerah the Cushite came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, he advanced as far as Mareshah. <sup>10</sup> Asa went out to confront him, and the armies took up battle positions in the Valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. <sup>11</sup> Asa called to the LORD, his God: "O LORD, there is none besides You to help the weak against the mighty. Help us, O LORD, our God! For we have been relying on You and come against this vast throng in Your name. O LORD, You are our God. Let no man prevail against You!"

<sup>12</sup> The LORD defeated the Cushites before Asa and before Judah, and the Cushites fled. <sup>13</sup> Asa and the army that was with him pursued them as far as Gerar, and so many of the Cushites fell that they could not recover. For they were smashed before the LORD and His army. Then the men of Judah carried off a very large amount of plunder. <sup>14</sup> They destroyed all the cities around Gerar, for the LORD had terrified them. They plundered all the cities, because there was much booty in them. <sup>15</sup> They also attacked the tents of those who had livestock and carried off large numbers of sheep and camels. Then they returned to Jerusalem.

15

The reforms by King Asa of Judah — 1 Kings 15:13-16

<sup>1</sup> The Spirit of God came on Azariah, the son of Oded. <sup>2</sup> He went out to meet Asa and told him: "Listen to me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin! The LORD is with you while you are with Him. If you turn to Him, He will let you find Him. However, if you forsake Him, He will forsake you. <sup>3</sup> For a long time Israel was without the true God, without a priest to teach them and without the Law. <sup>4</sup> However, when in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and searched for Him, He let them find Him. <sup>5</sup> In those times no one could take care of daily business in peace, for many disturbances afflicted all the inhabitants of the lands. <sup>6</sup> One nation was being beaten in pieces by another, and one city by another, because God threw them into confusion with every kind of distress. <sup>7</sup> However, be strong! Your hands should not hang limp! For your work will be rewarded.”

<sup>8</sup> When Asa heard these Words, which Azariah, the son of Oded, prophesied, he took courage. He put away the detestable idols from all the land of Judah and Benjamin and from the cities that he had captured in the hill-country of Ephraim. He also repaired the altar of the LORD, which was in front of the vestibule of the LORD. <sup>9</sup> Then he gathered all Judah and Benjamin and those from Ephraim, Manasseh and Simeon who were living as guests with them. For large numbers had come over to him from Israel when they saw that the LORD, his God, was with him. <sup>10</sup> They assembled at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of Asa’s reign. <sup>11</sup> On that day they offered seven hundred oxen and seven thousand sheep as sacrifices to the LORD out of the plunder that they had brought. <sup>12</sup> They entered into a covenant to turn to the LORD, the God of their fathers, with all their hearts and with all their souls. <sup>13</sup> Anyone, whether small or great and whether man or woman, who would not turn to the LORD, the God of Israel, was to be put to death. <sup>14</sup> They made an oath to the LORD with loud shouting and with the blowing of trumpets and horns. <sup>15</sup> All Judah rejoiced about the oath, because they had sworn it with all their hearts. When they took full delight in looking for Him, He let them find Him and the LORD gave them peace on every side. <sup>16</sup> King Asa even deposed his grandmother Maacah from her position as queen mother because she had made a disgraceful image as an Asherah-pole. Asa cut down her disgraceful image, crushed it and burned it in the Kidron Valley. <sup>17</sup> Although the high places were not removed from Israel, Asa’s heart was nevertheless fully loyal all his life. <sup>18</sup> He brought into the Temple of God the silver and gold and the articles that his father and he himself had dedicated as sacred gifts. <sup>19</sup> There was no more war until the thirty-fifth year of Asa’s reign.

16

The war between Asa of Judah and Baasha of Israel and the condemnation of an alliance with Aram — 1 Kings 15:16-22

<sup>1</sup> In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha, the king of Israel, went up against Judah and built up Ramah, to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the territory of Asa, the king of Judah. <sup>2</sup> Then Asa took silver and gold from the treasures of the Temple of the LORD and the king’s palace and sent them to Ben-Hadad, the king of Aram, who lived in Damascus. He said: <sup>3</sup> “There is a treaty between you me, as there was between my father and your father. Look! I have sent you silver and gold. Come! Cancel your treaty with Baasha, the king of Israel, that he may withdraw from me!”

<sup>4</sup> Ben-Hadad consented to King Asa’s request and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Israel. They conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel-Maim and all the storage cities of Naphtali. <sup>5</sup> When Baasha heard about it, he stopped building up Ramah and stopped his work on it. <sup>6</sup> Then King Asa took along all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah and its timber, with which Baasha had been fortifying Ramah, and he used them to fortify Geba and Mizpah. <sup>7</sup> At that time Hanani the seer came to Asa, the king of Judah, and told him: “Because you have relied on the king of Aram and have not relied on the LORD, your God, the army of the king of Aram has escaped from your hands. <sup>8</sup> Were not the Cushites and the Libyans a huge army with very many chariots and horses? Nevertheless, when you relied on the LORD, He delivered them into your hands. <sup>9</sup> For the eyes of the LORD move back and forth throughout the whole earth, to give strong support to those whose hearts are fully committed to Him. You have acted foolishly in this matter. Instead, from now on you will have wars.” <sup>10</sup> Then Asa became angry with the seer and put him in the stocks. For he was fiercely angry with him because of this. Asa also treated some other people cruelly at that time.

The sickness and death of King Asa of Judah — 1 Kings 15:23-24

<sup>11</sup> Indeed, the acts of Asa, from the first to the last, have been recorded in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>12</sup> In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa became diseased in his feet, and his disease became severe. Yet even when he was diseased he did not try to obtain help from the LORD but from the physicians. <sup>13</sup> Asa went to rest with his fathers when he died in the forty-first year of his reign. <sup>14</sup> They buried him in his own tomb, which he had cut out for himself in the City of David. They laid him on a bier that had been filled with spices and various kinds of blended perfumes and lit a very large fire in his honour.

17

The reign of Jehoshaphat as king of Judah

<sup>1</sup> Asa’s son Jehoshaphat succeeded him as king and strengthened himself against Israel. <sup>2</sup> He stationed forces in all the fortified cities of Judah and put garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of Ephraim that his father Asa had captured. <sup>3</sup> The LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the earlier ways of his forefather David. He did not consult the Baals, <sup>4</sup> but was intent on the God of his father. He lived by His Commandments and not by the practices of Israel. <sup>5</sup> Therefore, the LORD established the kingdom under his control. All Judah brought tribute to Jehoshaphat, and he had great wealth and honour. <sup>6</sup> His heart was devoted to the Ways of the LORD. Furthermore, he removed the high places and the Asherah-poles from Judah. <sup>7</sup> In the third year of his reign he sent his officers, Ben-Hail, Obadiah, Zechariah, Nethanel and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah. <sup>8</sup> The Levites, Shemaiah, Nethaniah, Zebadiah, Asahel, Shemiramoth, Jehonathan, Adonijah, Tobijah and Tob-Adonijah were with them, and the priests, Elishama and Jehoram, were also with these Levites. <sup>9</sup> They taught in Judah and they had with them the Book of the Law of the LORD. They went around through all the cities of Judah and taught among the people. <sup>10</sup> The fear of the LORD came on all the kingdoms of the other countries that were around Judah, and they did not wage war against Jehoshaphat. <sup>11</sup> Some of the Philistines used to bring Jehoshaphat gifts and silver as tribute, and the Arabs also used to bring him flocks, seven thousand, seven hundred rams and seven thousand, seven hundred male goats. <sup>12</sup> Jehoshaphat became increasingly powerful and built fortresses and storage cities in Judah. <sup>13</sup> He had large supplies in the cities of Judah and had a force of brave warriors in Jerusalem. <sup>14</sup> This was the register of them by paternal families: The commanders of units of a thousand for Judah were: Adnah the commander, with three hundred thousand brave soldiers. <sup>15</sup> Next to him was the commander Jehohanan and he had two hundred and eighty thousand with him. <sup>16</sup> Next to him was Amasiah, the son of Zichri, who had volunteered to serve the LORD and he had two hundred thousand brave soldiers with him. <sup>17</sup> From Benjamin there was Eliada, a brave soldier, and he had with him two hundred thousand men armed with bows and shields. <sup>18</sup> Next to him there was Jehozabad and he had with him one hundred and eighty thousand men armed for battle. <sup>19</sup> These were the men who used to serve the king, besides those whom the king had stationed in the fortified cities throughout Judah.

18

The deception of Ahab by false prophets and Micaiah's prophecy against Ahab — 1 Kings 22:1-28

<sup>1</sup> Jehoshaphat was very wealthy and renowned and allied himself with Ahab by marriage. <sup>2</sup> After some years he went down to Ahab in Samaria. Ahab slaughtered many sheep and cattle for him and for the people who were with him and urged him to go up against Ramoth-Gilead. <sup>3</sup> Ahab, the king of Israel asked Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, "Will you come with me to Ramoth-Gilead?"

Jehoshaphat answered him: "I am like you. My people are like your people. We shall join you in the war."

<sup>4</sup> Jehoshaphat also told the king of Israel, "Please inquire first what the LORD says!"

<sup>5</sup> Then the king of Israel gathered four hundred prophets together and asked them, "Shall we go to war against Ramoth-Gilead or shall I refrain?"

They said, "Go up, that God may put it in the hands of the king!"

<sup>6</sup> However, Jehoshaphat asked, "Is there no prophet of the LORD here any longer, that we may inquire of him?"

<sup>7</sup> The king of Israel told Jehoshaphat: "There is still one man from whom we may inquire of the LORD, Micaiah the son of Imlah, but I myself hate him. For he never prophesies anything good concerning me but always evil."

Jehoshaphat replied, "The king should not say that!"

<sup>8</sup> Then the king of Israel summoned an officer and said, "Bring Micaiah, the son of Imlah, at once!"

<sup>9</sup> Both the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, were sitting on their thrones, dressed in their robes. They were sitting at the threshing floor at the entrance of the city-gate of Samaria, and all the prophets were prophesying before them. <sup>10</sup> Zedekiah, the son of Chenaanah, had made iron horns for himself. He said: "This is what the LORD has said: 'You will gore the Arameans with these until they are destroyed.'"

<sup>11</sup> All the other prophets were prophesying in this way, saying, "Go up to Ramoth-Gilead and be successful, that the LORD may put it in the hands of the king!"

<sup>12</sup> The messenger who had gone to summon Micaiah told him: "Please look here! The prophets are in full agreement in predicting success to the king. Please speak like one of them and speak favourably!"

<sup>13</sup> However, Micaiah said, "As surely as the LORD lives, I shall speak what my God says."

<sup>14</sup> When he had come to the king, the king asked him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-Gilead to fight or shall we refrain?"

He answered him, "Go up and be successful, that they may be delivered into your control!"

<sup>15</sup> However, the king asked him, "How many times must I personally make you swear that you will tell me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

<sup>16</sup> Micaiah answered: "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, like sheep without a shepherd. The LORD said, 'These people have no masters. Let each one return to his home in peace!'"

<sup>17</sup> The king of Israel told Jehoshaphat, "Did I not tell you that he would not prophesy anything good about me but evil?"

<sup>18</sup> Micaiah said: "Therefore, hear the Word of the LORD! I saw the LORD sitting on His throne, with all the host of heaven standing on His right hand and on His left. <sup>19</sup> The LORD asked, 'Who will deceive Ahab, the king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-Gilead?' One said one thing, and another said something else. <sup>20</sup> Then a spirit came forward and stood before the LORD and said, 'I shall deceive him.' The LORD asked him, 'What will you use to do it?' <sup>21</sup> The spirit said, 'I shall go out and be a lying spirit in the mouths of all His prophets.' He said, 'You will deceive him and be successful. Go out and do it!' <sup>22</sup> Now therefore, be aware! The LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouths of these prophets of yours. The LORD has also decreed calamity for you."

<sup>23</sup> Then Zedekiah, the son of Chenaanah, went closer, struck Micaiah on the cheek and asked, “Which way did the Spirit of the LORD go when He left me here to speak to you?”

<sup>24</sup> Micaiah replied, “Look! You will find out on the day when you go into an inner room to hide.”

<sup>25</sup> The king of Israel ordered: “Seize Micaiah and take him back to Amon, the governor of the city, and to Joash, the king’s son! <sup>26</sup> Say, ‘This is what the king has said: “Put this fellow in prison and feed him with scanty rations of bread and water until I return safely!””

<sup>27</sup> Micaiah said, “If you really do come back safely, the LORD has not spoken through me.” Then he added, “Pay attention to this, all you people!”

The death of Ahab, the king of Israel, in battle — 1 Kings 22:29-40

<sup>28</sup> So, the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-Gilead. <sup>29</sup> The king of Israel told Jehoshaphat: “I shall disguise myself when I go into battle. However, you should wear your robes!”

So, the king of Israel disguised himself when he went into battle. <sup>30</sup> The king of Aram had given orders to the captains of his chariots: “You shall not fight with anyone, small or great but only with the king of Israel!”

<sup>31</sup> When the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, they said, “Surely this is the king of Israel!”

They turned around to fight against Jehoshaphat. When he cried out, the LORD helped him. God lured them away from him. <sup>32</sup> When the captains of the chariots saw that he was not the king of Israel, they turned away and stopped pursuing him. <sup>33</sup> However, a certain man drew his bow without aiming and struck the king of Israel between the scales of his body-armor. The king told the driver of his chariot: “Turn around and carry me away from the battlefield! For I have been wounded.”

<sup>34</sup> The battle continued that day, while the king was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans, until the evening. Then at sunset he died.

19

<sup>1</sup> Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, returned safely to his palace in Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> However, Jehu the seer, the son of Hanani, went out to meet King Jehoshaphat and asked him: “Should you help the wicked person and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, wrath has come against you from the LORD.

<sup>3</sup> Nevertheless, some good things have been found in you. For you have rid the land of the Asherah-poles and have wholeheartedly dedicated your life to looking for God.”

The arrangement of the administration of Judah by King Jehoshaphat

<sup>4</sup> Jehoshaphat lived at Jerusalem. He went out again among the people, from Beer-Sheba to the hill-country of Ephraim and brought the people back to the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>5</sup> He appointed judges in the land in each and every fortified city of Judah. <sup>6</sup> He told the judges: “Consider what you are doing! For you are not judging for human beings but for the LORD. He is with you when you deliver a verdict. <sup>7</sup> Now therefore, may the fear of the LORD be on you! Be careful what you do! For the LORD, our God, is not unjust. He has no favourites and does not accept bribes.”

<sup>8</sup> In Jerusalem Jehoshaphat also appointed some of the Levites, priests and heads of paternal families of Israel, to deliver Decisions of the LORD and to decide disputed cases when they returned to Jerusalem. <sup>9</sup> He ordered them: “You shall do this in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and wholeheartedly! <sup>10</sup> Whenever a case comes to you from your fellow-Israelites who live in their cities, concerning bloodshed, matters of the Law or a Commandment, Prescriptions or other Decisions, then you shall warn them, that they may not become guilty before the LORD and that His wrath may not come on you and your fellow-Israelites! This is what you shall do! Then you will not become guilty. <sup>11</sup> Look! Amariah, the Chief Priest, will be in charge of you in any matter concerning the LORD. Zebadiah, the son of Ishmael, the governor of the family of Judah, will be in charge of any matter concerning the king. The Levites will also serve you as officers. Act courageously, and may the LORD be with the man who is upright!”

20

The invasion by Moabites and Ammonites during the reign of Jehoshaphat — 1 Kings 22:41-50

<sup>1</sup> After this, the Moabites, Ammonites and others with them besides the Ammonites came to fight against Jehoshaphat. <sup>2</sup> Some men came and told Jehoshaphat: “A vast army is coming against you from the other side of the sea, from Aram. You should know that they are at Hazazon-Tamar” (that is, En-Gedi). <sup>3</sup> Then Jehoshaphat was afraid and resolved to inquire of the LORD. He proclaimed a fast throughout Judah. <sup>4</sup> Judah assembled to ask for help from the LORD. Indeed, they came from all the cities of Judah to be intent on the LORD.

The prayer of Jehoshaphat and victory over the Ammonites and Moabites

<sup>5</sup> Jehoshaphat stood up in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the Temple of the LORD, in front of the new court. <sup>6</sup> He said: “LORD, God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven? You rule over all the kingdoms of the nations. Power and might are in Your hand, and there is no one who can withstand You. <sup>7</sup> O our God, did You not drive out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel and give it to the descendants of Your friend Abraham for ever? <sup>8</sup> They have been living in it and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your name, saying, <sup>9</sup> ‘If calamity comes on us, the sword, judgment, pestilence or famine, we shall stand before this Temple and before You, because Your name is in this Temple, that we may cry out to You in our affliction, that You may hear us and save us.’<sup>10</sup> Now therefore, here they are, the Ammonites, Moabites and the people of Mount Seir. You did not allow Israel to invade them when they came from the land of Egypt, but they turned away from them and did not destroy them.<sup>11</sup> See that they are repaying us by coming to drive us out of Your possession, which You have given to us to inherit!<sup>12</sup> O our God, will You not punish them? For we have no power to face this vast army, which is attacking us. We do not know what to do but are looking to You.”

<sup>13</sup> All the men of Judah, with their little ones, their wives and their children, were standing before the LORD.<sup>14</sup> Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Jahaziel, the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite, and one of the descendants of Asaph, while he was in the assembly.<sup>15</sup> He said: “Pay attention, all Judah, you who are living in Jerusalem and King Jehoshaphat! This is what the LORD has told you, ‘You yourselves, do not be afraid or dismayed because of this vast army! For the battle is not yours but God’s.’<sup>16</sup> Go down against them tomorrow! Look! They will be coming up by the ascent of Ziz. You will find them at the end of the gorge, which faces the wilderness of Jeruel.<sup>17</sup> You will not need to fight in this battle. Take up your positions, stand firm and watch, as the LORD, who is with you, saves you, O Judah and Jerusalem!’ Do not be afraid or dismayed! Go out against them tomorrow! The LORD will be with you.”

<sup>18</sup> Then Jehoshaphat bowed down with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the people who were living in Jerusalem fell before the LORD, to worship the LORD.<sup>19</sup> The Levites who were descended from Kohath and Korah stood up to praise the LORD, the God of Israel, very loudly.<sup>20</sup> They rose early in the morning and went out into the wilderness of Tekoa. When they were going out, Jehoshaphat stood up and said: “Listen to me, Judah and you people who are living in Jerusalem! Trust in the LORD, your God! Then you will be secure. Believe His prophets! Then you will be successful.”

<sup>21</sup> After he had consulted the army, he appointed men to sing to the LORD and to praise Him in His holy splendour while they were going out in front of the armed soldiers. They were saying: “Give thanks to the LORD! For His faithful love endures for ever.”

<sup>22</sup> When they began joyful music and praise, the LORD set ambushes against the Ammonites, the Moabites and the people of Mount Seir, who were invading Judah, so that they were defeated.<sup>23</sup> The Ammonites and Moabites attacked the men who lived in Mount Seir. They devoted them to destruction and annihilated them. When they had finished killing the inhabitants of Seir, they all helped to destroy one another.<sup>24</sup> When Judah came to the place that overlooks the wilderness and looked toward the vast army, they saw the dead bodies there lying on the ground. No one had escaped.<sup>25</sup> When Jehoshaphat and his army came to carry off their plunder, they found a great amount of equipment, corpses and valuable articles among them. They stripped off plunder for themselves until they could not carry any more. They kept stripping off plunder for three days, because there was so much of it.<sup>26</sup> On the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beracah. Because they blessed the LORD there, that place has been named “The Valley of Beracah” to this day.<sup>27</sup> Then, with Jehoshaphat leading them, all the men of Judah and Jerusalem joyfully returned to Jerusalem. For the LORD had brought them joy over their enemies.<sup>28</sup> They entered Jerusalem and went to the Temple of the LORD with harps, lyres and trumpets.<sup>29</sup> The fear of God came on all the kingdoms of the other countries when they heard that the LORD had fought against the enemies of Israel.<sup>30</sup> The kingdom of Jehoshaphat was at peace. His God had given him rest on every side.

The end of the reign of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah — 1 Kings 22:41-50

<sup>31</sup> Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah. He was thirty-five years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-five years. His mother’s name was Azubah, the daughter of Shilhi.<sup>32</sup> He lived in the way of his father Asa and did not turn away from it. He did what the LORD considered right.<sup>33</sup> However, the high places were not removed. The people had not yet set their hearts on the God of their fathers.<sup>34</sup> The rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, from the first to the last, have indeed been recorded in the annals of Jehu, the son of Hanani, which have been included in the Book of the Kings of Israel.<sup>35</sup> After this, Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, made an alliance with Ahaziah, the king of Israel, who acted wickedly.<sup>36</sup> He joined him in building ships to go to Tarshish. After they had built ships in Ezion-Geber,<sup>37</sup> Eliezer, the son of Dodavahu from Mareshah, prophesied against Jehoshaphat: “Because you have made an alliance with Ahaziah, the LORD will break down what you have made.”

The ships were wrecked and could not go to Tarshish.

21

<sup>1</sup> Jehoshaphat went to rest with his fathers and was buried with his fathers in the City of David, and his son Jehoram succeeded him as king.

The reign of Jehoram as king of Judah — 1 Kings 22:50, 2 Kings 8:16-19

<sup>2</sup> He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael and Shephatiah. All these were the sons of Jehoshaphat, the king of Israel.<sup>3</sup> Their father had given them many gifts of silver, gold and other precious things, together with fortified cities in Judah but had given the kingdom to Jehoram, because he was the first-born.<sup>4</sup> When Jehoram had assumed his father’s kingdom and established himself, he killed all his brothers with the sword and some of the other princes of Israel.

<sup>5</sup> Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king and reigned in Jerusalem for eight years. <sup>6</sup> He walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, as the family of Ahab had been doing, because he had married Ahab's daughter. He did what the LORD considered evil. <sup>7</sup> Nevertheless, the LORD was not willing to destroy the family of David, because of the Covenant that He had made with David, and since He had promised to give a lamp to him and to his descendants for ever.

The independence of Edom from Judah — 2 Kings 8:20-22

<sup>8</sup> In his days Edom rebelled against the control of Judah and set up a king of their own. <sup>9</sup> Jehoram went across there with his commanders and all his chariots. He rose up by night and struck down the Edomites who were surrounding him and his chariot-commanders. <sup>10</sup> However, Edom has been in rebellion against the control of Judah to this day. At that same time Libnah also rebelled against his control, because he had forsaken the LORD, the God of his fathers.

The letter from Elijah to Jehoram

<sup>11</sup> He had also made high places in the hill-country of Judah, had caused the people living in Jerusalem to be unfaithful and had driven Judah astray. <sup>12</sup> A letter came to him from the prophet Elijah: "This is what the LORD, the God of your father David has said: 'Because you have not been walking in the ways of your father Jehoshaphat or in the ways of Asa, the king of Judah, <sup>13</sup> but have been walking in the ways of the kings of Israel and have been leading Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem into prostitution, as the family of Ahab has been doing to people, and because you have also killed your brothers, your own father's family, who were better men than yourself, <sup>14</sup> look! The LORD is about to strike your people, your sons, your wives and all your property, with a heavy blow. <sup>15</sup> You yourself will be very ill with severe diseases in your intestines, until your intestines come out day after day because of the disease.'"

The consequences of Jehoram's unfaithfulness — 2 Kings 8:23-24

<sup>16</sup> The LORD aroused against Jehoram the hostility of the Philistines and of the Arabians who were near the Cushites. <sup>17</sup> They attacked Judah, stormed through it and carried off all the property that could be found in the king's palace as well as his sons and his wives. He had no son left to him except his youngest son Jehoahaz.*<sup>114</sup>

<sup>18</sup> After all this, the LORD struck him with an incurable disease in his intestines. <sup>19</sup> In the course of time, at the end of two years, his intestines came out because of his disease, and he died because of the serious illnesses. His people did not light any fire in his honour, as they had lit fires for his ancestors. <sup>20</sup> He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for eight years. No one felt regret when he passed away. They buried him in the City of David but not in the tombs of the kings.

22

The reign of King Ahaziah of Judah — 2 Kings 8:24b-29, 9:14-16

<sup>1</sup> The people who were living in Jerusalem made his youngest son Ahaziah king in his place. For the band of raiders that had come with the Arabians to the camp had killed all the elder sons. So, Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, began to reign.

<sup>2</sup> Ahaziah was forty-two years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for one year. His mother's name was Athaliah, the granddaughter of Omri. <sup>3</sup> Ahaziah also lived in the ways of the family of Ahab. For his mother gave him advice in doing wrong. <sup>4</sup> He did what the LORD considered evil, as the family of Ahab had been doing. For they were his advisers after the death of his father, so as to cause his destruction. <sup>5</sup> He even followed their advice and actually went with Jehoram, the son of Ahab, the king of Israel, to make war against Hazael, the king of Aram, at Ramoth-Gilead. The Arameans wounded Joram, <sup>6</sup> and he returned to recover in Jezreel from the wounds that he had received at Ramah, while he was fighting against Hazael, the king of Aram. Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, went down to visit Jehoram, the son of Ahab, in Jezreel, because he had been wounded.

The slaughter of King Jehoram and King Ahaziah by Jehu — 2 Kings 9:21-29

<sup>7</sup> God brought about the downfall of Ahaziah through his visit to Jehoram. When he arrived there, he went out with Jehoram to meet Jehu, the grandson of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to destroy the family of Ahab. <sup>8</sup> When Jehu was carrying out justice on the family of Ahab, he met the princes of Judah and the nephews of Ahaziah, who were attending Ahaziah and killed them. <sup>9</sup> He searched for Ahaziah, and they captured him while he was hiding in Samaria. They brought him to Jehu and put him to death. They buried him, for they said, "He was the grandson of Jehoshaphat, who was intent on the LORD with all his heart." Then the family of Ahaziah had no one who could rule the kingdom.

The usurpation of the throne of Judah by Athaliah — 2 Kings 11:1-8

<sup>10</sup> When Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she proceeded to destroy all the royal household of the family of Judah. <sup>11</sup> However, Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash, the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons, who were about to be put to death, and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. Because Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, who was the wife of the priest Jehoiada, was a sister of Ahaziah, she hid the child from Athaliah, so that Athaliah did not put him to death. <sup>12</sup> Joash remained in hiding with them in the Temple of God for six years while Athaliah was ruling over the land.

23

<sup>114</sup> Jehoahaz was also called Ahaziah. Both mean, "The Lord has seized."

The opposition to Athaliah by Jehoiada — 2 Kings 11:9-21

<sup>1</sup> However, in the seventh year Jehoiada reinforced himself and summoned the commanders of units of a hundred, Azariah, the son of Jeroham, Ishmael, the son of Jehohanan, Azariah, the son of Obed, Maaseiah, the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat, the son of Zichri. <sup>2</sup> They went around in Judah, gathered the Levites from all the cities of Judah and the heads of paternal families of Israel and then came to Jerusalem. <sup>3</sup> The whole assembly made a covenant with the king in the Temple of God. Jehoiada told them: "Look at the king's son! Let him reign, as the LORD promised concerning the sons of David!" <sup>4</sup> This is what you must do. One third of you priests and Levites who come on duty on the Sabbath shall be gatekeepers at the thresholds! <sup>5</sup> Another third shall be at the king's palace, and the other third at the Foundation Gate! All the people shall be in the courts of the Temple of the LORD! <sup>6</sup> No one should enter the Temple of the LORD except the priests and Levites who are ministering! They may enter, for they are holy. All the rest of the people shall observe their obligations to the LORD! <sup>7</sup> The Levites shall form a circle around the king! Everyone shall have his weapons in his hands! Whoever enters the Temple shall be put to death! Stay close to the king wherever he goes!"

The crowning of the young King Joash — 2 Kings 11:12

<sup>8</sup> The Levites and all Judah did exactly as the priest Jehoiada had commanded. Each one brought his men, who were to come on duty on the Sabbath, together with those who were about to go off duty on the Sabbath. For the priest Jehoiada had not dismissed any of the divisions. <sup>9</sup> The priest Jehoiada supplied the captains of units of a hundred with the spears, the large shields and small round shields that had belonged to King David, which were in the Temple of God. <sup>10</sup> He stationed all the troops around the king, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the Temple to the left side of the Temple, around the altar and the Temple. <sup>11</sup> Then they brought out the king's son and placed the crown on him. They gave him the Testimony and made him king. Then Jehoiada and his sons anointed him and said, "Long live the king!"

The death of Athaliah — 2 Kings 11:13-20

<sup>12</sup> When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and cheering the king, she went into the Temple of the LORD, where the people were. <sup>13</sup> When she looked, she saw the king standing beside his pillar at the entrance. The captains and the trumpeters were beside the king. All the people of the land were rejoicing and blowing trumpets. The singers with their musical instruments were expressing praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes and cried, "Treason! Treason!"

<sup>14</sup> Then the priest Jehoiada brought out the captains of units of a hundred who were in charge of the army. He told them: "Bring her outside between the ranks! Anyone who follows her shall be put to death with the sword!"

For the priest had said, "You shall not put her to death in the Temple of the LORD!"

<sup>15</sup> So, they arrested her when she went into the entrance of the royal palace at the Horse Gate and put her to death there.

The suppression of idolatry — 2 Kings 11:17-21

<sup>16</sup> Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, all the people and the king, that they would be the people of the LORD. <sup>17</sup> Then all the people went to the temple of Baal and tore it down. They broke his altars and his images in pieces and killed Mattan, the priest of Baal, in front of the altars. <sup>18</sup> Jehoiada assigned responsibility for the Temple of the LORD to the priests, who were descendants of Levi, and whom David had organised to be in charge of the Temple of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as Scripture has said in the Law of Moses, and with rejoicing and singing, as David had directed. <sup>19</sup> He stationed the gatekeepers at the gates of the Temple of the LORD to prevent anyone who was unclean in any way from entering. <sup>20</sup> He took the captains of units of a hundred, the nobles, the governors of the people and all the people of the land, and they brought the king down from the Temple of the LORD. They entered the king's palace through the Upper Gate and set the king on the throne of the kingdom. <sup>21</sup> All the people of the land were glad, and the city was at peace after they had put Athaliah to death with the sword.

24

The repairs to the Temple under Joash, the king of Judah - 2 Kings 11:21-12:16

<sup>1</sup> Joash was seven years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for forty years. His mother's name was Zibiah from Beer-Sheba. <sup>2</sup> Joash did what the LORD considered right while the priest Jehoiada was alive. <sup>3</sup> Jehoiada chose two wives for him, and he had sons and daughters.

The Repair of the Temple by Joash

<sup>4</sup> Afterwards, Joash planned to restore the Temple of the LORD. <sup>5</sup> He gathered the priests and the Levites and told them: "Go out to the cities of Judah and gather enough money every year from all Israel to repair the Temple of your God! See that you attend to the matter quickly yourselves!"

However, the Levites did not do it quickly. <sup>6</sup> So, the king summoned the Chief Priest Jehoiada and asked him: "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the tax for the tent of the Testimony levied by Moses, the servant of the LORD, and by the congregation of Israel?"

<sup>7</sup> For the sons of that wicked woman Athaliah had broken into the Temple of God and had also used all the holy things of the Temple of the LORD for the Baals. <sup>8</sup> The king gave a command, and they made a chest and placed it outside the gate of the Temple of the LORD. <sup>9</sup> People made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring in for the LORD the tax that Moses, the servant of God, had imposed on Israel in the wilderness. <sup>10</sup> All the princes and all the people gladly brought in the money and dropped it into the chest until they had finished. <sup>11</sup> Whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the Levites, when they saw that there was a large amount of money in it, the king's secretary and the officer of the Chief Priest used to come and empty out the chest. Then they took it away and returned it to its place. They did this day after day and collected a large amount of money. <sup>12</sup> The king and Jehoiada gave it to the men who were carrying out the work required for the Temple of the LORD. They used it to hire masons and carpenters to restore the Temple of the LORD and workers in iron and bronze to repair the Temple of the LORD. <sup>13</sup> Those who were engaged in the work laboured, and the repairs progressed under them. They restored the Temple of God according to its specifications and reinforced it. <sup>14</sup> When they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada and used it to make articles for the Temple of the LORD, articles for the service and for the burnt offerings, dishes and other articles of gold and silver. They used to sacrifice burnt offerings regularly in the Temple of the LORD all Jehoiada's life. <sup>15</sup> Jehoiada became old and full of days and died. He was a hundred and thirty years old when he died. <sup>16</sup> They buried him in the City of David among the kings, because of the good he had done in Israel and for God and His Temple.

The apostasy of Joash — 2 Kings 12:17-21

<sup>17</sup> After Jehoiada died, the officials of Judah came and bowed down before the king, and the king listened to them. <sup>18</sup> They forsook the Temple of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and worshipped the Asherah-poles and idols. God's anger came on Judah and Jerusalem because of this guilt of theirs. <sup>19</sup> However, He sent prophets among them to bring them back to the LORD. Although the prophets testified against them, they did not listen. <sup>20</sup> Then the Spirit of God took possession of Zechariah, the son of the priest Jehoiada. He stood before the people and told them: "This is what God has asked: 'Why are you transgressing the Commandments of the LORD? You will not prosper. Because you have forsaken the LORD, He has forsaken you.'"

<sup>21</sup> However, they plotted against Zechariah and, at the king's command, they stoned him to death in the court of the Temple of the LORD. <sup>22</sup> King Joash did not remember how kind Jehoiada, Zechariah's father, had been to him but killed his son. When he was dying, he said, "May the LORD see this and call it to account!"

The invasion of Judah by Arameans and the assassination of King Joash — 2 Kings 12:17-21

<sup>23</sup> When the year had passed, the army of the Arameans came up against Joash. They invaded Judah and Jerusalem, killed all the leading men among the people and sent all the plunder that they took from them to the king of Damascus. <sup>24</sup> Although the army of the Arameans had come with only a few men, the LORD delivered a very large army into their hands. Because Judah had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers, they carried out justice on Joash.

<sup>25</sup> When the Arameans withdrew from him, they left him suffering from many wounds. Then his servants plotted against him because of the murder of the sons of the priest Jehoiada and killed him on his bed. After he died, they buried him in the City of David. However, they did not bury him in the tombs of the kings.

<sup>26</sup> Those who conspired against him were Zabad, the son of the Ammonitess Shimeath, and Jehozabad, the son of Shimrith, a Moabite woman. <sup>27</sup> Records about his sons, about the many prophecies against him and about the rebuilding of the Temple of God have been written down in the Annotation on the Book of the Kings. His son Amaziah succeeded him as king.

25

The reign of Amaziah as king of Judah — 2 Kings 14:1-6

<sup>1</sup> Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother's name was Jehoaddan from Jerusalem. <sup>2</sup> He did what the LORD considered right but not with all his heart. <sup>3</sup> After the kingdom was firmly in his control, he killed his officials who had struck down his father, the king. <sup>4</sup> However, he did not put their children to death, as Scripture has said in the Law, in the Book of Moses, where the LORD commanded: "Fathers shall not die because of their children, and children shall not die because of their fathers! Rather, anyone shall die only for his own sin!"

The slaughter of the Edomites — 2 Kings 14:7

<sup>5</sup> Amaziah assembled the men of Judah and assigned them by paternal families under commanders of units of a thousand and units of a hundred for all Judah and Benjamin. He mustered those who were twenty years and older and found that there were three hundred thousand picked troops, fit for war, who could handle a spear and a shield. <sup>6</sup> He also hired one hundred thousand fighting men from Israel for three thousand, five hundred kilograms of silver. <sup>7</sup> However, a man of God came to him and said: "O king, the army of Israel must not go with you! For the LORD is not with Israel. He is not with any of the descendants of Ephraim.

<sup>8</sup> Nevertheless, go yourself, act and be strong for the battle! Otherwise God may overthrow you before the enemy. For God has the power to help or to overthrow."

<sup>9</sup> Amaziah asked the man of God, "What, then, shall we do about the three thousand, five hundred kilograms that I have given to the raiding band from Israel?"

The man of God answered, "The LORD can give you much more than this."

<sup>10</sup> Then Amaziah discharged the raiding band that had come to him from Ephraim so that they went back to their places. They became very angry with Judah and returned home in fierce anger.

<sup>11</sup> However, Amaziah took courage, led out his army, went to the Valley of Salt and struck down ten thousand men of Seir. <sup>12</sup> The men of Judah captured another ten thousand alive, took them to the top of a rock and threw them down from the top of the rock, so that they were all dashed to pieces. <sup>13</sup> However, the men of the raiding party that Amaziah had sent back without letting them go with him to battle raided the cities of Judah, from Samaria to Beth-Horon. They struck down three thousand of the people and carried off large quantities of plunder.

<sup>14</sup> After Amaziah had come back from striking down the Edomites, he brought the gods of the men of Seir, set them up as his own gods, worshipped before them and burnt offerings to them. <sup>15</sup> The anger of the LORD burned against Amaziah, and He sent a prophet to him, who asked him: "Why have you been trying to get advice from the gods of these people? They did not deliver their own people from your hands!"

<sup>16</sup> While he was speaking to him, the king asked him: "Have we made you a royal counsellor? Stop! Why should you be struck down?"

The prophet stopped but said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my advice."

The defeat of Judah by Israel — 2 Kings 14:8-14

<sup>17</sup> After Amaziah, the king of Judah, had taken other advice, he sent a message to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, the king of Israel: "Come! Let us meet face to face!"

<sup>18</sup> Joash, the king of Israel, sent a reply to Amaziah, the king of Judah: "A thorn-bush in Lebanon sent a message to a cedar on Lebanon: 'Give your daughter to my son for a wife!' but a wild animal in Lebanon came along and trampled down the thorn-bush. <sup>19</sup> You have said: 'Look! I have struck down Edom,' and your heart has lifted you up and made you boastful. Now stay at home! Why should you provoke calamity for yourself so that you fall and so that Judah falls with you?"

<sup>20</sup> However, Amaziah would not listen. For God had made this happen, that He might deliver them into the hands of their enemies, because they had been trying to get advice from the gods of Edom. <sup>21</sup> So, Joash, the king of Israel, attacked, and he and Amaziah, the king of Judah, faced one another in battle at Beth-Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. <sup>22</sup> Israel defeated Judah, and every man fled to his home. <sup>23</sup> Joash, the king of Israel, seized Amaziah, the king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, at Beth-Shemesh. Then Joash brought him to Jerusalem and broke down two hundred metres of the wall of Jerusalem, from the Ephraim Gate to the Corner Gate. <sup>24</sup> He seized all the gold and silver and all the vessels that he found in the Temple of God in the care of Obed-Edom. He also seized the treasures in the king's palace. He also took hostages and then returned to Samaria.

The death of King Amaziah of Judah — 2 Kings 14:17-20

<sup>25</sup> Amaziah, the son of Joash, the king of Judah, lived for fifteen years after Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel, died. <sup>26</sup> As for the rest of the deeds of Amaziah, from the first to the last, have they not been recorded in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel?

<sup>27</sup> After the time when Amaziah turned away from the LORD, some men made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to Lachish. However, they sent to Lachish after him and put him to death there.

<sup>28</sup> People brought him back on horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of David.

26

The reign of Uzziah (also called Azariah) as king of Judah — 2 Kings 14:21-22, 15:1-3

<sup>1</sup> Then all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king to succeed his father Amaziah. <sup>2</sup> He was the one who rebuilt Elath and restored it to Judah, after the previous king had gone to rest with his fathers. <sup>3</sup> Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign and reigned for fifty-two years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Jecoliah from Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> He did what the LORD considered right, exactly as his father Amaziah had been doing. <sup>5</sup> He used to try to obtain advice from God in the days of Zechariah, who imparted insight about seeing visions of God. While he was looking to the LORD for advice God gave him success. <sup>6</sup> He went out, made war against the Philistines and broke through the walls of Gath, Jabneh and Ashdod. He built cities near Ashdod and elsewhere among the Philistines. <sup>7</sup> God helped him against the Philistines, against the Arabians who lived in Gur-Baal and against the Meunites. <sup>8</sup> The Ammonites paid tribute to Uzziah, and his fame spread as far as the border of Egypt, because he had become very powerful. <sup>9</sup> Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the Corner Gate, at the Valley Gate and at the Angle and fortified them.

<sup>10</sup> He built towers in the wilderness and dug out many cisterns. For he had much livestock, both in the foothills and on the plain. He also had farmers and vineyard workers in the hills and in the fertile lands, for he loved the soil. <sup>11</sup> Uzziah also had an army of soldiers, whose divisions went out to war according to the numbers mustered by the secretary, Jeiel, and Maaseiah, the officer. Hananiah, one of the king's officials, commanded them. <sup>12</sup> The total number of the leaders of paternal families over the fighting men was two thousand, six hundred. <sup>13</sup> They had under their command an army of three hundred and seven thousand, five hundred men, who could wage war as a powerful force to support the king against the enemy.

<sup>14</sup> Uzziah provided shields, spears, helmets, coats of armour, bows and sling-stones for the entire army.

<sup>15</sup> In Jerusalem he made defensive siege-machines, designed by skilful men, to be on the towers and the corners, to shoot arrows and hurl large stones. His fame spread widely, for he was supported wonderfully until he became powerful.

The pride of King Uzziah and his punishment with a skin-disease — 2 Kings 15:4-7

<sup>16</sup> However, after Uzziah became powerful, he became proud, and his pride ruined him. He was unfaithful to the LORD, his God and entered the Temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense.

<sup>17</sup> The priest Azariah with eighty other courageous priests of the LORD went in after him. <sup>18</sup> They confronted King Uzziah and told him: “You, Uzziah, are not authorised to burn incense to the LORD. Rather, that is for the priests descended from Aaron, who have been consecrated to burn incense. Leave the sanctuary! For you have acted unfaithfully. This will bring you no honour from the LORD God.”

<sup>19</sup> Then Uzziah became angry. While he had a censer in his hand to burn incense and was angry with the priests, an infectious skin-disease broke out on his forehead in the presence of the priests beside the altar of incense in the Temple of the LORD. <sup>20</sup> When the Chief Priest, Azariah, and all the priests looked at him, they saw that he was infected with a skin-disease on his forehead! They hurried him out. He himself wanted to get out quickly, because the LORD had afflicted him.

<sup>21</sup> King Uzziah had an infectious skin-disease until the day he died. He lived in an isolated house as a person with an infectious skin-disease. He was, indeed, excluded from the Temple of the LORD. His son Jotham was in charge of the king’s palace and governed the people of the land. <sup>22</sup> The prophet Isaiah, the son of Amoz, has recorded the rest of the acts of Uzziah, from the first to the last. <sup>23</sup> Uzziah went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in a cemetery that belonged to the kings. For people said, “He was infected with a skin-disease.”

His son Jotham succeeded him as king.

27

The reign of Jotham as king of Judah — 2 Kings 15:32-38

<sup>1</sup> Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. His mother’s name was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

<sup>2</sup> He did what the LORD considered right, exactly as his father Uzziah had been doing, except that he did not enter the Temple of the LORD. However, the people still followed corrupt practices. <sup>3</sup> He rebuilt the Upper Gate of the Temple of the LORD and built extensively on the wall at Ophel. <sup>4</sup> He also built cities in the hill-country of Judah and forts and towers in the forest areas. <sup>5</sup> He fought with the king of the Ammonites and conquered them. That year the Ammonites gave him three thousand, five hundred kilograms of silver, two hundred and seventy-eight tonnes of wheat and two hundred and seventy-eight tonnes of barley.

The Ammonites brought him the same amount in the second and the third years. <sup>6</sup> Jotham became powerful, because he established his ways before the LORD, his God. <sup>7</sup> The rest of the acts of Jotham, all his wars and his ways, have indeed been recorded in the Book of the Kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>8</sup> He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. <sup>9</sup> Jotham went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. His son Ahaz succeeded him as king.

28

The reign of Ahaz as king of Judah — 2 Kings 16:1-4

<sup>1</sup> Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign and reigned in Jerusalem for sixteen years. He did not do what the LORD considered right, as his father David had done. <sup>2</sup> He lived in the ways of the kings of Israel. He even made metal images for the Baals. <sup>3</sup> He burned sacrifices in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom and burned his own sons in the fire, copying the detestable practices of the nations that the LORD had driven out ahead of the Israelites. <sup>4</sup> He sacrificed and burnt offerings on the high places, on the hills and under every leafy tree.

The defeat of Judah by Aram and Israel — 2 Kings 16:5-6, Isaiah 7:1

<sup>5</sup> Therefore, the LORD, his God, handed him over to the king of Aram, who defeated him, took many of his people captive and brought them to Damascus. He also handed him over to the king of Israel, who defeated him with heavy casualties. <sup>6</sup> Pekah, the son of Remaliah, killed one hundred and twenty thousand men in Judah in one day, all of them brave soldiers, because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>7</sup> Zichri, a warrior from Ephraim, killed Maaseiah, the king’s son, Azrikam, who was the officer in charge of the palace, and Elkanah, the next in authority to the king.

The intervention of the prophet Oded on behalf of Judah

<sup>8</sup> The Israelites took captive two hundred thousand of their relatives, women, sons and daughters. They also took a great deal of plunder from them and carried the plunder back to Samaria. <sup>9</sup> However, a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded. He went out to meet the army that was entering Samaria and told them: “Look! Because the LORD, the God of your fathers, has been angry with Judah, He has given them into your hands. However, you have killed them in a rage that has reached up to heaven. <sup>10</sup> Now you intend to subjugate the people of Judah and Jerusalem as your male and female slaves. However, are not you yourselves guilty, together with them, of sins against the LORD, your God? <sup>11</sup> Now therefore, listen to me and send back the captives whom you have taken from your fellow-Israelites! For the LORD is fiercely angry with you.”

<sup>12</sup> Then some of the leaders of the men of Ephraim, Azariah, the son of Johanan, Berechiah, the son of Meshillemoth, Jehizkiah, the son of Shallum, and

Amasa, the son of Hadlai, also confronted those who were arriving back from the war. <sup>13</sup> They told them: “You shall not bring the captives in here! For you intend to make us guilty of this wrong against the LORD to add to our sins and guilt. For our guilt is already great, and He is fiercely angry with Israel.”

<sup>14</sup> So, the armed men left the captives and the plunder in front of the princes and the whole assembly. <sup>15</sup> The men who have been mentioned by name began to act, took the captives and used the plunder to clothe all who were naked among them. They clothed them, gave them sandals, provided them with food and drink and put lotions on them. They transported on donkeys all those among them who were staggering and brought them back to their own people at Jericho, the city of palm-trees. Then they returned to Samaria.

A series of defeats for Judah under King Ahaz — 2 Kings 16:7-9

<sup>16</sup> At that time King Ahaz sent to the king of Assyria to help him. <sup>17</sup> For the Edomites had invaded Judah again, defeated them and carried people away as captives. <sup>18</sup> The Philistines had also been making raids on the cities in the foothills and the Negev of Judah. They had captured Beth-Shemesh, Aijalon, Gederoth and Soco with its villages, Timnah with its villages and Gimzo with its villages and had settled in them. <sup>19</sup> For the LORD had humbled Judah because of Ahaz, the king of Israel. For he had been promoting wickedness in Judah and had been very unfaithful to the LORD. <sup>20</sup> Tillegath-Pilneser, the king of Assyria, came against him and gave him trouble instead of help. <sup>21</sup> For, although Ahaz had taken some of the things from the Temple of the LORD, from the royal palace and from the princes and had given them to the king of Assyria, it did not help him.

The apostasy and death of Ahaz, the king of Judah — 2 Kings 16:12-20

<sup>22</sup> In his time of trouble, this King Ahaz became even more unfaithful to the LORD. <sup>23</sup> He sacrificed to the gods of Damascus that had defeated him. He thought: “Because the gods of the kings of Aram have been helping them, I shall sacrifice to them, that they may help me.”

However, they caused his downfall and the downfall of all Israel. <sup>24</sup> Ahaz gathered together the articles from the Temple of God, removed these articles from the Temple of God, closed the doors of the Temple of the LORD and made altars for himself at every corner in Jerusalem. <sup>25</sup> He made high places in every single city of Judah to burn offerings to other gods and so he provoked the LORD, the God of his fathers, to anger. <sup>26</sup> The rest of his acts and all his ways, from the first to the last, have indeed been recorded in the Book of the Kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>27</sup> Ahaz went to rest with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem. Indeed, they did not take him into the burial places of the kings of Israel. His son Hezekiah succeeded him as king.

The reign of Hezekiah as king of Judah — 2 Kings 18:1-3

<sup>1</sup> Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old and reigned in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years. His mother’s name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. <sup>2</sup> He did what the LORD considered right, exactly as his forefather David had done.

The cleansing and rededication of the Temple by Hezekiah

<sup>3</sup> In the first month of the first year of his reign, he opened the doors of the Temple of the LORD and repaired them. <sup>4</sup> He brought in the priests and the Levites and assembled them in the square on the eastern side. <sup>5</sup> He told them: “Listen to me, Levites! Consecrate yourselves now! Consecrate the Temple of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and remove all the defilement from the Holy Place! <sup>6</sup> For our fathers have been unfaithful and have been doing what the LORD, our God, has considered evil. They have been forsaking Him, have been turning their faces away from the dwelling place of the LORD and have been turning their backs to Him. <sup>7</sup> They have even shut the doors of the porch and snuffed out the lamps. They have not been burning incense or sacrificing burnt offerings to the God of Israel in the Holy Place. <sup>8</sup> That is why the wrath of the LORD has come on Judah and Jerusalem, and He has made them an object of horror, of desolation and of derision, as you see with your own eyes. <sup>9</sup> You see that our fathers have fallen by the sword and our sons, our daughters and our wives are in captivity because of this. <sup>10</sup> Now I intend to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, that He may stop being fiercely angry with us. <sup>11</sup> My sons, do not be negligent now! For the LORD has chosen you to stand before Him, to minister to Him, to be His ministers and to burn offerings.”

<sup>12</sup> Then the Levites acted. The descendants of Kohath were Mahath, the son of Amasai, and Joel, the son of Azariah. The descendants of Merari were Kish, the son of Abdi, and Azariah, the son of Jehallelel. The descendants of Gershon were Joah, the son of Zimamah, and Eden, the son of Joah. <sup>13</sup> The descendants of Elizaphan were Shimri and Jeuel. The descendants of Asaph were Zechariah and Mattaniah. <sup>14</sup> The descendants of Heman were Jehiel and Shimei, and the descendants of Jeduthun were Shemaiah and Uzziel. <sup>15</sup> They gathered their relatives, consecrated themselves and went in to cleanse the Temple of the LORD, as the king had commanded, in accordance with the Words of the LORD. <sup>16</sup> The priests went into the inner part of the Temple of the LORD to cleanse it and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the Temple of the LORD into the court of the Temple of the LORD. Then the Levites took it and carried it out to the Kidron Valley. <sup>17</sup> They began to consecrate on the first day of the first month and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of the LORD. Then for eight more days they consecrated the Temple of the LORD and finished on the sixteenth day of the first month. <sup>18</sup> Then they went in to King

Hezekiah and said: “We have cleansed all the Temple of the LORD, the altar of burnt offering, all its utensils and the table for setting out the consecrated bread, with all its utensils. <sup>19</sup> We have prepared and consecrated all the utensils that King Ahaz unfaithfully discarded during his reign, and there they are in front of the altar of the LORD.”

The restoration of Temple-worship under Hezekiah

<sup>20</sup> Early the next morning King Hezekiah gathered the leaders of the city and went up to the Temple of the LORD. <sup>21</sup> They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven lambs and seven male goats for a sin-offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary and for Judah. The king commanded the priests, who were descendants from Aaron, to offer them for the altar of the LORD.

<sup>22</sup> So, they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests received the blood and poured it out against the altar. Then they slaughtered the rams and poured out their blood against the altar. Then they slaughtered the lambs and poured out their blood against the altar.

<sup>23</sup> Then they brought the male goats for the sin-offering before the king and the assembly and laid their hands on them. <sup>24</sup> The priests slaughtered them and made a sin-offering with their blood for the altar, to make atonement for all Israel. For the king had commanded that the burnt offering and the sin-offering should be made for all Israel. <sup>25</sup> He stationed the Levites in the Temple of the LORD with cymbals, harps and lyres, as David, Gad, the king’s seer, and the prophet Nathan had prescribed. For the LORD had commanded this through His prophets. <sup>26</sup> The Levites stood with the instruments of David and the priests with the trumpets. <sup>27</sup> Then Hezekiah commanded that the burnt offering should be sacrificed for the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song to the LORD, also began, accompanied by the trumpets and the instruments of David, the king of Israel. <sup>28</sup> The whole assembly bowed in worship, while the singers sang and the trumpeters played. All this continued until the burnt offering was completed. <sup>29</sup> When the offerings were completed, the king and all who were present with him knelt and worshipped. <sup>30</sup> Then King Hezekiah and the leaders told the Levites to sing praises to the LORD, using the Words of David and of the seer Asaph. They joyfully sang praises, bowed down and worshipped. <sup>31</sup> Then Hezekiah said: “You have now consecrated yourselves to the LORD. Come closer and bring sacrifices and thank offerings for the Temple of the LORD!”

The assembly brought sacrifices and thank offerings, and all whose hearts were willing brought burnt offerings. <sup>32</sup> The number of the burnt offerings that the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams and two hundred lambs. All these were used as a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>33</sup> The consecrated animals were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep. <sup>34</sup> However, there were too few priests and they could not skin all the burnt offerings. So, until other priests had consecrated themselves, their relatives, the Levites, helped them, until the work was finished. For the Levites had been more diligent in consecrating themselves than the priests had been. <sup>35</sup> Besides the great number of burnt offerings, there was the fat of the peace-offerings and there were the drink offerings for the burnt offerings. So, the service in the Temple of the LORD was restored. <sup>36</sup> Hezekiah and all the people rejoiced because of what God had brought about for the people. For the event took place suddenly.

30

The celebration of the Passover at the time of Hezekiah

<sup>1</sup> Hezekiah sent messages to all Israel and Judah and wrote letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, inviting them to come to the Temple of the LORD at Jerusalem to keep the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>2</sup> The king, his officials and the whole assembly in Jerusalem had decided to celebrate the Passover in the second month. <sup>3</sup> For they could not observe it at the regular time, because not enough priests had consecrated themselves, and the people had not assembled in Jerusalem. <sup>4</sup> The king and the whole congregation considered that what they planned was right. <sup>5</sup> So, they decided to make a proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-Sheba to Dan, that the people should come and celebrate the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem. For they had not been celebrating it in large numbers, as Scripture had prescribed. <sup>6</sup> Couriers went all through Israel and Judah with letters from the king and his officials, as the king had commanded. They said: “People of Israel, return to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, that He may return to the remnant of you, who have escaped from the hands of the kings of Assyria! <sup>7</sup> Do not be like your fathers and your relatives, who have been unfaithful to the LORD, the God of their fathers, so that He has made them an object of horror, as you see! <sup>8</sup> Do not be stubborn now as your fathers have been! Submit to the LORD and come to His sanctuary, which He has consecrated for ever, and serve the LORD, your God, that He may stop being fiercely angry with you! <sup>9</sup> For when you return to the LORD, those who have captured your relatives and your children will be compassionate to them, so that they will return to this land. For the LORD, your God, is gracious and merciful and will not turn away His face from you if you return to Him.”

<sup>10</sup> The couriers kept going from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, as far as Zebulun. However, the people scorned and ridiculed them.

<sup>11</sup> Nevertheless, some men from Asher, Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.

<sup>12</sup> The hand of God was also on Judah, so that He made them single-minded about doing what the king and the officials had commanded according to the Word of the LORD. <sup>13</sup> Many people gathered in a very great assembly at Jerusalem to celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread in the second month. <sup>14</sup> Then the people acted and removed the altars that were in Jerusalem. They also removed all the altars for burning incense and threw them into the Kidron Valley. <sup>15</sup> They slaughtered the Passover lamb on the fourteenth day of the second month. The priests and the Levites were put to shame, so that they consecrated themselves. Then they brought burnt offerings to the Temple of the LORD. <sup>16</sup> They took their regular positions as the Law of Moses, the man of God, had arranged for them. The priests poured out the blood that they received from the hands of the Levites. <sup>17</sup> For there were many in the assembly who had not consecrated themselves. So, the Levites had to kill the Passover lambs for everyone who was not ceremonially clean, to consecrate them to the LORD. <sup>18</sup> For, although a majority of the people, many of them from Ephraim, Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, they ate the Passover differently from what had been prescribed. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying: “May the LORD, who is good, make an atonement for everyone <sup>19</sup> who has set his heart on looking for God, the LORD, the God of his fathers, even though not according to the rules of the Holy Place for ceremonial cleanness.” <sup>20</sup> The LORD heard Hezekiah and healed the people. <sup>21</sup> The Israelites who were present at Jerusalem celebrated the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days with great rejoicing, and the Levites and the priests kept praising the LORD day by day, singing to the LORD to the accompaniment of loud instruments. <sup>22</sup> Hezekiah spoke encouragingly to all the Levites who had shown good insight in the service of the LORD. They ate the food of the festival for the seven days, sacrificing peace-offerings and making confession to the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>23</sup> Then the whole assembly agreed to celebrate the feast for another seven days. So, they celebrated it joyfully for another seven days. <sup>24</sup> For Hezekiah, the king of Judah, had provided the assembly with one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep as offerings, and the officials had provided the assembly one thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep as offerings. A large number of priests consecrated themselves. <sup>25</sup> The whole assembly of Judah rejoiced, together with the priests, the Levites, the whole assembly that had come out of Israel, the resident-foreigners who had come out of the land of Israel and the foreigners who were living in Judah. <sup>26</sup> There was great joy in Jerusalem. For there had been nothing like this in Jerusalem since the time of Solomon, the son of David, the king of Israel. <sup>27</sup> Then the priests, who were descendants from Levi, arose and blessed the people. God heard their voice, and their prayer came to His holy dwelling place in heaven.

31

The destruction of pagan shrines at the time of Hezekiah, the king of Judah — 2 Kings 18:4

<sup>1</sup> When all this had been finished, all the Israelites who were present went out to the cities of Judah, broke in pieces the stone pillars, cut down the Asherah-poles and broke down the high places and the altars throughout Judah, Benjamin, Ephraim and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the Israelites returned to their cities, every man to his own property.

The contributions for worship at Jerusalem — 2 Kings 18:5-7

<sup>2</sup> Hezekiah assigned the priests and the Levites to their separate divisions. Each priest and Levite was put in a division according to the service that he had to do: to sacrifice burnt offerings and peace-offerings, to minister, to give thanks and to sing praises inside the gates of the camp of the LORD. <sup>3</sup> The king contributed from his own possessions for the burnt offerings: the burnt offerings in the mornings and evenings and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, the New Moons and the appointed feasts, as Scripture had said in the Law of the LORD. <sup>4</sup> He also commanded the people who were living in Jerusalem to give the portion due to the priests and the Levites, that they might be earnestly committed to the Law of the LORD. <sup>5</sup> As soon as the king’s command spread around, the Israelites brought plenty of the first-fruits of grain, wine, fresh olive-oil, honey and all other produce of the field. They brought in the tithe of everything in large quantities. <sup>6</sup> The people of Israel and Judah who were living in the cities of Judah also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep and the tithe of the holy things that had been dedicated to the LORD, their God, and piled them in heaps. <sup>7</sup> In the third month they began to put the heaps in place and finished in the seventh month. <sup>8</sup> When Hezekiah and the officials came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD and His people Israel. <sup>9</sup> Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites about the heaps. <sup>10</sup> The Chief Priest, Azariah, who belonged to the family of Zadok, answered him: “Since they began to bring the contributions into the Temple of the LORD, we have had enough to eat and have plenty left over. For the LORD has been blessing His people, and this great amount is what is left over.”

The reorganisation of the priests and Levites under Hezekiah

